"Thank you, Senior Xuan!" Yuan quickly switched from his Black Jade Mask to this black mask made of some kind of marble, giving it a glossy appearance.

Sometime later, the Dragon Essence Temple made their way to the gathering area and stood in a formation like they did yesterday, and they proceeded to wait for Senior Nie to return.

Right before sunrise, Senior Nie returned to the scene and hovered above everyone there.

"Greetings, Senior Nie!"

All of the Sect Masters there bowed to him.

"I will give all of you thirty minutes to prepare before we officially begin the Mystic Realm. If you're prepared, you may stand over there." Senior Nie pointed to the empty area in front of the Mystic Realm.

Soon, participants began gathering at that spot.

"Are you ready, Disciple Yuan?" Long Yijun asked him after asking Xue Jiye and Gao Dongya.

"Give me a second," Yuan said.

Then he said, "Xiao Hua, Feng Feng, you can come outside now."

"Xiao Hua? Feng Feng?" Everyone there raised their eyebrows at these unfamiliar names.

Suddenly, the necklace on Yuan began to glow, and a small ball of flame came out of his chest.

A second later, a cute little girl and a beautiful lady appeared before Yuan like ghosts.

The moment Xiao Hua's presence appeared and Senior Nie sensed it, his eyes widened with immense shock.

"Spirit King?! Impossible!"

Without any hesitation, he immediately flew towards the Dragon Essence Temple.

Chapter 305 - Two Incredibly Powerful Individuals

The other people there immediately noticed Senior Nie's sudden movements and watched as he approached the Dragon Essence Temple.

"S-Senior Nie?!" Long Yijun and the others were shocked by his sudden appearance, and they hastily went to bow to him.

However, almost as though he couldn't see them, Senior Nie ignored them and stared at Xiao Hua with wide eyes filled with surprise. How could such a young girl emit the aura of a Spirit King?

He then clasped his hands and bowed to Xiao Hua in a courteous manner, "What is someone like you doing here, Fellow Daoist? And if you don't mind me asking, where are you from?"

The entire place was dead silent as everyone there watched Senior Nie lower his head and treat a little girl as though they were equals, shocking them greatly.

Nobody there could comprehend the situation. Why was Senior Nie, an envoy from the Spirit Heavens, acting so respectful towards this little girl? However, even more shocking was the way Senior Nie addressed this little girl— Fellow Daoist, which implied that they were on equal footing to a certain extent.

"Xiao Hua's reason for being here doesn't concern you." Xiao Hua said to him in a calm voice that shook the heart of everyone there when they heard it.

How could she treat Senior Nie with such a lack of respect?! Courting death would be an understatement!

A rigid smile appeared on Senior Nie's face after hearing Xiao Hua's disregarding words, but he didn't get angry, even acting like it never happened and said, "Then allow me to ask you another question. How did you, a Spirit King, come down here? Unless one receives permission from the Ji Family, they cannot travel to the Lower Heavens, and as far as I'm aware, I was the only one who'd received permission to come down here in the last 1,000 years."

'A Spirit King?! That little girl?!'

The spectators were shocked to the core after hearing Senior Nie's words. How could a little girl who only appeared to be around 10 years be a Spirit King? Even if she had consumed some sort of appearance-changing pill to alter her appearance, it couldn't possibly change her appearance in such a drastic manner!

However, despite Senior Nie's questioning, Xiao Hua shook her head, seemingly adamant about remaining silent.

"Hmm..." Senior Nie narrowed his eyes at Xiao Hua with a suspicious gaze.

He was only a first level Spirit King whilst Xiao Hua appeared to be at the third level, so there was a good chance he won't be able to defeat her even if they fought. Furthermore, as a Spirit King who came from the upper heavens, Senior Nie has several restrictions placed upon him and cannot cause too much drama in the Lower Heavens or he'll be punished by the heavens.

'This little girl... She doesn't appear to be using any treasures to change her appearance... A Spirit King at such a young age and I don't recognize her... Perhaps she came from a place even higher than Spirit Heavens...?' Senior Nie's body shuddered at the thought that Xiao Hua could be from a place even higher than the Spirit Heavens!

'If that's really the case, I cannot offend her no matter what!' Senior Nie took a deep breath before speaking again, "I apologize if my curiosity has bothered you, Fellow Daoist. If you do not want to say anything, I won't pursue it any further."

Just as Senior Nie prepared to leave, his gaze subconsciously looked at Yuan, who was standing directly next to Xiao Hua.

'A Spirit Master? Wait... I can sense the token on him! Does this mean he's participating in the Mystic Realm—that he's under the age of thirty?'

Senior Nie was greatly surprised to find such tremendous talent in the Lower Heavens, and his anticipation for the Mystic Realm increased significantly.

Although Senior Nie wanted to stay there a little longer to speak with Yuan, he didn't dare to linger too much because of Xiao Hua's presence!

After Senior Nie left the place and returned to his original spot in the air, Long Yijun spoke in a dazed voice, "D-D-Disciple Yuan... T-They are..."

Yuan then said, "Sorry for the late introduction, but they are Xiao Hua and Feng Yuxiang. They're both precious friends who are traveling with me, and they also give me guidance on certain things."

'Xiao Hua? Her voice sounded so familiar... Was she the one who...' Elder Shan subconsciously covered her head when she recalled Xiao Hua's voice who warned her to stay away from Yuan.

"W-Wait a moment... Feng Yuxiang? Golden Phoenix Bazaar's Madam Feng?" Elder Xuan recognized Feng Yuxiang's name because of her widespread fame.

Everybody there was speechless. Why are there two god-like presences so close to Yuan? Had they been following and guarding him this entire time? And just what is Yuan's true background? Not even people from the Four Ancient Families would have a Spirit King and a peak Spirit Grandmaster as bodyguards!

Meanwhile, at the Heaven and Earth Palace's group, their Sect Master, Qi Jiguang, looked at Xiao Hua with wide eyes.

'That little girl! I remember seeing her at the Azure Phoenix Auction House! She was a Spirit King this entire time!?' He easily recalled Xiao Hua mostly because of her distinctive small figure and powerful aura.

No matter how much they tried, the people there could not take their eyes off Xiao Hua and Feng Yuxiang because of their immense presence that overshadowed even Senior Nie's presence!

In their eyes, Xiao Hua was a mysterious expert whom Senior Nie acknowledges as a fellow Spirit King Cultivator! And although it took some time, the people there eventually recognized Feng Yuxiang and her beauty as the number one expert of Phoenix City and also the owner of one of the most prestigious shops in the Lower Heavens!

Why on earth were these two incredibly powerful individuals in this place? And why are they standing with the Dragon Essence Temple? It was incomprehensible for everybody there except the person who brought them to this place— Yuan!

Chapter 306 - Shattering Their Confidence

Many minutes have passed since the conversation between Senior Nie and Xiao Hua ended, but the atmosphere there remained heavy, almost suffocating, especially for those people standing closest to the Dragon Essence Temple.

"Xiao Hua, here are my treasures. Please hold onto them while I enter the Mystic Realm." Yuan handed Xiao Hua his spatial ring and storage pouch.

"Xiao Hua will protect the treasures without fail!" Xiao Hua said to him with a serious look on her face, acting like she was handed a big responsibility.

"Who would dare to steal from a Spirit King in the Lower Heavens?" Feng Yuxiang raised her eyebrows.

Xiao Hua could leave Yuan's treasure on the ground, go take a nap, and come back with the treasure still on the ground, completely untouched.

"By the way, what are you going to do with your Soul Weapons, Young Master?" Feng Yuxiang suddenly asked him.

"S-Soul Weapon?!" Long Yijun and the others turned to look at them with wide eyes filled with shock after hearing their conversation, even ignoring how Feng Yuxiang addressed Yuan as 'Young Master'.

"Huh? What do you mean? I can't take treasures inside so I'll have to leave it out here obviously." Yuan said.

"But Soul Weapons are unique... They must be within a certain distance from its Master— there's no way around it."

"Eh? What happens if I am too far away from them?" Yuan then asked.

"I think it would be better if I showed it to you..." Feng Yuxiang said, and she continued, "Can you hand me one of your Soul Weapons for a moment?"

Yuan nodded, and he retrieved the Starry Abyss from the spatial ring before handing it to Feng Yuxiang.

Once she had the Starry Abyss in her grasp, Feng Yuxiang suddenly took off into the sky and flew away, acting like a thief during a grab-and-run situation.

Feng Yuxiang's sudden movements attracted the attention of everybody there, including Senior Nie.

'Where's she going?' They all wondered.

However, Senior Nie was more interested in the Starry Abyss that was within her grasp.

"Is that... a Soul Weapon?" Senior Nie mumbled in a dumbfounded voice, as he didn't expect to find a Soul Weapon in the Lower Heavens.

In just a few minutes, Feng Yuxiang managed to fly almost a hundred miles away from the Mystic Realm, and right as she reached the 100th-mile mark, the Starry Abyss in her hand suddenly disappeared.

Meanwhile, at the Mystic Realm, Yuan was surprised when the Starry Abyss suddenly appeared before him like a ghost.

"How did..." Yuan was completely baffled by this phenomenon.

"Soul Weapons are bound to their owners. If they get too far away from their masters, they will immediately teleport back to them, almost as if they have a mind of their own." Xiao Hua explained to him.

Feng Yuxiang returned sometime later.

"Do you understand now, Young Master? You won't be able to escape your Soul Weapons. However, I don't know how it'll work with the Mystic Realm." Feng Yuxiang said to him.

A moment after Feng Yuxiang's words, Senior Nie's voice suddenly resounded, "Soul Weapons are an exception and allowed inside the Mystic Realm since they are considered as 'part of the individual'. I didn't mention it at first because I didn't think there would be someone with a Soul Weapon here. Congratulations, young man— you're now a few hundred steps ahead of everyone else before you're even inside the Mystic Realm."

"What?! He can bring a powerful treasure inside while the rest of us have to go inside empty-handed?! That's so unfair!"

The other participants immediately started complaining, feeling extremely envious of Yuan's Soul Weapon.

"I see... Then I will bring my Soul Weapons with me." Yuan said.

"Huh? Soul Weapons...?" Long Yijun and the others raised their eyebrows.

"Y-You have more than one?" Elder Xuan asked him in a dazed voice.

Yuan nodded, and he proceeded to take out his other Soul Weapon, Empyrean Overlord.

Forget about the others, even Senior Nie's jaw dropped when he saw Yuan holding two Soul Weapons— one in each hand.

Ignoring the difficulty of obtaining two Soul Weapons, what kind of talent is required to wield two Soul Weapons at the same time? Senior Nie has never seen such talents before even within the Spirit Heavens, and they have plenty of heavenly geniuses that would put most of the people here to shame.

'Just who is that young man?! I cannot see the full extent of his talents!' Senior Nie cried inwardly.

"By the way, Young Master, you can store your Soul Weapons within your body." Feng Yuxiang said to him.

"Really? How do I do that?" Yuan asked.

"Just imagine your body as a spatial ring and the Soul Weapons being stored inside your body."

Yuan nodded his head and followed Feng Yuxiang's instructions.

A moment later, the Empyrean Overlord and Starry Abyss disappeared from his hands, yet he could still feel their presence inside his body, almost like how Feng Yuxiang dwells within his body!

"I think I am ready to enter the Mystic Realm! I will see you all later!" Yuan said to Long Yijun and the others who were too dazed to respond properly.

"Y-Yeah... G-Good luck..." Long Yijun mumbled in a low voice.

"See you later, Disciple Yuan..." Elder Shan and Elder Xuan said.

"Don't go easy on them, Disciple Yuan." Elder Dai said to him with a smile on her face.

"That's right! Go beat them senseless, Young Master! Make them regret being born!" Feng Yuxiang cheered for him.

"Have fun, Brother Yuan." Xiao Hua said to him with a relaxed expression, almost like she had no concern at all— that she was absolutely confident in Yuan's ability.

"See you later, Yuan," Meixiu said to him.

After saying his goodbyes, Yuan, Xue Jiye, and Gao Dongya approached the other participants with the token in their grasp.

It was at this moment the Sect Masters and all of the experts there realized something, as they were too shocked by many other things to realize this before.

"W-Wait a damn moment! That Spirit Master was a participant this entire time?! But he's clearly wearing the sect elders' uniform for the Dragon Essence Temple! And if I didn't mention it already— he's a damn Spirit Master!"

"That's right! How could a Spirit Master possibly qualify for the Mystic Realm?! What's going on here, Sect Master Long?!"

The experts there didn't want to believe that someone under 30 years old could possibly become a Spirit Master. If someone like that truly exists and enters the Mystic Realm... The other participants won't be able to compete with someone like that! It'd be a one-sided slaughter!

Long Yijun burst out laughing after seeing the other Sect Masters' reactions, and he spoke in a loud and clear voice so that everybody could hear him—

"I know many of you are in disbelief and doubting everything at this moment, and I do not blame you for that! In fact, I would probably be doing the same thing if I were in your shoes! However, this is reality! Not only is my disciple a Spirit Master, but he's also only eighteen years old! Hahaha! Good luck to everyone participating in the Mystic Realm! If I were to give you one piece of advice— give up while you can!"

The complexion of the Sect Masters and the participants alike turned as white as sheets after hearing Long Yijun's words, their faces filled with disbelief and immense shock.

Reaching Spirit Master as an eighteen-year-old? Where on earth did this cultivation monster come from? And why does the Dragon Essence Temple have someone like him helping them out?

"Spirit Master... Eighteen years old?" Senior Nie mumbled in a low voice, subconsciously comparing Yuan's talents to the top geniuses within the Spirit Heavens.

Meanwhile, the other participants stared at Yuan with gawking looks on their faces as they watched him slowly approach them with an unfathomable aura surrounding his figure at this moment.

In their eyes, Yuan looked much bigger than he did a moment ago, almost like he'd suddenly grown a couple of meters, and they felt like ants in comparison to his awe-inspiring presence.

And when they realized that they were going to compete against this cultivation monster in the Mystic Realm, their confidence shattered like glass under the force of a hammer.

Chapter 307 - Entering The Mystic Realm

'Impossible! This is impossible! There's no way we can beat a monster like him! He's way above our league!'

The participants felt as though someone from the upper heavens suddenly decided to come down to the Lower Heavens just to mess with them by showing off his heaven-defying talents in the Mystic Realm where only talents mattered.

Even for the sects with more than three tokens, they didn't feel any confidence in defeating the Dragon Essence Temple that only has three slots. In fact, even if the Dragon Essence Temple only had one slot and Yuan occupied that slot, they still wouldn't have any confidence despite having the advantage in numbers.

'Two Soul Weapons and a Spirit Master cultivation base... The Mystic Realm is going to be exciting this year...' Senior Nie smiled inwardly as his gaze remained on Yuan's figure.

Once the Dragon Essence Temple joined the other participants, Senior Nie spoke loudly, "I will open the Mystic Realm in five minutes! Use this time to prepare yourself if you haven't already!"

The next five minutes felt like an eternity for the participants and the Sect Masters alike. Even though it was a rare opportunity for these participants to show off their talents before someone from the Spirit Heavens, this cultivation monster came out of the blue and stole all of the spotlights without any effort.

Meanwhile, the players were more shocked about Yuan's age, as that gave them a little more information on his mysterious identity.

'Player Yuan is only eighteen years old? What a discovery! He's around my age!' Wang Xiuying thought to herself, feeling pleasantly surprised.

'Spirit Master... He definitely has the highest cultivation base out of all players as of this moment!' Lightning Emperor thought to himself, realizing just how much he'd underestimated Player Yuan's advantage.

Five minutes of absolute silence later, Senior Nie spoke, "I forgot to mention one more thing— once you go inside, every sect will be separated from each other so you won't immediately start fighting with each other the moment you go inside."

After his sentence ended, Senior Nie began making weird signs with his hands before shouting out loud, "OPEN!"

The symbols on each side of the gates suddenly began glowing golden, and the light coming from the Mystic Realm gradually grew brighter and brighter until it was nearly blinding.

All of the participants narrowed their eyes at this bright light, and unbeknownst to them, they were fully enveloped by this warm light.

Once the light subdued, the Sect Masters turned to look at the place where the participants had gathered, and as they'd expected, it was completely empty there, almost like all of the participants had disappeared like a ghost.

"They have successfully entered the Mystic Realm." Senior Nie said to them before waving his hands and retrieving this massive mirror from his spatial ring, putting it directly in front of the Sect Masters.

"We will be able to see the participants inside the Mystic Realm with this Mirror of Surveillance." Senior Nie said.

A few moments later, the Sect Masters could see their own disciples in the mirror as well as the other participants, almost like they were watching a movie or something.

However, Senior Nie was not finished, and he brought out a couple of crystal balls— seven to be exact— that hovered in the air around him.

"Connect!" Senior Nie suddenly said.

The seven crystal balls began glowing a subtle blue light.

"Can you all see it?" Senior Nie asked the crystal balls as though he was speaking to them.

"Yes... I can see it perfectly. Thank you for your troubles, Elder Nie." A feminine voice resounded from one of the seven crystals.

"It finally started, huh? I wonder if there are any promising talents this year. What do you think, Senior Nie?" Another voice resounded from a new crystal.

"There are definitely a few," Senior Nie nodded.

"Hoh... My anticipation just went up."

Senior Nie then looked at the Sect Masters and the other spectators and said, "They are all sect elders from each of the seven Spirit Academies, and they will be watching the spectacle with us."

"Greetings, Seniors!"

The Sect Masters there greeted the experts behind the crystal balls.

"Good luck to all of your disciples!" One of the crystals responded, sounding rather friendly.

Meanwhile, once their vision returned, the participants were surprised to find themselves transported to some unfamiliar land.

"So this is the Mystic Realm?" Xue Jiye looked at her surroundings with a slightly dazed look on her face, realizing that they were no longer at the Desolate Land but in a grassland in the middle of nowhere.

"Hey." Gao Dongya suddenly spoke.

"Hm? What is it?" Xue Jiye turned to look at his handsome face that had a frown on it.

"Where's our third person?" Gao Dongya said in a serious voice.

"Eh?" Xue Jiye's eyes widened with surprise after hearing his words, and she immediately looked around them. However, she could only see Gao Dongya there with her.

"Where's Disciple Yuan?! I thought he was supposed to be with us! Why did he get separated from us?!" Xue Jiye exclaimed.

"Disciple Yuan! Are you here?!" Xue Jiye began shouting his name at the top of her lungs, hoping that he was actually near them.

But alas, nobody responded to her.

"Disciple Yuan!" Xue Jiye did not want to believe that they had been separated and continued shouting his name.

"Stop your shouting, woman! It's clear that he was separated from us after entering the Mystic Realm! What are you going to do if you attract unwanted attention with your loudmouth? We don't have any cultivation to protect ourselves at this moment!" Gao Dongya said to her.

"W-Woman? Loudmouth?" Xue Jiye stared at Gao Dongya with a surprised look, as this is her first time seeing him being so vocal.

"Anyways, we can only focus on ourselves for now and look for him later when we have some capability to protect ourselves. Let's find someplace where we can cultivate." Gao Dongya then said.

Although she was not happy about the way Gao Dongya addressed her, Xue Jiye couldn't find any fault in his logic and nodded her head in agreement.

Chapter 308 - Separated From The Team

While Xue Jiye and Gao Dongya looked around for a secure spot where they could cultivate safely, outside the Mystic Realm, Long Yijun and the others were baffled by Yuan's disappearance.

"W-Where's Disciple Yuan? I thought each sect was supposed to be transported together?" Elder Shan mumbled in a dazed voice.

The other Sect Masters were also puzzled by this since they were also looking for Yuan, who was the number one threat to them at this moment.

"Where's the Young Master? I can't see him in the mirror at all!" Feng Yuxiang exclaimed after looking at every sect in the mirror.

Meanwhile, on Xiao Hua's face was a deep frown, looking quite worried, even a little bit angry.

BOOM!

Suddenly, Xiao Hua released her third level Spirit King cultivation base, scaring the living hell out of everybody there.

Then they watched as Xiao Hua retrieved a massive sword that was thrice her size before flying towards Senior Nie, looking very aggressive.

Senior Nie nearly had a heart attack when he saw Xiao Hua flying at him with a huge sword, and he also retrieved his own weapon to defend himself.

"What do you think you're doing, Fellow Daoist?! Are you trying to anger the heavens by causing a commotion in the Lower Heavens?!" Senior Nie asked her.

"What happened?"

"Who's the little girl?"

The voices coming from the crystal ball were filled with shock and puzzlement when they saw a little girl attack Senior Nie.

Xiao Hua stopped a few meters away from Senior Nie before pointing her massive sword at him and speaking in a serious voice, "What did you do to Brother Yuan?! If you lie, I will cut you down!"

"Yuan... Are you talking about that talented young man with the black mask? I had nothing to do with his disappearance, and I am as puzzled as you are! Furthermore, I only have the power to open and close the Mystic Realm, nothing else! Once they enter the Mystic Realm, I have no control!" Senior Nie said.

"Calm down and put your sword away before you anger the heavens!" Senior Nie then said.

Xiao Hua did not immediately put her sword away and stared at Senior Nie in silence.

A few moments later, Xiao Hua lowered the sword, handling the massive thing as though it was as light as a branch.

Senior Nie glanced at the sword in Xiao Hua's hands, and his heart skipped a beat when he realized its quality.

'Mythic-grade treasure?!' he cried inwardly.

Mythic-grade treasures were two grades above Divine-grade, and they are almost nonexistent even in the Spirit Heavens!

'This little girl is definitely from a place even higher than Spirit Heavens! I cannot offend her no matter what!'

Senior Nie cleared his throat before speaking, "I know you're worried about that young man's disappearance, but believe me when I say you don't have to. The Mystic Realm is not an evil place. In fact, it's the complete opposite, being a place where people can go inside and train, and nobody has ever died inside."

"As for why that young man was separated from his group, one can only assume that the Mystic Realm made a mistake and separated him by accident. But you don't have to worry since he'll most likely show up sooner or later."

After a moment of silence, Xiao Hua said, "If Brother Yuan doesn't return in one month, Xiao Hua will make you take responsibility."

Senior Nie swallowed nervously after hearing Xiao Hua's threatening words.

"Hey! Who do you think you're talking to?! That's Senior Nie from—"

"I understand." Senior Nie interrupted one of the voices coming from the crystal ball, and he continued, "I will take full responsibility if that young man doesn't return."

Xiao Hua nodded her head before returning to the Dragon Essence Temple's side and proceeded to act as nothing had happened, dumbfounding everyone there.

"Who was that little girl just now?" One of the voices from the crystal ball asked afterward.

"I don't know. However, she's a third-level Spirit King with a Mythic-grade treasure... I'm pretty confident that she came from a realm even above the Spirit Heavens." Senior Nie explained to them.

"What?! Above the Spirit Heavens?! What is such an individual doing at the Lower Heavens?!"

The voices expressed their shock and disbelief.

"I know. I almost couldn't believe it at first, but I don't know of a 'Xiao Hua' in the Spirit Heavens, and there's no way such an individual could be a nobody." Senior Nie sighed, and he continued, "As for that young man, I can only hope that he returns, or my life is in danger..."

The crystal balls remained silent. None of them would have imagined that such a situation could be possible—that a Spirit King's life could be in danger in the Lower Heavens where Spirit Lords are nonexistent, much less a Spirit King!

"You worry too much, Xiao Hua. The Young Master will be fine even if the heavens fall on him." Feng Yuxiang said to her after she returned.

Xiao Hua didn't say anything, only nodding her head, still with a slight frown on her face.

Meanwhile, inside the Mystic Realm, after opening his eyes, Yuan found himself surrounded by dried trees and leaves.

"Where am I? What happened to the other two?" Yuan raised his eyebrows with a puzzled look on his face.

"Disciple Xue? Disciple Gao? Are you two here?" Yuan shouted their names, but alas, there was no response, almost like he was the only one there.

After standing around for a few moments, Yuan suddenly turned to look in a certain direction, as he could hear a faint whisper coming from that direction.

"Come..."

"Here..."

"Who's there?!" Yuan called out to the voice.

However, the voice continued to beckon him.

"Come..."

"Come..."

"Here..."

Yuan swallowed nervously. Although the voice gave an eerie vibe, he couldn't feel any malice from it.

After pondering for a moment, Yuan decided to follow this voice.

Chapter 309 - Following The Voice

"Come... Here..."

The voice continued to beckon Yuan, its volume increasing the longer he followed the voice.

While Yuan subconsciously followed the voice, he checked his own body.

Cultivation: First Level Spirit Apprentice

Legacy: None

Bloodline: None

Physique: Heaven Refining Physique

Physical Strength: 134

Soul Strength: 1,310

Mental Defense: 1,221

His cultivation had been wiped like they said it would, and he was only at the first level Spirit Apprentice. However, for whatever reason, he didn't feel as weak as he did when he was at the same level before. Perhaps it was the Soul Weapons in his body, but he felt pretty confident in his own strength despite his low cultivation base.

As for his techniques, all of them remained unchanged. However, if he wanted to use them, he'd need to increase his Qi because he wouldn't be able to use most of his techniques at his current cultivation base.

Half an hour later, Yuan suddenly stopped walking when he realized that the voice was no longer calling for him.

He looked around, and to his surprise, he could see an ancient-looking temple in the distance from where he was standing.

"Is this the place the voice wanted me to go to?" Yuan mumbled to himself as he approached this temple that was about half a mile away.

As Yuan got closer to the temple, he realized how run down the place looked, almost like it had existed for tens of thousands of years.

Yuan stood directly in front of the staircase that led to the temple a few minutes later with a pondering expression on his face.

'Does that voice belong to the faceless person? Why is it calling for me?' he wondered.

After standing there for a few moments, Yuan decided to walk up the stairs and enter the temple since he won't have any answers without approaching the source.

There were exactly 100 steps on the staircase to the temple, and upon reaching the top, Yuan could see the inside of this temple through the empty doorway.

After taking a deep breath, Yuan entered the temple.

Inside the temple was a long and empty room except for the 10-meter tall stone tablet at the end of this room that had refined angles and clean words engraved onto it, looking pristine overall, almost like it was newly built, in contrast to the rest of the temple that was ancient and on the verge of collapsing.

Furthermore, there was not even a speck of dust on this tablet made of marble, almost as though someone cleaned it very recently.

Yuan tilted his head to look at the words carved into this tablet, but alas, he was unable to understand the language. However, despite not understanding a thing, Yuan still felt a sense of awe and dominance from the way the words were carved into the stone tablet, as each line was filled with precision and confidence.

"What's this feeling I'm getting from these words? It feels so familiar for some reason..." Yuan gently caressed the words on the stone tablet with his fingers, feeling slightly nostalgic, almost like he'd seen these words before.

"Anyways, what happened to the voice?"

Yuan then looked around while speaking in a loud voice, "Why did it call me to this place? I am here just like you wanted! Say something! Anything!"

"..."

However, there was no response.

Yuan scratched his head, unsure of what he should do now.

"Well, I should follow the Sect Master's instructions and quickly increase my cultivation base before I roam the Mystic Realm."

Before entering the Mystic Realm, Long Yijun gave them some advice, and one of them was to start cultivating as soon as they can so they have some capabilities to protect themselves.

Yuan proceeded to sit down directly in front of the stone tablet and took a deep breath before he began cultivating.

[Due to your title Pang City's Hero, cultivation speed has increased by 10%]

[Due to your Untainted Body, cultivation speed has increased by 100%]

[Due to the Nine Dragon Symbols, your cultivation speed has increased by 1,000%]

[Environmental effect has increased your cultivation speed by 400%]

"What? 400 percent? This place is almost like the Dragon Peak that had 500 percent!"

Yuan was shocked by this large number. Is this because of the immense spiritual energy in the Mystic Realm or this place specifically?

He recalls Long Yijun mentioning about the Mystic Realm having an abundant amount of spiritual energy, but he didn't expect it to be this much. At this rate, he'll reach Spirit Warrior in no time!

Thus, Yuan began reciting the cultivation technique in his head, absorbing the spiritual energy in the temple at a rapid pace.

[+7,411 Qi]

[You have absorbed enough Qi for a breakthrough]

[All stats +150]

After literally two seconds of cultivation, Yuan had a breakthrough and reached the second level.

A few more seconds later, he enters the third level and so on.

[You have absorbed enough Qi for a breakthrough]

[You have reached Third Level Spirit Apprentice]

[You have reached Fourth Level Spirit Apprentice]

[You have reached Fifth Level Spirit Apprentice]

[You have reached Sixth Level Spirit Apprentice]

In slightly less than 10 minutes since he started cultivating, Yuan had managed to increase his cultivation base by an entire realm, entering first level Spirit Warrior with ease.

[You have reached First Level Spirit Warrior]

[All stats +1,000]

Yuan stood up to stretch after entering the Spirit Warrior realm for the third time in this life.

"The voice still hasn't returned. Why exactly did it bring me to this place? It probably has something to do with this stone tablet but I don't understand it." Yuan sighed.

Just as he prepared to sit back down and cultivate some more, Yuan heard a gentle voice resound behind him, causing him to turn around.

"Umm... Who are you?" This voice asked him in a slightly nervous tone.

When Yuan turned around, he could see a pretty young lady with silky long black hair and azure blue eyes wearing plain green clothes standing at the entrance of the temple, and on her face was a slightly surprised expression, almost like she didn't expect to see anyone in this place. Furthermore, she was holding a bamboo basket in her arms, looking like she was a villager out to gather herbs.

However, what surprised him the most was the powerful aura that surrounded this young lady's figure.

'A Spirit Master!' Yuan cried inwardly.

He had mistaken this young lady as a fellow participant at first, but there is no way anyone would be able to reach Spirit Master so quickly when their cultivation bases were wiped after entering this place, so there was only one explanation for this— this young lady was a native in the Mystic Realm!

To think he'd encounter a Spirit Master Cultivator so quickly after entering the Mystic Realm, nobody would've ever imagined this. However, whether this encounter is a fortunate one or not is still unknown.

"Hello..." Yuan greeted her in a friendly voice, and he continued, "My name is Yuan."

Chapter 310 - Sword Marks

"Yuan...?" The azure-eyed beauty raised her eyebrows, and she asked, "I don't recognize you. What are you doing here at my Lord's stone tablet?"

"Your lord...? I'll apologize in advance if I am not supposed to be here, but I was called here by a voice." Yuan said to her.

"A voice? What did the voice tell you?" The azure-eyed beauty asked him, seemingly intrigued by his situation.

"It only told me to come here," Yuan shrugged.

"Is that so..." The azure-eyed beauty mumbled before she started moving again, approaching his direction— or more specifically, the stone tablet behind Yuan.

"I'll assume that you're not from around here since I don't recognize your aura," she said to him.

"Yes... I came here with my fellow disciples, but we somehow got separated." Yuan explained his situation briefly.

"I see..."

The azure-eyed lady stopped moving once she stood directly in front of the stone tablet.

She then placed the bamboo basket in her arms down before kneeling on the floor and kowtowing to the stone tablet.

After a moment of stillness, the young lady lifted her head and retrieved a towel from the basket, and she began wiping the stone tablet as though it was a fragile treasure.

"Umm... What is this place?" Yuan decided to ask her.

"This place doesn't have a name, nor does it have any other purpose besides housing my Lord's stone tablet," she responded in a calm voice.

"Your Lord?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"Yes, my family served him for countless generations, and it's my job to clean his stone tablet once a month. However, I come here at least once a week since I have nothing else to do."

After spending a few minutes cleaning the stone tablet, she turned to look at Yuan in the eyes and spoke, "You mentioned a voice calling you to this place, right?"

Yuan nodded his head.

"Well... There's actually a barrier made of Sword Aura protecting this temple if you didn't know, and unless you're protected by my family's blessing, it's impossible to get near this place, much less enter the temple..." The azure-eyed lady revealed to him.

"Sword Aura?" Yuan mumbled in a low voice, finding this word very familiar.

After pondering for a moment, he recalled Xiao Hua briefly explaining Sword Aura to him before.

"I don't know how you bypassed the barrier, nor anything about this voice you heard, but you're here for a reason."

"I see... thank you... uhh... Can I get your name?" Yuan asked her upon realizing that she hasn't introduced herself yet.

The young lady then spoke, "My name is Lan Yingying, and I'm the guardian of this unnamed temple."

"Ummm, Miss Lan, if you don't mind me asking, do you know what's written on this stone tablet? Maybe it'll give me a hint or something." Yuan suddenly asked her.

Lan Yingying turned to look at the stone tablet and said, "The words written on my Lord's stone tablet don't mean anything— if you can even call it that."

"Huh? What do you mean?"

"These symbols are sword marks created by my Lord when he was still alive and practicing his Sword Aura. At least that's what the legend says." Lan Yingying said.

"Legend? How long has it been since he passed away?"

Lan Yingying shook her head and said, "We don't know for sure when he disappeared, but it was definitely a few hundred thousand years ago."

"A-A few hundred thousand years ago?!?!" Yuan exclaimed, as he truly didn't expect that this person had been dead for such a long time.

"And you're still cleaning his stone tablet despite such a long time? What's the purpose?" Yuan couldn't help but ask.

"When my Lord was still alive, he accepted my family's ancestors as his servants, and our family has been serving him since then— even if he's no longer in this world. Cleaning his stone tablet has become a tradition in my family since his disappearance." Lan Yingying said.

"Anyways, I will be leaving now. I don't mind if you stay here, but don't make a mess, or I'll get angry." Lan Yingying said to him before leaving the temple.

Yuan decided to remain in this place since he wanted to be sure that there's really nothing here for him.

After Lan Yingying left the place, Yuan took a seat in front of the stone tablet again. Although he wasn't sure what was so special about the stone tablet, he had a feeling that it was related to why he was called here.

Thus, he began cultivating again.

About an hour and a half later, he entered second-level Spirit Warrior.

Another hour later, he breakthroughs to third level Spirit Warrior.

Yuan took a deep breath and opened his eyes, stopping his cultivation to look at the stone tablet in front of him.

"Sword marks..." Yuan's gaze focused on the incredibly clean and sharp marks on the tablet.

After spending two hours looking at the sword marks, Yuan returned to cultivating for another two hours, reaching the fourth level Spirit Warrior realm.

Yuan repeated this process until the sky began turning dark.

At the end of the day, he'd managed to reach the fifth level Spirit Warrior realm.

After logging off the game, Yuan could already smell Meixiu cooking dinner.

"What happened to you, Yuan? You weren't with the other two disciples." Meixiu asked him during dinner.

"I don't know, either. I was separated from them before I was aware of it."

"Are you okay?"

"Yes, I found this pretty safe area and managed to increase my cultivation base to the fifth level Spirit Warrior realm."

"Xiao Hua... she was really worried about you. She even..." Meixiu said, and she explained the situation that had occurred after his disappearance.

"What? Xiao Hua did that? Can you tell her not to worry and that I am okay after dinner?" Yuan quickly said.

"I will." Meixiu nodded.

"Thank you."

After dinner, Yuan returned to Cultivation Online to cultivate some more whilst Meixiu went to deliver the news of Yuan's situation to Xiao Hua and the others.

Chapter 311 - Studying Sword Aura

"Welcome back, Meixiu." Feng Yuxiang said to her the moment she logged back inside, acting as though her disappearance was only natural.

Meixiu nodded and said, "I have some news for you regarding Yuan."

"Brother Yuan?" Xiao Hua was the one to react upon hearing his name, and she quickly asked, "What about Brother Yuan?!"

"I just wanted to let you know that even though he's separated from the other two disciples, he's still safe and sound," Meixiu said.

"What? How do you know that? Did you contact him somehow?" Long Yijun looked at her with a face of disbelief. How could one contact someone that's inside the Mystic Realm? He has never heard of this before.

Meixiu nodded, "Yes, I have a method of contacting Yuan."

"So Brother Yuan is safe?" Xiao Hua asked her again just in case.

"Yes, he's safe and well. In fact, he's even reached fifth level Spirit Warrior."

"What?! Fifth level Spirit Warrior?! But he's only been inside for a day!" Elder Shan exclaimed in a shocked voice.

"Heavens... At this rate, he'll return to his original cultivation base in no time..." Elder Xuan mumbled.

"Hahaha! As expected of Disciple Yuan! His talents know no bounds!" Long Yijun laughed out loud.

The other sects looked at the Dragon Essence Temple as though they were crazy. What the heck are they talking about? Their number one disciple is missing and they look quite happy, and the Sect Master is even laughing out loud.

"Thank heavens..." Xiao Hua released a sigh of relief after hearing that Yuan was fine.

Meanwhile, inside the Mystic Realm, Yuan spends another hour looking at the stone tablet.

"Miss Lan mentioned that this place is surrounded by Sword Aura. Now that I'm a Spirit Warrior again, I can use my Divine Sense. Let's see if I can see this Sword Aura with my Divine Sense..."

Thus, Yuan closed his eyes and activated his Divine Sense, extending it as far as he could manage.

But alas, he was unable to 'see' this Sword Aura. However, with that being said, he could sense an unfamiliar aura around the temple.

"Is this Sword Aura? I can sense it but not see it..." Yuan mumbled in a pondering voice.

He continued to 'feel' this Sword Aura, trying to understand it for as long as his Divine Sense could hold up.

When he could no longer use his Divine Sense due to exhaustion, he began cultivating to restore his spiritual energy.

Once he was full of energy again, Yuan used his Divine Sense to inspect the Sword Aura around the place, and the longer he looked at it, the more he understood it— at least that was the feeling he was getting.

It was almost like that time when Xiao Hua read her book to him for the first time. He couldn't comprehend a single thing at first, but as he listened to it, he gradually understood it more and more until he eventually learned the technique.

Thus, from night to sunrise, Yuan studied the Sword Aura in fascination, almost like he was mesmerized by its existence.

Yuan logged off for breakfast, returning shortly after to study it some more.

In the afternoon, Yuan retrieved his Divine Sense and took a deep breath afterward.

He then turned to look at the sword marks on the stone tablet, and he proceeded to stare at it for hours without moving a single muscle.

Suddenly, he began closing his eyes, feeling a familiar sensation overwhelm his body.

"This feeling... Enlightenment?" Yuan mumbled in a low voice as his mind drifted.

Even though his eyes were closed, Yuan could still see the stone tablet in his mind, and he could see each and every sword mark clearly, almost like he still had his eyes open.

Suddenly, the sword marks on the stone tablet began disappearing.

A few moments later, all of the sword marks disappeared with the stone tablet completely clean and untouched.

A few more seconds later, Yuan could see a figure suddenly appear before the stone tablet with its back facing him, and in this figure's grasp was an ordinary sword.

Yuan then watched as this figure raised the sword in its grasp and struck the stone tablet repeatedly, creating multiple sword marks on it.

A few minutes later, the stone tablet returned to its original form with many sword marks on it.

However, the sword marks disappeared again a few seconds later.

Once all of the sword marks were gone, the figure repeated the actions and struck the stone tablet with its sword using the exact same movements, and this scene repeated tens— hundreds of times inside Yuan's head.

Yuan's enlightenment continued throughout the night, even forgetting to log off for dinner.

"He's still inside the game?" After cooking dinner, Meixiu waited for Yuan to come out of the game, but in the end, he remained inside the game.

And not wanting to disturb him, Meixiu quietly put his dinner in the refrigerator before calling it a night.

The following morning, Meixiu woke up to see Yuan's condition, but alas, he was still inside the game.

Meixiu decided to not log into the game until Yuan returns like last time. While she waited, she went to look at the auction and other things online to kill time.

Meanwhile, inside Cultivation Online, Yuan had just witnessed the figure strike the stone tablet thousands of times. And with every strike, he could sense the Sword Aura from the sword and the sword marks much clearer.

Suddenly, Yuan stood up inside his mind, and he approached the figure.

A few seconds later, Yuan stood exactly where the figure once stood and with a sword in his grasp.

After taking a deep breath, Yuan began replicating the figure's sword movement, almost like he'd become that figure himself.

One... two... three...

Yuan struck the stone tablet three times, but there were no marks on the stone tablet.

However, Yuan didn't stop and continued to strike the stone tablet.

One hundred... two hundred... three hundred strikes.

After striking the stone tablet hundreds of times inside his mind, completely unbeknownst to him, a profound aura that resembled Sword Aura began appearing around Yuan's real body!

Chapter 312 - Advanced Sword Mastery

"I wonder if that young man is still there..." Lan Yingying mumbled to herself as she approached the unnamed temple shortly after sunrise.

While she normally visits the temple once a week to clean the stone tablet, she has been experiencing a weird sensation in her chest ever since she met the masked man two days ago, almost like her guts was telling her to return to the temple.

About half an hour of walking later, Lan Yingying arrived at the temple, and she could already feel something different in the air before she even stepped onto the staircase to the temple.

"This aura... It can't be..." Lan Yingying quickly ascended the staircase when she realized the type of aura she was experiencing.

A few moments later, she stood at the entrance of the temple and looked inside, and to her surprise, the masked person was still there. Furthermore, there was even a subtle amount of Sword Aura emitting from his body!

Of course, the most shocking part about all of this was his cultivation base which had increased exponentially since their last meeting only two days ago!

'My lord! He was a first level Spirit Warrior just two days ago! Now, he's a fifth level Spirit Warrior?! How can anyone cultivate so fast?!' Lan Yingying covered her mouth in shock when she realized Yuan's immense growth.

She has seen many geniuses in her lifetime, but she has never seen someone with as much talent as this masked individual, who'd managed to learn Sword Aura as a Spirit Warrior.

No... There is one person she can think of who could possibly rival this person in terms of talent—the 'Lord' her family used to serve who was known to have unrivaled talents and a legendary swordmaster.

Lan Yingying didn't want to disturb Yuan, so she quietly turned around and prepared to leave.

However, just as she turned around, she noticed a change on the stone tablet that she has cleaned ever since she could walk.

'T-The sword marks! They're reacting to that individual's Sword Aura?! Impossible!' Lan Yingying nearly cried out loud after seeing the Sword Aura that was left behind by the person who made the sword marks reacting for the first time in her life.

'W-Who is this person?!' Lan Yingying wondered with a serious look on her face, and she decided to stay around to witness the situation for a little bit longer.

Meanwhile, inside Yuan's head, he struck the stone tablet for the thousandth time, creating a small cut on the stone tablet, and the sword in his grasp was emitting weak Sword Aura.

'This... This is the feeling I was looking for!'

Yuan's eyes flickered with profoundness, and he continued to strike the stone tablet.

The more he practiced his Sword Aura, the deeper and cleaner the cuts got.

Two thousand... five thousand... ten thousand...

Yuan struck the stone tablet over ten thousand times without stopping, his understanding of Sword Aura increasing with every strike.

Meanwhile, the training inside his mind also reflected in the real world, as his Sword Aura grew increasingly stronger and sharper. If one were to drop a piece of paper on top of Yuan right now, it would definitely be torn to shred the moment it touches the Sword Aura surrounding him.

Lan Yingying watched as Yuan improved his Sword Aura at a frightening rate.

Suddenly, she noticed that the Sword Aura in the sword marks was actually leaving the stone tablet and being absorbed by Yuan's Sword Aura!

'What?! He's absorbing my Lord's Sword Aura?! No— My Lord's Sword Aura is attracted to him! It's going towards him on its own will!' Lan Yingying was shocked to the core when she realized what was happening.

It took a couple of hours, but eventually, Yuan absorbed all of the Sword Aura on the stone tablet.

WHOOSH!

A powerful gust of wind swept the place when Yuan absorbed the last bit of Sword Aura from the stone tablet.

Lan Yingying, who was standing all the way at the entrance, noticed small tears on her clothes when the Sword Aura touched her despite standing so far away from Yuan.

'What intense Sword Aura!' Lan Yingying didn't care about her clothes being destroyed by Yuan's Sword Aura— or more precisely, she was too focused on him to care about such a minor thing.

The Sword Aura around Yuan subdued a few moments later, and he opened his eyes, taking a deep breath afterward.

[Your mastery with the sword has improved significantly]

[Description: Allows you to convert your spiritual energy into Sword Aura and treat it as though it's a real sword. Increases sword damage and sharpness. The effects increase with Mastery Level.]

"So this is Sword Aura, huh? I feel like I am surrounded by invisible swords..." Yuan looked at his hand that was protected by Sword Aura.

"Hmm? Isn't this kind of like Qi Manifestation?" He mumbled in a pondering voice.

"Who's there?" Yuan suddenly noticed a presence behind him and turned around.

"Eh? You're... Miss Lan?" Yuan immediately recognized her pretty face and unique azure-colored eyes.

However, there was something different about her this time. More precisely, her appearance— her clothes. They were ragged, almost like someone had used a knife and slashed her clothes a dozen times until it turned into this sad state, and a lot of her skin was exposed by the holes in her clothes.

"Umm... Are you okay?" Yuan pointed at her shredded clothes, completely oblivious that he was the culprit.

Lan Yingying looked down with a nonchalant expression before speaking, "Never mind that. I want you to meet my family. Can you come with me now?"

Chapter 313 - When Can We Expect A Child?

"You want me to meet your family? Why?" Yuan looked at Lan Yingying with wide eyes.

"Because I want to confirm something. Perhaps it might even have something to do with you being here," she said in a calm voice.

"Really?" Yuan's eyes flickered with excitement. Since she's the guardian of this place, and her family used to serve the swordmaster who marked this stone tablet, they might know something about the voice that beckoned him, perhaps even the faceless individual he saw outside the Mystic Realm.

Lan Yingying nodded and said, "It's only half an hour away from this place. Follow me."

She then turned around and walked out of the temple in a casual manner, acting as though her clothes weren't in such a shabby state.

Yuan didn't linger around and proceeded to follow her outside the temple.

After some time, he could no longer hold his curiosity and decided to ask her, "What happened to your clothes? Did you encounter a powerful magical beast on your way here?"

Lan Yingying looked at him without stopping her legs, and she said, "There are no magical beasts in this area. As for why my clothes are in this state—"

Lan Yingying raised her hand and pointed her finger at him.

"You're the one who made my clothes like this— your Sword Aura, to be exact."

"W-What! I am terribly sorry! I didn't mean to..." Yuan was shocked to hear that he was the cause of her ridiculous appearance.

"I know... You don't have to say anything. It was my fault for being so nosy and getting too close, anyways." Lan Yingying shrugged it off casually.

"Thank you, Miss Lan!" Yuan said to her, feeling relieved that she didn't blame him.

Half an hour later, they arrived at this spacious land in the middle of the dead forest, and at the center of this place was a large wooden cabin alongside a couple of smaller buildings.

"You live here?" Yuan raised his eyebrows. He didn't expect a young girl like Lan Yingying to live in a place like this, especially since she looked so noble and graceful, almost like a noble in a big family.

"Yes, and my grandparents," she said.

"Oho? What a surprise." An old man with long white hair and a medium white beard came out of the cabin before they could even approach it.

"Grandma, come look at this— look at what Ying'er brought home. It's a man! And our dear granddaughter even looks like a mess!" The old man suddenly began shouting out loud in a voice full of excitement.

"What?! A man?! Impossible!" Another voice quickly resounded, and a few seconds later, an old lady also came out of the house and stood beside the old man.

"Heavens! Look at her appearance! Looks like they had plenty of fun before coming back here!"

"I'm back, grandfather, grandmother." Lan Yingying said to them, acting like she didn't hear their loud words just now.

"Hey, boy. Are you my granddaughter's boyfriend? Where did you two meet? How long have you been dating? Have ya done 'that' yet?" The old man suddenly began bombarding Yuan with questions.

"Calm down, you old fool. What if you scare him away? This is the first time she brought home a man, too! I'll skin you alive, old fool." The old lady even smacked the old man's butt as she scolded him.

"Hello, young man. You can ignore this old fart. With that being said, when can we expect a child from you two?" The old lady spoke with a grin on her face.

Meanwhile, Yuan was left speechless by their weird questions.

"Grandfather, grandmother, stop joking around. This is a serious matter regarding the Lord's stone tablet." Lan Yingying said to them with a slight frown on her face.

"The Lord's stone tablet?"

Her grandparents' face suddenly became serious upon hearing her words.

"What about the Lord's stone tablet? Did something happen?" The old man then asked with a frown on his face.

Lan Yingying nodded her head before pointing at Yuan and speaking, "The Lord's stone tablet reacted to him, allowing him to absorb the Sword Aura left behind by the Lord."

"WHAT?!"

The both of them exclaimed in a shocked voice.

"D-Don't tell me he's the Lord's descendant?!" The old lady spoke in a trembling voice.

"I brought him here to see if that is the case or not." Lan Yingying said.

"Hmmm..."

After a moment of silence, the old man said, "Come inside first. We'll talk once we are feeling more comfortable."

The grandparents then entered the house.

"Let's go, Yuan." Lan Yingying said to him before going inside the house.

"..."

Although it felt weird to enter a stranger's home, Yuan didn't feel any malevolence from them and decided to trust them.

Once they were inside, Yuan sat around a large table with the others.

"Give me more context." The old man then said.

Lan Yingying nodded and proceeded to recall everything she knew— from her first meeting with Yuan two days ago to their second meeting today.

"I see... Can you tell me a little bit more about yourself, young man?" The old man then turned to look at Yuan.

Yuan nodded and said, "I came here with my fellow disciples, but we got separated on our way here, and before I knew it, I was in the forest. Then I heard this voice that beckoned me, so I followed it, and the voice led me to the temple."

"Hmmm..."

The grandparents pondered for a moment before speaking, "If you don't mind me asking... What is your purpose for coming to this place?"

"To be completely honest with you, I have no clue." Yuan shrugged.

The grandparents exchanged looks with each other, and the old lady asked him a moment later, "Young man... Did you perhaps come from the outside world?"

"Eh?" Yuan's eyes widened.

The people here are aware of the outside world? That they're currently inside the Mystic Realm? Just what is this place?

Chapter 314 - Mystic Realm Natives

"What? You think we wouldn't know about the world outside the Mystic Realm when you outsiders come here every ten years?" The old man said.

And he continued, "You know, the people of this world— the natives... Our ancestors also used to live in the outside world, but they decided to live in this world instead, isolated from the outside world."

"Huh? But how's that possible? I thought we only have a month inside the Mystic Realm before we must leave?" Yuan spoke in a dazed voice.

"Hahaha... Sure, that's how the Mystic Realm works nowadays. However, that wasn't the case during the ancient times when people could enter the Mystic Realm at will and without any restrictions." The old man said.

And he continued, "The Mystic Realm changed when it got an owner—who turned this place into a massive trial of sorts, implementing the rules that you're experiencing now."

"Wow... I had no idea the Mystic Realm would have such a deep history. What about the people of this world? Can you guys leave the Mystic Realm?" Yuan asked after his initial awe.

The old lady shook her head and said, "Unfortunately, we're stuck in this world."

"Before the owner created the rules for this world, he'd asked everybody in this world if they wanted to leave or stay in this world, and at that time, our ancestors, with full knowledge that they won't be able to leave this place ever again, decided to stay in here."

"There is no way out of this world— only a way inside, not including the time limit of 1 month." The old man continued.

"Don't you want to go outside?" Yuan suddenly asked.

"Not really. According to our ancestors, the spiritual energy in this world is much better than the spiritual energy outside. Although it's much smaller in this world, we'll get to live longer since we have a higher cultivation base, and there are not as many worldly conflicts here." The old lady explained.

"I guess the spiritual energy in this place is much more abundant than outside overall..." Yuan couldn't deny this since he'd experienced it for himself firsthand.

"To tell you the truth, not everyone in this world is like us, as most of the natives aren't very fond of outsiders, since many of them are jealous of your ability to leave this place. Therefore, it's best to keep your identity as an outsider hidden." The old man revealed to him, taking him by surprise.

"I see... Thank you for the heads up." Yuan nodded.

"Anyways, returning to the topic at hand... We believe you're a descendant from our Lord's bloodline in the outside world, and we would like to check your blood if you don't mind." The old lady said.

"I highly doubt it... But what if... What if I turn out to be a descendant?" Yuan asked, his interest piqued.

"Then we will serve you for the rest of our lives— at least until you have to leave the Mystic Realm." Lan Yingying said to him with a serious look on her face.

"Uhhh..." Yuan looked at them with a perplexed expression. They're going to serve him? That didn't feel right to him for some reason.

"How will you test my blood?" He still asked them a moment later.

"Oh, that's simple. You simply have to mix some of your blood with our blood to see if there's any reaction. If there's even the slightest reaction, it'll mean that you're the Lord's descendant." The old man explained.

"Are you willing?"

Yuan nodded.

Seeing his approval, the old man turned to look at Lan Yingying and said, "Go ahead. Drop some of your blood into this bottle."

"Yes, grandfather."

Lan Yingying retrieved a small knife from her spatial ring before cutting a decently large hole in her finger, startling Yuan with the amount of blood she squeezed into the bottle.

"Don't worry, we only need a drop of your blood." The old man laughed after seeing his nervous expression.

After Lan Yingying stopped pouring her blood into the bottle, she licked the wound on her finger, and Yuan watched as the cut on her finger instantly healed.

"Go ahead, young man." The old man handed the bottle to Yuan afterward.

Yuan nodded and retrieved his Starry Abyss before cutting a small wound on his thumb.

'A Soul Weapon?'

The old couple was shocked when they realized the treasure in Yuan's grasp, but they didn't say anything.

A few seconds later, Yuan dripped a large drop of his blood inside the blood, and everybody there watched for any reaction in anticipation.

One second... two seconds... three seconds...

Half a minute passed without any reaction, and the old man placed the bottle down and sighed.

"Unfortunately, you're not the Lord's descendant." The old man said in a sighing voice.

"I see..." Yuan nodded, feeling relieved for some reason.

"Well, even if you aren't the Lord's descendant, you're still a very talented young lad, learning Sword Aura as a Spirit Warrior. You definitely qualify to sow your seed inside our granddaughter." The old lady said with a grin on her face.

"Sow my seed in her? What?" Yuan was completely puzzled by their words.

"Don't mind them, Yuan. They've been like this ever since my parents died, and they're worried that our family's long legacy will end with me." Lan Yingying explained to him.

"Anyways, do you have any questions for them?" Lan Yingying then asked him.

Yuan nodded and said, "Do you know anything about the voice that beckoned me to the temple? And what about that faceless person I saw?"

"..."

However, the old couple didn't respond to him, and on their face was a gawking expression, their eyes filled with shock.

"What's the matter?" Yuan asked them.

"A-Are you sure about that? A faceless person?!" The old man asked him in a trembling voice.

Yuan nodded, "Yes. I'm sure. Do you know who that is?"

The old man swallowed nervously before speaking, "That... That is most likely the Lord!"

"Huh?" Yuan's eyes widened with surprise after learning this new information.

Chapter 315 - Faceless Statue

"C-Can you please give some more description to this 'faceless person'? What kind of clothes was he wearing? What color was his hair? How long was his hair? How tall was he? What kind of aura did he emit?" The old man asked him in an anxious voice.

Yuan nodded his head before closing his eyes to recall the faceless person.

"He was wearing black clothes with a golden outline. He had long black hair that was nearly as long as his body, and he looked a little bit taller than the average adult. Probably around 74 inches if I had to take a guess. As for his aura... He definitely gave the feeling of a noble or something otherworldly."

"W-What about his sword?! Was he carrying a sword?!" The old man asked, his voice growing more excited as he spoke.

"A sword...?" Yuan pondered harder.

After a moment of silence, Yuan said, "Oh, yeah, I think he was carrying a sword on his back. However, it looked like an ordinary sword so I didn't pay too much attention to it."

"Hahaha! That's it! He definitely sounds like the Lord!" The old man said as he stood up.

"Come with me!" The old man then walked outside.

Yuan and the others followed him outside.

Once they were outside, the old man led them to a path that was behind the cabin. A few minutes later, they reached this small but empty area, and standing in the middle of this area was a statue made of some kind of metallic material. However, the most surprising part about this statue was its face— or more precisely, its lack of a face.

Indeed, it was a statue of the faceless figure.

"This is..." Yuan was dumbstruck the moment his eyes laid on the statue.

"Is this the person that you saw?" The old man asked him afterward.

Yuan nodded in a dazed manner, "Yes... Although he looks slightly different, he is, without doubt, the faceless person I saw!"

Despite being a statute, it gave off a domineering aura, almost like it was a real person standing there.

"Although you're not the Lord's descendant, you're most likely related to him in some way since he beckoned you to the stone tablet." The old man said.

"Just who is this Lord person anyways?" Yuan asked, and he continued, "And why is he faceless even as a statue?"

"Let me answer your second question first. The Lord... Nobody has ever seen his face before, hence why his statue is faceless. Just like what you're doing right now, the Lord always wore a mask— ever since his first appearance to the day he disappeared from this world." The old man said.

"As for who the Lord is— we also don't know much about his existence except for the fact that he'd showed up one day out of the blue, exhibiting heaven-defying talents and obtaining admiration from countless people. Our ancestors were one of these people, hence why they decided to serve him. Also, he somehow managed to obtained control of the Mystic Realm, becoming its master."

"Oh? So he was the one who closed the Mystic Realm and turned it into a place of trials? Why did he do such a thing?" Yuan asked, his interest piqued.

"Nobody knows, honestly. The Lord was an eccentric person who exceeds all expectations... We will probably never know his true intentions..." The old man sighed.

"I see... Then do you know anything about the Mystic Pagoda?" Yuan decided to ask them since Senior Nie made it sound like an important place.

"The Mystic Pagoda? That's where the Lord used to live." The old lady said to him.

And she continued, "Don't tell me the outsiders are still trying to open it? They should give up already."

"Eh?"

Seeing the puzzlement in Yuan's eyes, the old lady explained, "Every ten years, the outsiders will try to open up the Mystic Pagoda, but it's useless. Only the owner of the Mystic Realm can enter that place, but nobody but the Lord knows how to do it. Even to this day, nobody else besides the Lord has managed to become the master of this place."

"Is that so..." Yuan mumbled in a low voice.

"Anyways, do you have any more questions? If not, why don't you and our granddaughter here go conceive a child or two? After all, you only have a month in this world." The old lady suddenly said to him with a smile on her face.

"What?" Yuan looked at the granny with wide eyes.

"Why are you still joking about that grandmother?" Lan Yingying shook her head in a calm manner.

"Joke? Do I look like I'm joking?" Her grandmother turned to look at her with a serious expression on her face.

Lan Yingying's eyes widened slightly at this.

"You... You're serious?" she mumbled in a dazed voice.

"Of course. This young man has extraordinary talents. He definitely qualifies to help us continue our lineage." The old lady said.

"Our legacy has lasted for hundreds of thousands of years. We're not going to let it end with you, Yingying." The old man also said with a profound look on his face.

"..."

The two old couple emitted a fearsome aura at this moment, causing both Yuan and Lan Yingying to shudder.

It was at this moment a loud and sharp ear-piercing cry suddenly resounded in the area, but it didn't sound like it came from a human.

"Che." The old man sneered with an annoyed look on his face. "They don't learn, do they?"

Then, to Yuan's surprise, the old man suddenly levitated off the ground and flew into the sky.

"A Spirit Grandmaster?!" Yuan exclaimed.

However, Yuan quickly realized that the aura coming from the old man surpassed even Feng Yuxiang who was a peak Spirit Grandmaster. In other words, there was a good chance this old man was a Spirit Lord!

A few moments later, a very large bird covered in black, metallic feathers, could be seen flying towards their direction, and it emitted a familiar aura—the aura of a Spirit Grandmaster.

"What on earth is that?!" Yuan was shocked by this large bird that was slightly larger than a football field.

However, the old man remained completely tranquil despite facing such an intimidating monster.

"Did you anger your master or something? Why else would he send you here—to your death?" The old man shook his head before lifting his hand and pointing at the large bird, mumbling in a low voice.

"Sacred Fire."

Whoosh!

A massive rotating ball of sparkling white flames suddenly appeared in front of the old man's finger.

"Begone."

The old man released the ball of white flames, shooting it directly at the massive bird.

KRAAAAAAA

The large bird released a painful cry as the white flames engulfed its entire body instantly. However, the noises didn't last more than a few seconds as the white flames quickly consumed its massive body until even its ashes completely disappeared from this world.

After disintegrating the large bird, the old man returned to their side and spoke with an innocent smile on his face, acting like he'd just gotten rid of an insect and not a powerful magical beast, "Anyways, why don't the two of you go find a room and start working on that child? We don't have that much time, after all."

Chapter 316 - Unique Charisma

"Grandfather, we just met and are no different than strangers. How can you ask me to conceive a child with him? Not to mention our situation..." Lan Yingying said to him.

"So what if you're strangers? Your relationship won't matter regardless since he'll be leaving in a month whether you like it or not!" The old man said.

"Even if you say that... What about his opinion on this matter?" Lan Yingying turned to look at Yuan, who looked very confused about the current situation.

"Do we even need to ask him? Who could possibly refuse our beautiful granddaughter? And why do you seem so reluctant? If you don't continue our lineage, who will take care of the Lord's stone tablet in the future? Who will be here to greet the Lord when he returns?" The old man sighed.

"W-Wait a minute..." Yuan suddenly interrupted. "What do you mean by your last words? Hasn't it been hundreds of thousands of years since the Lord 'disappeared' from this place? Can a human even live that long?"

The old man chuckled after hearing his words, and he spoke a moment later, "Of course not— no human would be able to live that long. However, the Lord is not dead, and while we say he 'disappeared', the Lord merely left the Mystic Realm and hasn't returned since then. Although we don't know where he went or what he's doing outside, with his heaven-defying talents, we're certain that he could reach the peak of cultivation and become a real Immortal."

"True Immortals can live millions of years with ease, nor are they affected by the passage of time. They also can't die from natural causes such as diseases or old age, and the only way they can die is if someone kills them, but even that requires some effort."

"And as long as the Lord is alive, he'll definitely return to this world in the future. That's what he promised my ancestors right before he left, after all." The old man said with a confident smile on his face.

Yuan was speechless. He was simply amazed by their loyalty to this Lord person. If he had to wait hundreds of thousands of years, even potentially millions of years for someone to return, he would've probably lost faith long ago.

"Anyways, thank you for teaching me so much about this world, but I have to leave now, as I still need to regroup with my team," Yuan said to them a moment later.

"What? You're leaving already? But you still haven't done anything with our granddaughter! At least sow your seeds in her before you leave!" The old lady quickly said.

"Umm... I'm not exactly sure what you mean by that..." Yuan then said.

The old couple exchanged looks with each other. What kind of life has this young man been living that made him so innocent? What about his parents?

"Ahem!" The old man cleared his throat and said, "In other words... I want you and my granddaughter to have a child together."

Yuan's eyes widened with shock. While he doesn't know anything about giving birth since nobody has taught him about the subject, he at least knew how much responsibility it was to have children.

"B-But I won't be in this world in a month... And I don't think I am ready to bear so much responsibility..." Yuan said to them a moment later.

"It's fine even if you leave. We aren't asking for you to take responsibility, either. You simply need to impregnate our granddaughter so that our lineage will continue. We'll take care of everything else after that." The old lady said.

Yuan looked at the old couple for a moment before turning to look at Lan Yingying.

After a moment of silence, Yuan lowered his head and apologized to them, "I'm sorry, but if I ever have children, I want to be there for them. You see, even though I was adopted at a young age, I never knew my real parents or what they look like, and I don't want my own children to experience the same loneliness I felt before I was adopted. I hope you can understand..."

"..."

The old couple was left speechless by Yuan's words. As much as they wanted him to conceive a child with their granddaughter, they couldn't force him.

After a moment of silence, the old man nodded and said, "I see... I will also apologize if you felt pressured by us. If you don't want to, we won't force you."

"What a pity... We have been looking for someone like you for such a long time, too..." The old lady sighed in a regretful voice.

The old man then said, "Yingying, go show the young man the way out and take him to the nearest city. Although there should be no magical beasts around this place, there are magical beasts roaming outside, and they might be a little too much for him to handle even if he understands Sword Aura."

"Okay." Lan Yingying nodded.

"Thank you, Seniors. It was nice meeting you." Yuan said to them.

"Just call us Grandpa Lan and Grandma Lan. I am also glad that we got to meet a genius like you since it gives us a feeling of what our ancestors might have felt when they met the Lord for the first time," said Grandpa Lan.

"If you decide to change your mind about having a child with our granddaughter before leaving this place, you can come back here at any time. My granddaughter will always be available for you." Grandma Lan said to him.

Sometime later, Lan Yingying led Yuan away from the cabin and towards the direction of the unnamed temple.

"Isn't it strange, grandpa?" Grandma Lan spoke after Yuan left.

"What?"

"How we don't dislike him even though he's a human. In fact, I even liked him very much," she said.

"I know how you feel, grandma. There was just something attractive about him. Perhaps it's his unique charisma. I wonder if this is what our ancestors felt when they met the Lord. If so, I can totally understand why they decided to serve him." Grandpa Lan said with a smile on his face, and the two of them returned to the cabin shortly after.

Chapter 317 - Blue Star

"Let me see the stone tablet one more time before we leave this place," Yuan said to Lan Yingying when they returned to the temple.

Lan Yingying nodded her head, and they climbed the staircase, entering the temple a moment later.

Yuan approached the stone tablet. Once he was directly in front of it, he clasped his hands together and bowed to the stone tablet.

"I don't know why you called me here, and I might never find out, but thank you for showing me this place, allowing me to learn Sword Aura." Yuan paid his respect to the stone tablet.

After Yuan lifted his head, he continued, "Maybe I'll even see you in the upper heavens when I decide to ascend this world. At that time, I'll thank you properly."

Sometime later, Lan Yingying led Yuan away from the temple.

As they walked, Lan Yingying suddenly asked him, "Hey... What's the outside world like?"

"Eh? The outside world? It hasn't been long since I came to this place so I can't really tell you what's different... sorry," he said.

"Don't mind it," she shook her head with a somewhat gloomy feeling in her eyes.

After a moment of silence, Yuan asked her, "Do you want to go outside?"

A profound glint appeared in Lan Yingying's eyes, and she nodded her head, "I'd be lying if I say I am not curious about the outside world."

"I think it's unfair..." Yuan suddenly said.

And he continued, "How your ancestors' decision to stay in this world also affected their children and so on. If someone wants to leave this place, they should have the choice to do so— at least that's what I believe."

A small smile appeared on Lan Yingying's pretty face after hearing Yuan's words.

"Then why don't you try to become the Master of this place and set us all free?" Lan Yingying suddenly said.

"But nobody knows how the Lord became the Master, right? Even if I want to help you, I don't know what I should be doing."

"The Mystic Pagoda. Perhaps you'll find some clues there."

"Where is the Mystic Pagoda?" Yuan then asked.

Lan Yingying lifted her hand and pointed to a certain direction in the sky.

"Do you see that blue star? If you follow it, it'll lead you to the Mystic Pagoda."

Following her fingers, Yuan's eyes widened with surprise when he realized what she was talking about.

"What! How could there be stars in the sky already? The sun hasn't even begun to set yet!" Yuan exclaimed in a shocked voice.

"That star is a special star. You can see it throughout the day no matter if it's day or night."

"I see... Thank you..."

Yuan turned to look at Lan Yingying, and he continued in a somewhat awkward voice, "By the way, are you sure you want to continue walking around in that appearance? What if someone sees you?"

Lan Yingying looked down at her own clothes that were still torn, and she said, "Oh, right. I nearly forgot."

Lan Yingying suddenly stopped walking and proceeded to remove her clothes on the spot, taking Yuan by surprise.

"You could've at least warned me..." Yuan instinctively turned around to give her some privacy.

"Okay, I am done." Lan Yingying said a moment later, sounding very calm despite just changing her clothes in front of a man, and they continued walking shortly after, acting like nothing just happened.

"How far away is the nearest city?" Yuan asked her after walking for an hour without seeing anything civilization in sight.

"About seven days, give or take," she responded in a calm manner.

"Seven days?! That's an entire week!" Yuan's eyes widened with shock. Just where the heck did the Mystic Realm take him?

At this rate, he won't regroup with the others until there are only a few days left in the Mystic Realm.

"We're in the most isolated area in this world so there's nothing we can do about it." Lan Yingying said.

"I see... I'm sorry for making you go through the trouble, and thank you..." Yuan said to her.

"It's okay. I have nothing better to do, anyway." Lan Yingying said.

"What do you normally do besides cleaning the stone tablet?" Yuan decided to ask her.

"Cultivate... and hunting ignorant magical beasts that dare to enter our area without permission, just like that Onyx Crow." Lan Yingying said.

Yuan swallowed nervously after hearing her words. After all, he also entered their place without any permission.

Lan Yingying noticed his weird behavior and said, "Don't worry, we are forbidden from harming humans unless they threaten us or show aggression first. This is a rule set by the Lord."

"I see..."

Yuan nodded, and they continued to walk in silence for a couple of hours until Yuan suddenly realized something.

"Oh no! I completely forgot about Meixiu!" Yuan stopped walking and exclaimed.

"Meixiu?" Lan Yingying raised her eyebrows.

"Give me a moment! I'll be back in a bit!" Yuan said to her before logging off the game.

"Meixiu?! Are you here?" Yuan called out for her when he logged off.

"I'm here, Yuan," she quickly responded.

"I'm sorry! I was too absorbed in the game and completely forgot to log off again!" He said to her.

"Don't worry about it," she said to him.

"Let me go warm up your breakfast."

After warming up the soup, she fed it to Yuan.

"Once again, I'm really sorry."

"It's okay, really. There's nothing else for me to do, anyway."

Yuan then said, "If you want, you can play the game with Feng Feng and the others. You don't have to wait for me to finish the Mystic Realm since that's going to take a while."

"Even though I am doing nothing but watching the participants, I enjoy it. It feels like I am watching a movie or something, and the others are always engaged in something." Meixiu said.

"W-Wait a moment... You can watch us from the outside?" Yuan was surprised when he heard this.

"Yes, we can see everything the participants are doing using this treasure. However, for some reason, you're not shown, so we cannot see where you are or what you're doing." Meixiu said to him.

Chapter 318 - Earth Dragon

"If you can see the participants, does this mean you know where the other two disciples are at? Where are they? I need to regroup with them as soon as possible, and it would help a lot if I know where to go." Yuan said to her.

"Unfortunately, while we can see them, we don't know their exact location, especially since they have spent almost every minute in the same location ever since they entered the Mystic Realm, increasing their cultivation base," Meixiu said.

"Once I learn of their location, I'll let you know immediately," she then added.

"Okay. Thank you. I have to return to the game now. There's somebody waiting for me."

"Eh? Who are you with?"

"A native from the Mystic Realm. I met her on the first day, and she's currently helping me reach the nearest city. However, it's going to take a week..." Yuan sighed.

"Anyways, I'm going back now. Thank you for dinner, it was amazing as always."

Sometime later, Yuan returned to Cultivation Online whilst Meixiu went to clean up before going back inside the game as well.

"Sorry for making you wait, Miss Lan. I'm back." Yuan said to her, who was just standing there with a dazed look on her face.

Once she saw Yuan, Lan Yingying nodded her head and continued walking like nothing was out of the ordinary.

After walking for an hour, Lan Yingying suddenly said, "Do you want to run? It'll shorten the time we need to get to the city by almost half depending on how fast we run."

Yuan nodded, "If you don't mind."

Thus, the two of them began speeding up and running across the empty grassland, following the direction of the blue star in the darkened sky.

A couple of hours later, once the sky was completely dark and flickering with stars, Lan Yingying suddenly halted and said, "Stop."

Yuan quickly stopped and asked her, "What's the matter?"

"There's a magical beast ahead. First level Spirit Master. I'll handle it." Lan Yingying said to him.

"Wait a moment." Yuan suddenly stopped her, and he continued a moment later, "Can I handle this? I want to try out my Sword Aura."

"You want to fight a Spirit Master as a Spirit Warrior? You're not even halfway to the peak of Spirit Warrior..." Lan Yingying looked at him with wide eyes, almost like she was looking at a crazy person.

"I just want to hit it once with my Sword Aura. If it doesn't work out, I'll let you handle it." Yuan then said.

"Okay..." Lan Yingying nodded her head.

The two of them continued moving shortly after, but they stopped running.

About ten minutes later, they could see a massive reptile with a large jaw that resembled a certain type of dinosaur, and it was standing on two legs, almost like a T-Rex. Furthermore, there appeared to be rocks growing on its skin, kind of like an armor.

"What kind of magical beast is that?" Yuan couldn't help but ask her.

"That's an Earth Dragon. They are incredibly tough and powerful. One would think they are slow due to their large figure, but they are actually the opposite and quite nimble." Lan Yingying said.

And she continued, "If you want to hit it, you'll need to take it by surprise. However, you only have one chance. If your attack fails for whatever reason, I will deal with it."

Yuan nodded and took a deep breath before retrieving the Empyrean Overlord from his body.

"T-That sword..." Lan Yingying couldn't take her eyes away from the Empyrean Overlord for some reason after seeing it, almost like there was something about it that was attracting her on a spiritual level.

Meanwhile, Yuan took a deep breath before displaying his movement technique, closing the distance between him and the Earth Dragon very quickly.

The Earth Dragon noticed Yuan almost immediately, but when it realized Yuan's pathetic cultivation base compared to its own, the Earth Dragon scoffed at Yuan's reckless behavior inwardly and didn't even bother trying to defend against Yuan's attack since it was confident in its own toughness.

Once he was close enough, Yuan's eyes flickered with viciousness, and his body exploded with Sword Aura.

"?!?!"

The contempt in the Earth Dragon's eyes immediately disappeared, replaced with intense fear.

"Bloody Sword Strike!"

The Empyrean Overlord emitted a domineering red aura, and Yuan swung it at the Earth Dragon without holding back.

BOOM!

The Earth Dragon was frozen from shock and felt suppressed by the sword's overwhelming pressure.

A split second later, the Empyrean Overlord reached the Earth Dragon's tough skin before cleaving its massive body in half with ease, like a sharp knife going through tofu.

However, the Empyrean Overlord didn't stop after cleaving the Earth Dragon and continued to slam onto the ground, creating a massive fissure in the ground that spread out meters into the distance, resembling tree roots.

Lan Yingying's jaw dropped when she witnessed the overwhelming prowess displayed by Yuan, who was merely a fifth-level Spirit Warrior.

'Heavens! What is his body made of?! How can a Spirit Warrior have such strength?' Lan Yingying cried inwardly.

Forget about killing the Earth Dragon in one hit, she didn't even expect Yuan to penetrate the Earth Dragon's defenses!

'Is he really this powerful, or is it because of that mythical sword?' Lan Yingying wondered to herself.

After killing the Earth Dragon, Yuan went to check if it left behind its monster core, but alas, it was empty.

A few moments later, Lan Yingying approached Yuan and looked at the Earth Dragon's corpse with a weird glint on her eyes before swallowing nervously.

"Yuan, what kind of sword is that?" Lan Yingying asked him a moment later.

"The Empyrean Overlord? It's my Soul Weapon," he said.

"Soul Weapon? What about the dagger? It gave off a similar aura."

"That's also a Soul Weapon. I have two," he calmly responded.

"Two Soul Weapons..." Lan Yingying was speechless.

After a moment of silence, she asked him, "By the way, if you don't mind, can I see that sword? I am getting some kind of feeling from it, and I don't know why."

Chapter 319 - Unknown Entity

"Sure. Go ahead." Yuan nodded his head, not hesitating to hand the Empyrean Overlord to Lan Yingying since he trusted her, and even if she wanted to steal it, the Soul Weapon will automatically return to him if it gets too far away from him.

"Here you go." Yuan handed the sword to her in a casual manner.

"T-This sword is... so heavy!" Lan Yingying was taken by surprise by the weight of the Empyrean Overlord, nearly falling over trying to hold it at first.

"Oh, right, I forgot about that. It weighs about 1,000 jins naturally." Yuan had forgotten about its weight after handling it like a tree branch for so long.

"Where did you obtain such a treasure? And do you know its background?" she then asked, her gaze staring at the beautiful sword with a somewhat mesmerizing look.

"Apparently, it was found in a Legacy Tomb five hundred years ago. As for its background... It used to be wielded by a Sword Emperor." Yuan recalled what Feng Yuxiang told him and the Empyrean Overlord's description.

"Sword... Emperor? Do you, by any chance, know the name of this Sword Emperor?" Lan Yingying asked.

"No, I don't."

"I see..." Lan Yingying mumbled.

"Thank you for letting me see it."

She handed the Empyrean Overlord back to Yuan a moment later.

"Let's continue moving." Yuan then said.

"Wait a moment." Lan Yingying suddenly said, and she pointed at the Earth Dragon's corpse, "Since you killed the Earth Dragon, its corpse obviously belongs to you, but do you think I can buy it off you?"

"Eh? You want this Earth Dragon's corpse?" Yuan raised his eyebrows, wondering why she wanted it.

"If you want it, you can take it. Also, you don't have to pay me." Yuan said, as he doesn't have any uses for the corpse, nor does he plan on selling its materials.

"Really? Are you sure? An Earth Dragon's corpse will fetch a lot of money if you sell it..." She asked him just to be sure.

Yuan nodded, "It's the least I can do for you, who's helping me reach the nearest city."

"Thank you very much..." Lan Yingying bowed to him before collecting the Earth Dragon's corpse with her spatial ring.

Shortly after, they continued to run across the grassland, encountering a couple more magical beasts in a few hours.

Of course, Yuan wanted to fight these magical beasts despite having a lower cultivation base in comparison.

And just like the Earth Dragon, these Spirit Master magical beasts looked at Yuan with contempt when they realized he was only a Spirit Warrior, lowering their guards.

However, these magical beasts immediately regretted underestimating Yuan's low cultivation base the moment he released his Sword Aura, and they could only powerlessly stare at Yuan as he slashes their body into two parts.

After Yuan killed these magical beasts, Lan Yingying would collect their corpses, almost like a trash collector picking up trash on the sidewalk.

"Do magical beasts not drop monster cores around here or something? I've killed over a dozen of them without a single monster core!" Yuan complained after some time.

"The higher cultivation a magical beast, the less likely they'll drop a monster core." Lan Yingying said to him.

"Really? That doesn't make any sense, but alas..." Yuan sighed.

Once the sun began peeking at the horizon, Yuan logged off the game to eat breakfast prepared by Meixiu.

"How are you doing in the Mystic Realm? Xiao Hua wanted to know." Meixiu said to him afterward.

"I'm still making my way to the nearest city. I've also been encountering more and more magical beasts the closer we get to the city. However, you don't have to worry since I can deal with them easily, especially ever since I've learned Sword Aura."

"I understand. I'll let them know."

Once she returned to the game, Meixiu relayed Yuan's situation to Xiao Hua and the others.

"What? Sword Aura?!" Long Yijun and the others expressed great shock after hearing this news.

"So Brother Yuan finally learned Sword Aura, huh?" Xiao Hua already knew that he would learn Sword Aura. It was just a matter of when.

Meanwhile, Yuan continued to follow the blue star in the sky with Lan Yingying.

"We should arrive in the city by tomorrow afternoon," Lan Yingying said to him.

"Okay."

After running for a couple of hours without stopping, Lan Yingying suddenly felt a cold shiver run down her spine, causing her to stop running, and she shouted in a panicked voice, "Yuan! Stop!"

"Eh? What happened? Another magical beast?" Yuan stopped and asked her.

However, when he turned around and saw the nervous look on Lan Yingying's face— even though she had remained relatively calm from their previous encounters with magical beasts— he realized something was amiss.

"It's worse than a magical beast! We need to get away from this place as soon as possible!" Lan Yingying said to him.

"Get away? From what?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

And before Lan Yingying could respond to him, a deep voice suddenly resounded.

"The little princess is together with a human? What an unusual sight."

BOOM!

The ground shook as a figure suddenly descended from the sky and landed about a hundred meters away from Yuan and Lan Yingying's location.

"What the heck is that?" Yuan's eyes widened with surprise when he saw this 'person' and its unique appearance, not to mention its tyrannical aura that was unlike anything he's experienced before.

This entity was standing on two tall legs like a human, and it also had the body of a human. However, this human-like figure had glowing red skin and a single black horn directly in the center of its forehead. The sclera of its eyes was pitch black with its iris and pupils bright red. Furthermore, it had long sharp ears, sharp fingernails that resembled claws, and long black hair. If one looked closely, there was also a red crystal implanted in the middle of its chest. If one had to describe this entity with a single word, that word would be demonic.

