The people in the black van didn't even bother to check whether their targets had survived before stepping on the gas and speeding away from the crime scene.

However, Yuan didn't dare to remove the wall until he was absolutely sure that the threat had completely vanished.

"Are you guys okay?!" Yuan turned around to ask the three terrified ladies standing behind him with shivering legs.

"I-I'm okay..." White Lotus muttered in a trembling voice.

"I am fine as well..." Chu Liuxiang said.

"Me too." Meixiu said.

"Meixiu! You're totally not fine! Look at your arm! It's bleeding!" Chu Liuxiang suddenly said in a panicked voice and pointed to her left arm, where blood could be seen flowing from a wound.

"Oh, you're right." Meixiu looked at her arm and said in a calm voice.

After inspecting the wound, she continued, "I'm fine, it's just a graze."

"How can you be so calm about this...? You just got shot!" Chu Liuxiang was dumbfounded by her reaction.

"Anyways, what in god's name was that just now?!"

"It was most likely the Zheng Family trying to exact revenge. I don't have any proof, but they're the only ones who have a motive." White Lotus sighed.

"Even if they want revenge, to think they'd go this far... This is unforgivable..." She looked at the destruction caused by the shooting just now.

Fortunately, there were no deaths. However, some people there were injured in the process of trying to run away, and the buildings behind their group were riddled with bullets.

Everyone there turned to look at Yuan, who was awfully silent for some reason, but that only made the ladies even more nervous.

Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang suddenly recalled what happened with the Gu Family when they threatened to hurt them. However, this incident was many times worse than the Gu Family, and Meixiu even got physically hurt in the process, so they cannot even begin to imagine what was going through Yuan's head.

"Are you okay, Yuan?" White Lotus decided to ask him.

To their surprise, he nodded and spoke in an abnormally calm voice, "Yes, I am just relieved that you're safe. Let's return to the hotel and get your wound treated, Meixiu."

"Okay..."

As they made their way back to the hotel, police sirens could be heard blaring in almost every street.

"Yes, that really just happened." White Lotus spoke to her father through the phone as they walked, notifying him of the horror they'd just experienced.

"That fucking Zheng Family! How dare they try to assassinate you guys! They have crossed the line a thousand times! Don't worry, I will make sure they are held accountable for their actions! I'm just really glad that none of you are hurt!"

"By the way, has Yuan said anything about the situation?" Bai Mengyao suddenly asked.

"N-No... He's awfully quiet, nor has he spoken a word since we left..." White Lotus answered in a whispering voice.

"That doesn't sound very good. Do whatever you can to comfort him."

"I understand."

After hanging up the phone, Bai Mengyao called the Zheng Family and demanded for Zheng Ye to pick up the phone.

"I'm sorry, Mister Bai, but Mister Zheng is currently busy."

"I don't give a fuck if he's busy! I want him to answer the phone even if he's screwing his wife as we speak! If I don't hear from him within the next five minutes, I will literally shoot up your fucking headquarter!"

"P-Please calm down, Mister Bai—"

Di.

Panda Novel Bai Mengyao hung up and waited for his phone to ring.

As expected, Zheng Ye video called him three minutes later.

"For you to threaten my family with harm, you better have a good reason, Bai Mengyao, or you will be hearing from my lawyers."

"You dare to act like you don't know anything?! Your Zheng Family just tried to assassinate my daughter!"

"What?" Zheng Ye frowned upon hearing this, showing legit confusion.

"Hold your horses, Bai Mengyao. That is a serious accusation! I don't know what happened, but our Zheng Family was not involved!"

"You don't know what happened? Bullshit! Turn on the T.V and look at the news!"

Zheng Ye turned on his T.V the next moment. It didn't take long for him to learn of the shooting, as it was being covered by literally every news channel out there.

[About half an hour ago, a mass shooting had occurred at... Over 1,000 bullets had been fired... Miraculously, nobody was killed...]

"You're claiming that my Zheng Family had something to do with this shooting?! That's absurd! We would never do something like this!"

"As if I could believe your words! Only your Zheng Family has a motive!"

"This is defamation! Slander! Do you have any proof that it was my Zheng Family that is behind the shooting?!"

"The only proof I need is your Zheng Family's dogshit reputation! In the entire Legacy Ranking, your family is the worst!"

"Hah! You'll need more than that bullshit to do anything to us! Go ahead and sue us! I dare you!"

Bai Mengyao suddenly started laughing.

"What's so damn funny?! You think this is funny?!"

"You damn fool!" Bai Mengyao roared.

"I purposefully kept this a secret because I wanted your family to mess with him a little, but I truly did not expect for you to do something this daring. You guys truly went above and beyond! However, I am also at fault. Due to my selfish decision, my daughter was nearly assassinated!"

"What the hell are you talking about?" Zheng Ye frowned, as he had a bad feeling about Bai Mengyao's words.

"Listen carefully, Zheng Ye! The young man who trashed your useless son — the person your family just tried to assassinate today is none other than Player Yuan! The same Yuan your family is so desperately trying to recruit!" Bai Mengyao revealed the truth to him.

"What?!" Zheng Ye cried out loud, not daring to believe his ears.

Chapter 963 - The Real Culprit

Chapter 963 - The Real Culprit

"T-That young man who beat my son was Player Yuan?! Impossible! I won't fall for this!" Zheng Ye was in denial.

However, inside his mind, he started recalling a certain rumor that White Lotus had managed to contact Player Yuan in Cultivation Online.

"I don't care if you believe it or not. However, it is a fact that your family had just tried to assassinate Player Yuan! If the other families learn of this, nobody will dare to stay by your side!" Bai Mengyao shouted.

"Stop! I swear on my ancestors' graves that our Zheng Family had nothing to do with the assassination! Do you really think that I would do something as blatant and reckless as shooting up a street in broad daylight?!"

Bai Mengyao frowned, and he started wondering if the Zheng Family had truly called in the assassination on Yuan.

"Anyways, do not bother me or my family again until you have concrete proof that it was my family who ordered the hit! And if you dare spread such rumors, I will sue you for slander!"

Zheng Ye closed the video call shortly after and started pacing back and forth his room with a panicked expression on his face.

He was telling the truth when he claimed that he had nothing to do with the assassination attempt, but he had a feeling that he knew the true culprit behind this madness.

He eventually picked up his phone and called his son, Zheng Weimin.

"Hello?" Zheng Weimin picked up the phone after a few rings.

"You crazy bastard! What have you done?! Tell me you are not behind the shooting this afternoon!" Zheng Ye's voice was so loud that it dazed Zheng Weimin.

However, to his surprise, Zheng Weimin spoke in a calm voice, "Huh? They already got to work? What a pleasant surprise! I really thought it would take at least a few days!"

"Y-You... Are you serious?" Zheng Ye could feel his legs giving out on him after hearing his son's words.

"Yes, I am. I was the one who ordered the hit on that bastard, so what? This will teach White Lotus what will happen if she dares to approach any man that is not me!" Zheng Weimin laughed out loud.

'This bastard's gone insane! Did he hit his head during his fight with Yuan?' Zheng Ye cried inwardly.

He always knew that his son was a crazy bastard, but even he couldn't have anticipated that his son would be crazy enough to hire assassins!

'I have underestimated him! This is bad! Really bad!'

"Don't worry, father." Zheng Ye suddenly said.

"I made sure there were no traces or evidence of my involvement, so they won't be able to hold us accountable."

Zheng Ye sighed out loud and said, "Have you seen the news?"

"No, I haven't. Why?" Zheng Ye asked in a puzzled voice.

"There were no deaths. In other words, your assassination attempt has failed."

"What?! How is that possible! I told them to use the strongest firearms they have available! Not even a Spirit Master cultivator could survive such firepower!"

"Well, not only did they survive, but White Lotus was also there at the time of the attack, so you almost had your beloved assassinated alongside the man you're trying to kill."

"WHAT?! I gave those bastards specific instructions to not attack when White Lotus is near the target! Those useless bastards! I paid them a hefty fee, too!" Zheng Weimin cursed out loud.

Since White Lotus was in a disguise, the attackers did not recognize her, but Zheng Weimin wasn't aware of this fact.

Zheng Ye sighed, and he proceeded to ask, "You... Do you even know the identity of the man who you just tried to have assassinated today?"

"His identity doesn't matter. Since he dared to offend me, he's a dead man!"

"Player Yuan! That man was Player Yuan! Do you have any idea what this means?!" Zheng Ye suddenly yelled.

"W-What?" Zheng Weimin muttered in a dazed voice, seemingly having difficulties comprehending what he'd just heard.

"I really hope you didn't leave any evidence behind! If I learn that you've screwed up, I will, without hesitation, kick you out of the family and disown you!"

"B-But father! So what if he's Player Yuan?! He's just a nobody who got lucky in Cultivation Online!"

"Do you have any idea how many families within the Legacy Rankings are looking to curry favors with this nobody?! If they learn that you tried to assassinate Yuan, they will definitely side with him to destroy us!"

"I'm done talking with you! However, let me give you one more piece of advice as your father. Hide! Don't show your face until all of this calms down!"

Zheng Ye disconnected the line and tossed his phone at the wall, smashing it into pieces.

"FUCK! THAT FUCKING CRAZY BASTARD!"

Meanwhile, Zheng Weimin sat on his bed with a dazed look on his face.

"So he was Player Yuan all along... It all makes sense now... No wonder why she dared to fight back."

"However, none of that matters. They cannot touch me without proof."

"As for those assassins, even if they have failed their first attempt, they will continue to try until they fulfill our contract."

Zheng Weimin quickly stopped caring about the situation, as he was confident that he would not get in any trouble for his actions.

After all, there were rules and regulations in this world, and being in the Top 5 of the Legacy Rankings, these regulations were in his favor regardless if he was in the right or wrong.

"I don't care if you're Player Yuan! Come get me if you can! Hahaha!"
Zheng Weimin laughed like a madman inside his room.

Back at the hotel, White Lotus had the entire hotel secured by her guards so that not even a rat could enter or leave the premises— they were basically in lockdown.

Meanwhile, Meixiu had her wound inspected and treated by a professional.

Chapter 964 - Take Me to the Zheng Family

Chapter 964 - Take Me to the Zheng Family

"Luckily, the bullet only grazed your skin. I also checked your blood just in case they laced the bullets with poison. The results were negative. You'll heal in a few days." The doctor said to Meixiu after inspecting her grazed wound.

"Will this injury leave a scar?" Meixiu asked the doctor.

"Since you're a cultivator, it will only last for a bit. It will eventually disappear completely, but I will prescribe you with some healing cream just in case."

"I see... Thank you." Meixiu nodded.

Once the doctor left and they were alone, Chu Liuxiang spoke, "What should we do now? Yu Rou's birthday is tomorrow, and the concert will be held in public. If we don't deal with the situation before then, they could attack during the concert."

"Is there anything we can do to the Zheng Family?" She looked at White Lotus, who shook her head.

"Unfortunately, we don't have any concrete proof that the Zheng Family was the one behind the attack. My father spoke to the head of the Zheng Family, and according to what he told me, Zheng Ye doesn't appear to have anything to do with the attack."

"I also highly doubt they would leave behind any evidence that incriminates them."

"So there's nothing we can do about it?" Meixiu asked with a worried frown on her face.

"Not legally, no..." White Lotus sighed.

"We can try to look for the people in the black van, but we're still investigating that. The entire Bai Family is currently working with the police and investigators, but even with such a force, it will probably be a few days until we can learn anything."

"We don't have the luxury to wait that long." Yuan suddenly spoke.

"Do you have something in mind?" White Lotus asked him.

He nodded and said, "Meixiu, Lulu, I want the two of you to stay in this room together until I resolve our situation. It won't take too long, I promise."

"What are you going to do?" Meixiu asked him in a worried voice.

"I'm going to get the evidence we need to deal with whoever decided it was a good idea to put you all in such a dangerous situation," he calmly said.

Yuan approached Meixiu and caressed the bandage on her arm— where she'd been injured from the attack.

"The person who caused this will wish that they'd never been born..."

Even though his voices were as tranquil as still water in a lake, the ladies could feel the anger boiling within, and it was only a matter of time before it exploded, causing the water to splash everywhere.

Meixiu suddenly grabbed his hands and spoke, "Yuan, I know you're angry and that you're doing this for us, but please, don't do anything that will hurt you."

"I won't. I promise." Yuan showed her a gentle smile.

He then faced White Lotus and said, "Can you do me a favor?"

"O-Of course!" She immediately nodded.

"Let's go."

Yuan started making his way towards the exit.

"Don't do anything that you will regret later, Yuan! I know that you care about our safety, but don't forget that we also care about yours!" Chu Liuxiang shouted as he reached the door.

"I know." He responded as he left the room.

"I want guards inside and outside of this room at all times until we return. Make sure no harm comes to our guests." White Lotus said to Jasmine.

"What about you, Miss Bai?"

"I will be fine." White Lotus said as she glanced at Yuan.

"I understand. I will make sure the guests are protected even if it's the last thing I do." Jasmine nodded.

"Please take care of Miss Bai." She turned to face Yuan and bowed to him.

Sometime later, White Lotus followed Yuan to the roof of the hotel.

Yuan continued walking until he was standing at the edge of the building.

After standing there in silence for a couple of minutes, he suddenly asked, "Where is the Zheng Family?"

"The Zheng Family's headquarter is located in another city, but they have a branch family that is about an hour outside the city. Although you won't find the head of the family, Zheng Ye, there, you should be able to find Zheng Weimin."

"That is good enough."

He then asked, "Do you mind showing me the way? I promise you that no harm will come to you. I will also owe you."

"I don't mind. And you don't have to owe me anything. You saved my life today. I should be the one with the debt," she said.

"The only reason you guys were put in such a dangerous situation was because of me. I was their target. You guys just happened to be with me at the time of the attack."

"If you don't mind me asking, what are you going to do once we meet the Zheng Family? I doubt they will tell us the truth even if we threaten them."

After a moment of silence, Yuan spoke in a low but clear voice, "I don't know what I am going to do to them, but I know that it won't be very pretty."

White Lotus swallowed nervously.

"Do you plan on killing them all? Don't worry, the Bai Family will protect you no matter your decision."

Yuan turned to look at her with a profound smile on his face, but he did not respond to her question.

After a moment of silence, he spoke in a cold voice as he took off his sunglasses, revealing the red eyes that had been concealed by the shades, "That would be too lenient on the bastards that attacked us. I won't kill them, but I will make them wish that they were dead."

White Lotus' eyes widened with shock, and her body trembled in fear when she saw Yuan's crimson eyes that looked like it had been dyed in blood, not to mention intense killing intent that was contained within his gaze. However, mixed in with her fear was awe, as she was also oddly charmed by his presence.

Although she wasn't certain, she had a feeling that Yuan was looking at her through his eyes as of this moment.

Yuan lifted his arm and gestured for her, "Take me to the Zheng Family. It's our turn to surprise them."

"Yes." White Lotus responded in a low voice before grabbing his hand and flying into the air with him, her heart throbbing with excitement.

Chapter 965 - Regaining His Vision

Chapter 965 - Regaining His Vision

As they made their way towards the Zheng Family, White Lotus couldn't help but stare at Yuan's handsome face and beautiful crimson eyes that resembled jewels.

"Yuan... Your eyes... What happened?" She couldn't resist her urge to ask him.

"I'm not really sure. After seeing Meixiu getting hurt from the assault, I felt something being 'released' within me, and before I knew it, I regained my vision."

"Huh? So you're no longer blind?" White Lotus muttered in a dumbfounded voice.

"For now. Who knows how long this would last. Maybe I'll return to being blind after a few hours."

Yuan turned to look at White Lotus' beautiful face and pale complexion.

"Even though I can see the world clearer and in more details with divine sense, there is just something unique about viewing the world with my eyes." He said with a smile.

"It's unfortunate that I had regained my vision during this time when I am unable to enjoy it." His smile quickly turned bitter.

White Lotus suddenly lowered her head and tightened her hold around his neck.

"My life flashed before my eyes earlier today. I have never had such a close near-death experience before— not even in Cultivation Online."

"Honestly, I've been in worse situations. However, I have never felt scared in those situations. It was different today. I was terrified, but not for myself. I was scared that I would lose one of you, and it was a close call. The bullet that grazed Meixiu could've killed any of us. Fortunately, that did not happen."

"You really care about Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang. I'm envious." White Lotus suddenly sighed.

"I care about you too, you know?" He said, taking her by surprise.

"Really? Even though we've just met each other?"

"Of course." He nodded.

"Thank you..." White Lotus mumbled as she lowered her head even more to prevent Yuan from seeing the expression on her face.

About half an hour later, White Lotus pointed at the large mansion located at the horizon and said, "Over there. That's our destination."

Yuan nodded and flew directly towards the mansion.

Once they landed near the mansion, Yuan stepped in front of White Lotus and said, "Stay behind me no matter what."

"Okay." She nodded.

Yuan summoned both Empyrean Overlord and Starry Abyss before approaching the mansion.

There were guards pacing around the mansion, and all of them were carrying fully loaded assault rifles.

"Are they usually this tight with security? Not even banks are this heavily guarded." Yuan asked her.

"No, this isn't normal." White Lotus shook her head.

"Then they must be really afraid of something." Yuan smiled.

"Follow me."

He walked out of the shadows with White Lotus behind him.

"HALT!"

The guards there immediately noticed him and pointed their guns at his direction without any hesitation.

"Identify yourself! What are you doing here?!"

"Let me handle this." White Lotus said.

"I'm Bai Lianhua! We're here to speak with Zheng Weimin!"

The guards recognized her name and face.

"Zheng Weimin is not here!" One of the guards said.

"You're lying." Yuan said, as he could sense Zheng Weimin's presence within the mansion.

"I will give you two choices. Get Zheng Weimin out here for me, or I will go inside to meet him myself."

"And I will give you one choice. Get lost before we fill your body with bullet holes!"

Yuan closed his eyes and took a deep breath.

The next moment, one of the guards suddenly screamed in pain, startling the others.

When they turned to look at him, they saw that his hands had suddenly been severed by something sharp.

"W-What happened?!"

However, before they could even make sense of what was happening, the invisible Starry Abyss honed in on its next target.

Whoosh!

"AAAAH! My hands!" Another guard had his hand severed.

Then another.

And another.

In less than a minute, Yuan had disarmed all of the guards there by severing their hands with the Starry Abyss.

White Lotus swallowed nervously after seeing the brutal scenery. The guards were all screaming in pain as blood gushed from their grievous wounds.

"Let's go." Yuan said with a nonchalant face as he started walking towards the entrance.

After smashing the doors with a single kick, Yuan entered the building with White Lotus.

However, the moment they took a step inside the building, the guards that had been waiting inside ambushed them, shooting their guns without hesitation.

Hundreds of bullets flew at Yuan every second, resembling the situation earlier this afternoon but with more noise and chaos, as there were more people shooting their guns at him.

However, there was one more difference.

Yuan was prepared for the attack this time.

While he used Qi Manifestation to create a wall around him and White Lotus, he also controlled the Starry Abyss to take down the shooters one at a time.

Since the shooters were spread out and most of them were focused on shooting Yuan, they failed to notice what was happening until it was too late and everyone there had their hands and arms severed.

'He's not killing them... Is he saving it for Zheng Weimin?' White Lotus noticed this and wondered to herself.

"Are you okay?" Yuan turned around and asked her in a calm voice.

"Y-Yes." She nodded in a dazed manner.

"Good, then let's continue."

Yuan proceeded to follow Zheng Weimin's presence in the mansion.

They would encounter guards at every turn, but Yuan easily took care of them.

Meanwhile, inside Zheng Weimin's room.

"What the fuck is going on out there?!" Zheng Weimin asked the guards in his room.

"We have intruders. Two of them. A man and a woman." The guard said.

"It's just two intruders! There are hundreds of you, all equipped with heavy firearms! Why the fuck am I still hearing gunshots after so long?! Are they all shooting at the sky or something?!" Zheng Weimin cried out loud.

"I-I don't know... Even I am puzzled..." The guard shook his head.

"Fuck! You're all so fucking useless!" Zheng Weimin gritted his teeth in frustration.

Chapter 966 - Punishing Zheng Weimin

Chapter 966 - Punishing Zheng Weimin

"Don't worry, Young Master. We will protect you with our lives." The guards in the room said to him.

"No fucking shit! If I die, my father will kill all of you!" Zheng Weimin shouted.

One of the guards' walkie talkie suddenly activated.

"H-Help! This guy is a monster! We cannot deal with him!" A terrified voice resounded from the walkie talkie.

"Give me that!" Zheng Weimin gestured for the walkie talkie.

Once it was in his hands, he shouted, "This is Zheng Weimin! What is happening out there?!"

However, the guard did not respond.

"Hello?! Hey! Answer me!"

After another moment of silence, the walkie talkie connected again.

"He can't hear you because he's unconscious. Probably due to blood loss, but I'm no expert. He might even be dead."

A familiar voice resounded from the walkie talkie. However, Zheng Weimin did not immediately recognize the voice.

"W-Who are you?!"

"You've already forgotten about me? It hasn't been that long since you tried to kill me." Yuan said in a calm voice.

"Y-You're that bastard from the roof! I have no idea what you're talking about! I never tried to kill you! What evidence do you have?!" Zheng Weimin finally realized who he was speaking to, and his body became soaked in cold sweat.

"Evidence? I don't have any."

"Then why the fuck are you creating a scene at my house?! I'll have you arrested for your actions!"

"I may not have any evidence now, but I will get some soon. I'll see you in a bit."

Yuan crushed the walkie talkie and continued making his way to Zheng Weimin's room.

"This fucking bastard!" Zheng Weimin tossed the walkie talkie at the wall in a fit of rage.

Shortly after their conversation ended, Zheng Weimin could hear the gunshots getting closer and closer to his room, pushing him towards the edge of having a mental breakdown.

Meanwhile, there were 12 guards inside his room, all of them pointing their guns at the door with their fingers on the trigger.

Ten minutes later, Yuan and White Lotus arrived at the hallway that contained Zheng Weimin's room.

"There are 13 people inside that room, one of them being Zheng Weimin. Stand back." Yuan said to her.

White Lotus nodded and took a few steps back.

Yuan held the Empyrean Overlord like a javelin and took a deep breath.

Whoosh!

He tossed the Empyrean Overlord, sending it flying through the hallway.

BANG!

The Empyrean Overlord smashed through the metal doors at the end of the hallway, revealing the terrified faces inside the room.

"OPEN FIRE!" The leader of the guards shouted.

Hundreds of bullets traveled the hallway until they reached Yuan, but they all stopped moving in front of him.

"W-What the fuck?!" The guards were shocked by what they were witnessing.

"Move out of the way!"

One of the guards there suddenly stepped forward and aimed a rocket launcher at Yuan.

"Yuan! Watch out!" White Lotus was terrified when she saw the RPG-7.

"Too late!"

The guard pressed the trigger, shooting the rocket at Yuan.

However, before it could even get anywhere near Yuan, the rocket exploded, blowing up half of the hallway and even some of the guards.

"What just happened?!" The guards that survived the explosion were dumbfounded.

Unbeknownst to them, Yuan had destroyed the rocket with the Starry Abyss.

"Ah! My arms!" One of the guards there suddenly screamed in pain as both his limbs suddenly separated from his body.

The other guards were terrified when they saw this, especially when none of them saw what had caused it.

Soon, every guard in the room had their hands and even entire arms severed by the invisible Starry Abyss.

Zheng Weimin stared at the nightmarish scene before him with a horrified look on his face.

"Y-You're not human! You're a fucking demon! Get away from me!" Zheng Weimin started crying when Yuan entered the room with White Lotus behind him.

White Lotus looked at Zheng Weimin's terrible appearance in silence.

"This is the result of offending Player Yuan. It's much worse than what I'd imagined..." She sighed inwardly.

"What's wrong? You look like shit." Yuan approached Zheng Weimin, who had backed all the way up to the corner of a wall.

"G-Get away from me! You will regret doing this to me!"

"What are you going to do? Report me to the police? Where's your evidence?"

"I have plenty of evidence and witnesses!" Zheng Weimin shouted.

"If I kill all of you and destroy this place, there won't be any more evidence." Yuan showed him a cold smile.

"Y-You wouldn't dare! I am innocent! I never tried to kill— Ahhhhh!"

Zheng Weimin suddenly screamed out loud, his voice filled with pain.

"Tell me again that you're innocent." Yuan spoke in a nonchalant voice as he removed his hand from Zheng Weimin's shoulder after crushing his bones.

Zheng Weimin gritted his teeth and spoke in a low voice, "I really don't know what you're talking— Ahhhh!"

Yuan crushed the rest of his arm with Qi Manifestation.

The pain of having every bone in his right arm being crushed was so intense that Zheng Weimin fell unconscious.

However, Yuan would wake him back up by breaking one of his legs by stomping on it.

"I can do this all day." Yuan said to him in a calm voice, almost as though he's done this thousands of times before.

"Give up, Zheng Weimin. It's over for you." White Lotus sighed.

"No! I am really innocent! Please! Believe me!" Zheng Weimin continued to claim his innocence despite the situation.

Yuan narrowed his eyes at Zheng Weimin.

'If physical pain isn't enough...'

After pondering for a moment, he turned to White Lotus and asked her, "Hey, this may be sudden, but have you ever kissed before?"

"Eh?!" Although she was taken by surprise by his question, White Lotus shook her head, "N-No..."

"I see..."

Yuan approached her the following moment.

"W-What are you doing?" Zheng Weimin stared at him with wide eyes.

Once he was standing in front of White Lotus, Yuan suddenly wrapped his arms around her waist and pulled her soft body into his embrace.

White Lotus was baffled by the sudden turn of events, but she didn't resist it.

"Do you mind if I become your first?" Yuan asked her with a profound expression on his face.

"YOU BASTARD!" Zheng Weimin roared out loud.

White Lotus realized what Yuan was trying to do now, and she couldn't help but feel a little disappointed.

However, this is exactly the type of situation she and her family wanted, so she didn't complain.

"It would be my pleasure to have you as my first." White Lotus nodded with a bashful smile before lifting her head and closing her eyes.

"N-No! NO! NO! NO! STOP IT! DON'T YOU DARE! I SWEAR I WILL KILL YOU IF YOU DO IT, YUAN!" Zheng Weimin shouted as blood in the form of tears began flowing from his eyes.

Yuan looked at Zheng Weimin with a mocking gaze before turning to focus on White Lotus, who had a flushed face at this moment.

He gently held her chin with his hand, and he slowly pressed his lips against hers, kissing her.

"YUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUAN!" Zheng Weimin could feel his heart being torn into countless pieces after witnessing the love of his life being stolen by his enemy before his very eyes.

Chapter 967 - It's Just a Kiss

"I WILL KILL YOU! I WILL KILL YOU! I WILL KILL YOU!!! YUUUUAAN!" Zheng Weimin shouted like a beast that had its children murdered before its eyes.

After kissing White Lotus, Yuan turned to look at Zheng Weimin's pathetic appearance and spoke, "Why are you so mad? It's just a kiss. And I don't recall White Lotus ever being your woman."

"SHUT UP! WHITE LOTUS IS MINE! MY WOMAN! HOW DARE YOU DEFILE HER WITH YOUR DIRTY MOUTH!"

Yuan narrowed his eyes on Zheng Weimin before speaking, "I'll do much more than just a kiss if you don't tell me the truth."

"W-What are you talking about?!" Zheng Weimin's eyes widened with shock.

Yuan turned to look at White Lotus and asked her, "Do you want to become my woman? I'll make you my woman right here and right now."

"YOU BASTARD! DON'T YOU DARE!" Zheng Weimin stared at them with bloodshot eyes.

If gazes could kill, Zheng Weimin would be able to kill even Immortals with his intense gaze.

Yuan suddenly hugged White Lotus and whispered in her ears, "Don't worry, I won't actually do anything to you."

White Lotus sighed inwardly, 'I wouldn't mind it even if you were for real...'

She then spoke in a genuine tone, "I am willing. If you want me to be your woman, both my body and heart are yours..."

To Yuan's surprise, White Lotus suddenly dragged him to the bed in the room and started loosening his clothes.

She then looked at Zheng Weimin and continued, "You have made my life miserable for many years with your harassment. Today, I will prove to you and the world that I am not your woman!"

She returned to looking at Yuan and gave him a seductive wink.

Before Yuan could react, White Lotus pulled his body on top of hers and started kissing him again, this time more passionately.

While they kissed, White Lotus began loosening her clothes as well.

"STOP! I ADMIT IT! I WAS THE ONE WHO ORDERED THE HIT ON YOU! I WAS WRONG!" Zheng Weimin could no longer endure the mental torture and admitted to his crimes.

However, White Lotus didn't seem to have any intention of stopping, mostly because she was too focused to hear Zheng Weimin's voice.

"WHY AREN'T YOU STOPPING?! I HAVE ALREADY CONFESSED!"

"..."

"He's already confessed. Let's stop here..." Yuan said to White Lotus before slipping away from her hold and getting off the bed.

White Lotus was reluctant, but she had no choice but to end the fun there.

After fixing their clothes, White Lotus asked, "What are you going to do to him now? Turn him to the authorities?"

Yuan narrowed his eyes on Zheng Weimin, who was lying on the floor with a half-dead look on his face.

"As long as he's alive, he will try to take revenge again. It may not happen tomorrow or even ten years from now, but I am not going to take any chances." Yuan spoke in a cold voice.

"Kill me if you want... I will haunt you for the rest of your life..." Zheng Weimin mumbled in a low voice.

"How did you contact the assassins?" He then asked.

"If you're trying to call off the hit on you, then you can give up. They won't stop until their target is dead, even if it takes a hundred years." Zheng Weimin chuckled.

Yuan went to take Zheng Weimin's cell phone and laptop a moment later.

"Let's go." He then said.

"Huh? Where are we going? Aren't you going to kill him?" White Lotus was baffled when Yuan started walking out of the room.

However, Yuan didn't respond to her until they were both outside the mansion.

"Are you really going to forgive him?"

"No, I am not." He said in a calm voice as he faced the mansion and summoned the Empyrean Overlord.

"Take twenty steps back," he then said.

White Lotus didn't question him and distanced herself from him.

Once she was far enough, Yuan took a deep breath and gathered his spiritual energy.

[Heaven Splitting Sword Strike!]

Yuan released the Heaven Splitting Sword Strike that contained about 90 percent of his strength.

A massive beam of light consumed the mansion and everyone within.

BOOM!

The mansion disappeared instantly, alongside over three miles of the wilderness behind the mansion.

"N-No way..." White Lotus fell to her knees upon witnessing the destruction caused by the Heavenly Splitting Sword Strike.

'With such power, he could easily wipe an entire city off the map!' She cried inwardly.

"This will not only erase the evidence of our involvement, but it will also serve as a warning to the Zheng Family." Yuan said in a calm voice.

White Lotus swallowed nervously.

After erasing the mansion, Yuan turned to face White Lotus and offered his hand to help her stand back up.

"T-Thank you..."

"I'm really sorry." He suddenly sighed.

"Huh? Why are you apologizing?"

"I took advantage of you today just to get back at Zheng Weimin, and I even took away your first kiss. I'm truly sorry." Yuan lowered his head and apologized again.

"I-It's fine!" White Lotus started waving her hand in a flustered manner.

"As you'd said, it's just a kiss. I am not so immature and innocent to care about something like that. And to tell you the truth, I wasn't lying when I said that I wanted you to be my first."

"However, if you wish to take responsibility and make me your woman, I won't object to it." White Lotus spoke in a teasing voice, yet her face was flushed with redness.

"L-Let's continue this conversation another time... I'm sure this place will be flooded with police soon, and we still have to deal with the assassins Zheng Weimin hired."

"All right. Then let us return to the hotel and see if Zheng Weimin had left any clues behind." White Lotus nodded.

Yuan carried White Lotus into the air and disappeared from the scene shortly after, returning to the hotel.

Chapter 968 - Unknown Weapon of Mass Destruction

After Yuan and White Lotus left the scene, helicopters and police cars flooded the place that used to be Zheng Family's branch family.

They were all stunned by the destruction there, and nobody there could imagine the kind of weapon that caused this mess.

"What in god's name happened here? Even a railgun would not be able to cause such destruction."

"Is this a new type of weapon? What could have transpired here that requires such immense power?"

"Hey, isn't this the location of the Zheng Family's mansion? I believe their oldest son, Zheng Weimin, lives here."

"Huh? Are you sure this is the right place?"

"Yes, I am certain that the Zheng Family had a mansion here."

"No way... Does that mean..."

"S-Somebody get in touch with the Zheng Family! This is an emergency!"

The investigators were shocked to learn that a mansion used to exist in this place.

Sometime later, Zheng Ye learned of the situation.

"What the fuck do you mean my family's mansion have disappeared?! Where is my son, Zheng Weimin?! Is he okay?!"

"I'm sorry, but we do not have any information on your son, but we are looking for him as we speak. Turn on the television, you should see for yourself the situation here..." The head investigator said to him.

Zheng Ye quickly turned on the television with a heavy heart.

"You have got to be fucking kidding me..." Zheng Ye nearly fell out of his seat after seeing the situation.

[About twenty minutes ago, an unknown weapon of mass destruction had detonated in this place, erasing over 1,000 acres of land! The authorities are still trying to figure out what happened here! If you have any information, please call them at...!]

[To think two horrifying incidents would occur in this city in such a short time... Just what on earth is happening? Could this be the work of terrorists?]

"As you can see, Mister Zheng... If your son had been inside or anywhere near the mansion at the time of the incident, it is very unlikely that he would've survived."

"No! NO! I told my son to leave that place when I spoke with him earlier today! He should still be out there somewhere!" Zheng Ye held onto the hope that Zheng Weimin had listened to his advice to go into hiding.

"I want the bastard who did this to be found!"

"Rest assured, Mister Zheng. We will use all of our resources to find the culprit. If there is some madman with a weapon that can cause this much destruction out there, we must catch him and seize the weapon at all cost."

After hanging up, Zheng Ye stared at the television with an ugly expression on his face.

Sometime later, he opened his laptop and started a video call with Bai Mengyao.

"What do you want, Zheng Ye?" Bai Mengyao asked him in an annoyed manner, unaware of the situation yet.

"Y-You bastard! Is this your work?! Did you attack my Zheng Family just now?!"

"Huh? What the fuck are you talking about?"

"Turn on the television and see for yourself!" Zheng Ye shouted.

Bai Mengyao recalled a similar situation happening not long ago, but the roles were reversed this time around.

"Holy shit! What happened here?!" Bai Mengyao was terrified by what he saw on the television.

"Wait! You think my Bai Family has something to do with the news?! That's outrageous! Even more outrageous than the shooting today!"

"It's the truth, isn't it?! My Zheng Family got attacked right after you threatened to attack us! There's no way this could be a coincidence!" Zheng Ye roared.

"Are you out of your mind?! You think my Bai Family is capable of this?! There should be a limit to your imagination! Whatever caused this is obviously not human!"

While Zheng Ye and Bai Mengyao argued back and forth, Yuan and White Lotus returned to the hotel.

"Yuan! Are you okay?!" Chu Liuxiang rushed to his side the moment she saw him enter the room.

"Yes, I am fine." He nodded.

"What happened? Did you find any evidence?" Meixiu asked him.

"Yes, Zheng Weimin confessed to hiring the assassins this morning. However, he didn't tell us how to contact the assassins, so we're not completely safe yet, and I won't rest until I find the bastards that shot at us." Yuan said.

"I see... What about Zheng Weimin?"

"I killed him. I didn't want to risk having him come after us again in the future. I'm sorry if my decision disappointed you."

"No, I understand why you did it, and I don't blame you. I'm sorry for making you bear everything for us..."

"It's fine." Yuan shook his head.

After a moment of silence, Chu Liuxiang suddenly spoke, "By the way... Your eyes... They're red."

"Yes. I have somehow regained my vision, so I can see again now." Yuan finally revealed the truth to them.

"What! No way! Really?!" Chu Liuxiang exploded with excitement.

"I'm serious." He nodded with a gentle smile on his face.

"To think this would happen right before Yu Rou's birthday... This is going to be an even bigger surprise than the concert." Meixiu smiled.

"Indeed. That's why I must take care of these assassins before then. I want the birthday surprise to be perfect."

White Lotus entered the room sometime later and said, "Yuan, I had the experts look into Zheng Weimin's cell phone and laptop, and they found a phone number and address that might allow us to contact the assassins."

"Perfect."

Yuan turned to look at Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang and said to them, "I will finish everything this time."

"Stay safe. They're dangerous enough to shoot us in broad daylight."
Meixiu said.

Yuan chuckled, "I doubt it'll be any more dangerous than what I have already experienced at the Zheng Family."

After Yuan left with White Lotus, Chu Liuxiang decided to relax a little and open the television that happened to be on a news channel.

"M-Meixiu... Look at this..." Chu Liuxiang called for her.

"My god... Wait... this happened only half an hour ago?" Meixiu swallowed nervously and turned to look at the door that Yuan just left from.

"You think he's responsible for this?"

Meixiu smiled and said, "If anyone is capable of doing this, it could only be him."

Chapter 969 - Locating the Assassins

Chapter 969 - Locating the Assassins

After leaving the room with White Lotus, Yuan followed her to another room where the experts were inspecting Zheng Weimin's equipment.

"So this is the phone number that might help us contact the assassins, and this location appears to be a meeting point."

"Can you track the phone number?" White Lotus asked.

"We can try, but we'll have to call them first." The expert said.

"I'll call them." Yuan suddenly said.

"What about your backup story?" White Lotus asked.

"I already have one in mind."

"All right. Then let us set up the tracker first." The expert said.

Half an hour later, the expert handed Yuan a specialized cell phone.

"We'll begin the tracking as soon as they pick up the phone. Try to stall them for as long as you can."

Yuan nodded and called the phone number.

After a couple of rings, someone picked up the number and spoke in a cold voice, "Password?"

White Lotus and the experts were listening to the phone call as well, so they immediately frowned upon hearing about a password for the first time.

However, Yuan calmly responded, "Fuck your password. I need a bastard killed. 100 million."

White Lotus turned to look at Yuan with wide eyes.

'He's going to order a hit?!' she cried inwardly.

The person on the other side of the call remained silent for several moments before responding, "I'm sorry, but you have the wrong number."

"Hang up on me and I will call another number, and I will add you bastards to my kill list."

"..."

"Who told you about this phone number?"

"Are you fuckers investigators or mercenaries? If you keep wasting my precious time, I will let the person who recommended me know of your trash service."

After another moment of silence, the person spoke, "Give me a name."

Yuan took a deep but silent breath before speaking, "Yu Yong, he's the head of a major entertainment company that focuses on music."

White Lotus' jaw dropped after hearing this familiar name. After researching Yu Tian's background, she learned of his adoptive parents, Yu Yong and Tang Lee.

'He's putting a hit on his adoptive father?!'

A few moments of silence later, the man behind the phone spoke, "He's a big name. It'll cost you more than 100 million if you want his head."

"Give me a number." Yuan calmly said.

"Five hundred."

"That's a hefty amount. What if you fail?"

"There's no such thing as a perfect hit. However, once we put a target on someone, we will make sure it is a success no matter how many times we fail."

"Very well. I'll pay that amount."

"I will now give you an account number. You have 24 hours to make the payment."

After giving Yuan the account number, the man continued, "Once we see the payment, we will give you a call back. We'll make the real arrangements then."

Yuan then spoke in a cold voice, "Just so you know. I may trust my friend, but I don't trust your service yet. If you dare to scam me, I will destroy your entire organization."

The man laughed out loud, "I welcome you to try even though we won't scam you."

Yuan looked at the experts in the room for their signal.

The expert nodded his head and gave Yuan a thumbs up.

"Then I will see you soon."

After hanging up the call, Yuan went to see the results.

"Although we were able to track the call to their location, we were unable to pinpoint the exact location."

"Just give me the general location and I will find them myself." Yuan said.

"It's about a four hour drive from this place, right around here." The expert showed him the map and the general location of the call.

"I understand. I will go there right away." Yuan nodded.

"Should I come with you again?" White Lotus asked him.

"No, I will be fine by myself. I don't want to endanger you."

"All right... Stay safe."

Yuan left the hotel by himself shortly after and flew towards the location of the assassins.

He decided to fly using the Empyrean Overlord since it was much faster and he could use it for longer.

An hour later, Yuan arrived at the location on the map.

However, there were nothing but trees at his location.

When Yuan couldn't see anything out of the ordinary with his eyes, he decided to use his divine sense.

After a few minutes of searching, he noticed some footprints, which he followed to a hidden entrance that appeared to lead underground.

After taking a moment to look for traps, Yuan landed in front of the entrance, and without any hesitation, he yanked the metal door open with his bare hands.

Alarms began blaring inside the bunker, but Yuan ignored it and headed straight for the room with the most people.

However, he was quickly stopped by people wielding heavy firearms.

"Y-You! What are you doing here?!" The people that stopped him appeared to recognize his face.

"Hey, I'm here to repay the favor. If you lead me to the bastards who shot at me and my friends today, I will let you live." Yuan said to them in a calm voice.

"In your fucking dreams! Now die!"

They opened fire the following moment.

However, as usual, Yuan stopped the bullets with his spiritual energy before they could even reach him.

"Is it that fun to shoot at people? It's all you guys ever do. Let me give it a try." Yuan casually flicked his arm, sending the bullets that he'd caught straight back to the shooters but at an even faster speed.

"Ah!"

The six people there collapsed the following moment with holes all over their corpses.

"How boring." Yuan shook his head and continued making his way deeper inside the bunker.

He would encounter more people with guns, and he would always give them a chance to tell him what he wanted to know in exchange for their lives.

Unfortunately, they would all respond with bullets instead of words.

In the end, Yuan had to kill every person he came across until he reached the lowest part of the bunker, where a massive metal door blocked his path.

Chapter 970 - Locating the Assassins (2)

Chapter 970 - Locating the Assassins (2)

When Yuan reached this metal door that was built to withstand even nuclear weapons, a voice resounded from the speakers in the hallway.

"I fully understand why we were unable to kill you today, you fucking monster. We should've asked for way more money when we accepted the request to kill you." A familiar voice resounded.

Yuan recognized this voice to be the same as the person he spoke to on the phone today.

"You'll need more than guns to kill me." Yuan casually said.

"Anyways, why don't you open the door and let me in? It'll be a whole lot messier if I have to force my way inside."

"Hahaha! Go ahead and break this door if you can! This place was created to withstand even nuclear weapons!"

"Is that so?" Yuan sighed.

He then asked, "Before I do so, I have a question. The bastards that shot at me today. Are they inside with you?"

"I see! So you're looking for the squad responsible for the incident today. Unfortunately, you won't find them here— because they're currently on their way to the White Lotus Hotel!"

"Furthermore, they will kill anyone in that hotel until they find you! However, since you're obviously not there, that means everyone in that hotel will be dead soon!"

After learning this information, Yuan started preparing for the Heaven Splitting Sword Strike.

"Hey, do you remember our call earlier?"

"Huh? What are you talking about?"

"Yu Yong. I was the one who called you just now."

"So you tracked the phone call, huh. Not bad. I am impressed by the one who managed to track us despite all of the security we had."

"You welcomed me to try and destroy your organization. I will be fulfilling your desire now."

"Hahaha! And how are you going to do that?! With that sword in your hand?! In case you missed it, not even nuclear weapons can destroy this place, much less a sword! I have already called for reinforcements, too! They will be swarming this place soon!"

"Whether it will work or not, we'll know soon enough."

Once he'd gathered enough spiritual energy, Yuan released the Heaven Splitting Sword Strike directly at the door.

The ground immediately shook, and the people inside the sealed room felt as though they'd been struck by a meteorite.

A few moments later, Yuan looked at the results.

All of the dirt and materials built around the room had completely vanished, revealing the bunker to the open sky.

However, the room itself was still there.

With that being said, it had sustained heavy damage, and major cracks could be seen around this room that was basically a large metal box.

"W-What the fuck just happened?!" The people in the room were baffled by what they'd just experienced, and they were terrified when they saw the cracks in the walls.

"Wow, you actually survived. I'm genuinely impressed."

The people inside the room could hear Yuan's voice through the cracks on the walls.

"However, it doesn't look like it will be able to survive another one."

"W-Wait!" The familiar voice resounded again, but it sounded much more nervous this time.

"L-Let's talk about this! What do you want?!"

"I want the bastards currently heading to the White Lotus Hotel. Give them to me and I will spare your lives." Yuan said.

"I understand! I will immediately command them to return!"

The man retrieved his cell phone and ordered the squad to return.

"It's been done! They have halted their mission and are currently on their way back here! They should arrive in about three hours!"

"And you expect me to just believe you?"

"I swear on my ancestors' grave that I am telling the truth!" The man said.

Yuan suddenly retrieved a cell phone and called Meixiu.

After explaining the situation to her, he said, "I want you guys to evacuate the hotel. If anything happens there, I want to know."

"I understand. I will call you back once we evacuate."

About half an hour later, Meixiu called him back and said, "We've evacuated to another location. White Lotus left most of her guards behind to protect the hotel, and she's even called in reinforcements. They will contact us if anything happens."

"Thank you. I should return in about four hours if everything goes smoothly."

"Okay."

After hanging up, Yuan proceeded to stand in front of the metal box like a guard, patiently waiting for the assassins to return.

The people inside the metal box wanted to escape, but none of them dared to leave the room, and there was only a single way out of there—the door that was being guarded by Yuan.

Sometime later, the man's voice resounded again, "I-It was you! You're the one responsible for what happened to the Zheng Family today! You're the 'unknown weapon of mass destruction'!"

However, Yuan denied such claims.

"I have no idea what you're talking about."

The people inside the room were well aware that Yuan was lying, but they didn't dare to push their luck and continue to accuse him.

About two and a half hours later, Yuan could see five people approaching the destroyed bunker with his divine sense.

"W-What the fuck happened here?!"

"My god! It's like someone had dropped a nuke on this place!"

"Shit! This is a trap!"

This group of people tried to run away when they realized their situation, but they didn't get very far before Yuan descended from the sky, blocking their path.

"Why don't you all stay still for a moment? If you try to run, I will immediately kill you." Yuan summoned the Starry Abyss and removed its invisibility, letting it fly around the group to threaten them.

Meanwhile, Yuan faced the bunker and released another Heaven Splitting Sword Strike, completely erasing everything this time.

"Sorry, but I lied when I said that I would let you all live." Yuan mumbled towards the direction of the bunker— at least where it used to exist.

After cleaning up what's left of the bunker and everyone in it, Yuan turned to look at the group of five assassins with a cold gaze, who were terrified out of their minds after what they'd just witnessed.

"It's so nice to see you all again. I have been anticipating this reunion for a while now." Yuan said to them with a gentle smile on his face that looked incredibly devilish to the group.

Chapter 971 - I Will See You in Hell!

Chapter 971 - I Will See You in Hell!

"W-What are you going to do to us, you monster!?" One of the assassins there used all of his courage to shout out loud.

"Nothing much. I am just going to punish you all a little for your actions." Yuan calmly said.

He suddenly flicked his sleeves, immediately severing the arms of one of the assassins there.

"A-Aaaah! My arms!" The assassin screamed in a terrified voice as blood sprayed from his wounds.

"It's just your arms, what's the big deal? I'll give you something else to scream about."

Whoosh!

The Emyrean Overlord moved in a speed that none of the assassins there could see with their bare eyes, and before they realized, Yuan severed that assassin's legs.

The assassin fell to the ground and screamed in horror as he laid around his own severed limbs.

The other four assassins gasped in shock. The scene before their eyes looked like it came straight out of a horror movie.

One of them couldn't endure it any longer and started running around.

"Where do you think you're going?" Yuan's voice resounded as the Starry Abyss caught up with the runner almost immediately.

"Aaaaah!" A painful scream echoed as the Starry Abyss severed the runner's legs.

However, the assassin did not give up and started crawling with his arms.

Unfortunately, he did not go very far as his arms were severed as well.

When the other remaining three assassins saw the result of running away, they all gave up the thought and resigned their lives to fate.

"If you're going to kill us, hurry up and do it. Is there a need to humiliate—torture us?!" One of them suddenly said.

"Need? Of course not. However, I want to— just like how you all decided to kill me."

"B-But that was our job! Someone had put a hit on you! If you're going to blame someone, blame that person!"

"Don't worry, I have already dealt with Zheng Weimin. He's currently waiting for the rest of you in hell. And you can only blame yourself for choosing such a job."

"Die!"

One of them suddenly pulled out a pistol and aimed it at Yuan's head before shooting it.

A 9mm bullet flew toward his face the next moment, but it stopped an inch from his head.

The assassin was in disbelief, but he continued to pull the trigger until he emptied the magazine.

A little over a dozen bullets hovered in front of Yuan's face, but he didn't seem to be concerned, almost as though he had expected it.

"If you're going to come at me, you would have a better chance with a knife than a gun." Yuan glanced at the assassin who shot at him before returning the bullets to its rightful owner.

"Ahhhh!"

The bullets struck all of the assassin's vital parts, paralyzing his body almost instantly.

"Don't worry, you'll bleed to death just like the other two."

Yuan turned to look at the two remaining assassins.

One of them was a bulky middle-aged man and the other was a middle-aged woman.

"P-Please! Spare my life! I will do anything you want! To tell you the truth I am still a virgin! I will let you be my f—" The woman started pleading for her life by offering her body, but Yuan swung the Empyrean Overlord before she could finish, sending her head flying into the air.

"How vile." Yuan muttered in a low voice afterward.

Blood sprayed everywhere, but Yuan covered his body with his spiritual energy.

"It's just you now, huh? Any last words?" Yuan asked the remaining assassin.

"Go fuck yourself. It's a pity that we couldn't kill you or those sluts with you today." The middle-aged man spat at Yuan.

"Is that so?"

Suddenly, the sound of police sirens could be heard approaching their location.

"Looks like it's over for you too." The assassin laughed out loud.

Yuan suddenly smiled and said, "Why don't you see for yourself if that will be the case?"

Before the middle-aged man could even react, Yuan plunged the Empyrean Overlord into his body, skewering it.

The man's eyes widened with shock, but he was not dead yet.

The following moment, he watched as Yuan flew into the sky with him.

Once they were above the clouds, Yuan said to him, "If you survive this fall, I'll let you live."

"You demon..." The man managed to smile despite his hopeless situation.

Yuan retrieved the Empyrean Overlord back inside his body, letting the man fall.

"I will see you in hell, you monster!" The man laughed madly as he fell to his death, which was witnessed by the police and investigators that had just arrived at the bloody scene.

Yuan made his way back to the hotel under the night sky as the police investigated the chaos he'd left behind.

"What on earth is happening in this city? The unknown weapon has been used again, and there are even five brutally mutilated corpses. Are we really dealing with a human here?"

The investigators were baffled by what they found at the crime scene.

"Actually, it appears that the unknown weapon had been used two times in this place."

"What?! How can such a powerful weapon be used so frequently?! This situation is more dire than we initially thought!"

"Just what is the motive of the person or entity behind this?"

"What about these people? They appeared to have been cut by something exceedingly sharp."

"Have you identified them yet?"

"No, none of them had any form of identification. Furthermore, we found weapons hidden on their bodies. They're probably mercenaries—the kind that would do any kind of work as long as they are paid enough."

Sometime later, one of the investigators there found the black van used in the shooting nearby.

"With this new evidence, there's a good chance that these guys were the ones behind the shooting this afternoon. We just need to wait for confirmation from the guys at analysis."

"The person responsible for killing them... The wounds are too brutal, which suggests vengeance."

"Vengeance, huh? It would be for the best if that were the case..." The investigators there sighed.

Chapter 972 - A Big Mistake

Chapter 972 - A Big Mistake

After returning to the hotel, Yuan went to look for the others, who had been waiting anxiously for his return.

"Yuan! You're back!" Chu Liuxiang said.

"Are you hurt anywhere?" Meixiu asked him.

"No, I am perfectly fine." He shook his head.

"Welcome back." White Lotus said to him.

"By the way, your deeds are already on the news." She pointed at the television that was already talking about the chaos he'd caused outside the city.

[The unknown weapon of mass destruction has been used again! Furthermore, the authorities have found the culprits behind the shooting this afternoon at...]

"You know, many people have already left the city because of this commotion, and there will be even more leaving tomorrow when they wake up to see the news. I've even received many calls from those at the faction today, all of them are asking to relocate the faction temporarily. They're all scared of that technique of yours— scared that you might release this 'weapon of mass destruction' in the city."

"Sorry, I wanted to resolve this without using the technique, but that wasn't possible. I even had to use it twice." Yuan sighed.

"Let's just hope that there will be an audience for the concert tomorrow. However, with all of the chaos today, I'm afraid that will be quite hard."

"It's fine. The only audience I need is my sister, Yu Rou." Yuan smiled.

"So what's going to happen now?" Chu Liuxiang asked a moment later.

"Are we just going to pretend like nothing happened? There's a lot of people looking for you, right?"

"It'll be fine. They will eventually give up when they cannot find anything. If they find me, we will deal with it at that time." Yuan said.

"Don't worry, the Bai Family will help you keep your secret. Even if your secret is revealed, we have our methods to protect you." White Lotus said.

"Thank you."

Sometime later, Yuan said to them, "Let's go to sleep. I need some rest after what happened today."

"Good night."

After returning to his room, Yuan closed the lights and laid on the bed, but he did not go to sleep immediately.

'I have killed a lot of people today. Even though it's not my first time killing someone since Cultivation Online is also a real world, it feels unnatural to stain my hands with blood in this world.'

'Yu Rou... What will she think when she learns that her brother has turned into a killer?'

Yuan slowly fell asleep as he thought about the day that felt longer than usual.

While he slept, dreams that felt incredibly surreal started appearing.

Inside his dream, he was surrounded by a sea of flames and rivers of blood.

The sky was dark and red, and the whole world appeared to be dyed in black and red.

'This is... the Evil God's memories?' Yuan looked around the gruesome scenery with a slight frown on his face.

All of the buildings were on fire, and there were corpses littered on every street.

"Did the Evil God— I really do all of this?" Yuan mumbled in a low voice.

"You monster! You're responsible for this!"

A desperate cry suddenly resounded behind him.

He turned around to see a middle-aged man holding onto a child, but the child was missing half of his body.

Tears made out of blood flowed from this man's eyes as he roared, "If only you didn't exist, none of this would've happened! You killed all of them! I hope you die!"

However, Yuan couldn't feel any emotions when looking at this middle-aged man who was filled with despair and anger.

His heart was as still and as cold as a block of ice.

Suddenly, Yuan turned to look at the sky, where hundreds of people wearing silver armor could be seen approaching him with killing intent.

When Yuan saw these soldiers, his empty heart started burning with unimaginable rage and bloodlust, and without waiting any longer, he leaped into the air, flying towards these soldiers.

"Surrender yourself already, Evil God! You won't win this war!" One of the soldiers shouted.

"Hahaha! Whether I win this war or not is not something for you to decide!" Yuan laughed like a madman as he used some kind of technique to kill many of the soldiers in one go.

"Are you seriously going to defy the Celestial Emperor— the Heavens?! You're making a big mistake!"

"A mistake? If we're going to talk about mistakes, then let's start with the biggest one in the room— offending me! Hahaha!"

In just mere moments, the Evil God killed all of the soldiers there.

After killing the soldiers, the Evil God lifted his head and released a powerful roar that shook the world.

The roar was so powerful that it startled Yuan awake from his sleep.

"Damn... The Evil God is even more dangerous than I initially thought... Just what caused him to go on such a rampage? Did the Celestial Emperor kill his love or something?" Yuan mumbled in a low voice.

"I am still nowhere close to absorbing all of the Divine Paragon's memories, yet the Evil God's memories are already leaking. I might really go insane if I have to handle the memories of two Immortals at once."

After waking up, Yuan found it hard to go back to sleep, and his body was soaked in sweat.

He decided to take a shower a few moments later to clean his body and clear his mind.

After the shower, Yuan went to look at himself in the mirror, and to his surprise, his red eyes had disappeared. However, he was still able to see using his eyes.

'Just what on earth is going on with my body? There are too many questions and not enough answers...'

Yuan decided to spend the rest of the night cultivating since he couldn't go back to sleep.

Meanwhile, inside her room, Meixiu was deciding whether to answer her cell phone that has been ringing for a while now.

After pondering for a few minutes, Meixiu sighed and picked up the cell phone before dialing Yu Rou.

"Hello? Sorry, I was preparing breakfast just now, so I couldn't pick up the phone."

Chapter 973 - Hospitalized

"Hey, Meixiu! Sorry for bothering you, but can I speak with my brother? I wanted to wait until tomorrow before I called, but I just cannot wait any longer!" Yu Rou said.

"You sound like you're in a hurry. Did something happen?" Meixiu asked.

"Did you not see the news? Something horrible is happening in my city! I could be dead tomorrow at this rate!"

Of course, Yu Rou was talking about the unknown weapon of mass destruction that has terrorized her city.

"Ah, I know what you're talking about. However, I wouldn't worry too much if I were you." Meixiu said.

"Huh? Why would you say that?"

"If this person really wanted to harm the city, they would've destroyed the city already."

"I just can't help but worry when everyone around me is panicking." Yu Rou sighed.

"Anyways, you wanted to speak with Yuan, right? I'm sorry, but that's not possible right now." Meixiu said a moment later.

"Huh? Why not?"

"Well... To tell you the truth, he told me to not tell you since he doesn't want to worry you, but since it's your birthday tomorrow and the truth will eventually be known... Yuan is currently hospitalized."

"HE'S WHAT?!?!!" Yu Rou screamed after hearing this unexpected news.

"What happened to him?! Is he okay?!"

"He got injured during training. It's only a few broken bones, so there's no need to worry."

"That sounds horrible! A few broken bones?! That's very serious! What if he cripples himself again?! He's just got his body back!" Yu Rou exclaimed.

"The doctors said that he'll make a full recovery in a few days." Although Meixiu felt bad about lying to Yu Rou like this, she couldn't let Yuan's hard work go to waste.

"Haaa..." Yu Rou suddenly sighed through the phone.

"I was really looking forward to speaking with Brother on my birthday..."

"Don't worry, I will make sure that you'll still get to speak with him tomorrow." Meixiu said.

"Thank you, Meixiu, but don't force him if he isn't in the condition."

"Anyways, I am going to sleep now. I have something important that I must attend tomorrow morning."

"Goodnight." Meixiu said to her before hanging up.

"Is everything okay?" Xia Jingyi asked Yu Rou after she put down her phone.

"That stupid brother of mine got himself hospitalized right before my birthday! Can you believe it?!" Yu Rou complained.

Xia Jingyi covered her mouth and gasped, "Oh my... I hope he's okay."

"He broke some bones, but he'll make a full recovery."

"Brother is such an idiot. He should treat his body with more care and respect, especially considering how he's already been crippled once before. I'm going to give him a piece of my mind when I go on vacation next month!"

"Anyways, let's go to sleep. We have an important meeting tomorrow according to the Seniors."

"All right. Goodnight, Yu Rou."

"Night."

The following morning, after their morning routine, Yu Rou and Xia Jingyi gathered outside the faction.

"Good morning, Elder Yin." Yu Rou and Xia Jingyi greeted the old woman that was there before them.

"Are you two ready to leave?" Elder Yin asked them.

"Yes, we are."

"Good."

Once they were in the car, Yu Rou asked, "Elder Yin, where are you taking us today?"

"To tell you the truth, I also have no idea. White Lotus said she was in trouble and needed some extra hands, so we picked a couple of disciples to help her." Elder Yin shrugged.

Yu Rou raised her eyebrows.

She looked around the car and asked, "Where are the others?"

"They went ahead since the seats were filled."

"I see..."

Yu Rou sighed inwardly, 'Why do I have to do such chores on my birthday? It's even my day off! Can this day get any worse?'

Meanwhile, Yuan and the others prepared for the surprise.

The concert was to be performed in the city square, one of the busiest places in the city.

"Which idiot decided to do a concert at such a time? Aren't they aware of the danger in this city?"

Most of the streets were empty because everyone decided to stay at home for the next few days due to the recent commotion.

However, the roads were packed with cars because people were trying to leave the city.

With that being said, there was a crowd of people in front of the stage, and most of these people were sent by the Cultivators' Association.

In fact, even the Chairman himself was present.

Even though Yuan had only asked him to prepare the concert, Chairman Lee decided to participate in it as well.

The rest of the people in the crowd were people from the Bai Family, led by Bai Mengyao himself.

After hearing about the concert, Bai Mengyao immediately flew to this city. Of course, he had other intentions.

"Yuan, can I take a moment of your time to introduce my father to you? He came all the way here from another city to meet you." White Lotus asked him after they arrived at the city square.

"Sure." He agreed.

Sometime later, Yuan met with White Lotus' father, Bai Mengyao.

"It's an honor to finally meet the famous Player Yuan. I am Bai Mengyao, White Lotus' father." Bai Mengyao extended his hand for a handshake.

"Just call me Yuan." He accepted the handshake.

"After hearing from my daughter that you'd saved her life, I have been dying to repay the favor. Please, if you need anything, just let me know." Bai Mengyao shook his hands vigorously.

Yuan smiled and said, "Don't even mention it. I am the one who owes White Lotus, who has been a great assistance and friend for the last two days."

"That's great to hear, but my offer will remain. If you ever have troubles, you can contact me or my daughter. We may not be the strongest family in the Legacy Ranking, but we're up there."

"I understand."

After chatting with White Lotus' father for some time, Chairman Lee approached him and started another conversation.

When the crowd there noticed how respectful Chairman Lee and Bai Mengyao were acting towards Yuan, they became interested in his identity.

Of course, besides some people there, the majority of people in the crowd were unaware of Yuan's true identity.

Chapter 974 - My Name is Yu Tian

Chapter 974 - My Name is Yu Tian

"Yuan, we have some trouble." White Lotus suddenly approached him.

"What happened?"

"Well, it's nothing serious, but Yu Rou and her friend are currently stuck in traffic, so they'll be late."

"Oh, all right. It's fine. I can wait."

Sometime later, Meixiu approached him and said, "Yuan, I should've told you this earlier, but..."

She proceeded to explain to him what she'd told Yu Rou last night when she called.

"You told her that I was hospitalized from training?" Yuan couldn't help but laugh at this news.

"She's probably going to be angry once she realizes that I'd lied to her."

"I'm sure she'll understand your intentions. Also, she'll probably forget about it after the concert." Yuan chuckled.

Meanwhile, somewhere inside the city, Yu Rou and the others were stuck in traffic.

"Are the roads usually this busy in the city?" Yu Rou asked, as this is her first time leaving the faction since her arrival several months ago.

"No, not at all. These people are probably fleeing the city." Elder Yin said.

"I would be fleeing the city too if I wasn't living outside the city." Yu Rou smiled.

About half an hour later, Elder Yin received a call from White Lotus.

"Yes, we're almost there. In fact, we can probably walk the rest of the distance."

"Okay, I understand."

After hanging up, Elder Yin said to Yu Rou and Xia Jingyi, "We're going to be walking the rest of the way since we're already half an hour late."

Yu Rou and Xia Jingyi nodded their heads, and the three of them left the car shortly after.

After another ten minutes, they arrived at the city square, where a crowd of people could be seen sitting in front of what appeared to be a portable stage.

"What is going on here?" Yu Rou mumbled in a low voice.

"It looks like a concert... There's even a piano on the stage." Xia Jingyi said.

"A concert at this time? Who would be stupid enough to do something like this?" Yu Rou shook her head.

However, Elder Yin suddenly started leading them toward the concert.

"Elder Yin? Should we really waste our time here?" Yu Rou couldn't help but ask.

After all, their faction leader was waiting for their arrival.

However, Elder Yin didn't say anything to her, so they just stood there in silence.

Suddenly, a person walked onto the stage with a microphone in his hands.

Yu Rou didn't immediately recognize the person on the stage, but when she took a closer look at his face, her eyes widened with shock.

"N-No way..." She muttered in a low voice that was filled with disbelief.

Yuan stopped at the center of the stage and lifted the microphone closer to his mouth.

"Thank you all for coming today. My name is Yu Tian. Some of you might recognize my name because I used to be a professional musician, but I was forced to retire early due to some misfortune. However, I am proud to announce that I have fully recovered!"

"Yu Tian? I recognize him! He's that child prodigy who took the world by storm with his music! I remember going to his concert once! It cost me an arm and leg, but it was definitely worth it!"

"Now that you mention it, I have heard of his name before, too!"

"Y-Yu Rou... Isn't that your..." Xia Jingyi turned to look at Yu Rou, who was standing there with a baffled look on her face.

"Brother...?" Yu Rou's eyes began turning moist, and before long, tears appeared at the edge of her eyes.

After taking a deep breath, Yuan continued to speak while his gaze looked directly at Yu Rou, "Although I have already retired from my career as a professional musician, I have decided to temporarily come out of retirement just for today as a special occasion to celebrate my precious little sister's 17th birthday."

Yuan walked to the piano and took a seat.

After taking a deep breath, his hands started dancing on the piano's keyboard, officially starting his concert.

The audience were immediately enchanted by the heavenly music produced by Yuan's fingers, feeling as though they were being led above the skies by his music notes.

Of course, Yuan wanted this concert to be as realistic and official as possible, so he made sure to have it broadcasted live on television.

Meanwhile, at the Yu Family.

Yu Yong, who was cultivating in silence inside his room, suddenly opened his eyes when all four of his cell phones began ringing almost at the same time.

"This is Yu Yong." He randomly picked one and answered it.

"Yu Yong! You bastard! How long have you been keeping this secret for?!" His colleague's voice resounded.

"Huh? What are you talking about?"

"You're still acting like you don't know anything? Spare me from your humor!"

"I-I'm really confused right now. What are you talking about?" Yu Yong was genuinely puzzled by the situation.

"Turn on your television and go to any music channel!"

Yu Yong immediately turned on the television in his room.

After changing the channel, he could see the live broadcast for a certain public concert.

Yu Yong didn't recognize the person sitting behind the piano at first, but when the camera zoomed in on Yuan's face, Yu Yong quickly realize who he had been staring at, and he cried out loud, "What the fuck is going on?!"

"I should be asking you that, Yu Yong! When did your son, Yu Tian, recover?! You should've told us about it the moment it happened! Do you have any idea how much he means to the music industry and our wallets?! And what's with this shabby-looking concert?! This is his first concert in a decade! You should've prepared something more grand! All of our investors are fuming with anger as we speak!"

However, Yu Yong was so shocked by what he was seeing that he didn't even hear what had been said through the phone.

"Darling! Take a look at the television!" Tang Lee burst into Yu Yong's room shortly after he found out about Yuan's concert.

"I am watching it now! How did this happen?!" Yu Yong gritted his teeth in frustration.

"I don't know, but our investors are contacting us from all directions! They think we're behind this, and they're super angry right now! We need to do something!"

"Of course they are angry! I would be angry too! His return after a decade could've brought us hundreds of millions! However, he wasted it on this shitty concert!" Yu Yong roared.

"Damn it! What should we do?! That bastard seems to have made a recovery! However, we have already kicked him out of the family! If only we had waited for a couple more months, none of this would be happening!"

"Calm down, it's not over yet." Tang Lee said with a cold smile on her face.

"In case you forgot, we still have his contract, and even though we kicked him out, he is still legally part of our family. We'll force him back into our grasp no matter what it takes! I'll go call Meifeng and our lawyers right now!"

Meanwhile, at the city square, the crowd in front of Yuan's concert would grow bigger as time passed.

The people that had been too terrified to leave their homes suddenly decided to witness this performance with their eyes even at the cost of their lives.

By the third song, the entire square was filled with people, and even the people trying to leave the city halted their movements, which clogged up the traffic even more, putting it to a complete halt.

"That young man on the stage looks very familiar! Where have I seen him before?"

"That's that child prodigy Yu Tian!"

"Oh! I remember now! The one that suddenly disappeared a decade ago? I thought he had died!"

"Apparently, he had been suffering from an illness until recently."

"Does this mean he'll return to playing the instruments?! I'll have to attend one of them even if it costs me my entire fortune!"

"Aren't you at one right now? And it's even free!"

"Heavens! I didn't think he could improve, but it sounds even better than I remember!"

Yuan decided to play a total of 17 songs because it was Yu Rou's 17th birthday.

At the end of his last song, Yuan stood up and walked to the microphone before speaking, "Happy birthday, Yu Rou."

The crowd erupted with cheers afterward.

However, there was one person that wasn't cheering, and that was Yu Rou, who was too busy wiping her tears.

Sometime later, Yuan jumped off the stage and began walking into the crowd.

The people there quickly made a path for him until he reached Yu Rou.

"Surprise." Yuan said to her with a bright smile on his face.

"You idiot... How dare you make me cry on my birthday... and in front of so many people..." Yu Rou cried.

Yuan opened his arms, gesturing for a hug.

Yu Rou immediately jumped into his embrace and cried on his chest until she could no longer produce tears and Yuan's clothes were soaking wet.

"Brother... I love you..." Yu Rou mumbled afterward.

"Yes, I love you too." Yuan smiled as he patted her head.

Sometime later, Yuan returned to the stage and said to the audience, "Thank you all for coming to my concert today. Although I will not be returning to my old career as a musician because I found something else I want to chase, I will not give up on music, so you can expect to see me again in the future!"

The audience refused to leave even after the concert was over, and many of them had questions for him.

However, the Bai Family and the Cultivators' Association worked together to keep them from swarming Yuan.

"T-That was an amazing concert, Senior Yu..." Xia Jingyi said.

"Senior Yu? Just call me Yuan. Yu Rou already told you about it, right?"

"Y-Yes... But are you sure? There's still so many people around us..." Xia Jingyi looked around in a nervous manner.

When Yu Rou revealed to Xia Jingyi that her Brother, Yu Tian, was actually Player Yuan, Xia Jingyi was so shocked that she fell unconscious for an entire minute.

"I don't care about hiding my identity anymore so it's fine." Yuan smiled.

"B-By the way, Brother... Your eyes... Have your vision returned?" Yu Rou finally got to ask him.

"Yes, I have regained my vision. In fact, I regained it just yesterday." He nodded.

"That's amazing! How did it return? Did you do anything special?"

"No, it just came back suddenly, just like how my body suddenly started working again."

"Anyways, let's stop talking about me. It's your birthday, after all. Is there anything you want to do?" Yuan asked her.

Yu Rou pondered for a moment before shaking her head, "Not really. I had planned on relaxing in my room and spending most of the day talking to you on the phone, but Meixiu told me that you'd been hospitalized."

"S-Sorry... I didn't want to ruin the surprise..." Meixiu said with a stiff smile on her face.

"Hello, Yu Rou! It's been a while!" Chu Liuxiang suddenly stepped forward with a smile on her face.

"Lulu! You're here too!?"

"Of course. And happy birthday."

"Thank you."

"Ah, I didn't bring any presents with me this year, but next year, I will definitely get you something."

"It's fine. I don't care about that." Yu Rou shook her head.

"Anyways, let's go somewhere quieter. It's too noisy here."

"Sure."

They all made their way to the White Lotus Hotel.

However, before they can even sit down and relax on the peaceful roof, Meixiu suddenly received a phone call from her mother, Meifeng.

"It's my mother. She's probably calling about the concert... Should I answer it?" Meixiu sighed.

"Go ahead. Let's see what she—the Yu Family wants." Yuan nodded with a calm smile on his face.

"Okay."

Meixiu answered the phone the next moment.

Chapter 976 - What Can a Child Like Him Do to Us?

"Hello?" Meixiu spoke after answering the phone.

"You can guess why I called you, right?" Meifeng's calm voice resounded through the phone.

"It's about the concert, right?"

"Is the Young Master with you?"

"Yes, he is."

"Can I speak with him?"

Meixiu turned to look at Yuan, who was already gesturing for the phone.

"Hello, Miss Meifeng. It's been a while." Yuan said.

"Young Master... I'm sure you already expected this even before you planned that concert, but the Yu Family is demanding for you to return to the family now that they are aware of your recovery." Meifeng said.

"Yes, I anticipated that something like this would happen. I can even imagine their faces when they realized that I've recovered."

"What are you going to do now? The Yu Family is already in the process of getting you back. Although the Yu Family is not that threatening in terms of influence, it's their investors that you should be worried about. They won't let you get away so easily."

"And what are they going to do? Force me to play music again?"

"They will most likely threaten you with legal issues and other stuff. If you refuse, they will destroy everything you own and make it so that you won't be able to survive without their help."

"Is that all? That's a lot more boring than what I had in mind." Yuan smiled.

Meifeng was a little baffled by how calm Yuan was acting.

"Young Master..."

"Don't worry, Miss Meifeng. I will willingly come back to the Yu Family later. It's Yu Rou's birthday today, so I am going to spend some time with her. Tell this to the Yu Family."

"Are you really just going to return to the Yu Family? After everything they've done to you?" Meifeng was puzzled again.

"I'm sure they'll be relieved to hear such words, so yes, go ahead and tell them that I will be returning to the Yu Family to work for them again. Anyways, I will talk to you again when I return, Miss Feng."

Yuan hung up the phone after that sentence.

"Y-You're going to go back to the Yu Family?" Yu Rou stared at him with wide eyes.

"Of course not. However, if I don't tell them that, they'll try to mess with us. I'm just buying us some time." Yuan smiled.

"Do you need some help dealing with the Yu Family? My Bai Family can easily crush the Yu Family for you." White Lotus suddenly asked him.

"Thank you for the offer, but this is a family problem that I want to deal with by myself."

"Anyways, let's forget about the Yu Family for now. I want to focus on Yu Rou for today."

"Even if you say that, I don't know what I want to do. I'm satisfied with just spending time with all of you." Yu Rou sighed.

Yuan pondered for a moment before speaking, "Yu Rou, let's go on a quick adventure."

"Where are we going?"

"It doesn't matter." Yuan shook his head.

He then said to Meixiu and the others, "We're going to fly around for a bit."

"Sure." They nodded.

"Huh? Fly?" Yu Rou and Xia Jingyi raised their eyebrows.

Yuan suddenly picked up Yu Rou and carried her like a princess.

"B-Brother!? What are you doing?!" She cried out loud in surprise.

"We're going to go on a little adventure around the city."

And without explaining any further, Yuan flew into the sky.

The others could hear Yu Rou screaming for her life the following moment.

"H-He's flying?!" Xia Jingyi watched their figures disappear into the clouds with a wide mouth.

"It's not your first time flying, so why are you so scared?" Yuan laughed out loud.

"T-That was in Cultivation Online! How are you doing this?!"

"I'm a Spirit Grandmaster."

"No way..."

"Anyways, let's catch up with each other. I am aware that I have been neglecting you for a while now, and I am sorry for that."

Yu Rou sighed, "You don't have to apologize. I have also been busy with my own training, not to mention the difference in our time zone."

The two of them proceeded to tell their own experience for the past few months to each other.

An hour later, Yuan and Yu Rou returned to the hotel, where they continued to chat over some food and tea.

Meanwhile, Meifeng notified the Yu Family of Yuan's decision.

"He agreed to come back to work for us? That was easier than I expected." Yu Yong was dumbfounded after hearing the news.

"This is a little too easy. I think he might be up to something. Let's still prepare just in case." Tang Lee said.

"Of course, but what can a child like him do to us? He's only 18 years old, and he's lived more than half of that life as a cripple. I bet he agreed to come back because he has barely survived the last few months. He will never win against us." Yu Yong laughed out loud.

"Now that he can move again, he has a lot of work to make up for— a decade's worth!" Tang Lee said.

The Yu Family became fully active again in preparation for their future profits.

Later that night, Yuan and the others ate dinner together.

"Yu Rou and Xia Jingyi, the two of you can stay here tonight. We'll all return to the faction tomorrow. However, if you want, you can stay out here with your brother for a few more days." White Lotus said to them.

"Huh? Brother is coming back to the faction with us? I thought males aren't allowed inside." Yu Rou said.

"This is a special occasion." White Lotus smiled.

"Since Brother is coming with us, there's no need to stay here for any longer. And with the recent commotion, I will feel safer at the faction, too." Yu Rou said.

"All right. Then we'll return to the faction tomorrow." White Lotus nodded.

After dinner, Yu Rou suddenly approached Yuan and said, "Brother! I want to sleep with you tonight!"

"Sure." Yuan agreed without any hesitation.

Chapter 977 - Feelings

Chapter 977 - Feelings

Once all of the lights in the room were shut off, Yuan and Yu Rou entered the bed together.

"How long has it been since we slept together? It's only been several months since you left the Yu Family, but it feels like much longer has passed." Yu Rou suddenly said.

Yuan turned his head sideways to look at her delicate face and smiled, "You have matured a lot since the last time I saw you."

"I had to grow up fast now that I am living alone. Living by yourself isn't easy. I thought that I was ready because I had been able to take care of you for years without much trouble, but I underestimated it. It's actually a lot harder to take care of yourself than to take care of others. Fortunately, Jingyi is there with me, so I am not truly alone."

"And brother, I can also say the same to you. You've changed a lot."

"Well, just like you, I also had to grow up fast."

"I know, but you also seem like a different person." Yu Rou said.

"In a bad sense?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"No, not in a bad sense. Before, even though you are older than me, it kind of felt like I was the older one. However, after spending a day with you, I can finally experience being a little sister again."

"Do you prefer the way I am now, or would you rather the old and naive me?"

Yu Rou pondered for a moment before speaking, "Honestly, I like both versions of you. However, if I had to choose, I would definitely choose the current you."

"Can I ask why?"

However, Yu Rou shook her head in silence.

"That's a secret," she mumbled in a bashful voice.

Due to the darkness in the room, Yu Rou's red face remained hidden.

"I guess everyone has their own secrets." Yuan smiled, not minding it.

After a moment of silence, Yu Rou turned to stare at Yuan's face with a serious expression.

"Brother... I have been wanting to ask you this, but I never got the chance."

"Meixiu... How are things between you and Meixiu right now?"

"Eh?" Yuan was taken aback by this sudden question.

"I mean, the two of you have been living together for a while now, and you even got to spend a few months living together inside a small apartment. As two young adults, you must have made some progress in your relationships, right?!"

"I-I don't get what you're trying to ask..." Yuan pretended to be oblivious.

However, Yu Rou wasn't having any of it and continued, "Don't lie to me, brother."

"Meixiu is a very attractive and beautiful woman, and she has been taking care of you ever since you left the Yu Family. The two of you are even around the same age. There's no way that you don't have any feelings for her."

"There's really nothing between us, Yu Rou." Yuan showed her a bittersweet smile.

"Brother! I might have believed you if you were still as naive as before, but you're different now! I am also different! I have matured as your sister and as a woman! I can tell that there's something between the two of you!"

Seeing the expression on Yu Rou's face at this moment, Yuan released a low sigh.

"All right, I will tell you the truth. Indeed, Meixiu is an attractive woman. After all, she's managed to charm me."

"I knew it!" Yu Rou exclaimed.

"How far have you gotten with her? Have you confessed yet?!"

Yuan responded with a stiff smile on his face, "Actually... We're already way past that point."

"Huh?" Yu Rou's eyes widened.

"S-So you're already partners? Like the 'boyfriend and girlfriend' kind?"

"Yes." Yuan nodded.

"I-I see... I have to admit... I truly didn't expect this..." she muttered in a dazed voice.

After a long moment of silence, she asked him, "W-What about Lulu? She likes you too, right? What are you going to do about her?"

"A-About that... She's also my partner..."

"WHAT?!" Yu Rou jumped off the bed after hearing this shocking information.

"How can Lulu be your partner when you already have Meixiu as your partner?! D-Don't tell me... You're two-timing them?!"

"What? No! I am not two-timing anyone!" Yuan quickly said.

Not wanting the misunderstanding to deepen any further, he explained to Yu Rou the whole situation.

"Meixiu and Lulu are both my partners, and they are both aware of it. I couldn't just accept one of them and abandon the other, so I decided to accept both of them. They also agreed to this."

Yu Rou's jaw dropped to the floor after learning the truth.

"M-My brother has a harem..." Yu Rou fell to the ground on her knees.

"Yu Rou?! Are you okay?"

"I-I thought I was mature enough to handle the truth, but alas, I have overestimated myself once again..." Yu Rou said to herself in a dispirited voice.

The room fell completely silent afterward.

Many moments later, Yu Rou stood up and said to Yuan, "Brother! I will be right back! Don't you dare leave this room until I come back!"

And without explaining any further, Yu Rou left the room.

Yuan had an idea where Yu Rou went, so he didn't bother chasing after her.

Sometime later, Yu Rou knocked on the door to Meixiu's room.

"Yu Rou? What's the matter? I thought you were going to sleep with Yuan." Meixiu asked her.

"We need to talk!" Yu Rou said as she entered the room.

Meixiu was puzzled by the situation, but she could tell that Yu Rou seemed frustrated at something.

Once she closed the door, Meixiu approached Yu Rou and asked, "What's wrong?"

Yu Rou did not immediately respond and merely silently stared at Meixiu's confused face.

After a moment of silence, she finally spoke, "Meixiu, I know everything. Brother told me the truth about your relationship with him... and Lulu."

"Eh?" Meixiu's eyes widened.

"Don't worry, I'm not angry." Yu Rou said after seeing Meixiu's worried expression.

"You guys wanted to keep it a secret from me because you didn't know how I would react, right? Thank you for your concerns, but I can handle myself."

"However, I would be lying if I said that I am not shocked by the results."

"Anyways, I came here because I have some questions that I can only ask you since it would be too embarrassing to ask my Brother."

"First of all, how long has this been happening?"

Meixiu pondered for a moment before speaking, "Sometime after we moved out of Xia Jingyi's apartment."

"Then my second question... How far have you guys gone?! Have you kissed yet?!" Yu Rou asked in an anxious manner.

Meixiu swallowed nervously.

She didn't dare to respond without thinking about it first, as this could break Yu Rou's spirit.

'Should I lie to her and say that we've only kissed, or should I tell her the truth— that we've gone all the way?'

"You're not going to lie to me again, are you?" Yu Rou suddenly said with narrowed eyes.

"I have forgiven you for lying about my brother being hospitalized, but I won't forgive you if you lie to me this time!"

Seeing Yu Rou's stern face, Meixiu sighed, "We have kissed. In fact, we have already gone all the way."

"W-What?" Yu Rou was taken aback by Meixiu's words

It took her a moment to comprehend the meaning behind Meixiu's words, but when she finally understood the true meaning, Yu Rou's face flushed with redness.

"Y-You've gone all the way?! L-Like... ALL THE WAY?!" Yu Rou wanted confirmation, as she hoped that it was just another misunderstanding.

However, Meixiu said, "Yes, we've gone all the way— we had sex."

Yu Rou started stumbling backward until she fell on the bed, where she would quietly lie down and stare at the ceiling with a dazed look on her face.

After a whole minute of awkward silence, Yu Rou spoke, "Lulu... Did he also do it with her?"

"Yes." Meixiu answered without hesitation.

"I see... So you guys have finally done it. Good for you, Meixiu."

"Huh?" Meixiu raised her eyebrows.

Yu Rou sat on the bed and said, "You've always liked him, right? The only reason you started working for the Yu Family is so that you could be with my brother. Now that your dreams have come true, what are you going to do next?"

"We haven't planned that far yet." Meixiu shook her head.

Yu Rou turned silent again.

"Are you okay, Yu Rou?" Meixiu suddenly asked her.

"What makes you think that I am not okay?" Yu Rou looked at her.

"I mean... You also like him, right?"

"Of course. He's my precious brother."

"You know that's not what I mean." Meixiu said.

A bittersweet smile appeared on Yu Rou's face as she spoke, "Why are you asking me that?"

"Don't you want to be with Yuan? If it's you, I wouldn't mind having you in our family. I think Lulu will also say the same thing." Meixiu said.

"What? Are you crazy? There's no way we can be partners! He's my brother!" Yu Rou exclaimed.

"Yes, but that is only in name. You're not actually blood-related, so there's no problem."

"There's plenty of problems! Although we may not share the same blood, we have lived most of our lives as siblings! He will definitely reject such an idea, and that will destroy our current relationship! I don't want that to happen!"

"Yu Rou..."

"Thank you, Meixiu. I understand your feelings, but you do not need to be concerned about me. Just like how you figured things out with him by yourselves, I am also going to do the same."

"Anyways, it's getting late. I'm going to go to sleep."

Yu Rou left Meixiu's room and returned to Yuan shortly after.

"I didn't think that you'd return." Yuan said to her.

"Why would you think that?" Yu Rou said as she entered the bed.

"You're not angry?"

"What's there to be angry about? I'm only a little frustrated that you tried to hide the truth from me, that's all."

"Sorry."

"Brother, can I hug you?" She suddenly asked.

"Of course."

Yu Rou moved closer to him and treated his body like a hug pillow.

"I'm going to sleep like this. Goodnight."

"Goodnight."

A few minutes later, Yuan could hear Yu Rou sobbing.

However, he decided to not say anything and pretended to be asleep.

Yu Rou also didn't say anything and kept on crying until she fell asleep.

The following morning, they both acted as though last night never happened.

"Good morning." Yu Rou said to him.

"Morning."

After doing their morning routine, Yuan and Yu Rou went to eat breakfast with the others.

Although none of them said anything about last night, Chu Liuxiang, Xia Jingyi, and White Lotus could sense something off about the atmosphere.

In the end, breakfast ended up feeling a little awkward, mostly because it was a little too quiet.

"Are you guys ready to leave? It'll be a two hour ride to the faction." White Lotus asked them.

"Yes, we're ready."

Once everyone was in a car, they started driving towards the Eternal Lotuses' headquarters.

Their journey to the headquarters was as quiet as breakfast, but it lasted twice as long.

It was obvious to Chu Liuxiang and the others that something had happened to the siblings last night, but nobody there dared to ask.

Upon arriving at the Eternal Lotuses' headquarters, White Lotus said, "I should've probably mentioned this before we came here, but I kind of forgot about them. We actually have a few guests staying here at the moment, and they're all looking for you..."

"Me?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"I got ahead of myself after our meeting in Cultivation Online and bragged about it to some people... I'm really sorry! But I didn't tell them anything about our conversations! I swear!" White Lotus lowered her head and apologized.

Yuan smiled and said, "Don't worry about it. I'll entertain them for a bit if they approach me."

"Thank you."

They all entered the Eternal Lotuses' headquarters shortly after.

Chapter 979 - Visiting Eternal Lotuses

Before entering the Eternal Lotuses' Headquarters, Yuan wore a mask on his face.

"Why are you wearing a mask now?" Yu Rou couldn't help but ask him.

"I don't want to ruin your life in this place. From this point forth, I will be 'Yuan', not Yu Tian." He said.

"I don't care if people find out that you're my brother... In fact, that's something I can brag about."

"I'm only doing this because of the Legacy Families. They're a bunch of annoying people that you don't want to deal with, and I am trying to save you from them."

'A-A bunch of annoying people...' White Lotus sighed inwardly after hearing his words.

As she was from a Legacy Family, she couldn't help but feel like she was part of these annoying people. However, she couldn't refute such claims either, as she found other Legacy Families to be pretty annoying as well.

"Welcome back, Leader Bai, Elder Yin. Welcome to the Eternal Lotuses, Guests." The disciples at the front gate greeted them.

They didn't immediately realize that there was a man amongst their group because Yuan was wearing a mask, and he had long hair tied into a ponytail.

Although his body structure was larger than the ladies there, it wasn't enough to raise any suspicions.

"Is there anything you want to see first, or should I just give you a tour around our faction?" White Lotus asked Yuan after they entered the faction.

"I'll let you decide where we go. I just want to see what Yu Rou's life has been like for the past few months."

"I understand. Then let's do a walkthrough of our disciples' daily routine. There should still be some disciples doing morning training right now."

Yuan nodded, and they proceeded to follow White Lotus around the faction, starting from the area where most disciples go to train.

White Lotus would give them a brief explanation of the place while Yu Rou would recall her experience there.

The disciples there eventually realized that there was a man amongst them, and rumors quickly began to spread like wildfire.

"Did you hear? Senior Bai brought a man into the faction!"

"What! This is the first time a man has stepped foot inside this place since its founding!"

"I heard that not even Leader Bai's father could enter this place. Who is this man that she finds more important than her own father?"

"I couldn't get a look at his face because he was wearing a mask, but I swear I heard Leader Bai addressing him as 'Yuan!'"

"What?! It must be Player Yuan! I heard that she had an encounter with him in Cultivation Online. They probably agreed to meet in real life!"

"Oh my! This is so exciting!"

Meanwhile, in one of the guest rooms, Fiery Queen overheard some of the disciples in the hallway talking about Yuan.

"What? Player Yuan is here? That crafty bitch! No wonder why she's been gone for the last few days! She actually snuck out to meet him! And she even lied to me about it!"

She left her room shortly after to look for White Lotus and Yuan.

Sometime later, Fiery Lotus found them resting under a pavilion.

"What do you think of my faction?" White Lotus asked him as they sipped on hot tea.

"It's very peaceful here, and the disciples are full of enthusiasm. Honestly, I feel a little embarrassed to even call my place a faction after seeing how organized this place is. It's more like a home than a headquarter."

"I think most factions are like that. Only those with enough funds and reputation dare to build such a large headquarter." White Lotus said.

Suddenly—

"E-Excuse me! You can't go in there!" Someone there said in a nervous voice.

White Lotus turned around to see Fiery Queen approaching them with a nonchalant expression on her face.

"Yuan, that's Sasha Walkers, also known as Fiery Queen. She's a top 10 Player in Cultivation Online, and she's from the Walkers Family that is ranked 10th in the Legacy Ranking." White Lotus quickly introduced her to Yuan.

Once she arrived before their table, Fiery Queen combed her short orange hair with her fingers and spoke, "Are you really Player Yuan?"

Feeling her sharp gaze, Yuan smiled and nodded, "How can I help you, Miss Walkers?"

"Oh? You know about me?"

"I only know of your name."

"I see... Well, I don't like beating around the bush, so I am going to ask you directly. Join my Walkers Family, Player Yuan!"

"What can you offer me?" Yuan didn't immediately reject her offer.

'Is this what he meant by entertaining them?' White Lotus wondered inwardly.

"I will double— No, triple what the Bai Family has offered you!"

"Are you sure you can afford it?" White Lotus could no longer remain quiet now that Fiery Queen brought her family into the conversation.

"Your Bai Family may be higher in the Legacy Rankings, but my Walkers Family is ranked second in terms of wealth."

"Tell me, what did your Bai Family offer him to join your family?" Fiery Queen asked.

White Lotus smiled and said, "Actually, we didn't offer him anything."

"What?" Fiery Queen's eyes widened with disbelief.

"Y-You think I would fall for such a cheap trick? Why would he come here if you didn't pay him?"

"It's true." Yuan said.

And he continued, "Neither the Bai Family nor White Lotus has asked me to join their family. I am here on my own accord. In fact, I was the one who requested to be here."

"N-No way... Why would you do such a thing? Aren't you aware that every Legacy Family is trying to acquire you? If you do something like this, it's only natural for people to think that the Bai Family had bought you."

"I have my own reasons for being here." Yuan calmly said.

Fiery Queen gritted her teeth in frustration.

'Is he here because of White Lotus? Did he get charmed by her? This is bad... At this rate, the Bai Family will acquire him! What can I do in this situation?'

Chapter 980 - Fiery Queen's Offer

"Si-Since the Bai Family hasn't offered you anything, then allow me to offer you to join the Walkers Family. What do you want? As long as it's something that money can buy, we will give it to you." Fiery Queen said to him after pondering for a moment.

"Sorry, but there's nothing I want." Yuan calmly responded.

"What? That's not possible. Everyone has something they desire."

"Indeed, that is true. However, what I want cannot be purchased with money."

"You won't know until you try. Love, happiness, fame— anything can be bought. Tell me what you desire and the Walkers Family will do everything in its power to acquire."

After a moment of silence, Yuan spoke in a calm voice, "If I say that I want the Walkers Family, will you be able to hand it over to me?"

"T-That's—!" Fiery Queen was dumbfounded by Yuan's question.

"What's wrong? Why are you hesitating? Didn't you say that you would give me anything? Or are you going to ask me to not be so greedy?"

"I'm sorry, but I don't think we can fulfill such an unreasonable condition. Anything else but that, please."

Yuan shook his head, "Sorry, but I was only joking. I don't plan on joining any Legacy Family, so you can stop asking."

"Can I ask why? You would gain a lot of benefit if you joined us. Or do you plan on creating your own family?" Fiery Queen narrowed her eyes at Yuan.

"I have no interest in the Legacy Ranking. As for why I don't want to join any Legacy Families... I don't want to break the current balance." He said.

"I don't want to sound arrogant, but if I join any family, even the lowest ranking family, it would immediately break the balance, and I'm sure nobody wants that to happen."

'Breaking the balance...?'

Both Fiery Queen and White Lotus frowned upon hearing this, as neither of them had thought about it like this until he mentioned it.

'He's right... If someone like him joins the Legacy Ranking, the family he chooses will immediately become the most powerful and influential family in the Legacy Ranking regardless of their previous rank.' White Lotus thought to herself.

'The other Legacy Families will probably work with each other to destroy such an unbalanced family. In other words, the moment he joins a Legacy Family, there will be a war...' Fiery Queen sighed.'

As much as she wanted to acquire Yuan for her family, she did not want to fight with the other Legacy Families simply because they had him.

After pondering for a few moments, Fiery Queen smiled and said, "Very well, I will give up on trying to recruit you. However, I have another proposal."

"While it's true that the other Legacy Families won't be happy if we pay to acquire you, they won't have anything to say if you marry into our family!"

She pointed at herself and said, "If you marry me, that will solve everything!"

"What nonsense are you saying?!" White Lotus slammed the table, startling everyone there.

"Nonsense? I think it's quite ingenious!" Fiery Queen said in a prideful tone.

"Yuan, forget about her. She's a lost cause."

"W-Wait! I was only joking!" Fiery Queen suddenly said.

And she continued, "Here's my real proposal. Instead of asking you to join our family, I will pay for your assistance."

"Can you elaborate?" Yuan asked.

"Basically, I want to hire you."

"And what kind of job do you want me to do?"

"I'm not sure yet, but we'll probably ask for you to do something for us in Cultivation Online. Maybe even train some of our players."

"If that's too much to ask, then I buy information from you instead—information about Cultivation Online."

Yuan pondered about Fiery Queen's offer.

'Although I can acquire money by selling Cultivation Online treasures like last time, I will be going to the Third Heaven soon, and that will make it difficult for me to use their auction house, especially since I will be busy traveling the world.'

'However, if I can sell information about Cultivation Online, I can earn money just by telling them about my experience in Cultivation Online, which is essentially free money.'

"How much are we talking about?" Yuan then asked.

"That will depend on the information you give us. We will give you a fixed price for each information you give us, and then we will pay you a bonus depending on its usefulness. How does that sound?"

"In other words, if my information helps you acquire treasures or other valuables, you will pay me extra?"

"Exactly." Fiery Queen nodded.

"Sure, I don't mind if it's just selling information." Yuan agreed.

'Yes!' Fiery Queen celebrated inwardly.

"Leave your contact information with me and I will contact you later." Yuan then said.

"Of course!"

Fiery Queen immediately handed Yuan her business card.

"Then I await your call! Thank you!" Fiery Queen left the place shortly after.

As much as she wanted to linger and talk more with Yuan, she didn't want to push her luck.

"If you don't mind me asking, why did you agree to working with her?" White Lotus asked him afterward.

"It seemed like an easy way to earn money, so why not? If things don't work out, I can stop working with her whenever I want." Yuan said.

"A-Are you, by some chance, having money problems?" She couldn't help but ask him.

Yuan chuckled, "It's embarrassing to admit it, but yes, I'm actually quite broke right now. I plan on selling some treasures that I'd found in Cultivation Online in the future, though."

A flicker appeared in White Lotus' eyes after hearing his words, and she quickly said, "I-If you don't mind, can you sell these treasures to my Bai Family?!"

"Are you sure? You don't even know what kind of treasures they are."

"We can figure these things out later!"

"Sure. Once I return home, we can meet in Cultivation Online. I will show you the treasures then." Yuan nodded.

"Thank you!" White Lotus said excitedly.

Chapter 981 - Staying Overnight

After their break ended, Yu Rou asked, "Brother, would you like to see my room?"

"Sure."

Sometime later, they entered Yu Rou and Xia Jingyi's room.

"What do you think?" She asked him.

"It's exactly as I expected it to be— neat and clean." Yuan smiled.

Once they looked around the room, Yu Rou suddenly asked, "Will you be staying with us tonight?"

"I don't want to bother White Lotus and this place any longer, so I will return to the hotel." Yuan shook his head.

"A-Actually, it's fine if you want to stay here overnight. We have plenty of guest rooms, and it would be more convenient if you intend to spend more time with each other tomorrow." White Lotus said.

"Are you sure? I don't want to intrude any more than necessary."

"It's fine, really."

"Then I'll accept your offer."

"Great. I'll have your rooms prepared right away."

White Lotus left the room shortly after.

"By the way, I have something really important to tell you later." Yuan said to Yu Rou a moment later.

"I don't like the sound of that. Is it bad news or good news?" Yu Rou frowned slightly.

"Well... It's not really bad news, but it's not good news either. It's about Cultivation Online and how it affects our lives."

"I don't get it."

"I'll explain it once White Lotus returns."

"All right."

White Lotus returned to the room about five minutes later.

"I have arranged your rooms for tonight," she said to them.

"Thank you. Anyways, now that you're here, let's continue our conversation. I wanted to tell you guys at the pavilion just now, but Fiery Queen interrupted and I'd rather keep this between us."

Yuan removed his mask and looked at White Lotus with a serious gaze, "What I am about to tell you is highly confidential, so please keep it a secret even from your family. If it's leaked to the public, there will be an outcry, and who knows how the people will react to it."

"My lips are sealed no matter what you say from this point forth." White Lotus nodded.

"Good, now listen carefully."

After taking a deep breath, Yuan proceeded to tell them the truth about Cultivation Online and the connections it has with their own world.

Although Yu Rou and Xia Jingyi already knew that treasures inside Cultivation Online affected their real bodies, this was news to White Lotus, who was shocked speechless even before the grand reveal.

"The world of Cultivation Online, also known as Nine Heavens, truly exists in this universe somewhere, and our world, Earth, used to be part of the Nine Heavens before it was split."

"Wa-Wait..." White Lotus had to stop him, as she was unable to comprehend all of it at once.

"The Nine Heavens is a real world? How does that work?"

"The consoles that we use to enter Cultivation Online actually transfers a part of our soul to the Nine Heaven, and using another method, it creates our character with our soul."

"The reason we don't die when we 'die' inside Cultivation Online is simply because we didn't experience true death. When we die, our character will transform back into its soul form."

"This is also why some people lose their ability to cultivate after dying. Their soul had probably sustained too much damage, crippling them for real."

"Furthermore, this is why we are stuck with one character no matter whose console we use to play Cultivation Online."

Yu Rou and the other two stared at Yuan with their eyes as wide as saucers.

"No way... Why would they do such a thing?" Yu Rou muttered in a dazed voice.

"I don't know, but I plan on finding out the truth." Yuan said.

"However, now that you know your character is actually your soul, please do your best to avoid getting damaged, as it could damage your soul. Your soul is basically your spirit— your very existence. If it's damaged, you'll turn into what they call a 'vegetable'. And if your soul is destroyed, you basically die without any chance of reincarnation..."

"If this is true, shouldn't we warn the public so that they could stop acting so recklessly in Cultivation Online?" White Lotus asked.

"Yes, but there's a good chance that a lot of people will stop playing Cultivation Online. I don't know what the Celestial Emperor has planned, but it clearly needs a lot of people. If a large number of people suddenly stop playing, who knows what the Celestial Emperor might do next." Yuan said.

And he continued, "A good portion of our soul is already trapped inside in the Nine Heavens. We're all basically held hostage by the Celestial Emperor until we can go to the Nine Heavens with our real body."

"But how are we going to travel to a place that we can't even locate?" Yu Rou asked.

"I already have a clue. I just need some time to figure it out."

"If you really want to warn people about the dangers of being hurt in Cultivation Online, then you must do so without revealing the truth to them." Yuan said to White Lotus a moment later.

"I understand. I will do my best. I don't want my family or the disciples of my faction to suffer because of this. Thank you for telling me the truth, Yuan. I will be seeing Cultivation Online in a new light now."

Later that night, White Lotus approached Yuan and said to him, "I have spoken to my father about buying your treasures in Cultivation Online, and he has agreed to it. If you're not busy, we can do it now. But if you insist on doing this later, I can wait."

"Let's do it now." Yuan nodded, and he continued, "I will meet you at the same place as last time in a few hours."

"Great! We have plenty of unused consoles. You can use one of those!"

"Then I will see you later."

Once he had a console, Yuan laid on his bed and entered Cultivation Online.

Chapter 982 - A Pile of Treasures

Chapter 982 - A Pile of Treasures

"Welcome back, Brother Yuan." Xiao Hua greeted him when he entered Cultivation Online.

"Are we ascending the Stairway to Heaven soon?" Feng Yuxiang asked.

"No, not yet. I am only back temporarily to sell some treasures." Yuan shook his head.

"With that being said, it should be long before I challenge the Stairway to Heaven. I still have some business that requires my attention."

Sometime later, Yuan arrived at the restaurant with the musicians, where he'd first meet with White Lotus.

"Yuan!" White Lotus waved at him from her table.

Of course, she was surrounded by young men that were trying to hit on her again.

When these young men saw Yuan, they sneered in disdain. However, when Yuan released some of his aura, these young men started running for their lives.

"This isn't an appropriate place to show my treasures, but I still want to enjoy this place for a bit before we start our business." Yuan said to her.

"No problem. I was also thinking that we could enjoy the music for a while before our business."

After ordering some food and tea, the two of them quietly enjoyed the performance at the center of the restaurant.

About an hour later, White Lotus asked him, "Where should we go to do our business?"

"We can just rent a hotel somewhere and do it there," he calmly said.

"That sounds good."

Once they finished their meal and were satisfied with the entertainment, the two of them rented a room at a nearby hotel.

"All right, here are all of the treasures that I am trying to sell." Yuan proceeded to dump all of the treasures he had acquired from the Gu Family and the Blood Sect.

White Lotus stared at the large pile of treasures on the bed with wide eyes.

There were so many treasures that the table wouldn't fit them, hence the bed.

"Th-This is a lot more than what I had in mind..." She muttered in a dazed voice.

The amount of treasures before her eyes at this moment is more than what her family and faction has collected since the beginning of the game... combined.

'How on earth did he acquire so much treasure? It's almost as though he'd robbed an entire sect...' White Lotus was in disbelief.

"Take your time." Yuan said to her as he took a seat at the table and started studying array symbols.

"What are you doing?" She couldn't help but ask.

"I'm studying array symbols. They're more important and widely used than I realized."

After a moment of silence, she spoke again, "Yuan, this amount of treasure is too much to look through by myself. If you don't mind, can I have some assistance? My most trusted bodyguard, Jasmine, and my father, happen to be in this city as well."

Of course, it wasn't a coincidence. She had them prepared just in case anything were to happen.

"Sure, I don't mind." Yuan casually said.

"Thank you! I will contact them right away!"

White Lotus logged off for a couple of minutes before returning.

Sometime later, Jasmine and Bai Mengyao showed up at the hotel.

"It's a pleasure to see you again, Yuan." Bai Mengyao greeted him with a bright smile.

"Hello, Mister Bai. Sorry to bother you this late."

"It's not a bother at all." He laughed.

"Then the treasures are on the bed. Take your time."

"T-This is..." Jasmine and Bai Mengyao were stunned by the amount of treasures there even though White Lotus had already warned them about it through the phone.

'I thought she was exaggerating when she called it a 'pile' of treasures...' Bai Mengyao cried inwardly.

"Let's get to work, shall we?" White Lotus said to them.

Thus, the three of them started looking through the treasures one by one while Yuan focused on his array symbols.

Although Yuan didn't pay any attention to White Lotus and her group because he trusted them, the beings within his body kept a close eye on their every movement just in case they had any funny ideas.

About an hour later, Bai Mengyao wiped the sweat from his forehead and sighed in a nervous voice, "Most of these treasures are Earth-grade and Heaven-grade. If I have to be honest, this will bankrupt us if we try to buy all of them."

"I know..." White Lotus sighed.

The two of them had planned on buying all of Yuan's treasure before, but after seeing just how many treasures were available, they immediately gave up such a thought.

"Although I already know what I want, I am going to look through them again just in case." White Lotus said a moment later.

"Me too."

Thus, they started examining the treasures again.

An hour later, White Lotus returned to Yuan and said to him, "We're ready."

Yuan nodded and stopped studying array symbols.

"We'd like to purchase these treasures." Bai Mengyao placed all of the treasures they wanted to buy on the table before him.

There were a total of 52 treasures, and most of them were Earth-grade with a couple of Heaven-grade treasures.

"Sure." Yuan nodded without even checking the treasures.

"For the pricing, in order to make this as far as possible, we will use the COPlayerAuctions for reference. If you have any objections, please let us know."

"I don't mind." Yuan said.

"Great. Most Earth-grade treasures sell for 10 million to 100 million dollars nowadays, and Heaven-grade treasures cost anywhere between 200 million dollars and 400 million dollars depending on its grade and usefulness."

"We have 42 Earth-grade and 10 Heaven-grade treasures. We will let you decide the price for each of them."

Yuan glanced at the treasures and said, "How about 2 billion for all of them?"

"Huh?"

They looked at him with wide eyes.

"Is that too expensive? I don't mind lowering—"

"N-No. That's not it. It's actually cheaper than we thought." Bai Mengyao quickly interrupted.

"It's a discount. Consider it as my gratitude for the past few days. If you want, you can go pick out some more treasures." Yuan said to them.

"Are you sure? We don't want to take advantage of you..." White Lotus was hesitant.

"It's fine." Yuan nodded with a smile.

After all, these treasures were all useless to him, and he wanted them to feel indebted to him just in case he needed their help in the future.

Chapter 983 - Sparring With White Lotus

Chapter 983 - Sparring With White Lotus

Once they received Yuan's approval to buy more treasure from him at a discount, the Bai Family returned to the bed and started picking out even more treasures to purchase.

In the end, they decided to just buy all of his treasures.

"How much do you want for all of these treasures?" Bai Mengyao asked him.

Yuan looked at the treasures and pondered. There were 201 treasures in total.

"How does 10 billion sound? You can easily get 10 billion back and then some more if you decide to sell them afterward."

Bai Mengyao pondered for a moment before nodding, "Deal! I'll buy all of your treasures for 10 billion!"

"Great. It's a pleasure doing business with you." Yuan shook his hand.

"You can give my daughter your bank information later. We'll send you the money as soon as possible. It'll take three days minimum, but we should have it sent over by tomorrow." Bai Mengyao said.

"Take your time." Yuan nodded.

"As for the treasures, you can take them now."

"Are you sure? We can wait until the payment is through." White Lotus said.

"It's fine. I want to get rid of them as soon as possible, anyway. They're taking up too much space."

Bai Mengyao swallowed nervously after seeing how casual Yuan was being with these treasures, almost as though he was just getting rid of trash in a garage sale.

Although Earth-grade and Heaven-grade treasures are incredibly valuable to other players, they could be considered trash in Yuan's eyes. In fact, he still has several Divine-grade treasures that he plans on selling in the auction house, where he will definitely fetch more money than selling it to the Bai Family.

"Once again, thank you for selling these treasures to us. I will make sure they're all put to good use." White Lotus bowed to him in a respectful manner.

Yuan logged off the game and called Wang Ming shortly after.

"Hey, get on Cultivation Online and meet me at the city square. I have some things for you." Yuan said to him.

"Sure thing."

Sometime later, Yuan met up with Wang Ming at the city square.

"Hey, how did your sister's birthday go? And when do you plan on coming back? The mansion feels empty without your presence." Wang Ming asked him.

"The birthday went pretty well, but it wasn't entirely smooth sailing. Don't worry, it's already been taken care of. As for when we'll return... I'm not sure, but it shouldn't take more than a week."

"I understand. I won't ask for any details now, but make sure to tell us about it when you get back. Anyways, what do you have for me?"

Yuan handed him a spatial ring and said, "I want you to sell these treasures in COPlayerAuctions."

"You mean that online auction house that all of the big families use? I heard their popularity skyrocketed after you sold an item there." Wang Ming recalled.

"Yes, and make sure to tell them that these treasures are from me. They'll treat you better that way."

"I'm a little scared to look at the inside... Oh, do you want me to sell them one by one or all at once?" Wang Ming then asked.

"You'll get more if you sell them one by one. They're all Divine-grade treasures, after all."

"D-Divine?!" Wang Ming exclaimed in a shocked voice before covering his own mouth.

"The last time a Divine-grade item was sold on that platform was when you sold that zither..."

"And that was only a low-quality treasure. All of these are high-quality treasures, so they should be able to fetch a billion with ease." Yuan smiled.

"I see... When do you want me to sell them?" Wang Ming proceeded to ask.

"Whenever you want. I just earned 10 billion selling the other treasures, so I am not in a rush to earn more money right now."

"Ten billion? What the hell did you sell to earn that much money?"

"Forget it, I don't even want to know." Wang Ming shook his head.

"Anything else you want me to do?" He then asked.

"Give the others one ring." Yuan proceeded to hand him 6 spatial rings.

"Are these..."

"Yes, they're resources that will support you while I am gone."

"Once again, I am a little scared to see the inside..." Wang Ming sighed.

"Hmm? Wait. Why are there 9 rings? Since Li Jinxi will be following you, we only have 6 people."

"One of them is for my friend who will be joining us soon. The other two rings are for my sister and her friend. Give it to them when you have the chance."

"I understand."

Yuan logged off Cultivation Online shortly after and went to rest.

The following day, Yuan proceeded to spend the entire day watching Yu Rou live her life as a disciple of the faction.

During his second day at the faction, Yu Rou decided to challenge Yuan.

"Please spar with me!" Yu Rou said to him with a serious look on her face.

"Sure." Yuan nodded without hesitation.

"And don't you dare go easy on me!"

"I won't." Yuan smiled behind his mask.

With nothing but a wooden sword in his grasp, Yuan proceeded to smack Yu Rou around until she could no longer stand back up.

The fight was so one-sided that it looked almost comical.

"I-I know I said to not go easy on me, but did you have to be so brutal? Ahh... I can't feel anything but pain right now..." Yu Rou complained after the spar ended a few minutes later.

"This is how I normally train with the people in my faction. And I didn't hit you that hard. You're exaggerating."

"Exaggerating?! Look at my hand! It's already bruised!"

Yuan laughed, "It'll heal in a few hours."

"Now that I think about it... This is the first time that you've hit me." Yu Rou said a moment later.

"Huh? This doesn't count. It's a spar."

"Whatever. I'm too exhausted to deal with you now."

Suddenly, one of the disciples there approached Yuan and bowed to him, "E-Excuse me! Senior Yuan! Can I also request a spar with you?!"

Yuan looked at this cute and delicate girl and nodded, "Sure."

Sometime later, shortly after his second spar ended, a third followed, and this would continue until Yuan had sparred with everyone there.

"Thank you for the spar, Senior Yuan..." The last disciple to spar with him said as she laid on the floor.

"Thank you for sparring with me." Yuan nodded.

"After seeing you spar with so many people, I am starting to feel like sparring with you too, even though I know that I will lose." White Lotus said with a bittersweet smile on her face.

"If you want to spar as well, I won't mind." Yuan offered his wooden sword to her.

White Lotus looked at the sword with a nervous look on her face.

'If I lose to him before so many disciples, I will definitely lose some face, but if I don't fight him, they others will think that I am a coward. Either way, it's my loss...' White Lotus sighed inwardly.

In the end, White Lotus accepted the sword and agreed to spar with Yuan.

'Even if I lose to him and lose some face, it's a lot better than being labeled a coward!' She thought to herself.

Chapter 984 - Leaving Eternal Lotuses

Chapter 984 - Leaving Eternal Lotuses

"Good luck, Senior Bai! Good luck, Senior Yuan!"

The disciples cheered for them as they entered the sparring area.

"Ready whenever you are." Yuan said to White Lotus, who stood a couple meters away with a serious expression on her face.

"Here I come!" White Lotus announced right before she approached him with a wooden sword.

Yuan calmly and casually dodged the attack, but White Lotus immediately followed up with a second strike.

Thud!

Yuan effortlessly blocked it with his wooden sword.

"Not bad." He swung the sword, forcing White Lotus to retrieve several steps.

'What tyrannical strength! It only looked like he had casually moved his sword, yet it felt as though I had been struck by a large hammer!' White Lotus was shocked after experiencing Yuan's strength for the first time.

Although she was aware of his prowess, it was a whole different story to experience it first-hand.

"Are you okay?" Yuan asked her when she stopped moving.

"Sorry, I lost focus for a second. It won't happen again." White Lotus tightened her grip on the sword and proceeded to attack Yuan again.

The disciples that had been cheering at the beginning quickly stopped when they realized how one-sided the fight between Yuan and White Lotus was.

"I thought Senior Bai would be able to pressure him even if it's just a little, but looking at them now, their fight doesn't seem anything different from the previous spars! He's treating her like a child just like he did to the rest of us!" The disciples were shocked when they realized this.

"Senior Yuan is much more profound and powerful than I anticipated... I wonder what cultivation level he has achieved."

"Seeing how he's handling Senior Bai with so little effort, he's definitely already a Spirit Master."

'More like a Spirit Grandmaster.' Yu Rou and Xia Jingyi thought to themselves after hearing their topic.

Fifteen minutes later, White Lotus collapsed on the ground and said in an exhausted manner, "I-I surrender."

"Thank you for the spar." Yuan said to her before reaching his hand out to her.

White Lotus grabbed it with a defeated smile on her face.

The disciples started cheering once again even though their faction leader had lost, as it was an entertaining spar, and they learned a lot as spectators.

"How much will it cost to hire you to train us?" White Lotus asked him in a somewhat joking tone after getting back to her feet.

"If you come to the Dragon Spiral Mountain, I can train you guys for free."

"Seriously?" White Lotus did not expect such an answer and was taken aback by it.

"Yes. We have plenty of room there, and it seems fun, like a collaboration of sorts between the factions." He nodded.

"Then I will seriously consider your offer."

Sometime later, Fiery Queen showed up, "What are you guys doing? It looks fun."

"You're still here? Why don't you leave already? You have already achieved what you came here for, anyway." White Lotus said to her.

"I will leave when Yuan leaves." Fiery Queen said in a shameless manner.

"Don't worry, I won't stay here for long." Yuan said.

"By the way, I have spoken to my family about our business. They have agreed to it, so you can sell us information whenever you want."

"I'll contact you in a week or so."

"I'll be waiting."

At the end of the day, Yuan said to Yu Rou, "I have decided to leave after tomorrow."

"You're leaving already?"

He nodded, "If I make the Yu Family wait too long, who knows what they'll do."

"Actually, they have been trying to contact me since your concert. I ignored all of them, though. They can't do anything to me as long as I am a member of this faction, anyway. This is even more true now that White Lotus is aware of your real identity." Yu Rou chuckled.

Yuan notified White Lotus about his leave the following morning.

"I see... So you're leaving already. It hasn't been that long since we met, but it feels like I have known you for years now." White Lotus said to him.

"Feel free to visit me whenever you want." Yuan smiled.

"And you're free to visit us whenever you want. Our faction will always have its doors open for you."

"That's good to hear."

After spending the entire day with Yu Rou, Yuan also spent the last night sleeping with her.

"Don't do anything crazy when you get back, Brother." Yu Rou said to them as they prepared to go to sleep.

"I will try not to, but it's going to be hard."

"As long as you don't do anything that will make you a criminal, I will be fine with it."

Yuan silently nodded with a smile.

The two of them fell asleep shortly after.

The following morning, a good portion of the people at Eternal Lotuses gathered at the entrance to see Yuan and his group off.

Yu Rou, Xia Jingyi, and White Lotus followed them all the way to the airport.

"When do you think I will see you guys again?" Yu Rou asked them.

"I will try to visit you once a month." Yuan said.

"That would be great, but since I know that you're a busy man, let's not make any schedules and just see each other whenever we can. I will also try to visit you once in a while." Yu Rou said.

"Sure."

"Also, your birthday is coming up in three months, right? I will be the one to visit you then, so make sure you're free on that day."

"It's a promise." Yuan nodded.

He then turned to look at White Lotus and said to her, "See you later. Despite the slight inconvenience we had, I had fun the last few days."

"Me too. We should play together in Cultivation Online sometimes."

"Of course."

After saying their final goodbyes, the two groups hugged each other.

Yuan's group boarded the plane shortly after while Yu Rou and White Lotus returned to the faction.

Chapter 985 - Returning to the Yu Family

Chapter 985 - Returning to the Yu Family

After boarding the plane, Chu Liuxiang asked Yuan, "So, what do you think of this trip?"

"Exhausting..." He sighed.

"Yu Rou... She knows about our relationship."

"Eh?" Chu Liuxiang's eyes widened with surprise.

"Really?"

"Yes, she asked me about it during the night of her birthday, and I had no choice but to tell her the truth."

"I see... How did she take it?"

"I honestly don't know. She seems okay with it, but she doesn't seem happy about it either." Yuan shook his head.

"That's tough... However, I kind of understand her feelings... I think." Chu Liuxiang sighed, and she turned to look at Meixiu and asked, "What do you think?"

"I also don't know... All I can say is that it's really complicated..." Meixiu also shook her head.

Chu Liuxiang raised her eyebrows since Meixiu's words contradicted herself. If she doesn't know anything, why would she say it's complicated like she knew about it?

However, Chu Liuxiang decided to not ask her about it.

"Anyways, I'm surprised the Bai Family allowed you to leave so easily. In fact, I was so sure that they'd try to recruit you."

Yuan smiled and said, "Well, I'm really glad that they didn't. It wouldn't be easy to refuse them after all they've done for me and Yu Rou."

The three of them proceeded to talk about their short and chaotic vacation for most of their flight.

Meanwhile, White Lotus notified her father about Yuan's departure.

"I see... So he's gone... What about your relationship with him?" Bai Mengyao asked.

"Honestly, while I will admit that I was too nervous to approach him, I also think it's a little too early for me to propose to him. Although I wasn't able to join his family, I think I've made great progress in our relationship. Once I am ready, I will ask him." White Lotus said.

"Nervous? You? Hahaha!" Bai Mengyao laughed out loud.

"I never thought I'd ever hear such words coming from you!"

"Shut up... I'm going to hang up now. I have some things that I want to discuss with Yu Rou."

"All right. Let me know if you need anything."

"I will."

A few hours later, Yuan's plane landed.

"Can you call your mother and let her know that we will be arriving at the Yu Family soon?" Yuan asked Meixiu.

She nodded and proceeded to call Meifeng on her phone.

"Hello? Yes, we have just landed. We should arrive at the Yu Family soon."

"No, we can get there by ourselves."

"I understand. I will let him know."

After hanging up, Meixiu looked at Yuan and spoke, "Apparently your parents are furious that you kept them waiting for so long."

Yuan smiled and said, "I know they're legally my parents, but let's not call them that for my sanity's sake."

"By the way, Lulu, since the Yu Family is only expecting Meixiu and I, and I don't want to make things more complicated than it already is, can you wait for us to be done? They're pretty awful people, so I doubt you would want to meet with them either."

Chu Liuxiang chuckled, "Too bad I have already met with your parents. However, I was still from the Chu Family at that time, so they had to be respectful to me. Don't worry, I won't interrupt your family reunion. Go on and have fun without me."

"Thank you."

They took a taxi to the Yu Family shortly after.

"It's been a while since I have been to this city so I am going to stroll around for a bit. Call me when you're done." Chu Liuxiang said to them before going elsewhere.

Once Chu Liuxiang was gone, Yuan and Meixiu approached the Yu Family's manor.

"How long has it been since I last seen this place? Feels like forever." Yuan looked at the scenery with a nostalgic expression on his face.

Even though his childhood was horrible, he still had some fond memories of this place.

When they arrived at the front gate, Yuan could see a familiar figure standing inside.

"It's been a while, Miss Meifeng." Yuan greeted her with a smile.

"Mother." Meixiu nodded at her.

"Young Master... Your eyes... So it's true that you've fully recovered..." Meifeng covered her mouth after seeing that Yuan's eyes had regained its beautiful color.

Even though she had seen the concert, she still doubted it.

"Where's the couple?" Yuan then asked her.

"They're currently inside, and it's not just them. Their lawyers and even some of the investors are inside, waiting for your arrival." Meifeng said with a worried frown on her face.

"Wow, what a grand audience that they have prepared for us. I kind of feel bad for making them wait so long now." Yuan chuckled.

"Young Master, I have to be honest with you. You should've just remained in hiding. Why did you show yourself so soon?" Meifeng asked him.

"I just figured that it's about time I stop hiding and confront my problems." Yuan casually shrugged.

"Don't worry, I am no longer the pushover they once knew. Let us in, Miss Meifeng. I will handle the Yu Family." Yuan said to her with a confident smile on his face.

Meifeng took a deep breath and released it a moment later.

"All right." She opened the gates from them and led them inside the Yu Family's territory.

Once inside, Meifeng drove the two of them to the manor that was located about half a mile away.

A few minutes later, when they exited the car, Yuan and Meixiu could suddenly feel many gazes staring at them.

Yuan could see many people watching them from inside the manor. Most of them were servants working there, but a few of them were wearing suits.

After entering the manor, Meifeng led them to the audience room that is usually used for important business meetings.

Upon opening the door, Yuan could see Yu Yong and Tang Lee sitting at the end of a large table, and sitting beside them were a bunch of important-looking people that Yuan vaguely recognized.

Yuan stepped inside the room without any hesitation and with a smile on his handsome face.

"I'm home," he spoke in a calm voice.

Chapter 986 - Confronting the Yu Family

Chapter 986 - Confronting the Yu Family.

"Stay here with me." Meifeng said to Meixiu in a low voice when she tried to follow Yuan into the room.

She nodded and stood at the door with Meifeng.

BANG!

"Yu Tian!" Yu Yong slammed the desk with his fist and roared.

"How dare you make us wait this long for you! You should have come back the moment we called you!"

Yuan casually took a seat at the opposite end of the table where he could see everyone and said, "I thought you wanted me out of the family, so why do you suddenly want me back so badly? You were the one who abandoned me."

"So what if we kicked you out of the house? You're already an adult." Tang Lee sneered.

"An adult and a paralyzed cripple who couldn't move without the help of others, yet you still abandoned me."

"Enough. We didn't call you here just so you can bicker with your parents. Yu Tian, you have an obligation to continue working for the Yu Family's company." One of the people there suddenly said.

Yuan turned to look at him and asked with raised eyebrows, "Who are you?"

"I'm David Swanson, an investor and a manager at your father's company, and we're all here to make sure that you'll continue your obligation to your family."

"Father? He may have adopted me, but he's not my father. He's a disgrace to the real fathers out there that care for their own family."

"How dare you!" Yu Yong fumed after hearing Yuan's insults. In fact, this is his first time being ridiculed by Yuan.

"I don't care about your opinions. He is still legally your father, and your contract is still in effect."

"Contract? What contract? I don't remember signing anything." Yuan said in a surprised voice.

"This is the contract." The man immediately retrieved a piece of paper and showed it to Yuan, almost as though he had it prepared beforehand.

Yuan took a moment to read the contract that basically said that he was required to perform at least two concerts every week until he is 60 years old, and that all of the money he earns will be given to the Yu Family.

It was basically a slave contract that would work Yuan to the bones without giving him any in return.

Yuan laughed out loud after seeing his signature on the paper.

"Seriously? You went out of your way to forge this nonsense? Sorry, but I don't feel like working for the Yu Family, no matter what the contract says." Yuan casually ripped the contract to shreds and tossed it into the air.

The entire room turned silent after his little bold action.

"Did you think that you would be able to escape from us by ripping that piece of paper?" Tang Lee suddenly sneered in contempt.

"That was only a copy. However, even if you managed to destroy the original, we have plenty of ways to make you submit."

"Oh? What do you have in mind? Please share with us." Yuan smiled.

"For starters, we can make your life miserable. No matter what job you decide to take, we have the power to fire you on the same day that you joined."

"Without having any sources of income, you'll have to start begging in the streets sooner or later."

"If I can't find an ordinary job, I can simply sell my music talents to other companies. I'm sure that they will accept me even if you threaten them. After all, I am worth a lot of money." Yuan shrugged.

"Or I can just play Cultivation Online and earn money that way. The game is pretty popular, so I should be able to earn some decent money from it."

"That kind of threat is hardly a threat at all." He even chuckled.

Tang Lee narrowed her eyes at him and continued, "We can easily throw you into jail and let you live the rest of your pathetic life there."

"Prison, huh? That doesn't sound too bad, considering that I already have plenty of experience being a slave for the Yu Family."

Tang Lee gritted her teeth in frustration, feeling as though she was not dealing with the Yu Tian that she was so familiar with.

"What the hell happened to this bastard? It hasn't been that long since he started living without the support of our Yu Family. How can someone change so drastically in such a short time? He's no longer the coward and pushover that we once knew!"

Everyone in the room realized that they were no longer dealing with the same person that they used to take advantage of.

However, this didn't shake their resolve, and they continued to threaten Yuan.

When nothing was working, Yu Yong suddenly stood up and shouted, "That's it! I have had enough of this shit! Yu Tian! You will come back and start working for us again! If you don't, we will not punish you! Instead, we will make Yu Rou bear the responsibilities!"

Yuan frowned after hearing this, which caused the people in the room to smile, as they realized that they'd just found his weakness.

"You're going to punish your own blood because I refuse to work for you? What kind of parent are you?" Yuan spoke in a cold voice.

"You can only blame yourself for pushing us this far! If you work for us, nobody will get hurt!" Tang Lee said with a grin on her face.

"Yu Rou is currently a member of the faction 'Eternal Lotuses', right? If we pressure their leader, Bai Lianhua, who is still young and inexperienced, she will definitely be kicked out of the faction. Once that happens, we can do whatever we want to her and there's nothing you can do about it!"

The people there increased the pressure on Yuan.

'Yuan...' Meixiu stared at his face with a worried look on her face. However, she was not worried about Yuan. It was the others that she was worried about.

Yuan suddenly closed his eyes and took a deep breath.

'In the end, this is how things will go, huh?' He sighed inwardly.

When he opened his eyes again, they were completely golden, and the atmosphere in the room immediately changed.

Chapter 987 - A Proposal

Chapter 987 - A Proposal

When Yuan activated Dragon's Gaze, the atmosphere in the room changed, and almost as though the temperature dropped to below freezing, the people in the room began trembling nonstop.

"Yo-You! Wha-What do you think you are doing?!" Yu Yong spoke in a trembling voice.

Even though Yuan used Dragon's Gaze, he didn't want these people to stop functioning, so he used the lowest output possible, but even then, most of these people could barely think under the pressure of the gaze.

"I will say this again... The two of you are a disgrace as parents. When you look at people, you don't see a human, you only see a tool— a tool that you can abuse for profit. People like you are better off dead." Yuan spoke in a calm voice.

"However, even if you are the scummiest people on earth, you are still Yu Rou's parents by blood. I would love to kill you, but I do not have the resolve to kill her parents."

"With that being said, that does not mean I am going to let you go without any punishment."

"Hahaha! Did you just say that you want to kill us?! You must be out of your damn mind! It appears that you have recovered your ability to move but lost your ability to think in the process! You will not get away with threatening us! We'll have you prosecuted!" Tang Lee pointed her fingers at him and roared.

But despite her brave words, her eyes were filled with fear, and her arm couldn't stop shaking.

"You're going to prosecute me for threatening you when you've done the same thing just moments ago? Are you listening to yourself, you damn crazy bitch?"

"W-What did you just call me?" Tang Lee's body shook violently after being cursed out by Yuan.

Meixiu and Meifeng stared at Yuan's nonchalant face with wide eyes and slightly opened mouths, seemingly in disbelief.

"Are you deaf as well? I called you a crazy bitch, since that's what you are." Yuan casually repeated.

"Guards! I want you to break his fingers!" Tang Lee shouted in a fury.

Two of the guards standing by the wall suddenly rushed at Yuan.

"Wai—!" Meifeng wanted to intervene, but Meixiu suddenly grabbed her hand.

"It's okay," she said in a calm voice.

Once the guards were close enough, they grabbed Yuan's arms and tried to restrict him.

However, they immediately realized that they were unable to move him.

"Get your hands off me." Yuan casually flicked his arms, sending the two guards flying.

The guards struck the wall with their bodies, creating a large crater in the wall before falling to the floor unconscious.

"That was self-defense." Yuan calmly said afterward without moving from his seat.

"Y-You..." The entire room fell silent after they witnessed what Yuan had just done.

'They were both Spirit Warriors! How did he beat them so easily?! What is his cultivation?!' Yu Yong cried inwardly.

"G-Guar—"

"Don't even bother trying to send more guards. You're just going to waste money on their treatment fees later— my money." Yuan interrupted Tang Lee.

"W-What are you talking about?" Tang Lee frowned.

"Let's get to the real reason why I came back today," he said with a smile.

"I'm here to get back everything that was taken from me, and that includes all of the money that I have earned throughout the years."

"Hahaha! You're truly out of your damn mind! As if we'd agree to your nonsense!" Tang Lee laughed out loud.

"I'm not asking. I'm demanding for my money back." Yuan increased the intensity of his Dragon's Gaze.

Tang Lee fell back to her chair the next moment from the intense pressure.

"Y-You're asking for the impossible, Yu Tian. Don't forget about your contract. The Yu Family doesn't owe you anything. In fact, you owe them money for being unable to work, which was part of you—"

Yuan looked at the person who just spoke and narrowed his eyes, "Can you shut up about the contract already? As if I give a damn about a piece of paper that you all forged. You can try to sue me if you want, but you might not be alive to do that."

"I might not be able to kill Yu Rou's parents, but you idiots are different. I can kill you right here and nobody will utter a single word about it."

"Hahaha! You have played too many video games! Do you really think you can get away with murder?! This is not Cultivation Online!" The man laughed out loud.

"Ahaha—Ahhhh!" The man suddenly stopped laughing and began screaming when he felt a sharp pain in one of his legs.

When he looked down, he could see the cause of the pain— a dagger stabbing into his thighs.

"W-What just happened?! Where did this weapon come from?!" The man was both terrified and confused.

"Mister Jiang, this is my first and last warning to you. If you don't want that dagger in your head, then you should keep your mouth shut. In fact, why don't you just abandon the Yu Family?"

Yuan suddenly thought of something and smiled.

"This may be sudden, but I have a proposal for everyone here. Stop supporting the Yu Family or die." Yuan swept the room with his gaze.

"What?!" They all exclaimed.

"After all, the real backbone of the Yu Family are the investors. Without you guys, they're basically powerless."

Everyone present in the room were the Yu Family's biggest investors and donors. Without them, the Yu Family will immediately lose over 90 percent of their power.

Furthermore, since he couldn't kill Yu Rou's parents, he had to punish them using other methods, and this is just one of many that he has in mind.

"You're fucking insane! As if we'd listen to you! You're just a damn child with a few loose screws!"

"I see... If threatening to kill you is not enough to convince you, then allow me to give you another reason to abandon the Yu Family." A mysterious smile appeared on Yuan's face.

And he continued, "Player Yuan, I'm sure you've all heard of him."

"What if I tell you that I personally know him and that I can set up a meeting with him for all of you? Will you stop supporting the Yu Family then? I'm sure you'll be able to profit more from Player Yuan than from the Yu Family."

Chapter 988 - Halting Their Support

Chapter 988 - Halting Their Support

"P-Player Yuan? Are you serious? You know Player Yuan?" The investors there were doubtful for obvious reasons.

"That's a load of bullshit! He doesn't know Player Yuan! He's just trying to mess with all of you!" Yu Yong slammed the table and shouted.

"T-That's right! There's no way a nobody like him could know Player Yuan when nobody even knows his true identity!" Tang Lee also spoke.

The investors looked at each other.

After a moment of silence, one of them said, "If you can prove to us that you know Player Yuan, I will stop supporting the Yu Family."

"Mister Joe! What are you saying?!" Yu Yong looked at him in shock.

"Proof, huh? Sure, I can prove it to you that I know Player Yuan." Yuan nodded, still with a smile on his face.

"However, before I give you proof, I'd like to talk about the other reason why I am here today."

After deactivating his Dragon's Gaze, Yuan turned to look at Meifeng and continued to speak, "Miss Meifeng, the Yu Family will go bankrupt soon, so why don't you come work for me instead?"

"Huh?" Meifeng's eyes widened with shock.

"Good luck with that! According to her contract, she will work for us for the rest of her life unless she pays the contract cancellation fee of 50 billion dollars! Even if we go bankrupt or become homeless, she will still have to work for us!" Tang Lee said with a wide smirk on her face.

"If I don't give a damn about my contract with the Yu Family, why would I care about hers?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"You can ignore your contract all you want, but that doesn't mean she will follow your recklessness. Isn't that right, Meifeng? If you ignore the contract and betray the Yu Family, not only will you get in trouble, but so will your family." Tang Lee looked at her with a threatening gaze.

Meifeng looked at Tang Lee and then at Meixiu.

"She's right, Young Master. I cannot ignore my contract. I have an obligation to fulfill my contract. Please don't make things difficult for me or my daughter..." Meifeng sighed.

"I see... That's unfortunate, but there's no need for you to feel bad about it." Yuan shook his head.

"If you cannot ignore your contract, then you can simply buy your way out of the contract."

"Y-Young Master... I don't have 50 billion dollars..."

"Maybe not right now, but you'll have it soon." Yuan smiled at her.

"And if I help you acquire enough money to buy out of your contract, would you do so?"

"I—"

"It's fine, I don't actually want you to answer that question." Yuan suddenly interrupted.

He returned his focus to the people at the table and continued, "Is there anyone here that can contact Chairman Lee from the Cultivators'?"

Association?"

"What does he have anything to do with this?" They asked.

"You wanted proof that I know Player Yuan, right? Call him and you will get it."

After a moment of silence, one of the people there said, "I will call Chairman Lee."

Once he dialed the numbers, everyone waited for Chairman Lee to answer the phone.

Several rings later, a voice resounded in the open speaker, "This is Chairman Lee from the Cultivators' Association speaking."

"Good morning, Chairman Lee. This is David Swanson. It's been a while since we last spoke. Do you remember me?"

"Of course I do, Mister Swanson. Your donations to the Cultivators' Association will never be forgotten. Anyways, how can I help you today?"

"You see, I have a friend here who would like to speak with you. Do you mind sparing us a few moments of your time?"

