"You think it's Yuan? But why would he suddenly show up in the sect and leave without saying anything?" Elder Shan said.

"That's what I am trying to figure out as well. However, besides him, I cannot think of another young Spirit Grandmaster." Elder Xuan shrugged.

"I just hope his appearance isn't something ominous. We've been targeted a lot recently because of what happened at the Mystic Realm." Long Yijun sighed.

It was at this moment Elder Xuan noticed his communication jade slip trembling.

Upon answering it, Elder Xuan could hear Yuan's voice resound inside his head.

"Senior Xuan, I am heading to the Dragon Essence Temple right now."

"Y-Yuan? Did something happen?" Elder Xuan asked him in a slightly dazed voice.

"Did you just say Yuan?" Everybody there turned to look at Elder Xuan with wide eyes.

"Yes, and he said that he's currently on his way here."

"Really? Did he say why?" Long Yijun asked.

"No, but I will ask him right now."

"Is there a specific reason why you're returning now?" Elder Xuan asked Yuan.

"Not really. I will be challenging the Stairway to Heaven soon, and I wanted to visit the Dragon Essence Temple one last time and personally say goodbye."

"The Stairway to Heaven?!" Elder Xuan exclaimed in a shocked voice.

After all, it hasn't been long since Yuan left their sect! A few months at most!

"Anyways, I am almost there, so I will talk to you again when I am there," Yuan said before hanging up.

Elder Xuan then told the others what Yuan had said to him.

"What? He's climbing the Stairway to Heaven already?" Elder Shan mumbled in a dumbfounded voice.

"He's truly in a league of his own." Long Yijun said.

"He's a Spirit Grandmaster, right? That's when people usually challenge the Stairway to Heaven, so I guess it's not that surprising."

"Cancel all of my plans and appointment today. I have an important guest that requires company." Long Yijun said a moment later.

Sometime later, Yuan and the others arrived at the Dragon Essence Temple.

"I missed this place..." Yuan mumbled to himself as he gazed upon the entire sect from the sky.

Once he had enough of the view, Yuan proceeded to make his way towards the Sect Master's headquarters.

"Welcome back, Yuan..." Long Yijun and the other sect elders greeted him with broad smiles on their faces.

Chapter 631 - Fei Yuyans Decision

Chapter 631 - Fei Yuyan's Decision

"Hello, everyone. It's been a while." Yuan greeted Long Yijun and the other sect elders.

"It's only been a few months. This amount of time is nothing in the cultivation world." Elder Xuan said with a smile on his face.

"Madam Feng... Seniors... Welcome to the Dragon Essence Temple." Long Yijun then greeted Feng Yuxiang and the others.

"I heard you're going to challenge the Stairway to Heaven soon, is that right? You grow up so quickly." Elder Shan approached him until she was standing directly behind him.

She then wrapped her arms around him and embraced him in a playful manner.

"I swear it wasn't long ago that you were a Spirit Warrior. Your talents are screwing with my sense of time," she sighed.

Although the others would normally call out her shamelessness, the sect elders remained silent this time.

Once she had enough, Elder Shan released Yuan and asked him, "Are you going to challenge the Stairway to Heaven right after leaving this place?"

"I still have one place to visit after this, but once that is done, I will challenge the stairway," he said.

"How long do you plan on staying here?" Elder Xuan asked him.

"I probably won't stay too long since I only have to pick up someone before I am ready to leave."

"Who are you picking up?" Long Yijun raised his brows.

"Min Li," he calmly said.

"Eh? Min Li from the Min Family? Why are you picking her up?" Long Yijun continued to ask.

"I am going to bring her with me to the Stairway to Heaven," he responded.

"What?! She's also going to challenge the Stairway to Heaven?!" The people there were surprised to learn this information.

"But she's only a Spirit Warrior! There's no way she'll succeed!"

Yuan waved his hand and said, "That's not it. I will be helping her climb the stairway, so she doesn't actually have to climb it herself."

Everyone there stared at him with wide eyes.

Long Yijun then spoke with a frown on his face, "Yuan... You are aware that by helping her, it will make your climb much more difficult, right?"

"Yes, I am well aware of it."

"And you're still willing to help her? You're really too kind, Yuan..." Elder Xuan said with a warm smile on his face.

"Hm? But wait a moment... Min Li from the Min Family had to return to her family's headquarters for some reason, so she's not in the sect at this moment." Elder Bai suddenly said.

"What? When did this happen?" Long Yijun asked, as he was not aware of this information.

"Last week. I saw it in the reports, but I didn't think it was worth mentioning to you, so I didn't say anything. After all, people from the Legacy Families are always going back and forth, so this isn't anything unusual."

"Min Li is not at the sect? Do you know when she will return?" Yuan then asked.

"Unfortunately, she didn't leave behind any additional notes, so we don't know when she'll return."

"Hmm... How far away is the Min Family? I think it would be quicker if I go there instead."

"The Min Family isn't that far away. In fact, you can get to that place in just a few hours if you use teleport formations." Elder Xuan said.

"Sounds good. I will visit her after I say goodbye to a few disciples." Yuan nodded.

"By disciples, do you mean my disciple, Fei Yuyan?" Elder Shan asked.

"Yes. I hope she's not busy."

"She's usually training at this time, but I'm sure that she wouldn't mind your presence for a bit. I will take you to her right now if you want."

"Sure."

After talking with the others for a bit longer, Yuan followed Elder Shan to the Blossom Peak, where Fei Yuyan was training with the other disciples.

"Yuyan! You have a visitor!"

"A visitor?" Fei Yuyan turned around after hearing Elder Shan's voice.

"Eh...? Y-Yuan...? Is that really you?" Fei Yuyan doubted her eyes for a moment when she saw him.

"Yes, it's me. I have come to visit you... and to say goodbye." Yuan said as he approached her.

"Goodbye?" Fei Yuyan frowned slightly.

"I will be challenging the Stairway to Heaven soon. If I succeed, I will no longer be in the Lower Heavens," he said.

"Oh, right... You did say that before you left the sect. Well... Good luck. Though I'm sure you'll succeed with ease."

Although she wanted to say more to him, she wasn't sure what else to say to him, as his sudden appearance had baffled her speechless.

"Disciple Fei, do you remember what we talked about before I left?" Yuan suddenly asked her.

"What we talked about?" Fei Yuyan began pondering.

"Are you going to ask me if I want to follow you to the upper heavens?" Fei Yuyan said after a long moment of silence.

"That's right. If you want to go to the upper heavens, I can help you. Have you thought about it after I left?" Yuan nodded.

"Of course, I have thought about it." Fei Yuyan nodded.

"Then can you tell me your decision?"

Fei Yuyan looked at Yuan straight in the eyes for a few seconds before speaking, "Unlike Disciple Min, I do not have any big ambitions. I am satisfied with what I have right now, and even if I receive your help to reach the upper heavens, I won't truly feel like I belong there."

She paused for a moment to take a deep breath before continuing, "Therefore, I will have to decline your offer."

"I understand." Yuan nodded.

"Wait..." Fei Yuyan suddenly began blushing, and she spoke a moment later, "It's not that I don't want to follow you. In fact, I want to follow you to the upper heavens and spend more time with you, but I don't want to be a burden."

"Burden? You are not—"

"Don't." Fei Yuyan suddenly interrupted.

"Don't tell me that I am not a burden. It will only make me feel worse. Please..."

"..."

Seeing the painful smile on Fei Yuyan's face, Yuan decided to not continue his sentence and merely nodded in silence.

Chapter 632 - Going To The Min Family

"Hey, Yuan, before you leave, can we play the zither again for a bit?" Fei Yuyan suddenly asked him after a moment of awkward silence.

"Of course." He immediately agreed.

"Let's do it at my backyard like we used to."

"Okay."

Fei Yuyan turned to look at Elder Shan and said, "I'm sorry, Master, but I will end my training early today."

"Do as you please." Elder Shan nodded.

Yuan then followed Fei Yuyan back to her living quarters.

Once they were in the backyard, they sat down beside each other with their zither out.

"The Soul Ensnaring Zither? What happened to the Divine-grade zither you obtained at the competition?" Fei Yuyan asked him.

"Oh, that thing? I sold it." Yuan casually said.

"Y-You sold a Divine-grade treasure...?" Fei Yuyan's eyes widened with disbelief.

"I didn't need it since I already have the Soul Ensnaring Zither, and I needed the money back then." Yuan shrugged.

"But the Soul Ensnaring Zither isn't really a treasure..."

"While that is true, it still performs the same if not a little better than the Divine-grade zither."

"In the end, it's not like I will be using it as a weapon, so it really doesn't matter to me."

"I guess so..."

"Anyways, which song should we play first?" Yuan then asked.

"I am fine with any song."

"Then why don't we play the songs that we played during our practice session before the zither competition?" Yuan suggested.

"Sure." Fei Yuyan nodded.

A few moments later, they began playing the zither together, and they would spend the next few hours playing without any breaks.

At the end of their duet, Fei Yuyan stood up and bowed to him, "Thank you for playing with me."

"There's no need to thank me. We're partners, remember?" Yuan said with a smile on his face.

"Partners..." Although Fei Yuyan knew that Yuan was only talking about their partnership for the zither competition, it still made her incredibly happy to hear such words coming from him.

"Are you going to leave now?" She then asked him.

"Not yet. I still have to visit Xuan Wuhan before I can leave."

"I understand. Once again, good luck with the Stairway to Heaven, Yuan."

"Thank you."

After saying their goodbyes to each other, Yuan made his way to Xuan Wuhan's living quarters.

"Hm?" Yuan noticed a figure standing outside Xuan Wuhan's living quarter when he approached it, and it turned out to be Xuan Wuhan herself.

"Yuan!" Xuan Wuhan immediately called out to him when she noticed his figure.

"Hello. Are you waiting for somebody?"

"Yes— you! I heard from my grandfather that you have returned to the sect, and I figured that you might visit me, so I have been waiting for you since then." Xuan Wuhan said with a bright smile on her face.

"Waiting for me? What if I didn't show up?" Yuan chuckled.

"Then I would have chased you down!"

After laughing a bit, Xuan Wuhan said, "Even though I have known you for less than a year, it feels like we've been friends forever."

"Good luck with the Stairway to Heaven, Yuan. With your talents, I'm sure you'll be able to pass it without any issues."

And she continued, "Hey, Yuan, this may be a bit sudden, but do you want to grab something to eat at the Dragon Pavilion before you leave?"

"Of course! I was actually thinking about returning to that place too."

"Then let's go!"

Xuan Wuhan and Yuan proceeded to head to the Dragon Pavilion for a feast.

As usual, Yuan ordered the entire menu without hesitation.

After they finished eating, Yuan said his goodbyes to Xuan Wuhan.

"Yuan... I will definitely try to ascend the Stairway to Heaven in the future — with my own strength. Although I already know that it's not likely to happen, I will still try to catch up with you."

"Good luck to you. I really hope to see you again." Yuan nodded.

"Of course."

After talking for a little longer, Yuan returned to Long Yijun and the other sect elders to say his final goodbyes with them.

"Goodbye, everyone. I will never forget my experience as a disciple in the sect." Yuan bowed to them.

"And we'll never forget having a disciple like you, Yuan." Long Yijun and the others returned his bow.

Yuan left the Dragon Essence Temple shortly after.

"Where to now, Young Master?"

"The Min Family to pick up Min Li," he calmly replied.

Then he realized that he didn't have their location.

"I should have asked them about the Min Family's location before I left..." Yuan sighed.

"The Min Family, right? I know where they are located. In fact, they used to be frequent customers of mine." Feng Yuxiang suddenly said.

"That's great."

"Follow me."

Feng Yuxiang then led Yuan and the others to a nearby city to use their teleport formation.

A couple of hours later, they arrived in Min City, and just by the name itself, anyone could tell that it was the Min Family who governs this land.

After entering the city, Feng Yuxiang led Yuan straight to the Min Family's headquarters, which was located at the center of the city.

"That large and red building over there is the Min Family, Young Master." Feng Yuxiang pointed to the obvious building in the distance that stuck out like a sore thumb.

"Alright. Let's go."

Yuan approached the guards standing by the gates, and as expected of one of the Seven Legacy Families, they don't play around with security, as there were dozens of guards surrounding the place, and they were only the ones working at the gates.

"W-What business do you have with the Min Family?" The guards there asked him when they got close enough, but they appeared to be a little bit flustered for some reason.

However, if one looked at the direction of their gazes, that reason would become obvious.

Of course, they were flustered after seeing the beauties with Yuan.

Chapter 633 - Not Accepting Any Visitors

"Hello, I am here to see Min Li. I was told by the Dragon Essence Temple that she had returned home not long ago." Yuan said to the guards while they were still dazed by the beauties around him.

"Y-Young Lady Min? What business do you have with her?"

"I am here to fulfill a promise I made to her."

"I'm sorry, but the Min Family is not accepting any visitors at this moment, as they are currently preparing for the Young Lady's marriage." The guard then said, taking Yuan by surprise.

"What? Marriage? Min Li is getting married?"

"Yes, the Min Family suddenly announced her marriage with Gu Tao from the Gu Family, their third eldest son."

"The Gu Family..." Yuan recalled when someone from the Gu Family tried to recruit him to their family when he was still a disciple of the Dragon Essence Temple, and he mentioned that the Gu Family was one of the Seven Legacy Families.

As for Min Li marrying this Gu Tao, it was obviously something that her family decided for her.

Yuan could still remember Min Li pleading with him to join her family so that they wouldn't do something like this to her.

'Looks like I had made her wait too long...' Yuan sighed inwardly.

However, knowing that Min Li was most likely forced into this marriage by her family, Yuan was more inclined to meet with her.

"Hey, my Young Master said he wants to meet with Min Li. I don't care if the Min Family is accepting visitors or not, he will meet her today!" Feng Yuxiang suddenly said with a cold expression on her pretty face.

"Who do you think you are? If you think you can say whatever you want just because you are a little pretty, then—"

Before the guard could even finish his sentence, Feng Yuxiang retrieved a medallion from her storage ring and shoved it right in his face.

The guard was startled at first, but when he realized what Feng Yuxiang was holding, it turned into shock and fear.

"T-The Min Family's Royal Guest Medallion! Why do you have something like that?!" The guard exclaimed in a shocked voice.

"Does it matter why I have it? The question here is whether you will let my Young Master meet Min Li or not."

The guards gritted their teeth as they were in a predicament.

On one hand, the Min Family said no guests are allowed, but on the other, the Royal Guest Medallion is the highest honor one could receive from the Min Family, and those with the medallion must be treated as though they are part of the family!

This rule was set by the founder of the Min Family, so it wasn't something they could simply ignore!

"M-May I ask for your name, Senior?" One of the guards asked her.

"Feng Yuxiang," she calmly responded.

"Wait! Aren't you Madam Feng from the Golden Phoenix Bazaar?!" Someone there recognized her name.

"Yes, I used to work at the Golden Phoenix Bazaar," Feng Yuxiang nodded, not denying her identity.

"O-Open the gates for them!" The guard then said.

"Are you sure?" The others asked him.

"Yes! Just open it!"

The guards nodded their heads and opened the gates for them.

"Please excuse us for the inconvenience just now, Madam Feng. Please, follow me. I will bring you to the Young Lady." The guard said to her.

Once Yuan and the others disappeared with the guard, the other guards began mumbling to each other.

"Who is Madam Feng?"

"You don't know? She used to own the most popular and valuable stores in the Golden Phoenix Bazaar. The Min Family also used to be a frequent customer there, so they highly respect her." One of the more senior guards there explained to the others.

Meanwhile, inside the Min Family's living quarters, Min Li sat inside her room with a tranquil expression on her face as she stared outside her window.

"I knew I shouldn't have returned... I knew it was a trap, yet I still returned... I am such an idiot..." Min Li sighed.

It was mostly due to how she was raised to listen to her parents regardless of the situation, hence why she returned to the family after being summoned by them.

After many weeks of silence from her family, they suddenly called her back to the family without giving her any explanations.

Min Li knew that this was about her failure to recruit Yuan to their family, as news of Yuan's departure from the sect had spread shortly after he left, so it was clear to the Min Family that she had failed to secure him.

"But to think they'd immediately give me to another family... I didn't think they'd move so fast— be willing to toss me away so easily. They must be really upset about my failure..." Min Li sighed again after realizing just how little her family valued her.

While it is true that she lacked in talents and achievements when compared to her siblings, she is still a cultivation genius with a rare talent. How can the Min Family throw her away this easily? She couldn't understand it.

"I don't know when Disciple Yuan will come, so I cannot wait for him to rescue me. Therefore, I will have to deal with this situation by myself. If worst comes to worst, I will climb the Stairway to Heaven by myself! Even if I die in the process, it will be a much better fate than marrying into the Gu Family!"

While Min Li planned her escape from the Min Family and her marriage, Yuan and the others approached their living quarters.

"I'm not sure where the Young Lady is located, but she should be here. Let me go speak with someone for more information." The guard said to them after they arrived.

"Thank you." Yuan nodded.

"Please wait here for a few minutes." The guard then left the place.

Once the guard left, he immediately ran to the Min Family to notify them of the situation.

"What? Madam Feng from the Golden Phoenix Bazaar is here? Why?" The head of the Min Family, Min Yide asked the guard.

Chapter 634 - The Real Madam Feng

"Apparently, her 'Young Master' is here to meet with Young Lady Min Li." The guard responded to Min Yide's question.

"Young Master?" Min Yide suddenly burst out laughing after hearing the guard's words.

"Are you sure she's the real Madam Feng? First of all, Madam Feng left the Golden Phoenix Bazaar a while ago and hasn't been seen since then. Why would she suddenly show up here for Min Li?"

"And her 'Young Master'? I know Madam Feng very well! There's no way that she'd lower herself for another individual! She's a fake! A fake, I tell you!" Min Yide continued laughing.

"Then what about the Royal Guest Medallion?" The guard asked.

"Did anyone verify if it was real or fake?"

"N-No... It would've been disrespectful to Madam Feng, as verifying the medallion is akin to doubting her credibility..." The guard shook his head.

"Just kick them out."

Although he had a bad feeling about Min Yide's orders, the guard didn't dare to disobey him.

"As you command! Please excuse this subordinate!"

The guard quickly returned to Yuan and the others to notify them of Min Yide's response.

"I'm sorry, but you'll have to leave this place now."

"What?" Yuan looked at him with wide eyes.

Didn't he leave to get information on Min Li's location? How did it end up getting them kicked out?"Is this a joke?" Feng Yuxiang stared at the guard with a deep frown on her face, looking like she was on the verge of attacking him for making such a joke.

"I am not joking. The head of the family, Min Yide, has ordered you all to leave this place as soon as possible." The guard repeated.

"Min Yide, huh? When did this bastard become so daring? Let me speak with him!"

"That won't be possible..."

"I am not asking you. I am telling you." Feng Yuxiang suddenly released her Spirit Grandmaster cultivation base, instantly terrifying the guard who was a mere Spirit Warrior.

"S-Spirit Grandmaster! You're the real Madam Feng?!" The guard fell to his buttocks from shock.

"Huh? What nonsense are you talking about? Of course I am real!"

The guard immediately got onto his knees and began kowtowing to her.

"Please forgive this disrespectful junior for mistaking Madam Feng as a fake!"

And in order to save himself a little face, the guard explained to them that Min Yide was the one who told him that she was fake.

"Hmph! Bring me to him!" Feng Yuxiang coldly snorted afterward.

"R-Right away!"

The guard no longer dared to delay things and immediately brought Feng Yuxiang and the others to meet Min Yide.

"Family Head! M-Madam Feng— she's here to see you!" The guard knocked on his door and shouted from the outside.

"I told you to kick out that fake! How dare you come back here with her?! Are you begging to get fired?!" Min Yide's angry voice quickly resounded.

Bang!

Feng Yuxiang suddenly kicked down the door before walking inside the room with a domineering aura around her.

"I dare you to call me a fake again, Min Yide!" Feng Yuxiang stared at Min Yide, who was sitting behind his desk with a gawking face.

"Y-Y-You?! Impossible!"

"Impossible, your mother! Look at my face and tell me I am a fake again!" Feng Yuxiang then retrieved the Royal Guest Medallion and tossed it at Min Yide.

"Look at that medallion and tell me it's fake! I dare you!"

Min Yide held the medallion with trembling hands.

'I-It's real! She's the real Madam Feng!' Min Yide felt his heart drop all the way to his stomach when he realized this fact.

"You know, with the amount of discount I gave your family, I expected to be treated with some respect at the very least. I have done business with your Min Family for thousands of years, giving you billions of gold coins in discounts, yet I am treated like trash when I visit your family. If your ancestors were here, I wonder what they'll say..." Feng Yuxiang sighed out loud.

"P-Please forgive me, Madam Feng! I really thought you were a fake!" Min Yide quickly got onto his knees without caring for his image as the head of the Min Family.

And he continued, "I will accept any punishment from you! Please! Let me apologize to you properly!"

"Then tell me where Min Li is located so that my Young Master can speak with her." Feng Yuxiang said.

"Right away! Please, follow me! I will take you to her!" Min Yide quickly stood up and began walking towards the door.

"Let's go, Young Master." Feng Yuxiang then said to him.

Yuan nodded and followed Min Yide to where they were keeping Min Li.

When they arrived, Feng Yuxiang sneered in a cold voice, "A confinement formation? Are you keeping a prisoner inside this room or something?"

"A-Actually, Min Li is currently grounded and being disciplined for failing an important mission, and in order to prevent her from running away, we placed her inside." Min Yide made up a random excuse.

"Mission? What kind of mission?" Feng Yuxiang asked, acting ignorant about the situation.

"W-Well... It's a very sensitive subject..." Min Yide said, trying to tell her that he doesn't want to talk about it in the vaguest way possible.

"Whatever." Feng Yuxiang shrugged, as she was already aware of the situation.

Min Yide knocked on the door a moment later and said, "Min Li! You have a visitor!"

Min Li, who has been staring outside the window with a dazed face, turned to look at the door after hearing her father's voice.

'Visitor? The Gu Family?' Min Li's initial thought was that the Gu Family had come to visit her. After all, who else could possibly visit her during such a time?

The door opened a moment later without Min Li doing anything, and Yuan calmly entered the room the next second.

"E-Eh...? D-Disciple Yuan? Is that really you?" Min Li's eyes widened with shock the instant she saw his handsome face, and she immediately wondered if she had accidentally dozed off into dreamland, hence the current situation that shouldn't be possible.

Chapter 635 - Leaving The Min Family

"Haha... I must be dreaming. There's no way he'd be here." Min Li released a low laugh before shaking her head and returning to staring outside the window.

"Who's dreaming?" Yuan asked her.

After a moment of silence, Min Li turned to look at him again, her eyes wider than before.

"A-Are you real? Am I not asleep? Are you really Disciple Yuan?" Min Li asked for confirmation.

"Why are you still calling me Disciple Yuan? I am no longer a disciple of the Dragon Essence Temple. Just call me Yuan, Disciple Min." Yuan said with a gentle smile on his face.

And he continued, "Also, I am here to fulfill my promise."

Min Li's body visibly trembled when she heard his words.

Meanwhile, Min Yide stared at Yuan from the side with a look of disbelief on his face.

'Y-Yuan? He can't be! Impossible!' Min Yide refused to believe that he was the same 'Yuan' who dominated the Mystic Realm—the same Yuan that they have been desperately trying to recruit.

'Why is he here?! I thought Min Li failed to recruit him!' Min Yide cried inwardly.

"Dis— Yuan!" Min Li jumped out of her seat and pounced at him with her arms wide open, embracing him tightly when she was close enough.

"You really returned for me! I thought you wouldn't make it!"

"I made a promise to you, after all."

"..." Min Yide watched as his youngest child embrace the current number one genius in the Lower Heavens with intimacy, his eyes and mouth as wide as saucers.

"W-What is going on here...?" Min Yide mumbled in a low voice after snapping out of his daze.

Yuan turned to look at him and spoke in a calm voice, "I promised Min Li that I'd climb the Stairway to Heaven for her, so she might not be able to attend the marriage. Do you have any problems with it?"

"Hmph! I never even agreed to this marriage in the first place! They tricked me into returning home and locked me in this room for the past week! All because I failed to recruit you into the family!" Min Li coldly snorted.

"I kind of figured that was the case." Yuan sighed.

He then turned to look at Min Yide and said, "Forcing your children to do something so ridiculous and then punishing her with even more ridiculousness... If this is how the Min Family operates, I do not wish to join it."

Min Yide subconsciously opened his mouth to make some kind of excuse, but he ultimately decided to remain silent, as he was certain that they'd lost all hope in recruiting Yuan to their family.

'If only we treated Min Li better... If only we waited just a little longer...'
Min Yide sighed inwardly.

He then said, "What about the Gu Family? They have long been spreading news of your marriage with Gu Tao. If you don't show up for the wedding, it will not only ruin our reputation, but we'll also be a laughing stock for years to come."

"Hell, the Gu Family, our closest ally, will most likely cut all connection with us afterward."

Feng Yuxiang suddenly sneered and said, "That is not our problem to solve but your Min Family's problem, as you were the ones that dug this hole."

Once again Min Yide opened his mouth only to close it a few seconds later without actually uttering a single word.

However, before he could even ponder about the situation, a guard suddenly showed up and announced, "Family Head, the Gu Family is here to visit. Gu Tao is also with them."

"Aiya! Why do they have to show up now of all times?! They didn't even notify us before visiting!" Min Yide sighed out loud.

Although Min Yide found the Gu Family's presence to be nothing but an annoyance, Yuan actually thought this was a good chance for them to break off the marriage.

"Why don't we use this chance to call off the marriage?" Yuan decided to share his idea.

"What?! We can't!" Min Yide subconsciously responded without thinking.

"The marriage won't happen regardless if you tell them today or a week from now, so you might as well get it out of the way now before they continue spreading news of a marriage that won't happen." Feng Yuxiang said.

Min Yide gritted his teeth.

He turned to look at Min Li and spoke in a solemn voice, "Are you sure you want to do this? If you call off this engagement, you'll no longer be part of the Min Family."

"Yes, I am sure." Min Li answered without hesitation.

Min Yide closed his eyes and took a few deep breaths.

"Get out of my face. You're officially disowned from the Min Family, Min Li."

After saying that, Min Yide left the scene with the guard to meet with the unsuspecting Gu Family.

Once Min Yide left, Min Li fell onto her knees as her legs suddenly lost all of their strength. This was her first time standing up to her own family.

Yuan wiped the tears that were forming on the edge of her eyes and said, "Let's go to the Stairway to Heaven, shall we?"

"Un!" Min Li nodded, trying her best to resist from crying.

While Yuan and Min Li began making their way out of the Min Family, Min Yide met up with the Gu Family in the living room.

"Is that a face you should be greeting your guests with, Min Yide? You look like you just swallowed a bug! Hahaha!" The Family Head of the Gu Family laughed out loud when he saw Min Yide's face, completely oblivious of the situation.

"Senior Min! Where is Min Li? I'd like to meet her!" The handsome young man standing behind the family head asked.

He was clearly Gu Tao, Min Li's fiancé.

Min Yide took a deep breath before responding in a solemn voice, "Min Li is not here— she has abandoned the Min Family."

"W-What?" The Gu Family stared at him with baffled expressions, seemingly unable to comprehend the situation at first, and the place turned dead silent very quickly.

Chapter 636 - Golden Dragon Realm

"Let me repeat myself just in case you missed it..." Min Yide cleared his throat and continued.

"Min Li has left the Min Family, so she is no longer part of our family. I'm sorry, but we will have to cancel the wedding between Min Li and Gu Tao," he said, speaking in a clearer tone this time.

Once they snapped out of their daze, Gu Tao screamed loudly, "Bullsh*t! I am not going to cancel the wedding! Where did she go?! I will bring her back myself if I have to!"

"My son is right, Min Yide. We have already expended too many resources on this wedding, and news of the wedding has already spread everywhere. If we cancel it now, both of our families be laughingstocks for the rest of the century! Do you really want that to happen?!"

Min Yide merely sighed at their words and said, "I understand your feelings and anger, but there is truly nothing I can do in this situation. As for bringing her back... That's also not possible."

"Nonsense! Tell me where she is and I will bring her back even if it's by force!" Gu Tao shouted.

Min Yide glared at Gu Tao for a moment before responding in a low voice, "Stairway to Heaven... If you really want to bring her back, you can find her at the Stairway to Heaven. However, don't say I didn't warn you. You really don't want to offend them."

"Them? Who are you talking about? And why on earth would she be going to the Stairway to Heaven? She's only a Spirit Warrior!" The head of the Gu Family frowned.

However, Min Yide turned around and began walking away, "I wish you the best of luck. Once again, I apologize for this inconvenience."

"This isn't over yet, Min Yide!"

The Gu Family left the place shortly after, and they were still fuming in anger after they left.

"Are we going to go to the Stairway to Heaven now?" Gu Tao asked his father.

"Obviously! We cannot let this marriage end in such a ridiculous manner! We are bringing her back even if we have to drag her back!"

Thus, the Gu Family began making their way to the Stairway to Heaven instead of going home, still unaware of the full situation.

Meanwhile, after leaving the Min Family, Min Li asked Yuan, "Are we heading straight to the Stairway to Heaven right now?"

"Actually, there's still one more place I want to visit before leaving the Lower Heavens," he said.

"The Pang City."

"Eh? Why that place? If I remember correctly, that is just a small city with no significance." Min Li said.

Hearing her question, Yuan retrieved the Starry Abyss and said, "This Starry Abyss was given to me by them, and it has been very useful to me, so I want to thank them before leaving. Also, I promised to eat with them again."

"I-Is that so..."

Thus, Yuan and the others began making their way towards Pang City.

On their way there, Yuan received a couple of sudden notifications.

'Golden Dragon Realm? What kind of place is that and how do I access it?' Yuan pondered to himself as they moved closer and closer to the Pang City.

A few hours later, they arrived at Pang City.

'I wonder if anything has changed since I left...' Yuan wondered to himself as they approached the guards at the city entrance.

"Hm?" The guards quickly noticed Yuan because of his exquisite Golden Dragon Robe and the beauties by his side.

"What a lucky bastard, surrounded by beauties on all sides..."

"Right? Hm? Wait a second... He looks familiar..."

"W-Wait! That's—!"

It took a couple of moments, but the guards recognized Yuan.

"It's the hero! Our Pang City's hero is back!" The guards began celebrating for some reason.

Yuan raised his eyebrows when he saw the guards that had been guarding the gates suddenly leave their post to run in their direction.

"Hero! Welcome back to Pang City, Hero!" The guards began waving and shouting at him once they were in range.

"What the?" Yuan was baffled by their weird behavior.

Once they were in front of Yuan, the guards suddenly kneeled on the ground, which baffled him even further.

"What are you guys doing?" Yuan asked them.

"Hero! Please! We— the Pang City requires your help again!"

"Please save us, Hero!"

The guards cried out loud in a pleading manner.

"What?"

Although Yuan was still confused about the situation, he could feel an ominous aura in the air.

"What happened?" He asked them with a deep frown on his face.

"It would be for the best if the Luo Family explains it to you. Please, follow me."

Yuan nodded, "Take me to the Luo Family immediately."

Chapter 637 - The Hero Has Returned!

"Lord Luo! The Hero has returned! I repeat, the Hero has returned!"

A guard came rushing into Lord Luo's room without knocking.

"Hero? What nonsense are you talking about? We are having an important discussion right now! Scram!" Lord Luo got angry when his important meeting was interrupted, not to mention the grave situation that has been stressing him lately.

"Sorry for interrupting your meeting, but I heard you need some help, so I came."

Yuan entered the room a few moments later.

However, because of how drastically different his appearance was compared to his last visit, especially his longer hair, Lord Luo didn't recognize Yuan at first.

"Y-You are—!"

Once Lord Luo got a good look at Yuan's handsome face, his body immediately began shivering from sheer excitement, and he even began crying.

"D-Daoist Yuan! Is that really you, Daoist Yuan?!" Lord Luo couldn't control his emotions and spoke as though he was before his savior.

"You have changed— grown so much in just a few months! I almost didn't recognize you!"

"It's really me," Yuan confirmed with a gentle nod.

Then he continued, "Can you tell me what's troubling you and the city? If there's anything I can do to help..."

"Please take a seat first—" Lord Luo suddenly stopped talking when he finally noticed the four beauties standing behind Yuan.

He turned to look at the table only to realize that there was not enough room for everyone.

However, he promptly made a decision and said to the people sitting down, "Stand up and let these esteemed guests sit!"

"It's okay, we can stand." Yuan shook his head.

The people that had already begun leaving their seats froze, and they turned to look at Lord Luo.

"If you say so, Daoist Yuan." Lord Luo nodded before telling the others to get back in their seats.

After sitting down and taking a deep breath, Lord Luo spoke, "Daoist Yuan, have you heard of the Blood Sect?"

"The Blood Sect?" Yuan found this name very familiar for some reason, but he couldn't instantly recall where he'd heard it.

"Young Master, the Blood Sect is one of the top evil sects in this world. Their disciples practice dangerous and forbidden cultivation techniques that people don't practice for obvious reasons, which more often than not causes their disciples to go crazy or become bloodthirsty, and when that happens, they cause havoc in the cultivation world." Feng Yuxiang gave him a brief explanation.

'Ah, I remember now... The Sect Master of the Flying Sword Sect mistook me as a disciple from that place...' Yuan finally recalled what occurred really early on in his journey in this world.

"What about the Blood Sect? Are they causing trouble in this city?" Yuan then asked.

"No, they're not— at least not yet." Lord Luo sighed.

"Not yet? What do you mean by that? Are you expecting trouble?"

Lord Luo nodded and said, "Ever since the Blood Sect's most talented disciple— who is also their Sect Master's only son disappeared mysteriously, they have been doing all sorts of crazy things, such as attacking people randomly."

"And after many months of investigation, they announced his son dead. I heard the Blood Sect's Sect Master had grieved over his son's death so much that he went insane."

Yuan raised his eyebrow when he heard this information, and he proceeded to ask, "What's the name of this person who suddenly went missing?"

"Meng Li— also known as Devil Meng Li." Lord Luo replied.

Yuan subconsciously turned to look at Xiao Hua, who was calmly standing beside him.

He recalled this name very clearly, as he'd learned the Bloody Sword Strike from this person after watching him fight another expert!

However, these two experts had perished under the hands of Xiao Hua! In other words, Xiao Hua holds some responsibility for this mess!

Knowing this information, Yuan felt a little obligated to deal with the situation.

"The Blood Sect had been attacking cities and even sects at random for the past month. Many people have suffered— died because of them. Their most recent victim was the Flying Sword Sect, who they completely destroyed, and judging by their movement patterns, they will most likely attack this city soon."

"W-Wait a second... Did you just say the Flying Sword Sect?" Yuan's eyes widened with shock and disbelief after hearing their name.

This was the first sect that he'd visited in this world! And his friend, Mo Zhou, was a disciple there!

"What happened to the Flying Sword Sect?!" Yuan asked with a deep frown on his face.

"They are gone. Completely vanquished. It was a brutal slaughter. Over half of their disciples were killed, and even their Sect Master died trying to defend his sect. However, what can a single Spirit Master do against the Blood Sect that has multiple Spirit Masters?"

Yuan gritted his teeth and tightened his hands into a fist after learning the situation.

'I lost another friend...'

"Brother Yuan...? Are you okay?" Xiao Hua asked him when she noticed killing intent coming from his aura.

"Why...?" Yuan suddenly mumbled.

"Why must they kill innocent people...?"

"They are humans too, right? They aren't demons, so why are they doing this...? Or maybe they are demons disguised as humans..."

Yuan closed his eyes and took a deep breath.

"Feng Feng, where can I find the Blood Sect?" He suddenly asked her.

"Unfortunately, you won't be able to find them, Young Master."

"Why not?"

"Because the Blood Sect is not a traditional sect where they have a set location for their sect. They operate and recruit without any headquarters. In other words, we cannot find something that doesn't exist."

"Then how do they communicate with each other?"

"They mostly operate with letters and by mouth. This is how they still exist despite having almost the entire world as their enemies. In fact, that's how most evil sects operate in order to stay alive."

"So there is nothing we can do in this situation besides watch them kill innocent people?" Yuan clenched his jaws even tighter.

Chapter 638 - Visiting The Flying Sword Sect

"Unfortunately, there really isn't much you can do against the Blood Sect. Even if you kill their Sect Master, another one will eventually rise to that spot. You can maybe try killing all of the higher-ups in the Blood Sect, but that is easier said than done. There's a reason they have existed for thousands of years despite countless experts trying to wipe them out." Feng Yuxiang said to him.

Yuan pondered about Feng Yuxiang's words. If he cannot do anything against the Blood Sect, what should he do about Pang City's situation? It was not as though he could give up and abandon them.

After thinking for a moment, Yuan turned to look at Lord Luo and said, "Do you mind if I stay here for a few days? I will try to come up with a solution, and just in case they attack."

"Of course! You can stay here for as long as you want!" Lord Luo immediately said.

Suddenly, one of the people there said, "I'm sorry, but what can you do against the Blood Sect?"

"The Blood Sect has multiple Spirit Masters, and their Sect Master is also a Spirit Grandmaster. Not even an entire sect can stop them, much less a couple of young people. I say we evacuate the city and seek protection from one of the bigger sects such as the Heaven and Earth Palace or the Grand Sword Mountain."

Everyone there turned to look at Yuan for a response, even Lord Luo, who had immense faith in him, cannot imagine a Spirit Warrior defending against the Blood Sect.

Of course, he was not aware that Yuan had become a Spirit Grandmaster during the few months he was gone.

"It's just a few Spirit Masters. My Young Master can handle even a Spirit Lord, much less a Spirit Grandmaster." Feng Yuxiang suddenly sneered.

"W-What? A Spirit Lord?"

Yuan then released his Spirit Grandmaster aura and said, "I alone can defend the city from the Blood Sect."

"S-S-Spirit Grandmaster?! How is that possible?! You were only a Spirit Warrior before you left a few months ago!" Lord Luo exclaimed.

"What?! A Spirit Warrior?!" The others were also shocked.

"Don't even bother thinking about it. My Young Master's talents are incomprehensible." Feng Yuxiang said to them.

Yuan continued, "I am not the only Spirit Grandmaster. These two are also Spirit Grandmasters."

He pointed to Feng Yuxiang and Lan Yingying.

"Three Spirit Grandmasters!"

Lord Luo immediately got onto his knees and said, "This junior apologizes for not greeting these seniors earlier!"

The others also followed suit and bowed to them.

In their eyes, Spirit Grandmasters were akin to gods— immortal cultivators that live in a different world.

Yuan raised his eyebrows and said, "What are you guys doing? Hurry up and stand up. We're already far past the greeting stage."

"Anyways, as long as we're here, I promise you that the Blood Sect won't cause any trouble."

"Thank you, Daoist Yuan!" Lord Luo said.

Sometime later, Yuan said, "I am going to the Flying Sword Sect. Feng Feng, Yingying, can you two stay in the city just in case the Blood Sect attacks? I won't be gone for long."

"Why are you going there, Young Master?" Feng Yuxiang couldn't help but ask.

"I am going there to pray for them," he calmly said.

"Don't worry, we'll keep the place safe." Lan Yingying said.

"Thank you."

He turned to look at Min Li and continued, "Sorry, but we'll have to delay our journey for a few days."

Min Li shook her head and said, "You don't have to say anything to me. Even if you delay it for a year, I do not have any rights to complain."

Yuan left the place shortly after with Xiao Hua by his side.

With Yuan gone, Lord Luo felt incredibly anxious with two Spirit Grandmasters that he wasn't familiar with acting as guards there.

"Hey." Feng Yuxiang suddenly looked at Lord Luo, who trembled upon feeling her gaze.

"Y-Yes!" He stood up and responded in a stiff manner.

"Calm down, I won't eat you or anything. Anyways, can you tell me about the Young Master's relationship with this city? I would like to know more about him."

"I'd also like that as well." Lan Yingying agreed.

Lord Luo nodded, and he proceeded to recall how Yuan protected their city from the Mountain Lord's invasion.

After he finished telling them the story, two more people showed up in the room, and they were Luo Li and Luo Ling, Lord Luo's daughters.

"Father! I heard that Brother Yuan had returned to the city! Where is he?!" They immediately began inquiring about Yuan.

Seeing these two pretty ladies, Feng Yuxiang raised her eyebrows and asked, "Who are you?"

"They are my daughters, Esteemed Senior." Lord Luo said.

"Luo Li! Luo Ling! Hurry up and greet the Seniors!" He then said to the two.

"But what about Brother Yuan? We didn't come here for them!" Luo Ling said, unaware that they were Spirit Grandmasters.

"Insolence!" Lord Luo immediately became angry.

Feng Yuxiang raised her hand to stop Lord Luo, and she said to the sisters, "Tell me about your relationship with the Young Master and I will tell you his location."

The sisters exchanged looks with each other. Young Master? When did Yuan obtain such a beautiful woman as his servant?

Luo Ling, the older sister, stepped forward and said in a proud voice, "We're his future concubines!"

And she added a second later, "...Hopefully!"

Although Yuan never officially accepted them as his concubines, Luo Ling didn't think too much about her response since she was only responding to a mere 'servant'.

"What?!" Feng Yuxiang's eyes widened with shock.

"T-They are only joking with you, Esteemed Seniors..." Lord Luo quickly said.

He then turned to look at his daughters and frowned, "They are Spirit Grandmasters! Watch your language!"

"What?!" The sisters' eyes widened with shock after learning this information.

They then got on their knees and apologized for their behavior.

Meanwhile, Yuan and Xiao Hua arrived at the Flying Sword Sect— at least what it once used to be.

Chapter 639 - Insanity

"T-This is the Flying Sword Sect...?" Yuan stood before where the sect should have been located with a clear look of disbelief on his face.

However, the Flying Sword Sect was nowhere to be seen. Instead, destroyed buildings and dried blood scattered the place.

"The scenery is what it would look like after a long and brutal war had just finished..." Yuan mumbled in a low voice.

"Thousands of lives perished here for what? What does the Blood Sect achieve by doing this horrible thing? It won't bring back their Sect Master's dead son."

"Unfortunately, this is the harsh reality of the cultivation world—the real cultivation world, where people do unreasonable things, and there's nothing we can do about it." Xiao Hua sighed.

"..."

After a moment of silence, Yuan said, "Let's take a look around this place."

"Are you sure, Brother Yuan? There will be a lot of blood and corpses. It won't be a pretty sight."

Yuan nodded, "Even so, I want to see it."

They proceeded to walk around the unrecognizable and destroyed Flying Sword Sect, passing by many corpses and separated body parts.

Yuan stopped walking in front of three large stone tablets, which were the only things not completely destroyed there.

He looked at the stone tablet in the middle, and on the very top, there was a name he was familiar with.

"Mo Zhou... So you have managed to become rank one, huh? Congratulations..." Yuan congratulated him in a dispirited voice.

He then clasped his hands together and bowed to the stone tablet, paying his respects.

"Brother Yuan, there are people around us." Xiao Hua suddenly said.

"The Blood Sect?" Yuan asked.

"Probably not. They are all Spirit Apprentices," she said.

"Why would they be here?"

"When a sect is destroyed, it is common for people to try and salvage everything they can find. These people hope to be lucky and find valuable things such as cultivation techniques and treasures."

Yuan frowned, "An entire sect is destroyed and these people are in the mood to look for treasures? Do they have no respect at all?"

"Most people doing this have nothing to lose, and finding even a single cultivation technique could change their lives forever. There would usually be more people. It's probably because of the Blood Sect's presence. Nobody wants to run into them, after all."

Hearing Xiao Hua's explanation, Yuan merely shook his head in silence. Although he cannot blame these people for wanting a better life, it still leaves a bad taste in his mouth.

Suddenly, a loud scream resounded.

"AHHHH! HELP! THE BLOOD SECT IS HERE!"

Yuan immediately turned to look in the direction of the voice, and without hesitation, started running towards the voice.

A few moments later, Yuan arrived before a group of individuals being surrounded by these people that were fully cloaked in black robes with black masks covering their faces.

"Please! Spare us!"

The individuals being surrounded got onto their knees and began begging for their lives.

However, the masked cultivators responded by drawing their weapons.

When Yuan saw this, he shouted, "Stop!"

Whoosh!

Yuan's Spirit Grandmaster cultivation base exploded, instantly halting the masked cultivators and forcing them onto their knees just like those surrounded.

"W-Who are you?! Do you have any idea who we are?!" One of the masked figures shouted at Yuan, but he was clearly terrified.

"The Blood Sect, right?" Yuan responded in a calm voice.

"Hmph! If you already know, then let us go! Unless you want the entire Blood Sect to hunt you down!" The masked figure sneered.

"Let you go...? So you can kill more innocent people? I'd rather be hunted than let you kill more innocent people!" Yuan looked at them with an angry frown on his face.

"Tell me! Why did you destroy the Flying Sword Sect?! Why did you kill all these innocent disciples?!"

"Why? Why not? They were weak and unfortunate, so they were targeted by Lord Blood. We're only following our orders," said one of them in an indifferent voice.

"And you followed such ridiculous orders?! What do you achieve from it besides guilt and blood on your hands?!"

"Hah! Guilt? What kind of nonsense is that? We don't regret our actions! In fact, we enjoyed every moment of it! Killing these weak disciples and being covered in their blood— it makes my body shiver just thinking about it! This is why we joined the Blood Sect!"

"You're all insane..." Yuan was left speechless by this individual's lack of humanity.

"Brother Yuan, you should save your breath and just kill them all already. Everyone in evil sects is like this— bloodthirsty and insane." Xiao Hua said to him.

Yuan gritted his teeth and clenched his hands into fists.

Despite all the horrible things they have done, he still hesitates on killing them. After all, they are not just mere NPCs but real people. If he kills them, that would be akin to killing a real human, and he has never even thought about killing another human before!

Seeing his hesitation, Xiao Hua continued to speak, "Brother Yuan, it's okay to kill these kinds of people. The world will be better off without them, too. If you don't kill them, they will just go on and kill other innocent people."

"When that happens... You'll also bear the guilt of their death since you allowed it to happen by not killing these evil cultivators..."

Hearing Xiao Hua's words, Yuan felt less hesitant on killing them.

However, before he could make up his mind, a familiar voice suddenly resounded inside his head.

"Why are you hesitating? They are just a couple of useless ants. You can kill them as easily as breathing. I know you want to kill them. Let me show you..."

Yuan suddenly closed his eyes.

Once he reopened them, his eyes were resolute and filled with killing intent, and they were even slightly glowing red.

The Empyrean Overlord appeared in his hand the next moment.

"W-What do you think you're doing?! Our Sect Master is a Spirit Grandmaster! He'll kill you as easy as breathing!" The Blood Sect disciples began shivering uncontrollably as they watched Yuan slowly approach them with a sadistic grin on his face.

"As a killer, you should know very well what I am about to do, right?" Yuan responded, his aura gushing with killing intent.

Chapter 640 - Killing Each Other

"S-Stop! Let us go! Our Blood Sect will hunt you and your nine generations down if you harm us!" The Blood Sect disciples shouted.

Yuan stopped walking once he was in front of these people, and he took a long and deep breath.

A strong smell of blood and corpses immediately assaulted his nose.

"Haaaa..."

He released a long sigh before speaking, "You know, I don't blame you for killing people. It's the nature of cultivators, after all. However, if you're going to kill someone, you better have a damn good reason."

After this sentence, Yuan suddenly lifted the Empyrean Overlord and pointed it at one of the Blood Sect disciples.

"And killing these disciples for your own entertainment is not a good reason... This is why I despise evil sects. You guys are a bunch of boring individuals."

The Blood Sect disciple being pointed at suddenly felt a sharp pain coming from his throat, but he was too scared of Yuan's cold gaze to move, not to mention the pressure restricting his body, so he wasn't sure what was causing this pain.

However, the other Blood Sect disciples saw it clearly. Yuan was slowly pushing the tip of his sword into their fellow disciple's throat, penetrating the skin on his neck with no resistance like it was tofu.

"Stop! Are you really not afraid of the Blood Sect?! Our fellow disciples will definitely avenge us and hunt you down!" They began shouting.

"Hunt me? Hahaha!" Yuan moved the sword an inch forward, causing blood to flow from the disciple's neck.

He then spoke while continuing to push the sword deeper into the disciple's throat, "How will the Blood Sect learn of this if I kill all of you? How will you tell them? As a ghost?"

By the time Yuan finished his sentence, the sword was already halfway through the disciple's neck.

Of course, the disciple was already dead at this stage, but Yuan didn't retrieve his sword and continued to push his sword forward until the disciple's head was completely separated from his body.

After decapitating the disciple, Yuan swung his leg, kicking the decapitating head as though it was a ball, shocking everyone there.

The head flew so far that it disappeared into the horizon.

Yuan then turned to look at the rest of the disciples and said with a grin, "Maybe I should let one of you live so that you can avenge your friends."

"The question is... which of you will live?"

"Y-You're insane...!" The disciples were in disbelief.

Yuan suddenly lifted the pressure restricting them and said, "I have an idea. Why don't you fight each other to death? The last one to remain standing will get to live for another day."

"Fuck you! As if we'd listen to you!"

When the disciples felt the pressure disappear, one of them immediately tried running away.

However, before he could go very far, his body would suddenly stop moving when a hole suddenly appeared in the center of his face.

"W-What happened?!"

The others were shocked to see this. No, it was because they couldn't see what had killed him that shocked them.

When they returned to looking at Yuan, they noticed something new.

There was a beautiful black dagger flying beside him.

"You can try to run, but I highly doubt you'll be faster than my flying dagger," Yuan said to them in a nonchalant voice.

"If we can't run, we'll just kill you!"

"Brothers! Let's fight him together!"

Yuan laughed upon hearing their words, "What can you ants do against me?"

The disciples then watched as Yuan start flying towards the sky.

"H-He's a Spirit Grandmaster?!"

The disciples were shocked to see him fly. They were only Spirit Warriors, so they didn't know his real cultivation base until now. Furthermore, they assumed that he was a Spirit Master at most because of his young appearance.

Now that they were aware of Yuan's cultivation, all of the hope and viciousness in their eyes disappeared.

"I will give you all one last chance. Either you fight each other to death and have a chance to survive, or I kill you all right here and now." Yuan spoke as he gazed down on them from the sky like a god.

The Blood Sect disciples gritted their teeth.

They then silently looked at each other with resolute faces.

"Don't blame me for this!"

"Die for me!"

The Blood Sect disciples began fighting each other the next moment.

If they were ordinary cultivators, they might have resisted a little more, but these people were evil cultivators.

They were selfish and bloodthirsty people. Even though they were part of the same sect, it was common for them to kill each other, as the saying 'the strong rules the weak' is even more prominent in evil sects, and there was no rule that prevented them from killing each other.

"Hahaha! That's it! Kill each other!" Yuan laughed out loud in the sky.

"Brother Yuan..." Xiao Hua looked at Yuan with a worried look on her face, feeling as though she was looking at an entirely different individual.

"Hm?" Yuan turned to look at Xiao Hua when he noticed her gaze.

"!!!"

When Xiao Hua saw Yuan's cold and sinister gaze, she began trembling in fear, as he reminded her of someone.

'Father...'

Yuan noticed the fear in Xiao Hua's eyes, so he turned back around a moment later and returned to watching the Blood Sect disciples killing each other.

It lasted a few minutes, but eventually, only one of them remained.

"I have won! Are you going to let me go now, or will you go back on your words and kill me too?!" The Blood Sect disciple shouted at Yuan.

"I won't go back on my own words. You're free to go. However, before you leave..."

After a moment of silence, Yuan continued, "Tell your Sect Master that if he wants to avenge his dead son Meng Li to come here in three days. I will be waiting for him."

"W-What...?" The Blood Sect disciple's eyes widened with shock after hearing Yuan's words.

"Y-You're responsible for Meng Li's death?!"

"I guess you can say that..." Yuan smiled calmly.

Chapter 641 - Hunted By The Blood Sect

"Y-You will regret this!!! You will now be hunted by the entire Blood Sect!"
The Blood Sect disciple disappeared from the scene quickly afterward.

Yuan turned to look at the people that had been treasure hunting before getting caught by the Blood Sect and said to them, "If you don't want to die like them, get out of this place."

"Y-Yes! Thank you, Senior!"

They quickly left the scene as well.

Once Yuan was alone with Xiao Hua, the place became dead silent.

Yuan closed his eyes for a moment.

When he opened them again, his eyes were no longer vicious but innocent, and his entire demeanor changed.

Yuan looked at the corpses in front of him, as well as the decapitated body with a perplexing emotion in his heart.

After standing there in silence for a few moments, he turned around and said to Xiao Hua, "Let's go back for now..."

Xiao Hua quietly nodded and followed him.

The entire journey back to Pang City was a quiet one with neither of them starting a conversation.

While they walked, Yuan pondered inwardly, 'That person was neither the Demon Sealing Clan's Founder nor the other two, so who was he? Could it be another one of my reincarnations?'

'No... I have seen him before...'

Yuan suddenly recalled the bloody dream he had when he got his faction symbol after joining the Celestial Overlords.

'Could it be him? His demeanor and aura felt just like that person... Just who is he?'

Now he wondered if he was a murderer in one of his past life, as he was completely tranquil when killing the Blood Sect disciples, almost like it was natural for him to have blood on his hands.

Once they returned to Pang City, Yuan looked at Xiao Hua and said to her in a low voice, "I'm sorry if I scared you..."

Even though he wasn't in control of his body at that time, just like when the Divine Paragon took control of his body to deal with the demon, it was still his body that did all those things.

"It's okay, Brother Yuan. As long as you're fine," she said with a gentle smile on her face.

Now that Yuan no longer had that terrifying aura around him, she was no longer scared of him.

Of course, she was still curious about why Yuan suddenly had a change of character. It was almost as though he was possessed by a ghost. However, she could tell that he wasn't possessed, which only made it more puzzling.

"Welcome back, Young Master!" Feng Yuxiang greeted Yuan when he returned.

"I'm back."

"D-Daoist Yuan! W-Welcome back!"

"Hmm?"

Yuan turned to look at the two pretty ladies standing behind Lord Luo.

It was Luo Ling and Luo Li.

"Hey, you two. It's been a while." Yuan smiled at them, causing them to blush.

"You have changed a lot..." Luo Li was dazed by his new appearance.

"Just a little."

"No, you're almost unrecognizable, Daoist Yuan!" Luo Ling said.

"Why are you still addressing me as Daoist Yuan? There's no need to be so formal." Yuan quickly noticed their formality towards him.

"W-Well..."

After learning that Yuan had become a Spirit Grandmaster, these sisters no longer dared to treat him so casually.

"Just call me Yuan. I insist."

"Alright, Yuan." Luo Li nodded.

"Welcome back, Yuan. You've returned earlier than I expected."

"I intend on challenging the Stairway to Heaven soon, so I decided to visit you guys before I leave."

"I see... So you'll be leaving the Lower Heavens soon..."

The sisters were sad to hear this, but there wasn't anything they could do about it.

"How was your visit to the Flying Sword Sect, Young Master?" Feng Feng suddenly asked him.

"..."

After a moment of silence, he sighed, "We encountered the Blood Sect."

"You what?! Are you okay?!" Lord Luo immediately asked him in a worried voice.

"I'm fine."

"What happened to the Blood Sect?" Feng Feng then asked.

"Well..." Yuan hesitated to tell them the story, as he was afraid that they might look at him differently afterward.

Seeing Yuan's reaction, Xiao Hua said, "They killed each other."

"What? Why would they do that?" Feng Yuxiang's eyes widened with surprise.

"Because I told them to." Yuan sighed.

"Eh?" Feng Yuxiang looked at him with disbelief on her face.

She cannot imagine Yuan ordering people to kill each other even if they are from the Blood Sect, so what exactly happened at the Flying Sword Sect?

Yuan proceeded to explain the situation to them— how he left one alive so that he could make himself a target and reveal the Sect Master of the Blood Sect, Lord Blood.

"Unbelievable..." Feng Yuxiang mumbled in a low voice, yet she admired his boldness.

'The Young Master is usually really reserved... The Blood Sect must have really angered him to make him do such things,' she thought to herself.

"So you're going to fight the Blood Sect's Sect Master in three days? Do you need our help?" Lan Yingying asked him.

"I should be able to defeat him by myself, and I don't want dirty your hands with their blood," Yuan said.

"Anyways, we can talk more about this later. Right now, I want to clear my mind of the Blood Sect."

Yuan then turned to look at the Luo Sisters and asked them, "Do you want to eat something right now? This is one of the reasons why I returned, too."

The sisters were speechless. How can he still be in the mood to eat while knowing that he's going to be hunted by the Blood Sect?

However, they didn't refuse and nodded their heads, as they have been waiting for this moment ever since he left.

And for the rest of the day, they all went outside to get food, returning to all of the restaurants they have already gone to before, allowing Yuan to temporarily forget about the Blood Sect and the Flying Sword Sect.

Meanwhile, the Blood Sect's Sect Master had just received news of what happened at the Flying Sword Sect, and as one could expect, he was fuming in anger afterward.

"At last! The bastard who killed my son! I have finally found you! If I don't skin him alive and feed his bones to the pigs, I am not surnamed Meng!"

Chapter 642: Half a Year of Supplies

After eating to their full, Yuan and the others returned to the Luo Family's manor.

"Young Master, do you want to temper your body tonight as well?" Feng Yuxiang asked him after they returned.

"That would be ideal." Yuan nodded.

"Just let me know whenever you're ready."

"Okay."

Yuan logged off shortly after to eat dinner, and he would explain to them the situation at the table.

"Because of this evil sect called the Blood Sect that might attack this city, I will be staying in this city for a few more days before we challenge the Stairway to Heaven."

"Sounds troublesome. What do evil sects even do, anyway?" Chu Liuxiang asked.

"I don't know the purpose of their existence. All I know is that they're filled with unreasonable people who kill innocent people for their own entertainment, and they cultivate forbidden techniques that make them go crazy."

Once dinner was finished, Meixiu said, "Yuan, the Cultivators' Association contacted me this afternoon. They said we can visit them whenever because they have finished scouting for our faction's headquarters."

"Really? We can visit them tomorrow since I have three days before I fight the Blood Sect."

"Alright, I will let them know tomorrow morning."

"Don't forget to tell the other members."

"I won't."

Yuan returned to Cultivation Online for the rest of the night to temper his body with the treasures provided by Feng Yuxiang, who was literally a walking treasure trove just like Xiao Hua but with more variety since Xiao Hua only has weapons.

Before getting into the bathtub, Yuan asked the others, "I feel kind of bad tempering my body alone. Do any of you want to join me? Feng Feng, it's your treasure, so you should..."

"I am fine, Young Master. Don't forget that I have the body of a phoenix, so these treasures won't affect me."

Yuan then looked at Xiao Hua and Lan Yingying.

"Xiao Hua doesn't require body tempering because of her physique," she said to him.

This leaves Lan Yingying, who was silently pondering whether she wants to temper her body or not.

Although she is also a divine beast like Feng Yuxiang, she doesn't have a naturally strong body, so tempering her body would actually benefit her.

"What about you, Yingying? Want to try tempering your body? It'll make your body stronger."

"If you don't mind sharing your treasures with me..."

“Of course I don’t mind sharing. I’m not that selfish, and I don’t even own the treasures.”

“Then I’ll join you.” Lan Yingying nodded her head a moment later.

Sometime later, Yuan entered the bathtub with Lan Yingying, which had just enough room for the two of them.

“Are you okay?” Yuan asked her, feeling Lan Yingying’s smooth back touching his back.

“Yes. Thank you for giving me this opportunity, Lord.” She said.

A bittersweet smile appeared on Yuan’s face, and he said, “I really cannot get used to being called ‘Lord’. Can’t you just call me Yuan like you used to? Please?”

After a moment of silence, Lan Yingying responded, “I understand, Yuan.”

“Thank you.”

The two of them began absorbing the medicine in the bathtub shortly after.

Lan Yingying immediately began sweating when she felt the pain from the medicine, as she has never experienced such intense pain before— not even when she trained with her grandparents.

However, as a divine beast, Lan Yingying’s endurance is naturally higher than humans, so it wasn’t as bad as when Yuan first experienced it.

Two hours later, all of the medicine had been absorbed from the bathtub. There was enough medicine to last four hours, but since there were two of them, it was absorbed twice as fast.

“How do you feel?” Yuan asked Lan Yingying afterward, who was breathing heavily.

“My body hurts all over like I am constantly being pricked by needles, but it’s not unendurable. My skin also feels a lot smoother,” she said.

After getting out of the bathtub, they rinsed their body with clean water before leaving the bathroom fully dressed.

Since they have seen each other naked before, even bathing in a river together, neither of them felt awkward, almost like it was natural.

“Hm? That ended quicker than I anticipated. Looks like I will have to increase the treasures next time.” Feng Yuxiang after seeing them leave the bathroom.

Yuan then said, “Doesn’t it require a lot of treasure to temper one person? Now that you have to deal with two people, you’ll run out of treasures much quicker... Looks like I also need to start gathering my own treasures.”

“It’s not that bad. I have enough treasures to help the Young Master for an entire year. However, now that Yingying will also be tempering her body, that supply will only last half as long, so we still have half a year before I run out of treasures.”

“Half a year...” Yuan nodded and said, “I will figure a way to obtain treasures to temper Yingying and myself before then so that you don’t have to use your treasures on us anymore. I have said this before, but I really feel guilty using your treasures for my own benefit...”

Feng Yuxiang smiled and said, “I have also said this before, but it’s my pleasure to assist you in any way possible. Although these treasures are valuable in the Lower Heavens, they’re not worth much in the upper heavens.”

“Furthermore, I only have them because I had a business to run before. Now that I no longer have a store, nor do I need to sell them, I really have no use for the treasures, so instead of letting them sit in my storage ring forever, I would rather use them to help the Young Master.”

“Thank you, Feng Feng...” Yuan nodded.

And for the remainder of the night, Yuan would cultivate the spiritual energy he'd absorbed from the bath, quickly rising his cultivation base.

The following morning, Yuan logged off and prepared to head to the Cultivators' Association with Meixiu and the others, leaving Pang City's protection to Feng Yuxiang and the other two.

Chapter 643: Dragon Spiral Mountain

“Hey, Yuan! It’s been a while! How have y’all been?” Wang Ming greeted them with the others behind him.

“Hello, everyone. Everything’s been great on our side. What about you guys?”

“It was very boring since we couldn’t really train in the hotel we were staying at. We’ve been waiting for our own headquarters so that we can train all we want!”

Yuan smiled and said, “Then let’s see what the Cultivators’ Association has in store for us.”

Upon arriving at the Cultivators’ Association, they could see Chairman Lee standing by the entrance, clearly waiting for their arrival.

“Good morning, everyone. Our Cultivators’ Association has managed to find 5 headquarters that fit your requirements, and they’re all in this city. We’ll go look at each of them whenever you’re ready.”

“We can go look at them right now,” Yuan said.

“Very well. Please follow me. We have prepared transportation for you all.”

Yuan and the others followed Chairman Lee to the parking lot, where a long limousine was waiting, and it had more than enough room to fit all 10 of them.

Once they were seated, Chairman Lee got into the driver's seat and personally managed the car, acting as their personal chauffeur despite his status within the Cultivators' Association.

As they began moving, Chairman Lee said, "There should a yellow envelope on the table. You can find information and images of the headquarters we've scouted. Take a look at it if you'd like."

Yuan opened the yellow envelope and took out the papers inside.

"There's only information on four headquarters here. I thought we had 5?" Yuan asked after realizing this.

Chairman Lee laughed and said, "One of them is located in a very special place, so I want to keep it a surprise. However, it's also the most expensive, so we'll look at it last."

About half an hour later, they arrived at the first location, which was a large mansion in the middle of a rich neighborhood.

"There are a few other factions located in this neighborhood if you care about that." Chairman Lee said as he led them to the mansion, which had over 50 rooms available, with half of them being bedrooms.

Yuan was a little impressed by the size of the place, but compared to the Yu Family's main living quarters, it could still be considered 'small'.

"Take your time looking around the place, Daoist Yuan and his friends. I will be here if you need me. By the way, this place costs 50 million." Chairman Lee said to them.

Thus, Yuan and the others began exploring the place as a group.

"There's even a large pool in here."

"This gym is kind of small..."

"Let's check out the backyard next..."

About half an hour later, they finished their exploration.

“What do you guys think of this place?” Yuan asked them afterward.

“It’s a nice place, but I don’t think the atmosphere in this place is fitting for a headquarter. It’s more like a living quarter.” Wang Ming said, and the others agreed.

“There are still four other places to look at.”

They returned to Chairman Lee shortly afterward.

“What do you think of the place?” Chairman Lee asked them.

Yuan gave his feedback.

“I see... No worries if you don’t like it. Let’s head to the next place and hope it’s better.”

Thus, Chairman Lee drove them to the next place, and this would continue for the entire day until they have seen all of the buildings.

“The last place was the best so far, but it’s still lacking something...” Wang Ming said.

“I think so too...”

“It’s alright. We still have one more place to look at, and I can guarantee that it’ll be many times better than the last four.” Chairman Lee said.

“What’s so special about this place?” Shi Lang asked.

Chairman Lee retrieved another envelope and handed it to them before starting the car.

“Dragon Spiral Mountain?” Yuan raised his eyebrows when he saw the name on the envelope.

“That’s right. Your next headquarter will be located in the one and only Dragon Spiral Mountain!” Chairman Lee said.

And he continued, “It wasn’t easy getting this place, you know. Many factions want to go there, but they have all been rejected.”

“I have never heard of this place before,” Yuan said.

“It’s a little bit far, but it’s still within the city. The Dragon Spiral Mountain is a famous place where—”

“It’s where the most powerful families in the world live.” Chu Liuxiang suddenly interrupted Chairman Lee.

“Eh? You know of this place?” Yuan looked at her.

Chu Liuxiang nodded and said, “Of course. My family lives there, after all.”

“What? Your family lives there?” Chairman Lee was shocked to learn this, and he was immediately intrigued about her identity.

The disciples from the Jaded Garden also looked at Chu Liuxiang with pondering gazes. They knew she wasn’t from an ordinary family, but to think she belongs to a family that resides in the Dragon Spiral Mountain.

“Brother Yuan, if you live in the Dragon Spiral Mountain, I will get to visit you whenever I want even if I have to return home.” She said with a smile on her face.

“I would like to meet your family as well.” Yuan nodded.

Chairman Lee then said, “Daoist Yuan, the Dragon Spiral Mountain is also rich with spiritual energy. In fact, it probably has the most spiritual energy in this country.”

“Oh? So something like the immortal caves?”

“Now my anticipation for this Dragon Spiral Mountain is very high. I cannot wait to see this place.” Yuan said with a smile.

Three hours later, the car stopped in front of a small but tall mountain that was surrounded by a thick wall. As for the location of the mountain itself, they were in a very secluded area with no other buildings around, almost like they were in the wilderness.

“We have arrived,” Chairman Lee said to them.

Chapter 644: Four Billion Dollars

“Wow, the dragon in its name is really fitting.” Wang Ming mumbled to himself as he looked through the car window.

The mountain itself wasn’t anything too special, but the road that spirals around the mountain had the appearance of a dragon, making it seem as though there was a dragon coiling around the mountain.

While they admired the mountain, Chairman Lee pulled up to the gates and spoke to the guards there.

“I’m Chairman Lee from the Cultivators’ Association, and I have with me the Demon Sealing Faction. We’re here as scheduled.”

Once the guards verified his identity, they opened the gates to allow them inside.

“Take your time.”

“Thank you.”

The moment they entered the gates, it felt as though they had entered another world, as the spiritual energy suddenly spiked up.

Yuan was pleasantly surprised by this. Although it wasn’t as powerful as the spiritual energy in the immortal caves, they were only at the entrance of the mountain—the lowest level. He can only imagine how much stronger the spiritual energy gets as they go higher into the mountain.

“Where will our headquarters be located?” Shi Lang asked.

“The middle levels. I tried getting you guys a headquarters at the upper levels, but you don’t have even credibility. Don’t be discouraged, though, as you can always move to the upper levels once you’re ready.”

“Furthermore, getting a building in the middle level is already an amazing feat for a new faction with only 10 members.” Chairman Lee said.

Everyone there turned to look at Yuan. Surely, he’s the reason they were allowed to even step foot inside the Dragon Spiral Mountain.

Sometime later, Chairman Lee stopped the car somewhere in the middle level of the Dragon Spiral Mountain.

“Go ahead. Take a look around and tell me what you think.”

Yuan and the others wasted no time and immediately went to look around the place.

“Wow, there are two separate buildings in this place. Is the second one included if we buy the first one?” Wang Ming asked.

“Yes, everything here is included.” Chairman Lee nodded.

The first building, which was also the most spacious, had all sorts of training facilities, indoor sports fields, and offices. As for the second building, it was more of a living quarter than anything, as most of its rooms were bedrooms.

Besides the buildings, there were also a lot of empty lands, outdoor sports fields, an outdoor training area, and even a pond, almost like a miniature Jaded Garden.

“The spiritual energy in this area is slightly above the immortal caves... Unbelievable...” Wang Ming mumbled to himself.

And he continued, “I like this place.”

“I also think we should take this place. It has pretty much everything we need.” Shi Lang agreed.

The others also shared the same sentiment.

Yuan nodded.

“How much is this place?” Yuan then asked Chairman Lee.

“Since this is the Dragon Spiral Mountain, it’s going to be a lot more expensive than your typical house. The total will be 4 billion dollars, and you’ll have to pay 100 million every year for property tax.”

Even after selling his Divine-grade treasure, he cannot even afford half of it!

“I only have half a billion...” Yuan sighed.

Chairman Lee then spoke, “You can pay monthly installments if you cannot pay all of it right now. If you need money, our Cultivators’ Association will gladly help—”

“You mean our families? Cause we don’t have that kind of money.” Wang Ming said.

Shi Lang nodded and said, “Yuan, you can pay as much as you can afford. Our families will fill in the gap.”

“Are you sure? 3.5 billion is a lot of money.”

“You’re not buying this place for yourself, are you? Since we’re also going to live here, we are obligated to pay our share. It’s only fair that way. And although 3.5 billion is a lot of money, it’s nothing worth mentioning before the Six Spiritual Families.” Wang Ming smiled.

“Then it’s decided. We’ll take this place.” Li Jinxi said to Chairman Lee.

“I-I will let the owner of the mountain know your decision!” Chairman Lee quickly said.

“Hey, Chairman, I’m curious. If the middle-level houses are already this expensive, how much would it cost to live up there?” Hong Xiuquan asked.

Chairman Lee smiled and said, “The houses up there will cost 20 billion at minimum.”

“20 billion?!” They were shocked.

“As expected, only the wealthiest could possibly live in this place.” Shi Lang sighed.

“That’s not true. Even if you are rich, you’re not guaranteed to live in the Dragon Spiral Mountain. Only those approved by the lord of this mountain can live here.” Chairman Lee said.

“Who is the lord?” Yuan asked.

“He’s a very seclusive individual. Even I don’t know his identity.” Chairman Lee shrugged.

“Then how are you going to contact him?”

“He has a manager who does everything for him, and that’s who I speak with.”

“I see...”

“Maybe you’ll get to meet the lord in the future since you’ll be living in his property.”

“To own the entire Dragon Spiral Mountain, I cannot imagine how powerful this person must be.” Wang Ming mumbled.

Sometime later, Chairman Lee said, “Daoist Yuan, I will have the paperwork ready by the time we return to the Cultivators’ Association. You don't have to pay immediately, but you can start moving in starting today if you'd like."

"Alright. Thank you." Yuan nodded.

He then turned to Chu Liuxiang and asked her, "Lulu, do you want to visit your family since we're already here?"

She shook her head, "No. If I visit them, they might make me return home sooner. And it's not like I miss them or anything."

"Then let's return back to my apartment for now." Yuan nodded.

They returned to the car shortly after and began making their way back to the Cultivators' Association.

Chapter 645: Moving Out of the Apartment

“So yeah, we need 3.5 billion dollars for our faction’s headquarters.” Wang Ming called his parents to let them know of the situation.

“3.5 billion? Are you buying a house on the moon or something? Why the heck is it so expensive?!”

“No, it’s a house in the Dragon Spiral Mountain.”

“What! The Dragon Spiral Mountain?!”

“Hm? You know of it?”

“Of course! It’s one of the most suitable places in this world for cultivators! If it were not for our family size that consists of six different families, we would’ve moved there!”

“I see... Anyways, I will give you Yuan’s bank information. You can send it to him whenever you’re ready.”

“You sound very confident that we’ll give you the money...” Wang Ming’s father said.

“You’re not? I will let Yuan know right now if that’s the case.”

“W-Wait... I was only joking. Let me speak with the others first, but I’m sure we’ll be able to help him. Even if he needs twice that amount, we’ll be willing to help our savior!” His father said.

After what happened at the Jaded Garden, the people there now address Yuan as their 'Savior'.

Wang Ming hung up the phone shortly after and said to Yuan, "Our families should be sending the money to you as soon as possible."

"Thank you..." He nodded.

Sometime later, they returned to the Cultivators' Association.

"Please follow me to fill out the documents." Chairman Lee said to Yuan.

Yuan followed him to his room, where he had to fill out a whole stack of documents.

"Here are the rules and regulations that you must follow when living inside the Dragon Spiral Mountain. If you break any of these rules, you could be removed from the place. If that happens, even I cannot help you." Chairman Lee handed him a small stack of papers

"Please read all of them and make sure you're okay with them."

Yuan proceeded to spend many minutes carefully reading through the rules.

In short, they are not allowed to destroy the land there, nor are they allowed to bother their neighbors.

If they want to renovate their own property, they'll need approval from the lord of the mountain.

Most of the rules are quite simple, so Yuan didn't spend too much time on them.

Once he finished reading the rules, Yuan signed the paper stating that he understood and is willing to follow the rules.

After all of the documents were signed, Chairman Lee said, "I will handle everything else from here. You can begin your moving as soon as possible."

“What about the payment?” Yuan asked.

“Once you move into the mountain, you’ll be approached by the manager, who will ask for the payment then. You can pay monthly installments or all at once. It’s all up to you.”

“I understand. Thank you for helping us.” Yuan said to him afterward.

“It was a pleasure to help you and your faction, Daoist Yuan. If you ever need anything, you know where to find me.”

After shaking hands, Yuan left the Cultivators’ Association with the others.

“When are you going to move into our new home?” Wang Ming asked him as they walked home.

“As soon as possible,” he said.

“We’ll also be doing the same since we don’t want to live in hotels any longer.”

And before they separated, Yuan handed them some papers.

“Read this when you have the time. They are rules we must follow when living inside the mountain. If we break any of them, we could be removed.”

“Alright.”

Once they returned home, Chu Liuxiang said to Sebastian, who had stayed behind to watch the place, “Guess what, Sebastian.”

“I have no clue.” He shook his head with a smile.

“We’re returning to the Dragon Spiral Mountain,” she said.

“What? Why do you suddenly want to go home?” Sebastian expressed surprise.

“Who said anything about going home? Our new home is also in the Dragon Spiral Mountain, and we’re moving there now.”

He knew very well how difficult it is to be allowed inside the Dragon Spiral Mountain. Although Yuan is a very talented individual with some fame because of Cultivation Online, that much wouldn’t be nearly enough to let him live inside the mountain, so there must be another reason why they were allowed to live there.

However, he cannot imagine why the lord of the mountain would allow them to move there.

‘Maybe the Chu Family had something to do with it? No... That’s not possible... The masters wouldn’t do something like this...’ Sebastian pondered.

“Why are you standing there, Sebastian? Let’s help them pack so that we can leave this place as soon as possible.”

“My apologies, Young Lady.”

Of course, it didn’t take long for them to pack everything since neither Yuan nor Meixiu had much luggage. Other than their clothes, some miscellaneous things, and Yuan’s piano, there really wasn’t anything else that needed to be moved.

“Oh, right. We should let Xia Jingyi know that we’re moving out of the apartment.” Yuan suddenly remembered.

“I have already texted Yu Rou. She’ll let Xia Jingyi know once they finish training.”

“Perfect. Now we just need to move everything here to our new home.”

Sebastian then said, “We can fit the small luggage inside the car, but the piano will require a larger car.”

“Miss Meixiu, do you know how to drive a limousine? You can drive the limousine while I rent out a truck to take care of the piano.” Sebastian said to her next.

“I can do that.” Meixiu nodded.

“I understand.”

After eating dinner, everyone went to sleep early.

As for Yuan, he went into Cultivation Online to temper his body again with Lan Yingying.

The following morning, they loaded the small luggage into the limousine while Meixiu effortlessly carried the piano into the truck rented by Sebastian, shocking the pedestrians with her absurd strength.

Once they were ready to move, they began making their way to the Dragon Spiral Mountain.

Chapter 646: Manager of the Dragon Spiral Mountain

A few hours after leaving their apartment, Yuan and the others arrived at the gates of the Dragon Spiral Mountain, and to their surprise, Wang Ming and the others were all waiting outside with their luggage.

“Why are you all waiting out here?” Yuan asked them.

“We couldn’t get inside because we don’t have any identification even though we were here yesterday...” Wang Ming sighed.

“Oh, right... Chairman Lee only gave me one identification for now... I really hope you guys didn’t stay here overnight.”

“No, we only got here about an hour ago, so it wasn’t that bad.”

Yuan nodded, and he went to the guards to show them his identification.

“Welcome to the Dragon Spiral Mountain, Young Master Yuan.” The guards greeted him.

“Where can I get identifications for my companions so they can enter the place without me?” Yuan asked them.

“The Manager will handle all of that once she visits you later today,” said the guards.

“I understand.”

Once the gates were opened, Yuan and the others made their way to their new home in the middle of the mountain.

“Yuan, you can go ahead and pick your room first. We’ll decide afterward.” Wang Ming said to him.

“Well, they’re all pretty much the same, so it doesn’t really matter to me.”

“How about this one? It’s the largest room in this building, and it’s also the closest to the staircase.” Shi Lang suggested.

“Sure.”

“What about you two?” Yuan asked Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang.

“I will live in the room next to yours,” Meixiu said.

“Can I live in the same room as you, Brother Yuan?” Chu Liuxiang asked.

“I don’t really mind, but are you sure? Don’t you want your own room?”

“I already have my own room at the Chu Family’s living quarters. I want to spend as much time as I can with you while I am here,” she said.

“If that’s what you want.” Yuan nodded. He really didn’t mind sharing the room with Chu Liuxiang, as there was more than enough space for two—even three people.

Once Yuan picked his room, the others also went to find their own rooms.

Sometime later, after everyone unpacked their luggage, Li Jinxi approached Yuan with her training sword in her grasp.

“Yes.” She nodded with a serious face.

She has been waiting for this opportunity ever since she left the Jaded Garden, and not being able to train at her previous hotel only made her desire to train stronger.

“I’m expecting the Manager of the mountain to visit us today, so let’s do it tomorrow.”

“Promise?”

“I promise.”

“Okay.” Li Jinxi then walked away and went to look for someone else to spar with.

Yuan returned to his room and sat on the large bed.

“I’m not used to living in such a large room.” He sighed out loud.

Chu Liuxiang, who was organizing her clothes, said, “Aren’t you glad I’m living in here with you then? It’ll feel less spacious, after all.”

Yuan nodded with a slight smile on his face.

He then asked, “Are you sure you don’t want to visit your family? You should at least let them know that you’re back.”

“Sebastian? I’ve been wondering why he suddenly disappeared after unloading our luggage.”

“Brother Yuan... You should prepare yourself.” Chu Liuxiang suddenly said.

“My family will definitely approach you in the near future, especially now that you’re living in the Dragon Spiral Mountain. I just want you to prepare yourself because they can be a little overbearing at times.”

“I-I will keep that in mind.” Yuan nodded.

Sometime later, Meixiu knocked on his door and said, “Yuan! Someone calling herself ‘Manager’ is here to see you!”

“Thank you! I’m coming!”

Yuan left his room shortly after and followed Meixiu outside, where a beautiful young woman in a business suit was waiting. She had long red hair that was tied into a ponytail, and she held a serious expression on her face that almost looked natural.

“Are you Yuan?” She asked him when he arrived.

“Yes, I am.”

“Hmmm...”

The Manager then took a moment to stare at Yuan’s face, as he wasn’t wearing his mask at this moment.

After a moment of silence, she spoke, “I’m the Manager of the Dragon Spiral Mountain, and I’m here to collect your payment. This is my identification. Will you be doing monthly installments or full payment? If you’re doing monthly installments, we’ll need 500 million as a downpayment.”

“I will do the full payment,” Yuan said.

“Alright. Let’s sit down before we proceed.”

Yuan then led her to the living room.

Once they were seated, the Manager retrieved a laptop and prepared the payment process.

“Please read these documents and sign them while I set up the payment,” she said to him.

A few minutes later, Yuan signed the documents after reading them with Meixiu.

“Here’s the bank information. Please send the money here.” The Manager then showed them the information on her laptop.

Meixiu then used her phone to transfer the money.

A few minutes later, once she confirmed the payment, the Manager said to them, “Congratulations. You’re now officially part of the Dragon Spiral Mountain. You don’t have to pay for the yearly property tax until you have lived here for a whole year. Do you have any questions?”

“How do I get identifications for my friends living here with me?”

“How many people are currently living here with you?”

“Nine people so far.”

The Manager then retrieved 9 badges from her laptop carrying pack and placed them on the table.

“They will be able to enter the mountain as long as they have these badges. Please don’t lose them, or you’ll have to pay a hefty fine of 1 billion dollars for each one you lose. And if you’re caught selling them, you’ll be removed from the mountain.”

“I understand. Thank you.” Yuan said as he accepted the badges.

“Any more questions for me before I leave?”

Chapter 647: Meixiu's New Role

"I actually do have one. What kind of person is the lord of the Dragon Spiral Mountain?" Yuan asked her.

"The lord, huh? Why do you want to know about him?" The Manager held a mysterious smile on her face.

"Out of curiosity, I guess," Yuan said.

"Unfortunately, I cannot tell you anything about the lord. However, if you live here for long enough, you might get to see him."

"Is that so?"

"Anyways, if you have questions about the mountain, you can contact me at any time of the day. Here's my business card." The Manager handed her card to them.

"Jenny Zhang..." Yuan read the name on the business card.

"You can just call me Jenny."

After shaking hands with each other, Manager Jenny left the scene.

"Since this finished earlier than expected, I'll go spar with Li Jinxgi now," Yuan said as he stood up.

"What are you going to do now?"

"I'm not sure, honestly... In fact, I'm wondering what my role— my purpose is now. Am I still your caretaker? It really doesn't feel like it since I have been spending most of my time cultivating..." Meixiu asked him.

Yuan pondered for a moment before speaking, “We’re no longer in a small home with just the two of us. There’s Lulu and the others, not to mention the faction. Furthermore, I will be spending most of my time in Cultivation Online now, so I won’t need any attention. Instead of remaining as my caretaker, why don’t you do something different? Like being the manager of the faction?”

“So basically what my mother is doing?” Meixiu asked.

Even though Meifeng is still the Yu Family’s caretaker, she doesn’t actually do any caretaking at all, leaving all of the chores for the other servants under her. Instead, she manages the Yu Family’s company, such as doing their finances and scheduling their appointments, which has nothing to do with being a caretaker— at least not a normal one.

“If you put it that way, I guess so. After all, you’re Miss Meifeng’s daughter, and I trust you the most when it comes to these kinds of things. You’re smart, responsible, and hardworking. I cannot think of anyone else more fitting than you to manage my— our faction.” Yuan said with a smile.

Meixiu was left speechless by Yuan’s trust in her, even blushing a bit from his compliments.

“Okay. I will see what I can do.” Meixiu nodded with a resolute face.

Then she realized something.

“What about the actual chores? Who will do them now?” Meixiu asked a moment later.

“That’s a good question...” Yuan pondered for a bit before speaking, “Maybe we should do it ourselves.”

“I would hire people to do the chores, but we’re kind of short on money after moving to this place, and it’ll be a good way to discipline ourselves.”

“Discipline...?” Meixiu raised her eyebrows.

She cannot imagine Wang Ming and the others doing chores, as they're all from powerful and wealthy families, so they're probably used to having other people handling their chores.

"Let's gather everyone first," Yuan said.

Sometime later, everyone gathered in the main lobby.

"What's the matter? Why did you gather everyone, Yuan?" Wang Ming asked him, as they were in the middle of training when they were called.

"Well, I've been talking to Meixiu about our future and how we should take care of this place. I have decided to make Meixiu the manager of the faction, so she will no longer have time to be my caretaker. This means we have nobody to do the chores such as cleaning and cooking, and I'm wondering what we should do."

"Why don't we just hire some people to do it instead? That's what most big families do." Shi Lang suggested.

"I also thought about that, but we're short on money right now, and I don't know how we'll get permission to let these people inside the Dragon Spiral Mountain."

Chu Liuxiang then raised her hand and said, "Actually, the Dragon Spiral Mountain provides free servants if you need people to do chores."

"Huh? Really?"

She nodded and continued, "On the first of every month, the Dragon Spiral Mountain will provide free cleaning services to everyone living in the mountain. However, the downside is that they'll only be available on the first of every month, meaning they won't be there whenever you need something to be cleaned. But unless we're making a mess, we don't need to clean that often."

"If someone makes a mess, they should just clean up after themselves."

Yuan nodded, "That will work. Is everybody okay with this?"

Everyone there nodded.

“What about food? Does this place offer chefs?” Li Jinxi asked.

Chu Liuxiang shook her head and said, “No, we’ll have to either hire them or cook for ourselves.”

Meixiu then said, “If it’s just cooking breakfast and dinner, I can handle that by myself.”

“Are you sure? Won’t you be busy with the faction?” Yuan asked her.

“Even if you tell me to manage the faction, I don’t think there is that much for me to do, especially since we’re new, and we only have 10 people in the faction.”

“If you say so.” Yuan nodded, and he continued, “But if you don’t have time to cook in the future, let me know so we can do something about it.”

“Okay.”

Once everything was settled, Yuan went to spar with Li Jinxi and the others in their backyard, which was just an empty field at the moment.

As for Meixiu, she went to research more about factions and what managers should be doing for their factions.

“Hey, Jinxi, don’t use too much strength when you spar with Yuan. If you damage the land too much...” Wang Ming warned her.

“I know...” she said.

While Yuan sparred with the others, somewhere in the upper level of the Dragon Spiral Mountain, Sebastian greeted Chu Liuxiang’s foster parents.

“I have returned, Master Chu, Madam Chu.” Sebastian bowed to them.

“Sebastian? Why did you suddenly return alone? Where’s my daughter?” Chu Liuxiang’s father asked him.

“The Young Lady is still with Yuan. They are also currently in the Dragon Spiral Mountain, so I decided to return alone and let the Masters know of the situation.”

Chapter 648: Obsessed

“What? Yuan? What is he doing in the mountain? Even if Chu Liuxiang is with him, he shouldn’t be able to enter the mountain without the lord’s permission.” Chu Shijian, Chu Liuxiang’s foster father, said in a surprised voice.

“He actually moved into the mountain, and he’s currently living in the middle level of the Dragon Spiral Mountain,” Sebastian explained to him.

“He moved into the mountain?! How is that even possible? Although I have no doubt that he’ll be able to live here in the future, he shouldn’t have the qualifications to enter this place yet!”

“I was also surprised when I heard it, but the lord approved it, and he moved in just today.”

“Hmmm...”

Chu Shijian closed his eyes to ponder.

“What do you think of him? This Yuan.” The woman sitting beside Chu Shijian suddenly asked.

“He’s a very talented individual. Perhaps even more talented than our top geniuses. Although I haven’t spent much time with him or seen his full potential, I believe he’s someone worthy of our attention.” Sebastian said.

“I haven’t seen you praise someone like this before, Sebastian. He must have really impressed you.” The woman smiled.

He nodded and said, “While I didn’t witness it for myself, it is true that he’d defeated the demon that was supposedly as strong as a cultivator at the peak Spirit Grandmaster. I have also watched him practice with the Six Spiritual Families' geniuses. He's the real deal."

"If you never fought one yourself, how do you know that demons are really that powerful? If you ask me, I think they exaggerated the demon's power."

"Exaggerated, huh? I really can't tell you since I wasn't there to witness it..." Sebastian shook his head.

Chu Shijian then spoke, "What about Chu Liuxiang? How would you describe their relationship?"

After a moment of silence, Sebastian spoke, "From what I have witnessed, the Young Lady truly cares about Yuan. In fact, I would even say she's obsessed with him."

"Obsessed?" Madam Chu frowned slightly when she heard this, and she said, "I don't like the sound of this word, especially when it's about one of our members. Although Liuxiang is not blood-related, she still has our surname, so she has the obligation to behave like one."

"Unfortunately, I don't know how else to describe her feelings for him besides 'obsessed. If he asks her to die for him, she most likely wouldn't refuse."

"It's that serious?" The parents looked at each other with perplexed emotions in their eyes. They knew Chu Liuxiang valued Yuan, but they didn't anticipate her feelings would be this intense.

"From what I am hearing... This Yuan doesn't appear to be a good influence on Liuxiang. I think we should separate them as soon as possible before it's too late." Madam Chu suddenly suggested.

Hearing this, Sebastian quickly said, "With all due respect, I don't think that would be a wise decision, Madam Chu."

"Oh? Why not?" She stared at him with narrowed eyes.

“Although Yuan may not have many achievements now, his potential is enormous and we cannot ignore that. If we separate them and offend him... I fear he might retaliate against us in the future.”

“Retaliate... Against us? The Chu Family?” Madam Chu chuckled in a manner that looked down on Sebastian’s claims.

After all, the Chu Family is one of the largest and most influential families in this world. How can a single person possibly affect them, much less threaten them?

“Whether he is worthy or not... I will be the judge of that. Sebastian, continue observing Yuan and my daughter.” Chu Shijian commanded.

“As you wish.”

After speaking with the Chu Family, Sebastian returned to Yuan’s faction.

‘Thank the lord I didn’t mention the Young Lady’s desire to bear Yuan’s child, or the masters would’ve acted immediately... I have done everything I could to support you. It’s all up to you two now...’ Sebastian sighed inwardly.

The following morning, Yuan woke up before sunrise and went to his closet, where he had two zithers stored.

He retrieved the plain-looking zither and went outside with it.

After taking a seat in the middle of the field, he began playing the zither.

A few songs later, Yuan took a deep breath and sighed in a low voice, “I will be fighting the Sect Master of the Blood Sect today... And I might have to kill him in order to protect the others... But I hope things don’t go that far...”

Once he cleared his mind, Yuan returned to his room and wore the console on his head, entering Cultivation Online.

“Young Master, where are you going?” Feng Yuxiang and the others asked him when he noticed him trying to leave the Luo Family by himself.

“I’m going to fight the Blood Sect,” he calmly responded.

“Then we’re coming—”

“No.” Yuan quickly interrupted.

And he continued, “You stay here— all of you. I can handle them by myself.”

“Young Master, while we don’t doubt that you can deal with the Blood Sect by yourself, I think we should still be there just in case anything happens.” Feng Yuxiang said.

“Please, let me fight them alone,” Yuan said to them in a slightly nervous tone.

“I don’t want any of you to see me covered in blood.”

“Are you worried that we might see you differently because you killed a few people?” Feng Yuxiang suddenly asked him.

Yuan silently nodded.

“Don’t worry, Young Master. We won’t see you in a different light just because you killed a few trash. This is the cultivation world, after all. Cultivators killing other Cultivators is as natural as breathing in this world, and you’re doing it for a good cause. In fact, you’ll even be seen as a hero for your actions.”

Yuan then sighed, “While what you say might be true, I won’t be able to concentrate with you guys there. Furthermore, I want you to stay here just in case the Blood Sect attacks this city when I am gone.”

“Young Master—”

“Good luck and stay safe, Brother Yuan.” Xiao Hua suddenly interrupted.

“Thank you.”

Yuan left the place shortly after.

“Why did you let him go alone? What if something happens to him?” Feng Yuxiang asked Xiao Hua afterward.

“This is Brother Yuan’s decision. We can only believe in him,” she calmly responded.

Chapter 649: Fighting the Blood Sect

“The Young Master left not long ago to deal with the Blood Sect,” said Feng Yuxiang.

“Eh?” Lord Luo looked at the three of them. If they’re all here, this meant that Yuan had gone to deal with the Blood Sect by himself.

Seeing Lord Luo’s expression, Lan Yingying said, “Yuan will be fine. Don’t underestimate him.”

“I-I understand...”

Meanwhile, at the Flying Sword Sect, Yuan stood before the three stone tablets with a tranquil expression on his face.

However, inside his mind, he was trying to communicate with somebody.

‘Are you going to show up today and take control of my body like last time? You like killing people, right?’

He would rather let the handsome man take control of his body so that he doesn’t have to personally kill the Blood Sect, and he would feel less guilt that way.

Unfortunately, the handsome man would not respond no matter how much Yuan tried to summon him.

Yuan sighed.

And for the next two hours, he would patiently wait for the Blood Sect to show up at the three stone tablets.

“Hm?”

Yuan snapped out of his daze when he could suddenly sense many presences appearing around him, and these presences would reek of bloodlust.

Furthermore, these presences would continue to appear without stopping for many minutes.

Tens, hundreds, thousands— Yuan was suddenly surrounded in all directions by thousands of Cultivators ranging from Spirit Apprentice to Spirit Master, and there was even a single Spirit Grandmaster amongst them.

“They brought the whole sect here even though I only called for their Sect Master...?” A bittersweet smile appeared on Yuan’s face, as he was only hoping to fight their Sect Master and a few other people, not their entire sect.

Eventually, Yuan no longer needed to sense them, as he could see these people with his eyes, and as expected, it was as though he was being surrounded by a black sea made out of people.

However, Yuan tried to remain calm and waited for their Sect Master to appear.

A few minutes later, once the people there stopped moving, Yuan could see a figure hovering in the sky, and this person was slowly approaching him.

This person had long white hair that reached his feet, a short white beard, and two bloodshot eyes that made it seem as though he hasn’t slept for weeks.

“Are you the bastard that killed my son?” The Blood Sect’s Sect Master, Lord Blood, asked once he stopped moving a few meters in front of Yuan.

Yuan closed his eyes and took a deep breath before speaking in a clear voice, “That’s right.”

“Why did you kill him?” Lord Blood continued to ask.

Yuan opened his eyes, revealing the coldness within, and he responded, “Because he was an eyesore.”

Lord Blood visibly trembled when he heard Yuan’s words, but he managed to barely control his emotions.

“Are you mad? Even though you guys from the Blood Sect had killed so many innocent people? Have you heard of ‘Karma’?” Yuan looked at Lord Blood straight into his red eyes, ignoring everyone else.

After a moment of silence, Lord Blood spoke, “I don’t believe you.”

“You don’t believe me...?” Yuan raised his eyebrows.

“You can bullsh*t all you want, but I can tell whether someone is a killer or not just by looking at bloodlust in their aura, and I have a strong sense of smell for blood. Forget bloodlust, you smell like you have never touched blood before. There’s no way someone like you killed my son.” Lord Blood coldly sneered.

Yuan didn’t say anything else and retrieved the Empyrean Overlord, and that immediately alerted everyone there, causing them to draw their weapons and enter a defensive position.

However, Yuan didn’t attack anyone and merely used the technique Bloody Sword Strike in front of everyone there.

Lord Blood’s face immediately paled after seeing this technique.

“Y-Y-You...”

He was at a loss for words, as only core disciples and above from their Blood Sect could learn the Bloody Sword Strike.

“Where did you obtain that technique?” Lord Blood asked him in a grim voice.

“YOU BASTARD!” Lord Blood could no longer control his emotions and roared.

“GET HIM! I WANT HIM ALIVE SO THAT I CAN TORTURE HIM LATER!” He commanded the thousands of disciples there.

Upon hearing their Sect Master’s command, the Blood Sect disciples did not hesitate to challenge a Spirit Grandmaster and rushed at Yuan.

Seeing this, Yuan took a deep breath and mumbled to himself, “It’s okay. The world is better off without them. They will kill countless innocent people if I don’t stop them today. They may have the appearance of a human, but their hearts are no different than a demon— cruel, bloodthirsty, and inhumane.”

“In order to protect Pang City... The Luo Family... and everyone else... I must stop them here...”

“They’re just ants... beasts... demons...”

After taking a moment to convince himself to act, Yuan tightened his grasp on the Emyrean Overlord before swinging it like a madman.

“HAAAAAA!”

Yuan used Bloody Sword Strike, sending a massive red arc of sword light at the Blood Sect disciples that were charging at him.

Whoosh!

The arc of sword light swept the crowd and shredded their bodies in halves instantly and effortlessly.

With a single strike, Yuan had killed dozens of people from the Blood Sect, but the others didn't even bat an eyelid and continued to run at him like a bunch of mindless beasts.

Seeing their unnatural reaction, Yuan felt relieved, as this made them seem less human and more like beasts in his eyes.

Very quickly, rivers of blood were created and washed over the dried blood in the Flying Sword Sect, and corpses piled up like mountains.

Although Yuan was too occupied to realize it, the scenery there was quickly becoming the bloody dream he had a while ago, and somewhere deep within his consciousness, a familiar voice praised his actions as he continued to slaughter the Blood Sect.

Chapter 650: Destroying the Blood Sect

Whoosh!

“Ahhhh!”

Bang!

“Aaaaaggghhh!”

Blood and body parts scattered all over the place as Yuan continued to swing the Empyrean Overlord without mercy.

Tens— hundreds of disciples from the Blood Sect were slaughtered at the hands of Yuans, yet their Sect Master, Lord Blood, remained hovering in the sky without moving a single finger, silently watching his disciples getting slaughtered in the bulk with a cold gaze.

Of course, he never really expected the disciples that were mostly Spirit Apprentices and Spirit Warriors to capture Yuan, who was a Spirit Grandmaster.

Even if he had tens of thousands of disciples, it would not be enough for a Spirit Grandmaster.

His only motive was to tire out Yuan with his disciples so that he would have a better time taking him down later. In other words, he was sacrificing his own disciples for himself.

As for the disciples, they had no choice but to fight Yuan, even if they might die. After all, if they don't listen to Lord Blood, they will definitely die at the hands of their own Sect Master.

“Get him! He won’t be able to defeat all of us!”

“For Lord Blood!”

The disciples continued to rush at Yuan despite his overwhelming presence.

“Heavenly Domain!”

A profound aura suddenly appeared around Yuan, instantly pressuring before flattening the disciples there into meat paste.

Blood splattered all over Yuan’s body and face, but when the blood touched his Golden Dragon Robes, they would slide right off, almost as though it was coated in a thick layer of liquid-resistance substance.

However, the blood on his face remained, and some of it even got into his eyes, making it seem as though he was crying blood.

“Haaaa!”

Yuan swung again, and another dozen people died.

‘Ah... What exactly am I doing...? I can’t feel anything...’ Yuan wondered inwardly he as subconsciously swung the Empyrean Overlord in every direction.

‘Why am I doing this again?’

‘You’re doing this to protect the innocent... Just like you always have...’ Another voice suddenly resounded in his head.

‘Who are you?’

‘Me? You should already know the answer to that question.’ The voice responded.

And it continued, ‘The sensation of their flesh tearing apart... The smell of blood... The profound atmosphere... Their blood-curdling screams... Remember it... Remember it all...’

Flashbacks began occurring inside Yuan’s head, but he still managed to fight the Blood Sect.

After an unknown amount of time have passed, Yuan snapped out of his flashbacks, finding himself in the middle of a bloodbath.

All of the Blood Sect disciples beside the Sect Master had been wiped out before he realized.

Yuan lifted his hands to see that both his hands were covered in blood. His clothes were fine without a drop of blood on them for some reason, but his long hair was dripping in blood.

The stench of blood and spilled organs assaulted Yuan’s nose, causing his body to tremble, but it was not fear or shock that he was feeling— it was the feeling of nostalgia.

“What are you going to do now that all of your disciples are dead?” Yuan slowly lifted his head to look at Lord Blood with a profound gaze.

“I am going to kill you now for taking away my son from me, of course.”

Lord Blood descended from the sky with a red sword in his grasp that pulsed as though it had veins hidden within.

He pointed the sword at Yuan as dozens of veins appeared on his head, all looking as though it could pop at any second.

“YOU. WILL. PAY. FOR. KILLING. MY. SON!” He growled in a slow and cold voice.

Yuan momentarily ignored Lord Blood and turned to look at the three stone tablets not far away.

“You will also pay... for killing my friend.”

Yuan tightened his grasp on the Empyrean Overlord.

“DIE FOR ME!”

Lord Blood rushed at Yuan a moment later.

Yuan welcomed his blade with a grim smile.

Clang!

Clang!

Clang!

They fought back and forth for many minutes with neither of them getting a lead on the other.

Of course, Yuan was going easy on Lord Blood, as he could easily kill someone at Lord Blood's level with ease.

‘Why?! Why isn't he tired after fighting thousands of Cultivators?! Does he have unlimited stamina or something?!’ Lord Blood was shocked inwardly when he cannot gain an advantage over Yuan.

‘I am one level above him, and he's fought thousands of Cultivators! Why is he still able to fight me?!’

“Thousands of people died because of you.” Yuan suddenly spoke.

“And no, I am not talking about the ‘people’ around us. They don't deserve to be called people. They're animals— beasts.”

“Shut up! I kill whoever I want to kill! I am the Sect Master of the Blood Sect! Whoever lives or dies is within my discretion!” Lord Blood laughed.

Yuan released a deep sigh after hearing his words.

Yuan suddenly distanced himself from Lord Blood and stopped moving.

“Do you want to know how your son died?” He asked after a moment of silence.

Lord Blood narrowed his eyes that were filled with hatred.

“This is what killed him.”

Yuan raised his sword into the air for a moment before sending it downwards.

“Heaven Splitting Sword Strike!”

Lord Blood was too shocked to react, allowing the beam of light to consume his body, and almost instantaneously, his body disappeared with the light.

Yuan released a deep and profound sigh of relief after killing Lord Blood.

Suddenly—

After all of the notifications came and went, Yuan looked around the place and pondered for a moment.

Sometime later, he began walking around the place, picking up the spatial rings and pouches that no longer had an owner.

‘I am currently short on money, and I cannot rely on Feng Feng forever...’

Of course, Yuan hoped to sell these spatial rings and the treasures inside for some gold later.

After gathering all of the spatial rings he could find, including Lord Blood's spatial ring, Yuan quietly left the scene and made his way back to Pang City.

“I-It's the Blood Sect!”

When the guards saw Yuan's bloody appearance, they immediately mistook him for someone in the Blood Sect and drew their weapons at him, yet their legs couldn't help but shake uncontrollably.

"Calm down. It's me, Yuan." He said to them.

"T-The Hero? W-Why is your appearance like that? What happened to you?" They asked him in a trembling voice.

"I had some business to settle with the Blood Sect. That's all," he said in a calm voice.

"T-That's all?" The guards exchanged dumbfounded glances with each other.

"I'd like to return to the Luo Family and quickly wash myself if you don't mind."

"R-Right away!" The guards immediately allowed him into the city.

Yuan didn't say anything else and made his way back to the Luo Family, where Xiao Hua and the others were waiting.

"Brother Yuan..."

"Young Master..."

"Yuan..."

His companions were clearly shocked speechless by Yuan's bloody appearance.

"Don't worry, this isn't my blood. I will explain everything later, but right now, I need to use the bathroom."

The three of them could only nod their heads in silence.

After entering the bathroom, Yuan would proceed to spend almost two hours washing the blood off his body and hair.

Once he was done, he sat before the Luo Family and the others in another room.

“D-Daoist Yuan... What happened?” Lord Luo asked him.

Yuan didn’t immediately respond. Instead, he retrieved Lord Blood’s spatial ring and a bloodied medallion, which read ‘Blood Sect Authority’.

“T-That’s something only the Sect Master of the Blood Sect should have! Why do you have that?!” Lord Luo exclaimed in a terrified voice when he saw the medallion.

“I killed him and took it from him,” Yuan responded in a calm voice.

“Y-You killed Lord Blood? But his disciples— the Blood Sect will...”

“The Blood Sect won’t do anything to me... Since I killed most of if not all of their disciples as well.”

“...”

The room turned silent after Yuan finished his sentence, and everyone there could only stare at him with clear disbelief on their faces.

Yuan then explained the situation to them and how he fought against the entire Blood Sect by himself.

Chapter 651: Heart Demon

“Young Master... Don’t blame yourself... You did nothing wrong by killing those evil Cultivators.” Feng Yuxiang spoke a moment after Yuan explained his battle with the Blood Sect, as there was a clear sense of guilt within his eyes as he explained how he killed thousands of disciples from the Blood Sect.

However, Yuan shook his head and sighed in a low voice, “You’re wrong. I am neither feeling guilt nor self-blame because I killed those evil Cultivators. I am worried because I don’t feel any sympathy even after killing so many people...”

“Even now, I cannot feel anything. Is there something wrong with me?”

“That’s completely normal, Young Master. It just means your consciousness doesn’t find anything wrong with killing some evildoers. I can assure you that there’s nothing wrong with you. You’re just growing up— as a Cultivator. That’s it.”

“Growing up, huh?” Yuan sighed.

Sometime later, Yuan said to Lord Luo, “Pang City should be safe now that the Blood Sect is gone.”

“T-Thank you, Daoist Yuan! Once again, you have saved our city!” Lord Luo stood up and bowed to him.

“Unfortunately, our family doesn’t have anything else to give you, as I had already given you our most valuable treasure.”

“The Starry Abyss, huh?” Yuan suddenly retrieved the Starry Abyss.

“I still haven’t thanked you for giving me this treasure. It has been really useful to me ever since then. This treasure is more than enough to compensate for everything I have done for the city... as well as what I will do for it in the future. Of course, I hope nothing bad happens to this place ever again.”

“Thank you, Daoist Yuan.”

After talking with each other for a little more, Yuan returned to his own room.

“I am going to spend some time clearing my mind,” Yuan said to them.

He then turned to look at Feng Yuxiang and said, “Feng Feng, can you do me a favor?”

“Anything for the Young Master!”

“I will be taking Meixiu and another friend with me to climb the Stairway to Heaven, but they’re not here. Can you bring them here for me?”

“Another friend?” Feng Yuxiang raised her eyebrow.

Yuan proceeded to give her Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang’s location.

“I should return in two days,” she said after calculating how long it would take to bring them back.

She then handed him a bunch of treasures and said, “If you want to temper your body while I am gone, you can use this. Ah, here, let me separate it for you.”

After separating the treasures, Feng Yuxiang left Pang City to pick up Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang.

Meanwhile, Yuan went to the courtyard and sat under a tree with his eyes closed, seemingly cultivating.

“Yuan... He’s changed.” Lan Yingying, who was watching him from a distance with Xiao Hua, mumbled in a low voice.

“This change will only benefit Brother Yuan, who intends on climbing the Stairway to Heaven.” Xiao Hua said.

Sometime later, a figure approached Yuan and asked him, “Are you okay?”

Yuan opened his eyes and turned around to see Min Li standing behind him with a slightly worried face.

“Have you ever killed people before?” Yuan suddenly asked her.

Min Li shook her head and said, “No, but I have come close to killing someone a few times in my life.”

“I heard you destroyed the Blood Sect by yourself. I didn’t think such a thing was possible, but knowing you... I guess nothing is impossible.”

“Hopefully, I didn’t destroy myself in the process.” Yuan sighed.

“Why would you say something like that?” Min Li looked at him with raised eyebrows.

“I can tell that I am changing. I am feeling emotions I have never felt before, and I am doing things that I could’ve never imagined doing. I’m afraid that it’ll change me completely sooner or later.”

“Is it really that bad? People change. We’re both still young, so we have a lot of room and time to change.”

“Aren’t you afraid that you could become someone you don’t want to become? What if I suddenly become a cold-blooded killer?” Yuan asked.

Min Li chuckled and said, “Trust me, you could be anything, but a cold-blooded killer isn’t one of these things.”

“How can you tell?”

Min Li shrugged, “Who knows. Just a hunch, I guess.”

“Anyways, although some may say that one has no control over what kind of person they may become... I believe the complete opposite— that it’s all in your hands who you want to become.”

Yuan showed a slight smile on his face after her words that sounded oddly familiar, as Xiao Hua had said similar words before.

“Don’t think too much about it, Yuan. You had to do what was necessary. If you let this consume you, it could grow into a real heart demon in the future, and you really don’t want that.” Min Li then said.

“A heart demon? What’s that?”

“It’s something that manifests in your heart— your greatest fears or anything traumatic, really. Once you have a heart demon, it will be incredibly hard to get rid of it, and it will hinder your cultivation until you get rid of it, which requires you to face your fear or trauma.”

“Is it common for someone to have a heart demon?” Yuan asked.

“Of course. In fact, it’s really common. Although most people are not aware that they have a heart demon since it lingers within the deepest parts of their consciousness, I wouldn’t be surprised if out of 10 Cultivators, 8 or 9 of them have some sort of heart demon lying dormant within their consciousness.”

“In my case, even though I have already left them behind, my family will probably become my heart demon in the future.” Min Li sighed with a bittersweet smile.

“I see... Thank you, Disciple Min. You’ve helped me calm down a lot.”

“Just call me Min Li— or even Min.”

“I understand, Min.”

Sometime later, Yuan stood up and said to her, “Anyways, you should get ready if you aren’t already. We’ll be challenging the Stairway to Heaven in a few days.”

Chapter 652: Revealing His True Background

“Hello, Feng Feng. How have you been?”

“The same as usual. What about you? Anything new since our last meeting?”

“A lot has happened since then...” Meixiu sighed.

“Want to talk to me about it while we go pick up the Young Master’s other friend?” Feng Yuxiang asked as she picked up Meixiu with Qi Manifestation.

Meanwhile, news of what happened to the Blood Sect spread like wildfire throughout the entire Lower Heavens, and within a single day, nearly everybody has heard about it.

“Have you heard?! Someone named ‘Yuan’ has managed to destroy the Blood Sect!”

“I have heard about it, but is it even possible to completely destroy an evil sect? Even if you killed a few hundred disciples from the Blood Sect, they won’t be destroyed unless you exterminate all of their disciples. They’re like cockroaches.”

“That’s the thing. He didn’t just kill a few hundred disciples— he killed thousands of them! Of course, this includes their Sect Master and all of the high-ranking disciples that Lord Blood brought with him. It’ll be hard for them to rebuild after this even if they’re the Blood Sect.”

“And they still lost to a single man? Heavens, how powerful is this Yuan person? And how come I haven’t heard of him until today?”

“I believe there was also a disciple with the same name in the Dragon Essence Temple.”

“Oh! I heard about him! He’s the one who carried their sect to first place in the Mystic Realm, right?”

The Dragon Essence Temple’s reputation also rose because of Yuan’s achievements.

Eventually, the news reached the ears of the Players, which caused quite a commotion in the real world.

“Rumor has it Player Yuan destroyed an entire sect by himself!”

“How do we know it’s the real Player Yuan and not some phony?”

“No, it’s real this time! NPCs around the world are talking about it, and I even went to the Flying Sword Sect to look at the battlefield! The place was still covered in blood and corpses when I got there! I have never seen anything that brutal and gruesome before! And he did it all by himself!”

“By himself? Just how powerful is Player Yuan now? After being silent for some time, he suddenly appears again and destroys an entire sect? I’m telling you, he’s a damn cheater!”

At the Eternal Lotuses' headquarters, Xia Jingyi shared the news to Yu Rou, who wasn't impressed by it as she would normally be.

In fact, she became worried after learning that Yuan had destroyed an entire sect and killed thousands of people.

"Are you sure it's Brother Yuan? I don't believe it! There's no way that he could kill so many people even if it's just a game!" Yu Rou denied it.

"I know! It must be one of these fake news created by his fandom to boost his reputation! It has been happening more and more frequently!"

"It's true, Sister Rou. It's all over the forums right now." Xia Jingyi sighed.

Yu Rou turned silent for a good moment.

"It must be because of what happened at the Jaded Garden... Meixiu said Brother Yuan had lost a dear friend to the demon. That tragedy must have changed him." Yu Rou sighed.

"Brother Yuan is in pain, yet I am not there for him..."

After pondering for a bit, Yu Rou looked at Xia Jingyi and said in a resolute voice, "I am going to meet with Brother Yuan in Cultivation Online tomorrow."

She then called Meixiu.

However, nobody picked up since Meixiu was busy in Cultivation Online, so she sent a text message instead.

The following morning, Meixiu returned Yu Rou's call.

"Sorry, Yu Rou. I was inside Cultivation Online the whole night yesterday, so I couldn't answer your call. Did you need something?" Meixiu asked.

"Can you tell my brother that I want to meet him in Cultivation Online tonight if it's possible?"

“Of course. I will let him know. Oh, where are you located right now? I will ask Feng Feng to pick you up.”

After giving Meixiu the location and time, Yu Rou closed the call and went to morning practice.

Meanwhile, Meixiu told Yuan about Yu Rou’s meeting request during breakfast.

“Brother Yuan’s little sister, huh? I have been wanting to meet her for a while now.” Chu Liuxiang mumbled with a profound smile after hearing the news.

“Yuan, you have a little sister? Since when?” Wang Ming and the others were also intrigued, as this was their first time hearing about it.

“Since I was adopted into the Yu Family,” he said with a smile, not even bothering to hide it.

“Huh? Yu Family?” They looked at each other, wondering why it sounded so familiar.

“My other name is Yu Tian, and I used to be in the Yu Family—the one that owns a music and entertainment company in this city.” Yuan suddenly revealed his real identity to them.

Not only did he trust these people, but he also no longer had any reasons to hide his identity.

“Wait? That Yu Family? Heavens... I would have never imagined that you had such an... ordinary background... I thought you came from an Immortal family or something similar!” Wang Ming exclaimed.

The people there were shocked. Although the Yu Family is quite influential and big, they were nothing in the eyes of the Six Spiritual Family.

“Why did you use past tense when speaking about the Yu Family? Are you no longer with them?” Li Jinxi noticed this detail and asked him.

“That’s right. I am not part of that family anymore. They kicked me out, after all.”

“WHAT?!”

Li Jinxi and the others were even more shocked to hear this piece of information. Why on earth would the Yu Family abandon such a heaven-defying genius that makes even their Six Spiritual Family jealous?

“Are they insane?” Wang Ming blurted out his thoughts that were shared by everyone there.

Yuan smiled and said, “Let me tell you a little bit about my background.”

Thus, Yuan would go on and tell them about his history with the Yu Family and how they abandoned him when he became crippled, leaving them speechless.

Chapter 653: Picking Up Chu Liuxiang

“Hahahaha! I-I’m sorry for laughing, but I really cannot help it after listening to your story! How stupid can the Yu Family be?!” Wang Ming laughed out loud.

“Abandoning their own son because he became a cripple? It’s so ridiculous it’s funny!”

“The fact that they abandoned the one and only Player Yuan without even being aware of it!”

“Ahem!” Li Jinxi suddenly cleared her throat, causing Wang Ming to stop laughing.

She then turned to look at Yuan with a serious face, “Yuan, do you want to get revenge on the Yu Family? Our families can destroy them with ease, after all.”

“Revenge? It’s fine.”

“Why? Don’t you feel angry? Any normal person would detest their family if they were abandoned.”

“I never said I wasn’t angry at them. In fact, my anger grows every time I am reminded of them,” he spoke in a calm voice.

“Then why don’t you want revenge?”

“I want revenge, but I want to do it my own way— by myself.”

“I understand. That’s even better.” Li Jinxi nodded with a smile.

After breakfast, Yuan returned to his own room with Chu Liuxiang.

“I thought you didn’t want revenge against your family for abandoning you, Brother Yuan.” Chu Liuxiang said with a cheeky smile on her face.

“Well... Things change...” Yuan smiled back.

“Anyways, have you met Feng Feng yet?” He asked a moment later.

“No, not yet, but I should meet her soon, and my anticipation is very high.”

“High? Why?”

“Who knows.” Chu Liuxiang shrugged before lying on the bed and putting on the console.

As for Yuan, he went to play the zither for some time before going to the field to spar with the others since he had nothing else to do in Cultivation Online until Feng Yuxiang brings Meixiu and the others to the city.

Meanwhile, Chu Liuxiang was casually standing underneath a tree outside this small city somewhere in the Northern Continent, silently staring at the sky.

“Hello, beautiful young lady. I cannot help but notice you standing there in a daze from the corner of my eyes, as you were just so dazzling—”

“You can leave me alone.” Chu Liuxiang turned to look at the handsome young man standing in front of her.

“Don’t be like that. There seems to be a lot in your mind. If you want, I’d be happy to hear you—”

“I am thinking about the love of my life, so I would like it for you to leave me alone,” she interrupted again.

“T-That... I...”

The young man became speechless after hearing her words.

However, Chu Liuxiang was simply too beautiful for him to give her up so easily. It was a once-in-a-lifetime chance for him.

Unfortunately, before he could open his mouth again, he noticed another figure at the corner of his eyes, and this figure had descended from the sky, causing him to turn his focus.

“Are you the Young Master’s friend?” Feng Yuxiang asked her.

“Young Master?” Chu Liuxiang raised her eyebrows.

“That’s her, Feng Feng,” Meixiu said in a calm voice.

The young man was stunned by the sudden appearance of Feng Yuxiang and Meixiu. He has never seen so many top beauties at once before.

“Well then, what are we waiting for?”

And before the Young Man or Chu Liuxiang could even react, Feng Yuxiang lifted Chu Liuxiang into the air before flying away.

“Y-You’re certainly in a rush, Feng Feng...” Meixiu said to her as they soared in the sky.

“I promised the Young Master that I’d return to his side in two days, and I didn’t add into account that I’d have to pick up Yu Rou as well! Even if she wasn’t part of the plan, I intend on keeping my promise!”

“Are you okay, Chu Liuxiang?” Meixiu turned to look at her, who had a bewildered expression on her face.

“W-We’re flying?!” She exclaimed in a shocked voice.

“First time?” Feng Yuxiang smiled.

“Obviously! You could’ve at least warned me before lifting me into the air! My heart skipped a beat back there!” Chu Liuxiang cried out loud.

Once Chu Liuxiang calmed down and was more comfortable being in the sky, Feng Yuxiang introduced herself, “My name is Feng Yuxiang, but my friends call me Feng Feng. I am the Young Master’s most loyal servant. Nice to meet you.”

“I am called Chu Liuxiang.”

“That’s all? Tell me more about your relationship with the Young Master! How did you meet each other?” Feng Yuxiang then asked.

“I am his childhood friend. We met in an orphanage.” Chu Liuxiang said.

“W-Wait...”

Feng Yuxiang suddenly stopped moving and looked at Chu Liuxiang with wide eyes.

“T-The Young Master... He’s an orphan?”

Although she had many theories on Yuan’s mysterious background, being an orphan was definitely not one of them.

“He never told you?” Chu Liuxiang nodded her head.

Feng Yuxiang quickly shook hers.

“I understand why the Young Master never speaks of his family now... It’s because he never really had one...” Feng Yuxiang sighed upon this realization.

Sometime later, they continued their journey to pick up Yu Rou.

“Why are you staring at me?” Chu Liuxiang asked Meixiu when she noticed her gaze.

“You... Your cultivation... I’m speechless...” Meixiu responded in a dazed voice.

“What did you expect? I already mentioned that I didn’t spend much time in this world.”

“I know... but... Second Level Spirit Apprentice... Wow...”

Chu Liuxiang, who was a Spirit Master in the real world, turned out to be only at the second level of Spirit Apprentice in Cultivation Online, something most people can achieve within a few hours of creating their character!

“I mean... I never really intended on playing this game seriously, and I am already cultivating in the real world, so there’s no reason why I need to waste my time increasing my cultivation in this world.” Chu Liuxiang shrugged casually.

“That makes sense... I guess...”

Chapter 654: Confession

A few hours later, Feng Yuxiang stopped moving above a city in the Eastern Continent.

“We have arrived,” she said to the other two girls.

“I see Yu Rou. She’s over there.” Meixiu pointed at the small figure standing outside the city gates.

Of course, she was surrounded by young men, just like when Yuan first found her.

“Young fairy, why are you standing out here alone? Why don’t you come with me and I will show you all around the city and some more?”

“No, you should follow me! My father is the—”

“Eh? Y-You’re floating?!”

The people there were shocked when Yu Rou suddenly started levitating off the ground.

“S-She’s not floating! She’s flying! A Spirit Grandmaster!”

They then watched as Yu Rou flew towards Feng Yuxiang and the others in the sky.

“It’s been a while, Yu Rou. I hope I didn’t interrupt your fun down there.” Feng Yuxiang said to her with a smile.

“Then let’s return to the Young Master’s side, shall we? We’re already behind schedule.”

Feng Yuxiang then carried all three of them back to Pang City.

Shortly after they began their journey, Yu Rou noticed someone there that she didn’t recognize at all— Chu Liuxiang.

“Hello, I am called Yu Rou. Are you also one of Brother Yuan’s friends? I’m his sister— little sister.” Yu Rou asked her.

Chu Liuxiang narrowed her eyes on Yu Rou with a profound smile on her face, “So you’re Yu Rou, huh? How surprising. You’re nothing like I’d anticipated— completely different from your parents. The polar opposite, even.”

“M-My parents?” Yu Rou’s eyes slightly widened.

“You’re from the Yu Family, no?”

“Oh... So you’re also a player... I assumed you were an NPC since Brother Yuan doesn’t really have any acquaintances out there. This makes more sense.” Yu Rou mumbled after realizing this fact.

“Name’s Chu Liuxiang.”

“How did you and my brother meet? What is your relationship with him? And for how long have you known him?” Yu Rou quickly began interrogating her.

“Brother Yuan and I go back... way back. I have known him for many years now. As for our relationship together, we’re friends... For now, at least.” Chu Liuxiang said, still with a smile.

“B-Brother Yuan...?” Yu Rou frowned slightly.

While Xiao Hua also addresses Yuan as ‘brother’, Yu Rou didn’t mind it as much since Xiao Hua was an NPC, and she also has the appearance of a little kid. Chu Liuxiang, however, is a young lady around Yuan's age, so Yu Rou wasn't as accepting this time.

Yu Rou turned to look at Meixiu for answers.

However, Meixiu acted as though she didn't notice Yu Rou's intensive gaze, leaving her alone to deal with Chu Liuxiang.

'I'm sorry, Yu Rou, but I'll let you experience— handle her...' Meixiu sighed inwardly.

"C-Calling your friend 'brother' is a little bit weird, don't you think?" Yu Rou asked a moment later.

"Weird? Why? Even if it's a little weird, I cannot help it, as I'd gotten used to calling him that ever since we were young."

"Young?" Yu Rou grew even more puzzled after hearing such words.

How could Chu Liuxiang possibly know Yuan when they were young when her family doesn't allow Yuan to associate with the outside world, much less have friends?

"Are you a fan of my brother? From when he was still performing on the stage?" Yu Rou could only come to this conclusion after a quick pondering.

"Hm? No, we go even further back." Chu Liuxiang shook her head.

"Even further back? That's not possible—"

Yu Rou suddenly halted her mouth movements when she realized something.

"D-Don't tell me..."

"That's right! We were at the same orphanage! I have known him before he was taken away from me by your Yu Family!" Chu Liuxiang said with a smile on her face, unaware that Yu Rou wasn't supposed to know this information.

Although Meixiu didn't realize it at first, she realized the problem afterward, but it was already too late, as Chu Liuxiang had already revealed the secret that Yuan was adopted into the Yu Family— that he wasn't really Yu Rou's real brother.

“Hm?” Seeing Meixiu facepalm herself, Chu Liuxiang raised her eyebrows, still unaware that she had accidentally revealed a secret that Meixiu and Yuan had been hiding for many years now.

Even with her Chu Family's intelligence agency, there was no way that they could've known that Yu Rou didn't know Yuan was adopted.

Seeing Yu Rou's blank face, Meixiu opened her mouth to try and salvage the impossible situation.

“Y-Yu Rou... I can explain...”

“It's fine, Meixiu. You don't have to explain anything to me.” Yu Rou suddenly interrupted.

“Actually, I have a confession to make.”

“I have known about Brother Yuan's adoption— that he is not really my brother for a long time now.”

It was now Yu Rou's turn to reveal this shocking information.

“H-How did you...” Meixiu stared at Yu Rou with a dazed face.

“How did I find out? It was actually by pure coincidence that I found out. I snuck inside my father's room one time when I was playing hide-and-seek with you since I knew you couldn't go there, and I stumbled upon it inside the closet. After learning about it, I began investigating it to confirm the information, and sure enough, it was true.”

“How long have you known about it?” Meixiu then asked.

“Shortly after Brother Yuan became unable to move his body...” Yu Rou sighed.

“For that long?!” Meixiu was truly shocked speechless now.

To think Yu Rou had managed to hide this fact for so many years. It was truly a shock to Meixiu.

“Wait... So you’re telling me that you didn’t always know about Brother Yuan’s adoption?” Chu Liuxiang finally spoke after comprehending the situation.

Yu Rou shook her head, “No... Actually... Perhaps I knew— but forgot about it since Brother Yuan always treated me like a real sister, and I was very young back then. Maybe I didn’t want to believe it and tricked myself into thinking that he was my real brother. Even I don’t know anymore.”

Chapter 655: Yu Rou's Decision

“Sorry for keeping this a secret from you two, Meixiu...” Yu Rou sighed a moment later.

“No, I should be the one apologizing. There have been many moments where I pondered about telling you. But seeing you so happy to be his ‘little sister’, I didn’t want to ruin it for you or him by tearing apart your status as brother and sister.” Meixiu shook her head.

“I understand. After all, that’s also why I didn’t reveal the fact that I knew about it. I didn’t want to ruin our relationship as siblings.” Yu Rou smiled.

She then turned to look at Chu Liuxiang and continued, “Can you tell me about Brother Yuan’s life in the orphanage? I have always been curious, but I was also too scared to ask about it since that would give everything away.”

“Of course! It would be my pleasure!”

To Yu Rou’s surprise, Chu Liuxiang didn’t object to her request, as she was certain that Chu Liuxiang would rather keep everything a secret just to tease her.

“But in return, you’ll tell me about Brother Yuan’s life in the Yu Family. The good memories. I already know all of the bad ones, after all.” Chu Liuxiang added.

And for the rest of the journey, Chu Liuxiang and Yu Rou would share their memories with Yuan to each other, quickly becoming friends.

‘What a surprise...’

This left Meixiu profoundly surprised, as she did not expect the two of them would suddenly become friends. In fact, she had expected some sort of rivalry between them, especially since Yu Rou is very protective when it comes to Yuan being with other women.

A few hours later, they arrived at Pang City, and Feng Yuxiang descended directly in front of the Luo Family's manor.

"W-Welcome back, Seniors!" The guards bowed to them.

A couple of minutes later, they went to Yuan's room.

"Young Master, I have returned from the trip." Feng Yuxiang knocked on the door.

"Brother Yuan! I am here!" Yu Rou shouted in an excited voice.

Yuan appeared before them shortly after hearing their voices.

"Hello, Yu Rou. It's been a while—"

Yu Rou pounced on Yuan and hugged him tightly before he could even finish his sentence.

"I have missed you very much, brother!"

Yuan returned her hug, "I missed you too."

"Anyways, why did you want to meet with us so suddenly?" Yuan asked her once they entered his room.

"Well, I was worried about you."

"Worried about me?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"Of course! I heard that you'd killed thousands of people and exterminated an entire sect! Is that true?! I couldn't believe it when I heard it! After all, there's no way that you could do such a thing!"

“Oh... So it’s about the Blood Sect, huh?” Yuan sighed.

“Brother... You...”

“It’s true. I destroyed the Blood Sect and killed thousands of their disciples,” he said with a serious expression.

Yu Rou’s eyes widened.

Although she already knew in her heart that it was true, she had to hear it from Yuan’s mouth to completely believe it.

“Are... Are you okay...?” Yu Rou asked him after snapping out of her daze.

“Yes, I am fine.” He nodded.

“Why...? Why would you do such a thing? It’s not like you...” Yu Rou stared at him in the eyes with a worried gaze.

“The Blood Sect is an evil sect. They have killed many innocent people, and they would have continued to do so if someone didn’t stop them. They also killed one of my first friends in this world, so I took it upon myself to stop them. I guess you can even call it revenge.”

“I wasn’t expecting to destroy their sect, but fortunately for me, their Sect Leader had gathered all of his disciples, allowing me to wipe them out in one go.”

“I don’t expect you to understand my feelings, but if you’d met the Blood Sect— these insane beasts, you would also want to destroy them.”

Yu Rou was speechless, but she could tell that her brother had changed drastically since the last time she saw him.

He no longer looked as immature and innocent as before, and there was even a hint of coldness deep within his eyes that she almost didn’t notice.

“If my actions had disappointed you, I am sorry, but I had to do what was necessary to save this city and other innocent people.”

Yu Rou closed her eyes and took a deep breath, silently digesting all of this information.

“It’s not that I am disappointed, brother. I am just surprised— flabbergasted that you had the capabilities to do such a thing. In the end, this is just a game, and it’s not illegal to kill others in this world, so I completely understand.”

Hearing Yu Rou’s words, Yuan wanted to tell her that Cultivation Online might exist somewhere in their universe, but he decided to tell her about it later since he didn’t want to overwhelm her with so much information so quickly.

“Thank you for understanding, Yu Rou.”

“What are your plans now?” Yu Rou asked something later.

“We’re going to climb the Stairway to Heaven and transcend to the next realm. Do you want to come with us? We have more room if you want to follow us.” Yuan said.

Yu Rou pondered for a moment before shaking her head, “I wanted to follow you before, but I think it would be better to stay down here for now.”

“Eh? Why?” Yuan asked in a slightly dumbfounded voice.

“First of all, most of my time is now spent on training myself, and when I do have the time to play, I’d rather just rest. In other words, I have no time to be in this world.” Yu Rou sighed.

“You sound like an old man who’s devoted all his time to work.” Chu Liuxiang suddenly said.

“Well, I cannot deny that.” Yu Rou shrugged.

Chapter 656: Just Joking

“The other reason why I don’t want to ascend has connections to the first reason. Since I don’t have time to play, my progression will barely move, so even if I ascend, I will only be a hindrance to you all. Do you understand?”

“It’s like sending a low-level player to a place filled with high-level monsters. I won’t be able to do anything by myself if you leave my side even for a moment, brother. And I do not expect you to wait for me, as that would be a waste of time.” Yu Rou sighed.

“But I can help you progress faster with treasures! You won’t be a burden to me!” Yuan said.

“Don’t even bother trying to convince me, brother. I have already decided to stay down here. Furthermore, I won’t be alone since I will have Xia Jingyi by my side.”

After a moment of silence, Yuan sighed, “Alright. Fine. I won’t try to convince you anymore. However, just know that once I leave, it will be incredibly hard for us to meet in this world again since I cannot come down to the Lower Heavens whenever I please.”

“Anyways, I have to wake up early tomorrow for training, so I won’t be able to stay here for much longer. Let’s talk to each other until I have to leave, okay?”

Yuan nodded, “I want to hear more about your faction.”

“Of course! It’s a really great place. Everyone there is very nice to each other, and it feels like I’d suddenly gained a new family. Although training is hard at times, my cultivation has improved by leaps and bounds since I started training there.”

Yu Rou proceeded to recall her last couple of weeks as a member of the Eternal Lotuses.

She told Yuan her daily routines, her training schedules, and even some of Xia Jingyi’s experiences there.

“It sounds like a great place. I should visit there one day.” Yuan smiled.

“How about your faction, brother? You created one, right?”

“Yes, that’s right. It’s called the Demon Sealing Faction.”

“W-Wait... Demon Sealing Faction?” Yu Rou looked at him with wide eyes, as the name of his faction implies their purpose.

“Yes. There are still demons left in our world, and our purpose is to exterminate all of them.” Yuan explained to her.

“T-That’s too dangerous! I won’t let you endanger your life like this!” Yu Rou exclaimed.

“I know it’s dangerous, but I am the only person in the world who can fight these demons— at least for now. If I don’t fight them, they will wreak havoc around the world and kill many innocent people.”

“And when I imagine one of these innocent people being you— or any of my friends... I don’t want another friend to die again, much less my own sister...”

Yu Rou closed her eyes and took a few deep breaths.

“I understand, brother. However, you must be careful.”

“Definitely.” Yuan nodded with a gentle smile.

After talking to each other for a few hours, Yu Rou hugged Yuan before logging off the game.

Yuan went to speak with Lord Luo and his family afterward, “I will be leaving this place tomorrow. Thank you for everything.”

“We should be the one thanking you, Daoist Yuan.” Lord Luo bowed to him.

“Yuan... Will we be able to see each other again in the future?” Luo Li asked him.

“I will try my best to make it happen.”

Yuan looked around and asked, “Where’s your brother? I haven’t seen him since I got here.”

“He’s at his sect right now, but I will let him know that you’d visited us.” Luo Ling said.

Yuan nodded and logged off shortly after to have dinner.

“Your sister is a special one. Nothing like I had anticipated.” Chu Liuxiang said to Yuan after dinner.

“Really? Were you able to get along with her?”

“I was. We had a lot of interesting conversations on our way to you. Hell, we can even be considered friends at this point!”

“That’s good to hear.” Yuan smiled.

“If we’re going to start a family together, it’s essential for me to have a good relationship with your family, after all.” Chu Liuxiang chuckled.

Wang Ming and the others looked at Chu Liuxiang with wide eyes.

Although they were already aware of Chu Liuxiang's feelings for Yuan, they didn't expect her to be so open about it.

After dinner, everyone returned to their rooms.

"What a lucky bastard... But it's not shocking for a genius like him to have so many beauties by his side..." Wang Ming sighed out loud as he walked back to his room.

"If you're jealous, why don't you find your own girlfriends? It's not like you have no hope." Wang Bingbing said to him.

"Nah. Too much work. And I don't have the time to pamper them." Wang Ming shrugged.

"What about you, sister? Why don't you become Yuan's woman as well?"

"Now why on earth would I do that?" Wang Bingbing frowned.

"For starters, it'll benefit our family greatly. He's also very talented and a good fellow in general. If I were in your shoes, I would already be trying to acquire a slot beside him before all of the slots are taken."

"What? You don't like him or something?" Wang Ming then asked.

Wang Bingbing sighed after a moment of silence, "That's not the issue. He already has two women— Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang by his side, one for each arm. They are also extremely pretty and talented if you haven't noticed already. I won't stand a chance against them."

Wang Ming stared at his elder sister with a look of disbelief on his face.

"Y-You actually thought about becoming his woman? I was just joking with you! Hahaha!" He burst out laughing, causing Wang Bingbing's face to flush with redness.

“G-Grab your sword and meet me outside! I’m going to kill you!” Wang Bingbing pointed at him with her hand trembling.

Wang Ming casually shrugged, “Are you kidding me? We just ate, so I am a little sleepy. If you want to fight, we can do it tomorrow.”

After saying that, he went into his room and locked it, leaving Wang Bingbing speechless.

Chapter 657: Nightmare

After returning to his room, Yuan went to his closet and retrieved a basket of medicine.

“Are those the medicine you’d acquired from the Jaded Garden? Do you plan on tempering your body tonight?” Chu Liuxiang asked him when she saw the basket.

“Yes. Do you want to join me?” Yuan asked her.

“Is that even a question? Of course, I want to join you!” Chu Liuxiang wasted no time removing her clothes, stripping herself naked before Yuan could even prepare the bath.

“I haven’t even prepared the bath. You should put your clothes back on unless you want to catch a cold.” Yuan said to her.

Chu Liuxiang chuckled, “I haven’t caught a cold ever since I became a Cultivator. I don’t think Cultivators can even catch colds.”

“Anyways, I already took my clothes off. I will just wait under the blankets until you’re done. You can join me at any time.” Chu Liuxiang said as she entered the bed.

Yuan couldn’t help but smile at Chu Liuxiang’s behavior that reminded him of Elder Shan from the Dragon Essence Temple, and they both give off similar vibes.

Half an hour later, once the bathtub was prepared, Yuan entered the green water with Chu Liuxiang.

“Have you ever tempered your body before?” Yuan asked her.

“I have,” she calmly replied.

“Really? Where does the Chu Family obtain their medicine?”

“They grow them just like the Six Spiritual Families, but they use a different method. It’s even a little stronger than the medicine we’re currently using. I will ask Sebastian to bring some over tomorrow if you’re interested.”

“If you don’t mind.”

“Anything for you, Brother Yuan...”

“Actually, can I just call you Yuan from now on?” Chu Liuxiang suddenly said.

“Eh? Of course, you can. But why the sudden change?” Yuan asked.

“Calling you ‘brother’ is obviously something very special for Yu Rou, so I decided to not take that away from her. She was the only one in the Yu Family who cared enough to take care of you, after all.”

Chu Liuxiang explained, and she continued, “Furthermore, it feels weird trying to start a family with my ‘brother’.”

“You can call me whatever you want.” Yuan smiled.

“Really? Then can I call you darling? I find that more fitting than just Yuan! It’s more unique as well!”

“D-Darling? I think that’s a little bit too much...”

“Eh?! Please! Everybody already calls you ‘Yuan’, and I want you to feel special when we’re together!”

Yuan sighed.

After pondering for a moment, he gave up and said, “Fine, but you can only call me that when we’re alone. It will feel awkward if you call me that in front of everyone.”

“Don’t worry, I will wait until we’re officially a family before I start doing that.” Chu Liuxiang smiled.

The two of them casually spoke to each other while absorbing the medicine. Because both of them were used to tempering their body in stronger medicine, they were both felt relaxed enough to chat while tempering their body at the same time.

“You spoke with my sister today, right? What did you talk about?” Yuan suddenly asked.

“You can’t even tell me a little?”

“I cannot. We promised Yu Rou that we would keep it a secret, after all.”

“Since you made a promise, I won’t ask anymore. Let’s change the topic. Your cultivation base in Cultivation Online... I was surprised when I saw it.”

“Second Level Spirit Apprentice? I didn’t think it would be that low...”

“Meixiu also said the same thing, you know?” Chu Liuxiang smiled.

And she continued, “Is it really that bad? I am already a Spirit Master in this world. Why do I need to cultivate in that world as well? I don’t have enough time in this life to cultivate two bodies at once.”

“Like you’d said, you’re already a Spirit Master in this world, which is the limit of this world. Your progress will now be incredibly slow, and it could take years to increase even a single level. However, that’s not the case for Cultivation Online. In that world, you can surpass Spirit Master and become a Spirit Grandmaster and so much more.”

“Furthermore, some of the things you do in Cultivation Online, such as consuming treasures, will somehow affect you in this world. What if increasing your cultivation base there also affects us but we just don't know how... yet?"

"D-Darling... That... That actually makes a lot of sense! You're a genius! I never thought about it like that until you mentioned it! You have opened my eyes! I will focus on my cultivation in Cultivation Online now!"

"R-Really?"

"Yes. As you'd mentioned, I have already reached the limits of this world, so there's almost no point for me to continue cultivating this body. Instead, I should cultivate my second body! It might even help us break through the limits of this world and reach an unprecedented level!"

"Unfortunately, it'll require a lot of resources if I want to catch up to Meixiu, much less you."

"I could ask my family for help, but that would require me to return home and I don't want to do that." Chu Liuxiang sighed.

"I can help you if you want. After eliminating the Blood Sect, I managed to acquire a bunch of treasures and spirit stones, especially their Sect Master's spatial ring. He was loaded with treasures!"

Chu Liuxiang nodded, "Since you offered, I won't be humble, Yua—darling! In return, you can do whatever you want to me tonight— and every night after that!"

The two of them left the bathroom about three hours later after they cleaned out the medicine bath.

Yuan went to sleep shortly after without taking up Chu Liuxiang's offer, but it wasn't like she didn't anticipate it. In fact, it would be shocking if he actually did anything to her.

In his sleep, Yuan had a dream— a nightmare. He was underneath a crimson sky, there were mountains upon mountains of corpses around him, and he stood in a sea of blood that nearly reached his knees.

Yuan felt a presence behind him, so he turned to take a look, and as he'd expected, the handsome man was there, casually sitting on one of the corpse mountains while staring at the red sky with a dazed face.

Chapter 658: Evil God

“How do you like the scenery? Does it make your heart pound with excitement?” The handsome man suddenly asked him without looking away from the red sky.

Yuan coldly snorted, “Why are you showing up now? You didn’t show up when I asked you to fight the Blood Sect.”

The handsome man turned to look at him with red eyes and showed a grim smile, “Are you still angry that I killed those ants for you? You must have wanted to kill them yourself, but you didn’t have the courage, so I had to give you a slight push.”

Yuan frowned at his words.

“Angry? Of course, I am angry! However, it’s not because you killed those people! I am angry because you possessed my body without my permission!”

“First it was the Divine Paragon, now it’s you!”

Yuan expressed his concerns regarding their possession.

And to his surprise, the handsome man actually began laughing.

“Possessed? You think we possessed you? That is incorrect. We’re not ghosts.”

“Then how do you explain what happened?!”

“It’s simple. You awakened your memories and began acting as though you were that person. You were the one who called upon us— not the other way around. The Divine Paragon took over your body because you wanted to defeat the demon. I took over your body because you wanted to kill those ants. It's as simple as that."

"N-No way..."

"It's the truth. We may have lived different lives, but in the end, we're all the same person. Don't be angry at me— us. It just means you're angry at yourself."

"..."

After a moment of silence, Yuan spoke in a questioning tone, "And who are you supposed to be?"

The handsome man suddenly stood up and turned to face him.

"People used to call me the Evil God. You can call me that as well. It has a nice ring to it."

"E-Evil God...?" Yuan was speechless.

"What did you do to acquire such an obnoxious title?"

"I killed people— a lot of people. If you piled all of the people I killed in one spot, it could easily reach the heavens. Don't you remember?" The handsome man showed a cold smug.

"Why? Why did you kill these people?"

"Why not? They were an eyesore, so I killed them, just like how you killed those disciples from the Blood Sect."

"That's completely different!"

"No, it's not, but you already know that. Good luck trying to convince yourself, little Evil God."

The Evil God disappeared after that sentence, and the scenery changed, showing Yuan some of the Evil God's memories.

However, none of these memories were pleasant, as they were all scenes of the Evil God slaying people. There was not a single memory that did not end up in someone dying to his hands.

Yuan looked at his own hands that were trembling in disbelief.

'I used to be the Evil God...? What an unfunny joke...' He sighed inwardly.

Eventually, the bloody memories ended, and the handsome man reappeared before him again.

However, it was not the Evil God.

"What do you think about your latest incarnation?" He asked with a mysterious smile hanging on his face.

"An unpleasant fellow that has no morals. He's completely different compared to you and the Divine Paragon."

The handsome man laughed out loud before speaking, "That's not entirely correct. In fact, we're not that different from each other. The Divine Paragon, the Evil God, me— and even you."

"What? That's not possible! I would never become an Evil God! He killed people because they were an eyesore!" Yuan frowned.

"You're only saying that because you don't remember everything. And if I recall correctly, didn't you kill a few thousand people without batting an eye not long ago? Why did you kill them? Because they threatened the safety of your friends?"

"That's right! If I didn't kill them, the Pang City would've been in danger!"

"Once again you're lying to me— to yourself. You killed them because they were an eyesore— because they were an inconvenience. Everything else is just an excuse.”

The handsome man turned around and began walking away.

“If you want to learn more about yourself— about the reason for your existence, follow your bloodline.

“My bloodline...? You mean the Immortal Monarch Bloodline? What is so special about it?”

The handsome man shrugged at his question before disappearing from his sight.

Yuan woke up the next moment to find his body soaked in cold sweats.

“My bloodline, huh...”

“Are you okay, darling?” Chu Liuxiang’s voice suddenly resounded beside him.

“Eh? Sorry, did I wake you up?”

“Well, you were just squirming around in your sleep, and it also looked like you were in pain.”

“I had a nightmare...” He sighed.

“Do you want to talk about it?”

“I see...”

“Anyways, I am going to clear my mind. You can go back to sleep.”

“Alright.”

Yuan left the bed and went to the bathroom to rinse the sweat off his body.

Once he came back out, he went onto the balcony and proceeded to sit there until it was time for breakfast.

After breakfast, Yuan went inside Cultivation Online and waited for Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang to show up.

When everyone was gathered, Yuan said his goodbyes to the Luo Family.

“Yuan! Do you mind if we repeat what we did last time?” Luo Li suddenly asked him.

“Last time?” Yuan raised his eyebrows in a puzzled manner.

“You know... The kiss...” Luo Li reminded him in a bashful manner.

“Oh, that. I don’t mind.” He casually nodded.

Luo Li and Luo Ling wasted no time and gave him a kiss on his cheeks.

“Goodbye, Yuan! We hope to see you again in the future!”

Yuan left Pang City with the others shortly after.

After leaving the city, Yuan turned to look at Xiao Hua and asked, “Where is the Stairway to Heaven?”

“Follow me, Brother Yuan. Xiao Hua will take you there,” she said with an eager smile.

Chapter 659: Encountering the Gu Family

“Where the fuck is that bitch, Min Li?! We have been waiting here for almost a week! She should be here by now!” Gu Tao shouted in an angry voice when he lost his patience.

“Do you think we were fooled by the Min Family?” He then asked his father, who was sitting beside him inside the carriage.

“That’s not possible. He wouldn’t lie about something like this. It would only damage his family’s reputation, and you know how much we value our face. Furthermore, this is Min Li that we’re talking about. They wouldn’t sacrifice their family’s reputation for her. Why do you think they sold her to us in the first place?”

“That makes sense... However, that doesn’t change the fact that Min Li isn’t here. We came here immediately after leaving the Min Family, so there’s no way that we’d missed her.” Gu Tao said.

“That’s also not possible. I had spoken to the people here. None of them have seen Min Li, and she’s one eye-catching girl.”

“Then how long are we going to wait? We cannot stay here forever, not to mention that wedding that is supposed to be in three days!” Gu Tao sighed out loud.

It was at this moment the Gu Family noticed a group of individuals approaching their direction, and all but one of them were kingdom-toppling beauties.

However, Gu Tao only had one person in his eyes— a young lady with a familiar face!

“Wow, so that is the Stairway to Heaven, huh? It’s much grander than I’d anticipated.” Yuan mumbled in awe as he gazed upon the massive staircase that hovered in the air not far in the distance.

There were only a total of 9 steps on this staircase, but it was so massive that it filled the sky and seemed like it was created for giants, and there was a beautiful golden door at the end of the ninth step.

“I have never seen such a big staircase before. It’s almost as though it was created for giants.” Chu Liuxiang mumbled in a dazed voice.

“Speaking of giants... Do they exist in the cultivation world?” Yuan asked.

“They do.” Feng Yuxiang nodded.

“However, they only exist in the upper heavens now.”

“Have you seen one before?” Meixiu asked her.

“I have met a few when I was still living up there. They’re all incredibly powerful beings with unrivaled strength. They are also born with near-indestructible bodies.”

“I want to meet one now.” Yuan smiled.

“By the way, that’s not the real Stairway to Heaven.” Feng Yuxiang suddenly said.

“Then where is the real one?”

“Is that so...”

“Yuan...” Min Li suddenly tucked his robes.

“Hm? What’s the matter?”

“Do you see that large carriage in front of us? It’s the Gu Family,” she said with a worried frown.

“Gu Family? The family you were supposed to marry into?” Yuan asked for confirmation.

“Yes.” Min Li nodded.

“What are they doing here? Do you think they’re here to find you?”

“I cannot think of any other reason for them to be here. It’s too much of a coincidence.”

“You don’t have to worry about them. I will protect you if they try anything funny.” Yuan said.

And right as they were about to pass the carriage, someone suddenly shouted, “Halt!”

The next moment, Gu Tao and his father, alongside many guards surrounded them.

“Min Li! How dare you run away from our marriage! Hurry up and come back to the family with me and I will make you the happiest woman in this world!” Gu Tao stepped forward and patted his chest.

“I refuse. I left the Min Family for a reason, Gu Tao. I’d rather kill myself than join your family.” Min Li sneered.

“Let’s not make things difficult, Min Li.” The middle-aged man standing behind Gu Tao suddenly spoke.

“Even if you run away from the Min Family, where can you go?”

“Where I go is none of your business!”

The middle-aged man turned to look at the Stairway to Heaven behind him and laughed.

“Do you really think you have the capabilities to ascend through the stairway as a Spirit Warrior? Have you lost your damn mind?”

“Who said that she’ll be climbing by herself?” Yuan suddenly stepped forward, standing between Min Li and the Gu Family.

“And who the hell are you? Do you know who we are?” Gu Tao immediately frowned at Yuan’s presence that felt threatening for some reason.

“My name is Yuan. And you’re one of the Seven Legacy Families, right?”

“If you know, get the fuck out of the way before you lose your life. I am trying to speak with my woman here.” Gu Tao narrowed his eyes.

Because they have been waiting at the Stairway to Heaven for the past week, they have not heard about Yuan’s most recent achievement yet. If they knew Yuan had eliminated the Blood Sect by himself, they wouldn’t dare to disrespect him in such a manner.

“And you must have a death wish, speaking to my Young Master in such a foul manner.” Feng Yuxiang tried to step forward but was blocked by Yuan.

“So what if you’re one of the Seven Legacy Families? Min Li has already stated that she won’t marry into your family. Furthermore, she will be ascending the Stairway to Heaven with me.”

Veins began popping up on Gu Tao’s forehead.

“Min Li, don’t tell me that you’d abandoned your family and risk offending mine just to be together with this nobody? Have you gone insane?!” Gu Tao growled in a cold voice.

“If he’s a nobody, then you’re less than trash, Gu Tao. You have no idea who you’re messing with.” Min Li shook her head.

The middle-aged man then said, “I have had enough of this nonsense. If you don’t want to follow us back willingly, we’ll force you! Get her!”

The guards immediately pointed their weapons at Yuan and the others.

“I have also had enough with your Gu Family!” Feng Yuxiang suddenly shouted, releasing her Spirit Grandmaster cultivation base.

Chapter 660: Take His Cultivation Away!

‘S-Spirit Grandmaster! She’s a Spirit Grandmaster!’ The middle-aged man cried inwardly, shocked by Feng Yuxiang’s cultivation base.

“If you dare move, I will kill you.” Feng Yuxiang said to them with an overbearing aura around her.

However, Gu Tao’s father was also a Spirit Grandmaster, so he didn’t immediately back down.

“Who are you?” He asked her with a slight frown.

“Feng Yuxiang.”

“What?! Madam Feng from the Golden Phoenix Bazaar?!”

Although he has never personally gone to her store before, his Gu Family has purchased many treasures from her place before.

“Impossible! What are you doing in this place?!”

“My business is none of your business. However, your business on the other hand...” Feng Yuxiang narrowed her eyes.

“How dare you treat my Young Master in such a manner?! Courting death!”

Feng Yuxiang began approaching Gu Tao while emitting strong killing intent.

“F-Father! Help me! Kill this bitch for me!” Gu Tao immediately hid behind his father’s back.

Although he could sense Feng Yuxiang’s threatening aura, he doesn’t actually know Feng Yuxiang’s identity, nor was he aware of her cultivation base.

“Oh? It’s been a while since someone cursed at me.” A malicious grin appeared on Feng Yuxiang’s face.

“M-Madam Feng, please excuse this foolish son of mine!”

“Father? What are you doing?” Gu Tao looked at him with a confused face, as his father was a Spirit Grandmaster.

“Shut up! You have no idea who you’re standing before right now!” His father suddenly slapped him in the face, sending his body flying.

This shocked the guards from the Gu Family. This is their first time seeing Gu Tao being struck by his own father, something that doesn’t happen even during training.

“You think that’s enough to seek forgiveness? I won’t be satisfied until he stops breathing!”

“Madam Feng, please have mercy! We’ll forget about the wedding and leave immediately!”

The father knew that offending Feng Yuxiang was akin to death in the Lower Heavens, especially with her vast connections around the world. Unless they called for help from the Gu Family in the upper heavens, there was nothing they could do to stop her.

Feng Yuxiang didn’t say anything, and she turned to look at Yuan for his opinions on the matter. As much as she wanted to kill Gu Tao right there and then, she didn’t want to upset Yuan, who didn’t like violence.

“Young Master, it’s your call.” She said to him.

Yuan turned to look at Gu Tao, who was still struggling on the floor, for a good moment before closing his eyes and speaking in a low voice, “Feng Feng, doesn’t this situation remind you of another situation that played out very similarly?”

Feng Yuxiang pondered for a moment before speaking, “Are you talking about the Du Brothers from before?”

Yuan nodded and continued, “He doesn’t deserve to die, but he needs to be taught a lesson. Take his cultivation away.”

Yuan’s words stunned everyone there including his own people.

After snapping out of her daze, Feng Yuxiang responded with a beaming smile on her face, “With pleasure, Young Master!”

She turned to face Gu Tao and began approaching him.

“Madam Feng! Please! If you take away his cultivation, you might as well kill him!” Gu Tao’s father subconsciously blocked her path.

“Get out of my way, Patriarch Gu, unless you want to lose your cultivation too.” Feng Yuxiang narrowed her eyes that had turned golden at him, sending shivers down his back.

Patriarch Gu knew in his heart that it was impossible to stop Feng Yuxiang. However, he had another option.

He turned to look at Yuan and said, “Please! Stop her! Have mercy, Daoist Yuan—”

It was at this moment Patriarch Gu realized something.

‘Wait... Yuan? He’s that genius from the Dragon Essence Temple?!’

Patriarch Gu could recall ordering his family to recruit Yuan into their family at all cost, yet he’d managed to offend Yuan.

“Young Master Yuan! It was our fault for not recognizing you! We shouldn’t have tried to force Min Li to marry into our family! Please! If you cripple Gu Tao, he will be completely useless and might as well be dead!”

Yuan scoffed at his words and said, “Cripple? Now that’s an exaggeration. He may lose his ability to cultivate, but he’ll still be able to function as a normal human.”

“Please! Young Master Yuan! I beg of you!” Patriarch Gu suddenly lowered his body and knelt on the ground in front of Yuan.

Seeing this, Yuan said, “Feng Feng, wait a second.”

“Eh?” Feng Yuxiang stopped two steps away from the terrified Gu Tao.

After a moment of silence, Yuan extended his hand and spoke, “I am willing to forgive you and your son, but you’ll have to do me a favor in return.”

“Really?! Whatever you need!” Patriarch Gu’s eyes flickered with hope.

“You see, I have purchased a house very recently, so I have no money now. If you donate me some of your wealth, I will forgive you. I’m a generous man, so I will only ask for all of your spatial rings and storage pouches.”

Patriarch Gu’s jaw dropped when he heard Yuan’s words. It was something he least expected!

As the patriarch of the Gu Family, Patriarch Gu naturally has plenty of wealth on him. In fact, he normally carries the family’s most valuable treasures on his body since he believes that it would be safer than keeping it at home and that nobody would be able to rob him, the patriarch of a Legacy Family!

Seeing Patriarch Gu’s hesitation, Yuan sighed, “I gave you a chance since you begged, and you even said whatever I want, but alas...”

And he continued, “Feng Feng, go ahead and continue whatever you were doing.”

“Yes!”

Feng Yuxiang took the last two steps and arrived in front of Gu Tao.

“W-W-Wait! Why don’t we talk about this?” Patriarch Gu felt like crying, yet he was unable to produce any tears.

“There is nothing to talk about. You lost that chance when you threatened to take Min Li away by force.”

Patriarch Gu gritted his teeth in anger, but he eventually gave up and said, “Fine! I will give them to you!”

Chapter 661: A Generous Donation From the Gu Family

“Here are my spatial rings and storage pouches! Let my son go now!” Patriarch Gu gritted his teeth and handed over his treasures to Yuan.

Meanwhile, Feng Yuxiang also collected Gu Tao’s spatial rings and storage pouches.

“H-Here you go, Senior Fairy!”

Gu Tao handed all of his possession to Feng Yuxiang without any hesitation. In his mind, nothing in this world was more valuable than his cultivation that took years of effort to build.

After taking his treasures, Feng Yuxiang returned to Yuan’s side and gave them to him.

“Thank you, Feng Feng.”

“C-Can we leave now?” Patriarch Gu asked him, seemingly in a hurry to leave.

“Yes, you can—”

However, before Yuan could finish his sentence, Xiao Hua stepped forward and said, “Wait.”

“What’s the matter?” Yuan looked at her.

She pointed at Patriarch Gu and spoke in a calm voice, “He still has a spatial ring hidden on his body.”

Patriarch Gu's entire body trembled when he heard Xiao Hua's claims.

"T-That's outrageous! I have already given you everything I own! I don't have anything else on me!" He exclaimed in a furious tone.

Yuan frowned and said, "Xiao Hua wouldn't lie to me. If she says you're hiding something, then you're hiding something! I will give you one last chance!"

Patriarch Gu stared at Xiao Hua with killing intent in his gaze.

Feng Yuxiang chuckled and said, "I wouldn't do anything silly if I were you, Patriarch Gu. She's even stronger than me. In fact, she's a Spirit King who came from the upper heavens."

"W-What?! Impossible!"

Xiao Hua didn't say anything and released some of her cultivation base.

'It's real! She's actually a Spirit King! What is a Spirit King doing here?!' Patriarch Gu could feel the blood in his body getting drained when he realized this fact, making his complexion as pale as ghosts.

'Damn! Damn it all! This is all because of the Min Family!'

Patriarch Gu reluctantly retrieved his hidden spatial ring that had all of his most valuable treasures and handed it over to Yuan.

"If you take this from me— from my family, you will definitely regret it! The Gu Family will become your eternal enemy! Think about this carefully one more time!" Patriarch Gu glared at Yuan with red eyes.

Under normal circumstances, he would not surrender this spatial ring even if he had to sacrifice his own son. However, he was before a Spirit King. If he doesn't obey their commands, he could lose his own life, as well as his treasures.

Yuan didn't hesitate to take the spatial ring from his hand and said in a cold voice, "You shouldn't have tried to force Min Li. You deserve this punishment.”

“Let’s go.” Yuan began walking away after accepting the Gu Family’s generous donation.

The Gu Family could only stand there and watch as they disappear from the scene.

“Fuck! Fuck! Fuck!” Patriarch Gu began destroying whatever was around him in an outburst of anger.

“Father... It’s just a few spatial rings. We have plenty of treasure at home...” Gu Tao tried to calm him down, unaware of what Yuan had really taken away from them.

However, Patriarch Gu slapped him and shouted, “Just a few spatial rings?! Do you have any idea what was inside those spatial rings?! All of our family heritage and secret cultivation techniques are inside that spatial ring!”

“WHAT?!” Gu Tao exclaimed in a shocked voice when he realized the severity of the situation.

“W-Why would you even carry them around with you?! Father! We need to take them back even if we have to risk our lives!”

“You’re dumber than I thought, Gu Tao! They had a Spirit King with them! She’ll kill us before we can even touch them, much less take back our treasures!”

“Then what can we do? We can’t just let them get away with this!”

“We’re going back home! I will contact our Seniors from Spirit Heaven and ask them to avenge us and take back our treasures! We cannot allow them to steal from our Gu Family at all cost!” Patriarch Gu said.

“Thank you for protecting me, Yuan...” Min Li said to him afterward with a rosy face.

“I made a promise, after all.” Yuan smiled.

“Young Master, you were very cool back there. I cannot believe you actually dared to steal from the Gu Family.” Feng Yuxiang chuckled.

“I didn’t steal anything from them. They offered it to me as a donation.” He casually shrugged.

“Anyways, even though I have their spatial rings and storage pouches, I cannot open them since their owners are not dead. What should I do?”

“You can forcefully remove the previous owner’s mark on them, but you’ll need an Array Master to do so. If someone without experience does it and screws up, they risk destroying the spatial ring and the contents inside.”

“I definitely don’t want that to happen. And what’s an Array Master?”

“An Array Master is something like a Formation Expert. They specialize in arrays while Formation Experts specialize in formations.” Feng Yuxiang said.

And she continued, “As for the difference between them... Arrays are small formations that require very little time to cast, allowing Array Masters to use them efficiently and quickly, and creating arrays only require spiritual energy.”

“As for formations, they are much larger in scale that requires preparation and a large number of resources, and they usually require more than one person to activate.”

“In other words, arrays are simple and small formations that can be created and used during a fight while formations are more complex and require preparation before they can be activated.”

The Thousand Swords Formation that was once used by the Flying Sword Sect is considered a formation since it covers the entire sect and requires many people to activate. Arrays, on the other hand, are fundamentally like formations, but they function more like techniques.

“You won’t find any Array Masters in the Lower Heaven, Young Master. Even in the Spirit Heaven, they can be quite rare.” Feng Yuxiang said to him.

“That’s fine. I am not in a hurry to open these spatial rings.” Yuan said.

Chapter 662: Climbing the Stairway to Heaven

“We have arrived at the Stairway to Heaven.” Feng Yuxiang said as they approached the massive staircase not far away from them.

Yuan had expected there to be more people in this place for some reason, but that didn’t seem to be the case, as there were only a dozen people there including an old man sitting behind a desk right beside the staircase.

“Young Master, speak with that old man whenever you’re ready to challenge the Stairway to Heaven. I will be cheering for you from inside your body since I don’t need to participate in the trials.” Feng Yuxiang said to him before transforming into a glowing orb and entering his body.

“Xiao Hua is confident that Brother Yuan will succeed.” Xiao Hua also entered his body a moment later.

Only Lan Yingying remained, as she didn’t come from the upper heavens like the other two.

“W-Where did they go?” Chu Liuxiang asked in a baffled voice, as this was her first time witnessing such a thing.

“They’re resting inside my body right now,” Yuan said.

“What? How does that even work? Can I enter your body too?” She then asked.

“They can do that because they are my servants.” Yuan smiled.

“Anyways, let’s go speak with that old man.”

The old man sitting behind the desk looked at them and said, “Are you going to challenge the Stairway to Heaven?”

“I am.” Yuan nodded.

“First time?”

“Yes.”

“Take this medallion and enter the door whenever you’re ready. However, you should be aware that not everyone can climb the first nine steps on the staircase.” The old man said.

“What do you mean?”

“Every step on the staircase before the door will emit a certain amount of pressure. If you cannot withstand the pressure, you’ll be kicked off the staircase before you can even challenge it.”

“I understand.”

Yuan then pointed at Meixiu and the others standing behind him, “They are with me. Do they also need a medallion?”

The old man raised his eyebrows and said, “Only one person can challenge the Stairway to Heaven at a time. There is no teaming up.”

“I know. I am helping them ascend.”

“You’re what?!” The old man exclaimed in a shocked voice.

He turned to look at the beautiful ladies standing behind Yuan.

Meixiu, Chu Liuxiang, Lan Yingying, and Min Li. Four people in total. Helping a single person will increase the difficulty of his trials, yet he intends on helping four people ascend? The old man has never encountered such a bold and arrogant person before!

“Are you sure about this, young man? Even if they are your partners and you love them greatly, bringing a single person with you will increase the difficulty of the trials as well as your burden significantly. In the last thousand years, not a single person has managed to ascend while bringing someone else along, and you’re doing four at once.”

Yuan smiled and said, “I am well aware of the risks and increased difficulty. However, even then, I still wish to try.”

The old man sighed after a moment of silence.

He then retrieved four more medallions, but they were in a different color.

“Give these to those that you wish to help ascend,” said the old man as he handed them to Yuan. Even if he wished to decline, he did not have the authority to refuse anyone challenging the Stairway to Heaven. The only thing he can do is try to persuade Yuan to not make any foolish decisions, which failed spectacularly.

After accepting the medallions, Yuan handed them to Meixiu and the others.

“You can start climbing the staircase whenever you’re ready.” The old man said to Yuan a moment later.

In his mind, he was already expecting Yuan to fail the challenge.

‘He’ll regret this decision once he realizes how much wasting four years could hurt one’s cultivation career. Unfortunately, there’s no medicine for regret.’ The old man sighed inwardly.

Sometime later, Yuan approached the staircase with Meixiu and the others, and the spectators there watched with interest.

“Another challenger, huh? How long do you think he’ll last inside?”

“Probably an hour at most.”

Meanwhile, Yuan and the others looked at the staircase with their heads tilted up.

A single step of the staircase was so large that it was as tall as a three-story building, and there were 9 steps in total.

“Do you need some help getting up there?” Yuan looked at Chu Liuxiang, who was only a Spirit Apprentice.

“I do.” She nodded.

“Okay, I will carry you.”

He turned to look at Meixiu next, “What about you?”

“I also need help.”

“Fortunately, I have two arms.” Yuan chuckled.

“Yingying, can you help Min Li?” He asked her.

“Then let’s go up.”

Yuan proceeded to hug Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang’s waist in each of his arms before flying onto the first step.

Lan Yingying also flew.

As for Min Li, she was able to jump the height with relative ease.

However, the moment Yuan entered the first step that was a few hundred meters away from the second step, he could feel an intense pressure suddenly appear, making it more difficult for him to move forward.

Although he was able to endure the pressure without any issues, he was worried about the others.

“Are you guys okay?!”

“Huh? I don’t feel anything.” Chu Liuxiang said.

“Eh? Really? You don’t feel the pressure?” Yuan looked at them with wide eyes.

They shook their heads.

“So I am the only one feeling this pressure?” He mumbled in a dumbfounded voice.

Feng Yuxiang’s voice then resounded, “Young Master, don’t forget, you’re essentially climbing the Stairway to Heaven for them, so you will be bearing everything while they don’t experience anything.”

“That makes sense...” Yuan nodded.

“Yuan, I will help them climb the staircase. You need to focus on yourself.” Lan Yingying said to him.

“Okay. Thank you.”

After putting down Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang, Yuan proceeded to make his way towards the second step that was about 200 meters away.

Chapter 663: Entering the Stairway to Heaven

“What?! Is that even possible?! I thought only one person could go at a time!”

“It’s only allowed because one of them is assisting them through the Stairway to Heaven— most likely that young man in the front.”

“Wait... That’s actually a thing? Since when? I have spectated this place for many years but I have never seen such a thing before.”

“That’s because nobody does it. One can help 9 other individuals climb the Stairway to Heaven, but the person doing the climbing will have the burden of the other nine, increasing the difficulty of their climb significantly.”

“Heavens... Climbing alone is already hard enough, yet that person is willing to take 4 other people with him.”

“I don’t blame him. Look at the people he’s helping. All of them are breathtaking beauties that can topple kingdoms with a mere smile! I wouldn’t leave them behind either.”

“If you had to choose between those beauties or ascending, and you can only pick one, which would you pick?”

“The beauties, of course! I’d be willing to stay down here forever just for one of them, much less four!”

While the spectators focused on Meixiu and the others, Yuan reached the second step with barely any effort made.

However, the moment he stepped onto the second step, he felt the pressure bearing down his body suddenly double in strength.

Even though it still wasn't enough to make him sweat, he was worried about the later steps.

About a minute later, he reached the third step, and once again, the pressure on him doubled in strength.

"It's still endurable..." Yuan mumbled to himself as he quickly made his way towards the fourth step.

However, the moment he stepped on the fourth step, Yuan felt the pressure on him triple in strength.

Whoosh!

Yuan lost control over his Qi Manipulation for a moment and nearly lost his ability to fly.

"Are you okay, Yuan?" Lan Yingying asked him.

"Yes, I am fine. I was just a little surprised by how much the pressure increased." He nodded.

A few more moments later, Yuan arrived at the fifth step.

Once again, the pressure tripled in strength.

The pressure on the fifth step was so intense that even ordinary Spirit Grandmasters would have trouble walking, yet Yuan still somehow manages to remain in the air even with all this pressure bearing down on him.

Unfortunately, after reaching the seventh floor, the intensity of the pressure had gotten so powerful that even Yuan was forced to walk the staircase with his legs.

Once he'd reached the end of the seventh step, he used some of his spiritual energy to boost his legs, allowing him to jump onto the eighth floor.

The pressure's strength on the eighth floor increased by another 3 fold.

Yuan could feel his legs shaking slightly from the pressure that made it felt like he was carrying a large block of metal on his back. However, even with such pressure, it'd only managed to make Yuan break a couple droplets of sweat.

A few minutes later, Yuan conquered the eighth step and stepped foot on the ninth and final step, where the golden door was located at the end.

"You got this, Yuan!" Min Li cheered him from only a few steps behind him, feeling a little guilty for making Yuan take her burden.

Yuan closed his eyes and took a deep breath.

Once his eyes opened again, he began running for the golden door, shockling the spectators.

"He still has this much strength left?!"

"Is it that surprising? The real trials are behind that golden door. These nine steps cannot even be considered the real Stairway to Heaven."

"Even though the staircase isn't the real challenge, you cannot underestimate it, as it still eliminates about ninety percent of challengers that wish to enter the Stairway to Heaven."

A few moments later, Yuan arrived before the golden door, and he could feel the pressure on his body suddenly disappear like smoke.

"Phew, that was a little challenging." He wiped the sweat off his forehead and took a moment to breathe.

“Young Master, the real challenges are behind the door.” Feng Yuxiang’s voice resounded in his mind.

“I know...” He sighed.

“Is everyone here?” Yuan turned around to see Meixiu and the others standing right behind him.

Seeing them nod, Yuan returned to looking at the massive golden doors that didn’t seem like it would budge even if he used all of his strength.

“How do I open this door?” Yuan asked.

“There should be a slot for the medallion.” Xiao Hua said.

Yuan looked around, and sure enough, there was a hole in the middle of the door that seemed to fit his medallion perfectly.

Furthermore, there were 9 other holes that circled around it.

“These are probably for your medallions.” Yuan looked at Meixiu and the others after inserting his medallion into the hole.

Once everyone there had inserted their medallion into a slot, the golden doors suddenly began to open.

Although it didn’t move by much, it had more than enough room for a single person to enter.

However, it was pitch black inside the doors.

“Let’s go! To Spirit Heaven!” Yuan was the first to move, entering the golden doors a moment later.

Lan Yingying immediately followed behind Yuan and became the second person to enter the Stairway to Heaven followed by Min Li, Chu Liuxiang, and last but not least, Meixiu.

Once everyone was inside, the golden doors closed behind them.

After entering the Stairway to Heaven, Yuan looked around with his divine sense since he couldn't see anything in the dark with his eyes, but that also turned out to be useless.

"I cannot see anything. What about you guys?" Yuan asked the others behind him.

However, nobody responded to him.

"Meixiu? Lulu? Yingying? Hello?" Yuan turned around, but there was nobody there.

"Guys? Feng Feng? Xiao Hua?"

He tried calling them again since he was certain that they'd entered the Stairway to Heaven with him, but there was still no response, almost as though they'd disappeared and he was completely alone.

It was at this moment a voice suddenly resounded in this void.

"Master?"

It was a clear and childish voice that he'd never heard before, yet it sounded oddly nostalgic for some reason.

"Who's there?" He called back.

"Master? Is that really you?"

The voice responded, and Yuan could see a faint light suddenly appear in the distance.

Chapter 664: Master of the Stairway to Heaven

Yuan swallowed nervously as he watched the faint light gradually approach his direction.

“Master... Is it really you?” The childish voice continued to resound in the darkness.

“I think you’re mistaking me for someone else. This is my first time in this place.” Yuan said.

“No...”

Once the light was right in front of him, it started transforming until it took the shape of a human with a child-like figure.

A few moments later, a cute little girl with long, glistening black hair that dragged on the floor stood before him.

She stared at him intensely with her sharp golden eyes and continued to speak, “While you have a different appearance, your soul is the same. You are definitely my Master. I will never mistake my Master for someone else.”

“You don’t remember me, Master?” She asked him after a moment of silence.

Yuan narrowed his eyes at this little girl and sighed inwardly, ‘She’s definitely talking about one of my past lives, right?’

After another moment of silence, Yuan asked, “Who or what are you?”

“Tian’er is the guardian of Stairway to Heaven.”

“Guardian? Like its Master?”

“No, Tian’er is merely a guardian. I protect this place and uphold its integrity. Master... You are the real Master of the Stairway to Heaven. You really don’t remember?”

“What? I am the Master of this place?” Yuan was left baffled by this information.

Just what kind of person was he in his past life? How did he become the Master of the Stairway to Heaven that connects the Nine Heavens?

“Alright... Before we continue this conversation, where did my friends go? They entered this place with me.” Yuan asked about Meixiu and the others.

“They were transported to another place as spectators because they are not participating in the ascension. They will be able to watch you clear the trials once it begins,” she said.

“I see... That’s relieving to hear.” Yuan released a sigh of relief after learning that they were safe and sound.

“Okay, let’s get back to our conversation— Can they also hear me right now?” He suddenly asked.

“No, they cannot hear us right now.”

Yuan nodded and continued, “Can you tell me the name of your Master?”

“Tian Yang,” she quickly responded.

“I knew it...” Yuan sighed again.

Tian Yang was the name of the handsome man in his dream— the first one he ever met.

“You probably won’t believe me when I say this, but I am actually a reincarnation of Tian Yang, hence why I have the same soul as him...”

Tian’er didn’t react to his words and spoke in a calm voice, “I believe the Master.”

“Wait... Since you knew my past self, can you tell me about him? I am missing some—a lot of my memories because of my reincarnation, so it’ll be great if you can refresh some of my memories.”

Tian’er shook her head and said, “I don’t know much about Master—perhaps even less than you since the Master never spoke of his life outside this world.”

“If that’s the case, can you tell me what you know? Anything will do—even your relationship with him.”

Tian’er nodded, “The Master created me after becoming the Master of the Stairway to Heaven, and I have been tasked with guarding this place ever since then. He also gave me the name Tian’er, his surname, as a way to symbolize his creation.”

“What do you mean you were created?” Yuan raised his eyebrows.

However, she merely tilted her head in a puzzled manner, seemingly unable to explain it.

“How were you created?” Yuan changed his wording.

“The Master snapped his fingers and created me,” she replied.

“Uhh... So you’re not really human?”

She shook her head, “My form consists mostly of the Master’s spiritual energy, so I am neither human nor living.”

“I see... That’s very interesting...”

Yuan suddenly realized something.

“Wait a second... If I am the Master of the Stairway to Heaven, does this mean I don’t need to take the trial to ascend?”

Tian’er nodded, “That is correct. As the Master of the Stairway to Heaven, you can use the treasure as you will.”

“That’s great—”

However, Tian’er continued, “But Master— Tian Yang also said that I cannot allow anyone to ascend if they have never completed the trial before — even if it’s the Master himself.”

Yuan raised his eyebrows.

Why would his past self make this rule that also affects himself? Did his past self predict that he would reincarnation and challenge the Stairway to Heaven in the future?

“It’s unfortunate, but I’m also relieved that I cannot just skip the trials. I have been anticipating doing them for a while now, and skipping them would ruin my fun.” Yuan smiled.

“Anyways, what else can I do in this place as its Master? Can I adjust the difficulty of my trials? What about the rules? Can I change that as well?”

“You can do all of that, but you can only do it when you are not actively challenging the Stairway to Heaven.”

“I understand. Anyways, I have been standing around for long enough. Let’s get the trials started. We can talk more later.” Yuan said a moment later.

Tian’er nodded before disappearing into the void.

A few moments later, Yuan could see a staircase slowly being revealed before him.

The staircase was semi-transparent and was glistening like the sea when being struck by sunlight, and unlike the one outside, this staircase was definitely made for humans.

Yuan began climbing this staircase without hesitation, and with every step he took, another step would appear at the end of the staircase.

It was unknown how long he walked this staircase for, but he gave up counting after walking 500 steps.

The staircase eventually stopped extending diagonally and began extending horizontally, creating a smooth path for him to walk on.

After walking for a minute, Yuan could see a massive arena in the distance, and the path would lead him to this arena.

Once he stepped foot on this arena, the staircase behind him disappeared, and a semi-transparent wall would cover the whole arena like a closed stadium.

Tian'er's voice resounded a moment later.

“Welcome to the first trial in the Stairway to Heaven, Master.”

Chapter 665: Stairway to Heaven's First Trial

After entering the Stairway to Heaven, Meixiu and the others found themselves transported to this empty room that somehow had a small pond resting in the center.

“W-Where are we? Where’s Yuan?!” Chu Liuxiang asked in a slightly panicked manner.

“Calm down, we’re currently in the spectators’ area.” Feng Yuxiang said.

“Since we’re not participating in the trial, we were transported somewhere where we cannot disturb the Young Master.”

“I see...”

Meixiu and Min Li looked around with a bewildered face, as they had never seen such scenery before.

Although they were inside a ‘room’, the walls were almost transparent, and the background was a starry sky with tiny lights flickering in the distance. The floor seemed to be made of a smooth material, almost like jade, and there was a pond in the middle of the room.

Xiao Hua didn’t say anything and approached the pond in the center of the room before sitting beside it and staring at it.

Feng Yuxiang also did the same thing.

“Come. We’ll be able to see the Young Master here.”

Everyone there sat around this pond a moment later, silently staring at the clear liquid.

A few minutes later, they could see an image appearing on the surface of the water.

“Look! It’s Yuan!” Chu Liuxiang exclaimed when she realized it was Yuan, and he just entered this arena.

Meanwhile, somewhere in the Stairway to Heaven, Yuan was waiting for his first trial to begin.

After waiting around for a few moments, he noticed the scenery changing from the void to a bustling city where people could be seen walking around.

The scenery looked so realistic to Yuan that he thought he’d been transported to a real city.

“For the first trial, you must find the city lord and kill him within 12 hours or you will fail the trial.” Tian’er’s voice resounded loudly in Yuan’s ears, but the people there didn’t react to her voice.

“Wait... You want me to kill someone?” Yuan frowned at this trial.

“Don’t worry, everyone and everything in this world is created purely from spiritual energy, just like Tian’er, so they’re not real.”

Yuan felt more relieved after hearing that.

“What about the rules? Are there any rules?” He then asked.

“There are no rules in this trial. You may accomplish your mission through any means.”

“I understand.”

“Then the trial shall begin.”

Ding!

[You have started your first trial in the Stairway to Heaven]

[You have 12 hours to finish the trial]

[Finish the trial in less than 6 hours to receive a reward]

‘Huh? I can obtain rewards in the Stairway to Heaven?’ Yuan wasn’t expecting to earn anything since he was doing it to ascend to the next realm, not earn treasures.

However, he didn’t complain about it and began his journey.

The first and most logical thing he did was to ask around for information.

“Excuse me, I am new here, and I have some business with the lord of this city. Can you tell me where I can find him?” Yuan asked an old lady who was the closest to him.

The old lady stared at him for a moment before pointing in a certain direction.

Yuan turned to look at where the old lady was pointing, and to his surprise, there was a majestic pagoda in that direction.

The pagoda was so tall that it pierced the clouds; it was unlike anything Yuan has seen before.

“Thank you.”

Yuan immediately made his way towards the pagoda.

However, not even a few minutes later, a sudden commotion occurred in the street, and it forced him to stop his movements.

“You bastard! How dare you sleep with my wife! I am going to fucking kill you!”

A strange man that he'd never seen before suddenly appeared in front of him and began threatening to kill him.

“What gibberish are you talking about? I didn't—” Yuan frowned.

However, the strange man didn't care about what Yuan had to say and drew his weapon.

“Die for me!”

The strange man released his cultivation base and began running at Yuan.

‘A peak Spirit Grandmaster?!’ Yuan immediately withdrew the Empyrean Overlord to defend against this strange man.

Bang!

Yuan could feel himself getting pushed back a few steps from the confrontation.

“W-Wait a moment! There must have been a misunderstanding! I didn't sleep with your wife!” Yuan tried to calm the man down, but alas, his attempt only seemed to have intensified the man's anger.

“Fuck you! I was there when it happened and saw you lying naked in bed with my wife! Die!”

The strange man continued his assault on Yuan.

‘This must be part of the trial! I thought I only had to fight the city lord! I underestimated the trial!’ Yuan eventually realized the situation and began fighting the man for real.

After exchanging a few blows, Yuan withdrew the Starry Abyss in its invisible form and used it to finish off the unsuspecting man.

The strange man collapsed after a hole appeared in his head, and the pedestrians there began freaking out as though they were real people.

Yuan ignored them and continued making his way towards the pagoda.

After Yuan left the scene, the strange man's corpse scattered into countless glowing fragments before disappearing like smoke.

A few minutes later, even more people showed up to block his path.

“Halt, you murderer!”

Two people wearing guard uniforms showed up.

Yuan didn't even bother to stop this time and just used the Starry Abyss to kill them before they realized what was happening.

This continued for an entire hour until Yuan finally reached the pagoda, and by then, he'd killed over 50 people at the peak Spirit Grandmaster realm.

Yuan stood before the pagoda's golden doors, but he didn't immediately go inside.

Instead, he sat down to recover his spiritual energy.

‘It's already this bothersome when it's only the first trial. I cannot imagine what the Stairway to Heaven has in store for me later...’ He sighed inwardly.

Chapter 666: Vanishing Ghost's Soundless Blade

After spending an hour recovering his spiritual energy, Yuan was prepared to enter the pagoda that had over a hundred floors.

‘Will I be able to reach the peak and defeat the city lord in less than three hours?’ He wondered to himself as he opened the door and entered the pagoda.

Inside of the pagoda wasn’t as big as Yuan expected, but there was more than enough space for two cultivators to fight without restrictions.

Yuan looked around the first floor that appeared to be a dojo, and it reminded him of another place he’d challenged before—the Carp Leaping Over Dragon’s Gate Tower within the Dragon Essence Temple.

However, instead of fighting magical beasts, humans were his opponents this time.

“Who are you? And what are you doing in my lord’s pagoda?” A figure suddenly appeared before Yuan without him noticing until this person spoke.

Yuan looked at the middle-aged man and said, “I am here to speak with your lord.”

“Do you have an appointment?” The middle-aged man asked.

“I do not.”

“Then you may scram out of here.”

“Unfortunately, that’s not possible either.”

“Is that so?”

The middle-aged man retrieved his weapon that was a spear the next moment and pointed it at Yuan.

“Then you can stay here forever.”

Yuan didn’t say anything and retrieved the Empyrean Overlord.

“Scram!”

The middle-aged man rushed at Yuan, releasing his first level Spirit Lord cultivation base.

Yuan decided to pretend to struggle against him until the time was right.

A dozen exchanges later, Yuan retrieved the Starry Abyss and aimed it directly at the middle-aged man’s head before sending it flying towards it.

However, the middle-aged man tilted his head when the dagger was an inch away from his face, narrowly dodging the sneak attack.

‘What?!’ Yuan was shocked when the middle-aged man dodged his Starry Abyss.

This is his first time missing his target, and he even doubted whether the Starry Abyss was actually invisible or not.

“Hmph! Using such cowardly tactics! Your invisible attack might work on weaker opponents, but it’s useless before me!”

Yuan frowned when he realized it wasn’t by chance that the middle-aged man had dodged his invisible dagger.

‘Does he have a technique that allows him to detect invisible objects?’ He wondered inwardly.

However, even if his opponent can detect the Starry Abyss, he could still use it as a distraction.

“Enough standing around! Let’s finish this!”

The middle-aged man continued to attack Yuan the next moment.

[Heavenly Domain!]

Yuan decided to use Heavenly Domain to restrict his movements.

“What the heck is this?!”

Although the man was surprised, it was not enough to completely seal his movements, but that was to be expected, as he was a genuine Spirit Lord.

When the man was taken by surprise, Yuan used this chance to go for the killing blow.

“Bloody—”

However, Yuan stopped his technique midway when he realized something.

‘Even though this technique has served me well, and it is also one of the first techniques that I’ve learned in this world, I should stop using this technique that belongs to the Blood Sect.’

There were many reasons as to why Yuan no longer wanted to use the Bloody Sword Strike any longer, but the most obvious reason was its affiliation with the Blood Sect, and he didn’t want to be mistaken as someone from the Blood Sect like previously.

Unfortunately, besides the Bloody Sword Strike, he didn’t really have any other techniques that weren’t over-the-top like the Heaven Splitting Sword Strike and the Relentless Dragon Overwhelms the Nine Heavens.

As for the Demon Sealing Strike... It most likely wouldn’t work on humans.

‘Although I have never used that technique before, I have seen it used many times in my dreams... Let’s see if I can pull it off...’

After exchanging a few more strikes with the man, Yuan distanced himself until he was all the way at the doors.

“Now you feel like leaving? Too bad. You lost that chance when you withdrew your sword.” The man sneered in disdain when he saw Yuan running away.

Yuan ignored the man’s provoking words and focused on the technique inside his head.

Once he was confident that he could execute it, he took a deep breath and changed the way he held the sword.

The man raised his eyebrows at Yuan’s weird stance that made it look like he was about to sprint with the sword by his waist.

“I don’t know what you’re thinking, but if you think you can defeat me while being a whole realm below me, you’re too arrogant. Allow me to show you the difference between heaven and earth.”

However, right as the man finished his sentence, he suddenly felt a cold chill going down his spine.

The man was in disbelief.

‘T-This feeling is... fear?! Impossible! Why would I fear a mere Spirit Grandmaster?!’ He cried inwardly.

It was at this moment Yuan finished his preparations and launched his attack.

“Vanishing Ghost’s Soundless Blade...”

The Empyrean Overlord in Yuan’s hand disappeared for a split second in the man’s eyes even though he had been staring at it this entire time without blinking. There was no movement, no sound— nothing.

“Hah! What the heck? How dare you try to scare—”

The man suddenly stopped speaking when he felt something off about his neck, but before he could figure out what was wrong with it, the light in his eyes darkened, and his body collapsed the next second.

The second his body hit the floor, his head that had been cleanly severed began rolling like a bowling ball.

Yuan released a sigh of relief after seeing that he'd successfully managed to execute the technique properly.

Chapter 667: Fighting the City Lord

After killing the man, Yuan proceeded to the next floor.

‘His sword technique is really powerful... And it doesn’t consume as much spiritual energy as the Heaven Splitting Sword Strike.’ Yuan thought to himself as he climbed the staircase.

Upon reaching the second floor, Yuan encountered another man with the cultivation of a Spirit Lord.

“Who are you? What happened to the guard downstairs?” The man asked him with an unfriendly look.

Yuan didn’t bother responding to the man and withdrew his sword, as he was already expecting to fight anyone that gets in his way.

“Hmph. A mere Spirit Grandmaster.” The man didn’t say anything else and withdrew his weapon.

Their weapons collided a moment later.

Yuan decided to try using the Starry Abyss again just to make sure it still works.

However, just like the man downstairs, this one could also somehow track his invisible flying dagger.

‘Just how are they tracking my Starry Abyss? It’s invisible, and its presence should be concealed. How else can they track it?’

A few minutes later, Yuan managed to defeat the man without using the soundless blade technique.

And for the next hour, he would repeat the same thing.

However, his streak was stopped by an unexpected situation.

When he arrived on the ninth floor, the guard there didn't attack him.

"The Lord wishes to meet you. You may go up."

Yuan was skeptical at first, thinking that it was a trap, but the guard really allowed him to go upstairs without causing any trouble.

Now without anyone blocking his path, Yuan managed to climb to the highest floor in less than ten minutes.

Upon reaching the top floor, Yuan could see a figure sitting in the back of the room, and this person was wearing a black mask.

"Are you the city lord?" Yuan asked him for confirmation.

"Indeed." He nodded.

And he continued, "Now that I have answered your question, allow me to ask you one of mine."

"Who are you and why are you killing my people who have done no wrong?"

Yuan's body trembled slightly after hearing such words.

'Calm down... They are not real people. This is simply a trial by the Stairway to Heaven...'

He quickly calmed himself down.

"Because I have no other choice," he responded a moment later.

“That’s nonsense and you know it!” The City Lord shouted in an angry voice.

“Enough talking and let’s get this over with.” Yuan pointed the Empyrean Overlord at him.

“Very well. If you wish to die, allow me to end your miserable life for you.”

The City Lord released his cultivation base, which shocked Yuan.

‘This feeling is... He’s a Spirit King?!?!’ He cried inwardly after recognizing this overbearing aura.

Does the Stairway to Heaven really intend on making him fight someone two whole realms above him?

Why is it this difficult to ascend to the next realm?

Even if he’s helping four other people, it shouldn’t be this hard!

“Are you scared?” The City Lord suddenly said as he approached Yuan.

“I can sense your fear crawling all over my skin.”

Yuan tightened his grasp on his sword and patiently waited for the City Lord to attack him first.

“Why are you just standing there? Come and attack me like you did to those guards you killed not long ago.”

Although Yuan couldn’t see the City Lord’s face, he had a good feeling that there was a grin behind that mask at this moment.

“If you’re not going to attack me first, I won’t be humble!”

The City Lord used a movement skill to instantly close their distance.

Yuan quickly reacted by lifting his sword in front of his face.

Clang!

Bang!

Although he'd blocked the attack, his body was still sent flying by the overwhelming power from the strike.

After hitting the wall with his back, Yuan tried to rebalance himself, but before he could even stand still, the City Lord had arrived in front of him again.

The City Lord then gave Yuan a good kick in his side, sending him flying for a second time in just a few seconds.

“What’s the matter? You’re a lot weaker than I’d anticipated. If I didn’t let you through, you would’ve probably fallen to one of my guards sooner or later, and you would’ve never made it up here.”

This time, the City Lord allowed Yuan to get back onto his feet.

Ding!

The City Lord suddenly lifted his sword and placed it right behind his head, and the sound of metal colliding resounded half a second later.

“An invisible dagger? You really think such pathetic tricks would work on Cultivators at my level? Although it’s invisible and it hides its presence pretty decently, those at Spirit Lord and above can easily see it with their enhanced divine sense. You’re wasting your time using this kind of tactic on us.”

‘So that’s why everyone I have fought in this pagoda could track my invisible flying dagger perfectly... Their divine sense is powerful enough to bypass the Starry Abyss’ ability...’ Yuan sighed inwardly.

After taking a deep breath, Yuan spoke with a frown on his face, “Can you shut up for a minute? The way you talk reminds me of a certain someone, and it's ruining the mood for me."

"Oh? Now that's interesting. Who do I remind you of?" The City Lord became interested for some reason.

"That's none of your business."

"Maybe it is. You never know."

The City Lord then moved his hand to remove the mask covering his face, revealing to Yuan a very familiar face.

"Y-You are—!"

Yuan was shocked when he saw the City Lord's face that looked exactly like the handsome man in his dream.

The only reason he didn't realize it until now was simply because the City Lord had changed his voice to something unrecognizable.

"Since you're here, it must mean that another reincarnation has occurred. How many times have you reincarnated by now? Have you achieved the goal yet?" The handsome man asked him with a profound smile.

Chapter 668: Frustration

After snapping out of his daze from the handsome man's question, Yuan laughed a little before speaking, "What a coincidence. I also have a similar question. What the heck is up with all of this reincarnation stuff?"

"Tell me everything you know about it! How else am I supposed to achieve this goal you speak of when I don't even remember it?!"

The handsome man silently stared at Yuan for a good moment.

"I see... So you don't remember anything yet. That's fine. It's not the first time that you have forgotten about your past, but you will eventually remember everything."

"However, don't expect me to spoon feed you everything just because we belong to the same soul. If you want to remember your memories, you will have to defeat me. Why else would I force myself to do the trials in this place?"

"Good! I have always wanted to give you a good beating but never got the chance since you're always much stronger than me in my dreams!" Yuan said.

The two of them continued fighting again shortly after.

Meanwhile, in the spectators' room.

"What happened?! Why did it stop working?!" Chu Liuxiang exclaimed when the water suddenly stopped reflecting Yuan and the City Lord right when the City Lord was about to remove his mask.

Unfortunately, nobody there could answer her question.

“I don’t know what happened, but we can only wait until it returns.” Feng Yuxiang said.

Back in the pagoda, Yuan and the handsome man fought each other so viciously that they’d collapsed some of the floors there.

“Hmmm... You’re still lacking. When I was at your level, Spirit Kings were no match for me. However, that shouldn’t be possible. You should be far stronger than me since you’re reincarnated.” The handsome man spoke as he fought.

After pondering for a moment, he continued, “Perhaps you didn’t fully awaken your bloodline? Or maybe you don’t know how to use it? You don’t know anything, do you?”

Yuan frowned when he heard this, and he said, “Why would I know? I don’t know about the reincarnation. I don’t know about my past. I don’t even know my purpose. And you expect me to know about my bloodline? You’re right— I don’t know anything!”

Yuan felt frustrated that he knew nothing about himself even though there’s clearly a lot he should be aware about.

The handsome man smiled when he noticed Yuan’s attack getting fiercer and more powerful due to his frustration.

“Sometimes it’s better to not know anything, because once you learn everything, you will not be the same person.”

“I will decide what kind of person I will become no matter what happened in the past!” Yuan shouted.

“You’re not the first one to say such words, and these people all ended up changing after they recalled their past and purpose.” The handsome man chuckled.

“You’re confused because you don’t know anything. However, once you remember everything, you will understand.”

“You don’t know that!”

Clang!

Yuan swung the Empyrean Overlord with all of his strength.

However, the handsome man blocked it with ease.

“I do— because we are the same person.” He smiled.

“You see, we’re not like the others. When others go through the cycle of reincarnation, they will lose their memories and live a new life with a new identity— they will become someone unrecognizable and walk a unique path that’s different from their past self.”

“However, we’re not like that. Although we sometimes lose our memories and take on a new identity, we will eventually return to our original identity and walk the same path we once walked. This is our destiny— our heavenly fate that I— you started.”

“Heavenly Domain!”

Yuan suddenly released the Heavenly Domain, slowing down the handsome man’s movements.

He then activated Dragon’s Gaze, freezing his movement for a brief moment.

“Heaven Splitting Sword Strike!”

Yuan used this brief moment to gather as much spiritual energy as he could before releasing it, and thanks to his Empyrean Overlord that recently upgraded its unique ability, the Heaven Splitting Sword Strike was more powerful than ever.

BOOM!

The golden light enveloped the handsome man’s figure before blowing a massive hole in the pagoda.

However, once the golden light disappeared, the handsome man was still standing in the same spot, and he didn't even have a single scratch on his body.

"I-Impossible..." Yuan was left speechless by the results.

The handsome man had eaten his Heaven Splitting Sword Strike head-on and managed to remain unscathed? How is he supposed to defeat such a monster?

"Hahaha!"

The handsome man suddenly burst out laughing.

"You should see the expression on your face right now! You look like someone who just saw a ghost!"

After laughing for a bit, the handsome man looked at Yuan with a calm smile on his face and said, "Don't worry, you have already passed this trial."

"W-What?" Yuan's eyes widened at his words.

"Although I may look unharmed, I had actually died in that attack just now. I merely reconstructed myself. After all, I am made out of spiritual energy."

And sure enough, a notification that announced the end of his trial appeared the next moment.

[You have killed the City Lord and successfully cleared the first trial]

[You have cleared the trial in less than 6 hours]

"Here's your reward." The handsome man suddenly extended his hand that was holding a glowing orb of light.

"What's that?"

"You were just asking for it not long ago."

“Y-You don’t mean...”

“That’s right. It’s your memories— your answer. However, it’s only a small fragment of it. If you want the rest, you’ll have to continue challenging the Stairway to Heaven.”

Yuan sighed, “Why are you making things difficult for me— for yourself?”

The handsome man smiled and said, “This is for your own good. And it’s not just you. Everyone that came here before you had to go through the same thing.”

Yuan silently stared at the orb floating above the handsome man’s hand.

“Here. Take it.”

The handsome man suddenly flicked his finger, sending the orb of light straight into Yuan’s forehead, and Yuan’s vision blackened the next moment.

Chapter 669: Tian Yang's Memories

‘Ugh... Where am I...?’ Yuan slowly opened his eyes to the sound of water splashing beside him.

He looked around once his eyes adjusted to the bright sunlight, and to his surprise, there was a large river beside him.

‘What the... How did I get here? I was just at the pagoda...’

Yuan stood up a moment later, but he immediately noticed something different about his body.

“My cultivation base is gone!” He exclaimed in a shocked voice.

Suddenly, another voice resounded, responding to his words, “Are you still dreaming, Tian Yang? You’re not even a cultivator yet, how can you possibly have a cultivation base?”

“Eh?”

Yuan turned to the sound of the voice to see a pretty young girl sitting underneath a tree with a scroll in her hands.

“Meng Lili?” Yuan subconsciously muttered her name even though he had never met her before.

‘Wait... Did she just call me Tian Yang? So I am seeing his memories right now?’

Now that he had an idea of his situation, Yuan decided to play along.

However, it was not as though he could actually control his body freely.

Yuan suddenly began walking towards this young lady named Meng Lili.

“How are you feeling, Meng Lili? Are you excited about tomorrow? Nervous?” Yuan asked her.

“Neither. I am actually feeling afraid,” she responded.

“Why would you feel afraid? We’re going to become disciples of a cultivation sect! You should be excited!”

“Tian Yang, the cultivation world isn’t all fun and games. It’s a vicious path that could easily lead to your death even when you’re not at fault, and it’s a world that we’ll be stepping into soon.”

“If you’re afraid, then why did you agree to join the sect? You could have stayed here in the village with the others.”

“Although I am afraid of the cultivation world, there is something I am even more afraid of—the feeling of being powerless,” she responded with a solemn look on her face.

Yuan didn’t say anything else for the next few moments.

“Enough about me. What about you? You’ve always wanted to be a Cultivator, right?” Meng Lili suddenly asked him.

A bittersweet smile appeared on Yuan’s face as he spoke, “No, not always. I never even thought about becoming a Cultivator until my mother and sister died at the hands of one.”

“Oh... I am sorry for bringing it up...” Meng Lili said in a dispirited voice.

“There’s no need for you to apologize. It’s the person who killed them that should apologize. Once I become a Cultivator, I will find this bastard and kill him myself if he’s still alive by then.”

“Cultivators are not allowed to kill mortals, so that person must have already been executed by now.” Meng Lili said.

“If that’s the case, he’s really fortunate.” Yuan sneered.

“Anyways, I am going back to the village. I’ll see you tomorrow when the Senior picks us up.”

After leaving the scene, Yuan walked about a mile until he arrived in this small village that had a population of a few thousand residents.

“I’m home.” Yuan said out loud after returning to his residence, but there was no response.

He then walked to the living room, where a home altar for his family was built in the corner of the room.

He kneeled in front of it and stared at the altar for many minutes before speaking in a solemn voice, “I will be leaving this place tomorrow to start my journey as a Cultivator. I know the world of cultivation is a dangerous one with countless victims. However, I rather risk my life to have a chance of becoming someone powerful than doing nothing and becoming a victim to the powerful.”

“Meng Lili said something that really resonated with me today, and I completely agree with her. She said that she fears being powerless more than she fears death. However, while I do fear being powerless, I don’t fear death. If I die, I will just reunite with the rest of you, so I look forward to that.”

“If I don’t die and become powerful enough, I... I’m not sure what I want to do at that time yet, but I hope to find the answer soon.”

Once he finished praying, Yuan went to tend the chickens he raised in his backyard.

“After today, you’ll be Uncle Lee’s chickens. It’s unfortunate that I have to give you away before I can eat you, but alas, cultivation is more important, and the sect does not allow animals.”

After feeding the chickens, Yuan went inside his room and proceeded to spend the rest of the day meditating.

The following morning, Yuan left his house and went to the entrance of the village, where a group of people around his age were gathered.

“Did you sleep well?” Meng Lili approached him shortly after he arrived.

“I spent the whole night meditating,” he said.

“What’s the point of that when you’re not even a Cultivator?”

About an hour later, an old man with an unfathomable aura descended from the sky and landed in front of the group.

He withdrew his flying treasure that took the shape of a massive leaf and said, “This is your last chance to turn back. Once you step on this flying treasure, you will either spend the rest of your life as a Cultivator or die as a mortal in the sect. I will give you all 30 seconds to decide.”

30 seconds later, everyone was standing on the flying treasure.

“Good.”

The old man flew away with the flying treasure a moment later.

It was also at this moment that Yuan returned to the pagoda, and the first thing he noticed was the handsome man standing in front of him with a profound smile.

“What do you think?” The handsome man asked him.

Yuan frowned and said, “That’s it? I didn’t even learn anything about my reincarnation or bloodline!”

The handsome man chuckled and said, “Like I’d said, you’ll only get a fragment of your memories. And don’t worry, I gave you a lot more memories than what you just saw, but it’ll take time for them to surface. Give it a few days.”

“In the meantime, you can continue climbing the Stairway to Heaven to regain even more of your memories. You still have a few more trials ahead of you, after all.”

Chapter 670: Stairway to Heaven's Second Trial

“Don’t screw with me! You’re just wasting time! Why can’t you tell me what really matters? I don’t care about the other memories!” Yuan frowned at the handsome man’s words.

“Now that wouldn’t be fun at all, would it? Furthermore, who tells a story that starts from the middle— the most exciting part? That makes no sense and will only take away the excitement.” The handsome man casually shrugged.

“Anyways, I won’t keep you here any longer. Have fun with the rest of the trial.”

The handsome man disappeared the next moment, and the scenery began to disappear shortly after.

In just a few breaths of time, Yuan returned back to the arena with a starry background.

“Congratulations on passing your first trial, Master.” Tian’er’s voice resounded.

Yuan looked up into the darkness and asked, “How many more trials do I need to complete before I arrive at the next realm?”

“...”

After a moment of silence, Tian’er said, “I cannot answer that question, Master, as it’s different for everyone. Some require four trials while some only require one trial to ascend.”

“What? How is that even fair? And how are the trials decided?”

“They are decided by the participants’ talent, destiny, and if they are helping others ascend. The more talented you are, the more difficult the trials will become.”

“Destiny? You’re telling me that the Stairway to Heaven can tell someone’s destiny?”

“That is correct.”

“Then can you tell me my destiny?”

“That is not how this works, Master.”

“Whatever. Let me continue my trial then.”

“You are allowed an hour to recover your spiritual energy after every trial. If you wish to advance without resting, just say so.”

Yuan nodded and said, “I will need every ounce of spiritual energy I can get.”

He sat down the next moment and began recovering his spiritual energy.

‘Wow! I should’ve noticed this sooner! The spiritual energy in this place is so pure! I can feel my cultivation base soaring towards the next level as it recovers!’ Yuan was shocked when he absorbed the spiritual energy in the Stairway to Heaven.

And sure enough, right before his one hour was up, he’d managed to breakthrough to the next level, reaching the fifth level of Spirit Grandmaster.

“Congratulations on your breakthrough, Master.” Tian’er said to him.

“Thank you. I am ready for the next trial.” Yuan then said.

“Please climb that staircase for your next trial.”

Yuan looked around until he saw the staircase Tian'er was talking about, and he began climbing it shortly after.

Meanwhile, in the spectators' room.

"It's back!" Min Li exclaimed in an excited voice when the pond started working again.

"Hm? What happened? Why did he return to that place? What happened to the trial? Did he pass or fail?" Chu Liuxiang asked.

"Seeing that he's climbing the staircase, he most likely passed the first trial and is heading to his second one." Feng Yuxiang said.

Sometime later, Yuan arrived at the second arena.

"The second trial will now begin." Tian'er's calm voice resounded.

The scenery changed a few moments later.

Yuan looked around to find himself at some kind of dock with many large wooden ships stationed there.

"What's my trial this time?" Yuan asked.

"For the second trial, you must escort the Huang Family 100,000 miles until they reach the Giant's Continent. Your trial will fail if anyone from the Huang Family dies."

"100,000 miles?! How long will that take?!" Yuan exclaimed out loud when he heard the distance he had to travel.

"The ships are quite fast, so it shouldn't take too long." Tian'er responded.

"Even if they move 1,000 miles an hour, it would still take 100 hours to complete the trial!" Yuan sighed out loud.

"I have no control over what trial the Master undergoes," she calmly responded.

Ding!

[You have started your second trial in the Stairway to Heaven!]

[You must escort the Huang Family 100,000 miles until they reach the Giant's Continent with all of them alive to finish the trial]

[Finish the trial with all of the Huang Family's bodyguards alive to receive a reward]

Yuan released a deep sigh before looking around the dock for the Huang Family.

"Excuse me, do you know of the Huang Family?" Yuan asked the people there.

However, it took a couple of tries this time since not everybody knew of this Huang Family.

"Oh, the Huang Family? You can find them at the Silver Peak Restaurant. They are currently recruiting bodyguards."

"Can you tell me which direction is this restaurant?"

Once he received the directions, Yuan thanked the man before making his way towards this restaurant.

He arrived at his destination about ten minutes later, and sure enough, there was a large carriage stationed in front of the restaurant with a sign that read 'Hiring bodyguards! 10,000,000 gold coins with bonuses! Must be at least Spirit Lord!'.

'I'm only a Spirit Grandmaster, but I can defeat a Spirit Lord... Hopefully, they won't mind it...'

There was already a long line of people waiting to be recruited, so Yuan entered the line and began waiting, silently observing the situation there while he waited.

“If you want to become a bodyguard, you must prove to me that you can protect my family! This man beside me is a peak Spirit Lord, and he will be testing your capabilities! Whether you can become a bodyguard or not will be at his discretion!” A middle-aged man with sharp facial features said to the crowd of people there.

‘He must be the head of the Huang Family...’ Yuan thought to himself.

A few moments later, someone from the front of the line approached the peak Spirit Lord bodyguard.

“You have three chances. Give me your best strike.” The peak Spirit Lord said to the recruit.

The recruit nodded, and without hesitation, attacked the peak Spirit Lord with his strongest attack that was backed by the power of a fourth level Spirit Lord.

However, the peak Spirit Lord didn’t even bother moving, almost like he had no intention of blocking it.

Bang!

The attack landed on the peak Spirit Lord the next second, but to everybody’s surprise, he came out unscathed by the attack.

“He’s an Array Master!” Someone there exclaimed after realizing what had blocked the attack.

Chapter 671: Bodyguard

‘An Array Master? Feng Feng mentioned them not long ago...’ Yuan looked at the peak Spirit Lord with an interested gaze.

Although it was faint, he could see a semi-transparent barrier around the peak Spirit Lord, and if he looked at the barrier with his divine sense, he would be able to see the symbols that supported the barrier together.

‘Those symbols contain most of the spiritual energy... Is that the barrier’s true form? A bunch of symbols combined together?’ He thought to himself.

“You have two more attacks. If you can crack my array, I will consider you hired.” The peak Spirit Lord said to the recruit.

However, even after using his last two chances, the recruit had failed to make even the slightest crack on the barrier.

“Next!” The middle-aged man said.

The next recruit stepped forward and tried to crack the array created by the peak Spirit Lord but to no avail.

After going through five people without any success, they finally managed to find someone who could crack the array on his third strike, but the crack was very miniscule and less than an inch long.

The peak Spirit Lord silently stared at the crack for a moment before speaking, “Fail!”

“What?! But I managed to crack your array!” The recruit exclaimed, unwilling to accept the results.

“So what if you barely managed to crack it? It’s still not convincing enough. If you want to blame someone, blame yourself for being weak.”

Meanwhile, a small commotion broke out somewhere in the line.

“Hey! Can’t you read? Only Spirit Lords and above can qualify to be their bodyguard! You, who is a mere Spirit Grandmaster, should get out of the line and stop wasting our time! Hell, you’re not even a peak Spirit Grandmaster!”

Upon hearing these words that were spoken right behind him, Yuan turned around, and sure enough, there was someone with a displeased face staring at him.

“So what if I am not a Spirit Lord? I can handle Spirit Lords like you any time of the day.” Yuan was feeling annoyed that he was being bothered even though he had been minding his own business.

“What did you just say, you little bastard?!” The man immediately fumed with anger.

“How dare a little Spirit Grandmaster like you act so arrogantly before me?! Know your place!”

The man released his cultivation base that was at the 8th level Spirit Lord.

He then raised his fist and prepared to strike Yuan.

However, he was a second too late, as Yuan’s fists were already in motion.

“Relentless Dragon Overwhelms the Nine Heavens!”

Yuan used his fist technique for the first time in combat on an opponent after obtaining it from the Dragon Temple.

Since these people are not actually living and are only made out of spiritual energy, Yuan did not bother holding back and was acting even a little daring.

BOOM!

The man was sent flying into the distance like a rag doll until he crashed into a building a street away and collapsed on the floor.

However, the man did not stand back up even many moments later, as he'd died on impact by Yuan's ancient-rank skill.

"Hmph."

Yuan didn't even bother to check the man's condition and treated the whole situation as though he was getting rid of an annoying insect.

The people that witnessed their quick exchange that ended in the blink of an eye were shocked speechless.

They couldn't believe their eyes— did a Spirit Grandmaster just defeat a Spirit Lord, someone an entire realm above his own cultivation?

Why would this kind of genius be willing to become a bodyguard for someone else?

"What's with the commotion back there?!" The peak Spirit Lord left his position and approached Yuan due to their little fight.

"Who was just fighting back here?!" He asked them, as he didn't witness the fight for himself.

Those who saw the fight immediately pointed at Yuan with their fingers.

The peak Spirit Lord frowned when he saw Yuan's cultivation base.

"Why are you even in line? The sign states very clearly that only Spirit Lords and above will be accepted! And the last time I checked, Spirit Grandmaster is not above Spirit Lord!"

Yuan looked at him in the eyes and responded in a calm voice, "While my cultivation isn't at the level of a Spirit Lord, I am not any weaker than one."

The peak Spirit Lord narrowed his eyes at Yuan.

He then said, “I will be the judge of that. Hit me with all you’ve got.”

Yuan nodded and withdrew his Empyrean Overlord.

‘A Soul Weapon... This guy is not an ordinary one...’

The middle-aged man standing beside the carriage immediately recognized the Empyrean Overlord’s unique aura to be a Soul Weapon.

After taking a deep breath, Yuan began gathering as much spiritual energy as he could for the Heaven Splitting Sword Strike.

“T-This is...”

The peak Spirit Lord began sweating profusely when he realized just how much spiritual energy Yuan was gathering in his sword.

He knew very well that even if he was a Spirit King, neither he nor his array would be able to survive such a powerful attack.

“W-W-Wait a moment!” The peak Spirit Lord suddenly stopped him.

“You don’t need to continue. I am convinced by your strength.”

“Eh? Really? Does this mean you’ll recruit me as a bodyguard?” Yuan was pleasantly surprised.