"Where are you going with this human, little princess?" The demonic being spoke with a large, diabolic smile on its face, showing its two rows of sharp white teeth.

Chapter 320 - Demon

"Miss Lan, what is that thing? It can even speak!" Yuan was more amazed by this unknown entity's existence than feeling fearful of it.

"You've never heard of a demon before?" Lan Yingying looked at him with surprise.

"A demon? That thing? This is my first time hearing about them, much less seeing one." Yuan said, and he continued, "How are they any different compared to magical beasts?"

"They're vastly superior to magical beasts overall. Just like how magical beasts are stronger than human cultivators at the same cultivation level, demons are stronger than magical beasts and by a huge margin as well. A Spirit Apprentice demon can even defeat a Spirit Warrior cultivator with ease." Lan Yingying explained to him.

"Furthermore, they cannot be killed by normal means and are essentially immortal since they can survive most injuries, even if you put a hole in their heart..."

"What? Such powerful entities exist? How come nobody talks about them outside?" Yuan was speechless.

"I can't tell you since I don't know what it's like outside, but in this world, they are very infamous for their brutality and tremendous strength. However, they are also very rare, and most people live their entire lives without even seeing one."

"Then I guess we're super lucky to encounter one right now?" Yuan asked.

"Hey, what are you two talking about? I also want to join in on the conversation." The demon suddenly said to them. However, it remained standing there, seemingly unwilling to approach them for some reason.

"How are you unaffected by the Lord's Sword Aura? You demons shouldn't be able to get this close to the Divine Forest." Lan Yingying spoke with a frown on her face.

The demon laughed before speaking, "It's all thanks to your parents. Thanks to their blood, we've gained some resistance to the Sword Aura, but this is the furthest I can go for now. Sooner or later, we'll be able to enter the Divine Forest and consume you and those old bastards."

Lan Yingying gritted her teeth in anger after hearing the demon mention her parents, and she lifted her arm with her Spirit Master cultivation fully activated.

"Shut up! Sacred Fire!" She shouted.

A ball of white flames appeared in front of her palms before flying at the demon.

However, despite seeing the ball of flames flying at it, the demon didn't even bother to move and remained standing there with a nonchalant look on its face.

The white flames engulfed the demon a moment later, but it didn't show any reactions.

"You've improved, little princess. However, compared to those old bastards, your Sacred Fire is still too weak to do any real harm to our bodies, much less kill us." The demon spoke as it bathed in her flames casually.

A few moments later, the white flames disappeared on their own, leaving behind minor burn marks on the demon's red skin. However, these injuries immediately healed within seconds as well.

"Miss Lan... you..." Instead of paying attention to the demon, Yuan was fully focused on Lan Yingying at this moment, mostly because her appearance had experienced some changes.

It wasn't anything shocking, but Lan Yingying's black hair had suddenly turned pure white, and her azure-colored eyes turned into a beautiful pink color.

Lan Yingying's minor transformation reminded him of Feng Yuxiang's transformation when her hairs and eyes changed colors after consuming his blood.

However, it didn't immediately occur to Yuan that Lan Yingying could be a magical beast like Feng Yuxiang since he thought Feng Yuxiang was unique as a Divine Beast and a phoenix, not to mention her curse, hence why she could transform into a human.

The demon suddenly spoke, "Don't worry, little princess. I didn't come here to kill you today. I'm here to relay a message from our Demon Lord, who said he'll let you live if you become his woman. If you don't, the Demon Clan will raid the Divine Forest in two weeks when we fully absorb your parents' blood."

"I'd rather die than to become that bastard's plaything!" Lan Yingying spoke with a fierce look on her face.

"Don't be so quick to make up your mind. You have two weeks to decide." The demon shrugged.

Then it turned to look at Yuan and continued to speak, "As for you, human... I won't let you go so easily. If you want to continue, you'll have to kill—"

In the middle of the demon's sentence, it was forced to stop speaking when a gaping hole suddenly appeared in its head, shocking Lan Yingying who had no idea what just happened.

The demon collapsed onto the ground in a lifeless manner.

"W-What happened?!" she exclaimed.

The next second, a dagger appeared out of thin air and hovered directly beside Yuan.

"That's your Soul Weapon! It can turn invisible?!" Lan Yingying was left speechless by the Starry Abyss's ridiculous ability.

"Yes." Yuan nodded with a calm look on his face, and he said, "I hope you don't mind my actions just now. That demon is clearly very dangerous, and it made you cry, so I decided to take care of it."

Lan Yingying looked at him with a loose jaw, not realizing that tears had formed by her eyes.

But alas, one cannot kill a demon with raw strength.

"Take care of me? A mere Spirit Warrior human? Hahaha! That's the funniest thing I've heard all year long!"

The demon's voice suddenly returned, taking Yuan by surprise.

"What the heck? It's still not dead even with an injury like that?" Yuan turned to look at the demon with a surprised face, and sure enough, it was standing again.

The gaping hole in its face also began to close back up, and in just a few moments, the demon healed fully.

"I'll admit that you'd managed to surprise me with that invisible attack just now. However, no matter how many times you open a hole in my face, you won't be able to kill me." The demon looked at Yuan with immense contempt in its gaze, almost like it was looking at an insect and not a human.

Chapter 321 - Three Free Attacks

"This is indeed quite troublesome. How can I kill that thing if it can survive even with a hole in its face?" Yuan sighed.

"I'm sorry, Yuan, but let's give up on going to the city for now and return to my grandparents to see if there's anything we can do about this situation. Although I have the power to defeat that demon, I don't have the power to kill it." Lan Yingying said to him.

"Wait a second, Miss Lan. You mentioned Sword Aura. Are demons afraid of Sword Aura or something? Maybe I can still..."

However, Lan Yingying shook her head and said, "No, the demons are not afraid of Sword Aura in general. Instead, they are specifically afraid of the Lord's Sword Aura. Before leaving this world, the Lord created these Sword Aura barriers around every city and the Divine Forest to protect them from the demons."

"As for why they're afraid of the Lord's Sword Aura... It's simply because the Lord's Sword Aura is so powerful that if a demon touches it, they will be destroyed until there's nothing left of them. No matter how powerful their regeneration abilities may be, if you destroy their bodies until there's not even a hair left, there won't be anything to regenerate from."

"I see... Then are there any more methods that can be used to kill demons?" Yuan asked.

"Besides completely erasing their existence, you need techniques with divine attributes such as my Sacred Fire."

"Techniques, huh?" Yuan mumbled.

"Hm?"

He suddenly recalled the Heaven-grade technique he'd learned at Myriad of Techniques— the Demon Sealing Strike.

"What about sealing demons? Can we seal them with techniques?" Yuan then asked.

"Demon sealing techniques? Those are incredibly rare and hard to learn, but yes, sealing a demon is akin to killing them." Lan Yingying nodded.

"I understand. Let me fight this demon. I think I'll be able to defeat it." Yuan said to her as he retrieved the Empyrean Overlord.

"What?! You want to fight that demon?! Don't do it! It has the strength of a peak Spirit Master, and you don't meet the requirements to kill it!"

"It's okay. I just want to try something." Yuan said with a smile on his face.

"Oh? You're approaching me?" The demon was pleasantly surprised when Yuan began walking towards it.

"Don't tell me that you're planning on fighting me— a demon?" The grin on the demon's face grew wider.

"That's right," Yuan responded with a calm look on his face, and he continued, "I won't be able to defeat you unless I get closer."

"HAHAHAHA! You're truly an amusing human! Normally, when a human sees me, they turn and run the opposite direction while shitting their own pants!"

After laughing for a moment, the demon suddenly stopped and narrowed its eyes at Yuan with a vicious expression.

"With that being said, who the fuck do you think you are, human? Do you really think you can defeat me when you couldn't kill me with a surprise attack? This is why I despise humans. They're incredibly arrogant and stupid at the same time." The demon looked at Yuan with clear disdain.

Yuan didn't respond to the demon this time, and he continued to approach it with a resolute expression on his face.

Seeing this, the demon took a few steps back and said, "Very well. I commend your bravery even if it might be stupidity, so I'll give you three free attacks."

"Then I won't be humble and accept these three attacks—"

Yuan suddenly activated his movement technique and appeared in front of the demon with the Empyrean Overlord raised high in the sky.

"Bloody Sword Strike!"

Despite the powerful aura emitted by the Empyrean Overlord, the demon remained standing there with its arms crossed and without batting an eyelid.

BOOM!

The Empyrean Overlord cleaved the demon into two separate parts from the head down.

Plop.

The demon collapsed on the ground again.

However, a few moments later, as though its body was made of liquid, the demon's separated body combined into one whole part, returning to its original state without a single injury on its body.

"You have two more attacks, human." The demon spoke with an arrogant grin on its face, knowing very well that even if it gave Yuan 1,000 free strikes, it still wouldn't be defeated.

"Heaven Splitting Sword Strike!"

Yuan wasted no time activating his second and strongest attack, sending a massive beam that was also mixed with Sword Aura at the demon.

The demon reacted this time, as it could sense a dreadful feeling from the Heaven Splitting Sword Strike, and it quickly dodged to the side, avoiding half of the attack.

However, the other half of the attack had completely disintegrated half of the demon's body, giving it quite a scare, causing it to sweat a little.

Lan Yingying's eyes widened with shock when she witnessed the demon retreating and the damage Yuan's second attack dealt to it.

'If that demon hadn't dodged the second attack, its entire body would've disappeared as if it had touched the Lord's Sword Aura! What a powerful sword technique!' Lan Yingying could feel her blood heating up afterward, and she began feeling hopeful that perhaps Yuan could really defeat it!

"Why did you dodge my attack just now?" Yuan asked the demon with a calm look on his face, and he continued, "I thought you were absolutely confident in your body's regenerating abilities? I guess you're not invincible, after all."

"You... You fucking brat... A mere human... How dare you!" A tyrannical aura exploded from the demon's body as its facial expression twisted with anger after feeling a burning sensation on its face from Yuan's words.

"What are you doing? I still have one more attack. Are you going to break your own words?" Yuan said.

"Hahaha! So what if I break my words? I am a fucking demon!" The demon laughed as it suddenly rushed at Yuan while spreading its claw-like hands.

"I'm going to rip your fucking limbs apart, drink your blood, and crunch on your bones, human!"

Chapter 322 - Demon Sealing Strike

Yuan immediately used his movement technique to dodge the demon's fast but seemingly simple claw attacks.

Whoosh!

After dodging a couple of attacks, Yuan retaliated with the Starry Abyss that had returned to being invisible.

The Starry Abyss tore another hole in the demon's face, but the demon continued to attack Yuan without falling.

"Are you incapable of learning, human?! You can't kill me no matter how many holes you bore in my body!"

However, Yuan ignored the demon's words and continued to attack it with the Starry Abyss, and in just a couple of minutes, he'd bore over a hundred holes on the demon's body.

'Is there no limit to its regenerating abilities?' Yuan wondered inwardly as he casually dodged the demon's claw attacks.

"Blood Spear!"

The demon suddenly created a long spear from its own blood before thrusting it at Yuan's face.

"Whoa!"

Yuan was slightly surprised by the spear, but he'd still managed to dodge it.

"I've had enough of you, damn human! Die!"

The demon created a dozen more spears that levitated in the air like the Starry Abyss.

[Flying Blood Spears!]

The demon pointed at Yuan, and a dozen spears suddenly flew at Yuan with extreme speed.

[Heaven Splitting Sword Strike!]

Yuan swung his sword once, destroying all of the spears simultaneously and erasing one of the demon's arms temporarily.

Seeing that its attack had failed, the demon continued to attack Yuan aggressively with the spear.

Ding! Ding! Clang!

Yuan defended himself with the Empyrean Overlord whilst attacking the demon with the Starry Abyss, waiting for the perfect opportunity to use the Demon Sealing Strike. However, the demon completely ignored the Starry Abyss and focused on attacking Yuan.

Meanwhile, Lan Yingying watched their intensive fight from a place where the demon cannot enter with a dazed expression on her face.

This is her first time seeing a human fight a demon and on such an equal standing. Even though demons are known for being insanely powerful, this demon appears to be struggling against a human cultivator who is only a Spirit Warrior!

"Stop running away! What are you, a cockroach?!" The demon exclaimed in an agitated voice when it realized that it couldn't defeat this human's profound movement techniques.

"If you don't want me to dodge then you should probably stop attacking me." Yuan casually responded.

"Like hell! I'll fucking kill you at all cost!" The demon shouted as he continued his endless wave of assaults.

"And you humans have limited energy! Unlike us demons, you're useless once your spiritual energy runs out, and you'll be no different than a mortal with no powers!"

Lan Yingying then warned him, "Yuan! You must finish this fight as soon as possible! The longer you fight a demon the more disadvantaged you are! Demons have nearly unlimited stamina and spiritual energy! You won't outlast him in endurance!"

"Why don't you come out here and help your human friend, little princess? However, I can't promise you that I won't accidentally eat you as well! Hahaha!" The demon provoked her.

"It's okay, Miss Lan. You don't have to worry about me. It won't be long before I defeat this demon." Yuan then said.

"I'd like to see you try!" The demon coldly snorted. While it was afraid of Yuan's Heaven Splitting Sword Strike, it was confident that Yuan wouldn't be able to use this technique too many times since it looked like it would consume a lot of spiritual energy.

Furthermore, the technique itself was easy to dodge as long as one remains vigilant, and as long as it doesn't hit its entire body, it'll be able to regenerate itself.

Yuan and the demon clashed against each other hundreds of times over the next few minutes, and once they were beginning to get into the rhythm, Yuan's aura suddenly exploded, and a pressurizing aura appeared around them, restricting the demon's movements.

[Heavenly Domain!]

The demon was taken by surprise by this mysterious pressure that slowed down its movements by a fair amount.

"What is this uncomfortable feeling?!"

However, slowing down the demon's movements was just a ploy to distract its attention and also the beginning of Yuan's plan.

"Hey! Demon!"

Yuan suddenly called out to it, causing it to subconsciously turn to look at him.

The moment the demon's gaze met with Yuan's eyes, his eyes turned golden and assaulted the demon with an invisible mental attack that was unlike anything the demon has experienced before.

The world suddenly turned dark for the demon, and all the demon could focus on at this moment was a pair of majestic eyes from an unfathomable existence hovering behind Yuan that looked down at it as though it was a mere ant.

"W-What the fuck are you?! You're not human!"

The demon mistook Yuan as a monster in human skin when it experienced the Dragon's Gaze, and it feared for its life for the first time.

However, Yuan didn't say anything and took this chance to attack the demon when it was frozen from fear.

[Demon Sealing Strike!]

Yuan stabbed the Empyrean Overlord that was emitting an ancient aura directly in the demon's chest, not noticing the symbols that had appeared on the sword's blade.

"Huh?"

The demon didn't feel any pain, only a numbed feeling, and it didn't realize that it had a sword piercing its body until it looked down and saw the massive sword between its chest.

"What do you think you're doing? You really don't learn—" The demon halted its sentence when it realized something was amiss—that its body was getting stiffer by the second.

The demon looked down again for the second time, and to its surprise, the wound around the sword was actually transforming! It was turning into stone!

"W-What is this?! What did you just do to me?!" The demon roared out loud and attacked Yuan in a panicked manner, but it struggled to release any strength.

Yuan kicked the demon in the stomach and pulled out the Empyrean Overlord from its body simultaneously before speaking in a calm voice, "Who knows, but I hope this demon sealing technique works on you."

"D-D-Demon sealing technique?! Why do you know something like that?! Don't tell me you're a descendant of the Demon Sealing Clan?!" The demon exclaimed while it kneeled on the ground powerlessly, feeling its body getting weaker as the petrifying effect from its wound spread throughout its body.

"Demon Sealing Clan? Never heard of them before. I learned this technique from a technique store some time ago." Yuan calmly responded, feeling quite happy that the technique appeared to be working perfectly against this demon.

"Curse you! I curse you, damn human!" The demon shouted loudly, and it felt an intense urge to rip Yuan to pieces, but alas, all four of its limbs and the majority of its body had turned to stone.

"If I ever get out of this seal, I will fucking kill you—!"

The demon's shouting halted when its mouth turned into stone, and a few more seconds later, the rest of the demon became petrified, transforming into a stone statue completely.

"Yuan... you... you really sealed the demon?" Lan Yingying approached him and the petrified demon sometime later with clear disbelief on her face.

"I hope so," he said.

Chapter 323 - Demon Slayer

"What should we do with this sealed demon now, Miss Lan? How long do you think it'll be sealed for? And is there anything else we can do?" Yuan asked her afterward. It would be disastrous if the demon becomes unsealed a few days later if he doesn't take care of it properly now. However, he also didn't want to accidentally break the seal.

"It depends on how powerful your sealing technique is. Looking at it right now, the demon should remain sealed for a few hundred years." Lan Yingying looked at the fully petrified demon with a feeling of awe and admiration for Yuan, who sealed a demon as a Spirit Warrior.

"However, I think you should still take care of it entirely. You know that technique you used during your second free strike? Do you think you can completely obliterate the demon with it?" Lan Yingying then asked him.

"It won't break the seal if I hit it in this state?" Yuan asked just to make sure.

"It'll be fine. Even if your attack doesn't kill it, the seal won't be undone, and the demon won't be able to regenerate until the seal is completely gone, so you can take your time killing it. That's why demons are so afraid of sealing techniques." Lan Yingying explained to him.

"I see... Okay, I'll destroy it completely so it won't be able to cause any more trouble for you in the future." Yuan nodded before distancing himself from the sealed demon.

Once he was far enough, Yuan held the Empyrean Overlord in front of him and took his time to gather his spiritual energy.

Lan Yingying's eyes widened when she saw this and realized that Yuan's previous Heaven Splitting Sword Strike wasn't at its full power despite showing immense strength— enough to kill a demon.

At this moment, Yuan's body was gushing with Sword Aura, and the sword in his grasp was glowing a beautiful golden color.

[Heaven Splitting Sword Strike!]

Once he'd gathered enough spiritual energy, Yuan released his ultimate attack at the demon and completely covered its entire figure this time.

Under this intense power, the demon's figure quickly disintegrated until not even a speck of hair remained.

Lan Yingying swallowed nervously at Yuan's destructive power, as it was unlike anything she had experienced before.

After killing the demon, a notification appeared in front of Yuan.

[Congratulations! You have slain a Demon, obtaining the title 'Demon Slayer'!]

Meanwhile, outside the Mystic Realm, an announcement appeared in the skies for the players to see.

[Player Yuan has become the world's first player to have killed a Demon!]

The players wondered what a demon was and how they are different from magical beasts.

"Feng Feng, what's a Demon?" Meiuxiu asked her after seeing the notification.

"Huh? A fiend? Why are you suddenly asking about fiends? They are incredibly evil and powerful beings that used to rule the cultivation world." Feng Yuxiang looked at her with raised eyebrows.

Demons are also known as fiends, and they used to run rampant in the cultivation world.

"Well... Yuan just killed a demon inside the Mystic Realm, so I'm asking," Meixiu revealed this to them.

"What?! He killed a demon?! How is that possible?!" Feng Yuxiang's eyes nearly popped out of their sockets after hearing Meixiu's words.

"Demons have heaven-defying regenerative abilities and cannot be killed by normal means! Even the weakest demons are as strong as a peak Spirit Master! I know the Young Master is incredibly talented, but he doesn't have what it takes to kill a demon— at least he shouldn't!"

"W-Wait a second... There are demons in the Mystic Realm? How come no participants have encountered one until today? And I thought they went extinct after the Demon Sealing Clan purged them from the cultivation world..." Long Yijun mumbled in a dazed voice.

"The Mystic Realm is an ancient treasure so it's not impossible that there might be some demons inside. However, to actually run into one and even kill it... Disciple Yuan is an entirely different type of existence..." Elder Xuan said.

"I still can't believe it... How did the Young Master kill the demon? One must either know demon sealing techniques or have special spiritual energy that has divine attributes. However, I know for sure that the Young Master's spiritual energy doesn't have any divine attributes because I didn't sense it in his blood." Feng Yuxiang said, as she'd tasted his blood before.

"Then it could only be the demon sealing techniques..."

However, Xiao Hua shook her head and said, "Xiao Hua has been with Brother Yuan even before he was a cultivator and she doesn't recall Brother Yuan learning any techniques that allow him to seal demons..."

Because she'd been separated from Yuan in the Myriad of Techniques, Xiao Hua wasn't aware that Yuan had learned the Demon Sealing Strike.

"No matter how the Young Master killed that demon, I'm relieved to hear that he's safe despite encountering a demon. I still remember my first encounter with a demon in the upper heavens. It was a terrifying experience, to say the least..." Feng Yuxiang sighed.

"Eh? Madam Feng... You came from the upper heavens? And demons still exist in the upper heavens?" Elder Xuan looked at her with a surprised expression.

"Unfortunately, they still exist. They're just not as active and always in hiding... And yes, I came from the upper heavens. Due to circumstances, I am now here..." Feng Yuxiang sighed.

"I-I see..." Elder Xuan nodded.

Meanwhile, inside the Mystic Realm, at a place isolated from the rest of the world, a red-skinned figure lifted its head to look at the cloudy sky with a narrowed gaze as it sat on a red throne.

"That fool perished... Did he get too full of himself and went too deep into that man's Sword Aura? Even though I specifically warned him to not get ahead of himself." This demon mumbled, yet it expressed no sorrow after knowing that a fellow demon had just died.

Chapter 324 - Transformation

"Demon Lord, what should we do now that there's one less demon?"
Another demon suddenly asked after sensing the death of the demon Yuan had slain.

"Change? Nothing will change, except that we'll have more blood now to consume that he's gone. Perhaps we'll even be able to attack those annoying things a few days earlier now." The Demon Lord spoke as it turned to look at the other 3 demons.

"There used to be hundreds, thousands of us. However, that fucking human with the Sword Aura slaughtered us as though we're insects, and in just the span of a few years, our numbers have reduced to a mere dozen..."

Unlike humans and magical beasts that have to increase their lifespan through cultivation, demons have a near-infinite lifespan at birth, meaning they're immortal regardless of their cultivation base.

The Demon Lord's gaze turned to look at the small pool of blood in the center of these three demons and continued, "That Lan Family wanted to completely wipe us out, so they continued to attack us even after that human long disappeared. Although they'd manage to kill ten of us throughout the years, we also managed to kill two of them. Now, there's only four of us and three of them."

"In this world, they are the only beings that can threaten our existence. Once we get rid of them, we can finally rule the Mystic Realm. We're going to enslave the humans and drink their blood every day."

"If not for that damn human and his Sword Aura, we wouldn't be in this pitiful situation and be soaking in the humans' blood already! That bastard even covered every city in this world with his Sword Aura, preventing us from gaining strength by eating humans!" Another demon expressed his frustration for the Lord.

The Demon Lord stood up a moment later and approached the pool of blood and shoved its hand inside before pulling it back out and using its hands as a cup, it drank a mouthful of the blood.

"No matter how many times I drink their blood, it's always a marvelous feeling. Once we gain enough resistance to the Sword Aura, we'll kill the rest of the Lan Family and consume their blood before dealing with the humans in the cities. Eventually, we'll find a way to control the Mystic Realm and open this world back up, allowing us to go outside, where there'll be even more humans for us to play with!"

While the demons prepared their attack, Yuan went to pick up something that was left behind by the demon after he killed it.

"What's this?" Yuan showed the red crystal to Lan Yingying.

"That's a Demon Core, somewhat similar to monster cores, but they contain much more spiritual energy. However, they also contain a lot more impurities and can even make a human go mad if not handled properly." Lan Yingying explained to him with a somewhat weird expression on her face right now.

"Similar to monster cores...?" Yuan looked at the demon core with a pondering look on his face, wondering whether he should try to eat this thing or not, as it gave him an ominous feeling, almost like it was taboo to consume them.

"B-By the way..."

Lan Yingying suddenly spoke, looking quite fidgety.

"Do you think I can buy that demon core off you?" she asked him.

"Eh? You want this as well? What do you plan on doing with so many monster corpses and this demon core?" Yuan couldn't help but ask her.

"I know it may seem selfish of me, but I really need these things, especially since the demons will be attacking us soon. I must power myself up as much as possible so that I could assist my grandparents when they decide to attack. You saw how powerless I was just now against that demon. At this rate, I'll only be a burden..." Lan Yingying sighed.

After pondering for a moment, Yuan nodded his head and extended his hand, offering the demon core to her.

"Here. I don't need any money. Instead, can you tell me more about your situation? I want to see if I'll be able to help you out." Yuan said to her.

"A-Are you sure?" Lan Yingying looked at him with a dazed look on her face. "What about your friends? Don't you need to regroup with them?"

"I do, but I cannot just leave you alone after learning about the demons."

Furthermore, if he helps her situation and slays the demons, the Dragon Essence Temple will still earn points. After all, there was no rule that said one couldn't act independently and earn points this way.

'I still don't know where the other two are, anyway.' Yuan thought to himself.

After a moment of silence, Lan Yingying accepted the demon core before nodding her head, "Okay. I'll tell you about myself and our situation."

After taking a deep breath, she continued, "As you can probably tell from my white hair and eye color, I am different from your average human. In fact, I am not really a human..."

"Eh? You're not human? Then what are you?" Yuan's eyes widened with surprise.

"I'll show you my real form, but before I do, I must warn you that I'm a little big..."

After taking another deep breath, Lan Yingying's body slowly began to transform, and her body grew longer and rounder, resembling that of a serpent.

In just moments, the beautiful Lan Yingying had turned into a massive and long snake with pretty white scales, transforming the lower half of her body first before transforming the rest of her body, becoming a full-fledged snake that was around 50 meters in length.

"This is my real form," Lan Yingying spoke in a nervous voice after her transformation, and she continued, "I am actually a Divine Beast, and our species are known as Divine Serpents. The reason I am collecting the corpses is simply because I plan on consuming them, as that's how we improve our cultivation."

Yuan was speechless, yet there was not even a hint of fear in his gaze. If anything, he was filled with awe at this moment.

Chapter 325 - Riding Lan Yingying

"Wow... You're actually a big snake? This is my first time seeing something like this. How cool!" Yuan said to her in an excited voice after a moment of silence.

"C-Cool? Me?" Lan Yingying was taken by surprise after hearing such words. This is also her first time encountering a human who doesn't show even the slightest feeling of fear even after seeing her true form.

Although there have been humans who didn't express fear towards her true form before, she knew they were nervous and fearful of her inwardly, and they were just too scared of expressing it, fearing that it might anger her and be the end of their lives.

"Do you think I can touch your body?" Yuan suddenly asked her.

"Eh? S-Sure..." Lan Yingying nodded after a brief moment of hesitation.

Hearing her approval, Yuan immediately approached her and caressed her beautiful white scales with his hand.

"Wow... It's so smooth..." Yuan mumbled after feeling its unique texture that was unlike anything he's touched before.

"..."

Lan Yingying felt a little bit embarrassed at this moment even though she didn't feel any shame when she was half-naked in front of Yuan before, as this is her first time letting a human being touch her divine scales.

"How does your transformation work? I know a phoenix who is also in human form, but her situation is a little bit unique." Yuan then asked her.

"Y-You know a phoenix?" Lan Yingying's body shuddered after learning this.

"Yes. We're good friends," he said.

"Well... All magical beasts have the ability to transform into humans after they reach a certain cultivation level, but this requirement differs with each species as some magical beasts can transform much earlier than others. However, Divine Beasts such as myself usually require a much higher cultivation base to transform into a human since our bodies are somewhat unique."

"With that being said, my species is also unique in this sense since we can transform into humans as early as reaching Spirit Master." Lan Yingying explained to him.

"What about your human body? Are they any different compared to normal humans?"

Lan Yingying shook her head and said, "No, there aren't any differences as far as I'm aware. We have the same internal organs and reproductive systems as normal humans when we transform."

After a brief pause, she continued, "Actually, there is one thing that's different— our Dantian. Even if we can transform our bodies, we cannot transform our core Dantian or spiritual energy, and that's how people usually tell us— well, normal magical beasts— apart from real humans. Divine Beasts are different and can imitate human spiritual energy almost perfectly so most people can't tell the difference between Divine Beasts and humans."

"I see... How amazing... The cultivation world is truly a mythical place where anything is possible." Yuan expressed his awe for the cultivation world again.

Sometime later, Lan Yingying asked him, "What do you want to do now, Yuan? I have to return to my grandparents to warn them about the situation so I won't be able to accompany you any further."

"I'll come with you," Yuan said.

"Are you sure? This is a fight between demons and Divine Beasts... You will get hurt— even die." Lan Yingying warned him.

As much as she wanted Yuan to help them with his sealing techniques, she couldn't bear to see him die because of their situation.

"I'm sure. I can't just leave you alone, especially not after what that demon said." Yuan sighed, recalling how the demon talked about drinking her parents' blood.

After a moment of silence, Lan Yingying nodded and said, "Get on my back. I'll let you ride me. We'll travel faster this way, too."

"I can ride you?" Yuan's eyes flickered with excitement, as he has never imagined riding a massive snake like a mount before.

Lan Yingying nodded.

Seeing her approval, Yuan jumped on Lan Yingying's back.

"I'll move slowly at first so you can get used to it." Lan Yingying said as she began slithering her massive body across the ground gracefully.

"Oh?" Yuan was surprised when he could barely feel Lan Yingying's body moving despite her movements, almost like there was some sort of invisible force keeping him stable and safe.

It was so stable that he could probably take a nap without falling off.

Lan Yingying increased her movement speed every few minutes, and after some time, she was moving faster than flying swords.

"Are you okay, Yuan?" She asked him just in case.

"Yes! This is awesome!"

"We should return to my grandparents' home in a few hours." Lan Yingying said to him.

"Okay." Yuan nodded.

Meanwhile, in the real world, Meixiu sat before her laptop with a cup of cold water in her hand.

There was only a couple of hours left for the Frozen Jade Zither auction before it officially ends, and the 411 million had increased to a grand 525 million dollars.

[Yu Family has bid 526,100,000!]

[Anonymous has bid 526,200,000!]

[MusicGenius has bid 526,300,000!]

Meixiu watched as the price for the Frozen Jade Zither skyrocketed, albeit at smaller increments.

Although it may seem crazy that someone would be willing to spend so much money on a virtual item in a video game, when the world is dominated by video games with the majority of people in the world playing games actively, the abnormal slowly becomes the norm, especially with how hyped and popular Cultivation Online has been.

Furthermore, spending astronomical amounts of money on video games has long become the norm ever since the creation of the Legacy Families.

530 million... 540 million... 550 million...

The number grew closer and closer to 600 million, and the number of viewers on the website has returned to its peak numbers when the auction first started, as everyone there wanted to witness and be part of history when the most expensive in-game item is being sold.

When there were only 10 minutes left in the auction, the number stopped exactly at 600 million without any more bids.

As for the highest bidder, it was the Yu Family that had plenty of money to spare.

Chapter 326 - End Of The Frozen Jade Zither Auction

"The Yu Family, huh. How amusing that they're paying so much money to Yuan after kicking him out of the family and robbing him of everything while being completely oblivious to the truth..." Meixiu could only imagine the shock on the Yu Family's face once they realize Player Yuan's true identity. Perhaps they might even puke blood once they learn the truth.

"If they had treated Yuan with even the slightest of care, perhaps the Yu Family wouldn't have needed to spend so much money on the Frozen Jade Zither," Meixiu mumbled to herself as the last ten minutes slowly approached zero.

Meanwhile, across all COPlayerAuctions' headquarters and working buildings around the world, all of its staff members were watching the auction with wide grins on their faces, looking like they were just minutes away from winning the lottery.

"Hahaha! Congratulations, Lee! You'll definitely be promoted after this auction that'll definitely make history! Hell, they might even move you to the main headquarters!" His fellow workers treated Lee differently after they realized that the treasure and auction were real, acting like they never doubted him in the first place.

"Don't forget about us when you move up the ladder, Lee!"

Although these people were praising and cheering for Lee's success out in the open and acted like they were happy for him, they were actually burning with envy inwardly, cursing the heavens for not sending the notification for the auction request to them instead of Lee.

"Thank you all. If I hadn't listened to my guts and ignored the auction request, we wouldn't be here right now." Lee said to them with the widest smile in the room on his face.

Not only will he receive recognition for his work, but he'll also receive a small portion of that 10% service fee, and even if it's just 10 percent of that 10 percent, he'd be earning at least 6 million dollars, which is far more than his total income after working for the company for over twenty years.

"Look! It increased by another million! Who is this MusicGenius?!" One of them asked.

"That's the pride of the Jiang Family, he's a musical genius who shook the world with his musical talents at 10 years old, and he has been playing for Royal Entertainment for the last 9 years."

"Royal Entertainment? Ah, they're the Yu Family's number one rival, who owns Jade Entertainment."

"So it's a battle between the two largest giants in the music industry, huh? I wonder who'll end up victorious since they both have enormous wealth."

The staff and hundreds of millions of people around the world watched as two families fought for the Frozen Jade Zither.

[Yu Family bids 603,000,000!]

[MusicGenius bids 605,000,000!]

[Yu Family bids 610,200,000!]

The battle between the Yu Family and MusicGenius continued even a couple of minutes after the timer for the auction reached zero. Once the bid remains unmatched for 10 seconds, the winner will be decided!

When the auction reached 620,000,000, the viewers watched in anticipation as the final countdown started!

[00:08]

[00:07]

Once the countdown finally reached zero, a large announcement appeared in the middle of the website.

[Congratulations to the Yu Family for winning this bid!]

In the end, the Yu Family won the bid, but it'd cost them 620 million dollars.

However, while this may seem like a lot of money, it was only a drop in the bucket for them who owns one of the largest entertainment companies in the world with businesses and branches all over the world, earning them billions annually.

Once the auction ended, 620 million dollars were deducted from the Yu Family's account before being sent straight to Meixiu's account on the website with the service fees already deducted.

In the end, Meixiu received 558,000,000 dollars from the auction and an additional 20,000 dollars for her initial deposit that was doubled by Lee.

Meixiu wasted no time withdrawing the money, depositing it directly to the bank account that she shared with Yuan.

Normally, having such a massive amount of money suddenly deposited into one's bank account at once would alert the bank and trigger some sort of investigation, but luckily for Yuan and Meixiu, the bank account was created by Yu Rou, who was the daughter of the prestigious Yu Family, granting that bank account premium features such as absolute anonymity.

Meixiu went to look at the bank account to make sure the money had been deposited, and sure enough, there were 558,020,000 dollars inside.

Ding!

A notification from the COPlayerAuctions appeared a few minutes after the auction ended.

[Congratulations on the auction! The upper management would like to request an interview with you. They have promised that you'll receive full anonymity so you don't have to worry about your identities being leaked. What do you say?]

After reading the notification, Meixiu typed three words without any hesitation—

[No, thank you.]

[I understand. If you ever have something else that you'd like to sell, please don't hesitate to use COPlayerAuctions again! We'll even give you some sort of deal such as reducing the service fees! Once again, thank you for trusting and using our platform!]

The internet went crazy with everybody talking about the Frozen Jade Zither's auction, and many people believed it to be Player Yuan's treasure.

Meanwhile, inside the Mystic Realm, Yuan and Lan Yingying had just returned to the temple.

"There are too many trees here so we'll have to go on foot." Lan Yingying said to him before transforming back to her human form.

Her white hair and pink eyes also returned back to their original colors.

Sometime later, they arrived at the cabin.

"Grandfather! Grandmother!" Lan Yingying called out to them as they approached the cabin.

"Hm? You're back with the young man already? Did you decide to change your mind and impregnate our granddaughter, after all?" The grandparents were pleasantly surprised to see Yuan return with Lan Yingying so quickly.

Chapter 327 - Preparing For The Demons Invasion

Chapter 327 - Preparing For The Demons' Invasion

"Grandfather, this isn't the time to joke. We have an emergency." Lan Yingying said to him as she retrieved the demon core and showed it to him.

"Hmm? What's that?" Grandpa Lan didn't immediately recognize the demon core since it has been many years since he last saw one.

However, when he finally realized what he was looking at, his eyes widened with surprise, and his playful expression turned solemn.

"Where did you get that demon core?" He asked her in a serious voice, and he continued, "Let's talk inside."

A few moments later, they returned to the table.

Once all four of them were fully seated, Lan Yingying recalled their encounter with the demon and how Yuan defeated it.

"We were attacked by a demon on our way to the city," she started off with this shocking information.

"What?! Impossible! The Lord's Sword Aura should have prevented them from getting so close to the city!" Grandma Lan said.

"Yes... But they absorbed my parents' blood, granting them resistance to the Sword Aura." Lan Yingying sighed.

"They what?! These damn demons!" Grandpa Lan slammed the desk in a small fit of rage.

After a moment of awkward silence, Grandma Lan spoke, "Then what happened to that demon? Surely, you didn't kill it, since we know you can't kill demons yet..."

Lan Yingying nodded and said, "The demon was killed, but I was not the one who killed it."

She then turned to look at Yuan and continued, "Yuan was the one who killed it."

"Y-You?"

The grandparents turned to look at Yuan with disbelief written all over their faces. How could a human that's only a Spirit Warrior kill a demon? Judging by the energy coming from the demon core, that demon should've been no weaker than a peak Spirit Master.

A Spirit Warrior defeating a peak Spirit Master? In what world would this make any sense?

"H-How on earth did you kill the demon?" They asked him a moment later, still with a dazed look on their faces.

"I used a sealing technique on the demon before finishing it off," Yuan responded in a casual manner, acting like it was only an ordinary magical beast that he'd slain.

"Sealing technique? Are you perhaps from the Demon Sealing Clan in the outside world? They were always there to help whenever a demon was involved." Grandpa Lan asked him.

Yuan shook his head, "No, I am not associated with the Demon Sealing Clan. I learned the sealing technique by chance."

"B-By chance, you say?" The grandparents looked at each other.

Demon sealing techniques are incredibly rare because the Demon Sealing Clan seized most of the techniques during the ancient times and forbade people from sharing the technique with strangers, as it was the pride of their family and what made them unique in the cultivation world.

Therefore, learning such a technique 'by chance' was very unlikely.

"Anyways, let me continue. The demon Yuan slew said that the rest of the demons intend on raiding the Divine Forest in two weeks. What should we do?" Lan Yingying asked them.

"Two weeks, huh?" They mumbled before turning quiet to ponder.

After a long moment of silence, Grandpa Lan looked at Yuan before asking him, "What do you plan on doing, young man?"

"I'd like to help you with whatever I can," he quickly responded.

"I see... We greatly appreciate it, and your demon sealing technique will definitely help our situation a lot, but are you sure? It's going to be very dangerous fighting against the demons."

"Since you already killed one, there should be four demons left, including the Demon Lord, who is the most powerful of them all. And judging from the demon core you got, that demon was probably the weakest of the bunch."

"If you stay here with us, we cannot guarantee your safety."

Yuan nodded and said, "There's still two weeks before they attack, right? That's plenty of time for me to increase my strength."

"Uhh... I guess..."

In their eyes, two weeks was no different than two days, and not many improvements can be made in such a short time even if he was a peak genius. If Yuan was given two years, perhaps he might be able to assist their fight with the Demon Lord, but at his current level, he wouldn't even be able to get in range to attack the Demon Lord without dying.

"I understand. If you need anything at all, just let us know." Grandpa Lan said to him.

Hearing such words, Yuan didn't hesitate to ask, "Then do you have any monster cores?"

"Monster cores? No, we don't. However, we can hunt some magical beasts and get you some." Grandpa Lan said.

"How many do you need? Most magical beasts around this area are above Spirit Master."

"I want as many as possible if you don't mind," Yuan said without hesitation.

"I understand. I'll go hunt some magical beasts after this."

"Thank you for the trouble," Yuan said to him.

"Hahaha... Don't mind it. No amount of monster cores will be able to match a demon core for us."

Sometime later, Yuan asked them, "By the way, I have been wondering... Since Miss Lan is a Divine Beast, does this mean both of you are also Divine Beasts?"

"Oh? Yingying told you about it?"

Yuan nodded.

"That's right. I am also a Divine Beast. However, Grandma Lan here is not a Divine Beast."

"My real form is a Jade Serpent—I am just an ordinary magical beast." Grandma Lan said.

"When a Divine Beast mates with an ordinary magical beast, the baby will always be a Divine Beast, but we can only have one child in our lifetime." Grandpa Lan explained to him.

"I see..." Yuan mumbled.

"Anyways, if the demons want to attack us, we'll be fully prepared for them." Grandpa Lan said.

"However, it won't be easy defeating four demons when there are only two of us who can actually kill the demons— me and you, young man."

"I'm going to hunt some magical beasts right now and see if I can get you some monster cores. In the meantime, you can stay here with the other two. Of course, if you want to be more productive, you can always mate with Yingying." Grandpa Lan said with a smile on his face before leaving the cabin.

Chapter 328 - Consuming Magical Beasts

Once Grandpa Lan left the cabin, the atmosphere immediately turned silent.

"Young man, would you like some tea?" Grandma Lan suddenly asked him.

"I do," he quickly nodded.

"Okay, I'll go prepare some for you right now."

Lan Yingying then said, "I'm going to increase my cultivation."

"Oh? Do you cultivate normally like humans or do you do something else to improve your cultivation?" Yuan asked her.

"I can cultivate normally, but that's not the most effective method for us—at least my bloodline. In order to increase my cultivation base quickly, I must consume other magical beasts."

Yuan's eyes flickered with interest and excitement after hearing her words, and he asked, "Does this mean you can also eat monster cores?"

Lan Yingying nodded, "We can eat them, but monster cores take very long for us to fully absorb, and the amount of spiritual energy we obtain from monster cores cannot compare to the magical beasts' body itself. And it sometimes gives us stomachaches, so I tend to avoid eating them."

"Wow..." Yuan mumbled.

Even though her method of eating monster cores differs from his own method, it was still quite fascinating to find someone else who can 'eat' monster cores.

"Do you think I can watch you?" Yuan suddenly asked her.

"Y-You want to watch me consume magical beasts?" Lan Yingying looked at him with wide eyes.

"Yes." Yuan nodded, his gaze filled with curiosity.

"I-I guess..." Lan Yingying nodded after feeling slight hesitation.

"Follow me outside."

Once they were outside, Lan Yingying retrieved all of the magical beast corpses that they'd collected during their journey, piling them up like a small mountain.

Lan Yingying glanced at Yuan for a brief second before transforming into her beast form.

She then grabbed one of the magical beasts' corpses with her tail and lifted it in the air, directly above her head.

After taking a deep breath, Lan Yingying opened her large mouth before releasing her tail, dropping the magical beast's corpse into her mouth and swallowing it whole.

Yuan watched in fascination. He never thought magical beasts could cultivate in such a manner.

"Haaaa..."

Lan Yingying released a satisfied noise after swallowing the magical beast, and white flames could be seen blowing out of her mouth and nose when she breathed.

After eating her first magical beast, Lan Yingying picked up the second one and proceeded to consume that one in a single bite as well.

In just a few moments, Lan Yingying cleaned up the mountain of magical beasts, and she was so absorbed in eating that she'd forgotten about Yuan watching her.

"Ah, that was delicious~!" Lan Yingying spoke with a satisfied voice.

"Amazing... Where does all of that go? Even if your body is big, it's weird seeing how you consume a mountain of magical beasts and still look completely normal." Yuan asked her.

If he ate a lot of food, his stomach would bloat a little.

"Oh... I don't really 'consume' them. I burn them with Sacred Fire, converting them to spiritual energy inside my body and increasing my cultivation that way. This way, I won't feel full no matter how many magical beasts I consume."

"I see..." Yuan nodded.

Sometime later, Lan Yingying returned to her human form before going back inside the cabin with Yuan to drink tea Grandma Lan made.

"Can you tell me more about the outside world?" Lan Yingying suddenly asked him.

"The outside? What do you want to know?"

"I don't know. Anything you know."

Yuan pondered for a moment before nodding, "Okay, I don't know much, but I'll tell you everything I have experienced outside."

Thus, Yuan began telling her of his journey ever since he became a cultivator.

Of course, the story didn't last long since Yuan hadn't been a cultivator for long.

"I see... The outside world seems like a wonderful place. In this world, we cannot wander too much or leave the Lord's Sword Aura or the demons will be able to kill us." Lan Yingying sighed.

After tea, Grandma Lan took Yuan upstairs to the rooms and said to him, "Since we don't expect guests, we don't have any spare rooms. Therefore, how about you share a room with Yingying? Her bed is big enough to fit two people comfortably, too!"

The smile on her face grew wider and wider the more she spoke.

"It's okay, I don't need a room," Yuan said, dumbfounding Grandma Lan.

"Then where will you sleep?" She asked.

"I will be cultivating so it doesn't matter if I have a room or not," he responded.

"I-Is that so..." Grandma mumbled, feeling that getting this young man to mate with their granddaughter might be harder than defeating even the Demon Lord.

Yuan logged off sometime later as it was getting late.

"Yuan, the auction ended," Meixiu said to him during dinner.

"Really? How much did it sell for?"

"The Frozen Jade Zither sold for 620 million dollars, and we got 558,020,000 dollars after the service fees."

"Now we can pay for the rent of this place even though Yu Rou's friend is willing to lend it to us for free," Yuan said.

Meixiu raised her eyebrows. This is the first thing he thinks about after obtaining so much money? Paying for rent? If he wanted, he could even buy this entire building and still have plenty left.

"Ah, can you tell Xiao Hua and the others that I most likely won't be able to regroup with the other two disciples anytime soon." Yuan suddenly said.

"Huh? Why? Did something happen?"

"Yes, and it's not something I can ignore," Yuan said, and he proceeded to explain the Lan Family's situation to Meixiu.

"Demons, huh? I understand. I'll let them know when I log on tomorrow."

"Thank you," Yuan said.

"Oh, right. One more thing, Meixiu. If you need to buy something, just use the money we got from the auction. You don't need to ask me for permission."

"Are you sure? It's your money..." She said.

"What am I going to do with so much money? If we ever run out, I can just sell some more items." Yuan said.

"I understand. Thank you, Yuan."

Meixiu went to sleep shortly after cleaning up and Yuan spent the night cultivating in the real world.

Chapter 329 - Heaven Refining Physique

The following morning, Meixiu logged into the game after feeding Yuan breakfast, and she relayed to them Yuan's situation.

"As expected of the Young Master... Willingly helping these people even though they're up against demons..." Fang Yuxiang sighed with a look of admiration on her face.

Even if she was in her phoenix form and with all of her powers, she wouldn't dare to fight demons unless it was absolutely necessary.

"Tell Brother Yuan to not push himself too hard when you get the chance," Xiao Hua said to Meixiu.

"I understand."

Meanwhile, inside the Mystic Realm, Yuan went to visit the faceless statue again.

"Just who are you...?" He mumbled as he stared at the statue with a dazed look on his face.

Sometime later, Lan Yingying approached him and said, "Yuan, my grandfather has returned."

"Hm? Already? That was fast."

The two of them returned to the cabin a few minutes later.

"Hey, young man, I have returned." Grandpa Lan said to Yuan as he extended his hand with a leather pouch in his grasp.

"I have hunted every magical beast in the Divine Forest. Although there weren't many magical beasts in the first place, I have managed to obtain a couple of monster cores for you."

"Thank you very much!" Yuan accepted the leather pouch with a wide smile on his face.

"Yingying, I saved their corpses for you." Grandpa Lan then handed a spatial ring to her.

"Thank you, grandfather."

"Don't mention it. The two of us have reached our limits so it won't do us any good. However, this is also the same for those demons. Therefore, we should focus on the two of you, who can still grow." Grandpa Lan said to them.

"I'm going to consume them in a bit." Lan Yingying said.

"What about you, young man? There may not be many monster cores inside, but you won't be able to absorb all of them in two weeks. Go ahead — take a look inside."

Yuan nodded and opened the storage pouch, and 3 monster cores fell onto his palms.

"Two Spirit Master monster cores and one at the Spirit Grandmaster level." Grandpa Lan said.

"Wow, this is much better than I'd expected! Once again, thanks!"

"Hahaha... You can thank me by mating with Yingying..." Grandpa Lan said, not giving up on this matter just yet.

Sometime later, Lan Yingying went outside so that she could consume the magical beasts her grandfather brought back.

And to Yuan's surprise, over three hundred magical beasts' corpses piled up in front of the cabin, surpassing the previous mountain by at least three folds.

It took over three hundred magical beasts to obtain 3 monster cores? Yuan dreaded how many he'd need to kill in order to obtain one in the future as he grows stronger since it'll only get harder to obtain them.

While Lan Yingying consumed the magical beasts, Yuan tilted his mask and prepared to swallow the monster cores.

Grandpa Lan expressed great shock after seeing what he was trying to do, and he quickly exclaimed, "What do you think you're doing?! Don't tell me you got the urge to eat monster cores after witnessing Yingying eat the magical beasts, right?! You'll die!"

"Eh?" Lan Yingying stopped eating to see what the commotion was about.

"Young man, humans cannot consume monster cores. Even magical beasts cannot do it. Yingying is a little bit special because of her unique bloodline as a Divine Beast, and even she gets stomachaches from swallowing them." Grandma Lan shook her head.

"It's okay," said Yuan in a calm voice, and he continued, "I also have a special physique, and it allows me to consume monster cores."

Lan Yingying and her grandparents' jaw dropped from shock after hearing his words. Can he really eat monster cores? What kind of heaven-defying physique does he have?

"Here, let me show you..."

Yuan said as he tossed one of the Spirit Master monster cores into his mouth, swallowing the tiny amount of sweet liquid left behind afterward.

"Whooo..." Yuan released a deep breath after consuming the monster core.

"See? I am perfectly fine," he said to them afterward.

However, there was no response from the grandparents or Lan Yingying, as they all stared at him with a gawking expression on their faces.

They always thought Yuan to be a human being, but after witnessing him consume monster cores and breakthrough multiple realms as easy as breathing, they began to doubt whether he was really human or not. Hell, they wouldn't doubt it even if Yuan suddenly revealed to them that he was a Divine Beast this entire time.

"Y-Young man... If you don't mind me asking, what kind of physique do you have?" Grandpa Lan asked him in a trembling voice.

Yuan nodded and said, "Heaven Refining Physique."

He didn't mind telling them since he trusted them.

"H-Heaven Refining Physique?! That legendary physique?!" Grandpa Lan unconsciously took a few steps back from shock.

"You know of my physique?" Yuan asked, his interest piqued.

After taking a deep breath, Grandpa Lan nodded and said, "The Heaven Refining Physique is one of the most mythical physiques to ever exist, and if I remember correctly, the founder of the Demon Sealing Clan had this physique..."

"The founder?" Yuan raised his eyebrows. "How long ago are we talking about?"

"Many millions of years ago, I guess..." Grandpa Lan said, and he continued, "The founder of the Demon Sealing Clan was also rumored to eat demon cores, but nobody has ever confirmed it..."

Chapter 330 - Bane Of Demons

"What else do you know about the founder of the Demon Sealing Clan?" Yuan asked him, his interest piqued. Perhaps he might learn something new about his physique.

"Not much, honestly. He was a powerful man— one of the most powerful entities during his time, and he founded the Demon Sealing Clan to slay demons."

"Nobody knows his background or his motives for founding the clan, but all of the humans and even magical beasts admired him like a god. As for the demons, well, they'd run just from the mention of his name."

"What was his name?" Yuan asked.

"Unfortunately, his name has been lost to the passage of time, so nobody really knows. However, we know his nickname— Bane of Demons, Divine Paragon!"

"Divine Paragon? What a cool nickname..." Yuan mumbled, thinking how nice it would be if he also had a nickname.

Sometime later, Yuan proceeded to consume the other two monster cores.

"A limit, huh? I have never reached this so-called limit yet, so I can't really tell you." Yuan said.

"Is that so... But don't push yourself too hard." Grandpa Lan said.

"I won't," Yuan said.

After taking a deep breath, Yuan popped the last monster core into his mouth, which contained the power of a Spirit Grandmaster that is considered to be the peak of the Lower Heavens.

WHOOSH!

Yuan could feel his body gushing with spiritual energy after consuming the monster core, feeling as though many years of unused energy suddenly surge forward.

Yuan's cultivation base stopped at the ninth level.

"I didn't reach Spirit Grandmaster, but I can somehow feel it..." Yuan mumbled, feeling as though his body had grown larger from the sheer amount of power that resided within his body at this moment.

"My lord... Are you okay, young man? Do you feel any different right now? Any pain?" Grandpa Lan asked him.

Normally, one wouldn't be able to increase their cultivation base so quickly, skipping so many levels at once. If they did, it was most likely with the help of some priceless treasure, and it would only be one or two levels, not an entire realm and some more. However, even then, their body will feel uncomfortable, even pain from the overwhelming amount of spiritual energy suddenly going inside their body.

"I feel perfectly fine— actually, I feel a little full, almost like I just ate a feast, but it's spiritual energy instead of food..." Yuan said.

"You shouldn't keep so much energy inside your body for too long or it might actually harm your body. Go and release it by training your techniques." Grandpa Lan said to Yuan, and he pointed in a certain direction before continuing, "There's a training area not far from here."

"Okay, I'll go now. Thank you!" Yuan immediately began running to the training area, and compared to before, his speed almost tripped.

In just a few minutes, he arrived at this spacious area that had large boulders placed everywhere with the largest boulder as large as a ten-story building.

And without further ado, Yuan retrieved the Empyrean Overlord and began his rampage on these boulders.

[Bloody Sword Strike!]

Yuan released as much spiritual energy as he could with the technique.

Whoosh!

A strong gust of wind appeared as the Empyrean Overlord cleaved the large boulders cleanly in half, almost like a sharp knife against a piece of paper.

[Heaven Splitting Sword Strike!]

Yuan used his strongest attack on the ten-story building after cleaving a few large boulders.

The entire ground shook as a massive beam of spiritual energy released from the Empyrean Overlord and flew towards the building.

BOOM!

The entire boulder disintegrated until nothing was left in an instant, almost like Yuan had used a flamethrower on a ball of cotton.

However, the attack didn't stop at the boulder and continued flying into the distance— directly at the mountain not far away.

BOOM!

The ground shook again as the Heaven Splitting Sword Strike created a large hole in this mountain.

Meanwhile, back at the cabin, Grandpa Lan held a profound expression on his face as he stared at the hole that had suddenly appeared in this mountain at the horizon.

"Yingying, what do you think of this human?" He suddenly asked her, who was still stuffing her mouth with magical beasts.

"Yuan?" she stopped eating and asked.

"If... If you can leave this world, would you be willing to follow him, is what I'm trying to ask." Grandpa Lan spoke with a solemn look on his face.

"I-I can leave this world? Really?!"

"I won't guarantee you anything, but if you bring this human to the Mystic Pagoda, he might be able to bring you outside—it's a strong feeling I am getting right now, and my intuition is rarely wrong."

"But the demons will be attacking us soon! And he only has a month in this place!" Lan Yingying said.

"I know, which is why instead of being sitting ducks and waiting for them to prepare for the invasion, we should strike them first when they least expect it." Grandpa Lan suddenly suggested, shocking Lan Yingying.

"Once you consume all of the magical beasts and the young man gets used to his newfound strength, we'll attack."

Chapter 331 - Learning To Fly

After spending almost the entire day exhausting himself, Yuan returned to the cabin.

"Welcome back, young man. How do you feel?" Grandpa Lan said to him.

"I feel even better than before despite having less energy," Yuan said, feeling as though he'd released all of his pent-up frustration by destroying countless boulders.

"Good. Then let me tell you our plans." Grandpa Lan said, and he continued, "Instead of waiting for the demons to invade us, we're going to invade them before they're fully prepared, and we're going to do it in three days. Do you think you'll be ready by then?"

"Three days, huh? I think I will be ready." Yuan nodded.

"Great, then if you need anything until then, don't hesitate to let us know."

Sometime later, Yuan logged off for dinner.

After dinner, Yuan cultivated until the morning, reaching 6th level Spirit Warrior.

When he returned to the game, Yuan took a seat outside the cabin and began practicing his Qi Manifestation.

"This is definitely much easier now that I'm at the ninth level Spirit Master..." Yuan mumbled to himself as he manifested the spiritual inside of his body without any effort at all.

After practicing for a couple of hours, a notification appeared before him.

[You have learned Qi Manifestation]

[Qi Manifestation]

[Rank: Earth]

[Description: Allows you to release your spiritual energy outside the body and use it as a weapon.]

"Let's try this..." Yuan stood up and turned to look at a tree that was a couple of meters from him.

After taking a deep breath, he imagined his spiritual energy leaving his body and forming a fist, aiming it directly at the tree.

Boom!

Yuan's spiritual energy left his body and struck the tree a split second later, knocking the tree down.

"Wow, what a powerful technique... But how will this help me fly?"

After pondering for a moment, he went inside the cabin to find Grandpa Lan.

"Grandpa Lan, you can fly, right? Can you teach me how to fly using Qi Manifestation? I just learned it."

"You learned Qi Manifestation already? As expected of a genius..."
Grandpa Lan looked at him with slightly wide eyes, but compared to his other talents, this wasn't shocking at all.

"If you know Qi Manifestation, then you also know Qi Manipulation. Try to manipulate the spiritual energy around you and control it. Once you control it, you can alter the gravity around you, allowing you to levitate. Practice enough and you'll be able to fly."

"I understand. Thank you for the advice."

Yuan went back outside to practice flying.

Once outside, he stood there silently without moving a muscle for many minutes, almost like he'd turned into a statue.

He used Qi Manifestation and tried to manipulate the spiritual energy around him.

Once he got used to the feeling, he imagined the spiritual energy lifting his body into the air, and after many minutes of practice, he'd managed to levitate himself a couple of inches off the ground.

"What a fast learner." Grandpa Lan mumbled to himself as he watched Yuan practice from inside the cabin with his Divine Sense.

After practicing for a couple more hours, Yuan could eventually soar in the sky, albeit a little bit slow.

[You have learned Fly]

[Fly]

[Rank: Earth]

[Description: Allows you to fly in the sky. The faster you fly, the more Qi you consume.]

"Although flying is fun, I think I still like flying with a sword."

With that in mind, Yuan retrieved the Empyrean Overlord and made it levitate in the air with Qi Manifestation.

Once he got used to controlling the sword in the air, he jumped on the sword and began surfing the air for the first time without Xiao Hua's assistance.

"Hahaha! This is great!"

Yuan proceeded to fly around the Divine Forest for the next few hours until he was almost out of spiritual energy and covered in sweat.

"I can fly around perfectly right now, but I wonder what will happen once I leave the Mystic Realm and lose my current cultivation base. Will I still be able to fly around since I have already learned the skills? And how much of my current cultivation will be transferred outside?" Yuan wondered to himself as he returned to the cabin.

"Welcome back, young man." Grandpa Lan said to him when he returned.

And when he noticed Yuan's sweaty appearance, he said, "There's a small waterfall not far from here. Go clean yourself there. Do you need directions?"

Yuan shook his head and said, "I saw that during my training so I know where to go. Thank you!"

He left the cabin again shortly after and flew to this waterfall that was a couple of miles away.

"What's the matter, grandfather?" she asked him.

A large grin appeared on his face before he spoke, "The young man's cleaning himself at the waterfall. This is your chance to seduce him! Enter the water with him!"

"A-Are you serious, grandfather?" Lan Yingying looked at him with wide eyes.

"Does it look like I am joking?" Grandpa Lan responded with a serious expression.

"Old fart, don't force Yingying if she doesn't want to do it."

"Nonsense! She shares the same bloodline as me! I can tell if she likes someone or not! Tell me, Yingying— do you not like that young man? Even if you don't, it's your duty to continue our bloodline!" Grandpa Lan said to her.

After a moment of silence, Lan Yingying nodded with a solemn expression, "I understand. I'll do my best."

Meanwhile, at the waterfall that has fresh and clean water, Yuan removed his clothes and quickly rinsed them in the waterfall before hanging them on a tree nearby.

After hanging the wet clothes, he went to test the waters before jumping right inside. This is his first time washing himself at a river, and there was even a waterfall right behind him.

Chapter 332 - A Thousand Years

After hanging his clothes on a nearby tree to let them dry, Yuan entered the shallow river that barely reached his shoulders, rinsing the dried sweat off his body.

"Wow, this feels amazing!"

Maybe it was because of his body as a cultivator but the water didn't feel cold at all. It felt refreshing, resembling the feelings he'd get after a breakthrough.

After submerging himself in the water for a couple of minutes, Yuan turned to look at the waterfall and wondered what it would feel like to go under it, treating it like a shower.

"I'm a cultivator, so it should be fine, right?" Yuan mumbled to himself, a little bit worried that the waterfall might crush him to death if he went into it.

However, he won't know unless he tried it, so he approached the waterfall with care.

Once he was directly before the waterfall, Yuan stuck a finger inside the waterfall to test the pressure.

"It's not that bad..."

When he realized that he could withstand the pressure, he proceeded to insert his hand deeper into the waterfall.

"It feels very light— much lighter than it appears. Is it because of my body?"

After feeling comfortable and confident that his body could handle the waterfall, he took a few steps forward, entering the waterfall and allowing the water to pour down over his entire body.

"This feels great!"

It felt like he was being massaged by the waterfall.

Some minutes later, Yuan sensed a presence approaching the waterfall.

"Yuan, can I join you in the water?" Lan Yingying's figure could be seen in the distance and approaching his direction.

However, there was something different about her appearance, and Yuan's eyes widened with surprise when he saw her, who was completely naked at this moment.

She had a great figure with perfect portions from head to toe, pale skin that resembled snow, and on her chest were two luscious and round breasts that attracted Yuan's gaze, especially the small and elegant pink circles on her breasts. Her legs were slender and long, and between these beautiful legs was a single slit that made Yuan feel something he didn't understand.

"Miss Lan? You're also here to bathe?" Yuan asked her in a calm voice after his initial surprise.

If it was any other man in his situation, they might've gone crazy from the stimulation just at the sight of Lan Yingying's peerless body.

"Yes... I hope you don't mind," she said.

"Of course, not." Yuan quickly responded with an innocent smile on his face. "Please, join me. The water feels great and very refreshing."

Lan Yingying nodded and entered the water a moment later.

However, she didn't say anything else after entering the water.

'Grandfather told me to seduce him... But how do I do that?' Lan Yingying wondered inwardly, as nobody has ever taught her how to seduce humans before.

Furthermore, as someone who has lived in the Divine Forest for her entire life, she only knows what her family taught her as well as things she naturally learns as a Divine Beast, and none of this knowledge would help her seduce a human.

"You should come over here, " Yuan suddenly said to her, and he continued, "It feels even better under the waterfall."

Lan Yingying didn't say anything and merely nodded her head.

She slowly made her way to the waterfall, and a few moments later, she stood directly beside Yuan with the waterfall massaging their body.

After another moment of silence, Lan Yingying spoke, "Yuan, to tell you the truth, it was my grandfather who suggested I come here to seduce you. He really wants me to continue the family's legacy— to have a baby with you."

Lan Yingying felt that it was quite rude to keep such a thing hidden from him and didn't want to feel like she was lying to him, who was risking his own life to help their situation with the demons, so she told him the truth.

"Yuan, I understand why you don't want to have children, but remember, I am not human, so I am not giving birth to a human child. I am a Divine Beast; it's completely different. You can even consider it as having a pet or something."

Yuan turned to look at her with wide eyes, and after a moment of silence, he said, "Even if you say that... I don't know how to make babies. I was only taught how to play instruments and memorize songs."

"I-It's really simple!" Lan Yingying realized that she had a chance, so she quickly responded.

"I only need your blood and spiritual energy!" Lan Yingying then said.

"My blood and spiritual energy? I don't know how to make babies, but this doesn't sound right..." Yuan said with a confused look on his face.

Lan Yingying then said, "I don't know how humans make babies, but this is how we— Divine Beasts— conceive. Through blood and spiritual energy."

Yuan closed his eyes to ponder.

After a few minutes of silence, Yuan opened his eyes and said, "Okay, I'll help you."

"Really?!" Lan Yingying exclaimed.

Yuan nodded. "As you'd said, I am not really giving birth to a human child, and this is just a game..."

"T-Thank you! Let's begin immediately!"

Lan Yingying wasted no time transforming into her beast form.

"What should I do?" Yuan asked her.

"You just need to retrieve some of your blood and mix it with your spiritual energy."

"Okay, tell me when to stop."

Yuan took out the Starry Abyss and slit his palms before collecting his blood with Qi Manifestation.

"That's enough blood." Lan Yingying suddenly stopped him.

Yuan nodded and stopped draining his own blood.

"What should I do now?" Yuan asked as his own blood floated in front of him in the shape of a sphere.

"Mix it with your spiritual energy until I tell you to stop." Lan Yingying said.

Yuan followed her instructions and proceeded to mix his spiritual energy with the blood.

Slowly, his blood began glistening like there were stars living inside. A few more moments later, his blood began to solidify and clear up, almost like it was crystalizing, and it was also growing smaller in size.

"Okay, that's enough." Lan Yingying said to him once the crystalized blood was the size of his thumb.

"Here you go." Yuan handed his crystalized blood to Lan Yingying, who accepted it with her tail.

"Thank you very much for this, Yuan. I will never forget it." Lan Yingying said to him before throwing the crystal inside her mouth and eating it.

'T-This is?! What kind of blood is this?! I have never tasted anything this pure and delicious before!' Lan Yingying's eyes widened with shock a few seconds after swallowing Yuan's blood.

She then turned to look at Yuan with a weird glint in her eyes. If she wasn't a Divine Beast but an ordinary magical beast, perhaps she might've gone crazy and attacked Yuan purely because of his blood, especially when it's enhanced with his rich spiritual energy.

"Are you done?" Yuan asked her a moment later.

Lan Yingying snapped out of her daze and nodded her head.

"Yes, I should be able to conceive a child in the future."

"Do you know how long that will take?" Yuan then asked, his interest piqued.

Lan Yingying pondered for a moment before answering his question, "About a thousand years, give or take."

"Eh?" Yuan's eyes widened from surprise, and he proceeded to stare at her with a speechless look on his face.

Chapter 333 - A Cup Of Blood

"A thousand years?! Does it really take that long? I cannot even fathom living that long!" Yuan exclaimed after learning how long it'll take for Lan Yingying to give birth to their child.

"Yes, it takes a really long time for Divine Beasts such as myself to convert the 'seed' that you gave me into a child." Lan Yingying said.

And she continued, "It also differs for each species. Some Divine Beasts may need a few hundred years while some may even need a few thousand years."

"If I recall correctly, Dragons and Phoenixes require the most time for their child— about ten thousand years."

"T-Ten thousand years!?" Yuan was completely speechless.

Sometime later, Lan Yingying returned to her human form.

"Once again, thank you for impregnating me." Lan Yingying lowered her head and bowed to him afterward.

The two of them proceeded to spend some more time in the river before getting out and returning to the cabin.

"How was the waterfall? I hope you had fun." Grandpa Lan welcomed them back with a massive grin on his face.

"Yes! It was really fun! It also felt really good! Thank you for recommending that place!" Yuan said to him.

"It felt good, huh?" The smile on Grandpa Lan's face widened even more.

"Grandfather, Yuan has agreed to impregnate me, and I have already absorbed his blood." Lan Yingying said to him.

"What?" Grandpa Lan turned to look at her with wide eyes filled with shock, as he didn't expect things to go so smoothly!

"Hahaha! This is great news! Welcome to the family, young man!" Grandma Lan laughed out loud after hearing this news.

And she continued, "We're going to have a feast tonight!"

However, Grandpa Lan continued to stand there with a dazed face. Even though he was the one who encouraged it the most, he truly didn't think it would be successful.

"Since this is the case, you should definitely head to the Mystic Pagoda and try to leave this place with him." Grandpa Lan said to them a moment later.

"Huh? You want to leave the Mystic Realm?" Yuan turned to look at Lan Yingying with slightly wide eyes since this is his first time hearing about it.

"Yes. After we deal with the demons, I plan to take you to the Mystic Pagoda to see if you can open it." Lan Yingying nodded.

"Does this mean you know how I can become the master of the Mystic Realm?"

Lan Yingying shook her head.

"I see... Then I will also try my best to find a way to help you leave." Yuan said.

Sometime later, they sat around the table while Grandma Lan prepared for the feast.

"I just realized this, but you took off your mask. You're a pretty handsome fellow, and this is coming from a magical beast with different standards. Why do you feel the need to hide your appearance?" Grandpa Lan asked him.

"Ah, I'm not really hiding because of my appearance. I'm mostly hiding since there are a lot of people who want to know my identity." Yuan said.

"Understandable. You're a very talented young man. There are bound to be countless people who are interested in you." Grandpa Lan nodded.

A moment later, Lan Yingying spoke, "By the way, Yuan, I have been wondering, do you have a special bloodline or something? Your blood... It's not normal."

"What do you mean?" Grandpa Lan was the first to speak, asking for more context.

"When I tasted his blood, it gave my body an unusual sensation; it was unlike anything I have experienced before, and even my cultivation base increased a little." Lan Yingying described her experience with Yuan's blood.

"What? Is that true?" Grandpa Lan then turned to look at Yuan with his curiosity peaked.

"Young man... If you don't mind, can I have a drop of your blood? I want to confirm my suspicions." He then asked.

Yuan nodded, "I don't mind."

He then poked a small hole in his finger and retrieved a drop of his blood before handing it to Grandpa Lan with Qi Manifestation.

After dropping the blood onto his tongue, Grandpa Lan closed his eyes and silently analyzed the blood.

A moment later, he opened his eyes with disbelief written all over his face.

"My lord... You really have a bloodline that's at the very least Divine-grade... This is also my first time tasting something this exquisite." Grandpa Lan mumbled in a dazed voice.

"Yingying, quickly, give the young man some of your blood!" Grandpa Lan said.

And he continued, "As Divine Beasts, our blood has the property to awaken human bloodlines!"

However, Yuan shook his head and said, "I have already tried that— with Phoenix blood."

"Eh? You tried to awaken lock your bloodline with Phoenix blood... and it didn't work?" Grandpa Lan looked at him with wide eyes.

Yuan nodded.

"Hmm..."

After a moment of silence, Grandpa Lan continued, "Although Phoenixes are at the top of the Divine Beasts' ranking, their blood isn't as powerful when it comes to awakening human bloodlines."

"That's where we— Divine Serpents— come in. Our blood can awaken most bloodlines in existence unless you have a God-like bloodline."

"God-like bloodlines?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"Only the most powerful families in the upper heavens would have a God bloodline."

"I see... Then let's try it." Yuan nodded.

Sometime later, Lan Yingying poured her own blood into a large cup until it was completely full before handing it to Yuan.

"T-This much?" Yuan was startled by the amount of blood that was in front of him at this moment.

"You probably only had a drop of Phoenix blood, right? A human can only handle so much Divine Beast blood no matter how powerful you are. If you consume too much, it'll harm you instead. However, our bloodline is a bit unique in that aspect, as you can consume a large quantity without worrying about any harmful effects, and it'll even increase its effectiveness."

"I understand." Yuan nodded with a resolute look on his face.

He then took a deep breath before grabbing the cup of blood and chugging it down like a warrior.

After chugging the blood, Yuan could immediately feel his body heating up, similar to when he consumed Feng Yuxiang's Phoenix blood!

Chapter 334 - Awakened Bloodline

"Argh! So hot!" Yuan exclaimed as his body grew warmer and warmer until it was smoking.

"A-Are you okay?!" Lan Yingying was startled when she saw this, feeling worried that something might have gone wrong.

"Calm down, Yingying. This means his bloodline is awakening." Grandpa Lan said to her in a calm voice.

And he continued, "Endure it, young man. If you lose consciousness, your bloodline won't awaken!"

Yuan nodded before making his way outside the cabin since it was much cooler there.

Once outside, he sat on the ground in the lotus position and tried to calm down by cultivating. However, the intense heat burning his body made things extremely difficult for him to stay focused.

"Akk!"

Yuan suddenly puked out a mouthful of blood, startling Lan Yingying.

"Are you sure he will be okay, grandfather? If my blood kills him... I don't think I can continue living with such guilt..."

Grandpa Lan didn't say anything and continued to watch Yuan with a serious expression on his face.

Rumble

"Hmm?" Grandpa Lan suddenly raised his eyebrows.

"Is it just me or is the ground shaking?"

"I feel it as well." Lan Yingying confirmed.

"It's been a while since we last had an earthquake." Grandpa Lan mumbled, not thinking too much of it at first.

However, the shaking did not stop like they'd expected it to sooner or later, and it was even gradually getting stronger.

"This isn't a normal earthquake. What's happening?" Grandpa Lan frowned upon realizing that this was an abnormal phenomenon.

Meanwhile, outside the Mystic Realm, the spectators realized that the gates to the Mystic Realm were shaking.

"L-Look at the Mystic Realm! It's shaking!"

"How is that possible? I don't feel any earthquakes!"

"Something must have happened inside the Mystic Realm!"

Upon closer inspection, they realized that the participants inside the Mystic Realm were experiencing an earthquake.

Senior Nie and the others from the Spirit Heaven frowned at this phenomenon, as they have never heard of the Mystic Realm acting like this before.

"Does anyone know what is happening?" One of the crystal balls asked.

"I have never heard of this before." One of them responded.

"Brother Yuan..." Xiao Hua mumbled his name in a low voice as she looked at the entrance to the Mystic Realm.

Inside the Mystic Realm, as the earthquake grew stronger, the people in that world began to worry that it might be the end of the world and that the Mystic Realm itself was collapsing, causing people to panic.

"What's going on?!" Grandma Lan stopped her cooking and went outside to see if they knew anything.

"We also have no idea what's going on right now." Grandpa Lan said.

"Hopefully it's nothing serious—"

"Ahhh!"

Yuan suddenly began screaming in a painful voice, and as though the world resonated with his pain, the earthquake shook even fiercer.

"T-This is... It can't be!" Grandpa Lan stared at Yuan with a dazed look on his face.

"Surely, he's not causing this earthquake from trying to awaken his bloodline, right?!"

"What?! Yuan's the cause of this earthquake?!" Lan Yingying exclaimed.

"I don't know yet, but there's a good chance, especially since it started shortly after he started awakening his bloodline. However, what kind of bloodline could possibly cause such a phenomenon?" Grandpa Lan mumbled.

"R-Royal-grade? How is that possible?" Yuan stared at his bloodline with disbelief on his face.

The lowest quality of bloodlines was Royal-grade and definitely below Divine-grade, but if that was the case, Feng Yuxiang's Phoenix blood should've been able to awaken it, so why does his bloodline show Royal-grade? Could it be a bug in the system? Or is there something special about this bloodline that he has yet to understand?

Once Yuan awakened his bloodline, the earthquake in the Mystic Realm also came to a halt.

"A-Are you okay, Yuan?!" Lan Yingying approached him with a worried look on her face.

"Yes... I am fine, thank you..." Yuan nodded his head, which was dripping with sweat.

"Thank the lord..." Lan Yingying released a deep sigh of relief to know that her blood didn't harm him.

"How about it, young man? Did you manage to awaken your bloodline?" Grandpa Lan asked him a moment later.

"Yes, I did. However... It's Royal-grade."

"What? Royal-grade? How is that possible? I tasted the blood myself! There's no way such powerful blood could only be Royal-grade!" Grandpa Lan expressed the same disbelief as Yuan after hearing the news.

"Can I taste your blood again just to make sure?" Grandpa Lan asked him.

Yuan nodded and quickly gave him a few drops of his own blood.

After tasting the blood, Grandpa Lan became even more puzzled, "I have tasted Royal-grade Bloodlines before, and this is definitely not Royal-grade."

"I-Is that so..." Yuan mumbled, believing this to be a bug in the game more and more.

Meanwhile, somewhere in this boundless universe, an old man with an ancient and timeless aura sat before a seemingly ordinary but massive jade tablet that had the word 'Destiny' carved into it, looking like he'd been in the same position for countless years.

The jade tablet that was almost a hundred times the old man's size suddenly began to glow, and the engraved word 'Destiny' began glowing golden.

The old man opened his eyes to look at the jade tablet with a sentimental feeling in his gaze.

"Alas... you have finally returned to us..."

The old man stood up a moment later and immediately knelt onto the ground before the jade tablet, kowtowing to it.

"Welcome back, Master... The Nine Heavens will soon tremble before your might once again... and for the final time..."

Chapter 335 - Immortal Bloodlines

After kowtowing to the jade tablet for a couple of minutes, the old man stood up and patted his robes before turning around and walking away from the place.

"This subordinate will come to get you as soon as possible, Master..."

Meanwhile, back inside the Mystic Realm, Yuan sat around the table with the Lan Family as they began their feast.

"Good lord, you appear to have a bigger appetite than even us, Divine Beasts!" Grandma Lan exclaimed when Yuan displayed his eating talents before their very eyes for the first time.

"Hahaha! At this rate, you'll even eat our portions! Well, eat all you want! You're going to need all your strength when fighting the demons." Grandpa Lan said to him.

Sometime later, after the feast, Lan Yingying turned to look at Yuan and asked him, "Your bloodline awakened, right? Do you know what kind of bloodline you have?"

Yuan nodded and said, "Something called Immortal Monarch Bloodline."

"Pft!"

Grandpa Lan directly spat out the tea in his mouth after hearing Yuan's words.

"I-Immortal?! You have an Immortal bloodline?!" He looked at Yuan with disbelief in his gaze.

"There's no way an Immortal's bloodline could possibly be Royal-grade! I am certain about this now!" Grandpa Lan said.

"What's an Immortal's bloodline?" Yuan asked him.

"Immortal bloodlines are special bloodlines that can only be passed down by true Immortals in the highest realms at the upper heavens, and these bloodlines usually have heaven-defying powers that can turn even a normal human into a peak cultivation prodigy!" Grandpa Lan explained everything he knew about Immortal bloodlines.

"To tell you the truth, I don't know much about Immortals or Immortal bloodlines except that they are incredibly rare and powerful. If you have an Immortal bloodline, then you're definitely a descendant of a very powerful Cultivator."

"I see... Thank you for the information."

After the feast, Yuan logged off the game and waited for Meixiu to finish preparing dinner.

In the meantime, Yuan tried to see if there was any change to his body after consuming Lan Yingying's Divine Beast blood and awakening his bloodline.

However, he didn't feel any different than before his bloodline's awakening.

Sometime later, Meixiu went into his room with dinner.

"Yuan, did you feel the earthquake inside the Mystic Realm today?" Meixiu asked him.

"Eh? There was an earthquake? I didn't notice it..." Yuan said, as he was too focused on awakening his bloodline to notice the massive earthquake.

"The gates to the Mystic Realm suddenly began shaking yesterday, and it caused quite the stir among the spectators."

"I see..."

"You know the crazy part? Apparently, there was also an earthquake in this world sometime this afternoon. It was all over the news." Meixiu said.

"Wow, what a coincidence," Yuan mumbled.

After dinner, Meixiu went to sleep whilst Yuan went to cultivate.

However, for some reason, he felt extremely tired that night, falling asleep a few minutes later.

Furthermore, he had a dream that night— a weird dream where he stood before a massive jade tablet that was as large as a small mountain, and there was the word 'Destiny' engraved into this jade tablet.

"Geezer, I'm going to do it one last time."

An unfamiliar voice came from Yuan's mouth as he spoke— or more specifically, the body he was in spoke.

"How long do you think it'll take this time, Master?" An old voice resounded behind him.

And without turning around, the body Yuan was in spoke, "Who knows. It could be a thousand years from now. It could be a hundred thousand years from now. Hell, it could even be a million years. However, the moment this jade tablet glows, it means I have returned."

"This subordinate will wait for your return no matter how many millennia it may take," said the old voice.

After a moment of silence, the old voice returned, "Master, this may be out of my line, but do you intend on telling 'her' about your departure?"

"I don't..." He immediately responded, and he continued, "I'm sure that she'll be angry at me for keeping her in the dark about this, but I don't want to disturb her cultivation. She's very close to becoming a true Immortal, and any distractions might take that away from her."

"Geezer, if she makes a scene, just let her know what I told you— that I will be back for you guys no matter what."

"Anyways, I'm going to leave now. I'll see you later, Geezer."

It was at this point of the dream when Yuan woke up.

'What a weird dream...' He thought to himself.

However, despite this being his first time experiencing such a dream, he felt oddly nostalgic, almost like he'd seen that exact scene before.

Furthermore, he realized that his limbs became more responsive in the morning, allowing him to move his fingers with less effort. If he tried, he could even lift his arm and legs a little off the bed!