"Sure. I can spare some time."

David Swanson looked at Yuan and nodded.

"Hey, Chairman Lee, it's me." Yuan said out loud.

"H-Huh? This voice is..." Chairman Lee immediately recognized Yuan's voice, especially since he'd heard Yuan speak just a few days ago at the concert.

"What's going on? Did something happen between you and Mister Swanson?" Chairman Lee asked in a worried voice.

When the people there heard Chairman Lee's response, they all raised an eyebrow.

"Something like that." Yuan said.

And he continued, "I told him that I knew Player Yuan, but he doesn't believe me and even asked for proof. Can you, Chairman Lee of the Cultivators' Association, attest to my claims?"

"Of course!" Chairman Lee immediately responded.

"Mister Swanson! Can you hear me?!"

"I-I can..."

"Listen to me very carefully, Mister Swanson! I can confirm his claims! He really knows Player Yuan! In fact, they're practically best friends! Whatever you do, you better not upset my friend!" Chairman Lee said in a stern voice.

Everyone in the room was shocked by Chairman Lee's words.

After snapping out of his daze, David Swanson spoke, "W-Wait a second, Chairman Lee! It's not that I don't believe you, but do you even know who just spoke?! He didn't even introduce himself!"

"I can recognize him by his voice alone. We have spoken to each other many times, after all. He is Yu Tian, correct?"

"T-That is correct..." David Swanson muttered, not daring to believe his ears.

"Then I have nothing else to say to you. My friend Yu Tian, if you ever need anything, don't hesitate to call me, all right? I will talk to you later!" Chairman Lee hung up the next moment.

The entire room turned silent and nobody there would utter a single word for a whole minute.

"S-Since I have received Chairman Lee's words that you know Player Yuan, I would like to ask you again— Are you sure that you can help us meet Player Yuan?" David Swanson stared at Yuan with narrowed eyes.

"Of course. We can even meet him right after this if you want. He's currently in this city, after all." Yuan nodded.

"Seriously?! If you can really get us to meet with Player Yuan, I will stop our support for the Yu Family!" David Swanson said.

"M-Me too!" Another one exclaimed.

Soon, everyone in the room agreed to stop supporting the Yu Family, leaving Yu Yong and Tang Lee absolutely dazed.

Chapter 989 - Taking Away Their Cultivation

Chapter 989 - Taking Away Their Cultivation

"W-What are you guys talking about? Please tell me that you're all joking!" Yu Yong spoke in a trembling voice after the investors for the Yu Family agreed to stop supporting them.

"Even if you meet Player Yuan, there's no guarantee that he will work with you! In fact, I am willing to bet all of my money that he won't!"

"That is a risk I am willing to take." David Swanson said in a calm manner.

Although he didn't mention it, he was actually afraid of offending Yu Tian any more due to his relationship with Yuan.

If they continue to offend Yu Tian, there is a good chance that they will offend Yuan as well, and based on the rumors around Yuan, he is not someone they want to offend even if they have to cut all ties with the Yu Family.

Furthermore, ever since Yu Tian stopped playing music for them, their profit had drastically decreased. The Yu Family in its current state wasn't worth investing in, and these investors were already thinking about severing ties with the Yu Family.

If Yu Rou's birthday was even a week later, these investors would have stopped their support for the Yu Family on their own accord.

"Now that you've lost all of your major supports, what are you going to do, 'Mother'? 'Father'?" Yuan looked at them with contempt, his gaze so cold that it made the two feel as though they had been tossed into the abyss.

"Y-You won't get away with this! All of you will regret this!" Tang Lee spoke with gritted teeth.

"Let's go! We're leaving!" Yu Yong stood up.

"Where do you think you're going?" Yuan's eyes turned golden again.

And he continued in a cold voice, "You're done here when I say you're down. Now, sit back down."

An immense pressure suddenly fell on Yu Yong and Tang Lee, causing them to fall into their seats.

"Don't forget, you still owe me money. I will let you keep 50 billion since that's how much Miss Meifeng needs to buy out of her contract, but everything else is mine."

"Hahaha! As if we'd give you any money!" Tang Lee laughed in a crazed manner.

Yuan released a deep sigh.

"I didn't want to resort to this, but..."

He turned to look at Meixiu and spoke, "Can you make me some tea?"

The request was very sudden and unexpected, but Meixiu instantly understood what he was trying to do.

"Sure. Mother, can you help me? It's been a while, so I forgot how to make tea." Meixiu grabbed her hand and pulled her along to make tea.

"M-Meixiu?! What is going on?!" Meifeng asked her once they left.

"Who knows." She shrugged.

Meanwhile, inside the room, Yuan turned to look at the investors and said, "I no longer have any need for you all. Go to the Cultivators' Association and wait for me there. You'll meet Player Yuan by the end of the day."

The investors were still doubtful of him, but they had no choice. They were clearly up against a monster— one the Yu Family had created.

"Oh, right, before you all leave, I have one more question... What about the contract?"

"What contract are you talking about?" David Swanson asked with raised eyebrows.

"The one I signed with the Yu Family."

The investors looked at each other and laughed, "We don't know what you're talking about! Such a contract doesn't exist!"

Yuan smiled after hearing their words and nodded, "Then I'll see you all later."

Naturally, the contract existed, but the investors there knew what Yuan was trying to do, so they had no choice but to forget about the contract.

Once all of the people in the room except for Yu Yong and Tang Lee left, Yuan focused his attention on them.

"What do you think I should do with the two of you?" He asked as he slowly approached them.

Yu Yong and Tang Lee wanted to run, but they were unable to move their bodies, almost as though they were chained to the chair.

"So the both of you have managed to reach the first level Spirit Warrior. You must have worked hard to acquire such a profound cultivation. It would be a shame if you were to lose it all at once..." Yuan narrowed his eyes at them with a vicious gaze.

"Y-You wouldn't dare!" Yu Yong shouted.

"Do you really still think that I am the same person as before? If that's the case, allow me to open your eyes!"

"No! Stop! Help me! Somebody!" Yu Yong roared when he saw Yuan's motions.

Yuan ignored Yu Yong's cry for help and struck him in the chest with his palm.

"Gah!" Yu Yong coughed out a mouthful of blood, and he could feel his cultivation being destroyed.

"N-N-No! NO! NO! NO! NO! HOW DARE YOU! MY CULTIVATION!"

It took a moment for reality to sink in, but when it did, Yu Yong's face twisted in anger.

He'd spent many hours and tons of money to improve his cultivation, and for it to all disappear in an instant, it tortured his mind and heart.

"Soon, you will also know what it feels like to lose everything. I took your power first, then it will be your wealth, and lastly, I will take your entire family from you, just like what you did to me."

Yuan turned to look at the terrified Tang Lee next.

"Ple-Please! Wait! Spare me! I was wrong! Don't hurt me! I will do anything you want! I can destroy Meifeng's contract and hand her over to you! Please! I am still your mother!"

However, Yuan's face turned even colder after hearing her words.

"You dare call yourself my mother after everything you have done?!"

The pressure in the room increased.

"Don't you ever dare call yourself my mother again!" Yuan shouted as he thrust his palm into her chest, destroying her Dantian.

"NO!!!"

Tang Lee could feel all of the spiritual energy in her body dissipate in the following moments.

Yuan took a deep breath to calm himself down after destroying Yu Yong and Tang Lee's cultivation.

Chapter 990 - I Am No Longer Yu Tian

Chapter 990 - I Am No Longer Yu Tian

Meixiu and Meifeng returned to the room with a cup of tea shortly after Yuan destroyed Yu Yong and Tang Lee's to see blood all over the couple's mouth and clothes.

"W-What in god's name happened here?! Young Master! What did you do?!" Meifeng was terrified when she saw the scene.

"Don't worry, I didn't kill them. I only destroyed their Dantian, taking away their cultivation forever." Yuan said in a calm voice.

Meifeng was speechless.

'What had happened to him since my visit a few months ago? He's changed into a completely different person! He's both ruthless and merciless!' Meifeng cried inwardly.

"Yu Tian... You will not get away with this..." Yu Yong muttered in a low voice despite the pain in his chest.

"Oh, I should have mentioned this earlier, but I am no longer Yu Tian," he said.

"Call me Yuan. That's my name now."

"What?!"

Both Yu Yong and Tang Lee turned to look at him with wide eyes filled with disbelief.

"Young Master... You don't mean..." Meifeng asked in a trembling voice.

"Yes, I am Player Yuan— I have been since the very beginning." He nodded, confirming their suspicions.

"No way..."

Both Yu Yong and Tang Lee began feeling emotions that they never experienced before after learning the truth behind Player Yuan.

Neither of them could have imagined that their own crippled son had been Player Yuan all along. It was a shocking revelation that drove them to the brink of insanity.

'We'd been chasing after our own son this entire time?'

As this reality sank into their minds, Yuan spoke, "I want all of my money — except the 50 billion— in this bank account by the end of the day."

"If I don't see the money by then, I will come back to completely cripple the two of you. And don't even try to stop me. There is nobody in this world that can stop me from taking back what is rightfully mine."

"Also, don't think I have forgotten about that time you hired people to kidnap Meixiu. One by one, I will slowly return the debt. The two of you have abused me for years. I won't let my revenge end so soon."

After placing his bank account information on the table before them, Yuan deactivated his Dragon's Gaze and started approaching Meifeng.

"Miss Meifeng, I have already paid them the 50 billion required for you to leave the Yu Family. I won't force you to work for me, nor will I tell you what to do from this point forth because you're free to do whatever you want from now." Yuan took the cup of tea from her hands and drank it in one motion.

"Perhaps you had a dream that you wanted to fulfill, or maybe you wanted to do another job. Whatever it is, I hope that you can find happiness in your new life. If you ever need any help, you can always contact me. I am currently living at the Dragon Spiral Mountain with Meixiu and my friends."

'T-The Dragon Spiral Mountain?! That's the most exclusive territory in this country! The Yu Family have been trying for years to move there!' Meifeng cried inwardly.

"Meixiu, let's go. I don't want to stay in this dump any longer."

"Okay." She nodded and followed him to the door.

Yuan suddenly stopped at the door and spoke, "Oh, right. I don't really care if you reveal my identity as Yuan since I no longer have any reason to hide it, but if you do... Let's just say that the public won't be very happy once they learn about Yu Tian's past."

Yuan and Meixiu left the Yu Family's manor shortly after.

Meifeng stayed in the room with Yu Yong and Tang Lee for a little longer.

After a long moment of silence, Meifeng bowed to them and said, "Despite all of the troubles you've caused me and others, I am still grateful towards the Yu Family.."

"Because of you, I was able to meet an amazing person like the Young Master, who I treated as my own son at one point. I'm sure that my daughter would agree with me, so I would like to thank you for that."

"However, it is time for me to leave the Yu Family. Once again, thank you for everything."

After giving them another bow, Meifeng turned around and walked out of the room.

She immediately went to pack her necessities and left the Yu Family shortly after.

Sometime later, she took a taxi and disappeared somewhere.

Meanwhile, Yuan and Meixiu regrouped with Chu Liuxiang.

"Is everything finished?" Chu Liuxiang asked.

"No, it's not. However, I don't want it to end so quickly, so I am going to take this slowly." Yuan said.

"Want to tell me about it? I won't force you if you don't want to." She then asked.

"I'll tell you as we move."

"Where are we going now?"

"The Cultivators' Association."

"Huh?" Chu Liuxiang raised her eyebrows.

"I have some people waiting for me there. You'll understand after you listen to what happened."

Thus, they started making their way towards the Cultivators' Association. Yuan would explain the situation to Chu Liuxiang on the way there.

"I see... So that's what happened... What are you going to do to those investors? Don't tell me you're really going to work with them."

"Of course not. They're just as guilty as the Yu Family for supporting them. In fact, they might even be the root of the whole problem. If they never approached the Yu Family, perhaps they wouldn't have been so corrupted." Yuan said.

"That makes sense. The investors are usually the real masterminds, as they are always pressuring those they support for more profit, even threatening them. The Chu Family had their fair share of trouble with them when I was there. That's just how the world works." Chu Liuxiang agreed with him.

"Yuan, do you think my mother will come with us?" Meixiu suddenly asked with a look of uncertainty on her face.

"Who knows." He shrugged.

"However, I do hope that she works for us."

"Me too..." She sighed.

At the Cultivators' Association, Chairman Lee was surprised when David Swanson and the other investors suddenly showed up at his place.

"What the hell happened to you guys? Especially you, Mister Jiang. Your leg seems to be injured." Chairman Lee asked them with a frown on his face.

"Ah, I fell down on my way here. It's nothing serious." Mister Jiang said with a stiff smile on his face.

"Yu Tian told us to come here and wait for Player Yuan to show up. He promised that he will let us meet Player Yuan." David Swanson said.

"Come to my room now. All of you." Chairman Lee said.

Sometime later, once they were in a private room and sitting down, Chairman Lee slammed the table in anger, "TELL ME! WHAT HAPPENED BETWEEN YOU GUYS AND YU TIAN!?"

The investors were taken aback by Chairman Lee's sudden fit of rage.

"C-Calm down, Chairman Lee. Why are you so angry?" Mister Joe said to him.

"Calm down?! Do you idiots have any idea who you're messing with?!"

"We know. He knows Player Yuan, so it would be a bad idea to offend him. However, it's a little too late for that..."

"Tell me everything!" Chairman Lee frowned.

The investors looked at each other, seemingly hesitant to tell Chairman Lee about their involvement with the Yu Family and Yu Tian.

However, since they have somewhat dragged Chairman Lee into this mess and angered him, they had no choice but to tell him.

Even though they were all wealthy and powerful people, they did not dare to offend the Cultivators' Association that was getting increasingly more influential and powerful at a rapid rate, not to mention their relationship with the government.

Even before the investors finished telling the full story, Chairman Lee was already fuming in anger, his body trembling nonstop.

The investors were terrified when they saw this, and they wanted to stop, but they didn't dare to stop until they finished telling the whole story.

"You fucking idiots!" Chairman Lee shouted at them afterward.

"Chairman Lee, please tell us what you know. You clearly know something that we don't!" David Swanson said to him in a pleading voice.

However, before Chairman Lee could even say anything, someone knocked on the door.

"Chairman Lee! Someone claiming to be Player Yuan has asked for an audience!"

"What?! Player Yuan actually came?!" The investors were pleasantly surprised.

"Let him in!" Chairman Lee said.

The door opened, and three figures entered the room.

"You're..." The investors were puzzled when they saw Yuan. The thought that he was Player Yuan didn't even enter their minds.

"Where's Player Yuan? You promised us that we'd meet him!" One of them exclaimed.

"Of course, and I have already fulfilled that promise." Yuan said with a profound smile.

"W-What are you talking—" That person halted his sentence midway, and the entire room turned dead silent.

Chairman Lee suddenly stood up and bowed, "How are you doing, Yuan?"

When the investors heard Chairman Lee addressing him as 'Yuan', they all realized the truth almost simultaneously.

"Y-You're Player Yuan?! That's impossible!" David Swanson exclaimed, his face filled with disbelief.

"Don't tell me you're going to ask for proof again? I don't have the energy to deal with your nonsense anymore."

"Hmm? These guys... Aren't you Mister David?" A familiar voice suddenly resounded.

Yuan and everybody in the room turned to look at Chu Liuxiang.

"You know him?" Yuan asked her.

"Of course. I have seen him at the Chu Family plenty of times." She nodded.

"Y-Y-You are! Young Lady Chu! What are you doing here?!" David Swanson also recognized Chu Liuxiang after looking at her face closely.

The other investors there also recognized her.

As one of the most powerful and wealthy backgrounds in the country, it was only natural for these investors to approach the Chu Family.

"Is it weird for me to be here?" Chu Liuxiang said.

"W-What about the Chu Family?!"

"Oh, I left the family long ago. I am now part of his family." She pointed at Yuan.

"S-Seriously? You left the Chu Family to be with Yu Tian?"

"People may know him as Yu Tian, but I have always known him as Yuan."

Chu Liuxiang suddenly narrowed her eyes, "Anyways, I heard about the situation from him. So you guys are involved with the Yu Family, huh? Why am I not surprised?"

The investors began sweating.

If even someone like Chu Liuxiang decided to leave the Chu Family for him, there was no way they could refute his identity as Yuan anymore.

"Please forgive us, Yu Tian— No, Yuan!" David Swanson fell to his knees and kowtowed to Yuan.

The other investors immediately followed.

"Hahahaha!" Yuan suddenly started laughing.

"You want me to forgive you after everything that you've done to me?! In your damn dreams!"

The investors began taking steps back, distancing themselves from Yuan.

"Don't worry, I won't kill you. Once I am done with the Yu Family, I will deal with you guys as well."

"D-Deal with us?! You may be famous, but do you have what it takes to handle us?! You're just a damn child! What can you do besides threatening us with harm?!" Mister Jiang suddenly shouted.

Yuan smiled and said, "I may be a child, but I can destroy all of you with a few words."

"Oh? I would love to see how you're going to achieve that!"

Yuan smiled and turned to look at Chairman Lee.

"Chairman Lee, can you prepare an interview for me? I'd like to speak with the world for a moment."

"Of course. I will have everything prepared in an hour."

Yuan looked at the investors and spoke, "I will give you all a chance to live a normal life. If you give me all of your money, I will forgive you."

"All of our money?! You must be out of your damn mind!" David Swanson shouted.

Yuan shook his head and said, "Don't be so rash. I'll give you until the interview begins to give me the money."

Chapter 992 - Removing His Mask

Chapter 992 - Removing His Mask

An hour passed in the blink of an eye.

Since then, Chairman Lee not only prepared the interview but also spread news that Player Yuan will be the one doing the interview.

When news spread, people from all over the city flocked to the Cultivators' Association, filling up the square outside almost immediately.

"Wow, there's a lot of people— more than I anticipated." Yuan looked at the crowd outside through the window.

"W-What are you planning?" David Swanson asked him in a nervous voice.

Yuan smiled and said, "You're right. I don't have the power to deal with you guys. After all, I am just one person who happens to be really good at a video game. However, what if I make those with power deal with you guys?"

He turned to look at the crowd again and continued, "I wonder how many Legacy Families are in that crowd? I also wonder what they would be willing to do for me if I offer them Divine-rank cultivation techniques and Divine-grade treasures?"

"Y-You're going to bribe them?!" The investors were in disbelief.

"No, I am only giving them a reward for helping me out. I guess you can even say that I am merely hiring them for a service. Once I give them your names, I wonder how long it will take for them to destroy you guys."

Yuan showed them a cold smile.

"If Divine-grade treasures are not enough, I can even offer them Ancient-grade treasures!"

"A-Ancient-grade treasures?!" They exclaimed.

In this world, besides Yuan, nobody has managed to acquire Ancient-grade treasures. In fact, besides a lucky few, even Divine-grade treasures are unobtainable.

The investors there looked at each other with fearful looks on their faces.

If Yuan was truly planning on bribing the public to destroy them, they would have no chance of survival! After all, even they would do everything in their power to help Yuan if they had the chance!

"Yuan, the interview is ready. You can go onto the stage whenever you want." Chairman Lee suddenly entered the room and said.

"Alright, I'm coming." Yuan wore a mask on his face before approaching the door.

"W-Wait! I am willing to give you all of my fortune!" One of the investors there suddenly stepped forward and announced.

"M-Me too! I will also give you every penny in my bank account!" Another stepped forward.

In their eyes, even if they gave away all of their money, there was still a chance for them to earn more money. However, if Yuan successfully bribes the world to destroy them, they might not survive through the rest of the week!

In the end four out of the twelve investors there decided to hand Yuan all of their money in order to purchase his forgiveness. As for the other eight, they refused to believe that Yuan would be able to bribe the public, as that would destroy his reputation.

"No more takers? Alright, don't say I didn't give you a chance later!"

Yuan walked out of the room shortly after with Chairman Lee.

Once they were alone, the investors there argued amongst themselves.

"Why did you agree to give him all of your money?! There's no way that he would be able to bribe the public! As if the other families would be that stupid to agree to such a thing!"

"I'm not taking that risk!"

"Even if he successfully bribes the public, he would immediately become the world's number one enemy! A single person shouldn't be able to hold that much power! The others will crush him before he can crush us!"

While the investors argued, Yuan appeared in the square and stepped on a portable platform that had just been prepared.

"Look! It's Player Yuan!"

"Damn it! He's still wearing a mask!"

"Is he the real deal or just a fake?"

"The Chairman of the Cultivators' Association is the one who organized this event... I don't think they would do something like this if he was a fake."

The crowd murmured amongst themselves.

"Hello, everyone. I am Chairman Lee of the Cultivators' Association. First of all, I would like to thank you all for coming here on such short notice. Second, I would like to thank Player Yuan for his participation despite his busy schedule." Chairman Lee took the microphone and spoke to the crowd.

After talking for a few more minutes, Chairman Lee handed the microphone to Yuan.

The entire place turned dead silent as they anxiously waited for him to speak.

This was happening all over the world, as the interview was being broadcast to the whole world.

After taking a deep breath, Yuan spoke into the microphone.

"Thank you all for coming today. Before I start, I would like to apologize for not appearing before all of you sooner, but I had a reason for hiding myself, and I am going to tell you all that reason today."

"Due to some family issues and health issues, I was unable to come out until today. I was born with a healthy body, but my body would stop functioning properly as I grew older."

"I lost my ability to see when I was only seven years old. When I was 13 years old, I became a cripple that couldn't even get out of bed without the help of another person, and for the next few years, I would remain in such a state."

"I am currently 18 years old, almost 19, and I have been living in solitude for almost 5 years now, hence why I am only appearing in public now."

The people watching Yuan's speech were left speechless after learning about his tragic life, and they all understood why he hasn't shown himself for so long.

"W-Wait... What the hell is he doing? What happened to bribing the public? Why does it seem like he's going to reveal his true identity?!" The investors watching from inside the Cultivators' Association were shocked.

Yuan continued speaking, "Now that I have completely recovered, I am going to celebrate by finally revealing my true identity to all of you today."

Everyone watching swallowed nervously after hearing his words.

Player Yuan is finally going to reveal his true identity? This is what everyone and their mother has been waiting for since the day of his first appearance in the form of an announcement in Cultivation Online!

And without any hesitation, Yuan removed his mask, revealing to the world his handsome face.

Chapter 993 - Player Yuan's True Identity

After removing his mask, Yuan placed it on the table in front of him and stared at the crowd with a calm expression.

It was almost as though the world was silent at this moment, as not a single sound could be heard from that location.

"Huh? That's Player Yuan? Doesn't he seem familiar? It's like I have seen him before..."

Some of the people there felt familiarity after seeing his face.

"W-Wait! I-Isn't that Yu Tian?! The legendary music prodigy who recently performed in a concert after disappearing for many years?! I am sure of it! That's Yu Tian! I even watched his performance a few days ago!"

Someone there finally recognized Yuan's face and exclaimed, letting everyone there know of his identity.

Yuan smiled and said, "Indeed, I am that Yu Tian."

The crowd became chaotic after this shocking revelation.

Nobody there could've expected the mysterious Player Yuan to be the missing child prodigy, Yu Tian!

Shortly after Yuan revealed his true identity as Yu Tian, people from all around the world started contacting the Yu Family. However, there was no response from the Yu Family, almost as though they had suddenly disappeared.

Sometime later, Yuan's voice resounded again, "I am sure that some of you are trying to contact the Yu Family even as I am speaking, but I must warn you— you're only wasting your effort."

"Why would you say that, Yu Tian?!" One of the reporters there asked him.

Yuan glanced at the person who just spoke and responded in a cold voice, "Don't address me with that name. I don't want to be associated with that family."

The people there trembled after hearing his cold voice.

"D-Did something happen between you and the Yu Family? Would you be willing to tell us about it?!" Another reporter there asked.

"Of course. That's why I am doing this interview. I am going to answer as many questions as I can." He nodded.

"Anyways, the reason why I don't want to be associated with the Yu Family is because..."

Yuan proceeded to tell the whole world about how the Yu Family had mistreated and abused him since he was a child, treating him as though he was a slave for their own profit.

He told them about how the Yu Family had adopted him only to profit from his talents. He told them about how they would force him to practice day and night without any breaks. He told them about how they forced him to sign an illegal contract when he was still a young child. He told them about how they abandoned him after he became a cripple and how they treated him like trash since then.

When the world learned of all the horrible things the Yu Family had done to him, everyone felt anger in their hearts, and they cursed the Yu Family inwardly.

After talking about all of the bad things the Yu Family had done to him, Yuan started talking about the good things.

He spoke about how his younger sister had sacrificed herself so that she could take care of him for many years despite being two years younger than himself. He spoke about a certain servant who treated him like her own child.

Even though he wanted to drag the Yu Family through dirt, he didn't want those who helped him to be dragged along merely because of their association with the Yu Family, so he spoke about Yu Rou and Meifeng, treating them as though they were his savior.

This way, nobody would dare to mess with them even if they were associated with the Yu Family.

In fact, Yuan even publicly announced that if anyone were to mess with Yu Rou or Meifeng, they would face his wrath.

"Brother..." Yu Rou, who was watching the broadcast with Xia jingyi and White Lotus, bawled her eyes out.

Even though her own family had been exposed for their behavior and will soon be the public's number one enemy, she couldn't help but feel as though a mountain had been lifted from her shoulders.

Sometime later, Yuan said, "Although I want to blame all of my suffering on the Yu Family, that wouldn't be fair, as they were only manipulated by the true masterminds—"

"Oh no! This bastard is going to get us killed!" The investors finally realized Yuan's true intentions, but it was already too late.

Yuan proceeded to name the eight investors that refused to renounce their fortune for his forgiveness and spoke about how they had corrupted the Yu Family, even mentioning the companies they owned.

Immediately after Yuan revealed their names, the named investors started getting phone calls from pretty much everybody on their contact list and more.

"Mister Swanson! It's a disaster! Most of our investors and associates have just announced that they will stop supporting us and even demanded for their money back! At this rate, we'll go bankrupt!"

"Mister Jiang! Please! You need to do something! The Legacy Families are suddenly threatening to destroy us! What is happening?!"

When the four investors that renounced their fortune for Yuan's forgiveness saw the results of their decision, they all sighed in relief, feeling as though they'd just dodged a massive bullet, even though they will soon be losing all of their money.

"Fuck! That fucking bastard! We're ruined!" The eight investors cried, but there was nothing they could do about the situation.

However, Yuan wasn't done just yet.

"Although I cannot do anything against these people that have wronged me by myself, I would like to seek your help. If you can do something about it, please help me get justice. I will owe you a favor— you have my word."

When the powerful families that have been wanting to recruit Yuan heard the last few words of his sentence, they all decided to help him.

"This guy is freaking brutal!" Chairman Lee was sweating buckets as he stood behind Yuan, realizing how lucky he is to not be Yuan's enemy.

Chapter 994 - End of Yuan's Interview

Chapter 994 - End of Yuan's Interview

After dealing with the Yu Family and the eight investors, Yuan decided to answer some of the public's questions.

"I will now be answering any questions you may have."

All of the reporters there immediately started shouting their questions. It was so chaotic and loud that nobody could hear a proper question being asked.

"Please calm down. Since everyone here seems to have a question, I will pick some of you." Yuan said.

Once the place was quiet again, Yuan randomly pointed at someone in the crowd.

"The young man wearing a yellow shirt with a red heart. Do you have a question for me?"

"Y-Yes! Thank you for picking me! I want to ask— are you still playing Cultivation Online? A lot of people seem to think that you've quit for some reason."

"Of course I am still playing Cultivation Online. In fact, I intend on ascending to the next realm after I return home from all this."

The audience were shocked to hear such news because if Yuan manages to clear the Stairway to Heaven, the Third Heaven will be unlocked for all players.

"Next question. The young lady wearing a red shirt and blue jeans." Yuan picked another person shortly after.

"Thank you for picking me! I would like to ask— what is your current cultivation in Cultivation Online and out here?"

Yuan smiled and said, "In Cultivation Online, I am at the peak of Spirit Lord. As for my current cultivation... I am a Spirit Grandmaster."

"What?! He's already achieved Spirit Grandmaster?!"

Everyone watching was in disbelief.

"If you don't believe me then let me show you something..." Yuan's body suddenly started hovering towards the sky, shocking everyone there, including Chairman Lee.

"H-H-He's flying?!"

"How is that possible?!"

"Is this a magic trick?!"

The reporters there asked him.

"Once you achieve Spirit Grandmaster, you can start learning something called Qi Manifestation. If you master this technique, you will be able to fly. This is also true in Cultivation Online."

Most people already knew that Spirit Grandmasters could fly without flying swords in Cultivation Online, but they didn't think it would also work in the real world.

Once the crowd calmed down, Yuan continued to answer their questions.

An hour later, Yuan said, "I will be ending the interview now. Thank you all for participating."

However, before leaving, he still had a surprise for everyone there.

After taking a deep breath, he spoke into the microphone, "In order to celebrate this occasion, I would like to host a little event, and anyone can participate in this event."

"Seven days from now, I will hide some Heaven-grade treasures and even a Divine-grade treasure in Spirit Heaven. If you can find it, it will be yours. I will give you the general location of the treasures on the same day. Good luck, everybody."

Yuan walked away from the platform and entered the Cultivators' Association with Chairman Lee while the guards there blocked the reporters from bombarding them.

After returning to the room with the investors, Yuan looked around and asked, "Where are the others?"

There were only four people left inside the room, and they were the ones who agreed to give Yuan their wealth.

"They all left long ago... If you had mentioned my name during the interview, I would've left too..."

"I see... Anyways, you have until tonight to hand me all of your wealth. If I find out that you didn't give me all of your money, I will do another interview. And don't even try running away because I will find you. Once you transfer the money, I don't want to ever hear from you or see you guys again. Do you understand me?"

"Y-Yes! We understand!" They all shouted.

Once Yuan handed his bank account to them, the four of them ran away.

"Now I don't need to worry about having no money for a while." Yuan smiled once he was alone with Chairman Lee.

"You'll probably have enough for more than one lifetime with the amount of money you're going to be getting later..." Chairman Lee shook his head with a bittersweet smile.

"Thanks for your help, Chairman Lee. This wouldn't have been possible without your help."

"I will be glad to help you at any time! If you need help again, you know where to find me."

"I will send you a location in seven days. Go there and you will find something. No need to thank me. This is my way of thanking you." Yuan said to him.

"T-Thank— Okay!" Chairman Lee nodded with excitement.

Sometime later, he flew away from the Cultivators' Association since the outside was still flooded with people.

A few blocks away, he met up with Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang.

"Now that the entire world knows your true identity, what are you going to do?" Chu Liuxiang asked him.

"The same as usual," he said with a smile.

"I still can't believe you actually went through with it. I wonder how the Yu Family is doing now. I doubt they'll be able to survive after this scandal."

"They'll probably go into hiding." Meixiu said.

"They can hide all they want— as long as they give me back my money." Yuan said.

"Hey, Yuan, since we have some time now, let's go visit the orphanage!" Chu Liuxiang suddenly suggested.

"The orphanage...?" Yuan repeated in a mumbling voice.

"Yes! It's not that far from here, too!"

"Sure. Let's go." Yuan nodded with a smile.

They started making their way to the orphanage while the rest of the world talked about Yuan's interview today.

Meanwhile, at Eternal Lotuses, White Lotus and the others were busy refusing people that were trying to get into contact with Yu Rou after learning about her relationship with Yuan.

As for the Yu Family, their headquarters was surrounded by people that were throwing trash among other stuff into their property.

The police did not bother stopping these people because they didn't receive any complaints, and they also wanted justice for Yuan.

Chapter 995 - Orphanage

Chapter 995 - Orphanage

An hour later, Yuan arrived at the orphanage that he and Chu Liuxiang used to call home.

"Wow, this place looks worse than it does in my memories..." Yuan was surprised by the poor condition of the place.

"Well, it's been over a decade since we lived here, and this place never had any money to begin with." Chu Liuxiang said.

And she continued in a sighing voice, "Even though the Chu Family had offered to give them donations multiple times, they would always refuse it."

"Why would they do that?"

"I have no idea." She shook her head.

"So this is where you two came from..." Meixiu was focused on the orphanage, as she considered this place as Yuan and Chu Liuxiang's true origins.

"Let's see if they are still in service." Yuan said a moment later.

They approached the worn building and knocked on the door.

A few moments later, the door opened, and a middle-aged woman appeared before them.

"How may I help you fine ladies and gentleman?" The middle-aged woman asked them with a gentle smile.

Yuan's eyes widened when he saw this woman's face, and he muttered in a low voice, "Sister Ellis...? Is that you?"

"Hm? Do I know you, handsome young man?" The middle-aged woman asked with a puzzled face.

"It's me, Yuan. Do you remember me? I used to play the harmonica all the time for you and the other orphans."

The middle-aged woman's eyes widened with surprise after hearing his words.

She covered her mouth and spoke in a trembling voice, "Y-Yuan...? Is that really you? My god... you've grown into such a fine young man... I couldn't recognize you at all!"

"Sister Ellis, what about me? Do you remember me?" Chu Liuxiang spoke next.

Ellis turned to look at her.

"Lulu? You look almost the same as the day you left. Your beautiful hair and hazel eyes— it's hard to forget about you even if I want to, especially since you were always the loudest one."

She turned to look at Meixiu next and asked, "Were you also from this orphanage? Sorry, but I don't recognize you."

"No, I am not." Meixiu quickly shook her head.

"I see... Anyways, what brought you two back to the orphanage?" Ellis asked them a moment later.

"We're just visiting," said Chu Liuxiang.

"How are you and the orphanage doing nowadays, Sister Ellie? If there's anything we can do to help..." Yuan asked her.

"Unfortunately, the orphanage is no longer in service. In fact, we shut down just last week. I am still here just to finish closing this place down."

"What?! The orphanage is no longer in service?! What happened?" Chu Liuxiang exclaimed.

"Well, we ran out of money, so we can no longer operate."

"Seriously? My father told me that he'd tried donating to your orphanage, but you guys would always refuse. Is there a reason why even though you clearly needed the money?"

Ellis sighed and said, "The owner of the orphanage is a corrupt bastard. Any money that gets donated to this orphanage will be stolen by him, so I refused the Chu Family's donation, as I don't want to give him any more money even if it means shutting this place down."

"..."

Yuan and Chu Liuxiang frowned after learning the truth.

"Who is the owner of this place? I want to have a word with him." Yuan said.

"What? I appreciate your thoughts, but there's no point in doing that. The orphanage is already closed. Furthermore, the owner sold it. This place will be demolished soon. There is nothing you or I can do about it."

"We won't know for sure until we try it. I made a small name for myself, so I should be able to help. Please, Sister Ellie. I don't want this place to disappear in such a manner." Yuan said in a dispirited manner.

Ellie sighed.

"All right. I will give you the name of this person. Just don't do anything rash, okay?"

"Of course." Yuan nodded with a smile.

Ellie handed him a business card that had all of the information they needed on it.

"Thank you. Give me a moment while I make a call." Yuan took the business card and proceeded to call Chairman Lee.

"Hello, Chairman Lee. If you don't mind, I'd like to trouble you again."

"What happened?"

"You see..."

Yuan began telling Chairman Lee about the situation and the owner's information.

"How dare this scoundrel steal money from an orphanage that helps children? Unforgivable! Don't worry, I will make sure he's taken care of before the day ends!"

"Thank you."

After hanging up, Yuan returned to Ellis.

"Sister Ellis, if you had the chance, would you become the new owner of this orphanage?" He suddenly asked her.

"Well... It's always been my passion to help those in need, especially children... If I can manage the orphanage, I would definitely do it. Why are you asking?"

"You will see in a bit." Yuan smiled.

"While we wait for the results, can we take a look around the building?" He then asked.

"Of course."

Yuan and the others followed Ellis into the orphanage shortly after.

"The interior is exactly like how I remember, but it's a lot smaller." Chu Liuxiang said.

"You're much bigger now so it's only obvious that this place would seem smaller." Ellis chuckled at her silly remarks.

"Hey! Yuan! Do you remember this spot? You would always sit on the table here and play the harmonica for us!" Chu Liuxiang pointed at an empty spot that used to have a table.

"I do, and you would always shake the table whenever you ask me to play another song." Yuan smiled.

Yuan and Chu Liuxiang would reminisce about their life as an orphan as they walked through the old and empty building.

Shortly after their tour ended, Chairman Lee called Yuan to let him know of some good news.

"I see... Thank you very much, Chairman Lee. I will return this favor in seven days." Yuan said to him.

After hanging up, he turned to look at Ellis with a wide smile on his face.

"Yuan...? What's the matter?" She asked in a nervous voice.

Chapter 996 - Personal Maid

Chapter 996 - Personal Maid

"I have some good news, Sister Ellis. This place will no longer be demolished, and you will become the new owner." Yuan relayed this news to her.

"What?! How is that possible? What did you do?" Ellis didn't dare to believe such good news.

"I just called a friend who could help us."

"B-But this place was already sold! How did they manage to convince the buyer?"

"Who knows." He shrugged.

"What about the previous owner? What happened to him?"

"He will be going to jail."

"W-What about the funds? Even if I own this place, if I don't have any money..."

"That's also been taken care of. I will be donating some of my money to this orphanage so you don't have to worry about money for a long time."

"Y-You? I don't want to put such a burden on you..."

"It's fine. I won the lottery recently, so I have plenty of money." Yuan chuckled.

"Seriously...?" Ellis stared at Yuan's calm expression with a shocked face.

"Seriously." He confirmed.

"My god..."

"By the way, there will be someone here later to help you get everything settled. They will also assist you until you can manage this place properly."

Tears began pouring out of Ellis' eyes.

"T-Thank you... How can I ever repay you for this...?"

"You already have." Yuan smiled.

Yuan and the others stayed with Ellis until the help Chairman Lee sent had arrived.

"Hello, I am Peter, and these people behind me are my team. We will be helping you get this orphanage back up and running as soon as possible. We will also teach you how to manage the place." The man leading the group introduced himself.

"Then we'll be leaving now, Sister Ellis. We'll come back later to check up on you." Yuan said to her.

After saying their goodbyes and hugging Sister Ellis, Yuan and his group left the orphanage.

"You're very lucky to have such a close relationship with him, Sister Ellis." Peter said to her after they left.

"Huh? Why?"

"You don't know?"

"No..."

Peter proceeded to tell Ellis about Yuan's background, which greatly shocked her.

"Oh my... To think he'd lived such a horrible life after leaving the orphanage... But I'm really glad that he's managed to turn his life around." Ellis sighed.

At the end of the day, Yuan asked Meixiu, "What's the situation with our money?"

She looked at their bank account and said, "The four investors have already sent their money. We currently have 122 billion dollars in the bank. However, we haven't received anything from the Yu Family yet."

"I see..." Yuan sighed.

"Are you going back to deal with the Yu Family?" Chu Liuxiang asked.

"Knowing them, they probably already fled the city and went into hiding." He shook his head.

"So what are we going to do now? Look for them?"

"It's already getting late, so I'm not going to bother. They can run, but they won't be able to hide forever. We'll eventually find them, and when we do..." Yuan's eyes glinted with a killing intent.

Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang swallowed nervously.

"Let's go home for now." He said to them a moment later.

"Okay."

They took a taxi back to the Dragon Spiral Mountain.

A few hours later, they arrived at the bottom of the mountain.

"Welcome back, Young Master Yuan." The guards outside the gates greeted him.

"Hey. We're back."

"Young Master Yuan, there is actually someone waiting for you..." One of the guards suddenly said to him.

"Huh? Who?"

"It's me, Young Master." A familiar voice resounded beside them.

Yuan turned to look at this person.

A smile appeared on his face when he realized her identity.

"Miss Meifeng... Are you sure?" Yuan asked her.

"Of course. It's always been my dream to work for you after you joined the Yu Family, and this is still my dream," she said.

After taking a deep breath, she bowed to him and spoke in a nervous voice, "Young Master, I would like to work for you. Please hire me. I am even willing to work for free."

"Of course I will hire you." Yuan smiled.

"Thank you, Young Master. You will not regret it."

"Mother..." Meixiu mumbled.

Meifeng turned to look at her next.

"You don't have to worry about me. Just continue living your life as usual," she said.

'Mother doesn't know about my relationship with Yuan yet... Things will definitely become awkward later if I don't tell her soon...' Meixiu sighed inwardly.

Meifeng followed Yuan and the others up the Dragon Spiral Mountain until they arrived at their destination.

"So this is the Young Master's current home..." She mumbled in a dazed voice.

"Let's go inside." Yuan said.

By the time they entered the building, the members of the Demon Sealing Faction were already waiting by the door to greet them.

"Welcome back, everyone! I saw the news! I can't believe that you'd actually revealed your true identity to the whole world, Yuan!" Shi Lang said.

"It was going to happen eventually, so I might as well do it sooner." Yuan smiled.

"Who is this beautiful lady?" Wang Ming asked with his gaze looking at Meifeng.

"This is—"

"Good evening, everyone. I am called Meifeng, Meixiu's mother, and I will be working here as the Young Master's personal maid starting today." She introduced herself before Yuan could even say anything.

"M-Meixiu's mother?! No wonder why you look so familiar even though this is my first time seeing you..."

The members of the faction were shocked by her identity. However, as excited as they were about meeting Meixiu's mother, they were all wondering the same thing at this moment.

'Meixiu is already Yuan's woman, yet her mother will be serving him as his servant... Isn't this incredibly awkward? How will their relationship even work?'

"Miss Meifeng, let me show you around the place. There are plenty of spare rooms so you can pick your own room." Yuan said to her a moment later.

"Okay." She nodded.

Chapter 997 - Room Inspection

Chapter 997 - Room Inspection

Once Meifeng left with Yuan to tour around the mansion, the rest of the people there turned to look at Meixiu.

"Meixiu, now that your mother is here... Are you going to be fine?" Wang Bingbing asked her.

She nodded, "It will be fine. She may be my mother, but I am an adult now, and we're no longer at the Yu Family. Nothing will change even with her presence here."

"Your mother seems like the serious type. She's like the complete opposite of you." Wang Ming said.

"She's very serious and strict when it comes to her work, but she is always perfect. It might take a while, but you will eventually get used to her."

"Is there anything we should be aware of about her? Like what might make her angry?"

Meixiu pondered for a moment before responding, "If anything, she hates lazy people, I guess. But I don't think any of you should worry about it. She's working for Yuan now, so she will probably change just like I did."

While Meifeng followed Yuan around the mansion, she asked him, "What do you usually do nowadays, Young Master?"

"Uhh... Miss Meifeng, do you think you can stop calling me Young Master? You're Meixiu's mother, so it feels a little weird to be addressed in such a manner by you, not to mention that I am no longer a little kid. You're also no longer working for the Yu Family. You don't need to be so formal. Things are really relaxed around here."

"Even if you say that, what am I supposed to call you? I have called you Young Master for over 10 years now, and old habits are hard to change. Furthermore, even if I am not at the Yu Family, I am still working for you."

"Can't you just call me Yuan like everyone?"

"That feels wrong to me. I think I will continue to call you Young Master, after all."

Yuan showed a bittersweet smile and said, "Your demeanor reminds me of someone I know in Cultivation Online, but she's much more easy going than you, even a little silly at times."

"Anyways, to answer your question, I usually just train with the others in the morning before going into Cultivation Online."

"That's it? Just training and playing video games? What about the instruments? Did you return to playing them?"

"Occasionally, I play the zither. But other than that, I don't touch other instruments. Actually, I guess I also played the piano a couple of times for Yu Rou."

"Do you have no intentions of returning to the world of music? Your talents... It really would be a waste."

Yuan pondered for a moment before responding, "Now that the entire world knows Yu Tian and Yuan are the same person, I might do a concert once in a while to entertain my fans. However, I don't intend on profiting from it. I want people to be able to enjoy my music without needing to worry about not affording tickets."

"That's just like you, Young Master..."

Sometime later, Yuan showed Meifeng his room.

"This is my room. That room right there is Meixiu's room."

Meifeng entered his room the following moment and immediately started inspecting it.

"Young Master... This place is full of dust. Meixiu... What does she do nowadays? Why isn't she cleaning your room?" Meifeng had a frown on her face as she looked at the little amount of dust on her fingers.

Although Chu Liuxiang cleans their room, she's not a professional maid like Meixiu or Meifeng, so it was only natural that the room isn't sparkless.

"Meixiu doesn't work as my maid anymore. I have her handle the faction and the food. Other than that, she trains with us and mainly focuses on her cultivation."

"Young Master, you cannot live like this! With this much dust in the room, you could easily get sick! Starting today, I will be cleaning your room every day!" Meifeng declared.

Of course, the room wasn't as dirty as Meifeng made it sound, but even a speck of dust in the room is one too many for someone like her.

"I'm going to see Meixiu's room now." Meifeng said after a quick inspection of Yuan's room.

Normally, one would need permission to enter Meixiu's room, but this was Meifeng, her mother. Even Yuan didn't dare to stop her from entering.

A moment later, Meifeng entered Meixiu's room and started her inspection.

"At least she's keeping her own room clean." Meifeng couldn't find anything to complain about after the inspection.

The bed was neatly made, and the furniture in the room was sparkling clean.

However, Meifeng wasn't satisfied just yet, so she dug a little deeper, going into her clothes and such.

A few minutes later, when Meifeng reached Meixiu's bed, she noticed something was off and reached her hand underneath the bed mattress.

Yuan raised his eyebrows, wondering what she was doing.

"What's this?" Meifeng felt something like a box and pulled it out.

When she saw what was written on the box, her eyes widened with shock, and her hands even began trembling.

'B-Birth control pills?! Why the hell is she hiding such a thing?!' Meifeng cried inwardly.

She turned to look at Yuan in a stiff manner.

"Y-Young Master... Are you and Meixiu... by some chance... doing it?"

"About that..."

Yuan didn't expect for Meifeng to find out about his relationship with her daughter so soon, but now that the cat is out of the bag, he might as well tell the truth.

"Yes, we're partners. We were going to tell you later when the time was right, but I guess there's no longer any need for that." Yuan chuckled.

Meifeng turned to look at the box again.

'That girl... She really did it...'

A slight smile appeared on Meifeng's face.

She returned the box back to its original place and said, "Don't tell Meixiu about this. I want to hear it from her."

"I understand." He nodded.

Chapter 998 - Who Was Your First?

Chapter 998 - Who Was Your First?

"How long have the two of you been going out?" She asked him as they continued the tour around the mansion.

"Not that long. It started shortly after we moved to this place," he said.

"Who made the first move?"

"Meixiu..."

"Is that so... It appears that she's changed more than I anticipated."

And she continued, "What about you, Young Master? What do you think of my daughter?"

"I love her very much." Yuan said without any hesitation.

Meifeng smiled, "Do you remember when I asked you the same question last time?"

"I do, and I was naive back then. However, I have changed."

"I can see that."

Sometime later, after seeing the whole mansion, Meifeng picked her own room.

"I want to live in this room." Meifeng said as she stood at the door on the opposite side of Meixiu's room in the hallway.

"If that's where you want to stay, I have nothing to say." Yuan nodded.

Meifeng moved all of her luggage into the room shortly after.

When Meixiu learned that her mother will be living in the room across from her, she felt a little nervous and worried because that could affect her nighttime activities with Yuan.

Everyone in the building gathered at the dining room later.

"Starting today, as the head maid of this place, I will be taking care of breakfast and dinner and cleaning the mansion. Although I am the Young Master's personal maid, if you ever need any help, don't hesitate to ask. As for your laundry, I will be doing 2 to 3 people a day throughout the week. If you wish to do your own laundry, just let me know."

"Thank you, Madam Meifeng." The others said to her.

The members of the Demon Sealing Faction proceeded to introduce themselves to her one by one.

Sometime later, everybody went back to their own rooms to rest as it was getting late.

Yuan and Meifeng stayed up a little longer to chat.

"What happened to the Yu Family afterward? Do you know?" She asked him.

"They ran away, and they still owe me my money." Yuan smiled.

"Who could've imagined that something like this would happen..." She sighed.

"This is karma. They deserved it."

"By the way, there is still something that I need to tell you, Miss Meifeng. It's about Cultivation Online and our world."

Yuan proceeded to tell her about the truth with Cultivation Online and their world.

"Seriously...? This sounds like something straight out of fiction." Meifeng was in disbelief.

"I know, but trust me, it's true. Have you ever played Cultivation Online?" He then asked.

"No, I never had the time."

"Your cultivation is also very low. What cultivation technique are you using?"

"Something the Yu Family gave me."

Yuan pondered for a moment and said, "I'm going to get you a new cultivation technique that is far more powerful. Fortunately, you didn't progress that far in your cultivation, or it will be very difficult for you to suddenly change cultivation techniques."

"Also, I want you to focus more on your cultivation starting now. It's going to be very important in the future."

"I will do as you say, Young Master." Meifeng nodded.

Once Meifeng retired to her room, Yuan also did the same.

"Does Meixiu's mother know about our relationship?" Chu Liuxiang asked him in bed.

"Not ours, but she knows about Meixiu and mine. I'll tell her when the time is right."

"All right. Let's go to sleep."

The following morning, Yuan was woken up by the sound of someone knocking on his door.

"Young Master, I am going to start clearing your room now. You can continue to sleep if you want." Meifeng's voice resounded.

"Huh? W-Wait—" Yuan tried to stop her.

However, Meifeng had already opened the door and entered the room with her cleaning supplies.

"Y-Young Master... What is the meaning of this?!" Meifeng was shocked to see Chu Liuxiang sleeping beside him on the same bed.

Yuan rubbed his eyes and sighed, "Sorry, Miss Meifeng. I should've told you this earlier. This is Chu Liuxiang. She's also my partner."

Meifeng stared at him with wide eyes as she tried to comprehend the situation.

"You have two partners?" She eventually understood the situation and asked for confirmation.

"Yes. I've known Chu Liuxiang before I even came to the Yu Family. She was at the same orphanage as me."

"I see..." Meifeng mumbled.

"You're not mad?" Yuan raised an eyebrow.

"Why would I be mad? Because you're dating two women at once? Because you thought I would think that you're betraying Meixiu?"

"Something like that... I think?"

Meifeng shook her head, "You're mature enough to know this so I will tell you. Meixiu was raised to be nothing more than a servant for you. So the fact you accepted her as your partner is already more than I can ask for, and it's not weird for influential people such as yourself to have more than one wife."

Of course, Yuan already knew this because Meixiu had told him before.

"Anyways, I am going to start cleaning your room now. I won't make much noise, so you can go back to sleep if you want." Meifeng said to him as she started cleaning his room.

"I don't think I can go back to sleep anymore so I will just wake up," he said with a smile.

While Yuan changed out of his pajamas, Meifeng suddenly asked, "By the way, Young Master, I have a question."

"What is it?"

"Who was your first? Meixiu or Chu Liuxiang?"

"M-Meixiu..." He said in a low voice.

"I see..." Meifeng didn't say anything else and continued to clean his room, but there was a small smile on her face now.

As for Chu Liuxiang, she was still sound asleep.

After cleaning his room, Meifeng proceeded to clean the bathroom.

Meanwhile, Yuan went to do some light training.

Li Jinxi showed up shortly after to train with him. Eventually, everyone was in the training field.

Chapter 999 - New Member

Chapter 999 - New Member

After training, everyone gathered in the dining room, where breakfast was already prepared by Meifeng.

"Wow... Did you really cook all of this by yourself?" Wang Ming asked with a dazed look on his face as he stared at the table that was filled with many different dishes for breakfast.

"This seems like something that requires a full team of chefs to achieve..." Wu Zao mumbled.

"You're more amazing than I thought, Madam Meifeng." Wang Bingbing praised.

"If I cannot do this much, then I am not fit to be with the Young Master." Meifeng spoke calmly.

They started eating the food shortly after.

"God! This is so freaking good! This is even better than what that old man at the Silver Restaurant back home makes!" Xi Murong exclaimed as he stuffed the food inside his mouth.

The Demon Sealing Faction emptied all of the dishes on the table in less than half an hour.

After breakfast, Meifeng took all of the empty plates and went to clean them.

"Meixiu, is Xiuying almost here yet?" Yuan asked her.

"Yes, she texted me an hour ago that she was on her way here—"

Meixiu's phone suddenly started ringing.

After seeing the caller, Meixiu said, "Speaking of the devil."

"This is Meixiu," she answered the phone.

"I understand. We're coming out now."

Meixiu hung up a second later and said to Yuan, "She's outside right now."

"Great."

Yuan stood up and said, "Everyone, our new member is here. Let's all go greet her."

"Oh? To have two new residents back to back, it seems like the Demon Sealing Faction is finally growing!" Wang Ming said.

Sometime later, they went outside to greet the newest member of the Demon Sealing Faction, Wang Xiuying.

"Hello, Xiuying. Welcome to our humble home." Yuan greeted her with a friendly smile.

"You call this place humble?" Wang Xiuying stared at the mansion behind him with a dumbfounded look on her face.

After snapping out of her daze, she introduced herself to everyone there, "Good morning, I am Wang Xiuying. I used to work in my grandfather's hospital, but I am now here. If you need any medical attention, just let me know! I am also an Alchemist in Cultivation Online, so I can also concoct pills for you guys!"

The members of the Demon Sealing Faction introduced themselves after her introduction.

"Nice to meet you all!"

"Let me show you around. You can leave your luggage inside for now."
Yuan said to her afterward.

"Okay!"

Once Wang Xiuying left with Yuan, the others started talking about their new member.

"Wow, she's really pretty. As expected of Yuan." Wang Ming said.

"She seems very energetic, too." Wang Bingbing added.

"Do you know anything about her, Meixiu?" They asked her next.

"Yes, her grandfather took care of Yuan when he was bedridden. After we left the Yu Family, she took her grandfather's place and took care of Yuan for a while. She's a good friend."

"What about their relationship? Is she also his partner?" Hong Xiuquan asked out of curiosity.

"They don't have that kind of relationship. However, Wang Xiuying admires Yuan a lot, and she even claims to be his number one fan." Meixiu shook her head.

"Well, now that she's living with him, it probably won't be long before things happen." Shi Lang shrugged.

Meanwhile—

"Wow, this place is so much nicer inside. Not even five star hotels can compare to this." Wang Xiuying mumbled as they walked around.

"Yes, it's a nice place. We're lucky to live here." Yuan smiled.

After walking for some time, Wang Xiuying suddenly said, "By the way, I saw your interview."

"What did you think of it?" He asked.

"I don't know how to say it... I felt angry at the Yu Family for what they've done to you, but I am also relieved that you finally exposed them. How are they doing right now?"

"I don't know, they ran away and hid somewhere." He shrugged.

"I'm not surprised. They suddenly became the most hated family in the entire world, after all."

"Also, did you regain your vision? Your eyes regained their color, and it feels like you can see me with your eyes, not your divine sense."

"Yes, I regained my vision."

Wang Xiuying sighed after hearing his words, and then she said, "Oh, don't misunderstand. I am happy for you, but I have always dreamed about curing your illness."

"Thank you, Xiuying. Your thoughts are enough. However, I don't think you can call it an illness. I think it's more of a curse than anything."

"Curse?" Wang Xiuying raised her eyebrows.

"I know it sounds crazy, but I have something to tell you later. It's very important."

"Sure."

Once their tour was finished and Wang Xiuying picked her room that was on the same floor as Yuan's room, they sat down to drink some tea made by Meifeng.

"Eh? Miss Meifeng? What are you doing here?" Wang Xiuying was surprised to see her there.

"I am now working for the Young Master," she gave a quick and brief explanation.

"I see..."

As they enjoyed the tea, Yuan explained the situation with Cultivation Online to her.

"What?! Our soul?!" Wang Xiuying was shocked after learning the truth.

"Yes, so you shouldn't go too crazy in Cultivation Online, and try your best to not get hurt. Any damage done to your soul is incredibly severe.

"I-I understand... I will be less reckless with Alchemy now that I know there are real risks to getting hurt..." She swallowed nervously.

Sometime later, Wang Xiuying went to her own room to organize her luggage.

Meanwhile, Meixiu approached Meifeng.

"Mother, I need to speak with you privately whenever you're available."

"Meet me in my room in an hour," Meifeng said.

"Okay."

An hour later, Meixiu knocked on the door to Meifeng's room.

"Come inside."

After entering the room and closing the door behind her, Meixiu looked at her mother with a calm but serious expression, "There's something I need to tell you, and it's about my relationship with Yuan."

Chapter 1000 - Mother and Daughter

"I'm listening." Meifeng said as she stood in front of Meixiu.

Meixiu took a deep breath before speaking, "The truth is... I am currently in a romantic relationship with Yuan."

Meixiu stared at her mother's face to see her reaction.

However, to her surprise, Meifeng's facial expression remained unchanged, seemingly unfazed.

"I see. Congratulations." Meifeng said to her in a calm voice a moment later.

"Y-You're not surprised?" Meixiu swallowed nervously.

"Why would I be? I knew that it was going to happen eventually."

"Is that so..." Meixiu was a little disappointed by her mother's lack of reaction. She thought she would be able to surprise Meifeng, but alas, that did not happen.

"That's all I have to say." Meixiu turned around and began walking towards the door.

However, Meifeng stopped her, "Where do you think you're going?"

"You may have nothing left to say, but I haven't said anything yet."

Meixiu halted her movements and walked back to her original spot.

"Let's sit down first."

The two of them went onto the balcony and sat down before each other.

Once they were seated, Meifeng spoke, "I want to hear about your relationship with the Young Master. Start from the beginning."

"The beginning?" Meixiu raised her eyebrows in a questioning manner, as it was too vague.

"Start from the day you left the Yu Family with him." Meifeng clarified.

"Okay." She nodded.

Meixiu proceeded to recall her experience with Yuan from the day they left the Yu Family all the way until the present day.

After telling Meifeng everything, Meixiu did not stop and continued, "There's something else you should know about... Yuan has another partner..."

"Chu Liuxiang, right?" Meifeng said.

"Huh? You knew about it? How?"

"I learned about it this morning. In fact, I already knew about your relationship with Yuan since yesterday when I found the birth control pills hidden under your bed. What kind of sloppy hiding spot is that?" Meifeng revealed the truth to her.

"You searched my room?!" Meixiu was speechless.

"No, I inspected it. I wanted to make sure that you weren't slacking."

"Unbelievable..." Meixiu became silent.

A moment later, Meifeng spoke, "Let's get to the main topic."

"Main topic?"

"Yes. I want to know your plans. When are you going to bear his children?"

"B-Bear his children?! I am still too young for that kind of thing!" Meixiu exclaimed.

"Too young? You're already an adult. A lot of ladies from influential families start their own family at your age. In fact, I got pregnant with you at that age, too."

"Seriously...?" Meixiu couldn't believe her ears.

"Meixiu, listen to me. If you want to remain relevant in the family, you must bear his child. The Young Master will definitely accept more women into his life in the future, and when that happens, he will have less time for you."

"I am well aware of that, and I will eventually bear his child, but that time is not now. It's too soon, not to mention the situation with Cultivation Online."

"Well, it's not like I am forcing you to bear his child. I am merely giving you advice as your mother. In fact, you'll probably become pregnant by accident, anyway."

"W-What? Why do you sound so confident about that?"

"Because birth control pills are not perfect. Although the chances are slim, it's not impossible for you to become pregnant even if you take the pills, especially since you're not wearing rubber when doing it with him."

Meixiu swallowed nervously after hearing her mother's words. Will she really get pregnant by accident?

Meifeng then continued, "I don't know much about Chu Liuxiang, but she seems like a bold girl. She'll probably get pregnant before you at this rate—if she's not already pregnant."

"I don't want to talk about this anymore... I'm leaving." Meixiu stood up and quickly left the room.

'She may have matured, but she's still a child at heart.' Meifeng shook her head inwardly.

Meanwhile, Yuan entered Cultivation Online.

"Welcome back, Young Master."

"Good morning, Brother Yuan."

"Hey, I am finally back. Sorry to keep you all waiting, we'll start climbing the Stairway to Heaven soon. I have one last thing to do before then."

Yuan flew around Spirit Heaven and started hiding treasures in random places.

"W-What are you doing, Young Master?" Feng Yuxiang asked him in a puzzled voice.

"I'm hosting an event where I hide treasures for people to find," he calmly explained.

Feng Yuxiang was speechless. She had tons of questions, but she didn't dare to ask them.

While Yuan hid treasures around the world, the internet was going wild about the event.

[Player Yuan is hosting a massive event!]

[A chance to acquire Heaven-grade treasures for free!]

[Player Yuan's real identity has finally been revealed!]

[Yu Family's scandal!]

Pretty much the entire world was talking about Yuan's interview yesterday as well as the Yu Family's scandal.

At Eternal Lotuses, their front gate was swarmed with people trying to interview Yu Rou.

"Senior Bai, I would like to do an interview of my own." Yu Rou approached White Lotus with this request.

"Huh? Why?" White Lotus asked.

"I just think it's the right thing to do. I can't stay silent forever. I will also let the world know my side of the story," she said.

After pondering for some time, White Lotus agreed to Yu Rou's request, and the interview was scheduled to start in four hours.

News of Yu Rou's interview started spreading like wildfire after White Lotus revealed it to the reporters outside their faction.

Four hours later, Yu Rou started her interview, and she told the world about her experience with the Yu Family, confirming everything that Yuan had said during his interview.

Yuan watched the interview later that evening with Meixiu and Meifeng.

"That little girl... She's growing up so fast..." Yuan said with a sweet smile on his face.

"She handled it well. I haven't seen her in a while, but she's definitely matured a lot." Meifeng said in a praising voice.

The following morning during breakfast, Li Jinxi asked, "Yuan, now that you're back, are we going to start ascending to the next realm?"

"Yes, but I want to wait a few more days just in case anything happens. Once I start ascending, I will be staying in Cultivation Online until I finish all of the trials, so I want to make sure that nothing will distract me from it." He nodded.

"Makes sense."

"I don't think you need to worry. If anything happens, we'll be able to do something about it. We're here for you, after all. You can rely on us." Wang Ming suddenly said.

Yuan pondered for a moment before nodding his head, "You're right. I should rely on you guys more."

"All right, we're going to ascend tonight. Make sure you're prepared by then."

"Okay." The members ascending with him nodded.

"Young Master, may I have some of your time? I have something to ask you." Meifeng asked him after breakfast.

"Sure. Where do you want to talk?"

"We can do it in my room," she said.

Yuan nodded and followed Meifeng to her room.

After preparing some tea and serving it to him, Meifeng sat down before him.

"I'm ready when you are, Miss Meifeng." Yuan said to her.

"Thank you, Young Master. But to be honest, this isn't that serious, and the topic might not be what you expect."

Yuan raised an eyebrow as he wondered what she wanted to tell him.

After taking a deep breath, Meifeng spoke with a serious look on her face, "Young Master, what do you think about having a child with my daughter?"

Yuan was sipping his tea when Meifeng started speaking.

After hearing her question, he nearly spat out the tea in his mouth.

"A-A child with Meixiu? Where did this come from?" He asked her a moment later.

"As her mother, it's only natural for me to think about these things now that she's found herself the perfect partner. And to be completely honest with you, Young Master, I also want to see some grandchildren."

"I-I don't know what to tell you, Miss Meifeng... This is not something I can decide on. Furthermore, we don't have the time to take care of a baby, not to mention that things will only get busier as we get closer to unveiling the truth behind Cultivation Online and Earth."

"If you're worried about not having enough time, you don't need to worry because I can take care of the baby and do my work at the same time. I've already done so with both Meixiu and you, after all."

"Even if you say that... Have you spoken to Meixiu about this?" Yuan asked.

"I have."

"What's her answer?"

"She said that she's not ready."

"If she's not ready then there's nothing I can do. I won't force her to have a child with me if she isn't ready to have one." Yuan shook his head.

"I know, and I am not asking you to do so. However, if you ever feel like having a child with Meixiu, you will most likely have to be the one to convince her. Knowing her, she's probably waiting for you to approach her."

"I see... Then to tell you the truth, I also think I am not ready to have any children. I am still young, and there are many problems in my life that I need to sort out first before I can even start thinking about bringing another life to this world."

Meifeng closed her eyes and remained silent for a couple of moments before sighing, "Since the Young Master has spoken, I won't bother you with this matter anymore. Though, I would like to ask, how is your relationship with Chu Liuxiang? Judging by what I've seen from her, she seems like the type of girl to want a family as soon as possible."

Yuan smiled and said, "As expected of you, Miss Meifeng. Your eyes are as sharp as ever. Indeed, Lulu's dream is to have her own family. However, she hasn't asked me to do anything yet. She's also probably waiting for me to approach her, but who knows. She's sometimes very unpredictable."

"I understand. And I apologize for wasting your time with my little nonsense... Ever since Meixiu left with you, I have been thinking about having grandchildren, even though it's never happened before."

"Don't worry about it, Miss Meifeng."

"Also, you should stop calling me that. You're my Master now. You can just call me Meifeng."

"I can call you Meifeng, but you'll also have to drop the formalities and call me Yuan."

"That's not fair, Young Master..."

"Please. You're Meixiu's mother. It would be weird for my future mother-in-law to address me as Young Master."

"..."

Meifeng released a defeated sigh.

"I understand. If that's what you want, I shall obey... Yuan."

"Thank you, Meifeng." He smiled.

For the rest of the day, Yuan would work on his little treasure hunt. Once he made all preparations, he made his way to the Stairway to Heaven and waited for the others to show up.

When Meixiu, Chu Liuxiang, and Li Jinxi entered Cultivation Online, they all approached the Stairway to Heaven.

"We're finally going to ascend. I've been waiting for this moment!" Chu Liuxiang said in an excited voice as they approached the man handing out the badges.

"I'd like four badges." Yuan said to the man, who immediately raised his eyebrows.

"Four? Only one of you can challenge the Stairway to Heaven at a time," he said.

"I know. I am going to be the only one challenging the Stairway to Heaven. They're just coming along with me." Yuan smiled.

"Seriously? Are you aware that—"

"Yes, I am aware that by doing so, it would make the trials much harder, and I am prepared for it."

The man looked at the three beauties standing behind him and sighed in a low voice, "Statistically speaking, men that focus too much on women will never go far in the cultivation world. However, this is your life, not mine."

Once the old man handed four badges to Yuan, they immediately began climbing the staircase that led to the Stairway to Heaven.

Chapter 1002 - Surrounded

Once they arrived in front of the staircase, Yuan started climbing it while being pressured by an invisible force.

However, unlike the first time, he was not bothered by it at all. As for Meixiu and the others, they climbed the staircase without feeling anything.

"Is it supposed to be this easy?" Li Jinxi asked.

"No, it's not. Since we're not taking the trial, we won't need to do anything. However, Yuan will have to bear our share of effort, so it's going to be a lot harder on him than normal." Chu Liuxiang explained to her.

"What? If that's the case, why don't we just let him do it by himself? The Stairway to Heaven will probably open for everyone else after he clears it. There's no reason to make it harder on him for no reason." Li Jinxi said.

"He's probably already thought about that, but since he isn't saying anything, he probably wants the challenge. After all, it would be too easy if he went inside by himself." Chu Liuxiang shrugged.

"Will he be okay...?"

"Of course. He passed the last Stairway to Heaven while carrying three other people as well."

"Really? Who was the third one? And where is this person now?"

"He helped a fellow disciple from the same sect to escape her family. She joined one of the Seven Spiritual Academies with the others."

"I see..."

Sometime later, once Yuan and the others arrived before the grand doors of the Stairway to Heaven, they started inserting their badge into the slots.

However, right as Yuan prepared to insert his badge into the door, he suddenly stopped and started looking around.

"What are you looking for?" Chu Liuxiang asked him, but he didn't say anything.

"Feng Feng, Xiao Hua, Yingying." He suddenly called them.

The three of them appeared before him the next second.

"Protect them." He said.

"Yes."

"What's going on, Yuan?" Meixiu asked him with a slight frown on her face.

"We're surrounded."

"Huh? By who?" Chu Liuxiang looked around, but she couldn't see anyone.

Suddenly, a tremendous pressure that surpassed even the staircase Yuan climbed appeared.

Feng Yuxiang and Xiao Hua used their cultivation to protect Meixiu and the others.

"Where do you think you're going, Yuan?" A familiar voice suddenly resounded in the area.

Eight figures appeared in the air above them a moment later, all of them emitting the aura of a Spirit King.

Yuan smiled when he saw the person leading this group.

"I was wondering when you'll come back, Lord Ji. So, where did you go after disappearing without a word? What happened to my judgment?"

"Your judgment was a little unique, so I had to delay it."

"You couldn't have picked a better time? I'm finally about to ascend after many delays, and you're here to delay it again? It's almost as though this world is trying to prevent me from ascending for some reason."

"Hahaha!" Lord Ji suddenly started laughing.

He then spoke, "Don't worry, Yuan. This will be your last delay because you will not survive another day. If you're dead, you won't need to worry about being delayed or ascending."

"So you're going to kill me today? What happened to not meddling with outside affairs unless it breaks the balance of the world? Don't tell me that I am going to break the balance of the world by ascending?" He asked.

"Oh no, what you did is far worse than breaking the balance of this world." Lord Ji said.

"Since I am going to die today, can you enlighten me for a moment? What exactly did I do?"

Lord Ji pointed his sword at Yuan and spoke in a cold voice, "You offended the Heavens, that's what you did."

"I offended the Heavens? How and when did I do such a thing?" Yuan raised an eyebrow.

"That's something I wish to know as well."

"So you don't know how or if I even offended the Heavens, yet you're here trying to kill me? Can you be any more unreasonable?"

"I may not know how, but I definitely know that you have offended the Heavens. When I called upon Heaven's Judgment on you, the crystal became pitch black. I didn't know what it meant at that time because I have never seen such a result before, so I went back home to check."

"After some research and much to my shock, I learned that when the crystal turns black after Heaven's Judgment, that means the Heavens wants you dead at all cost! Although it has never happened in the lower half of the Nine Heavens before, the crystal only turns black when someone has done something or is planning on doing something that will harm the Heavens!"

"Such a heinous crime cannot be fully rectified even with your death, so I am going to shatter your soul and erase your existence entirely! This is Heaven's judgment for you, Yuan!" Lord Ji declared.

And he continued, "Don't even try running away into the Stairway to Heaven. As the Lord of this realm, I have control over the Stairway to Heaven. You won't be able to open that door even if you put in your badge. There's nowhere to run."

"Is that so..." Yuan mumbled.

"Ahahaha!" A familiar-sounding laughter suddenly resounded.

"Yuan! I am finally going to get the chance to avenge my brother and my son! With the Seven Legacy Families and the Ji Family working together to take you down, not even the Heavens can save you today! Oh right! Even the Heavens want you dead!" Patriarch Gu, who was among the group of Spirit Kings, suddenly exclaimed in a spiteful voice, his aura filled with killing intent.

Indeed, the 7 individuals that Lord Ji brought with him were all leaders of their own Legacy Family from the Seven Legacy Families.

Right after Patriarch Gu's sentence ended, Yuan and the others could see a sea of people approaching them from all directions like a tidal wave. They were all people from the Seven Legacy Families and the Ji Family, and they were all there to carry out Heaven's Judgment by killing Yuan.

Chapter 1003 - Opening the Stairway to Heaven

Chapter 1003 - Opening the Stairway to Heaven

"Over 300,000 people have gathered here today just to kill you, Yuan. Don't you feel honored?" Lord Ji said with a cold smirk on his face.

"Yes, I'm a little flattered that you would go out of your way to send an entire army just for me. However, I will have to disappoint you. Your efforts will be in vain, and I will ascend the Stairway to Heaven just as planned." Yuan remained calm despite his seemingly hopeless situation.

"Nobody here can stop me from ascending today— not even the Heavens itself."

"Hahahaha! You're truly one crazy bastard, Yuan!" Lord Ji suddenly burst out laughing, his voice so powerful that it created ripples in the air.

"I know that you're a talented guy, but there are situations in this world that cannot be solved with talent alone, and this is one of them!"

"You're currently surrounded by the Seven Legacy Families and my Ji Family! Furthermore, your only way of escape— the Stairway to Heaven— is blocked! You have no chance of escaping today!"

"The Stairway to Heaven is blocked?" Yuan suddenly scoffed.

"Who decided that? The Stairway to Heaven isn't owned by you. If I want to open these doors, there is nothing you can do to stop me."

"While it is technically true that I do not own the Stairway to Heaven, as the Lord of this realm, I have the authority to choose who can open the door and who cannot! If you don't believe me, you may go ahead and try it!" Lord Ji said.

"I was going to do that even without needing your permission. However, let's also have some fun while we're at it. If I can successfully open the Stairway to Heaven, why don't you let us go?"

"Are you thinking about forcing your way inside the Stairway to Heaven? Not even Immortals who are near the peak of the cultivation world can force their way into the Stairway to Heaven, much less a Spirit Lord like you!"

"Who said anything about forcing my way inside? I am going to place my badge and open the Stairway to Heaven the normal way. If I can achieve that, promise me that you'll give up on trying to kill me."

Lord Ji narrowed his sharp eyes at Yuan, seemingly trying to figure out his true purpose.

Although he was confident that Yuan would not be able to open the Stairway to Heaven without his permission, he had an uneasy feeling in his guts.

"Why are you staying silent, Lord Ji? You don't seem very confident in your own words now." Yuan showed him a mocking smile on his face.

"There's no need to play your games because you'll be dead soon," Lord Ji sneered.

"Anyways, do you have any last words before we kill you?"

He nodded and asked, "What about my friends? Since I am your target, it wouldn't make sense to harm them. Why not let them go?"

"Unfortunately, those who are associated with a criminal like you also deserve the death penalty. Therefore, they are all going to die here with you."

"That's not very reasonable. It's a pity. I thought you would be a little different from the rest of the villains." Yuan shook his head.

"Did you just call me a villain?" Lord Ji's face suddenly turned ice cold, almost as though he'd swallowed a live fly by accident.

"How dare you compare me with a villain! I am Heaven's servant, and Heaven is just! You, who dared to offend the Heavens, is the villain here!" Lord Ji roared with a twisted look on his face.

Clearly, Yuan had accidentally poked his reverse scale.

Yuan sighed, "Forget it."

And without even looking, Yuan inserted the badge into the main slot of the doors to the Stairway to Heaven.

However, the Stairway to Heaven had no reactions whatsoever.

The leaders of the Seven Legacy Families started to laugh out loud after seeing this.

"Look at this damn fool! It's like he's deaf or something! Lord Ji clearly told him that he would not be able to open the door!"

Yuan ignored them and knocked on the door.

"Umm... Tian'er, can you hear me? If you don't mind, I'd like to enter." He said out loud.

"Hahahaha!" Even the 300,000 people there started laughing out loud.

"What the hell does he think he is doing? Who the hell is Tian'er? Has he gone crazy?!"

However, in the midst of their laughter, the Stairway to Heaven suddenly started shaking.

The 300,000 people there, as well as Lord Ji and the leaders, stopped laughing and watched with wide eyes as the massive doors for the Stairway to Heaven started opening.

"Meixiu, Lulu, Jinxi, I want you to go inside and wait for me." Yuan suddenly said to them with a serious expression on his face.

"What about you? Why aren't you coming with us?" Meixiu asked with a worried frown.

"Don't worry, I will follow you guys once I speak with them some more."

"What if the door closes on you?" Chu Liuxiang asked.

"It won't happen. Trust me." He smiled.

"Alright, we'll wait for you inside. Don't take too long." Meixiu nodded.

They entered the Stairway to Heaven the next moment.

'What the hell is going on?! Why did the Stairway to Heaven open for him?! I specifically ordered it not to open for anyone today!' Lord Ji cried inwardly as he watched Meixiu and the others enter the Stairway to Heaven.

'Oh no! He's going to get away at this rate!'

"Stop him from entering the Stairway to Heaven at all cost!" Lord Ji suddenly shouted.

The leaders of the Seven Legacy Families immediately rushed at Yuan, who suddenly raised his hands and said, "Calm down, I don't intend on leaving just yet."

The Stairway to Heaven closed its doors the following moment.

Lord Ji sighed in relief after seeing that Yuan had remained, but he still couldn't understand why the Stairway to Heaven had opened just now.

Chapter 1004 - Heaven's Regulation

Chapter 1004 - Heaven's Regulation

"What the hell did you do just now? How did you open the Stairway to Heaven?" Lord Ji questioned Yuan after the shocking event.

"If you tell me why I am being hunted and I will tell you." He said.

"I already told you— I am only upholding Heaven's judgment. I don't know what you did, but I know that you must die."

"That doesn't really answer my question, so my question remains unanswered." Yuan shrugged.

"If you don't want to tell me, that's fine. You'll regret not leaving just now because that was your only chance to survive even a little longer!" Lord Ji smiled.

"Only a little longer? What can you do to me once I ascend to the Third Heaven?" Yuan raised an eyebrow.

"Hahaha! You're really foolish and ignorant! Do you really think that you'll be able to escape from punishment just because you escape to another Heaven? In case you forgot, my Ji Family exists in the other Heavens as well! As long as you remain alive, you will be hunted by the Nine Heavens!"

"Now you're telling me that I am going to be hunted by the Nine Heavens? That doesn't make any sense. You're making it sound like I am an Exile."

'Oh? So he knows about Exiles? How surprising.' Lord Ji appeared to be genuinely surprised that Yuan knew about Exiles, mostly because they are only ever mentioned in the upper heavens.

"I wouldn't compare myself to Exiles if I were in your shoes, Yuan. As an Exile, at least I can be pardoned by completing the Supreme Heaven's Legacy. However, your situation is different. There are no second chances — no opportunity for you to be pardoned! The Heavens have already dictated you as a dead man! No matter where you go in the Nine Heavens, you will be hunted by those who serve the Heavens!"

Yuan frowned upon hearing this.

He will be hunted no matter where he went in the Nine Heavens? What did he do to deserve such a punishment? Furthermore, even if he can defeat everyone here today, it will be much harder for him to ascend now that the entire world is suddenly against him.

"So you will kill me today no matter what, is that correct?" Yuan asked for confirmation.

"That's right." Lord Ji confirmed.

"Young Master, no matter what you did, even if the entire world is your enemy, I will forever be your loyal servant." Feng Yuxiang suddenly said to him in a calm voice.

"Xiao Hua will always be with Brother Yuan as well." Xiao Hua said.

"I swore my loyalty to you, Yuan. Even if the Heavens are against you, I shall fight by your side." Lan Yingying said.

Yuan smiled and said, "Thank you. I'm really glad to have the three of you by my side."

He then turned to look at Lord Ji and said, "As much as I want to kill everyone here for wanting to kill me, I am not that ruthless, so consider yourselves lucky."

Yuan knocked on the door to the Stairway to Heaven the next moment, causing it to open again.

"Let's go. There's no need to waste our time and effort on these idiots."

Lord Ji was shocked to see that Yuan had managed to open the Stairway to Heaven again, but he wasn't going to let Yuan enter like the girls.

He suddenly retrieved a golden medallion and activated his spiritual energy, "Heaven's Regulation!"

Yuan, who was only a step from entering the Stairway to Heaven, suddenly felt an immense pressure that even he could not resist, and he was immediately brought down to his knees.

"Young Master?!" Feng Yuxiang and the others were shocked to see Yuan in such a condition.

"I did not think I needed to use this treasure so early. However, since you were on the verge of escaping, I had no choice." Lord Ji said after taking a deep breath, feeling relieved that he managed to stop Yuan on time.

'What an immense pressure! What did he do to me?!' Yuan slowly turned his head to look at the medallion in Lord Ji's grasp.

Yuan's eyes widened when he saw the golden medallion. However, this was his first time seeing such an item. Despite that, he felt like he had seen it before, and he could feel something welling up inside him.

'This feeling...'

He recognized this emotion very well. It was the feeling of anger— intense anger that could burn even the Heavens, and the only time he would feel this kind of emotion is when the Evil God appears.

Yuan's eyes slowly started turning blood red as the insane amount of anger started pumping his heart with adrenaline.

"Heaven's Regulation... I will... destroy the... Heavens!" Yuan muttered in a low but resolute voice.

"DAMN HEAVENS' PUPPETS! I WILL DESTROY YOU ALL!"

Yuan suddenly released a deafening roar that caused a ripple that contained intense killing intent to appear, sweeping the area with his terrifying killing intent.

Everyone below Spirit Master coughed up a mouthful of blood and fell to the ground after experiencing Yuan's killing intent that came only from his voice alone.

"What happened?!" Lord Ji and the others were shocked by Yuan's surprise attack that instantly took down all of their Spirit Warriors and Spirit Apprentices, which added up to over 100,000 casualties.

A pair of beautiful yet ominous crimson wings suddenly sprouted from Yuan's back.

Lord Ji and everyone there were horrified when they saw the crimson wings created from killing intent. Even Xiao Hua and the other two couldn't help but tremble before the majestic wings that were drooling red miasma.

'How is it possible for someone to have so much killing intent?! Just how many people did he kill?!' Lord Ji cried inwardly after seeing Yuan's devil-like appearance, feeling a strong urge to turn around and run the opposite direction.

Yuan slowly stood back up and turned to look at Lord Ji with a cold glare that could freeze even the Yellow Springs of the dead.

"Heavens' puppet... You will regret showing your face before my presence."

Chapter 1005 - Fighting Lord Ji and the Seven Legacy Families

Chapter 1005 - Fighting Lord Ji and the Seven Legacy Families

"K-K-Kill them all!" Lord Ji commanded everyone there in a trembling voice.

The 200,000 remaining cultivators there started rushing forward.

Seeing this, Yuan turned to look at Feng Yuxiang and the others.

With a tranquil expression and a calm voice that could soothe even a crying baby, he spoke, "Leave nobody alive."

"With pleasure!" A wide smile appeared on Feng Yuxiang's face as she flew away from the staircase and towards the army to the west, leaving a trail of beautiful golden flames wherever she went.

Xiao Hua didn't say anything and flew towards the east. Once she was in front of the army, she retrieved two spiritual weapons that emitted an aura only Divine-grade treasures can emit.

As for Lan Yingying, she went in the direction where Lord Ji and the seven leaders were not present, leaving them to Yuan.

Once she was in the air, Lan Yingying transformed into a massive white serpent. The people there were greatly shocked by Lan Yingying's transformation.

"She was a magical beast this whole time?!"

"No! This divine aura around her— she's a Divine Beast!" Lord Ji exclaimed.

He couldn't believe his eyes. Why would a Divine Beast be with someone like Yuan, much less help him?

Once she reached the army, Lan Yingying opened her mouth and breathed scared flames on them like a dragon.

Everyone that was unfortunate enough to touch her sacred flames were instantly engulfed in her flames and burned until there was nothing left.

Meanwhile, Feng Yuxiang would cause explosions whenever she went, even creating a sea of flames with her Phoenix fire.

Xiao Hua would casually swing her spiritual weapons and kill over a dozen people with a single swing.

Terrified screams resounded in all directions and the 200,000 army quickly diminished.

It was a one-sided slaughter that left Lord Ji and the leaders of the Seven Legacy Families utterly shocked and terrified, and they all wondered what kind of background Yuan had to be able to do something like this.

However, they were also beginning to understand why the Heavens wanted him dead.

'The Heavens... Are they scared of his potential? He's only a Spirit Lord in the Second Heaven, yet he's already amassed such prowess...' Lord Ji wondered inwardly.

Yuan took a deep breath and sighed out loud, "The scent of Heaven's puppets being slaughtered is always pleasing, but it's not enough. There's not enough blood— not enough carnage!"

Yuan suddenly summoned the Empyrean Overlord and flew towards Lord Ji and the seven leaders.

"He's coming! Support me and let's kill him together!" Lord Ji also retrieved his weapon and approached Yuan.

The seven leaders followed him from behind.

"You think you can kill me?! Not even the Celestial Emperor could achieve such a feat, much less a few mutts like you!" Yuan laughed out loud as he confronted Lord Ji in the air.

"Celestial Emperor?! What nonsense are you mumbling about, you crazy monster!" Lord Ji shouted as his sword collided with Yuan's greatsword.

Clang!

"Ugh!"

Lord Ji gritted his teeth after feeling the impact behind Yuan's strike and was even pushed back many meters.

'What intense strength!" Lord Ji cried inwardly as he tried to recover from the attack..

Meanwhile, the seven leaders surrounded Yuan and started unleashing their techniques at him simultaneously.

Seeing this, Yuan used his wings to cover his body, leaving no gaps in his defenses. The power of seven Spirit Kings clashed with Yuan.

The attacks managed to create many holes in Yuan's wings, but these holes disappeared as quickly as they appeared, and the person himself was not hurt in the slightest.

"Impossible! How can he remain unharmed after eating all seven of our attacks?! What kind of technique is he using?!" Patriarch Gu exclaimed in a shocked voice.

"We don't have the time to think about it! Let's keep attacking him! I doubt he will be able to use that power for long!" The leader of the Xian Family, Patriarch Xian, shouted.

"Mongrels that can't tell the difference between Heaven and Earth, allow me to show you what happens when you point your weapons at me!"

Yuan suddenly gathered an immense amount of killing intent that condensed into a huge blade in the sky.

Lord Ji and the seven leaders were petrified on the spot from fear after witnessing the blade of killing intent in the sky.

"Asura's Blade of Execution." Yuan mumbled in a low voice as he gestured for the blade to fall towards Lord Ji and the seven leaders.

Xiao Hua momentarily stopped fighting when she noticed the blade in the sky.

'That technique! How does Brother Yuan know Xiao Hua's family technique?!' she cried inwardly.

Lord Ji and the seven leaders wanted to run away from the attack, but the pressure coming from the blade prevented them from going anywhere, forcing them to fight it head-on.

"Use all of your life-saving treasures!" Lord Ji roared in a desperate voice.

All of them immediately retrieved all of their life-saving treasures without daring to hold anything back, as their lives depended on whether they could defend this one strike from Yuan.

Over fifty kinds of life-saving treasures stood before Yuan and the others.

The Asura's Blade of Execution collided with the life-saving treasures a moment later, and it instantly shattered over half of them.

As for the rest of the life-saving treasures, they did not last long either, and the blade continued to fall.

Lord Ji and the others even used their blood essence to enhance the life-saving treasures, which would shorten their lifespan and damage their cultivation even if they survived the attack. However, they were desperate and did not want to die.

"Yuan! Let's talk this through! We'll give up on trying to kill you! Have mercy!" Lord Ji eventually tossed aside his pride and pleaded for mercy.

The seven leaders also begged for Yuan to spare their lives.

However, Yuan's face remained nonchalant, and he spoke in a calm voice, "There is only one fate for those who dare block my path— death!"

Chapter 1006 - Asura's Blade of Execution

Chapter 1006 - Asura's Blade of Execution

"There is only one fate for those who dare block my path— death!"

Yuan's words reverberate in Lord Ji's and the leaders' heads, putting them in a daze for a split second.

However, this split second was more than enough to disturb their concentration and break their defenses.

"THE HEAVENS WILL NEVER FORGIVE YOU FOR THIS, YUAN!"
Lord Ji screamed at the top of his lungs as the Asura's Blade of Execution consumed their bodies, killing them instantly.

Yuan wiped the sweat from his face after deactivating Asura's Blade of Execution. The technique required so much energy that it nearly exhausted all of his spiritual energy.

"The Heavens will never forgive me? The Heavens should be the one begging for forgiveness!"

He closed his eyes and began recovering his spiritual energy while hovering in midair.

When the army saw this, they saw this as a chance to avenge their leaders and kill Yuan while he was weak.

And since there were so many people there, Xiao Hua and the others could not hold them all back from reaching Yuan.

However, their help wasn't necessary because Yuan still had more than enough energy to deal with the leftovers of the Ji Family and the Seven Legacy Families.

Without opening his eyes or moving his body, Yuan used the Starry Abyss to kill anyone that dared to approach him.

Eventually, the rest of the army started fleeing from the battle.

With their leaders dead and without having anyone strong enough to deal with Yuan's servants, much less Yuan himself, it was basically a suicide mission with no chance of winning, so the people did what was natural—abandon the fight and run away.

"Where do you ants think you're going?! There is nowhere for you to run! The Young Master has ordered us to leave none alive! All of you insignificant ants that dared to point their weapons at my Young Master will perish here today!" Feng Yuxiang exclaimed as she released the strongest technique that she could muster with her current strength.

"Phoenix Flames Burning Heavens Art!"

Feng Yuxiang summoned her fiery wings, and flames started appearing in the sky above her, almost as though the heavens were on fire.

"Burn them all!" Feng Yuxiang flicked her sleeves, causing the sea of flames in the sky to rain down countless fiery projectiles that took the shape of a feather.

"Aaaaah!"

In mere seconds, tens of thousands of cultivators fell to Feng Yuxiang's attack.

Not wanting to lose to Feng Yuxiang, Xiao Hua started releasing Heaven Splitting Sword Strikes with every swing, changing the landscape there within moments.

When Lan Yingying saw their awespiring performance, she felt a rush of adrenaline coursing through her body and her heart throbbing with excitement.

The three servants felt as though something had ignited within their hearts after Yuan gave them their first order to fight for him, so they wanted to perform to the best of their abilities.

Although it felt like a long time had passed, in reality, only a few minutes have passed since the fight began.

The battlefield eventually became quiet, and Xiao Hua and the others returned to Yuan's side, their mission finished.

"Young Master, we have eradicated everyone from the Seven Legacy Families and the Ji Family. What are your orders now?" Feng Yuxiang said to him with a satisfied look on her face.

Yuan looked at the destruction that they had caused and spoke, "We have done something irreversible today. We might kill even more people in the future, soaking our bodies in blood. I won't blame you even if you wish to leave my side now."

"Even if you order me to kill everyone in the Nine Heavens, I would not hesitate to stain my hands for you, Young Master." Feng Yuxiang said.

"Xiao Hua too!" Xiao Hua also said.

Lan Yingying silently nodded her head.

Yuan smiled when he saw the resolve in their eyes, and he spoke in a calm voice, "I'm really fortunate to have companions like you by my side."

Sometime later, Yuan's appearance returned to normal, and the Evil God's presence could no longer be felt.

"Let's gather all of the treasures here before we leave. It would be a waste to leave them here." He said to them a moment later.

They proceeded to gather all of the spatial rings and storage pouches from the battlefield.

"Young Master, I have been wanting to ask you this for a while now, but how many reincarnations have you experienced? And do you have memories from all of your past life?" Feng Yuxiang asked him as they looted the corpses.

"I don't know. I am only aware of four at this moment, and I don't have all of their memories. I have recently assimilated the Divine Paragon's memories, but I can only absorb so much at a time, so it will be a while before I fully regain all of the Divine Paragon's memories, and until I do that, I cannot touch the others' memories. Though, they sometimes leak out, just like a few minutes ago." He explained to them.

"Who was responsible for the event just now?" Feng Yuxiang asked him.

"He calls himself the Evil God. He seems to be an infamous killer that has killed countless people in the past, but I think there is more to it."

"Evil God, huh? The name sounds familiar, but I cannot remember where I heard it from." Feng Yuxiang said with a pondering face.

Xiao Hua then spoke, "Brother Yuan... That technique you used just now... Is it also because of the Evil God?"

He nodded. "That's right. Asura's Blade of Execution, huh? It's the strongest technique I have seen thus far. It must be at least an Ancient-rank technique."

"It's a Mythic-rank technique from Xiao Hua's family..." She revealed to him the origin of the technique.

"What? Really?" Yuan looked at her with wide eyes.

"So the Evil God is somehow connected with your family? How surprising..." Yuan mumbled.

"But Xiao Hua doesn't know any Evil God." She shook head.

"It's fine. We don't need to know everything right away. We will find the answers eventually."

Xiao Hua nodded.

Chapter 1007 - Shocking the Spirit Heaven

Chapter 1007 - Shocking the Spirit Heaven

After Meixiu and the others entered the Stairway to Heaven, they appeared in the spectators' room.

"Where are we? This is the Stairway to Heaven?" Li Jinxi looked around with a curious gaze.

"This is just the spectators' room. We'll be watching Yuan participate in the trials from here. This way we can't disturb him." Chu Liuxiang explained.

"I see..."

The three of them proceeded to wait in silence.

Ten minutes passed, but it felt more like an hour to the three ladies that were anxiously waiting for Yuan to enter the Stairway to Heaven.

"How long has it been since we entered the Stairway to Heaven? It's taking too long! Did something happen to him out there?" Chu Liuxiang was the first to talk about it.

"With Feng Feng and the others with him, it will be fine." Meixiu calmly said.

"Are they really that powerful? I have never seen them fight before though." Chu Liuxiang said.

"I haven't either, but the feeling I get from them is more powerful than anyone I have met in Cultivation Online."

Meanwhile, Yuan and the others finally finished looting all of the corpses after much effort.

"How much do you think we'll get out of this?" Yuan asked after putting away the treasures.

"Honestly, you would've gotten more money from the life-saving treasures, but they were all destroyed." Feng Yuxiang said.

"Well, there's nothing I can do about that now." Yuan shrugged.

"Let's enter the Stairway to Heaven now. I don't want the others to worry since it's been a while."

He went to knock on the door shortly after.

Once the Stairway to Heaven opened, Yuan walked into the void.

Feng Yuxiang and the other two were teleported to the spectators' room after they entered.

"Welcome back, Master." A small figure approached Yuan shortly after he appeared inside the Stairway to Heaven.

"Thank you for opening the doors, Tian'er. To be honest, I wasn't confident that you would do it, but I had to try." Yuan said.

"You are the true Master of the Stairway to Heaven. The others are just fakes." She said.

"Anyways, do you mind if I take some time to recover my energy before we start? I'm a little exhausted right now."

Tian'er nodded, "Take as long as you need, Master. The trials will not officially start until you walk those stairs."

"Thank you."

Yuan took a seat right on the spot and began cultivating.

Tian'er sat before him and actually helped him recover his energy by guiding the spiritual energy within the Stairway to Heaven, making it much easier for him to absorb.

'Evil God... Why did you feel so much rage when you saw that golden medallion? What did it mean to you?' Yuan wondered to himself as he cultivated.

Meanwhile, outside the Stairway to Heaven, news of the battle that had taken place there began spreading throughout the entire Spirit Heaven like a massive wildfire.

The sheer destruction and damage the place had to endure shocked everyone in that realm. However, almost nobody in Spirit Heaven knew what had occurred there.

The only people that knew of the situation were those in the Seven Legacy Families and the Ji Family that stayed behind and did not participate in the battle, so not even the Seven— now Six Spiritual Academies knew the full situation.

When news of the battle reached the ears of those within the Seven Legacy Families and the Ji Family, they were all shocked and became filled with despair, which was only ordinary, as their leaders and most senior members had all perished in a single day!

Such devastation was unprecedented for all of these families!

Besides a few elders and the younger generation, pretty much the rest of their families were gone. Their numbers had diminished so much that they would no longer be considered a Legacy Family.

"Contact our families in the upper heavens! We cannot let that criminal escape! Since he's ascending through the Stairway to Heaven, they can set up an ambush outside!"

The Seven Legacy Families wasted no time contacting their families in the upper heavens, letting them know of the situation.

"What?! A single person had defeated our Seven Legacy Families and the Ji Family?! How is that even possible?!" The families in the upper heavens doubted this information because it sounded utterly ridiculous and impossible.

"We're not sure if he was working alone or had help, but it's true that everyone who had gone to kill him is dead!"

"That's preposterous! What in heavens' name happened down there?!" The upper families demanded an explanation.

"The Ji Family had ordered our Seven Legacy Families to bring out all of our forces after someone had been judged 'black' by Heaven's Judgment!"

"You fool! Why did you agree to help him?! The Seven Legacy Families may have some connections to the Ji Family, but we're not their soldiers!"

"The leaders thought it was going to be easy since they were only going to kill a single Spirit Lord, and they didn't want to lose face. However, it seems like everyone has underestimated this Spirit Lord, who has unfathomable prowess!"

"What about Lord Ji and the Ji Family?"

"Lord Ji was also killed in action! However, we don't know how their family is reacting to the news."

"I think I can imagine how they're reacting..."

The leaders of the Seven Legacy Families from the upper heavens sighed.

"Where is this person that dared to slaughter people from our family? Tell me everything about him!"

The families from Spirit Heaven proceeded to tell them everything they knew about Yuan and that he had entered the Stairway to Heaven to ascend.

"I understand. Even if he manages to ascend, we will all be waiting for him outside the Stairway to Heaven. The Third Heaven will be his last stop!"

Meanwhile, at the Ji Family, a small group of individuals gathered in the meeting room, all of them showing signs of grief, as they'd just received news about the result of the battle.

Chapter 1008 - Preparing Their Ambush

Chapter 1008 - Preparing Their Ambush

Inside the meeting room, one of the people there suddenly spoke after a long moment of silence in the room, "Is it true that my father is dead?"

"Yes, it's true. His life tablet is destroyed, and news of what happened at the Stairway to Heaven has already spread throughout the entire realm; it will only be a matter of time before the people in the upper heavens learn of the massacre."

"Have we notified our family in Third Heaven yet?"

"No, not yet."

"Then what the fuck are we doing here?! We need to notify them as soon as possible! We also need to have someone watching the Stairway to Heaven just in case he fails and stays down here for a little longer!"

"If this Yuan is talented enough to slaughter the Seven Legacy Families and our Ji Family while we're working together, there's no way that he wouldn't be able to ascend the Stairway to Heaven."

"I'm going to notify the family in Third Heaven! Time is of the essence right now! We cannot allow this criminal who has been sentenced by the Heavens to get away with his crimes!"

The direct descendant of Lord Ji left the room shortly after while everyone else remained in the meeting room to discuss their future.

"Now that the majority of our forces along with Lord Ji are dead, our family has practically become a chicken on the chopping board waiting to be slaughtered by our enemies. The moment our enemies learn the truth— that our family is defenseless, they will definitely attack us and try to replace us."

"This is a disaster not just for us. Even those in the upper heavens will be affected by this mess."

"What can we do? Go into hiding? How many years will it take before we can regain enough strength to manage this realm again? The Spirit Heavens will be destroyed by the wars that will soon plague this land before then!"

"We cannot do this alone. We've sustained too much damage to survive by ourselves now."

"Then we can only request for reinforcements and assistance from our family in the upper heavens for the time being."

Meanwhile, the Six Spiritual Academies were also having a meeting of their own to talk about the recent events.

"I don't want to make any speculations, but there is only one person that I can think of who could possibly make such a scene..." Sect Master Xiahou sighed.

"Are you talking about Yuan? That was my first thought as well. He also slaughtered the Gu Family and the Universal Music Academy." Sect Master Li said.

"According to our investigation, the corpses there belonged to the Seven Legacy Families and the Ji Family..."

"Besides them, who else could possibly amass such a massive army?"

"But why would they attack Yuan? Do you think it has anything to do with what happened at the Spirit Healing Academy?"

"It's possible, but we won't know for sure until we speak with them."

"Will they even tell us about it? I doubt they would want to talk about such a massive loss..."

"They have to— if they want our support. I highly doubt they will be able to defend themselves after losing so many people. Their families are practically crippled right now." Sect Master Li said.

"And when a family as prosperous as the Seven Legacy Families and the Ji Family suddenly become this weak, it's inevitable that they become the target of pretty much every power out there..." Bai Enjue sighed.

"We should also prepare ourselves for some visitors from the upper heaven. I doubt they will stay silent after something like this happened. They will most likely come down here to assist their own families."

Just like the Sect Masters had anticipated, the Seven Legacy Families and the Ji Family in the Third Heaven immediately started preparing to send experts to ambush Yuan at the Stairway to Heaven after learning of the situation.

Furthermore, each family prepared a couple of Spirit Kings to send to Spirit Heaven to protect them while they recovered. Even though it will cost them an astronomical amount of resources to send so many experts, they couldn't allow their families in the Spirit Heaven to perish, not to mention that their techniques and secrets could be stolen by outsiders.

The residents in Third Heaven were greatly alarmed when the Seven Legacy Families and the Ji Family suddenly gathered a massive army outside the Stairway to Heaven.

When they eventually learned of the situation in the Spirit Heaven, they understood why such drastic measures were being taken, and the entire world held their breath while they waited for Yuan to come out of the Stairway to Heaven, where he would take his last breaths.

Meanwhile, inside the Stairway to Heaven, Yuan opened his eyes after recovering from his exhaustion.

"Thank you, Tian'er. I feel even better than normal for some reason." Yuan said to her afterward.

"The spiritual energy inside the Stairway to Heaven is naturally pure, so you will gain more energy from it," she explained.

"I am going to climb the Stairway to Heaven now." Yuan said a moment later.

After approaching the staircase, he started climbing it, slowly ascending towards the next realm.

Even though it may not seem like it, every step Yuan took inside the Stairway to Heaven was akin to traveling hundreds of thousands of miles in reality.

Sometime later, Yuan arrived at the first trial.

"For the first trial, you must defend the city and survive for 24 hours. If the casualties in the city surpass 60 percent, you will fail the trial." Tian'er explained to him.

"A city-defending trial, huh? It's the complete opposite of the previous trial, where I had to kill the City Lord." Yuan smiled.

A moment later, his scenery began to change.

Once he could see clearly again, Yuan found himself inside the peak of a pagoda, and to his surprise, this was the exact same place that he'd fought the City Lord during the first trial in the past!

"Since I am protecting the city and I am in this place... Does this make me the City Lord now?" he wondered out loud.

Chapter 1009 - City Lord

[You have started your first trial in the Stairway to Heaven]

[You have to survive 24 hours and protect the city from outside forces]

[Finish the trial with less than 10 percent casualties in the city to receive a reward]

Yuan walked to the window and looked outside.

The city was quite massive, but it was not so big that he couldn't see the borders from his location. In fact, he could see the entire city up there.

'I don't see anyone attacking just yet...' Yuan thought to himself as he surveyed the city's surroundings.

"City Lord!"

A voice suddenly called for him.

He turned to look at the door, where a middle-aged man with a cultivation of a peak Spirit King stood.

"What's the matter?"

"We have received a report from our scouts that there is an army of 10,000 approaching the direction of our city from the north, their intentions unknown. They have over 9,000 Spirit Lords and 1,000 Spirit Kings. With such forces, I doubt they're coming here to have tea. What are your orders, City Lord?" The man reported.

Yuan's jaw almost dropped to the ground after hearing the report.

'Over 1,000 Spirit Kings?! The difficulty has ramped up so much compared to the last trial!' He cried inwardly.

He wasn't confident that he would be able to defeat such a powerful army even at his current state.

Then he realized something.

"What's the condition of our army looking like?" He asked the middle-aged man, who was wearing military armor.

"We have 1,000 Spirit Lords and 500 Spirit Kings ready to be deployed at this moment," said the middle-aged man.

'That's slightly above 10 percent of their total forces... This is going to be rough, especially if we wait for them to come. If I want that special reward, I will have to make sure that they don't get close to the city. In order for this to happen... I will have to go to them.'

After pondering for some time and coming up with a conclusion, Yuan turned to the middle-aged man and spoke, "How far away are these people?"

"They're about two hours away."

Yuan nodded and said, "Bring half of our forces with me. We're going to intercept them before they can get close to our city. As for the other half, leave them here just in case they have reinforcements."

"As you command, City Lord."

Half an hour later, Yuan and 750 soldiers left the city and made their way towards the north.

Sometime later, once they could see the enemy with their eyes, Yuan stopped and said, "Wait for my order."

"Yes!" [The most uptodate novels are published on Freewebnovel.com]

Yuan summoned the Empyrean Overlord and took a deep breath before he started gathering spiritual energy.

'There's only one way for us to defeat them... Taking them by surprise.'

When the enemy noticed Yuan and his small army, they stopped for a moment before resuming their movements. In their eyes, there was no way that an army of that size could possibly defeat their army with 10,000 experts.

"Keep moving! They're probably just here to speak with us! We will pretend to be peaceful, but once we're close enough, we're going to kill all of them!" The general leading that armor commanded.

"Yes!"

However, the closer they got to Yuan's army, the more they felt uneasy for some reason.

"General, I think there is something wrong here."

Once they were close enough to see Yuan's face, they were surprised.

"General! That's the City Lord! What's he doing out here?!"

"I can see that! But this is great. If we can kill him here, his city will be wide open for us to conquer." The general laughed as they continued to approach Yuan.

However, once they got close enough, Yuan suddenly released the Heavenly Sword Strike with his full power.

A massive beam of sword light flew towards the army that was too close to dodge properly, instantly killing 70 percent of the people there.

The soldiers behind Yuan were shocked speechless after witnessing the scene.

"Attack them now! I will join you guys after I recover some spiritual energy!" He said to them.

"Yes!"

The soldiers snapped out of their daze and flew towards the opposing army.

Thanks to Yuan's Heaven Splitting Sword Strike, the opposing army was in dismay, and they were too dazed to fight properly, allowing Yuan's small army to dominate them.

Yuan joined the battle shortly after, quickly killing off everyone there.

"T-That was amazing, City Lord! You took out more than half of their army with a single technique!"

"As expected of the City Lord, who is known as the God of War!"

His soldiers praised him nonstop after the battle.

"How many casualties were there?" Yuan asked them.

"We have lost several soldiers— 3 Spirit Lord and 1 Spirit King. However, this little amount of casualties is like a miracle considering the size of our enemy's army."

"Let's return to the city for now. Make sure you reward the families of those that had fallen in battle today." Yuan said to them.

"Yes!"

After returning to the city, Yuan stared at the throne on the peak of the pagoda with a pondering face.

'That man... He called me the God of War. Who is that? Tian Yang? Or is he another incarnation?' He wondered.

After pondering for a moment, he decided to forget about it for now and sat down to cultivate.

'I still have 20 hours left. I doubt this trial will end just like that.'

Just as he'd predicted, about four hours later, the middle-aged man returned with more news.

"City Lord! I have just received a report that there is another army! They are coming from the west, and they have 20,000 soldiers!"

'20,000 soldiers? That's doubled compared to the last army!' Yuan cried inwardly.

At this rate, he will need another massive area of effect technique besides the Heaven Splitting Sword Strike to deal with them.

Chapter 1010 - City of Xian

Chapter 1010 - City of Xian

'Hmm? Wait a second... I learned how to do arrays when I was inside the Stairway to Heaven. Maybe I can learn some new techniques while I am the lord of this city!' Yuan mumbled to himself as he got this genius idea.

As the City Lord, surely, he should have some decent techniques stored away.

Unfortunately, he did not have the time to look for these techniques, as there was an army heading towards his city.

"Let's go. We're going to do the same thing we did for the last intruder, but we're going to bring more soldiers this time."

"Yes!"

The general left to gather the soldiers.

Sometime later, they left the city and started flying towards the direction of the intruders.

Once they could see the enemies, Yuan repeated what he did to the previous intruders— surprising them with a fully powered Heaven Splitting Sword Strike that changed the landscape and instantly killed thousands of intruders.

But alas, even though he'd managed to cut the intruders' numbers by 70 percent, the intruders still outnumbered them immensely.

After taking some time to recover his spiritual energy, Yuan joined the battle with the Empyrean Overlord in his grasp and the Starry Abyss by his side.

[Ten Thousand Ghost Blades!]

He cloned the Starry Abyss ten thousand times and used them to assist the other soldiers.

The blood of his enemies and allies rained from the sky as the battle raged for many minutes.

Half an hour later, Yuan fell to his knees and started gasping for air.

Fortunately, the battle had already ended and they were victorious, so he didn't have to worry about the enemies and rested.

"Are you okay, City Lord?!" UPDATE FROM FREEWEBNOVEL.COM.

His soldiers approached him with worried looks on their faces when they noticed how many injuries were on his body.

Even though the intruders were all Spirit Lords and Spirit Kings, they were much stronger than the cultivators in the Nine Heavens that have the same cultivation base. Even with his Invisible Dragon Cloak, he had sustained injuries.

"I am fine. These all are superficial injuries. They will heal in an instant." Yuan said to them.

And sure enough, his regeneration ability kicked in the following moment, healing his wounds fast enough for the soldiers to witness it with their bare eyes.

'If it were not for the Invisible Dragon Cloak weakening most of the damage, that would've been very dangerous...' He sighed inwardly.

"What about you guys? Are you fine? What about the casualties?" He asked them a moment later.

"It's not good. We lost around 300 men." The general shook his head with a pained expression on his face.

'300... That's almost a third of the amount of soldiers I brought with me... This is bad. And I still have to survive for over half a day. There will definitely be another invasion or two left. If I don't do something, I just might fail the first trial!' Yuan was beginning to feel the pressure of the trials.

Compared to the last time he challenged the Stairway to Heaven, the difficulty has truly increased by leaps and bounds.

Yuan began regretting his decision to purposefully increase the difficulty of the Stairway to Heaven by letting Li Jinxi and the others follow him even though he could've simply challenged the Stairway to Heaven by himself. After all, the Stairway to Heaven opened for all of the players when he cleared it the last time.

However, it was also true that he didn't want to risk the Stairway to Heaven not opening for everyone after he cleared it.

After returning to the city, Yuan immediately started to cultivate to recover his exhausted spiritual energy.

Once he recovered enough spiritual energy, he started looking around the pagoda to see if there were any hidden techniques or treasures inside.

He started from the highest floor of the pagoda, slowly making his way down.

However, even after searching the entire pagoda, he was unable to find any secret rooms or techniques.

"Nothing, huh?" Yuan sighed as he returned to the peak of the pagoda and stared outside the city.

After staring at the city for several minutes, Yuan started getting the feeling that he has been to this place before.

'Why am I suddenly feeling nostalgic? It's not like I have been here... Actually, I have, but that was during the last trial. I barely looked at the city at that time and rushed straight to this place to challenge the City Lord, so it wouldn't make sense that I am feeling nostalgia from that time...'

After pondering for some time, Yuan could only come to one conclusion.

'This city... I have definitely been here before— in my past life.'

'The location of this trial... It's not random, is it? Perhaps this place was reconstructed with the memories of my past life? This actually makes a lot of sense...'

'If this is really the case— that this place is from my memories and I am feeling nostalgia, then I should be able to remember it if I dig deep enough like the last time...'

Sometime later, Yuan took a seat in the lotus position and closed his eyes.

Once he returned to the deepest parts of his subconsciousness, he started searching through his memories.

Although he's only accepted the Divine Paragon's memories at this moment, his other memories would occasionally leak, so he could see bits and pieces of memories from his other identities.

Many minutes later, after going through many memories, he eventually found what he was looking for.

"City of Xian..." He muttered the name of the city that he was currently residing in.

Once he found what he was looking for, Yuan opened his eyes and flew outside the window.

He flew towards the east side of the city until he landed in front of a small but clean building.

When he looked at this small building, he couldn't help but feel emotional and shed some tears, even though he didn't know why.

After taking a deep breath and calming down a little, he approached it.

Chapter 1011 - A Familiar Voice

Chapter 1011 - A Familiar Voice

Once he was in front of the door, Yuan subconsciously opened the door and entered it, all of his movements feeling incredibly natural, almost as though he'd done the same actions for years.

"Welcome home." A familiar voice suddenly resounded from the second floor.

'Huh?' Yuan raised an eyebrow after hearing this noise. Even without needing to look into his memories, he recognized this voice very well. However, why would this voice appear in this place? That part didn't make sense at all.

Yuan ignored everything on the first floor and quickly made his way onto the second floor of the building.

There were three rooms on the second floor. Only one of these rooms had a closed door, so Yuan approached that room.

After knocking on the door, he spoke, "Is it okay if I come inside?"

"Of course. This is your room as well." The familiar voice returned again.

Yuan swallowed nervously before opening the door very slowly.

Once the door was opened wide enough, Yuan looked into the room to see a beautiful mature woman with long black hair sitting on the bed beside the window.

This woman had a sharp yet delicate face, and her clear black eyes shimmered like the sea during the summer. When her gaze landed on Yuan, his body trembled.

"M-Meixiu...?" Yuan muttered after seeing this mature woman who looked exactly like Meixiu but about 10 years older.

"What are you mumbling about, you silly? Come over here." She said to him with a gentle smile on her face.

Yuan subconsciously started approaching the bed, his eyes staring directly at her face without moving.

"What's wrong? Why are you so quiet? Did something happen?" She asked him.

"Y-Yeah... Our city was under attack..."

"What?! Is everything okay?!"

"For now. I have taken care of them, but there's a good chance that they will return."

"I see... Well, as long as we have you, there's nothing to worry about. Isn't that right, God of War, Tian Xian?"

"Y-Yes..." He nodded in a dazed manner. FREEWEBNOVEL.COM

"Tian Xian... Surnamed Tian... This is most definitely one of my past lives... So I was a City Lord and also the God of War, huh?"

"Anyways, why have you returned home? Don't tell me that you came home just to see me? Although I'm flattered and very happy, I want you to focus on defending the city and its people first."

"I came back for my techniques... I might need them to defeat our enemies. Do you remember where I put them? I forgot..." He said in a stiff voice.

This kind of excuse would've never worked in the real world, but since this is merely an illusion created by the Stairway to Heaven, he decided to test his luck.

"It seems I have underestimated our situation. For you to forget about something so important, you must be feeling overwhelmed." She sighed.

"Yes... A lot of our soldiers have died today, and even more will die at this rate. I'm afraid that I won't be able to protect this city."

"Come over here." She suddenly opened her arms, gesturing for a hug.

Yuan subconsciously lowered his body, and when he did, the woman grabbed his head and pulled it towards her chest.

Yuan could feel her soft blossoms pressing against his head, but there was something else that caught his attention when he touched this woman that resembled Meixiu.

'Her stomach... There's something off about it...' He thought to himself.

A few moments later, the woman said, "Let me show you where the techniques are stored.

After releasing him, the woman removed the blankets covering her body.

When Yuan saw this woman's body and her bulged stomach, his eyes widened with shock.

'T-This is... She's pregnant?!' Yuan cried inwardly after seeing her round stomach.

When the woman noticed Yuan staring at her stomach, she smiled and said, "It's been a while since you saw it, huh? The doctor said that I will be able to give birth in three months."

Yuan swallowed nervously after hearing her words, realizing that this is his first incarnation with a wife and a child. He always thought that he had no family of his own, not even in his previous lives, so this was quite the eye-opener.

The woman proceeded to lead Yuan to the basement.

The basement was completely empty when they entered it, but Yuan could somehow tell that there was an invisible formation protecting this place, and it was quite powerful— so powerful that even he cannot see it.

Once they descended the staircase, the woman retrieved some kind of treasure and activated it using her spiritual energy.

A portal opened up in the middle of the room a moment later.

'What kind of hiding spot is this?! There's no way that I would've been able to find this without her help!' Yuan cried inwardly after seeing the secret entrance.

Upon entering the portal, they appeared inside a small square room that had no windows or gaps. The room was completely enclosed with no way in or out besides the portal in his basement.

Inside this enclosed room was a single bookshelf. However, on this bookshelf was a single scroll.

Yuan walked to the bookshelf and took the scroll before opening it and glancing over it.

After memorizing the contents, Yuan placed the technique back on the shelf and looked at the woman.

"Thank you. I think I have what I need to defend this city now," he said with a smile.

"That's good to hear. I would like for our child to grow up in this place, after all." She chuckled.

They left the secret room and returned to the small 2 floor house shortly after.

Yuan followed the woman back to her room. Once she was back in the bed, she said to him, "I'll see you later, dear."

"Yes... See you later."

Yuan stared at her face for another moment before leaving the place and returning to the pagoda.

Chapter 1012 - He's Back!

Chapter 1012 - He's Back!

"M-Meixiu! Look at that! She looks just like you!" Chu Liuxiang exclaimed as she pointed to the mature woman in the spectators' room.

However, Meixiu was too stumped to even respond to her.

'S-She's pregnant? With my face? Are the heavens making fun of me? Are you trying to tell me something?' Meixiu couldn't believe her eyes.

Just the other day, her mother was pressuring her to have a baby with Yuan and now this. If this wasn't a sign from the gods, what would be?

"During the last Stairway to Heaven, there was somebody with your face." Feng Yuxiang suddenly said as she looked at Chu Liuxiang.

"I remember..." She sighed.

And she continued, "Why is the Stairway to Heaven using our faces, anyway? It seems a bit odd and random."

"I can only assume that it's trying to stir with the Young Master's emotions by including people that he cares about into the trials." Feng Yuxiang shrugged.

"But why a pregnant woman...?" Meixiu shook her head with a bittersweet smile on her face.

"But you have to admit, it looks very authentic. I wonder if that's what you will look like in ten years." Li Jinxi said.

Meanwhile, Yuan returned to the peak of the pagoda, where he tried to learn the technique inside the secret room.

However, the image of Meixiu kept on appearing inside his head, thwarting his focus on the technique.

'This technique is very profound. It should be at least Ancient-rank, but this means that it will take longer for me to comprehend, and this distraction is not helping. Hopefully, I will be able to learn it before the next invasion.'

After three hours of peace, the general of the army returned.

"City Lord! I have an emergency report! There is an army of 100,000 soldiers approaching our city from the East and the West! They will arrive in 8 hours!"

"A hundred thousand...?" Yuan could feel his heart dropping after hearing such a report.

Compared to the last invasion, this one was on a whole other level.

However, he managed to keep his composure and said, "I understand. I will call you when I am ready. Do not disturb me before then no matter what. I will be entering closed door cultivation now."

"Yes!" The general disappeared shortly after.

'Eight hours... Will I be able to do it?' He sighed inwardly.

'No... I have to do it!'

After taking a deep breath, Yuan closed his eyes and cleared his head of all unnecessary thoughts.

Once he could focus on the technique, he started reciting the scripture inside his head.

Many hours later—

"Where is the City Lord?! The intruders are less than an hour away from the city!"

The soldiers approached the general and asked.

"The City Lord is currently in closed door cultivation. He will appear when the time is right."

"Even if you say that... Our opponents this time have nearly 100 times our number... And they're attacking us from two sides. Even if he's the God of War who hasn't lost a single battle in his life, there is always a first for anything. Perhaps today is the day that the God of War experiences defeat..."

"What kind of nonsense is that?! Have faith in the God of War! How many years have we followed him?! How many times did we enter battle thinking that it was an impossible fight?! How many times has he managed to surprise us?! This time will be no different! Even if we're fighting against a million soldiers, we will be victorious and remain undefeated!"

"I really hope that will be the case..."

The soldiers there sighed.

Despite the general's words, they couldn't help but fear the worst. After all, they had to fight an army of 100,000 soldiers while only having a little over 1,000 soldiers themselves.

Half an hour later, the general received another report from the scout.

"General! The enemy will reach the city walls in 15 minutes! What are your orders?!"

The general turned to look at the tall pagoda that stood proudly in the center of the city and said, "We wait for the City Lord. We will not move until we receive his order, even if the entire city is burned to the ground."

"What?! That's outrageous!"

"If you want to fight the army by yourself, you are free to do so! However, I will wait for the City Lord!"

The soldiers there looked at each other with perplexed looks on their faces, feeling conflicted.

They wanted to trust their general and the City Lord, but by doing so, they risked letting the enemy destroy the city.

However, once they thought about it, they realized that they were doomed without the City Lord, so they had no choice but to wait.

Meanwhile, two different armies with 50,000 soldiers each quickly approached the City of Xian.

"I see the city walls! The so-called 'unconquerable city' shall be conquered by my Red Lion Army today! Ahahaha!" One of the generals laughed out loud as they got closer to the city.

Inside the City of Xian, its tiny army began panicking for real when they could see the Red Lion Army closing in.

"Is the City Lord still not here?! We're doomed!"

"Damn it! I thought I would die on a fierce battlefield! This may be fierce, but this isn't a battlefield! This is a freaking slaughterhouse!"

Unbeknownst to these soldiers and even the spectators in the spectators' room, an announcement was hovering in the sky for all players to see.

Due to how long Cultivation Online has been out, announcements these days were very rare. Although there was still a lot to be discovered in Spirit Heaven, most of the players did not have the capability to explore this vast land.

"L-Look at the announcement! He's back!" The players exclaimed in excitement when they saw the name in the announcement.

Chapter 1013 - God of War's Astral Arts

Chapter 1013 - God of War's Astral Arts

"General! The enemy is right outside our city walls! They're demanding that we surrender the city!" A soldier reported to the general.

However, before he could even respond, a loud and arrogant voice resounded from outside the city, "Surrender and there won't be unnecessary bloodshed!"

"We have over a hundred thousand soldiers, all above Spirit Lord! You will not win this battle with your puny army!"

"I would also prefer for this city to be intact after we conquer it! You have half an hour to come to a decision!"

"I repeat! Surrender and we will spare your lives! The only one who has to die is the City Lord, Tian Xian!"

The place fell silent afterward. After a few moments of absolute silence, once everyone realized their situation, the entire City of Xian began panicking.

"City Lord! Save us!"

"Where is the God of War when we need him?!"

"Do you think a single person can get rid of our predicament?! Even if he's the God of War, there's no way that he would be able to defeat an army of 100,000 by himself!"

"What about his army?!"

"The army had suffered a huge loss recently after an intense battle that lasted for 30 days and nights straight! We barely have anyone left!"

"Damn it! Are we truly doomed?!"

"I have faith in the City Lord! He has never disappointed us before!"

"Open your damn eyes! This is an unwinnable battle!"

Time passed in an instant while the residents of the city panicked for 30 minutes straight.

The general outside the city spoke again, "Time is up! Thirty minutes have passed! We showed mercy, yet you ignored our generosity! Since this is how you want to play, we will play!"

"All forces— charge! Kill everyone who opposes!"

The 100,000 strong army began rushing towards the City of Xian.

However, an immense pressure suddenly enveloped the whole place, forcing the soldiers to halt their steps.

The soldiers outside the city and the residents in the city all lifted their heads to look towards the pagoda in the middle of the city, where a majestic figure with an overwhelming aura could be seen hovering in the sky, his presence demanding for everyone's submission.

"T-The City Lord! It's the City Lord! He's finally here to save us!"

"You idiot! Even if he's here, what can he do against such a powerful army?! We're still doomed!"

Meanwhile—

"Ahahaha! You have finally decided to crawl out of your rat hole, God of War!" The Red Lion Army's general laughed out loud, his laughter causing ripples in the air.

Yuan glanced at the Red Lion Army that surrounded the city.

"Surrender yourself, God of War! If you do, we won't lay a finger on your city or the residents!"

The people in the city swallowed nervously, and they all anxiously waited for Yuan's response.

Yuan took a deep breath and spoke, "I have a slightly different proposal. Get out of my face before I kill all of you."

The residents in the city began crying after hearing Yuan's words.

"We're all dead! It's over for this city!"

"The City Lord is too arrogant! All those victories must have got into his head and made him disconnected from reality!"

"If you want to commit suicide, go do it by yourself! Don't drag the rest of us into your madness!"

The residents of the city that had been loyal to him for many years have finally lost their hope and respect. After all, a righteous and reasonable City Lord would sacrifice himself for his city without hesitation.

However, Yuan ignored the complaints coming from beneath him, as he was sure that it was the Stairway to Heaven trying to stir his emotions.

He closed his eyes and took a deep breath as he recited the technique he'd just learned inside his head.

When he opened his eyes, they glowed golden, and a subtle but visible golden aura started appearing from his body.

He summoned the Empyrean Overlord and spoke in a cold voice, "All of you will be my training puppets for today."

[God of War's Astral Arts!]

The people there watched as Yuan's golden aura started expanding at a rapid rate until it was large enough to cover the entire City of Xian.

Once it stopped growing, the aura began transforming until it resembled half a human wearing a golden armor. Furthermore, it had two massive arms that were wielding a large greatsword that resembled the Empyrean Overlord.

"What in heavens' name is that technique?!" The intruders cried out loud when they saw the giant behind Yuan, feeling as though they were ants before an elephant.

[Rank: Mythic]

[Mastery Level: 1]

[Description: Create a powerful astral avatar that can seize stars and destroy worlds with your Soul Strength. The stronger your Soul Strength, the more powerful the astral avatar]

'I need to finish this fast. I can feel my strength being exhausted at a ridiculous rate!' Yuan cried inwardly after realizing how much energy this technique required.

He took a deep breath before swinging the Empyrean Overlord in his grasp, and the astral avatar followed his movements, sweeping the army outside the city with its massive sword.

BOOM! FREEWEBNOVEL.COM

The entire ground viciously shook, and an unimaginable crater appeared in the ground where one of the armies stood.

As for the army, they were all completely flattened with a single strike— all 50,000 of them.

When the other army saw the destruction caused by the astral avatar, their faces paled.

"S-Scatter! SCATTER!" The general leading that army roared.

But alas, the astral avatar was already in a swinging motion.

The ground shook for a second time when the first earthquake hadn't even ended yet.

After killing all 100,000 soldiers from the Red Lion Army with two mere strikes, Yuan deactivated the technique and immediately returned to the pagoda to rest, not even bothering to look at the destruction he'd caused.

The entire city was dead silent afterward, and it would remain silent for many minutes with not a single person there believing what they had just witnessed.

Chapter 1014 - Proceeding to the Second Trial

"What in heaven's name was that technique just now?! I have never seen anything remotely that powerful before!" Feng Yuxiang cried out loud after seeing Yuan decimate an entire army of 100,000 Spirit Lords and Spirit Kings with two strikes.

"I have never seen Brother Yuan use that technique before. He must have just learned it." Xiao Hua said.

"You can actually learn techniques while doing trials in the Stairway to Heaven? How come I have never heard of such a thing? And judging by the prowess of that technique, I dare say that it's at least an Ancient-rank technique if not Mythic-rank!" Feng Yuxiang was in disbelief.

If people realize that they could learn such powerful techniques inside the Stairway to Heaven for free, there would definitely be a massive uproar throughout the Nine Heavens.

Meanwhile, back at the pagoda, Yuan gave up on trying to recover his soul strength after realizing that he didn't have any cultivation techniques that recovered his soul strength.

Unlike spiritual energy, soul strength could not be restored through ordinary cultivation techniques. In order to recover soul strength faster than naturally allowed, one must know a soul cultivation technique, but these techniques are incredibly rare even in the upper heavens.

'Looks like I won't be able to use the God of War's Astral Arts until my soul strength naturally recovers. Fortunately, I can still use my other techniques that only require spiritual energy.' He sighed inwardly.

Despite the God of War's Astral Arts' immense power and seemingly unlimited potential, it was not something he could use too often at this moment. Until he acquires a soul cultivation technique, he will have to limit its usage for life-or-death situations.

After giving up trying to restore his soul strength, Yuan looked at the amount of time he had left.

'Less than fifteen minutes left...'

Sometime later, he returned to the house with the woman who looked exactly like Meixiu.

"Is everything okay?" She asked him as she gently rubbed her round stomach.

"Yes, I have dealt with the intruders. The city is safe again." He nodded.

"That's good to hear. Now our child can grow up in the city that you have painstakingly protected and developed," she said with a beautiful smile on her face.

"Have you thought of a name for the child yet?" Yuan suddenly asked out of curiosity.

"No, not yet. I was hoping we could name her together."

"It's a girl, huh..." He smiled.

<You have defended the city for 24 hours and successfully cleared the first trial>

<You have cleared the trial with less than 10 percent casualties>

"Here you go." The woman suddenly extended her hands, offering him a glowing orb of light.

"Thank you." Yuan accepted the orb of light and absorbed it.

However, his cultivation base did not increase like the previous reward.

Instead, he could feel his soul strength becoming stronger.

[+100,000 Soul Strength]

'Wow, this reward is actually much better than I initially thought. It's definitely countless times better than just increasing my cultivation base.' Yuan thought to himself after realizing what the bonus reward was.

The City of Xian disappeared before Yuan's eyes, and he returned to the Stairway to Heaven shortly after.

"Congratulations on passing the trial, Master. Do you wish to rest? You are allowed an hour to rest." Tian'er said to him.

He nodded, "Yes, I will rest this time."

Even though his spiritual energy was full, he wanted to allow his soul strength to recover even if it's just slightly. He had a feeling that the God of War's Astral Arts was going to be crucial for his upcoming trials.

'Oh? My soul strength is recovering faster than normal out here.' Yuan quickly realized this as he sat down to monitor his recovery.

An hour later, Yuan stood up and proceeded onto the next trial.

"For the second trial, you must protect the Huang Family while they exchange their valuables in the Giant's Continent."

"Oh? Is it the same Huang Family as the previous trial? So we're going to continue where we left off, huh?" Yuan was a little excited to meet with the Huang Family again, especially Huang Xiao Li, who taught him array symbols.

The scenery began changing, and before he realized, he was standing on the ship deck while surrounded by water.

[You have started your second trial in the Stairway to Heaven]

[Protect the Huang Family as they exchange their treasures on the Giant's Continent]

[Finish the trial without any casualties in the Huang Family to receive a reward]

"Why are you standing there in a daze, Yuan?"

A familiar voice suddenly resounded, causing Yuan to turn around.

Standing behind him was a beautiful young lady with a bright smile on her face. Of course, she was Huang Xiao Li, who also resembled Chu Liuxiang.

"It's been a while, Xiao Li." He said with a gentle smile on his face.

"What are you talking about? Are you still daydreaming? You should snap out of it since we're about to land. Look over there— that's the Giant's Continent!" She pointed at the massive island in the distance.

However, Yuan wasn't paying attention to the island. Instead, he was focused on Huang Xiao Li.

'Her cultivation hasn't changed. She's still a Spirit Grandmaster. The same goes for everyone on this boat. It's almost as though I'd never left in the first place for them.' He thought the Stairway to Heaven would scale these people to his level since this was a new and more difficult trial, but that didn't seem to be the case.

Sometime later, the ship stopped moving once it reached land, and everyone onboard started to disembark.

"Yuan, are you ready? We have only 14 days to exchange our treasures and come back, or we will be stuck here for a very long time!" Huang Xiao Li said to him.

'14 days... I really hope this isn't how long the trial will take...' He sighed inwardly as he disembarked the ship with the Huang Family and the other bodyguards.

Chapter 1015 - Mammoth Bloodline

Chapter 1015 - Mammoth Bloodline

After disembarking from the ship, Yuan followed Huang Xiao Li and her family onto the land.

'Giant's Continent... It's not in Tian Chengyu's memories. Did this place exist before his birth or after his death?' He wondered as he followed them.

Sometime later, he asked out of curiosity, "Where are we going now?"

"We're going to the Southern Stronghold. It's where most travelers like us go to exchange treasures with giants, so it's quite popular." Huang Xiao Li said.

"I don't know much about giants. Can you tell me about them?"

"Sure!" She nodded with enthusiasm, and she continued, "Giants are humans with the Mammoth Bloodline. Their ancestors were ordinary humans that have trained a unique technique called the Great Mammoth Body Refinement that gave them immense strength and a near indestructible body, but it also increased their body size temporarily."

"Their ancestors not only reached the peak with this technique, they had even altered it so that the technique would continuously affect their bodies and never deactivate, making them giants permanently. However, because such a feat required them to alter their genes and blood, their descendants would also be born with such blood and genes in their body, making them giants at birth."

Yuan was speechless after hearing this information. The speed was too fast, and with a swoosh, Wang Xuan was pulled into the whirlpool, like a little crucian carp that had been hooked and was violently pulled out of the water.

Giants used to be humans before they altered their blood and genes with a technique? He didn't know techniques were even capable of such a feat, which was akin to creating their own bloodline and race!

Huang Xiao Li continued to speak, "The giants created their own family, and after cultivating that family for thousands of years, they moved to an uninhabited land that would soon to be known as the Giant's Continent."

"Giants nowadays are mostly isolated within the Giant's Continent, so you won't see them outside. In fact, most people live their entire life without meeting one. They're practically phoenixes and dragons."

"However, since they rarely leave the continent, they mostly rely on travelers like us to provide them with resources and treasures from the outside. It benefits us as well because there are resources and treasures that can only be found within the Giant's Continent."

"That's pretty neat, I guess." Yuan mumbled.

"Indeed. If you have any treasures you don't need, you can try to exchange or sell them to the giants."

A bittersweet smile appeared on his face after hearing her words. Even if he had plenty of treasures that he could and wanted to trade, he wouldn't actually acquire anything because he was inside the Stairway to Heaven and nothing there was real. If you dare to fish against him like this, no matter if it's a strange thing on a mobile phone or that ferocious giant fish, you'll have to pay the price.

'Although I can learn techniques in the Stairway to Heaven, that is only possible because they only need to be memorized. However, treasures don't work that way. It's impossible for me to acquire real treasures during trials.

How unfortunate.' He sighed inwardly, thinking how nice it would be if he could actually acquire something from the trial.

Suddenly, the head of the bodyguards, Dong Zhou, shouted, "We have company!"

Yuan panicked a little when he heard Dong Zhou's voice because he didn't sense anything with his divine sense that he's kept active this whole time.

However, sure enough, something appeared before them a few seconds later, and it was a massive bird that was so big that it could easily lift an entire building with one of its claws.

Seeing this massive bird that came out of thin air, Yuan prepared to attack it, but then he realized its cultivation base was in the Spirit Emperor realm.

'Spirit Emperor magical beast! This is my first time fighting an opponent of this level!' He cried inwardly.

"Yuan! It's coming!" Huang Xiao Li shouted. A fish is mocking him!

Yuan immediately snapped out of his daze and confronted this massive bird in the sky right as it tried to dive down.

"Ha!"

He enveloped the Empyrean Overlord with Sword Qi before sending it in the magical beast's way.

"Kaaaw!" The bird released a painful scream when it lost one of its claws to Yuan, who was surprised because he'd expected to kill the bird with that strike.

PAN DA N OVEL However, before he could get another strike on the bird, it turned around and flew away, leaving him speechless.

"It ran away...?" He muttered in a dumbfounded voice.

"Are you okay, Yuan?!" Huang Xiao Li approached him afterward. Then, it was noisy and motionless, instead of reviving here, it chose to disguise it.

"Yes, I am fine. But that magical beast was stronger than I anticipated."

After all, under normal circumstances, his attack just now would've killed even a Spirit Emperor with ease.

"I forgot to mention this, but giants are not the only entity on this continent with the Mammoth Bloodline. The magical beasts on this continent also have it," she said to him.

"What? How is that even possible? I thought the giants' ancestors only managed to achieve such a feat through a technique! There's no way ordinary magical beasts could possibly comprehend techniques, much less master them!"

"You're right, but the magical beasts did not acquire the Mammoth Bloodline through techniques. They acquired it through consuming the giants. I mentioned that the technique is never-ending, right? This is still true even when the giants die, so when a magical beast consumes their flesh and blood, they also acquire the power of giants."

"Heavens..." Yuan was speechless by this information.

Since the magical beasts in the Giant's Continent also had the Mammoth Bloodline coursing through their veins, they were much stronger than ordinary magical beasts from the outside. If one piece of sword energy can't solve the problem, then take a few more pieces. Wang Xuan is going to kill it.