“I understand.” Yuan stowed away the Empyrean Overlord the next moment.

“My name is Dong Zhou, head of security for the Huang Family. What is your name?” The peak Spirit Lord clasped his hand and bowed in a respectful manner.

“You can call me Yuan.”

“Then, Yuan, you can wait inside the restaurant for now. We’re going to recruit a couple more bodyguards before we leave. You can order whatever you want in the meantime. The Huang Family will pay for everything,” said Dong Zhou.

Chapter 672: Giant's Continent

Yuan proceeded to make his way into the restaurant after being accepted as a bodyguard for the Huang Family.

“Please wait a second, Yuan.”

A soothing voice suddenly called out to him just as he was able to enter the restaurant.

He halted his movements and turned around to see a pretty young lady walking out of the carriage.

Yuan's eyes widened with surprise when he saw this young lady.

“Lulu? What are you doing here?” Yuan subconsciously blurted out loud, as this young lady greatly resembled Chu Liuxiang.

From her brown hair to hazel eyes, it was almost as though Chu Liuxiang herself was there.

However, after closer inspection, although very minor, there were some differences.

“Lulu?” The young lady raised her eyebrows.

“S-Sorry, I mistook you for someone else. You look very similar to one of my friends,” he corrected himself.

The young lady chuckled at his words and said, “My name is Huang Xiao Li. If you don't mind, may I accompany you in the restaurant? I'm feeling a little hungry, too.”

“Uhh...”

Yuan looked at the middle-aged man standing beside Huang Xiao Li.

“Entertaining my family is also part of your job as a bodyguard,” he said.

Yuan nodded.

“You can just call me Xiao Li,” she said as she followed him into the restaurant.

Meanwhile, in the spectators’ area.

“W-Why does she look exactly like me?!” Chu Liuxiang exclaimed in a voice filled with disbelief when she saw Huang Xiao Li’s face.

It felt like she was looking in the mirror when she looked at Huang Xiao Li.

“Maybe the Stairway to Heaven is using our faces for whatever reason.” Feng Yuxiang said.

“And it decided to use my face? I hope she doesn’t do anything weird...” Chu Liuxiang sighed.

Once they were inside the restaurant, Yuan and Huang Xiao Li sat down at a small round table.

“Go ahead and order whatever you like. I will pay for it.” Huang Xiao Li said to him.

The server arrived at their table a few moments later to take their order.

“I will have this... this... this... and this... oh, this as well...”

Yuan stared at Huang Xiao Li with wide eyes as she ordered over a dozen dishes without hesitation.

Normally, he would be the one to surprise the others with his big appetite, but Huang Xiao Li had beat him to the punch this time.

“Okay, your turn, Yuan.” Huang Xiao Li said to him after she finished.

He nodded and began ordering a long list of dishes, dumbfounding Huang Xiao Li.

The server taking their orders cried inwardly, ‘Are you two competing to see who can eat more or what?’

“Esteemed guests, let’s move to a bigger table... This place won’t be able to hold all of your food...” The server said to them afterward.

They agreed and moved to a private room that had a much larger table.

“Now then... While we wait for our food, why don’t you tell me a little about yourself, Yuan? Why did you want to be a bodyguard for my family? You seem like a very talented young man. I cannot imagine someone like you willingly becoming a bodyguard for others. There must be some kind of catch.”

Yuan smiled, “You’re right. I am actually trying to travel to the Giant’s Continent, but I don’t have any money. Fortunately for me, I get to travel there and obtain some money because of your Huang Family.”

Huang Xiao Li narrowed her eyes at him for a moment before relaxing herself.

“Well, I don’t really care why you’re helping us as long as you protect my family and I.”

“I will try my best to make sure that no harm will come to your family.” Yuan nodded.

The food began arriving a few minutes later, and the two of them began cleaning their plates at a fast pace, almost like they were in a race to beat the other.

“You’re pretty good.” Huang Xiao Li said to him after they finished eating.

“Do you always eat this much?”

“Only when I can...” He said.

“Why don’t you tell me a little about yourself, Yuan. I like to know about those working for us. Do you belong to a cultivation sect?”

“I used to, but I am no longer affiliated with them. I am currently a rogue Cultivator,” he said.

“Hoh? Why did you leave? Disciples don’t normally leave their sect. Perhaps you were forced out?”

“No, nothing of that sort. I left simply because I wanted to explore the world by myself.”

“I see... That’s a respectable decision.”

“What about you? Why are you— your family heading to the Giant’s Continent?”

Huang Xiao Li raised her eyebrows at his question before speaking, “There’s only one reason why people go to the Giant’s Continent— to trade treasures with the Giants living there, of course! Aren’t you also going there to trade treasures? Why else would you go there?”

“G-Giants...? You mean there are real giants living there?” Yuan was speechless.

“You didn’t know that...? And you’re trying to go there?” Huang Xiao Li looked at him with a suspicious gaze.

Yuan quickly said, “Actually, it was a friend who told me about the Giant’s Continent, but he never mentioned anything about giants. He also told me to go there if I want to acquire rare treasures, but that’s all. I guess he wanted to keep it a surprise.”

“Is that so... Anyways, that’s why we’re going there— to exchange treasures. However, in order to do so, we must also have a lot of treasures, hence why we’re recruiting bodyguards, just in case someone decides to steal from us. It's also quite dangerous going there, so we'll need all the help we can get."

A few minutes later, Huang Xiao Li's father came to get them.

"We just finished recruiting our bodyguards. We'll be leaving now."

"Okay." Huang Xiao Li nodded.

"See you later, Yuan."

Once outside, Huang Xiao Li returned to the carriage while Yuan gathered with the other bodyguards.

Chapter 673: Huang Family

“My name is Huang Chen, head of the Huang Family. Inside the carriage is my wife, son, and daughter. Your mission is simple—to make sure no harm comes into their way until we arrive at our destination, the Giant’s Continent.”

“It’s about 100,000 miles from here to the Giant’s Continent, but with the ship we’re riding, it will only take a little over a week to get there, and as mentioned, you will receive ten million gold coins for your service.”

“We will give you one million gold in advance and the rest once we arrive at our destination. Of course, you can get more than ten million gold in total with bonuses depending on your performances.”

“If any of you die while protecting my family, I will make sure to pass your money to your family for you.”

“Do any of you have any questions?”

None of the guards said anything.

“Good, then we’ll make our departure in an hour. We’ll be waiting for you at dock number 9. If you’re all ready before then, we can leave early.”

Huang Chen entered the carriage afterward and left the scene without waiting for them.

And since Yuan had nothing else to do, he immediately followed them to the docks.

There were five other bodyguards besides Yuan that had passed the test, four men and one woman, and they were all between the seventh level and eighth level Spirit Lord.

An hour later, everyone gathered at dock number 9.

The carriage was nowhere to be seen and the Huang Family was revealed in full.

There was Huang Chen, a middle-aged man with a slightly handsome appearance. Then there was Huang Xiao Li, a pretty young lady around Yuan's age. The last two were a beautiful middle-aged woman and a little boy around seven years old.

They began lining up to board the ship shortly after everyone gathered.

Yuan looked at the front of the ship with interest as they waited to board, as there was a large serpent wrapped around the front of the ship as decoration.

"This ship is called the Raging Serpent. It's the fastest ship available here." Huang Xiao Li said when she noticed Yuan staring at the ship.

"Is this your first time riding on a ship?"

Yuan nodded, "Yes."

"I see... Let's hope it won't be our last," she said, surprising him with such dark words.

After waiting around for about ten minutes, Yuan and the Huang Family were finally allowed onboard the massive ship.

The Huang Family then led them to their living quarters.

"My family and I will be living in this room— room 112. As for you guys, I have managed to arrange two rooms— room 240 and 241. I would have given each of you your own room if I could, but there wasn't enough room available, so you'll have to share. Anyways, each room can fit four people. You guys can decide the rest for yourselves."

“Now for your job as our bodyguard. As long as there’s someone in this room, two of you will guard the entrance at all times. If one of us decides to leave the room for whatever reason, there will be two guards for one person at all times. Any questions?”

They all shook their heads.

“Good.” Huang Chen and his family entered their room shortly after.

“So how should we share the room?” One of the bodyguards there asked.

“Isn’t it obvious? I will take one room and the rest of you will share the other one,” said the female bodyguard.

“Didn’t you hear what Senior Huang said? We can only fit four in a room!”

“You’ll make it work,” she shrugged in an uncaring manner.

“This is why women are—”

“Then where are you going to rest?”

“I don’t intend on resting. I will be guarding this room until we arrive at our destination,” he said.

After all, he couldn’t risk the Huang Family getting harmed while he was resting in another room.

“You really want that bonus, huh? I admire your dedication. Alright, I will guard this room with you,” said a bulky man with muscles that looked like they were fortified with steel.

The other bodyguards didn’t try to fight for their position since they rather do less work.

Once the other guard left the scene, Yuan and the bulky man sat in front of room 112 like guard dogs.

“What’s your name, young man?” The bulky man asked him.

“Yuan.”

“I’m Qin Kai. How did you manage to get the Huang Family to accept you as their bodyguard as a Spirit Grandmaster? I thought they were only accepting Spirit Lords.”

Qin Kai was the last person to be recruited by the Huang Family, so he didn’t witness Yuan’s commotion or how he was accepted.

Yuan smiled and said, “I convinced them with my sword.”

Qin Kai stared at Yuan with a somewhat gawking look for a moment before laughing out loud, “With your sword, huh? I like you!”

After chatting with each other for a few minutes, they stopped talking to cultivate.

The ship departed from the docks about half an hour after everyone boarded, but Yuan didn’t notice it due to how still the place was.

‘I have an entire week... My cultivation should go up a few levels while I am here...’ Yuan thought to himself as he started absorbing the rich spiritual energy in the air.

However, he found it incredibly difficult to concentrate because memories of his past life would flow into his head while he tried to cultivate.

He eventually gave up trying to cultivate and focused on these memories.

“Welcome to the Immortal Monastery, where we make immortals out of mortals like you. However, you will not become disciples immediately. All of you will start out as servants, and if you can learn our cultivation technique that we provide to you in less than four years, you will be promoted to being an Outer Court disciple.” The old man that picked them up from their village said as they approached the mountain range.

Chapter 674: Sea Demons

Once they entered the sect, the Cultivator left them in a secluded area before flying away without saying another word.

While Yuan and the others looked around, a chubby old man approached them and said, “Welcome to the Bamboo Garden. This is where you will all be spending your next four years. While you are here, you are required to do labor for the sect, such as cutting wood and gathering water. Of course, if you manage to learn the cultivation technique before then, you’ll get to leave earlier.”

“Your schedule will be very simple. There will be a quota for each of you every week that must be completed, or you will be punished. I don’t care when you finish it. You can finish it on the first day of the week or even the last day of the week. As long as you meet your quota, you can spend the rest of your time cultivating. Any questions? Oh, you can call me Senior Kou.”

“Good. Follow me, I will show you the important facilities before I take you all to receive your uniforms and cultivation technique.”

Yuan and the others began following this fat old man through the Bamboo Garden.

“This area right here is the cafeteria. It will only be open two times a day for breakfast and dinner. If you fail to complete your quota, you will lose access to the cafeteria until you finish it.”

“This is the Bamboo Stream. You can wash your clothes here. If you go a little further down, you can even catch fishes. Do not gather your water here for your quotas. There is a separate area for that.”

“That building over there is the training hall. You can go there to train your body, but there won’t be any instructors to give you guidance. That is a privilege only for official disciples.”

“This entire area is the Bamboo Field. It’s where you’ll gather most of your supplies when you receive a quota that requires you to cut down bamboo.”

After spending almost the entire day walking around the Bamboo Garden, Senior Kou led them to their final stop for the day.

“This is the administration building. If you have any problems, you can come here to get it resolved. It’s also where you obtain uniforms if you somehow destroy your old ones. Of course, it won’t be free.”

“As for how you acquire money in this place— you will receive some money every time you complete your quota, and if you do more than you were requested, you will receive a bonus.”

“Senior Kou, I have a question.” Someone there suddenly raised his hand.

“What is it?”

“What else requires money in this place? Do we also have to pay for our food?”

“Food and rent will be for free. However, you will have to pay for everything else. If you get hurt and require medicine, you will need money. If your uniforms become unusable, you will need money to buy new ones.”

“Hell, if you somehow manage to collect enough money, you can even request to buy some cultivation treasures to increase your chances of becoming a Cultivator. However, that will take years if not decades of saving, and if you are still a mortal by then, you might as well give up.”

Sometime later, Yuan and the others were each given 2 sets of uniforms and a single cultivation technique.

“Basic Qi Gathering Technique...” Yuan read the name of the scroll in his grasp.

“Does anyone here not have two sets of uniforms and a cultivation technique?” Senior Kou asked them.

When nobody responded, he nodded and said, “Good, then let’s get you all settled in your new home.”

About an hour later, Senior Kou stopped before a split path with two different paths.

“The female’s living quarters will be on the left and the men’s living quarters will be on the right. Neither will be allowed to go to the other’s living quarters without permission. If you’re caught doing so, you will be punished severely. Keep this in mind.”

“You may now leave. There will be someone to assign your rooms when you arrive.”

The people there thanked Senior Kou for his time before going to their respective paths.

“Good luck, Tian Yang.” Meng Lili said to Yuan before she went to the left path.

“I will see you later.” Yuan nodded.

Dong!

A sudden earthquake stopped Yuan from looking through his memories.

‘What the? Why is there an earthquake? We should be on water!’ Yuan cried inwardly as he looked around with a puzzled face.

It was at this moment a voice resounded everywhere in the ship.

“We have encountered a Sea Demon, but there is no need to panic, as our experts are currently taking care of it as we speak.”

“What is a Sea Demon?” Yuan turned to ask Qin Kai.

“Oh, they’re basically magical beasts that live in the water. They are very common in this part of the ocean, and they can be quite dangerous if not dealt with quickly. We’ll definitely encounter many more of those until we reach our destination.”

“How powerful are they?” Yuan asked with an intrigued look on his face, as he has never heard of monsters existing in the sea before.

“The ones dwelling on the surface of the ocean aren’t much of an issue. A single Spirit Lord can deal with them. However, it’s those that usually dwell in the deeper parts of the ocean that we should be worried about, as they sometimes wander to the surface for whatever reason, and those will require a Spirit King if not multiple Spirit Kings to handle.”

“Furthermore, the closer we get to the Giant’s Continent, the more dangerous the sea creatures become, especially the Leviathans. Let’s pray to the heavens that we don’t encounter those monsters. They’re known as the lord of the seas, and meeting even a single one of them could mean disaster if not certain death for us.”

Chapter 675: Three Years

The ship stopped shaking shortly after the voice disappeared.

“Looks like they have managed to deal with the Sea Demon.” Qin Kai said before going back to his cultivation.

Yuan also closed his eyes and returned to looking through his memories.

A few weeks have passed since he became a servant of the Immortal Monastery, yet he hasn't been able to learn the cultivation technique, which is a far cry from Yuan's ability to learn even Heaven-rank techniques within minutes.

“Haaaa... Becoming a Cultivator is much more tedious than I'd anticipated... I have read through the manual over a thousand times by now, and I can even recall every single word in the manual backwards with my eyes closed, yet I still cannot sense any spiritual energy.”

Yuan placed the scroll down and tried to sense the spiritual energy in the air again but to no avail.

After failing to sense spiritual energy for half of the day, Yuan decided to go outside to do his quota, which required him to cut down 200 bamboo in a week.

“How are you feeling, Tian Yang? Still can't sense spiritual energy?”

Someone called out to him as he was working.

Yuan turned around to see a skinny young man who looked incredibly fragile approaching him from behind.

This fragile-looking young man was Ning Zixun, a friend he'd made the same day he came to this place.

"I should be asking you that question. Do you feel like dying yet?"

Ning Zixun laughed at his words and said, "Don't be discouraged. It normally takes at least a year or two for most people before they can sense spiritual energy. We just got here less than a month ago. How can we possibly already sense spiritual energy? We're not geniuses."

"At least a year? Hmph! I am not like 'most people'! I will sense spiritual energy in less than a year and become a Cultivator so that I can leave this place!" Yuan declared.

"Why are you in such a hurry to leave? This place isn't even that bad. Although the labor can sometimes get tiring, everything else is great. The food is amazing. The bed is warm, albeit a little small and firm. We even get to practice a cultivation technique for free! Do you have any idea how expensive they are outside?"

"We can work for the rest of our lives and still won't be able to afford the lowest rank cultivation techniques!" Ning Zixun said.

Yuan shook his head and said, "Ning Zixun, if you wish to remain here forever as a servant, you can be my guest. However, I want to become a Cultivator as soon as possible and start growing stronger. Every day I cannot sense spiritual energy is another day that I am powerless!"

Ning Zixun shrugged, "Even if you say that, it's not like we can force our progress to move faster just because we want it to. I wish the world worked that way, but alas, reality is harsh."

Time passed very quickly in the Bamboo Garden, and in the blink of an eye, half a year passed.

"Hey! Tian Yang! Did you hear? One of the girls managed to sense spiritual energy and became a Cultivator! She's now accepted as an official disciple and will be moved to the outer court with the other official disciples!” Ning Zixun revealed this news to him.

“Really? Who is this genius?” Yuan asked.

“I believe her name was Meng... Meng Li?”

“Meng Lili...” Yuan muttered in a low voice.

“That’s right! Meng Lili! You know her?”

Yuan sighed and nodded with a bittersweet smile on his face.

“We came from the same village, and we were friends back there.”

“How lucky. You’re now friends with an outer court disciple. Maybe she’ll even help you in the near future.”

“I doubt it.”

“Anyways, can you leave me alone for a while. I have a feeling that I am close to sensing spiritual energy.” Yuan then said.

Ning Zixun nodded, “Good luck.”

“You as well.”

After Ning Zixun left the scene, Yuan proceeded to stare at the space in front of him for many minutes in a dazed manner.

“Congratulations, Meng Lili. You’re no longer powerless. However, don’t be so proud of yourself just because you managed to become a Cultivator before me! The cultivation path is not a short race but a long marathon! I will follow in your steps soon and even surpass you! Just watch!”

Yuan began studying the cultivation technique with even more intensity starting that day, almost obsessively so.

However, despite his efforts, it took him until his third year in the Bamboo Garden before he could start sensing spiritual energy and becoming an official disciple.

During this time, his friend Ning Zixun had passed away due to natural causes. Ning Zixun was born with a weak body, yet he endured many years of hard labor just for a chance to become a Cultivator.

It was also shortly after Ning Zixun's death that Yuan managed to successfully sense spiritual energy.

"It's truly a pity that you can't be here to see me in this uniform, Ning Zixun..." Yuan sighed as he stood in front of Ning Zixun's empty residence while wearing the outer court's uniform.

"However, even though I have finally managed to become an official disciple, I don't feel any happiness. Is it because of how long it took me to reach this point? I was so confident that I would succeed in less than a year, but here I am, three years later..."

"It shouldn't be too late to catch up to Meng Lili even now, right? I wonder how far she's progressed in these three years. With her talents, she might even be an inner court disciple now. Guess I will find out once I move to the outer court."

After saying his goodbyes to Ning Zixun and the place, Yuan left the Bamboo Garden and was taken to the outer court by the same person who brought him to this sect, unaware of the countless challenges that were waiting for him there.

Chapter 676: Too Easy

BOOM!

The ship suddenly began shaking violently for a second time, snapping Yuan out of his daze.

“Wow, this one is quite powerful. Did we encounter a powerful Sea Demon already? We’ve only been out in the sea for half a day.” Qin Kai muttered in a low voice.

The shaking lasted a few more moments more than the previous time.

“Half a day...?” Yuan suddenly realized something, and he tilted his head to look up into the ceiling of the ship.

“Meixiu, Lulu, I won’t be logging off until I finish this trial. Please take care of everything until I am done.” He spoke to them in the spectators’ room.

“Who are you talking to?” Qin Kai also looked at the ceiling with raised eyebrows.

“Oh, I was just talking to myself.”

“What a weirdo.” Qin Kai chuckled.

Meanwhile, in the spectators’ room, Meixiu said to Chu Liuxiang, “I am going to log off. What about you?”

“I will stay here and continue watching Yuan in case anything happens.”

Meixiu’s eyebrows twitched slightly when she realized something.

‘She’s no longer addressing him as ‘Brother Yuan’... Did something happen between them?’

“Okay, then I will check up on you once in a while.”

Meixiu logged off shortly after to notify the other members that Yuan will be busy for a week.

“A week? What’s he doing inside Cultivation Online that requires so much time?” Wang Ming asked out of curiosity.

“Oh, I have heard of that place. It’s where Cultivators go to ascend to the next world, right?”

Meixiu nodded.

“Alright. Training is going to be a bit boring without him, but it’s only a week. Thank you for letting us know.”

Everybody accepted the news without much problem.

Two days passed in the blink of an eye for Yuan, who was constantly cultivating and looking through his memories.

The ship shook over a dozen times over the last two days, but the warriors hired by the ship had managed to deal with the Sea Demons without any problem.

Besides the shaking from time to time, Yuan’s trial has been very relaxing — suspiciously so.

This made him wonder if the real trial was at the Giant’s Continent.

However, that peace would end soon.

“We have company. Be alert.” Qin Kai suddenly said to him in a low voice.

Yuan opened his eyes to see a group of people that had the appearance of mercenaries slowly approaching their direction.

One look and anybody can tell that they were trouble.

Both Yuan and Qin Kai stood up.

“What do you want?” Qin Kai asked them with his massive arms crossed over his chest, looking very threatening and defensive.

The man leading the group smiled and said, “Is this the Huang Family’s room? We’re actually here for a business appointment.”

“Business appointment? How come I didn’t hear anything about such a thing?”

“This is a very important and exclusive business opportunity for the Huang Family. Why would they let some bodyguards know about it?” The man scoffed.

Qin Kai looked at them up and down and smiled, “If you wear that kind of getup to a business meeting, I doubt it’ll work out for you. Let me save you all from embarrassment. Get out of my face.”

“Imprudent bastard. I gave you a chance to live, yet you willingly choose death.” The man and his group withdrew their weapons the next moment.

Qin Kai laughed and said, “Even if you manage to kill us and steal from the Huang Family, where are you guys going to hide? We’re in the middle of the sea. You’ll die way before you can return to the docks even if you fly.”

“Who said anything about hiding or running away? Once we deal with the Huang Family, we’ll seize control of the ship and take our time robbing the other passengers. Ships heading to the Giant’s Continent are always filled with wealthy people and loaded with treasures.”

“Do you idiots think you’re the first to rob the Raging Serpent? There have been countless attempts to rob this place, and all of them never managed to return to the land.”

“Hmph! Enough talking! Get rid of them!” The man pointed at Yuan and Qin Kai as he ordered his group.

“Heavenly Domain!”

Yuan immediately used his domain to restrict their movements, but since they were all Spirit Lords, it couldn’t completely seal their movements.

“This guy can use a domain! Let’s get him first!” The man shouted.

“If you want to get to him, you’ll have to get past me first!”

Qin Kai stood before the robbers and Yuan.

While Qin Kai distracted them, Yuan used the soundless blade to kill them from a distance, killing many of the robbers before they even realized what was happening.

The battle was a one-sided slaughter, and in just a couple of minutes, Yuan had managed to kill all of the robbers.

Qin Kai stared at him with wide eyes afterward.

“I completely understand why the Huang Family hired you now...” He mumbled in a dumbfounded voice.

“What are we going to do with these bodies?” Yuan asked a moment later.

“The cleaning crew will take care of them.” Qin Kai shrugged.

Yuan raised his eyebrows.

And sure enough, the cleaning crew arrived a few minutes later to pick up the corpses and clean the blood, almost like they were used to it.

As for what they did with the corpses, they simply tossed them into the ocean for the Sea Demons to feast on.

After the commotion, Huang Chen opened the door and asked them about the situation.

Qin Kai recalled everything that happened to him.

Huang Chen nodded with a satisfied face.

“Good job,” he said to them, but he was mostly looking at Yuan.

However, Yuan was feeling uneasy about how easy his trial has been so far. These robbers were just like the guards from the previous trial. They were only there to exhaust his spiritual energy before the real fight.

He can only imagine what the second trial has in store for him.

Chapter 677: Array Master

On the third day of their journey to the Giant's Continent, Huang Xiao Li came out of her room and pointed at Yuan, who was casually sitting in front of the door and said to him, "I am going to look around the ship, and you'll be coming with me, Yuan."

"What?" Yuan was dumbfounded by her request.

"You encountered robbers just yesterday and you already want to leave your room? That's a little dangerous if I have to be honest," he said to her.

Furthermore, he didn't want to be separated from the rest of the family. What if they're attacked when he's away and dies? That would mean the end of the trial for him!

"I will be fine. After all, you will be there to protect me if anything were to happen, right?" Huang Xiao Li said with a smile on her face.

"What about the rest of your family? I have to protect them as well."

"Have you already forgotten that we have other bodyguards beside you? They will take your spot. Or are you making this difficult because you don't want to be with me? Do you find me bothersome?"

"That's not it..." Yuan sighed.

"Then it's decided! You're coming with me to explore the ship!"

Yuan gave up and nodded his head, "But we still need another bodyguard."

Qin Kai raised his hand and said, "I can—"

However, he was quickly interrupted by Huang Xiao Li, “I have already spoken to my father. I can take just one bodyguard with me. You can go confirm with him if you’d like.”

“That won’t be necessary. We trust your words.” Qin Kai said.

He then turned to look at Yuan and said, “Go ahead and protect the young lady. I will call one of the other guards to take your place until you return.”

“Thank you.” Yuan nodded.

After waiting for his replacement to show up, Yuan followed Huang Xiao Li around the ship.

“I heard that you took care of the robbers yesterday.” Huang Xiao Li spoke as they walked.

“Yes, but I wasn’t the only person who took care of them. Qin Kai was also there,” he said.

“The bodyguard that was with you, right? But you killed the most. Even though you’re only a Spirit Master. I’m impressed.”

“Thank you.”

“You don’t belong to a sect, right?”

“Not at this moment.”

“Why don’t you join my sect after this journey? I think you’ll do very well there with your talents.”

“I will consider it.”

“Really?” Huang Xiao Li appeared to be surprised by Yuan’s response, as she didn’t think he would even consider her random request.

Little did she know that he’d only agreed because he knew that she would disappear after he finishes this trial and that none of them were real.

“Anyways, we can talk about my sect after we finish our business at the Giant’s Continent. I don’t want to burst your bubbles, but the robbers yesterday are not the reason we hired you guys, as we could’ve dealt with them by ourselves.”

“I figured as much.” Yuan showed a bittersweet smile.

“Then why did you hire us? And where did that peak Spirit Lord bodyguard go?”

“Are you talking about Dong Zhou? He’s currently part of the ship’s protection squad, so he’s dealing with the Sea Demons.”

“I see...”

“We hired extra bodyguards not because of robbers. We did so because we need as many hands as we can get once we arrive at the Giant’s Continent,” she said.

“The Giant’s Continent? Is it that dangerous there?” Yuan asked.

“Yes, but it’s not the giants that are dangerous. It’s the magical beasts that dwell there that are the most threatening.”

“By the way, why are you asking about Dong Zhou? Do you wish to speak with him?”

Yuan nodded and said, “I wanted to learn a little more about arrays and formations and I thought that he could help me. That’s all.”

“Arrays? If that’s the only reason why you’re seeking for him, then you can just ask me. I may not look like it, but I am also an Array Master! In fact, our entire family specializes in arrays and formations!” Huang Xiao Li revealed this fact.

“Really?” Yuan looked at her with a surprised face.

“Does it look like I am joking?” Huang Xiao Li suddenly lifted her hand to show Yuan the beautiful symbol floating on the top of her palm.

“That’s an array?” Yuan asked as he stared at the symbol with interest.

“Not exactly. This is an array symbol. You’ll need multiple symbols to create an array. Like this.”

Huang Xiao Li created a few more symbols afterward, overlapping them with each other until they formed one large symbol.

Once her array was completed, Huang Xiao Li tossed it at Yuan.

“What did you just do to me?” Yuan searched his body but didn’t feel any different.

Huang Xiao Li didn’t say anything and withdrew a small dagger before slashing it at him.

Yuan subconsciously used his bare arm to block it since he was surprised by her sudden actions.

However, the dagger didn’t manage to cut his skin even though the blade slid across his skin.

“I just cast a protective array on your body. You’re pretty much untouchable by normal weapons and treasures to a certain extent now.”

“Wow... You surprised me for a moment there...” Yuan sighed.

“Anyways, that was amazing.”

“Thank you, but that was just the very basics. If you have any questions, I will be happy to answer them.” Huang Xiao Li said as they approached the bow of the ship.

“Was it difficult learning arrays? How would you compare it to learning a cultivation technique?”

Huang Xiao Li smiled and said, “Learning arrays is much more difficult than learning cultivation techniques, almost incomparably so. If it takes the average mortal a year to become a Cultivator, then it would take the average Cultivator ten years to become an Array Master.”

“Do you want to try?” She suddenly asked.

“Eh? Try what?”

“Try learning arrays. Of course, you won’t actually learn it in such a short time, but you’ll get a feel for it.”

After pondering for a moment, Yuan nodded, “Let’s do it.”

Chapter 678: Learning About Arrays

“Alright, let’s start with the array I just used on you.” Huang Xiao Li retrieved a manual and showed it to him.

“Body Shielding Array...” Yuan read the title of the manual.

“How does one learn arrays? Is it any different from learning cultivation techniques?” He then asked.

“Well, they’re quite similar in some ways, but they are also very different. You will understand it once we begin.”

“Anyways, let’s start.”

“First and foremost, you must learn how to create symbols with your hands. Allow me to demonstrate it.”

Huang Xiao Li then raised her hand and began writing in the air with her index finger.

There was a warm-looking light on the tip of her fingers, and everywhere it went, it would draw a line in the air, eventually creating a symbol that floated in the air.

“I don’t expect you to draw a symbol on your first try, so you should just try drawing lines in the air like this.”

She then waved her finger around, creating a long, glowing line in the air.

“In order to do this, you must collect your spiritual energy on your finger tip and imagine drawing in the air. Trust me, it’s actually much harder than it sounds. Just mastering this technique alone requires months of practice.”

“Okay, let me try.”

Yuan closed his eyes and gathered some of his spiritual energy onto his finger tip.

He could immediately feel a subtle but warm feeling on his finger tip, and without opening his eyes, he waved his hand around like a music conductor while imagining lines would appear wherever his fingers moved.

Huang Xiao Li’s eyes widened with shock when she saw the glowing line that followed Yuan’s finger in the air.

The line was incredibly smooth and consistent, almost like it was created by an expert with countless years of experience.

‘H-He actually managed to succeed on his first try?!’ She cried inwardly.

Huang Xiao Li herself was considered to be a rare genius that hasn’t been seen in over a thousand years, and it took her an entire month to draw in the air so perfectly.

“A-Are you sure this is your first time? I’m having a hard time believing that you’re a beginner with no experience,” she said to him.

“Eh? Yes, this is my first time. I didn’t even know about Array Masters until very recently,” he nodded his head.

‘He’s not lying...’ Huang Xiao Li thought to herself as she stared at Yuan in the eyes.

‘So a prodigy like him can exist in this world, huh...’

A slight smile appeared on her face.

“Anyways, let’s move onto the second step since you can already draw perfectly.”

“Now for the hard part, you must learn to draw symbols and combine them into a single array. It’s a process that cannot be explained due to its complexity, but this should help you.”

Huang Xiao Li retrieved two more manuals and handed them to Yuan.

“10,000 Array Symbols... Guide to Combining Array Symbols...”

Yuan read the title of these manuals out loud.

“There are actually more than 10,000 array symbols in existence, but these 10,000 symbols are the most basic and what beginners must remember first.”

“If you think about it, arrays resemble alchemy more than it does cultivation. In alchemy, you must remember the ingredients and learn the recipes to create pills. As an Array Master, you must memorize the array symbols and the array combinations to create an array.”

“Most of the basic arrays require between fifty to one hundred symbols. Although that may seem like a lot, even amateur Array Masters can make over ten symbols in less than a second. After all, once you’re experienced enough, you can create symbols without needing to draw it with your fingers, and you can just create them almost instantaneously like this.”

Huang Xiao Li showed her palms and symbols quickly began appearing on it, almost as though they were coming out of thin air.

“At my level, I can create around four hundred symbols in a second. It’s pretty good for someone my age, but I cannot compare to some of the true experts out there that can create thousands of symbols almost instantaneously.”

“I see... Thank you for teaching me about arrays.” Yuan said.

She smiled and said, “Since I taught you about arrays, I am technically your Master now.”

Yuan chuckled and bowed to her before speaking in a joking manner, “This disciple greets Master.”

“Alright, I have seen enough of this side. Let’s go check out the other side of the ship before we go back.” Huang Xiao Li said a moment later.

“Okay.”

The two of them proceeded walking to the other side of the ship.

Bang!

The ship suddenly began shaking.

“Are you sure? That sounds dangerous...” Yuan said with a slightly worried frown on his face.

She smiled and said, “Don’t worry, there’s a powerful formation protecting this ship, and Sea Demons cannot get within 250 meters of the ship, so even though the ship is shaking, it’s not as though the ship is being physically attacked.”

“Follow me!”

Huang Xiao Li began running through the ship, stopping a few moments later.

“Look out there!” She pointed to the sea.

Yuan looked at where she was pointing, and sure enough, there was a battle occurring about 250 meters away from the ship.

There were seven Cultivators with a Spirit Lord cultivation out there currently battling against these large and thick tentacles that were sticking out of the water.

“Judging by the size of those tentacles... A medium-size Sea Demon, huh?” Huang Xiao Li mumbled.

Even though it looked like he wasn’t part of the battle, he was actually supporting the others with his arrays by enhancing their defenses and boosting their strength, and from time to time, he would try to restrict the movements of the tentacles.

“So that’s how an Array Master fights, huh?” Yuan mumbled as he watched their battle from afar.

Chapter 679: Incoming Sea Demon

“There are many ways an Array Master can fight. They can support the others like Dong Zhou is doing right now, or they can fight in the frontline by themselves. It all depends on what they prefer and how confident they are in their own arrays.”

“Some Array Masters may prefer supporting because they are not confident in their ability to fight, but that is not to say they don’t have the capabilities to do so.” Huang Xiao Li explained to him.

Bang!

The ship shook again when one of the tentacles struck the barrier protecting the ship.

“I didn’t notice the formation until you told me. How can you tell there’s one?” Yuan then asked.

“Formations can be spotted quite easily if you know what you’re looking for. Unless the formation is concealed with another formation, you should be able to see it with your divine sense.”

“With my divine sense?” Yuan immediately tried looking with his divine sense, and sure enough, there was a massive barrier around the ship that seems to be made of symbols— tens of thousands of symbols that connect with each other.

“You probably think there’s only a few thousand symbols in this formation, right? Look at the symbols individually again. Each of these symbols are actually combinations of smaller symbols, so there are millions if not billions of symbols that make up this formation.”

“Heavens... How long would it take to create this formation?” Yuan asked after a moment of silence.

“Hmmm... It really depends on the complexity of the formation and the ability of those Formation Experts that worked on it. A formation of this size and complexity probably took years if not decades of efforts from hundreds of Formation Experts to complete.”

“Of course. Formations often require millions of symbols, and a single mistake can cause the whole formation to crumble. Unlike arrays that don’t need as much attention since they require much fewer symbols, so even if you make a mistake, you can quickly fix it.”

“Furthermore, arrays are meant to be used very quickly and do not have lasting effects. Formations, on the other hand, are often made to last for as long as possible. There are plenty of formations out there that have lasted for even millions of years.”

“How does one become a Formation Expert? Is it the same as becoming an Array Master?” Yuan asked.

“In a way, yes. However, most people become Array Masters before they become Formation Experts. Although formation requires symbols, formations have their own unique symbols while arrays have their own distinctive symbols. That’s what really separates us apart from being completely the same thing. The basics are the same, but everything else is different.”

“I understand now. Thank you for the lecture.” Yuan said.

The Sea Demon was subdued shortly after their conversation ended.

“Hm? Young Lady, what are you doing out here?” Dong Zhou noticed them when he made his way back to the ship.

“It’s suffocating to stay in the same room for many days, so I came out for some fresh air,” she said.

Dong Zhou nodded and said, “Anyways, you should return to your room soon. The captain said we might encounter a large-size Sea Demon soon since we’re getting closer to the Giant’s Continent.”

“No, this time is different. I’m not sure what to expect since we’ve never had a reading like this one before, but the captain said to expect the worst.”

“Reading?” Yuan raised his eyebrows.

“Yes, we have a treasure that allows us to detect nearby Sea Demons and those that show aggression towards us. The radar picked up the aura of a large Sea Demon that’s currently approaching our direction, but we’ve never seen such a reading of spiritual energy before.”

“How long before this Sea Demon reaches us?” Yuan asked with a worried frown, as he was certain that this Sea Demon was the real trial.

“At the speed it’s moving, it should collide with us in two days.” Dong Zhou said.

“Two days...” Yuan mumbled to himself.

“Are you worried about this Sea Demon?” Huang Xiao Li could see it very clearly on Yuan’s face.

“Yes.”

“No matter what we encounter, I’m sure we’ll be able to overcome it,” she smiled.

“I sure hope so.”

They returned to the room after finishing up their tour around the ship.

“Welcome back.” Qin Kai said to them when they returned.

Yuan looked at his replacement and said, “Thank you for taking over. I will take care of the rest.”

“Of course.”

The bodyguard didn’t say anything else and returned to his room.

“I feel safe knowing that you’re here, Yuan.” Huang Xiao Li said to him with a gentle smile before entering the room.

“I think she has a thing for you.” Qin Kai said to him afterward.

Yuan merely shook his head and ignored it.

He then sat down and retrieved the manuals that Huang Xiao Li had given him and started studying them.

He started with reading through ‘Guide to Combining Array Symbols’ to memorizing all of the symbols in ‘10,000 Array Symbols’.

Meanwhile, in the spectators’ room.

“The Young Master is learning arrays now? How many cultivation paths does he plan on walking? Isn’t it bad to spread your focus to so many different things at once?” Feng Yuxiang mumbled in a dumbfounded voice.

“Brother Yuan is not your average genius.” Xiao Hua said.

“I am well aware of that, but he’ll grow much faster if he focuses on one thing.”

Chu Liuxiang then said, “Well, there’s no harm in picking up different hobbies. It’s easy to get bored of doing the same thing over and over again. The real question is whether he truly invests himself into this new hobby or not. He might even get bored of it after a while.”

“Brother Yuan will probably master whatever he’s interested in very quickly and move onto the next path.” Xiao Hua said.

“Honestly, whenever the Young Master does something new, it feels more like he already has experience doing them but just forgot about it. I know that sounds impossible, but it’s how it feels sometimes.” Feng Yuxiang shrugged.

After a moment of silence, Xiao Hua mumbled in a low voice, “If reincarnation is real, that won’t sound as impossible...”

Chapter 680: Sea Demon Identified

“Reincarnation? Do you believe the Young Master is the reincarnation of a powerful immortal in the past? Do you even believe in the concept of reincarnation at all?” Feng Yuxiang looked at Xiao Hua with raised eyebrows.

Xiao Hua didn’t appear to be the type to believe in these kinds of things.

After a moment of silence, Xiao Hua spoke, “Although Xiao Hua doesn’t necessarily believe in reincarnation, her family believes in it.”

“Your family? I have been wondering for a while now, but what kind of family do you have?”

“...”

As Feng Yuxiang expected, Xiao Hua refused to say anything about her family.

“Whatever. Not that I really care. Anyways, if the Young Master is really the reincarnation of a powerful expert, I believe it. After all, I am a phoenix — I symbolize reincarnation itself.”

Chu Liuxiang listened to their conversation with raised eyebrows.

Although she doesn’t believe in reincarnation, she found the topic to be quite interesting.

This was also the case for Min Li.

“Let’s say Yuan is the reincarnation of someone else... Is there a way to test that?” Chu Liuxiang suddenly asked.

“There are many mythical treasures in the world of cultivation, right? Surely, there must be a treasure that can tell whether someone is reincarnated or not.”

Feng Yuxiang pondered for a moment before speaking, “Actually, there’s one. However, it’s only a legend.”

“It’s called the Mirror of Samsara. Legend has it that anyone that stands in front of this mirror will have their past lives revealed by the mirror.”

“It’s only a legend? From my experience, all legends turn out to be just that — legends...” Chu Liuxiang sighed.

“Actually, the Mirror of Samsara really exists. The legend is that it can tell one’s past lives.” Feng Yuxiang said.

“If the treasure exists, why does this legend still exist?”

“Probably because nobody can confirm it. The Mirror of Samsara is being kept by a powerful collector who doesn’t allow anyone near his treasures, so even though the treasure exists, it’s not accessible, hence the legend.”

“The collector is probably doing it on purpose to keep the treasure rarer than its actual value, so when it’s time to sell the treasure, it’ll earn much more money. It’s a pretty common tactic for collectors.” Chu Liuxiang shrugged.

“You seem to know a lot about this topic. Are you also a collector?” Feng Yuxiang asked.

“No, but my family is.”

After a moment of silence, Chu Liuxiang asked, “Let’s hypothetically say that Yuan is reincarnated. What will you all do?”

Feng Yuxiang smiled and said, “Nothing. Once someone dies, their identity and everything else dies with them, so even if the Young Master is reincarnated, it won’t affect him or change who he currently is.”

Xiao Hua nodded, “Brother Yuan is Brother Yuan no matter who he was in his previous life.”

“Is that so...”

They returned to watching the pond shortly after.

The following day, Yuan opened his eyes when there was another announcement in the ship.

“This is an emergency! I repeat, this is an emergency! There is currently a large-size Sea Demon heading towards our direction, and it is very likely that it’s a Leviathan! We will need the cooperation of everyone on the ship if it really turns out to be a Leviathan! Please prepare yourselves!”

Everybody on the ship began to freak out after they heard the announcement.

“A Leviathan is coming?! How can we possibly fight that monster?!”

“We’re dead! We’re all dead!”

“Fuck... I think I jinxed it for us...” Qin Kai rubbed his temples in a stressful manner.

“They said it might be a Leviathan. It’s not confirmed yet.” Yuan said.

“I know, but there’s a good chance that it’s a Leviathan.”

“How powerful is a Leviathan?”

“Most of them are as powerful as a mid-level to peak-level Spirit King. Some of them even have the prowess of a low-level Spirit Emperor. We might barely survive an ordinary Spirit King, but if it has the strength of a Spirit Emperor, we’re all guaranteed to die.” Qin Kai sighed.

“Do we have any Spirit Kings onboard?”

“There is always one or two of them aboard, but even then, we might not defeat a Leviathan. Sea Demons are just like magical beasts in the sense that they’re much more powerful than humans that are at the same level.”

“Strength of a Spirit Emperor...” Yuan muttered in a low voice.

Compared to his last trial, this second trial is definitely more difficult.

Unfortunately, the only thing they can do now is wait and see what this large-size Sea Demon really is.

After another day of anxious waiting and without anyone getting a good sleep, if any at all, the announcement returned, “We have identified the Sea Demon approaching us! It’s— It’s a Leviathan!”

This announcement brought many people on the ship to tears, as their worst nightmares have come true.

However, there was still more to be announced, and it only made people feel more despair.

“Furthermore, it’s not an ordinary Leviathan! It’s a mutated Leviathan— a Flying Leviathan!”

“WHAT?! A FLYING LEVIATHAN?!” Qin Kai exclaimed in a shocked voice.

Seeing Qin Kai’s reaction, Yuan could only swallow nervously.

“The Flying Leviathan will arrive in two hours! We need all Cultivators on the deck now!”

The announcement ended there.

A moment of silence filled the ship, but when that silence ended, chaos erupted, and Yuan could hear screaming and crying coming from every room there.

“Let me guess... a Flying Leviathan has the strength of a low-level Spirit Emperor.” Yuan asked Qin Kai, who slowly nodded his head.

“Unfortunately, that’s not all there is to it. There are many different species when it comes to Leviathans, and the Flying Leviathan is one of the most dangerous types, as they can leave the water and fly around in the sky like a dragon...” Qin Kai continued.

Yuan closed his eyes and released a deep sigh.

“Flying or not... I will not let it stop us from reaching the Giant’s Continent.”

Chapter 681: I Won't Let You Die

The Huang Family gathered Yuan and the other bodyguards shortly after the announcement regarding the Flying Leviathan.

“As you should all know by now, there is a Flying Leviathan heading our way. This is a life-or-death situation for everyone on the ship, so we’ll need to give it our all to defeat the Flying Leviathan together.” Huang Chen said to them.

Everyone there nodded their heads with serious expressions on their faces.

“Anyways, let’s all head to the deck and see what the captain of this ship has to say to us.”

“Wait.” Yuan suddenly stopped them.

“What’s the matter?”

“I... I need to prepare myself for the Flying Leviathan, so if you don’t mind, I will stay behind.” Yuan said to them.

Huang Chen nodded, “You’ll have two hours to prepare until the Flying Leviathan arrives. Do your best.”

“Father, I will stay here with him.” Huang Xiao Li suddenly said.

Huang Chen raised his eyebrows and pondered for a moment before looking at Yuan. “Do you mind?”

Although he wasn’t sure why his daughter wanted to stay here with Yuan, he didn’t object to it either.

“I don’t mind.” Yuan shook his head.

Everyone but Yuan and Huang Xiao Li gathered at the deck of the ship shortly after.

“Do you mind if I use your room?” Yuan asked Huang Xiao Li when they were alone.

“No, go ahead. I was going to ask you to come with me, anyway.”

“Are you trying to go somewhere?”

“Not exactly.”

Once they entered the room, Huang Xiao Li locked the door behind her.

“I am going to cultivate now.” Yuan said as he looked around for a place to sit.

However, he suddenly heard something falling onto the ground.

It was a gentle sound, so whatever dropped just now was light and soft.

Yuan turned around to make sure everything was okay, and his eyes widened with shock when he saw the scene.

“X-Xiao Li...? What are you doing?” Yuan asked her, who had suddenly stripped naked.

Indeed, what had just dropped onto the floor just now were Huang Xiao Li’s clothes.

“Yuan...” Tears began flowing down Huang Xiao Li’s face as she spoke, “I don’t want to die alone... Before we die... can you make love to me?”

“...” Yuan didn’t know how to respond and silently stared at her crying face.

“T-That vixen! What is she trying to do to my darling with my face?!”
Inside the spectators’ room, Chu Liuxiang became livid when she saw what was happening through the pond.

Even Feng Yuxiang and Min Li were dumbfounded by the situation, as they could’ve never imagined that such a thing would happen during the trial.

As for Xiao Hua, she couldn’t comprehend the situation, hence why she was still relatively calm, only feeling mildly puzzled.

Meanwhile, back in the room, Huang Xiao Li continued with her advances on Yuan.

“Please, Yuan... Even though I am a little desperate, I won’t do this just with anyone... In fact, my body is still pure...”

Huang Xiao Li slowly approached Yuan before spreading her slender arms and embracing him.

“Let’s make love to each other while we still can, until we die, okay...?”
She whispered to his ears in a painful voice.

Yuan closed his eyes and took a deep breath.

He opened his arms and hugged Huang Xiao Li back.

“Is he really going to do it with her?! But she has my face!” Chu Liuxiang felt the urge to cry when she imagined Yuan sleeping with Huang Xiao Li.

However, it was not because he’s sleeping with another woman. It was the fact that Huang Xiao Li had her face that devastated Chu Liuxiang.

“Thank you... Yuan...” Huang Xiao Li said to him.

“I’m sorry, but I cannot fulfill your request.” Yuan suddenly said, dumbfounding her.

“Eh?” She looked at him with her eyes as wide as saucers.

Yuan stared at her in the eyes and said, “You won’t die alone... because I won’t let you die today.”

“B-B-But it’s a Flying Leviathan! There’s no way we could defeat that monster! Nobody has survived a Leviathan’s attack before, much less a Flying Leviathan! It’s impossible!”

“Trust me, I will defeat it.” Yuan said before picking up Huang Xiao Li’s clothes and handing them back to her.

Huang Xiao Li silently looked at her clothes for a long moment before lifting her head to look at Yuan.

She eventually nodded and said, “If I die alone, I will haunt you in your next life so that you will never be able to find a partner, Yuan.”

Yuan’s body trembled when he heard her words that reminded him of Azure.

“I promise.” He smiled.

He then took a seat on the ground before retrieving a small box from his spatial ring.

After putting her clothes back on, Huang Xiao Li asked him, “What is that? How is that going to prepare you for the battle?”

Yuan opened the box, revealing a crystal inside.

“Is that a monster core? You’re going to cultivate that right now? It’s going to take days depending on what kind of monster core it is! We only have two hours before the Flying Leviathan arrives— less than that, actually!”

Yuan smiled and said, “It’s not a monster core, and it won’t take days.”

He opened his mouth and tossed the crystal inside the next moment.

“Wha—?!” Huang Xiao Li was shocked by Yuan’s actions.

‘Wait... Since it’s not a monster core, it should be fine...’ She quickly calmed down.

Yuan could immediately feel the crystal melting in his mouth, and a bitter and somewhat spicy taste quickly followed.

[??? Qi has been absorbed from the Demon Core!]

[You have absorbed enough Qi for a breakthrough!]

[You have reached the sixth level Spirit Grandmaster!]

[+30,000 Stats]

‘An immediate breakthrough?!’ Huang Xiao Li cried inwardly when she sensed his breakthrough.

However, that was not the end of her shock, as Yuan’s cultivation base continued to quickly soar towards Spirit Lord!

“What did he just swallow?” Chu Liuxiang asked out of curiosity.

“That’s the Demon Lord’s Demon Core...” Lan Yingying responded to her question in a dazed voice.

Chapter 682: Spirit Lord

“D-Did you just say ‘demon core’...?” Min Li snapped her head to look at Lan Yingying with a shocked face.

Demons should be extinct, so demon cores should no longer exist. However, if some of them have managed to survive this long, then it would be an incredibly valuable— even priceless treasure!

However, that wasn’t even the most shocking part! Why would Yuan consume something like that? Although she doesn’t know the difference between demon cores and monster cores, they should function the same way, meaning it would be reckless if not suicidal to swallow them!

“Wait... Are people allowed to use treasures while they are challenging the Stairway to Heaven? Isn’t that cheating?” Chu Liuxiang had a different question in mind.

Feng Yuxiang shook her head and said, “As far as I’m aware, it’s not against the rules, or the Young Master would’ve failed already. I guess it’s allowed because the Stairway to Heaven didn’t take into consideration that someone might be able to consume treasures like the Young Master.”

It was at this moment that Meixiu logged into the game.

“Did something happen?” She asked them when she saw their faces.

Chu Liuxiang proceeded to explain to her the situation.

Meanwhile, Yuan had just reached the ninth level of Spirit Grandmaster and was only a single level away from becoming a Spirit Lord!

“Heavens...” Huang Xiao Li was sitting on the floor because her legs had given up on her after she witnessed Yuan’s heaven-defying talents.

After stopping at the peak of Spirit Grandmaster for a few minutes, Yuan suddenly took a deep breath, and when he released it, a cloud of glistening mist would come out of his mouth, almost like he was smoking.

Whoosh!

A sudden gust appeared in the room despite the windows being closed.

[You have absorbed enough Qi for a breakthrough!]

[Because your Qi Experience is already full, you will not be able to receive anymore Qi until you reach the next realm]

[You have met the requirements for a breakthrough]

[You have reached first level Spirit Lord]

[+??? Stats]

[Your ‘Superior Senses’ has developed into ‘Spiritual Senses’]

[You have absorbed enough Qi for a breakthrough!]

[You have reached second level Spirit Lord!]

[+??? Stats!]

Yuan opened his eyes after he reached the second level Spirit Lord, as he’d completely absorbed the demon core at that point.

He stood up and stretched his body, feeling incredibly refreshed and filled with energy.

“A-Are you okay...?” Huang Xiao Li asked him in a nervous voice.

Normally, one would experience backlashes if their cultivation base expands so quickly.

“I am perfectly fine,” he said with a calm smile on his face.

“And I am also ready to fight the Flying Leviathan.”

“B-But the Flying Leviathan has the strength of a low-level Spirit Emperor... You’re still two entire realms below that...” Huang Xiao Li said in a low voice.

“I will manage it somehow. Let’s go meet up with the others now, shall we?”

She nodded.

The two of them proceeded to make their way to the deck of the ship, where every single cultivator onboard was gathered.

“Y-You... You have been suppressing your cultivation base this entire time? I thought it was insane how a Spirit Grandmaster could defeat Spirit Lords with ease! It turns out you’d been a Spirit Lord yourself this entire time!” Qin Kai was dumbfounded to see Yuan suddenly emitting the aura of a Spirit Lord.

Yuan didn’t say anything and merely smiled at his words.

Seeing that he wasn’t saying anything, Huang Xiao Li also decided to keep her mouth shut. They wouldn’t believe her even if she told them the truth, anyway.

“How long until the Flying Leviathan arrives?” Yuan asked them.

“It will arrive in about fifteen minutes,” said Huang Chen.

“I see...”

While they waited, Yuan decided to check his stats since it has been awhile.

However, what he saw immediately left him dumbfounded.

Cultivation: Second Level Spirit Lord

Legacy: Great One's Legacy

Bloodline: Immortal Monarch Bloodline

Physique: Heaven Refining Physique

Physical Strength: ???

Mental Strength: ???

Soul Strength: ???

Physical Defense: ???

Mental Defense: ???

Qi Experience: ???/???

“I can't see my stats? Are they too high? Maybe I am advancing much faster than the game anticipated...”

It wasn't his first time seeing these question marks since his Qi Experience has been bugged out after becoming a Spirit Grandmaster. Now that he has become a Spirit Lord, even his character stats have been bugged out.

However, Yuan wasn't worried at all. After all, it wasn't as if his stats were gone. It's just so high that even the system cannot keep up with it.

After waiting anxiously for the Flying Leviathan, the captain's voice suddenly returned.

“The Flying Leviathan is here! Prepare for battle!”

Right after the captain's voice disappeared, Yuan and everyone on the ship could feel a powerful aura suddenly appear in the distance.

This aura was so intense that it instantly knocked those with a weak mental defense unconscious.

Yuan could feel his entire body shivering from fear, but his blood was boiling with excitement for some reason.

"Are we all ready?" Huang Chen asked them.

Everybody there nodded.

"Please wait a moment." Yuan suddenly said.

"What is it?"

They looked at him.

"I would like to apologize," he said.

"Why are you apologizing?" Huang Xiao Li raised her eyebrows in a puzzled manner.

Yuan didn't say anything else and began drawing array symbols with his hand, and before anybody there could react, he activated the array he'd created in less than a second, confining the Huang Family and the bodyguards they hired in a powerful barrier.

"W-What is the meaning of this?!" Huang Chen roared in a furious voice when he thought that Yuan had betrayed them.

"Yuan! Why are you doing this?!" Huang Xiao Li also questioned him.

Yuan took a deep breath before speaking, "You hired me to keep your family safe, and that is what I intend on doing."

"What about us?! We're also hired to protect them! We should be fighting alongside you!" Qin Kai said to him.

Yuan shook his head and said in a calm voice, “Because this isn’t your trial — it’s my trial.”

Chapter 683: Flying Leviathan

“Please! Yuan! You don’t have to do this alone!” Huang Xiao Li banged on the barrier with her fists.

However, Yuan merely shook his head at her before flying off the ship and towards the Flying Leviathan’s aura with the other cultivators, leaving pretty much just the Huang Family and their bodyguards onboard.

Of course, the mortals and those that cannot fight also remained on the ship while everyone else went to greet the Flying Leviathan far away from the ship so their fight won’t affect the ship and those onboard.

After Yuan left, Huang Xiao Li immediately began trying to destroy the array created by Yuan, but to her absolute shock, she was unable to find any weaknesses in the array, making it incredibly difficult to break!

‘How is he already this proficient with arrays?! He only learned the basics a few days ago! I have studied arrays under my father for over 20 years, yet I cannot defeat an array created by a complete newbie that learned arrays just a few days ago?! Impossible!’

“Father! Why are you just standing there? Hurry up and break this array so that we can help him!” Huang Xiao Li turned to her father for help, as she was confident that he had the ability to break the array.

However, Huang Chen remained standing there without moving a muscle, his gaze silently staring in the direction that Yuan went.

He closed his eyes and sighed, “The young man has already made his decision. I cannot go against it.”

“What?! That’s nonsense! He’s going to die if we leave him alone!”

“I’m sure he’s already prepared himself for that. Let’s not disrespect his resolution.”

He then looked at the array surrounding them and smiled, “I didn’t expect that he would also be an Array Master. He’s very good at it, too. Perhaps even better than you, Xiao Li. He must have trained very hard for many years to achieve this result.”

Huang Xiao Li frowned and said, “He only learned about arrays two days ago.”

“He didn’t even know about arrays until two days ago. That was also when I taught him the basics of arrays. And in that short amount of time, he’s managed to surpass me when it comes to low-level arrays.” She recalled.

“T-That’s absurd! How can someone become an Array Master from a complete beginner in just two short days? I don’t believe it!” Huang Chen exclaimed.

Huang Xiao Li shrugged and said, “You also wouldn’t believe what I witnessed in the room before we came here. Yuan... He’s a cultivation genius— monster...”

“That’s why I cannot bear to see him die. It would be a major loss to the cultivation world,” she sighed.

After a moment of silence, Huang Chen also sighed, “Even then, the young man has made a decision, and I will respect it.”

Meanwhile, a few hundred meters away from the ship, Yuan and about a hundred other cultivators anxiously waited for the Flying Leviathan to show up.

After waiting for a few minutes, they could finally see a figure in the distance that was quickly approaching them.

This figure started out as a small dot, but it grew very quickly until the cultivators could see very clearly what they were up against.

The Flying Leviathan's massive body was around 50 meters in diameter and hundreds of meters in length. Its long body was covered in blue scales that looked slightly green when shone by the sunlight.

However, its most distinctive feature was the massive wings on its back that created powerful waves with every flap.

The cultivators could feel themselves getting pushed back by the wind created by the Flying Leviathan despite being miles away.

ROOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOAR

The Flying Leviathan released a deafening roar filled with excitement when it saw the cultivators, sending shivers down their backs.

"Fuck! We're going to fight that monster?! There's no way we can defeat that!"

"Stay focused! We won't defeat it if you give up before the fight even starts!"

"If you give up without a fight, you'll definitely die! If you fight, there's still a chance that you'll survive!"

Many of the cultivators there have already lost their will to fight just by looking at the Flying Leviathan and feeling its immense aura that only got stronger as it got closer.

Yuan withdrew the Empyrean Overlord and the Starry Abyss and tried his best to clear his mind, but it wasn't easy with all of the screaming and loud noises there.

Once the Flying Leviathan was close enough, Yuan created a few more arrays that he'd learned from the book Huang Xiao Li had given him and applied them to himself.

These arrays boosted his defense, strength, and all of his other senses.

With the help of these arrays, his actual prowess rose to another level if not a few levels.

“The Flying Leviathan is here!”

The cultivators there began rushing at the Flying Leviathan when it got close enough, and all of them began using all of their treasures to suppress it.

However, the Flying Leviathan’s scales were incredibly durable, allowing it to defend and even deflect most of the cultivators’ attack.

As for Yuan’s attacks...

ROOOOOOOOOOOOAR

The Flying Leviathan suddenly released a painful cry when it felt something sharp pierce the scales it was very proud and confident in.

It immediately began looking for the cause of such pain, and it quickly spotted Yuan, who was near the end of its tail and swinging his large sword that was penetrating all of its defenses as though they didn’t exist.

Enraged, the Flying Leviathan ignored the other cultivators and began focusing on Yuan.

It suddenly opened its large mouth and spat out a jet stream of water that flew at Yuan like a bullet— a very large bullet that could easily collapse an entire skyscraper.

“Watch out!”

The cultivators there called out to Yuan, who immediately placed his sword in front of him to block it, as the ball of water was too large for him to dodge properly.

Chapter 684: Fighting the Flying Leviathan

Bang!

Yuan was sent flying after he tried to block the Flying Leviathan's attack.

"Fuck! He's a goner!" The cultivators there immediately thought Yuan had died from that attack and returned to fighting the Flying Leviathan without checking his condition.

After all, there was no way that a low-level Spirit Lord like him could survive a low-level Spirit Emperor's attack head-on and survive.

After flying for almost three miles from the impact, Yuan finally managed to stop himself.

"Whoa..." He released a sigh of relief when he realized that he was still alive.

In fact, besides feeling a little numb in his arms, he didn't really feel any pain from the attack just now.

"With the Invisible Dragon Cloak that doubles my defenses alongside my defensive arrays, I can survive even a Spirit Emperor's attack as long as I don't tank it with my bare body... Furthermore, I can injure the Flying Leviathan with my Sword Aura... I can do it! I can defeat this Flying Leviathan!"

A bright smile appeared on Yuan's face when he realized that he could win this fight, and he immediately began flying back to the battlefield.

However, he stopped moving when he suddenly thought of something.

‘Wait a moment... The Flying Leviathan should be occupied and distracted by the other cultivators right now. I can probably use this chance to deal some serious damage to the Flying Leviathan...’

Unfortunately, he was distracted by a powerful pressure before he could come up with a plan.

“What the?!”

A massive fish suddenly leaped out of the water and at Yuan with its mouth wide open.

He quickly reacted by controlling the Starry Abyss, boring a hole in the fish before it could reach him.

‘I was so distracted by the Flying Leviathan that I forgot other Sea Demons exist in this water...’ He sighed.

However, shortly after Yuan killed the Sea Demon, another random Sea Demon leaped out of the water to attack him.

“Just how many Sea Demons are there?!”

He decided to use his divine sense to look under the water, but he immediately regretted that action.

What he saw inside the water was true horror, where hundreds of powerful Sea Demons were swimming around, and he was only able to see about 50 meters deep due to some mysterious force that prevented him from looking any deeper than that.

After shivering away his fear, Yuan quickly flew higher towards the sky.

However, no matter how high he flew, the Sea Demons were somehow able to barely reach him just by leaping out of the water.

Yuan eventually gave up trying to linger around and continued flying back to the Flying Leviathan.

Once he could see the Flying Leviathan again, Yuan began gathering spiritual energy inside the Empyrean Overlord.

The Flying Leviathan that had been fighting the other cultivators suddenly stopped moving when it noticed the reappearance of Yuan's aura when he was about half a mile away from it, and it immediately began flying towards him again.

Seeing that the Flying Leviathan had noticed him, Yuan gathered as much spiritual energy as he could before releasing the Heaven Splitting Sword Strike at it.

The Flying Leviathan opened its mouth and shot out another water bullet at Yuan.

Bang!

The Heaven Splitting Sword Strike and the water bullet collided, creating a powerful blast that swept the place with spiritual energy, creating a massive wave that nearly consumed the cultivators there.

“Holy sh*t, he's still alive!”

“And he nearly killed us just now!”

“Hey! It appears that the young man can fight the Flying Leviathan by himself! If that's the case, there's no point for us to stay here! We'll only get caught up in their fight like we almost did just now!”

The cultivators there began flying back to the ship when they realized that Yuan was powerful enough to fight the Flying Leviathan by himself.

Of course, their decision was influenced by the Stairway to Heaven, as they weren't truly meant to fight the Flying Leviathan.

After all, this was Yuan's trial. The others are only there to set the atmosphere for him.

“What the?! They're leaving me alone to fight the Flying Leviathan by myself?!”

However, Yuan was left dumbfounded when he saw the cultivators returning to the ship, leaving him out here alone with a low-level Spirit Emperor Sea Demon.

Even though he knew he shouldn't blame them, it was still a bitter feeling to see them abandon him.

“Whatever! This is my trial! I shouldn't have expected any help in the first place!”

Yuan quickly cleared his mind and focused on the Flying Leviathan again.

“Come at me, you stupid flying snake! Let's get this over with so that I can move onto my next trial!” Yuan tightened his grip on the Emyrean Overlord before flying at the monster.

“Heavenly Domain!”

Yuan tried to use the Heavenly Domain on the Flying Leviathan, but its body was too big for it to be effective, so he quickly gave up on that and decided to just attack it until he defeated it.

Despite its large frame and threatening presence, the Flying Leviathan didn't have any crazy attacks that could threaten Yuan's life, and Yuan realized this after flying around for a few minutes to see if it had any special attacks that he hasn't seen yet.

Furthermore, because of its massive size, it was not very agile when attacking, allowing Yuan to easily dodge most of its attacks as long as he paid attention.

The only thing he really had to worry about was the water bullet, but even that attack is easily recognizable.

And for the next few minutes, Yuan would fly around the Flying Leviathan in a way that made it hard for the Flying Leviathan to attack him while sending his own attacks at it whenever he could.

In just a couple of minutes, the Flying Leviathan's body was covered in small and large wounds created by Yuan's sword and dagger.

The larger and deeper wounds were done by his sword that was strengthened by Sword Aura while the shallower wounds were created by the Starry Abyss.

Although his dagger didn't cause the Flying Leviathan as much pain as his sword, it actually created more wounds on its body due to its invisibility and the fact that it could be controlled by just Yuan's thoughts.

Eventually, the Flying Leviathan began slowing down due to losing too much blood.

Yuan took advantage of this by becoming more aggressive towards it.

Half an hour later, the Flying Leviathan's movements had slowed down by so much that Yuan could no longer feel any threat from it.

However, he didn't let his guard down and continued to wear down the Flying Leviathan until it was on the verge of death.

The Flying Leviathan eventually realized the fact that it was slowly being defeated by a human cultivator that was two realms below it, and it released its loudest roar yet.

Yuan prepared himself for the unknown, but to his surprise, the Flying Leviathan began moving towards the water.

"It wants to escape?!"

He immediately began chasing after it.

He didn't want the Flying Leviathan to return for revenge after it recovered its strength, so he has to defeat it now.

Yuan's body suddenly erupted with a domineering aura that was so sharp that it split the water around him.

“Vanishing Ghost's Soundless Blade!”

A powerful sword light flew towards the escaping Flying Leviathan without making even the slightest noise until it reached the Flying Leviathan, slicing its steel-like scales as though it was butter before cutting into its skin and meat.

Sha!

The Flying Leviathan was cut in half, but the sword strike didn't stop and continued until it reached the water, also splitting the sea in half.

The people watching from the ship were shocked speechless after witnessing the whole act.

They have never seen someone single-handedly defeat a Flying Leviathan before, much less force it to run for its life.

From the beginning to end, Yuan was pretty much bullying the Flying Leviathan to its slow but inevitable death.

Yuan did not immediately celebrate his victory and silently watched the Flying Leviathan's body sink deeper and deeper into the sea until he could no longer see it with his divine sense.

There was also a large area of the sea that had turned red due to the Flying Leviathan's blood.

Once he was certain that the Flying Leviathan would not return, Yuan closed his eyes and released a sigh of relief before making his way back to the ship.

Chapter 685: Stairway to Heaven's Third Trial

After killing the Flying Leviathan, Yuan returned to the ship, but it was completely silent upon his arrival.

There was no celebration, and everybody there merely stared at him with dazed looks. Some of them even had a hint of fear within their gaze.

In their eyes, someone who could defeat the Flying Leviathan that they find terrifying is obviously even more terrifying, and their minds could not help but transfer their fear for the Flying Leviathan to Yuan.

“Thank you for letting me protect you all.” Yuan removed the array that confined the Huang Family and the bodyguards.

He knew very well that Huang Chen could've broken the array very easily, but Huang Chen didn't do that and instead allowed him to protect them.

Huang Chen casually snorted, “You're not done protecting us just yet. We still have to arrive at the Giant's Continent.”

Huang Xiao Li suddenly stepped forward and swung her arm, giving Yuan a loud and crisp slap on the face.

However, before Yuan could even react, she opened her arms and gave him a tight embrace.

“I'm a little tired so I will return to the room now.” She then said.

Yuan nodded, “I will protect you while you rest.”

Everyone there eventually returned to their rooms with nobody really leaving their rooms afterward.

Sea Demons still attacked the ship, but that wasn’t a problem for the ship since most of the guards had survived the Flying Leviathan’s attack, allowing them to continue protecting the ship.

The Raging Serpent encountered three more large-size Sea Demons before they arrived at the Giant’s Continent two days later, but compared to the Flying Leviathan, they were easily taken care of.

“We have arrived at the Giant’s Continent! The Raging Serpent will remain docked here for 14 days before we must return home. Please finish your business and return here by then, or you will have to wait for the next ship.”

As the ship approached the land of Giant’s Continent, Yuan received a notification.

[You have successfully escorted the Huang Family to the Giant’s Continent without any casualties]

After the notification disappeared, the door behind Yuan opened, and the Huang Family came out of their room.

“Yuan, here is your reward for your contributions— for protecting my family.” Huang Xiao Li extended her hands that were holding an opened box to him.

Sitting inside this box was a glowing orb of light that gave Yuan a nostalgic feeling.

‘It’s my memories...’ He thought to himself.

And without needing him to move a muscle, the glowing orb of light flew out of the box and into Yuan’s forehead.

Memories immediately began flowing inside his head, but he didn't have the time to see them.

"Thank you." He said to them afterward.

The Huang Family didn't say anything and merely smiled at him.

When Yuan blinked his eyes a second later, the Huang Family and the ship had disappeared.

He looked around, and sure enough, he had returned to the Stairway to Heaven.

"That's the end of the second trial? Why does it feel incomplete? I wanted to see some giants, too." Yuan said out loud.

He was expecting to escort the Huang Family until they traded their treasures with the giants before completing the second trial, but that didn't seem to be the case.

Tian'er's voice then resounded, "I have no control over your trial. That is for the Stairway to Heaven to decide."

Yuan sighed at her words.

"Alright. Take me to the next trial."

"You have one hour to rest. Do you wish to continue without resting?"

He nodded, "I had plenty of rest during the end of the trial."

Although he could still cultivate the spiritual energy in the Stairway to Heaven, it would no longer benefit his cultivation as much as before now that he's a Spirit Lord.

Therefore, he decided to just head on to the third trial.

Another set of stairs appeared at the end of the stage for him to climb.

After taking a deep breath, he began climbing the staircase.

“What do you think his next trial will be?” Min Li asked the others in the spectators’ room.

“Well, the Stairway to Heaven isn’t all about fighting, and he’s already had to fight two incredibly powerful opponents. His third trial might be entirely different.” Feng Yuxiang said.

Many minutes later, Yuan arrived at the third floor.

“For your third trial, you must prevent the mortals from being squashed into meat paste.” Tian’er’s voice resounded.

“Huh?” Yuan raised his eyebrows, as he was unable to comprehend the trial at first.

The scenery began to change, and Yuan found himself standing on an invisible platform about 100 meters off the ground.

It looked like he was in the middle of an ordinary village, but when he looked down, he could see a bunch of people kneeling on the ground and cowering in fear.

Amongst this group were the elderly, young men and women, and even children. In fact, half of these people were children. However, they were all kneeling on the ground with their hands covering their head, almost like they were afraid of something falling on their heads.

“What kind of trial is this?” Yuan couldn’t help but mumble to himself

Suddenly, a notification appeared.

[You have started your third trial in the Stairway to Heaven!]

[You must protect the mortals from being squashed for 12 hours!]

[Protect them for 24 hours to receive a reward!]

Right as the notification disappeared, a large shadow suddenly enveloped Yuan and the mortals below, causing him to look up, and to his absolute shock, there appeared to be a massive temple that was made out of pure gold falling from the sky.

Yuan's immediate response was to dodge this falling temple, but then he recalled the people below him and the trial.

It was at this moment that he realized the true nature of this trial.

'If I dodge this falling temple, the people below me will die, and I will fail the trial!' He cried inwardly.

Chapter 686: Golden Temple

After realizing what he has to do, Yuan quickly retrieves the Empyrean Overlord before releasing the Heaven Splitting Sword Strike at the falling temple.

The Heaven Splitting Sword Strike collided with the base of the golden temple in the air, but the temple completely shrugged off the attack as though it was nothing.

Yuan's eyes widened with shock when there wasn't even a single scratch on the temple despite being struck by his most powerful attack.

However, he didn't give up and tried it again, resulting in the same conclusion.

"The temple is indestructible, Master." Tian'er's voice suddenly resounded.

"How am I supposed to protect those people at the bottom if I cannot destroy that temple?!" He cried out loud.

"You must use— sacrifice your body to protect the mortals."

"U-Use my body...?" Yuan swallowed nervously when he realized what Tian'er wanted him to do.

"Why is he just standing there?! He'll get squashed by the temple if he doesn't do anything!" Min Li exclaimed in a worried voice.

"Maybe it's because that is his trial." Feng Yuxiang said.

"A common trial in the Stairway to Heaven is endurance, which normally requires the challenger to endure a powerful pressure for a certain amount of time. In the Young Master's case, that golden temple is the 'pressure'," she explained.

"That golden temple looks really heavy, though... Is it even possible to endure that?" Chu Liuxiang asked.

"The Young Master has no choice but to endure it, or he will fail the trial..."

Once the golden temple arrived on top of Yuan, he decided to use his body to catch it.

Dong!

Yuan could feel his entire body being pressed towards the ground, and every bone in his muscle was screaming in pain, especially his legs, which were shaking as though there was an earthquake.

"Aaaaah!"

Yuan released a painful scream after catching the golden temple that weighed tens of thousands of tons.

And in just a few moments, Yuan was forced to kneel on the invisible platform.

"Master..."

Tian'er was surprised when she saw Yuan catching the golden temple with nothing but his raw body.

This trial was designed to limit test a cultivator's spiritual energy. In other words, Yuan was supposed to cover his body in spiritual energy before catching the temple.

However, Yuan had caught the temple without using his spiritual energy, meaning that he'd caught it with his raw strength, which was an amazing feat considering that the temple could easily crush even a peak Spirit King with ease if they didn't use spiritual energy.

“Master, use your spiritual energy. You will never survive this trial like that.” Tian’er decided to point him in the right direction even though she wasn’t really supposed to do that.

After hearing her words, Yuan promptly activated the spiritual energy in his Dantian.

Spiritual energy quickly began flowing through every vein in Yuan’s body, boosting his strength immensely.

Once his entire body was covered in spiritual energy, Yuan immediately felt the weight on his body lessen by a large amount, allowing him to breathe properly.

After catching his breath and getting comfortable with having a huge temple on his back, Yuan stood back up and proceeded to focus on his spiritual energy.

If he doesn’t circulate his spiritual energy wisely, he will run out of spiritual energy before the trial ends, which would be disastrous for him.

Therefore, he must use just enough spiritual energy to make carrying the temple barely endurable for him.

‘I will have to stay like this for 24 hours? I should have taken that one hour break when I had the chance!’ Yuan sighed inwardly, regretting his decision to give up his one hour of peace.

If he knew what he was walking into, he would’ve definitely taken that break to prepare himself.

Not only is the third trial the most tedious trial thus far, it was also the most boring. After all, he could only stand still and do nothing but carry this immensely heavy temple.

About two hours later, Yuan adapted to his situation and could control the flow of his spiritual energy as easily as breathing, allowing him to focus less on himself and more on other things, such as his memories.

He looked at the time.

[Time: 2:10:12]

[Time: 2:10:13]

[Time: 2:10:14]

“It’s only been two hours? I swear it feels much longer than that...” He sighed.

He closed his eyes a moment later and began delving into his memories.

Meanwhile, in the spectators’ room.

“Meixiu, do you have any knowledge on Greek mythology?” Chu Liuxiang suddenly asked her.

“Not really,” she said.

“Well, Yuan’s situation reminds me of a very famous mythology about a titan that was condemned to hold up the heavens for eternity.”

“Holding the heavens... You mean Atlas?” Meixiu remembered hearing about it in school before.

“So you do have some knowledge. That’s right. However, he wasn’t doing it for righteousness or anything like that. He was doing it as a punishment.”

“And seeing Yuan like that... It makes me wonder if he’s being punished.”

Meixiu lifted her brows in a questioning manner, “Why would he be punished? This is just a trial.”

“I know, but I cannot help but have the feeling that the Stairway to Heaven is punishing him. This might even be the hardest trial yet.” Chu Liuxiang sighed.

“How long does he have to carry that golden temple? He’s already been at it for 2 hours.” Min Li suddenly asked.

“It varies from person to person.” Feng Yuxiang said.

Meanwhile, Yuan recalled his memories as an outer court disciple at Immortal’s Monastery.

For every hour he spends in real-time, he has experienced many months, even years in his memories.

And after watching his memories for some time, Yuan eventually came to the conclusion that his previous life as Tian Yang had an ordinary if not less-than-ordinary life as a cultivator.

He was neither talented nor hopeless. He was just an ordinary cultivator that one could find anywhere in the cultivation world.

However, this only made Yuan more puzzled, as the Tian Yang inside his dreams was incredibly powerful.

How did someone who started out so ordinary become so extraordinary? Yuan’s anticipation grew the more he recalled his memories.

Chapter 687: Hunting Grounds

“I have been an outer court disciple for an entire year now, yet I am still a fourth level Spirit Apprentice. At this rate, it will take another 3 years before I reach Spirit Warrior...” Tian Yang sighed as he sat inside his living quarters within the outer court of the Immortal Monastery.

“I thought that by becoming an official disciple, I would receive the sect’s support by receiving plentiful resources to help my cultivation, but alas, how naive was I back then to believe such a thing...”

“As an outer court disciple, I am given a single spirit stone every three months to assist with my cultivation, but that spirit stone will only last us about a week if we cultivate sparingly. In order to acquire more resources, we must go into the hunting grounds or become an inner court disciple.”

“However, I must enter the Spirit Master realm in order to apply for the inner court examination, and who knows how many years that will take me...”

“If I want to grow stronger, I must enter the hunting grounds and find my own resources.”

With that in mind, Tian Yang decided to enter the hunting grounds for the first time since he became an outer court disciple.

The hunting grounds is a special area within the sect’s territory where disciples go to hunt magical beasts and acquire treasures.

Of course, all of this is within the sect’s control, meaning that every magical beast and treasure found inside the hunting ground was put there by the sect to help their disciples.

However, while the territory is under the sect's control, that didn't mean it wasn't a dangerous place.

In fact, disciples can still lose their lives there, and it happens quite often.

And with a single sword in hand, Tian Yang left his living quarters to enter the hunting grounds.

"I would like to enter the hunting grounds." Tian Yang said to the sect elder sitting outside the entrance.

The sect elder glanced at him before scoffing, "You're only a fourth level Spirit Apprentice. Even the weakest magical beasts inside are at the fifth level. Although there are sect elders inside to keep the casualties as low as possible, there is still a good chance that you could die. Do you still want to enter?"

"I still want to enter." Tian Yang nodded with a serious face.

"Show me your disciple identification badge."

After handing the sect elder his badge, the sect elder recorded his name, badge number, and the day he entered the hunting grounds into the log book. This way, they will know that he died inside the hunting grounds if he doesn't return.

"You may enter the hunting grounds. If you don't return within three days, the sect will consider you dead." The sect elder said to him.

"Thank you, sect elder."

Tian Yang didn't say anything else and entered the hunting grounds with an ordinary sword already in his grasp.

Once he was inside the hunting grounds, Tian Yang moved with caution, and his eyes would continuously look around with wariness.

Although he has hunted animals before, he has never encountered a magical beast, so he was very nervous.

After walking around for about half an hour, Tian Yang encountered his first magical beast.

It had the appearance of a wolf, and it was emitting a powerful aura at the fifth level Spirit Apprentice.

Tian Yang swallowed his nervousness and slowly approached the magical beast.

The magical beast noticed the killing intent in Tian Yang's eyes, so it pounced at him in retaliation.

“Ha!”

Tian Yang subconsciously swung his sword at the magical beast, and the magical beast swung its powerful paws in return.

Clang!

The sword flew right out of Tian Yang's grasp and landed many meters away when he underestimated the magical beast's strength.

“Oh, fuck...”

Tian Yang realized that without his sword, he was pretty much defenseless in front of the magical beast.

He could turn around and run away, but something inside his heart told him to stay and fight the magical beast, and that's exactly what he did.

However, because of his reckless decision, Tian Yang ended up lying on the floor with blood all over his clothes, and they were his own blood.

“Why didn't you run away when you lost your sword?” A calm voice resounded beside him.

Tian Yang turned his head to look at the beautiful woman standing beside him.

She was wearing the sect elder's uniform, and she was also the one who saved his life when he was about to be killed by the magical beast.

"I... don't know..." He responded in a low voice while staring at the sect elder's confused face.

"What you did today was very reckless. Don't do it again if you value your life." The sect elder said to him before taking out a medicine pill and stuffing it inside his mouth.

"Go home. You're not ready for this place yet." She said to him.

Tian Yang silently nodded his head and returned home when he could walk again.

However, three days later, after recovering from his injuries, Tian Yang returned to the hunting grounds.

And once again, he was nearly killed by a magical beast before being saved by a sect elder.

"Thank you for saving me again, elder."

The sect elder's eyes widened with surprise after recognizing him.

"You... Why are you here again? I thought I told you that you aren't ready for the hunting grounds," said the sect elder who happened to be the same person who saved him three days ago.

"That's why I returned, and I will continue coming here until I am ready or I am dead," he said in a calm voice.

"You're not afraid of dying?"

"No, I don't fear death. I only fear being powerless in a world where the strong rule the weak."

The sect elder became speechless after hearing his words.

“You’re reckless... and crazy.” She left him alone after saying those words, but for some reason, she continued to watch over him from a distance.

Chapter 688: Hunting Grounds(2)

Another year has passed since Yuan— Tian Yang became an outer court disciple in the Immortal Monastery, and he has been going to the hunting grounds almost every single day without fail.

Only during the days that he's too injured to move and the days that he has to cultivate that he doesn't enter the hunting grounds.

However, despite his recklessness, he has managed to survive up to this point, and his cultivation saw a significant boost, reaching the ninth level Spirit Apprentice only a year later.

“Good morning, Elder Lee.” Tian Yang greeted the sect elder sitting outside the hunting grounds.

“Try not to die again today.” Elder Lee said to him, not even bothering to write his name down in the log book.

Even if Tian Yang dies inside the hunting grounds, Elder Lee has already memorized Tian Yang's face and voice after seeing him so often, so he could tell if something had happened to Tian Yang if he doesn't show up after a few days.

After entering the hunting grounds, Tian Yang went deeper into the place without hesitation, and if he encountered a magical beast, he would always fight it, regardless of its cultivation.

“Nice. First kill of the day and I already have a monster core.” Tian Yang picked up the crystal after killing the magical beast with a single strike.

“Aaaaah! Somebody, help!”

Tian Yang suddenly heard screaming, and the sound didn't seem very far away.

Without thinking, he immediately began running towards the screaming.

A minute later, he arrived before two disciples, one male and one female, and a magical beast.

However, one of these disciplines—the male disciple was lying on the ground with a puddle of blood beneath him.

As for the female disciple, she was standing a couple of meters away, trying her best to defend against the magical beast.

Tian Yang didn't hesitate to jump into the battle after seeing the situation.

A few minutes later, Tian Yang gasped for air as he stared at the dead magical beast before him.

“Are you okay...?” He turned to ask the female disciple, who was shaking in fear not far away from him.

She nodded in a dazed manner, “I-I am fine... B-But what about him? Is he dead?”

Tian Yang approached the disciple and checked for his pulses, but there was nothing.

He shook his head, “He's dead.”

The female disciple immediately began crying.

“Go home, and tell the elder outside about what happened. I will escort you outside.” Tian Yang said to the disciple a moment later.

The female disciple nodded, and Tian Yang made sure that she left the hunting grounds safely before returning back to the depths of the hunting grounds, where magical beasts around his level roamed.

After spending an entire day at the hunting grounds, Tian Yang went to a specific area there and shouted, “Elder Sun! Are you there?!”

A figure answered his call and appeared before him a few moments later.

“What do you want? Did you miss me since we haven’t seen each other for two months now?”

Elder Sun was the sect elder who had saved his life on his first day in the hunting ground— as well as many more times in the future.

She had gotten so used to saving his life that it almost became her job to watch Tian Yang while he’s inside the hunting grounds, almost like an exclusive guard for Tian Yang.

However, it was not as though she was obligated to protect him. She just couldn’t help but watch over him like a guardian of sorts.

Elder Sun had gotten so used to seeing his face that she could see him very clearly even with her eyes closed, almost as though Tian Yang’s appearance was imprinted in her mind.

“I won’t lie, I do miss you a little, especially since I am no longer training in your area, where I don’t have to worry about losing my life. However, that’s not why I called you here today.”

“This may seem very random and out of the blue, but I was hoping if you could find a disciple for me. Her name is Meng Lili, and we joined the sect together, but I haven’t seen her for two years, nor have I been able to find her, and I have asked many people.”

Elder Sun frowned upon hearing his request, and she spoke, “You called me here... in the middle of the night... just to ask about another woman? I feel sorry for your future dao companion.”

“Or is this Meng Lili your girlfriend?”

“No, we’re nothing of that sort. She’s just a friend that came from the same background.”

“Then why do you care about her?”

“I want to see how she’s doing in the sect. It’s just pure curiosity,” he replied with a calm face.

Elder Sun narrowed her eyes at him.

After a moment of silence, she spoke, “What do I get out of this? I may have saved your life multiple times in the past, but that is my job. Looking for your girlfriend isn’t my job.”

“Like I’d already said, she’s not my girlfriend... And what do you want from me? If it’s money you want, I am afraid that is not possible since I am completely broke.”

“I don’t need your money,” she quickly said.

“Then what do you want? As long as it’s reasonable.”

She lifted her hand and pointed a finger at him.

Tian Yang raised his eyebrows, as he was unable to comprehend her actions.

“I want your body in exchange for this information,” she said, making things clear for him.

“M-My body?” Tian Yang took a step back from shock.

“B-But you’re a sect elder and I am a disciple... You’re no doubt a very beautiful woman that can have any men that you set your eyes on, but I don’t think we should... Actually, if we keep it a secret, perhaps we can...”

Pap!

Elder Sun suddenly slapped him in the back of the head and exclaimed with a flushed face, “Who said I want your body for that kind of stuff?! I want your body for labor! You’re going to help me with something! As if I’d have that kind of thoughts for an outer court disciple!”

Even though it was quite dark, Tian Yang could still see the redness on her face.

“Oh... but if you ever have such thoughts, I wouldn't mind...” Tian Yang said with a shameless smile on his face.

“Shut your mouth before I feed you a magical beast!” She slapped him again.

Chapter 689: Hunting Grounds(3)

“Fine, if you can help me, my body will be yours.” Tian Yang said to Elder Sun.

Elder Sun nodded, “It’s a promise. Come here at the same time a week from now.”

“Okay.”

Tian Yang left the hunting grounds and returned to his living quarters to spend the next week absorbing the monster cores that he’d acquired from the magical beasts within the hunting grounds.

Even though he killed at least a dozen magical beasts every week for the last year, he would only get a single monster core for every 10 magical beasts he killed, and that’s if he was lucky, so it was not as if he has a lot of monster cores to support his cultivation base.

Furthermore, cultivating with monster cores isn’t very healthy for cultivators due to how much impurities monster cores contain.

However, unlike Yuan, Tian Yang did not have the ability to swallow monster cores and instantly absorb all of its spiritual energies, so it would take him at least a week to finish absorbing a monster core.

A week later, Tian Yang left his living quarters and made his way towards the hunting grounds.

After arriving at the area that Elder Sun oversees, he waited for her to show up.

About ten minutes later, Tian Yang felt a presence suddenly appear behind him.

He turned around to see Elder Sun standing there, but she had a solemn expression on her face.

“It’s been a long time since I saw you with such a serious face.” Tian Yang said when he saw her face that was basked in moonlight, making her look more beautiful than usual, especially her eyes that glistened like a clear lake.

“I have asked around about your girlfriend, Meng Lili.” Elder Sun said.

“Oh? Let’s hear it. Has she become an inner court disciple by now? Maybe she was even accepted by a powerful master within the sect. Given her talents, I doubt she will be anything other than extraordinary—.”

Before Tian Yang could even finish his sentence, Elder Sun interrupted him, “She’s dead.”

“W-What?” Tian Yang’s eyes widened with shock.

“What did you just say? That she’s dead? How is that possible?”

Elder Sun sighed, “This Meng Lili was accepted as an outer court disciple about five years ago after spending 6 months in the Bamboo Garden, am I correct? Or did I investigate the wrong person?”

“No... It sounds about right...” Tian Yang recalled very clearly that Meng Lili had become the first person to leave the Bamboo Garden, becoming an outer court disciple in just half a year.

“B-But that doesn’t make sense... How can someone so talented die? How did she even die? When did she die?”

“She died shortly after becoming an outer court disciple. As for her cause of death... she was most likely murdered by someone according to the evidences. Another disciple had found her body in the outer court, and she was already deceased by then.”

“Shortly after she became an outer court disciple? Is that why nobody seemed to know her? I thought it was weird that someone talented like Meng Lili would be a nobody...”

“You have my condolences...” Elder Sun sighed.

“Does the sect know who killed her? Did they investigate her death?” Tian Yang asked after a moment of silence.

“No, the sect did not investigate the incident. She was only an outer court disciple, and it’s common for disciples to die in the sect due to our competitive nature.”

“Is that so...”

Tian Yang looked at the moon and stood there in silence for many moments.

He then looked at Elder Sun with a painful expression, “Thank you for everything, Elder Sun. As promised, you can do whatever you want with my body, but give me a few days to clear my head. I won’t be able to focus on whatever you task me with in my current state.”

Seeing Tian Yang’s expression, Elder Sun also felt a prickling sensation in her heart. She suddenly extended her arms and embraced him.

“Take all the time you need, Disciple Tian...”

Although she couldn’t hear any noises coming from Tian Yang, she could feel her shoulders getting wet, presumably from Tian Yang’s tears.

Tian Yang returned to his room shortly after, where he would spend the next couple of days contemplating Meng Lili’s mysterious death.

“When one dies, are they considered powerless because they cannot do anything, or are they invincible because they are no longer bound by the laws of this cruel world, nor do they have to worry about being weak?”

“It appears that my goal to surpass you has already been met without my awareness, and when one achieves their goal, they will find another one.

Therefore, my next goal will be to find the truth behind your death and deal with it accordingly.”

“...”

“Why is Brother Yuan suddenly crying?” Xiao Hua mumbled in a low voice when she noticed the tears on Yuan’s face.

“I would be crying too if I was in his shoes right now,” said Chu Liuxiang.

“How long has it been since the trial started?” Min Li asked.

“Do you think it’ll end soon?”

Feng Yuxiang shrugged.

Inside the trial, Yuan slowly opened his eyes after he finished looking through his memories, and the first thing he did was look at the timer.

[23:14:20]

[23:14:22]

He then looked up at the golden temple that he had been carrying this entire time.

‘If it were not for my breakthrough to Spirit Lord, I probably wouldn’t have survived 24 hours in this trial...’

This made Yuan wonder what would happen if he didn’t finish the bonus challenge and receive his reward. Would he lose the chance to regain a part of his memories forever? Or would it simply delay his process?

Whatever is supposed to happen, he doesn't intend on finding out.

Forty-five minutes later, Yuan has successfully endured 24 hours of this gruesome trial, putting an end to the third trial.

Chapter 690: Stairway to Heaven's Fourth Trial

Ding!

[You have successfully protected the mortals for 24 hours]

After receiving this notification, Yuan felt the weight on his body disappear, causing him to look up.

The golden temple that had suddenly disappeared, replaced by a glowing orb of light that slowly approached Yuan's forehead.

Yuan didn't reject the light and allowed it to enter him, and more memories began flowing inside his mind like a gush of water at a broken dam.

However, he didn't have the time to indulge in these memories, as the scenery had changed back to its original background.

"Congratulations on passing your third trial, Master. You have an hour to rest before we start the next trial. Do you wish to rest or continue?"
Tian'er's calm voice resounded after the trial ended.

"Yes, I want to rest. I will need all the time I can get after that trial..." Yuan immediately sat down and began cultivating with his body still soaked in sweat.

While he cultivated, a gentle breeze would blow around Yuan, magically cleaning his sweat from his body and his clothes.

An hour later, Yuan stood up and began making his way towards the next trial.

“Welcome to your fourth and final trial, Master.”

“Did I just hear ‘final’ trial?” Yuan asked for confirmation.

“That’s correct. If you pass this one, you will get to ascend to the next realm.” Tian’er responded.

“Then what are you waiting for? Let’s get this trial started!”

The scenery changed a moment later.

Yuan looked around after the scenery finished changing, and he appeared to be in some sort of empty field.

However, this empty field felt very familiar for some reason, almost as though he’d been there before.

“That place is...”

Inside the spectators’ room, both Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang covered their mouth in shock when they saw the scenery, especially when they saw the building standing right behind Yuan.

“What is my trial this time?” Yuan asked as he looked around.

It was at this moment he realized that there was a building behind him, but his face and body froze like a stone statue when he saw this building— this temple.

“This place is... impossible...”

He stared at the temple in a daze.

The temple he was staring at resembled the Six Spiritual Families’ Ancestor’ Tomb in the Jaded Garden. No, it was exactly the same.

“For the fourth trial, you will need to defeat ‘your’ demon, Master.”

Ding!

[You have started your fourth trial in the Stairway to Heaven!]

[You must defeat the demon within your body!]

[Pass the fourth trial to receive a reward!]

“I have to defeat a demon for this trial...?” Yuan frowned, feeling obnoxious about the situation.

“Aaaaaaah! Help! Yuan! Help me!”

A voice that Yuan immediately recognized suddenly resounded, and his body trembled when he heard it.

“Azure?!”

And without hesitation, he began running towards the voice.

He ran and ran... Just like when he was chasing after the demon at the Jaded Garden.

As he traveled, Yuan noticed the buildings and sceneries there resembled the Jaded Garden.

“No... This is the Jaded Garden! But how?! Did the Stairway to Heaven take this place out of my memories just for this trial?!”

After running for about half an hour, Yuan arrived at the Immortal Caves, feeling as though he was reenacting his past.

And sure enough, when he arrived at the scene, he could see a red-skinned human figure standing right in front of a beautiful young lady who had her eyes closed.

However, this beautiful young lady looked very pale, and there was a hole in her chest.

“Yuan... Are you there...? My body feels cold... Help me...”

The demon turned to look at Yuan and smiled, “Once again, you have failed to protect her.”

Hearing the demon’s mockery, Yuan immediately erupted with anger and killing intent.

“I did not have the power to personally deal with you before, but things are different now!” Yuan withdrew the Emyrean Overlord and rushed at the demon.

Whoosh!

Yuan quickly defeated the demon in a single strike— with the Demon Sealing Strike. It had ended so quickly that even Yuan was surprised by how easy it was to defeat the demon.

“Different? There’s nothing different about this. You managed to kill me, so what? Your little girlfriend is still dead. It’s the same as last time— exactly the same. Hahaha!” The demon laughed as its body disintegrated until nothing of it was left.

Yuan turned his focus onto Azure after killing the demon, but her body was nowhere to be seen.

“Azure?”

Yuan blinked his eyes in a dazed manner. However, when he reopened his eyes, his scenery had changed.

He was no longer in the Immortal Caves. Instead, he had returned to the empty field right outside the Ancestors’ Tomb.

“W-What happened? Why am I—”

“Aaaaah! Yuan! Please help me! There’s a demon here!”

Before he could collect his thoughts, Yuan heard Azure’s voice screaming for his help, and once again, he began running towards the voice, returning to the Immortal Caves half an hour later.

And sure enough, the demon was there, as well as Azure, who had a hole in her chest.

“Yuan... You broke your promise to me again for the third time...” Azure mumbled those words before collapsing onto the ground.

“Aaaaah!”

Yuan released his anger out on the demon, killing it a moment later.

However, after defeating the demon, Yuan found himself back at the Ancestors’ Tomb, almost as though he’d traveled back in time, repeating his most traumatic event over and over again.

And no matter how many times he was sent back to the Ancestors’ Tomb, Yuan would return to the Immortal Caves to witness the demon killing Azure.

Ten... twenty... fifty times...

Yuan had lost count of how many times he’d repeated this tragedy, but he did not stop, and he continued to return to the Immortal Caves, hoping that he’d be able to save her in time even once.

Unfortunately, the Stairway to Heaven did not grant him that wish, and it continued to torture Yuan’s soul in an never-ending cycle where he’s forced to watch Azure die by the demon’s hands while he was only a few moments away from being able to save her.

Chapter 691: Yuan's Heart Demon

“What kind of trial is this?” Meixiu mumbled in a dazed voice as she watched Yuan defeat the demon multiple times.

“By the looks of it, this trial appears to be some sort of heart demon trial.” Feng Yuxiang said.

“What is that?”

“Heart demons are very common, and they exist in almost everyone, including mortals, but they affect cultivators the most. Heart demons can be formed by any kind of stress if it's strong enough. Fearing that you'll never find love... Being insecure about your appearances... Worrying about not being able to return your debt... Even one's obsessions can also become one's heart demon.”

“As for the Young Master's trial... He will most likely have to defeat his heart demon in order to pass this trial.” Feng Yuxiang sighed.

“So... Basically anything emotional can become a heart demon? How does one even defeat their heart demon?” Chu Liuxiang asked.

“It depends on their heart demon. If someone is insecure about their appearances, they need to stop being insecure. If one fears they cannot find love, they must stop fearing. In the Young Master's case... He must stop blaming himself for the death of that young lady.”

“That... sounds easier said than done.” Chu Liuxiang shook her head.

“Of course. It’s not easy to defeat one’s heart demon, and even powerful Immortals that can change another’s fate can fall victim to their own heart demon. Furthermore, even if one manages to defeat their current heart demon, another one could show up in the future when they experience something emotional again. This is something all cultivators must confront at one point in their lives, and they either succumb to their heart demon or they defeat it.” Feng Yuxiang sighed.

Meanwhile, Yuan continued to repeat his nightmares.

“Damn it! Why hasn’t the trial ended already?! I have defeated the demon countless times by now!” Yuan cried out loud after being sent back to the Ancestors’ Tomb.

Clearly, he’s misunderstanding the true nature and purpose of the trial, thinking that his trial was to defeat the demon, unaware that it was actually mentioning another demon—the one dwelling inside his heart.

Thus, for the next few hours, he would repeat the same scenario over and over again, falling deeper into this rabbit hole that’s his demon heart until he could no longer move.

“Haaaa... haaa... haaaa...”

Yuan collapsed onto the ground after killing the demon and returning to the Ancestors’ Tomb countless times.

“Why...? What kind of trial is this...?”

He looked at the trial requirements again.

[You must defeat the demon within your body to pass the fourth trial!]

“The demon within my body... If it’s not talking about the demon that I have been slaying, what else is it talking about? Is there another demon in this place?”

“You’re still hung up on that woman’s death?”

A voice suddenly resounded inside Yuan’s head, but it was not Tian’er’s voice.

“You need to stop blaming yourself for what happened to Azure.” Tian Yang’s voice resounded.

“But it’s the truth. If I had defeated the demon before it escaped the Ancestors’ Tomb, Azure would have never died.”

“Yes... but that’s not what happened. You can speculate all you want, but what’s happened has happened. You cannot go back in time to fix your mistakes— only forward.”

“If it was a mistake, then it’s obviously my fault.” Yuan sighed.

“Or maybe it was her fate to die there. If that was the case, she would have died regardless of what you did...”

“That’s nonsense...”

“Is it really, though?” Tian Yang chuckled.

“Do you believe it’s a coincidence that you’re in your position? Perhaps fate brought you there.”

“If fate brought me here, I will deny it— I will alter my own fate.”

“Fate cannot be easily denied. It requires tremendous power— power that you do not possess right now.”

“Then help me achieve that power. We’re the same person, right?”

After a moment of silence, Tian Yang’s figure appeared before Yuan like a ghost.

He pointed at Yuan with a profound smile on his face.

“What did you think I have been doing for the past millenniums— past eons? I have been trying to acquire that power ever since the dawn of time — even before the first known era that you all call ‘Primordial Era’...”

“You... We already have that power— the power to deny our fate. You just need to awaken that power.”

“How... How do I do that?”

Tian Yang looked at the direction of the Immortal Caves and said, “You can start by passing this trial.”

After saying those words, Tian Yang’s figure disappeared.

“Is he talking to himself? Has he gone crazy from this trial?” Chu Liuxiang asked with a worried face after seeing Yuan speaking to the empty air there, as she was unable to see Tian Yang through the pond.

“Dealing with one’s heart demon can indeed make someone go crazy, but I don’t think that’s what happened to the Young Master.” Feng Yuxiang shook her head.

“Look! He’s moving again!” Min Li suddenly pointed at the pond.

Chu Liuxiang immediately turned to look, and sure enough, Yuan was running towards the Immortal Caves again, but there was something different about him this time.

“His face... It’s filled with resolve...” Meixiu mumbled to herself after seeing the expression on Yuan’s face.

Half an hour later, Yuan arrived at the Immortal Caves, right when the demon struck Azure in the chest with its sharp claws.

However, Yuan didn’t immediately rush at the demon to release his anger this time.

He merely stood there in silence, staring at Azure’s bloodied body with a profound gaze, his thoughts unknown to the spectators.

Chapter 692: Leaving the Lower Heavens

“Once again, you’re late to the party, killing her.” The demon looked at Yuan with a smirk on its face.

Yuan closed his eyes and took a deep breath before releasing it slowly.

“You’re right. I killed her by being too slow. She died because I was too weak.”

He opened his eyes, and the demon was no longer there. Instead, Yuan could see himself standing where the demon stood, almost as though the demon had transformed into his appearance.

“Finally, you’re accepting the fact that you’re responsible for her death.” The demon’s voice resounded while wearing his appearance.

“That’s not right. I have accepted the fact that I couldn’t protect her even before I left the Jaded Garden. I blamed myself for her death, and I still do.”

“I just didn’t want to deal with the guilt of killing her, and I even tried to forget about it. However, I now know that’s not possible. I understand now that I will have to live with this guilt for the rest of my life.”

“I need to stop dwelling on the past and start moving forward. Therefore...”

Yuan turned to look at Azure, who was no longer lying on the ground but standing a few meters away with a calm expression on her face.

“I’m sorry that I couldn’t save you in time, Azure. I’m sorry that I couldn’t defeat the demon fast enough. I broke my last promise to protect you, so let me make another promise to you. I promise that I will never forget you, regardless of how much pain I feel every time I think of you, and I promise you that I will never let something like this happen again.”

After taking a deep breath, Yuan turned around and began walking away from the Immortal Caves.

“Yuan... Please... Don’t leave me here... Didn’t you promise to protect me?” Azure’s voice resounded from behind him, but Yuan didn’t look back and continued walking away.

“Goodbye, Azure.”

Although he couldn’t see it with his back turned, the scenery behind him was slowly crumbling away into the darkness.

Eventually, Yuan returned to the Stairway to Heaven.

Ding!

[You have passed the fourth trial!]

[Congratulations, you have successfully passed all trials in the Stairway to Heaven!]

[You have gained access to the Second Heaven, Spirit Heaven!]

Tian’er appeared before him a moment later while holding a glowing orb of light with her small hands.

“Congratulations on passing all of the trials, Master. Here is your reward.”

The orb of light flew straight into Yuan’s forehead, and memories immediately began flowing into his head.

Tian’er then pointed at the staircase at the end and said, “Once you climb that staircase with your friends, you will all arrive at Spirit Heaven.”

“But before you go, there is something you must see.”

Tian'er suddenly waved her sleeves, creating a golden door in the middle of the room, which emitted an ancient aura.

“Please.”

Yuan nodded and began walking towards the door.

When he opened the door, Yuan could feel a powerful pressure coming from the other side, but he could not physically see the other side of the door due to the bright light gushing through the door.

After taking a deep breath, Yuan walked through the door and disappeared from the Stairway to Heaven.

Meanwhile, Tian'er teleported those in the spectators' room to her.

“Huh? Where are we?” Chu Liuxiang looked around with a surprised face after the sudden teleportation.

“You're still inside the Stairway to Heaven.” Tian'er said to them.

“Who are you?” Xiao Hua asked her with a slight frown.

“There's no need to be cautious. I am the will of the Stairway to Heaven.”

“Stairway to Heaven's will? I have never heard of such a thing.” Feng Yuxiang said.

“There's a lot that you don't know about the Stairway to Heaven, Vermillion Phoenix.”

“You...” Feng Yuxiang's eyes widened with surprise.

“Where is Brother Yuan?” Xiao Hua then asked.

Tian'er pointed to the golden door behind them, “He's currently in there. He should return shortly.”

“What is behind that door? Can we see?” Chu Liuxiang asked out of curiosity.

Tian’er shook her head and said, “Only he can go inside.”

And sure enough, the door opened a few minutes later with Yuan coming out of the door.

However, there was something strange about him, and he looked a little traumatized.

“Young Master, are you okay?” Feng Yuxiang asked him after seeing his shocked face.

Yuan didn’t respond, almost as though he couldn’t see or hear them.

“What... What was that? Why did you show me such a thing?” Yuan looked at Tian’er and asked after a moment of silence.

“I cannot answer that question. If you want the answers, you must continue climbing,” she calmly responded.

“...”

Yuan closed his eyes and took a moment to calm himself.

When he opened them again, he noticed Xiao Hua and the others.

“Oh? When did you guys appear?” He finally noticed their presence.

“We have been here for a while now... Are you okay, Young Master? What was on the other side of that door?” Feng Yuxiang asked him again.

“I... I really don’t know how to explain it since I also don’t know what I was looking at...” He sighed.

“Anyways, let’s leave this place. I really need some fresh air after what I saw...”

Feng Yuxiang and the others could only nod their heads.

Before they left, Yuan turned to look at Tian'er and asked her, "Will I see you again?"

She nodded, "We will definitely see each other again."

"Then until next time. Goodbye, Tian'er." Yuan smiled at her before walking towards the exit.

"See you later, Master..." Tian'er mumbled in a low voice as she disappeared like a ghost.

As Yuan climbed the final staircase with the others, he wondered out loud, "Once we leave this place, we will leave the Lower Heavens. Where will we appear once we leave this place?"

"There is a designated area for people who successfully climbed the Stairway to Heaven. However, this means that there will be people waiting for us there once we leave this place, and they will be trying to recruit us to their families and sects, so we should prepare ourselves." Feng Yuxiang said.

Chapter 693 - Spirit Heaven

After spending about ten minutes climbing, Yuan and the others finally reached the end of the staircase, where a single door stood.

"I guess we're here." Yuan said as he approached the door and opened it without hesitation.

"Are we ready?" He turned around and asked the ladies following right behind him.

Once they all nodded, Yuan walked through the door, disappearing from the Stairway to Heaven.

Ding!

<You have earned the title 'Carry' from assisting at least one person through the Stairway to Heaven!>

<You have earned the title 'Stairway to Heaven Novice Climber' from successfully climbing the Stairway to Heaven one time!>

Furthermore, an announcement was made for all Players within the Lower Heavens to witness.

<Congratulations! Player Yuan has become the first Player to ascend to 'Spirit Heaven' through the Stairway to Heaven!>

<Because of Player Yuan's efforts, the 'Lower Heavens' has re-established its connection with the 'Spirit Heaven', allowing access for all Players!>

<All Players may now enter the Stairway to Heaven and ascend to Spirit Heaven without any restrictions!>

This announcement shocked all Players currently inside Cultivation Online except for Yuan and his group, as they were no longer in the Lower Heavens, thus unable to see the announcement.

And unbeknownst to Yuan, countless Players began making their way towards the Stairway to Heaven to see for themselves if they could really ascend to the next realm for free.

<You have entered 'Spirit Heaven'>

After entering the door, Yuan found himself in the middle of a spacious square.

He looked around and noticed a few stalls set up not far from him with people idling behind them in a bored manner.

However, when these people noticed Yuan's presence and sudden appearance, their bored faces immediately lit up with excitement, and they all began approaching him like a bunch of hungry pigeons.

However, they stopped moving when they noticed more people appearing out of thin air.

Xiao Hua, Feng Yuxiang, Meixiu, Lan Yingying, Chu Liuxiang, and last but not least, Min Li— six more people appeared after Yuan, which shouldn't be possible.

"E-Excuse me... D-Did you just challenge the Stairway to Heaven?" One of the people there asked Yuan in a trembling voice.

Yuan shifted his head to look at the man before nodding his head, "That's right."

"W-What about the other six behind you...?" The man continued to ask him.

"Yes, they were with me in the Stairway to Heaven." Yuan confirmed.

"I-Impossible!"

"Does this mean he'd helped six other people ascend by carrying them through the Stairway to Heaven? I have never heard of anyone succeeding in such a feat in my life!"

"Heavens! If that's true, then we have an unrivaled genius here!"

Some of these people fell onto their buttocks from shock after hearing Yuan's words.

"Young Master, where should we go now?" Feng Yuxiang ignored the people around them and asked.

"Let's find a place to rest for now," he said.

"Okay."

"P-Please wait a moment, young man! Would you be interested in joining our Silver Blade Academy? We're one of seven Spirit Academies, a top sect in this world. If you join us, we can guarantee you prestige and power!" One of the people there suddenly shouted.

When the others heard this man's recruitment, they also started shouting their own recruitment, as they didn't want to miss this opportunity to recruit a monster like Yuan into their family or sect.

"Join the Wu Family! We're a top ten family within Spirit Heaven! We can promise you unlimited resources as long as we can afford them!"

"Our Chaotic Force Academy is also one of seven Spirit Academies! We can offer you benefits that others cannot!"

The usually calm and quiet area suddenly became chaotic with everyone trying to recruit Yuan.

"Everybody, please listen to me for a moment!" Yuan suddenly shouted, silencing the place.

"I have no interest in joining any family or sect as of this moment, so if you'll excuse me, I have other businesses to attend to!"

And when nobody there moved out of the way so that he could leave, Yuan released his Spirit Lord cultivation base, forcing everyone there to back up.

"He's also a Spirit Lord?! But he's so young!"

However, everybody there was more impressed than scared by Yuan's powerful aura.

Although they were reluctant, the people there made an open path for Yuan to walk.

Once Yuan walked far enough, the people there began following him while contacting their respective families and sects to let them know that an unrivaled genius had arrived in the Spirit Heaven.

As for Yuan and his group, they walked around aimlessly until they found a hotel.

"Min Li, what are you going to do now that we have arrived at Spirit Heaven?" Yuan asked her after they found a room.

"I... I don't really know. I haven't planned this far." She shook her head.

"Take your time. I am going to leave for a few days. You can stay here in the meantime."

"Thank you, Yuan. I will forever be indebted to you."

"Don't even mention it. I helped you because I wanted to, not because I needed something from you. Anyways, I will see you later." Yuan logged off the game shortly after.

Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang also logged off.

After removing the console from his head, Yuan got off the bed and immediately started stretching his body while taking deep breaths.

"It's only been a week, but it feels like I haven't seen this room for much longer." Chu Liuxiang stretched her body on the bed after logging off.

"Huh? You also haven't logged off this entire time?" Yuan was surprised to hear that.

"Nope. I made sure to watch your entire trial from beginning to end, and I must say, it was a fascinating experience. You're almost like a different person in Cultivation Online."

"Really?"

"I think so," she nodded.

"Mostly your demeanor, and I think it makes you cooler."

"Thank you, I guess..."

"Anyways, I am going to take a bath before going to bed since it's night time right now. You can join me if you want.." Chu Liuxiang said to him before entering the bathroom that was in the same room as their bedroom.

Chapter 694 - Opened To All Players

"Darling, you can use the bathroom now." Chu Liuxiang left the bathroom with nothing but her towel that was loosely wrapped around her slim body.

"I also changed the water in the bathtub for you."

"Thank you."

Yuan calmly entered the bathroom shortly after.

Inside the bathroom, Yuan tossed a handful of medicine leaves into the bathtub.

And while he waited for the water to soak the medicine, he went to take a quick shower.

Once the bathtub was ready, Yuan entered it and began absorbing the medicine, tempering his body for the next hour.

By the time he left the bathroom, Chu Liuxiang was already deep asleep while wearing her see-through pajamas.

Yuan focused on her sleeping face for a moment before going to sleep himself.

'I wonder if they managed to trade treasures with the giants safely...' He wondered about the Huang Family as he fell asleep.

Of course, he knew that it was only a trial, but everything felt so real that he couldn't help but think about it.

The following morning, right as the sun peeked over the horizon, Yuan was woken up by the sound of his door being knocked on.

Fortunately for Chu Liuxiang, she was a heavy sleeper, so it didn't wake her up.

"Did something happen, Jinxi?"

Yuan already knew who was knocking on the door before even opening the door because of his Divine Sense.

"Let's spar," she said to him with a calm face.

"You're really eager today..." A bittersweet smile appeared on Yuan's face.

"Sorry, but can you give me a few more days? I don't think I will have the energy to spar with you properly in my current state."

He would normally be willing to train with Li Jinxi and the others, but he was just too exhausted after what he experienced in the Stairway to Heaven.

Although she was reluctant, Li Jinxi nodded her head and said, "Fine, I will give you a few more days. I haven't had a good training session for the past week because you had holed up in your room."

"What about the others?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"They're too weak to satisfy me. Only you can satisfy me, Yuan."

"I see... Anyways, I will spar with you again in a few days after I rest up."

"Okay. See you later." Li Jinxi left without making any commotions shortly after.

Yuan immediately went back to his bed and fell asleep mere seconds later.

A few hours later, Yuan woke up to the smell of Meixiu's cooking even though the kitchen was very far from his room.

He nudged Chu Liuxiang awake and said to her once she was conscious, "Meixiu made breakfast."

"You can go ahead without me. I'm going to skip breakfast to sleep a little longer," she said in a tired voice.

"Okay." Yuan didn't say anything else and went downstairs after washing his face.

"Where's Chu Liuxiang?" Meixiu asked him.

"She's sleeping in."

"Oh! Yuan! You're back! Congratulations on defeating the Stairway to Heaven! It's all over the news and the forums." Wang Ming said as he sat down at the dining table.

The other members showed up around the same time and all sat around the table.

"How difficult were the trials?" Wang Ming asked a moment later.

"They were pretty difficult." Yuan said, and he began recalling his experience in the Stairway to Heaven to the people at the table.

"Wow... I don't think I would be able to do what you did if I were in your shoes. Those are some incredible feats." Shi Lang said.

"Anyways, because you defeated the Stairway to Heaven, we can ascend without needing to wait until we're all Spirit Grandmasters. Thank you for that, Yuan." Wang Ming said afterward.

"Wait... What did you just say?" Yuan raised his eyebrows after hearing Wang Ming's words.

"Hmm? Ever since your ascension, countless players have stormed the Stairway to Heaven so that they can also ascend." Wang Ming said.

"What? Why would they do such a thing? One should be at least a Spirit Grandmaster before they challenge the Stairway to Heaven. These people are only wasting their time." Yuan said, completely unaware of the situation.

"Huh? You didn't see the announcement?" Wang Ming looked at him with a questioning face.

"What announcement?"

"The one after you ascended. There were multiple announcements on that day, and one of them mentioned that the Lower Heavens and Spirit Heavens have established a connection because of your ascension, allowing all Players to ascend without restrictions."

"Wait a second... Without restrictions? Does this mean they can ascend the Stairway to Heaven without needing to do the trials?" Yuan asked with a dumbfounded look on his face.

"That's right. Thousands of Players have already arrived at Spirit Heaven through the Stairway to Heaven, and none of them needed to do any trials. However, the Players can only ascend. They cannot return to the Lower Heavens afterward, which is the only downside."

Yuan was speechless after learning this information.

Why did the Stairway to Heaven suddenly open its doors for everyone and allow all players to ascend for free after he's done all of the hard work? If he waited a little longer to challenge the Stairway to Heaven, would he have also been able to ascend without taking the trials? Could this be Tian'er's doing?

"Unbelievable... I had to endure so much bullshit to ascend, but everyone could suddenly ascend without such hassles immediately afterward? There's no way this could be a coincidence..." Yuan cursed in a low voice.

"Wow, I think this is the first time I've heard you curse, Yuan. Although I understand your feelings, I also believe this to be a good thing, as it allows the Players more chances to catch up. You're too far ahead, after all."

"Haaaa... Whatever..." Yuan sighed a moment later, "What's done is already done, and it's not like I have any control over it. Anyways, the food is getting cold. Let's continue after breakfast."

Thus, they stopped talking and began eating.

Chapter 695 - Hypothetically

After breakfast, Wang Ming asked Yuan, "What are you going to do now that you've ascended to the next world?"

"I'm not sure yet. There's so much that I could do that I don't know where to start." Yuan shook his head.

"Do you plan on ascending again?"

"Of course. I want to reach the highest realm there is in Cultivation Online."

"That will probably take a few years."

"Even then, I want to do it— I have to..."

Yuan then asked the others, "What about you guys? Are you still in the Lower Heavens? Do you plan on ascending?"

"I don't know about them, but I also intend on ascending soon." Wang Ming said, and he continued, "However, I need to prepare myself before I ascend. A lot of people ascended without any preparations, and many of these Players have died shortly after arriving because they were not prepared for that place. The monsters there are simply too powerful for them. The worst part is that they're now stuck there without any way of returning to the Lower Heavens."

"That makes sense, since the Spirit Heaven's overall difficulty is higher than the Lower Heavens." Yuan said.

"Despite that fact, there are still a lot of Players ascending." Shi Lang sighed.

"These Players are so greedy for resources that they are blinded by the reality that most of them won't even be able to leave the city without getting killed by monsters that are far above their level."

"Anyways, I will also ascend once I finish preparing myself. Ever since I joined the faction and started living here, I have been spending more time in Cultivation Online."

"I've also started playing more. After morning training and breakfast, I spend the rest of the day in Cultivation Online." Wang Bingbing nodded.

Everyone there shared the same sentiment.

Hearing their words, Yuan then said, "If any of you need cultivation techniques, I can help you out. There's this place called Myriad of Techniques, and because of my connection with them, I can acquire a number of free cultivation techniques every year. Just let me know whenever you arrive in Spirit Heaven. I don't think I will be ascending anytime soon."

"Really? That's great— No, that's amazing! If you can sell some of these techniques, you'll be rich in no time!" Wang Ming exclaimed.

"Sell them?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

He recalled the person working at the Myriad of Techniques telling him that he could sell the techniques if he wishes, and since he's low on money, this could easily become a great money maker.

Furthermore, he managed to rank up his faction recently after slaying the Blood Sect.

"I will give the Myriad of Techniques a visit later." Yuan decided a moment later.

Everyone went back to their own rooms shortly after.

"Meixiu, what are you going to do now?" Yuan asked her as they walked to their rooms, as their rooms are located right next to each other.

"I am very close to reaching the third level of Spirit Warrior, so I am going to try and breakthrough by this week," she said.

"I see... Good luck. If you need anything, let me know." Yuan nodded.

"I will see you later." He said to her once they arrived at their rooms.

"Wait a moment, Yuan." Meixiu suddenly stopped him.

"Umm... It's been a while since I... you know... 'relieved' you... How are you feeling?" She asked him with a slightly bashful face.

"Now that you mention it, we haven't had any chance to be alone since Lulu showed up." Yuan realized this just now.

"Well... She's still asleep, right? We have some time right now if you want to do it..."

After a moment of silence, Meixiu eventually realized how eager she was—even a little desperate to help relieve Yuan, so she took a step back and said, "A-Actually, forget it..."

She quickly opened the door to her room and tried to run away, but Yuan suddenly grabbed her hand and stopped her from escaping.

"Let's do it. I don't have anything else to do now, anyway," he said in a calm voice.

Yuan entered the room with Meixiu a moment later.

After locking the door, Meixiu said, "I will wash your back first."

"Okay." He nodded.

Sometime later, Yuan sat on a small chair in the bathroom while Meixiu rinsed his body with warm water.

Once she began washing his back, Meixiu spoke in a gentle voice, "Yuan, how do you feel about Lulu?"

"What do you mean?"

"She wants to start a family with you, you know?"

"Yes, I know. She seems very eager to do so."

"How do you feel about that? Will you start a family with her?"

Yuan smiled and said, "You know, even back at the orphanage, she loved to play 'pretend family' with me. She would be the mother, and I was the father. We mostly played alone, but there were times when other kids joined, and Lulu would always make them our children, regardless if they were younger or older than us."

"I never really thought about it back then since we were still too young, but I knew that she really wanted her own family in the future."

"Although we haven't seen each other for over a decade, she's still the same Lulu that I knew from the orphanage. If she really wants to start a family with me... I probably wouldn't mind it." Yuan said in a calm voice.

Meixiu subconsciously bit her lips, and she could feel a sharp pain in her heart after hearing his answer.

"I-I see..." She mumbled in a low voice and wouldn't say another word for the next minute.

After a long minute of awkward silence, Meixiu eventually opened her mouth again.

"Yuan... Hypothetically, if I also wanted to start a family with you, what would you do?"

Meixiu could feel her heart trying to burst out of her chest after muttering these words that required all of her courage.

"Eh...?"

Yuan was left speechless by her sudden question, and his mind immediately began scrambling for an answer.

Chapter 696 - Meixius Commitment

Chapter 696 - Meixiu's Commitment

After a long moment of silence, Yuan sighed with a bittersweet smile on his face, "Asking me to choose between you or Lulu isn't fair, Meixiu. You're both equally important to me, so I don't know what to say."

Yuan chose his words wisely so that he doesn't have to pick one and upset the other.

However, Meixiu wasn't satisfied with such an answer and continued to push him, "That doesn't answer my question. You can either pick one of us... or decide to not pick either of us..."

"..."

Yuan retreated into silence once again.

Seeing this, Meixiu mustered her courage again before speaking, "Yuan... After separating with you because of what was happening at the Jaded Garden, I realized how much I hated it— being separated from you, that is."

"I was also worried that I would lose you to the demon, and the thought of losing you forever nearly drove me crazy..."

She took a deep breath and continued, "I'm not asking you to abandon Lulu and choose only me, but I don't want you to leave me. You know, Lulu told me that she wouldn't mind sharing you with others as long as she could remain by your side."

"I didn't understand her feelings back then, and I even found it quite abnormal. However, I am starting to understand her feelings now. As long as I get to stay by your side, I don't care if you choose to start a family with Lulu or whoever."

"You want me to start a family with you and Lulu? Can I do something like that? How does it even work?" Yuan asked after hearing her words.

"It's definitely uncommon, but it's not impossible. I think the most important thing is that we all come to an agreement. As long as we are all okay with it, it should work out." Meixiu said.

And she continued in a low voice, "Lulu has already given her approval, and I am now giving you my approval, so it's all up to you now, Yuan."

Yuan began pondering Meixiu's words in silence.

Meanwhile, Meixiu started working on the front of his body.

However, since Yuan was busy pondering for an answer, there was no response between his legs.

After a moment of silence, Yuan spoke in a sincere voice, "If I can really start a family with you and Lulu and make the both of you happy at the same time, there's no way that I could refuse."

"Eh...?"

Meixiu stopped washing his body to stare at him with a dazed face.

"D-Does that mean..."

"Yes, I would love to start a family with you and Lulu," he gave her a clear answer with a smile on his face.

Meixiu's body trembled upon hearing his words, and an uncontrollable urge to embrace Yuan rushed into her head.

She then held onto Yuan's face with her soapy hands and gave him a sudden kiss on the lips.

"Meixiu...?" Yuan mumbled her name in a low and surprised tone.

"Yuan... Can you wait for me outside after I rinse your body?" She suddenly said in a bashful voice.

And before Yuan could even respond, she continued, "You don't have to put on your clothes."

Although Yuan was puzzled by her request, he didn't refuse and nodded his head.

Meixiu proceeded to rinse his body with warm water in complete silence before sending him outside.

Yuan began waiting outside with nothing but a towel around his body while Meixiu started washing her body in the bathroom, and she was incredibly thorough when cleaning, making sure that her body was sparkling clean.

'Am I really going to go through with this...?' Meixiu asked herself while she was still inside the bathroom.

'This uncontrollable urge that I am feeling now... Did I get it from my mother?'

'If I do this today, we can never go back...'

'Despite my seemingly rash and bold decision, my mind is clearer than it has ever been at this moment...'

'I... want to be with him. I want to stay by his side... forever.'

After spending a little over five minutes inside the bathroom, Meixiu walked out of the bathroom with nothing but a towel wrapped around her body just like Yuan.

"Sorry for the wait, Yuan," she said after coming out.

"Don't mind it, but what are we doing?"

"..."

After a moment of silence, Meixiu spoke, "I'm going to relieve you now, but it's going to be a little different than usual."

"Different? How?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"You said you'd start a family with me, right?"

"Yes." Yuan confirmed.

"Well... I am going to teach you how to start a family..." Meixiu said with a flushed face.

"Now?" Yuan asked.

"Y-You don't want to? W-We can do this another time if you want..."

Yuan could hear a hint of fear within Meixiu's trembling voice, almost as though she was afraid that he'd refuse.

"No, we can do it now," he suddenly said in a clear voice.

Although he wasn't sure what he was getting himself into, he knew very clearly that Meixiu was anxious about it and that he would hurt her if he refused.

"Are you sure...?"

Yuan nodded with a gentle smile on his face, "If you're sure, then I am also sure."

Thud.

A soft noise suddenly resounded.

Yuan immediately realized what caused that noise just now because he'd heard a similar sound when he was alone with Haung Xiao Li during the second trial.

And sure enough, when he used his divine sense to look at Meixiu, she was completely naked with her towel on the floor.

'Oh...'

It was at this moment Yuan finally realized what they were about to do—that they were going to make love to each other.

Even with his innocent mind, he knew what it meant to make love, especially after regaining some of his past memories.

However, oddly enough, he couldn't feel what he felt with Huang Xiao Li. He didn't reject the idea of making love with Meixiu.

In fact, his body immediately began reacting to the sight of Meixiu's naked body, and a bulge appeared in the middle of his towel.

"Yuan..."

Seeing his body's reaction, Meixiu released a sigh of relief inwardly, and she began approaching him.

She opened her arms and embraced him a moment later, and they both fell onto the bed.

"Yuan... This... This is my commitment to you... My love for you..." Meixiu whispered in a low voice before she kissed him on the bed.

Chapter 697 - Making Love (18+)

Reader's discretion is advised. Mature content ahead.

Meixiu's locked bedroom was dimly lit with the only light source being the sunlight that peeked through the closed curtains, and currently inside this room, Yuan was lying on the bed with Meixiu lying on his bare chest.

The two of them had been kissing each other for a while now, albeit amateurish, it was more than enough for them to express their feelings for each other.

"What should I do now?" Yuan asked in a low voice after they stopped kissing.

"You don't need to do anything, just lie down and let me do everything. This is also a lesson, after all," she responded in a similarly low voice.

However, Meixiu was no longer feeling nervous and bashful, and it was Yuan who was feeling such emotions, almost as though she'd transferred all of these feelings to Yuan through kissing.

Meixiu suddenly began to kiss his body, slowly moving down with every kiss. And while she was doing that, she was also recalling what her mother taught her.

Even though she had no experience in this sort of thing, Meifeng had made sure to drill enough information into her head through videos and books to make sure that she would satisfy Yuan properly when the time came, and that time is now.

Once Meixiu reached the lower parts of Yuan's body, she used her hand to slow stroke the throbbing rod between Yuan's legs, and it felt hotter than usual, most likely because it has been a while since he was last relieved.

Meanwhile, Yuan watched Meixiu's every movement through his divine sense while being absorbed in this tingling sensation that was making his body filled with excitement, and it was a type of excitement that was different from what he was used to.

And since he was using divine sense, he was able to see every inch of Meixiu's perfect body.

Suddenly, Meixiu changed her movements, and both of Yuan's eyebrows lifted with surprise when Meixiu unexpectedly opened her mouth and placed his rod inside.

This was a revelation for Yuan, who could've never expected that Meixiu would do such a thing.

However, he didn't utter a single word, as the sensation of Meixiu's mouth was heavenly, especially when she started moving her head in a graceful manner, leaving him speechless.

Yuan quickly reached his limit within minutes.

"M-Meixiu... I-I am about to..." He quickly warned her.

She stopped for a moment to speak, "It's okay, you can release it inside my mouth. It's not going to be easy cleaning it if it gets onto the bed sheets."

Yuan wanted to ask her if it was really okay, but he could no longer hold it anymore and climaxed inside her mouth the next moment.

Meixiu could feel a load of hot liquid gush inside her mouth, quickly filling it, but she managed to keep it from overflowing.

Once she was certain that Yuan had emptied himself, she removed her mouth from his rod and swallowed it like a champion.

"Y-You swallowed it?" Yuan asked her in a dazed voice.

Meixiu nodded with a slight blush, and she said, "It's a little sweet..."

Her response left Yuan speechless once again, and he wasn't sure if he really needed to learn such information about himself.

"Looks like you can still continue." Meixiu pointed at his rod that remained standing tall even after his climax.

"Let's move onto the main part of starting a family then, shall we."

Yuan silently nodded his head, and he could only imagine what would happen next.

Seeing his response, Meixiu climbed on Yuan's body and positioned herself directly on top of his rod.

"Are you ready? This is how people make babies and start a family," she said to him.

"Eh? Are we really going to make babies right now?" Yuan asked.

"I-I think it's still too early for us to actually start a family..." She said.

"Then do we really have to do this?"

"People do this not only to make babies, Yuan. There are many reasons why people do this, and making babies is merely one of them. Another reason people do this is to show their love for each other. I love you, Yuan, hence why I want to do this with you..."

"But if you don't want to do this, then—"

"No, let's do it." Yuan quickly responded.

Meixiu didn't say anything else and nodded her head.

She began lowering her body the next moment, slowly inserting Yuan's rod inside her body.

"Y-You're bleeding! Are you okay?!" Yuan exclaimed in a low voice when he noticed blood flowing from where Meixiu was inserting his rod, and she even had a painful expression on her face.

"Y-Yes, I am fine. This will happen when a woman does it for the first time, so this will only happen once in my life..."

Meixiu eventually accepted all of Yuan inside her body. Although it was incredibly painful for her, she couldn't be any happier at this moment, as she'd dreamed of this exact moment for many years.

"I am going to move now."

Once she was comfortable, Meixiu began moving her body slowly.

The moment Meixiu started moving her body, Yuan felt as though someone had dumped a bucket of cold water inside his head, making his mind go blank, and the only thing he could feel was the warmth of Meixiu's body rubbing against him.

Just moments ago, he believed that nothing could beat the sensation of Meixiu's mouth, but she'd proved him wrong.

If Meixiu's mouth felt heavenly, then her body could only be described as otherworldly. It was unlike anything Yuan had experienced before.

Eventually, Yuan could no longer just lie still on the bed, and he also began moving his body.

"That's right... Yuan... T-This is... what it... means to... make love..." Meixiu could barely speak properly, as she was trying her best to not make too much noises, fearing that they could be overheard by someone outside.

Thus, the two of them continued to make love to each other until Yuan had to climax again many minutes later.

"Meixiu, I am going to release it again!" Yuan said to her.

"W-Wait! Don't release it inside—"

However, Yuan had already begun his climax before Meixiu even uttered her first word.

"—me..." Meixiu finished her sentence in a dazed voice as Yuan's hot stuff gushed inside her body.

"Eh? I wasn't supposed to do that?" Yuan asked in an innocent voice after he released everything into her, leaving Meixiu speechless.

Chapter 698 - Convenience Store

"Yuan... For further references, if you do not plan on impregnating the person you're making love to, you shouldn't release your stuff inside them because that's how you actually make babies... And accidents like that can cause a lot of trouble for you and your partner..." Meixiu didn't know whether to laugh or cry at her predicament.

"D-Does that mean we're going to have a baby soon...? I'm sorry..." Yuan immediately felt bad about his actions, especially since Meixiu had specifically said that she didn't want a baby now.

"Well, it is also my fault for not explaining things to you before we did it. I guess I was also a little impatient..."

"You're not angry?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"No, I'm not." Meixiu shook her head.

And she continued, "Furthermore, it's not like I am guaranteed to have a baby just because you released it inside once. There are also things I can do to prevent it, such as taking birth control pills. They're incredibly effective according to my mother."

"I-If you say so..."

Meixiu looked at Yuan's body a moment later and couldn't help but smile.

"You still have energy to continue? Is it because you're a cultivator, or is it just your body that's vigorous?" She wondered out loud.

"I don't know..." Yuan responded honestly.

"Do you want to continue?" Meixiu suddenly asked.

"I-I do!" He eagerly nodded.

And the two of them continued making love to each other for 3 more hours.

Once they were fully satisfied, Meixiu took Yuan into the bathroom to wash his body again.

"Yuan... Please keep what happened today a secret from the others, especially Yu Rou... Who knows how she'll react if she finds out what we did..." Meixiu said to him as she washed his body.

"Don't worry, my lips are sealed." Yuan said with a smile.

In fact, he's had a smile on his face for the past three hours.

"Okay, you're clean. You can leave after putting your clothes on. I will clean everything up." Meixiu said after rinsing his body.

Yuan nodded, and as he dried his body with a towel, he asked her, "Meixiu... Do you think we can do this again in the future?"

"I-If we get the chance..." She nodded in a bashful manner.

Now that she's released all of her passion in bed and is no longer hot-headed, Meixiu remembered what embarrassment is and returns to her quiet nature.

Yuan left Meixiu's room after putting his clothes back on and returned to his own room shortly after.

"She's still asleep? It is almost noon..." Yuan was amazed by Chu Liuxiang's ability to sleep for so long.

He didn't want to disturb Chu Liuxiang, so he went to the balcony to cultivate.

And to his absolute surprise, it suddenly became much easier to cultivate for some reason. He was absorbing an abundant amount of spiritual energy with barely any effort, and the spiritual energy flowing through his spiritual veins was traveling at a much quicker speed.

It was almost as though he'd consumed a priceless treasure, but he doesn't recall using any recently.

Yuan didn't know this at the time, but his talents had actually increased after making love with Meixiu, who had a divine body and was also a maiden.

Meanwhile, Meixiu also left her room after cleaning her body.

In fact, she left the house altogether, and in her hand was a piece of paper that had a map of the Dragon Spiral Mountain.

After looking at the map for a bit, she found the convenience store which was only a few minutes away from their residence.

In order to make things convenient for its residents, the Dragon Spiral Mountain has multiple convenience stores around the mountain so the residents could purchase fresh groceries without needing to leave the mountain and travel to a city.

Meixiu expected the convenience store to be a small building, but to her surprise, it was actually the size of a small mall that had multiple floors and stores inside.

The only difference between this mall and the malls in the cities is that this mall was completely empty, and Meixiu felt like she was alone in her own world.

After looking around on the first floor, Meixiu found the store she was looking for and went inside.

"Welcome—! Oh? I haven't seen you before. Are you new here?"

There was a beautiful woman at the register that greeted Meixiu the moment she walked inside.

"Yes." Meixiu nodded.

"How long have you been living here?"

"About a week."

"I see, I see. And what are you looking for today?"

Meixiu looked around to make sure nobody else was there.

"It's okay, we are alone here." The woman smiled at her actions, finding it cute.

"T-Then can I get some birth control pills?" Meixiu said in a low voice.

The woman's eyes widened with surprise after hearing Meixiu's needs. It was truly way out of her expectations.

She suddenly chuckled and said, "Your boyfriend is a very lucky man to have a beautiful young lady like you. How many pills do you want? A single box can last you a month."

"Just a box is fine," Meixiu quickly replied.

"I understand. What about some rubber? You want those for your boyfriend as well?"

"Rubber?" Meixiu raised her eyebrows.

"Condoms. This way, you won't need to continuously take pills. However, your boyfriend might not like using them, and it won't feel as good when you do it." The woman gave her a detailed explanation.

"Oh..." Meixiu went silent for a moment before speaking, "It's okay... I will just take the pills."

"You got it! Don't worry, I also prefer it without the rubber." The woman chuckled again.

She reached under her counter and retrieved a box.

"Take one pill a day for the next four weeks until you run out, and make sure you don't miss any days, or the pills won't be as effective. Trust me, you don't want that. Once you only have a week of supplies left, you should come back for more just in case you cannot buy more for whatever reason."

"Okay. How much for it?"

"Hmm? It's free. In fact, everything in this mall is free. You didn't know that?" The woman said.

Meixiu shook her head and she asked, "Then why are you working here?"

"I'm just here for customer service."

"I see..."

"Here, let me bag it up for you."

The woman then wrapped the birth control pills with black wrappings so that nobody can tell what is inside without opening it.

"Thank you."

"See you next month!" The woman waved goodbye at Meixiu with a bright smile on her face.

After leaving the store, Meixiu decided to stock up on groceries since she was already there.

Once Meixiu returned to her own room, she took her first birth control pill before hiding the rest under her mattress on the bed.

"I can't believe I am actually taking birth control pills..." Meixiu mumbled to herself.

She laid on her bed that still lingered with Yuan's fragrance a moment later, making it feel like he was still in the room.

"Yuan..." Meixiu closed her eyes and spent the rest of the day recalling their intimate experience.

Chapter 699 - Until The End Of The Month

"Mmm..." Chu Liuxiang woke up from her long slumber when it was almost evening.

After stretching her body on the bed, she sat up and looked around the dark room with a dazed face.

She quickly noticed Yuan, who was still cultivating in the balcony.

After staring at Yuan's figure for a couple of moments, she got off the bed and went inside the bathroom to wash her face.

As she walked out of the bathroom, she noticed her cell phone ringing.

"Father? I wonder what he wants..."

Chu Liuxiang answered the call after realizing who the caller was.

"Hello? Father? Did something happen?"

"My dear daughter... When do you plan on letting us know that you have returned to the mountain?" Chu Shijian's sighing voice resounded through the phone.

"Oh, I completely forgot. Sorry, father. I planned on calling you once I settled in this place, but I had spent the past week inside Cultivation Online." Chu Liuxiang said.

"Cultivation Online? You never showed interest in that game before. In fact, you even refused to play it after trying it out for a few days." Her father said in a surprised voice.

"Well, I didn't have Yuan by my side before, and I had no reason to play. Things are different now that we're playing together. The game seems so much more intriguing when I follow him compared to playing with the family."

"Yuan... I heard about his most recent achievement. He'd opened a floodgate to the next realm for all players."

"And I was there to witness everything from the beginning to end! If you were there to witness his trials and what he had to endure, you would admire him even more!" Chu Liuxiang said in a somewhat proud voice.

"..."

After a moment of silence, Chu Shijian asked her, "When do you plan on coming back to the family? You're already back in the Dragon Spiral Mountain, so you might as well come back to us now."

Chu Liuxiang quickly responded, "On the contrary, father, now that I have returned to the mountain, I can stay with Yuan as long as I want since I am, technically, already home."

"You... Aiya... Forget it. I will give you until the end of the month with him."

"W-Wait—!"

However, Chu Shijian hung up the phone before she could even respond.

Chu Liuxiang stared at her phone in a dazed manner.

"Until the end of the month..." she mumbled to herself.

She looked at the calendar a moment later only to realize that she has less than three weeks left before the Chu Family starts making things difficult for her and Yuan if she doesn't return.

"Were you talking to someone just now?" Yuan's voice suddenly resounded as he returned to the room after he ended his cultivation.

"I was just speaking to my father on the phone..." She sighed.

"I see... Did something happen to your father? You seem down..."

"That's because he wants me to return to the family, and he has given me until the end of the month to return..." She said with a bittersweet smile.

"Oh... But your family also lives on the mountain, right? I don't think it's going to be that bad, since we're basically neighbors."

Chu Liuxiang shook her head, "It's not that simple. Once I return to the family, they will most likely start arranging my future and forbid me from leaving the house. By the time I am allowed to leave, I would already be married to someone chosen by my family, and I would most likely have to leave this place."

Yuan frowned when he heard this even though he's already heard similar words from Sebastian back at the Jaded Garden.

"Are you okay with that?" Yuan asked her after a moment of silence.

"Of course not! My desire is to start a family with you! You should already know that!" She quickly refuted.

"But does your family know that?"

"..."

Chu Liuxiang didn't immediately respond this time because she has never mentioned it to her family.

"No..." She eventually muttered in a low voice.

"Then you should let them know your feelings."

"That won't do anything. They will simply refuse and do as they please, anyway. That's just how the Chu Family operates."

"You won't know for certain until you do it. Don't worry, even if they refuse, they can't force you to do something that you don't want, because I will be there for you." Yuan smiled.

"Really?"

He nodded and said, "One thing that I cannot stand is when a family forces their own children, adopted or not, to do things against their will, as I have experienced first-hand how horrible that feels."

"If the Chu Family still refuses to listen, then I will forcefully take you away from them just like how I took Min Li from her family."

"You promise?"

"Yes, I promise."

Sometime later, Yuan and Chu Liuxiang went downstairs for dinner, but to their surprise, dinner wasn't prepared, and Meixiu was nowhere to be seen.

"Did Meixiu forget to cook dinner? How rare..." Wang Ming said when he arrived at the dining room and saw the empty table.

"It's only been a week since we've started living together and it already feels off when she misses a single meal. I think we're relying on her too much." Wang Bingbing said.

"I will go check up on her just in case." Yuan said to them.

He arrived at her room a few minutes later and knocked on her door.

"Meixiu, are you in there?"

The door opened a moment later and Meixiu came outside while wearing her pajamas.

"Did something happen?" she asked him.

"I was about to ask you the same... Everyone is wondering about dinner."

It was at this moment that Meixiu realized she'd forgotten about dinner.

"I forgot about dinner... Sorry."

"It's okay, you don't need to apologize. But what should we do about dinner now?"

Meixiu pondered for a moment before speaking, "Well, there's this convenience store a few minutes away, and they have a couple of restaurants there. Maybe we can eat out today."

"That sounds great. I will tell the others, you can take your time.." Yuan said before returning to the dining room to let the others know of the situation.

Chapter 700 - Plans For Tomorrow

After she fixed her appearance and dressed appropriately, Meixiu went outside to find Yuan and the others.

"Sorry for this... I lost track of time and forgot about dinner." Meixiu apologized to the others.

"Don't worry about it. It's not even your obligation to cook for us, so we cannot complain even if you decide to stop cooking for us." Wang Bingbing said to her.

"My sister's right. If you need a break, just let us know. We can take care of our own dinner," said Wang Ming.

"By the way, who knew there were restaurants on this mountain? I wasn't aware of their existence until Meixiu mentioned it and I looked it up." Shi Lang said.

"I was also surprised by this information." Xi Murong agreed.

"I saw a tall building on our way to the mansion. Perhaps that's where they are located," Wu Zao recalled seeing a mall.

"Yes, that's the place." Meixiu confirmed.

"There are other stores besides restaurants there, such as a convenience store, and even clothing stores, just like a real mall."

"I was also told by a worker there that everything inside the mall is free."

"What? Really? That sounds too good to be true." Wang Ming said.

"Does it? If you think about it, we paid four billion dollars for a house here. That's more than enough to buy multiple malls, not to mention our ridiculous property tax." Wang Bingbing said.

"That doesn't sound like a good idea, though. What if someone decides to take everything in the store? They can make decent money from doing that if they wished." Hong Xiuquan asked.

"That won't happen." Chu Liuxiang said.

"I have lived here for over a decade, and there has been no such case. First of all, everybody living in this place is so rich that they don't really need any more money, so they wouldn't go through the hassle of selling things from the mall. Secondly, it would ruin their dignity and face if word gets out, and nothing is more important than face in a society like this."

"Lastly, if you abuse the mountain's generosity, they can easily take it away from you. Nobody dares to offend the Lord of this mountain, who can evict anybody living in this mountain even if they're permanent residents."

"I have heard of this Lord a couple of times now, but I couldn't find any information about him. Have you seen the lord before, Miss Chu?" Wang Ming asked her.

She shook her head, "No, I have not. In fact, I don't think my parents have seen him before either. He's just that mysterious and seclusive."

"Rumor is that he's a powerful cultivator who has surpassed the limits of what a human can achieve, but we probably won't ever learn the legitimacy of such rumors," Chu Liuxiang shrugged.

"Surpassed human limits..." Yuan mumbled to himself, and his interest—curiosity for this Lord reached a new level.

After arriving at the mall, they all agreed on a restaurant and went inside for dinner.

Sometime later, Yuan and the others left the restaurant after dinner, but they didn't immediately go back home.

Instead, they hung around the mall for another hour like a group of friends after a long day at school.

"Wow, these clothes are all brand names. The Lord of the mountain is truly a generous fellow to be giving out these expensive clothes for free!" Wang Bingbing was surprised by what she saw in the mall.

Most of the clothes found inside the mall were designer clothes that can cost thousands of dollars each.

Purses, shoes, perfumes, sport equipment, fishing gear, weapons, armor—they could find almost anything inside this mall with most of the items being luxury goods.

After their tour around the mall ended, Yuan and the others returned home.

"I am definitely going to return to that mall tomorrow, and I am going to take my time." Wang Bingbing declared as they approached the entrance to their home.

"I'm also going to go back later. I saw a few things that attracted my interest, and I want to take a closer look at them." Wang Ming agreed.

"They had a pretty nice collection of fans in one of the stores there." Wu Zao said.

Almost everyone there wanted to return to the mall after seeing what it had to offer.

"Goodnight, everyone."

"Goodnight."

They returned to their own rooms shortly after.

"You look like you had fun tonight." Chu Liuxiang said to Yuan as they walked back to their room.

"Of course. I did not have any friends back then—not that I would have the time or opportunity to hang out like we did today even if I had friends."

"I can relate to that." Chu Liuxiang said.

And she continued, "We should go back as well— just the two of us. It'll be like a date!"

Yuan nodded.

"Goodnight, Meixiu." Yuan said to her, who was following behind them because her room was in the same direction.

"Goodnight." Meixiu nodded before going inside her room.

"What are you going to do tomorrow?" Chu Liuxiang asked him in bed as they prepared to sleep.

"A few things, actually. After morning training with Li Jinxi and the others, I am going to enter Cultivation Online and visit the Myriad of Techniques to see if my new faction rank changed anything. Then I am going to look for an auction house to sell all of the treasures I picked up from the Blood Sect and the Gu Family... Oh, right, I have to find an Array Master to remove the seals of their previous owners before I can take out the treasures to sell."

"I see... Well, wake me up when you do so I don't sleep through it! I also want to be there with you tomorrow!"

"You can still sleep that much after sleeping for the entire day?" Yuan was baffled by her ability to sleep.

If Yuan's talent is to eat a lot of food, Chu Liuxiang's talent is to sleep a lot. Fortunately for them, their talents are separated in two different bodies, or it would be quite disastrous for their health and future if all they do is eat and sleep all day.

"Goodnight, darling." Chu Liuxiang gave him a quick kiss on the cheeks before submerging herself under the blankets.

"Goodnight, Lulu..."

Sudden Increase In Population

Chapter 701 - Spirit Heaven's Sudden Increase In Population

The following morning, Yuan woke up earlier than anticipated and decided to let Chu Liuxiang sleep a little longer while he went to train with the others.

"I thought you needed a few days to rest." Li Jinxi said to him when he arrived.

"I guess I didn't need that much time to rest, after all."

Li Jinxi had no complaints, and the two of them began sparring with each other until it was time for breakfast.

Yuan returned to his room to wake Chu Liuxiang up before entering the bathroom for a quick shower.

Once they were prepared, they went downstairs and into the dining room together.

Of course, breakfast was already prepared by Meixiu by the time they arrived.

"Meixiu, we can hire someone to cook for us instead if you want. I feel bad for letting you spoil us." Wang Bingbing said to her.

"I don't mind it, really. I consider cooking as a hobby, and I really do enjoy cooking for everyone," she said.

Wang Bingbing smiled and said, "You're not only pretty but also hard working and great with housework. You'll be a great wife in the future, and your future husband is definitely one lucky man."

"Thank you..." Meixiu responded with a slight blush on her face.

When Wang Bingbing mentioned her future husband, all of the men in the room glanced at Yuan, who already had his mouth full of food.

If it wasn't so painfully obvious that Meixiu and Yuan shared a special connection, they would have definitely tried to approach her as a potential partner.

After all, Meixiu is an incredibly charming young lady. It would only be natural for the others to be attracted to her.

The same could be said for Chu Liuxiang, but it was clear to the others that she only has Yuan in her eyes.

Thus, these young men could only try their luck elsewhere.

After breakfast, everyone returned to their room.

"We're going to visit the Myriad of Techniques today. Do you want to come with us?" Yuan asked Meixiu as they walked to their rooms.

"I couldn't cultivate yesterday, so I plan on doing that today," she shook her head.

"Okay."

"Good luck."

"You too."

Once Yuan entered his room, he and Chu Liuxiang logged into Cultivation Online.

"Good morning, Brother Yuan." Xiao Hua and the others greeted them.

"Morning."

"Have you figured out what you want to do now, Young Master?" Feng Yuxiang asked him.

"Yes, I am going to give the Myriad of Techniques a visit today."

He then turned to look at Min Li and asked her, "What about you? Have you figured out your plans yet?"

She shook her head and sighed, "I'm actually still trying to accept the reality that I am really in Spirit Heaven. However, I am probably going to join a sect and start from there."

"Speaking of sect... Did you tell the Dragon Essence Temple that you were leaving?" Yuan suddenly asked.

"Uhh..." Min Li stared at him with a dumbfounded face.

Clearly, she didn't tell the sect.

"Actually, I am still a disciple at the Dragon Essence Temple since I didn't expect to ascend when I was called back home, but there's nothing I can do now that I am here. They will most likely visit the Min Family when I don't return to the sect after some time and learn the truth... hopefully."

"Until I am ready to move on, I hope you don't mind if I continue following you, Yuan."

He nodded, "I understand. You can follow me for as long as you need."

"Thank you."

Yuan and the others left the hotel shortly after to look for the Myriad of Techniques.

"Wow, there's a lot of people in the city today." Feng Yuxiang immediately noticed the sudden increase in population within the city.

"They must be the Players that rushed to the Stairway to Heaven..." Chu Liuxiang said to Yuan.

"Most likely." He agreed with her.

A lot of the Players there stuck out like a sore thumb because of their unnatural demeanor and otherworldly aura that was a stark contrast to the natives in the cultivation world.

However, as Players slowly get used to the cultivation world and its nature in the future, they will definitely become harder to identify.

As for Yuan, he has completely adapted to the cultivation world. From his appearance to his aura— it was almost as though he has belonged in this world since the beginning.

"Hey, Yuan. I wonder if this world is in shock right now because of the rush. If you think about it, there's nothing natural about thousands of Players suddenly ascending from the Lower Heavens." Chu Liuxiang suddenly said.

Yuan immediately began pondering, "Now that you mention it... I wonder how this world is reacting and dealing with the current situation."

Of course, the Spirit Heaven is in complete chaos at this moment.

The people that were there when Yuan ascended to this world believed that he was a peerless genius when he showed up with Chu Liuxiang and the others, but when more Players suddenly started showing up in groups, they began to doubt their own judgement.

When news spread that thousands of people had ascended on the same day, the people of this world wondered if something had happened to the Stairway to Heaven.

After all, most of these people that came out of the Stairway to Heaven and entered their world from the Lower Heavens were only Spirit Apprentices, and nobody believed for a second that a Spirit Apprentice could possibly climb the Stairway to Heaven, much less thousands of them at once.

Therefore, they could only come to the conclusion that the Stairway to Heaven is broken, hence their current situation.

However, there was nothing the natives of this world could do but let the Players swarm their world.. At the end of the day, the Players have already ascended, and it was not as though they could force the Players to go back to the Lower Heavens.

Chapter 702 - Free Divine-Rank Technique

After leaving the hotel, Yuan and the others wandered around the city asking the pedestrians if there was a Myriad of Techniques in the city while trying their best to avoid the Players.

After half an hour of speaking to random people, they eventually found the right person to speak with.

"Yes, the Myriad of Techniques should be five blocks down that direction."

"Thank you!"

Once Yuan had the directions, they immediately made their way to the store.

"Welcome to the Myriad of Techniques. If this is your first time at our store, please put your hand on this crystal ball." A woman that Yuan didn't recognize greeted them at the entrance.

'It's a different person again... How often do they change out the workers here?' Yuan wondered to himself.

Chu Liuxiang placed her hands on the crystal ball since this is her first time at the store.

And sure enough, just like everyone that follows Yuan, she had a heavenly destiny.

"A heavenly destiny!" The woman was surprised to see the results.

"Congratulations! You can access the first and second floor of the store!"

Min Li touched the crystal ball next.

"You have a minor destiny. You may access the first floor." The woman said after looking at her results.

'A minor destiny?' Yuan raised his eyebrows, as he'd expected Min Li to have a heavenly destiny just like everyone else.

However, unbeknownst to Yuan, Min Li was born without even a minor destiny. It was only after she met him that her destiny had changed from having no destiny to a minor destiny, which is an extremely rare occurrence.

After they entered the store, Yuan said to the others, "I am going to speak with the person working at the front desk. If you guys want to look at techniques while I am away, go ahead."

"I don't really care about the techniques, so I am going to continue follow you." Chu Liuxiang said.

"I will do the same as well." Min Li said.

Yuan already knew Feng Yuxiang and the others' response, so he didn't ask them.

Sometime later, he arrived at the front desk, where a familiar face was working.

"You're still working here?" Yuan was surprised to see the same young man from all of his previous visits.

"Hmm? Oh! Esteemed guest! It's good to see you again!" The young man also recognized Yuan.

"Why are you surprised that I am still working here? Would you rather that I get fired?" He continued with a bittersweet smile on his face.

"No, that's not why I asked. The lady working at the front door changed again since my last visit, so I was wondering if everyone here can only work in this place for a certain amount of time." Yuan said.

"Ah, I see. Only the those working at the front door and the guards here get changed every few weeks. I am a permanent worker in this place, so unless I am fired, I won't go anywhere anytime soon."

"I see..."

"Anyways, why have you returned this time? Are you looking for more techniques?" The young man then asked.

"Not exactly. My faction rank increased to Warrior not long ago, and I was wondering if there are any changes to my benefits."

"What? Your rank increased? But it hasn't even been a full year since you joined the faction! I have never seen anyone progress so quickly before! How did you do it?" The young man was surprised to hear that Yuan had become a Warrior within the faction already.

"I kind of destroyed an entire evil sect..." Yuan said with a slight smile.

"Amazing! No wonder your rank rose so quickly! One already gets a lot of points by killing an evil cultivator, and you destroyed an entire evil sect!" The young man's admiration for Yuan was as clear as day.

And he continued, "As for your benefits, indeed you get to receive more benefits now that your rank has improved."

"Instead of 10 free techniques a year, you now get to choose 20 free techniques every year. However, that's not all. Although it's only a one-time thing, you also get to receive a Divine-rank technique for free that doesn't count towards the 20 techniques."

"20 free techniques and a free Divine-rank technique?" Yuan's jaw dropped upon hearing his upgraded benefits.

Chu Liuxiang and Min Li were also dumbfounded after learning about his benefits for the first time, and they wondered how he got these benefits in the first place.

"Since you still have 4 free techniques from before, you now have 14 free techniques for this year." The young man said, and he continued, "If you wish to pick your Divine-rank technique, you'll need to head to the fourth floor, which you should have access to if you came here from the Spirit Heaven."

"Fourth floor? But my friends can only access up to the second floor. Is there any way for them to come with me?" Yuan asked.

"Normally, they would need permission from someone with authority, but since you're part of the Celestial Overlords, and a Warrior-rank at that, you can bring them with you, but they cannot wander."

"I understand. That's good enough."

"If you need anything else, you know where to find me."

Yuan and the others began making their way to the 4th floor, where all of the Heaven-rank and Divine-rank cultivation techniques could be found.

"Is it just me or are there too few people in this place?" Yuan noticed this as they walked through each floor. "The Myriad of Techniques is connected to every store in the Nine Heavens, right? This place should be crowded if that was the case."

"Who knows. The Myriad of Techniques is more mysterious and profound than we can fathom. Perhaps you can ask one of the workers here if you're really curious." Feng Yuxiang said.

He nodded, "I will do just that after we're done looking at the techniques."

Sometime later, they arrived on the fourth floor, and to their surprise, it was multiple times larger than the previous three floors combined.

Chapter 703 - The Real Myriad Of Techniques

"Wow... Just how massive is this place? I cannot even see the end of the room from here!" Yuan mumbled in a dazed voice.

"Can you even call this a 'room'? There's a clear sky as the ceiling!" Chu Liuxiang said as she stared at the sky above them.

"That's not a real sky. It's only an illusion created by the formation." Feng Yuxiang said.

"What's the point of that?"

"For the atmosphere, I guess."

"There's also a lot more people on this floor." Yuan said.

"How does one find the cultivation techniques they are looking for in this vast place? It would take days if not longer to check every shelf in here."

Just as Yuan asked that question, he noticed that not far away from them, there was a stall with the sign 'Customer Support' written on it.

"Nevermind. Let's go over there."

"Hello, how may I help you?" The woman working the desk greeted them when they got close.

"Hello, I am wondering if there's a map or something that could help us navigate this place." Yuan asked her.

"This must be your first time here. Give me a second."

The woman reached under her desk and retrieved a jade slip before handing it to him.

"You will have all the information you need inside. If you're looking for a certain cultivation technique or a certain category, it's all there."

"Thank you." Yuan accepted the jade slip.

"There's something else you should know about this place." The woman continued.

"Looking at the place now, you might be thinking that this place is massive, but that's not entirely correct."

"What do you mean?"

"The Myriad of Techniques itself is actually a formation, so what you're seeing isn't always the truth. Look in that direction." The woman pointed north.

"Do you see that stall all the way in the distance?"

"Yes, I see it."

"Well, all the cultivation techniques from here to there are unique, but once you reach that stall, the cultivation techniques will be the same."

"Huh?" Yuan raised his eyebrows in a puzzled manner.

"Although you cannot see it, there's actually a wall that separates us. We're essentially inside a giant invisible box, and this invisible box is separated by hundreds of smaller invisible boxes, and inside each box is technically a store of its own, but it contains the same cultivation techniques as every other box."

"That's..." Yuan was speechless by this complex information.

"I know it's a lot to take in and understand. In simpler terms, we're currently inside a massive store that has many smaller stores in it, and each of these stores contain the same content. It's so the store doesn't become too crowded."

"Wow, that sounds like how parallel universes would work. We're currently in one store, but there are many other stores exactly like this one, and it's all in the same place. Can we go to the other stores from here?" Chu Liuxiang suddenly asked.

"Yes, but there's really no point, since you won't find anything new there." The woman nodded.

"How do you decide which room the customer goes to? Is it random?" Yuan then asked.

"Not exactly. It will depend on your destiny and where you entered the store from," she said.

"Is this how the previous three floors function?"

"Yes."

"No wonder why there were barely any people on those floors... Turns out there were other stores and we just couldn't see them." Yuan mumbled in a dazed voice.

"I cannot imagine how many stores there are in this place..." Chu Liuxiang shook her head.

"It's actually not as bad as you expect. Not everyone in the Nine Heavens is allowed to use the Myriad of Techniques, after all. In fact, out of a hundred thousand people, perhaps around ten of them would be allowed to enter this place."

"There are 2,000 stores on this floor, and we're currently at floor number 9."

"Eh? Really? I didn't know that, since everyone I know was allowed entrance." Yuan said.

"It's either a coincidence or they know someone who has a strong enough destiny to alter their fate, allowing them to enter." The woman smiled.

And she continued, "There are some really powerful people out there who can alter others' destiny just by being with them."

"I see..."

"Anyways, if you need help with anything else, you know where to find me."

"Thank you for all the information." Yuan said to the woman before leaving her alone.

He looked into the jade slip a moment later, and sure enough, information about the fourth floor began flooding into his head.

"Do you guys want any techniques? If you have something in mind, just let me know and I will see if it's available." Yuan said to the others afterward.

Feng Yuxiang and Xiao Hua shook their heads.

Lan Yingying said, "I am still trying to fully master the one from last time."

"Thank you for the offer, but I have already received more than enough from you. I cannot rely on you for everything." Min Li said.

"Since nobody else wants one, I will take one! I don't have any cultivation techniques, anyway." Chu Liuxiang said.

Yuan nodded and asked her, "What kind of techniques are you looking for?"

"I'm not sure."

Yuan began pondering.

"What style do you prefer? For example, I use the sword and dagger, so I would prefer using sword and dagger techniques."

"I don't really specialize in any weapons," she said.

Yuan then looked at the experts for help.

"Are there any suitable techniques for cultivators that don't use weapons?"

Feng Yuxiang nodded, "Yes, there's a lot. Most cultivators who don't use weapons can only rely on their internal energy to fight, and most cultivation techniques out there use internal energy."

"What's the difference between internal energy and spiritual energy?" Yuan asked.

"Well, spiritual energy is what we absorb, and internal energy is what spiritual energy becomes after being absorbed and refined. In essence, it's our cultivation." Feng Yuxiang explained.

"But to be honest, they're pretty much the same thing. Some people prefer calling it spiritual energy while others call it internal energy.. In the end, it's all about preferences."

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 704 - Spiritual Veins

"If most techniques are for people who use internal energy, how does that help me find one that's suitable?" Chu Liuxiang asked.

"If you're looking for a suitable technique, then you should pick a technique that compliments the attribute of your Spiritual Veins." Feng Yuxiang said.

"Spiritual Veins? What is that, and how do I find my attribute?"

"Spiritual Veins are organs that cultivators produce alongside their Dantian when they first become cultivators, and they are actually what absorbs the spiritual energy in the air. The higher the quality of one's Spiritual Veins, the easier and faster their cultivation will be." Feng Yuxiang explained.

And she continued, "For example, if two cultivators start cultivating from the same starting point, the one with ordinary Spiritual Veins might reach Spirit Warrior in four years, but the one with better quality Spiritual Veins will be able to reach that same level within half the time."

"Spiritual Veins can also possess certain attributes, making the cultivation of certain techniques easier and faster. If someone has fire attribute Spiritual Veins, they would be able to learn fire techniques twice as fast if not even faster than someone that does not have fire attribute Spiritual Veins. Of course, not all Spiritual Veins possess an attribute."

"As for how one can tell if their Spiritual Veins possess an attribute, there are treasures out there that do the job. Do you want to see if your Spiritual Veins possess an element?" Feng Yuxiang asked Chu Liuxiang afterward.

"Yes, I would like to know my element— if I have one." Chu Liuxiang nodded.

"Okay, but since I don't have such treasures right now, we will have to do this another way. I will require a drop of your blood." Feng Yuxiang said.

"My blood?"

"Yes, I can identify if your Spiritual Veins possess an element through your blood by tasting it."

"You're going to drink my blood...?" Chu Liuxiang raised her eyebrows, feeling a little uneasy about letting someone drink her blood.

Feng Yuxiang smiled and said, "In case you forgot, I am not human. I am a Divine Beast."

"You're a what?!" Min Li exclaimed in a shocked voice after hearing Feng Yuxiang's words, as she wasn't aware of such facts until now.

"Indeed, I am not human. I am actually a Vermillion Phoenix," she confirmed.

"A real phoenix...?" Min Li felt her strength being sucked out of her body after learning that she had been traveling with a Divine Beast this entire time— a Phoenix, at that.

"If you don't want to do it now, we can do it later when we have the treasure." Feng Yuxiang said a moment later.

"It's fine, we can do it now. It's just a drop of blood, right?" Chu Liuxiang said.

"Yes."

Chu Liuxiang poked a small hole on her finger before letting Feng Yuxiang lick the blood being squeezed out.

"Hmm..." Feng Yuxiang closed her eyes and focused on appraising her element.

"Congratulations, you possess a rare attribute for your Spiritual Veins, and that element is ice."

"Is that any good? I can't tell." Chu Liuxiang asked.

"Of course. Any rare attribute is good. Your ice element is basically a superior version of the water element. They say only one in one million cultivators have a rare attribute."

"That's great to hear. Congratulations, Lulu." Yuan said to her.

And he continued, "Feng Feng, can you also see if my Spiritual Veins possess any element?"

Feng Yuxiang smiled and said, "Young Master, I have already tried looking at your Spiritual Veins many times, but I couldn't taste anything."

"Eh? Does that mean I don't possess elemental Spiritual Veins?" Yuan felt a little disappointed by the results.

However, Feng Yuxiang quickly said, "That's not entirely correct, Young Master. I should've worded it better. It's more like I couldn't tell. In other words, I don't know if you have an attribute or not."

"How is that any better?" Yuan asked.

"Because that means you might possess elemental Spiritual Veins, but they are too high quality for me to tell."

"If you really want to learn about your attribute, we will need the proper treasure."

"I understand..." Yuan nodded.

"Then we'll start looking for techniques with Water and Ice elements."

After looking through the jade slip for a few moments, Yuan began walking around the fourth floor, picking out all of the techniques that complimented Chu Liuxiang's Spiritual Veins.

"That's a lot of techniques..." Chu Liuxiang mumbled in a dazed voice before the mountain of scrolls before her.

"There's around 60 techniques for you to choose from." Yuan said with a smile.

"This is going to take a while..."

"Take your time. I'm also going to look around."

After helping Chu Liuxiang carry the techniques to a nearby table, Yuan left to look for his own technique.

Feng Yuxiang and Min Li stayed with Chu Liuxiang to make sure she wasn't bothered and to give advice if needed.

Meanwhile, Yuan pondered about what kind of technique he wanted.

'I already have plenty of sword techniques but only one dagger technique. I should look for a new dagger technique.'

With that in mind, Yuan began searching for dagger techniques in the jade slip.

Once he found where the techniques' were located in the store, he went to look at them on the shelves.

'Phantom Blade Dance... Earth-rank... '

'Poison Blade Barrage... Heaven-rank...'

'Blade of a Thousand Cuts... Heaven-rank'

"Oh? This Ten Thousand Ghost Blades technique seems very powerful..." Yuan immediately took a liking to the technique after looking at its description.

<Ten Thousand Ghost Blades>

<Rank: Divine>

<Description: Creates up to 10,000 ghost weapons of the user's weapon and control each of them as though they are a separate weapon. Must wield a dagger to activate. Requires 10,000 Qi per second for each ghost weapon created.>

'Does this mean I can basically have up to 10,000 Starry Abyss fighting for me at once? Will I even be able to control that many at once?' Yuan closed his eyes and imagined ten thousand flying daggers surrounding him.

'The only downside is its enormous Qi requirements... If I activate 10,000 ghost weapons at once, that means it will consume 100 million Qi every second. How much Qi do I even have at the moment? I can't tell because of the bugged system...'

Chapter 705 - South Wing City

'Even though it will cost a lot of Qi to use this technique to its full potential, I don't think I will really need all 10,000 ghost weapons. 100 is already more than enough, much less 10,000.' After pondering for some time, Yuan decided to pick up the Ten Thousand Ghost Blades technique.

Of course, there were still many more techniques that he could choose from, so he continued looking through all available techniques.

In the end, Yuan couldn't find another technique that was more interesting than the Ten Thousand Ghost Blades, so he decided to just save his free techniques for another time.

"Have you found any suitable techniques yet?" Yuan asked Chu Liuxiang after returning to them.

"I have about ten more techniques to go through, but I found two that I am interested in. I'll see which one I like better later," she said.

Yuan nodded his head and waited for her to finish.

Sometime later, Chu Liuxiang placed all of the techniques that she wasn't interested in aside to look at the two techniques that she found interesting.

"I need some advice on which technique I should get." Chu Liuxiang said to them.

"The first technique is called Everlasting Ice Field. It is an area of effect technique that can slow and even immobilize my opponents."

"The second technique is called Glacial Ice Dragon. I can create an ice dragon using my internal energy and attack my enemies with it. They're both Heaven-rank techniques, too. I really like both of them, making it difficult for me to decide..."

Yuan smiled and said, "Do you even need to decide? If you like both of them, just take both."

"Really? You don't mind?"

"I still have 14 free techniques, 12 if we count yours. That's more than enough even if I give a free technique to everyone within the faction." Yuan nodded.

"Thank you, Yuan!" Chu Liuxiang was all smiles at this moment.

"The most important thing is that you have something to protect yourself. Anyways, now that we have our techniques, are we ready to leave?"

Everyone there nodded.

After returning to the first floor, Yuan handed the young man the three techniques.

"One Divine-rank and two Heaven-rank techniques. Give me a moment to log it down."

The young man handed the techniques back to them a few moments later.

"You're all set. If you need anything else, just ask."

"That's it?" Chu Liuxiang was dumbfounded by how easy it was to acquire such powerful techniques.

Min Li was also speechless. The Min Family would've needed to shell out tens of thousands of spirit stones for a single Heaven-rank technique, yet Yuan received 2 for free, not even mentioning the Divine-rank technique.

'Just what kind of background does he really have?' Min Li thought to herself.

Yuan and the others left the Myriad of Techniques shortly after receiving their new techniques.

"What now?" Chu Liuxiang asked.

"I am going to find an Array Master who can help me unseal the spatial rings and storage pouches that I picked up from the Gu Family," said Yuan.

"Young Master, why don't you do it yourself? You learned how to use arrays during one of the trials in the Stairway to Heaven, right? It will not only be much cheaper, it will also be much more convenient for you." Feng Yuxiang suggested.

"You're right... But where do I learn how to do something like that? I only know a few basic arrays from the book Huang Xiao Li gave me."

"There should be an Array Masters' Association somewhere in this city or another city. You can pay them to teach you arrays, or you can simply buy array techniques from them."

"Alright, let's ask around."

Thus, they began asking the pedestrians there.

Luckily for them, they found someone who had the information they wanted within minutes.

"The Array Masters' Association cannot be found in this city, but if you go to South Wing City, you will find them."

"Thank you for this information."

Now that they have this information, they need to head to this South Wing City.

Unfortunately, neither of them knew where to go, so they went to a nearby general store to buy a map of Spirit Heaven.

"This is a map? People really like putting information inside jade slips, huh." Yuan looked at the jade slip in his hand and realized this fact.

"Well, they're convenient since you can fit a lot of information inside a jade slip, kind of like spatial rings." Feng Yuxiang said.

"How does it even work? Putting information inside this small thing." Yuan asked.

"I'm not exactly sure, but the inside of that jade slip has its own dimension, sort of like a spatial ring, but you cannot put anything physical inside, so they put information that can only be seen if you are cultivators."

Yuan nodded, "I think I understand. Anyway, I don't really know how to read maps, so here you go."

He handed the map to Feng Yuxiang.

After taking a moment to study the map, Feng Yuxiang said, "Okay, I know where to go."

They left the city shortly after.

Since neither Min Li nor Chu Liuxiang could fly, Yuan carried them using his Qi Manipulation.

"Are flying treasures expensive? I am thinking about buying a few so that Meixiu, Lulu, and the others can also fly by themselves." Yuan asked as they traveled.

"It really depends on what type of flying treasures you want. But if you ask me, while they are definitely not cheap, they should be affordable for you, Young Master." Feng Yuxiang said.

"Alright. I am going to look at them after I sell the Blood Sect's treasures." Yuan nodded.

About four hours later, Feng Yuxiang stopped moving.

"We have arrived at South Wing City, Young Master."

"That tall building must be the Array Masters' Association. I can see their array symbols all the way from here." Yuan mumbled.

Even though the building itself didn't look that conspicuous, it was more than obvious to someone like Yuan, who can see array symbols.

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 706 - Array Masters Association

Chapter 706 - Array Masters' Association

"So this is the Array Masters' Association... The building is a lot more ordinary than it looks from afar." Yuan was used to seeing extravagant and luxurious buildings, so he was a little surprised to see the Array Masters' Association looking so plain.

"Let's go inside, shall we?"

Upon entering the building, Yuan could see a long line that snaked around the first floor, taking up half of the floor's space. At glance, these people appeared to be waiting to buy something from the front desk, but they were all given a piece of paper before getting sent to the second floor.

Yuan looked around to find someone that appeared to work there and approached him.

"Hello, where can I buy array techniques?"

"You mean array combinations? Are you an Array Master?" The man asked him.

"Yes, I know a few arrays." Yuan nodded.

"Just because you know a few arrays doesn't make you an Array Master, kid." The man sneered, and he continued, "In order to be officially considered an Array Master, you must pass the Array Master Assessment. Only when you have the badge of an official Array Master can you buy array combinations from our Array Masters' Association."

"So I have to join the association before I can purchase array combinations?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"What's the difference between this and joining a sect for their techniques?"

"I think you're misunderstanding something. We're not recruiting you to join us. The Array Masters' Association has the authority to give others the identification of an Array Master. You can sign up to join us if you wish, but it's not a requirement. There are many Array Masters out there that aren't part of our association, and there is no punishment for not wanting to join us."

"However, if you don't take the assessment and become an official Array Master, you're not considered a real Array Master, and most places that sell array combinations require you to be an official Array Master."

"Is that so... Then where do I sign up for this Array Master Assessment?" Yuan then asked.

The man pointed at the long queue in the store.

"I figured..." Yuan sighed.

"Well, I am going to take this assessment. You guys don't have to wait with me if you don't want to." He said to Chu Liuxiang and the others.

"Where are we going to go? We have nowhere else to go. But even if I do, I'd rather stay here with you." Chu Liuxiang shrugged.

"Then I am going to rest for a bit. Call me if you need me, Young Master." Feng Yuxiang said before turning into a ball of flame and entering his body.

"It's a little bit crowded here, so I will also rest for now." Lan Yingying said as she turned into a bracelet.

Only Xiao Hua, Chu Liuxiang, and Min Li remained.

Thus, they began waiting in the queue.

As they waited, Yuan would notice the people coming back down from the upper floors, and most of them had disappointed looks on their faces.

Clearly, they went upstairs to take the assessment.

And within the hour they waited, Yuan counted 22 people, but only 2 of them appeared to be happy with their result.

'The assessment is probably going to be difficult, especially for someone like me, who learned about arrays only a week ago...' Yuan sighed inwardly.

Once they reached the front, the middle-aged man sitting behind the desk asked him, "What's your name? And how old are you?"

"Yuan, 18 years old."

"Cultivation?"

"Second Level Spirit Lord."

"..."

The middle-aged man looked up and stared at Yuan with a look of disbelief on his face.

However, he didn't immediately believe Yuan's words, so he had to check himself using his divine sense to probe Yuan's aura.

'What the fuck!? He's really a Spirit Lord! And he's only 18 years old? Who is this monster?!' The middle-aged man cried inwardly after confirming Yuan's claims as a Spirit Lord.

"A-And how long have you studied arrays?" He asked after a moment of silence.

"Not long. It's probably been a week since I learned about arrays," said Yuan.

"A week...?"

If it were not for Yuan's cultivation base being higher than his own, the middle-aged man would've cursed him out loud before kicking him out of the building.

After all, there was simply no way for someone to become an Array Master after studying arrays for a week. If that was possible, everybody would be an Array Master by now.

"Anyways... Take this paper and go to the second floor for your assessment."

"Thank you."

Yuan accepted the paper and began making his way upstairs.

The middle-aged man shook his head after Yuan left. If it weren't so risky to kick Yuan out because of his talents and mysterious background, he would've done so without a heartbeat.

'Whatever. He's no longer my problem.'

Meanwhile, Yuan had to stand in line again because there was another line for assessments.

Moreover, the line seemed to be moving at a much slower pace.

After two hours of painful waiting, they finally reached the front of the line.

Five more minutes later, the door in front of them opened, and a young woman came running out, her eyes pouring with tears.

"Next."

An aloof voice resounded the next moment, and Yuan entered the door with the others following behind him.

Inside the room was a long table with three people sitting behind— a stubborn-looking old man, a handsome man, and a beautiful but bored-looking woman.

"Boy, where do you think you are? This isn't the place for you to show off your girlfriends." The handsome man said to him when he saw the beauties following him.

"We'll wait for you outside..." Chu Liuxiang said to him before leaving the room, followed by Min Li and Xiao Hua.

"Now then, let us see your paper."

Yuan approached the table and handed them his paper.

The three judges' eyes widened with shock when they saw Yuan's cultivation base.

'Spirit Lord at 18 years old? No wonder why he's surrounded by beauties!' The handsome man cried inwardly.

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 707 - Array Master Assessment

The three judges were no doubt shocked about Yuan's cultivation base at his age. However, when they continued to read the paper and saw that he only has a week of experience in arrays, they raised their eyebrows.

"Is this correct? You've only been studying arrays for about a week?" The beautiful woman asked him, no longer looking so bored.

"That's correct." Yuan confirmed in a calm manner.

The three judges looked at him with dumbfounded faces.

Just who is this kid? How dare he come to the Array Masters' Association when he's just a beginner? Is he mocking them?

"You know, even the most talented Array Master in the Spirit Heaven in the last 500 years had to study for nine full months before he could become an official Array Master, and you're already trying to become one a week after you started studying? Although I like ambitious men, you're way over your head with this one." The beautiful woman said.

"As a fellow Spirit Lord, I don't want to be too harsh on you, but you're mocking us— all of the Array Masters by coming here today." The handsome man said.

After a moment of silence, the old man laughed, "What's the harm in letting him try? I'm sure it'll be more entertaining than the last couple hundred entries."

"Are you sure, Senior Huang? It will definitely be a waste of time." The handsome man said.

'Huang...?' Yuan raised his eyebrows upon hearing this familiar surname. Surely, it must be a coincidence, right?

"It's fine. We have nothing but time. Let's see... Yuan. The Array Master assessment will consist of three separate tests. The first one will test your ability to memorize and draw array symbols. The second test will test the speed you can combine the array symbols and activate it. As for the last test, we will test the strength of your array."

"Do you have any questions?"

Seeing Yuan shake his head, Senior Huang nodded and said, "Good. Then let's start the assessment. For the first test, I want you to create as much of the 10,000 basic array symbols as you can in 5 minutes. Every symbol you create must be unique and cannot be repeated."

"You will need at least 3,000 proper array symbols to be considered passing."

Yuan nodded and closed his eyes to recall all 10,000 basic symbols inside his head.

Once he was ready, he began creating the array symbols at a ludicrous speed.

Dozens of array symbols flew out of his palm every second, quickly filling the room with perfectly drawn array symbols.

"This motherfucker..." The handsome man subconsciously cursed out loud when he saw how perfect the array symbols were, not to mention how quickly they were being created.

Although many Array Masters, even amateur Array Masters, can create array symbols at the speed Yuan was making them, they would not be able to create array symbols with quality that can match the ones Yuan was creating even if they were given all the time in the world.

Five minutes passed in the blink of an eye for the judges when they were absorbed by Yuan's beautiful array symbols, which is an incredible feat, considering that most examinees are disqualified before they can even use up all 5 minutes.

In the end, Yuan had only managed to create 9,000 array symbols before the time was up, meaning that he created around 30 array symbols every second, which is already faster than what most Array Masters can achieve after many years of practice.

And out of 9,000 of these array symbols, all of them have passed the quality check. In fact, they were the most beautiful array symbols that these judges have seen in a very long time.

"Did I pass the first test?" Yuan asked them when none of them spoke even after 5 minutes had passed.

'T-This bastard is definitely mocking us! There's no way that he'd only been studying arrays for a week!' The handsome man gritted his teeth in anger.

The other two judges also doubted Yuan's claims since it would be ludicrous that he can create such flawless array symbols after studying arrays for a week.

However, none of them said anything to Yuan, and they continued the test.

"You passed the first test..." Senior Huang said in a stiff voice, and he continued, "For the second test, we will give you three array combinations for you to do for yourself. In order to pass this test, two of your three array combinations must activate properly. Even if you can create array symbols flawlessly, combining them is a different story."

"Let us know when you're ready to begin."

"I am ready." Yuan immediately said.

"Good, then I will start first."

Senior Huang proceeded to create an array combination that consisted of a little over 150 symbols.

The beautiful woman went next, and her array combination consisted of around 120 array symbols.

The handsome man was last.

'If you think you can mock us and get away with it, then you're gravely mistaken!' He sneered inwardly.

The handsome man proceeded to create his array combination with around 30 array symbols, which is much lower than the others, but the other two judges frowned when they saw his array combination.

'This idiot is using level 3 array symbols in an assessment meant for entry-level Array Masters...' Senior Huang sighed inwardly.

Just like every other profession in the cultivation world, Array Masters also have a hierarchy system to separate the inexperienced from the experienced.

Array Masters are separated into 9 different levels with level 1 Array Masters being the lowest in the hierarchy, and the higher level the array symbol, the more difficult they are to create and combine.

The judges are supposed to use only level 1 array symbols for the Array Master assessment, but after feeling ridiculed by Yuan's results in the first test, the handsome man decided to take matters into his own hand by upping the difficulty, as he believed that Yuan wasn't the beginner that he claims to be.

Chapter 708 - Level 3 Array Symbols

The other two judges realized what the handsome man was trying to do, but they didn't say anything, as they also wanted to see how Yuan would handle this situation.

'Will he be able to create a level 3 formation?' Senior Huang wondered inwardly as Yuan took his time analyzing the array combinations.

'I don't recognize any of those array symbols...' Yuan stared at the handsome man's array combination with a pondering expression.

He was certain that he didn't miss any of the basic array symbols from Huang Xiao Li's manuals.

However, the handsome man had created array symbols that he didn't recognize, and they appear more complex than the basic symbols.

'They must be more advanced array symbols that I haven't learned yet... How troublesome...' Yuan did not even think for a second that the handsome man was trying to ridicule him by increasing the assessment's difficulty. He just thought it was part of the assessment and didn't think much about it.

'Let's just deal with the other two first before I try the difficult one. I only need two out of three to pass this test, anyway.'

With that in mind, Yuan ignored the handsome man's array combination and focused on the other two.

And within minutes, he figured how they were combined and what array symbols were used.

Yuan started with the beautiful woman's array combination. He first created the array symbols before combining them into a fully functional array.

"Pass." The beautiful woman gave her judgement after seeing the results.

He moved onto Senior Huang's array combination next, and although it was harder than the last array combination, he still managed to crack it and understand everything about it in just a few minutes.

A few moments later, Yuan replicated Senior Huang's array combination and showed it to him.

"It's also a pass from me." Senior Huang said, and he continued, "You have already passed the second test, but if you wish to try and replicate the third one, you may go ahead and do so. Personally, I want to see you try."

Yuan nodded and turned to look at the last array combination. Even if Senior Huang hadn't mentioned it, he would've still tried to solve it.

'Arrays are just like puzzles. Once assembled, you have to figure out what array symbols they used and how they combined it. 30 array symbols can have over a billion possible combinations, and each of these billion combinations can be considered a unique array.' Yuan recalled the manuals he read about arrays.

'Although I don't know any of these array symbols, as long as I can figure out their combination pattern, I should be able to replicate the array.'

And for the next ten minutes, Yuan would stare intensely at the handsome man's array combination, almost like he was trying to stare a hole into it.

If it was an ordinary test, the judges would've disqualified him for taking so much time, but since the handsome man used level 3 array symbols, it was only fair that they be patient while Yuan tried to solve the array combination.

The judges were prepared to sit there for an entire hour to see if Yuan could solve it, but after waiting for 15 minutes, Yuan began moving his fingers.

Since he has never seen these array symbols before, he could not create them as fast as the basic symbols.

It took almost two whole seconds for Yuan to create a single array symbol, but when he finished, it would come out as flawlessly as the basic array symbols.

'Impossible...' The judges' eyes widened with surprise when Yuan completed his first array symbol.

Even if Yuan lied about his experiences, it was almost certain to the judges that Yuan's age was as he claimed, and regardless of his situation, any 18-year-old that can create level 3 array symbols is considered a top array prodigy.

After another two seconds, Yuan created his second array symbol... then his third... fourth... and so on.

Senior Huang and the beautiful woman's excitement grew with each array symbol, but it was the complete opposite for the handsome man.

If word gets out that he tried to mock a junior with level 3 array symbols but backfired in the end, he would become a laughing stock in the Array Masters' Association.

And to make matters worse for him, Yuan's level 3 array symbols were also much more precise and refined than his own.

'I cannot let him finish the array combination!' The handsome man cried inwardly.

Right as Yuan finished making the 27th array symbol, the handsome man suddenly slammed the table while shouting, "Stop!"

Yuan was startled by the sudden outburst and immediately lost his concentration.

All 27 array symbols that he'd created disappeared the moment his concentration was disturbed.

When Senior Huang and the beautiful woman saw the flawless array symbols disappear before their very eyes, they felt some pain in their heart. As Array Masters, they respected and admired the art of array symbols, and when such perfect array symbols disappear like that, it was akin to an artist watching a masterpiece being destroyed before their very eyes.

Bang!

The door suddenly flew open, and a small figure appeared in front of Yuan the next moment.

"Brother Yuan, are you okay?" Xiao Hua asked him.

"Y-Yes, I am fine." He nodded in a dazed manner.

The guards outside also entered the room shortly after.

"Master Zeng! What was that about?!" The beautiful woman quickly shifted her angry gaze at the handsome man for ruining such a spectacular show.

The handsome man immediately responded, "I-I thought I saw something wrong with the 28th array symbol, and I was worried that it might explode on us, so I subconsciously shouted for him to stop."

Senior Huang silently shook his head, as he was fully aware of the handsome man's lies.

He then turned to the guards and said, "It was just a misunderstanding. You can leave us alone now."

The guards bowed to them before leaving the room.

"Let's just continue to the final test, shall we?" Senior Huang asked Yuan a moment later.

"Okay." He nodded.

"Xiao Hua, I am fine. You can go back outside."

However, Xiao Hua seemed reluctant to leave, and she was staring at the handsome man with narrowed eyes, seemingly in deep thoughts.

"It's okay. Your friend can stay here." Senior Huang suddenly said.

"I understand. Thank you, Senior.." Yuan bowed to him.

Chapter 709 - Officially Becoming An Array Master

"Then let us continue to the third and final test. For the third test, we simply need you to create an array—the stronger the better, and we will test its strength." Senior Huang said to him.

Yuan nodded and created a confinement array a few seconds later.

"Impressive..." Senior Huang muttered in a dazed voice, as he has never seen such a powerful basic array before.

"Is this really a level 1 array? Even level 2 arrays would not be able to contest against this..." The beautiful woman mumbled to herself as she inspected the array with great focus.

The handsome man, however, remained seated in his chair behind the table, almost like he had no intention of even looking at the array.

Yuan figured that it was because he could see the array from that distance, so he didn't need to look at it closely.

Sometime later, the other judges returned to their seat with a look of fascination on their faces, looking like their views on this world had been broadened.

"Ahem!" Senior Huang cleared his throat before speaking, "Yuan... You have passed the assessment. I don't think any of us would deny someone of your talents as an Array Master. In fact, it would be disingenuous if we made you a level 1 Array Master."

"Therefore, I suggest that we give you an advance promotion to a level 2 Array Master. Normally, if you want to raise your level, you would need another assessment, but you have proven yourself more than worthy of being a level 1 Array Master today."

"If you don't agree with my decision, let me hear your reasons, fellow Masters." Senior Huang turned to look at the other two judges.

"No, I totally agree with you, Master Huang. If he doesn't deserve being a level 2 Array Master, then nobody should be qualified to be one. I would even argue that you qualify as a level 3 Array Master based on your mastery over creating array symbols alone, but your speed is a little too slow even for an average level 3 Array Master, and we need more than just the three of us to promote you to a level 3 Array Master."

They turned to look at Master Zeng, who had been silent this entire time, and he continued to remain silent.

"Silence often means you have no objections, so I will go ahead and say congratulations, Array Master Yuan, you have passed the assessment and become a level 2 Array Master." Senior Huang said to him.

"Congratulations, Yuan." The beautiful woman also congratulated him.

And she continued, "I have been wondering for a while now, but exactly how long have you been studying arrays? Surely, you didn't study arrays for only a week to have such results. Now that we're aware of your capabilities, you can stop joking with us and just tell us the truth."

Senior Huang nodded his head, "I would also like to know the truth. Even if you started learning when you were 10, it is still an incredible achievement to become a level 2 Array Master at the age of 18."

A weird smile appeared on Yuan's face as he said, "But I'm not joking... I really only started learning arrays around a week ago. I only know of the 10,000 basic symbols and the basics to combining array symbols."

The entire room turned dead silent.

"Are you telling me that you don't know any level 2 or level 3 array symbols? T-Then how did you create those level 3 array symbols? There's no way someone with only one week of experience can do such a thing!" The beautiful woman exclaimed.

"Level 3 array symbols? Sorry, but I don't know what those are." Yuan shook his head.

"Arrays are separated into 9 different levels depending on their difficulty, and the 10,000 basic array symbols are level 1 array symbols—the least complex array symbols and also the easiest to learn. Intermediate array symbols are level 2, advanced symbols are level 3, and so on... What Master Zeng created during the 2nd test are level 3 array symbols." Senior Huang explained to him.

"Is that so... No wonder why I didn't know any of those array symbols. Turns out that they were not part of the 10,000 basic array symbols. Anyways, I merely copied the array symbols. Although they're definitely much more complex than level 1 array symbols, they still function the same, so as long as I can trace the symbols, I can create them." Yuan said.

"Y-You traced them?" Senior Huang stared at him with a shocked face.

How can someone treat array symbols as though they are merely words on a paper? Even if one can trace level 3 symbols, activating them is a different story!

If arrays were as simple as words on a paper, everybody would be a level 3 Array Master and above!

"So you're telling me that you really have only one week of experience as an Array Master?" The beautiful woman asked him in a dumbfounded voice.

Yuan nodded his head calmly.

"W-Who is your Master? Where did you learn about arrays?" She continued to ask.

"A friend of mine explained the basics to me, but I learned arrays mostly through the manuals that she gave me. The Body Shielding Array, 10,000 Array Symbols, and Guide to Combining Array Symbols. Those were the manuals she gave me to study."

Senior Huang nearly fell out of his chair from shock when he heard the names of the manuals.

'These are all basic manuals for complete beginners who have no experience in arrays! Even the Body Shielding Array is one of the most common array combinations out there! He's definitely screwing with us!' Senior Huang cried inwardly.

Neither Senior Huang or the beautiful woman believed Yuan's words for a second.. They speculated that he was probably from a hidden family of renowned Array Masters, hence why he was reluctant to tell them the truth.

Chapter 710 - Level 2 Array Master

Chapter 710: Level 2 Array Master

“Here, this is your badge. As long as you have this, you can purchase array combinations from any store and treat any Array Masters’ Association as though it’s your second home.”

Senior Huang handed Yuan a green badge.

Ding!

<You have acquired the title ‘Level 1 Array Master’>

<You have acquired the title ‘Level 2 Array Master’>

“That’s right. Without the array, the badge is just a useless piece of metal, and it makes it harder to be replicated by others who want to profit from it.” Senior Huang nodded.

The beautiful woman added, “Being an Array Master is more prestigious than one might think since it’s not an easy profession. Some might argue that it’s even more difficult than being an Alchemist, so there are many people who pretend to be an Array Master to receive benefits that they don’t deserve.”

“Therefore, you need to make sure that you don’t lose that badge. If you happen to lose that badge, you will need to partake in another assessment because we have no proof that you're an Array Master."

Yuan nodded, "I will keep the badge safe."

"Before you leave, Yuan." Senior Huang suddenly said, "Do you have any intentions of joining the Array Masters' Association? There are many benefits in joining us, such as free array combinations and being taught by the best of the best Array Masters from around the Nine Heavens."

"The Nine Heavens?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"Yes. Did you think the Array Masters' Association only existed in this world? The Array Masters' Association is one of the biggest factions in the Nine Heavens, and we can be found in every single realm."

"I will keep that in mind. As for joining the Array Masters' Association, give me some time to think about it."

"Very well. If you ever decide to join us, just give us a visit— or any Array Masters' Association for that matter." Elder Huang nodded.

"Goodbye. Thank you for everything today." Yuan bowed to them before leaving the room with Xiao Hua.

Once they left, Senior Huang turned to look at Master Zeng and said, "You've been awfully quiet since the end of the 2nd test, and the way you acted today is not acceptable for someone of your stature. If that talented young man holds a grudge against the Array Masters' Association, it will be your fault, and that is what I will be telling the higher-ups if they ask."

However, Master Zeng remained silent.

"Master Zeng...? Are you okay? You're sweating awfully a lot..." It was at this moment Senior Huang and the other judge noticed that he was covered in sweat.

The chair he sat on was also starting to creak as his body began trembling.

“M-Master Zeng? What is happening to you? Do you need medical assistance?” They stared at him with frowns on their faces.

“N-No... I-I am fine...” He suddenly muttered in a low voice.

“What happened to you?” Senior Huang asked again.

Master Zeng closed his eyes and took a couple of deep breaths before speaking, “Someone was threatening me... No, multiple people threatened my life just now.”

“Huh? What are you talking about?”

“You couldn’t sense it probably because it was directly at me, but I felt intense killing intent directed at me, and from multiple people as well. If I dared to move, I would’ve probably been killed on the spot.”

Senior Huang and the beautiful woman exchanged puzzled glances with each other. They couldn’t understand why someone would want to kill him.

The beautiful woman decided to ask, “Why would anybody want to kill you? And we were alone in this room except for Yuan. If he was threatening you with killing intent, we would’ve definitely noticed it.”

“It wasn’t him.” Master Zeng quickly shook his head.

“It was that person standing behind him— that little devil...”

“You mean that little girl? Master Zeng... I think you’re just exhausted. Go home and get some rest. We’ll handle the assessment.” The beautiful woman shook her head.

“You don’t understand! I can’t leave! They are still inside the building! I cannot leave until they leave!” Master Zeng shouted.

Senior Huang was stumped by his reaction. They have never seen him this afraid before. Furthermore, he was a Spirit Lord. Even if the little girl was staring at him with killing intent, it shouldn’t affect him.

“Do whatever you want, but we still have many people waiting to be assessed.” Senior Huang said, and he called in the next examinee a moment later.

Meanwhile, as they walked back downstairs, Xiao Hua said, “Brother Yuan, that man in the room showed a hint of killing intent towards you.”

“Eh? Really? I didn’t notice it, probably because I was so focused on the tests.”

“Don’t worry, Xiao Hua made sure that he couldn’t do anything funny.”

“Is that why you refused to leave the room? Thank you, Xiao Hua.”

“Un.” She nodded with a satisfied face.

Back on the first floor, Yuan returned to the man that he first spoke to when he came to this place.

“I am now an official Array Master. Where can I buy array combinations?”

“Huh...?” The man stared at him with widened eyes.

Yuan retrieved the green badge and showed it to the man.

“L-Level 2 Array Master?! I thought you said you weren’t one!” The man exclaimed.

He has never seen someone skip level 1 and become a level 2 Array Master right after the Array Masters’ Association, so he thought that Yuan was already an Array Master, and he just finished his promotion examination.

Yuan merely shrugged his shoulders.

“...”

After a moment of silence, the man pointed to the ceiling and said, “You can buy array combinations on the third floor.”

“Thank you.”

Yuan and the others began making their way back up the staircase.

A few minutes later, they arrived on the third floor.

“Welcome to the Array Masters’ Association. Are you an Array Master?” A middle-aged woman greeted them.

Chapter 711 - Unsealing Spatial Rings

Chapter 711: Unsealing Spatial Rings

“Yes, I am. Here’s my badge.” Yuan showed her the Array Master’s badge.

“Thank you very much, Senior Array Master. If you’re looking for a specific array combination or anything specific, just let me know.”

Yuan then said, “Then I would like an array combination for sealed spatial rings and storage pouches.”

“Just for confirmation, arrays that remove sealed spatial rings and storage pouches, is that correct?” She asked.

“Yes, that’s right.”

“I understand. Please follow me.”

Yuan and the others followed this woman to a counter. She picked out a couple of manuals from under the desk and laid them out before him.

“Are all of these...?” Yuan raised his eyebrows, as he didn’t expect there to be so many array combinations for the same purpose.

“All of these array combinations are for unsealing spatial rings and storage pouches, but they all have different strengths. One can have a higher chance of success while another one can be easier to use. It all depends on the array combination.”

“Which of these have the highest success rate?” Yuan asked.

“That would be this one— the Absolute Unsealing Array, but it’s a level 3 array combination.”

Since Yuan is only a level 2 Array Master, he would not be able to use the level 3 array combination, so it wouldn’t make sense for him to buy it.

“Okay, I will take that. And do you also have manuals for level 2 and level 3 array symbols?”

“Of course. Give me a moment...”

The woman reached under the desk for two more manuals.

“7,000 Intermediate Array Symbols and 5,000 Advanced Array Symbols.” Yuan read the titles, which surprised him a little, as he’d expected the number of array symbols to go up the more difficult they got.

“How much for these three manuals?” Yuan asked the woman a moment later.

“That would be Fifteen million gold, but since you’re a Level 2 Array Master, you have a 25 percent discount when buying from the Array Masters’ Association. The new total will be 11,250,000 gold coins.”

“E-Eleven million gold coins even with a discount...?” Yuan was speechless. He didn’t think array combinations were this expensive.

“Brother Yuan, here.” Xiao Hua suddenly handed him a storage pouch.

“What is this?” He asked.

“It’s the money that we’ve saved from the auction house. There should be more than enough money to buy the manuals,” she said.

Yuan’s eyes flickered with excitement.

“I almost forgot about this money! Are you sure, Xiao Hua? The money is still technically yours.”

She nodded, “Anything that helps Brother Yuan is worth it.”

“Thank you, Xiao Hua.”

Yuan proceeded to pay for the three manuals using the money they’d earned from selling Xiao Hua’s Heaven-grade treasure at some auction house.

“Here is your purchase. Thank you for doing business with us, Senior Array Master.” The woman offered the manuals to him with her head lowered.

After accepting the manuals, Yuan left the Array Masters’ Association and went to rent out a new hotel room in the city.

“I am going to spend a few days studying these manuals. You guys can do whatever until then.” Yuan said to the others.

“Okay. I am also going to study the techniques I just got.” Chu Liuxiang said.

“I’m going to cultivate. If you need me, don’t hesitate to call for me.” Min Li said before entering one of the four rooms in that hotel room.

Chu Liuxiang also went into her own room.

Yuan remained in the living room, and he placed the three manuals on the table before him.

“I should probably start with the level 2 array symbols...”

Thus, Yuan began flipping through the manual, spending the rest of today and tomorrow memorizing all 7,000 level 2 array symbols.

Two days later, Yuan placed the level 2 array symbols to the side and began studying level 3 array symbols.

Even though there were less array symbols in total compared to the other 2, it took Yuan almost four days to completely memorize all 5,000 level 3 array symbols.

Of course, four days may seem like a lot of time, but for ordinary Array Masters, it would take them years if not decades to achieve the same results.

After memorizing all array symbols up to level 3, Yuan moved onto the Absolute Unsealing Array.

A couple of minutes later, he understood everything.

“Before I use this array on the Gu Family’s spatial rings, I want to experiment it on other spatial rings just in case I mess up. Do any of you have any unused spatial rings or storage pouches?” Yuan asked them.

“I have a couple, Young Master.”

Feng Yuxiang appeared beside him with a dozen storage pouches and six spatial rings.

“They should all have my seal on it. They are also empty, so you don’t have to worry about destroying them,” she said.

“Thank you... but why do you have so many of these? People normally only carry one or two, right?”

“I have a lot of treasures to store because of my business. That’s all.”

“I see...”

Yuan began inspecting the spatial rings and storage pouches the next moment.

Half a minute later, Yuan began creating level 3 array symbols in the air.

He created exactly 50 level 3 array symbols, which he combined into a complete array, before sending it directly inside Feng Yuxiang’s spatial ring.

Yuan inspected the spatial ring again afterward, and sure enough, Feng Yuxiang’s aura that was present just moments ago was no longer there, almost as though it’d vanished.

“I think I succeeded. Can you take a look at it for me?” Yuan handed the spatial ring back to Feng Yuxiang.

She nodded with a smile, “Yes, good job, Young Master. You have erased my seal perfectly.”

“Great. Then can you reseal it again so that I can continue practicing until I am confident? I want to be absolutely certain that I can open them perfectly.”

“Most certainly, Young Master.” Feng Yuxiang said as she sealed the spatial ring with her spiritual energy.

Chapter 712 - Suddenly Wealthy

Chapter 712: Suddenly Wealthy

After spending an entire day unsealing Feng Yuxiang's spatial rings and storage pouches, Yuan was finally confident enough to work on the Gu Family's spatial rings.

"You can do it, Young Master." Feng Yuxiang cheered him from the side.

Yuan nodded and retrieved Gu Tao's spatial ring. He has decided to unseal this one first, leaving Patriarch Gu's spatial rings for last.

"Gu Tao was only a Spirit Warrior, so his seal isn't particularly strong..."

In just a couple of minutes, Yuan had managed to unsealed Gu Tao's spatial ring.

"Wow, there's a bunch of spirit stones and monster cores inside this spatial ring."

Yuan was immediately impressed by Gu Tao's rich spatial ring.

"There's about 1,000 spirit stones in here that are worth 10 million gold, a couple dozen Spirit Warrior monster cores, an Earth-grade treasure, and some pills..."

Besides the spirit stones, pretty much everything inside Gu Tao's spatial ring was worthless to him, who was already a Spirit Lord.

'10 million gold... This is more than I'd anticipated, so I am satisfied with the results. As for the other stuff... I don't think they will sell for much, so I will just save it for now. Maybe I can even give it to Wang Ming and the others.'

"Let's move onto Patriarch Gu's spatial ring now."

Patriarch Gu had two spatial rings and one storage pouch.

"Seeing how he acted when I took this from him, this spatial ring should have a fortune inside." Yuan mumbled to himself before placing the spatial ring to the side, saving the best for last.

'Hmm... This is definitely going to be a lot harder than unsealing Gu Tao's spatial ring since he was a Spirit Grandmaster. However, Feng Feng is also a Spirit Grandmaster, and she's stronger than him, so I shouldn't have any problems with it.'

While Yuan focused on unsealing the spatial rings, Feng Yuxiang and Xiao Hua watched from the side.

"No matter what he does, the Young Master is always talented at it. This makes me want to find something that he's not good at. Do you have any idea what he might be bad at, Xiao Hua?" Feng Yuxiang asked her.

Xiao Hua silently shook her head.

"Then let me think... He's good with weapons and instruments... He became a level 2 Array Master after a week of studying... He can learn techniques as natural as breathing... His cultivation talents... let's not even mention it..."

"I cannot think of anything— Actually... What about Alchemy? I have never seen the Young Master do alchemy before. What about you?"

"No."

"Even though it's not really good to walk multiple paths at the same time, I kind of want to see how the Young Master will perform in the field of Alchemy. In terms of reputation, I'd say they're even more important and useful than arrays."

“Got it!” Yuan suddenly released a shout of excitement.

Feng Yuxiang and Xiao Hua turned to look at Yuan, who was already looking inside the spatial ring.

“Wow! As expected of the Patriarch of a Legacy Family! His personal spatial ring has a ton of treasures! There are around 5,000 spirit stones, a Heaven-grade treasure, many Spirit Master monster cores, pills, and some other stuff!”

“Feng Feng, what kind of treasures are these?” Yuan retrieved a couple of objects and showed it to her.

“This one over here is a live-saving treasure. This one as well. As for this one, it’s a flying treasure.” Feng Yuxiang explained as she pointed at each of the treasures.

“I see... How much could I earn if I sell all of these treasures? Oh, except the flying treasure. I am going to keep that.”

Feng Yuxiang pondered for a moment before speaking, “Well, not including the spirit stones, you can sell these treasures at a minimum of 50 million gold, but if we take it to an auction house, we can potentially double that amount.”

Yuan’s eyes immediately flickered with excitement.

“Great! Then we’ll sell these!”

Feng Yuxiang then said, “If you’d like, I would be more than happy to help you sell the treasures in an auction house. Not only can I tell the value of these treasures but I also know how to deal with auction houses.”

Yuan nodded without hesitation and handed her the spatial ring, “I will leave the treasures to you then.”

“I will immediately go and sell these now—”

“Wait a second, Feng Feng. Before you go, let me unseal the rest of this stuff.” Yuan quickly stopped her.

“I understand. Please take your time.”

Yuan immediately began working on the storage pouch, unsealing it a couple of minutes later.

“Heavens, there’s nothing but spirit stones in here! One thousand, two thousand... There’s a total of 10,000 spirit stones in here! That’s worth 100 million gold! I am rich! Ahahaha!”

Yuan started laughing out loud after realizing that he was suddenly rich.

Of course, that amount of gold really isn’t much, especially if they consider how much his own treasures were worth, but Xiao Hua and Feng Yuxiang remained silent so that Yuan could enjoy the moment.

After he calmed down, Yuan turned to look at Patriatch Gu’s last spatial ring.

“Nah, let’s take a look at what I obtained from the Blood Sect first since I don’t have to unseal those.”

Thus, Yuan began looking through the spatial rings and storage pouches he’d obtained from looting the Blood Sect.

There were around 120 spatial rings and storage pouches combined, and it took Yuan almost two hours sorting through everything.

He took the spirit stones for himself and handed the treasures worth over 100,000 gold to Feng Yuxiang to sell in an auction later.

As for the treasures worth less than 100,000 golds and the useful ones, he decided to keep them so that he could give them to the members of his faction later.

“What should we do with these techniques? Should we also sell them?” Yuan asked Feng Yuxiang.

“If it’s not a taboo technique, then it should be safe.” She nodded.

Chapter 713 - Destiny Seal

Chapter 713: Destiny Seal

“Taboo techniques? What is that? And how can I tell if a technique is taboo or not?” Yuan asked.

“Can I see the techniques?” Feng Yuxiang then asked.

“Here you go.” Yuan handed all of the Blood Sect’s techniques to her.

Feng Yuxiang looked at each of them and separated them into two different piles.

“The techniques on the right are normal techniques while the ones on the left are taboo techniques. You can tell the difference based on their aura. Taboo techniques all have a sinister aura.” Feng Yuxiang said.

“All techniques considered taboo by the heavens will automatically have this sinister aura, so even if you copy it on a new piece of paper, it would still have a sinister aura. As for how the heavens decide which technique is taboo... I have no idea.”

“I see... So we cannot sell the taboo techniques, right?”

“Well, that is not entirely correct. There is nothing stopping you from selling taboo techniques, but most places will refuse to buy them, so you can only sell them in the black market, but that is not recommended, and you could offend the heavens by selling them.”

“If we can’t sell them, what can we do with them?”

Feng Yuxiang pondered for a moment and said, “The most logical thing is to destroy them so that they don’t spread around, as it could cause chaos if someone evil acquires them. All taboo techniques have a high chance of making those that cultivate them crazy, after all.”

“Okay, I will destroy them.”

And without hesitation, Yuan ripped the techniques into many pieces.

Ding!

<You have earned the title ‘Taboo Technique Destroyer’!>

“You can sell those techniques, Feng Feng. I would keep them since they’re useful, especially the Bloody Sword Strike, but I don’t want my friends to use a technique that has taken away so many innocent lives.”

“Don’t worry, Young Master. Most of these techniques are pretty trash. Even an Earth-rank technique is nothing for you, who can acquire Heaven-rank techniques as easy as candy.”

After handing Feng Yuxiang everything from the Blood Sect, Yuan continued to examine Lord Blood’s spatial ring.

“1,000 spirit stones and some pills... How can the sect master of the Blood Sect be so poor?” Yuan shook his head after looking inside.

“He probably hid his treasures away, unlike the Gu Family that likes to walk around with their wealth.” Feng Yuxiang shrugged.

“Whatever. Let’s open up the last spatial ring and see what’s inside.”

Yuan proceeded to take a moment to clear his mind.

Once he was prepared, he started making the array.

A few minutes later, Yuan unsealed Patriarch Gu’s spatial ring and took a look inside.

“Whoa!”

Yuan’s eyes immediately began glistening.

“What is inside, Young Master?” Feng Yuxiang was also interested in Patriarch Gu’s spatial ring.

“Here, let me dump it out.”

He proceeded to dump out everything inside the spatial ring onto the table before them.

Very quickly, a mountain of treasures with a profound aura was created.

“Hmm... Not bad.” Feng Yuxiang nodded with approval after seeing the treasures.

“How much would I get from selling these?” Yuan quickly asked.

“It’s hard to tell, but you should get a few billion gold coins at the very least.”

“A few billion?!” Yuan’s eyes widened with shock.

With this much gold, he should be set for a very long time!

“Let’s sell them all!” Yuan then said.

“Wait a moment, Young Master. Let me see the treasures closely...”

Feng Yuxiang picked up a random treasure and inspected it.

A few moments later, she placed it down and said, “Young Master, that treasure contains the Gu Family’s destiny seal. We won’t be able to sell it until we remove it.”

“Huh? Destiny seal? What is that? Is it any different from the seals on spatial rings?”

Feng Yuxiang shook her head, “They are completely different. Although they function somewhat similarly, destiny seals are much more powerful, and they have a lot more restrictions.”

“Destiny seals can only be created by powerful families in the Nine Heavens, and if they put one inside a treasure, that would restrict anyone that is not part of their family bloodline from using it. They are not only impossible to sell even in black markets, but the buyer will most likely report you to the Gu Family for a reward.”

After hearing Feng Yuxiang’s explanation, Yuan pondered for a moment before asking, “Since it’s a seal, I should be able to remove it using arrays, right?”

“Yes, you can, but arrays that can remove destiny seals are incredibly rare and expensive. Even if you sell all of the treasures here, you probably won’t be able to purchase one. However, that’s not even the most difficult part, as it’s even more difficult to find a seller.”

“Now let’s say you somehow managed to buy one... You will probably need to become a level 4 or 5 Array Master before you can use the array.”

“Then what should I do with these treasures?” Yuan pointed at the mountain of treasures on the table.

“We can only wait until you are able to break the destiny seal, or we can find someone who knows how to remove them...” Feng Yuxiang said.

“Do you know anyone like that?”

Feng Yuxiang began pondering.

“When I escaped from the upper heavens, I had spent a few years in each realm to prepare myself. During my time here, I learned of a guy named Jia Chong, who was rumored to know how to remove destiny seals.”

“Do you know where we can find him?”

“I don’t, but I know someone who does.” Feng Yuxiang smiled.

And she continued, “A famous information broker who knows pretty much everything within the Spirit Heaven. However, he’ll charge you a lot of money, so you need to prepare for it.”

Yuan nodded, “Okay. Can you help me sell the treasures that we can sell?”

“It would be my pleasure.” Feng Yuxiang nodded with an eager smile.