Yuan was filled with excitement by this change, and his anticipation for the future grew some more.

Sometime later, Meixiu entered his room to do her daily routine.

"Yuan, let's give you a wash before you play," Meixiu said to him, as it has been some time since she last cleaned him.

"Okay," Yuan said.

Inside the bathroom, whilst Meixiu scrubbed his body down with her soapy hands, Yuan suddenly spoke, "Meixiu, do you know how to make babies?"

"Eh?"

Meixiu nearly slipped on the wet floor after hearing Yuan's sudden question.

"B-Babies? Why are you asking?" She responded in a stiff voice with her face heating up quickly.

"Well, I was in this situation that required me to make babies. However, that person was not human, so the methods were a bit unique, and I have been curious about it since then." Yuan revealed his experience in the Mystic Realm to Meixiu, greatly shocking her.

"D-Did you do it? Make babies with this person, I mean..." Meixiu decided to ask him.

"Yes, I did." Yuan calmly responded, and he continued, "She's a Divine Beast, so it'll take a thousand years for her to give birth— at least that's what she told me."

"..."

Meixiu became speechless after hearing Yuan confirm that he had indeed impregnated another entity in the game!

Chapter 336 - How To Make Babies

"L-Let me get this straight... You impregnated an NPC in the game?"
Meixiu asked again just in case.

"That's what she told me," Yuan responded in a calm voice, not thinking too much about it.

"Heavens..." Meixiu mumbled in a dazed voice. She cannot imagine how Yu Rou would react once she learns of this.

'Perhaps it would be better if I don't tell her... for her own sake...' Meixiu thought to herself.

After a moment of silence, she said, "Yuan... I know the Yu Family didn't teach you this, but you really shouldn't impregnate women so easily, especially if you just met them."

"I know that, but these people are really nice, and I really wanted to help them," Yuan said.

"Let's continue this talk after this. My mother will kill me if you catch a cold because I didn't take care of you properly."

"Okay."

Thus, Meixiu continued to clean Yuan's body, but her heart felt heavier than usual, almost like there were invisible chains weighing it down.

'It's just an NPC so it should be fine... And it's only a game...' Meixiu thought to herself as she moved her hands to the thing between Yuan's legs.

'Making babies, huh? I guess it's about time he learns about these kinds of things...'

Because the Yu Family only cared about his musical talents, they didn't want anything that wasn't music-related to enter his brain, and that included common sense for even the basic things in life.

After all, the less common sense Yuan had, the easier it was for them to control him and trick him.

As for things regarding the opposite sex, that never even crossed the Yu Family's mind. Of course, Yu Rou taught him some common sense, but she wanted Yuan to remain innocent and pure for as long as possible, so she purposefully avoided talking about these kinds of things.

After cleaning Yuan's body, she brought him back to his room where she dried his body some more and changed his clothes.

"You want to learn how to make babies, right?" Meixiu asked him afterward.

"Yes."

"Well, first and foremost, you need to understand the importance of having babies with another individual. Having a baby isn't something you can take lightly, Yuan, as it will affect you for the rest of your life. Luckily, it only happened inside the game, but if it was the real world, you will have a lot of responsibility to bear."

"Furthermore, you should only have babies with your significant other—someone you care enough about that you wouldn't mind spending the rest of your life with them," Meixiu said to him.

Hearing Meixiu's words, Yuan suddenly spoke, "So someone like you?"

"Eh?"

Meixiu was at a loss for words after hearing Yuan's words that took her completely by surprise and also made her body shiver.

And Yuan suddenly continued, "I wouldn't mind spending the rest of my life with you, Meixiu. Does this make you my significant other?"

"W-Well... N-Not exactly..." Meixiu responded in a trembling voice.

"Having a significant other requires an agreement between two people that want to be with each other. You cannot just call someone your significant other because you want to be with them." Meixiu explained to him.

"I see..." Yuan mumbled.

"Anyways, now that you know not to have a baby with every female you meet, let's talk about the process of making babies."

After taking a deep breath, Meixiu continued, "In order to make babies, a man needs to connect bodies with a female, or more specifically, use the thing between their legs to connect with the female's body."

"What! You can use that thing to make babies?! I thought it was only for peeing!" Yuan exclaimed in a truly surprised tone after learning this revelation.

"It's actually a little more complicated than that, but yes, that's the gist of it... And such an act is called... having sex..." Meixiu said, somehow managing to keep a straight face as she educated Yuan on this kind of topic.

"Anyways, this is the basics of having babies. Do you have any questions?" Meixiu said to him.

"This is just the basics? Heavens, I never knew it would be so complicated." Yuan mumbled.

And he continued, "Thank you for telling me, Meixiu. I have learned a lot today, and it's just the beginning of the day."

"Don't mention it... You would've learned it sooner or later even without me, anyway." Meixiu said.

Sometime later, Meixiu returned to her room after helping Yuan enter the game.

'He doesn't mind spending the rest of his life with me, huh?'

A warm smile appeared on Meixiu's beautiful face as she placed the helmet on her head.

After entering the game, Meixiu looked at Feng Yuxiang and spoke to her, "Feng Feng, I have a question."

"What is it?"

"How do Divine Beasts make babies? And can they really mate with humans?" Meixiu asked her, as this has been on her mind ever since Yuan told her about it.

"W-What? Why are you asking me such questions?" Feng Yuxiang looked at her with wide eyes.

"I'm... I'm just curious..." Meixiu said.

"Well... Different species have different methods of mating with each other, but in general, most Divine Beasts only require blood and spiritual energy to conceive a child." Feng Yuxiang said a moment later.

"Is this the same with humans?"

Feng Yuxiang nodded, "That's right. Divine Beasts can indeed mate with humans, but such a situation is very rare since most Divine Beasts see humans as inferior beings."

After a moment of silence, Meixiu continued to ask, "What happens if a human and a Divine Beast mate with each other like humans do— by having sex? Can they conceive that way?"

Feng Yuxiang's jaw dropped after hearing Meixiu's question. Why was she asking such weird questions? Is this related to the Young Master?

"If a human and Divine Beast have... ahem... sex... It's usually only for pleasure, as it's more efficient to mate using blood and spiritual energy since it's always almost guaranteed to impregnate them." Feng Yuxiang said to her.

"I see..." Meixiu mumbled, realizing that she might have misunderstood Yuan because of his lack of context.

Meanwhile, the others were completely baffled by their conversation that was completely random and out of place.

Chapter 337 - Abandoned Valley

Inside the Mystic Realm, Yuan and the Lan Family gathered outside the cabin.

"We're going to invade the demons today. Are you all prepared?" Grandpa Lan asked them.

Once everyone there nodded, Grandpa Lan continued, "I'll carry all of you in my beast form."

A moment later, he transformed into a massive white serpent, and compared to Lan Yingying, he was at least ten times larger— large enough to wrap around an entire mountain with ease!

Yuan was slightly surprised to see Grandpa Lan's beast form, but compared to the Great One that was literally countless times larger than a star, it wasn't too shocking.

When everyone jumped onto his back, Grandpa Lan suddenly levitated off the ground and began slithering in the air!

A flying snake— it was a sight to behold.

"L-Look at the sky! What on earth is that?!" One of the participants— a player stared at the sky in shock as he witnessed a massive snake slithering through the clouds like a dragon!

"Heavens! Is that a dragon?!"

Many of the participants mistook Grandpa Lan as a dragon.

"No, that's a serpent! It's a magical beast! But I have never seen anything like that before!"

"Since it's flying it must be at least a Spirit Grandmaster, right?! There are such powerful beings in the Mystic Realm?!"

Half of the participants in the Mystic Realm saw the flying serpent in the sky because of Grandpa Lan's massive size and the distance they traveled.

Of course, the spectators outside the Mystic Realm also saw the massive snake in the sky.

"What kind of magical beast is that? I don't recall ever seeing such a magical beast before in the Mystic Realm." Senior Nie asked the people on the other side of the crystal balls.

"No idea. I don't remember seeing such a magical beast before, either."

"Well, the Mystic Realm is still filled with mysteries even though we've explored it many times."

"Actually... Rumor has it that there exists a Divine Beast somewhere within the Mystic Realm... Could that be it?" One of them suddenly said.

"What? A Divine Beast? As if that's possible!" Another voice scoffed.

A couple of hours later, Grandpa Lan landed in a desolate area and transformed back to his human form.

"We're going to be traveling by foot here since we don't want to alert the demons that are hiding deep within the Abandoned Valley just yet." He said to them.

As they walked, Grandpa Lan continued, "Once we confront the demons, I will be dealing with the Demon Lord, leaving the other three demons in your hands. I'd like to take on another one, but I'll have my hands full with just the Demon Lord."

"I can take care of two demons by myself since they're nowhere near as powerful as the Demon Lord. Young man, Yingying, the both of you will take care of the last one. Once you deal with that one, I'll need you to help me kill the other two demons since I don't have the ability to kill them." Grandma Lan said.

The two of them nodded.

"Yuan, I'll distract the demon while you strike it with your demon sealing technique. They have no idea that you know such a technique, and we're going to use that fact to our advantage." Lan Yingying said to him.

"Okay." Yuan nodded

After navigating through the dead valley for another three hours, they reached the deepest parts of the valley.

"It's weird how we haven't run into any magical beasts," Yuan mumbled.

"That's because the demons hunted them all." Grandpa Lan said.

"Demons don't care if they are humans or magical beasts— they will hunt them as long as it increases their cultivation. Hell, they will even hunt other demons if necessary."

"Their aggressive nature and insatiable hunger for strength is the main reason they're a danger to all living beings and why they were eventually hunted."

"How are demons born?" Yuan suddenly asked.

"Honestly, I can't tell you since I don't know. Demons have been around since ancient times and not much is known about them. Perhaps you'll find such information in the upper heavens, but in the Lower Heavens, I doubt anyone knows."

"I see..."

Sometime later, Grandpa Lan said, "I can sense them."

And he continued, "However, they can also sense us. I'm going to distract the Demon Lord first."

After saying such words, Grandpa Lan turned into his beast form and immediately flew into the sky.

"Hahaha! I didn't think you'd come here on your own accord, sparing us the effort of breaking into the Divine Forest!" A deep voice filled with malice suddenly echoed, followed by a powerful aura that immediately made the atmosphere suffocating.

A moment later, Yuan could see the figure emitting this powerful aura flying towards Grandpa Lan in the skies.

"That's the Demon Lord?" Yuan mumbled with a dazed look.

This demon looked almost like the demon he defeated, except that he was much more muscular and the red crystal in its chest was much larger and had a deeper color than the previous demon. Of course, it was also much more powerful and more dangerous.

This Demon Lord reminded him of someone— that red-haired cultivator who was fighting in the skies right before Xiao Hua became his servant—the same person he learned the Bloody Sword Strike from, as they both emitted an evil-feeling aura.

A moment later, three more demons could be seen flying in the sky, but they were not looking at Grandpa Lan. Instead, their gazes were directly on Yuan and the others.

"You brought a human here to assist you? Hahaha! How desperate are you?!" The three demons laughed for a moment before landing a few meters away from them, each of them emitting an aura more powerful than the demon Yuan killed previously.

"It's been many years since I last tasted human blood! How fortunate! I'll take care of the human and the little princess! The two of you can take care of that granny!" The demon in the center spoke with a massive grin on its face.

"Make sure to save some of that human's blood for us, and try not to kill the little princess. The Lord would like to have some fun with her before chewing on her meat and drinking her blood." Another demon said.

"Yuan... follow me..." Lan Yingying suddenly mumbled to Yuan.

Once Yuan nodded his head, Lan Yingying turned around and began running away. Seeing this, Yuan also turned around and followed her.

"Where the hell do you think you're running off to when you were the ones who came here first, you little shits?!"

The demon standing in the front immediately began chasing after Yuan and Lan Yingying.

Grandma Lan didn't even bother to block this demon and allowed it to chase after them.

When the other two demons saw this, their eyebrows raised.

Grandma Lan smiled and said, "They don't need my help. What's more, I already have my hands full with you little demons..."

After saying that, she transformed into a large serpent with green scales that resembled jade.

"What are you going to do?"

"Even if we cannot defeat you, you won't be able to kill us either."

The two demons chuckled after seeing Grandma Lan transform.

Meanwhile, in the skies, the Demon Lord spoke as it hovered before Grandpa Lan, "Do you really believe that you'll be able to defeat us because you attacked us before we attacked you? Because we're not prepared?"

And it continued, "Did you already forget what happened last time you tried to invade us by surprise? You lost your son and his partner. This time, you'll lose your wife, your granddaughter, and your own life!"

After a moment of silence, Grandpa Lan spoke, "I remember very well what happened. Their death was unfortunate, but we'd managed to reduce your kind by more than half. This time... we're going to kill all of you and clean up the Mystic Realm."

The smile on the Demon Lord's face immediately turned upside down after hearing Grandpa Lan's words, and it spoke in a grim voice, "Let me see you try!"

Boom!

The Demon Lord exploded with a massive aura, and it rushed at Grandpa Lan.

"Sacred Fire!"

Grandpa Lan opened his mouth and spat out fire flames at the Demon Lord.

"Scatter!"

The Demon Lord used its bare hands to punch the white flames, causing it to scatter all over the place and making it rain small fireballs all over the place.

Thus, the Demon Lord began fighting Grandpa Lan in the skies.

Meanwhile, Lan Yingying and Yuan continued to run away until they were many miles away from the others.

"How long do you plan on running for?! Did you come all the way here just to abandon those old people?!" The demon shouted at them as it chased after them.

A few more minutes later, Lan Yingying finally stopped running and turned around.

"We can stop now, Yuan."

The demon also came to a sudden halt and stared at them with narrowed eyes, wondering what they're planning.

'Yuan, I'm going to distract it as planned. Strike it with your sealing technique when you see the chance,' Lan Yingying said to him using Divine Sense.

Yuan nodded his head.

After taking a deep breath, Lan Yingying turned into her beast form and immediately rushed at the demon.

"Oh? You're going to attack me by yourself? Did you bring that human just to spectate?" The demon was surprised when Yuan stayed behind whilst Lan Yingying attacked it alone.

Pap!

Lan Yingying used her tail like a whip, attacking the demon with it and cracking the air on impact.

The demon didn't even bother to avoid the attack and merely used its arms to block it.

Boom!

The demon was sent flying off into the distance from the impact, but it didn't sustain any injuries in the end.

"Haha! Come at me! Entertain me for a bit before I kill that human!"

The demon and Lan Yingying began attacking each other, quickly turning the scene into a mess.

"Little princess, your parents were a treat. My body still trembles when I recall how delicious their meat tasted. I wonder how you'll taste..." The demon licked its lips, treating its fight with Lan Yingying as a joke, almost like it was playing around with her.

"Shut up!" Lan Yingying's attacks immediately grew more aggressive, clearly agitated by the demon's words.

"Ahaha! Are you angry, little princess?! Do you want to kill me?! Unfortunately, you don't have the power to kill me! And in just a moment, you'll witness those two old bastards enter our stomachs!"

The demon continued to provoke Lan Yingying.

A few minutes later, once the demon was fully absorbed in fighting Lan Yingying, it forgot about Yuan's seemingly insignificant presence.

"Sacred Fire!" Lan Yingying opened her mouth and released a torrent of white flames at the demon, who didn't even bother to dodge it.

"You don't learn, do you?! You won't be able to injure me with such weak flames, much less kill me!"

The demon patted the white flames off its body as though it was mere dust.

"I've spent enough time messing with you. I would love to eat you right here and now, but alas, the Demon Lord would kill me if I do, so I'll have to endure not it and not kill you—"

The demon suddenly stopped talking when it felt something pierce its body, causing it to look down.

"Huh?"

The demon raised its eyebrows when it saw a huge sword piercing its body from the back.

It turned around to look at the masked figure standing behind it with an annoyed expression on its face, and it spoke in a calm voice, "What the fuck do you think you're doing, human? You should've run away when you had the chance. I had even forgotten about you since your presence is akin to an ant."

However, Yuan didn't say anything and merely pulled the Empyrean Overlord out of the demon's body and took a few steps back.

"Hmph! What a joke. As if such a toy could injure me!" The demon looked at Yuan with clear disdain on its face.

"Are you sure about that?" Yuan spoke as he pointed to the demon's body.

"What?"

The demon looked down, and to its surprise, the hole in its body wasn't regenerating at all! In fact, it was even turning into stone!

"W-What the heck is happening?! What the fuck did you do to me just now, human?!" The demon roared at Yuan with veins all over its face.

Yuan shrugged and said, "It was nothing much— just a demon sealing technique."

"A what?!" The demon was shocked after hearing Yuan's words.

Once it realized the situation, it roared in anger, "Damn you, human! You must be from the Demon Sealing Clan! What is someone like you doing here?!"

Unlike the demon Yuan previously sealed, this demon was still able to move and release its aura after being struck by the Demon Sealing Strike, most likely because it was much more powerful than the previous demon.

However, the petrifying effect was still spreading, and it appeared to be spreading much quicker than before. After all, Yuan was also much stronger than before.

"Fuck, fuck, fuck! I curse you, human! I curse you, Demon Sealing Clan—"

Alas, the demon wasn't able to finish its last sentence before being sealed by the Demon Sealing Strike.

"Yuan, let's leave this demon alone for now so we can help my grandparents. We can finish it off afterward." Lan Yingying said to him.

And she continued, "This way, we won't alert the other demons. Once sealed, they won't be able to move for at least a few hundred years."

Yuan nodded, and they proceeded to return to Grandma Lan's side.

Chapter 339 - Key To Mystic Pagoda

Crack

Pap

Boom!

Grandma Lan used her tail like a whip, sending the demons flying whenever they tried to get close to her.

"Did you come here just to play around?! As if such weak attacks could kill us!" The demons would return to her no matter how many times they were sent flying by her tail.

However, Grandma Lan ignored them and continued to buy time for Yuan and Lan Yingying, as they were her only hope in killing them.

In the sky, Grandpa Lan and the Demon Lord also exchanged hundreds of blows with each other in just a few minutes.

"Old snake, you guys lost your chance to kill us off when that damn human failed to kill us hundreds of thousands of years ago! Even if your bloodline continues for many generations, you will never be able to defeat us!" The Demon Lord laughed out loud.

The demons were the oldest entities in the Mystic Realm, as they have survived for hundreds of thousands of years— even before the Lord became the master of the Mystic Realm. However, despite living for so long, their cultivation hasn't improved by much, mostly because they can only grow so much with the limited amount of spiritual energy in the Mystic Realm, hence why they want to break out of the Mystic Realm so badly— so that they can continue to grow.

No matter how much time they're given, if they do not have enough spiritual energy for a breakthrough, their cultivation will remain unchanging.

"Once we take care of your family, we'll kill all of the humans in this damned world! Eventually, we'll find a way to enter the Mystic Pagoda and open the seal that has locked us in this world for far too long!"

"Hahaha! You want to leave the Mystic Realm? In your dreams, Demon Lord! Even if you manage to kill all of us, you'll never be able to enter the Mystic Pagoda! Do you know why? Because you don't have the key! Hahaha!"

"Key? What are you talking about?!" The Demon Lord immediately frowned, as this is its first time hearing about a key being required to open the Mystic Realm.

"You want to know? Too bad! That's as much as you'll know about the Mystic Pagoda!" Grandpa Lan laughed.

In truth, Grandpa Lan didn't know anything about the Mystic Pagoda, and he'd only mentioned a 'key' just to mess with the Demon Lord.

Of course, the Demon Lord didn't think it was being lied to as what Grandpa Lan said was quite logical.

"Tell me about this damn key!!!"

The Demon Lord roared, its aura increasing to a whole new level as it started getting serious.

"Make me!"

Grandpa Lan's aura also rose.

When their auras collided, it created an immense pressure in the area that made the dead trees sink a little deeper into the ground.

Meanwhile, at Grandma Lan's area, when the demons noticed the Demon Lord getting serious, they also turned serious.

"Looks like it's about time we stop playing around and kill you once and for all."

The demons emitted an ominous aura that caused the dirt around them to turn black.

"No matter how many times you attack us, we won't die. Why don't you just give up and let us give you a painful death? Or, you can struggle and we'll eat you alive."

However, a mysterious smile appeared on Grandma Lan's face, and she spoke, "Indeed, we should probably end this."

"Blood Spear!"

The demons summoned a red spear using their blood.

"Get her!"

Just as the demons prepared to attack Grandma Lan, one of the demons felt an immense pressure suddenly appeared behind it, causing it to stop and turn around.

"What?"

The demon mumbled in a dumbfounded voice as a figure wearing a black mask swung the massive sword in his hand horizontally, slicing its body in half.

"Where the fuck did this human come from? And what happened to the one chasing after him?" The other demon was as surprised when it realized that its partner had been attacked out of the blue. However, the demon wasn't worried about its partner, as it was confident that such a minor injury wouldn't be able to kill it.

As for the demon sliced in half, it frowned when it realized that its body wasn't regenerating.

"What's going on?!" The demon exclaimed a moment later.

However, Yuan didn't respond to it and turned his attention to the second demon.

"I admire your guts for returning to his place, but it was a foolish choice, human! This is not a battle you can just enter as you please! You don't qualify to stand on the same battlefield as us!" The demon shouted as it tossed the spear in its grasp at Yuan.

Yuan immediately used his movement technique to dodge the spear before approaching the demon.

"Haha! What are you going to do with that sword—" The demon's eyes widened with shock when it finally paid some attention to the Empyrean Overlord in Yuan's grasp.

However, before it could even continue, Yuan stabbed the sword in-between its chest.

Meanwhile, the other demon that had its body sliced in half was turning into stone.

"Ahh! What is going on?! What is happening to my body?!" The demon cried out loud.

"T-This is—! A sealing technique?!" The second demon was shocked to see this, and it looked down at the sword in its chest with a fearful expression.

"D-Don't tell me..."

Yuan didn't say anything and pulled the sword out of its body, letting the petrifying effect spread throughout its body.

"You came back faster than I'd anticipated, young man, just like the first time." Grandma Lan said to him with a smile on her face.

"I'm sorry I couldn't return faster," Yuan said.

"Fuck! My body! Why?! Why is someone from the Demon Sealing Clan here?! And that sword! You must be—!" The two demons looked at Yuan with fear in their eyes, something they haven't experienced since the Lord left the Mystic Realm.

Meanwhile, in the air, the Demon Lord noticed something was amiss and turned to look at the ground where Yuan and the others were.

When it noticed Yuan and the Empyrean Overlord in his hands, the Demon Lord's eyes widened with shock, and it roared in a spiteful voice, "That sword! Impossible! You— You have returned?!"

Chapter 340 - The Lord's Sword

"What are you talking about?" Grandpa Lan looked at the Demon Lord with a puzzled expression.

However, the Demon Lord completely ignored Grandpa Lan and continued to stare at Yuan's figure with disbelief.

"A mask! That sword! After so many years, you have finally decided to return to the Mystic Realm— Lord!" A massive smile appeared on the Demon Lord's face, but there was also a hint of fear in its eyes.

"What?!" Grandpa Lan exclaimed in a shocked voice when he heard the Demon Lord addressed Yuan as 'Lord'.

"I won't forget the humiliation you had put me through on that day no matter how many years passes, Lord!" The Demon Lord suddenly flew towards Yuan's location.

"Watch out!" Grandpa Lan shouted loudly to warn Yuan and the others of the Demon Lord's presence.

"Huh?" Yuan turned around at Grandpa Lan's voice, and to his surprise, the Demon Lord in the sky was flying in their direction!

BOOM!

The Demon Lord punched Yuan with all of its might, as it didn't want to risk this chance to take him by surprise.

Luckily for Yuan, Grandpa Lan had warned him right before the Demon Lord made his strike, giving him a split second to react and protect himself with the Empyrean Overlord.

However, the impact was an entirely different matter, and Yuan was sent flying many meters away, crashing into trees and destroying them with his back.

Yuan managed to stabilize himself after flying about two hundred meters.

Cough

He coughed up a mouthful of blood afterward.

'What a powerful strike! If I hadn't blocked that attack, I would've probably died just now!' Yuan's body trembled at that thought, yet his eyes didn't have even a hint of fear within them.

Instead, it flickered with excitement, as he has never been pushed to such an extent before.

"Yuan! Are you okay?!" Lan Yingying quickly approached him.

"Yes, I'm fine." Yuan nodded.

"Yuan? Wait a second, you're not the Lord. Who are you? And where did you get that sword?" The Demon Lord finally noticed Yuan's cultivation base that was too low to be the Lord and stopped its assault.

A second later, both grandparents stood between Yuan and the Demon Lord.

"If that young man was the Lord, he would've killed you as easily as breathing!" Grandpa Lan said.

"Then he must be a descendant of the Lord! After all, that sword in his hand belongs to the Lord!" The Demon Lord revealed, as it will never forget the devastation that sword had caused the demons.

"What?! Really?!"

The Lan Family expressed shock upon learning this since even they didn't know that the sword in Yuan's hand once belonged to the Lord!

'Is that why I felt some sort of connection to it?' Lan Yingying finally realized why she was attracted to the sword. It turned out to be the Lord's sword.

"So the Sword Emperor is the Lord?" Yuan mumbled.

Does this mean the Sword Emperor is dead? After all, Feng Yuxiang mentioned that she found the Empyrean Overlord in a Legacy Tomb, where powerful cultivators leave their legacy behind because they are close to death.

"That's not possible—he cannot be the Lord's descendant! We have already tested his blood!" Grandpa Lan said.

The Demon Lord turned to look at the two demons that had been sealed by Yuan.

"Then you must be someone from the Demon Sealing Clan that's also affiliated with the Lord. In any case, I cannot and will not let you leave this place alive." It glared at him with a bloodthirsty gaze.

"Blood Sword!"

The Demon Lord summoned its weapon using its own blood.

"Even if there are four of you, it won't be enough to kill me, especially if the Lord isn't with you." The Demon Lord began approaching them with its aura growing stronger and stronger.

"Young man, we're going to distract it while you look for the opportunity to strike it with the demon sealing strike," Grandpa Lan said to him.

"Okay." Yuan nodded.

"Let's go, grandma. Yingying, you stay behind. There's nothing you can do here."

Even though Lan Yingying didn't want to admit it, she truly did not qualify to be in this battle.

A few seconds later, both of the grandparents went to attack the Demon Lord.

"Hahaha! Are you trying to distract me while that human waits for the chance to seal me? I am not as foolish as the other demons!" The Demon Lord laughed out loud as it began fighting the two snakes.

And whenever it had the chance, it would throw an attack at Yuan to let him know that it was keeping track of him.

"I'm going to fight it." Yuan suddenly said after some time.

"What? You can't! The Demon Lord is on another level! You won't be able to get close to him, much less attack him!" Lan Yingying said.

"Perhaps not at my current level, but if I increase my cultivation somehow..." Yuan spoke as he turned to look at the sealed demons not far away from them.

"What do you plan on doing?" Lan Yingying asked him.

"I'm going to kill them and eat their demon cores..." Yuan replied, shocking her.

"Are you serious?!" She looked at him with wide eyes.

Yuan nodded, "If it's true that the founder of the Demon Sealing Clan was able to eat demon cores, I should be able to do the same since I have the same physique."

"But that's just a rumor— a legend! Demon cores are completely different from monster cores! It's too dangerous" Lan Yingying said.

"It may be risky, but we won't know unless I try it." Yuan said, and he continued, "Don't worry, I have a feeling that everything will work out just fine."

Lan Yingying opened her mouth, but alas, she decided to not say anything and let him try to eat the demon cores.

A moment later, Yuan pointed the Empyrean Overlord at the sealed demons and took a deep breath, preparing to use the Heaven Splitting Sword Strike on them.

Chapter 341 - Perfect Regeneration

"What do you think you're doing?!" The Demon Lord immediately noticed Yuan gathering his spiritual energy, clearly preparing for an attack, and it immediately rushed at him.

However, the grandparents also went to block its path.

"You think you can just ignore us?"

Pap!

Grandpa Lan slapped the Demon Lord with its powerful tail, sending it further away from Yuan.

"Get out of my way—" Just as the Demon Lord roared, Yuan released the Heaven Splitting Sword Strike, completely missing the Demon Lord.

"Hahaha! Where the hell are you aiming?" The Demon Lord laughed in a slightly nervous tone afterward, as it felt the immense power within the strike released by Yuan just now.

'If that thing had hit me, I would've been in danger! This human is truly too dangerous to be left alive! Luckily, this human doesn't have any control over it!' The Demon Lord cried inwardly, thinking that Yuan had only missed because he doesn't have full control over the technique.

However, it suddenly noticed that Yuan wasn't even paying attention to it. Instead, he went to where the sealed demons were before they were 'accidentally' struck by the attack and picked up their demon cores.

'What the hell is he doing?' The Demon Lord raised its eyebrows at Yuan's puzzling actions.

A moment later, Yuan tossed one of the demon cores in his mouth, shocking the Demon Lord and the grandparents.

"Hahaha! What is that idiot doing?! Does he want to kill himself?! That makes things much easier for me!" The Demon Lord burst out laughing like a maniac after witnessing Yuan's actions.

"Young man! What are you doing?!" Grandpa Lan exclaimed.

While he knew that Yuan could consume monster cores, he was still shocked speechless by Yuan's actions just now. After all, demon cores are completely different from monster cores. If eating monster cores is akin to drinking water, then eating demon cores is akin to drinking alcohol!

Meanwhile, Yuan could feel his tongue beginning to burn after consuming the demon core.

"Demon cores are spicy!" Yuan exclaimed, recalling the first time he accidentally ate spicy food. However, the demon core was spicier than anything he's ever experienced before, feeling like he'd just poured a bottle of hot sauce in his mouth!

When the Demon Lord, who was waiting for Yuan to explode from consuming the demon core, realized that Yuan was perfectly fine, even experiencing a breakthrough from it, the Demon Lord nearly lost its mind from shock.

"What?! That's impossible! How can a mere human consume a demon core?! You should've died the moment you ate it!" The Demon Lord exclaimed in a voice filled with bewilderment.

However, Yuan ignored the Demon Lord and proceeded to consume the second demon core.

'Fuck! It wasn't a fluke that he survived the first demon core?!' The Demon Lord was hoping that Yuan was only lucky enough to survive at first, but after witnessing him consume a second demon core, it concluded that it was not coincidence or luck that Yuan could eat demon cores.

'Is this human really human?! How can a human survive the chaotic spiritual energy within a demon core?! Even a demon would go mad if it consumes a demon core! He's even more dangerous than the Lord in some ways!'

"So this is what being a Spirit Grandmaster feels like, huh? As expected, my body is filled with energy, and it feels like I won't lose no matter what I'm fighting." Yuan mumbled to himself before turning to look at the Demon Lord who was staring at him with its face twisted in disbelief.

"I wonder how your demon core will taste, Demon Lord." Yuan suddenly said to it, causing a chill to go down the Demon Lord's back.

"Try to get my demon core if you can, you damn monster!"

The Demon Lord roared before it rushed at Yuan with the bloody sword in its grasp.

"Oh no! Watch out, young man!"

The grandparents reacted a little slow this time around, mostly because they were still shocked by Yuan's unbelievable appetite, allowing the Demon Lord to slip right through them.

"I'll be okay!" Yuan said to them as he raised the Empyrean Overlord and welcomed the Demon Lord.

Once it was close enough to strike, the Demon Lord swung its blood sword at Yuan.

Boom!

Yuan blocked the attack with his own sword, causing the ground to shake from the impact.

However, unlike previously, he wasn't sent flying.

Furthermore, the blood sword in the Demon Lord's grasp even cracked a little!

The Demon Lord sucked its teeth before quickly repairing the sword with its blood.

"Blood Arms!"

The Demon Lord suddenly grew two arms behind its back.

"Blood Sword!"

Then two swords appeared in those arms.

"Die for me!"

The Demon Lord struck Yuan again, this time with two extra swords.

Yuan immediately used his movement technique to dodge the strikes before activating Heavenly Domain, restricting the Demon Lord's movements to a small extent.

"Four arms? That's not fair!" Yuan exclaimed after dodging its strikes.

"Hmph! You don't get to say such words after what you just did! Are you really human? Damn monster in human skin!" The Demon Lord said to him.

"Young man! Are you okay?!"

The grandparents returned to his side after their quick clash.

"I'm okay, and let me fight the demon alone," Yuan said to them.

"Y-You want to fight it by yourself?" Grandpa Lan looked at him with a dazed face.

Chapter 342 - Fighting The Demon Lord

"I fight better when there's nobody around me since I can let loose without needing to worry about hitting you guys as well," Yuan said to them.

"I-I understand... If you think you can defeat it by yourself, we won't get in your way. But if I sense that you're in danger, I'll immediately assist you." Grandpa Lan said to him before returning to his human form.

"You want to fight me alone? Hahaha! Don't get cocky just because your cultivation improved slightly! You're still only a Spirit Grandmaster whilst I am a Spirit Lord! There's still a vast gap between us!" The Demon Lord laughed as its aura continued to rise.

Yuan didn't wait any longer and rushed at the Demon Lord, striking it with his Empyrean Overlord.

Clang!

The Demon Lord used two of its swords to block Yuan's strike whilst using its third one to retaliate.

Yuan then used his movement technique to dance around the Demon Lord. Despite being an entire realm above Yuan, the Demon Lord still had its movements suppressed by the Heavenly Domain.

"What an annoying movement technique!" The Demon Lord didn't dare to waste its movements while being restricted and waited for Yuan to strike, as a single mistake might cost its life.

[Bloody Sword Strike!]

Yuan suddenly attacked the Demon Lord after a minute of trying to confuse it with his movement technique.

However, even though the Demon Lord couldn't move at its full speed, its reaction remained in peak condition, allowing it to defend against Yuan's strike even though its movements were slowed.

The two of them continued to dance back and forth with Yuan being on the offensive and the Demon Lord on the defensive for many minutes.

'Fuck! How long can he keep this restriction domain active?! How much spiritual energy does he have?!' The Demon Lord cried inwardly, as it had been waiting for Yuan to exhaust his spiritual energy.

After all, to sustain such a powerful pressure that could restrict even a Spirit Lord's movements, it would obviously require an immense amount of Qi.

However, many minutes have passed without any signs of Yuan exhausting his spiritual energy.

Half an hour later, the Demon Lord roared, "Don't tell me you have unlimited energy as well?!"

The Demon Lord decided to risk it and flew into the sky, where the Heavenly Domain could not reach him.

Yuan narrowed his eyes at the Demon Lord in the sky. Although he could also fly, he wasn't confident enough in his flight abilities to fight someone like the Demon Lord in the skies.

"Blood Spears!"

The Demon Lord suddenly summoned a dozen spears with its blood before throwing them at Yuan.

Yuan immediately used his movement technique to dodge them, but the Demon Lord continued to summon the spears, raining them down on him.

"You think you're the only one with inexhaustible spiritual energy?! I can do this all day!" The Demon Lord laughed as it continued to throw spears at Yuan from the sky.

Hundreds of spears later, Yuan left the ground and flew into the air as well.

"So you've finally decided to fight me!" The Demon Lord said as it summoned its swords and flew towards him.

Clang!

The two of them clashed in the air, causing the clouds around them to ripple away.

"You fell for it, human!" The Demon Lord suddenly grinned.

The next second, two more arms appeared behind the Demon Lord's back, preparing to strike Yuan at any moment now.

"Let's see if your movement technique works in the air!"

However, Yuan remained calm despite the Demon Lord's surprise.

And right as the Demon Lord moved its arms, Yuan's eyes glowed golden, causing the Demon Lord to halt for a split second.

In this split second, Yuan used the invisible Starry Abyss to create a hole in the Demon Lord's face, taking it by surprise for a second time.

And with his third strike—

"Demon Sealing Strike!"

Yuan used this chance to stab the Empyrean Overlord in the chest.

"He did it!"

The Lan Family watching from afar trembled in excitement after seeing Yuan successfully strike the Demon Lord.

"AAAAAH! DAMN YOU!" The Demon Lord shouted in rage after realizing that Yuan had managed to injure it successfully.

Normally, it wouldn't react even if it had its entire body crushed into meat paste, but a single strike from someone with a demon sealing technique is akin to death no matter how minor the injury! Hell, even an injury as small as a paper cut will seal a demon's fate!

This is why the demons feared the Demon Sealing Clan so much. If they so much as bump into their swords, it would mark the end for the demons.

After his successful strike, Yuan immediately retrieved his sword and distanced himself from the Demon Lord, running back to the Lan Family just in case.

"Fuck! Fuck! Fuck!

The Demon Lord didn't even bother to chase after Yuan and instead began digging a hole in its own stomach with its bare hands, trying to rip away the injury created by Yuan.

But alas, the Demon Lord soon realized that its efforts were in vain since the petrifying effects eventually began to spread throughout its body.

"No! No! No! It can't end here! It can't! I still have to leave this godforsaken world and rule the outside world! I cannot die here!" The Demon Lord began shouting like a maniac who'd gone crazy.

Who could've thought that after struggling for hundreds of thousands of years, the Demon Lord would succumb to a human who, logically speaking, shouldn't even have the qualifications to face it.

Unfortunately for the Demon Lord, Yuan was someone who transcended all logic and common sense even in the cultivation world where almost anything can happen.

"If I die... I will take at least one of you with me!!!" The Demon Lord suddenly flew towards their direction with its eyes bright red and a resolute expression.

Seeing this, Grandpa Lan suddenly shouted, "Shit! It's planning on blowing itself up! If we're caught in that, we'll be in grave danger!"

"What?! It can do something like that?!" Yuan exclaimed.

Chapter 343 - Core Detonation

"Is there anything we can do to stop it?" Yuan asked them.

"There is none! I'll try to stop it. The rest of you run away!" Grandpa Lan said, prepared to lay down his own life for them.

However, Yuan said to him, "No! I will take care of it!"

"What?! You'll die!" Lan Yingying said to him.

"That's fine. I won't die forever even if I die. However, that might not be the case for you guys." And without waiting for them to respond, Yuan made his move, flying towards the Demon Lord.

"Wait! Young man!" Grandpa Lan tried to stop him, but alas, Yuan completely ignored him and continued moving forward.

"Hahaha! So you want to die, huh?! This is perfect!" The Demon Lord laughed as its aura grew more volatile and intense.

The Demon Lord was not only getting more powerful, but its body was also glowing redder and redder.

As Yuan got closer to the Demon Lord, he wondered if there was anything he could do, but alas, he could not think of any methods that would save him in this desperate situation.

"Hmph! So what if I die? I'll just respawn! So what if I lose my cultivation base? I'll just cultivate some more! If I become a cripple, it won't be my first time! And it's not like I won't be able to walk or move! I'll still be able to explore this world— whether I'm a cultivator or not!"

Yuan changed direction midway, leading the Demon Lord further away from the Lan Family.

Of course, the Demon Lord was more than happy to chase after Yuan even if it wouldn't be able to kill the Lan Family. In its eyes, he would do the other demons a bigger favor if it killed Yuan, who was a much bigger threat than the Lan Family could ever be.

"Do you really think you can outrun me?!" The Demon Lord laughed as it got closer and closer to Yuan.

Even though Yuan's strength could rival even a Spirit Lord as a Spirit Grandmaster, his flying speed was an entirely different story.

Slowly but surely, the Demon Lord caught up to Yuan, and it was just a matter of time before it blew its entire cultivation up.

Yuan stopped running away once they were far enough from the Lan Family, and there was no point when he knew that he wouldn't outrun the Demon Lord.

"In just a few seconds, I will blow up, and everything within ten thousand meters will disappear with me!" The Demon Lord laughed out loud as it hovered a few meters away from Yuan.

"Go ahead. You'll be the only one dying, anyway." Yuan shrugged in a nonchalant manner, dumbfounding the Demon Lord.

"You're not afraid of dying?" The Demon Lord frowned.

"I won't die."

"Bullshit! You're not immortal! Not even a Spirit King would survive a Core Detonation at this level!" The Demon Lord didn't believe Yuan.

Yuan didn't bother responding to it and calmly stared at the Demon Lord that was almost petrified at this moment.

"Oooh! I can feel it! Power overwhelming my body! Hahaha! It's about time! Die for me, human!" The Demon Lord laughed out loud until it exploded.

It was at this moment Yuan thought about logging off to escape the explosion, but alas...

[You cannot log off during combat]

A second later, the Demon Lord's body suddenly began twisting and turning in a spiraling motion, almost like a black hole had appeared inside its body and was consuming the Demon Lord inside-out.

The Demon Lord's body twisted until it was the size and shape of a small pebble, almost like a glass marble of sorts.

This pebble then glowed brightly before exploding with a massive amount of spiritual energy.

Yuan immediately used the Empyrean Overlord to protect himself by placing it in front of his face. However, the explosion was too large and powerful, and Yuan could feel everything below his chest disappear almost instantly.

"Ah!"

Yuan was overwhelmed with pain, losing consciousness almost immediately.

Meanwhile, the Lan Family could see a bright light in the distance, followed by a strong earthquake a second later.

"Yuan!" Lan Yingying felt her heart being squeezed when she saw this light, and tears quickly flowed from her eyes.

"Alas... This young man actually sacrificed his life for us..." Grandpa Lan sighed, feeling an indescribable feeling in his heart.

Many of the participants in the Mystic Realm were also able to see this bright light in the sky, as it was like a second sun that had suddenly appeared in the world.

The sun created by the Demon Lord remained for a good minute before it finally began to subside.

The Lan Family went to the scene of the explosion in hopes to find Yuan's remains, but alas, they were unable to find him, almost like he'd disappeared from this world.

"As expected, his body has completely disintegrated from the Demon Lord's Core Detonation..." Grandpa Lan sighed.

After all, even he wouldn't survive such a devastating attack, much less a Spirit Grandmaster with a human body.

"Yingying, make sure you take care of that baby... That young man sacrificed his own life so that you two— all of us could live..." Grandma Lan said to her in a grieving tone.

"I understand..." Lan Yingying nodded, still with tears in her eyes.

Meanwhile, about a hundred miles away from where the explosion had occurred, a body that was anything but complete laid on the ground, looking like a corpse that had recently been chewed on by wild animals.

"Heavens... That almost scared me to death..." The voice of a young lady resounded after this disfigured body suddenly dropped from the sky and landed behind her.

"Just what on earth happened to this person? His body looks like it'd just ate an explosion. Was he a victim of that random explosion just now?" The young lady inspected the corpse out of curiosity, not feeling grossed out by the awful sight that would normally make any young lady's stomach churn with disgust.

"Hmm? And why does it feel like I have seen him somewhere before?"

Ding!

[Perfect Regeneration has activated!]

Chapter 344 - Barely Surviving The Explosion

"W-What?! His body is regenerating?!" The young lady was shocked when the mutilated body suddenly began healing, and she watched as this half-completed body regrow the rest of its body as well as all four limbs in just a matter of moments, almost like she was before an immortal monster or something.

The young lady took a few steps back just in case.

A few moments later, the mutilated body recovered perfectly; it was unlike anything the young lady had seen before.

"Ugh..." Yuan slowly opened his eyes to see the sunlight assaulting his eyes.

"Did I die? Did I respawn outside the Mystic Realm?" Yuan slowly sat up, still recalling the pain he'd felt before losing consciousness.

Once his mind and vision began to stabilize, Yuan looked around his surroundings, and to his surprise, he wasn't outside the Mystic Realm!

"What! Don't tell me I didn't die from that explosion?! This is a miracle!" Yuan quickly stood up with excitement on his face.

Fortunately, he'd managed to protect his head and heart. Although his regenerative abilities are not as exaggerated as the demons', it was pretty close, allowing him to regenerate as long as his head and heart are unharmed.

It was at this moment that Yuan realized he was not alone and there was another presence not far away from him.

"Who's there?" Yuan turned to look at the tree a few meters away from him.

"That voice... Player Yuan?"

The young lady who had hidden behind a tree slowly walked out with her hands up, showing Yuan that she was not a threat to him.

"Y-You're..." Yuan was surprised to see Wang Xiuying there.

After revealing herself, Wang Xiuying stared at Yuan with a somewhat amazed expression on her face.

"What is it?" Yuan decided to ask her, feeling like something was amiss right now.

"Uhh..." Wang Xiuying appeared to hesitate for a moment before pointing at his face.

It was at this moment Yuan realized that his mask was gone and his face was in full display.

'Oh no! The explosion must have removed the mask! Now she knows what I look like!' Yuan cried inwardly.

"D-Don't worry, I won't tell anyone what you look like— I promise!" Wang Xiuying quickly said to him, feeling extremely nervous at this moment, as she was worried that he would kill her because she saw his face.

'Hmm? She doesn't recognize me?' Yuan realized that Wang Xiuying didn't realize who he was even though she saw his face.

Fortunately for Yuan, Wang Xiuying only remembers what he looked like when he was a kid. Even though she has seen him plenty of times as an adult, Yuan looks somewhat different in the real world because of his skinny appearance, and Wang Xiuying hasn't seen him since his recovery. Furthermore, his appearance in cultivation online has been enhanced as a cultivator.

"A-Also... your clothes..." Wang Xiuying pointed at his legs with a blushing face.

Yuan looked down, and to his surprise, he was completely naked from his chest down.

While his body regenerated, his clothes were a different story. No wonder why it felt a little breezy down there.

"Umm... Sorry, but I don't have any clothes on me..." Yuan said in a calm voice.

"I-I'll give you some of mine, okay?" Wang Xiuying said as she removed the first layer of her clothes.

Luckily for them, disciple uniforms in the cultivation world are mostly unisex, so both genders can wear them and look the same.

"Thank you..." Yuan accepted her clothes and quickly wore them.

Although they were a little small, it was good enough to be worn.

"Anyways, what were you doing that made you in such a state? And how on earth are you still alive? I thought you were some kind of immortal monster at first!" Wang Xiuying said to him afterward.

"Oh... I was fighting some really powerful demon, and it decided to blow itself up." Yuan sighed.

"Is that what caused the explosion? You're really something else, Player Yuan. No wonder why you're the number one player in the world right now." Wang Xiuying said.

"What do you plan on doing now?"

"I'm going to go back and see if there's anything left of the demon just in case it also survived," Yuan said.

"Can I come with you? I won't get in your way— I promise. I just want to see how Player Yuan 'plays' the game." She asked him.

"I don't mind." Yuan nodded.

Since he already knew her and was even on good terms with her in the real world, Yuan didn't mind letting her follow him.

"Ah. Do you know which way was the explosion?" Yuan asked her.

"That way."

Yuan nodded his head and proceeded to follow the direction she pointed.

Sometime later, they arrived at the site where the explosion occurred, and as expected, the destruction caused by the Demon Lord wasn't anything to laugh at.

There was a massive crater where the Demon Lord exploded, almost like a meteorite had landed in this place.

"My lord... you survived something like this?" Wang Xiuying turned to look at him with a dazed expression.

"I know... I'm also surprised..." Yuan mumbled.

The crater was a few miles in diameter, and it could be a large lake if it was filled with water.

"I'll be right back," Yuan said to her before flying into the crater to see if he could sense the Demon Lord.

"H-He's flying?! He can fly?! Does this mean he's already a Spirit Grandmaster?! Impossible! We've only been in the Mystic Realm for a week! Even if his cultivation base didn't reset to the beginning like the rest of us, he still shouldn't have been able to reach Spirit Grandmaster in such a short time!" Wang Xiuying was truly shocked to the core after witnessing Yuan's flying ability.

Meanwhile, Yuan flew around the crater with his Divine Sense activated.

"Hmm... I don't see the Demon Lord nor its demon core. Maybe the demon core was destroyed by the explosion? I wouldn't be surprised if it was..."

After spending a couple of minutes in the crater without any results, Yuan returned to Wang Xiuying's side.

Chapter 345 - Unsuspecting Victims

"Did you find what you were looking for?" Wang Xiuying asked him after he returned.

"No, I didn't. Which is probably a good thing," he said.

"What are you going to do now? Head to the Mystic Pagoda? It's only a day from this place."

"I still have one more place to visit."

Wang Xiuying nodded and followed him.

Sometime later, they arrived at the Abandoned Valley.

The only reason Yuan came to this place was for the Lan Family.

'I hope they're fine... The explosion was extremely powerful, after all...' Yuan sighed inwardly.

It would be dreadful if the Lan Family was also affected by the Demon Lord's explosion.

"Wang... Healer Wang, how long was I knocked out after the explosion?" Yuan turned to ask her.

"Uhh... A couple of minutes?"

"Hmm..."

"What about a white snake? Did you see any white snakes in the sky recently?"

"Yes! I saw a flying white snake sometime before the explosion! It was really mythical!" Wang Xiuying nodded her head in excitement just recalling the flying white snake in the sky.

"Before the explosion? Then they probably haven't left yet..." Yuan wondered where the Lan Family could've gone after he was blown away. Surely, they didn't return to the Divine Forest, right? If they did, he won't be able to return to them since he doesn't know where the place was located.

'Hopefully, they're fine.' Yuan prayed inwardly for their safety.

Sometime later, Yuan turned to look at Wang Xiuying and asked her, "I'm going to head to the Mystic Pagoda now. Do you also want to come with me?"

"I do!" Wang Xiuying quickly nodded, as she wouldn't miss this chance that every other player hoped to have— playing alongside Player Yuan!

Yuan looked in the sky to find the blue star before following the direction.

"Player Yuan, if you don't mind me asking, why did you decide to play Cultivation Online?" Wang Xiuying asked him as they walked.

"Because I want to feel alive," he calmly responded.

"Alive...?" Wang Xiuying raised her eyebrows in a puzzled manner.

"Yes. In the real world, even though I am living, I never felt like I am truly alive— at least that was how I felt before I started playing this game." Yuan said.

"Oooh. I think I get what you mean. I have had a lot of patients who told me the same thing." Wang Xiuying said.

And she continued, "Oh, I am a nurse outside."

Yuan merely smiled.

'I know,' he said inwardly.

"What do you do outside? If it's too personal, you don't have to answer. I know you're skeptical since everyone is trying to learn your identity, but I personally don't care about any of that."

"I don't really do anything outside, unfortunately. I stay at home all day."

"So you're a modern-day hermit?" Wang Xiuying said.

"A what?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"A modern-day hermit. Someone who stays at home and doesn't go outside unless absolutely necessary. There are many people like that nowadays due to how popular gaming has become." Wang Xiuying explained.

"Well, I do it not because I like to. I simply don't have a choice." Yuan sighed.

"You must be living a difficult life, huh." Wang Xiuying looked at Yuan, feeling somewhat nostalgic, almost like she has spoken with him before.

'The way he speaks and the feeling he gives me... It's very similar to Yu Tian... I wonder if this is what he would be like if he wasn't in that condition...' Wang Xiuying noticed some similarities before Yuan and Yu Tian, mostly their atmosphere and speech.

'I wonder what he's doing right now.'

"What about you? Why did you decide to play?" Yuan suddenly asked her.

"I played on a whim since it was very popular, but once I realized how effective and unique medicine is in this world, it became my reason for continuing. I have a dream, you see. A dream to heal someone, and I believe the knowledge to do so is in this world!"

"I know it sounds silly, but I have already incorporated some of the medical practices in this world into our world, and it's working perfectly!"

Wang Xiuying looked up into the skies and mumbled, "This game is so realistic that sometimes I wonder whether this is just a game or actually something more— like another world of sorts."

"Another world, huh? How nice would that be if it was true..." A smile appeared on Yuan's face.

After walking for some time, they encountered a magical beast with a cultivation base around the peak of Spirit Apprentice.

"Uh... You're a Spirit Grandmaster, right?" Wang Xiuying turned to look at him.

While she was also at the peak of Spirit Apprentice, she wasn't exactly an expert in fighting.

"I'll take care of it." Yuan said.

He then used the Starry Abyss and Flying Daggers to take care of the magical beast instantly.

"Wow! How do you do that?" Wang Xiuying expressed her admiration for his technique.

"Hm? It's just a Mortal-grade technique that allows me to control a dagger using my spiritual energy."

"How can such a powerful technique only be Mortal-grade?"

After taking care of the magical beast, they continued walking in the grassland until they reached a small city.

Unfortunately for them, neither of them had money, so they were unable to enter the city that required a small fee.

However, even if they had money, the Mystic Realm uses a different currency, so the currency outside wouldn't have much worth in here.

"I guess we can only walk around the city..." Wang Xiuying sighed.

"Or we can fly over it," Yuan suggested.

"Fly?!" Wang Xiuying's eyes flickered with excitement.

"Let's fly!" she nodded in agreement.

"I'll have to carry you if you don't mind," said Yuan.

"I don't mind."

A moment later, Yuan carried Wang Xiuying in a princess carry before flying into the sky, shocking the guards there.

"Heavens! He was a Spirit Grandmaster?! Did we just kick away a Spirit Grandmaster?! We're dead!" The guards began crying once they realized that they'd screwed up big time.

In their minds, Yuan was probably going straight to the city lord to complain.

Of course, Yuan did the complete opposite, ignoring the city and flying straight over it.

"Wow! So this is what it feels like to fly!" Wang Xiuying looked down at the city with exhilaration.

"I cannot wait until I become a Spirit Grandmaster so that I can fly as well! But that might take a few years!"

Once they were on the other side of the city, Wang Xiuying said, "Player Yuan, do you mind if we continue flying for a little longer? If you're tired, we can go back down, though."

"You can just call me Yuan. And I don't mind. We travel much faster this way as well." Yuan nodded.

Sometime later, Yuan suddenly stopped in midair with his gaze towards the ground.

"There are some people there. I think they're also participants." Yuan said.

Wang Xiuying looked down, and sure enough, there were two people wearing the same uniform at the bottom, and these people hadn't noticed them yet.

"I think that's the Diamond Palms Sect. They're from the Northern Continent and ranked tenth." Wang Xiuying recognized them since they were also on the same continent as her sect.

"What are you going to do?" She then asked.

"Well, my Sect Master told me to get rid of the other participants as soon as I see them," Yuan said.

"G-Get rid of...?" Wang Xiuying's body shivered at his words.

"Yes. If I kill them inside this place, they'll be teleported outside and disqualified." Yuan nodded.

Then he added, "Don't worry, I won't disqualify you."

"Really?" Wang Xiuying released a sigh of relief after hearing that.

"Really."

"Anyways, I don't want them to see my face, so I'll get rid of them from up here."

After taking a deep breath, Yuan retrieved the Starry Abyss and made it turn invisible.

He then used Flying Daggers to control the Starry Abyss, commanding it to fly towards the two unsuspecting victims on the bottom.

A second later, two holes appear in their faces, instantly killing them.

Wang Xiuying swallowed nervously when she saw this.

'He can kill us as easily as breathing, and we won't even know what hit us...' she sighed inwardly.

The difference between them was simply too vast.

Meanwhile, outside the Mystic Pagoda, the Sect Master of the Diamond Palms Sect was shocked to the core when his disciples suddenly died out of the blue.

"What?! What the fuck just happened?! Who killed my disciples?!" He exclaimed, causing the others to look at his disciples that laid on the ground in the Mystic Realm with a large hole in their heads.

"Heavens... How brutal yet efficient..."

A few moments later, the bodies of the two dead participants disappeared from the Mystic Realm before appearing outside with their injury fully recovered.

"Huh? What happened? Why are we outside the Mystic Realm?"

The two didn't even realize that they had been killed even after waking up outside the Mystic Realm. In their eyes, their visions had turned black for a split second, and before they were aware, they were already outside the Mystic Realm. The thought of being killed just now didn't even cross their minds.

It was not until after their Sect Master approached them and told them what happened that they finally realized they had been killed.

"What?! That's impossible! There wasn't even anybody around us!" The two of them exclaimed, looking extremely confused by the situation.

As for Wang Xiuying's view... After meeting Yuan, the mirror suddenly stopped spectating her, almost as though the treasure could no longer find her location.

Chapter 346 - Who Is Responsible For This?!

"Are you sure you weren't ambushed or something?" The Diamond Palms Sect's Master asked the two disciples that had been brutally killed.

"I'm confident that we were alone, Sect Master!" One of the disciples quickly responded with a serious expression on his face. "We were in open land, and we haven't encountered another participant since we entered!"

"Then how did you two die? Who killed you?" The Sect Master mumbled in a dazed voice.

Even he didn't see what had happened to them through the treasure. Their death was so sudden and random that if he was told his disciples were killed by ghosts, he would probably believe it.

The Sect Master then turned to look at Senior Nie and bowed to him, "Senior Nie, what should we do now? Has something like this happened before? Where the participants die out of nowhere?"

Senior Nie shook his head and said, "No, this has never happened before. As for what happens... Since your participants have died inside the Mystic Realm, regardless of the circumstances, your sect is now disqualified. Whatever points you received before the disqualification will be your final score."

The Sect Master of the Diamond Palms Sect staggered like he was about to faint after hearing Senior Nie's words. How could they be disqualified so early on in the Mystic Realm? They have been in the top ten for over a hundred years! At this rate, it would be a miracle if they manage to even get into the top 100! How could such a tragedy befall their sect?! Who did they offend to deserve this?!

However, as much as the Sect Master of the Diamond Palms Sect wanted to ask for a second chance, he knew it was pointless, and he'd only be making himself into a laughing stock.

The other Sect Masters swallowed nervously when they saw this, silently praying to themselves that this wouldn't happen to their sect.

But Alas, within the next few hours, many other participants experienced the same tragedy the Diamond Palms Sect had experienced.

The participants were dying left and right without a single person knowing the cause, and this caused a great commotion outside the Mystic Realm.

"Just what in Heaven's name is going on?! Who is responsible for this?!"

"Could it be another participant? Or is someone from the Mystic Realm responsible for this?!"

"This is outrageous! At this rate, the sect ranking for the next 10 years will be all messed up!"

Senior Nie was greatly bewildered by this situation, as he has never seen anything like this before.

"What do you think is happening, Elder Nie?" One of the crystal balls asked him.

"I really don't know what to tell you. Somebody is killing all of these people without showing himself or his methods. It's like he has an invisible weapon or something similar. And at the rate he's killing them, taking into account the distance between each victim, this predator is traveling very quickly— too quickly if I am being honest."

"What does this all mean?" Another voice asked.

After pondering for a moment, Elder Nie said, "This may sound absurd, but if we cannot see this killer from the treasure, he's probably a Mystic Realm native, and for some reason, he's killing every single participant. As for his reason for doing so... We will probably never know..."

"We have known that the natives inside the Mystic Realm aren't very friendly towards us outsiders, but they have never outright hunted the participants until today. Did something change within the Mystic Realm?" One of the voices from the crystal ball spoke.

"What should we do about the sect ranking this year? It's a freaking mess already, and there are still three weeks left. At this rate, all of the participants will be disqualified."

Senior Nie then said, "The cultivation world is volatile in nature. Anything can happen, even ridiculous events that nobody can imagine, and this is simply one of these moments. Even if the sect ranking is flipped around this year, where the previous lowest ranking sect becomes first and the previous first rank becomes last, we will judge it as we usually do."

Meanwhile, at the Dragon Essence Temple, Long Yijun and the other sect elders were clearly very worried about the current situation.

"I wonder what's going on, really. It's been a week since the Mystic Realm started and we still haven't seen Disciple Yuan's shadow, much less the person himself. I hope he's fine." Long Yijun sighed, completely unaware that Yuan was behind this phenomenon.

While he did tell Yuan to disqualify as many participants as he could, Long Yijun could've never expected this kind of outcome.

However, two people there understood what was going on.

"Xiao Hua, these invisible attacks... It's definitely him, right?" Feng Yuxiang turned to ask her.

After a moment of silence, Xiao Hua nodded, "The way all of these people are killed as efficiently as possible with a single strike to the head... It definitely resembles Brother Yuan's style."

After spending so much time with Yuan, she was obviously used to his fighting style, and Yuan was someone who would always go for the head whenever it was possible. Out of the thousands of magical beasts he has slain, most of them had died from a single strike to the head.

After getting Xiao Hua's confirmation, Feng Yuxiang said to Long Yijun and the others, "I think it's the Young Master behind these attacks."

"What? Yuan? Really? How can you tell?" Elder Xuan quickly asked.

"The attack patterns and these invisible strikes... One of the Young Master's Soul Weapons can turn invisible, and looking at the size of these holes, it matches what his Starry Abyss is capable of." Feng Yuxiang explained to them.

"If that's the case, how come we can't see him? Where is he killing them from?" Elder Shan then asked.

"I have a speculation, but it sounds a little too absurd even for the Young Master..." Feng Yuxiang said.

"Let us hear it." Long Yijun said with a serious expression on his face.

Feng Yuxiang took a deep breath before continuing, "The sky."

"What? Are you saying that Disciple Yuan is somehow killing them from the skies—that he's flying?" Elder Shan looked at her with wide eyes, as it was too unbelievable.

After all, only Spirit Grandmasters could possibly achieve such feats!

Feng Yuxiang sighed, "That's why I didn't want to say it. It sounds absurd, I know, but it's the only thing I can think of."

And she continued, "Think about it—the first two victims were in an empty grassland for miles with nowhere to hide, yet they were killed without seeing a shadow. If there's nobody around them, then the attack could've only come from one place—the skies."

"I see, that makes sense... but it also doesn't make sense at the same time." Elder Xuan said.

"In order to attack from the sky, Disciple Yuan must have learned to fly, but in order to do so, he must have reached at the very least Spirit Grandmaster. However, it's only been a week since the Mystic Realm opened. Even if Disciple Yuan somehow managed to escape having his cultivation base wiped, he still wouldn't be able to reach Spirit Grandmaster in such a short time—at least he shouldn't."

Feng Yuxiang shrugged, "I don't know. The Young Master is unpredictable. He's literally the reason why I try to avoid using the word 'impossible' since he somehow always makes the impossible... well... possible."

"Let's continue watching. Maybe Disciple Yuan will show up sooner or later." Elder Shan suggested.

Inside the Mystic Realm, Wang Xiuying watched as Yuan disqualified the 39th disciple with a nonchalant expression on her face, almost like she was already used to seeing such a sight.

'At this rate, he'll kill all of the participants in the Mystic Realm before the 30 days time limit is over...' Wang Xiuying sighed inwardly.

The disparity between Yuan and all of the participants was simply too vast.

This made Wang Xiuying wonder why he was being so nice and friendly to her. Normally, someone as secretive as Player Yuan wouldn't reveal so much about himself to a stranger like her, yet he has spoken to her as though they were already friends.

In fact, Wang Xiuying already considers Player Yuan as her friend, something she didn't think was possible before today.

"Congratulations, Yuan." Wang Xiuying suddenly said to him.

"Hm? What for?" He raised his eyebrows slightly in a puzzled manner.

"Congratulations on getting first place for the Mystic Realm, obviously."

"Haha... We don't know that yet. There are still 3 weeks left. Anything can happen in these next three weeks."

"You're so humble, Yuan. Think about it... You're a Spirit Grandmaster who can take out any participant with a single thought. Who in this place could rival someone like you?"

"Perhaps that's the case, but despite my cultivation base, I nearly died today. This shows me that no matter how powerful you are, you are not invincible and you can never be too careful in the cultivation world."

"If you say it like that, I guess so..." Wang Xiuying nodded.

Meanwhile, at the Mystic Pagoda, three figures stood before a tall building that emitted a majesty aura.

"What are we doing here, grandfather?" Lan Yingying asked him.

"I just felt like coming here, that's all..." Grandpa Lan responded with a gloomy feeling around him.

After standing there silently for a few minutes, Grandpa Lan clasped his hands together and bowed to the Mystic Pagoda.

"I'm sure it was fate that he came to this place. Thank you for guiding that young man here, Lord. If only I was a little bit stronger..."

Chapter 347 - Mystic Pagoda

Lan Yingying and Grandma Lan followed Grandpa Lan's movements, bowing to the Mystic Pagoda with respect.

Sometime later, Grandpa Lan transformed into his beast form and carried his family back to the Divine Forest.

Meanwhile, somewhere in the Mystic Realm, Gao Dongya and Xue Jiye finally began their journey after spending an entire week increasing their cultivation, reaching the Spirit Warrior realm.

"The spiritual energy in this world is abundant and rich. If only the outside world was like this, I would've become a Spirit Master by now!" Xue Jiye sighed out loud.

Then she turned to look at Gao Dongya and asked him, "What should we do now? We still have no idea where Disciple Yuan is."

"It would only be a waste of time if we look for him when we don't even know where we are, much less where he is. The only thing we can do right now is follow the plan and obtain as many points as we can with what little time we have left." Gao Dongya said.

And he continued, "Hopefully, that's what he's doing as well."

"What do you want to do then? Hunt for magical beasts for the next three weeks?" Xue Jiye suggested, as that seemed to be the most efficient method of grinding points.

Gao Dongya narrowed his eyes at her and said, "What a simple woman. Do you really believe you are the only one with that thought? We won't achieve first place if we do something like this!"

"Stop calling me woman! I have a name— Xue Jiye! And do you really think we can take first place with just the three— two of us? Your ambition is too high!"

"I don't know about you but I always strive for the best results, and the best result for the Mystic Realm would be the Mystic Pagoda!" Gao Dongya said in a calm voice.

"The Mystic Pagoda? Hmph! Nobody has opened that place up since ancient times. What makes you think you'll be able to open it?"

"If I had your attitude, I would never be able to open it." Gao Dongya said, and he turned around and began walking.

"Enough chit-chatting. We have already spent too much time increasing our cultivation."

"Since you're so smart, why don't you tell me where we can find the Mystic Pagoda?" Xue Jiye said.

Gao Dongya then pointed to the skies, where a blue star flickered.

"If you'd done your research before coming here, you would know that by following the blue star, you'll reach the Mystic Pagoda. This isn't the first time people have been to this place. Seriously, why did the Sect Master even pick someone like you to come here if you're not taking this seriously?"

"Che." Xue Jiye sucked her teeth at Gao Dongya's response that left her speechless.

Thus, they began their journey towards the Mystic Pagoda, as was every other participant in the Mystic Realm.

Normally, they would be hunting magical beasts and doing whatever they can to increase their points, but this year was different, as everybody wanted to ascend to the Spirit Heaven, where their career as a cultivator would surely reach a new level.

Even if their sects were to receive a lower rank because of this, none of the participants cared.

In their mind, since there was someone as monstrous as Yuan participating in the Mystic Realm, the only way they could beat someone like him was to go above and beyond and open up the Mystic Pagoda.

"Looks like all of the participants are heading towards the Mystic Pagoda."

The observers outside the Mystic Realm noticed this.

"This year's Mystic Realm is truly a mess. Not only are the participants getting killed by a mysterious force, but they're also not following the routine. This is all because of Senior Nie's presence." One of the Sect Masters there sighed.

"Can you really blame them, though? If I was in their shoes, I would also be trying to do whatever I can to go to the Spirit Heaven."

"If I weren't so old and have an entire sect to take care of, I would also love to try to ascend."

While the Sect Masters mumbled to each other, Senior Nie and the people in the Spirit Heavens spoke to each other.

"Do you think the Mystic Pagoda will finally open this year?" One of the crystal balls asked.

"Most likely not," said another voice.

"Yeah, I highly doubt it as well."

"The Mystic Realm has existed for countless years with countless challengers, yet not a single person has managed to open the Mystic Pagoda. This year won't be any different."

However, Senior Nie smiled and said, "Actually, there is one person who'd managed to open the Mystic Pagoda."

"Hm? There was someone like that? How come I have never heard of it?"

Half of the spectators were hearing this for the first time.

"Are you talking about the owner of the Mystic Realm, Elder Nie?"

"Wait a second... The Mystic Realm has an owner? This is my first time hearing about this!"

Senior Nie nodded his head and said, "It's not surprising some of you don't know about this since it's only mentioned in ancient scrolls regarding the Mystic Realm."

"Countless years ago, when the Mystic Realm still had no Master, people could enter and leave the place at will. However, all of that changed when a certain individual—a certain young man entered the Mystic Realm and became its Master."

"W-Wait a moment..." One of the voices interrupted and spoke, "You're telling me some youngster became the Master of the Mystic Realm? How did that happen? Who is this young man?"

"Nobody knows his identity." Senior Nie said.

"What? Nobody? How is that possible?" A voice of disbelief quickly resounded.

"Because he was always wearing a mask. The only thing we know about this individual is that he's a young man—at least that's what people got from his voice. He entered the Mystic Realm, became its Master, left the place, and he was never heard from again."

"Of course, this person also made new rules for the Mystic Realm and closed its doors. Now, only those with tokens are allowed to go inside."

Then someone asked, "What about the tokens? Where did we get them?"

"It was given to the founders of our sect, and we have been hosting the Mystic Realm ever since then. Nobody besides the founders knows why we're doing this, but it's become a tradition of sorts, and nobody really questions it anymore." Senior Nie said to them.

"Heavens... And here I thought we were doing this because we're recruiting potential talents for our sect..." One of the voices mumbled in a dazed voice.

"Honestly, that's how most of us see this nowadays, so regardless of what our founders were thinking, this is the outcome," said another voice.

Meanwhile, inside the Mystic Realm, Wang Xiuying suddenly pointed to the tall building at the end of the horizon and said, "Look at that pagoda! I think that's the Mystic Pagoda!"

Yuan nodded and sped up a little, quickly approaching the pagoda in the distance.

Sometime later, they arrived at the pagoda, and Yuan descended from the sky.

"We got here much quicker than expected since we flew here. Look at the door, this is definitely the Mystic Pagoda." Wang Xiuying pointed at the top of the door, where the words 'Mystic Pagoda' were engraved.

"This place looks more 'ordinary' than I'd anticipated," Yuan said as he looked at the Mystic Pagoda.

"You think so too?" Wang Xiuying agreed with him, and she continued, "I thought it would be more special, but I have seen similar buildings in the Northern Continent plenty of times by now. However, this place does give me a unique feeling that other places don't, but I cannot pinpoint what this feeling is exactly."

"Let's take a look around the place!" Wang Xiuying suggested.

The two of them proceeded to walk around the Mystic Pagoda to see if there was anything around the place.

Literally, a minute later, they returned to the front of the place.

"I didn't see anything special. What about you?"

Yuan shook his head. Even with Divine Sense, he wasn't able to see anything unique.

Of course, his Divine Sense wasn't able to penetrate the Mystic Pagoda for some reason, almost like there was something protecting it.

A few moments later, Wang Xiuying suddenly approached the doors to the Mystic Pagoda and tried to open it.

However, she quickly realized that was impossible, as there was no door handle at the door.

Thus, she could only try knocking on the door.

"Hello? Anybody inside?"

"..."

Nobody responded to her, something Wang Xiuying had expected even before knocking on the door.

"Any idea how to open this place?" Wang Xiuying turned to look at Yuan, who had been standing there in silence, staring at the Mystic Pagoda with a dazed expression on his face.

"Yuan? Are you okay?" she asked him again.

"Y-Yes..." Yuan nodded, and he continued, "This place seems so nostalgic for some reason, almost like I have been here before."

"You're thinking too much. There's obviously no way you could've been here before." Wang Xiuying chuckled.

"I guess..." Yuan nodded and approached Wang Xiuying before standing at the door to the Mystic Pagoda.

It was at this moment the doors that had been sealed shut for countless years suddenly began to tremble.

"T-This is..." Wang Xiuying's eyes widened with shock when the doors suddenly opened. Why did the doors suddenly open? They didn't even do anything special!

"M-Maybe it opened because I knocked on the doors?" she mumbled, as this was the only explanation she could think of.

Chapter 348 - Suspiciously Easy

"The Mystic Pagoda opened? Why?" Yuan raised his eyebrows upon seeing the doors open automatically.

However, there was nobody to welcome them inside, so why did the doors open?

"Let's go inside and check it out," Yuan suggested.

"W-Wait!" Wang Xiuying turned around, grabbed him, and quickly pulled him away from the Mystic Pagoda.

Once they were far enough, the doors to the Mystic Pagoda closed again.

"Don't be so hasty, Yuan! What if it's a trap? If you ask me, I think it's too easy! There's no way the Mystic Pagoda would open so easily for us when nobody has managed to open it for so long!" Wang Xiuying explained to him why they shouldn't go inside.

Yuan nodded after hearing her words, "That makes sense. It's quite suspicious how the place just opened."

"That's right! What if we're ambushed by traps the moment we go inside? That would be disastrous!" Wang Xiuying said.

"Then what should we do?" Yuan asked her.

"I say we wait until someone else goes inside and see what happens. I'm sure there are people coming to this place as we speak." Wang Xiuying responded.

"Okay. We can observe them from the skies, where we should be safe."
Yuan agreed.

"What should we do in the meantime?"

"I don't know. It's getting a bit late, so I'm about to log off for the day."

"It's also almost time for dinner for me as well."

Thus, the two of them looked around the Mystic Pagoda for a few more minutes before logging off.

In the real world, Yuan said to Meixiu, "I have arrived at the Mystic Pagoda."

"Really? Were you able to open it?" Meixiu asked him as she fed him dinner.

"About that... The Mystic Pagoda opened by itself, but it might be a trap, so we didn't go inside."

"Wait... We? You're with somebody?" Meixiu raised her eyebrows.

"That's right. I'm with Wang Xiuying right now. I met her by chance, and we've been traveling together since then."

"I see..." Meixiu mumbled.

"By the way, are you responsible for killing the participants? A lot of participants had been disqualified after being killed by an invisible attack." Meixiu told him about the chaos that occurred outside the Mystic Realm because of his actions.

"Oh, yeah, that was me. I took care of everyone as we approached the Mystic Pagoda. There were a lot of them, but I made sure to kill all of them like the Sect Master had advised us to do."

"So Feng Feng and Xiao Hua were right about you being responsible for the attacks..."

"All of the participants were unharmed after they left the Mystic Realm, right?" Yuan asked her.

The only reason he could kill them so casually was because he was told that they wouldn't die inside the Mystic Realm.

"Yes, all of them were fine. However... A few of them had lost a couple of levels for their cultivation after being killed." Meixiu revealed this to him.

"Well, at least they're not hurt." Yuan casually said.

In his mind, it was much better to lose their cultivation than to die since cultivation can be restored through time whilst death was permanent— for the NPCs at the very least.

Meixiu also didn't think too much of it since she was not a cultivator.

"Will you be playing tonight?" Meixiu asked him after dinner.

"Yes, I will."

"Okay."

Sometime later, Yuan returned to the game whilst Meixiu went to sleep.

Inside the game, Yuan flew towards the sky and began overseeing the Mystic Pagoda, patiently waiting for someone to fall for this 'trap'.

Once he realized that it might take a while before someone shows up, he decided to start practicing his flying skill in the sky.

Thus, Yuan proceeded to spend the entire night circling around the place, improving his flying speed and air maneuvers.

Wang Xiuying returned to the game in the morning.

"Welcome back." Yuan greeted her.

"Yuan? When did you come back on?" she asked him.

"Since last night."

"What? You spent the entire night playing? That's not healthy, you know." Wang Xiuying sort of lectured him.

Then she asked, "Did anybody come through at all?"

"No, I didn't see anybody."

"It might take a couple of days before someone—"

"Wait. I sense a presence not far from here." Yuan suddenly interrupted her.

"Really? Then let's hide!" Wang Xiuying said.

Yuan nodded and carried her into the air, hiding inside the clouds.

About fifteen minutes later, a figure approached the Mystic Pagoda.

"Hm? That person looks familiar for some reason..." Yuan narrowed his eyes at this young man that had a goofy-looking face.

After pondering for a moment, he remembered where he'd seen this person.

"Ah, that's the player who wanted me to show my face to him."

"He's a player?" Wang Xiuying asked.

"Yes."

The two of them continued to watch this player's every movement.

The player first looked around the Mystic Pagoda just like they did when they first arrived. Once he found nothing special, the player stood before the door and started knocking on it.

However, there was no response from the Mystic Pagoda.

"What's happening? Why isn't the door opening for him?" Wang Xiuying mumbled in a puzzled voice.

"Let's wait a little bit longer," Yuan suggested.

A few minutes later, the player started kicking the door to the Mystic Pagoda, hoping to open it by force.

Once the player realized that kicking the door wasn't doing him any good, he started hitting it with the ordinary sword in his grasp.

Ding!

The sword rebounded after striking the door, flying right out of the player's grasp.

After retrieving the sword, the player tried hitting the door again multiple times.

However, in the end, the Mystic Pagoda remained unharmed.

"It doesn't look like the Mystic Pagoda will open for him." Wang Xiuying said.

"Then there's no reason to keep him alive," Yuan said, immediately controlling the Starry Abyss to fly at the goofy-looking player, creating a hole in his face a second later.

Chapter 349 - Inside The Mystic Pagoda

Once the player's corpse disappeared from the Mystic Realm, Yuan returned to the ground with Wang Xiuying.

"The door didn't open for that player. How weird." Wang Xiuying went to knock on the door again a few moments later, but there was no response this time.

"It's not opening even for us now. I wonder how this place works," she sighed.

Yuan didn't say anything and approached her.

"Eh?! It opened again!" Wang Xiuying was surprised when the door suddenly opened.

She then turned to look at Yuan with a pondering expression on her face.

"Yuan, can you go over there for a second?" Wang Xiuying pointed.

Yuan nodded and walked to the location.

And just as Wang Xiuying expected, the Mystic Pagoda closed its doors when Yuan distanced himself from the building.

"Yuan! I think the door is opening for you! Come back here!" Wang Xiuying said to him.

"For me? Why?" Yuan raised his eyebrows in a puzzled manner.

Once he approached the Mystic Pagoda, the doors opened again.

"Look! The door opened when you got close! And it will close if you walk away!" Wang Xiuying said.

And she continued, "Do you know why this is happening? Did you do anything special before coming here?"

Yuan shook his head, "Not that I remember."

Besides fighting some demons and meeting the Lan Family, he didn't really do anything special.

'Hmm? Wait a second. If the Emyrean Overlord belonged to the Lord, perhaps the Mystic Pagoda recognizes it, hence why it's opening its doors for me?' Yuan suddenly recalled this fact.

"I'm going to go inside then," Yuan said a moment later.

"I will come with you!" Wang Xiuying quickly said.

Although there might be traps inside, it was much better than staying out here by herself, especially when there might be many participants who will be arriving soon. In other words, she felt much safer by Yuan's side.

Yuan nodded his head, and the two of them entered the pagoda a moment later.

"This place is... empty..." Wang Xiuying said as she looked around the room that had literally nothing but a spiraling staircase a few meters away.

After looking around to make sure the room was really empty, they proceeded upstairs to the second floor.

However, the second floor was also empty.

"Nothing here either? Where are the treasures? A place this difficult to get into should have at least a couple of heaven-defying treasures, right?" Wang Xiuying sighed.

And just like previously, after spending a few minutes looking around, they proceeded to the next floor.

"From its appearance outside, the Mystic Pagoda should have nine floors." Wang Xiuying said as they entered the third floor.

"Why am I not surprised?" Wang Xiuying merely shook her head in disappointment when she saw that nothing was on the third floor as well.

However, they still looked around regardless.

Sometime later, they reached the eighth floor, and as expected, it was empty.

"There's only one more floor. I hope there's something there." Wang Xiuying said after looking around the place.

After taking a deep breath, they walked upstairs.

"Look! There's actually something here!" Wang Xiuying spoke with excitement when she noticed something different about the room.

However, when she realized what these things were, her excitement immediately died.

"A bed... a desk... a chair... That's it?" Wang Xiuying sighed.

Then she noticed the mask hanging on the wall behind the desk.

"Well, that's something unique, I guess."

Yuan looked around and said, "Well, I was told the Master of the Mystic Realm used to live here, so it makes sense this room looks like this."

He then turned to look at the mask on the wall and mumbled, "That must be the mask he wore. What an ordinary-looking mask."

Compared to his Black Jade Mask, the mask on the wall looked too ordinary. In fact, it was just an ordinary mask with nothing special about it.

"I was hoping for this mask to be a treasure, but it turned out to be ordinary as well." Wang Xiuying said after inspecting the mask.

"Here." She then handed it to Yuan.

"Your old mask broke, right? You can use this one instead."

"Thank you." Yuan accepted the mask and immediately put it back on his face.

Coincidentally, the mask fitted his face perfectly.

"What should we do now? There's clearly nothing in this room besides the furniture." Wang Xiuying said.

Yuan looked around, and he noticed that there was another staircase leading up.

"There's still one more floor," he said to her.