"It seems we have underestimated the strength of this place. We're not strong enough to do our job as bodyguards, so we'll have to rely on you, Yuan." Dong Zhou approached him and said.

"Sure..." He sighed, silently wondering to himself why the Stairway to Heaven didn't make the bodyguards at least Spirit Kings so that they wouldn't be completely useless. After all, in their current state, they were nothing but a burden to him.

"Since you're all too weak to traverse this land, why don't you just return to the ship and wait for us to return?" Yuan said to him a moment later.

"We cannot do that! Even if we're not strong enough to fight the entities on this land, we must still do our jobs as bodyguards and accompany the Huang Family even if we die in the process!" Dong Zhou exclaimed in a prideful voice.

Yuan felt like facepalming.

'If you cannot do your duties as a bodyguard, can you still be considered as one?!' He cried inwardly.

Yuan eventually stopped thinking about it since it was most likely done by the Stairway to Heaven to make things more difficult for him.

"Just so you know, I am here to protect the Huang Family, so if you get in any trouble..."

"Don't worry, we won't drag you down." Dong Zhou said with a confident smile.

"Yeah... I somehow doubt that..." He shook his head.

After walking for about half an hour without encountering any magical beasts, Huang Xiao Li pointed at the city walls in the distance and said in an excited voice, "We're almost there! I can see the Southern Stronghold!"

They quickened their moving speed after seeing the city.

However, as they got closer, Dong Zhou suddenly stopped and shouted, "We're surrounded!"

Yuan looked around, and sure enough, a pack of massive birds quickly surrounded them, and amongst these magical beasts was one with an injured claw—the same one he'd fought.

"So you ran away to call your friends, huh?" Yuan couldn't help but chuckle at its efforts.

After a quick glance, he counted 9 of these birds, and they all emitted the aura of a Spirit Emperor.

'I won't be able to fight all of them at once and protect the Huang Family at the same time with my ordinary techniques. I will have to use the God of War's Astral Arts...' He sighed inwardly, feeling a little embarrassed to use his trump card so early on in the trial.

Although he could kill these magical beasts even without the God of War's Astral Arts, he wouldn't be able to protect the Huang Family, and his priority was to keep all of them alive for the bonus reward.

After taking a deep breath, Yuan used the God of War's Astral Arts.

The Huang Family and the bodyguards were shocked speechless after witnessing the massive golden figure.

As for the birds, they started making weird noises, almost as though they were panicking.

"Die!"

Not wanting to waste his soul strength too much, Yuan immediately attacked the birds with a 360 sword swing, killing all of them at once.

However, the attack was so powerful that it created a powerful gust of wind that swept in all directions.

In fact, the Southern Stronghold thought they were under attack when they saw the golden figure that looked massive even though they were quite far away from Yuan's location.

Yuan quickly deactivated the technique after killing the magical beasts.

"A-Are you okay?" Huang Xiao Li asked him in a worried voice after seeing his poor condition.

"Yes, I am fine. That technique uses up a lot of soul strength, so I am a little tired— mentally. Give me a few minutes to recover."

"Alright." They nodded.

A few minutes later, once Yuan was feeling better, they continued their journey to the Southern Stronghold, unaware of the chaos that was occurring within the city due to Yuan's God of War's Astral Arts.

After another hour of traveling, they arrived at the entrance of the city.

'So that's a giant, huh?' Yuan was amazed when he saw the two giants guarding the entrance to the city, both of them being around 10 meters tall with a broad frame and incredible muscles that looked like they could crush an entire mountain.

'Besides their massive size, they look just like humans. I guess it's true that their ancestors were originally normal humans.' Yuan thought to himself as they approached these giants.

Chapter 1016 - Serious Accusations

Chapter 1016 - Serious Accusations

As they got closer to the giants, Yuan could feel their gaze on him, and sure enough, when he looked at them, their eyes were glaring directly at him for some reason.

Yuan wanted to ignore them, but when they got close enough to the entrance of the city, the giants suddenly stepped in front of the entrance, blocking their path.

The Huang Family were quite baffled by their actions. Unlike cities outside the Giant's Continent, the Southern Stronghold did not require for them to pay any entrance fees, nor did they care about your background, so there was literally no reason why they should be blocking the entrance.

"Is there something wrong, Seniors?" Huang Chen, Huang Xiao Li's father, asked the guard in a polite tone.

The guards pointed at Yuan and asked, "Who are you? What is your purpose?"

Yuan raised an eyebrow and said in a calm voice, "I am Yuan, and I am their bodyguard."

The guards turned to look at Huang Chen for confirmation.

"That's right. He's a bodyguard that I hired to protect my family. It was because of him that we— and everyone else on the ship were able to survive a Flying Leviathan and arrive at the Giant's Continent safely." Huang Chen nodded.

"You defeated a Flying Leviathan?" The guards appeared to be surprised after learning about his feats.

The two of them exchanged looks with each other for a moment before stepping out of the way.

"Thank you, Seniors." Huang Chen bowed to them before they started moving again, entering the Southern Stronghold shortly after.

"What was that about?" Yuan asked them.

"I don't know, but giants respect and prioritize one's strength above all else." Huang Chen shook his head.

Once they entered the city, Yuan was dumbfounded by the scenery inside.

All of the buildings in this place were massive and about 10 times larger than the buildings that he was used to seeing, not to mention the amount of giants walking around the city, making him feel really tiny in this place, just like an ant.

Furthermore, he also noticed that the giants in this place really varied in terms of their size. Some of them were only as tall as 4 meters while there were giants as tall as 15 meters.

"You're probably wondering about their sizes, right?" Huang Xiao Li suddenly said to him.

"You're right. I thought all giants were as big as the guards outside, but that doesn't seem to be the case." He nodded.

"It depends on the strength of their Mammoth Bloodline. The purer and stronger their bloodline, the bigger they will turn out to be. In the Giant's Continent, a giant's size is akin to a cultivator's innate talent, so those with a smaller body are considered trash while those with a large body are considered geniuses," she explained.

"If you're surprised now, just wait until you see giants that are as big as a mountain."

Yuan eyes widened.

"As big as a mountain? No wonder why they refuse to leave the Giant's Continent. They won't be able to do anything outside with such huge bodies."

Sometime later, they went to a hotel to settle down. Although most of the hotels there were built specifically for giants, there were also hotels specifically built for humans like them.

Once inside the hotel, Huang Chen gathered everyone there and said, "We will rest today, but starting tomorrow, I will be looking to exchange our treasures with the giants. I will leave two of you here to guard my family while the rest will follow me."

Yuan frowned upon hearing his words.

'I won't be able to protect all of them if we split into two groups. Perhaps I should convince them to go together, but they have a child...' He glanced at the seven-year-old boy beside his mother.

'Maybe it would actually be safer to leave him and the mother here...' He sighed inwardly.

With so many giants walking outside, things could get ugly really fast if they take such a small child outside. After all, he was so tiny compared to some of the giants that they could easily step on him by accident and not even realize it.

Of course, this also applied to the mother, who had the lowest cultivation base besides the child who was still too young to cultivate.

However, there was another issue—the bodyguards.

He wasn't confident in their abilities at all. In fact, they will probably be useless since this trial was countless times more difficult than the last trial, yet their strength remained the same as the last trial. In other words, they were nothing more than burdens.

'Furthermore, these guys...' Yuan narrowed his eyes at the bodyguards, his thoughts unknown.

After Huang Chen finished everything he had to say, Yuan approached Huang Xiao Li with a smile and said to her in a low voice, "Excuse me, Xiao Li. Do you mind if I borrow some of your time? I would like to speak to you in private."

"Sure..." She nodded in a dazed manner, feeling a little nervous about the aura around him.

"Follow me."

Yuan nodded and followed her into another room. Once she locked the door, she asked him, "So what do you want to talk about? Did something happen? You seem a little more serious than usual..."

"Yes... It's about—" Yuan proceeded to tell her what's been on his mind.

Huang Xiao Li's eyes widened more and more with shock as she listened to his words.

"A-Are you sure about that?! Those are some serious accusations!" She exclaimed in a low voice.

He nodded with a serious frown, "I didn't notice it before because I was still inexperienced. However, I am certain about my claims. I don't mind dealing with it right now, but I can tell that you're doubtful, so I am going to prove it to you first."

"How are you going to do that?"

Yuan proceeded to tell her about his plans. All NOVEL full.com

"Seriously...? You want me to..."

"Do you trust me?" Yuan suddenly asked her with a serious expression.

"I risked my life to defend the ship and your Huang Family. I wouldn't do anything to hurt you or your family—I promise."

"O-Of course I trust you!" Huang Xiao Li's face quickly flushed with redness when she recalled what she tried to do with him right before the Flying Leviathan's attack.

A moment later, she took a deep breath and nodded with a serious expression, "Alright, let's do it."

"Thank you. You won't regret it, I promise." Yuan smiled.

The two of them left the room after talking for several more minutes.

"Is everything okay, Yuan?" Huang Chen approached him shortly after he left the room with Huang Xiao Li.

"Father, I need to speak with you. Mother, you too." Huang Xiao Li suddenly said to them.

Huang Chen looked at them with raised eyebrows, but he didn't ask any questions and followed Huang Xiao Li to another room.

Once the Huang Family was gone, the other guards approached Yuan and asked him, "What happened?"

"Is everything okay? The young lady looked very annoyed."

"I hope you didn't try to confess your love for her just now. You're just a bodyguard. Know your place." The female bodyguard said to him with a mocking gaze.

Yuan didn't take her insults to heart and even chuckled at it, "Don't worry, it's nothing like that. However, it's true that something did happen."

The guards swallowed nervously as they waited for him to speak.

"I would tell you, but I think it would be for the best if the Huang Family told you. It's their business, after all." He shrugged, not willingly to tell them anything.

"Come on! Don't be like that!" Qin Kai, who was the bulky bodyguard that guarded the Huang Family's room with him while they were still sailing, said.

"I don't want to lose my job, so I will have to refrain from it."

"Whatever. Keep your stupid little secret." The other bodyguards shook their heads and stopped bothering him.

Sometime later, the Huang Family finished their little meeting and came out of the room, but Huang Chen and his wife looked really upset for some reason.

This made the guards really nervous, and they all wondered inwardly about the issue.

Huang Chen gathered the bodyguards again and said, "There will be some changes in our plans. I will start exchanging my treasures today, so I want two people to follow me."

He looked at Yuan and his head bodyguard Dong Zhou.

"Yuan and Dong Zhou, you'll be coming with me. Xiao Li, you'll also come with me. The rest of you will stay behind to protect my wife and son. Do not let anyone besides us enter this place no matter what."

"Yes!" They all said.

Before they left, Huang Chen said to his wife in a low voice, "Since we have too many treasures, I will leave half of it with you. If anything happens to us, I want you to take the treasures and go home."

"Don't say something so ominous. As long as you have Yuan with you, he'll keep you safe." She said with a smile.

Yuan left the hotel with his group shortly after.

Once they were outside, Dong Zhou couldn't help but ask, "Sorry if I am being noisy, but what was that about?"

"I will tell you about it in a bit." Huang Chen said.

Dong Zhou has never seen Huang Chen so serious before, making him worried as well.

Shortly after Yuan's group left to exchange treasures, the bodyguards that had remained at the hotel watched from the windows as Yuan and the others disappeared from the scene.

"Those nuisances have finally left." The female bodyguard sneered.

"Should we do it now? This is the best time. That little bastard with too much power for someone at his age and level is gone, as well as the array master and even Huang Chen and his daughter. Nobody here can stop us now," said one of the male bodyguards.

"I don't know... This seems a little too easy... Not to mention whatever just happened. Something about all of this doesn't sit right with me," said a different bodyguard.

"Who cares! We can kill the woman and the kid and rob them of all of their treasures long before they will be able to do anything about it!" The female bodyguard showed a grim smile on her face.

"I say we should do it as well. I doubt there will be another chance like this."

"What about that other bodyguard? He might cause us some trouble."

"I can handle him," said the female bodyguard with a suggestive expression on her face.

In the end, these bodyguards decided to finally execute their plan by robbing the Huang Family.

These three bodyguards actually knew each other before they got hired by the Huang Family, as they all belonged to a renowned gang that was infamous for their vicious deeds and brutal nature.

The Gold and Money Bandits— they were a group of lawless cultivators that would dare to rob and kill even mortals, something only evil cultivators would do.

In fact, there were even more of these bandits at the bodyguard recruitment, but most of them had been disqualified and only these three had managed to pass.

They had planned on robbing the Huang Family when they were still at sea, but Yuan did not give them any chance, and when they saw how powerful he actually was, they decided to delay their plans until they could find an opportunity to rob the Huang Family.

Now that they have finally encountered that opportunity, they were enticed to finally execute their plans and rob the Huang Family.

Meanwhile, a few minutes after they left the hotel, Huang Chen revealed the whole situation to Dong Zhou, who had been kept in the dark until now.

"What?! Those bodyguards harbor ill intentions?! Are you sure this is accurate information?!" Dong Zhou doubted this information, mostly because he didn't want to believe that he had accidentally recruited bandits to be their bodyguards, as he could be held responsible for this blunder.

"It's true. I wasn't certain at first, but after watching them for some time, I can say with certainty that they are bandits. Their bodies reeked of blood and their eyes are filled with greed. Do you remember when we were attacked in the ship? I believe they were working together since they all gave off the same aura."

P AND A N OVEL "Yuan wouldn't lie to us! He risked his life fighting the Flying Leviathan, too!" Huang Xiao Li backed him up.

Dong Zhou frowned and said, "If what you say is true, then isn't it incredibly dangerous and reckless to leave the Madam and the Young Master alone with them?! We're basically giving them to those bastards on a silver platter!"

"If we didn't leave, they would not act. I also wanted to prove to all of you that they are not what they seem. Don't worry, I won't let them touch even a hair on the Huang Family."

"What the hell can you do when you're here with us?! This is madness!" Dong Zhou exclaimed.

"I trust him." Huang Chen suddenly said.

"A-Are you serious, Master Huang? What if he's only doing this to mislead us? What if he's actually working with those bandits?!"

Yuan smiled after hearing his words and said in a calm voice, "Do you really think I need to make such an elaborate plan just to rob the Huang Family? Have you not seen what I am capable of? If I want to rob you guys, I wouldn't need to pretend to be a bodyguard and wait until you lower your guard, much less come all the way out here and risk my life fighting the Flying Leviathan. If I truly wanted to rob you guys, I would've done so before we boarded the ship, and none of you would've be able to stop me."

Dong Zhou swallowed nervously when he called how Yuan had killed multiple Spirit Emperors with a single strike.

"Sorry... I was just talking out of my ass just now..." Dong Zhou sighed out loud.

Yuan suddenly turned around and looked at the direction of the hotel.

"Let's return. They're finally moving," he said to them.

Back at the hotel, the female bandit approached Qin Kai and started flirting with him.

"I have been wanting to speak with you for a while now, but I didn't get any chance. You know, I love men with muscles, and when I first saw you, I knew right away that I wanted you. You're the reason I even decided to become a bodyguard for the Huang Family."

Qin Kai swallowed nervously after hearing her words.

"Seriously?"

The female bandit was actually quite attractive, and Qin Kai had little to no experience when it comes to women, making him an easy target.

"Let's go elsewhere to talk, shall we?" She winked at him.

"S-Sure..." Qin Kai followed her to another room.panda novel

Once the other two bandits saw this, they smiled and turned their focus to the room with the mother and wife.

"Let's go."

The two of them quietly approached the room.

Once they were close enough, one of them tried to open the door in a sneaky manner.

When the bandit couldn't feel any resistance from the door, the smile on his face widened.

"Ready?"

"Of course."

The bandit immediately opened the door, and the two of them entered the room before closing it again.

"W-What are you two doing in here?! I don't remember calling either of you!" The mother said to them with a frown on her face.

"Don't worry, we'll leave you alone once we take all of your treasures and kill you," said one of the bandits.

"You what?!"

"The Gold and Money Bandits, have you heard of us?"

"The mother's eyes widened with shock after hearing that name.

"I see... So you became our bodyguards just to steal from us, huh. We should've been more diligent when recruiting bodyguards, but we were in a rush."

"Then you can only blame yourself."

"Ah, I would love to enjoy my time with you before killing you, but we're short on time, so I am just going to kill you."

They retrieved their weapons.

However, the mother managed to calm down, and she even smiled, "What a pity."

"A pity indeed."

One of the bandits suddenly rushed forward while swinging his dagger, but before he could reach the mother, he felt a burst of pain in his chest, forcing him to look down.

"What the fuck...?" He muttered in a dumbfounded voice when he saw that a hole had mysteriously appeared in his chest.

Thud.

The bandit fell to the floor and died before he could even realize what had happened to him.

The other bandit stood there with a dazed look on his face as his eyes stared at his companion's lifeless body on the floor. Despite seeing everything that had just happened, he still couldn't comprehend the situation.

The door behind him suddenly opened, and a figure calmly walked into the room.

"Are you okay? Madam Huang?" Yuan asked her with a calm smile on his face.

"Y-You are... How in heaven's name..." The bandit was shocked when he saw Yuan standing right beside him.

"Did you really think that I wouldn't notice the way you idiots looked at the Huang Family? When you look at them, you only see money and profit, and it reminds me of a certain miserable couple." Yuan sneered in a cold voice.

"Senior Huang. Xiao Li. What do you think? Is this enough proof?" He asked them, who were standing right behind the bandit with deep frowns on their faces.

"Yes, this is more than enough proof. Thank you very much, Yuan. You have saved our family yet again." Huang Chen said.

It was at this moment the female bandit and Qin Kai came out of their room after hearing the commotion.

"W-What is happening?!" Qin Kai exclaimed with a shocked look on his face when he saw the incomprehensible situation.

As for the female bandit, she was simply speechless.

Chapter 1018 - I Will Accept Your Challenge!

Chapter 1018 - I Will Accept Your Challenge!

Huang Chen frowned when he saw the female bandit and Qin Kai.

"Where the hell have you two been?! My family was being attacked and you're screwing each other in another room?! Why did I even hire you!"

"W-What?! Attacked!? By whom?!" Qin Kai was truly puzzled, as he was not part of the Gold and Money Bandits. Furthermore, everything had happened so fast that he was still comprehending the situation.

"Why don't you take a look for yourself?" Huang Xiao Li pointed into the room with Yuan and the bandits.

Qin Kai swallowed nervously and approached the room.

His eyes widened with shock when he saw the scene inside. One of the bodyguards was dead with a hole in his chest and the other was frozen in place with a terrified expression on his face.

"What is the meaning of this?" Qin Kai asked.

"These two are bandits from the Gold and Money Bandits. They became a bodyguard just to rob the Huang Family." Yuan calmly explained the situation to him.

"The Gold and Money Bandits?!" Qin Kai immediately recognized their name. As someone who often works as a bodyguard, he has encountered these bandits on multiple occasions, and they were all vicious people with no morals.

Murder, robbery, corruption, rape— nothing was off the table for these bandits even if mortals were involved, hence why they were so hated and so feared.

The female bandit also took a look inside the room. Her heart throbbed so fast and hard from fear that it began hurting.

'Fortunately, they didn't catch me in the act, so they don't know that I am with them just yet. But if they ask that bastard, he will surely give me away!' She calmed down slightly after realizing this, and she began plotting to kill her companion before he could speak.

However, with Yuan in the room, she didn't dare to move just yet.

"So tell me, what were the two of you doing while my family was attacked? Are you also part of the Gold and Money Bandits?" Huang Chen narrowed his eyes at Qin Kai and the female bandit.

"What?! Hell no! There's no way I am with those bastards!"

"T-That's right! We were in the other room because I wanted to make love to him! I didn't know they were bandits! I swear!" The female bandit said.

The other bandit cursed inwardly after hearing her companions' words.

'That fucking bitch! She's the whole reason we're in this mess! If she didn't make the suggestion to rob the Huang Family, we wouldn't be here! And now she wants to act innocent while the two of us die?!'

After taking a deep breath, the male bandit exclaimed, "That bitch is lying! She's with us! She was the one who suggested we rob you guys, too!"

The female bandit gritted her teeth in anger, but she wasn't willing to give up just yet.

"That's preposterous! He's only saying that because he's jealous I chose Qin Kai over him! He's been eyeing me since the beginning, too!"

"She's lying! Her real name is Zou Nuying, and she has a high position within the Gold and Money Bandits! The reason she went to make love with Qin Kai was so that she could distract him while we robbed the Huang Family!"

"Is that so? What do you have to say to these accusations, Zou Nuying?" Huang Chen glared at her with killing intent within his gaze.

Zou Nuying swallowed nervously. She knew that she was done for and that there was no way for her to talk herself out of this situation.

Therefore, she decided to escape.

"Watch out! He's going to attack!" Zou Nuying suddenly shouted while pointing at her companion.

Everyone there subconsciously turned to look.

'This is my chance!'

Zou Nuying suddenly retrieved two smoke bombs and smashed them on the floor, instantly filling the room with smoke that also contained some kind of material that weakened the spiritual energy in the area and even blocked Yuan's divine sense.

She proceeded to rush towards the window, but since the entire place was filled with smoke, she could only rely on her memories.

Once she could feel the window, she smashed right through it with her body and escaped the hotel.

Yuan wanted to chase after her, but he didn't want to leave the Huang Family behind, and he had to make sure the other bandit didn't try to do anything funny.

"Is everyone okay?!" Huang Xiao Li's voice resounded shortly after.

"Yes, I am okay."

"Me too."

Everyone there confirmed their safety.

Once the smoke finally cleared, Yuan asked, "What should we do with him? I can kill him here if you want."

"I want all of his information before we kill him. Dong Zhou, make him talk!"

"Yes!" Dong Zhou proceeded to drag the bandit to another room, where he would torture the bandit for all of his information.

Meanwhile, Huang Chen went to speak with the hotel managers to let them know of the situation.

The servants in the hotel cleaned up the mess and the corpse without much trouble.

Once everything was done, Huang Chen thanked Yuan for his efforts, "Thank you, Yuan. If it hadn't been for your sharp eyes, our Huang Family would've ended in a tragedy. I will definitely reward you handsomely at the end of our trip."

Yuan shook his head and said with a smile, "I am only doing my job as a bodyguard."

"What should we do about the one who ran away?" Dong Zhou asked.

"I don't want to waste time and resources looking for her in this vast place. She could be anywhere by now. However, if we run into her again, immediately kill her." Huang Chen said.

"Yes!"

"What should we do now? We're down to three bodyguards..." Madam Huang asked sometime later.

"Dong Zhou and Qin Kai can stay here and protect you here. Since we have taken care of the bandit situation, I doubt anyone else would try to attack you guys. The one who escaped won't dare to return, either. I can protect Senior Huang by myself when he goes outside." Yuan said.

"I will also pay the hotel extra for their security service." Huang Chen said.

"What about me? I also want to go with you guys!" Huang Xiao Li suddenly asked.

"Only if you promise to not cause any trouble."

"What?! Since when have I caused any troubles?!"

"Always." Huang Chen smiled.

Sometime later, Huang Xiao Li approached Yuan and asked him, "Want to look around the city with me? I have already asked my father for permission."

He turned to look at Huang Chen, who nodded his head with a bittersweet smile on his face.

"Alright, let's look around."

"Please take care of my daughter, Yuan." Huang Chen said to him before they left the hotel and started wandering the city.

"What do you think about the Giant's Continent so far?" Huang Xiao Li asked him as they looked around.

"It's very unique, that's for sure." He said.

"Not just the environment, but even the people are vastly different from each other. Honestly, it feels like I am in a dream."

Huang Xiao Li chuckled and spoke, "That's what I felt during my first visit to this place. However, while it's nice to visit this place, I wouldn't want to live here for too long. It's simply too dangerous for human cultivators, and only powerful cultivators would dare to wander outside the cities."

Sometime later, the two of them stopped when they noticed a group of giants surrounding what appeared to be a massive platform.

"What are they doing?" Yuan asked when he saw this.

"Ah, there must be a match going on right now," she said.

"A match? In the middle of the city?"

"Yes. One thing you should know about giants is that they love to fight, so there are platforms placed all around the city."

Yuan suddenly recalled the Ancestral Dragon Temple in the Ancient Dragon City.

The two of them approached the crowd to get a closer look at the match.

Once they were close enough, they could see two giants fighting each other with their bare fists. No weapon or armor could be seen.

The two giants threw fists at each other like their lives depended on it, and every time their fist struck its target, a weak ripple would sweep the place.

'Wow... What tremendous strength...' Yuan thought to himself as he watched the giants plummet each other until one of them could no longer stand.

Once the match ended, the winner shouted, "Who also wants to experience my strength?! I welcome all challengers! The winner will receive a Divine-rank body refining technique!"

Yuan raised an eyebrow after hearing the giant's words.

'A Divine-rank body refining technique? That sounds like something that could benefit me...' He thought.

"Don't tell me you're thinking about fighting him..." Huang Xiao Li suddenly said, almost as though she could see his thoughts.

"I wouldn't suggest it. You're not allowed to use any offensive techniques or treasures, so you can only fight him with your body. That giant must also be hiding his strength. After all, there's no way he would be willing to give away a Divine-rank technique so easily."

Yuan smiled and said, "It's fine. My body is sturdier than it looks. Even if I lose, I want to see for myself just how strong giants are."

He then jumped onto the stage and said out loud, "I will take on your challenge!"

The giants were stunned when a tiny human appeared on the stage, and after a moment of silence, they all burst out laughing.

Chapter 1019 - The Prowess of a Giant

"You, a mere human, wishes to challenge me, a giant, to a match of strength?! Ahahaha! This is the funniest joke I have heard all week long!" The 11-meters tall giant laughed out loud after being challenged by Yuan, his laughter causing the air to tremble.

"Why not? It's not our size that matters, but our strength, right?" Yuan responded with a calm smile on his face.

"Is this your first time to the Giant's Continent, little guy? Have you ever fought a giant before? Giants are at the top when it comes to natural strength! No human has ever beaten a giant when it comes to pure strength! I'm afraid that I might accidentally kill you if we fought! However, if you're still willing to take such a risk, then I will gladly be your opponent!"

"I am willing to take such a risk." Yuan nodded with confidence.

"Good! Then allow me to tell you some rules!" The giant said.

And he continued, "First of all, no weapons or treasures of any kind are allowed! If you have any on your right now, put them away!"

Yuan nodded and stored the Invisible Dragon Cloak into his Dragon Spatial Ring.

"Two! You are not allowed to use any offensive techniques! However, defensive techniques are allowed!"

"The third rule is that you are not allowed to dodge! You will have to endure every blow with your body! The same goes for me!"

"Final rule— the first one to give up or fall unconscious will lose!"

"Now that you know the rules, do you still wish to continue? I will give you one last chance to walk away, human brat!"

Yuan smiled and said, "It feels weird that you're addressing me in a way that makes it seem as though you're not human. I mean, I get it. Your ancestors transformed your blood through a godly technique, but it's not like you're no longer human. Unlike a demon, you still look human to me."

The place turned silent after Yuan's little speech.

'Oh no... That idiot!' Huang Xiao Li cried inwardly after sensing the change in the atmosphere.

Unbeknownst to Yuan, it was an unspoken rule within the Giant's Continent that you're not supposed to call giants 'humans'.

"How... dare... YOU!!! How dare you call me a human!" The giant on the stage suddenly roared with a red face.

"I take back what I just said! You're not allowed to quit anymore! We're going to fight to death now!" He roared, causing the air to tremble.

The giants watching the match began shouting like a group of warriors before a big battle, causing the ground and buildings there to shake violently.

Yuan was a little surprised by the giants' reaction.

'They're offended because I called them humans? What a blunder. Now I have a target on my back,' he sighed inwardly after realizing the situation.

"Are you ready to fight?!" The giant asked him sometime later.

"Yes, I am ready." He nodded.

"THEN HERE I COME!"

The giant wasted no time throwing his first punch, and a fist the size of a large boulder flew at Yuan's small figure in comparison.

Although he was unable to dodge the attack, the giant didn't say anything about not being able to strike back, so he also threw his own punch, putting all of his strength behind it.

The moment their fists connected with each other, a powerful ripple swept the scene, surprising everyone there. Though what shocked them even more was the fact that Yuan, a mere human, was not only able to survive the giant's attack but even stop it. FREE WEB NOVEL

However, it was not perfect. Yuan had been pushed back several steps while the giant remained unmoving like a mountain.

'Looks like I have underestimated the strength of giants...' Yuan thought to himself after feeling a numbing sensation in not only his fist but the rest of his arm as well.

Furthermore, he's already used all of his strength in that last exchange, yet he couldn't push back the giant even slightly. The chances of him winning this match in his current state was slim to none.

Despite that, Yuan didn't give up, and he was even smiling.

'It's been a while since I have faced such a strong opponent— an opponent that I cannot defeat easily! This is great!' He laughed inwardly.

The giant was also quite surprised when Yuan managed to stop his fist.

'Even though his attack seemed ordinary and ineffective, the spot he struck felt like it had been stabbed with a needle and actually hurts like hell! Where did such a formidable human come from?!' He cried inwardly but acted completely tranquil outside.

"You... I don't think I have heard your name yet. I am known as Sorgi."

The giant suddenly introduced himself as Sorgi.

"My name is Yuan."

"Good! Now let's continue our fight!" Sorgi laughed as he threw his fist at Yuan for a second time.

"Ha!" FREE WEB NOVEL

Just like their last confrontation, Yuan blocked Sorgi's first with his own, but he was forced several steps back again.

"Let's see how long you can keep this up!" Sorgi roared as he threw the third strike without giving Yuan any time to rest, then a fourth, and a fifth.

Huang Xiao Li and the other giants watched with their mouths wide open, not daring to believe their eyes.

"Do you think he's cheating?" One of the giants there suddenly threw out this thought.

"He's definitely cheating! There's no way a human like him could rival a giant in raw strength! He must be hiding a treasure somewhere in his body!"

When the giants started accusing Yuan of secretly using a treasure, the match stopped temporarily.

"You think I am cheating?" Yuan looked at the crowd of giants with his eyebrows raised slightly.

"Of course! Otherwise, how else can you hold your own against a giant?! Not even body refiners are capable of such a feat!" The giants responded.

"Is that so?" Yuan mumbled.

He turned to look at Sorgi and asked him, "What about you? Do you think I am cheating?"

Sorgi frowned after hearing this question.

Although he didn't want to accuse Yuan of cheating, his pride as a giant didn't think it was possible for a human to match him.

"I see..." Even though Sorgi hasn't said a word yet, Yuan already knew the answer by looking at the expression on his face.

"If you think I am cheating, then I don't mind letting you search my body. I will even hand over my clothes and spatial rings to my friend during the match. What do you think?" He suggested.

"There's no need to search your body." Sorgi responded after a moment of silence.

And he continued, "But you can leave your clothes and spatial ring with your friend. If you can prove to everyone here that you're not cheating, I will compensate you for this misunderstanding."

"Very well." Yuan nodded.

He proceeded to remove his clothes until he was wearing nothing but his underwear, revealing to everyone there his sweaty but refined body.

Even Sorgi was surprised when he saw Yuan's body that looked like it had been carefully sculpted by the heavens itself.

"Xiao Li, can you hold these for me for a bit?" Yuan asked her, who was blushing from ear to ear after seeing his half-naked body.

After handing Huang Xiao Li his clothes and spatial rings, Yuan returned to the stage with only his underwear.

"I am ready." He said with a cold expression on his face.

Sorgi swallowed nervously, and he could feel an uneasy feeling welling up inside his guts.

The two of them continued to throw fists at each other shortly after.

'T-This is! He's gotten even stronger than before! How is this possible?!'
Sorgi was shocked inwardly after sensing the immense force behind Yuan's first strike after the brief break.

However, that was not the end of his shock, as Sorgi could feel Yuan's attacks continuously growing stronger with every strike.

As time passed and the number of strikes they threw at each other increased, Yuan's eyes started turning golden, and his body began emanating an unfathomable aura that made it seem as though an unparalleled entity had descended from the heavens.

Soon even, Yuan's body was enveloped by a golden aura that made him feel invincible— like he was an unrivaled god.

When Sorgi and the spectators saw this, they all subconsciously swallowed nervously.

'What kind of technique is he using?! I have a really bad feeling about this!'
Sorgi cried inwardly as he stared at Yuan's shimmering figure.

"I don't know what kind of trick you're using, but you won't be able to defeat me!" Sorgi roared as he used his own body refining technique, increasing his prowess by many folds, and his body began pulsating with energy so powerful it became visible to one's eyes.

However, Yuan remained calm, his gaze as tranquil as a still lake.

"Haaaaaa!" Sorgi threw his most powerful strike yet, causing the air to tremble.

"Ha!"

Yuan also threw his own fist, his aura skyrocketing right before it collided with Sorgi's fist.

Boom!

The entire city shook as a massive ripple swept the city, and one of them flew off the stage and into many buildings before stopping.

The giants were shocked and speechless after seeing the results.

"S-Sorgi lost to a human!" One of them exclaimed, his eyes filled with disbelief.

"Impossible! What happened just now?! How can a mere human have such prowess with such a tiny body?! This doesn't make any sense!"

After sending Sorgi flying off the stage, Yuan closed his eyes and took a deep breath, and he could feel the invincible feeling in his body quickly dissipating.

He looked at his hands with a wondering gaze.

'Just on earth was that strength? I experienced it during my fight with Li Jinxi before. If only I can control this power...' He sighed inwardly.

Sometime later, Sorgi returned to the stage with a blooded arm.

"Are you okay?" Yuan asked him, feeling a little bad about injuring him to such an extent.

"My muscles are torn, and my entire arm is broken, but I will be fine after some medicine." Sorgi said with a calm smile on his face.

"Giants are tough, I'll give you that." Yuan smiled back.

"Yuan, right? Here is your reward." Sorgi handed him a scroll with his other hand.

"Thank you."

After accepting the scroll, Yuan immediately opened it and memorized the content.

"Relax, I wouldn't scam you with a fake technique before so many people." Sorgi misunderstood his actions.

"By the way, there will be a major tournament next month that is held by the royal family. It's going to be something like our match just now, and I think you'll do great in it. Perhaps you might even win the grand prize, which is a Mythic-rank body refining technique." Sorgi suddenly said.

"What? A Mythic-rank body refining technique?" Yuan's eyes widened with surprise.

However, as much as he wanted to participate in the tournament, he will have to leave the Giant's Continent with the Huang Family in 14 days.

"I would love to participate, but unfortunately, my time here is limited, so I won't be able to participate."

"That's a pity. I wanted to see how you would fare against the best warriors in the Giant's Continent." Sorgi shook his head.

Sometime later, Yuan retrieved his clothes and spatial rings from Huang Xiao Li, who was staring at him with admiration.

"Yuan! You totally overwhelmed that giant! I still can't believe it! How do you train your body?!"

"It's nothing fancy. I just temper my body with medicine." He calmly said.

"Those must have been some expensive treasure since you were able to defeat a giant using your raw strength."

"No, my strength is actually weaker than Sorgi. Something else allowed me to defeat him." He shook his head.

"Huh? What?"

"I don't know. I am also trying to figure it out."

"Let's continue our tour for a little more before we head back to the hotel." Huang Xiao Li suggested.

"Sure."

Meanwhile, somewhere in the Giant's Continent, a giant that had been sitting on a throne as large as a mountain slowly opened his eyes, his gaze filled with dominance.

'That aura just now...'

The giant slowly stood up and turned to face the direction of the Southern Stronghold.

"Ah... Have you finally returned, my old friend? I have been waiting for this day ever since I perfected the Great Mammoth Body Refinement. I will not lose this time!"

This giant suddenly bent his knees in a way that looked like he was prepared to jump, and the next moment, he jumped, soaring towards the Southern Stronghold faster than a rocket.

About an hour after Yuan fought with Sorgi, he returned to the hotel with Huang Xiao Li.

"Father! Mother! You will not believe what happened when we were outside! Yuan fought with a giant and won!" Huang Xiao Li bragged about his match with Sorgi the moment she returned home.

"What?! He fought a giant?! What happened?! Are you guys okay?!" Huang Chen misunderstood the situation and panicked.

After all, if a human picked a fight with a giant while they were in this place, nobody would be able to save them if the giants decided to destroy them.

"It's fine, father. It wasn't a fight. It was a legit match. Yuan even won a Divine-rank technique from it." Huang Xiao Li cleared up the misunderstanding.

"Seriously? Yuan, you're truly full of surprises."

"It's nothing much," he said with a smile.

"Anyways, I am going to study this new technique that I acquired. If you need me, don't hesitate to interrupt me." He said to them before going into another room.

Sometime later.

[You have learned Golden Mountain Body Refinement]

[Golden Mountain Body Refinement]

[Rank: Divine]

[Mastery Level: 1]

[Description: Strengthens your body to become even tougher than that of a mountain made of pure gold!]

After learning the technique, Yuan stood up and tried it.

[Golden Mountain Body Refinement!]

After activating the technique, Yuan could see a thin layer of golden light protecting his body, and he could also feel his body getting stronger.

'In order to train body refinement techniques, I will need people to hit me while I am using the technique...'

He went to grab Huang Xiao Li a moment later.

"What happened to the technique?" She asked him.

"I have already learned it," he calmly said.

"Y-You what? There's no way you learned a Divine-rank technique in less than an hour!" She exclaimed.

Yuan didn't say anything and decided to prove it by showing her the technique.

"You actually managed to learn it in under an hour...? Now that I think about it... You're also a quick learner when it comes to array symbols..." She muttered in a dazed voice after seeing the golden glow protecting his body.

"I want you to hit me as hard as you can." Yuan suddenly said to her.

"Sure." Huang Xiao Li did not hesitate and prepared to throw her fist at him.

However, he quickly stopped her and said, "Hold it! Why are you using your hand? Use a weapon instead. You're going to break your hand like that!"

"What? Did I hear right? You want me to strike you with a weapon?" She looked at him with wide eyes.

"Don't worry, I will be fine. Even if I am not fine, I won't blame you for it." He said with a smile.

"That doesn't make me feel any better, but whatever. I trust you."

Huang Xiao Li proceeded to retrieve a Heaven-grade sword and slashed it at Yuan with all of her cultivation behind it.

Ding!

The sword bounced off Yuan's body the moment it touched the golden layer.

"This isn't too bad. I don't have my Invisible Dragon Cloak on right now so I was expecting to bleed a little." Yuan said after seeing the results.

"You were expecting to bleed?" Huang Xiao Li's jaw dropped a little after hearing such words.

"Looks like I will need something stronger if I want to cultivate this technique properly. I should pick a fight with another giant and use them to train this technique." Yuan said with a weird smile on his face.

"I won't say anything as long as it's a match and you're not actually picking a fight..." Huang Xiao Li said.

"Anyways, let's—"

BOOM!

The entire building suddenly shook violently.

"An earthquake?" Huang Xiao Li looked around with a raised eyebrow.

"No, this isn't caused by an earthquake. It's too unnatural." Yuan said.

Everyone in the hotel proceeded to look outside the window, and to their absolute shock, a giant that size of an actual mountain had suddenly appeared outside the city.

"Holy shit..." Yuan muttered in a dumbfounded voice when he saw the size of this giant.

If he stood before this giant, he would figuratively and literally be like an ant.

"What are they doing?" Huang Xiao Li pointed at the giants in the street, as they had all suddenly dropped to their knees and kowtowed towards the giant outside the city.

Her question would be answered the following moment when every giant in the city could be heard shouting—

"We pay respects to His Majesty, Giant Emperor Kulas!"

The entire city shook for a second time when all of the giants there paid their respects to Giant Emperor Kulas, who was the current ruler of the Giant's Continent.

However, Giant Emperor Kulas ignored the giants and swept the city with his gaze. Every single individual that entered his gaze trembled with awe.

A few moments of silence later, Giant Emperor Kulas spoke in a deafening voice, "How long do you plan on hiding?! I know you're here! Tian Yang, get your ass out here and fight me!"

Yuan's eyes widened with shock when he heard the name 'Tian Yang' come out of the Giant Emperor's mouth.

'This is Tian Yang's memories?! I thought this was the God of War's memories! And what relationship does he have with the Giant Emperor?! The Giant Emperor looks pissed!' He cried inwardly, not daring to respond to the Giant Emperor's call, as that would be akin to suicide with his current strength.

Chapter 1021 - Giant Emperor Kulas

Chapter 1021 - Giant Emperor Kulas

"Tian Yang! Get your ass out here! I won't move a single inch until you come out and fight me like a man! Or have you become a coward since our last duel?!" Giant Emperor Kulas roared when Yuan didn't respond to his callings.

The giants in the city were baffled by the Giant Emperor Kulas' words.

In their eyes, Giant Emperor Kulas was the strongest giant in their race. He was a proud warrior with a godlike physique that has never lost a fight before. While many giants would challenge him, they don't recall the last time he personally challenged another person to a fight.

And judging by his recent words, it seemed that Giant Emperor Kulas was desperate to fight this individual known as Tian Yang.

However, nobody there knew of a giant by that name.

"Do you know of a Tian Yang?"

"No, I don't."

The giants in the city mumbled to each other while Giant Emperor Kulas stood before their city, his gaze sweeping through it.

"Just who is this Tian Yang, and why does the Giant Emperor want to fight him?" Huang Xiao Li mumbled in a dazed voice as she stared at the massive giant standing outside the city.

"Who knows..." Yuan shrugged.

Despite being very confident in his own strength, Yuan knew that he was not an opponent for Giant Emperor Kulas, who appeared to be above Spirit Sovereign.

Therefore, he decided to ignore Giant Emperor Kulas' entire existence by pretending to not see him.

"I'm going to cultivate." Yuan said as he returned to his room.

However, he would soon realize that was an impossible feat with the Giant Emperor shouting his name every few minutes.

"Tian Yang! You dare ignore me?!"

"Get your ass out here!"

"Tian Yang!"

"I have all day!"

"I will stand here until you leave!"

Giant Emperor Kulas made it impossible for the residents of the city to have a peaceful mind and impossible to cultivate. However, none of the giants complained. They wouldn't dare to complain even if Giant Emperor Kulas decided to erase their city from the continent.

In the Giant's Continent, Giant Emperor Kulas was nature and the law. Whatever he says goes.

However, while the giants could not do anything about Giant Emperor Kulas, they could do something about this Tian Yang.

"This Tian Yang is ignoring His Majesty's summoning and making His Majesty wait! The audacity!"

"Yeah! Let's find this bastard for His Majesty!"

"Drag out this Tian Yang from whatever rathole he's hiding in!"

Eventually, all of the giants in the city began looking for this Tian Yang.

"I think this Tian Yang is a human!"

"Yeah! No giant would ever disobey His Majesty so openly!"

"Gather all of the humans in this city! We must find this Tian Yang at all cost!"

The giants in the city began gathering all of the humans they could find outside the city, where Giant Emperor Kulas was waiting.

"Yuan! The hotel staff are telling us that we need to gather with the other humans outside the city!" Huang Xiao Li called for him outside his room.

"Seriously?" Yuan rubbed his eyes in a stressful manner after hearing her words.

'Is it impossible to avoid the Giant Emperor? Do I really have to fight him?' He wondered as he opened the door and went outside.

"It's alright, you guys can stay here." Yuan said to the Huang Family after leaving his room.

"Huh? Did you not hear me? They want every human in the city to gather outside the city! They could kill us if we refuse! This is all because of Tian Yang who's been ignoring the Giant Emperor!" Huang Xiao Li gritted her teeth in frustration.

"I'm telling you that it's fine. Nothing will happen. Because I am Tian Yang." Yuan revealed this fact to them.

"Y-You're Tian Yang...?" They all stared at him with shocked faces.

"Well... I am Yuan, but I am also Tian Yang. It's a nickname." He said with a bittersweet smile.

"Isn't this your first time to the Giant's Continent? Why would you know the Giant Emperor if that was the case? And why are you avoiding him?" Huang Chen frowned, becoming suspicious of Yuan's identity.

"This is really my first time coming to the Giant's Continent. As for the Giant Emperor... I met him outside the Giant's Continent. And the reason I am avoiding him is because I don't want to fight him." Yuan shrugged, making up all sorts of excuses.pa da ov l

"Anyways, since they're going through this much trouble to bring me out, I will go have a chat with the Giant Emperor."

"Yuan! Whatever you do, do not offend the Giant Emperor! He is literally 'Heaven' to the giants! You don't want to offend someone like him, especially not in his territory!" Huang Xiao Li warned him.

"I won't." Yuan said before flying out of the window and towards the giant outside the city.

When Giant Emperor Kulas saw Yuan flying towards him, he started laughing out loud, "There you are, Tian Yang! Did you not hear me calling for you? Why were you hiding from me? Did you not want to fight me?!"

The giants in the city stopped their movements after hearing Giant Emperor Kulas' words, and they all silently spectated the situation.

"I'm here on private business, so of course I don't want to fight you. I don't want to attract too much attention, after all." Yuan said.

"Hahaha! That's a load of bullshit! If you didn't want to fight me, why would you use that technique?! You're clearly provoking me!"

"Technique? What technique?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"Still acting dumb? Or do you believe that I had forgotten about it? Too bad for you, I have never forgotten about that golden aura of yours since our last fight! I came here the moment I sensed it!" Giant Emperor Kulas said.

Yuan's eyes widened with surprise after hearing the true purpose of Giant Emperor Kulas' visit.

'He came here because he sensed my golden aura? Does he know something about it? If he does, I must ask him!'

This is the first time that someone besides Tian Yang knew something about his golden aura, and this could be his opportunity to learn something about it.

"Since you seem to know so much about the golden aura, why don't you tell me everything you know about it? If you do, I will fight you."

Giant Emperor Kulas did not immediately respond to him.

After a moment of silence, he spoke, "I didn't notice it at first due to my excitement, but what happened to your cultivation base? Why are you so pitifully weak? I wouldn't enjoy beating you in your current state."

Yuan pondered for a moment before speaking, "I was injured not long ago, and that affected my cultivation."

Giant Emperor Kulas narrowed his eyes at Yuan.

"Forget it then. I don't want to fight you in your current state. Come back when you're stronger."

And without saying anything else, Giant Emperor Kulas turned around and walked away, leaving Yuan utterly speechless.

'This fucker! How can he leave things like this?! He came here so suddenly and even caused such a commotion! Is the Stairway to Heaven trying to tease me?!'

However, Giant Emperor Kulas stopped after taking a few steps.

He turned around and looked at Yuan.

"My family is hosting a tournament next month. If you win it, I will tell you everything I know about the golden aura. See you there."

After saying such words, Giant Emperor Kulas leaped into the sky and disappeared into the horizon.

'The tournament? Unless it's going to happen in the next trial, I will most likely have to wait until I ascend to the Fourth Heaven...' He sighed inwardly.

Yuan returned to the Huang Family shortly after.

"Are you okay? What happened? Why did the Giant Emperor leave so suddenly?"

"It's nothing much. He wants me to participate in the tournament next month—the one Sorgi talked about. However, that isn't possible since I will be leaving this place with your family before it can happen."

Huang Xiao Li immediately began pondering.

After a moment of silence, she turned to look at her father and spoke, "Father, I have a request!"

"I think I have an idea about what you're going to ask me, but ask away anyway..."

"Let's stay in the Giant's Continent for a little longer! We can leave after the tournament! I really want to see Yuan fighting against the other giants, especially after what I witnessed today! It's going to be amazing!"

Huang Chen sighed after hearing his daughter's request.

He turned to look at Yuan and asked him a moment later, "What do you think? Do you want to participate in this tournament? Since the Giant Emperor is expecting your presence there, I cannot be the reason why you miss it."

Yuan nodded, "I would like to participate in the tournament."

"Then it's settled. We'll stay here for a couple more weeks." Huang Chen declared.

"Thank you, Senior Huang." Yuan said to him.

"There's no need to thank me. You saved my family's lives more than once, after all. And I also want to see how you will fare against the strongest giants in the continent. However, since the location of the tournament is a little far away, we will need to start making our way there right now if we want to make it there in time for the tournament. As for my business, it can wait until we reach the capital. I will have a higher chance of acquiring more valuable treasures over there than here." Huang Chen said.

Chapter 1022 - Tournament of Strength

"What about the ship? It will leave with or without us in 14 days, right?" Yuan asked.

"Yes, but it will return in 7 days for another 14 days. If we miss that, we can wait for the next one. It's really not that big of a deal. Most people that come to this continent tend to stay here for over a month, too." Huang Chen said.

"Alright."

The Huang Family quickly packed their stuff and checked out of the hotel.

When they left the hotel, everyone in the street would stop whatever they were doing to stare at Yuan.

However, nobody there dared to approach him.

"Is that him? The human that His Majesty had challenged?"

"Yes, that's him."

"Where do you think he's going?"

"According to the rumors, His Majesty is expecting to see him at the tournament next month."

"What? A human participating in the Tournament of Strength? That's ridiculous."

"Who knows. A human recognized by His Majesty isn't someone we should look down upon."

Sometime later, Yuan's group stopped by a large building.

"Since we're going to be traveling a long distance, we'll need to rent a carriage and hire a driver." Huang Chen said.

"I can pay for it since I'm the reason we're making the journey." Yuan said.

"It's fine. I got it." Huang Chen smiled at him.

Half an hour later, Huang Chen returned to them and said, "They're preparing the carriage and our driver. They should be ready in an hour. Until then, let's go get something to eat."

"Sure."

They walked around until they could find a restaurant that was operated by a human, as the restaurants for giants were simply too big for them.

Huang Xiao Li remembered Yuan's monstrous eating habits and ordered a full table of food just for him.

As they began eating, giants would gather outside the restaurant and peek inside, all of them seemingly there to look at Yuan.

"That's Tian Yang? What's so special about him?"

"I don't know."

"Hey! I recognize him! He fought with Sorgi earlier today and won!"

"What?! Sorgi?! Seriously?! He's one of the strongest warriors in this city!"

"So what if he beat Sorgi? Compared to the warriors that will be attending the Tournament of Strength, Sorgi is no different than an ant."

"He didn't just beat Sorgi. He overwhelmed Sorgi, even breaking his arm! Although it was even at first, he suddenly used a mysterious power that still sends shivers down my spine when I recall it."

Yuan ignored the giants watching them from outside like they were part of some kind of exhibit. However, the Huang Family was quite nervous from all of the staring.

After eating, Yuan and the Huang Family made their way to the gathering point, where a large carriage made for giants was already prepared for them.

"That's going to be dragging the carriage?" Yuan was expecting horses, but he got something entirely different.

"Yes, that's a Green Earth Dragon. They may have the word dragon in their name but they're really just large lizards. Horses aren't used here because they're too weak for giants." Huang Xiao Li explained.

"Are you guys ready?" The driver, a 7 meter-tall male giant, asked them.

"Yes, we're ready." Huang Chen nodded.

The giant nodded back and commanded the Green Earth Dragon to move, dragging the carriage away from the Southern Stronghold and towards Colossal Mammoth City.

"How much do you guys know about the tournament?" Yuan asked the Huang Family as they moved.

"Not much except that it's the biggest event in the entire continent that only occurs every hundred years." Huang Chen said.

"I believe it's called the Tournament of Strength. The strongest warriors from around the world will participate in it. The winners will not only receive a powerful technique but also the title of Colossal, something that can only be held by the strongest person in the continent."

"If you win this tournament, you can expect unimaginable wealth and fame within the Giant's Continent. Rumors even say that you'll be able to join the Royal Family by marrying one of their princesses." Huang Xiao Li added.

"The Royal Family... That would be the Giant Emperor's family, right?" Yuan asked for confirmation.

"That's right. Giant Emperor Kulas is not only the strongest entity in this world but also the most influential. His words are the law and his actions are akin to nature. Nobody dares to oppose him."

"Do you think you'll be able to win the tournament?" She asked a moment later.

Yuan immediately shook his head with a bittersweet smile, "In my current state? I don't think so."

"Really? Even though the Giant Emperor wanted you to participate?"

"I have no idea what that guy has in his mind." He shrugged.

Sometime later, the driver suddenly shouted, "We have incoming magical beasts!"

They stopped talking and looked in front of them, where a single beast that stood on two legs could be seen blocking the road.

"That's a Wingless Dragon! And it's emitting the strength of a Spirit Emperor!" Qin Kai exclaimed.

"If there's only one of them, I can handle it." Yuan said as he leaped from the carriage and into the sky, where he quickly charged up a Heaven Splitting Sword Strike.

Whoosh!

The Wingless Dragon was consumed by the Heaven Splitting Sword Strike, disappearing alongside the road, where a large crater now existed.

The giant stopped the carriage for a moment to look at Yuan with wide eyes, seemingly not daring to believe his eyes.

Once Yuan returned to the carriage, the giant continued to drive the carriage.

"Wow! That was amazing!" Huang Xiao Li exclaimed.

"If only you could use spiritual attacks at the tournament, you would definitely win!"

"If only..." He smiled.

'If I want to win the tournament, I will need to temper my body even more. If only I could use the golden aura at will... Since I cannot do that, I will need to think of another way to increase my chances of winning...'

After pondering for some time, Yuan recalled the nameless technique being trained by Li Jinxi.

'Perhaps I can use that temporarily...' He thought inwardly.

Chapter 1023 - Unbearable Pain

Chapter 1023 - Unbearable Pain

Yuan closed his eyes and began reciting the nameless technique inside his head.

About an hour later, the Huang Family could see a red aura emanating from Yuan's body, and he gave off the feeling of a wild beast who thirsted for blood.

"Y-Yuan? Are you okay?" Huang Xiao Li asked him in a nervous voice, as the pressure coming from him was quite overwhelming.

He opened his eyes and nodded with a calm expression, "Don't worry, I am fine. It's just a new technique that I recently learned."

Meanwhile, in the spectator's room, Li Jinxi stared at Yuan and his red aura with wide eyes.

"That red aura looks very familiar..." Chu Liuxiang mumbled out loud when she saw it.

"It's my technique." Li Jinxi said.

"Huh? You taught it to him? When?"

"When he started training me. If he understood my technique, then he would be able to train me better. I didn't think he would want to learn something like that because he said that it wasn't created for humans— not that I am complaining. Since I gave him the technique, I don't mind if he uses it as well."

"A technique not created for humans? Can you use it for me? I would like to see it." Feng Yuxiang suddenly asked.

"Sure." Li Jinxi nodded.

She proceeded to activate her nameless technique, showing off her red aura that looked just like the one surrounding Yuan at this moment.

"I see... The Young Master is right. This technique does give off a beastly vibe, and it's a fairly strong one. Is it a Divine-rank technique?"

Li Jinxi nodded, "My family always thought it was only a Heaven-rank technique for some reason."

It wasn't until she learned the technique in Cultivation Online that she found out the technique was actually a Divine-rank technique and not a mere Heaven-rank technique.

"Do you know what kind of beast this technique was created for?" Li Jinxi asked.

Feng Yuxiang narrowed her eyes and pondered for a moment before speaking, "I have a feeling that I have encountered that kind of aura before, but I cannot remember when or where. Sorry."

"It's fine." Li Jinxi shook her head.

"Do you know the origin of the technique?" Feng Yuxiang then asked.

"I do not. It's been with my family since ancient times."

"Your surname is Li, right? If I recall correctly, there is a well known family with that surname in the Third Heaven, and they're all beast tamers that utilize the power of beasts. Maybe they know something about it."

"I guess we'll find out when we get there."

Half an hour later, Yuan's carriage encountered another magical beast.

This time, he did not use Heavenly Splitting Sword Strike. Instead, he used the nameless technique and confronted the magical beast head-on with the Empyrean Overlord.

Sha!

The Empyrean Overlord sliced through the magical beast as though it was tofu, and Yuan noticed his aura growing a little stronger when he killed the magic beast.

[Nameless Technique]

[Rank: Divine]

[Description: Increases your overall strength and removes the limit on your body to a certain extent.]

The Nameless Technique was a simple yet profound technique that is more than it appears.

Yuan looked at the red aura that covered his body after killing the magical beast, feeling an overwhelming sense of strength.

However, right as he was getting comfortable with the nameless technique, Yuan suddenly felt an intense sensation of pain coming from his heart, almost like he was having a heart attack.

He immediately knelt on the ground and clenched his chest.

"Argh!" He screamed out loud.

The pain coming from his heart was many times stronger than his worst body tempering session, and it felt like his heart was being torn apart.

"Yuan?! Are you okay?!" The Huang Family was shocked when they saw this.

However, Yuan did not hear them speaking at all, as a deafening voice was resounding inside his head at this moment.

'How dare you use another aura when you already have Heaven's Supremacy!'

This deep voice sounded very familiar to Yuan, but he does not recall where he had heard it— not that he was in the condition to ponder.

The Huang Family then watched as a golden aura began emanating from Yuan's body, quickly consuming the red aura.

Eventually, the red aura was completely replaced with the golden aura.

The pain stopped shortly after, and Yuan was finally able to take a deep breath.

'What the hell happened just now?! What was that voice?!' He cried inwardly, his body soaked in cold sweat as the painful sensation still lingered in his body.

"Yuan!" Huang Xiao Li jumped off the carriage and rushed over to see his condition.

"Your face is so pale! What happened to you?!" She was shocked when she saw his ghastly complexion.

"I think I experienced some kind of backlash... I should be fine after some rest..." He said.

Huang Xiao Li supported Yuan with her shoulder until they returned to the carriage.

"Here, eat this Spirit Replenishing Pill. It should help you." Huang Chen handed him a pill that restored his spiritual energy.

Even though he barely used his spiritual energy, Yuan still consumed the pill, and he could feel a burst of refreshing energy spreading throughout his entire body.

While he rested, Yuan tried to recall where he had heard that voice before.

'That's right! I remember now! I heard that voice during one of my dreams!' He finally recalled.

However, that only made the situation even more puzzling.

'Why did I hear that voice just now? It mentioned Heaven's Supremacy... Is that the name of that mysterious aura?' He wondered inwardly as the carriage continued moving.

'The voice sounded angry when I used the nameless technique... Almost like it has its own consciousness, but how is that possible?'

Yuan pondered and pondered, but he was unable to understand with this tiny amount of information.

'Should I use the nameless technique again to see if it will happen again?' He wondered inwardly, yet he was hesitant to do so, mostly because he didn't want to experience that unbearable pain again.

Chapter 1024 - Soul Strength

Chapter 1024 - Soul Strength

'No, I shouldn't use the nameless technique again— at least not now. We'll need to settle down somewhere before I try again.' Yuan thought to himself.

After all, if he tried using the nameless technique and loses consciousness due to the backlash, he wouldn't be able to protect the Huang Family and fail the Stairway to Heaven.

Fortunately for Yuan, his headache vanished half an hour later, and his pale complexion was also restored back to normal.

"You shouldn't use that technique again. I think there might be something wrong with it." Huang Xiao Li warned him.

"Alright," he nodded with a bitter smile.

As they continued their journey to Colossal Mammoth City, Yuan would protect the carriage from all sorts of magical beasts with most of them having the strength of a Spirit Emperor.

'These trials are getting too ridiculous too quickly. I am only trying to ascend to the Third Heaven and I am already forced to fight Spirit Emperors. At this rate, I will have to fight Immortals if I wish to ascend to the Fourth Heaven.' Yuan sighed inwardly.

"How are you feeling, Yuan? I'm sorry you have to endure all of this all by yourself. I would love to help, but I am simply powerless in this place." Huang Xiao Li felt a little guilty when she saw how Yuan was dealing with all of their threats all by himself.

"Don't worry about me. I am the reason we're making this unnecessary trip in the first place so it's only reasonable for me to bear the responsibility and protect all of you."

"By the way, how far are we from our destination?" He turned to ask the driver.

"At the pace we're moving, we should arrive in 20 days."

"20 days, huh?"

Yuan didn't say anything else and closed his eyes to cultivate.

For the next four days, Yuan would do nothing but protect their carriage from magical beasts.

At the end of the fourth day, the driver said to them, "There's a city up ahead. If you wish to take any breaks, now would be the time. We won't see the next city for another week after this one."

"I would like to take a bath and eat some food!" Huang Xiao Li immediately said.

"Do you mind if we stop here for a bit, Yuan?" Huang Chen asked him.

"You don't need to ask me, even if you want to stay here for a night or two." Yuan said.

"Alright, then we'll stop here for a couple of hours before we continue our journey." Huang Chen nodded.

Once they arrived at the city, the driver said to them, "I will wait for you here. Take as long as you need."

"Are you sure? You can take a break as well." Huang Xiao Li said to him.

"Thank you for your consideration, but I take my job very seriously. I won't leave this carriage until I bring all of you to Colossal Mammoth City."

"I understand."

Sometime later, the Huang Family rented a hotel room for one day, allowing everyone to enjoy a hot bath.

"Ah! That felt great!" Huang Xiao Li exclaimed in a satisfied voice after coming out of the bathroom with a towel wrapped around her body, her hair still dripping wet.

Huang Chen frowned when he saw her appearance, and he said, "You're not at home. Mind your appearance!"

"Oh, right..." Huang Xiao Li quickly went back into the bathroom to dry her hair and wear clothes.

After leaving the hotel, they went to a nearby restaurant and ate until all of their stomachs were bloated.

They returned to the driver waiting outside the city afterward, continuing their journey for another 7 days.

The magical beasts they encountered during these seven days were stronger than the previous encounters.

'The magical beasts are getting stronger as we get closer to the Colossal Mammoth City, but my strength isn't increasing... Unless I consume a monster core or a demon core, I won't be able to suddenly increase my strength to pass the trial like last time.'

On their fifth day to their 2nd checkpoint, the carriage came to a complete halt when a magical beast that stood on two legs with a pair of closed wings behind its back blocked their path.

"That's a Mountain Dragon!" The driver appeared to be terrified of this magical beast.

Just as the name sounds, this magical beast was like a small mountain that blocked their path.

'I will need to use the God of War's Astral Arts if I want to deal with this beast...' Yuan sighed inwardly after sensing the overwhelming aura coming from the magical beast.

"I will be right back." Yuan said to the Huang Family as he flew into the air and used God of War's Astral Arts.

"W-What in Kulas' name is that?!" The giant cried out loud when he saw the massive figure that appeared out of the blue in the sky.

Then he watched as the golden armored figure flattened the Mountain Dragon with a single strike, causing the entire world to tremble as well.

It wasn't just the driver. Even the Green Earth Dragon pulling their carriage was shocked by what it had just witnessed. It has seen many things throughout its life as a carriage puller, but it has never met a human with such prowess before.

Yuan returned to the carriage shortly after killing the Mountain Dragon with a pale complexion.

"Are you sure you're not pushing yourself? At this rate, you won't have enough strength left for the tournament..." Huang Xiao Li sighed as she positioned Yuan's head to rest on her soft legs.

"That technique uses my soul strength instead of my spiritual energy, so I will be fine as long as I get enough rest," he said.

"Soul strength, huh?" Huang Xiao Li suddenly put on a pondering face.

She turned to look at Huang Chen and asked, "Father... Don't you know any arrays that could help replenish his soul strength?"

"Actually, I do." He nodded.

"Really?" Yuan was pleasantly surprised to hear this.

"Yes. Give me a minute." Huang Chen nodded as he began creating array symbols that Yuan didn't recognize.

Chapter 1025 - Soul Nourishment Array

Chapter 1025 - Soul Nourishment Array

After spending a few minutes creating array symbols, Huang Chen pointed his hands at Yuan and gestured for the symbols to activate, "Soul Nourishment Array!"

The array symbols surrounded Yuan and illuminated a beautiful golden light.

Although the difference wasn't anything major, Yuan's soul strength was definitely recovering noticeably faster.

"How do you feel, Yuan?" Huang Xiao Li asked him.

"This array is really useful. I've been thinking about getting a soul cultivation technique, but this could work as well— at least temporary. Do you mind teaching me this array? I'll be able to use my trump card much more often if I have this array. Of course, it's okay to refuse. I am aware that it's a valuable array since anything that can restore soul strength is valuable." He asked Huang Chen.

"I don't mind teaching you the Soul Nourishment Array, but will you even be able to use it? It's a level 4 array combination that's even more difficult than some level 5 array combinations." Huang Chen said.

"Level 4 array combination... I only know up to level 3 array symbols..." Yuan sighed.

"You can always learn level 4 array symbols. I mean, you're a quick learner and a genius Array Master. Here, you can have this." Huang Xiao Li handed him a thin book that read '2,000 Master Array Symbols'.

"Thank you!" Yuan accepted the book and immediately started flipping through the pages to memorize the content.

Since there were only 2,000 array symbols, it didn't take long for him to memorize all of them.

"Here's the Soul Nourishment Array." Huang Chen handed him the array combination next.

"Thank you." Yuan also memorized the array combination right after acquiring it. Since he couldn't take these items outside the Stairway to Heaven, he needed to memorize them before the trial ended.

While Huang Chen maintained the Soul Nourishment Array, Yuan would study the level 4 array symbols.

They continued this until they finally arrived at their second checkpoint.

"Do you wish to rest here like before?" The driver asked them.

"Yes, please."

"Alright."

Once the carriage was parked, Yuan and the Huang Family entered the city to take another break.

Shortly after Yuan and the others entered the city, a tall figure wearing a cloak approached their carriage, where the driver was patiently waiting for their return.

"Hey, I have some questions for you." The cloaked figure asked the driver.

'A woman?' The driver raised his eyebrows after hearing her clear voice, and judging by the size of this figure, she appeared to be human.

"What kind of questions?" The driver asked.

The woman proceeded to ask him several questions.

"Sorry, but I cannot answer these questions." The driver politely refused this mysterious woman after hearing her questions.

The woman sighed, "I didn't want to do this but..."

The driver immediately prepared to retaliate after hearing this woman's ominous words.

"Calm down. I'm not here to fight," she said after seeing the driver getting defensive and all.

"I'm going to show you my face. Don't shout too loudly." The woman said as she removed her hood just enough to reveal her facial appearance to the driver.

"Y-You're?!" The driver's eyes widened with shock upon realizing the identity of this woman.

"Shhh!" The woman quickly shushed him with a finger between her lips.

"Now tell me what I want to know," she then said.

"Alright..." The driver couldn't refuse her after recognizing her identity.

After spending several hours inside the city, Yuan and the Huang family returned to the carriage, but to their surprise, there was someone they didn't recognize with the driver, mostly because they were wearing a cloak that hid their face and identity.

"Who are you?" Huang Chen asked this cloaked figure.

"Hello, my name is Xie Mey. I have been looking for you, Tian Yang." The woman suddenly introduced herself.

Yuan frowned slightly and said, "I'm Yuan."

"Then why did you answer the Giant Emperor, who was calling for Tian Yang?" She asked with a smile.

"What do you want from me?" He asked.

"Nothing, really. I'm just interested in you, who has managed to receive the Giant Emperor's attention. As far as I am aware, the Giant Emperor isn't interested in weaklings. In fact, he wouldn't even acknowledge one's existence until they prove their strength. However, you have not only managed to attract his attention but even make him personally visit you. That's the first time I've seen him do something like that."

"You're going to Colossal Mammoth City for the Tournament of Strength, right? Do you mind if I tagged along? I promise that I won't be a bother. In fact, I'll even help out with protecting the carriage. I may not look like it, but I'm pretty strong." Xie Mey made a gesture that one would normally make to show off their biceps, but the cloak hid everything.

Yuan narrowed his eyes at this mysterious woman.

'I cannot sense her cultivation base, but she's definitely not a mortal, so she must be above Spirit Emperor. It would be a great help if someone like her joins our journey.' He thought to himself.

Furthermore, it was not as though he had the power to stop this woman from following them if she really wanted to.

"Do you mind if she joined us?" Yuan turned to look at the Huang Family.

"If you're okay with it, I won't say anything." Huang Chen said.

Yuan turned to look at the driver, who immediately nodded his head.

'The driver is acting weird... Does he know this woman?' Yuan thought to himself after noticing the nervousness within the driver's gaze.

"Alright, you can follow us." Yuan said to Xie Mey a moment later.

"Thank you, Tian Yang!"

"Call me Yuan. That is my name." Yuan corrected her.

"Okay, Yuan! Nice to meet you!"

They returned to the road sometime later but now with a new addition—this mysterious woman named Xie Mey whose motives were as mysterious as her identity.

Chapter 1026 - Mysterious Woman

Chapter 1026 - Mysterious Woman

After leaving the city, the driver said to them, "There won't be any more stops until we reach Colossal Mammoth City now."

"Alright."

Yuan said as he pulled out the level 4 array symbols manual and started studying it.

Xie Mey, who has been staring at him since they got on the carriage, suddenly asked, "What are you doing?"

"I'm learning array symbols. I will need all of the concentration I can get before we're attacked by magical beasts, so if you don't mind, don't bother me until I am done. You promised that you wouldn't be a bother, right?"

"Eh? That's not fun! Let's talk a little before you focus on that book!" Xie Mey said.

"Hey! Stop bothering him or I will kick you out of here!" Huang Xiao Li interrupted with a slight frown on her face.

The driver in the front snapped his head and looked at Huang Xiao Li with wide eyes.

'Oh my god! She just threatened her!' He cried inwardly.

Xie Mey turned to look at Huang Xiao Li and smiled underneath her cloak.

"You'll kick me out? How are you going to do that? A mere Spirit Grandmaster, I can crush you with a single pinky." Xie Mey showed Huang Xiao Li her pinky and even wiggled it around in a provoking manner.

Yuan suddenly sighed and looked away from his book to look at Xie Mey.

"Did you come here just to pick a fight? If that's the case, let's get this over with."

Although he wasn't confident in beating her, he had a chance if he could catch her off guard with the God of War's Astral Arts.

"Relax, I don't want to fight you— at least not right now."

Yuan narrowed his eyes at her words that implied that she wanted to fight him at a later date.

"The Tournament of Strength. I will be participating in it as well. As much as I want to fight you now, I will wait until we both enter the stage," Xie Mey said.

"You're also participating in the Tournament of Strength? I understand Yuan's reason for joining, but you as well? Aren't you a human?" Huang Xiao Li was surprised to hear that a female human wanted to join the Tournament of Strength.

"So what if I am human? There are no rules that prohibit humans from participating in the Tournament of Strength. In fact, many humans participate in every tournament. Though no human has ever won the tournament before."

"A female body refiner, huh... How rare..." Huang Chen mumbled.

"Anyways, I just want to talk a little. I will stop bothering you afterward. Please?" Xie Mey said a moment later, even clasping her palms together in a pleading gesture.

"Fine. What do you want to talk about?" Yuan agreed to her proposal.

"How did you meet the Giant Emperor?"

"That's a secret between us." Yuan made up an excuse since he didn't know.

"Fair enough. Then why does the Giant Emperor want to fight you?"

"I don't know. Go ask him. He's the one who challenged me." He shrugged.

"I can't argue that... Alright then— why did you come to the Giant's Continent if not to participate in the Tournament of Strength?"

Yuan pointed at the Huang Family and said, "I am here as their bodyguard, and they're here to exchange their treasures."

"Seriously...? That's why you're here?" Xie Mey mumbled in a dazed voice, seemingly in disbelief.

After asking Yuan several more questions, Xie Mey finally stopped bothering him.

However, it didn't take long before he was distracted again.

The moment he sensed a magical beast nearby, Yuan dropped the book in his hands and retrieved the Empyrean Overlord. His movements were incredibly fluid and without any hesitation, almost as though he's done this a thousand times before.

[Vanishing Ghost's Soundless Blade!]

Yuan's arms flickered and disappeared for a split second, and in a speed that nobody there but Xie Mey could see, he sliced the magical beast over a dozen times, separating its body into many pieces.

"Not bad." Xie Mey praised him after he returned to the carriage.

"Thanks." Yuan casually said as he picked up his book and began reading again.

An hour later, Yuan sensed another magical beast approaching their location.

"I got this one."

Xie Mey suddenly said, and she left the carriage before Yuan could even stand up.

Yuan and the others watched as Xie Mey flew at the magical beast before giving it a single punch.

Although the punch looked ordinary, there was actually an immense force behind it, and when the fist connected with the magical beast, it blew a massive hole in the magical beast body.

"What?!" Huang Xiao Li's eyes widened with shock after seeing how little effort Xie Mey exerted to defeat the Spirit Emperor magical beast.

After killing the magical beast with a single punch, Xie Mey returned to the carriage.

"What do you think? Do you think you'll be able to survive my fist? By the way, that wasn't even half of my full power." Xie Mey said.

Although he couldn't see it, he was sure that there was a smug smile on her face right now just from her voice alone.

"Aren't you ashamed to be asking a mere Spirit Lord such a question when you're above Spirit Emperor?" Yuan asked her.

"Can a mere Spirit Lord kill a Spirit Emperor magical beast with such ease?" She responded with a question.

"I can tell that you're not using all of your power. I think I understand why the Giant Emperor took interest in you, but you're nowhere near the level to fight him, so I'm a little puzzled why he would challenge you."

Xie Mey suddenly looked around in a suspicious manner.

A few moments later, she spoke, "Now that we're pretty far away from the city, it should be fine if I show my face."

And without any warning, she removed the cloak that had been hiding her appearance this entire time.

Chapter 1027 - Colossal Tower

Chapter 1027 - Colossal Tower

Yuan's eyes widened with surprise after Xie Mey removed her cloak, but it was an unexpected one.

'Who?' He raised his eyebrows after seeing Xie Mey's appearance without recognizing her.

Xie Mey was an incredibly beautiful woman with blonde hair and green eyes. She had a slim hourglass figure, and her breasts were quite ample. Her facial features were sharp and symmetrical, and her face gave off the aura of a battle-hardened warrior who has survived many battlefields.

Yuan thought that the trend of meeting people with similar faces that he already knew like Meixiu in the first trial would continue in the second trial, but that did not seem to be the case.

"I can tell that you're charmed by my beauty, but I'm sorry, I will only seriously consider someone who is stronger than me to be my partner!" Xie Mey suddenly said.

Yuan raised an eyebrow and said, "No, I just don't understand why you decided to hide your identity. I thought you were someone I knew, but that doesn't seem to be the case."

"I have my own reasons for hiding my identity."

Yuan casually shrugged and proceeded to ignore Xie Mey, returning to his study.

"Nobody here recognizes me? Seriously?" Xie Mey muttered in a dumbfounded voice when even the Huang Family began ignoring her.

"I-I recognize you..." The driver said in a low and somewhat nervous voice.

However, Xie Mey didn't even look at him, almost as though she didn't even acknowledge his existence.

Several days later, the carriage came to a stop when they finally arrived at their destination, Colossal Mammoth City.

Xie Mey, who was back to hiding her appearance, said to them, "The last few days were fun. Thank you for letting me tag along. I would love to continue tagging along, but I have to prepare for the Tournament of Strength, so we will have to go our separate ways here."

"While I still don't know who you are or your purpose for following us, I am glad that you did, as we have managed to arrive at our destination in one piece. It would've been really dangerous for us if I had to deal with all of the magical beasts by myself." Yuan said to her.

"I'm sure you would've managed it even if you had to do it by yourself. Anyways, I will see you later, Yuan. Don't disappoint me at the tournament. I really look forward to exchanging fists with you."

Xie Mey disappeared into the city shortly after, followed by Yuan and the Huang Family.

"We have a little over a week until the tournament. I am going to use this time to exchange my treasures." Huang Chen announced to everyone there.

Once they rented a hotel, Yuan followed Huang Chen and Huang Xiao Li to exchange their treasures while Dong Zhou and Qin Kai stayed back to protect Mistress Huang and her son.

Since this was their first time coming to the Colossal Mammoth City, Huang Chen had to spend some time gathering information about the best places to exchange treasures.

"Then you are most likely looking for the Colossal Tower. It's the hottest location in this city when it comes to treasures. Most visitors go there to exchange their treasures as well."

"Thank you for the information. Here's a token of my gratitude." Huang Chen handed some gold to the person that provided him with the information.

Meanwhile, Yuan looked around with a pondering face.

"The giants in this place are noticeably larger than the ones in the last two cities." Yuan mumbled.

"Of course. This is the capital of the Giant's Continent, not to mention the upcoming tournament. All of the strongest giants in the continent will be gathered in this city." Huang Xiao Li said.

"I am aware of that, but I didn't think there would be such a vast difference."

"Just wait until the tournament. You'll be like an ant compared to most of them."

Sometime later, they arrived at the Colossal Tower, and just as its name suggests, the place was enormous, and it was one of the biggest buildings Yuan had ever seen in his life.

The building was so tall that he couldn't see the top even with his head tilted all the way back.

"I can't imagine how much effort and resources the giants had to spend to build this magnificent tower. I have always wanted to see it after hearing about it during my first time on this continent." Huang Chen sharply sucked in a bunch of cold air before mumbling in a dazed voice.

They entered the building sometime later.

"Make sure you don't wander and you keep your focus. It's actually very common for humans to die here, and most of them are accidents caused by giants and humans when we fail to pay attention to our surroundings. We're like ants in this place, after all." Huang Chen warned them.

Huang Xiao Li swallowed nervously and immediately stuck to Yuan.

"Do you mind if we hold hands?" she asked him, acting like a child who did not want to be separated from her parents by accident in a large shopping mall.

"Sure." Yuan nodded and held onto her soft hands.

Their group began wandering the tower, approaching every store that caught Huang Chen's attention.

Yuan didn't do much besides pay attention to their surroundings to make sure they don't get stepped on by accident.

As for Huang Xiao Li, she was focused on the sensation around her hands, feeling like she was on a date with Yuan.

Over the next couple of hours, they would go through dozens of stores and even some personal vendors.

At the end of the day, Huang Chen managed to exchange almost a dozen treasures.

"This place is truly heaven-sent! The quality of treasures in this place is incomparably superior than the ones found in Southern Stronghold! Extending the business trip was definitely worth it! Hell, I might even do this every time I come to the Giant's Continent now!" Huang Chen had a wide smile on his face as they exited the tower.

Chapter 1028 - Colossal Tower (2)

Chapter 1028 - Colossal Tower (2)

Over the next few days, Yuan and the Huang Family would return to the Colossal Tower early in the morning to exchange treasures until it was late at night.

As the days got closer to the day of the Tournament of Strength, there were noticeable more giants that were above 15 meters walking around the city.

"At this rate, I will be done with my business by tonight." Huang Chen said to Yuan as they left one of the stores in the Colossal Tower.

"Yuan, you know you can exchange treasures with the giants if you want. It would be a shame to leave this place without a souvenir, too." Huang Xiao Li said to him.

"It's really fine. I don't have any treasures to exchange, anyways." He shook his head.

He obviously had plenty of treasures for trade, but since this was only a trial and nothing was real, he wouldn't actually gain anything from exchanging treasures, and such actions would only cause him to lose a treasure without anything in return.

At the end of the day, Yuan and the Huang Family made their way towards the exit of the Colossal Tower after Huang Chen exchanged the last treasure he had.

"Now that I am done with my business, there's only the Tournament of Strength left before we head back home." Huang Chen said.

And he continued, "Thank you, Yuan, for all of your effort. Really, I cannot thank you enough for everything you have done for my family."

"I am just doing my job."

"No, you've done more than that. I will compensate you properly once we get back to the hotel. I have the best reward for you."

Once they exited the Colossal Tower, Yuan's group came to a sudden halt when a group of giants wearing armor blocked their way.

"What's happening?" Huang Xiao Li looked around with an uneasy face.

However, before Huang Chen could even say anything, a familiar voice resounded, "That's them! They're the ones that are conspiring against the Giant Emperor!"

Yuan turned to look at the voice to see a human woman pointing at them with a terrified look on her face.

It was Zou Nuying, the bandit who became the Huang Family's bodyguard to steal their treasures.

'She followed us all the way here? How did I not notice her?' Yuan wondered inwardly.

"I will need all of you to come with me. We will kill you if you resist." One of the giants there said to them in a cold voice.

"Wait! This is a huge misunderstanding! That woman is lying! She's actually a bandit that we failed to kill when she tried to steal from my family! She's part of an infamous group of bandits called the Gold and Money Bandits! We only came here to exchange treasures!" Huang Chen exclaimed with a pale face.

"Hmph! I don't care about your situation! We take all accusations that could bring harm to His Majesty very seriously! We will determine whether you are telling the truth or not once we interrogate you!"

"Resist and we will kill you on the spot!" The giants pointed their massive weapons at Yuan's group.

Yuan narrowed his eyes at Zou Nuying, who had a subtle smirk on her face.

'How troublesome. These giants probably don't care about who is right or wrong. Their resolute and emotionless eyes tell me that they've already come to a conclusion—to kill all of us no matter if we are innocent or not to remove all risks. After all, we humans are nothing in their eyes.'

Yuan closed his eyes and took a deep breath before shouting out loud, "Giant Emperor Kulas! I know you can hear me! Get your ass out here, or I will never fight you ever again, much less participate in your stupid tournament!"

The place turned dead silent as everyone there stared at Yuan with wide eyes filled with shock, all of them seemingly in disbelief.

When the giants snapped out of their daze and realized that Yuan had just cursed their emperor, their faces immediately turned as red as a hot iron that had just left the fire.

Huang Xiao Li and her father fell to their butts from shock, and they both stared at Yuan with disbelief.

"This fucking idiot! He just sealed his fate!" Zou Nuying laughed inwardly.

"Blasphemy! How dare you curse at our emperor! A mere human! Even if the heavens forgive you, we giants will never forgive you!" The giants there roared, causing the entire city to shake.

"Die!"

The giant leading the armored giants suddenly swung his halberd at Yuan, causing the air there to tremble.

"Halt." A calm yet loud voice suddenly rumbled.

When the giant heard this familiar voice, his entire body immediately froze.

Everyone there turned to look at the direction of the voice to see a bulky man that was around 15 meters tall slowly approaching them.

This man had short golden hair and a pair of emerald eyes.

Yuan didn't recognize this man at first glance, but the giants there immediately recognized him even though he was much smaller than usual.

All of the giants in that area suddenly knelt on the ground and kowtowed to him while screaming, "This loyal subject pays respects to His Majesty!"

Giant Emperor Kulas, who was suddenly much smaller compared to their last meeting, nodded and spoke, "Stand back. That man is an acquaintance."

"Yes!" The giants did not question him and all stepped back, giving them room.

"Although your cultivation has weakened, your audacity remains unchanged. I was worried that you might have turned into a coward when you lost your cultivation. I'm relieved to see that was not the case." Giant Emperor Kulas said, seemingly not offended even though Yuan had cursed him out before so many giants.

"How did you know that I had been watching you?" he then asked.

Yuan smiled and said, "You can try to hide your aura all you want, but you can't hide the killing intent within your gaze no matter how hard you try. I noticed you even before I entered this city a week ago."

"Hahaha!" Giant Emperor Kulas suddenly laughed out loud.

Chapter 1029 - Perfect Tempering Ginseng

Chapter 1029 - Perfect Tempering Ginseng

"Don't misunderstand, Tian Yang. When I emit killing intent, it's not because I want to kill you. I only do it when I really want to fight someone, and I really want to fight you right now, but alas, you're not ready yet." Giant Emperor Kulas said after he stopped laughing.

"Anyways, what is going on here? What is the cause of this commotion? You better have a good explanation on why you summoned me."

"It's really simple..." Yuan proceeded to explain the whole situation to Giant Emperor Kulas.

"I see... Conspiring against me, huh? Well... Are you?" Giant Emperor Kulas asked Yuan with a calm expression on his face.

"What do you think?" Yuan responded with a question of his own.

A wide grin suddenly appeared on Giant Emperor Kulas' face.

"You're many things, but you're definitely not a backstabber."

He turned to look at Zou Nuying, who was on the verge of pissing herself right now from fear. She could've never imagined that Yuan would be buddies with Giant Emperor Kulas himself.

"The Gold and Money Bandits, huh? I have never heard of you losers, but you must be a bold bunch to dare to try and trick my guards." Giant Emperor Kulas sneered in disgust.

"Guards! Public execution!"

When Zou Nuying heard Giant Emperor Kulas' words, her face immediately paled.

"W-Wait! He's lying to you! I am not a bandit! I am really telling the truth! They're secretly plotting to harm you, Your Majesty!"

"How dare you, a mere human, try to trick us! Die, you bitch!" One of the guards there suddenly shoved his spear at Zou Nuying, piercing her stomach.

And before Zou Nuying could even react, another guard also moved into action, penetrating her shoulder.

Then another spear came flying at her.

Within seconds, seven spears skewered Zou Nuying's body without mercy.

"Die!"

The head guard swung his halberd, decapitating Zou Nuying the following second.

Yuan and the others there watched as Zou Nuying's head rolled on the floor like a ball.

Nobody there uttered a single word for the next few moments.

Giant Emperor Kulas was the first to speak again, and his voice boomed throughout the city.

"Heed my words! This young man here is my lifelong rival, Tian Yang! Nobody is allowed to touch him before the Tournament of Strength!"

"Yes, Your Majesty!"

The giants there had many questions, but nobody there dared to ask these questions.

Giant Emperor Kulas' words were the law. The moment he announces it, they lost all chances to dispute or question it.

"I look forward to your performance at the Tournament of Strength, Tian Yang. Don't disappoint me." Giant Emperor Kulas said to Yuan before turning around and walking away.

Yuan returned to the hotel with the Huang Family shortly after.

"You almost scared me to death back there, Yuan!" Huang Xiao Li confronted him with a puffed face, trying to look angry.

"Sorry, but I didn't have any time to explain."

"Fortunately it all worked out in the end. That could've been the end of all of us, after all." Huang Chen could finally take a breather.

Sometime later, Huang Chen stood up and approached Yuan.

"Yuan, this is for you."

He retrieved a small wooden box and offered it to Yuan, who raised an eyebrow.

"What is this?" he asked as he accepted it.

"Open it and see for yourself."

'Does this mean it's the end of the trial?' Yuan wondered to himself as he opened the wooden box.

However, it was not a golden orb inside the wooden box. Instead, it was red ginseng that was the size of an adult's finger and shaped like a human body.

"What is this?" Yuan asked again since he didn't recognize the treasure.

"That's a Perfect Tempering Ginseng." Huang Chen said with a smile on his face.

"Is that the Perfect Tempering Ginseng?!"

Inside the spectators' room, Feng Yuxiang exclaimed in a shocked voice after seeing the treasure.

"What kind of treasure is that?" Chu Liuxiang asked with a curious look on her face.

"Perfect Tempering Ginseng... It's a priceless treasure that was only available during the Primordial Era. In other words, they are no longer available— at least they shouldn't be."

"What are the effects of this Perfect Tempering Ginseng? Does it have anything to do with one's physique?" Li Jinxi asked.

She nodded, "The Perfect Tempering Ginseng will fix all imperfection within one's body and then refine it. It is a priceless treasure that will improve one's physique multiple times and is a legend that many body refiners spend their whole life chasing after even to this day."

"Even if it's indeed this Perfect Tempering Ginseng, does it really matter? I mean, we're still inside the Stairway to Heaven, so it's just an illusion." Meixiu suddenly said.

"Yes... You're right. We're still inside the Stairway to Heaven. I guess I got a little excited after seeing a legendary treasure. It's truly unfortunate." Feng Yuxiang sighed.

Meanwhile, Huang Chen just finished explaining the Perfect Tempering Ginseng to Yuan.

"Since you're going to participate in the Tournament of Strength, this Perfect Tempering Ginseng will benefit you greatly."

"Thank you..." Yuan said with a smile on his face.

'What a pity. If only this treasure was real.' He sighed inwardly.

"There's still a few days until the tournament. Go ahead and take this time to absorb the Perfect Tempering Ginseng." Huang Chen then said to him.

"Alright." Yuan nodded.

"Good luck!" Huang Xiao Li and the others said to him before he locked himself inside another room.

Yuan looked at the Perfect Tempering Ginseng in his grasp with a pondering look on his face.

"Ah, what the hell. There's no harm in trying it. Although this is just a simulation, all of the food that I ate had a taste to it and this is probably no different."

And without thinking any further, he tossed the Perfect Tempering Ginseng inside his mouth and started chewing on it.

'Ugh. It's so bitter.'

Yuan's body shivered after tasting it.

Once the bitterness disappeared, his body suddenly began heating up, and within moments, his body started steaming with smoke coming out of his pores.

This shocked Yuan, who did not expect anything to happen after eating the Perfect Tempering Ginseng.

'I need to cultivate!'

He tossed aside all questions in his mind and immediately sat down to cultivate.

Chapter 1030 - Perfect Physique

Chapter 1030 - Perfect Physique

"What's happening to Yuan? Why is his body steaming?! His skin is also red, almost like his blood is boiling!" Chu Liuxiang exclaimed after seeing the sudden changes to Yuan's body.

"Don't tell me that it was caused by the Perfect Tempering Ginseng? I thought treasures acquired inside the Stairway to Heaven won't affect one's body for real..." Lan Yingying muttered in a dazed voice.

"I have also never heard of this before. Just what is happening to the Young Master?" Feng Yuxiang had a profound frown on her face as she thought about the implications from the situation.

Meanwhile, steam continued to gush out of Yuan's pores like boiling water in a kettle, quickly filling the room and turning it into a sauna.

Although nobody there could see it, significant changes were benign made inside Yuan's body.

His muscles moved around as though they were alive, and his bones altered their own shape, becoming bigger and more sturdy.

His blood rushed throughout his body, feeling adrenaline like never before.

The Perfect Tempering Ginseng was not only altering his body and fixing all of its imperfection, but it was also strengthening his bones and muscles at the same time.

One would expect intense pain from the changes happening inside Yuan's body, but besides feeling a little hot, he felt not even the slightest of unpleasant feelings.

Suddenly, the golden symbols that had embedded itself inside Yuan's body began emanating a profound light that made his body seem as though it was being protected by a layer of divine aura.

His spiritual veins and Dantian suddenly began expanding in size, becoming wider and allowing his spiritual energy to circulate throughout his body multiple times faster.

And while Feng Yuxiang and the other spectators couldn't see it through the reflection, Yuan's cultivation was actually starting to decrease!

His peak Spirit Lord cultivation quickly lowered to the first level, but it did not stop there and continued until it reached the first level of Spirit Grandmaster. Several more moments later, his cultivation went down to Spirit Master, and it would not stop until his cultivation reached the first level of Spirit Apprentice!

However, despite his cultivation lowering, Yuan's aura did not weaken at all. In fact, it even skyrocketed, becoming many times stronger than before.

Over the next several days, Yuan would sit in the steamy room without moving a single finger, almost as though he'd turned into a statue.

The Huang Family didn't dare to disturb him even though it was getting close to the tournament.

"The tournament is in two days, yet he's still holed up in his room. Hopefully he doesn't miss the tournament..." Huang Xiao Li sighed.

"The Perfect Tempering Ginseng is a miracle treasure that can turn even a trash cultivator into a dragon amongst dragons. I cannot even begin to imagine its effect on someone who was already a dragon to begin with." Huang Chen shook his head.

"I guess we'll find out when he—"

Huang Xiao Li stopped speaking when an unfathomable pressure suddenly enveloped the entire building.

"W-Who is emitting this pressure?!" Everyone in the hotel was shocked by the pressure that came out of the blue.

The pressure was so powerful that it made it hard for everyone in the hotel to breathe properly. Fortunately, this pressure disappeared as quickly as it appeared. However, even though it was just slightly, everyone that had a taste of this pressure would not stop trembling in fear.

Meanwhile, inside his now clear room, Yuan slowly opened his eyes, which glimmered with dominance.

<Your body has undergone a significant transformation, achieving perfection!>

<You have gained the title 'Perfect Physique'>

<Description: Having a perfect physique, your body will progress faster through body temperament, acquiring unimaginable strength>

He took a deep breath and stood up.

'I've gotten taller... My body feels as light as a feather, and my body is constantly absorbing spiritual energy even without needing me to do anything, almost as though I am cultivating just by breathing.'

Yuan looked at his own hands.

'My cultivation had somehow weakened to Spirit Apprentice, yet I feel even stronger than when I was a peak Spirit Lord. Is this also because of the Perfect Tempering Ginseng? But Huang Chen didn't mention anything about this...'

As he tried to comprehend the situation, his cultivation actually increased, reaching the second level Spirit Apprentice.

However, he did not get any notifications from the system, nor did his stats increase. Despite that, he could somehow still feel his body getting a little stronger.

'Forget it, there's no point thinking about it now. I'll ask Tian'er once I finish this trial.'

Yuan left the room shortly after.

"Y-Yuan...? Is that really you?" Huang Xiao Li's eyes widened with shock when she saw Yuan.

His appearance had changed so much that everybody there instantly recognized it the moment they saw him.

Not only did Yuan get taller, but his face was also much more refined and handsome, not to mention his body, which looked flawless even underneath his clothes.

"Heavens... You're almost like a different person..." Huang Chen mumbled in a dazed voice after seeing Yuan.

Huang Xiao Li approached Yuan until she was standing right in front of him.

"Y-You grew half a head in just a few days?! Is this the effects of the Perfect Tempering Ginseng?!" she exclaimed.

After swallowing nervously, she asked in a trembling voice, "D-Do you mind if I touch your body for a bit?"

Yuan smiled, "Go ahead."

Huang Xiao Li didn't hesitate and started squeezing his arms and legs with her hands.

'Wow! What perfect muscles! They feel soft yet firm at the same time! How is this possible?!' she cried inwardly as she squeezed his muscles as though she was kneading dough.

"Looks like the Perfect Tempering Ginseng worked like a charm on you."
Huang Chen smiled.

"Yes, and it's all thanks to you." Yuan bowed to him.

"Don't even mention it." Huang Chen shook his head.

Huang Xiao Li suddenly exclaimed, "Wait... What happened to your cultivation?! Why are you suddenly a Spirit Apprentice?!"

"What?!" Huang Chen's eyes widened with shock after hearing her words. He narrowed his eyes at Yuan, and sure enough, his cultivation was only at the third level Spirit Apprentice!

However, before he could even say anything, Yuan's cultivation suddenly increased to the fourth level right before his eyes!

Chapter 1031 - Perfect Physique (2)

Chapter 1031 - Perfect Physique (2)

"Oh, yeah. I'm not sure what happened, but my cultivation was reduced to Spirit Apprentice after consuming the Perfect Tempering Ginseng." Yuan casually said, leaving them speechless.

"H-How can you be so calm about this?! You just went from being a peak Spirit Lord to a Spirit Apprentice! And the tournament is in two days! Even if you have a perfect physique, you won't be able to do anything in the tournament!" Huang Xiao Li exclaimed.

"The Perfect Tempering Ginseng reduced your cultivation? That's impossible! The treasure has no such side effects!" Huang Chen exclaimed in a panicked manner. After all, he would be responsible for Yuan's lost cultivation since he was the one who handed Yuan the Perfect Tempering Ginseng.

"Calm down. Although it's true that my cultivation is gone, my body feels a lot stronger than when I was a Spirit Lord. If you don't believe me, you can try hitting me. As for my spiritual energy... It won't take much effort for me to return to my original cultivation base." Yuan explained to them.

"Are you for real? You feel stronger even though your cultivation was reduced to such a state? What kind of phenomenon is this?" Huang Xiao Li mumbled in a dazed voice.

He nodded, "Go ahead. Hit me with your strongest attack. I will even remove my armor."

Yuan removed his Invisible Dragon Cloak and gestured for Huang Xiao Li to hit him.

However, Huang Xiao Li was hesitant to strike a Spirit Apprentice with her cultivation.

"Don't worry, I will be fine." Yuan showed her a confident smile.

She suddenly recalled how Yuan was able to defeat a giant with his raw strength.

"Don't blame me if you die from this!" Huang Xiao Li shouted at him before unleashing her strongest martial technique backed by her full cultivation base.

"Ha!"

Huang Xiao Li plunged her palms directly into Yuan's chest.

Boom!

The entire room shook for a brief moment from the impact, yet Yuan remained standing in the same spot without moving even a millimeter.

"No way..." Huang Xiao Li muttered with a baffled look on her face.

"See? I told you. I barely even felt your attack just now." Yuan said with a gentle smile on his face, treating Huang Xiao Li's attack as though it was a baby's playful punch.

"Does this mean you'll still participate in the Tournament of Strength?" Huang Chen asked.

"Of course." He nodded.

"Very well. Then you must restore your cultivation as soon as possible. If you need any help, we have plenty of treasures—"

Yuan raised his hand and gestured for Huang Chen to stop.

"You have already done enough by giving me the Perfect Tempering Ginseng. The tournament is in two days, right? Then I have plenty of time."

"If you say so." Huang Chen nodded.

Yuan returned to his room shortly after to cultivate.

'My cultivation speed is at least four to five times faster than before... At this rate, I should barely return to being a Spirit King right before the tournament.'

Thus, Yuan would spend the next two days cultivating nonstop.

Meanwhile, in the spectators' room, Chu Liuxiang mumbled in a dazed voice after seeing Yuan's new appearance.

"My god... I didn't think it would be possible for Yuan to become even more handsome than he already is, but he's exceeded my expectations!"

Meixiu didn't say anything, but her gaze when looking at Yuan was akin to a young maiden who was falling in love for the first time.

Li Jinxi swallowed nervously after seeing Yuan's new physique. In her eyes, that was the most attractive part of him, and she couldn't help but imagine how it looked underneath his clothes, causing her mouth to become watery.

"A-As expected of a legendary treasure... Only the Perfect Tempering Ginseng could possibly create such a miracle..." Feng Yuxiang sighed, feeling a little dejected that she couldn't get a closer look at the treasure.

"Hey, Meixiu, do you think this treasure will affect Yuan's real body?" Chu Liuxiang asked Meixiu in a low voice.

"I don't know... But considering how powerful the treasure is, I wouldn't be surprised if it does."

"I'm going to check his body! Be right back!"

Chu Liuxiang logged off Cultivation Online before Meixiu could even respond.

After removing her helmet, Chu Liuxiang turned to look at Yuan, who was sleeping right beside her.

'Hmm... He doesn't seem any different. Maybe it takes some time before the treasure affects his real body?'

Chu Liuxiang returned to the spectators' room shortly after.

"Nothing yet, but I won't lose hope just yet!" Chu Liuxiang said to Meixiu.

Two days later, Yuan stopped cultivating and opened his eyes.

'Peak Spirit Grandmaster, huh? I am on the verge of breaking through to Spirit Lord, so I might have a breakthrough during the tournament.' Yuan thought to himself after inspecting his own body.

He left the room to meet up with the Huang Family afterward.

"We're all ready to go. What about you, Yuan?" Huang Chen asked him.

"I am ready as well." He nodded.

"Good heavens, you've managed to increase your cultivation from Spirit Apprentice to peak Spirit Grandmaster in just two days? Just how monstrous are your talents?" Huang Xiao Li was baffled when she saw his cultivation.

Yuan and the Huang Family left the hotel and started making their way to the location of the tournament.

Although they didn't know where to go, they only needed to follow everyone else in the street, as they were all going the same direction.

After walking for almost two hours, they would eventually arrive at a massive square where a single colossal stage existed in the center.

However, there were so many giants in the square that all of the humans there had to fly if they wanted to see anything.

Not far away from the stage, there was a large platform supporting a colossal throne, where a handsome giant with golden hair sat. Of course, this man was Giant Emperor Kulas, and he had a bored expression on his face.

However, that changed when he noticed Yuan's presence somewhere in the crowd, and a wide smile appeared on Giant Emperor Kulas' face.

'Show me a grand performance, Tian Yang!'

Chapter 1032 - Ancestral Tablet

Chapter 1032 - Ancestral Tablet

While Yuan waited with the Huang Family for the Tournament of Strength to begin, countless players in the Spirit Heaven were busy looking for the treasures that Yuan had hidden for his event.

Even though it has been over two weeks since Meixiu revealed the location of the treasures to the world on behalf of Yuan, only half of the treasures had been found, so the treasure hunt was still in progress.

In fact, the players' excitement and passion only grew stronger with every passing day.

However, because of this seemingly innocent treasure hunt, thousands of players have died to other players because whenever a treasure is found, there would be a massive war to acquire it.

Although it was never Yuan's intention to cause such chaos, what's done has already been done, and nobody blamed him for the chaos.

"Bastards! I found this treasure first! Get your hands off me!"

"Nonsense! It doesn't matter who finds it first! The last person to hold it will be the rightful owner!"

The residents of Spirit Heaven were dumbfounded by the commission caused by the players. In their eyes, most players were rouge cultivators, and it was not normal for so many rouge cultivators to gather in one spot, so they couldn't help but keep watch of the situation.

When the residents of Spirit Heaven realized that the players were looking for treasures, they also joined in on the fun.

Even though Yuan was no longer in Spirit Heaven, he was still causing mayhem there.

Meanwhile, Chairman Lee was laughing his ass off as he watched the chaos from a safe distance.

Since Yuan had given him special treatment for his help, he didn't need to fight for any treasures.

"I am truly thankful to Chairman Zhao for his foolishness! If he didn't offend Yuan, I wouldn't have taken his place and became friends with Yuan!" Chairman Lee laughed out loud.

Of course, Chairman Zhao was not the only one who had received special treatment.

White Lotus, Xia Jingyi, and Yu Rou also received their own Divine-grade treasures.

About ten minutes after Yuan arrived at the square with the Huang Family, Giant Emperor Kulas stood up from his throne and swept the crowd with his profound gaze.

The noise in the square immediately died down, and everyone there turned to focus on Giant Emperor Kulas

"Welcome to the Tournament of Strength, where the strongest warriors in the Giant's Continent are born. In the Tournament of Strength, only one thing matters— your physique and raw prowess." Giant Emperor Kulas' voice rippled throughout the whole city.

"There are only three rules in the tournament. One, you are not allowed to step on the stage with any treasures on your body. We have uniforms prepared for all participants. Besides this uniform and your own body, you will bring nothing else onto the stage."

"For the second rule, you are not allowed to use any martial techniques during the match. The only technique you are allowed to use are body enhancement techniques. In other words, anything that doesn't directly affect your body is strictly forbidden!"

"Last but not least, you are not allowed to consume any kind of medicine or pills during the match. Before the match begins, you are required to consume a Body Cleansing Pill, which will remove anything unnatural affecting your body, so any pills or treasures that you have consumed beforehand will be rendered useless."

"If you dare to disobey these rules and cheat before my presence, I will personally rip your head off your body. Did I make myself clear?" Giant Emperor Kulas narrowed his eyes at them.

"Yes, Your Majesty!" Everyone responded in a clear voice.

"Now then... As for the qualifications to participate in the tournament. I don't care if you're a human or a giant, if you can create even the slightest crack on this Ancestral Tablet, I will allow you to participate in the tournament for a chance to acquire the title of Colossal."

The next moment, Yuan watched as two massive giants wearing golden armor carried a large black boulder onto the stage.

Even though the boulder itself was smaller than either one of these giants, it required two of them to carry it.

"The Ancestral Tablet is made out of the most durable material that can be found in this continent, and it has a special property that gives them extreme resistance against spiritual energy, essentially making them invulnerable to all spiritual attacks. However, that doesn't make them vulnerable to physical damage. Not only are they durable against spiritual energy, they are also incredibly durable against physical damage. In order to participate in the tournament, you must strike the Ancestral Tablet with nothing but your fist and make a crack in it. Simple, right?"

Everybody there was left speechless by Giant Emperor Kulas' last words. Even though the task sounded simple, it was actually an incredibly difficult requirement that will eliminate the majority of people there today!

"I have one more announcement before we begin the qualifiers." Giant Emperor Kulas suddenly said.

And he continued, "The winner of this year's tournament will not only receive the title of Colossal and a Mythic-rank body refinement technique, he will also earn the right to take my youngest daughter as their bride."

"What?!"

Several people there exclaimed in a shocked voice after hearing such words.

'Giant Emperor Kulas has a daughter?' Yuan raised an eyebrow.

In the midst of the commotion, a figure suddenly appeared on the stage.

This person was an unbelievably beautiful woman with long golden hair and a pair of emerald eyes, but she did not have the physique of a giant.

Yuan's eyes widened when he saw this woman on the stage.

"T-That's Xie Mey! She was the Giant Emperor's daughter all along?!" Huang Xiao Li exclaimed beside him.

Indeed, this woman turned out to be Xie Mey, who had accompanied them to this city.

"Greetings, warriors. Just as my father said, I will consider marrying the person who will bear the title Colossal for the next 100 years." Xie Mey spoke in a gentle voice as she swept the crowd with her gaze, stopping when her gaze met Yuan's. When that happened, a bright smile appeared on her face.

'This woman...' Yuan shook his head inwardly, wondering why he didn't realize her true identity sooner when she had the same features as her father.

Chapter 1033 - Ancestral Tablet (2)

Chapter 1033 - Ancestral Tablet (2)

"Good heavens, the winner of the tournament will have a chance to marry Princess Meiya? This means that the winner will not only become the next Colossal, but he will also join the royal family! This is a once-in-a-lifetime chance!"

The giants there were extremely excited.

"Princess Meiya? Is that her real name?" Huang Xiao Li mumbled in a pondering voice.

"Forget about her name. I am more interested in her figure." Yuan suddenly said.

"H-Her figure?! So you like women with that kind of body, huh?" Huang Xiao Li said as she stared at Meiya's hourglass body.

"Huh?" Yuan raised his eyebrows. "No, that's not what I am talking about. I'm wondering why her physique resembles that of a human when her father is that massive."

"Ah, I heard that female giants naturally have a smaller frame than male giants. Furthermore, I doubt that's her real size. The royal family has a body refining technique that can alter their body size." Huang Chen explained.

"I see... That's why Giant Emperor Kulas shrunk in size when I saw him again..."

Sometime later, those who wanted to participate in the tournament started testing their strength against the Ancestral Tablet.

"Ha!"

A 21 meter-tall giant stood before the Ancestral Tablet and punched it with all of his might, causing the entire thing to tremble.

However, that was all. The strike was strong enough to make the Ancestral Tablet tremble, but it wasn't strong enough to cause any damage to it.

"I-Impossible..." The giant muttered in a dazed voice as he stared at the spot he'd just punched, seemingly in disbelief.

"Get out of the way, you weakling!" The giant behind him suddenly pushed him aside and punched the Ancestral Tablet as well.

Dong!

The Ancestral Tablet shook violently.

The giant removed his fist from the rock with a confident smile on his face, but when he couldn't see any cracks on the Ancestral Tablet, his complexion paled.

"Hahaha! Don't open your mouth if you have no strength to back it up! Get out of my way!"

One by one, both giants and humans would take their chances at the Ancestral Tablet.

However, even after going through hundreds of participants, not a single person has managed to damage the Ancestral Tablet.

An hour later, someone finally managed to damage the Ancestral Tablet, and it was a female giant.

"S-She really did it! She cracked the Ancestral Tablet!" The judge overseeing it announced after seeing the small crack on the rock.

Shortly after the female giant cracked the Ancestral Tablet, the damage actually restored itself until it looked brand new.

'What interesting material...' Yuan thought to himself, and he imagined making an armor out of it.

Sometime later, after thousands of people had gone on the stage, Yuan finally decided it was his turn to approach the stage.

However, the moment he stepped on the stage, Giant Emperor Kulas' voice resounded, "You don't need to qualify for the tournament, Tian Yang. You'll participate in the tournament regardless of your result."

"..." Yuan turned to look at Giant Emperor Kulas with raised eyebrows.

"Is he the rumored rival of His Majesty? I heard about him."

"Me too... I wonder how strong he is..."

The people there mumbled to each other.

"Even if you say that, I want to test my strength." Yuan suddenly said.

Giant Emperor Kulas narrowed his eyes and pondered for a moment before silently nodding his head.

Yuan approached the Ancestral Tablet the next moment and prepared to strike it.

After taking a deep breath, Yuan punched the Ancestral Tablet with all of his strength.

BOOM!

The entire arena shook when Yuan's fist landed on the Ancestral Tablet.

It was clear to everyone there that Yuan's strike was the strongest thus far. However, when Yuan removed his fist from the Ancestral Tablet, everyone was shocked to see not even the slightest crack on it.

Giant Emperor Kulas' narrowed his eyes at the Ancestral Tablet.

'Not bad...' A smile appeared on his face for some reason.

Yuan stared at the rock with a pondering face, and without saying anything, he turned around and walked off the stage.

"Looks like we have overestimated that human. He couldn't even do anything to the Ancestral Tablet. He doesn't qualify to participate in the tournament, but since His Majesty gave him special treatment, he'll still be able to enter... How unfair."

The giants there complained amongst themselves in a low voice, especially those that had failed to pass the qualifications. They despised Yuan for being allowed to participate in the tournament even though he clearly didn't qualify.

However, nobody there dared to complain out loud.

Sometime later, after several more people struck the Ancestral Tablet, the 13th person to go after Yuan's turn shocked everybody there with his results.

"H-He shattered the Ancestral Tablet! How is that possible?!"

"Holy heavens! I have never seen anything like this before!"

"Who is that man?! His prowess must be near His Majesty's level if he could destroy the Ancestral Tablet!" The spectators were in shock.

It was not just the spectators. Even the person who destroyed the Ancestral Tablet appeared to be quite shocked by the results.

Unbeknownst to these people, Yuan's strike had destroyed the core of the Ancestral Tablet during his turn, severely weakening the Ancestral Tablet, hence why this random person was able to shatter the rock even though his strike wasn't anything out of the ordinary.

Of course, Giant Emperor Kulas was aware of this, but he didn't say anything.

"What should we do now, Your Majesty? The Ancestral Tablet is broken and it'll take some time to prepare a new one." The judge asked him.

"There's no need. 40 people have passed the qualifications— that is more than enough. We will end the qualification here and begin the tournament."

"Yes!"

Once the stage was clean again, Giant Emperor Kulas called all 40 participants onto the stage.

The majority of the participants were unsurprisingly giants. As for humans, there were only four of them that had qualified, including Yuan.

Chapter 1034 Number 3

Chapter 1034 Number 3

All 40 participants stood on the stage after Giant Emperor Kulas announced the end of the qualifiers when the Ancestral Tablet was destroyed.

"The 40 of you will now fight against each other until only one of you remains undefeated. We will decide the matches through a lottery system." Giant Emperor Kulas snapped his fingers, summoning someone onto the stage.

This person was holding onto a metal tray that had 40 storage pouches on it.

"Every storage pouch will have a number inside, from number one to twenty. Those that have picked the same number will be fighting against each other. Simple, right? Go ahead and choose your pouches."

Yuan and the other participants went to grab their storage pouch.

Once everyone had one in their grasp, they opened it to retrieve a piece of paper with a number on it.

'Number three...' Yuan read the number on his paper in his head.

"If your number is not one, get off the stage." The judge on the stage said to them a moment later.

Everyone there but the two male giants with the number one left the stage.

The judge handed each of them a Body Cleansing Pill to swallow and a pair of white uniforms to change into.

Once the pill took effect and they changed clothes, Giant Emperor Kulas signaled the beginning of the fight.

BOOM!

The two giants on the stage immediately began striking each other with their bare fist, each of their strikes causing the stage to tremble and creating ripples in the air.

Yuan swallowed nervously after seeing the fierceness of these giants. Compared to Sorgi, these two were on another level, perhaps several levels higher even.

"H-Hey... Yuan... Are you sure you'll be fine? Each of their strikes feels strong enough to shatter a real mountain..." Huang Xiao Li tapped his shoulders and asked him in a nervous voice.

"Let's hope so..." Yuan said with a bittersweet smile on his face.

Despite having a perfect physique, he wasn't completely confident in winning the tournament, as he had underestimated the difficulty of it.

Over the next two hours, the giants on the stage would repeatedly strike each other without stopping for more than a few seconds, almost as if they had unlimited stamina and their bodies were indestructible.

Their bodies began turning red after three hours, and in the fourth hour, the spectators could finally see blood being shed.

Yuan and the Huang Family expected the fight to end soon in their condition, but to their absolute shock, these two giants continued to abuse their bodies for another three hours.

The whole fight had lasted 7 hours, and by the end of the fight, not a single bone in their body was left unharmed with most of them shattered into many pieces.

"How in heaven's name will they continue to fight the next match in such a condition?" Huang Xiao Li mumbled to herself after seeing their broken bodies.

It was a miracle that neither of them had died, but they were definitely on the verge of death.

"Winner— Warrior Kozus!" The judge announced.

After the fight ended, the judge handed both of the participants a pill that Yuan had never seen before.

During the next few minutes after they swallowed the pill, their bodies could be seen recovering at a rapid rate, and by the end, their bodies looked completely fine, almost as if the match had never occurred.

While the giants healed their injuries, some of the servants went on the stage to clean the blood until it was essentially new.

Once the first two participants left the stage, the next two entered the stage.

This time, it was a giant against a human— a female human at that. .

However, nobody there dared to ridicule the female human, as she had qualified to stand on the stage by cracking the Ancestral Tablet, something the majority of the people there had failed to achieve.

The two of them changed into a white uniform and consumed a Body Cleansing Pill a few minutes later.

After bowing to each other, they started punching each other.

The giant was over 20 meters tall while the female human was only around 1.65 meters— it was like watching an ant fighting an elephant. However, despite the difference in their sizes, the female human did not immediately lose to the giant and even gave up a good fight.

Although the fight lasted only half as long as the previous match, it was still very shocking to the spectators, as the female human had actually managed to defeat the giant!

"Winner— Warrior Mu Shiying!"

"She actually won..." Huang Xiao Li muttered in a dazed voice as she stared at the tall beauty standing on the stage, her body soaked in sweat and blood.

While the participants for the second match recovered their injuries, Yuan prepared to enter the stage.

"You're next, right?" Huang Xiao Li asked him.

"Yes, I am." He nodded.

"Then take this. It'll help you." Huang Xiao Li suddenly retrieved a wooden box from her spatial ring and handed it to him.

"Huh? You know I cannot use any treasures before the match." Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"Just take it." She urged him.

Yuan accepted the box and opened it.

His eyes widened when he saw what was resting inside the box.

"Good luck, Yuan." Huang Xiao Li said to him with a smile on her face.

"Yes... Thank you."

Yuan smiled back at her before absorbing the golden orb of light inside the box.

After absorbing the orb of light, Yuan could feel his muscles becoming even sturdier.

<+500,000 Physical Strength>

<+500,000 Physical Defense>

"The next participants may enter the stage!" The judge's voice resounded a moment later.

"I'll be right back." Yuan said to the Huang Family before approaching the massive platform, and he could feel the gaze of everyone there staring at him.

The moment he stepped onto the stage, the scenery began to change, and Yuan found himself back at the Stairway to Heaven a few seconds later.

"What a place to stop the trial..." he sighed out loud.

Chapter 1035 Kulas

Chapter 1035 Kulas

"Congratulations on passing the second trial, Master." Tian'er appeared before him shortly after he returned to the Stairway to Heaven.

Yuan turned to look at her with a serious expression on his face, "Tian'er, I have some questions for you before I continue the trial. Why did the Perfect Tempering Ginseng affect my body even though that shouldn't be possible?"

Tian'er tilted her head and spoke in a calm voice, "Why shouldn't it be possible?"

"I mean... I get that I can learn techniques while inside the Stairway to Heaven, but the treasures affecting my actual body doesn't make any sense. Everything should be a simulation, so it shouldn't be possible to actually affect my body."

A profound smile appeared on Tian'er's small face as she spoke, "While it's true that the trials are all simulations created by the Stairway to Heaven... The treasures are actually real. The Stairway to Heaven is more than it appears. It's not only a bridge that connects the Nine Heavens, it's also a vault full of treasures stored by the previous Masters."

Yuan's body trembled in shock after hearing Tian'er's words.

"The Stairway to Heaven... is a treasure vault...?" he muttered in a dazed voice.

"That's right. However, only the Master has access to these treasures, hence why nobody is aware of it." Tian'er continued.

Yuan fell to his knees after learning the truth and coming to a realization.

'I could've acquired so many priceless treasures at the Colossal Tower, but I wasted such a chance because I assumed the treasures were fake! What a blunder!' he cried inwardly.

"Wait! Even if I didn't acquire the treasures during the trial, the treasure should still exist somewhere in the Stairway to Heaven, right?!" Yuan suddenly asked Tian'er.

She nodded and said, "If you wish to have access to the vault, you'll need to continue climbing the Stairway to Heaven, as this place is also a training device for you."

"I understand. Thank you for the explanation."

Yuan climbed the staircase shortly after, ascending to the third trial.

"This appears to be your final trial, Master." Tian'er said to him.

'Is this going to be a continuation of the previous trial? Or is it going to be something entirely different?' Yuan closed his eyes and wondered to himself as the scenery began to change.

When he opened his eyes, he found himself standing on a platform. However, the platform looked different than the last one he saw. It was much smaller, and he couldn't see any giants around him.

Yuan quickly noticed a figure standing in front of him. This person was a young man with long blonde hair that shone like gold under the sunlight, and he was a head shorter than Yuan, but he emanated an aura that was far superior.

Yuan ignored this person for now to look at his surroundings, and he was immediately surprised by the scenery, as he appeared to be surrounded by clouds.

'Where am I? What kind of trial is this?' Yuan wondered to himself.

Ding!

<You have started your third trial in the Stairway to Heaven>

<Defeat 'Kulas'>

<Defeat 'Kulas' three times for a special reward>

'Kulas?' Yuan raised an eyebrow upon seeing this familiar name.

After realizing the situation, he turned to look at the young man standing not far away from him.

"Giant Emperor Kulas?!"

Yuan didn't recognize him immediately because he looked much younger than the Giant Emperor Kulas from the previous trial, not to mention his size.

"Who the hell are you calling the Giant Emperor? Stop daydreaming and fight me already, Tian Yang!" Kulas shouted while pointing his fingers at Yuan.

Yuan's eyes widened with shock.

'What is going on? Why does he look human? I thought Giant Emperor Kulas was born a giant! Is this the Stairway to Heaven messing with me, or is there something I am missing here?'

Kulas spoke again, "Remember! No weapons or treasures! This is how a real man should fight— with their bare hands!"

He showed Yuan his fists and his arms that were bulging with muscle and veins.

Yuan tossed aside all his questions temporarily and held his fists in front of him.

"Here I come!" Kulas suddenly dashed towards him.

Whoosh!

Kulas swung his fist at Yuan at lightning speed.

'What?!'

The speed of Kulas' strike was so fast that Yuan could only see a blurred arm for a split second before feeling intense pain in his body, as Kulas' fist had struck him directly in his body.

When Kulas struck Yuan's body, it felt like someone had shot a cannon ball at him. If it wasn't for his perfect physique and enhanced body, Kulas' strike would've made a hole in his body.

After being struck, Yuan immediately retreated to gain some distance.

'Shit! It hurts!' Yuan nearly fell to his knees from the pain.

"What's wrong, Tian Yang? You don't look so good. I have been waiting for this moment—the day that I will finally defeat you! Ahaha!" Kulas laughed out loud.

Yuan showed a bittersweet smile, 'Even with the perfect physique, this trial won't be easy...'

"Here I come again!" Kulas warned him before rushing at him again.

'I can't react to his strikes, so I can only endure them!'

Yuan activated the Golden Mountain Body Refinement and discarded all thoughts of avoiding, only focusing on attacking back.

Whoosh!

Yuan gritted his teeth and prepared for the strike.

The moment Kulas' fist landed on his body, Yuan struck back with his own fist.

Kulas' eyes widened with surprise after feeling the strength behind Yuan's strike.

"Not bad! Let's see how long you can last!" Kulas shouted as he threw a second punch, then a third, and a fourth.

Yuan would tank all of Kulas' strikes with his bare body before retaliating with his own attack, and over the next few hours, the two of them would continue exchanging blows in such a manner, almost as though they were participating in the Tournament of Strength.

Chapter 1036 Kulas(2)

A few hours have passed since Yuan and Kulas started battering each other relentlessly like crazy.

Even though every strike was accompanied by intense pain, there was a smile on Yuan's face.

The same goes for Kulas, who was smiling from ear to ear as their blood splattered all over the floor.

"I don't think I have the stomach to watch this..." Chu Liuxiang turned away from the pond after seeing Yuan's bloodied body.

Meixiu was also having a hard time watching Yuan suffer such brutal abuse.

However, Li Jinxi watched them with an intense gaze, almost as if she was completely absorbed in their fight. In fact, her gaze showed signs of envy.

"Despite the bloody scene, the Young Master seems to be enjoying it. In fact, he's even tempering his body with his opponent's attacks." Feng Yuxiang said.

"Didn't he already achieve a 'perfect physique' through the Perfect Tempering Ginseng? Why does he still need to temper his body?" Chu Liuxiang asked.

Xiao Hua then spoke, "Just because Brother Yuan has a perfect physique doesn't mean he has an invincible body and no longer needs to train. Having a perfect physique just means that he has the ideal body for tempering his body, allowing him to progress faster than other body refiners."

"I see..." Chu Liuxiang mumbled.

"The Young Master seems to be progressing at a rapid rate. In the beginning, his face would twist with pain every time he is struck, but his face barely moves now. He's not only gotten used to the pain, but his body is also strengthening to the point where his opponent's strikes are no longer as effective. It won't be long before the Young Master wins the fight." Feng Yuxiang explained further.

Sure enough, after exchanging blows with each other for another hour, Kulas became the first to fall to his knees.

"You're a crazy bastard, Tian Yang... No matter how many times I punch you, you won't go down, and it even seems like you're getting stronger. How is that possible?" Kulas muttered in an exhausted voice as he knelt on the ground.

"Who knows." Yuan responded with a similarly exhausted voice.

Of course, the only reason he was still standing was due to his perfect regeneration that would heal all of his internal injuries and more within moments after Kulas inflicted them.

"Anyways, this is your win." Kulas then said.

"Let's have another match." Yuan immediately said afterward.

Kulas looked at him with wide eyes.

"Nah! Forget it! I won't defeat you even if we fight a hundred times!"

Yuan was a little taken aback by Kulas' refusal.

'If he refuses to fight me, I won't get the special reward! I need to think of something quick!'

After pondering for a moment, Yuan suddenly showed Kulas a mocking smile, "You're giving up just because you lost once? What a coward. When did you lose your spine, Kulas? If you're this pathetic, don't ever come to me for another fight!"

Kulas' eyebrows suddenly twitched.

"What the fuck did you just call me?" He glared at Yuan with intense killing intent.

Yuan continued to smile, "A coward because that's what you are."

"If you want to fight so badly, I will fight you and make you regret calling me a coward! However, give me three days! We will start our second match in three days!"

"That's what I am talking about. Let's have three matches. If you can defeat me even once, I will consider it your win." Yuan said.

"Then I will see you in three days!" Kulas stood up and limped to the small building that was located at the edge of the platform.

'Does he live here? Where is this place, anyway?' Yuan wondered to himself.

Once Kulas entered the building, Yuan sat down to cultivate.

After recovering his injuries, he began walking around the edge of the place.

'It appears that we're somewhere in the sky, but what will happen if I try to leave this place?'

In order to satisfy his curiosity, Yuan flew off the edge of the platform and into the thick clouds.

After flying straight for a few seconds, Yuan came out of the clouds and arrived at another platform.

However, this platform looked exactly the same as the previous, not to mention the building in the distance and the blood on the floor.

Yuan tried flying towards another direction, but he was still brought back to the same place.

'So I am limited to this place for this trial, huh?'

Besides the house that Kulas had entered, there was a small tree behind the building as well as a small pond that was filled with clear water.

Yuan approached the tree and the pond.

There was nothing out of the ordinary about the tree, but the pond was just deep enough to be used as a bath.

Yuan narrowed his eyes on the water. Although the water looked ordinary at glance, he could sense a faint aura coming from it.

After pondering for a moment, he placed a finger into the water.

'This water looks ordinary, but it actually contains an immense amount of spiritual energy! It's ideal for tempering one's body, too! Kulas probably gave me three days for a reason, this being the reason!'

After realizing that the water could be used to temper his body, Yuan quickly stripped naked before submerging his body inside the water that happened to fit his body perfectly, and he began tempering his body with it.

Meanwhile, in the spectators' room, the ladies' gazes were fixated on Yuan's perfect body.

"It wasn't obvious with his clothes on, but his body really underwent some major changes after consuming the Perfect Tempering Ginseng!" Chu Liuxiang could feel her mouth producing more saliva than usual after seeing Yuan's new body.

In fact, everyone there except Xiao Hua was ogling at Yuan's body at this moment, especially Li Jinxi, who appeared the most dazed out of everyone there.

When Xiao Hua noticed their odd expressions, she raised an eyebrow and asked in an innocent voice, "What's wrong with all of you? Is there something wrong with Brother Yuan?"

Chapter 1037 Kulas(3)

Chapter 1037 Kulas(3)

"No... There's nothing wrong..." The ladies in the room responded to Xiao Hua's question with a somewhat rosy face.

Three days later, Yuan opened his eyes when Kulas came out of the building.

"What are you doing? Get out of there and fight me! I'm ready for our rematch!" Kulas said to him.

"Alright. Give me a moment." Yuan jumped out of the small pond and got dressed before going to stand in front of Kulas.

"Ready?" Kulas asked with a confident smile on his face.

'His aura has improved tremendously in just three days. I reckon that he's at least 30 percent stronger than before...' Yuan thought to himself after seeing Kulas' aura that made it seem as though the space around him was distorting.

However, it was not just Kulas who had improved over the past three days.

Yuan's physique also experienced significant improvements after tempering himself in the clear water.

"Then let's go!" Kulas suddenly stepped forward and punched his fist at Yuan.

Yuan immediately activated Golden Mountain Body Refinement and stood still, letting Kulas hit him directly in his chest.

A ripple swept the air after the impact, and Yuan could feel his muscles screaming in pain, but he endured it and retaliated with his own fist.

The way they fought each other was the exact same as before. It was more of an endurance challenge than a proper fight, but neither of them complained.

Kulas enjoyed fighting like this as it got his blood pumping with excitement. As for Yuan, he couldn't ask for a better training partner. His body would become studier, more refined, and stronger with every strike, so he had no reason to complain.

After a hundred strikes, Kulas suddenly roared, and his body grew slightly larger.

'This is!' Yuan's eyes widened with surprise after seeing Kulas' sudden transformation.

A wide smile appeared on Kulas' face as he sent his fist flying at Yuan.

Yuan, who had no intention of avoiding the strike, could feel an immense pressure coming from Kulas' fist.

"Ah!"

Yuan cried out in pain for the first time when his right arm was sent flying by Kulas' attack.

"Yuan!"

"Young Master!"

"Brother Yuan!"

The ladies in the spectators' room exclaimed when they saw Yuan's entire arm fly off his shoulder after being struck by Kulas, their faces turned pale, as they have never seen Yuan suffering such a grievous wound before except the time when he was in the Mystic Realm.

Yuan jumped back to gain some distance from Kulas, who remained standing there with a smile on his face.

He glanced at his severed arm that had fallen several meters away before turning to look at the injury on his body.

'What a powerful punch!' Yuan swallowed nervously as he blocked his injury with his spiritual energy, preventing any more blood loss.

Kulas suddenly started laughing, "Hahaha! How do you like my—"

However, before he could even finish his sentence, Yuan's Perfect Regeneration kicked in, growing him a new arm within seconds.

Kulas stared at Yuan with his eyes as wide as saucers.

"What the fuck did you just do?! How did you just—?! Are you even human?!" Kulas exclaimed in a shocked voice while pointing at Yuan.

"Of course I am human. What about you? Is that the Great Mammoth Body Refinement that I have heard about?" Yuan said with a smile on his face.

"So you already knew about this technique... That's right. I am currently using the Great Mammoth Body Refinement. It not only allows me to alter my body size, it even boosts my strength by a tremendous amount. As long as I am in this state, you won't be able to take a hit from me! I won this match, Tian Yang!"

"Keep dreaming. The match isn't decided just yet!"

Yuan rushed at Kulas after fully recovering from his injury.

After tanking Yuan's hit, Kulas swung back.

However, to his surprise, Yuan didn't avoid his attack like he'd anticipated. In fact, Yuan did the complete opposite by blocking the attack with his own fist.

"Agh!"

Yuan gritted his teeth when he felt his muscles tearing apart and all of the bones in his arm shatter, and in the midst of Kulas' shock, Yuan used his other arm to strike back.

Kulas retreated several steps afterward.

"Hahahaha! As expected of my rival! You're full of surprises, Tian Yang!" Kulas laughed like a maniac as he rushed at Yuan again.

Several hours later, Kulas knelt on the bloodied ground with a look of disbelief on his face.

"You're a freaking monster, Tian Yang..." he muttered in a low voice.

"I can say the same to you, Kulas." Yuan said with a smile on his face, but his entire body was soaked in blood, looking as if he'd just taken a dip in a bath of blood.

"It's not over yet, Tian Yang! One more match! I have a feeling that I will be able to defeat you in the next match!" Kulas glared at him with a confident gaze.

"Sure." Yuan nodded.

"Seven days! I will see you in seven days!" Kulas slowly stood back up before limping towards the building.

Once Kulas disappeared inside the building, Yuan immediately entered the pond and began cultivating.

Five days later, Yuan opened his eyes and turned to look at the building with a frown on his face.

Even though Kulas was still inside the house, his aura had grown to the point where it was leaking out of the building.

"This isn't good. At this rate, he'll definitely defeat me during our third match." Yuan sighed inwardly.

However, there was no way for him to significantly increase his strength in the next two days.

'If I want to defeat Kulas in two days, I will need to use the golden aura.'

Unfortunately, he still doesn't have the capability to use the golden aura at will.

'Looks like I will have to force it to come out...' Yuan swallowed nervously after recalling how painful it was afterward.

However, he didn't have any choice.

Thus, after mentally preparing himself, Yuan activated the nameless technique.

Chapter 1038 Heaven's Supremacy

After activating the nameless technique, a crimson aura began emerging from Yuan's body.

He took several deep breaths before increasing the intensity of the technique.

In the spectators' room, the ladies were shocked when they saw what Yuan was doing.

"W-Why is he suddenly using that technique again?! Did he already forget about the backlash he'd received the last time he tried to use it!?" Chu Liuxiang exclaimed after seeing the crimson aura around Yuan.

"Who knows... I'm afraid that only he knows what he is doing." Meixiu shook her head.

Several minutes later, the deafening voice resounded inside Yuan's head.

"HOW DARE YOU!"

Yuan coughed up a mouthful of blood after hearing this voice that shook all of his internal organs.

"You dare ignore my previous warning?! Do you have a death wish, brat!?"

Yuan gritted his teeth and tried his best to ignore the pain coming from all over his body.

"Who... Who are you?!" Yuan managed to mutter.

"I am above all that exists in this world! I am Heaven's Supremacy!"

"Argh!"

The pain was so unbearable that Yuan fell unconscious before he could ask any more questions.

"Yuan!"

The ladies in the spectators' room were left terrified by what they had just witnessed.

"H-He's not dead, is he...?" Li Jinxi asked in a trembling voice.

"That's ridiculous! He can't die like that!" Chu Liuxiang exclaimed.

"Calm down. Yuan is still alive." Lan Yingying suddenly said, and she continued, "If you look closely, you can see that he's still breathing. He's just unconscious."

"I don't get it... What is the Young Master trying to achieve by harming himself?" Feng Yuxiang stared at Yuan with a pondering expression on her face and an uneasy feeling in her heart.

"What about the trial...? There's only two days left before that man returns, right?" Meixiu asked.

"We can only hope for the Young Master to wake up." Feng Yuxiang sighed.

Several hours later, Yuan slowly opened his eyes.

"Where am I...?"

He pushed himself off the floor and looked around with a dazed face.

"That's right! Heaven's Supremacy! The golden aura responded to me! Does it have its own will? Just what is Heaven's Supremacy?" he pondered to himself as he sat on the ground.

After pondering for some time, Yuan took a deep breath and sat in the lotus position with a resolute face.

He then activated the nameless technique.

The ladies in the spectators' room were left speechless by his actions.

"Ah! What is he doing?! He's really doing this on purpose!" Chu Liuxiang exclaimed.

A few moments later, Yuan coughed up more blood, and the muscles in his body began squirming, almost as though it was alive.

"Aaaah!" Yuan released a deafening roar as a golden aura exploded from his body, consuming the crimson aura.

"Insolence! If you continue this reckless behavior, I will really kill you!" The ancient voice resounded once again.

"Lend me your power! I want to defeat Kulas!" Yuan said with much difficulty.

"Only those who are worthy can wield the Heaven's Supremacy! You are not worthy!" The voice boomed.

"If I am not worthy, then why are you in my body?! Why was I able to use your powers before?!"

"By pure luck!" NEW NOVEL CHAPTERS ARE PUBLISHED ON

"Bullshit!" Yuan shouted.

Although it was just for a moment, Yuan felt the pain in his body lessen.

"You don't have what it takes to use my power! You are too weak! You are not worthy!"

The pain in Yuan's body suddenly skyrocketed.

"Agh!"

He collapsed for a second time.

A few hours later, Yuan woke up and repeated the same thing.

"YOU ARE NOT WORTHY!" The voice boomed inside his head several minutes later, causing him to lose consciousness for a third time.

After waking up, he challenged the Heaven's Supremacy for the fourth time, then a fifth, and a sixth time.

When he woke up for the seventh time, Yuan realized something.

'It's not as painful as before, and I am waking up much sooner now... Perhaps this is the secret to Heaven's Supremacy!'

An excited expression appeared on Yuan's face after realizing this.

'How much longer do I have until Kulas returns?'

Yuan looked around the trial, eventually noticing a timer above him in the sky.

'I have 12 hours left until Kulas returns! I must control the Heaven's Supremacy before then!'

He immediately began challenging the Heaven's Supremacy for the seventh time.

Three hours later, Yuan woke up after arguing with the ancient voice for over 15 minutes.

After being knocked down for the eighth time, Yuan realized something else.

'The reason it's getting less painful is not because I am getting used to the pain! It's because the Heaven's Supremacy is not as rebellious! Why? If I can understand why, then maybe I will...'

Yuan recalled the times he'd used Heaven's Supremacy by chance, trying his best to remember what he'd done before triggering it.

'Excitement... I was filled with excitement, and my heart burned with the desire to win! Could it be my desire to win that triggered it? No... Not my desire... My will!'

Yuan realized that he became less afraid of the Heaven's Supremacy after challenging it multiple times— that his will had increased!

It was at this moment another voice resounded inside his head.

"In order to control the Heaven's Supremacy, you must have an Indomitable Will! A Will that will never submit! A Will that will never waver! A Will that is strong enough to overturn even the Heavens!"

This voice sounded different than the ancient voice, yet it was very familiar to him— it was Tian Yang's voice.

"An indomitable will...?" A slight smile appeared on Yuan's face.

"So that's why it kept saying that I wasn't worthy... It was trying to make me waver! It was trying to mess with my will!"