Chapter 714 - Bright Night City

After organizing all of the treasures that she was going to sell, Feng Yuxiang prepared to leave to find an auction house.

“Young Master, I don’t know when I will be back, but I will do my best to return as swiftly as possible.”

“Wait, Feng Feng. Take Xiao Hua with you.” Yuan suddenly said to her.

“Brother Yuan?” Xiao Hua looked at him with a questioning gaze.

“Although Feng Feng is a peak Spirit Grandmaster, we’re no longer in the Lower Heavens where Spirit Grandmaster is the peak. There are many Spirit Lords and even Spirit Kings in this world, and I want to make sure that nothing happens to her when she’s out there. After all, she’s carrying a lot of treasure, which could attract bandits.”

“...Okay.” Xiao Hua nodded her head despite knowing very well that nobody could harm Feng Yuxiang, who is a Divine Beast, as she wanted Yuan to be free of worries.

“You don’t have to worry about me. I won’t be going anywhere until you return.” Yuan said to them.

“See you later, Brother Yuan.”

“Stay safe, Young Master!”

“I should be saying that to you.” Yuan smiled as he watched them leave the hotel.

After they left, Yuan retrieved the Ten Thousand Ghost Blades technique and started studying it.

Meanwhile, Feng Yuxiang and Xiao Hua left the city.

“The Young Master is very caring, don’t you think so too, Xiao Hua?” Feng Yuxiang said to her as they traveled in the sky.

“Even if I am a Spirit Grandmaster, I won’t die to any Spirit Lord or Spirit King because I am not an ordinary cultivator, but a Divine Beast.”

“That is just Brother Yuan’s nature. Even if you can’t die, he still wouldn’t like to see you hurt.”

“If only I’d met him sooner in the upper heavens, maybe I wouldn’t need to be cursed like this...” Feng Yuxiang sighed.

“Enough talking, phoenix. Let’s hurry up and sell these treasures so that I can return to Brother Yuan as soon as possible.” Xiao Hua said in a nonchalant voice.

“Yeah, yeah. We’ll have to take the teleportation device in the next city that we’ll arrive in if we continue traveling this direction.”

Xiao Hua didn’t say anything else and suddenly increased her flying speed.

Feng Yuxiang silently smiled and followed her without losing in speed. In fact, she was still casually following behind Xiao Hua.

As a phoenix, she is naturally superior when it comes to flying, even if she’s in her human form.

Many hours later, they arrived at this massive city that was still bustling with people despite it being past midnight.

“Xiao Hua, stop at that city. We’ve arrived.” Feng Yuxiang warned her as they approached this city.

They descended shortly after and began walking towards the city entrance.

“Welcome to the city that never sleeps— Bright Night City. This is one of the busiest and wealthiest cities in the Second Heaven. Money never stops flowing in this place, and it’s where most merchants and cultivators go to find rare or unique treasures. Of course, it is also home to one of the biggest auction house names in the Nine Heavens, the House of Riches.” Feng Yuxiang introduced the city to Xiao Hua, who wasn’t really interested.

“They have an auction at least once a week, so we should be able to sell our stuff quickly.”

After paying a fee at the entrance and doing a quick background check to make sure they weren’t criminals, they were allowed inside the city.

Once they were inside, Feng Yuxiang led Xiao Hua to the House of Riches, which was located in one of the wealthiest streets in the city and also had the largest building there.

Feng Yuxiang adjusted her clothes before walking into the building with a glamorous air around her that made people turn their heads and shift their gazes the moment she entered their view.

One glance at Feng Yuxiang and everybody there could tell that she was someone of importance— someone worth their attention and respect.

In less than a minute after entering the building and without needing to say a single word, Feng Yuxiang managed to capture the attention of the guests and workers in the House of Riches with her aura alone.

“Welcome to the House of Riches, Esteemed Guests. How can we assist you today?” A beautiful woman approached them shortly after.

Feng Yuxiang glanced at her and said in a calm and clear voice, “I am here to sell my treasures.”

“I understand. Please, follow me to the VIP room, where you can arrange an auction with one of our supervisors.”

Feng Yuxiang nodded and followed this woman to another room on the second floor.

“Our supervisor will be with you shortly. Please satisfy yourselves with our spiritual tea and snacks for the time being on that table there.”

Once the woman left, Feng Yuxiang and Xiao Hua sat on the soft couch and waited for this supervisor to show up.

Three minutes later, a middle-aged woman who emitted a profound aura entered the room.

Xiao Hua glanced at this woman, who was clearly a peak Spirit Lord.

“Hello, Esteemed Guests. I am Gu Xiulan, the manager of this House of Riches. I heard from one of my assistants that you would like to sell at our auction house. Rest assured, our House of Riches will not only guarantee you the lowest commission rates, but your treasure will also sell for the highest in our auction house out of all auction houses within this city and nearby cities.”

“That’s good to hear. The more money I get out of the treasures, the more pleased my Young Master will be.” Feng Yuxiang nodded calmly.

‘Y-Young Master? Someone of her quality is actually serving another person?’ Gu Xiulan was shocked to learn that Feng Yuxiang wasn’t actually in charge and that she was only a servant.

However, this information did not make Gu Xiulan look down on her. In fact, she became even more fearful as she imagined the kind of person that could tame a woman like Feng Yuxiang.

Even though this is their first meeting, Gu Xiulan could tell by her aura and demeanor alone that Feng Yuxiang was someone of high status and not someone to be trifled with, not to mention the little girl that was sitting beside her, who appeared to be even more dangerous.

Chapter 715 - House of Riches

Chapter 715: House of Riches

“Can you show me what you’re trying to sell?” Gu Xiulan asked them after a moment of silence.

Feng Yuxiang nodded and retrieved a treasure from her storage ring before placing it on the round table before them.

“T-This is...”

Gu Xiulan’s body trembled with shock upon seeing the treasure, and her eyes were wide with disbelief.

“This... Is this what I think it is...?” Gu Xiulan had to swallow her nervousness a couple of times before she could utter any words.

The House of Riches has existed for thousands of years, and being one of the most famous auction houses in this world, they have dealt with countless valuable and priceless treasures.

Gu Xiulan, while having worked at the House of Riches for only fifty years, has seen her fair share of valuable treasures, so there were not many treasures out that could excite her, much less shock her to such an extent.

However, seeing Feng Yuxiang’s treasure had shocked her so much that she forgot her position as the manager of the auction house.

“If you think this is the scale belonging to a Flood Dragon, then you are correct.” Feng Yuxiang smiled.

“How in heaven’s name did you acquire such a treasure? Flood Dragons are extremely rare, and they can only be found in the Fourth Heaven and above! Although I have never personally seen a Flood Dragon’s scale before, I have read about them, and according to its flawless surface that has no visible damages, this is a perfect scale!”

Flood Dragons are incredibly scarce and powerful magical beasts that belong to the dragon race, and they border between being a magical beast and a Divine Beast. Furthermore, most of them are born with a cultivation at Spirit Emperor, so many cultivators fear them.

“How I acquired it is none of your business. The question here is whether you want to sell this or not.”

“O-Of course!” Gu Xiulan immediately nodded her head. Even an idiot would not refuse to sell such a priceless treasure at their auction house.

“Good, but I have a few conditions. If you don’t accept these conditions, I will have to visit the next auction house.” Feng Yuxiang calmly said, as she was not worried about not being able to sell the Flood Dragon’s scale.

After all, any auction house that manages to sell such a priceless treasure would instantly become the most popular auction house for the next decade, even century, regardless of their status before.

“Anything! No matter your condition, I will make sure that it will happen!” Gu Xiulan said.

“It’s quite simple, actually. If you want me to sell the Flood Dragon’s scale in your auction house, you’ll have to sell these treasures alongside it.”

Feng Yuxiang placed another spatial ring on the table.

“May I look at it?” Gu Xiulan asked.

“Go ahead.” Feng Yuxiang opened the spatial ring to let her peek inside.

Gu Xiulan’s jaw dropped when she saw the sheer amount of treasures in the spatial ring. Although they were not as valuable as the Flood Dragon’s scale even when combined, it was the number that terrified her.

“This... Although I don’t mind selling them, it will take some time to sell all of them...”

“One week. I want you to sell all of them in one week. I don’t care how you do it. You can sell them across different auction houses, or you can open the auction house everyday. I will let you decide.” Feng Yuxiang said.

“Rest assured. I will make sure that all of the treasures in this spatial ring are turned to spirit stones within a week or less. I will put my name and reputation on the line.” Gu Xiulan said with a serious face.

“And in case you want to steal from my Young Master, just know that I have calculated approximately how much I can get for selling all of the treasures at its lowest price. I will also be watching the sales.”

“T-That will never happen! I am willing to put my life on the line! The House of Riches has existed for thousands of years, but we have never once stolen even a single copper coin from our dear customers! You can rest assured that you will receive every coin that it was sold for, not including the commission rates.”

“And speaking of commission rates, the House of Riches has a 10 percent commission fee, but I will make an exception for you by lowering it to 5 percent.”

However, Feng Yuxiang shook her head and said, “That won’t do.”

“Eh?”

Feng Yuxiang pointed at the Flood Dragon’s scale and said with a gentle smile on her face, “Make it one percent. Even with one percent, you’ll earn more than a month’s worth of fee just from the scale alone. If I give it to another auction house—one that is less prestigious, they might even sell it for free. It’s honor and reputation that’s the most important to an auction house that’s already as wealthy as the House of Riches, right?”

A bittersweet smile appeared on Gu Xiulan's face as she spoke, "I cannot argue with that. Very well, I shall lower the commission fee to 1 percent."

Even if Feng Yuxiang asked her to remove the commission fee completely, she would have still agreed. That's just how rare and precious the Flood Dragon's scale is. However, Feng Yuxiang had no reason to bully the House of Riches, so she spared them one percent of the sales.

As for the Flood Dragon's scale itself, of course, it wasn't part of what Yuan gave her to sell. It was something from her own collection that she'd acquired from the upper heavens, but in order to help Yuan sell his treasures as quickly and efficiently as possible, she decided to part ways with the treasure.

"Esteemed Guests, one last thing before we sell the treasures. Would you like to remain anonymous for the treasures? Most specifically, the Flood Dragon's scale." Gu Xiulan asked a moment later.

"Yes, sell them anonymously," she quickly responded.

"I understand."

Chapter 716 - Flood Dragon's Scale

Chapter 716: Flood Dragon's Scale

"I will go ahead and put all of these treasures on the priority sales list if you don't have anything else for me. If you wish to receive updates regarding the sales or have any other questions, you may visit our auction house at any time of the day and we'll assist you." Gu Xiulan said.

"I look forward to the results." Feng Yuxiang stood up and left the place shortly after, leaving behind her treasures for the auction house to sell.

"That woman... Do you think she's part of the Gu Family?" Xiao Hua asked after they left.

"Who knows. Gu is a very common surname, but the fact that she's working as the manager for a place like House of Riches suggests that she comes from a prestigious background." Feng Yuxiang said.

"Anyways, we have a week to spare. Do you have anything you want to do?"

Xiao Hua shook her head.

"Then I will go shopping. I need to restock medicine so the Young Master can continue to temper his body. You don't have to follow me if you don't want to. I will be fine by myself."

"Brother Yuan told me to protect you, so that is what I will do."

Feng Yuxiang shrugged nonchalantly, "As you wish."

After Feng Yuxiang and Xiao Hua left the auction house, Gu Xiulan immediately began preparing for the Flood Dragon's scale's auction, spreading its name far and wide until it reached even the most secluded areas in the Spirit Heaven, which was achieved in just three short days.

The news of House of Riches auctioning a Flood Dragon's scale spread like wildfire and caught the interest of almost all powerful families and backgrounds in the Spirit Heaven.

Not only has a Flood Dragon's scale never been sold in the Spirit Heaven before, but it was even a flawless scale.

However, if the Flood Dragon's scale was just rare, then it wouldn't create such hype.

A Flood Dragon's scale has many uses, and one of them is to increase the innate talent of cultivators that have water attribute spiritual veins. This effect alone is more than enough to make cultivators with water spirit veins go crazy, but they can also be used to craft high and peak quality Divine-grade treasures.

Any treasure that can increase a cultivator's talent, no matter how minimal its effect, would make any cultivators go crazy for it. After all, even if it increases someone's talent by one percent, some people only need just that much to break through their bottleneck and reach a new realm that wouldn't have been possible.

The largest families in the Spirit Heaven, the Seven Spirit Academies, and even hidden backgrounds began preparing for the auction that will definitely be unprecedented.

Meanwhile, somewhere in the Spirit Heaven, a group of high-ranking sect elders and the sect master gathered for a meeting.

The topic was, obviously, the Flood Dragon's scale.

"Should we participate in the auction and try to fight for the Flood Dragon's scale?" The Sect Master asked the elders.

“As much as I want our sect to obtain it... It’s going to be a bloody battle.”

“We can expect the other sects and even the Legacy Families to show up for this auction.”

“An auction of this scale... It’s going to be brutal for our finances. Hell, I’m not even sure that we’ll be able to win the auction.”

After listening to the elders’ feedback, the Sect Master nodded, “Alright, we’ll show up to the auction and set a maximum budget for the treasure. I also highly doubt we’ll be able to secure the Flood Dragon’s scale, but we have to try.”

Similar scenes happened throughout the Spirit Heaven within many families and sects.

While Gu Xiulan waited for the news to spread, she received a summoning call from her family.

“I assume the reason you called me back here is because of the Flood Dragon’s scale?” Gu Xiulan stood before the patriarch of the family.

“Yes, but that is not the only reason. We’ve just received a message from the Gu Family within the Lower Heavens. Those incompetent idiots had been robbed by someone that climbed the Stairway to Heaven shortly after, and they want us to kill the bandit and retrieve their treasures since these bandits are no longer in the Lower Heavens.”

Gu Xiulan raised her eyebrows.

“First of all... Why is it any of our business that they had been robbed? Should we also wipe their ass when they finish using the bathroom?” She asked.

The patriarch rubbed his temples in a stressed manner and sighed, “You see... This is not a simple robbery. They had been robbed of their family heirloom and amongst other valuable stuff.”

“What? Their heirloom had been robbed? Does that include the Gu Family’s legacy techniques?” Gu Xiulan was stunned to hear this.

“What a bunch of useless idiots! Even if they’re asking for our help, how can we possibly find the bandits in this vast world? It’ll be like looking for a needle in a haystack! If the Stairway to Heaven didn’t break, we could’ve found them easily because people rarely ascend nowadays. However, because the stairway is broken, we’ve had tens of thousands of newcomers in the last couple of days!”

The patriarch then said, “Since the bandits stole their treasure, there is a very good chance that they’ll be trying to sell the treasures. You work in the Houses of Riches, so you should have connections to many auction houses around Spirit Heaven. I will give you a list of the items that were stolen—at least the most notable ones. If they try to sell it at an auction, we will know.”

“Furthermore, we have their names and descriptions of their appearances. Min Li, Yuan, and Feng Yuxiang. As for their description...”

The patriarch began recalling all of the information given to him by the Gu Family in the Lower Heaven.

“Alright, I will spread this information to my associates.” Gu Xiulan nodded.

Chapter 717 - Helping Yuan

Chapter 717: Helping Yuan

‘A beautiful woman who wears seductive red robes and a little girl? They sound just like the esteemed guests with the Flood Dragon’s scale...’ Gu Xiulan thought about Feng Yuxiang and Xiao Hua after hearing their description.

However, she didn’t think for a second that it could actually be them. After all, how could someone that can sell a Flood Dragon’s scale be bandits? A single Flood Dragon’s scale is already worth more than what the entire Gu Family in the Lower Heavens own. There was simply no reason why they would rob the Gu Family.

Furthermore, neither Feng Yuxiang or Xiao Hua look like bandits. They were simply too high-class and noble to do something so lowly.

“Now let’s move onto the Flood Dragon’s scale. Do you know the identity of the seller? If our Gu Family can start a connection with them, that would be great.” The patriarch said.

Gu Xiulan shook her head, “Unfortunately, they didn’t provide me with their identity, and I didn’t dare to ask them since they seem to prefer staying anonymous.”

“That’s really unfortunate, indeed. Then can you tell me a little more about your encounter with them?”

Gu Xiulan nodded and proceeded to recall her conversation with them at the auction house.

“If this woman is really as you describe, her master must be an extraordinary individual.”

“The woman who did most of the talking should be a peak Spirit Grandmaster. The little girl beside her was at least Spirit Lord, but I am not certain since she hid her aura. It was a really weird encounter.” Gu Xiulan said.

“If you cannot see her aura, how are you so sure that she’s at least Spirit Lord?”

“You would understand it if you were there. I couldn’t sense her cultivation aura, but she had this cold aura around her that only killers would have. I was barely able to keep my focus with her staring at me the entire time.”

“She could be that woman’s bodyguard.”

“That’s what I thought too at first, but she just didn’t seem like a bodyguard. If you ask me, she felt more like a spectator... a bored one...”

“Forget it. The next time you meet, try to form a connection with them. If unsuccessful, just learn as much as you can about their identity. If they’re unwilling to become our allies, they could potentially become our enemies.”

Sometime later, Gu Xiulan said, “Is this all you have for me? I would like to return to the auction house since I still have a lot of treasures that I need to sell.”

“You may leave.”

Thus, Gu Xiulan left the place.

Although Gu Xiulan belongs to the Gu Family, she isn’t really a direct descendant of the Gu Family. In fact, while many people from the Gu Family may have their surname, it doesn’t mean that they share the same blood.

Therefore, she couldn't really care less about the Gu Family's problems, especially if they are not in the same realm. However, since she was asked by the patriarch, she has to try looking for the bandits at the very least.

Meanwhile, Feng Yuxiang went on a shopping spree in the Spirit Heaven, traveling from city to city with Xiao Hua to stock up on her treasures.

However, since she planned on using the treasures on Yuan, they can also be considered Yuan's treasures.

In fact, Feng Yuxiang had spent so much money that it made even Xiao Hua raise her eyebrows.

"Why are you buying so many treasures when Brother Yuan mentioned multiple times that he doesn't want to rely on you for everything? Once you sell all the treasures, he won't need to rely on you for a while." She eventually asked out of curiosity.

Feng Yuxiang smiled and said, "While that may be true, with his talents, he will eventually run out of money again. You know the saying 'the more talented, the more expenses'? With the Young Master's ridiculous talents, he will need an immense amount of wealth to properly train himself in the future, and that is where I come in."

"Although he doesn't like to rely on others for now, I believe that he will eventually rely more on us."

"What if Brother Yuan refuses to rely on us even in the future?" Xiao Hua then asked.

"Then I will help him from the shadows! If he doesn't know that we're helping him, it won't count as helping him!" Feng Yuxiang chuckled.

Xiao Hua was speechless.

"Brother Yuan will be angry if he finds out."

"What's the harm? It's not like I intend to spoon-feed him. I am just going to assist him ever so slightly whenever I can. For example, after we finish selling the treasure, I am going to give the Young Master a little more than what the treasures sold for, and there will be no way for him to know about it unless one of us tells him.”

“...”

Xiao Hua looked at her with a dumbfounded face.

“Why are you looking at me like that? You also want to help him, don’t you? Unfortunately, the Young Master is still very naive, inexperienced, and very stubborn, so this is the only way we can help him.”

“If we don’t do this, we’ll never feel useful to him, and he will eventually reach that point where he’ll no longer need us. We need to take advantage of our current situation while we still can.”

Feng Yuxiang suddenly extended her hand that was holding a storage pouch, offering it to Xiao Hua.

“This is no different from that time when you went to the upper heavens to acquire Celestial Water for him. The only downside is that we won’t be praised for our efforts since he won’t know we helped him, but I will be satisfied just knowing that I had helped him.”

“What do you say, Xiao Hua? Let’s help the Young Master together.”

Seeing Feng Yuxiang’s serious face, Xiao Hua returned her gaze while pondering in silence.

After a moment of silence, Xiao Hua eventually accepted the storage pouch from Feng Yuxiang.

Feng Yuxiang immediately smiled, and she said, “Then it’s official! Let’s call this Operation Help the Young Master in Secret!”

“Don’t be mistaken, phoenix. I am only doing this for Brother Yuan.” Xiao Hua quickly said.

She added a second later, “And I prefer Operation Help Brother Yuan.”

“That’s the spirit!” Feng Yuxiang chuckled.

Chapter 718 - Rematch

Chapter 718: Rematch

“What do you want me to do with this?” Xiao Hua lifted the storage pouch Feng Yuxiang gave her.

“Oh, there’s nothing but spirit stones inside. You can help me— the Young Master buy medicine for his body temperament.” Feng Yuxiang replied.

“You want me to go shopping with you...?” Xiao Hua mumbled.

Feng Yuxiang pondered for a moment before speaking, “How about this? Let’s have a rematch. I lost the previous one because you technically cheated by going to the upper heavens. This time, whoever purchases the most treasures will win.”

“That’s not fair.” Xiao Hua immediately frowned. “You have already spent 3 days buying many treasures.”

“Don’t worry, I won’t count those. I will also start from scratch, and I will limit my budget to your budget as well. How does that sound? That’s fair, right?”

“I guess...”

“But let me be really clear this time! You are not allowed to go to the upper heavens to purchase treasures! And the treasures purchased must be for body tempering!”

“I won’t.”

“Good! Then I will meet you at the House of Riches in four days, when the Flood Dragon’s scale is going to be auctioned off. May the best shopper win!”

After that, Feng Yuxiang and Xiao Hua went their separate ways, but they both had the same objective— to acquire as many treasures as possible.

Meanwhile, back at the hotel, Chu Liuxiang came out of her room after a week of studying her techniques.

“How’s your progress?” Yuan asked her.

“I managed to learn one of the techniques, but the other one might take a little bit longer. Despite both being Heaven-rank techniques, the Glacial Ice Dragon is much more complex. However, even if I learn both skills, I won’t be able to use either of them at my cultivation. I simply don’t have enough Qi.”

“I should really start cultivating properly. I am already behind as it is.” Chu Liuxiang sighed.

“Once Feng Feng finishes selling the treasures, I will be able to buy resources to boost your cultivation level.” Yuan said.

“As much as I like the feeling of being spoiled by you, I don’t like the feeling of taking advantage of you. Is there anything you want in return?”

“Not really. I don’t need any compensation for helping you, or it won’t feel like I am helping you.”

“It’s not a compensation. If you do me a favor, it’s only natural that I return the favor. It’s called expressing one’s gratitude, and that is being polite.”

“Even if I say that, there’s nothing that I want— at least I can’t think of anything right now.” Yuan shook his head.

“That’s okay. You can let me know once you think of something. Until then, I will be indebted to you.” Chu Liuxiang smiled.

“By the way, how’s your situation with your family? It’s almost the end of the month, you know?” Yuan suddenly asked.

A bittersweet smile appeared on her face as she spoke, “Their calls are becoming more frequent, and of course, my family is getting angrier.”

“It’s alright though. I will visit them at the end of this week to let them know my feelings,” she added.

“Okay.” Yuan nodded.

Sometime later, Yuan placed the level 3 array symbol manual down and asked Chu Liuxiang, “Do you want to get some food? I have watched thousands of people enter and leave this restaurant that’s directly across from us.”

“Sure. I need some fresh air, anyway.”

“What about you, Yingying?”

Lan Yingying transformed back to her human form and nodded, “Yes.”

“Let me ask Min as well.”

Yuan went to her room and knocked on her door.

“Min, we’re going to get some food. Would you like to come with us?”

Min Li’s voice responded a moment later, “Thank you for the invitation, but I am very close to a breakthrough.”

“Oh, sorry if I bothered you. And good luck with your breakthrough.”

Yuan left the hotel with Chu Liuxiang and Lan Yingying shortly after.

After walking a few steps, they arrived at the restaurant that was across from their hotel.

“Welcome to our humble restaurant. How many guests today?”

“Just the three of us.”

“Very well. Please, follow me to your table.”

Once they sat down, the waitress gave them a menu.

However, without even accepting the menu, Yuan said, “Just give us one of everything on the menu.”

“Eh? Are you sure?” The waitress looked at him with a baffled face.

“Yes.”

“I-I understand. Please wait a moment.”

The waitress went away and returned a couple of minutes later.

“This will be total. Are you okay with it?”

Yuan glanced at the bill and nodded, “Here, I will pay upfront. You can keep the change as well.”

“T-Thank you very much! The food will be here shortly!” The waitress quickly accepted Yuan’s gold coins without hesitation.

Once the waitress left, Chu Liuxiang smiled, “You sure are spending lavishly now that you’re rich.”

Yuan chuckled, “That’s not it. The higher my cultivation, the higher my appetite seems. If I don’t eat that much, I won’t feel satisfied.”

“Really? How come my appetite doesn’t increase?” Chu Liuxiang raised her eyebrows.

“Perhaps it has something to do with your physique.” Lan Yingying said.

“My physique also increases my appetite as my cultivation increases,” she added.

“That makes more sense. By the way, are you okay with not eating? I haven’t seen you consume magical beasts in a while.” Yuan asked.

She nodded, “Yes, I am fine. It’s not like I feel hunger if I don’t eat, and I don’t consume magical beasts to satisfy my hunger. It’s only to increase my cultivation. Also, I can not eat for months and remain perfectly fine. My increased appetite simply means that I can eat more if I decide to eat. Furthermore, I have already feasted enough when I traveled with Feng Yuxiang and Xiao Hua.”

“That’s good to hear. If you ever feel like eating, just let me know and I will go hunt some magical beasts with you.” Yuan said.

“Thank you.”

The food appeared shortly after, and they began eating.

While they ate, Yuan overheard the conversation of a few customers regarding an upcoming and unprecedented auction for a priceless treasure, which piqued his interest.

Chapter 719 - Powerhouses Gathering

Chapter 719: Powerhouses Gathering

“I heard the House of Riches in Bright Night City is preparing for their biggest auction since their creation!”

“Really? What are they selling this time?”

“What the heck is that? But since it has the word dragon in its name, it must be very valuable...”

“According to the rumors, the Flood Dragon’s scale can increase a cultivator’s innate talent if they have water spirit veins.”

“What?! Increasing one’s innate talent?! That’s a priceless treasure!”

“Indeed. Pretty much every powerhouse is going to participate in the auction.”

“Good heavens. It’s going to be a bloodbath! I can’t even imagine how much money it will sell for.”

After hearing this conversation, Yuan turned to look at Chu Liuxiang and said, “Lulu, this Flood Dragon’s scale is perfect for you. Even though you have ice spiritual veins, it should still work on you since your ice element is just a superior version of the water element.”

“You’re going to participate in this auction? It sounds very expensive...”
Chu Liuxiang said.

Yuan showed his spatial ring with a smile on his face, “I have plenty of money!”

Neither Yuan nor Chu Liuxiang was aware of the Flood Dragon’s scale’s true value. If they did, they wouldn’t even think about trying to participate in the auction.

“I have almost 20,000 spirit stones. That’s worth 200 million gold coins. Surely, that’s more than enough to buy this treasure, right? Even a Heaven-grade treasure is only worth at most 50 million.” Yuan said.

“We’ll find out when we get there, I guess.” Chu Liuxiang shrugged.

“What about the others?” Lan Yingying said. “You told them that you wouldn’t leave the hotel...”

“Well... We don’t know when they’ll return, and we might miss the auction if we wait for them. I will leave a note behind if they return while we are away so that they don’t panic about our disappearance.”

Chu Liuxiang then said, “There’s actually a good chance that we’ll run into them since they will also be selling their treasures in an auction house.”

“Now that you mention it, that could also happen.” Yuan said.

Once they finished eating, they returned to the hotel.

Yuan immediately began writing his note for the others.

“Since Min is busy with her cultivation, I won’t bother her. Are you guys ready to leave?” Yuan asked them afterward.

“Do you even know where to go?” Chu Liuxiang then asked.

“Oh, I nearly forgot. It’s a city called Bright Night City. Can either of you read maps?” Yuan handed them the jade slip containing a map.

“I can try.” Lan Yingying said as she took the jade slip.

A few moments later, she spoke, “It’s a little far from this place, but we should arrive there by the end of the day if we use teleportation devices.”

“Alright, you’ll lead the way.” Yuan said.

Before they left, Yuan placed the note on the table and used a cup to hold it down to ensure that it wouldn’t move anywhere.

Thus, Yuan began making his way towards Bright Night City with Lan Yingying and Chu Liuxiang.

Meanwhile, somewhere in the Spirit Healing Academy, Wang Xiuying went to look for her Master after being summoned.

“Disciple Wang greets Master.” Wang Xiuying bowed to her Master at the sect, who was a beautiful middle-aged woman with a naturally cold face.

“Xiuying, I will be leaving the sect for a couple of days to participate in the Flood Dragon’s scale’s auction with the sect master.”

“Oh, I heard about that! It’s a priceless treasure that can improve one’s innate talent, is that correct?”

“Yes, but it has many other purposes as well, such as being used to create the Flood Dragon Pill that can directly boost a peak Spirit Lord to a Spirit King with 90 percent efficiency! However, since it’s a flawless scale, it should have more than 95 percent efficiency!”

“I-Is that so...” Wang Xiuying mumbled in a dazed voice. She has never seen her Master so excited before.

“Want to come with us? It will be a unique experience for you since all of the powerhouses will be present for the auction, and they are some of the most powerful people in this world.”

“I want to go!” Wang Xiuying immediately nodded her head.

“Alright. Get ready. We’re leaving in an hour.”

Ten hours later, Yuan arrived at the Bright Night City.

“Wow, there’s a lot of people here...” Yuan cannot recall the last time he saw this many people gathered in one place.

However, the most impressive part was that they were mostly flying in the air and the profound atmosphere there.

“Most of them are emitting a powerful aura as well... They must all be cultivation experts.” Chu Liuxiang couldn’t stop shivering, as the atmosphere caused by these experts was too intense for a Spirit Apprentice like her.

“Are you okay?” Yuan asked her.

“Yes... It just feels a little harder to breathe than usual...”

Hearing her words, Yuan used his spiritual energy to cover her body.

Chu Liuxiang immediately felt better.

“Do you feel any better?” Yuan asked.

“Yes, I feel much better. Thank you.”

“What about you, Yingying?”

“I am fine. The pressure doesn’t affect me.”

“That’s good to hear.” Yuan said, and he continued, “Now that we’re here, let’s figure out where and when the auction will take place.”

“Okay.” The ladies nodded.

After entering the city, they began asking around.

“Hello, do you know where the Flood Dragon’s scale’s auction will take place? Or where I can find more information on it?” Yuan asked a couple of pedestrians the same question.

One of them replied, “You can learn more about the auction at the House of Riches. Besides that, I don’t really know anything, since this auction is not going to be public.”

“What do you mean it’s not going to be public?” Yuan raised his eyebrows.

“It means that only those invited and influential enough are allowed to participate in the auction. After all, an auction of this significance will attract too many people, so they are only limiting it to people that are actually wealthy enough to participate.”

“I see... That makes sense. Thank you.”

Chapter 720 - Invitation to the Auction

Chapter 720: Invitation to the Auction

Now that he knew where to go, Yuan and the others made their way to the House of Riches.

However, there were so many pedestrians out in the street that it made walking extremely difficult and bothersome.

“Why are there so many people? Since the auction is exclusive, they have no business crowding up the streets!” Chu Liuxiang sighed.

“They probably want to meet some of the powerhouses that came here for the auction. It’s really rare for them to appear in public like this, much less this many at once, so they want to use this chance to change their fate. They might never get another chance, after all.” Lan Yingying said.

“That makes a lot of sense.” Chu Liuxiang mumbled.

“Let’s fly since we won’t be able to go anywhere like it.” Yuan suggested.

A few moments later, Yuan carried Chu Liuxiang into the air while Lan Yingying followed him.

“Wow! What young experts!”

The pedestrians were awed when they saw Yuan and Lan Yingying flying without any flying treasures, meaning they were Spirit Grandmasters and above.

Sometime later, Yuan arrived at the House of Riches, which was incredibly easy to spot due to how many experts were gathered there.

“Hmm? Who is that? Do you recognize him, Sect Master Jing?”

“No, I don’t.”

The experts there began mumbling to each other when Yuan and Lan Yingying showed up, as they had never seen either of them before.

“Excuse me, is this where we get our invitation to the auction?” Yuan asked one of the experts there.

“Hm? Yeah. Someone from the auction house should be giving us more information in a bit.”

“Thank you.”

“By the way, who are you with? I know most Spirit Lords, but I don’t recognize you.” The man then asked him.

“I’m a rogue cultivator.” Yuan said with a smile.

“A rogue cultivator...?” The man raised his eyebrows.

How can a Spirit Lord at his age possibly be a rogue cultivator? Even a blind man could tell that he was lying. However, the man didn’t continue to question him and accepted it as it is. After all, if a cultivator wants to remain anonymous, their wish should be respected.

A few minutes later, someone from the House of Riches appeared before them and said out loud, “Thank you all for showing interest in our upcoming auction for the Flood Dragon’s scale. However, in order to not overwhelm the auction, we have decided to limit the number of participants. In order to receive an invite, you must show us proof of your identity and that you belong to a prominent background. If you wish to remain anonymous, you must prove to us that you have the qualifications to participate in the auction. Therefore, we will ask that you show us at least 500,000 spirit stones or treasures of that value.”

‘F-Five hundred thousand spirit stones?!?!?’ Yuan cried inwardly when he heard this astronomical number.

“Yuan...” Chu Liuxiang looked at him with a worried face. “How much did you say you brought again? 20,000...?”

A bittersweet smile appeared on Yuan’s face when he realized that he’d severely underestimated the Flood Dragon’s scale’s worth.

Unless he sold all of the Gu Family’s treasures, he wouldn’t even be able to participate in the auction. Of course, he could just show them the Gu Family’s treasures that should be worth a few billion gold, but it was incredibly risky because of the destiny seals in the treasures.

However, since he was already here, he didn’t want to go back empty handed.

Yuan decided that he will at the very least witness this auction even if he doesn’t manage to win the Flood Dragon’s scale.

Thus, Yuan began pondering about what he had on him that was worth 500,000 spirit stones, excluding the Gu Family’s treasures.

‘Actually... Now that I think about it, I should have a few valuable treasures. Although I don’t know their full value, let’s hope they are worth more than 500,000 spirit stones... If not, I still have one last trick up my sleeve...’

Yuan looked at Chu Liuxiang and said, “Don’t worry, we should be able to participate.”

While the House of Riches verified the experts there one by one, Yuan waited anxiously for his turn.

Half an hour later, it was finally their turn.

“Hello. Would you like to show us your identity or your qualifications?” The pretty woman asked Yuan with a calm smile.

“I’d like to show my qualifications.” Yuan said as he retrieved a colorful plant from his spatial ring.

“T-This is...” The woman’s eyes widened with surprise when she saw the plant in Yuan’s hands.

“Correct me if I am wrong, but is this the Seven Colored Herb?” She asked him for confirmation in a shaky voice.

“Yes, it is. Can I get an invitation with this, or do I need to show more?” Yuan asked, silently hoping that it was enough.

“O-Of course!”

To their surprise, the woman quickly approved.

“Really?”

It was so easy that Yuan was in disbelief.

“Yes. Here’s your invitation letter. The auction will begin in two days. The location and time of the auction is already written inside the letter. Good luck at the auction, esteemed guest.” The woman bowed to him in a respectful manner.

Yuan accepted the letter and quickly stored it back into his spatial ring alongside the Seven Colored Herb.

They left the scene shortly after to find a hotel, where they can stay for the next two days.

“Wow, you surprised me back there, Yuan. What did you show her?” Chu Liuxiang asked him out of curiosity after they sat down in the hotel.

“This.” Yuan showed her the Seven Colored Herb.

“This little plant is worth more than 500,00 spirit stones? That’s 5 billion gold coins! I don’t believe it!” She expressed her disbelief.

“I don’t know what to tell you since I also didn’t expect it to be worth so much money. However, Xiao Hua was very excited when we first acquired it, and she doesn’t get excited easily.” Yuan shrugged.

Chapter 721 - Royal Hall

Chapter 721: Royal Hall

“How did you acquire it?” Chu Liuxiang asked out of curiosity.

“Well, it started when we met this man in front of a cave...” Yuan proceeded to recall his experience with the Demonic Spider.

“That’s... very tragic...” Chu Liuxiang sighed in a dispirited voice after hearing the story.

“Hearing your story makes me wonder... Does it hurt more for the parents to lose their children, or does it hurt more for the children when they lose their parents?”

“I don’t think we can gauge pain...” Yuan shook his head.

“Yuan, have you ever thought about meeting your parents? Your biological parents, I mean.”

“Not really. I never had the time to worry about such things, either. They abandoned me for a reason, and there’s no point thinking about it since it’s already happened.”

“You’re not even slightest curious why they abandoned you? I sometimes wonder why they really abandoned me.” Chu Liuxiang sighed again, and she continued, “Unfortunately, we might never be able to find the answer even if we wanted to ask them. For all we know, they could be dead right now. Even if they’re not, it’s almost impossible to look for them.”

Yuan smiled bitterly and said, “Let’s stop thinking about such depressing things. Your hair will turn white from stress.”

“Alright, I am going to study my techniques. Call me when it’s time to go.” Chu Liuxiang said as she retrieved her techniques and began reading them.

“I also need to finish absorbing the magical beasts I consumed before.” Lan Yingying said as she turned into a bracelet around his wrist.

Yuan didn’t say anything else and returned to studying his arrays.

Two days passed in the blink of an eye.

“Lulu, it’s almost time for the auction.” Yuan called out to her.

“Let’s go!”

Thus, they began making their way towards the auction, which will be held in another location that will have a higher capacity for the guests.

Meanwhile, Feng Yuxiang and Xiao Hua met up with each other in front of the House of Riches around the same time.

“How did your shopping go?” Feng Yuxiang asked her with a confident face.

“...”

Xiao Hua didn’t say anything and handed the spatial ring with the treasures she bought inside to Feng Yuxiang.

Feng Yuxiang quickly checked the contents, and it was lacking in terms of quantity. However, in terms of quality, the treasures Xiao Hua bought were much better in general.

“I see... So you picked quality over quantity, huh? Unfortunately, I have won this rematch!” Feng Yuxiang said in a proud voice as she handed her spatial ring to Xiao Hua.

Xiao Hua frowned slightly and looked at the spatial ring, and to her surprise, Feng Yuxiang had a lot more treasures than her while keeping its quality about the same.

“You must be thinking that I had cheated, right? After all, how can I possibly acquire so much more treasures with the same quality while having the same budget?”

Although Xiao Hua didn’t say anything, she indeed doubted if Feng Yuxiang had cheated for a moment.

“Xiao Hua, it’s simply a difference in experience. You most likely bought those treasures at their full price, right? Well, I convinced the merchants to sell the treasures at a lower price, allowing me to buy more with the same budget. Furthermore, I didn’t buy them in regular stores, since you can usually get treasures of the same quality with a merchant that works alone, and they’re easier to haggle with.” Feng Yuxiang explained, displaying her years of experience as a merchant in full, even bragging about it a little.

“...”

After hearing Feng Yuxiang’s explanation, Xiao Hua had no choice but to accept her defeat this time. She wasn’t the type to haggle with others, nor has she done so before, so she was at a severe disadvantage for this match.

“Now that we both have a win and loss, we’re tied. I look forward to our next match” Feng Yuxiang then said.

“I won’t lose next time.” Xiao Hua said in a calm voice, yet her fierce expression was dead serious.

“Neither will I.” Feng Yuxiang said with a smile.

Thus, the rivalry between Feng Yuxiang and Xiao Hua to become Yuan’s number one servant officially began.

“Esteemed guests! You came just at the right time! I was just about to head to the auction. Do you want to join me?” Gu Xiulan was pleasantly surprised to see them standing in front of the auction house.

“Sure.” Feng Yuxiang nodded.

While they journeyed, Gu Xiulan said to them, “Regarding the sales of the treasures, we have managed to sell all of them besides the Flood Dragon’s scale, which will be sold by today. In total, the treasures managed to sell for a little over 60,000 spirit stones.”

“Good.” Feng Yuxiang replied in a nonchalant manner.

Although Gu Xiulan didn’t mention it, nor would she, most of the treasures were actually bought by the auction house itself.

After all, with the Flood Dragon’s scale’s upcoming auction, most of the wealthy families have decided to save as much money as they can for the auction, making it pretty hard to sell the lesser valued treasures even for a renowned auction house like the House of Riches.

In fact, the House of Riches even bought most of the treasures at a higher price than usual just to satisfy Feng Yuxiang.

And although the House of Riches will be losing some money even if they manage to sell all of the treasures in the future when everything has calmed down, they do not regret their actions as long as it satisfies Feng Yuxiang.

About an hour later, they arrive at the location of the auction. It was in a nearby city, where there was a massive building that could hold thousands of guests with ease.

This building was built for important meetings for the Seven Legacy Families, the Seven Spirit Academies, among other powerful backgrounds, but it will be used as an auction house just for the Flood Dragon’s scale.

“Welcome to the Royal Hall, Esteemed Guests.” Gu Xiulan said to them when they arrived.

Chapter 722 - Flood Dragon's Scale Auction

Chapter 722: Flood Dragon's Scale Auction

“Here are the VIP seats, Esteemed Guests. I have to prepare for the auction, so I will excuse myself now.” Gu Xiulan said to Feng Yuxiang after showing her the best seats in the house.

Feng Yuxiang and Xiao Hua took a seat shortly after, and their presence immediately attracted the gazes of the people that were already there, all of whom were considered VIP, such as the Seven Legacy Families and the Seven Spirit Academies.

“Excuse me, beautiful fairy. I know this is audacious of me, but I do not recognize you. Please spare me of this guilt by telling me your name.” A handsome man sitting two seats away from them suddenly asked Feng Yuxiang with this charming smile.

But before Feng Yuxiang could respond, he continued to speak, “Oh, how disrespectful of me. I am the sect master of the Universal Music Academy, Sun Hao.”

“...”

Unfortunately, Feng Yuxiang didn't even bother to spare him a single word, much less her name.

Some of the people there began laughing in a suppressed manner when they saw Sun Hao's flushed face and embarrassed expression.

To dare disrespect one of Seven Spirit Academies' Sect Masters in such a manner, the people there became even more interested in Feng Yuxiang's identity.

'Huh? Aren't those two...?' Wang Xiuying recognized Feng Yuxiang and Xiao Hua.

She remembered seeing them with Yuan at the Mystic Realm. And while it was only for a brief moment, their attractive appearances made it easy for her to remember.

'What are they doing here? Wait... Does this mean Yuan is also here? He ascended to Spirit Heaven recently, too.' Wang Xiuying immediately became excited at the possibility that Yuan was nearby, as it has been a long time since they have seen each other.

She began looking around for Yuan, but sadly, the VIP section was separated from the others, making it very difficult to look for him.

As for Yuan, he sat down with Lan Yingying and Chu Liuxiang the moment they found three available seats so they could sit together, and their seats were all the way at the end of the conference room, where the auction is being held.

"Wow, this feels like we're at an important meeting." Chu Liuxiang mumbled in a low voice.

"The atmosphere and the building's interior does give off that feeling." Yuan agreed with her.

Half an hour later, Gu Xiulan appeared before everyone in the center of the building, where a large circular platform existed.

"Welcome, everyone! Thank you all for coming to our auction today on such short notice! My name is Gu Xiulan, and I have been a manager at the House of Riches for over 5 decades. It is with great honor that I bring to you today a priceless treasure that can only be found in the Fourth Heaven and above—the scale of a Flood Dragon!"

The audience immediately became dead silent when Gu Xiulan started talking.

‘Gu Xiulan...? Is she part of the Gu Family or am I just being paranoid? Gu is a common surname, after all...’ Yuan thought to himself when he heard her name.

“Before I continue, allow me to show you all the Flood Dragon’s scale.”

Everyone there focused their gazes on Gu Xiulan and watched as she retrieved a beautiful box before placing it on the display stand beside her.

“Make sure you engrave this moment into your soul because there’s a good chance that you will never see something like this ever again after today!”

Gu Xiulan opened up the box, revealing the glistening blue scale inside the box that was also emitting an overwhelming aura.

Many gasps of awe could be heard from the audience as they witnessed the Flood Dragon’s scale for the first time in their lives.

“As you can all see, this is the Flood Dragon’s scale— one of flawless quality, as well. There are many benefits this scale can bring to you. Here’s just a few of many benefits. It can increase the innate talent of a cultivator with water spiritual veins. It can be used to concoct the Flood Dragon Pill that can help a peak Spirit Lord achieve Spirit King with great success. It can also be used to craft high-quality Divine-grade treasures.”

The cultivators there salivated with desire as Gu Xiulan introduced the Flood Dragon’s scale.

“I will now give everyone three minutes to prepare before I officially begin the auction.” Gu Xiulan said.

Immediately, the entire place erupted with murmurs, but with so many people speaking at once, it sounded quite loud even if they were all whispering to each other.

“This Flood Dragon’s scale is exactly what I need to breakthrough to Spirit King! We must get it at all costs!” Said a certain cultivator that had been stuck as a Spirit Lord for over three decades.

“I have water spiritual veins! This Flood Dragon’s scale will boost my talents to a new level! We cannot miss this chance!” Said a certain Sect Master of a prominent sect.

“With this Flood Dragon’s scale, I will finally be able to concoct the pill of my dream— a tier 6 pill!”

“This is going to be one brutal auction...” Chu Liuxiang sighed at the atmosphere that suddenly became tense.

“I don’t blame them for wanting such a priceless treasure. If I had the funds, I would also want to bid for it.” Yuan said.

Three minutes passed in the blink of an eye.

Gu Xiulan cleared her throat before speaking.

“I hope you’re all prepared, because the auction for the Flood Dragon’s scale starts now! To start off the bid, 100,000 spirit stones with increments of at least 10,000 spirit stones!”

“She started the auction at a billion gold?! I definitely underestimate this auction! Severely, at that!” Yuan cried inwardly, and he realized that he never had a place in this auction since the very beginning.

As for the others, they did not hesitate to bid.

“110,000 spirit stones!”

“150,000 spirit stones!”

“200,000 spirit stones!”

In just a few minutes, the highest bid reached 400,000 spirit stones, which was a record in the history of all auction houses in the Spirit Heaven, shattering the previous record by over 100,000 spirit stones!

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 723 - Winner of the Auction

Chapter 723: Winner of the Auction

“400,000 spirit stones!”

“410,000 spirit stones!”

“420,000 spirit stones!”

Even though the auction is already at 400,000 spirit stones, which is worth 4 billion gold, the atmosphere there did not quiet down and remained as tense as ever. In fact, it was only getting more tense.

“450,000 spirit stones!”

“470,000 spirit stones!”

“500,000 spirit stones!”

When the spirit stones reached 500,000 spirit stones, someone there suddenly increased the bid significantly.

“One million spirit stones!”

Many bidders there turned to look at the person who just spoke with raised eyebrows.

While nobody there doubted for a second that the bid wouldn't reach that price point, they didn't want such an exciting auction to end so early. After all, they could simply bid their maximum budget at one go and call it a day.

However, that would be boring, and such actions are frowned upon in auctions, sort of like an unspoken rule.

“Slow down, Bai Ning. I know you want the Flood Dragon’s scale very badly, but let’s enjoy ourselves in this unprecedented event that might never happen again. Furthermore, you wouldn’t want the auction to end in an instant, do you? This might be your last chance looking at the Flood Dragon’s scale so closely, after all.” Someone there called out the individual, publicly shaming him.

“If you don’t shut up, I will increase it by another million,” said the man in a sneering manner.

“1,010,000 spirit stones!”

The people there continued to bid shortly after.

Inside the VIP room, Xiao Hua suddenly raised her eyebrows.

She turned to look at Feng Yuxiang and said, “Phoenix, I can sense Brother Yuan’s presence in this place...”

Feng Yuxiang immediately snapped her head at her and exclaimed in a low voice, “What?! Impossible! What’s he doing here?!”

She quickly tried to sense Yuan’s presence through their servant and master connection, and sure enough, she was able to sense his presence as well, albeit a little faint.

“W-What is the Young Master doing here?! If he finds out that we’re selling the Flood Dragon’s scale to help him, he might be a little upset...”

“I don’t think Brother Yuan will be upset.” Xiao Hua said.

“But just to be safe, we should keep this a secret from him until we know how he feels about the auction.” Feng Yuxiang sighed.

The auction continued for another thirty minutes, reaching two million spirit stones.

“Heavens, it’s already 20 billion gold... Just how much wealth do these cultivators have?” Yuan mumbled in a dazed voice.

He thought having a couple billion of gold was already wealthy, but compared to these powerhouses, it was like a drop of water in the ocean.

“If you think about it, they had thousands of years to save up this much money.” Chu Liuxiang said.

“Gold coins are still considered mortal currency, so it’s not abnormal that they have so many. Spirit stones are the true currency for cultivators. One million spirit stones may be an astronomical amount for mortals since they automatically convert it to gold, but for cultivators, a million spirit stones is just one million spirit stones. And with cultivators monopolizing spirit stone caves, it should be easier for them to acquire spirit stones.” Lan Yingying said.

“Oh, right. Spirit Stone Caves. I nearly forgot about their existence, but that makes a lot more sense.” Yuan said.

“Three million spirit stones!”

The Flood Dragon’s scale reached a new milestone very quickly.

After another hour, the highest bid reached 5 million spirit stones.

“Five million spirit stones! The Healing Spirit Academy has bid 5 million spirit stones! Do we have any more bids?!” Gu Xiulan announced.

“5,500,000 spirit stones!” The Sect Master of the Lonely River Academy raised the bid from the VIP section.

“6,000,000!” The patriarch of the Gu Family shouted.

“7 million!” A man that most did not recognize increased the bid by another million.

By now the bids were increasing by large increments of over 500,000 spirit stones. In other words, it was time for the real auction to begin.

And in just a couple of minutes, the highest bid went from 7 million all the way to 12 million spirit stones!

“Whoever this Flood Dragon’s scale belongs to... They are going to be rich after this auction...” Yuan mumbled as he watched the bid increase by another 3 million, reaching 15 million spirit stones within a matter of moments.

“15 million! Does anyone have better than 15 million?!” Gu Xiulan exclaimed with excitement.

“20 million!” A familiar voice suddenly resounded in the building.

‘This voice... Senior Nie?’ Yuan recognized this voice as Senior Nie, the Spirit King who descended to the Lower Heavens to oversee the Mystic Realm.

“Oh! Senior Nie of the Heavenly Academy has bid 20 million spirit stones!”

The auction came to a halt for the first time after reaching 20 million.

20 million spirit stones could support an entire sect the size of the Seven Spirit Academies for many years, and to use it to buy a single treasure, it made even the richest people there hesitant.

Furthermore, the Heavenly Academy is the strongest and most influential out of the Seven Spirit Academies. It would be unwise to fight them even though it was an auction.

“20 million spirit stones going once!”

“Going twice!”

“And sold! Congratulations to Senior Nie of the Heavenly Academy for acquiring the Flood Dragon’s scale for 20 million spirit stones!” Gu Xiulan announced the winner of the auction.

“So it’s finally done, huh. It’s unfortunate that we couldn’t get the Flood Dragon’s scale now, but once we reach the fourth heaven, I will hunt some Flood Dragon for you. Surely, they must drop more than one scale, right?” Yuan said to Chu Liuxiang.

“Now that the auction is over, let’s return to the hotel,” she continued.

“Yes... Hm? Wait a second. I can sense Feng Feng and Xiao Hua’s presence nearby. I think they’re closeby.” Yuan suddenly said.

Chapter 724 - Their Young Master

Chapter 724: Their Young Master

“Really? Then do you know where they are?” Chu Liuxiang asked.

“Not exactly. I know they’re nearby, but I don’t know where they are. Hold on, let me ask them.”

“Feng Feng? Xiao Hua? Are you two also at the Flood Dragon’s scale auction?” Yuan asked them through their connection.

“Y-Young Master? Are you also at the auction?” Feng Yuxiang’s surprised voice resounded, almost as though she wasn’t aware until he spoke to her.

“Yes, I decided to participate in the auction when I heard about it, but alas, I had no chance against these powerful families and sects. And before you tell me that I wasn’t supposed to leave the hotel, I left a note behind before we left.” Yuan said.

“Don’t worry, I am not mad at you for leaving.” Feng Yuxiang chuckled.

“Anyways, now that the auction has ended, let’s meet up.”

“W-Wait a minute, Young Master. I still have a few treasures to sell, so we cannot meet up just yet. If you want, you can return to the hotel first...”
Feng Yuxiang quickly made up an excuse so that she wouldn’t expose herself for selling the Flood Dragon’s scale.

“Is that so? Do you know how long it will take? If it’s not too long, we can wait for you in our hotel at Bright Night City.” Yuan then said.

“It shouldn’t take too long. We should be finished by the end of today or tomorrow.”

“I understand. Then we’ll wait for you at Bright Night City.” Yuan proceeded to give her the name of their hotel.

“They’re almost finished selling the treasures, so we’re going to wait for them in our hotel at Bright Night City.” Yuan explained the situation to Chu Liuxiang and Lan Yingying.

“Thank you all for coming to our action today! If you have any questions, you may visit the House of Riches located in Bright Night City at any time!” Gu Xiulan said to everyone there before leaving the stage.

Many people at the auction wanted to ask about the owner of the Flood Dragon’s scale, but they figured that if this person wanted their identity to be known, Gu Xiulan would’ve already mentioned it.

The fact that they were not mentioned must either mean Gu Xiulan doesn’t know, or the seller doesn’t want their identity to be known. It was that simple.

After leaving the Royal Hall, Yuan’s group returned to Bright Night City while Feng Yuxiang and Xiao Hua waited to collect their money.

As for Senior Nie, he went to a private room with Gu Xiulan, where he paid her the 20 million spirit stones for the Flood Dragon’s scale.

“I know you probably don’t want to tell me their identity, but I still wish to ask.” Senior Nie asked Gu Xiulan as he handed her the spirit stones.

Gu Xiulan shook her head with a bittersweet smile, “It’s not that I don’t want to tell you. I simply don’t know their identity.”

“That’s unfortunate.” Senior Nie said.

However, just as Gu Xiulan handed Senior Nie the Flood Dragon’s scale, the door to the VIP room opened, and Feng Yuxiang and Xiao Hua casually walked inside the room.

“Y-You are...” Senior Nie’s eyes widened with surprise when he saw Xiao Hua and recognized her.

“Hey, do you have the money yet? I don’t like the feeling of making the Young Master wait. And the more I think about it, the more anxious I get.” Feng Yuxiang ignored Senior Nie and directly asked for the money.

Gu Xiulan was speechless. She thought they wanted to remain anonymous, so what are they doing here?

“You were in the Lower Heavens at the Mystic Realm! What are you doing here?” Senior Nie eventually snapped out of his shock and asked Xiao Hua.

“That’s none of your business.” Xiao Hua nonchalantly responded.

“Uhh... Here’s the spirit stones for the other treasures you asked us to sell. The commission fee has already been deducted. As for the 20 million spirit stones, give me a moment to separate them.”

Gu Xiulan quickly subtracted 200,000 spirit stones from the 20 million as part of their 1 percent commission fee. After that, she handed the rest to Feng Yuxiang.

“19,861,000 spirit stones, huh? Not bad.” Feng Yuxiang said after a quick count using her divine sense.

She then retrieved another spatial ring that was empty before putting in 120,000 spirit stones from the 19 million.

Yuan’s treasure had sold for a little over 60,000 spirit stones, but Feng Yuxiang decided to add a tiny percentage of her own earnings into it to help him.

Of course, this ‘tiny amount’ was already enough to double his earnings, but Yuan won’t know that unless she tells him.

“Thanks for the work.” Feng Yuxiang said to Gu Xiulan as she turned around and began walking for the exit.

“P-Please wait a moment!” Gu Xiulan suddenly stopped them.

However, she didn’t know exactly why she stopped them, and she did it mostly subconsciously.

“Is there something else?” Feng Yuxiang asked her.

“Uhhh... N-No. Sorry.” Gu Xiulan gave up trying to learn more about them.

In fact, Senior Nie appears to recognize one of them, so she could simply ask him later.

Feng Yuxiang and Xiao Hua left the scene shortly after.

“You know them?” Gu Xiulan asked him.

“Well... I wouldn’t say that I ‘know’ them, but I have met them before... In the Lower Heavens.” He said.

“What?! The Lower Heavens?!”

Senior Nie nodded, and he proceeded to recall their brief encounter at the Mystic Realm to Gu Xiulan.

“That little girl was a Spirit King?!” Gu Xiulan’s jaw dropped after learning this information.

After a moment of silence, she asked, “Wait. Did you also see their ‘Young Master’ by any chance?”

“Young Master? Oh, you must mean that genius who conquered the Mystic Realm. If I recall correctly, his name was ‘Yuan’.”

Gu Xiulan’s eyes widened with shock when she heard this familiar name.

“Wait a second... Did you just say... Yuan?” She asked for confirmation.

“Yes. Do you know him?” Senior Nie nodded.

Chapter 725 - Mysterious Box

Chapter 725: Mysterious Box

“I... No, I don’t know him. I only heard about his name from someone else, that’s all.” Gu Xiulan denied knowing about Yuan after snapping out of her daze.

“Anyways, here’s your Flood Dragon’s scale. Please enjoy. I have another business to attend to, so if you’ll excuse me. Ah, if you have any questions, you can always come back here to find me.”

After taking one last look at the Flood Dragon’s scale, Gu Xiulan handed it to Senior Nie.

“Thank you.” Senior Nie accepted the treasure with trembling hands, feeling like a child on his birthday.

Once Senior Nie left the place, Gu Xiulan took a seat on the couch and began pondering profusely.

“A beautiful woman who likes to wear revealing red clothes... A little girl with a profound aura... The mastermind, Yuan... And last but not least, they were in the Lower Heavens not long ago... There is too much evidence for it to be just a coincidence.”

“But I don’t get it. Why would she rob the Gu Family? Clearly, they have a lot of money, so they didn’t steal because they needed the money. Perhaps they have a grudge with the Gu Family? Did those idiots offend them somehow?”

Gu Xiulan had no doubt that the Gu Family in the Lower Heavens were capable of offending someone like Feng Yuxiang and her group.

“What should I do now that I have this information? Should I just tell the patriarch? He might forgive them if I tell him about the Flood Dragon’s scale, but I also don’t have any evidence.”

“However, if I tell him and he still wants to hunt them, that would also be problematic. The fact that they were just in the Lower Heaven alongside the Flood Dragon’s scale, there’s a good chance that they are actually from the upper heavens. As for why they decided to come down... heaven knows. “

Gu Xiulan proceeded to spend the rest of the day pondering.

Eventually, she had enough.

“Ahhhh! Why the hell am I stressing myself over those idiot’s’ situation?” She scratched her head furiously.

“Whether they are at fault or not, I don’t care! They clearly dug themselves this hole, so why should I help them refill the hole?! Screw it! I don’t care anymore! I will just act like I never heard anything today!”

“I just held an unprecedented auction! I should be celebrating right now!”

Thus, Gu Xiulan decided to take herself out of their problem and act like she wasn’t involved.

Meanwhile, at Bright Night City, Feng Yuxiang and Xiao Hua arrived at the location of Yuan’s hotel.

“Alright, Xiao Hua. Just as we planned.” Feng Yuxiang took a deep breath and knocked on the door.

“Young Master. We’re back.”

Yuan opened the door a few moments later with a surprised look on his face.

“You’re back already?”

“Yes, we managed to sell the treasures quicker than expected. Here’s all of the money from the sale.” Feng Yuxiang handed him the spatial ring with 120,000 spirit stones.

Yuan accepted the spatial ring and immediately looked inside.

“120,000 spirit stones? That’s pretty good.” He said in a calm voice.

“Are you not satisfied with the result, Young Master?” Feng Yuxiang was greatly surprised by his nonchalant reaction.

They even doubled the actual earnings to please him! Would he have reacted angrily if they didn’t and the earning was much less?

“Huh? It’s not that I’m not satisfied. But after participating... No, witnessing the auction for the Flood Dragon’s scale, my perspective has changed a little. I have realized just how little this amount of money really is, and I am having a hard time getting excited about it.” He sighed, explaining to them his lackluster reaction.

“I see... So that’s the reason...” Feng Yuxiang sighed in relief inwardly after learning the truth.

“Oh, but don’t misunderstand. Even though my perspective has changed a little, I am still very grateful to you for helping me sell it! Thank you, Feng Feng. And thank you, Xiao Hua, for keeping her safe.” Yuan said with a bright smile on his face.

When Feng Yuxiang saw his smile, she felt something flare up within her phoenix heart.

“Y-Young Master! You went to the auction because you were interested in the Flood Dragon’s scale, right?” She suddenly asked him.

“Yes. I wanted to get it for Lulu, who has ice element spiritual veins. It should work on her since it’s technically still water element, right?”

“Yes, it would work on her since ice element is just an upgraded version of water element.” Feng Yuxiang nodded.

She then reached into her spatial ring and retrieved a wooden box.

“Here, Young Master. It’s for you.”

“What’s this?” Yuan raised his eyebrows at this mysterious box.

“Just a little gift from me.” She chuckled.

“Go ahead. Open it.”

Yuan nodded, but he didn’t immediately open the box. Instead, he picked it up and inspected the exterior of the box while trying to guess what was inside.

He eventually gave up, as his anticipation was too high, so he opened it.

“T-This is...”

To Yuan’s absolute surprise and shock, there was a beautiful blue scale sitting inside this box!

“U-Unless my eyes are fooling me, this is the Flood Dragon’s scale! But how?! I thought Senior Nie was the one who won the auction!” He exclaimed the following moment.

Feng Yuxiang smiled, “There exists more than one Flood Dragon in this universe, you know? Also, a Flood Dragon has thousands of scales on its body. That means you can acquire thousands of scales for each Flood Dragon. Although they are rare, they aren’t that rare in the upper heavens—at least not in the way you are probably thinking.”

“A-Are you sure you want to give this to me— to Lulu? It’s worth at least 15 million spirit stones...” Yuan hesitated to accept the treasure due to its immense value.

“Of course. I have no use for it, anyway.” Feng Yuxiang nodded.

Chapter 726 - Using The Flood Dragon's Scale

"Hmm?" Seeing the Flood Dragon's scale, Yuan suddenly realized something.

"Wait a minute. Since a Flood Dragon has multiple scales, does this mean you were the one who sold that scale at the auction today? Feng Feng?"

"Eh?" Feng Yuxiang's face immediately turned stiff after hearing his words.

"N-No! I wasn't involved in the auction today!" She subconsciously responded.

"It was just a coincidence that they were selling a Flood Dragon's scale!"

Yuan nodded, "If you say so."

"Anyways, I am going to give this to Lulu."

Yuan went to knock on Chu Liuxiang's door and Feng Yuxiang sighed in relief when he didn't continue questioning her.

"What's up?" Chu Liuxiang stopped her cultivation to open the door.

"I have a surprise for you." Yuan said with a mysterious smile.

"A surprise for me? What is it?" Her eyes flickered with anticipation.

"Here." Yuan showed her the small box.

Chu Liuxiang raised her eyebrows when she saw this box, and she became speechless for a good moment.

"Did you get me an engagement ring?" She suddenly asked.

"Eh? N-Not exactly...?" Yuan said, dumbfounded by her response.

She chuckled, "I'm just joking with you. What's inside? Let me see..."

Chu Liuxiang opened the box a moment later, and her eyes widened with surprise when she saw what was in it.

"This is... Is this what I think it is?" she mumbled in a low voice.

"Yes, it's a Flood Dragon's scale."

"How on earth did you...?" Chu Liuxiang looked at him with her eyes wide as saucers.

"Actually, I wasn't the one who acquired it. You'll have to thank Feng Feng for that." Yuan said, and explained everything to her.

"Unbelievable... To think she also had one on her."

"It's not really that surprising now that I think about it. She used to own a very prestigious treasure store, and she came from the upper heavens." Yuan said.

"Where is she right now? I'd like to thank her."

"She's in the living room."

Chu Liuxiang approached Feng Yuxiang and bowed to her, "Thank you very much for this gift, Feng Feng."

"You're welcome."

"By the way, how do I use this scale?" Chu Liuxiang then asked.

"Well, it depends on what you want to use it for since there are multiple ways to prepare it."

"I'd like to use it to increase my innate talent," said Chu Liuxiang.

"I understand. Then allow me to help you."

"Please." Chu Liuxiang handed the Flood Dragon's scale back to her.

"Before we begin, I must warn you about something. The Flood Dragon is almost a divine beast with a powerful bloodline. Although you can still use the scale at your cultivation, it's going to be very painful. Do you wish to continue?"

"Yes, I don't care even if I have to endure a little pain." Chu Liuxiang nodded with a resolute face.

"Okay."

Sometime later, Feng Yuxiang returned to them and said, "Alright, the water is ready."

"Water?" Chu Liuxiang raised her eyebrows.

"Follow me."

Chu Liuxiang nodded and followed her. Yuan also followed because he was curious.

Feng Yuxiang led them to the bathroom a moment later.

"This is... Isn't this just body tempering?" Yuan asked when he saw the tub filled with boiling hot water.

"Not really." Feng Yuxiang shook her head, and she continued, "Although that's what it may seem like right now, it will be completely different once the real thing begins."

"Also, since the effect of the scale will only work once, do you want to improve the effects at the cost of it becoming more painful?"

"Huh?" Chu Liuxiang raised her eyebrows.

"Did you think you can continue using the Flood Dragon's scale to increase your talent without limit? It's already heaven-defying enough that you can improve your talent. With that being said, it'll only affect the Flood Dragon's scale. If you find another treasure that increases your talent, it will still work, but only one time."

Chu Liuxiang pondered for a moment before asking, "How much more painful...?"

"A lot."

Chu Liuxiang swallowed loudly. If she wasn't nervous before, she is now.

"I... I will do it!" She said after a moment of silence.

"Good. You can enter the bathtub whenever you're ready." Feng Yuxiang then said.

Chu Liuxiang quickly removed her clothes and approached the hot bath.

After taking a deep breath, she entered the bathtub.

"Hm? It's not that bad." Chu Liuxiang suddenly said in a surprised tone.

Feng Yuxiang smiled, "I didn't even put the Flood Dragon's scale into the water yet."

"Eh?" Chu Liuxiang's face flushed a little after hearing her words.

"Here, eat this pill. It'll increase the effects of the scale." Feng Yuxiang handed her a black pill the size of a tiny pebble.

Chu Liuxiang silently ate the pill after taking it.

The pill was a little bitter at first, but the aftertaste was quite minty.

"Are you ready?" Feng Yuxiang asked.

"I am."

Feng Yuxiang didn't say anything else and dropped the Flood Dragon's scale into the bathtub.

Immediately, the boiling water began cooling down at a rapid rate, and in just seconds, the water was filled with large chunks of ice.

"Aaaaah!" Chu Liuxiang suddenly screamed out loud, her voice filled with intense pain.

Yuan swallowed nervously when her scream caused his eardrums to tremble, and it made him recall his first time doing body temperament.

And after just a few seconds of being in the water, Chu Liuxiang jumped out before collapsing on the ground.

"Lulu?!" Yuan immediately went to check on her, and when he touched her body, it felt like he was touching a block of ice.

"It's too painful... I can't bear it..." Chu Liuxiang mumbled in a low voice as tears flowed from her face.

Chu Liuxiang isn't someone who has weak endurance. One can even say she has above-average endurance. However, the pain she felt when trying to absorb the treasure nearly made her insane.

"Of course it's painful. You're trying to improve your innate talents. In fact, it's much worse than body tempering." Feng Yuxiang said.

"Is there anything we can do to relieve her pain even slightly?" Yuan then asked.

Feng Yuxiang pondered for a moment before nodding her head, "There is a way, but you will be the one helping her, and it's going to be as painful for you, Young Master."

"Me...?" Yuan swallowed nervously.

Chapter 727 - Yin And Yang

"What do I need to do?" Yuan resolved himself after hearing that he could help Chu Liuxiang.

Feng Yuxiang retrieved another box from her spatial ring and handed it to him.

"Open it."

Yuan nodded and opened the box, and to his surprise, there was a scale inside. However, it was not the Flood Dragon's scale. This scale was bright red and emitting a fiery aura that made Yuan feel like his face was before an open oven that had its temperature maxed.

"What is this...?" Yuan looked at Feng Yuxiang as the hot air continued blowing into his face.

"That's an Inferno Dragon's scale. They're just like the Flood Dragon, but with a fire element. The Flood Dragon and the Inferno Dragon are like Yin and Yang with the Flood Dragon being Yin and the Inferno Dragon being Yang."

"Despite their different element that normally opposes each other, you can actually cultivate them together."

"If you cultivate the Inferno Dragon's scale while she cultivates the Flood Dragon's scale, you can ease each other's pain."

"However, since she has already absorbed a pill that enhances her effects, you will also have to do the same in order for this to work."

"It's going to be incredibly painful, Young Master. Do you still want to do it?"

"I will do it." He immediately nodded.

Not only will this benefit Chu Liuxiang, but it will also benefit him.

"Also you should know that the Inferno Dragon's scale will only affect those with fire spiritual veins. If you do not have such veins, you won't benefit from it." Feng Yuxiang suddenly said, leaving Yuan speechless.

He doesn't know his spiritual veins' element, and if this doesn't affect him, it would definitely suck for him. However, if it works on him, he will know that he has fire element spiritual veins.

"Regardless, I am doing this for Lulu. Even if I don't benefit from it, I am fine with it." Yuan eventually said.

"Okay. What about you? Do you want to continue? If you don't, there's no point in all of this." Feng Yuxiang asked Chu Liuxiang next.

"I... I want to continue." She said as she slowly stood back up.

"Good."

"Whenever you're ready, Young Master."

Yuan removed his clothes and entered the bathtub with Chu Liuxiang.

Feng Yuxiang then dropped the Inferno Dragon's scale inside the bathtub, and the icy water immediately began to melt, quickly becoming lukewarm.

"You can go ahead and start cultivating now," she said to them a moment later.

Yuan took a deep breath and started absorbing the treasure.

"Ah! It really freaking hurts!" Yuan exclaimed in a shocked voice.

He had underestimated the pain Chu Liuxiang felt before, but after experiencing it himself, he did not blame her for wanting to quit.

'And this is how it feels with the pain lowered? I cannot imagine it being any more painful than this!' Yuan cried inwardly.

Seeing Yuan's painful face, Chu Liuxiang took a moment to brace herself before she started absorbing the treasure again.

Intense pain immediately permeated throughout her body. Even though it wasn't as unbearably painful as before, it was still painful enough to knock most people unconscious if they experienced it.

However, she wasn't the only one suffering this time, and Yuan was enduring the same pain just for her, so she couldn't give up no matter how painful it was.

"Young Master, slow down on your side. If you absorb the treasure too quickly, the Yin and Yang will become unbalanced, and it will only get more painful from there." Feng Yuxiang warned him.

Yuan silently nodded and controlled his pace until it matched Chu Liuxiang's pace.

"I know it's very painful, but at least it'll be done within an hour if you continue at your pace." Feng Yuxiang said a moment later.

An hour would usually disappear very quickly, especially when they're focused, but this time it was different.

The sensation of pain made them count every second even if they didn't want to, making it feel longer than reality.

However, despite feeling similar levels of pain, both Yuan and Chu Liuxiang were having polar opposite experiences.

Chu Liuxiang was assaulted by an extremely cold sensation while feeling like her spiritual veins were being stabbed all over by sharp icicles.

Meanwhile, Yuan felt like he was being baked inside an oven, and his internal organs and blood felt like it was engulfed in flames.

It felt like they were living in separate versions of hell.

"It's almost been an hour... I wonder if the Inferno Dragon's scale will affect the Young Master, and if it does, how much will it increase his talents." Feng Yuxiang mumbled to herself.

"A tiny percentage of Brother Yuan's talent is enough to make even a once-in-a-century genius look like an ordinary cultivator..." Xiao Hua said.

"Yes, that's why I am excited. What will happen if he happens to have fire element spiritual veins?"

A couple more minutes later, Yuan slowly opened his eyes and took a long and deep breath.

Ding!

<Your resistance to pain has increased significantly>

"Lulu, are you okay?" Yuan asked her.

"Yes, I am fine. Just a little exhausted, that's all."

They left the bathtub shortly after.

After they got dressed, Feng Yuxiang asked them, "How do you feel?"

"Umm... I can't really tell... Are we supposed to feel any different?" Yuan asked.

"Not really. As long as you don't feel any post-pain or sickness, it means you'd successfully managed to absorb the treasure."

"I thought body tempering was the most painful thing in the world, but my experience today proved me wrong..." Yuan sighed.

Feng Yuxiang smiled and said, "If you think this is painful, just wait until you experience treasures that are far more potent than the scales. Although they are considered as heavenly treasures in this world, they are only low-grade treasures in the upper heavens."

Yuan swallowed nervously after hearing her words.

"Anyways, let's rest here for today. We'll return to Min tomorrow.." He then said.

Chapter 728 - Ascending Together

Yuan and Chu Liuxiang logged off the game shortly after they finished absorbing the dragon scales.

"What the? The bed is wet?!" Chu Liuxiang sat up in a surprised manner after feeling a wet sensation on her back, wondering if they'd pissed themselves by accident.

However, she quickly realized that it wasn't the bed that was wet—it was her pajamas, and her body was also soaked in sweat as well.

"Did absorbing the treasure in cultivation online make us sweat?" Yuan wondered out loud.

"It's possible, since the sensation of pain we felt was so incredibly real that it'd affected our real body." Chu Liuxiang said.

"I'm going to wash up."

Chu Liuxiang said, and she continued, "You can join me whenever."

"I am going to change the bed sheets before I go." Yuan said.

Chu Liuxiang entered the bathroom a moment later while Yuan replaced the bedsheets with new ones before joining Chu Liuxiang in the bathroom.

"Let me wash your back." Chu Liuxiang said to him.

"Thank you."

"No, I should be thanking you. If you didn't help me with the Flood Dragon's scale today, I would have not been able to absorb it, and I would've wasted a very precious treasure." She sighed.

"I'd gladly do it again if it's for you." Yuan smiled.

"..."

Chu Liuxiang suddenly turned silent.

"You know, if you say stuff like that, it makes me want to embrace you," she suddenly said.

Yuan began blushing when he heard words, which reminded his experience with Meixiu.

After a moment of silence, Chu Liuxiang said, "By the way, I have decided to visit my parents tomorrow. I want to tell them my feelings as soon as possible and get it out of my chest."

"Do you want me to come with you?" Yuan then asked.

"No, I will go alone. However, if I don't return..."

"You think they'll force you to stay?"

"I don't need to think about it. There's a very good chance that they won't let me return after I tell them my feelings, but who knows, a miracle could happen."

"Don't worry, if they don't let you leave, I will take you back myself as long as you want me to."

"I want to return to your side." Chu Liuxiang said.

"That's all I need to know." Yuan smiled.

After they finished washing, they went downstairs to see if Meixiu needed help with preparing dinner.

"Looks like you had a breakthrough. Congratulations." Yuan said to her when he noticed a chance in her aura.

"Thank you."

"We participated in an auction today. I wanted to invite you, but I didn't want to disturb your cultivation."

"What did you buy?" She then asked.

"Nothing. The treasure being sold was too expensive for us. It sold for twenty million spirit stones, which is about 200 billion gold coins!"

Meixiu's eyes widened with surprise.

"200 billion? That's a lot of money... What was sold?"

"A treasure called Flood Dragon's scale. It belongs to a powerful magical beast from the upper heavens." Yuan recalled the auction for Meixiu.

"By the way, Feng Feng also happened to have a Flood Dragon's scale, and she gave it to Lulu, who has water spiritual veins, allowing her to improve her innate talent."

Sometime later, Meixiu said, "Since I won't breakthrough for a while, I can start playing with you again."

"That sounds good." Yuan nodded.

Once dinner was ready, everybody sat around the dinner table.

"Yuan, I am going to ascend to Spirit Heaven tomorrow. Where should I meet you?" Wang Ming asked him as they ate.

"Once you ascend the Stairway to Heaven, you will be transported to this square. You can just wait for me there and I will come pick you up. We can visit the Myriad of Techniques afterward to get you some new techniques." Yuan said.

"Okay."

"Anyone else also ascending tomorrow?" Yuan then asked the others.

Four other people raised their hands, and they were Wang Bingbing, Shi Lang, Hong Xiuquan, and Li Jinxi.

"What about the two of you?" Yuan asked Xi Murong and Wu Zao.

"I will go next week," said Xi Murong.

"Me too."

"Alright." Yuan nodded.

"Since we're all going, we might as well ascend together." Wang Wang suggested a moment later, and they all agreed.

"Then we'll all meet up after morning practice."

"I will meet you guys sometime at noon since we're a couple of hours away from that place." Yuan said.

"Take your time." Wang Ming nodded.

After cleaning up, everyone returned to their room.

The following morning, Yuan and Chu Liuxiang made their journey back to Min Li with everyone else.

"Aren't you going to visit your parents today?" Yuan asked Chu Liuxiang before they left.

"I will do that after we meet up with Meixiu in the other city," she said.

Many hours later, they arrived at the hotel, and Min Li was casually sipping tea in the living room.

"Welcome back. How was the auction?" Min Li said to them.

"It was crazy. We didn't manage to buy the treasure, by the way." Yuan said with a smile.

"That's unfortunate."

"Congratulations on the breakthrough, though."

"Thank you. It happened only an hour ago, so you returned at the perfect time. What are our plans now?" Min Li then asked.

"I am going to meet with a few friends back at the city before this one. We still have to pick up Meixiu there before we can go anywhere."

"When do we leave?"

"We'll leave now if you're ready."

"I am." Min Li nodded.

"Great. Then let's go."

After checking out of the hotel, they left the city.

Half an hour later, they returned to their original location and met up with Meixiu, who was still living inside their old hotel.

"I am going to meet up with a few of my friends now. You guys can wait here since I won't be gone for long." Yuan said to them.

"I am going to visit my parents now." Chu Liuxiang said.

"Okay. If you don't return by tomorrow, I will be giving the Chu Family a visit." Yuan nodded.

Chu Liuxiang logged off the game and began making her way to the upper levels of the Dragon Spiral Mountain, where her Chu Family was located.

Chapter 729 - Come Meet Me As Soon As Possible

After Chu Liuxiang logged off, Yuan prepared to meet with Wang Ming and the others.

"Young Master, what about us?" Feng Yuxiang asked him.

"It's going to be crowded, so it would be better if you stayed here as well." Yuan said.

"I can just enter your body if it's crowded." She said.

"Oh, right, you can do that... Well, it's up to you."

Feng Yuxiang didn't say anything else and entered his body.

Xiao Hua also did the same since she'd rather not stay behind while Feng Yuxiang went with him.

"Do you want to come as well?" Yuan asked Meixiu.

"Yes."

"Alright. We should be back by tonight." Yuan said to Min Li.

"You don't need to worry about me. Even though I just had a breakthrough, cultivation never ends," she said with a smile.

Yuan nodded, and he left the hotel with Meixiu shortly after to meet up with Wang Ming and the others.

Sometime later, they arrived at the square where people that leave the Stairway to Heaven gather, and sure enough, there were still new players that had decided to ascend from the Lower Heavens appearing in the square every few minutes.

"Do you see them?" Yuan asked Meixiu as they walked around the massive square that was also crowded with people.

"No... Oh? I think that's them over there." Meixiu pointed at a certain group of individuals, and these people appeared to be in a fight.

"Are they fighting?!" Yuan was shocked to see this.

He immediately rushed to them, but he quickly realized that it was a misunderstanding and that they were just sparring with each other.

"What are you guys doing, sparring with each other in the middle of a city?" Yuan asked them with a helpless look on his face.

Just how much do they love training? They were like a bunch of addicts that cannot stop training or they'll die.

"Hm? Oh, you're finally here. We got bored of waiting, so we started sparring with each other." Wang Ming said with a smile on his face.

"I told you that I would come at noon, right? Why didn't you just do something else till then? Hell, you could've trained in the field at home."

"That won't do. We won't last a minute sparring with Li Jinxi outside. However, we can defeat her with ease in Cultivation Online." Wang Ming laughed out loud.

Yuan raised his eyebrows and turned to look at Li Jinxi, who was sitting on the ground not far away, seemingly exhausted.

"You don't get to see such a sight often, right?" Wang Ming chuckled.

"I guess so..." Yuan nodded in a dazed manner.

"Anyways, now that I am here, let's head to the Myriad of Techniques." Yuan said to them a moment later.

Once they were prepared, the group began following Yuan.

"So you're all Spirit Warriors, huh?" Yuan noticed their aura.

"We were only Spirit Apprentices not long ago. Most of us were below fourth level since we didn't play much then." Shi Lang said.

"Huh? How did you all level up this fast?" Yuan was curious.

"We purchased a lot of treasures with real money." Wang Ming said without a shred of shame on his face.

"It was quite expensive, you know? It took us almost 100 million each to reach Spirit Warrior."

Yuan shook his head with a smile and said, "Spirit Warrior is just the beginning. Although there is nothing wrong with paying for your levels since everybody does it in this world as well, in the form of buying treasures to assist their cultivation, don't expect that it will be as effective in the future. It will become super expensive really quickly."

"We know. We just needed to boost ourselves so that we're not completely behind." Wang Bingbing said.

Sometime later, they arrived at the Myriad of Techniques.

Once they entered the store, someone checked their destiny, and the Divine Crystal of Heavenly Fortune deemed them all to have a minor destiny.

"Do you guys have any techniques that you want in mind? If not, we can head to the fourth floor, where all of the Heaven-rank techniques are located."

"Heaven-rank techniques? Aren't they going to be really expensive?" Wang Bingbing asked.

"Normally, but I can get them for free since I am part of the faction that runs this place." Yuan said.

"What? If that's the case, let us join too! Where do we go to sign up?" Wang Ming said in an excited voice.

"You don't exactly sign up for it... And I was offered to join by someone in the upper heavens. I don't think they exist in this world." Yuan shook his head.

"So you've been to the upper heavens already?" Shi Lang looked at him with a surprised face.

"Not exactly. The place we met was in a different dimension that didn't exist within the Nine Heavens, so it wasn't like I went up there to speak with them."

"Though I will speak with them the next chance I get and see if you guys can join as well." Yuan said.

"That's good enough for me." Wang Ming nodded.

After arriving at the fourth floor, Wang Ming and the others scattered to look for a technique of their suiting.

"What about you, Meixiu?" Yuan asked her, who stayed behind with him.

"You only have a movement technique, right? Why don't you find a new technique— one that you can use to protect yourself?"

"I will go look around." Meixiu nodded and went to look for a technique as well.

While Yuan waited, he suddenly heard a voice resound in his head.

"Yuan, come meet me as soon as possible."

"Senior Bai?" Yuan immediately recognized his calming voice, but it sounded urgent.

After looking for Meixiu and letting her know that he will be gone for a bit, Yuan went to seek Senior Bai in his dimension.

A few minutes later, he entered Senior Bai's dimension and flew towards the platform they usually met at, and sure enough, Senior Bai was standing there with a pondering expression on his face as he stared at the horizon.

Chapter 730 - Returning To The Chu Family

"Senior Bai, it's been a while." Yuan greeted him with a bow once the landed on the platform.

Senior Bai turned around to face him with a smile that looked slightly forced.

"The passage of time is different for someone like me, and time feels slower than in reality. One day might feel like one day to you, but for someone like me, one day feels like a few minutes."

"Did something happen? You seem worried." Yuan decided to ask him.

"Take a seat." Senior Bai pointed at the chair.

Yuan nodded, and they sat down a moment later.

Meanwhile, Chu Liuxiang had just arrived at the Chu Family's household.

"This place looks gloomier than it does in my memories..." Chu Liuxiang sighed inwardly as she approached the massive steel gate that surrounded the Chu Family's territory.

After pressing the call button on the device at the gates, she waited for someone from the inside to answer it.

"Hello, this is the Chu Family. Who am I speaking with?" A feminine voice resounded a moment later.

"It's me. Hurry up and open the doors so I can speak with my parents." Chu Liuxiang said out loud.

"Y-Young Lady?! Please wait a minute while I call a ride for you!" The person on the other side immediately recognized her just by her voice alone.

The gates immediately opened, and Chu Liuxiang entered into their territory without saying anything else, but she didn't go any further, as the actual building was a couple of miles away from the gates.

After two minutes of waiting, a limousine pulled up beside her, and an old woman came out of the car to open the door for her.

"Welcome back, Young Lady." The old woman bowed to her.

"I'm not back." Chu Liuxiang casually responded.

"..."

The old woman didn't have any response for such words, so she decided to remain silent.

Sometime later, they arrived in front of this massive mansion that looked more like a castle than a house a couple of miles away from the gates.

"Welcome home, Young Lady."

Two rows of servants were already prepared to welcome her back at the front door.

Once they entered the building, Chu Liuxiang could see Sebastian standing not far away.

"Young Lady, the Masters are waiting for you in the family hall," he said to her.

Chu Liuxiang nodded silently and made her way to this family hall with Sebastian and the old woman following her from behind.

"We will be waiting outside." Sebastian said to her once they arrived outside the room.

Chu Liuxiang opened the door and entered the room with a resolute expression on her face.

The moment she entered the room, she could see two individuals— a handsome middle-aged man and a beautiful woman who didn't look any older than her twenties.

These two individuals were clearly her parents. Her father, Chu Shijian, and her mother, Chu Shufen.

"Looks like you have finally decided to listen to your parents and return to the family. I'm relieved." Chu Shijian said to her, assuming that she had agreed to return to the family.

Unfortunately, they are only moments away from immense disappointment.

"I'm sorry to tell you this, father, but I did not come back here because I want to return to the family," Chu Liuxiang said with a stern expression on her face.

"Then why are you here?" As expected, Chu Shijian immediately became displeased after hearing her words.

"I am here to tell you my feelings and plan."

Chu Liuxiang proceeded to take a long and deep breath before continuing, "I want to start a family with Yuan, so I cannot return to this family."

"You what?!" Both of her parents exclaimed in a shocked voice at the same time.

"That's outrageous!" Chu Shijian said.

And he continued, "You only knew that man for a few years in an orphanage when you were still a child! There's no way that you actually like him! You're confused right now, my dear!"

"Your father is right, Liuxiang. You might think that you're feeling love, but that is not the case. I know because I was once in your shoes. However, once I grew up and understood the world more, I realized that 'love' I felt was merely an illusion that will quickly go away once you understand your own feelings more." Her mother also gave her options on the matter.

"You're wrong, father, mother. I know my feelings very well. I love him, and I want to be with him for the rest of my life. Nobody in this world makes me feel the way he does. I feel safe when I am with him, and I am never bored when I am with him no matter what mundane things we do." Chu Liuxiang refuted their claims.

"Why are you not happy for me? Yuan is not only very talented, he's also destined for great things! I know you want me to marry into an influential family, but Yuan will surpass every single one of these families that you're planning to match with me!"

"Hell, he even has the Six Spiritual Families' approval and backing! That alone should qualify him as my husband!"

Chu Shijian shook his head and said, "This world is not just about one's backing, dear. Even if it is, he only has the Six Spiritual Families' backing. While the Six Spiritual Families are, without a doubt, a force to be reckoned with, they are nothing more than cowards that lived the last few thousands of years in hiding— in fear."

"Furthermore, there is nothing to gain from befriending them."

Chu Liuxiang closed her eyes and sighed in a dispirited voice, "In the end, it's all about profits, huh? Yuan... He had to endure a decade of abuse in the Yu Family because they wanted to profit off him. I thought my family was better than that, but alas, it appears that you're not that different from the Yu Family after all..."

Chapter 731 - Senior Qi

Bang!

Chu Shijian suddenly slammed his fist into his chair rest after hearing Chu Liuxiang's words that compared them to the Yu Family, his face fuming with anger.

"How dare you compare us to that disgraceful place! We're nothing like the Yu Family! Not only did we treat you like a princess, but we also exhausted countless resources into you just so that you can be at where you are today! If we didn't save you from that orphanage, god knows where you would be right now!"

"And I am supposed to be grateful for that? Did you forget why you adopted me in the first place? If it were not for my cultivation talents, you wouldn't even have batted an eye at me! If you did not plan on profiting off me by selling me to some family that I don't want to be with, you wouldn't have treated me so nicely! Tell me that I am wrong, father!" Chu Liuxiang argued back.

Although Chu Liuxiang and her father often argued with each other, it never became this serious, and they would end up joking with each other at the end.

By now, Chu Shijian's entire body was trembling from anger. If his eyes could produce fire, it would be spewing them by now.

"Calm down." Chu Shufen said in a soothing voice as she placed her hand onto his fist.

Although she'd managed to stop his shaking, his face was still twisted in anger.

She then looked at Chu Liuxiang and spoke, "Liuxiang, you claim that you love him, but that is just your words and not your actual feelings—"

"That is my actual feelings!" Chu Liuxiang interrupted.

And she continued, "I also doubted my feelings for him at first, but that's why I went to find him! The moment I saw his face, even though it has been over 10 years since I last saw him, I knew at that very moment that I really loved him!"

"However, I continued to follow him to verify my feelings for him, and every single day I spent with him, my conviction grew stronger and stronger!"

Chu Shufen shook her head and sighed, "You don't have to say anything else, Liuxiang. You're going to forget about him once you join a real family — one that we are sure will perfectly suit you."

"I refuse!" Chu Liuxiang stood her ground.

"Unfortunately, this isn't a matter where you have a choice. Until we find you a family, we forbid you from leaving the garden— your home."

Hearing her mother's words, Chu Liuxiang released her Spirit Master cultivation base.

"What do you think you're doing? Are you threatening us? Did you already forget that you're not the only Spirit Master in this household?" Chu Shufen said as she released her aura, which was even more powerful than Chu Liuxiang's aura.

Chu Liuxiang gritted her teeth, as she was aware that she wouldn't be able to defeat her parents in her current state.

However, Chu Shufen suddenly withdrew her aura and said in a loud voice, "Senior Qi, please take her back to the garden for us."

"W-What did you just say?" Chu Liuxiang's eyes widened with shock when she heard the name 'Senior Qi'.

A figure appeared before Chu Liuxiang the next moment, and she was an extremely beautiful woman that looked only slightly older than Chu Liuxiang.

She had long black hair that flowed down her back until it reached her round buttocks. Her cleavage was also quite impressive in the way that it looked completely flawless no matter which angle one looked from. She was also wearing traditional robes that made her look like a cultivator at glance, and if she were to stand beside the cultivators inside Cultivation Online, one would not be able to tell any difference between them whether it was their demeanor or aura.

"Master... What are you doing here? I thought you had some important matters and could not return for many years..." Chu Liuxiang muttered in a low voice.

This woman Chu Liuxiang called 'Master' was actually her teacher, who taught her everything about cultivation.

"I heard that you were causing trouble again, so I decided to come back. Come with me. Let's talk about it." Senior Qi said to her, and she began walking towards the door without looking back to see if Chu Liuxiang would follow her.

Chu Liuxiang glared at her parents for a moment before following Senior Qi, leaving the scene shortly after.

Sometime later, Chu Liuxiang followed Senior Qi to this large garden behind the Chu Family's household, and there was even an immortal cave beside a clear pond.

"Sit down." Senior Qi suddenly stopped walking in front of the pond and said without turning back.

Chu Liuxiang didn't say anything and obediently took a seat seiza-style on the soft ground.

"Tell me everything that has happened. Start from when you left the family." Senior Qi then said as she continued to stare into the pond.

Chu Liuxiang nodded and began recalling her experience to Senior Qi.

Meanwhile, inside Cultivation Online, Yuan and Senior Bai just sat down.

"Do you know of a place called the Nine Heavens Eternal Grotto?" Senior Bai suddenly asked him after a moment of awkward silence.

"No, I do not." Yuan quickly shook his head.

"It's one of the most dangerous places in the Nine Heavens that has existed even before the Primordial Era. However, it's not dangerous in the way you're probably thinking. The reason it's so dangerous is because of the criminals that are imprisoned there."

"Criminals?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"Yes, incredibly dangerous criminals that are also Immortals that cannot be destroyed through normal means, hence why they were tossed inside the Nine Heavens Eternal Grotto for all eternity. The Nine Heavens Eternal Grotto is a place where once someone enters, they will not be able to escape no matter if they are Immortal or God. However, that is only from the inside, meaning it can still be opened from the outside."

"I... I don't like where this is going..." Yuan said with a frown on his face.

Chapter 732 - Escaped Immortals

"If you're thinking that someone had opened the Nine Heavens Eternal Grotto, then you're right, unfortunately." Senior Bai sighed.

"Shouldn't there be someone to guard that place? It would be disastrous if the criminals inside escaped, or am I wrong?" Yuan asked.

"No, you're right. However, there are people guarding the grotto. In fact, there are at least a dozen Immortals guarding that place around the clock, and there hasn't been a single moment when the grotto isn't guarded since the Primordial Era."

"Then how did someone open the grotto?"

"Simple. Someone managed to kill the guards and open the grotto."

"So all of the criminals inside are free now?" Yuan then asked.

"No, not all, which is the most fortunate part in all of this. Although the perpetrator managed to open the grotto, it was only for a brief moment, as the guards were able to call for backup before they died."

"However, that brief moment had allowed 4 incredibly dangerous criminals to escape."

"The entire upper heavens are on the lookout for these criminals right now, but none of the criminals have been caught yet."

Hearing his words, Yuan sighed, "Since you called me here... Do you want me to capture these criminals or something?"

Senior Bai looked at him with wide eyes.

After a moment of silence, he burst out laughing.

"Of course not! You're only a Spirit Lord while these criminals are all Immortals that have existed since the Primordial Era. You will die before you can even touch them."

"Then why did you call me here?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"I just wanted to warn you about the current situation in the upper heavens, and although very unlikely, these criminals could escape to the lower heavens." Senior Bai said.

"Even if they escape to the lower heavens, how will I be able to identify them when I don't even know them?" Yuan then asked.

Senior Bai retrieved a red crystal and handed it to him.

"All criminals in the grotto have a seal in their soul that cannot be removed, and as long as they're within 1 mile of this crystal, it will begin reacting to its seal. That's how you know there's a criminal nearby." Senior Bai said.

"If that happens, I want you to report it to me so that we can come to you. Don't even think about confronting these people by yourself. You'll, without a doubt, die."

Yuan nodded, "I won't. I am not that reckless."

"Here's a jade slip that you can use to contact me. The moment you activate it using your spiritual energy, it will notify me, and I will come to you. However, since I am in the upper heavens, it will take some time for me to get there."

Senior Bai handed him a jade slip.

Ding!

<You have been given a Faction Quest by an Overlord!>

[Faction Quest: Escaped Immortals]

[Difficulty: Impossible]

[Description: Report, catch, or kill all four criminals that escaped from the Nine Heavens Eternal Grotto]

[Reward: ???]

"Also, here's a life-saving treasure for you just in case. As long as you have it in your body, it will be able to protect you from any grievous injuries once— even if it was given to you by an immortal."

"Thank you." Yuan accepted the life-saving treasure which was a small crystal ball that contained some sort of red liquid within.

"Eat it." Senior Bai said to him afterward.

"Eh?" Yuan raised his eyebrows. This is his first time seeing a life-saving treasure that required consumption.

"This life-saving treasure is a little different compared to your ordinary life-saving treasure in the way it functions. Normal life-saving treasures will protect you from harm. However, this life-saving treasure will basically give you a second life, but it will not protect you from harm."

"I understand." Yuan nodded his head before tossing the treasure inside his mouth like it was a monster core.

Ding!

<You have consumed a 'Phoenix Rebirth Pill'>

"Phoenix Rebirth Pill?" Yuan mumbled in a low voice.

"Indeed. It was crafted with phoenix blood and many other priceless treasures. There are not many of them out there."

"T-Thank you for giving me such a priceless treasure!" Yuan immediately bowed to him.

Senior Bai smiled and said, "Consider it a gift for ranking up in the faction."

"Eh? How did you know?" Yuan was surprised that he knew about it.

"Did you forget my identity? I can tell your faction rank the moment I look at you."

"By the way, speaking about the faction, my friends would like to join the faction as well. Is that possible?"

"Your friends, huh? In order to join the faction, they must pass our test, but this test can only be done in the Fifth Heaven and above. Therefore, they must climb to the Fifth Heaven in order to join. This is a rule that even I cannot do anything about. The reason you were able to join is because of Xu Jiaqi, who is a Celestial Overlord, allowing her to bend the rules to some extent."

"I see... I will let them know." Yuan said.

"Good. Now, before I let you go, may I speak with a certain someone in your body? More specifically, the lass from the Primordial Realm." Senior Bai suddenly narrowed his eyes.

Yuan's eyes widened with surprise, and he asked in a nervous voice, "Senior Bai... Why do you want to speak with Xiao Hua?"

"Calm down, I am not going to harm her." Senior Bai smiled.

"It's okay, Brother Yuan."

Xiao Hua's voice resounded as she materialized beside him.

"What do you want from Xiao Hua?" She asked him with a calm face, yet her heart was beating nervously.

After all, Senior Bai could easily kill her if he wished, and she would have no way to defend herself.

"So you're the exile that has been following my little friend here, huh? Since your surname is 'Xiao', are you perhaps from the Asura Clan?" Senior Bai asked her.

Chapter 733 - Asura Clan

Xiao Hua's body trembled when she heard the name 'Asura Clan' come out of Senior Bai's mouth.

"You know Xiao Hua's family?" She asked him.

Senior Bai chuckled for a moment before shaking his head, "No, I don't personally know them, but who in the Nine Heavens hasn't heard of the infamous Asura Clan? Everyone born within that family is exceptionally talented, not to mention their heaven-defying physiques that give them an indestructible body."

"The Nine Heavens respected... feared the Asura Clan."

"Young lady, your family was banished to the Primordial Realm for a reason. Why do you want to set them free? What does your family plan on doing once they return?" Senior Bai was well aware of her Legacy and its purpose.

However, he does not know of Xiao Hua or her family's purpose.

"Xiao Hua does not know," she responded to him in a clear voice, indicating that she truly doesn't know her family's plan, nor why she's helping them.

Senior Bai narrowed his eyes at Xiao Hua before shifting his gaze to Yuan.

"The Primordial Realm isn't any better than the Nine Heavens Grotto, as they both serve the same purpose. However, there is a slight difference between the two. The Primordial Realm was created to punish those that have wronged, but they are not hopeless. As long as they fulfill the Supreme Heaven's Legacy, they may roam the land freely."

"As for the Nine Heavens Eternal Grotto, once you're inside, it is impossible to come back out unless someone is daring enough to break you out."

"If the heavens are willing to give your family a second chance, I have no right to interfere with your legacy. However, not everyone shares the same sentiment as me."

"Some people out there have made it their lifelong mission to prevent those from the Primordial Realm from regaining their freedom, so it won't be easy. Although you won't meet any of these people right now, once you climb higher, where more people recognize her aura..."

"Her aura?" Yuan looked at Xiao Hua with raised eyebrows.

"I don't sense anything unnatural about her aura."

"Of course you don't. You have never met another exile in your life. Exiles have this unique aura that can be sensed by those with a superior divine sense, which you'll get once you reach Spirit Sovereign. However, knowing you, you'll probably learn it at a much earlier stage, perhaps as a Spirit Emperor." Senior Bai explained.

"Spirit Sovereigns can only be found in the Fifth Heaven and above. I hope you'll be ready then, because that is where her legacy truly makes it impossible. Of course, you can still choose to leave her. That's what Xu Jiaqi would suggest you do."

"That will never happen. Even if I have to fight the entire world, I won't abandon her." Yuan said with a stern face.

"Suit yourself." Senior Bai shrugged.

"Anyways, I have kept you here for long enough. Just remember to keep a lookout for the escaped immortals. If they're not caught soon, they will terrorize the world, and many innocent lives will be lost."

"I will let you know if I encounter them." Yuan nodded.

"Good. Then I will see you later."

Yuan and Xiao Hua left the place shortly after.

Senior Bai sighed to himself after they left, "The Asura Clan... They were once respected and admired by the entire Nine Heavens. But after their sudden rampage and their affiliation with 'that person' was exposed, they became the most feared family in the Nine Heavens."

"In the entire Nine Heavens, there are only a handful of people who wouldn't mind the Asura Clan regaining their freedom. Good luck, Yuan."

After returning to the Myriad of Techniques, Yuan sat down with Xiao Hua at an empty table.

"If you don't want to talk about it, you don't need to." Yuan said to her after a moment of silence.

Xiao Hua bit her lips and said, "Xiao Hua doesn't know why her family was banished to the Primordial Realm, and no matter how many times I ask my family, they would not tell me."

"However, they would always say that they weren't wrong for what they did and that they did not regret their actions even slightly."

Yuan smiled and said, "If they managed to raise someone like you, I don't doubt that whatever they did, they truly believed in their purpose. They are probably good people that made a mistake. Everyone makes mistakes no matter how perfect they may seem."

Xiao Hua shook her head and said, "Xiao Hua's family are not good people. They have killed a lot of people, and they never smile."

"I will be the judge of that when we meet them." Yuan said.

"Un." Xiao Hua nodded her head before returning inside his body.

Sometime later, Meixiu and the others began returning one by one with a technique in their grasp.

Both Wang Ming and Wang Bingbing decided to pick a sword technique while Shi Lang picked a spear technique. As for Hong Xiuquan and Li Jinxi, they also picked a technique that benefited their weapon of choice. Of course, they were all Heaven-rank techniques.

"What did you get?" Yuan asked Meixiu, who was the last to return.

"It's a bow technique that was once used by a famous archer, who managed to pierce a star with this very technique— at least that's what the description said."

"Alright. Since everyone has their techniques now, let's check out."

Thus, they returned back to the first floor to 'pay' for the techniques.

"All done. You still have 6 free techniques for this year." The young man said after logging in their techniques into the logbook.

"Thank you."

Once everyone had their technique, Yuan and the others left the Myriad of Techniques.

"Thanks for the technique, Yuan. I am going to study the hell out of it to show my gratitude!" Wang Ming said to him after they left.

"Don't train too hard. I'm afraid that you'll break something if you train any more than you already are.." Yuan smiled.

Chapter 734 - Waited All Night

"We're going to practice our techniques at the Cultivators' Haven if they have one here. What are you going to do, Yuan? Want to come with us?" Wang Ming asked him sometime later.

"Sorry but I have other plans. But if you ever need me, just let me know." Yuan shook his head.

"Alright. Once again, thank you for these techniques."

"Wait. Before you go, I have one last thing for you." Yuan retrieved another technique and handed it to Wang Ming.

"This is a Heaven-rank technique called 'Demon Sealing Strike'. It can only be used with a sword, but it will allow you to seal demons if you hit them with this technique. After you learn it, hand it to Wang Bingbing and Li Jinxi so that they can also learn it."

Yuan then looked at Hong Xiuquan and continued, "I don't have any other demon sealing technique at this moment that works for your type of weapon, but once I find something, I will let you learn it as well."

"No problem." Hong Xiuquan nodded.

"Guess I will have to put my own technique on hold for now until I finish learning this Demon Sealing Technique." Wang Ming said.

Sometime later, Yuan and Meixiu returned to the hotel while the others went to study their new techniques.

"Alas, the situation with the escaped immortals sound like a pain in the ass. I hope they catch them soon." Yuan sighed once they returned.

"Escaped immortals?" Meixiu raised her eyebrows.

"Well..." Yuan proceeded to explain the situation to her.

"That does sound troublesome..." Meixiu sighed.

"Fortunately, it is very unlikely that we will meet them since they're mostly in the upper heavens." Yuan said.

Sometime later, Meixiu asked, "What are we going to do now, Yuan? More specifically what are your plans?"

"I will figure something out tomorrow once Lulu returns."

"Speaking of Chu Liuxiang... She mentioned something about returning home?" Meixiu said.

"Yes, she went back home to speak with her parents. She should return by tonight."

"Okay."

"Since there isn't anything else to do, I'll log off for today."

"Wait, Young Master." Feng Yuxiang suddenly appeared before him right as he prepared to log off.

"Feng Feng?"

"Young Master, I'd like to request for some of your blood," she said with a solemn expression on her face.

"Oh? You finally cannot resist your urges? I thought you'd forgotten about it." Yuan smiled at her request.

"It's not that, Young Master. After hearing about the escaped immortals, I figured that it would be for the best if I release my curse even if it's just a little. I don't want to be powerless when you need me."

"Regardless of your reason, if you want my blood, you just need to ask me. I promised to help you remove that curse, after all."

Yuan extended his hand to her and said, "Go ahead. Drink as much as you want."

"Thank you, Young Master."

Feng Yuxiang grabbed his hand before opening her mouth and putting his finger inside.

She then bit a hole in his finger to release blood, but Yuan didn't feel any pain, and it felt more like a nibble.

Yuan swallowed nervously after watching Feng Yuxiang suck on his finger. This wasn't Feng Yuxiang's first time sucking his blood, and he never had such a reaction before, so why is his body suddenly heating up now?

He eventually realized that it was because of Feng Yuxiang's mouth, as the sensation from it reminded him of something else.

In order to calm his mind, Yuan began reciting all the array symbols inside his head.

About a minute later, Feng Yuxiang opened her mouth and released a satisfied sigh, sounding like someone who just finished chugging down an amazing drink.

Her hair began changing colors, becoming fiery red. Her eyes also turned golden, and she stared at Yuan's finger with an allured expression, seemingly not satisfied despite drinking a mouthful of his blood already.

She quickly shook her head and clapped her own cheeks to snap herself out of her temptation.

"You can drink more if you want." Yuan noticed that she wasn't satisfied.

"No, if I continue, I will surpass Spirit King and be forced to ascend." Feng Yuxiang said.

"Spirit King...?" It was at this moment Yuan realized that Feng Yuxiang's aura had skyrocketed from peak Spirit Grandmaster to Spirit King!

In fact, her aura is even stronger than Xiao Hua's at this moment!

"Although I am still nowhere near strong enough to fight Immortals, we should be fine for a while." Feng Yuxiang said with a smile.

"If you need more blood, just let me know." Yuan nodded.

"I will. Thank you, Young Master. My shoulders feel a lot lighter now that my curse has been weakened even more."

"I'm glad to hear that."

Yuan and Meixiu logged off the game shortly after.

Meixiu went to cook dinner immediately afterward, as it was already evening by the time they logged off.

"She's not back yet..." Yuan mumbled in a low voice when he woke up in an empty room.

He had gotten so used to waking up with Chu Liuxiang right beside him that it now feels awkward waking up alone.

Sometime later, he went downstairs for dinner.

"Hmm? Where is Miss Chu?" Wang Ming asked Yuan since they would always show up together.

"She returned to her family temporarily to speak with her parents." Yuan said.

"She should return later tonight."

"I see."

After dinner, Yuan returned to his room, but he didn't sleep and patiently waited all night for Chu Liuxiang to return.

However, Chu Liuxiang never returned from her family.

When the sun began rising, Yuan released a low sigh,? "I really wanted things to be different this time. Why can't parents just let their children decide on their own future? Why must they make things difficult for us?"

Yuan stood up and left the house without letting anyone know, as he didn't want to worry them, and he began making his way to the upper levels in the Dragon Spiral Mountain with a slight frown on his face.

Chapter 735 - Visiting The Chu Family

Although Yuan wasn't sure where he was going, nor where the Chu Family was located, he knew that they were in the upper levels of the mountain.

After walking for about half an hour, Yuan came across his first building to the Chu Family, and he decided to ask the people living there if they knew where the Chu Family lived.

A maid answered the door a few moments after Yuan knocked on their doors.

"Hello? How can we help you, young man?"

Yuan greeted the old woman with a charming smile, "Good morning, madam. I'm sorry for disturbing your family so early in the morning. I am supposed to meet a friend in the Chu Family's household, but she never told me their location, and I am afraid that I might be late."

"You want to know where the Chu Family is located, is that correct?"

"Yes, if you don't mind telling me."

"It would be my pleasure to help such a polite and handsome young man. Good news is you're going in the right direction. If you continue following this path, you will reach the Chu Family's household four buildings down. So if you see the next building, that would be the first building, and the Chu Family will be on the fourth."

"I understand. Thank you very much, and have a nice day!" Yuan bowed to the old woman before continuing his journey.

"Despite his innocent appearance, he sure has a formidable aura. He must be a powerful cultivator, and he is still so young. The Chu Family is very lucky to have a friend like him." The old woman mumbled to herself as she returned to cleaning her house.

Sometime later, Yuan arrived before a massive gate.

"This should be the Chu Family's household, but I don't see any buildings..." Yuan mumbled to himself.

After pondering for a moment, Yuan decided to jump the gate and follow the only path available.

He normally wouldn't do something like trespassing, but he didn't think the Chu Family deserves any respect for what they are doing to Chu Liuxiang.

After walking for about an hour, Yuan can finally see a building with his divine sense. Although his divine sense is still limited, he was able to see around 500 meters away, and he could keep it active for almost two hours without any rest.

Once he noticed the building, Yuan approached it without any hesitation.

'I am here now... But what should I do now?' Yuan began pondering, as he came to this place without much of a plan.

'Should I just bust the door down and let myself in?' He wondered.

However, he didn't need to spend much time pondering, because after standing in front of the Chu Family's house for less than a minute, someone opened the door and greeted him outside.

A handsome young man walked out of the building and stood a couple of meters away from Yuan.

"Wow, you really came. You're 'Yuan', right?" The handsome young man asked him.

"You were expecting me?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"No, not exactly. We had a feeling that you might come, but we weren't certain. As for my identity, I am Chu Wuyang, Chu Lixuiang's elder brother," said the handsome young man.

And before Yuan could say anything, Chu Wuyang continued, "You're here for my little sister, right?"

"Since you already know, let's not make things difficult."

Chu Wuyang shook his head and said, "Unfortunately, that's not how things work around here. You may be the famous Player Yuan, but your identity has no influence here."

"My parents have already decided that Chu Liuxiang will be marrying into the Qin Family, a rival of ours that we have been fighting for hundreds of years. They figured that it was about time for them to end their hostile relationship with each other with marriage."

"Luckily, the eldest son of the Qin Family has feelings for my little sister, or none of this would've been possible. And if you think my parents are going to give up the chance to befriend the Qin Family that has been a pain in our butt for the last few centuries, then you know nothing about our Chu Family."

Yuan coldly snorted after hearing Chu Wuyang's words, "So what if I don't know the Chu Family? That doesn't matter to me. I didn't come here for the Chu Family. I came here for my friend, Chu Liuxiang."

"I also don't give a damn about what the Chu Family wants. They have no right to decide who Chu Liuxiang spends her life with. Only Chu Liuxiang can make that decision alone."

However, instead of being angry, Chu Wuyang started laughing at Yuan's words.

"You sure bark loud for a nobody. Chu Liuxiang is not even truly part of the Chu Family. She should be grateful for being allowed to live with us. The Chu Family gave her everything when she had nothing. We gave her a home, a family, servants, treasures— many things that will make most people on earth jealous. However, when the Chu Family asks her for one thing in return, she has the audacity to refuse. Talk about being ungrateful."

Yuan frowned at his words and said, "I have met a lot of unreasonable people, but none of them were like you. You're special— a special type of unreasonable."

"If you 'help' someone with the intention of asking for something in return, are you really helping that person? Sounds like to me you're merely taking advantage of someone who needs help."

This is exactly why he doesn't ask for compensation when he gives away free stuff, and he most certainly does not expect anyone to return the favor, as it was his decision to help them in the first place.

"You know what? I have heard enough of your nonsense. If you're not going to give Chu Liuxiang back, I will take her back myself." Yuan said a moment before releasing some of his aura.

Chu Wuyang did not have much of a reaction and even smiled, "Do you think you're the only Spirit Master in this world?"

"Hah!"

Chu Wuyang released his aura, revealing that he was also a Spirit Master.

Chapter 736 - Are You Really A Spirit Master?

Yuan's expression remained nonchalant even after Chu Wuyang released his cultivation aura.

Although they were both Spirit Masters, Yuan was almost an entire realm above Chu Wuyang, who was only a second level Spirit Master.

Furthermore, with Yuan's godlike talents that allow him to fight those above his own realm, Chu Wuyang was no different than a Spirit Warrior— even a Spirit Apprentice in Yuan's eyes.

"I will give you one last chance to leave this place and forget about Chu Liuxiang. Regardless of your reason, if you cause trouble in our territory, we have the right to kill you! And if you didn't know, allow me to tell you that what you're doing right now has already violated the mountain's rules. You'll be evicted from the mountain the moment we report your intrusion today!"

"Kill me? Unfortunately, I don't think you are capable of doing that, and it's not because you're a reasonable human with morals. As for being evicted from the mountain, who cares, really? Although this place is nice and all, it's only a piece of land. There are countless other places that we can live at. Of course, Chu Liuxiang will also be there with us."

Yuan's words wiped the smile off Chu Wuyang's face really quickly.

"Whether I can kill you or not... Let's put that to the test!"

Chu Wuyang retrieved a dagger that he had hidden underneath his clothes and got into an offensive stance.

"Where's your weapon?" He asked Yuan, who stood there casually.

"I don't need one."

"Hmph! I better not hear any excuses when you lose— that is if you're still alive by then!" Chu Wuyang pounced at Yuan after saying his sentence.

Yuan immediately used his movement technique to dodge Chu Wuyang's strikes, and he was doing so effortlessly.

'What the? I was told that he's blind! There's no way a blind man could move like this, much less dodge my attacks!' Chu Wuyang was someone who took great pride in his fast movement speed, and he hasn't met anyone around his age that could move faster than him.

However, when he looked at Yuan's face, his eyes were definitely closed.

"Is this all you've got? I've fought Spirit Warriors that were stronger than you in Cultivation Online. Are you really a Spirit Master?" Yuan said in a bored voice as he continued dodging Chu Wuyang's strikes.

"Shut the fuck up and fight me properly!" Chu Wuyang shouted at him out of frustration.

"I will... After I decide how I should deal with you." Yuan said.

"You arrogant little fuck—"

Yuan suddenly swung his fist, hitting Chu Wuyang, who was caught off guard, square in the face.

Bang!

Chu Wuyang flew backward until he hit the door to the house, destroying it.

However, he didn't stop at the door and continued flying until he was inside the house, which shocked a few of the servants that were working at the entrance.

"This motherfucker..." Chu Wuyang struggled to get up after being hit, feeling as though he'd been struck in the face by a battering ram, something used to forcefully open doors.

And just as he regained his balance, Yuan appeared before him to give him another punch, knocking him back down to the floor.

Once Chu Wuyang fell onto the floor for the second time, Yuan mounted on top of him and began sending a seemingly endless stream of powerful punches to his face.

"How dare you call yourself her 'brother'?! A brother should protect his sister, not harm her! You're a disgrace!" Yuan shouted at Chu Wuyang in an angry voice as he continued to plummet Chu Wuyang, who could physically feel his own face being flattened, yet his face was so swollen that he was numb to the pain.

"AHHHH! THE YOUNG MASTER! SOMEBODY! HELP!"

The servants there began screaming in a terrified voice as they watched some unknown figure attacking their Young Master.

"Stop!"

A clear voice suddenly resounded right before a leg appeared in front of Yuan, and supporting the leg was a powerful force.

However, Yuan did not even flinch at the incoming leg, and he used one of his hands to catch the leg with seemingly no effort.

"What?!"

Yuan stopped hitting Chu Wuyang and looked at the person who just intervened to see a handsome man standing there with a surprised look on his face.

"Who are you?! And why are you attacking my little brother?!" This handsome man asked Yuan with his leg still raised, as he was unable to free himself from Yuan's grasp.

"So you're his elder brother, huh?" Yuan didn't say anything else and swung his arm like a whip, throwing the handsome man across the room.

After that, he stood up and looked at Chu Wuyang's bloodied face.

"You're lucky. If we were in Cultivation Online, I wouldn't need to worry about killing you by accident."

Yuan no longer bothered with Chu Wuyang, who lost his consciousness shortly after. Instead, he turned his attention to the newcomer.

"Take me to Chu Liuxiang or you will end up like your little brother." Yuan said to him in a cold voice.

"I see... So you're Yuan..." The handsome man said as he stood back up and patted his clothes.

"You're much more terrifying than they give you credit for, Yuan." The handsome man said with a smile.

"However, if you expect me to bow down to you after what you did to my little bro, then you're—"

Before Chu Wuyang's brother could even finish his sentence, Yuan used his movement technique to close their distance.

Yuan then extended his arm out and clutched the elder brother's neck with a claw-like hand.

"I'm not very good at controlling my own strength in this body, especially when I am upset, so you should tell me what I want to know before I accidentally snap your neck." Yuan said to him in a cold voice, and he slowly tightened his grasp on the brother's neck.

"W-Where do you... think you... are?! If you... dare harm... even a single hair... Agh!"

Yuan sighed as he continued to tighten his grasp, "Is everybody in the Chu Family like this? I must say, you guys are very much like Chu Liuxiang in this aspect— your stubbornness, that is."

The brother could feel his windpipe slowly being crushed by Yuan, and he quickly began panicking.

What if Yuan really kills him by accident?

"P-Please... Wait..."

The brother opened his mouth, but just as he was about to speak, another voice resounded.

"Please release him, Young Master Yuan."

Upon hearing this familiar voice, Yuan looked at the tall figure standing not far away from them with his divine sense, and he immediately recognized this person to be Sebastian, Chu Liuxiang's butler.

"That will depend on which side you're on, Sebastian." Yuan said after a moment of silence.

Sebastian released a low sigh before speaking, "I have always been on the Young Lady's side since I was assigned as her butler. I also believe that the Young Lady should be able to decide her own future. However, neither my feelings or beliefs mean a thing, as I am merely a servant for the Chu Family, and my job is to obey their orders. That has been my sole purpose since I was born, not to mention my ancestors that have worked for the Chu Family since ancient times."

Sebastian suddenly changed from a standing position to an aggressive stance, and he continued, "Do you recall our conversation at the Jaded Garden? I know it hasn't been long since then, but I hope you're ready to face the Chu Family."

Chapter 737 - Fighting Sebastian

"..." Yuan silently stood there even after Sebastian showed his will to fight.

"Do you really intend on fighting me? You're a Spirit Warrior, even weaker than these two. You won't win, and I don't want to hurt you since you're Chu Liuxiang's butler, but that might not be possible if we fight." Yuan said to him.

"I also don't want to fight you, but I have been ordered to keep you away from the Young Lady. If you leave now, we won't need to fight." Sebastian said.

And he continued, "I am also well aware that I cannot beat you, but at least I can say that I'd tried to fulfill my mission."

Yuan shook his head before tossing the individual in his grasp to the end of the room before facing Sebastian.

"Chu Liuxiang... No, Lulu won't be happy if she learns that we'd fought each other. Are you sure you want to continue?" Yuan slowly approached Sebastian.

In response to Yuan's question, Sebastian suddenly rushed forward before launching a fist attack at Yuan.

"Hah!"

Yuan watched as Sebastian's fist slowly approached his face.

Of course, Sebastian's movement was by no means slow, but in Yuan's view, it was barely moving.

Right as Sebastian's fist reached his face, Yuan used one of his hands to block it.

After blocking the attack with ease, Yuan tightened his grasp so that Sebastian couldn't run away.

"I'm sorry..."

Yuan suddenly opened his eyelids, revealing his beautiful eyes and its silver iris.

Sebastian couldn't help but stare at Yuan's colorless eyes with a dazed face.

However, Yuan's eyes suddenly changed colors, turning bright golden.

The next moment, Sebastian suddenly realized that his vision had gone dark, yet his consciousness was clearly still awake.

ROOOOOOOOOOOOOOOAAAAAAAAAARRRR

Sebastian started hearing a subtle yet domineering roar echoing within his head, and this noise gradually grew louder and louder.

Once the noise reached its peak, a massive slit suddenly appeared before Sebastian, almost as though someone had cut the void with a sword.

When this slit in the void opened, it revealed the sharp eye of a beast that reminded Sebastian of reptile eyes, but this eye was countless times bigger than himself, making him feel incredibly insignificant, almost like a mortal before a god.

After seeing this beastly eye, Sebastian began to tremble uncontrollably while an intense sense of fear filled his mind.

Sebastian's real body suddenly went limp after being exposed to Yuan's Dragon's Gaze for only a few seconds.

Yuan closed his eyes when this happened, and he gently laid Sebastian's body onto the floor afterward.

'So I can use Dragon's Gaze even though I am still blind...' Yuan thought to himself as he left the scene after making sure Sebastian was still alive and wasn't harmed too badly by the Dragon's Gaze.

After what happened at the Jaded Garden, Yuan realized that he needed to learn more powerful techniques, so he tried to learn all of the techniques he knew from Cultivation Online.

However, he's already learned most of the weaker techniques from Cultivation Online, leaving him with mostly extremely strong attacks.

The Heavenly Splitting Sword Strike was simply too powerful for him to use in this world, and a single mistake could easily change the landscape. This left him with either Heavenly Domain or Dragon's Gaze, and he ended up trying to learn Dragon's Gaze because he was curious if he could use it despite being blind.

As for the technique Relentless Dragon Overwhelms the Nine Heavens, he couldn't learn it at that time because he still hasn't learned the technique in Cultivation Online, but he already planned on learning it next.

After trying for about two weeks, he'd managed to activate Dragon's Gaze — at least that's what he believed because his eyes had the same burning sensation that he felt whenever he used Dragon's Gaze in Cultivation Online.

However, he couldn't test whether it truly works or not because he didn't want to use Dragon's Gaze on Meixiu or the others, so he waited for the perfect moment to test out the Dragon's Gaze, and he found that moment with Sebastian, who he didn't want to physically harm, so he could only try using Dragon's Gaze on him to take him out of the fight mentally.

Yuan wandered the Chu Family's residence for the next couple of minutes until he ran into someone, as he had no idea where to go in such a massive place.

He eventually encountered a young maid, who was quietly dusting furniture in the hallway while humming to herself in a cheerful manner, seemingly in her own world and unaware of the chaos.

"Excuse me, do you know where I can find Chu Liuxiang?" Yuan asked her.

"Hm? Are you perhaps Young Master Qin? I thought your visit was scheduled for next week." The young maid mistook Yuan as someone from the Qin Family.

"Uh... The schedule changed." Yuan decided to play along with her.

"Is that so... Anyways, you should be able to find the Young Lady in her garden," she then said.

"The garden?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"Oh, I'm sorry. This is your first time here, right? Please, follow me. I will take you there."

"Thank you." Yuan nodded and began following this young maid.

Meanwhile, inside the garden, Chu Liuxiang sat before the pond that was beside her immortal cave with a dispirited expression on her face.

"Yuan... He should be coming soon to take me away from this place just like he'd promised, right? I only hope that nobody gets hurt over this..." She sighed.

She turned to look at the beautiful woman that was silently cultivating on top of her immortal cave.

"Master, did my parents ask you to babysit me?"

Senior Qi responded without opening her eyes, "No, I am here to deal with your little lover because your parents are expecting his presence soon."

"What?! You're going to fight Yuan?! You can't do that, Master!" Chu Liuxiang exclaimed.

"Why not?" Senior Qi asked in a calm voice.

"I-It's for your own good..." Chu Liuxiang responded in a low voice.

Senior Qi finally opened her eyes, and she turned to look at Chu Liuxiang with a narrowed gaze.

"You think I won't be able to defeat him?" She asked in a cold voice.

Chapter 738 - Chu Liuxiang's Master

"It hasn't even been a year since I stopped beating you and you have already forgotten what I am capable of? Want me to remind you?" Senior Qi said as she stared daggers at Chu Liuxiang.

"That's not it, Master. I am well aware of your capabilities, but compared to Yuan... I don't want to call him a monster, but... If you have seen what he's capable of, you'll understand my feelings."

"Hmph! As if I'd lose to some 18-year-old who only recently regained his ability to move!" Senior Qi coldly snorted.

"But Master, you're not that much older than him yourself... And Yuan, he defeated a demon by himself." Chu Liuxiang said with a bittersweet smile.

"Wait... What did you just say?" Senior Qi's face suddenly became serious.

"Y-You're only 25 years old, which isn't that much older than Yuan. Or am I wrong?" Chu Liuxiang swallowed nervously when she saw how Senior Qi's expression changed, and she wondered if it was because she had mentioned her age.

"Not that! You said that he'd defeated a demon by himself? I thought he merely assisted the Six Spiritual Families? That's what they said." Senior Qi said.

In order to keep Yuan away from the spotlight, the Six Spiritual Families told the world that Yuan had only assisted them in defeating the demon. In truth, Yuan had defeated the demon by himself, but only very few individuals are aware of this fact.

"Oh, right. The Six Spiritual Families changed the story a bit to help Yuan since they knew he didn't like to be in the spotlight. But it's true. Yuan fought the demon from beginning to end by himself without any help." Chu Liuxiang revealed the truth.

"...Are you okay, Master?"

Chu Liuxiang asked her when she noticed that Senior Qi looked a little nervous afterward.

"I am..."

Just as Senior Qi opened her mouth, a loud voice suddenly resounded.

"Lulu! Are you here?! I am here to take you back as promised!" Yuan's voice echoed in the garden.

"Yuan?!"

Chu Liuxiang immediately stood up and looked around with an excited expression on her face.

"Yuan! I am here!" She shouted back.

And hearing Chu Liuxiang's voice respond, Yuan immediately rushed in the direction her voice came from.

"Huh? Yuan? He's not Young Master Qin?" The young maid stood there with a dazed look on her face when she realized that she'd screwed up.

After standing there for a few moments, she turned around and ran away from the scene while silently praying to herself, hoping that nobody saw her together with Yuan.

A few minutes later, Yuan arrived at the pond and the immortal cave to see Chu Liuxiang standing behind a beautiful young woman.

"Lulu! Are you okay? Are you hurt?" Yuan immediately asked her.

Chu Liuxiang vigorously shook her head out of excitement, "No, I am okay. What about you? Are you hurt? What happened to my family?"

"Well... I encountered your brother Chu Wuyang as well as his elder brother... And Sebastian..."

"My brothers and Sebastian? Did something happen to them?" Chu Liuxiang could sense Yuan's nervousness even though they were standing so far away from each other.

"They stood in my way, so I took them down." Yuan sighed.

"T-Took them down? You killed them?" Chu Liuxiang's eyes widened with shock.

"Eh? N-No! I merely knocked them unconscious!" Yuan said, skipping some details, such as turning Chu Wuyang's face into a bloody mess and nearly breaking the elder brother's neck.

"I see... As long as Sebastian is alive, I won't complain. He might have tried to stop you, but it's not because he wanted to. I hope you'll forgive him. I don't care about the other two. They have always been a pain to deal with. I couldn't care less even if they died." Chu Liuxiang said.

"I know. Sebastian is only doing his job." Yuan nodded.

"Ahem! Are you ignoring me on purpose?" Senior Qi suddenly cleared her throat, interrupting their 'reunion'.

"Who are you?" Yuan quickly asked.

"My surname is Qi. Do you recognize it?" Senior Qi suddenly asked him, almost as though she was expecting him to recognize her surname for some reason.

"No, I don't. Should I?" Yuan said.

"..."

Senior Qi turned silent for a moment.

"I heard from my disciple that you had defeated the demon from the Jaded Garden all by yourself. Is that true?" She asked him a moment later.

"Disciple? So you're Lulu's master?" Yuan was surprised to hear this.

"Answer my question! Did you defeat the demon by yourself?!" Senior Qi asked again, clearly anxious for an answer.

"So what if I did?"

"How did you do it?"

"Huh? Why do you care?" Yuan found this Senior Qi's behavior to be very suspicious.

"Because I don't believe you. There's no way a nobody like you can defeat a demon! After all, they're indestructible! They are supreme beings that can only be sealed!" Senior Qi exclaimed.

"You..." Yuan was surprised by Senior Qi's knowledge regarding demons. It was almost as though she knew of their existence even before the incident at the Jaded Garden.

"You... Who are you? Why do you know so much about demons?" It was now Yuan's turn to ask such questions.

"..."

Senior Qi did not respond to his question. Instead, she lifted her hand and pointed her palm towards the immortal cave.

The next moment, a sword flew out of the immortal cave and into her hands.

'Qi Manipulation? She's a Spirit Grandmaster?' Yuan was inwardly shocked when Senior Qi used Qi Manipulation.

"If you defeat me, I will tell you what you want to know. But if I defeat you, you'll tell me everything you know," she said to him while pointing the sword at him in a provocative manner.

"Very well..." Yuan nodded in agreement.

"Where's your weapon? I don't want to hear any excuses when you lose." Senior Qi then asked.

Yuan didn't say anything and raised his arm until it was parallel to the ground.

Senior Qi and Chu Liuxiang watched his movements with interest.

A large sword that was as tall as Yuan himself suddenly appeared out of thin air the next moment and entered his grasp.

The second Yuan tightened his grasp on the sword, his aura skyrocketed, and the sword began vibrating with excitement.

"T-That's his sword in Cultivation Online... How did he..." Chu Liuxiang mumbled in a dazed voice when she recognized Yuan's sword—the Empyrean Overlord!

Chapter 739 - Sealed

"Get back, Liuxiang. You'll get in the way." Senior Qi said to Chu Liuxiang, who quickly retreated to the immortal cave.

"Are you ready?" She asked Yuan.

"Whenever you are." He nodded.

And without saying another word, Senior Qi rushed towards him, closing their distance almost immediately.

"Hah!"

Senior Qi swung her sword without using any techniques, only relying on her strength and powerful spiritual energy.

Clang!

However, Yuan blocked her attack with ease, and he only had one arm on the sword.

Senior Qi raised one of her eyebrows in surprise before swinging her sword again with even more strength.

Yuan was pushed back a little this time, but he still only needed one arm to defend against the attack.

"At least you're much stronger than the Chu brothers." Yuan said with a smile on his face.

"Don't get cocky! The fight is just beginning!"

The two of them began exchanging blows back and forth for the next few minutes.

"Let's see how you'll deal with this!"

Sometime later, Senior Qi distanced herself from Yuan, and once she was at a safe distance, she began making symbols with her hand.

"!!!"

The way Senior Qi moved her hands resembled how Array Masters create arrays, and Yuan wondered if she was going to use arrays.

"Seal!"

Senior Qi suddenly shouted.

"What the?"

Yuan blurted out when his body suddenly stopped moving.

'I cannot move? No... It feels more like I am being restricted by invisible chains... What kind of technique is this?' Yuan wondered to himself, even admiring the technique a little.

"How do you like my family's secret technique? It's not really effective on humans since it was never meant to be used on them, but this much strength is more than enough to restrict anyone, even a talented Spirit Master like you."

"Y-Yuan! Your legs! They're turning into stone!" Chu Liuxiang's voice suddenly resounded, and it was filled with distress.

"What?" Yuan looked at his legs after hearing Chu Liuxiang's words, and sure enough, his legs had turned into stone!

"This technique..." Yuan was baffled when he saw the petrifying effects, as it was almost the same as his demon sealing techniques.

"You... You know demon sealing techniques?" Wanting to confirm his suspicions, he decided to ask her.

"You want me to answer your questions? You'll have to defeat me. However, it doesn't appear that you have defeated me, so I won't tell you anything." Senior Qi said with a smirk on her face.

Clearly, she wanted to get back at him for refusing to answer her questions before.

"Don't think you have already won just because I cannot move. Despite my situation, I can still defeat you whenever I want." Yuan said to her.

"Is that so?" Senior Qi casually walked up to his face and said, "And how are you going to do that when half of your body has turned into stone?"

By now, the petrifying effect had spread all the way to his chest.

"If you don't hurry up and surrender, your entire body will turn into stone, and when that happens, even I cannot revert the damages. That means you'll turn into a stone statue forever."

"What?! That's dangerous, Master! Hurry up and release him!" Chu Liuxiang exclaimed after hearing Senior Qi's words.

However, Yuan remained calm and said, "I will win this fight."

"I don't know where you're getting your confidence, but do you even understand your situation right now? You cannot even lift a finger, much less defeat me."

In response to her words, Yuan merely stood there with a calm smile on his face, allowing the petrifying effect to slowly consume his body— not that he could move his body.

When the effect reached his neck, Senior Qi frowned and said to him, "Do you really intend on dying in such a manner? Is your pride really so valuable that you'd give your life away for it? Being sealed is a fate that's worse than death, you know? Even after your body has completely turned into stone, your body won't immediately die, which means that you'll still be alive until you die of natural causes."

"When you're sealed, you won't feel hunger or thirst, and your internal organs will be supported by the spiritual energy your body naturally gathers, allowing you to live for many months, even years without any problems."

"Do you really want to spend the rest of your life in such a miserable state? Hurry up and surrender." Senior Qi tried to convince him to give up.

However, Yuan remained silent.

"If you think I am going to free you at the last second so that I won't kill you, then you're overestimating me. I will really let your entire body turn into stone. Don't test me." Senior Qi added.

"Don't worry, I don't have such thoughts." Yuan said, still with a calm smile on his face.

"Yuan! What are you doing?! What am I going to do if you're sealed forever?! Life isn't worth living if you're not here with me!" Chu Liuxiang shouted at him with tears flowing down her face.

"Believe me, Lulu. I won't lose. I promise you that I will defeat her and take you back to the family with me." Yuan said.

"You better!"

A few more moments later, Yuan's entire body became stone, turning into a stone statue and looking exactly like the sealed demon in the Jaded Garden.

However, even after being sealed, Yuan still had a smile on his face.

"This crazy bastard... He really allowed himself to become sealed. I have never met a madman like him before..." Senior Qi stared at Yuan's stone face with a dazed expression on her face.

"Master, if anything happens to him, I will never forgive you!" Chu Liuxiang said to her with a deep frown.

Senior Qi looked at her and sighed, "Calm down. I can make him normal again even though he's fully sealed. I only said that I couldn't just to scare him. In fact, since this technique isn't meant for humans, he will automatically break out of that state in a few days. However, since he dared to defy me, I am going to let him suffer for a few days."

"R-Really?" Chu Liuxiang mumbled with a dumbfounded look on her face.

"You really think I am that cruel of a person? I—"

"Not that, Master. I meant the 'few days' part. It's only been a few moments and there are already cracks on him." Chu Liuxiang pointed at Yuan.

"What? That's impossible!"

Senior Qi frowned before turning to look at Yuan.

"I-Impossible..."

Senior Qi muttered in a shocked voice when she saw that Yuan's seal was really weakening with cracks already.

However, she couldn't comprehend how that was possible.

'Even if he's a Spirit Master, he shouldn't be able to break out of my seal this quickly. The only way this is possible is if he knows how the technique works... Did he really defeat the demon by himself? But that's even more absurd!'

The stone on Yuan's face suddenly began falling off, revealing his soft skin once again.

"When I first encountered the demon at the Jaded Garden, I wondered if there would be any families in this world that could deal with them like the Demon Sealing Clan inside Cultivation Online."

"Since you can also use demon sealing techniques, I can only assume that you guys actually exist.. Or am I wrong?" Yuan turned to look at Senior Qi, who stood there with a baffled face.

Chapter 740 - Qi Family

Chapter 740 Qi Family

"Who are you, really? If you belong to one of us, I should recognize you. However, I don't know you." Senior Qi narrowed her eyes on him.

"I'm afraid that I cannot answer your question since you haven't defeated me yet." Yuan suddenly pointed his sword at Senior Qi before mumbling in a low voice.

"Seal."

"What?!"

Senior Qi's eyes widened with shock when she suddenly lost control over her body's movements.

'I-Impossible! He also knows our technique?!'

Not only did Yuan know her technique, it also appeared to be much stronger than her own judging by how much quicker the petrifying effect was affecting her body.

In just a few seconds, half of Senior Qi's body had turned into stone.

However, Senior Qi wasn't panicking.

She even showed a confident smile and said, "I'm surprised. To think you knew so much about demon sealing clans and even our techniques. However, you should know that demon sealing techniques do not have any effect on humans. Even if I don't do anything, I will be able to break free from the seal after a few days. If I try, I can break out of it within seconds just like you did."

"Then let's make a bet. I will give you ten minutes to break out of the seal. If you cannot do it, then it's my victory, and you will have to admit defeat." Yuan suddenly suggested.

"Ten minutes? Hahaha! I only need one minute to break your seal!" Senior Qi laughed out loud.

"I will see you in a minute." Senior Qi glared at Yuan until her entire body turned into stone.

Chu Liuxiang approached Yuan and asked, "Do you think she will break out of the seal in a minute? You managed to break out of her seal in just a few seconds, after all."

"Who knows." Yuan shrugged.

"Eh? You don't know? Then why did you make a bet with her, even giving her ten whole minutes? That's not something you do if you're not confident in your own abilities." Chu Liuxiang stared at him with a slightly dumbfounded face.

"I am confident, but that doesn't really mean anything."

"Let's just wait and see then." Chu Liuxiang said, and they proceeded to wait for Senior Qi to break the seal.

One minute later.

"She's late. It's been longer than a minute. Does this mean you win?" Chu Liuxiang said.

"I guess so, but let's give her the full ten minutes."

Chu Liuxiang nodded, and they continued to wait.

Ten minutes later.

"I really hope she's still alive..." Chu Liuxiang said in a low voice.

"She's definitely still alive. I can sense her spiritual energy, and she is still trying to break through the seal even as we speak." Yuan said.

"What now? Are you going to release the seal?"

To Chu Liuxiang's surprise, Yuan shook his head, "No, I will let her suffer a little more. This is what she gets for being so arrogant, and she also wanted to stop me from taking you home."

"Master does have the tendency to act arrogantly from time to time, but she's not a bad person. She taught me many things ever since I came to the Chu Family. I even think of her as an elder sister."

"Alright, I will reduce a few hours from her punishment." Yuan said with a smile.

Chu Liuxiang also chuckled.

"Chu Liuxiang!"

A cold voice suddenly resounded behind them.

When Chu Liuxiang turned around, she could see her parents standing in the distance with many of their guards following behind them.

"Stay behind me." Yuan said as he stood in between her and the Chu Family.

"Where is Senior Qi?! I asked her to deal with that bastard!" Chu Shijian shouted in an angry voice.

"Dear! Look behind them!" Chu Shufen pointed at the stone statue behind Yuan and Chu Liuxiang.

"Y-You bastard! What have you done to her?! Do you have any idea who she is?! If you harmed even a single hair on her body, you're a dead man!" Chu Shijian roared in a deafening tone.

"I don't know her, but as you can see for yourself, it's a little too late for that kind of talk. However, you can't blame me. You can only blame yourself—your Chu Family for making me come here." Yuan said with a cold expression on his face.

"It's over... You have no idea what you've just done! The Qi Family will kill all of us once they learn that she had died while within our territory!" Chu Shijian mumbled in a fearful voice.

The Chu Family is one of the biggest families in the world, but that doesn't mean they are fearless. The Qi Family is a secret powerhouse that has lived in seclusion for even longer than the Six Spiritual Families, and they are one of very few powers that can make the Chu Family tremble in fear.

Yuan raised his eyebrows. Is the Qi Family really that powerful?

'I guess it makes sense for them to be so powerful since they have to fight demons and all...' Yuan thought to himself.

"The relationship between our families was reaching its peak! They even sent over the most talented genius in their family to our family as a sign of their trust, but you had to ruin everything!" Chu Shijian's eyes were bloodshot as of this moment.

"I didn't plan on killing you even after learning about what you have done to my two sons, but I must avenge Senior Qi by taking your life. Hopefully, the Qi Family won't kill all of us with your sacrifice."

Chu Shijian pointed at Yuan and shouted, "Bring me his head!"

The guards behind him immediately rushed forward and surrounded Yuan and Chu Liuxiang.

"F-Father! Please wait! There is something—"

"Shut up! If you don't want to die with him, get away from him!" Chu Shijian shouted.

"Senior Qi came here and took you in as her disciple, yet you allowed her to be killed just like that?! Even if I don't punish you later, the Qi Family will definitely do so!"

"It's alright, Lulu. Stand back. I will handle this." Yuan said to her with a smile.

Chapter 741 - Fighting The Chu Family

"B-But this is all just a misunderstanding! If we let my father know that Senior Qi is actually..."

"No, don't tell him. I have been wondering how I should deal with your parents. This shall be their punishment." Yuan said.

Chu Liuxiang looked at him with wide eyes, but she couldn't refute him for some reason.

"Okay... Try not to get hurt." Chu Liuxiang said to him before leaving his side.

The guards there allowed Chu Liuxiang to leave their encirclement without any trouble.

Yuan scanned the guards there with his divine sense.

'Mostly Spirit Warriors with only two Spirit Masters, huh... I don't need my weapon for this.'

Not wanting to accidentally kill these people, Yuan stowed the Emptyrean Overlord.

"This bastard is underestimating us..."

The guards there were provoked by Yuan's action even though that wasn't his intention.

"Get him! There's no need to hold back since the Patriarch has asked for his head!"

The guards began rushing at Yuan the next moment.

Seeing this, Yuan used his movement technique to maneuver around them, and because there were so many of them, it actually gave Yuan an advantage, allowing him to confuse them easier.

"W-Where did he go?!"

"He's right behind you!"

"No, he's over here!"

"Hey—"

"What the—?!"

"How is he moving this fast?! He's not human!"

The guards were shocked when they realized that they couldn't even follow his movements, much less touch him.

"Ah!"

"Gak!"

"Fuc—!"

Yuan began knocking out these guards one by one, rendering over half of the guards unconscious in mere minutes.

Sometime later, after defeating all of the guards, Yuan turned to face Chu Shijian, who was trembling with anger.

"Are you going to try and kill me next?" Yuan asked him in a calm voice.

Chu Shijian gritted his teeth.

If someone like Senior Qi lost to Yuan, there was no way for him to defeat Yuan.

Chu Shufen suddenly tapped his shoulders and said, "Let's get him together."

"Alright. Watch my back." Chu Shijian nodded.

Once they were prepared, Chu Shijian and his wife began their attack on Yuan.

"Taste my Force of Hell!"

Chu Shijian's fists suddenly became engulfed in red flames as they flew toward Yuan's face.

'What a powerful technique!'

Yuan thought to himself as he used his movement technique to dodge the attack.

Boom!

Chu Shijian's fist exploded with fire right after Yuan dodged it.

However, right as Yuan dodged the attack, he noticed that Chu Shufen was already behind him, almost as though she had predicted his movements.

Chu Shufen was also in a kicking motion, and before Yuan could react, he was sent flying by Chu Shufen's powerful kick.

"Yuan!"

Chu Liuxiang immediately grew nervous.

"I'm fine. I didn't expect her to read my movement technique." Yuan said as he stood back up without any injuries.

"How the hell is he still standing after eating my kick like that? That kick had enough force to shatter boulders and bend thick steel! Even if it couldn't kill him, it should've rendered him immobilized, yet he stood up so casually!" Chu Shufen appeared to be even more surprised than Yuan from that exchange.

"If one isn't enough to take him down, give him a few more! Let's do it!" Chu Shijian said, and they went for another attack.

While Chu Shijian rushed forward, Chu Shufen stayed behind to watch Yuan so that she could read his movement again.

However, Yuan directly ignored Chu Shijian this time and went straight for Chu Shufen after avoiding him.

"If you think I am vulnerable, then you've just made a poor judgement!" Chu Shufen didn't even try to run away and decided to face Yuan head-on.

Chu Shufen's aura suddenly skyrocketed right before she threw a punch at Yuan.

However, Yuan wasn't even close enough to be hit by her fist.

Despite that, Yuan suddenly stopped running at her and dodged to the side.

Whoosh!

An invisible force flew right past Yuan after he dodged.

'Qi Manipulation?' Yuan frowned when he saw how similar it felt to Qi Manipulation.

'No, Lulu also did the same thing before. If I recall correctly, it's called Spiritual Control...'

"How dare you ignore me!"

Chu Shijian suddenly appeared behind Yuan while he stopped for a moment to ponder.

"Your head is mine!"

Chu Shijian had a hidden dagger in his grasp as he went for Yuan's neck.

"As if I'd fall for the same trick twice!"

Yuan saw Chu Shijian coming from a mile away because of his divine sense, and he used his movement technique to dodge the strike.

"Che! What a fucking annoying movement technique!" Chu Shijian cursed out loud after failing for the second time to kill Yuan.

"So you're seriously trying to kill me, huh?" Yuan sighed out loud.

If he didn't dodge the attack just now, Chu Shijian would've definitely taken his head.

As for Chu Shufen, her attack would've also killed him if his body wasn't so strong.

"Since you're trying to kill me, don't blame me for doing the same."

Yuan suddenly opened his eyes and activated Dragon's Gaze, stunning both Chu Shijian and Chu Shufen at the same time.

And while they were stunned, he slowly approached them.

Since they were no longer capable of fighting, Yuan could do as he pleased with them.

"Are you really going to kill them?" Chu Liuxiang asked him with a nervous look on her face.

"Do you want me to?" Yuan asked her in return.

"Of course not. Although they may have wronged me this time, it is also true that they have cared for me for the last decade. And I don't want to see you killing people... At least not in the real world." Chu Liuxiang sighed.

Yuan smiled, "Don't worry, I never planned on killing them. I gain nothing by becoming a murderer."

"Then what are you going to do to them?"

"Although I won't kill them, I won't forgive them so easily either.." Yuan said as he continued to approach Chu Shijian, who was kneeling on the ground with a soulless look on his face.

Chapter 742 - Punishment

Once Yuan was standing in front of Chu Shijian, he took a deep breath before speaking in a slow but clear voice, "Despite all the things you have done— despite my urges, I won't kill you. However, it is a fact that you tried to kill me today, and to make sure that you won't attack me again in the future, I will end your life... as a Cultivator."

Chu Shijian snapped out of his daze when he heard Yuan's words, but before he could open his mouth and utter a single word, Yuan swung his arm and punched Chu Shijian square in the stomach, shattering his Dantian.

Cough!

Chu Shijian coughed up a mouthful of blood afterward.

"Ahh... Ahh... No... Not my cultivation!" A horrified look appeared on Chu Shijian's face when he could feel his spiritual energy leaving his Dantian before leaving from the pores on his body.

"What... What have you done?!" Chu Shijian snapped at Yuan with a furious face.

"How dare you cripple my cultivation! Do you have any idea how much time, effort, and money I have sacrificed to reach that point?! Without my cultivation, the Chu Family will be doomed! And this is all your fault!"

"You were prepared to take my life, so I took away your cultivation in return. It's a fair trade if you ask me. At least you get to keep your life." Yuan said.

"Don't fuck with me! I'd rather you kill me now than live the life of a mortal!"

Yuan shook his head and said, "If you want to die, that's your decision. I already made my decision."

Tears began flowing from Chu Shijian's face.

Chu Liuxiang swallowed nervously when she saw this scene, as this is her first time seeing Chu Shijian shed such sorrowful tears.

Yuan ignored Chu Shijian and turned his focus to Chu Shufen next.

When Chu Shijian realized what Yuan was about to do, he stood up and shouted, "Y-You bastard! You're not satisfied with ruining my life so you're going to ruin my wife's life as well?!"

Hearing his words, Yuan calmly responded, "It wouldn't be fair if I only took your cultivation and not hers. Furthermore, she also tried to kill me. It only makes sense for me to take her cultivation as well."

"I swear to god, if you dare hurt even a single hair on her body, I will do whatever it takes to make your life miserable before taking your life! You might think that you have defeated the Chu Family because you took away my cultivation, but we still have many resources at our disposal, and it will all be used to dispose of you!"

"..."

The place turned dead silent for a good moment until Chu Liuxiang spoke.

"Yuan, I think you have already punished them enough. Although I wouldn't mind fighting the entire world with you, I cannot say the same about the others. Think about Meixiu and the others that will be dragged into this mess if you continue."

"Father, I will leave the Chu Family after today. I wish that I could've left the family in a better manner, but what's done is already done. And despite what happened between us, I don't hate you or the Chu Family. In fact, I am feeling grateful to you and the family. After all, you gave me a chance to experience what it feels like to have a family even if it is not an ordinary family."

"Now that I am old enough to have my own family, I am going to start one with the person I love— Yuan."

After a moment of silence, Chu Liuxiang looked at Senior Qi, who was still sealed, and said, "As for Master— Senior Qi is still alive. You can ask her to explain everything to you once she breaks out of that seal in a few days."

Chu Liuxiang suddenly went to Yuan and grabbed his hand before mumbling to him, "Let's go home now, shall we? I don't want us to miss Meixiu's breakfast."

Hearing her words, Yuan could only nod his head.

"Okay."

Chu Liuxiang and Yuan left the scene shortly after, leaving the Chu Family in havoc.

"Are you okay?" Chu Liuxiang asked Yuan as they walked home together.

"Yes, I am not hurt."

"I am not talking about your body, you silly. You did some incredible things today— things that I didn't know you were capable of. If you want to talk about it, I will always be here to listen."

"I guess I was acting a little different today. I don't know why, but I felt incredibly angry today, yet it wasn't the type of anger that I am used to. Maybe I had released some of my built-up anger for my own family on the Chu Family."

And he continued, "But it's okay. I will be fine since everything has ended now."

However, Chu Liuxiang shook her head with a bitter smile, and she sighed, "Unfortunately, things are not over yet, as much as I want it to be."

"Huh? What do you mean? Do you think the Chu Family will take revenge in the future?" Yuan asked her.

"Yes, but I am not talking about my parents— about Chu Shijian and Chu Shufen. I don't know if I told you this before or not, but my father has multiple wives, and they all control a small portion of the Chu Family in other places. The Chu Family is simply too big for my father to manage alone, so he made his other wives assist him in managing the family."

"Although we didn't see any of them today beside my father's main wife, things would've played out very differently if they were there. With that being said, there's a good chance that they'll retaliate because of what you did today."

"Also..."

"There's more?" Yuan was speechless.

"Of course. Have you forgotten about the Dragon Spiral Mountain? We should start looking for a new place to stay when we get back because we will most likely be evicted for our actions today."

"Aiya..." Yuan sighed out loud.

"Even though I don't mind moving, it kind of hurts that we have to move so soon after moving to this place, not to mention the amount of money we had spent to live here. I will have to apologize to the others once we get back. They also paid for the house, after all."

"I'm sure they'll understand.." Chu Liuxiang smiled.

Chapter 743 - Preparing To Move Again

By the time Yuan and Chu Liuxiang returned home, everyone except Meixiu was already seated at the dining table.

"Huh? Yuan? Where have you been? Meixiu went to look for you in your room just now." Wang Ming said to him when they returned.

"Sorry, I had some business at the Chu Family." Yuan said to them.

"I'll go find Meixiu. You guys can eat first."

Yuan and Chu Liuxiang went back to his room to find Meixiu knocking on their door.

"There's no need to knock. We're here." Yuan said to her.

"Huh?" Meixiu turned around to see them standing behind her, and Yuan looked a little messy, almost as though he'd been in a fight recently.

"What happened to you?" She asked.

"I went to the Chu Family to bring her back." Yuan pointed at Chu Liuxiang, who had a bashful smile on her face.

"It's a little embarrassing, but I had some trouble at home, and Yuan came to save me," she said.

"Well... Breakfast is prepared..." Meixiu didn't know what else to say.

Yuan nodded, "I will tell you guys about it at the dining table. Let me change my clothes first."

"Me too."

"Okay."

While Meixiu returned to the others, Yuan and Chu Liuxiang changed their clothes before making their way back to the dining room.

Everybody there could tell that something was on Yuan's mind when they saw his expression, but nobody said a word until after breakfast was finished.

"If you have something to say, say it already." Li Jinxi was the first to speak out.

Yuan sighed before nodding his head, "Alright. This might be a lot, but it's important. Today, I went to the Chu Family and kind of fought them."

"You what?!" Wang Ming exclaimed.

"They were going to take Lulu away from us and force her to marry some family she doesn't want to be with, so I went there to take her back by force. I fought her parents and crippled her father's cultivation before bringing her back, and because of my actions, there's a good chance that we're going to get evicted from the mountain soon..."

The entire place turned dead silent as everyone in the room stared at him with gawking faces.

"W-W-Wait... Why don't you start from the beginning and slow down?" Shi Lang said.

Yuan nodded and recalled the whole incident from the beginning.

Of course, everyone there was shocked by what they heard. None of them could've expected Yuan to invade the Chu Family by himself while they were all sleeping.

"Yuan... Although I am confident in your abilities, nor am I upset that we might be evicted, you should've at least told us that you were going to raid one of the biggest cultivation families in this world." Wang Ming rubbed his temples.

"The Chu Family and the Six Spiritual Families have always been on bad terms since forever. They like to live in the spotlight while we prefer living in the shadows. I was really surprised when I found out that Miss Chu was actually from the Chu Family. However, now that we belong to the same faction, we have a responsibility to protect each other, so I would've helped you fight the Chu Family if you asked."

"I have to agree with Wang Ming on this one, Yuan. You should've at least told us before doing something so dangerous by yourself." Meixiu sighed.

"I know, but I didn't want to worry you guys."

"That's not good enough, Yuan. As fellow members of the same faction, we need to share the burden together. That's what separates the good factions from the ordinary ones." Wang Ming said.

"Although it's already in the past, you need to tell us in advance if you do something crazy again in the future." Wang Bingbing said.

"Alright, I will let you all know next time."

"Good. Now what? Should we begin packing since we're going to be moving soon?" Wang Ming asked a moment later.

"I mean... We don't know if we're really going to be evicted or not..." Shi Lang said.

"Are you kidding me? Yuan invaded the Chu Family that lives in the upper levels of the mountain! He violated many rules today, it would be a miracle if we don't get kicked out of the mountain! Hell, I am expecting a very expensive compensation fee as well!"

"Wang Ming's right. I violated multiple rules today. The Manager will probably visit us by the end of the day to kick us out. Let's pack our stuff and prepare to move out." Yuan said.

"As for our next home... We'll figure that out afterward. Once again, I am sorry for the trouble. I know we have spent a lot of money to buy this place, so I am going to pay you all back."

"Nah, you don't have to worry about it. The money was our parents' anyway. Also, it's not like we disapprove of your actions today. We would've even supported you if we knew about it earlier." Wang Ming said.

"Let's not forget about the Heaven-rank techniques we received from you. Those are already worth more than this place." Shi Lang smiled.

"What Heaven-rank techniques?" Wu Zao asked, as he wasn't at the Myriad of Techniques with them.

"We all got a Heaven-rank technique from Yuan when we ascended." Wang Ming said.

"What! You should've told me! I would've ascended sooner if that was the case!" Wu Zao exclaimed.

"Yuan! I am going to ascend right after we find a new home!"

"Me too!" Xi Murong said.

"Okay." Yuan nodded.

Everybody returned to their own rooms shortly after and began packing their luggage.

"Y-Yuan! She's here! The Manager!" Wang Ming went to alert him of the Manager's presence.

"Let's go." Yuan quickly followed Wang Ming to the front of the house.

Yuan swallowed nervously when he saw the cold expression on the Manager's beautiful face.

"G-Good evening, Manager..." Yuan greeted her with a stiff smile.

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 744 - Did You Or Did You Not?

"Let's sit down before we have our conversation." The Manager ignored his greetings and spoke in a cold voice.

Yuan sighed inwardly. He expected this would happen, and he didn't blame the Manager for being mad at him for the mess he'd caused.

Yuan led the Manager to another room shortly after.

However, when the others tried to enter the room with them, the Manager stopped them and said, "I only need to speak with him."

"..."

"Can you guys wait for me outside?" Yuan said to them with a bittersweet smile.

"G-Good luck..." Wang Ming said to him before leaving them alone.

Wang Ming then went to notify the other members of the Manager's arrival.

"She's really here, huh? Do you think she's going to evict us?"

"Who knows. Maybe Yuan will be able to persuade her somehow."

"Let's play a game and guess the result."

While the others played their guessing game, Yuan sat in front of the Manager with a nervous look on his face.

He didn't feel this nervous even when facing the Chu Family, but before this Manager, he was completely different.

"I will be asking you a few questions now. You will answer them with either 'did' or 'did not'. I don't want to hear anything else— not even your explanation. Do you understand?"

"I understand."

The Manager retrieved a long piece of paper and proceeded to ask, "Did you or did you not enter the Chu Family's territory without permission today?"

"I did..."

"Did you or did you not force your way into their residence today?"

"I did..."

"Did you or did you not beat up Chu Wuyang today?"

"I did..."

"Did you or did you not..."

The Manager continued to confirm everything that he's done today.

"Did you or did you not cripple Chu Shijian's cultivation today?"

"I did..."

Yuan could only repeat these two words for the past few minutes, as there was not a single thing that he 'did not' do.

Once the questioning ended, the Manager neatly folded her paper and proceeded to stare at him with a cold gaze.

"How long has it been since you moved into the mountain?" She asked him.

"A few weeks now, I guess."

"So in just a few weeks, you have managed to break almost every rule in the mountain, and it was all done in the same day. This is an unprecedented case. I have never seen someone cause so much trouble in a single day, nor have I seen anyone cause as much trouble as you in the Dragon Spiral Mountain."

"Sorry... But are you not going to ask me why I did what I did?" Yuan asked her.

"I don't care about that. Regardless of who's right or wrong, if you have any problems with another resident in the Dragon Spiral Mountain, you contact me."

"Now, what do you think I should do with you?"

"Since I broke the rules... I won't complain even if you decide to evict us." Yuan said with a resolved face, almost as though he'd accepted his fate.

"Indeed, you would be evicted under normal circumstances." The Manager quickly said.

"Under normal circumstances?" Yuan raised his eyebrows at her odd choice of words.

"Is this not a normal circumstance?"

The Manager narrowed her eyes and said, "First of all, I would evict you without hesitation if I could. Second, I am only a Manager. Lastly, the one who makes the final decisions is the Lord of the mountain."

"So the Lord has decided not to evict us?" Yuan couldn't help but feel a little hopeful for his situation.

"That is not entirely correct. The Lord has decided to not evict you guys, but it is only temporary. He has a request for you— and your faction. If you help him with this request, he will not only allow you to continue living on his mountain, he will even forgive you for today."

"Really? That's great! What does he need from us?"

"I don't know. You'll have to speak with him yourself and find out," she said.

"Speak with him? So I get to meet with the Lord?" Yuan did not expect this development at all.

"Yes, I will meet you in the front tomorrow morning after sunrise. Don't be late, or I will evict you guys even if I get punished by the Lord."

"I won't be late! I promise!" Yuan exclaimed.

"Then I will see you tomorrow."

The Manager stood up and left the place shortly after without saying anything else.

"What happened? Are we evicted?" Wang Ming and the others asked him after she left.

"No, we're not evicted yet—"

"Yes! I won this bet!" Shi Lang exclaimed before Yuan could even finish his sentence.

"Really? We're not evicted? Even though you broke all those rules?" Wang Ming was in disbelief. He was sure that they would get evicted.

"Let me finish. Although we're not evicted for now, we can still be evicted. However, the Lord has a request for us, and if we help him fulfill it, he will allow us to continue living here."

"The Lord of the mountain? He's a very powerful man since he owns this place, right? If there's something even he cannot do, this request might be very troublesome." Wang Bingbing said.

"What does he need us to do?" Wang Ming then asked.

"I don't know yet. I will be meeting with the Lord tomorrow for more information."

"You're going to meet with the Lord?!" Chu Liuxiang was shocked to hear this.

The Lord of the Dragon Spiral Mountain is so mysterious that nobody besides the Manager knows his appearance. Although there have been people that met with him before, they were still unable to see his appearance and have only heard his voice.

"I can't believe you're already getting to meet the Lord when most people that have lived here for decades don't..." Chu Liuxiang said in a dumbfounded voice.

"Well, whatever the Lord wants from us, keep us updated." Wang Ming said.

"I will.." Yuan nodded.

Chapter 745 - Indecent Thoughts

Chapter 745: Indecent Thoughts

"Good night, darling." Chu Liuxiang snuggled beside Yuan when it was time to sleep.

"Night."

After a moment of silence, Chu Liuxiang spoke again, "Can I embrace you while I sleep tonight?"

"Of course."

"Thank you."

Chu Liuxiang wrapped her arms around him and closed her eyes.

Despite her urges to strip naked and procreate with Yuan, she did not want to ruin the peaceful moment right now. Furthermore, now that she is no longer with the Chu Family, she does not have to rush to make a family with him. 6

Of course, that is not to say her desire to make a family has lowered. In fact, her desire to make a family with Yuan is now more intense than ever after what he'd done for her today.

However, now that she has the time to build a relationship with him properly, she wants to take things slowly and more naturally, which wasn't possible before when she was restricted by the Chu Family. 3

Chu Liuxiang quickly fell asleep while hugging Yuan, but Yuan himself was having trouble sleeping.

'Why is my body reacting like this now?' Yuan sighed inwardly as he could feel the area between his legs getting hotter and hotter.

'Is it because of Lulu? But this hasn't happened before...'

In this dead silent room, Yuan's sense of smell and touch increased, and with Chu Liuxiang so close to him, he could only focus on her soft body and sweet body aroma. 1

Due to circumstances in the Yu Family that forced him to live like a slave, he never had the proper chance to grow up, nor did they teach him anything about puberty.

However, now that he's away from the Yu Family and is living life normally, his halted growth is finally showing signs of progression. 1

One can say that Yuan is currently going through puberty, and it is progressing faster than normal due to his incarnations' memories, not to mention the fact that he is always surrounded by beautiful women that could easily trigger mens' beastly nature. 1

Of course, the biggest factor to his growth has to be his experience with Meixiu.

'After doing that thing with Meixiu, my mind cannot help but have weird thoughts that I never had before. Am I going crazy?'

Even now, Yuan has this strong desire to touch Chu Liuxiang's body for some reason, as well as wanting to 'do it' with her, but he cannot comprehend why he was having such inappropriate thoughts.

The sensation of Chu Liuxiang's soft skin, the sweet smell her body was emitting— Yuan's urge to touch Chu Liuxiang grew with every second.

Fortunately, he has mastered self-control after enduring so much bullshit from the Yu Family, allowing him to resist his urges. If it was anybody else in his shoes right now, they would've long submitted to their urges and acted upon his desires. 3

He also tried to cultivate to calm down, but he was unable to clear his mind, so he had to stop.

Eventually, Yuan gave up and had to spend the entire night controlling his urges.

And just when he was beginning to fall asleep, the digital clock's alarm began beeping, signaling that it was almost sunrise.

"Is it already morning? I had such a good sleep that it felt so short. How was your sleep?" Chu Liuxiang woke up shortly after the alarm, but it was not the noise that woke her up— it was because Yuan had to get out of her embrace to leave the bed.

"I couldn't sleep." Yuan said with a bittersweet smile.

"Is it because of what happened yesterday? Don't think too much about it. You did nothing wrong," she said.

"Although I had a lot of things on my mind that prevented me from sleeping, it wasn't because of what happened yesterday." He shook his head.

"Oh? Then what was on your mind?" Chu Liuxiang looked at him with her interest piqued.

"D-Don't worry about it. It was mostly random stuff about Cultivation Online." Yuan did not hesitate to lie. 1

After all, he couldn't tell her that he'd spent all night trying to resist his urges to touch her. That would definitely weird her out and make him sound like a weirdo.

"Even if it's insignificant, I want to hear about it." Chu Liuxiang insisted.

"..." 14

Yuan silently faced Chu Liuxiang for a moment before suddenly speaking in a surprised voice, "Oh! Look at the time! I need to hurry up or I will be late to meet the Lord! See you later, Lulu!" 5

Yuan quickly changed out of his pajamas before rushing out of the room, leaving Chu Liuxiang speechless.

"Why is he acting so weird?" She mumbled to herself before going back to sleep.

After leaving his room, Yuan proceeded to wait outside the house for the Manager.

Many minutes later, Yuan noticed the Manager's presence and immediately used divine sense for confirmation.

"Good morning, Manager." Yuan greeted her with a respectful bow.

"Let's go. The Lord is waiting for you." She said to him before turning around and walking back without stopping.

Yuan immediately followed behind her.

As they walked to the upper levels, they walked past the Chu Family's gates, which gave off a different feeling than yesterday.

About an hour later, they arrived at the peak of the mountain, and to Yuan's surprise, there was a thick fog before him that could not be seen even at the upper levels, almost as though this fog had mysteriously appeared the moment they reached the peak.

"We're almost there. Follow closely behind me or you'll get lost in the clouds." The Manager said before walking into the fog that turned out to be clouds.

'Clouds? Is the mountain even tall enough to reach the clouds?' Yuan wondered to himself since he didn't recall the mountain being this tall, and he followed right behind the Manager.

Upon entering the fog, Yuan sensed a sudden change in the atmosphere, and this sensation gave him a nostalgic feeling for some reason.

'What is this feeling...? It's like I have been here before...' Yuan thought to himself as he continued to follow the Manager. 14

Chapter 746: Lord of the Dragon Spiral Mountain

"Why are you just standing there and looking around? There's nothing to see here. How dare you make the Lord wait for you..." The Manager said to him with a frown on her face. 2

"Coming..." Yuan stopped looking around and picked up his pace.

After walking on this cloudy path for about ten more minutes, they arrived at the peak of the mountain.

The peak of the mountain was surprisingly flat, almost as though someone had cut it with a sword.

However, there was a small hill with a cave located in the middle of the mountain, which looked very awkward and out of place, almost like it didn't originally belong there and that someone had moved it there.

"Where's the Lord? I don't see him here." Yuan said after realizing that the peak of the mountain was empty.

"He's resting inside the cave over there. Stand in front of it, but do not go inside, unless you don't care about your insignificant life," she said. 3

Yuan swallowed nervously before approaching the mountain and standing right before it.

Since he cannot go inside, he decided to use his divine sense to look inside the cave.

However, he was unable to see anything, almost as though there was something interfering with his divine sense.

"Save your energy. You won't be able to penetrate this cave with your divine sense." A deep voice suddenly resounded from within the cave.

Yuan's body shook when he heard this voice that was filled with spiritual energy.

"This Lord is definitely an expert! His voice alone carries an abundant amount of spiritual energy! Even Xiao Hua does not have such powerful spiritual energy! But how is that possible? Spirit Master is already considered the peak for this world, but there could be a couple of hidden Spirit Grandmasters in this world such as Lulu's master. However, Xiao Hua is a Spirit King! There's no way someone in our world could surpass that realm!" Yuan was greatly shocked and interested at the same time, and his curiosity for this Lord has reached its peak.

"Anyways... I heard you attacked the Chu Family. You're very daring for a mere Spirit Master." The Lord's voice continued.

"I had good reasons," said Yuan.

"I don't care about your reasons, nor do I care that you'd attacked the Chu Family. I only care about one thing— obeying the rules of the mountain. However, you have ignored my rules and acted on your own accord. What do you have to say for yourself?"

"I have no excuses." Yuan said with a straight face.

"Hmph. Not even going to put up a fight? How boring."

"I know what I did was wrong, but I have no regrets. If I had to do it all over again to help my friend, I would not hesitate, even if it means getting evicted from the mountain. There are plenty of other places we can live in this world, after all."

"..." 10

The Lord remained silent for a good minute before speaking again, "Do you know why I called you here today?"

"You have a request for us, right? If we do it, you'll forgive me for invading the Chu Family." Yuan said.

"Yes, that's right. However, that's an easy question. Let's make the next one a little harder. Now try answering this. Do you know why I allowed you to live on my mountain in the first place?"

"Huh?" Yuan raised his eyebrows at such a question.

"You're aware that only those that have received my approval can enter this mountain, right? In other words, I picked you. Do you know why I picked you?"

After pondering for a moment, Yuan responded, "Because... I am Player Yuan?"

He could only think of his identity as Player Yuan, which has the most influence and significance.

"Hahaha!"

The Lord suddenly began laughing.

"Player Yuan? I don't give a fuck about such a pointless alias! There's only one reason why I allowed you on my mountain! You, who has seemingly zero connections to the Demon Sealing Clan, have managed to kill a demon! Do you understand the significance behind that achievement?"

"This is about the demon?" Yuan was dumbfounded by the situation. He truly didn't expect the demon that he'd killed would be involved in this conversation.

"The Qi Family is one of three ancient families that have served the Demon Sealing Clan since ancient times with both experience and profound knowledge about demons, yet the best they can do is seal demons. You, on the other hand, can kill them! You, alone, are worth more than the entire Qi Family!"

"..." 13

Yuan was left speechless by the Lord's words, and he wasn't sure where to begin with so much information.

"Manager! Get us the crystal!" The Lord suddenly shouted, causing the air to tremble. 1

"Yes!"

The Manager left the place for a few minutes before returning while carrying something in her grasp.

"T-That thing is?!"

Yuan's jaw dropped from shock when he saw what the Manager was carrying.

It was a chunk of crystal that was yellow in color, and there was a hint of red in the center of the crystal.

"Is that what I think it is...?" Yuan asked the Lord while silently praying that he would be wrong.

"Yes, this is a Red Calamity Crystal. It can predict calamities— but it only works when the calamity is influenced by demons. As you can see, this crystal is already yellow with a hint of red. There's going to be another calamity soon, meaning that another demon will be unleashed into this world."

"There are demons sealed within the Dragon Spiral Mountain, and I want you— and your Demon Sealing Faction to deal with the demons. You can either seal them or dispose of them. I personally prefer extermination."

"..." 13

Yuan was speechless once again. Who could've expected that the Lord's request for him would be to kill demons?

"If you accept my request and take care of the demons, I will not only forgive you for breaking the rules, but I will even tell you a little secret regarding this world and my identity. If that's not enough, I can tell you the true purpose of Cultivation Online and why it was created." 9

"Cultivation Online's true purpose...?" Yuan mumbled in a dazed voice. 2

Chapter 747 - Inside The Dragon Spiral Mountain

"So your request for us is to deal with these demons, is that correct?" Yuan asked for confirmation.

"Indeed."

"Okay, I will take care of them." Yuan nodded his head and agreed to the Lord's request.

"Eh?"

A dumbfounded noise echoed from the cave, almost as though the Lord was surprised by his response.

"Is there a problem?" Yuan asked.

"No... I just didn't expect you to agree so easily. This is a demon— demons that we're talking about. Even the Qi Family is reluctant to fight with demons unless they absolutely have to." The Lord said.

"Well, what else am I supposed to say? No, I won't help you deal with these demons that could potentially destroy this world? You know, I created the Demon Sealing Faction for a reason. I plan on eradicating every last demon in this world, even if I don't get anything out of it."

After a moment of silence, the Lord spoke again, "Before you make your decision, I would like you to see something."

"Manager. Take him 'inside' the mountain."

"Inside the mountain!? Are you sure?" The Manager appeared to be shaken by his request.

"He will have to see it eventually since he will be fighting the demons for us, so we might as well let him see the scene and fully understand our situation now. There's no point in delaying this issue. The demons are going to come out of their seal, and I don't trust the Qi Family will be able to handle this calamity by themselves." The Lord sighed.

"I understand."

The Manager turned to look at Yuan and said, "Follow me."

Yuan nodded and proceeded to follow the Manager, but they did not go the way he had expected. Instead of going back to where they came from, they went to the other side of the mountain, where a hidden path was located.

After walking for about half an hour, they arrived before this cave entrance that was emitting an ominous atmosphere.

"Before we go inside, I must warn you not to touch anything." The Manager said to him.

"I won't." He promised.

"Let's go."

They entered the cave a moment later, and after walking for some more, they encountered another entrance, but this one was emitting a menacing aura that would make people reluctant to move forward.

When Yuan felt this forbidding aura, his body got the chills, almost as though it was reacting to it.

After taking a deep breath and swallowing down his nervousness, he followed the Manager into the enclosed area on the other side of the entrance.

"T-This is..." Yuan's body shook violently when he realized what he was seeing in this place, and it left him completely speechless.

He could feel multiple emotions flaring up.

Shock, worry, fear, distress, dismay, and above all, powerless.

Meanwhile, in the Chu Family, Senior Qi, who had been sealed for almost an entire day, finally manages to break out of Yuan's seal.

She gasped for air after breaking out of her seal, and her body was soaked in cold sweat.

"That little bastard! How could he humiliate me in such a manner?! He actually kept me sealed for so long! Does he not have even a shred of mercy in him?!" She cried in a low voice.

Even though she was sealed, she was fully conscious and awake. It felt like she was in a prolonged sleep paralysis, and no matter what she did, she could not break free from the seal.

She became more and more worried as time went on that she would remain sealed forever.

"S-Senior Qi! Are you okay?!"

Someone from the Chu Family had been stationed there to monitor her condition, and he immediately approached her when he noticed the situation.

"What is the situation now?! Where's Yuan and Liuxiang?!" She shouted in an angry voice.

"T-They left yesterday after causing havoc in the family. Yuan even crippled the Master's cultivation." The man explained the situation to her.

"What?! He crippled Chu Shijian?! How ruthless!" Senior Qi trembled in fear after learning of this information, and her thoughts of revenge came to a quick halt.

'This man is ruthless and dangerous! If I mess with him anymore, he might kill me!' Senior Qi believed that if Yuan was capable of leaving her sealed — capable of crippling Chu Shijian, then he was also capable of killing her!

"Where is Chu Shijian right now? Take me to him." Senior Qi said to the man.

"Right away!"

Sometime later, they arrived at Chu Shijian's room, where the owner of the room could be seen lying in bed with a sick and frail appearance, and his wife and children were around him, almost like they were at his deathbed.

"Senior Qi... Thank the heavens that you're fine." Chu Shijian said in a relieved voice after seeing her face.

"I was worried that you had died, and I have spent all night thinking about how I should relay this news to your family."

"What about you? You look like you're on your deathbed." Senior Qi said to him.

"I am fine... Because I suddenly lost all of my cultivation, my body has become frail and pathetic. However, I am not going to die. I should fully recover in a few months." Chu Shijian said.

"That's good to hear. But what are you going to do now? Are you going to take revenge?" Senior Qi asked him.

"Haha... Revenge?" Chu Shijian laughed in a low and dispirited voice.

"After losing my cultivation, I stopped caring about many things, and I realized that I could no longer feel some emotions, almost like I'd lost them as well. What will I achieve with revenge? Am I going to get my cultivation back if I avenge myself? I don't care anymore."

Senior Qi was speechless. Is Chu Shijian really going to take this massive slap in the face and do nothing about it? However, she understood his feeling a little. After all, she is also feeling hesitant about taking revenge.

"I understand. Anyways, I will be returning to my family now. My family has been unable to calm down since the Jade Garden's incident, and they believe that more demons will soon break out of their seal. If you need me, send me a message, but I may not be available anytime soon.." Senior Qi said.

Chapter 748 - Demons Within The Mountain

"I understand. I apologize for getting you mixed up in my family's mess, Senior Qi." Chu Shijian said to her.

"Also, before you leave, please keep the fact that I had lost my cultivation a secret. There are many people out there who wish to see my Chu Family fall, and if they learn that I am no longer a cultivator, they will definitely try to destroy my family."

"You don't have to worry. My lips are sealed." Senior Qi said.

"Thank you very much."

Senior Qi left the place shortly after.

Meanwhile, back at Yuan's side, he had been staring at the scene before him for the past few minutes without moving a single muscle.

"Why... Why are there so many demons here?!" Yuan eventually snapped out of his daze to ask the Manager, who was standing beside him with a calm face, as she was clearly used to seeing this scene.

After a quick count, Yuan counted 11 sealed demons in this place!

When the Lord mentioned 'demons', Yuan had expected to see two or three demons, but to think there are almost a dozen demons sealed within the mountain! It was too much for him to take in at once.

"Why are there so many demons here?" Yuan asked.

"Try guessing. Your guess will be as good as mine."

"..."

Yuan began to walk around the area, silently inspecting the sealed demons.

'They don't have any cracks, which is good, and compared to the demon at the Jaded Garden, their pulses are much calmer.'

"Are you done yet? I don't like this place, so I'd prefer it if we can leave quickly." The Manager said to him.

"Yes, we can leave." Yuan nodded.

They left the cave and returned to the peak of the mountain.

"What do you think? How'd you like the scenery?" The Lord asked Yuan about his experience inside the cave.

"Why are there so many demons sealed there?" Yuan asked.

"Who knows. They were already there when I arrived at this mountain."

"Anyways, after seeing the demons inside the mountain, do you still wish to help us defeat the demons?" The Lord asked him again.

And without hesitation, Yuan nodded, "I do."

"That's good to hear."

"Is there anything else you have for me?"

"One last thing. I want you to meet the Qi Family and cooperate with them to resolve the situation."

"The Qi Family...?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"As I mentioned before, they have been dealing with demons since ancient times. I think they will be of help to you."

Yuan pondered for a moment.

He has been interested in the Qi Family ever since he met Senior Qi, and he wondered if they were related to the Demon Sealing Clan in Cultivation Online.

"Where can I meet the Qi Family?"

"They live on a remote island somewhere in the middle of the vast sea, away from society."

"What...?" Yuan was surprised to hear this information.

"If you wish to visit them, I can have the Manager take you there. However, the Qi Family is very strict when it comes to guests, so you should go there alone."

"I understand. When can we go there?" Yuan then asked.

"I will have to contact the Qi Family first, but it should take a week." The Lord said.

"Okay."

"I will contact you later."

The Manager led Yuan back down the mountain shortly after.

"Why do you wish to kill the demons so badly?" The Manager suddenly asked him as they descended the mountain.

"Because if demons exist, innocent people will suffer. I lost a friend to the demon in the Jaded Garden. I will not let that happen again, and in order for me to achieve that, I must exterminate all demons from this world," he said.

"You know... What you saw today inside the mountain... They might only be a small faction of the real numbers in this world. There could be hundreds, even thousands of demons sealed around the world."

"I don't care if there's a hundred or even a thousand of them. I will not stop hunting them until all of them are removed."

"I see..."

Once they returned to Yuan's residence, the Manager returned back to the mountain.

"Can we trust him?" The Manager asked the Lord.

"I believe so. He has a pure aura."

"Him? A pure aura? I don't believe it. How can someone who had done what he did to the Chu Family have a pure aura?"

"I'm sure he has his reasons."

Meanwhile, after returning home, Yuan gathered everyone in the living room.

"Welcome back, Yuan. How did things go with the Lord? Did you figure out what he wants from us?" Wang Ming asked him.

"I will tell you all about it once everyone is here."

Once everyone was present, Yuan began recalling his conversation with the Lord.

"This might sound shocking, but there are demons sealed within this mountain, and the Lord wants us to take care of them. That is the request."

"W-What...? There are demons on this mountain?" Everyone there stared at him with wide eyes.

"Yes, I saw them with my own eyes—divine sense. There was not one, not two, not three, but 11 demons currently sealed somewhere within the mountain."

"11 demons?!" They exclaimed in a terrified voice.

A single demon was already enough to wreak havoc in the Jaded Garden. They cannot imagine 11 of them running havoc at the same time.

"If that happens, the damages will be catastrophic! Humanity might even be in danger!" Shi Lang said.

"Indeed, there's a good chance the world will end if we let these demons roam freely. However, that is not going to happen because we are going to take care of them."

"This is why I created the Demon Sealing Faction. This is our purpose— to eradicate demons, as I am simply not satisfied with just sealing them."

"But none of us besides you know any demon sealing techniques, and I am still trying to learn the one you gave me. How long do we have until they break out of their seal?" Wang Ming asked.

"I don't know.." Yuan shook his head.

Chapter 749 - Technique Transmission

"And I know not everyone here has a demon sealing technique, but I am working on that. I will be heading to the Qi Family next week to speak with them," said Yuan.

"What! The Qi Family?! Why are you going there?!" Chu Liuxiang was shocked to hear this.

"The Qi Family is an ancient family that has vast knowledge on demons, and they could help us deal with them. They are like the Demon Sealing Clan in Cultivation Online."

"I don't think they will be willing to help us, especially not after what you did to the Chu Family and Senior Qi. They probably hold a grudge against you now."

"If they're willing to let the demons run wild because of some petty grudge, then we don't need help from them. However, we won't know that until I meet them." Yuan said.

He turned to look at Xi Murong and Wu Zao and continued, "Can you two ascend as soon as possible so that we can head to the Myriad of Techniques? I want to see if they have any demon sealing techniques since that's where I got my Demon Sealing Strike."

"I will ascend today." Xi Murong nodded.

"I will as well." Wu Zao said.

"Good. Then I will see you two at the square later today."

"I am going to study the Demon Sealing Strike some more..." Wang Ming said.

"Hurry up and learn it already so that I can also study it." Wang Bingbing said to him, as she also uses swords.

"Yeah, yeah."

"Anyways, that's all I have for you guys. We're going to be busy until these demons are dealt with." Yuan said to them.

Sometime later, everyone returned to their own rooms to cultivate.

"By the way, if you want us to learn demon sealing techniques, what about that one technique you used on Senior Qi? You didn't need a weapon to use it, so maybe we can learn it as well." Chu Liuxiang suddenly asked him.

"I have thought about that as well, but I don't think that's possible. Although I know the technique, I didn't learn it from a technique manual, so I don't know how I can teach it to you guys."

"Eh? Then how did you learn the technique?" Chu Liuxiang raised her eyebrows.

"Well... It's complicated..." Yuan sighed.

After all, it wasn't as though he could say that he'd learned the technique from memories of his past life.

"Maybe there is a technique that will allow you to write down techniques you already know. How else do you explain why there are so many duplicate techniques out there?"

"You're right... I will ask the experts later." Yuan said.

"Then I am going to cultivate inside Cultivation Online. I still have a lot of catching up to do." Chu Liuxiang said.

"I will come with you." Yuan nodded.

They logged into Cultivation Online a little later. As for Meixiu, she decided to continue cultivating in the real world.

"Feng Feng, Xiao Hua, I have a question." Yuan called the experts out when he logged on.

"What do you need help with?" Feng Yuxiang asked.

"Are there any methods to teach techniques you know to someone else?" He asked them.

"You want to teach someone your techniques?" They looked at him with raised eyebrows.

"Yes, but I don't know how."

"Well, there are two ways you can teach someone your technique. One, you can write down your technique and give it to them, or you can directly send the technique into their head. Of course, they are both techniques that you need to learn yourself."

"I figured... Hopefully, the Myriad of Techniques have these tech—"

Before Yuan could even finish his sentence, Xiao Hua extended her arm at him, and she was holding onto a manual.

"Here you go, Brother Yuan. This technique will allow you to give techniques to others directly."

Yuan immediately smiled, "Thank you, Xiao Hua!"

"..."

Feng Yuxiang silently stared at Yuan for a few moments before opening her mouth to speak, "Young Master, can I say a few things?"

"Huh? Go ahead."

"I don't know why you want to give your techniques to someone, or who you plan on giving them to, but I highly discourage such actions. Your techniques are all incredibly valuable, and they should not be taught to others."

Yuan smiled and said, "I know, Feng Feng. I am not giving away my techniques to just anyone. They are my friends, and I am only teaching them demon sealing techniques."

"Oh... If that's the case, then you don't have to mind me."

Yuan began studying the technique Xiao Hua gave him.

'Technique Transmission... This is actually a Divine-rank technique?' Yuan was surprised to see this sort of technique having such a high rank.

After spending a couple of hours studying the technique, Yuan managed to learn it.

<You have learned Technique Transmission>

[Technique Transmission]

[Rank: Divine]

[Mastery Level: 1]

After learning the technique, Yuan went to seek for Chu Liuxiang.

"Lulu, I want to try transferring this technique to you."

"Okay."

Yuan proceeded to activate the technique and tapped on Chu Liuxiang's forehead with his finger that was glowing a subtle light.

The next moment, Chu Liuxiang could feel information entering her head.

"Wow, there's a lot of information flowing inside my head. Is this the technique you used on Senior Qi?" Chu Liuxiang asked after receiving the technique.

"Yes, how is it?"

"I'm, surprised it's only an Earth-rank technique. It looked so powerful."

"Not really. They can be used to seal demons, but it's not as effective as the Demon Sealing Strike. I guess it's like a basic demon sealing technique for beginners."

"I see... That makes more sense."

And she continued, "I guess I will have to put my other techniques on hold for now so that I can learn this one first."

"Okay. Good luck. I will go meet up with the other two and head to the Myriad of Techniques. I should be back by tonight.." Yuan nodded.

Chapter 750 - Demon Sealing Clan's Grand Library

After transferring the demon sealing technique to Chu Liuxiang, Yuan went to the square to meet up with Xi Murong and Wu Zao so they could also receive a Heaven-rank technique.

"Are you guys ready?" Yuan asked them.

"Yes."

While they walked, Yuan said to Xi Murong, "You have the same name as someone I know in Cultivation Online."

"Eh? Who?"

"A dragon." Yuan said with a smile.

"I mean, it isn't that weird for people to share the same name." Wu Zao said.

"I guess so."

Sometime later, they arrived at the Myriad of Techniques.

Yuan brought them to the fourth floor after they had their destiny examination.

"You guys can go ahead and look for your desired technique. I will meet you all here in a few hours." Yuan said to them before going off on his own.

'There aren't any demon sealing techniques on this floor, but maybe I can seek Senior Bai's help. Hopefully, he's not busy.'

However, there was one problem. He didn't know how to contact Senior Bai.

Although Senior Bai gave him a jade slip, it was only meant for alerting him about the escaped immortals.

"Guess I should ask the workers here..."

Yuan approached the woman working at the desk on the fourth floor and asked her, "Hello, do you know how I can contact Senior Bai?"

The woman looked at him with a dumbfounded face.

"Senior Bai? He's not someone you can just 'contact'..."

"I know, that's why I am asking you if you know any way to contact him." Yuan said, misunderstanding the woman's words.

"Look here. Senior Bai is someone with a very distinguished background. I don't know who you are, but you do not qualify to speak with him."

Yuan sighed and showed this woman his faction symbol.

"We're from the same faction, and he's like a mentor to me."

"Y-You're in the Celestial Overlords?! How is that possible? You should be in Spirit Heaven!" The woman exclaimed in a shocked voice.

Yuan shrugged, "It just happened. Can I speak with Senior Bai now?"

"J-Just a moment..."

The woman looked for a jade slip underneath her desk before asking him, "Your name?"

"Yuan."

"Why do you want to speak with him?"

"I would like to ask him about demon sealing techniques."

"..."

The woman had many questions, but she didn't dare to ask them.

"Give me a moment."

The woman then relayed all of Yuan's information to the jade slip.

"Senior Bai, there is a person named Yuan who would like to ask you about demon sealing techniques."

"Now we wait." She said to Yuan afterward.

A few minutes later, the jade slip began trembling, and the woman immediately picked it up.

"Let me speak with him." Senior Bai's voice resounded a moment later.

"I understand."

The woman handed the jade slip to Yuan.

"Did something happen?" Senior Bai asked him.

"Yes, unfortunately..." Yuan sighed.

"I am currently looking for demon sealing techniques, but I don't know where to acquire them."

"So your problem is related to demons..." Senior Bai mumbled to himself.

After a moment of silence, Senior Bai said, "Alright, I will let you go to 'that' place. You have already learned the Demon Sealing Strike, so there should be no problem if I send you 'there'."

Yuan raised his eyebrows at the way Senior Bai mentioned this place, making it sound quite ominous.

"Where is this place?" Yuan asked him.

"It's a special place within the Myriad of Techniques that can only be accessed by certain people. The Demon Sealing Clan— you should be familiar with them since you learned their technique, right?"

"Yes, I know the Demon Sealing Clan." Yuan confirmed. In fact, he is technically their founder.

"This place is located within the Myriad of Techniques, but it's actually owned by the Demon Sealing Clan, so there are a lot of demon sealing techniques there."

"That sounds like the place I need to go. How do I get there?"

"I will need to create a portal for you, but that will take some time, and I am a little busy right now. Come back tomorrow. I will have it ready by then."

"I understand. Thank you, Senior Bai."

Yuan returned the jade slip to the woman afterward.

"Thank you for the help." Yuan said to her before turning around and walking away, leaving her speechless.

Sometime later, Xi Murong and Wu Zao returned with a technique of their choice.

They went to 'pay' for the techniques shortly after.

"Thank you for the technique, Yuan."

They bowed to him afterward.

"No need to thank me."

Yuan returned to the hotel after Xi Murong and Wu Zao left to study their techniques.

"I'm going to return to the Myriad of Techniques tomorrow to acquire some demon sealing techniques." Yuan said to Chu Liuxiang.

"Do you need me to come with you?"

"It's okay, you can focus on your cultivation."

"I understand."

The following morning, Yuan returned to the Myriad of Techniques.

"Welcome back, esteemed guest." The woman on the fourth floor immediately recognized Yuan and greeted him.

"Good morning."

"Senior Bai's preparations are ready. Can you leave now?" She then asked him.

"Yes, I am ready to leave." Yuan nodded.

"Please follow me."

The woman stood up and brought Yuan to another room.

"There's nothing here..." Yuan said when he saw the empty room.

"Please wait a moment while I contact Senior Bai."

A few minutes later, a golden portal suddenly appeared in the center of the room.

"Try not to cause any trouble there, my little friend." Senior Bai's voice resounded in the room afterward.

"I won't." Yuan said with a smile.

"When you're ready to leave, just go back into the portal you appeared from."

"I understand."

"Good luck."

After taking a deep breath, Yuan entered this portal and disappeared from the Myriad of Techniques.

Ding!

<You have discovered 'Demon Sealing Clan's Grand Library>

"This place is... amazing..."

Yuan mumbled in a dazed voice after seeing the scenery before him.

Chapter 751 - Demon Sealing Aura

After being transported to the Demon Sealing Clan's Grand Library, Yuan looked around with a look of awe on his face.

Despite the place being titled a 'library', the atmosphere and scenery looked nothing like a library.

The floor was made out of clouds, and the sky was pure golden, giving the place a heavenly and divine atmosphere, almost as though the place was created for celestial beings.

There was a massive building a few hundred meters away from him, and it gave off an exquisite feeling, just like an emperor's royal residence.

It was also quite populated in this place with numerous people of all ages walking in and out of the building, and most of them were wearing similar outfits.

However, when Yuan tried to look at their cultivation, he was shocked to realize that he was unable to see the majority of their cultivation.

These people were clearly cultivators, but if he couldn't see their cultivation, it simply meant that they were all at a level that far exceeded Yuan's own cultivation, hence why he could not see them.

'Although these cultivators are probably not at Miss Xu or Senior Bai's level, they are definitely some of the most powerful cultivators that I have encountered yet.' Yuan thought to himself.

Once he had enough of the scenery, Yuan began approaching the building in the distance.

However, he was stopped at the entrance by a middle-aged man.

"Hey, you, stop right there."

Yuan halted his movements and turned to look at the man.

"I don't sense a badge on you. How'd you get in here?" The man asked him.

"Uh... Senior Bai sent me here." Yuan quickly responded.

"Senior Bai?" The man appeared to be surprised by his response.

"Well, even if Senior Bai sent you here, I cannot allow you to enter the building without a badge." The man said after a moment of silence.

And he continued, "However, you can receive a badge by proving that you are associated with the Demon Sealing Clan."

"How do I prove myself?" Yuan asked.

"You must prove to me that you know at least one demon sealing technique," he said.

"Okay."

Yuan summoned his Empyrean Overlord and proceeded to execute the Demon Sealing Strike on the spot.

The man's jaw dropped wide open afterward, and he cried inwardly, 'He not only has a Soul Weapon, but I have never seen someone execute the Demon Sealing Strike and emit such a powerful demon sealing aura before!'

While Yuan isn't aware, all demon sealing strikes emit this unique aura, and it is exactly this aura that demons are weak against. If a demon is struck by this demon sealing aura, they will become sealed.

With that being said, the demon sealing aura must be strong enough to actually seal the demon. If the aura isn't strong enough, it would only annoy the demon at most without sealing them.

As for Yuan's demon sealing aura, it was so powerful that it attracted the people in the surrounding area, and they became even more interested in him after seeing his low cultivation base.

"How was that? Do I get a badge now?" Yuan asked the man.

"S-Sure..." The man nodded his head with a dumbfounded look on his face. Only an idiot would refuse to give a badge to someone that's brimming with talent as a demon sealer.

The man then handed Yuan a black and gold badge that had the words 'Demon Sealing' flawlessly engraved on it.

"Make sure you bring this the next time you come here." The man said to him.

"I understand. Thank you."

Once he had the badge, Yuan proceeded to make his way into the building.

However, shortly after entering the building, he was stopped again, and it was by a handsome tall young man this time.

"Hey, junior brother, what's your name?" The man asked him.

"Me? Yuan."

"My name's Wan Yu, and I just had to approach you after seeing your display just now. I almost couldn't believe my eyes when I saw your cultivation. You really impressed me. If you're new here, why don't I show you around?"

Yuan looked at this handsome man with a suspicious gaze.

Wan Yu laughed and said, "Don't worry, I am nobody suspicious. Here, look at this."

He showed Yuan a badge and continued, "I am an official lecturer in this place, and it is my job to guide promising demon sealers such as yourself, hence why I approached you."

Seeing the badge, Yuan decided to trust him for now.

"Okay. Thank you." Yuan nodded.

"Before we start, I must ask you. How long have you been with the Demon Sealing Clan?"

"Well..."

Yuan began pondering for an appropriate answer.

Despite knowing the Demon Sealing Strike, he isn't officially part of the Demon Sealing Clan.

"I'm quite new, I guess..." He eventually said.

"I see, so you're newer than I thought. Of course, that is perfectly fine." Wan Yu said.

And he continued, "How about your knowledge regarding the Demon Sealing Clan?"

"Not much, to be honest."

Yuan didn't want to lie about this since he saw this as a chance to learn more about the Demon Sealing Clan.

"I understand, then I will guide you as though you just entered the clan."

"Let's start with... Why did you come to the Grand Library today? Did you come to learn demon sealing techniques, or are you here to practice with demons?" Wan Yu asked him.

"E-Excuse me? Practice with demons?" Yuan thought he misheard and asked.

"You didn't know? You can practice fighting against demons here. Of course, they are not real demons but artificial demons, but they have the same abilities and weaknesses as demons, so you will have to seal them in order to defeat them. Do you want to try fighting an artificial demon?" Wan Yu said to him.

"I do!" Yuan immediately replied.

This was a great chance for him to practice fighting against demons before the demons in his world break out of their seals.

Chapter 752 - Artificial Demon

"Alright. Follow me." Wan Yu said to Yuan before taking him to this open area somewhere within the building.

In this open area, there were many groups of people standing in different spots watching cultivators attempt to fight the artificial demons.

'These are artificial demons...?' Yuan's eyes widened when he saw one of these artificial demons for the first time.

They resembled the demons greatly with red skin, horns, a bloodthirsty face, and even a red crystal embedded in their chest.

However, there was one big difference between these artificial demons and real demons— they lacked the bloodthirsty aura that real demons possessed.

Instead, they had this overwhelming aura created from spiritual energy to pressure the cultivator fighting it.

"It appears that all of the artificial demons are occupied. Let's watch them for now. You can also learn something from them." Wan Yu said.

"Okay." Yuan nodded, and he watched these cultivators fight the demons.

After watching these cultivators for about half an hour, Yuan realized something about these cultivators— that they really sucked at sealing these demons.

Despite these cultivators hitting the artificial demons many times with their demon sealing strike, the demons were still able to move and fight back.

"Why aren't the demons being sealed despite getting struck by demon sealing techniques?" Yuan asked Wan Yu.

Wan Yu looked at him with raised eyebrows and said, "If a demon can be sealed with a single strike, the cultivator fighting that demon would be many levels above the demon. Even the most talented demon sealers of our generation require a couple of strikes before they can seal a demon entirely."

"Once you strike a demon with a demon sealing strike, the demon sealing aura will slowly build up inside their body, and once there is enough built up, it seals the demon."

Yuan didn't know what to make of Wan Yu's words, as he'd sealed multiple demons stronger than him with a single strike, and even the Demon Lord that was far stronger than him had succumbed to his demon sealing technique in a single strike, albeit it took a bit for it to take effect.

"However, there was someone who could seal demons with a single strike. In fact, he could seal a thousand demons with a single move. Can you guess who it is?" Wan Yu suddenly said.

"Divine Paragon?" Yuan answered.

"That's right. The founder of the Demon Sealing Clan— Divine Paragon! He was not only the most powerful demon sealer during his era, nobody has been able to get close to his power since then even though millions of years have passed."

"People say he was created by the heavens to deal with the demons, and that's exactly what he did. The cultivation world used to be terrorized and ruled by demons, but when the Divine Paragon showed up, the demons ran in all direction."

"Of course, no matter where they ran, the Divine Paragon would chase them until they pretty much became extinct."

"It's truly unfortunate that the Divine Paragon disappeared without saying a word. Some people still believe that he's still alive somewhere in this boundless universe."

"..."

Yuan remained silent. If they knew that the Divine Paragon had died and reincarnated, not even the heavens would know how they would react.

Sometime later, one of the cultivators there has finally managed to seal the artificial demon.

Once that happened, a figure approached the demon to inspect it.

"Not bad. Your demon sealing aura is quite powerful, this demon will remain sealed for about 500 years." The person said to the cultivator, who appeared to be very happy about his results.

"Who is that?" Yuan asked.

"He's a fellow lecturer like me. We occasionally come here to watch these junior demon sealers and give them pointers." Wan Yu said.

"I see..."

"Who wants to go next?" The lecturer asked.

"Here's your chance." Wan Yu said to Yuan, who nodded and stepped forward.

"I would like to go."

The lecturer turned to look at Yuan, and to his surprise, there was a Spirit Lord in this place.

"Uhh... Give me a minute to adjust the difficulty. Do you want to fight a demon at the Spirit Lord level, or should I make it Spirit Grandmaster?" The lecturer asked him.

"Can you make it Spirit King?" Yuan asked him.

"S-Spirit King?"

Everyone there looked at him with wide eyes.

"Who's this kid? He wants to fight a Spirit King demon as a Spirit Lord? How reckless!"

"He's probably just seeking attention. He won't last a minute."

'As expected... He's an interesting one.' Wan Yu was the only person there that had a smile on his face that didn't give off the feeling of ridicule.

Once the lecturer adjusted the artificial demon's cultivation to that of a first level Spirit King, Yuan stepped into the arena to face the demon.

"Good luck, kiddo!" Wan Yu cheered him on.

It was at this moment the people there noticed Wan Yu's presence.

"Greetings, Senior Wan!" Everybody there greeted him in a respectful manner.

"Don't mind me, I am just here to watch my new friend." Wan Yu said.

"Friend? That Spirit Lord?" The people there were in disbelief.

Meanwhile, Yuan started his fight with the artificial demon.

After summoning his Empyrean Overlord, Yuan attacked the demon without hesitation.

The demon tried to defend itself against Yuan's fierce assault, but it was having trouble doing so, leaving the spectators dazed.

They couldn't believe their eyes— that a Spirit Lord was putting so much pressure on a demon that was an entire realm above him. Even though it was only an artificial demon, it still has the same prowess as a real demon, so realistically speaking, a Spirit Lord shouldn't be able to push this demon back so far!

"E-Even if he can overpower a demon with pure strength, all of his efforts will be pointless if he cannot seal the demon, as they will simply regenerate all of its injuries." One of the spectators there said, which is 100 percent true.

However, Yuan has only been hitting the demon with normal attacks without using any demon sealing techniques, which puzzled the spectators, Wan Yu included.

While they didn't expect Yuan to use demon sealing techniques with every strike, it also didn't make any sense for him to not use them at all, and this made the spectators' ponder Yuan's thoughts.

Chapter 753 - Destroying The Artificial Demon

Many minutes have passed since Yuan began fighting the artificial demon, yet he continued to use nothing more than basic sword techniques on the demon.

This puzzled the spectators, as it seemed like Yuan had no intention of sealing the demon for whatever reason.

"What in heavens' name is he doing? It's been almost 15 minutes, yet he hasn't used a single demon sealing technique."

"If you're here to play around, then get out! There are others here waiting to practice!"

"Yeah! Get out! This isn't the place for you to play around!"

The cultivators there began getting frustrated at Yuan for purposefully not sealing the demon.

They have never seen a demon sealer as obnoxious as him until today.

"Calm down, everyone." Wan Yu suddenly said to them in a soothing voice, and he continued, "As far as I can tell, he's doing exactly what this place is meant to do— to allow you to practice fighting against demons without needing to worry about getting killed. Just because he's not using his demon sealing techniques does not mean he's not practicing."

The cultivators there no longer complained about Yuan not using his demon sealing technique, and they decided to watch him for a few minutes before losing interest and going to watch someone else.

Half an hour later, pretty much everyone had lost interest in Yuan's practice session besides 2 people, and they were both lecturers.

"Fellow Daoist Wan, can you tell me why you're so interested in this young man? Besides his impressive raw strength, I don't see anything else from him that's worthy of your attention."

Wan Yu smiled and said, "If you'd seen his demon sealing aura, you would understand. Just be patient. It'll be worth the wait."

"If you say so." The other lecturer nodded.

While Yuan was focused on getting combat experience with a demon, a cold voice suddenly resounded, snapping him out of his focus, "Are you really even a Demon Sealer? You're so pathetic. Hahaha!"

To Yuan's surprise, the artificial demon had suddenly started speaking when it had been silent since the beginning!

Unbeknownst to Yuan, these artificial demons have a function where it will mock the fighter when they cannot seal the demon after a specific amount of time has passed.

They do so in order to put more pressure on the fighter by publicly humiliating them in front of others.

"If you don't hurry up and seal me, I will eat all of your loved ones... Hahaha!"

"Too bad someone as weak as you won't be able to stop me! You're doomed to watch your loved ones die before me!"

When Yuan heard the artificial demon's mockery, something had snapped inside him.

"Shut the hell up!"

Yuan suddenly jumped forward while his aura exploded with fierceness.

This sudden change surprised Wan Yu and the other lecturer.

[Demon Sealing Strike!]

Yuan swung the Empyrean Overlord directly at the artificial demon.

The artificial demon could feel a powerful demon sealing aura coming from the sword, so it reacted by dodging the strike.

However, Yuan's sword suddenly changed direction mid-motion, cleaving the demon's body cleanly in half.

"Hahah! Not bad! But you won't be able to defeat me like—" The artificial demon suddenly stopped speaking when it realized that its body was already beginning to feel stiff, and this feeling expanded through its body within seconds.

When it looked down at its own body, it realized that its regenerative abilities had stopped, and the lower half of its body had already turned into stone completely.

The demon slowly lifted its head to look at Yuan, who held a cold expression on his face, and for the next few seconds, they would quietly stare at each other until the rest of the artificial demon was sealed.

"Heavens..."

Both Wan Yu and the other lecturer uttered in a dazed voice after witnessing this scene.

The other cultivators there had also turned to look at Yuan's area, but nobody there saw the entire thing.

When they looked, the demon was already lying on the ground with its body separated in half and the lower half already petrified. However, they were able to watch the rest of the demon being sealed within seconds.

"W-What the fuck just happened? What did he do to the artificial demon? Did anyone see it?"

"No, I didn't see it. When I looked, the demon was already sealed."

Even though the cultivators there didn't know what happened, they knew that something incredible had happened, as the instructors' faces were filled with awe, not to mention the powerful demon sealing aura that suddenly erupted moments ago, and these cultivators all wished that they'd continued watching Yuan's practice.

"Such a powerful demon sealing aura... Just who is this young man? And where did you find him?" The lecturer beside Wan Yu asked him.

"I found him at the front of the Grand Library when he displayed the Demon Sealing Strike to get a badge to enter this place, and when I asked him, he said that he was new."

The lecturer swallowed nervously, and he approached the sealed demon a moment later.

After inspecting the artificial demon for a few seconds, he shook his head and said, "This artificial demon can no longer be used. It's been completely destroyed. The seal was too powerful."

"What?!"

The cultivators there were shocked to hear this information. They have never heard of an artificial demon being sealed to the point where they could no longer function.

"I-I'm so sorry!" Yuan quickly apologized after realizing the situation.

'I broke another piece of training equipment!' He cried inwardly.

It feels like every time he practices on training equipment, it would inevitably break.

"I will pay for the damages..." Yuan said a moment later while inwardly bracing himself to sacrifice an arm and leg.

However, the lecturer merely laughed at his words and said while waving his hand, "Don't worry about it, young lad. These things are quite old, so I was already thinking about replacing them."

Of course, these artificial demons are maintained every day to make sure they are like new, but the lecturer didn't tell Yuan so that he doesn't feel bad about it.

Chapter 754 - Demon Sealing Grotto

After Yuan destroyed the artificial demon, the lecturer had someone take away the demon, and since they didn't expect someone to destroy an artificial demon in such a manner, a replacement would not be ready for a few days.

"Umm... Do you mind if I continue practicing with the artificial demons?" Yuan suddenly asked the lecturer, leaving him speechless.

When Yuan saw the lecturer's perplexed face, he quickly continued, "I-I won't break any more artificial demons, I promise! I won't even use my demon sealing techniques! I just want to become more comfortable when fighting demons!"

"If you say it like that, I cannot refuse." The lecturer nodded.

"Thank you, Senior!" Yuan bowed to him before waiting for the next available artificial demon.

While he waited, Wan Yu approached him and started a conversation with him.

"How old are you this year? You look very young."

"I'm 18 years old."

"What? You're that young? I truly wasn't expecting that." Wan Yu thought Yuan was older than he appeared, as that is usually the case in the cultivation world, especially in their realm.

"If you don't mind me asking, which family are you from?" Wan Yu then asked.

"I don't belong to a family." Yuan shook his head.

"Oh? What about a sect?"

"I used to be in a sect, but I am now wandering the Nine Heavens with my friends."

"So you're a rogue cultivator, huh? That's very surprising as well. I thought you would be from some big family or prominent sect."

"With that being said, if you wish to join the Demon Sealing Grotto, you're more than welcomed."

"Demon Sealing Grotto?" Yuan looked at Wan Yu and asked, "What's their relationship with the Demon Sealing Clan?"

"The Demon Sealing Clan came first and was created by the Divine Paragon himself. The Demon Sealing Grotto, however, was created after the founder's disappearance."

"The two of them basically exist for the same purpose— to deal with the remaining demons in the Nine Heavens. However, despite their similar purposes and existence, the two of them are not really that close to each other. In fact, they can even be considered rivals."

"After the founder's disappearance and the fact that demons are no longer a threat to the Nine Heavens and humanity, the Demon Sealing Clan began to decline and grow weaker, yet the clan refused to change and continued their tradition despite the change happening across the world."

"A few higher-ups were fed up with the Demon Sealing Clan's stubbornness, so they left the Demon Sealing Clan to create their own powerhouse, which is the Demon Sealing Grotto that functions more like a sect than a family, and they brought with them many prominent figures from the Demon Sealing Clan, hurting them even further."

"However, despite our rivalry, both the Demon Sealing Clan and the Demon Sealing Grotto share the Grand Library. You can tell us apart from our uniforms."

"Those wearing black and gold are from the Demon Sealing Clan while those wearing black and red are from the Demon Sealing Grotto. As you can see, I am wearing black and red, so I am from the Demon Sealing Grotto."

"Uhhh... I'm not sure. Can you give me some time to think about it since all of this is very new to me?" Yuan said after a moment of silence.

"Of course. Take all the time you need. And I am not saying this to blow our own bubbles, but the Demon Sealing Grotto is currently far stronger than the Demon Sealing Clan. If you join us, we will forge you into a top-tier demon sealer."

Sometime later, Yuan returned to the stage when there was an opening to fight with an artificial demon.

When the spectators saw this, they quickly went to watch Yuan fight the demon, but they became frustrated when Yuan did not use any demon sealing techniques for an entire hour even while being constantly mocked by the artificial demon.

However, they did not want to leave, fearing that they might miss the action again.

Unfortunately for them, Yuan fought until the end without using a single demon sealing technique.

"Fuck! He's definitely doing this on purpose!" The spectators were fuming by the end.

If it weren't for Wan Yu and the other lecturer's presence, these people would've fought Yuan with nothing but their fists.

Meanwhile, after he was satisfied with his practice, Yuan returned to Wan Yu and said to him, "I would like to learn some demon sealing techniques now. I came to this place for this very reason, as well."

"I understand. Follow me." Wan Yu nodded.

As they walked, Wan Yu spoke, "Since you're new here, you are only allowed access to very limited techniques. If you want to learn more techniques, you will need to raise your demon sealer rank."

"You can raise your rank by taking an examination that tests your demon sealing aura and your knowledge of demons. Since you have managed to successfully seal an artificial demon, you're considered an Apprentice Demon Sealer."

"However, if I take into account your demon sealing aura and your performance today, I would rank you as high as an Elite Demon Sealer, which is two ranks above apprentice. Unfortunately, you must take the exam before you can officially be considered as one."

Yuan nodded and said, "I will think about the exam later. For now, I will just look at the available techniques."

Sometime later, Wan Yu led Yuan inside a large room that had multiple jade tablets placed around the room in an orderly fashion.

"What is this place?" Yuan asked.

"You will understand once you take a look at the jade tablets," said Wan Yu.

Yuan nodded and approached one of the jade tablets.

"This technique... Demon Sealing Strike?"

To Yuan's surprise, the jade tablet had the Demon Sealing Strike engraved onto it.

"That's right. These jade tablets are the techniques, and anyone can learn them as long as they have access to the rooms." Wan Yu said.

Yuan didn't say anything else and began looking at all of the jade tablets.

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 755 - Demon Sealing Clans Decline

"Hmm? This is also the Demon Sealing Strike?" Yuan raised his eyebrows when he saw the second jade tablet.

However, when he read the contents, he realized that it was a completely different technique. Although it functions similarly to his Demon Sealing Strike, this technique was meant for daggers instead of the sword.

When he realized this, Yuan immediately began studying the technique, as this technique would allow him to seal demons with the Starry Abyss so that he no longer needed to rely just on swords.

A few minutes later, Yuan closed his eyes and digested all of the information from the jade tablet.

Ding!

<You have learned Demon Sealing Strike(Dagger)>

<Rank: Heaven>

<Mastery Level: 1>

<Description: Consumes 1,000,000 Qi. Must wield a dagger to activate. An ancient dagger technique used to seal demons>

"Uhh... Did you just learn that technique?" When Wan Yu saw a profound aura suddenly emit from Yuan's body, he realized that Yuan had just comprehended a new technique, but he still asked for confirmation.

"Eh? I thought you said anyone could learn these techniques." Yuan looked at him with a surprised face, misunderstanding Wan Yu's words.