"What? How is that possible? I remember very clearly that there are only nine floors in this place! At least that's what it looked like from the outside!"

"I also counted nine floors." Yuan agreed with her.

"Maybe it's a secret floor where the treasures are held?" Wang Xiuying's eyes began flickering with excitement and hope again.

"Let's check it out."

A few moments later, they climbed the staircase.

The tenth floor was clearly much smaller than the other floors, almost like an attic or sorts.

However, there was nothing on this floor as well— nothing physical at the very least.

"What do you think this drawing is?" Yuan asked her as he looked at the complicated drawing on the floor.

"This looks like a magic circle... At least that's what they look like in movies." Wang Xiuying said.

And she continued, "But this is the cultivation world, so it's probably a formation. I have seen a couple of them before, but none of them look even remotely as complicated as this one."

"I think this is what is protecting the Mystic Pagoda." Wang Xiuying said after pondering for a moment.

"I think so too." Yuan agreed.

However, just as they prepared to go back downstairs, the formation suddenly began to glow brightly.

"W-What's happening?!" Wang Xiuying exclaimed, and she subconsciously hugged Yuan.

"I have no idea—"

Before he could even finish his sentence, the two of them disappeared from the room, almost like they had been teleported or something.

Chapter 350 - Pillar Of Light

Once Yuan and Wang Xiuying disappeared from the tenth floor in the Mystic Pagoda, the building itself began to glow a bright azure-colored light before shooting a massive beam into the sky for everyone in the Mystic Realm to see.

At the Divine Forest, Lan Yingying was floating on top of the water at the waterfall where Yuan impregnated her with a dazed expression on her face when she first noticed the azure-colored pillar of light in the distance that pierced the heavens.

"W-What is that?"

For some reason, Lan Yingying felt an urge to approach that light.

A few moments later, her grandparents could be seen flying in her direction in the sky.

"Grandfather! What is going on?" She asked him.

"I also have no idea, but it seems to be coming from the Mystic Pagoda! Something must have happened there! We must see what's happening!" Grandpa Lan said to her in an urgent manner.

Lan Yingying quickly left the water to put on her clothes.

A few moments later, Grandpa Lan transformed into his beast form before carrying the other two into the skies, flying towards the direction of the beam.

Meanwhile, outside the Mystic Realm, the spectators were shocked when they saw this azure-colored beam in the sky.

However, they were not shocked because of the light itself. They were shocked because the pillar of light had somehow managed to penetrate the Mystic Realm and appear in their world, piercing their heavens as well!

"Heavens! What is happening this time?!"

The voices from the crystal balls were greatly shocked by this phenomenon.

"This is also my first time seeing this... I have no idea what is going on..." Senior Nie shook his head with a nervous frown on his face.

There have been too many unexplainable events happening in the Mystic Realm this year. Just what on earth is happening?

"Wait a second... This feeling I am getting from that pillar of light... It's a transportation formation? It's something similar to when I came down to the Lower Heavens from the Spirit Heavens!" Senior Nie suddenly realized this.

"What does that mean?" One of the voices asked.

"Either somebody is going inside the Mystic Realm through a formation or the other way around— someone is leaving the Mystic Realm!" Senior Nie said.

"That's..."

The spectators were speechless. Who could be doing such a thing? And for what reason?

Sometime later, one of the crystal balls cried out loud, "Ah! I can also see the pillar of light here!"

"What?!" Senior Nie exclaimed.

Another voice followed, "It's true! I can see it as well! Look outside!"

The people living at Spirit Heavens immediately looked outside their window, and to their surprise, the pillar of light had somehow managed to appear in the Spirit Heavens as well.

"Heavens! Don't tell me this is the same pillar of light from the Mystic Realm?"

"What else could it be?! How did this happen?!"

The people from the Spirit Heavens were greatly bewildered by this unknown pillar of light, especially the people that had no idea about what was happening in the Mystic Realm.

The powerful backgrounds from the Spirit Heavens were also alerted by this pillar of light, and people from all over the world were immediately sent to investigate it.

Meanwhile, after disappearing from the Mystic Pagoda, Yuan and Wang Xiuying found themselves on this small platform that was surrounded by clouds, almost like they were somewhere in the sky.

There was a path made from the same material as the platform in front of them, and at the end of this path was a tall wall that resembled city walls.

"Where are we?" Wang Xiuying asked while she was still hugging Yuan's body tightly.

Ding!

[You have discovered Ancient Dragon City]

[Fame +1,000]

"Ancient Dragon City...? Were we teleported to this place by that formation? Just what is this place?" Yuan mumbled in a dazed voice.

However, Yuan was quickly snapped out of his daze when he heard a shouting voice resound in his ears.

"Who are you people?! How did you activate the teleport formation?!"

Before Yuan could even react, a dozen people with weapons in their grasp surrounded him and Wang Xiuying, and they were all emitting the power of a Spirit Grandmaster!

"Y-Yuan..." Wang Xiuying's grasp on him tightened even more after feeling their unfriendly atmosphere.

"Hello, I'm sorry if we're not supposed to be here, but we were brought to this place against our will by accident through a formation... I think." Yuan said to them.

"Impossible! Nobody has used this teleport formation for hundreds of thousands of years!" One of the figures said.

"What is your purpose for coming here?!" Another one asked.

"I already told you guys— I don't know how we got here. We also don't have any reason to be here, so I'd appreciate it if you tell us how we can go back." Yuan said to them.

The group of people turned to look at each other.

After a moment of silence, one of them said, "That's impossible. We also don't know how to activate that formation."

"What?! We can't go back?! What about the Mystic Realm?!" Wang Xiuying exclaimed.

"Mystic Realm...? Don't tell me you're from the Lower Heavens..." One of them recognized the Mystic Realm and asked.

"That's right. We came from the Lower Heavens." Yuan confirmed.

After another moment of silence, the one leading them spoke, "Regardless of your situation, we are going to bring you in for further questioning. If you resist, we'll kill you right here."

In their eyes, neither Wang Xiuying and Yuan were powerful enough to threaten them— especially not Wang Xiuying, who was a mere Spirit

Apprentice, so they lowered their guard a little bit.

"There's nothing we can do now but listen to them, Yuan." Wang Xiuying said to him.

Yuan nodded, "Okay, we'll cooperate."

Thus, the group of Spirit Grandmasters began escorting Yuan and Wang Xiuying towards the city walls in the distance.

Chapter 351 - Detained

Once they reached the gates, the Spirit Grandmasters stopped Yuan and Wang Xiuying and said to them, "Before you enter, you must wear these."

"Handcuffs...? Really? Why are we being treated like criminals?" Wang Xiuying frowned at the sight of these cuffs.

"Why? Because you guys broke the rules, so you're criminals in our eyes." One of them said.

"What?! What rules did we break? We just got here!" Wang Xiuying was in disbelief.

"Just by coming here without permission, you've broken one of our most sacred rules!"

"But we arrived here by accident! We didn't come here because we wanted to!"

"Regardless of your circumstances or situation, it's a fact that you've stepped onto our sacred soil without permission. Furthermore, you're humans! Humans are not allowed in this place!"

"You're humans as well!" Wang Xiuying refuted.

The Spirit Grandmasters looked at each other before bursting out with laughter.

"Humans? Us? Hahaha! We only took the appearance of humans because it's more convenient to travel in such a small form!"

"That's right! We also take up much less space in this form!"

"T-This form?" Wang Xiuying stared at them with wide eyes, finally realizing the situation.

"Don't tell me you're all magical beasts in human forms? I have heard about it, but this is my first time actually seeing it in person..." Wang Xiuying's body trembled once she realized that they were not really humans, only monsters in human skin.

"That's right! We're all dragons!"

They all held a prideful expression on their faces at this moment.

"D-Dragons?! You're all Divine Beasts?!" Yuan looked at them with surprise.

"What? Not all dragons are Divine Beasts! What an ignorant human." The dragons shook their heads at him.

"Anyways, enough chit-chatting. Hurry up and put on these handcuffs, or we'll consider this is resisting us and we'll kill you on the spot."

"..."

Since they were outnumbered and were technically in the wrong for coming to this place without permission, Yuan and Wang Xiuying agreed to be cuffed without much fuss.

"Good. Now we can enter the city."

Wang Xiuying looked at these cuffs with a frown on her face, and she spoke, "Yuan... I don't feel so good. It's like these cuffs are draining my strength..."

"Eh? Really?" Yuan raised his eyebrows since he didn't feel such effects.

"These are special cuffs that will seal the cultivation of anyone wearing them— mostly humans. As long as you wear these, you won't be able to use your cultivation and cause any troubles."

"As if we'd cause any trouble!" Wang Xiuying exclaimed.

"It's better to be safe than sorry, and we only have these kinds of shackles in this place so it's not like we have a choice."

The dragons said to them before bringing them into the city.

Once they were inside the city, the dragons brought Yuan and Wang Xiuying into this building before tossing them into a jail cell.

"The two of you will stay right there until our supervisor comes for questioning," said the dragons before leaving them alone.

"I can't believe it... To think we'd become criminals and even tossed into a jail cell..." Wang Xiuying sighed, as this was a completely new experience for her.

"We'll be fine as long as we cooperate with them," Yuan said to her.

"This is all that damned Mystic Pagoda's fault! Why did it bring us here?! Are we still inside the Mystic Realm? If not, does this mean we have failed the event since we technically left the place? Aaaah! I have so many questions!" Wang Xiuying sighed out loud.

"There's nothing we can really do since we're already in this place. Once they let us go, we will find a way back home." Yuan said.

"You're really optimistic, huh? What makes you think they'll release us? What if they keep us here forever?"

"But we didn't do anything wrong. Why would they keep us here forever?" Yuan tilted his head with an innocent expression on his face.

"You really don't understand, huh. These people are not human, Yuan! They're all magical beasts! I wouldn't be surprised if they treat humans like trash! Even worse— food!" Wang Xiuying shuddered at the thought of being eaten by dragons.

"If anything happens, we can simply log off," Yuan said.

"But we won't be able to log back on afterward since they'll be waiting for us! In other words, we won't be able to play until we have other players rescue us! But who could possibly rescue us when we don't even know where we are? If the only way to come here is through the Mystic Pagoda, nobody will be able to come here!" Wang Xiuying sighed.

Yuan frowned upon realizing how grave their situation was.

"If we die, maybe we'll respawn outside the Mystic Realm..." Yuan then said.

"I doubt it. Did you already forget? We're inside a city, Yuan. All cities are checkpoints, so if you die, you'll simply respawn in your last city visited." Wang Xiuying said.

"Oh, I didn't know that since I have never died before. And I don't really interact with other players either." Yuan said.

"Anyways, we're in big trouble right now. Hopefully, these dragons don't have any grudges with humans..." Wang Xiuying sighed.

About half an hour later, a figure finally entered their room and stood before their jail cell.

"Hello." Yuan greeted this middle-aged man wearing silver armor that had a dragon design on his chest and two dragon heads on his shoulders.

"Hmmm..." This middle-aged man didn't respond to his greetings, merely staring at them with a solemn expression on his face.

"How long has it been since I last saw humans? Ten thousand years? A hundred thousand years? I don't remember. However, the stench you humans give off... I will never forget it." The middle-aged man mumbled with a look of disdain on his face.

Wang Xiuying swallowed nervously after hearing his words. Clearly, this guy doesn't like humans. Which meant their chances of surviving this nonsense just dropped significantly.

After a moment of silence, the middle-aged man spoke, "I will now ask you questions. If anything that comes out of your mouth is not related to the question, I will have you both executed. Do you understand?"

"Y-Yes..." Wang Xiuying quickly nodded.

Yuan nodded silently.

Chapter 352 - Interrogation

Once Yuan and Wang Xiuying nodded their heads, the middle-aged man began to speak, "First question— how did you two use the teleport formation to get here?"

"We don't know." Wang Xiuying said, and she continued, "We were standing on this formation, and before we knew it, we were already teleported to this place."

After a moment of silence, the middle-aged man continued, "Second question— where were you guys before this? Where is this formation that you spoke of?"

"It was inside this building that is also within this place called the Mystic Realm."

"The Mystic Realm?" The middle-aged man frowned and turned silent again.

"Third question, what is your purpose for coming here?"

"As we'd already said countless times by now, we didn't come here by choice. We have no reason to be here." Yuan said.

"Last question... What are your backgrounds?" The middle-aged man narrowed his eyes and stared at them with a sharp gaze.

"We're just disciples within the Lower Heavens. We were participating in this event that required us to enter the Mystic Realm, and after exploring the place, we ended up here." Wang Xiuying said.

Sometime later, the middle-aged man turned around and prepared to leave the room.

"W-Wait! What about us?" Wang Xiuying asked him in a nervous voice.

"You'll be staying here for a little longer while I verify some information. Don't worry, as much as I hate you, humans, I don't kill unnecessarily." The middle-aged man said to them before leaving the room.

"Phew... At least they won't immediately kill us..." Wang Xiuying released a relieved sigh.

Thus, the two of them continued to wait inside the jail cell.

Meanwhile, outside the building, the middle-aged man made his way to this massive palace, which took him about an hour of flying.

"Captain Cheng."

The guards at the bottom of this palace greeted this middle-aged man wearing silver armor.

"I'm here to see the Royal Family regarding the teleport formation that had recently been activated," he said.

"The Royal Family is already expecting you."

Captain Cheng nodded his head and proceeded to walk the steps to the palace on the top.

Even though he could simply fly up there, he didn't dare to do so since it was a sign of disregard and disrespect for the royal family that lived in this place.

Sometime later, Captain Cheng entered the palace that was made entirely out of some sort of white jade-like material, giving the place an exquisite atmosphere.

Once inside, Captain Cheng went straight to the audience hall, where four people sat at the end of the room, almost like they were expecting Captain Cheng to arrive.

"This subordinate apologizes for making the Royal Family wait." Captain Cheng knelt on one of his knees and lowered his head before these four people before speaking in a respectful voice.

"Raise your head." One of the four figures spoke.

"Yes, Your Majesty."

Captain Cheng raised his head to look at the four people sitting on the platform before him.

A middle-aged man with sharp facial expressions, a beautiful middle-aged woman that gave off a sophisticated aura, a handsome young man with a stern look on his face, and finally, a graceful young lady with bright and clear eyes.

"Now, tell us about the individuals who'd managed to activate the teleport formation," said the middle-aged man wearing majestic robes fitting of an emperor.

"Yes, Your Majesty." Captain Cheng responded before continuing, "According to my investigation, these two individuals are humans from the Lower Heavens, and they'd accidentally arrived at this place."

"What? Humans from the Lower Heavens? And they accidentally arrived at this place? How is that possible? One doesn't simply just 'accidentally arrive' at our Ancient Dragon City that has been isolated from the rest of the world for millions of years!" The middle-aged woman spoke with a dumbfounded look on her beautiful face.

"They also mentioned coming from the Mystic Realm..." Captain Cheng suddenly added.

"What? The Mystic Realm? Why didn't you say that first, you idiot!" The middle-aged lady quickly said.

"The Mystic Realm... So it's time, huh..." The middle-aged man mumbled with a nostalgic look on his face. "But why are there two people? I was only expecting one."

"Captain Cheng, I want you to bring these two humans here." The middle-aged man then said.

"Pardon me? Your Majesty wants me to bring the humans... here? To the Dragon Palace?" Captain Cheng looked at them with wide eyes filled with shock, as he thought humans are forbidden to step foot inside the Dragon Palace!

"Do I have to repeat myself, Captain Cheng?" The middle-aged man frowned.

"N-No! This subordinate will immediately bring them here! Please excuse me!"

Captain Cheng quickly stood up and left the palace. However, he didn't forget to bow to them once more before leaving.

"Why are you allowing humans to step foot inside our sacred Dragon Palace, father?" The young man sitting beside him asked after Captain Cheng left the scene.

"This is a complicated situation that even I don't understand fully, and it's also our ancestors' will."

"What?! The ancestors?!" The young man and young lady expressed great shock after hearing this.

"You're still too young to learn it, so I will spare the explanation for now. You'll probably understand it sooner or later regardless now that these visitors have finally come." The middle-aged man said.

"Finally come?" The young man raised his eyebrows, as it sounded like they have been waiting for these people to come for a long time now.

Didn't these humans come here by accident? How could they possibly predict something like this?

"I wonder what kind of people these humans are. This will be my first time seeing humans." The young lady suddenly spoke with anticipation in her eyes.

"Why are you excited? They are only humans— inferior beings compared to us dragons. From what I heard, they're all weak and have terrible characteristics. In fact, humans are the reason we've isolated ourselves in this world." The young man sneered.

"Still, I want to see them for myself." The young lady said.

Chapter 353 - Dragon Palace

After leaving the Dragon Palace, Captain Cheng returned to the building where Yuan and Wang Xiuying were being held.

"Are the humans still inside?" Captain Cheng asked the guards standing outside.

"Yes, Captain! Nobody has entered or left this place ever since you left!" The guards responded.

"Good."

Captain Cheng went inside a moment later to see Yuan and Wang Xiuying sitting in their jail cell with bored-looking expressions on their faces.

"Guards! Open the cells!" Captain Cheng said to them.

"Yes, Captain!" The guards didn't question him and immediately opened the cell doors.

"Are we free?!" Wang Xiuying's face immediately brightened.

"No, you're not free. You're coming with me now." Captain Cheng said to them.

"Oh..." Wang Xiuying sighed after hearing this and returned to look dispirited.

Once they were outside, Captain Cheng carried the two of them into the skies using Qi Manipulation.

"You're... a Spirit King?" Yuan recognized his spiritual energy. However, it was much more powerful than Senior Nie's and even Xiao Hua's cultivation. If he had to take a guess, this person was around the peak of Spirit King.

Captain Cheng looked at Yuan and said, "You can tell? Not bad for someone only in the Spirit Grandmaster realm."

"Only?" Wang Xiuying raised her eyebrows. "How powerful are the people here when you make it sound like Spirit Grandmasters are insignificant?"

"Hmph. You're from the Lower Heavens so Spirit Grandmasters are probably the peak of cultivation there and are revered by everyone and their mother. However, in this world, Spirit Grandmasters are only qualified to become bodyguards at best!"

"What? Bodyguards at best?" Wang Xiuying stared at him with a dazed look on her face, as she was having trouble imagining the power scale of this place.

"Just where are we, exactly?" Yuan asked him a moment later.

"You're currently in the Ancient Dragon City, a place isolated from the Nine Heavens. In other words, we don't belong to the Nine Heavens. However, if we were, we would probably exist somewhere in the middle of the Nine Heavens."

"So even higher than the Spirit Heavens? Amazing." Yuan expressed his admiration.

"Spirit Heavens? Hah! That place is like a backwater area compared to our sacred place!" Captain Cheng laughed out loud.

Sometime later, Yuan asked, "By the way, where are we heading? We've been traveling for almost an hour now."

"It's a place that's too good for you humans, that's for sure. We're almost there. I'll explain it more once we get there."

A few more minutes later, Captain Cheng started descending from the skies.

"That's... a palace? What a beautiful place." Yuan expressed his admiration for the palace made out of white jade.

"A breathtaking place, indeed..." Wang Xiuying mumbled with a dazed look on her face.

Once they landed, Captain Cheng said to them, "This is the Dragon Palace, where the Royal Family lives."

"The Royal Family?" Wang Xiuying swallowed nervously. These people sound like incredible big shots! Why were they brought here? To meet the Royal Family?

"I will warn you now, and I will only warn you once. If you show even the slightest disrespect or hostility towards the Royal Family, I will immediately kill you on the spot." Captain Cheng warned them with a stern look on his face.

"Do you two understand?"

"Yes." They quickly nodded.

"Good. Then follow me." Captain Cheng then led them to the staircase where other guards were stationed.

'Wow, they're really all Spirit Grandmasters...' Yuan said to himself after seeing their cultivation.

Once they climbed the staircase, Captain Cheng brought them to the audience room, where the Royal Family was already seated.

'That's the Royal Family? They have such a powerful atmosphere around them!' Wang Xiuying could feel a suffocating pressure around her body just from looking at them.

"Stop right there!" Captain Cheng suddenly said to them once they got within a certain distance from the Royal Family.

Yuan and Wang Xiuying immediately stopped walking.

"Uhh... Hello?" The two of them greeted the Royal Family awkwardly, as they have never met royalty before, much less greet them.

"The audacity! Why aren't you kneeling on the floor when you're greeting the Royal Family?! And what's with that greeting?! Do you have a death wish?! I even warned you right before we entered this place!" Captain Cheng roared at them before grabbing the sword by his side and raising it into the air, seemingly prepared to chop them to pieces.

"Aaah! Yuan!" Wang Xiuying shouted in a terrified voice.

Yuan subconsciously responded to Wang Xiuying's voice, and he immediately summoned the Empyrean Overlord and stood between Captain Cheng and Wang Xiuying, protecting her from him.

"Y-You! How dare you point a weapon at me! A mere human!" Captain Cheng's Spirit King cultivation base exploded from his body.

Cough

Wang Xiuying coughed up a mouthful of blood after experiencing Captain Cheng's tyrannical cultivation base. Yuan wasn't much better. Even with his talents, the disparity between Spirit Grandmaster and Spirit King was simply too much. Furthermore, his opponent was a dragon.

However, he wasn't just going to stand there and do nothing while Wang Xiuying was feeling pain.

But before he could really do anything, the middle-aged man sitting at the end of the room suddenly stood up and shouted in a loud voice, "Halt!"

A powerful aura that was far stronger than Captain Cheng's aura suddenly filled the place, yet it didn't hurt Yuan or Wang Xiuying. Instead, it canceled out Captain Cheng's aura.

Captain Cheng immediately withdrew his pressure after hearing the middle-aged man's words.

"Who told you to treat the guests so roughly, Captain Cheng?! If you'd hurt them or worse—killed them—the death sentence would be the least of your worries!" The middle-aged man exclaimed, shocking him.

"T-This subordinate was wrong!" Captain Cheng immediately knelt on the ground and apologized.

However, the middle-aged man ignored him and approached Yuan and Wang Xiuying.

"Be at ease, guests. Things had gotten out of hand just now, and it was never our intention." The middle-aged man said to Yuan with a friendly smile on his face.

Chapter 354 - Royal Family

Despite the middle-aged man's friendly approach, Yuan remained alert, keeping the Empyrean Overlord in his grasp.

"Captain Cheng, get out of our sight!" The middle-aged man turned to look at him.

"B-But I cannot leave these two here without any supervision—"

"Do you really think we need supervision for them?" The middle-aged man narrowed his eyes.

"T-This subordinate has asked a stupid question! Please excuse me!" Captain Cheng said before leaving the room with a reddened face.

Once Captain Cheng left the scene, the middle-aged man returned his attention to Yuan and said, "I'm Xi Shengmo, also known as the Dragon Emperor, ruler of the Ancient Dragon City. Behind me is my royal family."

The middle-aged woman nodded her head and said, "I'm Xi Mingze, also known as the Dragon Empress."

"Dragon Prince, Xi Murong," said the handsome young man in a prideful tone.

"Hello! I am Xi Meili, the youngest child! I have always wanted to meet humans!" The graceful young lady spoke with a bright smile on her face, complimenting her bright eyes.

"..."

Yuan felt oddly at ease after Xi Meili's introduction, and he lowered his sword.

He then turned to look at Wang Xiuying and asked her, "Are you okay?"

"Y-Yes... I am fine. I have experienced worse pain when I practiced my own medicine on myself..." She nodded her head after wiping the blood from her lips.

"Here, let me help you get these cuffs off." The Dragon Emperor snapped his fingers, causing the cuffs to open and fall onto the ground.

Once the situation calmed down, the Dragon Emperor returned to his seat and said to them, "I have heard the situation from Captain Cheng. You two arrived here by accident after encountering a formation in the Mystic Realm, correct?"

"That's right." Yuan nodded.

"Hmmm..."

After sitting there in silence with a pondering face, the Dragon Emperor spoke, "Come with me. I want to confirm something— whether it's all just a big coincidence or you're really the one."

"Confirm what?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

The Dragon Emperor stood up and said, "Our ancestors had a prophecy—that one day, a human will arrive at our Ancient Dragon City and complete the ritual."

"Ritual?" Wang Xiuying and Yuan looked at each other. This sounded dangerous in its own ways.

"Come with me, I'll show you." The Dragon Emperor said as he walked out of the room.

Yuan and Wang Xiuying followed him. Not that they really had a choice in the first place.

"Hey, why are you wearing a mask?"

The Dragon Princess, Xi Meili, suddenly appeared beside Yuan and asked him with a curious gaze on her pretty face.

"Oh, I have my reasons. But if you want me to take it off, I don't mind, since that reason doesn't apply in this place." Yuan said.

"I want to see your face if you don't mind." Xi Meili said.

Yuan nodded and removed the mask on his face, revealing to them his handsome and young face.

"Good enough?"

"Yes, you look much better than I'd imagined." Xi Meili chuckled.

"I'll take that as a compliment." Yuan smiled.

"What's the outside world like? Are there a lot of humans?" Xi Meili then asked.

"Yes, there are. The only thing different outside is that we're not surrounded by clouds like we're here. This reminds me, are we somewhere in the sky or something?" Yuan then asked.

"Nope. That's just how this world is. The ground is made of clouds, and the sky also has clouds."

"I see... What a mythical place." Yuan nodded.

Sometime later, they arrived at the ritual site, which was a couple of miles behind the Dragon Palace.

The ritual site itself wasn't anything too special. There were nine dragon statues placed in a circle formation, and in the middle of this formation was a crystal ball shaped like a dragon's head.

"What are we supposed to do here?" Yuan asked them.

"Do you see that crystal ball in the middle?" The Dragon Emperor asked him, and he continued without waiting for a response, "That is the Crystal of Fate. If you drop your blood onto it, the Crystal of Fate will evaluate your talents, and the dragon statues will release a pillar of light that corresponds to your talents."

"If you can somehow make all nine dragon statues release a pillar of light, a treasure will reveal itself. This treasure was left behind by our ancestors, and we have been trying to obtain it for millions of years now. However, we've never been able to release all nine pillars of light— only seven at most."

"Now this is where their prophecy comes into play. They said that one day, someone— a human will arrive in our world and release all nine pillars of light."

"Hmph! As if a mere human could possibly have more talents than us dragons!" The Dragon Prince suddenly snorted.

He then looked at Yuan and said, "Just so you know, I have managed to release 7 pillars of light! And I am recognized as one of the most talented dragons since our ancestors' era!"

"If you can release more pillars of light than I did, I will lower my head and call you boss!"

"Ehhh..." Yuan was at loss for words.

"By the way, I also managed to release seven pillars of light." Xi Meili said a moment later.

"Now which one of you would like to go first? The prophecy only mentioned a single human, so I wasn't expecting two." The Dragon Emperor said to them.

Yuan then said, "If we help you in this ritual, will you help us return to our own place?"

"As in return to the Mystic Realm? That's going to be a little tricky since it's been a long time since anyone has left this world, but we'll try to assist you to the best of our abilities."

"I understand." Yuan nodded, then he turned to look at Wang Xiuying and asked her, "Do you want to go first?"

"I do!" Wang Xiuying immediately nodded her head.

Chapter 355 - Dragon Awakening Ritual

"Okay, then this young lady shall go first." The Dragon Emperor nodded his head at Wang Xiuying.

Wang Xiuying then approached the crystal ball in the middle of the formation.

"I just need to drop some of my blood onto this crystal ball, right?" She asked for confirmation.

"That is correct. You may use the dagger beside the Crystal of Fate to release your blood. Just a few drops will be enough." The Dragon Emperor nodded.

Wang Xiuying grabbed the cool-looking dagger with a dragon design on the handle and poked a small hole on the tip of her finger.

She then squeezed a few drops of blood onto the crystal ball.

The crystal ball immediately absorbed her blood and began glowing a subtle golden light.

A few seconds later, one of the dragon statues emitted a golden aura before shooting into the sky.

A few more seconds later, a second dragon statue released a pillar of golden light into the sky.

Then, a third pillar of light appeared in the sky for all of the people in the city to see.

"Someone is partaking in the Dragon Awakening Ritual? Who could it be?"

The people in the city stopped whatever they were doing to spectate the ritual like they always do.

However, the ritual ended sooner than the people had expected, as the pillars of lights had stopped at three.

"Hahaha! Which trash is participating in the ritual? Three pillars of light? That's pathetic!"

"When was the last time someone released only three pillars? I don't remember!"

The people spectating the ritual from afar burst out laughing when they saw the results.

Meanwhile, at the ritual site, Xi Murong slapped his thighs and laughed out loud, "Three?! Hahaha! How laughable!"

"I guess you're not the one..." The Dragon Emperor shook his head at Wang Xiuying, who returned with a somewhat embarrassed expression on her face.

"Don't mind it, young lady. Releasing three pillars of light is actually very good for someone from the Lower Heavens. You should be proud of yourself." Xi Meili approached Wang Xiuying to comfort her.

"Thank you, Dragon Princess..." Wang Xiuying said with a slight smile on her face.

"I am serious, young lady. Releasing three pillars of light is an incredible feat for a human. This Dragon Awakening Ritual is meant for dragons. If other humans in the Lower Heavens were to take this ritual, they might not even be able to release a single pillar." Xi Meili reassured her that it was nothing to be embarrassed about.

"If you say it like that, I guess..." The smile on Wang Xiuying's face became less stiff and more genuine.

"Young man, it's your turn." The Dragon Emperor looked at Yuan.

Since Wang Xiuying failed, it was very likely that Yuan is the person mentioned in the prophecy, but there is also the chance that neither of them has anything to do with the prophecy and that they'd truly arrived in this place by accident.

Sometime later, Yuan approached the crystal ball shaped like a dragon's head and took a deep breath.

He then dropped some of his blood onto it.

Once the crystal ball absorbed his blood, it immediately began to glow golden, and it was emitting a light that was noticeably more colorful than Wang Xiuying's attempt.

A few seconds later, the first pillar of light was released, piercing straight into the heavens.

The second pillar appeared a few more seconds later, as did the third and fourth.

"Look! Someone else is partaking in the Dragon Awakening Ritual!"

"Four pillars, huh? At least this person is already better than the last one."

"Obtaining three pillars will guarantee that they will reach Spirit Grandmaster. Four pillars mean they have the talent to reach Spirit Lord."

A few seconds later, the fifth pillar appeared.

"Five pillars! This person will reach at least Spirit King! Not bad!"

"Ooooh! Six pillars! Someone has managed to obtain six pillars! This person is, without a doubt, a genius! Spirit Emperor is guaranteed for this person as long as he or she lives long enough!"

"H-Heavens! Seven pillars! This person has managed to get seven pillars! He's on the same level as the children from the Royal Family!"

"Whoever this person is, his future is looking great!"

"S-Seven pillars...?" Xi Murong, the Dragon Prince, swallowed nervously upon seeing this, and an ominous feeling appeared in his guts.

However, the eighth pillar didn't appear after the seventh pillar— at least not within just a few seconds like usual.

Just as Xi Murong sighed in relief that Yuan stopped at seven pillars of light, the eighth dragon statue began emitting a golden aura before shooting it into the skies, shocking the spectators.

"E-Eight! Eight pillars! Whoever this individual is— he's managed to rival the ancestors in terms of talents!"

The spectators were shaking in excitement when they saw this.

The Dragon Emperor also trembled with excitement and anticipation when he saw this.

'He's the one! There's no way he isn't the one in the prophecy!' The Dragon Emperor was almost certain at this point that Yuan was the one they have been waiting for— the one who'll help them reveal their ancestors' treasure!

A whole minute after Yuan released the eighth pillar of light, the Ancient Dragon City suddenly began to shake, which shook the residences greatly, as they have never experienced an earthquake in this world before.

In fact, natural earthquakes cannot happen in this world, so this was a phenomenon caused by something unnatural!

"W-What's happening?"

The earthquake was so powerful that it'd knocked many people onto the ground.

A few moments into the earthquake, the ninth dragon statue suddenly began to emit a golden aura.

However, what came out of the ninth statue wasn't a pillar of light. Instead, the hologram of a dragon appeared from the statue and flew towards the sky before circling around the world like some kind of guardian.

In fact, this dragon somewhat resembled the dragon that appeared at the Dragon Essence Temple after Yuan cleared all 100 floors of the Carp Leaping Over Dragon's Gate Tower!

Chapter 356 - Dragon Ancestor

The moment this dragon appeared in the sky, the Dragon Emperor and his family could feel their blood reacting to the dragon.

"Ancestor!"

The Dragon Emperor and the others immediately kowtowed on the ground and bowed to the dragon in the sky.

If one were to see the Ancient Dragon City from above right now, one would see that every person in this city was kowtowing at this moment.

Unexpectedly, the ancestor of the Royal Family had been summoned after awakening the ninth dragon statue.

"This dragon looks familiar... The Great One?" Yuan sort of recognized this dragon in the sky, as it resembled the Great One he has met multiple times by now.

After circling around the sky above the Ancient Dragon City exactly nine times, the golden dragon stopped flying and turned to stare at the city with its powerful gaze that sent chills down everyone's spine.

The Dragon Ancestor then narrowed its eyes at the area behind the Dragon Palace, or more specifically, the individual who was standing in the Dragon Awakening Ritual— Yuan.

"So you have finally returned..." The Dragon Ancestor spoke.

And it continued, "Oh, before you respond or ask me anything, I am merely a recording, so I won't be able to answer your questions."

After a moment of silence, the Dragon Ancestor continued, "The fact that you've summoned me means you've finally made it to my humble world. You may or may not remember anything, but this is proof that you're on the right track. However, coming here is just the beginning. You still have a long journey before you will accomplish your goals."

"And just like we have arranged, I have left behind for you a small gift. I hope to see you soon at the peak."

After a small pause, the Dragon Ancestor continued, "Now as for my family... I don't know who is in charge right now or what you're doing, but I want you to treat my little friend here right. Consider this request my will or something like that. You won't regret it, I promise."

"Until next time, my friend."

The Dragon Ancestor disappeared from the sky shortly after saying his words, dumbfounding everybody in the Ancient Dragon City, as nobody there had any idea what their ancestor was talking about.

However, to call someone its 'friend', this person must be fairly important to the Dragon Ancestor.

Once the Dragon Ancestor disappeared, the ninth and final pillar of light appeared in the sky.

It was at this moment a massive magic circle appeared in the sky above the Ancient Dragon City.

"What the heck is that?!" Xi Murong cried out loud when he saw this formation.

"Such a thing existed above the city? Even I didn't know this!" The Dragon Emperor was also shocked to see the formation.

A few moments later, this formation in the sky released a powerful light that basked everyone in the Ancient Dragon City.

"Father! I can feel my body growing more powerful! I think this light is affecting our bloodline!" Xi Meili suddenly exclaimed.

"What?!"

When Xi Meili mentioned their bloodline, the Dragon Emperor and Dragon Empress immediately checked their bodies, and sure enough, their bloodlines had improved!

The formation in the sky disappeared exactly a minute later, and a small object could be seen descending from the sky afterward.

This object descended towards the Dragon Palace and hovered in front of Yuan sometime later.

"This is... a drop of blood?" Yuan grabbed the bottle that contained a single drop of blood inside.

[You have completed the Hidden Quest: Dragon Awakening Ritual]

[You have obtained 'Dragon Ancestor's Blood Essence']

[You have obtained Fame +500]

Peace quickly returned to the Ancient Dragon City, but the people there were still filled with shock and disbelief about the events today, and they will remain that way for the next couple of days.

"Y-Young man, what was your name again?" The Dragon Emperor looked at Yuan with a complicated look on his face.

"Yuan."

"Do you think I can take a look at that treasure, Yuan? Don't worry, I won't take it from you. The ancestor has already spoken. That treasure belongs to whoever manages to release all nine pillars of light." The Dragon Emperor reassured him that they won't take away the treasure.

After all, if they went against their ancestors' wishes, it might affect their bloodline, and no treasure in this world is worth more than their own bloodline.

Yuan nodded and handed him the bottle.

The Royal Family gathered around the Dragon Emperor and looked at the drop of blood inside the bottle.

"My bloodline is reacting to this drop of blood." Xi Meili said.

"Mine as well." Xi Murong agreed.

"I think this drop of blood belongs to the ancestor..." The Dragon Emperor said.

"If that's true, this drop of blood is too precious to be given to a human! We cannot give it to him! It'll be worth more in our hands!" Xi Murong said.

Pap!

"Ah!"

Xi Murong suddenly cried out loud in a painful voice when the Dragon Empress slapped him.

She then said with a frown on her face, "Were you asleep just now when the Dragon Ancestor spoke? The Dragon Ancestor wants this treasure to be given to Yuan, so it will be given to him! No questions asked! Unless you want to challenge the Dragon Ancestor!"

"I-I don't dare!" Xi Murong quickly said.

Challenge the Dragon Ancestor who dominated the Nine Heavens and created this utopia for them? He'd be cursed to death by everyone around him regardless of his status as Dragon Prince!

Sometime later, the Dragon Emperor handed the bottle back to Yuan and said to him, "Please take care of this treasure, Yuan. This drop of blood is worth more than you can possibly fathom— it's not something a human being should hold if I have to be completely honest with you."

"I understand. Thank you." Yuan nodded and accepted the bottle of blood.

"Umm... Do you have something I can use to hold it? I don't have my spatial ring with me."

The Dragon Emperor nodded and said, "Of course. We have plenty of those. Come with me."

Chapter 357 - Xi Meili

Sometime later, Yuan and Wang Xiuying followed the Royal Family back into the Dragon Palace.

"Congratulations, Yuan. You've managed to obtain a treasure that even Immortals would kill for." Xi Meili said to him.

"Immortals? How powerful are Immortals?" Yuan asked.

"Real Immortals are extremely powerful. They're so powerful that even my parents cannot do anything to them despite their cultivation bases." Xi Meili said, and she continued, "By the way, my parents are one realm above Spirit Emperors— Spirit Sovereigns."

"I see... but what can I do with this drop of blood? Can I consume it?" Yuan then asked.

After all, he's already consumed phoenix blood before.

"Yes. You can consume it to increase the grade of your bloodline. And depending on your bloodline, it might increase the grade of your bloodline by more than one grade! Crazy, right? Humans would go to war for this drop of blood." Xi Meili said.

"How lucky, Yuan. You have once again obtained something incredible." Wang Xiuying congratulated him.

And she continued, "I'm beginning to understand how you were able to achieve the things you had achieved."

"It just happens," Yuan said with a smile on his face.

Sometime later, the Dragon Emperor handed Yuan a spatial ring, "Here, you can use this to store your treasures."

[Dragon Spatial Ring]

[Grade: Heaven]

[Mental Strength Required: 25,000]

[Description: A pouch that contains its own space. Much larger than normal Spatial Rings. Can hold a few hundred watermelons inside.]

"Thank you." Yuan accepted the ring before storing the Dragon Ancestor's Blood Essence inside.

"Now, regarding your way back to the Lower Heavens... We can try to activate the teleport formation you guys came from, but that will require some time and research since it's been a very long time since we last used it." The Dragon Emperor said to them.

"How long do you think it'll take, Senior Xi?" Wang Xiuying asked him.

"At least a week," he responded.

"A week, huh... As long as we can get back before the Mystic Realm event ends..." she nodded.

"You can stay here in the meantime. I will assign some servants to you—"

"I will do it!" Xi Meili suddenly interrupted, even volunteering for the job.

"You will?" Her father looked at her with raised eyebrows.

"You guys don't mind, right? I want to spend as much time as I can with you two before you leave this place. Who knows, maybe this will be my last time seeing humans." Xi Meili said.

"I don't mind," Yuan said.

"Me neither." Wang Xiuying agreed.

"Great! Lunch is about to be served, so we can decide what you want to do afterward. Maybe I can show you around the city or something." Xi Meili suggested.

"That sounds like a great idea." As someone who loves to explore, Yuan agreed with her suggestion.

Xi Meili then brought them to the guest room, where they drank tea and talked about random things until lunch was prepared.

"What's life like here? You can't leave this place, right? It reminds me of the people inside the Mystic Realm since they also cannot leave that world." Yuan asked Xi Meili.

"It's not that we cannot leave this place. We can leave whenever we want, but nobody really wants to go outside." Xi Meili revealed to him.

"Really? Why? Aren't you bored of staying in this one place for the rest of your life?" Yuan then asked.

"Although I don't know how big the outside world is, I was told that the Ancient Dragon City was comparable to an entire continent outside. And while it does get boring sometimes, at least we're safe in this world."

"I heard from my parents that the outside world is incredibly dangerous with life-threatening existences roaming everywhere. In this world, people rarely die from unnatural causes, and everyone can live for tens of thousands of years without any worries."

"What an incredible place... It sounds almost like a paradise." Wang Xiuying said, feeling a little envious of their peaceful life.

"Yes!" Xi Meili nodded her head with a bright expression on her face, and she continued to speak, "Furthermore, everyone in this world is from the dragon race, so we don't have to worry about arguing with the other races, which is incredibly common in the outside world from what I heard."

"I see... By the way, what cultivation are you? I cannot sense your cultivation base." Yuan suddenly asked her, as he has been wondering about this for a while now.

"Me? I'm a Spirit Emperor," she casually said.

"Spirit Emperor?! If you don't mind me asking, how old are you?" Wang Xiuying asked her.

"I will be 10,169 years old next month."

"Ten thousand years old?! You don't look that old!" Wang Xiuying said, feeling a little envious of Xi Meili. If only she could be 100 years old and look like she was in her early twenties, much less 10,000 years old— that would be the dream of every female in the real world.

"Old? I'm still very young. My brother is almost 30,000 years old. As for my parents, they're well over 100,000 years old!" Xi Meili said.

"What's the average lifespan for an ordinary dragon?" Yuan asked out of curiosity.

"About 50,000 years, but that number increases drastically with cultivation."

"50,000 years..." Yuan mumbled in a dazed voice.

The cultivation world is truly unfathomable and filled with wonders.

"What about you two? How old are you?" Xi Meili asked them next.

"I'm 18 years old." Wang Xiuying said.

"I'm also 18 years old," Yuan said.

"Wait... You're only 18 years old?" Xi Meili looked at Yuan with a gawking expression on her pretty face.

"Yes?" Yuan said in a questioning tone.

"And you're already a Spirit Grandmaster? As expected of someone who managed to release all nine pillars of light... Your talents are truly terrifying." Xi Meili said.

Sometime later, a servant notified them that lunch was prepared.

"Let's go eat for now. We can talk more later." Xi Meili said, escorting them to the dining room shortly after.

Chapter 358 - A Dragons Pride

Chapter 358 - A Dragon's Pride

Once Xi Meili brought them to the dining room, they were greeted by a large table that was filled with food from the center to the edge of the table.

There was so much food on the table that it looked like a feast for 100 people.

Wang Xiuying was left speechless by this. Surely, they didn't have to cook that much food for just six people, right?

"That's a lot of food," Yuan said out loud after seeing it.

Xi Meili chuckled and said, "We're dragons— we eat a lot."

"Come, take a seat." The Dragon Emperor said to them with a bright smile on his face, clearly in a very blissful mood.

A few moments later, once they were all seated, the Dragon Emperor spoke again, "Yuan, I will raise this cup for you, who released all nine pillars of light and made history today, even helping us improve our bloodlines."

"Thank you, Yuan." The Dragon Empress also raised her cup.

"Che. As much as I hate to admit it, you're pretty good for a human." Xi Murong also raised his cup.

After spending some time alone, Xi Murong realized that Yuan wasn't like the other humans and that he was qualified to be acknowledged by them.

"If I remember correctly, you promised to address Yuan as 'boss' if he managed to release more pillars than you, Elder Brother." Xi Meili reminded him as she raised her cup.

"S-Shut up! Why did you have to remind him!" Xi Murong's face quickly flushed with redness.

"Go ahead. Eat whatever you want and as much as you want!" The Dragon Emperor said to them before digging in.

The Royal Family immediately started grabbing the food and tossed them into their mouths, taking large bites and eating them in a somewhat barbaric manner, completely unbecoming of their status.

Wang Xiuying was left speechless by their eating manner, but when she thought about it, they were not human, and their eating resembled how magical beasts would eat their food.

"Wow, these foods have so much spiritual energy in them! They taste great!" Yuan exclaimed after swallowing a mouthful of food.

"Almost everything on this table was raised by the Royal Family. I'm glad you like it." The Dragon Emperor laughed.

"I can feel my cultivation base soaring just from eating... I have never experienced this before!" Wang Xiuying managed to enter the Spirit Warrior realm after swallowing a few mouthfuls of food.

"Most of them are raised to Spirit Grandmaster before we eat them, so you're consuming Spirit Grandmaster spiritual meat. You'll most likely increase a few more levels during this lunch." Xi Meili said to her.

"S-Spirit Grandmaster spiritual meat... I don't know about the Spirit Heavens, but the Lower Heavens definitely don't have such luxury..." Wang Xiuying mumbled, and she quickly began stuffing more food inside her mouth, as this was a great opportunity to raise her cultivation easily.

'It was the right choice to follow Yuan! If I continue following him, who knows what might happen. I might even become a top player just by following him!' Wang Xiuying thought to herself.

'Unfortunately, I am not playing this game to become the best player out there.'

Since her main objective was to find a cure for Yu Tian in this vast cultivation world, she will be focusing on that.

'If I can go to the Spirit Heavens, I will be able to learn even more things! I might even find a cure for Yu Tian!' Wang Xiuying thought.

Sometime later, once they had consumed over half of the food on the table, the Royal Family began worrying if they would have enough food or not, as they had underestimated Yuan's eating capabilities.

'Heavens! This human's appetite is as big as us dragons! And dragons are known for having huge appetites compared to the other races!' Xi Murong cried inwardly when he realized how much Yuan had eaten.

Meanwhile, Wang Xiuying had stopped eating long ago, and she was on the verge of collapsing from eating too much. However, she'd managed to increase her cultivation base to ninth-level Spirit Warrior from her effort.

"Tell the cooks to bring us more food! And tell them to not stop cooking until I say so!" The Dragon Emperor commanded the servants there, as he wasn't going to risk running out of food, which would be an embarrassment for their family.

A royal family running out of food during a feast? If word got out, they would become laughing stocks!

"If there's not enough food, you don't have to mind me," Yuan said to them with an innocent face.

"Hahaha! Nonsense! Eat as much as you want! In fact, don't stop eating until you're full!" The Dragon Emperor said.

Yuan nodded and continued to stuff his face with more food.

When Xi Murong saw this, he quickened his eating pace, not wanting to lose to Yuan for a second time.

'Although you might have beaten me in terms of talent, I will never let you beat me when it comes to eating! My pride as a dragon is on the line here!' Xi Murong cried inwardly.

A few hours and a couple hundred pounds of food later, Yuan patted his round stomach and finally stopped eating.

"I am full!" He said with a satisfied look on his face, as it has been a long time since he'd been this full.

"Yes! I won!" Xi Murong said with a somewhat sick look on his face.

"Huh?" Yuan looked at Xi Murong who was looking in his direction with a prideful look, unaware of the battle they just had.

"Are you sure you're really human and don't actually have a dragon bloodline?" Xi Meili chuckled.

"I'm pretty sure I am human..." Yuan smiled.

"Anyways, it's getting late, so we'll have to visit the city tomorrow. I'll show you the guest rooms now if you're ready to move." Xi Meili said to them.

"Give me a few minutes..." Yuan said while pointing at his round belly.

"Me too." Wang Xiuying also said.

"Don't worry. Take all the time you need. I'll go prepare your rooms now." Xi Meili said to them before leaving the dining room.

Chapter 359 - Rivals

While Xi Meili went to prepare their rooms, the Dragon Emperor remained in the room with them and spoke, "Yuan, if you have any questions for me, now is the best time."

"Now that you mention it, I have had something on my mind ever since I saw the Dragon Ancestor. Just who is the Dragon Ancestor? And is he related to the 'Great One'?" Yuan asked.

The Dragon Emperor immediately frowned upon hearing Yuan mention the Great One, and he spoke in a serious voice, "Where... Where did you hear about the Great One?"

"Oh, I met him a few times— well, not actually in person, but I have spoken with his illusions a couple of times," Yuan said.

"I see..."

The Dragon Emperor closed his eyes for a moment before speaking, "The Dragon Ancestor and the 'Great One' are not related at all. The Dragon Ancestor is an incredibly powerful Divine Beast who has existed since the primordial era with multiple empires across the Nine Heavens, and this Ancient Dragon City is merely one of them. As for the Great One, he was born in the same era as the Dragon Ancestor, and they were rivals of sorts, both racing to the peak."

"Rivals, huh... Do you know who won?" Yuan asked.

"Sorry, but I can't tell you, as I don't have the answer to your question. According to the rumors, they were both equally as talented, so who knows, really."

"I see..." Yuan mumbled.

"Then do you know where I can find the Great One?"

"Unfortunately, the Great One isn't someone you can just 'find'. You must have a strong destiny if you want to find him, and even then, you don't know when or where you'll find him." The Dragon Emperor said.

"And from my knowledge, the Great One is always traveling the Nine Heavens."

"I see..." Yuan nodded.

"By the way, I have been wondering as well... What was the Dragon Ancestor talking about? They had anticipated your arrival and even expected that you'd release all 9 pillars of light. It seemed like they had arranged for everything that happened today."

"Honestly, I also have no idea. This is my first time in this place, and I have never met any dragons besides the Great One before coming here." Yuan shrugged.

"How weird..." The Dragon Emperor mumbled. The Dragon Ancestor definitely expected Yuan's arrival, even speaking to him as though he was very familiar with Yuan. Of course, it was only a recording, but something felt odd about this situation.

Sometime later, Xi Meili returned and said, "Your rooms are prepared. Can you guys walk now?"

"Yes, I can. Thank you." Yuan nodded as he stood up from his chair, feeling as though he'd gained some weight overall.

Thus, Yuan and Wang Xiuying followed Xi Meili to their rooms.

"Wow, what a massive room. I have never been to such a luxurious room before, and I have been to many high-grade hotels because of my grandpa!" Wang Xiuying exclaimed.

As the granddaughter of one of the most famous doctors in the world, it was only natural that Wang Xiuying would have plenty of experience as a rich young lady.

However, no hotel in their world could rival a mere guest room in the Dragon Palace that was as spacious as an entire house.

"Yuan, your room is right next door." Xi Meili said to him.

"Okay. Thank you."

"I'll leave you two alone to rest now. Tomorrow, I will show you guys around the city, okay?"

"That sounds great." Yuan nodded.

"Great. Then goodnight!" Xi Meili said to them before leaving and returning to her own room.

"This is such a wonderful room that I'm going to sleep in here tonight instead of my own room!" Wang Xiuying declared with an excited look on her face.

"What happened to sleeping every day?" Yuan said with a teasing smile on his face.

"S-Shut it! Once in a while is fine! And I am still technically sleeping! It's just that I'll be doing it inside the game!" She quickly refuted, her face slightly rosy.

"Then I'll see you later. Goodnight." Yuan said to her before going to his own room.

"Goodnight, Yuan."

A few moments later, Yuan entered his own room and looked around, paying the most attention to the ancient-looking furniture.

After spending many minutes looking around the place, Yuan jumped onto the large bed that could easily fit an entire family of four.

"Wow, what a comfortable bed. I have never experienced anything like this before..." Yuan felt as though he was sleeping on clouds when he laid on the bed.

Sometime later, he retrieved the Dragon Ancestor's Blood Essence and stared at it silently.

"I really want to consume this right now, but it's probably better to wait until I return to Feng Feng's side so I can ask for advice. I can't be so hasty with such a priceless treasure, after all."

With that in mind, Yuan stored the dragon blood back into the Dragon Spatial Ring.

Yuan logged off the game shortly after for dinner.

"Yuan, something happened outside the Mystic Realm today," Meixiu said to him as she fed him dinner.

"What happened?"

"A pillar of light shot out of the Mystic Realm," she said.

"Eh? Really? What caused this pillar of light?" Yuan was unaware that the pillar of light was created by the teleport formation.

"Nobody knows. However, the pillar of light came from the Mystic Pagoda, so something probably happened there,' she then said.

"Hm? Mystic Pagoda?" Yuan suddenly realized something.

"I think I know why..." He then said.

"Really? What caused it?"

"This is going to be a little long, so I'll tell you after dinner," Yuan said.

"Okay."

After feeding Yuan dinner and cleaning the mess, she returned to his room for his long story.

"Let's see... where should I begin?"

After pondering for a moment, Yuan began recalling what he'd experienced in the Mystic Realm today, starting from how he entered the Mystic Pagoda with Wang Xiuying before being teleported to this weird place where only dragons lived.

Chapter 360 - Serious Implications

"Ancient Dragon City...? So are you still inside the Mystic Realm or not?" Meixiu asked him after hearing his story.

"I don't think so."

"But you still have your cultivation base, right? Shouldn't your cultivation base return to your original cultivation base— maybe a little more after you leave the place?" Meixiu asked.

"Now that you mention it, I still had my Mystic Realm cultivation base at the Ancient Dragon City. Maybe it's a phenomenon because I didn't leave the Mystic Realm the proper way?"

"That's the only logical explanation for it, I guess," Meixiu mumbled.

"Anyways, what are you going to do now? Do you have a way to return to the Mystic Realm?"

"I have no idea how to return, but the Dragon Emperor said he'll try to do something about it, so we can only rely on him for now."

"Do you want me to tell the Sect Master and the others?" Meixiu then asked.

"I don't want them to worry so let's keep this a secret for now, and it's not like we're in danger or anything," Yuan said.

"Okay."

Sometime later, Meixiu left his room whilst Yuan went back inside the game, mostly because he wanted to sleep in the Dragon Palace that was much more comfortable than his own room, just like Wang Xiuying.

"Ahhh, this bed is perfect..." Yuan closed his eyes and fully indulged himself in the comfort, feeling as though he was surrounded by fluffy clouds, and he quickly fell asleep.

The following morning, Yuan was woken up by a knock at the door.

"Yuan, are you awake?" Xi Meili's voice resounded from outside.

"Yes... I am awake..." Yuan responded in a sleepy voice.

"I just want to let you know that breakfast will be ready soon so if you're hungry, just go to the dining room in about an hour."

"Okay. I'll be there." Yuan said to her.

Shortly after waking up, Yuan logged off for Meixiu's breakfast.

"By the way, Doctor Wang texted me this morning. He said that he'll be here in a bit."

"Okay."

About half an hour after breakfast, Doctor Wang knocked on their door.

"I know this is a bit earlier than usual, but I'll be busy later, so I hope you don't mind." Doctor Wang said after he arrived.

"Don't worry about it, Doctor Wang. I'm grateful that you would come here even when you're so busy."

Doctor Wang proceeded to check Yuan's health and body.

"As expected, your body is growing stronger and stronger. However, it's very weird that despite having a body that's healthier than even some athletes, you are still unable to move your body, almost like there is an invisible force preventing you from moving."

"If I wasn't a doctor, I would believe that you had been cursed or something." Doctor Wang said.

"Cursed? Haha... That's very funny, Doctor Wang." Yuan chuckled, as he didn't believe in these kinds of things.

"I am serious, Young Master. Your situation makes no sense at all. You're not sick. Your body is fine. We have tested your blood, your bones, your muscles— everything. However, we couldn't find anything wrong with your body. I also don't believe in superstitions, but your situation is making me doubt my own beliefs!" Doctor Wang said.

"..."

After a moment of silence, Yuan said, "Meixiu, are you here?"

"Yes, I am."

"Sorry, but can you leave for a moment? I'd like to speak with Doctor Wang privately."

"Okay," Meixiu said before leaving the room and closing the door behind her.

"We're alone now, Young Master. What do you have for me?" Doctor Wang asked him.

Yuan didn't say anything, only lifting one of his arms a little off the bed.

"WHAT?! Y-YOU—"

"Lower your voice, Doctor Wang!" Yuan quickly interrupted him.

Doctor Wang subconsciously covered his mouth with his hands, and he stared at Yuan with his eyes wide with shock.

Once he'd calmed down enough, he spoke, "Y-Young Master... Since when can you...?"

"A couple of weeks ago, I guess," Yuan said.

"I'm sorry for keeping this a secret, but I wanted to wait until I could move properly so that I could surprise you all."

"Who else besides myself knows about this?" Doctor Wang asked him.

"Only you and Miss Meifeng know about this," Yuan said.

"Meifeng? Meixiu's mother?"

"Yes."

"Tell me more about this, Young Master. Did it suddenly happen? Or did you do something special?" Doctor Wang asked.

"Well... My recovery began when I started playing Cultivation Online."

"What? That super popular game that's currently dominating the world? My granddaughter also plays it."

"This is going to sound crazy, but I think the game somehow affects our real body as well. Although I have no concrete proof, I have a feeling that's what is happening." Yuan said.

"Indeed, that does sound a little... No, it definitely sounds crazy." Doctor Wang agreed with him.

"I know, but Doctor Wang, do you remember when I was covered in that smelly stuff?"

"The impurities? There's no way I could ever forget about that, and I can still smell the stench very clearly." Doctor Wang shuddered just thinking about the stench.

"Well, to tell you the truth, that also happened to me when I was playing the game. I ate some kind of treasure that cleansed all of the impurities from my body. When I logged off the game, I was shocked to find out that it'd also happened to my real body."

"Hmmm..." Doctor Wang pondered with a serious look on his face.

"I understand. I will do my own investigation as well. If it's true that this game can somehow affect the real body, it will have some serious implications that could change the world." Doctor Wang said.

"Oh, I'll also keep this matter between us, so you don't have to worry about that."

"Thank you, Doctor Wang."

"Anyways, it's a great thing that you're finally recovering. It's been long overdue. I cannot wait to see you walk on your own again." Doctor Wang said with a genuine smile on his face.

Chapter 361 - Changing Diet

"By the way, I am thinking about changing your diet back to normal. What do you think, Young Master?" Doctor Wang suddenly asked him.

"Change my diet? You mean I get to eat normal food again?" Yuan asked him in an excited voice, as it has been many years since he'd last tasted real food— in the real world at least.

"Yes, but it will be in small portions since your body will need to get adjusted to eating such food again."

"Also, you will need to speak with Meixiu about this, since she will be the one cooking it." Doctor Wang said, and he continued, "Shall we get Meixiu back in here?"

"Yes."

Sometime later, Doctor Wang called Meixiu back into the room.

"So I have decided to change the Young Master's diet and see if he can eat real food again. Are you okay with that, Meixiu? You'll be the one preparing all of the food, after all. If you need help, there are paid services out there that will help you cook the food and deliver it to your door." Doctor Wang explained to her.

"I can cook the food by myself," Meixiu said without hesitation, as that was what she had been trained to do.

"Okay, then I will send you the menu in three days. You can continue feeding the Young Master soup for now." Doctor Wang said.

"I understand." Meixiu nodded.

Doctor Wang left shortly after.

Yuan returned to the game, and he immediately went to the dining room.

"I'm sorry for arriving a little late. I was busy with something." Yuan apologized to them.

"It's fine. Let's eat before the food goes cold." The Dragon Emperor said to him before digging into the food.

Breakfast lasted for an hour, and although it was not a feast, there was as much food as their previous meal.

After breakfast, Xi Meili asked them, "Do you want to visit the city today?"

"I do." Yuan immediately nodded.

"If you're going, I will go as well." Wang Xiuying said.

"Okay, then let's go."

Once Yuan had rested enough to walk properly, Xi Meili brought them outside and proceeded to escort them around the city.

"You don't need guards?" Wang Xiuying asked her.

In her mind, princesses like her usually would have a bodyguard or two just in case something happens.

"Haha... You think I need a guard? I can protect myself just fine. And who would dare to mess with me? They have nowhere to run or hide in this world. Besides, I am only weaker than my parents and a few individuals in this world." Xi Meili said with a confident smile on her face.

Sometime later, once they were on the streets, everybody they passed through would bow to them— or more specifically, Xi Meili.

"Good morning, Your Highness."

"Good morning, Dragon Princess!"

"Good morning, everybody!" Xi Meili returned their greetings with a bright smile on her face.

"Wow, do you have a good relationship with everyone?" Yuan asked her, as he has never seen anyone so easy-going before.

"Of course! In such a small world, it would be more beneficial for everyone if we have a good relationship with each other."

"That makes sense. If only it was the same outside." Yuan sighed.

"Today, I want to show you guys the Ancestral Dragon Temple; it was created by our Dragon Ancestor." Xi Meili said.

"Ancestral Dragon Temple? What kind of place is it?" Yuan asked, as it sounded similar to the Dragon Essence Temple's Dragon Temple.

"It's something like a playground for us dragons, and there are prizes if we win." Xi Meili said.

"A playground? That sounds very interesting!" Yuan's anticipation immediately went up, as he has never been to a playground before.

"It's a little bit far from here so bear with me. Of course, we can fly there, but that will take away the point of showing you the city."

"It's okay, we can walk there," Yuan said.

Thus, they continued to make their way to the Ancestral Dragon Temple. On the way there, Xi Meili would give a history lesson on some of the buildings they passed.

About two hours later, they arrived at the Ancestral Dragon Temple, which was filled with people.

"This is a playground? It doesn't look like one." Wang Xiuying said with her eyebrows raised.

After all, playgrounds don't have arenas— at least they shouldn't.

"This is where dragons go to have fun." Xi Meili said.

And she continued, "And yes, we have fun by fighting with each other."

"There are seven arenas in this place. You can challenge whoever you want —"

"Oh my god! He died!" Wang Xiuying suddenly exclaimed, interrupting Xi Meili.

On the stage, one of the fighters had decapitated his opponent.

Xi Meili chuckled at her reaction and said, "Don't worry, he's not really dead."

A few moments later, the 'dead' fighter suddenly disappeared from the stage and appeared outside the stage with his head reattached to his body, and the person himself looked perfectly healthy.

"There's a formation in these arenas. As long as you stand on it, even if your body is destroyed, you will not truly die. This allows the fighters to go all out on each other. However, you will not be able to enter the stage for one week if you die because your body can only handle so much of the formation. If you die twice in a short time, the formation might not work properly." Xi Meili explained to them.

She then pointed to another arena and continued, "That arena over there also has a formation that can limit both fighters to a certain cultivation base so they can fight on fairer terms. For example, if a Spirit Grandmaster wants to fight a Spirit King fairly, he can do so by fighting in that arena, where both of them will be Spirit Grandmasters. Does the Lower Heavens have something like this?"

"I don't think so... At least I have never heard of such a thing until today," Yuan said.

"That's not unexpected, since these formations are pretty powerful and not something the Lower Heavens should have." Xi Meili said.

Chapter 362 - Ancestral Dragon Temple

"Look! It's Her Highness, Princess Xi! Good morning, Princess Xi!"

When someone there noticed her presence and announced it, everyone there turned to bow to her, and even the fighters on the stage stopped fighting momentarily just to bow to her.

"Morning, everybody! Please, continue what you're doing! Don't mind us!" Xi Meili waved at them.

"Princess Xi, are you here to fight today? There is a line of people waiting to exchange techniques with you!" One of the judges there suddenly said to her.

"Hahaha! There's always a line!" Another judge laughed out loud.

One would expect a graceful princess like Xi Meili to avoid such things, but to one's surprise, Xi Meili loved to fight, and she was a regular at the Ancestral Dragon Temple.

Not only that, but she also accepts a fight from anyone no matter their background. Of course, she has yet to experience a single defeat in the Ancestral Dragon Temple.

"Sorry, but I am not here to fight today. I am just showing my new friends around the city." Xi Meili said.

And then she thought of something.

She turned to look at Yuan and said, "Unless you want to try it? You don't have to worry about getting hurt, and you get rewards if you win."

"What kind of rewards?" Yuan asked.

"From spirit stones to treasures, I guess. The spectators can bet on the match, and if you win, you get a portion of it. The fighters can even gamble their treasures in a match."

"They won't die even if I kill them, right?" Yuan wanted confirmation.

"Yes, you don't have to worry about hurting anyone." Xi Meili nodded.

"Okay, I will participate in a match." Yuan then agreed.

"Great! Oh, one more thing..." Xi Meili approached Yuan until her face was right beside his ears, and she whispered, "Don't tell them you're a human for now. Pretend you're a dragon."

"Okay." He nodded.

"Won't they recognize him by his smell like the guards did? They knew we were humans right away." Wang Xiuying suddenly said.

"Not everyone in this world knows the smell of humans. In fact, most of them have never seen humans before, so you'll just smell a little funny to them. The guards are a little special because they're trained to detect humans." Xi Meili said.

"S-Smell funny? I don't think I like how that sounds..." Wang Xiuying said.

"It's not a bad smell— at least I don't think so. I even think you smell pretty nice, especially Yuan. You have a unique smell that gives me a pleasant feeling whenever I smell it." Xi Meili said with a smile on her face.

"Judges! My friend here would like to participate in a match!" Xi Meili then said to one of the judges.

"Oh? Sure! Which stage would he like to fight in?" One of the judges then asked.

"What do you think, Yuan? Do you want to fight as a Spirit Grandmaster? You can even fight as a Spirit Master or Spirit Warrior."

"I'd like to fight as a Spirit Master," Yuan said, as he was more familiar with his own strength as a Spirit Master than a Spirit Grandmaster.

"Judge! Spirit Master!" Xi Meili then relayed his response to one of the judges.

"Go to stage number seven. He can go after this fight." The judge then said to her.

Although there were people in line, who would dare make the Dragon Princess wait? The fighters didn't voice any complaints either, as they were used to this favoritism for her.

"Thank you."

Thus, they began waiting for the fighters on the stage to finish their fight.

"Purple Dragon Fist!"

"Iron Dragon Claws!"

Boom!

A ripple of spiritual energy swept the area as these two fighters' techniques collided.

"Ah!"

One of the fighters flew off the arena a second later.

"Match ends! The winner is Long Yanjun!" The judge announced.

"Do you want to continue fighting?" The judge then asked the fighter.

"Who is my next opponent?" He asked.

The judge pointed to Yuan, who was standing beside Xi Meili.

"The Dragon Princess's friend."

"Oh? Princess Xi's friend? Now that's something you don't see every day." Long Yanjun smiled before nodding his head.

"Alright! I'll fight him as well!"

"Come on the stage, young man!" The judge said to Yuan.

Yuan nodded and approached the stage.

Many spectators that had been spectating the other stages suddenly left their stage to spectate Yuan's match, as they did not recognize him, and they were curious about his capabilities, especially since he was Xi Meili's friend.

"Does anyone recognize him? I don't think I have seen him before." One of the spectators asked out of curiosity.

"I don't recognize him either."

"Me neither."

"First time seeing him as well."

"Does nobody here know him? How is that possible?"

Although the Ancient Dragon City is as big as an entire continent, it was by no means a big place, especially when everyone could live for thousands of years with ease, so most of the people in this world already know each other one way or another.

Therefore, it was incredibly rare for someone to remain as a nobody, especially if that person is a friend of the Dragon Princess, one of the most recognized individuals in this world.

"What's your name? I'm Long Yanjun." The fighter on the stage introduced himself.

"You can call me Yuan," he responded.

"Yuan? I haven't heard of you before. Where did you come from?" Long Yanjun asked him.

"Uhhh... The Dragon Essence Temple?" Yuans said.

"Dragon Essence Temple? I have never heard of this place." Long Yanjun raised his eyebrows.

"Y-Yeah... It's a pretty small place so not many people know it. It's also in a secluded area very far away from this place." Yuan gave him an excuse, trying his best to act like he's from this world.

"I see... Well, best of luck to you." Long Yanjun clasped his hands and bowed to Yuan in a respectful manner.

"Yes, good luck to you as well." Yuan followed his movements and returned the bow.

Chapter 363 - Let Me Fight Him!

"I will assume that this is your first time here since I don't recognize you, so give me a minute to explain to you the rules." The judge said to him.

"One, you cannot use any treasures. Two, under any circumstances, if you leave the arena, it will be your loss. Anything else goes."

"Hm? Since I cannot use my treasures, will there be weapons provided to me? I usually use a sword or dagger." Yuan said.

"I don't mind if he uses his treasures." Long Yanjun suddenly said.

"Are you sure?" The judge asked him for confirmation.

"If that's what he's comfortable with, I don't mind. It wouldn't be fair to him if he cannot fight without his weapons."

The judge nodded and said, "Okay, you can use your treasure."

"Wait, you're going to be fighting me with your fists? But that wouldn't be fair at all." Yuan said.

Long Yanjun laughed and said, "Don't worry, my fists are my treasure. They won't lose to even Heaven-grade treasures."

"Even if you say that, it just doesn't feel right fighting someone barehanded with a weapon. It's okay, I will eventually have to learn how to fight without my weapons since I shouldn't rely on them too much." Yuan said, refusing to use his treasures.

"Are you sure?" Long Yanjun asked him, admiring his strong integrity.

"I am sure." Yuan nodded.

"Good! Then I shall let you have the first strike!" Long Yanjun said to him before standing there in a defensive position. "Go ahead. I won't attack you unless you strike!"

Yuan nodded, but he didn't immediately attack.

Instead, he pondered how he should fight Long Yanjun.

After a moment, he thought of something.

'I can simply use Qi Manifestation and use it as though it's my weapon!' He thought to himself.

"I'll be striking now," Yuan warned him since he was kind enough to give him the first strike.

"Go ahead." Long Yanjun said with a confident smile on his face.

After taking a deep breath, Yuan used Qi Manifestation and covered his fist with thick spiritual energy.

"What! How can you use Qi Manifestation at that level?!" Long Yanjun was shocked when he saw what Yuan was trying to do.

The spectators were also shocked.

Both Yuan and Long Yanjun have their cultivation limited to the first level of Spirit Master, and although they have seen geniuses who can use Qi Manifestation before Spirit Grandmaster, they were always around the peak of Spirit Master.

This is their first time seeing someone use Qi Manifestation at the first level!

"Heavens! How does he have the spiritual energy to use Qi Manifestation at the first level? This guy is a monster!"

"Where on earth did he come from? There's no way such a talented individual is a nobody!"

Meanwhile, Yuan used a movement technique to instantly close his distance with Long Yanjun.

"Fast!" Long Yanjun crossed his arms and prepared to block Yuan's strike.

Boom!

"Fuck!"

Long Yanjun cursed out loud as he was sent flying out of the stage.

Before Long Yanjun left the stage, both his arms had been completely crushed by Yuan's casual and even somewhat inexperienced punch, but after he left the stage, his injuries immediately healed, almost like his injury never happened in the first place.

Once he was outside the stage, Long Yanjun's peak Spirit Lord cultivation base returned, allowing him to regain control over his own body.

"What a powerful punch!" He looked at his arms that were trembling from shock.

He then turned to look at Yuan and clasped his hands together, "I had underestimated you. I'm sorry. It's my loss."

"He defeated Long Yanjun in a single strike?! Even though it was a free attack, it is still shocking! Long Yanjun has a 90 percent win rate with over a thousand victories and only a hundred losses!"

The spectators saw Yuan in a more serious light now.

"Do you wish to stay on the stage for another fight?" The judge asked him afterward.

"The fight ended too fast. I'd like to do another one." Yuan said.

"Okay. Then who would like to fight this young man next?" The judge looked at the spectators.

Immediately, over a dozen people raised their hands.

"I want to fight him!"

"No, let me fight him!"

"Pick me! Pick me!"

The judge looked at Yuan and asked him, "You can pick your fighter."

"Pick me, young man! I also use the sword!" One of the fighters there said, and he was emitting the aura of a peak Spirit King.

"Really?"

"Yes! Really! Look!"

This individual then retrieved a red sword that was emitting a profound aura that could only be emitted by Divine-grade treasures.

"Okay! Let's fight!" Yuan nodded with excitement.

Hearing Yuan's words, this middle-aged man with the red sword jumped onto the stage.

"My name is Xing Chongzhi!" The middle-aged man introduced himself with his hands clasped.

"Yuan."

"Then for this match, the both of you can use your treasures." The judge said.

"Xing Chongzhi is fighting next? Although he only has a win rate of 70 percent, all of his losses don't include the sword! When he wields his sword, his win rate is 100 percent!"

"This is going to be an interesting fight."

"Do you think Yuan will win?" Wang Xiuying asked Xi Meili as they watched from the background.

"I have never seen his sword skills so I cannot say. However, Xing Chongzhi is a renowned sword expert who learned Sword Aura when he was only 700 years old. He's definitely one of the best swordmasters in the Ancient Dragon City."

"700 years? What is this Sword Aura, and why does it take so long to learn?" Wang Xiuying asked.

"Sword Aura isn't something you can just learn, and you cannot learn it through normal means like other techniques because it's not really a technique. One can even go their whole life without learning Sword Aura if they're not talented enough or destined to." Xi Meili said.

"Wow... That sounds quite incredible." Wang Xiuying said as she looked at Yuan, wondering how he'll defeat someone who knows such a powerful skill.

Chapter 364 - Royal Family's Secret Child

"Take out your sword." Xing Chongzhi pointed his red sword at Yuan with a confident smile on his face.

Yuan nodded and retrieved his Empyrean Overlord, shocking the spectators.

"Is that...?"

"That's a Soul Weapon! He has a Soul Weapon!"

The spectators immediately recognized the Empyrean Overlord as a Soul Weapon despite its lack of aura— or perhaps that's how they knew it was a Soul Weapon right away.

"I didn't recognize it because of the chaotic situation at that time, but to think he has a Soul Weapon as well..." Xi Meili mumbled in a slightly surprised voice.

"As well? Does this mean you also have one?" Wang Xiuying asked her.

"Yes. It's our family heritage that was left behind by our Dragon Ancestor. It's a powerful spear that is rumored to have the capabilities to pierce even the heavens." Xi Meili nodded.

On the stage, after his initial surprise, Xing Chongzhi smiled and said, "A Soul Weapon, huh? I'm envious."

"Are the two of you ready?" The judge asked them.

"Ready when you are." Xing Chongzhi said to Yuan.

"I am ready as well."

"Then the match begins now!"

"I'm going to bet ten spirit stones on Xing Chongzhi!" One of the spectators suddenly said.

"I'll bet fifteen on that young man!"

"Fifty for Xing Chongzhi!"

"Twenty-five spirit stones for Xing Chongzhi!"

The spectators began shouting out their bets with most of them betting on Xing Chongzhi's victory, which wasn't too surprising due to his perfect win rate when he wields a sword.

Furthermore, Xing Chongzhi knew Sword Aura, something that could be used even as a Spirit Master.

"I will bet one thousand spirit stones on Yuan!" A clear voice suddenly resounded, causing the people to turn to look at this person who dared to bet such a large amount.

"Princess Xi? You think this young man is going to win?" One of them couldn't help but ask her.

"Not really. I'm just hoping for a miracle to happen," she said with a calm smile on her face.

Meanwhile, on the stage, Xing Chongzhi suddenly released his Sword Aura, filling the area with a domineering pressure.

The audience was immediately awed by Xing Chongzhi's Sword Aura.

"Wow! How long has it been since I last saw Xing Chongzhi's Sword Aura?"

"I have seen it many times now, but it still leaves me speechless."

"As expected of a swordmaster. Even though he's not directing the Sword Aura at me, I can still feel as though there are invisible swords surrounding me!"

"Sword Aura, huh?" Yuan was pleasantly surprised that his opponent knew Sword Aura too!

"You're not the only one who can use Sword Aura!" Yuan said with a smile on his face before releasing his own Sword Aura, immediately colliding with Xing Chongzhi's Sword Aura.

"What! Impossible!"

The first to express her shock and disbelief was Xi Meili.

If she remembers correctly, Yuan mentioned that he was only 18 years old! How could someone comprehend Sword Aura at such a young age?!

It took Xing Chongzhi 700 years to understand Sword Aura and he was considered a top genius with the sword!

"I really don't know what to say besides... As expected from the one who released all nine pillars of light." Xi Meili mumbled in a low voice.

Meanwhile, the other spectators were shocked speechless, and they could feel invisible swords touching their neck after Yuan released his Sword Aura, which was clearly more devastating than Xing Chongzhi's Sword Aura.

On the stage, Xing Chongzhi stared at Yuan with a gawking look on his face, looking like he was looking at ghosts for the first time in his life.

"H-How old are you, again?" Xing Chongzhi decided to ask him, completely forgetting about their match.

"I'm eighteen years old," Yuan responded.

"E-Eighteen years old... A-And when did you learn Sword Aura?"

"A little over a week ago, I guess," Yuan said.

"Y-You learned Sword Aura a week ago? And it's already this powerful?" Xing Chongzhi's body trembled after hearing Yuan's words.

It was at this moment he realized that his 100 percent win rate was in jeopardy. How could he possibly fight against someone who has managed to learn Sword Aura a few hundred years faster than he did? Not to mention Yuan's Sword Aura was already stronger than his own despite knowing it for only a mere week, whilst he has known Sword Aura for many centuries.

'I-It's okay. His Sword Aura may be more powerful than mine, but when it comes to techniques, I should still be superior!' Xing Chongzhi thought to himself.

Indeed, Xing Chongzhi had guessed correctly. Whilst Yuan was a monster when it comes to comprehension, he was still too young and inexperienced compared to Xing Chongzhi, who has thousands of years of experience under his belt.

Therefore, while Yuan was unrivaled in terms of raw strength, his technique was a bit lacking.

"Here I come!" Xing Chongzhi immediately used his movement technique to close the distance whilst swinging the red sword in his grasp in a swift and precise manner.

Yuan also used his movement technique to dodge the incoming strike before retaliating with the Empyrean Overlord.

[Bloody Sword Strike!]

Yuan swung the massive sword as though it was as light as a feather.

'I cannot block that with my sword! He'll send me flying!' Xing Chongzhi could instinctively tell that he wouldn't be able to withstand the might of Yuan's sword and didn't even bother to block it, using his effort to dodge it instead.

CLANG!

The stage shook when Yuan's sword slammed onto it, and to his surprise, there was not a single dent on the platform.

'What is this platform made of?! It's like steel!' Yuan cried inwardly, feeling his entire body tremble from the impact, even almost losing grip on his sword.

Xing Chongzhi noticed that this was his chance to strike and immediately went for Yuan's neck.

'Oh!'

When Yuan saw Xing Chongzhi suddenly appear in front of him with the red sword already in motion and heading towards his head, he subconsciously activated Dragon's Gaze at its full power, taking Xing Chongzhi by surprise and instantly halting his movements.

Seeing this, Yuan ignored the numbing sensation in his arms and swung the Empyrean Overlord, separating Xing Chongzhi's head from his body in a split second.

The audience gasped in shock after they witnessed this unexpected outcome. However, what surprised them the most was the technique Yuan had just used, as it caused their dragon bloodlines to react in a manner that was similar to awe and reverence.

"I-Impossible! How does he know that technique?!" Xi Meili exclaimed in a shocked voice after seeing Yuan use Dragon's Gaze.

The Dragon's Gaze is one of the most powerful techniques for dragons! However, it's not a technique that could be learned just by any dragons! In fact, only dragons of royal blood can learn this technique!

"D-Did he just use Dragon's Gaze?" The other people there were also in disbelief.

"I think he did..."

"He's from the Royal Family? But I have never seen him before! Don't tell me that he's the Royal Family's secret child!"

The audience immediately began to speculate about Yuan's background.

A few moments after Yuan killed Xing Chongzhi, he reappeared outside the stage still with a dazed look on his face, almost like he was still under the effects of the Dragon's Gaze.

Chapter 365 - Human

"Xing Chongzhi, are you okay?" The judge for stage 7 patted him on the shoulders when he showed no response even many moments after leaving the stage.

"W-What happened to me just now? Why am I standing outside the stage?" Xing Chongzhi finally snapped out of his daze and proceeded to look around with a puzzled look on his face, clearly unaware of what had just occurred.

"You were killed by the young man." The judge revealed to him.

"What! How is that possible?! I was pretty sure I had him at that moment!" Xing Chongzhi expressed disbelief. In his mind, he'd successfully connected his strike, killing Yuan.

Nobody there blamed him for his reaction, as it was a normal response for someone who'd just experienced the Dragon's Gaze at point-blank.

The judge shook his head and began explaining everything that had happened, shocking him even further.

"Dragon's Gaze?! What?!" Xing Chongzhi turned to look at Yuan, who was still standing on the stage, with a flabbergasted look on his face.

"You are part of the Royal Family?!" Xing Chongzhi asked him, as everyone knew that only the Royal Family could learn such a profound technique.

"No?" Yuan said.