Now that he knew how to deal with the Heaven's Supremacy, Yuan sat down and activated the nameless technique for the ninth time, and on his face was a tranquil expression that one would express when they receive enlightenment.

Chapter 1039 Heaven's Supremacy(2)

Chapter 1039 Heaven's Supremacy(2)

After sitting in the lotus position without moving or doing anything for several minutes, Yuan suddenly took a long and deep breath before releasing it.

He closed his eyes and activated the nameless technique.

A few moments later, the ancient voice resounded inside his head.

"You are not worthy! You are too weak!"

However, despite what the voice claimed, Yuan barely felt any pain in his body.

'My will is not strong enough to completely neglect the voice.'

Yuan thought to himself as he suddenly decided to enter the deepest part of his consciousness where his incarnations normally resided.

However, Tian Yang and the others were nowhere to be seen.

Instead, he could see the outline of a massive entity within his consciousness, and it was emanating a subtle golden aura.

Yuan remained calm as he approached this entity without fear.

"Are you the Heaven's Supremacy's true form?"

Even when he was right in front of the entity, Yuan was unable to see its true figure or appearance, almost as if it was perfectly blended into the darkness.

"You are not worthy." The ancient voice resounded again, but it was much calmer this time.

"If you truly believe that I am not worthy, then get the hell out of my body." Yuan said with a calm expression.

The ancient voice became silent for a few moments before returning, "Did you not seek my power just recently?"

"A power that doesn't listen to its owner is useless, no matter how strong it is. Furthermore, I have the nameless technique. It's more than enough to replace you."

"THE AUDACITY!" READ LATEST CHAPTERS AT FREEWEBNOVEL. COM ONLY.

The ancient voice boomed, causing the void to tremble.

"I am the pinnacle of strength! I am the pinnacle of techniques! I am the pinnacle of treasures! I am the pinnacle of all that exists! I am the Heaven's Supremacy! There's nothing in this universe that can replace me, much less some trash like the nameless technique!"

Yuan smiled and said, "Once again, even if you are the strongest power in existence, you are useless to me if I cannot use you, just like a sword with its blade or a gun without any bullets."

"If you refuse to submit to me, I will toss you aside like trash! Without me, you are also useless, just like a weapon without someone to wield it! Even the sharpest sword in the world won't be able to threaten anyone if it's not used!"

"..."

Even though the ancient voice had mumbled something inaudible, Yuan could somehow tell that it was frustrated.

"You have three seconds to decide! In three seconds, I will leave this place and forever ignore your existence!"

"One!"

"Two!"

"Th—"

Yuan halted his voice when he noticed the massive figure suddenly shrinking in size until it was around the same size as him.

Once the shrinking stopped, the entity began approaching him, allowing Yuan to get a clearer view of it, and to his surprise, this entity now looked more like a bulky human. Furthermore, this entity appeared to have ten arms, five on each side.

"Who... No, what are you?" Yuan asked with a slight frown on his face.

"You will eventually remember, but until then, you can call me 'Shura'."

"Are you the Heaven's Supremacy's will?"

"The Heaven's Supremacy is merely a fragment of my power that I bestowed upon you. However, that does not mean it will listen to you. While the others have received its acknowledgement, you have yet to prove yourself worthy to wield its power."

"The others... as in my past lives?"

"That's right. Even Gods covet this power, yet you dare to threaten to toss it away. You're the first."

"I don't need a sword that cannot be used to defeat my enemies, no matter how sharp that sword may be." Yuan said.

"..."

After a moment of silence, Shura spoke, "Very well. Then I will allow you to wield the Heaven's Supremacy to show you what you'll be missing out on if you throw it away. However, you will only get three chances. If you do not receive the Heaven's Supremacy's acknowledgement after three uses, you won't be able to use it until you do."

"Don't disappoint me, brat."

Shura's figure disappeared shortly after.

However, right as Yuan prepared to leave the void, he heard footsteps approaching him from behind.

When he turned around, he could see a familiar face standing behind him.

"I see that you have finally recalled Shura. It will only be a matter of time before you recall everything." Tian Yang said with a profound smile on his face.

"What do you want?" Yuan asked him.

"I'm just here to give you some advice. If you want to remember your memories faster, you should really focus on improving your cultivation. You've been a Spirit Lord for far too long." Tian Yang said.

He then tilted his head to look up into the void.

"You should wake up now. Don't keep our friend waiting."

Outside Yuan's consciousness, Kulas stood before him with a frown on his face.

"If you don't wake up soon, I will toss you off this fucking platform!" Kulas shouted at him.

Yuan opened his eyes the following moment, his gaze emanating an otherworldly pressure.

As he slowly stood up, his body exuded a golden aura that flickered like flames, making it seem as if his body was engulfed in fire.

"W-What the hell is happening?" Kulas stared at Yuan with wide eyes, his confidence wavering.

"Are you ready for our rematch?" Yuan asked him in a calm voice.

Kulas swallowed nervously, but he still nodded his head, "Damn right I am ready!"

Kulas immediately moved into action by attacking first.

Yuan could tell that Kulas had become twice as strong as before, but his confidence and will remain unwavering.

"I-Impossible..." Kulas uttered in disbelief a second later, his movements completely frozen when Yuan caught his fist with a single hand.

"Heads up." Yuan said right before punching Kulas square in the face with his other hand.

Whoosh!

Kulas' body was sent flying the very next second, his body slamming into the building in the distance, completely destroying it.

Chapter 1040 Heaven's Supremacy(3)

Chapter 1040 Heaven's Supremacy(3)

"No way... What happened to the Young Master? Why did he suddenly acquire so much strength?" Feng Yuxiang was shocked after witnessing Yuan's prowess.

"It must have something to do with his golden aura. Everytime it appears, his prowess increases tremendously, almost like my nameless technique, but even my nameless technique couldn't hold a candle against his mysterious technique." Li Jinxi said.

A few moments after he was sent flying, Kulas dug himself out of the rubble and approached Yuan with a wide smile on his face.

"Not bad, Tian Yang... But you'll need more than that to defeat me!"

Kulas suddenly roared, and his body began growing larger and larger, eventually becoming a 50-meter tall giant.

"Let's see if you can catch my fist with your hand now, Tian Yang!" Kulas laughed out loud as he punched at Yuan.

The pressure coming from Kulas' fist was so strong that it pushed the clouds in the background many meters back.

However, Yuan remained indifferent, his gaze completely tranquil.

"A hand? I don't need a hand to stop your attack. A single finger is more than enough." Yuan spoke as he pointed his middle finger towards Kulas' incoming fist.

BOOM!

A massive ripple swept the place when Yuan's finger collided with Kulas' fist, sweeping away all of the clouds that surrounded them and revealing its scenery that was mostly a mountain range.

"You freaking monster..."

A terrified expression was on Kulas' face when he saw the results.

Yuan had actually managed to block his fist with a single finger! And he'd done so without being pushed back even a single step!

"Heaven's Supremacy. Remember it, Kulas, because that is what defeated you." Yuan said before throwing his punch at Kulas' fist that he'd stopped.

Whoosh!

Once again, Kulas was sent flying. However, there was nothing to stop him this time, and he was sent flying off the platform.

BOOM!

The entire mountain range trembled when Kulas landed on the ground.

[you have defeated kulas and successfully cleared the third trial]

[you have defeated kulas three times for a special reward>]

A golden orb of light suddenly emerged from the pond that Yuan had tempered his body in, and it floated towards him.

After absorbing the golden orb, a flood of memories gushed inside Yuan's head.

'This is Tian Yang's memories...' Yuan closed his eyes and digested the memories.

'I see... So this is how I met Kulas...' A small smile appeared on Yuan's face as he recalled his rivalry with Kulas and how it all began.

After he finished absorbing Tian Yang's memories, Yuan turned to look at Kulas, who was still lying on the ground, seeming unconscious.

"I hope that you're still alive out there somewhere, Kulas. I still haven't fulfilled our promise, so don't you dare die yet." Yuan mumbled in a low voice.

Unfortunately, the chances of Kulas still being alive at this moment was slim to none, as it has been tens if not hundreds of millions of years since he last met Kulas, and unless they were demons or an undying Immortal who has reached the apex of cultivation, nobody could live for that long.

Yuan returned to the Stairway to Heaven shortly after he completed his third trial.

"Congratulations, Master. You have completed all of the trials for this ascension. You can now travel to the Third Heaven." Tian'er appeared before him and said.

The ladies in the spectators' room reunited with Yuan shortly after.

"Yuan! Are you okay?!" Chu Liuxiang asked him in a worried voice.

"Why wouldn't I be okay?" he smiled. FREE WEB NOVEL. COM

"You took a lot of beating during this trial!"

"Yes, I did, but it made me stronger— a lot stronger. The Stairway to Heaven is not just a bridge that connects the Nine Heavens— it's also a training ground."

"Anyways, now that we can enter the Third Heaven, let's go. There's a lot of work that needs to be done." Yuan then said.

"Okay." The ladies there nodded.

"Please wait a moment, Master." Tian'er suddenly stopped them.

"What's the matter?"

Tian'er created a projection in front of her and said, "The Seven Legacy Families and the Ji Family have surrounded the Stairway to Heaven. You will be ambushed if you leave through the main gate."

The situation outside the Stairway to Heaven in the Third Heaven began to materialize in the projection, showing Yuan and the others the situation outside.

Yuan frowned upon seeing the ambush.

"The survivors of the Seven Legacy Families and the Ji Family must have reported you to them. What should we do, Young Master? We can either wait for them to leave, or we can go outside and kill all of them." Feng Yuxiang asked him.

Yuan rubbed his eyes and sighed, "Do I really have to spill so much blood the moment I enter the Third Heaven? I'd rather avoid fighting if I can. Because at this rate, we'll have to kill these families over and over again as we continue to ascend."

"If Master doesn't wish for a confrontation, I can make it so that you're teleported to a random location in the Third Heaven when you exit the Stairway to Heaven. This way, you will be able to enter the Third Heaven without encountering them right away." Tian'er suddenly said.

"A random location... So we won't know where we'll end up until we appear in the Third Heaven, huh..." Yuan began pondering.

"Yes, that's the only way to enter the Third Heaven without being ambushed." Tian'er nodded.

"What do you guys think?" Yuan asked the others for their opinion.

"I also would prefer it if we can avoid fighting..." Meixiu said.

"Me too." Chu Liuxiang said.

The others agreed with Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang.

"Since there is no objection, we'll do it your way, Tian'er." Yuan said to her a moment later.

"I understand. Then I will teleport you outside now. Until next time, Master." Tian'er said with a smile on her face before sending them out of the Stairway to Heaven.

Chapter 1041 Player Massacre

Chapter 1041 Player Massacre

"L-Look! There's an announcement!" The players that noticed the announcement quickly pointed at it.

"Third Heaven is open?! And it's Player Yuan who opened it!"

The players were filled with excitement after seeing the announcement even though it hasn't been that long since Yuan connected Spirit Heaven and the Lower Heavens.

The players began talking with their friends and their groups.

"Are you going to the Third Heaven?"

"Hell no. Don't you remember what happened when this realm was opened? Everyone and their mother rushed to ascend, but they quickly realized that it was a mistake since they weren't prepared for the increased difficulty. Besides Player Yuan, I doubt there are any other players out there who are capable enough to traverse the new level."

"Yeah, and we have barely scratched the surface for this level. I'll stay here for a few more months before I even think about ascending to the next level."

"No matter how illogical it may seem to ascend, there will always be people who don't care about the consequences or are too stupid to understand their situation. A lot of people will die in the next few days."

Sure enough, when news about the Third Heaven spread online, countless people rushed to the Stairway to Heaven to ascend.

In their eyes, even if it was extremely risky, the Third Heaven will have more opportunities than Spirit Heaven, and the spiritual energy there was much more plentiful, allowing them to cultivate faster.

However, these players would soon realize what they were getting themselves into— that they were walking towards a death trap.

Meanwhile, outside the Stairway to Heaven in the Third Heaven, the Seven Legacy Families and the Ji Family were still camping outside, patiently waiting to ambush Yuan.

"It's been over a month since this Yuan entered the Stairway to Heaven. Do you think he'd failed the trials and couldn't ascend?"

"He probably died inside the Stairway to Heaven."

"I doubt it. We have people watching the Stairway to Heaven in Spirit Heaven. They would've notified us by now if he failed the trial."

The leaders of the Seven Legacy Families spoke to each other as they sat down for some spiritual tea.

Several minutes later, their bodies froze when someone shouted, "The Stairway to Heaven is opening! He's coming out!"

"Get ready! Kill him the moment he steps out of the Stairway to Heaven!" The head of the Ji Family shouted, his voice alerting everyone there.

The following moment, a group of people walked out of the Stairway to Heaven with clear excitement on their faces.

"ATTACK!"

Boom!

Thousands of Cultivators launched their attacks at this group of ignorant players before they could even realize what was going on, and before they knew it, they were dead.

The world shook for a moment from so many techniques going off at once.

"Did we do it? Did we kill them?"

"We did it! We killed him! We have avenged our families!" The people there celebrated when they saw the blood splatters.

However, their celebration was cut short when someone suddenly shouted, "Wait! It's not over yet! There are more people coming out of the Stairway to Heaven!"

When the cultivators saw this, they immediately stopped celebrating to attack these innocent players that had no idea what was even going on.

"Wait... Why were there so many people? The numbers don't add up." The cultivators realized this after killing the players.

But alas, they weren't given any time to think, as more players started coming out of the Stairway to Heaven.

"T-There are more of them! Attack! Kill them all!"

The cultivators stopped thinking and merely focused on attacking the players that came out of the Stairway to Heaven. It was a massacre— one that neither side understood.

Within minutes of the massacre, the players that had been killed by the cultivators started warning the others online, and the situation spread like wildfire.

[Warning! Do not ascend to the Third Heaven! You will be killed!]

[Third Heaven is a death trap!]

[I was killed the moment I entered the Third Heaven!]

Complaints from the players that had been killed flooded the online forums and pretty much the entire internet, causing widespread shock.

"Holy shit, I am so glad that I decided to wait a few days before ascending. I dodged a bullet today."

"See! I told you that it was a bad idea to ascend so quickly!"

"But why would the NPCs attack them?"

"Who knows."

"What about Player Yuan? Since he was the first one to ascend, there's a good chance that he was also killed, right?"

The players began wondering if Yuan had also been killed by the cultivators, unaware that he was responsible for their situation.

Meanwhile, back at the Stairway to Heaven.

"There's something wrong here! Why are there so many people ascending in such a short time?! What is happening?!"

"Lord Ji! I think we have made a grave mistake! We need to stop attacking immediately!" The leaders of the Seven Legacy Families said to him.

The Lord Ji of the Third Heaven also realized that something was amiss, so he demanded for the attacks to stop.

However, it was already too late, as hundreds of players have already lost their lives because of this misunderstanding.

The cultivators waited for more players to show up so that they could ask the players about Yuan, but because of their massacre, none of the players dared to ascend anymore, and it would remain like this for an entire week.

"What the fuck is going on?! What happened to Yuan?! Did we kill him or not?!" The cultivators were at a loss, and they couldn't tell if they'd killed Yuan or not due to the chaos and misunderstandings.

The Seven Legacy Families and the Ji Family held an emergency meeting afterward. In the end, they decided to leave the scene and return home for now, leaving behind some people to investigate the situation. As for their business with Yuan, since he was nowhere to be seen and they didn't know whether they had killed him or not, they decided to consider him dead until they figured things out.

Chapter 1042 Arriving at Third Heaven

Chapter 1042 Arriving at Third Heaven

After being teleported out of the Stairway to Heaven by Tian'er, Yuan and the others found themselves somewhere in the middle of a green valley surrounded by mountains and trees.

"Looks like we have arrived safely. I was worried about the possibility of appearing in the middle of an ocean, or worse, at the bottom of one." Chu Liuxiang said as she looked around.

"Is everyone here?" Yuan looked around to make sure that nobody had strayed from the group.

Chu Liuxiang, Meixiu, Li Jinxi, Xiao Hua, Feng Yuxiang, and Li Jinxi— all six of them were there.

"Since we've been inside the Stairway to Heaven for longer than I'd anticipated, I am going to take a few days break. We'll figure out our location and where we should go afterward." Yuan said to them.

"Okay." Xiao Hua and the other two servants returned to his body before Yuan logged off with Meixiu and the others.

After logging off, the first thing Yuan noticed was Meifeng, who was cleaning his room at this moment.

"Welcome back." Meifeng said when she noticed them removing their consoles.

"I'm back." Yuan smiled.

"I can't believe that you'd actually stayed inside Cultivation Online for over a month without any breaks. Are you feeling okay?" Meifeng asked him.

"Yes, I am perfectly fine." He nodded.

And he continued, "But my stomach is not. I'm starving..."

"I'll go cook some food right now." Meifeng stopped cleaning the room and rushed to the kitchen.

"I'm going to take a shower." He said to Chu Liuxiang after Meifeng left the room.

"I'll come with you!" Chu Liuxiang said as she hopped off the bed and rushed into the bathroom.

Yuan followed her a moment later.

"Y-Yuan! Your body!" Chu Liuxiang suddenly exclaimed when she got a clearer look at his appearance after he entered the bathroom.

"My body?" Yuan looked down at his body to see that it'd become more refined and detailed. Furthermore, he noticed that he was a little taller than before.

"The Perfect Tempering Ginseng has affected your real body as well!" Chu Liuxiang said with an excited smile on her face.

"I'm not surprised, considering how powerful the treasure was." He smiled as well.

"Since it's been awhile, let me be the first to have a taste of your new body... hehe..." Chu Liuxiang suddenly said with a lustful expression on her face.

Yuan was speechless, but he didn't reject her.

After a quick shower, Chu Liuxiang pulled Yuan into the bathtub with her, where they would spend over an hour embracing each other.

Once they were both satisfied, they took another shower to wash off the sweat before leaving the bathroom and getting changed.

By the time they arrived at the dining room, Meixiu and the others were already sitting around the table.

"Welcome back, Yuan, and congratulations on passing the trial." Wang Xiuying said to him.

"Thank you."

"Yuan, there's something you should know." Meixiu suddenly said to him with a weird expression on her face.

"What happened?"

"I just heard about it, but..."

Meixiu proceeded to tell him about the player massacre that had occurred shortly after they ascended to Third Heaven.

"Seriously...?" Yuan was speechless after hearing the news. He didn't think the Seven Legacy Families and the Ji Family would attack indiscriminately.

"Hmm? Is it just me or is there something different about you, Yuan?" Wang Ming suddenly said.

"You're right... He seems a little taller than before." Wang Bingbing agreed with him.

"Yuan... Don't tell me the Perfect Tempering Ginseng had..." Meixiu swallowed nervously after the others mentioned it, as she was already used to seeing Yuan in his new body in Cultivation Online, so she didn't immediately notice.

The same went for Li Jinxi, whose mouth opened slightly after seeing his new physique.

"Long story short, I consumed a powerful treasure during the trial, and it was strong enough to affect my real body in this world as well." Yuan explained the situation to the members.

"My god... You're like a different person." Shi Lang muttered in a dazed voice.

"Well, it was a really rare treasure that only existed during the Primordial Era. There's a good chance that the treasure I consumed was the last one in existence..." Yuan said with a smile.

"Anyways, tell me more about this massacre. What is the situation now?"

"There's not much happening. The players that tried to ascend were attacked the moment they left the Stairway to Heaven. Hundreds of players died because of this incident, and the players are no longer willing to ascend for the time being." Xi Murong explained.

"That reminds me... What about you guys? I was just about to ask Meixiu before the two of you arrived. Were you guys also attacked? People online are speculating that you were also killed in the ambush." Wu Zao asked.

"No, we weren't attacked, but that's because we knew about it in advance and left the Stairway to Heaven in another way. In fact, I am the reason for the attack..." Yuan sighed.

"Huh? You're responsible for the massacre?" They all looked at him with wide eyes.

He nodded and proceeded to explain to them about his situation with the Seven Legacy Families and the massacre that had occurred right before he entered the Stairway to Heaven.

"Because of what I did to their families in Spirit Heaven, they had set up that ambush for me... I should've warned the players before I entered the Third Heaven, but it didn't occur to me at that time." He shook his head with a guilty expression on his face.

"Well, what's done is already done. These players were being foolish to begin with— I mean, why would they ascend when they don't have the qualifications in the first place? They would've died sooner or later, anyway." Wang Ming shrugged his shoulders, unable to pity the players that had been killed.

"Probably, but they didn't deserve to be killed in such a fashion." Yuan sighed.

Chapter 1043 Arriving at Third Heaven(2)

Chapter 1043 Arriving at Third Heaven(2)

"By the way, what happened to the players that were killed after they entered the Third Heaven? Do they get sent back to Spirit Heaven since they respawn in the last city they visited?" Chu Liuxiang suddenly asked.

"No, they get sent to the nearest city in Third Heaven." Xi Murong said.

"What are your plans now that you're in Third Heaven?" Wang Bingbing asked a moment later.

"I'm going to visit the Myriad of Techniques to see if they have any new techniques, then I am going to visit the Demon Sealing Clan, since I have some unfinished business with the Demon Sealing Pagoda." Yuan said.

He turned to look at Li Jinxi and asked, "What about you? Now that you're in Third Heaven, what are your plans? If you want, you can follow us to the Myriad of Techniques. I can get you some free techniques."

"Free techniques?"

Yuan nodded, "Yes, and since we don't know our location, it would be better for you to follow us until we arrive at a city. Who knows how powerful the magical beasts around us are."

"Alright, then I will bother you a little longer." Li Jinxi agreed to follow them.

Sometime later, Meifeng filled the table with a feast.

"You cooked all of this in just two hours...? Even ten people would have trouble cooking this much food in such a short time!" Wang Ming was shocked by Meifeng's inhuman capabilities.

However, despite the food filling the whole table, they would empty all of the plates in less than an hour with Yuan putting in the most effort, as he was the hungriest there.

Perhaps it was due to his new physique that required more energy, but Yuan didn't feel full even after eating half of the food on the table.

"How was the food?" Meifeng suddenly asked him.

"As always, it's perfect." FREE WEB NOVEL. COM

"Really? But you don't seem satisfied. Perhaps you're not full yet? I will make more food—"

"It's fine. I'm not full, but I don't need to be full every time I eat. As long as I don't starve, I will be fine." He stopped her.

"If you say so..."

After their meal, Yuan returned to his room and called Yu Rou to chat with her.

"Am I bothering you right now? I can call later if that's the case." Yuan asked her as he laid on the bed.

"It's okay, I needed a break anyway." Yu Rou said.

And she continued, "Congratulations, brother. I heard the news. You entered the Third Heaven, right?"

"Yes."

"Are you okay? People are saying that you were also a victim of the player massacre. Have you heard of it?" she then asked.

"I heard of it, but you don't need to worry. None of us are hurt because..." Yuan proceeded to explain the whole situation to her.

"What?! You're currently being hunted by these powerful families?! Why?!" Yu Rou was shocked to learn of this information.

"I'm not sure either, but according to the Ji Family, the Heavens want me dead." Yuan shrugged.

"The Heavens...? Is that some kind of title for someone?"

"I'm not sure either."

"What are you going to do to these people? Are you going to kill all of them?" Yu Rou suddenly asked, her voice sounding a bit worried.

"No, I won't fight them unless it's absolutely necessary. I don't want to put you guys in danger, either. They probably think I am dead right now because of the player massacre, so I'm going to travel under a new identity for now."

"Stay safe, brother. Now that I know our souls are involved, I really don't want you to hurt yourself."

"I know." FREEWEBNOVEL.COM

The two of them continued to chat with each other for another half an hour. Once the call ended, Yuan decided to get some actual sleep.

Unbeknownst to Yuan, he would not wake up for three whole days.

Three days later, Yuan woke up, feeling incredibly refreshed.

However, he was surprised to see Wang Xiuying sitting right beside him.

"Huh? What are you doing?" He asked her.

"You're finally awake! You have been sleeping for three days now, Yuan! I was just checking your condition just to make sure you're still alive."

"Three days?" Yuan's eyes widened. "I guess it's been a while since I last got some decent sleep. What about the others?"

"I told them to not worry— that you're probably just exhausted after spending so much time in Cultivation Online."

"I see... Thank you, Xiuying."

"Don't even mention it. I am the faction's nurse for a reason," she smiled.

"Anyways, now that you're awake, go let the others know that you're okay. They're all training in the field right now."

"Okay." He nodded.

After washing his face, Yuan went to the balcony and flew to the training field that was right behind their building.

The others were relieved to see that he was fine.

"Yuan, let's spar." Li Jinxi suddenly approached him.

"Sure."

Yuan started training with Li Jinxi and the others.

Over the next several days, Yuan would relax in the real world without logging into Cultivation Online. After what he'd experienced in the Stairway to Heaven, he really needed a break.

The ladies that went to the Third Heaven with him did the same, not that they could go anywhere without Yuan in Cultivation Online.

Li Jinxi would spend all of her time training her body, motivating herself with Yuan. As for Chu Liuxiang and Meixiu, besides improving their own cultivation, they would spend the rest of their time in bed with Yuan.

After an entire week had passed since Yuan ascended to the Third Heaven, they finally decided to return to Cultivation Online.

Once they were inside Cultivation Online, they picked a random direction and started flying towards that direction, hoping they would come across a city or some people to ask for directions.

After flying for almost the entire day, they finally found a group of traveling merchants for directions.

"The nearest city would be Fu Cheng City. If you continue traveling towards the south, you should reach it in an hour." The merchants said to them.

"I understand. Thank you for your help." Yuan handed them some spirit stones to show his gratitude before continuing the journey, arriving at the city about half an hour earlier than anticipated.

Chapter 1044 Returning to the Demon Sealing Clan's Grand Library

Chapter 1044 Returning to the Demon Sealing Clan's Grand Library

After arriving at Fu Cheng City, Yuan asked the guards there if they had a Myriad of Techniques in the city.

"Sorry, but we don't. If you're looking for the Myriad of Techniques, you'll have to go to Silver Heaven City." The guard said.

"Silver Heaven City...?" Yuan's eyes widened after hearing this familiar name, as this was where Tian Cheng originated from— where he was born!

"Which direction is the Silver Heaven City?" He then asked.

"If you continue going east, you should arrive in about four days using a flying treasure." The guard pointed toward the east and said.

"Thank you."

Yuan and the others continued their journey to Silver Heaven City.

"Silver Heaven City... I believe that's the largest city in Third Heaven." Feng Yuxiang said.

"It is, and I knew it very well."

"Really? How?" Feng Yuxiang asked, her face filled with curiosity.

"Because Tian Cheng was born in that city," he said with a smile.

"Tian Cheng...? The Divine Paragon was born in Silver Heaven City?"

He nodded, "Indeed."

'Tian Cheng? Who is that?' Li Jinxi wondered inwardly after hearing this unfamiliar name, as she was the only person there who didn't know about Yuan's reincarnation.

The trip took a little over 5 days because they didn't use any flying treasures, and they took breaks.

Once they arrived at Silver Heaven City, Yuan paid the entrance fee and entered the city.

'This place feels nostalgic yet completely foreign at the same time...' Yuan looked around the city with a dazed expression on his face.

Sometime later, they arrived at the Myriad of Techniques after getting the directions.

"Go ahead and look around. If you want any techniques, just pick it. I'm going to visit the Demon Sealing Clan's Grand Library." Yuan said to Li Jinxi and the others.

"Will you be gone for long?" Li Jinxi asked him.

"I'll be gone for several hours at most."

"Okay."

While Li Jinxi and the others looked around the Myriad of Techniques, Yuan went to the Demon Sealing Clan's Grand Library.

After showing the staff member his Demon Sealing Badge, the staff allowed Yuan to traverse to the Demon Sealing Clan's Grand Library.

"It's been a while..." Yuan stared at the Demon Sealing Clan's Grand Library with a nostalgic gaze. Now that he had Tian Cheng's memories, the place looked completely different and felt much more nostalgic and natural than before.

After spending a few moments feeling nostalgic, Yuan approached the Demon Sealing Clan's Grand Library.

The place was awfully quiet, almost as though he was the only person there. Of course, there was still a guard at the entrance of the building.

"What are you doing here? The Demon Sealing Clan's Grand Library is closed." The guard said to him.

"It's still closed?" Yuan was speechless. How long do they plan on keeping the place closed? The Demon Sealing Clan's Grand Library is a popular training ground for all Demon Sealers. It would hinder their growth if they kept it closed for too long.

In fact, this is the first time the Demon Sealing Clan's Grand Library has been closed since its founding.

Yuan didn't try to argue with the guard. Instead, he retrieved the communication jade slip that he'd received from Yan Hara.

"Senior, it's Yuan. I am currently at the Demon Sealing Clan's Grand Library, and I would like to challenge the Demon Sealing Pagoda again. If you're busy, I will return at another time."

After sending the message, Yuan began waiting for a response, which didn't take too long.

About a minute later, his communication jade slip trembled, and Yan Hara's voice resounded shortly after, "I missed your voice, little founder! You want to challenge the Demon Sealing Pagoda, right? Give me an hour. I will be there as soon as I can!"

'She's as energetic as ever.' Yuan smiled after hearing her voice.

Sometime later, when the guard noticed that Yuan wasn't leaving, he spoke, "Why are you still here? Unless you're a Master Demon Sealer, you're not allowed to enter no matter how long you stand out here!"

"My mentor is coming. She's a Master Demon Sealer." Yuan said to him.

"..." The guard no longer said anything and became silent.

A little over an hour later, Yuan could see a portal appearing not far away from his location, and a beautiful woman came out of it a moment later.

Naturally, it was Yan Hara.

"Little founder!" A bright smile appeared on Yan Hara's face the moment she saw his handsome face, even jogging towards him and waving at the same time.

"It's been a while, Senior." Yuan greeted her with a smile of his own.

However, Yan Hara suddenly slowed down to a halt and proceeded to stare at him with a baffled expression on her face.

"Senior?" Yuan raised his eyebrows in a questioning manner.

"Little founder... Did something happen to you? Why do you look the same yet so different at the same time? You even grew a few inches..." Yan Hara asked as she inspected his body at a closer distance.

She suddenly grabbed his arm and inspected his muscles by squeezing it.

"Wow, your muscles are flawlessly refined! What kind of treasure did you consume?"

"Perfect Tempering Ginseng," he said with a profound smile on his face.

"...What?" Yan Hara stopped all of her movements and stared at him with a shocked look on her face.

"I'm just joking. This is the result of my training." Yuan chuckled a moment later.

"I-I thought so! You almost gave me a heart attack, little founder! After all, the Perfect Tempering Ginseng no longer exists in this world! They've been extinct for millions of years!" Yan Hara sighed afterward.

"Anyways, let's continue talking inside." She said as she approached the Grand Library.

"Greetings, Senior Yan." The guard greeted her.

"We're going to use the Demon Sealing Pagoda," she said.

"Of course." The guard opened the doors for them without any hesitation.

Yan Hara led Yuan into the building shortly after.

Chapter 1045 Returning to the Demon Sealing Pagoda

Chapter 1045 Returning to the Demon Sealing Pagoda

After entering the Demon Sealing Clan's Grand Library, Yan Hara led Yuan to her room.

"Take a seat. I'll make some tea for us." Yan Hara said to him.

A few minutes later, she returned with a teapot and two teacups.

"So, what have you been up to lately?" She asked him after sitting down and pouring him a cup of tea.

"Thank you." Yuan sipped on the tea a couple of times before speaking, "Nothing much, really. I just ascended to the Third Heaven."

"That fast? If I recall correctly, you'd just ascended to the Second Heaven not long ago." Yan Hara said with slightly widened eyes.

"Yes, and I intend on ascending to the Fourth Heaven as soon as I finish up some business in the Third Heaven, the Demon Sealing Pagoda being one of them." He nodded.

"I see... You're moving up faster than I'd anticipated. Of course I am not complaining. The faster you arrive in the Seventh Heaven, the sooner I will get to see you." Yan Hara smiled.

"But you're already seeing me now?" Yuan raised an eyebrow.

"This place doesn't count!" She quickly said.

Sometime later, after finishing the tea, Yuan asked, "By the way, what's the situation between the Demon Sealing Clan and the Demon Sealing Grotto right now?"

Yan Hara lowered her teacup and then said with a dispirited expression, "Not good. Not good at all. In fact, it's been getting worse."

"Demon sealers from both sides would fight each other whenever they cross paths, and several demon sealers have already died from the drama. At this rate, there will be a full-blown war between the Demon Sealing Clan and the Demon Sealing Grotto."

"How foolish..." Yuan muttered in a cold voice.

"Huh?" Yan Hara looked at him with wide eyes.

"Neither side will win this war, even if one side beats the other. The true winners will be the demons that will soon return to this world."

"W-Wait a minute... What do you mean by that? The demons are already near extinction! There's no way they would return!"

"Is that what you truly believe, or is that what you want to think?" Yuan asked her in a calm voice.

"That's what I truly believe!" She said.

"Then you should change your beliefs, Senior. Although there may not be as many demons today as there were back in the days, they won't be gone anytime soon. In fact, they're most likely recovering their forces out there somewhere."

"H-How do you know all of this...?" Yan Hara asked him in a trembling voice.

Yuan smiled and said, "I will tell you the truth later— when I defeat the Demon Sealing Pagoda."

"Defeat the Demon Sealing Pagoda? You couldn't even get past the fourth floor on your last attempt, and in case you forgot, nobody has passed that floor since the Divine Paragon— not even the current leader of the Demon Sealing Clan." Yan Hara said.

"Actions speak louder than words. If you don't believe me, I will do it right now."

"Sure..."

Yan Hara and Yuan arrived at the Demon Sealing Pagoda several minutes later.

"Whenever you're ready, little founder." Yan Hara said to him.

"I'm ready now."

Sometime later, Yan Hara paid the resources to activate the Demon Sealing Pagoda.

Once the door opened, Yuan calmly walked into the building.

"Young Master, you should save your energy for the first few fights while we fight for you." Feng Yuxiang said to him. "No, I will challenge the Demon Sealing Pagoda by myself this time. I appreciate your consideration, though." Yuan said to them.

After entering the building, Tian Chenyu's voice resounded, "Welcome to the Demon Sealing Pagoda, young demon sealer. I will now tell you the rules of this place. If you break any of them, you'll automatically be removed from this place."

The voice proceeded to repeat everything that was said the last time he was here, word for word.

Once the introductions were finished, a Superior Demon appeared in the middle of the room.

"When you're prepared to start the challenge—"

"Ready." Yuan said without any hesitation.

The Superior Demon immediately sprung into action and lunged itself at Yuan.

[Swords of Eternal Torment]

A single golden sword suddenly materialized above the demon, pinning it to the ground.

"Aaaaargh!" The demon released a pained roar.

Yuan casually plunged his bare hands into the pinned demon's chest, removing its crystal.

After crushing the crystal, the demon stopped moving and disappeared.

"Congratulations, you have managed to pass the first floor in... 9 seconds. It's a new record."

"Since you have already received a reward from this floor, you will not receive any rewards for clearing this floor."

"You may proceed to the next floor whenever you are ready."

Yuan calmly made his way to the second floor.

"Welcome to the second floor. You have one hour and thirty minutes to defeat the demon."

Upon arriving at the second floor, the scenery changed, and Yuan found himself on a platform inside a coliseum with spectators, just like the last time.

"When you're prepared—"

"Ready."

The moment he started the challenge, Yuan raised the Empyrean Overlord above him.

Ding!

A gust of wind swept the arena as Yuan blocked the Demon General's invisible attack.

[Swords of Eternal Torment]

Yuan repeated what he did the last time and pinned the Demon General to the ground before destroying its crystal.

"Congratulations, you have managed to pass the second floor in... 11 seconds. It's a new record."

"Since you have already received a reward from this floor, you will not receive any rewards for clearing this floor."

"You may proceed to the next floor whenever you are ready."

On the next floor, two demons waited for him, both Demon Generals.

"When you're—"

"Ready."

After starting the fight, Yuan waited for the demons to attack him like last time, but to his surprise, they remained standing there, seemingly hesitant for some reason.

"How boring." He sighed before using Swords of Eternal Torment, pinning them both on the ground.

"Congratulations, you have managed to pass the third floor in... 20 seconds. It's a new record."

A few seconds later, Yuan made his way to the fourth floor, where he was stopped.

Chapter 1046 Spirit King

Chapter 1046 Spirit King

"Welcome to the fourth floor. You have fifteen minutes to defeat the demon."

On the fourth floor of the Demon Sealing Pagoda that was in a lava environment, Yuan patiently waited for the gray demon to show up.

A few moments later, the gray-skinned demon with a broken horn came out of the lava and stood on the platform before Yuan.

"When you're prepared to start the challenge, say 'Ready' out loud."

Yuan didn't immediately start the fight this time. Instead, he took a few moments to silently stare at the demon.

"What's wrong? Aren't you going to say your famous line? That I am not worthy to fight you?" Yuan suddenly spoke with a calm smile on his face.

The gray demon narrowed its eyes at Yuan.

"You have grown a little stronger since I killed you." The demon responded a few seconds later, almost as though it retained its memories of their last encounter.

"Just a little stronger?" Yuan chuckled.

And he continued in a mocking tone, "That's funny, because you seem a lot weaker to me."

"..."

The gray demon's eyes flickered with killing intent, "Watch your mouth, livestock."

"Originally, I was going to just kill you as soon as possible and get to the next floor, but I have changed my mind. I'm going to beat you senseless."

"I would love to see how you're going to do that, livestock."

Yuan smiled, and he proceeded to start the challenge.

"Ready."

The second Yuan started the challenge, the gray demon disappeared from its location.

"Brother Yuan!" Xiao Hua instinctively shouted because of what happened last time.

"Are you looking down on me, demon?"

Yuan spoke in a calm voice after catching the demon's hand without turning around.

"!!!"

The demon was shocked when it realized that Yuan had caught its attack with his bare hands.

However, when it pulled back and tried to escape, the demon became even more baffled when it couldn't break out of Yuan's grasp.

Whoosh!

Yuan suddenly flung his entire arm, sending the demon into the air before slamming it back down onto the ground.

Boom!

The platform shook when the demon landed on the ground.

Yuan then crushed the demon's head with his foot.

Of course, the demon recovered from the injury within seconds.

However, Yuan's intention was just to mess with the demon and make it feel helpless, so he continued to stomp on its head while tightly holding onto the demon's hand, preventing it from running away.

A few stomps later, Yuan pinned the demon to the ground with the Sword of Eternal Torment.

"Now let's try it with pain and demon sealing aura." Yuan spoke with a cold grin on his face.

He then stomped the demon's head into the platform again, but he covered his foot with demon sealing aura this time, sealing the demon with every stomp.

"S-Stop—"

Boom!

"Damn you—"

Boom!

Once the demon was almost completely sealed, Yuan pulled the demon off the floor and had it stand right in front of him.

"You're not worthy to fight me, demon." Yuan said before shoving his arm through the demon's chest and destroying its crystal.

"Congratulations, you have managed to pass the fourth floor in... 4 minutes and 11 seconds. It's a new record."

"Here is your reward for clearing the fourth stage."

A golden orb of light appeared from within the lava and floated towards Yuan.

After absorbing the orb of light, Yuan could feel the spiritual energy in his dantian overflow and his cultivation base soaring.

His Spirit Grandmaster cultivation instantly broke through to the peak of Spirit Lord, returning him to his original cultivation. However, that wasn't the end of it, as his cultivation continued to soar.

<You have absorbed enough Qi for a breakthrough!>

<You have met the requirements for a breakthrough>

<You have reached First Level Spirit King>

<You have absorbed enough Qi for a breakthrough!>

<You have reached Second Level Spirit King>

<You have absorbed enough Qi for a breakthrough!>

<You have reached Third Level Spirit King>

<You have reached Fourth Level Spirit King>

Within just a few seconds, Yuan had entered the realm of Spirit King and even skyrocketed to the fourth level.

His aura also soared.

However, Yuan didn't feel any excitement even though he is now a Spirit King, as he'd experienced even higher cultivation levels as Tian Chenyu.

"Congratulations on reaching Spirit King finally, Young Master!" Feng Yuxiang and the others congratulated him.

"Thank you." He smiled as he approached the next floor.

Meanwhile, Yan Hara was patiently waiting outside.

'Considering how fast he progressed last time, he should be on the second floor now...'

"Hmm?" She suddenly raised an eyebrow when she noticed a figure standing atop the Demon Sealing Pagoda.

"D-Divine Paragon!" Yan Hara fell on her butt when she saw his handsome face.

'Why is the Divine Paragon appearing again? Did something happen inside the Demon Sealing Pagoda?'

After steeling her resolve, Yan Hara flew into the air and approached the Divine Paragon.

'He's just an illusion, so it should be fine if I took a closer look...' she thought to herself.

Once she was right in front of the Divine Paragon, Yan Hara began inspecting his appearance in closer detail.

'The more I look at him, the more he looks like the little founder.'

Unbeknownst to Yan Hara, she no longer saw the Divine Paragon in Yuan. Instead, she saw Yuan in the Divine Paragon.

'The little founder... He's definitely a descendant of the Divine Paragon...' Yan Hara is now convinced of her theory.

Upon entering the fifth floor, Yuan found himself atop a mountain and with not two, but three demons, all three emitting the aura of a Spirit King.

Each of these demons had their own unique physique. One of them was skinny while another was bulky. The third one was even round like a balloon, which surprised Yuan. Furthermore, they were all 'sort of' Demon Emperors.

Chapter 1047 Seventh Floor of the Demon Sealing Pagoda

Chapter 1047 Seventh Floor of the Demon Sealing Pagoda

"Welcome to the fifth floor. You have one hour to defeat the demons." The Divine Paragon's voice resounded.

"How many years has it been since someone made it to this floor? I don't remember..." The skinny demon suddenly muttered as it stared at Yuan with an excited smile on its face.

However, Yuan ignored the skinny demon and focused his gaze on the fat demon.

"It's rare to see a fat demon even back in the Primordial Era. I remember my first experience with one. I nearly laughed my ass off." Yuan said with a smile on his face.

"..."

The fat demon trembled when it heard Yuan's words.

"What did you just call me, lowly livestock?" The fat demon growled in a cold voice.

Yuan laughed out loud, "Your reaction is the same as that fat demon when I laughed at it! I see... So I had decided to put you in this Demon Sealing Pagoda..."

"DIE! LIVESTOCK!"

The fat demon suddenly lunged at Yuan.

However, Yuan didn't start the challenge yet. This is the first time the demon initiated the fight.

[Demon Sealing Zone]

Yuan snapped his fingers, surrounding himself and the fat demon with the Demon Sealing Zone.

The fat demon immediately felt its strength drained by the Demon Sealing Zone.

Whoosh!

Yuan swung his sword at the fat demon while it was still in the air, slicing its body horizontally in half.

[Sword of Eternal Torment]

Yuan pinned the fat demon into the ground while its body was still severed.

"Argh! What is this feeling?!" The fat demon screamed when it experienced pain for the first time.

"This feeling is called pain. Remember it well." Yuan looked down at it with a cold smile on his face.

"How dare you look down on us!"

The other two demons shouted as it attacked the Demon Sealing Zone.

However, they quickly realized how durable the Demon Sealing Zone was, and they couldn't even put a slight crack in it.

"Coward! Fight us if you dare!"

Yuan looked at the skinny demon who just spoke and said, "You want to fight? Sure."

He removed the Demon Sealing Zone, allowing the two demons to reach him.

[Sword of Eternal Torment]

"Ah!"

The demons kneeled on the ground when multiple golden swords stabbed their back.

Yuan sighed, "Compared to before, the Demon Sealing Pagoda is too easy now."

He killed the skinny and bulky demons shortly after, leaving the fat demon for last.

"You may be laughing now, but once you reach the next floor... You will witness true horror!" The fat demon said its last words before Yuan killed it.

"Congratulations, you have managed to pass the fifth floor in... 2 minutes and 11 seconds. It's a new record."

"Here is your reward for clearing the fifth stage."

After absorbing the reward, Yuan's cultivation soared once again.

<You have absorbed enough Qi for a breakthrough!>

<You have reached Fifth Level Spirit King>

<You have absorbed enough Qi for a breakthrough!>

<You have reached Sixth Level Spirit King>

<You have absorbed enough Qi for a breakthrough!>

<You have reached Seventh Level Spirit King>

Yuan approached the sixth floor as a Seventh Level Spirit King.

Even before he stepped onto the sixth floor of the Demon Sealing Pagoda, Yuan noticed a massive round figure sitting in what appeared to be a sea of blood.

This round figure was the size of a mountain, and it had a hideous face that would make even the coldest warriors run away in fear.

"The Abomination, huh? No matter how many times I see it, it makes my skin crawl."

"Welcome to the sixth floor. You have five minutes to defeat the demon."

"When you're prepared to start the challenge, say 'Ready' out loud."

'Five minutes, huh?'

The purpose of the sixth floor was to test the strength of a demon sealer's demon sealing aura, hence why there was an Abomination and such a short time limit.

If one's demon sealing aura isn't strong enough, they wouldn't be able to defeat the Abomination even if they were given a hundred hours.

However, if one's demon sealing aura was strong enough, they could do so in less than five minutes.

Yuan closed his eyes and took a deep breath.

"Ready."

[Swords of Eternal Torment]

Yuan opened his eyes and summoned over a hundred golden swords to attack the Abomination, waking it up from its slumber.

He then began gathering spiritual energy for a Heaven Splitting Sword Strike as the Abomination stumbled around and screamed in pain.

After spending a whole minute gathering spiritual energy, Yuan released the Heaven Splitting Sword Strike.

With his limiter removed, the sword light from the Heaven Splitting Sword Strike was powerful enough to cover the entire Abomination's figure, and since he'd infused the Heaven Splitting Sword Strike with his demon sealing aura, the Abomination was not able to recover fast enough and was disaggregated until there was nothing left.

"Congratulations, you have managed to pass the sixth floor in... 1 minutes and 9 seconds. It's a new record."

After absorbing the reward, Yuan's cultivation soared to the peak of Spirit King.

"Looks like you'll be a Spirit Emperor in no time, Young Master." Feng Yuxiang said to him as he took a moment to recover his spent spiritual energy.

"No, I won't reach Spirit Emperor." Yuan said.

"Huh? Are you saying that you won't clear the next floor?" she asked in a puzzled tone.

"No, that's not it. You'll find out when I clear the next floor."

Sometime later, he made his way to the seventh floor.

The seventh floor of the Demon Sealing Pagoda looked completely different from the previous six floors.

There was neither a visible platform nor a sky. Instead, he was surrounded by nothing but stars, almost as though he was now inside the Stairway to Heaven.

Yuan walked onto the invisible platform and approached the figure standing many meters away. This figure had its eyes closed, seemingly asleep, but it was also emanating a bloodthirsty aura.

Yuan knew at a glance that, unlike the gray demons on the fourth and fifth floor, this demon was a full-fledged Demon Emperor.

Chapter 1048 Fighting the Demon Emperor

Chapter 1048 Fighting the Demon Emperor

"Welcome to the seventh floor. You have 4 hours to defeat the demon."

Shortly after Yuan arrived on the seventh floor of the Demon Sealing Pagoda, the Demon Emperor, still with its eyes closed, spoke in a calm voice, "What is your name, human?"

"Tian Chenyu." Yuan said with a smile on his face to see how the Demon Emperor would react.

"..."

The Demon Emperor's eyebrows slightly twitched upon hearing Yuan's words, but other than that, it really didn't have any reaction.

"I'm just joking. You can call me Yuan, Demon Emperor."

"You're a peculiar human, Yuan. Not only are you able to stand there and talk with me without pissing your pants but you can even make jokes. I guess you made it this far for a reason."

"Oh? A demon is actually praising a human? As expected, Demon Emperors are different. Compared to the mentally weak demons that will become enraged at the slightest provocation, you guys aren't like that, and it's almost like I am speaking to another human..." Yuan said with a profound smile on his face.

"...What did you just say?" The Demon Emperor mumbled in a dazed voice, its aura suddenly shooting into the cloudless sky.

"Oh? Did I hit a nerve?" Yuan chuckled.

"Did you just compare me... to humans? You think I am like a human? Me? A Demon Emperor? Know your place!"

The Demon Emperor suddenly opened its eyes, revealing violet eyes that emanated intense killing intent.

"..."

A nervous smile appeared on Yuan's face when the Demon Emperor's chilling aura permeated the entire area there. Even with his prowess and talents, he still couldn't help but tremble before it. Although he didn't think that he was going to lose to this Demon Emperor, he knew that it wasn't going to be an easy task, especially considering that he'd just angered the Demon Emperor.

The Demon Emperor began approaching Yuan in slow and steady steps, looking extremely menacing.

Yuan tightly held onto his Empyrean Overlord and prepared to fight the Demon Emperor.

"Remember the name of the demon who will kill you, my name— Demon Emperor Wraith!"

Demon Emperor Wraith roared right before it summoned a bloody axe in both hands and rushed at Yuan.

Ding!

Yuan blocked one of its axes with the Empyrean Overlord, but the Demon Emperor had a second one, and it used it to attack him almost instantly afterward.

Ding!

The Starry Abyss appeared right in front of the location that the axe was going to land, blocking it.

However, since he was controlling the Starry Abyss with a technique, it wasn't as powerful as the sword in his hand.

Yuan quickly used his movement technique to dodge the Demon Emperor's second axe right before it bypassed the Starry Abyss' defense and gained some distance between them.

"Not bad..." Yuan smiled.

"Ha!" The Demon Emperor didn't give Yuan any time to rest and immediately chased after him.

The two of them would go back and forth for the next five minutes blocking and attacking each other.

[Swords of Eternal Torment]

A minute into their fight, Yuan summoned the golden swords.

The golden swords struck the Demon Emperor because it had appeared so suddenly. However, the Demon Emperor didn't show much reaction to it besides having an annoyed look on its face.

"So you know this pesky technique as well, huh? Although it's extremely effective against lower ranking demons, it's ineffective against Demon Emperors such as us!"

Yuan narrowed his eyes on the Demon Emperor.

'That's a bluff. The Swords of Eternal Torment definitely works on even Demon Emperors. It's just that my demon sealing aura isn't strong enough to affect it...'

[Demon Sealing Zone]

He proceeded to create a massive zone that covered almost 100 meters in radius around him and the Demon Emperor.

The Demon Emperor could feel its strength decreasing, but it wasn't by too much, and it wasn't nearly enough to make it panic.

"Another annoying technique. Hey! I thought only the Divine Paragon could use these techniques! How come you can use them as well?" The Demon Emperor suddenly asked Yuan.

"I already told you. I am Tian Chenyu." Yuan said with a smile.

'I won't be able to defeat it at this rate. I didn't want to use this because it's very risky and energy consuming, but if I want to defeat this Demon Emperor, I am going to have to use it...' He thought to himself.

After taking a deep breath, Yuan suddenly retrieved his Empyrean Overlord and Starry Abyss, becoming barehanded. His actions greatly puzzled the Demon Emperor and piqued its interest at the same time.

"What are you doing? Are you giving up already?" The Demon Emperor asked him.

"Give up? Before a demon? Over my dead body." Yuan smiled in response.

He then made some gestures with his hands before shouting out loud, "Close!"

The Demon Sealing Zone suddenly closed in on the Demon Emperor until it was basically trying to squeeze it to death.

The Demon Emperor laughed when it saw what he was doing, "What nonsense do you think you're doing?! This won't have any effect on me!"

However, before the demon could try to break out of the Demon Sealing Zone, Yuan made a few more hand gestures before shouting again, "Restrict!"

Golden chains suddenly came out of the ground and coiled itself all around the Demon Emperor's body, restricting its movements.

"How dare you underestimate me with this shit!" The Demon Emperor quickly started struggling, but it was having a little trouble breaking out of the chains, as it kept coming out of the ground and replacing the ones it broke.

'Now that I have bought myself some time...'

Yuan immediately sat on the floor and began cultivating with his eyes closed.

An unfathomable aura suddenly began emitting from Yuan's body, quickly permeating the area.

The Demon Emperor had an uneasy feeling in its guts after seeing Yuan and his aura, and it became desperate.

A few more moments later, right as the Demon Emperor broke out of the last chain, Yuan opened his eyes and shouted, "Demon Sealing Pagoda!"

The Demon Emperor's eyes widened with shock as it looked up to see that a massive golden pagoda had appeared above it.

"W-Wait!"

The Demon Emperor pleaded.

However, Yuan ignored the demon and gestured for the pagoda to fall.

The golden pagoda fell the following moment, crushing the Demon Emperor into the ground.

Chapter 1049 The True Purpose of the Demon Sealing Pagoda

Chapter 1049 The True Purpose of the Demon Sealing Pagoda

DONG!

The moment the golden pagoda landed on the Demon Emperor, a profound ripple permeated the world there, causing it to shake.

However, the Demon Sealing Pagoda wasn't meant to kill the Demon Emperor.

"LET ME OUT!" The Demon Emperor's voice boomed from within the golden pagoda.

Yuan ignored the Demon Emperor's voice and continued to focus on the golden pagoda, pouring his spiritual energy and demon sealing aura into it.

Within the Demon Sealing Pagoda, the Demon Emperor was trying its best to fight back against the demon sealing aura that was entering its body without any resistance.

The Demon Emperor knew that even with its strong resistance against demon sealing aura that it wouldn't be able to last long inside the Demon Sealing Pagoda, one of the Divine Paragon's strongest demon sealing techniques.

However, maintaining the Demon Sealing Pagoda wasn't an easy task for Yuan, who was severely lacking in cultivation.

The only reason he could use this technique at his current level is because of his memories as the Divine Paragon and his experience.

Dong! Dong! Dong!

Over the next several moments, the Demon Emperor would try to break out of the Demon Sealing Pagoda but to no avail.

Feeling like a trapped mouse, the Demon Emperor unleashed its limit and strongest technique.

However, before the Demon Emperor could fully unleash its attack, Yuan suddenly made more hand gestures and shouted, "Seal!"

"Ah!"

The Demon Emperor suddenly felt intense pain coming from all over its body, and when it looked down, it noticed many tiny needles piercing into its body.

Before the Demon Emperor could react, Yuan's voice resounded again, "Seal!"

An intense pressure infused with demon sealing aura suddenly flattened the Demon Emperor.

"Seal!"

Golden chains appeared from within the pagoda and chained the Demon Emperor.

"Seal!"

Three flags appeared the next moment and surrounded the Demon Emperor.

By now, half of the Demon Emperor's body had turned into stone, but Yuan wasn't finished just yet.

"Seal!"

"Seal!"

"Seal!"

Yuan repeated the word nine times in total.

After the ninth 'seal', the Demon Emperor was completely sealed.

Yuan deactivated the Demon Sealing Pagoda immediately afterward and began to recover his cultivation.

Half an hour later, after recovering enough spiritual energy, Yuan began charging up for a maximum power Heaven Splitting Sword Strike to finish off the Demon Emperor once and for all.

And just to make sure the Demon Emperor was as weak as possible, he surrounded the Demon Emperor with the Demon Sealing Zone to further increase his chances of killing it in one go.

Once he was prepared, Yuan released his strongest Heaven Splitting Sword Strike yet.

The Heaven Splitting Sword Strike was so powerful that it caused the space there to distort.

A few moments later.

"Congratulations, you have managed to pass the seventh floor in... 1 hour, 20 minutes, and 37 seconds. It's a new record."

"Here is your reward for clearing the seventh stage."

A golden orb of light floated towards Yuan, but it wasn't something he could absorb.

The golden orb of light disappeared once it reached Yuan, turning into a small golden ring.

Yuan smiled when he saw this ring. He accepted it and tossed it into his spatial ring without even inspecting it, almost as though he already knew what it was and what it was capable of.

"What was that ring, Young Master?" Feng Yuxiang asked out of curiosity as he approached the eighth floor.

"Something that I will need in the future," he said.

"Eh?! Don't keep us in suspense, Young Master!"

Yuan merely kept on smiling, refusing to tell them about it.

Upon arriving at the 8th floor, Yuan found himself in the middle of an ocean with no land, but there were also no signs of a demon.

"Welcome to the eighth floor."

The Divine Paragon's voice resounded, but he didn't say anything about the clear condition.

Despite that, Yuan remained calm.

"What is going on, Young Master?" Feng Yuxiang asked him.

"You will see in a few minutes." He said.

He then sat down and started cultivating to recover his spent spiritual energy from the previous fight.

Fifteen minutes later, Yuan stood up and turned to look towards the east before flying in that direction.

Half an hour later, Yuan stopped when he arrived before a small island.

After landing on this island, he looked around until he found a jade tablet that was located in the center of this island.

He approached it before giving it a good kick, shattering the jade tablet.

"Congratulations, you have managed to pass the eighth floor in... 33 minutes and 20 seconds."

"Here is your reward for clearing the eighth stage."

"Huh?! What?! What just happened?!" Feng Yuxiang exclaimed while shocked and puzzled at the same time.

Xiao Hua and Lan Yingying felt the same, as they couldn't comprehend what had just happened.

Yuan didn't say anything until after he accepted the reward, which was even more puzzling than the 8th floor itself.

"A scabbard for a sword...?" Xiao Hua mumbled.

"I will be needing this very soon," he said.

"Anyways, the eighth trial is a special one. Unless you know where to go and what to do, it's impossible to clear this floor."

"What...? That means..."

"Indeed. Unless that person has the Divine Paragon's memories or is the Divine Paragon himself, it is literally impossible to pass the eighth floor." Yuan said with a smile.

"What if someone found the tablet by chance?" Feng Yuxiang suddenly asked.

"They still wouldn't be able to destroy it because you need to hit it with a precise amount of demon sealing aura. It won't budge even if you're slightly off."

"Isn't that a little... cheating?"

Yuan chuckled, "The true purpose of the Demon Sealing Pagoda isn't to train demon sealers. You'll understand soon."

Sometime later, Yuan began ascending the final staircase to reach the ninth floor of the Demon Sealing Pagoda.

"T-This place is..." Feng Yuxiang muttered in a dazed voice after seeing the ninth floor for the first time.

Chapter 1050 Ninth Floor of the Demon Sealing Pagoda

Chapter 1050 Ninth Floor of the Demon Sealing Pagoda

"Welcome to the ninth floor of the Demon Sealing Pagoda and my little secret place. The three of you are the first ones besides Tian Chenyu to see this place." Yuan said to them with a smile.

Feng Yuxiang and the others came out of his body to look at the scenery before them.

"What is this place?" Lan Yingying asked him.

They were standing before a small hill that was filled with flowers, and on the top of this hill was a large tree. However, this place didn't look anything special. In fact, it looked oddly ordinary.

Despite that, this place was one of the most important and precious places in Tian Chenyu's memories.

"Tian Chen—I used to come to this place often with my childhood sweetheart before she was killed by a demon, though it was always against my own will." Yuan said with a bittersweet smile on his face.

"And this place is the true purpose of the Demon Sealing Pagoda? I still don't understand." Feng Yuxiang asked.

"Just wait a little longer." Yuan said.

He then raised his arm and pointed it at the tree before making a beckoning motion with his hand.

Whoosh!

A long object suddenly flew from the tree and into the air for a few seconds before it pointed itself at Yuan and flew towards him.

"Young Master! Watch out!" Feng Yuxiang warned him.

"It's fine." Yuan said with a calm look on his face before catching this object in one smooth motion.

"That is... a sword?" Xiao Hua mumbled.

Yuan nodded as he held the black and red sword in front of him to show it to the others.

Unlike the Empyrean Overlord that was classified as a Greatsword, this sword with a black hilt and a thin red blade was shaped like most ordinary swords. However, this sword was anything but ordinary, as it naturally emitted a demon sealing aura that was strong enough to rival even the top demon sealers in the Demon Sealing Clan. Furthermore, if one looked closely, they would be able to see the words 'Demon Sealing' flawlessly engraved on both sides of the blade.

"Demon Sealing Sword— this is one of the Divine Paragon's three demon sealing treasures that he used to push the demons to near extinction."

"And this scabbard from the last stage is from this sword." Yuan placed the sword back into its scabbard, reuniting the two after millions of years of being apart.

"Why did you separate it in the first place? And why make the scabbard the reward for the eighth floor?" Lan Yingying couldn't help but ask.

Yuan smiled and said, "This may seem like a joke, but I am serious when I say this. I made it the eighth floor's reward because I couldn't be bothered to find a proper reward. After all, nobody besides myself would be able to pass the eighth floor, so there's no point in putting any treasure there."

"Unbelievable..." Feng Yuxiang mumbled.

"Anyways, now that I have this sword, all demons will be at my mercy."
Yuan said with a cold grin on his face as he stared at the sword in his grasp.

[Demon Sealing Sword]

[Grade: Mythic]

[Quality: Peak]

[Description: Once wielded by the Divine Paragon and used to slay over 100,000 demons. Demons damaged by this sword will instantly be sealed. Damage inflicted with this sword increased by 1,000%.]

The girls swallowed nervously when they saw his face.

"Even without the sword, you wouldn't lose to any demons..." Feng Yuxiang said.

"That's not true. In my current state, I would lose if I encountered a real Demon Emperor. In the end, the Demon Emperor from the seventh floor isn't a real Demon Emperor, else it wouldn't have lost so easily." Yuan shrugged.

"Anyways, now that we are done here, let's get out." He then said.

They nodded and returned inside his body.

Before leaving the Demon Sealing Pagoda, Yuan took a moment to gaze at the scenery one last time.

"We will definitely reunite again, Ai Rong..." Yuan mumbled in a low voice before disappearing from the ninth floor, appearing back on the first floor a moment later.

After storing the Demon Sealing Sword inside his spatial ring, Yuan approached the exit and opened the door, leaving the Demon Sealing Pagoda.

Outside the pagoda was Yan Hara, who had a surprised look on her face for some reason.

"You're out already? What happened? You were inside for a much shorter time than your first attempt!" She asked him.

"Yes, and I cleared the Demon Sealing Pagoda." Yuan said with a calm face.

"Y-You what...?" Yan Hara stared at him with a baffled look on her face.

"I cleared it. On the fifth floor, I had to fight three demons that were all at the same level as the demon on the fourth floor. On the sixth floor, I had to fight an Abomination. On the seventh floor, I had to fight a real Demon Emperor. I didn't have to fight anything for the last two floors because there was nothing to fight." Yuan gave her a brief explanation about his experience inside the Demon Sealing Pagoda.

"Three demons? An Abomination? A real Demon Emperor?" Yan Hara still couldn't believe it. Did Yuan really manage to clear the Demon Sealing Pagoda that hasn't been cleared since its creation in just a few short hours?

"Anyways, there's something I want to talk to you about, Senior Yan... Or should I call you Demon Sealer Yan? This is a very important topic that concerns the future of the Demon Sealing Clan."

"W-What are you talking about?" Still dazed, Yan Hara asked him.

In response, Yuan retrieved the ring he'd acquired from the seventh floor of the Demon Sealing Pagoda as a reward and showed it to her.

"Do you know what this is?" He asked her.

Yan Hara's eyes widened with shock when she saw the ring.

"I-I-Impossible! Why do you have that ring?!" Yan Hara was so shocked that she fell on her buttocks.

Yuan smiled and said, "Let's go somewhere more private."

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 1051 Demon Sealing Ring

Chapter 1051 Demon Sealing Ring

"You! That ring! Why?!" Yan Hara quickly got back to her feet and grabbed his hand to take a closer look at the ring, but she didn't dare to touch the ring with her own hands.

"I-Is this real? If this is fake, you must destroy it immediately! If the Leader of the Demon Sealing Clan or the Grand Elders find out that you have something like this, they will give you a public execution!"

"Don't worry, it's real." Yuan said as he put the ring back into his spatial ring.

"Let's go somewhere more private, shall we?"

Yan Hara nodded with a serious look on her face.

Sometime later, Yan Hara locked the both of them inside one of the study rooms in the Grand Library. This specific room was only accessible to Master Demon Sealers and above because it contained high-ranking demon sealing techniques, and it only allowed a limited number of people inside at once—two people exactly, so it was safe.

"Tell me, little founder! Where did you acquire that ring?! Do you have any idea what that ring signifies?!" Yan Hara asked him in a nervous voice.

"Of course I do. It's the Demon Sealing Ring, and only the leader of the Demon Sealer Clan can hold this ring." Yuan said in a calm voice.

Indeed, the ring he'd acquired from the Demon Sealing Pagoda was none other than the Demon Sealing Ring from when he was still the leader of the Demon Sealing Clan. It was a precious item with a significant amount of history as well as importance behind it.

"But how...? There should only be one in existence, and the current leader of the Demon Sealing Clan has it..." Yan Hara mumbled in a dazed voice.

"Qian Chu? He has the spare one I gave to the Demon Sealing Clan before I disappeared. The one I have is the original." Yuan casually said.

"Excuse me...? Before you disappeared? Who are you really, little founder?"

Yuan smiled and said, "You still don't recognize me?"

He found it quite humorous that Yan Hara still couldn't recognize his identity despite being his biggest fan.

"Then how about this?"

Yuan suddenly activated the Demon Sealing Zone around them.

"The Demon Sealing Zone?! When did you learn this technique?!"

"I'm not done yet."

[Swords of Eternal Torment!]

He created the golden swords in the air.

"I lied when I said this wasn't the Sword of Eternal Torment. Indeed, this is the lost technique of the Demon Sealing Clan— Sword of Eternal Torment."

Yan Hara stared at these dazzling techniques before her with wide eyes and a gawking look on her pretty face.

"Y-You... You can't be... No..." Although Yan Hara had an idea about his true identity, she didn't dare to believe it.

"Still not enough to convince you? Then how about this beauty?" Yuan retrieved the Demon Sealing Sword and showed it to her.

"That's—!" Yan Hara could feel her heart beating at her chest when she saw the beautiful sword.

Although she's never personally seen it before, she has heard stories and read about it before. This chapter is updated by FreeWebnOvel.com.

A red blade with the words 'Demon Sealing' engraved on it—

"Demon Sealing Sword... One of three demon sealing treasures wielded by the Divine Paragon..." Yan Hara muttered in a dazed voice.

Yuan then spoke in a calm voice, "Tian Chenyu— although this name had been lost with the passage of time for most people, I have one more identity that you should be familiar with—"

"Divine Paragon..." Yan Hara suddenly muttered out loud in a trembling voice, her eyes flowing with tears.

"Is it really you?"

Despite her powerful cultivation, Yan Hara felt so weak at this moment that she couldn't even stand up, so she fell to her knees.

"Yes, it's really me. Although I am now called Yuan, I used to be the Divine Paragon."

Although what Yuan said sounded unbelievable and borderline impossible, Yan Hara did not doubt him at all, as she had already been suspicious of his true identity for a while now.

After a moment of silence, Yan Hara bowed her head until her forehead kissed the cold marble floor, and she spoke in a revering voice, "This junior greets Senior. Welcome back to the Demon Sealing Clan, Founder."

"Stand up, Yan Hara. I revealed my identity to you because I consider you a friend and I trust you."

"I apologize, but I won't be able to stand up for a while..." Yan Hara said in an embarrassed voice.

Yuan smiled and helped her up before carrying her to a nearby chair.

"T-Thank you... Senior..." Yan Hara said with a flushed face, looking like a young maiden before her crush.

"Drop the formalities and continue calling me Yuan—or little founder. Either works. I also need to keep my identity a secret." Yuan chuckled.

"I understand... little founder." Yan Hara nodded.

Sometime later, once Yan Hara had calmed down enough, she asked, "If you don't mind me asking, why did you suddenly disappear for millions of years, little founder? And why did you decide to come back now?"

Yuan smiled and said, "I didn't disappear. I died and reincarnated. I recently recalled my memories as the Divine Paragon, so here I am."

"You died...? How is that possible? Did a demon do it?"

What came out of Yuan's mouth next nearly knocked Yan Hara unconscious with shock.

"Nope, I killed myself." Yuan casually uttered.

"S-Suicide?! But why in heaven's name would you do something like that?!"

"I have my reasons. Sorry for the inconvenience it caused, but it was an absolutely necessary thing for me to do."

"I don't dare to judge your decisions. If you did it, I'm sure it was for a good reason." Yan Hara said with a bittersweet smile.

"Anyways, I didn't plan on returning to the Demon Sealing Clan initially even though my memories had returned because I didn't want to mess up whatever you guys had going on, but with the situation between the Demon Sealing Clan and the Demon Sealing Grotto growing more dire, it seems I have no choice but to return since I cannot sit by and watch fellow demon sealers destroy each other when you should be fighting demons instead."

"On the behalf of all of the demon sealers out there, I'm truly sorry... We have failed you and stained the Demon Sealing Clan's prestigious name..." Yan Hara sighed with her head lowered, not daring to look at Yuan's face due to shame.

"Although the situation is pretty dire, it's not at the point of no return. We can still salvage the situation and put a stop to the fight." Yuan said.

"What do you have in mind?"

"First and foremost, we will need to get rid of Qian Chu. I don't know what he's up to, but it's not good— at least that's what my instincts are telling me. The Demon Sealing Clan— my Demon Sealing Clan will collapse at this rate, and I am not going to sit still and watch a place that I'd built with my own hands being destroyed." Yuan spoke with a cold expression on his face, causing Yan Hara to tremble.

Chapter 1052 Divine Paragon's Legacy

"It's not going to be easy removing Qian Chu from his position, unless you plan on using your identity to suppress him..." Yan Hara said with a worried look on her face.

"I intend on using my identity. However, I will only do so after we have enough support on our side. Therefore, we need to focus on finding people we can trust and get them on our side, so when it comes time to fight Qian Chu, it won't just be the two of us. I will leave this task to you."

"W-What?! You want to leave such an important task to me?! I-I don't think I am ready for it!" Yan Hara exclaimed in a terrified voice.

"If you cannot do it, nobody else can. First and foremost, you're already a respected and well-known Demon Sealer within the Demon Sealing Clan. You also have a lot of experience in the Demon Sealing Clan— even more than me since this place is no longer the Demon Sealing Clan that I once knew, so my experience might as well be thrown aside."

"Furthermore, as a Master Demon Sealer, you should have connections to many high-ranking Demon Sealers. I want you to bring those that are trustworthy to our side."

Yan Hara swallowed nervously, "I'm afraid of bringing someone unworthy and putting our whole secret at risk..."

"I trust in your judgment." Yuan smiled.

After a moment of silence, Yan Hara spoke in a defeated manner, "If you really think I have what it takes, I will do my best."

'Not that I could ever refuse the founder of the Demon Sealing Clan...' she sighed inwardly.

"That's what I like to hear. Of course, I won't just tell you to do all of this for free. In return for helping me, I will make you the strongest Demon Sealer in the whole Demon Sealing Clan and the Demon Sealing Grotto."

"I-I don't need any payment! I will gladly assist you even if I don't get anything in return— not that I expected anything in the first place!" Yan Hara quickly shook her head.

"Nonsense. You're my friend and trusted aid, it's only natural that I assist you in my own way, and as the founder of the Demon Sealing Clan, there is only one thing that I can offer you— guidance."

"Give me your forehead." Yuan suddenly beckoned her.

"Yes..."

Not knowing what to expect, Yan Hara leaned her head forward.

After a moment of silence, Yuan suddenly tapped her forehead with his finger that was emanating a glowing light.

A multitude of information of demon sealing techniques that had been lost with the passage of time along with demon sealing techniques that Tian Chenyu never shared quickly flowed inside Yan Hara's mind.

Yan Hara sat there with a blank expression on her face as she absorbed all of this shocking information.

Many minutes later, she snapped out of her daze and stared at Yuan with a shocked look on her face, her body trembling from excitement and many other emotions.

"I am officially making you my successor—the first Demon Sealer to become successor to the Divine Paragon's legacy. Are you willing to accept this role?" Yuan asked her with a smile on his face.

"..."

Yan Hara's jaw dropped to the ground after hearing his words.

After a moment of silence, she spoke in a low voice, "You're asking me that after giving me so much priceless demon sealing techniques...?"

She didn't know whether to laugh or cry, so she did both at once.

"That's how much I trust you." Yuan chuckled.

Sometime later, Yan Hara got off her chair and kneeled before Yuan before kissing the floor with her forehead.

She spoke in a kowtowing position, "This unworthy junior will humbly accept this esteemed role as your successor."

Yuan nodded, "When the time is right, I will teach you the rest of the demon sealing techniques, including the ultimate demon sealing technique that I have only used once. I would teach you the Swords of Eternal Torment as well as other demon sealing techniques that only I know, but I don't want you to make yourself a target for Qian Chu. He will definitely go after those techniques."

"Once you are strong enough and with enough backing, I will teach the rest of them to you."

"I am already more than satisfied with the demon sealing techniques you have given me." Yan Hara said.

"Anyways, let's talk more about the situation with the Demon Sealing Clan and the Demon Sealing Grotto. I also know very little about the latter. Tell me everything you know about them." Yuan said a moment later.

"Okay."

Over the next several hours, Yan Hara would talk about the whole situation in detail as well as answering any questions that Yuan had for her.

Once all that was done, Yuan prepared to leave the Demon Sealing Clan's Grand Library to return to the Myriad of Techniques.

"Do you have anything you want to tell me before I leave?" Yuan asked her.

Yan Hara pondered for a moment before speaking with a bashful smile on her face, "This may sound cliché, but I want to thank you for not abandoning the Demon Sealing Clan and returning to us. According to the rumors out there, they say that you never really cared about the Demon Sealing Clan."

Yuan chuckled, "The rumors are true. I never really cared for the Demon Sealing Clan at first because it was created randomly. In fact, I wasn't the one who came up with the idea of creating the Demon Sealing Clan. One of my followers came up with this suggestion as a joke— one that people took seriously, and before I was aware, the Demon Sealing Clan had come into existence. The rest is history."

"Seriously...?" Yan Hara was baffled after learning this shocking information.

To think that the glorious Demon Sealing Clan had started as a joke, who knows how the Demon Sealers would react if they learned of this information.

"Anyways, I will come back here once in a while to hear about your progress. Until then." Yuan waved goodbye to Yan Hara before disappearing from the Grand Library.

Chapter 1053 Gates of Heaven

Chapter 1053 Gates of Heaven

After Yuan left the Demon Sealing Clan's Grand Library, Yan Hara also left, returning to the Seventh Heaven where she currently resided.

Upon returning to her own realm, she retrieved multiple communication jade slips and contacted the people with the other jade slips to set up a meeting.

"Fellow sisters of the Divine Paragon Fanclub, I have something urgent to tell all of you. This involves the Divine Paragon and the future of the Demon Sealing Clan. Please meet me at the usual meeting spot as soon as possible. Thank you."

After transmitting such words through the communication jade slips, Yan Hara retrieved her flying treasure and disappeared into the distance like a shooting star.

Meanwhile, Yuan returned to the Myriad of Techniques.

"Sorry for making you all wait. I'm back now." Yuan said to the others, who were waiting in the lobby.

"Huh? Where are your techniques?" He asked them when he couldn't see any techniques nearby.

"Actually... We couldn't get past the second floor, and the techniques on the first two floors are not worth it." Chu Liuxiang sighed.

Yuan facepalmed after realizing something, "I'm sorry, I forgot that I had to be with you guys when traveling above the second floor. Let's go check out the fourth floor and the fifth floor now."

"Alright."

Thus, they began making their way to the fourth floor.

Since Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang had already explored the fourth floor, they didn't really pay much attention and flipped through random techniques to kill time.

Meanwhile, Li Jinxi looked through each technique with great focus.

"Unbelievable... To think there are so many Heaven-rank and Divine-rank techniques in this place..." Li Jinxi mumbled.

"There are more floors to this place with even more powerful techniques." Yuan said.

Sometime later, after going through the whole fourth floor, Li Jinxi found one body refining technique that she liked.

"Are you done on this floor? If so, let's check out the fifth floor. This will be our first time going to the fifth floor as well." Yuan asked them.

"Yes, we're ready." They nodded.

Yuan and the others proceeded to move to the staircase to the fifth floor, but they were blocked by the guards there.

"Is this your first time going to the fifth floor?" One of the guards asked.

"Yes." Yuan nodded.

The guard then said, "In order to enter the fifth floor, you must pass a small trial."

"Trial? What kind of trial?"

"You must spar with a disciple from the Gates of Heaven."

"What?" Yuan raised his eyebrows, his face full of questions.

"In order to train his disciples, Master Bai had set up this trial. Don't worry, it'll be a friendly spar, and it'll be done in a special arena where you cannot die even if your body explodes into a bloody mess. However, the weakest cultivator in their sect is a Spirit Sovereign, so you'll be fighting someone two realms above your own..."

"Senior Bai is the Sect Leader of the Gates of Heaven? This is my first time hearing about this." Yuan mumbled.

"Alright, I will take on the challenge. But before we start, I have a few questions."

"What is it?"

"Does everybody here have to take the trial to enter the fifth floor? Can I bring them with me if I pass the trial?"

The guards turned to look at the beauties behind Yuan and said, "Everyone will have to take the trial in order to enter the fifth floor. There is no exception."

"..." Yuan turned to look at Meixiu and the others.

While he can fight a Spirit Sovereign, he couldn't say the same for Meixiu and the others, as their cultivation was too low, and they would lose in a single attack.

"Don't worry about us, Yuan. You can go to the fifth floor alone." Meixiu said to him.

"Yes. I am already satisfied with what I have." Chu Liuxiang agreed.

"I am also the same." Li Jinxi said.

"Alright... Then I will take a quick look at the fifth floor." Yuan nodded.

The guards looked at him with raised eyebrows, as he sounded absolutely sure that he would defeat a Spirit Sovereign.

"So where do I fight this disciple?" Yuan then asked the guards.

"Follow me. I will bring you to the arena." One of the guards said to him.

"Okay."

Sometime later, Yuan was transported to this large platform with the guard, but they were the only ones there.

'This place reminds me of the platform in the sky for the final trial in the Stairway to Heaven...' Yuan thought to himself as he looked around.

The only difference was the lack of house, tree, and the body tempering pond.

"Where is this disciple?" He asked the guard a moment later.

"I have just notified the Gates of Heaven about your arrival. A disciple will arrive shortly."

"I understand."

Half an hour later, two people appeared out of thin air on the platform not far away from Yuan and began approaching him.

"They are..." The guard's eyes widened with surprise when he saw these individuals, and he wondered to himself, 'Why are they here? There's no way this young man could defeat this disciple!'

Yuan silently stared at these two individuals. One of them was an old woman with an unfathomable aura around her, and the other was a beautiful young woman also with an unfathomable aura around her.

Even though their faces were tranquil and their steps were gentle and calm, Yuan could feel an indescribable pressure coming from these two women.

These two stopped walking a few meters in front of Yuan, and the old woman said a moment later, "So it's true. I couldn't believe it when you said that the challenger was a mere Spirit King, so I came here to see for myself which arrogant little runt dared to challenge our disciple with such a weak cultivation."

"Greetings, Elder Mai and Disciple Ling." The guard greeted them with a respectful bow.

"This young man wishes to enter the fifth floor and has agreed to challenge a disciple from the Gates of Heaven."

"Introduce yourself." The guard said while looking at Yuan.

"My name is Yuan, and I'm just an ordinary Spirit King. Please treat me well." He calmly responded while staring into the old woman's eyes.

"Little runt..." Elder Mai narrowed her eyes on him.

Chapter 1054 Immortal Rendering Sword Strike

Chapter 1054 Immortal Rendering Sword Strike

"Let's just get this over with, shall we?" Disciple Ling suddenly spoke as she retrieved her sword.

"Aren't you going to introduce yourself too?" Yuan asked her.

"And what are you going to do with such information? It's not like we'll ever meet again."

"Is that so..." Although he didn't like her attitude, Yuan didn't care about it either. After all, this will most likely be their first and last meeting.

The guard cleared his throat and said, "Then the rules are as followed. The two of you will fight each other until one of you either loses consciousness or dies. This arena is being protected with an Immortal Array, so you won't truly die even if you die as long as you are on this platform."

He then turned to look at Yuan and said, "If you lose this fight, you will not be able to challenge the Gates of Heaven again until 1 whole year has passed. Do you understand?"

"I understand."

"Good. Then please stand in the red circles. I will begin the fight in ten seconds."

Yuan turned around to see a red circle marked on the platform a few meters and walked to it.

His sparring partner also did the same.

Once they were both in the red circle, Elder Mai and the guard moved away to give them space.

"The fight will now begin!" The guard shouted ten seconds later.

However, neither Yuan nor his opponent, Disciple Ling, moved even seconds after the match had started.

"What's wrong? Are you too scared to move?" Disciple Ling said in a provocative manner.

"No, I'm just wondering why you're not moving even though you said that you wanted this to be over as soon as possible." Yuan smiled. "If I was in a hurry, you'd have lost by now."

Disciple Ling narrowed her eyes.

"A mere Spirit King dares to look down on me?!" Disciple Ling's cultivation base suddenly soared.

'Peak Spirit Sovereign, huh? Exactly two realms above me...' Yuan thought to himself.

"What a foolish little runt. He doesn't even know the difference between a Spirit King and a Spirit Sovereign." A cold smile appeared on Elder Mai's face.

The guard merely shook his head.

'Disciple Ling is one of the most talented disciples in the Gates of Heaven within the Fifth Heaven. There's no way some Spirit King would be able to defeat her...'

Even though people were allowed access to the fifth floor the moment they entered the Third Heaven, most people won't be able to pass the trial until they're at least a Spirit Sovereign.

"DIE!" Disciple Ling suddenly slashed her sword at Yuan without moving outside her red circle.

A powerful sword light that was infused with Sword Aura flew at Yuan at incredible speed, reaching him in the blink of an eye.

However, despite such a powerful strike flying at him, Yuan remained standing there without moving, almost as if he had no intentions of blocking the attack.

"So you came here just to waste my time, huh?" Disciple Ling mumbled in a disappointed voice after seeing Yuan's lack of reaction.

Whoosh!

The sword light clashed with Yuan's bare body a split second later.

Yuan was forced out of the red circle and pushed many meters away by the sword light, which baffled Disciple Ling and the two spectators.

"H-He survived the attack?" The guard mumbled in a dazed voice.

Yuan was a Spirit King, and he'd just eaten the attack from a Spirit Sovereign with his bare body. It didn't make sense that his body wasn't immediately sliced in half by the attack.

After the attack, Yuan casually patted his chest and walked back into the red circle.

"Is that all you've got? I barely felt that. I guess Spirit Sovereigns aren't that much stronger than a Spirit King, after all." Yuan said with a mocking smile on his face.

Disciple Ling's body trembled in anger after hearing his words.

"If you thought that was my full power, you're dead wrong! That wasn't even 25 percent of my full power! I just didn't want to feel like I am bullying a weakling, so I purposefully held back!" She exclaimed.

"Is that so? Then can you use 100 percent of your power next? I'd like to see what you're truly capable of." Yuan said.

"Unbelievable... This little runt is actually provoking her to use her full strength..." Elder Mai muttered in a dazed voice.

"If that's what you want, then I will fulfill that wish!" Disciple Ling shouted as she swung her sword again.

This time, the sword light took the appearance of a blue dragon as it flew towards Yuan.

'Oh... Not bad...' Yuan thought to himself as he retrieved his Empyrean Overlord.

[Immortal Rendering Sword Strike!]

Yuan used this sword technique for the first time after seeing Tian Yang use it in his dream.

[Immortal Rendering Sword Strike!]

[rank: ancient]

[description: a devastating sword strike that will render even immortals powerless!]

Whoosh!

A massive wave of Sword Aura immediately swept the arena in front of him, consuming the blue dragon as well as Disciple Ling in an instant.

"Wha—?!"

Disciple Ling couldn't even react in time before her body was completely destroyed by the devastating attack.

The guard fell on his buttocks after witnessing the attack, and Elder Mai could only stand there with her eyes and mouth wide open, almost as if she witnessed the impossible.

Shortly after Disciple Ling's body was disintegrated into countless fragments, her body suddenly reappeared out of thin air on the floor, but she wasn't moving.

"Li-Ling'er!" Elder Mai immediately rushed to check on her disciple's condition.

She sighed in relief after confirming that Disciple Ling was indeed alive.

Then she turned to look at Yuan with a furious expression on her face. With that being said, she didn't show any signs of killing intent, which surprised Yuan.

"What was your name again?" Elder Mai asked him.

"Yuan."

"Where are you from?"

"Where I am currently, or where I came from?"

"Both."

He smiled and said, "I came from the Lower Heavens, and I am currently in the Third Heaven."

'Lower Heavens?! Impossible!' Elder Mai cried inwardly.

Chapter 1055 Nine Heavens

Eternal Grotto

Chapter 1055 Nine Heavens Eternal Grotto

"You said your name was Yuan, right? You never gave us your surname." Elder Mai asked him a moment later, as she suspected that he was from an influential family.

"I don't have anything like that. Anyways, if the match is over, can I leave now? I have people waiting for me outside." Yuan said in a calm manner.

"You think you can just leave after what you did to my disciple?" Elder Mai narrowed her eyes at him, but once again, Yuan couldn't sense any threatening feeling from it.

"Don't tell me you're going to fight me next even though I already won the match?" He asked her.

"Why would I fight you? I was just going to—"

A portal suddenly appeared a few meters away from Yuan and Elder Mai.

Then, an old man with long white hair calmly walked out of the portal with his hands clasped behind his back.

When Elder Mai and the guard saw him, they immediately bowed to him, "Sect Master Bai!"

"Senior Bai? What are you doing here?" Yuan was pleasantly surprised to see him appear in this place.

"How disrespectful! Do you know who you're before?! Lower your head and greet him!" Elder Mai suddenly shouted at him.

"It's fine. This young man is my friend." Senior Bai gestured for her to calm her with a gentle smile on his face.

"..." Elder Mai was speechless.

"I've watched your fight just now, Yuan. I must say, you've grown tremendously since our last meeting, and even your appearance changed a bit. You're almost like a different person." Senior Bai said while approaching him.

"Anyways, why don't we chat in a more quiet place?"

"Sure." Yuan nodded.

Senior Bai proceeded to make another portal before entering it.

Yuan didn't say anything to the others and followed Senior Bai, disappearing from the platform.

Once they were gone, Elder Mai turned to look at the guard and asked him, "Who was that young man just now? Is it true that he came from the Third Heaven?"

He nodded, "Yes, it's true, but I don't know anything about him. He came out of the blue and requested to go to the fifth floor."

Elder Mai turned to look at her disciple, who was still unconscious, and sighed, "When I heard that a Spirit King dared to challenge the Gates of Heaven, I immediately thought about putting this ignorant little runt in his place. However, it turns out that I had been the ignorant one. I hope this defeat won't hinder my disciple's future cultivation too much, but honestly, I'm probably hoping for too much, as even I would be depressed after such a devastating defeat."

Elder Mai carried her unconscious disciple away, disappearing from the platform, leaving the guard alone and puzzled.

After following Senior Bai, Yuan found himself on the floating platform again.

"I was really shocked when I saw your improvements, especially when I realized that you have achieved a Perfect Physique." Senior Bai said to him once they sat down.

"Do you know how many people out there would kill for a Perfect Physique? I remember trying to acquire one myself, but I failed, yet here you are, not even a hundred years old and already with a Perfect Physique." Senior Bai chuckled in a bittersweet manner.

"Did something happen?" Yuan asked him.

He nodded, "Do you remember when I told you about the Nine Heavens Eternal Grotto?"

"The four escaped immortals?"

"Yes. We managed to track down three of them and brought two of them back to the Nine Heavens Eternal Grotto, but it was at a heavy cost. Thousands of cultivators died, and a few of my good friends also perished during the struggle."

"Wait... Only two returned to the Nine Heavens Eternal Grotto? Did they kill one of them?" Yuan asked.

"Hardly. The third Immortal had managed to escape. And that's why I am reaching out to you." Senior Bai said, and he continued, "The escaped Immortal had somehow managed to escape to the lower heavens, so you might come across this Immortal."

"Wa-Wait a minute... Isn't that very bad? What if they suddenly decide to wreak havoc in the lower heavens? I don't think I have the capabilities to do anything to this Immortal."

"I am well aware of that. I'm not telling you to seek this Immortal and kill them for me. I am just letting you know so that you're aware of the situation. With that being said, the Immortal is heavily injured after escaping, so they will be powerless for a bit."

Yuan nodded, "I won't be actively searching for this Immortal, but I will keep a lookout for them. Do you know which of the lower heaven they've runned to? And what about this Immortal's appearance?"

"The Immortal can be anywhere between the Third Heaven and the Sixth Heaven. As for their appearance... To be honest, we don't know either. This Immortal is always shrouded with darkness, so we can't tell their gender or appearance."

"Shrouded with darkness, huh?"

"Even if you don't know their appearance, you will immediately know if this Immortal is nearby." Senior Bai suddenly said.

"How?" Yuan raised an eyebrow.

"You will understand it once you feel it. Even if this Immortal suppresses their cultivation, they cannot suppress their natural aura. You will feel an intense chill down your spine when this Immortal is near."

"I understand." Yuan nodded.

Sometime later, Senior Bai spoke, "Anyways, now that is out of the way, do you have any questions for me before I leave?"

"Actually, I do. Do you think it's possible for me to bring my friends to the fifth floor of the Myriad of Techniques? I want to give them some techniques."

"You mean your girlfriends?" Senior Bai smiled.

Yuan nodded, not denying it.

"I will make an exception for you only if you do me a favor." Senior Bai then said.

"What kind of favor?"

"I will let you know when the time comes. Don't worry, it's nothing dangerous or crazy. You can even refuse it when the time comes and you don't like it."

Chapter 1056 Attacking Senior Bai

Chapter 1056 Attacking Senior Bai

After pondering for a moment, Yuan agreed to Senior Bai's offer, "Since I can refuse it, I don't mind."

"Great. Then take this." Senior Bai proceeded to hand him a medallion.

"As long as you have this, you will be able to take as many people as you want to the floors that you currently have access to, so you won't be able to go to the sixth floor right now since you don't have access to it. Is this good enough?"

"This is more than enough! Thank you, Senior!" Yuan bowed to him before accepting the medallion.

"Anything else?"

"A few more, actually." Yuan said with a smile.

"Does the Myriad of Techniques have any soul cultivation techniques?" He then asked.

"Soul cultivation techniques? Those are incredibly rare even in the upper heavens. As generous as I am, even I wouldn't put something that precious in the Myriad of Techniques."

"I see... That's a pity."

"Why do you want a soul cultivation technique? Are you cultivating any spiritual techniques at the moment?"

Yuan nodded, "Yes, I am."

Senior Bai pondered for a moment before speaking, "Show me this technique. I will help you acquire a soul cultivation technique if I think it's worth it."

"Show you? You want me to attack you?" Yuan asked just in case there was a misunderstanding.

"That's right." Senior Bai said as he flew off the platform and into the spacious sky.

"Don't worry about hurting me. If you can injure me with your cultivation, I will immediately quit being a cultivator."

Yuan smiled and said, "Are you sure you want to say such a risky thing? I might accidentally hurt you."

Senior Bai laughed, "Then how about this? If you can hurt me, I will not only help you find a soul cultivation technique, but I will also pay for it."

"Deal!"

Yuan flew off the platform and hovered about 50 meters away from Senior Bai.

"Whenever you're ready." Senior Bai said, acting completely nonchalant about the whole situation, clearly very confident that Yuan wouldn't be able to hurt him no matter what.

Yuan didn't immediately attack Senior Bai as well, and he silently pondered, 'His cultivation is incredibly profound. Besides Xu Jiaqi and the Great One, he's definitely the strongest cultivator I have encountered.'

Yuan knew that he wouldn't be able to damage Senior Bai if he half-assed his attempt. Therefore, he could only go all out and treat it as though it was a life-or-death situation.

He closed his eyes and took several deep breaths.

When he reopened them, his eyes emanated a golden glow that sent shivers down Senior Bai's back.

'What is he doing?' Senior Bai swallowed nervously.

Whoosh!

A golden aura suddenly shrouded Yuan's figure, causing the atmosphere there to change.

'This is...!' Senior Bai's eyes widened with shock after sensing the unfathomable pressure from the aura.

In his entire life, this is probably the most powerful technique that he's witnessed.

'The technique is neither flashy nor grand, but it exudes an unfathomable pressure that would make even Immortals tremble in fear! Before this golden aura, one's cultivation and talent doesn't matter! This technique transcends all common sense and the very law of this universe! Where did he learn such a heaven-defying technique?!

After activating Heaven's Supremacy, Yuan took another deep breath.

'I didn't think I would use the second one so quickly after the first, but this is for the soul cultivation technique. It's worth it as long as I can damage Senior Bai even slightly.'

[God of War's Astral Arts!]

Yuan proceeded to use his second most powerful technique, summoning the golden avatar behind him.

Senior Bai had to tilt his head to see the avatar, his eyes and mouth wide open from shock.

'Impossible! This technique— This technique is God of War's Astral Arts! Why does he know this technique?!'

Senior Bai recognized this technique, but that only made him even more shocked.

Because Yuan had Heaven's Supremacy active, his avatar created by the God of War's Astral Arts was many times larger than before, and compared to the avatar, Senior Bai's figure was akin to a speck of dust.

"Heavens... What have I gotten myself into...?" Senior Bai muttered in a dazed voice as Yuan made his first movement.

He slashed horizontally, sending the massive sword wielded by the avatar crashing down on Senior Bai.

However, despite that, Senior Bai didn't move and remained hovering there with his arms clasped behind his back.

BOOM!

The sword clashed with Senior Bai's body the next moment, creating a powerful ripple that swept all of the clouds away, as well as the nearby platforms.

Yuan gritted his teeth when he saw that the attack hadn't been able to push Senior Bai back even an inch.

Therefore, he decided to attack again.

BOOM!

Since Senior Bai didn't specify how many times he could attack him, Yuan would continue to send a barrage of attacks at Senior Bai's way until he ran out of spiritual energy and soul strength.

And during his last strike, Yuan poured all of his spiritual energy and soul strength into the attack.

The attack was so powerful that it could probably destroy an entire continent.

Despite that, Senior Bai remained in the same position, seemingly unharmed from all of the attacks.

A bittersweet smile appeared on Yuan's face after seeing the results.

"I give up. You're much stronger than I thought, Senior Bai." Yuan said to him as his golden aura and avatar went away.

"..."

Senior Bai didn't respond.

It was at this moment Yuan finally noticed the expression on Senior Bai's face, and he looked like someone who just learned a shocking revelation, as his face was absolutely hysterical and filled with shock.

Yuan swallowed nervously after seeing this, and he waited for Senior Bai to snap out of his daze.

Several moments later, Senior Bai closed his mouth and eyes and took a deep breath.

"Looks like I won't be able to leave anytime soon, as we still have a lot to talk about, Yuan."

Chapter 1057 Founder of the Celestial Overlord

Chapter 1057 Founder of the Celestial Overlord

With a casual wave of his sleeves, Senior Bai refilled the empty landscape with clouds and floating platforms.

He flew to the nearest platform and proceeded to wait for Yuan, who was completely exhausted after unleashing literally all of his strongest attacks on Senior Bai.

Yuan took a seat, but Senior Bai remained standing there for some reason.

"You don't have to answer this question if you don't want to, nor am I going to force you. Yuan, that technique you used just now— God of War's Astral Arts, where did you learn it?" Senior Bai suddenly asked him.

Yuan's eyes widened slightly, as he didn't expect Senior Bai to recognize such an ancient technique.

"I encountered it by chance— that is all I'm willing to say. Sorry." Yuan said after a moment of silence.

Senior Bai shook his head, "There's no need for you to apologize. I am the one who should apologize since I am the one breaking the unspoken rule of never asking another cultivator about how they acquired their techniques."

"Now allow me to ask you another question— do you know the origin of that technique?"

"No, I do not." Yuan lied with a straight face.

As much as he trusts Senior Bai, he believed that the fewer people knew about his past lives the better. After all, there could be enemies out there that he didn't know about, and if news of his reincarnation spread, he could potentially be hunted by ancient monsters that have lived for millions of years, especially since one of his past lives was the Evil God.

"The God of War's Astral Arts... It was the Founder of the Celestial Overlord's technique." Senior Bai said with a solemn look on his face.

"Eh?" Yuan raised an eyebrow after hearing this unexpected answer.

'Founder of the Celestial Overlord? Unless the God of War also happened to be the Celestial Overlord's founder, that shouldn't be possible.'

"I have a question. What era did the Celestial Overlord's Founder exist in?"

"Around two million years ago."

'2 million years... The God of War should've existed in the Primordial Era, so they cannot be the same person. The only explanation for this is— the Founder of the Celestial Overlord is one of my past lives, and Senior Bai believes that he is the original owner of the God of War's Astral Arts when that is not the case.'

Although he had his suspicions that the founder of the Celestial Overlord was one of his past lives because they both had the same physique, there wasn't any other proof until now.

"Hm? Two million years ago? You're that old? Amazing..." Yuan realized this and praised him.

"It's only two million years. There are plenty of monsters out there that have lived far longer than I." Senior Bai shook his head.

"One more question, Senior Bai. Do you know the name of the founder?" Yuan then asked, as he wanted to see if he could remember anything after hearing the name.

However, Senior Bai shook his head and said, "Unfortunately, I wasn't worthy to hear his name. If you want to know his name, you will have to ask Xu Jiaqi. She's the only member left who knows his name."

"Is that so... Thank you."

"If you don't have any other questions, I will continue asking mine."

"Go ahead." Yuan nodded.

"My next question is related to that golden aura. I have seen similar techniques before, but none of them exuded such a terrifying pressure. Just thinking about it makes my skin crawl. Does it have a name?"

Yuan showed a bittersweet smile and said, "I'm really sorry, but I also have no idea. I don't even know how I acquired the technique, but it seems to boost my strength by a tremendous amount."

"Do you think I can take a closer look at it?" Senior Bai suddenly asked.

"About that... I also don't know how to control it. It only appears when it feels like it. It was by pure coincidence that I managed to use it just now as well, probably because I really wanted the soul cultivation technique."

Senior Bai pondered for a moment before speaking, "That technique is incredibly profound and powerful. The day you can control it is the day you will control the Nine Heavens— that is what I believe it."

"Control the Nine Heavens? I don't have such ambitions." Yuan chuckled.

The two of them continued to talk for a little longer before Senior Bai said, "Anyways, as much as I want to continue chatting with you, it's about time I leave. Do you have anything else for me?"

"Actually, I do." Yuan nodded, and he continued, "Now that I am a peak Spirit King, my cultivation won't continue until I upgrade my physique, but I still have no idea how to do so. I have tempered my body and even achieved Perfect Physique, but it doesn't seem to have any effects on my Heaven Refining Physique. Can you ask Miss Xu if she could help me find more information about my physique? I'm sure the upper heavens will have more information than what's available down here."

Senior Bai nodded, "I don't mind. I am going to see her in a bit, anyway. As for your soul cultivation technique... I will help you find one."

"Thank you." Yuan bowed to him before leaving the place and returning to the Myriad of Techniques.

Once Yuan left, Senior Bai looked at his hands that were still trembling from excitement and mumbled, "He really attacked me with the intention of killing me. If it weren't for my cultivation, I would've been in danger there... No, even with my cultivation, he actually managed to pierce my defenses and land a hit on me."

Although Yuan had managed to land a hit on Senior Bai, he didn't leave any marks, so Senior Bai is technically unharmed.

"With that being said, the fact that he, a mere Spirit King, was able to break through my defense, is a miracle in itself. If people knew that a Spirit King had landed a hit on me, they would try to covet his talent at all cost, and I would become a laughingstock... This is a secret that I must take to the grave..." Senior Bai left the place with a bittersweet smile.

Chapter 1058 A Trade

Chapter 1058 A Trade

Sometime after leaving his world that was connected with the Myriad of Techniques, Senior Bai went to meet with Xu Jiaqi.

"Lady Xu, I apologize for keeping you waiting. The young man came to the Myriad of Techniques again and I couldn't help myself and went to speak with him. He's changed a lot since our last meeting— both his appearance and strength." Senior Bai said to Xu Jiaqi shortly after arriving.

"Young man...? Are you talking about 'him'? What did you talk about with him?" Xu Jiaqi's interest was immediately piqued.

Senior Bai couldn't help but smile at her reaction.

'She normally keeps herself out of other people's business, but when it comes to Yuan, she always wants to be involved...'

"You're not going to believe me when I say this, but he managed to defeat a Spirit Sovereign as a Spirit King during a trial to access the fifth floor of the Myriad of Techniques, and it was an overwhelming victory on his end."

"Not bad, I suppose." Xu Jiaqi said in a nonchalant manner, seemingly not impressed by it.

'That kind of talent is only natural for someone with the Heaven Refining Physique,' she thought to herself.

"After the match, we had a small conversation, and he wanted me to help him look for a soul cultivation technique."

"Did you agree to help him?" She asked.

He nodded, "Yes, I did, but only after I tested him."

"Don't be too shocked when you hear this, but that young man... He somehow acquired the technique that the Celestial Overlord's founder used — the God of War's Astral Arts."

"HE WHAT?!?!?" Xu Jiaqi suddenly exclaimed in a voice so powerful that it literally shook the entire place.

"Are you sure it was the God of War's Astral Arts?!" She quickly asked him.

"Yes, I am certain, since he used it on me as part of the test." Senior Bai nodded.

"God of War's Astral Arts..." Xu Jiaqi took a few steps back and stared at the ground with a dazed look on her face.

Over the next several moments, she would recall the memories of the God of War's Astral Arts being used by the founder of the Celestial Overlord.

"Where... Did he tell you where he found it...?" Xu Jiaqi suddenly asked in a low voice.

"I tried asking, but he didn't want to tell me. I don't blame him, considering how valuable that technique is."

"..."

After another moment of silence, a resolute look appeared on Xu Jiaqi's ethereal face as she spoke, "Bring me to the Myriad of Techniques. I want to speak with him."

"Eh? What about the meeting? The Celestial Emperor will be at the meeting this time as well. It wouldn't be wise to..."

Xu Jiaqi glared at him with a sharp gaze that could literally pierce one's body. Fortunately for Senior Bai, his cultivation was high enough to block the gaze.

"Alright..." Senior Bai quickly gave up and sighed with a bittersweet smile on his face.

He then opened a portal to his world and entered it with Xu Jiaqi.

Meanwhile, Yuan had just returned to the Myriad of Techniques and entered the fifth floor with the others after showing the guard Senior Bai's medallion.

"I can't believe it... Did he really beat a disciple from the Gates of Heaven?" The guard that stayed behind asked the other guard who led Yuan to the arena.

The guard nodded with a nervous look on his face, "Not only did he defeat the disciple, he completely destroyed her."

"Did they give him a super weak opponent because of his Spirit King cultivation?"

The guard shook his head, "No... You probably won't believe this, but his opponent wasn't an Outer Court disciple but an Inner Court disciple, and it was the famous Disciple Ling."

"Disciple Ling?! You don't mean—"

"Exactly that Disciple Ling."

"Unbelievable... No wonder why Senior Bai gave him the medallion..."

At the fifth floor, Yuan said to the ladies, "Go ahead and look around. Let me know when you're done because I will also be looking around."

"Okay."

However, shortly after he started looking at the techniques, Senior Bai's voice resounded inside his head as a portal appeared beside him.

"Yuan, I'm sorry, but can you come back for a moment? Xu Jiaqi would like to speak with you, and she won't take no for an answer."

'Xu Jiaqi...? What does she want from me?' Yuan wondered to himself.

"Xiao Hua, Feng Feng, Yingying, can you wait for me here?" He said to them, as he didn't want to risk Xu Jiaqi meeting with Xiao Hua, and not wanting her to be left out, he asked the others to stay with her.

Once they left his body, Yuan said to them, "Thank you. I will be right back. And if the others ask where I am, let them know where I went."

Yuan entered the portal shortly after, disappearing from the Myriad of Techniques and appearing in Senior Bai's world literally minutes after he just left.

When he arrived at the platform Senior Bai and Xu Jiaqi were waiting, Yuan bowed to them.

"Greetings, Lady Xu and Senior Bai."

Xu Jiaqi raised an eyebrow after noticing the way he addressed her had changed from Miss Xu to Lady Xu, implying that he was no longer as ignorant as before.

"Yuan, I won't waste your time and get straight to the point. I want the God of War's Astral Arts." Xu Jiaqi suddenly said.

"Eh?" Yuan looked at her with widened eyes, clearly surprised by her sudden demand.

Seeing his reaction, Xu Jiaqi continued, "Of course, I am not asking you to hand over the technique for free. You're looking for a soul cultivation technique, right? In exchange for the God of War's Astral Arts, I will give you the strongest soul cultivation technique that I can acquire."

'She wants to trade a soul cultivation technique for my God of War's Astral Arts? Why does she want this technique? What does it mean to her?' Yuan silently wondered to himself.

Chapter 1059 Xu Jiaqi

Chapter 1059 Xu Jiaqi

'Although the God of War's Astral Arts is a powerful technique, I don't mind sharing it, especially if I can acquire a powerful soul cultivation technique from it. Xu Jiaqi, she's a powerful cultivator with plenty of influence even within the upper heavens. If it's someone like her, I will definitely acquire an extremely powerful soul cultivation technique...'

While Yuan pondered, Xu Jiaqi suddenly said in a low voice, "In your eyes, the God of War's Astral Arts may be nothing more than a powerful technique. However, the God of War's Astral Arts is more than just a technique to me— it's the founder of the Celestial Overlord— my father's technique."

"Huh?" Yuan suddenly halted all of his thoughts and looked at Xu Jiaqi's beautiful face with a baffled look on his face.

"W-What did you say? The founder of the Celestial Overlord is your father...?" Yuan didn't dare to believe it.

If Xu Jiaqi was truly his daughter in his past life, then what would their relationship be right now? Would they still be considered father and daughter?

"Yes, he is my father, but we're not blood-related. He saved my life when I was on the verge of death. I was just a young mortal who didn't even know about cultivation at that time, and ever since then, I followed him around the Nine Heavens while training under him. We started out as a teacher and disciple, but he eventually accepted me as his adoptive daughter."

Yuan was relieved to find out that Xu Jiaqi wasn't his real daughter but an adoptive one.

'Since she's my adoptive daughter, I guess there's no harm in giving her the technique.'

After taking a deep breath, Yuan spoke in a calm voice, "Alright, you have a deal. In exchange for my God of War's Astral Arts, you will give me a soul cultivation technique."

"Really?!" An excited look appeared on Xu Jiaqi's face, but she quickly concealed it, returning to her serious face.

"Yes, for real. Give me your forehead, I will transfer the technique to you right now." Yuan said.

"Huh? You're willing to give it to me right now even though I don't even have your soul cultivation technique? Are you stupid or what?" Xu Jiaqi couldn't help but make this remark even though it could easily backfire on her.

Yuan chuckled at her insult, "That's quite harsh, Lady Xu. How can you call me stupid when I am doing this out of generosity and trust?"

Xu Jiaqi cleared her throat after hearing his words, "I apologize, I subconsciously blurted that out just now because I was surprised that you would be willing to hand over such a powerful technique to me so easily. I am not used to it."

"So do you want the technique now or...?" Yuan continued to smile.

"I do."

Xu Jiaqi nodded before she leaned forward.

Yuan calmly raised his arm and gently tapped her forehead.

"..." Senior Bai watched this historical moment with wide eyes.

'This is the first time I've seen Lady Xu willingly let another man touch her body, and even on her bare skin directly...' He thought to himself.

Meanwhile, Yuan transferred the God of War's Astral Arts to Xu Jiaqi, who felt oddly nostalgic for some reason.

'This feeling... It's the same as when Father transferred his techniques to me...' Xu Jiaqi thought to herself as she quickly absorbed the information.

A few moments later, Xu Jiaqi opened her eyes, which flickered with profoundness within.

"It's done." Yuan lowered his hand and said to her.

Xu Jiaqi didn't say anything and suddenly turned around before flying off the platform, almost as if she was running away.

However, she stopped shortly after and proceeded to hover in the air.

A few moments later, her body suddenly exuded an unfathomable aura that swept the place like a tsunami.

"Thank you, Senior Bai." Yuan suddenly said.

"No problem." Senior Bai smiled.

If Senior Bai hadn't protected him with his own spiritual energy right before Xu Jiaqi released her pressure, he would've sustained heavy internal injuries.

Of course, Xu Jiaqi was also confident that Senior Bai would protect Yuan.

'Even with Senior Bai protecting me, my body feels incredibly heavy, almost as though I have a star on my back! So this is what it's like to be a cultivator at the peak of the Nine Heavens!' Yuan began sweating profusely, his body quickly becoming soaked.

Suddenly, a massive golden avatar materialized behind Xu Jiaqi, which had some differences compared to Yuan's avatar.

Xu Jiaqi's avatar was not only much larger, but it was also clearly a female avatar, almost like a goddess, and the weapon it was wielding also looked different.

"Damn..." Yuan subconsciously muttered out loud when he saw the majestic avatar behind Xu Jiaqi.

"That isn't even half of her full power." Senior Bai suddenly said, "If she unleashes any more of her power, this space will be destroyed, so she's holding back right now."

Yuan swallowed nervously after hearing such words.

Meanwhile, Xu Jiaqi had her head turned and tilted as her gaze was fixated on the avatar behind her.

'Father...'

Sometime later, Xu Jiaqi deactivated the technique and returned to the platform.

"So? What did you think? Is it the same God of War's Astral Arts the same one you know?" Yuan asked her with a smile.

"Yes, it's definitely the same technique. I owe you for this, Yuan."

"Lady Xu... I hate to interrupt you, but they're calling for us." Senior Bai suddenly said while pointing to the communication jade slip resting on his palm.

Xu Jiaqi sighed, "We have to go now, Yuan. Come back here in one month. I will have your soul cultivation technique ready by then."

"Take your time, Lady Xu." Yuan nodded with a smile on his face.

Senior Bai created a portal for Yuan to leave shortly after.

Once he was gone, Senior Bai and Xu Jiaqi also left that world before making their way to the meeting.

Chapter 1060 Lost Legacy

Chapter 1060 Lost Legacy

As they made their way to the meeting, Senior Bai realized something, "Oh yeah, Lady Xu, I forgot to tell you. Yuan also wants to see if you can acquire any more information on the Heaven Refining Physique. He's acquired the Perfect Physique, but his Heaven Refining Physique hasn't been upgraded yet."

"I will look into that after I acquire the soul cultivation technique," she calmly said.

Senior Bai smiled and said, "Because you're going to help him find a soul cultivation technique, my agreement with him is now useless. I guess I will have to find something else to give him."

He'd promised Yuan that he'd help him find a soul cultivation technique if Yuan could injure him. But since Xu Jiaqi is also giving him a soul cultivation technique, he would only be wasting resources by giving Yuan another soul cultivation technique—one that will most likely be inferior to the one Xu Jiaqi will be giving him. Therefore, he decided to find something else to give Yuan.

'He really resembles Father...' Xu Jiaqi silently recalled Yuan's appearance.

Now that Yuan looked more mature and even grew a little taller, his resemblance to the founder of the Celestial Overlord became even more clearer and obvious to her.

When she first met Yuan, she noticed that Yuan and her adoptive father had similar eyes, but everything else from his demeanor to his aura was completely different. This was the same during their second meeting.

However, on their third meeting just now, Yuan had changed so much that she almost mistook him for her father.

'Why does he resemble father so much? Don't tell me he's one of my father's true descendants? No... father never had a wife or childrens— at least not to my knowledge.'

Sometime later, they arrived at the meeting, where hundreds of individuals were gathered.

Each of these individuals emanated an unfathomable aura that only Immortal cultivators that have achieved the apex of cultivation could emit.

"How can you be this late when the Celestial Emperor himself had scheduled this meeting, Xu Jiaqi? Bai Linyu? We even had to contact you before you showed up." One of the figures there said out loud when they arrived, her voice filled with contempt.

"You better have a good explanation for making the Celestial Emperor wait." Another person said.

"How disrespectful to the Celestial Emperor. The Celestial Overlords are getting more arrogant by the day."

Multiple people there expressed their disdain without any filters or fear for Xu Jiaqi. It was clear that she had some enemies within this place.

However, Xu Jiaqi remained tranquil and said, "Is this the right place for the meeting? I didn't know dogs would be allowed to participate. Color me surprised."

"Xu Jiaqi! You bitch! You dare call us dogs?!"

"I sure did. What are you going to do about it? Bite me? Go ahead and try it if you dare."

"Settle down." A calm yet authoritative voice suddenly resounded in the meeting room.

This voice carried a profound aura that made these Immortals that could destroy stars with a fist subconsciously lower their heads.

Xu Jiaqi turned to look at the person who just spoke. He was sitting at the end of the room and was looking down at them from a tall platform.

"Why are you late, Celestial Overlord Xu?" The voice returned.

"I had some important matters to attend first," she calmly responded.

"Oh? A matter that is even more important than what is happening here? I'd like to hear it if you don't mind." The voice sounded genuinely curious.

And without explaining further, Xu Jiaqi suddenly released her cultivation, sending ripples throughout the area.

"W-What the hell do you think you're doing in the Celestial Emperor's presence?!"

"Have you gone mad, Xu Jiaqi?!"

"Stop it right now!"

The people there shouted when they sensed her indomitable aura, but nobody there actually dared to stop her, as they were all waiting for the others to move first.

As for the Celestial Emperor, he remained on his golden throne with a calm expression on his face, seemingly unfazed by the development.

A few seconds later, a massive golden avatar materialized behind Xu Jiaqi, shocking everyone in the room, as most of them actually recognized this technique.

"This is..." Even the Celestial Emperor couldn't remain calm after seeing the God of War's Astral Arts.

"This is why I am late. Do I need to explain myself any further?" Xu Jiaqi spoke a moment later.

"Is that technique what I think it is?" The Celestial Emperor asked her.

"God of War's Astral Arts..." The people there muttered after hearing the Celestial Emperor's question.

"Would you like to see for yourself whether this technique is real or not, Your Majesty?" Xu Jiaqi asked him with a daring smile on her face.

The Celestial Emperor chuckled, "As much as I want to entertain a beauty such as yourself, I will have to decline your offer. This place has history that goes all the way back to the Primordial Realm, so I would prefer it if we don't make a mess here. Now if you'll excuse me..."

The Celestial Emperor suddenly waved his sleeves in a casual manner, and the very next moment, the golden avatar behind Xu Jiaqi shattered into countless tiny fragments.

"Anyways, does this mean you have found the Founder of Celestial Overlord's lost legacy?" The Celestial Emperor then asked her.

"..."

Xu Jiaqi remained silent, but not because she didn't want to answer his question. In fact, she couldn't, as she didn't know either.

'I was too hasty to acquire the technique and forgot to ask Yuan where he'd acquired the technique.' She sighed inwardly.

After a moment of silence, she said, "I don't know because I had to rush here right after acquiring the technique."

"You don't know? Then how did you acquire it?" The Celestial Emperor asked out of curiosity.

"I will not be sharing such information, considering how many people here covet my father's legacy." Xu Jiaqi calmly said as she swept the crowd there with a cold gaze.

Chapter 1061 Celestial Emperor's Request

Chapter 1061 Celestial Emperor's Request

"You're right. I was being insensitive just now. Let's end the topic here and return to the reason I've gathered all of you here today." The Celestial Emperor said a moment later.

When the people there heard this, they cursed inwardly.

'Fuck! That Xu Jiaqi definitely found their ancestor's lost legacy! Considering how powerful their ancestor was when he was alive, the Celestial Overlord will become more powerful than ever now! This is bad! The Celestial Overlords will completely overshadow the other factions—our faction soon!'

The immortals there were nervous because the Celestial Overlords were already at the top of the faction ranking. Now that they have their ancestor's lost legacy, their power will skyrocket, allowing them to completely dominate the faction ranking, and nobody there wanted that to happen.

However, there was nothing they could do about it. Unless they could somehow steal the lost legacy from the Celestial Overlords, the Celestial Overlords will, without doubt, grow.

Sometime later, once Xu Jiaqi and Senior Bai took their seats, the Celestial Emperor spoke, "I have gathered all of you today for one simple reason."

After a slight pause, he continued, "The 'Heavens' have spoken recently."

"What?!"

Everybody there was shocked to hear this, including Xu Jiaqi.

"Not long ago, the Heavens became aware of a certain individual. The Heavens believe this person to be related to the Evil God and demand for his extermination as soon as possible."

"Evil God?!" Everybody there experienced another wave of shock after hearing this name. Follow current novels on FreeWebnovel.com.

'Evil God... The monster that soaked the Nine Heavens in blood and a heretic who slayed the first Celestial Emperor... Why is his name relevant in this day and age?!' The Immortals wondered to themselves.

The Celestial Emperor continued, "I know what all of you are thinking. What does the Evil God have to do with this, and what in Heavens' name is happening? Unfortunately, I don't have the answers at this moment. All I know is that we must exterminate this person as soon as possible before he does anything crazy. And before you ask, I do not know the identity of this person nor his appearance. However, I do know that he was last spotted in the Third Heaven."

"The Third Heaven?" The people there became even more puzzled.

How could someone with connections to the Evil God be in such a lowly place?

Someone there suddenly raised his hand and said, "Your Majesty, if this person is in the Third Heaven, there's nothing we can do about it. Or are you telling us to send people down there? To travel from the Supreme Heaven to Spirit Heaven will require a tremendous amount of resources."

The Celestial Emperor calmly nodded, "This is not an order. I am merely requesting your help at this moment. Ten— The first ten people to accept my request will receive my support. This means you will be able to send people to Third Heaven without needing to worry about using any resources. Of course, you will be compensated for your efforts as well. Furthermore, the one to exterminate the heretic will be rewarded handsomely."

"I will do it!"

"Me too!"

Ten people raised their hands and accepted his quest immediately. In fact, over 70 percent of the people there raised their hands almost simultaneously.

The Celestial Emperor nodded with a content smile on his face, "Very well. Since everyone is so eager to assist me, I will fully support everyone here. However, since there are so many people accepting my request, we will limit each faction, family, or sect to only one person."

Sometime later, someone there asked, "Your Majesty, are there any leads to finding this heretic? Without any information on this individual, it would be impossible to find him even if all of us send our entire forces down there."

"We have a lead. Once you arrive in the Third Heaven, go speak with the Ji Family there. They should know of the situation and the identity of this person, as they were the ones who helped the Heavens become aware of his presence." The Celestial Emperor said.

The meeting continued for a few more hours until the Celestial Emperor dismissed them.

"What should we do, Lady Xu? Should we also send down someone? Even though we're not obligated to assist the Celestial Emperor, it would look bad on us and the Celestial Overlord, especially when the Evil God is involved." Senior Bai asked her.

Xu Jiaqi pondered for a moment before speaking, "There's no need for us to send anyone down there. After all, we already have someone within the Third Heaven who can help us with this matter."

"You don't mean..."

"Yes, we'll have Yuan help us exterminate this heretic. He is definitely strong enough for this task. In fact, he might even be stronger than the people the others send down there because they have to restrict their cultivation. Meanwhile, Yuan is a Spirit King who can defeat even Spirit Sovereign."

"Then I will immediately let him—"

"There's no need to rush it. Even if the Celestial Emperor and the others hurry, they will still need some time to prepare. I will let Yuan know about the matter when we see each other again in a month." Xu Jiaqi said.

"I understand."

Shortly after the Celestial Emperor ended the meeting, several people there approached Xu Jiaqi and Senior Bai.

A cold smile appeared on Xu Jiaqi's face when she saw their faces, and she spoke in a calm voice, "If you're here to ask me about my father's legacy, you can save your breath."

These people looked at each other with perplexed faces.

"So it's true... That you've recovered your ancestor's lost legacy..."

"Let's not be so hasty, Lady Xu. I'm sure we can work something out. Even if it's just a single piece of treasure, we're willing to negotiate."

"Do you really intend on hogging the legacy all for yourself? That isn't very wise, Xu Jiaqi."

Xu Jiaqi sneered, "What I do with my father's legacy is up to me. If you want it, why don't you take it from me— if you have the capability, that is."

Chapter 1062 Lady Xiang

Chapter 1062 Lady Xiang

When the Immortals heard Xu Jiaqi's words, a look of disgust appeared on their faces, almost as though they'd accidentally swallowed a live fly.

"Hm?" Xu Jiaqi suddenly noticed a certain figure in the distance, who appeared to be leaving the place.

"Now if you'll excuse me, I have some important business to attend to." And without explaining any further, Xu Jiaqi disappeared from her spot and appeared in front of this individual she had been staring at.

"Oh~!" This individual was surprised when Xu Jiaqi appeared before her like a ghost.

"It's been a while, Lady Xiang." Xu Jiaqi said, her attitude towards this woman being the complete opposite of how she treats the others, almost as though they were friends.

"Lady Xu? You really startled me just now! I thought I was under attack or something." Lady Xiang sighed.

"Sorry, but I really needed to speak with you, and it looked like you were about to leave."

"Oh? What do you want to talk to me about?"

"Let's go somewhere more private, shall we?" Xu Jiaqi said.

Lady Xiang nodded, "I have a villa nearby. Let's go there."

Xu Jiaqi turned to look at Senior Bai and said to him, "You can return without me."

"I understand. If you need anything, call me." Senior Bai didn't want to linger around any longer due to the people there and disappeared almost immediately, almost as though he'd been teleported away.

'As I thought, she's going to get that soul cultivation technique for him... It's not going to be cheap even for someone like her...' Senior Bai sighed inwardly as the image of Lady Xiang's face appeared in his head.

Sometime later, Xu Jiaqi sat down with Lady Xiang in her villa.

"I will get straight to the point, Lady Xiang. I would like to purchase your soul cultivation technique." Xu Jiaqi said to her.

"..."

Lady Xiang slowly lowered the tea in her grasp and stared at Xu Jiaqi with a baffled look on her face.

"I'm sorry, I don't think I heard you properly just now. Can you repeat it just in case?" Lady Xiang said a moment later.

"Your soul cultivation technique. I need it."

A stiff smile appeared on Lady Xiang's face when she realized that she hadn't heard wrong just now, and she asked in a dumbfounded voice, "Why do you want my technique? And you should know that this technique isn't for sale, and even if it were for sale, it cannot be learned by just anyone. Furthermore, we both know that you're not suitable for this soul cultivation technique, so why would you want to learn it?"

"Who said anything about using it for myself? I am giving it to someone." Xu Jiaqi said.

Lady Xiang only became even more baffled after hearing such words.

"I owe him a great debt, and I promised to give him the best soul cultivation technique that I can find. If you're not willing to sell it to me, then I can only find another soul cultivation technique for him."

"This person... Is he your lover?" Lady Xiang couldn't help but ask, her eyes filled with curiosity.

"No. He's just a junior." Xu Jiaqi calmly said.

"Is that so? How boring. Anyways, I doubt this person is capable of learning my soul cultivation technique, since only someone born with immense soul strength could possibly learn it. In the entire Nine Heavens—No, in the last ten million years, only three people have been capable of learning this technique, myself being one of them."

"You won't know it until you try it. This junior... he's immensely talented and has the potential to surpass us. Please."

Lady Xiang narrowed her eyes on Xu Jiaqi, who had her head slightly lowered in a pleading manner.

"I have never seen you care so much about someone before, Lady Xu. If you tell me why you're going through all of this trouble, even lowering your head and begging me, I will consider it."

Xu Jiaqi took a deep breath and said, "I can tell you under one condition. You will not say a word about his identity to anyone. In fact, you'll act as though he doesn't even exist."

"I accept your condition."

Xu Jiaqi nodded and said, "This junior was the one who found my father's legacy—the God of War's Astral Arts. In exchange for it, I promised to give him a soul cultivation technique."

Lady Xiang raised an eyebrow after hearing this information.

"That's it? I was anticipating something more exciting... Also, he's just a junior who managed to stumble upon your ancestor's legacy. You could've easily forced him to give you the legacy without needing to make such a promise— at least that's what most people in the gathering today would've done if they were in your shoes."

"Are you looking down on me? As if I would do something that low and despicable." Xu Jiaqi sneered.

Lady Xiang smiled, "I am just joking."

"Are you going to help me or what? I've already lowered my head for you. If you think I will do it for a second time..."

A serious expression appeared on Lady Xiang's face as she spoke, "Since we're friends and I do owe you a favor, I will give this junior a chance to learn my soul cultivation technique. However, this doesn't mean it will be free. Whether or not this junior is capable of learning the technique or not, you'll still have to pay."

"How much do you want?" Xu Jiaqi asked.

"Who said anything about money? I want you to do something for me." A cold smile appeared on Lady Xiang's face.

Xu Jiaqi frowned, "What are you plotting?"

"You see, a certain group of people have been harassing me and my family recently. I'm sure you've heard about them. I would love to deal with them myself, but I do not have the capability. If you want me to give this junior a chance to learn my soul cultivation technique, you will have to help me 'deal with' these people. Do you understand what I am saying?"

The frown on Xu Jiaqi's face deepened.

"You want me to destroy the Sky Whales faction?" she mumbled in a dumbfounded voice.

Chapter 1063 Limitless Bloodlust

Chapter 1063 Limitless Bloodlust

"The Sky Whales faction is a top 50 faction in the entire Nine Heavens, not to mention that within their alliance there is a top 10 faction. I cannot attack them without any reasons, especially considering my faction's reputation. You're asking for the impossible." Xu Jiaqi said with a deep frown on her face.

"I am well aware of your faction's reputation. Celestial Overlord, the number one righteous faction in the nine heavens and also a top 3 faction. However, who said anything about attacking the Sky Whales faction without a reason? If you want a reason, I will give you one. The current leader of the Sky Whales faction Immortal Tongshi, is actually a heretic— a Demon Worshiper."

"What?!" Xu Jiaqi's eyes widened with shock.

"Where did you get that information? I swear, if you're lying to convince me to attack them..."

"If you don't believe me, go investigate it yourself. I will even give you my sources. Also, have you forgotten my identity? Do you think I would lie to you about something like this?"

Xu Jiaqi narrowed her eyes and pondered, 'If it's true— that Immortal Tongshi is a Demon Worshiper, we have all the right to execute him.'

"I will let you know my decision in a week after I am finished with my investigation." Xu Jiaqi said a moment later.

"Take all the time you need." Lady Xiang smiled.

Xu Jiaqi left the villa shortly after.

Meanwhile, Yuan looked through the fifth floor of the Myriad of Technique after returning.

Most of the techniques on the fifth floor were Divine-rank cultivation techniques, and although there were a few interesting ones, none of them were really appealing enough for him to learn.

After looking through all of the techniques, Yuan met up with Meixiu and the others.

"Did you guys find anything you like?" He asked.

"I didn't." Chu Liuxiang shook her head, and she continued, "I am still learning the techniques I acquired the last time we came here. Also, none of the techniques here suit me."

"Me too." Meixiu said.

"Um... I found one that I like, but it's a Divine-rank technique..." Li Jinxi said.

"Oh? What kind of technique is it?" Yuan asked, his interest piqued.

"It's called Limitless Bloodlust. It allows me to grow stronger with every magical beast that I kill. I think this is a very fitting technique for me." She said.

"Oh? That sounds very similar to my innate ability that allows me to grow stronger as I consume my enemies." Lan Yingying said.

"Indeed, and it's the perfect technique for someone like you." Yuan smiled.

"If there's nothing else, let's check out." He then said.

Sometime later, they went to pay for the Li Jinxi's technique.

"This technique will cost you 70 million spirit stones." The young man behind the desk said.

"70 million spirit stones..." Yuan's eyebrows twitched when he heard the price tag.

'I have underestimated the price of a Divine-rank technique! However, even if it's a Divine-rank technique, isn't it a little too expensive?' Yuan wondered to himself.

When the young man saw Yuan's frozen expression, he smiled and explained, "This technique may be a Divine-rank technique, but its potential is actually closer to Ancient-rank, hence why it's so much more expensive than the average Divine-rank technique."

"70 million spirit stones is too much, Yuan. I appreciate the thought, but I cannot let you spend that much money on me." Li Jinxi said with a bittersweet smile on her face.

Clearly, she liked the technique very much and would be disappointed to not acquire it, but she didn't want to be unreasonable, nor could she afford it by herself.

Feng Yuxiang glanced at Li Jinx for a second before speaking, "I'll pay for it."

"Eh?" Everyone there turned to look at her.

"Why would you...?" Li Jinxi asked with a puzzled look on her face.

"You're my Young Master's precious friend, and I cannot allow him to lose face over something like this." Feng Yuxiang said with her body emanating a prideful aura.

Yuan didn't object to this and said, "I will pay you back as soon as possible, Feng Feng."

After all, he also believed that this technique would benefit Li Jinxi greatly and wanted her to have it.

Sometime later, Feng Yuxiang paid 70 million spirit stones to the young man.

After counting it, he handed the technique over to Li Jinxi.

"Good luck."

"Thank you, Madam Feng, thank you, Yuan. I will not forget this debt." Li Jinxi bowed to them after they left the Myriad of Techniques.

"Don't mention it." Feng Yuxiang smiled.

"What are we going to do now, Yuan?" Chu Liuxiang asked him.

"I am going to visit Tian Chenyu's old home," he said.

"If you don't mind, I want to cultivate this new technique." Li Jinxi suddenly said, as she could barely hold her excitement.

Yuan nodded, "Sure. I'm sure there's a Cultivators' Haven in this city. Let's stop by that place first then."

After asking for directions, they went straight to the Cultivators' Haven.

Yuan helped Li Jinxi pay for their best room.

"Yuan, I would also like to cultivate by myself for a while." Meixiu suddenly said, "I have been ignoring my cultivation in this world for a while now, and I don't want to be too far behind and become a burden."

When she heard Meixiu's words, Chu Liuxiang also decided to stay behind, "Then I will stay as well."

"I don't mind. How long do you guys want to cultivate?" Yuan asked them.

"How does two weeks sound?" Li Jinxi said.

"Alright. Then I will come get you guys in two weeks." Yuan nodded.

In the end, he rented three of the best rooms in the Cultivators' Haven for 2 weeks.

"See you in two weeks, Yuan." The ladies said to him before going into their respective rooms to cultivate.

"I'll see you guys later." Yuan left the Cultivators' Haven shortly after.

"Now then, let's go visit my old home, shall we?" A smile appeared on Yuan's face as he began approaching Tian Chenyu's home.

Chapter 1064 Tian Family

Chapter 1064 Tian Family

After leaving Meixiu and the others in the Cultivators' Haven to train, Yuan made his way to Tian Chenyu's home.

However, he quickly realized a problem.

'It's been millions of years since then, and this city clearly has gone through many changes. The chances of my old home being in the same location is probably zero...'

After pondering for some time, Yuan decided to check the place just in case it was still there.

Sometime later, he arrived at the location of Tian Chenyu's home— or where it was supposed to be.

However, it was quickly made clear to Yuan that his home no longer existed. This location that used to be Tian Chenyu's home has been replaced by a restaurant.

Yuan sighed, "I knew it was pointless. After all, millions of years have passed since Tian Chenyu's era. There's no way his home would still be here after so long."

"Don't give up, Brother Yuan." Xiao Hua said to him.

He smiled, "You're right. I shouldn't give up so quickly."

He approached the restaurant a moment later.

"Welcome to the Heavenly Restaurant. How many guests?" The waitress at the front asked when they entered the building.

"Hello, this may be sudden, but I have a question. Do you know anything about the Tian Family that used to live here? If my memories serve me right, this place used to be their home." Yuan asked the waitress with a handsome smile on his face, which made it hard for her to refuse.

"Yes, I know of the Tian Family. In fact, they are the owners of this restaurant." The waitress said a moment later.

"Really?! Where can I find them? I would like to speak with them!"

"Um... What relationship do you have with the Tian Family? They're not really friendly with strangers." The waitress asked him.

"Our ancestors knew each other, and my ancestor owed the Tian Family a favor, so I am going to return that favor in my ancestor's stead." Yuan calmly said.

"If that's the case... Let me give you the Tian Family's current address." The waitress nodded.

Sometime later, Yuan left the restaurant and went to the location given to him by the waitress.

"So this is where the Tian Family of this generation resides..." Yuan mumbled to himself as he stood before the residence of the Tian Family.

The building looked nothing like the one in his memories, but he still felt a nostalgic feeling from it for some reason, almost as though he instinctively knew he belonged here.

He approached the front doors and knocked on it with Xiao Hua by his side.

A few moments later, an old woman opened the doors and stepped outside.

"What do you want?" The old lady had an unfriendly aura around her, and she looked a little angry for some reason.

"If you're from the Lin Family, then you can turn around because the Young Lady won't see any of you!"

Yuan raised an eyebrow at her behavior, but he remained calm and spoke, "I think there's been a misunderstanding. I am here on behalf of my ancestor, who owes a great debt to the Tian Family."

The old lady sneered at his words and said, "That's the worst excuse so far. Even a dog could come up with a better story than you! Now scram, dogs from the Lin Family!"

"Eh? But I am not from the Lin Family. Tian Chenyu, do you know of this name?" Yuan said with a stiff smile on his face.

"Tian Chenyu?!" The old lady's eyes widened with shock.

"H-How do you know of this name?! Who are you?!"

"I apologize for the late introduction. My name is Yuan. I have recently learned that my ancestors owed a great debt to the Tian Family, but he was unable to repay that debt before he passed away, so I came here to repay his debt for him. If there's anything I can do for the Tian Family, don't hesitate to ask me."

Since they were technically his family and Tian Chenyu never really got the chance to help his family, as he was too busy dealing with demons, Yuan decided to assist the Tian Family instead.

"Please wait here for a minute. Since I am just a caretaker, I cannot let you in by myself. I will go speak with the head of the family right now." The old lady bowed to Yuan before closing the door.

Yuan proceeded to wait outside.

Meanwhile, inside the residence, the old lady walked past a bronze statue in the middle of the garden to speak with a middle-aged man.

"What? Someone is here to return a debt?" The middle-aged man raised his eyebrows after hearing this.

"Yes, and he claims that his ancestors knew our ancestors."

"How foolish. Do you really believe that? He's probably using that as an excuse to intrude on our family. Let him be." The middle-aged man casually waved his hand.

"But he knew the name of our ancestor, Tian Chenyu..." The old lady saved this information for last.

"What?! Why didn't you say this sooner?! Nobody outside the family should know his name! And since we've all taken an oath to never reveal this name to anybody outside the family, there's no way an outsider would know about it!"

Although most people in the Nine Heavens forgot about Tian Chenyu's name, the Tian Family never forgot it. In fact, Tian Chenyu's family made it so that all descendants are required to remember this name and pass it down to their children, which has become their tradition.

However, they also made everyone swear an oath to never reveal Tian Chenyu's real identity to outsiders or they would die a horrible death.