"Yes, you can. I was just surprised at how quickly you learned the technique. You're full of surprises." Wan Yu chuckled.

"Oh, I see. Then can I ask you a few more questions?"

"Of course. Let me hear them." Wan Yu nodded.

"Are there any limitations to how many techniques I can learn from this place?"

"Nope. You can learn as many techniques you want. There are no limitations."

"Great, then my second question is... Are there any rules about this place that I should know about?"

"Yes, there's a few of them, actually." Wan Yu nodded, and he continued, "First, you are not allowed to share these techniques with outsiders."

"Two, you are forbidden from selling or trading these techniques even to fellow demon sealers. You must receive permission to teach other demon sealers. As an official lecturer, I am allowed to teach other demon sealers, but I am limited to what I can teach."

"One last rule you should keep in mind is that these techniques, while they were created to seal demons, they can also seal humans to a certain extent, and if you're caught sealing humans, you will be killed or crippled by the Demon Sealing Clan or the Demon Sealing Grotto."

"I-I understand." Yuan nodded.

Thankfully, he sealed Senior Qi in his own world, not this world.

As for the rule that forbids him from sharing these techniques, Yuan will obviously have to ignore this rule in order to teach the others demon sealing techniques.

Furthermore, he has already broken the rule more than once.

Yuan returned to studying the techniques shortly after, and he wouldn't stop until he learned enough techniques for everyone.

Wan Yu was shocked when he saw this.

'Why in heavens' name does he need to learn this many demon sealing techniques? It's almost like he's learning a technique for every weapon out there!' Wan Yu cried inwardly.

An hour later, Yuan returned to Wan Yu and said to him, "I will be leaving now. Thank you for helping me today. I learned a lot."

"You're leaving already?"

"I will be back tomorrow to practice some more with the artificial demons." Yuan said.

"Alright. If you ever need anymore help and I am here, you can always come to me." Wan Yu nodded.

"I will."

Yuan left the Grand Library shortly after and returned to the hotel.

"Lulu, I am going to try and cultivate Technique Transmission in the real world so that I can transfer the techniques to everyone later." Yuan said to her.

"Okay, I will stay here until dinner then."

Thus, Yuan logged off by himself and began trying to learn Technique Transmission in that world as well.

Once it was time for dinner and everyone gathered in the dining room, Yuan told them the news.

"I have acquired a demon sealing technique for everyone here, but I will need a few days to learn a technique that will allow me to transfer the techniques directly into your mind."

"Although we can do this in Cultivation Online, I am not really supposed to share these techniques, so I'd rather do it in this world. It might also be a little quicker if we do it this way."

"That's fine. Take all the time you need." They said to him.

The following day, Yuan returned to the Demon Sealing Clan's Grand Library, and he went straight to the area with the artificial demons.

'There's already people here?'

Despite arriving shortly after sunrise, all of the artificial demons were already occupied, so Yuan could only wait.

While he waited there and watched the others practice, the lecturer from yesterday noticed Yuan and approached him.

"Young man, I never got your name yesterday."

Yuan turned to look at the middle-aged man standing beside him and said, "My name's Yuan."

"Yuan, huh? I am Tang Zheng, an official lecturer here for the past ten years. I haven't seen you here before until yesterday. How long have you been a demon sealer?"

"Not long."

"That's perfectly fine. Despite being new, you have a very impressive demon sealing aura, especially for someone at your cultivation base. Do you belong to the Demon Sealing Clan or the Demon Sealing Grotto?" Tang Zheng asked.

"I'm not actually officially affiliated with either." Yuan said.

"I see, so you're from one of the branch families. If you want, I can recruit you into the Demon Sealing Clan right now, unless you've already been recruited by Wan Yu. It would be a pity if that was the case."

"Pity? Why would it be a pity?" Yuan asked with a questioning gaze.

"As everyone is aware by now, the Demon Sealing Clan is declining. We're currently in our weakest state ever since the clan's creation. At this rate, the Demon Sealing Clan will continue to decline until it's inevitable end, hence why we're recruiting any talent we can find."

"If you join the Demon Sealing Grotto, that's one less talent we have and one more step towards our doom, which is an immense pity since the Demon Sealing Clan is the reason the cultivation world is so peaceful today."

Chapter 756 - Legend Of The Divine Paragon

"Well... Although Senior Wan has indeed offered me to join the Demon Sealing Grotto, I have not decided to join them yet. As for the Demon Sealing Clan, I would also like to think about it some more." Yuan responded to Tang Zheng's offer.

"Of course. Take all the time you need." Tang Zheng nodded with a relieved smile on his face.

As long as Yuan doesn't accept Wan Yu's offer, he still has a chance to recruit Yuan into the Demon Sealing Clan.

And while some might think Tang Zheng was exaggerating the Demon Sealing Clan's situation to trick Yuan into joining them, it is a fact that the clan has been in a straight decline ever since their founder disappeared.

As for their reason for decline, it is actually much simpler than one would expect.

The Demon Sealing Clan was created for the sole purpose of fighting demons, and after killing or sealing most demons and chasing the rest into hiding, the Demon Sealing Clan became less relevant as they were no longer needed due to the lack of demons.

In the end, the downfall of demons was also the downfall of the Demon Sealing Clan.

'I am the reincarnation of the founder of the Demon Sealing Clan, so I should join them and save them from their ruin. However, I am no longer the Divine Paragon, and I shouldn't let my past affect my current life...'

Yuan was in a predicament. On one hand, he wants to help the Demon Sealing Clan that he'd created in his past life. However, on the other hand, he didn't want to let his past lives to continue affecting his current life, as he fears that he might lose his personality and become someone unrecognizable.

After pondering for some time, Yuan temporarily stopped thinking about it to step onto the stage to fight the artificial demon.

"What's that kid doing? He's not using any demon sealing techniques."

Since it was a new day, there would naturally be new people in the area that didn't know about Yuan.

"Who? Oh, him? He was also here yesterday doing the exact same thing as he is doing right now. I guess he just wants to experience fighting demons without actually sealing them. A waste of our time if you ask me. After all, what's the point of fighting demons if you don't seal them?"

Someone there recognized Yuan and explained to those asking.

Eventually, the artificial demon began mocking Yuan for not being able to seal it.

"Haha! What's wrong, demon sealer? You can't even seal a fake demon? How will you survive if you encounter a real demon that is far more powerful than a fake? You should give up and just return to being a normal cultivator!"

Of course, Yuan ignored the artificial demon's taunting and continued to slice its body with the Empyrean Overlord.

Once Yuan was satisfied with his workout a few hours later, he stopped fighting the artificial demon.

"Finally! I thought he was going to stay up there for the entire day!" The people there sighed in relief when they noticed that Yuan was finally leaving, allowing them to fight the artificial demon.

Tang Zheng, who'd just come back to the area from eating lunch, noticed Yuan and quickly approached him.

"Yuan, are you free right now?"

"Sort of. Why?" Yuan asked.

"I'd like to show you something."

"Okay."

Yuan didn't question Tang Zheng and followed him to another area within the Grand Library, arriving at another empty square shortly after.

However, the place was empty in the sense that there was a lot of space in this area, since there were actually a lot of cultivators scattered around this place with most of them seated around this domineering statue.

Yuan's eyes widened with surprise when he saw this statue that was located at the center of this empty square, as he'd seen the face of this statue before, mostly in his dreams.

"That's... the Divine Paragon?" Yuan mumbled in a low voice.

When Tang Zheng heard it, he smiled and said, "That's right. He is the founder of the Demon Sealing Clan and the idol of every demon sealer in existence— Divine Paragon, also known as the Bane of Demons."

"When I was a young cultivator, I happened to overhear a legend about him, and because of this legend, I decided to become a demon sealer. I never looked back nor have I ever regretted my decision. Do you want to hear it?"

"Sure." Yuan nodded.

"When demons were still rampaging in the Nine Heavens, millions of demons dwelled within this impenetrable stronghold in the Demonic Realm that was deemed impossible to conquer by all cultivators."

"However, the Divine Paragon, all by himself, entered the Demonic Realm for a total of 66 days. The world thought the Divine Paragon had died inside the Demonic Realm, but to everyone's shock, the Divine Paragon returned from the Demonic Realm, and that's when everyone learned the truth— that the Divine Paragon had been killing demons nonstop since he entered the hellhole."

"In just two short months, he'd conquered the Demonic Realm and killed every single demon inside, something everybody had deemed impossible. Nobody has entered the Demonic Realm since then, as the Divine Paragon had sealed the Demonic Realm just in case he missed a few demons."

"Demon sealers nowadays would have trouble fighting a single demon even in a group, yet the Divine Paragon had killed millions of demons all by himself in two short months. If you ask me what a real demon is, I would, without hesitation, say it's the Divine Paragon... in a good sense."

Yuan was speechless after hearing this legend.

'No wonder why demons are terrified of him... He's actually more devious than demons!' He sighed inwardly.

"Hmm?" Tang Zheng suddenly raised his eyebrows at Yuan, almost as though he'd realized something.

"Yuan... Now that I look at you closely, you look awfully similar to the Divine Paragon's statue over there, almost like you're a younger version of the Founder himself."

"Eh?"

When Yuan heard Tang Zheng's outrageous yet accurate claims, Yuan's body froze, almost as though he'd been sealed.

Chapter 757 - Advanced Demon Sealer Examination

"Good heavens, the longer I look at you, the more I get the feeling that you look like the founder." Tang Zheng subconsciously moved his face closer to Yuan's face to get a closer look.

Yuan took a few steps back and said in a stiff voice, "You're probably just seeing things..."

"No! I am certain! You have such an eerie resemblance to the Divine Paragon! If I didn't know any better, I would say that you're a reincarnation of him!" Tang Zheng said, unaware that he was 100 percent correct.

"You know what? This could be a sign the heavens have sent us—that you could potentially become the next founder of the Demon Sealing Clan! With your talents, it's definitely doable! Yuan! You must join the Demon Sealing Clan! You, who bears the founder's face, cannot allow the Demon Sealing Clan to disappear!" Tang Zheng stared at Yuan with eyes full of emotions.

He was someone easily influenced when it comes to the Divine Paragon, and with Yuan having so much resemblance to the Divine Paragon, Tang Zheng truly believed that Yuan was sent by the heavens to save the declining Demon Sealing Clan.

"Even if you tell me that..."

Yuan had intentions to join either the Demon Sealing Clan or the Demon Sealing Grotto, but he wasn't sure which one he should join.

On one hand, the Demon Sealing Grotto is much more powerful than the other option, but on the other hand, he had technically created the Demon Sealing Clan, so it wouldn't be right to let them disappear.

While Yuan pondered, a familiar voice suddenly resounded inside his head, "Join the Demon Sealing Clan."

Yuan recognized this voice to be the Divine Paragon's voice, and he turned to look at the Divine Paragon's statue.

In Yuan's eyes, the Divine Paragon's statue had turned into a real person and was no longer a statue.

"There are secrets within the Demon Sealing Clan that only I know of. If you let it disappear, these secrets will also disappear, and there's a good chance that the Nine Heavens will return to chaos if you do not return to the Demonic Realm."

'Demonic Realm? What does that have anything to do with joining the Demon Sealing Clan?' Yuan frowned.

"If you wish to learn the truth, you must enter the Demonic Realm."

'The Demonic Realm that you sealed?'

The Divine Paragon did not respond and returned to being a statue.

Yuan sighed out loud and turned to look at Tang Zheng.

"Will it be problematic if I join the Demon Sealing Clan while already being in a faction?" Yuan asked.

"Faction? No, there won't. The Demon Sealing Clan is not considered to be a family, a sect, nor a faction, so there shouldn't be any problems."

Yuan raised his brows and asked, "If the Demon Sealing Clan is not any of these things, what is it?"

"Honestly, I am not too sure either, but the Divine Paragon never considered the Demon Sealing Clan to be any of these things. It used to be a place where anyone could join as long as they wanted to fight demons. Things have obviously changed since then, so it resembles a faction more than anything. With that being said, we're not considered a faction, and even if we are considered a faction, there shouldn't be any problem since most factions allow their members to join multiple factions as long as that faction is not an enemy."

"As for the Demon Sealing Grotto, they are a faction, and they have a sect as well."

Yuan nodded and said, "Then I will join the Demon Sealing Clan—temporarily, if you don't mind."

"May I ask why only temporarily?"

"Just in case I change my mind."

"I can assure you that you will not regret your decision, but if you insist, that is fine. You can join us temporarily. We don't have any rules that forbid our members from leaving once they join, anyway."

"Okay."

"Now that you are part of our Demon Sealing Clan, let's get you your uniforms and badge."

Yuan followed Tang Zheng to another place, where he would receive three sets of uniform and a badge.

"There's no rule about wearing the uniforms, so you don't have to wear them if you don't want to. As for the badge, it is proof that you are part of the Demon Sealing Clan. You will need it if you want to enter any of our establishments."

"How is this badge any different from the one I received in front of the Grand Library?" Yuan asked.

"The Grand Library's badge will only allow you to enter this place, and it just means you're affiliated with the Demon Sealing Clan."

"I see..."

"Anyways, you're currently an Apprentice Demon Sealer, but I have seen you defeat an artificial demon, so you qualify for the next rank. Would you like to take the examination now and become an Advanced Demon Sealer?" Tang Zheng then asked him.

"If I become an Advanced Demon Sealer, I will get to learn more demon sealing techniques, right?" Yuan asked.

"That's right. You'll get to learn Divine-rank demon sealing techniques."

"Then I will take the examination." Yuan nodded.

"Great. Follow me."

Tang Zheng led Yuan back to the area with the artificial demons and said to him, "Wait here while I grab two more official lecturers to witness in the examination. We need at least three lecturers."

After Tang Zheng left, Yuan spectated the other cultivators while he waited.

About fifteen minutes later, Tang Zheng returned to him with two other individuals, an old lady and a beautiful young woman.

"Tang Zheng, you dragged me here for an Advanced Demon Sealer examination during my lunchtime. I really hope it's worth it, or you'll regret wasting my time." The beautiful woman said to him as they entered the area.

"Don't worry, it will definitely be worth it. I dragged you here because I knew how much you both admire the founder. Once you see this young—"

Before Tang Zheng could even finish his sentence, the old woman suddenly exclaimed in a shocked voice, "Divine Paragon?!"

Sure enough, the old lady noticed Yuan standing in the crowd and mistook him for the Divine Paragon.

Chapter 758 - Little Founder

"What the? Did you just say Divine Paragon? Have you finally gone senile from old age?" The beautiful woman raised her eyebrows when she heard the old lady's words.

After all, how could the Divine Paragon suddenly appear in the Grand Library?

The woman subconsciously turned to look at the direction the old lady was looking at, and to her absolute shock, someone who looked exactly like the Divine Paragon stood in the crowd!

As fanatics and admirers of the Divine Paragon, they have engraved every detail of the Divine Paragon into their souls, so they knew right away when they saw Yuan's face that he looked exactly like the Divine Paragon.

"Wait..." Before Tang Zheng could even open his mouth properly, the two women rushed through the crowd and directly at the unaware Yuan.

Yuan, who was minding his own business, suddenly felt two aggressive presence behind him, causing him to turn around.

When he did, he could see two women with glowing eyes running in his direction.

Naturally, this startled Yuan, who could only wonder who these women were and why they were running at him.

However, before he could even react, the old lady suddenly disappeared from her spot and appeared right beside him like a ghost.

"What the?!"

Right as Yuan turned to look at the old lady, he suddenly felt someone touch his cheeks, who also turned his head.

"Wow! You really look like the Divine Paragon! What's your name? And where did you come from, handsome?" The beautiful woman asked Yuan as she held his cheeks with her smooth hands, looking like an owner and her dog.

"Uhh... My name's Yuan..." He responded in a dazed manner.

"What in heavens' name do you two think you are doing to my new recruit?!" Tang Zheng suddenly appeared to drag them away from Yuan.

He then said, "I apologize for this, Yuan. They've been long-time admirers of the Divine Paragon, and since you look so similar to him, they went crazy."

"What do you mean he 'looks similar'? He looks exactly like the Divine Paragon, albeit a lot younger!" The beautiful woman said.

"I know that, hence why I brought you two here. However, if you're going to bother him, I will find new instructors for his examination!" Tang Zheng sighed out loud.

"Why are you being so annoying, Tang Zheng? We're not bothering him at all." The old lady cleared her throat before speaking.

"As for the examination, do we really need to do it? I can tell by his appearance alone that he will easily pass the examination."

"Senior Fu is right. There's no way that someone with the Divine Paragon's face could fail such an easy exam." The beautiful woman said.

Tang Zheng rubbed his temples and said, "I also know he can pass the examination since I have already seen him seal an artificial demon, but we still need to do an official examination. It will look bad on us if we don't do this."

"Whatever." The beautiful said before turning to look at Yuan with a friendly smile, "My name is Yan Hara. Let's talk more after your examination, handsome."

"Sure..."

After winking at Yuan, Yan Hara turned to look at the cultivators that were currently fighting an artificial demon.

"Hurry up and seal the demon already! If you make the little founder wait too long, I will go up there and seal the demon for you!"

When the cultivators and the spectators heard Yan Hara's words, they turned to look at them.

"Little founder?"

They all focused on Yuan, and sure enough, they could see a strong resemblance of the Divine Paragon from him.

"Heavens... Why didn't I notice this earlier? He really looks like the Divine Paragon's statue."

"He looks so much like the founder that I wouldn't doubt it if you told me he was a direct descendant of the founder..."

"What if he is a descendant?"

"That's not possible. They said the founder had no Dao Companion."

"That doesn't mean anything! For all we know, the founder could've found a Dao Companion after his disappearance!"

"Fuck... If you say it like that..."

Soon enough, pretty much everybody in the area was talking about Yuan's resemblance to the Divine Paragon.

A few minutes later, one of the cultivators there finally sealed the artificial demon and stepped off the stage.

He turned to look at Yuan and smiled, "The stage is all yours, little founder."

"Thank you..." Yuan didn't know how he felt about being called 'little founder'.

Ignoring their accuracy, it just felt weird.

Sometime later, Yuan stepped onto the stage, and all of the spectators in the area gathered around him to watch his examination.

"Before we begin, allow me to give you the rules." Tang Zheng said.

And he continued, "In order to pass the examination and become an Advanced Demon Sealer, you must seal an artificial demon that is two realms below your cultivation base within the time limit, which is thirty minutes."

"What...?" Yuan was dumbfounded to hear the passing condition, as it sounded way too easy.

"Two realms below my cultivation base within 30 minutes? Why is it so easy?"

Since he is a Spirit Lord, his artificial demon, which will be two realms lower, will only have the strength of a Spirit Master! He could seal a demon at this level even in his sleep!

Of course, while this examination might be incredibly easy for someone like Yuan, not all demon sealers are as talented as him.

While Yuan wouldn't have any trouble fighting demons above his cultivation base, he is an abnormal existence. Meanwhile, normal demon sealers would have trouble with demons even one realm below their own cultivation base.

Therefore, if they made the examination too hard, nobody would be able to rank up. With that being said, even with an artificial demon two realms below the examinee's cultivation base, there are still many cultivators out there that would struggle against it.

However, even though the examination was incredibly easy for Yuan, it wasn't as though he was completely free of worries.

In fact, he had one major problem regarding this examination.

'If I hit it with my demon sealing techniques, I will definitely break another artificial demon... What should I do?' He sighed inwardly.

Chapter 759 - Advanced Demon Sealer

"That's all you need to know for the examination. You may begin now."
Tang Zheng said to Yuan a moment later.

Yuan nodded, but he didn't immediately attack the artificial demon. As for the demon, it also won't attack Yuan until he makes the first move.

"What are you waiting for, little founder? The examination has already started." Yan Hara said to him.

"Umm... There's a good chance that I will break the artificial demon." Yuan said.

It was at this moment that Tang Zheng recalled Yuan's prowess yesterday that completely destroyed an artificial demon.

Although losing one artificial demon isn't a huge loss, they are not cheap either, and if they lose two artificial demons back to back in two days, the maker of these artificial demons will become annoyed at them.

However, before Tang Zheng could even say anything, Yan Hara spoke out loud, "Don't worry about breaking them! They're very durable and have the same regenerative ability as real demons, so no matter how you slice or dice it, you won't break it."

Of course, Yan Hara has no idea that Yuan had already destroyed an artificial demon just yesterday.

And she continued, "Even if you somehow manage to break it, we can easily get a replacement, so go ahead and break it!"

Yuan nodded his head and didn't say anything else.

He turned to look at the artificial demon with a calm gaze.

'I should try out the Demon Sealing Strike for the dagger.'

With this thought in his mind, Yuan summoned the Starry Abyss in its invisible mode and used it to attack the demon.

'An invisible dagger? It is also emitting the aura of a Soul Weapon... He can actually control two Soul Weapons at once?' Tang Zheng was greatly shocked by this new information.

He witnessed Yuan's Empyrean Overlord yesterday, and the fact that Yuan is using a different Soul Weapon today could only mean that he has multiple Soul Weapons, which is incredibly rare even in the upper heavens.

Whoosh!

The invisible Starry Abyss flew at the artificial demon and struck it directly between its eyes a split second later.

The artificial demon fell to its knees the next second and remained there, which puzzled the spectators, as they wondered why the artificial demon wasn't standing back up.

However, they would soon get their answer when the artificial demon began turning into stone at a rapid rate.

A few seconds later, the artificial demon was completely sealed.

"What in heavens' name..."

Everyone there except Tang Zheng was shocked to witness Yuan sealing a demon with a single demon sealing strike.

"As expected of our little founder... His demon sealing aura is quite ridiculous for someone at his level! Maybe he's really the reincarnation of the Divine Paragon..." Yan Hara mumbled to herself in a low voice.

Once Yuan sealed the demon, Senior Fu went to inspect the demon, and to her shock, the artificial demon was completely sealed, including its core, which renders the entire thing useless.

All artificial demons have a core that allows it to function and gives them their regenerative ability, and this core was specifically made to resist demon sealing aura so that it doesn't break everytime someone seals the demon.

However, Yuan's demon sealing aura had somehow managed to penetrate the core's defenses and sealed it alongside the demon.

"This artificial demon is no longer usable." Senior Fu announced the results to Yan Hara and Tang Zheng, who wasn't surprised at all.

As for Yan Hara, she was dumbfounded and amazed at the same time.

She has witnessed thousands of examinations, yet this is her first time encountering someone that has managed to destroy an artificial demon so thoroughly.

"Congratulations on passing your examination, Yuan. You're now officially an Advanced Demon Sealer!" Tang Zheng said to him a moment later, breaking the awkward silence.

"Thank you." Yuan said.

Even though the examination was a little too easy, at least he gets to learn more demon sealing techniques.

"Come with me, little founder. We're going to get you your new badge." Yan Hara suddenly grabbed Yuan and began pulling him away.

"W-Wait for me!" Senior Fu quickly followed.

Tang Zheng shook his head with a bittersweet smile on his face, and he also followed them.

Meanwhile, a new rumor began spreading around the Grand Library.

"Have you heard? There's a demon sealer who looks exactly like the founder of the Demon Sealing Clan, and he managed to destroy an artificial demon."

"Huh? The Divine Paragon? It must be an exaggeration."

"It's not. A lot of people have seen him, and they all agreed that he looks just like Divine Paragon, albeit a lot younger. They even gave him the nickname 'little founder'."

"I won't believe it until I see him with my own eyes. As for destroying an artificial demon, it's not really that impressive if you think about it. The artificial demons in the Grand Library are merely low-quality puppets. Most Elite Demon Sealers can destroy them if they try hard enough."

"It may not seem impressive because I didn't mention his cultivation. The little founder is only a Spirit Lord, and he just became a demon sealer not long ago. Hell, he just passed his examination and became an Advanced Demon Sealer."

"What? What is a Spirit Lord doing in the Grand Library? And he destroyed an artificial demon as an Apprentice Demon Sealer? Now I definitely don't believe you."

"Suit yourself. This information is already spreading throughout the Demon Sealing Clan and even the Demon Sealing Grotto. It will only be a matter of time before the higher ups set their eyes on him. Even though he's already joined the Demon Sealing Clan, it won't stop the Demon Sealing Grotto from trying to snatch him from them, as it has happened multiple times before already. I cannot wait to see where this goes."

While news of the 'little founder' spread, Yuan received his Advanced Demon Sealer badge.

"Little founder, why are you not wearing your uniform? I want to see you in the Demon Sealing Clan's uniform! Hurry up and change!" Yan Hara urged him afterward, sounding a little impatient for some reason.

Chapter 760 - The Next Divine Paragon

"Hurry up, little founder! I want to see you standing beside the Founder's statue while in your uniform!" Yan Hara continued to urge him despite the weird looks he was giving her.

"Yuan, I suggest you give up and fulfill her wishes. She's one of the most stubborn people in this place, and she will bother you until you do it." Tang Zheng patted him in the back and said.

Of course, he also wanted to see Yuan standing beside the Founder's statue so that they can get a side-by-side comparison.

"I just need to wear the uniform, right? I will do it under one condition." Yuan suddenly said.

"What condition?"

"You will answer my question."

"That's easy! You can even ask for my three sizes and I won't refuse!" Yan Hara said in a prideful voice.

"Your what?" Yuan raised his eyebrows, as this is his first time hearing such a term.

Tang Zheng loudly cleared his throat and said, "Ignore her teasing. Anyways, if you have any questions, I will be happy to answer them even if you don't fulfill her request."

"Please! I am begging you! Look! I will even get on my knees and beg—" Yan Hara began lowering her body.

When Yuan saw this, his eyes widened, and he quickly said, "Fine, I will do it."

"Don't you have any sense of shame, Yan Hara? How can you beg in such a manner? To a junior, no less." Tang Zheng shook his head.

"I won't do this just for anyone! You have no idea how I feel!" She coldly snorted.

Sometime later, Yuan left to change his clothes.

When he returned, the three seniors were so surprised by his appearance that they had become speechless.

After wearing the Demon Sealing Clan's uniform, Yuan's aura changed significantly, and he looked even more like the Divine Paragon.

"I cannot wait!"

Yan Hara suddenly grabbed Yuan and flew directly to the area with the Divine Paragon's statue.

Tang Zheng and Senior Fu quickly followed.

Once they arrived, Yan Hara placed Yuan right beside the statue and said to him, "Stand right here for a minute."

"Okay..." Yuan nodded in a dazed manner, feeling like he was being treated as some sort of toy.

"Aaaaaah!" A sharp noise suddenly resounded in the area, causing everyone there to look at Yan Hara, who had just screamed.

They all wondered why she was screaming, but when they looked at Yuan, who she was staring at, they all understood why she'd just screamed.

Yan Hara is a renowned Divine Paragon fanatic in the Grand Library, and seeing someone who looks so identical to the Divine Paragon while also standing right next to his statue, it was only natural that she would go crazy.

In fact, when other fanatics saw Yuan standing right beside the Divine Paragon's statue, they also screamed like fangirls.

"Aaaah! It's the Divine Paragon!"

"What?! No way! He's really here!"

"Are you really the Divine Paragon?!"

"You look a little too young to be the Founder. Are you, by any chance, his descendant?!"

A crowd quickly gathered around Yuan and the statue, blocking Yan Hara's view.

Yan Hara began fuming when these random people blocked her view, causing her to release a powerful pressure that also carried a hint of killing intent.

"Get away from him! If you're going to watch, do it where you're not blocking others' view!"

The people there quickly scattered away from Yuan when they heard Yan Hara's angry voice and felt the threatening aura.

However, they didn't completely leave the area and decided to watch from a distance.

"Is he a gift from the heavens, or are they simply mocking us?" Senior Fu mumbled in a dazed voice as she looked at Yuan's face and the Divine Paragon's statue back and forth, and the longer she stared, the more she believed that they were the same person.

"I have heard of many rumors about doppelgangers, but I have never witnessed anything like that in my life until today." Tang Zheng sighed.

"Although he's a little young right now, in a few years, he will look even more like the Founder. When that happens, it will be as though the Founder has returned to us..." Yan Hara spoke as tears flowed down her cheeks.

The place quickly filled with murmurs.

Meanwhile, Yuan felt incredibly awkward. This situation made him recall his days in the Yu Family, when he was admired by countless people. The way these people looked at him like he was their savior, it brought back bad memories.

However, he didn't blame them, nor does he find any fault in their reaction, mostly because he was actually their 'Founder'.

"I have decided." Yan Hara suddenly said.

And she continued in a loud voice, "I, Yan Hara, will make it my life's mission to make you the next Founder of the Demon Sealing Clan!"

"What?!"

Tang Zheng and the others looked at her with wide eyes after her bold declaration.

"Yan Hara, I know you're excited and all because he looks like the Founder, but you're going a little too far here... You should calm down and rethink this." Tang Zheng said to her.

"I am perfectly calm! In fact, I have never been any clearer! He has not only the looks but also the talents to become the next Divine Paragon! I am sure of that after witnessing everything today!" Yan Hara said.

Tang Zheng could only shake his head at her words, as he knew that it was impossible to change her mind once she's in this kind of mood.

"Yan Hara, I know your feelings, but it's not going to be an easy task." Senior Fu said to her.

"I know, but it's not like I have anything else better to do. I have been getting bored as a lecturer, anyway." She shrugged.

"Bored...? You've only been a lecturer for four years..." Senior Fu said.

"Who cares about such minor details?" Yan Hara laughed as she approached Yuan.

"Little founder! I have some good news for you! I, Yan Hara, the most talented demon sealer in my generation, have decided to train you to become the next Divine Paragon!" She stood before him while surrounded by a prideful aura.

After hearing her words, Yuan only had one question for her— "Why?"

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 761 - Red Tyrant

"Why? What do you mean 'why'? Don't you want to become the best demon sealer in the Nine Heavens?" Yan Hara looked at Yuan with wide eyes, almost as though she couldn't believe he'd even ask such a thing.

And she continued, "Although I may not be the best demon sealer or the best teacher out there, I am definitely a renowned demon sealer with vast experience. I even killed 3 real demons before. If you study under me, I can guarantee you that you will become a great demon sealer."

"Only three demons?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"A-Are you looking down on me?! Three demons may sound very little, but you must consider how demons are almost extinct! Most demon sealers nowadays have not even encountered one real demon, much less kill three!" Yan Hara could see a hint of disappointment in Yuan's gaze and quickly defended herself.

"S-Sorry, I didn't mean it..." Yuan quickly apologized when he realized that he'd just been disrespectful to her.

Yuan was someone who had killed multiple demons, and his kill count was even higher than Yan Hara, which he didn't expect as a newbie.

However, just because he killed more demons than Yan Hara did not mean he had more experience than her, and upon realizing this, he gave it some serious thoughts.

'I will have to face 11 demons in the near future, so I should acquire as much experience as I can before then...'

After thinking about it for a moment, Yuan eventually nodded his head and said, "Okay, I will better myself as a demon sealer. However, I am not doing this because I want to become the next founder. I just want to be able to defeat demons if I ever come across them."

Yan Hara, who had been a little dejected suddenly became elevated after hearing Yuan's words.

Even though he doesn't have the aspiration to become the next Divine Paragon, it was more than enough for her that he wanted to study under her since he might change his mind in the future.

"Great! Starting today, you are my disciple! Of course, it won't be anything formal." Yan Hara said with a bright smile on her face.

"I understand, Senior Yan."

"Anyways, you had some questions, right? I can answer them now if you want." Yan Hara said to him, not forgetting about his matters.

"Yes, I wanted to learn more about the Demonic Realm." Yuan said.

"The Demonic Realm?" Yan Hara looked at him with a questioning gaze.

"Although that place hasn't been relevant ever since the Divine Paragon sealed it, I guess it's good to learn about its history."

"Follow me, I will teach you everything you want to know about the Demonic Realm."

Yuan nodded and followed Yan Hara to this room that gave off the atmosphere of a library.

"Go wait over there for me. I will grab some ancient scrolls about the Demonic Realm." Yan Hara pointed at an empty table in the room.

Yuan walked to the table and proceeded to wait for her.

A couple of minutes later, Yan Hara returned and placed a couple of scrolls on the desk.

"Alright, let's begin, shall we?"

"Yes." Yuan nodded.

"Let's start with the beginning."

Yan Hara placed a scroll before him and opened it.

"The Demonic Realm was created by a demon known as the Red Tyrant, who was one of the most powerful demons back in the Primordial Era."

"After creating this Demonic Realm, the Red Tyrant made it his base, and it would quickly grow into a home for millions of demons."

"Eventually, this Red Tyrant would be known as the Demon God, who ruled over all demons and even humans to a certain extent for thousands of years."

After learning about the Demonic Realm and the Red Tyrant, Yuan asked, "I heard multiple times that demons used to rule the Nine Heavens. What happened back then? How did demons even come into existence?"

"Nobody really knows how demons came into existence, but there is a legend about the first demon appearing from a massive void that suddenly opened up in the starry sky."

"A void in the starry sky...?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"There are also rumors that this demon was the Red Tyrant, hence why he was so powerful, as he is the first demon. Once this demon showed up, almost like ghosts, demons began appearing around the Nine Heavens, terrorizing the people there."

"Since nobody knew about demons and how to defeat them, these demons quickly conquered the Nine Heavens with ease. Once that happened, humans were enslaved and became nothing more than playthings and food for these demons."

"The demons drank their blood, consumed their meat, chewed their bones—all sorts of horrifying things. Fortunately, almost as though the heavens sent him during the Nine Heavens' darkest times, a certain individual created techniques that allow cultivators to finally fight back the demons, and that person was the Divine Paragon, Founder of the Demon Sealing Clan."

"Although times have changed and it may not seem like it anymore, the Divine Paragon was more than just a hero to many people—he was a savior and god that saved the Nine Heavens."

"I see..." Yuan mumbled in a dazed voice.

'I have underestimated the Divine Paragon... He's much more important and exalted than I'd expected...' He sighed inwardly.

He knew the Divine Paragon was someone important, but he didn't think the Divine Paragon was such a bigshot in the Divine Heavens.

Meanwhile, somewhere in the Fifth Heaven, the sky turned black, and a gaping hole appeared in the sky above the Fairy Paradise, shocking everybody there.

Eventually, the people in the Fairy Paradise noticed a figure had appeared from the hole, and they watched as this figure slowly descended.

Once this person had descended enough, the people in the Fairy Paradise could finally see this figure's appearance, and he was an old man with this unfathomable aura surrounding him.

"The Master's presence lingers in this place..." The old man mumbled in a profound voice as he stared at the Fairy Paradise beneath him.

Chapter 762 - Immortal

"Fairy Empress! We have an emergency!" A woman came running into the Fairy Empress' room shortly after the gaping hole appeared above the Fairy Paradise.

"Calm down, I am aware." Fairy Empress said.

However, despite her calm voice, her face had a huge frown on it, and she was anything but calm.

'What is this feeling? I feel an overwhelming presence coming from the hole... I have never experienced anything like this before...'

The Fairy Empress could feel her entire body shivering from fear when she felt this divine presence.

"All of you stay alert. I am going to see what's happening."

"That's too dangerous! You must stay here, Fairy Empress!"

"Then do you want to go out there and investigate the hole for me?" The Fairy Empress narrowed her eyes at the woman, who immediately closed her mouth and lowered her head, her answer clear.

"I thought so." Fairy Empress coldly sneered before flying out the window to approach the hole.

However, just as she got close to the sky, she noticed a figure descending from this hole, and she immediately recognized that the divine presence she had been feeling this entire time was caused by this figure.

'An Immortal! He's a true Immortal!' Fairy Empress cried inwardly as she realized his identity.

Even though it was a guess, she had no doubt that this old man was an Immortal that had reached an unfathomable level in the cultivation path.

The Fairy Empress wanted to go up to the Immortal and greet him, but she was also afraid to disturb him at the same time.

Therefore, she could only hover in the sky and silently ponder whether she should approach him or not.

While the Fairy Empress pondered, she suddenly felt a presence behind her, causing her to turn around.

"Fuck!"

The Fairy Empress cursed out loud when she was startled by the old man hovering behind her.

'When did he appear behind me?! I didn't see him move at all, nor did I feel his presence until he allowed me to sense it!' The Fairy Empress cried inwardly, as she has never been snuck up on like this before.

Despite her shock, the Fairy Empress straightened her back before bowing to the old man.

"This Junior greets Senior."

The old man looked at her with a nonchalant gaze as he spoke, "I am looking for a certain individual."

"Do you have any descriptions of this person?" Fairy Empress asked.

"I do not."

Although she was a little baffled, the Fairy Empress didn't change her expression and continued to ask, "Then do you know how we can find this person?"

"I do not." The old man repeated.

This left the Fairy Empress speechless. How are they supposed to find someone without any information?

'Is he messing with me?' The Fairy Empress wondered inwardly.

"No, I am not messing with you." The old man suddenly said.

"Eh?"

The Fairy Empress was dumbfounded when he heard the old man's response, and she thought for a second that she had accidentally spoken out loud just now.

"P-Please forgive this Junior!" She quickly apologized to him while thinking to herself, 'Did he just read my mind...?'

And to her absolute surprise, the old man responded once again, "No, I did not read your mind."

'He's definitely reading my mind!'

Once she realized this, Fairy Empress immediately cleared her mind and tried her best to not think about anything.

"Anyways, while I do not have any description about this person, he should be very easy to find." The old man said.

Fairy Empress nodded and paid close attention to his next words.

"This person... He's very talented."

'He's definitely messing with me!' The Fairy Empress cried inwardly.

However, the old man said, "I know you think I am messing with you, but I am not. This person, he's not your average genius. He's a once-in-a-lifetime genius."

"Also, he was only in this place for a brief moment not long ago. His surname should also be 'Tian'."

"Not long ago?" Fairy Empress raised her eyebrows, and a certain individual appeared in her head.

'D-Don't tell me he's looking for the missing Dragon Emperor...?'

Fairy Empress swallowed nervously when she recalled that the old man could read her mind.

But to her surprise, he didn't say anything this time.

"Do you have someone in mind?" The old man noticed her expression and asked her.

"Are you talking about the Dragon Emperor, by any chance? He appeared out of the blue a while ago and vanished just as suddenly. We're also looking for him."

"Dragon Emperor? Tell me more about him." The old man quickly said.

The Fairy Empress nodded and began telling the old man about the Dragon Emperor without giving him all of the details, such as detaining him like a prisoner, as she was afraid that might offend this old man.

"He called himself 'Yuan', and he told us that he'd come to the Fifth Heaven by accident through a teleport formation. The Royal Dragon Family took him to their household, but he disappeared shortly after."

"The Royal Dragon Family..." The old man suddenly turned to look in a certain direction.

The next moment, the Fairy Empress watched as the old man disappeared in front of her like a ghost. She looked around, and once she was certain that he was gone, she released a relieved sigh before flying back to her palace.

As for the old man, he went to give the Royal Dragon Family a visit.

"I can sense his presence here as well... Did he really reincarnate into a Dragon Emperor? No... That shouldn't be possible..." The old man mumbled to himself in a puzzled manner.

The old man stopped pondering to himself and went inside the Dragon Royal Family's household without knocking on the door.

A moment later, he appeared inside the Dragon King's room.

Once inside the room, the old man walked to the bed, where the Dragon King was resting.

The old man stared at the Dragon King's sleeping face for a moment before releasing a hint of killing intent.

"Motherfucker!" The Dragon King jumped out of his bed the instant he sensed the killing intent that nearly gave him a heart attack.

Of course, a hint of killing intent coming from an Immortal would be more than enough to startle even a Spirit Emperor to death.

Chapter 763 - Heavens Mandate

After springing up from his bed, the Dragon King looked around in a confused look.

"W-What in the heavens' name was that killing intent just now?"

The Dragon King was left puzzled when there was nobody in his room.

"Did I have a nightmare because of my stress? I haven't been able to sleep properly since the Dragon Emperor disappeared, after all..." The Dragon King released a deep sigh.

However, just as the Dragon King laid back down on the bed, he heard a voice resound inside his room, and the voice sounded like it was responding to him.

"No, you're not dreaming."

The Dragon King's eyes snapped wide open, and that's when he saw the old man standing beside his bed.

"Fuck! It's a ghost!" The Dragon King screamed for his life.

"Ghost? Can a ghost do this?" The old man suddenly released this divine aura that even though the Dragon King has never experienced before, he instinctively as a cultivator knew that this aura belonged to an immortal.

"I-I-Immortal?!"

The Dragon King was even more shocked to learn that he had been woken up by an Immortal than a ghost!

"I am looking for someone. Can you tell me more about this Dragon Emperor that you took to your household not long ago?"

"T-The Dragon Emperor?"

It took awhile for the Dragon King to process the situation, but when he eventually did, he immediately kowtowed on the bed and apologized, "I'm sorry! The Dragon Emperor had disappeared in my home! We have been searching for him nonstop since his disappearance, but we haven't had any luck!"

The Dragon King mistook the old man as someone the Royal Dragon Family had sent because the Dragon Emperor hasn't returned to his original home.

"Tell me, why do you call him the 'Dragon Emperor'? And what does he look like?" The old man asked the Dragon King even though he already asked the Fairy Empress, as he wanted to confirm the information.

"Why? He was wearing an authentic pair of Golden Dragon Robes, he had a Dragon Spatial Ring, and he can even use Dragon's Gaze!" The Dragon King responded.

And he continued, "As for his appearance, he was a young man with long black hair and brown eyes. His face also looked pure and kind."

The old man silently pondered, 'They say he's a Dragon Emperor, but that's only because of his treasures. It doesn't really prove that he's a Dragon Emperor. Anybody can acquire the Golden Dragon Robe and the Dragon Spatial Ring in the upper heavens if they really try. As for his Dragon's Gaze... The Master and the Dragon Ancestor were like brothers, it wouldn't be weird at all if the Dragon Ancestor taught him Dragon's Gaze.'

"You said this Dragon Emperor suddenly disappeared, is that correct?"

"Yes, that is correct. I left him in one of our guest rooms to rest, and when I went to check on him later, he was already gone."

"And you have no idea where he could have gone?"

"Unfortunately. We have searched everywhere, but we couldn't find him, almost as though he never existed in the first place—"

The Dragon King stopped talking when he suddenly realized the old man had disappeared.

"Eh?"

The Dragon King looked around the room, and to make sure the old man wasn't hiding somewhere to startle him again, he walked around the room, even checking his closets.

"He's really gone... Or maybe he was never here in the first place? Was I hallucinating this entire time? Fuck. I really need some rest..." The Dragon King shook his head and went back to bed, quickly falling asleep.

Meanwhile, the old man hovered above the Dragon Royal Family without alerting a single soul there.

"As expected of the Master, you're a hard one to find. I thought it would be easier this time, but alas..."

"I would like to investigate a little more, but I am out of time. It won't be long before they arrive."

The old man shook his head and disappeared from the Fifth Heavens the next moment, almost as though he'd never existed.

An hour after the old man disappeared from the Fifth Heaven, the sky suddenly turned golden, and the world became illuminated by this holy light.

A massive hole appeared in the sky once again, but it was much larger than the previous.

The people of the Fifth Heaven were shocked by this scene, but what they witnessed next was completely out of their expectations.

"F-Fairy Empress! Look! There's so many people descending from the hole in the sky!"

"My eyes are working just fine!" The Fairy Empress frowned at the scene.

In the sky, a thousand figures wearing silver armor and standing in a formation appeared from the gaping hole, and they all emitted a heavenly aura that made people subconsciously revere them.

There was also a person in front of these soldiers, who was clearly leading this thousand-strong army.

This person was holding onto a large flag that had the words 'Heaven's Mandate' on it, and when people saw this flag, they all got onto their knees and lowered their heads, almost as though they were afraid to confront this flag.

"Heaven's Mandate...? What in heavens' name is the Celestial Emperor's army doing in the Fifth Heaven...?" The Fairy Empress muttered to herself in a low voice after she recognized the flag.

Even though this is her first time seeing these people, she knew who they were and what they represented at glance. In fact, this was the case for everyone in the Fifth Heaven.

And as the Lord of the Fifth Heaven, the Fairy Empress was obligated to greet them, and that's exactly what she did after preparing herself.

"Greetings, Heaven's Mandate. I am the Lord of the Fifth Heaven, Fairy Empress." She bowed to them in a respectful manner.

The man leading the army approached her and spoke in a cold voice, "I am General Li, and I am in charge of the 3rd squad of the Heaven's Mandate. We have been tasked with capturing a dangerous criminal by the Celestial Emperor himself, and we have sensed his presence in this world not long ago."

"Dangerous criminal?" The Fairy Empress raised her eyebrows, and for whatever reason, the old man appeared in her mind.

Chapter 764 - Stolen Memories

"You seem to know something." General Li said when he noticed the Fairy Empress' expression.

"You see, a gaping hole appeared in the sky above the Fairy Paradise that's right beneath us about an hour before your arrival, and an old man with an unfathomable aura descended from it—"

Before the Fairy Empress could even finish her sentence, General Li exclaimed, "That's him! What did you two speak about?!"

"N-Nothing much. He was looking for a certain individual, but he couldn't give any description or information about this individual. However, he did give me a surname— Tian."

The Fairy Empress noticed General Li's face twisting with fear after hearing her words, and she wondered what this was all about.

"T-T-This 'Tian' individual... Have you seen him?" General Li asked her after a moment of silence.

"I don't know. I did tell the old man about a certain individual I came across not long ago, and the old man appeared to be interested in him." Fairy Empress said.

"Who?! Tell me everything you know about this person! There is only one person in the Nine Heavens that would make that old man come out of his hiding so blatantly! He must have sensed this person's presence here!"

The Fairy Empress quickly opened her mouth to respond, but she didn't utter a single word even many moments later.

General Li raised his eyebrows in a puzzled manner, "What's the matter, Fairy Empress?"

However, the Fairy Empress was just as puzzled as General Li.

"I-I don't know... I can't remember for some reason..." Fairy Empress responded in a dumbfounded voice.

"I know I have met this person before, but I cannot remember his face or our conversations... It's almost as though it had been wiped from my memories..." Fairy Empress continued to explain her phenomenon.

"..."

Despite Fairy Empress' crazy talk, General Li did not seem to be angry at her. In fact, he had a look of understanding on his face.

"You just had your memories stolen by the old man." General Li said, shocking the Fairy Empress.

"W-What do you mean I had my memories 'stolen'?" She asked.

"The old man has a forbidden technique that can steal one's memories. He usually surprises his victims before taking away their memories, as that makes it easier for him to steal your memories." General Li explained to him.

Fairy Empress' eyes widened with surprise upon learning about this information. Is this why the old man scared her by appearing behind her like a ghost?

'He did that to steal my memories? But I didn't even realize my memories had been stolen, and I probably would've never realized it if General Li never told me...'

"Why did he not steal my memories of him? Wouldn't that be more logical?" Fairy Empress asked a moment later.

"Because he's arrogant like that. He is aware that we've been chasing him, and he purposefully allowed us to chase him. The reason he left your memories of him is so that we could confirm his presence had been here."

After pondering for a bit, Fairy Empress spoke, "Even though he'd stolen my memories, there are other people that have seen this person he's looking for!"

However, General Li shook his head and said, "That won't work. The moment the old man stole your memories, he would know everyone that's involved and steal their memories as well. Although I am confident that's the case, we will still investigate just in case he'd slip up. After all, it's been thousands of years since he last showed up."

Fairy Empress swallowed nervously.

She then led General Li and his people to see those who had met with Yuan before. Even though her memories had been stolen, it was only her memories of meeting and speaking with Yuan.

Sometime later, General Li met with Elder Xue and the disciples that had met with Yuan before.

Of course, the ladies were surprised to see so many men inside the Fairy Paradise. However, it was not as though the Fairy Empress could do anything about the situation, as these people were working directly for the Celestial Emperor, the most powerful individual in the Nine Heavens.

"Have you seen an old man recently?" Fairy Empress asked them.

And to her surprise, all of them nodded their heads.

"I thought I was only seeing things. The old man appeared behind me like a ghost while I was working inside my room, but when I blinked, he was gone." Elder Xue said.

"That happened to me as well! I was taking a bath in the lake when I noticed an old man staring at me from behind the trees. I was terrified at that time, but when I looked again, he had vanished like a ghost!"

Everybody there recalled their experience with the creepy old man who was appearing and vanishing like a real ghost.

General Li wasn't surprised, but just in case, he asked them about their encounter with Yuan.

In the end, none of them could remember Yuan's face or their conversations with him, but they could remember their encounter with him.

Sometime later, General Li said to the Fairy Empress, "If he ever shows up again or you remember something about this 'Tian', use this jade slip to contact me."

General Li and his thousand-strong army departed the Fairy Paradise and went to the Royal Dragon Family.

Inside the royal guest room, the Dragon King sat before General Li with a profound frown on his face.

"I cannot remember this person's face or name, but I do recall his identity as a Dragon Emperor." The Dragon King said.

"Dragon Emperor?" General Li raised his eyebrows.

"Yes, the old man asked me about the Dragon Emperor. I remember taking the Dragon Emperor to our home, but he disappeared shortly after. That's the extent of my memories." The Dragon King sighed.

And he asked General Li, "If you don't mind me asking, why are you looking for this old man? I thought he was only a hallucination of mine because of my lack of sleep."

After a moment of silence, General Li spoke in a solemn voice, "The day the old man reunites with 'Tian', the Nine Heavens will erupt with chaos.. That's all I can say since that's all I know."

Chapter 765 - Within The Seventh Heaven

"The Nine Heavens will erupt with chaos...? That sounds like a calamity I don't want to experience..." The Dragon King muttered in a dazed voice.

He could've never imagined how serious the situation was, and he couldn't fathom how an old man meeting with someone could possibly start a calamity in the Nine Heavens.

"Anyways, I will speak with everyone that has encountered this person the old man wiped from their memories just in case they remember." General Li said to the Dragon King.

The Dragon King nodded his head and proceeded to send everyone that had encountered Yuan to speak with General Li.

In the end, all of them had their memories stolen from them.

"That old man stole our memories? How is that even possible? He never even got close to me!"

The victims were in disbelief after learning about it.

"The old man possesses an ancient technique that allows him to steal your memories. Although it loses its effects in the upper heavens, this technique works flawlessly against cultivators with inferior cultivation."

"Anyways, I have spent enough time here. I must return and report my findings to the Celestial Emperor."

General Li left the Royal Dragon Family's household shortly after and returned to the upper heavens with the rest of the Heaven's Mandate.

Meanwhile, somewhere in the upper heavens, the old man returned to the jade tablet and sighed, "After looking at their memories of you, I am reminded of your brilliance during your prime days."

"Oh, how I wish I could watch you grow this time as well..."

"But alas, it seems like fate is trying its hardest to keep me away from you. This must be those bastards' doing."

"Unfortunately for them, not even fate can hold you down now. It will only be a matter of time before you return to us and seize the heaven that you rightfully own."

The old man lowered his body until he was on his knees, and he kowtowed to the jade tablet in a revering manner, almost as though he was praying to his god.

While all of this was happening, Yuan was listening to Yan Hara talk about the Demonic Realm.

"And soon after the Divine Paragon sealed off the Demonic Realm, pretty much everyone had forgotten about it, as it was no longer of their concern. Any questions?" Yan Hara asked him.

"Just one." Yuan nodded, and he continued to ask, "Where is the Demonic Realm right now?"

"Where?" Yan Hara raised her eyebrows, wondering to herself why he wanted to know such information, as it sounded like he wanted to go there.

"It's located in the Seventh Heaven, and it's heavily guarded by the Demon Sealing Clan and the Demon Sealing Grotto to make sure nobody messes with the seal. Why do you want to know? Do you want to visit the place?" Yan Hara had to ask him.

Yuan didn't lie and confirmed her suspicions, "Yes, I am a little interested in the Demonic Realm, and I was wondering if I could take a look at it."

"Unfortunately, only those at the top of the Demon Sealing Clan are allowed to get close to the Demonic Realm. Anybody that tries to get close without permission, regardless of their identity, will be slain. The Demon Sealing Clan takes the safety of the seal extremely seriously, after all."

"If you really want to visit the place, you will need to increase your influence within the Demon Sealing Clan. If you become the founder, you can go anywhere you want." Yan Hara said with a suggestive smile on her face.

"You really want me to become the founder, huh?" Yuan couldn't help but smile at her stubbornness.

"If you become the founder, it will almost be like the Divine Paragon has returned— like living a historical event."

"I will think about it." Yuan sighed.

"Please do." Yan Hara chuckled.

Sometime later, Yuan asked Yan Hara, "Now that I am an Advanced Demon Sealer, can I take a look at the demon sealing techniques?"

"Sure thing. Follow me." Yan Hara stood up and brought Yuan to another room, where twelve jade tablets existed.

Yuan immediately began looking through the tablets, and he realized that he recognized a couple of these techniques from his memories.

As the creator of these techniques, he should recognize all of these techniques, but he only recovered a small portion of his memories, hence his situation.

"I'm going to spend a few days here if you don't mind." Yuan turned to look at Yan Hara.

"You can stay here for as long as you'd like. If you have any questions, I will always be here." Yan Hara said.

She then retrieved a jade slip from her spatial ring before handing it to him.

"This is my communication jade slip. Use this to contact me whenever you're in the Grand Library and have any questions."

"Thank you." Yuan accepted the jade slip.

"Then I will leave you alone for now." Yan Hara said to him before leaving the place.

Once he was left alone, Yuan sat before one of the jade tablets and began trying to comprehend the technique.

While Yuan focused on the jade tablets, the other cultivators there would watch him from a distance.

"Isn't he the rumored 'little founder'?"

"I think so. He looks so much like the Divine Paragon's statue."

"I thought it was a hoax, but now that I am seeing him with my own eyes, I feel a little foolish."

The people in the room wanted to approach Yuan out of curiosity, but seeing how he was focused on the jade tablet, nobody bothered him.

"I heard he accepted Senior Yan as his lecturer? What a lucky one. Many people want to be taught by her, but she always refuses them. I think he is her first student."

"I would be surprised if she didn't accept him.. Didn't you know that she's a huge Divine Paragon fanatic? Rumor has it that she's even part of some cult that treats the Divine Paragon as their god."

Chapter 766 - Divine Paragon Fanatics

A couple of days have passed since Yuan started studying the Divine-rank demon sealing techniques, and he has managed to learn all 12 techniques in this short time.

'It's almost time for me to visit the Qi Family. Thankfully, I managed to learn all of these techniques before then.' Yuan thought to himself as he prepared to leave.

However, right as he prepared to log off, Yan Hara showed up in the room and said to him, "Little founder! I want you to meet a few of my friends!"

"Huh?"

Yuan turned to look at the entrance, and to his surprise, there was a small group of beautiful women being led by Yan Hara.

The moment these beautiful women laid their eyes on Yuan, they began screaming—the excitement type of scream.

"Whaaa! It's really him! I am having a hard time believing it even though he's standing right there!"

"Heavens! He really looks like the Divine Paragon!"

"I thought you were exaggerating, but alas! I'm sorry for doubting you, Senior Sister!"

The group of women quickly surrounded Yuan and even started touching him as though he was a doll.

"H-Hey! I told you girls that you cannot touch him!" Yan Hara quickly intervened.

"Sorry, little founder. These girls are all big fans of the Divine Paragon, and they begged me to take them to you after they heard the rumors."

"It's alright." Yuan said with a stiff smile on his face. He wasn't unfamiliar with being idolized. In fact, he has been in even more crowded situations.

"Excuse me, little founder! Can I take a picture of you?" One of the ladies there suddenly asked him.

"Huh? A picture?" Yuan raised his eyebrows. He wondered how taking pictures work in this world.

"I will give you this treasure as a compensation!" The woman then showed him a beautiful necklace that radiated with a profound aura.

"Whoa! Are you seriously going to trade that treasure for a picture, Junior Sister?"

Yuan silently stared at the necklace for a moment before shaking his head.

"It's fine, I don't need the treasure. It's just a picture, right? I will do it for free." Yuan said to her.

"Really?! Thank you! Really! Thank you, little founder!" The woman was ecstatic by the results.

"Please, follow me!" The woman said to him.

Yuan nodded and followed her to the area with the Divine Paragon's statue.

"Can you stand beside the statue and look in my direction?"

"Sure."

Once Yuan was standing beside the statue, the woman said, "Now can you do this pose?"

Seeing her pose, Yuan placed his arms behind his back like a scholar.

"Great! Now give me the best smile you've got!"

Yuan pondered for a moment before putting a gentle smile on his face.

"T-That's perfect! Now stay like that for a few minutes!"

The woman suddenly retrieved a large piece of blank paper and a brush, and she quickly began drawing on the piece of paper while staring at Yuan the entire time.

'This is what she meant by 'taking a picture'?' Yuan was dumbfounded by the results. He could've never predicted that she would start drawing him on the spot with a brush.

About fifteen minutes later, the woman finally stopped looking at Yuan to look at the result of her art.

"Perfect!" The woman exclaimed in a trembling voice.

She then turned the paper around to show Yuan her work, and to his absolute surprise, the art looked incredibly surreal, almost as though he was actually living inside the painting!

"What do you think?" She asked him.

"I-I'm speechless. I have never seen such a beautiful painting before, and it only took you a few minutes to draw such a masterpiece!" Yuan couldn't fathom it.

The woman didn't change her brush during the entire process, so he expected the painting to be black and white, but when he saw the painting, it was vivid with colors!

"You may not believe it, but she's actually a really famous painter within the Nine Heavens." Yan Hara said to him.

"There are many people out there that wish to be painted by her, and it would usually cost them an arm and leg." Yan Hara chuckled. This is actually her first time seeing this woman willing to draw someone for free! In fact, she even wanted to pay to paint him!

"Anyways, I demand a copy of that painting, Sister Sun. I am the reason you got that painting today, after all."

Sister Sun nodded and said, "Don't worry, I will make a copy for everyone in the family."

"Family? You're siblings?" Yuan asked.

"Not that kind of family." Yan Hara showed him a mysterious smile.

Seeing her weird smile, Yuan figured that it would be for the best if he didn't ask about it.

"Little founder, here." Sister Sun suddenly extended her hand to him.

Yuan looked at the necklace in her hand and shook his head, "I already said I don't need any payment."

"I know. This is not a payment. This is a gift to celebrate our encounter. That's all."

Although Yuan was still reluctant to accept such a precious-looking treasure, he had to accept it when Sister Sun basically forced it into his hands.

"Thank you..." Yuan said to her afterward.

Sometime later, Yuan said to Yan Hara, "Senior, I will be away for a while. I don't know when I will return to this place."

"That's completely fine, but try to show up a month from now. There will be a competition amongst demon sealers. I will tell you more about it when the time comes."

"Okay. A month, right? I will be here."

After speaking with the ladies for a couple more minutes, Yuan logged off Cultivation Online and began his preparations for his trip to the Qi Family.

Near the end of the day, the Manager showed up to his house to notify him that they will be leaving tomorrow.

"Meet me in the front at sunrise." She said to him.

"I understand.." Yuan acknowledged.

Chapter 767 - Fearing For His Life

"By the way, how long will I be staying with the Qi Family?" Yuan asked the Manager before she left.

"You can leave whenever you want," she said to him as she walked away.

That night, Chu Liuxiang asked him, "You'll be visiting my Master's family tomorrow, right? Can I come with you?"

"The Mountain Lord said that I should go alone since the Qi Family doesn't like guests." Yuan said.

"I see... How long will you be gone for?"

"I'm not sure, but I will try to come back as soon as possible."

"Stay safe out there."

"The only one I need to be wary of is your master. I hope she doesn't hold a grudge after because I left her sealed." Yuan sighed.

"Master may be arrogant and a little hot-headed, she's not an unreasonable person. If you speak with her, I'm sure she'll forgive you."

"I hope so."

"Good night, darling."

"Good night."

The following morning, Yuan met up with the Manager, who was waiting at the front of his building in a luxurious red car.

"Get in the back," she said to him.

Once Yuan was in the car, the Manager took off and began driving down the mountain.

However, the speed she was descending the mountain at was a little unnatural—unnaturally fast.

Yuan quickly realized that the Manager was a reckless driver who would drift at even the slightest curve in the road, and she was basically speeding down the mountain at a ridiculous speed.

Yuan has never really feared for his life outside of Cultivation Online, but riding in the same car as the Manager made him feel insecure about his safety, and he worried that they might die at any moment.

Once they left the Dragon Spiral Mountain, Yuan expected the Manager to slow down, but alas, she only sped up.

"S-Shouldn't you slow down a little?" Yuan could no longer stay silent and said to her.

"Why?" The Manager said, dumbfounding him.

"Why...? It's dangerous to be going this fast, not to mention illegal..."

"We'll be fine." The Manager said in a nonchalant manner before increasing the speed by ten more miles.

By now, they were going at least 140 miles per hour, and Yuan was prepared to jump out of the car at any moment.

After a few minutes of this madness, Yuan could hear the sound of police sirens blaring from behind them.

However, instead of stopping for the police, the Manager actually increased the speed!

'She's crazy!' Yuan cried inwardly. He never expected the Manager to be such a lunatic, and he swore to himself that he would never sit in a car with her ever again as long as she was behind the wheels.

The police sirens only got louder as more and more police cars appeared behind them, yet the car continued to zoom forward.

Eventually, they arrived at a spacious lot that had a dozen airplanes and even private jets stationed.

Once they arrived before a specific red jet, the Manager finally stopped the car.

The moment their car stopped, the police cars that had been chasing them immediately surrounded the car.

"Get out of the vehicle with your hands up!" One of the policemen shouted with a megaphone right in front of his mouth.

"What now?" Yuan asked.

The Manager didn't respond to him and took out her own megaphone before speaking into it with a tranquil voice, "Why don't you idiots run the license already and get out of my way?"

When the police heard her words, they immediately ran her car's license plate through their system.

Once the results came in, the entire place turned dead silent.

Yuan could see the police mumbling to each other, but he couldn't hear their words.

A few minutes later, the policeman with the megaphone spoke again, but he sounded more respectful this time, "There has been a misunderstanding. Please forgive us. We'll leave you alone right now."

"W-What?" Yuan was baffled by the polices' confusing response.

He thought they were only playing along for the heck of it, but sure enough, the police returned to their cars before driving away as though nothing had happened.

"This is the influence of the Dragon Spiral Mountain, and as long as you live within the mountain, you represent us. Never forget this." The Manager suddenly said to him.

"You caused all of this chaos just to prove this point?" Yuan was utterly speechless.

"No, this is how I normally drive."

The Manager then got out of the car and said to him, "Let's go."

Yuan immediately frowned when he saw the Manager walking towards the jet before them.

"Don't tell me you're going to drive this plane as well?" He asked her while silently hoping that was not the case.

"No, I am not."

Yuan sighed a breath of relief after hearing her words, but he almost choked on air after hearing her next sentence.

"You're going to be the one driving it."

"You want a blind man with no experience to drive a plane? Is this some kind of punishment you're giving me because of what I did to the Chu Family?" Yuan had a feeling that she was making things difficult for him on purpose as a way to punish him.

"I have no idea what you're talking about. As for driving the plane, even a 10-year-old can do it. Hurry up and get on the plane already. We're going to be late at this rate." The Manager said as she entered the plane.

"What about your car?"

"Just leave it there. Somebody will take care of it later," she said.

Once they were both inside the plane, the Manager shut the door and led him to the cockpit.

She pointed at the obvious red button and said, "Just press that button and the plane will enter auto-pilot. I am going to sleep, so you're going to watch the plane. Don't press anything else unless you want to crash the plane."

And without explaining anything else, the Manager went to one of the rooms in the back to sleep, leaving Yuan alone and dumbfounded in the cockpit.

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 768 - Qi Family

After staring at the red button for a few minutes, Yuan eventually gave up and pressed it, his fingers trembling while doing so.

Immediately after pressing the button, the plane began to move, and Yuan watched as the plane turned towards the flight path and started moving without needing him to do anything.

A few moments later, they were in the air.

Seeing that they were flying without any problems, Yuan released a sigh of relief, but even then, he could not leave the cockpit unattended, so he sat in one of the two chairs and proceeded to just enjoy the scenery with his divine sense.

Of course, since he was using divine sense, he was able to see the Manager sleeping peacefully inside her room.

"She really went to sleep..." He thought she was only saying that to mess with him, but turns out she was telling the truth.

And while he sat in the cockpit, Yuan would use this time to continue trying to learn Technique Transmission.

Eight hours later, Yuan noticed the plane tilting downwards.

"It's descending? This should mean we're close to the Qi Family."

Half an hour later, the plane landed itself on a medium-sized island surrounded by water.

"The Qi Family really lives on an island..."

Sometime later, Yuan left the cockpit and went to knock on the Manager's door.

"Manager, we have arrived."

However, the Manager remained sleeping inside.

Yuan knocked on the door a couple more times before going into her room and shaking her awake.

"Manager! Wake up! We have landed!"

"Huh?"

The Manager sat up on the bed with a drowsy expression and saliva drooling from her mouth.

She stared at Yuan for a moment before snapping out of her daze and shouting with a flushed face, "G-Get out! I will be with you later!"

"Alright." Yuan said with a smile on his face, which only made the Manager's face flush even more.

After leaving the plane, Yuan waited for the Manager, who showed up five minutes later with a cold expression on her face, and she looked more angry than normal.

"Follow me," she said as she walked ahead.

Meanwhile, a few miles ahead, the Qi Family was preparing for the meeting.

"Qi Fang, come with us. There's going to be a meeting with the Manager of the Dragon Spiral Mountain soon. Apparently, the Lord wants us to work with someone to deal with the demons in the mountain." An old man said to a beautiful woman when he encountered her in the hallways.

"Okay." Qi Fang nodded, and she followed him into the meeting room.

Once they were seated, Qi Fang said, "I know the 11 demons within the Dragon Spiral Mountain is a calamity waiting to happen, but we should deal with our own problem before we help others."

"I know what you're thinking, but we're also receiving help from him. This person they're sending here— he will assist us with our problem."

"Who is this person, anyway?"

"The Lord didn't give any specifics, but he did guarantee us that he's very experienced with demons."

"Experienced with demons?" Qi Fang frowned upon hearing this.

'I swear to god, if it's that bastard...'

Meanwhile, after walking for about half an hour, Yuan and the Manager arrived before the Qi Family's household.

Once they were at the front gate, the Manager rang the bell and waited for a response.

A few moments later, a middle-aged woman wearing traditional clothing showed up to open the gate.

"Welcome to the Qi Family, Manager. The elders are expecting your presence in the meeting room."

The Manager and Yuan entered the estate and followed the middle-aged woman to a medium-sized building shaped like a pavilion beside the main household.

The middle-aged woman knocked on the door and said out loud, "Elders, the Manager and her friend have arrived."

"Let them in!" A voice quickly responded.

The middle-aged woman opened the door and gestured for them to enter.

Once they entered the building, Yuan immediately felt an unpleasant gaze directed at him, and when he looked at this person giving him the glares, it was a familiar face.

Sure enough, it was Senior Qi, who was also known as Qi Fang.

"Welcome, Manager and little friend." An old man stood up and greeted them with clasped hands.

Yuan returned his greetings and said, "Good morning, my name is Yuan."

"Yuan? The one who assisted the Six Spiritual Families in subjugating the demon? I heard about you. I didn't think you would be the one coming here today." The old woman sitting beside the old man said.

"By the way, I am Qi Huan," she added.

"I'm Qi Man, retired patriarch of the Qi Family." The old man said.

"Qi Fang..." Senior Qi said in a low voice.

"Hm? What's the matter, Qi'er? Why do you have a frown on your face?" Qi Man asked her.

"It's nothing." Qi Fang stopped frowning the next moment.

Nobody in the Qi Family was aware of her fight with Yuan, as it was too embarrassing for her to admit that she'd lost to a junior like him.

"Anyways, have a seat." Qi Huan pointed at the chairs.

Once they sat down, the Manager said, "As the Lord has promised, Yuan will help you with your problem. In return, you will help us with our problem."

"Of course. If he can really assist us, we will spare no effort dealing with your demons."

"Huh? You never told me anything about helping them." Yuan suddenly said.

"You didn't?" The Qi Family turned to look at the Manager with raised eyebrows.

"I forgot," said the Manager in a calm voice.

She then turned to look at Yuan and continued, "You will be helping them kill a demon."

"What?!" Yuan exclaimed.

He thought he came here to make friends with the Qi Family, not kill demons for them! Furthermore, why would they need his help when they are all demon sealers themselves? It made no sense!

Chapter 769 - Entering Seclusion

"W-Wait a second! Why do you need my help killing a demon? Aren't you guys a demon sealing clan? If you need my help killing your demon, how will you help us with our 11 demons?!" Yuan asked them what was on his mind.

"I understand your confusion, so allow me to explain it to you." Qi Man said.

And he continued, "Although we are indeed a family that has dedicated itself to dealing with demons since ancient times, we do not actually have the capability to kill demons, only prolong their seal."

"There is a powerful demon that is currently sealed on this island, but its seal is getting weaker. We have been resealing this demon since ancient times, and it has gotten to the point where our techniques are no longer effective on it, so it will eventually break out of its seal and kill us all, and it is only a matter of time before it happens."

"We heard rumors that the Six Spiritual Families had managed to kill a demon, but we do not entirely believe such a rumor. After all, the Six Spiritual Families do not have the capability to seal demons, much less kill them."

"Since you were there, can you enlighten us on how such a thing happened? We tried asking them about it, but they refused to tell us the truth."

After a moment of silence, Yuan said, "Because I was the one who killed the demon, and they hid the fact to protect me."

The room immediately fell silent.

Qi Fang already knew this fact, but her grandparents were hearing this information for the first time, so they wore shocked expressions on their faces afterward.

"Y-You killed the demon? H-How?" Qi Man eventually snapped out of his daze to ask.

"Sorry, it's not that I don't want to tell you, I just don't know how to explain it." Yuan shook his head.

The old couples exchanged looks with each other.

After a moment of silence, Qi Man stood up and said, "Follow me. I will show you the demon."

Yuan nodded and followed them outside.

After following this narrow path to an open area, Yuan could see over a dozen people guarding this large tree on a small hill.

When they got close, the guards greeted the old couple.

"Let us through. My friend here would like to see the demon." Qi Man said.

The guards turned to look at Yuan and nodded silently, not that they had any choice.

Once they were on the hill, Qi Man pointed at the tree and said, "There is a demon sealed within this tree. Go around it and you should see it."

Yuan nodded and walked around this tree, and sure enough, he could see a hideous-looking demon with a bulky body coexisting with this tree.

Dong!

The moment Yuan approached this demon, the entire island began shaking.

"It won't be long before this demon breaks out of its seal. This is already the 4th earthquake this month." Qi Huan sighed.

"Do you think you can kill it without breaking it out of its seal?" Qi Man asked him.

"In order to kill a demon, you must separate its core with the body or destroy the demon faster than it can regenerate." Yuan said.

"Since it's sealed, I won't be able to extract its core without breaking it out of the seal. As for the second method... I'm not sure I am capable of killing a demon, but I can try."

"Really? Does this mean you'll help us?" Qi Huan asked him.

"I will help you if you accept one of my conditions."

"What condition?"

"I get to keep its demon core after killing it."

"Demon core?" Qi Man raised his eyebrows.

This is his first time hearing about such a thing.

"If you kill the demon, it's only natural that you get whatever it leaves behind."

"Okay. I will need to prepare first." Yuan said.

"Whatever you need, my Qi Family will supply it."

"I don't need anything, only time and a place where I cannot be disturbed."

After all, he only needed to learn the Heaven Splitting Sword Strike to kill the demon.

"I know the perfect place. Follow me."

Yuan then followed Qi Man back down the hill and onto another path, which led him to a large cave.

"Immortal Caves?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"That's right. This is our Qi Family's immortal caves. The spiritual energy here is the best, and you won't be disturbed by anybody."

"How long do you think you will need to prepare?" Qi Man then asked.

"A week to be safe."

"I understand." Qi Man nodded.

Yuan then turned to the Manager and asked her, "Can you let my friends back at home know about the situation? I don't want them to worry when I don't return even after a week."

The Manager silently nodded.

"Thank you."

Yuan entered one of the available Immortal Caves shortly after and went into seclusion to learn the Heaven Splitting Sword Strike.

Once Yuan went into seclusion, the Qi Family and the Manager returned to the household.

"Do you really think he is capable of killing the demon? He looks too young..." Qi Huan expressed her worries to the Manager.

"..."

After a moment of silence, the Manager said, "I don't know, but the Lord seems to believe in his abilities."

"Well, I think he's a lot more capable than he appears." Qi Fang suddenly said.

The old couple turned to look at her and said, "You have been acting weird all day long. Do you, by any chance, know that boy?"

Qi Fang's eyebrows twitched after hearing their words, and after releasing a deep sigh, she decided to tell them the truth— at least some of it.

"Yes, I know him. We met very briefly at the Chu Family, and we had an exchange with each other.. It was during that time that I experienced for myself a little of what he's capable of, and he's a lot stronger than he looks."

Chapter 770 - I Will Handle It

After speaking with the Qi Family, the Manager called Meixiu's phone to let her know about the situation.

"Hello?"

"This is the Manager of the Dragon Spiral Mountain. Is this Meixiu's phone number?"

"Yes, this is Meixiu speaking. Did something happen to Yuan?" Meixiu quickly asked about Yuan.

"No, I am just calling to let you know that he will be staying at the Qi Family for a little longer than anticipated."

"..."

"I understand... Can I speak to him?" Meixiu asked after a moment of silence.

"Unfortunately, he's currently in seclusion, so he will not be able to speak with you."

"W-Wait... What do you mean by that? Why is he in seclusion?"

The Manager proceeded to explain the whole situation to Meixiu.

"He's going to fight a demon?!" Meixiu's anxious voice resounded after hearing everything.

"Not exactly. He's going to exterminate a sealed demon."

"How is that any different?" Meixiu frowned.

"Does it really matter? In the end, he agreed to it."

"How long will this take?"

"About a week," said the Manager.

"I understand... I will tell the others. Just make sure he's safe..."

"As much as I hate that idea, it is my job as the Manager of the Dragon Spiral Mountain to keep its residents safe... No matter how much I dislike that resident."

Once the connection stopped, Meixiu went to notify the others about the situation while the Manager and the Qi Family waited for Yuan to emerge from his seclusion.

A week passed by in a flash, and during this time, the island shook three more times.

"Is he coming out of his seclusion anytime soon? It's already been a week, and the demon is showing signs of unsealing." Qi Fang complained as she stood in front of Yuan's immortal cave with the others.

"You know what? I think we should go inside and see what the hell is taking him so long! We don't have any more time!"

Just as Qi Fang began approaching the immortal cave, a figure emerged from the cave entrance.

"Took you long enough! I sincerely hope that you're fully prepared! It's been a week!" Qi Fang said to Yuan, who just finished his seclusion.

"Sorry, it took longer than expected." Yuan said.

Since the Heaven Splitting Sword Strike is actually part of another Divine-rank technique, he had to improve his Heaven's Secret Art first, which is harder than learning even an Ancient-rank technique.

"I am ready to kill the demon. Let's go." Yuan then said.

Sometime later, they arrived at the tree on the hill.

"So... How are you going to exterminate it?" Qi Man asked once they were standing in front of the sealed demon that had cracks appearing all over its body.

"I am going to destroy it using my technique."

"Technique? A demon sealing technique?"

"No, it's a powerful technique that can obliterate everything in its path. I have killed a demon before using this technique." Yuan said.

"Stay back. I don't want anybody to be caught up in the blast."

Once everybody was at a safe distance, Yuan summoned the Empyrean Overlord and started gathering all of the spiritual energy in the air.

"What the heck is he doing...?" Qi Fang mumbled in a low voice.

"I don't know, but whatever he's doing, it's going to be big and powerful..." The Manager said in a dazed voice.

She has never seen such a massive amount of spiritual energy gathered in one spot before.

Yuan took his time gathering as much spiritual energy as he could since he didn't want to take any chances with this bulky demon.

While Yuan gathered his strength, the island began shaking again.

"The demon... It's pulsating with light..." Qi Huan pointed at the demon in the tree that was glowing red in a heartbeat rhythm.

This is the closest they have seen a demon being unsealed, and they were getting goosebumps all over their bodies.

A few minutes later, Yuan was finally finished with charging his strike.

After taking a deep breath, Yuan swung his sword and released all of the spiritual energies that he had gathered, shooting a bright beam of light at the sealed demon.

BOOM!

The beam consumed the entire tree and most of the hill, instantly evaporating it.

This shocked the Qi Family and the Manager, as they have never seen anything this destructive before.

"It's just like a nuclear weapon..." Qi Man mumbled in a dazed voice.

Yuan fell to his knees and began gasping for air after releasing the Heaven Splitting Sword Strike, feeling as though half of his energy had been drained from that one attack.

However, before he could even catch his breath, he suddenly heard Qi Fang's screaming voice, "Yuan! In front of you!"

Yuan immediately used his divine sense to look at the scene before him, and to his absolute shock and horror, there was a glob of red slimy substance on the ground that was moving around as though it was alive.

'I-I didn't manage to kill it? Did I not use enough spiritual energy? No... I used even more than the last time! This demon must be far stronger than the one in the Mystic Realm!'

Yuan turned to look at the Qi Family and shouted at them, "Leave this place immediately! I will handle the demon!"

"A-Are you sure?! We can assist you!" Qi Fang said out loud.

"I am sure! Just leave! I will handle it! Trust me!"

Qi Fang looked at the others and they all nodded at each other before leaving the place to alert the others.

Shortly after the others left, the red substance started forming into a large, bulky figure, and in just a few moments, it'd managed to completely recover, becoming a full demon again.

It silently stared at Yuan with a calm expression for a moment before showing an ugly smile on its face, "That hurt like hell, human.. You're going to pay for waking this Supreme One up in such a rude fashion."

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 771 - Toying With The Demon

"I thought you demons couldn't feel pain." Yuan said to the demon in a calm voice after hearing its words.

"And calling yourself the 'Supreme One' when you're just a lowly demon that had been sealed for heaven-knows-how-long... You're full of it."

"Oh? You not only dare to speak back to me but also mock me? Since when have humans become so brave?" The grin on the demon's face grew wider, and its bloodlust and aura continued to rise.

'It only has the strength of a Spirit Grandmaster... How did it survive my Heaven Splitting Sword Strike? And it looks slightly different compared to the other demons I have encountered so far.' Yuan wondered to himself.

Furthermore, demons would normally get angry at the slightest provocation, yet this demon managed to remain calm despite Yuan's mockery.

There was just something different about this demon.

The demon looked at its surroundings and asked, "How long have I been sealed? And where am I?"

"You're asking the wrong person. And even if I knew, I wouldn't tell you."

"Is that so? Then I have no reason to keep you alive any longer. I will kill you and find someone else to entertain me, and then I will replenish my strength by eating everyone in this place." The demon stretched its thick neck left and right as it slowly approached Yuan in a menacing manner.

Once it was halfway to Yuan, it suddenly disappeared from its spot.

Yuan quickly raised the Empyrean Overlord in front of him in a defensive manner, and the next second, he was sent flying backward by a powerful strike from the demon.

"You managed to block my strike? Even though my strength has diminished greatly after being sealed for so long, it's still very impressive. This is going to be fun." The bulky demon laughed out loud.

'This demon is strong...' Yuan quickly stabilized himself after being sent flying.

However, he wasn't feeling worried even in the slightest. In fact, he was even a little excited.

'Even though the artificial demons are very useful, they cannot compare to real demons. I'm going to take this chance to practice with a real demon!'

Yuan could've sealed the demon while it was still recovering. However, he purposefully allowed the demon to fully recover just so he could use it as a training puppet.

It was an incredibly selfish and risky thing to do, as it could backfire on him and the Qi Family, but Yuan went ahead and risked it anyway for some reason.

Yuan began approaching the demon and said, "If you don't hurry up and kill me, I will seal you again, and this time, you won't be able to escape ever again."

The bulky demon's muscles began moving around like there were live worms in its body after hearing Yuan's words that had clearly affected it.

"You just gave me another reason to kill you."

The demon suddenly disappeared from its spot again, but it did not escape from Yuan's divine sense.

"Ha!"

Yuan turned around and swung the Empyrean Overlord with incredible force.

The demon that had just appeared behind him subconsciously blocked the strike with its bare arms.

The Empyrean Overlord tore right through the demon's arms and severed them before sending the demon's body flying into the distance.

"Hahaha! Not bad! Not bad at all!" The demon laughed as its body clashed into dozens of trees.

Once it regained its footing, the demon leaped into the air and began throwing spears made out of its blood at Yuan.

"Seal!"

Yuan roared, and a powerful ripple of demon sealing aura swept the scene, instantly halting the blood spears midair and turning them into stone.

Feeling slight stiffness in its body, the demon frowned, and it stopped taking the situation lightly and saw Yuan as a real threat.

Meanwhile, Qi Fang stopped running after a few minutes.

"Why are you stopping?!" Qi Huan asked her.

Qi Fang frowned and said, "This doesn't feel right at all! Why do we have to run like some coward?! We are the Qi Family! I am not going to let him fight the demon alone! I have been training for this day even before I could start walking!"

"You guys can go ahead and go back to the Qi Family, I am going to go help him!"

And without waiting for a response, Qi Fang began running back the way she came from.

"I will go after her." The Manager said to the old couple before chasing after Qi Fang.

"Shit!" Qi Man cursed out loud before turning to look at the guards that guarded the sealed demons before and continued, "Go back and warn the family! We cannot let a guest do our jobs for us!"

"Yes!"

"I will come with you." Qi Huan said to him, and they also started running back to the hill.

However, when they returned to the hill, they were shocked to see the destruction that had ravaged the place.

Most of the trees there were either destroyed or burned, and there were many holes and even ground fissures as far as their eyes could see.

"H-How the hell did they manage to cause such destruction in just a few minutes?!" Qi Fang cried out loud when she saw the scenery.

BOOM!

The earth shook with loud noises that sounded like thunder every few seconds, but it was not an earthquake, and the sky was as clear as it could be.

"They're over there!" Qi Man suddenly pointed to two figures fighting in the distance.

However, when they looked closely, they realized that it was not even a fight at all, but a one-sided beatdown.

"Heavens... He really didn't need our help..." Qi Huan mumbled in a dazed voice as she watched Yuan toss the demon around with his giant sword.

Yuan's attacks were so relentless and fierce that the demon could barely react to them, and when the demon would try to retaliate, he would seal the demon's body just enough so that it could not move without completely sealing it.

"This bastard... He's toying with the demon!" Qi Fang was in disbelief.

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 772 - How Will It Taste?

"What in god's name is going on? How is he doing that?" Qi Man mumbled in a voice of disbelief as he watched Yuan throw the demon left and right like some kind of stress toy.

"Do you think he still needs our help?" Qi Huan asked in a sarcastic tone.

Suddenly—

"AAAAAHHHHHHHHHHH!"

The demon released a deafening roar that shook the world.

"How dare a puny human play with me?! I will make you pay! I WILL MAKE YOU PAY!"

The demon's body began growing larger and larger until it was nearly twice its original size, becoming a mini giant.

Yuan had seen this kind of transformation before from the demon at the Jaded Garden, so he knew that he should stop playing around and actually take care of the demon once and for all before he makes a mistake and gets himself and everyone killed.

The demon released another loud roar before summoning two large greatswords with its own blood and wielding it.

It then leaped at Yuan with intense bloodlust radiating from its body.

However, before it could even begin falling back down, the demon felt something pierce its face.

It wasn't painful, but its vision blacked out for a second, and when its vision recovered after the gaping hole in its face was healed, the demon could see that Yuan had suddenly appeared in front of it.

"In the end, you weren't anything too special besides being a decent punching bag." Yuan said to the demon right before extending his empty hand towards the demon's chest and grabbing the red crystal embedded within, tearing it right out of its body.

The demon fell directly to the ground afterward, but it wasn't dead yet.

It slowly got back to its feet and looked at Yuan with a puzzled face.

"What the fuck are you doing? Did you really think that by removing my crystal that it'd kill me?" The demon asked Yuan.

"You can beat me up as much as you want, but you won't kill me, and you will eventually run out of spiritual energy. You can try to seal me, but that also will only prolong your life by a little longer. You don't have the capabilities to kill me—"

The demon suddenly halted its speech when it realized that its crystal was not returning to its body.

Normally, when their crystal is removed, it would return to their body just like the rest of their body, hence the demon's confusion at this moment.

"You said that you wouldn't die even if I destroyed this crystal, right? Let's test that theory." Yuan showed the demon his hand, where its crystal was resting.

The demon immediately began sweating profusely.

The reason the demon said that it wouldn't die even if Yuan destroyed the crystal was simply because it didn't think that Yuan had the capabilities to truly destroy the crystal since it would simply recover just like the rest of its body.

"T-That's not possible! Y-You! Who are you?!" The demon roared at Yuan.

"You don't recognize me? I thought all demons would recognize my face." Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"Why the fuck would I recognize a nobody like—" The demon suddenly halted mid-sentence again, and it narrowed its eyes to focus on Yuan's face.

Perhaps its memories haven't fully resurfaced after being sealed for so long, but as it stared at Yuan's face, the more it got the feeling that it'd seen him somewhere before.

After digging through its memories, the demon finally realized why Yuan looked so familiar.

"Y-Y-You... It can't be!" The demon began shaking from top to bottom, and its prideful face became filled with fear.

"Hmm... What did I use to say...?" Yuan suddenly began pondering for some reason.

"Oh, right."

When he remembered, he slowly approached the demon with a mysterious smile on his face.

This was the perfect chance for the demon to strike, but it was so stricken by fear that it couldn't even move properly.

Once Yuan was standing right in front of the demon, he mumbled in a low but clear voice, "I wonder how your demon core will taste?"

Almost as though something had triggered inside the demon, it suddenly turned around and began running away like its life depended on it.

The scene of the demon running away in fear shocked Qi Fang and the others. They couldn't comprehend the situation, nor could they imagine what Yuan said to the demon that would make it react in such a manner.

However, before the demon could run very far, Yuan crushed the red crystal in his grasp, and the moment the crystal shattered, the demon also froze its movements.

The next moment, almost like it'd suddenly turned water, the demon melted into a pool of red blood, leaving behind its demon core.

Yuan quickly went to pick up the demon core before putting it inside his pocket, saving it for later.

It was also at this moment that backup from the Qi Family arrived at the scene.

"Father! Mother! Qi'er! Are you guys hurt?! Where is the demon?!" The middle-aged man leading the reinforcements asked them.

Qi Man didn't say anything and merely lifted his hand to point at Yuan.

The middle-aged man turned to look in the direction, but he couldn't see any demons, only a young man.

"I am going to him!" Qi Fang suddenly said as she began running towards Yuan.

"W-Wait! Where do you think you're going?!" The middle-aged man shouted at her.

"The demon is already gone. That young man defeated it." Qi Huan said, which immediately sent shockwaves through their minds.

"What?! Who even is that kid?! I have never seen him before!" The middle-aged man exclaimed.

"A friend sent by the Lord of the Dragon Spiral Mountain." Qi Man said before following Qi Fang.

"Let's go." Qi Huan said to the middle-aged man, who was still puzzled about the situation and had no choice but to follow them.

A few moments later, everyone there gathered around Yuan and the puddle of blood.

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 773 - As Their Lecturer

"Yuan, is the demon really dead? It won't regenerate from this puddle of blood?" Qi Fang asked him once they got to him.

"I'm pretty sure that it's dead..." Yuan replied in a slightly dazed voice.

He didn't think he would be able to defeat such a powerful demon with seemingly no effort at all. Not only did his practice at the Demon Sealing Clan's Grand Library help him, but his memories as the Divine Paragon also greatly assisted him today.

'I still only have fragments of the Divine Paragon's memories. If I recover all of it, demons will no longer be a threat and will be no different than any other magical beasts...' Yuan smiled inwardly.

"Let's go back to the household now. You can tell us everything once you get yourself cleaned up." Qi Man said to Yuan.

He nodded and followed them back to the household.

Sometime later, after washing himself, Yuan met up with the Qi Family in the meeting room, and there were two more people there this time—the middle-aged man that came with the backup and a beautiful woman who looked almost like Qi Fang.

They were the current leaders of the Qi Family and Qi Fang's parents.

Once Yuan sat down, Qi Man immediately opened his mouth to speak, "After witnessing your fight today, I doubt you'll need our help with the demons at the Dragon Spiral Mountain, but since this is what we agreed on, we will help you."

Yuan then said, "You guys can prolong the seals on demons, right? I would like you to prolong the seals on the 11 demons to give us more time to prepare. The demon I fought today was much stronger than the one in the Jaded Garden, but the demons within the Dragon Spiral Mountain are even stronger than this one."

"I understand." Qi Man nodded.

The Qi Family has already been prolonging the seals on the 11 demons since ancient times, so even if Yuan didn't ask them, they would've done it anyway. Since they cannot kill the demons, their only option was to prolong their seals.

"If there's nothing else, I would like to return back home now." Yuan said a moment later.

"A-Actually, there is one thing..." Qi Man turned to look at the Manager, who nodded her head silently.

He then continued, "Yuan, I— the Qi Family has one last request for you. We'd like you to stay here a little longer as a lecturer."

"A what?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"A lecturer." Qi Man repeated.

"We'd like you to teach our demon sealers how to kill demons. As you probably already know by now, there are still more demons out there."

"Our Qi Family has tracked dozens of sealed demons across the world, but the only thing we can do is prolong their seal until their inevitable release. We want to be able to kill them just like you did today."

"W-Wait... Did you just say DOZENS of sealed demons?" Yuan had a look of disbelief on his face at this moment.

"Yes, and there could be even more that we don't know about, such as the one sealed in the Jaded Garden." Qi Man sighed.

"And you want me to teach the demon sealers in your family... I don't think I qualify..." Yuan shook his head.

"I-If you, who killed a demon, don't qualify to teach, then nobody in our family qualifies! Please! You're our only hope!"

"..."

Yuan took a moment to ponder.

After a few minutes of silence, Yuan asked him, "How long? I have to return home in three weeks."

"T-Then three— No! Two weeks is more than enough!" Qi Man raised three fingers before making it two.

Yuan nodded, "Okay, I will stay here for two more weeks to teach your Qi Family, but after that, I really have to return home."

"Thank you, Yuan!" Qi Man said with an ecstatic expression on his face.

"Then we will start tomorrow morning. I want to rest for the rest of today."

"Of course! Qi'er, bring him to his room!" Qi Man said to her.

"What? Why do I have to do that? We have servants for that..." Qi Fang frowned.

However, when she saw her grandparents and even parents' cold glares, she swallowed nervously and stood up.

"Let's go..." She said to Yuan without even looking at him.

"Did something happen between them?" Her mother asked the grandparents after they left.

"Not that I am aware of, but there's clearly something between them." Qi Man shook his head.

Meanwhile, Qi Fang brought Yuan to a small shed behind their main building, but it looked more like a place for tools than guests.

"This is my room?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"If you've got a problem with it, you can sleep outside." She coldly responded.

"Are you still mad at me for sealing you? I just wanted you to have a taste of your own medicine, that's all. Not to mention that you sealed me first."

"F-For a minute! You left me there for an entire day! Do you have any idea how terrifying it feels to be sealed for so long?! I really thought I was sealed for good!"

"In my defense, if the Chu Family didn't interrupt, I would've let you out sooner. Anyways, I helped your family defeat the demon, so let's call it even."

Qi Fang gritted her teeth in anger, but she did not release it.

After a moment of silence, she pointed at the large building not far away from the shed and said, "This doesn't mean I forgive you for what you did to me. If I let you live in this shed, my family would kill me, that's all."

She left Yuan alone immediately afterward.

Once Yuan entered the room and locked it, he sat down on the floor and retrieved the demon core.

After staring at it for a moment, he tossed it inside his mouth and swallowed it.

Immediately, he could feel a sudden surge of chaotic spiritual energy rushing into his body.

However, this demon core tasted and felt different than usual, and it was painful.

"AAAAHH!" Yuan suddenly released a loud roar that shook the building.

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 774 - Chaotic Energy

Shortly after consuming the demon core, Yuan began feeling pain all over his body, and his skin even began turning red, almost as though he was turning into a demon himself.

When Qi Fang, who was still in range, heard Yuan's screaming, she immediately turned around and ran to his building.

"Hey! What's going on?! Why are you screaming like that?! Open the door!" Qi Fang banged on the door as she shouted, but Yuan was obviously too busy to answer the door, and he was in too much pain to even hear her voice.

"Answer me when I speak to you!" Qi Fang did not have the patience and decided to kick the door down.

"Hey! What's wrong with you?! What did you do?!" Qi Fang was shocked to see Yuan writhing in pain on the floor, and his body was burning red.

Qi Fang went to pick him up, but she didn't know what to do from there, so she decided to put him back down and went to call for a doctor.

"W-Wait right here! I am going to get a doctor! Don't you dare die on me!" Qi Fang said to him before running for help.

Meanwhile, Yuan was busy trying to suppress whatever was acting up inside his body.

"You silly thing, how could you swallow a demon core belonging to an Elite Demon in your current state? You're like a child that puts anything you find into your mouth. You're courting death." The Divine Paragon's voice resounded inside Yuan's head.

"Elite Demon? What's the difference?!" Yuan cried inwardly.

"Just like how dragons have their own ranks that are based on the purity of their dragon blood, demons have their own ranks based on their demonic blood. All of the demons that you have been fighting before this one were just ordinary demons with ordinary demonic blood. This one, however, is an Elite Demon with purer demonic blood, and the purer the demonic blood, the stronger their chaotic energy."

"W-What happens if I consume something like that?!"

"If you were strong enough, nothing would happen, but you're not, so the chaotic energy is trying to destroy your body right now."

"Listen, if you don't quickly control the chaotic energy, your body will explode into a bloody mess."

"And how the hell am I supposed to do that?!" Yuan shouted out loud, feeling as though something was growing within his body.

"Haaa..." The Divine Paragon sighed.

"I will help you control the chaotic energy this time, but if this happens again, you will have to deal with it yourself."

After a moment of silence, Yuan suddenly stopped moving and returned to sitting in the lotus position.

He took a deep breath and began controlling the chaotic energy inside his body.

Very quickly, Yuan could feel his body returning to normal, and his spiritual energy was under control again. However, he could still feel something chaotic inside his body.

By the time Qi Fang returned with the doctor, Yuan had already controlled most of the chaotic energy, but it took him all of his energy to do so, causing him to pass out shortly after.

The doctor checked Yuan's condition afterward.

"How is he?" Qi Fang asked in a worried voice.

Despite her cold attitude towards Yuan, she actually cared about his safety, as he was their only hope in defeating demons for good.

"He seems fine for now, and his body is stable, but I will need to inspect his body further for a more accurate assessment." The doctor said.

"I understand."

Qi Fang went to notify her family and the Manager of the situation once she knew that Yuan was fine for the moment.

When her family heard this, they immediately panicked for the same reason Qi Fang had. If Yuan dies, their world and everyone living in it will all die to the demons.

"What happened? Why did he suddenly collapse?" Qi Man asked her.

"I have no idea. I sent him to his room, and after leaving him alone for a moment, I suddenly heard him screaming. When I arrived, he was on the ground and his skin was burning red. However, by the time I returned with a doctor, he was already back to normal."

"Looks like we can only ask him after he wakes up." Qi Huan sighed.

Sometime later, the Manager called Meixiu to let her know of the situation.

"What?! Yuan collapsed and is unconscious right now?! What happened to him?!"

"I was hoping you could tell me. Does he have any medical conditions that cause him to do this?" The Manager asked.

"No, not that I am aware of."

"So he's never done this before?"

"No."

"Can I go see him? I want to see his condition with my own eyes."

"I will have to ask the Qi Family for permission first. Give me a minute."
The Manager then asked the old couple since they were still together.

"Yuan's friend? Of course. Any friend of Yuan is also our friend." Qi Man quickly agreed.

"Alright, I will come pick you up. I should be there by midnight. Be ready by then." The Manager said to Meixiu before hanging up.

'What a pain in the ass...' The Manager sighed inwardly.

She didn't think she'd have to travel back and forth more than once, but alas.

While the Manager made her way back to the Dragon Spiral Mountain to pick up Meixiu, the Qi Family watched over Yuan, who would remain unconscious for the rest of the day.

After returning to the Dragon Spiral Mountain, the Manager reported the situation to the Lord before she went to pick up Meixiu.

"So that's what happened, huh... If you ask me, I think he tried to cultivate the demon core, since his symptoms sound exactly like what happens when someone tries to absorb a demon core like it's a monster core." The Lord said.

"If someone tries to cultivate a demon core, what will happen to them?" The Manager asked out of curiosity.

"Well, to put things simply— they will die a horrible death.. However, from what you told me, it appears that he's alive, so I doubt that's what happened."

Chapter 775 - Losing His Mind

"Anyways, as long as he didn't cultivate a demon core and he isn't dead, do whatever you can to keep him safe. Now that he's proven himself to be valuable, we cannot let him die. Use that treasure even if you have to." The Lord continued to speak.

"W-What?! You want to waste that precious treasure on him?!" The Manager was shocked.

"If it can keep him alive, yes. He's too precious for this world to die."

"B-B-But—"

"No buts! You may return to the Qi Family now."

"I understand..." The Manager sighed before going to Yuan's home to pick up Meixiu.

However, there was an additional person there.

"What's this? I only got permission for one person, not two." The Manager said as she glared at Chu Liuxiang, who decided to follow along after hearing about the situation.

"I am not going to stay here while Yuan is suffering! I am going to follow you even if it's the last thing I do!" Chu Liuxiang said stubbornly.

And she continued, "And my Master is from the Qi Family! They wouldn't refuse me!"

"Whatever. Just get in the car." The Manager said to them.

Once they were all in the car, the Manager began speeding down the mountain like she did with Yuan, but it wasn't as fast.

However, unlike Yuan, neither Chu Liuxiang or Meixiu said a word regarding her speed, and they would only ask her about Yuan's condition.

"Like I already said on the phone, I don't know what happened to him. If you want to know, you'll have to ask him after he wakes up."

Once they arrived at the airport, the Manager told the two of them to press the red button and watch the plane before going off to sleep, leaving them speechless.

Meanwhile, Qi Fang was ordered by her family to stay with Yuan until he wakes up.

"What?! Why do I have to babysit him all night?! I am not his nanny! Why are you guys treating me like this? Did I do something wrong?!"

"That's a great question. Did you do something wrong?" Qi Huan narrowed her eyes at Qi Fang.

Qi Man then said, "Although we don't know what happened between the two of you, whether you are in the right or wrong, you need to put all of that behind you. Yuan is a valuable friend that we cannot afford to offend. If you offended him in any way, apologize to him when he wakes up."

Qi Fang gritted her teeth, but she couldn't blame her grandparents for their decision, as she was mostly responsible for what happened on that day.

"I understand..." Qi Fang sighed.

"Good, then we'll leave Yuan in your hands." They left her alone with Yuan afterward.

Once her family left, Qi Fang went to one of the drawers and pulled out a tall bottle of alcohol and sat down at the table.

"How could they treat their most talented demon sealer like a babysitter? Damn it!" Qi Fang began chugging down the alcohol and complained after every swallow.

"Why am I being punished when they don't even know what happened?!"

"It's almost like they wanted someone to blame for his current situation!"

"I can't believe this!"

"Damn it all!"

While Qi Fang was chugging down her alcohol, Yuan was somewhere deep within his consciousness.

"Although I have managed to control and convert most of the chaotic energy inside your body, there is still some left, and while it won't kill you, you should still remove them as soon as possible, as it could not only affect your cultivation but also your mind." The Divine Paragon appeared inside Yuan's head to warn him.

"How do I do that?"

"Fortunately for you, who has the Heaven Refining Physique, you can just cultivate normally and push out the remaining chaotic energy with fresh spiritual energy. If it was anybody else, they would need a new technique and a lot of treasures." The Divine Paragon smiled.

"How long do I have before it starts affecting me?" Yuan then asked.

"This is your first time experiencing such a thing, so the backlash will be quick and fierce. You can expect a reaction as soon as you wake up."

"I-It's that bad?" Yuan swallowed nervously.

"What will happen to me?"

"Who knows. You'll probably lose your mind every once in a while, become quick to lose your tempers, and other nasty nature that demons have, almost like you'd turned into a demon yourself."

Yuan was terrified when he heard such words.

"I-I am going to turn into a demon?! Does this mean I will crave human meat or kill humans?! I hope to god that doesn't happen!"

"Although that's possible, it won't happen with the amount of chaotic energy inside your body. However, it would be a good idea to limit your contact with others for the time being."

"Okay... I will have to delay the lecturers until I fix this situation..." Yuan sighed.

While Yuan slept peacefully, Qi Fang approached him with a drunk look on her face, still with a bottle of alcohol in her hands.

"You stupid little brat— Hic! This is all your fault... Hic!"

Once she was standing right beside the bed, Qi Fang would stare at Yuan's sleeping face in silence.

"Now that I look at you closely... Hic! You're quite handsome..."

"What you did today was also very handsome and admirable... Hic!"

"When I watched you fight the demon, my heart was beating like crazy, almost like I was having a heart attack... I have never felt anything like that before..."

After a moment of silence, Qi Fang suddenly lowered her face towards Yuan's sleeping face, kissing him on the lips.

She removed her lips a moment later and muttered in a low voice, "How can you sleep so soundly with a beauty like me in the same room? Hic!"

"Hey... Wake up and fight me... I'm going to avenge myself... Hic!"

Qi Fang began to slap Yuan's face lightly for a response.

"..."

When Yuan didn't respond, Qi Fang turned around and began walking away.

"How boring... Hic!"

After walking two steps, Qi Fang suddenly stopped walking when she felt someone grab her hand.

She turned around to see Yuan sitting up on his bed, and his eyes were open, but he didn't seem conscious.

However, Qi Fang was too drunk to notice that and continued to probe him.

"Hehe, so you wanna fight—"

Yuan suddenly yanked Qi Fang onto the bed.

"Hey! What are you doing? That hurts!" Qi Fang complained as she laid on the bed with Yuan.

She also felt a little wet for some reason, so she looked down, and to her surprise, the bottle of alcohol in her hands had spilled all over her body.

"Look at what you've done... Hic! Now I have to clean myself..."

Qi Fang began loosening the wet areas on her clothes, and when Yuan saw that, almost as though something had ignited inside him, he suddenly pounced on top of her and ripped her loosened clothes right off her body.

"..."

Qi Fang stared at Yuan's face with a dazed expression.

"You... have very beautiful eyes..." She muttered in a low voice, not sounding a bit concerned about being naked nor the situation they were in, even placing her hands on his cheeks and caressing them.

When she noticed Yuan staring at her bare chest, Qi Fang smiled and said, "Go ahead, you can touch them. It's your reward for dealing with the demon."

Despite his weird state, it was almost as though Yuan had been waiting for Qi Fang's approval, so when he got her approval, he immediately buried his face into her chest like a child embracing their mother.

Chapter 776 - A Grave Mistake

"Yes... That's right... You can touch them all you want... Hic!"

"It's your reward for killing the demon... Hic!" Qi Fang spoke in a dazed voice as Yuan's face buried deeper and deeper into her bosoms.

This went on for a few moments until Yuan all of Yuan's movements suddenly halted.

"Hey... What's wrong? Hic!"

Yuan suddenly stood up and looked at Qi Fang with a tranquil expression on his face.

"You... should probably leave before we both make a grave mistake," he said in a calm voice.

"W-What?" Qi Fang's eyes widened with shock.

This shock snapped her out of her drunken state for a brief moment, but this brief moment of clarity was all that was needed for Qi Fang to realize what was happening and made a decision.

She quickly got out of the bed and put on her clothes before running out of his room with a flushed face.

Once she was gone, Yuan sat on the bed and smiled, "What a troublesome child. I hope this will teach you to not put everything in your mouth and that all actions will have consequences."

He closed his eyes and began to cultivate.

Meanwhile, inside his consciousness, Yuan sighed in relief.

"Thank you..." He bowed to the Divine Paragon, who'd just taken over his body.

"Why are you thanking me?"

"For taking over my body and stopping me, who cannot control myself right now."

The Divine Paragon started laughing.

He then said, "I told you, I cannot take over your body. I am merely a fragment of your memories. You acted on your own just now, just like when you fought and killed the demon. Perhaps your instincts kicked in or something."

"How is that even possible when I am not conscious?" Yuan frowned.

"Reincarnation is a wonderful thing, but it is also something that we do not fully comprehend, and you're no ordinary human."

"..."

After a moment of silence, Yuan spoke, "Since you're here, can you tell me about the Demonic Realm? You kind of left me hanging last time."

"I don't have the answers to your questions. If you want them, go to the Demonic Realm."

"That's clearly bullshit. Why else would you say that something bad will happen if I don't return?"

"Like I'd already said— it's probably your instincts that's telling you."

"Anyways, it's about time I go. I won't be able to save you a second time, so if you end up in that state again, you're going to have to take full responsibility."

"I know..." Yuan sighed.

"Do you really?" A mysterious smile appeared on the Divine Paragon's face as he disappeared.

The following morning, Qi Fang woke up in her bed to a head-splitting headache.

"Shit... I drank too much yesterday..."

She sat up with a painful expression on her face.

Once her head cleared a little bit, memories of what happened last night began flowing inside her head.

"S-Shit..."

"Fuck... Did I really do such a thing?! No way!"

Qi Fang quickly got dressed and rushed to Yuan's place.

"H-Hey! Wake up! Yuan! We need to talk!" Qi Fang banged on the door as she shouted in an urgent manner.

"Senior Qi, I am sorry, but can you leave me alone for a while? We can talk later... Once I fix myself..."

"L-Last night! Nothing happened last night, do you hear me?! I was not in the right state of mind! It was a mistake!"

"What mistake?" Qi Man's voice suddenly resounded behind Qi Fang, giving her the scare of her life.

"G-Grandfather! Nothing!" Qi Fang turned around with a nervous look on her face, but when she saw Chu Liuxiang behind him, she became even more nervous.

"L-Liuxiang?! W-What are you doing here?!" She stuttered nervously.

"I am here to see Yuan, of course," she said in a calm voice.

"Speaking of Yuan, why are you standing out here? I thought we told you to watch over him. How can you do that when you're out here and he's in there?" Qi Huan said to her.

"I-I left for just a minute, okay?! I made sure to watch him properly! I swear!"

"Whatever..." The grandparents were suspicious of her weird behavior, but they didn't think too much of it.

Meixiu went to the door and knocked on it, "Yuan? Are you awake?"

"M-Meixiu?! Is that you, Meixiu?! What are you doing here?!" Yuan's panicked voice resounded inside the building.

"I am also here as well!" Chu Liuxiang said loudly.

"L-Lulu as well...?"

"Can you open the door and let us in? We want to see if you're okay." Meixiu continued.

"..."

After a moment of silence, Yuan sighed, "Sorry, but I am a little sick right now. Can you all leave me alone for a few days?"

"You're sick? How so?"

"..."

Meixiu turned to look at Qi Man and the others and said to them, "Can you leave us alone for a moment?"

"Alright. If you need anything, let us know."

"Thank you." Meixiu nodded.

Once they left, Meixiu continued, "Yuan, it's just me and Chu Liuxiang now. You can tell us what happened."

Yuan sighed again before speaking, "I consumed a demon core, but this demon core was a little special, so I am now experiencing a little backlash. My mind is not in the right state right now, and I am afraid of hurting you and the others, so until I take care of this condition, I should not get close to anyone."

"I see... So that's what happened... Are you in pain right now?" Meixiu then asked.

"No, I am fine. I should be healthy again in a few days."

"I understand. If you need anything, we will be right out here."

"Thank you, Meixiu, and Lulu, for coming all the way out here."

"Anything for you, Yuan." Chu Liuxiang smiled.

"Anyways, what should we tell the others? I don't think we should let them know that he consumed a demon core..."

"Yes, you're right. Let's think of something.." Meixiu agreed with Chu Liuxiang, and the two of them began thinking of an excuse for Yuan's condition.

Chapter 777 - Destructive Urges

"Why don't we just tell them that it's a medical condition he has?" Chu Liuxiang asked.

"No, that won't work. I already told the Manager that there was no such thing."

"Oh! I know! We can tell them that it was caused by one of the techniques he's currently cultivating!"

Meixiu stared at her in silence for a few moments before nodding, "That will work."

"Okay, let's tell them that then."

Sometime later, the Qi Family returned.

"How is he doing?" Qi Man asked.

"He's doing fine. It's just the backlash of one of his techniques that he's currently trying to master, that's all. His episode should be cleared in a few days."

"It was caused by a technique? I have never heard of a technique that has made people sick before..." Qi Huan said in a worried tone.

"But as long as he's fine, I am relieved."

"If you need anything, just let us know. We've also prepared a room for you two." Qi Man said to them.

"It's alright, we will stay here with him." Chu Liuxiang said.

"Out here? In the cold? You know we cannot have our guests live in such conditions." They raised their eyebrows.

"Why don't the two of you take turns watching over him?"

The two of them exchanged looks with each other before nodding their heads.

"I can watch over him first." Chu Liuxiang said.

"We switch out every 8 hours?" Meixiu asked.

"Okay."

Meixiu then turned to look at Qi Man and asked him, "While she stays here, I would like to join your Qi Family's training sessions. You guys are taught to fight demons, right? I would like to learn."

A bittersweet smile appeared on Qi Man's face as he spoke, "If you want to learn, you already have the very best. I don't think we will be very helpful to you. In fact, I am now doubting if our training is even useful at all."

"Even then, I would still like to learn— at least until he recovers." Meixiu said.

"Alright. Training should be starting soon. Follow me."

Meixiu left the Qi Man and the others while Chu Liuxiang stayed behind.

"I will be right outside if you need me, Yuan."

She sat down in front of the door and began cultivating.

Meanwhile, Meixiu followed Qi Man to this area with a large building and a massive field in the front.

"There's a lot of people here..." She mumbled when she saw hundreds of people gathered outside the training field.

"My Qi Family has almost 2,000 people. Of course, they are not all family by blood. We take disciples from around the world and teach them how to seal demons. As for our fighting experience... We really have none."

"Have you ever fought a demon before?" Qi Man turned to ask Meixiu.

"No, I have not." She shook her head.

"I have seen dozens of demons throughout my life, but they were all already sealed, so I have never seen their prowess... at least until yesterday."

"When I first saw the demon unsealed for the first time, my entire body froze from shock, and my instinct was to run away as quickly as possible."

"Even though I didn't personally face the demon... Even though Yuan completely dominated the demon and made it look weak... I can tell that I am no match for the demon."

"And if someone like me is scared of demons, I cannot imagine how these young demon sealers will react before an unsealed demon— at least not with their current training."

"That's why I asked Yuan to be our lecturer. I'm certain that we can all learn something from him."

Sometime later, Qi Man brought Meixiu to the field.

When the instructors and the disciples saw Qi Man, they all stopped whatever they were doing and bowed to him.

"Greetings, Ancestor!"

"Listen up!" Qi Man spoke out loud.

"Due to some complications, our new instructor will not be here for a few more days. Therefore, you will train normally for now. My friend here will be joining your training today. Treat her well."

Everybody there turned to look at Meixiu. Many nervous gulps resounded from people that were taken aback by her beauty, and there were so many that it sounded really weird.

Meanwhile, inside his room, Yuan was trying to suppress his urges to destroy everything in the room.

If he so much as looks at anything, his destructive urges would flare up, so he locked his divine sense.

'Is this what causes demons' destructive nature? I only have some chaotic energy left in my body, yet the urges are still this strong. I cannot imagine what it must be like to be a demon that has to endure this for their entire life.'

If he had to endure this urge for the rest of his life, there was no doubt that he would eventually stop suppressing his urges and go wild.

When he realized this, Yuan stopped blaming demons as much, and he even pitied their tragic life.

However, there was another feeling in Yuan that was very worrisome for him, and that was the feeling from last night that hasn't been satisfied.

'Damn it, I am already trying my best to deal with my destructive urges. If I also have to control my sexual urges, I won't be able to cultivate at all!' He cried inwardly.

After pondering for a moment, Yuan cleared his throat and spoke out loud, "L-Lulu... Is Meixiu out there?"

"No, she went to train with the Qi Family. Do you need help?"

"Kind of... When will she come back?"

"Well, it's been two hours since she left, so she won't return for another six hours."

"Six hours..." Yuan's sighing voice could be heard from inside the building.

"If you need help, I can help you!"

"I-It's a little complicated. It's okay, I can just wait."

After a moment of silence, Chu Liuxiang's voice resounded, "Yuan... No matter how complicated it is, I want to help you! You have helped me so many times now, yet I have not been able to return the favor. Please, let me help you!"

The place turned dead silent after that.

Chu Liuxiang sighed in a dispirited manner, but just as she was able to give up, she heard the door behind her being unlocked.

"Come inside..." Yuan said to her.

"Coming!" Chu Liuxiang eagerly entered the building.

Chapter 778: Starved Beast

"Yuan? What are you doing, standing so far away?" Chu Liuxiang asked him after entering the building and noticing that he was standing all the way on the other side of the room.

"I wanted to make sure that I don't accidentally hurt you." Yuan sighed.

"Ever since I consumed the demon core, I have been getting these unhealthy thoughts and the urge to destroy everything around me, and I am having a hard time controlling these emotions. I am worried that I might hurt you if you get too close."

Hearing Yuan's words, Chu Liuxiang smiled. She closed the door behind her and started approaching him in a calm manner.

"As long as I can help you, I don't care even if you hurt me."

Once she was close enough, she opened her arms and embraced Yuan.

"See? Everything is fine. Now, tell me what you need help with."

However, before Yuan could even respond, Chu Liuxiang felt something hard poking her legs.

She looked down, and to her absolute shock, there was a massive bulge in his pants.

Chu Liuxiang's mind blanked out for a moment while she processed the situation.

"In order for me to release the chaotic energy in my body, I must cultivate, but I cannot cultivate properly when I have to control so many emotions and urges..." Yuan sighed.

Chu Liuxiang snapped out of her daze and looked at his handsome face.

"W-When you say you need help, do you mean... down there?" She asked him in a nervous voice.

"I tried doing it myself before, but that didn't work. If you don't want to help, I fully understand and won't blame you for not wanting to do something so... weird..."

After a moment of silence, Chu Liuxiang asked in a low voice, "Does Meixiu usually help you? You did ask for her just now..."

"T-That's..."

Yuan promised Meixiu that he would not tell anybody, but even an idiot could tell the truth after seeing his reaction.

A bittersweet smile appeared on Chu Liuxiang's face, and she said, "Believe it or not, I am not that surprised. It's a common thing amongst wealthy households such as the Yu Family. Meixiu, she was probably trained to do such things."

She took a deep breath and continued, "Since Meixiu is not here, I will help you out. Take off your pants and sit on the bed."

Yuan nodded, and while he took off his pants, Chu Liuxiang went to lock the doors.

When she turned around and saw Yuan sitting on the bed with his lower half completely naked, her entire body froze.

Even though this wasn't her first time seeing his lower half, and they have even taken baths together, the atmosphere was completely different, and Yuan's body didn't have this sort of reaction.

'Why are you getting nervous now, you idiot? You have been wanting to do this kind of stuff to him for a long time!' Chu Liuxiang cried inwardly to calm herself.

Sure enough, it worked perfectly, allowing her to move her body again.

She walked in front of Yuan and kneeled before him.

Once she prepared herself, she extended her fair hands and grabbed the stiff rod between Yuan's legs and began stroking it.

"Ah! It hurts!" Yuan suddenly exclaimed, sucking in a breath of cold air.

"S-Sorry!"

Chu Liuxiang was surprised by his painful sound and immediately removed her hands.

'Am I doing something wrong? But I am doing exactly what the magazines instruct!' She wondered inwardly.

She looked at him and asked, "How does Meixiu usually do this?"

"Uh... I don't know how to explain it..."

The room turned dead silent as Chu Liuxiang began pondering.

"Okay, I know what to do."

She started moving closer to Yuan, and once she was close enough, she opened her mouth and sucked on his thing.

Yuan suddenly felt an incredible feeling around his thing, but since he didn't dare to use his divine sense, he could only imagine what Chu Liuxiang was doing to him.

"How is this? Does this hurt?" Chu Liuxiang asked him a moment later.

"No... It feels good."

Chu Liuxiang didn't say anything longer and continued to relieve him of his stress.

A few minutes later, Yuan said, "I-I cannot hold it any longer!"

Chu Liuxiang suddenly felt something warm gush inside her mouth. She subconsciously removed her mouth, and Yuan's white stuff shot all over her clothes and face.

"Wow..." Chu Liuxiang mumbled in an amazed voice afterward.

"Let me go wash myself first... Is there a bathroom in here?"

Chu Liuxiang stood up and looked around for a bathroom.

However, Yuan didn't respond.

"Yuan?" She turned to look at him, who was sitting on the bed with a dazed face.

"Yuan? Are you okay?" She approached him.

"Ah!"

Yuan suddenly grabbed her, tossed her onto the bed, and pinned her down.

Although his actions surprised her, she wasn't too worried since she knew that he wouldn't harm her.

"Yuan? What's happening?" She asked him.

Yuan opened his mouth slightly and uttered in a low voice while gnashing his teeth, almost as though he was trying to resist something. "I... cannot... resist... anymore...!"

Chu Liuxiang stared at Yuan's painful face with a blank expression.

Yuan suddenly shouted, "Leave! Leave this place immediately before I hurt you!"

However, Chu Liuxiang didn't move, and she even caressed his cheeks with her hand.

"Yuan... How can I leave you alone when you're suffering? When I absorbed the Flood Dragon's scale, you stayed with me, even suffering with me. Therefore, I am going to do the same. Let me help you... Let me suffer with you."

Yuan's body trembled when he heard her words.

"It's okay. I will be fine. I promise. Let it out— let it all out."

"I'm sorry..." Yuan muttered in a low voice right before he stripped Chu Liuxiang naked.

And for the next few minutes, like a starved beast that hasn't eaten in days, he tasted every inch of Chu Liuxiang's luscious body, leaving his saliva all over her body.

Chapter 779: Bruises

"Mmm... Ahhh..."

Chu Liuxiang moaned softly as Yuan licked and kissed her body from the top to bottom.

When Yuan reached the area between her legs, he grabbed her legs and opened it wide before pushing his face towards her bottom lips.

"Mmm!"

Chu Liuxiang's eyes widened with shock and her body twitched. She wanted to moan louder, but she didn't dare to do so, fearing that someone might overhear them.

She suddenly felt something small invading her cave and wriggling around like a worm.

'So... fierce!' She cried inwardly.

Once Yuan was satisfied, he removed his wet mouth from Chu Liuxiang's body and aimed his sword at the slit between her legs.

"W-Wait a second, Yuan. Give me a moment to pre—"

However, before Chu Liuxiang could even finish her sentence, Yuan suddenly moved, shoving his rod into her body completely.

"Mmmmh?!"

Chu Liuxiang nearly screamed from the pain, and it felt like her lower body had been ripped apart and torn in half. The pain was so excruciating that it immediately made her eyes tear up and almost knocked her unconscious.

However, before she could even recover from her pain or adapt to it, Yuan started moving again, pounding his hips violently at her like a dog during mating season.

'It hurts! It really hurts!'

Tears flowed from Chu Liuxiang's eyes like a river, yet she remained still and allowed Yuan to ravage her body as he wished.

The pain was on par with the pain she felt when she absorbed the Flood Dragon's scale, but unlike then, this pain felt more realistic and a completely different kind of pain, not to mention how tightly Yuan was holding onto her arms and legs.

A large amount of blood flowed from Chu Liuxiang's body and tainted the clean bed sheets, but Yuan ignored all of that and continued to thrust his hips like a machine with only one purpose.

Chu Liuxiang could've never expected that her first time with Yuan would be so brutal and so rough. She thought it was going to be a great time—one that could be enjoyed by the two of them, but it was more of a torture than anything.

Many minutes into their action, Yuan suddenly extended his arm and wrapped his hands around Chu Liuxiang's neck and tightened it, choking her neck.

Despite this, Chu Liuxiang accepted everything Yuan threw at her. She endured the pain, she resisted the thought of running away, and she tried her best to not blame Yuan for his actions.

"Yuan..." Chu Liuxiang muttered in a low voice as Yuan continued to seal away her air.

Yuan's body jolted the moment he heard Chu Liuxiang calling his name, and he slowly released his grasp on her neck, which left behind a slight bruise.

"L-Lulu... What have I done...?" Yuan, who'd just regained control over his body, mumbled in disbelief.

He looked at her condition with his divine sense, and he could see bruise marks all over her body that had been caused by his rough handling, and the bed sheets were soaked in her blood.

However, despite the abuse she just experienced, Chu Liuxiang had a gentle smile on her face.

"Don't blame yourself, Yuan. You're not in the right state of mind, and I agreed to this."

"T-That doesn't make the situation any better, nor does it excuse my actions... I hurt you... even though I promised to protect you..."

"W-We need to stop here and get you a doctor—"

When Yuan tried to stand up, Chu Liuxiang suddenly grabbed his arm and pulled him back down.

"No! We cannot stop here! We need to finish this properly! I have always wanted to do this with you, too!"

"But your condition..."

"Don't underestimate me, Yuan. I got worse injuries when I trained with my Master, and it was much more painful when I absorbed the Flood Dragon's scale. I can handle this," she said with a resolute face.

And she continued, "Furthermore, you're back to normal now. Things will only get better from here."

"What if I lose my mind again?"

"Then I will wake you up again."

Chu Liuxiang grabbed his cheeks and pulled his face towards her own, kissing him on the lips.

"I love you, Yuan," she said to him afterward.

"Let's finish this so that you can get better."

Yuan nodded, and he inserted his rod into her body again.

Now that Yuan regained his senses, he no longer moved like a beast, allowing the both of them to enjoy the moment.

Eventually, Yuan reached his limits, and when that happened, he remembered Meixiu's words and pulled out of Chu Liuxiang before releasing his fluids all over her body.

Yuan proceeded to lay on the bed beside Chu Liuxiang, and the both of them rested for many minutes before they went to wash each other.

"Yuan, that was amazing. I never expected that embracing your loved ones could be so much fun and enjoyable— even if you were a little rough at the beginning." Chu Liuxiang suddenly said.

"Sorry..."

"Why are you apologizing? Some people like it rough, you know? It's like a hobby for them, and after experiencing it for myself, I can understand where they are coming from."

Yuan didn't know how to respond to such information, so he remained quiet.

"I am going to cultivate now and get rid of the chaotic energy within my body." Yuan said to Chu Liuxiang afterward.

"Good luck. If you ever need to 'relieve' yourself again, I will always be there for you."

"Thank you." Yuan nodded.

Chu Liuxiang left Yuan alone and proceeded to stare at the cloud in the sky with a dazed face until Meixiu returned.

"Is everything okay?" Meixiu asked Chu Liuxiang when she noticed the odd atmosphere around her, like something about her had changed.

"Never been better." Chu Liuxiang nodded with a smile.

"It's my turn to watch Yuan now."

"Okay."

Just as Chu Liuxiang began walking away, Meixiu suddenly spoke, "Wait."

"What's the matter?" Chu Liuxiang stopped and looked at her.

Meixiu raised her arm and pointed at her neck, "You're bruised... Something did happen, right? Are you okay?"

Chu Liuxiang subconsciously covered her neck. She had completely forgotten about it.

"Don't worry, it's really nothing serious."

"Yuan... Is he okay?"

"Yes, I promise.." Chu Liuxiang smiled at Meixiu before leaving the scene.

Chapter 780: Full Recovery

After Chu Liuxiang left, Meixiu turned to look at Yuan's building with a worried look on her face.

"Yuan... Are you there?"

"Yes."

"Are you okay?"

"..."

After a moment of silence, Yuan responded, "I lost control for a bit, but Lulu helped me, so I am fine now."

'Lost control? That explains the bruises on her neck... They probably fought.' Meixiu sighed inwardly, misunderstanding the situation entirely.

"Yuan, if you feel like losing control again, let me know and I will immediately get help." Meixiu said to him.

As much as she wanted to help him, she knew that she was no match for Yuan if they fought, so she could only rely on others for now.

'I am still too weak compared to them...' Meixiu bit her lips in frustration before sitting down and cultivating.

Eight hours passed in a flash while Meixiu focused on cultivation, and before she was aware, Chu Liuxiang was already back for her shift.

"I can continue. You should rest a little more." Meixiu said to her.

"Thank you for worrying about me, but I am really fine. Look, the bruises are already gone." Chu Liuxiang showed Meixiu her neck, and sure enough, all of her bruises were gone.

Meixiu silently stared at her for a moment before speaking, "If anything happens, you need to get help."

"I will." Chu Liuxiang nodded with a smile on her face.

Once Meixiu left, Chu Liuxiang sat before the building and said, "I am back, Yuan. If you need me, I will be out here."

There was no response from Yuan, but Chu Liuxiang didn't panic.

'He's probably focused on his recovery,' she thought to herself.

An hour into her shift, Chu Liuxiang noticed a figure in the distance, and they appeared to be watching her from the shadows.

It was already dark outside, so Chu Liuxiang couldn't see this figure's face.

"Who's there?" She called out to the figure.

A few seconds later, this figure stepped out of the shadows and into the light.

It was Qi Fang.

"Master? Do you need something?"

"How is he doing?"

"Yuan? He's recovering."

"Is that so." Qi Fang didn't say anything else and turned around and began walking away.

"Master! Wait a moment!" Chu Liuxiang stopped her.

"What?"

"A-Are you still angry at Yuan for what happened last time? If you are, please accept my apologies for him..."

"..."

Qi Fang spoke after a moment of silence, "I am more angry at myself than I am with him."

"Eh?" Chu Liuxiang's eyes widened.

"I thought I was strong. Strong enough to defeat him— strong enough to defeat a demon. Turns out that I've been wrong this entire time."

"You don't have to worry. What happened at the Chu Family is already behind me. I may be stupid and arrogant, but I am not foolish."

And without explaining any further, Qi Fang disappeared back into the shadows, leaving Chu Liuxiang speechless.

Two days later, Yuan opened his eyes and stood up to stretch.

"The urges are completely gone now, which means I have fully recovered. What a horrible experience. I swear I will never carelessly swallow demon cores ever again."

He opened the door and walked outside to see Chu Liuxiang sitting in front of him.

And when Chu Liuxiang heard the door open behind her, she stopped cultivating and turned around.

"Yuan! Have you finally recovered?" She quickly stood up and asked him.

"Yes, and it's all thanks to you."

Yuan suddenly opened his arms and embraced Chu Liuxiang tightly.

"Lulu... I am truly sorry about what happened last time. I asked you for your help, but that caused you a lot of pain. Even if I wasn't in the right state of mind, I am still responsible for my actions. I hope that you'll forgive me."

"I will forgive you... If you do it properly next time." Chu Liuxiang hugged him back and said.

"Let's wait until we go back home?"

"I think I prefer that as well." Chu Liuxiang chuckled.

"Let's go tell the others that you're fine." She then said.

"Okay."

Yuan and Chu Liuxiang went to meet up with Meixiu.

"Meixiu, are you awake?"

"Yuan!" Meixiu stopped cultivating when she heard Yuan's voice outside her room.

"Are you okay?" She asked him after opening the door.

"Yes, I have fully recovered. Thank you for watching over me."

"Where is the Qi Family? I'd like to speak with them."

"Senior Qi should be at the training area with the disciples. We can ask her." Meixiu said.

"Where is this place?"

"Follow me. I have been there before."

They made their way to the training area next, and sure enough, Qi Fang was training the disciple with an iron fist.

"Your demon sealing aura is too weak! Are you trying to seal the demon or unseal it?!"

"Senior Qi, I think they are looking for you." One of the disciples noticed Yuan's group and notified her.

When Qi Fang saw Yuan's face, she immediately recalled the incident they had not long ago and started blushing.

Sometime later, she approached them and asked, "Need something?"

Yuan smiled and said, "I have fully recovered, and I am prepared to train the Qi Family."

Qi Fang narrowed her eyes at him, "Are you sure?"

"I am." He nodded.

"Wait right here. I am going to notify my grandparents." Qi Fang then walked away for a few minutes before returning.

"They will be here shortly."

"While we wait... I need to speak with you... In private." Qi Fang looked at Yuan.

Qi Fang then dragged Yuan to a secluded area where they were alone.

Once Qi Fang was certain that nobody was around, she pointed at Yuan and spoke in a low but aggressive voice, "What happened that night never happened, okay?! I was drunk, and you were sick! Forget about it! If you dare tell anyone about it, I will kill you even if it's the last thing I do, and then I will kill myself! Do you hear me?!"

Yuan smiled and said, "What happened that night? I don't remember very clearly since I was sick."

"That's a good response. Now keep it that way— forever.." Qi Fang coldly snorted before walking away like nothing ever happened.

Chapter 781: Lecturing The Qi Family

By the time Yuan returns to the others after his brief conversation with Qi Fang, Qi Man and the others have already arrived.

"Yuan! Are you sure you want to start the training already? You can rest a few more days if you want." Qi Man said to him.

"I am certain." Yuan nodded with a confident smile.

"Okay. Follow me, I will introduce you to the family." Qi Man said.

Qi Man brought Yuan before the disciples.

He cleared his throat and spoke, "Listen up! This person right here is Senior Yuan, and he will be your instructor for the next few days!"

The disciples immediately began mumbling to each other.

"He's our instructor? He looks even younger than me!"

"I don't believe it... This must be a prank."

"Shut up!" Qi Man suddenly shouted, instantly silencing the murmurs.

"He may be younger than most of you, but I can guarantee his skills and knowledge. As you already know, the demon on this island had escaped from its seal a few days ago. It was Senior Yuan who subjugated and killed the demon, saving us from a slaughter. If you dare disrespect him, you will answer to me!"

"In fact, all of the elders in the family will also participate in the lectures, as I firmly believe that we all have a lot to learn from him."

The disciples were shocked to learn that Yuan was the one who killed the demon, and they all wondered where he came from.

However, a few disciples there recognized his name.

"Wait... Yuan... He can't be Player Yuan, right? The mysterious player who seems to always be a thousand light years ahead of everyone?"

"Fuck... Now that you mention it, it would make perfect sense if it's Player Yuan. He always seems to achieve the impossible."

"So that's what Player Yuan looks like behind his mask, huh? Why does he have his eyes closed?"

"Who knows."

Yuan suddenly stepped forward and said, "Hello, everyone. I'm Yuan, and I will be teaching you all I know about demons. Before I teach you about how to fight demons, you should all know about demons' strengths and weaknesses."

He looked around before turning to look at Qi Man and asking him, "Is there a more suitable place for lectures?"

"Of course. We have a lecture hall not far from here. We can go there."

"Great."

Yuan and everyone there proceeded to follow Qi Man to the lecturer hall.

Once everyone was seated, Yuan began speaking, "Before I talk about demons' weakness, I want to talk about what makes them so strong and unkillable."

"First of all, demons have an incredible level of pain endurance. You can tear their limbs and smash their heads into meat paste, but they will not feel a thing."

"Second, they all have powerful innate strength. If you try to fight them head-on, you will most likely lose."

"Demons are naturally stronger than humans, meaning if there is a demon and a cultivator with the same cultivation, the demon will always beat the human."

"Last but not least, demons have super regeneration, which allows them to recover from any damage as long as there is a tiny piece of their body left. You can decapitate them or grind them into a million pieces, they will still recover as though nothing had happened. This is demons' strongest ability and what makes them relentless and unkillable."

The disciples immediately began mumbling to each other.

"Fuck... I thought their regenerating abilities were exaggerated! To think it was true!"

The disciples despaired upon learning this information.

They learned about demons' regenerative abilities through ancient texts from their ancestors, but since they have never fought a demon before, they could never confirm the information.

"If we cannot kill them, then how did you kill the demon?" Someone there stood up and asked Yuan.

Yuan turned to look at the young man who just spoke and said, "They may be unkillable, but that is only for your average cultivator. We, demon sealers, have what it takes to kill demons as long as you know the right techniques."

"Now let me tell you about their weaknesses and how you can kill demons."

"There are two ways that I know of."

"One, you must destroy the demon faster than it can regenerate, meaning you can kill a demon as long as you can erase a demon completely before they can regenerate, but that will require a massive amount of spiritual energy and a technique that is powerful enough to do such a thing."

"As for the second method, you must destroy their core. All demons have a core in their body— it's the red crystal that can usually be found on their chest. If you can destroy their core, the demon will lose their regenerative ability and die, which is what I did to the demon."

"However, in order to do that, you must have the right technique and demon sealing aura strong enough to prevent the crystal from returning to the demon."

"I will now answer any questions that you may have."

Dozens of hands immediately raised into the air.

"How many demons have you fought— killed?!" A young lady asked him with her eyes flickering with admiration.

"A couple."

"Are you really Player Yuan?! The number one player in Cultivation Online?!"

"Yes, I am."

"D-Do you have a girlfriend?!"

"..."

"Let's try to stay on topic..." Yuan said with a bittersweet smile on his face.

Qi Fang suddenly stood up and asked, "The two methods to kill a demon— they all require a specific technique, but we don't have such techniques. Are you telling us that we will never be able to kill demons?"

Yuan smiled upon hearing her question, and he responded in a clear voice, "That's not true. You may not have such techniques, but I do. If you want, I can teach you these techniques."

"What? Are you serious?" Qi Fang's eyes widened with shock.

Qi Man and the other elders were also pleasantly surprised to hear Yuan's words.

Chapter 782: Lecturing The Qi Family(2)

"Y-You're willing to share with us your demon sealing techniques? What do you want in return? I doubt you'll be willing to give them for free." Qi Fang narrowed her eyes at Yuan.

The situation sounded too good to be true.

"I don't need or want anything from you. I believe that the more capable demon sealers there are in this world, the safer it is from demons. It makes no sense for me to keep demon sealing techniques to myself when the world is in danger, as that would be akin to asking you to dig a hole with your bare hands while I keep all of the tools necessary to dig the hole to myself."

"However, these techniques require a certain amount of demon sealing aura to use. If your demon sealing aura is too weak, you will not be able to learn it."

Qi Man suddenly stood up and spoke in a loud and excited voice, "As you all have just heard, Senior Yuan has agreed to teach us his valuable demon sealing techniques! However, if you want to learn them, you must qualify first! If you wish to learn from him, you must speak to an elder first so that you don't waste Senior Yuan's time!"

"Thank you, Senior Yuan!"

The disciples all expressed their gratitude to him.

Yuan nodded, and he continued to lecture the Qi Family about demons for an hour before they all returned to the training area.

"Now that you all know about demons, you should learn to fight them. Starting today, I will be acting as a demon, and your goal is to 'seal' me."

"Seal you? How do we do that?" One of the disciples asked.

"Just treat me like a demon and try your best to seal me."

"Are you sure? That sounds a little dangerous."

Yuan smiled and said, "Yes, it's going to be a little risky, but not for me."

He pointed at them and said, "If anyone here can defeat me, I will teach you a demon sealing technique of your choosing. I happen to know a couple of Divine-rank demon sealing techniques, after all."

When the disciples heard Yuan's words, they immediately felt a rush of excitement and passion in their body.

"Who wants to try first?" Yuan asked them a moment later.

And before anybody could even move, a figure landed before him.

"I will go first." Qi Fang said with a serious look on her face.

She had multiple reasons to fight Yuan, but she never had the right excuse until now.

"Sure." Yuan nodded with a smile.

Qi Fang retrieved a sword.

"Where's your sword. Take it out."

"It won't be fair if I use it." Yuan said.

"How arrogant!"

Qi Fang didn't say anything else and kicked her feet.

However, a burst of intense killing intent suddenly exploded from Yuan, halting Qi Fang instantly.

"Demons will have much more killing intent than I am releasing now! You must overcome your fear, or you will never defeat the demon!" Yuan said to her in a loud voice so that everyone else could hear him.

Qi Fang's body trembled in fear, but she gritted her teeth and forced her own body to move.

"Haaaa!"

She swung her sword at Yuan with all of her might, but Yuan dodged it effortlessly.

"I can tell that you're still scared! Get rid of your fear if you want to win!"

"Shut up! That's easier said than done!" Qi Fang continued to swing her sword at Yuan, but with her body still trembling, she could barely control her movements.

"If I was a real demon, you'd been dead a dozen times by now." Yuan suddenly appeared behind Qi Fang, kicking her on the side and sending her flying.

He turned to look at the dazed spectators and shouted, "If you do not overcome your fear, you will never defeat the demon! There is nothing to fear as long as you have your demon sealing technique! Demons should fear you, not the other way!"

"Who wants to try next?!"

After a moment of silence, over a dozen disciples raised their hands.

Seeing this, Yuan pointed at 5 different people and said, "You can all come at me together."

The five disciples exchanged looks with each other before nodding their heads.

Once they were prepared, they surrounded Yuan and attacked him at once.

However, Yuan released his killing intent again.

The disciples suddenly felt as though the grim reaper had appeared to take their lives, and their legs began shivering nonstop.

While the disciples were dazed, Yuan used this chance to attack them, quickly defeating all five disciples.

"Give me ten disciples next!" Yuan turned to look at the spectators.

And for the rest of the day, Yuan would fight every disciple in the Qi Family without a single loss, even increasing the number of people he fought at once after every victory.

"Fuck! He's too powerful!"

"So this is what it feels like to fight Player Yuan, huh? As expected, he's on a whole other level."

Sometime later, Yuan gathered everybody and said to them, "Although nobody has managed to resist my killing intent today, I have confidence in you all. Therefore, we will spend all day tomorrow increasing your endurance to my killing intent."

Once the disciples were dismissed, Qi Man and the other elders approached Yuan.

"Yuan, do you think we have enough demon sealing aura to learn the techniques?" Qi Huan asked him.

"I don't know. Do you guys have anything that measures one's demon sealing aura?" He asked them.

Qi Man then said, "We do. It's also what we use to determine if someone has the capabilities to become a demon sealer. Follow us."

They brought Yuan to an open area where a stone tablet surrounded by seven stone totems existed.

"If we pour our demon sealing aura in the stone tablet, it will tell us the strength of our aura, but we're not exactly sure how it scales." Qi Man said to him.

"We'll find out in a bit, I guess.." Yuan said.

Chapter 783: Testing Their Demon Sealing Aura

"I will go first." Qi Man said as he approached the stone tablet.

He placed his hands onto the tablet and poured his demon sealing aura into it.

One of the seven stone totems began emitting a dim light, then two totems, then three, stopping at four totems.

"Four totems... I think it should be good enough. I will transfer the technique to you. See if you can comprehend it." Yuan said to him afterward.

"How will you...?" Qi Man raised his eyebrows.

Yuan approached Qi Man and lifted his hand before poking Qi Man's forehead with his finger that had a subtle light emitting from the tip.

The next moment, Qi Man could feel something being forced into his head, and the demon sealing technique appeared inside his mind like some sort of magic trick.

"Heavens! You can even do something like this?" Qi Man was shocked and speechless.

"I only learned this technique very recently, but it allows me to transfer any technique I know to others. It's very convenient."

Qi Man wasted no time and took a seat not far away before he started trying to comprehend the demon sealing technique.

"Who's next?"

"I will go next!" Qi Huan stepped forward and placed her hands onto the stone tablet.

A few moments later, three stone totems emitted light.

Yuan transferred the demon sealing technique that will allow them to destroy a demon's core to Qi Huan afterward.

Up next was Qi Fang's father, followed by her mother.

Her father managed to light up four totems while her mother only managed to light up three totems, just like Qi Man and Qi Huan.

The other elders went next, but most of them only managed to light up two totems with a few lighting three.

Once all of the elders were finished, Qi Fang went to check her results, but she already knew the results before even putting her hands on the stone tablet since it was mandatory to check their demon sealing aura once a year, and she'd checked her demon sealing aura two months ago.

One totem... two totems... three totems...

In the end, Qi Fang managed to light up five totems, which is the highest out of the entire Qi Family.

"As expected of our family's number one genius..." The other elders were not surprised by the results.

After getting her demon sealing aura tested, Qi Fang approached Yuan and waited for him to transfer the techniques to her.

"Senior Qi, what weapon do you mainly use? The sword?"

"Yes." Qi Fang nodded, silently wondering to herself why he was asking this question.

"Then I will give you a demon sealing technique for the sword as well as the technique that will allow you to destroy their cores."

"Really?" Qi Fang's eyes began flickering with excitement.

"Why would I lie to you?" Yuan smiled as he transferred the Demon Sealing Strike and the other technique that he gave everyone else to Qi Fang.

"This is... What a profound technique..." Qi Fang mumbled in awe as she closed her eyes to look at the information flowing inside her head.

"What about you two? Do you want to test your demon sealing aura?" Yuan asked Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang.

"Sure." They nodded.

Chu Liuxiang went first, followed by Meixiu.

However, to their surprise, they were only able to light up a single totem.

"Does this mean we're not suitable to become demon sealers?" Chu Liuxiang asked him in a worried tone.

"No, your results are normal for people that have never trained their demon sealing aura before." Qi Man said to them.

"As long as you continue strengthening your demon sealing aura, you will be able to light up more totems. In fact, most of us started out with only one totem as well."

Chu Liuxiang and Meixiu felt more reassured after hearing Qi Man's explanation.

"How does one even train their demon sealing aura?" Chu Liuxiang then asked.

"We're not entirely sure either, but we found that the more we comprehend demon sealing techniques, the stronger our demon sealing aura becomes."

Qi Man responded.

"Does this mean one should study as many demon sealing techniques as they can even if they cannot use some of them?"

"Yes." Qi Man nodded.

"Anyways, this technique is very profound. It will take us a few weeks if not months before we get any results."

"However, I think we can teach everyone that has at least level 2 demon sealing aura the technique, but it's all up to you, Yuan." Qi Man looked at him.

"Level 2 demon sealing aura? So only those who can emit light from two totems should learn the technique?" Yuan asked for confirmation.

"Yes." Qi Man nodded.

"Sure, I don't mind."

"Thank you. This debt we owe you is so huge that I don't even know where to begin, much less how to repay you. Please give us some time to think of a proper response." Qi Man lowered his head and said.

Yuan pondered for a moment before speaking, "I don't really need any payments, but I would appreciate it if you can let me look at the Qi Family's demon sealing techniques."

"Of course! We don't have much, and they are worthless compared to your demon sealing techniques, but since you asked, you may look at them as you please. Just let me know when you want to look at them."

"I will look at them before I return home." Yuan said.

Sometime later, Qi Fang stopped trying to learn the technique and said to Yuan, "Hey, why don't you take the test as well? I want to see how strong your demon sealing aura is."

When the others heard Qi Fang's suggestion, they also stopped cultivating and stared at Yuan. It was clear as day that Qi Fang isn't the only one curious.

"Sure." Yuan simply couldn't refuse after seeing their anticipating gazes.

He approached the stone tablet and placed his hands on it.

After taking a slow and deep breath, Yuan released his demon sealing aura.

The second the stone tablet sensed his demon sealing aura, it immediately responded by trembling violently.

Chapter 784: Killing Intent

When Yuan felt the stone tablet shake, he subconsciously removed his hand from it, fearing that he might destroy it.

However, it was too late, as he'd already injected his demon sealing aura into the stone tablet.

The stone tablet began trembling until cracks appeared on it.

When Qi Fang and the others saw this, they were terrified out of their minds. If the stone tablet really breaks, they would have no way to fix it!

Suddenly, all seven totems shone brightly, basking the whole area with a golden light.

Boom!

One of the seven totems—the very last one—exploded into countless pieces.

When that happened, the other six totems lost their light, and the stone tablet stopped working.

"W-What the hell did you do...?" Qi Fang approached the totems in a dazed manner, and she inspected the conditions of the remaining six totems.

Although they were not completely destroyed, they were on the verge of destruction, and they were all covered in cracks.

"S-Sorry! I think my demon sealing aura was too strong!" Yuan quickly apologized.

"You think an apology will fix this? If this stone tablet stops working, we will no longer be able to evaluate the strength of our demon sealing aura!" Qi Fang said with a frown.

"I only did as you told me." Yuan shrugged.

"Calm down." Qi Man suddenly said.

"Even if the stone tablet is broken, not all hope is lost. The other two families also have one."

"Other two families?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"There are three ancient families in this world that seal demons, and the Qi Family is only one of them. The other two would be the Luan Family and the Sang Family. We don't normally speak with each other, but if we really need to, we can ask to use their stone tablet."

"Don't worry about this, Yuan. We will deal with the stone tablet. You can focus on your lectures."

"I understand. Once again, sorry about the whole situation."

While Yuan returned to his living quarters, the Qi Family examined the damages done to the stone tablet much deeper.

"I have never seen anything like this before. Just how powerful is his demon sealing aura to wreck the place like this?"

"He's strong enough to kill a demon, so I'm not really that surprised..."

Sometime later, the people that inspected the stone tablet reported the results to the elders.

"Despite its rough state and appearance, the stone tablet is still working properly— except the seventh totem, which is no longer functional."

Qi Huan released a long sigh after hearing the results, "Looks like we won't have to beg the other two families for their help."

"Indeed." Qi Man sighed.

Meanwhile...

"Okay, I am going to transfer to you the demon sealing techniques now."
Yuan said to Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang.

He started with Meixiu.

After touching her forehead with his finger, Yuan transferred two different techniques to her, both demon sealing techniques that required the bow.

"A Heaven-rank and Divine-rank technique..." Meixiu mumbled in a low voice.

"Thank you, Yuan."

Yuan turned to look at Chu Liuxiang next.

"I have three demon sealing techniques for you, and they don't require the usage of any weapons." Yuan said to her before transferring the techniques to her.

"Thank you!" She said to him afterward.

"Good luck learning the techniques."

The following morning, Yuan went to the training area.

"Yuan, I also want to participate in the training today." Meixiu suddenly said to him.

"Sure."

"I also want to join!" Chu Liuxiang said.

And she continued, "Make sure that you don't go easy on us."

"I won't." He smiled.

Sometime later, they arrived at the training area.

While they waited for everyone to arrive, Qi Man approached Yuan and told him about the stone tablets.

"So they still work? Thank god." Yuan sighed in relief.

"Only six of the seven totems work, but I doubt any of us will reach that level."

"Nothing is impossible." Yuan smiled.

Once everyone from the Qi Family gathered at the training area, Yuan had them surrounded him in a circle.

The strongest cultivators there like Qi Fang and Chu Liuxiang sat closest to Yuan while the weaker cultivators sat further away.

"I will now release my killing intent. It will feel uncomfortable. Some of you might even feel pain, but do your best to endure it. This will not only help you fight against demons, it can also help you when you face other cultivators." Yuan said to them before taking a seat on the floor.

"Any questions before we start?"

One of the disciples raised her hands and asked, "Senior Yuan, how long do we have to endure your killing intent?"

"As long as you can. I will be doing this all day. If you must retire, leave. But if you want to come back afterward, you can do so."

Once there were no more questions, Yuan took a deep breath and turned dead silent.

After a moment of silence, an overwhelming amount of killing intent suddenly burst from Yuan's body like a volcano, shocking everybody there.

"Aaaah!"

Many disciples screamed in terror the moment they felt his killing intent, and some of them even fell unconscious.

Despite the chaos, Yuan continued to release his killing intent, filling the entire training area with it.

"T-This guy..." Qi Fang couldn't stop her body shaking from fear, and her body quickly became soaked in sweat.

Even the elders like Qi Man and Qi Huan couldn't sit still.

Eventually, Yuan had to lower the amount of killing intent he was releasing, as too many disciples were falling out too quickly, which would make his training less effective.

As for his killing intent, most of them were from his memories as the Evil God.

Killing intent can only be formed through one's experience as a killer, and with his memories as the Evil God, someone who has killed countless people, even a tiny amount of his killing intent was enough to render everyone in the Qi Family useless.

Chapter 785: Hovering In The Air

It did not matter if it was Meixiu, Chu Liuxiang, Qi Fang, or even the elders — none of them were able to endure Yuan's killing intent for more than 10 minutes continuously, or they would risk pissing their pants from fear.

The weaker disciples were even worse, giving up every two to three minutes before returning after a 15 minute break.

"How does he emit such strong killing intent? Do you think he's killed a lot of people before? After all, you can only acquire killing intent from killing things." The disciples mumbled to each other while they took a break.

"Honestly, I wouldn't be too surprised if that was the case. He's so damn powerful, who can stop him?"

"He can probably kill everyone on this island and get away with it..."

"I don't think he's a killer. He just doesn't give me that feeling. As for his killing intent, it could be acquired from Cultivation Online for all we know."

"If you have the time to talk, you have time to go back to training!"

"Y-Yes, Elder!"

And for pretty much the entire day, Yuan would remain seated at the center of these disciples, keeping his killing intent going.

Every hour, he would increase the killing intent slightly, so the disciples would never feel 'comfortable' with his killing intent, allowing them to improve at a steady and quick rate.

"I know I told you not to go easy on us, but heavens... I've never had such intensive training before..." Chu Liuxiang sighed out loud after the training ended, feeling sticky all over her body because of her sweat.

"Are you okay, Meixiu?" Yuan noticed that she was a little pale after the training.

"Yes, I am fine." She nodded in a dazed manner.

Yuan frowned and said, "You shouldn't push yourself so hard. You could hurt yourself."

"Don't worry, I will be fine after some rest." She smiled.

Even if Meixiu is a lot stronger than most people due to the treasure she consumed, not to mention her cultivation technique that trains the soul, she is still only a Spirit Warrior.

Yuan could tell that Meixiu was pushing herself to get stronger, most likely because she felt that she was too behind when compared to Chu Liuxiang and the others, but he wasn't sure how to convince her to slow down.

Sometime later, everyone returned to their room to rest.

They were so exhausted that most of them were knocked out before they could even change out of their clothes.

In fact, the entire island appeared to be deserted for the rest of the day, and the only ones walking around were the servants that did not participate in Yuan's training.

As for Yuan, even though it was also exhausting for him to keep releasing his killing intent, he would fully recover within an hour.

Once he fully recovered his energy, Yuan sat on his bed and began trying to use Qi Manifestation.

After consuming the demon core, his cultivation had a huge breakthrough, surpassing Spirit Master and soaring all the way to the 5th level of Spirit

Grandmaster.

Now that he was a Spirit Grandmaster, he wondered if he could learn Qi Manifestation and start flying in the sky like he does in Cultivation Online.

However, just like everything else, it was much more difficult to learn techniques in the real world than in Cultivation Online.

'I can release my spiritual energy outside my body, but I am having a hard time controlling it. This doesn't make any sense. How come I can learn everything with ease in Cultivation Online, yet everything feels more difficult in this world?'

'Does Cultivation Online somehow increase our comprehension level? It would make sense why things feel easier over there.'

After practicing his Qi Manifestation for pretty much the entire night, Yuan finally gained the ability to control his Qi Manifestation.

However, he does not seem to be able to fly just yet.

'I may not be able to fly without support, but what if I use a flying sword?'

Yuan summoned his Empyrean Overlord and proceeded to make it hover using Qi Manifestation.

Once he was comfortable with controlling the sword, he jumped onto the sword.

"Hahaha! It's working! I am hovering in the air!" Yuan laughed out loud as he hovered in the middle of the room while standing on his sword.

He immediately began working on his balance in the air, and once he was comfortable with that, he started controlling the sword to make it fly around the room.

This training made Yuan recall when he first learned how to balance on a flying sword after being taught by Xiao Hua.

After recalling Xiao Hua, Yuan suddenly had a realization.

'Wait a minute... If I can summon my Soul Weapons in this world, perhaps I can somehow summon Xiao Hua and the others into this world as well?'

The thought of summoning Xiao Hua and the others to this world was so outrageous that it never even appeared inside Yuan's mind, but now that he thought about it, he really wanted to see it happen.

Yuan quickly stopped his training and took a deep breath.

Once he cleared his mind, he tried to call for Xiao Hua and the others like he normally would in Cultivation Online.

'Xiao Hua? Can you hear me? Feng Feng? Yingying? If you can hear me, come out.'

Yuan tried calling them for five minutes straight, but he did not get any response from them.

"Fortunately, I kept my expectations down... But this begs the question—How come I can summon my Soul Weapons but not my servants? Is it because they are tools and not living beings? Or maybe Xiao Hua and the others are too far away to hear my summoning?"

He began pondering for a solution, but in the end, he returned to practicing flying around on his flying sword.

'Guess I will have to ask them about it when I return home.'

Chapter 786: Exhaustion

The following morning, Yuan went to meet up with Chu Liuxiang and Meixiu before going to the training area.

"How do you feel?" Yuan asked Meixiu as they walked to the training area.

"Much better." She nodded with a confident smile.

However, she still looked as pale as yesterday, which made Yuan worry a little.

"Are you sure? You should probably stay back and rest today." Chu Liuxiang said to her.

"Really, I am fine. I have experienced much worse before." Meixiu said.

"If you say so."

Once they reached the training area, Yuan would take a seat in the middle of the place and said to those that were already there, "I will begin now. Those that are not here right now can join later."

He waited until everyone there was sitting around him before he started to release his killing intent.

This time, he started out with weak killing intent and gradually increased it.

Even though the disciples had spent all day enduring the same killing intent yesterday, they did not feel any better today when being pressured by the killing intent.

In fact, it felt even worse for them, who were exhausted yesterday and haven't fully recovered.

Regardless, almost everyone that was there yesterday was also there today with a few exceptions, such as those that got sick or were too traumatized by yesterday.

However, about an hour into their training, Yuan suddenly stopped his killing intent and stood up in a panicked manner.

"Meixiu!"

He jumped over the crowd of disciples and landed in front of Meixiu, who'd just collapsed onto the ground.

His reaction was instantaneous, as he'd been keeping his divine sense on her the entire time.

"Haaa... haaa..."

Yuan could hear Meixiu breathing heavily, almost as though she was having trouble breathing.

"Is there a doctor here?!" He shouted out loud.

"Here!"

Because of their dangerous training method, the Qi Family made sure there were plenty of doctors on standby just in case anything were to happen.

Over a dozen doctors quickly surrounded Yuan and checked Meixiu's condition.

"She collapsed from exhaustion, and she has a fever. It's nothing life-threatening." The doctors explained to Yuan after their assessment.

"I see... Thank you."

Yuan picked up Meixiu before speaking out loud, "Sorry, but I am going to have to end today's training earlier than usual."

"Don't worry about it. If you need anything, let us know. There will be a doctor available for you around the clock until she is recovered." Qi Man said to him.

Sometime later, Yuan carried Meixiu back to her room and placed her on the bed.

"I knew something like this was going to happen when I saw her condition..." Chu Liuxiang sighed as she stood beside Yuan.

"I don't understand. Why is she working herself to such an extent?" Yuan shook his head.

If anything, Meixiu's workload has dramatically decreased since they left the Yu Family, so it didn't make sense for her to collapse from exhaustion. Just what on earth is she doing that's causing this?

"I'm sorry..." Meixiu suddenly mumbled in a low voice.

And she continued, "I didn't want to fall behind you and everyone else, so I worked extra hard to improve my cultivation."

"..." Yuan was speechless. He didn't think Meixiu would be worried about such a thing.

"How silly." Chu Liuxiang suddenly said, and she continued, "If you want to catch up to Yuan, you'll be chasing for the rest of your life, and even then, you won't catch up. If you're talking about everyone else, you've already caught up."

"You're a Spirit Warrior, right? There aren't many Spirit Warriors in this world even today. The Six Spiritual Families, the Chu Family, and the Qi Family—they're all abnormal families that have a huge advantage over everyone else because of their prior knowledge on cultivation. If you take them out of the conclusion, you're one of the top cultivators in the world, so you shouldn't worry about catching up."

Yuan then said, "I don't want to sound arrogant, but Lulu is right, Meixiu. I can consume demon cores, and a single one of them increases my cultivation by leaps and bounds. Unless someone has the same physique, I cannot imagine how they'll achieve the same results without consuming a massive amount of treasures, and such treasures are not easily attainable in this world."

Meixiu had no response, as everything Yuan and Chu Liuxiang said was the truth. It was simply foolish of her to try and catch up to Yuan, who has heaven-defying talents that allowed him to achieve Spirit Grandmaster within a couple of months after he started cultivation.

"Anyways, get some rest. Seeing you like this, I also feel like resting some more. Yesterday's training was too stressful." Chu Liuxiang said a moment later.

"Sorry..." Yuan felt the need to apologize for some reason.

"Don't you dare make the training easier just because of this, though."

"I won't." Yuan smiled.

"If you need me, I will be right next door." Chu Liuxiang returned to her own room shortly after.

Once they were alone, Meixiu spoke in a low voice, "Yuan..."

"What's the matter? Are you in pain? I will immediately get the doctor—"

"No, that's not it." She quickly stopped him.

"My body is still soaked in sweat. I cannot go to sleep like this, and it'll dirty the bed..."

"Oh, sorry."

"Can you turn on the water for me so I can take a quick shower? I will be there in a bit."

"Of course."

Yuan went to the bathroom and turned on the shower for her.

Sometime later, Yuan returned to the room to see that Meixiu had just stripped naked.

"Can you help me to the bathroom? I cannot exert any strength for some reason..." Meixiu suddenly asked him.

Yuan nodded, and he asked, "Do you want me to wash your back as well?"

Meixiu's face flushed slightly redder after hearing his question, but she didn't refuse.

"If you don't mind," she nodded.

Chapter 787: Taking Care Of Meixiu

"Why would I mind?" Yuan said as he walked next to Meixiu so that he could support her.

Meixiu wrapped her arm around his neck while Yuan held her by the waist, walking her to the bathroom.

Once they were inside the bathroom, Meixiu removed her bath towel and sat down on a small wooden chair.

"Can you hold the shower head for me?"

"Sure."

Yuan took the shower head and started rinsing her body.

"Okay, that's enough." She said a moment later.

"Should I wash your back now?" Yuan asked.

Seeing Meixiu nod her head, Yuan squeezed some body wash onto his palms before he started washing Meixiu's back with his bare hands.

'Her skin is so smooth...' Yuan thought to himself, and he couldn't help but recall the time when their naked bodies embraced each other.

Once Meixiu's whole back was covered in soap, Yuan said, "Okay, I am done."

However, Meixiu remained silent.

"Meixiu? Are you okay?" Yuan quickly asked her in a worried voice.

"Y-Yes. Sorry, I dazed out just now." She responded in a low voice.

Then she said, "Yuan... Can I ask you to wash my front as well?"

Perhaps it was because of her fever, or maybe it was because of the sensation of Yuan's hands on her back just now, but she felt hotter than usual, and that made her bolder than usual.

"T-The front? Of course..." Yuan was a little surprised to hear such a request, but he didn't refuse.

"Thank you..."

Yuan squeezed more body wash onto his palms before moving to the front, where he could see the best features on Meixiu's naked body.

After swallowing nervously, Yuan began washing Meixiu's front.

He started with her neck before going down to her breasts, then stomach.

Once he reached her legs, Meixiu willingly spread her legs for him.

Yuan took another deep breath before washing her legs, slowly moving towards the slit between her legs.

"Mmm..." Meixiu suddenly released a gentle moan when Yuan's fingers began rubbing against her sensitive spot.

When he heard this beautiful sound that tickled his ears and heart, Yuan's movement sped up a little, almost as though it was trying to match the pace of his heart that was also speeding up.

Meixiu's moans also got more constant and louder as the sensation of Yuan rubbing her slit became more intense.

A few moments later, when Yuan realized what he was doing, he quickly stopped and pulled his hand back.

"S-Sorry, my body acted on its own just now..." He apologized.

"It's okay. I didn't dislike it either." She said with a gentle smile on her face.

Yuan swallowed hard after hearing her words.

"A-Anyways, let me rinse you off before you catch a cold."

Thus, he quickly began rinsing her body until there was no more soap left.

After helping her dry her body, Yuan carried Meixiu back to her bed, where he also helped her change into her pajamas.

"After helping you today, I understand the efforts it requires to take care of someone. I won't say that I understand the efforts you and Yu Rou put to take care of me, but I understand that it's not an easy thing to do, yet the both of you make it look so easy."

"Anyways, get some rest, Meixiu. I will be here if you need me." Yuan said to her.

However, when he tried to leave, Meixiu suddenly grabbed his hand.

"What's the matter?" He asked her.

"My body... It's very hot... Help me... Calm it down..." Meixiu said as she stared at him with a charming gaze.

"Calm you down? How do I—"

Meixiu suddenly regained some of her strength and pulled Yuan onto her.

"Yuan... Let's have sex..." she whispered to him.

Yuan's jaw dropped open after hearing her flabbergasting words, and he quickly said, "W-We can't. You have a fever, and you need to rest now."

"I can't rest with a restless body... Just for a while, okay?" Meixiu looked at him with these pleading eyes that could instantly melt even the coldest men out there.

However, Yuan remained unfazed and sighed, "Just endure it for now. Your body is too weak to do anything right now. Once you have fully recovered, if you still want to, uh... have sex... we can do it for as long as you want..."

"You promise?"

"I promise." He nodded vigorously.

Meixiu didn't say anything else and closed her eyes, quickly falling asleep.

Yuan released a sigh of relief afterward.

He then sat a few meters away from the bed and started to cultivate in silence.

Meixiu woke up a few hours later and said, "Yuan... I'm hungry..."

"I will tell the Qi Family to cook something for you." Yuan said before going outside, where a servant was on standby, and he explained the situation to her.

"I understand. We will have something cooked as soon as possible." The servant bowed to him before running off to find a chief.

Half an hour later, the servant returned with a bowl of rice porridge and handed it to Yuan.

"Can you feed me?" Meixiu asked him.

"Of course." Yuan agreed, and he started spoon feeding her the rice porridge.

Once Meixiu cleared the bowl of rice porridge, she laid back down on the bed and said, "Yuan, can you give me a kiss?"

"...Sure."

He gave her a gentle kiss on the lips.

Despite Meixiu acting a little weird and more demanding than usual, Yuan didn't mind it at all, and he even found it a little bit refreshing. After all, Meixiu was raised to keep everything to herself, and that included her desires, so she rarely asks for anything.

Once Meixiu fell asleep again, Yuan returned to his cultivation.

However, Meixiu wouldn't fully recover until two days later, and during this time, Yuan was the one who took care of her every need, just like how she took care of him when he couldn't move his body.

No matter her request— with a few shameless exceptions that her body wouldn't be able to handle at its condition, Yuan did everything Meixiu wanted with no questions asked.

With this new experience, Yuan learned that he really enjoyed taking care of others, as it made him feel useful in another sense, and he felt that he was finally returning favors to Meixiu, who took care of him when he needed it the most.

Chapter 788 - Do You Want To Do It Now?

"How do you feel?" Yuan asked Meixiu when she woke up on the third day after she collapsed from exhaustion.

"I'm completely fine now. Thank you for taking care of me, and I'm sorry that I kept you from your training sessions. I must have been a burden." Meixiu lowered her head in a shameful manner.

The last time she was even slightly sick was over a decade ago, after all.

"There's no need to apologize. I only took care of you for three short days while you took care of me and my sister for years. If you ask me to continue taking care of you, I would agree, and I wouldn't utter a single complaint."

"What are you going to do now that you've recovered? Continue training?" Chu Liuxiang asked her.

Meixiu looked at Chu Liuxiang and shook her head.

"No, I am going to stay in today. Even though I have recovered, I would like to rest some more."

"That's a good idea. However, I am ready to go back to training. What about you, Yuan? Are you going to resume training?"

Yuan nodded, "Even though I promised the Qi Family that I'd stay for two weeks, things just keep coming up, shortening that time to one week."

Sometime later, Yuan and Chu Liuxiang went to the training area.

"If you need anything, there will be a servant on standby outside." Yuan said to Meixiu before leaving.

Once she was alone, Meixiu returned to her bed, but she didn't go to sleep.

Instead, she got under the blankets and removed her pants and underwear.

"Yuan... You idiot..." Meixiu sighed in a low voice before she started relieving herself.

Meanwhile, when they arrived at the training area, Yuan said to the disciples there, "I apologize for the delay, but I will be resuming my training sessions today."

"For the next two days, we will continue practicing with my killing intent. And for the final few days, we will be sparring with each other just like the first day, but you will also have to endure my killing intent while trying to seal me."

Yuan gave the Qi Family some time to prepare themselves before he took a seat and released his killing intent.

When Qi Man and the other elders heard that Yuan had returned to the training area, they quickly stopped whatever they were doing to participate in the training, as they also benefited greatly from his training.

After three days of break, the Qi Family fully recovered from their fatigue. However, that did not make it any more comfortable for them, as they were still struggling to endure Yuan's killing intent.

At the end of the day, Qi Man approached Yuan and asked him, "How is your lady friend doing?"

"She's recovered, but she didn't join us just in case."

"Well, unlike us, she's in no rush to train." Qi Man said with a smile.

"What do you mean?" Yuan tilted his head in a questioning manner.

"We only have a limited amount of time to train with you, but your friend, on the other hand, will have her entire life to train with you."

Qi Huan suddenly appeared and said, "Why don't you take Qi Fang with you? She may have a problematic personality, but I can guarantee you that she's worth it if you can tame her."

"Tame me? Why are you treating me like I am some sort of animal? I don't need to be 'tamed'!" Qi Fang overheard their conversation and quickly refuted.

"Also, there's no way that I'd ever follow him."

Qi Man turned to look at her and said, "Really? Because I recall how you always mention how you will only follow someone who is stronger than you. If you ask me, I think he's much stronger than you."

Qi Fang opened her mouth, but she couldn't refute his accusations, so she could only close it back up a moment later and feel embarrassed about the whole thing.

"Anyways, I am going to check up on Meixiu. I will see you all tomorrow."

After Yuan and Chu Liuxiang left, Qi Man turned to look at Qi Fang and sighed, "What are you thinking, you silly girl? We were trying to get you a worthy partner."

Qi Fang frowned, "You think I don't know that? It's precisely because I don't want to be his partner that I intervened."

"Why not? He's not only talented but also very young. If you ask me, there's probably nobody out there that's more worthy than him as a partner, especially for families like our Qi Family." Qi Huan said.

"You want me to partner up with my disciples' partner? Just how desperate do you think I am? And even if I was that desperate, I wouldn't do such a thing."

"The young lady from the Chu Family? What makes you think that they're partners? They seem close, but I think he seems closer to Meixiu." Qi Man asked out of curiosity.

"Hmph. He wouldn't fight the entire Chu Family over her if they didn't share a special relationship." Qi Fang snorted.

"Wait... He fought the Chu Family?" They looked baffled by this information.

"Why are you telling us this just now? What happened between Yuan and the Chu Family?"

"It's a long story, and I am tired."

"We have plenty of time."

Qi Fang sighed, "Fine, I will tell you about it, but let me shower real quick first."

Meanwhile, inside Meixiu's room.

"How are you feeling now?" Yuan asked her.

"Bored," she sighed.

"And frustrated."

"What's causing your frustration?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"A lot of things."

"Is there anything I can do to help?"

After a moment of silence, Meixiu responded while staring at him from the bed, "Do you remember your promise?"

"My promise...?" Yuan pondered for a moment before coming to a realization and blushing.

"Y-You mean... I thought that was something you said due to your fever..."

The two of them proceeded to stare at each other in awkward silence.

Eventually, Yuan broke the silence and said, "Do you want to do it now?"

Chapter 789 - To Make Things Even

"Chu Liuxiang... Where is she?" Meixiu suddenly asked about her whereabouts.

"She returned to her room to shower after training."

Meixiu nodded and continued, "Lock the door first."

After locking the door, Yuan returned to bed.

"What are you waiting for? Take off your clothes." Meixiu said to him as she removed her own clothes.

Yuan swallowed nervously and also removed his clothes.

Even though this isn't their first time doing such a thing, he still couldn't help but feel nervous about it.

Once they were both naked, Meixiu said to him, "Sit over here."

Yuan nodded and got onto the bed.

The next moment, Meixiu moved beside him and rested her head on his shoulders.

"Yuan... Do you hate it when I am like this?" She suddenly asked him.

"Why would I hate you? There's no way that would happen." He quickly replied.

"Even though I am such a pervert? Ever since we did it for the first time, I have been thinking about it nonstop, and every time I look at you, my body gets hotter and would crave for your warmth. I never had such feelings before."

Yuan smiled and said, "To tell you the truth, I have been thinking about it as well."

"Yuan..."

Meixiu tilted her head slightly and kissed him on the lips before adjusting her position.

Once she was ready, she opened her mouth and began sucking Yuan's sword.

A few minutes later, they embraced each other, and their bodies intertwined.

Meixiu moaned softly as she indulged herself with the sensation of Yuan's rod rubbing inside her.

"More... More..."

When Yuan heard Meixiu's charming voice, he felt a rush of adrenaline flow through his body, causing his hips to move faster.

However, after a few minutes of intense thrusting, Yuan suddenly halted his movements when he heard someone trying to open the door.

Yuan immediately used his divine sense to see who it was, and to his surprise, Chu Liuxiang was standing outside of the room with her hand on the doorknob.

"It's Lulu..." He said to Meixiu in a whispering voice.

"I will handle it..." Meixiu nodded.

"Who is it?" She then spoke out loud?

"It's me. I'm here to check up on your condition." Chu Liuxiang said.

"Can you open the door? It's locked."

"Sorry, but can you come back later? I am about to take a bath. Also, I am fine." Meixiu said.

After a moment of silence, Chu Liuxiang continued, "What about Yuan? Do you know where he's gone? I went to look for him at his building, but he didn't appear to be there."

"I'm not sure. Maybe he went to speak with the Elders."

"Okay. Since you're okay, I won't bother you any longer. Enjoy your bath." Chu Liuxiang left right afterward.

Meixiu released a sigh of relief.

"I don't know why, but it feels like we're doing something we're not supposed to... The feeling of not wanting to get caught..." Yuan sighed.

"That's a normal response, especially since we're doing something like this."

"It makes me feel like I am betraying Chu Liuxiang for some reason, and I don't really like this feeling..." Yuan shook his head.

Meixiu stared at Yuan's face that showed genuine concern, and she smiled, "We don't have to hide like this if you don't want to. I will talk to her later."

"Really? That also feels wrong for some reason." Yuan raised his eyebrows.

Meixiu smiled and said, "Well, our relationship is a little special, but we'll get used to it."

"Okay. I will leave it to you." Yuan nodded.

They continued to embrace each other shortly after, and they would not stop until it was almost midnight.

"I'm going to speak with Chu Liuxiang now." Meixiu said to Yuan, who was drying his body with a towel.

"Do you want me to come with you?" He asked.

"No, I think it would be better if I speak to her by myself." Meixiu showed him a beautiful smile before leaving the room.

A few moments later, Meixiu knocked on Chu Liuxiang's door.

"Who is it?"

"It's me. Are you busy right now?"

"No, you can come in. The door's unlocked."

Meixiu entered Chu Liuxiang's room the next moment.

Inside the room, Chu Liuxiang was sitting on her bed in the lotus position. She had been cultivating this entire time.

"Can we talk? There's something that I need to tell you." Meixiu said to her.

Chu Liuxiang smiled and pointed at the chair beside the bed, "Sit down."

Once Meixiu was sitting, Chu Liuxiang spoke, "So, what do you want to talk to me about?"

"It's about Yuan..."

"Yuan? You mean how you're sleeping with him?" Chu Liuxiang said, dropping this massive bomb out of the blue.

Meixiu's eyes widened with shock, and she had this look of total flabbergast on her face.

"H-How did you..."

Chu Liuxiang laughed at Meixiu's response and calmly said, "You know Spirit Masters such as myself have much sharper senses than most people. I could hear you moaning the moment I walked near your room, and I could sense Yuan's presence inside the room with you."

"I pretended that I didn't know anything so that you could enjoy yourselves."

"I'm sorry..." Meixiu sighed.

"Why are you apologizing?" Chu Liuxiang raised her eyebrows.

"You're not angry? I know how much you want to start a family with Yuan, yet I still went ahead and..."

"Angry? Why would I be angry?" Chu Liuxiang became bewildered.

And she continued, "Do you remember the talk we had in the Immortal Caves?"

"I do..." Meixiu nodded.

"Even though I am no longer with the Chu Family, my feelings haven't changed. As long as Yuan is happy and I have a spot in his heart, I don't care how many partners he accepts."

"And to make things even, I have also slept with him, so you don't need to feel guilty." Chu Liuxiang revealed, leaving Meixiu utterly speechless.

"Y-You slept with him? Since when?" Meixiu asked in a dazed voice.

"Just a few days ago.. It was our first time."

Chapter 790 - Sleeping Together

"A few days ago? When he was sick?" Meixiu raised her eyebrows in a puzzling manner.

Chu Liuxiang nodded, "That's right. He was actually looking for you at that time, but you were away, so I stepped in to help. One thing led to another, and our bodies ended up intertwined with each other."

"I had my suspicions already at that time, but I confirmed it today. Anyways, now that we both know the truth, what are you going to do? I don't mind sharing him."

"..."

Meixiu didn't immediately respond, and the hesitation in her eyes were quite clear. Of course, she didn't have any problem with Chu Liuxiang being with Yuan, but she never thought that she would be 'sharing' a man with another woman.

"It's okay if you say no, but just so you know, I won't back down." Chu Liuxiang suddenly said.

"Just think about it. Someone like Yuan, he will never have an ordinary life, and I think that he will only have more partners in the future."

Meixiu sighed, "I know."

"I was trained to be nothing more than a bed warmer for Yuan. Even if I had feelings for him, I would not have a place beside him as an official partner — that's what I had prepared myself for."

"However, all of that changed when we left the Yu Family. I am no longer just a bed warmer, and I can stand beside him not as a mere servant, but as his partner."

She took a deep breath and continued, "If you truly do not mind sharing him, then I also have no problem sharing him. That is my decision."

Chu Liuxiang smiled and extended her hand to Meixiu.

"Then we'll be something like sisters after today."

"Sisters?" Meixiu raised her eyebrow.

"Yes. Since we're both going to be his wife in the future, we might as well treat each other like sisters. That's how my fathers' wives treat each other."

"So, nice to meet you, Sister Meixiu."

Seeing the wide smile on Chu Liuxiang's face, Meixiu couldn't help but smile as well, and she accepted the handshake.

"Let's go see Yuan together." Chu Liuxiang suddenly said.

"Okay."

They went to see Yuan in Meixiu's room shortly after.

"Yuan, we have an announcement to make." Chu Liuxiang said to him.

Yuan swallowed nervously and nodded, "I'm listening."

Chu Liuxiang suddenly grabbed Meixiu's hand and lifted their hands into the air.

"We have come to an agreement that we will both be your partner! Are you okay with that?"

"Both of you as my partners?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

And then he said, "I thought you were already my partners. Why do you need to come to an agreement?"

Chu Liuxiang and Meixiu were left speechless by Yuan's reaction.

"O-Of course we have to come to an agreement! It's not really normal for one person to have multiple wives! If there's no agreement between the wives, it would be a chaotic and toxic family!" Chu Liuxiang explained.

"S-Sorry, I didn't know, and I just assumed everything would be fine..." Yuan sighed.

Due to his inexperience with relationships, he didn't know what was the norm and what was abnormal, not to mention his previous lives' memories, where it's very common for a person to have multiple partners.

Furthermore, everything flowed so naturally that he subconsciously thought everything was fine.

"Well, now you know." Chu Liuxiang said, and she continued, "And if you ever decide to accept more partners, you should consult us first. We need to make sure that she's worthy and won't bring disorder to the family— that's our responsibility as your current partner!"

Yuan nodded, "Okay."

"Good! Then to celebrate this moment, let's all sleep together tonight!" Chu Liuxiang suddenly suggested.

"What?!" Meixiu turned to look at her with wide eyes.

Chu Liuxiang realized what she'd just said and chuckled, "You misunderstood me. I mean we should just sleep on the same bed... normally. I may be okay with sharing him, I don't think I am ready to do that kind of stuff just yet."

"Oh..." Meixiu blushed when she realized her mistake.

"I don't mind." Yuan nodded.

"Then it's decided! We can sleep in this room since we're already here." Chu Liuxiang said.

Sometime later, they got onto the same bed and went to sleep.

Yuan slept in the middle of the bed while Chu Liuxiang and Meixiu slept right beside him on both sides.

"Good night." Yuan said to them.

"Good night." They both said.

The three of them quickly fell asleep.

The following morning, Qi Man looked around the training area but could not see Yuan or the other two.

"Have you seen Yuan? It's already time for training, but he's not here, and the ladies are missing too." He asked Qi Fang and the others, but they all shook their heads.

Of course, Yuan and the others had overslept due to feeling too comfortable from sleeping together.

"Qi Fang, can you go check up on them?" Qi Huan asked her.

"Why me?" She sighed, but she still went to check on their situation.

Qi Fang went to Yuan's living quarter first, but when she saw that his place was empty, she went to Chu Liuxiang's room.

"It's also empty? Where did they go?" Qi Fang frowned, feeling something was off.

She went to Meixiu's room last and subconsciously opened the door without knocking since the last two rooms were empty.

The door wasn't locked, allowing Qi Fang to walk right into Meixiu's room.

And to her absolute shock, Yuan and the other two were sleeping peacefully on the bed. When she witnessed this and realized the situation, her eyes widened and her jaw dropped.

'T-This brat... I am speechless! Turns out that we were both right! He's actually in a relationship with both Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang!' Qi Fang cried inwardly.

'He's so young, yet he's already like this... I cannot imagine what he'll be like in the future when he's all grown up and mature...' She swallowed nervously.

Chapter 791 - Overslept

Shortly after Qi Fang entered their room, Yuan subconsciously woke up when he sensed a foreign presence within the room.

He immediately used his divine sense, and when he saw Qi Fang standing by the door with a flabbergasted expression, he calmed down.

"S-Senior Qi? What are you doing here?" Yuan sat up on the bed and asked her in an oddly calm voice.

"Do you know what time it is? Everyone is already waiting for you at the training area." Qi Fang said with a frown on her face.

"What? It's already morning? Sorry! I overslept!" Yuan quickly woke up Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang.

"Five more minutes..." Chu Liuxiang mumbled in a low voice.

Meixiu immediately sat up after being woken up, and when she saw Qi Fang standing at the door with her arms crossed, Meixiu's face flushed with redness, and she felt like she had been caught red-handed.

"Lulu, it's Senior Qi! We're late for training!" Yuan tried to wake her up again.

"What?!"

When she heard his words, Chu Liuxiang quickly sat up and turned to look at the door, and sure enough, she could see Qi Fang standing there.

"M-Master!" Chu Liuxiang jumped out of the bed like a startled cat.

"I don't want to hear anything. Just get dressed and head to the training area if you plan on training today." Qi Fang said to them before turning around and walking out of the place.

When she returned to the training area, Qi Man asked her, "What happened? Where's Yuan?"

"Don't worry, he's perfectly fine. He just overslept."

"Overslept? I guess it happens to even the best of us..." Qi Man chuckled.

"By the way, do you remember our talk the other day? About who his partner is?" Qi Fang suddenly asked.

"Yes, what about it?"

"Turns out they were both his partners. They were sleeping together when I found them."

Qi Man and Qi Huan's jaw dropped slightly after hearing this information.

After a moment of silence, Qi Man suddenly started laughing, "What an impressive lad! I should be surprised, but I am actually more impressed! He's earned my admiration! Hahaha!"

Qi Huan shook her head with a smile, "Young people nowadays are sure active. However, a man of his caliber, I am really not surprised."

"What are you going to do now, Qi Fang? This proves that Yuan is willing to accept multiple partners. You can be one of them."

"No way in hell." Qi Fang frowned.

"Don't come complaining to us when it's too late. We're saying this for your own good." Qi Man sighed.

"I won't regret anything. This is my decision."

A few minutes later, Yuan and the other two showed up at the training area.

"Sorry for the delay. I overslept." Yuan apologized to the disciples there.

All of the disciples there were already seated in a circle, so Yuan only needed to get to the center and release his killing intent to begin the training.

A few moments later, Yuan began their training.

His killing intent swept the area and instantly terrorized the people there, and those that were not prepared were immediately eliminated, losing consciousness.

When that happened, the doctors on standby rushed to the scene and grabbed the unconscious disciples out of the zone.

Of course, Yuan purposefully avoided the doctors with his killing intent so that they could assist the disciples. However, even without directly feeling Yuan's killing intent, they could still feel the pressure.

After many hours of training, Yuan retrieved his killing intent and called it a day.

That night, Yuan slept together with Chu Liuxiang and Meixiu again.

The following morning, they made sure to wake up properly, and they made their way to the training area after eating breakfast.

"Today will be the last day of your endurance training. Starting tomorrow, you will be fighting me." Yuan said to the disciples before he started the training.

"Finally, this hellish training is over."

Many of the disciples released a sigh of relief at the end of the day when they realized that they no longer needed to experience Yuan's killing intent ever again.

However, then they realized that they will be fighting against the same monster who releases the killing intent, and that made them nervous again.

The next day, Yuan showed up at the training area with a new appearance that left the disciples dumbfounded.

In order to make the training feel more realistic, Yuan had decided to paint his skin red so that he would look more like a real demon.

"W-What the heck is that? You look ridiculous!" Qi Fang couldn't help but laugh when she saw Yuan's appearance.

Yuan smiled and said, "I know, but I still wanted to try it."

Sometime later, Yuan picked ten disciples to fight him.

"You can use any weapon or technique. You also don't need to worry about hurting me, so give me all you've got."

Once they were prepared, the ten disciples launched their assault on Yuan.

However, when Yuan released his killing intent, the disciples halted their movements and froze on the spot.

"Why are you all just standing there? I had you all endure my killing intent for a reason! Hurry up and attack me! If I was a real demon, you'd all have died the moment you showed even the slightest sign of weakness!" Yuan shouted at the disciples, snapping them out of their daze.

The disciples proceeded to endure Yuan's killing intent and continued their assault on him, but their movements were quite slow and sluggish.

Eventually, Yuan defeated all of the disciples.

"Don't worry, you'll all improve. This is why we're training." Yuan said a few words of encouragement to them before picking ten more disciples to fight.

At the end of the day, only the elders, Chu Liuxiang, Meixiu, and Qi Fang were left.

"All of you can come at me." Yuan said to them.

"A-Are you sure?" Qi Man swallowed nervously.

"I am.." Yuan nodded with a smile.

Chapter 792 - Magic Trick

Chapter 792: Magic Trick

Once they were ready, all of the elders within the Qi Family along with Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang surrounded Yuan.

In total, there were 25 people that will be participating in this spar, and most of them were Spirit Masters with Meixiu being the only Spirit Warrior.

"Whenever you're ready." Qi Man said to Yuan.

Yuan suddenly lifted his hand, and a large sword appeared out of thin air before falling into his grasp.

This scene shocked everybody there, as they have never seen such a scene before.

"What kind of magic trick did he just do? How did he summon that huge ass sword out of thin air?"

"Is it really a magic trick? I don't know how he did it, but it doesn't look like magic."

The disciples there mumbled to each other Yuan's 'magic trick'.

Of course, the elders were also bewildered by it.

"I wanted to ask you this last time, but how are you doing that?" Qi Fang asked him with a slight frown.

Yuan showed a playful smile and said, "If you defeat me, I will tell you."

"Watch me!"

Qi Fang immediately pounced at Yuan with her sword already swinging towards him.

Ding!

Yuan casually blocked the attack with his Empyrean Overlord, and it felt as though she just struck a block of steel for Qi Fang.

"Don't forget about us!" Qi Man and the other elders suddenly appeared around Yuan to strike him.

Of course, Yuan saw them coming with his divine sense, and he dodged all of their strikes with his movement technique.

Once he dodged the attacks, Yuan released his killing intent, which affected their movements— but not by much.

And for the next few minutes, Yuan would defend and dodge all incoming attacks, and he made it seem so effortlessly.

"Corrupting Blow!" Qi Man suddenly released a devastating strike at Yuan with his sword.

Yuan had no doubt that Qi Man's skill could easily cut through metal like a hot knife in butter just by its sharp aura, but he didn't run away and confronted the attack head-on.

Clang!

A minor shockwave swept the training area when their swords collided, and Qi Man was sent flying back many meters from the backlash.

However, Yuan only moved back a single step, shocking the spectators.

"The disparity in their strength is too huge!"

Suddenly, without even turning his head, Yuan moved his sword beside his head, almost like he was trying to hide behind it.

The next moment, an arrow struck the blade of his sword, and Yuan could feel an immense force behind this seemingly ordinary arrow—one that was even stronger than Qi Man's strike.

After being pushed back a couple of steps, Yuan turned his head towards Meixiu, who was standing many meters away with a bow in her hands, and he smiled.

"No bad! This must be the technique you recently got!" Yuan said as he began moving towards Meixiu.

But before he could get close to Meixiu, Yuan felt an overwhelming force flying towards his direction, causing him to halt and turn around.

Bang!

A massive amount of spiritual energy collided with Yuan's sword, nearly sending him flying.

After stabilizing his body, Yuan turned to look at Chu Liuxiang, who'd just released that powerful attack.

"Are you okay?" Chu Liuxiang asked him afterward.

"Yes, I am." Yuan nodded with a smile.

Out of all of his opponents, Yuan found that Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang were the most annoying with their long range attacks, and when he tried to defeat them first, the other would interfere.

Obviously, he wasn't truly trying to defeat them, or he would have defeated everybody there with a single strike, and that would defeat the purpose of their training.

"I am not done yet!" Qi Fang suddenly appeared behind Yuan and thrust her sword at his back.

However, Yuan had already anticipated her movements and attack, so he shifted his body just enough to dodge Qi Fang's attack before countering with his empty hand.

"Ah!"

Qi Fang cried out loud when Yuan's fist met her stomach.

An intense pain filled her stomach that quickly spread throughout her body, causing her to kneel on the ground.

"Shit! That freaking hurts! What are you going to do if I cannot have a baby in the future because you punched so damn hard?!" Qi Fang complained.

"Eh?" Yuan's body froze when he heard Qi Fang's words, and he said in an apologetic voice, "S-Sorry, but I didn't use that much strength..."

"No that much strength?! Then you clearly don't know your own strength! You nearly blew a hole in my stomach!" Qi Fang cried.

"Do you need a doctor?" Yuan approached her.

However, when he got close enough, Qi Fang suddenly stood up and attacked him.

"I got you now!"

"Wha—?!"

Because Yuan had lowered his guard, Qi Fang managed to send him flying with a direct hit.

"Damn, that felt great. I have been wanting to hit you for a while now." Qi Fang said with a satisfied look on her face.

When the elders saw Qi Fang's shameless action, they couldn't help but shake their heads.

"Pretending to be hurt and striking when he lowered his guard? That was very shameless and childish of you..." Qi Man sighed, feeling second-hand embarrassment from her act.

Qi Fang coldly snorted, "What are you talking about? He said to defeat him using any means possible. And who said I was pretending? That really hurt! My stomach is in pain even now!"

"She's right, Senior. I had lowered my guard, and she got me. In a fight against demons, you must use any means necessary to win." Yuan said with a calm smile on his face after getting back up and seemingly unscathed. '

"Are you okay? That looked like it hurt." Qi Huan asked him.

"Yes, I am perfectly fine." Yuan nodded.

"Anyways, let's continue."

"Okay."

They continued to spar with each other for another hour until most of the elders were too exhausted to continue.

Chapter 793 - Their Last Day

"I haven't sweat like this in many years. You have my gratitude, Yuan." Qi Man said to him after the training ended.

"I will see you all back here tomorrow. We'll be doing this until it is time for me to leave." Yuan said.

"Of course. We'll all be here until the last minute."

Once they returned to their room, Meixiu said, "I have rested enough. I need to continue to improve my cultivation."

Yuan nodded, "I also need to practice my Qi Manipulation so that I can fly."

"W-Wait... What? Fly?" Chu Liuxiang looked at him with wide eyes.

Yuan smiled and summoned his Empyrean Overlord, showing them that he could fly with it.

"My god..." The ladies stared at him with shocked expressions on their faces.

"Once you reach Spirit Grandmaster, you'll be able to manipulate your spiritual energy outside your body, allowing you to do things like this." Yuan explained to them.

"Spirit Grandmaster... Wait... You're a Spirit Grandmaster now? Since when?" Chu Liuxiang asked.

"Since I swallowed the demon core."

"Oh, right..."

"Too bad that I will probably never reach Spirit Grandmaster in this world. I don't have your talents, nor do I have the resources."

"Don't lose hope. I'm sure we'll work something out." Yuan said.

"There may not be enough resources in this world, but there are plenty in Cultivation Online. We know that treasures in Cultivation Online also affect us in this world as long as they are strong enough. We've tested this before."

"Once we return home, we'll use the money from Feng Feng to buy treasures to boost our cultivation."

"Okay." Chu Liuxiang nodded.

The following morning, Yuan returned to the training area for another day of training.

This would continue for a few more days until it was time for them to return to the Dragon Spiral Mountain.

"Today will be my last day here, and this is our last training session, so I want you all to give it your all today." Yuan said to the disciples there before starting the training.

At the end of the day, the Qi Family gathered before Yuan.

"Thank you for everything, Yuan." Qi Man bowed to him with clasped hands.

The disciples behind him followed his actions and bowed to Yuan.

"Don't even mention it. The more people that can fight demons out there, the better it is for us." Yuan said with a smile.

"By the way, before we leave, can I take a look at your techniques?" Yuan then asked.

"Of course. I will take you there." Qi Man nodded.

"You guys can go back and pack up. I will be with you later." Yuan said to Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang.

"Okay." They nodded.

Sometime later, Qi Man and Qi Huan brought Yuan to the building where they stored all of their demon sealing techniques.

"It's not much, but..." Qi Man pointed to the small stack of scrolls sitting on top of a desk.

Yuan approached the desk and began reading through the scrolls.

'I already know these techniques from the Demon Sealing Clan's Grand Library...'

Yuan wasn't too surprised by the results since the Demon Sealing Clan created all of these techniques.

"You're done already?" Qi Man asked when he noticed Yuan putting the scrolls back down after glancing at them.

"Yes, I am." Yuan smiled.

"I guess they're really worthless in your eyes, huh?" Qi Huan couldn't help but sigh.

"T-That's not it. I already know these techniques, so there's no point for me to learn them again."

"What? How is that possible? Where did you learn these techniques?"

"Cultivation Online."

Qi Man's eyes widened with shock.

"You mean to tell me that our families' demon sealing technique exists inside a video game?"

"It's more than just a video game— it's what revealed the existence of cultivation to the world."

"It really makes one wonder who on earth created this game and why..." Qi Man mumbled.

"I am trying to search for answers myself. Hopefully, I will get them soon." Yuan said.

As they left the building, Qi Man said, "Anyways, if you need anything else from our Qi Family, we will do our best to assist you. As for the demons in the Dragon Spiral Mountain, we will continue to prolong their seal until we cannot."

"Actually, there is one thing I would like..." Yuan said, and he continued, "Can you give me the locations of all of the demons that your family has found? You said there are dozens out there, right?"

"Do you plan on going to these places and dealing with the demons yourself?" Qi Huan couldn't help but ask.

"No, but it's better to have knowledge than not having any."

Qi Man nodded, "Alright, I will give you a map of their locations. It'll be ready before you leave."

"Thank you."

Sometime later, Yuan returned to Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang.

"We're fully packed. We can leave whenever."

Yuan nodded, and he asked, "Where's the Manager? I haven't seen her since you arrived."

"Now that you mention it, I also haven't seen her." Chu Liuxiang puts on a pondering face.

"The Qi Family should know. I will go ask them."

Yuan left the room shortly after to look for the Qi Family, and he ran into Qi Fang.

"Senior Qi, do you know where the Manager went? I haven't seen her for almost two weeks now." Yuan asked her.

"She's not in any of our guest rooms, so she can only be on the plane," she said.

"The plane? For the last two weeks?" Yuan was speechless.

Qi Fang smiled and said, "You really know nothing about the Manager, huh? She may not look like it, but she's someone who would rather lay around all day and do nothing. Whenever she gets the chance, she will turn into a sloth. She's probably in her room watching television and drinking alcohol from her bed even as we speak."

"I-I understand.. Thank you for the information..." Yuan said.

Chapter 794 - Leaving The Qi Family

Chapter 794 – Leaving The Qi Family

"By the way, when do you guys plan on leaving?" Qi Fang suddenly asked him.

"We plan on leaving before midnight so that we'd make it home by morning tomorrow."

"Good. The family's preparing a feast for you, so make sure you attend it before you leave. That's all." Qi Fang notified him of a feast before leaving.

Yuan returned to Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang shortly after.

"They're throwing a feast for us, so we'll leave after that." He said to them.

"Un." They nodded.

About two hours later, Qi Fang returned to tell them that the feast was ready.

Yuan and the others followed Qi Fang to this large banquet hall where one side was stacked with tables and chairs and the other side with food.

"What do you think? This is the least we can do for you before you leave." Qi Man approached him with a smile.

"The food looks terrific. I can smell them all the way from here." Yuan smiled.

"You can eat all the food you want. After all, this is your feast." Qi Man laughed.

Yuan wasted no time and immediately grabbed a plate— multiple plates.

Since he could use Qi Manifestation, he used it to carry over a dozen plates of food without lifting a single finger, which shocked everyone that saw it.

"H-How the hell are you doing that?" Qi Fang asked him in a shocked voice.

"Huh? It's Qi Manifestation. You can use it too." Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"What? No I can't."

"But I saw you use it... When we first fought? You used Qi Manifestation to move the sword..."

"Uhh... That sword is a treasure, and it has this unique ability that allows it to fly to me when I call for it. I won't be able to do that with other things, such as plates..." Qi Fang said, leaving Yuan speechless.

"You can't use Qi Manifestation even though you're a Spirit Grandmaster?"

"I have never even heard of Qi Manifestation until today. And even though I am a Spirit Grandmaster, I'd only recently reached this level. It wasn't easy, and it required almost all of our family's resources." Qi Fang explained.

"I see... If you want, I can teach you Qi Manifestation... But at another time." Yuan then said.

"It essentially allows you to manifest and control your spiritual energy outside your body, and you can treat it as though it's another part of your body. It's a really convenient skill. You should learn it."

Qi Fang swallowed nervously after hearing Yuan's words. No doubt, she really wanted to learn Qi Manifestation, especially after seeing what Yuan could achieve with it. There are unlimited possibilities with this ability!

"You promise?"

"Yes, it's a promise."

"Alright. I will be waiting."

Once they were seated, Yuan proceeded to consume all of the food on his plates in a speed that left everyone around him baffled.

"Fuck, is there something that he's not good at? He's even talented in eating!"

"He reminds me of a certain pink and round character in a certain game."

The disciples mumbled to each other as they ate.

A few rowdy hours later, Yuan and the two ladies by his side made their way outside the Qi Family's headquarters, and the entire Qi Family was there to see them off.

"Yuan, here's the map that you requested. It has the location of the demons on it— at least the ones that we— the three families know of."

Yuan nodded and said, "If any of these demons are close to breaking their seal... I want you to let me know immediately."

"Don't worry, you'll be the first one I call when that happens."

"Thank you."

"No, thank you." Qi Man smiled.

"I will escort them to the plane." Qi Fang suddenly said, willingly volunteering to help.

"Oh?" Her grandparents looked at her with funny expressions on their faces.

"You would've told me to do it anyway, right?"

"Who knows." They laughed.

"Let's go." Qi Fang ignored them and said to Yuan's group.

Once they arrived at the plane, Qi Fang said, "Liuxiang, stay behind for a moment."

After Yuan and Meixiu entered the plane to wait for her, Qi Fang spoke, "I have been your master for how long now? Almost 10 years? I was only 16 years old when I started teaching you. At first, I treated you like a little sister, and even as you grew up, my views did not change. I may be strict at times, but they were for your own good."

"You're sounding like we'll never meet again..." Chu Liuxiang looked at her with a questioning gaze.

Qi Fang smiled and said, "You're no longer the immature little girl that I used to know, and you're already a Spirit Master. I don't think I have anything else to teach you— not to mention that you have an even better teacher than me already by your side."

"Y-Yuan? He's not my teacher..."

"I know, he's your partner."

Chu Liuxiang nodded with a slightly rosy face.

Qi Fang's eyebrows twitched upon seeing her reaction.

Then she asked, "H-Have the two of you... already.. you know.. done it?"

Chu Liuxiang's face grew even redder as she nodded her head.

"Looks like you've also surpassed me in some aspects of life..." A bittersweet smile appeared on Qi Fang's face.

"Huh?" Chu Liuxiang looked at her with wide eyes.

"Master, you're still a virgin? How unexpected."

"I-I have a very particular taste in men, and I haven't met the right person yet, okay?! Do you have a problem with that? And don't call me Master anymore! I am letting you go as my disciple!"

Chu Liuxiang smiled and suddenly lowered her head, bowing to Qi Fang, "Thank you for everything, Senior Qi. I also saw you as an elder sister before— I still do even now."

"Take good care of yourself, okay? And you can just call me Sister Fang." Qi Fang smiled.

"You too, Sister Fang. Take care of yourself, and I hope to see you again soon."

The two of them exchanged a quick hug before Chu Liuxiang boarded the plane.

Chapter 795 - Soon

Chapter 795 – Soon

After entering the plane, Yuan used his divine sense to look for the Manager, and sure enough, just like Qi Fang had said, she was lying on her bed with alcohol in one hand and food in another, and she was watching the television.

Compared to her image at the Dragon Spiral Mountain, she was like a different person.

After snapping out of his surprise, Yuan knocked on her door, which startled her, who was distracted by the television.

"Manager, we're ready to return to the mountain." Yuan said to her.

"I-If you're ready, press the button and fly back already. The plane is fueled up and ready to go." She said to him, not even bothering to leave the bed.

"Okay..."

Once Chu Liuxiang entered the plane, Yuan pressed the red button in the cockpit and started the plane.

"Where's the Manager?" Chu Liuxiang asked once they were in the air.

"She's in her room." Yuan said.

And he continued, "Anyways, we have a couple of hours before we return home. Let's cultivate while we are still in the air. For some reason, the spiritual energy up here is far superior."

"Maybe because it's much purer up here than down there." Chu Liuxiang said.

They began cultivating shortly after until morning came and the plane landed.

"Manager, we've returned home." Yuan knocked on her door when they landed.

A few moments later, she came out of the room looking like a professional businesswoman, and nothing about her could suggest that she was a lazy person.

They all exited the plane, but when Yuan saw the Manager getting into her car, he began having flashbacks of his traumatic experience with her.

"What are you waiting for? Hurry up and get into the car." The Manager said to him when he was the only one standing outside.

Yuan swallowed nervously and entered the front seat.

The moment Yuan felt the car wheels turning, his heartbeat quickened.

However, to his surprise, the car didn't move at the speed of light, and the Manager was actually driving responsibly!

"Are you okay?" Yuan asked the Manager in a worried voice.

She turned to look at him and frowned, "You think there's something wrong with me?"

"Well... You're acting... Weird..." He said.

"Is that so? Then I should probably act normal again, huh?"

"Huh? I don't mean—"

Before Yuan could even finish his sentence, the Manager stepped onto the accelerator all the way, and the car immediately sped up.

"I-I'm sorry if I offended you, Manager! Just slow down!" Yuan exclaimed.

"Too late for that."

And for the remainder of their journey back to the Dragon Spiral Mountain, they continued at maximum speed, which was over 150mph.

Once they reached the mountain, the Manager finally slowed down.

"We're here. You can get out now— except you." The Manager looked at Yuan.

"You guys can go back first and let the others know that we have returned." Yuan said to Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang.

"Okay."

Once they left, the Manager drove Yuan to the peak of the mountain.

"We're going to see the Lord?" Yuan asked.

"What else are we going to do? Watch the scenery?"

Sometime later, they entered the fog on foot until they reached the peak of the mountain.

Yuan approached the cave at the center while the Manager stayed behind and watched from a distance.

"How was the Qi Family? Did you make any new friends?" The Lord's voice resounded from within the cave.

"Yes, I made a lot." Yuan said.

And he continued, "You know... You could've at least told me that I was going to kill a demon for them before sending me there."

"Oh? Did I not tell you? I must have forgotten."

"..." Yuan frowned, and he said, "If I cannot trust you now, why would I trust you in the future— when you tell me about Cultivation Online?"

The Lord remained silent after hearing Yuan's words.

"It was just a test— and you passed it flawlessly."

"Test? What kind of test is that?"

"To see whether you can really kill demons or not, and I wanted to see if you would deal with the demon even though it was not part of our agreement. This shows that you really care about dealing with demons."

"Anyways, now that you have returned... safely. Can you tell me about what happened at the Qi Family?"

Yuan took a deep breath and recalled his experience there.

He spoke about defeating the demon, and he spoke about training the Qi Family.

"Hmm... Interesting..."

"This may seem sudden, but when do you plan on dealing with the demons on the mountain?"

"When...? How am I supposed to know? We don't even know when the demons are breaking out of their seal—"

"It shook." The Lord suddenly interrupted.

"Excuse me?" Yuan raised his eyebrow in a questioning manner.

"The Dragon Spiral Mountain shook three days ago, and the crystal is a lot redder. The demons... They're breaking out of their seals soon."

"Soon...?" Yuan swallowed nervously.

He was confident in handling one demon, but if he had to fight 11 demons at once...

"I really hope you're ready by then." The Lord said.

After a moment of silence, Yuan said, "I will."

"Anyways, if there isn't anything else, I'd like to return home and prepare."

"You may go."

Sometime later, Yuan returned home to find everyone sitting around the diner table.

"Welcome back, Yuan. We've heard everything already from Meixiu." Wang Ming said.

"Not everything." Yuan shook his head.

"What do you mean?"

"The mountain shook three days ago, right? The demons are close to breaking out of their seal, and I will be transferring the demon sealing techniques to you now so that we can prepare."

"Oh? We can finally learn the demon sealing techniques? Nice!"

"Yes. Get in line, I am going to transfer the techniques to you guys now."

Wang Ming and the others quickly got in line to receive their demon sealing techniques.

Chapter 796 - A World Outside The Nine Heavens

Chapter 796 – A World Outside The Nine Heavens

After giving everyone their demon sealing technique, Yuan said to them, "We don't have much time before the demons break out of their seal, so we'll need to prepare ourselves."

"I will begin learning this technique immediately." Wang Ming said.

Everyone returned to their rooms shortly after and began training their demon sealing techniques.

"What are we going to do now, Yuan?" Chu Liuxiang asked him.

"Prepare. I am going to return to the Demon Sealing Clan's Grand Library and learn as much about demons as I can. You two should also prepare."

"Okay." They both nodded.

Yuan entered Cultivation Online while everyone else practiced their demon sealing techniques.

After arriving at the Demon Sealing Clan's Grand Library, Yuan immediately began looking through manuals about demons to see if he could learn any more weaknesses on demons.

However, there wasn't any information that he didn't already know.

"Why are you studying so hard? You're going to stare a hole in that manual at this rate." A voice suddenly resounded behind Yuan as he was completely absorbed in the manual before him.

He turned around to see Yan Hara standing behind him with a smile on her face.

"You could've at least let me know that you were back," she said.

"Sorry, I just got back today, and I am in a bit of a hurry."

"Hurry? What's the rush?"

She glanced at the manual in his hands and mumbled, "Demons?"

"Little founder, are you in trouble... with demons?" She asked him with a frown on her face.

"Well..."

"Where?" Yan Hara's voice suddenly became serious.

"I'm sorry, Senior, but even if I told you, you wouldn't be able to get there. This is a problem that only I can solve."

After a moment of silence, Yan Hara spoke, "Follow me."

"Eh? But—"

"Follow me!" She suddenly shouted, causing everyone there to turn and look at them with intrigued gazes.

"O-Okay..." Yuan placed the manual down and followed Yan Hara to a private room.

After shutting the door, Yan Hara pointed at a chair and said, "Sit down."

"Now, tell me about your demon trouble. I don't understand why you'd want to hide this from me, but I want to help you," she said to him.

"I am telling you, Senior, even if I told you the truth, you wouldn't be able to do anything about it because you won't be able to reach that place with the demons." Yuan sighed.

"Whether I can help or not, I will decide after I hear your explanation."

Yuan sighed, and after a moment of silence, he spoke, "There are some demons that will be breaking out of their seal soon, and I am preparing so that I can deal with them."

"Are you insane?!" Yan Hara suddenly exclaimed, and she looked at him with complete disbelief.

"Little founder! Real demons are nothing like the low-grade artificial demons that you have been fighting! They are a real threat and incredibly dangerous! You cannot try to deal with them by yourself, especially when you're just a Spirit Lord!"

"Tell me the location of these demons and I will alert the Demon Sealing Clan."

"They're in a place called 'Earth'." Yuan calmly responded.

"..."

Yan Hara silently stared at him for a good minute before speaking, "This is not a joking matter, little founder. If we don't deal with these demons soon, it could spell disaster for the Nine Heavens!"

"I am not joking, and the demons are not located in the Nine Heavens." Yuan stared back at her with a serious face.

"W-What the hell do you mean they're not in the Nine Heavens?" Yan Hara frowned.

"Like I'd said, they're on a place called Earth, and this place doesn't belong in the Nine Heavens."

"And I am well aware of how dangerous demons can be. After all, I have already encountered a few of them."

Yan Hara's eyes widened with shock after hearing Yuan's confession.

"You... Just who are you, little founder?" She asked him in a low voice.

"You wouldn't believe me even if I told you..." He sighed.

"This place... If it's not within the Nine Heavens, then it can only be a realm that exists outside of the Nine Heavens. I have always heard rumors that such places exist, but there has never been concrete proof. You... You came from outside the Nine Heavens?"

Yuan smiled upon hearing her somewhat accurate deduction.

"Something like that," he shrugged.

"Unbelievable..." Yan Hara muttered in a flabbergasted voice.

"Now you understand why you— nor the Demon Sealing Clan could help me, right? I know you're worried, but it's okay, it's not my first time fighting— even killing a demon."

"..."

After another long moment of silence, Yan Hara asked, "How... How many demons have you encountered...and killed so far?"

Yuan pondered for a moment to count.

"Uhhh... Six demons?"

He'd killed four in the Mystic Realm, one in the Jaded Garden, and one in the Qi Family.

"S-Six... demons...?" Yan Hara repeated in a dazed voice.

'He's killed even more demons than me?! How is that possible?! He's only a Spirit Lord!' She cried inwardly.

She did not want to believe Yuan, but she couldn't see any lies within his clear eyes.

"I know six sounds like a lot, but it's really not, considering how there are dozens of sealed demons that are about to break out of their seals in that world..." Yuan sighed.

"Dozens of sealed demons? Just what kind of world is that? It sounds so ridiculous..." Yan Hara sighed.

"And six demons is a lot! Do you know how many demons the average demon sealers kill?! Zero! Freaking zero! I am one of the top demon sealers in my generation, and I have only killed three demons, which is already considered a freaking miracle! Of course, this is mostly because demons are pretty much extinct... If not for that fact, I would have killed many more demons..." Yuan Hara sighed, trying to justify her low kill count compared to his.

Chapter 797 - Demons' Ranking

Chapter 797 – Demons' Ranking

"Anyways, since the Demon Sealing Clan cannot help you with your demon problem, you'll have to deal with it yourself. Since you're already an expert at killing demons and the future Divine Paragon, I'm sure you'll do fine..." Yan Hara said.

Yuan raised his eyebrows. Just a moment ago, she was telling him how dangerous demons are and that he won't be able to handle them by himself, yet after learning that he'd killed twice as many demons as her, she has suddenly become supportive and even confident in his abilities.

"How confident are you?" She suddenly asked him.

"Not that confident. I won't know the demons' strength until they break out of their seal, and that is my biggest worry. What if I cannot handle the demon? What if the demon is much stronger than me?" Yuan sighed.

"Well... Fortunately, most demons that just break out of their seal are at their weakest state, and it would take them days to weeks to recover their strength." Yan Hara said.

"Do you have any suggestions on how I should prepare?" Yuan then asked.

"Since you've already killed 6 demons, you can continue doing whatever you were doing, as it clearly works. Also, I know of a way for you to check a demons' strength even if they are sealed."

"Really? How?" Yuan's eyes immediately began flickering with excitement.

"Come with me."

Yan Hara opened the door and walked him to the open area with the artificial demons.

Once there was an available spot, Yan Hara took it and sealed the artificial demon before it could even move.

"Put your hand on this sealed demon and use your spiritual energy to penetrate the seal to analyze the demon's strength."

"But won't that risk unsealing the demon?"

"It'll be fine. If you could unseal a demon so easily, the Demon Sealing Clan would be a laughing stock. Only demon sealing aura could unseal a demon," she said.

Yuan nodded and approached the demon before putting his hands on it, feeling its stone-like texture.

He closed his eyes next and used his spiritual energy to penetrate through the seal to check the artificial demon, and sure enough, he could not only sense the demons' cultivation, he could also sense its heartbeat and blood flow.

"It works! I can sense their strength! This is great! Thank you, Senior!" Yuan said to her with a bright smile.

She nodded with a slightly rosy face, and she spoke, "Do you have any other questions?"

Yuan pondered for a minute before nodding, "How can I tell the difference between a low-rank demon and a superior demon? And I would like to learn more about demon ranking in general."

Yan Hara nodded, "Alright. Let's go to the library then."

Sometime later, Yuan sat down in the library while Yan Hara went to fetch a couple of manuals.

When Yan Hara returned, she placed the manuals on the table and began lecturing him about demons.

"There are six ranks of demons. From the lowest— Lower Demon, Elite Demon, Superior Demon, Demon General, Demon Emperor, and Ancient Demon. You can judge a demon's rank by their appearance. Higher ranking demons will have more unique features and abilities. Their crystals will also be slightly different from each other."

"Lower Demons and Elite Demons will have a red crystal somewhere on their body while Superior Demons will have a black crystal. However, Demon Generals and above do not reveal their crystal so openly, so if you see a demon without their crystal on the outside, there's a very good chance that they are a Demon Emperor— or even stronger."

"Something else that differentiates them is their control. A higher ranking demon can control their emotions and rage much better than those inferior, so they are usually calmer and not as easy to provoke. However, once provoked, they will be multiple times stronger than usual. If you're fighting against a Demon General or above, your best chance is to defeat them without provoking them, and you should never openly provoke a demon, as that would only fuel their powers even further."

Yuan began sweating cold sweat after hearing Yan Hara's advice to not provoke them, as that's what he has been doing to the demons that he fought. He never thought that he was actually making them harder to fight by provoking them.