"You're not? Then how did you learn the Dragon's Gaze? That's something only the Royal Family can learn!" Xing Chongzhi and the other spectators only became more puzzled after hearing his words.

However, before Yuan could respond, Xi Meili suddenly said, "He's from the Royal Family."

"Eh?"

Both Yuan and Xing Chongzhi turned to look at Xi Meili, and on Yuan's face was a surprised look. Since when did he become part of the Royal Family?

'Yuan, just follow along with me for now. I'll explain to you later.'

Xi Meili's voice suddenly resounded inside Yuan's head.

Yuan nodded while looking at her before clearing his throat and speaking out loud, "T-That's right. I am actually from the Royal Family. I wasn't sure whether I should reveal my identity or not before..."

The spectators gasped in shock after learning this. To think the Royal Family had a third child!

"He may be from the Royal Family, but he isn't related to our Royal Family in the way you're thinking." Xi Meili suddenly said, clearly that misunderstanding.

"What?"

The spectators' thoughts went wild with theories, and they could only think of one thing after pondering for some time— that Yuan had married into the Royal Family! In other words, he was Xi Meili's husband!

"C-Congratulations, Princess Xi!" The people there suddenly bowed to her.

"Eh?" Xi Meili raised her eyebrows, wondering what they were thinking.

"You have finally found your partner after 10 thousand years! Congratulations!"

The spectators congratulated her again.

"What?!" Xi Meili's eyes widened with shock. How in heaven's name did they get to that conclusion?

"That's wrong! He's not my husband! We're just friends!" Xi Meili refuted their claims with a flushed face.

And she continued, "Furthermore, he's a human!"

"W-Wait... What? He's a human? How is that possible?" Everybody there turned to look at Yuan with shocked looks on their faces.

How the hell did a human appear in their Ancient Dragon City? And how could a human belong to the Royal Family? Nothing about his background made sense!

"His situation is a complicated one. Do you guys remember the nine pillars of light that occurred not long ago? He was the one who released all pillars of light and summoned the Dragon Ancestor." Xi Meili revealed to them the truth.

"What! H-He's the one who was behind that?! A mere human?!"

A commotion quickly started in the Ancestral Dragon Temple.

"Uhhh..." Yuan wasn't sure what was happening, so he said, "Are we still fighting?"

The judge snapped out of his daze and said, "R-Right! Does anyone still want to fight him?!"

The spectators exchanged glances with each other.

After a moment of complete silence, a dozen people raised their hands at once and said, "I want to fight him even more now! I have never fought a human before!"

"Me too! Let me fight him!"

Since there were so many people that wanted to fight Yuan, the judge decided to ask him again.

"I'll fight until I can no longer fight," Yuan said.

"Great! Then let's start with you!" The judge randomly pointed to one of the spectators with his arms raised.

A moment later, the fighter appeared on the stage with a lance in his grasp.

'What kind of weapon is that? It looks like a spear, yet the head looks slightly different.' Yuan wondered to himself as he held the Empyrean Overlord in front of him.

The fight started after the judge left the stage.

[Bloody Sword Strike!]

[Dragon Lance!]

Ding!

The fighter could feel his arms shaking violently after their weapons collided.

'What a powerful attack! It feels like I am fighting against a mountain!' The fighter cried inwardly as he slid backward on the stage until he was at the edge of the stage.

'That was close! I shouldn't fight him head-on! He's too powerful!' With that in mind, the fighter started to dodge all of Yuan's attacks while retaliating with his lance that had an advantage in range due to the long handle.

However, even with the range advantage, the fighter was unable to land a single hit on Yuan due to his profound movement technique.

"What kind of movement technique is he using?! He's leaving a trail of flames as he moves, and I cannot predict his movements at all!"

"It's probably some profound human movement technique we have never heard about before."

The spectators were mesmerized by Yuan's movement techniques, completely unaware that he'd learned it from a phoenix.

After a few minutes of fighting back and forth, Yuan finally managed to defeat the fighter after taking him by surprise with his movement technique that had suddenly improved drastically, almost as if he had a breakthrough in the middle of the battle.

Chapter 366 - Staring Contest

After defeating the fighter with the lance, Yuan proceeded to fight the other participants that wanted to fight him, and because of his profound movement technique that only got more ridiculously hard to predict after his skill had reached a new level, none of his opponents was able to even touch his shadow, leading to Yuan's victory inevitably.

"Is there anyone else that would like to fight me?" Yuan asked with his body soaked in sweat as he defeated his 30th opponent in a row, setting a new record at the Ancestral Dragon Temple.

"Fuck! Is he really human? Where does he get his stamina from?"

The dragons there refused to believe Yuan was a human. In their minds, humans are weak and fragile existence that cannot hold a candle against dragons, yet it was the complete opposite with Yuan.

"Where did this human come from, anyway?"

The dragons were filled with questions but had no answers, and they didn't want to stick their noses into the Royal Family's business too much.

A few moments went by without anyone appearing on the stage.

"I guess this is it," Yuan said, feeling very satisfied, as he'd gained a lot of experience through so many battles just now.

However, right as he prepared to leave the stage, someone said, "I'll fight you next!"

A figure suddenly jumped onto the stage from afar and stood before Yuan with a bright smile on her face.

"Xi Meili?" Yuan raised his eyebrows when he saw the dragon princess standing on the stage. She wants to fight him as well?

"Look! Princess Xi wants to fight him next!"

"Ohhh! This is going to be exciting!"

The spectators were immediately filled with anticipation after seeing this matchup. By now, pretty much everybody in the Ancestral Dragon Temple was watching their fight, leaving the other stages completely empty.

"I just couldn't hold my excitement back after seeing you fight and defeat so many people, so I decided to fight you as well, Yuan. I hope you don't mind." Xi Meili said to him.

"I don't mind." Yuan nodded.

"Thank you, Yuan. However, I will admit that I won't be able to defeat you in a normal fight, so let's do something different in this match." Xi Meili then said.

"Something different? What do you have in mind?" Yuan tilted his head slightly.

"Dragon's Gaze. We're going to see which of us can use Dragon's Gaze better. Like a staring contest. How does that sound?" She suggested.

"You can use the Dragon's Gaze as well?" Yuan looked at her with wide eyes, as this was a pleasant surprise.

"Of course. The Dragon's Gaze is a technique taught to everybody in the Royal Family." Xi Meili nodded, and she continued. "It is one of the most ancient techniques out there for our Dragon Race, and it was created during the primordial era."

"I know this may be unfair to you, who has only lived for 18 years while I have almost 10 thousand years of experience with the technique, but I really want to see how powerful your Dragon Gaze is."

"I don't mind it. I also want to see your Dragon's Gaze." Yuan nodded with a smile on his face.

"Great! Then at the count to three, we'll both use Dragon's Gaze simultaneously. Whoever is overwhelmed first will be the loser. Judge, you will do the counting." Xi Meili said.

"I understand, Princess Xi."

"Ready when you are, Yuan."

"I am ready."

The judge began his count to three once both of them were ready.

"One... two... three!"

On three, both Yuan and Xi Meili activated Dragon's Gaze, and their eyes immediately glowed gold.

Whoosh!

A massive pressure suddenly enveloped the place, causing the spectators to take steps back and away from the stage.

"Not bad, Yuan." Xi Meili said with a smile on her face as she stared at Yuan directly into his eyes.

"However, this isn't my full power."

Xi Meili increased the intensity of her Dragon's Gaze, and the pressure grew stronger.

Yuan could immediately feel goosebumps appearing all over his body, yet there was a smile of excitement on his face.

"I am also just getting started!"

Yuan said as his golden eyes glowed more brightly.

The spectators took a couple more steps back.

"Hahaha! Not bad! Not bad at all, Yuan!"

Xi Meili suddenly started moving, slowly approaching Yuan with small steps.

The world around Yuan suddenly grew darker and darker, and Yuan felt like cowering as Xi Meili approached him, but he'd managed to fight back his fear.

Then, he also started to move forward!

Xi Meili was shocked inwardly when Yuan did the exact opposite of what she expected.

'What a powerful mental strength he has! He actually dares to approach me even though he's clearly afraid!'

Xi Meili's blood that had been calm for many thousand years suddenly began boiling with excitement! She wanted to see the limit of this human!

The two of them continued to walk closer to each other, quickly closing their distance.

A few moments later, they both stood directly in front of each other with their faces only a couple of inches away from each other.

The spectators swallowed nervously when they saw this. Even though they were not clashing treasures or displaying flashy techniques, their match was more exciting and nerve-wracking than any of the matches that had occurred today!

"Yuan, if you can defeat me, I'll consider marrying you— No, I'll marry you." Xi Meili suddenly said with a relaxed smile on her face, shocking the spectators.

However, Yuan was too focused on resisting her Dragon's Gaze to hear her words.

After standing so close to each other for about a minute, blood could be seen flowing from Yuan's nose, clearly reaching his limit.

Xi Meili didn't say anything when she saw this and continued to increase the strength of her Dragon's Gaze.

A few moments later, blood flowed from Yuan's eyes, looking like he was crying blood.

Yuan could feel pain all over his body— like it was being crushed by an unrivaled force. Despite this, he refused to give up and continued to fight Xi Meili's Dragon's Gaze with his Dragon's Gaze.

Chapter 367 - Returning To The Dragon Palace

Cough

After resisting Xi Meili's Dragon's Gaze for another minute, Yuan suddenly turned his head to the side and coughed up a mouthful of blood before closing his eyes and losing consciousness.

When she saw Yuan's body beginning to fall, Xi Meili quickly used her slender arms to catch his body, hugging his body afterward so that he didn't fall.

"Yuan!" Wang Xiuying rushed onto the stage with a worried look on her face.

"He's okay. He only sustained minor internal injuries and lost consciousness due to the tremendous stress his mind had endured. His injuries will heal once he leaves the stage, but he'll probably remain unconscious for a little bit longer." Xi Meili said to Wang Xiuying to calm her down.

Xi Meili then carried Yuan like a princess and said, "I'll cut our tour today short and bring him back to the Dragon Palace with me for now."

"Thank you all for your time today." Xi Meili said to the spectators and the fighters before flying away while carrying Yuan in her arms and Wang Xiuying with Qi Manifestation.

The people in the Ancestral Dragon Temple remained still and silent for a good moment even after Xi Meili and the others left.

Sometime later, someone said, "I'm exhausted— even though I didn't fight anyone today. I think I'll go home for today."

Once one person spoke, the others also began snapping out of their daze.

"You're right. I need some good rest after today..."

"Me too."

Thus, everyone left the Ancestral Dragon Temple shortly after, leaving the Ancestral Dragon Temple completely empty for the rest of the day, which was an extremely rare sight.

On their way back to the Dragon Palace, Xi Meili stared at Yuan's peaceful sleeping face their entire way there with a profound look on her face, looking like she was in deep thoughts.

"Even though I am well aware that he'd managed to reveal all nine pillars of light, his talents still shock me." Xi Meili mumbled in a low voice.

"Just what is his background? It's simply unbelievable that someone like him exists in the Lower Heavens."

"Do you have any ideas?" Xi Meili turned to ask Wang Xiuying.

Wang Xiuying shrugged and said, "He's as much of a mystery to me as he is to you. I also have no idea about his identity. We encountered each other by chance, and I have been following him since then out of curiosity."

"I see... Well, I won't dive any deeper than this."

Sometime later, they returned to the Dragon Palace.

"What happened?! Who did this to him?!" The Dragon Emperor was immediately enraged when he saw Xi Meili bring back Yuan in such a state, looking like he was prepared to kill someone.

"Well... I did this to him..." Xi Meili said with a somewhat blushing look on her face.

"What? You? Why? What happened?" The Dragon Emperor was greatly taken aback when he learned that it was his own daughter that had injured Yuan!

"Calm down, father. Let me explain." Xi Meili said, and she proceeded to explain to him the situation and how everything occurred.

"I had a match with him, and I wanted to test his limits..."

After explaining everything to the Dragon Emperor, he sat down with a look of disbelief on his face.

"He also knows Dragon's Gaze? How is that possible?" The Dragon Emperor mumbled.

"Anyways, I am going to let Yuan rest in his room for now." Xi Meili said.

Sometime later, Xi Meili placed Yuan on the bed before returning to the Dragon Emperor's side.

"Father, I have a question." Xi Meili said to him with a serious look on her face.

"What is it?" He looked at her with raised eyebrows, as she rarely shows such an expression.

"What do you think of a dragon and a human being together?" Xi Meili asked.

"Huh? What do you mean by that?" The Dragon Emperor didn't immediately comprehend her question and asked her.

"Marriage. What do you think of a dragon marrying a human?" Xi Meili asked again, this time making it crystal clear.

"Marriage? What kind of question is this— Wait... Don't tell me you're..." The Dragon Emperor's eyes widened with shock when he realized her reason for asking this question.

"D-Don't tell me you're interested in him?" He asked for confirmation.

Xi Meili nodded and said, "I am considering it."

"What made you pick him?" The Dragon Emperor asked her with a profound frown on his face, yet he didn't immediately refuse.

"Is it because of his talent? His strength? Or is it just because of the fact that he's a human?"

"A little bit of everything," she replied with a slight smile on her face.

"In terms of talent, he's above everyone in this world. Although his experience is somewhat lacking, he's definitely a fast learner. Furthermore, he has this unique aura around him— this charisma that is quite attractive. Oh, he's also very handsome." Xi Meili said.

"You're really serious about this, aren't you?" The Dragon Emperor said with a pondering look on his face.

Xi Meili nodded. "I sat through countless arranged marriages, meeting countless men over the last few thousand years, but alas, none of them could make my blood boil the way Yuan did today on the stage."

"I understand that he appears to be an excellent partner, but you just met him not long ago... You're barely acquainted, much less friends." The Dragon Emperor said.

"And how is that any different from the people you've arranged for me, huh? I don't even know them at all!" Xi Meili refuted.

"Uhh..." The Dragon Emperor was rendered speechless after hearing her words. Indeed, his logic was flawed.

After pondering for a moment, he said, "You're right about that. However, he's not from our world, and he won't remain here forever. Once we find a way to help them return to where they came from, that'll be the end of you and him."

"..."

It was Xi Meili's turn to become silent now, as her father was right about this one. Yuan won't be here forever, which will make their relationship complicated if not impossible.

Chapter 368 - First Defeat

"Well... If he cannot stay here, how about I just follow him outside?" Xi Meili suddenly suggested. "I have always been interested in the outside world, anyway."

"You want to go outside? Are you crazy? The humans will hunt you for your blood! It's too dangerous!" The Dragon Emperor immediately refused.

"That's only what our ancestors taught us, but they have also never been to the outside world before. If there are humans like Yuan and Wang Xiuying outside, I don't think it'll be that bad."

After a moment of silence, the Dragon Emperor said, "Unfortunately, that's impossible— not because I don't want to let you go outside with him. Your cultivation base is simply too high to follow him back to the Lower Heavens, where Spirit Grandmaster is the limit."

"You're simply asking to be punished by the heavens for doing so."

"Oh, right... He's from the Lower Heavens..." Xi Meili sighed, completely forgetting about that for a second.

Meanwhile, inside Yuan's room, Wang Xiuying checked his pulses just to make sure he was okay.

'Seeing him sleep like this... he really reminds me of Yu Tian...' Wang Xiuying said as she stared at Yuan's sleeping face with a somewhat dazed gaze.

The more she looked at Yuan, the more she felt like she had seen him before.

"Nnn..." Yuan suddenly opened his eyes slowly.

"Where am I...?" he mumbled in a dazed voice.

"Oh, you're awake, Yuan. We're at the Dragon Palace in your room. Xi Meili took us back after you fell unconscious during the match." Wang Xiuying explained to him what had happened.

"I see... So I lost the match, huh?" A smile on Yuan's face as he realized the situation.

"This was my first time losing a fight," he sighed in a somewhat bitter voice.

Losing felt much worse than he'd expected, especially since it's his first defeat.

"I wouldn't really call that a fight... And your opponent has 10 thousand years more experience than you. It's only obvious that you wouldn't be able to defeat her no matter your talents." Wang Xiuying said, trying to comfort him.

"I guess you're right." Yuan nodded.

"Wait right here. I'll go to Xi Meili to let her know that you're awake." Wang Xiuying said before leaving the room for a few minutes.

"Xi Meili... she was very strong— stronger than anyone I have ever fought before," Yuan mumbled as he stared at the ceiling with a dazed look on his face.

Sometime later, Wang Xiuying returned with Xi Meili and the Dragon Emperor.

"Are you okay, Yuan? Are you hurt anywhere?" Xi Meili asked him.

"I am fine," he said.

"Anyways, you really surprised me, Yuan. You're only 18 years old, yet your comprehension for the Dragon's Gaze is already as strong as mine!" Xi Meili immediately praised him afterward.

A bittersweet smile appeared on Yuan's face.

"As strong? That's not true. I was completely defeated by your Dragon's Gaze."

"Yuan, if you don't mind me asking, where did you learn the Dragon's Gaze? And how long has it been since you learned it? The Dragon's Gaze is a secret technique only available to the Royal Family." The Dragon Emperor suddenly asked him.

"Oh, I learned it from the Great One. And it was probably around a month ago when I learned it," he said.

"The Great One?!" The Dragon Emperor exclaimed.

"One month?!" Xi Meili was shocked for a different reason.

To think Yuan could comprehend the Dragon's Gaze to such an extent in a mere month whilst it took her thousands of years to reach her current level! The disparity was too large!

"Can you tell me more about it? How did you learn it from the Great One?" The Dragon Emperor continued to ask.

Yuan nodded and explained to him how he learned it from the Tablet of Comprehension, where he met the illusion of the Great One.

"I understand it, but I cannot believe it... The Great One is teaching the secret technique to random people? Just what is he thinking?" The Dragon Emperor could feel a headache coming.

It would be a disaster if their secret technique was revealed to the public, but luckily for them, according to Yuan, only two people have learned the Dragon's Gaze, and he was one of them.

"Is it really that bad if an outsider learns the technique?" Yuan couldn't help but ask them.

The Dragon Emperor nodded and said, "Since ancient times, only the Royal Family can use the Dragon's Gaze, and it's already well-established that whoever learns the Dragon's Gaze is royalty in the Dragon Race. If someone who isn't part of the Royal Family learns this technique, it'll create massive confusion and chaos amongst us— the dragons."

"There are multiple Royal Families out there, and we're just one of many. Although we don't really care that much about an outsider learning the technique since we're in this isolated world, the other Royal Families in the upper heavens may not react so kindly to an outsider learning their technique, something they are extremely proud of."

Xi Meili added, "They consider the technique as sacred as their bloodline, as both of them were given to them by the Dragon Ancestor."

"In other words, you shouldn't use your Dragon's Gaze so lightly— especially in front of other dragons."

"I see... I didn't know about this since the Great One never told me about it when I learned the technique..." Yuan said.

"Anyways, there's nothing we can do about it now that you've learned the technique. Just make sure you're not around dragons when you use that technique, as it will definitely cause misunderstandings." The Dragon Emperor said to him.

"I understand." Yuan nodded.

"Of course, if you marry someone from the Royal Family, you'll be considered royalty, allowing you to use the technique as much as you wish." Xi Meili suddenly said, clearly suggesting something here.

Of course, Yuan was too innocent to pick up the hint and said, "Marriage? As in husband and wife? But I don't think it's right to marry someone just to use a technique."

Xi Meili smiled after hearing his words, "I think so too."

Chapter 369 - Dragon Meat Skewer

"Anyways, it's not like we're telling you to never use the Dragon's Gaze ever again. Just make sure you're very careful when using it, as it will definitely offend the other Royal Families if they learn that an outsider had learned their sacred technique," said the Dragon Emperor a few moments later.

"I understand. I will be careful." Yuan nodded.

"Now, regarding the teleport formation that will bring you back to the Lower Heavens, I have found a way, but we will need some time to prepare." The Dragon Emperor suddenly said.

"Does this mean we can return to our own place? This is great news!" Wang Xiuying quickly said.

"Yes. However, it will still take around a week."

"That's fine. As long as we return before the event ends." Yuan said.

Sometime later, the Dragon Emperor left the room and returned to prepare for their departure.

"What do you want to do now?" Xi Meili asked them afterward.

"Do you still want to look around the city? Or do you want to do something else?"

"I still want to look around," Yuan said.

"Okay, but you only have one week, so we won't be able to see much. Maybe you'll come back next time for much longer. At that time, I will show you around the entire Ancient Dragon City." Xi Meili said to him.

"Even if I want to come back, how can I do that?" Yuan asked.

"I don't know, but if you've already managed to come here once, you'll definitely find yourself here a second time. I believe in fate, and if you're fated to return, you'll definitely return. If that happens..." A mysterious smile appeared on her face.

Yuan nodded, "Okay."

"Go get some more rest. We'll go back to touring the city tomorrow morning."

Xi Meili also left the room shortly after, meeting her father at the teleport formation outside the Ancient Dragon City.

"I have decided, father." Xi Meili said to him.

"On what?" He raised his eyebrows.

"I won't marry Yuan now. However, if he manages to return to this world for a second time, I will marry him." Xi Meili said.

"What kind of decision is that? You'll marry him if he returns for a second time? Do you really think he'll be able to return here for a second time? If he was destined to come here before, he's already fulfilled his fate in this world, which means he no longer has a reason to return here." The Dragon Emperor said.

"If fate allows it, he will definitely return. I also have this feeling that this won't be my last time seeing him." Xi Meili said with a confident smile on her pretty face.

"Even if he is fated to return in the future, who knows when that will be. It could be ten years from now. It can even be ten thousand years from now. We will never know." The Dragon Emperor said.

"So what? We can live up to tens of thousands of years with ease because of our bloodline."

The Dragon Emperor shook his head in a defeated manner.

"Do as you wish. You'll probably forget about him in a few hundred years, anyway." The Dragon Emperor shrugged.

"Do you want to make a bet with me on that, father?" Xi Meili suddenly asked him.

"A bet? Interesting. Tell me more." He said.

"One thousand years— if he doesn't return in one thousand years, I'll marry someone on your terms." Xi Meili then said.

"Y-You're serious about this?" The Dragon Emperor looked at her with wide eyes.

"Does it look like I am joking with you, father?" Xi Meili responded with a solemn look on her face.

"And if he returns before the time limit of one thousand years, I will have to let you marry him without any complaints, right?" The Dragon Emperor then spoke.

Xi Meili nodded, "That's right."

"Very well. I will accept your bet."

"The countdown will start once he leaves this world. Is that okay?" Xi Meili asked.

"I am fine with that."

"Great! Then it's decided!" Xi Meili then turned around and returned to the Dragon Palace with a cheerful aura around her, leaving the Dragon Emperor speechless.

"She really likes him, huh?" The Dragon Emperor shook his head with a bittersweet smile on his face before returning to focus on the teleport formation.

The next day, after eating the breakfast cooked by Meixiu, Yuan went into the game to have his second breakfast for the day with the Royal Family.

"Are you two ready for another day in the city?" Xi Meili asked them with an energetic aura around her.

"I am!" Yuan responded with a similar aura around him.

"Yes." Wang Xiuying also nodded, albeit a little less excited when compared to Yuan.

Thus, Xi Meili brought them around the city again. However, she didn't bring them towards the Ancestral Dragon Temple this time.

Instead, she brought them to multiple restaurants, showing off their dragon's cuisine, as she knew how much Yuan loved food.

"This is our famous Dragon Meat Skewer! Try it!" Xi Meili handed each of them a skewer.

"D-Dragon Meat?" Both Yuan and Wang Xiuying looked at her with wide eyes.

Isn't this considered cannibalism if they eat their own kind?

Xi Meili noticed their weird gazes and laughed, "Don't worry, it's not actually 'dragon' meat. I mean it is, but it's not the type you're thinking of."

"Oh..."

They took a bite a moment later.

"Wow! This is so delicious!" Yuan immediately claimed, feeling the meat melt in his mouth before exploding with flavor and spiritual energy.

"Wow, the texture is heavenly. It doesn't feel like I am eating meat at all! I wonder if this is what it would be like eating clouds if we could eat them!" Wang Xiuying said as she finished the entire skewer in just a few seconds.

"Can I have some more?" She then asked.

"Me too! I also want some more!" Yuan said.

"Are you sure? We finished breakfast not long ago." Xi Meili chuckled before asking for a couple more skewers.

Chapter 370 - Spirit Stone Cave

"Here ya go, Princess Xi. These are on me." The man selling these skewers said to her.

After handing the skewers to Yuan and Wang Xiuying, Xi Meili handed a spirit stone to the man and said, "Don't worry about it. My friends enjoyed it, so I will pay for it. You can keep the change as well."

"Thank you very much, Princess Xi!" The man gladly accepted the spirit stone.

After eating the skewers in a few minutes, Wang Xiuying said, "That pretty stone you just gave the man as payment, it's called a spirit stone, right? I have seen them before, but I never understood them. Just where do people obtain them? Or are they like treasures, something you find naturally in the wild?"

"You don't know where spirit stones come from? Hehe... Then I know exactly where to bring you tomorrow!" Xi Meili said with a smile on her face.

"As for your question, I shall wait until tomorrow to answer it. For now, let's just continue what we're doing."

Wang Xiuying nodded, but her curiosity peaked.

Thus, Xi Meili continued to show them restaurants and different foods.

By the end of the day, they had eaten so much that dinner wasn't necessary.

In the real world, Yuan asked Meixiu, "What are the other participants doing now?"

"The same as usual. They're trying to reach the Mystic Pagoda while improving their cultivation at the same time. Some people have reached the place, but none of them have been able to open it." Meixiu said.

And she continued, "In fact, the participants that have arrived at the place seemed to have stopped fighting each other to try and open the Mystic Pagoda together."

"So they're working together to open the Mystic Pagoda, huh? Even though I somehow managed to open it, I still don't understand how—"

Yuan suddenly stopped speaking as he realized something.

"Wait a second... The demons said the Empyrean Overlord used to belong to the Lord, who is the master of the Mystic Realm and the Mystic Pagoda. Maybe that's the key to opening the Mystic Pagoda?"

"Hmm... That does make sense." Meixiu said.

"Anyways, I should be returning to the Mystic Realm soon. The Dragon Emperor found a way for us to return, but it'll take at least a week."

The following morning, after breakfast, Meixiu said, "Doctor Wang has sent me the menu. I will be going shopping in a bit."

"Oh? What's on the menu?" Yuan then asked.

"Doctor Wang told me to keep it a surprise for you," she said.

Yuan smiled and said, "I can't wait."

Sometime later, Yuan entered the game whilst Meixiu dressed up casually before going outside.

Luckily for Meixiu, there was a large supermarket only a couple of blocks from their apartment, making shopping easy and convenient.

An hour later, she returned to the apartment.

Meanwhile, inside the game, Yuan and Wang Xiuying followed Xi Meili.

"So, to answer your question from yesterday, there are a couple of ways spirit stones are created." Xi Meili said as she escorted them to this isolated area.

"One, spirit stones can be created naturally like minerals and gems."

Xi Meili pointed to the cave in front of them and continued, "That is a Spirit Stone Cave, where spirit stones can be mined. This is the most common way people get their spirit stones. Normal people cannot access this area, but because my family owns the Spirit Stone Cave, I can show you the inside in a moment."

"Another method is to create them by yourself, but this method is incredibly uncommon and almost nobody does it."

"W-Wait a second... Create them by ourselves? Does this mean we can also make spirit stones?" Wang Xiuying asked.

"That's right. Cultivators can make their own spirit stones." Xi Meili nodded.

"What! That means unlimited money! Why is this method uncommon? It should be the most common!"

Wang Xiuying exclaimed. After all, who wouldn't want to be able to make their own money?! That's a no-brainer!

Xi Meili chuckled and said, "Because it requires a tremendous amount of spiritual energy and effort to make even a single spirit stone, and cultivators would rather use that energy and time to increase their cultivation."

"How much effort and time are we talking about?" Wang Xiuying then asked.

"Let's see... As a Spirit Warrior, it'll probably take you a couple of weeks to create a single spirit stone, and during these few weeks, you would not be able to progress your cultivation because you'll be using all of your spiritual energy to create the spirit stone. Do you understand why it's such an uncommon practice?" Xi Meili said.

"I see... but what about the cultivators at the top? Surely, they can make spirit stones much faster."

"They can. In fact, a Spirit Grandmaster can make one spirit stone a day, but like I'd already said, it's not worth it, as they'd rather use that time and energy on improving their cultivation."

Yuan then said, "If I remember correctly, a single spirit stone is worth about 10,000 gold. Although that may seem like a lot to us, for a Spirit Grandmaster, that's probably nothing, but I could be wrong."

"No, you're right." Xi Meili said.

"A single spirit stone may be worth a lot in the hands of a mortal, but for a cultivator at that level, it's worth nothing, as the resources they need to improve their cultivation are worth tens of thousands of spirit stones if not hundreds of thousands of spirit stones."

"Do you understand now?" Xi Meili asked Wang Xiuying.

She nodded, "Yes, I understand. Thank you for the explanation."

"Great! Then let me show you inside the Spirit Stone Cave. Follow me." Xi Meili said to them.

"Greetings, Princess Xi." The guards standing in front of the Spirit Stone cave greeted her, and they were both emitting the power of a Spirit King.

"Hello. I would like to show my friends around the Spirit Stone Cave since they have never seen it before. I hope you don't mind." Xi Meili said to them.

"Of course not. Please, take as much time as you need." The guards opened the doors for her with smiles on their faces.

Chapter 371 - Beef Stew

"Follow me." Xi Meili said to the two of them before walking into the cave that was brightly lit despite having no obvious sources of light, almost like the walls themselves were glowing.

The cave was incredibly long, as they'd walked for over ten minutes without seeing anything.

"How deep is this cave?" Wang Xiuying couldn't help but ask.

"A few thousand miles, I guess," she casually responded.

"What?! That's incredibly long! How is that even possible?"

"Do not underestimate Spirit Stone Caves. Each of them is incredibly spacious but only contains a few hundred thousand spirit stones, and if you mine them all, it will require 100 years for them to return." Xi Meili said.

"Did you realize that the spiritual energy in here is vastly different from the outside? This is a special type of spiritual energy that gives birth to spirit stones. If you ever come across this kind of spiritual energy, make sure to look around, as there will be a Spirit Stone Cave nearby, and those are worth a fortune, so make sure you remember this feeling." Xi Meili said to them.

Wang Xiuying and Yuan nodded before engraving this spiritual energy into their heart. Hopefully, they'll run into a Spirit Stone Cave of their own one day.

About half an hour later, they could finally see some spirit stones, and they were sticking out of the wall like crystals.

"Wow, so this is what spirit stones look like in nature... How cool."

Both Yuan and Wang Xiuying stared at them as though they were fascinated.

"We make sure to leave some behind so that they can regrow in the future."

"They can regrow?" They looked at her with raised eyebrows.

Xi Meili nodded and said, "As long as we don't mine everything, they will eventually grow back. Though, that will take at least 100 years."

"Anyways, this is the furthest we should go. But it's not because we cannot be there. It's simply because there won't be anything to see unless we travel a few hundred miles out, which could take hours, and I don't want to waste your time." Xi Meili said.

And she continued, "If you really want to see it, just imagine a large chunk of spirit stones stuck in the wall."

"Do you have any questions?"

Wang Xiuying then asked, "Does mining a larger chunk of spirit stone increase its effectiveness? Why do I only see spirit stones the size of a pebble?"

"Great question. There's actually a reason why they're so small and not bigger, and it's simply because having a bigger size doesn't mean it'll have more spiritual energy. A fist-sized spirit stone and a pebble-sized spirit stone will have the same amount of spiritual energy; it's just how the heavens made it work."

"However, that doesn't mean you can make the spirit stones extremely small, as spirit stones will lose effectiveness if they become too small. After millions of years of practice and experience, the cultivators have figured out the perfect size for spirit stones, and that has become the standard."

"I see..."

Sometime later, they left the Spirit Stone Cave.

"What should we do now?" Yuan asked her.

"There's nothing to do besides looking around the city." Xi Meili said.

"Then what do you normally do?" Wang Xiuying asked her.

"I train— all day. I rarely go outside," she said, surprising them, as she looked like the type that really enjoyed going outside.

"In fact, I haven't explored the city like I have with you guys for many years. If I ever go outside, it would be to fight the others at the Ancestral Dragon Temple. It sounds boring, right? But I really love training and improving myself." Xi Meili said with a smile on her face.

"I see, since this is such a rare chance, let's go look around the city some more," Yuan said to her.

"Okay!" Xi Meili nodded with excitement.

Thus, they made their way towards the city and began another round of exploration whilst trying new food whenever they would encounter them.

Time passed extremely quickly, and in what felt like the blink of an eye, it was already dark.

Yuan logged off the game after eating dinner with the Royal Family.

The moment Yuan logged off the game and returned to his room, a strong and rich aroma assaulted his nose, making his mouth immediately salivate.

'Wow! What an amazing smell! What could Meixiu be cooking?' Yuan wondered inwardly, his imaginations running wild.

Sometime later, Meixiu entered his room and helped him sit up on the bed.

"What's for dinner?" Yuan quickly asked her.

"Beef stew," she responded in a calm voice.

And she continued, "Although it's still somewhat like soup, there are large meat chunks in there, and it comes with rice."

"As long as I can chew on it, I won't complain!" Yuan said.

"Give me a moment..." Meixiu then placed a blanket in front of him just in case any food was to fall, and she proceeded to feed him beef stew.

"This food is amazing! The meat is tender, like that Dragon Meat Skewer I had not long ago! I didn't know you were such a good cook! Of course, your soup tastes good too, but this is a different level!" Yuan praised her after a single bite.

"Thank you..." Meixiu said with a slight smile on her face, as she couldn't help but feel happy after hearing his praises, especially when she'd worked her butt off during training to reach this level.

After dinner, Meixiu asked him, "How do you feel?"

"Well... To be completely honest, I am not full. However, the food was great." Yuan said.

"Not full, huh... Well, this is what Doctor Wang advised, but I will let him know that you're not full. By the way, for reference, how much do you think you can still eat?"

"I can probably eat two to three more meals of this size no problem," he said.

"T-That much?" Meixiu looked at him with wide eyes. Fortunately, they have plenty of money from selling the treasure, or it would be a struggle feeding him.

"Okay."

After dinner, Meixiu relayed the news to Doctor Wang.

Of course, Doctor Wang wasn't surprised that the meal wasn't enough for Yuan, as he'd purposefully made it so that Yuan wouldn't be full so that his stomach would adapt to the new diet.

"Continue feeding him this amount for the next three days, then you can slowly increase the amount." Doctor Wang instructed her over the phone.

"I understand. Thank you." Meixiu said to him.

The following morning, Yuan and Wang Xiuying followed Xi Meili around the city again.

And in the blink of an eye, another day passed.

The three of them continued this until an entire week had passed.

"The teleport formation should be ready in three days." The Dragon Emperor said to them.

"Three days, huh? What do you guys want to do? Continue looking around the city? But we've looked at pretty much everything. If only you guys had more time here, we could've gone further." Xi Meili asked them.

"This may sound weird, but I'd like to practice my Dragon's Gaze with you." Yuan suddenly said, dumbfounding her.

Chapter 372 - Training With Xi Meili

"Y-You want to practice Dragon's Gaze? With me? But it's dangerous doing it outside the Ancestral Dragon Temple." Xi Meili said to him, worried that she might permanently injure him.

Yuan said, "That's right. You're more experienced with the technique, so I'd figured you can give me some advice. Furthermore, during our match, it felt like I was understanding more about the technique just from looking at your eyes. As for injuring me... you don't have to worry about it. I'll be fine."

"Well... I don't mind." Xi Meili said.

Yuan then turned to look at Wang Xiuying and said, "What about you?"

"Don't mind me. I will be watching you in the background," she said.

Sometime later, they arrived at the courtyard.

"I don't really know what kind of advice I should give you, so let's just use Dragon's Gaze on each other like we did during our match and see if you can understand anything from it." Xi Meili said to him.

Yuan nodded.

"Let's start slow." Xi Meili then stood about 10 meters away from him.

"We're going to slowly approach each other like previously. Ready when you are."

"I am ready," Yuan said.

"Then we'll use our Dragon's Gaze on the count of three... two... one... go!"

Whoosh!

A profound pressure immediately enveloped the courtyard when Yuan and Xi Meili's Dragon's Gaze collided, giving Wang Xiuying a nostalgic feeling. However, this time, she made sure to stand all the way back where the pressure didn't affect her as much.

A few moments later, once they were feeling a little comfortable, Yuan and Xi Meili began approaching each other.

And with each step they took, they increased the strength of their Dragon's Gaze.

Before they knew it, both of them were standing directly in front of each other again, silently staring right into each others' eyes like they wanted to see their soul.

Since this wasn't a match, Xi Meili didn't try to overwhelm Yuan, and she merely matched his strength, perhaps even slightly above him.

A few minutes later, Xi Meili asked him, "Well? Are you improving?"

"Can you increase the strength of your Dragon's Gaze some more? You don't have to go easy on me." Yuan said to her.

After a moment of silence, Xi Meili suddenly increased the strength of her Dragon's Gaze.

Although it wasn't quite as powerful as it was during the match, it was pretty close, and it was just enough to not injure him and enough to make him feel pressured.

Yuan quickly began sweating under Xi Meili's powerful Dragon's Gaze, feeling as though there was an almighty being staring down at him as though he was an ant.

A few minutes of pure silence later, once Xi Meili noticed Yuan reaching his limit, she closed her eyes and said, "Okay, let's take a rest here. Any more and you might suffer internal injuries, which is devastating for any cultivator."

"Okay." Yuan nodded, and he proceeded to sit down in the lotus position and closed his eyes, recalling everything he'd experienced just now.

An hour later, once they had recovered, Yuan and Xi Meili returned to their training, and they would continue this until the day ended.

The following day, they also continued to do the same thing.

On the third day, Yuan took a seat in the middle of the courtyard and closed his eyes to recall everything he's learned for the past two days.

Meanwhile, Wang Xiuying and the Royal Family watched him in the background.

"What do you think? After two days of training, how is his progress?" The Dragon Emperor asked Xi Meili.

"To be completely honest, he's terrifying— his talents. He absorbs all experience like a sponge absorbing water and greatly improves in a short time. I was able to see a clear difference and improvement in his Dragon's Gaze after every practice session." Xi Meili gave her judgment.

"If he continues to practice the technique, he'll most likely surpass me very soon."

"If only he wasn't born a human but a dragon instead. What a pity." Xi Murong sighed in a truly regretful tone.

"There's nothing wrong with being talented as a human, as talents don't favor a certain race. In the outside world, there are plenty of humans with talents that surpass even your father and me." The Dragon Empress spoke with a solemn expression on her face.

Sometime later, a profound aura surrounded Yuan.

When the Royal Family saw this, their eyes widened with shock.

"Enlightenment! He's experiencing enlightenment!" Xi Murong exclaimed in a baffled voice.

"Shut your mouth! Don't you dare disturb him!" The Dragon Empress immediately slapped the back of his head while lecturing him.

"What's an enlightenment?" Wang Xiuying asked in a whispering voice.

"Enlightenment is a trance-like state where your mind and heart becomes crystal clear to focus on one thing— whatever caused the enlightenment." Xi Meili explained.

And she continued, "When that happens, one will improve drastically at whatever they are trying to gain enlightenment on."

"For example, Yuan's probably having enlightenment about the Dragon's Gaze. Once he's done, his understanding and mastery of the technique will improve drastically."

"I see... How long do enlightenments usually last?"

The Dragon Emperor said, "It depends on the complexity of whatever he's having enlightenment about. If it's a simple technique, he can be done in a matter of minutes."

"However, if he's having an enlightenment about something complex— like Dragon's Gaze, he could be in that state for days if not weeks."

"W-Weeks?!" Wang Xiuying exclaimed in a low voice. What will happen to the Mystic Realm? And it's not like she could take him out of enlightenment!

"Don't worry, we have already prepared the teleport formation, so you can leave whenever. It doesn't have to be today. If you want, you can even return by yourself first. He can follow you after he's done." The Dragon Emperor said to her.

However, Wang Xiuying shook her head and said, "No, it's okay. I will stay here until the very last minute. We came here together, so we'll leave together— at least we'll try."

Chapter 373 - The Real Player

Yuan

"I will stay here to watch over him. You guys can leave." Xi Meili volunteered to stay behind even though that wasn't necessary. However, she wanted to be here when he woke up so that she could congratulate him.

"Are you sure? This will take some time. We can simply block access to this area so that nobody could disturb him." The Dragon Emperor said to her.

"Yes, I want to stay here." Xi Meili nodded.

"Do as you please..."

The Dragon Emperor left with the others shortly after.

"What happened to her? It's like she's obsessed with him." The Dragon Empress asked her husband after they left, as she was unaware of the bet he made with Yuan.

"She likes him." The Dragon Emperor said with a slight smile on his face, and he continued, "And she wants to marry him."

"What?"

Everybody there turned to look at him with wide eyes filled with shock, especially Wang Xiuying and Xi Murong.

"She wants to marry that human?! A dragon with royal lineage?! That's blasphemy towards our bloodline!" Xi Murong exclaimed, clearly disapproving of her decision.

Meanwhile, Wang Xiuying wondered what would happen if a player marries an NPC.

'There are plenty of players out there that are currently in a romantic relationship with an NPC, so I guess marriage isn't too far-fetched...' She thought to herself.

"I think it's cute." The Dragon Empress said, and she continued, "I couldn't care less if she wants to marry a human or a dragon. I only care about one thing—his qualifications. And from my understanding, Yuan is more than qualified to join our Royal Family."

"Y-You too, mother?" Xi Murong looked at her with disbelief.

"Anyways, it's her decision, and I will respect it." The Dragon Empress said.

Then she looked at Xi Murong and said, "If you have a problem with it, why don't you confront her about it?"

"I... I would rather not..." Xi Murong responded in a reserved voice.

Despite being the older one, he feared Xi Meili a little, especially whenever she's angry.

Sometime later, the Royal Family returned to their business whilst Wang Xiuying returned to her room before logging off.

"Since it's going to take some time before he wakes up, I'll take a small break from the game and help grandpa out at the hospital." Wang Xiuying mumbled to herself after leaving the game.

After stretching her body, Wang Xiuying left her room and went downstairs to watch some television.

In this day and age that's dominated by video games, it was only natural for television to be heavily involved with video games. In fact, the most popular channels in the world are gaming channels that talk about the current trends and whatnot for certain video games.

"Let's see if there are any new trends for Cultivation Online..." Wang Xiuying went to the channel that was dedicated to Cultivation Online news.

"Today, we will be interviewing one of the players in Cultivation Online who claims to be Player Yuan!" The speaker on the television spoke while a young man wearing a black mask sat beside him.

Wang Xiuying immediately raised her eyebrows after seeing this 'Player Yuan' who was obviously a fake.

"Another one? How many people have come forward as the real Player Yuan now? I have already lost count. These people clearly know he's a fake, yet they are still giving him a spotlight. What are these people thinking?" Wang Xiuying shook her head.

Because of Player Yuan's fame and the fact that nobody knows his real identity, it was only natural for people to try and claim they were Player Yuan and steal his fame, but alas, not a single person has managed to prove themselves to be the real one despite dozens of people coming forward as the real one.

"Tell me— and the audience watching this— why should we believe you when you claim to be Player Yuan? What kind of proof can you provide us that proves you're the real one? And if you are indeed the real one, why have you suddenly decided to reveal yourself after remaining lowkey for so long?"

The man with the black mask then spoke in a confident voice, "I simply got bored of hiding, so I decided to come out of hiding. As for whether I have proof or not— of course, I have proof. Why else would I come all the way over here?"

The presenter then said with a stiff smile on his face, "You sound so confident that I am already starting to believe you."

And he continued, "Let's start with the easy questions first."

"Why did you decide to play Cultivation Online?"

"Because I was bored."

"What cultivation are you currently in Cultivation Online?"

"First level Spirit Master."

"How old are you?"

"Eighteen years old."

"What are you currently doing in the event known as Mystic Realm?"

"Nothing too crazy. I'm just farming some magical beasts for points."

"Why have you refused to come out despite so many offers to reveal your identity?"

"I was skeptical of them, and I still am."

Wang Xiuying shook her head again.

"This is all common knowledge by now. What a waste of time."

Ever since Yuan's age and cultivation level was revealed right before they entered the Mystic Realm, it was spread throughout the internet like wildfire.

Many people couldn't believe how far ahead he actually was compared to the top players, much less the average players, and even more people were shocked by his young age.

After asking 'Player Yuan' a dozen useless questions that didn't directly prove that he was the real Player Yuan, the presenter then said, "This is all for today. Follow us on the next episode tomorrow for more proof! Find out whether he's really Player Yuan or just another phony tomorrow here, Cultivation Online Daily News!"

"What an idiot." Wang Xiuying closed the television afterward, no longer feeling any will to continue watching.

"Guess I'll go to the hospital now and see if grandpa needs any help there."

Thus, she took a few minutes to prepare herself before leaving the house.

Chapter 374 - Not Logging Off

After arriving at her family's hospital that was owned by Doctor Wang, Wang Xiuying went to look for her grandfather.

"Grandfather, do you need any help around here?" She asked him.

"Hm? What happened to your game? I thought you were going to take the entire month off due to some massive event." Doctor Wang looked at her funny, especially when she was so excited not too long ago.

"Well, something happened, and I have some free time, so I figured that I'd come here and help out in the meantime," she said.

"I see... But I don't really need any help today. You can try asking the other nurses."

"Hmmm..."

After a moment of silence, Wang Xiuying spoke, "Grandpa, you visited Yu Tian recently, right? How's he doing? Considering how his family kicked him out... I'm kind of worried."

"The Young Master? He's doing perfectly fine." Doctor Wang said.

"Perfectly fine?" Wang Xiuying raised her eyebrows.

"Yes. I even decided to change his diet, so he's no longer just eating soup for every meal."

"Oh, that's great!"

"By the way... Do you think I can go visit him at his new place?" She suddenly asked.

"Eh? Why?"

"It's been a while, that's all. And I feel like speaking to him."

Doctor Wang pondered for a moment before speaking, "I will have to ask them for permission before I say anything."

"That's fine."

Doctor Wang called Meixiu shortly after, but nobody picked up, so he left her a message about Wang Xiuying wanting to visit.

Meanwhile, Wang Xiuying went to help out the others in the hospital.

It wasn't until after Meixiu logged off the game to prepare dinner that she saw Doctor Wang's message.

"Wang Xiuying wants to visit us?" Meixiu raised her eyebrows.

[I will ask him when he comes out of the game.]

She texted back to him.

[Okay. Thank you.] Doctor Wang responded a minute later.

However, Yuan didn't log off that night, missing his dinner.

"He must be busy inside the game."

Once Meixiu realized that Yuan was most likely going to stay inside the game for the night and miss dinner, she wrapped his food and placed them inside the fridge.

Meixiu wasn't too worried initially since this wasn't his first time forgetting to log off.

However, when Yuan didn't log off for the second and a third day, she grew increasingly worried that something might have happened to him.

She wanted to forcefully take him out of the game to ask him what was happening and why he hadn't logged off for so many days, but she'd resisted her urges, as she was worried that he might be doing something incredibly important in the game that wouldn't let him log off for whatever reason.

Furthermore, she has been checking his pulses just to make sure he was still alive and well.

"Haaa... If only I could see what he's doing..."

Meixiu sat on the floor beside the bed and rested her head on it.

'I haven't cooked or done anything in two days... It's a new record...' Meixiu thought to herself.

It was at this moment her phone rang.

She looked at the caller; it was Doctor Wang.

"Are you okay? It's been two days since you texted me. Did you forget or something?" Doctor Wang asked her through the phone.

"Sorry, it's not that... Yu Tian, he hasn't logged off the game yet." She revealed.

"What? How is that possible? It's been two whole days! That can't be healthy." Doctor Wang said.

"I would go over there now to check his condition, but I have an important meeting in a few minutes, so if you don't mind, I will send my granddaughter over to check his condition. Don't worry, you can trust her skills." Doctor Wang said.

"Okay." Meixiu quickly agreed.

She knew that Yuan and Wang Xiuying were on good terms, so he most likely wouldn't mind her visiting, especially if it's for a valid reason. Furthermore, Yuan told her that he was with Wang Xiuying inside the game, so maybe she knows something about his situation.

"I'll send her the address right now."

The connection closed shortly after, and Doctor Wang immediately contacted Wang Xiuying and told her about the situation.

"Yu Tian hasn't logged off for two whole days and Meixiu is worried? Okay, I will immediately go there now. What's the address?" Wang Xiuying spoke with a serious look on her face.

Although she was initially happy that Doctor Wang told her to visit Yu Tian, her excitement quickly subsided after hearing about the situation.

After receiving the address, Wang Xiuying grabbed her tools and made her way to Yuan's apartment.

"This is where he lives now?" Wang Xiuying raised her eyebrow at the apartment before her.

Sometime later, she entered the elevator and went to the 17th floor.

Wang Xiuying stood before 17F a moment later, and she knocked on the door.

"Hello! It's me, Wang Xiuying!"

Meixiu opened the door a few moments later to let her inside.

"I'll save the greetings for another time, Meixiu. Where's Yu Tian?" Wang Xiuying asked her.

"Here..."

Meixiu led her into Yuan's room.

Wang Xiuying didn't say anything and immediately checked his pulse.

"His pulses seem perfectly fine..." Wang Xiuying released a sigh of relief after confirming that he wasn't in danger.

"So did he tell you what he was doing the last time you spoke to him? Do you know why he hasn't logged off? Sometimes I also lose track of the time and stay inside the game for longer than I would like. However, two whole days is a little too much, especially since he knows that you'll be cooking food for him." Wang Xiuying said.

"I was hoping you could answer that question..." Meixiu said to her.

"Hm? What do you mean?" Wang Xiuying tilted her head.

Meixiu took a deep breath and said, "He told me that the two of you were playing together, so I was hoping you know why he's not coming out..."

In her mind, Yuan's well-being was more important than his identity in a video game, so if she had to reveal his identity to make sure he was okay, she would do it without any hesitation.

Furthermore, Wang Xiuying is Doctor Wang's granddaughter and Yuan's number one fan, so Meixiu felt that she could trust her with Yuan's identity.

Chapter 375 - Before Sunrise

"Huh? What do you mean I'm playing with Yu Tian?" Wang Xiuying's head remained tilted in a puzzled manner.

"The person I am playing with currently is—"

Wang Xiuying's eyes suddenly widened when she realized what Meixiu was trying to tell her.

She then slowly turned her head to look at Yu Tian, who was sleeping peacefully on the bed with the console on his head.

Although the console was blocking half of his head, she could still see some resemblance between Yu Tian and Yuan.

"A-Are you... Are you telling me that Yu Tian is Player Yuan?" Wang Xiuying asked her for confirmation, as she was in disbelief.

Meixiu nodded silently.

"So he knew this entire time who I was?" Wang Xiuying mumbled in a low voice.

To think she'd been playing with her number one idol, Yu Tian, this entire time without being aware! And she even saw his face! What a blunder on her part!

"Please keep this a secret between us, Wang Xiuying. We cannot risk his identity being leaked outside, hence why he didn't tell you." Meixiu said to her afterward.

"D-Don't worry, I won't tell a single soul. I promise!" Wang Xiuying quickly said after snapping out of her daze.

Meixiu nodded, "I trust you."

"Anyways, now that I know Yu Tian is Player Yuan, I understand why he's like this." Wang Xiuying said.

And she continued, "He's currently in a state of enlightenment, and I was told that he wouldn't wake up until he finishes."

"Enlightenment? How long will it take before he wakes up?" Meixiu asked.

Wang Xiuying sighed and said, "I was told it could take days... even weeks."

"Weeks?!" Meixiu exclaimed.

A few days were already unreasonably long, much less a couple of weeks. Can one even survive that long without eating?

"Don't worry, Meixiu. I know what you're thinking, but there have been plenty of people out there who have remained inside the game for over a week without any problems." Wang Xiuying said to her.

"Even if you say that, I cannot let him stay inside the game for so long. I don't want anything to happen to him." Meixiu said, as she couldn't help but worry about it.

Wang Xiuying nodded and said, "I think so as well, so let's give him one or two more days to leave by himself before we forcefully wake him up."

And she continued, "I will monitor him inside the game and you will monitor him here."

"Okay." Meixiu nodded.

Sometime later, after making sure that Yuan was completely fine and healthy, Wang Xiuying left the place and returned home.

"Player Yuan was Yu Tian all along? I still cannot believe it..." Wang Xiuying laid on her bed and stared at the empty ceiling with a dazed look on her face for a very long time.

Sometime later, she entered the game and went to the courtyard behind the Royal Palace, where Yuan was still sitting in the lotus position with his eyes closed. Sitting a few meters away from him was Xi Meili, who was staring at him with a profound expression, her thoughts unknown.

A few moments later, Wang Xiuying took a seat beside Xi Meili.

Xi Meili remained still, almost like she didn't notice Wang Xiuying sitting beside her.

'He's Yu Tian...' Wang Xiuying thought to herself as she gazed at Yuan's handsome face.

After a minute of silence, Xi Meili suddenly said, "I really like him."

"Huh?" Wang Xiuying turned to look at Xi Meili with a surprised look on her face.

Xi Meili acted like nothing was out of the ordinary and continued in a calm voice, "He's the only person that has managed to pique my interest so much. Even now, I cannot take my eyes off him."

"What about you? Do you like him as much as I do?" Xi Meili suddenly asked, dumbfounding her.

Wang Xiuying then turned to look at Yuan and spoke with a smile on her face, "I really admire him."

"Admiration?" Xi Meili finally turned to look at her, as she was surprised by Wang Xiuying's answer.

Wang Xiuying nodded and said, "He— at a very young age, was able to impress and influence many people with his talents, and I was one of these people that he'd influenced."

"His talent, huh? I kind of understand that feeling, as he has also influenced me just by showing off his talents." Xi Meili nodded.

"Hmm? Wait a second. I thought you didn't know him, since you said that you'd followed him on a whim." Xi Meili suddenly realized this.

An awkward smile appeared on Wang Xiuying's face, and she said, "Well, yeah... That's what I thought at first, but it appears that I have known him for quite some time now."

"Sorry, but I don't understand..." Xi Meili said.

"It's fine if you don't understand since I am also trying to wrap my own head around it."

The two of them returned to being silent shortly after, and they continued to stare at Yuan with a silent gaze and their own thoughts.

At the end of the day, right as Wang Xiuying prepared to log off the game, she noticed that the aura around Yuan was beginning to change.

"What's happening to him?" She couldn't help but ask.

"Unbelievable..."

However, Xi Meili didn't respond and only mumbled with a look of disbelief on her face.

"D-Did something happen?" Wang Xiuying became worried.

"No... It's just that... He's already reaching the end of his enlightenment. At this rate, he'll finish before sunrise." Xi Meili said in a nervous voice.

"It's only been three days since he started his enlightenment for the Dragon's Gaze, a deeply profound and complex technique for dragons, and he's already reaching the end. I can only describe his comprehension talents as god-like..."

"For comparison, when I had an enlightenment of the technique, it took me three months to finish my enlightenment."

"T-Three months?!" Wang Xiuying looked at her with wide eyes, as she cannot imagine anyone sitting there without moving for so long.

Chapter 376 - Mastery Level 3

"I-I will be right back!" Wang Xiuying said to Xi Meili before logging off the game and picking up her phone.

"Hello?" Meixiu quickly answered the phone after seeing Wang Xiuying's name as the caller.

"Hey, Meixiu, great news. I think Yuan will be done by sunrise," she relayed this news to her.

"Really?" Meixiu asked.

"Yes, and I will stay inside the game tonight to let him know about the situation."

"Thank you very much, Wang Xiuying," Meixiu said to her.

"Don't worry about it. I am only doing what's natural. Then I'll speak with you again later."

After hanging up, Wang Xiuying went back into the game and waited for Yuan to finish his enlightenment with Xi Meili by her side.

Meanwhile, inside Yuan's mind, he could only see a pair of golden eyes staring at him from a distance that grew closer the longer he stared at it.

This pair of eyes resembled Xi Meili's eyes, but it also gave him a feeling of the Great One.

Although Yuan was not aware of it himself, he has been staring at this pair of eyes for the last three days inside his mind.

Suddenly, a familiar sound echoed in his mind.

Ding!

After the notification resounded, the pair of golden eyes inside Yuan's mind slowly closed itself before disappearing.

Yuan slowly opened his eyes afterward.

"Congratulations on your enlightenment, Yuan." Xi Meili greeted him with a bright smile on her pretty face.

"Xi Meili? Did I just experience another enlightenment?" He mumbled in a dazed voice.

"Another enlightenment? Why am I not surprised that this isn't your first time?" Xi Meili said with a bittersweet smile on her face.

"How long has it been in that state?" Yuan asked.

However, before Xi Meili could answer that question, Wang Xiuying stood up and approached him with a serious-looking expression on her face.

"Wang Xiuying? What's the matter?" Yuan asked her in a somewhat nervous voice because of the way she approached him.

"Yuan... or should I call you Yu Tian?" Wang Xiuying said to him.

"W-W-What did you just call me?" Yuan's eyes widened with shock when he heard his real name come out of Wang Xiuying's mouth— or at least that's what he thought he heard.

"I know the truth, Yu Tian. To think you were Player Yuan all along. I feel foolish for not recognizing you earlier..." Wang Xiuying sighed.

"H-How...? How did you find out?" Yuan asked her.

Did she finally recognize him from his appearance? But even if he looked similar to his appearance in the real world, she didn't have solid proof that they were the same person! And judging by the way Wang Xiuying is speaking, it sounded like she was absolutely confident about his identity!

"As much as I hate to admit it, I didn't find out by myself. It was Meixiu who told me." Wang Xiuying said.

"What? Meixiu told you my identity? Impossible!" Yuan became even more shocked after hearing this, feeling a little betrayed that Meixiu would reveal his identity to someone— even if that person was someone he trusted! And this made him feel extremely uncomfortable for some reason.

"Do you have any idea how worried Meixiu was because of you?" Wang Xiuying then said.

"What?"

Seeing Yuan's puzzled face, Wang Xiuying decided to reveal everything to him.

"You have been in enlightenment for three whole days, Yuan. That means you haven't logged off for three days!"

"WHAT?!"

When Yuan realized the situation, his heart immediately sank.

He'd been inside the game for three days straight?! No wonder why Meixiu would be worried!

"And because she had no idea what you were doing, she told me the truth about your identity. I was also very worried at first when I learned that you haven't logged off for three days. I even visited your apartment to check your condition!"

"Heavens! I will be right back! I need to speak with Meixiu as soon as possible!" Yuan said to her, and without waiting for a response, he immediately logged off the game.

"Uhhh..." Xi Meili was left speechless by their confusing conversation just now, but when Yuan disappeared, her questions also disappeared, almost like she suddenly forgot about them.

"Meixiu!" Yuan called for her the moment he returned to the real world.

"Yuan! You're finally back!" Meixiu released a deep sigh of relief after hearing his voice again.

"I am so sorry! It was never my intention to stay inside the game for so long! I had another sudden enlightenment, which completely screwed with my sense of time." Yuan explained to her why he didn't log off for so long.

"It's okay, you don't have to say anything. I have already heard of your situation from Wang Xiuying. I am just relieved that you're okay." Meixiu said to him.

"Even if you say that... I am really sorry for making you worried!"

"I would be lying if I told you that I wasn't worried, but thanks to Wang Xiuying for telling me the situation, it wasn't too bad."

Sometime later, once they calmed down, Meixiu said, "Now it's my turn to apologize. I promised to keep your identity a secret, yet I revealed your identity to Wang Xiuying... I am sorry..."

"What are you talking about? You had a legitimate reason to do so. Although I felt a little betrayed at first, I didn't know anything at that time. Just know that I don't blame you at all, Meixiu." Yuan said to her.

"Okay..." Meixiu said.

A few moments later, Meixiu asked him, "How is your body feeling right now? Do you feel hungry? It's been three days since you last ate, after all."

"Now that you mention it, I do feel a little hungry."

"I will go cook something right away," Meixiu said before going outside to prepare for his breakfast.

Chapter 377 - Golden Dragon Robe

After cooking more breakfast than she's supposed to because Yuan hasn't eaten anything in three days, Meixiu slowly fed Yuan.

Sometime later, after breakfast, Yuan said to Meixiu, "I should be returning to the Mystic Realm today."

Then, he returned to the game whilst Meixiu cleaned the dishes.

"Welcome back." Wang Xiuying said to him.

"I'm really sorry for the trouble I have caused you two, Wang Xiuying," Yuan said.

"Don't worry about it anymore. We're already long past that. Anyways, the teleport formation is ready, and we can return to the Mystic Realm whenever we want."

Yuan nodded and said, "Give me a few more minutes here."

He then turned to look at Xi Meili and said to her, "Thank you for your hospitality and for training me."

Xi Meili smiled and said, "You can thank me by coming back here in the future so that we can play together again. There's still a lot of places I want to show you in this world."

"I would love to return to this place again, but since I came here by accident..."

"I believe that you'll return to this place again. If you came here once... you'll definitely come here a second time." Xi Meili said to him.

Yuan nodded.

"Let's go see my father so that he can activate the teleport formation for you."

Yuan and Wang Xiuying proceeded to follow Xi Meili to see her father, the Dragon Emperor.

"What? You're already finished with your enlightenment?"

As expected, the Dragon Emperor was greatly surprised to see Yuan awake so quickly.

After his initial surprise, the Dragon Emperor brought Yuan and Wang Xiuying to the teleport formation—the same one they came to this world from.

"It was very nice meeting the two of you. It's like a breath of fresh air in our monotonous life." The Dragon Emperor said, and he continued, "If you ever have the chance, you should come back."

"I will try." Yuan nodded.

"Good. Then stand on the teleport formation." The Dragon Emperor instructed them.

Yuan and Wang Xiuying followed his instructions and stepped onto the formation.

"Wait a second!" Xi Meili suddenly said.

"Before you leave, accept this small gift from me." She then handed Yuan a storage pouch.

"Don't open it now," she said afterward.

"Thank you," Yuan said after accepting the storage pouch.

"You too, Wang Xiuying." Xi Meili handed her a storage pouch as well.

"T-Thank you!" Wang Xiuying gladly accepted the gift, silently wondering what was inside.

"I'll activate the teleport formation now." The Dragon Emperor then said.

"Goodbye, everyone!" Yuan said to the Royal Family.

"Bye-bye!"

"Good luck out there, you two." The Dragon Empress said to them.

"See you next time!" Xi Meili said.

The Dragon Emperor then dropped a single drop of his blood onto the teleport formation, causing it to shine brightly.

A few seconds later, a familiar feeling enveloped Yuan and Wang Xiuying as they disappeared from the teleport formation and left the Ancient Dragon City.

Then, a beautiful pillar of light appeared, piercing the heavens.

Meanwhile, in Spirit Heaven, the same pillar of light appeared from the heavens and shot downwards into the ground, acting the complete opposite compared to its previous appearance.

This pillar of light then appeared in the Lower Heavens, aimed directly at the Mystic Realm.

The spectators outside the Mystic Realm were shocked when the pillar of light returned.

"What the heck is happening this time?!" Someone there exclaimed his frustration.

The pillar of light lingered for a minute before disappearing.

Inside the Mystic Realm, Yuan and Wang Xiuying returned to the 10th floor of the Mystic Pagoda.

"We're really back..." Wang Xiuying released a sigh of relief after realizing that they'd finally returned to the Mystic Realm.

"Looks like it." Yuan nodded.

"Let's quickly get off this floor just in case it activates again." Wang Xiuying said to him.

Yuan nodded, and they both went downstairs to the ninth floor.

On the ninth floor, Wang Xiuying took a seat on the stiff bed and opened her storage pouch to see what was inside, as her curiosity had long reached its peak.

"Wow! There are so many spirit stones inside!" Wang Xiuying exclaimed in a surprised voice.

"Really?"

Yuan looked at her with his interest piqued as well.

"There are at least 1,000 spirit stones in here! If I recall correctly, each spirit stone is worth 10,000 gold! That's 10 million gold worth of spirit stones in here!" Wang Xiuying was shocked by her sudden wealth.

"What about you, Yuan?" Wang Xiuying asked him.

"Let me see..."

Yuan took a look inside the storage pouch.

"You're right. I also have around 1,000 spirit stones, and there's also something else in here..."

Yuan then retrieved a pair of black and gold robes with a dragon design on it from the storage pouch.

"Wow, what a cool-looking pair of robes. It kind of resembles the clothes the Dragon Emperor was wearing." Wang Xiuying said.

[Golden Dragon Robe]

[Grade: Divine]

[Quality: Peak]

[Mental Strength Required: 50,000]

[Soul Strength Required: 50,000]

[Description: An excellent piece of traditional clothing worn by Dragons of the Royal Family. Increased Charm by 100 and Luck by 50 when worn. Enchanted with 'Superior Physical Resistance' and 'Superior Mental Resistance'. Grants passive skill 'Dragon Aura' when worn.]

"This clothing is a Divine-grade treasure...?" Yuan mumbled in a dazed voice as he stared at the Golden Dragon Robe.

"Yuan, there's a note sticking to it." Wang Xiuying pointed to the piece of paper poking out of the Golden Dragon Robe's pocket.

Yuan picked it up and read it.

[Your clothes looked a little bit small for your size, so I went ahead and picked a new pair of clothes for you. I think it'll suit you well. See you next time. Xi Meili.]

"What a thoughtful person." Wang Xiuying smiled.

Yuan chuckled and said, "I will definitely have to return to the Ancient Dragon City in the future to return the favor now."

Chapter 378 - Exiting The Mystic Pagoda

"It's going to be hard to repay this favor though since it's a Divine-grade treasure..." Yuan mumbled.

"Wait... It's a Divine-grade treasure? This clothing?" Wang Xiuying's eyes widened with shock after hearing this.

"Yes." Yuan nodded.

Wang Xiuying was speechless. This Dragon Princess truly loved him deeply if she was willing to give him a Divine-grade treasure!

"I'm going to change now." Yuan then said.

"O-Okay..." Wang Xiuying turned around to give him some privacy.

A few moments later, Yuan said, "I am finished."

Wang Xiuying turned back around after hearing his words, and Yuan's new appearance stunned her for a good moment, as he looked incredibly handsome and charming in these new clothes, almost like he was royalty.

If she didn't know any better, she would've definitely mistaken him for royalty just by his appearance alone, not to mention this unfathomable aura around him.

"Yuan, you kind of give me the same feeling as the people in the Ancient Dragon City— like you've turned into a dragon." Wang Xiuying said.

"That's probably because of the 'Dragon Aura' from this robe."

"Dragon Aura? So it makes your presence like that of a dragon?"

"Something like that."

"What a convenient skill. Do you think she gave you this robe so that you can use your Dragon's Gaze safely? After all, as long as you wear that clothing, you'll be able to use your Dragon's Gaze without having to worry about the other Royal Families causing you trouble because you're a human."

"Oh! I didn't think of that! You're absolutely right, Wang Xiuying! As long as I am wearing this robe, I will be a 'dragon', allowing me to use my Dragon's Gaze more openly!" Yuan spoke with excitement.

"The Dragon Princess really thought it out, huh? I am admiring her more and more."

"Yes!" Yuan agreed.

"Are you ready to leave this place?" She asked him after putting on the clothes she'd lend him.

He nodded.

It was at this moment more notifications appeared before Yuan.

[Xi Meili has been added to your Bond!]

[Xi Meili's Bond level has increased to Acquaintance!]

[Xi Meili's Bond level has increased to Friend!]

[Royal Family Xi has been added to your Associations!]

[Because of your performance at 'Ancient Dragon City', your relationship with the Royal Family Xi has increased drastically!]

[Due to your actions at 'Ancient Dragon City', your Fame has increased by 50!]

'The Bond System? It's been a while since I last saw it. I wonder how it works...' Yuan thought to himself. The last time the Bond System activated was at Pang City.

"Yuan?" Wang Xiuying called out to him when he stood there with a dazed face.

"Sorry, I'm coming."

The two of them proceeded to go downstairs.

Before leaving the Mystic Pagoda, Yuan said, "Let me wear my mask first."

Wang Xiuying nodded and watched him put on his black mask that complimented his black robes perfectly.

"Okay, I am ready."

The two of them approached the door, which opened automatically.

Meanwhile, outside the Mystic Pagoda, most of the remaining participants had gathered there, and all of them had agreed to work with each other to figure out how they could open the Mystic Pagoda.

However, an entire week had passed without any progress, as the Mystic Pagoda remained sealed.

"What was that light just now? That was the second time I have seen it!" One of them asked when a pillar of light suddenly descended from the skies and landed on the Mystic Pagoda.

"I have no idea, but it's definitely related to this place. If we can figure it out, perhaps that'll be the key to opening this damn place!" Another one said.

"But we have already searched every nook and cranny in this area. What else can we do at this point?"

"Keep searching! There must be a way to open the door!"

While the participants tried everything to open the Mystic Pagoda, completely unbeknownst to these people, three figures had been watching their every action for the past week from the skies.

"Look at these outsiders dirtying our Lord's Mystic Pagoda with their filthy presence! If I could, I would kill every single one of them for disrespecting the sacred ground!" Grandpa Lan mumbled in a loathing voice.

"Calm down, old man. You'll shorten your lifespan if you get angry over these idiots." Grandma Lan shook her head.

Ever since Yuan's death, Grandpa Lan has been acting like a grumpy old man who's easily bothered by even the slightest things.

"What is that pillar of light, anyway? I have never seen anything like that before." Lan Yingying said a moment later.

"I don't know. It's also my first time witnessing such a phenomenon. I hope it's not a bad sign..." Grandpa Lan said.

It was at this moment one of the participants there suddenly shouted in a shocked voice, "L-Look! The door is opening!"

"What?!"

Everybody there immediately turned to look at the Mystic Pagoda, and sure enough, the door was opening.

"T-The Mystic Pagoda opened? How?"

Even the Lan Family in the sky was greatly bewildered by this random occurrence.

"I'm going down there! I cannot let these outsiders' dirty feet step into the Lord's home!" Grandpa Lan said.

And just as he prepared to descend from the sky, his movements halted when he noticed two figures walking out of the Mystic Pagoda.

The first person to come out was a pretty young lady at the Spirit Warrior realm. The second person was an individual wearing a black mask who was also emitting this unfathomable aura that made the people around him admire him unconditionally, almost like he was royalty.

"Who are those people?! And how did they come out of the Mystic Pagoda?!" Grandpa Lan was baffled by their mysterious presence, especially when he saw the person in the black mask and clothes, as the aura he gave off resembled that of a beast rather than a human.

"H-Hey! Who the heck are you two?! And how long have you been inside the Mystic Pagoda?!" The participants on the ground asked them.

"W-Wait! I recognize you! You're Healer Wang from Medicine Valley!" One of the participants who was also a player recognized Wang Xiuying's pretty face.

"Whoa... There are so many people here..." Wang Xiuying was also surprised to see them, as she didn't expect to be surrounded by people the moment she left the Mystic Pagoda.

"What?! Does this mean you're also a participant?! How did you enter the Mystic Pagoda?!" The participants immediately began questioning her.

"Ehh..." Wang Xiuying took a few steps until she was standing behind Yuan.

"Answer us! How did you enter the Mystic Pagoda, and how long have you two been inside?!" The participants slowly surrounded them, sealing even the smallest path so that they couldn't escape.

"Are all of you participants?" Yuan asked them in a low voice.

"That's right!" One of them answered.

"Good."

Yuan didn't say anything else and retrieved the Empyrean Overlord, his intentions clear.

"W-Wait! A mask! That sword! You're that monster from the Dragon Essence Temple!"

Some of the participants quickly connected the dots and realized his identity.

However, they were not the only ones who realized this.

"That sword! Impossible!" Grandpa Lan's eyes nearly popped out of their sockets when he saw the Empyrean Overlord in the masked man's grasp.

"Yuan?! He's still alive?!" Lan Yingying covered her mouth from shock, and tears immediately began flowing from her eyes when she realized that he'd survived the Demon Lord's Core Detonation!

Chapter 379 - Beauty Falling From The Sky

"W-What do you think you're doing?" The participants there looked at Yuan with nervous expressions when they saw that he'd suddenly retrieved his weapon and was standing there menacingly.

"L-Let's talk this out first, okay? There's no need for pointless bloodshed... We're all in this together..."

However, Yuan completely ignored them, and he lifted his Empyrean Overlord into the air.

"R-Run! He's going to kill us all!" One of the participants there suddenly shouted.

"Fuck you, you damn coward! Look at how many of us there are and how many they have! As if there's any need to run! Don't forget! He's no longer a Spirit Master in this world! We can take him!" Another participant refuted, even suggesting that they fight him together.

"Y-Yeah! Let's get him! All of us together! There's no way he'd be able to defeat so many of us at once!"

The participants there all prepared for battle, yet none of them dared to approach him first.

Yuan closed his eyes and took a deep breath.

When he opened them, it flickered with a vicious light.

[Heavenly Domain!]

The place was suddenly assaulted by a tyrannical pressure that caused all of the participants there to feel as though they were carrying mountains on their back whilst their bodies were chained down, completely sealing their movements.

"W-What is this?! I can't move my body!"

One by one, the participants there began lowering their bodies until their knees were kissing the ground.

In just a few moments, everyone there was on their knees, almost as though they were greeting royalty— if not for the terrified expressions on their faces.

"W-Wait! Let's not be so hasty, alright? Let's talk—"

One of the participants there opened his mouth to speak, but before he could even finish his sentence, Yuan swung the Empyrean Overlord in his grasp in a wide motion.

Whoosh!

A massive red arc of sword light was released from the strike, sweeping through the participants there and slicing their bodies in half instantly.

"Ah!"

"Damn it!"

"I'll remember this!"

The participants cried out loud as their bodies disappeared from the Mystic Realm before appearing outside the gates.

After his initial swing, Yuan went to clean up the other participants he'd missed.

And in less than a minute, over 90 participants perished from the Mystic Realm and were disqualified from the event.

Meanwhile, outside the Mystic Realm, the spectators were shocked speechless by what they'd just witnessed.

"Is that the Young Master? He looks somewhat different..." Feng Yuxiang mumbled in a dazed voice as she stared at his figure in the mirror.

"Brother Yuan..." Xiao Hua released a sigh of relief after seeing that he was fine.

However, they were only able to see Yuan for a brief moment. Once Yuan killed all of the participants in the Mystic Realm, the mirror no longer spectated him anymore.

This baffled Senior Nie and the others.

"What the hell is going on with the Mystic Realm this year? How come the treasure isn't spectating that participant? And how did he open the Mystic Pagoda?" Senior Nie was filled with questions inside his head.

"Who was that masked figure just now?! Is he also a participant?! And did he just come out of the Mystic Pagoda?!"

The elders in Spirit Heavens were also greatly shocked by Yuan's presence, and they immediately bombarded Senior Nie with questions.

"He's a participant from the Dragon Essence Temple. Although his appearance is different from when he first entered, I cannot forget that Soul Weapon. However, I have no other information regarding his identity besides that."

"Oh yeah, he was also a Spirit Master before he entered the Mystic Realm, and he's apparently only 18 years old." Senior Nie added.

"What! Such a genius exists in the Lower Heavens?! We must secure him at all costs!" One of the elders said.

"I think so too... But which of our sect should he join?"

"He'll be joining my sect, of course!" Someone then said.

"Nonsense! Why should he join yours?!" Another one refuted.

"Because he's using a sword, and we're a sword sect! Why else?!"

"So what if he's using a sword? He can still join other sects! I have plenty of sword cultivators in my sect that focus on other weapons!" A second person refuted.

The experts began fighting over who would get to take Yuan in as their disciple.

Senior Nie shook his head and said, "You guys... You can discuss that after he agrees to follow us back to Spirit Heaven."

"What? Isn't that a no-brainer? Who would refuse to ascend?"

"Right? Who in their right mind would rather stay in this dump when they could ascend without any effort? If you're a true cultivator, you'd want to reach the peak!"

The elders didn't believe that anyone could possibly willingly refuse to ascend to the Spirit Heavens.

"I don't know... He seemed to be acquainted with that little girl who was a Spirit King... I wouldn't be surprised if they don't really belong to the Lower Heavens and only came down here for whatever reason like I did."

"Really? Just what are their backgrounds?"

"Only the Heavens know..." Senior Nie sighed.

"Hahaha! Do you see that? That's our Dragon Essence Temple's number one genius!" Long Yijun laughed out loud after seeing so many participants disqualified at once.

The other Sect Masters looked at him in envy. Why don't they also have a monster disciple in their sect?

Inside the Mystic Realm, after killing all of the participants, Yuan stows away the Empyrean Overlord.

"I didn't know you could be this ruthless, Yuan..." Wang Xiuying said with a smile.

"Well—"

"Yuan!"

Just as Yuan opened his mouth, he heard a familiar voice resound above him, causing him to look up into the sky.

And to his surprise, Lan Yingying was falling from the sky with her arms spread wide open and a blissful look on her face.

Yuan instinctively opened his arms to catch her.

A moment later, Lan Yingying landed in his arms and embraced him tightly, "Thank the Lord! You're still alive, Yuan!"

Chapter 380 - Master Of The Mystic Realm

"Yuan! Is it really you?! Are you really not a ghost?!" Lan Yingying tightly embraced him to make sure that he was real.

"What is going on? Who is this?" Wang Xiuying was surprised when a beauty suddenly fell from the sky.

"M-Miss Lan? What are you doing here?" Yuan asked her in a dumbfounded voice after catching her from the sky.

"We came to the Mystic Pagoda to check up on the phenomenon that occurred here recently, but to think we'd see you here!" Lan Yingying said.

"We?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

A second later, two more figures descended from the sky.

"Grandpa Lan! Grandma Lan!" Yuan was pleasantly surprised to see them as well.

"Are you really the young man...? How on earth did you survive the Demon Lord's Core Detonation? And where have you been this whole time?" Grandpa Lan asked him with a dazed look on his face, almost like he was looking at a ghost.

Yuan then said, "It's a long story, but I barely managed to survive the blast. And thanks to my regeneration skill that I'd obtained from consuming the Demon Core, I was able to recover fully."

"Y-You obtained a skill from consuming the Demon Core...?" They all looked at him with baffled expressions.

"Anyways, it's relieving that you have managed to survive that blast." Grandpa Lan said.

"Yuan, who are these people?" Wang Xiuying asked him a moment later.

"They are the Lan Family, and they're natives in the Mystic Realm. They were also the first ones I met when I came to this place, and they have helped me a bunch since then." Yuan introduced the Lan Family to Wang Xiuying.

"H-Hello, I am Wang Xiuying, and I am a friend of Yuan..." Wang Xiuying greeted them.

"Any friend of Yuan is our friend." Grandpa Lan nodded, seemingly in great spirits.

"Anyways, how did you open the Mystic Pagoda, young man?" He turned to look at Yuan.

Yuan shrugged and said, "I honestly don't know. I think it has something to do with the Empyrean Overlord, but I don't have any solid proof. The door opens when I get close to it is all I know."

"I see... Interesting..." Grandpa Lan began pondering.

After a moment of silence, he spoke, "If you don't mind, can you show us the inside? I have always wondered what the Lord's living quarters looked like."

"W-Wait... Living quarters? This place?" Wang Xiuying said in a dazed voice.

"That's right. This place belongs to the Master of the Mystic Realm, who we call the 'Lord'." Grandpa Lan confirmed.

"Unbelievable... To think this mysterious place that cannot be opened by normal means turned out to be a living quarter for some individual... And here I thought it was a special place filled with treasures and whatnot." Wang Xiuying mumbled.

"It is a special place... but probably not in the sense that you outsiders are thinking." Grandpa Lan said with a smile on his face.

Sometime later, Yuan brought the Lan Family inside the Mystic Pagoda, leading them from the first floor all the way to the ninth floor.

During this whole time, Lan Yingying stayed close to Yuan like two peas in a pod. It was as though she was reluctant to leave his side after almost losing him once, and the grandparents found this cute of her.

Wang Xiuying, however, was puzzled by Lan Yingying's seemingly intimate relationship with Yuan, and she wondered what happened between them.

"This place is much more spacious than I'd expected... And by that, I mean there's nothing in here..." Grandpa Lan said after climbing all nine floors.

"There seems to be another floor to this place. I thought there were only nine floors?" Lan Yingying said after she noticed the 10th floor.