The middle-aged man and the old lady left the room shortly after.

Sometime later, they brought Yuan and Xiao Hua into their residence.

Once they were all seated, the middle-aged man said to the old lady, "Go bring us some tea."

"I understand." The old lady bowed to them before leaving the room.

Chapter 1065 Tian Family(2)

Chapter 1065 Tian Family(2)

Once the old lady left, the middle-aged man turned to look at Yuan and continued, "My name is Tian Xianzu, the head of this humble family."

"May I know your background and what you know about the name Tian Chenyu?" Tian Xianzu asked him with a friendly smile.

He nodded, and said, "Honestly, I don't know much about Tian Chenyu. I only learned of this name in a note left behind by one of my ancestors. I also don't know how long ago this note was written, but I firmly believe that no matter how much time passes, a debt will never go away on its own."

Tian Xianzu pondered for a moment before asking, "Do you know how your ancestor became indebted to our ancestor?"

"I don't."

"Then do you have the note with you?"

"Unfortunately, the note is very fragile and on the verge of breakdown, so I didn't dare to bring it with me."

"Hmm..." Tian Xianzu narrowed his eyes slightly with a pondering look on his face.

It was obvious that he didn't fully trust Yuan, as his story sounded a little too convenient and suspicious.

"The tea is ready." The old lady returned with the tea.

After pouring all of them a cup, she left the teapot on the table.

"Bring my daughter here." Tian Xianzu suddenly said to the old lady.

"The Young Lady...?" The old lady seemed hesitant, her reason being the same as Tian Xianzu's reason.

"Yes."

"I understand."

The old lady left again.

'I will decide if we can trust him after I see his reaction to my daughter.'
Tian Xianzu thought to himself.

He was thinking that if Yuan had any interior motives, he would see it the moment Yuan meets with his daughter.

Yuan casually sipped on the tea and didn't utter a single word for the next few minutes.

He understood their situation— that the Tian Family was having doubts about his identity, which he couldn't blame because they were right to doubt someone as suspicious as him.

In fact, he would also be suspicious if he were in their shoes, and if he speaks or tries to convince them that he's not there to harm them, that would only make him more suspicious.

Sometime later, Yuan could hear two sets of footsteps approaching the room.

A few moments later, a beautiful young lady who looked to be a little older than Yuan entered the room.

She had a tall and slender figure. Her hair was pitch black and tied into a hair bun behind her head. Her face looked gentle yet fierce at the same time, and her clear brown eyes shone with brightness.

"..."

Xiao Hua and the other two inside Yuan's body were surprised when they saw this young woman, but it was not because of her beauty.

No, they were surprised by her facial features that resembled Yuan but looked way more feminine, almost as though she was Yuan's twin sister.

In fact, with the help of makeup, Yuan could definitely become this young woman and vice versa.

However, just like Tian Xianzu, Yuan didn't notice their resemblance.

"Let me introduce you to my daughter, Tian Yanyu. Yanyu, this is our guest, Yuan."

"Hello." She gave him a courteous nod.

"It's nice to meet you. I'm Yuan, and I came here to repay a debt that my ancestors owed to your family. If there's anything you need help with, don't hesitate to let me know." Yuan said to her with a gentle smile on his face.

"..."

Tian Yanyu clearly wasn't expecting such a reason for his visit, but she didn't complain.

After a moment of silence, she spoke again, "You'll help us with anything?"

Yuan nodded, "As long as it's within my power, I will do my best to help you."

A cold look suddenly appeared on Tian Yanyu's face as she spoke, "Then help me erase the Lin Family from this world."

"Yanyu!" Tian Xianzu immediately frowned at her words.

"The Lin Family? The first time I've heard about them is when your caretaker mistook me for them. Who are they? And what have they done to deserve this punishment?" Yuan asked her.

"You've never heard of the Lin Family? How is that possible? They're one of the biggest families in this world— They're one of the Seven Legacy Families!" The old lady exclaimed.

"Actually, I'm not from around this area, but I have heard of the Seven Legacy Families." Yuan said.

"The Lin Family has been harassing and bullying my family for the last four years because I refused to become their oldest son's woman." Tian Yanyu said with a disgusted look on her face.

'So it's that kind of situation, huh...' Yuan sighed inwardly.

"So can you help us or not? If you can't, then we don't need your help at all." Tian Yanyu stared at him with slightly narrowed eyes.

Yuan didn't immediately respond and began pondering.

"You don't have to mind her unreasonable request, Yuan. Although it's true that the Lin Family has been harassing us, there's nothing we can do about it."

Yuan sighed out loud before speaking, "It's fine. I don't mind it."

He turned to look at Tian Yanyu and continued, "I don't mind helping you with the Lin Family, but I cannot do something like slaughter them— not because I don't have the power to. I am just not fond of unnecessary bloodshed."

The Tian Family's eyes widened with shock after they heard Yuan's words, mostly because he casually claimed that he had the power to destroy the Lin Family.

"How about this? I will get the Lin Family to stop harassing your family and stop pestering you. Would that be helpful enough?" Yuan said as he looked directly at Tian Yanyu.

"I-If you can really do that..." Tian Yanyu nodded in a dazed manner, as she didn't really expect him to agree to her request.

After all, they were going against one of the Seven Legacy Families, an untouchable force for most people.

Chapter 1066 Tian Family(3)

Chapter 1066 Tian Family(3)

"W-Wait a minute!" Tian Xianzu suddenly said.

"What's wrong?" Yuan asked.

"This is ridiculous! You want to go against the Lin Family, one of the Seven Legacy Families?! I appreciate your willingness to help us, but that's too much! You're not only going to get yourself killed, but you're also going to drag our Tian Family along with you to the grave!" Tian Xianzu exclaimed.

He turned to look at Tian Yanyu and continued, "You too! Stop your nonsense! The moment we lay a finger on the Lin Family, they will completely destroy us! The only reason they don't dare to touch our family right now is because of our family history! However, if we give them a reason to act, they will move in full force!"

"Are you telling me to sit still and stay silent while they continue to harass our family?! Our restaurant's business has gone down 90 percent since last year because of the Lin Family's cowardly antics! If this continues any longer, our Tian Family will be reduced to nothing, regardless if we touch them or not! And I am not going down without a fight!" Tian Yanyu remained resilient.

"You—!" Tian Xianzu didn't know what else to say after hearing his daughter's words.

"Let's all calm down, shall we?" Yuan suddenly said, still looking as relaxed as ever.

"The Lin Family may be one of Seven Legacy Families, but they are not untouchable. Why don't you tell me a little more about your situation?"

Tian Yanyu nodded and took a seat at the table.

"I will get another teacup." The old lady said before leaving the room.

Once she was seated, Tian Yanyu spoke, "It started four years ago when I first met Lin Minghai on the stage during a friendly competition between our sects. I managed to narrowly defeat him, and the very next day, he would begin courting me. Of course, I refused. However, he would continue to court me persistently over the next several days. Eventually, days turned into weeks, and weeks turned into months. It's been four years since then, but he's still courting me."

"He was just being annoying at first, but as time passed, he would become more aggressive, and he would also start scheming by spreading bad rumors about me so that others would stay away from me. Then he started targeting our family businesses. We used to own several restaurants throughout the city, but we had to close down most of them because the Lin Family would send thugs to cause drama in our restaurants and mess with our reputation, forcing us to close them down. Now we're down to just one restaurant."

"Of course, we can't do anything about it because we don't have concrete proof that the Lin Family is behind these incidents, but there's no way it's all just a coincidence. Lin Minghai even personally came to our house before, and he told my father that he would help us deal with the thugs, acting like he is innocent."

Yuan listened to Tian Yanyu explained their situation in detail with a tranquil expression on his face, but he was inwardly annoyed at the Lin Family and their nature.

"How typical. The powerful and influential tyrants are abusing their power and oppressing the weak to achieve their goals. This is quite common in the cultivation world. These people are a waste of spiritual energy. We should just kill everyone in the Lin Family and get this over with." Feng Yuxiang snorted.

"Have you forgotten about our situation, Feng Feng? We're already being hunted by the Seven Legacy Families and the Ji Family. If we do something like that, they will be all over us." Yuan said.

"We're already hunted, so it wouldn't make any difference. In fact, we should be the ones to strike first! They tried to ambush us outside the Stairway to Heaven, so it would only be fair if we ambushed one of them in return!"

"Let's not make our situation any more complicated than it already is. If we can solve this without shedding too much blood, that would be ideal." Yuan shook his head inwardly.

Once she finished explaining, Tian Yanyu asked, "What do you think? Can you help us?" Read latest chapters at FreeWebnovel.com Only.

Yuan pondered for a moment before speaking, "Are the thugs still an issue?"

"Yes, they come to our restaurant once a week to cause trouble for the customers, sometimes more."

"Then we will start by dealing with the thugs. The Lin Family won't be able to do anything unless they want to reveal that they're with the thugs." Yuan said.

"That sounds reasonable. But how are we going to do that?" Tian Yanyu asked him.

"It's quite simple, actually. I am going to visit your restaurant as a customer, and if they pick a fight with me, I will deal with them accordingly." Yuan said with a smile.

"You make it sound so easy... but will it really work out as it does in your head?"

He nodded, "Of course. They're working for the Lin Family and you're their target, right? If you visit the restaurant with me, they will, without a doubt, try to mess with us."

Bang!

Tian Xianzu suddenly slammed the table.

"Wait! You want my daughter to be bait?! I am against her involvement in your nonsense!"

"Well, I don't really need her help, but it will make things move quicker."

"I will do it." Tian Yanyu said.

"Yanyu!"

"You say you don't want my involvement, but I am already involved—I have been since the beginning. And like Yuan said, the Lin Family won't be able to do anything to us unless they want to expose themselves." Tian Yanyu said.

"That may be true, but they will still know that you're trying to fight back against them! I don't want anything to happen to you!"

"Don't worry, I will protect her." Yuan suddenly said.

Tian Yanyu turned to look at Yuan and smiled, "Don't look down on me. I am not so weak that I need your protection. If it wasn't for his background, I would've already taken care of Lin Minghai by myself."

"Good." He smiled.

Chapter 1067 Tian Family(4)

Chapter 1067 Tian Family(4)

"A-Are you seriously going to do this?" Tian Xianzu was still feeling concerned about this whole situation.

In his eyes, a stranger that they haven't known for even half a day suddenly told them that he would help them take care of the Lin Family, one of the Seven Legacy Families. If it were anybody else, they would have already kicked Yuan out. However, for some reason, neither Tian Xianzu nor Tian Yanyu doubted him.

"Trust me, if anything goes wrong, you won't have to take the blame, as I will take the blame for myself." Yuan comforted him with a confident smile.

"Why are you so confident? This is the Seven Legacy Families we're talking about. It's like messing with a bee hive. Anger one bee and you'll anger the other bees as well. In this case, that would be the other six Legacy Families." Tian Xianzu asked him.

Yuan smiled, "It's not my first time dealing with them."

"Eh?"

Both Tian Xianzu and Tian Yanyu's eyes widened with surprise after hearing such words.

'Not his first time dealing with them? What does he mean by that...?' They wondered inwardly.

"Anyways, before we deal with the thugs, I would like to say one more thing. To make this safer for all of us, let's not call me Yuan when we are outside. Let's see..."

Yuan began pondering for a name.

'I wanted to use Tian Yang for my fake identity, but it wouldn't be wise to associate myself with the Tian Family with what we're going to do, especially if things go south.'

Yuan suddenly noticed Xiao Hua sitting beside him and turned to look at her with a pondering face.

Noticing his glare, Xiao Hua turned to look at him with a puzzled face.

A smile appeared on Yuan's face as he spoke, "Whenever we're outside, please address me as Xiao Yang."

"Eh?" Xiao Hua's eyes widened with shock.

"Do you mind? If you do, I can use another surname." Yuan said.

"Use mine, Young Master!" Feng Feng said.

"I-It's okay. Brother Yuan can use it." Xiao Hua nodded.

Due to the history associated with her family's background, it would be quite foolish to take the Asura Clan's surname, perhaps even courting death. However, since they're only in Third Heaven, where nobody would recognize this surname, it was fine.

"T-Then we'll be in your care, Xiao Yang." Tian Yanyu said to him a moment later.

Sometime later, Yuan and Tian Yanyu left the Tian Family's household and made their way to the Heavenly Restaurant.

"I hope nothing happens to them..." The old lady sighed.

"Let's not jinx it... And have some of our guards secretly follow them. If anything happens, I want them to immediately report it."

"As you wish— Oh... Should I also notify Madam?"

"...No, not yet."

"I understand."

When Yuan and Tian Yanyu arrived at the Heavenly Restaurant, Tian Yanyu asked, "Where do you want to sit, Xiao Yang?"

"Anywhere is fine."

"Alright."

Tian Yanyu then said to the waitress, "Give us the best table."

"I understand, Young Lady."

The waitress recognized Yuan and glanced at him again before leading them to their table.

Once they were seated, Tian Yanyu said, "Order whatever you want. It's in the house."

Yuan nodded and looked through the menu before ordering the dishes that intrigued him the most. Since he was expecting there to be trouble, he didn't want to order too much food and waste them in the end.

Once the waitress got their orders, she left them alone.

"By the way, I should have said this sooner, but if you're going to hide your identity, wouldn't it be wiser if you disguised your face as well?"

"Now that you mention it... Oh, but we don't have any pills for disguise."

"Young Master, if you want, I can concoct you one right now." Feng Yuxiang suddenly said.

"Thank you, but it's a little too late for that since everyone here has already seen my face, not to mention the people that had been following us since we left the Tian Family."

"I understand."

"Hey." Tian Yanyu suddenly spoke, "Can you tell me about yourself? What did you do before you came here? Are you a disciple? If so, what sect? What motivated you to help us?"

"Before coming here, huh? I guess I was just wandering the world. I used to be in a sect but not anymore. As for my motivation... It may sound foolish, but I really don't like owing debt to anyone, even if this debt is technically my ancestor's responsibility." Yuan said.

"You left the sect...? Or did you get kicked out for causing trouble?" Tian Yanyu seemed to be intrigued about his sect.

"Of course not. I left my sect on good terms. In the first place, I joined them because I needed to gain some experience, as I lived a secluded life before I joined the sect."

"Is that so..." Tian Yanyu stared at his face with a pondering look on her face.

"I understand your feeling of not wanting to owe any debts, but I don't know if I would go as far as repaying a debt that my ancestors owed millions of years ago. You're a silly one, Yu— Xiao Yang."

Yuan chuckled, "I get that a lot."

"But I don't hate it. In fact, I kind of admire your passion." She suddenly added.

"Thank—"

Yuan suddenly halted his mouth when he sensed killing intent directed in his direction.

"What's wrong?" Tian Yanyu asked him when she saw his actions.

"They're here earlier than I thought. We haven't even gotten our first dish yet and they're already looking for a fight." He showed a cold smile on his face.

"You don't mean..."

"Waow! Look what we have here! If it isn't the Young Lady! Did the sun rise from the west today or something? How unusual to see you here!" A deep voice suddenly boomed inside the restaurant, causing everyone there to look at the source.

Yuan casually turned his head to see a group of hooligans wearing bandit-like clothes and with faces that looked like they were asking for trouble approaching their table.

Chapter 1068 A Group of Hooligans

Chapter 1068 A Group of Hooligans

"Hey, hey, hey! Young Lady! Why are you sharing a table with another man? Are you cheating on Young Master Lin Minghai already?!" This group of troublemakers approached the table with wide smiles on their faces.

"Young Master Lin Minghai will be heartbroken when he learns of this!"

"Hey, brat! Who are you? Do you know whose woman you are messing with?!"

"..."

Tian Yanyu didn't say anything, and her gaze remained on Yuan the whole time, as she didn't want to miss any of his movements.

'Now, what are you going to do, Yuan? If you cannot even handle a few hooligans, the Lin Family will definitely be out of your reach.' She pondered inwardly.

Yuan casually turned to look at the hooligans and spoke in a calm voice, "I'm sorry, but I wasn't expecting any more guests. Also, when was the last time you guys changed clothes? You all smell like rotten eggs and dog feces together. I would appreciate it if you can be more considerate to others, especially since we're inside a restaurant where people come to eat."

"Y-You bastard..."

The hooligans' faces flushed with redness after hearing Yuan's insults, and their bodies trembled uncontrollably.

However, before they could even utter a single word, Yuan continued to speak, "My food will be here soon. If you're not gone by then, don't blame me for being rude."

"Oh? And what the fuck are you going to do if we don't leave?" The hooligan leading the group asked Yuan with a malicious grin on his face.

"Feng Feng, I don't want their blood to dirty the place I am going to eat at. Can you deal with it without making a mess? Oh, leave one of them alive." Yuan suddenly said in a low voice.

"It would be my pleasure, Young Master."

Several orbs of flames suddenly emerged from Yuan's body and flew towards the group of hooligans, and before they could even react, their bodies were immediately engulfed with flames.

In less than a second, all but one of the hooligans were burnt until there was nothing left of them, leaving behind no mess or blood.

Everyone in the restaurant was shocked by what they had just witnessed, but they were also puzzled, as they couldn't comprehend the situation.

After Feng Yuxiang killed most of the hooligans, Yuan turned to look at the last one and asked in a calm voice, "Who hired you to mess with the Tian Family? If you don't speak truthfully, you will end up just like your friends — erased."

"I-I don't know! I swear! I am just a lowly lackey following orders! Please, you have to believe me!" The young man got on his knees and begged Yuan.

"Then tell me about your order." Yuan then said.

"Yes! We, the Stone Bandits, were hired to disturb the Tian Family's businesses until they shut down!"

"And you don't know who hired you?"

"No!"

"Then who does?"

"That would be the leaders!"

"And where can I find these leaders?"

"T-That's..." The young bandit hesitated to answer this question, as he would also be killed by his peers for revealing the location of their base.

"If you tell me, I will not only let you live, but I will even make sure the Stone Bandits won't be able to harm you. A pretty good deal, don't you think so?" Yuan said.

"I-I am willing to tell you." The young bandit nodded after a moment of silence.

Since he was going to die either way, he might as well accept Yuan's request that will, at the very least, give him a chance to survive.

"Very well. You can bring me to your hideout after we're done eating here. Until then, go wait outside. I wasn't joking when I said that you all stink." Yuan said.

"I-I understand!" The young bandit immediately jumped to his feet, but before he could go anywhere, Yuan's voice resounded again.

"Oh, right. One more thing. If you're thinking about running away, you will immediately be killed. My divine sense covers a good chunk of this city, so unless you can outrun my divine sense, I suggest you stay put and wait for us. Do you understand?"

"I-I wouldn't dare to run away from you!" The young bandit vigorously nodded his head.

"Good. Then I will see you in a bit."

The young bandit quickly scrambled out of the restaurant, but he didn't dare to wander too far away from the restaurant, as he feared that Yuan might mistake it as escaping.

And for the next hour, this young bandit wouldn't move a single step from this location, almost as if he'd turned into a stone statue.

"You... What was that just now?" Tian Yanyu asked him with an astonished look on her face after the bandit left.

"What? Are you not happy with the way I handled it?" Yuan raised an eyebrow.

"No, that's not it... Forget it. I didn't think you would resort to violence so quickly, especially after what you said about not wanting to shed unnecessary blood."

"I don't, hence why I killed them without spilling any blood." Yuan said with a joking smile on his face.

"I'm just joking. They are just a bunch of bandits who have been causing trouble for your family and countless other people for years. Nobody will care if I clean up some trash. Of course, if the Lin Family is willing to go to war over those hooligans, that would be a different story."

"Your appearance is quite deceptive, as you are more daring than your appearance suggests." Tian Yanyu mumbled with a slight smile on her face.

The waitress approached their table with their food a few minutes later, and they began eating the food shortly after, acting as though the whole situation with the hooligans just now didn't even happen.

Once they were finished, Yuan and the other two went outside to meet with the young bandit again.

"Alright. Bring me to your hideout." Yuan said.

"Yes!" The young bandit answered without hesitation.

"Hey, it might be a bit dangerous, so if you want, you can return home for now and wait for me to finish." Yuan said to Tian Yanyu, who immediately frowned upon hearing his words.

"Are you still looking down on me? I told you that I can handle myself, right? If I turn out to be a burden, you can leave me alone to die because I will deserve it."

"Leave you to die...? You know very well I can't do that." Yuan said with a bittersweet smile.

"Alright, if you want to follow me, go ahead."

Tian Yanyu was a peak Spirit Lord despite her seemingly young age, so she could be considered quite talented for this world's standard.

Of course, since Yuan was suppressing his spiritual energy, Tian Yanyu was unaware of Yuan's cultivation as a peak Spirit King.

With that being said, Yuan didn't bother suppressing his aura, so she knew that he was a formidable individual— at least that's what her instincts and experience told her.

Compared to her fellow disciples, Yuan was multiple times more powerful.

Sometime later, the young bandit led Yuan and Tian Yanyu to this large building.

"We're here, Young Master." The young bandit said to Yuan, who had his eyebrows raised.

Meanwhile, Tian Yanyu had a deep frown on her face.

"Are you mocking us right now?" Tian Yanyu muttered in a cold voice.

The building itself wasn't the problem; it was the environment and the situation outside of this place that made Tian Yanyu furious.

There were multiple women wearing heavy makeup and revealing clothes standing outside this building, and they were all glaring at Yuan like foxes.

It was clear what kind of purpose this place served, and the only person there that didn't understand the situation was Xiao Hua, who was too innocent to know about these kinds of things.

"I-I am most certainly not mocking you, Young Lady! This is truly the Stone Bandits' hideout! They have been operating this entertainment business for over 50 years now!" The young bandit quickly said, trying his best to defend himself.

"This is certainly a surprise." Yuan mumbled out loud, "When you hear about bandits, you normally associate them with the wilderness. This is the first time I've heard of bandits hiding within the city, acting like gangsters instead."

The young bandit then spoke, "I don't know the Stone Bandits' leader's name, but he should have a pretty high standing in this place."

"What should we do?" Yuan turned to look at Tian Yanyu, who was glaring at the building with a disgusted look on her face, as she hated the concept of women selling their bodies for money.

However, before she could respond, the workers at this building approached them with bright smiles on their faces.

"Handsome, are you new here? I have never seen you before, and I would never forget a face as handsome as yours."

"How would you like to spend the day with me? Not only will I give you special service, but I won't even charge you a single copper."

"Is this your girlfriend here? I won't mind even if she joins us..."

These women quickly surrounded Yuan. However, when they got too close, a burst of flame suddenly erupted from Yuan's body.

"Young Master, should I just burn this whole place to the ground and call it a day?" Feng Yuxiang's voice resounded the following moment.

"There's no need to be so upset. They're just trying to do their jobs." Yuan shook his head inwardly.

He then said to the ladies, "Sorry about that just now. We are actually here to see your boss. Is he available right now?"

"Our boss...?" The ladies exchanged glances with each other.

"Do you have an appointment? The boss doesn't meet with anyone that doesn't have one." One of them said.

"We do. Tell your boss that Tian Yanyu is here for her appointment." Tian Yanyu suddenly said.

"I understand. I will go tell my manager."

One of the ladies went into the building while the others went to speak with other nearby pedestrians.

"Tian Yanyu? There's nobody with that name on the appointment list." The manager said after hearing the woman's words.

"Really? That's what she told me, though." The woman said.

"She's probably just another ordinary whore trying to get a job at our Passion Palace. Ignore them."

"I don't think that's the case... That woman was really beautiful and looked nothing like one of us, and she had a handsome young man and a child with her."

"It doesn't change the fact that they're not on the appointment list and that they'd lied to you. Ignore them!" The manager exclaimed.

"I understand..."

Sometime later, Yuan said, "It's been a while since that woman went inside."

Tian Yanyu sucked her teeth, "They probably realized that we didn't have an appointment, or they're just trying to ignore us."

"What are you going to do now?" She then asked.

"If they want to ignore us, we will do the opposite and force them to acknowledge us." Yuan said.

He turned to look at the young bandit and said to him, "Bring us to your boss."

"Y-Yes..." The young bandit wanted to cry, but he had no choice but to obey Yuan's words.

The young bandit proceeded to lead Yuan and the others inside the building.

"Welcome to the Passion Palace! What kind of entertainment are you looking for—" The worker at the front desk stopped speaking when he noticed Xiao Hua's figure.

"I'm sorry, but this place isn't appropriate for children..."

Yuan glanced at Xiao Hua and cleared his throat, "Sorry, but we're not here to have fun."

He turned to look at the young bandit and continued, "Go tell your boss he has three minutes to show up before I blow up this entire place."

Naturally, Yuan was only bluffing, but the young bandit and the others didn't know that.

"R-Right away!" The young bandit immediately disappeared from their sight.

Chapter 1070 Stone Bandits' Hideout(2)

Chapter 1070 Stone Bandits' Hideout(2)

"Y-You! Who are you?! Do you know where you are?! How dare you cause a commotion here!" The manager of the Passion Palace showed up shortly after Yuan entered the building with Tian Yanyu.

Yuan glanced at the middle-aged man, who had a furious face, and said, "If you had brought us to your boss in the first place, we wouldn't have needed to resort to this."

"Guards! Throw them out of here!" The manager shouted, and over a dozen Spirit Lord cultivators surrounded them the next moment.

"Are you aware that this place is being run by the Stone Bandits?" Tian Yanyu asked them in a calm voice.

And she continued, "If you are aware of this fact and still decided to help them, we have the authority to kill you all. This is your last chance to walk away."

Tian Yanyu retrieved an elegant sword with a thin blade and casually swung it at the empty air in front of her.

"Stone Bandits?! That is a baseless accusation! What proof do you have that this place is run by these bandits?!" The manager exclaimed.

"I have worked in this place for over 30 years and I have never seen anything related to those bandits from this place!"

Tian Yanyu smiled and said, "To not notice something like this after so long, you must be blind, but that's not even the worst part. If you've worked here for over 30 years and do not know about the Stone Bandits, that must mean they don't trust you enough to tell you about it despite the amount of time you have spent here."

The manager trembled in anger after hearing such words, and he roared, "They're just spewing nonsense to mess with our heads! This place isn't run by any bandits! Kill them!"

"Yes!"

The guards shouted as they encircled Yuan and his small group.

"Don't say I didn't warn you!" Tian Yanyu said as she went into an offensive position.

However, before the guards or Tian Yanyu could move, Yuan suddenly activated Heavenly Domain, instantly overwhelming the guards and forcing them to their knees without seriously injuring them.

"Let's all just calm down and wait for the boss to show up, shall we?" Yuan spoke with a nonchalant expression on his face.

Even though the guards couldn't see Yuan's cultivation, they instinctively knew that he was not someone to be trifled with, so they all remained on their knees with their heads lowered even after the Heavenly Domain was deactivated.

Meanwhile, somewhere inside the building, the young bandit was kowtowing before a bulky bald man, who had an enraged expression on his face.

"So you failed your mission and even brought trouble back to our hideout, huh? I knew you were trouble since the day we accepted you. I should've killed you sooner..." The bulky man suddenly jumped out of his bed, where several naked women were resting, and landed in front of the young bandit.

"I hope you're prepared for your punishment, young one..."

However, the young bandit immediately jumped to his feet and rushed outside.

"You think you can run away?!" The bulky man got dressed in less than a second and chased after the young bandit, who didn't dare to look back as he rushed back to Yuan and Tian Yanyu.

"Young Master! I brought the boss here!" The young bandit shouted even before he could see Yuan's face again.

"Die, you useless trash!" The bulky man had caught up to the young bandit and prepared to strike him.

However, before his fist could reach the young bandit, a figure appeared between them and causally blocked his fist.

"So you're the Stone Bandits' leader? I have a few questions for you." Yuan calmly spoke as he stood before the bulky man like an immovable mountain.

"W-Who the fuck are you? Stone Bandits? I have no idea what you're talking about." The bulky man was greatly surprised by Yuan's sudden appearance and was even a little nervous.

Even though he didn't go all out for his strike, it was still enough to kill a Spirit Lord with ease, yet Yuan had managed to block it with one hand and with seemingly no effort at all.

"So you're not affiliated with the hooligans that have been causing trouble for the Tian Family?" Yuan asked.

The bulky man retrieved his fist and spoke, "Tian Family? I have heard of them, but what do they have anything to do with me? Don't tell me you believed that brat over there without any proof?"

"So you're not the leader of the Stone Bandits, and you have no affiliation with the Stone Bandits?" Yuan asked again.

"The answer is no to both of your questions. You should do some investigations before you accuse someone. I also expect some kind of compensation for the commotion you have caused my business today." The bulky man said.

Yuan suddenly smiled and retrieved an object that was emitting a golden glow.

"When someone lies before me, this Grail of Truth will light up, so what you just told me is a lie."

The bulky man took a few steps back after seeing this treasure. 'Where the fuck did he get such a powerful treasure?!' He cried inwardly.

Yuan turned to look at the young bandit and asked, "Have you been lying to me?"

"N-No!" The young bandit quickly said.

The Grail of Truth did not emit any light after hearing his words.

Yuan turned to look at the bulky man again and said, "This is all the proof that I need to deal with you."

"Xiao Yang! Is everything okay?! Why did you suddenly disappear like that?!" Tian Yanyu appeared at this moment with Xiao Hua following behind her.

"Hey, I just found our bandit boss." Yuan said.

"Really?!" Tian Yanyu frowned when she saw the bulky man's appearance.

"Y-You... I know him! I have seen him working as a guard for the Lin Family before!" She exclaimed after recognizing the bulky man's face.

Chapter 1071 Stone Bandits' Hideout(3)

Chapter 1071 Stone Bandits' Hideout(3)

"Hmph! So what if I have worked as a guard for the Lin Family? What are you trying to say?" The bulky man coldly snorted.

"I will get straight to the point then." Yuan said, "Did the Lin Family tell you to mess with the Tian Family?"

"..."

The bulky man kept his mouth shut this time, not daring to respond to Yuan's question, as this was the only flaw for Grail of Truth. However, one could argue if this was really a flaw, since if someone refuses to answer when they know what will happen if they do, it could only mean that they were going to lie.

"If you think silence will save you, I have bad news for you..." Yuan calmly said to the man.

"And what are you going to do to me? Kill me? You don't even have any concrete proof that I belong to this Stone Bandits or whatever." The bulky man sneered.

"Proof? In a world where the powerful is always right, proof is not necessary." Yuan spoke with a cold smile on his face, and his peak Spirit King aura that could suppress even a Spirit Emperor filled the hallways and nearby rooms, causing everyone to tremble before it.

Tian Yanyu stared at Yuan with wide eyes.

'This aura— He's a Spirit Emperor?! No! That's not possible! Spirit King is the peak in the Third Heaven! There's no way he's a Spirit Emperor!' She cried inwardly.

The bulky man subconsciously took a step back when he felt Yuan's aura, and he spoke in a nervous voice, "Y-You are powerful, I will give you that, but you won't be able to handle the Lin Family by yourself!"

Yuan chuckled, "Who said anything about dealing with the Lin Family by myself?"

"Anyways, are you going to tell me or not? I will not ask you again. My patience is running low."

The bulky man showed him a bold smile and said, "Go fuck—"

Whoosh!

Yuan suddenly retrieved his Empyrean Overlord and slashed it at the bulky man in a speed that was too quick to react.

The bulky man's head rolled on the floor the next moment before his body collapsed.

Tian Yanyu's jaw dropped a little after seeing this.

"Y-You actually killed him?" She almost couldn't believe that Yuan would kill the bulky man so quickly.

"It's pointless talking to him. There should be other high-ranking bandits that know about their deal with the Lin Family." Yuan said with a nonchalant look on his face, feeling not even the slightest guilt from killing a mere bandit that has caused the Tian Family so much trouble.

He turned to look at the horrified young bandit and said, "Go grab his head and bring me to the other bandits."

"Y-Yes!" Now realizing that Yuan was the real deal, the young bandit didn't dare to hesitate to listen to his commands.

He quickly went to pick up the bulky man's decapitated head and proceeded to bring Yuan around the building.

Whenever they encountered a bandit, Yuan would use the Grail of Truth to make sure that he wasn't troubling anyone innocent.

He would also ask the bandits questions, and when they refused to answer or try to run away, Tian Yanyu would act according to her own will and slay them. Of course, she would still kill them even if they answered their questions, as she could not forgive these bandits that have ruined their family business.

It was mayhem within the Passion Palace with blood being spilled all over the place.

Eventually, the guards arrived at the scene to stop the commotion.

"Halt!" A dozen peak Spirit Lords and a few Spirit Kings showed up before Yuan and Tian Yanyu.

"You are..." The guards immediately recognized Tian Yanyu because of her beauty, but they did not recognize Yuan.

"Lady Tian! What in heaven's name are you doing?! Why are you involved in this unscrupulous massacre?!" The guards asked her.

"Unscrupulous? How rude. I am merely cleaning up the bandits that have been messing with my Tian Family for years."

"Bandits?" The guards were taken aback by her words.

"The Stone Bandits. I'm sure you've heard of them. They're quite famous for human trafficking and robbery."

"Do you have any proof that the people you're killing are related to the Stone Bandits?" The leader of the guards asked after some pondering.

If Tian Yanyu was telling the truth— that she's cleaning up the bandits, the city would be awarding her for her efforts instead of being punished.

"Of course." Tian Yanyu nodded, and she pointed to the small group of bandits that they had captured and been dragging around the whole building.

"They all admitted to being part of the Stone Bandits, and they even confirmed that the Lin Family had paid them to mess with my Tian Family."

"What?!"

The guards were shocked after hearing this information.

The leader of the guards approached the group of bandits and asked them with a stern expression, "Is what she said true?"

"Y-Yes! We're all part of the Stone Bandits! Please! We'll tell you everything! Just save us from these monsters!" The bandits began crying.

They'd rather spend time behind bars than to deal with Yuan and Tian Yanyu.

The leader of the guards was speechless, and he said to Tian Yanyu, "We will deal with the rest from here. Please return to your home for now. We will visit you once we are done here."

She didn't say anything and turned to look at Yuan instead.

"We have already fulfilled our purpose here. Let's leave for now." Yuan said.

"Okay."

However, before they could leave, the leader of the guards asked Yuan, "Excuse me, who are you? I know of Lady Tian and the Tian Family, but I don't recognize you."

Yuan then answered, "My name is Xiao Yang. I am just a rogue cultivator who is currently in the process of repaying a debt my ancestor owed the Tian Family. If you need to speak with me, you can find me at the Tian Family."

"I-I understand..." The guard nodded in a dazed manner.

Yuan left the building and returned to the Tian Family with Tian Yanyu shortly after.

Chapter 1072 Lin Family's Damage Control

Chapter 1072 Lin Family's Damage Control

Once Yuan and Tian Yanyu left the scene, the guards began their investigation on the Passion Palace and questioned all of the workers there.

Yuan also told the young bandit to assist the guards before leaving, which made it a lot easier for the guards to identify the bandits, speeding up their investigation tremendously.

News of what happened at the Passion Palace quickly began spreading throughout the city like wildfire, and rumors of the Lin Family paying the Stone Bandits to mess with the Tian Family was amongst the news, which shocked the city.

This caused quite the backlash for the Lin Family. Even though there wasn't any direct backlash, their family name was being dragged through the mud by being associated with the bandits, which was more than enough to make them lose face, and losing face is the worst thing that could happen to these influential families that only care about such things.

The Lin Family quickly went into damage control and tried their best to convince the people that the Stone Bandits were lying to mess with their reputation and that they weren't trustworthy because, well, they were bandits, even going as far as spending money to spread it.

Although this did alleviate some of their troubles, not everyone believed it.

"Fuck! Fuck! Fuck! That fucking bitch Tian Yanyu! How dare she mess with us like this!" A handsome young man within the Lin Family kicked the table in front of him when he heard the news of Tian Yanyu dealing with the Stone Bandits, sending it along with everything on it flying across the room.

Things have gone so smoothly for him for the past few years that this sudden retaliation from the Tian Family had taken him by complete surprise.

"I swear I am going to make her regret defying me— the Lin Family!"

This handsome young man was Lin Minghai, who has been courting Tian Yanyu for the last few years without any success.

"Young Master Lin, please calm down. If we act against the Tian Family now, it would only solidify the rumors that we're working with the Stone Bandits." The servant of the Lin Family said to him.

"Are you telling me to just sit here and let that bitch spit on my face?! I refuse!" Lin Minghai roared.

"I did not say that, Young Master. I'm just saying that there are better ways to go around this. For example, you can use this chance to visit the Tian Family and demand compensation for ruining the Lin Family's reputation."

"Hahaha! This is a great idea, Steward Jin!" Lin Minghai laughed out loud.

"Prepare the guards! We're going to visit the Tian Family right now!"

Meanwhile, at the Tian Family, Tian Xianzu was in disbelief after hearing about the situation from his daughter.

"We not only dealt with the hooligans, but we even cleaned out the infamous Stone Bandits in half a day! Yuan is the real deal! He will definitely be able to help us get the Lin Family off our backs!" Tian Yanyu spoke with intense excitement, as this incident had relieved a lot of her built up stress.

'Is this what victory feels like?' She tightly gripped her hands into fists.

"This is just the beginning." Yuan suddenly said. "Now that we've taken care of the bandits, one of three things will happen."

"One, the Lin Family will pretend it never happened and not bother us for a bit. Two, they could send more people to mess with us, or they will come to us directly."

"Personally, I would prefer it if they directly came to us, as that would make things easier."

Tian Xianzu sighed, "Regardless of their actions, they will not forget what happened today and will definitely try to get revenge. In their eyes, even though we only dealt with the hooligans, we had indirectly defied them, which isn't any different from directly defying them."

He turned to look at Yuan and continued, "I really hope you know what you're doing, because if things go south, your little antics will mark the end of our Tian Family."

Yuan smiled, "Don't worry, I will keep the Tian Family safe even if I have to wipe out the Seven Legacy Families in order to do so."

"You... I know you're powerful, but how can you say such a thing so casually? The more you go against the Seven Legacy Families the more they will retaliate. If they cannot handle you in this world, they will send people from the upper heavens down here. This is the main reason why nobody dares to mess with them, unless you also have a family in the upper heaven, such as the Four Ancient Families." Tian Yanyu said.

"Because this is not my first time confronting one of the Seven Legacy Families." Yuan calmly responded, leaving them speechless.

'Dear heaven, what have we gotten ourselves into...? Just who is this young man?' Tian Xianzu cried inwardly.

Meanwhile, inside a sect somewhere in the Third Heaven.

"E-Elder Suyin! This is an emergency!" A middle-aged man hastily approached a beautiful middle-aged woman in a square with a nervous look on his face.

The middle-aged woman stopped lecturing her disciples and turned to look at the middle-aged man, "Elder Long? What happened?"

"This is about your family! I have just received news that your daughter, Tian Yanyu, had caused a commotion, which resulted in the Lin Family losing a tremendous amount of face!"

"What?! What did my silly daughter do?!" Elder Suyin, also known as Tian Suyin and who was Tian Yanyu's mother, exclaimed.

Elder Long proceeded to explain the whole incident between Tian Yanyu and the Stone Bandits to Tian Suyin.

"That foolish girl! I warned her countless times to not mess with the Lin Family and just ignore them!" Tian Suyin gritted her teeth in frustration after learning about the situation.

"I'm going to return home for a bit. Can you let the Sect Leader know about my situation?" She then said.

"Of course." Elder Long nodded.

After dismissing her disciples, Tian Suyin left her sect and rushed back to the Silver Heaven City.

Chapter 1073 Lin Family's Visit

Chapter 1073 Lin Family's Visit

DONG! DONG! DONG!

"Tian Family! Get your ass out here! The Lin Family is here to demand for answers!"

Yuan and the others heard the front door being banged on and a loud voice resound the following moment.

"Looks like the Lin Family decided to show up personally, and they even moved faster than I anticipated." Yuan smiled.

"What should we do?" Tian Yanyu asked.

"Since you caused this mess, you're going to deal with it." Tian Xianzu said in a cold voice, pushing all responsibility to them even though he's the family head.

Tian Yanyu turned to look at Yuan, who spoke in a calm voice, "Let's meet them and see what they have to say. If they do anything inappropriate, I will deal with them accordingly."

"Alright." Tian Yanyu nodded.

The two of them went to greet the visitors shortly after, and then they brought the Lin Family to one of the guest rooms.

"Tian Yanyu! You bitch! Do you have any idea how much trouble you have caused for my family with your little act at the Passion Palace today?! How dare you spread such nasty rumors! You will compensate us for the damage!" Lin Minghai began shouting even before they sat down.

Tian Yanyu remained calm and spoke in a sneering voice, "The Stone Bandits claimed that your Lin Family hired them to mess with my family. I had nothing to do with it. If you want to blame someone, blame the bandits — or even better, blame yourselves for messing with my family!"

Lin Minghai slammed on the table and roared, "Our Lin Family had nothing to do with those filthy bandits! How dare you slander us?!"

"Slander? Those hooligans started messing with my family's business the day I rejected your advances, and don't even think about giving the excuse that it's all just a coincidence. Even an idiot wouldn't believe such an excuse!" Tian Yanyu bit back at them.

"Watch your attitude, Lady Tian! You are speaking to the Young Master of the Lin Family!" Steward Jin suddenly spoke in a cold tone.

"If you weren't the Young Master's darling, I would have already cut out your tongue!"

"Watch your mouth. I am not his darling." Tian Yanyu narrowed her eyes at Steward Jin, her gaze oozing with killing intent.

"I may be a servant, but do you dare to kill a member of the Lin Family in your estate? Can you handle the consequences?" Steward Jin snorted arrogantly.

Even though he called himself a servant, his status within the Lin Family wasn't low, and he has been a trusted member for many decades now, his loyalty for the Lin Family unquestionable.

"Why don't we all calm down so that we can have a proper conversation?" Yuan finally spoke his first sentence since the Lin Family's visit.

The frown on Lin Minghai's face immediately burrowed even further, and he turned to look at Yuan, "And who the fuck are you?"

Yuan smiled and introduced himself in a respectful voice, "My name is Xiao Yang, and I am currently assisting the Tian Family. My ancestors owed their ancestors a debt, and I am here to return that debt. I was told that their family business was being harassed by hooligans, so I decided to do something about it, unaware that they were connected to the reputable Lin Family. If you want to blame someone for the recent commotion, you may place the blame on me."

"You're also slandering my Lin Family?!" Lin Minghai fumed with anger after hearing Yuan's words that subtly accused the Lin Family of working with the Stone Bandits.

"What? I am simply stating what the bandits told us and the guards that took them away. If you claim that the Lin Family doesn't have anything to do with those bandits, I naturally want to believe the reputable Lin Family over the bandits. However, your inappropriate behavior isn't helping me."

Lin Minghai gritted his teeth in frustration, but he couldn't argue back, as that would only make him and his family look worse.

"Xiao Yang, right? I will remember your name. Now I have a question for you. What is your relationship with her?" Lin Minghai pointed at Tian Yanyu while he spoke.

"My relationship with Miss Yanyu? We're just—"

It was at this moment that Tian Yanyu suddenly interrupted, "We're just ordinary lovers. What about it?"

Yuan's eyes widened after hearing Tian Yanyu's words.

Lin Minghai had a look of disbelief on his face, looking as though he'd just witnessed a ghost for the first time.

"Y-Y-You're lying!" Lin Minghai didn't dare to believe it.

"Oh? You don't believe me? Then let me prove it to you." Tian Yanyu suddenly turned to look at Yuan's handsome face and moved her head towards his, giving him a passionate kiss on the lips the following moment.

Lin Minghai could feel his heart bursting into a million pieces when he witnessed this, and the shock he'd received was so big that his eyes rolled backwards until it was almost completely white.

"Y-Young Master! Get a hold of yourself!" Steward Jin cried out loud as he went to catch Lin Minghai's falling body.

After removing her lips from Yuan's, Tian Yanyu spoke with a slightly rosy face, "Why are you so surprised? We're lovers, so it's only natural for us to do things like this. In fact, we have done even more intensive stuff before."

Lin Minghai felt his soul leaving his body after hearing what Tian Yanyu had just said.

"Y-You will regret this, you damn whore! We're going back!" Steward Jin decided to return to the Lin Family for now because their Young Master had become incapacitated from mental damage, and he was worried that if they stayed any longer, Lin Minghai might die of heartbreak.

After carrying their Young Master away, the Lin Family rushed back to their own home.

Yuan turned to look at Tian Yanyu with a bittersweet smile, but he didn't say anything, as he wanted her to tell him what that was about just now.

Chapter 1074 Caused by Heartbreak

Chapter 1074 Caused by Heartbreak

"What's wrong? Did you not like that kiss? Or was that your first kiss?" Tian Yanyu tried her best to remain calm as she responded to Yuan's puzzled face.

"Most people would kill to receive a kiss from a beauty like me." She added.

Yuan shook his head, "This has nothing to do with that. Are you sure that was the right choice? Who knows how Lin Minghai will act now. Perhaps you'd even made things worse by kissing me. After all, that was the only reason the Lin Family hasn't taken over the Tian Family."

"It'll be fine. If anything happens, you'll protect us, right? That's what you said. Furthermore, I have been wanting to get back at Lin Minghai for a while now. I just didn't know how, until a few moments ago."

Yuan rubbed his eyes and sighed.

"So, what are we going to do now? What's the next step?" Tian Yanyu asked a moment later.

"There is no next step. We will now wait to see the Lin Family's response. With that being said, we're not going to wait forever for a response. I will give them a week at most."

"Alright..."

"Anyways, do you have any unused rooms? And do you mind if I stay here for a while? In order to keep you all safe, it would be for the best if I stayed close. This way, if anything happens, I will be able to respond to it faster." Yuan asked a moment later.

"Sure. We have plenty of unused guest rooms. You can use them as you please." Tian Yanyu nodded.

"Follow me. I will show you the way."

"Thank you."

After showing Yuan to his room, Tian Yanyu left him alone to cultivate before returning to her room.

Once she closed the doors to her room, Tian Yanyu jumped onto the bed and began rolling around the bed.

'Ahhhhh!' She screamed internally.

"I can't believe that I had actually kissed him! That was even my first kiss!" She exclaimed in a low voice.

While Tian Yanyu pondered about her actions inside her room, Yuan cultivated in peace in his room— at least he tried to.

"Young Master! How could you let that woman kiss you like that?! You should've dodged it!" Feng Yuxiang was making a fuss about the kiss.

"Calm down, it's just a kiss."

"Just a kiss?! Kissing is more than that! You just shared saliva! That's not something you do to someone whom you've just met!" She exclaimed.

"What's done is already done. There's no point getting excited over it now." He sighed.

"Fine, then let's talk about something else." Feng Yuxiang said.

And she continued, "You asked her if it was a good idea to kiss you in front of Lin Minghai. I will now ask you if it's really a good idea to meddle with the Tian Family's affairs. In case you forgot, we're currently being hunted by the Seven Legacy Families, and the Lin Family is part of them. Even if your intentions are to help them, if the Lin Family finds out your true identity, the Tian Family will be dragged into our mess, and they will be executed. I guarantee it."

"Senior Feng is right, Yuan. I don't see any benefits from this while there are tons of risks. It just doesn't make sense to me." Lan Yingying also gave her opinion on the matter, something she doesn't do often.

Yuan showed a slight smile and said, "I am well aware of how foolish my actions are right now, but it's more complicated than you think. You know, after Tian Chenyu left his family to deal with the demons, he never once got the chance to return home to see his family before they passed away."

"The parents that had raised him with love and care— the ones who supported him while he was at his lowest— Tian Chenyu greatly regretted not being able to help his family, as his parents had died before his mentality could stabilize."

"Now that I have Tian Chenyu's memories, there is this strong and nearly uncontrollable urge to help the Tian Family, almost as though his soul desperately wants to amend his mistakes. I could ignore this feeling and pretend I don't even know the Tian Family, but I have a feeling that this will hinder my cultivation in the future, almost like Heart Demon."

"I see... I understand your motivation a little better now, Young Master." Feng Yuxiang said a moment later.

"Me too." Lan Yingying said.

"I also understand your worries, and I thank you for your consideration, but there's no need to worry, as I don't plan on exposing myself, and I have the perfect plan to deal with the Lin Family without spewing any blood— if they don't suddenly decide to raid the Tian Family in the middle of the night." Yuan said.

And he continued, "The moment they do anything drastic, I will get rid of them, no matter if they are the Seven Legacy Families or some other powerhouse."

Meanwhile, back at the Lin Family, Steward Jin called for their best doctor after putting Lin Minghai in his luxurious bed.

"What happened to the Young Master?!" The doctor was shocked when he saw Lin Minghai's poor condition.

'His skin is completely pale, almost as if all of his blood had been drained, not to mention the horrified expression on his face... Did he see a ghost or something? No, even a ghost wouldn't be enough to cause such a reaction. Just what in heaven's name happened?' The doctor quickly assessed Lin Minghai's condition.

"You see... What had happened was..."

Steward Jin explained the situation to the doctor, which made him even more baffled.

"The reason for the Young Master's condition is heartbreak?!" He couldn't help but cry out loud, as he has never seen a case of heartbreak this drastic before.

'Isn't this a little bit too much of an overreaction? It's not like he had been forced to watch his lover being screwed by someone else.' The doctor sighed inwardly.

Chapter 1075 Silent Rippers

Lin Minghua eventually woke up after a whole day of rest, and when he woke up, he did so in a manner that was as though he'd just woken up from a nightmare.

"Aaaah!" He shouted the moment he woke up.

"Young Master! It's okay! Young Master!" Steward Jin quickly rushed to his side to calm him down.

"Steward Jin? What is going on? Where am I?" Lin Minghai looked around with a puzzled look on his face. He was so confused that he couldn't even recognize his own bedroom.

"We're currently inside your bedroom right now." Steward Jin said.

"M-My room? I see! So that was just a dream—a bad nightmare!" Lin Minghai released a sigh of relief, his whole body soaked in sweat.

It was obvious that Lin Minghai thought that his visit to the Tian Family and what he experienced there was just a dream.

Unfortunately for him, Steward Jin would turn that dream into reality with a single sentence.

"I'm sorry, Young Master, but that wasn't a dream. We brought you back here from the Tian Family after you fell unconscious."

Lin Minghai proceeded to sit on his bed with a blank expression on his face after hearing Steward Jin's words, feeling as though he'd accidentally inhaled a live fly.

His face began to flush with redness shortly after.

Once he reached the boiling point, he roared at the top of his lungs, "FUCK THAT BITCH TIAN YANYU!"

"I WANT THEM DEAD! I WANT THEM ALL DEAD!"

Steward Jin expected this kind of reaction from him, which wasn't surprising in the least. However, he couldn't allow it to happen.

"Young Master, with the way things are going, if we attack them now, it will look bad on the Lin Family."

"I don't fucking care! If you won't do it, I will do it myself! Nobody can stop me from killing that whore— not even my parents!" Lin Minghai continued shouting.

Steward Jin shook his head inwardly.

He then sighed, "I understand, Young Master. I will assemble a team of assassins to deal with Xiao Yang to send a message for now. As for Tian Yanyu and her family, we can deal with them a little later. How does that sound, Young Master?"

Lin Minghai pondered for a moment before nodding with a cold smile on his face, "Kill her lover and torment her mentally before killing her, huh? That's a great idea! And since this Xiao Yang isn't part of the Tian Family, we won't receive any backlash for killing him! We can even call him a fugitive who had wronged our family!"

"That's right, Young Master."

"Go on! Get with it! I want this bastard gone by tomorrow!"

"Of course." Steward Jin disappeared from the room shortly after while Lin Minghai continued to rest.

After leaving Lin Minghai's side, Steward Jin went to write a note before sending it to the most notorious assassins within the Third Heaven—the Silent Rippers.

The Silent Rippers are a small group of professional assassins that would kill pretty much anybody as long as they are paid enough for the job, and they have even dared to kill people from the Seven Legacy Families before.

The Silent Rippers also have no hideout, and they always wander the Third Heaven, never staying in one place for longer than a few days, hence why they are so hard to catch and deal with.

However, they do have several methods of contact, and one of them is leaving behind a note as well as a full deposit in a specific location. These locations exist all over the Nine Heavens, and they are usually checked once every week.

Fortunately for Steward Lin, his note was received by a member of the Silent Ripper merely hours after he sent it out.

[I want someone named Xiao Yang to be taken care of as soon as possible. He is currently residing in the Tian Family's residence within Silver Heaven City. It is very important that you not kill anyone from the Tian Family—just Xiao Yang. He is a young man around 20 years old, around 6ft tall, handsome face, long black hair tied into a ponytail, brown eyes, and his cultivation seems to be around Spirit King. The pay will be 20,000,000 spirit stones. If you need more information or wish to contact me, you can contact one of my associates in the Yellow River Pavilion in Silver Heaven City. He is someone by the name of Ming Lao.]

Attached to this note was a storage bag with 20,000,000 spirit stones.

Normally, one wouldn't dare to risk 20,000,000 spirit stones before the job is completed, but the Silent Rippers are very proud of their reputation and have never stolen from their client before, hence why Steward Jin didn't hesitate to pay them 20 million spirit stones in advance.

"Hahaha! 20 million spirit stones to kill a mere child?! This is the easiest money in a long time!" The assassin laughed out loud when he saw the new request.

He then contacted his fellow assassins and notified them of the new mission.

"Spirit King at the Silver Heaven City, huh? Brother Mao should be the nearest to that city right now."

"Yes, I can get there in about three hours from my current location." This assassin surnamed Mao said.

"I'm about 8 hours away. Do you want to wait for me?" Another asked.

"No, I will be fine by myself. It's just a 20-year-old child who just became a Spirit King. I am already more than enough for this mission," said Assassin Mao.

"Alright, we'll leave this mission in your hands, Brother Mao."

"We will await for the good news, Brother Mao."

"Good luck."

"I will finish it by tonight."

After closing the connection to his communication jade slip, Assassin Mao immediately made his way to Silver Heaven City, unaware of the grim reaper that was waiting for him there.

Chapter 1076 Midnight Assassination Attempt

Chapter 1076 Midnight Assassination Attempt

Later that night, after eating dinner with the Tian Family, Yuan returned to his room.

Inside his room, Yuan practiced the Soul Nourishment Array that Huang Chen had taught him.

Golden array symbols filled the room, and Yuan could feel his soul strength strengthening very slightly.

A few hours into the night, when it was slightly past midnight, Feng Yuxiang suddenly said, "Young Master, there's an expert nearby, and he's spying on us."

Still focused on his array symbols, Yuan casually said, "I am aware. Let's just wait and see what he's planning on doing first. Don't come out. I don't want to alert him."

"I understand."

Unbeknownst to the Assassin Mao, his presence had already been noticed by his target.

'A mere child. I will finish this in a minute and leave.' Assassin Mao suddenly consumed a pill, which altered his appearance to look exactly like Tian Yanyu.

After making sure that there was nobody near Yuan's room, he approached the door and knocked on it.

Yuan stopped whatever he was doing and went to open the door to find Tian Yanyu standing there.

And without saying a word, Assassin Mao entered the room with a seductive smile on his face.

"Miss Yanyu? What's wrong? Are you still worried about the Lin Family? I'm telling you, it'll be fine." Yuan said to her with a gentle smile on his face.

Assassin Mao laughed inwardly, feeling quite gleeful about how well his plan was working.

He then placed his hands on Yuan's shoulders before guiding him to the bed.

"Oh? What are you doing?" Yuan asked her as he laid on the bed, looking a little nervous.

Assassin Mao, still with Tian Yanyu's appearance, placed a finger on his own lips and made a quite shushing sound.

"Shhh..."

"Ah... I see..." Yuan's nervous smile became filled with excitement, and he closed his eyes.

"Go ahead. Do whatever you want."

It was at this moment Assassin Mao retrieved a dagger from his spatial ring and stabbed it towards Yuan's chest where his heart was located.

"DIE!"

Assassin Mao shouted when the tip of the blade reached Yuan's chest.

However, almost as though he'd struck steel, the blade halted right on top of Yuan's clothes.

Yuan slowly opened his eyes and spoke in a calm voice, his gaze completely tranquil, "This wasn't what I had in mind, Miss Yanyu."

'Shit!'

Assassin Mao had no idea what had just happened and couldn't comprehend why he couldn't penetrate Yuan's skin with his Heaven-grade spiritual treasure.

However, it was clear to him that his target was still alive.

Assassin Mao suddenly released his cultivation base, filling the room with the aura of a 5th level Spirit King.

He then lifted his dagger into the air and plunged it down for a second time.

However, just like the last time, his dagger was stopped by Yuan's skin.

"I don't think this is how you captivate a man's heart, Miss Yanyu." Yuan uttered this remark in a sarcastic tone.

"H-How...?!" Assassin Mao was in disbelief, and he tried pushing his dagger with all of his might, but it was pointless.

It was at this moment Assassin Mao and Yuan could hear the sound of footsteps rushing towards their location.

"Yuan! Is everything okay?! What was that spiritual energy just now?!" Tian Yanyu's panicked voice resounded.

"Fuck!" Realizing that his mission had failed, Assassin Mao immediately turned towards the door and prepared to escape.

However, right as he reached the door, a hand suddenly grabbed his neck from behind, yanking him back into the room.

"Ugh!" Assassin Mao tried to break the hold on his neck, but he was unsuccessful.

Tian Yanyu and her caretaker showed up a moment later to see Yuan choking someone who looked exactly like Tian Yanyu.

"W-What in heaven's name is going on here?!" Tian Yanyu exclaimed when she saw this puzzling scene.

"Hey, Miss Yanyu. This rat disguised as you just tried to assassinate me." Yuan calmly explained to her.

"What?!"

"Let me go, you bastard!" Assassin Mao spoke in his original voice, startling Tian Yanyu.

And he continued, "Do you know who I am?! If you don't let me go, my fellow brothers and sisters from the Silent Rippers will hunt you down!"

"Silent Rippers?!" Tian Yanyu was terrified upon hearing this name.

However, Yuan didn't recognize them and asked, "Silent Rippers? Never heard of you guys. Are you mercenaries or bandits?"

"Y-Yuan! They're neither of those! They're a notorious group of assassins that have terrorized the Third Heaven for hundreds of years!" Tian Yanyu quickly said.

"Oh? Assassins, huh? This meant someone had put a hit on me. Who was it? The Lin Family?"

"As if I'd tell you anything! Hurry up and unhand me! If my companions don't hear from me by tomorrow, they will all come rushing here!" Assassin Mao said.

"I'm already being hunted, so it wouldn't make a difference if I kill you or not, since I will be hunted anyways." Yuan smiled.

"W-Wait! We can work something out!" Assassin Mao quickly said.

"You have a minute to change my mind."

"We will stop the assassination and go after those that tried you kill you! How does that sound?" Assassin Mao said.

"Don't listen to him, Yuan!" Tian Yanyu suddenly said.

"The Silent Rippers will always finish their job! And since the Lin Family is involved, they won't stop hunting you unless the Lin Family cancels the mission!"

Yuan smiled and said, "I never intended to listen to him. I just wanted to see what kind of excuse he'll give."

"W-W-Wait! I swear! I am not lying! If you kill me, my companions will definitely kill you!"

"Then I shouldn't waste anymore time and start preparing to greet them." Yuan said, and without any hesitation, crushed the assassin's neck, killing him in an instant.

When Assassin Mao's body limped, Yuan tossed his body out into the courtyard and dusted his hands.

"..."

Tian Yanyu stared at Assassin Mao's dead body with a speechless look on her face.

'He killed one of the Silent Ripper's assassins just like that? Just how powerful is he?' She wondered inwardly.

Chapter 1077 Dealing with the Silent Rippers

Chapter 1077 Dealing with the Silent Rippers

"Oh, I should've questioned him before killing him. Whatever. More of them will come sooner or later anyway." Yuan realized this after killing Assassin Mao.

"Y-Young Lady! We must evacuate from this place as soon as possible before the Silent Rippers raid this place!" The old lady exclaimed in a panicked manner after she snapped out of her daze.

"Evacuate? Leave where? Where can we go? If we're being targeted by the Silent Rippers, there is nowhere in this world we can hide!" Tian Yanyu said with a frown.

"But we have to try! Not only did we offend the Lin Family, but we're now targeted by the Silent Rippers! This is literally the worst-case scenario!"

Tian Xianzu showed up shortly after with a profound frown on his face.

"What is this commotion?" He asked them, unaware of the situation.

Tian Yanyu pointed at the corpse in their courtyard and explained the situation to him.

"What?! The Silent Rippers?! Those Lin Family bastards actually went as far as to hire the most notorious assassins in the whole Third Heaven?! Are they insane?!"

"Master, I think we should evacuate this place as soon as possible." The old lady said.

Tian Xianzhu sighed, "Even if we run away and hide in the sewers, the Silent Rippers will eventually find us."

"Calm down, all of you." Yuan finally spoke, and he said, "The best course of action right now is to stay here, where I can protect all of you."

"How delusional!" The old lady suddenly shouted.

"You don't even know anything about the Silent Rippers nor how terrifying they can be! The Silent Rippers may only be a small group of assassins, but they are the best of the best within the Third Heaven, and they even have several peak Spirit Kings amongst their ranks! Do you really think you can protect us from the Silent Ripper by yourself?! There should be a limit to your arrogance!"

"O-Old Zou, please calm down..." Tian Yanyu said to her, who was breathing heavily and filled with anger.

"She is right, Yuan. Even the Seven Legacy Families cannot handle the Silent Rippers alone, much less a single person." Tian Xianzhu shook his head in a dispirited manner, seemingly already given up.

Yuan smiled and said, "Who said that I will be alone?"

"You guys, come out."

The very next moment, three figures appeared beside Yuan, startling the Tian Family.

"Let me introduce you guys to my companions. This is Xiao Hua, whom you've already met. Don't be fooled by her young appearance because she's actually a Spirit King." Yuan pointed at Xiao Hua.

"This is Feng Yuxiang, who is also a peak Spirit King."

"This is Lan Yingying. She may only be a Spirit Lord, but she can handle Spirit Kings by herself."

"E-Even if you have three more people, that won't change anything..." Old Zou said.

Yuan chuckled, "Don't underestimate my friends, and don't compare them to your average cultivators, because they are not human."

"W-What do you mean by that?" Tian Xianzu swallowed nervously.

"They are Divine Beasts. Feng Yuxiang is a phoenix, and Lan Yingying is a divine serpent."

"They're what?!" The Tian Family couldn't believe their ears.

Divine Beasts are akin to divine entities in their eyes, and there were two of them before them right this moment.

"Anyways, no matter if they are the Silent Rippers or the Lin Family. With them here, nobody will be able to harm you guys." Yuan reassured them.

The Tian Family eventually calmed down and decided to trust him.

Meanwhile, the Silent Rippers had another meeting with each other through communication jade slips.

"Brother Mao's life slip just broke. He's dead." A solemn voice spoke.

"How is this possible?! Brother Mao is a 5th level Spirit King! His target is only around 20 years old, right?! There's no way Brother Mao could lose to someone like that!"

"Perhaps the target has a powerful bodyguard beside him." Another said.

"That is likely what happened. Let's gather and avenge Brother Mao."

"Yes!"

A few days later.

"Steward Lin! What the fuck is going on?! Why is that bastard Xiao Yang still alive?! He was even spotted eating merrily at the Heavenly Restaurant today!" Lin Minghai demanded an answer after hearing about this news.

"Please be patient, Young Master. I have already hired the Silent Rippers to take care of Xiao Yang. It will only be a matter of time." Steward Jin said.

However, his communication jade slip trembled a moment later, and this jade slip was used to communicate with Ming Lao, who was supposed to contact him if the Silent Rippers contacted.

"What happened?" Steward Jin asked.

"T-The Silent Ripper is asking for your presence! Please come to the Yellow River Pavilion as soon as possible, Senior Jin!"

"I understand. Tell them that I will be there within 15 minutes."

Steward Jin then said to Lin Minghai, "The Silent Ripper has made contact with us. I will go speak with them now."

Sometime later, he arrived at the Yellow River Restaurant.

After finding his friend Ming Lao, he also noticed a skinny man sitting at the same table.

This skinny man exuded no presence and appeared to be a mortal, but Steward Jin immediately knew the man's identity.

"Greetings, Senior." Steward Jin bowed to this skinny man.

"Take a seat." The skinny man spoke in an authoritative voice.

Once he was seated, Steward Jin asked, "How may I address this senior?"

"You can just call me Kong."

"I understand, Senior Kong."

Assassin Kong then spoke, "Now then, I called you here to verify some things."

"This Xiao Yang... Is he being guarded by an expert?"

"As far as I am aware, he's not." Steward Jin shook his head.

"He's not?"

"He's not. According to my investigation, there is only a little girl by his side. Unless that little girl is actually an expert in disguise, I don't think he has any other bodyguard."

"A little girl, huh." Assassin Kong began pondering in silence.

Chapter 1078 Dealing with the Silent Rippers(2)

Chapter 1078 Dealing with the Silent Rippers(2)

After pondering for some time, Assassin Kong spoke in a grim voice, "One of our brothers has died already, and he was a 5th level Spirit King."

"What?!" Steward Jin exclaimed out loud after hearing this shocking information.

"Quiet!" Assassin Kong glared at him.

He then continued, "This Xiao Yang is clearly much more difficult to kill than you thought, so we are asking for an increased payment."

"How much more are you asking?" Steward Jin asked with a solemn expression.

"10 million." Assassin Kong blurted this number out without any hesitation.

"T-Ten million..." Steward Jin swallowed nervously.

He was already being extremely generous with 20 million spirit stones to get rid of a child, so adding another 10 million definitely made him hesitate.

'Since that Xiao Yang has already killed one of their members, they won't stop hunting him even if I refuse, but that is a very risky decision, especially since I gave them this mission.' Steward Jin sighed inwardly.

He was confident that the Silent Rippers would go after Yuan even if he doesn't pay the extra ten million, but he could be killed by them if he took advantage of this knowledge.

In the end, he had to bite the bullet and agree to pay an extra 10 million spirit stones.

"You can send the money to the same location. We will pick it up in two days." Assassin Kong said.

"I understand."

Assassin Kong left the restaurant shortly after.

"Thank you, Ming Lao." Steward Jin handed a hundred spirit stones to Ming Lao for his work before leaving the restaurant as well.

Meanwhile, at the Tian Family, Tian Yanyu sat in her room with Feng Yuxiang sitting not far away.

"It's been several days since then. When will the Silent Rippers come? This wait is making me anxious. I cannot concentrate on my cultivation under this stress!" Tian Yanyu sighed out loud.

"You've been complaining about this since the first day. When will you stop?" Feng Yuxiang said.

And she continued in a sighing voice, "Why did I get stuck with you?"

"What's wrong with me? Besides my 'complaining'." Tian Yanyu asked.

"Hmph." Feng Yuxiang coldly snorted, and she said, "Don't think I have forgotten already. You kissed my Young Master without his permission. If he wasn't helping you, I would've burned you to death on the spot at that time."

"Seriously...? It's just a kiss..." Tian Yanyu said.

"Just a kiss?! Do you know who the Young Master is?!" Feng Yuxiang exclaimed.

"No, I don't. If you tell me, I will." Tian Yanyu smiled.

"..."

Feng Yuxiang became speechless, mostly because she also didn't know Yuan's true background, and his prior lives didn't count.

"The Young Master is someone—"

Just as she opened her mouth, Feng Yuxiang suddenly halted her words, and her face turned serious.

"They are here," she said in a solemn voice.

"T-The Silent Rippers?!" Tian Yanyu immediately jumped to her feet and retrieved her weapon.

Feng Yuxiang nodded, "Yes, but there's something odd about them. They're only focusing on the Young Master for some reason."

"On Yuan? Will he be fine alone?" Tian Yanyu asked, as Xiao Hua was with Tian Xianzu and Lan Yingying was with the servants and Old Zou.

"Yes. No matter how many people come for him, he will be fine." Feng Yuxiang said with a confident look on her face.

Meanwhile, a few rooms away from Tian Yanyu's room, when he noticed the presence surrounding the Tian Family's residence, Yuan calmly opened the door and went outside to the courtyard.

'Seventeen people, all Spirit Kings, huh.' Yuan assessed all of the assassins with his divine sense that covered the entire house and more.

When the assassins saw his action, they quickly realized that their presence was exposed.

Since their target is already aware of their presence, they decided to show themselves, surrounding Yuan in the courtyard a moment later.

"Are you the bastard who killed Brother Mao?" One of them asked him in a cold voice.

"Is that the name of the assassin from a few days ago?" Yuan asked them. "If so, yes, I killed him. Don't worry, I made sure it was a quick and painless death."

The assassins' trembled in anger when they heard his words, and they all released their aura, which bore down on Yuan like a mountain.

However, Yuan remained standing there with a calm look on his face, almost as if he couldn't even feel the pressure.

This surprised the assassins. There were 4 peak Spirit Kings amongst them, yet they cannot make a single Spirit King bow down with their pressure? Something was wrong here.

"So you're saying that you don't have any bodyguards? That you killed Brother Mao by yourself?"

Yuan showed them a provocative smile and said, "A weakling like him— it didn't take much effort."

"YOU BASTARD!"

One of the seventeen assassins couldn't hold his rage any longer and lunged at Yuan.

Without even turning to look at the attacker, Yuan calmly dodged his strike before catching him by the neck.

The others immediately went into an offensive position when they saw this.

"If you're smart, you will let him go," said a skinny man.

"If I do, will you spare my life?" Yuan asked him.

"..."

Assassin Kong didn't respond—he couldn't.

"I figured." Yuan mumbled, and without hesitation, he crushed the neck of the assassin in his grasp.

"KILL HIM!" Assassin Kong roared with bloodshot eyes.

The others sprang into action, and they attacked Yuan from multiple directions.

Daggers, throwing knives, hidden weapons—the assassins attacked Yuan with pretty much every weapon used by assassins.

However, almost as though his body was made of the world's strongest steel, the weapons bounced off his body.

"What the fuck?!" The assassins were surprised when they saw this.

"He must have some kind of spiritual treasure protecting him!" They quickly came to this conclusion.

"Keep attacking! It can only endure so much!" Assassin Kong said.

Thus, the assassins continued to attack Yuan while he casually stood there without a care in the world.

"What in heaven's name..." Tian Yanyu was left speechless when she witnessed this scene with her divine sense.

"I told you that he would be fine." Feng Yuxiang said with a smile.

Chapter 1079 Dealing with the Silent Rippers(3)

Chapter 1079 Dealing with the Silent Rippers(3)

After trying for many minutes and failing to break through Yuan's invisible armor, the Silent Rippers stopped their attacks momentarily.

"Fucking hell, what kind of trick are you using?!"

"Stop standing there and fight us like a real cultivator!"

The assassins tried to get him to remove his invisible armor.

Yuan merely laughed at them, "I'm not using any tricks. You're all just too weak to damage my Perfect Physique."

"What? Perfect Physique? That's just a legend! There's no way you actually have the Perfect Physique!" Assassin Kong exclaimed.

"I don't care if you believe me or not." Yuan shrugged.

"Anyways, tell me, what is your mission? Is it just to assassinate me, or are you going to harm the Tian Family as well? If you tell me, I will remove my armor."

"So you are wearing a spiritual treasure!"

Yuan raised an eyebrow, "I never said that I didn't. I merely said that I wasn't using any tricks. Can wearing armor be considered a trick? I don't think so."

After a moment of silence, Assassin Kong spoke, "Our mission is only to kill you, Xiao Yang. We were instructed to not touch the Tian Family. Are you happy now?"

"Yes, I am quite happy. Here, I will keep my words and take my armor off for you." Yuan proceeded to take off his Invisible Dragon Cloak.

"NOW!" Assassin Kong suddenly roared.

All sixteen assassins sprung into action instantly, attacking Yuan with everything they got.

A slight grin appeared on Yuan's face right before an immense pressure suddenly covered the entire courtyard.

This pressure forced all of the assassins to their knees with the peak Spirit Kings barely resisting it.

"W-What is this?!" The assassins began panicking.

"Heavenly Domain." Yuan calmly responded.

"Are you guys really the most notorious assassins in the Third Heaven? You're not much better than the Stone Bandits." He proceeded to mock them.

"Screw... You!" Assassin Kong and the other peak Spirit Kings managed to stand up despite the Heavenly Domain pressuring them.

However, their movements were still severely restricted.

It was at this moment that Yuan retrieved the Empyrean Overlord, and he proceeded to kill the assassins one by one, starting from those that couldn't resist the Heavenly Domain.

"STOP!"

"AAAAAAH!"

"I WILL KILL YOU!"

The assassins roared like beasts when their companions were killed before their eyes and they couldn't do anything to stop it.

Within moments, Yuan had cut their number all the way down to just one.

"Is this all of you? Or will there be more coming later?" Yuan asked Assassin Kong.

Assassin Kong just kneeled there with a dazed look on his face, his spirit broken.

"Hmph." Yuan didn't bother waiting for a response and decapitated him before burning all of their bodies, leaving behind their spatial rings and treasures.

"You guys can come out now." Yuan said out loud.

Tian Yanyu and Tian Xianzu came out of their hiding spot the following moment.

"You actually managed to kill all of them by yourself...?" Tian Xianzu was in disbelief, but the corpses before him were solid evidence that he could not refute.

Yuan nodded, and he asked, "Do you know how many assassins the Silent Rippers have? I killed 17— 18 if we consider the one from a few days ago."

Tian Xianzu pondered for a moment before responding, "Honestly, nobody knows the exact number, but according to the rumors, there should be about a hundred assassins within their group."

"A hundred?!" Yuan exclaimed.

"That's a very small group if you compare them to the other groups that have hundreds of not thousands of assassins." Tian Yanyu said.

"I guess that makes sense. Anyways, since there are still more than 80 assassins out there, we will continue this for a few more days to see their response." Yuan then said.

"Alright."

A few days later, Steward Jin was summoned again by the Silent Rippers. This time, they brought him to a secret location where over 50 of them were gathered.

"W-What is this about? If it's about the money, I have already paid the additional 10 million spirit stones!" Steward Jin said, his back soaked in sweat.

"Just who in heaven's name did you request us to kill?! 18 of our brothers and sisters are dead because of you!" The leader of the Silent Rippers roared at Steward Jin.

"What?! That's impossible!" Steward Jin felt his body becoming numb from shock after hearing this information.

"Impossible?! I dare you to tell me it's impossible again after seeing this!" The leader proceeded to place 18 broken life tablets on the table before them.

"T-This is..." Steward Jin swallowed nervously.

"Each of these represents one of our companions, and they all died on the same day within moments of each other! Tell me! Who is this Xiao Yang?! If you don't give us a satisfying answer, we will kill 18 people from the Lin Family!"

Steward Jin became terrified after hearing the leader's threats.

"I-I swear! I really don't know anything about him or his background! He showed up suddenly and started helping the Tian Family! He claimed that his ancestors owed a debt to the Tian Family and that he's there to repay that debt! I believed he was a nobody, but since we cannot touch the Tian Family after what happened to the Stone Bandits, we decided to hire you guys to kill him to send a message!" Steward Jin revealed everything to the assassins.

The leader could tell that Steward Jin wasn't lying, but he was not satisfied with the answer.

"300 million spirit stones! You will compensate us for our companions' death and pay for our effort. This is the first time the Silent Rippers will be going all-out for a mission with all hands on deck."

"T-Three hundred million spirit stones?! That's too much! We don't have that much money!" Steward Jin nearly collapsed from shock after hearing this astronomical number.

"Don't fuck with me! The Lin Family is one of the Seven Legacy Families! You can definitely pay up! You can either pay us the money or we will kill people from the Lin Family! And we will consider each life to be worth 100,000 spirit stones, so we will kill 3,000 people in total!" The leader shouted.

"No way..." Steward Jin looked like he was in a dismay, and he regretted hiring the Silent Rippers immensely.

Chapter 1080 Dealing with the Silent Rippers(4)

Chapter 1080 Dealing with the Silent Rippers(4)

"I understand... I will pay 300 million spirit stones..." Steward Jin said.

However, he was inwardly hoping for these assassins to be killed by Yuan so that he won't have to pay them this astronomical amount of money.

Naturally, the Lin Family could pay 300 million spirit stone if they wanted, but this deal between Steward Jin and the Silent Rippers was not part of the Lin Family's decision. Only he and Lin Minghai were involved in this scandal, and if their family learns of this, they could be punished, especially considering the recent commotion.

Therefore, if he had to pay 300 million spirit stones, he had to do so without the Lin Family's help.

After returning to the Lin Family, Steward Jin told Lin Minghai of the situation.

When the Young Master of the Lin Family heard this unpleasant news, his face turned as pale as clean bedsheets, almost as if his blood had been drained.

"How could this have happened! 300 million spirit stones?! Where the fuck are we going to get that kind of money without asking for my family for help?!" Lin Minghai exclaimed, his face and back soaked in cold sweat.

"I-If this Xiao Yang somehow manages to kill the rest of the Silent Rippers, we won't have to pay them..." Steward Jin said in a weak voice.

"Are you fucking stupid?! You think he can handle the Silent Rippers all by himself?!"

"I mean, he's already killed 18 of them." Steward Jin said, clinging onto hope.

"I don't know what trick he's used to defeat so many assassins, but it will not happen a second time! Furthermore, the entire organization will be there this time! He's doomed to die!" Lin Minghai said, mostly because he didn't want to believe that they had offended someone powerful enough to defeat the Silent Rippers.

"Anyways, I think the best course of action is to wait and see what happens." Steward Jin said.

"If we're left with no choice, we will have to ask your family for help. I believe they will be more angry if 3,000 people in their family die because of us."

Lin Minghai sighed, "We have no choice since we won't be able to pay 300 million spirit stones even if I sold all of my treasures."

Later that night, 83 assassins surrounded the Tian Family's household.

"They are here." Feng Yuxiang warned Tian Yanyu and the others when she noticed their presence.

"How many are there?" Tian Xianzu asked.

"83 people. All of them are Spirit Kings, and 11 of them are peak Spirit Kings." Xiao Hua calmly said.

"E-Eleven peak Spirit Kings?!" Old Zou almost fell unconscious from shock after hearing this information.

"You stay here and protect them, phoenix. Xiao Hua will go with Brother Yuan just in case."

"Huh? Why do I have to stay here with them? Can't you do it? Or are you trying to earn points by yourself?" Feng Yuxiang looked at her with a suspicious gaze.

"I can protect them by myself." Lan Yingying suddenly said, "Since they're mostly targeting Yuan, they won't pay any attention to us."

"Thank you." Feng Yuxiang said to her before leaving the room with Xiao Hua.

However, they didn't immediately go to Yuan. Instead, they hid their presence and watched the situation from afar, as they wouldn't be interfering with Yuan unless he needed help.

Meanwhile, Yuan was already waiting in the courtyard for the assassins, and he has been cultivating there for the past few days.

"That's the bastard that killed 18 of our brothers and sisters? He looks so young!" One of the assassins was shocked when he saw Yuan's appearance.

"Don't be fooled by his appearance! He's a peak Spirit King! And his appearance might even be fake!" The leader of the Silent Rippers said to them using divine sense.

The Silent Rippers did not immediately approach Yuan, and they assessed the situation and surroundings to make sure this wasn't a trap, as it looked like one.

Sometime later, Yuan opened his eyes and spoke in a calm voice, "How long are you guys going to make me wait? If you're worried that this might be a trap, don't worry, I don't need such tactics to deal with you lot."

A gentle breeze swept the courtyard the following moment, and 83 figures appeared out of thin air like ghosts, all of them surrounding Yuan, their bodies exuding intense killing intent.

"I don't know who you are, but congratulations. You're the first to push our Silent Rippers to the edge." A bulky middle-aged man spoke in a grim voice.

Yuan glanced at this man and smiled, "So you're the leader, huh?"

The leader frowned, "How can you tell?"

"It's not hard, especially considering that the atmosphere around you is vastly superior to the rest of the people here."

"That's right. I am the leader of the Silent Rippers, Zhan Shichai! Remember my name when you go to hell."

Ahd he continued, "Any last words before we take care of you?"

Yuan nodded, "Just one. Is this really the last of you guys? I don't want to wait around for more of you after killing everyone here."

"KILL HIM!" Zhan Shichai suddenly roared, and the 83 assassins there launched their attack at Yuan.

BOOM!

The entire courtyard exploded, and the whole street trembled the following moment.

However, Yuan remained unscathed, which shocked the assassins.

"This isn't good." Yuan didn't want the assassins to blow up the whole residence, so he attacked the assassins aggressively.

Using his movement technique, he traveled from one assassin to another in a single step, and every time he brandished his sword, a life from the Silent Rippers would perish.

Within minutes, the courtyard became dyed in red from the assassins' blood with their corpses and body parts littered everywhere.

The Silent Rippers became more terrified of Yuan as time passed, and they quickly realized that they had messed with the wrong person, but alas, it was already too late for them to change their mind.

Chapter 1081 Confronting the Lin Family

Chapter 1081 Confronting the Lin Family

Within minutes of the Silent Rippers showing up in the courtyard, Yuan had already killed half of them.

His movements were extremely fluid and decisive, and every single time he brandished his arm, one or more assassins would perish.

"T-This guy is a monster!"

"Leader, what should we do?! At this rate, he will completely obliterate us!"

The assassins turned to Zhan Shichai for help.

"He won't be able to keep that up forever! He must be using a tremendous amount of spiritual energy! It will only be a matter of time before his weakness shows! Keep pushing!" Zhan Shichai commanded as he tried to attack Yuan, but he couldn't even catch Yuan's shadow, much less reach him.

In the end, none of the assassins were able to harm Yuan.

"Hey, you're the only one left now." Yuan spoke as he looked at Zhan Shichai with a calm gaze.

Zhan Shichai, who was kneeling on the floor with a missing arm and multiple wounds on his body gritted his teeth in frustration, his gaze at Yuan filled with killing intent, yet he could not do anything about it.

"What are you waiting for? Hurry up and get this over with. Kill me already." Zhan Shichai had already given up all hopes of surviving this ordeal.

Yuan pondered for a moment before speaking, "No, I won't kill you."

"W-What?! Why not?!"

A voice that wasn't Zhan Shichai's voice suddenly resounded.

Yuan turned to look at Tian Yanyu, who had come out of hiding and was approaching them.

"Why won't you kill him? He's the leader of the Silent Rippers!"

"Because I still have some use for him," he said.

And he continued, "I'll give you a chance to live. Go report yourself to the authorities and let them know about your mission and how the Lin Family had hired you to kill me."

"You can go fuck yourself. I'd rather kill myself than to to give myself up." Zhan Shichai laughed out loud.

"Is that so?"

Yuan then turned to look at Tian Yanyu and asked, "Do you want to visit the Lin Family with me? You can stay here if you'd like."

"W-What do you mean by that? Are you going to the Lin Family right now?" Tian Yanyu's eyes widened with shock.

"That's right. If he's not going to give himself up, I will do it myself."

When Zhan Shichai heard Yuan's words, he immediately tried to explode his Dantian.

[Heaven Sealing Technique]

Yuan noticed this and sealed his cultivation before he could do anything.

"W-What did you just do to me?!" Zhan Shichai roared.

"I sealed your cultivation so you can't do anything stupid."

Hearing this, Zhan Shichai tried to bite his tongue off next.

However, when he opened his mouth, he found out that he couldn't close it back, almost as though there was something holding onto his mouth.

"Give it up. You won't die unless I let you." Yuan said.

He turned to look at the dumbfounded Tian Yanyu and asked again, "So? Are you coming?"

She quickly snapped out of her daze and nodded with a solemn expression on her face.

"Let go." Yuan grabbed Zhan Shichai by the neck before flying out of the resilience with Tian Yanyu.

Meanwhile, Feng Yuxiang and Xiao Hua entered his body with Lan Yingying staying behind just in case there were any more assassins.

"Bring me to the Lin Family." Yuan said to Tian Yanyu.

"Follow me."

It was at this moment a notification appeared before Yuan.

Sometime later, Yuan and Tian Yanyu arrived at the Lin Family's main household.

They descended in front of their front gates and said to the guards, "Bring your Patriarch out here. I have some questions for him."

"Who the hell are you? This isn't a place for children like you." The guards there immediately frowned.

"Scram before we make you."

Yuan lifted Zhan Shichai into the air and held him before the guards, and he spoke in a cold voice, "Your Lin Family hired assassinations to kill me. If you don't bring out your Patriarch, I will have to force him out."

"What?!" The guards exclaimed after hearing his claims.

"Outragous! Why would the Lin Family assassinate you?!"

"That's some serious accusations, boy! If you value your life, keep your mouth shut!"

Yuan sighed before speaking, "I will ask you again. Are you going to get your patriarch or not?" This chapter is updated by FreewebnOvel.com.

"Piss off!" The guard roared.

"Is that so?" A cold look appeared on Yuan's face.

He turned to look at Tian Yanyu and handed Zhan Shichai to her, "Stay back and watch over him for me."

"What are you going to do?" She had a bad feeling about this.

"Nothing much." He said with a smile.

After hanging Zhan Shichai to Tian Yanyu, Yuan turned to focus on the gates, and the next moment—

BOOM!

Yuan kicked down the entire gate, shocking the guards there.

"Y-You crazy bastard!"

"Intruder! Seize him!"

When the pedestrians there saw the scene, they stopped whatever they were doing to spectate.

"Who is this crazy bastard?! He dares to kick down the Lin Family's front gates?!"

"Heavens! He's even beating the guards down!"

More and more guards showed up to confront Yuan, but they were all beaten within seconds.

Eventually, the real experts showed up with their Spirit King aura filling the place.

"Halt! What do you think you are doing?! Identify yourself!"

Four Spirit Kings surrounded Yuan.

"My name is Xiao Yang, and I am here to speak with the Lin Family's patriarch." Yuan said, and he pointed at Tian Yanyu and Zhan Shichai and continued, "That half-dead man is the leader of the Silent Rippers, and he told me that the Lin Family had hired them to assassinate me. I am here to demand an answer from the Lin Family!"

Yuan spoke in a loud and clear voice so that everyone from one end of the street to the other could hear him.

Chapter 1082 Confronting the Lin Family(2)

"What? The Lin Family hired those notorious assassins, the Silent Rippers?!"

The pedestrians outside the Lin Family were shocked when they heard this claim by Yuan.

"This must be due to what happened recently! Then that rumor must have been true—that the Lin Family hired those bandits to harass the Tian Family!"

"They must have hired the Silent Rippers to silence them. How vicious and cruel."

"I never knew the Lin Family were like this. What an eye opener."

The experts from the Lin Family frowned when they heard the pedestrian's words.

'Not good! At this rate, the Lin Family's reputation will hit rock bottom!' They all cried inwardly.

"There must have been a misunderstanding. The Lin Family did not hire the Silent Rippers." One of the experts said to Yuan.

"A misunderstanding? There are dozens of corpses in the Tian Family because of the Silent Rippers, and many of them claimed to have been hired by the Lin Family. If you don't give an appropriate answer, I will have to stop being polite." Yuan calmly said.

"Stop being polite? You beat up our guards and spew nonsense in front of our building, yet you're still being polite? I cannot imagine what not being polite looks like!" The experts cursed.

"What are you all waiting for?! Hurry up and capture him!" One of the experts suddenly said.

The experts quickly surrounded Yuan when they heard this person, and just as they prepared to apprehend Yuan, he flipped his palms and showed these experts the symbols that suddenly appeared on it.

"Celestial Overlord Captain?" The experts raised their eyebrows in a puzzled manner when they saw these words hovering above Yuan's palm.

None of them recognized it.

However, somewhere within the Lin Family's building, an old man that had been watching the commotion through his divine sense suddenly snapped his eyelids open, his eyes filled with shock.

"That symbol! That's not possible! What is someone like him doing down here in the Third Heaven?!" This old man exclaimed, and without any hesitation, he rushed out of his room.

Meanwhile...

"What the hell are you trying to attempt?" One of the experts there asked Yuan after seeing the symbol but not recognizing it.

"You don't recognize it? I guess I gave you guys too much credit." Yuan shook his head when nobody there recognized the Celestial Overlord's faction symbol.

'This is why I didn't want to rely on this symbol. Nobody down here recognizes it.' He sighed inwardly.

"If you think those worthless words will save you, think again!" The experts made their movements.

"WAAAAAIT! HAAALT!"

However, before they could do anything, a loud voice echoed loudly, causing all of these experts to flinch and halt their movements.

When the experts turned around and saw the old man approaching them, their eyes widened with shock.

"S-Senior Lin!"

The experts there lowered their heads and bowed to him.

'Looks like someone actually recognizes the symbol.' Yuan smiled inwardly after seeing the situation.

Indeed, this old man recognized the Celestial Overlord's symbol. Even though he has never been in the upper heavens or seen their symbol before, he has at least heard about it.

In order to keep their descendants up to date about the situation in the upper heavens, these families in the upper heavens such as the Seven Legacy Families would send down the most information about the upper heavens down to their branch families in the lower heavens.

And as one of the top factions in the entire Nine Heavens, it would only make sense for these families in the upper heavens to include the Celestial Overlords.

Although the chances were slim to none, it was not impossible for someone from the Celestial Overlords to show up in the lower heavens, and these families were afraid of that minor chance happening, hence the precaution.

"All of you! Get on your knees and apologize to this Young Master!" The old man roared at the experts.

"What?!" The experts and all of the spectators there were shocked speechless after hearing the old man's words.

"Did you not hear me?! It's either that or your heads will roll on the floor!" The old man shouted again.

The experts trembled in fear, and they quickly kowtowed to Yuan the following moment while feeling completely baffled and puzzled by the situation.

"W-We apologize!"

The old man then turned to look at the guards and shouted, "You bastards as well! Kowtow and apologize to the Young Master!"

If the experts had the kowtow to Yuan, these guards naturally had to follow, and unless they were unconscious, these guards got on their knees and kowtowed to Yuan, "We apologize!"

The spectators there wondered what Yuan's real identity was for these people from the Lin Family to kowtow to him.

"Young Master, please forgive these fools for not recognizing your identity. They have never seen the real Mount Tai before, so they don't know any better." The old man said to him with a humble look on his face.

Yuan calmly looked at him and asked, "Who are you?"

"This humble one is named Lin Chunhua. I was the previous Patriarch of the Lin Family. In other words, I am the current Patriarch's father. I understand that something unfortunate has happened to the Tian Family recently. Why don't we go talk somewhere more appropriate?"

"Sure." Yuan nodded.

He turned to look at Tian Yanyu and beckoned for her.

Tian Yanyu swallowed nervously before approaching him.

'The ancestor of the Lin Family is acting so respectful to him... Just what is his true identity? Did his ancestors really owe the Tian Family? Why is he helping our Tian Family?'

So many questions appeared in Tian Yanyu's head as she followed Yuan and the old man into the Lin Family's household.

Meanwhile, the pedestrians there scattered to spread the news, sending shockwaves throughout the city.

An unknown individual had kicked down the Lin Family's door, and not only did he not get tortured to death, but he was even politely escorted into the Lin Family's household by their retired Patriarch.

Chapter 1083 Confronting the Lin Family(3)

After being escorted into the Lin Family's best guest room, Lin Chunhua gestured for them to take a seat at the luxurious couches.

"I will make some tea for us." Lin Chunhua said after they sat down.

But Yuan waved his hand and said, "There's no need. Let's get straight to the point. Your Lin Family had hired assassins— the Silent Rippers to assassinate me. The proof is over there."

He pointed at the half-dead man in Tian Yanyu's grasp.

Lin Chunhua looked at Zhan Shichai with a deep frown on his face.

"Why do you think my Lin Family hired them? While I admit that we sometimes go overboard, we would never ask assassins for help, especially not the Silent Rippers."

"They said so themselves, and it's too much of a coincidence for this to happen after what we did to the Stone Bandits."

"If what you say is true, then I will investigate this situation and bring out the perpetrator and compensate you for the trouble. However, before I do that, I must notify the current Patriarch of the Lin Family about the situation and see what he has to say."

Lin Chunhua retrieved a communication jade slip and mumbled into it.

"While we wait for him to show up, I have a few questions, if you don't mind."

"Go ahead."

"You're a member of the esteemed Celestial Overlords— a Captain at that. Am I correct?"

"Indeed." Yuan nodded.

'Celestial Overlords? What is that? A sect?' Tian Yanyu wondered inwardly, as she has never heard of such a place before in her entire life.

"What is someone of your prestigious stature doing down here in the Third Heaven? If you don't feel comfortable telling me, I completely understand."

"My ancestor owed a debt to the Tian Family, but he is no longer able to repay that debt, hence why I am here." Yuan explained.

"Is that so... The Tian Family, huh?" The old man turned to look at Tian Yanyu, who was quite nervous at this moment.

"To be honest with you, I usually spend most of my time in seclusion trying to break through to Spirit Emperor, so I don't know much about the situation outside the Lin Family, and even the situation within the family isn't very clear to me, as it has been over a hundred years since I last left seclusion." Lin Chunhua explained.

And he continued, "If my Lin Family has done anything wrong while I was away, I will personally step in to fix it. I swear."

"That's good to hear." Yuan calmly said.

A few minutes later, the door slammed open when a middle-aged man rushed into the room.

"Father! What happened?! What's the emergency?! For you to come out unannounced and so suddenly—"

"Shut up!" Lin Chunhua suddenly roared.

"You useless son, get your ass over here!"

The middle-aged man was speechless. How could his father treat him in such a manner before guests? His father was someone who valued face more than anything, yet he was doing something that would lower the Lin Family's face.

However, he could tell that his father was enraged, so he didn't dare to question it. Follow current novels on FreewebNovel.com.

After closing the door, the Patriarch of the Lin Family walked to stand beside Lin Chunhua.

"I will ask you a question and you will answer me truthfully. If you dare lie before my face, I will have you replaced." Lin Chunhua said, causing Patriarch Lin to swallow nervously.

As the strongest cultivator in the Lin Family and being the previous Patriarch, Lin Chunhua still had immense authority within the Lin Family, so he could very well do what he threatened to do.

"Did you— the Lin Family hire assassins to assassinate this Young Master here? The Silent Rippers, no less."

"What?! That's outrageous! We would never do such a thing!"

"Then how do you explain that?" Lin Chunhua pointed at the half-dead Zhan Shichai.

Patriarch Lin turned to look at Zhan Shichai.

Although he didn't recognize Zhan Shichai at first due to his swollen face and overall bad condition, he would eventually recognize him.

"Isn't that the leader of the Silent Rippers, Zhan Shichai?! What is he doing here?!"

"According to the Young Master, he raided the Tian Family at the request of the Lin Family. However, he was subdued and the Silent Rippers were exterminated by the Young Master instead." Lin Chunhua said.

"Young Master...?" Patriarch Lin was utterly gobsmacked when he realized how respectful his father was to this young man.

This is the first time Lin Chunhua has shown such respect for a junior like Yuan.

"I apologize for the late introduction. I am Lin Xingmy, the current Patriarch of the Lin Family." Patriarch Lin said to Yuan, but he clearly wasn't taking Yuan as seriously as his father.

"Xiao Yang. This is who I am." Yuan showed the Celestial Overlord's symbol for a second time.

Patriarch Lin raised his eyebrows in a puzzled manner when he saw Yuan's action.

"What is—" He suddenly halted his words midway through his sentence, and his eyes widened with shock.

"T-That's... Are you from the Celestial Overlords?!" Patriarch Lin exclaimed when he remembered reading about it.

"I am." He calmly nodded.

Patriarch Lin finally understood why his father came out of seclusion so suddenly and why he was being so respectful to Yuan.

Although the Lin Family is one of Seven Legacy Families and incredibly influential within their world, their family's influence actually becomes weaker the higher they go in the Nine Heavens, and above the 5th heavens, they are no different than a middle-class family.

Meanwhile, the Celestial Overlords are a peak faction in the Supreme Heaven, which is the peak of the Nine Heavens. The difference between the Celestial Overlords and the Seven Legacy Families was akin to heaven and earth— they were simply incomparable.

"Please forgive me for not recognizing your identity sooner, Young Master!" Patriarch Lin began addressing him as Young Master as well.

'No way...' Tian Yanyu muttered inwardly.

Not in a million years could she have imagined such a situation would occur.

Chapter 1084 Confronting the Lin Family(4)

Chapter 1084 Confronting the Lin Family(4)

"Rest assured, Young Master. I will find the culprit who hired the Silent Rippers to bother you no matter how long it will take! And if it truly turns out to be someone from my Lin Family, I will immediately have him executed no matter his identity!" Patriarch Lin said with a serious expression on his face after learning of Yuan's identity and the immense background behind him.

Yuan nodded with a satisfied look on his face, "How long do you think it will take?"

"Two— No, I will have it done within a week!" Patriarch Lin assured him in a confident voice.

"Then I will return to this place in a week. I hope you will have sorted everything out by then."

Yuan stood up and turned to look at Tian Yanyu and said, "Let's go. You can leave that man behind for the Lin Family to interrogate."

"Y-Yes!" She snapped out of her daze and handed the leader of the Silent Rippers over to Patriarch Lin.

"He'll try to kill himself, so make sure you don't let that happen." Yuan warned them before making his way to the exit.

Neither Lin Chunhua or Patriarch Lin dared to stop him. In fact, they wanted him to leave as soon as possible, as his presence was simply too heavy for them.

Once Yuan's presence could no longer be felt, Lin Chunhua turned to look at his son and spoke in a grim voice, "Do not mess this up! The Celestial Overlords are a top faction within the Supreme Heaven! A single mistake and we could be wiped out, and not even our family in the upper heaven would be able to do a thing!"

"Moreover, the Celestial Overlords are known to be a righteous faction, so if it's true that someone from our family hired assassins such as the notorious Silent Rippers to kill him, they have every right to destroy us!"

"I am well aware of our situation." Patriarch Lin spoke with a deep frown on his face.

"Are you sure you know?! If you had kept an eye on the family properly, none of this would've happened! I went into closed cultivation for a hundred years and you messed everything up! How will I ever be able to enter closed cultivation with a peace of mind now, you useless son?!"

"I'm really sorry, father... I have let you down—"

"No! You let the Lin Family down!" Lin Chunhua shouted.

"I'm going to do my own investigations because I cannot trust you to handle this by yourself!"

Over the next several hours, the Lin Family would become incredibly busy with people scrambling around like ants.

Meanwhile, news of what happened outside the Lin Family spread throughout the city like wildfire, shocking everyone.

"What?! The Lin Family hired the Silent Rippers to assassinate the Tian Family?! So the rumors were true! They must have tried to silence the Tian Family!"

"Heavens! How low the Lin Family has fallen!"

The situation with the Lin Family had gotten so bad that the other legacy families had sent people to speak with Patriarch Lin. However, they were all turned away without any explanations.

"What the hell is the Lin Family doing? We're in the middle of something important and they're messing around with assassins?!"

"Unbelievable. This will surely affect our reputation as well."

The other legacy families were not happy about the situation, especially since they will definitely be dragged into such a scandal.

Moreover, they were in the middle of hunting a wanted criminal, and this would only make things more difficult for everyone.

However, there was nothing they could do about it except wait for the Lin Family to fix it.

Meanwhile, after leaving the Lin Family, Yuan and Tian Yanyu made their way back to the Tian Family.

But shortly before they arrived, another person would arrive at the Tian Family.

"Mistress! What are you doing here?!" Old Zou was shocked to see her.

"Is it true?! That my daughter started something with the Lin Family?!" Tian Suyin asked in a nervous manner.

"Starting something? We're far past that point." Tian Xianzu's voice suddenly resounded.

"You! What do you mean by those words?! What happened?! Where's Yanyu right now?!" Tian Suyin glared at her husband with an enraged look on her face.

"What happened, you ask? The Lin Family had hired the Silent Rippers to silence us. As for Yanyu, she's currently at the Lin Family with—" ap!

Tian Xianzu suddenly felt something slap him across his face.

"What in heaven's name are you doing?! I left Yanyu in your care because I trusted that you would protect her! And why the hell are you so calm about this?!"

"..."

Tian Xianzu didn't utter a single word and accepted the slap, as he felt that he'd deserved it for not being able to stop Tian Yanyu from going to war with the Lin Family.

And right as he prepared to explain the whole situation to his wife, another voice resounded, "Mother? What are you doing here?"

It was Tian Yanyu, and she'd just returned with Yuan.

"Y-Yanyu! Are you okay?! Did the Lin Family do anything to you?!" Tian Suyin rushed over to her daughter.

'That's her mother, huh?' Yuan looked at the beautiful woman standing before Tian Yanyu.

Not only did Tian Yanyu resemble her mother, but they looked almost like sisters with the mother being several years older.

"I'm fine, mother. What about you? Did something happen at the sect? Why did you suddenly return?"

"I returned because of you! I have warned you many times to not mess with the Lin Family and what do you do when I leave you alone for a bit? You mess with the Lin Family! Now they're sending the most notorious assassins in the Third Heaven—the Silent Rippers—to our residence! We need to get you out of here before they kill you!"

Tian Yanyu took a step back and quickly said, "C-Calm down, mother. The situation isn't as dire as you think, really."

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 1085 Familiar Sword Technique

Chapter 1085 Familiar Sword Technique

"Isn't that dire?! Are you seriously saving that?! We are currently being hunted by the Silent Rippers! Not even my sect can protect us from them! And what about the Lin Family?! They will surely try to do something as well!" Tian Suyin exclaimed with a heated expression on her face.

"Just take a moment to calm down while I explain." Tian Yanyu sighed, and she continued, "First of all, the Silent Rippers are no longer a threat to us. They've already been dealt with, and their leader was even captured."

"W-What?" Tian Suyin's eyes widened with shock upon hearing this information.

The notorious Silent Rippers have been dealt with? Their leader was captured? By whom? Who could possibly be strong enough to do such a thing?

And before Tian Suyin could ask these questions, Tian Yanyu pointed at the handsome young man standing behind her and spoke, "Meet Xiao Yang. He's the one who helped us deal with the Silent Rippers."

Tian Suyin turned to look at Yuan. Although she had noticed his presence, she didn't even bother looking at him as she had more important things to care about.

However, when she saw Yuan's handsome face, she became quite startled, mostly because Yuan looked almost like her daughter.

Although neither Tian Yanyu nor Tian Xianzu noticed the similarities, Tian Suyin noticed it at glance.

"W-Who are you?" Tian Suyin asked him after snapping out of her daze.

"My name is Xian Yang, and I came here to repay a debt my ancestors owed to your ancestors." Yuan said with a friendly smile on his face.

Tian Suyin immediately frowned, as she didn't buy his excuse, and he simply looked too suspicious, especially his appearance.

"Are you the reason my Tian Family got entangled with the Lin Family and the Silent Rippers?" Tian Suyin had a feeling this was the situation and asked him for confirmation.

"The Tian Family and the Lin Family had already been tangled with each other even before my arrival. I am simply trying to untangle it."

"Really?" Tian Suyin spoke with a doubtful look on her face, "How do I know that you weren't sent here by the Lin Family? We've been handling our situation with the Lin Family just fine before your help, but look at how things turned out when you showed up!"

"How things turned out?" Yuan raised an eyebrow.

And he continued, "If you're talking about the Silent Rippers, I have already taken care of them, and the leader is being interrogated by the Lin Family. As for the Lin Family themselves, they have agreed to find the person responsible for hiring the Silent Rippers."

"You dare to tell me that you, a mere Spirit King, managed to deal with the Silent Rippers that are known to have multiple Spirit Kings? Your farts are getting louder and louder, brat." The frown on Tian Suyin's face burrowed even deeper.

"He's telling the truth." Tian Xianzu suddenly spoke.

"I watched him do it, after all."

"That's right! Xiao Yang is extremely powerful and talented! He can handle multiple Spirit Kings by himself!" Tian Yanyu jumped in to defend Yuan.

"..."

Tian Suyin turned silent for a good moment after hearing her husband and daughter's words.

"If you're truly as powerful as they claim, I want to see it for myself."

"You want to spar with me?" Yuan raised an eyebrow.

"Yes. I have to confirm for myself your strength, after all."

"I don't suggest doing that, mother... Xiao Yang... He's really powerful..."
Tian Yanyu said with a worried look on her face.

"Shut up. I don't care if he's the strongest cultivator in the Nine Heavens. Unless I see it for myself, I won't believe it."

"If that's what it will take for you to calm down." Yuan nodded with a confident look on his face.

They entered the courtyard shortly after.

"I don't want to damage my own home, so let's put up a defensive array first." Tian Suyin said.

"You're an Array Master?" Yuan asked.

"No, I am." Tian Xianzu suddenly said.

"I'm a Level 4 Array Master," he continued.

"Really? I'm actually a Level 2 Array Master myself." Yuan smiled.

"Seriously? You're also an Array Master? Is there anything you can't do?"
Tian Yanyu asked with a baffled look on her face.

Sometime later, Tian Xianzu covered the courtyard in a defensive array.

However, since he created it in a hurry, the defensive array wasn't anything impressive and actually quite fragile.

When Yuan saw this, he said, "Are you sure this is enough? It won't last even a single attack."

"It'll be fine. It's not like we're trying to kill each other." Tian Suyin nodded.

"Then whenever you're ready. I won't be using any spiritual techniques to make this fair." Yuan said with a calm smile.

Tian Suyin's eyebrows twitched slightly upon hearing his words that sounded like he was underestimating her.

And without warning, she rushed at him with her fists ready to strike.

Seeing this, Yuan began dodging her strikes, making it seem as though they were dancing around the courtyard.

Eventually, Tian Suyin retrieved her sword and started attacking Yuan with even more intensity.

Tian Suyin did not want to use any techniques at first since she didn't want to damage her home, but she was feeling irritated about the fact that she couldn't even land a single strike on a junior like Yuan, so she started unleashing sword techniques at him.

'These sword techniques...'

For some reason, Yuan could feel a sense of familiarity from Tian Suyin's sword techniques even though this is his first time seeing it, and the more he looked at it the stronger this feeling got.

It quickly got to the point where he was no longer focused on the fight but the sword techniques instead.

'Why am I feeling this sense of familiarity from her sword techniques? Is it related to one of my past lives?' He couldn't help but ponder about this possibility.

Chapter 1086 Lin Family's Gathering

Chapter 1086 Lin Family's Gathering

"Are you mocking me?!" Tian Suyin suddenly stopped moving and shouted at Yuan, who had been completely focused on her sword techniques.

"Huh? What are you talking about?" He snapped out of his daze and asked.

"You've been doing nothing but avoid me! Are we playing tag or are we fighting?!" She pointed her sword at him, and on her face was an angry frown.

"Oh, sorry. I was distracted by something." Yuan said with an apologetic smile on his face.

And he asked, "By the way, before we continue, can I ask you a question? Where did you learn that sword technique?"

"If you beat me, I will tell you." Tian Suyin sneered.

"Very well."

Yuan gave Tian Suyin a moment to prepare herself.

Once it seemed like she was ready, Yuan suddenly disappeared from Tian Suyin's vision even though she had been staring at him without blinking, almost like he'd disappeared into thin air.

She suddenly felt a presence appear behind her, and she instinctively turned around while swinging her sword.

Yuan calmly moved his hand behind her elbow, preventing her from turning around any further, and with his other hand, he gave her one good punch on the side of her stomach.

"Ah!" Tian Suyin released a painful cry before falling to her knees.

Even though it seemed like an ordinary punch, the punch actually shook the spiritual energy in Tian Suyin's Dantian like a shockwave, forcing her body to feel weak, temporarily losing all of her strength.

"I think the disparity between you and I should be quite clear now." Yuan said to her as he lowered his fist, letting them rest beside him.

Tian Suyin gritted her teeth in frustration. She was a sect elder of a relatively strong sect, yet she couldn't even touch a single hair on Yuan's body, who was many years younger than her. And to make matters worse, she wielded a weapon and used techniques while Yuan confronted her with his bare hands.

Although Tian Suyin couldn't fully grasp Yuan's strength from their light spar, one thing was clear, and that Yuan was a formidable individual.

"What did I tell you, mother? Xiao Yang is the real deal. And what he showed you just now isn't even a small fraction of his full strength." Tian Yanyu shook her head at her mother.

"To be fair, your mother didn't use her full strength either. Well, I think she just wanted to understand my strength even if it's a little." Yuan said, hoping it'd make Tian Suyin feel better.

Once the spiritual energy inside her body stabilized, Tian Suyin stood up and spoke in a low voice, "Sword of Indomitable Will. That's the name of the sword technique I used, and it's a technique from the Jade Sword Manor. Although it's a relatively weak sword technique, I learned it because I liked its name."

"Sword of Indomitable Will..." Yuan mumbled this name in a low voice.

"I am actually a disciple of this sect, and I also know this sword technique, by the way." Tian Yanyu suddenly said.

"Is that so..."

After pondering for a moment, he asked, "Do you mind if I visit the Jade Sword Manor?"

"Why would you want to do that?" Tian Yanyu asked.

"I want to confirm something." He said, giving a vague answer.

Tian Yanyu realized this so she didn't ask further.

"No." Tian Suyin suddenly said, and she continued, "Until you settle your business with the Lin Family and this situation, you're not going anywhere. I don't want you bringing trouble into our sect."

Yuan nodded, "Don't worry, it'll all be settled in a few days."

"Anyways, I'm going to rest for a bit. If you need me, you know where to find me." Yuan said to them before going back to his room.

Once Yuan was gone, Tian Suyin turned to look at Tian Yanyu and said with a solemn face, "You're going to tell me everything from the beginning! And don't you dare miss even the slightest detail!"

"I understand..."

Thus, the Tian Family went to another room for their meeting.

Meanwhile, at the Lin Family, all of its members had been gathered in one place under Patriarch Lin's instructions.

"I wonder what happened. I can't even recall the last time Father gathered all of us in such a manner." A young lady mumbled out loud to the others around her.

"It probably has something to do with what happened very recently."
Another person said.

"What happened?"

"According to what my servant told me, some crazy bastard kicked down our Lin Family's front gate and even beat many of our guards."

"What?! Which madman would dare to do such a thing?"

"Even if that did happen, why would the Patriarch summon all of us?"

"I heard that Ancestor Lin also came out of his seclusion recently."

"The Ancestor?! Does this mean he's finally breakthrough to the Spirit Emperor realm?!"

"Silence!" A loud voice suddenly resounded, instantly hushing the room.

Then, the sound of footsteps resounded.

A few moments later, Patriarch Lin appeared before them.

Patriarch Lin swept his gaze at the tens of thousands of people in front of him and said in a clear voice, "I want the names of those who could not make it today on my desk by tonight."

"Yes!" An old man immediately responded in a loud voice.

After a moment of silence, Patriarch Lin continued, "I have gathered all of you here today for two reasons."

"First of all, the upper heavens have decided to send people down here to look for the sinner that had received Heaven's death sentence, and it's not just a few people. According to the information I was given by the Lin Family in the upper heavens, thousands of people from all sorts of terrifying backgrounds that far surpasses our Lin Family's will be sent down here in a month or so."

Everyone there expressed great shock after hearing this information, as this was an unprecedented event that could shake up the entire Nine Heavens.

Chapter 1087 Lin Family's Gathering(2)

Chapter 1087 Lin Family's Gathering(2)

"Now this shouldn't even need to be said, but I will still say it just in case. These people coming from the upper heavens are NOT to be trifled with. Many of them come from backgrounds that could easily wipe out our Lin Family and get off scot-free." Patriarch Lin said with a serious expression on his face.

"If you encounter one of these people, you will give them your utmost respect and treat them as if they are your own ancestors. Most of them will have their cultivation suppressed to peak Spirit King, and they will all be wearing a special badge on their clothes that will distinguish them from the others."

Patriarch Lin proceeded to show them a golden badge that was shaped into the word 'Heaven', which could also be read as 'Tian'.

"While I said that these people will come down in a month, in reality, some of them could have already made it down here for all we know."

Unbeknownst to the Lin Family, Patriarch Lin had received the news about the people from the upper heaven literally right before he showed up to the gathering, so he was just as surprised as everyone there.

And in his mind, the young man from the Celestial Overlords was part of this expedition team.

'How fucking unlucky for our Lin Family to offend someone from the upper heaven right before the news even spread.' He sighed inwardly.

"Now then, let's move onto our second topic and the main reason why I gathered all of you here today." Patriarch Lin spoke a moment later.

The Lin Family was baffled after hearing this, and they all wondered what could be even more important than the upper heavens sending people to their small world.

A scary expression suddenly appeared on Patriarch Lin's face, and his eyes emanated with killing intent, "As some of you have probably heard by now, there is a rumor going around that claims our Lin Family had hired the Silent Rippers to mess with the Tian Family."

"What? Such a thing happened?"

"My god..."

The people there were shocked to hear this, as if such a rumor was true, this could very well be a death sentence for whoever caused this trouble.

Meanwhile, within the crowd was Lin Minghai and Steward Jin, and both of them were sweating profusely at this moment.

The two of them exchanged worried glances with each other. If Patriarch Lin learns the truth, not even the Heavens would know of the aftermath.

'I really hope that you'd erased all evidence that could indicate us as the culprits...' Lin Minghai stared at Steward Jin in the eyes.

Steward Jin returned the stare with a confident look in his eyes, 'Don't worry, Young Master, there's no way they know that we were responsible.'

Patriarch Lin's voice resounded again, "To tell you the truth, I already know the culprits behind this incident."

'What?!' Lin Minghai and Steward Jin snapped their heads to look at Patriarch Lin with looks of disbelief on their faces.

"Bring him in!" Patriarch Lin suddenly shouted.

A few moments later, two peak Spirit King experts approached Patriarch Lin while pulling on a chain that was restricting a heavily injured individual.

This person was so badly beaten that his entire body was covered in bruises. It was clear as day that this individual had been tortured to a great extent, but nobody there said a word about it.

"Do you know who this man is?" Patriarch Lin asked them.

The Lin Family quickly shook their heads.

"What if I told you that his name is Zhan Shichai? Do you recognize him now?"

"Zhan Shichai?! Isn't that the leader of the Silent Rippers' name?! I have heard it before!" Someone there exclaimed.

"Indeed, this person is the leader of the Silent Rippers— or should I say was?" Patriarch Lin confirmed, sending another wave of shock throughout the Lin Family.

Patriarch Lin looked at the pitiful-looking Zhan Shichai and smiled, "No matter how strong you think you are— you will never be able to beat someone from the upper heavens, as we're akin to ants before their eyes."

Patriarch Lin's words implied several things. One, that Zhan Shichai was beaten by someone from the upper heavens. Two, that the Silent Rippers are no longer in operation. And lastly, that people from the upper heavens are already in the Third Heaven. Not everyone noticed these implications, but those that did were greatly shocked.

"Although it took some effort, I was able to extract a lot of information from Zhan Shichai, the former leader of the Silent Rippers, including the names of the people who hired them. However, I will give the culprits a chance to step forward and admit their mistakes. If you do so, I will lessen the punishment." Patriarch Lin spoke in a loud and clear voice, but he had just spoken two lies just now.

First of all, no matter how much they tortured Zhan Shichai, they were unable to extract any information from him. Secondly, they did not know the culprits behind this whole fiasco.

In other words, Patriarch Lin was bluffing to trick the culprits into revealing themselves.

This was a cheap and sly tactic, but it was effective and Patriarch Lin had no time to spare. After all, the quicker he deals with this situation the more likely that Yuan wouldn't wipe the Lin Family from the face of this world.

Lin Minghai and Steward Jin looked at each other again, and on their faces showed absolute despair and desperation.

'Steward Jin, you fucking useless bastard!' Lin Minghai cried inwardly, silently cursing his most reliable servant, something he has never done before.

'What the hell is happening?! Even if that Xiao Yang had help from the Tian Family, they shouldn't have the capability to defeat the Silent Rippers, much less capture their leader, Zhan Shichai!' Steward Jin had a hysterical look on his face from being unable to comprehend the situation, and he felt so weak that he was on the verge of collapsing on the spot.

Chapter 1088 The Man Responsible

After a moment of silence, Patriarch Lin spoke in a booming voice, "Thirty seconds! The ones responsible for putting our Lin Family in this situation have thirty seconds to get up here and admit to their crimes! If you do so, we will spare you from the death penalty!"

"The death penalty?!" Lin Minghai cried inwardly. He could've never expected things to get out of control so quickly, nor could he have anticipated such a severe punishment.

"That bastard came from the upper heavens? No wonder why he dares to act so brazenly!" Steward Jin gritted his teeth in fear.

However, he wasn't completely hopeless, as he had made some preparations just in case this kind of situation would happen.

"Ten seconds left!" Patriarch Lin's voice rippled in the room, causing the walls to tremble slightly.

"Five... Four... Three—"

"I did it! It was me! I was the one who hired the Silent Rippers!" A clear voice suddenly resounded, and everyone in the room turned to look at the person who just spoke.

This person began making his way towards the front of the room.

Once he was before Patriarch Lin, the middle-aged man kneeled and kissed the floor with his forehead.

"This lowly servant is responsible for the mess. Please punish me as you see fit, Patriarch."

Patriarch Lin narrowed his eyes at the middle-aged man before him with a pondering face.

A moment of silence later, he spoke, "I don't recognize you. Identify yourself."

It wasn't weird for Patriarch Lin to not recognize the face of every servant in the Lin Family due to the sheer number of them.

"This lowly servant is called Wu Jie. I have been a servant of the Lin Family for 15 years now."

"Why did you hire the Silent Rippers?"

"Because it felt like the right thing to do, especially after their attempt to smear the Lin Family's name and reputation by associating us with the bandits." Wu Jie explained in a calm voice.

"Your foolish actions have done far more damage than any rumors could." Patriarch Lin shook his head.

Patriarch Lin actually could tell by the way Wu Jie acted that he wasn't the true culprit, but he couldn't care less and only wanted someone to take the fall and face Yuan's wrath, and the Lin Family wouldn't lose out on anything by losing a single servant.

"Follow me."

Patriarch Lin turned around and walked out of the room, followed by Wu Jie.

Once Patriarch Lin was gone and the atmosphere returned to normal, the others could finally take a breather.

Lin Minghai immediately approached Steward Jin and asked him in a low voice, "W-What the hell just happened?"

"I will explain it later. Let's go elsewhere first, Young Master."

"Alright."

They left the room and went somewhere more private.

"Who was that Wu Jie? Why did he admit to something he did not commit?" Lin Minghai asked with a puzzled look on his face.

A cold smile appeared on Steward Jin's face as he spoke, "A lowly servant... It's not hard to make them do things."

Lin Minghai stared at Steward Jin in a dazed manner for a moment before he burst out laughing, "You're evil, but I really appreciate what you've done for us, Steward Jin! I don't even want to imagine what could've happened to us if you didn't do such a thing!"

"I will do anything to keep you safe, Young Master." Steward Jin continued to smile.

And for the next few days, Patriarch Lin would keep Wu Jie locked up in their private prison until the day Yuan returned to their household.

A few days later.

"Alright, it's about time I check up on the Lin Family. You don't have to come with me if you don't want to." Yuan said to Tian Yanyu as he walked to their front gate.

"I am coming with you." Tian Yanyu insisted with a stern-looking expression on her face.

"I am also coming with you, and this is not up for debate.." Tian Suyin suddenly said.

"If my daughter and wife are going, I can't stay behind now, can I?" Tian Xianzu sighed.

Yuan smiled. "The more the merrier."

Thus, Yuan and the entire Tian Family began making their way to the Lin Family, attracting much attention from the pedestrians they passed as they got closer to their destination.

News of the Tian Family confronting the Lin Family quickly began spreading throughout the entire city like wildfire.

When the other Legacy Families heard the news, they began paying more attention to the situation.

Although the Tian Family was too small to attract their interest, they wanted to see how the Lin Family was going to handle the situation, as the recent rumors have really tanked their reputation within the city.

When Yuan and the Tian Family arrived at the Lin Family's front gate, the Lin Family was already waiting for them outside.

"Welcome back to our humble estate, Young Master." Lin Chunhua greeted him with a bright smile.

"Let's cut to the chase. Have you found the person who is responsible?" Yuan asked.

Tian Suyin and Tian Xianzu were on the verge of a nervous breakdown when they saw how Yuan behaved before the Lin Family.

Lin Chunhua turned to look at Patriarch Lin, who nodded and said, "We have found the man responsible for hiring the Silent Rippers. Before we punish him, we'd like to give you the chance to do so."

"Let's go somewhere more private, shall we?" Lin Chunhua asked him.

"Sure." Yuan nodded.

They proceeded to enter the Lin Family's estate.

Patriarch Lin brought Yuan and the Tian Family to their largest guest room and said to them, "I have already requested for the perpetrator to be transported here. Please give us a few minutes."

"I understand." Yuan nodded.

Tian Xianzu and Tian Suyin almost couldn't believe what they were witnessing right now.

'Am I dreaming or something? There's no way the Lin Family is acting this respectful to us... No, to him...' Tian Suyin glanced at Yuan with a pondering gaze.

Chapter 1089 The Man Responsible(2)

'I knew he was someone special, but to think he was this special...' Tian Xianzu swallowed nervously as he sat in the Lin Family's guest room.

Both Tian Xianzu and Tian Suyin held their breaths as they waited for the Lin Family to bring in the 'culprit'.

A few minutes later, a middle-aged man with a somewhat blank look on his face was escorted into the room while his hands and legs were chained, and he appeared to have been beaten quite badly.

"This servant is Wu Jie, and he claimed responsibility for hiring the Silent Rippers. His reason being the recent rumors that have been spreading about our Lin Family. In other words, he wanted revenge." Patriarch Lin said.

Yuan narrowed his eyes at Wu Jie, causing him to tremble.

"Xiao Yang... I don't think he's the culprit..." Tian Yanyu whispered in his ears.

Even she could tell at glance that this servant wasn't responsible for it.

"Take a seat." Yuan gestured for Wu Jie to sit before them.

Wu Jie didn't dare to get comfortable, but Lin Chunhua insisted, "If the Young Master tells you to take a seat, you will take a seat."

Wu Jie quickly nodded his head and walked to the chair in small steps.

Once he was seated, Yuan retrieved the Grail of Truth and placed it on the table.

"I will now ask you several questions, and you will answer them truthfully." Yuan said to him.

Wu Jie nodded.

"Is your name Wu Jie?" Yuan asked a moment later.

"Yes..."

The Grail of Truth remained still.

"Did Patriarch Lin or Ancestor Lin force you to be here and play the role of culprit?"

"N-No! They did not!" Wu Jie said in a nervous voice.

Seeing no reaction from the Grail of Truth, Yuan continued, "Are you really the person responsible for hiring the Silent Rippers?"

"Yes, I am responsible." Wu Jie spoke with a somewhat defeated look on his face.

The Grail of Truth immediately pulsated with light.

Yuan smiled and said, "You're lying to me."

Wu Jie's eyes widened with shock, and he roared, "N-No! I am not lying! I swear that I am responsible! I was the one who hired the Silent Rippers to attack the Tian Family!"

The light coming from the Grail of Truth only became brighter as Wu Jie lied more.

"What is the meaning of th—" Lin Chunhua tried to question Wu Jie, but Yuan stopped him with a simple gesture.

"Please, allow me to ask him the questions."

"Alright..." Lin Chunhua stepped back and began glaring at Patriarch Lin with a threatening glare, causing him to swallow nervously.

"Why are you lying? Why would you claim responsibility for something you didn't do? Who are you trying to cover for?" Yuan asked Wu Jie, who could only silently shake his head now because he knew that his lies would be exposed if he uttered even a single word.

"Either you're so incredibly loyal to the person you're trying to protect that you'd be willing to sacrifice your life for them, or you're being forced to do so. Which is it?" Yuan asked.

"Please... I am really responsible... you have to believe me..." Wu Jie spoke in a low voice, sounding as though he was on the verge of crying.

Yuan turned to look at Lin Chunhua and spoke in a cold voice, "What is the meaning of this? Do you think I am foolish enough to believe this farce, or did you expect me to just accept it as it is?"

"Neither!" Lin Chunhua roared.

He approached Wu Jie and continued, "I will swear upon my surname and soul that I will protect you from whoever you're trying to protect. Tell us—why are you lying?"

"I will also guarantee your safety." Patriarch Lin suddenly added.

Upon hearing these words, Wu Jie immediately broke out in tears and bawled his eyes out.

"My family was taken from me! My wife and my daughter are taken as hostages! They told me that if I don't take the blame they would sell my wife and daughter to the worst brothels in the city!" Wu Jie cried out loud.

Lin Chunhua gritted his teeth in anger upon hearing this information.

"Which bastard within the Lin Family dares to do something so vile?! Tell me!" He roared, causing the entire room to shake.

"S-Steward Jin!" Wu Jie blurted this name out loud, feeling as though a mountain had been lifted from his chest.

"What?!" Patriarch Lin exclaimed.

"Who is this Steward Jin? I don't recognize this name." Lin Chunhua immediately asked for more information.

"Steward Jin is one of our most loyal servants. He's currently serving Lin Minghai, my son..." Patriarch Lin muttered in a low voice.

There was no way he could hide this information since everyone knew about it. If he tried to hide it from Lin Chunhua, it would immediately be exposed as a lie, and he would experience his father's wrath.

"Don't tell me your son..." Lin Chunhua's body trembled in anger.

"W-Wait! He only said Steward Jin's name! While it's true that he works directly for my son, there's no evidence that suggests my son is part of this farce! For all we know, Wu Jie could be lying about this whole thing!" Patriarch Lin exclaimed.

"Then why don't we speak with this Steward Jin and see for ourselves what he has to say about this situation?" Yuan suddenly said.

And he continued, "Also, he isn't lying."

Yuan suddenly pointed at the chains restricting Wu Jie.

He released some of his Sword Qi the following moment, cutting the chains apart.

"It would be in the Lin Family's best interest to compensate this man for his troubles."

Lin Chunhua nodded, "I will personally compensate him once all of this is over. You have my word."

"Then let's call for this Steward Jin, shall we?" Yuan smiled.

Patriarch Lin immediately summoned Steward Jin to their room.

Sometime later, a man with a naturally cunning face entered the room, his entire body already drenched in sweat.

Chapter 1090 The Man Responsible(3)

"Greetings, Patriarch Lin—"

"Save your breath. You'll need it." Patriarch Lin interrupted with a cold expression on his face.

Steward Jin swallowed nervously before turning to look inside the room, and that was when he noticed an exhausted-looking man sitting in the middle of the room.

Steward Jin immediately recognized this man to be the one he forced to take the blame for the incident, and his body began squeezing out every ounce of sweat it contained once he realized the situation.

"What's wrong, Steward Jin? Do you recognize this servant?" Lin Chunhua pretended to be ignorant and asked.

"Y-Yes... He's one of many servants in the Lin Family..." Steward Jin responded in a shaky voice.

"Is that all? What else can you tell me about him?" Patriarch Lin continued to ask.

"I..."

However, Steward Jin couldn't utter another word out of his mouth.

"Let's stop this pointless chatter and get straight to the point. Wu Jie, is this man, Steward Jin, the individual who forced you to take the blame?" Lin Chunhua suddenly said.

Wu Jie glanced at Steward Jin, seemingly hesitant to respond.

"Don't forget, both you and your family have our full support." Patriarch Lin reminded him.

Wu Jie nodded, and after taking a deep breath, he spoke, "Yes, he is the man who threatened my family."

"THAT'S A LOAD OF BULLSHIT!" Steward Jin subconsciously roared out loud.

When he realized what he'd just done, he quickly followed it up, "Patriarch! Ancestor! That man is speaking nonsense! I never threatened him! I am being framed!"

And before they could respond, Steward Jin pointed at Wu Jie and continued, "You claim that I'd threatened your family, but what proof do you have to back that claim?! How dare you try and frame me! A mere servant!"

The room became dead silent.

A calm voice broke the silence a moment later, "There is only one proof we need."

"What?"

Steward Jin shifted his gaze to the handsome young man sitting on the other side of Wu Jie.

Yuan pointed at the Grail of Truth resting on the table and continued, "He's not lying, and that is all I need to know that you're guilty."

"Now tell me, are you solely responsible for this mess, or are there others?"

"..."

Steward Jin didn't dare to speak, as he didn't want to drag his master to hell with him.

However, Lin Chunhua wasn't having any of this, and he grabbed Steward Jin by the neck before lifting him into the air.

"SPEAK! WHO ELSE IS RESPONSIBLE?!"

"N-Nobody! I am the only one responsible!" He muttered.

The Grail of Truth immediately began pulsating with light.

When Lin Chunhua saw this, his expression turned cold, and he suddenly tossed Steward Jin across the room.

The room shook slightly when Steward Jin's body slammed into the wall, leaving behind a large crack on it.

Patriarch Lin approached Steward Jin and spoke in a low voice, "If you tell us the truth, I might spare you the death penalty."

Feeling as though a dim light had appeared in his seemingly pitch black situation, Steward Jin became hopeful that he might survive this ordeal.

"On the other hand, if you don't, I will personally torture you for a hundred years." Lin Chunhua suddenly said.

Steward Jin's body trembled in fear upon hearing such horrifying words, and he subconsciously muttered out loud, "M-Minghai! Young Master Lin Minghai is also responsible!"

The temperature in the room suddenly dropped significantly, and Patriarch Lin mumbled in a low voice, "Minghai...? He's also responsible for this?"

Patriarch Lin didn't want to believe that his son was involved with the Silent Rippers, but somewhere deep within him believed otherwise.

"Lin Minghai... Although I don't recognize this name, since he has the Lin Family's surname, is he a direct descendant?" Lin Chunhua asked his son, who nodded in a stiff manner.

"Yes... He's my son..."

"..."

After a moment of silence, Lin Chunhua spoke, "I don't care if he's your son or your wife. If he's responsible, he will take responsibility. Bring him here."

Patriarch Lin had no choice but to summon Lin Minghai to the room.

Several minutes later, Lin Minghai entered the room.

"Greetings—"

A clear sound rippled in the room almost immediately after Lin Minghai opened his mouth.

Lin Minghai looked at his father with a look of disbelief on his face after realizing that he'd just been slapped in the face.

"Father...?" Lin Minghai mumbled.

"Absolutely useless! You're a disgrace to the entire family!" Patriarch Lin uttered in a cold and disdainful voice.

It was at this moment Lin Minghai noticed the other figures in the room, and when he saw the expression on Steward Jin's face, he instantly realized his situation.

"W-Wait! I can explain!"

"So you're not even going to deny it?" Lin Chunhua said.

"I..." Lin Minghai was speechless. If Steward Jin had given him up, there was no way he could talk his way out of this. The only thing he could do is hope that they wouldn't kill him because of the Lin Family's blood that is currently running through his veins.

"This was all Steward Jin's idea. I merely followed it."

"No matter if you came up with the idea yourself or you're simply going along with it, you're just as guilty." Lin Chunhua sneered.

He turned to look at Patriarch Li and continued, "You have assured the Young Master that you will punish the culprit with death regardless of their identity, and your son is no exception. But since he is your son, I will allow you the courtesy to end his life."

"As for you..."

Lin Chunhua suddenly looked at Steward Jin.

Whoosh!

Before Steward Jin could even open his mouth, Lin Chunhua tossed his sword that was aimed directly at Steward Jin's heart, pinning him into the wall and killing him instantly.

Lin Minghai fell on his buttocks when he saw this, and he even pissed his own pants.

"P-Please have mercy, father!" Lin Minghai crawled to Patriarch Lin's feet and began begging for his life.

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 1091 Killing Lin Minghai

"You are pleading to the wrong person for mercy." Patriarch Lin kicked his feet, sending Lin Minghai flying.

Lin Minghai immediately stood back up and rushed to Tian Yanyu's side before kneeling before her with his face full of tears and snot.

"Please! Have mercy, Lady Tian! I was wrong! I promise that I will never bother you again if you spare my life!"

Tian Yanyu remained seated on the couch with a calm expression on her face as she silently watched Lin Minghai plead for his life with his knees kissing the floor.

This was a scene that she'd seen multiple times in her dreams, but she never imagined that it could become a reality.

However, as much as she wanted to kill him, she wasn't sure if that was a good decision, especially since the Lin Family could hold a grudge against her family for killing Lin Minghai.

She turned to look at her family for advice.

Unfortunately, both her parents were still frozen stiff from fear because of their situation.

Tian Yanyu proceeded to shift her attention to Yuan, who calmly smiled before speaking, "Just speak your heart's desire. No matter your decision, I will protect you and your family."

When she saw the calmness on Yuan's face, Tian Yanyu also calmed down.

"Okay." She nodded before turning to look at Lin Minghai, whose face was filled with tears and snot.

"You have been a thorn in my life for many years now, and I cannot count the amount of times that I wanted to kill you with my own hands. However, I lacked both the power and courage."

After taking a deep breath, she continued, "But things are different now."

A cold light flickered within her gaze, and she stood up before facing Lin Minghai.

"I wanted to kill you when you tried to bully me into submission. I wanted to kill you when you messed with my family. I have been wanting to pierce your neck with my sword for many years now, and now that I have the chance, it wouldn't make sense for me to refuse."

Tian Yanyu retrieved her sword from her spatial ring.

"Hiii!" Lin Minghai fell on his buttocks again, and he started kicking his feet at the floor, pushing himself away from Tian Yanyu.

"F-Father! Are you really going to let her kill me?! I am a descendant of the Lin Family! I am your son! You must save me!" Lin Minghai turned to look at Patriarch Lin for help, but his face froze when he saw that Patriarch Lin wasn't even looking at him.

In fact, Patriarch Lin appeared to be ignoring him on purpose.

Seeing this, Lin Minghai knew that his fate was sealed and that he was doomed.

"Please... Lady Tian... Spare my insignificant—"

Whoosh!

Tian Yanyu suddenly took a large step towards Lin Minghai while thrusting her sword at him.

Her cold blade penetrated his neck and came out the other end.

After skewering Lin Minghai's neck with her sword, Tian Yanyu flicked her arm, decapitating Lin Minghai completely with one swift and decisive movement.

Lin Minghai's headless body collapsed on the floor a moment later, and not wanting his blood to dirty the room, Lin Chunhua sealed the fatal injury.

Tian Suyin snapped out of her daze after hearing the sound of Lin Minghai's head fall to the ground.

"Yanyu... You..." She was in disbelief, and she feared the Lin Family's retribution.

The room fell silent once again.

Sometime later, Yuan stood up and said to the Lin Family, "Thank you for upholding your promise. I will consider this whole situation settled now, and I will not fault the Lin Family any more."

Lin Chunhua bowed to him, "We only did what was natural."

"Then we will be leaving now." Yuan proceeded to walk towards the door only to stop at the door.

He turned around and continued speaking, "Just a reminder, the Tian Family is under my protection. Any harm towards them and I will consider it a personal attack on me."