"Instead of provoking demons, you should make them scared of you. That is your number one priority. Once a demon fears you, they will no longer be a threat. That's why the Divine Paragon was undefeated, as all demons feared him to some extent."

"Make them fear me, huh..." Yuan nodded with a serious expression.

"Here are a few examples of demons at each rank." Yan Hara gave him another manual, but there were mostly pictures on this manual.

"Lower Demons look pretty ordinary. Red skin and horns, and they are usually the size of an adult human. Elite Demons to Demon Generals would have special features, such as being larger than normal, having a third eye, having wings, and much more. However, Demon Emperors and above—they can actually lack demon characteristics."

"Huh? What do you mean by that?" Yuan asked.

"It means that they can appear more like humans than actual demons. There have been demons that did not have their signature red skin and horns. Some demons in the past even looked exactly like humans. Rumor has it that these demons still live amongst us humans even today."

Yuan was left speechless by this information. Demons that look exactly like humans? Then how are they supposed to tell the difference?

Yan Hara smiled and said, "I know what you're thinking, but the chance of that actually happening is very slim. Even if there are demons living amongst us, they won't do anything stupid to reveal themselves, and with the Demonic Realm sealed, they are powerless."

"Although humans were dominated by demons back then, things have changed. We're no longer as weak and vulnerable as our ancestors.. We have the knowledge and techniques to fight back against them if they ever dare to return."

Chapter 798 - Demon Sealing Pagoda

Chapter 798 – Demon Sealing Pagoda

"Thank you for the lecture, Senior. I learned a lot about demons today."
Yuan bowed to her at the end of their lecture.

"We're not done yet." Yan Hara suddenly said.

"Huh?" Yuan tilted his head in a questioning manner.

"Come with me. I'm going to make sure that you're fully prepared to fight the demons."

Yan Hara then brought Yuan to this tall pagoda.

"What is this place?" He asked her.

"Demon Sealing Pagoda. You will get to fight real demons inside... Well, sort of."

"What do you mean by that? They're either real demons or not..."

"They are demons created with spiritual energy, so they're not really real, but they act exactly like real demons, and even their power level is the same, so it'll be like fighting against real demons inside."

"This treasure was created by the Divine Paragon, and it was used to train the Demon Sealing Clan back in the days, but it requires a massive amount of spiritual energy to use, so we eventually stopped using it and started training with artificial demons, which is cheaper."

"Another reason we stopped using the treasure is because of its difficulty. Most demon sealers nowadays won't be able to pass the first floor, and there are nine total floors. For the record, I got all the way up to the fourth floor."

"And you want me to train in this pagoda? Are you sure? It's expensive to use, right?" Yuan looked at her.

"One of many perks of being a lecturer in this place is that we get to use the pagoda for free once every 10 years. Of course, it's not really free, since it'll be at the library's expense." Yan Hara smiled.

"What do you think? You wanna give it a go? Rumor has it that if you manage to defeat the tower, you'll get to acquire a legendary demon sealing technique that only the Divine Paragon knows."

"A legendary demon sealing technique?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

If that is true, he will be able to acquire this technique even without challenging the pagoda. After all, he was the Divine Paragon!

However, he still nodded his head, "Yes, I would like to challenge the tower."

In the end, he still needed practice. Even if he's the reincarnation of the Divine Paragon, it was not as though he has all of his previous memories and experiences.

"Alright, give me some time to prepare. I also need to let the library know that I will be using the pagoda."

"Okay."

About half an hour later, Yan Hara returned to the pagoda and said, "Whenever you're ready."

"I am ready."

Yan Hara then retrieved a golden key and used it to unlock the doors to the pagoda.

"You will get the rules once you are inside. The demons inside will be adjusted to match your power level, so you don't need to worry about being overwhelmed by a demon that you cannot defeat. However, this also means that you won't be able to dominate the demons like you normally do."

"I understand." Yuan nodded, and he opened the door.

The moment Yuan entered the pagoda, the door slammed shut, and the pagoda suddenly started trembling with excitement.

"W-What is going on? This has never happened before..." Yan Hara muttered in a dazed voice.

Suddenly, an outburst of demon sealing aura exploded from the Demon Sealing Pagoda, sweeping the Grand Library with a massive amount of demon sealing aura.

When the demon sealers within the Grand Library felt this ancient and unfathomable demon sealing aura, their bodies began trembling nonstop, almost as though it was reacting to the demon sealing aura.

"W-Whose demon sealing aura does this belong to?! I have never felt such a powerful demon sealing aura in my life!" The lecturers within the Grand Library were shocked speechless by this phenomenon.

The entire Grand Library became nervous when this unknown demon sealing aura filled the place. Their initial thought was that a peak demon sealer had appeared within the Grand Library, so they immediately began looking around for the source of this demon sealing aura.

Meanwhile, back at the Demon Sealing Pagoda, Yan Hara was staring at the top of the pagoda with a dazed look on her face for some reason.

"D-Divine Paragon...?" She muttered in a low voice.

After the powerful demon sealing aura exploded from the pagoda, she noticed a figure had suddenly appeared on top of the pagoda, causing her to look.

And to her absolute shock, there was a person hovering directly above the pagoda, and he looked awfully like Yuan, but he was much older and had this irresistible charm around him.

"I-Impossible... This must be an illusion caused by the Demon Sealing Pagoda, but why...?"

"D-Divine Paragon?! Is that really you?!" Yan Hara spoke to him after snapping out of her daze.

The Divine Paragon suddenly looked down at Yan Hara and showed her a gentle smile before looking down at the pagoda that was right beneath him with a profound expression on his face.

Yan Hara's heart nearly exploded into countless pieces from excitement when she saw the Divine Paragon's smile that was directed at her, and it felt like a dream.

Eventually, more people began appearing at the Demon Sealing Pagoda after tracking the demon sealing aura.

Of course, everyone that saw the Divine Paragon was shocked speechless at first.

"Y-Yan Hara! What's going on here?! Why is... Why is the Divine Paragon here?!" Tang Zheng asked her after he arrived.

"I-I have no idea. He suddenly showed up after Yuan entered the Demon Sealing Pagoda..." Yan Hara explained.

"Yuan?" Tang Zheng turned to look at the pagoda.

"What in heavens' name is happening?"

Meanwhile, inside the pagoda, Yuan was currently being told the rules of the pagoda.

Of course, the voice belonged to the Divine Paragon.

"Welcome to the Demon Sealing Pagoda, young demon sealer. I will now tell you the rules of this place.. If you break any of them, you'll automatically be casted out of this place."

Chapter 799 - Superior Demon

Chapter 799 – Superior Demon

"First rule, you must defeat the demon before you to challenge the next floor."

A demon suddenly appeared on the opposite side of the room.

Yuan's eyes widened with shock when he saw that it had a black crystal embedded within chest.

"A Superior Demon? Are you kidding me?" He muttered in a voice of disbelief.

"Second rule, you will have an hour to seal or kill the demon. Failure to do so will result in getting kicked out."

"Third rule, you cannot die while inside the Demon Sealing Pagoda. If you 'die' inside, you will be transported outside safely, but you will not be able to use the Demon Sealing Pagoda for 30 days."

"When you're prepared to start the challenge, say 'Ready' out loud."

Yuan closed his eyes and took a deep breath.

He then summoned the Empyrean Overlord and the Starry Abyss.

"Ready."

Whoosh!

The scenery suddenly changes, turning the place into an empty and spacious field.

Yuan looked around with a surprised face. Did he get teleported, or was this simply an illusion?

However, he didn't have much time to think, as the demon started attacking him the moment the scenery changed.

Yuan commanded the Starry Abyss to distract the demon, but to his surprise, the demon could sense the invisible Starry Abyss and dodge it perfectly.

'It's not only a Superior Demon, but it's also a Spirit King?! Is this demon really 'equal' to my strength?!' Yuan cried inwardly.

"Bloody Daggers!"

The demon suddenly summoned two crimson daggers using its blood, wielding it like some sort of edgy assassin.

Whoosh!

The demon kicked its legs and propelled forward like a bullet, shooting straight at Yuan at a ridiculous speed.

The demon closed their distance almost instantly, but Yuan was able to barely react and block the strike.

Boom!

Yuan was sent flying from the impact.

After quickly stabilizing himself, Yuan looked at his arms that were still shaking, and it felt like he'd been struck by a truck— as an ordinary human.

'This is freaking ridiculous... I need to focus on the fight, or I will not pass the first floor!'

Yuan quickly cleared his mind and focused on the demon with the obnoxious black crystal on its body.

"Haaa!"

The two of them clashed with each other shortly after, and every time their weapons collided, the world there would seemingly shake a little.

Boom! Bang! Clang!

They went at each other's throat like animals that have been starving for days, and Yuan used all of his techniques against the demon.

[Heavenly Domain!]

Holy pressure suddenly bore down on the demon, but it barely affected its movements if any at all.

Seeing that his Heavenly Domain didn't work on the demon, Yuan used Dragon's Gaze when the time was right.

[Dragon's Gaze!]

His eyes began emitting a golden glow that instantly stunned the demon.

However, he knew that it wouldn't keep the demon stunned for long, so he quickly used this moment to attack the demon with the Demon Sealing Strike.

Normally, he only needed to hit the demon once for it to be sealed, but Yuan didn't want to take any chances, so he continued to swing his sword until he could no longer swing it.

Yuan had managed to strike the demon 12 times with the Demon Sealing Strike before the demon snapped out of its daze, but by that time, half of its body was already petrified.

'Looks like I made the right decision by not stopping...' Yuan sighed inwardly when he saw that the demon was still only half sealed despite getting struck 12 times by his powerful demon sealing technique.

Compared to the Elite Demon, this Superior Demon was far stronger— it was simply in a league of its own, and it took Yuan all of his efforts just to defeat it.

"Congratulations, you have managed to pass the first floor in... 6 minutes. It's a new record." The Divine Paragon's voice resounded shortly after he sealed the demon, and Yuan was sent back to the pagoda.

"Here is your reward for clearing the first floor."

A golden orb of light suddenly emerged from the wall of the pagoda and floated towards Yuan.

Yuan extended his hands and accepted the golden orb of light.

The moment the light touched his palms, it entered his body and disappeared.

Yuan suddenly felt an outburst of spiritual energy within his Dantian, instantly raising his cultivation by two levels, reaching Fourth Level Spirit Lord.

Furthermore, all of his fatigue disappeared, and he felt completely refreshed.

"You may proceed onto the next floor whenever you're ready."

Yuan proceeded onto the second floor through the staircase at the corner of the room.

"Welcome to the second floor. You have one hour and thirty minutes to defeat the demon."

Another demon materialized in the pagoda, but there was something different about this demon.

The demon did not emit the power of a Spirit King. In fact, its cultivation had been lowered to Spirit Lord.

However, that was not the only change.

"This demon... It doesn't have a crystal on its body... This could only mean... Demon General..."

"The pagoda reduced its cultivation but increased its rank? It will most likely be as strong as the Superior Demon in terms of raw strength, but it will also have more techniques and tricks up its sleeves."

"When you're prepared to start the challenge, say 'Ready' out loud." The Divine Paragon's voice resounded.

"Ready!" Yuan shouted out loud once he prepared himself.

The scenery changed again. However, they were no longer in an empty field. Instead, they appeared to be on a platform inside a coliseum, and there were even spectators.

"Kill that demon!"

"Kill it!"

The crowd cheered with excitement, their voices filled with passion and anger, causing Yuan's heart to tremble.

Chapter 800 - Demon General

Chapter 800 – Demon General

"Kill it! Kill it! Kill it!"

The crowds' cheering was so loud that it shook the platform Yuan was standing on, and he swallowed nervously.

"What a rowdy bunch... Don't you agree, human?" A cold voice suddenly resounded.

Yuan turned to look at the demon that'd just spoken.

'They can speak? The last one remained silent for the whole fight...' Yuan thought to himself.

"Are you a mute or something?" The demon raised its eyebrows at Yuan when he didn't respond.

"If I wanted to have a conversation with a demon, I wouldn't be here."

"Fair enough." The demon smiled at Yuan's words.

Yuan suddenly felt a chill run down his spine, and he instinctively raised the Empyrean Overlord over his head.

The very next second, Yuan could feel something heavy slamming into his sword. It was so sudden that it actually brought Yuan to his knees.

"W-What the hell is going on?" Yuan was baffled by the situation.

He could still see the demon standing on the other side of the platform, and there was nothing in front or around him, so what is the demon using to attack him?

'If I cannot see it with my bare eyes, then I have to use my divine sense!'

Yuan quickly activated his divine sense, and sure enough, he could see a translucent claw on top of him.

'This is... Qi Manifestation!'

He immediately recognized what the demon was doing, but he was still surprised by it.

The demon was only a Spirit Lord just like him, but its Qi Manifestation was multiple times stronger than his own.

"Ha!"

Yuan eventually stood back up and swung his sword, destroying the demon's Qi Manifestation.

However, the moment Yuan destroyed the invisible claw, the demon summoned another one— then another.

Boom!

Yuan used his movement technique to dodge the claws.

'Demons basically have unlimited spiritual energy, so it will be able to continue attacking me until I run out of spiritual energy. I need to think of something...'

Yuan pondered for a strategy as he continued to dodge the demon's invisible attacks.

As for the Demon General, it was just standing at the edge of the platform with a calm smile on its face, clearly not planning on dirtying its own hand.

Suddenly, an outburst of demon sealing aura exploded from Yuan's body, creating a profound ripple that swept the platform.

When the ripple touched the Demon General's spiritual energy, it immediately dispersed like smoke.

"Not bad." The Demon General said.

"I am not finished!"

Yuan quickly gathered as much spiritual energy as he could within a second before releasing the Heaven Splitting Sword Strike at the demon.

When the Demon General saw the Heaven Splitting Sword Strike, its initial thought was to just block it with its body, since it could just recover.

However, it suddenly sensed a dreadful feeling coming from the Heaven Splitting Sword Strike, forcing it to move from its spot to dodge the strike.

The Heaven Splitting Sword Strike barely missed the Demon General and crashed into the spectators' area, killing thousands of spectators.

Of course, since this was just an illusion, the destroyed areas would restore itself, and the dead spectators would come back to life a few moments later.

After dodging the Heaven Spitting Sword Strike, the Demon General looked at Yuan with a look of surprise on its face.

"You... imbued your demon sealing aura into another technique? Are you really just a Spirit Lord?"

Right before he released the Heaven Splitting Sword Strike, Yuan infused some of his demon sealing aura into the technique, which essentially turned the Heaven Splitting Sword Strike into a demon sealing technique!

However, this is a technique that only high-ranking demon sealers learn and not something a mere Advance Demon Sealer could achieve.

'I-It actually worked?' Yuan was as surprised as the Demon General, as he was only testing his theory.

He figured that if demon sealing aura is what really harms demons, he could probably enhance his regular techniques with his demon sealing aura, making them demon sealing techniques. This could essentially turn any technique out there into a demon sealing technique.

However, Yuan was unaware that in order to achieve such a feat, one would normally have to train for hundreds of years and the reason he was able to do it was due to his past experience.

"Hahaha! Things are finally starting to get interesting! Entertain me some more, human!" The Demon General laughed in a chilling manner.

[Heavenly Domain!]

Yuan activated Heavenly Domain when the demon started running at him.

The Demon General's movement suddenly became sluggish, as Yuan had enhanced the Heavenly Domain with his demon sealing aura.

"Not bad! Not bad at all! However, you'll need much more than that if you want to defeat me, a Demon General!"

[Ten Thousand Ghost Blades!]

Yuan activated his newfound technique, cloning the Starry Abyss until there were a thousand of them.

The Demon General was at a loss for words when it was suddenly surrounded by a thousand daggers that looked identical to each other.

"Go!"

Yuan flicked his sleeves, commanding the thousand-strong army of Starry Abyss to rain down upon the Demon General.

Of course, these Starry Abyss had all been imbued with his demon sealing aura, so each of these daggers was akin to a demon sealing technique.

The Demon General wanted to run, but there was nowhere to run, so it could only defend the attack head-on.

The Demon General used its Qi Manifestation and body to deflect the Starry Abyss.

Although it managed to destroy a few dozen Starry Abyss, the Demon General eventually became overwhelmed, especially since Yuan could always make more.

"AAAAAH!"

The Demon General released a deafening roar when it realized that it could not defeat Yuan's thousand Starry Abyss, and the very next moment, a thousand holes opened up in the Demon General's body, looking like a porcupine with a thousand daggers stabbed into its body.

"Congratulations, you have managed to pass the second floor in... 13 minutes. It's a new record.." The Divine Paragon's voice resounded a moment later.

Chapter 801

Chapter 801 – Quick Breakthroughs

"Here is your reward for clearing the second stage."

The golden orb of light returned, and Yuan quickly absorbed the spiritual energy from it.

His cultivation immediately had a breakthrough, reaching the Seventh Level Spirit Lord from the Fourth Level Spirit Lord.

'I'm already at the Seventh Level of Spirit Lord after passing two floors, and there are still 7 more floors to go... This place is extremely good for raising one's cultivation base very quickly.' Yuan wondered what his cultivation level would be at the end of all this.

Sometime later, Yuan climbed to the third floor.

"Welcome to the third floor. You have one hour to defeat the demons." The Divine Paragon's voice resounded.

"Wait... Demons?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

Suddenly, two figures appeared before him. Of course, they were demons, and they were both Demon Generals with a cultivation of Spirit Lord.

"Heavens... I have to fight two of them at once now?" Yuan swallowed nervously.

"When you're prepared to start the challenge, say 'Ready' out loud." The Divine Paragon's voice resounded again.

Yuan didn't immediately start the challenge and took a moment to mentally prepare himself.

This will be his first time fighting two demons at once by himself.

After taking a deep breath, he spoke, "Ready!"

The very next moment, the two Demon Generals rushed at Yuan, attacking him from two different directions.

[Ten Thousand Ghost Blades!]

Yuan summoned one thousand copies of his Starry Abyss and used those to deal with one of the demons while he personally fought the other demon with the Emyrean Overlord.

One would expect Yuan to dominate these demons because of his increased cultivation, but the pagoda increased the strength of the demon to match his strength, so it was just as difficult.

Fortunately, Yuan had learned how to infuse his demon sealing aura with his ordinary techniques, allowing him to fight the demons with more ease.

Even though the demons match his strength, that doesn't necessarily mean they're equal, as one's technique and treasures can easily affect the balance.

Of course, the Demon Sealing Pagoda also took into account his treasures and techniques, but there is only so much it can gauge, and when it comes to an unfathomable genius like Yuan, not even it could fully measure his full potential.

[Demon Sealing Sword Strike!]

Yuan swung the Emyrean Overlord at the demon, but it easily blocked it with its weapon made out of blood.

After blocking the attack, the demon tossed the weapon away since it would be sealed by the demon sealing aura.

As for the other demon, it was slowly getting sealed by the Starry Abyss.

Although each of the Starry Abyss lacked the demon sealing aura to seal a demon with one strike, they could easily strike the demon multiple times before it could even react, slowly sealing it.

After thirty minutes of fighting back and forth, Yuan eventually managed to seal one of the demons.

"A mere human! How dare you!"

The demon roared, and its body began burning red, almost as though its blood had turned to lava. Its body also grew larger, but not by much.

BOOM!

The demon suddenly disappeared from its position, appearing in front of Yuan before throwing a powerful punch at him.

This time, Yuan was unable to react fast enough, and he was hit square in the chest by the demon.

Whoosh!

Yuan's body flew backward like a broken ragdoll, landing many meters away.

'Shit... Even with all of my defenses, it still hurts like hell!' He cried inwardly as he quickly stood back up.

If it weren't for the Invisible Dragon Cloak that doubled his defense stats, his body would've probably exploded into a bloody mess.

Furthermore, even though the demon was only a Spirit Lord, it'd managed to penetrate the Invisible Dragon Cloak's defense that blocks all damage from those below Spirit King. Though, this is most likely because the Demon General's true strength far surpasses a Spirit King, allowing it to bypass the armor's effects.

"I am impressed that you survived, human. What is your body made out of? Treasures?" The Demon General slowly approached him with a malicious grin on its face.

After standing back up, Yuan spat out some blood, but his expression remained unfazed.

[Ten Thousand Ghost Blades!]

Yuan activated his most powerful technique again, sending 1,000 Starry Abyss at the Demon General.

However, the Demon General merely stood there and allowed the daggers to hit its body.

'What?!' Yuan exclaimed inwardly when the daggers shattered on impact while the Demon General appeared to be completely fine.

The Demon General, without even looking at its body, smiled and said, "You'll need to do better than that if you want to penetrate my defense."

Yuan frowned as he could feel a sense of dread from this Demon General that was clearly stronger than the other Demon General.

"Come, entertain me some more, human!"

The Demon General continued to approach Yuan.

Seeing this, Yuan commanded the rest of the Starry Abyss to attack the Demon General even if it might seem pointless.

"It's useless! Hahaha!" The Demon General roared with laughter.

Yuan tried to focus all of the Starry Abyss on a single location, hoping that he'd slowly break through the Demon General's defense, but it was useless.

The Demon General suddenly leaped forward and swung its blood weapon, clashing with Yuan's Empyrean Overlord.

"Give up! You're just a mere human! Humans are born to serve demons! There is no way humans can ever defeat demons!" The Demon General provoked Yuan as they swung their weapons at each other, causing the surrounding space to shake with every swing.

"If that was true, you demons wouldn't be facing extinction right now!" Yuan clapped back at the demon, leaving it speechless for a moment.

Chapter 802

Chapter 802 – Assistance

"Thirty minutes left." The Divine Paragon's voice resounded once Yuan used up half of his time on the third floor.

"Haaa... haaa..." Yuan breathed heavily, his body covered in sweat.

This is the first time that anyone has been able to compete against him so perfectly.

No matter what he did, the Demon General would always have a response to it.

It was at this moment Feng Yuxiang's voice resounded, "Young Master, would you like some assistance?"

"Huh?" Yuan responded in a dumbfounded voice as he continued to block the Demon General's attacks.

He was so absorbed in his situation that he'd completely forgotten about their existence!

"What do you mean by help?"

"Well... I am your servant... If you wish, I can help you fight this demon. Of course, I won't be able to defeat it for you since I do not have the capability, but I can definitely stall it for you."

"Can you even do that? Won't that be cheating?" Yuan asked.

"Young Master, do you truly know the relationship between a servant and master? You, Young Master, own our body and soul the moment we sign the servant contract. In other words, we are your possession. Therefore, we are no different than the Soul Weapons that you have been using this entire time."

"What?!" Yuan was left speechless by this information.

This entire time, he could've had his servants help him?

"I-If that's the case, why couldn't you help me during the Stairway to Heaven?"

"The Stairway to Heaven is a special place with special rules. This pagoda, however, doesn't appear to have such rules. There are no forces that prevents me from helping you— at least I don't feel them. And the fact that we were allowed to enter this place with you only further confirms it."

After pondering for a moment, Yuan said, "Please help me distract the demon while I prepare for my attack!"

The next second, Feng Yuxiang came out of his body and flicked her sleeves, instantly engulfing the Demon General in flames.

However, she was not the only one who appeared, as Xiao Hua also decided to show up. She clearly didn't want Feng Yuxiang to get all of the spotlight.

"Xiao Hua will help Brother Yuan as well," she said.

"O-Okay..." Yuan nodded.

"Sorry, Yuan, but I most likely won't be of any help even if I come out." Lan Yingying said to him.

She was only a Spirit Grandmaster, so she will most likely only hinder them instead of helping.

"It's okay, Yingying. We got this."

"Hahaha! What a surprise! This flame— Phoenix's flame! I have never tasted Phoenix blood before!" The Demon General laughed out loud even as its body was still engulfed in flames.

"Distract it for me, I will prepare the Heaven Splitting Sword Strike." Yuan said to them.

"Understood!"

Feng Yuxiang's black hair suddenly turned red, and her eyes glowed golden.

Meanwhile, Xiao Hua's cultivation base exploded forward.

'This is my first time seeing Xiao Hua use all of her strength...' Yuan thought to himself as Xiao Hua summoned a huge sword.

Even though she couldn't use Sword Qi, she could still wield the sword better than many Swordmasters.

While the Demon General was still covered in flames, Xiao Hua kicked her small feet and flew towards the demon without hesitation before swinging her sword, sending a massive sword light made out of spiritual energy at the demon.

Whoosh!

The sword light shattered the moment it struck the demon, but the demon wasn't unscathed either, as it clearly sustained some damage.

However, Xiao Hua didn't stop there and released a quick Heaven Splitting Sword Strike at the demon.

The ground shook as a massive beam of light swallowed the demon.

Although Yuan is stronger than Xiao Hua overall, he actually lagged behind Xiao Hua in terms of techniques, especially when it came to the Heaven Splitting Sword Strike.

The Heaven Splitting Sword Strike managed to destroy half of the Demon General, but it quickly began recovering.

It was at this moment that Feng Yuxiang released her technique.

"Burn in hell!"

With the flick of her sleeves, Feng Yuxiang summoned a large Phoenix created from her flames, sending it flying at the demon.

The heat from the flames were so intense that it slowed the demon's recovery, as the flames would quickly destroy the demon almost as quickly as it healed.

"I am ready!"

It was at this moment that Yuan started swinging the Empyrean Overlord.

When Xiao Hua and Feng Yuxiang heard his voice, they returned to his body.

The following second, Yuan released his Heavenly Splitting Sword Strike.

Whoosh!

Everything in front of Yuan was immediately erased from existence—including the Demon General.

"Congratulations, you have passed the third floor... in 38 minutes." The Divine Paragon's voice resounded shortly after.

"Thank you, Feng Feng and Xiao Hua. I might not have defeated the Demon General by myself if you didn't help." Yuan said to them afterward.

"Young Master, we are your weapons and shield. You don't thank your weapons every time you use them, right?"

Yuan smiled, "Maybe I should. And don't lower yourself like that. You may be my servants, but you're also my valuable companions. I would never treat you like a tool."

Sometime later, the golden orb appeared before Yuan, allowing him to absorb all of its spiritual energy.

Ding!

"Ninth Level... I will be able to enter Spirit King once I pass the next floor..." Yuan mumbled to himself.

It's only been an hour since he entered the Demon Sealing Pagoda and he's already increased his cultivation by almost an entire realm.

He could only imagine how far his cultivation base will go after he finishes all nine floors!

However, with the increase in difficulty after every floor, he was a little worried about the future floors.

Chapter 803 - Experiencing Death

After clearing the third floor, Yuan proceeded to make his way to the fourth floor of the Demon Sealing Pagoda.

'I had to fight two demons at once on the last floor. Will I need to fight three at once this time?' He wondered to himself as he walked the staircase.

Upon entering the fourth floor, Yuan waited for the Divine Paragon's voice to resound.

"Welcome to the fourth floor. You have fifteen minutes to defeat the demon." The Divine Paragon's voice resounded a moment later.

"Only fifteen minutes?" Yuan exclaimed. He did not expect such drastic changes, going from having an hour to defeat the demon to just fifteen minutes.

However, he wasn't that worried, especially since he knows that he can rely on Xiao Hua and Feng Yuxiang.

The scenery suddenly changed from inside the pagoda to this hell-like scenery, where he was surrounded by lava. It looked like he was inside some kind of volcano, but he's never been to such a place before, so he wasn't certain.

One thing that he is certain about is that it was immensely hot in that place with hot air blowing in his face constantly, almost like he was inside an oven.

While Yuan looked around for the demon, he suddenly noticed a figure emerging from the lava.

This demon had an appearance that Yuan hadn't seen before. Instead of its usual red skin, it had grayish skin this time, and it had a broken horn in its forehead that looked as though it'd been cleanly sliced by a sword.

As for its crystal... Of course, it didn't have one.

"When you're prepared to start the challenge, say 'Ready' out loud." The Divine Paragon's voice resounded when the demon stepped onto the platform.

However, before Yuan could even speak, the demon opened its mouth and spoke in a calm but indifferent voice, "You're not worthy."

Yuan frowned, but not because of the demon's arrogance. There was something about this demon that sent shivers down his back, and his instincts were telling him to avoid it at all cost.

But he couldn't just give up without fighting it. He had to at least try.

'I will be fine with Xiao Hua and Feng Feng by my side.' Yuan calmed himself down with such words.

The next moment, he summoned both of them before him.

"Young Master, I am getting a dangerous feeling from that demon." Feng Yuxiang said to him the moment she appeared.

Xiao Hua agreed with Feng Yuxiang by nodding her head.

"We got this." Yuan said.

Once they were prepared, Yuan spoke out loud, "Ready!"

The instant he uttered that word, the demon disappeared from its location before any of them could even make their move.

"YOUNG MASTER!"

"BROTHER YUAN! WATCH OUT!"

Both Feng Yuxiang and Xiao Hua suddenly shouted out loud at the same time, their voices filled with despair.

However, Yuan couldn't understand why they screamed— at least not until he felt pain in his body.

Yuan looked down at his body, and to his absolute surprise, there was an arm sticking out of his body.

He turned around to see the demon standing behind him with its arm extended through his body.

'How the...'

"I told you. You're not worthy."

The demon mumbled in a low voice before releasing a massive amount of spiritual energy into Yuan's body, causing his body to explode into countless pieces.

When Xiao Hua and Feng Yuxiang witnessed this scene— the scene of Yuan's death, their eyes widened with shock.

"How dare you kill Brother Yuan!"

Xiao Hua suddenly roared, and an outburst of spiritual energy that surpassed the demon's aura erupted from her petite body. Her figure also grew a little taller— at least that was what Feng Yuxiang thought she saw before everything went black for both Xiao Hua and Feng Yuxiang.

Their vision returned almost instantly, and when it did, they realized that they were no longer inside the pagoda but outside, and Yuan was standing before them with a dazed expression on his face, almost as though his death never happened.

"B-Brother Yuan!" Xiao Hua immediately went to embrace him.

"Xiao Hua? What happened? I thought I died just now..." Yuan snapped out of his daze when he felt Xiao Hua arms wrapped around his waist.

"That's because you didn't actually die." Yan Hara's voice suddenly resounded.

Yuan turned to look at her, and to his surprise, a crowd of people that wasn't there before he entered the pagoda was there now.

"When you die inside the Demon Sealing Pagoda, you will simply be transported out of the pagoda." She continued.

After hearing her words, Yuan recalled one of the rules that mentioned it.

"I see... So I lost— died to that demon..." Yuan mumbled in a dispirited voice.

"What floor did you die on?" Yan Hara then asked.

"I died on the fourth floor by the hands of that weird-looking demon with gray skin." Yuan explained to her.

"It was so sudden. I couldn't even see its movements, and when I was aware of the situation, I was already dead."

"T-The fourth floor?" Yan Hara mumbled in a voice of disbelief.

Yuan had only been in the Demon Sealing Pagoda for an hour, and he'd managed to reach the fourth floor? Even more unbelievable was that he'd actually reached the fourth floor on his first attempt, something that hasn't been done since ancient times.

In fact, it took Yan Hara multiple attempts throughout the span of 1,000 years to reach the fourth floor!

"Just what in heaven's name was that gray demon? I have never encountered a demon like that one before." Yuan suddenly asked.

Yan Hara sighed, "That demon is a Demon Emperor— sort of."

"What do you mean 'sort of'?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"I will tell you later. For now, let's leave this place and go somewhere more private. As you can see, it's a little crowded here."

Yuan nodded.

"By the way, who are those two? They appeared at the same time you left the pagoda, but I didn't see them enter with you." Yan Hara pointed at Feng Yuxiang and Xiao Hua, who was still hugging Yuan.

"They are my companions... I will explain later.." Yuan said with a smile.

Chapter 804 - Demon On The Fourth Floor

"W-Wait!" Someone there stopped Yuan from leaving with Yan Hara.

Yuan turned around to see a middle-aged man that he did not recognize, and he asked, "What is it?"

"Did anything unusual happen in the Demon Sealing Pagoda while you were inside?" The middle-aged man asked.

"Unusual?" Yuan raised his eyebrows. "How unusual? That was my first time entering the Demon Sealing Pagoda, so I can't tell you if anything is out of the ordinary even if it happened."

"If you don't mind, can you give us a brief explanation on your experience inside the pagoda?" The middle-aged man continued to ask.

"Can I ask why you want to know?"

The middle-aged man then said, "Because the Divine Paragon showed up when you entered the Demon Sealing Pagoda! That has never happened before!"

"What? The Divine Paragon showed up?" Yuan was shocked to hear this.

He should be the Divine Paragon, so how did someone who is supposed to be dead and reincarnated show up?

"W-Well... Not the real Divine Paragon, but an illusion of him... He showed up after you entered the pagoda, even releasing this unfathomable demon sealing aura. However, he disappeared after a few minutes, and only a handful of people were able to witness it."

"I see... So that's what happened. Unfortunately, I didn't see the Divine Paragon inside, but I did hear his voice. This is what happened inside—"

Yuan proceeded to give a brief recollection of his experience within the pagoda to the people there.

After hearing Yuan's story, the people there no longer questioned him, as they did not find anything unusual with his experience inside the Demon Sealing Pagoda.

"Can I go now?" Yuan asked.

"Y-Yes. Sorry for bothering you, little founder." The middle-aged man bowed to him in a respectful manner.

Although slowly, the people within the Demon Sealing Clan's Grand Library were beginning to treat Yuan differently.

Perhaps it was due to his uncanny resemblance to the Divine Paragon, or maybe they were just convinced by his overwhelming talents, these people were beginning to see Yuan as a potential leader of the Demon Sealing Clan in the future.

Sometime later, Yuan followed Yan Hara to her personal living quarters. All official lecturers are granted residency within the Grand Library.

"Are you okay? You seem off." Yan Hara asked him once they sat down.

Yuan showed a bittersweet smile before speaking, "I experienced my first death today. Even though it wasn't real, it felt real, and the fact that I had been killed by a demon is also real. I... I have overestimated myself today and put my companions' lives at risk."

"Fortunately, the demon wasn't real. If we had been facing a real demon outside the pagoda, I would've not only gotten myself killed but my companions as well, and the thought of this really bothers me..."

"Brother Yuan..." Xiao Hua, who was still sticking to his body like a slug, mumbled in a low voice.

Clearly, she was also affected by Yuan's death. Not only did she fail to protect him, but he also died right before her eyes.

"Xiao Hua promised to protect Brother Yuan, but..." She sighed with teary eyes.

This is the first time that Yuan has seen Xiao Hua cry with such emotions, and it made his heart sting.

"If we're all going to blame ourselves, then I blame myself for not being able to protect you, Young Master." Feng Yuxiang sighed as well.

Seeing their depressed state and sensing the gloomy atmosphere, Yan Hara spoke out loud, "There's no need to blame yourself— all of you. You were up against a Demon Emperor, after all. Let me tell you something. Ever since the disappearance of the Divine Paragon and the decline of the Demon Sealing Clan, nobody has been able to pass the fourth floor of the Demon Sealing Pagoda, and only a handful of demon sealers were able to pass the third floor."

Yuan looked at her and asked, "You said that it was 'sort of' a Demon Emperor before."

"Ah, that's because the gray-skin demon isn't truly a Demon Emperor, but it's so much more powerful than a Demon General that we cannot call it a mere Demon General. However, a real Demon Emperor is even more fearsome than the demon on the fourth floor."

"It's something like a Cultivator who is half a step away from entering the next realm. It's at a level that far surpasses anything at the same rank, yet it's not truly at the next rank." Yan Hara explained.

"I see... That makes a lot of sense. But for it to be that powerful when it's not even a true Demon Emperor... It makes me wonder about the real strength of a true Demon Emperor." Yuan sighed.

"Trust me, you don't want to find out." Yan Hara smiled.

Sometime later, Yan Hara focused her gaze on Xiao Hua and Feng Yuxiang, "By the way... Can you explain who they are... and why the little one is emitting the aura of an Exile?"

Yuan's body shook when he heard Yan Hara's words. It was also at this moment that he recalled Senior Bai's words— that those from the upper heavens would recognize Xiao Hua to be an exile and that Exiles are hunted in the upper heavens.

"W-Wait! I can explain! Xiao Hua isn't a bad exile!" Yuan immediately became defensive.

Yan Hara smiled when she saw this, and she said, "Calm down. Although I am not someone who favors exiles, I am also not someone who would hunt them on sight. Honestly, I couldn't care less."

"W-While that may be true, what about all those people at the Demon Sealing Pagoda? If you can tell that she's an exile, they should also know!" Yuan said.

"Trust me, if they noticed, you wouldn't have been able to leave in one piece. Her exile aura is really weak right now for some reason, and I didn't notice it until we sat down," she explained.

Yuan finally calmed down a little after hearing such words.

"Thankfully, Senior Yan isn't an unreasonable person..." He sighed inwardly.

Chapter 805 - Not Human

"She is Xiao Hua, and this one over here is Feng Yuxiang." Yuan pointed at them and introduced them to Yan Hara.

"Although they're my servants, I prefer to call them my companions."

Yan Hara raised her eyebrows and asked, "Normal servants wouldn't be able to enter the Demon Sealing Pagoda with you, so they must have signed a contract that binds their soul with your soul. In other words, they are no different than the Soul Weapons that you carry around with you in your body."

"That is correct. We are more than just 'servants'. We are his most loyal servants— his weapon and shield." Feng Yuxiang said in a prideful voice.

"I see... And since she's an exile, you must be participating in the Supreme Heaven's Legacy. How troublesome..." Yan Hara sighed.

And she continued, "You do know what it means to accept the Supreme Heaven's Legacy or the consequences of siding with an exile, right?"

"I do." Yuan immediately nodded with a serious face.

"If others from the Demon Sealing Clan or the Demon Sealing Grotto learn that you're helping an exile, it will become immensely more difficult for you to become the next leader, and there's a good chance that you could even get kicked out of the clan..." Yan Hara sighed.

"If you're asking me to choose between the Demon Sealing Clan or Xiao Hua, I would choose the latter without any hesitation." Yuan quickly said with a resolute face.

"Let's not get ahead of yourself..." A bittersweet smile appeared on Yan Hara's face.

"You might not care about the Demon Sealing Clan, but as your lecturer, I truly want you to become the next leader of the Demon Sealing Clan, and after what happened at the Demon Sealing Pagoda today, I believe that the Divine Paragon also saw something special within you, hence why he appeared when you entered the pagoda."

"Once the higher ups learn of what happened today, they will definitely start paying more attention to you, and they might even outright approach you, so I suggest you keep your little friend hidden for as long as you're inside the Grand Library."

"I will keep that in mind." Yuan nodded.

"You should also keep in mind that even if she is hidden in your body, there are people out there that can still see her. If you truly want to keep her safe, you'll need a treasure that blocks all probing, but in order to acquire a treasure powerful enough to block even the most powerful cultivators... it won't be easy."

"I would help you, but I do not have the capabilities to acquire such a powerful treasure."

"It's okay, I will figure something out. Thank you, Senior, for your help." Yuan said to her.

"I am your lecturer—I am supposed to help you, even if the subject is a little... unethical..." Yan Hara smiled.

And she continued while looking directly at Xiao Hua, "By the way, you should probably go back. Your exile aura... It's getting stronger."

However, Xiao Hua immediately refused by shaking her head, and her grasp on Yuan tightened.

Seeing this, Yuan patted her head and said, "It's okay, Xiao Hua. I am safe in this place. What happened in the Demon Sealing Pagoda was due to my carelessness. It won't happen again."

"Damn right you are safe in this place! Who would dare to touch you, who has the face of the Divine Paragon, in this place filled with his admirers and fanatics? That would be a crime punishable by death!" Yan Hara added.

After a moment of silence, Xiao Hua nodded her head and reluctantly returned inside Yuan's body.

As for Feng Yuxiang, she decided to stay outside for a little longer since she wasn't worried about getting hunted.

Yan Hara's attention turned to look at Feng Yuxiang now that Xiao Hua's presence was gone, and she asked, "You have a unique aura around you. It's like you're human but also not at the same time. What are you?"

In response to Yan Hara's question, Feng Yuxiang changed her hair to red and her eyes to golden.

Yan Hara's eyes widened with shock when she realized what she was looking at.

"Y-You're a phoenix?" Yan Hara muttered in a voice of disbelief.

"Is there a problem with that?" Feng Yuxiang said.

Yan Hara swallowed nervously and said, "Phoenixes are some of the most prideful creatures roaming in the Nine Heavens alongside dragons. I cannot imagine a creature like that would be willing to become a human's servant — binded through your souls, much less."

Feng Yuxiang coldly snorted and said, "I am not just the servant of any 'human'. The Young Master is special. I wouldn't even categorize him as human. He's different from the rest of you humans."

Yuan raised his eyebrows and said, "You don't see me as human?"

"I-I don't mean it like that... You're human... but above a human at the same time— like a celestial being." Feng Yuxiang tried to explain herself.

Yan Hara couldn't help but let out a chuckle after hearing Feng Yuxiang's words, and she said, "You know, according to some ancient document, after the Divine Paragon conquered the Demonic Realm, there were countless Divine Beasts that would offer themselves to serve him. And yes, this included phoenixes and even dragons. You're truly resembling the Divine Paragon more and more now, Yuan."

"The Divine Paragon was truly someone special. He was a human like the rest of us, but there was something about him that made him stand out from the rest of us— at least this is what some people during his era said."

Sometime later, Yan Hara asked Yuan, "Do you have any questions for me?"

He nodded and spoke, "I want to challenge the demon on the fourth floor again, and I want to defeat it. Can you help me?"

Yan Hara then said, "If you want to challenge the pagoda again, you'll have to wait 30 days, and we'll have to pay for the resources by ourselves this time."

"I am fine with that." Yuan said.

"Then let me ask you another question— what do you think you need to defeat the demon?" She asked him.

Chapter 806 - Demon Sealing Groups

"Well... I'm one level away from reaching Spirit King. If I reach Spirit King, perhaps I can..."

However, Yan Hara immediately scoffed at his response, "Increasing your cultivation will only help you slightly. In fact, it's the last thing you should worry about in the Demon Sealing Pagoda."

"Did you already forget? The Demon Sealing Pagoda scales to your cultivation strength, so if you grow stronger, so do the demons."

After being reminded of this fact, Yuan frowned and asked, "Then what am I supposed to do?"

Yan Hara smiled and said, "Everything else."

"The Demon Sealing Pagoda takes into account your cultivation and your talents to a certain extent. However, your experience and techniques do not affect the pagoda. If you want to defeat the demon on the fourth floor and beyond, you'll need to increase your experience and improve on your techniques. Oh, your demon sealing aura will play a huge role as well."

"Experience... So I just need to fight more demons?"

"Not just fight demons. You need to fight demons much stronger than yourself. I'm sure you can kill a thousand Lower Demons at your level with ease, but that won't help you defeat a Demon Emperor. If you want to improve, you need to push yourself to your limits."

"Pushing the Young Master to his limits... It won't be easy." Feng Yuxiang said.

Yan Hara smiled and said, "I know, that's why I will personally train you. I may not be the strongest cultivator out there, but I am more than enough to show you true despair. Meet me at the Grand Library next week after the tournament."

"Tournament?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"Oh, right. I was going to tell you about it, but the situation with the Demon Sealing Pagoda had distracted me."

Yan Hara then continued, "In three days, there will be a tournament for Master Demon Sealers such as myself, and I want you to be there to witness it. You might learn a thing or two about fighting demons."

Yuan nodded, "I will be there. Where is it?"

"It will be located at the Demon Sealing Clan's Grand Coliseum. You won't be able to get there by yourself, so you'll need to be invited."

Yan Hara retrieved a red medallion and handed it to him afterward.

"This will take you to the location. Activate it with your spiritual energy. However, I should warn you that it would be for the best if you don't bring the exile with you, as there will be many powerful cultivators in that place."

"I understand..."

"Anyways, do you have any more questions for me?"

Yuan pondered for a moment before asking, "You told me to strengthen my demon sealing aura, but how does that work? Do I just need to learn as many demon sealing techniques as possible?"

Yan Hara nodded, and she spoke, "Not just learn them— you need to understand and fully master them."

"But how can I comprehend a technique that I cannot use? For example, I use the sword mostly, but there are demon sealing techniques for the bow and many other weapons that I have never used before."

"You don't need to use a technique to master it. The most important thing when it comes to mastering a technique is comprehension. Of course, it would be much easier to comprehend something you understand, but it's not impossible to comprehend something you don't understand at first. It'll just take you much longer."

"As for using the technique... It would also help you to master a technique much quicker if you practice with it everyday than someone who only reads the technique."

Yuan then asked, "The fastest method to master a technique is to use it constantly, right?"

"Yes." Yan Hara nodded.

And she continued, "In the Grand Library, there is an area that will let you practice your techniques as many times as you want, and there is even a formation in that place that increases your spiritual energy regeneration, allowing you to recover faster and practice more. However, that place is only accessible by Elite Demon Sealers and above."

"Elite Demon Sealer... How far away is it from an Advanced Demon Sealer?"

"It's literally your next rank." Yan Hara chuckled.

"Oh... Then can I take the examination right away?"

"Well... You'll need at least three Master Demon Sealers to witness the examination, but most of them are busy preparing for the tournament, so you'll have to wait until the tournament is over."

"If you want to start practicing now, there is an open area that is accessible by all demon sealers. You can practice there, but you are limited to what techniques you can use— mostly the destructive ones."

"What about the Demon Sealing Strike?"

"That is fine."

"Okay, then I want to start my training as soon as possible."

"Alright, follow me."

Before Yuan followed Yan Hara outside, Feng Yuxiang turned into a ball of flame and entered Yuan's body.

Sometime later, they arrived at this spacious area where it was simply an open area where people could be seen practicing their techniques out in the open.

"Although this place is meant for demon sealers to practice their demon sealing techniques, it is also a place where demon sealers show off their talents and hope to be recruited into a group."

"What kind of group?" Yuan asked.

"There are many small groups within the Demon Sealing Clan and the Demon Sealing Grotto. Most of these groups consist of four to five demon sealers, and they operate as a team to hunt demons. This is great for newcomers and even veteran demon sealers, as popular groups receive more attention and support by the upper echelons."

"And just for the record, I do not belong to any group, mostly because I like to operate alone." Yan Hara said.

"I see..."

"Anyways, you can practice here for as long as you like. Just make sure you don't forget about the tournament. If you don't show up and I lose, I will blame it on you." Yan Hara said to him a moment later.

"Don't worry, I will definitely be there." Yuan said.

Yan Hara left the scene shortly after while Yuan found an empty spot in the area and began practicing the Demon Sealing Strike by using it repeatedly, almost as though he'd become a robot with a single purpose.

Chapter 807 - Wrong Decision

[Demon Sealing Strike!]

Yuan swung the Empyrean Overlord with all of his might in the empty air before him, sweeping the area in front with an invisible ripple of demon sealing aura.

After that, he pulled the sword back and went for another strike, and he would continue this for two whole hours until someone approached him.

"You're not doing it right."

Yuan stopped swinging the sword and turned to look at the handsome man standing beside him.

"Senior Wan..."

It was Wan Yu, the lecturer that guided him around the Grand Library on his first day.

"Something came up, so I had to leave this place for a bit. Looks like a lot has happened since then." Wan Yu said with a smile on his face.

"I cannot believe that I didn't notice it when I first met you, but you truly look like the founder. I also heard that you'd decided to join the Demon Sealing Clan. Can I ask why you chose them instead of the Demon Sealing Grotto?"

"Sorry, but there is just something about the Demon Sealing Clan that makes me feel... at home... And it feels like it was only natural for me to join them."

"I see... You don't have to apologize. You're not wrong for choosing one over the other... I mean, it might have been the wrong decision, but you did nothing wrong. I understand why you feel the need to join the Demon Sealing Clan. I was once in your shoes, but as I spent more time with them, I realized that the Demon Sealing Clan is no longer the brilliance it once was."

"Without the Divine Paragon, the Demon Sealing Clan is just another power — one of countless powers out there. You will realize that soon, and when you do, you know where to find me. I won't give up on you just because you joined them."

Wan Yu then pointed at the Empyrean Overlord and said, "If your technique doesn't improve after every swing, you're doing something wrong. Don't just swing the sword. You need to understand and comprehend the technique, or your technique will remain the same even a thousand swings later."

"T-Thank you for the advice, Senior." Yuan said to him.

"We may belong to different powers, but I am still an official lecturer here. Regardless if you are from the Demon Sealing Clan or the Demon Sealing Grotto, I have a responsibility to guide you properly."

"Anyways, good luck. Ah, good work at the Demon Sealing Pagoda. I heard you managed to reach the fourth floor on your first attempt." Wan Yu said to Yuan before leaving the place.

After Yuan was alone again, Feng Yuxiang's voice resounded, "That man is right, Young Master. You shouldn't swing your sword just for the sake of swinging it. You must try to understand the technique and improve it as you swing it."

"Close your eyes and swing the sword. Try to feel it. Once you can feel it, you can start understanding it."

Yuan nodded and closed his eyes.

After taking a deep but calm breath, he released the Demon Sealing Strike.

'I see... It really feels different than swinging it casually.' Yuan thought to himself.

"Now try to see if you can improve the technique before you swing it again." Feng Yuxiang said.

Yuan nodded.

A few minutes later, Yuan moved again, swinging the Empyrean Overlord.

Although it was only slightly, Feng Yuxiang noticed slight improvement in his movements.

"That's perfect, Young Master. You're improving."

"Thank you, Feng Feng. I think I know what to do now."

Yuan said to her, and he continued to practice the Demon Sealing Strike.

While Yuan practiced his technique, Feng Yuxiang spoke to Xiao Hua using spiritual sense.

"Hey, Xiao Hua, I have been dying to ask you... When we were inside the Demon Sealing Pagoda, I thought I saw you growing taller... What was that about?"

"What are you talking about, Phoenix?" Xiao Hua responded in a puzzled voice.

"You know... When the Young Master died before us... You got angry, and I swear I noticed you growing taller..."

"You must have been seeing things. Xiao Hua has no idea what you're talking about." Xiao Hua responded in a genuinely puzzled voice.

"Probably..." Feng Yuxiang also began to believe that she was just seeing things because of her shock at the time.

A few hours later, Yuan manages to increase the Demon Sealing Strike's Master Level to 2.

<Your comprehension for Demon Sealing Strike has improved significantly through training>

<Your comprehension for Demon Sealing Strike has reached a new level>

<Demon Sealing Strike Master Level (1) → (2)>

[Demon Sealing Strike]

[Rank: Heaven]

[Mastery Level: 2]

However, Yuan didn't stop his training even after his Demon Sealing Strike reached a new level. In fact, he continued training even harder.

He would swing the Empyrean Overlord for the entire day until his arms were sore and his body was soaked in sweat.

When the other demon sealers at the scene saw how hard he was training, their motivation also grew, allowing them to train harder.

At the end of the day, Yuan's Demon Sealing Strike reached Master Level 3, and his demon sealing aura also saw significant growth.

"I will see you guys tomorrow." Yuan said goodbye to his companions before logging off the game.

After logging off, Yuan got off the bed and made his way to the training field behind the mansion to continue his training.

Of course, there were already people training in the field way before his arrival.

"Hey, Yuan. How was your day?" Wang Ming asked him.

"It was a difficult day for me. One filled with disappointment." Yuan responded with a bittersweet smile.

"You want to talk about it?" Wang Ming did not expect such a response from him and asked.

Yuan chuckled, "Don't worry, I already have it all sorted out with my lecturer."

"Lecturer?"

"I will introduce you guys to her in the future. She's an experienced demon sealer in Cultivation Online."

"By the way, how's your progress with the demon sealing technique?" Yuan asked.

"My progress with the Demon Sealing Strike has been great. I should be able to use it by the end of this week." Wang Ming said.

He then pointed in a certain direction and said, "Li Jinxi, on the other hand, has been using the technique since yesterday. It won't be long before she masters it."

Yuan used his divine sense to watch Li Jinxi, and sure enough, her sword would release demon sealing aura with every swing. However, the demon sealing aura is still very weak— too weak to actually seal any demons.

"Good luck with your training." Yuan said to Wang Ming before walking over to Li Jinxi.

"Can I help you a bit?" Yuan asked her.

Li Jinxi stopped swinging the sword and nodded.

Yuan walked beside her and gently grabbed her arms before adjusting their position.

Once her arms were in the correct position, Yuan moved to adjust her hips, then her legs, and lastly, her feet.

"Try swinging your sword now," he said to her.

Li Jinxi nodded and swung the large sword in her hand.

Whoosh!

A strong gust of wind appeared from the swing, and it felt much easier and comfortable for Li Jinxi.

"Thank you." She said to him afterward.

"When you practice the technique, you should try to feel and understand it. Someone told me that your technique should improve with every strike—even if it's slightly." Yuan said.

"I will keep that in mind."

Yuan walked to the others and also gave them advice.

Eventually, he reached Meixiu, who was practicing with her bow.

Whoosh!

Using her black bow that she acquired from the Six Spiritual Families, Meixiu was able to hit her target a thousand meters away, and the arrow even managed to hit the tiny red dot in the center.

Meixiu gracefully lowered her arms after releasing the arrow, and she turned to look at him, "Hey."

"Hey, that was quite impressive." Yuan said with a smile.

"I don't think I have any advice for you, nor am I qualified to lecture you."

"What do you think of my form?" Meixiu then asked.

"I think it was beautiful."

"What about the demon sealing aura? Is it strong enough to seal a demon?"

"Unfortunately, you would need to shoot the demon a hundred times if you want to seal it." Yuan said.

"I see..." Meixiu looked slightly disappointed by the results.

"Don't look so down. You're doing great for someone who just started learning demon sealing techniques." Yuan gave her some encouragement.

"Thank you." Meixiu said to him before returning to her training.

Yuan decided to let her train in peace and check on Chu Liuxiang next.

"Ha!"

As he got close to her, Chu Liuxiang shot her palm forward, sending a wave of demon sealing aura into the air.

"What do you think of my Demon Sealing Pulse?" Chu Liuxiang turned to look at him afterward.

"Your demon sealing aura is the strongest out of everyone at the moment. This means you have the deepest comprehension of your demon sealing technique. Good job."

"Thanks, but I still feel a little lacking with one demon sealing technique." She sighed.

"Don't worry, I will acquire more demon sealing techniques in a few days."

"Okay."

Sometime later, Yuan walked to an empty spot on the field and started his own training.

Everyone would train without rest until it was time for dinner.

Meixiu left an hour earlier than everyone else to prepare for dinner.

During dinner, they would talk about their progress with their techniques and things they did in Cultivation Online.

"What about you, Yuan?" Shi Lang suddenly asked him.

Yuan swallowed before responding with a bittersweet smile, "I died today."

Clang

Everybody there dropped their utensils when they heard his words, and they turned to look at him with wide eyes.

"E-Excuse me? Can you repeat that? I think I misheard you just now." Wang Ming stuttered in a voice of disbelief.

"I experienced death today. Don't worry, it wasn't real death, so it didn't affect me in the slightest— at least not physically." Yuan explained to them in more detail about his situation.

"I fought a very powerful demon in the Demon Sealing Pagoda, where demon sealers go to train in the Grand Library. If you die inside the pagoda, you won't actually die, and you will simply be teleported outside. I managed to reach the peak of Spirit Lord after passing three out of nine floors."

"Good lord, you're already almost a Spirit King? That's ridiculous..."

The others were simply speechless. While everyone else was still trying to climb Spirit Warrior, Yuan was already one level away from Spirit King. Will they ever close their distance?

"I-I'm going to train some more tonight after dinner..." Wang Bingbing muttered in a low voice.

"M-Me too." Shi Lang agreed.

Half of the room decided to continue their training after dinner within moments.

Sometime after dinner, Yuan returned to his room with Chu Liuxiang.

"Yuan— Darling, now that we've returned home, let's... you know... 'do it'." Chu Liuxiang said as she stared at him with an eager look on her pretty face.

"N-Now? You still have energy after training for an entire day?" Yuan said in a dumbfounded voice.

"No matter how exhausted I am, I will always have energy to embrace my love!" She chuckled.

Yuan showed a slight smile before nodding, "But let me clean myself first. My body is still sticky from training."

"Oka— Wait! We can do this inside the bathroom! We can clean ourselves and embrace each other at the same time! That would be killing two birds with one stone!" Chu Liuxiang suddenly suggested.

Yuan was truly speechless this time.

However, he didn't refuse and nodded in silence.

"Great!"

They removed their clothes and entered the bathroom together shortly after, spending much more time than usual inside.

"That was amazing, darling..." Chu Liuxiang said to him on the bed about three hours later.

"Good night, Lulu." Yuan said to her with a smile before he walked to the balcony.

"You're not going to sleep tonight?"

Yuan summoned the Empyrean Overlord before responding, "I'm going to practice a little more tonight. You don't need to wait for me. Get some rest."

He jumped onto the sword and flew away from their balcony.

Chapter 809 - Max Mastery Level

"Good night, darling..." Chu Liuxiang mumbled in a low voice after Yuan flew away.

She laid on the bed a moment later and quickly fell asleep with a peaceful and satisfied smile on her face.

Meanwhile, Yuan flew circles around the Dragon Spiral Mountain on his flying sword in order to practice his Qi Manifestation.

Of course, he would need to rest after every lap around the Dragon Spiral Mountain.

After his ninth lap around the Dragon Spiral Mountain, Yuan noticed Meixiu's figure from above, and she appeared to be training her movement technique.

Yuan decided to stay in the air and watch Meixiu dance around with elegance yet precision.

A few minutes later, he descended in front of her and said, "Don't overwork yourself again, Meixiu."

She smiled and said, "Don't worry, I won't embarrass myself like that again."

"You know, I have never collapsed like that before— not even when I was worked to the bone by my mother."

"..."

After a moment of silence, Yuan said, "Let's take a break."

"Huh?"

Meixiu raised her eyebrows.

Yuan suddenly lowered his body, picked Meixiu up and carried her like a princess.

He then hopped onto the Empyrean Overlord and flew into the air with Meixiu still in his arms.

Meixiu subconsciously hugged Yuan's neck when they flew into the air, which reminded her of their first time flying together.

"What do you think?" Yuan asked her as they hovered above the Dragon Spiral Mountain.

"It's... beautiful." She mumbled in a dazed voice.

"Meixiu... Even if you're behind everyone, it's okay. In fact, you could be the weakest person in this world, I would still want you to be by my side, and that will never change no matter what happens."

Meixiu was in a daze after hearing Yuan's words, and after a moment of silence, she showed a bashful smile on her beautiful face.

"Yuan... You're becoming more cheeky. I fear what might happen in the future..."

"C-Cheeky?" Yuan was speechless.

"But I—"

"Kiss me." Meixiu suddenly interrupted.

Yuan halted whatever he wanted to say and immediately kissed her on the lips.

After their kiss, Meixiu mumbled in a low voice, "Yuan... Tonight... Can you stay with me?"

"Okay." Yuan nodded without hesitation.

He quickly finished his final lap around the Dragon Spiral Mountain before flying Meixiu back to her room.

They entered her room through the balcony, and once inside, Meixiu started kissing him again.

After a few minutes of passionate kissing, Meixiu removed her clothes and dragged Yuan to the bed, where they started to embrace each other shortly after.

Sometime later, Meixiu fell asleep in her bed without even bothering to clean up or wear her clothes.

Yuan wanted to continue his training after embracing Meixiu, but he was simply too tired after being squeezed dry by two beautiful women in the same night, so he just fell asleep in the same bed as Meixiu.

The following morning, Meixiu woke up with her body feeling a little sore.

She turned to look at Yuan, who was still sleeping peacefully beside her.

After staring at his face for a few moments, she left the bed without waking him up and went to take a shower.

Once she was fully dressed, she woke Yuan up.

"It's morning."

Once Yuan was awake and dressed, Meixiu said, "I will go prepare breakfast."

"Okay."

Yuan returned to his room, where Chu Liuxiang was still sound asleep.

"Lulu, it's morning." Yuan decided to wake her up.

"Five... more minutes..." Chu Liuxiang said in a drowsy voice.

Sometime later, once breakfast was finished and served, Yuan logged back into Cultivation Online for another day of training.

At the end of the day, his Demon Sealing Strike rose another two levels, reaching Mastery Level 5, becoming his highest level technique.

Near the end of the third day, Yuan suddenly stopped training and took a seat on the ground and closed his eyes.

The demon sealers around him quickly noticed the odd aura he was giving off, and when they recognized what was happening, they all stopped their training.

"The little founder is experiencing enlightenment..."

When someone is experiencing enlightenment, it was common courtesy for those around that person to stop whatever they were doing so that they wouldn't distract the person having the enlightenment.

Furthermore, it was the famous little founder who was experiencing enlightenment. Nobody there wanted to be responsible for distracting Yuan and invoking Yan Hara's fury.

And for the next few hours, the entire training area was sealed off by the demon sealers so that Yuan could complete his enlightenment in peace.

Right before Yuan came out of his enlightenment and opened his eyes, his body suddenly radiated with immense demon sealing aura that rippled throughout the Demon Sealing Clan's Grand Library.

Yuan opened his eyes a few moments later and stood up, feeling as though something within him had changed.

The demon sealers waiting outside the training area stormed inside when they realized that Yuan had finished his enlightenment.

They surrounded him and began throwing him praises.

"Congratulations, Little Founder, on your successful enlightenment!"

"T-Thank you..."

Feeling overwhelmed by the people there, Yuan decided to run away, disappearing somewhere in the Grand Library.

Of course, even if Yuan ran away, it did not stop the people there from spreading news of his enlightenment.

Eventually, news of Yuan's enlightenment reached Yan Hara's ears.

"The Little Founder experienced enlightenment and finished it?" A wide smile appeared on her face after hearing the news, and she couldn't stop smiling even many minutes later.

"My student is so amazing.. As his lecturer, I cannot disgrace myself in tomorrow's tournament. I must prove to the others that I am worthy to be his lecturer!"

Chapter 810 - Min Lis Plans

Chapter 810 - Min Li's Plans

The following morning, Yuan woke up earlier than usual and left a note for Chu Liuxiang, telling her that he would not be able to eat breakfast with them today because he had important business within Cultivation Online.

After putting the note on the table beside the bed, Yuan placed the helmet on his head and appeared inside Cultivation Online.

When he logged on, he could see Min Li sitting at the table by the window inside their hotel.

"Good morning," she turned to look at him and said.

"Good morning."

And she continued, "Yuan, I have finally decided on what I want to do."

"Oh? What are your plans?"

"The Seven Spirit Academies will be starting their disciple examination earlier this year because of the sudden influence of people coming from the Lower Heavens, and I plan on taking it."

"That sounds like a great idea. Do you know which sect you want to join yet?"

"My number one option would definitely be the Heavenly Academy. They have been ranked one for the past ten thousand years, and they have produced over 10 Spirit Kings throughout those years."

"However, I would be satisfied with joining any of the Seven Spiritual Academies since they're the best of the best in the Spirit Heaven, and it's incredibly hard to get accepted into any of these places. Even the Universal Music Academy that focuses on Music Cultivation is better than many top cultivation sects out there."

"Do you know when the examinations will take place? I would like to be there for you till the end. It might be a very long time until we see each other again, after all."

"Yes, it will begin in two weeks."

"I see... I will definitely be there. What do you plan on doing until then?"

"I am going to train near the examination area until then."

Yuan pondered for a moment before speaking, "I will leave one of my companions with you just in case anything goes south during your training. Are you okay with that?"

"R-Really? You don't have to do that for me..." Min Li said.

"Yes, I am sure. Xiao Hua, can you stay with Min Li for the time being since it will be dangerous to take you with me to the tournament?" Yuan said to her.

Xiao Hua appeared beside him the next second with a reluctant look on her face.

"Xiao Hua doesn't want to leave Brother Yuan alone..." She said in a worried voice.

"He won't be alone. Did you forget about Lan Yingying and myself already?" Feng Yuxiang appeared and said.

"We'll take care of the Young Master while you're away."

"But..." Xiao Hua was still reluctant to leave Yuan's side.

"Listen here, Xiao Hua. If you stay with the Young Master, you'll put him at risk just with your presence alone. Do you want to cause trouble for the Young Master?" Feng Yuxiang asked with a frown on her face.

"No..." Xiao Hua lowered her head in a dejected manner.

"Then you should stop being so selfish and go with Min Li for now. We'll see you again as soon as possible."

"..."

Seeing Xiao Hua's dejected mood, Yuan lowered his body and embraced her small body.

"I will be fine, Xiao Hua. Not only will Feng Feng and Yingying be there with me, Senior Yan and many powerful demon sealers will be there with me as well."

"I also want to take you with me, but as Senior Yan mentioned, there will be many powerful figures there that could expose you, and I don't want you to be in danger. In fact, I would even put your safety above my own, so can you stay with Min Li for the time being? When I return... We can play catch again like we used to."

Xiao Hua immediately lifted her head and stared at him with her big round eyes that were filled with emotion— mostly excitement.

"Really?"

Yuan nodded, "I promise."

"Okay, Xiao Hua will go with her."

"Great! Then we'll see you two later."

After saying their goodbyes, Yuan left the hotel with Feng Yuxiang and Lan Yingying. They flew until they were a few miles away from the city.

"Senior Yan said I only need my spiritual energy to activate it..." Yuan retrieved the red medallion Yan Hara had given him and started pouring his spiritual energy into it.

Immediately, the red medallion began emitting a bright crimson light.

A few seconds later, the red medallion shattered into countless pieces, dumbfounding Yuan.

"D-Did I break it?" He swallowed nervously.

"No, it's activating right now, Young Master." Feng Yuxiang said to him.

The very next moment, a beautiful red portal would appear before Yuan.

Once the portal was fully activated, Feng Yuxiang said, "You can go inside now, Young Master. I don't sense anything malicious from it, so it should be okay."

"Okay."

Yuan nodded, but before he entered the portal, he retrieved a mask and wore it.

Since he looked exactly like the Divine Paragon, there would be no doubt that someone there would recognize him, and he didn't want such a spotlight on him when he's surrounded by so many cultivators that were countless times stronger than him.

After all, he didn't know if the Divine Paragon had any enemies before, nor did he want to find out, so he decided to play it safe.

When he exited the portal, Yuan was greeted by a starry sky and a massive circular building a few miles in the distance.

"Just where are we?" Yuan mumbled in a dazed voice as he looked around with great interest.

"It feels like we're in someone's dimension." Feng Yuxiang said.

"Like Senior Bai's own world?" Yuan asked.

"Yes, just like that."

While Yuan admired the scenery that made him feel like he was in space, other people would appear around him.

These people would glance at Yuan for a brief moment before scoffing and flying away, treating his existence as though it was insignificant.

"Young Master... You should definitely keep your head down here... Even Spirit Sovereigns would look like an ant before these people..." Feng Yuxiang warned him afterward.

"Un.." He nodded silently.

Chapter 811 - Grand Coliseum

Once he had enough of the scenery, Yuan began making his way towards the large circular building in the distance.

While everyone else flew, Yuan used his legs and walked toward his destination.

"Feng Feng, is there a reason why my spiritual energy isn't stable in this place? This happened when I was teleported to the Fifth Heaven, as well." Yuan decided to ask Feng Yuxiang.

"That's because you're not used to the atmosphere of this place, Young Master. The spiritual energy in this place far surpasses anything you've experienced before, and your body needs time to adjust to it, hence why you cannot use your spiritual energy, not to mention your low cultivation base."

"Low cultivation base? But I am almost a Spirit King." Yuan raised his eyebrows.

How can a Spirit King be considered having a 'low cultivation'?

"Being Spirit King may be an impressive feat in the lower heavens, but in the upper heavens, it is worthless, and you're no different than a Spirit Warrior in the Lower Heaven as a Spirit King in the upper heavens."

"Heavens... Why is the cultivation path so long?"

"It's not just long, Young Master— it's never-ending. Even if you reach the highest known cultivation level, there will always be more levels above that. It is only a matter of who would discover it."

"Is that so... I—"

Just as Yuan was about to ask a question, he was interrupted by a gust of wind.

Yuan looked up to see a beautiful woman floating right above him.

"Looks like you really came." Yan Hara said to him with a smile.

"Of course." Yuan nodded.

"I hope you'll enjoy the show. Ah, I should probably warn you before it starts— you should brace yourself. I wanted you to come here not only to watch the tournament but also to train you."

"Train me?" Yuan asked.

"You'll understand soon. Don't lose consciousness, or you'll miss the whole thing." Yan Hara winked at him before flying towards the building in front of them.

Yuan swallowed nervously after hearing Yan Hara's words, and he wondered what she was talking about as he approached the building.

Once he reached the entrance, he was stopped by a middle-aged man casually sitting by the entrance, who asked him, "Do you have a pass to get in?"

"Huh?" Yuan showed a puzzled face behind his mask.

"You know, the red medallion you used to come to this place." The middle-aged man explained.

Yuan's eyes widened, and he quickly said, "T-That was also a pass?! But mine broke the moment I activated it!"

"That's unfortunate. Looks like you cannot enter without a pass." The middle-aged man shook his head.

Yuan was speechless.

However, before he could say anything else, the middle-aged man suddenly burst out laughing and said, "I am only joking with you, kiddo. Who brought you here? It's really uncommon for cultivators of your level to show up for this event."

"Really? Is there a reason why?" Yuan then asked.

"Why? Obviously, because they cannot handle it."

"It?"

"The demon's killing intent, of course. What else?"

"I see..."

"So? Who brought you here. That person must be a sadist, or confident in your abilities to bring you here."

"Senior Yan." Yuan said.

"Yan? Yan Hara? She actually brought you here?" The middle-aged man expressed surprise after hearing her name.

"That woman is definitely a sadist. You should watch out, kiddo." He said after a moment of silence.

"I-I will..." Yuan nodded in a dazed manner.

"Anyway, you can go take a seat. Since you're only a Spirit King, you should take the seat that's the furthest away from the arena, which would be the seats at the end of the coliseum."

"I understand. Thank you for the advice." Yuan bowed to the middle-aged man before walking into the Grand Coliseum.

"His demon sealing aura is quite ridiculous for someone at his cultivation... Where did Yan Hara pick up this monster? He would've been a valuable presence for the Demon Sealing Clan during the dark day, but alas, he was born in the wrong era." The middle-aged man mumbled to himself as he watched Yuan's figure disappear into the coliseum.

"Grand Elder Suo, all of the participants have arrived."

Someone appeared before the middle-aged man shortly after Yuan left.

"Alright." The middle-aged man surnamed Suo stood up and disappeared with the other person.

Meanwhile, Yuan followed the other demon sealers to the spectators' area.

Once he arrived, he took a seat all the way towards the end of the coliseum.

'This should be good enough... hopefully. I wouldn't be able to move any further back even if I need to...' Yuan sighed inwardly.

Sometime later, Yuan noticed three figures approaching him from his right.

"Excuse me, do you mind if we sit here?" One of them asked Yuan in a polite voice.

"No, go ahead."

"Thank you."

Yuan then watched as these three individuals sat down, and he couldn't take his eyes off them for some reason.

One of them noticed Yuan staring at them and smiled at him in a friendly manner.

"S-Sorry... That was rude of me." Yuan quickly apologized once he realized that he'd been staring at them.

"Don't worry, we're used to it as triplets."

"Triplets..." Yuan muttered in a low voice.

Two of these three people were beautiful young ladies while the third person was a handsome young man, and while the two ladies looked almost identical to each other with the only difference being their hairstyle, the young man also looked very similar to the ladies.

"Is this your first time to the Grand Coliseum?" The lady sitting beside Yuan suddenly asked him.

"Yes, it is. What about you guys?"

"This is also our first time. We wanted to come last time, but we were only Spirit Kings at that time, so our family did not allow us to come here. Seeing you here as a Spirit King really makes me envious." The lady said.

And she continued, "Oh, I am Lian Er."

"I'm Lian Li." The lady sitting beside her sister, Lian Er, said.

"Lian San," said the young man.

"Hello, I'm Yuan.." Yuan introduced himself last.

Chapter 812 - Leader Of The Demon Sealing Clan

"Yuan, huh? Hey, Yuan, can I ask you a question?" Lian Er suddenly asked.

"Go ahead." He nodded.

"Then... Why are you wearing a mask?"

Yuan smiled behind his mask and said, "I just enjoy wearing masks. It makes me feel safe for some reason."

"I see..."

"Anyways, who are you cheering for this tournament? There will be five Master Demon Sealers participating today."

"I'm cheering for Senior Yan," he responded without hesitation.

"Senior Yan? She's a very powerful demon sealer— best of her generation, so I can see why you would cheer for her. However, I would cheer for Senior Suo, who is the grandson of Grand Elder Suo. Not only was he trained by one of the best demon sealers in the entire Demon Sealing Clan, but rumor has it that he's been trained by the current leader as well."

"Grand Elder Suo? Who is that?" Yuan asked.

"Y-You don't know of the Grand Elders? They're the backbones of the Demon Sealing Clan!" Lian Li exclaimed in a shocked voice after hearing his words.

"Well... I am relatively new to the Demon Sealing Clan, so I am not aware of this stuff yet. I'd appreciate it if you could broaden my views." Yuan explained.

"How'd you get in here if you're new?" The triplets looked at him with raised eyebrows.

"I was invited by Senior Yan."

"Ah... Is that the real reason you're cheering for her?"

Yuan nodded, "Yes, but that's not the only reason. I don't know any of the other participants, so I can only cheer for her."

"Don't worry, you'll learn about the other participants very soon." Lian Er said.

About five minutes later, the rowdy atmosphere suddenly came to a halt even though nothing seemed to have happened.

However, a few moments later, Yuan could see three individuals appearing out of thin air, and they hovered above the coliseum.

When the spectators there saw these figures, they all stood up and bowed to them.

"Greetings, Leader Qian and Grand Elders!"

'Leader?' Yuan raised his eyebrows. He wondered if the current leader of the Demon Sealing Clan was amongst these three individuals.

'That middle-aged man...'

Yuan also recognized the middle-aged man that teased him at the entrance.

The handsome young man standing in the center of the group raised his hand and calmly waved it.

"Sit."

Almost as though his words were backed by a magic force, everyone in the coliseum sat down the next second.

'That's probably the leader of the Demon Sealing Clan...' Yuan thought to himself as he sat down.

Once everyone was seated, these three people took a seat in a special area within the spectators' area.

The handsome young man sat in the middle on a beautiful throne made out of some kind of red jade while the other two sat beside him.

A few moments later, five more figures appeared on the platform in the middle of the coliseum. Yan Hara was amongst them.

"Greetings, Leader Qian and Grand Elders." The five participants bowed to them in a respectful manner.

The handsome man, who looked only to be in his mid-twenties, stood up from his throne and spoke in a calm voice, "Welcome or welcome back to the Demon Sealing Tournament. I, the 8th leader of the Demon Sealing Clan, Qian Chu, shall oversee this year's tournament alongside Grand Elder Suo of the Demon Sealing Clan, and Grand Elder Cen of the Demon Sealing Grotto."

"Our participants this year will be—"

Qian Chu purposefully did not finish his sentence to allow the participants to introduce themselves.

"Suo Rengan of the Demon Sealing Clan." A handsome young man stepped forward and introduced himself in a clear and confident voice.

"Jiang Ziya of the Demon Sealing Grotto." A middle-aged man introduced himself next.

"Yan Hara of the Demon Sealing Clan." Yan Hara stepped forward and gracefully bowed towards Qian Chu's direction.

"Zu Ti of the Demon Sealing Grotto." An old man with a mixture of black and white hair said next.

"Shen Yue of the Demon Sealing Grotto." A beautiful woman with looks that almost rivaled Yan Hara's appearance was the last to introduce herself.

Once all participants introduced themselves, Qian Chu continued to speak, "Today, these five Master Demon Sealers will participate in the Demon Sealing Tournament and compete against each other to become the next Supreme Demon Sealer!"

"Within the Demon Sealing Clan and the Demon Sealing Grotto that has over 500,000 members, there are less than 20 Supreme Demon Sealers combined, so you can imagine the prestige this title carries."

"However, only one of you will be able to become a Supreme Demon Sealer at the end of this tournament. Are you guys ready?" Qian Chu asked the five participants as his sharp gaze stared at them.

"Yes!" They all responded simultaneously.

"Then let's get this event started." Qian Chu said before sitting back on his throne.

The moment Qian Chu sat down, Grand Elder Suo stood up and shouted, "Activate the formations!"

Once the Formation Experts heard Grand Elder Suo's voice, they immediately activated the formation, creating a powerful barrier around the platform, protecting the spectators and preventing the participants from leaving at the same time.

"The formations are activated!" A voice resounded a few moments later.

Upon hearing this, Qian Chu suddenly flicked his sleeves, and a black flag with a red symbol on a golden pole flew out of his sleeves and landed in the middle of the platform.

This flag was wrapped, and there appeared to be something restrained by the flag.

When Yuan saw this flag, he felt a chill run down his spine, and his blood began boiling, almost as though it was reacting to the flag.

The flag slowly unwrapped itself after landing, revealing to the spectators what it had been restricting— a demon.

Yuan's eyes widened with shock when he saw the demon, as it did not give him the feeling of an artificial demon.

'The demon... It's a real demon!? They're going to use a real demon for this event?! This is insane!' Yuan cried inwardly when he realized that they would be using a real demon for the tournament.

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 813 - Real Demon Emperor

Yuan nearly jumped out of his seat when he realized that they were going to use a real demon instead of an artificial demon during this event.

"This is pure insanity! What if something goes wrong and the demon escapes? That would be catastrophic!" He cried inwardly.

However, the other people there had a different response.

"Wow, what a strong-looking demon. What rank do you think it is?" Lian Er mumbled to herself, clearly more intrigued than terrified of its existence.

"It should be at least a Demon General, right?" Lian Li said.

"It's hard to tell since the demon has its aura restrained by those red chains, but I doubt it would be anything lesser than a Demon General. After all, this is also an exam for these Master Demon Sealers." Lian San responded.

Once the demon was revealed, Qian Chu spoke in a clear voice, "The first one to seal or kill this demon will become the next Supreme Demon Sealer. I will remove the final seals on the demon in ten seconds."

The five participants quickly spread out and surrounded the demon.

Even though they were competing against each other, they also knew how risky it was to try and fight the demon alone.

Their best option at the moment would be to fight the demon together and slowly seal the demon, saving their energy before trying to get the last hit.

While everyone waited for the ten seconds to pass, the demon used this time to analyze its surroundings and situation.

"A bunch of lowly humans dare to use this one for entertainment? I will tear all of your limbs and drink your blood for this offense." The demon showed a malicious smile on its face, and it did not seem worried even in the slightest despite its seemingly hopeless situation.

Ten seconds passed in the blink of an eye, and Qian Chu waved his sleeves when the ten seconds were up, removing the red chains that had been suppressing the demon's power this entire time.

The second the red chains disappeared, the demon released a deafening roar, and an immensely powerful aura erupted from its body, sweeping the place with intense killing intent that immediately shocked the spectators.

When Yuan felt the killing intent for the first time, his body froze from shock, and he even lost his ability to breathe.

'W-What is this killing intent?! What is this bloodthirsty aura?! I have never experienced anything like this before!' Yuan cried inwardly, and he could feel his instincts screaming at him to run away from the scene as soon as possible.

It felt like he was before the grim reaper itself, and that death was right in front of him.

However, he resisted such urges and even bit on his lips until it began bleeding, using pain to keep himself sane.

"A-Are you okay?" Lian Er noticed Yuan's condition and asked him despite being affected by the demon's killing intent herself, as her whole body was shivering nonstop.

"Y-Yes..." He responded in a mosquito-like voice.

While under this intense stress that challenged him mentally and physically, pushing him to his limits, something began changing within Yuan.

Meanwhile, the five participants immediately began their assault on the demon the second it was released from its bindings.

They all released their demon sealing technique simultaneously at the demon, but the demon quickly reacted and used a movement technique to dodge it.

However, it was unable to dodge all of the demon sealers' attack, only successfully dodging three of them.

[Demon Sealing Pulse!]

Yan Hara pushed her palm forward, sending a powerful wave of demon sealing aura at the demon, hitting it directly in its chest and blowing a hole in its body.

The demon, of course, healed its wound almost immediately, and it didn't seem to be affected by the demon sealing aura.

Yan Hara did not panic at the result and continued her assault on the demon with the other demon sealers.

Before a minute has even passed, the five demon sealers managed to hit the demon with over a dozen demon sealing techniques, yet the demon continued to move around as though it was unaffected by demon sealing aura.

"This demon is definitely a Demon Emperor..." Lian Er sighed.

And she continued, "If not for the Leader's presence, I would be too scared to even stay here and watch this..."

'This is the prowess of a real Demon Emperor?' Yuan thought to himself, still struggling to keep calm while enduring the demon's intense aura.

Although the demon's killing intent was very powerful, it was actually not something Yuan couldn't handle. Instead, it was the demon's cultivation aura that Yuan couldn't endure.

He was only a Spirit Lord while the demon was most likely above Spirit Sovereign— it was at a level that he didn't even have knowledge of, and it could be considered a miracle that he was remaining conscious even under such intense pressure.

"AHAHAHAHA! I am not the one entertaining you humans, it's the other way around! Continue to entertain me, and I will allow you to live a little longer!" The Demon Emperor laughed out loud as it continued to eat up demon sealing techniques without any fear in its eyes.

A few minutes later, the Demon Emperor eventually got bored of being attacked, so it started attacking the demon sealers.

"Bloody Impalement!"

The Demon Emperor's body suddenly shot out hundreds of arm-sized needles made out of its own blood like a grenade, sending these needles all over the place.

The five demon sealers immediately halted their offense and went into defense, trying their best to deflect these needles, but they were not able to remain unscathed at the end, suffering above minor injuries.

"Is that all you've got?! It appears to me that demon sealers have gotten much weaker since that bastard's death!" The Demon Emperor laughed out loud.

"Shut up! The Divine Paragon was never confirmed dead! He's still missing!" Yan Hara rebuked.

"Whatever makes you sleep at night, human." The Demon Emperor turned to look at her with a mocking grin on its face.

"The stench of demons, it never changes..."

Lian Er turned to look at Yuan when she heard him mumbling something, "Huh? What did you just say?"

Although it might just be her, she felt that something was off about Yuan—like something about him had suddenly changed.

Chapter 814 - Demon Sealing Flag

Yuan turned to look at Lian Er and responded in a calm voice, "It's nothing. Oh, can you tell me about the current leader of the Demon Sealing Clan?"

"T-The leader?" Lian Er was slightly taken aback by his weird question that had nothing to do with the current event.

"Well... What do you want to know about him?" Despite shivering all over her body, Lian Er wanted to remain respectful and decided to entertain him.

"Any information is fine. Just tell me everything you know about him." Yuan said.

'He's no longer trembling? Did he already adapt to the Demon Emperor's aura? No... that's not possible. He's only a Spirit Lord, and it has only been a few minutes since the event started. Just how is he doing it?' Lian Li wondered to herself as she watched their conversation.

Yuan, who had been terrified out of his mind just moments ago, suddenly appeared to be completely fine under the Demon Emperor's aura.

Lian Li looked around her at the other spectators, and sure enough, most of them were still trying to adapt to the Demon Emperor's ridiculous aura, so how is a Spirit Lord like Yuan completely fine?

Lian San also noticed Yuan's odd state and thought to himself, 'He's not an ordinary demon sealer. No wonder why a Spirit Lord like him dared to come to this place...'

While her siblings wondered about Yuan's identity, Lian Er spoke, "I don't actually know that much about the leader, so sorry in advance if I wasn't of any help."

"Anyways, the current leader is, as you already know, the 8th leader of the Demon Sealing Clan. He's been with the Demon Sealing Clan for over 100,000 years, and he took over the clan after the previous leader died in an accident."

"As for his qualifications, he has sealed over 20 demons and killed 7 demons, making him the most experienced demon sealer in the clan."

"He became a Master Demon Sealer after spending just a little over 1,000 years in the Demon Sealing Clan, a Supreme Demon Sealer 5,000 years later, and he went on to become the leader of the clan about 10,000 years later, becoming the youngest leader of the Demon Sealing Clan in history."

"Because of him, the declining Demon Sealing Clan also regained some of its strength, so the Grand Elders rewarded him with the Demon Sealing Flag, one of the most powerful demon sealing treasures out there that was once used by the Divine Paragon himself."

"Do you see that black and red flag by his side? That's the Demon Sealing Flag, one of three demon sealing treasures that was once owned by the Divine Paragon. Rumor has it that the Divine Paragon has sealed over 1,000 demons with it."

"The Demon Sealing Flag, huh?" A mysterious smile appeared on Yuan's face as he looked at the majestic flag standing proudly beside Qian Chu.

"Where are the other two treasures?" Yuan asked next.

"I'm not really sure since they always keep its whereabouts a secret, but rumor has it that the Demon Sealing Grotto has them." Lian Er said.

"The Demon Sealing Grotto?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

Lian Er nodded, "When some of the most trusted demon sealers left the Demon Sealing Clan and created the Demon Sealing Grotto, they took with them one of the Divine Paragon's treasures. As for the second one, I was told that the Demon Sealing Clan had to surrender it to the Demon Sealing Grotto during its lowest point when it was on the brink of destruction in order to save the clan. However, these are just rumors without any solid evidence to support it, so you shouldn't consider them to be true."

Yuan released a low sigh after hearing such information, "How the Demon Sealing Clan has fallen..."

'Although I didn't really care about the Demon Sealing Clan even up to my death, it still leaves a bitter taste in my mouth knowing that something I personally built is slowly being destroyed.' Yuan sighed inwardly.

After being pressured past his limits by the Demon Emperor's aura, Yuan's memories as the Divine Paragon resurfaced, as did his personality as the Divine Paragon, so one can say that it was the Divine Paragon's consciousness that is currently awake in Yuan's body.

"The Demon Sealing Clan is no longer what it once was, so why did you decide to join the clan? You would've been better off joining the Demon Sealing Grotto that is much stronger nowadays." Yuan suddenly asked her.

Lian Er smiled and quickly responded without hesitation, "That's simple. Like most demon sealers nowadays, I joined the Demon Sealing Clan not for its strength but for its legacy and history."

"The Demon Sealing Clan is neither a faction nor a sect, so its prowess really doesn't matter to me. I am satisfied with being part of something that made a difference in the world. Without the Demon Sealing Clan and the Divine Paragon, I doubt we would be living so peacefully right now, much less using a Demon Emperor for entertainment."

A gentle smile appeared behind his mask after hearing Lian Er's words, and he no longer asked her any more questions.

Instead, he turned his attention to the Demon Emperor that appeared to be toying with the five Master Demon Sealers.

"They won't win against this Demon Emperor." Yuan suddenly mumbled in a low voice that could only be heard by the triplets.

"Huh? What do you mean?" They all turned to look at him with raised eyebrows.

"If they continue like this, they're all going to die— all five of them." Yuan said.

"How is that possible? All of the demon sealers in the arena are Master Demon Sealers— they're the best of the best within their rank. There's no way they'd all lose to a single demon, right?" Lian Li asked.

"You guys are underestimating the prowess of a Demon Emperor. That thing... It's just toying with them right now. Once it gets serious, only the Grand Elders and the 8th Leader can handle it.." Yuan said to them.

Chapter 815 - Blood Sphere

"We're underestimating the Demon Emperor? You sound like you have encountered one before." They looked at Yuan with raised eyebrows.

"I guess you can say that." A smile appeared behind his mask.

"Well, I believe in them. They will definitely defeat the demon!" Lian Er said.

However, just as she said those words, the Demon Emperor suddenly released a deafening roar that shook the entire coliseum.

Yuan and the triplets immediately turned to look at the scene, and the Demon Emperor had suddenly grown a pair of bloody wings. Furthermore, the Demon Emperor grew in size, becoming twice as large compared to just mere moments ago.

Of course, its size was not the only thing that grew, as its killing intent and bloodthirsty aura also increased exponentially.

This shocked not only the spectators but the fighters as well.

None of them had expected the Demon Emperor to hide this much strength for so long.

"What's wrong, humans? Cold feet? How about I warm them up for you?!"

The Demon Emperor suddenly flew into the sky and began channeling its energy at a rapid rate.

When the fighters saw how much energy it was gathering, they immediately began preparing their defenses, as there was no way that they'd be able to stop the Demon Emperor in time.

"Hell Rain!"

The Demon Emperor laughed out loud as it created countless weapons in the sky before sending them at the fighters.

The five demon sealers in the arena immediately used their treasures to defend against the strike, and some of them even prepared their life-saving treasures just in case their defenses failed.

The spectators gasped in shock as they watched countless weapons rain upon the five fighters, enveloping their entire figures.

They all turned to look at Qian Chu, who had a calm expression on his face, and when they saw his expression, the spectators also calmed down.

Sure enough, the fighters broke through the sea of weapons and flew into the air shortly after, but they appeared to be heavily injured, and their bodies were filled with holes and cuts.

However, despite their seemingly awful conditions, these injuries were not even close to life-threatening for these powerful cultivators.

Although they didn't have the demon's ridiculous ability to regenerate a whole body in seconds, they could easily heal these minor injuries with their spiritual energy.

After recovering from the Demon Emperor's assault, the five fighters continued their assault on the demon.

This time, the five Master Demon Sealers stopped trying to be selfish and started using all of their tricks and resources to deal with the Demon Emperor, allowing them to push it back.

"See? They are fine." Lian Er said after witnessing this.

Yuan didn't respond and continued to watch them.

However, he lost interest after a while and turned to look at Qian Chu, who was still sitting on his throne with a calm expression.

There was just something about Qian Chu that didn't feel right to him, but he couldn't pinpoint the reason, mostly because he doesn't know Qian Chu very well.

A few minutes later, when it seemed like the Master Demon Sealers were on the verge of sealing the Demon Emperor, the Demon Emperor began laughing.

"Truly pathetic. I gave you ten whole minutes, yet this is the best you can do?" The Demon Emperor mocked the fighters with a look of disdain on its face.

Afterward, it raised its right hand into the air.

'What is it trying to do now?' Yan Hara wondered to herself as she watched the Demon Emperor. This is her first time seeing such an ability, and it was giving her an ominous feeling.

The other Master Demon Sealers felt the same way.

"We cannot let it finish whatever it is trying to do! Let's forget about the tournament and just kill it!" Suo Rengan said to the other four fighters, who agreed with him.

Once they were prepared, all five fighters surrounded the Demon Emperor before unleashing their strongest demon sealing technique.

"Too slow!"

The Demon Emperor suddenly shouted, and what appeared to be a ball of blood appeared on its palm.

"Blood Sphere."

The Demon Emperor muttered in a low voice, and before any of the demon sealers could even react, the ball of blood expanded in size countless times until it swallowed the entire arena and all of the fighters inside, blocking the spectators from seeing the situation.

"W-What the hell did it just do?!" Lian Li exclaimed in a puzzled voice.

"Blood Sphere. It's a containment technique that essentially creates an area that restricts anyone inside from leaving, and while inside this sphere, the demon's strength is increased several folds. This is a technique that can only be used by Demon Emperors, and they only use it when they are going to fight seriously." Yuan explained to them.

And he continued, "It's over for the demon sealers. They won't survive even a few minutes inside the Blood Sphere."

"N-No way... What about the Leader?! Shouldn't he stop the tournament and seal the demon before things get out of hand?" Lian Er quickly became nervous for the five demon sealers.

"Who knows." Yuan shrugged.

He then turned to look at the Demon Sealing Flag that was still fluttering beside Qian Chu and narrowed his eyes.

'I will only be able to save one of you with this...'

The very next moment, the Demon Sealing Flag that had been standing still this entire time suddenly began trembling.

When Qian Chu noticed this anomaly, he turned to look at it with a puzzled gaze.

However, before he could even do anything, the Demon Sealing Flag suddenly flew out of his hands and towards the arena.

It easily pierced a hole in the Blood Sphere and entered the Demon Emperor's territory.

Qian Chu stood up with a look of surprise on his face after seeing this, and he immediately began looking around with a deep frown on his face.

'Who?! Who is commanding my Demon Sealing Flag without my permission?!' He roared inwardly.

Chapter 816 - Eventually

After realizing that someone was using his Demon Sealing Flag without permission, Qian Chu immediately began looking for the culprit.

Qian Chu quickly noticed a particular figure amongst the spectators, as he was the only person in the entire coliseum to be wearing a mask.

However, when Qian Chu realized that Yuan was only a peak Spirit Lord, he immediately ruled Yuan out as the culprit.

After all, there was no way that some random Spirit Lord would be able to command the Demon Sealing Flag, much less control it so flawlessly.

After he received the Demon Sealing Flag, the time it took him to control the treasure was longer than the time it took him to become the 8th leader of the Demon Sealing Clan since the moment he joined the clan.

It took him almost 30,000 years of sweat and effort to control the Demon Sealing Flag, which is twice as long as it took him to become the 8th leader, so it would only be natural for him to rule Yuan out as the culprit.

If a mere Spirit Lord could control the Demon Sealing Flag, it would make a mockery out of his 30,000 years of effort.

Once Qian Chu ruled out Yuan as the culprit, he immediately returned to looking for the culprit, completely ignoring the situation between the Demon Emperor and the fighters.

Meanwhile, inside the Blood Sphere, right after being trapped inside, Yan Hara and the others tried to break the blood barrier but quickly realized that was impossible.

"None of you will be leaving my Blood Sphere alive today." The Demon Emperor laughed at their attempts to escape.

"Don't panic! The Grand Elders and the Demon Sealing Clan's Leader are still watching us! They won't let us die!" Yan Hara said to the others when she noticed the worried looks on their faces.

Yan Hara's words worked perfectly, as the others immediately calmed down after being reminded that they were not alone.

"You foolish demon. If we dared to release you, it means we are confident in sealing you away whenever we want! You demons might have ruled the Nine Heavens before, but time has changed! Demons are no longer a threat, and cultivators nowadays are far stronger than before! You demons wouldn't survive this era even if the Divine Paragon isn't here!" Suo Rengan said out loud.

However, instead of being provoked, the Demon Emperor laughed out loud and said, "The world may be different nowadays, but you demon sealers are definitely much weaker than before."

"Also, you should stop taking others' credit."

Suo Rengan frowned and said, "Huh? The fuck are you talking about? How am I stealing others' credit?"

"Do you really think humans defeated us, demons, back then? Negative. We didn't lose to humanity. We lost to a monster—the Bane of Demons, Divine Paragon! Although his demon sealing techniques are annoying and have the ability to seal us, the techniques alone would not be enough to defeat us!"

"Sure, there were a few prominent human cultivators that managed to kill a couple of demons back then, but they were all insignificant when compared to the Divine Paragon's achievement. Alone, he slaughtered more demons than all of humanity combined. Therefore, you should stop acting like demons were defeated by humans. It was a monster that defeated us—a single one." The Demon Emperor's voice sounded a little shaky when speaking about the Divine Paragon.

The demon sealers were left speechless by the Demon Emperor's words.

And before they could respond, the Demon Emperor continued to speak with a mysterious smile on its face, "However, now that the Divine Paragon is dead, it will only be a matter of time before demons rule the Nine Heavens again."

"That will never happen! Demons are almost extinct! Even if you gathered all of the demons that are still alive in this world, the best you would be able to do is run!" Jiang Ziya exclaimed.

The Demon Emperor started laughing again, "Sure, there may only be a few demons left in this world, but let me ask you this..."

"Where do we, demons, come from?"

None of the demon sealers were able to answer the Demon Emperor's question, so they remained silent.

"I will give you a hint. The Demonic Realm."

"Are you saying that more demons will come from the Demonic Realm? That's impossible! The Divine Paragon sealed it!" Yan Hara exclaimed.

"The keyword is 'sealed'." The Demon Emperor smiled.

"Once a demon is sealed, do they remain sealed forever? No, they will eventually break out of their seal. Even if it might take them 10 million years to do so, the seal is not permanent. If you truly want to get rid of a demon, you must destroy us."

"As for the Demonic Realm, it was only sealed, not destroyed, and even the Divine Paragon was not able to destroy it, so there will be a day when that seal goes away, and when that happens, the Nine Heavens will be ruled by demons once again!"

Upon hearing the Demon Emperor's words, Yan Hara refuted, "Even if the Demonic Realm is unsealed one day, it won't matter! The Divine Paragon killed most of the demons within the Demonic Realm before sealing it, and as far as I'm aware, you demons cannot procreate, so there won't be more demons as time passes!"

"Were you inside the Demonic Realm with the Divine Paragon? Did you witness him killing the demons inside? I don't think so."

"And while it's true that we cannot reproduce..."

The Demon Emperor suddenly showed them a chilling smile.

"There are actually ways for us to increase our numbers."

"What?!" Yan Hara and the others were terrified to hear such information. If what the Demon Emperor said was true, it would be catastrophic for the Nine Heavens once the Demonic Realm is unsealed!

The Divine Paragon sealed the Demonic Realm many millions years ago, so the demons would have plenty of time to increase their numbers!

"Don't think too much about it. You'll all be dead very shortly, after all.."
The Demon Emperor began approaching the five demon sealers with a bloodthirsty smile on its face.

Chapter 817 - Bloody Carnage

When the Demon Emperor began approaching them, Yan Hara and the other four demon sealings immediately readied their treasures to fight it.

However, the Demon Emperor sealed their movements before they could even move with a sudden outburst of killing intent that surpassed anything it had released before.

While killing intent normally paralyzes those affected by it most of the time, if strong enough, one could even kill another using purely just killing intent, as there's only so much stress and pressure one's heart could endure before something goes horribly wrong.

When the five demon sealers experienced the Demon Emperor's intense killing intent, they all coughed up a mouthful of blood, and their instincts screamed for them to run away, but their bodies did not listen to their commands, almost as though their connections had been severed by their fear of the Demon Emperor.

"Today, I shall let you experience despair and death."

The Demon Emperor said to them before taking a deep breath.

"Bloody Carnage."

After uttering these chilling words, the Demon Emperor suddenly exploded into a bloody mess, shocking the demon sealers.

However, the Demon Emperor did not regenerate like it normally would. Instead, it would form into a ball of blood that hovered in the air.

Although the demon sealers had no idea what the Demon Emperor was trying to do, they had a very bad feeling about it.

It was at this moment a hole opened up in the Blood Sphere, and a red and black flag flew inside, landing right beside Yan Hara.

"Wha—"

Before she could even wonder what the Demon Sealing Flag was doing there, the Demon Sealing Flag wrapped its flag around her body.

"W-What's going on?! Hey!"

Yan Hara subconsciously began struggling to break free, but it was no use, as the Demon Sealing Flag had completely restrained her.

The other four demon sealers were left dumbfounded by this sudden event, but they had no time to ponder about it, as the Demon Emperor would strike a moment later.

The ball of blood that had been hovering about 25 meters away from the demon sealers suddenly began expanding exponentially.

In just mere seconds, the ball of blood had expanded over 10 times until it covered almost the entire arena.

The demon sealers beside Yan Hara immediately rushed to the end of the Blood Sphere and tried to break out. Whatever the Demon Emperor was up to, they did not want to be part of it, but the Blood Sphere was incredibly durable, and not even their strongest treasures could create a hole in the wall of blood that confined them.

"Leader! Help us! Leader Qian!" Jiang Ziya, who belonged to the Demon Sealing Grotto, screamed out loud for help.

"I quit! Get me out of here! If any of us dies here today, the Demon Sealing Grotto will not let this go!" Zu Ti, who was also part of the Demon Sealing Grotto also screamed for Qian Chu's help.

However, there was no response from the Grand Elders or Qian Chu.

Outside the Blood Sphere, Elder Cen looked at Qian Chu with a frown and spoke, "There's something wrong. We should stop this event and restrain the Demon Emperor before someone gets hurt or worse— die."

Qian Chu, who was still looking for the person who used the Demon Sealing Flag, stopped and looked at Elder Cen with a calm yet sharp gaze.

"Of course, we can stop the event. However, that would mean the Demon Sealing Grotto is not confident in their own demon sealers."

The frown on Elder Cen's face grew deeper, and he responded, "And you believe that the Demon Sealing Clan's demon sealer would be able to defeat that Demon Emperor?"

Qian Chu smiled, "I wouldn't have allowed them to participate if I wasn't confident in their abilities."

Elder Cen continued to stare at Qian Chu for a few more seconds before turning to look at the Blood Sphere with a contemplating face.

"I will stop the event." Qian Chu suddenly said.

But as he began moving towards the Blood Sphere, Elder Cen spoke, "Wait."

And he continued, "Let's wait a little longer before we make any move. They have plenty of life-saving treasures, so they won't die even against a Demon Emperor."

Qian Chu didn't say anything else and returned to his seat.

Meanwhile, inside the Blood Sphere, the demon sealers were desperately crying for help.

"Damn it! Why are none of my teleport talismans working?!" Shen Yue of the Demon Sealing Grotto exclaimed in a stressed tone when her talismans failed to activate no matter how much spiritual energy she poured into them.

"It must be due to this damn thing containing us! We need to get out of here as soon as possible!" Jiang Ziya said.

"Continue attacking the wall! I don't believe that we cannot break through!" Suo Rengan shouted.

"Fuck! Qian Chu! What the fuck are you doing?! Hurry up and save us!" Zu Ti cursed out loud.

"This must be a trap the Demon Sealing Clan has set for us! I knew we couldn't trust these bastards!" Shen Yue began shedding tears due to their situation.

"That's bullshit! If this is a trap, then what am I doing here?! There's also Yan Hara! And the Leader wouldn't do such a thing!" Suo Rengan refuted her claims and defended Qian Chu's honor.

After all, why would the Demon Sealing Clan sacrifice two of their most talented Master Demon Sealers just to kill three people from the Demon Sealing Grotto?

Although the Demon Sealing Clan and the Demon Sealing Grotto's relationship has worsened lately, it wasn't at the point where the leader of the Demon Sealing Clan would sacrifice his own people to get back at the Demon Sealing Grotto— at least it shouldn't!

"I don't care what you say! The Demon Sealing Grotto will—" Before Shen Yue could even finish her sentence, the ball of blood that was now the size of a small mountain suddenly exploded, sending millions of small but deadly projectiles all over the arena with each of these projectiles deadly enough to kill a Spirit King instantly.

Chapter 818 - Final Nail In The Coffin

When the Demon Emperor suddenly exploded with countless deadly projectiles, the four demon sealers could only rely on their life-saving treasures to save their lives.

Fortunately for them, their life-saving treasures did not require manual activation, and it would activate automatically when it senses danger for the holder.

Right before the projectiles would hit the demon sealers, their life-saving treasures activated, shielding them from the projectiles.

Tens of thousands of tiny yet sharp needle-shaped projectiles clashed with the demon sealers' life-saving treasures.

The demon sealers released a sigh of relief when they realized that their life-saving treasures had activated just in time, but when they noticed cracks appearing on their life-saving treasures, they would suck in a breath of cold air, and they prayed inwardly that the life-saving treasures would endure the abuse.

"Ah!"

A painful cry suddenly resounded, causing the demon sealers to subconsciously look at the direction.

To their shock, Zu Ti's life-saving treasure had shattered, and his body was riddled with tiny holes.

However, despite sustaining such a grievous injury, Zu Ti's second life-saving treasure activated just in time, preventing him from instant death.

Unfortunately, his second life-saving treasure would not last long, and the other demon sealers were too busy defending themselves to help him.

In the end, Zu Ti of the Demon Sealing Grotto falls lifelessly onto the ground.

"Qian Chu! I swear to god! You will pay for this!" Jiang Ziya released a deafening roar after witnessing his friend's death.

As for Yan Hara, she was completely unharmed due to the Demon Sealing Flag protecting her.

In fact, the Demon Emperor's attacks ignored her completely. Because of the Demon Sealing Flag's presence and divine aura, the Demon Emperor feared that it would only harm itself by touching it, as the projectiles were essentially its own body.

Once the Demon Emperor's assault ended and there were no more projectiles to shoot, the projectiles that had been released began gathering again, quickly returning to being a ball of blood.

Soon, the Demon Emperor launched a second wave of Bloody Carnage, destroying the demon sealers' exhausted life-saving treasures.

Though, just like Zu Ti, they had more than one life-saving treasure, allowing them to survive once again.

However, the Demon Emperor did not stop and continued to launch attacks on the demon sealers.

The demon sealers were frustrated and filled with despair, but there was nothing they could do in this situation.

They could barely protect their own lives, so it was impossible to try and stop the Demon Emperor. Even if they could attack the Demon Emperor, they were clearly not capable of defeating it.

Therefore, these demon sealers could only wait for rescue while their life-saving treasures quickly disappear one after another.

A minute later, Shen Yue ran out of life-saving treasures after her fourth one broke.

She turned to look at the other two with a pleading gaze, "Please! Help me! That was my last life-saving treasure!"

"S-Sorry, but this is also my last one..." Jiang Ziya turned his head to avoid eye contact.

Suo Rengan didn't even say anything and acted like he didn't hear her.

Seeing this, Shen Yue turned around and began banging on the bloody wall with all of her strength.

"Help me! Elder Cen! Please! I don't want to die here—"

Unfortunately, before she could even finish her sentence, the Demon Emperor launched its fifth attack.

Shen Yue's body would fall onto the ground the next moment, her body filled with holes.

"Fuck! Fuck! Fuck! Why is this happening?!" Jiang Ziya began cursing and crying at the same time.

He could've never expected such a dreadful situation would occur when he signed up for this tournament! In fact, he didn't even know that he would be fighting a Demon Emperor until the moment it was revealed to him!

The last tournament only required the previous participants to fight a Demon General, so why did they have to fight a Demon Emperor?! It didn't make any sense!

"..."

When Jiang Ziya saw that the Demon Emperor was preparing for its next attack, he released a low sigh, as his last life-saving treasure was on the verge of being destroyed. His hope for survival quickly diminished until there was none left, and he turned to look at Suo Rengan with a calm expression.

"Congratulations. The Demon Sealing Clan has just secured the final nail in its own coffin. Once the Demon Sealing Grotto learns of our death, they will finally have a reason to remove the Demon Sealing Clan once and for all."

Suo Rengan did not respond to Jiang Ziya's words, mostly because he was too focused on the Demon Emperor to actually hear Jiang Ziya's words properly.

The next moment, Jiang Ziya would also fall to the Demon Emperor's attack when his final life-saving treasure was destroyed.

Meanwhile, outside the Blood Sphere, Grand Elder Cen could no longer ignore the unpleasant feeling in his guts and said, "That's it! Stop the event! Something is clearly wrong here!"

"Alright." Qian Chu did not refuse.

They stood up the next moment and flew into the arena together. When Grand Elder saw this, he followed them.

The spectators then watched as Qian Chu and the Grand Elders worked together to tear a hole in the Blood Sphere.

While they worked on destroying the Blood Sphere, Qian Chu would try to command the Demon Sealing Flag to return to him, but alas, it would not listen to him for some reason.

Although he did not show it on his face, Qian Chu was incredibly frustrated by this.

"Scatter!"

Qian Chu used his anger to strike the Blood Sphere, instantly tearing it wide open, allowing everyone to see the situation inside again.

However, when the spectators saw the scene and the corpses inside the arena, they all gasped in shock, clearly filled with disbelief.

Grand Elder Cen immediately fumed with anger when he realized that all three members of the Demon Sealing Grotto were dead, but he didn't start pointing fingers just yet, as there was a bigger problem at hand— the Demon Emperor.

"Once this is over, I demand an explanation, Qian Chu!" Grand Elder Cen roared at him before flying straight at the Demon Emperor that was preparing its sixth strike.

Chapter 819 - Blood Separation

Qian Chu didn't show any reactions to Grand Elder Cen's words, and he focused on the Demon Emperor that was ready to release its next attack.

"Demon Sealing Formation!"

Grand Elder Suo suddenly created a massive formation around the arena just in time, halting the Demon Emperor's attack for a brief moment.

During this moment, Grand Elder Cen retrieved his treasure that radiated with demon sealing aura.

"Bastard! How dare you kill my people!" He shouted in anger as he unleashed a devastating attack that sliced the ball of blood in half.

The next second, the Demon Emperor regenerated until it returned to its original state, and it lifted its head to look at Grand Elder Cen and the others.

"I don't know what went through your heads that made you believe it would be a good idea to set me free, but I must thank you for releasing me." The Demon Emperor said to them with a calm smile on its face.

"If I restrained you once, I can do it again." Qian Chu responded.

"I'd like to see you try."

The Demon Emperor released a powerful roar that shook the entire coliseum, and its body began burning red, almost like it had just came out of a forge. Furthermore, its bloody wings made a complete transformation, turning into two large and long crystal shards.

The Demon Emperor's bizarre transformation baffled the spectators, as they have never seen such a sight before.

"W-What in heaven's name is that appearance? I didn't know demons can do that..." Lian Er muttered in a dazed voice, and her body that had recently calmed down started trembling in fear again.

Yuan responded almost instantly, "Those two red shards in its back are its demon crystal."

"What?! Why are they so huge? They are usually only the size of a fist-sized rock!" Lian Li exclaimed.

"Demon Emperors are almost an entirely different entity even when compared to other demons. I'm actually surprised that the 8th Leader managed to restrain this demon with his power." Yuan said.

In his mind, he was wondering if the Demon Emperor had allowed Qian Chu to restrain it on purpose for some reason.

"Pointless." Qian Chu spoke in a low voice before retrieving a black sword with red engravings on its blade.

"Demon Sealing Strike."

Qian Chu's movements were so quick that nobody in the spectators had managed to see it with their eyes, and before anyone could even realize what had happened, the Demon Emperor's body disintegrated into countless pieces until there was nothing left.

The people there were left speechless by how easily Qian Chu had managed to dispose of the Demon Emperor.

"As expected of the Demon Sealing Clan's number one genius... He killed the Demon Emperor so easily..."

The spectators began praising Qian Chu afterward.

"That was my first time seeing someone combine demon sealing aura with Sword Qi so efficiently! It's so powerful!" Lian Er's face showed admiration for Qian Chu after witnessing his prowess.

However, while everyone celebrated, Yuan shook his head inwardly.

'What an idiot.'

He then stood up and began leaving the coliseum.

"H-Hey, where are you going?" Lian Er asked him when she noticed him leaving.

"The event is done, so I have no reason to stay, and I am a little hungry." Yuan said to her before disappearing from their sights.

Grand Elder Cen descended in front of the deceased demon sealer from the Demon Sealing Grotto after Qian Chu dealt with the Demon Emperor, and he would stare at their lifeless bodies and their destroyed life-saving treasures with a dazed face.

'If I had intervened sooner, perhaps you might still be alive... I should have listened to my guts earlier.'

It was at this moment the Demon Sealing Flag released Yan Hara, who immediately began panicking.

However, when she couldn't see the Demon Emperor anywhere and saw the situation, she sighed in relief.

"T-Thank you, Leader, for saving my life." Yan Hara said to him, as she was shocked to see three corpses right beside her, mistaking Qian Chu to be her savior, which was a logical thought, since he owned the Demon Sealing Flag that protected her.

As for Suo Rengan, he'd also managed to survive because of the superior life-saving treasures his family and Grand Elder Suo gave him.

Although the other fighters had no idea that they would be fighting a Demon Emperor, Suo Rengan, who was Grand Elder Suo's grandson, had such information, allowing him to prepare in advance.

Qian Chu didn't say anything and merely nodded his head. He suspected Yan Hara to be the culprit at first, but after seeing her condition, he ruled her out.

'Who would dare steal my Demon Sealing Flag just to save her?' Qian Chu wondered to himself afterward.

Once the place calmed down, Grand Elder Cen turned to look at Qian Chu and said, "You will be hearing from the Demon Sealing Grotto soon!"

He disappeared from the coliseum shortly after, taking with him the three demon sealers' corpses.

Meanwhile, a couple of miles away from the Grand Coliseum, Yuan stopped walking when he sensed something.

"Come out. You may be able to fool those idiots, but I can smell your stench from miles away." Yuan said out loud despite it being empty there.

"..."

There was no response.

Yuan sighed and tried again, "I know that you're extremely vulnerable right now because you just used 'Blood Separation', but as you can see, I am only a Spirit Lord. You can easily kill me if you want to. I just want to talk."

After a moment of silence, Yuan shook his head, "Guess I'll just go ahead and let the others know that you're still alive."

He turned around and began walking back to the coliseum.

But before he could even take three steps, Yuan suddenly tilted his head to the right, avoiding a red projectile that shot right through where his head had just been.

He turned around to see a blob of blood sitting not far away from him, and he smiled, "Let's talk, shall we?"

Chapter 820 - Do You Still Think I Am Dead?

"Talk? I have nothing to say to a human." The Demon Emperor's voice suddenly resounded inside Yuan's head.

"That's odd. You had plenty to say before when you were fighting the demon sealers."

"..."

After a moment of silence, the Demon Emperor asked him in a puzzled voice, "You're not scared of me? You're just a mere Spirit Lord. I have killed tens of thousands of cultivators like you without breaking a sweat before. What are you thinking, approaching me? I may be weakened right now due to Blood Separation, but I still have more than enough strength to kill you even in my current state."

The Demon Emperor was intrigued by Yuan's actions that did not make sense.

"Like I said, I only wanted to talk. It's been a while since I last had a proper conversation with a demon like you." Yuan said.

And he continued, "You know, when I first saw you in the arena, I had a feeling that I had seen you before. Now that I think about it, there was one demon back then that had the same characteristic as you. What was his name again? Demon Emperor 'Carnage'?"

The blob of blood visibly trembled after hearing its name come from Yuan's mouth.

"Y-You... Who are you? Why do you know my demon name?" The Demon Emperor exclaimed in a dazed voice.

It has been countless years since it last heard of its own demon name.

Yuan didn't answer the Demon Emperor's question and continued to speak, "There were nine of you in the beginning, but most of the Demon Emperors perished during that big fight between the Demon Sealing Clan and the Demon Clan. Near the end of that fight, three of you fled from the battlefield."

"The Demon Sealing Clan searched for you demons for thousands of years, but their efforts were unfruitful, and even the Divine Paragon was unable to find you. However, after millions of years, you suddenly show up in the most awkward fashion."

"I know you're stronger than the current Leader of the Demon Sealing Clan, so I can only assume that you'd allowed yourself to be restrained for some reason. You even went through the efforts of faking your own death... Why?"

"A pretty good topic, right? Let's begin with where you demons had hid after fleeing from the fight."

"..."

The Demon Emperor was left speechless by Yuan's story, and it could not comprehend where Yuan could've heard such a thing from, as such information should've disappeared with the passage of time.

After all, millions of years have passed since the fight. Even if the Demon Sealing Clan had recorded the information somewhere, it would require a miracle for that record to last for so long.

"Where did you hear such a thing? It's clearly bullshit." The Demon Emperor decided to deny Yuan's claims.

"There's no point denying it, Demon Emperor Carnage. If you tell me where you hid, I will tell you how I learned such information." Yuan said.

However, the Demon Emperor remained silent.

"Fine, if you don't want to answer this question, we can try another question." Yuan said, treating it almost like an interview of sorts.

"Are the other two Demon Emperors still alive? I know demons are truly immortal in the sense that they can live until the end of time if nobody tries to kill them, but nothing will last forever."

Once again, the Demon Emperor remained quiet.

Yuan didn't mind it and continued to ask the Demon Emperor questions.

In the end, the Demon Emperor refused to answer any of his questions.

"Quite the uncooperative one, aren't you?" Yuan chuckled casually, acting completely calm before the Demon Emperor that could attack him at any moment.

"Since you don't want to answer any of my questions, I will have to try and answer them by myself."

After taking a deep breath, Yuan continued, "After fleeing from that fight, you and the other two Demon Emperors probably fled to one of the forbidden zones since most cultivators avoid those places like it's a plague, and even peak cultivators don't dare to approach these zones due to its dangerous environment that can instantly kill even an Immortal, but since you're demons, you don't have to worry about dying, making the forbidden zones the best sanctuary for demons."

"If I have to make a gamble on whether there are currently more demons in these forbidden zones or not, I would bet all of my money on the former."

"In fact, I would even dare to say that most of the demons that still exist can be found in these forbidden zones. If the Demon Sealing Clan, or any family with sufficient powers find out, they will surely do whatever it takes to get rid of demons once and for all."

"Now, let's talk about—"

Yuan suddenly halted his words and activated his movement technique, dodging a sudden sneak attack from the Demon Emperor.

The blob of blood also started transforming, and the Demon Emperor returned to its original appearance the next moment.

"I don't know who you are or what you want, but I cannot allow you to live for another minute." The Demon Emperor glared at Yuan with serious killing intent in its gaze.

"Are you sure you want to do that? What will you do if the others notice your presence and find you? You'll definitely die this time, especially since you're in that pathetic state." Yuan asked.

"Even if I die today, I will make sure to take your life first."

The Demon Emperor used Blood Sphere to contain Yuan the next moment. It was clearly prepared to sacrifice its life to make sure that Yuan wouldn't reveal the demon's sanctuary.

Seeing the Blood Sphere around him, Yuan smiled behind his mask and spoke in a calm voice, "To tell you the truth, I already knew that you demons were hiding within the forbidden zones. I was just too lazy to do anything about it, and my supply of demon cores was filled to the brim after that battle, so I didn't chase you lots."

"What...?" The Demon Emperor's eyes widened with shock after hearing Yuan's words, as he sounded like someone it knew... and feared.

Yuan removed his mask a moment later, revealing his handsome face and the cold smile on it.

"Do you still think I am dead?" Yuan suddenly asked the Demon Emperor, who was completely frozen from shock after the reveal.

Chapter 821 - What Is The Meaning Of This?

"Y-You... I-Impossible!" Demon Emperor Carnage immediately recognized Yuan's face, as it saw the same face during the war between demons and the Demon Sealing Clan, and after almost dying to him, it fled to one of the forbidden lands within the Nine Heavens.

It was also confident that the Divine Paragon had long perished, hence why it finally decided to come out of hiding. However, to think that it'd encounter the Divine Paragon once again.

The Demon Emperor eventually snapped out of its daze when it realized that the Divine Paragon looked slightly different than before.

"You may look like him, but you're not the Divine Paragon! I must say, you nearly gave me a heart attack. It has been tens of millions of years and many eras since the Divine Paragon's disappearance. No humans can live for that long!"

"Even though cultivators can technically become immortal, they are not truly immortal! Only we, demons, are truly immortal!"

Yuan smiled at the Demon Emperor's words and said, "You're right. I perished. However, it was my own decision to 'disappear', and now, I have returned."

"That's fucking bullshit! As if I'd believe that!" The Demon Emperor refused to believe that Yuan was really the Divine Paragon.

"Valley of Blood..." Yuan suddenly muttered in a low voice.

"What?" The Demon Emperor froze again.

"Corpse Mountain... Blood Monastery... Tomb of the Ancients..."

Yuan ignored the Demon Emperor and continued to name these weird titles one by one.

"H-How do you know these names?!" The Demon Emperor suddenly roared in a confused tone.

After all, these names were all places within the Demonic Realm! No humans should know of these places since no human has ever entered that place and managed to make it back out alive— except for one exception—the Divine Paragon!

"Isn't it obvious? I learned of these places when I went inside the Demonic Realm. It was a surprise when I first went there. If the rest of the world knew what I saw inside, they would be shocked."

"I-I still don't believe it! For all I know, the Divine Paragon could've revealed information about the Demonic Realm to the world after he sealed it!"

"It's unfortunate that you don't believe me. If I could use my signature demon sealing technique to prove my identity, I would do it. However, my body and its cultivation would not be able to handle such a technique."

"Anyways, since you revealed yourself by using such a powerful technique, the others are alerted of your presence, and it will only be a matter of time before they arrive and dispose of you."

"While you are most certainly strong enough to handle the Demon Sealing Clan in their current state, you're in no condition to do anything right now because of Blood Separation. Therefore, I shall give you a proposal."

"You can either let the Demon Sealing Clan deal with you, or you can die in my hands. Which do you prefer? I promise that it will be a swift death if you choose the latter."

"Or I can kill you and leave this place before they arrive!" The Demon Emperor instantly jumped into action and flew towards Yuan.

Without even trying to dodge, Yuan casually pointed at the Demon Emperor and muttered in a low voice, "Demon Sealing Zone."

Bang!

The Demon Emperor slammed into the barrier that suddenly restrained it.

"To tell you the truth, in my current condition, I would have no chance to defeat you before you used Blood Separation, so I must thank you for giving me this chance. Once I take care of you, I will find the rest of the stray demons and take care of them as well... eventually."

"Damn you, Divine Paragon! Just like before, you appear out of the blue to threaten our existence! Unfortunately for you, things will be different this time! You may have defeated me today, but you will not defeat the Demon Clan! Soon, you will know the true power of demons, when a real Ancient steps foot into this pathetic world!" The Demon Emperor began laughing in a crazed manner.

Yuan frowned slightly after hearing the Demon Emperor's words. He isn't normally bothered by demons' provocation, but it was different this time.

"An Ancient, huh... I have never tasted a demon core belonging to an Ancient before, so this will be my first."

"Hahaha! That's right! You will tremble before the Ancient!" The Demon Emperor continued to laugh even though it knew it was moments away from being killed by the Divine Paragon.

However, to the Demon Emperor's absolute surprise, Yuan suddenly removed the Demon Sealing Zone.

"W-What is the meaning of this?" It looked at him with a look of disbelief.

"Hm? Nothing much. I have always wanted to fight an Ancient, so I am going to let you go, as that would ensure I get to fight one in the future."

"Are you serious? You're willing to put the entire Nine Heavens and every human in it at risk because of such a selfish reason? You're definitely not the Divine Paragon I know."

Yuan showed a mysterious smile and said, "Then you don't really know me, but this is a statement that can be said for pretty much everyone."

He then placed the mask back on his face, turned around, and walked out of the Blood Sphere, almost as though the blood wall didn't exist.

Once Yuan was gone, the Demon Emperor no longer lingered and deactivated the Blood Sphere and used what little power it had left to run away from the scene right before the demon sealers arrived.

"Where's the demon?! I swear I felt its presence coming from this location!"

A bunch of demon sealers including Grand Elder Suo showed up to the scene mere moments after the Demon Emperor's departure. As for Qian Chu, he'd long left the place, so he did not sense the Demon Emperor's presence.

Meanwhile, Yuan returned to the Demon Sealing Grand Library, where he would remove his mask and stand before his statue, quietly staring at it for a long period of time, which puzzled the other demon sealers there that were wondering what he was doing.

Chapter 822 - A Nasty Individual

"Because you allowed the Demon Emperor to get away, who knows how many innocent lives would be lost now. And you did this all for what...? To fight this 'Ancient' thing?" Yuan muttered in a low voice as he stared at the Divine Paragon's statue.

In his eyes, the statue suddenly turned into the real Divine Paragon, and he spoke, "Ancients are the peak of the demon race. Above Demon Emperors are Ancient Demons, but they are not true 'Ancients'. Ancients are the first demons to have ever existed, and they all possess something all lower demons desire— complete control over their emotions."

"In other words, they don't have these random destructive urges that force them to go crazy, just like us humans. A demon that can control their emotions and thoughts— they are so powerful that a single one of them could probably destroy the entire Nine Heavens."

Yuan frowned and said, "And you purposefully allowed the Demon Emperor to get away because you want to fight one of these Ancients? This is insanity and incredibly selfish! I didn't know you were such a selfish individual until now!"

The Divine Paragon smiled, "What's wrong with being selfish? Everyone is selfish in their own ways, and my selfishness is also yours. Don't forget that we are one and the same."

"I don't get it. You were the first person to start hunting demons, yet you allowed a dangerous demon like the Demon Emperor to get away today. What is your motive? Why did you start the Demon Sealing Clan and start hunting demons in the first place?"

The Divine Paragon smiled at Yuan's question and said, "If you want the answers, search for them in your memories. Defeat the fourth floor of the Demon Sealing Pagoda and you will have your answers."

"One more thing... The 8th Leader of the Demon Sealing Clan— he's a nasty individual. He intended on letting everyone at the tournament die today. I highly recommend that you stay away from him until you're strong enough to confront him, and no matter what you do, do not reveal your true identity. I have a good feeling that he will do whatever it takes to remain as the leader of the Demon Sealing Clan, so anything that threatens his position will be disposed of..."

The Divine Paragon returned to being a statue the next moment.

Yuan sighed.

There was nothing he could do right now besides to continue his training. Now that there is a Demon Emperor and two more potential Demon Emperors on the loose somewhere in the Nine Heavens, he wants to be prepared before encountering them.

Yuan went to the training area shortly after and began training his demon sealing techniques.

Now that he's completely mastered the Demon Sealing Strike, he will be moving onto other demon sealing techniques.

The following day, Yan Hara showed up at the training area to look for Yuan.

Once she found him training alone, she approached him with a smile on her face.

"Hey."

Yuan stopped training and turned to look at her.

"Senior Yan. How are you feeling?" Yuan bowed to her before asking.

"Alive," she said.

And she continued, "I'm sorry that you had to witness such a pathetic fight. I was completely useless in that fight. If not for the Leader, I would've also died to the Demon Emperor."

Yuan shook his head, "Don't feel bad, Senior. You went up against a Demon Emperor and survived. Not many people could say the same."

"I'm not sure if that makes me feel any better since I am only alive because of Leader Qian, but thank you." Yan Hara showed a bittersweet smile.

"Anyways, I have scheduled your next examination. It will be in five days. If you cannot make it, I can reschedule it for you."

"I will make it." Yuan nodded.

"By the way, who became the next Supreme Demon Sealer?" He then asked her.

Yan Hara showed a bittersweet smile before responding, "Although nobody managed to kill or seal the Demon Emperor, they decided to give it to Suo Rengan because his overall performance was better. Some people also say it's because of his background as Grand Elder Suo's grandson that gave him an advantage, but if he doesn't qualify to become a Supreme Demon Sealer, I also don't qualify."

"However, I won't let this defeat discourage me. I will definitely win the next tournament and become a Supreme Demon Sealer!" Yan Hara spoke with her fist held tightly.

"I have faith in you." Yuan said.

"You cheeky little thing. I should be the one saying such words to you! Anyways, I won't stay here for long since I still have some important business to attend to. Before I leave, I should warn you that things might get a little crazy for a bit, so you should watch out."

"What do you mean?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

Yan Hara looked around to make sure nobody was near them, and then she said in a low voice, "Because of what happened to the Demon Sealing Grotto's three demon sealers, the Demon Sealing Clan is anticipating some kind of altercation with them soon, which might lead to some fights between the demon sealers from each party, so you should be careful."

"What makes the situation even worse is that only the demon sealers from the Demon Sealing Grotto had died during the tournament, so there are people speculating that it was a trap set up by the Demon Sealing Clan to lower the Demon Sealing Grotto's power. After all, losing three Master Demon Sealers in one day is very damaging even to a powerful place like the Demon Sealing Grotto."

"If any demon sealers from the Demon Sealing Grotto try to provoke you, ignore them. If they try to start a fight, try your best to ignore them. We don't need any more drama now."

Yuan nodded, "I understand."

"Good. If anything happens within the Grand Library, you can contact me through my communication jade slip. If you are outside... Well... Good luck..."

Yan Hara left the scene shortly after warning Yuan about potential disputes between the Demon Sealing Clan and the Demon Sealing Grotto in the future.. Although everything appeared to be normal now, it was only because not everybody had heard of the situation yet, which would undoubtedly change within the next few days.

Chapter 823 - A Second Personality

After Yan Hara left, Yuan returned to training his demon sealing techniques, increasing many mastery levels for a couple of the weaker techniques, but he could not stop thinking about the Demon Emperor and the Divine Paragon's reason for letting it escape.

Even though he knew it was because the Divine Paragon wanted to fight the Ancient, he still couldn't fathom such a reasoning.

Why would the Divine Paragon risk having the demons rule the Nine Heavens again just so he could have a fight with an Ancient? Just because he is a selfish person who doesn't care about the lives of others? But the Divine Paragon wouldn't have started hunting demons in the first place if that was the case. It didn't make sense to Yuan no matter how much he pondered about it.

'I will have my answers once I defeat the fourth floor of the Demon Sealing Pagoda, but that is easier said than done...' Yuan sighed inwardly.

Even with his ridiculous talent, such a goal seemed unfathomably distant.

Unfortunately, there was nothing he could do for now except to practice.

Yuan would increase the mastery level of multiple demon sealing techniques on that day, but they were all low-ranking techniques. He wanted to completely master all the weaker techniques before focusing on the stronger ones.

At the end of the day, Yuan began making his way outside the Grand Library, but he stopped right before the exit, mostly because he was forced to stop, as there was a crowd of people that blocked the path there.

"What's going on?" Yuan asked one of the people closest to him.

"I'm not exactly sure what happened, but there are people fighting at the entrance, blocking everyone."

Yuan raised his eyebrows. Since he couldn't see the situation with his bare eyes, he decided to use his divine sense to look at the situation, and sure enough, he could see a large group of people blocking the path.

There appeared to be two sides in this large group. One of them belonged to the Demon Sealing Clan while the other group was from the Demon Sealing Grotto.

"Because of your Demon Sealing Clan's Leader's incompetence, three of our Master Demon Sealers are dead!"

"Your Grand Elder was there as well! You cannot put all the blame on us!"

"Screw you! We all know the tournament was a malicious plot by the Demon Sealing Clan to hurt our clan! Why else would they suddenly use a Demon Emperor when all previous tournaments used Demon Generals and lower ranking demons?!"

Once Yuan overheard these people arguing with each other, he immediately understood the context and why they were fighting.

Soon, the verbal argument between these two groups escalated, turning into a full fight.

The spectators there quickly scattered to give them room.

Unfortunately, most of the lecturers in the Grand Library were absent due to the same important meeting Yan Hara was attending, so there was basically nobody to stop the fighting between these two groups.

Furthermore, the fight grew bigger because the other demon sealers would join in to assist their own companions.

Very soon, half of the people within the Grand Library were fighting.

Not wanting to participate in the fight, mostly because he was the weakest cultivator in this place, Yuan went to Yan Hara's room and locked himself inside.

Of course, he had the option to log off— or so he thought.

<You cannot log off while inside an active battlefield!>

"Hopefully, the fighting doesn't last for too long." Yuan sighed as he took a seat in the empty room.

After many minutes of pure silence, a voice suddenly resounded.

"Young Master."

Feng Yuxiang appeared before him a moment later with a perplexed look on her face.

"Feng Feng? What's up?" Yuan raised his eyebrows in a puzzling manner when he saw her expression.

"Young Master... I wanted to wait until you are willing to tell us by yourself, but I simply cannot endure my curiosity any longer, and I was hoping you could answer a few of my questions... Of course, you can refuse."

"What questions?" Yuan asked.

"Well... There are times when you feel like an entirely different person. At first, I thought it was only my imagination, but after witnessing what happened today, it appears to me that you have a second personality in you..." Feng Yuxiang expressed her worries.

"Oh..." Yuan immediately realized what Feng Yuxiang was talking about.

In fact, he'd completely forgotten that Feng Yuxiang and Lan Yingying were with him this entire time, so they saw everything when he turned into the Divine Paragon.

Yuan quickly began trying to think of an excuse, but when nothing came up, he decided to tell them the truth.

"This is going to make me sound crazy, but it appears that I am the reincarnation of the Divine Paragon..." Yuan revealed the truth to them for the first time.

Feng Yuxiang's eyes widened, and she remained silent for the next few minutes, seemingly unable to find the proper words to respond to Yuan's claims.

Seeing Feng Yuxiang's reaction, Yuan quickly said, "J-Just kidding! You see, I actually—"

"It's okay, Young Master. I believe you." Feng Yuxiang suddenly interrupted.

And she continued, "I am just surprised, that's all. In case you forgot, I am a phoenix, and we symbolize immortality and resurrection, which is just another word for reincarnation. If I do not believe in reincarnation, I might as well stop being a phoenix."

"However, I must admit, I have never actually witnessed or experienced reincarnation for myself... Can you tell me why you believe that you are the reincarnation of the Divine Paragon, Young Master? You may look exactly like him, but that's not really concrete proof..."

Yuan nodded, and he said, "Sit down. This might be a long story."

Once Feng Yuxiang sat beside him, Yuan began explaining about his situation to her.

"It all started with this weird dream, where I met someone who looked exactly like me, but he was much older..."

Chapter 824 - Closed Until Further Notice

After spending many minutes explaining his situation to Feng Yuxiang, Yuan patiently waited for her response.

Feng Yuxiang spoke after digesting all of the information, "I understand why you think you are the reincarnation of the Divine Paragon now, but there's something I don't understand. You said there is someone besides the Divine Paragon who appears in your dreams?"

Yuan nodded, "Yes, and he said that I had reincarnated more than once. That is possible, right?"

"As long as one's soul isn't destroyed, they should be able to reincarnate continuously, but like I'd already said, I am not really experienced in this matter."

"Also, while there have been many people in the past that claimed to have memories of their past lives, they have never been able to prove it properly."

"Of course, that is not to say I don't believe you, but I think we should investigate your situation further before we come to any conclusions." Feng Yuxiang said.

"What do you suggest I do?"

"First of all, we need to make sure that the memories in your head are real. After all, there are techniques out there that can feed into or alter one's memories, so there is a chance that something like that happened to you."

"How can I tell if my memories are real or fake?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"There are treasures out there that can help you, but it's not going to be cheap, and even if we have enough money, I doubt we'll be able to find it in this world."

"So we just need to go to a higher heaven, right? I have been thinking about challenging the Stairway to Heaven again since I am already reaching the limits of this world." Yuan said.

"When do you intend on leaving?"

"I want to leave after Min Li finishes her disciple examination," he said.

"That quickly? You don't want to explore this world anymore?" Feng Yuxiang raised her eyebrows.

"Well, I have a lot of questions that I want to be answered, but I won't find the answers in the Spirit Heaven, so there's really no reason for me to stay there any longer."

"Fair enough." Feng Yuxiang didn't say anything else.

However, after a moment of silence, she spoke again, "By the way, Young Master, if your memories turn out to be true— that you're truly the reincarnation of the Divine Paragon, what are you going to do?"

"Nothing. I am going to continue living my life as it is. The Divine Paragon's life ended with him. I have no reason to continue his legacy, nor do I want to."

"And even if I wanted to continue his legacy, I don't even know anything about him."

"I see..."

After another moment of silence, Feng Yuxiang said, "Young Master, once we return to Spirit Heaven, let's go visit the House of Riches to see if they have the treasure required for your memories."

"Sure." Yuan nodded.

They still have two weeks until Min Li's disciple examination, anyway.

About three hours later, Yuan was finally able to log off the game.

"You're late today. Dinner just ended." Chu Liuxiang said to him after he returned to the real world.

"Sorry, but I wasn't able to log off due to some unexpected circumstances."

"Oh? Tell me about it if you want to."

Yuan nodded and told her about the situation between the Demon Sealing Clan and the Demon Sealing Grotto before they went to sleep.

Meanwhile, somewhere in Spirit Heaven, Min Li was wandering the wilderness in search of magical beasts to hunt.

After spending many minutes searching, Min Li finally encountered a first level Spirit Warrior magical beast.

However, before she could even get close to the magical beast, a powerful pressure appeared, instantly flattening the magical beast.

The excitement on Min Li's face immediately disappeared when she saw this, and she turned around to look at the small figure following her.

"How am I supposed to train if you keep killing them before I can even do anything? This is the 3rd time already! Do you hold some kind of grudge against me?" Min Li asked Xiao Hua.

"Brother Yuan told me to keep you safe." Xiao Hua said in a calm voice.

"I know he told you that, but I don't think he said anything about preventing me from training! I can handle myself, so can you just let me train properly, please? I will let you know when I need help."

After a moment of silence, Xiao Hua quietly nodded her head.

"Thank you..." Min Li returned to looking for magical beasts shortly after.

Once she found one, she turned to glare at Xiao Hua to make sure she didn't forget about their agreement.

Sometime later, she approached the magical beast and started fighting it while Xiao Hua watched from a distance.

Seeing that she could finally have some practice, Min Li fought the magical beast to the best of her abilities, and after many minutes of going back and forth, the magical beast was slain by her.

After her first kill, Min Li would spend the rest of the night hunting magical beasts, acquiring two monster cores that she would use for her cultivation once she went to the Cultivators' Haven in the nearest city.

The following day, Yuan logged into Cultivation Online after breakfast.

"Who's there?!"

The moment Yuan appeared in Cultivation Online, he was greeted by a sword that was only inches away from his neck.

"I-It's me..." Yuan responded in a nervous voice.

"Little founder? You scared me just now. How did you come inside without making a sound?" Yan Hara retrieved her sword after realizing that it was him.

"Well..."

But before Yuan could even explain, Yan Hara continued, "Anyways, are you okay? I hope you didn't participate in yesterday's fight."

"Yes, I am fine. I hid in here while everyone else fought." He nodded.

"What happened after the fight?" He then asked.

Yan Hara sighed, "Many demon sealers from both sides were injured, and someone from our side even died. In fact, the higher ups have decided to close the Grand Library for all demon sealers until further notice."

Chapter 825 - Pill Of Truth

"What?! The Grand Library will be closed?! What about the examination? Will it be canceled as well?" Yuan asked after learning about the situation.

"No, the examination will continue as scheduled. Although the Grand Library is closed, as official lecturers, we can still enter, and we can bring other demon sealers into the Grand Library as long as you're not alone."

"So I can still learn demon sealing techniques as long as I am with you?"

"Yes."

Seeing Yan Hara nod, Yuan sighed in relief.

"However, I will be very busy for a while, so my time in the Grand Library will be very limited." Yan Hara warned him a moment later.

"I understand."

After speaking with Yan Hara, Yuan decided to leave the Grand Library and return to Spirit Heaven.

But before he left, Yan Hara asked him, "By the way, where are you coming to the Grand Library from?"

"Myriad of Techniques?" Yuan responded in a questioning tone.

"I mean where in the Nine Heavens."

"Oh, I am currently in Spirit Heaven."

"What? Spirit Heaven?" Yan Hara's eyes widened with surprise.

It was quite shocking for someone of Yuan's talent to be in Spirit Heaven. In fact, Yan Hara expected Yuan to come from no lower than the Fifth Heaven, so one can imagine her surprise after learning the truth. If only she knew that he'd actually originated from the Lower Heavens.

"What about you, Senior? Where are you from?" Yuan broke the silence and asked her.

"I'm currently in the Seventh Heaven..." She responded in a dazed voice.

"Seventh Heaven... It'll be a while before we can see each other outside of this place. Fortunately, we can see each other in this place."

"You don't need to reach the Seventh Heaven. As long as you reach the Sixth Heaven, I will be able to come to you." Yan Hara said.

"Are you sure? Won't it be expensive to go to a lower world?"

"That is only the case if I want to go below the Sixth Heaven. Things work differently once you enter the Sixth Heaven. The Lower Heaven and Spirit Heaven are relatively the same. We call these two worlds the Mortal Realm."

"The Third, Fourth, and Fifth Heaven aren't that much different from each other since their cultivators are all between Spirit King and Spirit Sovereigns with the limit being Spirit Sovereigns. Once you reach the Sixth Heaven, that is where things change drastically, as there is no longer a limit to one's cultivation level, so it won't require as many resources for me to go down there."

"I see... Thank you for the explanation. I will let you know when I reach the Sixth Heaven." Yuan said to her afterward.

"Good luck." Yan Hara nodded.

Once Yuan left the Grand Library, Yan Hara mumbled to herself, "Even with his talents, it'll probably take him a couple hundred years before he can reach the Sixth Heaven..."

Fortunately for her, who still has tens of thousands of years of longevity, a few hundred years won't mean too much to her, and if she enters seclusion, that amount of time might pass in a flash.

After leaving the Grand Library, Yuan left the Myriad of Techniques and started making his way towards the House of Riches.

A few hours later, he was standing before the auction house once again.

"I think it would make things smoother if I enter with you, Young Master." Feng Yuxiang said before appearing beside him.

Yuan nodded without saying anything since he knew that she was an expert in these situations.

The two of them approached the front door shortly after.

"Welcome to the House of Riches. How may I assist you two?"

A worker asked them when they entered the building.

Since the auction house wasn't open for business, there was nobody outside, but guests could still go there to sell their treasures there.

"We're looking for a specific treasure, and we want the auction house to help us find it." Feng Yuxiang said.

The worker looked a little dazed after hearing Feng Yuxiang's request. After snapping out of it, he spoke, "I-I'm sorry, but we don't offer that kind of service here. Right now, we're only buying treasures and accepting reservations for future auctions—"

Before the worker could even finish his sentence, a figure suddenly appeared behind him and pushed him to the side.

"W-Welcome back to our humble place, Esteemed Guest! Please ignore what this newcomer just said, he doesn't know what he's talking about. We'll be more than happy to assist you in finding your treasure." The person who just showed up said to them.

Of course, this person recognized Feng Yuxiang from the Flood Dragon's Scale auction.

The male worker that had been interrupted suddenly said with a baffled look on his face, "Cut the crap. You're the one who doesn't know what you're talking about! I have worked here way before you started!"

The female worker frowned and said, "And today will be your last day here if you continue to interrupt us. They are esteemed guests of the House of Riches, and they're friends of Senior Gu!"

The male worker's face immediately paled, and he turned to look at Feng Yuxiang and Yuan before lowering his head.

"I-I'm sorry..."

"Can we just get this over with?" Feng Yuxiang said with a nonchalant expression.

"Of course! Please, follow me. Senior Gu is absent today, so I will take care of you two." The female worker then said.

"Prepare the best tea for our guests." The female worker said to the male worker.

"Right away."

Feng Yuxiang and Yuan proceeded to follow the female worker to the best guest room in the building.

Once they sat down, the female worker asked them, "What kind of treasure are you looking for, esteemed guests?"

"We're looking for the Pill of Truth.. Do you know of it?" Feng Yuxiang asked the worker, but she didn't need a response to know the answer, as the worker had a puzzled face after hearing the pill.

Chapter 826 - Moonlight City

Indeed, the worker would shake her head the next moment and spoke, "I'm sorry, but I have never heard of the Pill of Truth before."

"You don't need to be knowledgeable about it to search for it. Honestly, I don't expect it to appear in Spirit Heaven, but I want to try." Feng Yuxiang said.

The worker nodded, "Okay, I will let Senior Gu know as soon as she returns. Oh, do you have a time limit?"

"Yes. Two weeks. If you cannot find it by then, you can forget about it."

"I understand."

Feng Yuxiang retrieved a small wooden box and placed it before the female worker.

"If you can find the Pill of Truth, I will give this to the House of Riches to show my appreciation."

"May I?"

"Go ahead."

The female worker picked up the box and opened it.

Her eyes widened with shock when she saw what was inside.

"T-This is Royal-grade Spirit Jade? Are you sure? A Spirit Jade of this size is worth over 100 million spirit stones..."

"Only if you can find the Pill of Truth." Feng Yuxiang said before taking the Spirit Jade back.

"W-We won't let you down!" The worker said with a serious face.

"Good luck." Feng Yuxiang said to her.

"Young Master, shall we leave now?" She asked him a moment later.

"Yes."

As they prepared to leave, the female worker bowed to them and said, "Once again, thank you for the Fl—"

"Ahem!"

Feng Yuxiang cleared her throat in a loud and unnatural manner, interrupting the worker.

When she looked up, she could see Feng Yuxiang staring at her with hidden killing intent in her gaze.

The female worker swallowed nervously and didn't dare to finish her sentence after seeing this.

"Feng Feng? What are you doing?" Yuan looked at her with raised eyebrows.

"N-Nothing... Let's go..." Feng Yuxiang quickly said.

Once they left the House of Riches, Feng Yuxiang asked, "What should we do now, Young Master?"

"I don't know, but we have plenty of time before the disciple examination." He shrugged.

Feng Yuxiang pondered for a moment before speaking, "Then how about I take you to the person who can remove Destiny Seals? It might be a while before you can acquire techniques that allow you to destroy Destiny Seals, as they're quite rare."

"Let's do that." Yuan nodded.

"I don't actually know where this person is, but I know someone who does. Follow me."

Feng Yuxiang took Yuan to the teleportation device.

After traveling to a couple of different cities with the teleportation device, they arrived at Moonlight City.

"The Moonlight City is one of the smaller cities within Spirit Heaven, but they're one of the most popular ones due to their purpose. The Moonlight Brokers operate this entire city, and they're a group of people that sell or buy information for money or treasures. If you ever need information about something, you can just come here. Also, they exist in the other realms as well." Feng Yuxiang introduced the place to Yuan.

Once they were inside the city, Yuan could see why Feng Yuxiang called this city 'small', as there were many stores cramped beside each other with barely any space between each other.

"Are all of these stores brokers?" Yuan asked Feng Yuxiang as they walked the crowded street.

"Not all of them. Some of them are just regular businesses. Look at that store over there. Do you see that crescent symbol hanging on the door? That indicates the store is part of the Moonlight Brokers. All brokers in this city must have the symbol to operate, or they are selling information illegally and aren't as credible."

"I see... Hm? Why did we go to the auction house if we can just ask the people here about the Pill of Truth?" Yuan suddenly realized this.

"Although the information brokers in this place know almost everything about this world, they don't know everything, and there are resources the House of Riches have that this city may not and vice versa. That's why it's better to visit multiple sources."

"Anyways, do you see that tall building in the distance? That is Moonlight Brokers' main building, as well as our destination."

Many minutes later, they arrived at the front of the tall building.

"That's a lot of people..." Yuan sighed when he saw the massive queue outside the place.

At this rate, it might be hours before they can even enter the building.

"Don't worry, Young Master. I have a way for us to skip the line. Stay here for a moment." Feng Yuxiang said before she started walking towards the entrance, ignoring the entire queue.

"The line is back there." The guard at the entrance said to Feng Yuxiang.

Feng Yuxiang didn't say anything and retrieved a piece of paper from her spatial ring before shoving it in the guard's face.

The guard didn't know what he was looking at, but he recognized the crescent symbol on it.

"Please wait a moment." The guard went inside the building for a minute, returning with a middle-aged man.

"Can you show what you just showed me to him?" The guard asked Feng Yuxiang.

"T-This is..."

The moment the middle-aged man saw the papers, his eyes widened with shock.

"W-Welcome back to Moonlight City, Benefactor Feng!" The middle-aged man lowered his head and bowed to her, dumbfounding the guards there, as they have never seen the middle-aged man acting in such a manner before.

"I'm here to buy information," said Feng Yuxiang in a calm voice.

"Please, follow me inside! The Boss will handle it!" The middle-aged man said.

"The Boss?!" The guards were truly shocked now.

Feng Yuxiang nodded before turning to look at Yuan and gesturing for him to go to her.

"Is everything okay?" Yuan asked.

"Yes, they have agreed to work with us." Feng Yuxiang said with a smile.

Sometime later, the middle-aged man led the two of them to the top floor before entering a luxuriously decorated room.

"Please wait a moment while I call for the Boss.." The middle-aged man bowed to them before leaving the place.

Chapter 827 - Benefactor Feng

After leaving Feng Yuxiang and Yuan in the room, the middle-aged man rushed to the room that was only at the end of the hall.

He banged on the door and shouted, "Boss Yue! This is an emergency!"

The door flew open the next moment, and the middle-aged man rushed inside, standing before this beautiful woman with a cold expression on her face.

"What is it?"

"B-Benefactor Feng has returned!" The middle-aged man immediately said.

"Benefactor Feng? Who the heck is that?"

However, the Boss didn't appear to recognize this person.

The middle-aged man looked surprised for a second before snapping out of his daze and continuing, "Benefactor Feng! She was the person who saved Madam Yue, your mother, when she was on the verge of death! Did you already forget?! Madam Yue even told us to never forget this name even after her—"

The beautiful woman suddenly stood up with a look of realization on her face.

"W-Where is this person?!" She exclaimed.

"They're currently waiting in the guest room on this—"

Before the middle-aged man could even finish his sentence, the beautiful woman rushed outside and went to the room Feng Yuxiang and Yuan were staying in.

After opening the door in an exaggerated manner, the beautiful woman turned to look at the two figures sitting inside the room, and her gaze immediately landed on Feng Yuxiang.

"A-Are you really Benefactor Feng?" The beautiful woman asked Feng Yuxiang in a trembling voice.

"Hm? Who are you? I was expecting Yue Xin." Feng Yuxiang looked at the woman with raised eyebrows.

"I'm Yue Yin. Yue Xin, my mother, is no longer here. She passed 900 years ago..." The woman responded in a low voice.

"..."

The room turned silent for a long moment before Feng Yuxiang broke the silence and spoke, "You have my condolences."

"I heard a lot about you from my mother, Benefactor Feng. You saved my mother when she was attacked by a powerful magical beast, and you even helped the Moonlight Brokers flourish. On her deathbed, my mother told me to repay her debt to you since she was never able to." Yue Yin said.

"You don't need to repay any debts. It has been thousands of years since I left this place, and all of Yue Xin's debt has already been paid."

"What? Then why did she tell me to..."

"Don't think too much about it. Anyways, I am here today with my Young Master to buy some information." Feng Yuxiang gestured for Yue Yin to take a seat.

After a moment of silence, Yue Yin took a seat before them and spoke, "What do you want to know? Don't worry about the payment. You have already contributed enough to the Moonlight Brokers with your generous donations before."

Feng Yuxiang nodded and spoke, "First of all, do you have any information on the Pill of Truth? We're looking for it."

"Pill of Truth? Something that precious won't exist in this world— at least I'm not aware of it." Yue Yin shook her head.

"However, I will have my people look deeper into it just in case. You should have a real response by the end of the day."

Feng Yuxiang nodded, and she continued, "As for my next request... I want to know where I can find Jia Chong."

"Jia Chong... The Wandering Array Master...?" Yue Yin held a complicated look on her face as she spoke.

"Yes." Feng Yuxiang calmly nodded.

Yue Yin sighed, "I knew things wouldn't be easy with you, but to think you want to look for Jia Chong... Do you know what happened the last time I sold information on his whereabouts? He slaughtered the people that went looking for him and destroyed nearly half of my city."

"Although Jia Chong is, without a doubt, the best Array Master in Spirit Heaven, he's also crazy. He believes that all of his encounters should be natural, and anybody that purposefully seeks out for him is trying to mess with his flow of nature— whatever that means."

Feng Yuxiang showed a confident smile on her face as she spoke, "Don't worry, I can guarantee you that he won't do anything to us."

"What about my city? He said that he'd completely erase this city if we sell him again..." Yue Yin sighed.

"We won't tell him that we found him through the Moonlight Brokers, so he won't do anything to you guys. If he does show up, you can simply deny it."

After spending many moments pondering her answer, Yue Yin finally came to a conclusion.

"Alright, we'll tell you about his whereabouts. However, the location itself is also quite dangerous. It's a place only someone insane like Jia Chong would dare traverse."

"There's only one place in Spirit Heaven that could be considered 'quite dangerous'..." Feng Yuxiang mumbled in a low voice.

"It's the Demons' Valley." Yue Yin said, confirming Feng Yuxiang's thoughts.

"D-Demons' Valley?!" Yuan exclaimed when he heard such an ominous name.

"Are there demons in this place?!" He quickly asked.

Yue Yin chuckled at Yuan's question and shook her head, "Of course not. Demons no longer exist. However, the Demons' Valley has a polluted environment that can cause people to go insane if they stay in there for too long, and the magical beasts in there are much more powerful than the ones you find everywhere else in Spirit Heaven."

"I see..."

Yue Yin then continued, "I don't know of his exact location, but I do know that he's currently in Demons' Valley."

"If you want to find him, you should go there as soon as possible since I don't know when he'll leave, but then again, he's been in that place for over a year already, way longer than he usually stays in one place."

"Thank you for the information." Feng Yuxiang said, and she turned to look at Yuan.

"What do you think, Young Master? Do you want to go now or later?"

Yuan pondered for a moment before speaking, "Let's go after my examination in a few days.. After that, we'll have an entire week to look for Jia Chong in Demons' Valley."

Chapter 828 - Magical Beast Store

"I understand." Feng Yuxiang nodded.

Yuan turned to look at Yue Yin and asked her, "By the way, is there a Myriad of Techniques near the Demons' Valley?"

Yue Yin pondered for a moment before nodding her head, "Yes, there is a small town about 50 miles from the Demons' Valley. They have a Myriad of Techniques there."

"Thank you."

"However, I must warn you, that town is weird. Most people say it's due to the Demons' Valley that's leaking its chaotic energy outside, but there are many crazy people in that place. If you go there, try not to stay there for too long."

"I understand." Yuan nodded.

"Is there anything else you want to know about, Young Master?" Feng Yuxiang asked him.

"I have nothing else. We can leave," he said.

"Y-You're leaving already?" Yue Yin asked them.

"Yes, we have everything we need. But we'll return later for the Pill of Truth." Feng Yuxiang said.

"Unless you have something for us?"

"Well... I want to buy information from you, Benefactor Feng." Yue Yin said.

Feng Yuxiang raised her eyebrows in a questioning manner.

"What kind of information?"

"Information about my mother. I want to know about the time you spent with her."

"But I have to be with the Young Master..."

"It's okay, Feng Feng. Stay here and talk with her." Yuan quickly said.

"I'll look around the city by myself, and I still have Yingying with me. You can come back after you're done here."

"If you say so, Young Master..." Feng Yuxiang reluctantly nodded.

Thus, Feng Yuxiang stayed behind with Yue Yin while Yuan left the building by himself.

"Trust me, there isn't that much to talk about. I just happened to stumble on Yue Xin when she was in trouble and decided to save her. After that, I invested some money in the Moonlight Brokers so that I could also benefit from them. That's all." Feng Yuxiang said.

"Even then, I still want to hear about it— your time with my mother."

"Very well, but my time isn't cheap, especially when you're making me leave my Young Master's side."

Yue Yin nodded her head with a resolute face.

Feng Yuxiang sighed, and she began recalling her experience with Yue Xin to the best of her abilities, as it has been thousands of years since it happened.

Meanwhile, Yuan wandered Moonlight City aimlessly. Although it was a small city, it was incredibly active with shops left and right.

After walking for a few minutes, Yuan stopped by this store that immediately caught his interest the moment he laid eyes on it, and it was one of the biggest buildings on the street.

"Magical Beast Store?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"Yingying, do you know anything about this kind of business?" Yuan decided to ask her, who was a Divine Beast.

"Yes, there are people out there who make a living by capturing magical beasts to nurture and train before selling them to beast tamers. However, it wasn't that popular in the Mythic Realm, so it rarely happened." Lan Yingying responded.

"Beast Tamers... They are cultivators that fight with magical beasts as their companions, right? Does this make me a Beast Tamer?"

"You're technically a Beast Tamer since you have tamed two Divine Beasts, but you're nothing like a Beast Tamer since you don't ask us to fight for you, and you see us as more than just 'servants', which is something most Beast Tamers don't do."

"I see... I haven't really come across any Beast Tamers since I started cultivating. Are they that rare?"

"I'm not really sure about the Beast Tamers out here since I was born inside the Mystic Realm. However, they're not that popular within the Mystic Realm since it requires a lot of resources and effort to train a magical beast. Even if you form a contract with a magical beast, it doesn't necessarily mean that they'll listen to you."

"Furthermore, they still have to cultivate their own bodies even though their servants do most of the work. If you ask me, only wealthy cultivators would become Beast Tamers due to the amount of resources it requires."

"That makes sense..." Yuan mumbled.

In the end, Yuan's curiosity got the best of him, so he went inside the building to take a look.

'This isn't what I expected... It's quite clean in here...' Yuan thought to himself when he saw the interiors of the building.

For some reason, he expected the place to resemble an animal store, but he couldn't see any magical beasts on display.

"Hello, how may I help you?" A tall middle-aged man approached Yuan shortly after he stepped inside the store.

"I'm just looking around," he said.

"I see... Are you interested in magical beasts?" The man then asked.

"A little."

"Then have you ever thought about becoming a Beast Tamer? Beast Tamers are cultivators that command magical beasts on the battlefield."

"No, I have never thought about becoming a Beast Tamer." Yuan shook his head.

"Perhaps you might start thinking about it after today. Follow me, I will show you the magical beasts that we have in stock."

Yuan knew that the middle-aged man was trying to get him to buy a magical beast, but he didn't care and followed the man, as he was truly intrigued in the types of magical beasts that were being sold.

After following the man to the counter, Yuan watched as the man retrieved four books and placed them before him.

"We have four main categories for our magical beasts. Power, agility, flight, and special. Those in the power category are magical beasts with naturally high strength, but they come with slower speed most of the time."

"Magical beasts in the agility category are the opposite with lower strength but higher speed."

"The flight category should be self-explanatory. They're all magical beasts that can fly."

"As for the special category, they're mostly rare magical beasts that are hard to acquire. Which category would you like to see first?"

Chapter 829 - Nature Of Magical Beasts

Chapter 829 - Nature Of Magical Beasts

"Uhh... The especial category, I guess?" Yuan responded after pondering for a few moments.

"very well".

The man pushed the other three books to the side before placing the especial category in front of Yuan.

"Here you go, buddy. Take your time."

Yuan opened the book and began flipping through the pages, and he could see names of magical beasts and painted pictures of them on each page.

He didn't recognize any of these magical beasts, mostly because he hasn't really encountered any magical beasts since he arrived in Spirit Heaven.

However, judging by their appearance and description, most of these magical beasts appeared to be quite powerful.

"By the way, I should let you know in advance that these magical beasts are all matured. If you wish to look for immature magical beasts, you'll have to visit our action house."

Yuan raised his eyebrows and asked, "Why does it matter if they're mature or not?"

The man chuckled and said, "It matters a lot. Mature magical beasts are more difficult to control and train while immature magical beasts will give you a much easier time. Also, if you properly nurture an immature magical beasts until their maturity, they will be much more powerful than a magical beasts that raised itself in the wild. This is why most people prefer immature magical beasts."

A few minutes later, Yuan closed the book and shook his head, "Sorry, but I am not interested in these magical beasts;"

"Don't worry, we have a lot more magical beasts in the other categories. In fact, the special category has the least choices due to their rarity. Also, just because they are rare doesn't make them more powerful. There are magical beasts in the other categories that are extremely powerful."

"Thank you for the offer, but I don't think my decision will change even if I look at the other categories." Yuan shook his head.

"I see..."

The man took back the books before putting them away.

"Anyways, if you ever change your mind, you know where to find us. We have new magical beasts almost every week. If you're looking for immature magical beasts, you should give our action house a visit. It's only a couple of streets away.

"Okay." Yuan nodded.

He left the place shortly after and began wandering the city again.

"Yingying, I must ask, how do you feel about cultivators capturing magical beasts and selling them?" Yuan suddenly asked her.

He was worried that she might be feeling disgusted by such a business. After all, she is technically a magical beast as well, and it would be akin to watching her own people being sold.

"You don't have to worry about me, I don't feel anything about it." Lan Yingying responded in a calm voice.

"Even though we are all technically magical beasts, we do not see each other like humans see other humans."

"For humans, regardless of your background, you are still considered as humans, and you are able to feel empathy towards other humans, but that is not the case for us magical beasts, as we see other races as a different species."

"In fact, we do not feel intimacy even towards our own race."

"The most important thing to magical beasts are their connections with one another, just like my connection with you."

"I wouldn't feel anything if a stranger died before my eyes, but I would feel pain if I saw you hurt. That's just how all magical beasts function, and that is precisely why we don't care if cultivators capture or hunt other magical beasts."

"In fact, magical beasts also hunt other magical beasts for their cultivation, so we have no right to judge humans for their actions."

"I see..."

Although Yuan was relieved that Lan Yingying wasn't affected by the magical beasts store, he also didn't know that to think about how magical beasts treat each other.

Sometime later, Yuan stopped before a store that sold treasures.

"I don't really need any treasures, but the others would find them useful... However, I don't know that kind of treasures to get for them..."

Yuan pondered about what kind of treasures he could get for Wang Ming and the others.

eventually, he decided to just give them the resources to buy the treasures themselves.

About two hours later, Feng Yuxiang returned to his side.

"I apologize for keeping you waiting, Young Master." She said to him the moment she got back.

"You don't need to apologize for everything, Feng Feng." Yuan said with a smile.

"How was it? Was she satisfied?" He then asked

"I think so." She nodded.

"That's good"

"What should we do now, Young Master? Shall we start making our way towards the demon's valley?"

"Not yet. I need to meet with my companions back at the hotel first, then we'll make our way to the demons'Valley."

"I understand"

Thus, they started their journey back to the original city.

That night, Yuan said to the others, "I have some things to give you all. Meet me at the square tonight. It won't take long."

After dinner, everybody returned to their room and logged into Cultivation Online.

They all gathered at the square and waited for Yuan to arrive.

"I will be busy for a while, so I want to give you these before I leave." Yuan handed each of them a storage pouch

"Can we open it now?" Wang Ming asked

"Go ahead." Yuan nodded

They all opened the storage pouch to find 10,000 spirit stones inside.

"10,000 spirit stones?! That's worth 100 million gold coins" Are you sure you want to give this much money to us?" Shi Lang was shocked.

"It's really not that much, but it should be more than enough to assist you and your cultivation until you reach Spirit Master."

"Also, I plan on ascending to the next realm soon." He suddenly said.

"What? Already? it hasn't even been that long since you came here." Wang Ming asked.

"I'm almost a Spirit King, my cultivation will improve very slowly if I remain in this realm, hence my decision."

"I see..."

Chapter 830 - Upcoming Disciple Examination

Chapter 830 - Upcoming Disciple Examination

"Yuan, do you need me to come with you?" Chu liuxiang asked him shortly after he handed them spirit stones.

"It's going to be a dangerous journey, and I don't know that to expect, so it would be for the best if I went alone." Yuan shook his head.

"Dangerous? How dangerous?" Li jinxi asked, her eyes filled with curiosity.

"It's a place called demons' Valley, and according to the person who gave me this information, it can make people go crazy if they go there."

"That doesn't sound good... at all." Meixiu said with a worried frown on her face.

"I will be fine." Yuan showed her a confident smile.

After talking with the others for a couple more minutes, Yuan left the square and began making his way towards the Demons' Valley.

A few hours later, near sunrise, Feng Yuxiang said, "Young Master, this is the furthest we can go using the teleportation device. We'll have to travel by ourselves now."

"Will we make it before the examination begins?" He asked

"We should barely make it if we don't stop." Feng Yuxiang nodded

"That's good enough."

They began flying towards their destination after leaving the city.

During their journey, Yuan would spend most of his time staring at the scenery that was mostly filled with mountains and vast empty lands.

At time, he would fly over small villages that only had a dozen houses at most.

Eventually, he realized something.

"Feng Feng, is it just me or is there a lack of water in this world?" Yuan asked her

"A lack of water?" Feng Yuxiang started laughing after hearing his words.

"Young Master, the cultivation world is mostly made up of water. While it may seem like there is a lot of land, the truth is that compared to water, the Nine Heavens is only 30 percent land."

"The Spirit Heaven is mostly land, but once you reach the upper heavens, most cities are separated by many seas, and it would require days if not weeks of traveling just to reach the next city if you do not have a good flying treasure."

"Speaking of flying treasures, where do I buy them? I don't personally need them, but I am thinking about giving them to my friends so that they can travel around more conveniently."

"Flying treasures are quite rare even in this world, and even if you find one, they're not that fast. You'll have to travel to the upper heavens if you want a good flying treasure, but if you still want some, i know of a place in this world that sells them."

"However, your schedule is a little tight right now..."

Yuan then said, "It can wait until I finish my current appointments."

A few hours later, Yuan descended and said, "let's take a break. I will be back in two to three hours."

"Okay"

Feng Yuxiang entered his body to rest, and Yuan logged off shortly after to have breakfast with the others.

"Guys, have you heard about the upcoming disciple examination? Apparently, some big sects are hosting this disciple examination about a week from now, and there are tens of thousands of players that will be participating." Wang Ming suddenly brought up the Seven Spirit Academies' Disciple examination.

"Are you going to participate?" Shi Lang asked him

"I am thinking about it, but since Yuan will be ascending soon, that means we'll get to ascend as well, right? What's the point of joining a sect when I can join a much better sect in the next realm?" Wang Ming said.

Wang Bingbing raised her eyebrows and said, "Have you already forgotten about what happened recently? There are tens of thousands of players currently stuck in Spirit Heaven because they rushed to ascend without having sufficient strength, so they are forced to rely on stronger players to even leave the city."

"The next realm will surely be much harder than Spirit Heaven, and I doubt anyone but Yuan would be able to survive such a place."

"Now that you mention it..." Wang Ming began reconsidering his decision.

"What do you think, Yuan? Should we join one of these sects?" Hong Xiuquan suddenly asked him.

Yuan pondered for a moment before nodding his head, "Honestly, I think it would benefit all of you if you joined a sect. Wang Bingbing is right. Even if I ascend to the next realm, I don't think you should follow me, especially since we don't know what's up there."

"Furthermore, the sects in question are top sects in Spirit Heaven, and there are seven of them. I'm sure there's a lot of new things you can learn from them."

The others exchanged glances with each other.

"So who's going to participate?" Wang Ming asked them

"I'll do it." Shi Lang said.

"We cannot rely on Yuan for everything. I am going to join a sect and improve myself from there."

Wu Zao nodded and said, "I will also participate. I don't have anything else to do, anyway."

One by one, the Demon Sealing Faction decided to join a sect.

"What about you, Li Jinxi?" They turned to look at her.

"I'm fine by myself." She calmly responded

"Really? How do you even train yourself nowadays?" Xi Murong asked her.

"I hunt monsters." She quickly replied

"That's it?"

Li Jinxi nodded

"As expected from the tyrannical gorilla... She probably enjoys hunting monsters all day..." Wang Ming mumbled in a low voice.

"I heard you." Li Jinxi narrowed her eyes at him, causing him to tremble.

"I-It's just a joke."

"Anyways, I do not intend on joining any sects. I am satisfied with my current routine, and I get a lot of monster cores from it as well," She said a moment later.

"If that's what you want to do, we won't try to convince you." Shi Lang said.

"The two of you will probably follow Yuan when he ascends, right?" Wang Bingbing suddenly turned to look at Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang.

"Of course." Chu Liuxiang immediately responded.

Meixiu also agreed by nodding her head.

Chapter 831 - Have You Seen My Son?

Chapter 831 - Have You Seen My Son?

After talking with the others for a couple more minutes, everyone returned to their own schedule, which consisted of mostly morning practice, so everyone except Yuan went to the training field.

As for Yuan, he returned to Cultivation Online so that he could continue making his journey to the Demons' Valley.

Many hours later, Yuan could suddenly sense a chilly sensation on his skin, causing him to tremble slightly. However, it wasn't because of the weather, and a cultivator of his level wouldn't be affected by normal cold weather.

"What is this feeling? It's unpleasant." Yuan asked Feng Yuxiang, who didn't seem affected at all.

"It must be the Demons' Valley miasma," she said.

"You don't feel it?" Yuan asked her with a raised eyebrow.

"No, it appears that the miasma doesn't affect Divine Beasts. However, this is truly unexpected. I didn't expect for the miasma to reach all the way here since we're still a few hours away from the town. It wasn't this bad the last time I was here.

"You came to the Demons' Valley before?"

"Somewhat. I flew over it, but I never went inside, and that was thousands of years ago."

"I see. How was the place when you flew over it?"

"It was desolate and had this grim atmosphere. That's all I can remember."

"Why is the place like this?" Yuan continued to ask.

"Who knows. According to my knowledge, demons used to roam that land very frequently and even made it into some sort of stronghold, hence its name. However, after the Demon Clan was defeated by humans, they all seemingly disappeared, leaving behind this miasma that makes people crazy if they stay

"Demons, huh? Honestly, I wanted to visit the Demons' Valley not entirely because of Jia Chong. I was intrigued by this place's name, so I wanted to see what it was like for myself." Yuan suddenly said.

"Do you think it's because of your memories as the Divine Paragon that made you interested in Demons' Valley?" Feng Yuxiang then asked.

"Who knows, but it feels like I am always encountering demons, almost like we're fated to cross paths everywhere I go." Yuan sighed.

A few hours later, Feng Yuxiang said, "We're almost there, Young Master. Are you okay with the miasma? Do you feel unwell?"

Yuan shook his head, "I am fine. The miasma is unpleasant and makes my skin crawl, but I don't feel any differently than normal."

"That's good to hear. But since we're going to the town first, I should talk a little about it."

"First of all, the town is a nameless place. It probably had a name before, but it was forgotten with time. I personally have never been to the town before, but I asked the Moonlight Brokers about it before I left, and Yue Yin told me that it's a town filled with crazy people, warning me that we shouldn't interact with them.

"According to her, many people go missing in that place, and its residents act like they're possessed by something. Due to its bad reputation, it rarely receives any guests. The only people that go to that place are cultivators who are interested in the Demons' Valley. There are rumors of hidden treasures within the Demons' Valley, so it's a hot spot for treasure hunters."

"Sounds like a complicated place."

About an hour later, they arrived at the nameless town.

About an hour later, they arrived at the nameless town. "The miasma inside this town is way stronger than anything I have felt outside." Yuan muttered in a low voice as he entered the town that didn't even have any guards.

At first glance, the place looked very empty, almost as though it was a ghost town. However, he quickly realized that was not the case.

"Young Master, they're watching us from their houses." Feng Yuxiang suddenly said to him.

He nodded, "Yes, I can see them with my divine sense. There is definitely something off about them."

After walking around the town for about half an hour without seeing a single individual, Yuan sighed, "How are we supposed to find the Myriad of Techniques if there's nobody to guide us there?"

"This is a relatively small town, so we'll probably find it just by walking around." Feng Yuxiang said.

After a few more minutes of wandering, Yuan finally found someone in the street- a very skinny old woman standing in the street with a dazed look on her pale face.

Yuan swallowed nervously when he saw this old woman that looked almost like a skeleton. Although he has never watched any horror movies before, Yu Rou used to tell him scary stories on special occasions, and in all of her stories, there would always be a creepy-looking old woman.

Yuan's instincts told him to not approach this old woman, but he wanted to find the Myriad of Techniques as soon as possible or he would be late for the examination.

'Calm down. There's nothing this old woman can do to harm you.' Yuan told this to himself as he approached the old woman at a slow but steady pace.

"H-Hello. Do you know where I can find the Myriad of Techniques?" Yuan asked in a nervous but clear voice.

However, the old woman acted as though she didn't even hear him, and she continued to stare at the space in front of her with a blank expression.

Figuring that she didn't hear him, Yuan decided to ask her again in a louder voice, "Do you know where I can find the Myriad of Techniques?"

This time, the old woman turned to look at him with stiff movement.

"Have you seen my son?" She asked him in a hoarse voice.

"Uh." Yuan was taken aback by the old woman's response.

"No, I haven't." He eventually responded.

The old woman then continued, "Do you know where my son is? He should have returned to me by now..."

"Sorry, but I don't know where your son is." Yuan shook his head.

After a moment of silence, the old woman suddenly started screaming, "YOU! YOU TOOK MY SON, DIDN'T YOU?! GIVE MY SON BACK!"

It was at this moment the old woman revealed her hands that had been hiding underneath her clothes, and it was clutching onto a kitchen knife.

"DIE!"

The old woman brandished the kitchen knife at Yuan without any hesitation...

Chapter 832 - Nameless Town

Chapter 832 - Nameless Town

Yuan's eyes widened when he saw the old woman brandishing her kitchen knife at him out of the blue.

However, before he could even react, Feng Yuxiang, who had been prepared to act at a moment's notice, waved her hand and released a blast of spiritual energy at the aggressor, sending the old woman flying to the next street.

Yuan stared at the old woman that had fallen a street away with a baffled look on his face, and he turned to look at Feng Yuxiang.

"Feng Feng, did you really have to do that? That woman wasn't a cultivator, so there was no way that kitchen knife could've hurt me."

"Mortal or not, she dared to attack Young Master, so she will be punished." Feng Yuxiang said with a firm look on her face.

"I hope you didn't kill her.." Yuan sighed.

However, when he turned back to look at the street, he could not see the old woman anywhere.

"Huh? Where did she go?" Yuan looked around, but he couldn't see even a shadow.

"She probably got scared and ran away. I didn't even use that much strength just now, so she should be fine." Feng Yuxiang said.

"Since there's nobody we can ask for help, I guess we can only continue to look for the Myriad of Techniques by ourselves."

Eventually, Yuan gave up on walking on foot and started flying around the town.

After about fifteen minutes of circling around the desolate town, they finally found the Myriad of Techniques, which was hidden in a narrow space between two ordinary-looking buildings.

If it were not for the fact that he'd seen the same entrance multiple times by now, Yuan would've definitely missed it.

Upon entering the Myriad of Techniques, they were greeted by the usual scenery that was filled with warmth and light, the polar opposite of the nameless town.

The tingly sensation on his skin immediately disappeared the moment Yuan entered the Myriad of Techniques, allowing him to finally breathe normally.

Sometime later, he made his way to the Demon Sealing Clan's Grand Library.

After coming out of the portal in the Grand Library, Yuan approached the building in the distance, but it was completely empty there due to the drama between the Demon Sealing Clan and the Demon Sealing Grotto.

"You're the little founder.. What are you doing here? Didn't you hear? The Grand Library is closed until further notice." The man that gave Yuan the badge when he first arrived was still there to guard the entrance even though it was closed.

"I'm here to take my demon sealing examination with Senior Yan," he explained the situation to him.

"Give me a moment to confirm this." The man retrieved a communication jade slip and contacted Yan Hara, who was somewhere within the Grand Library.

"Are you expecting the little founder?" He asked her.

"Yes, please let him inside." Yan Hara quickly responded.

The man turned to look at Yuan and silently nodded.

"Thank you." Yuan bowed to the man before making his way inside the Grand Library.

Once inside, he walked straight to the area with the Divine Paragon's statue.

When he arrived, he could see five people standing in front of the statue.

Yuan immediately recognized three of these people.

They were Yan Hara, Tang Zheng, and surprisingly, Wan Yu.

As for the last two individuals, they were a beautiful young lady and a handsome young man that Yuan did not recognize at all.

The young lady was wearing the Demon Sealing Clan's uniform while the young man wore the Demon Sealing Grotto's uniform.

"You're late, little founder." Yan Hara said to him in a relaxed tone when she noticed his presence.

"Sorry, but something came up and I had to travel to another location." Yuan said with an apologetic smile.

"So that's the rumored 'little founder', huh. I must say, he really resembles the Divine Paragon, but his cultivation is too weak. Are you sure he should be participating in the examination?" The handsome young man showed a provocative smile after seeing Yuan.

The young lady merely glared at Yuan with a deep gaze, her thoughts unknown.

Yuan glanced at the handsome young man before ignoring him.

He looked around the place, showing a puzzled expression on his face when he couldn't see any artificial demons in the area.

"Are you looking for the artificial demons?" Tang Zhang read his thoughts and asked with a smile.

Yuan nodded.

"Hahaha! Don't tell me that you're participating in this examination without even knowing anything about it?! I have never met anyone like you before!" The young man started laughing when he realized the situation.

"Calm down, Wan Kaiqi." Wan Yu narrowed his eyes on the handsome young man.

"Sorry, Uncle Wan, but this guy is too much for me." The young man, who turned out to be Wan Yu's nephew, spoke as he wiped his tears.

"It's my fault. I forgot to explain the examination to you." Yan Hara suddenly realized this fact and apologized to him.

"It's fine. The details don't really matter to me. I intend on passing the examination no matter what, after all." Yuan said with a confident smile on his face.

"Well spoken." Wan Yu smiled, and he continued, "When I heard that you wanted to become an Elite Demon Sealer, I immediately volunteered to become a judge. I missed it when you became an Advanced Demon Sealer, but I won't miss this one. "

"Anyways, now that everyone is here, let's go to the area where the examination will take place." Tang Zheng said, and he suddenly began creating array symbols the next moment.

A few moments later, Tang Zheng combined the array symbols into a single powerful array before infusing the array with the Divine Paragon's statue beside him.

A few moments later, a red portal appeared before them, and Tang Zheng entered it without hesitation.

The others followed with Yuan entering last.

After exiting from the portal, Yuan was greeted by the scenery of a mountain valley, but there was something ominous about it, and the sensation he felt from the nameless town could suddenly be felt again, but it was much more intensive this time...

Chapter 833 - Elite Demon Sealer's Examination

Chapter 833 - Elite Demon Sealer's Examination

"This feeling... It's almost as though I have returned to the nameless town with that crazy old lady..." Yuan thought to himself as he stared at the mountain valley.

"In order to pass the examination and become an Elite Demon Sealer, you must traverse this Demons' Valley and reach the end within 3 days." Yan Hara said to them sometime later.

"Demons' Valley?" Yuan immediately raised his eyebrows upon hearing this familiar name, wondering if this is some kind of freaky coincidence or fate.

"Yes, this place used to be inhabited by mostly low-ranking demons in the lower heavens. Of course, this isn't the real location. It's just a recreation of the place." Yan Hara said.

And she continued, "The real Demons' Valley is much larger than this place since this is just a portion of the real thing. It's about 100 miles from here to the end, but you're not allowed to fly during the examination, and you'll encounter demons on your way there."

Tang Zheng then spoke, "You can ignore the demons and finish the examination without sealing a single demon, but you acquire points for sealing demons- bonus points if you can kill them. At the end, depending on your points, you'll be able to receive a demon sealing treasure from the treasury."

Wan Yu spoke next, "Demon sealing treasures are very rare, so I recommend that you try to acquire as many points as you can during this examination."

Yan Hara approached Yuan and handed him a necklace.

"Wear this so we know your location at all times. The demons may not be real, but they can still inflict real injuries, so you should treat them as though you're fighting a real demon."

Yuan accepted the necklace and wore it around his neck.

He then watched as Yan Hara handed Wu Kaiqi and the young lady the same necklace.

'They're also participating in this examination?' Yuan thought they were there as judges at first, but that didn't seem to be the case.

"Now onto the rules for the examination." Yan Hara spoke, and she continued, "As I'd already mentioned, you are not allowed to fly in the examination. You are allowed to use any treasures during the examination, but demon sealing treasures are forbidden."

"You have 72 hours to traverse the Demons' Valley and reach the end. You will know it's the end when you see the Divine Paragon's statue. If you are lost, you can look at the sky and follow that red star."

Yuan followed Yan Hara's finger that was pointed at the sky, and sure enough, there was a bright crimson star flickering in the yellow sky.

"You may forfeit the examination at any time by destroying the crystal on your necklace, but if you fail the examination, you will not be able to partake in it for another 10 years."

'Ten years?!' Yuan cried inwardly.

Although ten years may seem like nothing for these powerful cultivators that have lived for hundreds if not thousands of years, it was a significant amount of time for Yuan, who has only lived for 18 years.

'I cannot fail this examination no matter what.' Yuan told himself as Yan Hara continued to speak.

"As mentioned already, you are not required to fight any demons you encounter during the examination, but you will receive points for doing so. You will receive 1 point for sealing any Lower Demons, 5 points for sealing Elite Demons, 10 points for Superior Demons, which will be the highest ranking demon available during the examination, and if you manage to kill the demon, you will receive double points ."

"At the end of the examination, you may use your points to trade for demon sealing treasures. And before you ask- yes, you are allowed to trade for multiple demon sealing treasures as long as you have enough points, so good luck with that ."

"Do you have any questions before we start this examination?"

Yuan raised his hands and asked, "How do we know how much time we have left?"

"We will let you know through the necklace every 24 hours for the first two days. On the final day, we will remind you every 4 hours, and during the last four hours, we will remind you every hour." Tang Zheng responded.

"I understand." Yuan nodded.

"Do you two have any questions?" Wan Yu asked the other two participants.

They shook their heads.

"Then we will begin the examination now. We will begin the timer once you enter the Demons' Valley. Good luck." Yan Hara said to them before the judges flew away, disappearing from their sights.

Once they were alone, Wan Kaiqi turned to look at the young lady and said, "Daoist Huan, let's have a friendly competition to see who receives the most points during the examination. If you win, I will give you all of my points, but if I win, you will go on a date with me."

The young lady surnamed Huan turned to look at Wu Kaiqi and spoke in a nonchalant voice, "I don't like your smile."

And without explaining any further, she turned around and disappeared into the Demons' Valley.

Wan Kaiqi turned to look at Yuan, who had been staring at them, and scoffed, "What are you looking at? A Spirit Lord like you won't survive even a day inside the Demons' Valley."

"Do you want to gamble on that claim? If you win, I will give you all of my points, but if I win, you will give me your points." Yuan suddenly responded in a way that Wan Kaiqi didn't expect.

Wan Kaiqi coldly snorted after snapping out of his daze, "That's not fair at all. You can simply go into hiding for an entire day."

Yuan then said, "Okay, let's use your rules instead. Whoever acquires the most points during the examination will take the loser's points."

"That's more like it." A confident smile appeared on Wan Kaiqi's face.

"So you agree?" Yuan asked for confirmation.

"Yes." Wan Kaiqi nodded.

"Good. Then may the best one win." Yuan clasped his hands and bowed to Wan Kaiqi before entering the Demons' Valley.

"Arrogant brat, you won't be acting so smug in three days!" Wan Kaiqi also entered the Demons' Valley shortly after..

Chapter 834 - Demons' Valley

Chapter 834 - Demons' Valley

After entering the Demons' Valley, Yuan's vision blurred for a second, and when it cleared up, he found himself in a different area.

He had been teleported somewhere, but he still appeared to be within the Demons' Valley.

He turned around and waited to see if Wan Kaiqi would show up, but when nobody showed up after a minute, he figured that Wan Kaiqi had also been teleported somewhere.

'They probably did this to separate us.' Yuan thought.

He tilted his head until he was staring at the sky, and when he located the red star in the sky, he started walking towards that direction.

'We have three days to complete this examination, which is a lot of time even if we cannot fly. This is probably on purpose to encourage us to fight demons and earn points.'

'Not only do I have to beat Wan Kaiqi, but this is also good practice for me. Hopefully, there are enough demons in this place to satisfy me.'

Yuan decided to focus on hunting demons instead of just rushing to the finish line.

Of course, the other two participants also had the same thoughts.

They all believed that they would be able to reach the goal with ease and with plenty of time to spare, so they might as well use that spare time to hunt for points and acquire a demon sealing treasure or two.

Meanwhile, in another location, Yan Hara and the other two judges watched the participants through a mirror.

"I know he's a talented young man, but don't you think it's a little too much to allow him to participate in this examination? After all, these demons don't scale to his strength, so they will all have a higher cultivation than him." Tang Zheng asked Yan Hara.

After a moment of silence, she responded in a calm voice, "I want to see his limit. He might be lacking in terms of cultivation compared to the other two, but his demon sealing aura is by no means inferior. In fact, he might even surpass them."

"Also, he's going to be the future leader of the Demon Sealing Clan. He'll need some achievements under his belt before then."

"You seem very confident in his abilities. However, if you ask me, he's still far behind the current leader of the Demon Sealing Clan." Wan Yu suddenly said.

And he continued, "Oh, I don't mean his talents. His talents are definitely terrifying, and he has the potential to surpass even the current leader. However, he will need more than talent to become the leader of the Demon Sealing Clan. His character is too soft and naive at this moment."

"You cannot expect a baby to suddenly start cultivating. He's still young and inexperienced, but he will eventually grow up-I will make sure of it." Yan Hara said.

Wan Yu sighed, "If he survives, that is. What a pity that he's with the Demon Sealing Clan."

"What's that supposed to mean?" Yan Hara frowned.

Wan Yu shrugged and said, "The strife between the two clans is getting worse by the day. I'll be surprised if there's a Demon Sealing Clan by the time he 'grows up'."

"What? That's bullshit!" Yan Hara immediately exclaimed.

"Bullshit? You know, this isn't the first time our people have died by Qian Chu's hands. In fact, ever since he became the leader of the Demon Sealing Clan, our Demon Sealing Grotto have encountered many misfortunate situations where our top demon sealers are being killed in 'accidents' that involved Qian Chu one way or another. However, this is the first time we have lost 3 Master Demon Sealers in one day, and they all died in an event managed by Qian Chu."

"Even though Qian Chu denies all accusations, we all know that's just plain bullshit."

"What happened during the tournament was just an accident! In case you forgot, I was also part of it, and I nearly died if not for the Leader! Why would the Leader risk losing two Master Demon Sealers just to harm the Demon Sealing Grotto ? That doesn't make any sense!" Yan Hara said.

"Hmph! Then let me ask you this. Why did the Leader save you but allowed the others to die? Why did everyone from the Demon Sealing Grotto die while the Demon Sealing Clan received zero casualties? A coincidence? I don't f#cking think so!"

"Are you accusing me of being part of this conspiracy now?! I can't believe you!" Yan Hara exclaimed in an angry voice.

"I'm not accusing you of anything. In fact, I wholeheartedly believe that Qian Chu would be willing to sacrifice his own people just to achieve his goals. He's just that kind of person."

"You know, during interrogation, when the Demon Sealing Grotto asked Qian Chu why he only saved you, he claimed that he did not do such a thing and that someone else had saved you by taking control of his Demon Sealing Flag! Who the hell would believe that?! Besides the Divine Paragon, nobody in the Nine Heavens has the ability to hijack the Demon Sealing Flag right under Qian Chu's nose!"

"What.?" Yan Hara became speechless after hearing this information from Wan Yu.

Qian Chu didn't save her? Then who saved her?

Chapter 835 - Demons' Valley(2)

Chapter 835: Demons' Valley(2)

"Anyways, that's all I have to say on the matter. The higher ups will handle everything." Wan Yu said before focusing on the participants again.

Yan Hara and Tang Zheng looked at each other with perplexed expressions. Did Qian Chu really intentionally let the participants die? Was he really willing to sacrifice his own people to achieve his own goals? It was hard to swallow such a thought, especially since Qian Chu is admired by many people.

Meanwhile, inside the Demons' Valley, Yuan encountered his first demon when it suddenly showed up out of the blue and attacked him.

"F-Feng Feng... What cultivation is that demon? I cannot sense it, so it must be fairly high..." Yuan asked her after realizing this fact.

"It has a cultivation of peak Spirit Emperor." Feng Yuxiang immediately responded.

Yuan swallowed nervously after hearing this information.

Peak Spirit Emperor? That is an entire realm above Spirit King and almost a Spirit Sovereign! How on earth is he supposed to fight such a monster as a Spirit Lord?

'I have underestimated this examination...' Yuan sighed inwardly.

He knew it was going to be harder than the last examination, but he didn't expect such a massive jump in difficulty.

The last examination was so easy that it was basically free, so Yuan didn't think this examination would be so difficult even if they increased the difficulty several levels.

'Calm down... They may have a much higher cultivation than I'd anticipated, but they are still vulnerable to demon sealing aura. If my demon sealing aura is strong enough, I should be able to seal it...' Yuan tried to calm himself.

While he was doing that, the demon snickered, "How dare a mere Spirit Lord step foot inside the Demons' Valley? Courting death!"

"Young Master, do you need my help?" Feng Yuxiang asked him. "

No, I can handle this, and I'm not sure you're allowed to help me." He shook his head.

"I understand. Please be careful, Young Master."

Yuan nodded and summoned the Empyrean Overlord.

"You're a bold one, human. I will give you that." The demon showed an ugly smile on its face.

"You talk too much. You may have a higher cultivation, but you're just a low-ranking demon." Yuan suddenly said.

The demon was immediately enraged after hearing Yuan's provoking words. As a low-ranking demon, they have almost zero control over their emotions, especially anger, so they can be triggered easily.

"Die!" The demon pounced at Yuan the next moment.

Yuan did not retreat and confronted the demon head-on instead.

[Demon Sealing Strike!]

The Empyrean Overlord gushed with demon sealing aura as it slashed at the surprised demon.

The demon was unable to react due to being surprised by the overwhelming amount of demon sealing aura released by Yuan, and it did not expect a Spirit Lord to be capable of releasing such a strong aura.

Sha!

The Empyrean Overlord sliced the demon in half.

However, the demon did not immediately become sealed and quickly regenerated a moment later.

"N-Not bad. I underestimated you, human." The smile on the demon's face trembled slightly. It was obviously afraid of Yuan's demon sealing aura despite their cultivation differences.

Although the demon had an advantage in cultivation, such an advantage could be negated if its opponent's demon sealing aura was strong enough.

This is why demon sealers in ancient times took priority in their demon sealing aura over their cultivation.

In this case, Yuan's demon sealing aura was strong enough to threaten the demon with a Spirit Emperor cultivation base, and if it were not for the demon's superior cultivation, it would have been sealed in a single strike. Seeing the demon's reaction to his demon sealing aura, Yuan's confidence increased tremendously, so he went for another strike.

[Demon Sealing Strike!]

This time, the demon did not dare to take his attack head-on and opted to dodge it instead.

However, Yuan was relentless with his attacks and eventually landed another strike on the demon.

The demon's movements became noticeably slower and stiffer after the second strike, and when Yuan noticed this, he increased the intensity of his attacks, not stopping until the demon was fully sealed.

Once the demon was fully sealed, Yuan decided to kill it for the extra points.

After taking all the time he needed to fully charge his attack, Yuan released a devastating attack named Heavenly Splitting Sword Strike, completely erasing the demon and the terrain behind it almost instantly.

The destroyed terrain would return like nothing had happened after a couple of moments, but the demon never recovered.

The entire Demons' Valley seemingly shook for a brief second after the attack, causing the other two participants to look around with caution.

Meanwhile, the judges that had been spectating Yuan's first encounter were left speechless by what they had just witnessed.

"What kind of attack is that? He erased an entire mountain in a split second!" Yan Hara exclaimed in a shocked voice.

"His demon sealing aura increased so much in such a short time..." Wan Yu mumbled in a low voice filled with disbelief, his focus elsewhere.

"Unbelievable. I truly did not expect him to deal with the demon so effortlessly... It appears that my worries were unnecessary." Tang Zheng sighed.

Although the three of them were aware of Yuan's talent, they had no idea of his full potential, so it was quite shocking to see it for the first time.

After killing the demon, Yuan released a relieved sigh, "That went better than I anticipated. Looks like I don't need to be so worried about this examination, after all."

However, he was not completely stress-free just yet. Although he'd killed the demon, it was only a low-ranking demon, and he wasn't confident that he would be able to achieve the same results fighting an Elite or Superior Demon.

After spending a few minutes recovering his spiritual energy, Yuan continued to look for more demons to kill, and after wandering for a couple of minutes, another demon would show up out of nowhere to attack him.

Once again, it was a low-ranking demon with a peak Spirit Emperor cultivation, but Yuan didn't hesitate to attack it this time, quickly sealing it in just a few minutes..

Chapter 836: Sublime Scriptures of Heaven

Chapter 836: Sublime Scriptures of Heaven

'It's really unfortunate that these demons don't drop demon cores...' Yuan sighed inwardly after killing his second demon in the examination.

Sometime later, Yuan stopped walking when he noticed a statue in the distance.

When he approached it, he realized that it was actually a demon that had already been sealed.

'Did one of the other two participants seal this demon?' He wondered to himself.

Regardless if it was sealed by someone else or not, Yuan did not intend on leaving behind free points and decided to erase the demon completely, taking the points for himself.

After releasing the Heaven Splitting Sword Strike, Yuan took a few minutes to recover his strength before making his move again.

'I hope I get points for finishing off someone else's demon, even if I don't receive the full credit...'

Meanwhile, Wan Yu laughed out loud after witnessing Yuan's actions.

"This is the first time that I have witnessed someone killing another person's sealed demon." He laughed out loud.

"Well, this is my first time seeing a Spirit Lord killing demons two realms above their own level." Tang Zheng said.

"Just what kind of technique is he using? I don't recognize it at all." Yan Hara mumbled in a pondering voice.

Wan Yu then said, "It resembles an ancient technique from a legend I heard before, but I doubt it's actually the same technique."

"Legend?" The other two looked at him with raised eyebrows.

"Yes, it's called the Heaven Splitting Sword Strike, and it's only part of another technique called the Heaven's Secret Art."

"Have you heard of the Sublime Scriptures of Heaven?" He asked them.

Tang Zheng nodded and spoke, "I have heard about them before. Legend has it that the mighty Heaven itself created these techniques alongside the cultivation world during its creation, and they are the most powerful cultivation techniques to ever exist. There are four different techniques with Heaven's Secret Art being one of them."

"Rumor also has it that they were gifted to the four most powerful families that served the first Celestial Emperor, but nobody has seen these techniques since ancient times, so people question if they even really exist."

"That's right, and the Heaven Splitting Sword Art is part of Heaven's Secret Art." Wan Yu nodded.

And he continued, "However, you are not entirely correct."

"Huh? What did I get wrong?" Tang Zheng asked.

"The Sublime Scriptures of Heaven truly exist and people have seen them before. In fact, the people that own these techniques currently reside in the Supreme Heaven."

"However, that is only the case for three of these four techniques. The fourth technique, Heaven's Secret Art, is said to be owned by the legendary Asura Clan, but since they have been exiled for countless years now, nobody can confirm that information, hence why the technique is a legend."

"The Asura Clan, huh. I heard a lot about them, but I never understood why they were exiled— I mean, I know the reason they were exiled, but I don't understand why they did what exiled them." Yan Hara sighed.

And she continued, "However, what puzzles me the most is how they refuse to participate in Supreme Heaven's Legacy for their freedom."

"They must have their own reasons." Wan Yu shrugged.

It was at this moment Yan Hara had a sudden realization.

'Huh? Wait a minute... The Supreme Heaven's Legacy?'

After pondering for a moment, Yan Hara turned to look at Wan Yu and asked, "The Asura Clan... What is their surname?"

"Give me a second..." Wan Yu closed his eyes to think.

A moment later, he opened his eyes and said, "If my memories serve me correctly, the Asura Clan should have the surname 'Xiao'."

Yan Hara swallowed nervously after hearing this information.

'Xiao... Xiao Hua... It can't be... But there's no way it's just a coincidence. Why would the Asura Clan suddenly decide to participate in the Supreme Heaven's Legacy when they've avoided it for countless years?'

Either this is all just a freaky coincidence or there is something bigger at play here.

A few hours later, Wan Yu looked at the scoreboard and smiled, "Yuan is currently leading with 30 points while the other two are almost neck to neck with 22 points and 21 points. Despite his advantage, the little founder isn't as efficient in locating demons as the other two, so he's not too far ahead. If he couldn't kill demons with his ridiculous technique, he would be last place right now."

"He's also only ran into low-ranking demons while the other two have already encountered an Elite Demon." Tang Zheng added.

"It will only be a matter of time until he encounters an Elite or Superior Demon..." Yan Hara mumbled in a slightly nervous tone, as she wasn't confident that he could really deal with them at his current level.

However, the very next moment, Yuan would encounter his first Elite Demon.

"Speaking of the devil..." A smile filled with intrigue appeared on Wan Yu's face as he focused on Yuan's situation.

"Young Master, this demon is different from the rest. You should be careful." Feng Yuxiang warned him when she sensed that something was off about this demon.

"It's an Elite Demon." Yuan immediately recognized its rank since he had fought one before.

When the Elite Demon noticed Yuan, it didn't immediately attack him and actually took a moment to take a deep breath.

"Aaaah... Human, I can smell a chaotic energy hidden deep within you. Although the energy is almost nonexistent right now, it will eventually bloom into something magnificent, and when it does, I can only imagine the chaos you'll cause to the cultivation world— it would definitely be a sight to behold." The Elite Demon said to him with a calm smile on its face.

"..."

Although Yuan didn't take the demon's words to heart, he had a bad feeling about it, and it made him recall the madness that consumed his mind not long ago at the Qi Family..

Chapter 837: The Abomination

Chapter 837: The Abomination

"Show me what you've got, human."

Perhaps it was because of Yuan's lack of cultivation, but the Elite Demon did not seem to be worried at all by his presence.

"Then I won't be humble!"

Yuan started the assault with the Demon Sealing Sword Strike.

However, the Elite Demon quickly dodged it, not allowing Yuan's strike to connect, unlike the low-ranking demons before it that were so confident in their immortal bodies that they would disregard all attacks.

Seeing this, Yuan summoned the Starry Abyss to sneak attack the Elite Demon.

"Pathetic little tricks!"

The Elite Demon summoned its blood weapon and parried the incoming attack from the back.

'I forgot that the Starry Abyss isn't effective against Spirit Kings and above...' Yuan facepalmed inwardly.

'But this is fine. The invisibility effect isn't the reason I summoned it.'

[Ten Thousand Ghost Blades!]

"If one isn't enough, how about a thousand?!"

A thousand Starry Abyss suddenly appeared and surrounded the Elite Demon.

Although the demon was definitely taken aback by such a menacing technique, it did not panic and tried its best to deflect all of them.

However, such a feat quickly proved to be impossible for the Elite Demon, so it stopped focusing on the Starry Abyss and started launching its own attack at Yuan, who was just standing in the distance, silently controlling the Starry Abyss.

"Blood Slash!"

The Elite Demon whisked its thin arms at Yuan, sending a crimson arc of energy at him.

However, the attack didn't go far, as it was quickly intercepted by the thousand Starry Abyss that acted like a containment for the demon.

"What a fucking annoying technique!"

The Elite Demon could no longer control its emotions and became enraged.

Its frame grew larger, and its chaotic aura surged to a new level.

However, despite its transformation, it could not conquer the Starry Abyss, eventually getting sealed by it.

Yuan sighed in relief afterward.

'I should be more confident in myself.' Yuan told himself after finishing off the sealed demon with the Heaven Splitting Sword Strike, acquiring to more points.

"This fellow is full of surprises. He controls not just a single Soul Weapon but two of them, and they're different types of weapons? I only know of one person that can wield two Soul Weapons at once, and that person is regarded as a top genius in the Seventh Heaven." Wan Yu's face was filled with awe after witnessing Yuan's fight with the Elite Demon.

'Two Soul Weapons... Just how many more secrets are hiding inside that small figure? Van Hara wondered to herself.

After recovering his spiritual energy, Yuan continued his hunt. Many hours later, the necklace given to him before the examination suddenly trembled, and Yan Hara's voice resounded from it.

"It has been 24 hours since the start of the examination. You have 48 hours left."

'It's already been an entire day? Time sure passes by so quickly when I am focused on hunting demons... Luckily I told the others not to worry about me if I don't come out for a few days since I didn't know what to expect from this examination.'

He would normally take a break for Meixiu's meals, but he was worried that he might lose his bet with Wan Kaiqi if he rested even a little, as he was certain that the other two participants would spend every second during the examination hunting for more points.

As Yuan spent more time hunting demons, he grew more confident in his abilities, and his aggressiveness intensified. This allowed him to swiftly deal with even Elite Demons, and his points grew more and more.

'I have encountered four Elite Demons now, but I have yet to encounter any Superior Demons. I wonder if they are closer to the goal.' Yuan wondered inwardly as he finished off another demon.

After pondering for a moment, he decided to see how close he was to the finish line, as he'd been wandering the Demons' Valley aimlessly.

Yuan followed the direction of the red star and ran at his full speed, only stopping to deal with demons that would suddenly show up.

A few hours later, Yuan stopped when he could see the Divine Paragon's statue.

'I encountered three Elite Demons on my way here, which is almost as much as what I encountered after an entire day of roaming. Looks like my hypothesis was correct. I should encounter my first Superior Demon soon if I continue to wander around the statue.'

Not wanting to waste any more time, Yuan began running around the area around the statue, and sure enough, an hour and three dead demons later, he encountered his first Superior Demon.

However, when Yuan saw this demon, he swallowed nervously, and all of the confidence that he'd built up over the course of the last 24 hours began dwindling.

"My lord... This is a demon?" Yuan mumbled in a low voice as his gaze laid on a massive figure that was nearly 40 meters tall in the far distance.

This demon was not only incredibly tall, it was also very round, almost like a balloon. However, that was not the most appalling feature of this demon, as it had an unfathomably hideous face that would scare anyone unfortunate to witness it. 0

The demons before this one all had human-like appearance, but this demon looked more like a hideous monster than anything.

"What an ugly demon! Hurry up and kill it, Young Master!" Feng Yuxiang exclaimed in a disgusted voice the moment she saw this demon.

Even Lan Yingying trembled when she saw this demon, as it was unlike anything she had seen before.

"I-I think we should probably leave this one alone for now..." Yuan said in a stiff voice.

And without any hesitation, he turned around and walked away, acting as though he never even noticed the demon.

"Hahaha! Did you see the look on his face?! I knew he'd run away! Nobody has ever confronted that hideous existence on their first encounter! They would always need some time to mentally prepare themselves, even if they knew of its existence beforehand!" Wan Yu laughed out loud after seeing Yuan's natural reaction to this massive demon.

"I almost pissed myself when I first encountered it during my examination." Tang Zheng shook his head with a bittersweet smile on his face as he recalled his first encounter with this demon.

"The 'Abomination', huh? I still don't understand their existence and why they look so different from other demons." Van Hara said.

"Some people believe they are the demons' true appearance. However, according to the Demon Sealing Clan from ancient times, even demons hated these Abominations." Wan Yu said.

"I'm just glad that they no longer exist. I cannot imagine going against these things nowadays. They are not only more violent than other demons but they also seem to have no mind of their own, acting merely on their destructive instincts." Tang Zheng shook his head.

"That's not all." Wan Yu said, and he continued, "They also have a higher tolerance to demon sealing aura, so they are much tougher to seal in general."

"Despite it only being a Superior Demon, I don't think anyone has ever sealed or killed the Abomination in this examination. Not even Qian Chu, who fought it for an entire day, could defeat it."

"Perhaps the little founder will set a precedent." Yan Hara said with an anticipating smile on her face...

Chapter 838: Deep Within His Consciousness

Chapter 838: Deep Within His Consciousness

"Y-Yingying! What in heavens' name was that thing?! There's no way that thing is a demon!" Yuan asked her after running away from the hideous-looking demon.

"I have no idea... That was also my first time seeing that kind of demon." She said.

"What about your grandparents? Have they ever mentioned a demon like that before?"

"No."

"What about you, Feng Feng? Do you know anything about that demon?" Yuan continued to ask.

"Sorry, but I have also never heard of such a demon before."

Yuan sighed, "I cannot believe such a monster exists in this world."

After a moment of silence, Lan Yingying asked him, "Are you going to fight it?"

"Uhh..." Yuan hesitated on answering.

Even though he could get a lot of points by killing the hideous demon, he wasn't sure it was worth the trouble, as it gave him a really dreadful feeling.

Suddenly, Van Hara's voice resounded from the necklace, "Little founder, if you can defeat the Abomination, you'll get L000 points."

"The Abomination? Is that what it's called? Just what is that thing? Is it really a demon?" Yuan asked her.

"Honestly, I'm not really sure myself what the monster is, but it has red skin and emits chaotic energy like demons, so they are most likely another species of demons."

"Another species? Demons have different species...?" Yuan was speechless. Why hasn't he heard about this until now?

"Anyways, you only need to know that they are more dangerous than ordinary demons, and nobody has ever defeated it before, but maybe you can. Good luck."

Yan Hara stopped talking after that.

"I get a thousand points if I defeat it, which is definitely a lot of points and will secure my victory, but nobody has managed to do so in the past..." Yuan began pondering.

"Young Master, you only need to defeat it, right? That means you don't need to kill it, only seal it. If you continue hitting it with your demon sealing techniques, it'll eventually be sealed, right?" Feng Yuxiang said.

"You're right. Since it has such a massive body, it will be easy to land hits on it. Okay, I will do it." Yuan decided to fight the Abomination. After taking a deep breath, he turned around and returned to the location with the Abomination.

However, he didn't immediately start attacking the Abomination. Instead, he sat down in an isolated area and started preparing himself for the fight.

Fortunately for him, the Abomination seemed to be asleep, as it was just sitting there with its eyes closed.

A few minutes later, Yuan opened his eyes that were overflowing with fighting intent.

He stood up and looked at the Abomination with a resolute gaze. After taking a very deep breath, Yuan summoned the Starry Abyss and used Ten Thousand Ghost Blades on it, duplicating the Starry Abyss 2,000 times.

Once he was ready, Yuan commanded all 2,000 Starry Abyss to attack the sleeping monster.

The next moment, all 2,000 daggers stabbed into the sleeping monster's round body, turning it into a porcupine.

However, the Abomination remained still, almost as though it didn't even feel the attack.

Seeing the lack of reaction from the Abomination, Yuan decided to continue stabbing it, slowly filling it with demon sealing aura.

Of course, since it was a demon, the holes on its body would immediately renergate the moment the daggers were removed from its body.

"What's going on? It's been ten minutes since I started attacking it, yet it still hasn't woken up, nor does it appear to be sealed. Even a Demon General would be sealed by now..." Yuan scratched his head as he continued commanding the Starry Abyss to attack the Abomination.

"I think you need something stronger." Lan Yingying's voice suddenly resounded.

"Huh? What do you mean? Although each attack doesn't inflict much demon sealing aura individually, it should add up, right? It worked on other demons." Yuan said

"Yes, but that demon appears to have some sort of ability that prevents demon sealing aura from building up inside its body. I can sense your demon sealing aura entering the demon's body, but I can also sense it coming out of its body after some time."

"That's ridiculous..." Yuan did not want to believe that a demon with such capabilities could possibly exist, as that would make it many times harder to seal the demon, perhaps even impossible.

Eventually, Yuan created 10,000 copies of the Starry Abyss and attacked the sleeping Abomination with them.

"How about now? Is it affecting the demon?" Yuan asked Lan Yingying a few minutes later.

"It is, but not fast enough. At this rate, you'll need to continue this for a week before it shows any results," she said.

"A week?" Yuan was speechless.

His spiritual energy would most likely run out before a week could even pass.

After trying for a few more minutes, Yuan recalled the Starry Abyss and gave up on attacking the Abomination temporarily to recover his spiritual energy.

'What should I do now? My Starry Abyss is basically useless in this situation, and the Heaven Splitting Sword Strike won't be able to kill it. Do I really have no means to defeat this monster?' Yuan pondered for a way to defeat the Abomination while he cultivated.

Suddenly, he recalled a certain moment that he witnessed not long ago.

'During the demon sealing tournament, the Leader of the Demon Sealing Clan infused his demon sealing aura with his Sword Aura— at least that's what the triplets said... If I can somehow replicate that, would I be able to defeat the Abomination with it? But how do I even infuse my demon sealing aura with my Sword Aura?'

'Hey, Divine Paragon, give me some guidance. I know you're in here somewhere.] Yuan began calling for the Divine Paragon inside his head.

Unfortunately, there was no response from the Divine Paragon.

'He said that he doesn't really exist and that he's only a fragment of my memories, so I should be able to draw out those memories, right? Maybe if I look deeper inside my consciousness...'

Yuan stopped cultivating after recovering enough spiritual energy, but he did not open his eyes.

"Young Master? Are you okay?" Feng Yuxiang asked him when she saw no movements from him.

"Please be quiet for a while, I am trying to focus." Yuan responded in a low voice.

"S-Sorry..."

Once it was completely silent, Yuan tried to enter deep within his consciousness to find the Divine Paragon.

When he was still a cripple, in order to not go crazy from boredom since he couldn't move his body and was surrounded by darkness, Yuan learned how to peer deep into his mind so that he could relive his memories— in a time before he was a cripple.

After doing it for many years, he got so good at it that he could essentially see any memories he wanted at will, and this included memories that were hidden deep within his consciousness with some limitations, such as memories from before he became an orphan, as he had zero memories of such a time inside his mind.

Although he hasn't tried doing it after regaining his ability to move, he was still able to enter the depths of his consciousness with ease.

Once he entered the deepest parts of his consciousness, Yuan could see four people standing beside each other.

There was Tian Yang, the Divine Paragon, the Evil God, and even the spear-wielding General that appeared in his dream once.

"Look who we have here..."

Their familiar voices resounded inside Yuan's head as he approached these figures that had the same face as him..

Chapter 839: Divine Paragon's Legacy

Chapter 839: Divine Paragon's Legacy

"So this is where you all have been hiding... I should have done this earlier..." Yuan sighed when he saw these four people deep within his consciousness.

"What do you seek by coming here?" Tian Yang asked him.

"I want..." Yuan turned to look at the Divine Paragon and spoke, "I want to learn how to infuse my demon sealing aura with my Sword Aura. I want to defeat that Abomination."

"The Abomination, huh? What a nostalgic name." The Divine Paragon closed his eyes with a profound smile on his face.

"You want my knowledge; my experience; my memories... but are you prepared to accept my existence?" The Divine Paragon suddenly opened his eyes and stepped forward.

"We may be one and the same, but we are also different people— at least until you accept the fact that we're the same."

"If you are not prepared to accept my existence, then you are not prepared to receive my legacy."

"..."

Yuan was speechless.

He didn't think that he'd be rejected of his own memories unless he agreed with his own incarnation.

"What will happen if I accept you? Will you completely take over my existence? Will I return to being the 'Divine Paragon'?" Yuan asked him.

The Divine Paragon smiled and said, "Remember, you're not just accepting my memories. If you truly want to see 'me', you'll need to be 'me'. Of course, that doesn't mean you'll actually become me."

"And what will happen if I refuse to accept you?" Yuan asked out of curiosity.

"Nothing really happens. You can reject all of our existence for now, but you'll eventually fully awaken your memories. You cannot run away forever, Yuan. There will be a time when you'll have to embrace your true identity, and you'll only make it harder on yourself the longer you delay the inevitable."

Yuan silently stared at the four figures before him after hearing the Divine Paragon's words.

A few moments later, he asked, "If... What if you're not really my memories but memories that were planted inside my mind?"

The Divine Paragon exchanged glances with the others.

"Hahaha!"

All four of them suddenly burst out laughing.

"Do you really believe that? Is this because of what that phoenix said? Even without the Pill of Truth, you should know very well if we are real or fake." Tian Yang said.

Yuan sighed inwardly. Even without Tian Yang mentioning it, he already knew that these were his true memories.

"Well? Have you come to a conclusion yet?" The Divine Paragon asked him a moment later.

After a moment of silence, Yuan nodded his head.

"Even if I accept you, I will still be myself. I will make sure of that," he said in a resolute voice.

"That's what I like to hear."

A bright smile appeared on the Divine Paragon's face as he approached Yuan some more.

Once they were standing right in front of each other, the Divine Paragon extended his hand out for a handshake.

"My legacy... I will leave it in your hands. Don't disappoint me." The Divine Paragon said

"I will try not to." Yuan nodded before accepting the Divine Paragon's handshake.