"Let's check it out." Grandpa Lan said.

"W-Wait! Don't go up there!" Yuan hastily said to them.

"Hm? Why not?" They looked at him with their eyebrows raised.

"Because there's a teleport formation up there that will take you to this place called Ancient Dragon City," Yuan said, and he proceeded to explain the Ancient Dragon City to the Lan Family.

"Is that so... No wonder why I can sense this inhuman aura around you..." Grandpa Lan said afterward. "So this is the feeling of a 'dragon'."

"I don't know how, but the Lord is most likely related to the Ancient Dragon City in some way for him to have a teleport formation to that place inside his home."

"Yuan, look at this... There's a slit here..." Lan Yingying suddenly pointed to the floor in front of the place where Yuan got his mask from.

"Oh, yeah. I noticed it before but didn't think too much about it." Yuan said.

"If you look closely at it, don't you think your Empyrean Overlord would fit perfectly inside this slit?" Lan Yingying said.

"What?" Yuan looked at her with wide eyes, then he turned to look at the somewhat unnaturally wide slit in the ground.

"Let me try it..."

Yuan then retrieved his sword and inserted it inside the slit.

And to his surprise, it was a perfect fit, almost like this slit was made for his sword.

The moment the tip of his sword reached the end of the slit, Yuan felt a 'click'.

Suddenly, the entire Mystic Pagoda began rumbling as though there was an earthquake.

"W-What's going on now?"

The shaking lasted for a good moment before it calmed down.

And when it did—

Ding!

[Congratulations! The Mystic Realm now recognizes you as its Master! You have become the Master of the Mystic Realm!]

[You have obtained the title 'Master of the Mystic Realm'!]

[You now have full command over the Mystic Realm!]

"Uhh... I think I just became the Master of the Mystic Realm," Yuan suddenly said, shocking everybody in the room.

"What?! How?!" Grandpa Lan exclaimed.

"Probably because of this?" Yuan pointed to the Empyrean Overlord that was inserted perfectly into the floor.

"Good lord... To think you can become the Master of the Mystic Realm in such a manner..." Grandpa Lan mumbled in a dazed voice, and then he realized that unless one had the Empyrean Overlord, it was literally impossible to become the master of the Mystic Realm!

Chapter 381 - Forcefully Removed

"Now that I am the Master of the Mystic Realm, what can I do?" Yuan asked them.

"Literally anything you want." Grandpa Lan said.

"The Mystic Realm itself is a treasure, and as its master, you're like its god. If you desire, you can even change the landscapes in this world."

"Hmm..."

After pondering for a moment, Yuan spoke, "I think I want to open up the Mystic Realm, allowing the natives of this world to go outside."

"What? Really?" Grandpa Lan looked at him with wide eyes.

Yuan nodded and said, "You told me that the natives of this world dislike outsiders because of envy, right? That they're all stuck inside this world because of their ancestors' decision."

"If that's the case, I would like to free them."

As someone who loved to go on adventures and visit new places, Yuan pitied these Mystic Realm natives that are secluded inside this world like birds in a cage.

He then turned to look at Lan Yingying and said, "You also told me that you're interested in the outside world, right? If I open the Mystic Realm, you'll be able to go outside and experience it for yourself."

After a moment of silence. Grandpa Lan said, "If that's your decision, you may do as you please."

Yuan nodded, and he proceeded to ask, "How do I open up the Mystic Realm, though? And before I do that, can I forcefully remove people from the Mystic Realm? I would like to disqualify the other participants if I could in this manner."

Wang Xiuying couldn't help but chuckle after hearing his words.

"Yes, you can remove anyone you want. Just command the Mystic Realm to do so." Grandpa Lan said.

"How do I do that?"

"Just tell it to do so like you're speaking to someone."

"Really? Does it really work like that?" Yuan mumbled.

After taking a deep breath, Yuan said loudly, "Mystic Realm, can you kick out everyone who doesn't belong in this world? Ah, but don't kick out Wang Xiuying who's with me now."

Ding!

[Command acknowledged!]

[All outsiders shall be removed from the Mystic Realm]

A moment after Yuan's command, every single participant besides Wang Xiuying was suddenly teleported outside of the Mystic Realm, shocking everybody outside.

"What?! Why am I outside the Mystic Realm?! Has a month passed already?!" One of the participants exclaimed in a puzzled manner.

"Impossible! We should've had another two weeks inside!" Another one said.

"Then why are we all out here?! What's going to happen now?"

Senior Nie felt a headache incoming after seeing this phenomenon.

"Just what in heaven's name happened? Why did all of the participants suddenly get kicked out of the Mystic Realm?" One of the crystal balls spoke.

"Not everyone." Senior Nie said, and he continued, "There are two people missing... That genius from the Dragon Essence Temple and that girl from Medicine Valley."

Senior Nie remembered all of the participants before they went inside, so he knew who was still inside the Mystic Realm.

"What should we do now? This year's Mystic Realm is a complete bust."

"Hmmm..."

After a moment of silence, Senior Nie said, "Let's wait until everyone comes out of the Mystic Realm before I decide."

Meanwhile, amongst the participants that had been forcefully teleported out of the Mystic Realm, Gao Dongya and Xue Jiye looked around with disbelief on their faces, as they had been forcefully kicked out as well.

"What the fuck is happening?!" Gao Dongya cursed out loud, as they were extremely close to reaching the Mystic Pagoda.

In fact, they were able to see the Mystic Pagoda in the distance right before getting kicked out of the Mystic Realm!

"This is why I said we should hunt some magical beasts for points! Look at us now! Besides increasing our cultivation base, we don't have any other points! If our rank is screwed up because of that, the Sect Master will kill us!" Xue Jiye complained to him.

Gao Dongya would normally have a comeback for her complaints but he was speechless this time, as it was true that they didn't have many points.

"Where is Disciple Yuan? I don't see him out here." Xue Jiye suddenly realized that he wasn't with them.

"Perhaps he was disqualified before us." Gao Dongya said.

"Don't jinx it!" Xue Jiye quickly said.

Sometime later, Senior Nie said to them, "Everyone that just got kicked out of the Mystic Realm, you may return to your sect for now. I will announce the results once everyone is out."

"What? Does this mean there are still people inside the Mystic Realm? Why were we kicked out? Who decided that?" The disqualified participants were speechless.

Many minutes later, once the participants returned to their sects, Long Yijun stared at Gao Dongya and Xue Jiye with a deep frown on his face, yet he didn't look angry at all.

"I'm sorry, Sect Master. We have failed you." Gao Dongya said with his head lowered.

"I'm sorry, Sect Master." Xue Jiye also apologized.

After a moment of silence, Long Yijun spoke, "Don't worry about it too much. Although I am also upset about the results, this situation was completely unexpected and out of control. Hopefully, Disciple Yuan, who is still inside the Mystic Realm, won't disappoint us."

"What? Disciple Yuan is still inside?" Gao Dongya was surprised to hear this.

"Where was he this entire time? He was separated from us the moment we went inside." Xue Jiye said.

"I know. However, I don't know why he was separated from you two or where he went. All I know is that he's still safe and sound inside the Mystic Realm. In fact, he even managed to open the Mystic Pagoda." Long Yijun revealed to them.

"What?! He opened the Mystic Pagoda?! How?!" Gao Dongya exclaimed in a shocked voice, causing the other participants to look at him.

Who opened the Mystic Pagoda? The participants that were not there to witness Yuan coming outside the Mystic Pagoda were unaware of the situation. However, they would soon come to learn about everything from the others, greatly shocking them as well.

Chapter 382 - Returning To The Cabin

Inside the Mystic Realm, after kicking out all of the participants, Yuan said in a calm manner, "Okay, I think I got rid of all of the participants. Do I now do the same for opening the Mystic Realm?"

Grandpa Lan nodded and said, "Yes, but I think you should let the natives know before you open it."

"How should I let them know? Gather all of them in one place?" Yuan asked.

"No, you don't need to do that much. Just speak to them using the Mystic Realm. You can broadcast your voice to everyone in this world if you wish. Just ask the Mystic Realm to help you."

Yuan nodded and said, "Mystic Realm, I would like to speak with everyone in this world, so make sure my voice can be heard by everyone."

[Command acknowledged]

[You may speak whenever]

"Ahem!" Yuan cleared his throat before his speech, and his voice echoed throughout the world for everyone to hear, almost as though there was a god speaking to them from above.

"Hello, everybody in the Mystic Realm. I will keep this brief. I have recently become the Master of the Mystic Realm, and as the new Master, I will be opening the Mystic Realm for those of you who wish to leave this world and go outside."

"There will be a portal near the Mystic Pagoda, so if you wish to leave, you may go through this portal, which will take you outside the Mystic Realm. That is all."

The natives were greatly shocked after hearing Yuan's words. There's a new Master for the Mystic Realm? And this person will be opening the Mystic Realm again? Why would this person do something like that for them? And who is the identity of this new Master?

The natives were also sketchy about this announcement. Nevertheless, many of these natives were desperate to leave the Mystic Realm, so a lot of people from around the Mystic Realm began preparing their trip to the Mystic Pagoda.

"Now that all of that is done, what else should I do?" Yuan asked.

"You have already done more than enough, young man." Grandpa Lan said with a smile on his face.

And he continued, "Everyone that has been yearning to leave this place will be finally able to do so. I can imagine the population in this world lowering by a lot in the next few weeks."

"How about I open the Mystic Realm for the people outside as well? This way, there will be more people coming into this world."

"Hm? You mean you're not going to take the Mystic Realm with you?" Grandpa Lan looked at him with wide eyes.

"Can I even take something this massive with me?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"Of course. You can take it with you like a Soul Weapon." Grandpa Lan nodded.

"But if I do that... How will people enter or leave this place?" Yuan asked.

"Well... They can't— at least not until you take out the treasure again."

After pondering for a moment, Yuan said, "I will leave the Mystic Realm where it has been for the last few hundred thousand years. This way, people can enter and leave as they wish, and the sects will be able to continue doing this event which decides the rank of their sects."

After all, even if he's the Master of the Mystic Realm, he has no real use for such a place, and it would be somewhat unfair to the people that have been relying on the Mystic Realm for so long if he took it with him.

"I understand. If that's your decision, then so be it." Grandpa Lan nodded.

"Yuan, what should we do now?" Wang Xiuying asked him a moment later.

"Since you have automatically disqualified all of the participants, there is no longer any reason for us to be here. We can simply leave whenever we want."

"You're right... I don't think we should linger in this place when everyone is already outside." Yuan agreed with her.

"There's no need to be in such a hurry, young man. How about we return to the cabin and have some tea before you leave? I also have something to give you." Grandpa Lan said to him.

"Okay." Yuan nodded.

"What about you? Do you want to come along? I can take you out of here if you wish."

"I don't want to leave alone. I can already imagine what might happen if I do..." Wang Xiuying shuddered at the thought of being surrounded by everyone outside the moment she leaves, asking her why she's the only one who didn't get kicked out.

"Great. Then let's go." Grandpa Lan said to them.

A moment later, they went outside, where Grandpa Lan transformed into his serpent form, shocking Wang Xiuying.

"Y-You're a magical beast?"

"A Divine Beast, to be exact." Grandpa Lan said with a smile.

"A Divine Beast...? Yuan, don't you also have a Divine Beast as a servant?" Wang Xiuying recalled one of his world announcements.

"What? You have a Divine Beast as a servant?" The Lan Family looked at him with their eyes wide with shock.

They didn't know Divine Beasts could be servants, as they are usually extremely prideful beings that would never lower themselves to become a servant.

"Yes, I do." Yuan nodded.

"Unbelievable..." Grandpa Lan mumbled.

Lan Yingying stared at Yuan silently, seemingly in deep thoughts.

"Get on my back. I'll carry you guys back to the Divine Forest." Grandpa Lan said to them.

"Let me create the exit for the natives first," Yuan said, and he commanded the Mystic Realm to create a portal right outside the Mystic Pagoda, which will let the natives finally leave this place.

Once that was done, he jumped on Grandpa Lan's back with Wang Xiuying and the others before flying into the sky and away from the Mystic Pagoda.

In the air, Wang Xiuying looked at Lan Yingying for a good moment before asking her, "If you don't mind me asking, what's your relationship with Yuan?"

"What...?" Lan Yingying pondered for a moment before speaking, "He impregnated me."

"He what?!" Wang Xiuying exclaimed, nearly falling off Grandpa Lan's back from shock after hearing Lan Yingying's shocking words.

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 383 - Farewell Gift

"Y-Yuan! Is that true?! You impregnated this young lady?!" Wang Xiuying turned to him for answers, as she couldn't believe that someone as innocent as Yuan would do something like that to a woman he'd only recently met.

Yuan nodded in a calm manner and confirmed, "Yes, she asked me to impregnate her, so I decided to help her."

"U-Unbelievable..." Wang Xiuying stared at him with clear disbelief on her face.

Finding out Yuan had impregnated another woman was akin to a hardcore fangirl finding out that her number one idol had a girlfriend for Wang Xiuying.

The shock she felt was unique and different from what Meixiu felt when she first found out about it.

After many moments of silence, Wang Xiuying spoke again, "W-Well... Congratulations! I cannot wait to see the baby in nine months!"

Wang Xiuying was unaware that Divine Beasts had a much longer conceiving time.

"Nine months?" Lan Yingying raised her eyebrows.

She then said, "It will take at least a thousand years before I can give birth. Divine Beasts are different. We cannot give birth so quickly unlike humans."

"Is that how it works? But one thousand years... We'll be long dead by then..."

"As long as you reach Spirit Grandmaster, you'll be able to live over a thousand years comfortably." Grandma Lan said to her.

"Perhaps in this world, but alas..." A bittersweet smile appeared on Wang Xiuying's face. Although Spirit Grandmasters can live to be a thousand in this cultivation world, they are only inside a game.

'There's no such thing as cultivation in the real world, after all...' Wang Xiuying thought to herself.

A few hours later, they arrived at the cabin in the Divine Forest.

"Go ahead and make yourselves at home. I'll go brew some tea." Grandma Lan said to them.

After they sat down, Grandpa Lan said, "I will be right back."

He then disappeared somewhere.

"Yuan, what are you going to do once you go back outside?" Lan Yingying asked him.

"Well, I am going to return to my sect for a while. Then I am going to enter this place called Dragon Temple. Once all of that is done, I plan on leaving the sect so that I can explore the rest of the Lower Heavens before I decide to ascend through the Stairway to Heaven." Yuan laid out his plans.

"The rest of the Lower Heavens? That's going to take years, Yuan." Wang Xiuying said to him.

And she continued, "There are four continents in the Lower Heavens, and as far as I am aware, a single continent in this world is as big as all of the continents on 'Earth' combined."

"Really? Then I guess I will just look around until I feel like going to the upper heavens." Yuan said.

"What about following that Senior Nie to Spirit Heaven? You opened the Mystic Pagoda, so you automatically qualify to ascend with him." Wang Xiuying then asked.

"Nah. I'd rather ascend with my own effort. And there are still things I need to do in the Lower Heavens." Yuan said.

"Makes sense." Wang Xiuying nodded.

Sometime later, Grandpa Lan returned with a small wooden box in his hands.

He sat down in an empty seat before placing the box before them.

"I want you to have the thing inside this box. It's a farewell gift from us—the Lan Family." Grandpa Lan said with a mysterious smile on his face.

And he continued, "You deserve it."

"What is it?" Yuan couldn't help but ask.

"Open it up and see for yourself," he said with a smile.

Yuan nodded and opened up the box, and to his surprise, there were two familiar-looking objects resting inside the box.

There were two crystals— red crystals.

"T-This is... Demon Cores?" Yuan asked in a dazed voice.

"Yes. One of them belongs to the minor demon you had sealed but never got to finish. We finished it for you after your disappearance." Grandpa Lan explained.

"As for the second demon core... It belongs to the Demon Lord."

"Wait... What?" Yuan's eyes widened with surprise.

"Didn't the Demon Lord explode himself? How could his demon core have survived that?" Yuan asked.

"Although it may be called 'Core Detonation', it doesn't actually require the demon to destroy their demon core. In fact, a demon's core has nothing to do with their cultivation, as they store their cultivation inside their body."

"So their blood, their muscles, their bones— every single cell in their body. This is one of the reasons for their near indestructible bodies, as their bodies are made mostly out of spiritual energy."

"If a demon core isn't their Dantian, then what is a demon core? And why does it contain so much spiritual energy?" Yuan asked.

"Unfortunately, I do not have an answer for that question, as I don't know that much about demons, to begin with." Grandpa Lan shook his head.

"I see..." Yuan mumbled.

"Anyways, we found the Demon Lord's demon core at the place where he self-destructed. We were going to feed it to Yingying when she's actually pregnant so that the baby can feed off the spiritual energy and grow stronger, but seeing that you're still alive, we're going to give it back to you." Grandpa Lan said.

"Are you sure?" Yuan asked.

"Yes." Lan Yingying nodded.

"I see... Thank you." Yuan accepted the demon cores and tossed them into his Dragon Spatial Ring.

"Now, onto our next subject..." Grandpa Lan said as his expression suddenly turned solemn.

"Yuan, what do you think about letting Lan Yingying follow you outside?"

"What? Miss Lan?" Yuan's eyes widened with surprise.

"Grandfather..." Lan Yingying was also surprised by his suggestion, as she thought he was only joking back then when he first mentioned it.

After a moment of silence, Yuan turned to look at Lan Yingying and asked her, "Miss Lan, do you want to follow me? I cannot guarantee you that it will be entertaining."

"I..." Lan Yingying opened her mouth, but she didn't continue, and she turned to look at her grandparents with a hesitant look, clearly reluctant to leave them behind.

Chapter 384 - Leaving The Mystic Realm

"Why are you hesitating now, Yingying? Forget about us old folks and go have fun with the youngsters. You'll definitely enjoy the outside world more than this forest." Grandpa Lan said to her.

"Furthermore, you'll conceive his child in the future. It would be better for the child if the father is there during birth, don't you think so as well?" Grandma Lan added.

"What about my duty?" Lan Yingying asked.

"You're worried about that? Just leave it to us. We will continue to clean the Lord's tablet." Grandpa Lan said.

After a slight pause, he continued with a smile on his face, "In fact, starting today, you have a new 'Lord'."

"Wait... What?" Lan Yingying looked at him with wide eyes.

"Go ahead and serve the young man as your new 'Lord'. You're not bound by a contract, anyway. It was our ancestors who decided to follow the Lord. We're simply carrying out their duties as a family tradition." Grandpa Lan said to her.

"..."

After a long moment of silence, Lan Yingying stood up from her seat and walked to the side of the table where Yuan was sitting.

"Miss Lan?" Yuan looked at her with raised eyebrows.

"Yuan..."

Lan Yingying lowered her body until she was on her knees.

"No... Please allow me to call you my Lord." Lan Yingying said as she lowered her head until it was kissing the floor.

"I wish to serve you as my Lord." Lan Yingying repeated since Yuan didn't respond for a moment, mostly because he was speechless.

"A-Are you sure?" Yuan asked her.

"I am positive." Lan Yingying nodded her head with a resolute expression on her face.

"Okay. If you want to follow me, there's no reason for me to refuse." Yuan easily agreed.

"Really? You don't mind?" Lan Yingying's eyes flickered with excitement.

"Why would I mind? It's not like I dislike you. In fact, I really like you." Yuan said with a smile on his face.

"Great! Now let's make this official with a contract!" Grandpa Lan said a moment later.

"You just need some of my blood, right?" Yuan asked her, as this is what Feng Yuxiang needed.

Lan Yingying nodded.

"Okay."

Yuan retrieved the Starry Abyss, opened a wound on his finger, before finally offering it to Lan Yingying.

Lan Yingying gladly accepted his hand and opened her mouth, putting his finger inside a moment later to suck his blood.

Wang Xiuying swallowed nervously from the background, her face slightly flushed with redness, as this scene looked kind of erotic for some reason.

[Divine Serpent 'Lan Yingying' has initiated a servant contract with you!]

"My Lord, this subordinate shall follow you forever and swear my loyalty to you." Lan Yingying said to him.

"Just call me Yuan, Miss Lan," Yuan said to her.

"I cannot." Lan Yingying shook her head.

"Young man, we take our tradition very seriously." Grandpa Lan said to him.

"It'll be easier on her if you let her address you as 'Lord'." Grandma Lan also said.

Yuan nodded his head, "Fine. Call me whatever makes you feel comfortable, Miss Lan."

"Young man, you should stop calling her 'Miss Lan'. It makes you sound distant from her. Just call her Yingying like we do." Grandpa Lan then said.

"Okay. Yingying, I will accept you as my servant." Yuan said.

Ding!

[You have accepted Divine Serpent 'Lan Yingying' as your Servant!]

[Unlimited Growth]

[Rank: ???]

'Yingying is an Ancient-grade Divine Beast? That's even higher than Feng Feng, who's a phoenix! And she has so many Ancient rank skills!' Yuan was inwardly surprised when he saw Lan Yingying's stats.

'And what's this Unlimited Growth skill? I cannot see its rank, just like Feng Feng's Cursed Bloodline...'

"The contract is completed," Yuan said to her a moment later.

"Welcome to the team. I will introduce you to the others once we go outside."

"Okay!" Lan Yingying nodded with a blissful expression on her face.

"Ahhh... How they grow up so quickly..." Grandma Lan said with a smile on her face.

And she continued, "Let's all drink the tea before it gets cold."

Thus, they sat down around the table and began drinking her tea.

Meanwhile, outside the Mystic Realm, an announcement appeared in the sky.

[Congratulations! Player Yuan has become the first player to obtain an Ancient grade Servant!]

This announcement shocked every player currently online. In fact, many of these players are learning about the existence of Ancient grade for the first time because of this announcement!

"Ancient grade servant..." Meixiu stared at the grand announcement in the sky with a dazed look on her face.

"What's the matter, Meixiu?" Feng Yuxiang asked her after noticing her blank stares into the sky.

"Yuan... He just obtained another servant." Meixiu said to her.

"What?! The Young Master?! Is that why I felt a chill down my spine just now?!" Feng Yuxiang exclaimed in a shocked voice.

"What kind of magical beast is it this time?" She then asked.

Meixiu shook her head and said, "We will find out once he leaves the Mystic Realm."

Inside the Mystic Realm, Yuan and the others spent a good hour calmly sipping tea and talking about random things casually.

After they finished all of the tea, Yuan and the others prepared to leave the Mystic Realm.

"Stay safe, Yingying, young man, and young lady." Grandpa Lan said to them.

"We will be here if you ever decide to come to visit us." Grandma Lan said.

"Thank you for everything that you've done for me," Yuan bowed to them.

"Thank you, grandfather, grandmother, for taking care of me. I will never forget the time I have spent here." Lan Yingying also lowered her head.

Grandpa Lan smiled and said, "You can thank us by showing us our great-grandchildren."

Lan Yingying nodded, "I promise."

After saying their final goodbyes, Yuan and the others entered a teleport that he'd created, leaving the Mystic Realm.

Chapter 385 - Mystic Realm Results

After entering the portal, Yuan, Wang Xiuying, and Lan Yingying appeared outside the Mystic Realm.

"So this is the outside world..." Lan Yingying mumbled in a dazed voice as she looked at the desolate area and the people gathered outside.

Meanwhile, Yuan and Wang Xiuying were bombarded with notifications.

Yuan's cultivation stopped at the peak of Spirit Master after leaving the Mystic Realm whilst Wang Xiuying's cultivation entered fifth level Spirit Warrior.

As for Lan Yingying, her cultivation base remained the same.

"Brother Yuan!"

"Young Master!"

Two figures could be seen flying in their direction shortly after they left the Mystic Realm.

"Xiao Hua. Feng Feng. It's been a while." Yuan greeted them.

"Young Master, is it true that you'd accepted a servant?" Feng Yuxiang immediately asked him, and she turned to look at the beauty standing beside him.

"You... You're a Divine Beast?" Feng Yuxiang could immediately tell, as Divine Beasts have a distinct aura and smell that could easily be noticed by other Divine Beasts.

"I am." Lan Yingying nodded calmly.

"Are you okay, Brother Yuan?" Xiao Hua asked him after her initial shock, as Yuan's cultivation base suddenly leaped all the way to the peak of Spirit Master.

"Yes, I am fine." Yuan nodded.

Sometime later, Senior Nie approached them and said, "Sorry to intrude on your reunion, but I would like to announce the results. Please go back to your sect in the meantime. And young man, I would like to speak with you afterward."

"Okay." Yuan nodded.

"I will see you later, Wang Xiuying," Yuan said to her before going back to the sect.

"See you later! It was fun playing with you!"

As Yuan walked back to the Dragon Essence Temple, everybody there stared at him with serious frowns on their faces, looking like they were all in deep thoughts.

"Welcome back, Disciple Yuan." Long Yijun said to him after he returned.

"I cannot wait to see the results!" Elder Shan chuckled.

Once everyone was back in their own sect, Senior Nie hovered above them and said, "First and foremost, let me start by saying that this year's Mystic Realm was completely unexpected and full of unexplainable phenomena that have never happened before. In other words, it was an unprecedented experience."

"However, such is the nature of the cultivation world. Therefore, I will continue to rank the sects based on the points the participants have accumulated during the time they were inside, even if it was cut short."

Senior Nie then turned to look at the Mystic Realm and began making some weird hand signals.

"Reveal!" He shouted.

A moment later, a list of sect names and numbers appeared in front of the Mystic Realm for all to see.

[Rank 1: Dragon Essence Temple(9,999,999 Points)]

[Rank 2: Medicine Valley(5,032 Points)]

[Rank 3: Heaven and Earth Palace(1,512 Points)]

[Rank 4: Azure Phoenix Sect(641 Points)]

[Rank 5: Heavenly Melody Academy(357 Points)]

[Rank 6: Grand Sword Mountain (240 Points)]

[Rank 7: Three Poisons Manor(101 Points)]

[Rank 8: Fallen Saber Sect(88 Points)]

[Rank 9: Xianxia Academy(72 Points)]

[Rank 10: Pink Garden Paradise(69 Points)]

"W-What kind of result is that?!"

The Sect Masters there exclaimed after seeing this unexpected result.

How on earth did the Dragon Essence Temple amass ten million points whilst the others couldn't even break five digits?

And how did the Medicine Valley achieve second place, beating the Heaven and Earth Palace that is now kicked all the way to the third place?

Furthermore, there were sects in the top 10 that weren't even top 50 before!

"This year's Mystic Realm— What a mess!" The Sect Masters there shook their heads at the results that were hard to swallow.

Of course, many of the Sect Masters there were unable to accept this result.

"Senior Nie! There's clearly something wrong with the results! Look at the Dragon Essence Temple! How could they have possibly achieved ten million points in such a short time?! The highest points recorded in history were only 10,000 points! Their points are 1,000 times higher, which is clearly impossible!"

"Hmm..."

Senior Nie looked at the scoreboard with narrowed eyes.

Indeed, the results looked a bit ridiculous even for him. However, if Disciple Yuan was the one who opened the Mystic Pagoda which hasn't been opened since forever, it would make sense why they'd managed to obtain so many points.

As for the Medicine Valley, their disciple was following Disciple Yuan, which could be the reason for her unusually high points despite being alone.

"What do you guys think?" Senior Nie asked the people behind the crystal balls.

"Who cares about the results? It doesn't affect us, anyway. Just get on with it so we can take that genius to the Spirit Heavens!"

"I agree. The results are final. There's nothing we can do at this point."

The elders all agreed.

Senior Nie nodded and said to the people on the ground, "The results are final. If you don't like the results, you can fix it next time."

The Sect Masters' hearts dropped after hearing the verdict, especially the sects that used to be top 10 but didn't even make the top 50 this year because someone had killed their disciples before they could earn any points.

As for the sects that used to be top 100 but now within the top 10, they were obviously ecstatic about the results.

However, out of everyone there, nobody was more ecstatic than Long Yijun and the Dragon Essence Temple, as the results had far exceeded their expectations by reaching first place!

"Hahahaha! We did it! You did it, Disciple Yuan! The Dragon Essence Temple has returned to being first again after so long! Hahaha!" Long Yijun could no longer hold his excitement and burst out laughing.

Chapter 386 - Picking Three Individuals

Sometime later, after Long Yijun eventually calmed down, Senior Nie said to everyone there, "The Mystic Realm has officially ended. I will now pick three people to come to the Spirit Heavens with me."

The Sect Masters and the disciples swallowed nervously.

A moment later, Senior Nie approached the Dragon Essence Temple first with the crystal balls floating around him.

"Greetings, Senior Nie." Long Yijun and the other sect elders greeted him respectfully.

Senior Nie nodded and said, "First and foremost, allow me to congratulate the Dragon Essence Temple for obtaining the first place in the Mystic Realm."

"Thank you, Senior Nie. However, this is all due to the effort of our disciples, mostly Disciple Yuan, our most recent and talented disciple." Long Yijun said.

"Yes... I can see that..." Senior Nie turned to look at Yuan and continued with a smile on his face, "Would you like to come with me to the Spirit Heaven, young man? You will get the ability to pick whichever of the seven Spirit Academies you would like to join. Furthermore, we will fully support your cultivation path by giving you near-unlimited resources, and we can even guarantee you that Spirit Heaven will not be your last stop."

"Spirit King... No, I will guarantee you that as long as you follow me, you will be able to attain Spirit Emperor in the future."

The other participants watched as Senior Nie extended his hand for Yuan with envy in their gazes.

However, to everybody's surprise, Yuan shook his head and said, "Thank you for the offer, Senior Nie, but I will have to decline your offer to go with you to the Spirit Heaven."

"W-What?" Senior Nie blinked his eyes in a dazed manner, looking like he was in disbelief.

Surely, he didn't just get refused, right?

Long Yijun and the others gasped in shock as well.

"How could you refuse! Do you have any idea how many people want to be in your shoes now?!" One of the crystal balls exclaimed.

"That's right! You cannot refuse this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity! If you don't come to the Spirit Heaven now, who knows when you'll get another chance!"

Sometime later, Senior Nie asked him, "May I ask you for the reason for your decision?"

Yuan nodded in a calm manner and said, "I still have many things to do in the Lower Heavens, so I cannot leave just yet. Furthermore, I want to ascend to the Spirit Heaven with my own strength. I am going to challenge the Stairway to Heaven, after all."

"Stairway to Heaven? Even if you are a heaven-defying genius, it's not guaranteed that you'll ascend the stairway." One of the crystal balls said.

"Indeed. Countless top geniuses have failed while less talented people have succeeded. It's really random. However, if we bring you with us, it's guaranteed that you'll ascend."

Senior Nie then spoke, "You don't have to rush to a decision, young man. I can remain in the Lower Heavens for another week, so you have all that time to decide."

However, Yuan shook his head and insisted, "You don't have to wait for me. I have already made a decision. I will not ascend to the Spirit Heaven— not right now or in a week."

"Hmm..."

A perplexed expression appeared on Senior Nie's face.

As much as he wanted to bring Yuan with him to the Spirit Heaven, it was not as though he could force him.

Even if he wanted to drag Yuan to the Spirit Heaven with him, he wouldn't act so shamelessly even if it's the last thing he does.

"It is unfortunate, but if you don't want to come with me, I will have no choice but to find someone else. Don't regret this decision, young man." Senior Nie no longer paid attention to Yuan and flew away.

"What?! You're just going to let him get away so easily?! Grab him if you have to!" One of the crystal balls said.

"If you want to take him by force, by all means, get your ass down here and try it yourself." Senior Nie coldly snorted.

Meanwhile, the other participants stared at Yuan as though they were looking at a fool. What kind of idiot would possibly refuse such an opportunity?

"Does he not care about his cultivation career? He's even such a genius! What a damn waste of talent! Fuck me!" A feminine voice resounded from the crystal balls, cursing in a graceful tone.

"Are you sure about this?" Long Yijun asked him afterward.

"I am sure." Yuan nodded without any regret in his heart.

After leaving the Dragon Essence Temple, Senior Nie went to the Heaven and Earth Palace.

"Greetings, Senior Nie." The Sect Master and the disciples greeted him respectfully.

Senior Nie nodded before turning to look at a certain individual in the group.

"You. What's your name?" Senior Nie asked him.

"Lightning Emperor!" The handsome young man responded with a smile on his face.

"Lightning Emperor?" Senior Nie raised his eyebrows, wondering what kind of parents would give their own child such a ridiculous name.

But he didn't think too much about it and nodded, "Okay. Would you like to come with me to the Spirit Heaven? I have seen your talents in the Mystic Realm, and they're definitely remarkable."

"I am willing!" Lightning Emperor quickly responded.

"Good." Senior Nie nodded his head before flying to another location.

"Congratulations, Junior apprentice-brother Lightning Emperor, on your advancement!"

"Don't forget about us when you go to the Spirit Heaven!"

The other disciples quickly congratulated him.

"Thank you, everybody!" Lightning Emperor bowed to them with a wide smile on his face.

A few moments later, Senior Nie asked another participant to follow him to the Spirit Heaven, and to no one's surprise, that participant immediately accepted, which should be the normal response in such a situation.

"Now... for the third person..."

Senior Nie swept the crowd with a profound gaze until it landed on a pretty young lady.

He then flew to her and asked her, "Do you want to come with me to the Spirit Heaven?"

"Huh? Are you talking to me?" Wang Xiuying pointed at herself when he noticed Senior Nie staring directly at her.

"Yes. You." Senior Nie confirmed with a nod of his head.

Chapter 387 - Returning To The Dragon Essence Temple

"Do you want to follow me to the Spirit Heaven?" Senior Nie asked Wang Xiuying again.

Wang Xiuying was speechless since she didn't think that she would get the chance.

She then turned to look at Yuan in the distance.

'As much as I want to stay down here and play with you, I have something more important to do...' she said inwardly.

Wang Xiuying returned to Senior Nie and asked him, "If I go to the Spirit Heaven, I will get to pick a sect to join, right?"

"That's right. You can join any of the seven Spirit Academies," he confirmed.

"Then out of these seven Spirit Academies, are there any of them that focus on medicine?"

Senior Nie nodded and said, "Looks like you'll have a new disciple, Elder Mu."

One of the crystal balls then spoke, "My Spirit Healing Academy is the top medicine sect in the Spirit Heaven that has over ten thousand Alchemy Apprentices and a thousand Alchemy Masters. If you wish to join my sect, you will need to be proficient and passionate in the field of medicine."

"I want to join!" Wang Xiuying quickly said.

"Good. But you should know one more thing. Although you have been given the right to join our sect, you have yet to qualify, as our sect is a bit special, so you are still required to take our disciple examination. Are you okay with that?"

"I am okay with that." Wang Xiuying quickly responded.

"Then it's decided. I will see you when you get up here."

Once Senior Nie has picked three people that will be following him to the Spirit Heaven, he said to them, "Congratulations to everyone that has been chosen. I will give you all seven days to prepare for your departure."

Soon after, Senior Nie dismissed everyone there.

However, right as the sects began leaving, another phenomenon occurred at the Mystic Realm, as people could be seen coming out of the gates!

"W-What the heck? Who are those people?"

The sects there were puzzled by this, as was Senior Nie and the others in the Spirit Heaven.

These people were clearly not participants, so they could only be the natives inside the Mystic Realm.

"Hahaha! It's true! It's really true! We can finally leave the Mystic Realm! Thank the new Master of the Mystic Realm! Thank the Lord!" The people that just came out of the Mystic Realm quickly began rejoicing in their freedom.

Seeing this, Senior Nie approached these Mystic Realm natives and asked them what was going on.

"How did you guys leave the Mystic Realm?" Senior Nie asked them.

"How? The Mystic Realm has a new Master! And this person decided to give us freedom! Now anybody can leave the Mystic Realm!" The natives explained to him.

"Heavens..." Senior Nie mumbled in a dazed voice.

Just who is this new master of the Mystic Realm? And why would he make this change that might affect the world?

'Actually, I can think of one person...' Senior Nie recalled Yuan, who had somehow managed to open the Mystic Pagoda, but he had no concrete proof that he was the new Master of the Mystic Realm.

After answering all of Senior Nie's questions, the Mystic Realm natives left the scene and scattered around the Lower Heavens.

Sometime later, Long Yijun said to the others, "We're going to return to the Dragon Essence Temple now."

Yuan quickly said, "Please wait a moment! I would like to speak with my friend one last time before she leaves."

Long Yijun nodded.

Yuan then approached Wang Xiuying and said to her, "Congratulations on ascending."

"Hehe... It's all thanks to you, Yuan." Wang Xiuying said with a bright smile on her face.

"Unfortunately, this means we cannot play together for a while, but I will definitely go to the Spirit Heaven in the future, so let's play again then," Yuan said to her with his hands extended.

Wang Xiuying shook his hand and nodded, "Yes! I will see you in the Spirit Heaven!"

Sometime later, Wang Xiuying left the scene with her sect and Yuan returned to the others.

"Let's return to the sect now." Long Yijun said, and the others brought out their flying treasures.

"We don't really have enough room for everyone here..." Elder Xuan said.

"Let's talk later, Young Master." Feng Yuxiang said to him before turning into a small ball of flame and going inside his body.

Xiao Hua also entered her necklace shortly later.

The others then looked at Lan Yingying, wondering if she'll be doing something similar.

"Do you also want to enter my body?" Yuan asked her, thinking that she also had the capability.

However, Lan Yingying shook her head and said, "I do not know how to do that. This is the best I can do."

She then transformed into her serpent form, yet it was different from her usual form.

Unlike her large beast form, Lan Yingying had transformed into a small and slender snake before wrapping herself around Yuan's wrist, turning into a bracelet of sorts.

"Wow..." Elder Shan mumbled in a dazed voice, as she has never seen anything like this before.

"Are we all ready to leave?" Long Yijun asked them a moment later.

"Yes."

Once everyone there was on a flying treasure, they took off into the sky and returned to the Dragon Essence Temple.

A few hours later, they arrived at the sect.

"The three of you can go back to your living quarters for now to rest. We'll contact you again in three days." Long Yijun said to the disciples.

"Yes, Sect Master." They nodded.

"Good work at the Mystic Realm, all of you." Elder Xuan said.

"Yes. Great work indeed."

"Disciple Yuan, please wait for a moment." Long Yijun stopped him right as he reached the door.

And he said, "The Dragon Temple will be opened in a week from now."

"I understand. Thank you, Sect Master." Yuan said to him before returning to his own living quarters with Meixiu.

After the disciples left, Long Yijun sat down in his seat in an exhausted manner.

"What an experience it has been..." he sighed.

Chapter 388 - Recalling His Experience In The Mystic Realm

"Not only did the Mystic Realm finish earlier than anticipated, but everything else is also a mess. We'll have a lot of work on our hands once the news spreads." Elder Shan said with a bittersweet smile.

And she continued, "At least we got first place."

Long Yijun shook his head and said, "Do you really think people will accept the results? Even if they won't say it to our faces, there will be plenty of people who think we don't deserve this rank, especially when the results are so... questionable."

"That is true... Ten million points... I would also question it if I was in their shoes." Elder Shan agreed.

"What can we do at this point?" She then asked.

"We can only prove to the world that we're worthy of this position." Long Yijun spoke with a dignified expression on his face.

"How do we do that?" Elder Shan asked.

"First, we're going to up the requirements to join the Dragon Essence Temple. Although we held a disciple examination recently, we will hold another one while the heat is still at its peak. Furthermore, while some people will question us, there will also be plenty of people who will admire us." Long Yijun said.

The elders there nodded with solemn looks on their faces. The Dragon Essence Temple will no longer be the same starting today.

Once they were prepared, Long Yijun and the other high-ranking sect elders gathered all of the disciples in the Dragon Essence Temple in one spot.

Of course, Yuan and the other two Mystic Realm participants were exempted from this gathering.

An hour later, every available disciple in the sect, regardless if they were busy or not, gathered at the Summit Peak, one of the most spacious areas in the sect.

Over thirty thousand disciples gathered at the place with the majority of them being Outer Court disciples, and they were standing the furthest away from the stage where Long Yijun and the other elders were standing whilst the Inner Court and Core Disciples got the best seats in the front.

"Ahem!"

After clearing his throat, Long Yijun spoke in a loud and clear voice, "You must be wondering why I have returned to the sect so quickly and why I had gathered all of you here today."

"The Mystic Realm had ended earlier than anticipated— it was an unprecedented event."

"Secondly, I am here to announce the results of the Mystic Realm, and I am happy to declare that our Dragon Essence Temple has finally managed to take first place again after so many years!"

"Ooooooh!"

"First place?!"

"Hell yeah!"

The thousands of disciples there immediately erupted with cheering from excitement.

"And in order to celebrate, we will be giving every single disciple extra allowances for the next ten years!" Long Yijun announced, causing the excitement to skyrocket.

After all, more allowances mean more resources, and more resources meant they get to cultivate just a little bit faster!

"In three days, I will introduce the three disciples that helped us achieve this feat, so make sure you're ready by then."

After giving a small speech, Long Yijun handed the stage to the sect elders and disappeared from the scene to prepare for other things.

Meanwhile, inside Yuan's living quarters, Yuan said to the others, "You guys can come out now."

A second later, Feng Yuxiang came out of his chest and Xiao Hua came out of his necklace. Finally, Lan Yingying unwrapped herself from Yuan's wrist and transformed back into a human.

Once everyone was present, Yuan said, "Let's introduce each other now."

"I will go first." Feng Yuxiang said, and she continued, "My name is Feng Yuxiang, I used to work as a store owner in the Golden Phoenix Bazaar, and I am now a proud servant for the Young Master. Oh, I am also a Divine Beast—a Phoenix."

"A Phoenix...?" Lan Yingying raised her eyebrows. This is her first time meeting another Divine Beast besides her grandfather and father.

Meixiu went next.

"I am called Meixiu, and I am something like a caretaker for Yuan. We've also known each other since childhood."

"Xiao Hua." Xiao Hua gave a brief introduction.

"Nice to meet all of you. My name is Lan Yingying, and I am a native of the Mystic Realm. Just like Miss Feng, I am a Divine Beast—a Divine Serpent, to be exact." Lan Yingying then introduced herself.

"A Divine Serpent, huh? What kind of serpent are you?" Feng Yuxiang asked her.

"I'm not exactly sure..." Lan Yingying said.

"Do you have any special abilities, then?"

"I can summon these white flames called Sacred Fire," she said.

"White flames? I have never heard of that ability before." Feng Yuxiang shook her head.

"How did you meet Brother Yuan?" Xiao Hua suddenly asked with an intensive gaze.

"I met him by chance at my previous Lord's tablet..." Lan Yingying said.

"Allow me to explain," Yuan said, and he proceeded to explain his whole experience in the Mystic Realm to them until he reached the Mystic Pagoda.

"Unbelievable... To think you had to fight so many demons in the Mystic Realm." Feng Yuxiang mumbled in a dazed voice.

Although Meixiu told her about Yuan killing a demon, she didn't know he had to fight so many of them.

"Where did you learn the demon sealing technique anyway, Young Master?" Feng Yuxiang then asked.

"I learned it at some technique store," he said.

"Technique store...?" Xiao Hua recalled the mysterious technique store that had a Spirit King greeting guests at the door.

"Anyways, after arriving at the Mystic Pagoda, we went to the highest floor, where we found a teleport formation that suddenly teleported us to this mythical place called Ancient Dragon City."

Yuan said as he continued with his story.

He then proceeded to recall everything that had happened in the Ancient Dragon City and how he managed to obtain a dragon's blood essence.

"Blood Essence from the Dragon Ancestor?!" Feng Yuxiang exclaimed in a shocked manner after hearing about it, looking completely baffled.

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 389 - Blood Essence

"Y-Young Master, by 'Dragon Ancestor', do you mean THAT 'Dragon Ancestor'?" Feng Yuxiang asked him in a trembling voice.

Yuan raised his eyebrows and spoke, "Hmm? Do you know the Dragon Ancestor?"

"If it's the same Dragon Ancestor you're talking about, of course, I know him! Oh, but it's not like I know him personally. He's just incredibly famous in the upper heavens." Feng Yuxiang said.

"Oh? Tell me more!" Yuan said, his eyes filled with interest.

Feng Yuxiang nodded and said, "The Dragon Ancestor is one of the oldest Divine Beasts in existence who has existed ever since the Primordial Era—the earliest known Era, and the Dragon Ancestor has built multiple empires and powerful families across the Nine Heavens. He's so incredibly powerful and famous that many people revere the Dragon Ancestor as their god!"

"Many families across the Nine Heavens, huh? I think it's the same Dragon Ancestor since that's what the Royal Family told me as well." Yuan said.

"Heavens... You really obtained the Dragon Ancestor's Blood Essence? Not just his blood, but his Blood Essence! This is a priceless treasure even in the upper heavens, Young Master! I have no doubt that even gods would start a war for it!"

"What's the difference between regular blood and Blood Essence?" Yuan asked her.

"The phoenix blood I gave you is considered 'regular blood' since I can offer it quite easily. Blood Essence, however, requires tedious effort and the individual's longevity to create."

"Huh? Does that mean it'll take away your life?" Yuan's eyes widened.

"That's right." Feng Yuxiang nodded, and she continued, "Blood Essence requires one to sacrifice their longevity, and to Cultivators, their longevity is extremely important, almost sacred, so you can imagine why Blood Essence is incredibly rare."

"Even true Immortals that have indefinite longevity would not create Blood Essence carelessly because it could affect their cultivation, and that would be disastrous even if they lose a single level."

"I see..." Yuan mumbled.

"This makes me wonder... Why would the Dragon Ancestor risk so much to create his Blood Essence?" Feng Yuxiang pondered.

After a moment of silence, Yuan asked, "Should I consume the Blood Essence?"

Feng Yuxiang instantly stopped her thoughts and looked at him with wide eyes.

"Absolutely not!" She loudly exclaimed, startling everyone in the room.

"I'm sorry for shouting at you like that, Young Master, but you must not consume the Blood Essence because your body cannot handle it. The Dragon Ancestor is a godlike being at the peak of the cultivation world, and its Blood Essence would obviously contain an immense amount of energy. It would be like an ant trying to drink all of the water in an ocean." Feng Yuxiang said.

"Actually, can I take a look at the Blood Essence?"

Yuan nodded and retrieved his Dragon Spatial Ring before taking out the bottle and showing it to her.

Feng Yuxiang narrowed her eyes at the single drop of blood with a pondering look on her serious face.

After a moment of silence, she spoke, "Even considering your abnormal talents, you shouldn't consume this Blood Essence until you're at least a Spirit Emperor, Young Master, because it will definitely kill you in an instant."

"Spirit Emperor? The Blood Essence is that powerful?" Yuan's jaw dropped.

How long would it take him to reach Spirit Emperor? He cannot even imagine!

"Young Master, this Blood Essence came from a godlike being that has reached the peak of cultivation. It's not something a mere Spirit Master can consume. And telling you to consume it at Spirit Emperor is already incredibly dangerous and almost suicidal. I wouldn't tell even Spirit Sovereigns to consume this Blood Essence under normal circumstances."

"I understand." Yuan nodded.

"However, there are methods you can use that'll allow you to consume the Dragon Ancestor's Blood Essence without waiting until Spirit Emperor, and that requires you to dilute the Blood Essence until it's weak enough for you to consume it. Of course, this method isn't recommended, as it'll greatly weaken the effects of the Blood Essence."

"It's okay, I'll just wait until I am a Spirit Emperor. I am in no rush to consume the Blood Essence, anyway." Yuan said.

After all, his purpose for playing this game was never to rush to the peak as soon as possible.

After he finished recalling his experience in the Mystic Realm to the others, Xiao Hua asked him, "Brother Yuan, what are your plans now?"

"I am going to enter the Dragon Temple before I leave the sect and explore the Lower Heavens some more. After that, I will ascend the Stairway to Heaven."

"Okay." Xiao Hua nodded.

Yuan then turned to look at Meixiu and asked her, "What about you? When do you want to start cultivating?"

"Whenever, I guess..." Meixiu casually responded, as she has no real motivation to become a Cultivator.

Sometime later, Yuan spoke, "Since I cannot consume the Blood Essence now, what about these demon cores? I have already eaten one so I know that's not a problem."

He then showed them the two demon cores Grandpa Lan gave him.

"Demon cores? These will fetch good money if you sell them, Young Master. If my store was still open, I'd put these demon cores on the top floor, no doubt."

"I don't need money so I'll keep them for now," Yuan said.

"Hmm..." Feng Yuxiang looked at the demon cores with a pondering expression.

"If you want to consume them like monster cores, I'd only suggest consuming that one." Feng Yuxiang pointed to the demon core on the left.

And she continued, "You'll reach Spirit Grandmaster if you consume that one, but if you consume the other one, you'll risk breaking through to Spirit Lord, which will force you to ascend to the next heaven because only Spirit Grandmasters are allowed in the Lower Heavens... With some exceptions like Xiao Hua, I guess."

"I see... Then I'll just consume the weaker one and breakthrough to Spirit Grandmaster first." Yuan said before taking that demon core and tossing it inside his mouth.

Xiao Hua and Feng Yuxiang had a mini heart attack after seeing his sudden actions, as this was their first time seeing someone eat demon cores, and they were not prepared for it.

Yuan's cultivation soared all the way to the third level Spirit Grandmaster after consuming the demon core.

"Heavens, Young Master. You're almost at my level... At this rate, you'll definitely surpass me." Feng Yuxiang mumbled in a dazed voice as the aura of a Spirit Grandmaster emitted from Yuan's body.

"Actually, if you consume the other demon core, you'll definitely surpass me. However, if you do that..."

Yuan smiled and said, "I will leave the other demon core for when I don't have to worry about ascending in the Spirit Heaven."

Sometime later, Yuan said, "I'm going to take a good rest before I enter the Dragon Temple."

"Take a good rest, Brother Yuan. You deserve it." Xiao Hua said to him before returning to her necklace.

"I'll let you rest as well, Young master. Call us if you need anything." Feng Yuxiang said.

"Thank you for everything. I look forward to working for you, my Lord. Rest well." Lan Yingying said, turning herself into a bracelet on his wrist.

"What should we do now?" Meixiu asked him.

"We can log off for the day," he said.

"Okay. I will start preparing for dinner." Meixiu said before logging off the game.

Yuan followed her and logged off shortly after.

In the real world, Yuan continued to cultivate his cultivation. Although he took a slight break to focus on the Mystic Realm, his progress didn't slow down too much, and in just a single night, he had a breakthrough, reaching the sixth level Spirit Warrior.

And with this breakthrough, Yuan could feel and move his body slightly better.

'It's only a matter of time now! Perhaps if I reach Spirit Master, I will be able to move properly again!' Yuan used this motivation to help him cultivate through the night despite finding cultivation somewhat boring at times due to its repetitiveness.

The following day, Yuan decided to skip cultivation online and continue to improve his cultivation.

And since Yuan wasn't playing, Meixiu also took a break, using her time to surf the internet for more information about the game and other things instead.

"There's already 5 billion people on this forum... It was only 4 billion just a week ago, and this doesn't even take into account those players who don't use this forum. This game sure is growing at a crazy rate." Meixiu mumbled to herself.

Although she has seen her fair share of video games growing popular quickly, none of them could hold a candle to Cultivation Online that has more than half of the world's population actively playing the game.

"At this rate, the entire world is going to be playing this game..."

Meixiu began looking through the forum, and sure enough, it was littered with threads about Player Yuan and the Mystic Realm.

[Player Yuan slaughters over 50 participants at once!]

[Player Yuan has obtained an Ancient-grade Servant!]

[Player Yuan refuses to ascend to the Spirit Heaven!]

[Player Yuan takes first place in the Mystic Realm, achieving ten million points!]

The majority of the forum was talking about Player Yuan, which wasn't surprising after what happened at the Mystic Realm, one of the biggest events in the Lower Heavens.

Unfortunately, only a handful of players were able to participate in the event due to the limiting slots, or the Mystic Realm would've been an even hotter topic.

After losing track of time surfing the web, Meixiu was snapped out of her daze when her phone suddenly began ringing.

"Yu Rou?" Meixiu picked up the phone after seeing her name.

"Meixiu! Guess what!" Yu Rou's excited voice resounded from the phone.

"What?"

"My father has announced to all of the players in the company that whoever meets the requirements to wield the Frozen Jade Zither gets to use it!" Yu Rou said.

"Is that something to be excited about?" Meixiu asked.

"Of course! This means I will also have a chance to obtain it!" Yu Rou said.

"But do you even have the time to play the game? Considering your schedule, it'll be incredibly hard if not outright impossible for you to beat the others who have much more time on their hands." Meixiu said.

"Hehe... I kept the best news for last. Listen up, Meixiu. Because of Cultivation Online's massive popularity and potential, there have been a lot of students and even teachers skipping school just to play the game. Therefore, the principal has decided to cut school short this year!"

"What...? They can do that?" Meixiu mumbled in a dazed voice.

"Of course, the principal asked all of the parents for approval, and to my surprise, the majority of parents agreed, since they also want their kids to start playing the game!"

"Unbelievable... How is that going to work, anyway?"

"Well, the school will try to cram all lessons that would've been taught throughout the year into a single month, so starting next month, I will be able to play the game seriously!" Yu Rou said.

And she continued, "You know what's the crazy part, Meixiu? Our school isn't the first to do this! In fact, plenty of schools have already closed due to Cultivation Online! A new era of gaming is upon us! I can feel it!"

Sometime later, Yu Rou asked, "Is brother available right now? I would like to speak with him."

"He should be available since he's taking a break from Cultivation Online. I'll go knock on his door now." Meixiu said.

Chapter 391 - Family Assignment

"Yuan, are you awake? Yu Rou is on the phone, and she would like to speak with you." Meixiu called for him after knocking on the door.

"Yu Rou? I am awake." Yuan stopped cultivating after hearing Meixiu's voice.

Meixiu entered his room the next moment and placed the phone beside his pillow and the call on speaker.

"Brother?" Yu Rou called for him.

"I'm here, Yu Rou."

"It's been a while since I heard your voice, brother. How have you been doing?"

"I've been doing great."

"That's good to hear. First and foremost, allow me to congratulate you on your victory during the Mystic Realm! I knew you'd crush the other participants!"

"Thank you. It was a great experience in the Mystic Realm." Yuan said.

"I also heard that you managed to obtain an Ancient-grade servant. What kind of servant is it this time?" Yu Rou then asked.

"Her name is Lan Yingying, and she's a Divine Beast like Feng Feng, but she's a Divine Serpent."

"Serpent? Does this mean she's a snake? I'm not good with snakes..." Yu Rou spoke in a shaky voice.

"Don't worry, she won't bite. And she's usually in her human form, so you don't even realize that she's a snake most of the time."

"Oh, she can transform like Feng Feng? That's interesting. Can all Divine Beasts do that?"

"I heard all magical beasts can transform into humans if they reach a certain cultivation base."

"I see... Can you tell me a little of what you experienced inside the Mystic Realm? After that, I will tell you some good news!" Yu Rou said.

"Okay."

Yuan proceeded to recall his experience in the Mystic Realm and the Ancient Dragon City to Yu Rou through the phone.

"Whoa! You got to meet dragons and go to a world above the clouds? I am jealous! If only I was there with you..." Yu Rou sighed.

And she continued, "Yet that Wang girl... Ah, forget it. I will make up for it in a month."

"Hm? What are you talking about?" Yuan asked her.

"Hehe! Guess what, brother. My school will be closing early due to too many students skipping school to play Cultivation Online! Therefore, starting next month, I will be able to play every day!" Yu Rou revealed.

"What? They can do that?" Yuan was dumbfounded by this.

"Apparently."

"What are your plans now that there's no school?" Yuan asked her.

"I am going to play Cultivation Online seriously and try to be the first to obtain enough stats to use the Frozen Jade Zither." Yu Rou said.

"The Frozen Jade Zither?"

"Yes. Father said whoever gets enough stats to wield it gets to use it." Yu Rou said.

"I see..."

"The requirements... I will probably need to be around Spirit Master before I can wield it, right?"

"Considering the requirements, yes..."

"Brother, since you're number one when it comes to cultivation, do you have any tips for your cute little sister that'll help me cultivate faster?" Yu Rou asked him.

"Honestly, I don't even cultivate normally according to Xiao Hua and the others. I consume monster cores to increase my cultivation, but that's only possible because of my unique physique. As for normal players like you, I think the best thing to do is find a superior cultivation technique." Yuan said.

"I see... A superior cultivation technique, huh? Looks like I will have to either buy it from the auction house or something..." Yu Rou sighed.

"Huh? You're going to buy it from the auction house? Why?" Yuan immediately asked.

"Well, that's where most people get their desired items nowadays, not to mention the marketplace. Do you have any idea how difficult it is to obtain techniques and treasures in the game? You might not be aware since you're blessed by the gods in that game, we ordinary players have to slave ourselves to obtain even an ordinary technique. Luckily for me, I have some cash saved up, so I should be able to buy a decent cultivation technique.'

"Yu Rou, let's not be hasty and waste your money. If you need a good cultivation technique, I will try to find one for you— and it'll be free." Yuan said.

"R-Really?!" Yu Rou's excited voice quickly resounded.

"Yes. I am going to help Meixiu find her cultivation technique after the Dragon Temple. At that time, I will try to look for one for you as well."

"Thank you, brother! Muah!" Yu Rou kissed him through the phone.

"Anyways, I am going to go now. Because the school will be closing early, they are going to cramp all of the lessons together, meaning I will be busier than ever. See you later, brother! You too, Meixiu!"

Yu Rou hung up shortly after.

Once Yu Rou left, Yuan returned to his cultivation whilst Meixiu continued spending her time on the internet.

Meanwhile, inside Cultivation Online, a young lady knocked on the doors to Yuan's living quarters and patiently waited for him to come out.

However, when nobody showed up even many minutes later, the young lady turned around and left his place, returning to her own home that was only next door.

"I wanted to congratulate him for taking first place in the Mystic Realm, but alas..." Min Li sighed.

After spending some time inside her own room, Min Li noticed her communication jade slip trembling. Somebody was trying to send a message to her.

She activated the communication jade slip to hear the message.

"Min Li, our parents have ordered you to meet with this 'Disciple Yuan' from the Dragon Essence Temple and make him join the Min Family! Even if he already belongs to another family, do whatever you must to make him join us!"

Min Li was speechless after listening to this message that came from one of her elder brothers.

The family has assigned her to make Disciple Yuan join the Min Family? They must have heard about his achievements in the Mystic Realm.

"What a headache..." she sighed.

Chapter 392 - Looking For Disciple Yuan

On the second day of Yuan's break, Min Li tried to knock on his door again after her failed attempt the previous day, but alas, nobody answered.

"Could he be at the Dragon Pavilion?"

Thinking this, Min Li went to the Dragon Pavilion to find him.

"Good morning, Fairy Min!"

"Fairy Min, where are you going today?"

On her way to the Dragon Pavilion, the other disciples would approach her in hopes for something— anything at all.

Once she'd arrived at the Dragon Pavilion, the disciples there also approached her, almost like she was a celebrity or something.

"Fairy Min, are you here to dine today? It's on me!"

"Why don't you come with us, Fairy Min?"

"I'm just here to look around." Min Li said as she walked around the Dragon Pavilion, hoping to see a masked individual sitting at one of the tables.

Unfortunately, she was unable to find Disciple Yuan anywhere in the Dragon Pavilion, so she decided to give up for the day and return to her own room to practice her cultivation.

However, not long into her cultivation, Min Li felt her communication jade slip tremble again.

"Have you spoken to Disciple Yuan yet? Our parents said they need you to report to them your progress every day." Her elder brother asked her.

"Not yet. He's currently unavailable, so I cannot find him, much less speak with him." Min Li relayed this message back to her elder brother.

Not even a minute later, another message arrived.

"I don't want to hear any excuses! Every minute you're not speaking with him is every minute you're giving our competitors! Our parents really want Disciple Yuan! You know what will happen if you disappoint them, right?!"

"What am I supposed to do if he's not home and I don't know where to find him?" Min Li asked.

"Then find someone who does!"

Min Li sighed, and she stopped her cultivation to go outside.

"Besides the Sect Master, who might know Disciple Yuan's location? It's not like I can just request an audience with the Sect Master to ask about Disciple Yuan..." Min Li sighed again.

"Oh, right. Xuan Wuhan might know something since she's Elder Xuan's granddaughter."

Thus, Min Li went to look for Xuan Wuhan in the Core Disciple's area.

Normally, Outer Court disciples cannot go inside the Inner Court unless they were on a mission, but considering Min Li's background, who would dare to refuse her entry?

After reaching Xuan Wuhan's living quarters, she knocked on the doors.

A few moments later, Xuan Wuhan came outside.

"Disciple Min? What are you doing here?" Xuan Wuhan asked her.

"Sorry if I am bothering you, but do you happen to know where Disciple Yuan is? I need to speak with him about some urgent matters." Min Li said.

"Urgent matters? I don't know, but I can ask my grandpa. Give me a moment." Xuan Wuhan said before taking out her communication jade slip and sending Elder Xuan a message.

A minute later, Elder Xuan responded.

"Disciple Yuan should be resting inside his living quarters. He didn't check out of the sect or anything since we returned from the Mystic Realm. I can try sending him a message."

A few minutes later, Elder Xuan messaged Xuan Wuhan again, "Unfortunately, Disciple Yuan isn't responding. He's most likely busy right now."

"There you have it." Xuan Wuhan said.

"I see... Thank you for your help." Min Li said before turning around in a dejected manner.

Xuan Wuhan raised her eyebrows after seeing her gloomy mood, and she asked, "Did something happen? What's this urgent matter you need to take care of? Mind telling me?"

"It's just some family business..." Min Li said.

"The Min Family?"

After pondering for a moment, Xuan Wuhan realized something.

"Oh, I see... Your family is trying to recruit Disciple Yuan into their family after what happened at the Mystic Realm, huh? I totally understand. An 18-year-old who'd managed to reach Spirit Master... I would also want him for myself if I was part of the Seven Legacy Families."

"You don't understand a thing, Disciple Xuan, and I don't mean any offense. I have been assigned by my parents to recruit Disciple Yuan, and if I do not achieve this goal, they might kick me out of the family, and that's the least of my concerns."

"Being part of the Seven Legacy Families may seem nice and all from the outside, but they don't know how much we have to struggle to receive even the slightest recognition from our own family. Meanwhile, if we make even the slightest mistake, all hell would break loose and everyone in the family will look at you like they have a grudge against you. Perfection— this is what keeps the Seven Legacy Families at the top."

Xuan Wuhan was speechless after hearing Min Li's words.

"Well... I highly doubt Disciple Yuan would join any of the Seven Legacy Families, so what are you going to do?" Xuan Wuhan asked her.

"Prepare for the worse, I guess." Min Li shrugged.

"I mean... If you tell Disciple Yuan about your situation, maybe he'll help you out. He's that type of person, too."

Min Li shook her head, "While that's true, I don't want to take advantage of his kindness. Although I may be desperate, I am not that desperate..."

"I can only say good luck to you, Disciple Min." Xuan Wuhan said to her.

"Thank you..."

Min Li disappeared from the Inner Court shortly after, and she returned to Yuan's living quarters.

After knocking on his doors again, Min Li proceeded to sit in front of his doorsteps.

'Guess I'll have to sit here until he returns...' Min Li sighed inwardly as she began cultivating in front of Yuan's doorstep.

Time passed quickly, and in the blink of an eye, three days have passed since the Mystic Realm ended.

After eating breakfast made by Meixiu, Yuan waited for her to finish cleaning the dishes before they entered the game together.

Chapter 393 - A Strict Family

Once they returned to the game, Yuan could feel the communication jade slip Elder Xuan gave him tremble.

"Disciple Yuan, where are you right now?"

"Uhh... I am inside my room." Yuan responded.

A few moments later, Elder Xuan responded, "That was yesterday's message. I guess you were absorbed in cultivation or something." Elder Xuan said.

"Were you looking for me?" Yuan then asked.

"I am not the one who was looking for you. It was Disciple Min that wanted to speak with you." Elder Xuan said to him.

"Disciple Min? Why?"

"No clue, but it sounded like she really needed to speak with you."

"I understand. I will speak with her."

"Oh, right. The Sect Master said to gather at the Summit Peak this afternoon for your rewards."

"Okay. I will be there."

Sometime later, Yuan said, "I know we just ate, but I want to eat some more food at the Dragon Pavilion since it feels like it's been so long since I last tasted their food."

Meixiu didn't say anything and merely nodded.

The two of them left the house shortly after, and to their surprise, there was a person sitting in front of their doorstep.

Yuan raised his eyebrows as he called out, "Disciple Min? What are you doing? Why are you sitting there?"

"Eh?" Min Li stopped cultivating and turned around to see a masked figure and a beautiful young lady standing behind her.

"D-Disciple Yuan?" She mumbled.

"Yes?"

"Y-You... You have been inside the entire time? Did you not hear my knocking?"

"Sorry, I just came back..." Yuan shook his head.

And he continued, "I hope you didn't wait for too long..."

"Not long. Only for two days." Min Li said as she stood up.

"Anyways, don't worry about it. It's not your fault that I suddenly need to speak with you. I'm just glad that I don't have to wait a week to speak with you."

"Did something happen?" Yuan then asked.

Min Li nodded and said, "It's about my family, but let's talk somewhere more private if you don't mind."

"We were about to go to the Dragon Pavilion for some food before the gathering."

"Sounds good." Min Li said, and then she turned to look at Meixiu.

"She doesn't look like a disciple..."

"Oh, right. This is my friend and caretaker— Meixiu. I hope you don't mind having her with us. And this is a fellow disciple— Min Li." Yuan introduced them to each other.

"Hello," Meixiu said to her in a calm manner.

"H-Hello... I don't mind." Min Li said, feeling a little awkward.

Sometime later, they arrived at the Dragon Pavilion.

After taking a seat in their usual spot and ordering their food, Yuan asked Min Li, "So what happened to your family?"

Min Li released a sigh before she spoke, "Do you remember our conversation before? About you joining my family?"

"Yes, I do." Yuan nodded.

"Well, now that my family knows of your existence because of the Mystic Realm, they have officially assigned me to recruit you into my family, and they have been bugging me since then."

"I see... so this is about that matter."

"I haven't told my family that I already tried to recruit you, so they're unaware of that for now. However, I am also scared to tell them that I had failed, as failure isn't accepted in the Min Family."

"You see, being one of the Seven Legacy Families, our parents' expectations for us are extremely high. In their eyes, anything besides perfect is unacceptable, and failure is worse than death in some cases."

"What a strict family... But I can somehow relate..." Yuan sighed.

"Disciple Yuan, I know you don't want to join any families, but can you at the very least follow me back to the Min Family so they won't blame me too much for not being able to recruit you?" Min Li then asked him.

"If I don't show any results, they'll turn me into a laughing stock before selling me to another family! Please! I am begging you!"

Min Li lowered her head and spoke in a pleading voice.

"Please raise your head, Disciple Min. I just have to meet your family and tell them I don't want to join their family, right? I don't mind. However, I won't be able to meet them right now."

"T-That's fine! I think!" Min Li said.

"When will you be able to meet them?" She then asked.

"I don't know, but it will have to be after I leave the Dragon Essence Temple."

"Wait... You're going to leave the sect? Why?" Min Li stared at him with wide eyes.

"I only joined the sect for the experience, and I think I already have plenty," he said.

"When are you planning to leave? And what are you going to do afterward?"

"Well, I still have something to do in the sect, but I have no idea when I will finish it. Though, it's supposed to start in four days. After I leave the sect, I am going to explore the Lower Heavens some more before I ascend to Spirit Heaven through the Stairway to Heaven."

Min Li was speechless. Of course, she has heard about Yuan refusing to follow Senior Nie back to Spirit Heaven. To think he'd rather climb to the next realm through his own efforts and not with the help of someone else, she cannot help but admire him for that, especially since she has been relying on her own family this entire time.

'If I had even a portion of his resolve, perhaps I wouldn't need to rely on the Min Family to ascend...' she thought to herself.

Sometime later, the food they had ordered many minutes ago finally started to fill the table.

"Please enjoy your meal, Seniors! If you need anything, I will be right over there!" A familiar face said to them.

"Thank you, Disciple Chu," Yuan said to him.

"Let's talk more about your situation later, Disciple Min. For now, we should enjoy the food."

"Okay." Min Li nodded, and they began eating the food shortly after.

Chapter 394 - Golden Dragon Badge

"Mmm... Every time I come here, there is something new on the menu, and they always taste amazing. I am going to miss this place the most when I leave the sect." Yuan said after swallowing the last bite.

Hearing Yuan's words, Min Li didn't know whether to laugh or cry. He would be the only person in the sect who would say such a word.

At the end of their meal, right as they were about to leave, Min Li's communication jade slip suddenly trembled.

Min Li expected to hear a message from her elder brother, but to her surprise, it was her father who messaged her.

"What is your progress with recruiting Disciple Yuan? We have received information that the other families have already sent people to the Dragon Essence Temple to recruit him! We cannot waste any more time!"

Although it was a simple question, Min Li didn't dare to respond so casually.

"Greetings, esteemed father. I have just spoken with Disciple Yuan, and he has agreed to come to the Min Family for a meeting."

A moment later, her father responded.

"Just a meeting? Your mission is to recruit Disciple Yuan into our family! We don't need any less than that! Min Li, you are currently the least accomplished in the family, and we have given you this chance to redeem yourself! Do whatever you must to secure him, even if you have to use your body!"

"..."

Min Li bit her lips after hearing her father's words that essentially told her to sacrifice her body in order to secure Yuan. Even though she gave Yuan the same offer previously, it still felt bitter to hear it coming from her own parents.

"If you cannot even accomplish such a simple task, then you're worthless to us! We might as well give you to the other families at that point! At least you'll be worth something at that time!"

"I understand, esteemed father... I will speak with Disciple Yuan again..." Min Li said before sending the message back.

She then looked at Yuan, who was sitting beside her with a deep frown on his face, as he'd heard everything just now.

"And here I thought I had the worst parents in the world..." Yuan mumbled in a voice of disbelief.

"What should I do now, Disciple Yuan? My parents won't accept anything less than you joining the family..." she sighed.

"Well... Any chance of me joining your family just disappeared... no offense to you..." Yuan said to her.

"I don't blame you. Hell, I would leave this family if I could, but unfortunately, I don't think I have the capabilities to ascend to the Spirit Heaven without their help." Min Li sighed.

"That's nonsense!" Yuan suddenly said, and he continued, "You won't know that unless you try!"

"Thank you, Disciple Yuan." Min Li said with a bittersweet smile on her face.

Suddenly, Min Li's communication jade slip trembled again. However, she was not the only one, as it was happening to every disciple in the sect at this moment.

"All disciples in the sect will gather at the Summit Peak in 30minutes! Don't you dare be late!" Long Yijun's voice resounded from the jade slip.

"Let's continue this talk afterward," Yuan said to her.

"Okay." She nodded.

A few moments later, Yuan wore his mask and left the Dragon Pavilion with Min Li and Meixiu.

Of course, since the Sect Master commanded all disciples to be at the gathering, this included the disciples working at the Dragon Pavilion, which meant they had to close the place down temporarily.

In fact, every single building in the Dragon Essence Temple had to close its doors temporarily for this gathering.

Half an hour later, tens of thousands of disciples gathered at the Summit Peak.

"Thank you all for coming here. Although we already had a gathering three days ago, that was done without the participants who participated in the Mystic Realm. Today, we will have another gathering in honor of those three participants who helped our Dragon Essence Temple achieve first place!"

"Core Disciple Gao, Core Disciple Xue, and last but not least, Disciple Yuan, please come to the stage!"

Long Yijun called them out.

A few moments later, three people could be seen walking onto the stage before standing next to each other in a line.

The first was Gao Dongya, a handsome young man who was renowned for his crazy cultivation talents. The second was Xue Jiye, an up-and-coming beauty who was also famous for her talents.

The third person was Yuan, who was still wearing his mask. As for his clothing, he'd changed back into his Inner Court disciples' uniform.

"Why is he wearing a mask?" The disciples were puzzled by the mask on Yuan's face.

In the presence of so many people, it was only natural for Yuan to be wearing his mask. After all, there could be other players amongst this large crowd of disciples, and it would be disastrous if he revealed his face that could potentially reveal his identity in the future.

"Today, the Dragon Essence Temple will be rewarding these three young heroes for their achievements in the Mystic Realm!"

"Core Disciple Gao and Core Disciple Xue, step forward!" Long Yijun said to them.

Gao Dongya and Xue Jiye quickly took a step forward.

Long Yijun then stood in front of them and handed each of them a golden badge.

"The Dragon Essence Temple rewards both Core Disciple Gao and Core Disciple Xue the Golden Dragon Badge for their contributions in the Mystic Realm!"

"Thank you, Sect Master."

Both Gao Dongya and Xue Jiye accepted the badges, yet the smile on their faces was completely stiff, almost like they were forcing themselves to smile.

After all, neither of them believed they deserved any reward, as they barely did anything in the Mystic Realm.

However, since they were before so many people and the Sect Master, it was impossible for them to refuse the Golden Dragon Badge, so they accepted it with bitter smiles on their faces.

In their mind, the Golden Dragon Badge that is one of the most honorable rewards in the Dragon Essence Temple was nothing more than a participation trophy for them.

Chapter 395 - Obsidian Dragon Medallion

Once they'd accepted their Golden Dragon Badge, Gao Dongya and Xue Jiye stepped back.

"Disciple Yuan, step forward!"

Long Yijun called him forward.

A moment later, Long Yijun stood in front of him and showed him a badge that looked different from the ones Gao Dongya and Xue Jiye received.

"The Dragon Essence Temple awards Disciple Yuan for his massive contribution in the Mystic Realm, the highest honor that has only been given out two other times since the sect's founding—the Obsidian Dragon Medallion, becoming the third person to ever obtain it in the sect's history!"

"As long as you have this medallion, your status within the sect is akin to that of a Sect Master, and the disciples must respect and treat you as such! Furthermore, this still applies even if you one day decide to part with the sect—granted that you don't betray us!"

Long Yijun handed Yuan a black medallion shaped like a dragon. Compared to the badge the other two obtained, Yuan's badge was crafted with a jade-like material and shaped like the dragon whilst their badges were just ordinary golden medallions with word engravings.

"Thank you, Sect Master." Yuan accepted the badge with a bright smile on his face.

Despite obtaining many trophies in his life, he always finds it a joy to receive a reward for his work, as that meant his efforts meant something for someone and were not wasted.

"Disciples, give a good round of applause for these three young heroes!" Long Yijun turned to face the audience and said loudly.

The Summit Peak immediately exploded with cheering and clapping, and it would not stop until a few minutes later.

Once the noises subsided, Long Yijun gave a short speech about the participants and the Mystic Realm before dismissing everyone but the participants.

"I have more rewards for you three. Come with me to the Treasury Hall." Long Yijun said to them.

"Give me a moment, Sect Master," Yuan said to him before going to where Min Li and Meixiu were waiting.

"You two can go back to the house first. I will return as soon as I'm done with the Sect Master."

"Okay." They both nodded and left the scene together.

Sometime later, Yuan and the other two participants followed Long Yijun to the treasury hall.

"The two of you can pick any treasure you want from the Treasury Hall. Disciple Yuan, you can pick two because of your contribution." Long Yijun said to them.

However, Gao Dongya suddenly opened his mouth and said, "Sect Master, I cannot accept this reward."

"Oh?" Long Yijun raised his eyebrows.

"As much as I hate to admit it, I— we didn't do anything to contribute to the Mystic Realm's result. It was all Disciple Yuan. Before we could even reach the Mystic Pagoda, we were kicked out, barely obtaining any points. If it were not for Disciple Yuan, I cannot even imagine what place the Dragon Essence Temple would be right now. I don't even deserve the last reward, much less this one." Gao Dongya explained his reason for not accepting this reward.

'Kicked out? Oh... I forgot about them... I'm sorry...' Yuan suddenly realized that he'd accidentally kicked out his own teammates when he commanded the Mystic Realm to kick all participants out, and he apologized to them inwardly.

"I-I agree with Disciple Gao, Sect Master! I won't be able to accept this reward. If I could, I would even return the last reward." Xue Jiye said to him.

"Hmmm..." The Sect Master looked at them with a calm expression.

After a moment of silence, he nodded, "Very well. And if you're feeling guilty about receiving the first reward, don't be. It wasn't your fault that you were kicked out of the Mystic Realm. It was an unknown phenomenon that none of us could have expected."

And he continued, " And since you won't be picking a treasure in the Treasury Hall, I will give you guys some spirit stones to cultivate with instead."

"Thank you, Sect Master!"

Gao Dongya and Xue Jiye bowed to Long Yijun before leaving the scene.

"You're quite the honorable guy, Disciple Gao. I truly didn't expect that from you." Xue Jiye said to him afterward.

"Hmph!" Gao Dongya merely snorted at her words before parting from her.

Meanwhile, back at the Treasury Hall, Long Yijun brought Yuan into the vault where they stored most of their valuable treasures.

"Go ahead. Pick whichever two— You know what? Since the other two refused to pick a treasure, I will give you three treasures instead of two. If you need help with an item, just ask me and I'll tell you what it does. And you can take your time." Long Yijun said to him.

"Okay." Yuan nodded, and he proceeded to walk around the place, taking his time to look at the description of every treasure inside the room.

[Dragon Flower]

[Tier 4 Medicine]

[Description: A flower that resembles the shape of a dragon. Grants immense strength to the user for fifteen minutes]

[Dragon Ginseng]

[Tier 4 Medicine]

[Dragon Bow]

[Grade: Earth]

[Quality: High]

[Physical Strength Required: 8,000]

[Mental Strength Required: 12,000]

[Description: A luxurious longbow made of Spirit Wood and Dragon Silk.]

As one would expect from a sect with the word 'Dragon' in it, there were a lot of treasures related to dragons.

However, even after looking at every single treasure in the Treasury Hall, Yuan was unable to pick a treasure. Though, it was not because there were no treasures that caught his attention. In fact, there were too many choices and he couldn't just pick one or two out of thousands.

'I already have enough treasure, and none of the ones in here are better than the ones I already have. I should pick these treasures with Meixiu and Yu Rou in mind since they don't have much.' Yuan thought to himself.

And with that in mind, Yuan went through the treasures in the room. However, instead of thinking about what he wanted, he looked at the treasures as though he was choosing presents for Meixiu and Yu Rou.

'Xiao Hua, Feng Feng, Yingying, which of these treasures do you think would be suitable for Meixiu and Yu Rou?'

Yuan decided to turn to the experts for help. Not only were they more experienced than him when it comes to treasures, but they were also females.

Chapter 396 - Dragon Ruby Ring

"Brother Yuan, what about that Earth-grade treasure that looks like a fan? Yu Rou uses a fan, right? It might fit her." Xiao Hua was the first to give him advice.

'That fan, huh?'

Hearing that, Yuan went to look at the treasure again.

[Dragon Fan]

[Grade: Earth]

[Quality: High]

[Mental Strength required: 10,000]

[Description: 150% increased damage. Lowers the cost of Qi for all techniques when using this weapon by 30%]

"Indeed, this might be the perfect treasure for Yu Rou. Thanks, Xiao Hua."

He then turned to look at Long Yijun standing at the entrance and said, "Sect Master, for my first pick, I want this Dragon Fan."

"Dragon Fan?" Long Yijun raised his eyebrows.

He was puzzled as to why Yuan would pick such an uncommon weapon. Does he use the fan as well as the sword and dagger?

"If that's your choice, go ahead and take it. The Dragon Fan has been sitting in this vault for many years now because nobody really uses the fan nowadays." Long Yijun said a moment later.

"Really? Why?" Yuan couldn't help but ask.

"Well, most cultivators view the fan that is normally small and fragile-looking as a weapon for the weak. Its elegant and graceful appearance also doesn't help because most cultivators would rather pick something powerful or popular weapons like swords."

"I see... That makes sense... But my sister likes the fan, so I am getting it for her."

"You have a sister?" Long Yijun was surprised to hear this for the first time.

"Yes." He nodded.

"She's lucky to have a brother like you." Long Yijun smiled.

"No, it's the other way around. I am lucky to have a caring sister like her. If not for her, I wouldn't be here right now." Yuan said calmly.

"I-Is that so..." Long Yijun was speechless, and he wondered what kind of person she was. After all, the sister of such a genius surely must be quite the genius herself.