"Please be at ease, Young Master. The Lin Family will not touch the Tian Family. In fact, we will even compensate them for whatever damage we've caused them." Lin Chunhua said.

"I-It's okay. We appreciate the offer, but what's done is already done. Let's not dwell on the past and keep moving forward." Tian Xianzu said with a stiff smile on his face.

As enticing as Lin Chunhua's offer was, Tian Xianzu wanted to end all relationships with the Lin Family as soon as possible. And as long as nobody deliberately messes with their business, they will eventually recover all of their losses.

Yuan and the Tian Family left the Lin Family shortly after and returned to their own territory.

Lin Chunhua turned to look at Wu Jie and said, "You will also forget everything that transpired here today. I promise the Lin Family will not touch you or your family for as long as you keep your mouth shut."

"Yes! Please excuse me!" Wu Jie bowed to them before running out of the room.

"Tell the family and others that your son had died in an accident." Lin Chunhua said to Patriarch Lin once they were alone.

"I know," Patriarch Lin sighed.

"Let today be a lesson. This is what happens when one offends someone from the upper heavens. We're lucky to get away with just two dead bodies. If he wanted to, he could've eradicated our entire family."

"I know..." Patriarch Lin repeated in a spiritless voice.

"I will give you some time to rest. We'll talk again in a few days." Lin Chunhua disappeared from the room shortly after.

Later that night, while Lin Chunhua was in his room cultivating and trying to forget about the whole incident, he suddenly sensed a presence appeared in his room like a ghost, forcing him to stop his cultivation.

"Who's there?!" He shouted as he snapped his eyes open.

However, there was nobody else in the room.

'Am I being paranoid?' He wondered inwardly.

Lin Chunhua closed his eyes and resumed his cultivation shortly after, completely unaware of the figure— an old man standing behind him like a ghost.

'At last, I've finally found you, Master...' A profound smile appeared on the old man's face as he secretly consumed Lin Chunhua's memories, taking them for himself.

Chapter 1092 Vanishing Demon

After leaving the Lin Family's residence, Yuan and the Tian Family went straight back to their own residence.

None of them spoke a word to each other during the whole journey back, and when they finally returned to their residence, the Tian Family could finally take a breather.

Tian Yanyu fell on her knees the moment they entered the residence, and she would stare at her hands that had been trembling nonstop since she killed Lin Minghai.

'I still cannot believe it... Did I really kill Lin Minghai with my own hands? Am I actually dreaming? If this is a dream, I do not wish to wake up from it...' She sighed inwardly.

Seeing Tian Yanyu on her knees, Yuan approached her and offered her a hand.

"Are you okay?" He asked.

Tian Yanyu lifted her head to look at him without moving the rest of her body, and she mumbled in a low voice, "Who are you, really...?"

Yuan chuckled, "You've asked me that same question so many times that I lost count now."

"Then allow me to ask you. Just who are you, really? And why are you helping us? I swear, if you give me that same bullshit—" Tian Suyin said.

"Does it really matter?" Tian Xianzu suddenly interrupted.

"Honestly, I don't care about his identity. The only thing that I know is that he'd helped us deal with the Lin Family, finally giving our Tian Family some peace."

"Peace?" Tian Suyin sneered, "Do you really believe the Lin Family will just sit back and act as though nothing had happened today? We killed one of their direct descendants! And it was even done inside their own home! It may not happen tomorrow or even a decade from now, but they will definitely settle this debt one day!"

"We will deal with it when that day actually comes. For now, let's just relax and take full advantage of this peace." Tian Xianzu said with a bittersweet smile on his face.

"I... I have to agree with Father, Mother." Tian Yanyu suddenly said.

"Lin Minghai would not have stopped until I was groveling at his feet, so our family would have to deal with the Lin Family regardless of what happened today. As for Xiao Yang's true identity... Despite my question just now, I don't really care about that anymore. While it's true that I am curious, I won't pursue it if he doesn't want to reveal it. As long as he isn't a threat to us, I couldn't care less about his identity."

Tian Yanyu stood back up and glared at Yuan with clear eyes.

"Thank you, Xiao Yang. Because of you, I was able to turn my dream into a reality and kill Lin Minghai. Now I won't have any more nightmares about him. If there's anything that I can do for you, don't hesitate to ask, as I am now indebted to you."

Yuan shook his head, "No, you don't owe me anything. In the first place, I helped you because of a debt my family owed your family."

"Then you can consider that debt fully repaid." Tian Yanyu smiled.

"Hmph." Tian Suyin snorted, "Now that you no longer owe our family any debt, you may leave."

"I-Ignore her! You can stay here for as long as you'd like, Xiao Yang!" Tian Yanyu quickly said.

"Thank you. Then if you don't mind, I would like to stay here for a little longer until I figure out my next steps."

"Didn't you say that you'd like to visit my sect— the Jade Sword Manor? We can do that next!" Tian Yanyu recalled.

"Alright, when do you plan on bringing me there?"

"We can go back as soon as tomorrow if you want."

"Sure." Yuan nodded.

That night, Yuan logged off to notify Meixiu and the others about his plans.

"How long do you plan on staying with this family?" Chu Liuxiang asked him.

"I'm not sure yet, but I will let you know the moment I do."

"Then I will continue cultivating at the Cultivators' Haven until you return. I've made significant progress in my cultivation, so much so that I was going to ask you to go on without me for a while longer."

"Me too." Meixiu said.

"That's perfectly fine. In fact, if you wish to continue cultivating in seclusion even after I am done with the Tian Family, just let me know. It will benefit you more than just following me around, after all."

"Then it's decided! Meixiu, let's have a race to see who has the most breakthroughs!"

Chu Liuxiang suddenly said.

"Sure...?" Meixiu mumbled with raised eyebrows.

Meanwhile, Lin Chunhua was losing his memories without even being aware of it.

'Master is currently being hunted...' The old man sighed inwardly when he realized the situation through Lin Chunhua's memories.

He wasn't worried about the Seven Legacy Families, but with people coming from the upper heavens was a different story.

'He won't be able to handle the upper heavens in his current state, but they also don't know the Master's identity in this life yet... I must keep it that way for as long as possible.'

'Looks like I will have to wait a little longer before I can see you again, Master...'

"How troublesome." The old man subconsciously sighed out loud.

"Who?!"

His subconscious sigh alerted and startled Lin Chunhua, who quickly attacked behind him without even looking.

The old man avoided the attack with ease before distancing himself from Lin Chunhua.

Lin Chunhua didn't immediately attack the old man again, mostly because he was feeling apprehensive about the whole situation.

This old man was able to enter his room and get behind him without alerting him until the accidental sigh, which is more than enough to tell Lin Chunhua that he was dealing with someone he couldn't fathom.

"You... Who are you?" He asked after swallowing nervously.

The old man smiled and said, "I have many names, but you may call me Vanishing Demon."

"Vanishing... Demon?" Lin Chunhua forcefully swallowed again.

Chapter 1093 Vanishing Demon(2)

Lin Chunhua felt an intense sense of dread coarse through his body as he stood before the old man known as the Vanishing Demon. With hundreds of years of experience, he instinctively knew the old man was bad news.

Despite being one of the most powerful cultivators in the Third Heaven, he felt powerless, almost as though he'd gone back to the days when he was just a young and ignorant cultivator who'd just encountered a powerful beast that he had no hopes of defeating by himself.

"Vanishing... No, Senior Vanishing Demon, what business do you have with me?"

A slight smile appeared on Vanishing Demon's face, "You are a smart one, Lin Chunhua. Despite your status within this realm, you still remember how to be humble. People like you are rare in the upper heavens. If it weren't for this characteristic of yours, the Lin Family would have perished."

'He knows me?' Lin Chunhua doesn't recall introducing himself, and this was definitely their first meeting.

"Anyways, I am here to keep my Master safe." Vanishing Demon spoke.

"Your Master?" Lin Chunhua raised an eyebrow.

Who could possibly have someone this powerful under them in this small realm?

"Yes, and you've met him already. In fact, he was here just earlier today."

"Y-You mean that young man...?"

Yuan's image flashed inside Lin Chunhua's head.

Then he realized something, "W-Wait... To keep him safe? Why do you need to see me to do that? Are you worried that I might retaliate against him because of what happened today? I swear on my surname that I will not do such a thing!"

Vanishing Demon chuckled, "Retaliate? Even the Celestial Emperor couldn't defeat him, much less the Lin Family."

"The Celestial Emperor...? Just who are you guys...?" Lin Chunhua was speechless.

"Just a few ambitious individuals trying to do what they think is best for this world." Vanishing Demon smiled.

"Anyways, my business here is finished. You will be questioned about me in the near future, but don't worry, you won't remember a thing about our conversation just now, and it will be like our meeting had never even happened."

"What do you mean by—"

Before Lin Chunhua could even finish his sentence, Vanishing Demon disappeared from his room like a ghost.

He stood there with a dazed look on his face.

Several moments later, Lin Chunhua snapped out of his daze, and he proceeded to look around the room with a confused expression on his face.

'Why am I standing here? I was cultivating just a second ago...' He wondered inwardly.

He decided to not think too much about it and returned to his cultivation with all of his memories regarding Yuan erased from his memories.

However, he still remembered the Tian Family, as well as the incident with them, just not the person who was behind it.

After leaving Lin Chunhua's room, Vanishing Demon visited other people within the Lin Family, starting with Patriarch Lin.

Once he acquired Patriarch Lin's memories, he went on to steal the memories of everyone that knew about Yuan's existence, leaving no stones untouched.

Once he cleaned up the entire Lin Family, Vanishing Demon did not take a moment to rest and immediately went to his next target—the other Legacy Families.

After spending a few days combing through everyone in the Seven Legacy Families, Vanishing Demon went to his final destination, the Ji Family.

"Who are you?! How did you get in here?!" The 'Lord Ji' of this realm was greatly startled when Vanishing Demon suddenly appeared before him like a ghost.

"Don't mind me. I think I wandered in here by accident." Vanishing Demon said with a smile.

"Do you really expect me to believe such an excuse? Identify yourself!" Lord Ji shouted as he withdrew his weapon and pointed it at Vanishing Demon.

Vanishing Demon narrowed his eyes slightly and spoke in a calm yet cold voice, "A child such as yourself shouldn't play around with sharp objects. I advise you to put away that toy of yours before you get hurt."

"I will give you three seconds to identify yourself!" Lord Ji ignored Vanishing Demon's words and continued pointing his sword at him.

Vanishing Demon shook his head and sighed, "You people from the Ji Family are always the same."

A vicious light suddenly flickered within Vanishing Demon's eyes.

"Eh?"

Lord Ji turned to look at his right arm after he felt an odd sensation from it, and to his absolute horror, his entire arm had disappeared into thin air along with his weapon. However, he didn't utter a single cry and managed to endure the pain.

"I've never liked the Ji Family. A bunch of lap-dogs for the Celestial Emperor, yet you act as though you rule the Nine Heavens." Vanishing Demon sneered in a mocking tone.

"Fortunately for you, I am in a good mood since I have finally found my Master, so I am going to spare your life."

"You... Who are you?" Lord Ji asked with gritted teeth.

Vanishing Demon smiled and responded with a prideful aura around him, "Vanishing Demon."

Lord Ji frowned, "Vanishing Demon? Never heard of you. Why are you doing this? When did my Ji Family offend someone like you?"

"How about Evil God's Shadow Army? Have you heard of them?"

"WHAT?!"

A look of tremendous terror appeared on Lord Ji's face after hearing this name.

"Impossible! The Evil God's Shadow Army is just a legend— one that doesn't even exist in this world!"

"It doesn't matter if you believe it or not. After all, you won't remember anything after I am done with you."

"I won't remember anything...?" Lord Ji recalled a certain individual that was frequently mentioned when one spoke about the Evil God's Shadow Army.

According to the legend, the Evil God's Shadow Army, which was the Evil God's most powerful and secretive force, was managed by a nameless entity that had the ability to steal one's memories.

"I see... So you're that nameless monster who can steal one's memories... However, that doesn't explain why you're here..."

Vanishing Demon smiled, "There is only one purpose for the Evil God's Shadow Army— to protect the Evil God, our Master. Now that you have this knowledge, my reason for being here should be obvious to you now."

"No way... The Evil God... He's back?" Lord Ji had a look of disbelief on his face.

"He has returned yet not at the same time. However, it will only be a matter of time before he officially returns, and when that happens, the Nine Heavens will be his to control."

Lord Ji was speechless.

"Anyways, I have said enough. Once I am finished here, I will finally reunite with the Evil God."

"Wai—"

Lord Ji opened his mouth, but he stopped speaking and moving and became dazed before he could even finish uttering his first word.

When he snapped out of it, all of his memories of Yuan and his conversation with Vanishing Demon no longer existed.

Naturally, this meant that he'd forgotten about Heaven's Judgment and that he was supposed to find and hunt Yuan.

In just a few days, Vanishing Demon had managed to erase Yuan's existence from the Third Heaven.

"Now that I've brought you some more time, it's about time we met, Master Tian..."

Vanishing Demon disappeared into the night after he was finished with the Ji Family.

Chapter 1094 Jade Sword Manor

The day after the incident at the Lin Family, Yuan left the Tian Family with Tian Suyin and Tian Yanyu.

"Are you sure you want to stay behind? What if the Lin Family attacks while we are away?" Tian Suyin looked at her husband with a worried expression.

"Stop being so paranoid. I have a good feeling the Lin Family won't bother us." He nodded with a calm smile.

Sometime later, they left the residence and went to the nearest city teleporter.

"Before we arrive at the sect, I want you to remember some rules." Tian Suyin said to Yuan after they exited the teleporter and made their way to the Jade Sword Sect.

"One, you will not wander the sect alone. Two, you will have someone with you at all times."

She turned to look at Tian Yanyu and continued, "Since you agreed to let him in the sect, he'll be your responsibility. Don't let him out of your sight."

"I know..."

Yuan couldn't help but smile, "Why do you have to make it sound like I have some ulterior motive for visiting your sect?"

"You don't?"

"I don't."

"I don't believe you." Tian Suyin snorted.

Yuan casually shrugged.

Once they arrived at the sect, Tian Suyin said to Tian Yanyu, "Don't forget about the upcoming event. There will be a briefing about it tomorrow."

"I know."

Tian Suyin went ahead into the sect and quickly disappeared from their sights.

"Let's get you checked into the sect as a guest first." Tian Yanyu said to Yuan.

"Okay."

Yuan proceeded to follow her into the sect.

Sometime later, they stopped above a large building.

"This is our administration building. Once we check you in, you'll be given a guest uniform. You'll have to wear this uniform for as long as you are within the sect." Tian Yanyu explained to him as they descended in front of the building.

The moment they entered the building, Yuan could feel multiple pairs of eyes staring in their direction.

"Disciple Yanyu! You're back in the sect, and you're okay!" An old man with short white hair rushed over when he noticed them.

"Hello, Elder Meng. Of course I am fine. Why wouldn't I be?" Tian Yanyu showed him a friendly smile.

"Why wouldn't you be?" Elder Meng looked at her with wide eyes.

"There's a rumor going around that the Lin Family has captured you and is holding you prisoner! Did that not happen?"

"I wouldn't be here if I was captured, now would I? I don't know where that rumor came from, but it's not true."

"That's relieving to hear. Then the rumor about your family starting a fight with the Lin Family is also false, right?"

"That's... true. However, it's already been settled."

"That doesn't sound assuring. However, now that you're back in the sect, even the Lin Family cannot touch you. We've warned you multiple times to not leave the sect, but alas..." Elder Meng shook his head.

He then shifted his gaze to the handsome young man standing behind her.

"Who's this young man? Your boyfriend?"

Tian Yanyu chuckled, "This is Xiao Yang, a guest in my family, and he's also our savior. I brought him here because he wanted to look at our sect."

"Xiao Yang, this is Elder Meng. He's a close friend of my mother, and he used to be my tutor even before I came to the sect."

Tian Yanyu introduced them to each other.

'She didn't deny it...' Elder Meng could only think about how Tian Yanyu had ignored his earlier comment calling Yuan her boyfriend, something she would usually deny on the spot and even get angry about it.

'Just who is this Xiao Yang? How interesting...' He smiled inwardly.

"Anyways, can you help him with the procedures?" Tian Yanyu asked a moment later.

"Sure thing. Follow me, Xiao Yang."

Yuan followed Elder Meng to one of the tables, where he would give some information about himself to the sect.

'P-Peak Spirit King?!' Elder Meng's jaw dropped to the floor when he saw Yuan's cultivation on the paper.

He turned to look at Yuan, and sure enough, the aura of a Spirit King was emanating from Yuan's body, but he couldn't tell the exact level.

'He's not even 20 years old, and he's already a peak Spirit King? Where did such a monster come from, and how come I have never heard of him until today?' Elder Meng's trembling hands began sweating as he learned more about Yuan. He was beginning to understand why Tian Yanyu seemed to treat him differently.

Sometime later, Elder Meng returned to Yuan with his new uniform.

The majority of the uniform was black with a golden sword around his chest area.

"Here is your guest uniform. Please wear this for as long as you're within the sect. This way, we know that you're a guest. We have a changing room right over there." Elder Meng pointed to the door at the end of the room.

"I understand."

Yuan immediately went to change his clothes.

"You gave him the honorable guest uniform? Even though you know nothing about him?" Tian Yanyu asked Elder Meng when she saw the black uniform in Yuan's hands.

"Regardless of their identity, if they're a peak Spirit King, they deserve no less." Elder Meng said in a serious voice.

"By the way, where did you find a genius like him?"

Tian Yanyu smiled and spoke, "Believe it or not, he's the one who found me. He appeared out of the blue one day and has been helping me and my family since then— he's like a gift from the Heavens."

Elder Meng raised his eyebrows at such a suspicious situation.

"Are you sure you can trust him?"

"Besides my family, he's the only person I trust unconditionally. I know it might sound crazy, but I really cannot sense any malice from him. No matter his reason for helping my family, I am grateful for it."

Yuan came out of the changing room a few minutes later, and when Tian Yanyu saw his new look, her face turned slightly rosy. Naturally, she was unaware of this and only felt a little warmer than usual.

Chapter 1095 Jade Sword Manor(2)

Elder Meng whistled after seeing Yuan in their guest uniform.

"Not bad, young man. But you would look even cooler in our official uniform. How about joining our sect? With your cultivation, you would immediately become a Core Disciple or even a high-ranking sect elder if you wish."

Yuan smiled at his offer and said, "Thank you for the offer, but I don't plan on staying in this world for too long."

"This world...? Are you going to challenge the Stairway to Heaven soon?"

"Something like that." He nodded.

"I see. What a pity."

"..." Tian Yanyu looked at Yuan with a perplexed expression on her face after hearing this.

'We've just met, yet he's already leaving...?' She sighed inwardly.

"Come on, I will show you around the sect." She said to him a moment later.

"Alright."

Yuan left the building with Tian Yanyu the next moment, and she would proceed to give him a tour around the Jade Sword Manor.

Unlike the sects within the Lower Heavens, the sects within the Third Heaven are so vast that flying is required if one wanted to travel around, as most sects are split into hundreds if not thousands of smaller platforms that usually floated above the ground to save space.

"This is one of our training grounds. Our Jade Sword Manor has a total of 20 training grounds. Half of them are available to the Outer Court and Inner Court disciples while the other half are for Core Disciples and Elders."

Their first stop was a training ground meant for Core Disciples.

Due to their naturally low numbers, the training ground appeared to be empty at first with only a few disciples training on it, but their sword techniques were so flashy and powerful that if there were more disciples training there, they could accidentally hurt each other.

Of course, there were defensive formations to lower the risk of disciples injuring each other, but incidents still happen from time to time.

After watching the disciples for a few moments, Tian Yanyu suddenly spoke, "Xiao Yang, want to spar with me for a bit?"

Yuan looked at her with raised eyebrows, questioning her intentions.

"Even though I have seen you fight from afar, I still cannot fully grasp your prowess. Perhaps if I exchanged swords with you personally, I might understand you a little better."

Yuan smiled and said, "Sure, but let's do it later. I want to see more of this sect for now."

"Okay." Tian Yanyu was in no rush to spar with him, so she didn't mind waiting a little.

They left the training grounds to look at the other places.

"This is one of our medicine gardens. We have around 100 of them. Unless you want to get attacked by the guards, don't get too close to it. Only those with official orders are allowed to step foot on these grounds. Of course, these aren't our most valuable treasures. Those are hidden somewhere within the sect."

The medicine garden before them was filled with all sorts of plants that stretched to the horizons, and a few moments after their arrival, Yuan could sense someone watching them from afar.

They didn't linger and proceeded to the next area shortly after.

Over the several hours, Tian Yanyu would bring Yuan to many different spots within the Jade Sword Manor, but even after spending so many hours, they were not even halfway finished with the tour.

Seeing how it was starting to get dark, Tian Yanyu suggested they take a break and eat some food.

"Sounds great." Yuan nodded.

Sometime later, they arrived at the Comfort Peak, a place designated for disciples to relax.

"This is Comfort Peak, where disciples go to relax or have fun when they're feeling tired or simply need to release some stress. If you seek entertainment, you will find most of them here. The best restaurants in the sect could be found here. What do you feel like eating today?" Tian Yanyu asked him.

"I will let you decide. I'm not a picky eater and I enjoy almost everything."

"Alright. Then I will bring you to my favorite store."

As Tian Yanyu led Yuan through the Comfort Peak, the disciples around them would stop whatever they were doing to stare at them.

"I-Is that Senior apprentice-sister Tian Yanyu?"

"There's only one person in this sect with her beauty. It's definitely Fairy Tian."

"I thought she was being held captive by the Lin Family after starting a fight with them?"

"Who's that young man beside her? He's even wearing the honorary guest uniform."

"I cannot sense his cultivation. Is he a mortal?"

The disciples mistook Yuan as a mortal since they were too weak to sense his cultivation.

Eventually, they arrived at their destination.

"Jade Pavilion..." Yuan read the large sign above the restaurant's door in a mumbling voice.

When they entered, a handsome middle-aged man approached them, "Welcome back to the Jade Pavilion, Disciple Tian. We've missed your presence dearly."

"It's been a while, Li Ming."

As a regular of this restaurant, Tian Yanyu knew the names of every worker there, and this included even the janitors.

"Is my regular spot available?"

"Of course. It is always available for you, Disciple Tian."

"I will need another chair since I have a guest with me today."

"Very well. Please, follow me."

They followed Li Ming to a room on the highest floor.

The interior of the room was small and shaped like a rectangle, but it had more than enough room for two people. However, the best part of this room was not the interior but the view it provided, as the guests were able to see pretty much the entire place through the balcony.

Once they were seated, Li Ming handed them a menu and patiently waited for them to order.

Tian Yanyu ordered two dishes while Yuan ordered ten times that amount, which raised eyebrows, but Li Ming didn't say anything and left to prepare their order.

Chapter 1096 Jade Sword Manor(3)

"What do you think of our sect?" Tian Yanyu asked him once they were alone again.

"I like the scenery. It's completely different from the ones in Lower Heaven." He said with a smile.

"Lower Heaven...? You've been there?" Tian Yanyu showed a clear sign of surprise on her face.

"Yes. I was even a disciple at this sect for a while."

"Then why don't you become a disciple here for a while as well?" Tian Yanyu suddenly asked.

"I'm not sure what I would do as a disciple here." He shook his head.

"Well, what did you do in your previous sect?"

"I become a disciple mostly for the experience. Though, I must admit that the experience I had was limited."

"I can't say for sure since I've never been to Lower Heaven, but I would imagine that things are vastly different up here. But what I know for sure is that you'll have more opportunities up here, since we have more resources in the upper heavens."

"..."

After pondering for a moment, Yuan spoke, "Give me some time to think about it."

He immediately didn't refuse her offer. It was true that he didn't truly experience much in the Dragon Essence Temple, and he was interested in what it was like to be a disciple in the Third Heaven.

Tian Yanyu's hands turned into fists underneath the table from trying to hold her excitement.

'He didn't refuse! There's still a chance!' She smiled inwardly.

Tian Yanyu continued to ask Yuan about his experience in the Lower Heaven until their food had arrived.

They would stop talking to focus on their food and enjoy the scenery at the same time. Even though it was nighttime, Comfort Peak was still as lively as ever. In fact, it seemed even busier compared to when they first arrived.

An hour later.

Tian Yanyu stared at Yuan with a baffled look on her face.

'We finished eating at the same time even though he had ten times the amount of food I ordered...' She swallowed nervously.

Tian Yanyu snapped out of her daze a moment later, and she spoke, "Do you wish to rest for the night, or do you want to continue the tour?"

"Are you tired? We can rest if you want."

"I am not tired at all. In fact, I probably won't be able to sleep for the next several days since I am still excited about what happened at the Lin Family."

Yuan smiled, "Then let's continue our tour."

"Okay."

Core Disciples like Tian Yanyu received special treatment, and one of her many privileges was free food, so they left the restaurant without needing to pay.

The two of them didn't immediately leave Comfort Peak and lingered around for many more hours.

"This is one of the most popular shops around here. You get to sip on spirit tea for free while relaxing on a Spirit Calming Formation. Want to try it?"

Tian Yanyu stopped in front of this large building that was crowded with people outside.

"Don't mind the queue. Core Disciples have their own rooms, so we can go straight inside if you wish."

"Sure." He nodded.

They entered the building a moment later and walked straight to the only empty reception desk there while every other desk was occupied with disciples.

"Welcome to the Jade Tea Shop, Disciple Tian." The worker there immediately greeted her.

"A room for two."

"Sure thing."

The worker handed her a small jade tablet a moment later without asking any questions.

After taking the tablet, she brought Yuan to one of the rooms on the top floor.

Upon using the jade tablet to open the room that had nothing but two chairs that looked like massage chairs, a table, and a wooden drawer, Tian Yanyu said, "Take a seat. And do you have any preference for your tea?"

"I don't."

"Alright."

She went to the drawer and picked out a bag of tea leaves before preparing it with the teapot on the table.

Meanwhile, Yuan sat in one of the chairs, and his body immediately sunk into it, almost as though it was made of water and he was being embraced by clouds at the same time.

Once the tea was prepared, Tian Yanyu poured two cups and handed one of them to Yuan.

"This tea is made from leaves produced by our own sect. It has a special property that makes you feel as though you're slowly ascending to heaven. After drinking it, lay down and close your eyes."

After drinking the cup of tea, Yuan laid back on the chair and closed his eyes.

He could immediately feel the effects of the tea, and sure enough, his body felt incredibly relaxed while his consciousness was slowly drifting away.

This tranquilizing effect lasted for about two hours before it dissipated.

"There are even stronger teas if you want something longer lasting." Tian Yanyu said to him.

"I'm satisfied with what I experienced." He smiled.

"Then let's continue looking around."

After wandering the Comfort Peak for many hours until they were satisfied, they returned to the training grounds.

By the time they arrived, it was almost noon.

"Please go easy on me." Tian Yanyu said to him as she retrieved her sword.

"And don't go easy on me. Come at me as though you're trying to kill me."
Yuan said with a confident smile on his face.

Knowing his prowess, Tian Yanyu did not hesitate to treat their spar as though it was a life or death match.

Once they were prepared, Tian Yanyu made the first move, using a movement technique to get behind Yuan while swinging her sword at his neck.

Woosh!

Her blade struck nothing but air after Yuan dodged it with his own movement technique.

The few disciples at the same training ground quickly took notice of their spar, and they all stopped their own training to spectate.

It looked like Tian Yanyu had the upper hand at first, but these disciples quickly realized that was not the case.

"T-This guy... Who is this guy she's sparring with?!"

Chapter 1097 Nameless Emperor's Tomb

"Heavens! I have never seen Disciple Tian being pushed around like this before!"

"That guest... he's strong!"

The disciples were mesmerized by their fight, and some of them even imagined being in Tian Yanyu's shoes. However, none of them could even imagine defeating Yuan, who seemed invincible at the moment.

After twenty minutes of going back and forth, Yuan decided to end things with a sword technique.

[Vanishing Ghost's Soundless Blade!]

Yuan's sword disappeared for a split second, and Tian Yanyu suddenly sensed a wave of Sword Qi fly past her, narrowly missing her.

When she sensed Yuan's Sword Qi, her life flashed before her eyes for a second before she realized that she was still alive.

The disciples spectating the fight also felt as though their life was suddenly in peril when they felt the Sword Qi despite their distance with some of them even falling on their buttocks.

Tian Yanyu fell to her knees afterward, her body soaked in cold sweat.

'W-What was that just now?' She asked herself inwardly.

This was her first time experiencing an Ancient-rank sword technique, so her reaction was normal.

"Are you okay?" Yuan approached her after putting away his sword.

Tian Yanyu didn't immediately respond. Instead, she turned her head to look beside her, and to her horror, there was a deep cut in the floor that stretched for hundreds of meters, and the cut itself was many meters deep, almost as if it had been sliced by a massive sword the size of a building.

"L-Looks like I am still underestimating you..." She mumbled in a low voice after forcefully swallowing her saliva that was stuck in her throat.

If he'd used this kind of power while fighting the Silent Rippers, he would have erased the Tian Family's residence along with the assassins.

'Is this his true power... or is he hiding even more strength inside that body of his?' Tian Yanyu looked at Yuan with caution and excitement.

Unbeknownst to her, she was witnessing less than 10 percent of Yuan's true prowess.

"That was an amazing fight! Senior apprentice-sister Yanyu, introduce your friend to us!" The other disciples suddenly started rushing over.

Tian Yanyu greeted her fellow Core Disciples with a smile, "He's Xiao Yang, a friend that I'd met recently."

"Senior brother Xiao!" The disciples greeted him with respect.

"How old are you, Senior brother Xiao? You don't look any older than us."

"I'm nineteen years old."

"What?! You're actually that young?!"

"What is your cultivation?!"

"Are you from the Four Ancient Family?!"

The disciples bombarded him with questions.

"Hey! You're all getting too close! Stop bothering him and give him some room!" Seeing how the others were getting closer and closer to Yuan, Tian Yanyu quickly acted by pushing them away, acting like his bodyguard.

The disciples were surprised by Tian Yanyu's unnatural behavior, so they subconsciously stepped away from Yuan.

"Xiao Yang, let's go. There's a briefing that I must attend in a bit. We can continue our tour afterward." Tian Yanyu then said.

"Alright."

After saying his goodbyes to the other disciples, Yuan left the scene with Tian Yanyu.

"Is it just me or did Senior apprentice-sister Yanyu express jealousy just now?" One of the disciples there asked a moment later.

"You think so, too?"

"I'm not surprised, considering his talent and young age. In fact, I'm even more surprised that I have never heard of him until today."

The disciples didn't stay around for too long since they also needed to participate in the upcoming briefing.

"What kind of briefing are you going to attend? It seems important." Yuan asked Tian Yanyu as he followed her to another peak.

"It's definitely very important, as it affects not only our sect but all of the sects in the Third Heaven."

"Oh? Now I am really intrigued."

"Every seven years, all of the sects gather to explore the Nameless Emperor's Tomb. I'm sure you've heard of them before. They're basically gravesites created by powerful experts before their death so that they can pass down their legacy to those that pass the trials."

"Nameless Emperor's Tomb..." Yuan mumbled in a low voice.

"This has been a tradition since ancient times, and even though we've been exploring it for countless years, there are still plenty of powerful treasures to be found inside. There have even been occasions where people from the upper heavens come down specifically to explore the tomb."

"Can anyone enter the Nameless Emperor's Tomb? Or do they have to belong to a sect?" Yuan asked.

"Anybody can enter the Nameless Emperor's Tomb. However, that isn't recommended, since you won't have any protection, meaning you'll have to fend for yourself if you're attacked, and this is true even if you have a big group with you. Of course, this also applies to those in a sect. If you think the cultivation world is cruel out here, just wait until you go inside. Everything inside could be an enemy."

"Are you thinking about going inside the Nameless Emperor's Tomb?" Tian Yanyu asked him at the end.

"I'm still thinking about it, but it does sound fun."

"If you decide to join, let me know. I can speak with my mother, who can probably get permission to let you wear our uniform while you're inside."

"Thank you." Yuan nodded.

Sometime later, they arrived in front of a building that looked like someone's residence.

"This is my living quarters. I'm going to wash myself before I go to the briefing. You can either stay here and wait for my return or come with me to the briefing. It's all up to you."

"I will come with you. I want to learn more about this Nameless Emperor's Tomb, after all."

"Alright, then I will see you in a bit." Tian Yanyu disappeared into the bathroom after they entered the building.

While Yuan waited for her to come back out, Feng Yuxiang's voice suddenly resounded, "Young Master! I didn't realize this at first since it's been hundreds of years, but do you remember when I said that I'd found the Empyrean Overlord inside a Legacy Tomb 500 years ago? That was the Nameless Emperor's Tomb!"

"What?!" Yuan exclaimed after hearing this shocking information.

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 1098 Nameless Emperor's Tomb(2)

"Are you sure about this, Feng Feng? Did you really find the Empyrean Overlord inside this Nameless Emperor's Tomb?" Yuan asked for confirmation.

"I am certain, Young Master. My memories are getting clearer and clearer. I remember entering the Nameless Emperor's Tomb 500 years ago shortly after I escaped to the Third Heaven. I lacked treasures that were not too powerful to sell in this realm at that time, so I decided to enter the tomb, and after a gruesome experience that totally took me by surprise, I'd acquired the Empyrean Overlord and other treasures." Feng Yuxiang recalled her experience, feeling a tingly sensation known as fear when she did.

"The Nameless Emperor's Tomb is an incredibly dangerous and unfathomable place that even a Divine Beast who came from the upper heavens such as myself struggled greatly inside. In fact, I even died a few times. If it were not for my immortal body, I would've perished inside that Legacy Tomb 500 years ago." Feng Yuxiang's soul shivered just thinking about the nightmare she'd experienced while inside the Nameless Emperor's Tomb.

However, a bright smile appeared on Yuan's face when he heard this. "I wasn't sure if I wanted to go, but I cannot ignore such an opportunity after hearing this! The Nameless Emperor's Tomb must have something to do with my previous lives! If I want to learn more about myself, I must go there!"

"If that's the case, you should prepare yourself, Young Master. Even with your talents, I dare say that you'll still have some trouble inside. Hell, even the strongest cultivators can die in the most unlikely places."

"I know. I'll be careful." Yuan said.

"The Nameless Emperor's Tomb, huh?" Yuan wondered how he was related to this Legacy Tomb and what he'll find inside.

If the Empyrean Overlord belonged to one of his past lives, there has to be a reason that it was inside the Nameless Emperor's Tomb. Hell, the creator of this Legacy Tomb could very well be one of his past lives.

Tian Yanyu came out of the bathroom about 20 minutes later with a fresh look and stronger fragrance, smelling like a flower that had recently bloomed.

"I'm ready to leave. How about you?" She asked him.

"Yes. Also, I have decided to explore the Nameless Emperor's Tomb." Yuan said.

"Great! I will speak with my mother after the briefing."

"It's fine. I can protect myself, and I won't be alone."

"Oh, right... I forgot about them..." Tian Yanyu mumbled.

"Anyways, we can talk about this later."

"Okay."

Sometime later, they stopped at the Grand Jade Peak, one of the largest peaks within the Jade Sword Manor. Though, the only time this place becomes active are during summonings that required a large portion of the sect to gather in one spot, and currently there are over 200,000 disciples gathered.

"Impressive." Yuan was impressed by the sight when he arrived.

"This is just 2/3 of all the disciples in the Jade Sword Manor, too." Tian Yanyu said.

"While we wait, do you have any questions about the Nameless Emperor's Tomb?"

"Yes, I—"

Yuan suddenly halted his sentence when something in the Grand Jade Peak caught his attention.

He pointed at the massive stone statue in the distance and asked in a dazed voice, "Who is that?"

Tian Yanyu immediately knew what he was talking about even without looking at the statue.

"He doesn't have a name because we don't know it, but we believe he's the Nameless Emperor." Tian Yanyu explained as she stared at the statue of a tall, masked figure.

"How did you figure that out?" Yuan continued to ask.

"Because you can find similar-looking statues inside the Nameless Emperor's Tomb."

"I see... but why put his statue in the sect? Is he related to this sect in some way?"

"No, not that I know of. According to our sect's history, the founder of the Jade Sword Manor was a mere rogue cultivator before creating this place. He explored the Nameless Emperor's Tomb with some success and found some sword techniques as well as treasures that allowed him to become a peak cultivator in the Third Heaven and create the Jade Sword Manor."

"And he put that statue there as a way to pay respects to the Nameless Emperor, huh?" Yuan mumbled.

"Pretty much." Tian Yanyu nodded.

"Yuan... That's the Lord..." Lan Yingying's voice resounded shortly after.

She immediately recognized the statue to be the same as the 'faceless statue' that she'd taken care of since she was a child inside the Mystic Realm, but she was too surprised to say anything at first.

"Yes... Looks like he's related to the Nameless Emperor's Tomb as well."

Sometime later, a large group of figures could be seen approaching the Grand Jade Peak.

The people from this group were all Sect Elders of the Sword Jade Manor, and they were all being led by an old man who was emanating a naturally sharp aura that made those around him feel as though they were constantly being threatened with a sword by their neck.

"Greetings, Sect Leader and Sect Elders!" The world seemed to have trembled for a moment when all of the disciples greeted at the same time.

"That old man with the large silver sword behind his back is Yu Jian, our Sect Leader." Tian Yanyu mumbled to Yuan.

Once they arrived before the disciples, Yu Jian descended until he was floating in front of the statue while the Sect Elders gathered around the disciples.

"It is that time again, my disciples. The Nameless Emperor's Tomb will open for the world in 7 days, and it will remain open for 6 months." Yu Jian's voice boomed in their ears despite how soft it sounded.

"If you wish to explore the Nameless Emperor's Tomb, you must enter in groups of 10, and your cultivation has to exceed 3rd level Spirit Lord. If you've never experienced the tomb before, know that even if you prepare for the worst, it won't be nearly enough to prepare you for the nightmares in that place!" Yu Jian spoke in a solemn voice, sounding as though he was speaking from experience.

Chapter 1099 Nameless Emperor's Tomb(3)

"You will be tested beyond your limits inside the Nameless Emperor's Tomb. You will experience things that you wouldn't have even in your worst nightmares. There is an extremely high fatality rate inside where over half of those that enter never come back out. Even as a Peak Spirit King, I still have to tread the place with extreme care. If you are willing to go into purgatory and experience the worst of this world, then explore the Nameless Emperor's Tomb. If you cherish your life, avoid it at all cost." Yu Jian continued to speak in a solemn voice, his words sending chills down all of the disciples' spine.

Of course, he was not trying to scare the disciples on purpose. Every word that came out of his mouth was the truth and what he'd personally experienced, and he wanted them to know that the Nameless Emperor's Tomb wasn't a playground for the weak. Hell, even the strong are considered weak inside, so one could say the 'strong' doesn't exist when they are within the tomb.

After taking a breather, Yu Jian continued, "With that being said, if you decide to challenge the Nameless Emperor's Tomb despite the danger, you could be rewarded with unfathomably powerful treasures or techniques that far surpass what should be allowed in our realm, just like our founder, who became one of the strongest cultivators during his era because he took the risks and was rewarded for it."

The disciples swallowed nervously as they imagined the possibilities.

Just several treasures from the Nameless Emperor's Tomb made a rogue cultivator who used to be a nobody into a powerhouse and the founder of a top 5 sect. And since nobody knows how deep the tomb goes since not a single soul has ever reached the end, the possibilities were literally endless.

What if there exists a treasure at the end of the tomb that allows one to literally rule the Nine Heavens? Such a thought would normally be considered as a delusion, but when it comes to the Nameless Emperor's Tomb, this delusion seemed more realistic.

"Now let's talk about the Nameless Emperor's Tomb itself. While nobody knows when it first appeared or when it was first discovered, we've been exploring it for at least a hundred thousand years now, but despite our efforts, we still don't know how much we've explored or how long it'll take before we learn its secrets."

"Unlike most Legacy Tombs, the Nameless Emperor's Tomb is like a different world itself that one can explore freely with the only restriction being their own strength. Although most of the treasures in the outer areas are long gone, there are still new secrets being uncovered every time we enter, and there are powerful techniques waiting for those who can comprehend them."

Yu Jian would continue to talk about the Nameless Emperor's Tomb for several more minutes before he dismissed the disciples.

"Those of you determined enough to risk your life for a better life, come here in seven days and I will bring you to hell. You are dismissed."

Many disciples stuck around to talk to their friends and fellow disciples even after being dismissed.

"What do you think? Are you having second thoughts about the tomb now?" Tian Yanyu asked Yuan in a teasing voice.

"Even if it's a 90 percent chance of dying, I will still be willing to go." Yuan smiled.

Tian Suyin showed up a moment later.

"Is he causing you any trouble?" She asked Tian Yanyu the moment she appeared.

"Of course not." Tian Yanyu shook her head with a bittersweet smile.

"Is that so? Anyways, do you plan on entering the tomb this year? If you are, I want you to come with me and your father."

"I do... but..." Tian Yanyu glanced at Yuan before continuing, "I was thinking about going with Xiao Yang..."

"What?" Tian Suyin frowned, and she shifted her focus to Yuan.

"You're also going to enter the tomb? Are you going by yourself? Stop dragging my daughter into trouble with you."

"M-Mother! What are you saying?! Have you forgotten about his strength? He's strong enough to defeat the Silent Rippers by himself! If there's only one person in this place that is qualified to protect me, it's him!"

"Actually, your mother is right, Miss Yanyu. I plan on going as deep as I can, and I am not confident in protecting myself, much less someone else."

Tian Yanyu showed clear disappointment on her face after hearing his words, but it was not like she didn't understand where he was coming from.

"Y-You're right. I'm sorry. It was incredibly selfish of me to force you to protect me when the Nameless Emperor's Tomb could threaten even a peak Spirit King's life. I guess I've been spoiled by you a little."

Yuan smiled and said, "I don't mind traveling with you at first, but we will have to separate once it becomes too dangerous."

"What do you think, mother? Can he come with us?" Tian Yanyu turned to look at her with pleading eyes.

"I'm not senseless enough to deny more helping hands, especially one as capable as his..." She said.

It was at this moment another voice resounded, "May I interrupt your conversation for a second?"

They turned to see Yu Jian standing right next to them.

"S-Sect Leader!" Tian Suyin was startled by his sudden appearance.

"Don't mind me. I only want to speak with this young man for a bit." Yu Jian spoke while his gaze stared at Yuan's handsome face.

"I'm Yu Jian, Sect Leader of the Jade Sword Manor."

'The Sect Leader is introducing himself first...?' Tian Suyin swallowed nervously when she saw this, as this meant that he respected Yuan enough to become humble.

"Nice to meet you, Senior Yu. I'm Xiao Yang, a wandering cultivator."

"Senior...? There's no need to be humble when we're both peak Spirit Kings. In fact, I might even be inferior to you when it comes to raw talent." Yu Jian shook his head.

He noticed Yuan's profound aura even before he arrived at the Grand Jade Peak, but he has been resisting his urges to speak with Yuan until now.

Chapter 1100 Nameless Emperor's Tomb(4)

"The Sect Master admitted being inferior to a junior before his own disciples?!" Tian Suyin cried inwardly when she saw this. She almost couldn't believe her ears.

"Even if we have similar cultivation levels, it won't change the fact that you're older than me. "Anyways, what business do you have with me?"

"I was just wondering why you're in my humble sect. A genius such as yourself usually doesn't show up unannounced."

"I just wanted to see what kind of sect my friend belonged to, that's all."

"I see..." Yu Jian's gaze landed on Tian Yanyu for a second. "I hope this humble place is to your liking. If you have any troubles or concerns, don't hesitate to speak with me."

"I cannot bother the Sect Leader over such minor issues." Yuan shook his head.

"Please, I insist." Yu Jian smiled.

And he continued, "I will stop bothering you now, young friend. If you encounter any problems, show them this medallion."

He proceeded to hand Yuan a jade medallion that had his name on it.

He turned to look at Tian Suyin next and said, "I'd like to speak with you whenever you're available."

"I-I'm free right now." She immediately responded with a nervous look on her face.

Yu Jian nodded, and he left the scene with Tian Suyin.

It was obvious why the Sect Leader wanted to speak with Tian Suyin. He wanted to inquire about Yuan's existence.

In his eyes, a genius like Yuan couldn't possibly have been born in their world, so it would only be logical to assume that he'd come from the upper heavens. In fact, he's already heard rumors about the Celestial Emperor sending down powerful experts for reasons that he has yet to learn.

"Looks like we won't need to ask my mother for the sect's protection..." Tian Yanyu mumbled in a dazed voice as she watched her mother leave with the Sect Leader.

"Anyways, what do you want to do now? We have a whole week to prepare for the Nameless Emperor's Tomb." She then asked.

"Is there a place where I can learn more about the tomb?"

She nodded, "Yes. We have a library full of information about the place. When do you want to go?"

"Let's go now."

"Alright. Follow me."

Tian Yanyu brought Yuan to the Jade Enlightenment Peak, where all sorts of information and techniques are stored. Naturally, this meant that guests weren't normally allowed inside even if they had a disciple with them.

However, Yuan had the Sect Leader's medallion, so Tian Yanyu took the chance and brought him there anyway.

After arriving at the Jade Enlightenment Peak, Tian Yanyu led Yuan to a tall pagoda that had 21 floors.

This building is usually empty, but with the Nameless Emperor's Tomb near, it was currently crowded with disciples.

"Everything inside this building is related to the Nameless Emperor's Tomb. You can find others' experience inside the tomb and already discovered treasures all within this place. I'm going to leave you alone to prepare myself. If you need anything, contact me through this."

Tian Yanyu handed Yuan her communication jade slip.

"If you encounter any trouble, just flash the Sect Leader's medallion. It should settle most issues right there and then. Please don't cause any trouble because I will be responsible for it as your guide."

"Thank you." Yuan smiled as he accepted the jade slip.

Tian Yanyu didn't linger for much longer and left shortly after.

Yuan approached the pagoda, but he was quickly stopped before he could even reach the staircase.

"Hey! You! Stop right there!" A middle-aged woman flew towards him from a distance.

Once she landed, she continued, "Even if you are an honorary guest, you are not allowed to be here!"

Yuan didn't say anything and flashed the jade medallion he'd received from their Sect Leader.

The woman's eyes widened with shock for a moment, and her mouth stuttered as she tried to find the proper words to utter.

After a moment of silence, she cleared her throat and handed him an accessory. "Hang this around your belt. If you lose it, more people will come to stop you. Now if you'll excuse me."

Not wanting to stay around any longer, the woman quickly fled the scene after giving Yuan the accessory.

Yuan continued to approach the steps leading to the pagoda afterward, and sure enough, people would continue to stare at him with some of them even starting to approach him, but when they saw the little accessory hanging on his belt, they stopped and turned around.

Once he was inside, Yuan immediately began sweeping through the scrolls and jade slips on the shelves. And over the next four days, he would not take a step outside of the pagoda, spending all of his time staring at words.

However, even if he was given a month, he wouldn't be able to read all of the information inside the pagoda, as it had been accumulated throughout tens of thousands of years.

'I have a good grasp of what to expect in the tomb, but I doubt it is enough to prepare me for what I plan on doing... I guess I can only hope for the best...'

Yuan eventually left the pagoda after spending five days inside.

He returned to Tian Yanyu's living quarters afterward.

"How was it? Did you find the information useful?" Tian Yanyu asked him as she invited him inside.

"Somewhat. I know what to expect in the beginning, but there is too little information about the deeper areas." He sighed.

"I'm not surprised. Most people that went too deep never returned, after all."

"How about your preparation? Do you feel prepared for the tomb?" Yuan then asked her.

"No matter how much one prepares, they won't be prepared enough for the tomb." She shook her head.

"Anyways, I'm going to spend what little time we have left to meditate and mentally prepare myself. What about you?" Tian Yanyu said.

"I will do the same."

"You can use the room next to mine."

"Okay."

Tian Yanyu returned to her room shortly after.

Chapter 1101 Commander Of The Evil God's Shadow Army

"Feng Feng, can you tell me about your experience with the Nameless Emperor's Tomb? I'll assume that you'd advanced deeper than most people since you were able to acquire the Empyrean Overlord— unless this treasure isn't as valuable as I thought." Yuan asked her after entering his room.

"While I can't say that I have traveled further than anyone out there, I did go pretty deep before I found the Empyrean Overlord." Feng Yuxiang's voice resounded the following moment.

"As you know, the Nameless Emperor's Tomb opens for half a year after it opens. It took me almost that much time to acquire it."

"Half a year... What happens when the tomb closes?" Yuan asked.

"Everyone that is still inside will automatically get teleported outside, and then it will remain closed for 7 years before the cycle repeats itself."

"Honestly, the hardest part about the tomb aren't the challenges. It's the pressure that threatens to shatter your soul, and the deeper you go, the stronger the pressure."

"A pressure, huh? Sounds troublesome."

Feng Yuxiang would continue to talk about her experience in the tomb as well as the trials that she had to challenge.

"The Nameless Emperor's Tomb is very unique when it comes to trials because most Legacy Tombs will automatically challenge every individual that enters it, but the Nameless Emperor's Tomb allows one to choose their trials, so one can spend the entire 6 months inside without doing any trials. However, this naturally means you won't receive any rewards. Furthermore, powerful beasts and even demons roam the lands there."

"Demons...?" Yuan raised an eyebrow.

"Don't worry, they're not real demons. Everything but the treasures within the tomb was created using spiritual energy. With that being said, the demons are as powerful as real demons, and they even have its regenerative ability."

Feng Yuxiang would spend almost the entire day recalling her experience within the tomb.

"And that's how I acquired the Empyrean Overlord."

Once Feng Yuxiang finished, Lan Yingying spoke, "The Nameless Emperor's Tomb sounds a little similar to the Mystic Realm."

"Considering that they're both related to the 'Lord', I'm not surprised." Yuan said.

"Lord... Now that's a persona I haven't heard in a while." A new voice that Yuan didn't recognize suddenly resounded in the room.

"Who's there?!" Yuan snapped his head like a turtle and turned to look at the window, where an old man that he didn't recognize was standing with a smile on his face.

'How long has he been standing there? I didn't sense his presence until he spoke! This person is an expert!' Yuan swallowed nervously. He could instinctively tell at glance that this old man was at a level that he couldn't even comprehend.

"Be careful, Brother Yuan! He's dangerous!" Xiao Hua jumped between him and the old man, even retrieving her weapon without hesitation.

Feng Yuxiang and Lan Yingying did the same even though their instincts told them to run.

The atmosphere in the room immediately turned cold, and it suddenly felt like they were in a life-or-death situation.

However, the old man appeared completely relaxed, almost as if he wasn't even part of it.

Yuan stood there in silence. Despite the tense atmosphere, he had this inexplicable feeling that the old man wasn't a real threat.

"Let me ask you again... Who are you?" Yuan asked him, breaking the silence.

The old man took a deep breath before speaking, "My apologies, I was so overwhelmed with emotions that I'd forgotten how to act and made things awkward."

He proceeded to move his body and bent his knees.

"Don't move!" Xiao Hua shouted at him.

However, the old man ignored her warning and continued to lower his body until his knee was kissing the floor.

"Dong Ye, commander of the Evil God's Shadow Army. This unworthy subordinate greets the Master."

"Evil God's Shadow Army...? Master?" Yuan muttered in a dazed voice, his eyes as wide as saucers.

"You may not remember now due to your recent reincarnation, but I am your faithful servant. I've been following you since you were the Evil God, and I have been there for all of your reincarnation since then. If you don't mind me asking, how much of your past lives do you remember?"

"..."

Yuan was speechless.

Dong Ye didn't rush things and patiently waited for Yuan to digest the situation.

"Xiao Hua, Feng Feng, Yingying, lower your weapons." Yuan spoke a long moment later.

The ladies reluctantly lowered their weapons, but they were still on high alert and full of suspicion towards Dong Ye.

"So you used to serve the Evil God, huh? If that's true, what was his name? And who was he before the Evil God? Do you have any proof that you served him?" Yuan suddenly asked Dong Ye multiple questions.

Without hesitation, Dong Ye responded in a clear voice, "Master used to be known as the God of War before receiving the title of Evil God, and his true name was Tian Xian. If you still doubt me, allow me to show you some of my memories with you."

"You can share memories?" Yuan raised an eyebrow.

"Indeed. Will you accept my memories?"

Yuan didn't immediately respond and began pondering.

"Brother Yuan, I don't think we can trust him. He's too suspicious." Xiao Hua said.

"His aura is also insanely murderous. I have never seen anything like that before— except when the Young Master gets angry. He's definitely killed a lot of people." Feng Yuxiang said.

Dong Ye smiled, "It is true that I have a lot of blood on my hands. I didn't become the commander of the strongest assassination squad in the Nine Heavens by being a saint."

Yuan took a deep breath and spoke, "It's okay, my instincts are telling me to trust him, so I will do so. If he wanted to harm us, he has more than enough power to do so, and we wouldn't be able to do anything to stop him."

He glared at Dong Ye in the eyes and continued, "Show me."

"As you command, Master." Dong Ye eagerly nodded.

Chapter 1102 Evil God's Loyal Servant

After receiving Yuan's permission, Dong Ye proceeded to tap his forehead, causing a glowing orb of blue light to emerge from his head.

He then offered it to Yuan by raising it above his head, treating it as though it was an offering to god.

"Master, here are my memories."

The glowing orb of light floated off Dong Ye's hands and into Yuan's forehead.

Yuan immediately closed his eyes and began digesting the memories.

Inside Dong Ye's memories that went back tens of millions of years, Yuan could see himself when he was living as Evil God Tian Xian, and he was currently standing in front of a massive jade tablet while Dong Ye was kneeling behind him.

"How are things going for the Shadow Army, Dong Ye?"

"Everything is going as planned, Master. Our members are rising at a respectful pace every day. It won't be long before we can be fully operational."

Suddenly, the scenery changed, and Yuan could see Dong Ye standing before another person.

This person was clearly another one of his incarnations, but he didn't recognize this incarnation.

"Master, I am Dong Ye, your loyal servant. You may not remember me, but I have been serving you since your second life as the Evil God."

This person, who was a tall and handsome young man, spoke in a calm voice, "I remember you, Dong Ye. Although I don't remember everything, I remember enough to understand the situation."

The scenery switched again.

This time, Yuan recognized this person. However, this person's face was covered by a bland-looking mask.

'He must be the Lord...' Yuan thought to himself.

"Master, I am—"

"Dong Ye, right? Took you long enough to find me this time." The Lord spoke in a calm voice.

"How much of your memories have you recovered, Master?"

The Lord turned to look at Dong Ye and spoke, "I remember everything. I was born in this life with all of my previous memories. This is unprecedented."

Dong Ye was pleasantly surprised to hear this.

Sometime later, Yuan opened his eyes and spoke, "Since you know so much about me, can you help me recall what I have yet to remember to speed up the process?"

Dong Ye shook his head with a bitter sweet smile, "Unfortunately, I cannot do that."

"You can't, or you won't?"

"Per the Master's own orders, I won't." Dong Ye said.

"My orders?" Yuan raised an eyebrow.

He nodded, "Master wanted to naturally recover his own memories, so you ordered me to not give too much information regarding your past even if you threatened me."

"..." Yuan sighed inwardly after hearing this. Why would he make things more difficult for himself? He also did the same with the Stairway to Heaven.

"Anyways, I believe you when you say that you are my servant. With that being said, what are your plans now? Did my previous incarnations give you some sort of mission?"

Dong Ye nodded, "This body only has one purpose—to serve you until its death. If you need anything, I will be here for you."

Feng Yuxiang couldn't help but feel as though her role as Yuan's handyman was suddenly in jeopardy.

Dong Ye then continued, "However, with that being said, it's not as though I can constantly remain by your side. Master, are you aware of our current situation with the upper heavens?"

"No, what kind of situation are we in?" Yuan shook his head.

"The Celestial Emperor, our natural enemy, will be sending experts to the lower heavens to kill you. They will arrive in less than a month."

Yuan was left speechless after hearing this information.

"What?! Why would the Celestial Emperor do such a thing?! I've never even met the man!" He exclaimed.

"According to what I've learned from the Seven Legacy Families' memories, the Celestial Emperor is not specifically targeting you because of your identity. He doesn't even know your real identity, but because of the Heavens' Judgment, you now have a target on your back." Dong Ye explained.

And he continued, "Honestly, if the Celestial Emperor knew your real identity, I wouldn't be surprised if he personally came down here with his entire army just to kill you."

"How troublesome... And here I was planning on going to the Nameless Emperor's Tomb." Yuan gritted his teeth.

"Worry not, Master. This is why I am here. I have already erased the Seven Legacy Families' memories of you, so they won't be able to help those from the upper heavens to identify you. Furthermore, I will do my best to mess with those from the upper heavens and keep them from finding you. If you are ever in a dangerous situation that you cannot solve, break this jade slip and I will immediately come to you no matter what kind of situation I am in, even if I have to crawl through broken glass and the scorching ground. If you need me for anything else, use this communication jade slip to contact me."

Dong Ye handed Yuan two different jade slips.

"I would give you life-saving treasures and other useful treasures, but I cannot give you any significant assistance that could greatly affect your natural growth."

"Let me guess... I told you that." Yuan said in a sighing voice.

Dong Ye smiled and said, "The point of reincarnating multiple times is to expand your experience and talent. If you're given a silver spoon every time you reincarnate, it would defeat its purpose, after all."

"I understand the reasoning behind this logic, and I even agree with it. However, it still sucks." Yuan said with a bittersweet smile.

"Anyways, before I ask you more questions, let's introduce ourselves properly."

"In this life, I am Yuan. It feels a little weird to be called Master by someone as ancient as you, so you can just call me Yuan or Young Master like Feng Feng here. Feng Feng, introduce yourself." Yuan looked at her, who silently nodded and proceeded to introduce herself despite being reluctant to do so.

Chapter 1103 Controlling Fate

"Feng Yuxiang. I am a Divine Beast that carries the bloodline of a phoenix." Feng Yuxiang gave a brief introduction about herself.

"The rest of you should introduce yourself as well." Yuan looked at the others.

"Lan Yingying. I am a Divine Beast as well— a Divine Serpent."

Dong Ye, who already knew that Feng Yuxiang and Lan Yingying were Divine Beasts, nodded his head. While they can hide their identity from cultivators around their level, Dong Ye was an Immortal who has existed for millions of years. It was simply impossible to fool someone like him.

"A Phoenix and a Serpent, huh? It sure brings back memories." Dong Ye couldn't help but break out a smile on his face when he recalled the Immortal Monarch and his Divine Beast followers.

"The Immortal Monarch?" Yuan asked out of curiosity.

He nodded, "Do you remember?"

"No, but I am aware of his existence."

"His Divine Beasts were always fighting with each other over his attention." Dong Ye chuckled, "It caused the Mast— Young Master plenty of headaches. However, they were all reliable and loyal, which sort of balances things out."

Yuan suddenly remembered something and said, "Speaking of the Immortal Monarch... Do you know how to upgrade his bloodline? What about the Heaven Refining Physique?"

"The answers you seek are within the Nameless Emperor's Tomb."

"The Name Emperor's Tomb... Did I build it?" Yuan then asked.

Dong Ye smiled and said, "You will find out once you go inside."

Seeing how Dong Ye won't give him any direct answers, Yuan decided to give up and to wait to enter the Name Emperor's Tomb.

Dong Ye suddenly shifted his gaze to Xiao Hua, whose tiny body instinctively trembled.

"An exile, huh? The Young Master called you Xiao Hua, so you must be from the Asura Family. Do you believe in fate?" He asked while staring at her intensively.

Xiao Hua silently nodded.

"Then do you believe someone— a mere human can control fate?"

Xiao Hua raised an eyebrow and said, "Nobody can control fate."

"What if someone has such ability?"

"That's impossible. No human can have such an ability."

Dong Ye smiled and shifted his gaze back to Yuan.

"Believe it or not, someone out there has the ability to control fate, and he's standing in this room as we speak."

Xiao Hua and the others turned to look at Yuan, who was quite confused.

"You may not realize it, but you're subconsciously controlling fate."

"The Young Master is subconsciously controlling fate? How does that even work?" Feng Yuxiang asked.

Dong Ye shrugged, "Even I do not know the answer to this question."

"This is partially why the Young Master ordered me to not assist him too much, as it could affect his fate."

Yuan looked at his own hands.

'I'm controlling fate? Am I really doing such a thing?' He couldn't believe it.

Manipulating fate sounded very complicated, so it seemed very unlikely for him to subconsciously control it.

"What do you know about Xiao Hua's family?" Xiao Hua suddenly asked Dong Ye.

"I know a lot about the Asura Family. And believe it or not, but I also know a lot about you, Xiao Hua."

Xiao Hua frowned. "How? Xiao Hua was born in the Primordial Realm. Nobody can enter or leave this place without the Celestial Emperor's approval or the Ancient Seals."

"Sorry, but I cannot tell you." Dong Ye shook his head.

"Why not?"

"Because you're directly related to the Young Master, which means I will spoil him if I answer your question."

"Brother Yuan...?" Xiao Hua turned to look at Yuan with a look of wonder in her eyes.

"Anyways, if you have any more questions that aren't related to the Young Master's past, feel free to ask me. If you have any requests, I am also willing to hear it."

Yuan pondered for a moment before speaking, "The Nameless Emperor's Tomb will open very soon. Do you plan on going inside with us?"

"No, I will be staying out here to mess with the Celestial Emperor's lackeys and throw them off your track."

Yuan nodded, and he said, "Then if you don't mind, can you watch over my friends while I am inside the Nameless Emperor's Tomb? I don't know how long I will be staying inside, nor can I bring them to such a dangerous place with me. They're extremely valuable to me. I want you to protect them as though they're me."

Dong Ye nodded, "No matter who you want me to protect, I will protect them with my life."

Yuan proceeded to tell Dong Ye about Meixiu and the others who were training at the Cultivators' Haven.

"They are likely to spend all of their time cultivating inside the Cultivators' Haven, but better safe than sorry."

"Rest assured, Young Master. As long as I am breathing, no harm will come to your friends. Even if I am not constantly by their side, I can cover this entire world with my divine sense, so I will know immediately the moment they're in any danger no matter where I am."

"Covering this entire world with your divine sense? I have been wondering about this for a while now, but what is your cultivation?" Yuan asked out of curiosity.

"This humble one is only at the 7th level of God Ascension realm."

"God Ascension...?" Yuan mumbled in a dazed voice.

"If one's ascension towards Godhood succeeds, they will become a Cultivation God, which has been the peak of the Cultivation World since ancient times."

"You're not that far away from the peak of cultivation, yet you sound disappointed." Yuan couldn't understand this part.

"Because I know my limits, Young Master. As much as I hate to admit it, I don't have enough talent to become a Cultivation God. That is a truth that I must accept. You, on the other hand, have not only succeeded in becoming a Cultivation God multiple times in your past lives, I have a good feeling that you'll break through that limit and achieve something unprecedented in our world." Dong Ye spoke as he gazed upon Yuan with a confident glint in his eyes.

Chapter 1104 Arrival From The Upper Heaven

"Wait a second. I thought all cultivators in the Nine Heaven must abide by the rules of each heaven." Feng Yuxiang suddenly spoke.

"For example, the limit of cultivation in this world is the peak Spirit King. If someone who doesn't belong in this world appears, they would invoke Heavenly Tribulation. Will you be fine down here with your cultivation?"

Dong Ye nodded, "Only mortals abide by that rule. Immortals like me can ignore such a rule and come down here whenever we want. Even if we invoke a Heavenly Tribulation, it won't be strong enough to harm us. Though, it's a pain in the ass to come down here because we have to enter through the long route, so most of us won't bother unless absolutely necessary."

"Also, I am currently masking my presence, so the heavens don't even know I am here, and as long as I don't do anything crazy, it will remain that way. I am more worried about the Celestial Emperor than any Heavenly Tribulation because the Young Master won't be able to fight them at his current state."

"What's the situation with me and the Celestial—" Yuan halted his sentence midway.

"Never mind. I hope the Nameless Emperor's Tomb will have all of the answers."

Sometime later, Dong Ye's eyebrows suddenly twitched, and he spoke with a dejected face, "It's truly regrettable that I can only spend such a short time with you after spending so much time apart, but I must leave now, Young Master. Some people from the upper heavens have just arrived in this world, and to minimize the chances of your true identity being known, I must disappear. However, even though I won't be by your side, I will always be watching over you. If you are ever in deep trouble, you know how to contact me."

"But before I go, I must apologize to you, Young Master. There is so much that I want to say to you— to tell you, but I truly don't dare to mess with your fate."

Yuan shook his head, "Don't worry about it. I understand your feelings, and to be honest, I like it this way even if it's a little more inconvenient for me. My past, my purpose, and my goals... I will unveil them as I follow my own path."

After giving Yuan a slight nod, Dong Ye dissipated into thin air like smoke.

"An Immortal who has reached near the peak of cultivation... Who could've imagined that such a powerful individual would be willing to serve someone." Yuan mumbled out loud after Dong Ye disappeared.

"That's just how amazing your existence is, Young Master." Feng Yuxiang chuckled.

"Don't flatter me." He shook his head.

Meanwhile, somewhere within the Third Heaven, a large hole appeared in the sky moments before a group of individuals came out of it.

There were 21 people in this group, and all of them had the cultivation of a peak Spirit King, but the aura they emitted far surpassed what someone at their cultivation base could ever achieve.

"Fuck, the spiritual energy in this place is so trash. It feels like I am breathing in dust with every single breath." One of them immediately complained after taking his first breath.

"How do people live in such an environment?"

"Let's hurry and kill that criminal and get the hell out of here as soon as possible."

Most of these people agreed with the sentiment. However, one couldn't completely blame them for their behavior. The spiritual energy in the upper heavens was countless times purer than the ones down here, and as cultivators, they have reached the level where they don't need to breathe in air to live, just spiritual energy.

These people have lived their entire life thinking that their spiritual energy was the standard, so it wouldn't be weird for them to have such a strong reaction after suddenly being exposed to something much worse.

"Anyways, where are the Ji Family and the Seven Legacy Families? I was told that they'd be greeting us the moment we arrived."

"Perhaps they got the location wrong."

"I wouldn't be surprised if a world of this low standard housed such dumb people."

Unbeknownst to these people, the Seven Legacy Families and the Ji Family all had their memories stolen by Dong Ye, hence why nobody showed up to greet them.

After waiting around for a few moments, these people split up to look for the Seven Legacies Families themselves.

When they found the Seven Legacy Families, these people from the upper heavens immediately demanded for answers. However, they quickly realized that nobody from the Seven Legacy Families knew about their arrival.

This made them wonder if the people from the upper heavens had forgotten to notify the Seven Legacy Families.

But they soon realized the truth—that the Seven Legacy Families and the Ji Family had their memories erased for some reason.

"What's going on? Who would erase their memories?"

"I think a better question would be 'who could have the capability to do such a thing in this world'."

"I only know of one person in the Nine Heavens who could erase memories, but that person's been missing for hundreds of thousands of years."

"I also don't think it's him. Why would he be down here stealing memories from mortals, right?"

The people from the upper heavens quickly dismissed the phenomenon, mostly because they couldn't be bothered to investigate any further.

But then they realized another problem.

Without the Seven Legacy Families' help, how will they ever find the person they were looking for? Even finding a needle in a haystack would be easier than this task since they at least knew what a needle looked like. However, it was not as though they could leave without even trying.

In the end, these people decided to stay around for a little longer to wait for the others that have yet to arrive.

These 21 people were just the first batch of people amongst a dozen, after all.

"In the meantime, I am going to take a look around. As shitty as this place is, it's a rare chance to experience the lower heavens."

"Try not to get yourself killed. You'd immediately become a laughingstock if you died in a place like this."

"Hmph. Even if my cultivation is suppressed to being a mere Spirit King, what could possibly hurt me down here?" This individual sneered in a mocking manner before disappearing into the world.

Many people from the group followed suit, as they were also curious about the Third Heaven.

Chapter 1105 Nameless Emperor's Tomb's opening

The day before the Nameless Emperor's Tomb's opening, Yuan received a message through one of his communication jade slips.

"Yuan, Lady Xu will return in 5 days to give you what she promised."
Senior Bai's voice resounded inside his head.

'Oh... I was so occupied with the Nameless Emperor's Tomb that I nearly forgot about our agreement.' Yuan felt a drop of cold sweat appearing on his forehead. He couldn't imagine what he'd do if he didn't show up for the soul technique and Xu Jiaqi decided to not give it to him anymore.

'However, the Nameless Emperor's Tomb will be opening tomorrow, and I promised Tian Yanyu that I'd enter with her...'

As much as he wanted to enter the tomb with Tian Yanyu, he had to prioritize the soul technique, as it could potentially be the difference of whether he'll clear the Nameless Emperor's Tomb or not.

After preparing himself for Tian Yanyu's complaints, Yuan went to knock on her room.

Tian Yanyu opened the door a moment later.

"Hey."

"Hey..."

"Something wrong?" Tian Yanyu raised an eyebrow.

"You see, I just remembered that I had an appointment with someone, and this is an important meeting that I cannot miss, but it will happen five days after the Nameless Emperor's Tomb's opening, so I won't be able to enter with you on day one."

"What?! You're telling me this the day before it opens?!"

Tian Yanyu was clearly unhappy about the situation. However, even though her voice was loud, she didn't look angry.

"I'm truly sorry." Yuan lowered his head in an apologetic manner.

Tian Yanyu rubbed her eyes and sighed, "Don't worry about it. It's only five days, right? I can ask my mother to delay our entrance for you."

Yuan quickly lifted his head and said, "Please don't. Your mother won't like it and will probably refuse. Furthermore, you're not going with just your mother, right? We cannot delay the others just for me."

"Where will you guys be headed first? I will meet up with you in five days." Yuan suddenly suggested.

"We'll be spending our first month at the Nameless Stone Warrior. You know where it is, right?"

He nodded, "I memorized the map."

"Good."

The following day, Yuan and Tian Yanyu went to meet up with Tian Suyin, who brought them to the gathering area, where tens of thousands of disciples were waiting in anticipation with more to show up.

"Senior, due to another appointment I had arranged before coming here, I will be entering the Nameless Emperor's Tomb a few days after it opens." Yuan said to her, who merely shrugged.

"Why are you telling me? I don't really care if you come with us or not." Tian Suyin said.

However, while she claimed to not care, she wasn't telling the truth entirely. Since she knew how powerful Yuan was, she would feel less nervous inside the tomb, but that's no longer the case.

Tian Yanyu then spoke, "By the way, you can enter and leave the Nameless Emperor's Tomb as many times as you please, so you don't need to worry about that."

Sometime later, Sect Leader Yu Jian showed up at the gathering place and swept the crowd with a sharp and profound gaze.

'About 90,000 disciples...'

90,000 disciples was about a third of the Jade Sword Manor's entire disciple population, but compared to the other sects that will be bringing half of their sect, it wasn't anything impressive.

Once Yu Jian gave the disciples a short speech, he retrieved a spiritual treasure and mass teleported everyone there to another gathering area, one that was much closer to the Nameless Emperor's Tomb.

"The Nameless Emperor's Tomb is 100 km to the north. All of the major sects will have a spot reserved for them. Look for the flag with our sect's emblem."

After saying these words, Yu Jian went ahead and flew away.

The disciples there quickly followed suit.

Sometime later, Yuan and the disciples arrived at a vast and spacious land that had nothing in sight besides the very obvious and large temple that was situated right in the center of this area.

This temple was massive—larger than any building Yuan has seen before, and this included the buildings in the Giant's Continent.

The temple itself seemed to be made of white marble, and it appeared to be in pristine condition at glance, almost as though it was just created yesterday even though it stood for millions of years already.

When Yuan saw this temple, he could feel his heartbeats quickening, and he suddenly had this near uncontrollable urge to approach the place, like it was calling for him.

Surrounding the temple was a sea of people— tens of millions of people.

This reminded Yuan of the Mystic Realm, but the scale of this event was multitudes larger.

Still wearing the Jade Sword Manor's guest uniform, Yuan followed Tian Yanyu and the other disciples to their sect's assigned location in front of the temple, where Sect Leader Yu Jian was waiting.

"This isn't even half of the people participating." Tian Yanyu suddenly said to him.

"Since there are too many people that want to enter the Nameless Emperor's Tomb, all of the sects are given a set date to enter. The top sects will get to enter on day 1 while the weaker sects and rouge cultivators will enter a few days later. Although entering a few days late may not seem like much at first, these few days could be the difference between gaining enlightenment and gaining nothing. There have been plenty of cases where people were kicked out right before they could be enlightened."

"Is that so... When does the tomb open, anyway?" Yuan asked.

"It should open within the hour."

"I will stay here until you enter the tomb."

"Alright."

Thus, they began to wait for the Nameless Emperor's Tomb to open.

Meanwhile, more and more people showed up for the tomb's opening, including those that had no intention of participating.

Chapter 1106 Nameless Emperor's Tomb's Opening(2)

An hour passed within the blink of an eye while Yuan inspected the Nameless Emperor's Tomb with his divine sense.

Besides its pristine condition, there really wasn't anything too special about the temple itself— at least Yuan didn't notice anything unique about it.

He also noticed that even though tens of millions of people had gathered in front of the temple, they all left an empty path straight down the center leading to the temple for some reason, almost as though they were expecting someone to walk through the path.

About five minutes before the Nameless Emperor's Tomb's opening, the Ji Family showed up at the site.

All of the Sect Leaders and Clan Leaders went to greet the Ji Family upon their arrival, including Yu Jian from the Jade Sword Manor.

However, these powerhouses were absolutely gobsmacked when they noticed Lord Ji's unusual and shocking condition.

"L-Lord Ji! What happened to your arm?!"

Lord Ji, who was almost an invincible existence within the Third Heaven had suddenly lost an arm, an injury that most would consider to be crippling. However, who or what could possibly injure the strongest cultivator in the Third Heaven to such a degree? None of these Sect Leaders or Clan Leaders could imagine.

Lord Ji's body shuddered after being reminded of his injury— one that he doesn't even remember getting.

"I... I don't remember." He eventually shook his head. "When I woke up, my arm had disappeared."

The Sect Leaders exchanged glances with each other. What could have possibly caused such a phenomenon? One doesn't simply wake up with an arm missing!

These experts all believed that Lord Ji had been attacked while he was asleep, as that was the only logical explanation, but such a thing was easier said than done.

However, Lord Ji insisted that he doesn't remember anything, so the Sect Leaders and Clan Leaders had no choice but to drop the topic.

"I would normally give a speech, but as you can see, I am not in the condition to do so." Lord Ji spoke a moment later, and nobody there could blame him.

Eventually, it was time for the Nameless Emperor's Tomb's opening.

Yuan could sense a sudden change in the atmosphere, almost as though the presence of an otherworldly expert just showed up.

The temple suddenly began emanating a golden glow that would grow brighter with every passing second.

BOOM!

The entire Third Heaven shook for a brief second when a powerful ripple swept the place.

Suddenly, like a ghost, the figure of a tall individual wearing exquisite white robes appeared in the empty path that all of the sects had purposefully avoided.

This figure was entirely made out of spiritual energy, yet it felt like he truly existed as a real person, and he was carrying a large sword on his back while wearing a mask on his face.

When the experts there saw this masked figure, they all lowered their heads and silently bowed to him, their hearts trembling with reverence.

Although nobody there knew this masked figure's true identity, they all had a good feeling that he was the Nameless Emperor—the master of this unfathomable tomb.

Yuan's body trembled slightly when he saw this masked figure and the sword on his back.

'Empyrean Overlord...' It only took a glance for him to recognize the sword and the masked figure.

A few moments after he appeared, the masked figure began taking small strides towards the temple in the distance.

As he slowly approached the tomb, not a single soul in that area dared to make even the slightest movements, and even the most powerful cultivator in this world, Lord Ji, had to hold his breath.

Unbeknownst to most of the people there, several experts from the upper heaven were hidden amongst them, and they were just as awed by this masked figure's unfathomable presence despite being part of powerful families and sects in the upper heavens themselves.

'I have heard countless rumors about the Nameless Emperor's Tomb and its unknown master, but I never really understood why even the experts in the Ninth Heaven are wary of this place until today! This masked figure... If he is still alive today, he would, without doubt, be one of the strongest cultivators in the Nine Heavens!'

'How is he exuding such a powerful aura even though he's just a phantom created entirely out of spiritual energy?! Even the top experts in my family cannot emit such an aura while they are alive! This doesn't make any sense!'

After taking exactly 99 steps, the masked figure stopped his movements and proceeded to reach behind him to grab the Empyrean Overlord.

The moment his grasp tightened on the Empyrean Overlord, all of the experts there suddenly felt a cold sensation around their neck, almost as though there was a real blade pressing against their skin at this moment.

The experts tried their damned hardest to not swallow by accident, and their back was quickly soaked in cold sweat.

The experts from the upper heavens even subconsciously grabbed their weapons when they sensed this chilling sensation, but they quickly released their hands when they realized the situation.

'His Sword Qi is so profound that our body— our very soul— had instinctively reacted defensively even though it wasn't directed at us... Even the current Sword Emperor would look like a sword apprentice compared to him! Why does such an existence exist in this world?! What is the Heavens thinking, allowing such a thing to happen?!

While the experts from the upper heaven were in deep thoughts, the masked man suddenly made his movement and swung his sword vertically at the temple.

A beautiful arc of sword light was created by the swing, and it flew straight at the temple.

Sha!

Almost as though the sword light ripped through space itself, a massive portal suddenly appeared in front of the temple.

The Nameless Emperor's Tomb was finally open, but nobody there dared to move, as the masked figure had yet to disappear.

Thus, the tens of millions of people there patiently waited for the masked man to disappear after opening the tomb like he usually does. However, what happened next shocked everyone there.

Chapter 1107 Nameless Emperor's Tomb's Opening(3)

'What's going on? Why isn't he disappearing like he normally does after opening the tomb?' Lord Ji and all of the experts there wondered inwardly when the masked figure continued to stand in front of the temple even many moments after opening the tomb.

Everyone there was puzzled by the situation, but none of them dared to approach the tomb until the masked figure completely disappeared even if they had to wait hours.

Moments quickly turned into minutes. The atmosphere there had become almost suffocating with everyone nervous about this phenomenon.

The Nameless Emperor's Tomb has existed for millions of years with many experts there experiencing the tomb's opening over a dozen times, yet nobody there had seen or heard about this kind of situation.

Did the Nameless Emperor's Tomb have a sudden malfunction? Was there something different about this year's event? Nobody there could say for sure, nor were they willing to find out, as even the slightest mistake could cost them their life as long as the masked figure remained.

'Fuck... I don't feel this kind of pressure even inside the tomb!' Sect Leader Yu Jian cursed inwardly, feeling like he's already aged a hundred years in these few short minutes.

Suddenly, a voice resounded in the area.

This voice was calm, soothing to the ears, and as gentle as feathers, yet there was a strikingly domineering feeling to the tone that demanded complete obedience.

"It took you long enough to get here... How long are you going to keep us waiting? Hurry up and get this over with so that you can continue your journey, which is just starting if you just made it here."

To everyone's absolute shock, this voice came from the masked figure. Although everyone doubted their ears at first, they quickly realized that nobody but the masked figure could possibly have the audacity to speak in such a tense situation.

'The Nameless Emperor spoke...? What's he talking about? Has he been waiting for someone this entire time? Who?' Lord Ji was baffled. He has seen the Nameless Emperor over a hundred times in his lifetime but this is the first time he's heard the Nameless Emperor's voice.

Meanwhile, Tian Yanyu was baffled for another reason.

'His voice... It sounds oddly familiar... like I have heard it before...' She moved her eyes to glance at Yuan without turning her head.

'Right... It sounds exactly like Xiao Yang's voice, albeit a little more mature... Or am I just imagining things?' She didn't want to jump to conclusions so she disregarded such thoughts for now.

Shortly after the Nameless Emperor spoke, his body made of spiritual energy began to disperse until there was nothing left.

Normally, the people there would instantly rush into the Nameless Emperor's Tomb after the Nameless Emperor's disappearance, but nobody there made any movements even after he was gone this time.

'Even though you're telling me to hurry, I won't be able to enter the tomb for another five days. Sorry.' Yuan shook his head inwardly.

Eventually, the experts started snapping out of their daze, and they finally started sending people into the Nameless Emperor's Tomb.

"I will see you later, Xiao Yang." Tian Yanyu said when it was their sect's turn to enter.

"Stay safe. We will meet in five days if nothing goes wrong."

Yuan continued to wait outside the tomb until he saw Tian Yanyu enter the Nameless Emperor's Tomb with his own eyes.

Once he confirmed this, he turned around and disappeared from the scene.

"Disciple Tian, what happened to your friend? I thought he was going to enter the tomb with us." Yu Jian, who had been keeping his eyes on Yuan, asked Tian Yanyu and Tian Suyin when he noticed that he didn't enter with them.

"Something came up for him so he'll enter at a later date." Tian Yanyu explained.

"I see... How unfortunate. I would feel a lot safer if I knew that he was in here." Yu Jian shook his head.

Seeing how much the Sect Leader held a junior in such high regard, Tian Suyin could only shake her head inwardly and admit that she felt the same way.

The Jade Sword Manor would continue traveling in the Nameless Emperor's Tomb as a whole sect for a little longer before everyone split up into smaller groups, dispersing in every direction.

Tian Yanyu followed her mother and others that were going to the same destination, quickly making their way towards the Nameless Stone Warrior.

Meanwhile, Yuan returned to Meixiu and the others to let them know of the situation since he had a few more days before the meeting with Xu Jiaqi.

"There's a good chance that I might not leave the Nameless Emperor's Tomb for a while so I am going to leave behind some things for you guys just in case you want to leave the Cultivators' Haven and explore Third Heaven by yourself."

"Exploring the Third Heaven without you? That's suicide for cultivators at our level." Chu Liuxiang said with a bittersweet smile.

"How long do you think it will take?" Meixiu asked.

"At most six months, but I really hope it won't take that long."

"Half a year... Do you think we'll reach at least Spirit Grandmaster in that amount of time?" Li Jinxi asked.

"With your talents and resources, I have no doubt that you'll reach at least Spirit Lord." Yuan smiled.

"By the way, even though I won't be with you, just know that you're still being protected no matter where you are."

"What do you mean?" Meixiu raised an eyebrow.

"I will tell you about it at tonight's dinner table."

"Alright."

Later that night at the dinner table, Yuan would tell Meixiu and the others about the Nameless Emperor's Tomb and his new friend Dong Ye. However, he didn't tell them everything about Dong Ye, such as how Dong Ye was a servant from one of his past lives, as that would've made things complicated. Though, he did tell Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang since they were already aware of his past lives.

Over the next five days, Yuan would spend them in the real world with most of his time being spent in the training field or the bedroom.

Five days passed in the blink of an eye, and it was time for his promise with Xu Jiaqi to be fulfilled.

Chapter 1108 Strongest Soul Cultivation Technique In The Nine Heavens

A few days prior to her meeting with Yuan, Xu Jiaqi had to retrieve the soul cultivation technique from Lady Xiang.

"I have done what you asked. I want the soul cultivation technique now." Xu Jiaqi said while standing before Lady Xiang.

Lady Xiang lowered her cup of tea and smiled, "I knew you were powerful, but who thought you'd be capable of annihilating the entire Sky Whales Faction overnight. The entire Supreme Heaven is trembling because of your actions, you know. How long has it been since you last stirred the world this much? 100,000 years ago?"

"The soul cultivation technique. I will not repeat myself." Xu Jiaqi even extended her hands out.

Lady Xiang sighed, "Why are you being so impatient? Do you really think I am going to swindle you?"

After placing her tea down, Lady Xiang continued, "I don't know how you think this works, but I cannot just hand you the technique. This soul cultivation technique is a little special, so I will have to transfer it to the individual myself."

Xu Jiaqi narrowed her eyes, "If you're doing this just so you can identify the junior..."

Lady Xiang shrugged, "I won't lie. I am intrigued by this junior whom you're so desperate to help, but I do not have any ulterior motives, nor am I the type to go after someone else's man. I cannot give him the technique unless I do so personally. This is a rule that cannot be broken even if you threaten to kill me."

After a moment of silence, Xu Jiaqi nodded, "Fine. Meet me at the Myriad of Techniques in three days."

And without saying another word, Xu Jiaqi disappeared from Lady Xiang's sight.

"She's as difficult as ever." Lady Xiang shook her head with a bittersweet smile on her face.

Normal people would be irritated by Xu Jiaqi's bossy attitude, but Lady Xiang has known her for millions of years and knew Xu Jiaqi's true personality, so it didn't offend her even the slightest.

Three days later, Lady Xiang entered the Myriad of Techniques, where Xu Jiaqi and Senior Bai were waiting.

"How have you been, Bai Linyu? Are you still being tossed around by Lady Xu?" Lady Xiang asked him in a teasing voice.

"And you seem the same as always, Lady Xiang." Senior Bai smiled at her.

"Don't you mean I look prettier than before?"

"The two of you can chat all you want later, but we have someone waiting for us right now." Xu Jiaqi said.

"Take me to this junior." Lady Xiang smiled.

A few hours before Lady Xiang's arrival, Yuan entered the Myriad of Techniques and met up with Senior Bai.

"You're here early. Lady Xu won't be here for a few more hours." Senior Bai said to him.

"That's fine. If you're free, let's have a chat. I have some questions for you." Yuan said.

"What kind of questions?"

After a moment of silence, Yuan asked, "What do you know about someone named Evil God?"

Senior Bai's eyes widened with shock after hearing this name.

"W-Where did you hear this name?"

"I'm not exactly sure where or when I heard it, but it resurfaced in my mind recently and I can't stop thinking about it since." Yuan lied with a straight face.

"I'm saying this for your own good, but do not look into the Evil God— In fact, don't even utter this name in public. You could be mistaken as the Evil God's Worshiper, which is punishable with immediate death."

"Now I'm even more curious. There's nobody but us here, so it should be fine, right?" Yuan smiled.

Senior Bai sighed, "If I quench your thirst, can you promise me that you will stop looking into it?"

Yuan quickly nodded.

After taking a deep breath, Senior Bai spoke, "The Evil God was one of the strongest and most dangerous individuals to have ever existed in the Nine Heavens. Nobody knows his true identity, but he showed up out of the blue one day and declared war on the Celestial Emperor— the first Celestial Emperor in history."

"This occurred somewhere in the middle of an ongoing war called the Heavenly War of Immortals and Gods when the cultivators fighting the Celestial Emperor were losing. The Evil God's appearance changed the direction of the war."

"Heavenly War of Immortals and Gods... I heard of this war before. What was the cause of it?" Yuan asked.

"The rogue cultivators didn't like how the Celestial Emperor limited the resources in the Nine Heavens, restricting its access to only those that served under him, so they revolted. This rebellion rocked the entire Nine Heavens, even splitting it into 9 separate worlds in the process."

"And the Evil God joined this war in the middle of it, killing the Celestial Emperor?" Yuan asked for confirmation.

"That's right."

"And nobody knows why?"

"Perhaps a few close to him knew the real reason, but the majority of us do not."

"Speaking of people close to him, I remember the name Dong Ye being mentioned alongside the Evil God. Do you know anything about him?"

Senior Bai pondered for a moment before speaking, "If I remember correctly, Dong Ye was the commander of the Evil God's Shadow Army, one of the most fearsome groups of assassins within the Nine Heavens."

Yuan would continue to ask questions about the Evil God, and Senior Bai would answer them to the best of his knowledge.

A few hours later, Senior Bai said, "Alright, it's about time. I'm going to get Lady Xu now."

"Okay. Thank you for your time."

"Remember your promise."

Yuan nodded with a smile, "I know. I won't look into the Evil God anymore."

Senior Bai left the Myriad of Techniques the next moment.

A few minutes later, Yuan could sense Senior Bai's presence reappearing nearby, alongside two other presences, one of which that he did not recognize.

'Who is that?' Yuan wondered to himself as he gazed at the unfamiliar beauty that was following Senior Bai and Xu Jiaqi.

Chapter 1109 Strongest Soul Cultivation Technique In The Nine Heavens(2)

"Good morning, Miss Xu, Senior." Yuan bowed to them in a respectful manner when they got close enough.

"We've kept you waiting." Xu Jiaqi nodded her head in acknowledgment.

"There's still a few days before the agreed date." Yuan smiled.

He turned to look at Lady Xiang whom he was unfamiliar with, but he didn't want to be noosy, so he didn't ask for her identity.

'She seems a bit dazed for some reason.' He thought to himself.

Xu Jiaqi also noticed this, so she decided to introduce Lady Xiang instead.

"This is Lady Xiang from the Divine Essence Monastery. You probably haven't heard of this place since they only exist in the upper heavens, but they're one of the top 10 powers in the Nine Heavens. As for her reason for being here—"

"I am here to teach you my soul cultivation technique." Lady Xiang suddenly spoke, interrupting Xu Jiaqi.

"My apologies for the late introduction. I had something on my mind just now. I am Xiang Biyu, the current Holy Maiden of the Divine Essence Monastery. You may address me as Sister Biyu."

Senior Bai and Xu Jiaqi looked at Lady Xiang with raised eyebrows. Why would Lady Xiang allow Yuan to address her with such familiarity despite this being their first meeting?

Lady Xiang continued without pausing, "In my possession is what I believe to be the strongest soul cultivation technique in the Nine Heavens, so Lady Xu went to the right person if that's what she— you are looking for."

"Tell me, why are you seeking such a powerful technique when you're just a mere Spirit King? Did you not stop to think that you might be biting more than you can chew?"

Yuan smiled and said, "I was just looking for a suitable soul cultivation technique. It was Miss Xu who offered to find me the best one she could find. There's no way I could refuse such an offer. As for whether or not I can chew it... I guess we will find out once I bite into it."

Lady Xiang glanced at Xu Jiaqi for a second but didn't say anything.

"Fortunately for you, unlike most soul cultivation techniques out there, my soul cultivation technique doesn't discriminate against one's cultivation, so anyone can learn it as long as they qualify. However, that is easier said than done, as there have only been three people since ancient time that have managed to learn this soul cultivation technique."

"Only three people...?" Yuan was surprised to hear this, but he was also excited. After all, the harder it was to learn something, that something is usually more unique and powerful.

"If you do not have what it takes to learn this soul cultivation technique, there is nothing I could do for you. It just means you are not fated to learn it." Lady Xiang said a moment later.

She turned to look at Lady Xu and continued, "As I have mentioned before coming here, if he doesn't learn it, don't expect any compensation, as this was part of our deal."

"I am well aware." Xu Jiaqi nodded.

Lady Xiang returned to Yuan and smiled, "She destroyed an entire faction just to get you this chance, young man. Try not to waste it— even if you don't really have a choice."

"You did what?" Yuan looked at Xu Jiaqi with wide eyes.

"Don't misunderstand. Even though it was part of the agreement, the Celestial Overlords have a duty to deal with any Demon Worshippers, so I would've dealt with them the moment I learned that they were Demon Worshippers even if it wasn't part of the agreement."

"Whatever you say, Lady Xu."

Lady Xiang proceeded to glare at Yuan with a serious look on her face.

"Are you ready?" She asked.

"I am." He nodded.

"Let's go." Xu Jiaqi suddenly said to Senior Bai, who nodded in silence.

The two of them proceeded to leave Lady Xiang and Yuan alone.

Since Lady Xiang only promised to teach Yuan the soul cultivation technique, it was only natural for everyone else to leave.

Once they were alone, Lady Xiang spoke, "This technique is a little special, so the learning method will be a little special as well. Though, it's quite simple."

Lady Xiang closed her eyes, and her aura suddenly began to soar.

A few moments later, a massive golden bell materialized behind her.

This bell didn't appear to be completely solid and seemed somewhat semi-transparent. It was the size of a four-story building, and it emanated an otherworldly aura.

Upon closer inspection, Yuan could see tiny words engraved onto the front of the bell, exactly 1,000 words.

"Is that the soul cultivation technique inscribed on the bell?" Yuan asked.

"Indeed. It may seem very insignificant compared to even the most ordinary technique, but each word encompasses a profound secret that will lead you closer to learning the technique."

"What is this technique's name?"

"You will learn it if you are fated to. Otherwise, you are not worthy to know its name." Lady Xiang said.

Yuan's gaze was fixated on the golden bell ever since it came into view, looking as though he was bewitched by it.

"It could take weeks, months, even years to learn this technique. I will give you fifty years." Lady Xiang said a moment later.

Although 50 years may sound a lot, it would feel no different than a few weeks for an Immortal who has lived millions of years. Furthermore, it took Lady Xiang, one of the most talented individuals in her era, 120 years to learn the technique, so 50 years was actually very little time.

However, almost as though he couldn't hear her, Yuan remained silent.

Lady Xiang continued speaking regardless, "Once you think you have comprehended the technique, ring the bell with your spiritual energy. Even a little is fine. Once you do, the bell will ring, and each ring will signify your understanding, so the more times it rings, the more you'll comprehend it."

'I doubt you'll be able to learn this technique in 50 years, but there's no need to worry, because I will—'

In the midst of Lady Xiang's thoughts, Yuan suddenly lifted his finger and pointed it at the bell.

And before Lady Xiang could even wonder what he was thinking, Yuan released a strand of spiritual energy that flew straight at the bell.

"What are you—?!" Lady Xiang exclaimed in a shocked voice after seeing his seemingly reckless actions, but she had no time to be shocked, as Yuan would surely be dead before the bell could even finish ringing once.

Chapter 1110 Strongest Soul Cultivation Technique In The Nine Heavens(3)

The moment Yuan's spiritual energy touched the bell, its golden figure began to tremble, and a second later, almost as though someone had struck it with a wooden log, it released a heart-throbbing noise that swept the entire world.

DONG!

Yuan could feel his entire body trembling with the bell, and it felt like his very soul had been struck alongside the bell.

"Do you have a death wish?! If you ring the bell before you comprehend the technique, it could shatter your very soul!" Lady Xiang cried out loud after hearing the first ring.

However, there was nothing she could do about it, as once the bell rings, it would not stop until the very end, and whether Yuan's soul will survive the ordeal was entirely up to him.

"Don't worry, I have already comprehended the technique." Yuan spoke in a calm voice as the first ring continued to echo.

The sound of each ring lasted nine seconds, so he had some time until the next one.

"What in heavens' name are you talking about?! That's impossible! It took me 120 years to comprehend the technique while you've just started!" Lady

Xiang didn't want to believe it— she couldn't. In fact, nobody in the Nine Heavens would believe Yuan's outrageous claims.

However, Yuan wasn't lying. Almost as though he was fated to learn the technique— or he learned the technique in advance, he'd instantly grasped the meaning behind the words on the bell at glance and comprehended the technique the following second.

It was so unbelievably easy that even Yuan doubted it at first, hence why he went ahead and rang the golden bell, as he suddenly had this uncontrollable urge to do so, which was probably affected by the technique he'd just comprehended.

With that being said, while he's comprehended the technique, he hasn't actually learned it yet.

How much of the technique he learns will entirely depend on the amount of times the bell resounds. Thus, the more the bell rings, the more he will learn the technique.

Nine seconds after the first ring, the bell rang for a second time, sounding even louder than the previous.

DONG!!!

Yuan could feel his entire body being pushed back by the noise as well as the invisible force that was pressuring his internal organs and his very soul.

Despite that, it didn't really affect Yuan too much, and the pressure on his soul was nothing more than just that. He wasn't hurt by the pressure, nor did he feel like his life was threatened by it.

Therefore, Yuan stood tall and endured the second bell for nine more seconds.

After the second ringing ended, the bell resounded for a third time— but not before the golden bell itself grew in size.

And in the blink of an eye, the golden bell nearly doubled in size.

DONG!!!

Lady Xiang swallowed nervously as an expression of disbelief was plastered all over her face.

'He's withstanding the pressure from the bell... Did he really comprehend the technique in that short of a time? How many times will the bell ring for him?'

Lady Xiang recalled her experience learning the technique and facing the bell. After spending 120 years trying to comprehend the technique, she managed to make the golden bell ring a total of 6 times out of a possible 9.

DONG!

The golden bell rang for the fourth time, and it had grown so large that it was almost as big as Yuan's God of War's Astral Art's avatar.

Yuan had closed his eyes and sat down long ago, and his understanding for the soul cultivation technique deepened with every ring.

Eventually, the loud noise sounded no different than music to his ears, and his body felt like it was being embraced by the goddess of sounds.

DONG! DONG!!!

The fifth and sixth ring resounded shortly after.

'Six! He's managed to make the golden bell ring six times!'

DONG!

In what seemed like a blink of an eye, the seventh bell rang.

At the seventh ring, the power of the noise had transcended their space and leaked to the outside world where Xu Jiaqi and the others were waiting.

"Is this... the sound of a bell?" Senior Bai turned around to look at the portal behind him.

"What are they doing inside?" He wondered out loud.

"Whatever they are doing, I have a bad feeling about this." Xu Jiaqi said with a slight frown on her face.

Dong!!!

When the eighth bell rang, Xu Jiaqi and Senior Bai felt the entire world around them tremble.

"What is happening?!" Senior Bai exclaimed.

Xu Jiaqi didn't say anything. She turned around and rushed back into the portal to see what was going on inside. Senior Bai quickly followed.

And to their absolute surprise, there was a massive golden bell inside Senior Bai's world, and it was big enough to cover the entire place.

"What in Heavens' name are we seeing?" Senior Bai uttered in a voice of disbelief.

Despite the loud noises, neither Senior Bai nor Xu Jiaqi were affected by it, as the pressure was mostly focused on Yuan, so the most they felt was their heart beating louder than usual.

'E-Eight rings...' Lady Xiang could be seen trembling in shock even from a distance.

Xu Jiaqi immediately approached her and asked, "What the hell is going on here?!"

Lady Xiang turned to look at her with wide eyes before speaking in a dazed voice, "H-He's managed to make the bell ring eight times..."

"What is that even supposed to mean?" Xu Jiaqi frowned.

"It means a new legend is about to be born!" She exclaimed with a wide smile on her face.

DONG!!!

The golden bell rang for the ninth time, causing the entire Nine Heavens to tremble, and Lady Xiang could feel her excitement reaching its climax when she heard this.

However, little did Lady Xiang know that this was just the beginning.

After the golden bell rang nine times, it suddenly rang again for the tenth time.

DONG!

Lady Xiang always believed that the golden bell could only ring a maximum of nine times, but Yuan had managed to surpass that and ring it 10 times!

Chapter 1111 The Nine Heavens Trembles!

After the 10th ring, the golden bell fell silent, but both Yuan and Lady Xiang could somehow tell that it wasn't completely over yet.

"Tell me, what's going on?" Xu Jiaqi asked them, as she was completely clueless to the situation.

"Once one comprehends the soul cultivation technique, the golden bell will ring a certain number of times with nine— ten rings being the maximum, and the more times you manage to make it ring, the stronger your understanding of the technique will be. In other words, the more it rings the better." Lady Xiang explained in a dazed voice.

And she continued, "For reference, I made the bell ring six times when I comprehended the technique, and I was considered a genius that would appear only once every few million years."

After swallowing nervously, she said, "Your little friend here has managed to make the bell ring ten times... that kind of talent is frightening. I cannot imagine what kind of monster he'll be like in the future."

Although it might be a bit rude to call Yuan a monster, Lady Xiang could not think of another term to call him by, and his talent was truly monstrous.

"So what happens now?" Xu Jiaqi asked.

Lady Xiang shook her head, "I don't know. The golden bell should've disappeared after it stopped ringing, but it's still here for some reason, so it might not be the end just yet. As for what might happen, I cannot even begin to imagine."

"..."

After a brief moment of silence, Xu Jiaqi spoke while staring at Yuan, who was still sitting there with his eyes closed, "How are you feeling?"

"..."

However, almost as though he couldn't even hear her, Yuan remained silent.

Xu Jiaqi didn't try to speak to him again, fearing that she might disturb his trance.

Thus, both Xu Jiaqi and Lady Xiang would patiently wait for Yuan to wake up.

Yuan would not move a single muscle for the next 24 hours, and neither did Xu Jiaqi or Lady Xiang. They would stare at Yuan's face intently, their thoughts unknown. Senior Bai was still waiting outside the portal, feeling a little nervous about how silent it was.

Fortunately, that silence would not last too long, as the Nine Heavens would soon experience another turmoil.

Once 24 hours had passed, Yuan suddenly opened his eyes, but they seemed empty, almost as though he was still unconscious.

A profound aura suddenly swept the world, followed by the deafening sound of a bell ringing.

The golden bell has started to ring again for the 11th time, but it was much quicker this time.

Unlike the slow ringing at the start, the pace became much quicker, and the golden bell would ring every second.

DONG! DONG! DONG!

Every ring would send out a ripple with unfathomable secrets that filled the small world before leaking out into the Nine Heavens.

The Nine Heavens would tremble every time the bell rang, so it would shake every second, causing a major uproar in every world within the Nine Heavens.

This constant shaking made many people wonder if the world was ending, and more people would begin to have the same thoughts when the trembling grew stronger and stronger.

Somewhere in the Nine Heavens, the Celestial Emperor stood before his throne with his hands wrapped into a tight fist and a dazed look on his face.

He could hear the faint sound of a bell ringing that was getting clearer with every passing second, almost as though he was standing before the bell himself, and he recalled a certain sentence.

"When the glorious Bell of Supremacy resounds, a new ruler is born, and the Nine Heavens will tremble as it enters a new era."

"Have you returned once again to trample on this world's peace? Why won't you give up? No matter how many times you reincarnate, you cannot escape the fate bestowed upon everyone born under this heaven. It's impossible to win..."

The Celestial Emperor had a tired and somewhat defeated look in his eyes.

Back in the Myriad of Techniques, Yuan could feel something deep within his body being loosened— being awakened.

As the bell approached its 90th ring, Yuan finally understood one thing.

'This has nothing to do with the soul cultivation technique. This is a key... a key to a lock within me. Something inside me is being unsealed.'

Although he didn't know what was being unsealed, he somehow knew that it would help him face whatever was inside the Nameless Emperor's Tomb.

Once the golden bell rang a total of 99 times, it would stop for a few seconds before resounding one more time.

When the golden bell rang for the 100th time, it shattered into countless fragments.

These fragments did not immediately disappear and instead transformed into golden swords that pointed at Yuan.

Each of these swords had unique symbols engraved into them, but neither Xu Jiaqi nor Lady Xiang could read them.

As for Yuan, even though he couldn't read them, he could somehow understand them.

Whoosh!

These countless golden swords suddenly flew at Yuan, entering his body without harming him in the slightest.

Once Yuan absorbed all of the golden swords, he took a deep breath before closing his eyes and entering into another trance.

This trance didn't last as long and ended a few minutes later.

When he opened his eyes, it was pure gold and glistening like stars in a starry night, giving an otherworldly feeling to his existence.

Both Xu Jiaqi and Lady Xiang subconsciously swallowed nervously when they saw his eyes, feeling as though they were before a divine entity despite being god-like existences themselves.

"I think it's over," he spoke in a calm voice a moment later.

However, the goddesses were still in shock and trying to process what had just happened.

"H-How do you feel?" Lady Xiang asked him a moment later.

"I feel fine."

"Just fine? Do you feel any different?"

To her surprise, Yuan shook his head, "No, I don't feel any different."

"How is that even possible...?" Lady Xiang muttered in a dazed voice.

Chapter 1112 Lady Xiang's Offer

"I don't believe it." Xu Jiaqi suddenly spoke with a cold expression on her face.

"You just learned the strongest soul cultivation technique known in the Nine Heavens, not to mention that spectacle just now. There's no way you don't feel any different."

Yuan shook his head with a bittersweet smile, "Why would I lie to you? I truly don't feel any different. Perhaps the effects will start showing later, but I can't sense anything different about my body at this moment."

Neither Lady Xiang nor Xu Jiaqi could argue with his logic, especially when they still cannot comprehend what had just occurred.

"Then I would like to make a suggestion. You should stay here for a little longer so that I can monitor your condition." Lady Xiang then said.

"I'm sorry, Lady Xiang, but I have somewhere to be, and I already broke my promise once. I cannot disappoint my friend a second time. I hope you can understand. If I feel any different, I will let Senior Bai know."

Lady Xiang frowned, clearly unhappy, which was to be expected. However, what Yuan didn't expect was what she would go on to say.

"That's not right. I told you to address me as Sister Biyu." Lady Xiang revealed her reason for being displeased, leaving Yuan speechless.

Xu Jiaqi then spoke, "You don't need to report anything if you don't want to. We just wanted to make sure your body is unharmed after enduring the golden bell for so long."

If it is considered rude to question a cultivator about their gains after they consumed a treasure, the same logic applied to cultivation techniques.

"Anyways, about the soul cultivation technique... Do you have it?" Lady Xiang asked a moment later.

Yuan silently nodded.

Lady Xiang took a deep breath before speaking, "Not only did you surpass me in comprehension, you even made the golden bell ring 110 times. I don't think something like this will ever be surpassed or repeated again."

"Junior Brother Yuan, would you like to be my disciple?" Lady Xiang suddenly offered to be his master.

"If you become my disciple, I will immediately bring you to the Supreme Heaven, and I will spare no resources nurturing you. All of my disciples have become a powerhouse in the Nine Heavens one way or another, and with your talents, you will surely be my brightest disciple yet. Moreover, since our soul cultivation technique is very unique, I am the only person in the Nine Heavens who can guide you properly in that regard."

"Although the Divine Essence Monastery is a female-only sect and I have only ever accepted female disciples before, I will make an exception for you. You will not only be surrounded by beauties, they're the most brilliant and beautiful flowers you can encounter in the Nine Heavens. If that's not enough to satisfy you, I don't mind offering myself to you. I may have lived a long time, but as the Holy Maiden, my body is still pure." Lady Xiang winked at the end.

Yuan was speechless. How did the conversation go off the rails so fast within a single sentence?

"Hey, what nonsense are you spouting? I'll kill you." Xu Jiaqi interrupted with a cold look on her face.

Lady Xiang remained calm despite Xu Jiaqi's threatening aura, and she even smiled, "Nonsense? I did not utter a single lie just now. In case you forgot, you also studied under me at one point."

"That was because my father..."

"No matter how you put it, you cannot alter the truth."

Xu Jiaqi rubbed her eyes and sighed, "Yuan, ignore her. She may be the Holy Maiden, but she acts anything but one. Even if she is the only person in this world who can teach you about the soul cultivation technique, I have a feeling that you won't need it. In fact, you might even be the one guiding her in the future."

"How can you say such a thing in front of a junior right before my presence, Little Qi? To make things fair, how about I reveal some of your embarrassing secrets?" Lady Xiang spoke with a cold look on her face.

"I thought I told you that I would kill you if you ever utter that name again..." Xu Jiaqi's eyes flickered with killing intent.

Sensing that things were getting out of hand, Yuan cleared his throat and spoke in a stiff voice, "Seniors, please calm down. You're both my benefactors. I cannot bear to watch the two of you fight with each other."

He then turned to look at Lady Xiang and continued, "As for your offer, Lady— Sister Biyu, I'm sorry, but I will have to decline."

"May I ask for your reason?" Lady Xiang asked, her expression turned serious.

"There are still things that I must do— questions that I need to find answers for down here before I ascend to the Supreme Heaven. I have already decided to climb every step of the way to the Supreme Heaven, so I cannot let you take me there." Yuan explained.

After all, he won't be able to recover his memories if he skipped all the way to the end.

Lady Xiang closed her eyes and released a long sigh, "If that's your decision, I won't force it."

While she really wanted to accept Yuan as a disciple, she already expected for him to refuse. However, even if Yuan accepted her offer, she wouldn't have actually accepted him as her disciple for one simple yet complex reason— a reason that she cannot reveal to either Yuan or Xu Jiaqi.

"Junior Brother, I won't pursue this issue any further, but I have another request. Let's meet again in this place after three months. I want to see how much you've progressed with the soul cultivation technique." Lady Xiang said.

"Three months... I might not be able to make it, as I will be entering the Nameless Emperor's Tomb, which could last for as long as half a year." Yuan said.

"Nameless Emperor's Tomb...? You're actually going inside that torture chamber? What are you, a masochist?" Xu Jiaqi couldn't help but utter these words.

"You've been inside before?" Yuan had a feeling this was the case.

"Of course. In fact, most of the Immortals in the Supreme Heaven have explored the Nameless Emperor's Tomb at least once. Despite this place existing in the Third Heaven, it is still dangerous enough that even Immortals have perished inside. While inside, everyone above Spirit King will have their cultivation restricted to peak Spirit King, and all spiritual treasures above Ancient-grade are rendered useless, so the only advantages we have are our knowledge, experience, and techniques." Xu Jiaqi said.

Yuan swallowed nervously after hearing all of this.

The Nameless Emperor's Tomb is dangerous enough to kill even Immortals that are entities that he cannot even comprehend yet? Why does such a place even exist? He couldn't wait to find out.

"Now that I know you're planning to explore the Nameless Emperor's Tomb, I cannot leave you empty-handed." Lady Xiang suddenly said.

"Here are some life—"

Right as Lady Xiang prepared to pull out life-saving treasures for Yuan, Xu Jiaqi stopped her and said, "What are you doing? Have you forgotten our position? If we interfere too much, it could have the opposite effect and harm him instead."

"..." Lady Xiang wanted to argue, but she couldn't.

"Fine, I won't give him any life-saving treasures, but I won't let him go inside without anything." Lady Xiang said with a stern look on her face. "Even though he's not my official disciple, he still learned my soul cultivation technique, so he is technically one."

Chapter 1113 Lady Xiang's Blessing

"Come over here, Junior Brother." Lady Xiang gestured for Yuan. "You may not need this, but it's better to be safe than be sorry."

Yuan nodded, and he approached her while anticipating what she was going to give him.

Once he was right in front of Lady Xiang, she said, "Close your eyes."

Yuan didn't question her request and closed his eyes.

The following moment, he would feel something soft and small pressing against his forehead, which prompted him to open his eyes.

When he opened his eyes, Yuan could only see a pair of luscious breasts hovering right in front of his face, causing him to raise an eyebrow.

Xu Jiaqi's mouth was wide open at this moment as her shocked eyes were glaring at Lady Xiang, who was giving Yuan a kiss on the forehead.

As the Holy Maiden, her actions right now would be considered a taboo, and it would surely create an uproar if the public knew of it.

The kiss didn't last long, only three seconds, but it felt like three hours to Xu Jiaqi. Perhaps it would've lasted longer if Xu Jiaqi didn't intervene.

"Are you done yet?"

Lady Xiang removed her lips from Yuan's forehead with a satisfied smile on her face.

"I've just given you a blessing. It will automatically activate if it senses that you're in grave danger. I hope it will never activate, though."

"Thank you." Yuan smiled back, not thinking too much about the kiss on the forehead.

Sometime later, Xu Jiaqi spoke, "Regarding your other request— about your physique. Unfortunately, I didn't have time to get the manuals since I came here immediately after getting the technique. When you return in six months, I will also be here with the manuals."

"I understand. Thank you, Miss Xu."

"Before you leave, there is one more topic that needs to be discussed." Xu Jiaqi then said.

"What is it?"

Xu Jiaqi proceeded to tell Yuan about the situation in the Supreme Heaven and how many powerful Sects, Factions, and Clans had sent down people to hunt for a certain individual.

Yuan began sweating when he heard this information. Even though Xu Jiaqi said that they didn't know the true identity of this criminal yet, he knew right away when she mentioned Heavens' Judgment, and he pondered if he should tell her the truth.

"Honestly, even though I am telling you this, I am not telling you to hunt this criminal. Even if you come across this person, you aren't obligated to catch him. There are plenty of people who are capable of dealing with a mere criminal in Third Heaven. Though, you will receive a lot of good karma if you do, so there's that."

"I understand... I will try my best to catch him if I see him." Yuan said with a stiff smile on his face.

"Here. Take this jade slip. It will burn if you're close to the criminal, who had been branded by Heaven during the judgment." Xu Jiaqi handed Yuan a black jade slip.

Yuan silently stared at the jade slip with a dazed look on his face. He was wondering why the jade slip had no reaction even though he was right in front of it. Not that he had any complaints, as this situation worked in his favor.

After accepting the jade slip, Yuan left the Myriad of Techniques shortly after.

"So he's already left, huh? I still have something to give him, but that will have to wait until our next meeting now." Senior Bai mumbled after learning that Yuan had left.

"He'll return in six months after the Nameless Emperor's Tomb." Xu Jiaqi briefly explained the situation.

"Nameless Emperor's Tomb! Even with his talents, I cannot help but feel a little worried." Senior Bai shook his head.

The Nameless Emperor's Tomb could be considered one of the most difficult Legacy Tombs in the Nine Heavens, after all.

"Why are you still here?" Xu Jiaqi turned to look at Lady Xiang, who was still lingering around for some reason.

Lady Xiang did not immediately respond and silently stared at her.

After a moment of silence, she asked in a low voice, "Judging by how you're acting around that young man... Don't tell me you can't see the resemblance?"

"What are you talking about?" Xu Jiaqi looked genuinely puzzled by such a question.

"Unbelievable..." Lady Xiang sighed.

"Actually, now that I think about it, you weren't there to see his growth, so it's not that surprising that you don't see it..."

"What the hell have you been mumbling about since the beginning? You are acting weird today— very weird."

"If you don't understand it, then I won't bother." Lady Xiang shook her head.

Naturally, she was referring to how Yuan resembled the founder of the Celestial Overlords.

Unlike Xu Jiaqi, who was picked up by the founder when she was just a little girl, Lady Xiang had been with him since much earlier, as early as his teenage years.

'The resemblance is so uncanny that I thought I'd somehow traveled to the past...' Lady Xiang sighed inwardly as she recalled her memories that are so old they can be considered ancient.

As she reached the exit, Lady Xiang turned around to look at Xu Jiaqi again.

"He's probably already part of the Celestial Overlord, right?" She asked.

"Naturally." Xu Jiaqi spoke in a manner that made it seem like there was no other option.

"Then I will give up recruiting him to my faction for now. Though, I will acquire him through other ways. Don't say I didn't warn you." Lady Xiang waved at Xu Jiaqi as she entered the exit, leaving Xu Jiaqi no time to respond.

"Lady Xu, what happened? The Nine Heavens shook nonstop just now. This is the second time it's happened. I don't think this is a coincidence anymore."

After a moment of silence, Xu Jiaqi mumbled, "It's definitely connected to Yuan. As for why it's happening, I don't have the slightest clue, nor is it our business. I'm leaving now."

Chapter 1114 Heaven's Indomitable Soul

After leaving the Myriad of Techniques, Yuan immediately began making his way back to the Nameless Emperor's Tomb.

On his way there, he would think about the new cultivation technique that he'd just acquired.

<Heaven's Indomitable Soul>

<Rank: ???>

<Mastery Level: ???>

<Description: A technique of unknown origins. Absorb the very essence of this world and convert it into your Soul Strength.>

As he couldn't wait to experience the technique, Yuan decided to use the technique while he was on the move to see how it worked.

Immediately after he activated the technique, Yuan could feel his body absorbing the spiritual essence around him, almost like how cultivators absorb Qi when they cultivate. However, spiritual essence was different from spiritual energy.

Unlike spiritual energy that will inevitably have impurity, spiritual essence is completely pure, so the cultivator won't need to cleanse its purity after absorbing.

Furthermore, spiritual essence itself is much stronger than spiritual energy, making it the ideal resource for all cultivators. However, one does not simply cultivate spiritual essence normally.

In order to absorb spiritual essence, one must be able to sense spiritual essence, something that is only doable after they become an immortal.

In other words, Yuan, who was still a mere Spirit King, could absorb spiritual essence and achieve what even immortals find difficult. That's not all. Not only could he absorb spiritual essence, but he can even convert it into his soul strength, something only those that have learned Heaven's Indomitable Soul technique could achieve.

There is even a popular saying in the Supreme Heavens that says a single drop of spiritual essence is more valuable than a whole sea of spiritual energy, as spiritual energy essentially becomes useless to Immortals, who can only grow through spiritual essence.

Yuan could feel an overwhelming feeling suddenly wash over him, almost like a pillar in the middle of the ocean, where the water would continuously refresh his body, mind, and soul.

<+2,021 Soul Strength>

<+3,000 Soul Strength>

<+2,391 Soul Strength>

Every few seconds, his Soul Strength would increase by the thousands. If the world knew of this, they would surely be shocked to death.

'My divine sense is expanding at a ludicrous rate...' Yuan thought to himself as his divine sense reaches over 100 miles, and it was still growing with every passing second.

Xiao Hua could sense something was going on around Yuan even though she couldn't sense spiritual essence.

"Brother Yuan, are you okay?" She asked him.

"Yes, I am just testing out the new soul cultivation technique. It's quite powerful. My Soul Strength is increasing by the second."

"What kind of effect does it have?" Feng Yuxiang asked out of curiosity.

"It absorbs spiritual essence and converts them into my Soul Strength."

"What?! You can absorb spiritual essence already?!" Unsurprisingly, Feng Yuxiang exclaimed in a shocked voice after hearing this information.

"Only those that have succeeded their Immortal Ascension should be able to do such a thing!"

Out of everything Yuan has done up to this point, his ability to absorb spiritual essence as a mere Spirit King was the most shocking by far, not to mention that he could even convert it into Soul Strength.

For comparison, it was akin to a mortal learning cultivation techniques only comprehensible by gods, or a mortal casually wielding a godly artifact that would normally kill anyone that isn't powerful enough to wield it.

"Yuan... You should keep this information a secret." Lan Yingying suddenly spoke in a worried voice.

"She's right, Brother Yuan. If the world knew, all of the powerful cultivators out there would definitely try to kill you because of your potential, especially Immortals, who would be filled with jealousy and anger if they knew that a Spirit King could use their spiritual essence." Xiao Hua said.

Most Immortals consider the ability to absorb spiritual essence an honor—something they had to shed blood and tears for thousands of years to acquire, yet Yuan, who wasn't even a hundred years old, could use it. His existence was offensive in itself to these Immortals.

By the time Yuan returned to the Nameless Emperor's Tomb, his Soul Strength has increased by over 10 million.

To put into perspective how much that is— even Spirit Sovereigns wouldn't have a third of that.

At his level, his divine sense could cover over a thousand miles with ease, and he could even keep it active for weeks without any breaks.

In fact, even if they had a powerful soul cultivation technique, it would take most cultivators over a hundred years to amass 10 million Soul Strength, something Yuan achieved in a few mere hours.

'It's been a week since the Nameless Emperor's Tomb opened, but it's still as crowded as the first day.' Yuan thought to himself as he was surrounded by people.

And because there were so many people, the entrance was blocked by the Ji Family, as they were controlling the amount of people entering at a time.

[If you wish to enter the Nameless Emperor's Tomb as a rogue cultivator, you must pay a fee of 1,000 spirit stones!]

These words were written on a large banner that hung above the tomb.

"The hell? We have to pay to enter? And a thousand spirit stones... That seems a bit too excessive." Yuan was speechless.

"This is how they keep the tomb from being overflowing with people. Though, this will only apply to rogue cultivators. All disciples and members of big families will still be allowed to enter for free, and since you're a Spirit King, you should also be able to enter without needing to pay." Feng Yuxiang said.

Sometime later, Yuan approached the entrance while wearing the Jade Sword Manor's guest robe.

When the Ji Family saw his clothes and sensed that he was a peak Spirit King, they allowed him to enter the tomb without any troubles.

"Best of luck to you, Senior." The members of the Ji Family mistook Yuan as a senior who was disguised as a young man due to his cultivation base.

Yuan didn't bother trying to correct them and proceeded towards the portal, stepping inside the Nameless Emperor's Tomb a moment later.

Chapter 1115 Entering Nameless Emperor's Tomb

Upon entering the Nameless Emperor's Tomb, Yuan was teleported to a vast green plain that was filled with hills and healthy tall grass.

The first thing Yuan noticed was the oddity in the air, as it felt denser than what he was used to, and even the gravity there felt heavier than usual.

"Most of the spiritual energy in this world is created by the Nameless Emperor, so what you're feeling right now is that." Feng Yuxiang said when she noticed his expression.

"What are your plans now?"

After a moment of silence, he spoke, "As planned, I will meet up with Tian Yanyu to make sure she's doing okay and see if she needs any assistance, then I will explore this Nameless Plain for a bit before diving deeper."

The majority of the outer area within the tomb was known as the Nameless Plain, and as its name suggests, it was a massive plain that is filled with powerful magical beasts, fortunes, and opportunity.

Yuan closed his eyes and took a moment to recall the map of the Nameless Emperor's Tomb that he'd memorized within the Jade Sword Manor.

Once he found the direction to the Nameless Stone Warrior, Yuan immediately took to the blue sky and began flying towards that direction.

The destination wasn't too far away, so he reached it after flying for four hours straight.

On his way to the Nameless Stone Warrior, Yuan encountered many powerful magical beasts as well as cultivators that were trying to hunt these magical beasts.

He noticed that the magical beasts inside the tomb did not drop monster cores when defeated. Instead, it supplied those that defeated the magical beast with an abundant amount of spiritual energy directly. Furthermore, some of them even dropped treasures and resources directly, such as pills and spiritual weapons.

Most of the magical beasts that he'd encountered were all at the Spirit Lord realm with a few at the early Spirit King realm.

With the outer area already so dangerous, it was no wonder why the casualty rates were so high inside the tomb. However, with great risk comes great reward, hence why everyone that could afford to risk their life to enter did so.

When Yuan reached the vicinity of the Nameless Stone Warrior, he noticed a group of cultivators surrounding the area, and these cultivators quickly blocked his path when they noticed him.

"This place is already occupied by the Jade Sword Manor, Blue Swallow Sword Sect, and the Lightning Sword Academy."

A small group of disciples stood before Yuan, explaining the situation to him.

Yuan pointed at his own clothes and spoke in a calm voice, "I'm with the Jade Sword Manor."

The disciples glanced at his clothes and sneered, "You think we're stupid? That is simply their guest uniform. Also, anyone can disguise themselves as a disciple. Show me your disciple identity badge and I will let you enter."

"I don't have that, and I won't stay long. I just want to speak with one of their disciples." Yuan said.

"No identification, no entry. That is the rule here." The disciples stood their ground.

"Is this a rule of this place, or simply something you came up with by yourself?"

One of the disciples smirked, "In this place, the strong make the rules."

"Is that so..."

Yuan turned silent after this point.

'The Nameless Stone Warrior is a place where people go for enlightenment. If I cause a commotion here, I might disturb them.'

After pondering for a bit, Yuan retrieved Yu Jian's medallion and showed it to these disciples.

"What about this? It was given to me by Sect Leader Yu Jian himself."

The disciple squinted at the medallion before giving a scoff, "I don't recognize it, so I'm not going to accept it."

Yuan shook his head, "You're making this difficult for no reason. One last chance. We can do this the easy way, or the hard way."

"You dare threaten us?!"

The disciples immediately became heated.

Yuan released a sigh, and right before the disciples could even take their first step, Yuan silently activated Heavenly Domain.

All of the disciples around him instantly fell to their knees as a tyrannical pressure bore down on them.

"H-Help...!"

These disciples could feel their bones cracking and muscles tearing apart just from the pressure alone, their bodies screaming in pain.

Within seconds, blood flowed from their eyes, nose, and ears.

"Oops."

Yuan quickly retracted the Heavenly Domain when he saw this, as he wasn't expecting such an outcome.

'I barely used my spiritual energy, yet I nearly killed them. My soul strength has grown so exponentially in such a short time that I don't know my own strength anymore. I need to be careful now if I don't want to accidentally kill someone.' Yuan swallowed nervously.

"What is going on here?!"

A loud voice suddenly boomed in the vicinity, causing Yuan to shift his attention to the group of elders approaching his direction.

Once the elders arrived, they immediately began inspecting Yuan to try and identify him.

A few of the elders there were from the Jade Sword Manor, so they immediately recognized his esteemed guest uniform. Furthermore, Yuan was still holding their Sect Leader's medallion.

"Who are you, and why did you attack my disciples?" An old man wearing a blue uniform stepped forward and questioned Yuan with an angry expression while the other elders went to treat the disciples by feeding them a healing pill.

Yuan quickly explained himself, but the elder did not seem to be satisfied by it. Yuan couldn't blame the elder, as he'd nearly killed the disciples.

However, before the situation could get any worse, Yu Jian showed up to the scene after being notified by the elders from his sect.

After speaking with the elder from the Blue Swallow Sword Sect, Yu Jian managed to calm the situation.

"I have settled things for now, so you can enter, but that is only for now. They might try to trouble you later, and I can't protect you then." Yu Jian sighed.

"That's fine. Thank you for the assistance." Yuan showed him a calm smile, almost as though he couldn't care less about it.

He entered the area with Yu Jian a moment later while being glared at by the disciples that he'd nearly killed.

Chapter 1116 Nameless Stone Warrior

A few minutes after his incident with the Blue Swallow Sword Sect, Yuan could see a massive statue of a masked figure standing in the distance.

This figure was clearly the Lord, and he was holding his sword straight in front of him like some kind of knight.

Once he got closer, he could see hundreds if not thousands of people sitting around the statue while staring at it intensively, as if they were trying to poke holes in the statue with their gaze alone.

He quickly found Tian Yanyu and Tian Suyin. They were both sitting towards the middle of the group, located directly behind the statue, which is considered to be the worst spot there, as they were unable to see the Lord or the sword clearly from such an angle. Unfortunately for them, the spots in front of the statue were taken by the high-ranking sect elders and top geniuses of their respective sects.

The Nameless Stone Warrior is a famous location within the Nameless Emperor's Tomb. It used to be a very popular site when it was discovered 1,000 years ago, but when nobody could receive full enlightenment from it even 1,000 years later, not as many people still come to this place.

With that being said, many people still spend a week or two in this place to comprehend what little they can from the statue before moving on. While nobody can fully comprehend the statue entirely, there have been plenty of people who were able to receive some kind of guidance and small enlightenment from the statue.

After all, comprehending even half of the statue would grant the individual a massive boost to their strength and understanding of the sword.

And unbeknownst to these people, the moment Yuan glanced at the statue, he was able to comprehend it entirely.

<You have learned Moon Splitting Sword Art>

<Rank: Divine>

<Mastery Level: 1>

"..."

Yuan was speechless. It would normally take him a few days if not weeks to learn a Divine-rank technique, yet he'd managed to do it at glance this time.

'Is this because I am the Lord's reincarnation, or is this due to my soul strength?' Yuan wondered inwardly.

Though, despite learning this sword technique, Yuan didn't really need it, as it was just a Divine-rank technique. Unless it was Ancient-rank or higher, it won't make Yuan budge an eyebrow.

After silently learning the technique, Yuan hovered above Tian Yanyu, who currently has her eyes closed and seemingly in a trance, and he patiently waited for her to finish.

About two hours later, Tian Yanyu opened her eyes, which flickered with a sense of frustration.

"How did it go? Did you comprehend anything?" Yuan asked her using divine sense, as he did not want to disturb the others by speaking out loud.

"Xiao Yang! When did you arrive?" She appeared pleasant to see him.

"I got here not long ago."

"I see... Well, I have been here since day 1, but I have only comprehended about 15 percent... probably. My understanding of the sword has increased substantially from it, but I really want to learn the technique it's hiding. Even though I can only comprehend the first four sword movements, it was more than enough to convince me of its prowess. I cannot imagine how powerful the full technique is. It's definitely a Heaven-rank or higher technique."

Tian Yanyu's voice was filled with awe and longing as she spoke of the technique.

However, she was also disappointed in herself. Her group had only planned to stay at the Nameless Stone Warrior for a week, so she had only a day or so left to comprehend as much as she could, but it was clearly not enough time to learn the technique.

Furthermore, even if she was given a hundred years to comprehend the technique, there was no guarantee that she could fully comprehend the technique.

After a moment of silence, Yuan suddenly asked her, "If you really want to learn this technique, shall I teach it to you? I managed to fully comprehend it, so I can just directly teach you the technique"

"YOU WHAT?!" Tian Yanyu's shocked and no doubt deafening voice suddenly boomed in the area that had been completely silent for the past six days, startling everyone there.

A few people there even puked out blood after their enlightenment had been interrupted by Tian Yanyu's sudden outburst.

"W-W-Who the fuck shouted just now?! How dare you! I was in the middle of enlightenment! Now it's all ruined! Fucking fuck!"

"I was also very close to enlightenment as well! Identify yourself, you bastard! Let me fucking kill you!"

Everybody there started cursing out loud. To nobody's surprise, Tian Yanyu's accidental outburst had caused a huge commotion.

'Shit...' Tian Yanyu began sweating profusely when everybody there learned that it was her who screamed and disturbed their peace, their gazes so sharp it could kill.

"You idiot...!" Tian Suyin was shaking her head while rubbing her eyes at Tian Yanyu, as she instantly understood the gravity of the situation.

Tian Yanyu's actions had led to everyone there losing their focus with some even losing their chance to receive enlightenment from the stone statue, costing them 7 years of time, which is akin to disturbing someone while they were on the verge of a breakthrough, considered as one of the biggest taboo within the cultivation world.

"Sect Leader Yu Jian! This is the second time your Jade Sword Manor has caused trouble for everyone here! We'll have to ask your sect to leave immediately!" The Blue Swallow Sword Sect and the Lightning Sword Academy began pressuring Yu Jian and his sect to leave.

However, some people there were not satisfied with just this punishment, especially those that had their enlightenment interrupted.

"That bitch who just shouted needs to be punished separately! She nearly crippled some of us just now, so it would only be fair if we did the same to her!"

"Yeah! Cripple her cultivation!"

Tian Yanyu turned to look at Yuan, her only hope, with despair on her face.

Yuan sighed, "It hasn't even been half a day since I entered the tomb and I've already encountered two incidents... The future's looking bleak..."

Sometime later, Yuan's voice boomed, "Everyone, please calm down!"

He mixed his spiritual energy in the voice, causing it to ring in everyone's head, making it impossible to ignore or miss.

The chaos halted for a moment as everyone there shifted their gaze from Tian Yanyu to Yuan.

"I would like to apologize on behalf of my friend, as I am somewhat responsible for her outburst. I also understand your anger and frustration, so I am willing to teach everyone here the complete technique of this stone statue as compensation. What do you say?"

Yuan's words kept the place dead silent for many moments, as nobody there dared to believe their ears just now.

In order to have the complete technique of the Nameless Stone Warrior, one must have fully comprehended it, something that hasn't been done since its discovery 1,000 years ago, so it was natural for the people there to doubt Yuan's words.

Knowing this, Yuan acted swiftly and retrieved his sword. Then, he began moving according to the movements he'd comprehended from the Nameless Stone Warrior in front of his audience, leaving everyone there speechless.

Chapter 1117 Moon Splitting Sword Art

After performing the Moon Splitting Sword Art flawlessly in front of everyone there, Yuan stopped and patiently waited for their response.

"Y-You can't be serious... Did he really comprehend the technique from the Nameless Stone Warrior...?"

"I comprehended about 30 percent of the technique, and from my understanding, his earlier movements matched the technique perfectly, not to mention how flawlessly and fluidly they flowed afterward."

Although nobody there could confirm whether Yuan had truly performed the real technique from the Nameless Stone Warrior, nobody there doubted him, as his performance was just that perfect and convincing.

"Moon Splitting Sword Art." Yuan spoke in a calm voice that sounded as clear as thunder.

"That is the name of the technique left behind by this Nameless Stone Warrior. It is a Divine-rank technique."

Countless eyes widened with shock after learning about the technique's rank. Forget about Divine-rank techniques, even Heaven-rank techniques are still considered very valuable in the Third Heaven, so only top sects and families like the Seven Legacy Families would have Divine-rank techniques, yet Yuan was willing to teach everyone there such a valuable technique as compensation? It was almost too good to be true.

'This must be what they call a blessing in disguise...' Those that had their enlightenment interrupted by Tian Yanyu and nearly became crippled no longer blamed Tian Yanyu. In fact, they even praised her for giving them this opportunity.

Yuan's voice resounded again a moment later, "I will display this technique two more times for a total of three times. Whether you can learn it or not is entirely up to you. If you have any problem with my friend's mistake just now after I share this technique, I will have other ways of dealing with it. Do I make myself clear?"

Although Yuan's voice sounded calm and gentle, it was actually filled with hidden killing intent.

"This bastard... Now that I look at him closely, he's a peak Spirit King! Is his young appearance just a disguise, or is he truly that talented?"

"Makes sense, considering that he'd managed to comprehend this Nameless Stone Warrior when nobody else could for over 1,000 years."

Yuan started executing the Moon Splitting Sword Art for the second time a few moments later. When that happened, all of the cultivators there sealed their mouths, cleared their mind, widened their eyes, and even refused to blink to make sure they didn't miss a single detail.

Once he finished performing the Moon Splitting Sword Art, Yuan proceeded to stand there for half an hour without moving a muscle, allowing the cultivators there to do their thing.

"Are you sure you should be doing this, Young Master?" Feng Yuxiang asked him while they waited.

"What's the problem?"

"Well... First of all, you're giving away a high-grade Divine-rank technique for free... Even worse, most if not all of them are not qualified to even learn this technique. What if the Legacy Tomb decides to punish you?" Feng Yuxiang expressed her worries.

Yuan smiled, "What's wrong with sharing something that is mine to begin with? It's just a Divine-rank technique. Also, I truly feel guilty for what happened to them today, not to mention the disciples that I nearly killed by accident. And as I'd already said, even if I show them this technique, it's not like all of them are capable of actually learning it."

Once 30 minutes had passed, Yuan lifted his sword into the air again and began performing the technique for the third and final time.

The area became even more silent as the cultivators there tried their best to burn the sword technique into their memories.

At the end, Yuan said to them, "Now, if you still have any problems with my friend, raise your hand."

"..."

Nobody there dared to move a single muscle.

"Good. Then I hope you'll all gain something from this sword technique."

Even though everyone there has memorized the technique movements, they were still required to actually understand and perform the technique by themselves. This could take months, even years, but only time will tell.

However, there was a method that could bypass this, and that is to have someone who already fully comprehends the technique to transfer their knowledge and understanding to another person, allowing them to essentially skip the majority of the process.

"Give me your forehead." Yuan said to Tian Yanyu after returning to her side.

Tian Yanyu didn't question him and leaned forward.

Yuan poked her head, transferring the entire Moon Splitting Sword Art manual as well as his understanding for the technique into her head.

"T-This is..."

Tian Yanyu was shocked by what Yuan had just done.

"I-I don't know what else to say besides thank you..." She muttered in a low voice.