The Divine Paragon suddenly began glowing, shattering into countless tiny fragments a few seconds later. These tiny fragments were his memories, and they combined with Yuan. 0

Memories began flowing inside Yuan's mind— his early memories as the Divine Paragon.

However, these were still just a small fraction of the Divine Paragon's memories.

Of course, even one percent of the Divine Paragon's memories contained a vast amount of experience and knowledge that could make a mortal into a god-like existence.

Tears suddenly began flowing from Yuan's eyes as he reclaimed his earlier memories as the Divine Paragon, such as his childhood and the reason he started hunting demons.

"I see... So this is why you— I started hunting demons." Yuan mumbled in a low voice as a beautiful young lady suddenly materialized before him inside his head.

"I'm sorry... Even though I promised that I'd never forget about you." Yuan said to the young lady that stood before him.

"It's okay. Due to your unique circumstances, I will forgive you— only if you do me a favor."

"What is it?"

"Say my name," she said.

A gentle smile appeared on Yuan's face as he spoke, "Ai Rong."

The young lady showed him a beautiful smile that could make even dead flowers blossom after hearing her name.

"Since you have proven that you truly remember me, I will forgive you. However, more importantly, do you remember your own name?"

Yuan nodded, "Yes. I was called Tian Chenyu before I became the Divine Paragon."

"That's right. But that doesn't matter anymore because..."

"Because I am not Tian Chenyu. I am Yuan." He finished Ai Rong's sentence.

The beautiful young lady gently nodded her head before disappearing into the void.

Yuan turned to look at the other three incarnations of him.

"Do I have to accept you guys as well?" He asked them.

"Eventually, but now is not the time. You will need time to fully digest Tian Chenyu's memories before you absorb our memories as well. Don't bite more than you can chew, or you'll go insane." Tian Yang said.

And he continued, "Also, don't rush trying to recall all of your memories. The memories of an immortal that has lived for millions of years is not something to be taken lightly. Even a tiny fragment could be tens of thousands of years of experience, which is more than enough to overwhelm someone with just 18 years of experience."

"I understand." Yuan nodded.

He opened his eyes a moment later to find that they were still flowing with tears.

"Are you okay, Young Master?" Feng Yuxiang asked him.

"Yes, I am fine. I just remembered something sad that happened really long ago."

Feng Yuxiang didn't completely understand the meaning behind his words, but she decided to not ask him about it.

"Anyways, let's deal with this Abomination and get back to farming more points, shall we?" Yuan stood up and turned to look at the sleeping monster with a calm gaze, his demeanor completely different from just minutes ago..

Chapter 840: Swords of Eternal Torment

Chapter 840: Swords of Eternal Torment

Even though only a few moments have passed since Yuan returned, both Feng Yuxiang and Lan Yingying noticed the change in Yuan's demeanor.

He appeared more calm and nonchalant, but they could not pinpoint exactly what was so different about him.

In their eyes, he was still the Yuan they knew, but at the same time, he appeared to be a different person.

Meanwhile, Yuan summoned the Empyrean Overlord and began approaching the Abomination.

"What's he doing? Why is he getting so close to the Abomination?" Tang Zheng asked out loud when he saw Yuan's action.

"Who knows. Maybe he has something up his sleeves." Yan Hara shrugged.

Once Yuan was directly before the Abomination, he looked up at the demon that was almost the size of a mountain and showed a profound smile on his face.

"Abominations, also known as Mutated Demons They are not only harder to kill than normal demons but they are also extremely chaotic. Without a mind of their own, they act only upon their own instincts, which tells them to destroy everything in their path. They cannot discern between friends and foes, so they attack even other demons if they are within its path. A truly unforgiving existence that shouldn't be allowed to exist."

Yuan slowly liked the Empyrean Overlord until it was directly above his head.

After taking a deep breath, he slashed the enormous sword that suddenly erupted with a massive amount of Sword Aura at the sleeping demon.

Whoosh!

The Sword Aura pierced straight inside the Abomination's body before it began expanding and erasing everything that it touched.

The Abomination that had been sleeping peacefully suddenly snapped its eyes and mouth wide open before releasing an ear-piercing scream that shook the entire Demons' Valley.

When Wan Kaiqi and the other participant heard the Abomination's screaming, they immediately stopped whatever they were doing and turned to have the direction of the noise.

'Only the Abomination would make a sound like that! Who is fighting it? Daoist Huan? It must be her! There's no way it could be that pipsqueak!' Wan Kaiqi quickly started making his way towards the Abomination's direction.

The only other participant also started making her way towards the noise due to her curiosity.

So someone else beside me also wanted to fight the Abomination, huh?' She thought to herself.

Meanwhile, Yuan continued his assault on the Abomination.

After releasing his Sword Aura that was infused with demon sealing aura woke up the sleeping demon but it also wreaked havoc inside its body.

However, even that was not enough to defeat the demon. "Not enough, huh? Then let's weaken you some more!"

[Swords of Eternal Torment!]

Golden lights shaped like swords began appearing above the Abomination before plunging down, filling the demon's body with holes.

This was the same technique the Divine Paragon used to remove demons' pain tolerance, which was as effective on the Abomination as it would on any other demon.

And sure enough, the Abomination shrieked in pain, something it hasn't experienced before.

The Demons' Valley shook again with even more intensity, and it would not stop, acting like a pig as it was being slaughtered.

"I-Impossible!" Wan Yu cried out loud after seeing Yuan summon the golden swords.

"T-That can't be Swords of Eternal Torment, right?" Yan Hara refused to believe her eyes.

"I don't want to believe it, but it definitely looks like it..." Tang Zheng responded in a dazed voice.

"That's not possible! That technique had disappeared alongside the Divine Paragon! It must be another technique that looks similar!" Wan Yu said.

Swords of Eternal Torment was one of Divine Paragon's signature techniques, and it was one of very few techniques that he did not share with the Demon Sealing Clan, so when he disappeared, so did these techniques.

However, while these techniques no longer exist, records of their existence do, hence why Wan Yu and the others recognized the technique the moment they saw it.

Whether they believe it to be Swords of Eternal Torment is a different story.

"The Abomination appears to be in pain. I have never seen it react like that" Tang Zheng mumbled in a dazed voice.

"But demons can't feel pain." Yan Hara said.

"No, they can't— unless they are affected by Swords of Eternal Torment. According to our ancestors, when the Divine Paragon used that technique, all demons affected by it would experience pain like normal." Wan Yu explained.

"However, that cannot be Swords of Eternal Torment. The Divine Paragon never shared that technique with anyone in the Demon Sealing Clan— not even wills their most trusted members at that time."

"What if the Divine Paragon left behind his legacy before disappearing? What if he's really using Swords of Eternal Torment? What if he found the Divine Paragon's legacy?" Tang Zheng spoke with a serious expression on his face.

"If that's the case and the others find out, there will be a war to acquire it And it won't just be om clans fighting for it The entire Nine Heavens would be participating in this war." Wan To said.

And he continued, "But once again, I do not believe that's the case. The Divine Paragon doesn't strike me as the type of person to leave behind his legacy and disappear without a word."

"Then how do you explain the Abomination's reaction?" Tang Zheng asked.

"It's most likely just agitated. I believe it was also like this when Dian Chu fought it,. he said.

"What about the technique that looks exactly like Swords of Eternal Torment?. "

Do you know how many techniques exist in the Nine Heavens? Countless. There are bound to be techniques that look similar to each other despite being two completely different techniques. I have seen a few of these techniques myself, too."

"I guess so.. But you can't deny how freaky of a coincidence this is. Not only does he look like the Divine Paragon, even his techniques look like they belong to the Divine Paragon." Tang Zheng laughed out loud when he realized this fact.

"A coincidence or is this fate?" Yan Nara mumbled in a low voice as she stared at Yuan fighting the Abomination with a profound gaze, her thoughts unknown..

Chapter 841: Fighting the Abomination

"So freaking noisy! Let me help you quiet down!" Yuan swung the Empyrean Overlord, unleashing another wave of Sword Aura at the Abomination.

This time, he aimed for the demon's head.

The instant the Sword Aura touched the demon's head, it was cut until there was almost nothing left, and without a mouth or head, the demon was finally silenced.

However, the silence only lasted for a few moments until the demon regenerated and started screaming again.

"Then how about this!"

Yuan summoned a couple more golden swords before using them to seal the demon's mouth shut by filling its mouth with these swords.

This tactic worked wonders, as the demon was unable to remove the swords.

Once it was quiet again, Yuan returned to attacking the Abomination with his Sword Aura.

Even though his attacks did not seem to work at first, Yuan eventually noticed that the Abomination's recovery rate was beginning to lag.

Eventually, the Abomination gave up on trying to remove the golden swords and started thrashing around, and since its face was covered in golden swords, it could only blindly attack its surroundings like a broken machine.

The landscape quickly began to change with the Abomination's chaotic movements.

The Abomination's erratic movements also forced Yuan to slow down his attacks so that he doesn't get hit by its random attacks.

Wan Kaiqi eventually arrived at the scene, and when he saw that it was Yuan who had been fighting the Abomination this entire time, he was left speechless and completely shocked.

"I-Impossible What technique did he use to cover the Abomination with those golden swords?"

Then he noticed that Yuan was attacking the Abomination with Sword Aura that had been infused with demon sealing aura.

"He can not only use Sword Aura but also infuse it with demon sealing aura?! Who is this guy?! There's no way he's just a mere Spirit Lord! He must be hiding his true cultivation! Fuck! He tricked me!"

It was at this moment that Wan Kaiqi realized the points he'd painstakingly acquired were at stake.

However, no matter how much he wanted to return to hunting demons, he was just unable to leave. There was something about Yuan fighting with the Abomination that is keeping him there.

Daoist Huan showed up a few minutes after Wan Kaiqi, and sure enough, she was just as shocked as Wan Kaiqi after she saw the situation.

"W-Who is that?" She asked Wan Kaiqi without taking her eyes off the fight.

"I don't know," he responded in a confused voice.

He was just as clueless as her.

Eventually, the Abomination began showing signs of being sealed, as one of its arms had turned into stone completely.

When he saw this, Yuan briefly stopped his attacks and began gathering spiritual energy in his sword.

After taking a deep but calm breath, Yuan released the Heaven Splitting Sword Strike on the Abomination. Of course, this Heaven Splitting Sword Strike was infused with demon sealing aura just like his Sword Aura.

Of course, this Heaven Splitting Sword Strike was infused with demon sealing aura just like his Sword Aura.

The Heaven Splitting Sword Strike easily blew a massive hole within the Abomination's body like a sharp knife cutting paper before disappearing in the horizon.

The Abomination's body immediately began working on recovering the damage, but it realized that it was unable to heal the wound just as quickly.

Its instincts told the Abomination that it was in danger, and for the first time, it gave up on destruction and focused on running away.

.."I-It's running away? No way... " Wan Kaiqi was bewildered by the Abomination's actions.

The others watching were just as baffled, as they have never witnessed such a scene before.

'Where do you think you're going?!'

Yuan stopped attacking the demon and took a moment to create a massive golden sword that was almost as big as the Abomination before sending it flying at the Abomination.

BOOM!

The entire world shook as the golden sword pinned the Abomination into the ground, stopping it from running away.

The Abomination wanted to scream in pain, but since it couldn't make any noises, its body began squirming instead...

If you stop struggling and become sealed, you won't have to endure any more pain!. Yuan shouted at the demon as he unleashed some more Sword Aura at the pinned down demon.

Eventually, the Abomination could no longer regenerate faster than it was being sealed and completely turned into stone.

Seeing that he'd finally sealed the Abomination, Yuan finally stopped attacking it and sat down to recover his spiritual energy that was almost exhausted.

The place turned dead silent after Yuan sealed the Abomination, and even the demons that had been in hiding did not dare to disturb him. Despite not being real, these demons were created to act and think like demons, so it was only natural for them to fear Yuan after witnessing his display of strength...

"H-He really did it He sealed the Abomination..." Yan Hara muttered in a dazed voice as she stared at the Abomination's sealed frame.

Even though she had a feeling that Yuan had the potential to defeat the Abomination, she still couldn't believe it even after witnessing it happen with her own eyes.

"Shit... I really want to speak with him right now, but we are not allowed to approach them until the examination is over..." Wan Yu gritted his teeth with deep frustration.

While Yuan recovered his spiritual energy, Wan Kaiqi and Daoist Huan would just stand in place and stare at the sealed Abomination as though they were in a trance.

"This cannot be happening... I must be dreaming..." Wan Kaiqi mumbled in a low voice after many minutes of silence.

"I really wish this was just a dream, but..." Daoist Huan released a deep sigh.

She turned around and began walking away.

"Where are you going?" Wan Kaiqi asked her.

"The Abomination may have been defeated, but there are still plenty of demons to hunt," she said before disappearing from his sight.

Wan Kaiqi lingered around for a few more minutes before leaving the place as well.

However, he did not return to hunting demons. Instead, he went straight to the finish line. He knew that his defeat was inevitable, so there was no reason for him to continue farming points, as he would only be helping Yuan gather more points..

Chapter 842: Promotion to Elite Demon Sealer

"Phew, that took more effort than I'd expected." Yuan sighed in relief after he finished recovering his spiritual energy.

"Young Master... Are you still the Young Master, or are you..." Feng Yuxiang had a feeling that his memories as the Divine Paragon had resurfaced again, affecting his behavior.

Yuan smiled and said, "Don't worry, Feng Feng. It's still me, Yuan."

"Anyways, we still have plenty of time left before the end of the examination. Let's get as many points as we can."

He then stood up and turned to look in a specific direction.

"Why are you hiding? Come out and play with me!" Yuan suddenly said out loud.

When the demons in hiding heard Yuan's words, they immediately turned around and began running away. They knew that they had no chance against a monster like Yuan, who single-handedly defeated the Abomination without giving it the chance to really retaliate.

"Where do you think you're all going? You can run and hide, but you won't escape from me! I can smell you all from miles away!"

A wide smile appeared on Yuan's face as he chased after the demons, feeling better than ever before.

After consuming the Divine Paragon's memories, his hidden fear towards demons disappeared, allowing his confidence to flow and becoming empowered by it.

Although he's never really mentioned it to anyone, he was always fearful of demons inwardly. Perhaps even he was not aware of it, but now that fear is gone, it feels as though a massive amount of weight has been lifted off his back.

[Demon Sealing Strike!]

Yuan used this technique with Sword Aura, shredding the demon it struck until there was nothing left of it, killing it almost instantly.

'The way he uses his Sword Aura... It reminds me of the Lord's Sword Aura.... Lan Yingying thought to herself as she watched Yuan kill one demon after another from his wrist.

A few hours later, Yuan accumulated over 1,500 points.

"At this rate, he'll clear out all of the demons within the Demons' Valley." Tang Zheng said.

"He's going to have a field day Inside the treasure room with the amount of points he'll have by the end of the examination." Wan Yu smiled.

"And he still has another full day to acquire more points..." Yan Hare said.

"Oh well. Even if he empties out the treasure room, nobody can complain about it, as that is the rule of this examination."

After another day of hunting demons, Yan Hara's voice resounded from the necklace, 'You have four hours left before the examination comes to an end.'

"Four hours, huh? Might as well end things now since it appears that I have hunted all of the demons in the Demons' Valley." Yuan mumbled to himself, as it has been over an hour since he last encountered a demon.

Thus, he began making his way towards the finish line.

He reached the Divine Paragon's statue two hours later to see Wan Kaiqi cultivating beside the statue.

When Wan Kaiqi noticed Yuan's presence, he opened his eyes and proceeded to stare at Yuan with a perplexed expression on his face.

Yuan glanced back at Wan Kaiqi and said, "I'm surprised to see you here before me. Did something happen?"

"No particular reason. I just got bored of fighting demons, so I decided to end it early," Wan Kaiqi lied without any hesitation.

And he continued, "Don't worry, I won't go back on my own words. If I lose, I will give you my points as promised."

Yuan didn't really care about Wan Kaiqi's reasons for quitting early, so after hearing that Wan Kaiqi would honor their bet, he stopped bothering Wan Kaiqi and sat down to cultivate.

About an hour after Yuan's arrival, Daoist Huan also showed up at the finish line, but she appeared to be a little agitated for some reason.

'What the heck is going on with the examination? I stopped encountering demons after the second day!' She sighed inwardly.

Although she knew that there was only a limited amount of demons to hunt for the examination, she could not have expected for Yuan to kill all of them within 2 days, hence her frustration and confusion.

However, that confusion would disappear shortly later when the judges appeared to announce the results.

Once all three participants arrived at the finish line, Yan Hera and the other judges showed up to end the examination.

"Congratulations on passing the examination. The three of you will be promoted to the rank of Elite Demon Sealer. We would normally hold a ceremony for such an occasion, but due to the current situation, we will have to skip the ceremony and go straight to the promotion." Wan Yu said to them.

"Anyways, let's announce the results of the examination."

"Third place, Wan Kaiqi with 155 points."

"Second place, Huan Xie with 289 points."

"First place, Yuan with 2,056 points."

"T-Two thousand points...?" Huan Xie looked at Yuan with her eyes as wide as saucers.

'No wonder why I couldn't find any demons! This guy killed them all!'

Two thousand points... That's gotta be the record... Wan Kaiqi looked at Yuan with a bewildered face.

Indeed, Yuan's two thousand points had beaten the previous record held by Dian Chu, even doubling it. "Do you guys have anything to say before we leave this place?" Wan Yu then asked.

Wan Kaiqi raised his hands and said, "My points... Give them to him."

"What?" Wan Yu raised his eyebrows in a questioning manner.

"I lost a bet with him." Wan Kaiqi said, not explaining any further.

"Very well. You have a total of 2,211 points now." Wan Yu said to Yuan.

They left the Demons' Valley shortly after and returned to the Grand Library, where Yan Hara handed them their new badges.

"Once again, congratulations," she said to them.

"Thank you, Senior." They bowed to her before taking their leave.

After the other two left, it was Just Yuan and the three Judges.

They turned to look at him and proceeded to stare at him in silence. They had so many questions for him that neither of them knew where to start..

Chapter 843: Act of Treachery

"Is there something wrong?" Yuan decided to ask them after giving them plenty of time to speak.

"Little founder... That technique you used to restrict the Abomination—what kind of technique is it?" Yan Hara forcefully swallowed before asking him.

"Oh, that was one of my family's techniques. It's called Swords of Binding Light. It's really good for restricting magical beasts and demons alike," he responded in a calm manner.

"Swords of Binding Light? So it really wasn't Swords of Eternal Torment?" Tang Zheng mumbled.

"I told you it couldn't have been that technique." Wan Yu didn't seem surprised outside, but he was relieved inwardly.

Of course, since Yuan had the Divine Paragon's memories, he was well aware that Swords of Eternal Torment was a technique that had never been shared with the Demon Sealing Clan or anyone in that matter. He was also aware of the risk from using the technique, but he had no other choice, as that technique was required to defeat the Abomination at his current level.

"Anyways, that was a marvelous performance, little founder. I am now more confident than ever that you have what it takes to become the next leader of the Demon Sealing Clan!" Yan Hara said with a bright smile on her face.

"Screw the Demon Sealing Clan." Wan Yu suddenly said.

"Huh? What did you just say?" Yan Hare turned to look at him with a frown on her face.

However, Wan Yu ignored her and continued to look at Yuan, "I wouldn't normally do something this shameless, but you're worth it. Yuan, leave the Demon Sealing Clan and join the Demon Sealing Grotto. You're wasting your talents over there."

"Hey! How dare you try to convert the little founder right in front of me!" Yan Hara was beginning to fume in anger.

Wan Yu coldly snorted at her and said, "Have you already forgotten what I told you during the examination? The Demon Sealing Clan is collapsing faster than ever before. It will only be a matter of time before it completely disappears."

He then turned to look at Yuan and continued, "Listen here, Yuan. Because of Qian Chu, the current leader of the Demon Sealing Clan, three Master Demon Sealers from the Demon Sealing Grotto were killed, and this isn't the first time he's indirectly killed our people. The Demon Sealing Grotto can only endure it so much before they make the Demon Sealing Clan pay for its leader's crimes."

"Therefore, I am advising you to leave it before things get too hectic. If you want to become a leader, you can become the leader of the Demon Sealing Grotto instead. I believe you have the capabilities."

After a moment of silence, Yuan spoke, "So what you're saying is... The Demon Sealing Clan will suffer because of the current leader. In other words, as long as someone replaces his position, the Demon Sealing Grotto won't bother us any further. Is that correct?"

"Uhh... I understand where you're coming from, but that's not how this works. Even if the Demon Sealing Grotto is willing to forgive the Demon Sealing Clan, it is highly unlikely that someone will replace him. Ojan Chu, he won't let anyone take his position even if he has to fight to his last breath."

"Little founder, are you thinking about taking Qian Chu's spot as the leader of the Demon Sealing Clan?" Yan Hara suddenly asked him.

"Hm? No, not at all. However, I do intend on removing Wan Chu from his position. He doesn't qualify to be the leader of the Demon Sealing Clan." Yuan said in a calm voice.

Yan Hara and Tang Zheng felt chills down their spine after hearing Yuan's words, and they immediately began looking around to make sure nobody else had heard him.

"Y-You shouldn't say such things out loud! Do you have any idea how many people admire Qian Chu? Even worse, if Qian Chu gets word of it, he will personally take care of you!" Yan Hara warned him.

"Hahaha!" Wan Yu suddenly began laughing out loud.

"You are truly a wondrous and incomprehensible existence! Tell me, how are you going to 'remove him'? You have piqued my interest!"

"Don't tell him anything. For all we know, he could run off to tell Qian Chu afterward." Yan Hara sneered.

"I would never help Can Chu. He's not only an egotistical bastard but also coldhearted to the bone. He's someone that could sacrifice an entire city without batting an eye as long as he achieves his goal, almost like a demon in human skin. If I can assist in bringing him down, I would do so in a heartbeat." Wan Yu shook his head.

And he continued, "You know, I had a relationship with many of the demon sealers that had been killed by Qian Chu. They were my friends."

Yuan then spoke, "Even if you ask me to tell you, I don't know how to remove him from his position— at least not right now. However, I will eventually think of something."

"Little founder... Are you serious?" Yan Hara looked at him with a worried frown on her pretty face.

"It is one thing to fight for his position, but what you're doing sounds like an act of treachery... You could—will be killed for it if caught."

"Don't worry, Senior Yan. I won't do anything... for now. After all, I am still too weak to threaten anybody." Yuan said.

"Aiya... That's not what I am worried about..."

"You worry too much, Yan Hara. If you keep your mouth shut, nobody will find out about anything. In fact, the two of you are more of a risk to him than I am. After all, you're both from the Demon Sealing Clan and work directly for Qian Chu. I, on the other hand, work for the side that wants to see him fall."

"That's it! I have had enough of your bullshit! How dare you suggest that I would do anything to hurt him!"

Just as Yan tiara prepared to confront Wan Yu, Tang Zheng quickly reacted and stepped between them.

"That's enough from the both of you. Are you trying to worsen the already grave situation between our clans? If you don't trust each other, I have a suggestion. Make an oath with heaven as witness that you will not say anything."

"You want us to make a Heavenly Oath?" They looked at Tang Zheng with wide eyes.

"It's either that or you continue fighting each other." Tang Zheng nodded.,

Chapter 844: Heavenly Oath

"If it makes things better, I can go first." Tang Zheng said when he noticed their hesitancy.

However, they weren't hesitant because they had planned on telling Qian Chu about Yuan's plan to remove him from his position.

They were hesitant because a Heavenly Oath would mark their soul, and anything that is related to the soul is an extreme risk for any cultivators. Unless it was absolutely necessary, nobody would dare to take such risks.

"I-I am willing to do a Heavenly Oath since I know that I won't say anything." Yan Hara said a moment later.

"If you do it, then I will do it as well." Wan Yu nodded.

Yuan then said, "You guys really don't need to do this... If I didn't trust you guys, I wouldn't have said anything out loud."

"Little founder, this is not just about you. This is also about our trust for each other. He clearly doesn't trust me, but I don't blame him since I don't trust him either." Yan Hara said.

Wan Yu nodded, agreeing with Yan Hara's words.

"Then allow me to start."

Tang Zheng raised his hand above his head and spoke, "With Heaven as my witness, I swear that I will not tell anyone that isn't here right now about what just happened. If I break this oath, may the Heavens shatter my soul as punishment."

A golden light flickered on Tang Zheng's forehead the next second, which meant that the Heavenly Oath was a success.

Yan Hara and Wan Yu followed suit after Tang Zheng by making their own oath.

"There. Are you happy now?" Van Hara glared at Wan Yu afterward.

"Yes, very happy." Wan Yu shrugged.

He then turned to look at Yuan and said, "Anyways, if you truly intend on removing Wan Chu from his position, don't wait too long because the Demon Sealing Grotto definitely won't be waiting for you."

Yuan nodded, and he asked, "Do you know when the Demon Sealing Grotto might act?"

"Well, as heated as things are right now, I doubt anything significant would happen for a few more years. This is a very sensitive situation that could result in war between the two clans. However, I wouldn't bet on anything. We don't know what Qian Chu has planned, after all."

"I will figure something out. You guys can just continue your life as normal." Yuan said.

"Normal, huh? I think it's a little too late for that Tang Zheng sighed.

"What are you going to do now?" Yan Hara asked him.

"I am going to focus on increasing my own strength," he said.

"If you need anything, you can contact me."

"Anyways, do you want to visit the treasury now to redeem your points, or do you want to do it later? You have one year to use them before they are no longer valid." Wan Yu asked him sometime later.

"I want to do it now." Yuan said.

"Alright. Follow us."

Yuan nodded and proceeded to follow them to this secluded area behind the Grand Library, where a small pagoda was located.

Sitting In front of this building was an old man, who appeared to be cultivating.

Once they got close enough, the old man opened his eyes and spoke without opening his mouth, his calm voice resounding very clearly in their heads, "What do you want?"

"He's here to redeem his points." Wan Yu said.

The old man narrowed his gaze at Yuan for a moment before gesturing for him.

"Go ahead. Well wait for you out here." Yan Hara said to him.

Yuan nodded and approached the old man

"Show me your necklace."

Yuan removed the necklace from the examination and handed it to the old man.

"Hm?!"

The old man's eyes widened with surprise after seeing how many points Yuan had acquired.

He turned to look at Yan Hara and the others with a look of disbelief on his face.

"It's real, Senior." Wan Yu said with a smile on his face.

'There should only be enough demons within the Demons' Valley to acquire 1,500 points, but the fact that you have 2,211 points must mean that you have managed to defeat the Abomination..." The old man muttered in a low voice.

He then placed the necklace on his forehead and closed his eyes.

The necklace suddenly began glowing, and Yuan's fight with the Abomination that it had recorded replayed inside the old man's head.

"The technique you used to create those golden swords... What Is it called?" The old man asked Yuan with a serious expression on his face.

"Swords of Binding Light." Yuan responded without hesitation.

"Are you sure it's not called Swords of Eternal Torment?" The old man narrowed his eyes.

"Swords of Eternal Torment? What's that?" Yuan raised his eyebrows in a puzzled manner, looking like he'd genuinely never heard of such a technique before.

Seeing Yuan's reaction, the old man shook his head, "Forget it."

'Somebody probably took inspiration from Swords of Eternal Torment for their own technique. It happens quite often.... He sighed inwardly.

"Alright, follow me." The old man stood up and led Yuan into the pagoda.

Once inside the pagoda, Yuan was greeted by hundreds of treasures on display on the ground and even on the walls.

"You have an hour. Do not touch any of the treasures. They are protected by a powerful array. If you want a treasure, let me know, unless you want to experience the power of these arrays." The old man said to him.

Yuan nodded and immediately began looking at the demon sealing treasures.

Most of the treasures there required between too to 500 points, so Yuan could potentially acquire 20 treasures from that place if he picked only the cheapest treasures.

However, he didn't do that. In fact, he wasn't interested in any of the treasures there.

After a quick walkthrough around the room, Yuan turned to look at the old man and said, "None of these treasures interest me. I want to take a look at the treasures on the next floor..."

Chapter 845: Demon Warding Talisman

"None of the treasures here interests you? You're a picky one, aren't you?"
The old man laughed out loud.

This is his first time meeting someone who couldn't be swayed by the treasures on the first floor.

"Either the three outside didn't tell you or you just don't care, but you do not qualify to see the other floors." The old man then said.

"But..."

He closed his eyes to ponder.

After a few moments of silence, he spoke, "But since you managed to defeat the Abomination and seem to have a bright future ahead of you, I will make this an exception and allow you to claim a treasure from the next floor."

"Thank you, senior." Yuan clasped his hands and bowed to him in a respectful manner.

"Don't thank me just yet. I said 'a' treasure, so you will only be allowed to choose one treasure even if you have enough points for more. If you stay down here, you can buy as many treasures as you'd like. What is your decision?"

"I would still like to see the next floor." Yuan immediately responded without hesitation.

None of the treasures on this floor were good enough in his eyes, so it wouldn't matter if he could buy multiple of them.

'Very well Follow me.' The old man nodded. and he proceeded to walk to the next floor with Yuan following right behind him.

A few moments Later. Yuan stepped foot inside the second floor. Although there were far Less treasures on this floor at glance, there was a powerful pressure on this floor that didn't exist on the first floor, and it made it harder to breathe for Yuan, as his cultivation level was too weak to stand beside these powerful. treasures.

However. he endured the intense pressure and began walking around the room.

There were swords, spears, bows, daggers— all sorts of weapons on this floor, but none of them interested him.

'These treasures would've definitely been enough before I acquired the Divine Paragon's memories, but now... They just feel so lackluster...' Yuan sighed inwardly.

After reaching the end of the room, Yuan suddenly stopped before a red ring that had been resting inside a display Case for an unknown amount of time.

He didn't recognize this ring, but he had a feeling that he had seen it before.

"What is this treasure?" Yuan decided to ask the old man.

The old man approached him and the treasure before speaking, "Nobody really knows the usage for this treasure or how to use it but it used to belong to the Divine Paragon— at least according to the rumors. There is no concrete proof that it belongs to the Divine Paragon, but some people during his era claimed that they have seen him with it."

"How much is it?" Yuan asked then asked.

He figured that the reason he felt like he had seen the ring before was because it belonged to the Divine Paragon.

'I probably don't recognize it because I don't have the memories for it yet, but I do believe that it belonged to the Divine Paragon. As for its purpose... I will find out once I regain those memories. Hopefully, its worth it He thought to himself.

"It's worth 2.000 points." The old man said.

"That expensive? Even though it doesn't have any usage?" Yuan was surprised to hear this.

"Well, anything related to the Divine Paragon is extremely valuable even it it has no real uses. Even wooden branch that had been touched by Divine Paragon for a brief moment can be worth more than actual. treasures. There are some collectors out there that are obsessed with this kind of stuff." The old man explained.

"I understand that but you just said it is just a rumor that it belonged to the Divine Paragon. What if it turns out to be some random ring?" Yuan asked.

"Even if that is the case, this ring has some value, as it contains massive amount of demon sealing aura within it The only problem is... nobody knows how to extract it or use it How about this. If you decide to buy this treasure. I will change the rules a bit and Let you buy another treasure from the first floor."

"Dear." Yuan immediately agreed.

"Then it's decided that you want this ring?" The old man asked for confirmation.

"Yes, I want this ring:. He confirmed.

"Very well."

The old man then removed the array protecting the display case and retrieved the red ring from within before handing it to Yuan.

"You have 211 more points."

Yuan returned to the first floor with the old man.

After looking through the treasures once more, Yuan pointed at a specific treasure that was priced at 200 points.

"I want this treasure." Very wen." The old man handed the treasure Yuan picked to him shortly after removing the array.

The old man handed Yuan a storage pouch that contained 11.000 spirit stones.

"Thank you." Yuan bowed to the old man afterward.

"I have a feeling that we will be seeing each other again soon. Good Luck, young demon seater" The old man sent Yuan away with a profound smile on his face.

Chapter 846: The Real Demons' Valley

Chapter 846: The Real Demons' Valley

"I picked these two treasures." Yuan showed Yan Hara and the others his new treasures.

"Huh? Only two treasures? That's not right. You had over 2,000 points!" Yan Hara said with a puzzled look on her face.

"That should be the Demon Sealing Ward, and it was only 200 points the last time I saw it. However, I don't recognize that ring."

"I know that ring, but it belonged to the second floor. I'm surprised the old man allowed you to go upstairs since only Master Demon Sealers qualify to go there." Wan Yu said.

And he continued, "But why did you choose that treasure out of everything you could've picked from that floor? I am going to be honest—you wasted your points on that ring."

"What kind of demon sealing treasure is that?" Yan Hara asked.

"It's not really a demon sealing treasure. It is rumored to belong to the Divine Paragon, but there is no real evidence to back up such a rumor. That ring also has a massive amount of demon sealing aura stored within it, but nobody knows how to extract it from the ring. In fact, nobody even knows how to use the ring or what it's used for."

"H-How many points did you spend on this ring?" Yan Hara asked Yuan in a nervous voice.

"2,000 points..." He said.

For more, visit: MtNovel.com

"Two thousand?!" Yan Hara exclaimed.

"Heavens! Little founder, how could you waste so many points on such a worthless ring! That shrewd old man must've tricked you into buying it with some bullshit, right?! Come with me! We are going to ask for a refund!"

"Calm down, senior. I was not tricked. I know about the rumors and that nobody knows how to use it." Yuan quickly said.

"A-And you still purchased it? Why would you do such a thing?" Yan Hara asked with a bewildered look on her face.

2,000 points is no small amount. In fact, this is the first time that someone has acquired this many points, yet he wasted it on a useless ring that has no real practical uses when he could've claimed a powerful demon sealing treasure instead? It didn't make any sense.

"To be completely honest, I don't know why I got it. I just had a feeling that I needed it."

"You got it because of a gut feeling...? Unbelievable..." Yan Hara was truly speechless now.

"You know what they say... The more talented they are, the more eccentric. That is why ordinary people can never understand geniuses." Wan Yu shrugged.

"Whatever..." Yan Hara rubbed her temples and sighed.

"Anyways, if it's your choice to pick that ring, then I won't say anything else. I really hope you don't regret it."

Yuan nodded.

Sometime later, Yuan walked outside the Grand Library with the other three.

"Senior, I am going to return in a month to challenge the Demon Sealing Pagoda again. I have a feeling that I am going to defeat the fourth floor this time." Yuan said.

"A month, right? I understand. You have my communication jade slip, anyway."

"See you later, Yuan."

After saying their goodbyes, Yuan left the Grand Library and returned to Spirit Heaven.

"Do you really think he has what it takes to remove Qian Chu from his position?" Wan Yu asked the other two afterward.

And he continued, "I have my own hopes, but I don't have any expectations."

"He will, without doubt, become the next leader. I will make sure of it. That has been my goal even before today." Yan Hara calmly responded.

Tang Zheng then spoke, "He definitely has the talent, but I don't know if he'll have the time..."

"In the end, we can only hope that fate will guide him towards the right path."

After returning to the Myriad of Techniques, Yuan sighed inwardly, 'The Demon Sealing Clan and the Demon Sealing Grotto... How troublesome...'

Even though he said that he will remove Qian Chu from his position, it was much easier said than done. In the end, he can only put that thought behind his mind for now and focus on getting stronger.

Upon leaving the Myriad of Techniques, Yuan was greeted by a dark sky and the same chilling sensation from the Demons' Valley during the examination.

As he left the narrow alleyway and entered the street, Yuan could hear joyful laughter resounding from the street.

"Did the people of this city finally decide to leave their houses?" Yuan muttered to himself.

Feng Yuxiang appeared beside him and said, "Please be careful, Young Master. I sense something off about them."

Yuan nodded as he entered the street with Feng Yuxiang following close behind him.

He looked around to see many masked people dancing and singing on the street, almost as though there was an active festival, but the atmosphere did not feel normal, like there was something eerie about it.

"Young Master, let's just go straight to the Demons' Valley." Feng Yuxiang said to him.

Yuan nodded, "Yes, let's go."

However, right as he was prepared to leave, the people there suddenly stopped dancing, and they all turned to look at him in silence.

Yuan swallowed nervously, and he quickly said, "Feng Feng, let's just fly out of here."

And before the people there could even react, Yuan flew into the sky and disappeared from their view.

Once in the air, Yuan and Feng Yuxiang began flying towards the Demons' Valley.

"We should be able to see the Demons' Valley very soon." Feng Yuxiang said.

Half an hour later, deformed mountains started popping up in the horizon.

Once Yuan could see the Demons' Valley more clearly, he said, "This place looks nothing like the Demons' Valley from the examination..."

Compared to the Demons' Valley in the Grand Library that had normal-looking mountains, the mountains in this place were mostly deformed, like they had been crushed by giants, and some of them were even riddled with holes.

There was also not a single living tree or blade of grass to be seen, and the miasma was so thick that one could see it with their bare eyes in the form of a red fog that shrouded the Demons' Valley..

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 847: Suspicious Woman

"This red fog is probably the reason the people in the nameless town are losing their minds..." Yuan mumbled in a low voice.

"How are you feeling, Young Master?" Feng Yuxiang asked him.

"My legs feel a little cold, but that's about it."

"Young Master, can you hold my hands for a moment?" She suddenly extended her hand for him.

Yuan didn't think too much about it and held her hand.

The very next moment, Yuan could feel a burning yet comfortable sensation flowing throughout his body, and the cold feeling in his legs quickly disappeared.

"What was that?" Yuan asked her.

"I just used my phoenix flames to warm up your body. Your veins are burning with my phoenix flames right now, which is warding off the miasma."

"B-Burning?" Yuan's eyes widened.

He wasn't worried that it could hurt him. It was just terrifying to think that his body was literally burning on the inside.

"Don't worry, Young Master. It won't hurt you." Feng Yuxiang chuckled at his reaction.

"I know. But it still feels weird." Yuan said.

"Yingying, are you okay with the miasma?" He asked her.

"Yes, I am fine. Just like Miss Feng, I am not affected by it. In fact, the miasma is actually trying to avoid me. It's probably because of my Sacred Flame."

"Sacred Flames..."

According to the Divine Paragon's memories, besides demon sealing aura, there exists another element in this world that can effectively destroy demons, and that element exists within Lan Yingying's Sacred Flames—divine attribute.

Not much is known about divine attributes since it is a power that cannot be wielded by human cultivators. In fact, only Divine Beasts have ever wielded such powers before.

"Young Master." Feng Yuxiang suddenly called for him.

"There is a person ahead." She pointed at a middle-aged woman who was pacing back and forth the entrance of the Demons' Valley, and she appeared to be very distraught.

When Yuan saw her expression, he couldn't help but feel pity for her.

"Let's see what happened."

"Be careful... She might be from the nameless town..." Feng Yuxiang quickly warned him.

"I don't sense anything wrong with her. It should be fine." Yuan nodded.

He descended before the woman a moment later and asked her, "Excuse me, are you okay?"

The middle-aged woman was startled by Yuan's sudden appearance, but when she realized that he was a cultivator, she immediately approached him and asked, "I-Immortal Cultivator! Are you heading inside the Demons' Valley?!"

"Yes, I am."

"Please! Can you please help me?! My son went inside the Demons' Valley a week ago to hunt magical beasts with his friends, and he promised that he would be home two days ago, but he still hasn't returned! I tried looking for his friends, but they are also missing! I am worried to death that something might've happened to him!" The woman pleaded with him.

"Uhh..."

As cruel as it may sound, Yuan had a feeling that her son was no longer in this world. However, he didn't want to say it to the already-grieving mother, so he asked, "Do you know where he usually hunts? I can take a look around that area, and if I find him, I will bring him back to you."

"Oh! Thank you! Thank you very much! My son usually hunts near the 'Red Pond'. I will definitely repay this debt!"

Yuan nodded, "This might take a while, so you can return home for now."

"It's okay, I will wait here just in case my son comes out by himself!" She said.

"Are you sure? This place is very dangerous even for cultivators, much less a mortal like you..." Yuan expressed his worries.

The woman nodded and said, "I have been here for two days now. I think I will be fine for another day or two."

"If you say so... I will try to be back before sunrise. Be careful." Yuan said to her.

"I will! Once again, thank you!" The woman bowed to him.

<You have accepted a Quest>

[Quest: Grieving Mother's Plea]

[Location: Demons' Valley]

[Difficulty: Hard]

'A quest, huh? Been a while.' Yuan thought to himself as he glanced over the quest details.

"Are you ready?" Yuan turned to ask Feng Yuxiang, who was staring at the woman with a pondering face.

"Yes, I am ready." Feng Yuxiang nodded.

"Then let's help this woman before we look for our person."

"Okay."

Yuan entered the Demons' Valley with Feng Yuxiang shortly after.

Once they were inside the Demons' Valley and could no longer see the woman, Feng Yuxiang spoke, "Young Master, there's definitely something very weird about that woman."

"What?" Yuan asked.

"Despite being a mortal, she could somehow stand so close to the Demons' Valley without being affected by the miasma. That's not possible." Feng Yuxiang explained.

"Ah, that? I also noticed it, but I didn't sense any bad vibes from her, so I decided to help her anyway." Yuan said.

"Huh? You are still willing to help her even though there's a very good chance that she might be setting a trap for you? That's very reckless of you, Young Master." Feng Yuxiang was dumbfounded.

"Reckless? Maybe. But I really hope it's actually a trap so that I can put an end to it. If I ignore it, this trap will continue to exist and harm others." Yuan said, explaining why he agreed to help the woman.

"Young Master..." Feng Yuxiang did not expect this to be the real reason why Yuan decided to help this suspicious woman.

"Anyways, the Red Pond isn't that far away, so we should arrive soon."

"Huh? How do you know where this place is? Did you acquire a map of this place?" Feng Yuxiang asked.

"Not a map, but it's even better than it." Yuan pointed at his head and smiled, "The Divine Paragon's memories— he's been to this place before, so I also know this place like it's at the back of my hand now."

Feng Yuxiang's mouth dropped wide open.

"A-Are you sure we can trust those memories?"

"I guess we'll find out after we arrive at the location." Yuan chuckled..

Chapter 848: Red Pond

"We have arrived at Red Pond... at least what's left of it." Yuan said as they approached this massive, dried up hole in the ground from the sky.

"This is the Red Pond? There's nothing red about this, and a pond should have water..." Feng Yuxiang raised her eyebrows when she saw the scene.

"Well, that was millions of years ago. That circle used to be a pond filled with red water. Rumors say the red water was actually human blood, and demons used to bathe and drink from it." Yuan sighed.

"Anyways, this proves that my memories can be trusted. What do you think?" He looked at Feng Yuxiang.

"I-I think so too..." She nodded.

"Let's take a look around."

Yuan descended from the sky a moment later, landing right beside the empty pond. However, upon closer inspection, the Red Pond wasn't completely empty, as there appeared to be human remains in the form of bones at the bottom of the pond.

He proceeded to stare at it with a dazed expression on his face.

For more, visit: MtNovel.com

Inside his mind, memories of the Red Pond flowed.

The pond was filled to the brim with crimson liquid that resembled blood, and there were hundreds of demons bathing within the water while the Divine Paragon spied on them from the sky.

'No... The rumor was true. The red water was human blood, and the bottom of this pond was filled with human remains.'

He could still feel the burning emotions the Divine Paragon felt when he first saw the scene of demons bathing in human blood and the horrendous scent that assaulted his nose.

'In order to keep this Red Pond filled, demons killed thousands of people every single day...'

After recalling these highly unpleasant memories, Yuan suddenly felt an urge to puke.

"Young Master, are you okay?" Feng Yuxiang asked him when she noticed his face becoming paler.

"Yes... I just recalled some unpleasant memories, that's all." He said.

Feng Yuxiang held a worried look on her face. Although she doesn't know what kind of memories Yuan was seeing, she knew that it wasn't good for his mental health.

"Anyways, let's look around for that woman's son." Yuan used his divine sense to search for any clues.

"I couldn't find anything— not even a footprint. What about you, Feng Feng?" Yuan asked her a moment later.

She shook her head and said, "I didn't find anything either. This either means the woman was lying about her son, or her son never came to this area."

"Let's expand our search a little more before we come to any conclusions." Yuan said.

"Okay."

They returned to the air shortly after and began flying around the Red Pond.

About half an hour later, they gave up on the search when they found no clues and returned to the Red Pond.

"Let's forget about that woman's missing son... If he even exists..." Feng Yuxiang said.

Yuan sighed, "At the very least, we should let the mother know that we couldn't find him..."

"Okay." Feng Yuxiang nodded.

However, just as Yuan prepared to leave the scene, his body suddenly halted.

"Young Master? What are you waiting for?" Feng Yuxiang asked him from the sky.

After a moment of silence, a slight smile appeared on Yuan's face, and he spoke in a calm voice, "I can smell demons."

"What?" Feng Yuxiang's eyes widened with surprise.

Yuan turned to look in a certain direction and continued, "One... two... three... There are three demons nearby."

"Really? What should we do?"

"Isn't it obvious? I am going to kill them." Yuan responded in a nonchalant manner.

"According to my memories, there is a cave that demons used as a stronghold not far from here. They are probably hiding within this cave."

Now that he's sensed these demons, Yuan immediately began flying towards the direction of their scent.

'How weird. Why didn't I smell their scent before?' Yuan wondered to himself as he quickly approached the demons' scent.

About fifteen minutes later, Yuan stopped moving and gazed upon the cave entrance below him.

"The demons are inside this cave?" Feng Yuxiang asked.

Yuan nodded, and he said, "Yes, but for some reason, their scent is getting weaker..."

Lan Yingying suddenly appeared beside him and said, "There must be something in the cave that conceals their presence and scent."

"Yingying... How are you feeling?" Yuan asked her.

"I am feeling great. I just finished converting all of the magical beasts into spiritual energy, allowing me to breakthrough and become a Spirit Lord."

"Congratulations." Yuan said.

"Thank you, but I am still miles behind Miss Feng and Xiao Hua."

"With your talents, I'm sure you'll catch up to us in no time." Feng Yuxiang smiled.

Lan Yingying nodded, and she turned to look at Yuan, "Allow me to help you with these demons. I want to see my progress."

"Okay." Yuan agreed without any hesitation.

"Thank you."

They descended to the cave entrance a moment later.

"So dark.." Yuan mumbled in a low voice when he couldn't see more than a few inches inside the cave with his bare eyes despite having enhanced senses.

When she heard his words, Feng Yuxiang summoned a ball of flame that hovered above them to light the cave.

"Are you guys ready?" Yuan asked them as he summoned the Empyrean Overlord.

"Ready." They nodded.

And without any hesitation, Yuan walked inside this cave.

Upon entering the cave, Yuan realized that it was filled with skeletons just like the Red Pond.

After walking for a couple of minutes without seeing any signs of demons, they were forced to stop, as the path came to a dead end.

"A dead end? That's not possible... I clearly picked up their scent from this place." Yuan stood there and looked around with a pondering expression on his face.

"What if the demons had already left?" Feng Yuxiang said.

"I would know if they had left, but their scent lingered in this place until it disappeared shortly after we entered this cave. Maybe there is a secret passage or something. Let's look around." Yuan said.

"Okay." They nodded..

Chapter 849: Hidden Passage

Although the cave was quite spacious and wide, it had a linear interior, meaning there was only a single path for Yuan and the others to traverse.

However, even after walking back and forth this cave multiple rounds, they were unable to find any secret passages that the demons could've used to hide themselves.

"I don't see any formations in this place. If there's really a secret passage, it's not concealed by a formation— or it's concealed by a formation that's so powerful that even I cannot see it. However, demons don't have the power to create formations or arrays." Yuan said.

"I also don't see anything out of the ordinary with my divine sense." Feng Yuxiang said.

And she continued in a worried voice, "What if this is a trap? We should probably leave this cave for now."

"Wait." Lan Yingying suddenly said.

"What is it? Do you see something?" Yuan turned to look at her.

"I'm not sure, but that area feels off for some reason— the ground." Lan Yingying pointed at the ground right before the dead end.

"The ground?" Yuan walked over to where Lan Yingying pointed and inspected the ground.

When he couldn't find anything wrong with it, he decided to stomp on the ground.

"Hm?" Yuan raised his eyebrows when he felt a hollow feedback from the stomp.

"It's empty here." He said to them before stabbing into the ground with the Empyrean Overlord.

The ground immediately collapsed, revealing a hidden staircase that led underground.

Furthermore, the scent of demons that had disappeared suddenly appeared again. "I can smell them again! Demons! They're below us!" Yuan quickly said.

"How did we miss such an obvious passage? This must be the work of a treasure that can misdirect our senses. We should be careful, Young Master." Feng Yuxiang warned him.

For more, visit: MtNovel.com

"Good idea, especially since I can smell more than three demons now." Yuan suddenly said.

"Huh? How many demons can you smell?" Feng Yuxiang asked.

After taking a few deep breaths, Yuan replied, "About seven or eight."

"S-Seven or eight? That many?" Lan Yingying was speechless.

"Don't worry, they don't seem very strong. The strongest one appears to be a peak Spirit King, but it's only a low-ranking demon."

"If you say so..." She nodded.

"Young Master, allow me to go first." Feng Yuxiang said.

Yuan nodded, but before walking the staircase, Yuan wore his mask.

"Why the mask?" Feng Yuxiang asked.

"It won't be fun if the demons recognize me," he chuckled.

Feng Yuxiang was speechless.

'He's treating this like a game...' She sighed inwardly.

Sometime later, they began descending the narrow staircase.

Many minutes later, at the end of the staircase, they entered a spacious room with multiple paths to choose from.

"Which way?" Feng Yuxiang turned to look at Yuan, who was already pointing to a path.

"I understand."

Feng Yuxiang, without hesitation, began walking towards the path picked by Yuan.

"I'm surprised you can smell the demons from so far away... How do you do it?" Lan Yingying asked him.

"I don't know. I just instinctively know their location when I smell them, and they have this very distinctive scent that's hard to miss." Yuan shrugged, even though he was unable to smell demons before acquiring the Divine Paragon's memories and experience.

Lan Yingying tried to smell this 'distinctive scent' that Yuan spoke of, but she was not successful.

After walking for ten minutes straight, Feng Yuxiang came to a stop when she arrived at a dead end in the form of a cliff.

However, once they were actually standing on this cliff, they were amazed by the scenery before them.

"This is... a city?" Yuan mumbled in a low voice as he gazed upon a city that had already been reduced to ruins.

Although the city wasn't so large that he couldn't see the end, it was still quite shocking to find a city of this size beneath the Demons' Valley.

'This place isn't in the Divine Paragon's memories, but since I only have a small fraction of his memories, I wouldn't be surprised if he found this place later.' Yuan thought to himself.

After all, if nobody knew about this place, it would still be populated by demons right now.

"What now, Young Master? Should we hunt them one by one— at least until they notice our presence?" Feng Yuxiang asked him.

"No, that would take too much time. We'll gather and deal with all of them at once." Yuan said with an excited smile on his face.

"How are we going to do that?" Feng Yuxiang asked.

"Like this."

Yuan suddenly released his demon sealing aura, instantly filling the entire underground city with his presence.

The very next moment, eight different auras appeared in response to Yuan's provocation.

"They're coming." Yuan warned them.

Feng Yuxiang and Lan Yingying immediately prepared for battle while Yuan continued to stand there in a calm manner, and they watched as eight red-skinned demons emerged from the city before flying towards them.

In less than ten seconds after Yuan announced their presence, all eight demons stood before them.

"How did you find this place, human?" The demon emitting the aura of a peak Spirit King asked.

Yuan pointed at his own face and said, "I followed your scent."

"Our scent? What are you, a dog? No, not even a dog would be able to do that."

And it continued, "Whatever. It doesn't matter how you found this place. It was foolish of you to come here with just the three of you."

"Hahaha! It's been thousands of years since I've tasted human flesh and blood!"

"I call dibs on that woman with the smooth-looking skin beside him! She looks incredibly delicious!" One of the demons suddenly pointed at Lan Yingying.

"Then I want that big-breasted woman! I bet her meat is incredibly tender and juicy!" Another demon laughed as it pointed at Feng Yuxiang.

"Unlike that masked person, they don't smell human. They must be magical beasts disguised as humans."

"Who cares if they are humans or magical beasts! All it matters is how they taste, and I am starving!"

"Let's get 'em!"

However, before the demons could even move two steps, Yuan released his demon sealing aura.

[Demon Sealing Zone!]

With a wave of his sleeve, Yuan confined all eight demons in the Demon Sealing Zone, taking them by surprise.

"W-What the fuck is this?!"

"This feeling... It's the Demon Sealing Zone!"

"What?! The Demon Sealing Zone?! Impossible!"

The demons were confused and terrified at the same time.

After all, only very few people within the Demon Sealing Clan can use the Demon Sealing Zone, and they are mostly high-ranking demon sealers.

However, Yuan's cultivation level was too weak to be a high-ranking demon sealer, hence why they thought nothing about him— until now.

After capturing the demons, Yuan approached them and spoke in a calm voice, "I'm interested in something. If you answer my question, I will let you out of the Demon Sealing Zone."

"Hmph! As if we will believe you!" The demons sneered.

Yuan ignored their response and began questioning them anyway, "Let's start with an easy one.. How long have you lowly demons been hiding down here?"

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 850: Hibernation

Chapter 850: Hibernation

"The answer is... go fuck yourself." One of the eight demons cursed out loud in response to Yuan's question.

"..."

Yuan merely shook his head and said, "I will ask you again. How long have you been hiding in this underground city?"

"I might consider answering if you throw one of your friends in here. I'm too hungry to answer your questions, after all." Another demon answered.

"Hahaha! Good one! That's right! We'll answer your questions in exchange for those women behind you! How about a limb per question?"

Yuan sighed at their response.

"We can do this the easy way... or the hard way."

[Swords of Eternal Torment.]

With the snap of his fingers, three golden swords appeared above the demons.

"What the heck is that?" The demons tilted their heads to look at the swords.

"I will not repeat myself." Yuan said to them with a solemn expression on his face.

The demons swallowed nervously.

Although the demons didn't recognize the technique, they instinctively feared it.

"And we will not repeat ourselves! Fuck yo—"

Yuan moved his finger in a downward motion, and before the demon could even finish its sentence, one of the golden swords fell from the sky and stabbed itself right in the center of the demon's chest.

"AAAAAAAAAAAH!"

The demon suddenly roared in a painful voice, startling the other demons.

"Hey! What's wrong?!" The demons immediately knew that something was off. After all, they shouldn't feel pain as demons, yet their buddy that just got struck was definitely screaming in pain, and it appeared to be suffering excruciating pain.

"That technique removes your pain tolerance, so you'll feel pain just like the rest of us." Yuan explained to them the effects of the technique, which only terrified them even more.

Regardless of their rank, demons greatly depend on their insane regenerating ability and lack of ability to feel pain, as these two talents allow demons to become fearless creatures.

However, without even one of these techniques, the demons immediately become a flawed existence.

"PLEASE! GET THIS THING OFF ME! AHHHHHH!" The demon pleaded as blood flowed from its eyes.

However, Yuan merely stood there and silently watched with a nonchalant expression on his face. He clearly couldn't care less about the demon nor the pain it was feeling.

After torturing the demon for a few more minutes while ignoring the other demons the entire time, Yuan finally spoke, "My questions, do you feel like answering them now?"

"Millions of years! We have been down here ever since the Demon Sealing Clan defeated the Demon Clan!" The demon with the golden sword stuck between its chest answered.

"Very good."

Yuan removed the golden sword from the demon afterward, and he continued to ask, "So you stayed down here for millions of years without leaving this place even once? How do you stay sane?"

"We hibernate." The demon quickly responded to his question again, and it continued, "We demons can hibernate for tens of thousands of years at once. However, that doesn't mean we can sleep for millions of years without any breaks. When we come out of our hibernation, we will leave this place briefly to hunt for food in the surrounding areas. Once we're full, we will hibernate again."

"Hibernation, huh. If I recall correctly, this is also how you demons increase your strength." Yuan said.

"That's right, but we only resort to that when we cannot acquire enough resources to strengthen ourselves." The demon nodded.

Yuan laughed out loud after hearing its words, and he said in a mocking tone, "The eight of you have hibernated for millions of years, yet this is the level of your strength? Were you Spirit Apprentices before you decided to live here? How pitiful! I guess this is because of your immortality. After all, you can't be immortal and have a fast growth rate, or that would be utterly broken."

The demons gritted their teeth in anger after hearing Yuan's words, but they couldn't rebuke his claims, as it was true. In exchange for their immortality and talents, demons are at the rock bottom when it comes to growth.

For example, if an ordinary human cultivator at the first level Spirit Apprentice wanted to reach the second level, they would need at least a couple of weeks if not months. Meanwhile, demons at the same level would require 10 times the amount of time if not more to achieve the same results.

Of course, this restriction only exists in low-ranking demons like these 8 demons. Higher ranking demons would require much less time, and some of them even outright lack this restriction.

"Anyways, since you have answered my questions, I will now let you out of the Demon Sealing Zone." Yuan suddenly said.

"R- Really?" The demon was in disbelief.

"Yes, but you're not completely free just yet." Yuan said, and he turned to look at Lan Yingying.

"You wanted to test yourself, right? I will let you have this one."

"Are you sure?"

He nodded at her before returning to the demon, "If you can defeat my friend, I will let you live. I also won't interfere with your fight... even if you kill her."

A wide grin appeared on the demon's face after hearing Yuan's words.

"Say no more."

Yuan flicked his sleeves, pulling the demon out of the Demon Sealing Zone.

This demon was at the peak of Spirit Lord while Lan Yingying was only at the first level of Spirit Lord. However, Yuan wasn't feeling worried at all, as he was confident in Lan Yingying's ability.

"Young Master, are you sure this is a good idea...?" Feng Yuxiang, on the other hand, didn't have the same confidence as him.

Although she has seen Lan Yingying fight magical beasts before during their little journey in the Lower Heavens, that was not nearly enough to convince her that Lan Yingying will be okay in this fight.

"She'll be fine. Have some faith in her." Yuan smiled.

"..."

'The Divine Paragon's memories are clearly affecting him. If this occurred a month ago, the Young Master would not have allowed her to be in such a risky situation. However, this is the kind of characteristic that is required to survive in the cultivation world, especially once he traverses the upper heavens.' Feng Yuxiang sighed inwardly.

On one hand, she was relieved that Yuan was finally growing up to be more like a cultivator just like how she always wanted, but on the other hand, she was worried that he might be changing too fast, as it could have negative effects on him..

Chapter 851: False Incense

Lan Yingying calmly approached the demon after it was released from the Demon Sealing Zone.

'I wasn't able to help my parents or my grandparents in the Mystic Realm, but I have grown stronger. If I cannot even deal with a single demon, I am not fit to serve him.' Lan Yingying held a solemn expression on her face.

Her black hair suddenly turned white, and her azure eyes turned pink.

"What kind of magical beast are you? You must be really special if you can transform into a human at that level of cultivation." The demon licked its lips as it glared at Lan Yingying.

"Magical beast? Try Divine Beast." She calmly responded.

"She's a Divine Beast...?"

The demons were surprised to learn that Lan Yingying was actually a Divine Beast.

"Hahaha! What luck! I have never tasted flesh or blood from a Divine Beast before! You'll be my first!" The demon fighting her began laughing out loud.

"I cannot wait!"

The demon suddenly flew at Lan Yingying with its mouth wide open.

"Sacred Fire!"

Lan Yingying lifted her arm and pointed her palm at the incoming demon before shooting a large ball of white flames at it.

Due to its arrogance and confidence in its immortal body, the demon didn't even bother blocking or avoiding the flames and ran straight into it, allowing the flames to consume its body.

"Is this all you've got?! Flames don't work against us demons!"

Despite its whole body being engulfed in flames, the demon did not appear even slightly worried about the flames and continued to rush at Lan Yingying, as it was confident that it could easily regenerate faster than the flames could destroy it.

"Eat this, Bloody—" The demon suddenly halted its movements when it was about to launch an attack on Lan Yingying.

"W-What's happening to my body? Why aren't my injuries recovering?!" The demon looked down at its body with a puzzled face.

"What is this?! What the fuck did you do?!" The demon immediately started trying to put out the white flames burning its body, but its efforts were futile, as the flames continued to slowly destroy the demon's body.

Lan Yingying watched the demon slowly being consumed by her Sacred Fire and said, "My Sacred Fire is of divine attributes, which is really effective against demons. I hope you like it."

"Divine attributes?! Don't fuck with me, you damn beast!" The demon stopped trying to put out the flames and started attacking Lan Yingying, hoping that he'd kill her before the flames completely consumed it.

Even though the demon could not feel any pain from the Sacred Fire, its movements were greatly affected by the injuries on its body, making it incredibly sluggish and easy to dodge for Lan Yingying.

'It's not dying fast enough... I need something stronger.' Lan Yingying thought to herself as she distanced herself from the demon.

"Fiery Lotus!"

For more, visit: MtNovel.com

Lan Yingying took a moment to create a beautiful lotus made out of her Sacred Fire before launching it at the demon.

BOOM!

The entire underground shook briefly when the Fiery Lotus exploded in front of the demon. "AAAAAHHHHH!" The demon released one last deafening roar before Lan Yingying's Sacred Flames completely erased it from existence.

After killing the demon, Lan Yingying went to collect its demon core.

'Unbelievable... She actually took care of that demon with relative ease...' Feng Yuxiang thought to herself after witnessing Lan Yingying's prowess.

"Yingying, your Sacred Fire has improved tremendously since I last saw it." Yuan said to her with a smile on his face.

"Thank you, but I am not satisfied. Compared to my grandparents, my Sacred Fire is still too weak. The only reason I won so quickly is because that demon had underestimated my flames." Lan Yingying said.

"Then would you like to fight another demon?" Yuan asked.

Lan Yingying nodded her head without any hesitation.

"Alright, give me a moment."

He turned to look at the seven demons remaining, and they all held a solemn expression on their faces.

"Let's continue with the questioning. Whoever answers my questions will get to fight my friend." He said to them.

"My next question is... What trick did you use to conceal your scent and the hidden passage?"

"..."

The demons hesitated to answer his question.

"I won't ask again." Yuan raised his hand, causing the golden swords to tremble.

"A-A treasure!" One of the demons suddenly said.

"Oh? Tell me about this treasure." Yuan turned to look at this demon that was also a peak Spirit Lord.

"I-It's a treasure that can create realistic illusions and conceals presences to a certain extent. We used it to conceal the hidden passage and erase our presence and smell."

"Where is this treasure now?" Yuan continued asking.

The demon turned to look at a certain house in the city below and pointed to it, "It's in that building."

"Allow me, Young Master." Feng Yuxiang said to him before going down to the city and searching the building with the treasure.

She returned a few minutes later with what appeared to be an incense holder made out of jade.

"Here you go, Young Master." Feng Yuxiang handed him the treasure.

"Oh... So this is the treasure, huh. I wasn't expecting it to have such an appearance."

[False Incense]

[Grade: Ancient]

[Quality: Peak]

[Description: Allows the user to create realistic illusions and conceal presences. Can only have one illusion active at a time.]

"Wow, this is a really useful treasure." Yuan inspected the treasure with a smile on his face before storing it inside his spatial ring.

"Alright, you can fight my friend now."

He turned to look at Lan Yingying, "Whenever you're ready."

"I am ready." She nodded.

Yuan removed the demon from the Demon Sealing Zone a moment later.

Lan Yingying and the demon began fighting each other shortly after.

[Sacred Fire!]

However, as expected, the demon didn't dare to touch her Sacred Fire and dodged it instead.

"You only defeated the previous demon because of its arrogance! I won't make the same mistake!" The demon laughed as it launched a counterattack.

"Bloodshot!"

Hundreds of red projectiles flew at Lan Yingying.

[Sacred Fire!]

Lan Yingying created a wall of fire before her, instantly burning all of the projectiles that touched it.

'Looks like I have to go all out if I want to defeat this demon.' Lan Yingying said to herself before transforming into her beast form.

"Wow... Not only did her strength grow but even her size grew a substantial amount..." Yuan mumbled in a low voice when he stared at Lan Yingying, who was now a massive serpent..

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 852: Just an Ordinary Demon Sealer

Compared to her size in the Mystic Realm, Lan Yingying's serpent body is now doubled in size, so she was about 100 meters long, and her body was twice as thick.

"Do all Divine Beasts grow this big?" Yuan asked Feng Yuxiang while his attention remained fixated on Lan Yingying.

"Yes, most Divine Beasts have very large frames. If I can transform into my phoenix form, I could easily cover an entire town with just one of my wings."

"An entire town? Now that is something I really want to see..."

After transforming into her serpent form, Lan Yingying began attacking the demon aggressively.

[Sacred Fire!]

Lan Yingying suddenly breathed fire from her mouth, covering a large area.

"Shit!"

The demon was not prepared for Lan Yingying's attack and barely avoided her Sacred Fire.

However, Lan Yingying was not done yet, and she immediately flew at the demon afterward.

When she was close enough, Lan Yingying opened her mouth wide open before slamming it shut on the demon.

Once she caught the demon with her mouth, Lan Yingying released another breath of Sacred Fire, incinerating the demon until it was reduced to nothing but its demon core.

After killing the second demon with seemingly even less effort than the first, Lan Yingying returned to Yuan's side.

"I'm speechless, Yingying. You've really grown so much stronger. I think you can even deal with the rest of these demons by yourself if you wish." Yuan said to her.

"You flatter me, Yuan. I am nothing compared to you." Lan Yingying smiled.

"Well, do you want to fight the other demons too?" He asked a moment later.

Lan Yingying turned to look at the remaining six demons before shaking her head, "Unfortunately, I don't think I can fight a Spirit King yet."

Read more, visit: MtNovel.com

The demons Lan Yingying fought were both Spirit Lords, but the rest of these demons were all Spirit King.

The difference between Spirit Lord and Spirit King is very vast even if it's just a single level from Peak Spirit Lord to First Level Spirit King.

"That's fine. I won't force you to fight them if you don't want to." Yuan said.

And he turned to look at Feng Yuxiang, "What about you, Feng Feng? Do you want to try fighting one?"

A bittersweet smile appeared on Feng Yuxiang's face as she spoke, "As much as I want to impress the Young Master, I know my own capabilities. I may have a higher cultivator than Yingying, but I do not have the means to defeat demons at my level. They'll just regenerate any damage I deal to them. And while I do have techniques that can completely obliterate them, I do not have the cultivation to use them."

"I see..."

"Even though we're both Divine Beasts... I'm sorry for being useless..." She sighed.

"Don't think like that. You're not at fault here, and you're definitely not useless. We all have something we can and cannot do." Yuan shook his head.

"Anyways, since this is the case, I guess I should finish this."

Yuan approached the six demons.

"Let's change things up a bit. Instead of fighting my friends, you'll be playing with me now, and to make things fair, I will fight all six of you at once." He said to the demons, dumbfounding them.

"This humiliation—I will definitely make you regret it!" The peak Spirit King demon gritted its teeth in anger, as it had never been treated like a toy before.

And without any hesitation, Yuan walked into the Demon Sealing Zone to be with the rest of the demons.

"Y-You arrogant bastard! Die for me!"

The demons wasted no time attacking him the moment he entered the Demon Sealing Zone.

"Ha!"

After dodging their attacks, Yuan counterattacked with the Empyrean Overlord, slicing one of the demons there in half.

And just as that demon expected to regenerate from its seemingly superficial wound, it realized that the other half of its body had turned into stone.

"Watch out for his sword! Don't let it hit you!" The demon used what little time it had left to warn the others before turning into stone completely.

However, even if they knew that Yuan's sword could seal them, there was very little they could do about it. Due to their enclosed area, there was simply nowhere they could run.

Furthermore, they had to constantly worry about the golden swords above them, as Yuan could use them to strike at any moment.

Many minutes later.

"This guy is playing with us! Just who is this human?!" The demons cried inwardly when they eventually realized that Yuan was going easy on them.

"What's wrong? Why are you stopping? Don't you want to taste my flesh? Drink my blood?" Yuan calmly provoked the demons while being surrounded by them.

"If you want to die so much, let me help you!"

The peak Spirit King demon suddenly exploded with chaotic energy.

However, before it could really do anything, the two golden swords that had been on standby suddenly started moving again.

"AAAAH!"

The demon roared when the golden swords impaled its body.

"This is our chance! We don't have to worry about the golden swords anymore!" The other demons realized this chance and attacked Yuan simultaneously.

Suddenly, the other four demons started screaming in pain as well. "Y-You can summon more than three of these things?!" The demons were shocked to see more golden swords appear since they thought that he was limited to just three.

"Three?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"I don't know how you came to that conclusion but..." He pointed above them.

The demons subconsciously lifted their heads to look, and to their absolute shock, hundreds of golden swords that were not there a moment ago is now there.

"You... Who are you?!" The peak Spirit King demon suddenly shouted out loud.

"I'm just an ordinary demon sealer that happened to come across this place by pure chance." Yuan responded.

He then removed his mask to show the demons his face.

"Y-Y-You..."

The demons' faces immediately drained of all colors when they saw Yuan's face.

No matter how many millions of years have passed, they could never forget the face of their worst nightmare.

"D-Divine Paragon?!"

Chapter 853: Accepting Their Fate

"D-Divine Paragon?! Impossible! It can't be! No human cultivators could possibly live for so long!" The demons were in disbelief after seeing Yuan's familiar face.

After all, tens of millions of years have passed since the Demon Clan was defeated by the Demon Sealing Clan. Even if a cultivator has achieved true immortality, it requires a miracle to live this long without encountering any mishaps, unless they were in seclusion for so long.

"Impossible? Even though I am standing right before you?" Yuan said in a calm voice.

"You're a fake! A mere illusion! You may be able to disguise your appearance, but you can't hide your cultivation and smell! You're too young and weak to be the Divine Paragon!"

"Is that so?"

Yuan suddenly turned to look at Lan Yingying and asked her, "Can I get one of the demon cores?"

Lan Yingying nodded her head and handed him one of the demon cores she just received.

Once the demon core was in his grasp, Yuan opened his mouth and tossed it inside, shocking the demons.

After swallowing the demon core, Yuan opened his mouth to show the demons that he'd really consumed the demon core. "Do you still doubt my identity?" He asked them a moment later. "D- Divine Paragon..."

All five demons fell to their knees after coming to the conclusion that Yuan was truly the Divine Paragon, as there is only one person in the Nine Heavens capable of consuming demon cores.

And once they came to this conclusion, they lost all will to fight. In fact, they could only remain still and tremble in fear.

The demons even subconsciously stopped breathing from fear.

Seeing the condition of these demons, Yuan thought to himself, 'They should be plenty terrified now. This is the best time to kill them. And harvest their demon cores.'

And without hesitation, Yuan suddenly stretched his hand out, stabbing through one of the demon's chest and grabbing its crystal before destroying it.

The demons were well aware that Yuan had just killed one of their companions, but none of them dared to move even a finger and acted like they didn't see it.

In their minds, there was no point resisting before the Divine Paragon. In fact, they might risk offending the Divine Paragon by resisting him, who is famous for torturing demons before consuming their demon cores.

'At least it will be a swift death.'

The demons sighed inwardly and accepted their fate.

They have witnessed the Divine Paragon torture and kill its companions in the middle of an active battlefield before, and they wanted to avoid such a fate at all cost, even if they have to silently lie there and wait for their execution.

'So they're just going to accept their fate, huh?' Yuan realized this as he killed the second demon.

Not including the Divine Paragon's memories, this is his first time seeing demons give up in such a fashion.

Yuan pitied these demons for a brief moment, but then he recalled the scene of demons bathing in the Red Pond and many more terrible things that they have done to humans.

A few moments later, Yuan approached the last demon alive, who was also the strongest demon in the group.

"Before you kill me, can I ask you a question?" The demon suddenly spoke in a low voice.

"What?"

"Is it true that you wiped out the demons within the Demonic Realm?" The demon lifted its head and stared at Yuan with a profound expression.

"What do you think?" Yuan responded with his own question.

"You're definitely more than capable, but whether you actually killed them... I cannot say for sure."

After a moment of silence, Yuan said, "I don't know."

"You don't know...? Or you don't want to answer?"

"The former." Yuan said.

And without elaborating any further, Yuan finished off the demon.

After killing all of the demons, Yuan collected the demon cores and deactivated the Demon Sealing Zone.

"Good work, Young Master. Those demons trembled before your presence." Feng Yuxiang said to him afterward.

"Thank you, but if I have to be honest, I'm a little disappointed by the results. It didn't feel good killing beings that have no will to fight, even if they are demons." He sighed.

He then turned to look at Lan Yingying and said, "Here, take these."

"Demon cores? Why are you giving them to me?" She asked with a puzzled face.

"I want you to use them to further strengthen yourself," he said.

"Thank you, but I think you need them more than I do. If you consume these demon cores, you'll definitely become a Spirit King." Lan Yingying said.

"That might be true, but I want to become a Spirit King through the Demon Sealing Pagoda, and there is less than a month before I can challenge it again. You know, increasing my companion's prowess is just as important as raising my own."

"Then I won't be humble." Lan Yingying nodded and accepted the demon cores.

"Thank you, Yuan."

"Anyways, with the demons gone, let's scout this place to make sure we don't leave anything useful behind. Who knows, we might find another treasure or two in here." Yuan said a moment later.

And he continued, "I don't sense any other presence beside ours in this place, so it should be safe to split up to make the search quicker."

Feng Yuxiang nodded and said, "I will take the north area."

"Then I will look around the south side." Lan Yingying said.

"I will go west. Whenever you finish with your area, go to the east side and we'll group up there." Yuan said.

"I understand."

Sometime later, they split up and descended into the ruined city.

'This place looks pretty beat up...' Yuan thought to himself as he walked through the street with his divine sense activated, as that was more efficient and convenient than searching house by house.

However, even after many minutes of searching, Yuan was unable to find anything that was remotely useful.

After going through his area twice without finding anything, he started making his way towards the east side of the city..

Chapter 854: Blood-Soaked Mountain

Lan Yingying and Feng Yuxiang also went to the east side of the city after searching their area with no results.

"Did you guys find anything special? My side was empty." Yuan asked them.

"Nothing, but I'm not surprised. This place hasn't been visited by anyone beside the demons for millions of years. I'd be shocked if anything but spiritual treasures lasted that long."

"Then let's take a quick look at this last area before we leave this place." Yuan said, and they began walking through the east side of the city.

After walking for about ten minutes, Feng Yuxiang suddenly stopped and frowned.

"What's the matter, Feng Feng? Did you find something?" Yuan asked her.

"Not something. Someone. Although faint, I can sense a presence up ahead."

"Someone? Who could it be? I don't smell any demons." Yuan said.

"I think it's a human cultivator."

Yuan frowned and said, "Let's go!"

Feng Yuxiang nodded and picked up her pace, leading the others to this unknown presence.

Once they were close enough to see the person behind this presence with their divine sense, they stopped to analyze the situation.

"A human cultivator. He doesn't seem to be conscious. But what's he doing down here?" Feng Yuxiang said.

"Do you think this person could be that woman's missing son? Maybe the demons captured him and brought him here." Yuan speculated.

"That's possible, but we won't know for sure until we speak with him. Please wait here while I make sure it isn't a trap, Young Master." Feng Yuxiang said.

Yuan nodded and allowed Feng Yuxiang to go first.

Sometime later, Feng Yuxiang approached this man and nudged him with her feet, almost like she was seeing if he was a corpse.

"Hey, wake up."

"Ugh... My head hurts like hell..." The man muttered in a low voice as he sat up and looked at his surroundings.

"Where am I? Who are you?" The man asked Feng Yuxiang a moment later.

"You're currently underground, beneath the Demons' Valley. How did you get here? And who are you?"

"Demons' Valley...?" The man looked puzzled for a moment before snapping out of his daze and jumping to his feet.

"That's right! I remember now! I came to the Demons' Valley with my friends, but just as we were leaving, this group of demons appeared out of the blue and captured us! They ate my friends and even forced me to watch! What happened to the demons?!" The man began panicking after recalling his memories.

"I see... So you're really that woman's missing son. Anyways, we have already dealt with the demons. You don't need to worry about it anymore."

"You dealt with the demons...?" The man stared at her with a dazed face.

"Not me. My Young Master." Feng Yuxiang said.

"Follow me."

Sometime later, Feng Yuxiang returned to Yuan with the man.

"Young Master, this person really turned out to be that woman's missing son. According to him, he was captured by the demons." Feng Yuxiang explained the situation to Yuan.

"Wait... You know my mother?"

Yuan nodded and said, "Yes, we met her on the way here. She was worried sick that you didn't return home in time and stood in front of the Demons' Valley. We agreed to help her find you after hearing her story."

"I see... Thank you very much for coming here and saving my life. I would've been food for those demons if you'd arrived any later. I don't even want to imagine my mother grieving over my death..." The man sighed.

"I wish I can repay this debt, but I have nothing on me."

"Don't worry about it. We didn't do this for any reward." Yuan shook his head.

"Still, I can't just leave without giving you anything..."

The man pondered for a moment before speaking, "Oh! I know!"

"Although I cannot give you anything of value, I can lead you to something of value! You see, after being captured by the demons, I overheard them talking about a treasure that'd recently appeared inside the Blood-Soaked Mountain! I don't know what kind of treasure it is, but they seemed very excited about it."

"A treasure within Blood-Soaked Mountain, huh..." Yuan mumbled in a pondering voice.

"Where is this Blood-Soaked Mountain?" Feng Yuxiang asked.

"I'm not really sure, but it's within the Demons' Valley." The man said.

"I know where it is." Yuan suddenly said. "It's a little far from here, but it's not too bad if we fly straight there."

"If you don't mind, I would like to return to my mother now." The man asked them a moment later.

Yuan nodded, "Go ahead. The exit is over there."

"Once again, thank you for saving my life and sparing my mother from grief." The man bowed to them before leaving.

"Are you sure about this, Young Master? There are still many unanswered questions about his situation and his mother..." Feng Yuxiang asked him after the man left.

"It's fine. I doubt we really need to know these answers, anyway."

"If you say so."

"Are we going to the Blood-Soaked Mountain now?" Feng Yuxiang asked as they left the underground area.

"Yes, I am really interested in this treasure. If we fly straight there, it should only take us half a day to get there."

"I understand."

After leaving the underground area, Yuan and Feng Yuxiang began flying towards the Blood-Soaked Mountain while Lan Yingying transformed back into a bracelet to rest.

"Truly an impressive lad. I didn't expect him to deal with the demons so quickly and effortlessly. And his growth... It's almost terrifying. Who could've predicted that we would find a monster like him in that small place?"

The man that had been captured by the demons watched Yuan and Feng Yuxiang disappear into the horizon with a profound smile on his face.

Once he could no longer see their figure, the man's appearance began distorting, transforming into a handsome middle-aged man.

"If it's him... Perhaps he can defeat that man..."

The man created a portal and disappeared into it shortly after..

Chapter 855: Golden Celestial Tree

After flying for half a day, Yuan could finally see the Blood-Soaked Mountain in the distance.

Although it looks like a regular mountain right now, it used to be soaked in blood from the top to bottom.

However, if one looked closely, there were still some red colors left on this mountain.

"So this is Blood-Soaked Mountain... I guess we should split up and look for the treasure." Feng Yuxiang suggested after they arrived.

"Wait." Yuan stopped her.

He closed his eyes and took a couple of deep breaths.

"Okay, I don't smell any demons around here. Let's go look for the treasure." Yuan said a moment later.

Lan Yingying also appeared to help search for the treasure.

Feng Yuxiang and Lan Yingying searched the area surrounding the mountain while Yuan searched the mountain itself.

The peak of the mountain was flat, almost like the Dragon Spiral Mountain, so Yuan went there first.

"This place still reeks of blood even after millions of years..." Yuan sighed as he searched the top of the mountain that was also riddled with skeletons. Sometime later, Lan Yingying's voice resounded in Yuan's head, "Yuan, I think I found something. I am currently inside the mountain. There is an entrance at the south."

"Okay, I am coming."

Yuan immediately began making his way back down the mountain. At the south end of the mountain, there was a concealed cave that had been kept hidden by these red vines that covered the bottom of the mountain.

"I'm surprised that you found this cave." Yuan said to Lan Yingying after arriving and seeing the situation.

"It actually looked even more concealed before. I had to remove some vines just to get inside," she said.

"What did you find inside?" Feng Yuxiang asked.

"Well... I think it would be better if you see it for yourselves."

"Let's go." Yuan said as he entered the cave.

After following a narrow path, they entered this spacious area inside the mountain.

At the end of this room was a beautiful tree with red leaves growing on a golden trunk, and this tree was growing in the middle of a small pond with glistening golden water.

"Wow... Is this the treasure that the demons mentioned? What do you think, Feng Feng?" Yuan asked Feng Yuxiang, who was the expert when it comes to treasures.

However, Feng Yuxiang didn't respond.

Yuan turned to look at her to see a dumbfounded expression on her face.

"Feng Feng?" He called her again.

"Eh?"

Feng Yuxiang snapped out of her daze and looked at Yuan.

"S-Sorry, Young Master. I was dozing off just now."

"Judging by the look you had, you know what kind of treasure this is?" He asked.

Feng Yuxiang nodded with a serious face.

"Young Master, this treasure is called the Golden Celestial Tree. It's an incredibly rare treasure that requires thousands of years to grow, and judging by the size of this tree, it's millions of years old. This kind of treasure is hard to come by even in the upper heavens."

"Oh... What does it do?"

"All sorts of things. The crimson leaves can be used in alchemy; the golden trunk can be used to create treasures, and the golden liquid can be used to temper one's body."

"Tempering my body? That's perfect!" Yuan said.

Seeing that Yuan was prepared to jump into the water, she quickly said, "W-Wait a moment, Young Master!"

"If you temper your body, your cultivation will, without a doubt, surpass Spirit King and perhaps even Spirit Emperor."

"Oh, if I do that, then I will be forced to ascend, huh? So what do you suggest? Can we store the liquid somewhere?"

Feng Yuxiang nodded, "Yes, I have the perfect treasure for it."

She retrieved a large, transparent gourd a moment later and said, "We can store the liquid in this gourd. It will keep the liquid clean and pure."

"Please." Yuan nodded.

Feng Yuxiang proceeded to collect the water with the gourd, which didn't take too long.

Once that was done, she handed him the gourd and said, "The leaves and trunk will have to be collected separately. However, the leaves will quickly lose spiritual energy if we don't store them properly."

She took out a couple of wooden boxes and said, "We'll store the leaves in these boxes meant for pills. It will prevent the leaves from going bad or losing spiritual energy for one thousand years."

"As for the trunk, it can be stored in any spatial ring."

Yuan nodded, "Let's store the leaves first."

They quickly began removing the crimson leaves from the tree.

After storing the crimson leaves, Yuan yanked the golden trunk from the ground and stored it inside the Dragon Spatial Ring.

"I still can't believe that we'd found a Golden Celestial Tree in this place." Feng Yuxiang sighed afterward.

"How much do you think we'll be able to receive from this treasure if we were to sell it?" Yuan suddenly asked.

"Y-You want to sell the Golden Celestial Tree?" Feng Yuxiang looked at him with wide eyes.

"No, I'm just curious."

Feng Yuxiang then said, "Well, just the leaves alone are worth a few hundred million spirit stones."

"A few hundred million spirit stones?!" Yuan exclaimed.

Feng Yuxiang nodded and said, "And that's the least expensive part from the Golden Celestial Tree."

"The trunk can be sold for a few billion spirit stones while a small bottle of the liquid is worth as much as all of the leaves combined."

Yuan swallowed nervously after realizing the value of the Golden Celestial Tree.

Who would've thought that they would come across such a fortuitous encounter in the Demons' Valley?

"I'm really glad we decided to visit Demons' Valley." Yuan chuckled.

Sometime later, they left the cave after making sure there were no more hidden treasures.

"Now how are we going to find Jia Chong? The Demons' Valley is not a small place. It'll take weeks to cover the place, but we only have a couple of days left before we must meet up with Xiao Hua and Min Li." Yuan asked them for suggestions..

Chapter 856: Jia Chong

"Honestly, I don't think there is anything we can do besides hope for the best." Feng Yuxiang shrugged.

"It's not like we have to find him. I came here mostly because I was curious about the Demons' Valley. If we don't find him in the next few days, we can just leave." Yuan said.

"Okay."

"We should split up to make things faster." Feng Yuxiang suggested.

"Are you sure?" Yuan asked, as he was worried that something might happen to them.

"Young Master, we'll be fine. There are only magical beasts roaming in this place and there are rarely any that fly. If we encounter a demon, we'll notify you immediately."

"If you say so." Yuan nodded.

Thus, Yuan and the others began wandering the Demons' Valley randomly in search of Jia Chong.

Two days later, right as Yuan prepared to log off for breakfast, Feng Yuxiang's voice resounded inside his head, "Young Master, I found him!"

"That's great! Where are you?"

"If you continue flying north for about 200 miles, you will reach us," she said.

"I understand. I will be there as soon as possible."

Yuan logged off the game and notified Chu Liuxiang that he will be missing breakfast today before returning to the game and making his way towards Feng Yuxiang.

A few hours later, Yuan met up with Feng Yuxiang and Lan Yingying, who had arrived shortly before him.

"Where's Jia Chong?" Yuan asked them.

Feng Yuxiang pointed at a certain location on the ground. Yuan followed her direction until he could see an old man wearing rags about a mile away.

"Is it just me or is there something off about him?" Yuan raised his eyebrows after seeing the dazed expression on the old man's face.

"He's giving me the same feeling as the residents at the nameless town." Feng Yuxiang said.

"So he's gone crazy as well?" Yuan frowned slightly.

"Most likely. He probably spent a little too long in the Demons' Valley and got affected by the miasma. Now he's just aimlessly wandering this place."

"Is there anything we can do to help him?" Yuan asked.

"Well... We can try cleansing the miasma from his body, but I won't be able to do it since my flames can only protect people from being affected by the miasma."

Feng Yuxiang turned to look at Lan Yingying and continued, "But perhaps Yingying can do it with her divine attribute Sacred Fire."

"Do you think you can do it?" Yuan asked her.

"I can try."

"Alright, let's go down there and see if he's really lost his mind first."

They descended a moment later and approached Jia Chong from behind.

"Excuse me. Are you okay?" Yuan asked him.

Jia Chong stopped moving and turned around to look at Yuan, still with a dazed look on his face.

"Ooooh... This... This must be fate!" The old man suddenly snapped out of his daze and began staring at Yuan with a profound expression on his face.

"Huh? Fate?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"Yes! I can sense it! Your fate is extremely strong! So strong that even I cannot fathom it! You have the strongest fate out of all my encounters!"

"My name is Jia Chong, a servant of fate! Tell me, what do you desire?"

Yuan looked at Feng Yuxiang and said, "He looks perfectly fine..."

"I don't know. It's almost as though the miasma stopped affecting him after seeing you..." Feng Yuxiang mumbled in a dumbfounded voice.

"Anyways, I am looking for someone that can help me remove Destiny Seals." Yuan said to Jia Chong, acting like he didn't know what Jia Chong was capable of to make it seem like their encounter was purely by chance.

"Destiny Seal, huh? Our encounter must definitely be due to fate." Jia Chong nodded to himself.

"On top of being a servant of fate, I happen to be an Array Master as well. I can help you remove the Destiny Seals if you want."

"Really? You'll do that for me? How much do you need? I will pay for your services."

"No need. I cannot possibly accept money from someone with such a powerful fate."

"Is that so... Then I won't be humble. Thank you, Senior Jia." Yuan immediately began dumping out all of the Gu Family's treasures.

He wasn't worried that Jia Chong might steal his treasures since Jia Chong is only a first level Spirit King and there were three of them.

"There's more treasures than I'd expected..." Jia Chong smiled after seeing the small mountain of treasures before him.

"I won't complain even if you ask for a payment..." Yuan said.

"No, it's fine."

Jia Chong didn't say anything else and took a seat before the treasures.

He then began creating array symbols at a fast pace.

Yuan watched Jia Chong work with intensive focus, making sure to memorize all of the symbols that he'd used and the order he combined them.

It took about two minutes for Jia Chong to remove a Destiny Seal, and after an hour of non-stop work, he'd manage to clean all of the treasures of their Destiny Seal.

"I am finished." Jia Chong said as he wiped the sweat off his forehead.

"Thank you very much, Senior Jia." Yuan bowed to him afterward.

"No need. It was a pleasure to assist you, young man."

"You can call me Yuan."

Jia Chong nodded, "Then Yuan, I have one last thing for you."

He retrieved a scroll and offered it to Yuan.

"What is this?" Yuan raised his eyebrow.

"This is the array combination for removing Destiny Seals. If you learn it, you will be able to remove Destiny Seals yourself."

"A-Are you sure? This is very valuable, right?" Jia Chong nodded and said, "You have already paid the price."

"Eh? How?"

"I have traversed this world in search of someone like you, and after 2,000 years, I have finally found you. You have no idea what this encounter means to me, Yuan." Jia Chong said with a smile..

Chapter 857 - Medallion of Fate

"Searching for someone like me? Why?" Yuan asked.

Jia Chong didn't immediately respond and instead retrieved a medallion with the word 'Destiny' on it. He then extended his hand and offered it to Yuan.

"What's this?" Yuan accepted the medallion without thinking.

"This is the Medallion of Fate. If you return it to its owners, you will be given a chance to start a new life— or so I am told. Ever since I acquired this medallion, I have invested my life into returning it to the rightful owner, but it appears that my fate isn't powerful enough. However, I'm sure you'll be able to find its owners."

"Or so you're told? So you don't really know the real purpose of this medallion?" Feng Yuxiang asked with raised eyebrows, as she cannot imagine investing her entire life chasing after some rumors.

"I may have no concrete proof, but I believe it truly is the purpose of this medallion. After all, I started being able to see other peoples' fate after acquiring this medallion." Jia Chong said.

"So you can see our fate— our future?" Yuan asked with interest.

"No, my abilities are not strong enough to see your future, but I can tell if someone has a strong fate or not." Jia Chong shook his head.

"..."

Feng Yuxiang wanted to say that it was a load of bullshit, but since Jia Chong helped Yuan with the Destiny Seals, she didn't want to be rude to him.

Yuan thought to himself, 'Sounds like the Divine Crystal of Heavenly Fortune. It can tell what kind of fate we have, too.'

"Anyways, it is about time I leave and return to my journey. I have lingered around this place for a little too long." Jia Chong suddenly said.

Yuan quickly said, "Once again, thank you for your help and for this array combination."

Jia Chong silently nodded with a smile on his face before flying away.

Yuan looked at the Medallion of Fate with a profound expression on his face.

"Do you really believe that crazy old man? All this nonsense about fate, I don't believe it." Feng Yuxiang said after Jia Chong left.

"I don't know, but I feel some sort of connection with this medallion, like I have seen it before." Yuan said.

"Really? Where?"

He shook his head, "I don't know."

"Anyways, let's meet up with everyone before we reunite with Xiao Hua and Min Li." He said after storing the Medallion of Fate into his spatial ring.

Thus, Yuan began making his way back to the hotel to pick up Meixiu and the others.

That night at dinner, Yuan said to the others, "I just finished my business, so I am heading back to the city. Are you guys prepared for the disciple examination?"

"Yes. I just finished my preparations as well. Those spirit stones you gave us really came in handy." Wang Ming nodded.

"Right? It's actually worth much more than I'd expected. I still have a few thousand left even after going on a shopping spree." Wang Bingbing said.

"Once again, thank you for the spirit stones." Shi Lang said.

"I should arrive at the city by tomorrow night, but if you're already heading to the gathering site, you don't need to wait for us." Yuan said to them.

"Alright."

After dinner, Yuan returned to the game so he could continue returning to the city.

Once he returned to the city the following day, Yuan met up with Meixiu and the others.

"Is this everybody?" Yuan asked Wang Ming, as there were only five people there, including Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang.

"Yes, the others are either already at the gathering site or making their way there." Wang Ming nodded.

"Fortunately, the gathering site isn't too far away. We can get there in about two hours if we use the teleport devices, and the disciple examination won't start until tomorrow morning." Wang Bingbing said.

Yuan nodded and said, "Then let's get some rest tonight and make our way to the gathering site early tomorrow. It wouldn't be a good idea to stay up for the night right before such a big event. You'll need all the energy you can get."

"Alright. Let's meet up at sunrise tomorrow."

Since it's been a while since he's gotten any proper rest, Yuan also decided to get some sleep.

The following morning, Yuan and the others began making their way to the gathering site.

"Hey, Yuan, do you know anything about the examination? Like what we'll be doing?" Shi Lang asked him as they moved.

"No, I don't." He shook his head.

"I heard that you used to be a disciple at the Dragon Essence Temple. What was the disciple examination like over there?" Wang Ming asked.

Yuan proceeded to recall his experience at the Dragon Essence Temple to the others.

"I see... So we should expect something similar, huh?"

"Every sect is different." Yuan said.

"What should we do if we fail the examination?" Shi Lang suddenly asked.

"I'm sure you'll all pass with your talents." Yuan smiled.

"But it's not guaranteed, right?"

"If you're already thinking about failing before even starting, then you're fated to fail." Wang Bingbing shrugged.

"My sister's right, Shi Lang. Don't be so negative."

"W-What? I was just curious... I am not thinking about failing..." He quickly said.

"Yeah, yeah."

Two and a half hours later, Yuan and his group arrived at the gathering site for the Seven Spirit Academies, which was taking place in a massive square that was built specifically for the examination.

"Holy shit, there's got to be at least a hundred thousand people here right now." Wang Ming exclaimed when he saw the sea of people there.

"Is it always this crowded? Won't it take forever to finish the examination at this rate?" Shi Lang sighed.

While the others were surprised by the spectacle there, Yuan looked for Xiao Hua.

Once he sensed her presence, he called for her through their spiritual connection, "Xiao Hua, can you hear me?"

"Brother Yuan!" Xiao Hua immediately responded with excitement.

"We're right outside the square. We'll wait for you here."

"Okay!"

Chapter 858 - Seven Spirit Academies' Disciple Examination

"Yuan? What are you waiting for?" Wang Ming asked after noticing that he was just standing there.

"I'm waiting for a friend of mine," he said.

Five minutes after Yuan contacted Xiao Hua, two figures could be seen soaring through the sky above the square for the disciple examination.

"Oh, there she is." Yuan looked up and watched as Xiao Hua descended right beside him with Min Li, who looked a little shocked.

"Brother Yuan!" Xiao Hua immediately went to hug him even before her feet touched the ground.

"Once again, sorry for leaving you behind, Xiao Hua." Yuan said with a bittersweet smile.

"Who's that?" Wang Ming asked with raised eyebrows.

"This is Xiao Hua, she's the first friend I made in this world." Yuan introduced her to the others.

"Oooh, how cute!" Wang Bingbing stared at Xiao Hua with glitters in her eyes.

"Anyways, where are the others? The examination should be starting soon." Yuan asked them.

"Who knows. There's too many people here to tell." Shi Lang shrugged.

"We'll probably see them during the examination." Wang Ming said.

Sometime later, Yuan approached Min Li and asked her, "How are you feeling?"

"I'm a little nervous if I have to be honest," she sighed.

"Really? I can tell that your cultivation has improved. You'll do fine."

"Thank you, but I cannot help it. It's been a very long time since I've felt such emotions. And this is the Seven Spirit Academies that we're talking about. I've heard of their reputation even when I was still in the Lower Heavens."

"The acceptance rate is also incredibly low. There will probably be less than ten thousand people who will pass the examination despite the amount of people here today."

"Even then, I still have faith in you." Yuan smiled.

"..."

Min Li began blushing.

Sometime later, everybody at the square stopped talking when seven figures descended from the sky and landed on a platform above the square, and all of them emitted the aura of a Spirit Lord.

"Welcome to the Seven Spirit Academies' Disciple Examination, young cultivators. I am Elder Lang of the Heavenly Academy. Before we begin, allow me to introduce our judges for the examination."

"Elder Mon from the Universal Music Academy... Elder Ging from the Healing Spirit Academy... Elder Yi from the Lonely River Academy..."

After introducing the other six elders that hailed from one of the Seven Spirit Academies, Elder Lang continued, "As you already know, the Seven Spirit Academies have decided to start our disciple examination early due to circumstances. However, this does not mean it will be any easier to join us."

After giving a quick speech about the disciple examination and the history of the Seven Spirit Academies, Elder Lang sat down while another elder stood up.

"I will now speak of the rules for the examination." The elder said.

"First and foremost, there are four sections in the examination you must pass before you qualify to join us. Once you pass all four sections, we, representing the Seven Spirit Academies, will offer you a spot in our sect. Some of you may receive more than one offer while some of you may only receive one offer. If you have been offered to join more than one sect, you are allowed to choose which sect you wish to join."

"If your desired sect did not offer you a spot, do not panic, as it's not impossible to change sects later. As long as you join one of our sects, it is possible to transfer to another sect at a later date. Hell, you can even negotiate with us at the end of the examination if you so choose."

"Now let's talk about the rules for our examination."

"First rule, you are not allowed to deliberately kill other participants. If caught, you will automatically fail the examination and be banned from ever joining us for the rest of your life."

"However, this does not mean you cannot hinder others' progression or fight them. The cultivation path is filled with bumpy roads and uncertainty. You cannot expect it to be a walk in the park."

"Second rule, you are allowed to use any treasure you want as long as it doesn't disturb the examination or cause massive destruction to the area."

"Third rule, you are strictly prohibited from consuming any sort of pills that will enhance your body or spiritual energy. This includes recovery pills. The Seven Spirit Academies are looking for raw talents— people with real potential. Sure, one might argue that allowing the usage of powerful treasure is the opposite of such a statement, but it still requires some skill to control such a treasure, whereas consuming a pill that enhances your strength temporarily doesn't require any skill."

"Final rule... You should already know this, but if you are above the age of 40, you are not qualified to participate in the examination. However, if you still wish to join us, you may visit us at another time for an interview."

The elder took a seat after announcing the last rule, and another elder stood up.

"Let's move onto the examination itself now."

"As you all heard, the examination will have four different sections."

"For the first part of the examination, you will have your talents evaluated. Your spiritual energy, your spiritual veins, your aptitude— everything. Allow me to be completely honest here. Less than 20 percent of you will pass the first examination."

The nervous atmosphere amongst the participants became even heavier after hearing such words.

"For the second examination, we will analyze the extent of your talents."

"For the third examination, you will be given limited time to hunt magical beasts."

"And for the final examination, if you somehow make it this far, you will be interviewed by the seven of us."

"Now, you will be given 15 minutes to prepare yourselves before we open the portals to the real examination area."

The moment the elder sat back down, the participants began mumbling to each other about the examination.

Chapter 859 - Seven Spirit Academies' Disciple Examination (2)

Chapter 859 - Seven Spirit Academies' Disciple Examination (2)

"See, I told you that the examination will be quite similar to the one you took for the Dragon Essence Temple." Wang Ming said to Yuan during their fifteen minute break.

"I guess so." He nodded.

"I think we can expect the same examinations for most sects in Cultivation Online. After all, one's talent and prowess are the most important to cultivators, so it's only natural for them to evaluate us in those aspects." Shi Lang said.

"Anyways, good luck, guys." Yuan said to them sometime later.

Fifteen minutes passed in the blink of an eye.

"The Seven Spirit Academies' Disciple Examination will officially begin now!" Elder Lang stood up and waved his sleeves.

The very next moment, multiple experts appeared and activated their treasures, creating a portal at the front of the square.

"This will lead you to the first examination, where you will be evaluated! There are 20 teleportations, each taking you to a separate area to make things faster. Go!"

The participants there immediately began walking into the portals, disappearing from the square.

Meanwhile, 20 large projections appeared above the square, each displaying a separate area for the first examination.

The square quickly became empty, and within mere minutes, only Yuan, Xiao Hua, Meixiu, and Chu Liuxiang remained.

When Elder Lang saw this, he said, "What are you guys doing? If you don't hurry up, the portals will close, and you will automatically fail the examination."

"Oh, sorry, we're not here to participate. We're here to cheer on our friends." Yuan said.

"If you want to spectate, you're in the wrong place. There's another area for spectators." Elder Lang responded.

"Is that so? If you don't mind, can you tell me where this place is?" Yuan asked.

Elder Lang pointed towards the north and said, "It's quite far from here, so even if you run there now, you won't make it before the examination ends."

"It's fine. Thank you for telling us." Yuan said.

He then looked at Meixiu and the others, "Let's go, shall we? I'll carry you with my spiritual energy."

"Okay."

They nodded.

The seven elders then watched with gawking expressions as Yuan lifted Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang into the air before flying away with them.

Once they were no longer in view, Elder Lang mumbled in a dazed voice, "That young man was a Spirit Grandmaster? How come I couldn't sense his cultivation base?"

Since these elders were all below the third level Spirit Lord, they were unable to sense Yuan's cultivation base even though he wasn't deliberately hiding it.

While Yuan and his group made their way to the spectators' area, Wang Ming and the others waited for their turn inside this massive room that had multiple objects placed around the room.

Of course, these objects were used to evaluate the participants' talents.

After waiting for two hours, it was finally Wang Ming's turn.

"Place your hand on this crystal ball and pour as much spiritual energy as you can into it." The examiner said to him.

Wang Ming nodded and placed his hands on the empty crystal ball.

'Hm? There's something resisting my spiritual energy. Is this part of the exam?' Wang Ming wondered to himself as he poured his spiritual energy into the crystal ball, quickly filling it with glittering smoke that resembled fog.

Although there was something resisting him, it only held him back slightly, and the more the crystal ball filled up with fog, the stronger the resistance became until he could no longer continue.

"A-Amazing..." The examiner mumbled in a dazed voice, and his eyes were glued to the crystal ball.

After snapping out of his daze a few moments later, the examiner said, "Y-You can stop now."

"How did I do?" Wang Ming asked.

"You passed. Here's your token. Make sure you don't lose it." The examiner handed him a red token.

"Hmm? This token is a little different than what the others before me got. Why is that?" Wang Ming noticed this and decided to ask the examiner.

"Because there are three different tokens that can be handed out depending on the participants' result. Those that barely passed will receive a white token, and those that passed with average results will receive a green token.

As for the red token, those are only given to participants with excellent results such as yourself. In other words, they are given to geniuses and those with the highest potential." The examiner explained.

"I see... Thanks, I guess."

"Please go through that portal at the end of the room. You'll be taken directly to the next examination. Once there, show the examiner your token."

"I understand." Wang Ming nodded before leaving the place through the portal.

'What a talented young lad. He'll definitely become a powerful cultivator in the future if nurtured properly.' The examiner thought to himself as the next participant stepped in front of the crystal ball.

"Place your hand on this crystal ball and pour as much spiritual energy as you can into it." The examiner repeated his sentence to Wang Bingbing, who was right behind Wang Ming.

She nodded and placed her hand onto the crystal ball, pouring her spiritual energy into it.

'Wow! Another genius! She's almost on par with the last participant! Two geniuses back to back? What are the chances!' The examiner cried inwardly.

"Here you go. You passed." The examiner handed Wang Bingbing a red token as well.

"What's this? Why is it red?" Wang Bingbing asked out of curiosity.

The examiner smiled and explained everything to her.

"I see... Thanks." Wang Bingbing said before making her way to the next examination.

"Next!"

Once Wang Bingbing left, Shi Lang took her place.

"Place your hand on this crystal ball and pour as much spiritual energy as you can into it." The examiner repeated.

Shi Lang nodded and placed his hand onto the crystal ball.

When the examiner saw the results, he didn't dare to believe his eyes.

'Another genius?! What the fuck?! Where are all these geniuses coming from?!' He exclaimed inwardly.

Chapter 860 - Seven Spirit Academies' Disciple Examination (3)

"H-Here's your token. It's red because you've achieved excellent results." The examiner handed Shi Lang his token and explained the purpose of it without being asked.

"I see. Thank you." Shi Lang accepted the token and began making his way towards the portal.

After exiting the portal, Shi Lang found himself standing in front of a massive lake. However, there was something special about this lake.

"The water is silver? What kind of lake is this?" Shi Lang wondered to himself as he approached Wang Bingbing.

"I see that you also received a red token." Wang Ming said with a smile when he noticed Shi Lang's presence behind them.

"Yes. By the way, what is happening here?"

"I'm not too sure, but it appears to be some kind of exercise where you have to walk on the water."

"Walking on water? Sounds like the same examination Yuan took at the Dragon Essence Temple when he had to approach a silver tree."

"Looks like it."

After waiting for another two hours, it was finally Wang Ming's turn.

"You will need at least 40 steps to pass this part of the examination." The examiner said to him.

Wang Ming nodded and took a deep breath before taking his first step into the silver lake.

'Feels like I am walking on something that's liquid yet solid at the same time...' Wang Ming thought to himself as he took his second and third step.

Half a minute later, he was already at the 30th step.

'Is this supposed to be hard?' Wang Ming wondered as he approached the 50th step.

On the 61st step, he finally began feeling some resistance, and it would become increasingly harder to move his leg with every step.

By the 70th step, he was sweating profusely.

"Heavens, he's already taken 75 steps! We have a genius here!" The other participants watched Wang Ming approach his 80th step with admiration in their eyes.

"Ah! I cannot go on!" Wang Ming gave up after taking his 82nd step and collapsed on the water.

One of the examiners there went to pick up Wang Ming before bringing him back to land.

"Congratulations, young man. You currently hold the top score for this examination." The examiner handed Wang Ming another red token before sending him to the next examination.

Wang Bingbing was next.

Two minutes later—

"Wow! 78 steps! That's two high scorers' in a row!" The other participants exclaimed.

"Does anybody know her name? She's such a fairy!"

"No, I don't recognize her."

"Hey, do you think she's an NPC or a Player?"

"Who knows. She kinda gives me a feeling from both sides."

"Huh? What's that supposed to mean?"

"It's hard to explain, but she gives me the feeling of an NPC but also the feeling of a Player as well."

"How's that possible?"

"Don't ask me. It's just a feeling."

After Wang Bingbing received her red token, Shi Lang stepped onto the silver lake and began his test.

Ten steps, twenty steps, thirty steps.

Fifty steps, sixty steps, seventy steps.

"79 steps... 80 steps... 81 steps... 82 steps! He's rivaled the top score!" The participants were ecstatic with the results even though they were not the one achieving such a result.

'D-Damn it! I cannot even lift my legs! Move, damn it! Move!' Shi Lang shouted inwardly as he pushed himself to make that 83rd step.

However, no matter how hard he tried, he was not able to make the step.

After collapsing on the lake, one of the elders there carried him back to the land.

"Congratulations! Here's a red token for your excellent results!" The examiner handed a red token to Shi Lang afterward.

"Thanks..." Shi Lang accepted the token in a dispirited manner.

Noticing this, the examiner asked him out of curiosity, "What's with the long face? You achieved 82 steps, which is the highest score in this examination thus far."

"You mean one of the highest? I wanted to beat him, but alas..." Shi Lang sighed.

"Him? Are you acquainted with the other participant who scored 82?"

"Something like that, I guess."

"Anyways, I am going to head to the next examination."

The examiner nodded and said, "By the way, this examination and the next examination is treated as one examination, so you still have 2 more to go after the next one."

"Is that so? Good to know."

Meanwhile, after flying for four hours straight Yuan and his group finally arrived at the spectators' area, which took place in a massive coliseum.

In the middle of the coliseum was a treasure that projected the disciples' examination in real time, allowing the millions of spectators to enjoy the disciple examination while being far away.

"Are you sure we should be watching them from up here...?" Meixiu asked Yuan as she sat on the Emyrean Overlord above the coliseum with Chu Liuxiang beside her.

"Why not? It's not like we're bothering anyone by spectating up here. And there's too many people down there." He calmly responded.

"If you say so..."

Meixiu looked down and swallowed nervously, as she could sense many gazes on them, which is only natural, as they were sticking out like a sore thumb in the sky.

"Oh! Look at the screen on the far right! That's Wang Ming!" Yuan pointed at one of the projections that was showing Wang Ming during the second examination.

"A silver lake, huh? It sure brings back memories of my disciple examination at the Dragon Essence Temple."

"I see Min Li. She's at the bottom left corner." Meixiu said.

"89 steps, huh? That's the highest score so far."

"Oh! I see Xi Murong and Hong Xiuquan! 81 steps and 83 steps!" Chu Liuxiang said.

"As expected of the Six Spiritual Elites. All of their top geniuses are so close to each other in terms of potential and talent— not including Li Jinxi. She's definitely on another level." Yuan mumbled to himself, feeling a little pity that he couldn't see Li Jinxi's evaluation.

However, just as he had such thoughts, Meixiu pointed at a certain projection and spoke in a puzzled voice, "Hey... That girl on the far right... That's Li Jinxi, right?"

"What? Really? You're right! That's definitely Li Jinxi!" Chu Liuxiang confirmed.

"Huh? What's she doing at the examination? I thought she wasn't going to participate." Yuan muttered in a dazed voice.

Chapter 861 - Li Jinxi's Evaluation

Chapter 861 - Li Jinxi's Evaluation

Li Jinxi, who had suddenly decided to participate in the examination for whatever reason, stepped onto the silver water once it was her turn to be evaluated.

10 steps, 20 steps, 30 steps.

Li Jinxi walked the silver lake without any effort like Wang Ming and the others.

Once she reached 60 steps, the spectators noticed her presence and began focusing more on her.

70 steps... 75 steps.... 80 steps...

The specators and the examiner expected for Li Jinxi to stop soon, but to their absolute shock, she continued walking without any problems, almost as though she was not being restricted by the silver lake.

81 steps, 82 steps, 83 steps.

Li Jinxi quickly passed Hong Xiuquan, who had the highest score amongst the others within their group.

87 steps, 88 steps, 89 steps, 90 steps...

Li Jinxi surpassed Min Li's record shortly after and became the new highest scorer.

However, Li Jinxi's brilliance did not stop there, and she continued to walk the silver water at the same calm and steady pace that she has been since the beginning.

95 steps... 97 steps... 100 steps!

Li Jinxi eventually achieved 100 steps, shocking all spectators that had their eyes fixated on her.

"Heavens! Who is that girl?! At this rate, she'll even surpass Senior Nie's record of 107 steps!" The seven elders were baffled by Li Jinxi's immense talents and mysterious background.

And in their mind, they began pondering what they could offer Li Jinxi to entice her to join their sect!

While the seven elders pondered, Li Jinxi continued to increase her steps.

105 steps, 106 steps, 107 steps!

Li Jinxi has matched Senior Nie's record, becoming the first person in the last five thousand years to achieve such a feat!

'This genius... The Heavenly Academy must have her!' Elder Lang thought to himself as he stared at Li Jinxi's beautiful yet tranquil face.

The other six elders were thinking the same, and despite none of them saying it out loud, they were all fully aware of the others' thoughts.

However, unbeknownst to these elders and the spectators, this was just the beginning of Li Jinxi's dominance.

110 steps, 120 steps, 130 steps!

Li Jinxi's pure dominance for this examination was so shocking that it left all of her spectators completely silenced, and they could only quietly watch her walk the silver lake like a goddess.

Once Li Jinxi reached 150 steps, she finally stopped moving.

When the spectators saw this, they sighed in relief. If Li Jinxi were to continue any further, they might lose consciousness, as they had forgotten how to breathe while watching her.

After stopping, Li Jinxi turned to look at the examiner and spoke out loud, "When do I stop?"

"E-Excuse me?" The examiner didn't comprehend her question at first.

"When do I stop? Or should I continue until I cannot?" Li Jinxi clarified, dumbfounding the examiner and the spectators alike.

The examiner nodded his head in a dazed voice and responded in a shaky voice, "Y-Yes. You continue walking until you cannot move anymore."

"Okay."

And without saying another word, Li Jinxi continued walking.

155 steps, 160 steps, 165 steps.

"Li Jinxi... She's really built differently..." Chu Liuxiang chuckled.

Yuan smiled and said, "I don't want to look down on the Six Spiritual Families, but Li Jinxi was born in the wrong world. If she had been born here instead..."

If Li Jinxi had been born in the real cultivation world, where there are plenty of resources to assist her growth, she would definitely flourish and be much more formidable than currently.

"H-How is this possible?! She's already at 200 steps! I have never seen anything like this before!" Elder Lang exclaimed in a shocked voice.

"I really want to know where this genius— No, this monster came from..."

One of the elders there suddenly retrieved a communication.

When the others noticed this, they immediately realized the reason and also took out their own communication jade slip.

"Sect Master, this is urgent! Hurry and look at—"

"I know. I am already well aware of the young lady at the examination. We must secure this genius for our sect at all cost. In fact, I am heading to the examination site even as we speak. Leave everything to me."

"I understand. Good luck, Sect Master."

The other elders had similar conversations with their Sect Masters.

"I assume that you all just spoke with your sect masters." Elder Lang spoke out loud after everyone finished their conversations.

They all nodded silently.

"Then I will also assume that they all decided to personally recruit her."

Once again, the elders silently nodded.

"I see... For all seven Sect Masters to be involved in a disciple examination, this is truly an unprecedented event. However, it is definitely a justified one."

"Hey, you guys want to make a bet?" Elder Yi suddenly said.

And he continued, "A bet on which sect will acquire that genius."

"Sure, but I will obviously be cheering for my own sect."

"Me too."

"Same here."

"Then it's settled."

Meanwhile...

250 steps... 260 steps... 270 steps...

Li Jinxi was nearing 300 steps, and at the same time, she was approaching the other side of the lake that required 500 steps to reach.

"Do you think she will make it to the other side of the lake?" Meixiu asked out of curiosity.

"Probably." Yuan nodded.

"What makes you think so?"

"The way she's walking... I cannot feel any resistance from it. As for the others, you can tell when they slow down."

"Now that you mention it, she doesn't even have a drop of sweat on her." Meixiu mumbled.

350 steps... 375 steps... 400 steps!

"She's only 100 steps away from the end of the lake! I can't believe my eyes!"

"Do you think she could be cheating with some treasure?"

"That's possible..."

The spectators, especially the other participants there, began suspecting Li Jinxi to be cheating because of her performance that was too ridiculous to believe.

Chapter 862 - Li Jinxi's Evaluation (2)

Chapter 862 - Li Jinxi's Evaluation (2)

"That's it! She must be cheating! After all, 400 steps is simply too ridiculous! It's impossible!"

"Examiner, that participant must be cheating! You need to do something about it!"

The participants in Li Jinxi's examination began complaining to the examiners there, some of them even urging the examiners to stop the examination.

Of course, these examiners were also suspicious of Li Jinxi's performance, but none of them dared to call her a cheater outright. After all, what if Li Jinxi's performance turned out to be real and that she was a monster who could walk 400 steps? They did not dare to risk offending such a genius even if it's the last thing they do.

"Whether she is genuine or not, we do not have the qualifications to make any decisions. The elders overseeing this examination will make those decisions." One of the examiners said to the participants there.

"Wha—?! It's clear that she's cheating! I heard the highest score ever recorded was only 170 steps by the founder of the Heavenly Academy! Are you telling me that some unknown girl nobody recognizes can somehow double that number?! This is utterly ridiculous!"

The examiner's eyebrow twitched upon hearing the participant's words. Indeed, the highest score ever recorded was 170 steps, and Li Jinxi just walked her 410th step. If one thought about it logically, there was no way such a situation could be possible.

However, anything is possible in the cultivation world.

"I will not repeat myself. The elders will make the decisions. If you're not content with my answer, you may leave this examination."

The participants no longer dared to talk back after hearing such words, and they returned to watching Li Jinxi in silence.

Meanwhile, unbeknownst to the spectators and even the examiners there, seven figures suddenly appeared above the area where Li Jinxi was being evaluated.

These seven figures were Sect Masters of the Seven Spirit Academies, and they have all decided to personally oversee Li Jinxi's examination because of her unnatural performance.

"Think she's cheating?" One of them asked out loud.

"I don't sense any treasures on her."

"Me neither."

"I heard from the examiner that did her first evaluation that she managed to make the crystal ball explode by pouring too much spiritual energy into it." One of them suddenly said.

"Just where did such a monster come from? She appears very young as well."

"Just so you all know, this girl will be joining my Universal Music Academy."

"Huh? Did you hit your head on your way here? Her talents will be wasted if we let her join your sect. She doesn't even play the instrument."

"And how do you know that?"

"I can tell by her physique and demeanor. She's definitely the type to use a sword, so she should join my Formless Sword Academy."

"We can debate about this later. For now, let's just watch her."

Sometime later, Li Jinxi made her 450th step.

'Hm?' Li Jinxi's tranquil face slightly changed when she noticed some mysterious power restricting her movements, making it harder for her to move. Of course, it wasn't anything that could cripple her movements, and she could still move with relative ease.

"Looks like she's finally feeling it." Yuan said out loud while most people didn't notice anything different about Li Jinxi.

"Really? She still seems to be walking just fine." Chu Liuxiang said.

"It's not enough to really test her, but she is slowly approaching her limit. Of course, I still believe that she will make it out the lake."

After taking her 460th step, the mysterious force intensified, making it much harder for her to move.

When she tried to take her 476th step, Li Jinxi found it incredibly hard to even lift her leg, almost as though it was chained to an anchor that was already at the bottom of the lake.

"Hmph!"

After taking a deep breath, Li Jinxi released her cultivation, and her eyes turned red.

Furthermore, her body began emitting a bloodthirsty aura that would slowly become visible to the eyes, making it seem as though she was enveloped by a red aura.

"That appearance... Yuan, didn't she also look like that during her first fight with you?" Meixiu asked him.

He nodded, "Yes. However, she looks a bit different now compared to back then, like she has more control over it."

After activating her family's secret technique, Li Jinxi started walking again in her original pace, perhaps a little faster even, almost as though the mysterious force restraining her had disappeared.

"What kind of technique is she using? She's releasing such a tyrannical aura."

"I don't know, but I can tell that her body is growing increasingly stronger with every passing second."

"It reminds me of the forbidden technique 'Berserker's Bloodlust', which enhances one's body, granting them unrivaled strength at the cost of their sanity and control over their body and mind, turning them into mindless beasts. However, she doesn't appear to have gone mad, so it's probably a different technique."

"Her technique perfectly fits my Indomitable Flesh Academy's teaching, and it even resembles our most powerful cultivation technique! She must join our academy!"

"Bullshit! She'll join my Formless Sword Academy!"

"No, she will join my Universal Music Academy! We may mainly focus on instruments and the Dao of Music, but we also have plenty of experts that can teach other things!"

While the seven Sect Masters argued with each other, Li Jinxi took her 500th and final step, leaving the silver lake and returning to land.

"S-She really did it... She really crossed the lake..."

Pretty much every spectator had their wide eyes on Li Jinxi at this moment, all of them feeling as though they were witnessing the beginning of a new legend.

After crossing the lake, Li Jinxi deactivated her technique and walked around the lake until she returned to the participants and the examiners.

"Why are you looking at me like that? Should I not have left the lake and just walked around until I cannot move anymore?" Li Jinxi asked the examiner with a calm yet questioning face.

"Uhh..." The examiners there were speechless.

Chapter 863 - Final Examination

"N-No... You have done enough. Here's your token..." The examiner said after snapping out of his daze.

However, just as he was about to hand Li Jinxi her token, the examiner quickly took it back and said, "M-My mistake. I almost gave you the wrong one..."

The examiner took back the white token he was about to give Li Jinxi and handed her the red token instead.

After accepting the token, Li Jinxi began making her way to the next examination.

"Should we introduce ourselves now, or should we wait?" The Sect Masters asked each other.

"Let's wait until after the 3rd examination. I want to see the full extent of her talents."

"I agree. She clearly has heaven-sent talent, but the next examination will test a different aspect of her talents."

Meanwhile, in the third examination area that is still considered the second examination, Wang Ming and the others waited for their turn.

In the middle of the room was a massive crystal suspended in midair that contained an immense amount of spiritual energy.

Once it was Wang Ming's turn, he was told to sit before the crystal and try to absorb as much spiritual energy as he could from the crystal.

Wang Ming closed his eyes and took a deep breath before he started absorbing the spiritual energy.

The spiritual energy in the crystal quickly depleted, but once he absorbed around 65 percent of the spiritual energy, his progress slowed down tremendously.

After absorbing about 70 percent of the crystal's spiritual energy, Wang Ming gave up, as he was unable to store any more spiritual energy in his body.

The moment Wang Ming stopped absorbing the spiritual energy, the crystal immediately began filling back up with spiritual energy until it was completely full again.

"73 percent in about 3 minutes, huh? Very good! Here's your token!" The examiner handed Wang Ming his 3rd red token.

"What kind of test is this?" Wang Ming asked out of curiosity.

"It tests how fast you can absorb spiritual energy, which is basically your cultivation talent." The examiner said.

"What about the previous examination? The one where we had to walk on this lake?"

"That tests your innate talent— your true potential, and it is undoubtedly the most important test in this whole examination."

"I see..."

Wang Bingbing sat in front of the crystal after Wang Ming left for the real 3rd examination.

A few minutes later, Wang Bingbing achieved 75 percent.

"Congratulations. Here is your token." The examiner handed Wang Bingbing a red token.

Shi Lang went next, and he also achieved 73 percent in 3 minutes.

"Seriously? Why am I always achieving the same result as him?" Shi Lang sighed as he went to the next examination.

Meanwhile, Li Jinxi showed up in a separate room and waited for her turn at the crystal.

Many minutes later, Li Jinxi sat before the crystal and began absorbing its spiritual energy.

"W-What the hell is this speed?" The examiner was shocked when he noticed how fast Li Jinxi was emptying the crystal.

And in less than a minute, Li Jinxi managed to absorb all of the spiritual energy from the crystal, leaving the examiner speechless.

'Only 7 people have managed to completely absorb all spiritual energy since the founding of the Seven Spirit Academies! This will make her the 8th person!'

"H-Here is your token..." The examiner handed a red token to Li Jinxi with trembling hands.

"The next examination is where I get to hunt magical beasts, is that correct?" Li Jinxi suddenly asked the examiner.

"Y-Yes, that's correct. In order to pass the 3rd examination, you must hunt magical beasts."

"How powerful are the magical beasts?" She continued to ask.

"Well, they are mostly as powerful as a peak Spirit Apprentice, but there are some as strong as peak Spirit Warriors, and there is even a magical beast with the power of a Spirit Master."

"Hm? Is there something wrong?" The examiner asked Li Jinxi when he noticed the disappointed look on her face.

"The strongest magical beast is only as strong as a Spirit Master...?" She asked.

"Yes." He nodded.

Li Jinxi sighed, and without explaining anything, she made her way to the next examination.

'Did I waste my time by coming here?' She wondered inwardly as she entered the portal to the next examination.

Upon exiting the portal, Li Jinxi found herself in a camp somewhere inside the wilderness with a large group of participants gathered there.

"Welcome to the final examination, and congratulations on making it this far. For this examination, you will need to acquire points by hunting magical beasts, and in order to pass this examination, you will need at least 100 points."

"Not all magical beasts reward the same amount of points, and the stronger the magical beast, the more points you'll receive."

"During this examination, the participants are no longer separated from each other, and you can hinder others' progression. However, keep in mind that you're not allowed to kill other participants."

"Before I send you outside this camp, I will give you all something that will count your points."

The examiner handed a jade slip and continued, "Do you have any questions?"

One of the participants there raised his hand and asked, "Do we have a time limit?"

The examiner nodded, "You have until the disciple examination officially ends in four days."

"If you're too hurt to continue or just want to give up, you can return to the camp and let me or any examiner know."

"Although there are experts scattered around the examination area to lower the casualty rate, you are not completely safe from all danger, so death is still very possible. In fact, there is a 30 percent casualty rate for this part of the examination. You may leave now if you're scared."

After answering all of the participants' questions, the examiner sent them into the wilderness.

The moment Li Jinxi entered the wilderness, she retrieved a large greatsword from her spatial ring and began running around the area hunting magical beasts like a maniac, even interfering with other participants by stealing their prey, which quickly caused an uproar amongst the participants.

Chapter 864 - Seven Sect Masters

"H-Hey! Who the fuck are you?! How dare you steal my prey!"

One of Li Jinxi's many victims cried out loud after getting his magical beast stolen right before his very eyes.

"You're running away now?! Get back here!" The victim tried to catch Li Jinxi when she ran away, but he was unable to catch even her shadow and gave up shortly after.

Not far away, Li Jinxi encountered another participant fighting with a magical beast and also stole those points.

"What the?! How dare you steal from me! Do you know who I am?!"

However, Li Jinxi ignored this participant and continued to hunt magical beasts.

The Sect Masters watching this from the sky were amused by Li Jinxi's actions.

"Do you think she's deliberately hindering the others?" One of them asked out loud.

"I don't think so, but if she is, I cannot think of any reasons why she would do such a thing."

In less than one hour, Li Jinxi managed to acquire enough points for her to complete the examination. However, despite that, she continued to hunt magical beasts.

Somewhere in the wilderness, Wang Ming was fighting a 4th level Spirit Warrior magical beast by himself when a figure leaped out from behind him and killed the magical beast before he could land the last strike.

Wang Ming immediately fumed, "You dare steal my prey?!"

However, he stopped when he saw the face of the perpetrator.

"L-Li Jinxi? What the hell are you doing here?" Wang Ming stared at her with wide eyes.

"If I recall correctly, you said that you didn't want to participate in the examination."

Seeing that it was Wang Ming, Li Jinxi didn't immediately run away like she normally would.

"I heard that you get to fight a lot of powerful magical beasts during this examination, so I came here," she calmly responded.

"Huh? You came here just to fight magical beasts? I expected nothing less from you." Wang Ming shook his head with a bittersweet smile.

And he continued, "Well, I don't really care about your reasons for being here, but can you not take away my points? I'd rather not stay here longer than needed if I can."

"I will think about it." Li Jinxi nodded, and she sped off without giving Wang Ming any chance to respond.

"Damn gorilla woman. All she cares about is fighting." After sighing, Wang Ming traveled the opposite direction of Li Jinxi and went a little further before he started hunting magical beasts again.

Li Jinxi would eventually encounter the other members of the Demon Sealing Faction, and she would steal their prey at least once.

Of course, the others were as surprised as Wang Ming after realizing it was her.

"How long are you going to stay here?" Hong Xiuquan asked her.

"Until I am satisfied," she calmly replied.

"You should leave some magical beasts behind for the other participants. I doubt there are unlimited magical beasts here." Wang Bingbing said to her during their meeting.

"Not my problem," she coldly said before returning to her hunt.

"Why even bother coming here? The magical beasts here cannot compare to the ones you find in the wild. If you're looking for strong magical beasts, you're in the wrong place." Wu Zao said to her.

"I didn't think the magical beasts here were so weak, but since I am already here, I might as well enjoy myself."

"H-Hey! This is the third time you've stolen my kill! Aren't we from the same faction?! Or do you have some sort of grudge against me?!" Xi Murong cried out loud.

Li Jinxi merely shrugged before leaving the scene.

Meanwhile, the Sect Masters began debating whether they should stop Li Jinxi before she kills all of the magical beasts there.

"We should probably stop her before she kills all of the magical beasts, right? She already has enough points for a red token, so there's no point in continuing."

"I agree. We also have more qualifying participants than ever this year. It would be a shame if we run out of magical beasts before they even get a chance to fight one."

"Alright, let's stop her."

The seven Sect Master quickly came to a decision.

Sometime later, they appeared before Li Jinxi like ghosts and surrounded her.

Of course, this startled Li Jinxi, who mistook it for an ambush and prepared herself for battle.

"Wait, we're not here to fight." One of the Sect Masters quickly raised his hands and said.

"We're Sect Masters of the Seven Spirit Academies."

"As much as we'd like to continue watching you dominate the examination, it would be problematic if you kill all of the magical beasts on the first day of the examination."

"Is that so?" Li Jinxi did not argue with these seven Sect Masters since they were much stronger than her.

"Then I will take my leave now. How do I leave this place?"

One of the Sect Masters created a portal and pointed at it.

Li Jinxi did not hesitate and entered the portal.

After entering the portal, Li Jinxi found herself in a large room with seven chairs.

The Sect Masters entered the room after Li Jinxi and took a seat in these chairs.

"This part is normally done by the elders in charge of the examination, but we will take their place for this special occasion."

Meanwhile, the spectators were shocked when they saw the seven Sect Masters' sudden appearance.

"Holy shit! Aren't they the Sect Masters of the Seven Spirit Academies?! I have never seen all seven of them gathered in the same place before!"

"They must have shown up for that genius."

"I'm not surprised in the slightest if you consider the ridiculous talent of that fairy. Hell, I wouldn't be surprised even if their ancestors personally decide to show up."

"Imagine being interviewed by all seven Sect Masters of the Seven Spirit Academies! This is so exciting!"

Inside the interview room.

"Can you introduce yourself for us?"

"Li Jinxi," she calmly responded.

Chapter 865 - The Sect Masters' Offers

After introducing her name, Li Jinxi returned to being silent.

A few moments of awkward silence later, one of the Sect Masters spoke, "Is that it...?"

Li Jinxi nodded.

The Sect Masters were taken aback by her response. Can such a short introduction even be considered one?

"What about your family? Can you tell us a little about your background? They must be a prominent power to give birth to a genius like you."

"It's nothing special. They are only an ordinary cultivation family." Li Jinxi calmly responded. She didn't want to waste her breath talking about her family.

"Ordinary family? There's no need to be humble. Which city are they located in?"

"..." Li Jinxi decided to remain silent.

The Sect Masters looked at each other.

In their mind, the reason Li Jinxi didn't want to talk about her family is most likely due to her mysterious background.

'She must be from a hidden family...'

Li Jinxi suddenly spoke, "Why am I here, being questioned? I thought I had already finished the examination."

"Eh? You don't know? This is the last part of the examination, where we interview you. After the interview, each of us will decide if we want you to join our sect, and you will get to choose from the sect that wants you."

"Oh..." Li Jinxi mumbled in a low voice.

She didn't really pay much attention when the elders explained the examination to the participants, so she didn't know much about it.

"Anyways, let's move on from the introduction and get to the main topic. Can you tell us why you want to join our sect and which sect you hope to join today?"

The Sect Masters narrowed their eyes on Li Jinxi, patiently awaiting for her response.

However, Li Jinxi's response would leave them speechless.

"I don't want to join any sects," she calmly said, shocking the Sect Masters and the spectators alike.

"W-What? Then why did you participate in the disciple examination?" The Sect Master of the Heavenly Academy couldn't help but stand up and ask her.

"I only wanted to fight magical beasts. I came here because I heard that there would be powerful magical beasts here." Li Jinxi revealed the ridiculous reason why she participated in the examination.

"S-So you have no intention of joining any of our sect?" One of the Sect Masters asked for confirmation.

Li Jinxi silently nodded.

The Sect Masters turned to look at each other with perplexed emotions on their faces. They have never been put in such a difficult and embarrassing situation before.

"If you don't mind me asking, do you currently belong to another sect?" The Sect Master of the Heavenly Academy suddenly asked.

"No." Li Jinxi shook her head.

"Is there a particular reason why you're not in a sect?"

"I don't like being bound to one place." Li Jinxi immediately responded.

"I see..."

"Then... If we do not restrict you to the sect and allow you to travel as you please, would you be more willing to join one of our sects?" The Sect Master of the Lonely River Academy asked.

Ji Linxi pondered for a moment before nodding her head, "Maybe."

The Sect Masters smiled inwardly when they realized that there is still a chance to recruit Li Jinxi. Even if she doesn't join their own sect, they need her to join at least one of the Seven Spirit Academies.

After all, if other sects acquire Li Jinxi, it would be disastrous for the Seven Spirit Academies in the future, as their position within Spirit Heaven could be challenged with just Li Jinxi's existence alone.

"Alright. I have decided. We're skipping the interview part. I will now offer you a spot in the Heavenly Academy, and it will not just be any ordinary spot." The Sect Master of the Heavenly Academy spoke.

And he continued, "If you join my sect, I will immediately make you a Prime Disciple, allow you access to all of our techniques without any limitations, give you unlimited resources to assist your cultivation, and much more. If there is something you want that isn't stated, I will make it happen. Of course, you will also retain your freedom, so you can go out of the sect whenever you want and for however long you want."

"My Heavenly Academy is the number one sect in the entirety of Spirit Heaven, so there is almost nothing that we cannot do for you."

The other Sect Masters were shocked speechless by the Sect Master of the Heavenly Academy. They didn't think he would offer so much so quickly. Hell, he might as well offer her the entire Heavenly Academy.

However, as ridiculous as the offer was, this made it almost impossible for the other sects to challenge the Heavenly Academy, who was superior in terms of techniques, prowess, and wealth.

After a moment of silence, another Sect Master raised his hand and said, "My Formless Sword Academy will offer you the same deal! You use the sword, right? Although we're not as wealthy and powerful as the Heavenly Academy, our sect has the most Swordmasters and sword techniques in all of Spirit Heaven. Join us and we'll nurture you into the greatest Swordmaster this world has ever seen."

The other Sect Masters also gave Li Jinxi an offer shortly after. While none of them could match the Heavenly Academy's offer, they had to try.

"Do you think she will join them?" Chu Liuxiang suddenly asked.

"Who knows. Li Jinxi is an eccentric woman. I can never tell what she's thinking." Yuan chuckled.

"I don't think she'll join them." Meixiu said.

"What makes you think so?" Yuan asked.

"It's just a feeling."

Meanwhile, back at Li Jinxi's location, many minutes passed in complete silence while the Sect Masters patiently waited for her response.

Eventually, Li Jinxi opened her mouth and said, "Thank you all for the generous offer, but I must decline."

The Sect Masters sighed inwardly after hearing her response.

"May I hear your reasoning?" The Heavenly Academy's Sect Master asked.

Li Jinxi nodded and said, "I have a goal that I really want to achieve. If I could achieve my goal by joining your sect, then I would do so without hesitation, but I do not believe your sects will help me achieve my goal. Therefore, I will have to decline."

"What is your goal?"

Li Jinxi took a deep breath before responding, "There is a person I want to surpass."

Chapter 866 - Escalating Situation

"Someone you want to surpass? With your talents, there isn't anyone in this realm that can possibly match you..." Sect Master of the Heavenly Academy said.

Li Jinxi sighed after hearing such words, "That confirms nobody here can help me achieve my goal. If you really think I am currently the most talented to walk this land, then you have no idea what's truly out there."

"Forget it. I have already made my decision. I won't be joining any of the sects here. Let me leave this place now."

The Sect Masters exchanged frowned looks with each other.

If Li Jinxi refuses to join them, she could become a huge threat to them in the future, and that future wouldn't be very far away either— not with her ridiculous talents.

Suddenly, one of the Sect Masters there suddenly stood up and scoffed, "Enough of this bullshit."

"Sect Master Sun... You..."

"Shut up!"

The Sect Master of the Universal Music Academy, Sun Hao, shouted.

He then pointed at Li Jinxi and continued, "Who do you think you are, huh?"

"I don't care which family you came from or how talented you are, but how dare you come here and mock us— the Seven Spirit Academies?!"

"How dare you come here and participate in our examination and then tell us that you had no intentions of joining from the start?! I have never been mocked in such a manner before!"

The other Sect Masters remained silent after hearing Sun Hao's words, mostly because it made a lot of sense.

The only reason Li Jinxi can be so relaxed right now is because of her talents that these Sect Masters covet. If it were anybody else, they would've probably been punished with death by now.

However, now that it was clear to them that Li Jinxi does not plan on joining their sect, it would be for the best if they got rid of her so that nobody else could have her.

"Yuan... This doesn't look good..." Meixiu turned to look at him with a worried look on her face.

He nodded, "I know."

After a moment of silence, he said, "Meixiu, Lulu, the both of you stay here. Xiao Hua, we're going back."

"What are you going to do? As much as I hate to say this, Li Jinxi is half responsible for her situation. She could've worded herself better..." Chu Liuxiang said.

"I know she's in the wrong, but I can't just stand here and do nothing. I will, at the very least, make sure that she's safe. We can deal with the specifics afterward."

After putting down Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang, Yuan flew back to the square with Xiao Hua following beside him.

Since he was in a hurry, he flew at his highest possible speed, which was multiple times faster than before, and it would only be a matter of time before he returned to the square with the seven elders.

Meanwhile, the situation between Li Jinxi and the Sect Masters only got worse.

"Say something! Did you purposefully come here just to piss us off or what? I don't care how talented you are— if you are not our ally, then I will deal with you accordingly!"

The Sect Master of the Universal Music Academy released his cultivation, overwhelming Li Jinxi with the intense pressure of a Spirit King.

"!!!"

Li Jinxi's body suddenly lowered until she was nearly on her knees, but she managed to react in time and barely prevented her knees from touching the floor.

The Sect Masters were shocked to see a third level Spirit Master resist the aura of a Spirit King, regardless of their talents. However, this only further convinced them that Li Jinxi is a threat that must be removed if she refuses to be on their side. If you want to read more chapters, visit panda-novel.com

"Sect Master Sun, calm down a bit. Regardless of her actions, she is still a junior, and we are being watched by millions of people right now." The Heavenly Academy's Sect Master said to Sun Hao using spiritual sense.

"Hmph, I wouldn't care even if we're being watched by the whole world. This junior needs to be taught a lesson for looking down on her seniors. Also, it would be dangerous to let an untamed monster like her wander this world. Heaven knows what she is capable of in the future." Sun Hao said.

"I know. Let's give her one more chance to join us before we decide on anything."

"Fine." Sun Hao stopped pressuring Li Jinxi the next moment.

"Haaa.... Haaa..." Li Jinxi breathed heavily with her body soaked in sweat.

Even though she had to resist Sun Hao's pressure for a few moments, it was enough to drain almost all of her energy.

'These people are strong! Much stronger than Yuan when I first fought him!' She cried inwardly.

However, despite her body and instincts trembling in fear, her heart was actually burning with excitement.

'These people... I want to fight them!'

"Do not be mistaken. This does not mean that I have forgiven you for your sins." Sun Hao said, snapping Li Jinxi out of her daze.

Li Jinxi coldly snorted, "If you're expecting me to apologize for my actions, it won't happen."

"Y-You disrespectful little bit—"

Before Sun Hao could release his anger, the Sect Master of the Heavenly Academy stepped forward and said, "What you did here today not only disrespected our Seven Spirit Academies, but it also mocked us, who came all the way out here to invite you to join our sect."

"So you're here to specifically recruit me?" Li Jinxi suddenly asked.

"Yes, that's right. We, the Sect Masters, do not normally intervene in disciple examinations."

Hearing such words, Li Jinxi could only snort coldly, "Really? But I don't recall asking for any of your presence. You came here on your own accord, and now you're blaming me for wasting your time?"

"T-This bitch has zero respect for us! She may be talented, but she's clearly brainless!" Sun Hao gritted his teeth in anger.

Chapter 867 - Death Note

"Young child, I will give you one last chance. If you join us, we will forget about this incident and make you the strongest cultivator in Spirit Heaven. However, if you refuse, then I— and the others here no longer have any reason to continue protecting you." The Sect Master of the Heavenly Academy said to Li Jinxi, offering her a final chance to join their sects.

"I refuse." Li Jinxi immediately rejected his offer, and it was done so in a manner that did not have even the slightest bit of hesitation.

The Sect Master trembled slightly from anger, but he quickly regained control over his emotions.

"Is that so... How regrettable. A talent of your level... We might never see it again." The Sect Master then sat down and closed his eyes.

"You may do as you please, Sect Master Sun."

"I have been waiting for this." Sun Hao immediately released his cultivation base again, instantly flattening the chair behind him.

However, this pressure was not as strong as before, so Li Jinxi was able to endure it without feeling helpless.

'He's going easy on me?' Li Jinxi wondered inwardly.

Sun Hao suddenly retrieved a beautiful zither and said, "Don't worry, I won't kill you so quickly. Disrespectful juniors like you need to be taught a proper lesson."

He then pulled a single string on the zither, creating a beautiful yet crisp noise that echoed in the room.

Hearing this music note, Li Jinxi subconsciously retrieved her greatsword and placed it in front of her, and she could feel something collide with her sword the very next instant, sending her flying backwards.

Li Jinxi proceeded to fly straight out of the building and into this empty and spacious area.

Sun Hao calmly walked outside and said, "If you can resist 3 of my strikes, I will let you live. How about it?"

"Does that last hit count?" Li Jinxi asked.

Sun Hao smiled and said, "You want to be a smartass as well? I too can play that game. And no, it doesn't count, since I only talked about it after releasing that strike, so you still need to block three more."

"Very well. I'll accept your challenge." Li Jinxi nodded.

Sun Hao didn't say anything else and took a sitting position, but he did not sit on the floor. Instead, he hovered in the air with the zither on his lap.

The other Sect Masters also came outside to spectate their challenge.

"Then here comes my first strike."

After taking a deep breath, Sun Hao began playing the zither.

Li Jinxi immediately prepared herself for the attack, but nothing happened even many moments later, and only music came from Sun Hao's zither. Furthermore, it was a very pleasant-sounding music.

'This music... What is this nauseating feeling?' Li Jinxi quickly realized that she could barely stand straight after listening to this music.

"First note— Note of Destruction."

Ting!

A very distinct and clear noise suddenly resounded, snapping Li Jinxi out of her daze.

BANG!

Li Jinxi suddenly felt something incredibly powerful struck her greatsword, which sent her flying back for another 50 meters before she finally touched the floor and began rolling like a metal can.

However, she quickly stood back up with minor injuries.

"Not bad." Sun Hao chuckled.

"Then I will now begin my second strike."

Sun Hao did not stop playing his zither this entire time, so music continued to fill the area.

'Shit... This music... It's making me lose consciousness...' Li Jinxi had to bite her lips until it bled just to keep herself conscious.

"Second note— Note of Annihilation."

TING!

Li Jinxi could feel an immense amount of spiritual energy flying towards her direction, and it was definitely enough to be fatal to even someone like her, but she couldn't avoid it.

"HAAAAA!" Li Jinxi suddenly roared, and her body became enveloped by a crimson aura that reeked with bloodlust.

Li Jinxi could feel all of the muscles in her body being strengthened past their limits, making her feel more confident blocking the incoming attack.

However, when the attack finally struck her greatsword, it not only knocked Li Jinxi a hundred meters away, but it also shattered her greatsword into hundreds of pieces.

Fortunately for Li Jinxi, the greatsword shattered after absorbing most of Sun Hao's attack, saving her life by a hair's width.

However, this also meant that Li Jinxi would not have a weapon to defend against the next strike.

"If you don't have another weapon, you can use your body." Sun Hao said with a cold grin on his face.

"..."

Li Jinxi looked down at her own body to see that it was covered in cuts from the previous attack, and her entire body was soaked in her own blood.

'I might die today...' She mumbled inwardly, yet she wasn't feeling afraid of death even in the slightest.

Meanwhile, outside the square with the seven elders.

"Do you think Sect Master Sun's really going to kill someone as talented as her?"

"If he's convinced that there's no chance to recruit her."

"Well... Do you think he's convinced?"

After a moment of silence, Elder Mon from the Universal Music Academy said, "Definitely."

"Haaa... What a pity."

Suddenly, the seven elders stopped talking and turned to face north when they sensed two unfathomable presence approaching their direction.

"Who's that?! What a powerful pressure!"

The elders were shocked.

"Hm? Isn't that..."

Once these two figures were close enough for the elders to see their faces, it shocked the elders even more.

"T-That's the kid from earlier today! Why is he coming back here?"

A few moments later, Yuan and Xiao Hua stopped in front of the seven elders.

"Take me to that place." Yuan pointed at the projection showing Li Jinxi and the Sect Masters.

"Huh?" The elders showed puzzled looks on their faces.

"That girl is my friend, and I would like to stop them before things get out of hand." Yuan gave them a brief explanation.

"Your friend? Unfortunately, your friend just offended the Seven Spirit Academies and of all people, their Sect Masters. She's going to die, and there's nothing you can do to stop it." Elder Mon sneered.

Yuan narrowed his eyes and said, "I don't recall asking for your commentary."

"Little bastard... I can see why you're that woman's friend... You both lack respect towards your seniors!" Elder Mon roared at him.

However, Yuan wasn't even paying attention to the elder. He was focused on the projection with Li Jinxi, as she'd just successfully blocked Sun Hao's 2nd attack, but it was clear that she would not be able to block the next one.

"Xiao Hua..." Yuan mumbled in a low voice.

Xiao Hua did not need to hear anything else from Yuan to understand his intentions, and she released her cultivation base.

"S-Spirit King!" The elders immediately recognized Xiao Hua's pressure that was even stronger than their Sect Masters' aura.

Yuan approached these elders and stared at them with immense killing intent in his gaze.

"If you do not let me help my friend, I will trample the Seven Spirit Academies until there is nothing left."

"..."

The elders trembled in fear before Yuan's killing intent. Although his killing intent is already plenty strong in the real world, it was on another level in Cultivation Online, and it was definitely more than enough to terrify the souls out of these Spirit Lord elders.

"I-I will open the portal to that place for you!"

The Heavenly Academy's elder was the first one to break, and he immediately created a portal for Yuan.

"Thanks." Yuan didn't say anything else and flew right into the portal with Xiao Hua following him from behind.

Meanwhile, Li Jinxi was prepared to block the final attack even if she had to use her own body.

"He's really going to kill her with his last strike... Are you sure this is the right choice?" Some of the Sect Masters there were still hesitant to let a genius like Li Jinxi perish under such a situation, especially the Healing Spirit Academy's Sect Master.

"If she is not our ally then she can only be our enemy. And I doubt she will change her mind after all of this is done. Might as well get rid of her before she could harm us." The Sect Master of the Heavenly Academy sighed.

The other Sect Masters didn't say anything else and watched as Sun Hao prepared to release his final strike.

"If you can survive this last strike, I will not only forgive you, I will even do anything you want."

A massive grin appeared on Sun Hao's face as he pulled the strings on the zither in a chaotic rhythm.

"Final note— Death Note!"

Sun Hao released the attack with the strength of a Spirit King behind it.

There was simply no way for Li Jinxi to survive this attack, and she instinctively knew this the moment she felt the spiritual energy of the attack.

'Damn it... ' Li Jinxi sighed inwardly as the attack reached in front of her body.

[Heaven Severing Zither Arts!]

Suddenly, another zither note resounded in the area, and before anyone there could react, this zither note collided with Sun Hao's zither note, instantly destroying it.

"W-Who goes there?!" Sun Hao exclaimed in a shocked voice after witnessing what just happened.

Two figures appeared before Li Jinxi the very next moment, standing between Li Jinxi and the Sect Masters, and one of them was holding onto a beautiful black zither in his grasp.

"Y-Yuan...? What are you doing here?" Li Jinxi mumbled in a low voice.

She knew it was him even without seeing his face, as she could recognize him just from looking at his back.

"I'm here to save you, obviously," he said with a calm smile on his face.

Chapter 868 - Persuading the Sect Masters

"Who the hell are you, and how did you get in here?" Sun Hao asked Yuan with a frown on his face.

'He not only blocked my most powerful zither note, but he did so as a Spirit Lord...'

Sun Hao and the other Sect Masters were wary of Yuan's presence.

"My identity isn't of any importance, and I came here by asking those elders at the square." Yuan said.

He didn't want to give them his identity since he was being watched by millions of people right now. Of course, it didn't really matter if his identity is exposed to the Players watching, but he'd rather avoid it if possible.

"You bastard... There's no way they'd let you in here of their own free will... If you have harmed even a hair of their body, I will make you regret it!" Sun Hao growled.

"Don't worry, I didn't touch them. Though, I did threaten them a little, but that was inevitable, as I wouldn't have been able to come here if I didn't." Yuan shrugged.

"So... What do you hope to achieve by coming here?" The Sect Master of the Heavenly Academy suddenly spoke out loud.

"I am here to persuade you all to forgive my friend. No doubt, she was wrong for coming here without any intentions of joining your sects, and she was a little rude, but I don't think that warrants a death sentence."

"So you don't think that mocking the Sect Masters of the Seven Spirit Academies—the most powerful sects in this realm—should be punished with death?" Sun Hao asked.

"Of course not. That's simply unreasonable. If you think that's punishable by death, then should I just kill all of you for trying to kill my friend, which is an even bigger offense in my eyes?" Yuan narrowed his eyes at the Sect Masters.

"Arrogant little bastard. I can see why you're friends. In fact, I wouldn't be shocked if you were a couple." Hao Sun gritted his teeth in anger.

"Do you really think you can kill the seven of us? You're just a mere Spirit Lord." The Heavenly Academy's Sect Master couldn't help but laugh out loud after hearing Yuan's outrageous claims.

Suddenly, a voice resounded inside his head, "Sect Master Li, don't underestimate them! That little girl beside him is a Spirit King!"

Elder Lang had just warned the Sect Master of the Heavenly Academy about Xiao Hua's prowess.

"I see... The reason you're acting so arrogant is because of that little girl beside you, right? However, even if she's a Spirit King, there is only one of her while there are seven of us." Sect Master Li smiled.

"Hm? Xiao Hua? No, I never planned on letting her fight for me. Although she is also more than enough to handle all seven of you by herself, I don't want to trouble her with my problem."

"If you came here to piss us off even more, then you're doing a great job. However, if you're here to help your friend, then you should have never come here." The Sect Master of the Formless Sword Academy said.

"Then how about this? I will fight the seven of you. If I win, you will let my friend go and forget everything that happened between us today. If any of you manage to beat me... I will give you this."

Yuan retrieved a box before showing the contents inside to the Sect Masters.

Inside this box was a bunch of beautiful crimson leaves, but none of the Sect Masters recognized it— except one.

"Leaves from a Golden Celestial Tree! And judging from the intense scent... It's at least a hundred thousand years old!" The Sect Master of the Healing Spirit Academy exclaimed after she picked up its unique scent.

Although the other Sect Masters still aren't aware of its value, they could somehow take an educated guess from the shaken look on her face.

'I have never seen her this shocked before... Those crimson leaves must be extremely valuable...' Sect Master Li thought to himself.

"There are 21 blades of crimson leaves in this box. Do we have a deal?" Yuan suddenly asked them.

"We have a deal!" The Healing Spirit Academy's Sect Master immediately responded without any hesitation, taking the others by surprise.

"S-Sect Master Xiahou! How can you agree to fighting him without even asking for our approval? I don't agree to—"

However, before the Sect Master could even finish his sentence, Sect Master Xiahou interrupted, "With those 21 leaves, I can concoct 7 Golden Aptitude Pills for the seven of us. Do I need to further elaborate the meaning behind those words?"

"G-Golden Aptitude Pills?! And seven of them?! Are you sure about this, Sect Master Xiahou?!" Sect Master Li asked her, seemingly in disbelief.

The other Sect Masters also appeared to be filled with shock at this moment.

"What's a Golden Aptitude Pill?" Yuan turned to ask Xiao Hua.

"It's an extremely valuable pill that can boost one's innate talent up to 50 percent depending on the quality of the pill, and it requires the leaves from a Golden Celestial Tree to create such pills. When did you acquire such a treasure, Brother Yuan?" She asked him after explaining about the pill.

"Ah, we found it within the Demons' Valley right before coming here. In fact, we have the entire Golden Celestial Tree." Yuan said with a smile on his face.

"T-The whole thing?" Xiao Hua was dumbfounded to learn such information, as she was aware of the Golden Celestial Tree's true value.

Meanwhile, the seven Sect Masters finished their conversation.

"Okay, we agree to play your little game." Sect Master Li said out loud.

"Great." Yuan nodded.

"Since I am already in the mood, I shall go first." Sun Hao said.

"You're going to fight me one by one? I had planned on fighting all seven of you at once, though." Yuan said in a nonchalant voice.

The Sect Masters were left speechless by such baffling arrogance behind Yuan's words.

Chapter 869 - Fighting the Sect Masters

"You wanted to fight all of us at once?" Sect Master Li mumbled in a dazed voice.

"I have had enough of your arrogant bullshit! Die!" Sun Hao could no longer endure his anger, as he was mocked by not just one junior but two juniors in a single day.

"Note of Annihilation!"

Sun Hao began playing the zither, creating a powerful zither note that had about 70 percent of his power into it.

In response, Yuan also started playing the zither.

[Heaven Severing Zither Arts!]

Yuan's zither note collided with Sun Hao's zither note once again.

However, instead of just canceling each other out like previously, Yuan's zither note overpowered Sun Hao's zither note and continued to fly at Sun Hao even after destroying his zither note.

"Scatter!"

Sun Hao hastily swept his fingers across all strings on his zither, creating this chaotic sound and barely defending himself against Yuan's zither note.

'This brat... has some ability!' He gritted his teeth from frustration.

The other Sect Masters also realized that Yuan wasn't just all talk from that exchange alone.

'Two cultivation geniuses... How did it come to this...?' Sect Master Li frowned inwardly, as he was beginning to regret their decisions that ended up offending not one, but two cultivation geniuses.

"DON'T UNDERESTIMATE ME, BRAT!" Sun Hao suddenly roared, and his aura skyrocketed as he pulled all of the strings on his zither in an aggressive manner.

"Note of Nine Hells!"

An immense amount of spiritual energy that threatened to destroy everything it touched flew toward Yuan's direction.

Yuan didn't even blink at the incoming attack and used Heaven Severing Zither Arts once again.

"Impossible!" Sun Hao's eyes widened with shock when Yuan's zither note severed his most powerful zither note with seemingly zero effort.

Yuan's zither note continued to fly at Sun Hao after destroying his zither note, and before anyone could react, the zither note severed Sun Hao's left arm from his body.

"Ah!" Sun Hao tumbled to the ground after losing his arm, and the strings on his zither even snapped.

"Sect Master Sun!" The other Sect Masters quickly went to stand between Yuan and Sun Hao.

"You injured my friend, and you even tried to kill her, so I returned the debt by taking your arm. That's fair, right?"

"Y-You bastard... How dare you..." Sun Hao gritted his teeth in anger. Now that he's lost an arm, it would be near impossible to play the zither with the same agility and stability as before. Hell, he might even have to give up the zither.

"Sect Master Sun, here. Quickly eat this." Sect Master Xiahou handed him a recovery pill that immediately stopped his bleeding and even closed up his wound within seconds.

"Do you feel like fighting me at once now?" Yuan asked them after giving them some time to breathe.

The Sect Masters narrowed their eyes at him.

"I will handle this."

The Sect Master of the Formless Sword Academy suddenly stepped forward with a majestic green sword in his grasp.

"My name is Bai Enjue, Sect Master of the Formless Sword Academy. I hereby challenge you to a life or death challenge." Bai Enjue introduced himself as he pointed his sword at Yuan.

"Sect Master Bai?! What are you doing?!" The other Sect Masters were shocked by his words.

"Don't say anything. This is my decision."

Seeing this, Yuan also retrieved his sword and summoned the Empyrean Overlord.

'A Soul Weapon? He can wield both a sword and a zither?' Bai Enjue was inwardly shocked to see Yuan suddenly pull out a huge ass sword. The other Sect Masters felt the same after seeing the Empyrean Overlord.

After snapping out of his daze, Bai Enjue made his move first.

"Formless Sword Art— Formless Edge!"

A blue arc of light followed Bai Enjue's sword as it flew toward Yuan's neck.

After taking a split second to analyze the attack, Yuan also released his own attack. However, it was not a technique. Instead, Yuan just swung his sword ordinarily while using his Sword Aura to support it.

'He can use Sword Aura?!' Bai Enjue was shocked inwardly when he felt an exceedingly sharp aura coming from Yuan's sword.

The two attacks collided the very next second.

Yuan would be pushed back a couple of steps from the exchange, but Bai Enjue was sent flying backwards.

"Impossible! Even Sect Master Bai cannot match him using a sword?!"

"He can already use Sword Aura at such a young age...?"

The other Sect Masters were beginning to wonder if they'd offended an existence that they shouldn't have provoked.

Meanwhile, at the Heavenly Academy.

"E-Elder Nie! We have an emergency!" A disciple rushed into his room without knocking.

"What happened?" Senior Nie asked with a slight frown on his annoyed face.

"T-The Sect Masters! They are..." The disciple didn't know how to explain the situation without making it sound too bad.

"Hurry up and speak! What happened to the Sect Masters?!" Senior Nie raised his voice.

"T-They are being beaten by some stranger!"

"What? How is that even possible?" Senior Nie immediately doubted this information.

"I-It's true! Watch the disciple examination broadcast!"

Senior Nie didn't say anything else and retrieved a treasure that allowed him to spectate the disciple examination.

After changing the scene multiple times, he finally halted at a specific broadcast where all seven Sect Masters of the Seven Spirit Academies' was gathered, and they appeared to be in trouble.

"What happened to Sect Master Sun?! Why is he missing an arm? And most importantly, why is 'he' there?!?" Senior Nie exclaimed after seeing Sun Hao's condition and Yuan's familiar face.

"T-This is what happened..."

The disciple proceeded to explain the whole situation to Senior Nie, who was speechless by the end of it.

"Fuck! This is disastrous!" Senior Nie was so dumbfounded by the situation that he couldn't even think properly.

'Out of everyone in this world, they had to pick a fight with him?! These idiots!'

'Damn it! I need to stop them before things really get out of hand!'

"Tell everybody in the sect to standby!" After giving the disciple this warning, Senior Nie rushed outside and disappeared from the sect.

Meanwhile, the other six sects had already gathered many experts and started making their way towards the examination area to assist their Sect Masters that were clearly in trouble.

Chapter 870: You Know Him?

"Don't think you've won yet! I am just getting started!" Bai Enjue shouted as he got back to his feet and closed their distance again.

"You're also not the only one who can use Sword Aura!"

Bai Enjue swung his sword that carried Sword Aura this time. However, it was clear that his Sword Aura was nowhere near as powerful and refined as Yuan's Sword Aura.

Yuan didn't say anything and proceeded to block all of Bai Enjue's attacks with ease.

"What should we do? At this rate, our reputation will..."

"Is there even anything we can do at this point? If we attack him at once, that would be akin to admitting our defeat—that we cannot defeat him by ourselves."

"Who here thinks they can defeat him?"

The Sect Masters talked amongst themselves as Yuan and Bai Enjue fought each other.

"Regardless if we defeat him or not today, our reputation has already suffered irreparable damage." Sect Master Li sighed in a dispirited manner.

"So you're saying we should just gang up on him and finish this?" One of them asked.

Sect Master Li narrowed his eyes at Yuan, who was casually fighting Bai Enjue, even looking like he was fooling around.

"I'm not so sure that we would be able to defeat him even if all seven of us fought him together."

"What?! Are you seriously saying that?"

Sect Master Li nodded with a serious expression, "This person must be the one she wants to surpass. His abilities are truly incomprehensible and unfathomable."

"However, as the Sect Masters of the Seven Spirit Academies, we cannot simply run away in such a situation, or we would become laughingstocks. Even if we lose our faces, we must take him down."

The other Sect Masters silently nodded their heads.

Bang!

"Ah!"

Bai Enjue suddenly screamed, causing the other Sect Masters to turn their heads.

"Sect Master Bai! Are you okay?!" Sect Master Xaihou shouted in a concerned voice after seeing the blood flowing from his mouth.

"Y-Yes... This is nothing..." He said in a mumbling voice.

The Sect Masters suddenly approached them and surrounded Yuan.

"Oh?" Yuan stopped his movements and looked at the Sect Masters around him with a calm expression on his face.

"I told you guys to fight me together at the beginning, but you didn't want to listen. Now it looks like I am bullying you guys." Yuan smiled at their frowning faces. If you want to read more chapters, visit pa-nda-novel.c.o,m

"Are you really a Spirit Lord? Or are you hiding your real cultivation?" Sect Master Li suddenly asked him.

"Of course this is my real cultivation. I don't even know how to hide my cultivation." Yuan casually shrugged.

"Then let me ask you another question... Why are you doing this? I don't believe that you came all the way here just to save your friend. You actually came here with the intentions to fight us, didn't you?"

"I will be lying if I say that I am not enjoying our fight. However, I am not that bored to come here just to fight. I truly came here with the intentions to save my friend, but I got a little angry when I saw the state of my friend, so I wanted to punish you all a little."

"If you want, we can stop this nonsense right now. Of course, that means you will forfeit the challenge and forgive my friend."

Sect Master Li snorted and said, "This is no longer about the challenge. You came here and made a mockery out of us. Our reputation took a massive hit because of you and your friend. When someone slaps you in the face, it is only natural you kill them."

Yuan sighed, "Is that so? What a pity."

He suddenly lifted his sword and pointed it at them, "Don't worry, I won't kill any of you, but expect to lose a limb or two today."

The Sect Masters didn't say anything and took out their weapons and treasures.

"Kill him!" Sect Master Li suddenly shouted in a resolved voice.

"HALT!"

A deafening voice suddenly resounded, immediately stopping their movements.

"This voice... Senior Nie?" Sect Master Li recognized his voice the moment he heard it.

Indeed, it was Senior Nie, and he could be seen coming out of a portal with an exhausted look on his face.

"Enough of this! All of you! Stop!"

Without any hesitation, Senior Nie walked right past the Sect Masters and stood beside Yuan.

"What are you doing, Senior Nie?" Sun Hao asked him.

"I am trying to stop this farce before someone actually dies. What do you think will happen to the Seven Spirit Academies if multiple Sect Masters suddenly die?"

"You actually think we'll lose to that brat, Senior Nie?"

"It's not about losing or winning. If you continue to fight him, one or more of you will certainly die. Even if you manage to defeat him in the end, it will be at the cost of some of your lives, and that is not worth it." Senior Nie said.

And he turned to look at Yuan with a perplexed face, as he wasn't sure what to say to Yuan at this moment.

Before Senior Nie could say anything, Yuan smiled and said, "I am not an unreasonable person. If they agree to stop, I won't pursue this matter any longer."

"Thank you, Yuan." Senior Nie nodded.

"W-Wait... Senior Nie... You know him?" Sect Master Xiahou stared at him with her eyes wide as saucers.

"Of course." Senior Nie nodded, and he continued, "In fact, I met him not long ago when I went down to the Lower Heavens to oversee the Mystic Realm. Do you remember that genius I mentioned about after I returned? The one who refused to join us? That's him."

The Sect Masters there stared at Yuan with baffled faces after realizing Yuan's identity, but none of them wanted to believe it.

'He's that prodigy who was rumored to have opened the Mystic Pagoda?!?!'
Sect Master Li cried inwardly.

Chapter 871: Monster

The place fell completely silent once Senior Nie revealed Yuan's identity to the Sect Masters.

Since none of the Sect Masters were directly involved in the Mystic Realm, none of them recognized Yuan. However, they were definitely intrigued by his existence, as he was able to open the Mystic Pagoda that had been sealed for countless years.

They also didn't think that they would be meeting him anytime soon, as it hasn't been that long since the Mystic Realm ended.

After many moments of silence, Sun Hao spoke, "I'm sorry, Senior Nie, but I won't be able to back down—I can't. I simply can't forgive him, who severed my arm. He must pay for it!"

Bai Enjue then said, "I also won't stop now. I don't have any grudges against him, but I cannot put down my sword after fighting him— my pride won't allow it."

Senior Nie sighed after hearing their words, but he didn't continue to persuade them.

Although Senior Nie isn't a Sect Master, he has been part of the Heavenly Academy even before the current Sect Master, and his reputation and authority within the sect isn't any less than Sect Master Li.

In fact, most people within the Seven Spirit Academies see Senior Nie as a retired Sect Master despite having never taken up that position.

"What about the rest of you? I won't tell you to not fight him, but I highly discourage it." Senior Nie turned to look at the others.

"I am out." Sect Master Xiahou said out loud before taking a few steps back.

As the Sect Master of the Healing Spirit Academy, she specializes in alchemy more than actual combat, and she didn't want to risk her life for something so pointless.

"I will fight," said the Sect Master of the Lonely River Academy, as he was very close with Formless Sword Academy's Sect Master. He would be filled with guilt if he didn't assist Bai Enjue.

With half of the Sect Masters willing to fight, two more Sect Masters also agreed to continue their fight.

Sect Master Li from the Heavenly Academy is now the only person that hasn't come to a decision.

Senior Nie narrowed his eyes at Sect Master Li.

"As the leading sect, it would be shameful of me to back down when the majority of the alliance has agreed to fight," said Sect Master Li with a resolute face.

Senior Nie sighed.

He then turned to look at Yuan with an apologetic look on his face, "I'm sorry. I tried."

"It's fine. I was expecting it." Yuan said.

"Y-You were?"

"Yes." He smiled.

"Anyways, you should stand back. Things will get a little chaotic from here on out."

Before leaving, Senior Nie said to him, "I know I have no right to ask this of you, but... can you spare their lives at the very least? If you kill any of them, the Seven Spirit Academies will do everything in their power to destroy you."

"I won't make any promises. If they're too weak, I might accidentally kill them, after all." Yuan said.

Senior Nie could only sigh inwardly after hearing such words, and he retreated from the battlefield with Sect Master Xiahou.

"Since you're down one, I will let you attack first." Yuan said to the six Sect Masters with a provoking smile on his face.

"Che!"

Sun Hao snickered in disdain right before retrieving a flute. He then used Qi Manifestation to hold the flute before his mouth, allowing him to play it with just a single hand.

'So he can play multiple instruments, huh?'

If you want to read more chapters, visit pa-nda-novel.c.o.m. When Yuan heard the music, it made him feel a little nauseated. However, the technique was meant to knock out Yuan, and when Sun Hao saw this, he immediately changed songs.

A moment later, the other five Sect Masters surrounded Yuan while feeling like their overall prowess had increased from listening to the music.

"Formless Sword Art— Formless Edge!" Bai Enjue was the first to attack Yuan, initiating a relentless assault that would not stop for many minutes.

"Strength Enhancing Array!" The Sect Master of the Golden Array Academy further enhanced the others' strength before trying to slow down Yuan with restraining arrays.

However, Yuan would easily break out of these arrays.

'This guy! He knows all of my arrays' weaknesses! Is he also an Array Master?'

Meanwhile, Sect Master Li would occasionally throw powerful techniques at Yuan whenever one of the other Sect Masters finished their attack in order to keep up the pressure.

Of course, Yuan easily dodges all of these attacks with his movement technique.

"Fiery Lion Fist!"

The Sect Master of the Steel Lion Academy used his bare hands to attack Yuan from behind.

"Ha!"

Yuan immediately turned around in a kicking motion, blocking the fist attack with nothing but his bare legs.

'What a ridiculously sturdy body! Not even mountains can compare to this guy's body! He must have soaked in countless treasures to acquire such a refined physique!' The Sect Master of the Steel Lion Academy was shocked after their clash. He was someone that would often claim to have the strongest and sturdiest body in Spirit Heaven, but after clashing with Yuan, he began to doubt his own strength.

The six Sect Masters relentlessly attacked Yuan for many minutes without giving him any time to breathe, each using their own talents to assist the others. Their cooperation with each other was perfect, but despite that, none of them have been able to land a solid hit on Yuan, as he was easily blocking and dodging everything they sent his way.

'This is fucking impossible! He has an answer for all of our attacks, and there are six of us attacking him at once!' Sect Master Li cried inwardly, his body soaked in cold sweat.

'What a monster...'

The other Sect Masters also noticed this, but they did not dare to stop attacking Yuan, fearing his retaliation.

Meanwhile, Li Jinxi and the others watched Yuan fight with six Spirit Kings simultaneously while having a lower cultivation.

"He's even smiling..." Li Jinxi mumbled in a voice of disbelief as she stared at Yuan's face that was filled with excitement and joy.

Chapter 872: Heavens Favorite

Chapter 872: Heaven's Favorite

'So this is the prowess of the man who opened the Mystic Pagoda... He was only a Spirit Master at that time, too...' Senior Nie thought to himself as he watched Yuan play with the six Sect Masters.

Because the Mystic Realm did not show Yuan's movement and actions, nobody but those that were with him knew his potential. This included Senior Nie, who could only imagine Yuan's prowess until today.

"This is absurd... almost comically so..." Sect Master Xiahou suddenly uttered in a dazed voice.

"How can someone like him exist in this world? Why are the heavens allowing this to happen...?"

Hearing her words, Senior Nie responded without looking away from the fight, "This is the heavens' way of messing with us cultivators for wanting to defy them by seeking eternal life. They will occasionally create geniuses that will surpass everyone with ease just to make the others fume with jealousy."

"Of course, if they're feeling extremely bored, they will very, very rarely give birth to monsters that will dominate an entire era, and these monsters are fated to do just that, so there is nothing we can do about it."

"We can beat them, oppress them, mock them, torture them, and even try to kill them, but they will always somehow manage to survive and continue their path of dominance. We call these monsters 'Heaven's Favorite'."

"So you're saying that he's Heaven's Favorite?" Sect Master Xiahou asked.

"I hope so." Senior Nie said with a bittersweet smile on his face.

"Why?" Sect Master Xiahou raised her eyebrows in a puzzled manner.

"Because there actually exists an existence that surpasses even Heaven's Favorite. This kind of existence are independent souls that do not obey any rules— not even those made by the mighty heavens, nor are they affected by fate, so they can essentially do whatever they want while ignoring all rules of this universe."

"There isn't an official name for this kind of existence, but if I have to give them one, I would call them Forbidden Souls, as they are souls that should not be allowed to exist— for the sake of this world and everyone in it."

Sect Master Xiahou was left speechless by Senior Nie's words, and she wondered if Yuan could be this kind of existence.

Meanwhile, Yuan's battle with the six Sect Masters only got more heated with every passing moment, as the Sect Masters were beginning to get desperate.

Most of them had been unconsciously using non-lethal techniques because they were ganging up on a young man that also has a lower cultivation base than them, but the Sect Masters eventually came to a realization— that Yuan isn't human, so they shouldn't fight like they were fighting a fellow human cultivator.

"This bastard is clearly not human! And we won't defeat him until we stop considering him as a human! We need to treat this fight like we're fighting a magical beast— No, a Divine Beast! Let's stop holding back and fight with the intention to kill!" Sun Hao suddenly said to the other Sect Masters.

Although they were hesitant at first, it did not take long for them to agree with Sun Hao.

Once the Sect Masters stopped seeing Yuan as a human, their attacks immediately became more aggressive and destructive.

"Hahaha! This is so fun! That's right! Fight me with the intention to kill me! Fight like your life depends on it!" Yuan laughed out loud as he also increased his pace and strength.

"Formless Blade— Formless Death!" Bai Enjue used his most powerful technique on Yuan.

The other Sect Masters followed.

"Ancient Lion's Fury!"

"Array of Four Elements!"

"Heavenly Destruction!"

All of the Sect Masters suddenly released their most powerful and destructive technique on Yuan simultaneously.

A massive explosion occurred shortly afterward, forcing the Sect Masters and even the spectators to retreat.

"Y-Yuan..." Li Jinxi swallowed nervously.

'Surely, he couldn't have survived that attack just now... right...?'

While everyone there had their eyes focused on Yuan's direction, Senior Nie decided to focus on Xiao Hua instead for some reason.

'She's not acting, nor does she seem worried even in the slightest...' Senior Nie sighed inwardly after realizing why Xiao Hua remained so calm.

'It's over. The Sect Masters are not capable of defeating this monster...'

Once the smoke disappeared enough, Yuan's figure appeared before the Sect Masters again, and he seemed to be completely unharmed, which left the Sect Masters completely baffled.

After coming out of the smoke, Yuan cracked his fingers and said in a chilling voice, "I would like to believe that I have given you all enough time for your head start. It's now my turn to go on the offensive."

Yuan's words immediately snapped the Sect Masters back to reality.

"Shit! Stop him!" Sect Master Li shouted in a panicked voice.

However, before anyone there could even do anything, Yuan's eyes changed colors, turning into majestic gold.

[Dragon's Gaze!]

All six Sect Masters halted their movements the moment they stared into Yuan's glowing eyes.

"W-Where am I?! Where did the others go?!"

The Sect Masters suddenly found themselves alone in the void, where there was only darkness and this unfathomable presence that continuously grew more terrifying until it was strong enough to shake the very core of their souls.

Once their fear was at its peak, the Sect Masters finally realized what was causing this terrifying presence. However, this entity was so massive that just one of its eyes could make them look like ants before a watermelon in comparison.

"H-Help! I give up! Please! Get me out of here, mother!" Sun Hao was so shaken by the massive eye that he started crying for his mother.

The other Sect Masters had similar reactions.

Bai Enjue dropped his sword and kowtowed before the entity in the void without uttering a single word.

Sect Master Li and the others also did something similar. They had lost all will to fight and offered their unworthy lives to this unfathomable entity in the void!

Chapter 873 - Don't Look

"W-What happened? Why are they just standing there?" Sect Master Xiahou mumbled in a dumbfounded voice as she stared at the Sect Masters with her eyes as wide as saucers. Because Yuan had his back facing her direction, she was unable to see his glowing eyes and understand the situation.

Sect Master Xiahou decided to take a closer look with her divine sense, but Elder Nie suddenly exclaimed, "Don't look!"

"Huh?" Sect Master Xiahou subconsciously retrieved her divine sense from surprise and turned to look at him, only to see a terrified expression on his face.

"Senior Nie? What's wrong?" She asked him in a nervous voice.

"Whatever you do, don't look at his eyes right now. You'll regret it like I am now." He said with sweat dripping down his forehead.

Even though Yuan's Dragon's Gaze wasn't directed towards him, it was still emitting an aura strong enough to shake Senior Nie's soul when he glanced at it with his divine sense.

"What a terrifying technique! It must be at least divine rank!"

Meanwhile, Yuan merely stood there with a calm expression as he watched the Sect Masters stand there with blank looks on their faces, looking like they were in a trance.

If he wanted to defeat the Sect Masters, right now would be the best time. However, he didn't attack them and actually waited for them to break out of his technique by themselves, which is definitely a crueler punishment.

When Senior Nie realized what Yuan was doing, he immediately said, "Y-Yuan! Please have mercy! Their souls will crumble at this rate! That is a fate worse than death!"

Yuan smiled and said, "Don't worry, they won't receive any permanent damages. I am holding back, after all."

'He's holding back?! Even though it's already this powerful?!' Senior Nie cried inwardly.

After standing around for a couple more minutes, Yuan finally decided to act.

However, the Sect Masters remained dazed even after Yuan deactivated his Dragon's Gaze.

"It's time to wake up!" Yuan slightly twisted his body before swinging his fist at Sect Master Li's face, hitting him square in the cheeks.

A cracking noise resounded as Sect Master Li's jaw cracked from the impact. He then flew into the air with his body spinning in an impressive manner.

After sending Sect Master Li flying, Yuan immediately moved to his next victim, sending Bai Enjue flying with a fist to the face as well.

He then sent the Sect Master of the Golden Array Academy, the Sect Master of the Steel Lion Academy, and the Sect Master of the Lonely River Academy flying with a kick in their stomach, breaking some of their ribs in the process.

It was just Sun Hao, Sect Master of the Universal Music Academy left, and Yuan had something special for him.

After slapping Sun Hao in the face to wake him up from his daze, Yuan would batter him with over a dozen strikes, ruthlessly hitting him in the face and body until his entire face was deformed with bruises.

Once all of the Sect Masters were lying on the ground and groaning in pain, Yuan took a deep breath, and said, "I am going to end your punishment here and spare your lives, but if you try to harm me or my friends again, I will not hesitate to come back and claim your lives."

He turned to look at Senior Nie and continued, "Do you have anything to say?"

A bittersweet smile appeared on Senior Nie's face as he spoke, "Just one thing. Thank you for sparing their lives."

Yuan nodded, "I should also apologize for escalating the situation even though I came here with the intention to stop it, especially since there are millions of people watching this..."

"Oh, you don't have to worry about the spectators. We stopped broadcasting this place after your fight with Sect Master Sun, so everything that happened afterward is only between us." Senior Nie said.

"What?!" Sect Master Xiahou turned to look at Senior Nie with a shocked face.

"Why didn't you say so earlier?! I don't know about Sect Master Sun, but the others wouldn't have fought if they knew about that! They fought because they thought that their reputation was at stake!"

"Ehh... Well... We can talk about that after you heal them..." Senior Nie said in an awkward voice.

"Oh right!"

Sect Master Xiahou then fed the other Sect Masters recovery pills and other expensive medicine, healing all of their injuries within moments except the damage done to their pride and mind.

"S-Senior Nie... Are you serious? About the broadcast..." Sect Master Li asked him afterward.

"Yes, it's true. The only people that could see the broadcast are people with direct access to them like me. However, Sect Master Sun's fight with Yuan is public knowledge."

Everybody turned to look at Sun Hao, who had a very bitter look on his face, but there was nothing they could do about it.

"Hey, can we leave now?" Yuan suddenly approached them and asked.

The Sect Masters subconsciously took a step back when Yuan got too close.

"You want to leave after beating us? Are you serious?" Bai Enjue frowned.

"What? Do you want me to take responsibility or something? Except for him, you're all unharmed." Yuan said while pointing to Sun Hao.

"Just so you know, hundreds of thousands of disciples from the Seven Spirit Academies are currently waiting for you outside. If we don't stop them, they will all attack you." Sect Master Li said.

"Is that so..." Yuan began pondering for a moment before showing a cold smile, "Or I can just kill them all."

"You bastard..." The Sect Masters glared at Yuan with killing intent.

Yuan chuckled, "I'm just joking, but if you leave me no choice... That joke might become a reality."

"Also, if you're worried that I might cause trouble for you in the future, then you don't have to worry, as I will be ascending to the next realm very soon."

"What? You're ascending again so soon?" Senior Nie looked at him with wide eyes.

Chapter 874 - Come With Me

"I would like to stay around for a little longer, but it will only hinder my growth." Yuan said with a bittersweet smile.

"Anyways, since I will be leaving this realm soon, you can simply just forget about me. I'm sure you'll eventually forget about me sooner or later even if I don't mention it."

After a moment of silence, Bai Enjue spoke up, "Even if you're gone, what about her? What if she seeks revenge in the future? We cannot take that risk."

Yuan chuckled at his words, "No way. She won't do something like that."

"And we're supposed to just take your words for it?"

"How about this then?"

Yuan turned to look at Li Jinxi before asking her, "Hey, want to come with me? We'll ascend together. The fact you came to this place for entertainment must mean that you're already bored of this realm. I can't say that I'm surprised though. You're really strong, after all."

Li Jinxi's eyes widened slightly after hearing Yuan's suggestion.

"You... want me to follow you?"

"Yes. I can guarantee you that there will be plenty of stronger magical beasts for you to fight up there. You'll be able to fight to your heart's content."

Li Jinxi silently stared at Yuan for a few moments before nodding her head, "Okay, I will go with you."

"Then it's decided."

Yuan returned to looking at the Sect Masters and continued, "As you all just heard, she will be ascending with me. There should be no problems now, right?"

"Do you really think—" Sun Hao opened his mouth to speak.

However, Yuan quickly interrupted, "You should really think twice before you finish that sentence, Sect Master. I have been holding back long enough. If you continue testing my limits, I will stop being so nice."

Seeing Yuan's serious and cold glare, Sun Hao swallowed nervously and forgot what he was going to say.

'He's serious! If we continue to push our luck, he might really slaughter his way out of here!' Sect Master Li cried inwardly.

If Yuan could easily handle all of them at once and with ease, he had no doubt that Yuan would also be capable of dealing with the disciples waiting for him outside.

'A Sect Master can easily be replaced since there is only one person for that role, but if a large population of disciples suddenly dies at once, it would deal almost irreversible damage to a sect that would take hundreds if not thousands of years to fix!'

"Alright, we'll forget about today's incident." Sect Master Li said out loud.

"W-What?! You can't be serious!" Sun Hao snapped to look at him with a shocked face.

"If you want your disciples to die a pointless death, you're more than welcome to do so. However, I will not let my disciples be part of it even if it's the last thing I do!"

"I just told my disciples to return to the sect." Sect Master Xiahou suddenly stepped forward and announced while showing Yuan the communication jade slip.

"The disciples of the Heavenly Academy never left the sect, so we should have any disciples here." Senior Nie said to Sect Master Li, who nodded his head in approval.

"I'll also call my guys off..." The other Sect Masters eventually gave up.

In the end, only Sun Hao remained indecisive. The source of this content is freewebnovel.com

"What is this nonsense?! I thought we're supposed to help each other! That is the purpose of our alliance that has stood for thousands of years!" Sun Hao yelled at the other Sect Masters.

"How dare you bring up such bullshit after we risked our lives to fight him with you, Sect Master Sun? You should know better than that!" Sect Master Li immediately roared back.

"Sect Master Sun, while we are obligated to help each other during times of need, it does not mean we must sacrifice ourselves to do so." Sect Master Xiahou said.

"Sect Master Sun, you need some rest, as you're clearly not thinking straight right now." Bai Enjue sighed.

When the rest of the Sect Masters rebuked Sun Hao's stubbornness, it infuriated him. However, there was nothing he could do. He knew that there was nothing he could do against Yuan by himself.

In the end, Sun Hao raised his white flag and commanded his disciples to return to their sect.

"I'm leaving!" Sun Hao also left the place immediately after, as he didn't want to stay in that place for another second.

"We'll contact you again later for a proper meeting, Sect Master Sun." Sect Master Li said to him right before he entered the portal and disappeared from the place.

"It should be clear outside now." Senior Nie created a portal and said to Yuan.

"Let's leave now, shall we?" Yuan turned to ask Li Jinxi, who nodded in a dazed manner.

Yuan proceeded to leave the place with Li Jinxi and Xiao Hua following behind him.

"Senior Nie, tell us everything you know about him." Sect Master Li said in a serious voice after they left.

"I don't mind, but I also don't really know much about them. However, there is one thing that I can say for sure."

"What's that?"

"He's from an extraordinary background with connections to some very powerful people. Do you remember the Flood Dragon's Scale that I recently purchased? The owner and seller of that scale called him 'Young Master'."

"What?!"

The Sect Masters there were shocked to learn this information.

"You said that he came from the Lower Heavens, right? How can he possibly have such connections? Unless he's actually from the upper heavens but purposefully traveled to the Lower Heavens, that's impossible. However, why would he do such a thing?" Bai Enjue said.

Senior Nie shook his head, "The more talented they are, the less we understand them. It'll be for the best if we don't question it and just accept things as they are."

"The bigger question now is... What should we do after all this? I'm also worried about Sect Master Sun. He suffered the most today, after all." Sect Master Xiahou sighed.

"We can talk about that later. For now, we need to return to our own sects and explain the situation to our disciples." Sect Master Li said.

The Sect Masters agreed, and they all left the scene shortly after.

Chapter 875 - seven Spirit Academies' Disciple Examination's Results

Chapter 875 - seven Spirit Academies' Disciple Examination's Results

Sometime after Yuan and Li Jinxi left the disciple examination, they went to meet back up with Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang.

"Sorry for the trouble, Yuan." Li Jinxi apologized to him as they journeyed.

"Don't even mention it. It's only natural that I help my friends out when they're in trouble," he said.

Li Jinxi nodded, and she continued, "By the way, I already knew this, but you're really strong in Cultivation Online. I want to spar with you later when we get the chance."

"Sure." He nodded.

"Brother Yuan." Xiao Hua suddenly approached him.

"What's the matter?"

"Brother Yuan, you seem a little different than usual today. Are you feeling unwell?" She asked him in a worried voice, as she was unaware of Yuan's situation with the Divine Paragon.

"Yes, I am feeling perfectly fine."

Sometime later.

"Yuan! Jinxi! Are you two okay? What happened? The broadcast suddenly stopped, so we couldn't see what transpired after you cut off that man's hand." Chu Liuxiang immediately asked.

"Nothing much. I had a fight with them and managed to convince them to forgive and forget about everything that happened today." Yuan said with a smile.

"Really? Even though you severed that man's arm?"

"It took some effort, but yes, they won't cause us anymore trouble."

"That's good to hear."

"What are we going to do now?" Meixiu then asked.

"The examination is still ongoing, so we'll continue watching until everyone we know has passed."

"Do you think it's a good idea to let them join the sect after everything that has happened?" Chu Liuxiang suddenly asked.

"It should be fine. After all, they don't know about our associations with each other. And even if they did, I doubt they would bother the others just because of our association."

"If you say so..."

Thus, Yuan and the others continued to spectate the examination.

Even though the disciple examination was scheduled to last for a couple of days, it did not mean the participants had to wait until the very end to finish their examination.

After getting enough points to pass from the third examination, the participants may immediately head to the final part of the examination and be interviewed by the Seven Spirit Academies.

Of course, the interviewers were only of elder status.

Therefore, after a couple more hours, Wang Ming and the others passed their examination with top results.

Wang Ming had managed to receive offers from all seven academies to become their disciple, which isn't surprising with his results that ranked top 10. In the end, Wang Ming chose the Formless Sword Academy that specializes in sword art.

Wang Bingbing also received offers from all seven academies, but she joined the Heavenly Academy.

Shi Lang received offers from all seven academies, and he joined the Lonely River Academy, as they had enough spear experts to peak his interest.

Hong Xiuquan decided to join the Steel Lion Academy that specializes in tempering their physique and close combat, which is perfect for a gauntlet user.

Wu Zao had surprisingly decided to join the Golden Array Academy despite being a fan wielder and having never heard of arrays until today, but he was interested in their concept and wanted to see if he could become an Array Master.

Xi Murong, who was an expert with daggers, decided to join the Heavenly Academy with Shi Lang.

Last but not least, Min Li, who also ranked top 10 with everybody else, managed to receive an offer from the Heavenly Academy, which she gladly accepted.

The Demon Sealing Faction and Min Li had managed to occupy 7 of the top 10 spots in the disciple examination. Of course, if Li Jinxi's results were counted, that would make it 8 out of 10 spots, and she would also take rank one without any contenders.

The Seven Spirit Academies were, without doubt, extremely elevated to have so many top-scoring geniuses join their sects at once.

"Thank you, Senior, for allowing me to join the Heavenly Academy! And thank you, Seniors, for offering me a spot in your sects! I am really grateful to you all!" Min Li bowed to interviewers after joining the Heavenly Academy.

"Our Heavenly Academy is honored to have a genius such as yourself amongst our ranks. Please arrive at the Heavenly Academy within 30 days to start your training. That's all."

"Yes!"

Min Li left the place shortly after and began making her way back to the hotel.

"Now that everyone has finished their examination, let's go meet them at the hotel like we'd planned." Yuan said to the ones with him.

"Okay."

A few hours later, everyone arrived at the hotel.

"Congratulations, everyone, on passing the examination. I had faith that you would all pass." Yuan said.

"Honestly, the examination was much easier than I'd anticipated." Wang Ming said.

"Right? I worried for nothing." Shi Lang laughed.

"By the way, did you hear? Something big happened during the examination. Apparently, someone picked a fight with the Sect Masters of the Seven Spirit Academies. I heard it on the way back here." Wang Bingbing suddenly said.

"Oh! I heard about that too! Which idiot would do such a thing?" Wang Ming said.

"About that..." Yuan chuckled.

"Eh?" Everybody there turned to look at him with raised eyebrows.

"You see..." Yuan proceeded to explain his experience with everyone, leaving them speechless.

"Unbelievable! How dare they try to kill Li Jinxi over something so stupid! Do you think it's too late to leave the sect?!" Wang Ming expressed his anger afterward.

"Why would you do that? Although they may have overreacted, Li Jinxi isn't completely innocent either. Just forget about it and go to the sect. They may not be perfect, but you'll be able to obtain a lot of experience there." Yuan shook his head.

"By the way, as a result of this experience, Li Jinxi will be following me to the next realm."

"Honestly, I'm not surprised. Unlike the rest of us, she has the strength and talent to follow you. Good luck up there, all of you." Shi Lang said.

Chapter 876 - Because of You

"When are you guys planning on leaving? We have a month before we must report to our new sects." Wang Bingbing asked them.

"We'll most likely leave before then." Yuan said.

After talking for some time, Meixiu and the others logged off Cultivation Online for dinner.

"Yuan, can I borrow you for a bit? It won't be long." Min Li suddenly approached him.

"Sure."

"Follow me."

Min Li then brought Yuan to the balcony.

"What's up?" Yuan decided to start the conversation when Min Li remained silent for many moments.

"I just wanted to thank you before going to the sect. I have decided to leave for the sect tonight." Min Li said with a slight smile on her face.

"Already? You have 30 days, right?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"Yes, but I do not want to continue bothering you." Min Li's smile became bittersweet.

"Because of you, I acquired the courage to deny the Min Family."

"Because of you, I have managed to break free from the Min Family."

"Because of you, I have achieved my lifelong dream of leaving the Lower Heavens."

"Because of you, I can finally walk my cultivation path the way I want."

"I really cannot thank you enough— it's a debt that I will never be able to repay."

Yuan smiled and said, "You don't need to repay me. You're my friend, and it's only natural for friends to help each other out. I know I told you this before, too."

"You're right... Sorry I even brought it up."

Min Li turned to look at the bright moon, and after a moment of silence, she spoke, "Do you think we'll see each other again? I know you'll only continue to ascend the Nine Heavens while I am stuck here."

"We'll see each other again. I will make sure to visit you when I get the chance in the future." Yuan smiled.

However, Min Li shook her head and said, "No, I will be the one to visit you. I will train hard and catch up to you no matter how long it will take me, and I will continue to ascend the Nine Heavens until we meet again."

"If you don't mind, I have two more selfish requests for you. Please wait for me."

"Sure." Yuan nodded without hesitation.

After a moment of silence, Yuan spoke, "You said you have two requests for me, right? That was just one."

Min Li immediately blushed, "A-Actually, forget about my second request... I will tell you about it during our next meeting. Instead, can you close your eyes for a moment?"

Yuan silently nodded and closed his eyes.

The moment Yuan closed his eyes, Min Li tipped her toes and leaned forward, kissing Yuan on his soft lips.

"Please keep them closed for a little longer. I don't want you to see my face right now." Min Li quickly said after removing her lips.

After a moment of awkward silence, Min Li said, "I may not be worthy to be with you now, but I will train hard to become someone worthy. Until next time, Yuan."

Yuan suddenly felt a gentle gust of wind caress his face. He opened his eyes to see that Min Li had disappeared from the balcony.

He turned to look in a certain direction and touched his lips.

'Why do they always ask me to close my eyes?' He wondered inwardly.

Ding!

A distinct noise suddenly snapped Yuan out of his daze.

<'Min Li' has been added to your Bond!>

<Min Li's Bond level has increased to Intimate!>

<Congratulations! Your Bond level with Min Li has reached Intimate!>

[Min Li's Adoration: Increases your Charm by 40 and Overall Damage by 30%]

Yuan logged off Cultivation Online shortly after and gathered in the dining room to eat dinner with the others.

"You guys can do whatever you want for the next few days. I still have some business to do before we can head to the Stairway to Heaven." Yuan said to Meixiu and the others.

"Okay." [Updated from Freewebnovel.com]

The following day.

"Feng Feng, let's return to the House of Riches. They're probably waiting for us." Yuan said to her.

"Oh, I nearly forgot that we'd asked for their help regarding the Pill of Truth. Let's go."

On their way to the House of Riches, Xiao Hua asked, "Why are you looking for the Pill of Truth?"

"It's a long story." Feng Yuxiang said.

"Then shorten it..." Xiao Hua frowned.

Feng Yuxiang chuckled and proceeded to briefly explain the situation to Xiao Hua, "Basically, we need the Pill of Truth to see if the Young Master's memories are real."

"Memories? Is there something wrong with your memories, Brother Yuan?" Xiao Hua turned to look at him with a puzzled face.

"No, it's nothing of that sort. I haven't told you this yet because you were away with Min Li, but I actually have memories of my past life as the Divine Paragon."

"W-What...?" Xiao Hua's eyes immediately widened.

"I know it's hard to believe, but it's the truth. I even recall my birthplace and my family during that life. In fact, I—the Divine Paragon was born in the third heaven—our next destination."

"Reincarnation..." Xiao Hua mumbled in a low voice, her thoughts unknown.

Seeing Xiao Hua in deep thoughts, Yuan stopped talking so that she could think.

Meanwhile, inside the Universal Music Academy, a man dressed in completely black stood before Sun Hao inside his quarters.

"Is this information real?" Sun Hao turned to look at the man with a wide smile on his face.

"Yes, I have confirmed it myself. The Gu Family is currently searching for a young man named 'Yuan'. They seem to have some grievances with him." The man said.

"Hahaha! This is perfect! Let the Gu Family know that I have information on this 'Yuan' and that I want to meet with them! Immediately!"

"Right away!" The man immediately left the room.

"What a coincidence that the Gu Family is looking for that bastard! This must be Heaven's calling! They must want that bastard dead as much as I do! Hahaha!" Sun Hao laughed inwardly.

Chapter 877 - It Wasn't Robbery

Chapter 877 - It Wasn't Robbery

After arriving at the House of Riches, Yuan and his group walked into the building to find out that there was an ongoing auction.

"Welcome, how may I—" The man at the counter suddenly stopped talking.

"I-It's you! Please wait for a moment, Esteemed Guests! I will immediately notify Senior Gu of your arrival!"

The man immediately rushed upstairs. Ever since his last encounter with Yuan and Feng Yuxiang, the man had engraved their faces into his mind, fearing that he might offend them again.

Gu Xiulan could be seen rushing downstairs a few moments later.

"Welcome back, Esteemed Guests! I have been anticipating your arrival!" She said to them with a bright smile on her face. Clearly, she had some good news.

Once they were inside the VIP room, Feng Yuxiang said, "So? Did you find any information on the Pill of Truth? Judging by your demeanor, you found something, right?"

"Yes. While I have to announce with regret that the Pill of Truth doesn't exist in this world, I have been told by a reliable source that someone in the Third Heaven has one."

And she continued, "His name is Jin Sang, and he's a renowned Tier 5 Alchemy Master at the Spirit Grass Mountain."

"Thank you for the information, but if you want the Spirit Jade, you'll need to give me some concrete proof. I can't just accept your words so quickly.

What if I give you the Spirit Jade and it turns out the information is wrong? That would be foolish of me." Feng Yuxiang said.

"I-I assure you that this information is very trustworthy! Although I cannot give you any information about my sources, I am willing to put the House of Riches' name and reputation on my words!"

Feng Yuxiang silently stared at Gu Xiulan for a moment before turning to look at Yuan, "What do you think, Young Master? Should we trust her information?"

"I don't see why we shouldn't. They're a reputable name, right? And we're the ones who asked them for help. I think it would be rude of us to not trust them after all that."

"If the Young Master trusts them, I will also trust them."

"Here."

Feng Yuxiang took out the Spirit Jade from her spatial ring and tossed it at Gu Xiulan, treating it as though it was only a piece of candy.

Gu Xiulan's heart skipped a beat when she saw this, and she hastily caught the Spirit Jade, sighing in relief afterward.

"Even though you don't really deserve this Spirit Jade because I told you to find the Pill of Truth, and you only found information about it, I am feeling generous today." Feng Yuxiang said.

"T-Thank you, Esteemed Guest!"

Although the House of Riches is incredibly wealthy and 100 million spirit stones isn't much to them, it doesn't mean Gu Xiulan owns its wealth, as she is only a manager of this auction house. However, since this is a private deal between Feng Yuxiang and Gu Xiulan, she would be able to pocket all of the money to herself after paying the people she asked for help.

"Shall we go now, Young Master?" Feng Yuxiang asked him.

"Yes, let's—"

"P-Please wait!" Gu Xiulan suddenly stopped them.

"What do you want?" Feng Yuxiang asked.

"I know I shouldn't stick my nose into your business, and I have no intention to, but I have some additional information for you. Of course, this is on the house and you don't need to pay me for it."

Feng Yuxiang narrowed her eyes and said, "So you withheld information about the Pill of Truth from us?"

"N-No! That's not it! This is a completely different matter!" She immediately refuted such claims.

"In case you don't already know about my background, I am actually from the Seven Legacy Families—the Gu Family. According to what I've been told, the Gu Family from the Lower Heavens had been robbed by someone named 'Yuan'."

"Oh? Is that so?" Yuan remained calm even after hearing such information.

"How did you know I was 'Yuan'? I don't remember giving you my name."

Feng Yuxiang narrowed her eyes at Gu Xiulan, who swallowed nervously.

'If I answer wrongly, I will be killed!' She cried inwardly.

"T-That's because the Gu Family from the Lower Heavens also gave us descriptions of you. I noticed it at first during our first encounter, but I didn't think it was you at that time. After the Flood Dragon's Scale auction, Senior Nie told me your name, and that's when I realized it."

"Senior Nie? Oh, right. He was there as well." Yuan remembered seeing Senior Nie after the auction.

"And you haven't told the Gu Family about us? Why not?" Feng Yuxiang suddenly asked.

"Honestly, I don't want to help those idiots from the Lower Heavens. I don't know why you decided to rob them when you can easily hand out 100 million spirit stones without any hesitation, but that's none of my business. They probably even deserved it."

"I see... And how is their search going?" Feng Yuxiang then asked.

"They're still looking. It's not easy looking for people based on just their names and description, especially if they're not natives of this world, after all. In fact, it would be easier to find a needle in a haystack the size of a mountain."

"Thank you for this information, but I must clear up something. We didn't rob them." Yuan said.

"Huh? You didn't? So they lied?" Gu Xiulan was left speechless by this information.

"It was a donation. They donated their treasures to me after I punished them a little for trying to take my friend by force. That's all there is to it." Yuan said with a smile.

"I-I see... In that case, they definitely deserved it. I apologize for sticking my nose into your business. Once again, thank you for the Spirit Jade and trusting me. I hope to do business again with you in the future." Gu Xiulan bowed to them.

Yuan and Feng Yuxiang left the House of Riches shortly after, returning to the hotel.

Chapter 878 - Hidden Formation

"What should we do about the Gu Family, Young Master?" Feng Yuxiang asked him after they left the House of Riches.

"It's simple. We will do nothing." Yuan said.

"First of all, they don't even know about our location or our identity. We're also leaving this world soon, so unless they somehow manage to find us before then, there's no point to even think about it."

"If they somehow manage to find us... We'll deal with it then."

"I understand." Feng Yuxiang nodded and said nothing else.

After returning to the hotel, Yuan logged off.

"I'll see you guys later. I have some business that I need to take care of, so I won't appear for a while. Don't worry, it won't be longer than a few days." Yuan said to Xiao Hua and the others before logging off.

Once he returned to his world, Yuan picked up his phone and dialed a certain number.

"Hello? Manager? This is Yuan. I'd like to speak with the Lord. Please schedule an appointment for me." Yuan said.

"No. The Lord doesn't do appointments. He will call you when he needs you." The Manager coldly refused.

"Don't be so cold. This is about the demons in the mountain. Of course, if you want somebody else to deal with them, I will stop bothering you."

"..."

The Manager was dead silent for a good moment before she spoke, "I will speak with the Lord."

Di.

She immediately hung up afterward.

'She really hates me, huh?' Yuan chuckled inwardly.

'What should I do now while I wait for a response?'

However, before he could even think of anything, his phone began ringing again.

"Hello?"

"Get ready. I am coming to pick you up now." The Manager said.

"You already spoke to the Lord? It hasn't even been a minute since our last conversation—"

Di.

The Manager closed the connection before he could even finish his sentence.

Yuan quickly got dressed and went outside to wait for the Manager after leaving behind a note for Chu Liuxiang, who was diligently cultivating in the balcony.

About ten minutes after their phone call, the Manager showed up in front of Yuan's living quarters.

"Let's go." She said.

"You know, you don't have to pick me up everytime. I know the way by now." Yuan suddenly said to her.

The Manager stopped walking and turned to look at him with a serious face.

"Do you really know the way?"

"Of course." He nodded.

"Then you can take the lead," she said, even gesturing for him to walk ahead of her.

Yuan merely smiled and began walking in front of her.

About half an hour later, Yuan stopped walking, and he looked at the road in front of him with a pondering face.

"What's the matter? Why did you stop?" The Manager asked him.

"We should've arrived at the peak of the mountain by now, but I cannot see the peak nearby even with my divine sense."

"Ridiculous." The Manager scoffed.

"Wait." Yuan suddenly said.

After a moment of silence, he smiled, "I see... No wonder why you told me to lead you. There's a powerful formation that keeps others from ever reaching the peak, am I right?"

The Manager narrowed her eyes slightly.

"Not bad. Now you know why I have to take you there. Besides the Lord and myself, the formation will keep all existence away from the peak."

"I understand now, but I still want to try to reach the peak." Yuan said, dumbfounding the Manager.

"Did you not hear what I just said?" She frowned afterward.

"I heard you loud and clear. Now that I understand it, I can deal with it. As long as I can figure out the trick to this formation, I should be able to reach the peak without your help."

"I would love to see you try, but we don't have the time for that. The Lord is waiting for you. If you make him wait too long..."

"Don't worry, this won't take too long." Yuan said as he took a seat on the street.

"..."

Even though the Manager was confident that Yuan would not be able to bypass the formation, she couldn't help but stare at him with interest.

Meanwhile, Yuan studied the formation with his divine sense.

'This formation is well hidden. It's no wonder why I didn't see it at first. Unless you're actively looking for it, you will most likely miss it— No, it actively tries to disguise itself, so you won't find it even if you know about its existence.'

'Formations... Although they are not considered arrays due to their size and complexity, they function about the same.'

Five minutes later, Yuan stood up and turned to look at the Manager with a smile on his face.

'N-No way... Did he really manage to crack the formation? And in such a short time?' She wondered inwardly, even feeling a little excited.

However, what came out of Yuan's mouth a second later made her fume in anger.

"You were right, I couldn't crack it. Sorry." Yuan said with a playful smile on his face.

"Y-You little bastard..." The Manager's eyebrows twitched aggressively, and her face twisted in anger.

"How dare you mess with me! If the Lord wasn't waiting for you, I wouldn't hesitate to beat you up right now! Hmph!" The Manager snorted before stomping ahead of him.

Yuan shrugged and said, "I'm not trying to make any excuses for myself by saying this, but the reason I couldn't crack the formation is because I don't recognize half of the array symbols that make up the formation. If I understood the symbols, I would've been able to crack it."

"Judging by the complexity of these symbols, they're probably level 4 or 5 array symbols. I only know up to level 3 and a little of level 4 array symbols. Once I learn level 4 and level 5 array symbols, I will try again."

"Whatever." The Manager said.

Even though Yuan wasn't able to crack the formation on his first attempt, the Manager was still impressed that he'd even managed to see the formation in the first place. Of course, she would never admit that she was impressed by him, even if she was threatened with death.

Chapter 879 - How Confident Are You?

Five minutes after the Manager took back the lead, they arrived at the peak of the Dragon Spiral Mountain.

Yuan immediately walked to the cave and stood in front of it.

"Did something happen on your way here? You're late." The Lord's voice resounded from deep within the cave a moment later.

"Not really. I wanted to try cracking the formation that is protecting this place." Yuan said with a calm smile.

The Lord was surprised by his words and couldn't find any words for a good moment.

"Hahaha!" He suddenly started laughing.

"So you found the formation, huh? Not bad! Not bad at all!"

After getting a good laugh, the Lord continued, "So, what business do you have with me— with the demons?"

"It's nothing that important, but it's about time I deal with those pests. It doesn't feel good knowing that you're living so close to demons, you know? It's like living in a house with the knowledge that there are insects dwelling in your basement. It makes my skin crawl just thinking about it." Yuan said.

"..."

The Lord didn't immediately respond, but he could tell that something had changed about Yuan, who appeared to be a totally different person right now.

"You say you want to deal with them, but how are you going to achieve that?" The Lord asked a moment later.

"It's simple. I will drag them out of the mountain and deal with them one by one. After all, there's no reason why we should wait for them to break out of their seal. The best time to strike is when they're sealed and unable to defend themselves."

"That is an interesting but reckless plan. How confident are you? Can you say with certainty that you can defeat the demons at your current state without any troubles?"

"Yes, I can, and I won't be fighting them myself. The Demon Sealing Faction will also be there."

"How daring... and risky." The Lord said in a pondering voice.

"They will eventually break out of their seals, and that day is not far in the future. We can train until we collapse everyday until they break out of their seal, but I doubt it would make that much of a difference."

"While there is truth in your words, I don't know if I can completely trust you. What if you fail to kill the demons and they destroy my precious mountain?"

"If you don't trust my abilities, then why did you even ask me to deal with your demon problem?" Yuan said as he calmly stared into the pitch-black cave.

"This and that are two different matters. You're being impatient right now, and you're acting differently than usual. I don't know if I can trust you in your current state." The Lord said.

Yuan sighed after hearing the Lord's words.

"Fine. Then you can find someone else to deal with the demons. The Demon Sealing Faction will move out of the Dragon Spiral Mountain as soon as possible since I won't be able to fulfill your request."

And without waiting for the Lord's response, Yuan turned around and began walking away.

"You insolent brat!" The Manager shouted at him.

However, Yuan ignored her and continued walking.

"Where do you think you're going?"

An immense pressure suddenly appeared from the Lord's cave, halting Yuan's movements.

"Did you already forget about the formation? It works both ways, so you won't be able to leave here by yourself." The Lord said in a cold voice.

Yuan turned to look at the cave in a stiff manner with the pressure making it hard for him to move.

"Judging by your aura, you're probably a Spirit Emperor... Perhaps even a Spirit Sovereign. However, that should be impossible with the quality of spiritual energy in this world even if you cultivated for millions of years—that is if you cultivated in this world."

"You... You're not from this world, are you? Let me guess... You're from Cultivation Online— or should I call it the Nine Heavens?"

The Lord's pressure suddenly disappeared, and the place became dead silent.

The Manager was also staring at Yuan with a profound frown on her face, seemingly trying to come to a conclusion.

Yuan turned to look at the Manager after sensing killing intent from her.

"I know you hate me, but I didn't think you hate me enough to want to kill me. However, are you sure you really want to do that?"

"I am no match for a Spirit Emperor with my current strength, much less a Spirit Sovereign, so I am currently at your mercy. However, if you kill me, you can kiss the Dragon Spiral Mountain goodbye when the demons come out of their seals."

Yuan suddenly laid on the ground and spread his limbs out like he was stretching.

"Go ahead. Kill me. I won't defend myself."

"Stand down, Liya." The Lord's voice resounded, breaking the awkward silence.

And he continued, "You... Who are you? You're not the Yuan I know."

Yuan smiled and said, "It's rude to ask for one's identity while being in a place where they cannot even see you, much less identify you."

"I have my circumstances." The Lord said.

"What a coincidence. I also have my circumstances. However, I can tell you that I am indeed Yuan. Whether you believe me or not... I don't care."

After another long moment of silence, the Lord spoke, "I will ask you again. How confident are you? Can you promise me that you won't mess this up? The Dragon Spiral Mountain is much more important than you can ever imagine. If the demons destroy it, it will be the end of this world."

Yuan raised his eyebrows after hearing the Lord's seemingly outrageous claims.

"I won't make any promises, but I can say with confidence that I have never lost to a demon before." Yuan said, not counting his defeat in the Demon Sealing Pagoda.

A defeated sigh echoed from the cave a moment later.

"Very well. Do as you please. However, if you screw up, I will personally kill you even if it's the last thing I do." The Lord said.

Chapter 880 - 26 Days

"Good. Now that it's been decided, I want to see the demons right now." Yuan said.

"Bring him to the demons. And don't do anything funny, Liya." The Lord said to the Manager.

"I won't." She said in a nonchalant voice.

"Follow me."

Yuan nodded and silently followed the Manager to the area with the 11 demons.

Once they arrived, Yuan began analyzing the demons one by one by putting his hand onto it and checking their prowess.

Some minutes later, Yuan pointed at a specific demon and said to the Manager, "I want this demon. Can you deliver it to the back of my house by this afternoon?"

The Manager frowned and said, "Are you insane? What do you think this place is? A convenience store where you can buy demons and have them delivered?"

"Well... I don't mind taking care of the demons here, but are you sure you want that? It's going to get messy, and we could accidentally break the other demons out of their seal in the process."

"Although I don't care if the Dragon Spiral Mountain is destroyed or not, I don't think the Lord will like that very much."

"Che." The Manager coldly snorted.

"Fine, we will deliver it to you by this afternoon. What else do you want?"

Yuan suddenly summoned the Empyrean Overlord and began writing on the ground in front of the sealed demons, numbering them from one to eleven in addition to dates.

"The numbers dictate the order these demons will break out of their seal, and the date is the exact day they will break out of their seal. I want you to deliver the demons three days prior to their dates. Simple, right?"

The Manager didn't say anything at first and walked around to look at the dates.

"The first demon to break out of their seal is in 5 days, and the last demon will break out of their seal in 26 days... We have less than a month to deal with all 11 demons?" The Manager mumbled, sounding slightly worried.

She turned to look at Yuan and asked, "How accurate are your accessements?"

"Although I can't tell the exact second the demons will break out of their seal until the very last few hours, I am confident that they will break out on those days. However, just in case, I want you to bring them to me three days prior to their dates." Yuan said.

"And what are you going to do once I deliver these demons to you?" The Manager continued to ask.

Yuan smiled and said, "You're free to stay behind and experience it with your very own eyes."

"I will be doing that even without needing you to tell me."

"Great. Then I will see you in a few hours." Yuan said as he walked towards the exit.

Once they returned to the Lord, Yuan said, "I am going to return home for now to prepare."

"You can ask for the details from her." He pointed at the Manager.

"Liya, show him the exit." The Lord said.

The Manager then led Yuan until they left the formation.

"See you later, Liya." Yuan chuckled.

"I don't recall giving you the permission to use my name." The Manager frowned.

"What's the harm? I have a feeling that we'll become friends in the near future, so we might as well start now."

"In your dreams." The Manager sneered before leaving him to return to the peak of the mountain.

Once she returned to the Lord's side, she explained the situation to him.

"I see... So we have 26 days to deal with the demons..."

The Manager then asked in a concerned voice, "Can we really trust him?"

After a moment of silence, the Lord spoke, "Although I don't know what had happened to him to cause such a drastic change in personality, he's definitely more formidable than before. And we're in no position to be picky. We have no choice but to trust him for now."

The Manager then said in a low voice, "When he was with the demons earlier, I could smell anger and hatred in his scent. I don't want to trust him, but I believe that he truly despises demons for some reason."

"That's good enough for me." The Lord said.

Meanwhile, after returning to his home, Yuan called for everyone in the Demon Sealing Faction.

Once everyone was gathered, Yuan said to them, "This is a little sudden, but I need you all to prepare yourselves."