After picking the first treasure, Yuan continued to look around.

"What about Meixiu? What kind of treasure would fit her?" Yuan asked the experts.

Unfortunately, none of them knew Meixiu enough.

"Young Master, we don't know much about Meixiu. You should know what she wants much better than us." Feng Yuxiang said to him.

"While it is true that I have known her for a very long time, I don't actually know her very well, as she's usually very silent in the way that she doesn't talk much about her own desires."

Because Meixiu was trained to be a servant, even if Yuan asked her what she wanted, she probably wouldn't be able to answer him.

After all, as a professional servant, Meixiu was only taught to care for her masters, not herself.

"Guess I will look around one more time..." Yuan mumbled to himself as he walked around the vault for the third time.

"Hmm?"

Yuan suddenly stopped at the end of the room when he noticed a red flicker in the corner of his eyes.

He approached this red light to see a silver ring with a red crystal sitting inside a small red box.

[Dragon Ruby Ring]

[Grade: Heaven]

[Quality: Medium]

[Description: Increases the user's base Mental Strength and Mental Defense by 30 percent. 50,000 increase limit.]

"Sect Master, I think I want to choose this ring for my second treasure," Yuan said to him, feeling a strong urge to take this ring that he had somehow managed to miss two times.

"Oh, the Dragon Ruby Ring? It will greatly boost one's mental strength and defenses. It's a great treasure that even has a legend behind it according to the expert that appraised it."

"Legend? What kind?" Yuan asked, his interest piqued.

"Well, legend has it that it once belonged to the Royal Family of a certain Dragon Clan, and that red crystal was forged with a drop of dragon's blood, hence the red color despite that type of material not existing in red."

"Oh, it was also found by the Founder when he ventured inside the Dragon Temple. In fact, most of these treasures were found inside the Dragon Temple." Long Yijun said.

"The Dragon Temple, huh? My anticipation for that place just went up even more!" Yuan said.

"Yes, look forward to it when you enter in four days." Long Yijun said with a smile.

A few moments later, Yuan returned to look for the third treasure.

'Both Meixiu and Yu Rou have a treasure now, but I still have one treasure to pick. What should I pick?' Yuan wondered inwardly.

He then asked the experts, "Do any of you want something from this place?"

"Xiao Hua doesn't need anything." Xiao Hua said.

"I also don't need anything, but thank you for the offer, Young Master." Feng Yuxian said.

"What about you, Yingying?"

"I am also fine without anything," she said.

Suddenly, Long Yijun said, "If you cannot pick your last treasure, may I give you a recommendation?"

"Okay." Yuan nodded.

Long Yijun then went to pick a treasure and showed it to Yuan.

"You have Soul Weapons, right? This bottle right here contains a special liquid called 'Soul Liquid'. If you pour some of it on your Soul Weapons, it will increase its growth rate until it levels up."

"Oh, this does sound quite useful," Yuan said.

"Okay, I will choose this as my third treasure. Thank you, Sect Master."
Yuan said to him.

"Haha... I should be thanking you, Disciple Yuan." Long Yijun laughed.

"Anyways, I will contact you in four days when the Dragon Temple is ready. Until then, you can do whatever you want."

Sometime later, Yuan left the Treasury Hall and returned to his own living quarters, where Meixiu and Min Li were waiting.

"Meixiu, here's a treasure I picked for you." Yuan immediately handed her the Dragon Ruby Ring.

"T-Thank you..." Meixiu was at a loss for words when Yuan suddenly handed her a ring, as it felt like he was proposing to her.

Chapter 397 - Looking For Solutions

After accepting the Dragon Ruby Ring from Yuan, Meixiu immediately wore the ring on her right hand, as it would draw too much attention if she wore it on the other hand.

Min Li watched their little section with a weird look on her face, and she silently wondered if they were really just 'friends' or something more than that.

"Okay, Disciple Min. Let's talk more about the situation. What would you like me to do for you in this situation? Because I cannot join your family, but if I don't, you'll be unjustly punished by your parents, and I cannot do nothing about it after learning about it." Yuan sat down and asked her.

"I honestly don't know. I have been thinking about it ever since I received my father's message, but I cannot think of a good solution to my problem. Perhaps I was never destined to ascend to the Spirit Heaven. Maybe it's my fate to stay in the Lower Heaven and be treated like an object by my family who will eventually sell me to another family, where I'll be treated even worse." Min Li shuddered at the thought of being sold to another family and becoming their plaything.

"I won't let that happen to you," Yuan said with a stern look on his face.

And he continued, "I know exactly how it feels to be treated badly by your own parents. Although I don't know what I can do, I will definitely do something about it. I promise. And even though you say it's not my fault, it is my problem since I am the reason you're in this situation."

"Disciple Yuan... Thank you... And sorry..." Min Li felt a strong urge to pounce at Yuan and kiss him at this moment, but she restrained herself by crying instead.

"Give me a few days to think about it, okay? I will try to think of something in the meantime." Yuan said to her.

"Okay." Min Li nodded.

Sometime later, Min Li returned to her own living quarters.

Once Min Li left the scene, Yuan laid back on the couch in an exhausted manner.

"What should I do now? Xiao Hua! Feng Feng! Yingying! Anybody!" Yuan cried for their help.

The three servants appeared before him a moment later.

"I told you the Seven Legacy Families are a bunch of selfish people who only care about their reputation, Young Master. I say you should stay as far away from the Min Family as possible." Feng Yuxiang said to him.

"But what about Disciple Min's situation? I cannot ignore her!" Yuan said.

"As much as I hate to say this, Young Master, but you should probably ignore her as well and let her handle the situation by herself since helping her might bring unwanted trouble for you. The cultivation world is sometimes cold-hearted and brutal like this..."

Yuan shook his head and said in a calm voice, "The cultivation world may be cold-hearted, but I am not like that. I may be a Cultivator, but the cultivation world does not and will not define my character or morals."

Feng Yuxiang was speechless after hearing his grand speech that touched her heart.

"I know the pain and stress Disciple Min is feeling right now because I was also mistreated by my parents. Hell, I was even abandoned by my family, and not just once, but twice..." Yuan revealed this to them.

"What?! Your family threw you away? What kind of idiot parents would throw such a cultivation genius away?!" Feng Yuxiang blurred out without thinking as it was simply that shocking.

Even Xiao Hua had her mouth wide open from shock.

If the world knew that a family had thrown an 18-year-old Spirit Grandmaster away regardless of the situation, that family would become the world's biggest laughing stock in history.

Now that Yuan's talents have been revealed to the Lower Heavens through the Mystic Realm, literally every large family out there including the Seven Legacy Families are trying to recruit him at all cost!

To think one would throw away a treasure that everyone would kill for—even idiots wouldn't do such a thing!

"Is that why you don't like talking about your background? I fully understand it now, Young Master..." Feng Yuxiang said, misunderstanding the situation.

"I used to be a cripple who couldn't even feed myself, and I could only lie on the bed all day long and have someone feed me and do everything else a normal person would be capable of with ease. And being in that state, I was nothing but a burden to my family, so they threw me away." Yuan sighed.

"Oh... I didn't know that... I apologize for my rude suggestion just now, Young Master. But at least you managed to overcome your misfortune." Feng Yuxiang said with an innocent smile on her face.

Seeing Yuan completely functional and a peak talent at this moment, one can only assume that he has fully recovered from his crippled state.

"Well..." A bitter smile appeared on Yuan's face.

He was only functional in this world. In the other one... Not so much. Although he is making progress, he is still far away from fully recovering.

"Anyways, enough about me. Disciple Min is the one who needs help right now. What should I do— what can I do in this situation?" Yuan quickly changed the subject back to Min Li.

"You can destroy the Min Family." Feng Yuxiang suggested again.

Yuan looked at her with a frown on his face.

"Stop joking, Feng Feng. I am being serious here."

"Ehh..." Feng Yuxiang wanted to say that she wasn't joking, as destroying the Min Family would efficiently solve most of the problems.

"I don't kill when I say destroy... Ah, forget it..." She didn't want to anger Yuan anymore, so she kept her mouth shut.

After a moment of silence, Lan Yingying spoke, "Can't she just leave her family? That would solve most of her problems. But if she wants to rely on her family to ascend, there's really no way we can help her, unfortunately."

"Brother Yuan could help her ascend if he really wants to..." Xiao Hua suddenly said, causing everyone there to turn their head and look at her.

Chapter 398 - Increased Difficulty

"Xiao Hua, surely, you're not suggesting the Young Master bring that girl to the Spirit Heaven through the Stairway to Heaven, right?" Feng Yuxiang asked her with a look of disbelief on her face.

Xiao Hua nodded and said, "Brother Yuan, there is one method that allows an individual— or a few to ascend to the next heaven without needing to pass the Stairway to Heaven."

"Really? Tell me about it!" Yuan quickly said.

"However, Xiao Hua must warn Brother Yuan that this method isn't recommended, and nobody does it for a good reason." Xiao Hua said.

And she continued, "A single person climbing the Stairway to Heaven can bring at most 9 people with him, and as long as this person passes all of the trials, all 9 people including the climber will be able to ascend to the Spirit Heaven."

"In other words, Brother Yuan can bring 9 people with him to the Spirit Heaven. However, every single person you bring will tremendously increase the difficulty of your trials, making the already seemingly impossible challenge even harder, and the more people you bring, the harder it will only become, hence why nobody uses this method. You're essentially doing the trials for them."

"Huh? Does this mean I am already bringing 3 people with me because I obviously cannot leave you three in the Lower Heaven while I ascend myself?" Yuan then asked.

Xiao Hua nodded, "Yes and no. Xiao Hua and the phoenix came from the upper heavens, so we can actually ascend through the Stairway to Heaven without doing any trials. But we're staying down here due to our own reasons."

"What about Yingying? She was born in the Mystic Realm that is in the Lower Heaven."

"Miss snake will have to pass the trials in order to ascend to the next heaven since she was born in the Lower Heaven, but because she is Brother Yuan's servant that's bound by a heavenly contract, she will not increase the difficulty of your trials as much as an ordinary person who isn't your servant would, and she won't take up a slot, so you can still bring nine other people with you including us." Xiao Hua explained to him.

"I see... Indeed, I can use this method to bring Disciple Min to the Spirit Heaven, allowing her to leave her family since she will no longer have to rely on them to ascend. Furthermore, I can even bring Yu Rou and Meixiu with me..." Yuan mumbled as he turned to look at Meixiu.

Of course, he wouldn't leave them behind while he personally ascends.

Everyone there turned to look at Meixiu.

Feng Yuxiang then spoke, "While I understand it if the Young Master wants to support Meixiu and Yu Rou, I don't think I like the idea of bringing Min Li because a single person will already increase the difficulty of your trials, much less three... And what if you decide to help another person in the future? That's even more of a burden on you, Young Master!"

"I think I will be fine even if I support three people. What's the worst that can happen? If I fail the trials, can't I just take it again?" Yuan asked.

"Well... You can... But you can only challenge the Stairway to Heaven once every four years if you fail. And wasting four whole years in the Lower Heaven when you can be improving your cultivation base in a place with better resources... It's truly a waste of time and talent, especially in your case, Young Master. In my opinion, four years of your time is worth as much as 40,000 years to others if not even more..." Feng Yuxiang said.

"Xiao Hua agrees with the phoenix. Brother Yuan's time and talent are incredibly precious. You cannot afford to waste four years down here. It hasn't even been half a year since you started cultivating and you're already a Spirit Grandmaster. Xiao Hua cannot even imagine what you'll become in four years if you continue to grow..."

Lan Yingying and Feng Yuxiang turned to look at Xiao Hua.

It hasn't been half a year since Yuan started cultivating? How is that even remotely possible? Maybe it might be possible in the upper heavens where the spiritual energy is much better, but in the Lower Heavens, such abnormal growth shouldn't be possible.

"Anyways, if I fail, then it is what it is. That means I'm not good enough and I wasn't destined to ascend. It's only four years of my life. However, if Disciple Min fails, her entire life might be destroyed." Yuan said.

Then he realized something.

"Oh, right. What if I ascend to Spirit Heaven alone and then come down to the Lower Heaven like Senior Nie, bringing people with me to the Spirit Heaven that way?" Yuan asked.

"That might not work..." Xiao Hua shook her head.

"Why not?"

"In order to come down to the Lower Heaven— or descending from any heaven, one must acquire the permission to do so by the lord of that heaven, and that is not something you can easily obtain, especially if you just enter the Spirit Heaven." Feng Yuxiang said to him.

"Lord of each heaven? Like a ruler?"

Xiao Hua nodded, "In each heaven— besides the Lower Heaven, there is a true ruler who oversees the entire world. Without his or her permission, you will not be able to descend, and even if you obtain permission, you must have enough resources to come down."

Feng Yuxiang then continued, "Think of it this way, Young Master. That Spirit King who came down from the Spirit Heaven needed help from all Seven Spirit Academies to bring three people with him to the Spirit Heaven. You can only imagine the enormous amount of resources required to bring even a single person, much less three."

"So it's easier to bring them up through the first method, huh? Okay. I have decided. I will bring them up with me through the Stairway to Heaven!" Yuan spoke in a resolute voice.

Chapter 399 - You Can Rely On Me

"If that's Brother Yuan's decision, Xiao Hua will support it." Xiao Hua said to him.

"Thank you, Xiao Hua."

"I'll go speak with Disciple Min now and see what she thinks," Yuan said before going outside and knocking on her door.

"The Young Master is really selfless, huh? If it were any other cultivator, they wouldn't be so generous. When was the last time someone offered another individual a carry through the Stairway to Heaven? I don't even remember." Feng Yuxiang sighed.

"Sometimes I feel like the Young Master is too kind. It'll only be harsher for him in the future when everything comes falling down on him."

"Xiao Hua won't let that happen." Xiao Hua suddenly said.

Feng Yuxiang looked at her and said, "I don't mean to offend you, but even if you're a Spirit King, you're only invincible in the Lower Heaven, and maybe even the Spirit Heaven. However, anything above that, you won't be able to do anything to help him if he gets into any trouble. In fact, the Young Master will easily surpass us."

Xiao Hua remained silent for a moment before speaking in a calm voice, "Xiao Hua has her methods to protect Brother Yuan even if we go to the upper heavens."

It was Feng Yuxiang's turn to be speechless. Now that she thinks about it, she doesn't know anything about Xiao Hua's background or how she's able to remain in the Lower Heaven despite being a Spirit King.

"Well, as long as the Young Master helps me weaken the curse, I will be able to regain my sealed strength, so I will be able to protect him in the future even if we're in the upper heavens." Feng Yuxiang said in a prideful voice, almost like she was bragging to Xiao Hua that she was confident about protecting Yuan.

Xiao Hua looked at her with a calm look, and she suddenly asked, "What will happen if you restore your cultivation base now while we're in the Lower Heaven? Will you be forced to go back to the upper heavens?"

"Uhh..." Feng Yuxiang was left speechless once again, as she had never thought about this until Xiao Hua mentioned it.

It would be bad if she restores her cultivation base while Yuan is still in the Lower Heaven, as that would mean she'll have to be separated from him.

"M-Maybe I should not drink too much of his blood until he ascends just to be safe..." She mumbled.

Of course, Lan Yingying was completely confused about the situation, as she didn't know Feng Yuxiang or Xiao Hua enough to enter the conversation, feeling a bit left out.

Meanwhile, outside Min Li's living quarters, Yuan knocked on her doors.

"Disciple Yuan? What's the matter?" Min Li raised her eyebrows, as she didn't expect to see him so soon again.

"I have a solution to your problem!" He quickly said.

"Really? Please! Tell me!" Min Li's eyes flickered with anticipation.

"I think you should leave that family." Yuan gave it to her straight and without beating around the bush.

"Huh?" Min Li's eyes immediately widened.

"You want me to leave the Min Family? If I do that, I won't be able to ascend to the Spirit Heaven! At least that is my best chance of doing so!"

She said.

"It's okay, you can rely on me." Yuan then said, dumbfounding her even more.

"What do you mean?" she asked.

"I will help you ascend to Spirit Heaven," he quickly responded.

"H-How...?" she mumbled in a dazed voice.

"I will be taking you with me through the Stairway to Heaven," he said.

"Y-You will? But won't that make your trials much harder? Are you sure you want to bring me with you?" Min Li asked.

Yuan nodded, "Yes, I don't mind. This is the only solution I can think of that will help your situation. I cannot join the Min Family, so your family will definitely punish you for it, meaning your chances of ascending will probably be zero."

"However, if you leave that family, you'll have a greater chance of ascending with me. I cannot promise you that we are guaranteed to ascend successfully, but I will definitely try my best to take all of us to the Spirit Heaven."

"All of us? Will there be others coming with us?"

"Yes. I also want to bring my sister and Meixiu with me to Spirit Heaven." Yuan nodded.

"That's three people... Are you sure you can take all of us through the Stairway to Heaven? I know you're very talented but... three people are..."

Min Li suddenly stopped there and turned silent.

At this rate, she will not only be unable to ascend but she'll most likely get kicked out of the family if not sold to another family, so the best choice was definitely to rely on Yuan who is currently being called the number one genius in the Lower Heaven by many people.

Furthermore, at least she will have a chance to ascend if she's with him. If she stays with her family, she might not even survive the next few years.

"I... I don't want to be a burden to you..." she muttered in a low voice.

As much as she wanted to rely on him, she had her own pride, and completely relying on someone to ascend was difficult to accept.

Although she has been relying on her family, at least she had to work for it.

"How about this, Disciple Yuan. I will challenge the Stairway to Heaven first, and if I don't succeed, I will rely on you at that time." Min Lin suddenly suggested.

"At least I can say that I tried," she added.

Yuan nodded, "Sounds good."

Min Li lifted her head and stared at the clear blue sky.

"I didn't think I'd leave the Min Family in such a fashion," she sighed.

Sometime later, she asked Yuan, "When do you plan on challenging the Stairway to Heaven?"

"Honestly, I have no idea, but it probably won't happen until a few months down the line. I'm sorry if that's too long."

"A few months only? That's fast!"

Min Li exclaimed, to Yuan's surprise.

Chapter 400 - Let Your Body Do The Talking

"Fast? A few months is fast?" Yuan asked her.

"Of course! I was expecting at least a few years!" Min Li quickly said.

"A few years? That's too long!" Yuan exclaimed.

"I won't even be a Spirit Master in a few months! I cannot challenge the Stairway to Heaven with such a low cultivation base! That'll be akin to suicide!" She said to him.

"Hmm..." Yuan pondered.

"Looks like you'll have to just rely on me in the end," he chuckled.

"It's okay. It's nothing to be ashamed about. There will be times when you need someone's help regardless of your situation."

Min Li sighed after hearing his words.

"Whatever... I guess I'll figure it out when you're actually about to challenge the Stairway to Heaven."

"Now I have to worry about how I should leave the Min Family," she said.

"Can't you just tell them that you're leaving the family? I left my own family without even telling them." Yuan said to her.

"What? You left your family?" Min Li looked at him with wide eyes after learning this unexpected news.

Yuan nodded and said, "Well, they were going to disown me, and I merely decided to leave before that."

"Why did you leave your family— if you don't mind me asking..."

"It's simple— I was no longer useful to them, so they kicked me out. Our families are similar in the way that they both only accept perfection. If I make any mistakes during competitions, even if I won the competition, I would be scolded and punished for it."

"And now that I am no longer of any use to them, they decided to discard me."

"I'm sorry to hear that..." Min Li said to him.

"Don't be sorry. It's not your fault."

"But even if I want to leave the family, it's not as simple as it sounds. As a member of the Seven Legacy Families, I cannot simply leave the family without permission, and most of the time, people who wish to leave the family must have their cultivation base crippled before they are allowed to leave." Min Li said.

And she continued, "If I leave without their permission, I will become a deserter, and they will hunt me down and kill me."

"What the heck?" Yuan said in a shocked voice.

"They would kill you just for leaving the family without permission? How is that even allowed?" Yuan said.

"When you're powerful enough, everything is allowed." Feng Yuxiang's voice suddenly resounded behind him.

"The laws of mortals do not apply to the strong," she continued.

"Y-You are...?" Min Li was surprised by the sudden appearance of Feng Yuxiang, whom she has never seen before.

"I'm the Young Master's servant," she responded in a proud manner.

"S-Servant?" Min Li mumbled in a dazed voice.

"Anyways, I have a suggestion, Young Master." Feng Yuxiang said.

"You're not going to tell me to destroy her family so that she could leave safely, right?" Yuan looked at her with narrowed eyes.

"Haha... of course not..." Feng Yuxiang laughed with a stiff smile on her face.

"I was going to say if the Young Master shows up at their doorsteps and demands them to give you this young lady here, they might hand her over without any hassle," she continued.

"What? That simple? Will it really work?" Yuan asked, doubting her suggestion and completely oblivious to the meaning behind her words.

Feng Yuxiang nodded, "You just need to act a little aggressive and domineering. There won't be any violence if you do it properly."

"I see... That does sound like a good idea." Yuan nodded.

"Wait..." Min Li, however, realized what Feng Yuxiang was suggesting to Yuan and immediately flushed with redness.

"Don't worry, Disciple Min. I will do my best to convince them to let you leave the family!" Yuan said to her.

Min Li gave up and said, "When will you be able to do it? They'll keep asking me for updates until I recruit you."

"Can you stall them? I have to enter the Dragon Temple in a few days so I cannot go too far." Yuan said.

"Stall them? But how..." Min Li suddenly realized something and mumbled, "Wait a second... I can simply tell them that you've entered closed cultivation and that I cannot speak with you until you're finished. This should get them off my back for a while since they'll assume that the other families would also be unable to approach you."

"Closed cultivation?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"It's when a Cultivator isolates themselves to prepare for a big breakthrough or when someone simply wants to focus on cultivating. It's an unspoken rule in the cultivation world that one cannot bother someone in closed cultivation, almost a taboo." Feng Yuxiang explained to him.

"I see... I will be entering the Dragon Temple soon, and I most likely won't be able to speak with anyone while I am inside, so you can probably tell them that I'm in closed cultivation."

"Alright, I will tell them that later." Min Li nodded.

Sometime later, before Yuan returned to his own living quarters, Min Li bowed to him and said, "Thank you for everything, Disciple Yuan. I will definitely repay you in the future for everything."

"Don't worry about it. I will always be willing to help a fellow friend out." Yuan said.

"A friend...?" Min Li mumbled to herself as she watched Yuan return to his home.

Once the day was coming to an end, Min Li messaged her family and told them about Yuan's closed cultivation.

Although her family was unhappy about it at first, they were not completely unreasonable and did not ask Min Li to disturb Yuan's closed cultivation to recruit him, as that would definitely have the opposite effect.

Therefore, they reluctantly accepted the situation and said to her, "Just because he's in closed cultivation doesn't mean you can slack off! Use this time to prepare yourself and think about what you need to say to him! If you cannot think of anything to say, just let your body do all of the talking!"

He may be a cultivation prodigy, but he's also a man! You were blessed with your mother's good looks, so put it to good use!"

"Yes, father." Min Li responded with a calm look on her face.

Chapter 401 - Dragon Fissure

After returning to his home, Yuan decided to relax in his own living quarters for the next couple of days so that Min Li's lie to her family would work.

During this time, he would play music on the Soul Ensnaring Zither for the others.

"Wow, my Lord, I didn't know you could play the zither... And you're so talented with it..." Lan Yingying was gobsmacked by Yuan's musical talents that had instantly mesmerized her.

And the more she listened, the more she craved.

"No matter how many times I listen to it, it'll never get old..." Feng Yuxiang mumbled.

Meanwhile, Meixiu stared at Yuan playing the zither with a profound look on her face. It was such an odd feeling to see Yuan playing the instrument again, almost like she had suddenly traveled to the past where Yuan would play some music for her whenever she felt down.

Thus, for the next few days, Yuan would play the zither while surrounded by beauties on all sides.

One day before the Dragon Temple opens, Yuan heard a knock on the door.

"Xuan Wuhan?" Yuan was greeted by her at the door.

"Hey, Yuan. I got some free time so I'm here to congratulate you. I know it's a little late, but congratulations on winning first place for the Mystic Realm and obtaining the Obsidian Dragon Medallion!"

"Thank you."

"Anyways, did you get to speak with Disciple Min? She was looking for you before, and she even came knocking on my door to see if I knew where you were."

"Yes, I have spoken with her." Yuan nodded.

"Is everything okay? If you need my help, just let me know!"

"Everything is fine for now."

"That's good to hear. By the way, do you have any plans tomorrow or the day after? Want to hang out?" she then asked him.

"Sorry, but I will be entering the Dragon Temple tomorrow, so I won't be able to play with you," Yuan said with an apologetic smile on his face.

"What? The Dragon Temple? How lucky... but it's not unexpected, considering your contributions to the sect. I hope you'll find some good treasures inside."

Sometime later, Xuan Wuhan left his place.

"I'll see you after the Dragon Temple, Yuan!" she said to him before leaving.

The following day, Long Yijun summoned Yuan through the communication jade slip.

"Welcome, Disciple Yuan. Are you ready to enter the Dragon Temple?" Long Yijun asked him.

"I am ready." Yuan immediately nodded.

"Good. Follow me."

Long Yijun proceeded to take Yuan to an isolated area in the Dragon Essence Temple.

"This is... an earth fissure?"

Yuan was surprised by the location, as they stood before a massive earth fissure that was miles long and was so deep that one couldn't see the ground from the top.

"This is the Dragon Fissure, and somewhere at the bottom is the Dragon Temple. However, before you are allowed to go inside, you must have a pass."

Long Yijun then brought him to this small hut that was a couple of minutes away.

Inside this small hut was completely empty besides a golden magic circle on the ground. This magic circle was obviously a formation.

"Before I give you the Dragon Temple Key, can you call out the experts? Only one person can carry the key at any given time." Long Yijun said.

"Hm? Does this mean they cannot enter the Dragon Temple with me?" Yuan asked.

"Unfortunately, the Dragon Temple only allows one person to enter at a time." Long Yijun nodded.

"I see... Sorry guys, you'll have to wait for me."

A moment later, three beauties appeared around Yuan.

"Don't worry about it, Brother Yuan."

"Good luck in there, Young Master. Make sure you empty out all of the treasures inside." Feng Yuxiang said.

"Stay safe in there, my Lord." Lan Yingying said.

Sometime later, once Yuan stood on the golden formation, Long Yijun activated it.

Yuan could feel a warm feeling enveloping his body as this golden orb of light suddenly appeared from the formation and entered his body.

[You have obtained Dragon Temple Key]

[Dragon Temple Key]

[Description: Allows you to enter the Dragon Temple in the Dragon Essence Temple]

"Follow me. I'll bring you to the Dragon Temple." Long Yijun said to him afterward.

Yuan then followed Long Yijun to the edge of the Dragon Fissure.

"Let me explain to you how this works before I open the Dragon Temple since you only have a short window to enter the temple once it's opened." Long Yijun said to him.

And he continued, "The Dragon Fissure itself is the entrance to the Dragon Temple. However, you won't be inside the Dragon Temple until you enter the Dragon Gates, and you have exactly 10 seconds to jump into the fissure once I open it. Once you are before the Dragon Gates, it will examine your talents and see whether you qualify to enter or not. Do you understand?"

"I understand." Yuan nodded.

"Good, then I will open the Dragon Fissure now. Remember to jump in when I tell you to."

After taking a deep breath, Long Yijun retrieved a couple of treasures from his spatial ring before tossing it down the Dragon Fissure.

A few moments later, the Dragon Fissure began emitting a golden light from the bottom that gradually increased in brightness.

Once the light peaked, Long Yijun said loudly, "Go!"

Hearing Long Yijun's signal, Yuan didn't hesitate to jump inside the massive fissure that would undoubtedly terrify many people.

Yuan fell and fell without any sign of ending, almost like he'd jumped into an endless hole.

After what felt like a few minutes of freefall, Yuan could suddenly see a world of clouds at the bottom with a yellow and orange background, and what appeared to be a golden temple that had a dragon statue coiling around the entire building.

Right before he landed on the floor, a mysterious power stopped his fall without injuring him.

Once his foot touched the floor made of clouds that resembled the Ancient Dragon City, Yuan approached this golden temple that emitted an unfathomable aura.

As he approached the Dragon Temple, a profound and familiar voice resounded from every direction, "Welcome to the Dragon Temple, human."

"The Great One..." Yuan smiled after hearing this familiar voice.

Chapter 402 - A Monster Has Been Born

"Hm? You recognize this Great One?" The Great One sounded a little surprised when Yuan suddenly mumbled its name.

"Of course. This isn't our first meeting. You probably don't remember because they were all separate illusions." Yuan said.

"Interesting..."

After a moment of silence, the Great One spoke, "Come closer, human. I want you to look into my eyes..."

The eyes on the dragon statue suddenly began glowing golden.

Yuan approached the door and stared at the glowing eyes with a calm look on his face.

The next moment, almost as though someone had covered his eyes from behind, Yuan's vision blackened.

A few seconds later, Yuan could see light appearing from above, causing him to look up.

When he looked up, a massive golden eyeball that was larger than a star gazed down on him like a sun.

This situation made Yuan recall the time he spent in the starry sky inside his mind at the Tablet of Comprehension. However, there were no stars here—only a single eyeball that felt awfully realistic.

"I will be looking into your memories now, human."

Before Yuan could even respond, the Great One's sharp pupil contracted, and it began peeking into Yuan's memories.

"Interesting... You... do not belong to the Nine Heavens..." The Great One spoke in a profound voice.

"Eh?" Yuan wondered just how much of his memories the Great One saw.

"Should I call you Yuan... or Yu Tian?" The Great One suddenly said, bewildering Yuan greatly.

"Y-You can call me Yuan," he subconsciously answered.

"Then Yuan, what do you hope to achieve or obtain in my Dragon Temple?" The Great One then asked, and it continued, "Do you want the treasures inside? Are you hoping to gain enlightenment? Is it my Legacy that you seek?"

"Honestly, I am mostly here for the experience. I am fine even if I don't obtain any treasures inside or gain enlightenment. As for the Legacy, I am definitely interested in it." Yuan said.

The Great One remained silent for a few moments before speaking, "Truthfully speaking, your talents are too high, and the Dragon Temple wasn't created with someone of your caliber in mind, as you would simply clear all of the trials with ease, so I am hesitant to let you go inside."

The Great One normally wouldn't hesitate to let someone enter the Dragon Temple even if that person was very talented, as preventing talented individuals from entering would make the Dragon Temple's purpose completely pointless.

However, Yuan was on another level. He was simply so talented that even the Great One hesitated to let him inside. After all, if it lets Yuan enter, he would, without any doubt, clear out all of the treasures in the Dragon

Temple with ease, almost like taking candy from a baby, and that would be problematic.

"I would normally be ecstatic to find such a talented individual, but you... I cannot see your future."

"Is it abnormal that you cannot see my future?" Yuan asked the Great One, as it should be the other way around— that it's abnormal for one to see another's future.

"The Dragon's Gaze is more than just an offensive technique. It has the capabilities to do so much more if fully mastered, and seeing the future is one of them." The Great One revealed, shocking Yuan.

Does this mean he would be able to see the future if he continues to practice the Dragon's Gaze?

"Anyways, it is abnormal that I cannot see your future. If you were an Immortal or have a unique bloodline, it would make sense that I cannot see your future, but you are merely a Cultivator in the Spirit Grandmaster realm." The Great One said.

And it continued, "There are only a few instances where I cannot see one's future. One, if they're an Immortal or stronger. Two, if they possess the bloodline of a god. And lastly... if they have an unknown destiny."

"Unknown destiny...? I have an unknown destiny— at least that's what I was told." Yuan said.

"That explains why I cannot see your future."

"What should I do now if I cannot enter the Dragon Temple?" Yuan then asked.

"I never said you cannot enter. I am still thinking about how I should handle this." The Great One said, feeling a little awkward, as it has never been put into such a situation before.

"Take your time," Yuan said to it.

A few minutes of silence later, the Great One spoke again, "Since you're only here for the experience, I won't take that away from you. However, you are only allowed to do three trials."

"Okay." Yuan quickly accepted.

And he continued, "What about the treasury room and the Legacy? I was given this key to the treasury room by the other you, and I was even told to obtain the Legacy."

"You may go to the treasury room and obtain the Legacy since you have already earned it."

"I see! Thank you, Great One!" Yuan said.

The next moment, Yuan returned to the cloudy scenery and the Dragon Temple.

"I will open the door for you now. Remember... only three trials..." The Great One's voice resounded for the final time.

Once the door opened, Yuan was greeted by a portal on the other side.

Yuan didn't think too much and stepped into this portal, disappearing from the place.

Meanwhile, somewhere in the Nine Heavens, two figures sat before a Xiangqi board. One of them was an old man with long white hair neatly tied behind his back, whilst the other person was a handsome man with long golden hair flowing down his back like a waterfall.

"What's the matter? Are you ready to forfeit this match?" The old man spoke with a smirk on his face after seeing the other individual not move for a long time.

The handsome man suddenly opened his eyes and stood up.

"What's the matter? Why are you smiling like that?"

"There will finally be some entertainment in the Nine Heavens," said the handsome man.

"What?" The old man raised his eyebrows, clearly puzzled about the handsome man's words.

The handsome man then turned to look at the empty horizon and said, "A monster has been born. I cannot wait to see how he'll affect the Nine Heavens— if he survives long enough."

Chapter 403 - Guest At The Dragon Essence Temple

"A monster?" The old man sitting at the Xiangqi board raised his eyebrows in a surprised manner.

"That's really funny coming from a monster such as yourself. Who is this individual? Someone from the ninth heaven?" The old man then asked.

"No, he's someone not related to the Nine Heavens, and he's currently in the first heaven—the Lower Heaven." The man with the golden hair said.

"Lower Heaven? It's been a very long time since I've heard of that place." The old man mumbled.

"Anyways, how talented is this individual?" He continued.

"I don't know," said the handsome man.

"I mean I don't know the full extent of his talents. However, if I had to compare him with someone, it'd probably be the Demon Sealing Clan's ancestor."

"What!? This individual is comparable to that monster who ate his way to the peak? How is that even possible? That man is one-of-a-kind and has no equal." The old man doubted the handsome man.

The handsome man turned around with a profound smile on his face, and he spoke in a calm voice, "Who said he was comparable to the ancestor? This young monster might be even crazier than the ancestor."

The old man stared at him with a stunned face, and after a moment of pure silence, he burst out laughing.

"Someone even more talented than that monster who single-handedly annihilated the entire Demon Clan that once ruled the entire Nine Heavens? Have you finally gone senile, my friend?"

The handsome man continued to smile despite the old man's mocking words, and he said, "Don't tell me I didn't warn you in the future."

"Whatever." The old man shrugged, and he continued, "Anyways, what about our match? If you don't want to continue playing, it'll be my victory and your loss."

The handsome man then returned to his seat and said, "My loss? I don't lose — the Great One doesn't lose!"

Meanwhile, back in the Dragon Temple, after entering the portal, Yuan was transported to what appeared to be inside a large city underneath a dark sky that had countless flickering stars, giving the place natural but subtle brightness.

"This is the Dragon Temple?" Yuan raised his eyebrows, as he didn't expect the place to be a city.

However, there was something weird about this city. It was too empty and quiet even if it was late into the night, almost like nobody else was there.

"What should I do here?" Yuan looked around for clues.

The first thing he noticed was the numbers counting down in the sky, and the next thing that stood out was this massive dragon statue very far in the distance.

[167:59:10]

"If the numbers are how long I have left in this place, then I have 7 days to explore this place, but where should I go first?"

After pondering for a moment, Yuan decided to head for the dragon statue, as he recalled the Great One telling him that he would be able to find its Legacy there.

"Once I take a look at his Legacy, I will try to find the treasure room."

With that in mind, Yuan began making his way to the dragon statue by flying there.

And the more of the city he saw, the more clear it was to him that he was alone in this city.

Meanwhile, shortly after Yuan entered the Dragon Fissure, Feng Yuxiang asked Long Yijun, "How long will the Young Master have inside the Dragon Temple?"

"That will depend on the Dragon Temple itself. It might only allow him to stay inside for a few days, or it could let him wander for a whole month. I cannot really say how long he'll be inside, I'm sorry."

"I see..."

Long Yijun suddenly retrieved a small toy-like house and tossed it on the ground. The house grew in size until it was the size of a large house, and it was the same house he used at the Mystic Realm.

"You ladies can stay in this building in the meantime. I won't be able to stay here for too long since I have a lot of work to do. Tell Disciple Yuan to contact me once he comes out." Long Yijun said to them.

"Thank you." Feng Yuxiang said.

Sometime later, Long Yijun left the scene and returned to the sect master's headquarters, where a couple of figures could be seen gathered outside the door.

Most of these people were sect elders, but one of these figures didn't look to be part of the Dragon Essence Temple, and they were even wearing a veil.

"Sect Master, you have a guest!" The Sect Elders there immediately said to him the moment they noticed him.

The veiled figure suddenly stepped forward and lifted the veil covering her beautiful face.

Long Yijun was taken aback when he recognized this face.

"Sect Master Song? What are you doing here?" Long Yijun asked her.

"I'm here to speak with Disciple Yuan," she said in a calm voice.

"You still haven't given up on that...?" Long Yijun shook his head.

Obviously, he'd heard from Elder Shan and Elder Xuan about Song Ling'er desire to take Disciple Yuan as her own disciple after what happened at the zither competition.

"I will never give up on someone with such gifted hands and talent for music!" Song Ling'er said.

Long Yijun sighed and turned to look at the sect elders there.

"You guys can leave. I will handle things from here."

"Yes, Sect Master."

The sect elders bowed to them before leaving the scene.

"Let's talk inside." Long Yijun said as he entered the building.

"I don't want to talk to you. I want to talk to Disciple Yuan. You may be the Sect Master, but Disciple Yuan's decision is what matters the most." Song Ling'er said to him.

"Well, unfortunately for you, Disciple Yuan isn't available right now, so you'll have to speak with me instead." Long Yijun said.

"Where is he then? I can go to him instead."

"That's impossible since he's technically not in the sect." Long Yijun shrugged.

"What? Then where'd he go?"

"Who knows."

"Che..." Song Ling'er sucked her teeth before following Long Yijun inside the building.

Chapter 404 - The First Players To Ascend

A few moments later, Song Ling'er sat down in a room with Long Yijun sitting behind his work desk.

"So where is Disciple Yuan?" Song Ling'er asked.

"He's currently inside the Dragon Temple," he said casually.

One would expect Long Yijun to keep the Dragon Temple a secret since there are clearly plenty of valuable treasures inside. However, the Dragon Temple has been widespread knowledge for ages now.

"The Dragon Temple? Since when?" Song Ling'er said.

"A couple of minutes ago," he said.

"..."

Song Ling'er was speechless. If only she'd come to this place a day early—even a few hours early, she might've been able to speak with Yuan.

"Now that you know about his whereabouts, you may leave this place."

"Hmph. Then I will stay here until he comes out." Song Ling'er said, surprising him.

"What? You're going to stay here until he returns? It might be weeks before he comes out! As the Sect Master of one of the top ten sects in the Lower Heaven, don't you have better things to do than chase someone who has already rejected you?" Long Yijun said to her.

Song Ling'er looked at his desk that was filled with papers and sneered, "Unlike you, I finish all of my work before I decide to do anything. The Mystic Realm just ended, so I have plenty of time to spare."

"And speaking of the Mystic Realm, your sect only obtained its place because of Disciple Yuan. I cannot wait to see the look on your face after the next one."

Long Yijun smiled and said, "No need to push your anger on me just because you were rejected by a junior."

"Y-You little!" Song Ling'er was immediately aggravated by his comeback.

"Hmph. I did not come here to argue with you. I am here to take Disciple Yuan with me."

Long Yijun shook his head and said, "What makes you think he'll join your sect? He even refused to go to the Spirit Heaven with Senior Nie, you know?"

"I know. I was there when it happened," she said, and she continued, "If he'd gone with Senior Nie to the Spirit Heaven, I would have given up. But the fact that he decided to stay in the Lower Heaven means I still have a chance."

"Keep dreaming." Long Yijun laughed.

And then he continued, "Anyways, if you're not going to leave, you can go ahead and wait for as long as you'd like. In the end, it's Disciple Yuan's decision whether he wants to follow you or not. I would love to have him as a core disciple in the Dragon Essence Temple, but I know he won't stay with us for long. Perhaps after the Dragon Temple, he will leave the sect. This place is too small for someone like him."

"Then I shall wait for him outside the Dragon Temple," she said.

"Do whatever you want." Long Yijun shrugged.

Normally, Long Yijun wouldn't act so carefree before the Sect Master of another sect, but he has known Song Ling'er for a very long time now, and while they were not friends, they were not enemies either.

Long Yijun also knew that Song Ling'er was not the type of person to harm others without a reason, nor was she someone who'd scheme against others, so he wasn't too worried about letting her roam the sect without any supervision.

Furthermore, it was clear to him that she was only here for Disciple Yuan.

After leaving the building, Song Ling'er went straight to the Dragon Fissure.

She noticed a portable house by the Dragon Fissure and subconsciously decided to stay there just in case she wanted to use it, unaware that it was already occupied.

Sometime later, Song Ling'er sat by the Dragon Fissure and retrieved her zither, eventually playing it to pass time.

"Isn't that one of the judges during the zither competition? What is she doing here?" Feng Yuxiang quickly recognized Song Ling'er based on her aura.

"She's obviously here for Brother Yuan," Xiao Hua said.

"What? She's a really persistent one. The Young Master has already refused her offer plenty of times, yet she just doesn't give up."

"Who is she?" Lan Yingying couldn't help but ask.

"She's the Sect Master of the Heavenly Melody Academy, and she was the judge in a competition the Young Master participated in. She even had a little battle with the Young Master and lost to him, and she has been chasing after him since then." Feng Yuxiang explained the situation.

"I see..." Lan Yinying nodded.

Meanwhile, in the Medicine Valley that was in the Northern Continent, Wang Xiuying bowed to her master and said, "Thank you for everything, Master. I have learned a lot from this place."

"No, I should be the one thanking you. I have also learned a lot from you. You are definitely one of the most talented disciples we've ever had. If you continue to study medicine, I'm sure you'll become someone great in the future." Her master said.

"Good luck in the Spirit Heavens."

Wang Xiuying nodded before turning around and walking to Senior Nie, who was there with the other two participants going to the Spirit Heaven with her, and one of them was also a player like her.

"Are you ready to leave this place?" Senior Nie asked her.

"Yes, I am."

"Good. Then we will be going to the Spirit Heaven now." Senior Nie departed the Medicine Valley with Wang Xiuying and the other two, taking them back to the place outside the Mystic Realm.

Once he was prepared, Senior Nie retrieved a crystal and crushed it with his hands.

The next moment, a massive formation appeared beneath them before enveloping them in a warm light.

"This feels like..."

Wang Xiuying found the formation similar to the one in the Mystic Pagoda that took her and Yuan to the Ancient Dragon City.

Whoosh!

The four of them began levitating off the ground before shooting straight up into the sky, where a portal had suddenly opened up.

And before they were aware, Wang Xiuying and the others left the Lower Heaven, becoming the first players to ascend.

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 405 - A New Era

After Wang Xiuying and the others entered the portal, they found themselves inside this wormhole, and their bodies continued to move upwards.

They remained inside the wormhole for only half a minute before they were met with another portal at the end of this wormhole.

Once they entered it, they were greeted by a clear blue sky and a dozen unfamiliar figures.

"Welcome back, Elder Nie." One of them said to him.

Senior Nie nodded and turned to look at a particular figure in the group, and he said, "Elder Mu, she's all yours."

A pretty middle-aged woman stepped forward and approached Wang Xiuying with a smile on her face, "You're Healer Wang, right? I'm Elder Mu, we have spoken before via the crystal ball, and I will be in charge of you starting today. Follow me. I will bring you to my Spirit Healing Academy."

"Yes!" Wang Xiuying eagerly nodded her head and followed Elder Mu.

"The two of you haven't decided on a sect yet, so that is what you'll be doing today." Senior Nie said to the Lightning Emperor and the other participant.

Meanwhile, an announcement appeared in the sky for all of the players to see shortly after Wang Xiuying and the others arrived at the Spirit Heaven.

[Congratulations! Player Healer Wang and Player Lightning Emperor have become the first players to ascend to 'Spirit Heaven'!]

Of course, the players were well aware of this before the announcement, as the players at the Mystic Realm had revealed this fact to the world the day it happened.

When the players heard that Player Yuan had willingly decided to stay behind in the Lower Heaven for some reason, everyone became puzzled and curious about this reason, as they all thought he was trying to speedrun the game— at least that's what it seemed like to the players after seeing so many ridiculous achievements from him.

Of course, countless news sources approached the Lightning Emperor for interviews after learning that he will be ascending to the next realm which was thought to be impossible until a few years later.

As for Healer Wang... Since only her close friends knew her identity, she was spared from the journalists.

Of course, that is not to say the world wasn't interested in Healer Wang. In fact, a lot of people became interested in her after learning that she was with Player Yuan during the Mystic Realm.

This made people wonder whether Healer Wang knew Player Yuan's identity or not. If she did, she would become their biggest clue to Player Yuan's mysterious identity if not the key to it.

Thus, many people switched from trying to find Player Yuan's identity to finding Player Healer Wang's identity.

Meanwhile, inside the Dragon Temple, Yuan had just reached the dragon statue after flying for almost the entire day.

"Why is the sky still dark? It should be morning by now..." Yuan wondered to himself after realizing that the night wasn't turning into day.

Since he cannot tell the time of the day, Yuan decided to log off early, as he'd rather be safe than sorry.

After logging off and not smelling anything delicious, Yuan proceeded to spend his time cultivating until Meixiu finished preparing dinner.

Once dinner was prepared, Meixiu fed it to Yuan.

"Do you know how long you'll be staying inside the Dragon Temple? Xiao Hua and the others are curious." Meixiu asked him after dinner.

"I have 7 days inside the Dragon Temple," he said.

"A week, huh? Okay, I will let them know."

"Thank you."

Sometime later, Meixiu said, "Oh, right. Wang Xiuying wanted me to let you know that she has ascended to the Spirit Heaven successfully, and she said the world up there is very different compared to the Lower Heaven."

"She's making me want to hurry up and go to the Spirit Heaven to see what's up there..." Yuan smiled.

"Also, I think there's someone waiting for you to come out of the Dragon Temple— besides Xiao Hua and the others," Meixiu added.

"Who?" Yuan asked.

"I don't know her, but according to Feng Feng, she used to be a judge for the zither competition you participated in."

"Sect Master Song? I thought she gave up on trying to recruit me since I haven't seen her since the competition." Yuan said.

After a moment of silence, Meixiu asked, "Why did you refuse her offer? You don't want to play the instrument anymore? But you were having so much fun when you played the zither just the other day."

"It's not that I don't want to play the instrument. As you'd said, I enjoy playing them. However, I don't want instruments to be my focus, and if I had accepted her offer, I'd have to play the instrument seriously again." Yuan said.

"I see..." Meixiu mumbled, as she personally wanted to see Yuan play the instrument again seriously since she felt that Yuan had left the stage too abruptly and far too soon, and it was his musical talents that first captured her heart.

Sometime later, Yuan returned to the Dragon Temple and proceeded to see how he could obtain the Great One's Legacy from it.

Meixiu went to sleep after cleaning the dishes and taking a shower.

In the midst of the night, unbeknownst to Yuan or Meixiu, on the most popular Cultivation Online forum, a topic that would become an instant sensation overnight was created, and this single post would change their world forever and bring forth a new era!

[Cultivation in the real world is possible!]

Although the title of this topic was incredibly simple, it instantly attracted the attention of everyone that saw it, and within mere minutes, the post had amassed tens of thousands of views.

[The cultivation techniques from Cultivation Online actually work in the real world! After many weeks of effort, I have finally become a Cultivator!]

Once the people read the post, they would either laugh at the person who made the post or try it for themselves. And while the results greatly differed from each individual, there was no doubt that some people have succeeded in breaking their mortal shackles, becoming Cultivators in the real world as well!

Chapter 406 - Breaking News

After returning to the Dragon Temple, Yuan immediately began walking around the massive dragon statue trying to find a way to activate it.

However, even after circling around the thing for a few minutes and finding nothing, Yuan took a seat in front of the statue and began pondering.

"Oh, right. The Great One mentioned using the Dragon's Gaze on it."

Once he'd realized this, Yuan quickly stood up again and activated his Dragon's Gaze before walking around the statue again.

However, to his surprise, he wasn't able to find it even with the Dragon's Gaze activated.

"Nothing's happening... Maybe I need to increase the strength of the Dragon's Gaze?"

Thinking that, Yuan pushed his Dragon's Gaze to its limits.

"Haaa... haaa... It didn't work..." Yuan gasped for air a few minutes later, as the Dragon's Gaze consumed an insane amount of spiritual energy when used at its full power.

Yuan collapsed on the floor a moment later and just laid there while staring at the statue that spiraled up as though it was trying to ascend.

"Wait a second... What if the reason I cannot find the thing is because it's at the top of the statue?"

With this in mind, after taking a few minutes to recover his spiritual energy, Yuan flew into the air until he was even higher than the dragon statue, where he activated the Dragon's Gaze once again.

Almost instantly after he activated his Dragon's Gaze, Yuan noticed a golden glow inside the dragon's mouth.

"That should be it!" Yuan approached the dragon statue with excitement.

However, even though he could see a golden light inside the dragon's mouth, he wasn't sure what to do with it, and putting his hands inside didn't feel right.

After pondering for a moment, Yuan decided to poke the inside of the dragon's mouth with the Empyrean Overlord just to make sure it was safe.

A few taps later, the dragon statue suddenly began rumbling.

The rumbling quickly spread to the city, and within just moments, it seemed as if the entire world was shaking.

"I hope nothing bad happens..." Yuan mumbled to himself as he helplessly watched the entire world shake violently.

The earthquake eventually stopped after a few minutes, and Yuan looked around to make sure everything was okay.

However, he quickly noticed a change in the scenery.

Although the skies were still dark, there were subtle lights coming from the ground around the city that gradually grew clearer and brighter.

If one looked closely, one would see that an enormous magical circle had suddenly appeared around the city.

Furthermore, this formation appeared to be only half complete, as some symbols and patterns looked incomplete.

"What a massive formation... How am I supposed to activate something like this?" Yuan mumbled in a dazed voice.

Suddenly, a notification appeared before him.

[The Great One's Seal of Approval is reacting to the surroundings]

[The Great One's Seal of Approval has activated]

The next moment, a golden orb of light the size of a baby's fist appeared from his forehead.

This golden orb of light then dropped towards the ground, acting almost like a drop of water under gravity.

A few seconds later, the golden orb of light reached the ground and created a ripple effect in the formation before disappearing into the ground like a drop of water in a calm pond.

The formation that surrounded the city began to change, and the incomplete symbols and patterns began fixing themselves until they looked complete.

However, this process didn't finish in just a few minutes, and by the looks of it, it might take hours, even days before the formation becomes complete again.

After waiting around for a few hours without anything happening, Yuan decided to log off for breakfast.

Hopefully, it'll be done by the time he returns, but he wasn't feeling very hopeful.

Meanwhile, in the real world, Meixiu slowly opened her eyes five minutes before the alarm in her phone began ringing.

After taking a moment to fight through her morning grogginess, Meixiu stretched her body on the bed before sitting up.

Once she could open her eyes fully, Meixiu looked at the time on her phone.

Seeing that it was only a few minutes before her alarm, she went to turn off the alarm before getting off the bed.

However, right as she prepared to leave her room to go to the bathroom, her phone suddenly began ringing.

"A phone call? Who's calling me this early in the morning?" Meixiu mumbled to herself as she went to pick up her phone again.

"Yu Rou? What's the matter?" Meixiu answered the phone after seeing the caller.

"Meixiu! Are you seeing the news?!" Yu Rou immediately asked her in a loud and excited voice.

It was so loud that Meixiu subconsciously moved the phone away from her sensitive ears.

"The news? Why would the news be on? It's barely sunrise... And I just woke up." Meixiu said a moment later.

"Don't mind the minor details! Hurry up and look at the news! It doesn't matter which channel you pick! Just hurry! This is massive!" Yu Rou said to her.

"O-Okay..."

Now fully awake thanks to Yu Rou's excited voice, Meixiu went to open her laptop and looked at the news.

The first thing she saw after opening up the news was the large and bold title that read— [Breaking news! Cultivation is real! Cultivation techniques from the popular video game 'Cultivation Online' works in the real world according to many players, and there is even solid proof that it's real!]

"W-What...?" Meixiu mumbled in a low voice as she stared at the title with a dazed look on her face.

Not daring to believe her eyes, Meixiu read the title again and again until Yu Rou's voice resounded, "Are you seeing it?! They say cultivation is real! I just started watching, too!"

"This must be a joke... There's no way cultivation techniques from a video game could possibly work in the real world as well, right?" Meixiu said.

"That's what I thought at first too, but after looking around the forums and the other news sources, everybody is talking about it! There's no way they'd make such an elaborate lie just to mess with us! I think it's true! We might be able to become Cultivators in this world as well, Meixiu!" Yu Rou said, her voice peaking with excitement.

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 407 - Cultivation Is Real!

"We can become Cultivators in the real world...?" Meixiu mumbled in a dazed voice, feeling a little awkward saying something so unbelievable out loud.

"I repeat, cultivation is real! You can become a cultivator if you use the cultivation techniques from the popular video game 'Cultivation Online'!" The news anchor said in a loud and excited voice.

"However, do keep in mind that while cultivation exists, not everyone can become a Cultivator! It could also take you days, weeks, or even months to become a Cultivator depending on your talents— exactly like Cultivation Online!"

"Furthermore, the higher grade your cultivation technique is, the higher chance you have at becoming a Cultivator!"

After talking for a few minutes, the news anchor said, "We will have a special guest in just a few minutes, and he is a player in Cultivation Online who'd successfully managed to become a Cultivator! In fact, he is the person who made the topic about cultivation being real—the first one who made this world-changing discovery!"

"..."

"Yu Rou... What do you think is going to happen to our world now?" Meixiu asked her.

"I don't know... This might be a good thing, or it could turn disastrous. Only time will tell." Yu Rou sighed.

Sometime later, Meixiu said, "I have to tell Yuan about this..."

"Oh, right. Is he awake yet?"

"I will go check."

"Hehe... Brother will be so surprised..." Yu Rou said.

A few moments later, Meixiu knocked on Yuan's door.

"Yuan, are you awake?"

"Yes, I am."

"We have an emergency..." Meixiu said.

"What happened?"

"Listen to the news, brother." Yu Rou said.

"Yu Rou?" Yuan was surprised to hear Yu Rou's voice as well.

Meixiu proceeded to grab her laptop and replayed the news to Yuan.

"Cultivation is real! As long as we use the cultivation techniques in Cultivation Online, we can become Cultivators in this world as well!" The news anchor shouted in excitement.

"..."

Yuan was stunned after hearing the news.

'So the world has finally learned about it as well, huh? I guess cultivation is real...' Yuan sighed inwardly.

Even though he has been cultivating for a while now, it felt so surreal that he didn't fully believe that he was actually doing cultivation.

Unbeknownst to Yuan, some players have long learned that cultivation in the real world was possible shortly after the game launched. The only reason it hasn't been announced until today was simply because these people wanted to keep this secret to themselves so that they could get ahead of everyone else when the news eventually spread around the world.

After all, there are bound to be a few people who would try cultivation in the real world after they play Cultivation Online. It was akin to children trying to mimic their superheroes' signature attacks while they watched the television even if they knew superpowers don't exist in the real world.

It was their curiosity that made this discovery.

Yu Rou's voice suddenly resounded, "Meixiu, quickly go back to the live news! It's the person who discovered that cultivation works in the real world!"

Meixiu stopped the replay and switched it back to live news, and sure enough, there was a young man sitting beside the news anchor.

"Can you please introduce yourself to the audience?" The news anchor asked the young man.

He nodded and spoke in a clear voice, "Hello, my name is Fu Xi, I am 24 years old, and my in-game name is Thousand Blades. I am also the creator of the post 'Cultivation in the real world is possible' that has over a hundred million views now on the forums."

"Thank you for coming here on such short notice, Fu Xi. Can you tell us more about how you made that discovery? And what does it feel like to be a Cultivator? How is it any different from Cultivation Online?" The news anchor asked him.

Fu Xi nodded and said, "After playing Cultivation Online for a few days, I quickly became addicted to the world of cultivation, and I suddenly had a thought— what if I can become a Cultivator in the real world as well?"

"I knew it was ridiculous of me to have such thoughts. After all, there's no way something in a video game could possibly work in the real world as well. However, my curiosity would not calm down until I actually tried it. It was at that point that I tried to cultivate in the real world using the cultivation technique I'd learned in Cultivation Online."

"Although it didn't work at first and I gave up for a few days, my instincts told me to try again, and so I did— until I managed to breakthrough and become a Cultivator."

"That's amazing," said the news anchor, and he continued, "If you don't mind, can you share with the audience the name of your cultivation technique and how you obtained it?"

Fu Xi nodded and said, "I don't mind. It's just an ordinary cultivation technique available to every disciple at the Nine Saber Mountain, and it's called Spirit Mountain Scripture."

"I know there are many people out there who do not believe in cultivation. Do you have any way to prove to them that it truly exists?"

"Well... I just became a Cultivator, so I cannot do anything crazy. However, my strength has increased tremendously since then. I can easily lift 100 pounds with a single hand despite my skinny physique."

"Indeed, you certainly don't look like you can lift even half of that much weight, much less all of it."

A few moments later, someone brought a 100-pound barbell onto the stage for Fu Xi.

After taking a deep breath, Fu Xi grabbed the center of the barbell with his stick-like arm and lifted it above his head with ease, shocking the news anchor and the audience.

"My god! What a performance! I thought you were joking!" The news anchor said, as he didn't believe for a second that Fu Xi would be able to lift something so heavy with his thin arms that clearly lacked the muscles.

"Well, this is the best I can do at my current level. Perhaps I will be able to use the other techniques from Cultivation Online if I increase my cultivation." Fu Xi said with a proud look on his face.

Fu Xi and the news anchor continued to talk to each other about cultivation and whatnot.

Meanwhile, the other channels also had their own special guests, and all of them claim to have succeeded in cultivation.

"What do you think, brother? Do you think they're really Cultivators? Can we really cultivate in this world?" Yu Rou asked him through the phone.

"We can," Yuan answered quickly without hesitation, taking Yu Rou and Meixiu by surprise.

"Why do you sound so confident?" Yu Rou couldn't help but ask.

After a moment of silence, Yuan responded in a calm voice, "I am confident cultivation exists because... because I have also succeeded in becoming a Cultivator. In fact, I have been cultivating for a while now."

"Y-You what?" Yu Rou's dumbfounded voice resounded.

"Yuan..." Meixiu stared at him with her eyes wide with disbelief, almost as though she couldn't believe her ears.

Chapter 408 - Preparing For The Future

"I'm sorry for keeping this a secret until now, but I didn't want you to see me as someone crazy... And I was worried that all of this cultivation thing might only be inside my head— an illusion I made for myself." Yuan sighed.

"..."

After a moment of dead silence, Yu Rou asked him, "Brother, you're not crazy. How long have you been cultivating for?"

"It's been a while since I started so I cannot really remember, but I started cultivating even before I got kicked out of the Yu Family."

"How does it feel to become a Cultivator? Is it any different from Cultivation Online? And how long did it take you to succeed?" Yu Rou continued to ask him questions.

"Well... It definitely took me some time to become a Cultivator. When I first tried, I would feel pain all over my body, almost like I am being stabbed by needles. Eventually, I managed to breakthrough and become a Cultivator. As for how it feels... I can't really tell you since my body is in this state. However, I do feel very energetic, and having a breakthrough is very similar to what it would feel like inside Cultivation Online."

"That's it! I have made a decision! I am going to become a Cultivator in this world as well!" Yu Rou suddenly declared.

And she continued, "Can you imagine doing things in the real world that you could only do in Cultivation Online before? Like using martial techniques and having super strength? This is so exciting!"

However, Yuan said, "As exciting as it may seem, I am also very worried about the future. If everyone becomes a Cultivator, what's going to happen to our world? It might get chaotic."

"I don't think you have to worry too much, brother. Even if we can cultivate, I highly doubt we'll be able to do anything too crazy like flying and destroying mountains with a single fist. Although our world will definitely change, it probably won't be too drastic." Yu Rou said.

"I hope you're right..." Yuan said.

"By the way, what cultivation level are you right now, brother?" Yu Rou suddenly asked him.

"I honestly don't know, but if we use Cultivation Online for reference, I think I am a sixth-level Spirit Warrior," he said.

"S-Sixth level Spirit Warrior?!?!" Yu Rou exclaimed.

How is it possible that Yuan's cultivation in the real world is so high? He even surpasses the majority of players in Cultivation Online, much less the real world!

While most players are just entering the Spirit Warrior realm inside the game, Yuan was already a Spirit Warrior in the real world.

"A-Anyways, I will call you guys later. I have to prepare for school now. In fact, I am already running a little late because of the news. Bye!"

"Goodbye, Yu Rou."

After Yu Rou hung up, Meixiu suddenly spoke, "Yuan, is that why your body has been growing stronger and stronger despite not working out? Your body is unnaturally fit for someone who lies in bed all day."

"I think so," he said.

"..."

After a moment of silence, Meixiu asked, "If you continue to cultivate... do you think it could possibly help you move again?"

A smile appeared on Yuan's face after hearing her words, and he said, "I think so."

As much as he wanted to tell her that he was already recovering, he wanted to make sure that he could at least lift himself off the bed before he said anything, and at the rate he was recovering, he would probably need at least a couple more months before he could tell her about his recovery.

"What about you, Meixiu? Are you going to become a Cultivator too?"

"I don't know yet..." she mumbled.

"I think you should become a Cultivator, Meixiu." Yuan suddenly said.

And he continued, "Now that the entire world knows about cultivation in the real world, there will be many Cultivators in the near future, and when that happens, things might get chaotic. If I don't recover by then, I want you to be able to protect yourself at the very least."

"One thing I learned about Cultivators in Cultivation Online is that they can be unreasonable people."

Whether it's Cultivation Online or the real world, there will always be people who abuse their powers and use them to bully others.

After a moment of silence, Meixiu nodded her head and said, "I understand. I will become a Cultivator."

"Great! Once I am finished with the Dragon Temple, we can go look for a cultivation technique for you together! Of course, if you want, you can ask Feng Feng or Xiao Hua to see if they can help you find a cultivation technique since I still have 6 more days inside the Dragon Temple."

"It's okay. I will wait for you." Meixiu said.

Sometime later, after eating breakfast, Yuan returned to Cultivation Online whilst Meixiu went to research more about Cultivators online.

And as she'd expected, the world quickly learned that one could cultivate in the real world using cultivation techniques found inside Cultivation Online, and by the end of the day, nearly everybody in the world had heard about it.

Of course, there were countless questions that appeared because of this situation, such as how it was possible to use cultivation techniques from a video game and if cultivating in the real world was actually safe. However, no matter how suspicious people are or whether they believed it or not, it didn't stop people from trying to become Cultivators.

And as a result of this discovery, the playerbase for Cultivation Online skyrocketed, and powers around the world began preparing for the future—a future where Cultivators may rule the world.

By the end of the day, millions of people tried to cultivate with countless failures. With that being said, there were also plenty of people that had succeeded in their cultivation, and about one in every ten thousand people would become a Cultivator on their first day!

Chapter 409 - The Great Ones Trial

Chapter 409 - The Great One's Trial

After returning to the Dragon Temple, Yuan flew into the air and looked at the formation around the city to see its progress, but as he'd expected, the formation remained unfinished.

"Since it's going to take a while for the formation to finish, I should use this time to look around the place and see if I can find the treasure room," Yuan mumbled to himself, and he proceeded to fly around the massive city that would've taken him months to explore if he had to do it on foot.

However, that was easier said than done. How was he supposed to find the treasure room in this massive and empty city? Where should he start?

After flying around the city for an hour, Yuan gave up and decided to start searching from the ground.

"Is there really nobody in this place besides myself?" Yuan mumbled to himself as he knocked on the closed doors.

"Hm? It's open?"

Realizing that the doors were not locked, Yuan decided to go inside.

"This is..."

Yuan was surprised to see furniture inside the buildings. In fact, every single building was fully organized with furniture, almost like people used to live in this place.

"Maybe people used to live in this place in the past..."

Sometime later, Yuan eventually stopped entering the buildings as there was nothing new after looking through over a hundred of them.

"What about the trials? Where can I do the trials?"

After pondering for some time, Yuan flew back into the air once again and activated his Dragon's Gaze, and instead of using it on the dragon statue, he scanned the city with it.

And to his surprise, he could see some of the buildings glowing a faint golden color, almost like they were surrounded by fireflies, and some buildings were glowing brighter than the others.

And just like how bright lights affected moths, Yuan went for the brightest building he saw.

A few minutes later, he knocked on the door just in case it was occupied.

When nobody answered, Yuan opened the door and entered the building.

The interior of the building looked almost the same as the other buildings, but there was an addition there— a small dragon statue placed directly in the center of the room.

Yuan ignored the other things in the room and approached the dragon statue.

The moment he got close enough to the statue, it suddenly began glowing, and the doors behind him closed.

Although he was startled, Yuan didn't panic or run away.

A few seconds later, the dark room began brightening despite the lack of light sources in the room.

Furthermore, the room also expanded, almost like the world itself was being stretched.

"Is this an illusion...?" Yuan wondered to himself.

The expansion of the room wouldn't stop until all of the furniture disappeared into the horizon.

Suddenly, a notification appeared before Yuan.

[The Great One's Trial has begun!]

[You have a new challenge!]

[Defeat as many enemies as you can within the time limit!]

[The more you defeat the stronger the enemies become and the better your rewards!]

[Difficulty has been adjusted based on your talents!]

Ding!

[3:59:59]

The moment the countdown started, Yuan could see human-like figures wearing armor that resembled the armor worn by the guards in the Ancient Dragon City appearing on the horizon, and there were tens if not hundreds of them appearing at once. Furthermore, they were all wielding different weapons.

Some of them had swords while others had spears. There were even some weapons that Yuan had never seen before.

Fortunately for him, they appeared pretty far in the distance, giving him some time to prepare.

"Their aura... First level Spirit Masters?" Yuan quickly retrieved his Empyrean Overlord and the Starry Abyss.

And not waiting for these armored figures to get close, Yuan used the Starry Abyss to attack them in the distance.

Boom!

The Starry Abyss easily tore holes in their bodies, and after killing 100 of them, the surviving armored figures' aura suddenly grew stronger, almost like they'd leveled up or something, and they were now at the second level Spirit Master realm.

Yuan continued to slay these armored figures, and this challenge reminded him of the challenge on the 100th floor of the Carp Leaping Over Dragon's Gate Tower.

However, compared to the challenge on the 100th floor, there were not as many enemies, but they were certainly stronger— much stronger.

Second level... third level... fourth level...

The armored figures continued to grow stronger as Yuan destroyed them, and in just an hour, these armored figures entered the Spirit Grandmaster level.

[Heaven Splitting Sword Strike!]

Yuan unleashed a devastating attack that instantly destroyed over a hundred of these armored figures, increasing their strength once again to the second level Spirit Grandmaster.

Since this challenge required him to slay as many armored figures as he could in what little time he was given, Yuan spared no effort destroying as many of them as he could.

Yuan's spiritual energy depleted at an insane rate that would exhaust anyone with a similar cultivation base, but because of his skill Perfect Regeneration and the Nine Dragon Symbols inside his body, his body continuously absorbed the surrounding Qi as quickly as he used them, keeping Yuan from exhaustion.

Furthermore, once the armored figures had reached Spirit Grandmaster, fewer of them were being summoned, and their silver armor also changed to a golden color.

While Yuan continued his challenge inside Cultivation Online, the real world became rowdier and rowdier as more people woke up and learned about cultivation.

"Sister Rou! Have you heard the news?! Apparently, cultivation is real and there are already Cultivators in our world!" Xiao Jingyi approached Yu Rou at school.

Yu Rou smiled and said, "Everybody and their mother have been talking about it since I woke up. How can I possibly not have heard about it by now?"

"What do you think about it? I am filled with excitement! In fact, I am going to start cultivating when I get home today! What about you? Are you going to cultivate?" Xia Jingyi said.

"I am also going to become a Cultivator." Yu Rou nodded.

Chapter 410 - Golden Dragon Gift Box

Ding!

[You have completed the Great One's Trial!]

[Total kills: 7,945]

[Congratulations! You have set a new record!]

[You have been awarded a Golden Dragon Gift Box]

After the timer had reached zero, Yuan was given a golden box for his efforts.

"Haaa..."

Yuan laid on the floor in a tired manner as his surroundings returned to normal.

"The Great One said it'd be easy... What a joke! I nearly died fighting so many Spirit Grandmaster armored figures at once!" Yuan sighed out loud.

Fortunately for Yuan, the armored figures had their cultivation bases peaked at the 9th level Spirit Grandmaster or he would've been in real trouble.

Once he'd rested enough, Yuan opened the Golden Dragon Gift Box to see what was inside.

"This is... a necklace?"

Yuan retrieved a golden necklace from the Golden Dragon Gift Box.

[Refined Dragon Necklace]

[Grade: Divine]

[Quality: Peak]

[Mental Strength Required: 100,000]

[Soul Strength Required: 30,000]

[Description: A powerful necklace refined by the Great One. Deflects all spiritual techniques below Heaven-grade. Enhances the strength of one's own spiritual attacks by 50%.]

"Wow, this is quite a powerful treasure."

Yuan wore the treasure around his neck alongside the necklace Xiao Hua gave him, and he immediately felt safer.

"Wait... Spiritual attacks... Does the Dragon's Gaze count as a spiritual attack?" Yuan wondered to himself.

Sometime later, Yuan left the building to look at the formation around the city.

The moment he left the building, another notification appeared.

[1/3 Great One's Trials completed]

After taking a quick look at the formation to make sure it wasn't completed, Yuan went to look for another trial to do.

This time, he went for the building with the dimmest light.

[The Great One's Trial has begun!]

[You have a new challenge!]

[Withstand the pressure for three hours!]

[Difficulty has been adjusted based on your talents!]

Ding!

[2:59:59]

The moment the trial began, Yuan could feel an invisible pressure bearing down on him.

However, this pressure wasn't very strong in his opinion. In fact, he barely felt it.

After ten minutes, the pressure grew stronger, yet it still wasn't even for Yuan.

An hour later, the pressure was finally strong enough for Yuan to feel its effects, but it wasn't anything too strong, and he was still able to stand properly. It only felt like he was carrying a heavy backpack filled with rocks.

After another hour, the pressure was strong enough to make Yuan feel uncomfortable if he continued standing, so he took a seat on the cold floor.

The last hour was the most difficult. If it'd been another Cultivator, they would feel like they're being crushed by an entire mountain on her shoulders.

However, for Yuan, who was a Spirit Grandmaster, that mountain felt like a large boulder.

Of course, while boulders aren't anything to scoff at and could crush even a Spirit Warrior in an instant, Yuan was a Spirit Grandmaster. If he wanted to, he could carry even a couple of boulders and still be fine.

Three hours passed by in a flash, and at the end, Yuan received another Golden Dragon Gift Box.

Ding!

[You have completed the Great One's Trial!]

[Total time resisted: 3:00:00]

[Congratulations! You have set a new record!]

[You have been awarded a Golden Dragon Gift Box]

Yuan immediately opened the Golden Dragon Gift Box, but to his surprise, there was only an Earth-grade treasure inside.

[Dragon Needles]

[Grade: Earth]

[Quality: Peak]

[Description: Eight perfect needles crafted by the Great One. Usually used as a hidden weapon. Increases penetration by 100%]

"The trial was pretty easy compared to the last one so maybe that's why the reward is so bad," Yuan mumbled to himself.

Indeed, the trial he'd just beaten was one of the easiest trials in the Dragon Temple, hence the lack of reward.

With that being said, it was still an Earth-grade treasure, something most if not every single player besides Yuan would die for.

[2/3 Great One's Trials completed]

Sometime later, Yuan went back outside to look at the formation.

"Of course, it's still not finished. Guess I'll go ahead and finish my last trial now."

Yuan looked around the city with his Dragon's Gaze, looking specifically for the building that had the brightest glow.

After searching for a few minutes, Yuan flew to another building.

Although this building didn't glow as bright as his first one, it was definitely much brighter than his previous one.

Furthermore, this building appeared to be a restaurant of sorts.

After knocking on the door like usual, Yuan entered the building.

Sure enough, the interior looked like that of a restaurant with many tables and chairs.

Yuan took a deep breath before approaching the dragon statue in the middle.

Whoosh!

The world before him expanded once again until he had plenty of room.

[The Great One's Trial has begun!]

[You have a new challenge!]

[Dodge the incoming attacks for one hour or until you get hit 3 times!]

[Difficulty has been adjusted based on your talents!]

A timer suddenly appeared, but there were only three seconds on it.

[0:03]

[0:02]

[0:01]

Once the timer had reached zero, Yuan immediately sensed danger from behind him, and another timer appeared.

[0:59:50]

He quickly used his movement technique to leave his location, and the second he moved, a massive sword flew past where his neck had been just a second ago.

Three seconds after the first attack, Yuan could feel another sense of danger coming from his right side.

Whoosh!

An arrow suddenly appeared out of thin air a few meters away from his location and flew at his face.

The attacks continued to come from random locations, and the more Yuan dodged, the more threats would appear at once and the quicker they would appear.

Ten minutes into the challenge, Yuan was already being assaulted by 10 weapons at once, and they would attack him every two seconds.

Thirty minutes into the challenge, Yuan had to avoid over 50 threats at once, all of them coming at every single second, and things were just getting started.

Chapter 411 - Duplicate Treasure

[0:00:02]

[0:00:01]

Ding!

[You have completed the Great One's Trial!]

[Total time dodged: 1:00:00]

[Total hits: 0]

[You have been awarded a Golden Dragon Gift Box]

Yuan collapsed on the floor after he saw the notification.

"If I didn't level up the movement technique at the Ancient Dragon City, I might not have been able to pass this trial without getting hit a few times..." Yuan sighed in an exhausted manner.

Towards the end, he had to dodge over a hundred attacks from every direction, and the attacks would come at every second, leaving him almost no room to breathe.

Fortunately for him, the movement technique he'd learned from Feng Yuxiang was truly as powerful as she had claimed.

A few moments later, once the world returned to normal and he had rested enough, Yuan opened the Golden Dragon Gift Box to see what was inside.

[You have obtained 'Dragon Temple Treasure Key']

"Wait a minute..." Yuan was dumbfounded when he saw the notification.

"I already have the Dragon Temple Treasure Key!" Yuan exclaimed.

He remembers obtaining the same thing at the Carp Leaping Over Dragon's Gate Tower after reaching the 100th floor! What is he going to do with this extra key? Will it be a useless treasure?

Normally, one wouldn't be able to obtain the Dragon Temple Treasury Key unless they got lucky with one of the trials in the Dragon Temple, yet Yuan somehow managed to obtain it before even entering the place.

"I did all of that just for a duplicate treasure... What luck..." Yuan shook his head.

[3/3 Great One's Trials completed]

[You have reached the limit of trials you can complete!]

[You may continue to do the trials, but you will not receive any reward!]

"To add insult to injury, that was my last attempt... Ah, whatever." Yuan gave up, as there was nothing he could do at this point.

Sometime later, Yuan returned to the dragon statue and looked at the progress of the formation.

"Still not done, huh?"

He decided to log off for the day shortly after.

"How's everything going, Meixiu?" Yuan asked her during dinner.

"Well... As you can expect, the entire world is in an uproar right now," she said.

"I'm not surprised."

"The prices for cultivation techniques have also skyrocketed since then. Even a Mortal-grade cultivation technique could go for tens of thousands of dollars," she added.

"Also not surprising..."

"Governments around the world want to regulate cultivation, but with so many people doing it in secrecy, it's near impossible to do anything about it."

"I see..."

After a moment of silence, Yuan said, "Oh, yeah. You should have the Basic Qi Gathering Technique, right? It was given to everyone when we started the game. You should try to get a feel for cultivation in Cultivation Online before you attempt it in the real world. It's going to be like practice until you get a better cultivation technique."

"Okay, I will try it later. What about you? Will you be playing tonight?"

"Yes, I am waiting for some massive formation to finish, but it's taking forever. Though, I don't want to miss it when it does finish."

Sometime later, Yuan returned to the game and continued to wait for the formation to finish.

Meixiu went to clean the dishes before entering the game.

Meanwhile, after school, Yu Rou was summoned by her parents.

Once she arrived at their main house, Yu Rou immediately noticed the empty boxes laid outside the door, causing her to raise her eyebrows.

A few minutes later, she went to look for her parents in their bedroom, which was an odd place for a meeting.

When she entered their room, the first thing she noticed was the familiar-looking console on their bed.

"You're finally here, huh?" Yu Yong said to her from the bed.

"As you can see, we'll be playing Cultivation Online as well."

"Eh...?" Yu Rou stared at them with a dumbfounded look on her face.

"I'm sure you've heard by now, but apparently one can become a Cultivator if they play this game and use their cultivation techniques." Tang Lee said.

And she continued, "Yu Rou, since you have been playing this game for some time now, you should have enough experience as a Cultivator inside the game. The other families have already started cultivating, and some of their children have even succeeded in cultivating. Therefore, you're going to become a Cultivator as well."

"I-I understand..." Yu Rou mumbled in a dazed voice.

Although she was already planning on becoming a Cultivator, it was still shocking to hear it from her parents' mouths.

"If becoming a Cultivator truly increases one's longevity and grants them superhuman strength like they say, that's not something we can ignore." Yu Yong said.

Sometime later, Yu Rou returned to her own house.

After eating dinner and taking a quick shower, Yu Rou sat on her bed in the lotus position and tried to cultivate using the cultivation technique she has been using in Cultivation Online.

Her breathing quickly calmed and became rhythmic, and her mind was cleared of all thoughts except the cultivation technique.

Yu Rou eventually entered this mythical state that was similar to enlightenment yet it was not true enlightenment.

A few hours later, Yu Rou suddenly felt a nostalgic feeling spread throughout her body.

"Did I succeed? Am I a Cultivator now? That was easier than I'd expected..." Yu Rou opened her eyes and stood up, feeling energetic all over her body.

She then turned to look at her desk.

After pondering for a moment, she approached it and tried to lift it with one hand.

Yu Rou didn't expect anything at first, but to her surprise, she'd managed to lift the whole desk with a single arm! And with relative ease too!

"H-Heavens! It's real! I am really a Cultivator!" Yu Rou exclaimed in an excited voice.

Yu Rou immediately went to pick up the phone and tried to contact Meixiu, but when nobody picked up, she called Xia Jingyi instead.

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 412 - Closing School Early

"Jingyi, how's your cultivation going? Have you become a Cultivator yet?"

"By the sound of your voice, I can tell that you've already become a Cultivator. Congratulations, Sister Rou. Unfortunately, I am still trying to breakthrough." Xia Jingyi's voice resounded from the phone.

"Don't worry, I'm sure you'll breakthrough soon."

"What about you? Has anything changed now that you're a Cultivator? Have you gotten stronger like they say you would?" Xia Jingyi asked.

"Yes! You won't believe this, but I could lift my desk with a single arm! It was really surprising!" Yu Rou said.

"That crazy?! I'm going to continue my cultivation now! Even if I have to skip tonight's sleep, I am going to do it!" Xia Jingyi said.

"Me, too! I may already be a Cultivator but I still want to continue improving! I'll see you tomorrow at school!" Yu Rou said her goodbyes before closing the phone.

And for the rest of the night, Yu Rou would sit on her bed in the lotus position, slowly improving her cultivation.

The following morning, despite missing a night of sleep, Yu Rou felt incredibly refreshed and full of energy.

"Unlike Cultivation Online, cultivation is much slower in the real world, which isn't really that surprising. And with a lack of treasures to assist us, we'll be even slower." Yu Rou mumbled.

Cultivation Online was filled with rich resources that could help boost one's cultivation within seconds, but in the real world, no such resources exist and Cultivators must rely on their own talents and patience to improve their cultivation.