Yuan smiled, "Go ahead and try it."

Tian Yanyu nodded and immediately retrieved her sword. She closed her eyes and began moving her body a moment later, performing the Moon Splitting Sword Art with seemingly no effort.

When the others saw what had happened, they immediately became envious of Tian Yanyu, who was receiving all of the special treatment.

'This lucky bitch gets to skip the most tedious part all because she has a powerful sugar daddy!'

'Damn it! Why don't I have a handsome young man spoon feeding me techniques as well?! Although I'm not as pretty as her, I am not that far behind!'

Yuan noticed Tian Suyin staring at him and smiled, "If you'd like, I can perform technique transfer for you as well."

Tian Suyin swallowed nervously. Although she was an immensely prideful individual, she couldn't pass up such an opportunity, as this would save her years of effort.

"I-If you don't mind..." She nodded with a somewhat rosy face.

After receiving the technique from Yuan through technique transfer, Tian Suyin entered a trance-like state as she was filled with awe after learning the complexity and prowess of the sword technique, which is now her strongest technique.

Tian Yanyu couldn't help but chuckle after seeing her mother in such a state.

Meanwhile, the others could only swallow their envy and try their best to understand the technique by themselves.

Chapter 1118 A Treasure Has Appeared!

After learning the Moon Splitting Sword Art, both Tian Suyin and Tian Yanyu began performing the technique in front of the spectators there.

The two of them started at the same time while standing only a few meters away from each other. The spectators quickly noticed that their movements were perfectly in sync, almost as though their mind and body were linked to each other at this moment.

The daughter and mother pair danced side by side with a sword in their hand, mesmerizing the spectators. Not only was their sword technique awe-inspiring, the wielders were also fine beauties themselves.

But compared to when Yuan performed the technique, they were still lacking in many ways.

"As expected of a Divine-rank technique, what profound movements... Even with his assistance, it will take a few years for me to fully grasp this technique..." Tian Suyin released a deep sigh after she finished her sword dance.

She turned to look at Yuan with a perplexed expression on her face.

'Just what is his motive? Why is he helping us like this?' Tian Suyin just couldn't stop suspecting Yuan, who came out of the blue and started assisting their family with an obviously fake pretense.

As a cultivator who has experienced many hardships, she was the type to be skeptical about everything. However, Yuan's actions have left her utterly speechless.

She thought at first that his goal was to impress her daughter, Tian Yanyu, but that possibly seemed to be less likely as she spent more time watching him, as he doesn't look at her with lust or anything similar.

'Furthermore, if he truly had ulterior motives, why is he going through so much effort to achieve it when he clearly has enough power to get whatever he wants? Maybe he's genuinely just trying to help us...?' Tian Suyin was beginning to get a headache just thinking about this matter, so she decided to stop for the time being and continue watching Yuan.

Once Tian Yanyu finished her sword dance, she withdrew her sword and turned to look at Yuan with a satisfied and bright smile on her pretty face.

"I really cannot thank you enough for this, Xiao Yang."

"What are you going to do now?" Yuan then asked.

"Well, we were planning to check out the other sites to see if we can comprehend those— at least until a treasure appears."

Every time the Nameless Emperor's Tomb opens, treasures would appear in random areas. This has been happening for so long that it makes one wonder if there's an unlimited amount of treasures within the tomb. And when a treasure appears, a war would break out between multiple factions.

"At least three treasures will appear every opening with nine treasures being the most that have appeared." Tian Yanyu explained.

"Is that so—"

Just as Yuan opened his mouth, someone there shouted, "A treasure has appeared!"

Everybody there turned to look at the person who just spoke while the Sect Leaders and Elders went to gather more information.

"Where is the treasure?!"

"When did it appear?!"

"What kind of treasure is it?!"

The man quickly answered their questions, "A sword treasure appeared near the Stone Sword Valley around 4 hours ago, and it's at least Divine-grade!"

"Divine-grade sword! This is going to cause a bloodbath, and it's even the very first treasure this year!" Tian Yanyu sucked in a cold breath of air after hearing this information.

"Let's go! We must get there before it's too late!"

The Sect Leader of the Blue Swallow Sword Sect shouted at his disciples, and without any hesitation, they all flew towards the south.

The Lightning Sword Academy quickly followed.

"Let's also go. Even though there's a good chance that we won't get it, we must try." Sect Leader Yu Jian said to his disciples.

"What are you going to do, Xiao Yang?" Tian Yanyu asked him.

"I will come along with you for this one."

"Great!"

Thus, Yuan followed the Jade Sword Manor to the Stone Sword Valley, which took them just a little under three days to arrive.

Once they arrived at the location, they could see thousands of cultivators that came before them crowding the place.

The Stone Sword Valley is a vast land that had countless stone swords of various sizes stabbed into the ground, making it seem as though it was a graveyard for swords.

And hovering a few hundred meters in the air within the Stone Sword Valley was a beautiful sword with a red blade.

However, this blade was protected by some kind of aura, making it impossible for anyone there to acquire it yet.

In the Nameless Emperor's Tomb, the saying 'first come first serve' doesn't exist. When a treasure appears, it will be in this unobtainable state for anywhere between three to seven days, allowing everyone the chance to acquire it, hence why the Jade Sword Manor and many other sects bothered to travel to this area despite the time it took them to arrive.

"What a beautiful sword..." Tian Yanyu mumbled in a dazed voice as her eyes were glued to the sword in the air.

"Do you want it?" Yuan asked with a mysterious smile on his face.

She turned to look at him with a smile, "You make it sound like it's an easy thing to do."

Yuan swept the entire place with his divine sense before speaking in a confident voice, "Well, nobody here can stop me if I want to get it."

"Are you serious...?" Tian Yanyu's eyes widened.

There were thousands of powerful cultivators there with multiple Spirit Kings. Even the Silent Rippers wouldn't be able to last a minute if they had to go against everyone there.

"I have no need for the sword, but if you want it, just say the word and I will get it for you."

"Okay..." Tian Yanyu nodded with a slightly rosy face.

"..." Tian Suyin's eyebrows twitched at their interaction, and she couldn't help but feel a little jealousy for her own daughter.

Chapter 1119 Fighting For The Treasure

"Sect Leaders and Family Heads, may I request for a brief meeting to talk about our situation before the treasure unseals itself?" A middle-aged man emanating a powerful aura at the peak Spirit King realm suddenly spoke in a loud and clear voice.

This man was Huang Lee, Sect Leader of a renowned Sect called the Seven Profound Swords, one of the top three Sects within the Third Heaven.

All of the Sect Leaders and Family Heads there gathered below the treasure shortly after.

"I will get straight to the point." Huang Lee spoke a moment later with a solemn expression on his face.

"This treasure will, without a doubt, cause a great deal of trouble for all of us, so I have a suggestion that will reduce the bloodshed. Each Sect and Family here will have three members randomly picked to fight for the treasure in a tournament-style manner. No matter if they are a Spirit Lord or Spirit King, Disciple or Elder, everyone will have a chance to be picked. What do you think? Although it has many flaws, it is better than a full out war this early in the tomb, am I right?"

"If you refuse to participate in this, those who have come to an agreement will work together to deal with them before getting the treasure. I already have Sect Leader Ming and Sect Leader Zhong's agreement, as well as the Li Family and Gu Family's agreement."

The Sect Leaders and Family Heads immediately began pondering.

Sect Leader Ming's sect is ranked 7 while Sect Leader Zhong's Sect is ranked 4th. The Li Family and the Gu Family are from the Seven Legacy Families. If we include Sect Leader Huang Lee's ranked 3rd sect, they had a very good chance of eliminating everyone there if they worked together.

When a treasure appears like this, it is very common for the people there to come up with different solutions to reduce the bloodshed, especially when many strong parties are involved.

After sharing their opinions with each other for several minutes, all of the Sect Leaders and Families there agreed to Huang Lee's suggestion.

"If you are a Rogue Cultivator, you may also participate in the tournament, but you are not allowed to work with other Rogue Cultivators. If you have any questions, you have five minutes to voice them." Huang Lee said as he glared at the Rogue Cultivators there with a disdainful look in his gaze.

The Rogue Cultivators there were not happy about Huang Lee's suggestion that was settled without even including them in the discussion, but there was nothing they could do, as they did not have the power to defy the rules set by those far stronger than them.

"I have a question. Are the chosen allowed to forfeit the match? I cannot imagine forcing a young disciple to fight any of the Seniors here." Yu Jian asked.

Huang Lee nodded, "Of course, you are allowed to forfeit, but you may only do so before you enter the stage. The matches will also be randomized so you won't know who your opponent is until you enter the stage. Furthermore, we are not allowed to pick the participants, so everyone that is present here can be chosen to fight, regardless if they are a disciple or sect leader. If you cannot accept this rule, you may sit out."

"What about those that arrive after the participants are chosen?" Another person asked.

"They won't be allowed to participate. If they dare to intervene, we will all work together to get rid of them."

Half an hour later, once all of the Sect Leaders and Family Heads spoke to their respective people, everyone there agreed to Huang Lee's suggestion.

"Then I will now begin the selection."

Huang Lee retrieved a talisman and showed it to everyone there, "This treasure will randomly pick three people within a certain group. I will allow any Sect Leader and Family Head to inspect this treasure beforehand to make sure there is no foul play here."

Yu Jian and others began taking their turn inspecting the talisman. When they found nothing wrong with it, Huang Lee began the selection process.

One by one, three individuals are picked from the sects and families there.

When an individual is picked, the talisman would shoot out a green beam of light that immediately envelopes the chosen.

Sometime later, it was the Jade Sword Manor's turn.

Everyone associated with the sect swallowed nervously as the talisman shot out its first beam of light.

A moment later, everyone there turned to look at the young woman who had just been chosen.

This young woman's face immediately paled when she realized that she was picked.

"G-Good luck, Senior Sister Wan..."

Disciple Wan Ying was a Core Disciple of the Jade Sword Manor, and she was a 7th level Spirit Lord.

Although she is considered a top talent in her sect, ranking top 5 amongst all Core Disciples, she was akin to an ant in this small tournament, where multiple Spirit King had been chosen to fight.

And before the Jade Sword Manor could even despair, the talisman already picked the second participant amongst their group.

"S-Sect Leader! It picked Sect Leader!"

The disciples rejoiced when Yu Jian had been chosen to participate.

However, Yu Jian himself did not celebrate, at least not until their third fighter was chosen.

A few seconds later, the talisman picked the third and final fighter from the Jade Sword Manor.

When the light was released by the talisman, Yuan followed the light with his gaze. Eventually, he turned his head to look at the beautiful young lady standing beside him with raised eyebrows.

Yu Jian could only sigh in silence after seeing the results.

"X-Xiao Yang... What should I do...?" Tian Yanyu looked at him with a terrified look on her face when she realized that she'd just been chosen. Despite being a Core Disciple, she wasn't any stronger than Wan Ying. In fact, she was amongst the weaker Core Disciples, as she'd only recently become one.

Chapter 1120 Fighting For The Treasure(2)

"Calm down, Yan'er." Tian Suyin said as she smacked her daughter's back.

"Calm down?! I have to fight Spirit Kings if I don't want to become a burden for the sect!" Tian Yanyu frowned.

"You don't have to participate if you don't want to. I won't force you to fight. It's also unreasonable to ask you to fight a Spirit King. We simply got unlucky." Yu Jian appeared and said to her, "Also, with how many powerhouses are present, I had no hopes to acquire the treasure since the beginning."

"They're right. You can simply forfeit the match." Yuan followed.

Once Tian Yanyu calmed down a little, she gritted her teeth and said, "If our opponents aren't at a level where I cannot handle, I will fight too. Although I do not qualify to participate in this event, I won't be a coward either."

Yu Jian smiled after hearing her words, "Good. Even though we have almost no chance of winning this, I still don't plan on going down without a fight. This is no longer just about the treasure. This is about keeping our sect's honor and reputation. We will fight those we can fight and back down if it's too risky."

When it was Huang Lee and the Seven Profound Swords turn for selection, the entire place became dead silent as everyone there nervously waited for the results.

A few moments later, three individuals were chosen.

"What?! All three of their fighters are Spirit Kings! They even have two peak Spirit Kings!"

"Fuck! I bet they cheated!"

"How is cheating even possible? Their talisman had been inspected by every Senior here."

Many people suspected that Huang Lee had cheated, but without any proof, nobody there dared to voice their complaints fearing retaliation.

All of the top sects and powerful families went last in the selection, and shockingly, all of them had insane luck with at least 2 Spirit Kings in their team.

It was clear to all of the small sects and families there that these powerful factions had worked together and manipulated the results somehow, giving themselves a massive advantage.

"Those shameless old bastards never intended on giving us a chance...!" Yu Jian gritted his teeth in anger after seeing the results.

"So we never stood a chance from the beginning, huh? Why am I not surprised?" Tian Yanyu sighed.

Pretty much everyone that wasn't part of the 'lucky group' silently cursed Huang Lee and the others for their shameless actions. However, there was nothing they could do about it. In the first place, they had no solid proof of foul play, and everything was circumstantial at best.

Even if they had proof that Huang Lee had cheated, who was bold enough to say it out loud? Who would dare to raise their voice against the top sects and the Seven Legacy Families? Nobody was foolish enough to throw away their life in such an unwinnable situation, so they could only suck it up and endure it for now.

"How despicable..." Tian Yanyu muttered in a mosquito-like voice.

"I can't say I'm surprised, though." Yuan was the only person there who could smile at this moment.

"I would expect this kind of tactic from other sects, but for the Seven Profound Swords and the Seven Legacy Families to do this... I'm speechless..." Tian Suyin sighed.

"They must really want the sword." Yuan continued to smile.

The selection eventually came to an end, and acting like he was innocent, Huang Lee immediately started the tournament.

"The two sects or families that will be fighting will also be randomized. The talisman will now choose two sects to fight." Huang Lee said as he poured some of his spiritual energy into the talisman, causing two beams of light to appear, picking two parties from the dozens of groups there.

"Once you step onto the stage, you can no longer forfeit, just like a real deathmatch. This is not like your usual playground. There is no room for mercy here. If you value your life, forfeit now." Huang Lee said to them.

"..."

The two parties stared at each other.

"I forfeit."

"Me too."

Both parties forfeited all three of their matches.

"What's the point of risking our lives when we don't even have a chance to acquire the treasure? Who's dumb enough to do that?"

Many people had this thought inside their mind.

Since Huang Lee and the top factions manipulated the whole thing, they no longer had any motivation to participate in the tournament for the treasure.

The next several matches also resulted in forfeits from both sides.

"How boring." Huang Lee sneered with an arrogant look on his face.

With everyone that doesn't have at least 2 Spirit Kings in their team forfeiting, the tournament progressed with barely any pauses.

Eventually, it was the Jade Sword Manor's turn to enter the stage.

"Our opponents also have two Spirit Lords and one Spirit King. Do you two want to fight despite knowing that it is a pointless fight?" Yu Jian asked Tian Yanyu and Wan Ying.

"I want to fight..." Wan Ying said with a resolute expression on her face.

"Even if you might be paired up with the Spirit King and die? Even if your efforts won't be rewarded?" Yu Jian asked.

Wan Ying nodded.

"What about you, Disciple Tian?" Yu Jian shifted his attention to her.

"It's going to be a difficult fight for you even if you aren't paired with the Spirit King. Nobody will blame you for forfeiting."

"..." Tian Yanyu remained silent.

She wanted to try out her new sword technique, but she wasn't prepared to risk her life over something like this. However, she also couldn't refuse, as she didn't want to feel like a coward.

"If you want to fight, go ahead." Yuan suddenly said to her.

"Huh?" Tian Yanyu looked at him with a puzzled face.

"Y-You! Are you telling my daughter to die?!" Tian Suyin immediately began fuming.

"Relax. As long as I am here, nobody can kill her." Yuan smiled.

He turned to look at Tian Yanyu and continued, "Don't you want to see how powerful your new technique is?"

"I do..." She nodded in a dazed manner.

"Then do it. I will protect you no matter what, I promise."

After her recent experience with Yuan, Tian Yanyu had gained blind faith in him, so she didn't even question how he was going to protect her before so many experts.

"Alright, I will fight." She said in a resolute voice the following moment.

"Are you serious?! How can you believe him so easily?!" Tian Suyin was still doubtful.

"Because he promised." Tian Yanyu responded with an innocent smile, leaving her speechless.

And before Tian Suyin could say anything else, Tian Yanyu approached the stage.

"I'm sorry..." Yu Jian said to Tian Suyin before going after Tian Yanyu.

"If my daughter dies here because of you, I swear I will kill you with my own hands..." Tian Suyin glared at Yuan.

"And I won't resist if that really happens." Yuan said with a confident expression on his face.

"..."

"Do you plan on acquiring that sword for her, Young Master?" Feng Yuxiang suddenly asked him in a curious voice.

"It would pair up nicely with her new technique, don't you think so?" Yuan chuckled.

"You're spoiling her too much... I'm a little envious." Feng Yuxiang could only shake her head inwardly.

Chapter 1121 Fighting For The Treasure(3)

Once the Jade Sword Manor and their opponents entered the fighting arena, Huang Lee enclosed them in a separate concealment formation so that they couldn't see anything.

Shortly after they entered the formation, Huang Lee's talisman released a beam of light that shone into the formation, enveloping whoever it was pointing at with a slight glow. However, nobody but the three people inside the formation knew who was chosen.

"You have 10 seconds to decide whether you want to fight or forfeit. Remember, you will forfeit your chance to surrender once you exit the formation and enter the stage." Huang Lee's voice resounded in their ears.

"Sect Leader, I will fight." Disciple Wan Ying said with a resolute expression on her face as her body was enveloped in a faint light.

Yu Jian nodded his head with a serious face, "Good luck."

"I will be back soon." After bowing to him, Disciple Wan Ying left the formation and came face to face with her opponent.

"Thank the Heavens my opponent is not their Spirit King..." Disciple Wan Ying sighed in relief inwardly after seeing her opponent, who was only a single level above her.

Her opponent also did the same.

"As you've already seen many times by now, the fight will begin when the talisman activates, and it will not end until there is only one of you left standing." Huang Lee said to them in a nonchalance voice, almost as though he couldn't care less about their insignificant life.

The two fighters took a moment to prepare themselves.

A few seconds later, the talisman hovering above the arena suddenly shone brightly, signaling the start of the fight.

Whoosh!

Both fighters immediately rushed at each other while using their respective techniques.

Their swords and spiritual energy clashed, causing a powerful ripple to sweep the place.

The two of them would go back and forth for many minutes with neither of them slowing down.

Once Disciple Wan Ying eventually started getting pushed back, she quickly retrieved a pill and tossed it inside her mouth.

Under normal circumstances, the use of pills and treasures during a one-on-one match would be strictly forbidden, but their situation was a bit special. Even though they were in a tournament-style match, there were almost no rules, almost as though they were following the rules of the jungle, where one can use whatever advantage they have to win their fight or die trying.

When Disciple Wan Ying's opponent saw her actions, he also started consuming pills.

Since they were able to consume pills to restore their strength, the two of them would continue to go all out, unleashing all of their strength to suppress each other without holding back, almost like two sprinters near the end of a race.

After five whole minutes of fighting, Disciple Wan Ying managed to catch her opponent off guard, sending him to the afterlife with a quick slash in the neck.

Disciple Wan Ying took a deep breath before walking off the platform and returning to the concealment formation without even trying to celebrate her narrow victory.

When Yu Jian and Tian Yanyu saw Disciple Wan returning, their lips immediately curved into a smile.

"You did it!" Tian Yanyu was ecstatic to see that her fellow disciple had survived.

"Great job, Disciple Wan." Yu Jian nodded in acknowledgement.

However, before she could even say anything, the talisman activated again, picking the second fighter.

"..."

Yu Jian and Wan Ying turned to look at Tian Yanyu, who was now being enveloped by a light.

"You don't have to fight. There's a fifty-fifty chance that you'll have to fight their Spirit King. It's too risky." Yu Jian sighed out loud.

But to his surprise, Tian Yanyu shook her head and said, "No matter who may be my opponent, I still want to fight."

"Why would you do something so brave yet foolish? Unlike Disciple Wan, you only recently became a Core Disciple. You will have a hard time defeating their Spirit Lord, much less their Spirit King." Yu Jian frowned.

Tian Yanyu responded with a gentle smile on her face, "Because nothing will happen to me. He promised."

And without waiting for a response, as her time limit was reaching its end, Tian Yanyu stepped outside of the formation to face her opponent.

"..."

Tian Yanyu's eyebrows twitched when she saw a middle-aged man standing on the opposite side of the stage, and he was emanating the aura of a peak Spirit King!

'Looks like I had picked the short end of the straw...' She sighed inwardly.

"That idiot!" Tian Suyin cursed in a low voice when she saw her own daughter entering the stage. "Why didn't she just forfeit?!"

"Don't expect me to go easy on you just because you're a junior." The Spirit King on the stage said as he glared at Tian Yanyu.

"I wasn't counting on you to, anyway." After putting on a brave expression, Tian Yanyu retrieved her sword.

'I only have one chance to defeat him... At the beginning of the fight when he least expects it!' She had already planned on going all out straight from the beginning. After all, she wouldn't even last a minute against a peak Spirit King.

The moment the talisman shone, Tian Yanyu used her movement technique to close their distance before activating her new technique, Moon Splitting Sword Art.

Perhaps it was due to his arrogance, but the Spirit King didn't move and only quietly watched as Tian Yanyu unleashed her technique.

"!!!"

The Spirit King's eyes widened with surprise when a semi-transparent moon suddenly appeared behind Tian Yanyu.

The disciples from the Jade Sword Manor immediately recognized this technique, as they were mesmerized by its beauty not too long ago.

"A Divine-rank technique!"

A handful of people there exclaimed when they sensed the aura the technique emitted, their faces filled with surprise. After all, it was incredibly rare for people outside the Seven Legacy Families and the top sects to techniques above Heaven-rank.

Whoosh!

Tian Yanyu quickly swung her sword at her opponent, who was taken by surprise for a split second because of her technique.

Her blade managed to reach the Spirit King's body, but it could only leave behind a small cut before the Spirit King evaded the rest of her blade.

The Spirit King looked at the cut on his arm and trembled in anger.

"A mere Spirit Lord... I'll fucking kill you!"

The Spirit King exploded with spiritual energy and killing intent, causing Tian Yanyu to feel as though she was being choked by the throat.

"DIE!"

The Spirit King swung his weapon, sending a massive arc of energy at Tian Yanyu, who couldn't even attempt to dodge it due to the pressure from it.

'Xiao Yang...!' She cried inwardly.

Whoosh!

A figure suddenly flew onto the stage and stood in front of Tian Yanyu.

This shocked everyone there, not because he intervened in the match, but because they were unable to follow this person's movement at all.

After appearing on the stage, Yuan causally waved his hand at the incoming blade of energy, destroying it the moment his skin touched it, almost as though the blade of energy was nothing more than empty air.

"What?!" The Spirit King exclaimed in a shocked voice after witnessing this, even feeling a little scared.

Chapter 1122 Fighting For The Treasure(4)

'Did he just stop my technique at full power with his bare hands?! Impossible! I must have seen it wrong!' The Spirit King convinced himself that he was just mistaken, as that was the simpler route.

"Who are you? How dare you interrupt our match?" The Spirit King asked with a wary face.

"Hmph!" A cold snort suddenly resounded, and a figure descended on the stage, standing between Yuan and the Spirit King.

"I don't care who you are, how dare you so brazenly interfere when I have made it very clear that no interference is allowed regardless of the reason! I hope you are prepared to take responsibility for your foolish decision." Huang Lee glared at Yuan like an eagle at a weak prey.

Yuan calmly smiled before responding, "And why would you assume that everyone here will obey your unreasonable request?"

"You, a mere junior, dare talk back to me?! Have you lost your mind? Do you even know who I am?!" Huang Lee's eyes flared up with anger.

"I don't know, nor do I care. Anyways, why don't we stop this obviously manipulated game? It's clear to everyone here that you had manipulated the whole thing to give yourself— as well as those that planned this with you an advantage over the others. What you're doing here is no different than bullying the weak."

"How dare you accuse the Sect Leader of manipulation!" Someone there suddenly shouted.

"Are you also claiming that the Seven Legacy Families here are bullying the weak?!" Someone from one of the families shouted.

"How interesting. Do you have any evidence to back up your preposterous claims?"

Another figure descended on the stage as he asked Yuan.

This individual was Li Mao, a high-ranking elder of the Li Family, one of Seven Legacy Families.

"What if I don't?" Yuan narrowed his eyes in a challenging manner.

"Then I will kill you on the spot for uttering nonsense and trying to ruin our reputations." Li Mao glared at him.

Yuan smiled, "You're going to kill me for interfering with the match anyway."

"Damn right."

Huang Lee muttered right as he appeared beside Yuan while swinging down his sword.

Without moving for his spot, Yuan lifted his arm in a casual manner, and he would catch the incoming sword with nothing but two fingers the following moment.

"Wha—?!"

This shocked everyone there, especially Huang Lee.

Even though he didn't exert all of his strength, it was still strong enough to kill anyone below the fifth level of Spirit King with ease, yet some unknown junior had managed to catch it with his bare hands.

Yuan turned to look at the shocked Huang Lee and spoke in a nonchalant voice, "Unlike you, I don't want unnecessary bloodshed, so I will give you a chance to back down before things get—"

However, before Yuan could even finish his sentence, another sword was already flying at him from his blind spot.

Yuan knew about the second attack, but he didn't do anything about it and allowed this person to slice his neck.

"My heavens..."

The person who attempted to sneak attack Yuan was left speechless when his sword was stopped at his target's neck, but there didn't appear to be anything blocking the sword.

Yuan, still with a sword pressing against his neck, turned to look at Li Mao's terrified face and spoke, "I hope you understand the difference in our strength and not do anything—"

Once again, before he could finish his sentence, another figure descended upon him.

This time, it was a middle-aged man wearing the Gu Family's uniform, and he was also using a sword technique.

"Roaring Blade!"

The strength of a peak Spirit King using a Heaven-rank sword technique descended upon Yuan's defenseless figure.

"At least let me finish my sentences."

Yuan's eyes suddenly flickered golden for half a second before returning to normal.

Thud!

The middle-aged man suddenly stopped his attack mid-air and collapsed on the floor while his sword bounced away.

Seeing this, both Huang Lee and Li Mao instinctively jumped back, landing beside the unconscious body on the stage.

"W-What did you just do to him?!" Huang Lee roared at Yuan.

"He must have used a spiritual technique!" Li Mao gritted his teeth.

"Don't worry, he's not dead— at least not yet." Yuan said.

"Since you care so much about this event, let's do it like this instead. Starting from now, anyone here can challenge me to a match, and if they win, they will get to take the treasure above. If nobody can defeat me before the treasure is unsealed, I will take it for myself. Of course, to make this fair, I will allow you to team up. I won't mind even if everyone here attacks me at once."

"However..."

After a brief pause, an immense pressure that trampled on the people and their spirits appeared out of thin air.

"If you decide to fight me, you will forfeit your life. You have been warned."

The entire place fell silent with the only thing that could be heard being the sound of their own hearts beating anxiously.

"W-Who are you?" Huang Lee muttered in a low voice after a long moment of silence.

Yuan couldn't help but show a mocking smile, "I thought you didn't care about my identity?"

Huang Lee gritted his teeth. He's never felt such humiliation before.

"How dare you mock me?! DIE!!!"

Huang Lee swung his sword at Yuan with a Divine-rank technique.

"Profound Sword Art— Final Strike!"

The sword flying towards Yuan had overwhelming pressure that could be felt even miles away.

Yuan could only sigh inwardly as he retrieved his Empyrean Overlord before swinging back.

The following moment, everyone there watched with wide eyes as Huang Lee's body was sent flying off the stage and into the crowd.

Cough

Huang Lee coughed up a mouthful of blood as he stared at Yuan with a look of disbelief on his face.

"What are you all waiting for?! Attack him!" He snapped at his own disciples, who hesitated to attack.

After all, what can they do when even their own sect leader couldn't win?

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 1123 Fighting For The Treasure(5)

"A-Attack!" The Elders eventually snapped out of it and shouted before rushing at Yuan.

When the disciples saw the Elders moving, they had no choice but to follow.

Thus, everyone from the Seven Profound Swords began attacking Yuan, who merely shook his head in silence.

[God of War's Astral Art]

A large figure wielding a massive blade appeared behind Yuan, and despite it being larger than before, it wasn't even at half of its full strength.

"W-What kind of technique is that?!" The disciples screamed in horror as they hastily halted their movements.

However, they were already in attack range, so all Yuan had to do was swing his sword.

"Don't say I didn't warn you!" Yuan exclaimed as he swung his sword.

A powerful force that seemed to be strong enough to sweep away even mountains clashed against the disciples, and without any resistance, the Seven Profound Swords' disciples were sent flying like swatted flies.

In a single attack, over half of their disciples were gone.

This shook the cores of those watching.

Yuan turned to look at his avatar and mumbled, "Even 20 percent is still a little too strong, huh..."

His soul strength has grown so much in such a short amount of time that he was having trouble controlling it.

After devastating the Seven Profound Swords, Yuan spoke again, "If you wish to continue, attack me again. However, I will make sure that none of you survive the next strike."

The disciples that survived the attack trembled on the spot, and their already lacking motivation disappeared completely.

The Elders from the Li Family and the Gu Family exchanged glances with each other.

After a moment of silence, they approached Yuan and gave him a courteous bow.

"Junior, do you happen to be someone from 'up there'?" The Li Family's elder asked him with a nervous face.

Yuan smiled inwardly when he realized that they had mistaken him as someone who came from the upper heavens under the Celestial Emperor's request.

Though, one cannot blame them for making this mistake, as it would only make sense for someone as young as Yuan to utterly destroy the Seven Profound Swords without any effort.

"What are you going to do if I am from 'up there'?" Yuan asked them without the slightest change to his expression.

"Forgive us for not recognizing your identity sooner, Young Master. The Gu Family will no longer participate in this event. If you wish, we can even assist you in securing the treasure." The Gu Family's Elder bowed to him again.

"You think the Young Master needs your help? What an unnecessary offer. He can secure the treasure by himself." The Li Family's Elder sneered.

The Gu Family's Elder gritted his teeth after hearing such words. The two families were never on good terms in the beginning, so this kind of bickering happens often.

Meanwhile, the other people there were amazed to see how quickly the Li Family and Gu Family changed their attitude.

"Just what is that person's identity for the Seven Legacy Families to be so respectful towards him?"

"Does 'up there' mean he's from the upper heavens? Why would someone like that be down here?"

"Although it's not common nowadays, people from the upper heavens used to come down here regularly solely to explore the Nameless Emperor's Tomb."

"Look at his uniform. Isn't that the Jade Sword Manor's uniform for esteemed guests?"

Tian Yanyu and Tian Suyin were left speechless after hearing the peoples' conversation. They had their suspicions that Yuan was someone from the upper heavens due to his unfathomable talent and strength, but this only made things more confusing for them.

Why would someone from the upper heavens help them to such an extent? Does his ancestor really owe their ancestor a debt, or is he helping them for a different reason?

'Regardless of his reasons, I'm glad he's on our side...' Tian Yanyu sighed inwardly, as she cannot imagine having someone like Yuan as an enemy.

When the Li Family and the Gu Family stepped back, nobody else dared to approach Yuan. As for Huang Lee, who'd barely managed to survive the attack, snuck away with his disciples in the midst of the commotion.

While he waited for the treasure to unseal itself, Yuan sat on the stage and closed his eyes.

"He's cultivating out in the open like this? Is he bold or insane? Even if he's powerful, to act so defenseless before so many people... What a mad lad."

"Arrogant bastard..."

Despite Yuan cultivating out in the open, nobody there actually dared to attack him.

About two hours later, news of another treasure appearing not far away began spreading, and those at Yuan's location immediately scrambled to the new location for obvious reasons.

Shortly after the news reached their location, everyone including the Jade Sword Manor left the scene, leaving Yuan alone with the treasure, which is unheard of within the Nameless Emperor's Tomb.

"Why didn't you leave with your sect?" Yuan stopped his cultivation to ask Tian Yanyu, who'd stayed behind even after her sect left to fight for the next treasure.

"I just didn't want to leave you alone." She calmly said.

"How about you?" Yuan turned to look at Tian Suyin, who also stayed behind for whatever reason.

"You think I'm going to leave my daughter alone with someone as suspicious as you?" She sneered.

Yuan merely smiled at her remarks.

"By the way, can I ask you a question?" Tian Yanyu suddenly asked.

"Sure."

"Are you really from... 'up there'?" She asked him with a somewhat nervous expression.

"You mean the upper heavens? Nope."

"What?! But you..."

"I know. I lied." He shrugged.

Tian Yanyu was speechless.

"I'm glad they didn't question you further..."

Suddenly, the treasure in the air began pulsating with powerful ripples.

"Does this mean it's unsealing?" Yuan asked.

"Yes."

The very next moment, the barrier protecting the sword shattered, and the sword began descending towards the ground.

However, Yuan didn't move even after the sword was lying on the ground.

"What are you waiting for?" Tian Suyin asked him with raised eyebrows.

"I have no use for it. You can have it," he calmly said, causing her eyes to widen with shock.

Chapter 1124 Nine Swords Trial

"S-Surely, you're jesting with us..." Tian Yanyu mumbled in a trembling voice.

"No, not at all. Take it. I have no need for a Divine-grade sword since I already have a much better one." Yuan calmly shook his head.

"..."

After a moment of silence, Tian Suyin spoke with a deep frown on her face, "Okay, what do you want from us?"

"What do you mean?"

"Are you telling me that you're going to hand over a Divine-grade treasure for free? I don't believe it. Sounds too good to be true."

Yuan shrugged, "Then I will leave it there and whoever is lucky enough will get it."

When she heard such words, Tian Suyin immediately rushed to pick up the sword before throwing it into her spatial ring.

"I guess I'm the fortunate one," she said with a stiff expression.

"Mother..." Tian Yanyu was left speechless by her actions.

"What are you looking at? He's the one who said he'd leave it there for anyone to pick up."

"Since you want it that badly, you can have it." Yuan smiled.

Tian Suyin cleared her throat but didn't say anything.

'I'm glad I stayed behind...' she smiled inwardly.

"What are you going to do now?" Tian Yanyu asked him. "Are you going to participate in the next treasure hunt as well?"

"No, I came here mostly just to make sure you were fine. Now that's done, I think I am going to do some exploring myself."

"I see..."

Tian Yanyu pondered for a brief second before opening her mouth again, "Do you mind if I followed you for a little?"

"Yanyu! You don't even know what kind of dangerous place he's going to! You're just going to be a burden!" Tian Suyin quickly rejected her request.

"I know, which is why I will only follow him until he leaves the outer area."

The Nameless Emperor's Tomb is split into three sections by the people; the outer area where it's the least dangerous; the inner area where only geniuses dare to enter; last but not least, the core area, a hellish area where most people that enter will never return.

"If it's just the outer area..." Tian Suyin felt a little more at ease after hearing this.

Furthermore, she wasn't completely opposed to following Yuan, as he was definitely powerful enough to protect them— even doing a much better job than the entirety of the Jade Sword Manor by himself.

Yuan began wandering the Nameless Emperor's Tomb shortly after while Tian Yanyu and Tian Suyin followed him from behind.

"There are actually a few places that I want to visit. In no particular order, the Sword Temple, Nine Swords Trial, and the Sword Pagoda." Yuan mumbled out loud as they moved.

"I've been to the Sword Pagoda once, but I was only able to make it to the third floor before getting kicked out." Tian Suyin sighed as she recalled her memories.

"What's the Sword Pagoda, again? I know I heard it before." Tian Yanyu asked.

"The Sword Pagoda is a place where you must climb seven floors by defeating the opponent on each floor. The higher floor you reach, the greater the reward. However, this place is immensely difficult. The highest anyone has ever climbed is only 5 floors."

"You managed to reach the third floor, right? What kind of treasure did you acquire?" Yuan asked out of curiosity.

"My cultivation increased by three levels in an instant, and I received a Heaven-rank movement technique."

"What?! One can increase their cultivation by three levels after clearing just a single floor?! That alone is already super good, not to mention the Heaven-rank technique!" Tian Yanyu was brimming with excitement.

"Perhaps, but 70 percent of participants cannot even pass the first floor, much less the second floor. About 10 percent of all participants can clear the second floor, but less than one percent will be able to clear the third. As for the fourth and fifth floor, less than 10 people have made it there."

"What kind of enemies did you fight?" Tian Yanyu continued to ask.

"A masked cultivator."

"Like the Nameless Emperor?" Yuan raised an eyebrow.

"No, they didn't have the same aura as the Nameless Emperor. Also, the masks they wore were different. You'll understand what I mean once you go there and face them yourself."

Yuan nodded.

The Nine Swords Trial was the nearest to their current location, so Yuan decided to go there first.

After three days of traveling nonstop, they finally arrived at their destination.

"So this is the Nine Swords Trial, huh..." Yuan mumbled as he stared at the large platform in the distance.

This platform was not as large as one would expect. It was about 5 meters in length and diameter, and there was a large statue standing not far away from it.

This statue was of a man wearing a mask, and he was holding the handle of a sword with both hands in front of him with the blade of the sword pointing directly horizontally at the sky.

Currently, this platform was surrounded by at least a hundred people, and there was even a single person standing on the platform.

However, the person standing on the platform appeared to be in dismay. His body was dripping with blood, and his expression looked as though he was on the verge of collapsing, but his gaze remained fixated at the statue before him.

The next moment, Yuan watched as an illusionary blade appeared in the sky before descending upon the man on the platform.

BOOM!

The attack caused the surrounding land to tremble while the people around the platform were pushed back by the force.

Once the dust settled, one could see that the man on the platform had been cleanly sliced in half.

However, nobody there seemed to be surprised, almost as though it was a common sight.

A few more moments later, the corpse and blood on the platform vaporized into the air, leaving not even a trace behind.

Chapter 1125 Nine Swords Trial(2)

"How gruesome..." Tian Yanyu mumbled in a low voice after seeing what had happened to the man on the platform.

"Do you have any experience at this place, Senior?" Yuan suddenly asked.

"Does it look like I have a death wish? This place has one of the highest death rates in the outer area. No matter how good the reward is, it's simply too risky for me."

"Let's get a closer look." Yuan approached the crowd.

"I told him that he was biting more than he could chew. He should've stopped after enduring the third strike."

Yuan listened to the conversations being held by the people there.

"What a waste of talent."

"He was a disciple from the Thousand Saber Manor, right?"

"Yeah, he was one of their top 10 disciples, too."

"What a pity."

"A pity indeed."

By the time Yuan arrived at the platform, another individual was already on the platform and preparing for the trial.

"There will be a total of nine strikes."

A familiar voice suddenly resounded in the area.

Yuan turned to look at the statue, where the voice was echoing from.

"The more strikes you survive, the better the rewards. Once the sword appears, it will not disappear until it strikes the platform. You may step out of the platform at any time."

"The first sword will descend in five... four... three..."

When the voice counted down to zero, a massive sword appeared in front of the statue and slashed at the individual on the platform.

This sword bore immense pressure that could split even a mountain.

The man on the platform was at the 5th level of Spirit King, yet he could barely keep his eyes open before the pressure.

BOOM!

The ground shook once again as the massive sword struck the platform.

Once the dust settled, the people could see that the man had survived the strike, but his arms were already bleeding.

"The second sword will descend within five..."

Five seconds later, another sword appeared, and it was clearly a size larger than the previous.

"The second strike is about 1.5 times stronger than the first." Tian Suyin mumbled as the sword descended on the man for the second time.

BOOM!

The ground shook slightly harder this time.

When the spectators could see the man again, it was clear to them that he was already at his limit, as both of his arms were broken with the bones sticking out and all.

"The third sword will descend within—"

Before the voice could even finish his sentence, the man jumped off the stage.

The following moment, orbs of light would emerge from the statue, entering the man who had just endured two strikes.

The man's aura immediately spiked as his cultivation rapidly strengthened, reaching the 7th level Spirit King in the time it took to take a deep breath. Furthermore, his injuries were completely healed.

"Heavens... his cultivation increased by two levels just like that? Since when did cultivation become so easy?" Tian Yanyu mumbled in a dazed voice.

"If you think it's so easy, why don't you get on the stage and try it yourself?" Tian Suyin sneered at her ignorant remarks.

"I-I will watch for a little longer..." She quickly responded.

Yuan agreed with her and proceeded to watch several more people challenge the Nine Swords Trial.

"So the strength of each strike differs from person to person... As expected, this place tests one's potential, not their achievements." He mumbled in a low voice.

In the end, out of 15 participants, two people had managed to endure 2 strikes, four people endured 1 strike, and the other nine people died from the first strike.

"Are you going to participate?" Yuan turned to look at Tian Yanyu.

"Can you guarantee that I won't die?" She asked in response.

"I can't." Yuan answered without hesitation.

"Then I won't. As enticing as the reward is, this is a little too risky even for me, especially when the trial is different for everyone. What about you? You're going to participate, right?"

He nodded, "Yes, I am going to participate."

"Good luck." Tian Yanyu didn't bother saying any unnecessary words since she knew that it would only be a waste of breath.

She trusted Yuan and his strength and that was all it mattered.

After waiting for several more people to go, Yuan finally decided to enter the stage.

'Even though my cultivation won't increase from this, my instincts tell me that there's something more important than that here.'

Yuan took a deep breath before retrieving the Empyrean Overlord.

"The first sword will descend in five... four... three..."

"Two... one..."

A sword appeared before Yuan, but there was something different about this sword.

Compared to the swords that appeared previously, this sword was not semi-transparent and was completely solid, just like a real sword.

Moreover, the size of this sword was shockingly large— so massive that it was several times bigger than the statue itself.

"Heavens! What's with the size of that sword?! It's just his first strike, yet it's already bigger than the fourth strike for that Thousand Saber Manor's disciple!"

"Is there something wrong with the trial, or is there something special about that young man?!"

"I have witnessed every trial here for the last 100 years, but I have never seen anything like this before!"

"R-Run! Heaven knows how destructive it will be! We'll all get caught up in it at this rate!" Someone there suddenly shouted.

Upon hearing such words, everyone there immediately began scrambling away, running as far away as they could before the sword descended.

Meanwhile, Yuan stood as still as a statue on the platform with a resolute expression on his face.

The sword began descending towards Yuan the following second, creating a force so powerful that it split all of the nearby clouds halfway before impact, creating a clear blue sky in an instant.

Despite the immense pressure bearing down on him, Yuan swung the Empyrean Overlord at the sword in the sky with seemingly no effort at all, and there was even a slight smile on his face.

Chapter 1126 Nine Swords Trial(3)

The moment Yuan's Empyrean Overlord clashed with the first sword, an intense ripple swept the area while lifting a layer of the ground into the air.

When the spectators saw this, they sighed in relief knowing that they'd made the right decision by distancing themselves from the platform.

Once the dust settled and the spectators could finally see the situation on the platform, they were surprised to see an uninjured figure standing there.

"H-He actually managed to survive that?"

"And he doesn't even seem a bit fazed! What a monster!"

Before the spectators could even fully grasp the situation, the second sword appeared, and it was almost two times bigger than the first sword.

This stunned the spectators. If the second sword is already this massive, would the later swords fill the entire sky?

A few seconds later, the second sword descended from the sky, creating an even stronger ripple.

BOOM!

The entire ground shook and everyone could feel themselves being lifted off the ground for a brief second.

"Good lord! The sword may be twice as big, but the strength is at least three times stronger than the previous sword!"

"And this is only the strength of the second sword?! There's no way he's going to survive the next one!"

After blocking the second strike, Yuan could feel a slight tingly sensation in his hands, but such a thing can be neglected completely.

'The second strike is already this powerful... What's the ninth strike going to be like?' Yuan couldn't help but wonder to himself.

"The third strike will descend within 5... 4... 3..."

Yuan quickly cleared his mind and focused on the situation at hand.

"Hah!"

Yuan swung the Empyrean Overlord upwards, clashing with the colossal sword in the sky.

CLANG!

The spectators that believed they were in a safe distance were quickly swept up by the force and sent tumbling even further away.

By now, the entire platform was shattered, and there were fissures all around the area, looking as though a war had taken place there.

Once the dust settled, the people were able to see Yuan's condition, and to nobody's surprise, he wasn't in perfect shape this time.

The clothes around his arm were torn, and his arm was soaked in blood. Despite this, Yuan wasn't actually in any serious condition, and the injuries on his arm instantly healed due to his perfect regeneration.

However, Yuan would be lying if he'd said that he wasn't nervous about the remaining six strikes.

'I haven't felt this nervous in a while...' He smiled inwardly, feeling a sudden urge of excitement coursing through his profound veins.

When the fourth sword appeared in the sky, Yuan swallowed nervously. As expected, the sword had grown in size, and it was even emitting Sword Qi this time.

'If I want to defeat this trial, I will need to use more than just my raw strength.'

"That sword is exuding Sword Qi! This is my first time seeing this!"

"I have never even heard about this before!"

As the fourth sword descended, Yuan's eyes flickered with a profound light, and his aura exploded outwards.

[Vanishing Ghost's Soundless Blade!]

The Empyrean Overlord was cloaked in a thin yet dense layer of Sword Qi before it was sent flying at the incoming sword.

BOOM!

Hundreds of sword lights scattered in all directions from the Sword Qi's impact, terrifying the spectators who scrambled to dodge it.

A few were not so lucky and were struck by the sword light. Fortunately, nobody lost their lives, but their bodies were badly injured, and it was as though they were struck by a real sword.

"M-Mother! Are you okay?!" Tian Yanyu's heart skipped a beat when she noticed Tian Suyin's arm bleeding.

"I am fine. It's just a scratch." She nodded. "Anyways, let's get further away. Something tells me that this will only get worse. We'll die at this rate."

The spectators scattered like flies once again.

'That one was painful...' Yuan sighed inwardly after blocking the fourth strike, which had cost him both of his arms.

Most would consider Yuan to be crippled now that both of his arms are broken, but within seconds, his perfect regeneration kicked in and restored his arms to its original state.

This monstrous healing ability terrified the spectators who were beginning to wonder if Yuan was even human.

The fifth sword appeared shortly after, and to everyone's surprise, there was no longer just one sword in the air, but two, and they were both big enough to cover the sky.

"Heavens... There are two swords now? There's no freaking way this is possible..."

The spectators were in a daze as their eyes stared blankly at the covered sky.

Yuan took a deep breath after seeing this.

"Young Master... I don't doubt your abilities, but this is..." Feng Yuxiang spoke up in a worried tone.

"I'm not giving up when I'm not even halfway through the whole thing." Yuan said with a nervous smile on his face.

"Why are you pushing yourself this hard? What could possibly be worth risking your life?"

"I don't know, but I will find out soon."

Yuan could only hear a defeated sigh from Feng Yuxiang before he swung the Emyrean Overlord at the two swords in the sky that was descending at the same time.

"Young Master!"

"Brother Yuan!"

Those watching from within his body cried out loud when they saw his arms flying off his body.

Yuan gritted his teeth as intense pain circulated throughout his body.

"This isn't as bad as when I first experienced body tempering..." He muttered as his arms quickly regenerated.

"Holy shit! Did you see that?! His severed arms regenerated almost instantly! What kind of technique is that?!" The spectators were more impressed by his regenerating abilities than his strength that endured the fifth strike.

Of course, most of them were terrified, as they doubted whether Yuan was human or actually a demon in disguise.

"Impressive."

A calm voice suddenly resounded in the area, catching everyone off guard.

Chapter 1127 Nine Swords Trial(4)

Yuan looked around after hearing this familiar voice, and he quickly noticed that a figure had suddenly appeared in front of him.

This figure was wearing an ordinary mask, yet his body was oozing with an overwhelming aura that naturally made everyone there revere him.

"T-That's the Nameless Emperor! The Nameless Emperor has shown up!"

A few spectators quickly recognized this masked man's identity.

"What do you want?" Yuan calmly asked him.

"Nothing much. I'm just here to congratulate you for surviving through half of my nine swords. Only eight people have achieved this before you, so you're the ninth. A fitting number, don't you think?"

And he continued, "However, do you know how many people have survived the 6th sword? Zero."

"If you wish to survive more than five strikes, you'll need to do more. Think outside the box. I will give you five minutes to think— that is if you still want to challenge me."

The masked figure disappeared into the air as suddenly as he appeared.

'Think outside the box, huh...'

Yuan turned to look at the statue and recalled the previous five strikes.

Two minutes later, he sat on the uneven ground and closed his eyes as countless images flashed by his mind.

'I see... I finally understand the true purpose of this place.'

When Yuan opened his eyes, it shone with enlightenment.

"The sixth strike will descend within 5..."

The countdown started again, and three massive swords appeared in the sky above him.

Yuan took a deep breath and stood in a stance that he'd never done before.

A few seconds later, all three swords slashed at Yuan's tiny body that was like an ant's in comparison.

A vicious aura exuded from the Empyrean Overlord and Yuan.

[Nine Supreme Swords!]

"First Sword Strike!" Yuan muttered as he unleashed his first strike, sending an unfathomable sword light towards the sky.

CLANG!

All three swords in the sky disappeared the instant they clashed with Yuan's technique.

<You have learned Nine Supreme Swords>

[Nine Supreme Swords]

[Rank: Mythic]

[Mastery Level: 1]

[Description: A supreme sword art that consists of nine different strikes, each stronger than the next. Legend has it that the ninth strike has the prowess to cut even gods.]

After destroying the sixth strike, Yuan sneered, "That was the sixth strike? What a scam. In reality, that was only as strong as the third strike of the real technique."

Now that he understood the technique, Yuan realized the true prowess of the Nine Supreme Swords.

Although the Nine Swords Trial claimed the previous attack to be the sixth strike, it was actually not even half of the technique's true potential. After all, this was only a test. If the real technique was displayed, nobody would be able to pass it— not even Yuan himself.

"What kind of sword technique did he just use?! It totally obliterated the three swords!"

The spectators almost couldn't believe their eyes. After all, Yuan had barely survived 2 swords, yet he'd somehow destroyed 3 swords with ease? That didn't make sense no matter how they looked at it.

"Not bad. You grasped the true purpose of this trial. Since it has come to this, let's just skip all the way to the last strike since it wouldn't make much of a difference."

The Nameless Emperor's voice resounded again.

Suddenly, a sword appeared in the sky.

However, there was only a single sword, and its size was that of an ordinary sword.

This puzzled the spectators greatly, as it looked like the trial had given up to them.

Naturally that wasn't the case, and Yuan knew that very well.

While this single ordinary-looking sword may seem insignificant to the others, it looked like an indomitable mountain to Yuan.

'Looks like I will have to go all out if I don't want to lose my life here...' He swallowed nervously.

Whoosh!

Yuan activated God of War's Astral Arts while using all of his soul strength, making the avatar as big as a mountain.

"Heavens! This guy is full of unfathomable techniques!"

The spectators fell to their butts after seeing his avatar that covered the sky more than the swords did.

"Whenever you're ready." The Nameless Emperor spoke again.

Yuan gritted his teeth and swung at the statue before him, utilizing the God of War's Astral Arts as well as his newly learned technique by combining them together.

When both sides clashed with each other, it created a terrifying Sword Qi explosion that literally created a massive crater in the ground.

Fortunately, the spectators were smart enough to distance themselves before that happened, but even then, some of them could not escape the Sword Qi and ended up bleeding from it.

Once the huge dust storm settled, the spectators were able to see the situation.

Hovering above the center of the crater was Yuan, and he was half naked with sword cuts all over his body. And unlike before, his injuries didn't instantly recover, almost as though his regeneration ability was blocked by the sword marks.

"Amazing... To think that was just the prowess of the sixth strike... I cannot wait to see how powerful the ninth strike will be if I ever get to use it..." Yuan couldn't help but praise the technique.

Although the technique was Mythic-rank just like the God of War's Astral Arts, it was entirely different in terms of prowess. Though, one could argue that both techniques serve a different purpose.

While the God of War's Astral Arts is a unique technique that enhances the prowess of other techniques, the Nine Supreme Swords is a technique meant purely for destruction, just like the Heaven Splitting Sword Strike.

"Congratulations, you have passed the trial flawlessly."

The Nameless Emperor appeared before Yuan again.

"Take this, it's your reward."

He extended his hand with his palms open, offering Yuan whatever was on it.

"A silver key...?" Yuan mumbled in a dazed voice as he gazed at it.

His reward for passing this ridiculous trial was just a mere key?

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 1128 Sword Pagoda

Yuan accepted the silver key shortly after. Although the reward may seem insignificant at glance, it obviously had a significance behind it.

Of course, Yuan saw the Nine Supreme Swords as the real reward for this trial, so he didn't think too much about it.

Once the spectators were certain that the trial had ended, they started crowding around Yuan.

"Young Lord, can you please tell me your name?!"

"Which family do you belong to, Young Master?!"

"Please get away from my friend! Can't you see that he's tried?! Shoo! Shoo!" Tian Yanyu rushed over and started chasing away the crowd.

"Are you okay?" She then asked him.

"Yeah, I'm fine." He nodded.

"Really? Your injuries don't seem to be healing anymore..." Tian Yanyu said as she stared at his half naked bloodied body.

<Due to the lingering Sword Qi in your wounds, your regeneration has slowed down greatly>

"It'll eventually heal itself, and it isn't as bad as it seems— I promise." Yuan smiled.

"Hey! There's something wrong with the Nine Swords Trial! It's not restoring the damage! It should've started by now!" Someone there suddenly shouted.

Normally, even if the entire platform disappeared, the Nine Swords Trial would restore all damage dealt to the land after every challenger.

"Maybe it's slowed down because of the severe destruction? The damage this time around is incomparably large." Someone said.

"That makes sense. Let's give it some time."

Unbeknownst to these people and the world, Yuan would become the last person to partake in the Nine Swords Trial because it never repaired itself no matter how long passed, as it no longer had a reason to exist.

"Alright, let's head to our next destination—the Sword Pagoda." Yuan said.

"Seriously? You should at least clean yourself before you go anywhere." Tian Suyin said with a slight frown on her face.

"I'll clean myself when we come across some water as we go there."

Thus, Yuan left the scene shortly after with Tian Yanyu and Tian Suyin following him from behind.

Some of the people there tried to follow him, but they quickly gave up after receiving a threatening glare from Yuan.

On their way to the Sword Pagoda, Yuan stopped at a river to quickly wash his blood-stained body.

"Are you really peeking at a man washing himself? When did you become this pervert?" Tian Suyin scolded Tian Yanyu when she noticed her daughter was taking peeks at Yuan in the river.

"S-Shut up! Who's peeking at him?! I looked for a second because I noticed that his body had healed from the sword cuts!" She stuttered while defending her honor.

Tian Suyin couldn't help but also take a look after hearing her daughter's words.

"You're right. Although there are still a few sword cuts left, the majority of them are gone. It's only been two days since then, and I didn't see him consume any recovery treasures during this time either. Either he has a powerful technique or he has a heavenly constitution."

"It's probably a heavenly constitution. After all, it would actually be weird for someone as talented as him to not have a unique physique..." Tian Yanyu said.

"He said he's not from the upper heavens. Do you believe him?" Tian Suyin suddenly asked.

"Does it matter where he came from?" Tian Yanyu raised an eyebrow.

"..." Tian Suyin couldn't answer her question.

"I understand why you doubt him, but he should've proven himself to be trustworthy by now, especially after everything he's done for us."

"Actually, that only makes him more suspicious. I cannot understand his intentions for the life of me... The more I think about it, the more I question it and the more suspicious I get."

"Then stop thinking about it. The moment you do, you'll feel much better, just like I did." Tian Yanyu shrugged.

She also doubted Yuan's intentions before, but she has since stopped caring about it.

"Sorry for the wait. I'm ready to continue." Yuan approached them a moment later.

The ladies turned around to see Yuan wearing a fresh new set of robes, and their eyes widened with surprise after seeing how flashy his new clothes were compared to his old clothes.

"A-Are you actually royalty?" Tian Yanyu couldn't help but ask him after seeing his Golden Dragon Robe, her face blushing nonstop.

"No, this pair of robes was gifted to me by a friend. I don't normally wear them due to how flashy they appear, but since they're very durable and not easily torn, I have decided to wear them. I don't want to change into new clothes after every challenge, after all." Yuan smiled.

"Hm? Are you okay, Senior?" Yuan looked at Tian Suyin, who was biting down her lips, looking like she was enduring something.

'Don't blush. Don't blush. Don't blush. I'm a married woman. I'm a married woman. I'm a...' Tian Suyin repeatedly cried inwardly as she silently nodded her head.

"Then let's go."

After another three days, they arrived at the Sword Pagoda.

The Sword Pagoda looked like a massive sword stabbing the ground from far, but if one got close enough, they would be able to see that it was actually a pagoda with a large sword stabbed in the center of it, almost like a skewer.

There were hundreds if not thousands of people gathered outside the Sword Pagoda at this moment.

"There's a lot of people here..." Tian Yanyu mumbled when she saw the crowd there.

"Well, only 10 people can challenge the Sword Pagoda at a time, and each person takes on average thirty minutes to finish, so you can imagine why there are so many people here." Tian Suyin said.

"Wait... So everyone here is waiting to enter the Sword Pagoda? This will take forever if we wait for our turn. Is there any way to enter earlier?" Yuan asked.

"There are two ways to skip the line. Either you pay the people in the front of the line to take their spot or you can force your way through it with your strength. After all, there is no real queue here. The strongest will go first while the weakest will go last. It's just how this place works." Tian Suyin explained.

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 1129 Sword Pagoda(2)

"I will go ahead. The two of you should stay back. I will probably make a few enemies in this place, and I don't want to trouble you two." Yuan said as he stared at them with a serious expression.

"That's only natural. I have already used my chance in this place, so I cannot enter it even if I wish for a second chance." Tian Suyin shrugged.

Every individual is only allowed one chance, and this rule is consistent across every trial within the Nameless Emperor's Tomb, so if one had entered Sword Pagoda already, they wouldn't be able to challenge it again even if a hundred years passes.

"I will come back to challenge it once I am more prepared. Since this is my first time entering the Nameless Emperor's Tomb, I am going to take it easy." Tian Yanyu said.

"Alright, then I will be back soon." Yuan left their side and began approaching the Sword Pagoda.

Once he was close enough, Yuan flew into the air to avoid the crowd surrounding the Sword Pagoda.

The people beneath him immediately noticed him, but none of them did anything and merely watched in silence.

However, as he got closer to the Sword Pagoda, Yuan would be assaulted by spiritual attacks from the cultivators.

He silently scoffed at these attacks that were barely noticeable and continued forward.

The front of the Sword Pagoda was almost empty with ten individuals standing out from the rest of the crowd. There was a good gap between these ten individuals and the rest of the crowd, and their aura was much more intense than the others— except for one individual.

It was obvious that these ten individuals would be the first ones to enter the Sword Pagoda.

When Yuan landed before these ten individuals, they all turned to look at him, and some of them even openly sneered in a mocking manner.

"Hey, brat, are you blind? Can't you see that the line is back there? Scram while I am asking nicely." One of the ten individuals, a bald bulky man, suddenly spoke in a loud voice.

Yuan glanced at him and responded nonchalantly, "Are you sure you're not the blind one here?"

The bald man gritted his teeth and started approaching Yuan while veins appeared on his head.

"He's right. If you don't want to die a pointless death, don't take another step." A calm voice suddenly resounded, instantly halting the bald man's movement.

Yuan turned to look at the person who just spoke. He was the only individual there without an aura, but Yuan could tell at glance that he was the strongest there.

This person was an exceedingly handsome young man with silver hair and blue eyes, his body oozing with confidence and arrogance, and he appeared to be around the same age as Yuan.

"You probably can't tell because of the difference between your strengths, but he's not someone you can handle." The silver-haired man spoke again.

The bald man didn't utter any words and merely stood there with a resisting look on his face.

Despite not knowing the silver-haired man's identity, the bald man didn't dare to talk back. Shortly before Yuan's arrival, this silver-haired man showed up out of the blue and silenced everyone there with just his overwhelming aura alone, which was an incredible feat considering that most people there were Spirit Kings.

"I don't recognize you so you probably didn't come from the same place as I, or you're disguised. What's your name, young friend?" The silver-haired man suddenly approached Yuan with a friendly smile.

"Xiao Yang."

"Xiao Yang, huh?" The silver-haired man glanced at his Golden Dragon Robe before continuing, "I didn't think I would meet someone of your caliber down here, much less a human wearing that sort of outfit." The silver-haired man showed his palm and fist and gave Yuan a courteous bow.

"My name's Long Chen, one of Four Dragons and Phoenixes— not that you'll know what it means."

Yuan raised his eyebrows in a puzzling manner. He couldn't understand the intentions of this Long Chen.

However, he understood that this Long Chen probably came from the upper heavens based on his language.

Yuan returned the bow, "I hope you won't mind me standing here with you guys."

"Of course not. If you wanted, you could easily go after me." Long Chen said with a mysterious smile, implying that he was stronger than Yuan.

"What if I want to go after you, too?" Yuan smiled back.

"Hahaha!"

Long Chen started laughing.

"I don't recall the last time someone has talked back to me. The lower heavens are full of entertainment. Why didn't I come down here sooner?"

The people there swallowed nervously after hearing Long Chen's words. Although they had no proof that his words were true, none of them doubted his words.

"So you're from the upper heavens, huh? Which one? Did you come down here specifically for the Nameless Emperor's Tomb?" Yuan suddenly asked.

"I will answer all of your questions if you play a game with me and win." Long Chen said.

"What kind of game?"

"I was going to enter the Sword Pagoda as soon as possible, but I have decided to enter with you. Whoever climbs the highest will win. To make this more enticing, I will even throw in some Royal-grade Spirit Jade."

The people there gasped in shock after hearing such words.

A single Royal-grade Spirit Jade easily cost tens of millions of spirit stones. Only someone from the upper heavens could possibly gamble such a resource so casually.

"Interesting... And what if you win? What do you want from me?"

"If I win, you will answer a few of my questions. Of course, I don't expect you to have any Spirit Jades." Long Chen said.

"Sounds good." Yuan nodded.

"Good."

The doors to the Sword Pagoda suddenly opened, and a figure was flung out of it like trash the very next second.

When this happened, the doors that had been closed this entire time remained open, at least until the next participant entered.

Long Chen was supposed to enter the Sword Pagoda at this moment, but he didn't, and nobody dared to steal the spot, so they all just stood there in silence.

Chapter 1130 Sword Pagoda(3)

The person who'd just come out of the Sword Pagoda was extremely confused when he saw the situation outside.

Normally, people would be fighting to enter the Sword Pagoda whenever a new slot is opened, but things were different this time. Everyone stood still, almost as though they'd all become statues.

This person stood there awkwardly until another person came out of the Sword Pagoda and a second slot was opened.

"Are you ready?" Long Chen asked as he stared at Yuan.

"Whenever you are." He nodded.

They both turned to face the Sword Pagoda and approached the entrance while walking side by side.

"Good luck, Xiao Yang." Long Chen mumbled in a confident voice right before disappearing into the Sword Pagoda.

"You too." Yuan smiled.

Everyone there released a sigh of relief once the two of them were gone.

"Just who the heck were those two?" The bald man couldn't help but ask.

"I don't know about that man with the black dragon robe, but that silver-haired man is definitely a Young Master with a powerful background in the upper heavens. The question is which one... The Fourth Heaven? The fifth? Sixth?"

"I don't think we'll ever know the truth..." Someone else said.

"So you think that Xiao Yang won't win the bet?"

"Of course he won't! No matter how talented he is, he won't beat Long Chen. Hadn't you felt his aura not long ago? He may be a Spirit King within the Nameless Emperor's Tomb, but his real cultivation is definitely far superior."

"But one's cultivation doesn't matter in these trials, only their innate talent."

"We'll know the answer soon. Let's just wait and see what happens."

"He actually picked a fight with someone from the upper heavens? His arrogance knows no bounds..." Tian Suyin couldn't help but shake her head after witnessing everything from afar.

"He'll be fine... probably... By the way, do you know what is this Four Dragon and Phoenixes that was mentioned?" Tian Yanyu asked.

"No, I don't. But if I had to take a guess, it's probably some title given to geniuses in the upper heavens."

"Most likely... Good luck, Xiao Yang..."

When Yuan entered the Sword Pagoda, he found himself on an empty platform in the middle of nowhere.

There were no walls or ceiling in the background— nothing but the void and the massive platform, almost as though he was in the starry sky without the stars.

A figure wearing a pig mask suddenly appeared 10 meters away from Yuan.

"...A mask with a pig's face?"

This was the first thing Yuan noticed due to its oddity.

"I sense more than one soul within you. Unfortunately, they are not allowed to assist you even though they are your servants." The masked figure spoke, and before they realized, Xiao Hua and the others were forced out of Yuan's body and were transported to another platform where they could only spectate.

"Brother Yuan!"

"Young Master!"

"Don't worry about me. I was going to do this by myself, anyway." Yuan smiled at them.

He turned to look at the masked man and asked, "What now?"

"Before we begin, allow me to tell you the rules of the Sword Pagoda."

"First and foremost, if you die here, you will die for real. However, you are allowed to quit at any time during the trial."

"There are seven total floors in the Sword Pagoda. In order to climb the Sword Pagoda, you must defeat the Guardian on each floor, and you will be given a restriction on each floor including this floor. These restrictions will carry over to the next floor, so you will have a total of 7 restrictions placed on your body by the time you reach the seventh floor."

"Statistically speaking, only one in ten thousand will pass the first floor. One in a hundred thousand will pass the second floor, and one in a million will clear the third. However, after the third floor, you are more likely to encounter a miracle treasure during a stroll than to pass them."

"Now onto your weapons... You are not allowed to use any weapons from the outside. We will provide you with one, and they are all on par with Divine-grade treasures in terms of quality."

"Lastly, you will be given a choice for your reward if you manage to clear the floor after every floor. You have a minute to mentally prepare yourself before I start the trial."

The masked man fell silent after that sentence.

Yuan closed his eyes and took a deep breath.

A minute later—

"The trial for the first floor of the Sword Pagoda will now begin. A restriction has been placed on your body. I will make my first move in ten seconds. Choose a weapon before then."

Ding!

<Your body has been restricted by a mysterious force!>

Yuan suddenly felt as though he had mountains strapped to his back, nearly forcing him to his knees.

'This place might be even more dangerous than the Nine Swords Trial...'
Yuan swallowed nervously as beads of sweat continuously appeared on his face.

"A sword!" He shouted a moment later.

An ordinary sword appeared before Yuan the next second, yet it exuded the aura of a Divine-grade treasure.

The masked man also wielded an identical sword in his hands.

"Eight... Nine... Ten!"

The masked man suddenly sprung into action and began clashing with Yuan.

After a few exchanges with the masked man, Yuan realized something.

'The difficulty isn't my opponent. It's just the restriction on my body that's a problem!'

If it weren't for the restriction on his body, Yuan would have defeated the masked man in a single strike, but because the additional weight that was adjusted for him, even swinging his sword had become a difficult task that required all of his effort.

'If the first restriction is already this cruel, I cannot imagine what the other floors have in store for me!' Yuan cried inwardly as he fought the masked man with sweat pouring from his pores.

Chapter 1131 Sword Pagoda(4)

"I've never seen the Young Master struggle so much in a fight. His opponent is also weak in comparison, only being at the peak of Spirit King. He would normally defeat such opponents without batting an eye, yet he's been struggling for over 10 minutes now." Feng Yuxiang sighed out loud, breaking the silence.

Lan Yingying shook her head, "Can you blame him? His movements are sluggish and stiff, almost as though there's something weighing him down."

"Brother Yuan will defeat pig face soon. His movements have gotten much better compared to when he first began. He's rapidly adapting to the changes in his body." Xiao Hua mumbled.

"Also, he's not using any of his sword techniques. It's like he's treating this trial as a training ground." Lan Yingying said.

"That's the Young Master for you." Feng Yuxiang smiled.

Indeed, Yuan was getting used to fighting with the restriction on his body. However, that isn't to say that things have gotten easier for him, as the restriction grew stronger as he got more used to it, almost as though it was growing with him.

After another ten minutes of nonstop clashing, Yuan finally managed to defeat the masked man without using any of his sword techniques.

He could've used everything to defeat his opponent in an instant, but if he needed so much resources to pass the first floor, there was no way that he'd pass the later floors, hence why he restricted himself even more by not using any sword techniques.

This also allowed him to familiarize with his situation.

"Congratulations on passing the first floor. What do you want for your reward? Spiritual energy or a Heaven-grade treasure?"

Yuan didn't immediately respond, as he had no need for either of these rewards. His cultivation was stuck at peak Spirit King until he upgraded his physique, and he had no use for a Heaven-grade treasure.

"What if I don't want either of these rewards?" Yuan then asked.

"You can forfeit these rewards and receive an even greater reward on the next floor— if you pass it. If you fail, the rewards on this floor will be forever gone. If you accept a reward on this floor, you can still choose the rewards on the second floor, but it won't be as good."

"Alright, I will forfeit these rewards." Yuan answered without even the slightest hesitation.

"Very well. I will now take you to the next floor."

Yuan's vision flickered for a split second, and the man with the pig mask is now suddenly wearing a mask of a sheep's face.

"Welcome to the second floor. The trial will begin in a minute."

The only thing Yuan could think about now was the second restriction.

A minute later.

Ding!

<Your body has been restricted by a mysterious force!>

"Eh?"

Yuan looked down at his hand with wide eyes. The sensation of his sword had suddenly disappeared, but when he looked, the sword was still there.

'What's going on? Why can't I feel my sword?' He wondered.

"The second restriction has blocked your sense of touch. You won't be able to feel anything except for pain."

"My sense of touch?"

Yuan now realized that even the sensation of the platform that he was standing on had disappeared, and it felt extremely awkward.

One might think that losing your sense of touch isn't that bad, but without being able to tell when your foot touches the ground as quickly, it would instantly throw off one's balance and make movement techniques near impossible. This also affects how one wields and swings their weapon.

"What a pain in the ass..." He sighed out loud.

Ten seconds later, the masked man began his assault.

Now that he's lost his sense of touch, Yuan's movements only became more awkward and unstable, and even the way he swung his sword looked different.

If someone who did not know about the situation were to see him at this moment, they would think that he was drunk to the core.

Yuan knew that it would be pointless to fight the masked man while in such an unstable condition, so he decided to spend as much time as he needed to get used to the restriction. After all, there was no restriction on how much time he had on each floor, so he could stay there for as long as he wanted—needed.

Ten minutes... twenty... thirty...

In the blink of an eye, over three hours have passed since Yuan entered the second trial. During this time, Yuan did not go on the offensive even once and remained defensive.

Once he got used to his new restrictions and could perfectly calculate the moment his foot touches the ground for all of his movements, he started to work on his sword and how he swung it.

In the end, it took him almost four hours to adapt, but once he did, he started going on the offense, defeating the masked man and clearing the second floor.

"Will you choose a reward this time, or will you forfeit it again? The choices remain the same— spiritual energy or a Divine-grade treasure."

"Forfeit." Yuan responded instantly.

"Very well... I shall now transport you to the next floor."

Meanwhile, Long Chen was already on the fourth floor.

Unlike Yuan, who hadn't used any sword techniques up to this point, Long Chen blew away his opponents with his superior techniques from the first floor.

Despite that, he was also struggling to defeat his opponents.

After narrowly passing the fourth floor, Long Chen fell to his knees and muttered in a low voice, "The person who created this place is such a sadistic bastard..."

Long Chen was someone who wasn't used to feeling the ground with his knees. In fact, he doesn't even remember the last time he was brought to his knees.

"I am one of the Four Dragons! There's no way I am going to let some nobody from the Third Heaven defeat me! I am going to defeat the seventh floor and become the first person to clear the Sword Pagoda! Just you wait!"

Long Chen gritted his teeth in frustration.

He forfeited his rewards on the fourth floor and climbed to the fifth floor shortly after.

Chapter 1132 Sword Pagoda(5)

"Look! Someone's managed to enter the fifth floor!"

The spectators were in awe after seeing a sword light appear on the fifth floor.

There were currently 10 light sources shaped like a sword within the Sword Pagoda, each representing a challenger.

There were six sword lights on the first floor, two on the second floor, one on the third, and one on the fifth floor.

"It must be that silver-haired man from the upper heavens!"

"What if it's that Xiao Yang?"

"Impossible!"

"If you saw what I saw a few days ago at the Nine Swords Trial, you wouldn't say that." Someone suddenly said.

"What did you see there?"

"That Xiao Yang... He managed to survive all 9 sword strikes from the Nine Swords Trial! In fact, he came here right after passing it!"

This person who had witnessed Yuan's greatness at the Nine Swords Trial revealed this information to these people.

"What?!"

Such information greatly shocked everyone there, as they were all aware of the Nine Swords Trial.

"Are you sure you're not farting?! There's no way someone could have defeated that gruesome trial!"

"If you don't believe me, you can go check the Nine Swords Trial! It's probably in ruins right now."

"He's not lying. I was also there to witness it." Someone else there said.

Thus, the name Xiao Yang began spreading in the Nameless Emperor's Tomb.

Upon entering the third floor, Yuan was given another restriction.

The already dim world suddenly turned pitch black, almost as though he'd entered the void.

"..."

Yuan's body trembled as it instinctively knew what had just happened.

The restriction on the third floor had removed his ability to see, turning him blind and causing his bad memories to resurface at the same time.

However, Yuan didn't despair, as he wasn't completely blind. In fact, he could still see perfectly.

This is thanks to his divine sense, which allows him to see things even better than what he could with his bare eyes.

Yuan began fighting with the masked man who had a rooster mask shortly after. Since this floor's restriction was pretty much ineffective against him, it allowed him to fight at the same pace as the previous floor.

This restriction that forces one to constantly use their divine sense may not affect Yuan who essentially has unlimited soul strength due to his soul cultivation technique, but it was deadly to the others, who will inevitably exhaust themselves from constantly using their divine sense, forcing them to rush through each floor as fast as possible.

Two hours later, Yuan defeated the third floor.

"Will you choose a reward this time, or will you forfeit it again? You can choose between spiritual energy or ten Divine-grade treasures."

'10 Divine-grade treasures? Just how many treasures are in this place?' Yuan wondered inwardly.

"I will forfeit my rewards." He spoke a moment later.

"I understand. Then I shall send you to the fourth floor."

Waiting on the fourth floor was a figure with a goat mask.

<Your body has been restricted by a mysterious force!>

The very next second, Yuan lost all sensation in his left arm.

"So I can only use one arm now, huh? These restrictions are getting more ridiculous." He couldn't help but utter out loud.

"This is just the beginning," said the masked man before approaching Yuan with a movement technique.

'Although his cultivation remains at the peak of Spirit King, his movements are getting better, and he's also more aggressive than the previous guardians. Now that I only have one arm to fight with, I can no longer fight without any techniques. Fortunately, my dominant arm wasn't restricted.'

[Vanishing Ghost's Soundless Blade!]

Due to the increased weight on his body and his crippled arm, he was unable to use his technique at full power.

'I can only exert about 20 percent of its power in my current state...' Yuan sighed inwardly after seeing the effects.

However, even at 20 percent, it was still quite effective against his enemy.

Meanwhile, the people outside the Sword Pagoda watched as the sword light on the fifth floor disappeared.

The door to the Sword Pagoda opened, and a silver-haired young man was sent flying out the next moment.

'Damn it! I was so close to defeating the fifth floor!' Long Chen gritted his teeth in frustration.

After cursing inwardly, Long Chen began sweeping the crowd with his divine sense in search for a certain individual.

'I don't see him... Is he still inside the Sword Pagoda?'

Long Chen looked at the Sword Pagoda to see 5 people on the first floor, 3 on the second floor, and 1 person on the fourth floor.

He turned to look at the group of people in the front and asked them, "Hey, did that Xiao Yang come out already?"

They shook their heads, "No, you were the first to come out."

"Then he's definitely on the fourth floor..." Long Chen narrowed his eyes at the light within the Sword Pagoda.

After taking a deep breath, he spoke in a loud voice supported by his aura, "Starting this point forth, nobody will enter the Sword Pagoda until Xiao Yang comes out! I will slay anyone that dares to disobey!"

"What?!"

It was an unreasonable demand from Long Chen, but nobody there could defy him.

"Who the hell do you think you—"

Some of the newer people there that didn't know Long Chen wanted to fight back, but they were quickly stopped by the others.

"Don't mess with him! He's some bigshot from the upper heavens, and he can kill you with just his aura alone!"

When the newer people learned this information, they immediately gave up on arguing and became silent.

One of many unspoken rules in the Nine Heavens is that one should never mess with someone from a higher realm because messing with even a servant could result in one's entire family being slaughtered, much less a bigshot like Long Chen, who was exuding the aura of a young master from a powerful background.

Thus, nobody else would enter the Sword Pagoda after Long Chen came out. Eventually, everyone else besides Yuan were outside, leaving him alone inside.

Chapter 1133 Sword Tablet

"Fuck! What's taking him so long?! He's been on the fourth floor for 2 hours now!" The spectators were getting impatient, as most of them had only expected to wait at most another half an hour before Yuan got kicked out of the Sword Pagoda.

Even Long Chen couldn't help but wonder what was going on inside.

'What's he doing inside? The third floor forces one to use divine sense due to the restriction, so it wouldn't make sense to prolong the fights. Even if he's not using his divine sense, the guardian should be attacking him relentlessly, giving him no time to rest. To spend so much time on one floor, there's no way he's getting past the fourth floor!'

After another hour of waiting, the sword light on the fourth floor finally moved to the fifth floor.

This shocked everyone there.

"He actually managed to beat the fourth floor after spending three whole hours there?!"

'No way...' Long Chen, who knew very well about the restrictions, was even more baffled than the others.

As someone who climbed to the fifth floor, he knew better than anyone there how unforgiving the Sword Pagoda was, and for Yuan to endure three hours on the fourth floor was nothing short of a miracle.

'What happened in there? I really want to see it!' Long Chen's hands curled up into fists.

"Oh? If it isn't the Silver Dragon. Why are you just standing out here? Aren't you going to challenge the Sword Pagoda?" A voice that Long Chen recognized suddenly resounded.

He turned around to see a group of individuals approaching him from a distance.

Of course, just like Long Chen, they were all from the upper heavens.

"I already went inside," he said in a calm voice, trying his best to hide his emotions.

"Really? Then why are you still here? Hmm? Wow! There's someone on the fifth floor!" These people finally noticed the single light in the Sword Pagoda.

"Why is there only one person inside?" One of them asked.

"Because I am not allowing anyone to step foot inside until that person comes out." Long Chen said, and he continued, "This includes you lot."

"You know who's inside the Sword Pagoda?"

"I don't really know him since we've just met a few hours ago." Long Chen shook his head. "However, he's definitely talented."

"Unbelievable! Did the Silver Dragon just praise someone from this lowly place?!"

"I can't wait to tell the others about this! This is an unprecedented event!"

"I doubt they'll even believe us!"

This group of people started laughing.

Long Chen sneered, "You may mock him for his background, but none of you can compare to this person who came from the very background that you're currently laughing at."

These people immediately stopped laughing after hearing such words.

"Hey, Silver Dragon, cut the crap. You really expect us to believe that someone from this dump is better than us?! There's a limit to your lies even if you just want to mess with us!"

Long Chen glared at the person who just spoke while emitting killing intent, "Cut the crap? Who the hell do you think you're talking to, Mu Shun? If you think I won't dare to kill you because we're down here, you're sorely mistaken."

This person known as Mu Shun trembled in fear.

"I-I apologize. I accidentally blurted out something disrespectful to you because of your outrageous claim that someone from Third Heaven could possibly match us."

"Outrageous, huh? Is it really that unbelievable?" Long Chen pointed at the Sword Pagoda before continuing, "I failed on the fifth floor, so this person who also managed to step foot on the fifth floor is at least as talented as myself. Hell, I would be surprised even if half of you get past the third floor, much less the fourth."

Mu Shun gritted his teeth in anger after hearing such words, yet he couldn't refute it. Nobody there could, so they all remained silent.

Meanwhile, Yuan was already fighting the guardian on the fifth floor with a new restriction, which completely sealed his movement techniques.

Although he could still move his legs just fine, he might as well be considered his legs to be useless since he was only able to move around with the increased weight by using his movement technique.

Now that he couldn't use any movement techniques at all, he would have trouble taking even a single step.

Clang! Clang! Clang!

Despite the new restriction, Yuan still somehow manages to stay on his feet and repel the guardian's attacks with the God of War's Astral Arts.

It was as though Yuan had turned into a mountain with arms. Thanks to the God of War's Astral Arts, he was able to attack the guardian without moving around too much, and each of his strikes would send the guardian flying backwards.

However, the guardian was also relentless in its assault. Every time he gets sent flying, he would run at Yuan again without any pauses.

The two of them would continue this kind of clashing for many minutes until Yuan barely managed to overpower the guardian, defeating him in one strike.

"Will you choose a reward this time, or will you forfeit it again? You can choose between a massive amount of spiritual energy or three Ancient-grade treasures."

'Three Ancient-grade treasures...' Yuan sighed inwardly as he refused the rewards.

A few moments later, he was sent to the sixth floor.

"Congratulations, you are the first person to step foot on this floor." The masked man was now wearing a monkey's mask.

"The sixth floor is a little different compared to the other floors. You will now be given seven days to study this Sword Tablet."

A massive stone tablet shaped like a sword suddenly descended from the void, landing in front of Yuan.

However, there were no words on this Sword Tablet, just multiple deep cuts that seemed to have been left behind by a sword.

"All of your restrictions will be temporarily removed. They will return after seven days, and you will also receive your 6th restriction then. Good luck." The masked man disappeared afterward.

Chapter 1134 Studying The Sword Tablet

"Heavens! He's managed to reach the sixth floor! I believe this is an unprecedented event!" The spectators outside the Sword Pagoda were in an uproar when they saw the light on the sixth floor.

A look of disbelief appeared on Long Chen's face for a brief moment before his eyes flickered with a vicious flame of various emotions.

Awe, jealousy, shock, inferiority— so many feelings that he hadn't felt in a very long or ever surfaced at once, overwhelming him and his pride.

The others from the upper heavens were also feeling similar emotions.

"Are you sure he came from this dump? How do you know he's not lying to you?" One of them doubted Long Chen's claim that Yuan was someone from the Third Heaven.

"I would've recognized him if he came from the upper heavens!" Long Chen gritted his teeth.

"He could've easily disguised himself."

"Unless he consumed a pill made by the God of Alchemy himself, there's no way I wouldn't realize it!"

Despite saying these words, Long Chen himself was beginning to doubt whether Yuan had come from this Third Heaven or not.

'He was wearing the Golden Dragon Robe, after all... Now that I think about it, there's no way he can acquire something like that in this place, where the Royal Dragon Clan doesn't exist...'

'But it didn't seem like he was lying when he said that he didn't come from the upper heavens, so where in heaven's name did this guy come from?!'

While the spectators were still trying to get over their shock, Yuan was sitting before the sword tablet, silently staring at the sword marks on it.

'This reminds me of the sword marks in the Mystic Realm...'

Yuan recalled the nameless temple within the Mystic Realm, where he also met Lan Yingying for the first time.

Inside the temple was a tablet with sword marks, and he learned Sword Aura after studying the tablet.

"The sword marks on that sword tablet..." Lan Yingying mumbled in a low voice as she found the sword marks to have a familiar feeling to them.

"Do you recognize the sword tablet?" Feng Yuxiang asked her out of curiosity.

"Not the sword tablet, but the sword marks on it. Although the pattern is different, the marks are almost identical to the ones on the Lord's tablet..." Lan Yingying proceeded to tell the others about her first meeting with Yuan and about the temple that she had spent the majority of her life taking care of.

"So it has something to do with Sword Aura, huh? I wonder what the Young Master is going to learn this time..." Feng Yuxiang mumbled with an anticipating look on her face.

Yuan would spend the next 24 hours staring at the sword marks without any breaks.

Meanwhile, the people outside the Sword Pagoda were confused and filled with curiosity as to what was happening on the sixth floor, and the number of people outside had increased drastically once words began to spread.

This could be a once-in-a-lifetime event, so people were rushing over to the Sword Pagoda.

"It's already been a full day since he entered the sixth floor. Just what is happening inside?"

"This is the first time that someone has ever reached the sixth floor, so nobody can say for sure."

Time passed quickly, and within the blink of an eye, three days have passed since Yuan entered the sixth floor.

During the last three days, nothing significant has happened to Yuan. In fact, he was still trying to comprehend the sword marks.

"It's already been 3 days. Whatever secret is behind that sword tablet, it must be incredibly profound since it usually takes the Young Master no time to understand them." Feng Yuxiang sighed out loud.

However, just as she finished her sentence, an explosive amount of Sword Aura suddenly gushed out of Yuan's body.

"What an immense amount of Sword Aura..." Xiao Hua mumbled in a dazed voice.

Yuan's Sword Aura would only continue to intensify from that moment.

On the fourth day, the Sword Aura around Yuan had become so dense that it could even be seen by one's bare eyes, and it took the shape of a sword, making it seem as though Yuan himself had turned into a sword.

"This is..." Xiao Hua's eyes flickered with excitement when she realized what was happening.

"What is it? Share your insight with the rest of us." Feng Yuxiang noticed this and said to her.

Xiao Hua sneered in a cute manner, silently refusing Feng Yuxiang's request.

"You little..." Feng Yuxiang gritted her teeth in frustration, as she was really curious about Yuan's condition.

"Do you know anything?" She turned to ask Lan Yingying, who was staring at Yuan with wide eyes.

Lan Yingying shook her head, "I have never seen anything like this before, but it feels familiar somehow."

Meanwhile, there were now over 50,000 people surrounding the Sword Pagoda, all of them on the verge of insanity from the anticipation, their curiosity peaked.

"Shit! What the hell is he doing in there?! It's already been four days!"

"Did he die inside or something? There's no way he's been fighting for the past four days!"

"What do you think is really happening inside?"

"Only time will tell."

On the fifth day, Yuan finally closed his eyes and entered a state of trance.

"T-That's..." Feng Yuxiang's eyebrows twitched upon seeing this familiar sight.

"He's experiencing enlightenment once again..." Lan Yingying mumbled with a bittersweet smile on her face.

Most people would be considered lucky if they experience enlightenment even once in their lifetime, yet Yuan has already experienced it multiple times within a year.

Towards the end of the sixth day, Yuan opened his eyes to be greeted by a notification.

<You have learned Enhanced Sword Aura>

"Enhanced Sword Aura..."

[Enhanced Sword Aura]

[Description: Only those blessed by the Sword God could comprehend Enhanced Sword Aura. Allows you to convert your soul strength into Enhanced Sword Aura. Significantly increases sword damage and sharpness.]

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 1135 Enhanced Sword Aura

After comprehending Enhanced Sword Aura, which is basically a superior version of Sword Aura that uses his soul strength instead of spiritual energy, Yuan's Sword Aura had reached peak masterly level, and his understanding for the swords also increased significantly.

<You have understood the basics of Enhanced Sword Aura>

<Your understanding of swords has reached a new level>

<Your 'Advanced Sword Mastery' has developed into 'Grand Sword Mastery'>

<Congratulations! You have been awarded the title 'Grand Swordmaster'>

[Grand Sword Mastery]

[Description: Very few Swordmasters have reached this level. Drastically improves your control with swords by 75% and increases all damage dealt with swords by 150%. Your enemies will feel more pain from your sword attacks as your damage increases. Your sword techniques will also have more impact. Requires no activation.>

"Brother Yuan really did it... He's learned Enhanced Sword Aura..." Xiao Hua muttered with a look of disbelief and awe on her face.

"What?! Enhanced Sword Aura?!" Feng Yuxiang exclaimed with a terrified expression on her face.

"What's that?" Lan Yingying asked with her head slightly tilted to the right.

"It's not surprising that you don't know about Enhanced Sword Aura since that only exists in the upper heavens." Feng Yuxiang said, and she continued, "Anyways, Enhanced Sword Aura is basically the next level of Sword Aura. It's incomparably stronger compared to Sword Aura and incredibly hard to learn at the same time."

Xiao Hua then spoke, "Even in a place like the Supreme Heaven, where the most talented people in the Nine Heavens gather, anyone that can comprehend Enhanced Sword Aura before they are 100 years old are considered peak prodigies. Brother Yuan isn't even 20 years old..."

"It's that amazing...?" Lan Yingying turned to look at Yuan with a look of admiration on her face.

"There's a saying that if Sword Aura can cut mountains, then Enhanced Sword Aura can split the world into two parts. The fact that it hasn't even been that long since he learned Sword Aura is even more terrifying..." Feng Yuxiang's body trembled before Yuan's unfathomable talent.

"If he's just your ordinary genius, that is." Lan Yingying smiled. "He's the Lord's reincarnate, after all. Something like this should only be natural."

Feng Yuxiang then said, "I don't know anything about this 'Lord', but if he can teach people Enhanced Sword Aura just by leaving behind a few sword marks, I cannot even begin to imagine the level of swordsmanship he'd achieved in his past life."

"By the way, since there's Enhanced Sword Aura after Sword Aura, I can assume that there is something even stronger than Enhanced Sword Aura, right?" Lan Yingying suddenly asked.

Xiao Hua nodded, "Yes, but the amount of people that have reached such a level is so miniscule that it might as well be non-existent."

Shortly after Yuan learned Enhanced Sword Aura, the masked figure returned.

"Congratulations on learning Enhanced Sword Aura. Your restrictions will return soon with an additional restriction."

Yuan couldn't wait for the challenge to begin, as he was itching to use his newfound powers.

The following moment, Yuan's enthusiasm dropped to zero when all of the spiritual energy inside his body suddenly disappeared.

"The sixth restriction is cultivation restriction. Your Dantian and all of your spiritual energy has been sealed off, so you're no different than a mortal now." The masked man said to him.

"..."

He was already partially crippled before this. Now that his cultivation is sealed, he has truly become a cripple.

Yuan despaired for a second before suddenly recalling the description of Enhanced Sword Aura.

'My spiritual energy may be sealed, but my soul strength is untouched, and Enhanced Sword Aura uses soul strength! I still have a chance!'

If he hadn't learned Enhanced Sword Aura, even all of the talents in the world wouldn't help him pass this challenge.

When Yuan held the Empyrean Overlord, he could immediately tell how drastically different the sword felt in his grasp compared to before learning Enhanced Sword Aura.

'Even though I don't have any spiritual energy, I feel like I can defeat any opponent with this sword in my grasp...'

Yuan's body began emitting Enhanced Sword Aura, creating this weird effect in the air around him that made it seem like it was constantly being sliced by a sword.

In fact, if one closed their eyes and tried to sense Yuan, they wouldn't even sense a human presence, but an entity— a 'sword'.

Yuan stared at the masked man with a tranquil expression. Even though he had no cultivation and his opponent was a peak Spirit King, he didn't feel pressured in the slightest.

The challenge began a few seconds later, and the masked man immediately rushed at Yuan while swinging his sword that was covered in Sword Aura.

Almost as though he was only taking a stroll, Yuan casually took a step forward while swinging the Emyrean Overlord.

Foosh!

An invisible blade of Enhanced Sword Aura flew towards the masked man and clashed with his Sword Aura.

The Enhanced Sword Aura looked easy to dodge at glance, but when the target tried to dodge it, they immediately realized that escape was impossible, as the sharp pressure coming from it was strong enough to instill intense fear in their soul, making them feel as though they'd be cut into a thousand pieces if they dared to move, so their bodies could only stiffen from shock and await its inevitable death.

With a single strike, Yuan had cut down his opponent and defeated the peak Spirit King without breaking a single sweat.

"Enhanced Sword Aura... How terrifying..." Yuan mumbled as he stared at the Emyrean Overlord before showing a slight smile.

"Congratulations, you have defeated the sixth floor."

Another masked man appeared before him.

"You are..." Yuan narrowed his eyes at the masked man.

Unlike the previous masked figures, this one didn't have any weird animal masks and looked more like the real Nameless Emperor.

"Let's have a proper conversation on the seventh floor."

The masked man disappeared afterward.

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 1136 Weapon Upgrade

"Will you choose a reward, or will you forfeit it again? You can choose between spiritual energy or a Mythic-grade treasure."

A voice tempted Yuan shortly after the masked man disappeared.

"Mythic-grade treasure..." Yuan swallowed nervously.

He would be lying if he said that he wasn't tempted. However, there was still one more floor in the Sword Pagoda. If he forfeits such a reward on this floor, he could only imagine what he'll acquire on the seventh floor.

"I will forfeit the rewards on this floor." He responded a moment later.

"Then I shall transport you to the seventh floor now."

Yuan's body was suddenly enveloped in a warm light before he disappeared from the sixth floor, appearing on the seventh floor.

Outside the Sword Pagoda, over 100,000 people have gathered to witness the spectacle of Yuan reaching the peak of the Sword Pagoda.

"Heavens! He's alive! And he passed the sixth floor!"

"That bastard really did it! He's reached the peak of the Sword Pagoda!"

The people there were all in awe.

The Sword Pagoda is one of the most popular and renowned trials in the Nameless Emperor's Tomb, so most of the people there knew the difficulty and its history.

"A legend is about to be born! Long live Xiao Yang!"

Some people there even began revering Yuan, treating him as though he was a god.

"..."

The group that came from the upper heavens were dead silent at this moment, but all of them were thinking about one thing with serious expressions— that they needed to recruit this person who seemingly has unlimited potential at all cost!

'Regardless if he passes the final floor or not, he's still going to become famous. Once the Seniors in the upper heavens learn of his presence, they will all go crazy trying to recruit him...' Long Chen could feel his heart throbbing with excitement, as it has been a while since a genius at Yuan's level has appeared.

Meanwhile, Yuan stood before the masked man on the seventh floor.

"Welcome to the peak of the Sword Pagoda."

"Are you my opponent for this floor?" Yuan asked as he tightly gripped his Empyrean Overlord.

The masked man shook his head, "No, you won't be fighting me."

"This will be your opponent."

The masked man took a step to the side, clearing the path and revealing the object behind him.

Yuan raised an eyebrow when he saw what the masked man was referring to.

There was a large boulder made of an unknown substance that resembled crystal, and there was a wooden sword stabbed into it.

"That's my opponent? What kind of joke is this?" Yuan asked him.

"This isn't a joke. The condition to pass this floor is to pull out that wooden sword. As for your restriction... Well, this test in itself is one. The rest of your restrictions will also be lifted. Good luck— not that it matters at all."

"Seriously...?"

Yuan felt that it was a little anticlimactic, but he didn't complain. He quickly approached the wooden sword and wrapped his fingers around the handle.

However, before he exerted any force, the masked man spoke, "Oh, before you attempt to pull the sword, I should warn you that you will only have one chance. If you fail, your body will explode, and you will die."

"What?!"

Yuan wanted to release the sword, but he subconsciously pulled his arms back without releasing his grip on the sword.

Sha!

The wooden sword was pulled out of the boulder without any resistance.

Yuan stared at it with wide eyes.

"Ahaha!"

The masked man suddenly began laughing out loud, causing Yuan to raise an eyebrow.

"I was just joking. You wouldn't have died, and the wooden sword has no meaning."

"Explain." Yuan frowned slightly.

"The moment you comprehended Enhanced Sword Aura from the sixth floor, you've already completed the Sword Pagoda. There is no challenge on the seventh floor."

"Then what's the point of making a seventh floor?"

The masked man snapped his fingers, causing a hole to appear in the middle of the room, and inside this hole was about three inches of black liquid.

"Lend me the Empyrean Overlord for a moment." The masked man then said.

Yuan summoned the sword and handed it over.

The masked man looked at the sword with a nostalgic feeling in his eyes. "It's been a while, buddy."

He then submerged the sword in the liquid.

"What are you doing?" Yuan couldn't help but ask.

"How do you feel about the Empyrean Overlord? Is it a good weapon?" Instead of answering his question, the masked man suddenly asked one.

"Well... Despite it being my second Soul Weapon, it's my most used weapon, and I have the most experience with it. When I wield it in my hands, it feels as though it becomes part of my body. It's powerful and easy to use. I don't have any complaints."

"Is that so? What if I tell you that the Empyrean Overlord is actually still in a dormant state? That it's not at its full potential?"

Yuan's eyes widened with surprise upon hearing such information.

"The Empyrean Overlord was crafted by a good friend of mine. He used the best materials in the Nine Heavens, and it took him over ten thousand years to complete it. It could even be considered the best sword in existence. However, its power would've been too potent for you to handle at the beginning, so I purposefully sealed its power until fate brought you here."

"Wait... You're making it sound like you knew I was going to acquire it from the beginning and that I would come here." Yuan frowned.

The masked man lifted his mask a little, revealing his smile, "Of course. That's just how our lives work. Fate isn't as random as it seems, especially when it's our fate."

"The Empyrean Overlord; the Nameless Emperor's Tomb; the Sword Pagoda... All of these things are connected. You didn't come here by chance. You were guided here."

"By whom?" Yuan swallowed nervously.

"You'll figure it out yourself eventually. Anyways, the upgrade is done." The masked man retrieved the Empyrean Overlord from the hole the following moment.

Chapter 1137 Awakened Empyrean Overlord

"What do you think?" The masked man handed the Empyrean Overlord that was emitting a totally different aura compared to moments ago back to Yuan.

Yuan swallowed nervously before accepting the Empyrean Overlord.

When he first acquired the Empyrean Overlord, there was always this feeling of it being incomplete to him, like it could be improved. It was a very minor feeling that didn't bother him, but it was there nonetheless.

However, the moment he touched the upgraded Empyrean Overlord, he immediately realized why he had that feeling.

He didn't think it was possible, but the Empyrean Overlord felt even more comfortable in his grasp, and there was even this sense of nostalgia from it.

"Don't be fooled by it." The masked man suddenly said.

"What do you mean?" Yuan looked at him with a puzzled face.

"Its seal may have been released, but it's not fully awakened just yet. In order to fully awaken it, you'll need to feed it lots of spiritual energy. You can do that by killing magical beasts or... other Cultivators." Although it was blocked by his mask, there was a grim smile on his face as he spoke.

"Though, it's still more powerful than the previous Empyrean Overlord even in its current state."

Yuan stared at the sword until a notification popped up.

<Awakened Empyrean Overlord>

<Rank: Soul Weapon>

<Growth Rate: Very Slow>

<Awakening Progress: 0%>

<A godlike weapon crafted by the God of Refinement and wielded by the Sword Emperor. It possesses tremendous power that surpasses all logic. However, it has yet to reveal its true name— its true potential>

<Unique Ability: Qi Devouring Blade>

[Qi Devouring Blade: Activately devours the Qi of your targets after a successful hit]

"A beautiful sword, right?" The masked man asked.

"Indeed." Yuan nodded.

"The Empyrean Overlord and I have experienced and surpassed countless tribulations together in the past. It wouldn't be an exaggeration to say that I wouldn't have survived many situations if it weren't for her."

"Her?" Yuan raised an eyebrow. Why would he address a sword in such a manner? Almost like it had a gender.

The masked man smiled, "About that... You will learn about it eventually."

"Why can't you just tell me now?"

"Because that would ruin the surprise and fun."

"All of you are like this..." Yuan sighed. "What's the point of keeping secrets to yourself?"

The masked man shook his head, "Although we all share the same soul, I wouldn't say that we're all the same individual. At one point in all of our lives, we had a different personality and lived different lives, so you can say that we're all unique in our own ways. Even if we eventually recover our memories and become nearly identical, it's not completely the same."

"There's a slight difference, and that difference, no matter how small, makes us unique."

Yuan felt some weight lifted from his heart after hearing such words, as he was always worried about returning to his old self— that he had no personality of his own.

"Anyways, the Sword Pagoda will collapse soon now that it has been cleared." The masked man suddenly said as he began walking towards Yuan.

"Here, take this."

The masked man handed a key to him.

"What's this key for? I also received one from the Seven Swords Trial."aid as he retrieved something from his pocket.

"Here, take this before you leave." The masked man handed him a golden key.

"I also got a key from the Nine Swords Trial..." Yuan mumbled.

"What does it do?"

"Collect 9 keys and go to the core of the tomb. Some of the answers that you seek will be there."

Yuan was bewildered. He didn't expect the masked man to actually give him a proper answer.

"Then... Are there any specific trials that I must pass to receive these keys?"

"Yes, there are, but there's no need to worry about it and just do whatever you want in here. You'll eventually find all of them, anyways."

"Are you saying this is the work of fate?"

However, before he could receive an answer, Yuan found himself teleported outside of the Sword Pagoda with Xiao Hua and the others returning to his body.

Once Yuan was outside, he could immediately feel countless gazes staring at him, causing his body to naturally tense up.

He looked around with a look of disbelief on his face, as there were tens of thousands of people there, and they were all staring at him with wide eyes.

After a brief moment of silence, almost as though everyone there snapped out of their daze at the same time, they all began bombarding Yuan with questions.

"What happened on the sixth and seventh floor?!"

"Why did it take you a whole week to pass the sixth floor?!"

"What kind of rewards did you acquire?!"

"Did you pass the seventh floor?!"

"Why did the Sword Pagoda suddenly collapse?!"

"SHUT UP!"

A deafening voice filled with an intense pressure suddenly rippled, startling everyone there and forcing them to hold their breaths.

A few seconds later, Yuan watched as a handsome silver-haired young man approached him with a group of new faces following behind him.

"I will keep this short since it would take too long if I said everything on my mind. Congratulations, Xiao Yang. Not only did you defeat me, but you've also become the first person in the Nine Heavens to defeat the Sword Pagoda. As promised, I will now answer all of your questions." Long Chen said to him with a defeated smile.

However, Yuan didn't say anything and merely extended his hand, almost as though he was asking for something.

Long Chen chuckled when he saw this, as he immediately realized what Yuan wanted from him.

He reached into his spatial ring and retrieved exactly 10 pebble-sized Royal-grade Spirit Jade before placing them on Yuan's open palm.

The spectators watched while salivating, as these 10 small Royal-grade Spirit Jades were worth over a hundred million spirit stones easily.

Chapter 1138 Silver Dragon

"Thanks." Yuan said as he tossed the Spirit Jades into his spatial ring.

Long Chen cleared his throat and spoke, "Now as for the questions you had for me... Yes, I am from the upper heavens. Specifically, the Ninth Heaven."

The surrounding people gasped in shock when they heard this information.

"He's someone from the Supreme Heaven?! No wonder why his aura is completely different!"

"A real bigshot!"

"I'm so glad I risked my life to come to the Nameless Emperor's Tomb this year! To think I'd see someone who came from the Supreme Heaven with my very eyes!"

While the spectators there mumbled to each other, Yuan remained relatively calm as he asked, "Oh? I didn't think someone from such a place would be interested in the Nameless Emperor's Tomb. Surely, you're not here for the treasures?"

Long Chen chuckled, "Of course not. The treasures here are as common as tableware in the Supreme Heaven."

"I can't tell you the exact reason why I am down here, but I am searching for a specific individual, but since we're essentially looking with a blindfold on, I decided to spend some time in this place."

'As expected, he's here to look for me...' Yuan sighed inwardly.

"I see... Then I won't bother you anymore. Good luck with your searches." Yuan was prepared to leave as soon as possible since nothing good will come out of staying around these people who were on a manhunt for him.

"Wait a minute. How can you leave already? I still have so much to talk about." Long Chen quickly stopped him.

"If you want to talk, we can do so another time. This place may mean nothing to you, but it means everything to me, and unfortunately, our time here is limited, so I won't entertain you anymore."

"Such insolence! I can no longer ignore your arrogance! Who do you think you are talking to?!"

One of the individuals behind Long Chen suddenly shouted.

Yuan glanced at this person and casually said, "Now that you mention it, I don't know. Care to enlighten me?"

"This bastard—"

"Stop." Long Chen glared at this individual with a serious expression.

"Ignore him, Xiao Yang. Once again, I am Long Chen— one of Four Dragons and Phoenixes. Most people in the upper heavens call me Silver Dragon."

"Silver Dragon? So you're a dragon?" Yuan asked, his interest piqued.

Long Chen shook his head, "Silver Dragon is just a title— one given to those who have been recognized as the most talented in our generation. Amongst the Four Dragons and Phoenixes, only three of them are actually from the Dragon Clan. With that being said, I do have some dragon blood in me. In the Supreme Heaven, the surname 'Long' is mostly reserved for those in the Dragon Clan, after all."

"Oh? So you're a half-dragon?" Yuan asked with an intrigued look on his face.

"H-Hey! That's—!" The group behind suddenly had terrified looks on their faces when they heard the word 'half-dragon'.

Long Chen's eyebrows twitched as a reaction, but he remained calm.

"Since you're not from the Supreme Heavens, I cannot blame you for not knowing, but most people who do not have pure blood would charge at you for using that term. They consider it derogatory."

"Is that so? I will keep that in mind, and I apologize if I offended you."

Long Chen shook his head, "Anyways, I have had this question on my mind since I first saw you..."

His gaze lowered, staring at the Golden Dragon Robe.

"Which Dragon Clan do you belong to?"

"I don't belong to any Dragon Clan."

"What? Then where did you acquire that uniform? If it wasn't given to you by the Dragon Clan, I highly suggest you return it to them. If they learn that a human is walking around with the Golden Dragon Robe, they'll hunt you down like a criminal on death row." Long Chen frowned.

"Then you don't have to worry. It was definitely given to me by the Dragon Clan. Although we're friends, I wouldn't say that I belong to their clan." Yuan said, unaware of the significance behind his outfit.

'Seriously...? Which family would hand out the Golden Dragon Robe to someone that isn't even part of the Dragon Clan? This will easily invoke the wrath of the other clans if they find out...' Long Chen couldn't imagine something like this happening.

After all, an ordinary family within the Dragon Clan wouldn't have something like the Golden Dragon Robe, as only those with royal blood are allowed to possess the outfit.

'In the first place, there are no families with royal blood in the Third Heaven, so he couldn't have possibly gotten it from here. Is he lying about the fact that he didn't come from the upper heavens? Or is he lying about how he acquired the Golden Dragon Robe?' Long Chen pondered with a serious expression on his face, hoping that it was the former reason.

After a moment of silence, Long Chen spoke, "If you don't mind, can you tell me the surname of the family that gave you that robe? I know I am asking a lot of questions, but this is for your own good."

Yuan nodded and responded calmly, "Their surname is 'Xi'."

"The Xi Family?! Impossible!" Long Chen cried out loud after hearing this unexpected information.

Yuan raised his eyebrows and asked, "Why do you look like you just saw a ghost?"

"B-Before I answer your question, allow me to confirm what I just heard... The family that gave you the Golden Dragon Robe is the Xi Family?"

Yuan silently nodded.

Long Chen fell silent again.

"Are you going to tell me that they don't exist or something?" Yuan asked.

"No... There definitely exists a Xi Family with royal blood within the Dragon Clan. However, they have been missing for thousands of years now. Are you sure it's the Xi Family?"

"Xi Shengmo." Yuan suddenly uttered the name of the Dragon Emperor.

Long Chen's eyes immediately lit up after hearing this familiar name.

'That's the Xi Family's Dragon Emperor's name! However, that isn't solid proof that he really met with them...'

"Can you tell me where the Xi Family is right now?" He then asked.

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 1139 Heading Towards The Sword Temple

"Sorry, but I cannot tell you their location. Although you say they're missing, they separated themselves from the rest of the world on their own accord, and they're living happily from what I saw." Yuan refused Long Chen's request without hesitation.

"They separated themselves? Why would they—" Long Chen halted his mumble when he suddenly recalled the Xi Family's history.

'The Xi Family disappeared shortly after the Dragon Clan's war with Cultivators many centuries ago. I guess they didn't want to deal with humans after what happened...' He sighed inwardly.

But this only created more questions for Long Chen.

'Why would the Xi Family that despises humans give a human the Golden Dragon Robe? This doesn't make sense no matter how I think about it.'

"Anyways, I have entertained you for long enough. If you have more questions, save them for after we all leave this place." Yuan turned around and began walking away.

"How about I come with you?" Long Chen started following him.

He still had many questions and wanted to recruit Yuan to his side, after all.

However, Yuan quickly turned around and held his arms up, pointing his palm directly at Long Chen's face, "Please leave me alone. I already have enough company with me."

"..."

Long Chen halted his steps and no longer followed Yuan.

Yuan quickly escaped the crowd.

"There's too much attention on me. I will meet you guys a few miles ahead." Yuan notified the Tian Family through divine sense as he flew away.

"I've never seen such an arrogant bastard before! He thinks he's above us just because he got lucky in the Sword Pagoda! I doubt he's actually that talented!" The people behind Long Chen gritted their teeth in anger.

"How could someone from a backwater place like the Third Heaven possibly have more talent than us?! He must have used some trick to beat the Sword Pagoda!"

Long Chen couldn't even be bothered by these people and merely remained silent, his eyes staring at the direction that Yuan disappeared to.

'Xiao Yang... What a mysterious fellow.' Long Chen realized at this moment that he's never been intrigued by another individual to such an extent.

Long Chen left the place shortly after, and when that happened, the other people at the Sword Pagoda went into an uproar.

"The Sword Pagoda has collapsed! What should we do now?!"

"I don't think there is anything we can do now..."

"Heavens! He defeated not only the Nine Swords Trial but also the Sword Pagoda! A legend is about to be born! I must let the others know!"

The name Xiao Yang began spreading within the Nameless Emperor's Tomb like a wildfire during a heatwave.

When the big families and powerful sects heard of Xiao Yang and his feats, they immediately decided to recruit him to their side.

"We must find this Xiao Yang before the others and recruit him to our sect!" A famous Sect Leader roared at his disciples.

"My daughter! I want you to meet with this Xiao Yang and bring him to our family at all cost!" A renowned Patriarch said to his precious daughter with an urgent expression.

"But father... You already engaged me to the Ming Family..."

"Screw the Ming Family! This Xiao Yang takes priority! If the rumors are true, he'll definitely become a prominent figure in not just the Third Heaven but the entire Nine Heavens!"

Some people in the Nameless Emperor's Tomb shifted their attention to Yuan after hearing his achievements, treating him as though he was another treasure in the tomb that must be acquired.

However, since the rumors sounded too good to be true, most people doubted it and decided to ignore it.

Meanwhile, a dozen miles away from the Sword Pagoda, Yuan regrouped with Tian Yanyu and Tian Suyin.

"You really dropped a lot of jaws back there— mine included..." Tian Yanyu said as she stared at Yuan, still with a somewhat dazed look on her face.

"..." Tian Suyin remained quiet, her thoughts unknown.

Tian Yanyu continued, "I've been dying to ask you— what happened on the sixth floor? Why did it take you almost a week to pass it when the seventh floor didn't even last an hour?"

"Oh, I was given a week to comprehend something. That's all."

"That's it? Although it's very different from the previous floors, it sounds boring. What about the seventh floor? What did it look like up there?"

"Same as the other floor— empty and boring."

"What about the reward?! You cleared the Sword Pagoda, right? Surely, the reward must be extravagant!" Tian Yanyu's eyes were essentially glowing from excitement at this moment.

Yuan shook his head, "Besides this key, I didn't really receive much."

"Seriously...?" Tian Yanyu was baffled after hearing this, and she looked like a child who just had her dreams crushed.

"Didn't you also receive a key at the Nine Swords Trial? What does it do?" Tian Suyin looked at the key with interest. Her instincts told her that the key would lead to something special.

"Indeed, but I don't know its purpose. I only know that I have to collect seven more before heading to the deepest parts of the tomb."

"That's impossible even for you. Not even half of the tomb has been explored since it was discovered, yet you want to go to the deepest area? You'll just be walking to your own grave."

Yuan smiled, "I think I will be fine. After all, fate brought me here."

'Fate? What a lunatic...' Tian Suyin shook her head inwardly.

"Anyways, my next destination is the Sword Temple." Yuan announced a moment later.

"The Sword Temple is located at the border of the outer area. It'll take us two weeks just to get there even if we traveled there in a straight line without rest." Tian Suyin said.

Yuan nodded, "You don't need to follow me there if you don't want to. I don't want to waste your time, either."

"Nonsense! We've already come this far, it would only be a waste if we stop here! And I'm sure that we'll get to witness something jaw-dropping again, so I won't leave even if you force me!" Tian Yanyu quickly said.

Yuan showed a defeated smile, "Alright, I won't stop you."

They resumed their journey shortly after.

Chapter 1140 Renowned

<+20 Fame>

<+31 Fame>

<+56 Fame>

<+111 Fame>

Yuan noticed that his Fame was increasing at a rapid rate as he traveled to the Sword Temple.

'This must be due to what happened at the Nine Swords Trial and the Sword Pagoda...'

While he was glad to see his Fame increasing, he still had no idea what kind of effect it had on him.

And in just a few days, his fame reached over 100,000.

Suddenly, an announcement appeared in the sky for all Players to witness.

<Player Yuan's fame has spread far and wide, becoming the first player to receive 100,000 Fame!>

Ding!

<You have received the title 'Renowned' for your achievement!>

<Certain events and areas have been unlocked due to your fame>

Yuan's eyebrows lifted slightly after seeing the notifications.

'So fame unlocks new events... Now the only question is where do I find these events...' He wondered inwardly.

"Xiao Yang, let's take a break."

Tian Yanyu suddenly turned to look at him.

"Alright." He nodded.

They stopped flying and started to look for an area where they could sit down to recover their depleted spiritual energy after flying for days without a break.

Sometime later, they sat below a large tree.

Tian Yanyu and Tian Suyin immediately closed their eyes and began to cultivate.

'I should have a few hours...'

Yuan stared at them for a moment before silently logging off the game for the first time since he entered the Nameless Emperor's Tomb.

'She's still inside, huh?' Yuan thought to himself as he looked at Chu Liuxiang, who was laying beside him with her console on her head.

He went to the bathroom and cleaned himself even though his body was sparking clean despite many weeks of not washing.

After coming out of the bathroom feeling refreshed, Yuan left the room to check up on the others, and as usual, they could be found at the training ground behind the house, but there was only one person there.

"Yuan! What are you doing here? Have you already finished exploring the Nameless Emperor's Tomb?" Wang Ming spoke as he stopped swinging his sword, pleasantly surprised to see him at the training field.

Yuan shook his head, "No, not even close. I'm just taking a small break to stretch my body. Where are the others?"

"They're all in Cultivation Online— that's all we do after morning training nowadays. I'm staying here later than usual since I feel like having a breakthrough soon."

"As for your girlfriends and Jinxi, they only show up once a week to exercise. Meixiu appears a little more often to cook for us, but that has stopped since we told her to focus on her cultivation. The place's been really quiet as of lately with everyone focusing on their own things."

Yuan nodded, "That's good. And since I am already here, want to have a little spar?"

Wang Ming smiled, "I would've asked you if you didn't."

Yuan grabbed a sword and started sparring with Wang Ming shortly after.

Some time later.

"You've improved a lot since our last spar." Yuan said to Wang Ming, who was lying on the floor while soaked in sweat.

"Yet I still cannot land a single hit on you."

Yuan chuckled, "You'll get there, but I won't make it easy."

"That's exactly what I want."

Yuan chatted with Wang Ming for a little longer before he returned to his room.

However, he still had plenty of time left, and he didn't want to return to Cultivation Online so quickly.

Thus, he decided to play with the zither.

After grabbing his zither from the closet, Yuan went to the balcony and began playing it.

About an hour later, Meixiu removed the console from her head and sat up on her bed to look at the clock.

'It's almost midnight...'

Her ears suddenly twitched when it heard a heavenly melody being played, which stimulated her body and instantly woke her up.

"This music... Yuan?"

She quickly went to the balcony before looking towards Yuan's room, and her eyes were immediately blessed by Yuan's handsome face that was enhanced by the moonlight as he played the zither elegantly.

Meixiu opened her mouth slightly only to close it without uttering a sound, as she did not want to disturb such a moment.

A minute later, after playing the final note, Yuan rested his hand on the zither before turning to look at Meixiu with a gentle smile on his face.

"Hey, it's been a while."

"Did something happen in Cultivation Online?" Meixiu couldn't help but ask the first thing in her mind.

"Everything is fine in Cultivation Online, I'm just taking a break."

"I see..." Meixiu didn't know what else to say.

"..."

After a moment of awkward silence, Meixiu subconsciously uttered, "Want to come over?"

By the time she realized what she'd just said, Yuan already responded with a silent nod.

"I will be there in a minute. Let me put away the zither first."

Once Yuan left the balcony, Meixiu's face flushed with redness.

A minute later, Yuan knocked on Meixiu's door.

Meixiu quickly answered.

Once they were inside the room, Yuan sat down and initiated the conversation, "How is your cultivation going?"

"Smoothly. I just entered the 7th level of Spirit Master before logging out."

"You're a Spirit Master already? It's only been a month. I guess this is what happens when you focus on cultivation." Yuan smiled.

She nodded, "The dense spiritual energy in the Third Heaven helps a lot. Of course, my cultivation technique plays the biggest role in my growth. I'm not the only one. Chu Liuxiang and Li Jinxi have also reached Spirit Master. Chu Liuxiang reached the 5th level last week. Though, the one with the most improvement is Li Jinxi. Even though she started much later than us, she has already surpassed us, reaching the 9th level. I think she'll become a Spirit Grandmaster soon."

"Li Jinxi is already at such a level? As expected of the number one genius in the Jaded Garden. She's really talented." Yuan was pleasantly surprised by Li Jinxi's immense growth.

"What about you? How are things in the Nameless Emperor's Tomb?" Meixiu then asked.

"A lot has happened." Yuan proceeded to recall his experience to her.

Chapter 1141 Burst Of Bloodlust

"And that's when I decided to take a break from Cultivation Online." Yuan recalled everything he'd experienced within the Nameless Emperor's Tomb to Meixiu, who listened with an intrigued expression on her face.

However, after Yuan finished his story, the place became dead silent, as neither had anything else to say.

The two of them proceeded to silently stare at each other for the next few moments.

As it has been some time since they last saw each other, and it being the longest that they have been away from each other for a long time, things felt a little awkward between them.

"Meixiu..." Yuan uttered in a low voice, trying to start a conversation.

"Yuan..."

Meixiu misunderstood his intentions and actually kissed him instead.

Yuan didn't complain and closed his eyes, quietly enjoying the soft sensation of her lips.

A few moments later, as her body started heating up with passion, Meixiu began removing her clothes while she continued to kiss Yuan.

Yuan did the same, and within seconds, they were both lying on the bed naked.

"I've missed this warmth..." Meixiu mumbled in a low voice.

"Yeah, me too." Yuan smiled.

They would connect their bodies shortly after, and they would go on to spend the rest of the night cultivating with each other.

Naturally, Yuan completely forgot about Cultivation Online, and it wasn't until the following morning did he recall about the Nameless Emperor's Tomb.

"I'm going to take a bath. Want to come with me?" Meixiu asked him after their passionate session.

"Sure— Oh! I completely forgot!"

"What?" Meixiu looked at him with a puzzled face.

"I have been gone for too long. Tian Yanyu will be puzzled when she finishes her cultivation and I am nowhere to be seen. I'm going to take a quick shower and immediately return to Cultivation Online. Sorry, Meixiu!" Yuan quickly rushed into the bathroom as he spoke.

"Don't worry about it. I am already lucky enough to see you during your brief break. Chu Liuxiang will definitely be upset to know that she'd missed you." Meixiu chuckled.

After a quick shower, Yuan rushed back to his room and logged back into Cultivation Online.

When he returned to the Nameless Emperor's Tomb, Yuan immediately noticed that neither Tian Yanyu or Tian Suyin was there. In fact, the tree that they had been cultivating under was gone as well.

"W-What the hell happened here?!" Yuan exclaimed in a shocked voice after seeing the scenery around him.

The ground around him was split, and it looked like a massive battle had just occurred in this area.

"Do you guys know what happened here? Where is the Tian Family?" Yuan asked his servants.

Unfortunately, they did not know.

"Sorry, Young Master, but we didn't see anything. When you disappeared, our senses were blocked, and we couldn't leave your body either." Feng Yuxiang said to him.

'Damn! I should've left them behind to watch over the Tian Family! I've screwed up!' Yuan cursed inwardly, blaming himself for this situation.

"Yuan, use your Divine Sense and see if you can sense them!" Lan Yingying suddenly suggested. "Your Soul Strength is much more powerful than ours, so you will be able to see further than us."

"Right!"

Yuan immediately activated his Divine Sense to the maximum.

"I found them!"

He quickly found them with Divine Sense.

"They're 25 miles north, and they're currently fighting a group of people!"

He could see Tian Yanyu and Tian Suyin currently being surrounded by a group of unknown Cultivators that clearly had bad intentions, and Tian Suyin even appeared to be injured.

Without hesitation, Yuan immediately began flying towards their direction, his aura filled with killing intent.

'Please let me make it in time!' He prayed as he flew.

Meanwhile, Tian Yanyu and Tian Suyin stood together with their backs facing each other.

"Mother, are you okay?!" Tian Yanyu exclaimed in a panicked manner when she noticed blood flowing down Tian Suyin's right arm.

"I'm fine. Worry about yourself." Tian Suyin said while gritting her teeth.

Tian Yanyu turned to look at the Cultivators attacking them and shouted, "Who are you guys?! We are disciples of the Jade Sword Manor! Why are you attacking us?!"

"Two beautiful ladies traveling by themselves inside the Nameless Emperor's Tomb, you're asking to be attacked! Ahahaha!" One of the Cultivators laughed out loud.

These Cultivators were all wearing unique outfits, suggesting that they might not belong to any sect.

"Are you all Rogue Cultivators? You'll regret attacking us once our friend returns!" Tian Yanyu roared.

"Your friend? Oh, I'm so scared!"

"Hahaha!"

"Nobody is coming to save you! Just give up and stop resisting! If you do, we'll make this painless— less painful for you!"

"Save your breath, Yanyu." Tian Suyin said to her using Divine Sense, "Listen to me. I am going to attract their attention. When that happens, I want you to run away."

"What?! I'm not going to leave you behind, even if I am going to die!" Tian Yanyu immediately refused.

"This is not the time to be stubborn!" Tian Suyin roared back.

"Alright, enough bullshit. Let's just get this over with before we're interrupted." One of the Rogue Cultivators suddenly said.

"I call dibs on the mother!"

"The young one's mine!"

"It's first come first serve!"

Tian Yanyu and Tian Suyin watched as eight Spirit Lords rushed at them with vulgar faces.

A burst of bloodlust suddenly erupted not far away, sweeping the place with a chilling ripple.

This instantly halted not just the Rogue Cultivators but also Tian Yanyu and her mother's movements.

Their initial thought was that they'd somehow attracted the attention of a ferocious magical beast.

However, before they could even think, one of the Rogue Cultivators suddenly shouted out in pain before he collapsed on the ground.

The others turned to look at him with baffled expressions, and they could see a large hole had somehow appeared in the center of his face.

"Yanyu! Senior!" Yuan's voice resounded a moment later.

Tian Yanyu instantly turned to face the direction of his voice with a blissful look on her face.

"Xiao Yang!"

Chapter 1142 Massive Magical Beast

"Mother, let's go!" Tian Yanyu immediately began running towards Yuan the moment she saw him, and she grabbed Tian Suyin's arm before pulling her along.

The Rogue Cultivators were still in shock from their companion's sudden death, so they couldn't react in time and allowed the two of them to escape.

"We'll talk after I take care of the trash." Yuan said to Tian Yanyu as he withdrew the Empyrean Overlord.

Almost as though it was responding to Yuan's emotions, the Empyrean Overlord's aura gushed like water at the bottom of a waterfall.

"W-Wait!" The Rogue Cultivators subconsciously raised their hands to surrender.

They could tell that Yuan was a Spirit King and that nobody there would be able to defeat him even if they all fought together.

However, Yuan wasn't interested in sparring these Cultivators and swung the Empyrean Overlord without hesitation.

A powerful sword light strengthened by Enhanced Sword Qi immediately flew towards the Cultivators.

Everything happened so fast that the Rogue Cultivators couldn't even escape if they wanted, so they had no choice but to try and block the attack.

Unfortunately for them, their techniques were all destroyed as soon as they were deployed.

Nothing could stop the sword light from killing these Cultivators today.

Sha!

The following moment, the Cultivators dropped dead on the ground with their bodies severed in half, their spiritual energy absorbed by the Empyrean Overlord.

[Awakening Progress: 10.01%]

Killing eight Spirit Lord Cultivators was only enough to increase the progress by 0.01%. As for the 10 percent, it actually came from the Sword Pagoda, unbeknownst to Yuan at the time.

Besides the Empyrean Overlord's awakening, the Sword Pagoda rewarded Yuan with all of the spiritual energy he'd gathered from each floor, but since his body couldn't absorb them, it was absorbed by the Empyrean Overlord instead.

Yuan ran back to Tian Yanyu and her mother after dealing with the Rogue Cultivators.

"Senior, you're hurt." Yuan quickly retrieved a pill for her injuries. "Here, take this."

"I'm fine. Where the hell did you go, anyway?" Tian Suyin said as she accepted the pill.

"Sorry, I decided to look around while you guys cultivated. I shouldn't have left you guys alone. This is all my fault."

"Nonsense! Those Rogue Cultivators were 100 percent at fault there! Don't kick yourself for their actions, Xiao Yang. And thank you for saving us. I don't even want to imagine what could've happened if you didn't come in time." Tian Yanyu shivered just thinking about it.

"Anyways, I'm just glad that nothing serious happened to you. I won't leave you two alone anymore. I promise."

"Good, because I am going to cultivate again to recover my exhausted spiritual energy." Tian Suyin said as she sat cross-legged on the ground. She'd used almost all of her spiritual energy to fight off the Rogue Cultivators, after all.

"Me too." Tian Yanyu also sat down and began cultivating.

This time, Yuan stood guard for them while scanning the area with his Divine Sense until they were done.

"Sorry for the wait." Tian Yanyu finished a little faster than her mother since she had a lower cultivation base, thus less spiritual energy to restore.

Tian Suyin opened her eyes two hours later.

Once they were prepared, they resumed their journey towards the Sword Temple.

"What?! Yuan was just awake?!" Chu Liuxiang came out of her room literally ten minutes after Yuan returned to Cultivation Online.

"Yes." Meixiu nodded, and she recalled Yuan's experience for her.

"I can't believe I just missed him... If only I had managed to break through a few minutes earlier!" She sighed out loud.

"You had a breakthrough? Congratulations." Meixiu said.

And she continued, "But even if you came out in time to see Yuan, he wouldn't have any time since he had to rush back into Cultivation Online."

Chu Liuxiang narrowed her eyes at Meixiu in a suspicious manner, "You seem happy—a lot more happy than the last time I saw you. I bet you had a lot of fun with him today."

Meixiu chuckled, "Indeed, I did—the whole night."

Chu Liuxiang sucked her teeth, "Well aren't you lucky..."

"Did he say when he'll take a break again?" She then asked.

"No, but he did say that he will try to take breaks as often as possible."

"That's good to hear."

A week later.

"Hm? There's something happening up ahead." Yuan suddenly warned the others.

"What do you see?" Tian Yanyu asked.

"There's a large group of Cultivators currently engaged in a fight with this massive magical beast. Should we go around them?"

Tian Suyin's eyes flickered with a profound light after hearing this.

"No! That magical beast is an event! If we defeat it, we'll be rewarded!"

"Are you sure? There are already people fighting it. If we enter now and steal their kill, they'll probably come after us..." Tian Yanyu said.

"There's no need to worry. Inside the Nameless Emperor's Tomb, magical beasts are free for all, so it doesn't matter who was first to fight it. If they cannot kill the magical beast and someone comes along to take it from them, they can only blame themselves for not being able to defeat it fast enough."

"Is that so?" Yuan mumbled.

If he had to be honest, he had this urge to fight this magical beast the moment he laid eyes on it, and Tian Suyin's words only convinced him to do so.

"Alright, I'm going to take care of this magical beast real fast and see what kind of reward I'll get from it. The two of you should stay far away just in case they attack me afterwards." He said to them a moment later.

"I understand." Tian Yanyu nodded.

A few minutes later, Yuan could see the magical beast's massive figure in the distance.

Tian Yanyu gasped in shock when she saw it.

"Heavens..." Tian Suyin was just as surprised. "I have seen plenty of magical beasts before in this place, but none of them could compare to this beast's size!"

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 1143 Massive Magical Beast(2)

This magical beast in the distance was as tall as a mountain, literally. It stood on all four like a horse, had purple and silver scales, and it had a dragon's head. Furthermore, there was this long, black horn on its forehead, and it was currently shooting out purple lightning from it.

This purple lightning scattered aimlessly, burning anything that it touched. The Cultivators that couldn't dodge it immediately became burnt toast.

"What kind of monster is that?" Tian Yanyu exclaimed in a startled voice after seeing the massive magical beast.

"That's a Purple Lightning Qilin. They're actually a lot smaller in the real world." Tian Suyin responded, her tone sounding a little stiff.

"The two of you should stay here. I will kill it quickly and come right back." Yuan said to them.

"Okay. Be careful." Tian Yanyu nodded without hesitation. The last thing she wanted to do was to get any closer to that lightning-spewing monster.

"His monstrous body will just restore any damage inflicted to him. I bet he's actually immortal." Tian Suyin joked in a serious manner.

"Then I will be right back." Yuan waved at them before flying towards the Purple Lightning Qilin that was running rampage in the distance.

"Watch out! It's going to shoot out lightning again!"

The Cultivators fighting the Purple Lightning Qilin were from different places. Some were disciples of a sect while others were members of a large family. Of course, there were Rogue Cultivators amongst the fighters, but they were mostly fighting alone without anyone watching their backs.

"Ahhh! Fuck! My leg! The bastard's got my fucking leg!" A disciple screamed in agony as he lost one of his legs to the Purple Lightning Qilin's lightning, burning it to a crisp.

"Aim for its horn! If we destroy the horn, it should stop using its lightning attack!" Another shouted.

As Yuan got closer to the battlefield, he could witness with his bare eyes the carnage, where rivers of blood and mountains of corpses littered the ground around the Purple Lightning Qilin.

'There has to be hundreds of corpses down there...' He thought to himself, feeling shivers down his back.

Once he was close enough, Yuan retrieved the Empyrean Overlord.

However, he did not immediately enter the battlefield and patiently waited for his chance to strike. He also studied the Purple Lightning Qilin's movements.

Of course, people continued to die as time passed. As unfortunate as their deaths were, Yuan wasn't going to risk his own life to save these people like some sort of hero. These Cultivators entered the Nameless Emperor's Tomb with the resolve to die, and they did the same before they decided to fight this beast.

About ten minutes later, once Yuan was confident that he knew all of the Purple Lightning Qilin's movements, he tightly held onto the Empyrean Overlord before flying towards it.

'The lightning attack may seem random at first, but it's not. It won't use it again for another three minutes, so this is my chance.'

Yuan appeared directly in front of the Purple Lightning Qilin the next moment, and his body released an aura that surmounted the massive beast before him.

His Empyrean Overlord also gushed with Enhanced Sword Qi.

'This is going to be my first time using Enhanced Sword Qi at its full power!'

After taking a deep breath, Yuan swung the Empyrean Overlord at the Purple Lightning Qilin's horn.

Sha!

The black horn that threatened and killed hundreds of Cultivators had been sliced off the monster's head cleanly.

The Cultivators there were in disbelief at first, but they quickly became overwhelmed with relief after realizing that they no longer have to worry about the lightning strikes.

However, before anybody could celebrate, the Purple Lightning Qilin released a loud roar, causing its scales to turn crimson.

Its eyes also turned bloodshot with red lightning sparking from within, and its body also started shooting out tiny red sparks that coiled all around its body, creating what appeared to be an armor made of lightning.

A sense of dread suddenly assaulted Yuan, and his body instinctively moved.

BOOM!

A massive red lightning strike suddenly descended from the sky, hitting directly where Yuan was flying.

"Argh!" Yuan released a pained voice before slamming his mouth shut when the sudden thunder managed to strike his left shoulder, tearing his entire arm. However, this could be considered lucky for him.

If he hadn't sensed the danger and moved in advance, the thunder strike would've struck his head, instantly killing him.

The Purple Lightning Qilin released another deafening cry, causing more red thunder strikes to rain down.

"Fuck! It's enraged! Run for your lives!"

The Cultivators scattered like ants when they saw the apocalyptic-like scene before them.

"Xiao Yang!" Tian Yanyu was terrified for his life when she saw the situation from afar. In fact, she had to distance herself even further as the area of the lightning strikes appeared to be growing with every passing moment.

'I need to finish this as soon as possible or it'll just get worse!' Yuan thought to himself as he dodged the lightning strikes left and right while he waited for his injury to recover. However, with the Purple Lightning Qilin spamming lightning strikes nonstop, it would be incredibly hard to attack while dodging even if he was uninjured.

Suddenly, a ball of flames shot out from his chest and flew directly at the Purple Lightning Qilin, engulfing its body in phoenix flames.

"I cannot sit back and watch it hurt you any longer, Young Master!" Feng Yuxiang's voice resounded.

Then, a ball of white flames appeared, mixing itself with the phoenix flame, causing the intensity of the flames to skyrocket.

The Purple Lightning Qilin stopped rampaging and began jumping everywhere trying to extinguish the flames, but alas, its efforts were futile, and the flames of two divine beasts only became stronger.

"Thank you, you two!" Yuan immediately took this chance to attack the monster.

After summoning his avatar, Yuan swung his sword at the Purple Lightning Qilin again, this time aiming right at the center of its body.

Whoosh!

The sword penetrated the scales with ease before cutting into its muscles, splitting its body into halves.

Chapter 1144 Sword Temple

After the Purple Lightning Qilin was slain by Yuan, its body immediately began decomposing at a rapid rate until there was nothing but a single item on the ground—a purple key.

Yuan picked up the key and thought to himself, 'Is this what he meant when he said that I'd eventually find them no matter what? Is this a work of fate, or is this the tomb's doing?'

"Brother Yuan, that wasn't a Purple Lightning Qilin. It was an Ancient Lightning Qilin, something that only exists in the Seventh Heaven and above. Even top Cultivators in that realm have trouble dealing with it." Xiao Hua's voice suddenly resounded.

"Have you encountered one before?" Yuan couldn't help but ask her.

"Xiao Hua isn't sure," she said.

"How are you not sure?" Feng Yuxiang then asked.

After a moment of silence, she spoke, "Xiao Hua's memories have been hazy lately. Memories that I don't recall have been appearing in my mind since we arrived in the Third Heaven."