"What happened?" Wu Zao asked.

"We're going to be fighting a demon soon," he replied in a calm voice.

"What?! A demon?!" They all exclaimed.

"This is certainly very sudden! Where are we going to fight the demon?" Wang Ming asked.

"Here. In our backyard."

"What...?"

Their eyes widened with shock after hearing such words.

"The Manager will be delivering a demon to our backyard later this afternoon, and I am going to let you all fight it." Yuan revealed another piece of shocking information.

"W-Wait. You're going to make us fight the demon?" Shi Lang swallowed nervously.

"Yes. You can't expect me to fight all of the demons by myself, right? Although I can certainly kill all of the demons by myself, that would make your efforts pointless."

"You all learned demon sealing techniques for a reason, or am I wrong?"

"No, you're right." Wang Bingbing said with a resolute expression on her face.

"Don't worry, I won't force you to fight if you don't want to."

"I will fight!" Wang Ming immediately said.

"Me too." Xi Murong raised his hand.

Once everyone there agreed to fight, Yuan nodded and said, "Good, then meet me in the backyard this afternoon."

The others immediately stormed off to prepare for the fight.

"Are you two okay?" Yuan asked Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang afterward.

"I would be lying if I said that I'm perfectly fine, but I am not afraid. After all, you're going to be there, right?" Chu Liuxiang said.

"Of course." Yuan nodded.

"Then there's nothing for me to be worried about! I am going to prepare!" Chu Liuxiang said before she left to prepare.

Chapter 881 - Tian Chenyu

Chapter 881: Tian Chenyu

"What about you? Are you feeling okay?" Yuan asked Meixiu, who was the only one left there.

"Just a little nervous," she said.

"Don't worry, you'll be fine. You might be startled by the demon's appearance and aura at first, but remember, you have trained under my killing intent." Yuan smiled.

"Un." She nodded.

Once Meixiu also left to prepare, Yuan returned to his room and sat on the balcony with a zither in his lap, and for the next few hours, until it was time to gather at the backyard, he would play with the zither that once belonged to Azure.

'Two... I have already lost two people that were precious to me to demons. There will not be another... I will do everything in my power to kill all demons.' Yuan sighed inwardly as he recalled his memories as Tian Chenyu.

Sitting atop a small green hill were two figures, a young man and a young lady, both seemingly around 16 years old.

The young man had a scroll in his grasp and appeared to be studying its contents with great focus. Meanwhile, sitting right beside him, the young lady appeared to be fiddling with flowers.

"Chenyu! Look!" A sweet but clear voice resounded.

"What is it?" Tian Chenyu responded without looking away from the scroll.

"I said look, not listen! Come on! You won't die if you stop studying for a day!"

Tian Chenyu sighed and placed his scroll down before turning to look at the beautiful young lady sitting beside him.

"You know the scholar examination is next week. You even promised that you wouldn't bother me if I came out here with you. If I fail this examination, I will have to wait another four years before I can retake it."

"Don't be so stingy. Do you know how many people would die to spend time with me? You should consider yourself lucky that I chose you. And with your intelligence, I'm sure you can pass the examination even without studying."

"You chose me? Or do you mean our families chose each other?" Tian Chenyu shook his head.

Indeed, he was engaged to this young lady, but that was a decision made by their families.

"While that is true, I still have control over my own feelings, and I personally want to be with you," she said with a slightly rosy face.

"..." Tian Chenyu also began blushing, and the two of them would silently and awkwardly stare at each other for the next few seconds.

"A-Anyways! Look at this wreath I just finished! I made it using the flowers in this area. Isn't it beautiful?"

Tian Chenyu looked at the headdress made of white flowers in her hands and shrugged.

"Here, let me help you put it on."

"Who said I want to wear..."

Before Tian Chenyu could even finish his sentence, the young lady placed the wreath on his head.

"Hehe... You look even weaker than usual now..." She chuckled.

"So annoying..." Tian Chenyu mumbled to himself. However, despite his annoyance with her, he didn't remove the crown of flowers on his head.

Instead, he picked up his scroll and went right back to reading it.

The young lady smiled at his reaction, and then she positioned her body before laying her head on Tian Chenyu's legs.

Tian Chenyu acted as though he didn't even notice it and continued reading his scroll.

The two of them remained in that position for the next few hours until the sun was beginning to set.

"It's about time I go home. I won't be able to see you for another month because of my cultivation lessons, but I will come see you as soon as that is over."

"So I will have a month of peace, huh? It's been a while." Tian Chenyu said as he packed his scrolls and stood up.

"How horrible. Do you really hate being around me that much?" The young lady said with a puffed face as she tried to act angry.

"What do you think?" Tian Chenyu said.

She pondered for a moment before responding with a cheeky smile, "I think you love me but you're just too shy to admit it."

"Whatever." Tian Chenyu nonchalantly said, and he began walking down the hill.

"Wait for me!" The young lady quickly grabbed her stuff before chasing after him.

After walking for about 20 minutes, the two of them returned to the city.

"Chenyu, I know it'll only be a month, but promise me that you won't forget about me." The young lady suddenly said.

"Really?" Tian Chenyu looked at her with a weird face.

The young lady didn't respond and merely stared at him intently.

Tian Chenyu sighed and said, "I promise I won't forget you."

The young lady immediately smiled, "Then I will see you next month, darling!"

Tian Chenyu's entire body trembled when the young lady called him 'darling', but before he could even say anything, the young lady turned around and ran away with a flushed face.

After returning home, Tian Chenyu's father approached him and asked, "How was your day with Lady Ai Rong?"

"It was horrible, and I couldn't get any studying done. Why did you even agree to let me go out with her when you know my examination is next week?"

"How could I refuse such a beautiful young lady asking to spend time with my own son? I would lose my qualifications as a father if I refused."

"Whatever. I'm going back to my room to study. You don't have to cook my share for dinner tonight." Tian Chenyu said before disappearing into the house.

"He's still having difficulties expressing his emotions, huh?" A beautiful woman suddenly appeared and sighed.

"He's already finished his studies two months ago, yet he still pretends to be studying. Why can't he just be honest and accept his feelings for Lady Ai Rong?" Tian Chenyu's father sighed.

"Lady Ai Rong, on the other hand, is very expressive and honest about her feelings for him. It feels like their role as a man and woman are flipped.

What a troubled young man my son is..." The woman sighed as well.

Chapter 882 - Fascinated

Chapter 882: Fascinated

After returning to his room, Tian Chenyu dropped the scrolls on the floor and went straight to his bed.

He laid down and proceeded to stare at the ceiling with a blank look on his face.

'Why can't I be honest whenever I am with her? What's wrong with me?' He sighed inwardly as Ai Rong's face appeared inside his head.

He eventually fell asleep on his bed thinking about his day with Ai Rong, and while he slept, he would continue to dream of their time together.

A week later, Tian Chenyu left his house early to take the scholar examination.

While Ai Rong wanted to become a cultivator, Tian Chenyu wanted to follow his father's path as a scholar.

Of course, Ai Rong has tried to convince Tian Chenyu to become a cultivator with her, but he did not like violence, and with cultivators being symbolic of violence in his era, it was near impossible to convince him to become a cultivator.

Once he arrived at the site of the examination, Tian Chenyu went inside and immediately began his examination.

The examination consisted of many complicated and philosophical questions that could take six hours to complete even for talented individuals.

However, when Tian Chenyu took the examination, it took him less than an hour to finish, shocking everyone there.

"That was Tian Aowei's son, Tian Chenyu, right? I have heard about his talents, but I didn't think he would be this crazy..."

"Looks like his father will finally have a rival."

Tian Chenyu immediately returned home after finishing his examinations.

"You're back already?" Tian Aowei, his father, was surprised to see him back so soon.

"Yes, the examination was much easier than anticipated."

"Now that you're done with the examination, you'll have plenty of time to spend with Lady Ai Rong." His mother began to tease him.

"I-I don't even like—"

"Who do you think you're trying to fool? My 16 years of experience as your mother isn't for naught, Chenyu."

"Anyway, Lady Ai Rong is currently busy with her cultivation, but when she is finished, I want you to go see her. It's always Lady Ai Rong who visits you, so you're going to be the one to visit her this time, and I won't take no for an answer."

"Do you understand what I just said?"

"I understand..." Tian Chenyu nodded while sighing inwardly.

"Good."

Tian Chenyu returned to his room shortly after, but he quickly became bored.

'Although it can get quite annoying with her around, it's also incredibly boring without her...' He sighed.

'What am I going to do for the next three weeks? The examinations are over, and I don't feel like studying anymore.'

He suddenly turned to look at a certain object hanging behind his door.

That object was a sword. It was given to him by his parents just in case he needed to protect himself, but he has never used it before.

'Why would she want to become a cultivator? Cultivators are violent in nature, and they are at higher risk of being targeted by demons because their bodies absorb spiritual energy, so they are tastier than mortals who are without any spiritual energy to demons. I really don't understand her...'

'Fortunately for us, demons rarely come to this area, and when they do, they will eat a few dozen people before leaving us alone.'

Sometime later, Tian Chenyu sat before his study table and began flipping through pages of a book.

However, this book doesn't contain information that he would normally study.

'So this is what a demon looks like... I have never seen one before...' Tian Chenyu mumbled to himself as he read about demons.

'They are immortal beings that cannot be killed even if their heads and brains are crushed. You can cut their bodies in half and tear off all their limbs, but they will regenerate everything like nothing had even happened... Heavens... How do you even fight these monsters if they're so powerful?'

The more Tian Chengyu studied about demons the more intrigued and fascinated he became about their species, and it would quickly become his hobby to study about demons.

For the next three weeks, Tian Chenyu would study nonstop about demons until he read every book and scroll that existed within the city, and when he had nothing new to read, he would read through everything for a second and even third time.

After studying so much about demons, Tian Chenyu felt like he knew everything about demons. However, no matter how much he read about them, there was one thing that he could not understand.

'What is it like to encounter a demon?' He wondered.

Regardless how knowledgeable he was on demons, he could not understand what it would feel like to encounter a real demon.

Knock Knock

"Chenyu, are you awake?" His mother suddenly knocked on the door.

"Yes, I am."

"I just received news from the Ai Family that Lady Ai Rong will finish her cultivation lessons today. Do you remember what I told you three weeks ago?"

"Yes, I remember..." Tian Chenyu responded with a bittersweet smile on his face.

"Good, then go and fulfill your duties as her fiancée and as a man."

"I will."

Tian Chenyu said, and he left his room after cleaning his desk.

Right as he reached the doors, his mother showed up again and handed him a wooden basket, "Enjoy this food with the Ai Family."

"Okay."

"One more thing. Rumor has it that someone had spotted a demon near our city three days ago, so don't stay out too late. After all, if you encounter a demon, you are almost guaranteed to die."

"I know." Tian Chenyu accepted the basket and began making his way towards the Ai Family that was about an hour walk from his house.

About half way there, Tian Chenyu stopped walking when he heard someone shouting in a hysterical voice, "R-Run! A demon has appeared on the east side of the city, and it is going through houses, eating the families inside!"

'The east side...? That's where the Ai Family is located! Ai Rong!'

Upon realizing this fact, Tian Chenyu dropped the basket in his grasp and began running, but he was not going back home. Instead, he continued to make his way towards the Ai Family.

'Please be safe, Ai Rong!' He constantly prayed in his heart as he ran, tumbling to the ground multiple times on his way there.

Chapter 883 - Ai Rong

Chapter 883: Ai Rong

'Please be safe, Ai Rong! Please be safe! I promise that I will start being honest to you with my feelings!' Tian Chenyu continued to run towards the east side of the city even though he was already out of breath.

"Hide! A demon has appeared on the east side of the city!" The pedestrians shouted as they ran.

"Young man, where are you going?! That's the direction of the demon!"

Some of the pedestrians tried to stop Tian Chenyu, but he ignored all of their warnings and continued running.

A few minutes later, which felt like an eternity for Tian Chenyu, he finally arrived in the area where the Ai Family was located.

However, the place was awfully quiet, a stark contrast to the atmosphere on the other side of the city.

Tian Chenyu eventually arrived at the Ai Family's household, and he could even see their entrance.

However, he couldn't approach the household for some reason and could only stand a couple of houses away.

He eventually snapped out of his daze and proceeded walking towards the Ai Family's household.

But then he came to another halt when he noticed a figure appearing from within the household, and this person appeared to be running away from something.

When Tian Chenyu saw the pretty face of this person, a smile immediately appeared on his face.

'Ai Rong!'

Indeed, it was Ai Rong, his love since childhood and fiancée.

Tian Chenyu felt all of the weight on his shoulders disappear the moment he saw that Ai Rong was still alive. Even though she looked terrified and completely hysterical at this moment, that didn't matter to him.

However, before he could even sigh a breath of relief, and before the smile on his face could fully be formed, something red and long appeared behind Ai Rong, and it was flying towards her direction like a spear.

Before Tian Chenyu could even fully comprehend what he was seeing, the red spear reached Ai Rong and pierced her body from the back.

Ai Rong fell to the ground the very next moment and laid there, but she was still alive.

Seeing this, Tian Chenyu immediately began running towards her.

However, before he could even take two steps, he noticed a red figure appearing behind Ai Rong.

This figure had dark red skin, and it had the frame of a tall human adult. There was also a very distinct-looking horn poking from the right side of its head.

The moment Tian Chenyu saw this demon, his body froze, almost as though he'd turned into a stone statue.

'What are you doing, Tian Chenyu?! Move! Move, damn it!' He roared inwardly.

But no matter how much he tried to command his body to move, it simply refused to listen to him, so he could only stand there and watch as the demon slowly approached Ai Rong, who was squirming on the ground in a puddle of her own blood.

'No... Don't... Stop it... STOP IT!'

Tian Chenyu wanted to shout at the demon to stop, but no voices came out of his mouth.

Tears flowed from Tian Chenyu's eyes as he watched the demon open its grotesque mouth and clamp down on Ai Rong's legs before tearing it right off her body.

Ai Rong immediately screamed in pain, and her sharp and painful voice felt like daggers piercing his heart when it reached Tian Chenyu.

Meanwhile, the demon chewed on her leg and swallowed it within seconds.

"DELICIOUS!" The demon began laughing afterward, and it immediately went for another bite, taking another chunk of Ai Rong's flesh from her body.

However, Tian Chenyu could do nothing but watch in horror and fear.

Eventually, Ai Rong could no longer scream, so she just laid there as the demon continued to eat her body.

Once half of Ai Rong's body was consumed, Tian Chenyu noticed that Ai Rong was looking in his direction, and her lips appeared to be moving.

Tian Chenyu subconsciously read her lips, which said, "Chen...yu... R... u...n..."

After reading her lips, Tian Chenyu regained enough strength to move his arms, and he lifted his arms towards Ai Rong's direction, seemingly trying to reach for her.

Seeing Tian Chenyu's motion, a slight smile appeared on Ai Rong's face, and her lips continued to move, "I... love... you..."

"Goodbye..."

After saying her last words, the light in Ai Rong's eyes faded, and at the same moment, her life ended.

However, that didn't stop the demon from consuming the rest of her body. In the end, the demon consumed even the last drop of her blood from the ground.

After the demon finished eating Ai Rong, it turned around and went back inside the household.

Once the demon was no longer in his view, Tian Chenyu fell to his knees, and he would spend many minutes staring at the stained ground in front of the Ai Family's household.

The demon would end up eating everybody in the Ai Family and many other families before leaving the city unharmed.

Tian Chenyu wouldn't return home until it was past midnight, and when he did, his worried parents were there to greet him.

"Chenyu! Where have you been?! A demon had appeared in the city! We've been worried to death about you!" His mother immediately went to embrace him.

However, she stopped when there was no reaction from Tian Chenyu.

"C-Chenyu? What happened to you, dear?" She gasped in shock when she saw the blank look on Tian Chenyu's face.

Even though he was clearly alive, he also appeared to be dead at the same time, almost like a soulless vessel.

Tian Aowei then spoke in a low voice, "I had a bad feeling when I heard that the demon had appeared in the east side of the city..."

"Don't tell me... The Ai Family?!"

Realizing the truth, Tian Chenyu's mother embraced him even harder while crying at the same time.

"I'm sorry, Chenyu... I'm really sorry..."

Tian Chenyu eventually fell unconscious in his mother's embrace. When that happened, his family carried him to his bed so that he could rest, and they would call a doctor for him the following morning.

Chapter 884 - Tian Chenyu's Awakening

Chapter 884: Tian Chenyu's Awakening

"How is my son, doctor?" Tian Aowei asked after the doctor they hired to check on Tian Chenyu.

"Although there is nothing wrong with him physically, I am afraid that his mind is... lost..."

"W-What is that supposed to mean?! What will happen to my son?!" His mother immediately began crying again.

"He must have experienced something extremely traumatic very recently. That event has stressed his mind to its limits, putting him into a coma. I don't know when he'll wake up... if he'll even wake up... We can only hope for a miracle from the heavens at this moment." The doctor sighed.

"How can that be?!" His mother began crying even harder.

Even though Tian Chenyu was in a coma, his mind was actually conscious, so he was able to hear the doctor's words and his mother crying.

'What's the point of waking up if Ai Rong won't be there when I wake up...'
Tian Chenyu sighed inwardly as he fell deeper into his consciousness.

Days turned into weeks, and weeks turned into months, but there were still no signs of Tian Chenyu waking up from his coma.

Eventually, a whole year would pass without Tian Chenyu waking up even once. However, despite that, his family never gave up on him and took care of him daily.

One year turned into two years, and within the blink of an eye, three years have passed since Ai Rong's death.

"How long do you plan on sleeping?"

One day, an unfamiliar voice resounded inside Tian Chenyu's head, waking his consciousness a little.

'Who's there?'

"My identity isn't important. What's truly important here is you... Your future. Do you really plan on rotting away in your room as a nobody?" The voice returned.

"So what if I rot away? It's not like I have anything to live for anymore." Tian Chenyu sighed.

"How pathetic. You lose a woman and you give up life?"

"Shut up! Ai Rong wasn't just any woman! She was my woman! My childhood friend! My fiancée! My love!"

"Is that why you merely stood there when your love was slowly being consumed by that demon?"

"Is that really why you couldn't even utter a single word?"

"Is that why you didn't even try to help her?"

"There was nothing I could've done in that situation! I am a mortal! I am powerless! If I had the power..."

"So you're telling me that if you had the power that you would have saved her? I don't believe it. You may have been powerless, but you didn't even attempt to help her. You weren't just powerless. You were also spineless— a coward— and utterly useless."

Tian Chenyu couldn't refute the voice's ridicule and could only silently accept the mockery.

The voice would continue to mock Tian Chenyu for the next few minutes before disappearing.

However, the voice would return shortly after.

"I will ask you again. If you truly had the power to defeat demons... What would you do then?"

"If I had the power to defeat demons...?" Tian Chenyu repeated.

After a moment of silence, he would respond in a furious voice, "If I had the power, I would erase all demons from existence! I would become their worst nightmare! I would make them regret ever being born!"

"Is that so? I still don't believe you, but I will give you a chance to prove it."

"Wake up, Tian Chenyu!"

The voice disappeared after saying such words, and Tian Chenyu could suddenly feel a warm sensation coming from somewhere deep within his body, quickly enveloping his entire entity.

And before he was aware, his eyes that had been closed shut for over three years would suddenly open, revealing the world to him once again.

Tian Chenyu sat up on his bed and turned to look at the sword that was still hanging on his door.

He then got off the bed and walked to the sword, picking it up.

Despite having not moved his body for over three years, Tian Chenyu did not feel any fatigue in his body at all. In fact, he's never felt any better, even stronger than ever.

After staring at the sword for a moment, he walked to the center of the room and started swinging it around.

At first, his movements were completely amateurish, and his swings had no experience behind them. However, he would quickly improve.

His family eventually realized that their son had woken up from his coma when the servants passing through his room would hear noises coming from within.

"Chenyu! I have been so worried! Thank the heavens that you finally woke up! You have been in a coma for three years!" His mother was the first to barge into his room, and she cried for many minutes while hugging him.

"Anyways, why are you swinging that sword around when you just woke up? You should rest some more... I will immediately call for a doctor."

"Rest? I have rested enough." Tian Chenyu said in a nonchalant voice.

"Please leave me alone."

He then forced everyone out of his room before continuing to swing his sword.

"Chenyu?! What's the matter?!"

"Give him some time. He may have woken, but his heart and mind is still..." Tian Aowei sighed.

"Alright..."

However, neither Tian Chenyu's father or mother could have anticipated that 'some time' would actually last much longer than his coma.

Days turned into months, and months turned into years.

Within the blink of an eye, 20 years have passed since Tian Chenyu's awakening.

During this time, Tian Chenyu would remain inside his room doing heaven-knows-what for the majority of the time, and the only times he could be seen outside his room are during times when he needed to clean his body because the stench from his body became too unbearable.

As for his parents, they would continue to support him however they could even when they barely saw or spoke to each other. When Tian Chenyu began requesting for information on demons, they went out of their way to collect books and scrolls about demons from other cities.

They would gather so many books and scrolls that they had to build multiple storage units around their house just to keep the books from cluttering the house.

Chapter 885 - I Am Tian Chenyu!

"How long do we have to continue this lifestyle? It's been twenty years since that incident, and I have barely seen my son since then. Although I am happy that he's no longer in a coma, this isn't that much different. I can even count the amount of times we've talked to each other during the past 20 years..." Tian Chenyu's mother sighed out loud, complaining to her husband, Tian Aowei.

"It can take years if not decades for a broken heart to heal. We must be patient," he said.

"What if he never recovers? We're not cultivators. We don't have hundreds of years to spend with each other."

"Then what do you suggest? We cannot force his heart to heal. Or what, do you want another son? Although you're past that age, it's not impossible."

"What? No! I don't want another son! How can you even suggest that? If you're suggesting that we replace Chenyu with another son, how is that any different than abandoning Chenyu?!"

"Calm down, I was just being sarcastic. But there is truly nothing we can do now but be patient."

"It might seem like he's not recovering, but that is not true. Things are much better now than 20 years ago. Nowadays, he leaves his room once a week, but back then, it would be a miracle to see him outside his room even once a month."

"At this rate, I will be an old lady before we can become a real family again."

"Better late than never, right?"

"I guess so..."

"By the way, it's almost that time of the year again. Do you think he'll visit their graves this year?" Tian Aowei suddenly asked.

"Unlikely." She sighed.

"Do you think he'll ever fall in love again? That's another problem we must worry about— our grandchildren..."

"Who knows..." Tian Aowei shook his head.

"Anyways, it's getting late. Goodnight, dear."

"Goodnight."

A week later, right as the Tian Family prepared to visit the Ai Family's gravesites, they received dreadful news that changed their plans.

"What? Demons have entered the city? When did this happen? How many?" Tian Aowei asked the servant who told him the news.

"A-About an hour ago! And there are three demons! They are rampaging the city even as we speak!"

"Shit! Why did they have to show up today on all days?!" Tian Aowei cursed out loud.

And he continued, "Let everyone in the household know about the situation! We will hide underground for the next three days!"

"Yes!"

While the servants in the household began scrambling towards the underground area beneath the Tian Family's household that was created to hide from demons, Tian Aowei and his wife went to warn Tian Chenyu of the situation.

"Chenyu! Hurry up and open the door! Demons have invaded our city, and there are three of them! We must hurry and hide underground until they leave!" His mother banged on his door that was locked shut.

However, there was no response from Tian Chenyu, almost as though he wasn't inside his room.

"Chenyu! Are you asleep?! Wake up!" His mother continued banging on his door.

"Where's Chenyu?!" Tian Aowei showed up shortly after and asked her.

"I don't know! He should be in his room, but he's not responding! What if something had happened to him?!"

"Shit! We don't have much time left! Move! I am going to break down his door!" Tian Aowei said as he approached Tian Chenyu's room.

However, right as he stood in front of the door, the ground suddenly shook, and a loud noise resounded behind them simultaneously.

Tian Aowei and his wife slowly turned around to see a tall shadow standing in a cloud of dust about 20 meters from them.

Once the dust cloud disappeared, the figure within became visible.

'A-A demon?! We're dead!' Tian Aowei cried inwardly as his body trembled in fear from the demon's aura that radiated with killing intent.

"N-No... Not like this..."

His wife directly fell to her knees and began crying the moment she saw the demon.

Once the demon noticed their presence, it began walking towards their direction.

"Mortals, huh? I would've preferred cultivators, but I guess you'll do just fine as an appetizer before my main meal."

The demon licked its lips as it closed their distance within seconds.

Tian Aowei and his wife remained frozen as the demon stood right before them, as they were too terrified to even run away.

"I love you, darling..." Tian Aowei mumbled in a low voice as the demon opened its mouth.

However, just as the demon tried to take a bite of Tian Aowei's face, a cold voice resounded from the room behind them.

"The stench of a demon... How unpleasant."

The door behind Tian Aowei and his wife suddenly flew open, and Tian Chenyu appeared from the room with a sword in his grasp, stabbing the demon right in its mouth.

After sticking his sword in the demon's face, Tian Chenyu kicked the demon in its stomach, sending it flying.

"It's dangerous here. You two should leave." Tian Chenyu said to his parents without looking at them.

"C-Chenyu?!" They stared at him with shocked looks on their faces.

Tian Aowei quickly snapped out of his daze and picked up his wife before running away.

"W-Wait! We cannot leave him with the demon! He'll die!" His wife shouted.

However, Tian Aowei ignored his wife and continued to carry her away from the scene.

The moment Tian Chenyu's parents left, the demon got back to its feet and stared at Tian Chenyu while baring its sharp teeth at him.

"A mere mortal! How dare you!" The demon roared before running at him.

Seeing the demon running at him, Tian Chenyu's hands and legs began to tremble uncontrollably.

However, he quickly regained control over his body, swinging the sword in his grasp at the incoming demon.

Due to its arrogance, the demon didn't even bother to block Tian Chenyu's strike and allowed him to sever its arm.

"Useless! It's useless! Even if you cut me into a million pieces with that sword, I will fully recover within seconds like nothing ever happened!" The demon laughed madly as Tian Chenyu severed its other arm.

"Why don't we put that to the test?" Tian Chenyu said in a calm voice.

He then severed the demon's legs.

"I told you, it's useless!" The demon continued to laugh.

However, it stopped laughing a few moments later when its limbs still hadn't recovered.

'W-What's going on?! Why isn't my body recovering?!' The demon was puzzled, but it didn't panic— at least not yet.

It turned to look at its severed arms and legs, and to its absolute shock, its limbs had suddenly turned into stone!

"W-What is the meaning of this?! What did you do to me?!" The demon roared at Tian Chenyu, who was standing in front of it and looking down on it like it was trash.

"What did I do? Nothing much. I simply sealed your body, preventing it from regenerating... I think. This is actually my first time doing something like this, so I am really glad that it's working as I'd thought."

"Y-You sealed my body and my ability to regenerate? I-Impossible! There's no way humans could have such power! Who are you?!"

"I am the one who will be hunting down every single demon in this world until there are none of you left. I am the one who will put an end to this era of demons terrorizing humans. I'm your— demons' worst nightmare. I am Tian Chenyu!" Tian Chenyu said with a cold expression on his face.

Chapter 886 - This Is Just the Beginning

The demon stared at Tian Chenyu with a stunned face after hearing his introduction.

But after a moment of silence, it suddenly burst out laughing, "Hahaha! You will hunt us down?! Hahaha! This is the funniest joke I have heard all century!"

After laughing for a good moment, it suddenly stopped laughing and proceeded to glare at Tian Chenyu with a threatening gaze.

"Who the fuck do you think you are, human?! I don't know what trick you used to prevent my body from healing, but I doubt it'll last for long! And even if you take away our regeneration temporarily, you still won't be able to kill us!"

"You're right." Tian Chenyu responded after a moment of silence.

"I don't have the means to kill you efficiently for now, but I will eventually find a way. Until then... I will just keep you sealed."

"Keep dreaming! Humans will forever be dominated by demons! You will forever remain as our livestock! It has been that way for thousands of years now! It won't suddenly change because you learned some new tricks!"

"Hahaha!" Tian Chenyu suddenly started laughing.

"What's so funny?!" The demon growled.

"I can't believe I used to be so afraid of demons. If only I had realized this earlier... Realized how truly pathetic demons are..."

"Anyways, before I seal you for good, I have a question for you. Do you know of any one-horned demons? It has a black horn on the right side of its head, and the horn has this weird zigzagging structure."

"If you tell me, I just might spare you."

"Hahaha! Go fuck yourself, you damn livestock!" The demon laughed in response.

"Is that so?" Tian Chenyu closed his eyes and took a deep breath.

"I still haven't come up with a good name for this technique yet, but what's the point of overthinking it? Let's just call it... Demon Sealing Strike."

Once he opened his eyes, Tian Chenyu brandished the sword in his grasp at the demon, decapitating the demon's head from its limbless body.

Shortly after the demon's head fell to the ground, its body and head turned into stone, coming fully sealed.

After sealing the demon, Tian Chenyu fell to his knees, and his body began trembling again.

He looked at his hands that were shaking nonstop.

'I did it... I have defeated a demon... I am no longer powerless...'

Tears flowed from his eyes, as he's been waiting for this moment for over 20 years.

However, he wasn't satisfied just yet. In fact, he was far from satisfied.

"This is just the beginning..." Tian Chenyu narrowed his eyes on the sealed demon.

"Now then... There should be two more demons rampaging in this city..."

After taking a deep breath, he stood back up and started making his way towards the exit.

"C-Chenyu!"

His mother suddenly appeared and embraced him.

"Are you okay?! Are you hurt?! What happened to the demon?!" She asked him.

"The demon? I took care of it."

"Y-You took care of it? How is that possible? You're just a mortal. You have never cultivated before... No mortal can possibly fight a demon, much less defeat it!" Tian Aowei appeared and said.

"You don't have to believe me. You can take a look at the demon yourself. It's right over there. Don't worry, it won't be able to harm you. In the meantime, I have two more demons to take care of, so if you don't mind, I'd like to excuse myself."

"W-What?! You plan on fighting the other demons as well?! That's too reckless! I won't let you go!" His mother embraced him even harder, refusing to let him go.

"I'm sorry, mother, but I have to go. This is the only reason I woke up from my coma, after all." Tian Chenyu said as he escaped her grasp.

"Chenyu..."

After Tian Chenyu left, his parents went to look at the sealed demon.

"Heavens... Is this really the same demon that attacked us just now? It... turned into stone..." Tian Aowei stared at the demon that had all of its limbs and head severed with a shocked face.

"D-Did Chenyu really do this...? How in heaven's name did he...?" His mother mumbled in a dazed voice.

"I guess he didn't spend 20 years in solitude for nothing..." Tian Aowei sighed.

After leaving his home, Tian Chenyu followed the demons' stench until he encountered the second demon.

When he arrived, it was chewing on the leg of a child.

The demon glanced at Tian Chenyu when it noticed his presence, and it spoke, "I'll eat you next, so stand there and wait for me. If you dare run, I will make your death more painful—"

However, before it could even finish its sentence, Tian Chenyu kicked the rock beside his feet, sending it flying at the demon and hitting it right in the face.

The demon stopped chewing for a moment before tossing away the half-eaten leg in its grasp and turning to look at Tian Chenyu.

After swallowing, it spoke in a grim voice, "How dare you, livestock... You're fucking dead!"

The demon started running at Tian Chenyu with its mouth wide open and dripping with saliva and blood.

Seeing this, Tian Chenyu took a deep breath before confronting the demon with his sword.

"Hahaha! What do you hope to achieve with that cheap sword?!" The demon laughed as it clawed at Tian Chenyu with its sharp fingers while taking all of his sword strikes head-on with its body.

'W-What's going on? Why is my body feeling stiff?' The demon wondered as it continued to attack Tian Chenyu.

However, by the time the demon realized what was happening to its body, it was already too late.

"What is this?! What did you do to my body?!" The demon roared at Tian Chenyu as it laid before him with most of its body turned into stone.

But instead of answering its question, Tian Chenyu asked, "Do you know any demons with a single zigzagging horn on the right side of its head?"

Chapter 887 - Tian Chenyu's Decision

"A demon with a zigzagging horn?" The demon mumbled in a low voice.

After a moment of silence, a wide grin appeared on its face, and it said, "Now that you mention it, I might have seen a demon like that before. Why do you care? Oh, let me take a guess. Perhaps you lost someone valuable to this demon? Hahaha!"

"I see... So you don't know anything about this demon. Well, not that it really matters. I will eventually find it as I wipe you demons from this world, one by one."

Tian Chenyu flicked his arm the next moment, sending the demon's head into the air and completely sealing it with the Demon Sealing Strike.

'Two down, one more to go.'

Sometime later, Tian Chenyu followed the last demon's scent until he reached the other side of the city.

However, by the time he'd arrived, the demon had already erased six families from the city and was preparing to leave.

"Hey, where do you think you're going, you lowly demon?" Tian Chenyu approached the demon as it reached the city gates.

"What the fuck did you just call me, livestock?" The demon halted its movements and turned to look at Tian Chenyu with a grim expression.

"What's wrong? You don't like it? I think it's quite fitting."

"Die!"

The demon suddenly attacked him without any warning.

[Demon Sealing Strike!]

A powerful and threatening aura that the demon couldn't comprehend erupted from Tian Chenyu's body.

'What is this feeling? My skin is crawling. Is it because of his aura? I don't like this feeling one bit.'

This is the demon's first time experiencing such an eerie feeling, but it didn't understand why. After all, it's never experienced the feeling of fear before.

And because of its ignorance, the demon did not even bother to avoid Tian Chenyu's attacks.

'This feeling... It's becoming more intensive... Becoming more uncomfortable...'

The demon suddenly halted its movements.

'I... cannot move my body...?'

When it looked down, the demon could see that its right leg had completely turned into stone.

"What did you do to my body, livestock?! What did you do?!" The demon roared.

"How annoying. This is the third time I've heard such a question today." Tian Chenyu snorted.

"The third time?" The demon's eyes widened with shock upon realizing something.

"You... Don't tell me that you had..."

A wide smile appeared on Tian Chenyu's face as he spoke, "Don't worry, I took care of them before coming to you."

"YOU BASTARD! A MERE LIVESTOCK! HOW DARE YOU DEFY US —"

Tian Chenyu shoved his sword into the demon's mouth in the middle of its outcry.

"Shut up, you're too loud."

And without any hesitation, Tian Chenyu poured demon sealing aura into the demon's body through the sword stuck inside its throat.

Once the demon was completely sealed, Tian Chenyu began making his way back home, where his parents were anxiously waiting for him.

"Chenyu! You're fine!" His mother immediately went to embrace him.

"I'm sorry for making you worry."

"What happened to the other demons?" Tian Aowei asked him.

"I took care of them. They won't be able to hurt anyone else for a long time... I hope."

"You hope?" Tian Aowei raised his eyebrows.

"Anyways, let's sit down and talk. I have something I need to tell you guys."

"Y-You want to talk? Right now? Why don't you get some rest first? You seem tired." His mother said.

Tian Chenyu pondered for a moment before nodding, "Sure."

He then returned to his room to rest for the remainder of the day.

While Tian Chenyu rested, the entire city was in an uproar about the demons' invasion, and above all, they were confused by the outcome.

The three demons that invaded their city had somehow turned into stone, something that has never happened before. Nobody saw what happened because they were all hiding inside their homes, but news of the demons turning into stone began spreading throughout the city like wildfire, and it would eventually make its way to the nearby cities.

Once cultivators from outside the city heard of the rumors, they made their way to Tian Chenyu's city to see the sealed demons for themselves.

"Who did this to the demons?" This chapter is updated by f r e e w e b n o v e l . c o m

This question would become the most asked question in the city for the next few years.

Eventually, peak experts from all over the world would visit the city to study the sealed demons and to find the person responsible for the demons, as they believed that this person could help them fight the demons and stop their terror.

However, this would not happen until Tian Chenyu had long left the city.

The following day after Tian Chenyu sealed the three demons, he approached his parents and said to them, "Mother, father, thank you—thank you for everything that you've done for me."

"W-What's wrong, Chenyu? Are you okay?" His mother asked him, feeling that something was wrong about his behavior.

"I have made a decision—a decision that you might not support but must be done." Tian Chenyu said.

And he continued, "I have decided to erase all demons from this world, and in order to do that, I must leave home and go on a long, long journey. I don't know how long it will take or if I will ever return, and I know that this will make you unhappy, but I must do this."

"E-Erase all demons from this world? Do you have any idea what you're saying, Chenyu? There's no way that's possible!" His mother exclaimed.

"Whether it is possible or not, we won't know until I try. Even if it's impossible, I still have to try." Tian Chenyu remained firm on his decision.

"No! I won't allow it! This family is already crumbling as it is! If you leave, it will truly be destroyed—"

"Dear." Tian Aowei placed his hand on her shoulder and shook his head.

"Chenyu is no longer a child. If he's decided on a path, it is our duty as his parents to support it, even if we cannot comprehend it."

"In fact, this might be the only way for his heart to heal."

"Even if you say that, he'll die! Are you really fine with letting him walk a path that's clear suicide?!"

"He won't die. I believe in him. He's already defeated three demons by himself, after all. If anyone can defeat the Demon Clan, it's him."

Tian Aowei then turned to look at Tian Chenyu and said, "Can you leave us alone for a bit? I will talk it out with your mother."

"Okay." Tian Chenyu didn't say anything else and left his parents alone.

Once they were alone, Tian Aowei began trying to convince his wife to let their son leave.

Many hours later, they went to see Tian Chenyu, who was patiently waiting for them in his room.

"We've come to a conclusion." Tian Aowei said.

"Chenyu... Here, take this." His mother suddenly handed him a silver ring.

Tian Chenyu didn't ask any questions and accepted it.

"It's a spatial ring. It's a treasure often used by cultivators to store their luggage while they travel. It'll make your traveling a lot more convenient."

"Does this mean..."

"Yes, I— we both approve of your journey." His mother nodded with a gentle smile on her face.

Chapter 888 - The Beginning of an Everlasting Legend

"Thank you, father. Thank you, mother. I will not let you down." Tian Chenyu clenched the spatial ring in his grasp with teary eyes.

"Don't lose it, Chenyu. Since it was created for cultivators, it was extremely expensive. We'll probably have nothing but plain rice to eat for the rest of the month because of that ring." His father said in a joking tone.

And he continued, "Also, you don't need to feel bad about leaving us behind. You're leaving for a great cause. Go out there and make a name for yourself so that we can brag about our son to our neighbors."

"Your father is right, Chenyu. I was only thinking about myself before and didn't consider your feelings, so you don't have to worry about me. Although I would be lying if I said that I won't be lonely and sad with you gone, it's nothing I cannot handle."

Tian Chenyu nodded.

"I won't leave immediately, so until I leave, allow me to make up for the past twenty years as much as I can," he said a moment later.

Thus, Tian Chenyu began spending all of his time with his parents until the fateful day of his departure.

"Have you heard? The entire city is going crazy over the demons you defeated." Tian Aowei laughed as they ate dinner that night.

"I have this incredible urge to tell everyone that it was my son who did it, but I doubt anyone would even believe me."

"Father, mother, I should've told you this earlier, but you shouldn't reveal the truth to anyone. It could bring you trouble. The demons will also start looking for the one who's responsible sooner or later." Tian Chenyu warned them with a serious expression.

"Don't worry, we won't say anything. We're not that dumb."

A week later, Tian Chenyu finished packing for his journey and said his final goodbyes to his parents before leaving the city.

"Go make our ancestors proud, Chenyu." His father said after hugging him.

"We'll miss you very much. Make sure to send us letters whenever you can." His mother said as she hugged him.

"Goodbye, father. Goodbye, mother." He bid them farewell with teary eyes.

After leaving the city, Tian Chenyu walked to this massive graveyard that was located about ten miles away.

Once he found the gravesite he was looking for, Tian Chenyu knelt before it and placed a wreath made of white flowers onto the tombstone.

"I know I am a little late, but I couldn't bring myself to see you after what happened... until now. I hope you'll forgive me, Ai Rong."

Tian Chenyu proceeded to spend many hours talking to Ai Rong at her gravesite, telling her about his plans for the future and everything that he wanted but couldn't tell her before.

"Hey, Ai Rong, do you believe in reincarnation? I know this may sound silly, but I believe in it, and I believe that we will see each other again one day. p an da no v el I promise that no matter how long it takes that I will find you, and when I do, I will make you my wife— if you're willing to forgive me and still love me by then."

"And before I find you, there is something I must do. I must first cleanse this world of demons. I don't know how long it'll take or if it's even possible, but I will do my best."

"The next time we see each other, it will be in the flesh. I love you, Ai Rong. Until next time."

Once he was satisfied, Tian Chenyu stood up and took one last look at Ai Rong's tombstone before turning around and leaving the graveyard to go on his journey.

Unbeknownst to countless people, this was the beginning of an everlasting legend.

And shortly after Tian Chenyu left his home, he would make a name for himself by sealing demons wherever he went, but nobody would actually know his true identity until many years later.

"Yuan! We're ready!" Wang Ming's voice suddenly resounded from the backyard, waking Yuan from his daze.

He stopped playing his zither and responded, "I will be there in a minute."

After wiping the tears that had been dripping down his face for a while now, Yuan stowed Azure's zither in the closet and made his way to the backyard where the others were gathered with their weapons.

"Besides Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang, I believe this will be your first time seeing a demon. google p an da no v el It's going to be horrifying at first, and you might even feel like running away, but remember, as long as I am here, you'll be safe." Yuan said to them.

"Run away? I doubt it." Wang Ming said.

"Don't underestimate demons, Wang Ming. You'll understand what I mean when you see one." Yuan shook his head.

"Alright." He nodded.

Sometime later, the Manager arrived at their backyard while pushing a cart that was carrying a tall wooden box.

"Here's your demon." The Manager began glaring at Yuan the moment she arrived.

"Thank you, Liya."

"I thought I already told you to not call me by my name?" She frowned.

"Oh, really? I'm sorry, I must have forgotten. search p an da no v el " Yuan chuckled, which only irritated her even more.

He approached the wooden box a moment later and retrieved the demon from it.

"T-That's a demon?" Wang Ming swallowed nervously after seeing the demon's hideous appearance.

"If you're scared now, just wait until it is released from its seal." Yuan said with a smile.

"What are you going to do now?" The Manager asked him a moment later.

"Just watch."

Yuan carried the sealed demon with his Qi Manifestation, placing it in the middle of the training field.

[Demon Sealing Zone!]

He then created a Demon Sealing Zone that was around 75 meters in diameter with the demon at the center of it.

"Alright, everybody, I am going to give you a briefing on what's about to happen." Yuan gestured for the others to gather around him near the demon.

They swallowed nervously and approached Yuan and the ominous-looking demon.

Once everyone was gathered, Yuan began briefing them in a casual tone that made it seem like they were only going for a stroll in the park.

Chapter 889 - Practice Tool

"Once I unseal the demon, the nine of you will attack the demon and try to seal it again. The stronger your demon sealing aura, the quicker you will seal the demon. Once you're all confident in fighting the demon together, I will be splitting you all into smaller groups."

"Eventually, I want you guys to be able to fight the demons by yourself." Yuan said to them.

"By ourselves?" Shi Lang swallowed nervously.

"One more thing. The demon will obviously be fighting back. As long as its attack won't cause any lethal damage, I won't stop it, so don't expect me to help you block every strike."

"I will give you all a couple more minutes to prepare before I unseal the demon."

"How are we going to do this?" Wang Ming asked the others.

"Who knows. Let's just attack it whenever we get the chance." Shi Lang shrugged.

"Yuan, we're ready." Xi Murong said to him sometime later.

"Alright. I am going to unseal the demon now. Brace yourselves."

Right before he unsealed the demon, Yuan wore a mask over his face.

This puzzled the others, but they didn't have the time to ask him any questions, as the demon was freed from its seal the next moment.

"I AM FINALLY FREE! AHAHAHA!" The demon immediately began laughing the moment it left its seal.

"F-Fuck..." Wang Ming and the others could feel all of their strength and the courage they'd built up leaving their body when they felt the demon's bloodthirsty aura and heard its chilling voice.

Their bodies trembled uncontrollably, and their hearts throbbed erratically, like they were on the verge of having a heart attack.

"What are you all doing?! Stop standing there and attack it!"

Someone suddenly shouted at them, but it wasn't Yuan.

Instead, it was Chu Liuxiang, who was the first to make a move.

After shouting at the others, she held her palms towards the demon and released a blast of demon sealing aura at it.

The demon stopped laughing after Chu Liuxiang's attack struck it right in its face, blowing half of its face away.

Once it recovered the next second, the demon turned to look at her and narrowed its eyes, "Humans? No... Demon Sealers! As if I'd let you seal me again after I just broke out of my seal!"

The demon roared before running at Chu Liuxiang.

Whoosh!

An arrow that was enchanted with demon sealing aura suddenly flew at the demon from behind and stabbed it right in the back of its head.

However, the demon ignored Meixiu's attack and continued to run at Chu Liuxiang.

"Stand back!" Li Jinxi suddenly appeared before the demon and fearlessly blocked its path to Chu Liuxiang.

She swung her large sword at it, but the demon avoided it with ease.

Wang Ming and the others also snapped out of their daze and began attacking the demon together.

"A bunch of weaklings! So damn annoying!" The demon roared.

However, there was not much it could do to fight back, as it was severely outnumbered nine to one.

After fifteen minutes of relentless attacking from the Demon Sealing Faction, the demon was finally sealed again.

Seeing that the demon was finally sealed, Wang Ming and a few others immediately fell on their butt and began gasping for air.

"What do you think? Fighting a real demon." Yuan asked them afterward.

"I'm exhausted— mentally. I didn't think there would be such a vast difference between a sealed demon and an unsealed one..." Shi Lang said.

"I did warn you." Yuan smiled.

"Anyways, take an hour to rest. I will split you all into two groups, and you'll fight the demon again then."

While the others rested, the Manager approached Yuan and began shouting at him, "You're using the demon as a practice tool? Are you insane? You said that you'd take care of the demon as soon as possible!"

"Calm down. I have the demon and the situation under control. It won't be able to leave my Demon Sealing Zone."

"Also, this training is necessary for them. After all, what will happen to this world if I suddenly die? If I train them, this world won't be hopeless without me. Of course, I don't plan on dying before I erase all demons from this world, but you never know what fate has planned for you."

"Anyways, do you want to join them? I can teach you demon sealing techniques so that you can also fight demons." Yuan suddenly suggested.

"You want me to..." The Manager looked at him with wide eyes.

"What's wrong? The Lord asked for my help because neither of you can kill demons, right? If that's the case..."

"It won't work." The Manager suddenly interrupted.

"Huh? What do you mean?"

"If I could learn demon sealing techniques, I would've learned them long ago." The Manager said.

"So you tried to learn demon sealing techniques with the Qi Family but failed, huh? Don't worry, I am different from the Qi Family. If you study under my instructions, even a mortal can—"

"I said it's impossible." The Manager said, and without explaining further, she turned around and walked away.

Yuan immediately began pondering in silence about the Manager's words.

'There's only one reason why someone cannot learn demon sealing techniques...'

'I see... so that's why...'

A profound smile appeared on his face when he realized the truth.

The Manager stared at Yuan with a frown on her face.

'Why is he smiling? Did he realize it? No, that's impossible... There's no way...' She thought to herself.

An hour later, Yuan split the Demon Sealing Faction into two groups.

"First group will be Chu Liuxiang, Li Jinxi, Xi Murong, and Hong Xiuquan. The second group will be everyone else." Yuan said.

"The first group will go first. Everyone else, you can wait outside the Demon Sealing Zone for your turn."

"Whenever you guys are ready."

Once the first group was ready, Yuan unsealed the demon again.

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 890 - Backlash

"What is the meaning of this, humans?!" The demon roared when it was unsealed for the second time.

"Nothing much. I just figured you could assist me in training my friends. If you can defeat my friends, I will let you walk free." Yuan said.

"You think I will help livestock like—"

"Demon Sealing Pulse!"

Chu Liuxiang shot a wave of demon sealing aura at the demon, creating a hole in its chest.

"YOU FUCKING LIVESTOCKS! HOW DARE YOU MESS WITH ME!?"

The demon released its loudest roar yet.

Its body suddenly began growing larger, and its killing intent soared.

It was enraged.

"The demon is enraged. It will now be much stronger than before, and it will also take more effort to seal." Yuan warned them.

"Demon Sealing Strike!"

Li Jinxi approached the demon and confronted it with her greatsword. Although there was still a hint of fear within her eyes, she was able to suppress it.

While Li Jinxi fought the demon, keeping its attention on her, Hong Xiuquan and Xi Murong would support her by attacking the demon from its blindspots.

As for Chu Liuxiang, she would attack whenever possible from afar.

'They have pretty good teamwork despite this being their first day fighting together.' Yuan thought to himself as he watched them fight.

'But they will need more than that to defeat the demon this time around.'

BANG!

Li Jinxi was suddenly sent flying by the demon's attack.

"Jinxi! Are you okay?!" Xi Murong shouted as he took over her spot.

"Yes, I am fine. I just wasn't expecting so much power from it. Looks like I will have to get a little serious as well."

Li Jinxi's body suddenly began emitting a red aura.

"T-That technique! She's using it now?! What if she goes on a rampage like before?!" Wang Ming exclaimed.

"She'll defeat both the demon and the others at this rate!" Shi Lang cried out loud.

"Yuan, you need to stop her before she goes crazy!" Wang Bingbing said to him.

"Huh? What's wrong with her?" Yuan asked.

"You don't remember what happened at the tournament? She will go crazy if she uses that technique for too long! When that happens, all hell will break loose! At least that's what her family told us before we left!"

"Really? It looked like she had complete control over it during the disciple examination." Yuan said.

"That's in a video game and this is real life! I'm sure you can do things in Cultivation Online that you can't do here, right?"

"Alright, I will stop her if things get out of hand. For now, let's just see where this goes. Don't forget, I stopped her during the competition." Yuan smiled.

"Okay."

Meanwhile, Li Jinxi continued to pressure the demon, deflecting all of its attack with her raw strength.

"Uhh... What should we do?" Hong Xiuquan turned to look at Xi Murong.

"Why are you asking me? There's nothing we can do when she's like that. We'll only get in her way. In fact, she might even attack us if we get too close." Xi Murong shrugged.

"Unbelievable... She's already fighting the demon all by herself... She's truly talented." Chu Liuxiang mumbled in a dazed voice.

About ten minutes later, the demons stopped moving, as it'd turned into stone.

Li Jinxi had managed to seal the demon all by herself.

"Wow, she really did it..." Wang Ming mumbled in awe.

However, Li Jinxi wasn't finished.

"Watch out!" Chu Liuxiang suddenly shouted.

"Huh?" Xi Murong turned around to see Li Jinxi running at him with her sword in the air, her eyes filled with bloodlust.

"I knew it! Yuan!" Wang Bingbing turned to look at him, but he was already on the move.

Clang!

Yuan appeared before Xi Murong to block Li Jinxi with the Empyrean Overlord.

"Wake up!"

Yuan swung his sword, sending Li Jinxi flying out the Demon Sealing Zone.

"Aaaah!" Li Jinxi roared, and her red aura started going even more out of control.

However, before she could cause any more harm to herself, Yuan used his movement technique to appear in front of her and gave her a good punch in the stomach, instantly knocking her unconscious.

After catching Li Jinxi's body, Yuan said to the others, "We'll stop here for today and continue our training tomorrow."

"Thank god..." Wang Ming sighed in relief after hearing such words.

"I'm going to bring Jinxi back to her room." Yuan said as he carried her like a princess.

"You're going to leave the demon out here just like that? That's insane!" The Manager approached him as he tried to leave.

"Don't worry, the demon won't go anywhere. It'll remain sealed for a week with the strength of Jinxi's demon sealing aura." Yuan said.

"Absolutely not! I will not leave here until you kill that demon!" The Manager exclaimed.

"Be my guest. We have plenty of empty rooms in our household." Yuan chuckled.

"Y-You...! Unbelievable!" The Manager stomped her feet in anger.

Sometime later, Yuan placed Li Jinxi on her bed so that she could rest.

However, right as he prepared to leave, he started hearing noises coming from behind, and it sounded like someone was groaning in pain.

"Jinxi? Are you okay? What's happening to you?" Yuan rushed back to her side when he noticed that she was soaked in sweat.

"It... hurts..." She muttered in a low voice.

"Is this a backlash from using her technique? This didn't happen before."

After pondering for a second, Yuan rushed out of the room to find someone from the Six Spiritual Families.

He quickly ran into Wang Bingbing.

"Something's wrong with Jinxi! She's sweating buckets, and she appears to be in pain!"

"What?! It must be due to the technique that she used earlier! Senior Li warned us about it. That she might experience some backlash if she used it."

"What should we do to calm her down?" Yuan then asked.

"I don't know. Senior Li didn't mention it, but I will immediately call her family."

Chapter 891 - Massage

"Hello?"

"Senior Li? It's me, Wang Bingbing."

"Oh, it's been—"

"This is an emergency, Senior Li! Li Jinxi, she's currently experiencing a backlash from using her weird technique that you warned us about!"

"What?! Why did that foolish child use that technique?!"

"It's a long story, but right now, I need you to tell me what we can do to calm her down!"

"Right. Her muscles right now should be pulsating, almost like there are worms wiggling inside her body. Can you see it?" Senior Li asked.

"Yes, I see it." Wang Bingbing said.

"This is the result of Li Jinxi enhancing her muscles far past their limits. In order to calm her down, you must relax her muscles. Massage her body and then let her body simmer in hot water until she's fully recovered. If you have any medical leaves around, soak them in the hot water for a better effect."

"Okay. Thank you, Senior Li. I will call you back once things calm down." Wang Bingbing said before closing the connection.

"Did you hear all of that?" She turned to look at Yuan.

"Yes, I heard him loud and clear. I will fill the bath with hot water. In the meantime, can you massage her body?" He asked her.

"I-I don't know how to do massages, but I can try... You just squeeze their muscles with strength, right?" Wang Bingbing swallowed nervously before she started massaging Li Jinxi's arms that felt incredibly weird.

"Yuan, I don't think this is helping! Her muscles feel incredibly stiff, like I am massaging rocks instead of muscles." Wang Bingbing called for help.

Yuan said, "Alright, switch with me. I will see what I can do."

After switching places with Wang Bingbing, Yuan pondered as he inspected Li Jinxi's condition.

'Her muscles feel like stones, huh? Let's try this...'

Yuan began massaging Li Jinxi's body starting with her arms.

"How do you feel?" Yuan asked her a few moments later.

"B-Better..." She uttered.

"Good, then this is working."

A few moments later, Wang Bingbing asked him from the bathroom, "Yuan, any results?"

"Yes, it's working. She's getting better."

"Really? I'll be with you in a minute!"

Once she was finished with filling the bathtub, Wang Bingbing returned to the bedroom to check on them.

"How are you doing this? I hope you're not using brute force..." She swallowed nervously when she saw how causally Yuan made it seem like massaging Li Jinxi.

"Of course not. I am not really using my fingers to massage her muscles. I am using my spiritual energy to guide her muscles instead— to loosen it."

"Where did you learn how to do such a thing?" Wang Bingbing asked him with great curiosity.

"Cultivation Online," he said with a smile.

Sometime later, once Yuan finished massaging Li Jinxi's arm, he moved to other parts of her body until all of her limbs were relaxed.

"Alright, I think she's ready for the bath." Yuan said.

"Wait..." Li Jinxi suddenly grabbed his hand.

And she continued, "Massage... here... as well..."

Using her free hand, Li Jinxi ripped her shirt right off her body, revealing her bare chest to them.

"Uhhh..." Yuan raised his eyebrows and turned to face Wang Bingbing.

"D-Don't worry, this is to relieve her pain. I will also be here, so there won't be any misunderstandings."

"Alright."

Yuan said nothing else and started massaging Li Jinxi's body.

About ten minutes later, Wang Bingbing carried Li Jinxi into the bathroom to soak in hot water.

"I will wait outside." Yuan said as they entered the bathroom.

"Thank you..." Li Jinxi mumbled in a low voice.

"Maybe you'll think twice before using that weird technique again." Wang Bingbing smiled.

"I don't understand... I was able to use it without any problems in Cultivation Online. I thought it would be fine if I started using it out here now, but..."

"Don't worry too much about it. I'm sure you'll eventually be able to use that technique without any backlash." Wang Bingbing said.

After spending about two hours soaking in the bathtub, Li Jinxi recovered from her backlash.

"How are you feeling?" Yuan asked.

"I am feeling fine. Thank you for the massage, and I'm sorry for causing you trouble. I won't use that technique again."

"Actually... I want you to continue using that technique. I want you to practice your control with that technique." Yuan said, dumbfounding them.

"Y-You want her to continue using that technique? But that would..." Wang Bingbing stared at him with wide eyes.

"No, she will only experience a backlash if she goes overboard with the technique. As long as she maintains control over it, she will be fine."

"Why? Why do you want me to...?" Li Jinxi asked with a puzzled face.

"You don't want to? Oh, I am not forcing you. If you don't want to master that technique, which will, without doubt, make you much stronger—"

"I will do it!" Li Jinxi quickly said.

"I want to become stronger. I want to be able to use that technique without feeling pain afterward. Can you help me?"

Yuan nodded, "I will help you to the best of my abilities, but it's not going to be easy. You might even experience more backlashes during your training. Are you prepared for that?"

"Yes, I am prepared. If I experience any backlashes, you'll be there to massage me, right?"

"Of course." He nodded.

"..."

Wang Bingbing witnessed their casual conversation with her mouth wide open.

'How can they say such shameless things to each other without being embarrassed about it?' She wondered inwardly.

"Get some rest."

Yuan and Wang Bingbing left Li Jinxi alone shortly after.

"I'm going to call Senior Li to let him know that everything is fine now." Wang Bingbing said.

"Alright. You should get some rest too. Your group will be fighting the demon first thing tomorrow morning, after all." Yuan said with a smile.

"I completely forgot about that..."

"I will see you later at dinner."

"Of course." Wang Bingbing nodded.

Chapter 892 - Manager's True Nature

Chapter 892 - Manager's True Nature

Before she even started cooking dinner, Meixiu approached Yuan and asked him, "You know the Manager has been standing in our backyard this entire time, right? I think she's guarding the demon. Maybe we should invite her for dinner?"

"I doubt she'll even want to join us, but I will ask her just in case."

"Okay, I will leave her to you. I will go prepare for dinner now."

Once Meixiu left, Yuan went to the training area to confront the Manager.

"You'll catch a cold if you stand out here for too long. Why don't you come inside and have dinner with us? Meixiu's a great cook."

The Manager slowly turned to look at him with a cold expression on her face, "I have an even better idea. Why don't you hurry up and kill the demon so that I can go back home and eat my own dinner?"

"Why are you so worried about the demon? I have already promised you that there won't be any problems. The demon is sealed, and I will use it to train my friends for the next few days. Once that is done, I will kill it and move onto the next demon."

"Why don't you use the other demons to train your friends? There are 11 demons in total. You can train for a total of 11 days if you use a demon once a day." The Manager then asked.

Yuan smiled and said, "We need to tackle this at a certain pace. They just had their first experience fighting a demon today. In fact, this is their first time seeing a real demon that's not sealed."

"If we rush this, it will only do more harm than good."

After a moment of silence from the Manager, she spoke in a grim voice, "The fact that you're taking this situation so lightly proves to me that you know nothing about demons or what they are truly capable of."

"I know nothing about demons?" Yuan couldn't help but chuckle at her claims.

"What's so funny? If you knew the true horror of demons, you wouldn't be acting so casually."

"There is nobody in this world that knows more about demons than me." Yuan said.

"Where does your confidence come from?"

"Just like how I don't really know anything about you or the Lord, you also don't know anything about me."

"Give me a few days. I will prove to you that I have the situation completely under control. In the meantime, why don't you relax a little and come eat dinner with us? If you waste Meixiu's effort and the food she cooked for you, I will tell everyone about your true nature."

"My true nature? What do you know about me?!" The Manager suddenly shouted at him.

A profound smile appeared on Yuan's face as he responded in a calm voice, "Qi Fang told me. You may act all serious and careful in public, but you're really just a lazy woman who'd rather lay in her bed all day watching television."

The Manager's face immediately flushed with redness after hearing his words.

"S-She told you that?! That good-for-nothing loudmouth! The next time I see her, I will definitely..."

"Let's go, Liya. I'm getting cold and hungry." Yuan said to her as he began making his way back to the house.

"How many times do I have to tell you to not call me by that name?" The Manager frowned.

Once Yuan left the scene, the Manager released a sigh of relief, 'He startled me for a second there. I really thought he knew about that...'

Sometime later, everyone gathered at the dining table for dinner.

"Where's the Manager?" Meixiu asked Yuan after they sat down.

"She..."

The door opened at this moment, and the Manager slowly walked into the dining room before taking a seat at the table with everyone else.

"Thank you for coming." Yuan smiled at her.

After dinner, Yuan said to everyone there, "I must say, you all performed much better than I'd anticipated today. At this rate, you'll all become expert demon sealers in no time."

"However, with that being said, I noticed some mistakes that some of you made. I will now tell you those mistakes, so listen up and try to learn from it."

"Wang Ming, I know demons are very ugly and hard to look at, but you must look at them while you're confronting one. I noticed that you tried to avoid eye contact with the demon as much as possible today. That will easily get you killed if you're fighting a demon alone."

"Shi Lang, that also applies to you. Your movements today are quite sluggish. Your movements during regular training are a whole level better compared to your performance today."

"Jinxi, you're too aggressive with your attacks. You use too much strength when you swing your sword. Remember, it's your demon sealing aura that damages the demons, not your strength."

"Meixiu, you need to stop holding back. I know that it could be a little hard to shoot the demon with a bow and arrow when the others are fighting it at close range, but you subconsciously hold yourself back even when you have a clear shot."

"On the other hand, Lulu, you need to learn how to hold back. You're using too much energy even when it isn't necessary."

Yuan continued to speak until everybody that participated in the training today was lectured.

"Now that you all know what you did wrong, I want you to keep it in mind and learn from it."

"I must admit, Yuan, I never knew you were such a good teacher. Where'd you learn such a skill?" Wu Zao asked him after their lecture.

"I wouldn't call that teaching. I'm just pointing out what I saw, that's all. I don't qualify to be called a teacher." He shook his head.

"No need to be humble, Yuan. We know a good lecturer when we see one. You could easily become a top lecturer at the Jaded Garden if you worked there." Wang Ming said.

After talking with each other for a few more minutes and cleaning up the place, everyone but Yuan and the Manager retired to their rooms.

Chapter 893 - Explosion

"We have a fully furnished guest room if you really intend on staying here tonight." Yuan said to the Manager and pointed at a certain room down the hallway.

"I don't need any room." The Manager said, and she proceeded to leave the building, returning to the training area with the sealed demon.

"Does she really intend on staying out there the whole night? It makes me feel kind of guilty." Chu Liuxiang asked out loud as she looked at the Manager's lonely figure through the window in their room.

"Let her do as she pleases. It's not like I didn't offer her a room." Yuan said.

The following morning, after a light breakfast, everyone gathered at the training area.

"Since we stopped with the first group yesterday, the second group will start things off today."

"Meixiu, Wang Ming, Shi Lang, Wang Bingbing, and Wu Zao. You're up." Yuan said to them.

Once they were prepared after a short warmup, Yuan removed the seal on the demon for the third time.

"FUCKING LIVESTOCKS! HOW DARE YOU MESS WITH ME?!" The demon immediately became enraged the moment it came out of its seal.

"Let's go!"

Wang Ming was the first to act, followed by Shi Lang.

After Yuan's lecture yesterday, they focused on trying to suppress their fear towards the demon as they confronted it.

Of course, it was easier said than done, and they were still overwhelmed by fear for the first few minutes.

However, as they fought the demon, their fear began to reduce, allowing them to fight more efficiently.

Wang Ming's sword attacks were sharp and powerful. Shi Lang was incredibly precise with his spear.

The two of them danced beside each other in front of the demon to keep it at bay from the others, who would attack the demon from its blindspot.

Because of their near perfect teamwork, the demon could barely retaliate, and when it would try to retaliate, an arrow would appear from its blindspot and blow a hole in its face, halting its movements for a second, which is enough for the others to catch their breath and continue their onslaught.

After ten minutes of relentless effort from group two, the demon became sealed again.

"I'm exhausted." Wang Ming fell onto his butt afterward.

"Did you guys secretly practice together? I must say, your teamwork is almost impeccable." Yuan asked them.

"No, but if you spar enough with someone, you subconsciously predict their movements and instinctively react accordingly." Shi Lang said.

"Yes, and since we all lived in the same place, we all ended up training with each other." Wang Bingbing said.

"Furthermore, there are not many disciples within the Jaded Garden that could keep up with us, so we end up practicing with each other more than we like." Wang Ming sighed.

"I see... It makes perfect sense then." Yuan nodded.

After pondering for a moment, he asked them, "Do you guys feel confident enough to fight the demon by yourselves now? If you're not, we can continue fighting in smaller groups."

"Fighting the demon alone?" They all swallowed nervously at such a thought.

Seeing their reaction, Yuan smiled, "I guess it's still too early. After all, it's only the second day. Alright, you will continue fighting in groups, but since it's clearly too easy with your current numbers, I will split the group even smaller."

"The new first group will be Wang Ming, Xi Murong, and Meixiu."

"The second group will be Shi Lang, Wang Bingbing, and Lulu."

"The third group will be Wu Zao, Hong Xiuquan, and Li Jinxi."

After a short break, Yuan unsealed the demon and continued their training, and they would quickly realize how losing a single person in their group made it exponentially harder for them to fight the demon.

They were able to seal the demon without getting hurt before, but now they're all receiving minor injuries, and it took them twice as long to seal the demon with each group taking almost half an hour to seal the demon.

Sometime later, Wang Ming lost his balance for a split second after his attack was deflected, and the demon immediately took advantage of his moment of weakness and went straight for his neck without any hesitation.

'Shit!'

Death flashed before Wang Ming's eyes.

"Die, livestock!"

The demon's claw reached the skin on Wang Ming's neck and penetrated into his skin, but its entire body froze before it could really pierce his neck.

Wang Ming immediately distanced himself from the demon, and he could feel his own blood dripping down his neck afterward.

"T-Thank you, Yuan..." Wang Ming said in a trembling voice.

"The fight isn't over yet." Yuan said to him before removing the restrictions on the demon, allowing it to move again.

However, the demon didn't continue to fight.

Instead, it turned to look at Yuan.

"What did you just do to my body?"

"As long as you're within my Demon Sealing Zone. I have complete control over your body." Yuan calmly responded.

"D-Demon Sealing Zone?"

The demon had been so focused on fighting the others that it didn't even realize it was trapped inside the Demon Sealing Zone until now.

"I see..."

The demon appeared to realize its situation shortly after.

"If that's the case, I'd rather die than be a plaything for humans!"

The demon suddenly began expanding like a balloon, and its body also started burning like steel that just came out of the forge.

When Yuan saw this, he immediately shouted, "All of you, get away from the demon! It's going to explode!"

"What?!"

The others immediately distanced themselves from the demon.

Meanwhile, Yuan shrunk the Demon Sealing Zone until it was only a few meters in diameter.

Once the demon reached its limit, the crystal on its body shattered, causing its body to explode with intense spiritual energy.

The entire mountain shook for a brief moment after the explosion, but because of the Demon Sealing Zone that contained all of the impact, there was no real damage done by it and nobody was hurt.

Chapter 894 - celestial Qi

"Yuan, you never told us that demons could just explode like that!" Shi Lang exclaimed afterward.

"Sorry, they rarely do that even in desperate situations so I forgot about it." Yuan said with an apologetic smile.

"What the demon just did is called a 'Core Detonation'. It's basically a suicide move that is very hard to stop and has the effects of a bomb. I didn't think it would kill itself so quickly, so I wasn't prepared for it. What a pity it only lasted for two days."

"With that being said, Liya, can you bring us the next demon?" Yuan turned to face her.

"Absolutely not! You almost blew up the entire mountain!" She immediately refused.

"That's an exaggeration. With that demon's strength, it would've blown away our house at most." Yuan said.

"Ridiculous! Why are you even training them?! What do you hope to achieve with just a few days of training?! There are only 10 demons left, and I doubt they are capable of fighting all 10 demons! Even if they can fight all 10 demons, it won't make any real difference! If it was so easy to train a demon sealer, there would be many more demon sealers in this world!"

After a moment of silence, Yuan spoke, "Yes, you're right. Out of the remaining 10 demons, they would only be able to fight two of them with the rest being way beyond their capabilities."

"However, you shouldn't underestimate my friends nor my training methods. Even a day's worth of training will benefit them enormously. In fact, it could even be a difference of life and death."

"I don't get it... Just where are you getting your confidence from?" The Manager sighed, feeling as though she was talking to a wall.

Of course, there was no way that the Manager could have known that in one of Yuan's past lives, he was the Divine Paragon, creator of the demon sealing techniques and the founder of the Demon Sealing Clan, where he trained tens of thousands of demon sealers.

"Trust me, this will only last for 2 more demons. After that, I will swiftly take care of the rest. I promise."

The Manager rubbed her temples for a good moment before speaking, "Fine. Two more demons. If you don't stop messing around with the demons after that, I will kill you. I promise."

"Thank you, Liya." Yuan smiled.

"Don't call... Forget it..."

Yuan then turned to look at the others and proceeded to lecture them about their mistakes.

"How do you feel, Wang Ming?" Yuan asked him afterward.

"I'm still a little shaken... If you hadn't stopped the demon, I would've been dead now." He sighed.

"I'm truly pathetic."

"Don't think like that. You're doing very well for a new demon sealer. In fact, most demon sealers won't be able to face a real demon without months of intense training. The fact that you could fight it without running away on your first day is very impressive."

"This goes for all of you. I'm actually very surprised that none of you ran away. Of course, I wouldn't have blamed any of you even if you did run away."

'After all, I was frozen from fear when I first encountered a demon...' He sighed inwardly.

"Anyways, let's take a break. We'll start our next training session in two days."

Sometime later, the Manager returned to the Lord to explain the situation to him.

"I see... So that's the real cause of the tremor just now. I thought it was another earthquake caused by the sealed demons. He's using the demons as a practice tool for the others... I must say, this is beyond my expectations. It's so bold that it's almost crazy." The Lord sighed.

"Should I stop him?"

"And how are you going to do that? You might have been able to defeat him when he first arrived at the mountain, but you won't stand a chance against him now."

"What? You think he's stronger than me? Is it because he can kill demons and I cannot? If I could use demon sealing techniques, I would also be able to kill them!" The Manager exclaimed.

"No, his strength far exceeds his ability to kill demons. Although very faintly, I could sense Celestial Qi from his body during his last visit."

"What?! Celestial Qi?! Impossible! He was born in this world! There's no way he could have Celestial Qi!" The Manager shouted in a voice of disbelief.

"It's true. I couldn't sense it from him before, but I sensed it very clearly during his last visit. He must have awakened his Celestial Qi somehow. Do you have any idea?"

The Manager pondered for a good moment before shaking her head, "The only thing I can think of is the incident that happened to him at the Qi Family, but it's highly unlikely. It was after our visit to the Qi Family that he started acting... differently."

"So something happened to him after he returned, huh? What could've happened in such a short time? I cannot even imagine."

Sometime later, the Lord spoke, "Anyways, continue monitoring him. We need to be certain that we can trust him."

"Okay..." The Manager nodded.

"What's wrong? You seem worried about something." The Lord suddenly asked.

"Actually... I might be overthinking this, but I have this feeling that he somehow knows of our secret." She sighed.

"What? How is that possible? Did you do something that could've revealed it?"

"No! I didn't say or do anything—"

The Manager suddenly stopped talking and held a dazed look on her face.

"I-I told him that I couldn't learn demon sealing techniques out of frustration... That's also around the time when I started having this feeling. T-There's no way he could've realized the truth just from that alone... right?" The Manager said in a worried voice.

"It's possible."

"I-I'm sorry..." The Manager sighed.

"What's done is already done. And we don't really know if he realized our secret or not. Just continue to monitor him, but don't try to probe his knowledge. You might end up telling him the truth, which would be quite comical if he doesn't actually know anything." The Lord said.

"Okay." The Manager nodded.

Chapter 895 - Strength of the 11 Demons

After their training with the demon ended, Li Jinxi approached Yuan, who went to pick up the demon core left behind by the demon, and said to him, "I don't need to rest. I want to practice my technique."

"I like your enthusiasm, but you should rest today. You've already spent the entire morning fighting with the demon. You need to let your muscles rest before you start practicing that technique." Yuan said to her.

"Then tomorrow..."

"Yes, we'll start tomorrow."

"Okay."

"Do you have some kind of special training for her?" Chu Liuxiang asked him.

"Not really. I'm only there to make sure she doesn't hurt herself too much. After all, I'm the only one in this place who can stop her when she goes on a rampage." He said.

"I see... Anyways, I'm going to take a bath and practice my demon sealing technique some more. Want to join me in the bath?" She calmly asked him, almost as though it was a normal routine to bathe together.

"Sure." Yuan nodded his head without hesitation.

Meanwhile, inside a luxurious restaurant somewhere in Spirit Heaven, the Sect Master of the Universal Music Academy, Sun Hao, sat before the Patriarch of the Gu Family.

"It's been a while, Patriarch Gu. I hope your family has been well." Sun Hao greeted.

"Indeed, it's been a few years. My family is doing well. I hope my nephew is not causing any troubles in your sect. If he is, don't hesitate to tell me. I will give him a good scolding."

The two of them laughed for a good moment.

"Anyways, I heard you have some information on the people that robbed my Gu Family. Although it happened in the Lower Heaven, it is still a fact that they are a Gu Family. No matter where it occurred, I cannot allow such insolence towards the Gu Family."

"Indeed. The person responsible for robbing your Gu Family is someone named 'Yuan', is that correct?"

"That's the information we had received from the Lower Heavens." Patriarch Gu nodded.

"Well, I happened to meet that bastard a couple of days ago when he severed my arm." Sun Hao pointed at his missing left arm.

"What?" Patriarch Gu's eyes widened with surprise.

"I heard about what happened at the disciple examination. It was a tragedy. What a coincidence that the person who harmed you also happened to be the same person that robbed my Gu Family. However, it makes sense. Truly fitting of someone so barbaric and disrespectful."

"Don't worry, Sect Master Sun. I will make him pay for his crimes. I had only intended to imprison him for life, but I will now add torture to his punishment. In fact, I will remove his limbs and send them to you as a gift."

"That sounds like music to my ears." Sun Hao laughed merrily.

"Then Sect Master Sun, do you happen to know where he is currently located?" Patriarch Gu suddenly asked.

"Unfortunately, I do not know where he is currently located, but I know where and how you can find him." Sun Hao said.

And he continued, "That bastard will be heading to the Stairway to Heaven soon. You will find him at the site, or you can surround the area and wait for him to show up."

"The Stairway to Heaven? He's planning on challenging it? Is he a Spirit King?" Patriarch Gu showed a look of surprise.

"No, he's a peak Spirit Lord, but you shouldn't underestimate him. In fact, treat him as though you're fighting a Spirit King. You will need all of your experts if you want to deal with him, and he most likely won't be alone." Sun Hao said, purposefully not revealing to Patriarch Gu that Yuan had managed to defeat 6 Sect Masters of the Seven Spirit Academies all by himself, and it was an overwhelming defeat for them.

"Yes, I heard that he was traveling in a small group the last time, and there is even a Spirit King amongst them. The other Gu Family said that the Spirit King had the appearance of a little girl."

"A little girl? There was a little girl with that bastard at the disciple examination. I didn't pay any attention to her due to the circumstances. To think that she was actually a Spirit King..." Sun Hao said.

The two of them continued to chat with each other over some food and tea.

About two hours later, Patriarch Gu returned to his family.

After spending two days preparing for their mission, Patriarch Gu and over a thousand people from the Gu Family started making their way towards the Stairway to Heaven.

Of course, this alarmed the neighboring cities and sects, and they wondered if the Gu Family was going to war with such incredible military power.

The following day, the Manager returned to the Demon Sealing Faction's household with another demon.

"This demon looks weaker than the previous one." Wang Ming said after looking at the demon's appearance.

It was smaller and thinner than the last demon, after all.

"Don't let its appearance fool you. This demon is three levels stronger than the last demon. The last demon only had the strength of a peak Spirit Warrior cultivator. This one is around third level Spirit Master."

"T-Third level Spirit Master? That's as strong as the strongest cultivators in our families..." Wang Bingbing swallowed nervously.

"By the way, the next demon is around the fifth level." Yuan suddenly said.

"F-Fifth level?! Can we even fight that thing?!" Hong Xiuquan exclaimed.

"It's not going to be easy, but it's possible." Yuan nodded.

"Out of curiosity, what about the rest of the demons? There are a total of 11 demons, right?" Wu Zao asked.

"Three of them have the strength of a peak Spirit Master. Two of them are between the third level and fourth level of Spirit Grandmaster. Two more at the sixth and seventh level of Spirit Grandmaster. As for the last one... It has the strength of a 2nd level Spirit Lord."

"S-Second level Spirit Lord? What's your cultivation again, Yuan?" Wang Ming asked him in a nervous tone.

"Fifth level Spirit Grandmaster." He calmly responded.

"What?! You're six whole levels below the strongest demon! Are you sure that you can defeat it?"

"Of course." He confidently responded.

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 896 - Not Created for Humans

"Don't worry, it's just 6 levels. I have fought demons an entire realm stronger in Cultivation Online." Yuan gave him a confident thumbs up.

"But that's Cultivation Online, where you are much more powerful and have more resources to deal with demons..." Wang Ming sighed.

Sometime later, Yuan said, "Anyways, we'll begin training the day after tomorrow. I suggest you take this time to familiarize yourself with the demon. It will also have a much stronger aura than the previous demon, so prepare yourself mentally as well."

After their briefing, Li Jinxi and Yuan went to another part of the training area, where they would not disturb the others with their training.

"Go ahead and use that technique whenever you're ready. However, don't just activate it. I want you to slowly increase your own strength using the technique. Remember, we're training on your control right now."

Li Jinxi nodded, and she closed her eyes.

After taking a deep breath, she began using her technique.

At first, her body would emit a small amount of killing intent, and it would steadily increase.

However, after a few moments, almost as though she lost control, the red aura began expanding rapidly.

Eventually, Li Jinxi completely lost control, and she started going on a rampage.

Her eyes snapped open, revealing her crimson eyes that flowed with killing intent.

And she started attacking Yuan with her sword.

"Calm down. You can regain control." Yuan didn't immediately knock her out and tried to calm her down.

A few minutes later, without any success, Yuan decided to knock Li Jinxi unconscious.

After catching her falling body, he gently laid her on the ground.

"This is going to be more problematic than I'd anticipated..." He sighed in a low voice.

Li Jinxi would wake up shortly after.

"Do you feel any pain?" He asked her.

"No, I am fine. Let's continue." Li Jinxi said.

Thus, they continued to train until Li Jinxi started experiencing backlash an hour later.

When that happened, Yuan carried her into her room and began massaging her body.

"Sorry for the inconvenience..." She apologized to him while she soaked in medicine.

"Don't worry, I don't think it's bothersome. By the way, can you tell me more about the technique? If I understand it better, perhaps I can figure out how to train you."

After pondering for a moment, she nodded, "Wait until I am finished."

"Sure."

An hour later, Li Jinxi emerged from the bathtub and left the bathroom while still soaking wet.

"You'll catch a cold like that." Yuan smiled.

"I have never caught a cold before," she calmly said.

Then she walked to her closet and retrieved a wooden box from inside.

"Here."

She handed the box to Yuan afterward.

Yuan raised his eyebrows and opened the box to find a scroll inside.

"What's this?"

"The technique," she calmly responded.

"You mean the actual technique? Isn't this supposed to be your family's secret technique? Are you sure you want to hand it to me? You should consult with your family first..." Yuan said in a baffled voice.

He didn't expect Li Jinxi to hand him the entire technique.

"It's fine. Nobody in the family can use the technique, anyway." She calmly nodded.

"That's not the point." Yuan smiled.

"It's really fine. I won't tell my family," she said.

"Alright, I will borrow it then."

Yuan returned to his room shortly after.

After returning to his room, Yuan began studying Li Jinxi's mysterious technique.

'There's no name for this technique?' Yuan realized at glance that the technique was a nameless one.

About an hour later, Yuan placed the technique down and started to ponder.

'I see... It's no wonder why most people cannot learn this technique. The strain it puts on one's body is simply ludicrous. In fact, this technique... It wasn't created for humans...'

Yuan became even more impressed by Li Jinxi after realizing this fact.

'I'm surprised she managed to learn this technique. But this begs the question... Who is this technique made for? Magical beasts? Divine Beasts? And how did the Li Family acquire this technique?'

Once he understood the technique, Yuan returned to Li Jinxi, who was resting in her bed.

"Come inside." Li Jinxi said after hearing his knock on the door.

"Hey, I am finished with the technique, so I am here to return it. I learned a few things about this technique that you should be aware of." Yuan said as he placed the scroll on the desk beside her desk.

"You're finished with the technique already? It's only been an hour." She stared at him with a baffled look on her face as she sat up on her bed.

'She's still naked?' Yuan thought to himself after seeing Li Jinxi's appearance when the blankets moved.

He then spoke, "Yes, I have a lot of questions too, but first, you should know the true nature of this technique."

"This nameless technique... It wasn't made for humans."

"Huh?" Li Jinxi raised her eyebrows.

"Not made for humans? Is that why nobody else in my family could learn it? But how come I can learn it? Does this mean... I'm not human?" Li Jinxi looked more curious and fascinated than terrified at the possibility that she wasn't human.

"No, you're definitely human. The reason you're able to learn the technique is due to your unique physique. I noticed this when I massaged your body, but your muscles and bones are naturally beyond human capabilities, which allows your body to endure much more stress than normally capable. However, since you're human, you won't be able to fully utilize the technique's full capabilities— at least not in your current state."

"I see... Is this also why I have backlashes?" Li Jinxi then asked.

"Yes." He nodded.

"Then what should I do?"

"Since it's related to your physique, you must continue to strengthen your body. I believe that will be your fastest way to master this technique. The next is your control. As long as you can control the technique so that it doesn't exceed your limits, you won't experience any backlashes."

"But I have been doing that since I started cultivating," she said.

"Yes, but have you ever been pushed to your absolute limits?" He asked.

"Pushed to my limits...?" Li Jinxi raised her eyebrows in a questioning manner.

Chapter 897 - Training

"Yes. Have you ever been pushed to the point where you could not even lift a single finger? Have you ever been so exhausted that you thought you'd die by running out of breath? Have you ever risked your life in training?" Yuan asked.

Li Jinxi pondered for a moment before shaking her head, "No, not really."

"You can achieve immense growth in a short period of time if you continue to push yourself to your very limit every day. Of course, this could actually damage one's body, but this only applies to ordinary people. Jinxi, you have an amazing body—a physique blessed by the heavens. If anyone should train in such a manner, it should be you."

"However, it's not going to be easy. You will experience intense pain. Hell, you might even die."

"I want to do it." Li Jinxi responded without hesitation.

"Even if you might die?"

She nodded.

Yuan smiled. Although nobody knows about it, he'd almost died hundreds of times inside his room during his 20 years of seclusion. There were times when he wanted to quit and sleep eternally, but he would always get back up and train until he was at death's door.

But because of his insane and reckless training, he was able to acquire the strength to defeat demons in such a short time.

"How does your body feel right now?" Yuan asked her a moment later.

"A little sore, but that's it."

"Good. Get dressed and meet me in the training area. We're going to continue your training."

"Yes!"

Sometime later, they returned to the training area.

"Use the nameless technique and attack me. I won't just be avoiding and defending this time."

Li Jinxi nodded and activated the nameless technique, causing her bloodlust to reappear.

However, before she could even make a move, Yuan suddenly dashed forward and threw a powerful punch at her face.

Li Jinxi subconsciously blocked the attack with her sword, but she was still sent flying by the impact.

'So strong!'

"What are you doing?! Hurry up and focus! Fight me! Try to kill me!" Yuan shouted as he approached her again.

Li Jinxi clenched her teeth and started attacking him with the intention to kill.

However, Yuan suddenly released his killing intent, halting her movements for a brief second.

Yuan used this chance to connect his fist with her stomach, sending her flying for a second time.

After stabilizing herself, Li Jinxi immediately puked out everything she ate for breakfast.

She lifted her head a moment later to look at Yuan, who was slowly approaching her with an immense amount of killing intent flowing from his body.

Her entire body trembled in fear. For the first time in her life, she was fearing for her life.

"Get up! You will never achieve your full potential with such half-assed effort!" Yuan shouted at her, snapping her out of her daze.

"Aaaaah!" Li Jinxi stood up and released a war cry before running at him again.

"What the hell are they doing?" The Manager watched them from a distance with a puzzled face.

She thought they were training at first, but it looked too brutal to be training, and Yuan was pummeling Li Jinxi like she had killed his family.

Due to the loud nature of their training, the others also noticed the commotion in the training area, and they were all shocked by what they saw.

"Holy shit! What's happening?! Why are they going at each other's throat?!" Wang Ming asked the others.

"I'm not sure... Should we stop them and ask for an explanation?" Wang Bingbing said.

"They're probably training." Chu Liuxiang said.

"You call that training? It looks like a one-sided beatdown to me." Shi Lang said.

"God... I have never seen Li Jinxi in such a beaten state before... She looks like she's on the verge of death." Xi Murong mumbled in a dazed voice.

In the end, nobody went to stop them. They believed in Yuan and Li Jinxi—that they had a good reason to be fighting each other in such a manner.

The training lasted for three whole hours, stopping when Li Jinxi was covered in her own blood and completely unconscious.

Of course, Li Jinxi had lost consciousness a couple of times during the three hours, but they only lasted for a brief moment, and she would continue to train immediately after waking up.

As Yuan carried her seemingly lifeless body back to the house, everyone rushed to him.

"What the hell happened, Yuan?" Wang Ming was the first to ask.

"Hm? We were only training." He calmly said.

"Training? It looked like you wanted to kill her..." Shi Lang said.

Yuan smiled and said, "I will explain everything to you after I get her cleaned up."

"I will help you." Meixiu said.

"Okay. Thank you."

After Yuan brought Li Jinxi back to her room, Meixiu helped wash her body.

Sometime later, after putting Li Jinxi in her bed, Yuan returned to the others and explained the situation to them.

"The technique she had been using wasn't created for humans? Wow... that's unexpected. I never knew that such a thing even existed..." Wu Zao said.

"I get that you're trying to push Li Jinxi to her limit, but that would be pointless if she becomes bedridden for the next week, right?" Wang Ming asked.

Yuan smiled and said, "She'll be fine. In fact, she'll wake up tomorrow like nothing happened. This is all because of her unique physique."

"Also, I don't know if you noticed this or not, but Jinxi was able to use her nameless technique throughout our entire training without experiencing any backlash."

"N-Now that you mention it!" Their eyes widened upon this realization.

"How did you do it?" Wang Bingbing asked.

"It's simple. I used only my fists for a reason. Everytime I punch her body, it would release some of the built up tension in her muscles, allowing her to continue using the technique without reaching her maximum threshold as quickly." Yuan explained.

"I see..."

Chapter 898 - Understanding the Nameless Technique

Sometime later, Yuan returned to his room while the others returned to their own training.

Li Jinxi woke up the following morning with an incredible headache and feeling like she'd been hit by a truck recently.

'Am I... still alive...?' She mumbled in a dazed voice.

It wasn't clear to her at first, but her memories of yesterday's training eventually resurfaced.

'Ahh... He was really ruthless yesterday... I have never been beaten like that... ever...'

A slight smile appeared on her face without her awareness.

Knock Knock

"It's me. Are you awake?" Yuan's voice suddenly resounded.

"Yes, come inside."

Yuan entered the room the next moment.

"How are you feeling?" He asked her.

Li Jinxi turned to look at Yuan and said with a bittersweet smile, "My body hurts like hell..."

"I might have gone too far for your first session. Sorry."

"No, I needed that. I have never suffered such a defeat before. It really opened my eyes."

"Do you wish to continue?" Yuan suddenly asked.

"Of course." Li Jinxi immediately responded without any hesitation in her voice.

"You'll wake up everyday like this, you know?"

"As long as I can become stronger."

"..."

After a moment of silence, Yuan asked, "Why are you so desperate to acquire strength?"

"You might not believe me, but I really don't have any motivation— at least I didn't until very recently. I enjoy fighting and improving myself. It's as simple as that." She calmly responded.

"I see... Then what is your motivation now? You have one now, right?"

Li Jinxi did not immediately answer.

She slowly got off the bed and stood on her feet despite the pain coursing through her body.

She then walked to stand in front of Yuan.

"You're my motivation now. I want to defeat you."

Yuan smiled and said, "It's not going to be easy."

"I know, but I won't stop training until I defeat you... no matter how long it'll take."

And she continued, "Go wait for me in the training area. I will be there in a bit."

"You want to train with your body like that? That's reckless."

"I can handle it," she said.

However, Yuan shook his head and said, "Go soak in some medicine first. I'll meet you in the training area in a few hours."

"Okay..."

While Li Jinxi went to soak in medicine, Yuan returned to his own room.

He then took a seat on the floor in the lotus position and took a deep breath.

'Even though they are different techniques, they function almost the same. I wonder if I will be able to control that golden aura if I deepen my understanding with Li Jinxi's nameless technique?'

In just a few moments, a red aura began appearing around Yuan's body.

Although he'd learned Li Jinxi's nameless technique, he doesn't have any intentions to use it. After all, he was only doing this to gain a better understanding for the technique.

Furthermore, his golden aura was vastly superior to the nameless technique.

'I have only absorbed two thousand years worth of Tian Chenyu's memories right now, but there is nothing about the golden aura in these memories. Just how long did Tian Chenyu live? When does he learn to use the golden aura?'

'However, there's no need to be impatient. I have already managed to activate it once. I will eventually be able to control it.'

Yuan would continue to study the nameless technique for the next few hours until he met up with Li Jinxi in the training area, where he would proceed to beat her until she was at the verge of death.

"How long are you two going to train like this?" Meixiu asked him as she washed Li Jinxi's bloody figure.

"I'm not sure, but it'll probably be for a while. You don't have to clean her if you don't want to. I can do it by myself. You're probably better off using this time to train yourself, after all." Yuan responded from outside the bathroom.

"No, I can do this. It doesn't take that much time, and it's not like I can let you wash the body of another woman..." Meixiu said with a slightly rosy face.

Yuan smiled and said, "Don't worry, I won't do anything I am not supposed to do to her. I already have you and Lulu, after all."

The redness on Meixiu's face immediately deepened, and she spoke, "T-That's not what I am worried about!"

Sometime later, Meixiu left the bathroom with Li Jinxi still unconscious in her arms.

"Thank you, Meixiu." Yuan said to her as she placed Li Jinxi's body on the bed.

"You should go easier on her, Yuan. It feels weird seeing you beating on a young lady, even if she's someone like Li Jinxi."

Yuan chuckled, "I can't help it. Ordinary training methods won't work on her. And after realizing how much talent she has, it makes me want to see her full potential."

Meixiu sighed, "You've really changed, Yuan."

"Huh? What do you mean?"

"Not long ago, you didn't even know the difference between a man and a woman. Now look at you. You're a competent teacher who has trained even an entire family of demon sealers."

"Your demeanor has also changed. It pained me to even look at you before because you were always depressed, but you're now brimming with confidence."

"If Yu Rou could see you now, I doubt she would even recognize you."

"Yu Rou, huh... Meixiu, this might be a weird question, but who do you prefer? The old me or the new me?" Yuan faced her with a serious look on his face.

"That's not a fair question, Yuan. It puts me in an awkward position. It's not a question that I can answer. However, if I have to be honest, I like how we can talk with each other while being on the same page, something that was not really possible back then. For example, the words 'I love you' would have a different meaning if I said it to the old you and the current you. Do you understand?"

Yuan chuckled, "Yes, I understand. I am well aware of how naive I was back then, and I'm sorry for all of the inconveniences it caused you."

Meixiu shook her head while blushing.

"Anyways, are you free now?" Yuan suddenly asked her.

"Besides training, I don't have anything else—"

Before she could even finish her sentence, Yuan picked her up and carried her like a princess.

"Y-Yuan?!"

"I want to thank you properly for helping me today. Let's go to your room." Yuan smiled.

"O-Okay..." Meixiu immediately understood the meaning behind his words and nodded in a bashful manner.

Chapter 899 - New Product

After carrying Meixiu to her room, Yuan locked the door behind him and laid her on the bed.

Once they were fully prepared, they entangled their naked bodies together and began moving passionately with each other.

Two hours passed in the blink of an eye.

"Speaking of Yu Rou... It should be her birthday soon, right? I stopped paying attention to the dates long ago." Yuan said as he laid on the bed with Meixiu resting her head on his arm, feeling incredibly refreshed and relaxed.

"Her birthday is next month. In 17 days to be exact." Meixiu said without needing to think.

"We should give her a visit." Yuan then said.

"What about the demons?"

"I'll take care of them long before then." Yuan smiled.

"Then do you have any idea what you want to give her?"

"No, I was going to ask you for advice. What do you think she'll like? It's been forever since I last celebrated her birthday."

"I think she'll be happy no matter what you give her."

"I know, but that's not fun. I need to give her something grand— something worthy of my precious little sister."

Sometime later, Meixiu got dressed and left to prepare for dinner.

At dinner, to everybody's surprise, Li Jinxi showed up.

"Are you sure you should be moving around right now?" Wang Ming asked her.

"I'm fine," she calmly replied.

"My god, it took you an entire day to wake up yesterday. You're progressing a little too fast, don't you think?" Shi Lang mumbled in a dazed voice.

"I have a good teacher," she said as she turned to look at Yuan.

"How do you even endure such beating? Are you perhaps... a masochist?"

Li Jinxi immediately glared at the person who just spoke, Xi Murong, with a dangerous gaze.

"I-I am just joking..." Xi Murong swallowed nervously. Even in Li Jinxi's current state, he would still lose to her in a fight.

"Your jokes are getting worse and worse," she sneered.

"Sorry..."

After dinner, everyone but Meixiu returned to their rooms to rest.

"Where are you going so late at night?" The Manager asked after noticing her.

"T-The convenience store," she hastily replied.

The Manager raised her eyebrows in a questioning manner, but she didn't actually ask any questions.

'Even though the store is open 24/7, there's no need for her to go there now... Oh well, it's none of my business.'

The Manager calmly turned around and walked to the guest room.

Meixiu sighed in relief and left the building shortly after.

Sometime later, she entered the convenience store.

"Welcome."

A new woman that Meixiu did not recognize was at the counter today.

"Hello. Where is the other worker?" She asked.

"She just finished her shift about an hour ago. I work the night shifts."

"I see..."

"Anyways, how may I help you?"

In response, Meixiu took out her box of birth control pills and placed it on the counter.

"Can I have another box?" Meixiu asked, feeling a lot less embarrassed compared to her previous visit.

"Sure thing." The clerk smiled and took out another box of birth control pills from under the counter.

"Thank you." Meixiu said.

However, just as she went to pick up the box, the clerk spoke, "By the way, we have a new product that came in just two days ago. Do you want to try it out?"

"What new product?" Meixiu raised an eyebrow.

"This."

The woman then retrieved a small packet that contained four red medicine capsules.

"What's this?" Meixiu asked.

"It's a stimulator of sorts. It will not only give you more energy during your 'sexy time' with your partner, it will even stimulate your senses, allowing you to feel more pleasure. It's quite new, but it's already gained a lot of popularity regardless of the age. Oh, it can be used for either gender."

"Even if you don't need it, I recommend you try it at least once. It will greatly enhance your sex life— speaking from personal experience." The clerk winked at Meixiu in a suggestive manner.

Meixiu swallowed nervously.

"I-I guess I can give it a try..."

After bagging both items, Meixiu quickly returned to her room.

The following day, everybody gathered in the training area once again.

"You will all be fighting this demon today, and since it's stronger than the previous one, you'll return to your original groups— the one with 4-5 people." Yuan said to them.

He turned to face Li Jinxi and asked her, "How do you feel?"

"Never been better," she said.

"Good."

"I'll give you all ten minutes to prepare yourselves. Then I will unseal the demon."

"Yuan." Li Jinxi suddenly approached him.

"Yes?"

"I have a request. Can I fight the demon by myself?"

"Hmm..." Yuan began pondering.

"In your current state, you'll be able to use the nameless technique for at most 10 minutes before you lose control. Your demon sealing aura isn't strong enough to seal it within that time even if it allows you to attack it nonstop. You can try fighting it without the nameless technique, but you won't be its match. In other words, you won't defeat it."

"I know that I won't be able to seal it, but I still want to fight it by myself. It's for experience."

After pondering for a moment, Yuan nodded, "Alright. You can fight it by yourself."

He then turned to look at Wang Ming and said, "You'll replace Li Jinxi and transfer to group one."

"Huh? Why am I replacing her?" Wang Ming asked.

"She wants to fight the demon by herself."

"What?! Are you crazy? You could barely hold your utensils at dinner yesterday!"

"That was yesterday. I am fine now." Li Jinxi said.

"Fuck, she's really inhuman... She must have been adopted into the Li Family, and her real parents are gorillas..." Xi Murong mumbled in a low voice.

"I heard that." Li Jinxi snapped to glare at him.

"Huh? I didn't say anything..." Xi Murong immediately turned around and began whistling.

Chapter 900 - Drastic Improvements

Sometime later, the first group entered the Demon Sealing Zone and waited for Yuan to unseal the demon.

Once it was unsealed, the demon looked around in a calm manner. However, that calmness quickly went away when it saw Chu Liuxiang and the others surrounding it.

"What is the meaning of this?" The demon spoke in a grim voice.

"They are demon sealers, and they will be sealing you, demon." Yuan said.

And he continued, "You are currently within the Demon Sealing Zone, so don't even think about escaping. Of course, you could kill yourself with Core Detonation."

"However, if you accept my request, I will set you free."

The demon narrowed its eyes on Yuan, who was wearing a mask. It then turned to look at the others there.

"What is your request?"

"It's quite simple, really. I want you to fight these demon sealers for the next 7 days. If you can do that, I will set you free."

"What if I kill them?"

"You can try, but it won't happen."

"If I can kill them, will you let me free early?"

"Sure." Yuan calmly nodded.

"Perfect." A malicious grin appeared on the demon's face.

The demon sealers and the demon clashed with each other shortly after.

The demon sealers expected to quickly overpower the demon, but they soon realized that would not be the case, and the demon was able to defend itself and counter attack at the same time.

Compared to the last demon, it was at least twice as hard, and it would take them thrice as long to seal the demon.

Of course, none of them would end up unscathed. Most of them left the Demon Sealing Zone with bruises. In fact, all of them had experienced near-death situations more than once during their fight.

"Holy shit... How can three levels make such a huge difference? We could barely keep up with the demon this time..." Wang Ming exclaimed as he laid on the floor, his body soaked in sweat.

"I don't think we'll be able to fight the demon more than once a day," Chu Liuxiang said while gasping for air.

"How long did it take to seal the demon? It felt like an eternity," Xi Murong asked.

"Two hours and eleven minutes." Wang Bingbing said.

"Two hours?! It only took us 30 minutes to seal the last one!" Hong Xiuquan exclaimed.

Shortly after the first group finished, the second group entered the Demon Sealing Zone and started fighting the demon.

In the end, it took them a little under two hours to seal the demon.

"One hour and fifty one minutes." Wang Ming said to them.

"I knew it wasn't going to be easy, but to think it was that much harder..." Wang Bingbing sighed.

Yuan approached the exhausted demon sealers and said to them, "At this rate, you won't be able to seal the next demon. Therefore, I will be teaching all of you new demon sealing techniques."

"Oh? How many?" Wang Ming asked out of curiosity.

"I have three demon sealing techniques for each of you."

"Three?!"

Yuan nodded, "It might take some time before you're able to use them, but that's not the real purpose. I want you all to increase your demon sealing aura. It's taking all of you too long to seal the demon, and you're in a group. At this rate, it'll take you an entire day to seal the demon by yourself."

"Anyways, line up. I will give you these techniques now."

Thus, everybody there began lining up in front of him.

Sometime later, Yuan transferred three demon sealing techniques to each of them.

"Everyone here besides Jinxi can leave for today. You can also take tomorrow off to study these new techniques. Since I transferred the techniques directly into your mind, you'll be able to comprehend it faster than normal."

Once everyone but Li Jinxi left, Yuan said to her, "Whenever you're ready."

Li Jinxi nodded and entered the Demon Sealing Zone.

The moment Yuan released the demon, Li Jinxi activated her nameless technique.

"Just one of you this time?" The demon grinned when it saw Li Jinxi.

However, despite only facing Li Jinxi, the demon did not underestimate her. In fact, he knew at a glance that she was the strongest out of everyone it's faced today.

The two of them began exchanging blows shortly after.

Li Jinxi easily overpowered the demon in terms of raw strength and speed, but that did not last long.

After 10 minutes of dominance, Li Jinxi could no longer control the nameless technique and began experiencing a backlash.

However, despite feeling like her muscles were being torn apart, Li Jinxi continued to fight the demon for a couple more minutes until she could no longer lift even a single finger.

"You're mine!" The demon laughed as it lunged forward at the unconscious Li Jinxi.

"Maybe next time." Yuan suddenly appeared behind the demon with the Empyrean Overlord in his grasp.

'What?!' The demon didn't notice Yuan's presence until it was too late.

Its body immediately began turning into stone.

'All it took was a single strike?' The demon stared at Yuan in disbelief as it completely turned into stone.

After sealing the demon, Yuan carried Li Jinxi into her room and began massaging her body.

Two days later, the training resumed.

This time, it took the first group only an hour to seal the demon while the second group took around 50 minutes. It was a drastic improvement that nobody there but Yuan had expected.

This continued until the seventh day, where it would take both groups only 15 minutes to seal the demon.

As for Li Jinxi, she was able to use the nameless technique for 20 minutes straight.

"Great job, everyone. It appears that you're all ready for the next demon." Yuan said to them after their training.

"What are you going to do with the demon now?" Wang Ming asked him.

"I'm going to 'free' it, of course." Yuan responded with a calm smile on his face, causing everyone to swallow nervously.

Chapter 901 - Why Are You Wearing a Mask?

Yuan entered the Demon Sealing Zone and unsealed the demon shortly after Li Jinxi finished her turn.

"I have fulfilled your request, human. You'll set me free as promised." The demon stared at Yuan with a solemn expression.

"Yes, don't worry, I will set you free."

Yuan said as he approached the demon.

"What are you planning?" The demon frowned upon sensing that something was wrong.

However, before it could even react, Yuan extended his hand and grabbed the crystal embedded on its body.

"W-What is the meaning of this, human?!" The demon roared at Yuan.

"What else? I am setting you free."

"Fucking bullshit! You lied to me, human!"

"I didn't lie. You just misunderstood the meaning behind my words, that's all."

"FUCK YOU, YOU DAMN LIVESTOCK!"

The demon became enraged and rushed at Yuan.

"You'll be truly free now." Yuan mumbled in a low voice as he crushed the demon's crystal, instantly killing the demon.

The others were left speechless by Yuan's actions.

"H-He killed the demon just like that?" Wang Ming muttered in disbelief.

"Y-Yuan! Why didn't the demon die when we struck its crystal? I know I'd destroyed it a few times during our training!" Shi Lang asked him.

"That's because it requires a certain technique and a certain level of demon sealing aura to achieve this feat. When you all become strong enough, I will teach you this technique." Yuan said to them.

"It's a promise!"

"Of course."

"Anyways, the next demon won't be unsealed for another week, but I can unseal it early. Take the next five days off. I will deal with the other demons in the meantime."

"Alright."

Yuan approached the Manager afterward and said, "Can you bring all of the demons here tomorrow?"

"A-All of them?" The Manager stared at him with wide eyes.

"Yes. We could wait for them to break out of their seal one by one, or I can kill them all at once."

"Why the sudden rush?" She asked.

"I just remembered that my sister's birthday is coming up soon, so I want to clean things up before I go," he calmly said.

"Is that so..."

"Alright, I will speak with the Lord." The Manager nodded.

"What's wrong? Is there something on my face?" Yuan asked when she continued to stare at him.

"I've been meaning to ask you this but... why are you wearing a mask?"

"Oh, this? The demons would lose all desire to fight if they see my face, and I don't want that." Yuan explained without really going into the details.

"Why would they lose desire to fight if they see your face? That doesn't make any sense..." The Manager asked out of curiosity.

"I don't know. I guess they really hate my face or something." Yuan casually shrugged.

'So he doesn't want to tell me, huh...'

"Whatever." The Manager left shortly after, returning to the peak of the mountain to notify the Lord of the situation.

"He wants to deal with all of the demons at once? I don't have any problems with that. In fact, that's exactly what I want."

The Manager then asked, "Once he defeats all of the demons... are you really going to tell him the truth?"

"He probably already knows the truth. Do you remember what he said? That we came from the Nine Heavens?"

"Of course."

"Then he's already aware of the fact that the Nine Heavens truly exist somewhere in this universe, which is already a third of what we're going to tell him. We might as well tell him everything at this point."

"I guess so..." The Manager sighed.

The following morning, the Manager arrived at Yuan's household with a truck meant for moving furniture.

After parking in the training area, she proceeded to bring out the remaining 9 demons, placing them in an orderly fashion and in the order they would break out of their seal.

"Can you put this one to the side for now? It's going to be the others' practice tool." Yuan pointed at a certain sealed demon and asked the Manager.

"Alright. What about the other demons? Which do you want to kill first?"

"I will handle them all at once. It's more convenient that way, after all."

The Manager frowned and said, "I know you're strong and all, but you shouldn't be so arrogant. You should take the situation more seriously and be more cautious and deal with them one by one."

Yuan sighed, "Fine. I will kill two of them at once, and then I will deal with the strongest one by itself at the end."

"Did you even hear me just now? One. At. A. Time."

"You're underestimating me now, Liya." Yuan smiled.

"How about this? If you let me fight two of them at once, I will fight them without a mask."

"Deal." The Manager immediately agreed, leaving Yuan speechless.

"Was this her intention from the beginning?" He wondered inwardly.

While the Manager moved two of the nine demons into Yuan's Demon Sealing Zone, the others gathered around the area with transportable chairs, acting as though they were going to an outdoor movie.

"Okay, I am ready." The Manager said to Yuan after she finished moving the demons.

"Thank you."

Yuan said as she entered the Demon Sealing Zone.

"Hmm? He's not wearing his mask today?" Wang Bingbing noticed this and asked the others.

"Why does he even feel the need to wear a mask?" Wang Ming asked.

"Do you know?" Xi Murong turned to ask Chu Liuxiang.

"I don't. What about you, Meixiu?" Chu Liuxiang asked her next.

"I don't." She shook her head.

"Even you don't know?" The others were surprised. Out of everyone there, they expected Meixiu to know.

While the others mumbled to each other, Yuan unsealed the demons.

"HAHAHAHA! I AM FREE! FREEEEEE!"

The two demons in the Demon Sealing Zone immediately started laughing out loud.

Yuan patiently waited for the demons to notice him.

When the demons eventually noticed Yuan, they stopped laughing and stared at him with their eyes as wide as saucers.

Chapter 902 - Terrified Demons

"H-Hey... T-That human... Doesn't he look a lot like..."

"Yes... He looks like the D—"

Before the two demons could even fully comprehend the situation, Yuan used his movement technique to instantly close their distance.

"Wha—?!"

"Too late."

The demons tried to distance themselves from Yuan, but it was too late, as he'd grabbed their demon crystals before they could even move.

"Wai—"

And before the demons could even utter a full word, Yuan crushed the crystals, instantly killing them. In fact, not even ten seconds have passed since the demons were released from their seals.

'Fear...? Impossible!' The Manager stared at Yuan with her eyes wide with shock and puzzlement.

'Why would they fear Yuan? No... Can demons even feel fear? It also seemed like the demons recognized him... No... Those demons have been sealed for countless years. There's no way that they could've recognized him. That wouldn't make any logical sense.' The Manager pondered a logical explanation to the phenomenon that had just happened.

"Liya!" Yuan suddenly called for her, bringing her back to reality.

"Can you bring in the next two demons?"

"Che..."

The Manager sucked her teeth before carrying two more demons into the Demon Sealing Zone.

'Why do I have to carry them, anyway?' She wondered inwardly as she placed the last demon into the zone.

"Thanks."

Yuan unsealed the demons shortly after.

The demons instantly noticed Yuan's presence this time around, and when they saw his face, just like the previous two demons, their eyes widened with shock and terror.

'This is definitely the scent of fear! They're fearing him! Why?! Demons have never feared humans before!' The Manager was feeling agitated at this point.

Then she recalled something the Lord had once told her.

'No... There was one entity that demons feared... The Bane of Demons, also known as the Divine Paragon, who freed the Nine Heavens from the Demon Clan's domination.'

However, she couldn't connect the dot between the Divine Paragon and Yuan. After all, these two individuals lived in two different worlds and eras. There was simply no connection between them.

Of course, since she has never seen the Divine Paragon's face before, there was no way that she would have realized the truth.

While the Manager was absorbed in her thoughts, Yuan killed the two demons.

In the blink of an eye, Yuan had killed half of the 8 demons.

"You called me inhuman, right? If I am inhuman, what do you call someone like him?" Li Jinxi asked Xi Murong, who was too shocked to even speak.

However, inside his mind, he could only think of a single word that could describe Yuan.

'God.'

Sometime later, the Manager carried two more demons into the Demon Sealing Zone.

"Y-You are—!"

"I-Impossible! You can't be—"

Once again, Yuan killed the demons before they could even finish a full sentence. Of course, it was made easier due to the demons' fear and confusion.

'He's definitely doing this on purpose! What is he trying to hide?!' The Manager could feel her entire body heating up from anger.

"Manager, the next one." Yuan waved at her with a smile on his face, which only further irritated her.

Sometime later, Yuan unsealed and killed the 7th demon, leaving only one demon— not including the demon that will become a practice tool.

After the Manager carried the final demon into the Demon Sealing Zone, Yuan said to her, "I told you it would be more convenient to just kill them all at once."

"What are you trying to hide from me, Yuan? Why are the demons fearful of you?" She asked him.

"Huh? I have no idea what you're talking about." Yuan shrugged.

'T-This bastard...' The Manager gritted her teeth in frustration, but there was nothing she could do about it, nor could she blame him for wanting to keep a secret.

After all, she has a secret or two herself.

Yuan unsealed the Spirit Lord demon a few moments later, and to everyone's surprise, he didn't immediately attack it.

The Spirit Lord demon stared at Yuan with wide eyes, but it didn't utter a single word. In fact, it refused to.

'The Divine Paragon?! Why the fuck is he here?!' The demon cried inwardly.

It was so spooked by Yuan's appearance that it didn't even notice his cultivation base.

'Why did he unseal me? Fuck... Is he going to torture me like the rumors?!' The demon trembled in fear when it recalled the countless horror stories about the Divine Paragon with torture being one of the most common story.

'Fuck this shit! I'd rather die than be tortured by the Divine Paragon!'

And without any hesitation, the demon destroyed its own crystal.

"What?! It's killing itself already?!" The others were shocked when the demon suddenly started glowing bright red, almost as though there was a powerful light source illuminating the demon from within.

"I don't think so."

Yuan suddenly summoned the Empyrean Overlord and tossed it at the demon, piercing it right in its chest.

"W-What?!"

The demon exclaimed in a shocked voice when its chaotic energy was sealed quicker than it could expand.

However, since the demon had already destroyed its crystal, it wouldn't be saved just because it was sealed before it could explode.

A few moments after the demon was completely sealed, its body began breaking down itself until it was nothing but a pile of dust.

The entire place was dead silent as everybody there stared at the pile of dust until the wind carried it away, leaving nothing but a demon core behind.

'The strongest demon killed itself...? Why? Because of Yuan's face?' The Manager nearly fell onto her buttocks after witnessing such a ridiculous outcome.

"There's only one demon left now. Make sure you all practice your demon sealing techniques before then." Yuan said to the others.

"O-Okay..." They all nodded in a dazed manner.

Once everyone returned to the household, the Manager approached Yuan and said to him, "Follow me."

"Where are we going?" He asked.

"To speak with the Lord."

Chapter 903 - Unread Messages

"The Lord? Why?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"Now that you have defeated the strongest demon, it will only be a matter of time before the last demon is dealt with. Do you remember your conversation with the Lord? That he'd tell you the truth if you take care of his demon problem?"

"Yeah, I remember." Yuan nodded.

And he continued, "However, there is still one demon left. Until I kill the last demon, I won't speak with him. After all, it was part of the agreement."

"Don't you want to know the truth about Cultivation Online and the Lord's identity?" The Manager frowned at him.

"Of course I do, but I'm in no rush. Why are you so impatient to tell me the truth, though? Did something happen?" He smiled at her.

"N-No... Forget it, then."

The Manager left the place shortly after.

Yuan returned to his room shortly after and practiced the nameless technique.

During dinner, Yuan said, "Meixiu, Lulu, Jinxi, we're going to make our way to the Stairway to Heaven tomorrow."

"Hmm? You're ascending already?" Wang Ming asked.

"No, not yet. I will do it after my sister's birthday, which is in about 2 weeks."

"Your sister?" This was news to some of the people there.

"Yes, my younger sister, Yu Rou. She's currently at another faction. What was the name of their faction again?"

"Eternal Lotuses." Meixiu said.

"Right. Eternal Lotuses."

"Oh, I've heard about them. They're a pretty popular and powerful female-only faction." Wang Bingbing said.

"We should probably notify her before we see her. They forbid men from visiting." Meixiu said.

"Hmm... but I don't want to ruin the surprise..." Yuan sighed.

"I know! Meixiu, can you contact the leader of the Eternal Lotuses? I will talk with the leader directly and receive permission so that it wouldn't ruin the surprise."

"Alright. I will contact the Cultivators' Association and ask them to set up a schedule."

"Thank you."

After dinner, Meixiu returned to her own room and called Chairman Lee, the head of the Cultivators' Association.

After a single ring, Chairman Lee picked up the phone and spoke in an excited voice, "Hello?!"

"Hello, Chairman Lee. This is Meixiu from the Demon Sealing Faction."

"Oh! Lady Meixiu! I have been waiting for your call!" Chairman Lee sounded as though he was on the verge of crying through the phone.

'Lady Meixiu...?' Meixiu raised an eyebrow.

"Lady Meixiu, before you say anything, I must ask, have you checked your email since the creation of the Demon Sealing Faction?" Chairman Lee suddenly asked.

"Email? No, I haven't. Why?"

"You should probably take a look at it... You will understand quicker that way."

"Okay, give me a minute."

Meixiu went to grab her laptop and checked her email.

"This is..." Meixiu was shocked when she saw how many unread messages were in her email.

[Unread Messages: 9,999+]

There were many types of messages.

Messages from people who wanted to join the Demon Sealing Faction, messages from other factions that were hoping to form an alliance with them, and most of all, messages from news organizations that wanted to interview their faction— mostly Yuan.

After the creation of the Demon Sealing Faction, news of Player Yuan being its leader spread like wildfire, and people from all over the world wanted to contact them.

However, the only way to contact them was through Meixiu's email, which she'd neglected until now. Because of this, people started contacting the Cultivators' Association instead, but there was nothing they could do besides sending more messages to Meixiu.

"Sorry... I'd completely forgotten about it." Meixiu apologized to Chairman Lee after realizing her mistake.

"It's alright. Better late than never." Chairman Lee chuckled.

"Anyways, is there anything the Cultivators' Association can do for you, Lady Meixiu?"

"Yes, I have a request. Yuan would like to speak with the leader of the Eternal Lotuses. Can you contact them and let them know?"

"The leader of Eternal Lotuses? That would be White Lotus. May I ask for a reason? The Eternal Lotuses will want to know your reason, as well."

"Yuan's little sister is a member of the Eternal Lotuses, and it will be her birthday soon. He wants to surprise her with a visit, but the Eternal Lotuses don't allow men to enter, so we were hoping to work something out."

"Yuan's little sister? I understand. I will contact White Lotus after this, but she might not respond for a while. They're a powerful faction with a popular leader, so they're bound to be very busy."

"I understand. Thank you."

"No need to be humble, Lady Meixiu. The Cultivators' Association is here for you." Chairman Lee said.

Of course, only powerful factions like the Demon Sealing Faction could receive such privileges.

After hanging up, Meixiu placed her phone beside the bed and started going through some unread messages out of curiosity.

Meanwhile, Chairman Lee called the Eternal Lotuses' headquarters.

"Hello, this is Chairman Lee of the Cultivators' Association. I have some important matters to discuss with White Lotus."

"Miss Bai is currently cultivating. Can this wait until tomorrow?" White Lotus' Manager answered the phone.

"I don't mind waiting. Tell White Lotus that Player Yuan from the Demon Sealing Faction would like to speak with her. Call me back when you're ready to speak. That's all."

"W-Wait! Did you just say Player—"

However, Chairman Lee closed the connection before the Manager could even finish her sentence. Of course, this was on purpose, as it would give them more pressure and a sense of urgency.

After staring at her phone in a dazed manner for many moments, the Manager went to look for White Lotus.

"Miss Bai! I apologize for bothering you during your cultivation, but this is urgent!" The Manager knocked on her door.

A few moments later, a white-haired beauty opened the door and appeared before the Manager.

"What is it?"

"Chairman Lee from the Cultivators' Association just called, and he said that Player Yuan from the Demon Sealing Faction would like to speak with you!"

White Lotus immediately narrowed her eyes upon hearing this information.

'Player Yuan? Why would he want to speak with me?' She curiously wondered.

Chapter 904 - Silver Spirit Grass

White Lotus was surprised and confused at the same time when she received news that Player Yuan had reached out to her.

According to her knowledge, Yuan has never reached out to any other player, and this only further increased her curiosity.

What could Player Yuan possibly want from her when he seemingly already has everything?

"Call Chairman Lee back and tell him to let Player Yuan know that I am willing to speak with him. However, I'd like to do it in Cultivation Online if that's possible."

"Y-You want to speak with Player Yuan in Cultivation Online?" Her manager looked at her with wide eyes.

"Aren't you curious? The infamous Player Yuan who's been dominating Cultivation Online since day one. His achievements are light years ahead of everyone else, and he acquired most of them within the first month. However, he's been awfully quiet since his last announcement when he opened the Stairway to Heaven to the second world, almost as though he'd disappeared from this world."

"Okay, I will call Chairman Lee now."

A few moments later, Chairman Lee picked up his phone, "This is Chairman Lee."

"Good evening, Chairman Lee. This is Bai Lianhua. Is it true that Player Yuan wants to speak with me?" White Lotus asked.

"Yes, that is true. I'm sure you're curious as to why. Let me tell—"

"No, don't tell me. I want to ask him for myself." White Lotus interrupted.

"If that's what you wish. When are you available? I will help the two of you schedule an online chat room, where the two of you can chat with each other."

"That's not necessary. I wish to speak with Player Yuan in Cultivation Online in person. Tell him that I will be at the Wuyue Pavilion in Wuyue City in three hours. It's very close to the starting city in the second world. If he's not able to make it there in time, I can wait for him."

"Okay, I will let them know of your response. I will call you back when I get their response."

Chairman Lee hung up the phone and called Meixiu.

"This is Chairman Lee. I have just contacted White Lotus of the Eternal Lotuses. She agrees to meet with Player Yuan, but she wishes to meet him in Cultivation Online in three hours. The location is at Wuyue Pavilion in Wuyue City by the starting city in the second world. Is he able to make it?"

"Give me a minute. I will go ask him right now." Meixiu placed the phone down and went to knock on Yuan's door.

Once Yuan opened the door, Meixiu relayed the news to him.

"I see. Wuyue Pavilion in Wuyue City, right? Let them know that I will be there." Yuan nodded.

While Yuan logged into Cultivation Online, Meixiu told Chairman Lee of the situation.

"Thank you, I will let White Lotus know immediately."

"No, thank you for the help." Meixiu said before hanging up.

After logging into Cultivation Online, Yuan immediately began making his way towards Wuyue City.

Since the destination was quite close to the starting city in Spirit Heaven, it didn't take even an hour for Yuan to arrive.

After arriving at the city, Yuan decided to take a tour around the city since he had plenty of time left before the meeting.

'Since I am going to be asking White Lotus for a favor, I should probably give her a gift, right? First impressions are quite important, after all.'

With that in mind, Yuan began pondering what he should gift White Lotus.

Then he recalled something Yu Rou had told him before.

'White Lotus was the first player to have a servant. I should probably give her something that would benefit her servant.'

Yuan immediately began looking for a store that would have such gifts.

However, it was quite late at night, so most of the stores were closed.

Then he recalled something else.

"Feng Feng, do you happen to have more Spirit Fruits on you?" Yuan asked her.

"Spirit Fruits? No, I gave what I had left to you when we first met," she said.

"If you don't mind me asking, why do you need Spirit Fruits?"

"I am meeting someone later, and I want to give her a gift. She's probably a beast tamer, so I want to give her something related to that," Yuan explained.

"I see... Do you know what kind of magical beast she's tamed?"

"No, I don't."

"Hmm..."

Feng Yuxiang pondered for a moment before speaking again, "I have a suggestion, Young Master. Since you don't know what kind of magical beast she's tamed, you can just give her something that will benefit most magical beasts. I have something called 'Silver Spirit Grass'. Not only is it the favorite food for many magical beasts, it can even boost their cultivation growth rate by 50 percent until they reach Spirit Master."

"That sounds perfect. How much do they usually cost? I'll pay you for some." Yuan said.

"I-It's alright, Young Master. It doesn't cost too much, so you can just have them for free."

Yuan raised an eyebrow and asked her, "Are you saying that because it's really that cheap, or are you saying that because it's too expensive for me? Knowing you, I doubt you would have anything cheap on you. Tell me the truth, Feng Feng."

"It cost 5,000,000 spirit stones for a batch of Silver Spirit Grass..."

"5,000,000..." Yuan swallowed nervously.

He rubbed his eyes for a moment before speaking, "Don't worry, I can afford it after selling the Gu Family's treasures. I will pay you back later."

"You really don't have to..."

"No, I must. Otherwise, it wouldn't feel like a gift since I got it from someone else for free."

"If you insist, Young Master."

Sometime later, Yuan made his way to the Wuyue Pavilion even though there was still an hour left. It was an open area surrounded by an artificial pond. It was also a lively outdoor restaurant that had dancers in the middle and musicians on each side.

Yuan swept the entire area with his divine sense until he noticed a beautiful white-haired young woman who was sitting by herself at a small round table, yet she was surrounded by young men that were trying to get her attention.

Seeing this, Yuan shook his head inwardly and approached the table with the white-haired beauty.

Chapter 905 - Meeting White Lotus

"Hey, pretty. Why are you sitting here by yourself? Why don't you come sit with us. It'll be our treat."

"Come sit with my friends, young fairy. We just got accepted into the Seven Spirit Academies, so we're celebrating."

"It's a crime for a beauty such as yourself to be alone, come with me. I'll spend the whole night with you."

The white-haired beauty sighed, "I'm waiting for my friend, so you'll have to entertain yourselves without me."

However, the young men did not leave and became even more motivated.

'Why must the men be even more annoying in this world...' The white-haired beauty sighed inwardly.

"Excuse me, I'd like to get through." A calm voice suddenly resounded amongst the dozens of voices there.

"Huh? Who the hell are you? Can't you see that there's a line here?"

"I know you're horny, but wait for your turn, buddy."

It was at this moment a powerful pressure suddenly enveloped the place, startling everybody there.

Although the pressure was only directly at certain people there and lasted only a second, it was strong enough to completely silence the entire place.

The white-haired beauty then watched as the people around her moved to the side with terrified expressions on their faces, creating a path for someone.

"Hello, you must be White Lotus." Yuan greeted the white-haired beauty when he approached the table.

White Lotus looked at Yuan with her eyes slightly widened, and she subconsciously swallowed nervously.

"Are you Player Yuan?" She asked after a moment of silence.

"You can just call me Yuan." He nodded.

"Can I sit here?" He then pointed at the chair on the opposite side of her.

"Please."

Once he was seated, the people around them started to disappear, and the music resumed. However, the overall noise in that place remained quite low, almost as though the people there were afraid of disturbing someone.

"I hope you didn't wait too long for me." Yuan said to her.

"It's fine, I wasn't expecting for you to show up this early, either," she said.

And she continued, "I was surprised when Chairman Lee called me. I never expected to be contacted by the famous Player Yuan who has remained a mystery since the start of Cultivation Online."

"A mystery, huh? I just never had a reason to speak with other Players, I guess." Yuan said.

"Nevertheless, I'm glad that you'd reached out to me. I have always wanted to meet you." White Lotus said with a slight smile on her face.

"You wanted to meet me? Why?" Yuan raised an eyebrow.

"I was very proud to become the first player to have a servant, yet you'd made my achievement completely obsolete with your Divine-grade servant. Do you have any idea how that made me feel? I have never felt so humiliated before."

"Sorry, that wasn't my intention."

"I know, and I am not blaming you." White Lotus shook her head.

"Anyways, why did you want to speak with me?"

Yuan raised his eyebrows in a puzzled manner.

"Chairman Lee didn't tell you?" He asked.

"It's not that he didn't tell me. I just figured that it would be better if I heard it directly from you rather than through another person. That would be more sincere, after all."

"I see..."

"Then before I tell you, allow me to give you this."

Yuan retrieved the Silver Spirit Grass and placed it on the table.

White Lotus looked at the bundle of grass with a confused face.

"Why is he giving me grass?" She wondered to herself.

"Since you're the first Player to have acquired a servant, I figured this would be a perfect gift for you. It's called Silver Spirit Grass. If you feed it to your servant, it will boost their cultivation speed by 50 percent until they reach the strength of a Spirit Master."

"What?!" White Lotus exclaimed in a shocked voice.

"I know it's not much since I didn't have enough time to prepare—"

"I-I cannot accept such a gift. It's too valuable." White Lotus suddenly interrupted.

And she continued in a nervous voice, "I saw a treasure with similar effects before, but it was only at 10 percent, and it was already worth a million spirit stones. I cannot imagine how much this treasure with 50 percent effect is worth..."

"Don't worry about it. If you don't use it, I will have to give it to someone else since I have no use for it."

White Lotus stared at the Silver Spirit Grass with a pondering face.

However, before she could even come to a conclusion, a shadowy figure suddenly shot out from her body and started gnawing on the Silver Spirit Grass.

"X-Xu Hei! Stop!" White Lotus shouted in a panicked voice when she realized that it was her servant that was eating the priceless Silver Spirit Grass.

But alas, the Silver Spirit Grass disappeared almost immediately.

"N-No way..." White Lotus could feel all of her strength leave her body as she watched millions of spirit stones disappear into her servant's stomach.

"A cat with two tails? So this is your servant, huh?" Yuan stared at the cat with interest.

"I-I'm so sorry!" White Lotus suddenly stood up and apologized with her head lowered.

Meow

The Two-tailed Black Cat looked at Yuan with a thankful gaze.

"I will accept your apology if you listen to my request." Yuan smiled.

"Anything!" White Lotus quickly said.

"You see, my little sister, Yu Rou, is actually a member of your faction. It is going to be her birthday soon, and I'd like to surprise her with a visit. However, I heard that your faction doesn't allow men to enter, so I wanted to see if I could work something out with you, the leader of the faction."

White Lotus stared at him with a dumbfounded face.

"T-This is the reason he wanted to contact me?!" She cried inwardly.

"Wait... Did you just say Yu Rou? You're her brother?" She asked him after a moment of silence.

"Yes, I am. Do you know her?"

White Lotus nodded in a dazed manner.

Chapter 906 - Meeting White Lotus (2)

"Yu Rou is one of the most talented new recruits we had recently, so it's hard to miss her. But to think that she was the little sister of 'Yuan', I am truly speechless." White Lotus said.

"How is she doing in the faction? It's been a while since I spoke with her. Although she's called multiple times, I am always busy, and when I try calling her back, she's busy with practice, so I haven't been able to speak with her recently, not to mention the difference in time zone." Yuan sighed.

"Yu Rou is very diligent in her training. She's always the first one there and the last to leave. Because of her commitment, she's earned all of the instructors' respects. For her to have such discipline, she must have wonderful parents."

"..."

When their parents were mentioned, Yuan's expression suddenly turned cold, and killing intent began leaking from him.

'Eh?' White Lotus was quite startled by such a drastic change in atmosphere, and she began worrying that she might have said something she shouldn't have.

"Excuse me." Yuan noticed the scared look on White Lotus' face and quickly controlled his emotions.

"I'm sorry if I—"

"No, it wasn't your fault. I just remembered some unpleasant memories, that's all."

And he continued, "Anyways, I know that I am asking a lot from you, but if you cannot let me meet with Yu Rou at your place, can you help me meet up with Yu Rou somewhere outside? I want it to remain as a surprise, so if you could, don't let her know that she's going to meet me."

White Lotus pondered Yuan's request as she looked at Xu Hei, who was still sitting on the table and licking its lips.

"Alright, I will make it an exception and allow you to enter our land to celebrate Yu Rou's birthday."

"Really? Thank you!" Yuan immediately smiled.

"This is the least I can do for you. Just let me know when you plan on stopping by." White Lotus smiled back.

"Great!" Yuan proceeded to tell her the date of Yu Rou's birthday.

Sometime later, he asked her, "Since we're already here, why don't we eat something? It'll be my treat."

"Sure." White Lotus nodded.

Once a waiter approached their table, they began ordering their food.

Due to their table's small size, Yuan decided to order a simple dish and some tea.

While they waited for their food, Yuan asked, "I have been wondering about how other Players enjoy their time in Cultivation Online. Can you tell me some of your experiences in this world? In return, I will tell you some of mine."

"Sure." White Lotus accepted without hesitation.

After all, any information about Yuan's experience was incredibly valuable and highly sought after by the entire world.

And for the next twenty minutes, White Lotus recalled some of her adventures with Yuan.

Although they were not as grand and as exciting as Yuan's adventures, it was still interesting in its own way.

Once the food was ready, they took a break from talking to eat and enjoy the music.

Afterward, Yuan shared some of his earlier experiences with White Lotus.

He spoke about how he'd fought a horde of monsters to protect Pang City. He spoke of his experience at the Dragon Essence Temple and how he participated in a zither competition with a fellow disciple. He spoke of the Mystic Realm. He spoke about powerful entities known as demons, and how he'd visited a world of dragons that looked like humans.

White Lotus was absolutely captivated by his wondrous experience— so much so that she'd completely lost track of time.

In fact, she had a thrilled expression on her face the entire time, but she was too absorbed to be aware of her own expression.

White Lotus wanted Yuan to continue his story forever, but the Wuyue Pavilion had a closing time, and it was reached before either of them were aware.

"Excuse me, esteemed guests. Wuyue Pavilion will be closing soon. However, if you wish to stay here and continue chatting, you are free to do so." The manager of the place approached them in a timid manner, as he was afraid to anger them by disturbing their peaceful atmosphere.

"It's already closing time? I'm sorry, Yuan. I didn't intend on taking up so much of your time." White Lotus said to him.

"It was enjoyable, so I don't mind." Yuan smiled.

White Lotus nodded and said, "Let's continue this conversation another time."

"Here is my phone number. If you need anything, don't hesitate to call." She retrieved a piece of paper and started writing on it.

"Thank you." Yuan accepted the paper and memorized the number with a single glance.

"I know you're coming for Yu Rou, but I look forward to your visit as well. Goodnight." White Lotus said to him before logging off.

Yuan logged off shortly after.

After logging off, White Lotus removed the helmet and proceeded to stare at her ceiling with a dazed look on her face.

"Yuan, huh? What an intriguing person. He's nothing like the rumors." A gentle smile appeared on her face.

Then she realized something.

"I completely forgot! I wanted to ask him about his servants! What a blunder!" She facepalmed herself upon realizing this.

"I wanted to see what a Divine-grade and Ancient-grade servant looked like, too! Damn it!"

Sometime later, once she calmed down, White Lotus got off the bed and walked to her computer.

After logging into the computer, she opened up a private chat room and typed into the chat box—

[White Lotus: I just met with Player Yuan in Cultivation Online. We chatted about our experience with the game over some food and tea. He's truly a unique person with many stories to tell.]

Within seconds of White Lotus' comment, dozens of people started typing in the chat.

[Blue Monster: No way! Really?! Where did you meet him?!]

[Green Hat: Tell us what happened!]

[Fiery Queen: How did you contact him?! I also want to speak with him!]

However, White Lotus didn't respond to any of them.

After reading some of the responses, she'd closed the chat room and walked away from her computer with a smug smile on her face.

Chapter 907 - Teasing the Legacy Families

After White Lotus teased everyone in the chat room with the information that she'd met with Player Yuan, hundreds of people began trying to reach out to White Lotus.

They tried messaging her through emails, through the chat room, and even through her phone.

When none of that worked, they started calling her and those around her.

"Miss Bai... They're calling us nonstop. Why don't you just respond to them?" Her manager pleaded with her, as her phone has been blowing up nonstop for the past hour.

"Just turn off your phone like I did." White Lotus smiled.

"And then it will only be a matter of time before they start showing up at our doorstep. In fact, I am willing to bet that some of them are already on their way here!" Her manager sighed.

"Let them come. They're always talking about Player Yuan, so I am teasing them for a bit."

"You're so evil, Miss Bai..."

"It'll only be for a bit." White Lotus shrugged.

The following day, as expected, a crowd of people showed up in front of the Eternal Lotuses' headquarters.

Of course, they were all females. And because they were all from Legacy Families, the Eternal Lotuses couldn't just send them away.

"Miss Bai, here are the families that are currently outside." Her manager handed her a list of names.

"Oh? Fiery Queen is also here?" White Lotus noticed her name at glance.

"Yes, and she said that she won't leave until you meet with her." The manager sighed.

White Lotus smiled and said, "Bring her inside. Tell the others that I am only going to be speaking with Fiery Queen and nobody else."

"Right away."

Sometime later, a beautiful young woman with long, wavy crimson hair appeared before White Lotus in her room.

"White Lotus! How dare you leave us hanging after dropping that bomb in the chat room yesterday! Do you have any idea how much ruckus your comment had caused?!" Fiery Queen began lecturing White Lotus the moment she entered the room.

"Ruckus? It was just a casual comment. Why would there be a ruckus?" White Lotus acted ignorant.

"Y-You met with Player Yuan, right? The mysterious player that shook the entire world with his impossible achievements! Everybody and their mother has been trying to contact him but to no avail. Even a teaspoon of information on him is worth a fortune! You must tell me about your meeting with him!"

"Why should I tell you— or anybody, for that matter? It was a private conversation between the two of us. There's no need for the whole world to know about it." White Lotus shook her head.

"Bullshit! Then why did you mention it in the group chat? You could've kept the meeting to yourself!"

"I just wanted to see your reactions, that's all."

Fiery Queen was speechless.

"You're a really horrible person, you know that, right?"

White Lotus chuckled, "Is that so? I was going to give you a chance to meet him, but since I am a horrible person..."

"W-Wait! I was joking! You're not a horrible person! Please, I want to meet him, too!" Fiery Queen began panicking.

White Lotus then said, "If you're thinking about recruiting him, I suggest you give up on that idea."

"Why? Did you already recruit him or something?" Fiery Queen frowned.

"No, I didn't even try to recruit him."

"Why not?"

"You wouldn't understand it until you meet him. That man... He's untamable." White Lotus sighed.

"You won't know until you try." Fiery Queen said.

"Try?" White Lotus scoffed, and she continued, "When I first met him, I was barely able to keep my composure. I felt like a prey before its predator — it was a truly humbling experience. Even though he was very polite and humble, he has this overwhelming presence that cannot be masked."

"So you're saying that he's a dangerous individual?" Fiery Queen raised her eyebrows.

"Yes and no. He seems like a genuinely good person and someone easy to befriend, but if you offend him, he'll become your worst nightmare. He's that sort of individual." White Lotus said, recalling her experience with Yuan.

"Unfortunately, even if I trust you, this is not something we can decide on. It'll be our families that will make the final decision. Speaking of our families, has your family contacted you yet?" Fiery Queen asked her.

"No, they haven't."

"Well, color me surprised."

"But it'll only be a matter of time." White Lotus said.

"What will you do if they want you to recruit him?" Fiery Queen asked.

"Then I'll recruit him." She calmly said.

Fiery Queen frowned and said, "Even after everything you'd just said? You're such a hypocrite."

"He's going to refuse, anyways. The most important thing is the way we approach him and that we don't push our luck."

"You knew this was going to happen before you even made that comment in the group chat yesterday. Why?"

"Who knows." White Lotus shrugged.

White Lotus suddenly noticed her private cell phone ringing.

"Speaking of the devil. Looks like my family has finally decided to contact me," she said with a smile.

"If you don't mind..." White Lotus looked at Fiery Queen.

"We're not done yet! I will be waiting outside!" Fiery Queen said before going outside.

White Lotus answered the phone and began speaking with her parents.

"Yes, it's true."

"No, not yet. I didn't want to rush things."

"Don't worry, I will have another chance to meet him soon."

"Yes, I know. I will do my best to recruit him."

"Sorry, but I promised him that I wouldn't reveal any information about our meeting yesterday."

"Even if it's my own family, there is a chance that it could be leaked outside. Unless you want to risk offending him and lose our chance to recruit him..."

"I understand. Goodbye."

White Lotus hung up many minutes later and sighed in relief.

Meanwhile, on the other side of the world, Yuan logged into Cultivation Online and met up with those that will be ascending the Stairway to Heaven with him.

Chapter 908 - Confronting the Gu Family

Chapter 908 - Confronting the Gu Family

"Are you guys ready?" Yuan asked Meixiu and the others after returning to the starting city.

"I'm ready." Chu Liuxiang nodded.

"Same." Meixiu said.

Li Jinxi silently nodded.

"Great. Now then... which way is the Stairway to Heaven?" Yuan asked his companions.

Xiao Hua appeared the next moment and pointed in a certain direction.

"Since I don't want to take up too much of your time, let's fly there." Yuan said afterward.

"Fly?" Li Jinxi raised her eyebrows.

Yuan then used Qi Manifestation to wrap his spiritual energy around them before lifting them into the air.

Although Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang were used to the feeling of flight, this was Li Jinxi's first time flying in such a manner.

"Brother Yuan, do you need help?" Xiao Hua asked him.

"It's fine. I have plenty of spiritual energy." He said.

Thus, they began flying towards the Stairway to Heaven, unaware of the army waiting for them.

Meanwhile, somewhere near the Stairway to Heaven.

"Patriarch Gu, there is still no sign of this 'Yuan'. Do you think the information provided to us could be fake? It's already been a week since we've started camping out here." An elder of the Gu Family said.

"No, that's not possible. The person who provided me this information is a reputable source. He wouldn't lie to me." Patriarch Gu said.

And he continued, "We'll wait here for a whole month if we have to. Stay vigilant. You never know when he'll show up."

"Yes."

Meanwhile, inside the House of Riches, Gu Xiulan was lying on the couch staring at the Spirit Jade Feng Yuxiang gave to her when someone knocked on her door.

"What is it?" Gu Xiulan stored the Spirit Jade away and turned to look at the door.

"Manager, have you heard? Patriarch Gu left the Gu Family with over a thousand experts and stationed themselves around the Stairway to Heaven."

"What? When did this happen?" Gu Xiulan frowned.

"About a week ago."

"Do you know why?"

"No, I don't."

After pondering for a moment, two figures suddenly appeared inside her head.

'Oh no! Don't tell me it's because of them!' Gu Xiulan immediately sat up on the bed and retrieved a communication jade slip.

"Damn it! He's not picking up! What's that idiot doing?!"

Gu Xiulan rushed outside and said, "I will be away for a bit!"

After leaving the House of Riches, Gu Xiulan began flying towards the direction of the Stairway to Heaven.

'I really hope I won't be too late to stop their foolishness!' She prayed as she flew.

"Hmm? Why are there so many people here?" Yuan wondered out loud as they approached the Stairway to Heaven and noticed the people at the bottom.

"Halt!"

A loud voice suddenly resounded, and a figure with the strength of a Spirit Grandmaster approached them a moment later.

"State your name!" The Spirit Grandmaster demanded.

"Huh? Why do I have to give you my name?" Yuan raised an eyebrow.

"Insolence! You're standing before the Gu Family, one of Seven Legacy Families! I will not repeat myself! Identify yourselves!" The Spirit Grandmaster repeated.

'Gu Family, huh? Why are they out here? Are they waiting for us— for me?' Yuan wondered inwardly.

"My name is Tian Chenyu." Yuan calmly responded.

He turned to look at the others and nodded his head.

"Chu Liuxiang."

"Meixiu."

"Li Jinxi."

"Xiao Hua."

The ladies all introduced themselves.

The Spirit Grandmaster looked at the list in his hand. When he couldn't see any of their names on it, he nodded and said, "You may pass."

"Thank you." Yuan didn't say anything else and began flying away.

However, he suddenly turned around and extended his hand, catching a sword that had been flying at him.

Yuan glanced at the sword in his grasp before looking at the Spirit Grandmaster.

"What's the meaning of this?" He asked.

"Do you really take me for a fool, Yuan?" The Spirit Grandmaster sneered.

"How dare you attack Brother Yuan's back..." Xiao Hua's eyes flickered with killing intent.

"Wait, Xiao Hua." Yuan beckoned her to stop.

"How did you know?" He then asked the Spirit Grandmaster.

The Spirit Grandmaster then retrieved a jade slip and activated it, which immediately projected Yuan's face.

"That looks like the disciple examination... Someone had captured my appearance through the broadcast, huh?" Yuan quickly realized how the Spirit Grandmaster knew his true identity.

The Spirit Grandmaster then retrieved a talisman and activated it.

The talisman suddenly exploded with light, just like a firework.

When the rest of the Gu Family noticed the firework, they immediately started approaching their location, and within moments, hundreds of experts surrounded Yuan and his group.

"I was worried that you wouldn't come, bandit who dared to rob my Gu Family." Patriarch Gu showed up shortly afterward.

"Yuan... What's going on here?" Li Jinxi asked him.

"Don't worry, I will handle it. Feng Feng, Xiao Hua, Yingying, I will leave them in your hands."

Feng Yuxiang and Lan Yingying appeared the next moment and formed a triangle around Meixiu and the others with Xiao Hua.

"Where the hell did they come from?"

"Wow, I have never seen so many jade beauties in one place before..."

The Gu Family was shocked by Feng Yuxiang and Lan Yingying's sudden appearance.

"You called a whole army just to punish me? I'm flattered." Yuan said to Patriarch Gu.

"I admire your ability to stay calm in such a situation, so I am going to give you a way out. Hand over the treasures that you had stolen from my family and I will let you leave with your life. However, you will no longer be a cultivator."

"..."

Yuan glanced at Meixiu and the others.

Although Tian Chenyu has killed other cultivators before, they were all demon worshippers that have colluded with demons, so it doesn't make it any easier for Yuan to kill these people even with Tian Chenyu's memories and experience.

Furthermore, he didn't want Meixiu and the others to see him slaughtering other people.

"I don't know what you're talking about. I never stole anything from your family. What had happened was—"

"I don't care about your side of the story. You have something that belongs to my family and that's all it matters." Patriarch Gu interrupted.

"If you insist on opposing my Gu Family, then you leave me no other choice. Since you stole something from me, it is only fair that I take something from you."

Patriarch Gu pointed at the ladies behind him and spoke in a cold voice, "After I kill you, I will take back my treasures along with your women and make them my Gu Family's slaves for the rest of their lives, and everyone here will have a chance to enjoy them!"

When Patriarch Gu's people heard his words, they immediately began shouting in excitement.

"Is that so..." Yuan lowered his head and muttered in a low voice.

A cold voice suddenly resounded in his head the next moment.

'Regardless if they are Immortal or God, slaughter all that obstruct your path! Let your bloodlust consume the heavens and all those within it! Kill these ants that dares to covet your women! Let them know true fear!'

When Yuan heard the Evil God's voice, his eyes suddenly turned blood red, and his body began oozing with killing intent so intense that it was possible to see with one's bare eyes.

"Y-Young Master..."

Feng Yuxiang swallowed nervously when she noticed red mist filled with killing intent being discharged from Yuan's body, resembling the miasma at the Demons' Valley, and it gave her a sensation of dread and despair that not even demons could achieve.

"Brother Yuan..." Xiao Hua's body trembled in fear when she sensed Yuan's killing intent. This is the second time that she's seen him in such a state. The first time she saw it she was reminded of her father, and it was even more so this time, almost as though her father was standing in Yuan's place right now.

"W-Watch out! There's something off about him!" Patriarch Gu immediately warned the others, and this was before Yuan's killing intent reached him.

Once he felt Yuan's killing intent, it made his blood turn cold, and it felt like his body had turned into an ice statue.

When the others with a lower cultivation sensed Yuan's killing intent, they started screaming with madness, almost as though they'd lost their mind or they were actively being tortured.

The entire area quickly became filled with shrieks and people screaming, almost as though they'd suddenly entered the deepest parts of hell.

Chapter 909 - Evil God's Killing Intent

Chapter 909 - Evil God's Killing Intent

"Aaaahh!!!"

"Somebody! Kill me! End this pain!"

"Help me! Mommy!"

Hundreds of cultivators screamed like their lives depended on it, almost as though they were being tortured.

It didn't matter if they were Spirit Grandmasters or stone-cold killers—none of them were spared.

The only ones that could barely maintain their sanity were those at Spirit Lord and above.

"W-What is going on?" Li Jinxi looked at the chaos around them with a terrified face.

"Have they gone mad? Did Yuan do this to them?" Chu Liuxiang swallowed nervously.

Of course, the only ones that weren't affected by the Evil God's killing intent were Meixiu and the others.

"This killing intent reminds me of our training at the Qi Family but countless times stronger..." Meixiu mumbled in a dazed voice as she stared at Yuan's figure from behind.

'What happened to you, Yuan?' Meixiu sighed inwardly, feeling worried about Yuan's condition.

Eventually, the red mist released by Yuan covered a distance of 10 miles, and all greenery within his miasma would die, turning the scenery into that of something similar to an apocalypse.

The magical beasts and animals all ran for their lives, and those that weren't fast enough to escape the miasma would fall unconscious with their longevity slowly being consumed by their intense fear.

The cultivators with the Gu Family eventually started harming themselves and those around them.

They scratched their faces until it was covered in blood. Some of them even dug out their own eyeballs.

The scene was becoming more and more gruesome with every passing second.

After snapping out of her daze, Feng Yuxiang created a wall of flame around Meixiu and the others so they wouldn't be able to see the scene any longer.

Patriarch Gu also snapped out of his daze and shouted, "Everyone! Stop him! We cannot allow this to go on any further!"

All of the Spirit Lords that were still sane immediately began throwing everything they had at Yuan.

Although they were all scared to death and wanted to turn around and run, nobody there dared to turn their backs to Yuan.

"Disappear from my sight." Yuan muttered in a cold voice when he noticed their movements.

There were a total of 13 Spirit Lords in the Gu Family, so Yuan created 12 clones of the Starry Abyss and attacked them with Flying Dagger.

Despite their small size, the Starry Abyss pierced through the air with tremendous force that could easily crush even a peak Spirit Lord.

Like 13 shooting stars, the Starry Abyss soared through the sky until they reached their targets.

"Ah!"

More screams resounded as 10 out of 13 Spirit Lords perished from Yuan's Mortal-rank technique.

As for the remaining three Spirit Lords, they were barely able to escape with their lives, but none of them managed to escape unharmed, and two of them were even crippled in the process.

"Impossible... How can a single person possess such power? He's only a Spirit Lord, too!" Patriarch Gu exclaimed.

'It's over... I have offended a monster that we couldn't afford to offend... And for what...? For those idiots in the Lower Heaven?'

Patriarch Gu lost all desire to retaliate and just hovered in the air with a blank look on his face. He'd completely given up.

"Young Master, please have mercy!" A voice suddenly resounded.

Patriarch Gu subconsciously turned to the sound.

"Gu Xiulan...? What are you doing here?" He asked her.

However, Gu Xiulan ignored Patriarch Gu and flew past him until she was in front of Yuan.

She immediately kowtowed in the air and begged, "Please! Have mercy! This is all caused by a misunderstanding!"

"A misunderstanding, you say?" Yuan narrowed his eyes at her.

"Yes! Our Gu Family is at fault here! We will bear all responsibility for what happened here today!" She said.

Yuan suddenly felt someone tugging his clothes from behind.

He turned around to see Xiao Hua. She had her head lowered, almost as though she was too afraid to look at him, and her petite body was shivering uncontrollably.

"B-Brother Yuan... Xiao Hua is afraid..." She mumbled in a low voice.

Yuan's eyes widened, and he immediately stopped releasing the Evil God's killing intent. However, the red miasma continued to linger for a while before slowly disappearing.

He placed his hand on her head and sighed, "I'm sorry, Xiao Hua. I lost control of my emotions just now and scared you."

Xiao Hua lifted her head to see a gentle smile on his face.

She wiped the tears around her eyes and smiled, "It's okay."

Yuan nodded, and he proceeded to look at the chaos he's caused with his killing intent alone.

Even though the miasma was quickly clearing, the cultivators from the Gu Family weren't calming down, and they continued to harm each other.

Yuan turned to look at Gu Xiulan and Patriarch Gu. Their faces were pale white, and Patriarch Gu looked especially bad, almost as though he'd painted his face with white paint.

"I won't apologize for what happened here today. If you'd given me a chance to explain myself without threatening harm to my friends, things wouldn't have gotten this bad."

"I-I deeply apologize for my behavior and rashness. Please, spare my Gu Family. I was the one who spoke about harming your friends. Take my life and spare the others."

Yuan narrowed his eyes at Patriarch Gu and silently pondered.

"Just like the Gu Family from the Lower Heavens, I will give you a chance. Because of your Gu Family, my friends have suffered greatly today, and Xiao Hua even shed tears. I demand compensation. Leave behind all of your treasures and scam. If you walk from this place with even a single treasure on your body, I will finish what I started."

"Thank you for your mercy!" Patriarch Gu wasted no time taking out all of his spatial rings and storage pouches before handing them to Yuan.

"You don't need to give me anything." Yuan said to Gu Xiulan, who was also taking out her treasures.

"Thank you." Gu Xiulan bowed to him.

Chapter 910 - Sect Master of the Universal Music Academy

Chapter 910 - Sect Master of the Universal Music Academy

After accepting Patriarch Gu's treasures, Yuan took a peek into one of them randomly, and to his surprise, the treasures in this specific spatial ring were all protected by the Gu Family's Destiny Seal.

'The last Gu Family only placed Destiny Seals on their most valuable treasures. Does this mean that Patriarch Gu also carries around his family's heritage? What luck!' Yuan laughed inwardly after realizing this fact.

Indeed, just like the Patriarch Gu of the Lower Heavens, the Patriarch Gu of this world also carries around his family's more valuable treasures, as he believed that it would be safer on him.

After all, who would be dumb and bold enough to rob the Patriarch of one of Seven Legacy Families? Not even a madman would dare do something this bold.

After putting away the treasures he'd just acquired from Patriarch Gu, Yuan spoke in a calm voice, "I have one more thing for you before I leave."

"How did you find out that I would be heading to the Stairway to Heaven? Who told you?"

"The Sect Master of the Universal Music Academy, Sun Hao. He was the one who gave me the information."

"I figured it would be him." Yuan shook his head and sighed.

He then narrowed his eyes at Patriarch Gu, "I was planning on crippling your cultivation base, but since I'd already killed so many experts in your Gu Family, I will spare you from this fate."

"Thank you for your mercy." Patriarch Gu lowered his head.

Although he was unaware, Patriarch Gu's cultivation had already suffered irreparable damage because of the intense fear and stress that he'd just experienced. It may take a few days, maybe even a few months, but his cultivation will eventually collapse on itself.

Sometime later, Feng Yuxiang removed the fire wall around Meixiu and the others.

"Let's go." Yuan said to them, and they continued their journey to the Stairway to Heaven.

The ladies had countless questions for Yuan, but none of them had the courage to ask him, and they preferred to wait until Yuan decided to tell them, so they all remained silent for the rest of their journey.

'Young Master's killing intent just now... It's not something that can be achieved even if he killed people everyday from the day he was born. It requires hundreds if not thousands of years to cultivate, not to mention the amount of people he needed to kill to acquire such killing intent. What do you think, Xiao Hua? Do you have any idea about it? You've been with him the longest, right?' Feng Yuxiang tried to speak with Xiao Hua and Lan Yingying through spiritual sense, but Xiao Hua was not in the mood to chit-chat.

'I don't know. Stop bothering Xiao Hua, phoenix.'

Feng Yuxiang shook her head with a bittersweet smile.

'Do you think it has something to do with his past lives? I have been wondering about this for a while, but when Yuan mentioned his past lives' memories, it sounded like he was talking about memories of more than just one person.' Lan Yingying speculated.

'You think the Young Master has more than just the Divine Paragon's memories? Is that even possible? Having memories of two lives... That's ridiculously heaven-defying if it's real...' Feng Yuxiang said.

'Well, this Yuan that we're talking about...' Lan Yingying said.

'You're right... The Young Master is always like this...' Feng Yuxiang sighed inwardly.

Sometime later, they arrived at the Stairway to Heaven.

"You guys can log off first. I'll climb the Stairway to Heaven when I return from Yu Rou's birthday surprise." Yuan said after putting them down.

"What about you? What are you going to do now?" Chu Liuxiang asked him.

Yuan smiled and said, "I have some unfinished business that needs to be taken care of."

"..."

They had a feeling that Yuan was going to do something dangerous and crazy.

"Yuan... Stay safe, okay?" Meixiu said to him after a moment of silence.

"Of course." Yuan nodded.

"I'll be done before dinner."

After Meixiu, Chu Liuxiang, and Li Jinxi logged off the game, Yuan lifted his head and stared at the blue sky in a dazed manner.

"I warned them that if they tried to hurt my friends again that I'd return and claim their lives. Sect Master Sun, do you really think I am a pushover? I have given you enough chances now. If I don't kill you now, who knows what you'll do once you find out about Wang Ming and the others."

"Feng Feng, do you know the location of the Universal Music Academy?"

"That way." She immediately pointed west.

"Let's go."

Four hours later, Yuan arrived at the Universal Music Academy.

"Sun Hao! Again and again you've pushed my limit! Do you really think that I won't kill you because of your status?! Get out here and accept your punishment!"

Yuan's voice echoed throughout the Universal Music Academy.

A few moments later, hundreds of figures could be seen flying towards him, but Sun Hao was nowhere to be seen.

"Who the hell are you?! How dare you speak of the Sect Master's name in such a disrespectful tone! You're courting death!"

"Do you even realize where you are, brat?"

The disciples of the Universal Music Academy cursed at him.

Eventually, someone there recognized Yuan's face and shouted, "W-Wait! That's the bastard that severed one of the Sect Master's arms!"

"What?! Shit! It's really him!"

"Hahaha! What an idiot to come to our sect! I have been dreaming of avenging the Sect Master! To think I'd get the chance so soon! Today is really my lucky day!"

"Everyone! We're going to offer this bastard's head to the Sect Master when he returns!"

"Yeah! Kill this bastard!"

These disciples were all between Spirit Grandmaster and Spirit Lord, and they all started taking out their instruments.

Yuan rubbed his eyes and sighed, "What a pain in the ass..."

He came here with the intention to take only one life— their Sect Master's life, but at this rate, he'll have to kill hundreds of people before he could even reach Sun Hao.

Chapter 911 - Confronting the Sect Masters Again

Chapter 911 - Confronting the Sect Masters Again

The disciples of the Universal Music Academy quickly surrounded Yuan after realizing his true identity.

Yuan sighed out loud, "I have already seen enough blood today, so I would prefer it if we can settle this peacefully. I'm only here for your Sect Master. Tell me where he is and I will leave you all alone."

However, the disciples merely laughed at him.

"Haaa..." Yuan sighed again.

"I guess we'll have to do this the hard way..."

He lifted his hand until it was around his neck before he slowly pressed his palm towards the ground.

An unfathomable pressure suddenly enveloped the area, causing all of the disciples there to fall from the sky and slamming into the ground.

[Heavenly Domain]

The disciples tried to get up afterward, but it felt like there was a real mountain on their back, forcing them to continue kissing the ground with their faces.

"This is your last chance to tell me where your Sect Master is. If I do not have an answer within the next three seconds, I will kill everyone here by turning your bodies into meat paste."

The disciples' faces immediately paled after hearing Yuan's words, and they did not doubt his words for a moment.

"One..."

"The Sect Master is currently at the Spirit Healing Academy!" More than one person there answered a second into Yuan's threat.

"Spirit Healing Academy? What's he doing there?"

"He's trying to heal his severed arm! The other Sect Masters are also there for some sort of meeting! That's all I know!"

"I see. Thank you for your cooperation." Yuan released the disciples from the Heavenly Domain and disappeared from their sight before they could even get back to their feet.

'Spirit Healing Academy... That's where Wang Xiuying is currently studying medicine. Let's give her a visit after I deal with Sun Hao.' Yuan thought to himself as she sped towards the Spirit Healing Academy.

Meanwhile, at the Spirit Healing Academy, all seven Sect Masters of the Seven Spirit Academies gathered in a meeting room.

"I can't believe it. You'd actually manage to reattach Sect Master Sun's severed arm, Sect Master Xiahou." Sect Master Li spoke in an admiring voice.

Sect Master Xiahou shook her head and said, "I was only able to do it because his arm was cleanly severed, and I was able to treat it just in time. If we'd waited even a few more hours, it would've been impossible to reattach it. With that being said, it will take many years of therapy before Sect Master Sun can use that arm properly."

"Even so, I am really thankful for your efforts, Sect Master Xiahou. I'll definitely repay this debt in the future." Sun Hao said to her with a wide smile on his face.

"Anyways, let's get on with today's topic." Sect Master Li said.

And he continued, "As you all have probably heard by now, the Gu Family have assembled over a thousand cultivators and stationed themselves around the Stairway to Heaven. I have already asked them for their reason for such actions. They told me that they were trying to capture a bandit who stole from their family without giving me any more information."

"What do you guys think?"

"Who would believe such bullshit? Nobody assembles a thousand experts for a mere bandit, much less the Gu Family, one of Seven Legacy Families." Bai Enjue sneered.

"I don't believe it either." The others expressed the same sentiment.

Sun Hao, however, remained silent about the issue.

"But if he's not there for a bandit, who— or what is he there for?"

"Do you think the Gu Family could've found a treasure?"

"They would've done something less conspicuous if they were going after a treasure."

The Sect Masters would spend many minutes discussing the issue.

Because they were dealing with one of the Seven Legacy Families, they had to be careful.

"What do you think, Sect Master Sun? You have been awfully quiet this entire time, which isn't common. If you know anything about the situation..."

"I'm not saying anything because I don't know anything," Sun Hao shook his head, and he continued, "Furthermore, whatever the Legacy Families are doing is none of our business."

"That's not true. Although the Seven Legacy Families may have more authority and status than us in general, we cannot just sit still while they could be preparing for war!" Sect Master Xiahou said.

"War? Who would dare go to war with the Gu Family? Some idiot had probably offended them to the extent where they must use such force. The thousand experts they had assembled are most likely just for show." Sun Hao snorted.

Sect Master Li narrowed his eyes at Sun Hao. He could tell that something was off about Sun Hao, but he couldn't pinpoint that something.

Suddenly, all of the Sect Masters there turned to look at the window.

"W-What's this overwhelming presence that's approaching our direction?!" Sect Master Xiahou exclaimed.

"Stay alert and prepare for battle, everyone!" Sect Master Li shouted.

A few seconds later, they could see a figure flying towards them.

"Huh? Wait a second... That's..." Bai Enjue's eyes widened with surprise when he could finally see the face of this individual.

"What's that bastard doing here?!" Sun Hao exclaimed in a shocked voice.

'Why is he here?! What happened to the Gu Family?! He should have encountered them by now!' He cried inwardly.

Yuan entered the meeting room a few moments later through one of the open windows.

"What do you want? I thought our business had already ended." Sect Master Li asked with a profound frown on his face.

"Yes, that was the case. However, one of you decided to push their luck and broke our agreement." Yuan said in a cold voice.

"I warned you. If any of you tries to harm me or my friends again, I would return and claim your lives."

"What?! Are you claiming that we'd tried to hurt your friends after what happened?! That's outrageous!" Sect Master Li exclaimed.

"That's right! Where is your proof?!" Sun Hao shouted.

Yuan narrowed his eyes at Sun Hao, who immediately swallowed nervously.

'Does he know that I had sold him to the Gu Family? No, that's impossible! Patriarch Gu wouldn't sell me out like that! Not to this bastard!' He cried inwardly.

Chapter 912 - Sect Master Sun

Chapter 912 - Sect Master Sun

"How dare you barge in here and accuse us of such bullshit without any proof! Do you really think you're unstoppable?!" Sun Hao pointed his finger at Yuan and shouted so loud that his saliva sprayed.

Yuan casually dodged the saliva and said, "Proof, huh? That might be a bit difficult."

"See?! I knew it! This guy is just messing with us!" Sun Hao exclaimed.

Sect Master Li then said, "The seven of us haven't even gone anywhere near you or your friends, so where did you get the idea that we'd tried to harm them?"

"I admire your strength, but you've gone too far. Unless you have proof, nobody here will believe you." Bai Enjue sighed.

Yuan smiled and said, "I never said I don't have proof. I just said that it would be a bit difficult."

"What? You have proof?" They looked at him with wide eyes.

"Of course. Do you know of the Gu Family?" Yuan then asked.

"What does the Gu Family have to do with this?" Sun Hao immediately said.

"They're one of Seven Legacy Families. They're not even related to us." Sect Master Li said.

"You see, the Gu Family in the Lower Heavens had tried to harm my friends, so I taught them a little lesson. They didn't like that, so they asked for the Gu Family in this world to avenge them."

"What? Don't tell me that you're the reason the Gu Family dispatched over 1,000 experts..." Sect Master Xiahou mumbled out loud.

"Yes, and they had set a perimeter around the Stairway to Heaven with the intention to ambush me. However, I have never told the Gu Family about going to the Stairway to Heaven, so how did they know that I was going to be there? What a coincidence that I told you guys about my plans to challenge the Stairway to Heaven and the Gu Family found out about it shortly afterward, don't you all agree?"

"I-Is that your so-called proof?! That's just pure speculation!" Sun Hao shouted.

"Sect Master Sun is right. That is not concrete proof. What if they'd found out about it from another source?" Bai Enjue said.

"That's not possible." Yuan shook his head.

"And why do you say that?" Sect Master Li asked.

"Because Patriarch Gu personally told me about the culprit." Yuan said with a cold smile on his face as he narrowed his gaze on Sun Hao.

Seeing Yuan's cold gaze, Sun Hao immediately began sweating profusely.

'Impossible! There's no way that Patriarch Gu would sell me out! He's bluffing!' He cried inwardly.

"And who's the culprit?" Sect Master Li asked.

"The one who's been the loudest since my arrival." Yuan replied.

Everybody there turned to look at Sun Hao, who was soaked in cold sweat as of this moment.

"Sect Master Sun, please tell me that you didn't—" Sect Master Xiahou swallowed nervously.

Out of everyone there, Sun Hao had the most hatred for Yuan, and the other Sect Masters were aware of this even though nobody told them.

"T-That's outrageous! This is a setup! Why would Patriarch Gu even tell you such information?! That's suspicious no matter how you look at it!"

"He had no choice." Yuan calmly responded.

And he continued after releasing some killing intent, "After all, I killed ten of his Spirit Lords and crippled his little army."

"You what?!" Everybody there took a step back after hearing Yuan's words.

"A-Are you insane?! You dare attack a Legacy Family?!" Sun Hao was on the verge of pissing his pants after feeling Yuan's killing intent and hearing about what he did to the Gu Family.

"They were the ones who threatened to harm my friends first. Did you think I would let them do that just because they're one of Seven Legacy Families?" Yuan scoffed.

"And this is mostly your fault, Sun Hao. If you hadn't told the Gu Family about my plans, they wouldn't know where to find me, and I would've left this world without ever meeting them. In other words, I wouldn't have needed to harm them."

Sun Hao suddenly started laughing in a chilling manner, "You're doomed! You're fucking dead! No matter who's at fault here, it doesn't change the fact that you'd attacked the Gu Family! Once the other Legacy Families hear of this, they will also hunt you down! Even if you kill me here today, you're still a dead man! Ahahaha!"

"I don't think that will happen. After all, the Gu Family admitted that they were in the wrong and that they won't pursue the matter any further." Yuan said.

"W-What? I-Impossible!" Sun Hao nearly choked after hearing such information.

"It doesn't matter if you believe it or not. You'll be dead very soon, anyway."

Yuan retrieved the Empyrean Overlord the next second and pointed it at Sun Hao.

"W-Wait! Why don't we all calm down and talk about this?" Sect Master Li stepped forward and said in a nervous voice.

Yuan narrowed his eyes at Sect Master Li, "Talk? We had our talk the last time. Do you really think I am a pushover?"

Sect Master Li sighed, "Even if Sect Master Sun had given information to the Gu Family, he didn't directly harm you or your friends. It was the Gu Family that made such a decision."

"So he did nothing wrong even though he helped someone to harm me, huh? As if I—"

"Die, you little bastard!"

In the middle of Yuan's sentence, Sun Hao suddenly retrieved a long black needle and plunged it at Yuan.

"You—!" The other Sect Masters were shocked and couldn't react in time.

Ding!

However, the needle suddenly stopped in front of Yuan's chest, and no matter how much force Sun Hao put into it, the needle wouldn't move forward.

"W-What's going on?! This is a Divine-grade treasure!" Sun Hao was left confused by the result.

Yuan looked at Sun Hao with an indifferent expression on his face and said, "Treasures below Ancient-grade won't penetrate my Invisible Dragon Cloak's defenses, especially if it's a physical attack."

"Now, die."

Right as Yuan prepared to slice Sun Hao with his sword, a voice resounded in his head, "Allow me to get rid of this trash for you, Young Master."

A small flame suddenly shot out of Yuan's body and attached itself onto Sun Hao's body before it quickly erupted into a massive fire, turning Sun Hao into a burnt corpse within seconds.

'Feng Feng? Why did you...' Yuan looked at Sun Hao's burnt corpse with wide eyes.

Chapter 913 - Black Anguish Needle

Chapter 913 - Black Anguish Needle

Yuan stared at Sun Hao's burnt corpse with a look of disbelief and surprise. This is the first time one of his servants has killed a cultivator.

"Feng Feng, why did you kill him?" Yuan asked her.

Feng Yuxiang appeared before him with her head lowered.

"Young Master, I apologize for acting on my own, but there isn't any need for you to dirty your hands with these lowlives. If you wish to kill somebody, please allow me to do it for you."

"Furthermore... Young Master, you don't like killing other humans, right? Since I occupy the space in your heart, I know your emotions better than anyone here. Every time you kill someone, your heart clenches slightly."

"However, no matter my reasoning, I have acted without your approval. Please punish me as you see fit, Young Master."

The Sect Masters in the room turned their focus from Sun Hao's corpse to Feng Yuxiang.

'W-Who is this beauty? Where did she come from?'

'This pressure... She's a Spirit King! And a high-level one, as well!'

'Did she just come out of his body?'

They all wondered.

Yuan rubbed his temples and sighed after a moment of silence, "Feng Feng, if I order you to kill someone, how is that any different from killing them myself? I am still the reason they died."

"And I won't punish you. I was going to kill him, anyway. I just wanted to know your reason for killing him, that's all."

"Thank you, Feng Feng, for worrying about me. You're right. I don't like killing others, but there are times when you must act even if doing so will make you feel uncomfortable. If I don't do it, I won't be able to protect those valuable to me— people like you, Feng Feng."

"Also, if I had to choose between dirtying my precious friends in blood or my own hands, I will gladly choose the latter."

"Young Master..." Feng Yuxiang's face flushed with redness when she saw the gentle smile on Yuan's face.

Yuan turned to look at Sect Master Li a moment later and spoke in a calm voice, "Sun Hao just tried to harm me. You all saw that, right?"

They all nodded in silence.

"Then you should have no qualms about me killing him. Do you have anything else to say?"

Sect Master Li walked back to his chair and sat down in an exhausted manner. He took a deep breath and sighed, "I'm sorry. I should've spoken to him right after that incident. None of this would've happened if I had spoken with him."

"Don't blame yourself. People like him won't change so quickly after a single conversation." Yuan shook his head.

"Why are you still here? You've already accomplished your goal, right? Just leave already." Bai Enjue said to him.

"Actually, I still have some business here." Yuan said.

"What? What else do you want from us?"

"Not from you."

Yuan then turned to look at Sect Master Xiahou and said, "You're the Sect Master of the Spirit Healing Academy, right?"

"Eh? Y-Yes, I am..." She nodded nervously.

"Then do you know of a disciple by the name of Wang Xiuying?"

"Wang Xiuying?" She raised her eyebrows in a puzzled manner.

Seeing her reaction, Yuan realized something.

'Oh, right. She's known as Healer Wang in this world.'

"Uhh... I misspoke. Her name is Healer Wang." Yuan corrected himself.

"H-Healer Wang? Why are you looking for her?" Sect Master Xiahou swallowed nervously.

"She's a friend of mine. Since I'm already in her sect, I might as well give her a visit. I also made a promise to see her again when I ascended to Spirit Heaven."

"You're her friend? Why am I not surprised?" Sect Master Xiahou sighed.

'Of course he's friends with Healer Wang. It's like he has a connection with all top geniuses in this world...' She sighed again inwardly.

"Healer Wang is my disciple. I will show you to her residence. Follow me."

She then turned to look at Sect Master Li and continued, "I will be back soon."

"It's okay... I was going to stop the meeting even if you didn't say anything. I have to visit the Universal Music Academy now that their position of Sect Master is vacant... Let's continue the meeting another day. " Sect Master Li sighed.

"Then I will wait for your contact." Bai Enjue said.

Meanwhile, Yuan went to pick up the black needle left behind by Sun Hao.

"I'll be taking this with me. I hope you don't mind." Yuan said to them.

"Do whatever you want..."

None of them wanted to offend him even for a Divine-grade treasure.

[Black Anguish Needle]

[Grade: Divine]

[Quality: Peak]

[Physical Strength Required: 70,000]

[Mental Strength Required: 150,000]

[Description: A needle that contains the deadly poison 'Black Anguish' that will torture its victim with a slow and painful death, rotting them from inside out.]

'What a nasty treasure.' Yuan thought to himself after seeing its description.

Sometime later, Yuan followed Sect Master Xiahou to another location in the sect.

"How's Healer Wang doing in the sect?" Yuan asked her as they traveled.

"Don't worry, she's not being bullied by anyone, if that's what you're wondering," she responded.

Yuan chuckled, "No, I just want to know her situation."

The Sect Master glanced at him with a pondering face before speaking, "Healer Wang is one of the most talented disciples we've had in this sect since its founding. She was a rough diamond waiting to be discovered when she first came here. Once we realized her talent, I immediately took her in as my disciple and taught her everything I knew about medicine and alchemy. That cheeky brat... she just absorbs all of my knowledge like a huge sponge."

"Hoh? She's actually that talented?" Yuan was surprised to hear this since he doesn't know much about Wang Xiuying besides the fact that she sometimes assists her grandfather, Doctor Wang, at his hospital.

However, it was definitely a welcomed surprise.

"We're here."

They landed on a spacious hill where all sorts of plants and herbs could be seen growing at the bottom. On the top of this hill was a large building and a backyard with even more plants, and they seemed more valuable than the ones at the bottom of the hill.

"This is Healer Wang's residence. You can leave whenever. I won't be seeing you out." Sect Master Xiahou left him alone afterward.

Chapter 914 - Revealing His Secret

Chapter 914 - Revealing His Secret

Yuan went to knock on the door after Sect Master Xiahou left him alone.

After waiting for a whole minute without any response, Yuan knocked again.

'Is she not online right now? It is a little late... I guess I'll come back tomorrow morning.'

Yuan logged off after not getting any response for a second time.

When he returned to his own world, Yuan could immediately sense two presence beside him.

"What's the matter, you two?" Yuan asked Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang, who were staring at him like he'd been hospitalized for a long time.

"We should be asking you that, Yuan! Did something happen to you? You can talk to us, you know. We'll always be here to listen to you, no matter what it's about." Chu Liuxiang said to him.

"We've been worried about you, Yuan." Meixiu added.

"Ah... Is this about what happened today?" Yuan sighed with a bittersweet smile.

After pondering for a moment, he nodded, "Alright, I will tell you the truth. You deserve to know the truth, especially if we're going to be spending the rest of our lives together."

"However, I must warn you, what I am about to tell you is going to sound absolutely ridiculous and crazy. This is why I have been delaying this moment. I'm afraid that it might affect our relationship with each other."

The two of them swallowed nervously, anxiously waiting for Yuan to reveal to them his secret.

"Once again, this is going to sound crazy, but I actually have memories of my past lives." Yuan said.

"Huh?"

The both of them muttered at the same time.

"I have memories of my past lives." Yuan repeated.

"W-Wait... Past lives... Are you talking about reincarnation?" Chu Liuxiang asked for clarification.

"Yes."

"I told you guys before that Cultivation Online—the Nine Heavens truly exist somewhere in this universe, right? I know this because I used to live there in the past."

"Tian Chenyu. He was known as the Divine Paragon, bane of demons, and he was responsible for creating the Demon Sealing Clan and most demon sealing techniques out there. I was once Tian Chenyu." Yuan said in a calm voice.

"..."

His partners silently glared at him with wide eyes, seemingly having trouble digesting such information.

After a long moment of silence, Chu Liuxiang spoke in a low voice, almost as though she had a revelation, "That explains why you're able to defeat demons with such ease and why you seem more mature as of lately..."

"W-When did you start recalling these memories?" Meixiu then asked.

"Shortly after I regained my ability to move, I guess." Yuan said.

"Ah, but you don't have to worry about my past lives changing me too much. I am still Yuan at the end of the day, and that won't change. However, I will be lying if I say that it's not taking a toll on me."

"I have only lived 18 years in this life, but in my previous life, I have lived thousands if not millions of years. Although I have only recovered about a thousand years of memories, that is still a lot for someone like me."

Chu Liuxiang suddenly spread her arms and hugged Yuan, even pressing his head against her soft chest.

"You must have endured a lot... If there's anything we can do..."

"Your thoughts are enough. This is a burden that I must face by myself."

"While it's true that we cannot do anything to help you with your returning memories, if you need comfort or feel stressed, we can assist in our own ways." Meixiu said.

"Thank you, you two..."

Sometime later, Chu Liuxiang said, "This makes me wonder if I had a past life, and if I do, what kind of life did I live?"

"I would actually prefer not knowing." Meixiu said.

And she continued, "What if I had some kind of tragic life that I don't want to remember?"

"I guess you have a point..."

Chu Liuxiang then looked at Yuan and asked, "Can you tell us some of your experiences in your past life? Did you have a wife? You lived for thousands of years, right? Surely, you must have had a wife or two!"

Yuan smiled and said, "No, I didn't have anything like that. However, I was engaged."

"You were engaged but don't have a wife? Did something happen?"

"Yes, she died to a demon before we could get married." Yuan said in a calm voice, yet it sounded very lonely and painful.

"S-Sorry... I shouldn't have asked..."

"No, it's fine. What happened was very tragic, but it was something that happened very, very long ago, and I am not Tian Chenyu. Although his feelings remain, I know that I shouldn't become too absorbed in his memories and feelings."

"Anyways, thank you for listening and believing in me." He said to them sometime later.

"I don't know what's crazier. That reincarnation exists or that I've been fighting demons from another world." Chu Liuxiang sighed.

"Another world, huh? Something tells me that Earth used to belong in the Nine Heavens. I'll ask the Lord after I take care of the last demon."

"The Lord?"

"Yes. He promised to tell me about Cultivation Online and other stuff if I take care of the demons for him."

Sometime later, Meixiu went to prepare dinner.

After dinner, Chu Liuxiang eagerly dragged Yuan to the bed and said to him as she stripped naked, "This is the best stress reliever that I know of!"

Yuan couldn't refuse such a tempting offer and gladly accepted it, and they proceeded to relieve themselves all night.

The following morning, after breakfast, Yuan returned to Cultivation Online and tried knocking on Wang Xiuying's door again.

The door opened half a minute later, and a beautiful young lady wearing a green and white uniform stepped outside.

When this young lady saw Yuan's face, her eyes widened with surprise, and a bright smile immediately appeared on her beautiful face.

"Yuan! What are you doing here?!" Wang Xiuying said in a pleasantly surprised voice.

Chapter 915 - Wang Xiuying's Alchemy Flame

Chapter 915 - Wang Xiuying's Alchemy Flame

"Hello, Xiuying. It's been a while." Yuan greeted her with a smile.

"I happened to be in the area, so I decided to stop by to see you."

However, the smile on Wang Xiuying turned upside down for some reason.

"You're visiting me only because you happened to be nearby? Even though you promised to play with me when you ascend to this realm..." She said with a puffed face, trying to act angry but somehow ended up looking even more charming.

"Yuan, I know that you've been in this world for a while, and you're just visiting me now? I saw you at the Flood Dragon's Scale's Auction, too."

"Sorry, I have been really busy with many things until recently. Honestly, I forgot that you were here until I heard of the Spirit Healing Academy." Yuan said with an apologetic smile.

"Hmph! I can forgive you, but only if you spend the next few days with me," she said.

"Sure. I had planned on staying here for the rest of the week, anyway." Yuan immediately nodded.

"Really? That's great! I will show you around the sect and the things I've learned!" Wang Xiuying immediately cheered up.

"Come inside." Wang Xiuying gestured.

Yuan nodded and followed her into the building.

"What have you been doing lately, Yuan? I haven't seen your name in the announcements for a while." Wang Xiuying asked him.

"Your name used to appear in the sky almost every day— at least that's what it felt like."

Yuan smiled and said, "They were all coincidences. And it's not as though I am actively trying to have my name appear in announcements."

"Maybe you should. At this rate, the world will forget about your name."

"I did not start playing this game because I wanted to be famous, and I still don't care about such things."

"I know, but it hurts me, your number one fan." Wang Xiuying chuckled.

Yuan smiled and said, "It hasn't been that long since I last saw you, but I can tell that you've changed a lot."

"I can say the same to you, Yuan. You look and smell more mature now."

"S-Smell?" Yuan raised an eyebrow, and he started smelling his own arm.

She nodded, "Having a good nose is a trait of a good Alchemist. Thanks to my Master's training methods, my sense of smell has become quite sharp."

"Your Master, the Sect Master of the Spirit Healing Academy?"

"Yes, I will introduce her to you later."

"Sure." Yuan smiled.

"By the way, what does maturity smell like? You can smell it on me, right?" He then asked.

"I don't know how to explain it, but it's a distinct smell that you can easily notice once you understand what the smell really means."

They arrived before a closed door shortly later.

"This is my workshop; it's where I spend most of my time nowadays."
Wang Xiuying said as she opened the door and entered the room.

Yuan followed right behind her.

Inside the spacious room was a large metal pot at the center of the room, but this pot had a very unique shape that Yuan had never seen before. At the end of each side of the room were drawers with labels.

"That metal pot in the center of the room is called a cauldron. It's what Alchemists use to mix medicine and concoct pills."

"The drawers contain all sorts of herbs and medicines that are most commonly used. For the rarer medicine, I have to pick them from the medicine field growing at the bottom of the hill and in my backyard. If I don't have them here, I can request for them from the sect."

"Heh... This is pretty amazing. Is this all a privilege as the disciple of the Sect Master?"

"Only this house and the land it's on is a privilege. I had to grow the medicine field by myself, and I had to raise my rank within the sect to receive support from the sect."

"You got all of this done in such a short amount of time? I'm impressed. In fact, I have been underestimating you. As expected of Doctor Wang's granddaughter. You're a genius when it comes to medicine." Yuan said in a praising tone.

"Hehe..." Wang Xiuying began blushing after hearing Yuan's praises.

"A-Anyway, do you want to watch me concoct a pill?"

"Sure!" Yuan immediately nodded.

"Alright, what kind of pill do you want me to make? I can concoct up to Tier 3 pills at this moment."

"I don't know anything about pills, but something simple is fine."

She nodded, "Then I will concoct a Superior Stamina Enhancing Pill for you. It's a Tier 2 pill that will recover your energy and greatly increase your stamina."

"Sounds good."

"Give me a moment to gather the ingredients."

Yuan watched as Wang Xiuying took out many different herbs from the drawers, putting them all on a long plate in a neat fashion.

She then took a seat in front of the cauldron and patted the space right beside her.

"You can sit here. It's the best seat in the house," she said with a smile.

"Are you sure? Won't I bother you if I sit so close?"

"It will be fine. Trust me."

Yuan didn't say anything else and took a seat right beside her.

"Before I start, I should warn you that it will get a little hot in here even with the windows open. The flame will also be very fierce, but you don't need to worry, since it won't harm you."

Wang Xiuying flipped her hand with her palm facing the ceiling, and with some of her spiritual energy, a ball of green flames appeared on her palm.

"This is called Alchemy Flame. It's a special type of fire that requires a lot of training to control, and even most seasoned Alchemists require years of training to control. Fortunately for me, I have a special physique that makes it incredibly easy for me to control Alchemy Flames."

"There are many types of Alchemy Flames out there, each with its own strengths and weaknesses. Unfortunately, my Alchemy Flame is too weak to have its own name, but once I am capable enough, my Master promised to give me a named Alchemy Flame."

"What a pretty fire..." Yuan mumbled as he stared at the ball of flame floating on Wang Xiuying's palm.

'Hmph! My phoenix fire is countless times more pretty and powerful than her weak-looking Alchemy Flame!' Feng Yuxiang suddenly said, sounding a little unhappy and even jealous for some reason.

Chapter 916 - Wang Xiuying's Alchemy

Chapter 916 - Wang Xiuying's Alchemy

Seeing Yuan suddenly raise an eyebrow in surprise, Wang Xiuying asked him, "Is something the matter?"

"No, nothing." Yuan showed her a stiff smile, as Feng Yuxiang's comment had caught him by surprise.

After all, this is the first time that Feng Yuxiang has shown such obvious jealousy, and over what? Wang Xiuying's Alchemy Flame? It didn't make sense to him.

"Anyway, I am going to start now. Make sure you watch closely, since people don't normally get to watch me concoct pills, much less have such a view!"

Wang Xiuying suddenly flicked her arm with the Alchemy Flame, sending the green ball of fire flying at the cauldron.

Her Alchemy Flame disappeared into a hole at the bottom of the cauldron, and within seconds, the Alchemy Flame intensified, engulfing half of the cauldron with them.

Yuan felt a heatwave hit him, almost as though he'd suddenly entered a desert, so he subconsciously protected himself with spiritual energy.

A few minutes later, Wang Xiuying spoke, "Now that the cauldron is hot enough, I will begin throwing in the herbs."

She acted upon her own words, throwing the herbs she'd gathered into the cauldron one by one every few minutes without losing control over the Alchemy Flame.

"While I melt the medicine, I must control the strength of my Alchemy Flame so that it doesn't burn the medicine but at the same time burn away the impurities within the medicine."

An hour later, she spoke again, "Now that all of the ingredients are melted, I will intensify the Alchemy Flame, which will solidify the medicine into a pill."

"While the medicine quickly hardens, I must mold it into the shape of a pill, which is perfectly round, like a marble. If I don't mold the pill properly, the pill will come out with inferior quality. And if I do it too slowly, the entire pill will go to waste. This is the most important step when it comes to pill concoction."

A minute later, Wang Xiuying cut the Alchemy Flame completely and went to open the cauldron.

"Brace yourself. There will be a lot of smoke." Wang Xiuying said as she opened the lid, releasing a storm of black smoke.

"It's black because of the impurities. The darker the color of the smoke, the cleaner the pill will come out." Wang Xiuying explained as the black smoke quickly filled the room.

A sudden gust of wind appeared in the room, pushing all of the black smoke outside the window within seconds.

"That wind was caused by a formation in this room. It will quickly clear out the smoke. Anyway, take a look at this pill!"

Wang Xiuying handed him a white pill the following moment.

[Superior Stamina Enhancing Pill] [Tier 2] [Purity: 98%]

[Effects: Greatly boost your stamina by 30% for one hour and recover your used up energy.]

[Description: Concocted by Healer Wang.]

[Limit: Once per hour]

"This is a pretty useful pill." Yuan looked at it with interest.

"How much do you think it'll sell for?" He suddenly asked.

"Eh?! You want to sell my pill already?!" Wang Xiuying looked shocked that he didn't want to keep it.

"It's only out of curiosity. I will be keeping this pill, since it was a gift from you." Yuan said with a smile.

"Well, it honestly depends on the quality of the pill, and most importantly, the person who concocted it. If the person who made it is famous, it will increase the price of the pill."

"I am still a nobody outside, so it will probably go for around a thousand or two gold coins, and that's entirely because of its purity which is above 95 percent."

"However, I am quite popular in the sect, and there are many disciples who want a pill concocted by me, so it could probably fetch for two to three times that price if you sell it in the sect," she continued with a prideful look on her face.

"So do you spend most of your time concocting pills now?"

"Yes, pretty much. I spend about 60 percent of my day concocting pills and the other 40 percent studying. There are so many different types of medicine, herbs, and pill recipes that I must remember, after all."

"You're very diligent, but don't you get bored of sitting in the same spot for hours? I don't think I would be able to enjoy life as an Alchemist even if I have the talent for it." Yuan shook his head.

"It's not boring. Although it might seem like I am just sitting there, I am actually very active, and a lot of things go through my head. As for studying... Well, there's nothing I can do about that. If I don't study, I won't be able to improve."

"Anyways, do you want any more pills? I will concoct as many pills as my idol wants!" She said with an energetic face.

"No, it's fine. One pill is good enough, or it won't feel like a gift anymore."

"I see... Then let me show you around my medicine field before showing you around the sect!"

"Sure." Yuan nodded.

As they prepared to leave the room, someone started knocking on the door.

"Oh, that must be my weekly quota." Wang Xiuying said.

"Weekly quota? You have to work here?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"I don't really need to since I am the Sect Master's disciple, but I asked to do it anyway, since it's good practice for me, and it helps the sect."

Sometime later, Wang Xiuying opened the door to greet the person outside.

"Good morning, Senior Sister Wang." A handsome young man greeted her with a bright smile.

"Morning."

"Here is your weekly..."

The disciple halted his mouth when he noticed Yuan's presence, and his eyes widened with shock.

"There's a man in Senior Sister Wang's living quarters?! Who is this bastard?!" He cried inwardly.

"S-Senior Sister Wang... Who is that?"

Wang Xiuying immediately realized who the disciple was referring to and said with a gentle smile, "He's my precious friend."

When the disciple saw how Wang Xiuying looked at Yuan, his eyes narrowed with hidden killing intent.

Yuan noticed his killing intent and subconsciously smiled in a provocative manner, "Sup."

'T-This bastard!' The disciple silently gritted his teeth.

Chapter 917 - Medicine Fields

Chapter 917 - Medicine Fields

"What's your name?" The disciple asked Yuan after a moment of silence.

"I won't stay here for long, so you don't need to know it." Yuan calmly responded.

'This bastard's asking for it!' The disciple found Yuan's presence to be even more obnoxious after his response.

Sensing the sudden tension in the air, Wang Xiuying quickly interrupted, "Anyways, tell the elders that I won't be able to complete my weekly quota this week because I will be busy with something else. Sorry you came all this way for nothing."

"I-It's fine. Most people don't even get to see you because you're always holed up in your room. I am already satisfied with seeing your beautiful face this early in the morning, Senior Sister Wang."

"By the way, my Master wanted to ask if you'll be joining the annual competition between Core Disciples tomorrow."

"I'll be there, but I won't be participating, so I'll only be a spectator."

"That's good enough. As long as Senior Sister Wang is there, I will be content. Then I will see you tomorrow." The disciple bowed to her before turning around and walking away.

Of course, he made sure to turn around to look at them, or more specifically, Yuan's face, one last time before disappearing from their sights completely.

"Who was that? Your servant?" Yuan asked afterward.

"No, he's Disciple Gu, a Core Disciple studying under Elder Cang, who is the Sect Master's right-hand man. He's the second most talented disciple in the entire sect. Apparently, he's from a very prestigious family."

"The title of number one disciple in the sect belongs to me, of course!" Wang Xiuying laughed out loud.

'Surnamed Gu, huh? Why do I keep encountering them?' A mysterious smile appeared on Yuan's face.

"Having the second most talented disciple in the sect carry out such a mundane task... He must either be really bored or have too much free time." He said.

"I heard that he'd personally requested to deliver my weekly quota. I don't know the details, but I don't really care either. Anyways, let's visit the medicine field in my yard first. It's the closest and has the most valuable herbs growing."

"Sure."

Yuan followed Wang Xiuying to her backyard, where she started showing him all of the plants that she'd personally grown.

"How long do they usually take to grow? It hasn't been that long since you joined, right?" Yuan asked.

"Most herbs here take less than a month to grow, but if you leave it for longer, the herbs will have a stronger effect, but it will take years, so we usually harvest them after a month. There is actually a secret garden somewhere in this sect with plants that have been growing for hundreds and even thousands of years! I asked to see it before, but I was told that only the Sect Master is allowed to visit the place for security reasons."

Sometime later, they went to the medicine field at the bottom of the hill, which was at least a hundred times larger than the one in her backyard.

"You planted all of these, too?" Yuan was impressed.

There were over 100,000 plants at the bottom of the hill, and all of them were neatly grown and well organized.

"Yes. Besides being time consuming, it's really not that difficult," she said.

The entire tour around the hill took almost three hours.

"Now that we're done with the medicine field, what would you like to see next?" She asked him.

"I don't know anything about your sect, so I will leave it to you."

Wang Xiuying pondered for a moment before speaking, "How about the Alchemy Store? We have one in our sect, and you can even purchase Alchemy Flames there."

"That sounds interesting. Let's go." Yuan nodded.

Wang Xiuying then retrieved a leaf and poured her spiritual energy into it, causing it to grow many times larger.

"This is... a flying treasure?" Yuan raised an eyebrow.

"Yes, since the sect is so vast, I was given this flying treasure to travel around the sect. Come, I'll give you a ride."

"The flying treasure looks like it's only meant for a single rider. I can fly, so you don't need to worry about me." Yuan said.

"Trust me, it'll be fine." Wang Xiuying suddenly grabbed his hand and pulled him onto the flying treasure.

Although it was a little cramped at first, Wang Xiuying made some room by hugging Yuan's body with her own body, "See? We have plenty of space."

She chuckled.

And before Yuan could even say anything, Wang Xiuying controlled the flying treasure, and they flew away from the hill.

While they were in the air, Wang Xiuying purposefully made the flying treasure fly as slow as possible so that they could take their time.

"Look over there. That tall pagoda is the Sect Master's headquarters and also her living quarters. Oh! That building is the cafeteria for disciples within the Inner Court like me. They have some amazing food, but I rarely get the time to go there." Wang Xiuying introduced the buildings to him as they passed them.

Meanwhile, somewhere within the sect, "Master! Do you know anything about the bastard with Healer Wang?!"

After leaving Wang Xiuying's place, Disciple Gu rushed to find Elder Cang for more information on Yuan. He figured that if anyone knew about Yuan's identity, it would be his Master, who is the Sect Master's right-hand man.

"Huh? What are you talking about?" Elder Cang asked.

"I went to give Healer Wang her weekly quota this morning, and I saw this obnoxious man by her side! He was standing inside her living quarters, and he wasn't wearing the sect's uniform, either!"

"Hoh? Healer Wang has an unknown man in her living quarters? This is definitely a surprise, considering her usual behavior. Anyway, I don't know anything about her friend. If he's not a disciple then he must be a guest. Did you check with the administration? All guests are required to sign in."

"N-No... That completely slipped my mind. I will go check with them right now. Sorry for bothering you, Master." Disciple Gu bowed to him before leaving for the Administration Hall, where they keep a list of all visitors.

Chapter 918 - Alchemy Store

Chapter 918 - Alchemy Store

After leaving his Master's side, Disciple Gu rushed to the Administration Hall.

"Good morning, Disciple Gu! How can we help you today?" One of the Elders there welcomed him with a bright and respectful smile.

"I want information on a visitor," he said.

"Of course. Who is this visitor that you speak of?"

"I don't know, that's why I am here. Who is the visitor with Healer Wang?"

"Healer Wang?" The Elder raised his eyebrows, as he doesn't recall recording any guests that came for Wang Xiuying.

"Let me check the log."

The Elder went to grab the guest logbook and brought it back to Disciple Gu.

"This page contains all visitors for the past week, but I don't see any guests mentioning about Healer Wang." The Elder said.

"Let me see."

Disciple Gu grabbed the book and began scanning through all of the names on the logbook.

The logbook contained the guests' names, age, their affiliates, and their reason for visiting the Spirit Healing Academy.

However, there was nobody that came with Healer Wang as their reason for visiting, and Disciple Gu went as far back as one month in the logbook.

"Impossible! Maybe he is actually a disciple and purposefully wore casual clothes to mislead others? What a crafty bastard!" Disciple Gu now believed that Yuan was a disciple of the Spirit Healing Academy all along.

After all, no visitors could possibly enter the sect without going through the Administration Hall.

"Why don't you try asking the Sect Master? If anybody knows about Healer Wang's affairs, it would be her." The Elder suddenly suggested.

"Are you crazy? I cannot possibly bother the Sect Master for something like this! And haven't you heard? The Sect Master of the Universal Music Academy had just been killed! She'll be very busy for a while." Disciple Gu sneered.

"What? Sect Master Sun had been killed? But the Sect Master of the Heavenly Academy said it was an unfortunate accident!" The Elder exclaimed.

"That's just a cover up, obviously. Someone had infiltrated the Universal Music Academy and threatened their disciple that he would kill Sect Master Sun on the same day that he'd died. I heard this from multiple disciples there."

"No way... If the Sect Master Li is willing to conceal the truth, there's a good chance that whoever killed Sect Master Sun is someone that even the Seven Spirit Academies cannot touch. One of the Four Ancient Families, perhaps?"

"By the way, how is your family, Disciple Gu? I heard that they'd also encountered some kind of accident very recently." The Elder asked.

Disciple Gu's face suddenly turned cold after hearing such a question.

"S-Sorry, I overstepped my boundaries by asking about your family, Disciple Gu. Please forgive me." The Elder immediately apologized.

After all, the Gu Family had sustained immense losses with the death of many experts and even 10 Spirit Lords! Their position within the Seven Legacy Families had dropped all the way to the bottom because of this mysterious incident, which shook the entire Spirit Heaven when news spread.

Of course, the death of Sect Master Sun wasn't any less shocking. Even though Sect Master Li announced it as an accident, rumors of it being murder still circulated.

Disciple Gu didn't stay in the Administration Hall any longer and went elsewhere to investigate Yuan's identity.

Meanwhile, Yuan and Wang Xiuying arrived at the Alchemy Store.

The store was a massive pagoda that had 10 spacious floors.

"Look! That's Disciple Wang!"

"G-Good morning, Fairy Wang!"

The disciples at the Alchemy Store immediately recognized Wang Xiuying when they saw her.

"Who's that handsome beside her? He's not wearing our uniform. Is he a guest?"

"Do you think he's Disciple Wang's boyfriend?"

"I saw them hugging each other on the flying treasure before they descended! They definitely have a very intimate relationship with each other!"

The disciples there also took notice of Yuan, who was not only very handsome but also emitted this unfathomable aura, which instantly charmed many female disciples.

"Let's go inside." Wang Xiuying said to Yuan after they landed in front of the Alchemy Store.

Yuan nodded and followed her inside.

"The first, second, and third floor mostly consists of medicine and herbs, so we can go straight to the fourth floor." Wang Xiuying said as she walked straight to the staircase.

Upon entering the fourth floor, Yuan could see many different cauldrons being sold.

"This is where we can buy ordinary cauldrons. The more valuable ones are on the fifth and sixth floor. Sometimes the pills can explode during concoction if you mess up, and the cauldron usually goes with the pill." Wang Xiuying said.

"Isn't it very dangerous to sit so close to the cauldron, then? What if it explodes in your face?" Yuan asked.

"Indeed, it is very dangerous. In fact, the cause of most disciple deaths within the sect is due to their cauldron exploding. However, that will only happen to ordinary cauldrons. There are cauldrons that have been enchanted with safety measures that greatly reduce the risk of injury, but those are way more expensive, and not all disciples can afford that."

"For the record, I have blown up over 100 cauldrons since I have been here! I am also on my 23rd cauldron from practicing Tier 4 pills!" Wang Xiuying said, sounding somewhat proud of it.

Yuan smiled, "And how many times have you died?"

"None! As the Sect Master's disciple, I am only allowed to use the best enchanted cauldrons, so no matter how many I explode, I won't die."

Though, I still get injured by them."

"So if you weren't the Sect Master's disciple, you would've died over 100 times. You're still as reckless as ever." Yuan chuckled.

"Anyways, do you want to get a cauldron while you're here?" Wang Xiuying then asked.

"I don't do Alchemy, though. Why would I need one?"

"Who said cauldrons are only used for Alchemy? You can do other things with them, as well." Wang Xiuying said.

And she continued, "Such as cooking, brewing tea, mixing medicine, and even body tempering."

"Hm? Did you just say body tempering?" Yuan's interest piqued.

Chapter 919 - Buying a Cauldron

Chapter 919 - Buying a Cauldron

"Yes, you can temper your body in a cauldron if it's large enough to fit your body. Although I have never done it personally, I have heard of people doing that before, and they claim that it has a better effect than a bathtub since cauldrons are specifically made for medicine." Wang Xiuying confirmed.

"I'm more interested in the fact that I can carry the cauldron with me, which will allow me to temper my body wherever and whenever I want." Yuan said.

"Alright, I will get a cauldron."

"Great! Then let's head to the sixth floor. The cauldrons on this floor are too small, same with the cauldrons on the next floor." Wang Xiuying said as she made her way towards the staircase.

Sometime later, they arrived on the sixth floor.

"The cauldrons on this floor don't appear to be big enough to fit my body, either." Yuan said.

In fact, most of the cauldrons on this floor are only large enough to fit a few watermelons, not an adult body.

"That's because these cauldrons can change their size to become bigger or smaller. They're small on display only to save space." Wang Xiuying said.

"Oh... How big can they get?"

"Well, it depends on the quality of the cauldron. Some cauldrons can become as big as an entire house," she said.

"Why would anyone want such a big cauldron?" Yuan raised an eyebrow.

"If you're skilled enough, you can concoct more than one pill at a time. The bigger cauldrons are for those who like to concoct pills in batches, but that is easier said than done. Compared to my Master, who can concoct over 100 pills at once, I can only concoct about 10 pills."

"Anyways, go look around. Since you're my friend, I can probably get you an amazing discount." Wang Xiuying winked at him.

Yuan nodded and began walking around the room.

There were over 100 different cauldrons on display, each of them with a unique shape and color.

Meanwhile, news of Wang Xiuying having a boyfriend began spreading throughout the sect like a wildfire.

"Have you heard? Senior apprentice-sister Wang brought her boyfriend to the Alchemy Store!"

"No way! She's taken?! Since when?! Who is the lucky bastard?!"

"Nobody knows, but he wasn't wearing our uniform, so he might not be part of our sect."

The more people spread the news the more exaggerated and chaotic it became.

"What?! Senior apprentice-sister Wang's fiancé is spending time with her fiancé?!"

"Hey! You know what I heard? Senior apprentice-sister Wang is shopping at the Alchemy Store with her dao companion!"

Disciple Gu eventually got hold of the news, and he immediately began speeding towards the Alchemy Store.

'That bastard was her dao companion?! Impossible!'

Back at the Alchemy Store, Wang Xiuying gave Yuan some recommendations.

"How about this Cauldron of Radiance? Oh, this Nine Oracle Cauldron looks very good, as well!"

Yuan smiled and said, "Does it really matter which one I get? I am only using it to temper my body, after all."

"Of course, it matters! Higher quality cauldrons can make them last longer, and some can even enhance the strength of the medicine!"

Hearing her words, Yuan turned to look at the price tag for some of these cauldrons.

[Cauldron of Radiance: 5,000,000 spirit stones]

[Nine Oracle Cauldron: 7,500,000 spirit stones]

"Do you think I am made out of money? There's no way I can afford these even with a 50 percent discount! And why the hell are cauldrons so dang expensive?!" Yuan exclaimed.

He already has a 5 million spirit stone debt under Feng Yuxiang, so there was no way that he could afford these for now, unless he sold the Gu Family's treasures.

"Alchemy is an expensive career, but it will also earn you a lot of money if you're competent." Feng Yuxiang shrugged.

After looking around the whole room, Yuan found the cheapest cauldron on sale, but even that was worth 1 million spirit stones.

"Stainless Cauldron, huh. Are you sure? I will get the Elder now if you have decided."

Yuan nodded.

"Alright, give me a moment." Wang Xiuying left his side and went to one of the Elders working there.

"Elder, my friend would like to purchase a cauldron." Wang Xiuying said.

The Elder nodded, "The Stainless Cauldron, correct? It will cost 1,500,000 spirit stones because he's not a disciple of our sect."

"What?! I was actually hoping that you'd give him a discount..." Wang Xiuying exclaimed.

"I'm sorry, Disciple Wang, but this is the sect's rule. It's not something that I can change willy-nilly."

"In case you forgot, I am one of only four people in the entire sect that can concoct Tier 3 pills with over 95 percent purity, and I have helped the sect concoct thousands of them! That's worth at least a few hundred thousand spirit stones, yet I never asked for any reward! If I ask my Master, she would definitely give it to me for free! However, I don't want to bother her, so I am asking you to give him a discount instead."

"He is a very important friend of mine, I hope you don't embarrass me in front of him."

"I-I'm really sorry, Disciple Wang. I really want to help you and your friend, but I am a mere Elder. I don't have the authority to make such a decision..."

"Then I will stop concocting pills for the sect." Wang Xiuying suddenly said with a rebellious look on her face, shocking the Elder.

"And when the sect asks why, I will tell them exactly why."

Seeing Wang Xiuying's stubbornness, the Elder felt like crying.

"P-Please, have mercy, Disciple Wang!"

The Elder eventually gave up and said, "I will get the manager... He has enough authority to make a decision."

"Okay." Wang Xiuying didn't say anything else and returned to Yuan.

"What happened? Where's the Elder?" Yuan asked her when she returned alone.

"He'll be here soon," she said with an innocent look on her face.

Chapter 920 - Phoenix Down

Chapter 920 - Phoenix Down

"What? The Sect Master's disciple threatened to stop concocting pills for the sect if we don't give her friend a discount?" The Manager of the Alchemy Store doubted his ears for a moment after hearing the Elder's words, who was on the verge of crying when he arrived.

"Can you please do something about this, Elder Bei? If Disciple Wang stops concocting pills, the Sect Master will kill us!"

"Calm down, it's just a discount. We can just consider Disciple Wang as the purchaser, not her friend." Elder Bei said.

Sometime later, Elder Bei went to greet Wang Xiuying and Yuan.

"Hello, Disciple Wang and her friend. I have heard the situation. It's just a discount, there's no need for such drastic measures. How does a 75 percent discount sound? Also, there's no need to pay for the visitor's fee, so the total will be 250,000 spirit stones." Elder Bei said to them.

"What do you think? If it's not enough, I can ask them to lower it some more." Wang Xiuying turned to ask Yuan, causing a bittersweet smile to appear on the Elder's face.

"250,000 spirit stones, huh? Do you accept treasures as a payment? I am currently short on spirit stones." Yuan asked him.

"Of course. We accept all sorts of treasures, but we recommend ones that benefit our sect the most, such as herbs and medicine."

"Sounds good."

"Please, follow me to the counter."

Yuan and Wang Xiuying proceeded to follow Elder Bei to the counter.

"Show me what you've got." Elder Bei said to Yuan afterward.

Yuan immediately began dumping out the Gu Family's treasure. Of course, most of these treasures belonged to the Gu Family from the Lower Heavens, as he has yet to remove the Destiny Seals from the other treasures.

"T-That's a lot of treasures..." Elder Bei said. He clearly did not expect such a quantity of treasures from Yuan, and most of them appeared to be Heaven-grade and higher.

Elder Bei also called for someone who can evaluate these treasures.

Sometime later, Elder Bei picked three treasures out of the twenty four treasures and said, "I will sell you the Stainless Cauldron for these three treasures. The total of these treasures will sell for around 275,000 spirit stones, so we'll give you 25,000 spirit stones back. What do you say?"

Yuan pondered for a moment before speaking in a calm voice, "Since you have an expert, I will also let my expert decide. Feng Feng, what do you think?"

Feng Yuxiang appeared beside him the next moment, shocking everyone there.

She ignored their gazes and looked at the three treasures and said, "I can easily get 500,000 spirit stones out of these three treasures."

"E-Excuse me, but who are you?" The Alchemy Store's examiner asked for Feng Yuxiang's background, which is very normal in these kinds of situations where one's qualifications mattered very much.

"You may not know me here, but I owned one of the best stores in the Lower Heavens. With that being said, 15,000 years ago, I operated a store called 'Phoenix Down' in Spirit Heaven. Have you heard of it?" Feng Yuxiang said.

The examiner pondered with a profound frown on his face.

'Phoenix Down...? Why does it sound so familiar?' Elder Bei wondered to himself.

After a few moments of silence, the Alchemy Store's examiner suddenly came to a realization and exclaimed in a shocked voice, "Phoenix Down! I remember now! There is a legend of a store by such a name! According to the legend, it was an immensely popular store that sold all sorts of treasures that could only be found in the Third Heaven and above, and they were all being sold in Spirit Heaven!"

"Furthermore, the owner of this store is a mystery, but rumors say it was a woman with beauty that outshines all treasures in the store!"

"However, the store only operated for a hundred years before it suddenly disappeared."

"Are you telling me that you're the owner of that legendary Phoenix Down?!"

The examiner asked Feng Yuxiang.

Although her beauty was definitely up to standards with the legend, unless she had concrete proof that she was the owner, it wouldn't matter even if she was the most beautiful woman in the Nine Heavens.

"Of course. Here's my certification and license. It expired 15,000 years ago, but it proves that the Phoenix Down existed and that I was the owner of it." Feng Yuxiang retrieved a piece of paper and showed it to the examiner, who started trembling after seeing it.

The examiner then retrieved his own certification and license to compare.

"I-It's real... She's the real deal!" The examiner exclaimed in a shocked voice.

"A-Are you serious?" Elder Bei swallowed nervously.

Why would a legendary figure from 15,000 years ago show up now? Hell, where did she even pop out from?

"I apologize for doubting you, Senior. And it's an honor to meet you." The examiner bowed to her after returning her certification.

Feng Yuxiang silently nodded her head.

"Anyways, if Senior claims the treasures are worth 500,000 spirit stones, then I will not argue." The examiner said to Elder Bei.

"Is that so?" Elder Bei nodded.

He turned to look at Yuan and spoke, "I can give you 225,000 spirit stones and the Stainless Cauldron for these three treasures, or we can give you medicine instead."

"The seventh, eighth, and ninth floor contains medicines from Tier 5 herbs to Tier 5 pills. What do you say?"

Yuan pondered to himself, 'Medicine, huh? This is a good chance for me to stock up some medicine for my body tempering. Even though Feng Feng promised to support me, I cannot rely on her for everything.'

"Let me see what kind of medicine is available first." Yuan said a moment later.

"Very well. I will prepare the spirit stones just in case you decide to take the money instead. As for the Stainless Cauldron, you can take it now." Elder Bei said.

Chapter 921 - Body Tempering Pills

Chapter 921 - Body Tempering Pills

"Follow them just in case they wish to trade more treasures." Elder Bei said to the examiner before leaving them alone.

Wang Xiuying led Yuan to the seventh floor shortly after.

"The seventh floor sells Tier 1 to Tier 2 herbs, medicine, and pills. Since there are too many to display, they have it all listed in a book." Wang Xiuying explained to him after they arrived on the seventh floor, where thick books were displayed instead of the medicine.

Yuan walked over to one of these books and started flipping through them.

'Mind Calming Pill, Body Reforming Pill, Three Spirits Pill, Misty Pill...'

There were over a dozen different pills at glance, and there were hundreds of pages in the book

"Yuan, if you want Tier 1 and Tier 2 pills, I can easily concoct them for you for free. I can also concoct Tier 3 pills with over 95 percent purity. Although I am still learning to concoct Tier 4 pills, I am making fast progress. Give me another month and I will be able to concoct them with 90 percent purity."

Yuan smiled and said, "Thank you, but I don't think I need any pills. However, I am interested in treasures specifically for body tempering."

"There are pills for body tempering, as well. They are called Body Tempering Pills, and a single one of them can last you an entire week. They are also more effective than throwing raw medicine into the bath since pills are mixed better, and condensing them into a pill strengthens its effects.."

"Oh? I'd like some of them." Yuan immediately said.

"Then I recommend Tier 1 Body Tempering Pills first. They're incredibly painful, so I suggest you get used to the weaker ones before using the stronger pills." Wang Xiuying said.

"Don't worry, I am pretty experienced when it comes to body tempering. I'll get a Tier 4 Body Tempering Pill as well as a Tier 5 for today to test their effects."

"T-Tier 4 and Tier 5?! That's insane! Those are only recommended for Spirit Lords and above!" Wang Xiuying exclaimed, unaware of Yuan's cultivation base.

"I'm a peak Spirit Lord." Yuan pointed at himself and said.

"R-Really? B-But it hasn't even been that long since the Mystic Realm, and you were only a Spirit Master then!" Wang Xiuying said.

"I have been consuming valuable treasures and medicine since I entered the sect, and I just entered Spirit Master!"

"Comparing yourself to the Young Master is like comparing Heaven and Earth." Feng Yuxiang sneered.

Wang Xiuying's eyebrows twitched upon hearing Feng Yuxiang's remarks.

'Why does she seem so hostile? Did I offend her somehow?' She wondered inwardly.

"Anyways, I want to test out the Body Tempering Pills today. Once I know what I want, I will return for more."

They proceeded onto the ninth floor to buy the Body Tempering Pills.

After acquiring a Tier 4 and a Tier 5 Body Tempering Pill, Yuan asked, "What's on the tenth floor?"

"Oh, you can buy pill recipes and Alchemy Flames on that floor, but only people approved by the Sect Master can enter that floor." Wang Xiuying said.

"I see..."

"Anyways, is there a place where I can test out my new items?" Yuan then asked.

"You can do it at my house. I have plenty of room, and it's completely free." Wang Xiuying said.

"Sure." Yuan accepted her hospitality without any hesitation.

As they made their way downstairs, Feng Yuxiang would return to Yuan's body.

"Esteemed Guest, we still owe you 100,000 spirit stones. Would you like to retrieve them now?" The examiner said to him.

"Those two pills cost 150,000 spirit stones?" Yuan was speechless.

"Yes, the Tier 4 Body Tempering Pill costs 50,000 spirit stones, and the Tier 5 costs 100,000 spirit stones."

Yuan sighed, "Just keep them for now. I will be coming back later, anyway."

"I understand."

When Yuan and Wang Xiuying exited the Alchemy Store, they were greeted by a massive crowd of disciples waiting outside.

"Wow, why are there so many disciples here today? Is there some kind of special event?" Wang Xiuying mumbled in a dazed voice.

Once the disciples noticed their presence, they began talking to each other.

"Look! That's him!"

"So he's Senior apprentice-sister's dao companion, huh?"

"What? I thought he was her boyfriend! When did he become her dao companion?"

"He's a lot more charming than the rumors... I wish I was in Senior apprentice-sister's shoes right now..." Some of the female disciples there were charmed by Yuan's unfathomable and mysterious aura.

Suddenly, a group of figures walked out of the crowd and stood before Yuan and Wang Xiuying.

"Look! That's Disciple Gu! They're going to confront them!"

"I'm not surprised. Disciple Gu has the hots for Senior apprentice-sister Wang, after all."

"Wait, but why is the Disciplinary Squad following him?"

The disciples understood why Disciple Gu was there, but they cannot imagine why the Disciplinary Squad was there.

After all, they are primarily tasked with dealing with rule-breaking disciples.

"You! Identify yourself!" The Elder leading the Disciplinary Squad stepped forward and pointed at Yuan.

Yuan raised his eyebrows and spoke, "Why?"

"I am the Head Elder of the Disciplinary Squad! Who are you to question me?! I am the law in this place! If I asked you a question, you answer it!"

Wang Xiuying quickly stepped in and said, "Elder, there must have been a misunderstanding. This is my friend, who is currently visiting the sect as a guest."

"So he's not a disciple, huh? You heard her, Uncle Gu." Disciple Gu said to him.

"In this case... Disciple Wang, this 'friend' of yours had snuck into the sect without telling anyone, which is a violation of our sect's rules! He could even be a spy for all we know! And according to the rules of the sect, these violators may be punishable with death!"

"What?! That's nonsense! Elder Gu, my friend is not a spy!" Wang Xiuying immediately refuted.

"We will be the judge of that after we question him." Elder Gu sneered.

Chapter 922 - Disciplinary Squad

Chapter 922 - Disciplinary Squad

"You want to treat my friend like he's a criminal and question him? I will not allow such a thing to happen!" Wang Xiuying shouted angrily.

"Even if you are the disciple of the Sect Master, you cannot disobey the sect's rules. This man of unknown origin may be a threat to our sect, and as the Head Elder of the Disciplinary Squad, I will not allow anything to happen to our sect. No hard feelings, Disciple Wang. I am merely doing my job." Elder Gu shook his head.

"No! If you take him away, I will stop concocting pills for the sect!" Wang Xiuying said, shocking everybody there.

"Heavens, Senior apprentice-sister Wang is willing to go so far for him... There's no doubt that he's her dao companion!" The disciples were shocked and impressed by Wang Xiuying's boldness before Elder Gu, who is known for being ruthless.

"Senior Sister Wang! Why must you go so far for him? Are you really going to risk all of your hard work in the sect for a guy like him?! Even if you're the Sect Master's disciple, you can still be exiled from the sect for disobeying the sect rules! I will not allow you to make such a sacrifice!" Disciple Gu stepped forward and said.

"Hmph! As if my Master will kick me out of the sect over something like this. And even if I get kicked out, the only reason I joined this sect is because of him!" Wang Xiuying exclaimed, leaving everyone there speechless.

"What? Senior apprentice-sister Wang joined the sect for that guy?" The disciples were in awe of her dedication.

Even Yuan looked at her funny after such a claim.

"You joined the sect for me? But I don't remember asking you to do such a thing..." Yuan said.

"I will explain it to you later." Wang Xiuying said with a rosy face.

Disciple Gu gritted his teeth in anger when she saw Wang Xiuying's blushing face.

'Why does it have to be that bastard?! Why is she not looking at me with those bashful and passionate eyes?! Fuck! I swear I will kill you, or my surname is not Gu!' He cried inwardly.

"Uncle!" Disciple Gu called out to him.

Elder Gu slightly nodded his head and said, "Disciple Wang, if you're going to continue this charade, I will have no choice but to detain you as well! The Sect Master is currently away from the sect, and she might not return for another day or two! Do you wish to spend the next two days behind bars?! Your decision will greatly affect your reputation and position within the sect! Is this how you wish to repay the sect after everything we have done for you?! All for this nameless spy?!"

Wang Xiuying gritted her teeth in anger and shouted, "If that's what I need to do to protect—"

However, Yuan suddenly patted her in the back and interrupted, "I will go with them. They're only going to question me, right? Then I just need to answer them truthfully. There's no need escalate the situation any further or for you to make such sacrifices over such a small thing. I'll be back in a bit."

"Yuan... I'm sorry... If my Master was here, none of this would've happened to you. But don't worry! As soon as she returns, I will tell her to help you! She won't refuse!"

Yuan smiled, "I also have a feeling that she won't refuse."

He left her side and started walking towards the Disciplinary Squad.

"Cuff him!" Elder Gu said to the rest of the Disciplinary Squad.

Yuan did not resist and allowed the disciples to cuff him with these weird-looking handcuffs made out of some kind of red crystal.

Yuan expected some kind of special effect from the handcuffs, but he didn't feel any different afterward.

"Don't even try to do anything funny. These handcuffs are made out of Spirit Sealing Crystals, which will restrict your cultivation base when worn, so you'll be no different from a mortal without any cultivation!" Disciple Gu said to him with a malicious grin on his face.

"Is that so?" Yuan calmly shrugged, as he could still feel his cultivation base.

This reminded him of the time when he and Wang Xiuying accidentally arrived at the Ancient Dragon City, where they were detained with the same type of handcuffs.

"See you in a bit!" Yuan said while looking at Wang Xiuying.

"Shut up and start moving!" One of the disciples poked Yuan with a stick.

"Poke me again and see what will happen." Yuan narrowed his gaze at the disciple.

The disciple immediately pulled back the stick and trembled in fear.

"Lead the way." Yuan calmly continued.

"Hmph. Arrogant bastard. Let's see if you can keep your cool when Disciple Wang is no longer watching." Elder Gu sneered.

Wang Xiuying and the other disciples proceeded to watch Yuan being led away by the Disciplinary Squad.

After snapping out of her daze, Wang Xiuying retrieved her flying treasure and disappeared from the Alchemy Store.

Sometime later, she arrived at the Sect Master's Headquarters.

Although Sect Master Xiahou wasn't present, there was someone that could contact her in the building.

"Elder Yong! This is an emergency! I need you to contact my Master immediately!" Wang Xiuying started shouting even before the door could fully open.

An old man was sitting at the end of the room, and he lifted his head in a startled manner after Wang Xiuying stormed into his room without knocking.

"Disciple Wang? What happened? I have never seen you this hectic before."

"The Disciplinary Squad took my friend even though he did nothing wrong! Hurry up and call my Master!"

"Your friend?" Elder Yong raised his eyebrows in a questioning manner.

Wang Xiuying quickly explained the situation to him.

"I see... I understand the situation, but your Master is currently in a meeting with the other Academies' Sect Masters regarding Sect Master Sun's death. It would be a bad idea to disturb her now. Let's just wait for her to return in a day or two." He said.

Chapter 923 - Message

Chapter 923 - Message

"That's too long! I need you to message my Master right now! I will not allow my friend to experience such abuse in my sect! If you still refuse, then don't blame me for being dramatic when I leave this sect, since I am clearly not of any value to this sect!" Wang Xiuying said in an angry voice.

"W-What? You're willing to go that far for another person?" Elder Yong was shocked by Wang Xiuying's reaction.

"I will not ask again!" Wang Xiuying took out her sect's medallion and threatened to destroy it.

"Alright! I will contact the Sect Master! Just calm down a bit, Disciple Wang."

Elder Yong sighed as he retrieved a brown talisman and mumbled some words into it.

"Go!"

Elder Yong infused his spiritual energy into the talisman, causing it to fly out the window the next moment, disappearing from the sect shortly after.

The talisman would eventually reach Sect Master Xiahou, who was in the middle of a meeting with the other Sect Masters.

"Should we really be hiding the truth about Sun Hao's death? There's already rumors of it being murder spreading around." Sect Master Xiahou said.

"It's for the best, and it would even save us some face. Or do you want to let the world know that some Junior had killed Sun Hao right before all of us, and that we allowed him to leave without doing anything about it?" Sect Master Li sighed.

"Furthermore, the less people know about Yuan's existence the better."

"How's the Universal Music Academy dealing with their Sect Master's sudden death?" Bai Enjue asked a moment later.

"Not good. Despite my warnings, they're all overflowing with the desire to avenge Sun Hao, and they're even looking for Yuan as we speak." Sect Master Li shook his head.

"What? That's insane! At this rate, the Seven Spirit Academies will be known as the Six Spirit Academies!" The Sect Master of the Steel Lion Academy said.

"Why can't they just find a new Sect Master and not cause more trouble for the rest of us?" The Sect Master of the Lonely River Academy sighed.

Sometime later, Sect Master Xiahou suddenly turned to face the window with a frown on her face.

"What's the matter?" The others noticed her odd behavior and asked her.

Sect Master Xiahou didn't respond immediately and opened the window without getting off her chair, and a moment later, Elder Yong's brown talisman flew into the room and stopped before her.

Sect Master Xiahou recognized the talisman and placed it on her forehead.

Elder Yong's voice resounded inside her head the next moment, "Sect Master, I apologize for bothering you during such a time, but your disciple, Healer Wang, is threatening to leave the sect if I don't send you this message. Anyways, apparently her friend had been escorted away by the Disciplinary Squad for illegally visiting the sect and being a spy, and she wants you to do something about it."

Sect Master Xiahou frowned after hearing the message. It took her a moment to realize the situation because she was focused on Wang Xiuying threatening to leave the sect.

'Hm? Her friend? Illegally visiting?'

The face of a handsome yet terrifying face suddenly appeared in her mind.

"Fuck! Those idiots!" Sect Master Xiahou suddenly cursed out loud as she jumped to her feet, startling the other Sect Masters.

"W-What happened?!" They asked her.

"Elder Gu and the Disciplinary Squad at my sect had detained Yuan, even accusing him of being a spy!"

"What?! Why is he in your sect?!" Sect Master Li asked.

"He's friends with my disciple and wanted to visit her! There was no way I could've refused! However, I didn't tell anybody about it, so they think he'd entered illegally and took him captive!"

"H-Hey... Elder Gu... Isn't he from the Gu Family? Didn't Yuan just kill ten of their Spirit Lords and crippled their army?" Bai Enjue said in a nervous voice.

"Heavens... At this rate, the Seven Spirit Academies will become the Five Spirit Academies!" The Sect Master of the Steel Lion Academy said.

Sect Master Xiahou began sweating profusely after hearing such words.

"I-I'm sorry, but I have to return to my sect! Please excuse me!" Sect Master Xiahou retrieved her flying treasure and immediately began speeding back to the sect.

"We should probably postpone our meetings until that man has left this realm..." Sect Master Li sighed.

"Hey, since someone from the Gu Family is involved, shouldn't we notify Patriarch Gu?" The Sect Master of the Lonely River Academy said.

Sect Master Li nodded, "I'm sure they'll appreciate it."

He retrieved a talisman and mumbled to it before sending it flying towards the Gu Family's direction.

Ban Enjue then said, "I'm going to follow Sect Master Xiahou. If the Universal Music Academy learns of his location, they will mostly try to avenge Sun Hao and attack him."

"I'll go with you."

"Me too."

Thus, the other Sect Masters there began making their way to the Spirit Healing Academy while praying that nothing too serious will happen from this incident.

Meanwhile, outside the Alchemy Store, after the Disciplinary Squad took Yuan away, some of the disciples there spoke, "Is it just me or does Senior apprentice-sister Wang's dao companion look familiar? I'm pretty sure that I have seen him before, but I cannot remember when and where."

"You too? I also thought the same when I saw his face."

"W-Wait! I remember! Wasn't he the one who severed the Universal Music Academy's Sect Master's arm during the disciple examination?! That was him in the broadcast, right?!"

"Now that you mention it..."

"Holy shit! Didn't their Sect Master die yesterday? Rumor has it that he was murdered by the person who severed his arm!"

"What! I thought he'd died in an accident!"

"I don't like where this is going..."

While news of Yuan's presence spread throughout the sect like wildfire, Yuan himself followed the Disciplinary Squad and Disciple Gu to some isolated area within the sect.

They eventually arrived before a suspicious-looking cave that looked like the entrance to a dungeon.

Chapter 924 - Underground Prison

Chapter 924 - Underground Prison

"Is this place your headquarters? Judging by the outside appearance, I dare say that your Disciplinary Squad doesn't have a decent budget if any at all." Yuan chuckled.

"Shut up and go inside." Elder Gu said to him.

Yuan shrugged and entered the cave, which led him to an underground prison that looked like it had been out of service for hundreds of years.

'Young Master, should I just kill these ignorant and disrespectful fools?' Feng Yuxiang asked him.

'No, leave it. I want to see what they're going to do.' He said.

He then said out loud, "Hey, I am only being questioned, right? Must we do it here? It's so dirty that I can feel myself getting sick just from breathing in the air."

Disciple Gu started laughing after hearing Yuan's words, and he said afterward, "You really think we took you here to question you? Just how dumb are you?"

"What? If you're not going to question me, why did you bring me here?" Yuan asked, continuing his act.

"Oh, we'll question you all right. The question is how we'll do it!" Disciple Gu retrieved his sword and pointed it at Yuan.

"I don't care who you are. Since you dared to lay your filthy hands on my woman, I will make you regret ever being born!"

Yuan's eyes widened with surprise, and he asked, "Huh? When did I ever lay a hand on your woman?"

"Don't act dumb! Healer Wang is my woman! I have had my eyes on her ever since she entered the sect, and I will do everything and anything to get my hands on her!" Disciple Gu shouted.

However, to their surprise, Yuan started laughing.

"What's so damn funny?"

"Everything." Yuan smiled.

"I see. So you still don't understand your current situation, huh? Don't worry, I will help you come to a realization very soon!" Disciple Gu began approaching Yuan, but he was stopped by Elder Gu.

"Uncle?"

"Wait. There's no need to be impatient. I still need to question him. Once I am done, you can have all the fun you want with him." Elder Gu said.

"Chain him to the wall!" He commanded the other disciples.

Yuan didn't resist and allowed them to chain him to the wall in one of the prison cells.

"If you're smart, you will answer my questions truthfully." Elder Gu stood before him and began questioning him.

"What's your name?"

"Yuan."

"What's your relationship with Healer Wang?"

"We're only friends."

"What is your background?"

"I don't have one."

"Which sect do you belong to?"

"I'm what you call a Rogue Cultivator. I don't belong to any sect at this moment."

"What about your family?"

"They threw me out for being useless."

"In other words, you're a nobody! Which means we can kill you without offending anyone. You can forget about ever leaving this place now!" Disciple Gu laughed out loud.

"What about Healer Wang? She'll be sad and angry if you kill me." Yuan asked.

"Don't worry about her. She'll forget about you once we feed her a Mind Invasion Pill."

"A what?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

'Young Master, a Mind Invasion Pill can alter one's memories, and that includes erasing their memories.' Feng Yuxiang explained.

"A soon-to-be-dead man doesn't need to know." Disciple Gu said with a grim smile on his face.

"How did you sneak into the sect?" Elder Gu continued to question Yuan.

"I flew in here... With your Sect Master." Yuan said with a smile.

"What?" Elder Gu immediately frowned.

"You heard me."

"You know the Sect Master?"

"Not just the Sect Master. I also happen to know your Patriarch— Patriarch Gu. We're practically best friends."

"He's fucking with us!" Disciple Gu exclaimed.

"If you don't believe me, you can contact your Patriarch and ask him yourself. Just tell him my name. He knows it very well."

"Shut your damn mouth!" Disciple Gu suddenly rushed into the cell and swung his sword at Yuan, who was defensively chained to the wall.

"Wait!" Elder Gu tried to stop his nephew, but Disciple Gu was too fast, and the sword in his hand was already in a swinging motion.

"Don't worry, I won't kill you so quickly! However, I will take one of your limbs!" Disciple Gu laughed as his sword mercilessly chopped at Yuan's right leg.

Ding!

The sound of metal colliding resounded, and it felt like he'd struck a block of steel with his sword for Disciple Gu.

The sword flew out of his hand almost instantly after attacking Yuan, landing a few meters away.

"W-What the fuck?" He muttered in a dumbfounded voice.

"Surprised?" Yuan asked him with a smile.

"You'll need a little more arm strength if you want to take my leg."

"I-I don't know what kind of trick that was, but you're still chained to the wall! What can you do in such a state? And the longer it takes to kill you, the more I will enjoy it, so resist as much as you want!"

Yuan suddenly yanked his arm, ripping the chains off the wall.

He then snapped the handcuffs into two parts with ease.

"What were you saying?" Yuan looked at Disciple Gu with a nonchalant expression on his face.

"I-Impossible! Those handcuffs are made from Spirit Sealing Crystals! Did he break them with his raw strength?!" The other disciples exclaimed.

"You don't believe that I know your Patriarch, right? If that's the case, then how come I have this in my possession?" Yuan retrieved one of the treasures he'd acquired from Patriarch Gu and showed it to them.

"T-That's—! Impossible! Why do you have that?!" Elder Gu exclaimed in a baffled voice.

"That's definitely one of our Gu Family's heirlooms—the Grail of Truth! I can even sense our Destiny Seal on it!" He cried inwardly.

"If you want to know how I got this treasure, go ask your Patriarch. He was the one who gave it to me, after all." Yuan said with a mysterious smile on his face.

Meanwhile, Sect Master Li's talisman arrived at the Gu Family's residence, alerting them of the situation at the Spirit Healing Academy.

Chapter 925 - Release Him!

Chapter 925 - Release Him!

"P-Patriarch Gu, you have a message!" The person who acquired Sect Master Li's message went to find him.

"What is it?" Patriarch Gu was immediately annoyed.

After his immense defeat and embarrassment caused by Yuan, Patriarch Gu has become easily irritable, so much so that even the slightest annoyance would cause his brows to frown and his blood to boil.

"T-The Sect Master of the Heavenly Academy has sent us a message," said the person with the talisman.

"Sect Master Li? What does he want from us? If this is about what happened recently, just ignore it." Patriarch Gu said.

"No... This is different. Although I don't understand the message, the Sect Master sounded a little nervous." The person handed the talisman to Patriarch Gu.

Patriarch Gu sucked his teeth in an annoyed manner and activated the talisman.

Sect Master Li's voice resounded in his head the next moment, "This is Sect Master Li of the Heavenly Academy. Something has happened within the Spirit Healing Academy that you should probably be aware of, considering what happened to your family recently. Elder Gu, who is the head of the Disciplinary Squad, has taken Yuan captive and is currently questioning him. You should know first hand what happens if you offend Yuan, hence this message."

"Fuck! This damn little brother of mine! Why is he messing with the one person he shouldn't mess with?! And so soon after what happened between the Gu Family and him!" Patriarch Gu tossed the talisman at the wall in an angry manner.

"I'm going to visit the Spirit Healing Academy! Hopefully, I won't be too late to save his pitiful life!"

Not daring to waste anymore time, Patriarch Gu flew towards the Spirit Healing Academy on his flying treasure.

Meanwhile, Sect Master Xiahou returned to the sect.

"S-Sect Master? What happened to the meeting?" Elder Yong was surprised to see the Sect Master return so quickly.

"Where's my disciple?!" She asked him, her appearance all messed up from the rush.

"She went to the Disciplinary Squad's headquarters after I sent you the message," he said.

"Anyways, what's this all about?"

"I don't have time to explain! Thank you for sending me the message!"

Sect Master Xiahou didn't explain any further and rushed to find Wang Xiuying.

"Looks like the Spirit Healing Academy is still intact... thankfully..." Bai Enjue said after the rest of the Sect Masters arrived at the sect.

At the Disciplinary Squad's headquarters, Wang Xiuying was arguing with the disciples working there.

"Where did you take my friend?! The Sect Master is aware of the situation, and it will only be a matter of time before she returns! If you let my friend go, I will not press charges against you!" Wang Xiuying said.

"P-Please calm down, Senior apprentice-sister Wang... We have no idea what you're talking about... What friend?" The disciples at the headquarters were completely clueless.

"Nonsense! Your leader, Elder Gu, took my friend in for questioning! I saw it with my own eyes, as did many other disciples! You won't be able to cover for them!"

"Why would we lie to you, Senior apprentice-sister Wang? It's true that Elder Gu had left with some disciples sometime ago, but they haven't returned since then, and nobody seems to know where he's gone." The disciple at the counter said, feeling an urge to cry.

"Are you serious? Then where did they take my friend?!" Wang Xiuying exclaimed.

"I'm sorry, but I wish we knew." They all shook their heads.

"Then do you know where they could've taken my friend?" Wang Xiuying did not give up and continued to pressure them.

Sometime later, Sect Master Xiahou arrived at the Disciplinary Squad's headquarters.

"Sect Master!"

All of the disciples there greeted her the moment they noticed her presence.

"M-Master! You're back!" Wang Xiuying rushed to her Master with a relieved expression on her face.

'Now that Master is here, they will have no choice but to release Yuan!'

"Master! They called my friend a spy and took him in for questioning when he did nothing wrong!" Wang Xiuying made sure to put on the most desperate and unhappy expression she could possibly make while asking for her Master's help.

"This friend of yours... Is he a young man named Yuan?" Sect Master Xiahou asked her, silently hoping to herself that Wang Xiuying had another friend besides Yuan.

"Y-You know my friend, Yuan? How do you know each—I mean, yes! My friend, Yuan, was taken by Elder Gu and the Disciplinary Squad!" Wang Xiuying nodded her head viciously.

The frown on Sect Master Xiahou's face deepened, and she immediately approached the disciples working at the front desk.

"Release him right this moment!" She said to them in an angry and demanding voice.

However, nobody there moved.

"Did you not hear me?! I will not repeat myself!" She roared, causing them to tremble in fear.

"S-Sect Master! It's not that we don't want to release him... We don't even know where he is! Elder Gu hasn't returned since he left, and there's nobody in our cells right now! You can even check for yourself!" The disciples there explained the situation to her.

"What? How is this possible?" Sect Master Xiahou frowned.

'Damn it! What the fuck are you doing, Elder Gu?! Are you trying to destroy our sect?!' She cried inwardly.

"If he's not here, then hurry up and contact him!" Sect Master Xiahou shouted after snapping out of her daze.

"W-We've tried that as well, Sect Master! Elder Gu isn't answering his communication jade slip, either!"

"FUCK!" Sect Master Xiahou slammed her fist into the desk before her, shattering it into countless pieces, shocking everyone there, including Wang Xiuying.

"M-Master? Let's all calm down a little..." Wang Xiuying said, feeling completely baffled by her Master's outburst.

After all, Yuan was her number one idol, friend, and patient, yet she wasn't anywhere as outraged and emotional as her Master.

"CALM DOWN?! Do you have any idea who they're messing with?! That crazy monster dared to kill Sect Master Sun in front of the other Sect Masters for trying to hurt his friends! He will destroy our sect at this rate!" Sect Master Xiahou exclaimed.

"W-What...?"

Everyone there was left speechless by the Sect Master's outrageous claim.

Chapter 926 - Answer My Question or Die!

Chapter 926 - Answer My Question or Die!

"W-What did you just say? Yuan killed the Sect Master of the Universal Music Academy...?" Wang Xiuying stared at her Master with a look of disbelief on her face.

"There must have been some sort of mistake, Master. Yuan isn't the type to kill another person. He's really kind and gentle. I doubt he would even hurt a fly..."

Sect Master Xiahou looked at Wang Xiuying and frowned, "Are you sure we're talking about the same 'Yuan'? I watched him kill Sun Hao with my own eyes. Of course, it wasn't as though Sun Hao was completely innocent."

"Holy shit... Senior apprentice-sister Wang's friend is responsible for Sect Master Sun's death? I heard of the rumors, but to think that it was actually true..." The disciples there were shocked to learn the truth.

"We can talk about this later! We need to find them right now before it's too late!" Sect Master Xiahou suddenly said.

"Sect Master Xiahou, what's the current situation?" The other Sect Masters finally caught up with her and asked.

"What are you guys doing here?" Sect Master Xiahou asked them with a surprised face.

"We're here for insurance. All of our sects rely on the Spirit Healing Academy for pills and medicine, so we cannot allow it to fall so easily. " Sect Master Li said.

Although the Spirit Healing Academy is the weakest in the alliance in terms of prowess, they're actually the most important. Without the Spirit Healing Academy, the other sects will have to spend much more money on pills and other medicine.

Sect Master Xiahou proceeded to explain the situation to the other Sect Masters.

"What?! You cannot find them?! How is that even possible?"

"I really don't know what's going on." Sect Master Xiahou shook her head.

She turned to look at Wang Xiuying and asked, "Can you tell us exactly what happened before Elder Gu took him away?"

Wang Xiuying nodded and recalled everything from the moment she met Yuan to the moment they left the Alchemy Store, where the Disciplinary Squad showed up.

"What? Disciple Gu is also involved in this mess? If we cannot contact Elder Gu, maybe we can contact Disciple Gu through his Master, Elder Cang." Sect Master Xiahou said.

They left the Disciplinary Squad's headquarters shortly after and went to find Elder Cang, Disciple Gu's Master and Sect Master Xiahou's right-hand man.

Sometime later.

"Sect Master— and other Sect Masters?! Why are all of you here? What happened to the meeting?" Elder Cang was shocked to see them gather inside his room.

"Elder Cang, I need you to contact your disciple right now!" Sect Master Xiahou said to him.

"My disciple? Which one?" Elder Cang raised an eyebrow.

"Disciple Gu!"

"Gu Zhiting? Did he do something? For the Sect Master to be asking for him... If he did anything wrong, I will personally lecture him when he returns—"

"WE DON'T HAVE THE LUXURY TO WAIT! HURRY UP AND CONTACT HIM!" Sect Master Xiahou suddenly roared at him.

Elder Cang nearly had a heart attack. Although this isn't his first time being yelled at by her, it was never this severe.

'Gu Zhiting, what in heavens' name did you do to anger the Sect Master to such an extent?! Even the other Sect Masters are here! Fuck me!' Elder Cang cried inwardly as he retrieved his communication jade slip and called Disciple Gu.

Meanwhile, back at the underground prison, a few moments after Yuan broke out of his restraints, Disciple Gu felt his communication jade slip trembling.

"U-Uncle, it's my Master... He's calling for me for some reason..." Disciple Gu said to him.

"Ignore it! We have more important things to deal with right now!" Elder Gu quickly said.

Yuan smiled and said, "Go ahead and answer it. I'm sure it's very important. Don't worry, I won't do anything. I promise."

"Shut up! Nobody asked for your input!" Disciple Gu shouted.

Yuan shrugged, "Suit yourself."

"Answer me! Where did you get that treasure?! If you don't answer me right now, I will kill you where you stand!" Elder Gu suddenly roared, and he released his cultivation base that was at the first level of Spirit King.

"Are you sure you want to do that here? The ground will collapse on us if you act too crazy." Yuan said in a calm voice.

"I will not repeat myself! Answer my question or die!"

However, instead of answering Elder Gu's question, Yuan retrieved another treasure that belonged to their Gu Family.

"T-That's—!"

Even Disciple Gu recognized the treasure this time.

"BASTARD! HOW DID YOU ACQUIRE THOSE TREASURES?!" Elder Gu was fuming so hard that his entire face was covered in bulging vessels that could pop at any moment.

"Go ask your Patriarch." Yuan smiled.

"THEN DIE FOR ME!"

Elder Gu could no longer endure his anger and released his cultivation base at Yuan.

BOOM!

The entire underground collapsed from the attack, but neither Elder Gu nor his people were harmed, as they were protected by his spiritual energy.

Meanwhile, back at the sect, Elder Cang shook his head, "I have tried contacting Gu Zhiting many times, but he's not answering."

"Fuck!" Sect Master Xiahou cursed again.

It was at this moment everyone in the room suddenly sensed a ripple in the air that was caused by Elder Gu's powerful attack.

"Did anyone feel that just now?! Someone is fighting nearby!"

"Judging by the strength of the ripple, it was caused by a Spirit King! The only Spirit King beside us in this place is Elder Gu!" Sect Master Xiahou said.

"Let's go!"

Everybody there immediately rushed out of the building and followed the direction the ripple was coming from.

They arrived at the collapsed cave a few minutes later, and when they arrived, Elder Gu and the others were still at the scene, as they wanted to make sure that Yuan was dead before they left.

"Elder Gu! What is the meaning of this?!"

"S-Sect Master?! What are you doing here?!" Elder Gu had the same reaction as Elder Cang, but he was more nervous.

But before Sect Master Xiahou could even respond, another person showed up to the scene.

"Elder Brother?!"

"F-Father?!"

It was Patriarch Gu, and he had a terrified look on his face.

Chapter 927 - Grail of Truth

Chapter 927 - Grail of Truth

"Patriarch Gu? What is he doing here?" The other Sect Masters were surprised to see him as well.

However, Patriarch Gu ignored all of their gazes and focused on the collapsed cave with a terrified look on his face.

He then looked at Elder Gu and Disciple Gu.

"You... What have you two done?" He asked them in a low and dispirited voice.

"Elder Brother! I just took care of some bastard that had stolen our Gu Family's treasures! Believe it or not, he had our Grail of Truth and—"

"YOU FOOL!" Patriarch Gu roared.

"Did you not hear about what had happened to our family?! Did you really think that we'd encountered a calamity?!" Patriarch Gu pointed at the collapsed cave and continued, "The person you just buried was that calamity!"

"W-What? Are you saying that he was the one who crippled our family and killed our Spirit Lords? If that's the case, then I have avenged our family! He's dead!" Elder Gu laughed out loud.

"You really think you had killed him?" Sect Master Li suddenly spoke, and he continued, "Even six Sect Masters from the Seven Spirit Academies was not enough to defeat him."

"What?" Elder Gu and Disciple Gu looked at the Sect Master with wide eyes.

BOOM!

The ground suddenly shook, and before anyone there could react, almost as though a volcano had erupted, the collapsed cave suddenly exploded into the air.

A figure could be seen flying out of the rubble a moment later.

Of course, it was Yuan, and he was completely unharmed.

"Y-Y-You!" Elder Gu stared at Yuan with a shocked look on his face.

'How did he survive my attack?! I used all of my cultivation in that attack!' He cried inwardly.

"Hm?" Yuan quickly noticed that there were more people than before.

He glanced at them and smiled.

"Yuan! Are you okay?!" Wang Xiuying asked him while standing behind the Sect Masters on her flying treasure.

"Yes, I am fine. However, believe it or not, these guys just tried to kill me! I was so scared!" Yuan chuckled.

"Yuan! Listen to me!" Sect Master Xiahou suddenly spoke, "What happened between you and Elder Gu and Disciple Gu has nothing to do with my Spirit Healing Academy! I came back as soon as I heard about it! Please, forgive us!"

"In fact, I hereby strip them of their statuses and exile them from my sect! They no longer have anything to do with us!"

"What?! You can't do that to us, Sect Master!" Disciple Gu exclaimed in a shocked voice.

Yuan nodded, "Don't worry, I never planned on doing anything to your sect. After all, my friend is studying there. Furthermore, I am not so unreasonable that I would punish an entire sect because of two peoples' actions."

He then turned to look at the Disciplinary Squad and continued, "Since you guys were only following orders, I will also forgive you. Now get out of here before I change my mind."

The disciples following Elder Gu immediately turned around and started running back to the sect.

Once it was just Elder Gu and Disciple Gu, Yuan turned to look at them and mumbled out loud, "Now, what should I do with them?"

"Not only did you plot to kill me just because I am friends with Healer Wang, but you also planned on feeding her a Mind Invasion Pill to alter her memories. It wouldn't be unreasonable to kill the both of you, right?"

"What?! They wanted to feed me the Mind Invasion Pill?!" Wang Xiuying exclaimed in a terrified voice after hearing this information.

"You two... I'm speechless..." Even the other Sect Masters were baffled to hear such information.

"P-Please wait!" Patriarch Gu suddenly shouted.

And he continued, "I know they have wronged you, but please, can you spare their lives?! I—the Gu Family will compensate for this incident! We will give you anything you want! Gu Zhiting is my only son, and that foolish young brother of mine is the only brother I have! If you kill them, I will truly have nothing left!"

Yuan turned to face Patriarch Gu, who had a desperate expression on his face.

"You want me to forgive them after everything today? What do you think happened when I forgave Sun Hao? He immediately ignored my warning and spat on my kindness by going to your Gu Family."

"If I forgive them after everything they've done, they will definitely come back to bite me in the future, and I cannot risk doing that." Yuan said in a cold voice.

"I-It won't happen! I promise! I swear on my surname that they will not trouble you ever again in the future!"

Yuan turned to look at Elder Gu and Gu Zhiting, who were completely soaked in sweat.

"Tell me. If I forgive you, will you promise to never bother me or Healer Wang ever again?" He asked them in a calm voice.

"W-We promise! We will never bother you or Healer Wang ever again!" They both promised simultaneously.

"..."

Yuan silently stared at them with a pondering look.

After a moment of silence, he turned to look at Patriarch Gu and smiled.

Patriarch Gu subconsciously smiled back.

"What a pity." Yuan suddenly said as his expression turned cold.

"W-What?" The smile on Patriarch Gu's face immediately flipped upside down.

Yuan revealed a certain treasure to them.

"T-That's—!" Patriarch Gu's eyes widened with shock.

"That's right. It's the Grail of Truth. As long as I have this, you cannot lie to me." Yuan said.

[Grail of Truth]

[Grade: Divine]

[Quality: Peak]

[Description: A powerful treasure once owned by the Sacred Temple of Truth. The Grail of Truth will expose all liars and emit a golden glow when someone lies before its presence.]

The Grail of Truth before them was glowing, meaning that someone had lied just now, and the only people that had the chance to lie were Elder Gu and Gu Zhiting.

"W-Wait! Give us a chance to explain!" Elder Gu immediately shouted.

"I already gave you both plenty of chances, and unfortunately, you just used up your last chance." Yuan said in a nonchalant manner.

"H-Help me! Father, I don't want to die!" Gu Zhiting began crying with a runny nose.

"Please! You can even take away their cultivation! Just spare their lives!" Patriarch Gu pleaded.

However, Yuan pretended to not hear their voices and retrieved the Empyrean Overlord, his intentions clear.

The Sect Masters distanced themselves, as they did not want to be caught up in their mess.

Patriarch Gu wanted to stop Yuan, but he was afraid that by doing so, Yuan would take his anger out on him and his Gu Family afterward.

Therefore, he could only use his voice to beg for their lives.

Unfortunately, Yuan had no intentions to spare them.

"Here's a suggestion for your next life— stay out of trouble!" Yuan said to them as he swung the Empyrean Overlord, sending a powerful wave of Sword Aura at them.

Elder Gu and Gu Zhiting were so terrified by the pressure that they couldn't even defend themselves.

And right as the Sword Aura was about to hit them, a figure suddenly appeared before them like a ghost and blocked the attack.

Yuan raised an eyebrow after seeing this newcomer with a face that he didn't recognize.

Although Yuan didn't recognize this person, the Sect Masters and Patriarch Gu recognized him.

"Lord Ji?!" The Sect Masters exclaimed in a surprised manner.

However, Patriarch Gu appeared to be more relieved than surprised, almost as though he was expecting this person to appear.

This newcomer known as Lord Ji narrowed his eyes on his own arms after blocking Yuan's attack, feeling a little numb because of it.

"Who are you?" Yuan asked him in a calm voice.

"Hello, young man. I am known as Lord Ji, and I am the current Lord of this realm. My Ji Family oversees the Nine Heavens— At least up to the Fourth Heaven."

"Lord of Spirit Heaven?" Yuan mumbled.

He recalled such a thing being mentioned before— that every world besides the Lower Heavens will have a 'Lord' that oversees it.

"Because of my status, I don't normally intervene in conflicts that don't greatly affect the balance of the world."

"So me killing these two will somehow greatly affect the balance of this world?" Yuan asked.

"No, it won't."

"Then why are you here?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"Because a friend of mine asked for help." Lord Ji responded with a calm smile on his face.

Chapter 928 - Lord Ji

Chapter 928 - Lord Ji

"A friend, huh?" Yuan glanced at Patriarch Gu, who looked much better than before in terms of appearance, almost as though he'd been resurrected.

Lord Ji smiled and said, "There's no point in hiding the truth. Indeed, it was Patriarch Gu who asked me for help."

"And to tell you the truth, I have been watching you ever since you came out of the Stairway to Heaven, Yuan."

"Huh? You have been stalking me since I came to Spirit Heaven?" Yuan was surprised to learn this information, even a little creeped out by it.

Lord Ji laughed out loud, "No, I wouldn't call it stalking. I didn't physically watch you with my own eyes— I simply gathered information about you."

"You had piqued my interest, so I wanted to know more about you— to understand you. Unfortunately, I still cannot understand your existence even as we speak. Your background is a complete mystery, almost nonexistent, almost as though you'd suddenly popped into this world."

"Tell me, where did you come from?" Lord Ji narrowed his sharp eyes at Yuan.

Yuan remained calm and said, "Sorry, but I don't have the time to chit chat with you."

"Then when will you have time?"

"I will think about it after I kill those two behind you."

Lord Ji's eyes widened, and he proceeded to speak in a surprised voice, "You still have thoughts about killing them even though I am clearly trying to protect them? No one has ever dared to stand up to me like this— not even when I was little."

"Of course. They tried to kill me and harm my friend, and they clearly won't stop even if I forgive them today."

Lord Ji sighed, "Why don't you give me some face today and let them go, Yuan? I promise you that I will make it worthwhile. Nothing good will come out of going against my Ji Family. Let's just be friends with each other, okay?"

Yuan sneered at his words and spoke, "Unfortunately, I don't want to be friends with someone who is willing to protect these good-for-nothing that wouldn't think twice before plotting against others."

"I don't care if you're the Lord of this realm or if your family oversees the Nine Heavens. Nothing will stop me from killing these two today."

The friendly smile on Lord Ji's face disappeared after he heard Yuan's words, and it was replaced by a cold expression.

"You're going to challenge the Stairway to Heaven soon, right? I have no doubt that you will be able to pass the trials and reach the Third Heaven with your talents, but once you ascend, you will not be able to return without my Ji Family's permission."

"Once you are gone, who will protect your friends? Who will be able to stop me— or anyone from harming your friends?" Lord Ji narrowed his eyes at Yuan.

Although Yuan isn't aware of it, Lord Ji was only bluffing. As the Lord of Spirit Heaven, he cannot act against the residences of the world he governs without a proper reason, or he will be punished by the Heavens and have his authority stripped.

This means that even if he hates someone with all of his guts, he cannot harm that individual unless that person does something that violates the laws of this world and blatantly goes against the Heavens.

With that being said, that doesn't restrict Patriarch Gu and his family from harming Wang Xiuying and the others once Yuan leaves this world, so that is a possibility.

"So what you're saying is that I should remove the Ji Family and the Gu Family from this world before I ascend to the next world, right? As much as I hate killing, if it means my friends are safe..." Yuan suddenly released his cultivation base.

'What a terrifying aura! Even though he's only a Spirit Lord, he emits a pressure that surpasses even mine as a peak Spirit King!' Lord Ji was shocked inwardly by Yuan's talents.

Yuan's aura was so powerful that it choked Patriarch Gu, who was a Spirit King.

"Calm down, Yuan. I won't fight you. In fact, I cannot harm you until you attack me." Lord Ji raised his hand to surrender.

"If you really want to kill these two behind me, I won't stop you."

"What?! Lord Ji! You cannot abandon them after giving us hope! It's too cruel!" Patriarch Gu was shocked to hear such words.

"Please, Lord Ji! Save us!" Disciple Gu cried out loud.

Lord Ji looked at Patriarch Gu and said, "You know that I cannot physically intervene in your conflicts. I have already done everything that I could. I thought that words would be enough to stop this young man, but I was wrong. He's more crazy than I thought— crazy enough to threaten my Ji Family."

He then faced Yuan and continued, "I admire your attitude and boldness, Yuan. However, you have caused me to lose face before so many influential people today, and nobody that goes against me or my Ji Family has ever gotten away unpunished."

"It might not happen tomorrow or a month later, but mark my words, I will not forget this slap in my face, Yuan."

Despite showing no signs of anger, his voice was so cold that it caused everyone there but Yuan to tremble in fear.

"This is your last chance. Choose wisely." Lord Ji suddenly moved away from Elder Gu and Gu Zhiting, giving Yuan a clear path to them.

Yuan narrowed his eyes on Lord Ji, wondering if it was a trap. However, Lord Ji showed no signs of wanting to interfere.

"Please! Spare us! We were wrong! I swear that I won't harm you or your friends in the future!" Elder Gu pleaded.

"M-Me too! I swear that I—"

However, before Gu Zhiting could even finish his sentence, Yuan mercilessly swung his sword, killing the both of them with his Sword Aura almost instantly.

"BROTHER! SON! NO!!!" Patriarch Gu roared in despair.

Lord Ji took a deep breath after witnessing Elder Gu and Gu Zhiting's death, and he turned to look at Yuan with a vicious face, who was looking at the Grail of Truth, which was emitting a golden glow.

"I would have spared them if this treasure didn't have a reaction. Unfortunately..." Yuan sighed in a low voice.

Chapter 929 - Heavens' Judgment

Chapter 929 - Heavens' Judgment

"This crazy bastard..." Lord Ji mumbled in a low voice as he watched Elder Gu and Gu Zhiting's severed corpses fall to the ground from the sky.

'Is this what it feels like to be opposed? How interesting...' He smiled inwardly.

"He really killed them..." Wang Xiuying was left speechless by Yuan's actions. She didn't think he would actually kill them.

Sometime later, Yuan turned to look at Patriarch Gu and spoke in a calm voice, "Are you going to avenge them now? Will you also plot to harm my friends once I am gone?"

"..."

However, Patriarch Gu remained silent.

The Grail of Truth had a single weakness. If someone doesn't speak, it would not be able to detect any lies. However, by avoiding the Grail of Truth, they might as well be a liar. After all, there would be no point to avoid the Grail of Truth if one planned on speaking the truth.

"If you don't answer my question, I will kill you as well." Yuan narrowed his eyes at Patriarch Gu, who trembled upon feeling such gaze.

After a moment of silence, he spoke in a low voice, "Kill me if you want. I don't care anymore."

He then turned to look at Lord Ji and clasped his hands before continuing, "Thank you for responding to my request for help. Even if you were not able to save their lives, I am still grateful that you came, and I am indebted to you."

Lord Ji silently nodded.

Patriarch Gu turned to look at Yuan again for a moment before turning around and flying away.

Yuan narrowed his eyes at Patriarch Gu, but he didn't chase after him.

"Young Master, are you sure you want to let him go? My experience tells me that he will definitely try to avenge his son and brother in the future." Feng Yuxiang said to him.

"I know." Yuan said.

"Then why?"

"His eyes lacked any will to live, and it reminds me of someone. I cannot kill him even if I want to— my body doesn't allow it." He sighed.

The current Patriarch Gu reminded Yuan of himself during his early years as a cripple. He had no reason to live, and he couldn't care less if he lived or died. This made him hesitant on killing Patriarch Gu.

"However, that doesn't mean I will allow him to harm my friends. They all believe that I won't be able to return to this place once I ascend, but that is not even close to being true. If he dares to try anything funny, I will come back down here and finish them off."

"What about this Lord Ji? His Ji Family is incredibly powerful— even more powerful than the Seven Legacy Families. They will definitely try to suppress you, but I highly discourage you from fighting them. Although you might be able to defeat them now, you won't be able to deal with the Ji Family in the upper heavens." Feng Yuxiang asked.

"I don't know. This Lord Ji is a weird one. I do not understand him at all."
Yuan shook his head inwardly.

And he continued, "I guess we can only wait and see how everything goes."

Once Patriarch Gu left the scene completely, Lord Ji spoke in a calm voice, "You're really one crazy bastard, Yuan. Nobody has ever opposed me this openly. I'm both impressed and filled with rage right now."

"What do you think I should do with you, hmm?"

Yuan smiled and responded in a calm voice, "You can forget about this incident. This is the best for both of us. Furthermore, you're not even supposed to be here in the first place."

Lord Ji shook his head and spoke, "Unfortunately, that is no longer possible. You have opposed me, causing me to lose a lot of face today. Personally, I am not one who cares too much about face, but the Heavens watching us might think differently."

"If I don't punish you for opposing me, the Heavens that have witnessed everything might deem me unworthy of the position of Lord and strip my status, and that is something I cannot allow even if it costs me my life."

"The Heavens?" Yuan raised his eyebrows and lifted his head to look up.

"They're watching us now?"

Lord Ji smiled, "The Heavens are always watching us— all of us."

'Is that any different from the saying that God is always watching us?' Yuan wondered to himself.

"So what are you going to do now? Are you going to fight me and reclaim your face?" Yuan asked a moment later.

"No, I won't fight you. Violence isn't always the answer, and the Ji Family has their own methods to deal with you."

"However, let's see what the Heavens have to say about this."

Lord Ji suddenly retrieved a clear double terminated crystal and raised it above him.

"Judgment!" He shouted a moment later.

A sea of white clouds began gathering above their location, but the clouds started turning darker in color as time passed.

Within moments, the once white clouds were pitch black.

BANG!

A single lightning strike suddenly descended from the black clouds and struck the crystal in Lord Ji's grasp.

The clear crystal began changing colors shortly after, and within moments, it became just like the clouds— pitch black.

"T-This is..." Lord Ji appeared to be shocked and terrified at the same time when he saw the results.

He stared at the black crystal with wide eyes as the clouds began to disperse.

'Feng Feng, I have a bad feeling about this. Do you know what he's doing?' Yuan asked her.

"The Lords have the ability to call upon the Heavens for judgment of certain individuals. This is my first time witnessing it personally, but I have heard rumors. If the crystal turns golden, it means the Heavens are willing to forgive that person. The crystal can also turn red, but that means punishment for the person it judged."

"However, I have never heard of a pitch black crystal before." Feng Yuxiang said in a puzzled voice.

"Is that so..." Yuan mumbled, and they all patiently waited for Lord Ji to announce the results of his judgment.

Chapter 930 - Tier 4 Body Tempering Pill

Chapter 930 - Tier 4 Body Tempering Pill

Many moments passed since Lord Ji's crystal turned pitch black, but he hasn't uttered a single word since then.

Yuan could no longer wait and asked him, "Hey, what's the Heavens' judgment? Judging by the ominous color, it can't be anything good, right?"

Lord Ji finally snapped out of his daze and turned to face Yuan with a profound frown on his face.

And without explaining anything, he turned around and flew away.

"What the heck? He's running away?" Yuan was dumbfounded by the Lord's action.

"Hey! Where are you going?! Come back here and explain the situation!"

He thought about chasing after Lord Ji, but he decided to let him go for now.

"What was that all about?" Wang Xiuying approached him afterward and asked.

"I have no idea." Yuan shrugged.

"Anyways, are you hurt?" He asked her.

"I should be asking you that question."

"I'm fine." Yuan smiled.

"I apologize... If I didn't leave the sect, none of this would've happened." Sect Master Xiahou apologized to him again.

"Don't kick yourself. It's not your fault." Yuan shook his head,

"By the way, what are you guys doing here?" Yuan turned to look at the other Sect Masters.

"We were in a meeting when you interrupted us... again." Sect Master Li said.

"After hearing about the situation from Sect Master Xiahou, we decided to tag along just in case." Bai Enjue said.

"Just in case what? That I decided to destroy this place? Do I look like a villain to you? I am a reasonable person. I won't harm innocent people." Yuan laughed out loud.

"Anyways, let's go back. I want to soak in some hot water after all that. Luckily, I have a cauldron and some pills that I want to test out."

While Yuan and Wang Xiuying returned to the sect, Sect Master Xiahou called for disciples to clean up the mess caused by the incident.

Elder Gu and Gu Zhiting's corpses were gathered, stitched up, and sent back to the Gu Family.

As for the collapsed cave, the Sect Master decided to completely demolish it.

The other Sect Masters returned to their own sect shortly after.

"My god, Yuan. It hasn't even been a full day since you arrived and you've already caused so much chaos." Wang Xiuying said to him after they returned to her living quarters.

"You're blaming me? I am the victim here!" He exclaimed.

"I know, it's just a joke. By the way, are you really going to temper yourself with the Tier 4 and Tier 5 Body Tempering Pills? I really think you should hold off on them for now."

Yuan smiled, "Have some faith in me."

"Anyways, how do I use this thing?" He showed her the cauldron he just got.

"You need to form a connection with it first. Drop some of your blood on it and establish a connection with your spiritual sense. After that, you will be able to change its size with a thought."

Yuan nodded and dropped some of his blood onto the cauldron.

After he injected some of his spiritual energy into the cauldron, he could immediately feel a connection to it, almost like his connections with his servants.

Once the connection was strong enough, Yuan could change the cauldron's size with a mere thought, and it felt extremely natural, almost as though he'd been doing it for years.

"Wow, this is big enough to fit four people!" Yuan was pleasantly surprised by the cauldron's maximum size.

"Now you fill the cauldron up with water and heat it up using a flame technique. If you don't have any fire-making techniques, I can help you." Wang Xiuying said.

"Actually, I might have one. However, I have never used it."

Yuan proceeded to activate a technique that he'd learned early on but never got the chance to use—

[Heavenly Fire Control]

A ball of flame appeared on Yuan's palms.

"What do you think? It's a Mortal-rank technique meant for cooking." Yuan said with a smile on his face.

Wang Xiuying rubbed her temples and sighed, "You won't be able to warm the cauldron with such a pitifully weak fire, much less warm the water..."

"I-Is that so...Well, its description does say 'regular' fire." Yuan shrugged.

"Don't worry, I will help you heat up the—"

However, before Wang Xiuying could even finish her sentence, Feng Yuxiang appeared beside Yuan and used her phoenix fire to heat up the cauldron almost instantly.

"Y-You are..." Wang Xiuying stared at Feng Yuxiang's pretty face for a moment before turning to admire her beautiful golden flames.

"Wow... What pretty and powerful flames. This must be named Alchemy Flame!"

"Huh? Alchemy Flame? How dare you compare my Phoenix fire to Alchemy Flames! My flames are much more special than any Alchemy Flame out there!" Feng Yuxiang said in a bragging tone.

"Huh? Phoenix fire? I have never heard of such a thing before," said Wang Xiuying in a dazed voice.

"I'm not surprised." Feng Yuxiang sneered.

Yuan smiled and said, "Feng Feng is a Divine Beast— a Phoenix."

"Wow, a phoenix? First dragons, now a phoenix? I always meet these mythical beings whenever I am with you, Yuan." Wang Xiuying smiled.

Sometime later, Yuan tossed the Tier 4 Body Tempering Pill into the boiling hot water and watched it disappear almost instantly, turning the clear water into a murky green color.

Yuan waited for a few more moments just to be safe before removing his clothes and entering the cauldron.

"I-I should wait outside..." Wang Xiuying said with a flushed face after seeing Yuan's naked body.

"You can stay. I don't mind." Yuan said to her as he sat down.

After taking a deep breath, he started absorbing the medicine, officially starting his body tempering.

Yuan immediately gritted his teeth when he sensed pain, but it wasn't unbearable.

In fact, it was nowhere near as painful as his first experience and when he tempered his body with Chu Liuxiang with the dragon scales.

"How do you feel, Yuan? You don't have to force yourself..." Wang Xiuying said to him in a nervous voice.

"I'm fine. This much pain is very bearable," he calmly said.

"No way..." She mumbled with a dumbfounded look on her face.

Chapter 931 - Becoming an Alchemist

Chapter 931 - Becoming an Alchemist

"Since you're able to endure the pain and nothing seems to be wrong, I will leave you alone and go concoct some pills. How long will you be staying there? A single pill can last you a week even if you are soaked in it the entire time." Wang Xiuying asked him.

"I'll temper my body for a few hours. It would be a waste of money if I leave so quickly," he said.

"Okay. Have fun." Wang Xiuying went to her room to concoct pills.

Three hours later, Yuan opened his eyes and looked at the clear water with raised eyebrows,

"I thought she said that it'd last a week. It's only been three hours since I started and the medicine is already all gone." Yuan mumbled in a low voice.

"Young Master, did you already forget? You have a special body and incredible talents. It's only natural that you'd absorb the medicine much quicker than others." Feng Yuxiang said.

"I'm well aware of that, but when it takes only a few short hours to absorb a week's worth of medicine... At this rate, I will need to buy a lot of Body Tempering Pills. I don't even dare to imagine how much money it will cost me if I want to temper my body for 1 month." Yuan sighed.

"The most efficient way to save money on pills is to concoct them yourself. Although the ingredients are costly as well, you can easily make a profit with a single decent pill. If you concoct two pills and sell one of them you'll gain enough money to buy ingredients to concoct another two or three pills, even more if the pill is of high quality." Feng Yuxiang said.

Yuan sighed, "So you're telling me to become an Alchemist and concoct the pills myself? I wanted to be an Alchemist at one point, but after learning the process, I gave up on that thought."

"No offense to Xiuying and all of the Alchemists out there, but I just find it way too boring. Honestly, if I wasn't able to consume monster cores and raise my cultivation that way, I would've hated cultivation."

Feng Yuxiang began pondering after hearing Yuan's words.

"I have a suggestion," she said a moment later, and she continued, "If the Young Master refuses to do Alchemy, why don't I concoct pills for you?"

"Huh?" Yuan looked at her with wide eyes.

"You want to concoct pills for me? Do you know how to concoct pills?"

She shook her head, "No, I have never concocted a pill before, nor do I have any experience in Alchemy."

"Then how are you going to concoct pills? I can't ask you to learn Alchemy just to help me save money. That's too much." Yuan rejected her idea.

Feng Yuxiang then said, "Actually, even if I don't have any experience, I am very confident in my abilities to concoct pills. After all, a large part of Alchemy is basically how well one can control their flames."

"I may be a young phoenix, but I am very confident in my mastery over my own flames. Furthermore, my phoenix flame can rival even the best Alchemy Flames out there. I meet pretty much every necessary requisite for an Alchemist— a powerful fire, perfect control over that fire, and I also have extensive knowledge on medicine and herbs because of my previous occupation. If you ask me, I am essentially an Alchemist already."

Yuan stared at her with a look of disbelief, and he mumbled in a low voice, "If you put it that way..."

"Now I just need to successfully concoct a pill. Once that is done, I can call myself an Alchemist and start concocting pills for you! I will be right back, Young Master! You can go ahead and try out the Tier 5 Body Tempering Pill."

"Where are you going?" He asked out of curiosity.

"I'm going to borrow your friend's cauldron and try to concoct a pill!"

After saying that, Feng Yuxiang left the room and went to find Wang Xiuying, who was practicing Tier 4 pills in her own room.

"71 percent purity... Haaaa... It'll probably take me another month before I can concoct Tier 4 pills with over 90 percent purity..." Wang Xiuying sighed.

Despite already having the ability to concoct Tier 4 pills without failing 10 out of 10 times, she won't consider it a success until she can concoct a Tier 4 pill with over 90 percent purity.

In fact, she refuses to touch Tier 5 pills until she can 'successfully' concoct a Tier 4 pill. This stubbornness has caused her Master plenty of headaches.

"Alright! Let's try again!"

However, Feng Yuxiang knocked on her door right as she stood up to gather more ingredients.

"Hm? Did something happen to Yuan?" Wang Xiuying asked after seeing Feng Yuxiang standing outside her room.

"No, I came here because I have a request. Can you concoct a Body Tempering Pill for me? I also want to watch you make it."

"I don't mind, but can I ask why? Yuan is already using Tier 4 Body Tempering Pills while I can only concoct Tier 3 Body Tempering Pills."

"I want to see if I can concoct a pill." Feng Yuxiang said.

"Eh?" Wang Xiuying raised her eyebrows in a questioning manner.

"Are you an Alchemist as well? I mean, you do have a very powerful fire..."

"No, I am not... yet."

"I-Is that so... I guess I can concoct a Tier 3 Body Tempering Pill for you." Wang Xiuying accepted her request.

"Thank you."

While Wang Xiuying gathered the ingredients, Feng Yuxiang took a seat in front of the cauldron right beside where Wang Xiuying will be seated.

Once Wang Xiuying was seated and began concocting the pill, Feng Yuxiang paid close attention to her Alchemy Flame.

From the temperature of Wang Xiuying's Alchemy Flame to the way she adjusted its intensity— Feng Yuxiang memorized all of it with a single glance.

Chapter 932 - Feng Yuxiang's Alchemy

Chapter 932 - Feng Yuxiang's Alchemy

While Feng Yuxiang went to watch Wang Xiuying concoct pills, Yuan tested out the Tier 5 Body Tempering Pill.

"Shit! This is painful!" He exclaimed in a shocked voice after trying to absorb the medicine.

"I didn't think the difference between Tier 4 and Tier 5 would be this vast. This pain is comparable to my first experience."

However, despite the pain, Yuan felt relieved. After all, if the Tier 5 Body Tempering Pills were not strong enough, he would need to use Tier 6 Body Tempering Pills, and who knows how much a single one of those would cost.

An hour later, Wang Xiuying retrieved the Tier 3 Body Tempering Pill that she'd just concocted from the cauldron.

"How was that?" She asked.

"I have memorized everything. Thank you. Now I would like to try." Feng Yuxiang said.

"You want to try? You know... I don't want to sound arrogant, but if concocting pills were this easy, everyone would be an Alchemist."

"Maybe not human cultivators. However, in case you forgot, I am not human. I am a phoenix with fire mastery that most humans cannot even begin to comprehend."

Feng Yuxiang stood up and asked, "Can I use your medicines for my pill?"

"Sure... Use as many as you want." Wang Xiuying nodded.

After gathering enough ingredients to concoct three Tier 3 Body Tempering Pills, Feng Yuxiang returned to the cauldron.

"If I cannot successfully concoct a pill with three attempts, I will admit defeat and learn Alchemy from the beginning."

Feng Yuxiang proceeded to summon her phoenix fire around the cauldron, and Wang Xiuying stared with wide eyes.

'Her control over the flames is immaculate... She's even better than my Master...' Wang Xiuying was shocked inwardly by Feng Yuxiang's performance even though she hadn't even begun putting the ingredients inside.

Sometime later, Feng Yuxiang tossed the first ingredient into the cauldron and adjusted the strength of her flames so that it wouldn't burn the ingredient.

'My god, she melted the ingredient almost instantly and even destroyed all of the impurities at the same time. I have never seen anything like this before...' Wang Xiuying exclaimed inwardly as she watched Feng Yuxiang toss ingredients into the cauldron every five seconds.

The speed of Feng Yuxiang's Alchemy was truly shocking for someone like Wang Xiuying, as it was many times faster than even her Master, who was the best Alchemist in the Spirit Heaven.

Feng Yuxiang melted all of the ingredients needed to concoct the pill within minutes, and after another minute, she finished concocting the Tier 3 Body Tempering Pill.

"Looks pretty good to me. What do you think?" Feng Yuxiang handed the pill to Wang Xiuying after glancing at it.

[Body Tempering Pill] [Tier: 3] [Purity: 99%]

[Effects: Used for body tempering. Toss in water and wait until the pill completely dissolves. Only recommended for Spirit Grandmasters and above.]

"Unbelievable... You really concocted a Tier 3 Body Tempering Pill on your first try... And it even has a 99 percent purity! Please tell me you were only joking with me when you said that you had no experience with Alchemy!" Wang Xiuying looked at Feng Yuxiang with teary eyes.

"This is really my first time doing Alchemy." Feng Yuxiang calmly shrugged.

And to Feng Yuxiang's surprise, Wang Xiuying suddenly began crying, "If Yuan has someone as talented as you by his side, there's no longer any reason for someone like me to exist! All of my efforts would be in vain! And Alchemy is the only thing that I am good with in this world! Why am I so unlucky?! I only wanted to be helpful to him!"

Feng Yuxiang was completely baffled by Wang Xiuying's sudden outburst. She didn't think that she would upset Wang Xiuying this much by concocting a single pill.

"I'm sorry, but I don't really understand..." Feng Yuxiang said a few moments later.

Wang Xiuying wiped her tears and said, "Yuan is a very talented person, some may even say that he's too talented. He's also someone that I idolize very much, so I want to help him in any way that I can. However, since he's very talented, there are very few things that I can help him with."

"The field of medicine is one of these very few things that Yuan has zero experience and interest in, so I came to this place to study Alchemy. I wanted to help Yuan with the pills that I'd concocted. However, now that you're in the picture, I will no longer need to concoct any pills for him since you'll definitely do much better than me. Do you understand my frustration now?"

Feng Yuxianbg nodded in a dazed manner.

"Believe it or not, I actually understand your feelings very well. I also want to help him, but besides offering him treasures and some of my knowledge, there's really not much that I can do to assist him, and he will eventually acquire more treasures and knowledge than me."

"However, he just told me that he's reluctant to learn Alchemy since he finds it very boring, and that's when I got the idea of becoming an Alchemist. This way, I will be able to stand by his side and not feel useless even in the future when he's standing at the peak of this world."

"I see... If that's the case, then I don't mind giving up on Alchemy. As a nurse, I only want what's best for my patients, and you're clearly the best out there— at least way better than me." Wang Xiuying sighed.

"What? You're going to give up Alchemy because of this? That's nonsense!" Feng Yuxiang said.

"I mean... I only started Alchemy so that I could help him... Is there a point for me to continue if I cannot help him?"

"Of course! Don't you enjoy concocting pills? You even said it yourself that you do! I will take care of the Young Master in your place, so you should start concocting pills for yourself." Feng Yuxiang said,

And she continued, "Furthermore, the Young Master will be leaving this world soon. Unless you plan on ascending with him, you won't be able to help him with your Alchemy."

"What?! Yuan is leaving this world already?! He just got here!" Wang Xiuying exclaimed after learning this information for the first time.

Chapter 933 - Violet Qilin's Fire

Chapter 933 - Violet Qilin's Fire

"W-When is he leaving?!" Wang Xiuying asked afterward.

"Soon. Probably after he finishes visiting this place." Feng Yuxiang said.

"What?! That's less than a week!"

"Yes... That's why I don't recommend you quit being an Alchemist. Unless you ascend with him, you won't be able to help him. After all, it's not like he can come down here every time he needs some pills from you."

"Furthermore, you're very talented in Alchemy. It would be a waste of talent if you stop now."

Wang Xiuying sighed, "I guess so..."

"You know, as a phoenix, I was born with the talent to control flames, and I have over 100,000 years of experience. You, on the other hand, are a human with less than 20 years of experience. If you continue being an Alchemist, I have no doubt you'll eventually surpass me in the future."

Wang Xiuying nodded with a serious expression on her face, "Then I will continue to practice Alchemy with a new goal in mind— to surpass you and stand by Yuan's side as his number one Alchemist in the future."

Feng Yuxiang smiled and said, "And I will start studying Alchemy seriously so that I can continue being his Alchemist. I won't go easy on you."

"I would never ask you to go easy on me, or that would make this entire thing meaningless. After all, we both want the best for Yuan."

Feng Yuxiang nodded, "Now then, if I want to study Alchemy, I will need some manuals. Does the Alchemy Store sell them?"

"Yes, they do, but they will only sell them to disciples of the sect. If you want some manuals, you can take mine. I no longer have any use for them since I've already memorized everything." Wang Xiuying retrieved over 20 manuals and scrolls on Alchemy and medicine, placing them before Feng Yuxiang.

Feng Yuxiang smiled and said, "In exchange for your manuals, I will give you some treasures. What do you want? Weapons? Rare ingredients?"

"It's okay, I don't need any payment. These manuals aren't that expensive, either. They cost less than 1,000 gold coins together."

"I don't like owing debt to anyone. Even if they're worth one gold coin, I will pay for it." Feng Yuxiang shook her head.

She started searching inside her spatial ring the very next moment.

A few moments later, Feng Yuxiang retrieved a pill-sized clear marble that contained purple flames.

"I will give you this for the manuals." Feng Yuxiang handed this fiery marble to Wang Xiuying.

"What's this?" Wang Xiuying asked as she accepted the marble.

"This marble contains fire from a Violet Qilin, a powerful and rare magical beast known for their natural fire mastery. If you consume this treasure, you will gain the magical beast's talent, which will greatly boost your control of most flames out there, including Alchemy Flames."

"Wow... Are you sure you want to give me this treasure? It looks and sounds very expensive. How much would a treasure like this cost?" Wang Xiuying asked out of curiosity.

"Somewhere between 50 to 60 million spirit stones, I guess."

"F-Fifty million spirit stones?!" Wang Xiuying exclaimed in a shocked voice.

"This treasure is way too valuable! My manuals are only worth 1,000 gold coins at most!"

Feng Yuxiang shrugged and said, "Consider this as an investment."

"An investment? For what?" Wang Xiuying raised her eyebrows in a questioning manner.

Feng Yuxiang smiled and said, "While I don't like owing debts, I love it when people owe me."

"In the future, if I need something from you, just remember this debt you owe me. That's all."

"That sounds very suspicious. Like a loan shark. You won't ask me to do something ridiculous, right?" Wang Xiuying said in a doubtful voice.

"Who knows."

Wang Xiuying swallowed nervously. However, despite such a suspicious deal, she could not refuse the Violet Qilin's fire.

'Since she is Yuan's friend, I can trust her... probably. And this treasure is just too good. I will definitely regret it for a very long time if I don't accept it.'

After pondering for a moment, Wang Xiuying gave up and said, "Fine, I owe you."

"Anyways, how do I use this treasure? Do I just swallow it?"

Feng Yuxiang nodded, "Yes, swallow the entire thing. If you break the marble, the fire will explode and kill you."

"T-That's incredibly dangerous! What if it explodes after I swallow it?!"

"Don't worry, the marble won't break that easily, and once it's in your stomach, it will slowly release the Violet Qilin's fire, but you will see results immediately. Also, your stomach will feel like it's on fire for the next few days, but it won't hurt you. Once you absorb all of the Violet Qilin's fire, your control with fire will significantly improve, almost as though you'd suddenly gained 1,000 years of experience."

"I understand. Thank you for the explanation and for this treasure." Wang Xiuying gently placed the marble in her mouth and swallowed it.

She could immediately feel her stomach's temperature increasing, and it was actually quite comfortable.

A few moments later, Wang Xiuying could no longer resist her curiosity and started playing around with her Alchemy Flame, and to her absolute shock, she could immediately see improvements just like Feng Yuxiang said.

"This is amazing! I can't believe how much I have improved already!" Wang Xiuying was jumping in joy as she danced around the room with her Alchemy Flames.

"If you're already this impressed, just wait until you finish absorbing the treasure." Feng Yuxiang said.

And she continued, "Of course, you will need way more than this treasure to beat me."

"Thank you! I will definitely repay this debt!" Wang Xiuying suddenly approached Feng Yuxiang and embraced her tightly.

"H-Hey! Who said you can hug me?! Only the Young Master is allowed to be intimate with my body!" Feng Yuxiang quickly pushed her away.

Wang Xiuying didn't mind being pushed away and even laughed.

"What a weird girl..." Feng Yuxiang shook her head inwardly.

Chapter 934 - Drastic Improvements

Chapter 934 - Drastic Improvements

Once she calmed down, Wang Xiuying tried to concoct pills to see the results of the treasure.

"I-I did it! Tier 4 pill with 90 percent purity! And I thought I would need another month before I can reach this point!" Wang Xiuying kissed the pill in her hands with teary eyes.

"..." Feng Yuxiang watched with a pondering look on her face.

'Her improvements are insane even considering that she'd consumed Violet Qilin's fire. She's simply improving too fast. Maybe she has a unique physique that's causing this?'

It's only been an hour since Wang Xiuying consumed the treasure, but she's already able to improve her Tier 4 pills from 70 percent to 90 percent purity. This kind of improvement would normally need a day, but she was able to achieve such results in only an hour.

"Hey, what kind of Physique do you have?" Feng Yuxiang decided to ask her.

"Me? I have a Physique called Pure Flame Physique."

"Pure Flame Physique, huh? That explains your tremendous improvements." Feng Yuxiang mumbled.

"Do you know what my physique is? Even my Master doesn't know about it." Wang Xiuying said.

Feng Yuxiang nodded and said, "The Pure Flame Physique allows you to consume many different types of flames to improve your own cultivation, and the flames you absorb will also have strengthened results, meaning you acquire more benefits than what's normally gained."

"I must say, it's one of the best physiques out there for Alchemists. You got really lucky."

"I see... Wait, what kind of fire can I consume, specifically?" Wang Xiuying then asked.

"You can consume most flames out there, including Alchemy Flames."

"Eh? Won't that be a waste? Consuming Alchemy Flames."

"No, it won't be wasted, since you'll be able to use all the flames you consume."

"Really?! Does that mean I can also use the Violet Qilin's purple flames?!" Wang Xiuying asked in an excited voice.

"Let's not get ahead of ourselves. You'll still need enough cultivation to use the flames. If you want to use the Violet Qilin's purple flames, you will need to be at least a Spirit Emperor."

"S-Spirit Emperor? How high is that?"

"Above Spirit King."

"Spirit King?! That's my Master's cultivation! It will take years for me to reach that kind of level, not even mentioning Spirit Emperor!" Wang Xiuying exclaimed.

"There's nothing I can do about that. The Violet Qilin is a powerful magical beast found in the Fourth Heaven and above, so it's only natural that you need a high cultivation base to use it."

Wang Xiuying sighed, "Guess I will have to give up on this matter for now..."

Sometime later, Wang Xiuying continued to concoct Tier 4 pills until she could concoct above 90 percent purity 10 out of 10 times.

When the sky started turning dark, Yuan finished his body tempering and went to meet with the other two.

"How did it go, Feng Feng? Were you able to concoct a pill?" Yuan asked her.

"Take a look at this!" Feng Yuxiang showed him the Tier 3 Body Tempering Pill that she'd concocted.

"Wow, you actually did it? That's amazing. Sorry I doubted you."

"Don't worry about it. Now we will be able to save a lot of money on pills, and you will essentially have an endless source of Body Tempering Pills!"

Yuan nodded, "How long do you think it will take you to be able to concoct Tier 5 Body Tempering Pills?"

"I can't say right now, but it shouldn't take too long, considering how easy I was able to concoct a Tier 3 pill."

"Alright, I will leave it to you."

"Anyways, I will see you tomorrow, Xiuying. Our tour was cut short today, but we can resume it tomorrow." Yuan said to her.

"Sure thing."

"Young Master, can I borrow your cauldron for now? I want to start practicing Alchemy immediately." Feng Yuxiang suddenly asked him.

"Of course. I left it in the other room."

"Thank you."

Yuan logged off the game shortly after. Wang Xiuying continued to concoct pills for another hour before leaving too. As for Feng Yuxiang, she would spend the rest of the night practicing her Alchemy.

The following day, when Yuan returned to Cultivation Online, Feng Yuxiang greeted him with a wide smile on her face.

"What's up, Feng Feng? Did something good happen?" He asked her.

"Look at this!"

Feng Yuxiang showed him the pill in her hands.

[Body Tempering Pill] [Tier: 4] [Purity: 94%]

[Effects: Used for body tempering. Toss in water and wait until the pill completely dissolves. Only recommended for Spirit Grandmasters and above.]

[Description: Concocted by Feng Yuxiang]

"Tier 4 Body Tempering Pill? You can already concoct Tier 4 pills?" Yuan was surprised by her ridiculous improvement speed.

At this rate, she will be able to concoct Tier 5 pills by tomorrow!

"I wanted to try concocting a Tier 5 Body Tempering Pill, but even your friend doesn't have the recipe for it."

"I see... Let's try asking Sect Master Xiahou for it later."

"Okay."

Wang Xiuying logged on about an hour later.

"I wanted to watch the competition with you today, but because of what happened yesterday, it was canceled. Disciple Gu was a competitor, after all."

"Then let's do something else." Yuan said.

She nodded, "We can continue where we left off yesterday."

"Sure."

They made their way to the Alchemy Store shortly after.

Once they arrived, Wang Xiuying started showing Yuan around the rest of the sect.

"This is where lectures are given. Elders will show up once a week and concoct pills before the disciples."

"This is the study hall, where we memorize all sorts of medicine out there with our eyes and nose."

"This is where disciples with no money can go to practice their Alchemy. Outer Court disciples have access to the normal cauldrons while Inner Court disciples have access to enhanced cauldrons."

After showing Yuan almost everything there is to see, Wang Xiuying asked him, "What do you want to do now?"

"Hmmm... Do you think we can see your Master now? I want to see if we can buy the recipe for the Tier 5 Body Tempering Pill."

"Then let's go to her headquarters and see if she's there."

"Okay." Yuan nodded.

Chapter 935 - Number One Servant

Chapter 935 - Number One Servant

Upon Yuan's request, Wang Xiuying brought him to the Sect Master's headquarters.

"Master, are you inside?" Wang Xiuying knocked on her door.

As Sect Master Xiahou's disciple, Wang Xiuying had access to the building, so she could enter and leave as she pleased, something even a lot of Sect Elders couldn't do.

"Yes, I am here." Sect Master Xiahou's voice quickly resounded.

After all, she couldn't risk accidentally offending Yuan again, so she decided to stay in the sect until he leaves.

"Yuan would like to speak with you."

"Y-Yuan?! C-Come inside!"

The nervousness within Sect Master Xiahou's voice was apparent, causing Wang Xiuying to show a bittersweet smile as she opened the door and entered the room with Yuan.

"Hello, Sect Master." Yuan greeted her with a gentle smile.

"W-What do you want?"

However, in Sect Master Xiahou's eyes, his smile was very terrifying. After all, Yuan had the audacity to go against the Ji Family that ruled almost half of the Nine Heavens.

"I'd like to purchase the Tier 5 Body Tempering Pill from your sect." Yuan did not beat around the bush and said.

"Why do you need something like that? Do you plan on concocting them yourself?" Sect Master Xiahou asked with a pondering look on her face.

"No, not me. My friend will be the one doing Alchemy. Feng Feng."

The red-haired beauty Feng Yuxiang appeared in the room beside Yuan the next moment.

"My name is Feng Yuxiang. I am the Young Master's most loyal and number one servant." Feng Yuxiang introduced herself.

However, before Sect Master Xiahou could even respond, another figure appeared in the room— a petite figure with a cute face.

"Xiao Hua will not let such comments slide, you sly bird! Xiao Hua came first, so she is Brother Yuan's number one servant."

Feng Yuxiang rubbed her nose in a cheeky manner and said, "Oh yeah? While you may have been his first servant, I am definitely in the lead when it comes to helping him! And very soon, I will help the Young Master even more with my Alchemy!"

Xiao Hua gritted her teeth in frustration, but she was unable to refute Feng Yuxiang's words. It was true that Feng Yuxiang has been very helpful to Yuan as of late. Not only has she helped him save and earn a lot of money, but she even has what seems like an endless supply of valuable treasures for him. Now that she'll also be concocting pills for Yuan, Feng Yuxiang's status as his servant has risen to a new level!

At glance, Feng Yuxiang is definitely in the lead out of the three of them!

"X-Xiao Hua can also be useful to Brother Yuan!" Xiao Hua said, and she started taking out powerful weapons and artifacts that emitted the aura of Divine-grade and even Ancient-grade treasures.

Everyone in the room felt their jaw drop to the ground after seeing the amount of treasures in Xiao Hua's grasp.

"Here, Brother Yuan! Take these!" She offered them to him with a stubborn face.

Yuan could only shake his head with a smile, "Don't be silly. I never cared about who is more useful to me, nor will I ever rank you guys based on your usefulness. In my eyes, you're all my precious companions."

However, despite Yuan's words, Xiao Hua did not feel content. Because of her rivalry with Feng Yuxiang, she couldn't help but feel like she was losing — that she was inferior.

"Feng Feng, you should also stop thinking like that. It's an unhealthy mindset to have." Yuan scolded her next.

"S-Sorry..." She sighed with her head lowered.

They returned to his body shortly after.

Yuan sighed, and he spoke, "Anyways, I would like to purchase the Tier 5 Body Tempering Pill recipe from you. I know that recipes are very rare and extremely valuable, so I am going to offer you these..."

He retrieved a small wooden box and placed it before Sect Master Xiahou.

"T-This is... Is this what I think it is...?" Sect Master Xiahou asked in a trembling voice.

She had an idea of its contents even without looking inside, as she'd seen the wooden box before.

"Yes, it's leaves from the Golden Celestial Tree, and there are 9 crimson leaves inside the box. Oh, and before I forget, the Golden Celestial Tree itself is a few million years old."

"What?! Leaves from a Golden Celestial Tree that is over a million years old?! How is that even possible?!" Sect Master Xiahou exclaimed.

"You can examine the leaves yourself if you do not believe me."

Sect Master Xiahou swallowed nervously.

"No, I trust you. I want to open it, but I don't dare to expose the leaves to any more impurities, so I will leave them inside the box."

'Nine blades of crimson leaves... I will be able to concoct three Golden Aptitude Pills! Even if I consume one for myself and give one to Xiuying, I will still have an extra! And these leaves came from a Golden Celestial Tree that is over a million years old! This is a treasure that I will never see again, much less acquire!' Sect Master Xiahou cried with joy inwardly.

"Judging by the smile on your face, I will assume that you are going to accept my trade?" Yuan suddenly said.

Unbeknownst to Sect Master Xiahou, there was a smile that was unbefitting of a woman on her face.

Upon realizing the expression on her, Sect Master Xiahou quickly covered her face and turned around as it was flushed with redness.

After a moment of silence, she spoke in a low voice, "Y-Yes, I accept this trade."

"Here is my medallion. Bring it to the Alchemy Store and show it to the people on the tenth floor. They will assist you with everything you need. In fact, you can ask for more pill recipes. These leaves are countless times more valuable than the Tier 5 Body Tempering Pill's recipe, after all."

Yuan accepted the medallion and bowed to her, "Thank you. You can take leaves now."

Yuan and Wang Xiuying left the place shortly after to head towards the Alchemy Store once again.

Chapter 936 - Crazy Shopping Spree

Chapter 936 - Crazy Shopping Spree

Once they arrived at the Alchemy Store, Yuan and Wang Xiuying walked straight to the tenth floor.

However, they were blocked on the ninth floor.

"Only those that have received the Sect Master's approval may enter the tenth floor." The Elders said to them.

Yuan showed them Sect Master Xiahou's medallion.

"Please give us a minute to confirm it with the Sect Master." The Elder said.

The Elders took Yuan's medallion for a quick inspection while they also contacted Sect Master Xiahou to confirm that she had indeed handed her medallion to Yuan.

Once they confirmed everything, the Elders allowed them to enter the tenth floor.

The tenth floor was unsurprisingly the smallest but also the cleanest room in the entire building due to the minimal visitors they receive. In fact, visitors were practically nonexistent on the tenth floor, and only one or two people get to enter this place every year.

"How may I help you?" The Elder working on that floor asked them.

This Elder also happened to be a first level Spirit King and the guardian of the Alchemy Store.

"Hello, I'm here to buy the recipe for the Tier 5 Body Tempering Pill." Yuan said.

"Oh, I have already paid the Sect Master for the recipe, and she even allowed me to choose a couple more."

"I understand. Here is a list of all of the pill recipes we have in the sect." The Elder handed them a thin manual.

Yuan took the manual and asked Feng Yuxiang, "What do you think, Feng Feng? Any particular pill recipe you want beside the Tier 5 Body Tempering Pill?"

Feng Yuxiang appeared beside him and started looking through the manual.

'P-Peak Spirit King?!' The Elder was shocked by Feng Yuxiang's cultivation base and otherworldly beauty.

A few minutes later, Feng Yuxiang picked 21 different pill recipes, not including the Tier 5 Body Tempering Pill, and they were mostly recipes for Tier 5 pills.

The Elder's eyebrows twitched uncontrollably after seeing how many pill recipes Feng Yuxiang had chosen.

"W-Wait a moment while I receive the Sect Master's approval..." The Elder said to them before disappearing to the room in the back.

A few minutes later, the Elder returned with a look of disbelief on his face.

"T-The Sect Master has agreed to give you all of the pill recipes... You also don't need to worry about paying for them."

The Elder sounded like he was in disbelief, and he wondered what kind of bribe Yuan had given the Sect Master to make this happen. Normally, Sect

Master Xiahou would be very strict about giving away even one pill recipe, much less 22 at once.

After copying all of the pill recipes Feng Yuxiang had requested, the Elder handed it to her.

"Now we just need to buy enough ingredients to concoct the pills. The store still owes me 100,000 spirit stones, but I doubt that will be able to help much." Yuan said afterward.

"It's okay, Young Master. Leave everything pill-related to me, including the money." Feng Yuxiang suddenly said.

"Are you sure?"

"Yes. I won't lose any money as long as I successfully concoct one pill out of three attempts." She nodded.

"All right. I will leave it to you."

"I will also buy my own cauldron so I don't need to borrow yours every time I want to concoct pills." Feng Yuxiang added.

They descended to the sixth floor shortly after so that Feng Yuxiang could buy her cauldron.

"I want this Golden Phoenix Cauldron." Feng Yuxiang said to the Elder there.

"T-The Golden Phoenix Cauldron will cost 10 million spirit stones... It's also our best cauldron." The Elder said.

"Here." Feng Yuxiang handed him the money without any hesitation, almost as though she was only getting rid of her spare change.

"T-Thank you for your patronage!" All of the staff members there bowed to Feng Yuxiang after the purchase.

They descended to the third floor shortly after Feng Yuxiang got her own cauldron.

"I want enough medicine to concoct 1,000 Tier 5 Body Tempering Pills and..." Feng Yuxiang said to the staff members working there, shocking them speechless with her crazy shopping spree.

In the end, Feng Yuxiang left the Alchemy Store with a cauldron that cost her 10 million spirit stones and 5 million spirit stones' worth of ingredients.

It was an enormous sum of money spent. In fact, Feng Yuxiang instantly became their most valued customer.

"15 million spirit stones... I am speechless..." Wang Xiuying mumbled in a dazed voice.

"How just freaking rich are you?" She couldn't help but ask.

"I have sold tens of thousands of valuable treasures throughout thousands of years, so you can say that I have a decent amount of wealth. However, this much is nothing once we reach the upper heavens, where treasures will require Spirit Jades to purchase, which will be equivalent to billions and trillions of spirit stones."

"T-Trillions...?" Both Yuan and Wang Xiuying swallowed nervously.

Once they returned to Wang Xiuying's living quarters, Feng Yuxiang immediately holed herself in one of the guest rooms to practice her Alchemy.

"What do you want to do tomorrow, Yuan?" Wang Xiuying asked him when the sky started turning dark.

"I don't know. I wouldn't mind if we just relaxed and talked to each other about our adventures."

"That sounds great! Then I will see you tomorrow. Goodnight."

"Goodnight."

After Wang Xiuying logged off, Yuan prepared to log off.

However, Xiao Hua suddenly appeared before him and spoke in a low voice, "Brother Yuan, can you spend the night with Xiao Hua?"

"Huh?" He raised his eyebrows.

Xiao Hua then retrieved a familiar-looking book from her spatial ring and said, "Besides supplying Brother Yuan with weapons and artifacts, this is all that Xiao Hua can do for you..."

"Are you still worried about what Feng Feng said today? You really don't need to compare with each other."

"Please, Brother Yuan... Let Xiao Hua help you..." She said to him with moist eyes.

Yuan sighed, and he nodded with a gentle smile, "All right. I will spend the night with you and listen to you chant like old times."

Xiao Hua immediately nodded her small head with a bright smile.

The two of them went outside and sat in front of Wang Xiuying's medicine field.

Xiao Hua opened her book and started reading it while Yuan closed his eyes and focused on her voice.

Chapter 937 - Heaven Sealing Technique

Chapter 937 - Heaven Sealing Technique

After spending the entire night listening to Xiao Hua's voice, Yuan slowly opened his eyes right as the sunrise began.

[Heavenly Domain]

[Rank: Divine]

[Mastery Level: 2]

[Description: Holding absolute authority within your domain, dominate the battlefield, and pressure your enemies with the Heavenly Domain!]

All of Yuan's main techniques saw a boost in strength and mastery.

However, what surprised him the most was the Heaven Splitting Sword Strike, which had been limited this entire time.

'Does this mean I can pour all of my Qi into a single attack?'

Yuan turned to look at Xiao Hua and said, "It appears that the limiter for the Heaven Splitting Sword Strike has been released. What happens now?"

"That means Brother Yuan can adjust the strength of the technique as he pleases. It can be as weak as a Mortal-rank technique or as powerful as even the most powerful technique in the world. However, that will depend on how much spiritual energy you can give it."

"Is that so? How powerful do you think I can make the technique at my current level?" He then asked.

She pondered for a moment before speaking, "If Brother Yuan uses all of his spiritual energy, he should be able to erase half of this sect with ease."

"T-That powerful?" Yuan was shocked.

The Spirit Healing Academy is as vast as multiple large cities. If he can destroy half of it, he can easily destroy an entire city with a single Heaven Splitting Sword Strike.

"Hm? Wait a second. If the limiter is already released, that means it can't get any stronger, right? However, it seems like I can still make it stronger. What happens then?"

"The technique will become more efficient, meaning you will be able to gather more strength with less spiritual energy. The speed at which you charge it will also increase."

"I see... That makes sense." Yuan nodded.

"I also learned the Heaven Sealing Technique. This means I can seal someone's cultivation as long as they are Spirit King and below. Can this be reverted?"

Xiao Hua nodded, "Yes, it can be reverted. Do you want to try the technique on Xiao Hua?"

"Are you sure? It won't hurt?"

"It doesn't hurt. It will only restrict Xiao Hua's cultivation base."

"Okay. I'll try it out."

"The Heaven Sealing Technique doesn't require you to touch the target. As long as they are within 10 meters of your location, you can seal their cultivation."

After taking a deep breath, Yuan activated the Heaven Sealing Technique on Xiao Hua.

Invisible golden chains that can only be seen by Yuan started appearing around Xiao Hua's petite body. However, right as the chains touched Xiao Hua's body, they all shattered without any resistance.

<Heaven Sealing Technique has failed. The target's cultivation surpasses your limit>

"What's wrong, Brother Yuan?" Xiao Hua asked him a moment later.

"Uhh... The technique failed."

"Huh?" Xiao Hua raised her eyebrows in a puzzled manner.

"Xiao Hua, are you, by any chance, suppressing your cultivation? At my current level, the technique only works on Spirit Kings and below, and you're clearly a Spirit King."

However, Xiao Hua shook her head and said, "Xiao Hua isn't suppressing her cultivation."

"That's weird... Hm? Wait a moment. When I first met you, you were only at the 3rd level. When did you reach the 9th level of Spirit King?"

"Now that Brother Yuan mentions it... Xiao Hua doesn't know either. It just felt so natural that Xiao Hua didn't even realize her cultivation had improved." Xiao Hua said.

Yuan pondered with a slight frown on his face, 'Xiao Hua wouldn't lie to me. Is her cultivation being suppressed without her knowledge? But who would do such a thing? She doesn't appear to be cursed, either. And why did her cultivation suddenly increase? What's going on?'

Xiao Hua looked at her own hands and also pondered about this phenomenon that was happening to her body.

However, no matter how much she thought about it, nothing came to her mind.

"Well, there's nothing we can do if you don't know anything. Maybe we'll find out more as we ascend the Nine Heavens." Yuan said sometime later.

"Okay." Xiao Hua nodded.

"Yuan!" A familiar voice suddenly resounded, causing Yuan to turn around.

In the distance, he could see Sect Master Xiahou flying towards him with an urgent look on her face.

"What's the matter?" He asked her a moment later.

"I just received information that the Universal Music Academy had learned of your presence here, and they are currently making their way here as we speak!" She said.

"Universal Music Academy? What do they have anything to do with me?" Yuan asked.

"Have you already forgotten that you killed their Sect Master not long ago? They are here to seek revenge!"

Yuan rubbed his eyes and sighed, "What a pain in the ass. I thought my last warning to them would be enough to make the stay away from me, but alas, they're as dumb as their deceased Sect Master."

Chapter 938 - Let Them Die!

Chapter 938 - Let Them Die!

"A-Are you going to kill them?" Sect Master Xiahou asked him in a nervous voice.

"Do you want me to kill them?" Yuan responded with a question.

"Of course not. However, I doubt you even care. After all, they are after your life."

Yuan smiled and said, "Then how about this? I will give you the chance to talk them out of killing me. If you can do that, I won't have to kill them."

"Are you serious?" Sect Master Xiahou looked at him with wide eyes.

"Of course. I am not a bloodthirsty maniac who enjoys killing, even though you probably see me as one. I only shed blood when I have no other choices."

"Very well. I will do my best to convince them to stand down." Sect Master Xiahou nodded with a serious expression.

After returning to her room, Sect Master Xiahou contacted the other Sect Masters regarding the matter.

"We have already warned the Universal Music Academy to give up on revenge multiple times, but they refuse to listen to us. If that's the case, just let them all die." Sect Master Li said.

"Yuan gave you the chance to talk them out of it? Even if that's the case, they still won't listen to you. I agree with Sect Master Li. Just let them die."

"Unfortunately, I agree with the idea to just let them die."

"If the Universal Music Academy is gone, there will no longer be any need for us to deal with their Sect Master's death, which will save us headaches, not to mention how much money it will save us in the future."

In the end, the other Sect Masters expressed the same opinion—to let the Universal Music Academy perish.

This way, they will save resources along other things.

Sect Master Xiahou felt dejected afterward. After all, she wanted to save these disciples.

"While Sun Hao deserved to die, these disciples do not deserve such a pointless death. The other Sect Masters may not want to save them, but I want to at least try."

Sect Master Xiahou hopped onto her flying treasure and left the sect to meet up with the disciples of the Universal Music Academy.

Meanwhile, Yuan and Wang Xiuying laid beside the medicine fields and talked about their adventures. Of course, since Wang Xiuying had spent most of her time practicing Alchemy, it was mostly Yuan who did the talking.

"By the way, you said that you'd joined the sect for me. What was that about?" Yuan remembered and asked her.

Wang Xiuying blushed and revealed the truth to him.

"You joined the sect and learned Alchemy just to help me? I am really flattered, but you really don't need to do this... I have already robbed enough people of their time over the past decades. Xiuying, please, just do whatever you want... for yourself." Yuan sighed after learning everything.

Wang Xiuying shook her head and said, "You have no idea how much your music saved me, Yuan. Even after your retirement, your music continued to motivate me every single day. Even if it wasn't your intention, I am still grateful to you, hence why I want to help you."

"But don't worry, I am no longer pursuing Alchemy just to help you. I have another goal now."

"Oh? What's that?"

"There's someone I want to surpass, and I won't stop until that goal is achieved. However, that doesn't mean I don't want to help you anymore!"

"Your servant may be much better in Alchemy than me now, but I am still your nurse in the real world!"

"Yuan, I heard that you'd created a faction. I want to join it!"

"Huh? You want to join the Demon Sealing Faction?"

"Demon Sealing Faction? What a weird name. But yes, I do. All factions have a medical team. I will be in your medical team!"

"We don't actually have a medical team. The faction consists of 10 members including me, and they're only good at fighting... Except for Meixiu, who also deals with our food and some of the chores."

"I see... Then I will be the first member of your medical team! If you doubt my credentials, I can—"

"There's no need." Yuan smiled.

"If you want to join, I won't refuse. However, we currently live on a very secluded mountain. Unless you live with us, it won't be very convenient for us to meet."

"I heard. The Dragon Spiral Mountain, right? I tried visiting you once, but I was immediately turned away."

"Huh? Why didn't you just give us a call? We could've probably worked something out."

"I didn't want to bother you."

"Anyways, I will speak with my grandfather later about leaving his hospital permanently to work with you guys."

"If that's your decision." Yuan nodded.

"Anyways, do you want to listen to some music? It's been a while since I have played the instrument."

"Of course! I would never miss the chance to listen to your music!" Wang Xiuying immediately nodded.

Yuan retrieved the Soul Ensnaring Zither and started playing it.

A couple of hours away from the Spirit Healing Academy, Sect Master Xiahou finally encountered the disciples from the Universal Music Academy.

"Stop! I am the Sect Master of the Spirit Healing Academy, and I wish to speak with you!" She stood before their army that consisted of over 10,000 disciples.

Although the Universal Music Academy had over 100,000 disciples, they decided to not bring anyone below Spirit Master, as they would only be a hindrance.

"Greetings, Sect Master Xiahou. I am Elder Chen, who will be replacing Sect Master Sun in the near future. We only have one objective—the bastard that killed our Sect Master! If you're worried that we might damage your sect, please be at ease. We will not enter your sect, only surround it from the outside, and we will only attack once our target leaves your sect."

"Future? This future that you speak of will not exist if you stubbornly insist on avenging Sect Master Sun's death! I am here in hopes to convince you all to turn back!" Sect Master Xiahou said in a loud and clear voice that could be heard by everyone there.

Chapter 939 - Confronting the Universal Music Academy

Chapter 939 - Confronting the Universal Music Academy

"Sect Master Xiahou, no matter how many times you try to convince us, our conviction and determination to avenge our Sect Master will not change! We will kill the bastard that killed our Sect Master! The only way to stop us is if you kill us all right here and now!" Elder Chen exclaimed in a loud voice.

Sect Master Xiahou rubbed her temples and sighed, feeling like she was dealing with children who can only listen but not comprehend her words.

"Listen. You won't even get the chance to avenge your Sect Master. I don't need to kill you because you'll all die if you try to kill Yuan."

"You don't know the true horror of his strength since you were not there to witness it, but the man who killed your Sect Master is not someone to be trifled with! Even if you bring 10,000 experts, he will easily kill all of you without breaking a sweat! If you're just going there to die, you might as well kill yourselves right now. At least that will save you some time and headaches."

"Hmph! I heard that man is only a peak Spirit Lord! We have two Spirit Kings and fifty Spirit Lords here! Not to mention our Spirit Masters, which is over 9,000! Are you saying that he, as a peak Spirit Lord, is strong enough to defeat all of us?! That's ridiculous!"

Sect Master Xiahou frowned and said, "I will warn you one last time. Turn around and leave! Otherwise, you'll be walking straight to your deaths!"

"I refuse!" Elder Chen declared in a booming voice that made the blood of the disciples behind him boil with excitement.

"I should've listened to the other Sect Masters. They were all willing to let you die without even giving you a chance. Unfortunately, I have wasted my time by coming here. I will tell Yuan to meet you guys outside the sect. I don't want my disciples to clean your corpses afterward."

Sect Master Xiahou shook her head and began flying back to the sect.

Once she got close to the Spirit Healing Academy, she could hear very pleasant music coming from somewhere within the sect.

'This sounds like the zither. Who could be playing right now? Not even Sect Master Sun could compare to this person even during his prime days.' Sect Master Xiahou could feel her body getting more energetic as she listened to the music.

The music eventually led her to Wang Xiuying's hill.

'It's him? He can also play the zither with such mastery? Just what is his background?' Sect Master Xiahou was shocked to see Yuan playing the zither for Wang Xiuying.

After staying in the air to listen to Yuan's music for many minutes, Sect Master Xiahou snapped out of her daze and finally descended beside him.

However, she didn't interrupt his current song and waited until he was finished before she began speaking, "I have tried to convince the Universal Music Academy to turn around, but they have refused to listen to my warnings. They have two Spirit Kings, fifty Spirit Lords, and over 9,000 Spirit Masters."

"Is that so?" Yuan mumbled.

He turned to look at Wang Xiuying and said, "Sorry, but I have to leave for a bit right now. Don't worry, I should be back very soon."

"What's happening? Where are you going?" She asked with a worried expression on her face.

Judging by the atmosphere and her Master's expression, Wang Xiuying knew that Yuan was involved in some bad business again.

"Your Master can explain it to you." Yuan smiled.

He then asked, "Which direction?"

Sect Master Xiahou pointed south.

Yuan didn't linger any longer and immediately disappeared towards the south.

"Master! What's happening?! Please tell me!"

Sect Master Xiahou sighed and said, "I told you that Yuan had killed the Sect Master of the Universal Music Academy, right? Well, they're here for revenge."

"What?! And you're going to let him fight them?! Can't you and the other Sect Masters do something about this?!"

She shook her head and sighed, "We tried. Multiple times. Unfortunately, they did not heed our warnings."

"No way..." Wang Xiuying mumbled.

Meanwhile, Yuan and the Universal Music Academy flew towards each other.

"Young Master, should I help you kill these ignorant fools?" Feng Yuxiang asked.

"No, Xiao Hua will kill them."

"No, I will handle them by myself. This is a mess that I'd created, after all." He immediately refused their help.

Sometime later, Yuan could see the Universal Music Academy and their ten-thousand-strong army of disciples.

Yuan took a deep breath and retrieved the Empyrean Overlord.

The moment Yuan noticed the Universal Music Academy, they also noticed him.

"It's him! That's the bastard that killed our Sect Master!" Some of the disciples recognized Yuan from when he visited their sect to threaten them for Sun Hao's location.

"Everyone! The bastard that killed our Sect Master has appeared! Prepare for battle!" Elder Chen shouted out loud, alerting everyone there.

However, before they could even do anything, Elder Chen suddenly shouted again, "W-Wait! He's doing something!"

Since they were still very far away from each other, Elder Chen was unable to see Yuan's figure very well. However, he can clearly see Yuan lifting his arms into the sky, and he appeared to be holding something that was almost the size of his own body.

After hovering there without moving for a few moments, Yuan suddenly swung whatever he was holding in their direction.

"Shit! Scatter! SCATTER!" Elder Chen roared in a panicked voice, but alas, it was too late.

The following moment, the massive beam of sword light released by Yuan had reached their location, instantly consuming half of the disciples there.

The disciples that were consumed by this sword light were all disintegrated until there were not even ashes left.

Elder Chen had barely survived Yuan's Heaven Splitting Sword Strike, but he did not feel relieved even in the slightest, and his wide eyes could only stare at the destruction that was left behind by the devastating attack, which looked even worse than a battlefield that had raged on for thousands of years.

'This bastard... Is he even human...?' Elder Chen wondered inwardly.

Chapter 940 - 10,000 Corpses

Chapter 940 - 10,000 Corpses

Elder Chen and the rest of the disciples that survived the Heaven Splitting Sword Strike did not dare to move as their widened eyes stared at the devastating destruction before their eyes.

They have never seen such destruction before— at least not from a single attack.

In the blink of an eye, half of their 10,000 army was vanquished.

While the Universal Music Academy were in a daze, Yuan shouted at them, "This is your last chance to give up on revenge and go back to your sect! If you continue being stubborn, then I will truly show no mercy and kill every last one of you!"

The disciples' bodies trembled in fear upon hearing Yuan's words, but Elder Chen gritted his teeth and shouted back, "Do not be afraid! Do not falter! Do not listen to his empty threats! There's no way he can still fight after releasing such a powerful attack! He must be out of spiritual energy now! Forward! Kill him and avenge our fellow disciples and our Sect Master!"

The disciples regained their courage after hearing Elder Chen's words. They all believed that Yuan would have little to no more spiritual energy left after such a big attack.

Seeing the disciples charging at him, Yuan took a deep breath.

"What a pity."

[Ten Thousand Ghost Blades!]

Ten thousand copies of Starry Abyss suddenly appeared in the sky, causing the disciples to halt.

"W-What the hell!? I thought he had no more spiritual energy!" The disciples were shocked to see so many daggers appearing out of thin air.

"It's just an illusion! Keep going!" Elder Chen shouted as he led the disciples.

Yuan closed his eyes and motioned for the daggers to fly.

Whoosh!

All ten thousand daggers flew towards the disciples like a meteor shower.

A single dagger had the strength of a Spirit Lord, so it was as though ten thousand Spirit Lords had appeared in the battlefield.

"Run! He's a monster!"

When the disciples saw how effortlessly Yuan was killing them, the surviving disciples towards the end of their formation turned around and started running away.

"Where do you idiots think you're going?! Get back here and fight!" Elder Chen roared at those that ran away, but none of them turned around.

Unfortunately, he was too busy dealing with the flying daggers to chase after them.

With that being said, even though Elder Chen was unable to stop them, there were more than enough flying daggers to chase after the disciples that ran away.

'I gave them plenty of chances, but none of them took it. Even if you suddenly decide to change your mind, I have already made up my mind. Everyone here will die today.' Yuan sighed inwardly.

The loud noises caused by the fighting and the screaming quickly became weaker and weaker, until there was nobody left.

It has been less than five minutes since Yuan showed up, but he'd managed to kill all of the disciples that came after him without sparing a single life.

Yuan opened his eyes again after the battle, and he looked at the bloodstained battlefield with a profound expression on his face.

"Do you guys think I am a hypocrite? Even though I keep saying that I do not enjoy killing people, I always end up with blood in my hands." He suddenly spoke out loud.

"No, the Young Master has done nothing wrong. You gave them many warnings and chances to turn around, but they ignored it. If you warn someone to not enter a burning building but they still decide to anyway, that is entirely their fault, even if you were the one who lit the building ablaze." Feng Yuxiang said in a calm voice.

"Don't think too much about it, Brother Yuan. This is the true nature of the cultivation world. You either kill them or they kill you. There is no need to feel guilty about it." Xiao Hua said.

"Sorry, but I cannot lie and say that I understand your feelings, Yuan. As a Divine Beast, I don't see anything wrong with killing those that wish to harm you." Lan Yingying said.

"Thank you." Yuan said to them.

And he sighed inwardly, 'Maybe I am just worried that killing too many people will change me— change Yuan.'

After taking another look at the chaos he'd caused, Yuan turned around and flew back to the Spirit Healing Academy.

"Are you not going to loot their bodies, Young Master? You might find something nice with so many corpses here." Feng Yuxiang suddenly asked.

"I don't feel like it. And it's too bloody down there." Yuan said without even looking back.

"Yuan! Are you okay?!" Wang Xiuying rushed to him the moment he returned.

"Yes, as you can see, I am totally fine." He said with a smile.

However, Wang Xiuying did not smile. Instead, she frowned.

"Who do you think you're trying to fool? Despite my young age, I have dealt with all sorts of patients in my grandfather's hospital. I can tell if someone is hurt or not by looking at their eyes, and when I look into your eyes, I can tell that you're not fine. You may be fine physically, but not mentally, and mental damage is just as dangerous as physical injuries, sometimes even more severe."

"I'll give you some time for now, but I will eventually ask you about it."

"Thanks." The smile on Yuan's face became less stiff after hearing her words.

"Hey... The Universal Music Academy... What happened to them?" Sect Master Xiahou asked him afterward.

"I killed them. Every last one of them." Yuan responded in a calm yet cold voice, sending shivers down their backs.

And he continued, "Oh, I didn't touch the bodies. If you want, you can go ahead and loot them. It'd be a waste to leave them behind."

"I-I will send some disciples there later..." Sect Master Xiahou nodded her head in a dazed voice.

'It hasn't even been that long since he left and he's already killed all 10,000 of them? Utterly ridiculous...' She was terrified inwardly, yet she was also relieved that she didn't offend this monster like Sun Hao had.

Chapter 941 - Playing Catch

Chapter 941 - Playing Catch

"Xiuying, I'm going to leave earlier than expected. Sorry for all of the troubles that I had caused you and this sect." Yuan suddenly said to her.

"Huh? Why?"

"I have a feeling that something will happen soon, and I don't want you or this sect to get caught up in it, so I'm going to leave. Don't worry, we'll see each other again on the other side sooner or later." He smiled.

"Okay..." She nodded.

Wang Xiuying logged off Cultivation Online sometime later while Yuan traveled to the Stairway to Heaven.

"Xiao Hua." He suddenly called for her when he arrived.

"Yes?" She appeared beside him and proceeded to stare at him with a pondering gaze.

"Let's play catch."

"Huh?" Xiao Hua's eyes widened with surprise.

"I promised to play catch with you again, remember? Let's do it now. I still have a couple of days before I have to leave for my sister's birthday." Yuan smiled.

"Un!"

Xiao Hua's face immediately became filled with bliss, and she retrieved the red ball they used before.

"There's no need to hold back this time. And let's get some distance." Yuan said to her before flying a few hundred meters away.

Xiao Hua also flew into the air shortly after.

Once they were ready, Xiao Hua tossed the red ball at Yuan with all of her strength.

The red ball disappeared the instant it left her hands, and it appeared in front of Yuan faster than one could blink, almost as though the ball had teleported.

PA!

A loud noise resounded as Yuan caught the ball with his bare hands, and he was pushed back a few meters by the impact.

"I'm really glad you held back before. If you'd used your full strength when we first met, I would've definitely died a horrible death." Yuan smiled as he looked at the ball, his hands trembling from it.

"Let me go back a bit further!" He said to her before increasing their distance by a couple hundred more meters.

Whoosh!

Yuan tossed the ball back at Xiao Hua using 50 percent of his strength, as he was worried that he might accidentally hurt her.

The red ball flew faster than a bullet, and a single streak of red light appeared in the sky.

However, Xiao Hua casually caught the ball with a single hand, and she said afterward, "There's no need to hold back, Brother Yuan."

And she proceeded to throw the ball back at him.

'T-That was even stronger than her first throw! Is she subconsciously holding back?' Yuan wondered to himself after catching the ball that felt a lot heavier.

'And what kind of material is this ball made out of? To withstand such abuse...'

The two of them would spend the next few hours playing catch ball, and by the time they were done, the trees beneath them were all bent in an unnatural manner due to the pressure caused by their game.

"It's been a while since I've worked up so much sweat. Let's do this again tomorrow." Yuan said to her afterward.

"Okay." Xiao Hua eagerly nodded.

Yuan logged off shortly after to have dinner with the others.

Meanwhile, Wang Xiuying spoke to her grandfather about joining Yuan's faction during dinner.

"So I have decided to join Yu Tian's faction and move in with him at the Dragon Spiral Mountain. However, this means that I won't be able to work at the hospital any longer. What do you think, grandpa?"

"The Young Master created a faction? When?" Doctor Wang raised his eyebrows.

"A while ago. You've probably heard of it. It's called the Demon Sealing Faction."

"Huh? I have heard of it, but that's Player Yuan's faction, isn't it?"

"Hm? Oh, right. You didn't know. Well, Yu Tian is Player Yuan."

Doctor Wang's mouth dropped wide open after hearing this.

"R-Really? And how long have you known about this?"

"For a while. I promised to keep it a secret for him, so I didn't tell you. But I got his permission today to tell you."

"Unbelievable... To think that famous Player Yuan was the Young Master all along!"

"Make sure you keep it a secret, grandpa. It would be troublesome for him if the public learned of his identity." Wang Xiuying said.

"That's only obvious."

"Anyways, what do you say? Can I go?"

Doctor Wang nodded, "Yes, you can go. You're big enough to make your own decisions and move out. As for the hospital, don't worry about it. You were never an official employee, and you went there on your own accord. Though, the people there will miss you, especially the patients."

"When do you plan on moving?"

"Soon. I need to apply for his faction at the Cultivators' Association first. I'll do it tomorrow."

The following day, Wang Xiuying made her way to the Cultivators' Association.

Although one can join a faction without visiting the Cultivators' Association, they would not be considered an 'official' member of the faction by the Cultivators' Association and would not be allowed to participate in official events.

After arriving at the Cultivators' Association, Wang Xiuying patiently waited until she was at the front desk.

"I'd like to apply for a faction," she said to the woman working at the desk.

"Name of the faction?"

"Demon Sealing Faction!"

The woman raised her eyebrows after hearing this familiar name, and she looked at Wang Xiuying with a pitiful gaze.

"You know... I'm saying this for your own good, but you won't get accepted into that faction. Countless people have applied for the faction, but they have not approved of a single new member since its founding."

"If you ask me, these people are too arrogant. Just because they have that Player Yuan with them, they think they can exist with 10 members. What a joke! They're looking down on all of the factions out there!"

Wang Xiuying was speechless. She didn't expect so many people to apply for the faction, but considering Yuan's popularity, it wasn't surprising at all.

Chapter 942 - Applying for the Demon Sealing Faction

Chapter 942 - Applying for the Demon Sealing Faction

"Thank you for the warning, but I would still like to apply to that faction." Wang Xiuying said with a smile on her face.

The woman shrugged, "You're only wasting your time. Don't say I didn't warn you."

"Name?" The woman proceeded to ask her a few questions required for the application form.

"Wang Xiuying."

"Age?"

"19 years old."

"Your cultivation?"

"Sixth level Spirit Apprentice."

The woman scoffed inwardly after hearing Wang Xiuying's cultivation. The Demon Sealing Faction consisted mostly of high-level Spirit Warriors. There was no way they'd accept a Spirit Apprentice into their ranks.

"Reason for wanting to join the faction?"

"Because I want to help them." Wang Xiuying calmly responded.

"..."

The woman shook her head inwardly. 'This girl... she's hopeless.'

After typing in all of Wang Xiuying's information, the woman sent the application to the Demon Sealing Faction.

"We will give you a call if they accept you, but like I'd said, that won't happen, so you might as well apply for another faction while you're here." The woman said.

However, Wang Xiuying suddenly retrieved her phone and dialed a number.

A few moments later—

"Yes, I have just applied for the faction. Thanks. I'll talk to you again once I return home."

Before Wang Xiuying even hung up the phone, the woman noticed a change on her screen, causing her to look at the monitor.

"W-What?! T-This is! Approved?! Impossible!" The woman couldn't believe her eyes when she saw the status of Wang Xiuying's application that had suddenly changed from pending to approved!

'This isn't possible! There must have been an error in the system!' The woman didn't want to believe it.

After all, over a million people have applied to join the Demon Sealing Faction since it was announced, but all of their applications have remained 'pending' even to this day.

"Is there something wrong?" Wang Xiuying asked the woman after noticing her facial expression.

"T-There has been a bug in the system. It says that your application had been approved, but I'd just submitted it. There's no way that's possible." The woman said.

And she continued, "Please wait while I call my supervisor."

"Uhh..." Wang Xiuying wanted to tell the woman that it wasn't an error and that Meixiu had manually approved it during her call just now, but the woman was already on the phone and speaking to her supervisor.

Of course, when the supervisor heard of the situation, he also believed it to be a bug in the system, so he manually removed Wang Xiuying's name from the Demon Sealing Faction's member list, bringing it back down to 10.

"I apologize for the inconvenience, but I will have to resubmit your application due to an error."

"Huh? Even though it was already approved?" Wang Xiuying was speechless.

The woman scoffed in a mocking manner, "Do you really believe that you'll be able to join the faction because of an error? Even though your name had temporarily appeared in their database, we easily removed it."

Wang Xiuying rubbed her eyes and sighed, "That wasn't an error."

"Yeah, yeah. Whatever you say. Anyways, I have finished submitting your application."

Wang Xiuying didn't want to argue with this woman, so she just left the building.

Once she was outside, she called Meixiu again, "Hey, sorry, but something happened at the Cultivators' Association and I had to resubmit my application."

"But I already approved it. Your name is already in our roster— Eh? It's gone? It was just there." Meixiu's puzzled voice resounded through the phone.

"They thought it was an error, so they removed me from the list..." Wang Xiuying explained the situation to her.

"I see... Then I'll give Chairman Lee a call to make sure there isn't any misunderstanding this time."

"Thank you."

After hanging up the phone, Meixiu called Chairman Lee and notified him of the situation.

"I-I am so sorry for the inconvenience my people have caused you! I will immediately send out an email so that it won't happen again!" Chairman Lee said.

Once the call ended, Chairman Lee hastily sent an email to all of his associates regarding Wang Xiuying being the Demon Sealing Faction's newest member. He also made sure to scold the woman and her supervisor for their hasty actions.

News of the Demon Sealing Faction receiving a new member quickly spread, shocking the world.

"What? The Demon Sealing Faction with Player Yuan finally got a new member after ignoring everyone for months? Who's this lucky bastard?"

"It's a woman. According to the person that did her application, she is a young lady between 18 and 20 years old."

"What? That's all? As the one who did the application, she should have way more information on this new member, right?"

"That is against their policy, and I doubt she would want to offend the Demon Sealing Faction by revealing their private information."

"Damn! What is so special about this new member that the others don't have?! I sent an application the day their faction was announced, but I still haven't received a response! I'd rather they deny it than to ignore it!"

Meanwhile, Wang Xiuying called Meixiu again after she returned home.

"So when can I move into the headquarters?" Wang Xiuying asked.

"We'll need to speak with the Manager first. Fortunately, she's currently living here as a guest, so it shouldn't take too long." Meixiu said.

"I will leave it to you and Yuan. Once again, thank you for letting me join the faction."

"It's only natural. You're Yuan's friend, and you even took care of him before."

After the call ended, Meixiu went to look for the Manager, who was watching the sealed demon in the training area like a guard dog.

"Your faction received a new member?"

"Yes, so can you make it so that she can enter the Dragon Spiral Mountain? She'll be living with us."

The Manager narrowed her eyes and said, "I will think about it... after your boyfriend deals with this final demon."

"B-Boyfriend?" Meixiu blushed.

"Am I wrong? I can smell his odor all over your body— and that Chu girl."

"..." Meixiu was speechless.

'The Manager can smell Yuan on us? That's... so embarrassing!' She cried inwardly.

"Hm? You didn't know? I guess he has been two-timing you..." The Manager smiled when she noticed Meixiu's stiff expression.

Chapter 943 - It's a Mutual Thing

Chapter 943 - It's a Mutual Thing

"I guess not even the famous Player Yuan is perfect. But nobody would expect him to be an unfaithful bastard." The Manager sneered in disdain.

"M-Mutual..." Meixiu suddenly mumbled in a low voice.

"Huh? What did you just say?"

"I already know about it, so does Lulu. In fact, it's a mutual thing between the three of us." Meixiu explained.

"A-Are you serious?" The Manager stared at Meixiu with a look of disbelief on her face.

In her eyes, Meixiu didn't appear to be the type of woman to share a man with other women.

However, Meixiu nodded her head, confirming everything.

"You're actually willing to share him? Unbelievable..." The Manager muttered in shock.

"I mean, both Lulu and I love him, and he loves us. In case you forgot, I am only supposed to stand by his side as his servant. The fact that he is willing to accept me as his woman is already more than anything I can ask for. And it's normal for a powerful man to have many wives, right?"

The Manager rubbed her eyes and sighed, "Listen here. While it's true that most families here have multiple wives, they are also much older than you guys. You may be an adult legally at the age of 18, but you guys do not have the experience of adults. In fact, you're all babies in my eyes. It's too early for you ladies to share a man."

Meixiu sighed, "I was against this kind of lifestyle at first too, but I have already made a decision. As long as I can stay by his side, I don't care how many women he sees."

The Manager narrowed her eyes at Meixiu.

After a moment of silence, she sighs, "Whatever. I don't have the right to tell you how to live your life, anyway. Even if you decide to get knocked up by Yuan tomorrow, I won't complain."

"W-What? Knocked up? T-That's definitely too early for us!" Meixiu exclaimed.

"Hmph. Judging by the strong scent on your body, I assume that you guys do it pretty often. Hell, I can even smell him inside your—I mean, if you keep messing around, you'll eventually get knocked up."

Meixiu looked at the Manager with wide eyes, and she wondered to herself, 'What kind of nose does she have? Even dogs can't compare to her!'

"Anyways, if you want your friend to enter the mountain, you better tell Yuan to hurry up and deal with this demon!" The Manager said in a stubborn voice.

"I understand. I will talk to him."

The Manager watched in silence as Meixiu returned to the house.

"To think they'd be in such a relationship... Truly unbelievable. What do they even see in that irritating brat? He's talented... really talented, I will give him that, but besides his talent, there is nothing special about him!" She sighed inwardly.

Sometime later, Meixiu went to speak with Yuan, repeating what the Manager said to her.

"I see... Well, if that's the case, we'll move our schedule up a little. I have nothing else to do, anyway." Yuan said.

During dinner, Yuan told everyone about the situation.

"I won't mind even if we start the training now." Wang Ming said in an excited voice.

"So we finally have a new member, huh. Who is this person?" Shi Lang asked.

"I will introduce you to her when she arrives." Yuan said.

"Her? Don't tell me it's another girlfriend!" Wu Zao exclaimed.

Yuan smiled, "She's a dear friend and someone who helped me through some dark times in the past."

The others turned silent after hearing his last few words, and they recalled his past as a cripple.

After dinner, Meixiu approached Yuan and whispered in his ears, "Can you sleep with me tonight?"

Yuan smiled, "This is the first time you've invited me. Of course."

Meixiu blushed and silently nodded her head before running back to her room.

After returning to his room, Yuan said to Chu Liuxiang, "I'll be with Meixiu tonight."

"Sure. I will need as much rest as I can get if we're going to start training tomorrow, after all." She said in a casual and calm manner.

Sometime later, Yuan went to knock on Meixiu's door.

"Come inside."

Yuan twisted the doorknob and entered the room, but it was pitch black inside with the only light being the slight moonlight that peeked through the windows.

But despite the darkness, Yuan was able to see her figure with his divine sense.

"Meixiu?" Yuan called for her.

"..."

A few seconds later, Meixiu walked into where the moonlight shone, revealing herself.

"..."

Yuan was dumbfounded after seeing Meixiu's appearance, who was currently half naked and wearing only a pair of exotic black lingerie.

"M-Meixiu? Are you okay?"

She nodded and spoke in a bashful voice, "To tell you the truth, even though I accepted our unique relationship, I never truly understood it."

"I always thought I was mature. While it's true that I am more mature and experienced than most people around my age, I am still inexperienced in many things."

Yuan smiled and said, "Did the Manager say something weird to you?"

"No, she made me realize something. While I don't mind sharing you with other women, I also don't want to lose to them. Even if you love us all equally, I want to be the first name that appears in your head when you think of us."

Meixiu started approaching Yuan.

Once she was in front of him, she gave him a passionate kiss on the lips before pulling him to the bed and stripping him naked.

"By the way, I got something new I want to try out."

"What is it?"

Meixiu showed him the new product she got from the convenience store a while ago.

"What's that? Medicine?" Yuan raised an eyebrow.

"I got it from the convenience store. The clerk said it's a stimulator that will make things more enjoyable. Don't worry, it's completely safe."

"Sure. Let's do it." Yuan trusted Meixiu and agreed.

After taking out two red capsules, they each swallowed one.

"My body feels hot... especially down there..." The effects of the capsule immediately started affecting Meixiu moments after she consumed it.

As for Yuan, although it took a little longer to affect him, the sword between his legs hardened like never before.

"Yuan..." Meixiu mumbled his name in an enchanting voice before kissing him again.

Yuan kissed her back while embracing her body tightly.

Thus, the beginning of a long night.

Chapter 944 - Love Capsule

Chapter 944 - Love Capsule

"Haaa... haaa... haaa..." Meixiu gasped for air as she laid on the bed with her entire body soaked in sweat and other fluids.

"How long does this medicine last? We've been at it for 4 hours now, but my body is still unwilling to calm down..." Yuan asked her as he stood beside the bed, the sword between his legs as stiff as ever, almost as though they didn't even do anything.

"I... I don't know... but my body is still... craving for it..." Meixiu said.

"Let's take a break... As enjoyable as the last 4 hours has been, I don't want this to harm our bodies."

"Okay..."

Yuan laid on the bed beside Meixiu shortly after.

Despite the both of them still being naked, Meixiu didn't shy away and snuggled with him.

"Yuan, I love you..." Meixiu suddenly mumbled in a low voice.

"I love you, too." Yuan smiled.

"You know, the Manager said we're too young to be doing this..."

"Is that why you decided to do all of this?"

"No, I have been wanting to do this with you for a while, but I never had the courage. What the Manager said is right. I'm still too young and inexperienced to become a proper partner for you. Therefore, I am going to work hard to become—"

Yuan suddenly poked her face and interrupted, "I don't need you to change or become someone else for me. Just keep being you— keep being the woman I fell in love with, okay? So what if you're young and inexperienced? We all have to start from somewhere, right?"

After a moment of silence, Meixiu nodded her head.

"By the way, what should we tell Yu Rou? Should we tell her about our relationship?" Meixiu suddenly asked.

"I don't mind. What about you?"

"Well... I am a little hesitant..." Meixiu sighed.

"Hesitant? Why?"

"Well, it's no secret that Yu Rou really treasures you as her brother. I don't know why, but I have a feeling that she might not approve of our relationship. Perhaps we should postpone telling her about our relationship. I don't want to ruin her birthday, either."

Yuan pondered for a moment before nodding, "Let's do just that, then. It's Yu Rou's birthday, so everything on that day should be about her, not us."

"Thank you, Yuan..."

Meixiu suddenly felt a strong urge to caress Yuan's chest.

Her hands subconsciously moved, gently caressing him with her beautiful fingers.

"I can't hold it any longer..." Meixiu suddenly said.

She sat up on the bed and crawled on top of Yuan's body.

"We're supposed to be taking a break..." Yuan showed a helpless smile.

"We are still taking a break. I'm just going to use my mouth, that's all."

"That's not... Oh..."

Yuan halted his words to let out a satisfied sound when he felt something incredibly soft and warm wrap around his sword, even sucking on it.

A few minutes later, Yuan could no longer endure it any longer and pounced on Meixiu, ending their short break.

The two of them would keep up their intimate acts with each other until sunrise.

"I-It's finally over..." Yuan sighed in relief when the stiff rod between his legs was no more, as it was fully satisfied after an entire night of intercourse.

He looked at Meixiu, who had fallen asleep on the bed from exhaustion just minutes ago.

Fortunately, she knocked out after cleaning herself and the bed, or she would be sleeping in all sorts of fluids. With that being said, only the bed was clean, so the floor and the walls were still dirty.

As for how they managed to mess up a perfectly clean room after a night of intercourse, only the two of them would know.

After tucking Meixiu in bed, Yuan went downstairs and said to the others, "Meixiu is a bit sick right now, so we'll have to eat breakfast at the mall, and she won't be participating in today's training."

"Is she okay?" Wang Bingbing asked.

"Yes, she'll be fine after a day of rest." Yuan calmly nodded.

Who knows how they'll react if he told them the truth—that Meixiu was too exhausted to move because they'd spent the entire night together.

As they made their way to the mall for breakfast, Chu Liuxiang approached Yuan and whispered to him, "So... Is Meixiu really sick, or is there a different reason as to why she can't get out of bed?"

Yuan smiled and said, "We did it all night."

"You what?! The entire night?" Chu Liuxiang was in disbelief.

"Yes. From the moment I entered her room... until sunrise."

Chu Liuxiang stared at him with wide eyes.

"H-How? We are normally done after two hours! How did you last an entire night?" She couldn't help but ask.

"Meixiu bought some weird medicine and suggested we try it, which kept our bodies active and lustful throughout the night, no matter how many times we did it! It was exhausting even for me! My whole body is sore now, especially my hips..."

"M-Medicine? That sounds suspicious as hell! Where on earth did she acquire such a thing?"

"Apparently from the convenience store at the mall. I'll go ask them after breakfast." Yuan said.

"I'll come with you." Chu Liuxiang said.

Breakfast lasted a little over an hour.

"I'll meet you guys at the training field in a bit. I have some business here. It won't take long." Yuan said to the others.

"All right. See you there." They didn't question him and left immediately.

Once they were alone, Yuan and Chu Liuxiang made their way to the convenience store that was on the first floor of the mall.

"Welcome! Oh? Are you guys new to the Dragon Spiral Mountain? I have never seen you before." The woman at the desk asked them.

"We've been here for a couple of months now." Yuan said.

"I see. Anyways, is there anything specific that you're looking for?"

"Yes, I have some questions about a certain product my friend bought from this place. I don't know the name, but they're these red capsules that 'enhances' one's body." Yuan said.

It took a moment, but when the woman realized what Yuan was talking about, she covered her mouth and chuckled, "I see, I see. I know exactly what you're talking about."

She then reached under her counter and grabbed a box of the medicine that Yuan and Meixiu used last night.

"Are these it?" She asked him.

"Yes, this is it." Yuan confirmed.

"They're called Love Capsules. If you're looking to improve your night life with your girlfriend here, you'll definitely want these. They're very popular right now, especially amongst the young adults. They're also approved by the government and many agencies, so they are very safe. Just don't consume too much at once. Three per day is the limit."

"Ummm... How long are they supposed to last?" Yuan then asked.

"About an hour or two depending on the person."

"Huh? There's no way. After all, I used it with my partner last night, and it lasted us until sunrise! We couldn't stop for ten whole hours!" Yuan said.

"W-What? Ten hours...? Are you sure? I don't think even the strongest capsule out there can last that long... Did you consume multiple at once?" The woman asked.

"No, just one for each of us." Yuan shook his head.

"Hmm..." The woman stared at the Love Capsules and began pondering.

Chapter 945 - Killing the Last Demon

Chapter 945 - Killing the Last Demon

After pondering for some time, the woman asked, "Do you, by any chance, have a unique physique? Perhaps it's due to your physique that has increased the potency of the medicine."

Yuan then said, "While that is entirely possible, what about my partner, who had the same effects?"

The woman pondered again before asking, "Are you sure about that? While she may have lasted ten hours, it doesn't mean she's affected by the medicine. She could've just been enduring it."

Yuan swallowed nervously after hearing this possibility. He didn't confirm it with Meixiu because she kept up with him the entire night without complaining, and she even encouraged him to continue.

"I will confirm it with her later." Yuan then said.

"Thank you for your time."

"Wait! Can I have this box of Love Capsules?" Chu Liuxiang suddenly asked.

"Of course. You can have as many as you want." The woman nodded.

"Thank you! Oh, I don't need a bag. I'll just carry it home with me."

Chu Liuxiang grabbed the box and held it in her hand without feeling shameful about it.

"You want to use that as well?" Yuan asked her after they left.

"Of course! Since you did it with Meixiu, it's only fair if you do it with me as well! I also want to experience what she felt!"

"Are you sure? This medicine will keep me up for 10 hours. I don't know about Meixiu, but there's a good chance that she..."

"If Meixiu can do it, so can I! Don't underestimate me, darling!"

Sometime later, they met up with the others in the training field.

"Are you guys ready?" Yuan asked them.

"Of course!"

Yuan unsealed the demon, starting their training.

"If you can defeat my friends, I will set you free." Yuan said to the demon after unsealing it.

"You want me to listen to livestock? Hahaha! In your fucking dreams!" The demon laughed out loud.

Yuan didn't say anything else and retrieved the 10 demon cores that he'd gathered from the previous 10 demons.

When the demon saw the demon cores in Yuan's hands, it stopped laughing and began sweating profusely.

"One of these demon cores belonged to a demon with the strength of a 2nd level Spirit Lord. Killing a 5th level Spirit Master like you will be easier than taking candy from a baby." Yuan said, causing it to tremble some more.

"You can try to kill yourself, but I will seal you before then." Yuan snapped his fingers, causing the Demon Sealing Zone to activate.

Everything below the demon's neck instantly petrified.

This terrified the demon, who had severely underestimated him.

"I understand. I will do it." The demon gritted its teeth and said.

"Good."

Yuan unsealed the demon, and the first team started their training shortly after.

After an entire day of training, Yuan said to the demon before sealing it, "See you tomorrow."

"Damn! I almost died multiple times fighting this demon and it's only two levels stronger than the last one!" Wang Ming exclaimed.

"It wouldn't be training if it got easier." Yuan smiled.

Sometime later, Yuan visited Meixiu's room to find her sitting on her bed with her laptop.

"Sorry I missed training, Yuan." Meixiu said to him.

"Don't worry about it. You can do it tomorrow."

He shook his head.

"By the way, I have a question for you."

"What is it?"

"The medicine we took yesterday... Did it really last 10 hours for you?"

"..."

After a moment of silence, Meixiu sighed and said, "No, it lasted only two hours for me."

"Why didn't you tell me?"

"You looked like you were having fun, and I also enjoyed it."

Yuan sighed, "You could've gotten hurt, Meixiu."

"That wasn't my intention. Sorry."

"Are you sure you're fine?"

She nodded with a smile, "Yes. My body is a little sore, but that's all."

"The last thing I want is for you to get hurt just to satisfy me. I know you don't want to lose, but I don't want you to force yourself. Just continue being the Meixiu I know and love."

"Thank you." She nodded.

Yuan returned to his room sometime later to find Chu Liuxiang lying on the bed with the box of Love Capsules in her hands.

"You want to do it today?" Yuan asked her.

"Huh? Oh, no. I was just bored. I won't be able to participate in training tomorrow if we did it today, after all. I'll wait until training is over."

"All right."

The following morning, everyone including Meixiu gathered at the training area for training.

The training would last until it was almost Yu Rou's birthday.

"Your service is no longer required. I will now set you free." Yuan said the demon at the end of their training.

The demon sighed in relief inwardly, but before it could say anything, Yuan drove his hand into its chest and ripped out its red crystal.

"W-What is the meaning of this?!" The demon roared.

"Now you don't have to ever worry about getting sealed again." Yuan said to it before crushing the crystal, killing the last demon.

After deactivating the Demon Sealing Zone, Yuan turned to look at the Manager and asked her, "Are you satisfied?"

The Manager narrowed her eyes at Yuan and spoke in a calm voice, "Prepare yourself. You'll be seeing the Lord tomorrow."

"What about my friend?"

"I have already made her a resident. She can move into the Dragon Spiral Mountain whenever."

"Thanks."

The Manager returned to the peak of the mountain shortly after while everyone else returned home.

"Aaaah! It's finally over!" Wang Ming shouted in an excited voice.

"Over? This is just the beginning. There are dozens if not hundreds of demons sealed around the world right now, and we're the only ones who can deal with them. I want all of you to be able to kill demons by yourself in the future." Yuan said.

"No way..." Wang Ming's jaw dropped.

"Having second thoughts about joining this faction?" Yuan smiled.

"Hell no!" He immediately shook his head.

"Good."

Chapter 946 - The Lord's True Identity

Chapter 946 - The Lord's True Identity

"So he's finally killed the last demon, huh?" The Lord mumbled in a relieved voice after hearing the news from the Manager.

"Are you really going to reveal your true identity to him? I still don't think we can trust him. He's just a pervert who happens to have a knack for killing demons." The Manager said with a frown on her face.

"Do you really believe that, or are you just saying that out of frustration?" The Lord asked her.

The Manager gritted her teeth, refusing to answer.

"You can't be born with a 'knack' for killing demons. You need experience and technique. I don't know how or where he learned to kill demons, but we need him. The demons have been sealed for millions of years. It won't be long before they break out of their seal."

"Anyways, I have decided to tell him the truth about my identity, but I can continue to keep your identity a secret."

"Whatever." The Manager sighed.

That night, after washing their bodies, Chu Liuxiang and Yuan left the bathroom without getting dressed.

"Are you sure you want to do this? The Love Capsule's effect lasted for 2 hours for Meixiu, but it will last around ten hours for me. In fact, you can take the Love Capsule by yourself."

"No!" Chu Liuxiang immediately refused.

"I want to experience what Meixiu experienced, so I want you to take the Love Capsule as well! So what if it lasts for ten hours? I will do it even if it lasts 24 hours!"

After listening to her stubborn and resolute words, Yuan no longer tried to convince her.

The two of them consumed the Love Capsule pill shortly after.

Chu Liuxiang's body immediately started burning with passion.

Yuan could feel the sword between his legs turning as hard as steel.

Seeing his body like this, Chu Liuxiang suddenly fell to her knees and started the action with her mouth.

Sometime later, they went to the bed and started the real action.

After an hour of intensive and passionate session, Yuan asked her, "How do you feel?"

"I feel like the night's just begun!" Chu Liuxiang said as she moved in a riding motion while sitting on top of Yuan's body.

Another hour later, Yuan asked, "Has the effect worn off yet?"

"You don't need to worry about me, darling. Just keep going until we're both satisfied." She said to him.

Although Yuan was hesitant, as he was worried about hurting her, he ended up agreeing to her reckless decision.

After another hour, when the effects finally disappeared, Chu Liuxiang decided to consume another Love Capsule.

"Meixiu only took one Love Capsule, you know." Yuan said to her.

"I know I'm cheating a little, but I was curious." She chuckled.

Thus, they continued to embrace each other for the rest of the night.

"The Love Capsule's effect seems to have strengthened for me. It lasted 12 hours this time." Yuan said at the end of their long session.

"How are you feeling?" He asked Chu Liuxiang a moment later, who was lying on the bed, her body still twitching a little.

"That was an amazing night we spent together, darling. We should do it more often..." She said in an exhausted manner.

"I don't think that is very healthy..."

"What are you talking about? You know, you'll eventually spend more time having sex than sleeping once you accept more women into your life, so you might as well get used to it now."

"I don't really plan on having more partners, though. I am satisfied with just you and Meixiu."

"Unfortunately, you cannot plan love, darling. I also have a feeling that our family will continue to grow bigger."

"Well..."

"By the way, don't you have to meet with the Lord today?" Chu Liuxiang suddenly interrupted.

"Huh?"

Yuan froze for a moment.

"Oh crap! I completely forgot about it!"

Chu Liuxiang smiled and said, "Just go. I'll clean up the room."

"Thank you!"

Yuan went into the bathroom and quickly washed his body before getting dressed and rushing downstairs.

When he arrived at the front of the building, he could see the Manager standing there with an angry expression on her face.

"Do you have any idea how long I have been waiting for you?! One hour and fifteen minutes!" The Manager shouted at him while tapping on her watch in an aggressive manner.

"Sorry, but I was busy with something. You know, you could've just knocked on my door. Why didn't you?"

The Manager's face twitched a little, and she spoke in a slightly shaky voice, "S-Shut up! I'll do as I please!"

There was no way that she could tell him the truth— that she'd gone to his room but didn't have the courage to disturb his time with Chu Liuxiang.

'This pervert is like a dog in heat! Did he really spend the entire night screwing that Chu girl?! To think he'd do such a thing right before meeting with the Lord! Unbelievable!' She cried inwardly.

"Anyways, we're already way behind schedule! Let's go!" The Manager turned around and began power walking towards the peak of the mountain.

Sometime later, Yuan approached the Lord's cave.

"You're almost two hours late. Did something happen?" The Lord asked him.

"Well... I was busy with something and lost track of time. Sorry." Yuan replied with an apologetic smile on his face.

"He was so busy mating with the Chu girl that he'd forgotten about the meeting." The Manager suddenly said out loud.

Yuan's eyebrows twitched after hearing such words, but he didn't respond to it since it was true.

The Lord cleared his throat and spoke, "A-Anyways, I express my utmost gratitude to you for dealing with the 11 demons, Yuan."

Yuan shook his head and said, "I don't need your gratitude. I would've done it even if you didn't ask for my help."

"Very well. Then it's my turn to uphold my end of the agreement. Since you have killed the demons, I will now tell you about my true identity and the truth about Cultivation Online." The Lord said.

A few moments later, Yuan could hear the sound of footsteps coming from the cave before him.

'So he's finally showing his true self, huh?' Yuan patiently waited for the Lord to come out of his cave.

Chapter 947 - The Lord's True Identity (2)

Chapter 947 - The Lord's True Identity (2)

'Hm? These footsteps sound too heavy for a human.' Yuan quickly noticed this after hearing the Lord's footsteps.

A few moments later, the footsteps stopped, but the Lord hadn't shown himself yet.

"Having second thoughts?" Yuan asked him with a calm smile.

"No, I am just giving you some time to prepare yourself. My appearance... It might shock you."

Yuan chuckled, "Let me guess, you're super ugly? This explains why you're holed up in that cave."

"Insolence!" The Manager suddenly shouted.

"I'm just joking. Anyways, there's no need to wait for me. I already know your true identity, after all."

"Oh? You do?" The Lord sounded quite surprised.

"Yes. Well, not exactly, but I know that you're not human. You're a Divine Beast, right? I don't know your species, but you're definitely a Divine Beast."

"..."

After a moment of silence, the footsteps continued, and a large figure appeared from the cave.

"How did you find out? And how long have you known?"

The Lord asked as he came out of the cave for the first time in a very long time, revealing his massive figure.

Yuan looked at the Lord's figure with his divine sense.

The Lord was around 10 meters tall. His body resembled that of a tiger, and it was covered in a beautiful coat of thick, red fur, almost like a Tibetan mastiff.

"What are you, a tiger?" Yuan asked him in a calm voice.

"I belong to the Ancient Mastiff's bloodline. Specifically, I am a Blood Mastiff." The Lord said.

"Mastiff, so you're a dog?"

"How dare you compare the bloodline of the Blood Mastiff to a mere dog!" The Manager shouted at him again.

The Lord laughed, "I thought you'd be more nervous or surprised. How unfortunate."

Yuan shrugged, "I have met with plenty of Divine Beasts in Cultivation Online already. How do Blood Mastiffs compare to Phoenixes or Dragons?"

"Well, that depends on the grade of our bloodline and our race. Not all Phoenixes and Dragons are born equal. For example, there are over 10 different kinds of Phoenixes, and the Golden Phoenix ranks 4th amongst all Phoenixes. Meanwhile, Dragons have over 100 different bloodlines, and the Flood Dragon is ranked 94th."

"The Blood Mastiff, while they cannot compare to the most powerful Dragons and Phoenixes out there, we are stronger than most Phoenixes and Dragons."

"I see..." Yuan mumbled.

And he continued, "Anyway, I figured it out not long ago due to something Liya said."

"M-Me?!" The Manager exclaimed.

The Lord narrowed his eyes and spoke, "Let me guess... You figured it out when she said that she couldn't learn demon sealing techniques."

Yuan nodded, "That's right. All humans are capable of learning demon sealing techniques. The only beings that cannot learn them are magical beasts and Divine Beasts."

He turned to face Liya and asked her, "Are you also a Blood Mastiff?"

However, she refused to respond to him.

"You don't need to tell me if you don't want to. However, I am curious. If she can transform into a human and interact with other humans, why aren't you doing the same. Instead, you choose to stay up here." Yuan then asked.

The Lord sighed, "It's not that I don't want to transform into a human. I can't — at least not right now."

"Why not? What's preventing you from doing so?"

"I am currently maintaining a formation that requires immense spiritual energy. It's constantly absorbing my spiritual energy— so much so that I cannot even spare some to transform into a human. And before you ask, no, it's not the formation that conceals the peak of this mountain. In fact, this 'formation' is more of a 'seal' that's existing within my body."

"What does the formation do?"

"It keeps this world alive." The Lord said, dumbfounding him.

"Huh? What do you mean?"

"You see, there is a massive formation that surrounds this world. You cannot see it, but it's there. This formation is what's keeping this world from falling apart. If I deactivate the formation, this world will be destroyed. It is also my duty to keep this formation active at all times, and I have been doing this for millions of years."

Yuan was speechless. What the Lord told him was beyond even his wildest imaginations.

"You must be wondering why this world is on the verge of destruction." The Lord spoke after a moment of silence.

Yuan pondered and asked, "Does it have anything to do with Cultivation Online?"

"Yes, it does."

"Since you already know that Cultivation Online, which takes place in the Nine Heavens, exists out there, this will make explaining a lot easier."

"This world known as Earth used to be part of the Nine Heavens, but it was separated during a massive war that not only removed 'Earth' from the Nine Heavens, but also created the 'Nine Heavens' at the same time."

"I don't get it." Yuan tilted his head.

"Well, you see, the Nine Heavens wasn't always split into 9 different realms. The Nine Heavens used to be one place. This means the Lower Heaven and all of the other Heavens existed in the same plane, so you didn't need to ascend or descend. With that being said, since the world was so massive, the people made nine different continents, and each continent was called 'First Heaven', 'Second Heaven', 'Third Heaven', and so on..."

"In case you're wondering, the Nine Heavens used to be called the Divine Heaven."

"I see..." Yuan mumbled as he digested the information.

"Anyways, Earth couldn't be part of the new Nine Heavens because it was too small and had drifted too far away, and without the Nine Heavens' support, Earth could not support itself, hence why the formation is required to keep this world in one piece."

"I'm surprised you're able to support this world with that cultivation." Yuan said.

"My cultivation dropped to peak Spirit Emperor only because of the seal in my body. My real cultivation is actually far higher." The Lord sighed.

Yuan nodded, "I understand the situation of our world and the Nine Heavens, but what's the deal with Cultivation Online? What is its real purpose?"

"I'm getting there." The Lord said.

Chapter 948 - The Truth About Cultivation Online

Chapter 948 - The Truth About Cultivation Online

"Before I tell you about the truth about Cultivation Online, let me ask you this... Do you know how it works? How you can visit the Nine Heavens through Cultivation Online?" The Lord asked.

Yuan pondered for a moment before speaking, "It obviously has something to do with the console we put on our head, but I have inspected it multiple times, even taking it apart. Despite that, I couldn't find anything special about it."

"I'm not surprised, since you don't have the means to see the formation."

"Formation? There is a formation in the console?"

"Yes, and it's actually two different formations, both fairly powerful formations called the Soul Transference Array and the Spirit Avatar Array."

"The Soul Transference Array transfers a part of your soul to the Nine Heavens— just enough so that your actual body doesn't become soulless and die, and the Spirit Avatar Array transforms your separated soul into an avatar— your character."

"This is why Cultivation Online feels so real— because it's a real world, and you're there as a soul."

Yuan frowned upon hearing this, "Our soul? Isn't that really bad? If one's soul is damaged even in the slightest, it could really mess up a person's life and turn them braindead. If our character is our soul, doesn't that mean all damages inflicted on the character will also be inflicted on our soul?"

"Indeed, but you don't need to worry about that too much. While it's true that your character is made out of your soul, it's not entirely your soul. Unless you are hit by techniques specifically meant to damage one's soul, your soul won't get damaged."

"With that being said, if you die in Cultivation Online, there is a high chance that your actual soul will be damaged. This is why when players die, many of them lose their ability to cultivate— both in Cultivation Online and real life." The Lord explained.

"Of course, it's not guaranteed, hence why some people can still cultivate after they die. It is also the reason why even if you switch consoles, your character will remain the same."

"The heck?! How dare you tell me to not worry about it too much! That's super worrisome! Which genius decided to put our souls at risk while hiding the fact? And for what reason?" Yuan asked, feeling a little frustrated by the truth.

The Lord took a deep breath and spoke, "The Celestial Emperor."

"Hah? You mean the guy who rules over the Nine Heavens? Why on earth would he do such a thing?"

"Unfortunately, I do not know his intentions or goal. However, if I had to take a guess, I believe that he's trying to recruit talented people through Cultivation Online."

"How do I know that you're telling the truth?" Yuan suddenly said.

And he continued, "For all I know, you could be working for the Celestial Emperor. After all, how else would you know so much about Cultivation Online? I don't know what kind of person the Celestial Emperor is, nor do I know his purpose, but no matter his intentions, I do not agree with it. In fact, I would even say that I am against it."

"As much as I love Cultivation Online and am grateful to it, the Celestial Emperor is playing with our lives here, and he is doing so while keeping us in the dark about it. If you ask me, he's not a good guy."

"I can promise you that I am not working for the Celestial Emperor. However, I don't have any way to prove it to you, so you'll have to take my words for it."

"As someone who has lived in the Nine Heavens before it was split into nine different realms, it's only natural for me to know about the Nine Heavens and Earth. As for the truth about Cultivation Online, I knew it as soon as I saw the formations hidden within the consoles, and there is only one person in the Nine Heavens who is capable of achieving such a feat—the Celestial Emperor."

Yuan pondered for a moment before speaking, "Putting aside my trust for now, I have some questions."

"The people living within the Nine Heavens—the ones we call an NPC, how come they don't find anything wrong with us? We come back to life after we're killed, and we can log in and off at will, yet they all act as though it's completely natural."

The Lord sighed, "What I am about to say is only a theory, so I am not 100 percent on it, but I believe that the Celestial Emperor had placed a curse on these people, making it so that they don't find anything wrong with it."

"Curses like this exist?" Yuan raised an eyebrow.

"Yes. There are plenty of curses out there that can alter a person's personality, so something like this isn't too shocking if the Celestial Emperor is behind it all." The Lord nodded.

"With that being said, I don't think the curse is affecting everybody in the Nine Heavens. There are powerful Cultivators out there that surpass even the Celestial Emperor in terms of strength, so it's unlikely for these individuals to be cursed by him."

Hearing this information, Yuan remembered something, "The Great One... He knew that I didn't belong to the Nine Heavens, and he even knew my real name."

"You know the Great One?" The Lord looked at him with wide eyes.

"Not personally, but I have spoken with him once before, and I'd even accepted his Legacy."

"I see... Anyways, I have no doubt that the Great One isn't affected by the Celestial Emperor's curse. He's one of the most powerful beings in all of the Nine Heavens, after all." The Lord spoke in an admiring tone.

"Is there anything we can do to remove this curse... if it's even a curse?" Yuan then asked.

"I'm not sure, but you can try finding someone who is not affected by the curse and see if they can remove the curse." The Lord said.

"I see... That makes sense." Yuan nodded.

Chapter 949 - Traveling to the Nine Heavens

Chapter 949 - Traveling to the Nine Heavens

"Now that you know about the connection between Earth and the Nine Heavens and the truth about Cultivation Online, let's talk about the Dragon Spiral Mountain." The Lord said.

"Have you ever thought about visiting the Nine Heavens?"

"Of course." Yuan immediately nodded his head.

"Well, the Dragon Spiral Mountain is actually a gateway to the Nine Heavens, meaning you can travel to the Nine Heavens."

"Really?!" Yuan shouted in excitement.

It has been a very long time since he was this excited about something.

"Yes, but it cannot be done now. The gateway to the Nine Heavens is a two-way portal, meaning that both gates must be activated in order for it to work. While I can activate the gate in this world, we will need someone to open the gate in the Nine Heavens. If you can do that, you will be able to travel to the Nine Heavens with your real body."

"Where can I find the gate in the Nine Heavens?!" Yuan eagerly asked.

"I'm not exactly sure myself, but it should be somewhere between the Fourth Heaven and the Seventh Heaven."

"That's three realms of possibilities! Are you telling me to search every nook and cranny of these realms?!" Yuan exclaimed.

"You won't spend that much effort on looking because the name of the gate in the Nine Heavens is the same as the one in this world— Dragon Spiral Mountain. Ask the right people and you will find it right away."

"I see..."

"By the way, what will happen if I travel to the Nine Heavens with my real body? What will happen to my character?"

"Nothing. Your character will remain active even if you go there with your real body. In fact, that essentially means you will have two bodies in that world— one made of flesh and one made of your soul."

"Oh, I should've mentioned this before when we were on the subject, but when you log off Cultivation Online, your soul doesn't return to you. Your character just loses its physical form and returns to being a 'soul', which is invisible to one's eyes."

"Huh? Does that mean my soul isn't in one piece even now?" Yuan quickly asked.

"Indeed. Your current body contains only about 10 percent of your soul, and the other 90 percent is currently in the Nine Heavens where you last logged off."

"No fucking way... Is that why I find it much harder to learn techniques in this world? Because I only have 10 percent of my soul?"

"That is correct."

"My impressions of this Celestial Emperor is decreasing with every passing moment..." Yuan sighed.

"Hmm? Wait. Is this also why despite cultivating in Cultivation Online, it doesn't affect our real body? What will happen if I regain all of my soul? Will I gain all of the cultivation it has gathered?" He then asked.

"Indeed. If you reabsorb your soul, you will gain everything it has learned and acquired, and this includes its cultivation and skills." The Lord confirmed.

"Then how come some of the treasures affect our real body?"

"Treasures affect one's soul differently. Even if the soul is separated, as long as you nourish one part of the soul, the other part will also receive the benefits. Don't ask me how it works. It just does."

"Then I want to ask about the gate. How do I activate it?" Yuan asked a moment later.

"The gate is actually a formation— a Level 7 formation. If you want to activate it, you'll need to become a Level 7 Array Master." The Lord said.

"Level 7..."

"Once you're capable of activating Level 7 Arrays and Formations, I will teach you how to activate the gate."

"Sounds good." Yuan nodded.

"Any more questions?"

"Of course. I still have tons. However, the one I want answers to the most right now would be this one— You mentioned that our souls will not be harmed unless our character dies or it suffers a technique meant for the soul. I want you to elaborate on that."

The Lord nodded and spoke, "There are techniques out there that directly inflicts damage on one's soul. Such techniques are incredibly rare and valuable— perhaps the rarest kind of technique out there. However, they exist, and if you're struck by such an attack, it could shatter your soul, and 90 percent of your soul will disappear."

Yuan swallowed nervously.

"Is there any way to combat these techniques?"

The Lord shook his head and sighed, "Unfortunately, the only way to defend against techniques that damage one's soul is to have a soul that's strong enough to endure the attack, and in order to strengthen your soul, you must practice soul tempering techniques, but such techniques are as rare as soul attacking techniques."

"That would be the stat 'Soul Strength' in Cultivation Online, correct?" Yuan asked, as he remembers hearing about them from Xiao Hua.

"Indeed. There are only two ways to improve your Soul Strength— by cultivating soul tempering techniques or by consuming treasures."

Yuan turned silent for a moment before speaking, "Then how come my Soul Strength increases alongside my cultivation? I have never cultivated any soul tempering techniques, nor do I recall consuming any treasures with such effect."

"What?! Is that true?! That your Soul Strength increases when you increase your cultivation?!" The Lord appeared to be greatly shocked after hearing his words.

"Yes, it's true."

The Lord's eyes flickered with countless emotions.

"D-Do you happen to know your bloodline?" He suddenly asked.

Yuan nodded, "It's called the Immortal Monarch Bloodline. Do you know of it?"

"Immortal Monarch Bloodline!" The Lord's legs nearly gave out on him after hearing this familiar name.

Even the Manager appeared to be quite shocked by it.

"So you do know something about it. This is great. I know nothing about my bloodline, so tell me everything you know!" Yuan said with a smile on his face, his excitement growing once again.

'The Immortal Monarch... To think I'd meet his descendant here... If this isn't fate...' The Lord sighed inwardly.

Chapter 950 - Immortal Monarch

Chapter 950 - Immortal Monarch

After coming out of his daze, the Lord took a long and deep breath before speaking, "The Immortal Monarch is a prominent figure from after the Primordial Era. He has another nickname, but I will get to that later."

"First, you should probably learn more about the Nine Heavens and its history."

"The Primordial Era is the first known era. It's what some people call the 'beginning of time', as this is the furthest history goes."

"The Primordial Era lasted for countless millions of years. During this time, many legends were created."

"However, towards the end of the Primordial Era, a massive war between the first Celestial Emperor and the cultivators living in that world occurred. It was known as the Heavenly War of Immortals and Gods. I won't get into the details since it's really long and has nothing to do with our topic, but many powerful figures had died after that war."

"A few thousand years later, the Primordial Era ended when the first known demon 'Red Tyrant' suddenly showed up in the Divine Heaven. Because of the Heavenly War that resulted in the deaths of countless experts, the human race was quickly overwhelmed by the demons, thus the beginning of a new era—the Demoniac Era."

"The demons ruled the Divine Heavens for millions of years until the Divine Paragon appeared. After sealing the Demoniac Realm and defeating most of the demons out there, the Demoniac Era came to an end."

Yuan digested all of this information with a serious face.

'I see... Primordial Era and the Demonic Era... There's still so much I don't know even though I have the Divine Paragon's memories...'

The Lord continued after allowing Yuan some time to breathe.

"After the Demonic Era is an era known as the Immortal Monarch's Era, where a single person ruled."

"However, even though I say that he'd dominated the Nine Heavens, it wasn't anything official. Nobody knows the Immortal Monarch's background or where he came from, but he was so immensely powerful that not even the Celestial Emperor of that era could control him."

"With that being said, it was not his strength that truly shocked the world—it was his connections— his companions."

"The Immortal Monarch, also known as the Monarch of Beasts, was the first person in history to make Divine Beasts willingly obey him."

"What...?" Yuan was dumbfounded after hearing this information.

"Before the Immortal Monarch's Era, Divine Beasts did not communicate with humans, and to human cultivators, Divine Beasts were superior beings that lived in a different world."

"Humans revered Divine Beasts and treated them like Gods, so the idea of a Divine Beast lowering its head and serving a human was an unthinkable thing back then."

"However, the Immortal Monarch defied all logic and created history by becoming the first human to receive the Divine Beasts' support."

"As a result of this, the Immortal Monarch also became the most powerful Beast Tamer in the Nine Heavens. He was an untouchable figure that had many powerful Divine Beasts by his side."

After hearing this information about his bloodline, many things started making sense to Yuan.

The reason Feng Yuxiang and Lan Yingying found his blood delicious is most likely due to his bloodline that had many connections with Divine Beasts.

"If you don't mind me asking... May I have a drop of your blood for confirmation?" The Lord suddenly asked him.

"Sure." Yuan didn't refuse, as he wanted to see the Lord's reaction.

"W-What?! You're going to drink a human's blood?! That's insane!" The Manager suddenly shouted.

"Silence!" The Lord roared.

"If what he said is true, then he's not just any ordinary human! He's related to the Immortal Monarch, who had the support of the Nine Ancient Beasts! Do you have any idea what this means?!"

"What's the Nine Ancient Beasts?" Yuan asked out of curiosity.

"The Nine Ancient Beasts refers to the most powerful and ancient Divine Beasts in the Nine Heavens. They're said to be the first Divine Beasts to ever exist, so they're basically the ancestors of all Divine Beasts."

"I see... Anyway, here's my blood."

Yuan collected a single drop of his blood and gave it to the Lord.

The Lord's body visibly trembled afterward.

"T-This is...! This is, without doubt, the Immortal Monarch's Bloodline! Only the Immortal Monarch's Bloodline can taste unique to us Divine Beasts!" The Lord exclaimed.

"The blood of normal humans tastes like muddy water to us Divine Beast, but the Immortal Monarch is different. His blood tastes would taste more delicious than even the most delicious thing we have ever eaten, and that is exactly what your blood tasted like."

"Is that so..."

Yuan noticed the weird expression on the Manager's face and turned to look at her with a smile on his face.

"Liya, do you also want to taste my blood? I can tell that you're curious." He asked her.

"There's no way that I would want to taste the blood of a human! I don't care if you have the Immortal Monarch's Bloodline— I won't accept you—a human!" The Manager responded with gritted teeth.

Yuan raised his eyebrows and turned to ask the Lord, "Did something happen with her? Her hate for humans doesn't appear to be natural."

"M-Mind your own business!" The Manager shouted.

The Lord shook his head and said, "I'm afraid that I do not have the right to tell her story. If you truly wish to know, you must ask her."

"Don't even think about it! Because I won't tell you no matter what!" The Manager continued.

"Don't worry, I won't force you. You can tell me when you're ready." Yuan said with a smile.

'Damn, he's so irritating! Why does he have to make it sound like I am going to tell him in the future?! And he sounds so confident about it!' The Manager cried inwardly.

"I apologize for her, Young Master Yuan." The Lord said a moment later.

"Huh? What did you just call me?" Yuan doubted his hearing just now.

Chapter 951 - Immortal Monarch's Descendant

Chapter 951 - Immortal Monarch's Descendant

"Since it's confirmed that you have the Immortal Monarch's Bloodline, I must address you properly. It's only natural, as you're the Immortal Monarch's descendant." The Lord said.

"Just continue calling me Yuan. I don't like it when people suddenly change the way they address me. It feels awkward."

"I understand, Yuan." The Lord nodded.

"Anyways, I still have more questions."

"Ask away."

"Why are you responsible for the seal on Earth? Who decided that?"

"It was my decision and idea to accept the seal." The Lord said.

"Why? Your strength is sealed, and your energy is constantly being absorbed by the seal. Why would you agree to what is essentially constant torture?"

The Lord smiled and said, "Believe it or not, I do it because I love humans."

"Huh? What kind of nonsense is that?"

"I know, you probably think it's stupid. I am well aware of how cringe and typical my reasoning is, but it's the truth. Furthermore, I was born on Earth — at least before it got its name. Earth was a small part of First Heaven before, and it was my hometown."

Yuan sighed, "Well, I'm not going to make fun of your decision even though I find it ridiculous, so I'm going to go ahead and move to the next question."

"Since there are two Divine Beasts here, could there be other Divine Beasts hidden in this world? What about magical beasts? Where did they go? And how did the existence of cultivation disappear for the majority of the world?"

"I'm not sure if there are other Divine Beasts out there since it's been countless years since I have left this place, but it's not impossible. As for the magical beasts... They were all hunted to extinction. Normally, more magical beasts would be born after some time, but due to the lack of spiritual energy in this world and its small size, such a thing did not happen."

"Now onto why the majority of this world forgot about cultivation... Honestly, I don't know how it happened. I went into a deep slumber shortly after I took the seal into my body, and when I woke up, it was as though the entire world had forgotten about cultivation."

"With that being said, the people living on Earth before it was separated from the Nine Heavens were mostly mortals, so that could be a cause."

"Perhaps the people of this world decided to give up on cultivation altogether and started focusing on technology instead. Who knows."

"After all, if you think about it, even a somewhat powerful cultivation can remove mountains with ease, and considering the size of this world, it would be for the best if people stopped cultivation."

"Let's take you for example, Yuan. At your current level, you are more than capable of destroying this world, and you're only a Spirit Grandmaster. However, these are all just speculations."

"I see..." Yuan mumbled.

After pondering for sometime, he spoke, "All right, I will leave things here for now. There is a lot of new information that I need to think about and digest. When I'm ready to talk again, I will come back with more questions."

"Very well. We'll be here whenever you need us." The Lord said.

"Liya, escort him back, and do not be disrespectful to him." The Lord turned to her and said.

"Oh! One more thing. Do you mind if I tell my friends about the stuff I learned today?" Yuan suddenly asked.

"If you want. Just try not to spread it too much. It might cause the entire world to panic."

"All right."

Yuan left the peak of the mountain shortly after.

"You don't need to follow me all the way. I can get back by myself." Yuan said to the Manager after they left the formation.

"Say no more." The Manager turned around and started walking back to the peak of the mountain without any hesitation.

After returning to the peak of the mountain, the Manager walked straight to the cave and spoke in a frustrated voice, "Why did you lower yourself to him? That wasn't part of the agreement!"

"He's the Immortal Monarch's descendant. It's only natural for Divine Beasts to lower their heads before him."

"That's bullshit! He's not the Immortal Monarch! He's just a descendant!"

"Descendant or not, as long as he has the bloodline, we are obligated to respect him. This is the will of our ancestors— the will of the Nine Ancient Beasts."

"In fact, let me give you a suggestion, Liya. Go serve him. It will benefit you greatly."

"What?! You want me to serve that pervert?! Are you insane? I won't do such a thing even if it's the last thing I do!" She immediately refused.

"Those that carry the Immortal Monarch's Bloodline are destined to do great things. There are even Divine Beasts out there that dream of being beside someone with that bloodline. You should really take advantage of your situation and create a connection with him before he inevitably travels to the Nine Heavens with his real body."

"You sound like you want to be his servant. Why don't you do it then?"

The Lord shook his head, "I would be lying if I say that I don't want to serve him, but I am not worthy to be by his side."

"You, on the other hand..."

"Don't even think about it. I will never serve a human!"

"What a pity. His blood is really tasty, you know? If you become his servant, you might be able to drink his blood very often. Legend also has it that if a Divine Beast drinks enough of the Immortal Monarch's blood, they can 'evolve', becoming more powerful than ever."

The Manager swallowed nervously after hearing such words, but she quickly shook the idea away.

"I don't care if he's the Immortal Monarch's descendant— even if he's the Immortal Monarch himself, I will not serve him! I hate humans! And I will never forgive them for their crimes!" After saying such words, the Manager turned around and disappeared from the scene.

Chapter 952 - On the Verge of Destruction

Chapter 952 - On the Verge of Destruction

After returning home, Yuan gathered everyone in the faction to let them know the truth about Cultivation Online.

"What I am about to say is very shocking, and you might even not believe me, but trust me, it's real."

"First and foremost, Cultivation Online— the Nine Heavens is real, and our world used to be part of it. The Nine Heavens was known as Divine Heaven before, but something happened, causing it to split into many different pieces."

"The nine largest parts of Divine Heaven became known as the Nine Heavens."

"Earth was too small and had drifted too far away to join the Nine Heavens, so we became our own world."

"However, because of the separation, Earth isn't in a good condition. Hell, you can even say that it's on the verge of destruction."

"What?!" Everyone there exclaimed in a shocked voice.

"Yes, even now, the world is on the verge of collapsing on itself. The only reason it's not is because of the Lord— the Lord of the Dragon Spiral Mountain."

"He's keeping this world safe with a powerful formation that surrounds this world. Oh, you should know that the Lord is not human. He's actually a Divine Beast."

"W-Wait, wait, wait! Let me digest a little before you continue." Wang Ming suddenly said.

"So let me get this straight. This world used to exist in the Nine Heavens before it got split into many parts, and it's now on the verge of destruction. However, thanks to the Lord of the Dragon Spiral Mountain, who is not human, the world is safe. Is that it?"

"Yes, that's right." Yuan calmly nodded.

"Holy shit... I can't believe it... I mean, I believe you, but I am having trouble believing it..."

"How long do you think the Lord will continue protecting this world?" Shi Lang suddenly asked.

"If he suddenly decides to give up, or he can no longer support this world, won't that mean the end of the world for us?"

"According to him, he's been protecting this world ever since Earth was separated from the Nine Heavens. That's at least a few million years." Yuan said.

And he continued, "I don't know how long he can continue protecting us, but I doubt it will be forever. I will ask him the next time we meet."

"Is there anything we can do? I don't like the feeling of entrusting the entire human race to one person. Like Shi Lang had mentioned, this Lord could suddenly give up and destroy the world."

Yuan pondered for a moment before speaking, "I'm just speculating, but perhaps the seal can be passed onto another person. If I become strong enough, I might be able to bear this seal and keep this world safe. With that being said, I will need to seriously increase my cultivation before that can happen."

"There's another thing we can do... We can all move to the Nine Heavens and live there instead. I was going to mention this next, but we can travel to the Nine Heavens from here. The Dragon Spiral Mountain is a gateway to the Nine Heavens, but we need to activate the gate from both sides before we can travel there."

"Basically, we will be abandoning Earth, right?" Wang Bingbing said.

"Basically." Yuan nodded.

"Honestly, there's nothing we can do right but trust the Lord that he will not destroy the world. In the meantime, I will try to see if there is anything I can do to prevent this world from getting destroyed in the future."

Sometime later, Yuan continued their conversation.

"Let's talk about Cultivation Online now. The console that we've all been using has two different formations hidden within. The Soul Transference Array and the Soul Avatar Array."

"Essentially, these arrays transfer a part of our soul to the Nine Heavens, and using our soul, it creates our character, allowing us to visit the Nine Heavens without actually going there."

"However, there's the thing. Because our character is our soul, any damages done to our character can actually harm our real bodies. I hope none of you have died in Cultivation Online."

Everyone there exchanged shocked looks with each other.

"I haven't died yet."

"Me neither."

Yuan sighed in relief after hearing that nobody in the faction has died in Cultivation Online.

"Now that we all know our characters are created using our souls, we should be extra careful with ourselves and try to not get hurt as much as possible, just in case."

Yuan turned to face Li Jinxi and continued, "Especially you, Jinxi. Out of everyone here, I worry about you the most. You're the type to go overboard and get too excited very quickly."

"Getting your soul damaged is nothing like hurting your physical body. If your soul is damaged, you could easily become braindead."

Everyone there trembled after hearing such words.

"Now that you mention it... There are rumors of players who have suddenly become brain dead after dying too many times in Cultivation Online." Wu Zao suddenly said.

"I will verify that information later."

"Hey, if it's actually this dangerous to play Cultivation Online, shouldn't we warn the others and make this information public?" Xi Murong suddenly asked.

"I don't think anyone would believe us even if we tried to warn them..." Wang Bingbing sighed.

"Right? They'll probably think we're crazy or something." Chu Liuxiang agreed.

"We won't say anything to the public for now. Cultivation Online was created by the Celestial Emperor, who is the ruler of the Nine Heavens, and not even the Lord knows his purpose for creating Cultivation Online. Also, the Celestial Emperor willingly put all of our lives at risk for his own goals. I don't care what his intentions are, but he's playing with our lives, nor does he seem to care about the consequences." Yuan said with gritted teeth.

"And I will not let anyone play with our lives— not even if he's the Celestial Emperor!"

Everyone there swallowed nervously after hearing his words that sounded like a declaration of war to the Celestial Emperor.

Chapter 953 - Leaving the Dragon Spiral Mountain

Chapter 953 - Leaving the Dragon Spiral Mountain

"Now that you all know the truth, I am going to tell you my plans." Yuan spoke again after letting the others some time to digest the information.

"I will first find the Dragon Spiral Mountain within the Nine Heavens and activate it. Then I will travel to the Nine Heavens and reabsorb my soul. That way, I will be at my full potential."

"I'm not exactly sure what I am going to do afterward, but I will think of something by then— hopefully."

"Oh yeah, I should also warn you about techniques that can damage your soul. Since your character is created from your soul, it wouldn't be wise to be struck by such a fatal attack. Therefore, avoid them at all costs."

Sometime later, Yuan said to them, "Anyways, now that is out of the way, I have a small announcement to make."

"My sister's birthday is coming up soon, and I plan on visiting her, so I won't be here for a few days starting tomorrow. Any questions?"

Chu Liuxiang immediately raised her hand and said, "I wanted to ask you this sooner, but can I go with you? I want to meet Yu Rou in person this time."

"I don't mind." Yuan nodded.

"Thank you!"

Everyone returned to their own rooms to further think about the information Yuan revealed shortly after.

That night, Yuan went to spend the night with Meixiu.

"You're not going to use the Love Capsules this time?" Yuan asked her as they prepared for their love session.

"No... I was only curious about it last time. Honestly, it doesn't feel right—consuming medicine to enhance my performance. I don't want to rely on medicine to keep up with you. However, I will admit that it was a fun time. I have never been pushed so far past my limit."

Yuan smiled and said, "I also don't want to rely on those Love Capsules. Chu Liuxiang said that I will eventually find more partners, and when that happens, I will need the stamina to love them as well. Even though a single Love Capsule can keep me going for half a day, I don't like the feeling of being out of control, so I will also refrain from using them in the future and use my own strength to satisfy you."

"Yuan..."

Meixiu made her advancement and kissed Yuan on the lips.

However, right as things started getting intense, Meixiu's cell phone started ringing.

"This is..." Meixiu swallowed nervously after seeing the name of the caller.

"Who could be calling so late into the night?" Yuan asked her as he stopped moving his body.

"I-It's Yu Rou..." Meixiu said.

"Should I answer it?"

"Go ahead." Yuan nodded as he pulled his sword out of Meixiu's cave before laying on the bed beside her.

Meixiu took a deep breath before accepting the call.

"Hello! Meixiu, is this a good time?" Yu Rou's voice was filled with enthusiasm.

"Yes, I can speak now." Meixiu said.

"Great! Do you know what my brother is doing right now? I was hoping to speak with him."

Meixiu turned to look at Yuan, who quickly shook his head.

"Sorry, but Yuan is actually out of the house now..."

"Eh? Isn't it nighttime over there? What is he doing out so late?"

"He had to speak with the Lord of the Dragon Spiral Mountain. It seemed very important." Meixiu didn't think she'd have to lie to Yu Rou in such a manner, and she felt like someone who was lying her way out of being caught cheating.

"Haaa... I haven't been able to hear Brother's voice in so long. I think this is the longest I have ever gone without seeing him or hearing his voice!"

"What did you want to speak with Yuan about? I can tell him for you when he returns."

Yu Rou remained silent for a good moment before finally speaking, "It's nothing too important. I just wanted to see if we can schedule a video call in a few days. It's my birthday, after all."

"Do you think my brother even remembers my birthday?" Yu Rou then asked.

"Of course! Yuan won't forget something so important!"

"Really? I don't know... It's just been so long... I'm afraid that he's forgotten about me now that he's truly free."

"Don't be silly, Yu Rou. You're his precious little sister. He will never forget about you." Meixiu reassured her.

"Then let's put that to the test. Don't tell my brother about this conversation, and don't remind him about my birthday. If he truly remembers, he will be the one contacting me instead."

"Okay, I won't say anything to Yuan. I promise."

"Thank you, Meixiu. It's almost time for my morning training, so I leave now. I will call you again later to listen to your stories!"

"See you later, Yu Rou."

After closing the phone, Meixiu turned to look at Yuan and said,
"Technically, you overheard our conversation, so I didn't tell you again."

Yuan showed a bittersweet smile and said, "That silly girl is worried that I might have forgotten about her? My one and only sister? Not going to lie, I feel a little sad."

"And in order to make sure that she will never have such worries again, I will give her the best birthday present ever!"

"What do you have in mind?" Meixiu asked out of curiosity.

"I will tell you when we're on the plane tomorrow."

The two of them resumed their business with each other shortly after.

The following morning, Yuan, Meixiu, and Chu Liuxiang left the Dragon Spiral Mountain in a car and made their way to the airport.

On their way to the airport, Yuan made sure to tell Chu Liuxiang that his relationship with them must be kept a secret.

"I don't mind keeping our relationship a secret, but if she asks me, I will tell her that I love you— not that she doesn't know that already." Chu Liuxiang chuckled.

Sometime later, the three of them boarded the airplane and started flying towards Yu Rou's location.

Chapter 954 - Player Yuan's Face

Chapter 954 - Player Yuan's Face

"So, what are your plans? What do you plan on giving Yu Rou for her birthday?" Meixiu asked Yuan shortly after the plane took off.

"Well, first of all, I need to meet with White Lotus and schedule my visit to their faction. As for Yu Rou's birthday present, I am going to give her a concert." Yuan said.

"A concert? Like the one you gave before she left?" Meixiu raised her eyebrows.

"You cannot call that a concert! I meant a real concert! And it will not be under my alias, Tian Yang. I will be going as 'Yu Tian'."

Meixiu's jaw dropped slightly upon hearing his words.

"I am done hiding. I will let the world know that I have returned. I'm sure this will make Yu Rou happier than any physical gift I can buy her."

"What about the Yu Family? They will definitely try to force you to return." Chu Liuxiang asked.

"What about them? I am no longer in the family, and they even disowned me." Yuan said.

"That might not be the case." Chu Liuxiang shook her head, and she continued, "Even though they have disowned you, you are still legally 'Yu Tian' and part of the Yu Family. Furthermore, I'm sure that you'd signed some contracts with the Yu Family when you were still young and active, which will most likely legally bind you to their company."

"Lulu is right, Yuan." Meixiu said.

"You probably don't remember this, but your parents made you sign this contract that legally binds you to their company... forever. And unlike my mother, you cannot buy your way out of the contract. The only way to leave is if the Yu Family willingly destroys the contract."

"What the hell? That sounds illegal. And wouldn't I be too young to sign contracts?" Yuan said.

"Not if they altered the contract without your knowledge and made it look like you signed it at a legal age. It's a common trick in the industry." Chu Liuxiang said.

Yuan sighed, "I'm not surprised. However, that won't stop my return. They can try whatever they want, but I am now strong enough to fight back. If they try anything funny, I will destroy the entire Yu Family."

"What about you, Meixiu? Do you plan on giving anything to Yu Rou?"

"Well... I have been thinking about it, but I don't know what to give her. I have never given her a birthday gift since it wasn't appropriate for me, her servant, to do so."

"I think she will be happy with anything you give her. It's the thought that truly counts."

"What about you?" Meixiu suddenly turned to Chu Liuxiang and asked her.

"Unfortunately, I don't know Yu Rou enough to buy something. Of course, I could just buy something random, like buying gifts for a stranger I have never met, but that doesn't sit right with me, so I am going to try and understand Yu Rou as much as I can so that I can buy something worthy for her next year!"

Sometime later, Meixiu asked, "By the way, how are you going to start a concert? We only have three days until Yu Rou's birthday, two and half if you consider how long it will take us to get there."

"It's not going to be an official concert. I'm just going to set up a public concert and do it there. I've already asked the Cultivators' Association to help me with the setup. They happily agreed."

"I see..."

Many hours later at the Eternal Lotuses' headquarters.

"Miss Bai, your ride is prepared. We can leave whenever. Player Yuan's plane should arrive in two hours." Her Manager notified her.

"I understand. We'll leave in five minutes."

"Understood."

Sometime later, White Lotus secretly left the headquarters with her manager to meet with Yuan.

About half an hour later, they arrived at the most luxurious and famous hotel in the entire entire— White Lotus.

Indeed, it was named after White Lotus by her family, who owned the hotel.

"Welcome, Young Lady."

The Manager of the hotel personally greeted her at the front door.

"Are the preparations ready?" She asked him.

"Yes. The entire balcony has been reserved for the Young Lady, and our best chefs are all here today."

"Good." White Lotus nodded.

"The Young Lady sure is dressed elegantly today. Just who is she meeting today?" The hotel manager wondered inwardly as he gazed upon White Lotus' beautiful appearance that attracted the attention of everyone there.

"How long until 'he' arrives?" White Lotus asked her Manager.

"The plane will land in 30 minutes. He should arrive approximately in 1 hour and 20 minutes."

"And his ride?"

"Already at the airport waiting for his arrival."

"I'm going to double check my appearance. You should also go to the airport to make sure his arrival is as smooth as possible." White Lotus said before leaving.

"I understand."

'I haven't seen her this motivated and serious in such a long time. It's almost like she's meeting with her crush... Even though she says that she's not nervous, anyone can tell that's a lie...' The manager couldn't help but smile inwardly.

Half an hour later, Yuan's plane landed in the airport.

After leaving the airplane, Yuan immediately noticed three conspicuous beautiful women standing at his terminal, and they were dressed in a black suit, almost like they were from the secret service.

Yuan immediately approached these three women after seeing the sign one of them was holding that had a single word on it, 'Birthday'.

"Are you with White Lotus?" Yuan asked them.

"You must be Player Yuan. It's a pleasure to finally meet you. I am White Lotus' personal manager, Jasmine. These two behind me will be your bodyguard for today."

'So this is what the famous Player Yuan looks like...'

These three ladies thought to themselves as they stared at Yuan's handsome face. They expected him to be wearing a mask to protect his identity like in Cultivation Online, but the only thing he was wearing on his face was a pair of sunglasses, which was out of their expectations.

Chapter 955 - Meeting White Lotus in Person

"Just call me Yuan." He said to the three ladies.

"By the way, these are my friends, Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang. They will be visiting my sister as well."

"I understand." Jasmine nodded calmly.

However, she was inwardly shocked by Yuan's appearance.

'Our investigations on Yu Rou's only brother, Yu Tian, said that he had suffered an unknown illness when he was at a very young age, becoming a cripple that couldn't even leave the bed without someone helping him. But he looks perfectly healthy to me...'

"Our car is outside. We'll bring you to White Lotus," she said a moment later.

Yuan and the others followed these ladies outside to their limousine.

Yuan's group and Jasmine and one of the bodyguards sat in the back while the second bodyguard drove the limousine.

"If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to ask me." Jasmine said to them.

"Sure."

However, the ride to the hotel where White Lotus was waiting was much more quiet than Jasmine had anticipated.

Neither Yuan nor the other two spoke a single word for the entire trip, which made Jasmine and the bodyguards quite nervous, as they were worried that something was troubling them.

Jasmine wanted to start a conversation with Yuan multiple times, but she was worried that she might bother them by doing so.

In the end, she decided to remain silent and spent the entire trip staring at Yuan's face, who was silently staring in front of him.

Although it looked like Yuan had turned into a stone statue, he was actually enjoying the view of the city with his Divine Sense.

As for Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang, they had their eyes closed, almost as though they were trying to sleep.

Truth was, they had nothing to say, so they just closed their eyes and patiently waited for them to arrive at their destination.

About twenty minutes later, the limousine came to a complete stop, and Jasmine spoke, "We have arrived at our destination, Yuan."

"This hotel..." Yuan noticed the name of this hotel to be the same as White Lotus, and this made him curious.

"This is the White Lotus Hotel. It's the highest rated and most luxurious hotel in the entire city. The hotel is also owned by the Bai Family. In case you didn't know already, White Lotus' real name is Bai Lianhua. As for why the hotel is named after White Lotus, her parents were the one who came up with this idea."

The moment Yuan stepped out of the car, he noticed a beautiful woman with a familiar face approaching their direction, her silky white hair flowing behind her back like a cape.

He turned to greet her with a gentle smile on his face, "Hello, White Lotus. Thank you for coming all the way out here for us."

"It's my pleasure, Yuan. How was your journey here? I hope it was comfortable." White Lotus returned his smile with one of her own, but she was inwardly shocked for the same reason that shocked Jasmine.

'Did something go wrong with our intel? He looks nothing like a cripple!' She cried inwardly.

"She's quite the woman, don't you think so?" Chu Liuxiang whispered to Meixiu.

She nodded her head and said, "Quite bold with her appearance, too."

White Lotus was wearing a white dress that complimented her silky hair and tall figure perfectly, but it was also quite revealing, especially the area around her chest that barely covered her bare breasts.

"She's definitely trying to seduce Yuan with her big boobs. I must admit, they're a size or two bigger than ours." Chu Liuxiang whispered to Meixiu, who was speechless.

"Let me introduce you to my friends. This is Meixiu, who used to work for my sister, and this is Chu Liuxiang, my childhood friend. They're also here to celebrate Yu Rou's birthday." Yuan calmly introduced his companions to White Lotus.

White Lotus looked at Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang and smiled, "Nice to meet you."

'He's visiting his sister on her birthday with two beautiful women by his side? What is their relationship with him?' She wondered inwardly.

Yuan and the others followed White Lotus into the hotel shortly after while the workers there handled their luggage.

"Do you want to visit your rooms now? I'm sure you're tired after your long flight." White Lotus asked them.

"We're fine. We had plenty of sleep on the plane." Yuan said.

"With that being said, I am quite hungry."

"Then let's head to the restaurant first."

Sometime later, they arrived at the roof of the hotel, where they could see the majority of the city without any obstruction.

"Wow, what beautiful scenery." Chu Liuxiang said out loud.

"I'm glad you like it."

White Lotus led them to the only table there.

Once they were all seated, White Lotus said, "Order anything you want and don't worry about the bill."

Yuan looked at the menu that was much smaller than what he was used to.

Because he has never eaten at an expensive restaurant, he did not know that most luxurious restaurants like this offer a smaller menu to keep the food quality higher.

"I will have everything on the menu." Yuan said after a glance at the menu.

"E-Everything?" White Lotus and the waiter were taken aback by his words.

"Don't worry, I won't waste any food." Yuan smiled at them.

Sometime later, once all of their orders were taken, the waiter rushed to the kitchen and told the chefs to cook everything on the menu and some more.

"What? I was told that we would only be serving very few guests, not several families!" The chefs were baffled by the news.

Despite their shock, the chefs immediately began their work, causing the temperature in the kitchen to rise very quickly.

While they waited, White Lotus started the conversation by saying to Yuan, "By the way, those sunglasses look really good on you."

"Thank you. But I am not wearing these for fashion. To tell you the truth, I am actually blind." Yuan said with a smile.

"Blind?" White Lotus was at loss for words.

Chapter 956 - Who Are You Trying to Seduce?!

'How can he be blind? He's walking around just fine without any support...'
White Lotus wondered to herself after hearing Yuan's seemingly outrageous claim.

Yuan smiled and removed his sunglasses, revealing to her his silver eyes.

White Lotus covered her mouth in shock and asked in a trembling voice,
"I'm sorry... But how...?"

"Once you reach Spirit Master, you will be able to use something called Divine Sense, which will allow you to see your surroundings without needing to use your actual eyes. It's a very convenient skill, and you can even see things that you normally wouldn't be able to see with your bare eyes."

"Y-You're already a Spirit Master?" White Lotus was shocked once again.

'I am still only at the 3rd level of Spirit Warrior, yet he's already a Spirit Master?! How does he progress so fast?'

"Actually, I am a Spirit Grandmaster right now." Yuan said.

"What?!" White Lotus stood up from shock and shouted, startling them.

"E-Excuse me..." White Lotus quickly realized her mistake and sat back down with her face slightly rosy.

'If I recall correctly, even the 2nd strongest player is only a peak Spirit Master! If we don't include the person himself, this guy has managed to surpass the strongest cultivator in Cultivation Online in the real world! This achievement is nothing short of absurd!' She cried inwardly.

It was at this moment that White Lotus realized just how much she and the rest of the world were underestimating him.

'I must rope him into my Bai Family at all cost! Even if he doesn't join us, I want to maintain a good relationship with him! Fortunately for us, his younger sister is a member of our faction. This gives us a massive advantage over the others!'

White Lotus was getting more nervous with every passing moment, and the mission her family assigned her resounded louder and clearer.

"Player Yuan must join our Bai Family! You must do whatever you can to win him over, even if you have to use your own body!"

"Are you okay? You don't seem very well." Yuan suddenly asked her after noticing her pale complexion.

"E-Eh? Sorry, I was just thinking about some things. I am fine." White Lotus immediately fixed her expression and even put a charming smile on her face.

"Anyways, let's talk about your purpose here— to surprise Yu Rou. I already have everything planned to make sure your surprise visit is a success!"

"Actually... About that... There's been a change of plans."

"Huh? What do you mean?"

"Well, I have decided to surprise Yu Rou in a different manner. There will be a public concert on the day of her birthday. I want you to bring Yu Rou to the concert without letting her realize the truth. I'm sorry if this will inconvenience you." Yuan explained.

"Of course not. I will make sure to send Yu Rou to the concert without fail. But does this mean you no longer want to visit our Eternal Lotuses' headquarters?" White Lotus asked.

"I don't want to trouble you or your faction since—"

"It's no trouble at all! And since I have already prepared for your visit at the faction, it would be a waste if you didn't show up."

"If you say it like that, I guess I can visit your faction and see for myself how my sister has been living lately." Yuan nodded.

The food arrived shortly after, and they stopped talking temporarily to eat.

"Wow, this food is delicious!" Yuan said in a pleasantly surprised voice as he constantly shoved food inside his mouth.

"I'm glad you enjoy it." White Lotus smiled.

An hour later.

'He really finished everything...White Lotus was impressed by Yuan's eating talent.

After the workers there cleaned up the table, they resumed their conversation.

"There's still another two days before Yu Rou's birthday. What do you plan on doing until then?" White Lotus asked.

"We'll probably just look around the city. Meixiu still needs to buy Yu Rou a birthday present, too."

"I see... Then do you mind if I tag along with you guys? I can be your guide." White Lotus asked.

"Are you sure? What about your faction? Won't they become suspicious if you're gone for too long?"

"It's fine. I rarely get involved with the members, anyway. And it's only for two days. I have been gone for longer before. Oh, if you're worried that I might attract too much attention, I can go in a disguise."

"You're even going as far as disguising yourself? I kind of feel bad for making you do so much work just to guide us around."

"It's fine. It's also my desire to spend more time with you." White Lotus said with a slightly blushing face.

"T-There's still a lot I want to talk to you about, too! Especially after our conversation in Cultivation Online."

"If you really want to come with us, I won't stop you." Yuan said a moment later.

"Thank you!" White Lotus showed a beaming smile.

However, that smile would disappear a moment later when someone shouted, "W-Wait! You can't go out there!"

"Do you know who I am?! Get out of my way! I have business with White Lotus and the bastard she's meeting with! I know she's out there!"

"Hey!"

A tall figure suddenly stormed through the guards and onto the roof, where Yuan and the others were.

"Who's that?" Yuan asked.

"I'm really sorry. That's Zheng Weimin, and he's been infatuated with me for a while now, to the point where he's stalking me. Don't worry, I will deal with him immediately."

White Lotus left the table and approached the young man.

"Zheng Weimin! I don't remember inviting you! How dare you barge in here and disturb my important meeting with an esteemed guest! I will give you three seconds to turn around and leave before I toss you out myself!"

Zheng Weimin pointed at her body with trembling hands and roared, "Look at you! Who are you trying to seduce with such a slutty dress?!"

He then turned to look at Yuan and continued, "Is it him?! Is that the bastard you're trying to seduce?! Not on my watch!"

"Wow... What a guy..." Chu Liuxiang mumbled, finding the situation to be incredibly amusing for some reason.

Chapter 957 - Young Master Zheng

"That's it! I have had enough of your nonsense!" White Lotus started approaching Zheng Weimin aggressively.

"What do you think you're doing, White Lotus? Do you really dare to lay your hands on me?! In case you forgot, your Bai Family is only ranked 7th in the Legacy Ranking whilst my Zheng Family is ranked 5th, not even mentioning our allies! Touch even a hair on my body and I will start a war with your Bai Family!"

White Lotus gritted her teeth in frustration.

"I don't care even if you're ranked first in the Legacy Ranking! I will not forgive you for your actions today!"

"White Lotus." Yuan's calm voice suddenly resounded, causing her to halt and turn to look at him.

"That anger does not suit your face," he said with a smile.

"..." White Lotus' face immediately flushed with redness.

When Zheng Weimin saw White Lotus' face, his anger skyrocketed to a new level, and he immediately started power walking towards Yuan's table.

"Wait—" White Lotus tried to stop him, but Yuan gestured for her to stop.

Yuan stood up from his seat and faced Zheng Weimin directly.

"I don't know who you are, but you have guts. I will give you that."

Yuan smiled and said, "I don't know what business you have with White Lotus, but can you do it another time? We're having an important conversation right now."

"I don't give a rat's ass about your conversation. Nobody talks to my woman without my permission!"

"That's not very reasonable..." Yuan shook his head in a pitiful manner.

"Reasoning? Hah! Who cares about reasoning! Do you know who I am?! My surname is Zheng! My family is ranked 5 in the Legacy Ranking!"

'Legacy... I wonder if they have anything to do with the Seven Legacy Families in the Nine Heavens.' Yuan wondered inwardly.

"Sorry, but I'm not really knowledgeable about the Legacy Ranking, so your words mean nothing to me."

"Don't worry, the only words you need to understand are— If you dare come near my woman again, I will make you regret being born!"

Zheng Weimin suddenly glanced at Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang and grinned, "Are they your women? They're not bad. How about I take them from you so you know how it feels?"

"Let's not involve my friends in your nonsense."

"And who are you to stop me?!" Zheng Weimin suddenly moved and reached for Meixiu with his claw-like hands.

However, before he could even get close to Meixiu, Yuan extended his hands and grabbed Zheng Weimin by the neck faster than one can blink their eyes.

"Get your hands off Young Master Zheng!"

His guards that had been in the background started flooding the roof, even pointing their pistols at Yuan.

However, Yuan acted like he couldn't even see them and proceeded to walk towards the edge of the building with Zheng Weimin still in his hold.

The guards didn't dare to actually shoot their guns, as they were afraid of hitting Zheng Weimin by accident.

Once Yuan was at the edge of the building, everybody there expected him to stop, but to their absolute shock, Yuan continued walking off the edge of the building.

"ARE YOU INSANE?!"

"YOUNG MASTER!"

The guards and White Lotus freaked out when they saw this.

However, contrary to their expectations, Yuan didn't fall off the building and actually continued walking in the air, almost as though there was an invisible platform underneath him.

"W-What the hell is going on?" White Lotus mumbled in a dazed voice, wondering if her eyes were playing tricks on her.

Once he was a few meters away from the roof, Yuan stopped walking and spoke in a calm voice, "I don't care if you badmouth me, but don't you dare try to touch my precious friends with your dirty hands."

Zheng Weimin wanted to scream, but Yuan had cut off his voice by choking him. He also wanted to break free from Yuan's grasp, but seeing that the floor was hundreds of meters at the bottom, he didn't dare to even move, as he would fall to his death from this height even with his first level Spirit Warrior cultivation base.

"I have killed thousands of people inside Cultivation Online, but I have never killed someone in this world. Do you wish to be the first?" Yuan asked him in a cold voice.

"N... No...!" Zheng Weimin muttered in a mosquito-like voice.

"Too late." Yuan suddenly released his hold on Zheng Weimin, letting him fall down.

"AAAAHHHHHHHHHH! I DON'T WANT TO DIE!!!" Zheng Weimin cried in a hysterical voice as his bladder gave up on him during the free fall.

"Hmph."

When Zheng Weimin was a moment away from turning into meat paste on the street, Yuan caught him and flew back to the roof of the hotel.

Once they were on the roof again, Yuan tossed Zheng Weimin, who had lost consciousness and sullied his pants, in front of his guards.

"Get that fool out of here. He's dirtying this place with his filth. Oh, and tell him to stop bothering White Lotus when he wakes up." Yuan said to the guards, who were in a daze trying to comprehend what they'd just witnessed.

"Guards! Get them out of here!" White Lotus shouted after snapping out of her daze.

Very quickly, the guards working for her escorted Zheng Weimin and his men out of the hotel.

"I'm really sorry about what just happened! I will make this up to you! I swear!" White Lotus apologized to them with her head lowered.

Yuan casually waved his hand, "Don't worry about it. You can put all of the blame on that guy."

Once White Lotus calmed down, she asked him, "By the way... What on earth was that just now? You were..."

"Flying?" Yuan interrupted.

She nodded eagerly.

"You'll be able to fly as well once you reach Spirit Grandmaster," he said.

Although he wasn't able to immediately start flying after reaching Spirit Grandmaster and had to rely on his sword to fly, he practiced his Qi Manifestation almost everyday and managed to finally fly just a week ago.

"No way..." White Lotus muttered in a baffled voice, still not daring to believe it.

Chapter 958 - Legacy Ranking

"Do you want to try it?" Yuan suddenly asked.

"Try? Try what?"

"Flying."

White Lotus swallowed nervously after hearing his words, and the scene of Yuan soaring through the clouds while carrying her like a princess appeared in her mind.

"Are you sure? I might be a little heavy..." White Lotus said with a stiff smile.

Although she really wanted to experience flying in the sky, she didn't have the courage to accept his offer, especially when she's wearing such a revealing dress.

"Don't worry, it'll be fine." Yuan smiled.

After a moment of silence, White Lotus nodded in a bashful manner, "Then I'll accept your offer."

Hearing her words, Yuan summoned the Empyrean Overlord and pointed at it, "Go ahead. Stand on it."

"Huh?" White Lotus looked at him with a dumbfounded face.

"I'll carry you around with my flying sword. It'll feel much better than having me carry you in my arms."

"Oh... All right..." White Lotus nodded, feeling a little disappointed that Yuan will not be carrying her.

Once she was standing on the Empyrean Overlord, White Lotus asked, "By the way, where did this sword come from?"

Yuan chuckled, "I will explain it another day since it's a bit complicated."

White Lotus nodded and didn't question any further.

"Is this your first time riding a flying sword? Have you done it before in Cultivation Online?"

"This is my first time," she said.

"Then I will hold your hand until you're comfortable with letting go." Yuan offered his hand to White Lotus, who immediately accepted it without hesitation.

"I will be back in a bit." Yuan said to Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang.

"Have fun!" Chu Liuxiang waved at them.

Yuan flew into the air with White Lotus shortly after.

White Lotus immediately tightened her grasp on Yuan's hands after feeling the sword move.

They started out slow, gradually increasing their flying speed until they maxed out at 20 miles per hour.

"What do you think about flying?" Yuan asked White Lotus.

"It's a little scary being this high up, but I really enjoy it."

"How long can you maintain being in the air?" She then asked.

"I can fly for an hour straight if I were by myself, but since I am also carrying you, I will only be able to fly for about half an hour." Want to see

"I see..."

"Are you ready to let go of my hand?" Yuan asked her a few moments later.

"Yes." White Lotus nodded, and she slowly relaxed her hands.

"How am I doing?" She asked him afterward.

"You're doing great. Do you want me to speed up more?"

"Sure."

Yuan increased their speed by another 5 miles per hour after White Lotus' approval.

"How fast does this thing go?" White Lotus asked out of curiosity.

"Do you want to see for yourself?" Yuan smiled at her.

White Lotus swallowed nervously, but she nodded her head regardless.

"Brace yourself. I will go at maximum speed in three... two... one!"

Whoosh!

The flying sword suddenly quadrupled in speed, going at nearly 100 miles per hour.

"Ahhhh!" White Lotus shouted, as she was not expecting such an explosive boost.

After remaining on the sword for a few seconds, White Lotus could no longer keep up with the speed and actually fell off the flying sword, and she started plunging towards the ground.

"Yuan!" She cried out loud.

Yuan quickly went to catch her.

"Are you okay?" He asked her.

"Yes... But that was horrifying... I now understand how Zheng Weimin felt when you dropped him..." White Lotus sighed in relief.

Once she calmed down, she realized that Yuan was carrying her like a princess, and one of his hands was even touching her breasts.

"..." White Lotus blushed when she felt Yuan's fingers firmly pressing against the side of her breasts, but she kept her mouth closed and didn't say anything, silently enjoying the situation.

"By the way..." Yuan suddenly spoke, "The Zheng Family might try to cause trouble for your family after what happened today. If that happens, you can let me know and I will do my best to assist your family. I hate people who think they can do anything because of their status— people like Zheng Weimin."

"Thank you, Yuan. I will remember your words, but my Bai Family is not weak. If the Zheng Family wishes to bully us, we will not stay silent and fight back."

After pondering for a bit, Yuan said, "I was not lying when I said that I don't know much about the Legacy Ranking. While I prefer staying out of their business, I have a feeling that I will encounter more people like Zheng Weimin in the future, so I might as well gather information now."

"You want to know more about the Legacy Ranking, right? I will tell you everything you need to know whenever you want." White Lotus said.

"Thank you."

After flying around for a few more minutes, Yuan returned to the hotel with White Lotus still in his arms.

"Thank you for the wonderful experience, Yuan. I will never forget it for the rest of my life." White Lotus said to him with a beautiful smile on her face.

"I had fun, too."

Sometime later, they returned to the table.

After ordering some drinks, White Lotus began explaining to them the Legacy Ranking and how it works.

"There are 100 slots in the Legacy Ranking from Rank 1 to Rank 100. In order to join the Legacy Ranking, you must have one thing— results."

"As you probably know, video games have been immensely popular even before Cultivation Online's existence, so much so that it has ingrained itself into the majority of peoples' lives, where over half of the world's population play games to make a living."

"With how important video games have become in our world, it was only natural for people to want to monetize it. One thing led to another, and the Legacy Ranking was born, where families from all over the world fight for the top rankings in whichever video game is chosen to be the focus for that decade."

Chapter 959 - I Want Him Dead!

"Besides wealth and fame, what do you get for being part of the Legacy Ranking?" Yuan asked.

"Influence and social status." White Lotus calmly replied.

"I get the meaning behind the Legacy Ranking, but how does it actually work?" Chu Liuxiang suddenly asked.

"If we're going by rankings, doesn't it mean Yuan, who is the current number one player in Cultivation Online, number one in the Legacy Ranking?"

"Yes and no. In order to enter the Legacy Ranking, you must participate in a tournament that is held every year. You need at least 10 people in your 'family' to participate. While Yuan is, without doubt, the number one player in Cultivation Online, it doesn't mean he will automatically take first place in the Legacy Ranking."

"Yuan, why don't you join this year's tournament and show the Legacy Families who's boss?" Chu Liuxiang chuckled at this idea.

White Lotus immediately started sweating after hearing Chu Liuxiang's words.

"A-Actually, since Yuan doesn't belong to any family, I think it would be for the best if he joined another family. Of course, I am not just saying this so I can recruit you into our family— even though I would love to."

"The other Legacy Families won't like it if a newly created family suddenly becomes Rank 1, and they will probably do everything in their power to prevent it from happening."

"So what you're saying is... They will try to mess with Yuan if he tries to join with his own family." Meixiu said.

"Unfortunately, that is exactly what will happen." White Lotus sighed.

"However, if you really want to start your own family, you can try forming alliances with other Legacy Families."

"What about factions? Can I join with my faction?" Yuan suddenly asked.

"Actually, yes, you can. It was implemented just recently, but factions are now able to participate in the Legacy Ranking."

"Are you really planning on joining the Legacy Ranking with your faction?" White Lotus looked at Yuan with a nervous gaze.

"Honestly, I couldn't care less about the Legacy Ranking. Whether it be wealth or influence, it doesn't mean anything to me. I created the faction so that I can always be with the people that are close to me, that's all."

"I see..." White Lotus was relieved to hear Yuan's words.

If he won't be participating in the Legacy Ranking, it won't be as chaotic and stressful.

However, nothing is set in stone and it is still too early to tell if Yuan will affect this year's Legacy Ranking.

Sometime later, White Lotus brought Yuan and the others to their rooms.

"You can use these three rooms for as long as you please. They are the best we have in the hotel."

"Thank you." They said.

After picking their own rooms, they moved their luggage inside.

"Do you plan on walking around the city anytime soon?" White Lotus asked them shortly after.

"We plan on doing it now." Yuan nodded.

"Can you give me a few minutes to prepare my disguise?" White Lotus then asked.

"Sure."

"Thank you very much." White Lotus went into the room right beside their room and proceeded to disguise herself.

A few minutes later, she returned to their side with a completely different appearance.

Her hair turned blonde, and even her eyes changed to a beautiful green color. As for her dress, she changed it into something more casual, and she even went out of her way to wear sunglasses like Yuan.

"How do I look?" She asked them.

"I wouldn't recognize you if I didn't know your identity beforehand." Yuan smiled.

"That's great."

They left the hotel shortly after and started walking around the city.

Of course, even with White Lotus disguised, their group still attracted plenty of attention because of Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang.

Meanwhile, at the Zheng Family's headquarters, Zheng Weimin was lying in his bed when he suddenly woke up screaming.

"AAAAAH! HELP ME! I'M FALLING!"

"Young Master! Calm down! You're not falling!" His servants quickly attended him.

"W-What?" Zheng Weimin looked at his surroundings with a puzzled face, his back soaked in cold sweat.

"Where am I? What happened?"

"You're in your own room right now, Young Master. You lost consciousness after what happened, so we carried you back here."

The servants did not dare to mention that he'd sullied his pants, so they left that detail out.

"THAT BASTARD! HOW DARE HE EMBARRASS ME IN FRONT OF WHITE LOTUS! I WANT HIM DEAD!" Zheng Weimin roared.

The servants started sweating, and they quickly reminded him of what happened, "Young Master, are you sure that's a good idea? That man could fly!"

"Do you really think humans can fly?! This is not Cultivation Online! He was obviously using some kind of trick to make it seem like he was flying!" Zheng Weimin shouted, clearly in denial.

"I believe we should investigate his identity before we act."

"Then hurry up and investigate him! I want to know everything about him! His family, his friends— everything!"

"Just you wait... I will show you what happens when you offend me! I am going to crush you and your insignificant life!"

"I also want the Bai Family to be held responsible for what happened today! Call my father and tell him that White Lotus from the Bai Family has assaulted me today!"

The servants quickly went to work after hearing Zheng Weimin's words. Despite knowing that Zheng Weimin was being unreasonable, they could not defy his orders, and they were already used to it.

Sometime later, after hearing about what had happened to his precious son and how he'd almost died today, the head of the Zheng Family immediately contacted the Bai Family, demanding an explanation.

Of course, the Bai Family had expected their contact and even prepared for it.

While the Zheng Family was oblivious of Yuan's identity, the Bai Family knew very well that he was the one behind the incident today, so they took advantage of their knowledge to mess with the Zheng Family.

Chapter 960 - Meeting Between Two Legacy Families

Chapter 960 - Meeting Between Two Legacy Families

Inside a private room, the Patriarch of the Bai Family stood before a projector that was projecting a video call.

On the other side of the call was the Patriarch of the Zheng Family.

The two of them had decided to video call each other to talk about the recent incident between White Lotus and Zheng Weimin.

"You claim that your son, Zheng Weimin, had gone to visit my daughter, Bai Lianhua, and returned beaten and humiliated without any good reason, but I heard a different story from my daughter."

"She claims that your son, Zheng Weimin, had rudely forced himself into a private meeting between my daughter and her clients. Not only that, he even insulted my daughter and her clients."

"That's a load of bullshit, Bai Mengyao! My son went to visit your daughter because he had something important to tell her, but he was assaulted and humiliated before he could even speak with her! He was even beaten unconscious!"

"Zheng Ye, there's no need to sugar your words. We both know that your son is obsessed with my daughter. We have told your Zheng Family many times that Bai Lianhua does not wish to be with Zheng Weimin, yet he keeps on causing trouble for her, which causes trouble for my family." Bai Mengyao shook his head.

"Don't try to change the subject, Bai Mengyao! We're talking about how your daughter attacked my son! No matter their relationship, that won't change the fact that my son had been beaten by her!" Zheng Ye slammed his desk in anger.

"Now that's where you're wrong." Bai Mengyao shook his head again.

"How am I wrong?!"

"My daughter did not lay a hand on your son. It was her client who had an altercation with Zheng Weimin, so you're speaking with the wrong person right now. If you really want to seek justice for your son, you should probably go speak with the young man who felt the need to beat your son. Though, I'm sure he has a good reason, especially considering Zheng Weimin's bad reputation."

Zheng Weimin gritted his teeth in frustration. He knew that White Lotus hadn't touched his son. However, he could not let go the chance to blame the Bai Family that has been refusing to give their Zheng Family face for years now by rejecting Zheng Weimin's proposal to White Lotus.

"I don't care if your daughter touched him or not! As the host, she should've kept her client in check! Like how we're responsible for our dogs' actions, White Lotus is responsible for her clients' actions!"

Bai Mengyao suddenly laughed out loud.

"What's so funny?!" Zheng Ye frowned.

"My daughter should keep that person in check? You have no idea who her client even is! Let me warn you, Zheng Ye, that young man your son had offended is not someone the Zheng Family can afford to offend, much less my Bai Family!"

'What? Someone even my family cannot offend?' The frown on Zheng Ye's face sank even further down.

"There is nobody that my Zheng Family cannot handle! We may be ranked fifth in the Legacy Ranking, but our influence surpasses even the 3rd rank!"

"Suit yourself. And don't even bother trying to ask me for information on that person. I don't feel like offending him, so if you'll excuse me, I have other business that I need to attend."

"Don't you dare run away from—"

Bai Mengyao ignored him and closed the video call.

"What a pain in the ass. However, this is a good opportunity to see just how powerful this Player Yuan is... He may be powerful in Cultivation Online, but the real world is a whole different game. Will he be able to deal with the Zheng Family like how he'd dealt with the Cultivators' Association?"

Bai Mengyao kind of hoped that Yuan would get pushed into a corner by the Zheng Family so that his Bai Family could come to his rescue and make him owe their family.

Sometime later, the Bai Family contacted White Lotus to notify her of the situation.

"I understand. I will warn him."

After closing the line, White Lotus said to Yuan, "It appears that the Zheng Family had tried to pressure my family."

"Is your family okay?" He asked.

"For now, yes, but there's a good chance that the Zheng Family will continue to harass my family until we compromise. My family also told me to warn you that the Zheng Family will be coming after you as well."

"Why am I not surprised?" Yuan shook his head.

"Knowing the Zheng Family, they will go after your friends and family if they learn of your true identity as Yu Tian. However, only very few higher ups in my family, myself, and Jasmine, know that." White Lotus said.

"Honestly, I don't care even if they find out about my identity. I will even be grateful to them if they caused trouble to the Yu Family." Yuan chuckled.

"What about Yu Rou...?" White Lotus looked at him with raised eyebrows.

"Your faction will protect her, right?"

"Of course! I swear on my name and reputation as the leader of the faction that no harm will come to your sister, Yu Rou!" She immediately responded.

Yuan smiled and said, "Thank you, but if they really target Yu Rou, your faction won't have the chance to protect her, as I will destroy the entire Zheng Family before they can even act."

White Lotus swallowed nervously after seeing how Yuan spoke about crushing the Zheng Family so causally. It was almost like the Zheng Family couldn't even be considered ants in his eyes.

'Just how powerful are you, Yuan?' White Lotus sighed inwardly.

Their group continued to wander the city without a care in the world, almost like their trouble with the Zheng Family was nonexistent.

At the end of the day, they returned back to the hotel.

"I couldn't find a birthday present for Yu Rou today even though we looked at many stores..." Meixiu sighed.

"Don't worry, you still have tomorrow." Chu Liuxiang said to her.

"I guess..."

Shortly after returning to the hotel, White Lotus invited them for dinner, which they accepted.

"Wow, it's like a whole different world up here at night." Chu Liuxiang stared at the city from the roof of the hotel as they waited for the food to arrive.

"The Dragon Spiral Mountain may have much better spiritual energy, but it cannot compare to this place when it comes to scenery."

"You're free to move to this hotel if you want." White Lotus said in a joking voice.

Dinner lasted for about an hour and half.

Afterward, everyone retired in their own room.

"I will see you all tomorrow." White Lotus said to them.

"Yes, good night."

After a quick shower, Yuan entered the massive bed that could easily fit six people and laid there.

'It's been a while since I've slept alone in a bed.' Yuan realized this fact very quickly.

Inside Chu Liuxiang's room, she stared at the cold, empty bed and sighed, "I've gotten too comfortable sleeping with Yuan that I'd forgotten how it feels sleeping alone."

Meanwhile, White Lotus received a phone call from her family.

"What's the situation now?" White Lotus' father, Bai Mengyao asked.

"We just finished dinner and the guests are resting in their room," she said.

"How is Yuan?"

"He's doing great. It's almost like the incident this morning with Zheng Weimin never happened for him."

"I see... What about you? How do you feel after spending an entire day with him? Let me hear your impressions."

"Yuan is a very charming young man. I can tell that he's a genuinely kind person. He's also very humble considering his reputation. I would've never guessed that he was Player Yuan if I didn't already know it beforehand."

"However, I have to admit, he's also a little scary, especially when angered. He's someone that I wouldn't want to offend."

Bai Mengyao suddenly started laughing behind the phone.

"What a surprise! To think that my daughter, who has always disliked men, would have such a high impression on this young man!"

White Lotus blushed after hearing her father's words.

A few moments later, Bai Mengyao stopped laughing and spoke in a serious voice, "I'm glad that you like him. However, the real question is, when will you make your move on him?"

White Lotus turned silent for a moment before speaking, "I think it's a little too early..."

"The slower you move, the more time you give others!"

"I know, but I really don't think I should move now. The two women Yuan brought with him... They're both incredibly beautiful and charming young ladies, and despite acting like they're only friends with each other, I have no doubt that they're his lovers."

"It wouldn't be a wise choice for me to invade their territory at this moment. In fact, I will most likely need their approval before I can join them."

"If I force myself into their relationship, it would only have a negative effect."

Bai Mengyao took several moments to ponder about White Lotus' words.

"Fine, you don't have to seduce him now. However, don't wait too long."

"Yes, father."

White Lotus released a deep sigh after hanging up the phone, feeling immense pressure on her shoulders.

"Although I don't mind having Yuan as my partner... Can I even seduce someone like him? Do I have what it takes to accept the fact that there will be other women in his life? The thought of sharing my husband with other women has never even crossed my mind... This is ridiculous."

Panda Novel White Lotus proceeded to ponder her situation for the rest of the night.

The following morning, after eating breakfast, Yuan and the others left the hotel for another day of touring the city.

'I really hope that I find a present for Yu Rou today...' Meixiu sighed inwardly as they walked from shop to shop.

After touring the city for the whole morning, White Lotus suggested to them, "Let's get some lunch. I know of the perfect restaurant, and it's only a few blocks away from this place."

"That's a good idea." Yuan nodded.

"Let's go." The other two also agreed.

"Great! Follow me."

On their way to the restaurant, White Lotus would talk about her previous experience there.

Halfway there, right as they reached the end of the street and was stopped by the red traffic light, Yuan suddenly started having a bad feeling, almost as though his intuition was warning him.

Trusting his guts, Yuan decided to expand his divine sense until it covered the entire street.

That's when he noticed a black van driving towards their street.

Yuan didn't think too much of this black van at first, but the feeling in his guts got more uncomfortable as the black van got closer to their location.

A few moments later, right as the traffic lights turned green, the black van stopped right in the middle of the crosswalk with its side facing Yuan and the others.

"Watch out!" Yuan suddenly shouted.

Right as Yuan's voice resounded, loud banging sounds filled the streets, and hundreds of small holes would appear on the side of the van that was facing his direction within seconds.

There were multiple people in the black van, and they were all shooting at Yuan's group from inside the van with deadly assault rifles.

"Aaaaah!"

Chaos immediately ensued, and the people in the street started scrambling to safety.

White Lotus and the others subconsciously tried to dodge the incoming bullets, but they quickly realized that something was preventing them from moving.

"Don't move!" Yuan shouted as he held his hands in front of him, using his Qi Manifestation to create a wall of spiritual energy in front of them, protecting them from the bullets. Of course, he was also responsible for restricting their movements.

The bullets that touched Yuan's invisible wall would get caught in his spiritual energy, making it seem like time had stopped for the bullets.

However, despite this, bullets continued to fly without mercy, turning the street into a warzone.

Yuan gritted his teeth in frustration. As much as he wanted to use his flying dagger to retaliate, he did not dare to split his focus, putting all of his attention on defense and the wall before them, which was the only thing preventing the bullets from riddling their bodies with holes.

The sound of powerful guns blazing through bullets continued nonstop for another minute until the people in the black van eventually ran out of bullets.

"We're out! Let's get the fuck out of here!"