"That is interesting..." Yuan mumbled.

"If I recall correctly, all exiles have restrictions placed on them to make their climb to the upper heaven as hard as possible, such as their strength. Does this mean Xiao Hua's memories have been restricted and such restriction is weakening as we move towards the upper heavens?" Feng Yuxiang theorized.

"That does sound plausible. What do you think, Xiao Hua?" Yuan found such a hypothesis entirely possible.

"Xiao Hua also thinks it's possible. This will also explain why my cultivation suddenly increased when we arrived in the Second Heaven and the Third Heaven." She agreed.

"If that's true, I wonder how strong you truly are, Xiao Hua." Yuan smiled.

"..." Xiao Hua blushed inwardly.

Yuan returned to Tian Yanyu and Tian Suyin shortly after.

"A-Are you okay, Xiao Yang?! It looked painful when you were struck by the Purple Lightning Qilin's red lightning..." Tian Yanyu looked at him with a worried face even though he looked perfectly fine.

"It was indeed a little painful, but it's not unbearable," he said.

"What did you receive from the Purple Lightning Qilin? Surely, it was an amazing reward." Tian Suyin was more interested in the reward.

Yuan showed her the purple key and silently smiled.

"That's it...?" Tian Suyin was dumbfounded.

He nodded.

"No way... These keys better lead to something heaven-defying for them to be considered as a reward..."

"Hopefully. Anyways, let's continue with our journey."

The three of them returned to the air shortly after and started flying towards the Sword Temple again.

A week later.

"Is that the Sword Temple?" Tian Yanyu mumbled as a white building appeared on the horizon.

"It is." Tian Suyin confirmed.

"It's a lot more ordinary than I expected."

The building itself was impressively large, but besides the beautifully detailed design exterior, everything was plain white.

However, that was not what Yuan saw.

While the others may only see an oversized white building, Yuan could see and sense that the entire building was overflowing with Enhanced Sword Aura, so much so that it sent shivers down his back.

Once he was close enough, Yuan could see a large group of Cultivators standing around a tall platform in front of the Sword Temple, where two individuals were engaged in an intense match.

'So that's the Sword Trial...' Yuan thought to himself when he saw it.

This was something he'd read about in Jade Sword Manor's library.

In order to enter the Sword Temple, one must participate in the Sword Trial and defeat their opponent first.

The opponent is different for everyone depending on their strength and talents. If one fails to pass the Sword Trial, they will be denied entry to the Sword Temple, and everyone only has one attempt.

"According to the statistics, less than one percent of challengers have actually stepped foot inside the Sword Temple, and hundreds of thousands of Cultivators participate in the Sword Trial every time the tomb opens." Tian Suyin said as they watched the Sword Trial from afar.

"The summoned Spirits always have the same cultivation as the challenger, but their techniques are usually far superior."

The opponents summoned by the Sword Trial are also addressed as 'Spirits' by most people.

"He lost already? It hasn't even been two minutes since the fight started..." Tian Yanyu mumbled after the challenger was sent flying off the stage with one less arm that he entered the stage with.

"You'd have to be a genius to last more than five minutes against the Spirits. That's how powerful they are." Tian Suyin said.

"The more I witness the Nameless Emperor's Tomb the more it feels like the odds are stacked against us. Just what kind of talent is the creator of this world looking for? Surely, they didn't make it just to mess with us, right?" Tian Yanyu sighed.

The vast majority of Cultivators create a tomb to pass down their legacy to someone worthy, but the Nameless Emperor's Tomb is so difficult that it feels like the creator made it just to mock the challengers.

'Sorry...' Yuan couldn't help but apologize to her inwardly, as this tomb was clearly created solely for him.

Sometime later, they made their way towards the stage before splitting up again.

Yuan went to the back of the line for challengers while Tian Yanyu and her mother went to stand with the spectators.

A few hours later.

"Hm? Look at that young man in the center of the line. Isn't that Xiao Yang?"

A few people who'd just arrived after coming from the Sword Pagoda quickly noticed him.

"You're right! It's him!"

"You mean the genius who cleared the Sword Pagoda?! That's him?! He looks so young!"

An uproar within the spectators quickly ensued, and it didn't take long before everyone was talking about him.

However, the conversation didn't last long, as everyone had their breaths taken away by a group of newcomers.

More specifically, a group of beautiful ladies that instantly stole the spotlight with their peerless appearance, especially the woman with an aloof expression in the front.

Yuan noticed the sudden change in atmosphere and turned to look as well.

'She's strong...' He immediately thought to himself after seeing the beauty in the front.

Chapter 1145 Sword Trial

The lady leading the group of beauties had long black hair, purple eyes with a hint of green, and slight make-up around her eyes. She looked incredibly beautiful but also threatening at the same time, like a rose with thorns.

These ladies were also exuding an overwhelming aura that nobody there has experienced before. They were clearly all from the upper heavens, especially the purple-eyed lady, who had a similar aura to Silver Dragon Long Chen.

However, unlike Long Chen, who was actively hiding his aura, this lady was letting it flow naturally.

These ladies would watch the Sword Trial from afar while mumbling to each other. It was unclear whether they planned on participating or not, but their presence was so heavy that it made focusing hard for the others.

Eventually, people began leaving the line one by one, as they did not want to participate under such an atmosphere. Of course, there were a few that became more motivated since they wanted to impress this group of fairies.

The line quickly grew shorter and shorter until there were less than a hundred people left.

Yuan quickly reached the front of the line, but right when it was his turn to enter the stage, the group of fairies began to move.

The group landed in front of him and blocked off his path to the platform while their leader—the purple-eyed beauty flew onto the stage.

"Wait if you don't want to die a pointless death." One of them said to him.

"..."

Yuan didn't want to argue with them so he remained silent.

"Good luck, Senior apprentice-sister Tang!"

"You'll clear this silly trial with ease!"

These girls began cheering for the purple-eyed beauty, who was surnamed Tang.

Shortly after the Fairy Tang entered the platform, an array formation in the shape of a circle appeared on the other side of the platform, and a figure would emerge from this circle a moment later.

As usual, this figure was wearing a mask, and they had the cultivation of a peak Spirit King.

Fairy Tang kept the same aloof expression on her face, seemingly unfazed by her opponent.

She proceeded to make the first move by pointing her finger at the masked figure.

"Scatter," she uttered in a low but confident voice.

Whoosh!

Thousands of purple-colored flower petals suddenly appeared out of thin air and flew towards the masked figure.

A sweet scent filled the air when the flower petals appeared, but when the surrounding Cultivators sniffed this scent, their consciousness immediately began fading, and those with a lower cultivation could even feel a numbing sensation in their body.

'This is... poison?' Although the poison wasn't effective on him, it wasn't completely ineffective, either.

After all, while his body could take a hit from a spiritual treasure and not receive a scratch, it didn't have much resistance to poison.

The purple flower petals quickly clashed with the masked figure like a tidal wave and consumed their entire figure.

However, a powerful wave of Sword Aura suddenly rippled in the area, instantly destroying the thousands of flower petals.

"Che. As expected, poison won't work on them." Fairy Tang sucked her teeth in an annoyed manner before she retrieved her weapon, a very thin sword that resembled a rapier, and her body also began radiating with Sword Aura.

The Sword Aura released by Fairy Tang was impressive, but it wouldn't hold a candle to Yuan's Sword Aura.

However, Fairy Tang still managed to defeat her opponent after 25 exchanges.

"Heavens! That fairy defeated her opponent within 25 strikes! I don't think I have seen anyone defeat the summon in less than a hundred strikes!" The spectators were filled with awe after witnessing Fairy Tang's performance.

"As expected of Senior apprentice-sister Tang!" Her group cheered.

The other girls in the group proceeded to enter the stage one by one until all of them challenged the Sword Trial.

In the end, all of them passed the trial, but their results greatly differed from each other, ranging between 50 strikes to 100 strikes to defeat their opponent.

"Heavens! I have never seen so many people pass the trial back to back! To think 7 people participated and 7 passed! Truly a spectacle!"

Once the whole group of beauties finally finished, Yuan made his way up the platform.

"Let's head inside the Sword Temple, Senior apprentice-sister Tang." The girls said to her.

However, she remained unmoving as her gaze was fixated on the platform.

The girls turned to look at Yuan and wondered why she was interested in his match.

"Although he's a little handsome, I don't see anything special about him."

"What do you see in him, Senior apprentice-sister Tang?"

Since Yuan had changed out of his Golden Dragon Robe to attract less attention from people like them, he no longer looked as special.

"Look around us. He's the only one who doesn't seem affected by my poisonous scent." Fairy Tang spoke in a calm voice.

When she mentioned this fact, the others also noticed this phenomenon.

"You're right... But is it really that weird? It's not like you're purposefully trying to harm them."

"Perhaps I am thinking too much about it. Let's go." Fairy Tang said as she turned around.

However, before she could even take two steps, her entire body froze when a tyrannical pressure suddenly appeared in the area.

"Who's exerting this pressure?!" The others were also baffled by this anomaly.

They all subconsciously turned to look at the platform.

"It must be that masked figure! She's the cause of this pressure!"

"Wait... This masked figure is a female?"

Indeed, standing on the platform about a dozen meters away from Yuan was a masked figure who was clearly a woman with feminine body, but the most damning evidence were the two large peaks on her chest.

"A masked figure that is a woman! I've never even heard of this before!"
The spectators were just as surprised as the group of fairies.

Yuan narrowed his eyes at this masked figure. He'd watched hundreds of matches before his own, yet none of them had a female opponent, so why did he summon one?

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 1146 Sword Trial(2)

After being summoned, the female masked figure started looking around with interest, almost as though she was inspecting her surroundings, a behavior that none of the previous Spirits have shown.

Her gaze eventually stopped on Yuan, and after a moment of silence, she spoke in a clear voice, "This is the first time I've been summoned since the creation of this place. What's your name?"

"S-She's having a conversation with her opponent?!" The spectators were beyond shocked by this.

"The Spirits in the Sword Trial have never spoken a single word before!"

"This is the first time it's a woman, too!"

"My name is Xiao Yang." Yuan introduced himself.

"Really?"

To his surprise, the female Spirit questioned his answer, almost as if she didn't believe him.

"I don't like liars, you know," she continued.

"..."

Yuan decided to remain silent.

"Well, whatever. Anyways, are you ready to fight me? I hope you can entertain me."

Yuan immediately retrieved the Empyrean Overlord.

The Spirit's body trembled when she saw the beautiful sword in his grasp.

"You... Why do you have that sword?" The Spirit muttered in a low voice that sounded to be in disbelief.

"Cause it's mine," he calmly responded.

"BULLSHIT!"

The Spirit suddenly roared, and a tyrannical aura exploded from her body, causing the spectators to scatter away from the platform.

"That's my Master's sword! How dare you defile it with your unworthy hands!"

Before Yuan could even respond, the female Spirit suddenly sprang into action, rushing towards him as a large Greatsword appeared in her grasp.

BOOM!

A powerful shockwave appeared when their swords clashed, and Yuan was actually pushed back by the Spirit.

When he stabilized himself, he could feel his entire arm shaking.

'Shit! What terrifying strength!' Yuan cried inwardly, and he realized that this could be the most difficult challenge he's faced in this place yet.

"Die!"

The Spirit did not spare Yuan any time to think and continued to rush at him with her attacks growing stronger with every strike.

Clang! Clang! Clang!

The Spirit eventually started using Sword Aura, causing ripples filled with Sword Aura to scatter everywhere, destroying the platform and the surroundings.

"Heavens... What am I witnessing?"

The group of fairies from the upper heavens were baffled by the fierce battle, something they thought could only happen in the upper heavens, especially Fairy Tang, who was in disbelief for another reason.

'How... How did he manage to summon an opponent who is far stronger than mine?' Fairy Tang wondered to herself why her Spirit was inferior.

The difference between Yuan's opponent and her own— they couldn't even be compared.

'As far as I know, the Sword Trial adjusts the Spirits based on the challenger's talent. Does this mean the Sword Trial believes that my talent is inferior to that man's talent? That I am inferior to a nobody from the Third Heaven? Impossible!'

Fairy Tang gritted her teeth in frustration. Her existence has always been compared to the others since birth, yet she's always at the top, even when compared to those from powerful families, so she could've never imagined that she'd feel inferior to someone that isn't even from the upper heavens.

As time passed, the spectators would become more and more speechless.

"Heavens... They have been going at it for hours now. It's not weird for the Spirit to not get tired, but that young man is a different story! Just how much energy does he have?!"

Although it may seem like Yuan has unlimited energy like the Spirit, it isn't as simple as that. His body, from his muscles to his bones, are damaged and destroyed with every exchange, but due to his Perfect Regeneration, it completely heals itself before the next exchange.

Of course, even if his body is fine, one's mental state usually degrades as a fight prolongs, but due to Heaven's Indomitable Soul, his mind that is affected by Soul Strength not only refreshes itself, it also grows stronger with every second.

Therefore, if he isn't damaged faster than he could heal, and if he doesn't use too much Soul Strength at once, he could potentially fight for an eternity without any breaks.

The female Spirit, who had been cursing Yuan nonstop at the beginning, also became quiet.

Minutes turned to hours, and hours turned to days.

In the blink of an eye, Yuan and the Spirit had been fighting each other for five days straight now.

More and more people have shown up at the place just to witness their legendary fight, including the Silver Dragon, who rushed over after hearing the news.

"How long have they been fighting?" One of the newcomers asked.

"They've been at it for five days now."

"F-Five?! Are you messing with me? There's no way anyone can fight that long with such intensity."

"You don't have to believe me. You can ask the others."

Meanwhile, Silver Dragon Long Chen hovered in the air with a pondering expression on his face.

'They've been fighting at this pace for five days now, yet neither of them are using their full strength. That Xiao Yang, is he using that Spirit for training? Even if that's the case, why is the Spirit going along with him?' He wondered, as he thought that the Spirits were meant to defeat the challengers as soon as possible.

"Hm?"

It was at this moment that he noticed the group of beauties standing near the entrance of the Sword Temple.

'So she's also here, huh?'

A smile appeared on his face when he saw the expression on her face. He didn't think he would ever get the chance to see such a sight.

'So even the Poison Phoenix can feel jealousy. What a surprising find.'

He approached her a moment later.

However, Fairy Tang didn't sense his presence until he was right beside her.

"It's been a while, Poison Phoenix." Silver Dragon greeted her with a somewhat cheeky smile.

Fairy Tang glared at him with a cold gaze as she spoke, "What do you want, Silver Dragon?"

Chapter 1147 Sword Trial(3)

Upon sensing the Poison Phoenix's unwelcoming aura, Silver Dragon remained calm as he chuckled, "I don't really want anything from you."

"Then why are you bothering me? Go away, as far as possible, until I cannot see your annoying face with my divine sense." Poison Phoenix coldly sneered.

"Even though I don't need anything from you, I couldn't help but notice you staring at my friend very intently." Silver Dragon said, still with a smile on his face.

Poison Phoenix's expression changed drastically after hearing his words, and she quickly asked, "Your friend? You know that man?"

"Ohho? Am I thinking too much or is the Poison Phoenix, who is prominent for having no interest in anything, actually interested in someone— a man, at that?" Silver Dragon spoke in a teasing voice.

Poison Phoenix began emitting killing intent, "If you value your life, you better watch your mouth when you speak to me, you half-breed dragon."

"..."

Her words wiped the smile off Silver Dragon's face, who also started emitting killing intent.

The ladies with Poison Phoenix shuddered at their clashing killing intent, but the Four Dragons and Phoenixes often fought with each other due to their rivalry nature, so they weren't surprised at all.

"Hmph." Silver Dragon was the first to retrieve his killing intent. "Forget it. I'm not going to fight with you here, especially since it will disturb the Sword Trial. You know what happens if someone disturbs an ongoing challenge in this place, right?"

"I'm not stupid like you."

Poison Phoenix also retracted her killing intent.

There was a strict rule that everyone must follow while inside the Nameless Emperor's Tomb. This rule prohibited anyone from disturbing an ongoing trial. Those who violate this rule will be executed on the spot.

However, even though most people know this rule, there will also still be those who are either ignorant or don't care about the rule.

"Why the fuck is he taking so damn long?! Can't he see that there are other people waiting to take the trial?! Does he think we have an unlimited amount of time in this place or something?!"

A bulky man with long wavy hair and a crusty beard suddenly jumped out of the crowd and towards the platform.

"If you're going to take your sweet ass time, I'll end this for you right now!"

"Stop! What do you think you're doing?!"

The spectators there shouted at him to stop, but nobody dared to physically intervene.

Once the bearded man was about 50 meters away from the platform, an unfathomable pressure suddenly that could only be felt by the man appeared, and it halted the man midair.

"It's over for him."

"What an idiot."

The spectators merely shook their heads upon seeing this.

The next second, the bearded man's expression became filled with horror as his body began twisting like a pretzel stick until it could no longer withstand the pressure and burst like a balloon.

Strangely enough, there was no blood or meat showering the crowd below, almost as though his body was made of air.

A second after the man's gruesome death that was witnessed by all, a profound voice resounded in the head of everyone there excluding Yuan.

"Without exception, those who dare to disturb the trial will be executed."

This voice that was backed by an unfathomable strength sent chills down their spine with some even falling on their butt.

"The creator of this place is truly something else..." Silver Dragon mumbled with a nervous smile on his face.

"Hey, how do you think he would fare against the peak experts in the Supreme Heaven?" He turned to look at Poison Phoenix.

"Why are you still here? Get lost."

Silver Dragon shrugged and turned around to leave, but he stopped again after two steps.

"Oh, right, do you still want to know about that man?" He turned to ask her.

"Scram!" Poison Phoenix growled in a low voice.

However, instead of leaving, Silver Dragon decided to stay and start speaking without looking at her, almost as though he was talking to himself, "Honestly, I don't know much about him, either. His name is Xiao Yang, and we met not long ago at the Sword Pagoda."

When Silver Dragon started talking, Poison Phoenix acted like she couldn't care less, but she was actually listening with interest.

Silver Dragon spoke about how they met and Xiao Yang's achievements at the Sword Pagoda.

Meanwhile, on the platform, Yuan was still focused on his training using the Spirit.

Since the Spirit doesn't seem to have any intentions on defeating him as soon as possible, he wanted to take this chance to train himself, especially since he rarely encounters a powerful opponent like the Spirit.

As for the Spirit, she knew very well what Yuan was trying to do, but she didn't care about it, as this was her first time being summoned since the creation of the Nameless Emperor's Tomb, and as a battle junkie herself, she wanted the fight to last as long as possible.

However, she eventually couldn't be satisfied with their current pace, so she began increasing her power and speed to make things more entertaining.

'If I increase the pace by another 15 percent, would he be able to keep up?' The Spirit wondered inwardly.

But before she could even decide, Yuan suddenly decided to speed up the pace by another 20 percent.

This caught the Spirit by surprise, causing her to miss one of Yuan's strikes for the first time.

Crack!

The tip of Yuan's sword only managed to brush against her mask, but due to the Sword Aura surrounding the blade, it damaged the mask just enough to cut a portion off.

The Spirit stopped fighting and stood still after she realized what had just happened.

"You little bastard... How dare you damage my mask!" The Spirit spoke in a cold voice before she proceeded to remove the rest of the mask, revealing her face to the crowd.

Yuan's eyes widened with surprise after seeing her face, and he subconsciously muttered, "Li Jinxi?"

Chapter 1148 Jin Xi

To say Yuan was surprised to see Li Jinxi's face behind the mask of the female Spirit would be an understatement.

"Hm? Do I know you?" The Spirit suddenly asked him with raised eyebrows.

"Huh?" Yuan stared at her with a baffled face.

"Why do you know my name? I don't recall introducing myself."

"Your name is Li Jinxi?" Yuan asked for confirmation.

"No, my name is Jin Xi."

"..."

Yuan was speechless.

After snapping out of it, he said, "You're mistaken. I don't know you, but you do resemble someone that I know, and even your name is quite similar."

"Is that so? Then let us continue our fight. I'm going to stop going easy on you now," she said.

Yuan immediately got into position and prepared to clash with her again.

However, Jin Xi's body suddenly erupted with a sharp aura that made those who sensed it feel like they were hundreds of swords stabbing their body, making it difficult to breathe.

Despite that, almost nobody there knew what they were sensing, and only those from the upper heavens had an idea.

"Enhanced Sword Aura!" Silver Dragon muttered with awe all over his surprised face.

Poison Phoenix gritted her teeth in frustration. Even though she doesn't have Enhanced Sword Aura herself, she was experienced enough to understand it when she senses it.

However, for everyone else there, they had no idea that Enhanced Sword Aura even existed.

Seeing Yuan's dazed face, a cheeky smile appeared on Jin Xi's face, and she spoke, "Don't tell me this is enough to make you quit?"

"Hardly."

Yuan chuckled before activating his own Enhanced Sword Aura, but since he'd only recently learned it, it was a little inferior to Jin Xi's Enhanced Sword Aura.

"He also knows Enhanced Sword Aura?!" Silver Dragon exclaimed after seeing it with his own eyes.

'Someone from the Third Heaven really managed to comprehend Enhanced Sword Aura? If he'd been born in the Supreme Heaven, just how terrifying would he be right now?' He wondered inwardly.

"Ready or not, here I come!" Jin Xi shouted right before she began her assault.

Clang!

Bits and pieces of their Enhanced Sword Aura would scatter after each exchange, sending them flying towards the spectators.

When the spectators noticed that their clothes were being cut by an invisible force, they immediately started running away from the stage.

Within mere seconds, pretty much everyone besides Silver Dragon, Poison Phoenix, and her friends were hundreds of meters away from the platform.

"Hahaha! This is what I am talking about!" Jin Xi's laughter echoed loudly.

"Besides my Master, you are the only other person who can satisfy my itch!"

Jin Xi's movement would become faster and faster, and her sword techniques would become sharper and fiercer.

Yuan tried to keep up with Jin Xi's pace, but since this was his first time fighting with Enhanced Sword Aura, he had to put more effort into maintaining his Sword Aura than anything else.

Because of this, Jin Xi would land a few hits on him, but his injuries would heal almost instantly.

"Are you even human, you bastard?" Jin Xi cursed at him when she saw his ridiculous healing abilities.

The two of them would continue at this pace for a few more hours. Even though Jin Xi was seriously trying to win at this moment, she couldn't deal any significant damage to Yuan, and it only got harder to hit him as time passed, as Yuan was improving at a rapid rate.

It took almost half a day, but Yuan's control with his Enhanced Sword Aura eventually became as natural as breathing. This allowed him to focus more on his technique and defeating Jin Xi.

"I think it's about time that we end this. Thank you for the training, Jin Xi." Yuan said to her before his aura exploded.

"You're a thousand years too early to even think about defeating me, junior!" Jin Xi roared, the veins in her arms bulging with vitality.

Perhaps Jin Xi had the power to defeat Yuan, but because she was only a mere Spirit, her strength was limited, and she was destined to be defeated by Yuan today.

After several more exchanges, Yuan managed to break through Jin Xi's defenses and slice her body into two.

Jin Xi's face was filled with disbelief for her last few moments before her body disappeared into thin air.

<You have passed the Sword Trial>

<You may now enter the Sword Temple>

Yuan stood on the stage and silently stared at where Jin Xi disappeared.

'I should've asked her about her relationship with my incarnation before I defeated her...' He sighed inwardly after realizing this missed chance.

However, right as he started to walk off the platform, he suddenly felt a familiar presence appear from behind him.

He turned around, and to his surprise, Jin Xi had reappeared again.

"What is the meaning of this? I thought I had already passed the Sword Trial." Yuan said to her.

"Indeed, you have passed the trial." Jin Xi confirmed.

"Then what are you still doing here?" Yuan raised his eyebrows in a puzzled manner.

"Is there a reason why I cannot be here?" She responded with a question.

Yuan wasn't sure how to answer her question.

"In the first place, don't compare me with the other Spirits. I have a consciousness of my own— even if it's artificial." Jin Xi then said.

"Like the Master of this place?"

She nodded, "Something like that."

"Anyways, besides fighting whoever summoned me, I also have a duty to guide them, so we will be together for a little longer. Are you disappointed?"

"No, I still have some questions for you, after all." Yuan smiled.

"They can wait until you're finished with the Sword Temple. Follow me, I will guide you."

Everybody there watched as Jin Xi, a Spirit, left the platform for the first time.

Yuan didn't say anything else and followed her.

As they both approached the Sword Temple, a group of figures suddenly appeared out of nowhere to block their path.

"Hello?" Yuan said to the group with raised eyebrows as he wondered what they wanted from him.

Chapter 1149 Poison Phoenix

"Can I help you?" Yuan asked the group of beauties standing before him.

"How rude! Do you know who you are standing before?!" One of the girls suddenly spoke in a displeased manner.

Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"I don't." He answered without hesitation and with a straight face.

This caught the girl who just spoke off guard.

"So, who are you guys?" Yuan didn't wait for the girl to respond and asked.

"I am Tang Meili, one of Four Dragons and Phoenixes, also known as Poison Phoenix. You've heard of us, right?"

If Silver Dragon hadn't told her about Yuan, she would've definitely assumed that he had no idea about the Four Dragons and Phoenixes. After all, they only existed in the Supreme Heaven.

"Yes, I have heard about you guys before. So, how can I help you, Poison Phoenix?"

"Now that you know my identity, you still dare to speak so casually? You're an arrogant one." Poison Phoenix sneered, but she didn't really sound bothered by it.

And she continued, "Anyways, my Tang Family happens to be hiring more servants. Although you don't really qualify at this moment, I'm willing to make an exception. Become my servant."

Yuan was speechless. He didn't expect for her to suddenly recruit her as a servant.

After snapping out of it, he chuckled, "Are you always like this?"

Tang Meili frowned and muttered in a low but cold voice, "What do you mean? And before you answer, I urge you to really think about your words, as there will be consequences for offending me."

Yuan showed a daring smile, "There you go again. How can you say such words with such a calm face? There should be a limit to one's arrogance. Even if you came from the upper heavens, you don't own everyone here, so don't act and speak like you do."

Tang Meili's body visibly trembled after she heard his words.

"How dare you!"

"You're courting death, you insolent bastard!"

"You think you're untouchable just because you are a little talented?! I'll show you!"

The girls with Tang Meili exploded with anger before she could even respond.

"Let's all calm down, shall we?" A familiar voice suddenly resounded.

? It was Long Chen.

'I thought I told him to not follow me...' This was the first thing that came to Yuan's mind when he saw Long Chen.

"Calm down?! I will calm down after I cut off his tongue!" One of the girls said as she leaped forward and swung her weapon at Yuan's face.

Ding!

Long Chen quickly reacted by deflecting the attack.

"Scram!" Long Chen roared, his aura exploding like a bomb.

"Ah!" The girl who clashed with him was sent flying backwards.

His title as Silver Dragon wasn't for nothing. In this place, perhaps only Poison Phoenix could fight him properly.

"Let's attack him together! Even he cannot defeat all of us while his cultivation is restricted to Spirit King!" Someone suggested.

However, before they could act, Tang Meili shouted, "All of you stand down!"

The place became silent again.

"You want to have a go with me? It's been many years since our last exchange, after all." Long Chen beckoned her with a confident smile.

"Hmph." Tang Meili sneered at his words, and she said, "I don't have any business with you today, Silver Dragon."

After saying that, she approached Yuan, and despite Long Chen standing between them, she completely ignored him and walked right past him.

Long Chen didn't try to stop her since he didn't feel any killing intent from her, but he still kept an eye on her just in case.

Tang Meili stopped once she was in front of Yuan.

"I will only ask you this one time. Are you sure you don't want to serve me? My Tang Family is one of the top 10 families in the Supreme Heaven. Although you will only be a servant, nobody would dare to mess with you. If you put in enough work, you might even be allowed to learn our family techniques."

Despite Yuan's earlier remarks that would normally result in a death sentence from her, she still approved and desired his talents. After all, someone who could learn Enhanced Sword Aura in this kind of environment and at his age would be hard to find even in the Supreme Heaven.

"Thank you for the offer, but I will have to refuse." Yuan responded without needing to think about it.

"Is that so?" Tang Meili closed her eyes and took a deep breath.

When she opened them, they were resolute and emitted a ruthless aura.

"If you're not going to join us, then I don't need to worry about breaking you."

Tang Meili's words implied that she was going to destroy him, but she didn't do that and simply turned around and began walking away.

"Senior sister, you should break his limbs at the very least for looking down on you."

"I'm not the type that enjoys stepping on ants, but I will kill him if he ever dares to step foot in the Supreme Heaven." Tang Meili said in a cold voice.

"That's it? I was hoping for a good show." Jin Xi said in a disappointed tone after Tang Meili and her group were gone.

Yuan looked at her with slightly widened eyes and said, "You're going to let them attack me? What kind of guide are you?"

Jin Xi shrugged, "I'm your guide, not your guardian. And you already have a guardian, so why are you expecting something from me?"

Yuan turned to look at Long Chen, who was silently smiling at him.

"Is everyone in the Supreme Heaven like that?"

Long Chen shrugged, "I can't speak for everyone, but that's how many people in the Supreme Heaven view those from a lower realm. After all, even beggars up there have a higher cultivation than everyone down here.

Though, the Poison Phoenix showed a lot of restraint back there. Normally, she'd kill anyone that dares to talk back to her."

"Is that so? What about you? How do you view the people down here?" Yuan suddenly asked him.

A cold smile appeared on Long Chen's face as he replied, "Of course, you're all nothing but ants in my eyes."

"You think I am an ant as well?" Yuan raised an eyebrow.

"In your current state? Yes, you are. I don't mean to sound conceited, but even with my cultivation restricted, I can easily crush you with a single finger. You may have potential, but that's all you are right now— potential."

"..."

Long Chen continued, "You are probably thinking that you have a few cards up your sleeve since I haven't seen you fight at 100 percent, but the same goes for you."

Yuan shrugged, "Even if you are wrong, I have no reason to prove you wrong. If you have nothing else to say, I am going to leave."

Long Chen was slightly shaken when he noticed Yuan's unwavering eyes.

'Does he really believe that he could have a proper fight with me?' He almost couldn't believe it.

However, before he could even say anything, Yuan had already left his side and entered the Sword Temple.

Since he has yet to pass the Sword Trial, Long Chen could only watch as Yuan's back disappeared into the building.

Chapter 1150 Sword Temple

'As I thought, it's dangerous for me to be around these people from the upper heavens. They're nothing but trouble.' Yuan sighed inwardly as he entered the Sword Temple with Jin Xi.

Inside the Sword Temple was so dark that Yuan couldn't even see his own hands, almost as if he'd entered the void.

"What kind of place is the Sword Temple? This seems different from what I've read about." Yuan asked out loud. Even if he couldn't see her, he could feel Jin Xi's presence beside him.

"The Sword Temple is different for everyone. What you see and hear will depend on your talents and fate."

Yuan didn't say anything else and proceeded to wait for something to happen. However, when nothing happened even a few minutes later, he spoke again, "So, what am I waiting for?"

"Be patient. The Sword Temple is possessing your information. It could take hours to days until it finishes," she said.

"Should've said so earlier..." Yuan sighed.

He then took a seat and closed his eyes.

"Hey, can I ask you some questions?" Yuan decided to start a conversation while they waited.

"That depends on the question."

"The one you address as 'Master', is he the creator of this tomb?" He was pretty confident he already knew the answer to this question, but he wanted to be sure.

"That's right. My Master is all-knowing and powerful. There's nobody in the Nine Heavens stronger than him."

She spoke in a bragging manner.

"What's your relationship with him? How did you end up as his servant?"

"Servant? What an outrageous assumption, you asshole. What made you think I was serving him?"

"You're not? The way you act, I guess."

"I call him master because I am his disciple!" She exclaimed, sounding quite offended.

"Oh, really? My bad."

Yuan was surprised. He didn't expect to have disciples in his past life. Though, if he thought about it, it wasn't too shocking.

"So did he own a sect?"

"No. Master wasn't the type to stay in one place for long. He's always traveling. Even if he did, he wasn't exactly Sect Master material."

"Then how did you end up as his disciple?"

"..." Jin Xi fell silent for some reason.

"I don't want to talk about it," she mumbled a moment later.

"Then tell me about him. What kind of person was he?" Yuan asked.

"Hmph. You've already asked enough questions. It's my turn to ask some," she said.

And she continued, "First of all, where did you get that sword from the Sword Trial."

"The Empyrean Overlord?"

"So you even know its name..."

"I acquired it from someone else. She found it in this place, too."

"Is that so? And it accepted you as its master, right?"

"That's right."

"Who are you, really?" She then asked.

"Xiao Yang."

"Don't give me that shit again. Your real name."

Yuan smiled, "My name is Yuan, and I came from a place called Earth."

"Earth? Never heard of it."

"Well, it's not within the Nine Heavens, so I am not surprised."

As ridiculous as it sounded, Jin Xi didn't call him a liar, almost as if she knew.

"Why did you come to this place?" Jin Xi suddenly asked.

"Fate brought me here, I think."

Jin Xi sneered at his answer for some reason.

"What's wrong?" Yuan asked.

"You sounded like my master, who always talks about fate."

"Really? Can you tell me about him? The creator of this place is shrouded with countless mysteries, after all."

After a moment of silence, she spoke, "Even though I've known him for thousands of years and even followed him for a good majority of those years, there's a lot that I still don't know about him. Hell, I don't even know what he looks like since he's always wearing a stupid mask for some reason."

'Well, you do now...' Yuan smiled inwardly.

"Master was always in the spotlight, even during his childhood. His immense— heaven-defying talents would attract attention no matter where he went. He also had a lot of enemies and couldn't go a week without fighting someone, most of them being people who envied his talents."

"Master learned Sword Aura at a young age and mastered Enhanced Sword Aura before he even turned 30, earning him the title of Godly Sword Emperor. He is also the first and only person to have ever reached the level of whatever is beyond Enhanced Sword Aura."

"He was so famous that his existence was known throughout the Nine Heavens, yet it seemed like nobody knew his true name or face. I wanted to follow him until the end of time, but alas..." Jin Xi sounded disappointed towards the end, even a little regretful.

"Did something happen?" Yuan decided to dig deeper.

However, Jin Xi shook her head and said, "I don't know. That's the extent of my memories."

"Is that so... Then do you know why he created this place?"

"Nope." She answered without hesitation.

"Master's thoughts are too profound for someone like me. All I am good for is swinging the sword."

Yuan couldn't help but chuckle at her words. She greatly resembled Li Jinxi not just in appearance but nature as well.

He wanted to say something, but his attention was stolen by a white glow that had suddenly appeared in the distance.

"What's that?" He asked.

"You're about to find out," she said.

Whoosh!

The white glow that started out as a small dot quickly expanded until it consumed all of the void, turning the entire place white.

Thud.

Thud. Thud. Thud.

The sound of approaching footsteps began echoing in the place shortly after.

Jin Xi's eyes slowly widened as she recognized this familiar sound.

A tall figure wearing an ordinary-looking mask appeared in the distance a moment later.

"Master..."

Jin Xi muttered in a trembling voice as she slowly kneeled on the floor and lowered her head.

The masked man stopped in front of Yuan.

"Welcome to the Sword Temple," he said.

Chapter 1151 Divine Gaze

"So, what are you going to make me do now?" Yuan asked the masked man, who stood before them with his hands clasped behind his back.

However, the masked man didn't say anything and merely took a seat in the lotus position, and he would remain as still as a rock without uttering a single sound for the next few minutes.

This caused Yuan to raise his eyebrows. He wasn't sure what he was waiting for or how long this would take.

"Are we still waiting for something to happen?" He decided to ask Jin Xi, who looked at him with a slight frown.

"Seriously? The trial has already started," she said, taking him by surprise.

"What? Where? What's the rules?" He continued asking.

Jin Xi pointed at the masked man and said, "Figure it out yourself."

After saying that, she returned to staring at the masked man's figure with an admiring expression on her pretty face, looking like a little girl before her idol.

"..."

Yuan no longer bothered with her and also took a seat.

'What am I supposed to do? I don't sense anything from him.' He wondered to himself as he stared at the masked man, pondering about the trial.

The masked man had no aura, his breathing was so subtle that it was almost nonexistent, almost as though he was on the verge of death.

Many minutes later, still having no idea about the trial, Yuan turned to his companions for assistance.

'Do you guys know what is happening here?'

"No idea." Feng Yuxiang responded without hesitation.

"I also don't know." Lan Yingying shook her head inwardly.

"..."

Xiao Hua's response took a little longer, "Although he seems to be cultivating, the spiritual energy around him is completely still, so that's not possible. Perhaps he is training Sword Aura? Xiao Hua can't tell because she cannot sense it."

"That's what I thought at first as well, but I cannot sense an ounce of Sword Aura from his body." Yuan shook his head.

He began walking in circles around the masked man as he pondered more about the Sword Temple's purpose.

However, no matter how much he racked his brains, he was unable to grasp the situation.

Eventually, Jin Xi snapped, "Stop pacing around Master like he's some kind of object at an exhibit! Show some respect! You're also disturbing me by blocking my view!"

Yuan shrugged, "What can I do? He's literally left no clue about this trial, and I cannot figure it out."

Jin Xi facepalmed and sighed, "Why did the Master even show himself to an idiot like you?"

"That's quite harsh... But can you really blame me here? This trial is different for everyone, so it's not like I can prepare for this."

After sighing again, Jin Xi spoke, "Listen up, I will only say this once."

"What you're doing right now is pointless. You'll never get anywhere even in a million years at your current pace. If you want to understand the situation, stop looking at the surface and start looking deeper."

"Stop looking at the surface and look deeper?" Yuan repeated in a mumbling voice.

He turned to look at the masked man again.

'His breathing... The sound of his heartbeat...'

Yuan suddenly entered a trance where he was completely focused on the masked man, paying attention to the pace of his breathing and even the rhythm of his heartbeats.

However, Yuan felt that wasn't enough, but he didn't know how to look deeper.

Then, almost as though an invisible lightning bolt had struck him and gave him divine epiphany, Yuan subconsciously started using divine sense in a new way.

Normally, one expands their divine sense outwards to see as much and as far as possible, but Yuan did the opposite and condensed his divine sense until it only had the masked man in its sight, allowing him to see the masked man like he was looking through a microscope.

Unfortunately, he was only still able to see the exterior.

Immediately, Yuan tried something different.

This time, he condensed his divine sense even more, and he used it to enhance his own eyes.

Yuan's eyes quickly widened with surprise.

'I can see... I can see everything! From his muscles to the bones! I can even count his blood cells individually!'

<You have learned Divine Gaze>

[Divine Gaze]

[Rank: Divine]

[Description: Allows you to see the world in its purest form]

"Divine Gaze... What a powerful technique..." Yuan mumbled out loud.

Jin Xi raised her eyebrows and spoke, "Huh? You just learned how to use Divine Gaze?"

"That's right." He nodded.

"How surprising. Given your talents, I thought you already learned it. Guess I overestimated you a little. Anyways, don't get too happy just yet. Learning Divine Gaze isn't the true purpose of this trial."

"Eh? It isn't?" Yuan looked at her with wide eyes.

And since he still had Divine Gaze activated, he accidentally glimpsed at Jin Xi's bountiful body for a brief second before it stopped working before he could even deactivate it.

"Che."

Jin Xi sucked her teeth in a disdainful manner.

"The first thing you do after learning Divine Gaze is to peek at a maiden's body? You're the worst."

"I didn't do that on purpose..." Yuan quickly apologized to her.

Then he asked, "By the way, did you block my Divine Gaze? I cannot see through you even though it's still activated."

"Just like how you can use your Divine Sense to block others' Divine Sense if you have superior Soul Strength, you can block others' Divine Gaze with Divine Sense. After all, Divine Gaze is essentially Divine Sense, and they both require Soul Strength."

"The only reason you can use Divine Gaze on Master is because of the nature of this trial, so don't think for a second it'll work on everyone, especially those stronger than you." Jin Xi lectured him.

"I see..."

"Anyways, you're still in the middle of the trial. Don't disturb me again until you're done."

After saying that, Jin Xi returned to staring at the masked man.

"..."

Now that he learned Divine Gaze, Yuan realized that she'd been using it on the masked man this entire time. This realization sent shivers down his entire body since she was technically looking at him, but he decided to ignore it and returned to focusing on the trial.

Chapter 1152 Sword Body

After turning away from Jin Xi, Yuan returned to focusing on the masked man with Divine Gaze.

Very quickly, he realized something.

'T-This is... His muscles and bones are enveloped in Sword Aura!' Yuan cried inwardly after realizing this.

However, that was just the beginning.

"No... Even his blood cells are enveloped in Sword Aura?! How is that possible?!" He exclaimed out loud, his eyes filled with interest.

"Did Brother Yuan just say his blood is enveloped by Sword Aura?" Xiao Hua's voice resounded a second later.

"Yes... It seems like everything inside his body, from his muscles to his blood cells, are covered in Sword Aura." Yuan confirmed.

"Do you know what is going on, Xiao Hua?" He then asked.

"Un. He has achieved what is known as a Sword Body. This is only possible when one unifies the very essence of Sword Aura with their own body. Only those with extreme understanding of Sword Aura and talent could achieve a Sword Body. Since ancient times, there has never been more than 10 Swordmasters that have achieved a Sword Body at any given time within the entire Nine Heavens, and less than 100 Swordmasters have ever achieved this state." Xiao Hua explained to him.

"Is that so... A Sword Body, huh?" Yuan mumbled in a dazed voice.

Then he realized something, "Wait... Does this mean that he's telling me to achieve a Sword Body right now?! How am I even supposed to do that?"

"If he's your incarnation, you should be able to achieve it, Young Master." Feng Yuxiang said.

"How long does it usually take for one to achieve a Sword Body? Assuming they have what it takes to even achieve it." Lin Yingying asked out of curiosity.

"Hard to say, but nobody would be surprised even if it took those with a Sword Body over ten thousand years to achieve it. That's just how extremely rare they are."

"Over ten thousand years?" Yuan swallowed nervously upon hearing this.

Even if he was a genius, this trial will probably take him a long time to complete. Hopefully, he'll finish it before the tomb closes.

"Xiao Hua, do you know the process of attaining a Sword Body?" He asked her the most important question.

"Sorry, Brother Yuan, but there is very little information about Sword Bodies in general. Unless you learn from those with a Sword Body, nobody can really say for sure what it takes to achieve it."

"No worries. I guess I'll start by unifying my Sword Aura with my body—at least try to."

And without saying anything, Yuan took a seat in front of the masked man and began inspecting his body again with Divine Gaze.

However, even after staring for many minutes, Yuan still didn't know where to start.

'How do I even unify my Sword Aura with my body? Which part of my body do I start from?'

Eventually, Yuan just started by releasing his Sword Aura, enveloping his entire body with it.

The Sword Aura would gush outwards, even creating ripples, but no matter what he tried, Yuan couldn't get it to go inside his body.

Minutes turned into hours, and hours quickly turned into days.

Within a blink of an eye, six days have passed since Yuan entered the Sword Temple.

"What's going on inside? It's almost been a week since he went inside. Most people come out after a day or two. I hope nothing happened to him..." Tian Yanyu sighed in a worried tone while her eyes were glued to the Sword Temple, unwilling to look away until she saw Yuan's handsome face come out.

"Have you not been watching him for the last few trials? You should know by now that he's not the type to die easily. Save your worry for something that's actually worth worrying about." Her mother shook her head.

Despite sounding cold, she also showed her confidence in Yuan with such words.

"I know, but I cannot help but worry."

"You sound like his mother. Heck, since when were you the type to worry so much about others? Are you really my daughter? Where did my selfish and cheeky little brat go?" Her mother looked at her with suspicious eyes.

"W-What are you talking about?! Do you have any idea how much he's helped our family? The least I can do is worry about him!"

"Helping our family? Everything he's done up to this point was mostly for you! I'm actually shocked that he hasn't outright proposed to you yet."

Tian Yanyu's face immediately flushed with redness.

If they looked at it from that point of view, Yuan's action would make more sense to them. But to be fair, there's no way anybody would have guessed Yuan's true reason for helping them. In fact, even if Yuan told them, they wouldn't have believed him.

A full week eventually passed.

'He wants to achieve a Sword Body before the tomb closes in less than half a year? Hmph. Not even the Master could do such a thing, much less this greenhorn. Master was considered as the number one genius in the Nine Heavens during his era, and it still took him a little over a hundred years to achieve his Sword Body.' Jin Xi sneered inwardly at Yuan's ambition and ignorance.

Shortly afterward, Jin Xi's eyes gradually widened as she watched the masked man suddenly open his eyes and stand up, before walking behind Yuan and sitting down again.

'What is Master doing all of a sudden?' She wondered inwardly.

Yuan wasn't aware of the masked man's movements, as he was too absorbed in his own thoughts, almost as though he was in trance.

Meanwhile, after taking a seat, the masked man lifted both of his arms and gently placed his palms behind Yuan's back, looking as though he was trying to help Yuan cultivate.

'It can't be! Don't tell me he's trying to—' Jin Xi almost couldn't believe her eyes.

Moments after the masked man's action, Yuan's Sword Aura that was gushing outward gradually began to weaken. However, if one had Divine Gaze, they would be able to tell that the Sword Aura was actually permeating into Yuan's body.

'M-Master's guiding him! But why?!' Jin Xi exclaimed inwardly, her jaw dropped.

Chapter 1153 Sword Body(2)

'What's happening? It suddenly feels like I know how to unite Sword Aura with my body.' Yuan was surprised when his Sword Aura began entering his body. It also felt like he was being guided by someone, but he still wasn't aware of the masked man helping him. However, he didn't think too much about it and continued to follow the guidance, slowly combining his Sword Aura with his body.

Time passed quickly, and within the blink of an eye, half a month has passed since Yuan entered the Sword Temple.

'He's still inside, huh. It's been too long. Did something happen to him inside?' Long Chen pondered. He came out of the Sword Temple three days after Yuan entered the place and has been waiting for him to come out since then.

'As far as I am aware, the Sword Temple isn't a dangerous place and nobody has died inside before, so what is he doing inside?'

He wasn't too worried about it, especially when he recalled how long Yuan took in the Sword Pagoda.

Eventually, another half of a month passed with Yuan nowhere to be seen.

It has been an entire month now since he entered the Sword Temple. During this time, rumors about Yuan dying inside the Sword Temple have spread throughout the Endless Emperor's Tomb.

This greatly shocked everyone, mostly because they all believed that the Sword Temple was a safe zone where one couldn't die.

Many were also filled with pity knowing that a peerless genius had passed away in such an unfortunate manner.

"I don't believe it. There's no way Xiao Yang died inside! He is still alive! He must be!" Tian Yanyu refused to believe the rumors.

"No matter what you believe, it won't change the fact that he's been inside for a month now. We have less than 4 months left before the tomb closes. If we stop wasting our time and leave now, we can still regroup with the others."

"I refuse! I will not move from this spot until Xiao Yang comes back out!" Tian Yanyu exclaimed with a stubborn face.

Her mother could only silently shake her head.

Meanwhile, inside the Sword Temple, Yuan was still being guided by the masked man. After a month of constant assistance, his Sword Aura is almost fully unified with his body. Even someone as tremendously talented as Yuan required the help of his incarnation and a month to reach this point, proving how ridiculously difficult it was to acquire a Sword Body.

However, in the eyes of Jin Xi, his progress was still unbelievably fast.

'Even with Master's help, he's managed to reach this point in such a short amount of time. This kind of talent is unheard of...'

Several more hours later, the masked man finally lowered his arms and stood up.

'Is it done? Did he achieve a Sword Body?' Jin Xi used her Divine Gaze to look at Yuan's physique.

"This bastard... He really did it... He really achieved a Sword Body at that age..." Jin Xi muttered in a shaky voice, her body trembling as well.

At this moment, Yuan's Sword Aura could not be sensed, almost as though it did not exist. However, if one were to look inside his body, they would see that all of his internal organs and muscles are being protected by Sword Aura.

<Congratulations, you have achieved a Sword Body>

<You have gained the title 'One With Swords'>

<Description: With a Sword Body, your body can no longer be harmed by Sword Aura and other Auras. Your proficiency with swords have been increased by 10,000%. Your physical defense has increased tremendously and will continue to grow as you strengthen your Sword Aura.>

Yuan was pleasantly surprised by the bonuses he gained from having a Sword Body. Being immune to Sword Aura and other weapon Auras could even be considered overpowered.

"You better thank the Master for his assistance. If it weren't for him guiding you, you would've never achieved a Sword Body." Jin Xi suddenly said.

"So that feeling was because of you, huh. Thanks."

The masked man then said, "Take out your sword."

Yuan nodded and retrieved his Empyrean Overlord. When he held onto the sword, it felt like the sword had melded into his hand, almost as if it had become his arm.

"Now attack me with everything you've got," he continued.

"Sure thing." Yuan said without any hesitation since he wasn't worried about killing the masked man.

After taking a deep breath, Yuan swung the sword at the masked man without using any sword techniques. However, the force coming from the strike was immense and wouldn't lose to when he used an Ancient-rank sword technique before acquiring a Sword Body.

This greatly surprised Yuan, who did not expect such prowess coming from a normal sword slash.

Despite that, the masked man managed to catch his sword, and he'd done it with two fingers.

Yuan wasn't too surprised by this and asked, "Satisfied?"

"For now. At your current level, you will be able to handle the inner areas without too many problems."

"Speaking of the inner area, that is where I plan on going next."

The masked man nodded and turned to look at Jin Xi, who quickly straightened her body.

"Take her with you. She'll be your guide, but don't expect her to protect you from the dangers within."

"I know." Yuan smiled.

"And thank you, Jin Xi."

"It's a pleasure that I could be of use to you again, Master!" She smiled brightly.

However, Yuan could feel a sense of sorrow coming from the masked man, which made him curious about their relationship even more.

"Hey, what's your relationship with her?" He had to ask.

"If you really want to know, you can ask her."

"I already did, but she refused."

The masked man merely shrugged in silence.

"Anyways, it's about time for you to leave. You have been here for a month already, after all."

"What?! A month?!" Yuan exclaimed in a shocked voice. He must've experienced another enlightenment since it doesn't feel that long for him.

"Then I will teleport you two out now." The masked man waved his sleeve, sending them away.

Chapter 1154 Entering The Inner Areas

After being teleported out of the Sword Temple, Yuan found himself standing at the entrance of the building.

"I hope I didn't inconvenience the Tian Family too much by being gone for so long without any explanation..." Yuan quickly rushed outside as he activated his Divine Sense, hoping to find Tian Yanyu and her mother.

Sure enough, he found them standing not too far away from the Sword Temple.

He immediately rushed over after seeing them.

"X-Xiao Yang!" Tian Yanyu was the first to notice him since she had been staring at the Sword Temple this entire time.

"You're alive! I knew it!" She was clearly overjoyed to see him again.

"I am really sorry! I had an enlightenment in the Sword Temple and lost track of time!" He immediately lowered his head and apologized to them.

"You had an enlightenment...?" Tian Suyin's eyes widened upon hearing that.

"No wonder why it took you so long to come back out! And congratulations on your enlightenment! Even the Elders at my Sect have never experienced one! You're too amazing, Xiao Yang!" Tian Yanyu's eyes shone with excitement.

Tian Suyin's eyebrows twitched at such words, as she was also a Sect Elder.

"Sorry for not being part of the one percent that experienced enlightenment, and sorry for not being amazing." The irritation in her voice was obvious.

"S-Sorry... I didn't mean to mock you..." Tian Yanyu quickly realized her mistake and apologized.

If they knew that this wasn't Yuan's first or even second enlightenment, who knows how they would react.

Sometime later, Yuan spoke with a guilty look on his face, "I really hope you guys haven't been waiting for me this entire time."

"Hmph. I told her we should just regroup with the others after waiting for 2 weeks, but this stubborn girl kept refusing, so yes, we have been waiting here for an entire month." Tian Suyin said.

Tian Yanyu's face flushed with redness as she silently nodded.

Yuan felt incredibly guilty for making these two ladies wait an entire month for him, so he decided to postpone entering the inner area to help them a little more.

"I was going to enter the inner areas after this, but I will hold that off for a little longer. Do you guys have any specific places that you wish to visit? I will take you there as an apology," he said to them.

"You really don't have—"

"I do!" Tian Suyin interrupted.

Yuan smiled at her, "Where would you like to go?"

"I have always been interested in this place, but due to it being at the edge of the inner area, I never really had the courage to go. However, now that we have a monster like you with us, I think it's possible!"

And she continued, "It's a place called Sword Graveyard, where thousands of powerful swords are rooted into the ground. Rumors are that each sword has a powerful sword technique hidden within, meaning that there could be potentially thousands of sword techniques to be learned there."

"Oh, I read about that place. I wanted to go there, as well." Yuan said.

"Then it's settled. Let's go there now. Though, I don't really know how to get there since it's not near this area." Tian Suyin said.

Yuan turned to look at Jin Xi and asked her, "Do you mind showing us the way? You're a guide, so you should be able to do that at the very least, right?"

"Yes, I don't mind showing you the way to the Sword Graveyard." She nodded with a nonchalant face.

"Wait... She's coming with us as well? Isn't she a Spirit from the trial? Is that even allowed?" Tian Yanyu asked.

Yuan nodded, "She's a special case."

"It'll be even more reassuring if she's coming with us." Tian Suyin smiled.

"Oh, she won't protect us even if we are in danger. She's just a guide." Yuan quickly said. He didn't want them to have the wrong idea later on when she refuses to protect them.

"Is that so... What a pity. Anyways, it shouldn't be too dangerous since it's going to be on the edge of the inner area."

They left the Sword Temple shortly after.

"You know, there's a rumor going around claiming that you have died inside the Sword Temple." Tian Yanyu said to Yuan as they traveled.

"I'm not surprised." Yuan chuckled.

A week of traveling later, they arrived at the border of the Nameless Emperor's Tomb's inner area.

"This should be obvious, but the inner area is nothing like the outer area. It's much more dangerous with many more magic beasts and other entities roaming around. The trials will also be more brutal. Less than 1 percent of people who enter the inner area make it back out alive." Jin Xi warned them.

"Other entities, huh..." Yuan mumbled.

"By entities, she's probably talking about demons." Tian Suyin said.

"Oh, right, I read about this before, but I didn't care about it since I never imagined entering the inner areas." Tian Yanyu sighed.

"Unfortunately, they are not something even you can handle, Xiao Yang. We must run if we encounter one." Tian Suyin said to him, unaware of his demon slaying expertise.

"Hoh? They must be really strong then. I can't wait to fight one. I like a good challenge, after all." Yuan decided to play dumb and act like he's never encountered a demon before.

"Are you even listening to me? Unless you know demon sealing techniques, it's nigh impossible to kill them because of their immortality. I do not want to repeat myself again—we must run if we encounter one!" Tian Suyin spoke with a frown on her face.

"If it's Xiao Yang, maybe he can kill them..." Tian Yanyu said, showing her absolute trust in his abilities.

Tian Suyin facepalmed at her daughter's blind trust in Yuan.

"Whatever. If you really want to fight it, I won't stop you, but I will also not stay to fight it with you. I am not reckless, after all."

"Of course." Yuan nodded with a smile.

Chapter 1155 What Just Happened?

Yuan and the others stepped into the inner area of the tomb after mentally preparing themselves.

The second their feet touched the ground in the inner area, they felt the atmosphere instantly change, and it suddenly felt as though they'd entered another world—a world that is filled with death and a place that humans don't belong.

"This is worse than I thought..." Tian Suyin muttered as she subconsciously pinched her nose to avoid the smell.

"What the... Where did this stench come from? It wasn't there just a second ago!" Tian Yanyu was baffled.

"You cannot see it, but the inner area and the outer area are separated by an invisible boundary. In fact, they can be considered as their own world." Jin Xi said.

"No wonder..." Tian Yanyu mumbled.

"You guys should block the smell with your spiritual energy." Yuan said to them.

"No need to state the obvious. I was just surprised by how sudden it was." Tian Suyin said with a slightly rosy face as she stopped pinching her nose.

They followed Jin Xi deeper into the area shortly after, entering a heavily forested area.

Everything seemed normal for the first several minutes, but Yuan suddenly stopped walking and said, "Careful, there's a demon coming our way."

"Huh? What nonsense are you talking about? I don't sense any—" Jin Xi said, halting her sentence halfway through.

"No way... There's really a demon approaching us. How did you sense it before me?" Jin Xi was pretty proud of her own sharp senses. Unfortunately for her, no matter how sharp her senses are, they would never defeat Yuan when it comes to sensing demons.

In fact, Yuan could sense multiple demons in their area with some of them being hundreds of miles away.

"What are you waiting for?! Do you really plan on fighting a demon?! I'm telling you, they are far more terrifying than whatever you're imaging right now! We need to leave right now!" Tian Suyin exclaimed in a nervous manner when she noticed that Yuan didn't seem to have any intention of running.

"We'll be fine." Yuan reassured her, but his words didn't sound convincing at all.

"Forget it! Yanyu, we're leaving him behind! If he wants to die that badly, we'll grant his wish!" She quickly gave up on trying to convince Yuan and went to grab Tian Yanyu's hand.

However, Tian Yanyu didn't budge despite her pulling.

"Yanyu...? What do you think you are doing...?" Tian Suyin looked at her with wide eyes filled with disbelief.

"I'm going to stay here with Xiao Yang." Tian Yanyu responded in a low voice with a subtle smile.

"Have you really gone mad...?" It was at this moment that Tian Suyin realized that Tian Yanyu was no longer the daughter she knew, as she has drastically changed since meeting Yuan.

"You should calm down a bit, little girl." Jin Xi suddenly spoke, causing Tian Suyin to freeze.

"Little girl...?" Tian Suyin almost couldn't believe her ears. This was her first time being called a little girl by someone who looked to be in her early twenties.

"Although it may not seem like it, I am actually over 100,000 years old— at least before I died." Jin Xi smiled.

"Really?" Even Yuan reacted with surprise when he learned of this information.

Tian Suyin was only 300 years old herself. If one compared their age, they would understand why Tian Suyin would only be a little girl in Jin Xi's eyes.

"Anyways, if you want to leave, you can leave. Though, I think your worries are unnecessary." Jin Xi then said.

However, before Tian Suyin could say anything else, a terrorizing pressure appeared in their area, causing her body to freeze from fear.

And from the edge of her eyes, Tian Suyin could see a red figure walking towards their direction.

'It's over...' She cried inwardly.

'That's a demon...? Mother was right... It's reckless to even attempt fighting them...' Tian Yanyu fell on her buttocks after sensing the astronomical amount of killing intent being emitted by the demon.

Just its gaze alone snapped Tian Yanyu back to being clear headed.

"You think you can kill it? It's too late to run now." Jin Xi looked at Yuan with a cheeky smile on her face.

"If you beg me to help you, I just might disturb the demon for a moment," she continued.

Yuan chuckled, "Thanks, but no thanks."

He summoned his Empyrean Overlord and began walking towards the demon in a slow and relaxed manner.

This made Yuan recall his first encounter with a demon, but he was not as naive and weak as he was back then.

"Foolish human..." The demon uttered in a mocking tone after seeing that Yuan was approaching it instead of running away.

"A lowly demon, I don't even have to use my demon sealing aura to deal with you."

Like the lowly demon it was, it immediately lost control of its temper and forcefully rushed at Yuan.

Seeing this, Yuan pointed his sword at the incoming demon.

The demon suddenly vanished into thin air the very next second. This befuddled Tian Suyin and Tian Yanyu, who had no idea what had just happened.

"W-What just happened?" Tian Suyin asked in a dazed voice.

"He killed it." Jin Xi answered after a brief moment of silence.

"What?!" Both Tian Suyin and Tian Yanyu exclaimed.

Jin Xi then explained, "He surrounded the demon with Enhanced Sword Aura just now, shredding its body into pieces so small that it can't be seen with just one's bare eyes. But he didn't stop there and continued to cut the demon until its last cell was destroyed. After all, a demon can fully regenerate from even a single blood cell."

Tian Suyin swallowed nervously after hearing Jin Xi's explanation, but she doubted if something like that was even possible.

"Is something like that really possible?" Tian Yanyu asked what was on her mother's mind.

"Can it be done? Of course, since it just happened right before your eyes. However, it requires one to have perfect control over their own Sword Aura and a tremendous amount of Sword Aura, and missing either one will make it impossible, something 99.99% of Sword Masters cannot replicate." Jin Xi said.

Chapter 1156 Sword Graveyard

"So that was a demon, huh? They're not as strong as I thought." Yuan said, still putting up the act that this was his first encounter with a demon.

However, Tian Suyin immediately saw through his act and pointed at him and shouted, "Y-You think this is funny?! There's no way that was your first fight with a demon since you clearly knew about its regeneration abilities, or else you wouldn't have done something so ridiculous as your first move!"

Yuan smiled at her remarks and asked, "Even if I told you that I have the ability to kill them, would you have believed me?"

"T-That's..." Tian Suyin immediately became speechless, as there was no way that she'd have believed him.

"You're really full of surprises, Xiao Yang." Tian Yanyu said with a dazed face.

"Not only have you encountered them, you seem very experienced with fighting them. Where'd you learn that, hm?" Jin Xi looked at him with an intrigued gaze.

"I will tell you if you tell me your relationship with the masked man." Yuan smiled at her.

"Wha— Why do you care so much about my relationship with another man? Are you jealous?" She laughed.

Tian Yanyu stared at Yuan intensively.

Yuan shrugged, "Will you tell me if I admit that I am jealous?"

"No," she immediately replied.

Yuan merely shook his head in silence before speaking, "Anyways, let's continue."

They started moving again shortly after.

"Xiao Yang, are you really jealous?" Tian Yanyu asked him using divine sense.

"Huh? No way."

"Then why do you care so much?"

"To tell you the truth, I have some connections to the masked man, so I was just interested."

"What?!" Tian Yanyu exclaimed in a shocked voice after hearing this.

"Why are you suddenly shouting?" Tian Suyin frowned.

"S-Sorry..."

Jin Xi glanced at them. She contemplated listening in on their conversation, but knowing Yuan's ability, he'd easily realize it.

"Keep it a secret, okay?" Yuan chuckled.

"Of course... But how do you know the masked man? Isn't he the creator of this place?"

"I don't actually know him. Sorry, I don't know how to explain it. It's complicated."

After all, it wasn't as if he could say that he was the masked man's reincarnation.

"Is that so..." Despite her curiosity, Tian Yanyu didn't pursue the topic any longer.

After walking for a little longer, Tian Yanyu suddenly asked, "Hey... I just noticed this, but why are we walking? Wouldn't it be faster if we flew there?"

"If you wish to be spotted easily by demons and magical beasts, by all means, I don't mind flying." Jin Xi said.

This quickly made Tian Yanyu speechless.

"A-Actually, never mind. I was being too shortsighted," she apologized in an embarrassed manner.

"Wait a second." Yuan suddenly jumped in, and he continued, "That's actually not a bad idea. Time is precious in this place, after all. Don't worry, I will deal with any danger that we encounter."

"..."

Normally, this is where Tian Suyin objects and starts calling him reckless.

However, after what she witnessed before, she realized that Yuan was not the reckless type and that he had the power to back up his confidence.

"Since nobody is objecting, let's start flying now." Jin Xi said as she ascended into the sky.

Literally not even five minutes later, Yuan could sense demons approaching them.

"Be careful, we have three guests." Yuan calmly warned them.

"Three?!" Tian Suyin exclaimed.

"Don't worry, they are all low-ranking demons. I can deal with them with closed eyes."

"This guy..." Tian Suyin was speechless.

"Whooohooooo!"

An excited voice suddenly resounded from a distance.

"It's been over a hundred years since I last tasted humans!"

"Lucky me!"

The three demons laughed merrily as they surrounded Yuan's group.

Tian Suyin and Tian Yanyu subconsciously moved closer to Yuan when they felt the demons scanning their bodies with starved eyes.

"Let's feast!" One of the demons suddenly rushed forward.

Yuan raised his arm and pointed at the incoming demon before unleashing his Sword Aura.

Almost instantly, the demon's body was shredded until there was nothing left.

This shocked the other two demons, who had no idea what had just happened. And while they were scrambling to make sense of the situation, Yuan unleashed his Sword Aura for a second time, killing another demon.

The remaining demon trembled, and with hesitation, it turned around and began flying away at maximum speed.

"Where do you think you are going?" Yuan sent his Sword Aura chasing after the fleeing demon.

The demon could feel the lower part of its body quickly being consumed by the Sword Aura, but it could not run any faster. In the end, its life also perished to the Sword Aura.

After dealing with the three demons as though it was nothing but a walk in the park, Yuan sighed in a disappointed voice, "It's a pity that I can only target one of them at a time right now."

Tian Suyin looked at him with a baffled face.

'Is there anything that he can't do?' she wondered inwardly.

"Let's continue, shall we?" Yuan smiled at them, acting like nothing had just happened.

Eventually, they arrived at the Sword Graveyard. It took them nearly half a month, and they had encountered over a hundred demons on their way there.

"One of you here must be a demon magnet." Jin Xi said, because of their abnormal number of encounters with demons.

Yuan could only show a stiff smile regarding her remarks.

"So this is the Sword Graveyard, huh? It exceeds my imagination..." Tian Suyin mumbled, her face full of delight, almost like a child at an amusement park for their first time.

Before her was a large field with thousands of unique swords plunged into the ground, invoking a sense of both awe and sadness. The sheer number of swords was overwhelming, and it made Tian Suyin wonder why this place existed.

Had these swords been discarded? Is this truly a burial ground for swords? Or is there a deeper meaning for this place?

"All these swords... What a waste." Tian Suyin sighed. As someone who walked the path of a sword master, this sword graveyard was a sorrowful sight.

When Yuan first laid eyes on the Sword Graveyard, his body froze, and for some inexplicable reason, he started feeling many emotions that he could not explain.

Chapter 1157 Sword Graveyard(2)

"X-Xiao Yang? Are you okay?" Tian Yanyu asked him when she noticed that he had tears in the corner of his eyes.

However, almost as though he couldn't hear her, Yuan remained silent as he stared at the graveyard.

Perhaps he'd recognized these swords. Even though he himself might not remember them, his soul remembers the time they had spent together.

In his daze, Yuan started to approach the Sword Graveyard, and it even looked like he wanted to reach for one of the swords there.

When Tian Suyin saw this, she immediately sprang into action and grabbed him by the collar before yanking him back.

"Whoa?!"

This snapped Yuan out of his daze.

"Are you crazy?!" Tian Suyin shouted at him afterward.

"You cannot touch these swords! Anyone that does so will face severe punishment!"

"Eh? Really?" Yuan expressed genuine surprise, as he didn't know about this.

"Many people have tried to take a sword from this place, but all of them have perished after being punished. Even Immortals have died in this place, so no matter how talented you are, even you won't survive." Tian Suyin explained.

And she continued, "The only thing we are allowed to do here is study these swords and hopefully learn something from it."

"Is that so... Sorry, and thank you for waking me up. I don't know what just happened to me." Yuan said.

"Are you okay?" Tian Yanyu asked him again.

"Huh? What do you mean?" Yuan asked with a puzzled face, still unaware that he had been crying just now.

Tian Yanyu pointed at his eyes and said in a low voice, "You're crying..."

"What?"

Yuan quickly wiped his eyes, and sure enough, it was wet.

"Why did I...?" He muttered in a dazed voice.

Jin Xi silently stared at Yuan with narrowed eyes, seeming in deep thoughts.

"Pft. That idiot really tried to take a sword from this place..."

"Why did she have to stop him? It would've been a spectacular sight to see him get punished."

Yuan suddenly heard voices that he was unfamiliar with, and they were laughing at him.

He looked around, and it was at this moment that he realized they were not alone.

There were over a hundred other people there at glance, which surprised him.

"I thought not many people dare to venture into the inner areas?" He asked Tian Suyin.

"Since this is just the border and the least dangerous area, many people risk their lives to come here, especially since the techniques they can learn in this place are at least Divine-rank."

"Is that so..."

Yuan didn't mind the mockery and acted as though they weren't even there.

"Anyways, now that we have arrived, I am going to study the swords. Yanyu, since this is a rare occasion, you should also try to learn something. We might not get another chance to come back here, after all." Tian Suyin said to her daughter.

"Okay." She nodded before turning to look at Yuan.

"What are you going to do?"

"Since I am here, I might as well look around, too." He said.

"Alright."

"Oh, how long do we plan on staying here?" Yuan suddenly asked.

"Since you wasted a month of our time, it's only fair if we stay here for a month. However, I guess two weeks will do." Tian Suyin said, as she didn't want to take away too much of Yuan's time, despite her words.

"I understand. Then we will leave in two weeks."

With that settled, Tian Suyin and Tian Yanyu immediately began wandering the Sword Graveyard. Like tombs in a graveyard, each sword had enough space between each other to allow people to surround it, so nobody there had to worry about fighting for spots.

With that being said, some swords are especially popular and do become overcrowded at times.

"Oh, lucky me! There's a spot left for the Silvermoon Soulblade!" Tian Suyin was filled with joy when she noticed an empty spot at one of the most popular swords in the Sword Graveyard.

The Silvermoon Soulblade is a Mythic-grade sword— a treasure that normally wouldn't exist in the Third Heaven except for the Nameless Emperor's Tomb, so its popularity was only natural.

There were a total of 3 Mystic-grade swords in the Sword Graveyard, and they are usually packed to the brim with people, hence Tian Suyin's excitement.

Meanwhile, Tian Yanyu settled with a random Ancient-grade sword that caught her eyes the moment she looked at it, almost as though she had a connection with it.

"Radiant Scarlet Blade..." Tian Yanyu read the engraving on the sword's crimson blade.

As for Yuan, he merely stood at the entrance of the Sword Graveyard. There were so many swords that he didn't know where to start.

Eventually, he picked a random sword and sat before it.

"You guys can look around if you want." Yuan said to Xiao Hua and the others.

"I don't use the sword, so I am fine staying here." Lan Yingying said.

"Me too." Feng Yuxiang said.

"Xiao Hua will stay with you." Xiao Hua said.

Yuan didn't say anything else and returned to focusing on the sword before him.

'Let's see what kind of technique you'll teach me.' Yuan smiled inwardly.

He started by using Divine Gaze on the sword, but nothing special happened, so he just started studying it normally.

He would eventually enter a trance when images began appearing inside his mind. However, these images would not just teach him sword techniques.

In addition to sword techniques, they were memories— his memories with this particular sword. The moment of their meeting; their journeys together; all of the enemies they have slain together. These memories lasted all the way till the end of their journey.

Yuan was surprised at first, but he quickly calmed down and started to absorb these memories like a dry sponge with water. Since he'd grown accustomed to being fed memories, he found the process to be quite pleasing, as it was like watching a movie of himself.

Chapter 1158 Memories Within The Sword Graveyard

Ten hours. Yuan had spent ten hours in real time recalling his memories with the sword, but inside his mind, dozens of years have passed.

He'd fought thousands of enemies, traveled tens of thousands of miles, and eventually had to put the sword to rest when it had become too damaged to use.

When Yuan snapped back into reality, he remained sitting there with a dazed look on his face, and tears were flowing down his cheeks.

"I remember now... I remember our time together... Starfall Saber." When Yuan uttered this familiar name, the sword before him suddenly began to tremble, almost as though it was responding to his call.

However, it calmed down a few seconds later. In the end, this Sword Graveyard and all of the swords within was nothing more than an illusion, something the masked man had created from his memories.

Despite that, the memories shown to Yuan by the sword were definitely very real.

"Are you okay, Brother Yuan?" Xiao Hua asked him.

"Yes, I am fine. We might actually stay here a little longer than expected," he said, as he'd decided to retrieve all of his memories from the swords in this place.

Sometime later, Yuan walked to the next sword. Since he was going to study all of them, he might as well start from the very first sword towards the entrance of the graveyard.

Once he sat down before the sword that read 'Blood Moon Blade', Yuan would stare at the sword until his eyes slowly closed and images began appearing inside his head.

Over the next week, Yuan would spend anywhere between four hours to an entire day with each sword.

Thousands of years of experience and hundreds of unique sword techniques flooded Yuan's mind.

Even though he was just recalling his memories with the swords, his sword mastery would increase drastically without needing to lift a sword.

At the end of the second week, Yuan looked at how many swords were left in the Sword Graveyard and sighed, "At this rate, it will take me years to go through every single sword here."

As Yuan pondered about what he should do in this situation, he suddenly heard a commotion not far away.

"Get out of my spot, you bitch!"

"Huh? What the hell are you talking about? Since when did this become your spot?"

Yuan raised an eyebrow upon hearing this familiar voice. He could see Tian Suyin arguing with another woman.

"Just now. A weak bitch like you should be grateful that you even got to study the Silvermoon Soulblade for a minute. I will not ask you again. Move, or I will move you myself!"

"You call me weak, yet you have a lower cultivation than me. How hilarious." Tian Suyin sneered in a cold manner.

The other woman laughed out loud, "You have no idea who you're messing with! Darling! Come get this bitch out of my spot!"

The following moment, Tian Suyin felt the pressure of a peak Spirit King bearing down on her.

Then, a figure descended from the sky and landed between them.

This figure stood well over seven feet tall and had a broad, muscular build with a thick neck, wide shoulders, and bulging arms and legs. His chest was as wide as a barrel, giving him an imposing appearance.

However, this man's staggering presence did not seem to faze Tian Suyin at all. In fact, she looked unimpressed.

"Really? You're going to make your man bully another woman? How pathetic are you?" Tian Suyin shook her head.

"Also, you're bothering the others."

"None of this would've happened if you were obedient. Now, we'll have to make a spectacle out of you. Anyways, it's too late even if you want to give up your seat now."

"..." Tian Suyin didn't say anything and started looking around the Sword Graveyard in silence.

"Are you going to act like a damsel in distress and ask for help? There's nobody here that can protect you." The woman laughed in an obnoxious manner.

Meanwhile, when Tian Suyin noticed Yuan staring at them from a distance, a slight smile formed on her beautiful face.

"Even a damsel in distress has more dignity than someone like you. If you're going to do it, hurry up and do it, you pathetic little whore." Tian Suyin cursed back.

The woman trembled in anger, and she pointed at Tian Suyin before roaring, "Make her regret ever coming here, Wang Xuan!"

The bulky man's eyes became filled with killing intent as he retrieved a massive axe from his spatial ring and swung it at Tian Suyin.

The axe was also coated in a thin layer of Axe Aura, something similar to Sword Aura but only available to those who mastered the axe.

Tian Suyin's eyes widened slightly, but her vision was suddenly blocked by someone that had appeared in front of her like a ghost.

This person was obviously Yuan, and he lifted his arm to casually catch the incoming strike.

Whoosh!

A gust of wind swept the Sword Graveyard the moment Yuan caught the axe with just his fingers.

This shocked everybody there. As for the bulky man, he was in utter disbelief that someone had just caught his powerful attack with two mere fingers.

"You okay?" Yuan ignored the others and turned to ask Tian Suyin, who nodded her head in a dazed manner.

She knew that Yuan would protect her, but she didn't expect him to do it in such a fashion.

"Darling, what's wrong? Why did you stop? Just cleave through this fool who thinks he's a hero!" The woman misunderstood the situation and thought that the bulky man had stopped his attack right before his axe reached Yuan, as she thought that someone as small as Yuan in comparison could block the man's attack was simply impossible.

"T-That is..." The man didn't know how to respond, and he was still trying to comprehend the situation himself.

Chapter 1159 Sword Graveyard's Fury

When the bulky man eventually realized the reality of his situation, his clothes became soaked in cold sweat.

'I cannot even pull away my axe from his grasp! What is happening?! How is he holding onto my axe that is coated with Axe Aura with his bare hands?!'

"Darling! What are you doing?! Hurry up and kill them!" His partner shouted again.

'Damn it! This dumb bitch has no idea the gravity of our situation!' The man cursed inwardly.

Yuan eventually released his grasp on the axe and lowered his hand.

"What should I do with them, Senior Tian?" Yuan asked her for suggestions.

"I don't care as long as you get rid of these eyesores," she said.

Yuan nodded and looked at the couple.

"Those who are prepared to take another's life should also be prepared to have theirs taken from them, right?" Yuan asked them.

"Aaaaargh!"

The bulky man that had been frozen for some time now suddenly roared like a wild beast. He lifted his axe and swung it again.

"Swift Execution!" The man's aura exploded, and the axe suddenly seemed ten times larger as it flew closer to Yuan and Tian Suyin.

'Let's see if this Sword Body is truly untouchable by weapon auras...' Yuan decided to just stand there without any thoughts of blocking the strike.

"This fool must be frozen with fear!" The woman laughed out loud when she saw him standing there like a statue.

Whoosh!

The massive axe that was aimed directly at Yuan's neck eventually reached its destination. However, forget about severing his head, the axe couldn't even cut his skin.

From the onlookers' eyes, the bulky man had, once again, stopped his axe right before it struck Yuan.

'I-I cannot cut him!' When the bulky man realized that Yuan didn't stop his first attack by mistake, he felt all of the strength in his body disappearing from his body.

This caused him to lose his grip on the axe, letting it fall into the ground. The bulky man then fell to his knees shortly after.

"Wang Xuan! What the fuck are you doing?!" The woman began cursing at him.

"Forget it! It was a mistake to rely on you! I will take care of them myself!"

The woman decided to take matters into her own hand and retrieved her weapon.

Now with a sword in her grasp, the woman rushed forward while performing a sword technique.

"..."

When the sword was close enough, Yuan closed his hand into a fist except for his middle finger.

He then casually lifted his arm, blocking the woman's sword with his middle finger.

"W-What...?" The woman's eyes nearly popped out of its sockets when she felt an immovable force colliding with her sword, her gaze glued to the single middle finger that was blocking her sword.

After blocking the attack, Yuan coated his middle finger with his Sword Aura, and like knife cutting tofu, his middle finger sliced through the Heaven-grade treasure without any resistance.

Thud.

The woman looked at the sword with a broken blade in her grasp with a baffled expression on her face. The spectators present shared similar reactions.

"This show-off..." Jin Xi muttered in a low voice after witnessing everything.

After a moment of dead silence, the woman suddenly turned to look at the Silvermoon Soulblade beside them.

Perhaps she had experienced such shock that her mind became roasted, but the woman was no longer thinking clearly.

In one swift movement, she extended her arm and grabbed onto the hilt of the sword.

When the cultivators around them saw this, their immediate reaction was to flee the area, and it wasn't just them.

"That crazy bitch touched the Silvermoon Soulblade! Run if you don't want to get caught up in her punishment!"

Every cultivator inside the Sword Graveyard quickly scrambled to get out of the graveyard.

"Huh?" The woman snapped back to reality after hearing such words, and she immediately released the sword.

The woman had barely touched the sword for a second, but it was already too late, as the sky above them quickly darkened.

Seeing this, Yuan grabbed Tian Suyin and pulled her away as he distanced himself from the couple.

The woman attempted to flee as well, but she remained still, as if bound by invisible shackles that rendered her utterly immobile, her very essence paralyzed by an unseen force beyond her comprehension.

A profound and eerie silence blanketed the graveyard, broken only by the faint rustle of wind through the trees, until suddenly, as if stirred by an otherworldly force, the thousands of swords resting within the graveyard began to tremble, their ancient blades resonating with a palpable and ominous energy that reverberated through the very air itself.

The swords stopped trembling after a few seconds before erupting from the ground and soaring into the heavens.

Astonished gasps could be heard from those that were witnessing this for the first time.

"H-Help! Someone! Please! Help me! I will do anything!" The woman began screaming her lungs out as her body was still frozen in time.

Unsurprisingly, nobody there even dared to take a step towards the graveyard at this moment.

A few seconds later, the swords hovering ominously in the air began to stir once more, their gleaming blades shifting in unison with an eerie grace, until they finally came to a stop with their sharp tips pointed at the terrified woman.

Despite the horrifying scene, nobody there could tear their gaze away from the scene, almost as though they were all trapped in a powerful charm. In the end, they all watched as the swords descended upon the woman and the man, covering their figures.

In that fleeting, heart-stopping moment, the very air itself seemed to come to a halt, suffocated by an all-encompassing dread that left a single soul present able to draw even the slightest breath.

And then, as suddenly as it had begun, the nightmare ended with the swords returning to their resting place, the graveyard once again peaceful.

As for the couple, not a trace remained, as if they never existed in the first place.

Chapter 1160 The Sword Graveyard Trembles Again!

"Senior, I'd like to thank you again for stopping me before." Yuan mumbled in a dumbfounded voice after the Sword Graveyard's fury ended.

"..."

Tian Suyin was still in a state of shock, so she didn't hear him.

"I think that was our cue to leave. It's been two weeks, anyway." Tian Yanyu said.

"Oh, about that... I would actually like to stay a little longer." Yuan then said.

"Really? How long?" Tian Suyin immediately snapped out of her daze.

As terrifying as what had happened was, it wasn't enough to deter her from the Sword Graveyard, as she has yet to gain anything from it.

"I can't say for sure. How about another two weeks for now?" Yuan said after a moment of pondering.

Tian Suyin and her daughter agreed.

After their decision, they returned to the Sword Graveyard. The other cultivators also made their way back to their respective positions, but with a sense of unease grasping their heart. Their movements were stiff and careful, caused by a newfound hesitation and a growing apprehension of the unfathomable power that lay hidden within the swords.

Unsurprisingly, Tian Suyin returned to the Silvermoon Soulblade. The cultivators present with her purposefully distanced themselves from her, as they were also frightened of Yuan's presence.

Tian Suyin didn't complain since this gave her more breathing room, allowing her to focus more easily on the sword.

As for Tian Yanyu, she decided to try her luck on a new sword after two weeks of no progress from her previous sword, even going for a lower grade sword.

Yuan wanted to go back to studying the swords as well, but he has yet to resolve his problem regarding the lack of time in this place.

'Hmm... What should I do?' He continued to ponder but to no avail.

In the end, he decided to only study the swords that resonated with him the most.

The first sword was a mere Heaven-grade sword.

"Heavenly Ice Sword..."

Yuan mumbled its name as he sat before it.

The sword emitted a chilling aura, and as it brushed past him, Yuan felt a sudden, inexplicable shiver race down his spine.

Then, his earliest memories with this sword began appearing inside his head.

A woman stood before him. She was stunningly beautiful with a commanding presence that made her hard to ignore. She has sharp, angular features that gave her an almost sculpted appearance, and a cool, unapproachable demeanor that only adds to her allure.

Her eyes were piercing and seemed to have the ability to see through even Heaven itself, their light blue color perfectly complementing her pale, flawless complexion. Her lips are full and perfectly shaped, but one glance and anyone could tell that she rarely smiled.

Despite her cool exterior, there was a sense of overwhelming strength to her gaze that suggested she was not someone to be trifled with, and in her grasp was the Heavenly Ice Sword.

"Why are you here?" The beauty asked him in a nonchalant voice.

"Your family is worried sick after your sudden disappearance, so they asked me to find you."

"Out of the millions of people they could've asked for help, they decided to ask for your help? I don't buy it."

Yuan chuckled, "If you don't believe me, you can go back to your family and ask them with me."

The beauty suddenly unsheathed her sword and pointed its cold blade at him.

"Do you take me for a fool?"

"I wouldn't dare."

"Hmph. If you want me to go back, defeat me."

"Are you sure?"

"I have always wanted to fight you, who is proclaimed as the number one genius by many."

"If you say so..."

Yuan retrieved his sword the very next moment.

'Ah... I know this sword... It was also in the Sword Graveyard.' He thought to himself as memories continued to flow inside his head.

Three hours later, Yuan slowly opened his eyes, muttering a name as he came to his senses, "Bingjie..."

After wiping the tears from his eyes, Yuan stood up and scanned the Sword Graveyard until he found a certain sword.

It was the sword he wielded when he clashed with the cold beauty.

"Red Dragon Fang."

Yuan quickly submerged himself in its memories.

In the blink of an eye, three weeks passed.

Even though they were supposed to leave a week ago, Tian Suyin and Tian Yanyu decided to stay longer when they noticed how engrossed Yuan was with the swords, and they were afraid to disturb his trance.

"I wonder what kind of techniques he is learning from them..." Tian Suyin's sigh carried a subtle hint of envy— a longing for something that seemed just out of her reach.

"I'm sure he'll tell us about it once he's done." Tian Yanyu smiled.

They returned to their own studies shortly after.

In the third week, after staying at the Sword Graveyard for a little over a month, Yuan received a notification.

<Your longing for a reunion has been heard by the spirits within the Sword Graveyard. Would you like to receive their response?>

Yuan was taken aback by this notification that felt different than usual.

"Yes, I do." He answered a moment later.

The very next second, the swords within the Sword Graveyard began to tremble once again, shocking the cultivators there.

"I-It's going to punish someone again!"

The trembling intensified as the cultivators began scrambling out of the area, and the swords soon began to glow with an otherworldly light, their blades pulsing with an energy that seemed to defy explanation. It was as if the swords themselves were alive, reacting to some unknown force that only they could sense.

Within seconds, all of the cultivators exited the Sword Graveyard— all but a single young man who stood at the center of the place with a nonchalant expression on his face.

"Xiao Yang?!" Tian Yanyu cried out loud at the sight of his lone figure in the graveyard, her heart beating so hard it was on the verge of bursting through her chest.

Chapter 1161 Return The Swords Or Die!

When Tian Suyin noticed that her daughter was about to rush back into the Sword Graveyard, she quickly restricted her movements with a bear hug.

"Stop! Do you want to die?!"

"I don't care!"

"He's not going to die— I think!" Tian Suyin suddenly exclaimed, which calmed Tian Yanyu down a little.

"Look at it— feel the atmosphere. Despite the similarities, this is nothing like when that couple got punished, and as crazy as this may sound, I can feel a sense of attachment from the swords. "

As the spectators awaited yet another grand display of execution, the blades buried within the Sword Graveyard awakened from their slumber once again, ascending to the heavens in a breathtaking dance.

Once every sword ascended to the sky, they began to move in perfect harmony, their razor-sharp tips converging towards Yuan, who stood firmly and unhinged despite the terrifying scene happening above him.

However, the ladies inside Yuan did not share the same feeling. In fact, they were terrified for him.

"Young Master... I think this is a little too dangerous even for you..."

"Brother Yuan..."

"..."

"Don't worry, they won't hurt me. I can feel it." Yuan said to them with an air of tranquility enveloping his words, trying to calm their souls with his overwhelming confidence.

"Come!" He suddenly roared.

The swords suspended in the sky immediately stirred with a mighty force and hurled towards Yuan like a celestial barrage of fiery meteors.

However, when the first sword reached Yuan and pierced his body, it did not go through his body and come out the other end like it was supposed to and actually disappeared into his body.

The second sword and the swords after that also did the same thing, and it was as though they were being absorbed by him. This continued until there was not a single sword left.

Everything happened so fast that the onlookers were still trying to figure out what they had just witnessed even many minutes later.

After the swords entered his body, Yuan quickly realized that he could retrieve their memories at will.

'Does this mean I no longer need to stay here to recall their memories one by one? This is great!' Yuan was filled with excitement knowing that he could take his time absorbing these memories.

Sometime later, the cultivators outside the Sword Graveyard made their way back into the area, and they all had deep frowns on their faces.

"Hey! What did you do with the swords?! Why are they not returning?!" One of them pointed at Yuan and questioned him about the swords, as they have yet to return.

Without any swords, the Sword Graveyard could no longer bear such a name. In fact, it wouldn't even qualify as an ordinary graveyard, as there were only holes in the ground which had been left behind by the swords.

"No idea." Yuan answered with a calm shrug.

"A-Are you fucking with me?! Bring back the swords!"

"Yeah! Or we will tear your body open and take them back by force!"

The cultivators began threatening Yuan with force. Although none of them were confident of defeating Yuan alone, they felt invincible together.

There were a little over 200 cultivators present. They believed that if they all attacked at once, not even he would leave unscathed.

"I really don't know what happened to the swords, nor can I take them out since I don't have them!" Yuan sighed.

"Bullshit! Everyone here watched you absorb the swords into your body!"

"I know that's what it looked like, but..."

"Fuck it! This bastard is clearly not going to comply! Let's get him!"

Before Yuan could even finish his sentence, the cultivators encircled him, exuding an aura of animosity, their eyes fixed upon him with killing intent.

"I really don't want to hurt anyone here over something nobody here could control... Let's try to settle this peacefully, alright?"

Yuan felt a little guilty for hogging all of the swords for himself and inconveniencing these people, even if he had a good reason for doing so.

"If you want this to end peacefully, you will return those swords!" Someone shouted.

"Yeah! That's right! Return the swords! They belong to nobody but the Nameless Emperor's Tomb, much less a nobody like you!"

In the midst of the chaos, Yuan had a sudden idea flash inside his head.

"How about this? I will give everyone here a chance to learn a sword technique of their choosing. These sword techniques will come from the swords that had existed within the Sword Graveyard."

"What kind of nonsense is that?!"

"Do you think we are idiots?!"

"Let me explain!" Yuan quickly said.

"When the swords entered my body, I learned all of their sword techniques, and I am willing to show them to you. Even if I return the swords, what are the chances of you actually learning its technique?" Yuan spoke to these cultivators with logic and reasoning.

"Y-You learned all of the sword techniques?!" The cultivators were shocked, but they did not immediately believe Yuan's words either, as it sounded too good to be true.

"That's impossible! He's definitely lying to us to save his own life!"

"Right?! I'm willing to bet my life that he doesn't know shit!"

The cultivators quickly became hostile again.

"What should we do...?" Tian Yanyu asked her mother as they watched from a distance.

"Nothing. He can handle it himself." Tian Suyin said with an unwavering expression on her face.

Seeing that nobody would believe him, Yuan decided to approach this situation from another direction, but he still wasn't planning on taking any lives.

He spread his arms wide open and gestured for them in a provoking manner. "Alright. You know what? If you think you can kill me, go ahead. I won't fight back for the first ten minutes. But after ten minutes, I will retaliate."

Yuan's words that belittled the gathered cultivators ignited a furious outburst, causing them to unleash their fangs upon his neck. Unperturbed, Yuan merely stood his ground with his hands in his pockets as all sorts of weapons struck his body with no results, his presence becoming more menacing as the ten minutes counted down.

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 1162 Ten Minute Countdown

Clang! Clang! Clang!

The sound of metal colliding with each other resounded without stopping as over a hundred cultivators tried to cut Yuan's body.

However, no matter how much strength they put in their swings, nobody there could scratch his skin, much less make him bleed.

"How is this possible?! What kind of trick is he using to block our attacks?!"

The cultivators refused to believe that Yuan had an invincible body.

"Tick tock, tick tock, tick tock. You have seven minutes before I make my move." Yuan would provoke them with a menacing smile on his face every minute, reminding them of their impending doom.

Of course, this made the cultivators even more intense.

"Your body may be untouchable, but what about your eyes?!" A woman suddenly propelled herself forward with fierceness, wielding a slender, razor-sharp sword, aimed with deadly precision at Yuan's very sight.

But alas, just like the rest of his body, her sword could not penetrate his eyes.

"Let's try spiritual attacks! There's no way he cultivated both his body and mind to the same degree!" Someone there suddenly suggested.

However, since techniques that directly attacked one's spirit were incredibly rare, nobody there actually knew of any. This was why nobody tried it in the first place.

"Nobody here knows any spiritual attacks?! Damn it!"

"A-Actually, I know one, but it's not really meant to do any damage..."
Someone there suddenly said.

"I don't care! If it has a chance to break his defenses, use it!"

"Alright."

A beauty with long black hair came forward and stood before Yuan, who continued to stand there in an unfazed manner.

She looked at him with raised eyebrows, feeling a little awkward, as she has never gotten the chance to use this technique without retaliation from the other party.

After taking a deep breath, she lifted both her arms and made several hand gestures while facing them at Yuan.

"Spiritual Constriction Art!"

Yuan immediately felt an unforce entering his mind. However, due to his immense soul strength that was incomparably stronger than the woman, it was destroyed just as quickly as it entered his mind.

A moment of silence later, when Yuan showed no reaction, the woman mumbled, "I think it worked."

"Really? What was it supposed to do?" Yuan suddenly asked, startling the woman to the point it made her jump back like a scared kitten.

"I-It didn't work!" She quickly corrected herself.

"Anyways, you have five minutes left. Or should I just save some time and kill all of you now, since it's clear that nobody here can kill me."

The cultivators there immediately became defensive after hearing his words with some of them even running away.

Yuan laughed at their reaction.

"Or I can spare your lives. However, since you all refused my offer in the beginning, I will no longer teach you guys any technique."

"With that being said, if you are willing to accept my challenge and survive one of my strikes, I will give you a chance to learn a technique."

The cultivators there looked at each other, wondering what they would do in this situation. Should they risk their life, or should they just leave?

"You have three minutes to decide before I kill everyone that is still here." Yuan reminded them that the timer was still counting down. Of course, he had no real intentions of killing them and just wanted to mess with them.

"I-I am willing to accept the challenge!" A short man stepped forward with a resolute expression on his face.

Since he risked his life to come this far without any guarantees that he'd gain anything from the Sword Graveyard, he might as well risk his life again for this.

"Very well. And don't expect me to go easy on you." Yuan said.

The others quickly gave them some space.

"I will move in exactly 10 seconds from now. Try your best to stay alive."

The man swallowed nervously.

And as he stood there, every passing second felt like an eternity, as if time itself had come to a standstill.

When the appointed moment finally arrived, Yuan swiftly drew forth his sword with a graceful and fluid motion, his sword emanating an aura of immense power that surged forth in a wave of unfettered Sword Aura, aimed at the man.

It was at this moment that the man regretted his decision, but it was too late to back down.

"AAAAAAHHHH!" The man released a beastly roar as all of the strength in his body gushed forward like a broken dam, his life depending on it to block Yuan's Sword Aura.

When the man's sword clashed with Yuan's Sword Aura, he immediately realized the difference in their strength. It was like heaven and earth, and he felt like a mortal before an unattainable strength that will forever haunt his soul.

With their clash, the man's sword was cleanly sliced in two by the Sword Aura, leaving him defenseless before the unstoppable force.

The Sword Aura continued its unrelenting advance, cleaving through the air with a fearsome intensity until it made contact with the man's chest, carving a deep and lasting scar into his flesh.

In that moment, the man was brought to the brink of death, his very essence laid bare before the merciless might of Yuan's Sword Aura.

The onlookers swallowed nervously after witnessing the scene.

The spectacle before them was not a showcase of Yuan's sword techniques, but a display of his raw power that was channeled through his Sword Aura.

However, unbeknownst to them, that wasn't even half of Yuan's full strength, as he'd held back just enough so that he wouldn't kill his challenger.

Yuan turned to look at the crowd and asked them, "Anyone got a restoration pill for him? He might really die at this rate."

Someone quickly came forward to offer a mid-quality restoration pill.

Once consumed, the man's bleeding immediately stopped and his breathing became steady, but the scar on his chest remained.

"Since you managed to survive, I will teach you a sword technique from any sword that existed within the Sword Graveyard, but seeing your current condition, let's postpone this until I go through everyone else here."

"Okay..." The man nodded in a stiff movement.

Yuan turned to look at the others with a devil-like smile, "So, who else wants to challenge me?"

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 1163 Unfathomable Generosity

The cultivators at the Sword Graveyard silently stared at the man lying on the ground with a massive scar on his chest. Fortunately, he barely managed to survive.

However, they might not be as lucky, and judging from what they witnessed, nobody there was confident in blocking Yuan's Sword Aura.

'I will probably die if I am struck by his Sword Aura.' Many of the cultivators there had the same thought.

"If you do not wish to challenge me, you may leave and I will not chase after you. However, if you stay here, I will come for you." Yuan said.

And he continued, "One minute left."

Over half of the cultivators there turned around and ran away. They did not want to be chased by a monster that could not be harmed even by Heaven-grade treasures.

In their eyes, Yuan was even more dangerous than the immortal demons that roamed this land.

Once those that wanted to leave were gone, Yuan beckoned those that decided to stay.

"We don't have all day. Come receive my strike if you dare."

His next challenger stepped forward with trembling legs.

'If a man like that had the courage to receive his strike, there's no reason I should run away!' This man encouraged himself using the first challenger.

As they assumed their position, Yuan slashed forward, sending his Sword Aura at the man.

"It's gotten even stronger!"

The onlookers exclaimed in a shocked voice after sensing the devastating pressure coming from Yuan's sword.

Naturally, Yuan had adjusted his strength to his new challenger, or it wouldn't be fair to the previous one.

"Argh!"

The man screamed in pain as the Sword Aura cleanly sliced through his defensive treasure and two of his fingers.

He then retrieved multiple restoration pills and swallowed all of them at once, bloating his throat like a toad.

"I-I have survived!" The man roared in excitement and relief.

Yuan didn't watch him celebrate and immediately beckoned for the next challenger.

Over the next hour, Yuan would unleash his Sword Aura again and again upon those that dared to challenge him. In the end, none of the hundred or so cultivators that challenged him managed to escape unscathed with many receiving life-threatening injuries. Some of them were even missing a limb or two.

And unfortunately, despite his best efforts to control his power and minimize the damage, Yuan could not do anything about any unforeseen accidents, which tragically ended the lives of several challengers, their corpses turning into spiritual energy for the Endless Emperor's Tomb.

After a moment of silence for those that died, Yuan began to fulfill his promise to those that managed to survive.

"Which sword do you wish to learn from?" He asked the man who now had a scar on his chest.

"I want to learn the Divine Edge's technique!"

"Very well." Yuan immediately used technique transfer to send the technique directly into the man's head.

When he absorbed the swords within the Sword Graveyard, he immediately learned all of their techniques. However, their memories still required him to manually absorb them.

"T-This is the Divine Edge's sword technique...?" The man muttered in a dazed voice after acquiring the sword technique.

"Yes, but allow me to give you some disclaimers. Even if I transfer the technique to you, it is not guaranteed that you will comprehend it. Furthermore, it will disappear from your memories after a full year passes, and you won't be able to extract this technique from your mind even if you tried. Understand?"

"I understand..." The man nodded his head in a dazed manner.

Once he confirmed that the technique was inside his head, he wasted no time leaving the Sword Graveyard to find a safe place to study the technique.

Yuan continued to transfer sword techniques to the cultivators there.

Unsurprisingly, the most popular choice of technique was those from the three Mythic-grade swords.

Once Yuan finished handing out the techniques, the place became completely empty. The holes left behind by the swords also disappeared, leaving behind no evidence that the Sword Graveyard ever existed.

"When will you stop erasing historical sites from the Nameless Emperor's Tomb? Those who want to visit the Sword Graveyard after this will forever be unable to fulfill their dream." Tian Suyin sighed, and she felt bad for those cultivators that intended on visiting the place like her someday.

She turned to look at the now desolate land and sighed once again, "I already knew that I wouldn't get another chance to come back to this place, but to think it wouldn't be due to my lack of strength but because the place no longer exists..."

Yuan smiled, "There's no need to come back here if you learn every sword technique that existed in this place."

Tian Suyin snapped at his remarks, "Are you rubbing it in my face on purpose?! You think everyone is as lucky as you?!"

"No, I was simply implying that I am willing to teach you the techniques."

"Eh?" The angry expression on Tian Suyin's face immediately froze as she tried to process what Yuan had just said.

"Say that again for me. I don't think I heard you properly."

Yuan chuckled, "Do you want me to give you all of the sword techniques that I acquired from this place?"

"A-Are you serious? You're not messing with me, right?" Tian Suyin's body trembled uncontrollably.

Yuan silently extended his hand and smiled.

Tian Suyin, still in disbelief, slowly placed her soft hand on top of Yuan's palm.

The following moment, Tian Suyin's mind was flooded with hundreds of powerful sword techniques ranging from Heaven-rank to Ancient-rank.

"There's going to be almost no restriction for you, Senior Tian, so you can take as much time as you need to study these sword techniques. If you wish to pass down these techniques, you may do so as well. The only restriction that I cannot control would be your ability to actually learn these techniques." Yuan said to her.

"This is... You... I..." Tian Suyin was utterly speechless, and she was beginning to genuinely feel guilty about treating him like a bad person with ulterior motives this entire time.

Chapter 1164 Jin Xi's Authority

Yuan turned to look at Tian Yanyu after giving her mother the sword techniques.

"Give me your hand. I will also pass down these techniques to you," he said still with a smile on his face.

"But why...? Why are you doing so much for us when we were strangers until not long ago?" Tian Suyin asked him in a low voice.

Yuan sighed, "I want to tell you the truth, but for your safety, I cannot do so. However, please trust me when I say that I have no ulterior motives and simply want to help the Tian Family."

"You don't have to say anything else, Xiao Yang." Tian Yanyu mumbled as she placed her hand on his palm.

"Your actions have long proven to me that you're not here to harm us, so you don't need to say another word regarding that, as I trust you with my whole being."

Tian Yanyu's face was visibly crimson red at this moment.

Yuan smiled at her words as he transferred the sword techniques to her.

"Just like Senior Tian, the only restriction is your ability to comprehend these techniques."

"Thank you, Xiao Yang... Truly, thank you."

Yuan nodded, "I will be heading deeper into the tomb now. What will the two of you do?"

"Mother?" Tian Yanyu turned to look at her.

"I would like to say that we should regroup with the sect, but we have already received enough from this place. In fact, I doubt there is anyone—besides Xiao Yang—who has received more than us from the tomb. There's no need for us to risk our lives here anymore. Let's leave."

Tian Yanyu nodded, agreeing with her mother's decision to leave the tomb.

"Alright. Then I will see you guys later." Yuan said to them before turning to look at Jin Xi, who had been in the background this entire time.

"Jin Xi, can I trouble you one last time to guide them out of this tomb safely?" He asked her with clasped hands and his head lowered.

Jin Xi did not respond to him and turned to look at the two ladies.

"Can you confirm that you wish to leave this place entirely?" She asked them.

"Yes." Tian Suyin nodded, as did Tian Yanyu.

"Done."

Jin Xi suddenly snapped her fingers, and Tian Suyin and Tian Yanyu's figure disappeared into thin air, almost as if Jin Xi had snapped them out of existence.

"What did you do to them?" Yuan asked her with a slight frown on his face.

"I forcefully teleported them out of here, exactly what they wanted," she calmly said.

"You have such powers?" Yuan was surprised to learn this information.

"Do not underestimate my authority within this place," she sneered in a boastful manner.

"By the way, don't forget to grab the key."

Jin Xi pointed at a certain area, where a blue key was stabbed into the ground.

After realizing this, Yuan used Qi Manifestation to grab the key from afar.

"Alright, where to next?" He turned to look at Jin Xi.

"Why are you asking me?" She raised an eyebrow.

"Isn't that your job as a guide? To guide me around?" He asked.

"That does not mean I will be holding your hands and taking you on a stroll."

"So you're basically useless..." Yuan sighed.

"Huh?! What did you just call me?!"

"Nothing. Since there's almost no information about the inner areas, I guess I will just have to wander around and hope that I run into something."

He proceeded to pick a random direction that wasn't towards where he'd come from and started flying that way.

"I dare you to call me useless again! I dare you!" Jin Xi complained as she followed him from behind.

'Even though she's probably Li Jinxi's incarnation, there's a vast difference between their characters.' Yuan thought to himself as he tried his best to ignore her.

A week later.

"Kill him! Kill him! Kill him!" A demon wearing a black-colored crystal on its right shoulder roared as it commanded the surrounding demons with a red crystal.

Over 10 demons rushed at Yuan simultaneously.

"What's wrong? You seem to be having trouble with a mere human! Are you not ashamed to be called a demon?!" Yuan provoked them as he killed them one at a time with Sword Aura.

There were over 50 demons when the fight started, but there are less than 10 now. This caused the other demons to panic, especially the Elite Demon, who was in control of the group.

"How can a mere human kill us so easily?! He's not even using demon sealing techniques!" The Elite Demon gritted its teeth from frustration.

"You want me to use demon sealing techniques on fake demons? Even smashing an egg with a mountain is less wasteful than that!"

"How dare a mere livestock mock me?! An Elite Demon?!"

The Elite Demon eventually joined the other demons in the fight, but alas, its presence in the battle did not affect the results even in the slightest.

After killing the last demon, Yuan sighed in a regretful tone, "It's a true pity that they don't leave behind their crystal in here."

"At any rate, there's a lot of demons in this place. Why is that?" He wondered out loud, as he encountered more demons than magical beasts.

"That's simple. Humans are more terrified of demons than magical beasts, and they are also harder to deal with. The inner area isn't meant for ordinary cultivators, and even top geniuses have a hard time traversing this place."

"Is that so? Then what about the core area? Does it actually exist?"

"Yes, it exists, but that place isn't meant for anyone, period. Despite that, three people have made it to the core."

"Oh? Who?" Yuan asked with great interest.

"A dragon, a phoenix, and a human."

"That's it? At least give me a little more information."

She shook her head and said, "Too bad, because that's all I know."

"Is that so? They must all be famous individuals in the upper heavens, given that they have enough talent to reach the core..." Yuan mumbled.

Chapter 1165 Mysterious Garden

"If you care so much about it, why don't you go take a look at their sites? Maybe you'll learn something about their identities." Jin Xi suddenly said.

"Their sites? What are you talking about?" Yuan raised an eyebrow.

"Those that have managed to make it to the core of the tomb are awarded with a special location somewhere in the tomb to memorize them. If you make it to the core, the tomb will also create a unique place for you."

"Although they pique my interest, I am not going to go out of my way to see these places, unless they benefit me somehow."

"Nope, you don't get anything from visiting these places."

Sometime later, Yuan came to a halt when he noticed a colossal shadow looming in the distance, its shape and form reminiscent that of a dragon.

"Hey, is that..."

"Indeed, that statue was created to memorialize the dragon who reached the core. It's quite large, spanning thousands of miles."

Despite only seeing a glimpse of its immense form, Yuan couldn't shake the inexplicable feeling of familiarity that washed over him at the sight of the shadow. It was as if he had encountered this behemoth before, perhaps in a long-forgotten dream or a faded memory from a past life, and its presence now stirred something deep within him, something primal and profound that defied explanation.

"The Great One...?" Yuan suddenly muttered this name.

"Hm? You know the dragon?" Jin Xi looked at him with a surprised look on her face.

"I'm not sure if this dragon is the Great One. It certainly gives me a familiar vibe. Though, even if it is the Great One, I can't say that I really know him. It's complicated."

After encountering what he assumes to be the Great One, Yuan decided to follow the direction it was pointed towards.

Thousands of miles later, Yuan came to a stop again when he noticed a garden in the distance.

"What is this place?" Yuan asked Jin Xi as he descended towards it.

However, Jin Xi didn't respond, and when he turned to look at her, she appeared to be greatly shocked by the appearance of this garden.

"W-Why is this place here...?"

He could hear Jin Xi mumbling in a dazed voice.

Yuan raised an eyebrow and returned to look at the garden from outside.

At glance, he couldn't help but be awestruck by the vast array of colorful and vibrant blooms inside the garden, each one a unique and exquisite creation of nature's boundless beauty, captivating his senses and filling his soul with a sense of wonder. However, these flowers were clearly still immature and not fully bloomed.

At the heart of the garden, amidst the colorful flowers, stood a small and unassuming pavilion. When Yuan's eyes beheld the sight of the pavilion, his heart stirred with an inexplicable yearning, a deep connection that transcended time and space.

As if drawn by an invisible force, he felt compelled to approach it, his footsteps guided by an ethereal presence that whispered to his soul, beckoning him to get closer.

The pavilion, bathed in the soft light of the sun, seemed to glow with an otherworldly radiance.

When Yuan stepped foot inside the garden, a curious thing happened.

The flowers that had been half-bloomed, began to stir, as if sensing his presence and responding to his arrival.

Petals unfurled, leaves stretched out to bask in the sunlight, and the air was filled with the sweet fragrance of blossoms bursting into full bloom.

It was as if the garden had been waiting for him, ready to showcase its most precious treasures in his honor.

Yuan felt a surge of wonder and awe wash over him, as if he had stumbled upon a secret garden that had been hidden away from the world for countless eras, now revealed to him alone.

The flowers fully bloomed by the time he reached the pavilion, and to his absolute surprise, these flowers became enveloped in Sword Aura after their blossoming.

Since there was nothing inside the pavilion, Yuan could only stand there and look around as he tried to figure out the secrets of this garden.

He used Divine Gaze when he saw nothing with Divine Sense, but even then, he wasn't able to see anything special about this place besides the flowers with Sword Aura.

He turned to look at Jin Xi and asked in a loud voice, "Hey! Jin Xi! What is this place?"

Jin Xi snapped out of her daze and looked at him with a pondering face.

"No... There's no way..." She mumbled in a dumbfounded voice.

Eventually, she said, "There is nothing special about this garden, so you can stop wasting your time here."

Yuan immediately doubted her words, which did not align with her reaction.

When Jin Xi saw the dubious look on his face, she sneered, "I am serious. There isn't anything for you to gain here. It's just a garden that was once managed by my Master. If you don't believe me, you can continue wasting your time here."

Yuan stared at her eyes to see if she was teasing him or if she was telling the truth.

'She's not lying... But why would a pointless place like this exist in the tomb?' He wondered inwardly.

'Whatever, I will come back here later if I have the time.'

With that in mind, Yuan left the garden and returned to wandering the tomb.

Jin Xi silently stared at Yuan's back and thought to herself, 'That garden only blooms for Master, so why did it bloom for him?'

As they soared through the sky, leaving the garden behind, a strange phenomenon began to unfold. A thick mist, like a shroud of mystery, descended upon the garden, obscuring it from view and engulfing it in a cloak of otherworldly fog.

When the mist finally dissipated, there was nothing left but an empty patch of ground, devoid of any sign that a garden had ever existed there. It was as if the garden had been a mirage, a fleeting dream that had vanished into the ether as soon as it had been beheld.

Chapter 1166 Phoenix Statue

After flying for several more days, Yuan came to a halt when another statue appeared in the distance. This time, it was that of a massive phoenix with colossal wings that covered almost the entire sky.

"What a sight..." Yuan took a deep breath after a sense of awe washed over him.

Suddenly, a figure materialized right in front of him out of thin air.

It was Feng Yuxiang, and she was staring at the phoenix with a dazed look on her face.

"Feng Feng? Are you feeling okay?" He asked her.

"Yes... It's just that when I look at this statue, my blood suddenly starts to boil for some reason, almost as though it's reacting to it."

"Perhaps you recognize this phoenix?" Yuan made a guess.

"That's possible, but I don't remember seeing this phoenix before," she sighed.

Yuan narrowed his eyes at the phoenix and asked, "You can tell? Even though it's just a statue?"

He would have a hard time telling the difference between two phoenixes unless one had a unique feature.

"It's just a feeling. I am not certain that I know this phoenix, but I cannot ignore my body's reaction. This is the first time something like this has happened to me."

Yuan then said, "Go ahead, take a closer look. I will wait for you."

"Thank you, Young Master."

Feng Yuxiang nodded and flew closer to the phoenix.

After spending several minutes inspecting the phoenix statue, Feng Yuxiang returned to Yuan's side and said, "That is a mature phoenix— a female one, at that."

"Oh... How can you tell the difference between a male and female phoenix?" Yuan asked out of curiosity.

Feng Yuxiang smiled and said, "The chest. You see how her chest is slightly puffed out? A male phoenix's chest is much flatter."

"Is that so..."

"Anyways, I am done here. Maybe I met this phoenix in the past and forgot about it, but there's no point pondering about it now."

He nodded, "Alright. Let's continue moving then."

This time, he decided to move towards the direction the phoenix was pointing.

Two days later, Yuan came to another halt when he was suddenly surrounded by demons.

This time, there were over a hundred of them. The majority of them were low-ranking demons, but there were a dozen Elite Demons, three Superior Demons, and one Demon General.

"A whole army of demons this time, huh." Yuan mumbled with a nonchalant look on his face.

Since he was facing this many demons at once, he could no longer go easy on them. Thus, he decided to use one demon sealing technique— just one.

His eyes flickered with a vicious glint before activating the Demon Sealing Zone.

Whoosh!

The Demon Sealing Zone instantly swallowed up all of the demons, and the moment it touched a demon, they would immediately turn into solid, becoming a statue.

Jin Xi's eyes widened when she saw this. In her eyes, all of the demons there simultaneously turned into stone out of the blue.

"You... You are a Demon Sealer, as well?" She asked him in a dumbfounded voice.

"That's right." He calmly nodded.

"Why did you hide it until now?" She raised an eyebrow.

"I wasn't trying to hide it. I just didn't need to use it. My Sword Aura is more than enough to deal with a few demons." He shrugged.

"Unbelievable..."

"Anyways, I am going to try something new. You should move away, since this is going to cover a large area."

Jin Xi suddenly stuck out her chest and puffed in an arrogant manner, "You won't be able to hurt me even if you tried. My strength was limited during the trial for your sake, but I no longer have said limit."

"If you say so..." Yuan proceeded to close his eyes and began building up his Sword Aura.

A minute or so later, his eyes snapped open, and a massive amount of Sword Aura gushed out of his body. However, it did not stop and continued to expand until it was large enough to kill all of the demons there in one fell swoop.

Yuan released a sigh afterward.

"Although that worked, it took too long. I will need to work on my speed before I can actually use it properly."

Lan Yingying then said, "And if you can make it last longer, you will be able to use it to protect cities, just like the Lord did in the Mystic Realm."

"Oh, you're right. It's basically the same thing." Yuan said after realizing this.

Right before they continued their journey, Jin Xi reminded Yuan that the Demon General had left behind a crimson key.

"This makes it the fifth key in my possession. I still need four more, huh." Yuan did not like this easter egg hunt at all.

A few more days later, Yuan noticed a small pond about a hundred miles away, and despite being that far away, he could sense a strong Sword Aura coming from it.

"What is this place?" Yuan asked Jin Xi once they landed before it.

"Sword Pond is its name."

Yuan tried to see how deep this pond was, but to his absolute shock, he wasn't able to see the ground even with his Divine Sense at maximum strength.

"Heavens... How far down does this pond go?" He turned to look at Jin Xi with a stupefied face.

She shrugged, "Who knows. Why don't you go down there and let me know afterward?"

Yuan was not the least surprised by her response, even expecting it.

He turned to look at the pond and swallowed nervously.

Despite its calm appearances, every drop of water in this pond was covered by a thin layer of Sword Aura. If an ordinary cultivator plunged into this water, their body would instantly get shredded until there was nothing left, and this pond was deep— at least a thousand miles deep.

Unfortunately, Yuan knew that he was fated to enter this pond. He only prayed that he wouldn't instantly die the moment he entered it.

Chapter 1167 Sword Pond

"Alright, I am going to enter this pond since I have a good feeling that I will find a key at the end— no, I am certain." Yuan said with a resolute expression on his face.

"Is that so? Have fun." Jin Xi said in a nonchalant manner, almost as if she couldn't care less.

Yuan didn't say anything and started stripping his clothes.

However, just as he took two steps towards the pond and prepared to plunge inside, his movements suddenly halted.

"What are you doing?" Jin Xi asked after seeing his weird movements.

"..."

After a moment of awkward silence, he said in a somewhat embarrassed voice, "I... I don't know how to swim."

"..."

Jin Xi's eyes widened as she stared at him in silence.

A moment later, she bent backwards and started laughing out loud that her voice could be heard miles away.

"Are you serious?! You don't know how to swim?! That's pathetic!" She pointed at him and laughed without restraint.

Yuan frowned and said, "Due to circumstances, my movements were limited until recently, so I did not have the opportunity to learn how to swim. Is it really so bad that one doesn't know how to swim?"

"Yeah, yeah. No need for excuses. That'll just make you look even more pathetic."

Yuan sighed, but he decided to not argue with her.

Jin Xi suddenly snapped her fingers, creating a massive hole right next to the Sword Pond, and with a second snap, she filled the hole with clear water.

"You can practice swimming there. Just don't waste too much time." Jin Xi said to him. Despite making fun of him for not being able to swim, she still wanted to help him.

Feng Yuxiang and the others came out of his body watch.

"Young Master, I would love to teach you how to swim, but honestly, I don't know how to myself, and I do not like water." Feng Yuxiang sighed.

"Well, you are a creature of fire, after all." Yuan smiled at her.

Xiao Hua looked at the water for a second before turning to look at Yuan and shaking her head, "Sorry, Brother Yuan, but Xiao Hua cannot help you today."

"You're still young, so it's okay..."

Yuan subconsciously turned to look at Lan Yingying next, who had a gentle smile on her face.

"I guess you also don't know how to swim," he sighed.

"No, I do. I can teach you, if you'd like."

Yuan was so happy to hear that Lan Yingying knew how to swim, it caused him to shed a tear.

Lan Yingying proceeded to remove her clothes the following second.

"Y-You! How dare you try to seduce the Young Master with your body in this kind of situation!" Feng Yuxiang pointed at her with trembling fingers when Lan Yingying stripped completely naked.

"What are you talking about?" Lan Yingying looked at her with raised eyebrows, oblivious of the situation.

"Why are you completely naked?!" Feng Yuxiang asked again.

Lan Yingying immediately responded in an innocent voice, "Because I am going in the water with him?"

Feng Yuxiang facepalmed. "Is she messing with me, or is she actually that shameless?"

"If you are worried about me being seen naked, you don't have to worry. I don't mind if it's Yuan, and this isn't our first time like this."

"W-What did you say?!" Feng Yuxiang exclaimed, as she wasn't aware of their interaction at the waterfall within the Mystic Realm, where Lan Yingying was impregnated by Yuan.

Lan Yingying stopped entertaining Feng Yuxiang afterward and entered the cool water, which was about 2 meters deep.

After entering the water, Lan Yingying waited for Yuan at the edge of the pond.

Seeing Lan Yingying's beautiful naked body, Yuan couldn't help but swallow nervously.

Unlike previously when they were at the waterfall, he was no longer as ignorant and immune to a woman's charm, and his opponent was a peerless beauty like Lan Yingying, so his body couldn't help but react a little.

However, Yuan quickly managed to keep his emotions under control by reminding himself that underneath her human appearance was a Divine Beast that could swallow even demons, and most importantly, she was his comrade.

After patting himself in the cheeks, Yuan entered the water, grabbing Lan Yingying's hand at the same time so that he wouldn't immediately sink.

Although he could technically cover himself in spiritual energy and fly around in water, he actually wanted to use this opportunity to learn something that he never got the chance to.

Thus, Lan Yingying started giving Yuan swimming lessons.

Their training would go on for a few days until Yuan could swim as naturally as breathing.

"It took you longer than I expected, since you usually learn everything in a heartbeat." Feng Yuxiang said to him afterward.

"I guess there are some things that even I am not talented in." He chuckled.

"Thank you, Yingying. I've troubled you for the last few days." He said to her afterward.

"It was a pleasure to finally be able to help you." She smiled at him before pulling herself out of the water.

Yuan quickly shifted his gaze from her dripping wet body to something else.

'Hm?' Feng Yuxiang raised an eyebrow after seeing his unusual reaction, but she didn't think too much of it at that moment.

Now that he was prepared, Yuan returned to the Sword Pond, but he didn't immediately jump in.

He sat down and cultivated for a bit first.

A few hours later, Yuan opened his eyes and stood up.

After taking a deep breath, he leaped into the air before diving into the Sword Pond.

'Since it's just Sword Aura, it shouldn't affect my Sword Body.' He thought to himself as he plunged into the cold water.

'Fuck! It's freezing!' He cursed inwardly, and he regretted not testing the water's temperature before jumping in.

The water was so cold it felt like every pore in his body was being poked by needles.

Fortunately, he was used to pain from tempering his body, so it was still tolerable for him.

Unfortunately, the cold would only worsen as he swam deeper inside the Sword Pond.

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 1168 Sword Pond(2)

After swimming for a minute, Yuan immediately gave up on trying to swim normally and propelled himself forward using spiritual energy.

Not only did this help him travel many times faster but it also protected him from the cold. However, because every drop of water in the Sword Pond is covered in Sword Aura, it would shred his spiritual energy constantly.

Fortunately, he could recover his spiritual energy faster than the Sword Aura destroyed it.

About a hundred miles down, the temperature in the Sword Pond changed drastically.

It was no longer cold, but scorching hot, almost as though he was swimming in lava, and it burned through his spiritual energy like a hot knife in butter.

This sudden change in temperatures caught Yuan off guard, and he had to quickly adjust to it.

The temperature was so hot that it constantly burned his skin. If it weren't for his regeneration ability, he would definitely die if he continued diving deeper.

Yuan endured the burning sensation that consumed his entire body and continued moving forward, swimming deeper and deeper into the Sword Pond.

Two hundred miles deep, the temperature changed again, returning to being extremely cold, but it was at least two times colder than before.

This same pattern continued until he reached a depth of 500 miles.

'What is this sensation? It feels cold and hot at the same time.'

Yuan was baffled by this phenomenon that he could not fully describe. His skin felt like it was being burned, yet it also felt like he was cold. It was a weird feeling that he has never experienced before.

However, even more horrifying was the fact that his regeneration ability was barely keeping up with the destruction done to his body, which was a first as well.

'If I continue diving deeper without any plans, I will definitely not make it to the end and die.'

He stopped moving temporarily to ponder a solution.

A moment later, he recalled something that he'd done in one of his previous lives.

'To temper the body is to embark on a journey of destruction and rebirth, tearing down the old and rebuilding the new, like a phoenix rising from the ashes...'

'Ahh... I understand what I have to do... This Sword Pond... It's the perfect environment to temper my body...'

And for the next week, Yuan would remain at the 500 miles mark without moving an inch, letting the hot and cold water continuously destroy his body.

Ding!

<Your skill 'Perfect Regeneration' has reached its maximum potential>

With his improved Perfect Regeneration, Yuan's body was regenerating at a much faster pace than previously.

'Perfect. Now I can continue.' Yuan smiled inwardly as he began moving again.

For the next 500 miles, Yuan would experience even harsher temperature conditions, which made him wonder if there was a limit to it.

When he was just a few meters away from the 1,000th mile mark, Yuan stopped moving to inspect the water with his Divine Sense.

Due to some mysterious force in the Sword Pond, his Divine Sense was limited to only a few meters ahead of him, but that was more than enough for him to see what was waiting for him ahead.

'Fuck me... The Sword Aura has become Enhanced Sword Aura!' He cried inwardly after seeing this change.

Despite the extreme temperatures, he was able to reach this far without worrying too much because his Sword Body negated the most dangerous part of this Sword Pond— its Sword Aura. However, now that the water is covered in Enhanced Sword Aura, his Sword Body will no longer be able to protect him.

This put Yuan in a dilemma, as he wasn't confident that he would be able to survive the Enhanced Sword Aura even with his improved Perfect Regeneration.

However, he still decided to test the water, as he had come too far to go back empty-handed.

Once he was right in front of the water, Yuan shoved his finger into the water with the Enhanced Sword Aura.

'Shit!'

He immediately retrieved his finger the next second, and its skin and flesh was badly damaged, looking like he'd put it in a blender or something.

Once his finger healed, Yuan decided to shove his entire arm in there to see if his regeneration could keep up.

A few seconds later, he retrieved his skeleton arm that was void of any meat and skin. It was clear at this point that he would not survive the Enhanced Sword Aura even with his improved Perfect Regeneration.

After pondering for some time, Yuan stuck his arm in there again. This time, he covered it in Enhanced Sword Aura as a layer of protection.

Yuan gritted his teeth from the intense pain.

However, his little experiment had worked, as the Enhanced Sword Aura was able to protect his arm just enough to let it heal faster than it could be damaged, but it was only slighter faster— to the point where if he removed the protection for a second, his entire arm would be consumed again.

This was a huge gamble for Yuan. He could either cover his entire body with Enhanced Sword Aura and try to swim as far as he could, or he could try to temper his body again like he did at the 500-mile mark.

'Since I don't know how far down this Sword Pond goes, it would be better to temper my body a little more before going deeper.'

After taking a moment to resolve himself and protecting his entire body with Enhanced Sword Aura, Yuan swam into the next challenge.

"Aaaaaah!"

He screamed out loud from the intense pain that covered every inch of his body, but his voice did not make a sound in the water.

After the initial pain, Yuan tried his best to endure it and manage his Enhanced Sword Aura at the same time, as he would die the moment his protection goes away.

And in this constant state of extreme pain that would only get worse as time passed, Yuan eventually could not hold on and lost consciousness for a split second.

This split second of unconsciousness was more than enough to disturb his Enhanced Sword Aura, and just like that, his body became completely vulnerable in the depths of the Sword Pond, where nobody could help him.

As his consciousness returned, a window that he never expected to see popped up before him.

<You have died>

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 1169 <You Have Died>

<You have died>

At the exact same moment this notification appeared, Xiao Hua and the others could immediately feel their connection with Yuan severed.

With their connection severed, they could no longer sense him. However, they were certain that something bad had happened to him.

"Young Master!" Feng Yuxiang quickly rushed to the Sword Pond.

"Whoa! What do you think you're doing?!" Jin Xi immediately stopped her from recklessly jumping into the water.

"The Young Master is in danger! We need to save him!" She exclaimed with teary eyes.

Jin Xi frowned, and she turned to look at the Sword Pond.

"Unfortunately, it might be a little too late to save him, as his entire body has already been consumed by the pond."

"No!" Feng Yuxiang fell to her knees.

Lan Yingying gritted her teeth and balled her hands so hard that it began bleeding.

As for Xiao Hua, she stood there with a blank expression on her face, and it wasn't her usual nonchalant expression—it was one void of all emotions.

Jin Xi sighed, "Looks like he wasn't anything special, after all. I had high hopes for him, too."

"No." Xiao Hua suddenly uttered in a low voice.

"What?" Jin Xi looked at her with raised eyebrows.

"Brother Yuan isn't dead. There's no way he'd die here." She had a stern look on her face, but it was not due to her confidence in him— it was merely her inability to accept the situation. In other words, she was fooling herself.

"I hate to break it to you, but he's really dead. As someone whose authority in this place is only second to my Master, I can see everything happening within this domain, and I cannot see him. I can also confirm that his body perished at the 1,000-mile mark in the Sword Pond—"

Jin Xi suddenly halted her mouth, and she turned to stare at the Sword Pond with wide eyes.

"There's no way..." She muttered in a low voice.

Meanwhile, inside the Sword Pond.

When Yuan received the death notification, his vision blackened, and all of the sensation in his body was gone. It was almost as though he'd returned to being a cripple.

However, shortly after, he heard a voice resound inside his head.

<The flame residing in your heart reconstructs your body>

<You have been resurrected>

<You have satisfied the hidden condition to evolve Perfect Regeneration>

<'Perfect Regeneration' has evolved to 'Absolute Regeneration'>

With the ability Absolute Regeneration, Yuan was able to fully reconstruct his body even when he was still inside the Sword Pond.

<You have acquired the title 'Rebirth'>

[Rebirth: All healing effects on you will be increased by 1,000%]

Although his body would be perfectly fine even if he used just his naked body to block the Enhanced Sword Aura, it was still incredibly painful, as his regeneration abilities did not negate damage.

After composing himself, Yuan continued to swim deeper into the Sword Pond.

Meanwhile, Feng Yuxiang and the others could suddenly sense that their connection with Yuan had been re-established.

"Why isn't he dead? The Enhanced Sword Aura had clearly destroyed every cell in his body! Don't tell me that he's actually immortal?!"

"Thank the heavens that he's fine..." Feng Yuxiang released a sigh of relief, and she was completely unaware that her drop of blood from when they first met had actually saved Yuan.

Due to his Heaven Consuming Physique, he was able to extract even the forbidden power of rebirth from Feng Yuxiang's blood. However, even Feng Yuxiang wouldn't survive if her entire body was destroyed, so how did Yuan manage to do such a thing?

Unfortunately, the answer would not be found until much later.

After diving for another 500 miles, Yuan finally reached the ground, and sure enough, there was an azure-colored key resting at the very bottom.

Yuan quickly went to pick up the key, and then he proceeded to look around to see if there was anything else down there.

'Oh? What's this?' Yuan barely noticed this black-colored pearl that was halfway covered by sand, and it was the size of an ordinary spirit stone.

He didn't think twice before taking it with him back up to the surface.

The amount of time Yuan had spent inside the Sword Pond was almost an entire month.

When Yuan resurfaced, he was immediately hugged by Feng Yuxiang, who almost suffocated him with her breasts.

"You're okay, Young Master! You really had us worried there for a good minute! What happened down there that caused our connection to sever, something that only happens if one of us dies?"

An awkward smile appeared on his face as he responded to her inquiries, "Actually, I did die down here. However, something resurrected me, and I think it was your phoenix flames."

"Eh? My flames? What do you mean?" Feng Yuxiang was completely puzzled.

"I'm not certain either. It's just a feeling I had down there after I died, as it felt like you were beside me at that moment."

Feng Yuxiang wasn't sure what he was talking about, but she was over the moon to hear that she'd somehow managed to save his life.

"Are you really okay, Yuan?" Lan Yingying asked him.

"Yes, I feel fine. In fact, I have never felt better. Due to the extreme conditions inside the Sword Pond, I was actually able to temper my body down there. My body is stronger than ever now because of that." Yuan flexed his toned muscles.

He then turned to look at Jin Xi, who had been silently staring at him since his return.

"Hey, do you know what this item is? I found it down there." Yuan showed the black pearl to her.

"No clue." She immediately shrugged.

And she quickly added, "I am serious. I don't know the majority of the treasures in this place since they were not placed there by me but by the Master."

"Can I see it for a second, Young Master?" Feng Yuxiang asked.

"Oh, right. You're an expert with treasures. Here. Take a look at this. I can sense an unfathomable power inside, but I don't know what it is." He quickly showed her the black pearl.

Feng Yuxiang didn't immediately recognize it, but when she did, her eyes widened like saucers.

"T-T-This can't be!" She exclaimed.

Chapter 1170 Top Ten Treasure

"You know what this treasure is?" Yuan became excited after seeing her surprised reaction.

She nodded and proceeded to mumble in a dazed voice, "If I am correct, this should be the Primordial Crystal. It's an exceedingly powerful resource that was thought to be extinct in the Nine Heavens."

"There are many legends that surround this treasure. Some say it will give one immortality. Some say it will give the carrier ultimate strength. Some even say that it will directly make you a god."

"Do you know what it actually does?" Yuan asked.

She shook her head, "Unfortunately, I only recognize it due to the void-like energy within. Even then, I am not 100 percent certain that this is the Primordial Crystal."

Feng Yuxiang turned to look at Jin Xi and continued, "Perhaps she might know about it, since she should have existed when the Primordial Crystal was still available."

Jin Xi quickly nodded and said, "Of course, I have heard of the Primordial Crystal. The biggest families and sects in the Divine Heaven would often fight each other whenever one is found."

"The Primordial Crystal is mostly known for three things— improve talent, evolve bloodlines, and even change one's physique. Its effect is different for every individual, and there's really no telling what will happen to one until they absorb it. Regardless, it'll change a person's life for the better and was even deemed one of top 10 treasures in the entire Divine Realm."

"Wow, to think it was a top 10 treasure..." Feng Yuxiang mumbled in a dazed voice.

This is the first time she's held a treasure that was once considered as one of the best treasures in the entire world.

There are tens of thousands of unique treasures in the cultivation world, and to be considered in the top ten, one can only imagine its effects.

"Congratulations, Young Master. With this treasure, you'll become even more powerful!" Feng Yuxiang handed the crystal back to him with a smile on her face.

"Should I consume this now or later?" He wondered out loud.

"Just so you know, it takes a tremendous amount of time to absorb the crystal. Most people go into seclusion and don't come out for another thousand years, some even taking ten thousand years." Jin Xi warned him.

"I guess that answers my question..." Yuan stored the Primordial Crystal in his spatial ring.

"Now I only need to find three more keys..."

Once they were ready, they started moving again.

However, they came to another halt shortly after.

"Hm? Isn't this the garden from before? Why is it here?" Yuan initially thought that he'd traveled back to where he came from, but upon looking at the surroundings, that wasn't possible.

The only explanation was that the garden had teleported to this location somehow, or it was a different garden that looked exactly the same as the previous one.

Jin Xi sighed after seeing the garden, and she turned to look at Yuan with a perplexed expression.

'This must be the reason why the Master wanted me to guide him...' She sighed inwardly.

She then said, "This is the Fateful Garden. It doesn't have a set location and will teleport around without any set schedule. Nobody before you has ever managed to encounter it, and the fact that you encountered it twice could only mean one thing."

"If this is related to my fate then there must be a key in there." Yuan said as he entered the garden once again.

And sure enough, under the pavilion, there was a single black key resting on the table.

Yuan wondered if this was a trap due to how easy and free it seemed.

Seeing his hesitation, Jin Xi said, "You can relax. Encountering the Fateful Garden twice is its trial in itself."

"Oh, really?" Yuan immediately picked up the key.

"Now I just need 2 more keys."

"One." Jin Xi suddenly said.

"Huh?" Yuan looked at her with raised eyebrows.

Jin Xi raised her hand and showed him a white key resting on her palm.

"Where did you get that?" Yuan asked.

"I had it with me this entire time."

"What? And you're giving it to me just now?" Yuan was dumbfounded.

"I had to make sure you were worthy of it."

"Thanks." Yuan went to grab the key, but Jin Xi suddenly closed her hand.

"Now what?"

"Before I give you this key, I want you to tell me the truth," she said.

"I don't recall lying to you." Yuan raised an eyebrow.

"I am going to ask you this now— Are you related to the Master?" Jin Xi stared at him intensively with a serious face.

Yuan smiled and said, "Would you believe me if I said that I am the masked man?"

"..."

Jin Xi wasn't sure how to respond. She has never seen the masked man's face before, but she felt a familiar feeling from Yuan ever since she met him. Perhaps that was her instincts telling her his identity.

"So you're trying to tell me that you are his reincarnation." Jin Xi frowned slightly.

"That's exactly what I am saying. You can believe me or not." He smiled.

"I see... So that's what you look like..." Jin Xi mumbled with a gentle smile on her face, acting a little out of character.

She then pointed in a certain direction and said, "Go that way. You will find the Master's— your residence there."

"Oh? So you're finally being cooperative—" Yuan suddenly stopped speaking, as Jin Xi's body suddenly started glowing.

"Thank you for seeing me again... I... I love you, Tian Xin..."

Jin Xi's body immediately dissipated into countless fragments before disappearing into thin air.

"Tian Xin... That is the masked man's name— the Lord's name, huh." Yuan stared at the empty air where Jin Xi stood just moments ago.

"Thank you, Jin Xi. I will make sure to take care of you in this life as well."
Yuan gave a courteous bow before going in the direction Jin Xi pointed at.