"I guess this is also good. It would be bad if people can simply buy their cultivation levels like they do in Cultivation Online, becoming Spirit Warriors in just a few weeks." Yu Rou mumbled.

In Cultivation Online, there are plenty of rich people who would buy treasures using real money to boost their cultivation base, bypassing the earlier levels. Of course, the higher their cultivation, the more expensive each level got.

Once one reaches Spirit Warrior, the amount one would need to spend to increase a level was so high that only the richest people in the world would dare to spend that much.

Now that one cannot simply buy their way to the top, everyone— regardless of their status or wealth— will have a chance to become a top Cultivator in the real world!

"Meanwhile, Brother is already nearing Spirit Master... If he could move his body, how powerful would he be in this world?" Yu Rou wondered to herself as she prepared for school.

Sometime later, Yu Rou arrived at school, and to her surprise, the place looked even more empty than usual.

"Where is everybody?" Xia Jingyi asked the teacher.

The teacher showed a bittersweet smile and said, "Because of the cultivation craze, everybody is staying home to cultivate."

Yu Rou and the other few students in the classroom were left dumbfounded by the teacher's words.

Everybody was skipping school to cultivate? As crazy as that sounded, it wasn't that surprising!

"It's not just the students." The teacher continued.

"A couple of the teachers here have also resigned this morning, so we're also understaffed at this moment."

"What's going to happen to our classes now?" Yu Rou then asked.

"The principal has issued a gathering later today, so we'll probably know about it at that time. In the meantime, you can do whatever."

The students looked at each other silently.

Sometime later, the students there gathered in a circle and began talking to each other about cultivation.

"Have any of you tried cultivating now?"

"I have, but I couldn't make any breakthroughs."

"Me too. It feels like there's something blocking me and I cannot move forward."

"I have that feeling as well!"

"I actually managed to have a breakthrough this morning right before school." Xia Jingyi said with a smile on her face.

"Whoa! So you're a Cultivator now, right?! Show us what you can do!" The other students immediately looked at her with admiration.

"Haha... compared to Sister Rou, I am nothing. She became a Cultivator last night." Xia Jingyi said.

"As expected of Miss Yu! You're not only talented in music but even in cultivation!"

Yu Rou showed a stiff smile.

If only they knew what her brother was capable of.

A few moments later, Yu Rou and Xia Jingyi showed off to the other students their new profound strength by lifting desks and chairs and treating them as though they're weightless.

"My god! I have been skeptical this entire time, but after seeing it with my own eyes, I cannot do anything but believe it!"

About an hour later, Yu Rou and the others in her class went to the auditorium where the principal, teachers, and other students in the school were gathered.

"Ahem. Thank you for coming here. As most of you, if not all of you already know by now, we're missing more than just a few students, and this is all because of the cultivation craze since yesterday. After speaking with your parents, we have agreed to close the school even earlier than anticipated."

Although the place was dead silent, all of the students were filled with excitement and had an urge to start screaming.

The principal continued, "While I don't know when we'll reopen, it probably won't be anytime soon, and depending on how this cultivation thing changes our world, we might never open again."

"I apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused you, and if you plan on becoming a Cultivator, I wish you the best of luck. Do any of you have questions? This is your last chance to ask them."

After spending a couple of minutes answering the students' and teachers' questions, the principal dismissed everyone.

"What are you going to do now, Sister Rou?" Xia Jingyi asked her once they left the school.

"I am going to focus on improving my cultivation," she said.

"What about Cultivation Online? Are you going to continue playing?"

"Of course!" Yu Rou quickly responded.

And she continued, "I will play Cultivation Online in the morning and cultivate at night. A perfect balance if I say so myself."

Chapter 413 - Spirit Severing Physique

After breakfast, Meixiu laid on her bed and returned to Cultivation Online.

Once she was in the game, she took a seat on the cold floor in the lotus position and tried to cultivate using the Basic Qi Gathering Technique she'd obtained at the beginning of the game.

When Feng Yuxiang and the others noticed this, they turned to look at her with raised eyebrows.

"Are you trying to cultivate? I thought you didn't have any cultivation techniques." Feng Yuxiang couldn't help but ask her out of curiosity.

Meixiu nodded and said, "I have this technique called Basic Qi Gathering Technique. I want to get used to cultivation before I do it for real."

"What? Basic Qi Gathering Technique? That trash everybody uses?" Feng Yuxiang immediately expressed disgust on her face.

"Meixiu, I suggest you don't use that trash cultivation technique and wait until you have something better even if it's only for practice. After all, the better your cultivation technique, the stronger your foundations will be." Feng Yuxiang said.

And she continued, "If you use that cultivation technique to form your foundations, it might affect your future by limiting it."

"For example, if two people start cultivating with different techniques—one with an inferior technique and the other with a superior technique—even if the Cultivator with the inferior technique changes his cultivation technique for a better one in the future, his cultivation would not go as far as the person who has been using a superior cultivation technique since the beginning unless that person cripples his cultivation base and starts all over again."

"This is why most Cultivators stay with one cultivation technique for their entire life even if they find something slightly better, as it's not worth the hassle of restarting your cultivation technique from the beginning."

"I see..." Meixiu stopped trying to cultivate after hearing Feng Yuxiang's words.

"I mean, if you really want to cultivate, I guess it's okay for you since you won't really lose much even if you have to start again. However, it's a painful process to restart your cultivation base without damaging your Dantian, and a single mistake will cripple you for the rest of your life." Feng Yuxiang added.

"It's okay. I will wait until I have a better cultivation technique." Meixiu said.

"I would give you a cultivation technique if I had one, but as a Divine Beast, we don't really rely on cultivation techniques to cultivate, and we absorb Spirit Qi as naturally as breathing. Though, having a cultivation technique would definitely help us cultivate faster."

"Xiao Hua also only has one cultivation technique, but you're not compatible with it."

"What about you, Lan Yingying? You got something that could help her out?" Feng Yuxiang turned to ask her.

Lan Yingying shook her head and said, "Unfortunately, I don't have any techniques. I cultivate by consuming other magical beasts."

"What a unique physique... It's somewhat similar to the Young Master, but he eats their cores instead. Hmm? Speaking of physique, do you have any unique physiques, Meixiu?" Feng Yuxiang asked her.

Meixiu nodded and said, "It's a physique called Spirit Severing Physique."

"S-Spirit Severing Physique?! A Divine-grade physique?!" Feng Yuxiang exclaimed.

Meixiu nodded, and she asked, "Do you know what it does?"

"The Spirit Severing Physique is a rare and powerful physique that allows you to separate your spirit from your body! It's kind of like Divine Sense, and you're near invincible as long as you're in the state!" Feng Yuxiang said.

"Furthermore, while you're in that state, you can bypass all sorts of formations and defenses that would normally block people from entering. It's a highly coveted physique since you can enter places where people normally cannot and not have to worry about traps."

"Even in the upper heavens, your talents will be useful. In fact, your talents will probably become more valuable as you ascend because things get increasingly more dangerous the higher you go."

"I know some people who have the same physique, and they would sell their services by scouting Legacy Tombs and other dangerous places for information in exchange for an enormous amount of wealth and resources."

"I see..." Meixiu nodded, understanding her physique a little bit more now.

"How do I do it? I would like to try," she then said.

"Hmm..." Feng Yuxiang pondered for a moment and said, "Unfortunately, I don't think your body can handle it right now, especially since you're still a mortal. Once you reach Spirit Warrior, you'll probably be able to do it, and as you grow stronger, you'll be able to enter your spirit form for much longer, and you can even travel further away from your real body."

"Okay," Meixiu said.

Meanwhile, inside the Dragon Temple, Yuan flew around the city with his Dragon's Gaze activated the entire time.

"I have flown around the city a couple of times now, but I still cannot find the treasure room..." Yuan sighed.

Where could the treasure room be hiding? He even checked all of the buildings that were glowing just in case.

It was at this moment the city suddenly began rumbling again.

"What's happening? Could it be the formation?" Yuan quickly returned to the dragon statue.

Once he was at the dragon statue, Yuan looked at the formation that looked completed.

"It looks completed, but where is the legacy?"

Just as Yuan thought this, the dragon statue behind him suddenly began moving.

Whoosh!

The dragon statue slowly transformed, turning from metal to a more realistic material, and it was even growing bigger. In just moments, the dragon statue went from looking like a statue to a real dragon, and it even flew into the sky and circled around the city exactly nine times before approaching Yuan.

"Are you the one who seeks my legacy?" The dragon statue spoke to Yuan as though it was their first encounter.

Yuan, who was still hovering in the air, nodded his head.

"You're the Great One, right? I am interested in your legacy. Can you tell me more about it?"

Chapter 414 - The Great Ones Legacy

Chapter 414 - The Great One's Legacy

"Interested?" The Great One's statue raised its eyebrows at Yuan's words.

"You're merely interested in my Legacy? You know, even Immortals and Gods covet my Legacy." The Great One's statue said to him.

"Yes, but it sounds like a lot of responsibility," Yuan said.

"Responsibility? Hahaha! Of course, it's a lot of responsibility! Not anyone can just obtain the Great One's Legacy!"

"What is the Great One's Legacy, anyway? According to my knowledge, I only have to ascend to the upper heavens and find the real Great One, right?"

"That's the gist of it, yes. However, there are more things you should keep in mind."

The Great One's eyes suddenly flickered with a profound light, and it continued, "First and foremost, once you obtain the Legacy, you will have exactly 100 years to find the real Great One who is always wandering the Nine Heavens."

"100 years? That's a long time..." Yuan mumbled.

The Great One's statue raised its eyebrows. 100 years is a long time? In its eyes, 100 years could disappear in the blink of an eye, especially for most Immortals that can live for millions of years with ease.

"Next, you are only allowed to hold the Great One's Legacy once in your lifetime, so if you happen to run into another chance to obtain the Great One's Legacy, just know that you won't be able to accept it."

"There will be other chances to obtain this Legacy?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"Yes. The Great One has multiple trials spread across the Nine Heavens so everyone has a chance to obtain his Legacy."

"Does this mean there can be more than one person carrying the Great One's Legacy at one time?" Yuan asked.

The statue nodded and said, "There are currently 99 people who are carrying the Great One's Legacy as of this moment. If you accept it, you will be the 100th person. However, nobody has been able to complete the Legacy— not even the people at the upper heavens."

"Can there only be one person who completes the Legacy?" Yuan then asked.

"No, there can be multiple people. However, the earlier you complete it, the better your rewards."

"I see..."

"Anyways, as for the last thing you should know about the Great One's Legacy... There's actually a curse within it that will make your cultivation life harder if you accept it."

"Huh? A curse?" Yuan raised his eyebrows again.

"It's nothing malicious, but if you accept it, you might lose some of your luck, and there may be unfortunate encounters that you would otherwise not experience if you weren't carrying the Great One's Legacy. Basically, it will make things more difficult for you. If you can overcome the curse and find the Great One while carrying this Legacy, you will be awarded immense wealth that would make even Immortals and Gods jealous."

"Do you accept this Legacy?" The statue asked him.

Ding!

[You have been offered to carry the Great One's Legacy!]

[Do you accept?]

Yuan didn't immediately answer, and after pondering for a few moments, he said, "I have a question before I decide."

"..."

The statue was speechless. If it was anybody else, they would've long accepted the Legacy.

"If I accept the Great One's Legacy, can I accept another Legacy in the future if I have the chance?" Yuan asked.

"You... You're a greedy one." The statue responded in a dumbfounded voice.

After a moment of silence, the statue continued to speak, "There is no limit on how many Legacy one can carry at a time. However, don't bite more than you can chew."

Yuan nodded, "Since that's the case, I will accept the Great One's Legacy."

"Good!"

The statue's eyes suddenly glowed brightly before shooting a golden beam of light inside Yuan's body.

Ding!

[You have accepted the Great One's Legacy!]

[You have 100 years to find the Great One!]

[Because of the Great One's Legacy, you have been cursed with 'Minor Misfortune'!]

[Minor Misfortune]

[Curse Grade: Heaven]

[Description: A curse that lowers your Luck by 500]

"You now carry the Great One's Legacy— carry it with pride and honor. Good luck." The statue said to him.

"Oh! Before you go, can you tell me where the treasure room is? I looked everywhere but still couldn't find it... Even a little hint is good enough." Yuan suddenly said to it.

The statue didn't say anything, but its gaze turned to look in a certain direction for a good moment before it flew around the city nine times before returning to its original place and turning back into a metal statue.

"Thank you." Yuan bowed to the statue before flying towards the direction it had hinted.

Sometime later, Yuan reached the end of the city, yet he still couldn't find the treasure room.

He then decided to fly back and forth this same path a few more times just in case he missed something, but alas, the treasure room still remained nowhere to be seen.

Yuan decided to stop and ponder for some time.

A few minutes later, he turned to look at the area outside the city, which was only a desolate land that had no signs of life.

"Maybe the treasure room is outside the city and somewhere in this desolate land?" Yuan mumbled to himself.

After taking a deep breath, Yuan decided to leave the city and enter the desolate land.

The moment Yuan left the city, he could feel an ominous feeling looming around him, almost like there were people looking at him from every direction.

Furthermore, the spiritual energy was completely different compared to inside the city— it was more chaotic and impure.

'I sure hope this is the right way and the statue wasn't just playing with me...' Yuan swallowed nervously.

After flying straight for an hour, Yuan suddenly felt a chill down his spine, causing him to turn around.

When he turned around, he was greeted by a massive shadowy figure that resembled a dragon following a few miles behind him. However, because of its massive and long size, it looked like it was right behind him.

"W-What the heck is that?!" Yuan felt his heart skip a beat after seeing this unknown entity suddenly behind him.

Chapter 415 - Shadow Realm

"Human... human... human..." The shadowy entity following behind Yuan mumbled in a ghastly voice.

Yuan's body shuddered even more after hearing this unknown entity's voice, and its glowing red eyes that emitted bloodlust didn't help either.

"What are you?! And what do you want from me?!" Yuan shouted at it while he increased his flying speed.

However, the dark entity ignored his questions and merely continued to mumble in a ghastly voice that was devoid of all emotions, "Human... human... human..."

When it noticed Yuan increasing his speed, the unknown entity also increased its speed.

After being chased for a few minutes, Yuan could see small glowing red dots around him in the distance.

"Oh, the Great One! I really hope you're not messing with me now and that the treasure room is really this way!" Yuan cried out loud as he increased his flying speed even more.

"Human... human..."

"Human...!"

"Human... human...!"

More and more shadowy figures began emerging from the darkness, and in just half an hour, there were over a dozen shadowy entities following Yuan.

Seeing this, Yuan decided to attack these entities with the Starry Abyss, but the dagger went straight through these entities' bodies.

"HUMAN!"

The dark entities suddenly screamed, causing Yuan to tremble from fright.

'I probably shouldn't have done that!' He cried inwardly after seeing the aftermath.

Not only have the dark entities sped up, but they were even beginning to attack him by spitting out these black balls that would explode after a short time!

"Whoa!"

Yuan quickly dodged these ominous-looking balls.

One of these dark balls touched the ground, and when that happened, the ground immediately disappeared the next second!

"What are these things?!" Yuan cried out loud as he sped up even more.

After flying for a few minutes while constantly dodging these shadow balls, Yuan suddenly felt a sense of danger from below, causing him to look down at the ground, and that's when he noticed the sea of shadowy hands that had sprouted from the ground out of nowhere.

These shadowy hands danced left and right, and some of them would suddenly extend and shoot straight at Yuan like a spear.

Yuan's forehead was covered in sweat at this moment. This has to be one of the most ridiculous situations he has experienced in Cultivation Online thus far.

Furthermore, the uncertainty of the situation and these unknown entities only made things worse.

"What are you doing here, human?"

A gentle voice that was the complete opposite of the ghastly voices Yuan had gotten used to by now suddenly resounded, taking Yuan by surprise.

Compared to the ghastly voices that sounded like he was being haunted, this gentle voice sounded like it came from a goddess.

Another shadowy figure appeared a few meters in front of Yuan, but it didn't take a monstrous shape like the others. Instead, it had a feminine figure— and quite the mature one at that.

Yuan subconsciously stopped moving when his path was blocked by this shadowy figure.

The shadowy figure suddenly lifted her hand and made a beckoning gesture with her hand, forcing him to fly towards her.

However, the shadowy figure also moved back as Yuan approached her.

"Continue moving. If you're caught by those things, you'll turn into one of them and be trapped in here forever. Don't mind me." The gentle voice spoke to him.

Yuan nodded and continued to fly towards the shadowy figure.

"So? What is a human like you doing here in the Shadow Realm?" The gentle voice asked him again.

"Shadow Realm? What is this place? And what are these things behind me?"

"The Shadow Realm is a forbidden land where banished souls like them— like us dwell for eternity. It's rare for living beings to appear here," she responded.

"I see... Well, I am trying to head to the treasure room... And the Great One suggested I go this way... Hopefully, I didn't go too far..." Yuan spoke to the shadowy figure while he dodged the incoming attacks from all sides.

"The Dragon Treasury? You're definitely going the right way. However, you might have to fly for a few more hours before you reach it." The shadowy figure said to him.

"I-I have to continue this for a few hours?!" Yuan felt an urge to cry.

The treasure room better be worth all this effort.

"Since we have plenty of time to spare, why don't we talk a little more? It's been forever since I have spoken with a living being." The shadowy figure suddenly said.

"I would love to chat with you, but as you can see... it's not easy to talk while trying to avoid these things behind me." Yuan said.

"Hmm..."

The shadowy figure seemed to be pondering about something.

After a moment of silence, she spoke again, "Although this is going to be problematic for me later, I guess it's worth it if I can speak with you."

The shadowy figure suddenly snapped her fingers, causing a profound black ripple to appear around her.

This black ripple instantly swept the place, and when it touched the shadowy entities following behind Yuan, it caused them to shiver before turning tails and flying the other direction.

"T-Thank you..." Yuan said to the shadowy figure after taking a deep breath.

"That will only stop the weaker ones from chasing after you. There are stronger entities in here that even I cannot control," said the shadowy figure.

And she continued, "Anyways, now that they're not bothering you, let's talk."

"What do you want to talk about?"

"How long has it been since the Primordial Era? What kind of era are we in right now?"

"Primordial Era? Sorry, I don't know..."

"That's fine. Then do you know who's the current ruler of the Nine Heavens?"

Yuan shook his head. "I don't know much about the Nine Heavens since I arrived in this world recently."

"Oh? Tell me more." The shadowy figure said, her interest piqued.

"Well... I am from a world called 'Earth', and I have come to the Nine Heavens to explore it... I guess..." Yuan said.

"Earth? I have never heard of this place before. It must be some kind of minor world outside the Nine Heavens." The shadowy figure said.

Author's Note: I have decided to start a new novel with an antihero protagonist as an experiment. Check out 'Hero's Carnage' if you're interested.

Chapter 416 - Banished Souls

"If you don't mind me asking, just what are you guys? Banished souls? Does this mean you're dead?" Yuan suddenly asked the shadowy figure.

"Dead, huh? While we're not truly dead, we might as well be considered dead since we cannot leave this place," she said.

"We're souls— evil spirits so to speak, and our physical bodies have long rotted from this world."

"Why? Why were you guys banished here? Did you do something wrong?"

The shadowy figure giggled in a graceful tone before speaking, "Maybe. Some considered us as sinners while others considered us as heroes— it all depends on which side you stand."

And she continued, "As for what we did... Well, we waged war against heaven and the ruler of the Nine Heavens— the Celestial Emperor. And as you can probably tell from our current situation, we lost the war and were banished to this Shadow Realm."

"The Celestial Emperor? Why would you do something like that?" Yuan couldn't understand their motivation at all.

The shadowy figure immediately sneered in a cold voice, "That bastard is nothing more than a tyrant who abused his power by controlling the resources in the Nine Heavens. A Cultivator should not have to get on their knees and kiss the Celestial Emperor's feet to obtain resources, yet that's what we had to do! If we don't become his dogs, we would be denied the good resources and could only cultivate the low-tier resources!"

"Imagine being told you cannot drink water no matter if it's water from a natural spring or a store, and you're forced to drink the dirty water on the streets unless you decide to give up your dignity and become the Celestial Emperor's lapdog! This is why we waged war against that bastard! But alas, he had too much power and influence. It was a one-sided slaughter."

"However, it would still require a lot of effort and resources to kill all of us, so they decided to banish our spirits into this place."

"I don't know how long it has been since the war, but the majority of souls in this place have long lost their minds and gone crazy. They're now just mindless spirits wandering the Shadow Realm with an insatiable bloodlust."

"How come you seem to be fine?" Yuan couldn't help but ask her, who seemed perfectly sane and was even talking to him calmly.

"Do I seem fine? It might not seem like it, but I am actually trying my best to not consume you even now."

"Eh?" Yuan immediately stopped moving when he heard her words, and he stared at her figure with a dumbfounded look on his face.

"Hahaha!"

The shadowy figure suddenly burst out laughing after she saw Yuan's reaction.

"I'm just joking! You should've seen your face just now!"

"R-Really?" Yuan became even more dumbfounded.

"Although most of the spirits in this place have long lost their mind, there are still some who are completely rational and sane, and they all used to be incredibly powerful Immortals. Of course, I am one of these individuals." The shadowy figure pointed at herself.

Although she didn't have any facial features on her face besides two glowing red eyes, Yuan could somehow see a prideful expression on her face right now.

"Do you know why?" She suddenly asked.

"No... Why?"

"Because I have hope that I will be able to leave this place one day," she said, taking him by surprise.

"Eh? I thought you were trapped here for eternity? And how can you leave without a body?"

"Having a physical body is the least of my worries. As an Immortal, even if my physical body is destroyed, I won't die as long as my soul remains unharmed. Also, I can recreate my body if I have enough resources. The only problem is leaving the Shadow Realm. I cannot do it by myself."

The shadowy figure then pointed at him.

"This is where you come into play. I want you to help me by bringing me out of this place," she said in a solemn voice.

"Of course, I won't ask you to do it for free. The fact you're in this place means you're special, and judging by your cultivation and young appearances, you're also very talented. Whether it be cultivation techniques or treasures, I'm pretty sure you already have it all. Therefore, I will give you something more valuable than any treasure or technique there is in this world."

The shadowy figure then turned her finger, pointing at herself.

"Me. I will give myself to you."

"Eh?" Yuan stared at her with wide eyes.

"If you help me leave this place, once I recreate my body, I will give my everything to you— my body, my heart, and even my soul."

Before Yuan could even respond, she continued to speak, "I will have you know that I used to be one of three Ethereal Immortal Fairies, a title that's exclusive to the most beautiful and powerful women in all Nine Heavens.

Even the Celestial Emperor coveted me— to the point where he was willing to forgive me for attacking him if I gave myself to him."

"I... I don't know what to say..." Yuan said in a dazed voice, as this was too sudden.

"Even if I want to help you, I don't know how to..."

"It's okay if you don't know. I will give you the instructions," she said.

"I—"

However, before Yuan could even respond, another voice suddenly resounded.

"Don't be fooled by that sly vixen, young man. Everything that comes out of her mouth is nothing but fart— only to seduce naive young men like you so that you would do all of her biddings."

Midway through the sentence, another shadowy figure appeared in their location, and this figure had the shape of a tall and muscular man.

"W-Who are you?" Yuan asked.

"I used to be the Sect Master of the Immortal Monastery, one of the top sects in all of Nine Heavens during the Primordial Era. If you help me leave this place, I will grant you any wish that you may have. Power, status, wealth, women— anything at all."

Chapter 417 - Banished Immortals

Yuan was speechless after this newcomer's arrival.

"Now hold on just a damn minute! Who are you calling a sly vixen? How dare you tarnish my reputation with such an outrageous lie!" The Immortal Fairy said in an angry voice.

She then turned to look at Yuan and continued, "Don't listen to him, young man. Everything I said is the truth. As much as I want to get out of this place, I won't lower myself to such a standard to do so, unlike someone over here."

"Young man, that vixen is known for seducing young men and tossing them aside like trash once she's done with them. I cannot count how many young men she had ruined in the past," said the Sect Master.

And he continued, "Vixen, why don't you tell him your other title besides the Ethereal Immortal Fairy? Or are you scared that it might reveal your true self? Here, let me help you then! Besides Ethereal Immortal Fairy, you're also known as the Deceitful Blood Empress!"

"Wha—?! That stupid title was given to me by those losers I'd rejected! That has nothing to do with me being deceitful!" The Immortal Fairy refuted.

And she continued to defend herself, "As one of the top beauties in the Nine Heavens, it's only natural that I would have countless admirers! However, whenever I would reject someone, they would spread lies to get back at me! Young man, you have to believe me! I am innocent!"

"This man, on the other hand, is known for manipulating people! People also called him Devil Hand Madman back in the Primordial Era! If it's anyone you should be careful about, it's him!"

The Immortal Fairy and the Sect Master began pointing fingers at each other. It was a weird sight to witness for Yuan.

"Umm..." Yuan suddenly interrupted them and asked, "What do you guys plan on doing if you do leave this place? Continue fighting the Celestial Emperor?"

The two of them stopped fighting each other and turned to look at Yuan in silence.

After a moment of silence, they laughed, "Hahaha! Of course, not! We have already lost the war— there's no point in fighting anymore. Furthermore, what can one or two of us do against the Celestial Emperor when an entire army has failed to defeat him? We also don't know what it's like outside, too."

The Sect Master then said, "My plans will mostly depend on what is happening outside and the current situation with the Celestial Emperor. If he's still ruling the Nine Heavens, then I will probably remain lowkey and change my identity. If that bastard is dead, then I will restore my sect and its glory."

"Hmph. Unlike him, I don't have such big ambitions. I am simply so bored of this place that I don't care what I do outside as long as I'm not stuck in this dump." The Immortal Fairy said.

"Hmm..." Yuan was relieved to hear that they didn't want revenge or anything too crazy, as he pitied their situation and wanted to help them.

While they could also be tricking him, he didn't sense any malice coming from them.

"Then can you tell me how I can help you leave this place? I hope you're not going to say something like 'I will need to borrow your body'..." Yuan said to them.

"Hahaha... Borrow your body? We're not ghosts. Although it's possible, it's not very practical, and it's not very convenient for us either." The Immortal Fairy laughed.

"Then how?"

"It's really simple, actually." The Sect Master said, and he continued, "One of us will occupy your treasure until we can recreate our body."

Yuan pondered for a moment and said, "Since it's that easy, why are you guys fighting over who I should help, even trying to bash the other person?"

"Well... Because even though it may sound simple, it actually requires a lot of your soul strength to keep us safe inside the treasure, and it's not possible for someone at your level to help two of us at once. However, the biggest issue is that the treasure we can occupy is limited to Soul Weapons, and people normally can only wield one at a time." The Sect Master said.

"You have a Soul Weapon, right? I saw you use it, hence why I even asked you to help me." The Immortal Fairy said.

"Well... I do have a Soul Weapon... In fact, I have two, so I might be able to help both of you." Yuan said.

"What?! You have two Soul Weapons?!"

They both exclaimed in a surprised voice.

Even during the Primordial Era that gave birth to the most talented geniuses the Nine Heavens has seen to date, it was incredibly rare for someone to wield two Soul Weapons at once.

"Haha! This is great! This means both of us can leave!" The Sect Master shouted in a blissful voice.

"If he has enough soul strength to wield two Soul Weapons, he'll most likely have enough soul strength to help both of us. However, his cultivation is still lacking severely." The Immortal Fairy said.

And she continued, "You must be at least a Spirit Emperor before you can help us."

"Spirit Emperor? That'll take years! And I only have a couple more days in this place before I have to leave!" Yuan said to them.

"It's only a few years. We have been here for countless years. A few more years won't make any difference to us. And you can simply come back to this place in the future." The Immortal Fairy said.

"I'm not sure I will be able to return to this place after I leave, though..."

"Don't worry, the Shadow Realm exists in many places. As long as you continue to explore the Nine Heavens, you'll eventually come back here again. Hopefully, you'll be a Spirit Emperor by then," said the Sect Master.

"So? Will you be willing to help us? We'll definitely repay this debt and more in the future." The Immortal Fairy asked him again.

Chapter 418 - Entering The Treasure Room

'Impossible? Just how difficult is this hidden quest?' Yuan was surprised by the difficulty of the quest.

'Maybe the reason it says impossible is because it's literally impossible for me right now, as I don't have the required cultivation to help them.' Yuan wondered if this was the case.

After a moment of silence, Yuan looked at the two shadowy figures and said, "I don't mind helping you, but I will only do it if you promise me something."

"What is it?" They both asked him simultaneously.

"Promise me that you're not deceiving me so that you can leave this place and cause trouble outside. If you break your promise, I will take full responsibility and do everything in my power to stop you."

As much as he wanted to trust these shadowy figures and believe they are who they say they are, he can never be too careful, and there was no way for him to know whether they are telling the truth or not.

"..."

The two shadowy figures turned to look at each other for a moment before raising their hands, almost like they were swearing an oath.

"I, Yu Ning, with heaven as my witness, swear that I am not deceiving you! If I deceive you, may the heavens shatter my soul into a thousand pieces!" The Immortal Fairy swore in a sincere voice.

"I, Ji Ran, with heaven as my witness, swear that I am not deceiving you! If I deceive you, may the heavens shatter my soul into a thousand pieces!"
The Sect Master swore next.

After their swearing ended, Yuan could feel a profound aura suddenly appear in the atmosphere.

"Are you satisfied, young man? We don't have any ulterior motives, nor are we trying to deceive you. We are only trying to leave this hell that has kept us in the darkness for countless years." Ji Ran, the Sect Master, said to him.

"Now that we made a heavenly oath, if we deceive you, the heavens will directly punish us by shattering our souls into a thousand pieces, and that brings us no merits."

Hearing their sincere voices, Yuan nodded, "Okay, I will help you guys get out of this place when I can."

[You have accepted the Hidden Quest: Banished Immortals!]

"Thank you, young man."

The both of them bowed to him in a respectful manner.

"You can call me Yuan," he nodded.

Sometime later, they arrived before a massive golden temple.

"Is this the treasure room?" Yuan asked the two Immortals who'd decided to linger around.

"Yes, this is the Dragon Treasury." Yu Ning said.

And she continued, "Since the Shadow Realm and this place isn't truly connected, we cannot enter this place, so you'll have to go alone."

Yuan nodded and approached the Dragon Treasury.

"Thank you for bringing me here and preventing the other spirits from bothering me," he said to them.

"It's nothing compared to what you'll be doing for us."

Yuan nodded, "I will try my best to reach Spirit Emperor and return to this place."

"There's no need to rush, Yuan. A few hundred years mean nothing to us here, much less a few years. The most important thing is to keep yourself safe and alive. Everything will be meaningless if you die, and it will also seal our fate." Yu Ning said to him.

"Don't forget about us." Ji Ran said in a joking tone.

Yuan chuckled and said, "Don't worry, I won't forget something this important. I will see you two later."

"The sooner the better." Ji Ran nodded.

Sometime later, Yuan entered the Dragon Treasury whilst the two Immortal spirits lingered around the place for a few more moments before disappearing like smoke.

Once Yuan entered the building through the main door that was already opened, he began descending an extremely long flight of stairs that took at least half an hour of straight walking.

If he had to take a guess, the treasure room was actually dozens of miles underground.

And although there were no windows or sources of light, the place was dimly lit, almost as though there were invisible candles in the place.

Once he reached the bottom, Yuan was greeted by another set of doors.

This time, the doors were actually sealed shut, and there were two dragons engraved on each side of the doors.

Yuan took a deep breath and approached the doors, and he tried to push it open.

However, the doors remained tightly shut.

"How do I enter this place? I should have the key— two of them at that." Yuan mumbled to himself.

It was at this moment one of the dragon engravings suddenly shot out a golden beam from its eyes, landing directly on Yuan's body.

The beam only lasted for a few seconds.

Once it disappeared, the doors suddenly began rumbling, and they slowly opened the next moment.

When the rumbling stopped, Yuan took another deep breath and entered the bright room ahead.

The air inside the room was unnaturally cool, almost like there was an air conditioner inside, and the room was smaller than Yuan had expected.

Inside the treasure room that was only slightly larger than an ordinary store, there were around a dozen display cases placed orderly around the room.

This scenery reminded him of Feng Yuxiang's store before she closed it down.

Yuan immediately walked around the room and looked at the treasures in the display cases.

[Bloody Dragon Spear]

[Grade: Ancient]

[Quality: Peak]

[Physical Strength required: 200,000]

[Description: A powerful spear refined with dragon blood. Increases damage by 500%. Increases weapon penetration by 1,000%.]

"What a powerful treasure..." Yuan subconsciously went to open the display case to take a closer look at the spear.

However, a notification appeared in front of him when he touched the display case.

[Would you like to use 1x Dragon Temple Treasure Key to open the display case?]

"What? Does this mean I can only take one treasure for every key I have?" Yuan mumbled in a dazed voice, feeling lucky that he'd obtained a second key now, as this meant he could obtain an extra treasure in this place.

Chapter 419 - Leaving The Dragon Temple

Once he realized that he could only pick two treasures from the dozen in the treasure room, Yuan proceeded to look at every single treasure carefully before making a decision.

"Oh? This looks like..." Yuan narrowed his eye when he saw a glass bottle that contained a single drop of blood inside.

[Dragon Blood]

[Description: A priceless treasure that will increase one's lifespan by 100,000 years and has the ability to awaken one's bloodline.]

As he'd expected, it was dragon blood. However, Yuan wasn't very excited about this drop of blood that would start a war in the cultivation world if known, and it was mostly because of the Dragon Ancestor's Blood Essence that's already in his possession.

Not only was the Dragon Ancestor's Blood Essence much more powerful than this ordinary blood, but he has also already awakened his bloodline, so unless he really wanted that 100,000 years of longevity on top of the 50,000 longevity he'd obtained from Feng Yuxiang's blood, this dragon blood was essentially useless to him.

Thus, after spending a few seconds on the dragon blood, Yuan moved onto the next treasure, which appeared to be a semi-transparent cloak.

[Invisible Dragon Cloak]

[Grade: Ancient]

[Mental Strength required: 200,000]

[Soul Strength required: 200,000]

[Quality: Peak]

[Description: A powerful cloak that turns completely invisible when worn. Increases base physical defenses by 100%. Negates all physical damage from Cultivators below Spirit King. Deflects all physical damage from treasures below Ancient-grade.]

"Oh, this is a very good treasure... As long as I have this, I don't have to worry about getting hit by physical attacks..." Yuan mumbled to himself, putting this Invisible Dragon Cloak at the top of his list.

The next treasure displayed was a single scale.

[Ancient Dragon Scale]

[Description: A near-indestructible material that can be used to forge or refine Ancient-grade treasures.]

Next in line was a cultivation technique that Yuan was very familiar with.

[Dragon's Gaze]

[Description: A technique created by the 'Great One'. A single gaze will cause Immortals to bow and the Heavens to tremble in fear! Used by Royal Families of the Dragon Race.]

"Dragon's Gaze? I would've probably picked this if I didn't already know it..." Yuan sighed.

The next treasure was also a cultivation technique.

[Relentless Dragon Overwhelms the Nine Heavens]

[Rank: Ancient]

[Description: A single fist to shatter the stars, another to rule the heavens. Consumes half of your overall spiritual energy to unleash a heaven-destroying attack with your fists.]

"What a powerful-sounding technique... Kind of reminds me of Feng Yuxiang's movement technique. It might come in handy when I cannot use my treasures." Yuan mumbled to himself.

He has already encountered multiple situations where he is restricted to using his fists, and he cannot rely on his weapons forever, so getting a fist technique might help him in the future.

The other treasures in the room were weapons and armors, but compared to the Invisible Dragon Cloak, they weren't too impressive, and Yuan wasn't in need of weapons or armors.

"Okay, I have decided. I am going to take the Invisible Dragon Cloak and the Relentless Dragon Overwhelms the Nine Heavens technique!"

[Would you like to use 1x Dragon Temple Treasure Key to open the display case?]

"Yes!"

[A Dragon Temple Treasure Key has been consumed]

After opening the display case that contained the Invisible Dragon Cloak, Yuan immediately wore it on his body like a cape.

Ding!

[Due to the Invisible Dragon Cloak, your Physical Defense has increased by 100%!]

[Physical Defense: 467,420]

The cloak disappeared the moment Yuan wore it, almost like it no longer exists. However, Yuan could still feel its presence as the owner of the treasure.

After wearing the cloak, Yuan went to open the second display case.

[Would you like to use 1x Dragon Temple Treasure Key to open the display case?]

"Yes!"

[A Dragon Temple Treasure Key has been consumed]

Yuan picked up the scroll that had been sitting inside the display case for god-knows-how-long and immediately stored it inside his spatial ring.

"What should I do now? I reached the limit of trials I can do, I have received the Great One's Legacy, and I even went to the treasure room. There's literally nothing left for me to do in here, and I still have a couple of days left in this place. Can I leave this place before the time limit?"

Yuan was already prepared to leave the Dragon Temple, but he wasn't too hasty and wanted to make sure that he wasn't missing anything in the treasure room.

Thus, he began looking around the place again, searching every nook and cranny with the Dragon's Gaze activated.

When he was satisfied, Yuan shouted out loud, "Great One! Can you hear me?! I would like to leave the Dragon Temple!"

A few moments of silence later, a profound voice suddenly resounded in the treasure room.

"Are you sure? Once you leave, you won't be able to return."

"Yes, I am sure. I have already done everything here." Yuan said.

"Everything, huh?"

A greyish cloud suddenly appeared in the air a few meters away from Yuan before transforming into an eye.

"So you have received my Legacy." The Great One could immediately tell at glance.

"And you even reached the treasure room that hasn't been opened since I created this place... Not bad... but not unexpected."

"I can take you outside if you wish, but before you leave, tell me one thing." The Great One said.

And it continued, "What do you plan on doing after you leave this place?"

"I don't really know. I guess I'll explore the Lower Heavens some more with my friends before I decide to challenge the Stairway to Heaven."

"I see..."

The Great One didn't say anything else, and its eye suddenly flickered with a profound light.

"Eh?"

Before he'd even realized, Yuan had been teleported outside the Dragon Temple, returning to the Dragon Fissure at the Dragon Essence Temple.

"Disciple Yuan?"

A surprised voice called out to him, causing him to turn around, and when he realized her identity, he mumbled in a low voice, "Senior Song?"

Chapter 420 - Heavenly War Of Immortals And Gods

"W-Where did you come from? You startled me for a second there." Song Ling'er said to him in a dazed voice.

And she continued, "What happened to the Dragon Temple? You're out earlier than I'd expected."

"I finished it earlier than I had expected as well." Yuan nodded.

"Well, this makes things much easier for me, anyway." Song Ling'er proceeded to store the zither into her storage ring.

And she continued afterward, "You should know why I'm here, so I won't beat around the bush. I'm here to recruit you to the Heavenly Melody Academy. Join my sect."

"I'm sorry, but I cannot join your sect." Yuan immediately refused her offer.

Song Ling'er wasn't surprised by his response. In fact, she had expected it.

After taking a deep breath, she asked him, "What do I have to do in order for you to join my sect?"

"I'm sorry, but I don't intend on joining another sect while I am in the Lower Heavens, and I plan on leaving this place in the near future," Yuan said.

Song Ling'er sighed after hearing his words, and she said afterward, "I understand—"

However, she suddenly stopped in the middle of her speech, and she narrowed her eyes at him.

"Y-You... Why are you emitting the aura of a Spirit Grandmaster?" Song Ling'er suddenly realized this fact that even Long Yijun and the others had missed because they were unable to detect Yuan's cultivation base, who was a Spirit Grandmaster, whilst being a Spirit Master unless they really focused on him.

"I am currently at the 3rd level Spirit Grandmaster," Yuan revealed his cultivation base in a casual voice, making it sound like it was normal for a young man like him to be a Spirit Grandmaster.

"T-Third level Spirit Grandmaster?! That's two whole levels higher than mine!" Song Ling'er exclaimed.

"Did the Mystic Realm affect your cultivation that much? You were only a first level Spirit Master before you entered!"

Yuan nodded, "Yes, a lot of things happened while I was inside, and my cultivation benefited a lot from it."

"Good heavens... And to think you were only a Spirit Warrior during the zither competition. At this rate, you'll reach Spirit Lord by next month..." Song Ling'er said, feeling all of her motivation to recruit him shattering into a thousand pieces.

After all, who in their right mind would be shameless enough to ask a Spirit Grandmaster to become a disciple?

If Yuan joins the Heavenly Melody Academy, he wouldn't be joining as a disciple but as the Sect Master instead!

"Young Master! You're out already?" The door to the building a few meters from them suddenly opened, and Feng Yuxiang and the others could be seen walking out of the building a moment later.

"Yuan? I thought you had an entire week inside. Did something happen?" Meixiu asked him.

Yuan shook his head and said, "No, I have accomplished everything I could inside, and it would simply be a waste of time if I continued to stay inside when there's nothing else to do, so I decided to leave early."

"Does this mean you'll be leaving the Dragon Essence Temple now?" Xiao Hua asked him.

Yuan nodded, "Yes, but I cannot just leave without saying anything. I still have to let the Sect Master and the others know."

"Wait... You're leaving the Dragon Essence Temple already?" Song Ling'er asked him in a dumbfounded voice.

"Yes."

"What are you going to do after you leave?"

"I'm going to explore the Lower Heavens some more with my friends before I ascend," he said.

"..."

After a moment of silence, Song Ling'er sighed, "Fine... I give up trying to recruit you."

And she continued, "However, I have another offer for you now."

"Before you leave the Lower Heavens, can you visit the Heavenly Melody Academy at least once?"

"That I can do." Yuan quickly accepted her offer.

"I am also interested in what a sect that's focused on music is like."

"Great! Let me know before you arrive so I can prepare for it." Song Ling'er reached into her robes and retrieved a jade slip before handing it to

Yuan.

"This is my communication jade slip. You can contact me for other things if you wish." Song Ling'er said.

"Okay. I will definitely visit the Heavenly Melody Academy once before I leave." Yuan nodded.

"It's a promise. Then I will see you then." Song Ling'er said before flying away.

After Song Ling'er left the scene, Feng Yuxiang turned to look at Yuan and asked him, "Did you obtain anything good in the Dragon Temple?"

Yuan nodded, "I will tell you all about it, but let's sit down first."

They proceeded to enter the building Long Yijun left behind.

Once they were all seated, Yuan began recalling his experience in the Dragon Temple.

Although they were surprised about the priceless treasures he'd obtained, they were more shocked about the Shadow Realm and the banished Immortals within.

"Immortals from the Primordial Era... That's a really long time ago, and I mean really, really long ago." Feng Yuxiang said.

"How long are we talking about? A few hundred thousand years?" Yuan asked.

Feng Yuxiang chuckled and said, "More like a few hundred million years ago."

"What?! That long?!" Yuan was greatly shocked to learn this.

Does this mean the banished Immortals had been living in that hell for at least a few hundred million years? His pity for them grew even more.

"As for what they said regarding the Celestial Emperor... Indeed, that has happened in the past. It was called the Heavenly War of Immortals and Gods, and it was one of the first large-scale wars to happen in the Nine Heavens. Tens of thousands of Immortals and many Gods perished during that war. Though, I don't know much about it besides what I just said since it'd happened really long ago." Feng Yuxiang said.

"As for whether they can be trusted or not... I really can't tell you that since I don't know either of them. Ethereal Immortal Fairy and the Sect Master of the Immortal Monastery... I have never heard of them before, but if you go to the upper heavens, you might find more information about them."

Chapter 421 - Announcing His Departure

After recalling his experience to them, Yuan showed off his newly acquired treasure.

"What? You had that on you the entire time? I didn't even notice it!" Feng Yuxiang was surprised when Yuan suddenly removed the Invisible Dragon Cloak from his body, allowing the others to see it.

"An Ancient-grade treasure... As expected of the Great One... He's known for having the biggest collection of treasures in the Nine Heavens." Feng Yuxiang sighed in admiration, as she has heard of countless legends about the Great One in the upper heavens.

Sometime later, Yuan said, "Okay, I am going to speak with the Sect Master now regarding my departure."

After the others returned to his body, Yuan and Meixiu returned to the Dragon Essence Temple.

"Sect Master, are you there?" Yuan knocked on the Sect Master's headquarters.

"Disciple Yuan? I'm a little busy right now, but you can enter. I'll be with you after I'm done here." Long Yijun's voice resounded a moment later.

Yuan proceeded to open the door and enter the building, and to his surprise, there were many people gathered inside at this moment.

Elder Xuan and Elder Shang were also there alongside four unfamiliar faces.

However, it was clear to Yuan at a glance that the atmosphere was an unpleasant one.

"That's Disciple Yuan? The person who opened the Mystic Pagoda and refused to ascend with Senior Nie?"

One of the people Yuan didn't recognize mumbled in a surprised voice.

"Disciple Yuan, you can take a seat over there for now. This won't take long." Long Yijun said to them.

And then he returned to the four individuals and said, "Anyways, back to our topic. I am willing to return the Divine-grade treasures you'd lost to our Dragon Essence Temple during the bet, but it won't be for free."

"100,000 spirit stones. That is the amount I am willing to sell it for— no more, no less."

"100,000 spirit stones?! Are you out of your damn mind, Long Yijun?! That's one billion gold! Even Divine-grade treasures aren't worth that much!" One of the guests there said.

"That's right! The last time a Divine-grade treasure was sold, it was sold for around 600 million gold!" Another one said.

"While that is true, it is also true that these Divine-grade treasures are of the peak quality and an inheritance treasure for your sects. Surely, they must be worth more than an ordinary Divine-grade treasure sold in an auction house... Am I right?" Long Yijun said to them, refusing to lower the cost.

If he manages to sell these four Divine-grade treasures for 400,000 spirit stones, that would supply their sect for many years to come.

"You...!"

The four Sect Masters was speechless. As much as they wanted to refute Long Yijun's claims, they weren't in the position. After all, they must reclaim their sects' treasure at all cost, or their ancestors might curse them from their graves.

"Look, I am not the one standing between you and your treasure— you are. If you just hand over 100,000 spirit stones, I would be more than happy to return your treasures that I'd rightfully won." Long Yijun continued to speak.

"In fact, there are many people who are eyeing these treasures at this moment, and they'd be more than willing to pay 100,000 spirit stones for them. I am giving you guys the opportunity to reclaim them first since I am a kind man. If you don't want them, I will have no choice but to sell them to other people."

When the four Sect Masters heard Long Yijun's shameless words, they nearly coughed up a mouthful of blood from anger. However, they managed to refrain themselves from doing so, and after a long moment of silence, one of them said, "Fine! I will pay 100,000 spirit stones! Give me three days to prepare the money!"

Once one of them surrendered, the others began surrendering as well, as they didn't want to risk Long Yijun selling their treasures to other sects, something they were certain he was shameless enough to do.

"Thank you all for your business!"

The four Sect Masters left the place shortly after whilst Long Yijun kept a wide smile on his face even after they left.

"Hahaha! A bunch of idiots!" Long Yijun laughed out loud after they left.

He then turned to look at Yuan and said, "You're out earlier than I'd expected. Did something happen?"

He repeated what Meixiu said not long ago.

"Nothing happened. I just finished faster than anticipated. That's all," he said.

"If that's the case, then I hope you have obtained some good treasures whilst inside. Of course, you don't have to tell me anything." Long Yijun said to him.

"Anyways, do you have anything else for me?"

Yuan nodded and said, "I'm here to announce my departure from the Dragon Essence Temple."

"Eh?"

Everyone in the room looked at him with widened eyes, their expressions filled with surprise.

"Y-You're going to leave the sect? Why? Did we do something wrong? Or did someone offend you again?" Elder Shang was the first to snap out of her daze and asked him.

Yuan shook his head and said, "No, the sect didn't do anything wrong. It's just that I think I have experienced enough of what it's like to be a disciple, and that it's about time I leave."

After a moment of silence, Long Yijun sighed, "I see... So it's that time, huh? I knew you wouldn't stay in the sect for long, but to think that day would come so soon."

"Of course, I won't even try to convince you to stay. As much as I want you to stay here, we are well aware that you don't belong to this place. It's simply too small for someone like you. I'm glad you decided to leave after the Mystic Realm. What do you plan on doing after you leave?"

Long Yijun gave up rather quickly and asked him.

Chapter 422 - Watching Yuan Cultivate

"I plan on exploring the Lower Heavens some more with my friends before I challenge the Stairway to Heaven," said Yuan after Long Yijun asked for his plans.

"The Stairway to Heaven, huh... Well, there's no doubt that you would be able to overcome this challenge that over 99 percent can't surpass." Long Yijun nodded.

And he continued, "When do you plan on leaving?"

"I would like to say goodbye to a few people before I leave, but I should leave within the next few days," Yuan said.

"I understand." Long Yijun said.

"If you need anything from us, just let us know. Although you may be leaving, your contribution to the sect is worth more than what every single disciple has contributed in the last hundred years combined."

Yuan nodded, and he left with Meixiu shortly after.

Once Yuan left the scene, Long Yijun sat down and sighed, "The Dragon Essence Temple won't feel the same without him even though he only recently joined the sect."

"At least he's not leaving our sect to join another sect, as that would be devastating." Elder Shan said.

"I'm honestly surprised that he lasted this long, especially with how the others have treated him. If I was him, I would've probably left a long time ago." Elder Xuan said.

"Are we going to tell the disciples?" Elder Shan suddenly asked.

After all, if someone like Yuan suddenly disappeared from the sect, the disciples would question it, as Yuan was someone who'd obtained the Obsidian Dragon Medallion.

"There's no need for them to know, as that would undoubtedly reach the ears of our competitions. If they know Yuan is gone, who knows what they'll do." Long Yijun said.

"But they will find out eventually." Elder Xuan said.

"Someone as famous as Disciple Yuan, even if nobody knows his real identity or face, they will sooner or later realize that he's missing from the sect. What are we going to do then?" Elder Shan asked.

"I am well aware that we cannot keep this a secret forever. However, the longer we keep this a secret, the more time we have to prepare for whatever comes at us."

"That makes sense." Elder Shan agreed.

"Let the other high-ranking sect elders know of Disciple Yuan's departure. The disciples may not need to know, but it's better if the others in the circle knew about it."

"Okay."

Meanwhile, after Yuan left the Sect Master's headquarters, he returned to his own living quarters, but he didn't go inside.

Instead, he went to knock on Disciple Min's door.

"Disciple Yuan? You've finished already?" Min Li was pleasantly surprised to see him so quickly, as she was prepared to wait at least a few weeks before speaking with him again.

Yuan nodded and said, "I am also here to announce that I will be leaving the Dragon Essence Temple soon— probably within the next few days."

"I see..." Min Li wasn't surprised when she heard that he was leaving, as he'd already shared this with her before he entered the Dragon Temple.

"What should I do now? Do you want me to leave the sect as well?" Min Li asked him.

"No, you don't need to do that." Yuan shook his head and said, "You can stay in the Dragon Essence Temple and continue to train yourself. Once it's time for me to challenge the Stairway to Heaven, I will return to take you with me."

"You promise?" Min Li said with a slightly worried frown on her face, as she was worried that Yuan might forget about her or even worse, abandon her, and her life's basically in his hands now due to her situation.

"I promise," Yuan said in a sincere voice.

"Okay, I will trust you." Min Li nodded.

Sometime later, Yuan logged off the game with Meixiu.

After dinner, Yuan began cultivating for the night.

"Yuan, I am curious. What does cultivating in the real world look like? Do you think I can watch you cultivate a little tonight?" Meixiu suddenly asked him.

"Okay. I don't mind." Yuan said. Now that they know about his cultivation in the real world, there was no reason for him to keep hiding it.

Thus, Meixiu went to Yuan's room and waited for him to cultivate.

After taking a deep breath, Yuan began circulating his Dantian and absorbing the spiritual energy in the air.

"This is... cultivation?"

Meixiu was speechless when a small gust of wind suddenly picked up in the room despite the closed windows, and the wind appeared to be gathering around the bed Yuan was sleeping on.

Furthermore, there appeared to be a subtle glow around Yuan's body that would grow brighter as he continued to cultivate longer.

Sometime later, once she'd seen enough, Meixiu returned to her own room to sleep, yet she couldn't stop thinking about Yuan cultivating, as it was so mythical.

The following morning, after breakfast, Yuan and Meixiu entered Cultivation Online together.

"I'm going to say goodbye to Disciple Xuan and Disciple Fei today," Yuan said to Min Li when he saw her looking at him from the window.

Min Li nodded and didn't say anything else.

Yuan decided to go see Fei Yuyan first, and on his way to Fei Yuyan's living quarters, every disciple in the sect would either greet him from afar or approach him and greet him.

"Good morning, Senior apprentice-brother Yuan."

"Good morning, Senior Disciple Yuan."

By now, every single disciple in the sect knew about the unrivaled genius known as Disciple Yuan and his unique appearance, as Yuan would always wear a mask wherever he went.

In fact, besides a few people, nobody knew what Yuan looked like behind his mask. Although they were certainly curious, nobody actually dared to ask him to remove his mask, as they feared that it might offend him.

Once he reached the border separating the Outer Court and the Inner Court, the sect elder guarding the entrance allowed Yuan to enter the Inner Court without any problems, and Yuan continued to make his way to Fei Yuyan's living quarters.

Chapter 423 - I Can Take You With Me

Knock Knock

Yuan knocked on Fei Yuyan's door after arriving at her doorsteps.

A few moments later, Fei Yuyan opened the door slightly just enough for Yuan to see one of her eyes through the thin crack.

"Disciple Yuan?"

Once Fei Yuyan noticed who it was, she opened the door wider, and Yuan could see her wearing a towel, looking like she'd just gotten out of the bath, her hair still wet.

If it was anyone else, Fei Yuyan wouldn't have revealed such an enticing sight, but since it was Yuan, she wanted to act a little bold.

"Umm... I can wait until you're prepared." Yuan said.

"I-It's okay. Come inside." Fei Yuyan said with a slightly rosy face.

It was at this moment Fei Yuyan noticed Meixiu following behind him.

"Who is she?" Fei Yuyan asked, as this was their first meeting.

"This is my friend, Meixiu." Yuan gave a quick introduction.

"I-I see..." Fei Yuyan nodded.

'What a beauty... I wonder if they're anything more than just friends...' Fei Yuyan wondered inwardly.

Once they were inside, Yuan sat on the couch whilst Fei Yuyan sat on the opposite side.

Of course, she was still in nothing but her towel, and her bare slender legs were in full view.

Meixiu was speechless. Either female disciples in the cultivation world are usually this bold or this Fei Yuyan is very special.

"Have you been practicing the Divine-grade zither technique?" Yuan asked her once he sat down.

Fei Yuyan nodded, "Yes, I have been practicing it every day since I obtained it."

"Oh, right. I never got to thank you for giving me the technique. Thank you, Disciple Yuan."

"You don't have to thank me. On the other hand, I'm sorry I wasn't able to hand it to you personally. I tried looking for you, but you were in closed cultivation according to Elder Shan."

"Anyways, let's get to the main reason I'm here today. I'm here to say goodbye."

"Eh?" Fei Yuyan's face immediately froze after hearing his words.

At first, she was puzzled, then she was shocked.

"G-Goodbye? Are you going somewhere?" Fei Yuyan asked him in a trembling voice.

Yuan nodded and said, "I am going to leave the Dragon Essence Temple soon."

"What?! That's too sudden!"

Fei Yuyan suddenly stood up from her seat, and because of how fast she stood up, the towel covering her body came loose and dropped onto the ground before she could even react.

"..."

Yuan's eyes widened as he stared at Fei Yuyan's seemingly peerless naked body that was directly in front of his face.

"Ahem!"

Meixiu suddenly lifted her arm and blocked Yuan's view.

"Ahh!"

It was at this moment Fei Yuyan finally realized that she was naked and reacted, and she quickly went to pick up the towel to cover herself again, but it was already too late, as Yuan had seen everything.

"I-I'm sorry! I will be right back!"

Fei Yuyan then rushed to her room to wear her clothes.

A few minutes later, Fei Yuyan returned to the living room, but her face was still as red as a tomato.

"Are you okay?" Yuan asked her in a perfectly calm manner.

"Y-Yeah... I'm sorry you had to see such a sight..." Fei Yuyan responded in a mosquito-like voice.

"A-Anyways, you're going to leave the sect soon, right? Can I ask why?" She quickly changed the subject.

Yuan nodded and said, "I don't really have a particular reason. It's just that I think I have enough experience."

"Experience?"

"Yes. I joined the Dragon Essence Temple for experience since I wanted to know what it was like to be a disciple. I never intended to stay very long, either."

"Can I ask what you're going to do afterward?"

"I am going to explore the Lower Heavens some more with my friends before I ascend through the Stairway to Heaven."

"Stairway to Heaven... You're really different from the rest of us. I cannot even imagine challenging it, yet you're already going to challenge it soon." Fei Yuyan sighed.

She then looked up at the ceiling and sighed, "Spirit Heaven, huh? To be completely honest, I also want to ascend, but with my talents, I know it's not going to happen."

"If you want, I can take you with me." Yuan suddenly suggested.

"What?" Fei Yuyan looked at him with wide eyes.

"I will be bringing Disciple Min with me when I challenge the Stairway to Heaven, and it won't make much of a difference if I take you with me as well... I think..." Yuan said.

"I... I don't know what to say, really..." Fei Yuyan mumbled in a dazed voice.

"You don't have to make a decision now. I will ask you again when I return to pick up Disciple Min." Yuan said.

"Okay..." Fei Yuyan nodded with a serious look on her face.

Sometime later, after speaking some more with Fei Yuyan, Yuan left her place and headed to Xuan Wuhan's living quarters.

"He... He saw me naked... What a blunder!" Fei Yuyan laid on the couch in a dazed manner for many minutes even after Yuan left her place.

After leaving Fei Yuyan's place, Yuan realized that he's never been to Xuan Wuhan's living quarters.

Thus, he contacted Elder Xuan to ask for directions.

"Thank you, Senior Xuan."

Once he knew where to go, Yuan went directly to Xuan Wuhan's living quarters.

However, on his way to Xuan Wuhan's place, Yuan stopped his tracks when an unfamiliar face suddenly walked in front of him and blocked his path.

"You're Disciple Yuan, right?" This handsome young man asked him.

"Yes, but who are you?" Yuan asked.

"Name's Gu Tan from one of the Seven Legacy Families— the Gu Family, and I am here to recruit you to the Gu Family." This young man introduced himself.

And because of his impression of the Min Family, Yuan immediately frowned after hearing that he was from one of the Seven Legacy Families.

"Sorry, but I am going to have to refuse." Yuan immediately rejected the Gu Family's invitation, leaving Gu Tan speechless.

Chapter 424 - A Small Favor

"W-Wait... Let's not be so hasty. You haven't even given me a chance to explain the benefits..." Gu Tan immediately began panicking, as he didn't expect to be rejected so quickly.

"I don't need to hear the benefits because I won't join the Gu Family no matter what you offer me. Sorry." Yuan rejected him once again, this time being more stern, even a little brutal.

Gu Tan began sweating profusely after hearing this, and he asked, "C-Can I at least ask why you're refusing us? Did you already join another family?"

"No. I just don't want to join any families, especially the Seven Legacy Families." Yuan answered.

Gu Tan wondered if one of the Seven Legacy Families had offended him.

"I-It seems like something has happened between one of the Seven Legacy Families and you, but I can promise you that our Gu Family is different." Gu Tan tried a different approach.

However, Yuan still shook his head and said, "Don't bother. I won't join."

And without waiting for Gu Tan to respond, Yuan walked around him and continued his journey to Xuan Wuhan's living quarters.

Of course, Gu Tan wasn't willing to give up so easily, as his parents had assigned him to recruit Yuan with his head on the line.

Thus, he proceeded to follow Yuan and continue to try and recruit him.

"What do you desire, Disciple Yuan? Do you want wealth? Fame? Power? The Gu Family will do everything in their power to fulfill your dreams. If needed, we'll even get the Gu Family from the Spirit Heaven to help."

"I desire for you to leave me alone now. If you cannot do even such a simple thing, what makes you think you can help me with the other stuff?" Yuan said to him.

Gu Tan was speechless, and he immediately stopped following Yuan after hearing his response.

'Looks like I will have to give up for now and ask him again later. Maybe he's just in a bad mood.' Gu Tan tried to soothe himself.

About ten minutes after Gu Tan left Yuan alone, another individual blocked his path.

This time, it was a pretty young lady around Min Li's age.

"Hello, are you Disciple Yuan?" The young lady greeted him with a beautiful smile on her face.

"I am. How can I help you?"

"I'm Xue Yixin, and I was wondering if you have some time to spare so we can talk." This young lady spoke with an enchanting expression on her face.

"What do you want to talk about? I'm busy right now, so we'll have to do it later."

"Are you sure you can't delay it for me? It won't take long... Or it can take as long as you want it to..." This young lady then slightly lowered her body whilst spreading the clothes around her neck, revealing two large peaks without showing everything.

Meixiu frowned when she saw this, and she quickly grabbed Yuan's arm before pulling him away.

"Let's go, Yuan. This girl is a dangerous one," she said to him.

When Xue Yixin saw this, she quickly chased after them and said, "W-Wait! I'm not someone suspicious! I'm from the Xue Family, one of the Seven Legacy Families!"

Xue Yixin hoped that her background would change the situation, but to her surprise, it only made the situation worse.

"Sorry, but if you're here to recruit me to the Xue Family, I will have to decline. I have already refused to join the Gu Family a few minutes ago. My decision won't change now even if you're from a different family." Yuan stopped for a moment to reject her before walking again.

"Uhh..."

The young lady was speechless, and she stood there like a statue with a dazed expression on her face.

Sometime later, Yuan finally arrived at Xuan Wuhan's living quarters.

Knock Knock

Yuan patiently waited for Xuan Wuhan to appear after knocking on the doors.

A few moments later, the door opened.

"Hello, Yuan." Xuan Wuhan greeted him, yet something felt off about it.

It was like she had been expecting him.

And just as he'd suspected, Xuan Wuhan said, "I have been expecting you. You're here to say goodbye, right?"

Yuan nodded in a slightly dazed manner.

"My grandfather told me about it yesterday," she continued, explaining to him how she found out.

"Oh, I see..."

"Although you may be leaving soon, I am still glad that you decided to join. Your contribution to the sect has far exceeded my expectations. Thank you, Yuan." Xuan Wuhan said with a beautiful smile on her face.

"I should be thanking you. It was because of your suggestion that I decided to join. If not for you, I would've probably never entered the Dragon Essence Temple or experienced all of the things I had experienced while in the sect. Therefore, thank you. If you need anything, just let me know!"

"If you want to thank me, I have an idea." Xuan Wuhan suddenly chuckled.

"What is it?"

"Before I respond, can I ask you a question?"

Yuan nodded.

Xuan Wuhan then turned to look at Meixiu who was standing behind him.

"Is she your girlfriend?" she asked, taking Meixiu by surprise.

"N-No... I am not..." Meixiu quickly responded.

"I see, then I guess it's fine." Xuan Wuhan mumbled in a low voice before turning to look at Yuan.

"Can you do me a small favor by closing your eyes for a moment?"

Yuan nodded and closed his eyes without any questions.

The next moment, Xuan Wuhan took a step forward with her hands reaching for Yuan's mask.

Once Xuan Wuhan got ahold of the mask, she removed it slightly before approaching his revealed face with her lips, kissing him on the cheeks a second later.

"Eh?"

Yuan opened his eyes when he suddenly felt a soft sensation pressing against the left side of his cheeks, but by the time his eyes opened, Xuan Wuhan had already removed her lips and stepped back with a rosy complexion on her face.

"Goodbye, Yuan. This is the best I can do for now, but if you come back later, I might be prepared to do a little more by then." Xuan Wuhan said with an embarrassed yet bright smile on her face before running back inside the building and slamming the door shut, leaving Yuan and Meixiu speechless.

Chapter 425 - Core Disciple

After Xuan Wuhan kissed him on the cheeks and went back inside her house, Yuan touched the spot she kissed with a dazed look on his face, the sensation of her soft lips still lingering on his cheeks.

"What was that about?" He mumbled in a low voice.

'The girls in the cultivation world... They are truly bold...' Meixiu sighed inwardly.

If she had such boldness, what would her situation be like right now?

After standing in front of Xuan Wuhan's living quarters for a couple of moments, Yuan and Meixiu left the scene.

"Are you sure about this decision?"

Inside Xuan Wuhan's living quarters, Elder Xuan sat on the couch with a cup of tea in his hands.

A bittersweet smile appeared on Xuan Wuhan's face, and she said, "I am satisfied with just that. I know my limits. He and I... we live in two separate worlds. There's no way I am worthy to follow him."

"You're thinking too much. It's not about your worth, but whether he'll accept you or not, and if you don't ask him, how will he know, much less accept you?"

"I-I think I was pretty obvious with my actions just now..." Xuan Wuhan said in a dumbfounded voice.

"Haha... You underestimate him, Wuhan. Yuan... He's a special fellow who's also quite naive and innocent. He probably won't understand the meaning behind your actions unless you tell him straight."

Xuan Wuhan sighed, "It is what is it... I have already said my goodbyes. Even I don't have the guts to approach him after what happened just now. I will need at least a few months to recover."

"Do whatever you want, I guess..." Elder Xuan said to her, and after finishing his tea, he left her place.

Meanwhile, Yuan went to find Elder Shan at the Blossom Peak.

Once they arrived, Yuan noticed Elder Shan giving lectures to her disciple right outside her living quarters just like his last visit.

"I'm sorry to disturb your lecture again, Senior Shan." Yuan approached them.

"That is..."

This time, Elder Shan's disciples looked at Yuan in a different light, almost like they were filled with admiration.

"Disciple Yuan? Do you need anything from me? And you don't have to worry about disturbing us. I'm not really lecturing them," she said to him.

Yuan then said, "I know you already know this, but I want to say goodbye formally."

"Thank you for everything, Elder Shan." Yuan lowered his head a little to pay his respects.

"W-Why are you thanking me? I barely taught you anything. In fact, I should be the one thanking you..." Elder Shan was taken aback.

"That's not true, Senior Shan. I have learned a lot from you, and it's always a pleasant feeling with you around."

Elder Shan couldn't help but smile after hearing Yuan's words, and she spoke in an enchanting voice, "Are you trying to court me before you leave? It's working pretty well. But alas, if only I was a little younger."

"Eh?" Yuan was puzzled by her words. What did she mean by 'courting' her?

"Good luck out there, Yuan, and most importantly, stay safe." Elder Shan said to him.

Yuan nodded. "I will."

"Before you go."

Elder Shan suddenly stepped forward with her arms spread.

The next second, she embraced Yuan tightly.

After a few moments of physical contact, Elder Shan released him and stepped back.

"I hope to see you at least one more time before you leave for the Spirit Heaven," she said.

"I will definitely return before I leave," Yuan said.

"It's a promise."

Sometime later, Yuan left the Blossom Peak with Meixiu.

"Master... what was that about? Why did he make it seem like he'll be leaving the sect?" One of her disciples asked.

"Because he is leaving the sect." Elder Shan said.

And she quickly followed up with, "Keep this a secret, though. If I hear that you've opened your mouth about this matter to others, I will disown you as my disciple."

"I-I understand, Master. I won't tell a single soul!"

They all swore with nervous looks on their faces.

Elder Shan then turned to look at Yuan's disappearing figure in the distance.

'If only I had met you earlier...' she sighed inwardly.

After leaving the Blossom Peak, Yuan went to look for Elder Xuan.

"Here to say goodbye?" Elder Xuan greeted him with a smile at the door.

"Yes. I want to thank you for everything you've done for me." Yuan said to him.

"Hahaha... I've only brought you to places, and it was my job. You don't have to thank me."

Yuan and Elder Xuan proceeded to spend a few minutes chatting with each other.

"I would give you a farewell gift, but I really don't know what to give you, as anything I give you would become obsolete or worthless very quickly knowing your insane talents and progress, especially once you go to the Spirit Heavens."

"You don't need to give me anything. I have already received enough from you and everyone else in this sect."

"Okay. Then good luck out there and achieve great things. I'm sure I will still hear your name even after you leave." Elder Xuan said.

Sometime later, Yuan went to visit the other high-ranking sect elders despite spending very little time with them.

In the end, Yuan returned to the Sect Master's headquarters.

"Enter."

Long Yijun's voice resounded after Yuan knocked on the door.

"Sect Master, I'm here to say my goodbyes and to hand in my disciple uniform."

Yuan said as he held his Inner Court uniform in his hands.

Long Yijun looked at the uniform for a moment before speaking with a smile on his face, "Keep it."

"Normally, a disciple would have to hand in their uniform once they leave the sect, but I want you to keep it. In fact, I have even prepared the Core Disciple's uniform for you, as I will be promoting you to Core Disciple as of this moment."

Long Yijun said as he retrieved a set of uniforms meant for Core Disciples and placed it on the table before him.

"This is..." Yuan was at loss for words.

Chapter 426 - Leaving The Dragon Essence Temple

"I wish you the best of luck outside in the real cultivation world, Disciple Yuan... Even though you probably won't need it." Long Yijun said to him with a smile.

"Thank you, Sect Master." Yuan accepted the Core Disciple's uniform before storing it inside the Dragon Spatial Ring alongside his Inner Court Disciple's uniform.

Sometime later, Yuan left the place and proceeded to make his way towards the gates of the sect. Although he could simply fly away, he wanted to leave this place properly.

The moment Yuan left the Dragon Essence Temple, Xiao Hua appeared from her necklace, and she said, "Now that Brother Yuan is finally finished with this place, Xiao Hua can stop hiding as well."

"How was your experience, Brother Yuan?" Xiao Hua asked him.

After all, the only reason she hid inside the necklace this entire time was to give Yuan some independence whilst he experienced the life of a disciple in a sect.

"It was great. I have learned a lot of things about cultivators and the cultivation world in general. Though, I could've probably remained a disciple there for a little longer."

However, Xiao Hua shook her head and said, "Once Brother Yuan reached the top of the ranks in the sect, there is no longer any point for you to stay there. It's just how sects work in general."

Yuan looked at her and asked, "Xiao Hua, have you been in a sect before?"

After a moment of silence, she nodded.

"What was it like over there? How is it compared to the Dragon Essence Temple?"

"Compared to the Dragon Essence Temple?"

A slight smile appeared on her face as she said, "The Dragon Essence Temple is like a playground for children in comparison."

"Eh? What do you mean by that?" Yuan raised his eyebrows in a puzzled manner, as there could be many meanings behind her words.

"The Dragon Essence Temple is a lawful and a peaceful place. Although there are some troublemakers, it's not unreasonable or cruel. However, the sect Xiao Hua has experienced before is the complete opposite, and there is only one rule—the strong is always right."

Yuan was speechless. Just what kind of sect is she talking about? And how come she had to go to such a place at such a young age?

Yuan wanted to ask her about her background, but he didn't want to intrude on her privacy. Furthermore, he'd already said that he would patiently wait until she willingly told him herself.

"What are we going to do now, Young Master?" Feng Yuxiang's voice suddenly resounded as she appeared in front of him.

"We're going to find Meixiu a cultivation technique now."

"Where are we going to look for a cultivation technique? It's not easy finding a good cultivation technique, and the ones you can find easily are generally low-rank cultivation techniques that aren't much better than the Basic Qi Gathering Technique." Feng Yuxiang said.

"Maybe we can look around auction houses to see if we can find one there — actually, I know where we can go."

"Where?"

"The Myriad of Techniques. It's also where I obtained the Demon Sealing Strike and Yu Rou's technique. I think we'll be able to find a good cultivation technique for Meixiu if we go there."

"The Myriad of Techniques, huh? I have always heard good things about them even in the upper heavens." Feng Yuxiang suddenly said.

"Eh? Wait a second... They exist in the upper heaven as well?" Yuan said in a surprised voice.

Feng Yuxiang nodded and said, "The Myriad of Techniques is a special shop that exists in many cities across the Nine Heavens, and rumor has it they're all owned by a single person. However, nobody really knows the identity of that person, as they have never seen him or her before."

"I see..."

Sometime later, Yuan said, "Then let's go to Spring City, where the store is."

"Spring City? Why do we have to go to Spring City?" Feng Yuxiang raised her eyebrows.

"Eh? Because that's where the Myriad of Techniques is?"

"But there's one even closer. It's in Long Chen City."

"Oh, really? I didn't know that, nor did we see it when we went there last time." Yuan said.

"Then let's go to Long Chen City."

Thus, Yuan proceeded to soar in the sky with the others whilst Feng Yuxiang carried Meixiu.

"Xiao Hua, I have always wanted to fly beside you without needing the flying sword ever since we flew together. I didn't think I'd get the chance to do so this quickly." Yuan said to her as they flew towards Long Chen City.

"Xiao Hua didn't expect Brother Yuan to grow so fast either," she nodded.

Yuan suddenly retrieved his flying sword and began flying on it instead.

"I think I still like flying on a sword better. It has a different feeling to it that flying normally doesn't." Yuan said.

Once they arrived at Long Chen City a few minutes later, they entered the city and began looking for the store.

After asking around, they found the Myriad of Techniques somewhat hidden in a narrow path in the middle of the city.

"Myriad of Techniques..." Xiao Hua looked at the storefront with a slight frown on her face, as she could still remember their last visit to this place and that powerful girl who greeted them at the door.

A few moments later, Yuan opened the door and entered the store.

"Welcome to Myriad of Techniques—"

A beautiful girl with a familiar face greeted them but stopped halfway through her sentence.

"Hm? You're that little Spirit King from the last time." The beautiful girl looked at Xiao Hua with a pleasantly surprised look on her face.

"You're... Zhu Yuying? What are you doing here?" Yuan was surprised to see the same girl who greeted them in Spring City in this store as well. Did she change locations? What a coincidence.

"Huh? That voice... You're the one who broke the Divine Crystal of Heavenly Fortune last time!" Zhu Yuying didn't immediately recognize Yuan because of the mask covering his face, and his cultivation base and aura were vastly different. However, she recognized his voice.

Chapter 427 - Myriad Of Techniques

Zhu Yuying was surprised to see Yuan again, but most importantly, she was shocked to see that he'd somehow managed to reach Spirit Grandmaster in such a short time when he was still in the Lower Heavens!

It has only been a few weeks since their last visit, and he was only at the Spirit Warrior at that time. To think he achieved Spirit Grandmaster in such a short time— not even her friends would believe her if she told them about Yuan.

"Y-You... How did your cultivation rise so quickly?" Zhu Yuying couldn't help but ask him.

"It just happened." Yuan shrugged.

"It just happened, you say?" Zhu Yuying raised her eyebrows.

Nobody 'just happens to' increase their cultivation by two whole realms in such a short time unless they have experienced and survived many life-or-death situations.

Zhu Yuying cannot imagine how many trials Yuan had to pass in order to receive such a boost.

'He properly had to crawl through burning ground and survive countless near-death situations,' Zhu Yuying sighed inwardly in an admiring manner, completely oblivious of the truth.

"By the way, did you decide to change locations? What happened at the store in Spring City?" Yuan asked her.

Zhu Yuying chuckled and said, "I didn't change locations, silly. Every single Myriad of Techniques in the Nine Heavens are connected to each other through a single powerful formation, so no matter which store you go to, you will always end up in the same place."

"However, there is more to it. It's a little complicated, but I will try my best to explain it to you."

She cleared her throat and said, "Depending on which of the Nine Heavens you come from you will be teleported to a certain part of the Myriad of Techniques. There are only three floors in the store right now, but there are actually more floors— nine to be exact. If you come from the Lower Heavens, you can only access the first three floors."

"In order to access the higher floors, you must enter the store from the upper heavens, so if you enter from the Spirit Heaven, you will be able to access the fourth floor of the store."

"So you're technically not in the Lower Heavens right now but in some other dimension, which is why I can talk to people in the Lower Heavens, as I am not really in the Lower Heaven right now."

"I see... Although it's a little complicated, I think I understand the system." Yuan mumbled with a pondering look on his face.

"Anyways, if you have already had your destiny examined, you don't need to do it again."

Zhu Yuying showed them the Divine Crystal of Heavenly Fortune and continued to speak, "And I don't want you breaking it again. This crystal ball isn't cheap, after all."

A guilty smile appeared on Yuan's face when he recalled that incident.

Zhu Yuying proceeded to explain things to Meixiu and the others.

A few moments later, Meixiu and Feng Yuxiang placed their hands on the Divine Crystal of Heavenly Fortune, and to Zhu Yuying's surprise, they both had a heavenly destiny.

"You too." Zhu Yuying suddenly said as she glanced at Yuan's wrist after Meixiu and Feng Yuxiang's turn, obviously talking to Lan Yingying.

Lan Yingying transformed into her human form and asked, "Do I have to do it even though I won't be buying anything?"

Zhu Yuying nodded, "Everyone that wants to enter must do it."

"Okay." Lan Yingying nodded and placed her hand on the crystal ball.

"Another heavenly destiny? I have never seen so many people with a heavenly destiny together before," she mumbled in a dazed voice.

It was almost like everyone in that group had a heavenly destiny.

'Does this have something to do with him?' Zhu Yuying looked at Yuan for a moment.

A few moments later, Zhu Yuying asked them, "So what are you guys here for today? Who's the one trying to buy a new technique? And what kind? Perhaps I can help you out."

"We're looking for a cultivation technique for her." Yuan pointed at Meixiu.

"I see... Do you have any special physique or bloodline? They can greatly affect your cultivation speed depending on the cultivation technique you choose." Zhu Yuying asked her.

Meixiu nodded and said, "I have the Spirit Severing Physique."

"S-Spirit Severing Physique? What a rare one... No wonder why you have a heavenly destiny." Zhu Yuying mumbled in a shocked voice.

"And you're too nonchalant about it. There are many people who covet your talents. If I were you, I wouldn't reveal your physique so easily to just anyone."

"I understand. Thank you for the advice." Meixiu nodded.

"Anyways, I know the perfect technique for you, but unfortunately, it's on the fourth floor... You know what? Give me a few minutes."

Zhu Yuying then lifted her head and said, "Master, are you busy?"

A few moments later, a voice resounded in her head, "I'm currently speaking with the Sect Master of the Nine Gods Hall and a few other individuals. Unless this is an emergency, save it for later."

"Well... That young man who broke the Divine Crystal of Heavenly Fortune has returned... I remember you told me to contact you if he ever returns."

"What? That youngster is back? Really?" Senior Bai said in a surprised voice.

"What does he want this time?" He then asked.

"He's here to pick a cultivation technique for his friend who has the Spirit Severing Physique."

"The Spirit Severing Physique? There should be the perfect technique for that on the fourth floor."

"I know, but that's the problem. He cannot access the fourth floor yet since he's still in the Lower Heavens, and I was wondering if I can go to the fourth floor to get the technique for him."

"..."

After a moment of silence, Senior Bai spoke, "Go ahead. Do my friend a favor and get that technique for him."

'Friend?!' Zhu Yuying was shocked when Senior Bai addressed Yuan as his 'friend'.

"Thank you, Master. I will let him know," she said afterward.

Chapter 428 - Is There Something On Me?

After receiving permission, Zhu Yuying turned to look at Yuan and said with a smile on her face, "Master just gave me the permission to go to the fourth floor to get the cultivation technique, so if you don't mind, give me a couple of minutes to get it for you since you cannot go there."

Yuan nodded, "Thank you very much. Your Master is Senior Bai, right? Please thank him for me as well."

"I will. You can wait for me in the guest area over there." Zhu Yuying pointed in a certain direction before leaving the scene.

However, to everyone's surprise, Zhu Yuying returned a few moments later and said, "Yuan, my Master said he'd like to speak with you again if you don't mind."

"I don't mind." Yuan nodded.

"Great. Do you still remember the way to the third floor? I cannot go with you since I will be going a different way this time."

"I remember."

"Alright. My Master is currently busy, but he will finish things up as soon as possible before coming to you. You can wait for him at the door in the meantime."

After saying that, Zhu Yuying left for good this time.

"I will be right back," Yuan said to the ladies before going to the third floor whilst the others went to the guest area to sit around.

Once he reached the staircase to the third floor, the guards there turned to look at him.

"Only authorized individuals may go up." One of them said to him.

Since they were not the same guard as previously and they weren't told by Zhu Yuying about Yuan, they had no idea that Yuan was authorized by Senior Bai to go upstairs.

"Senior Bai said he'd like to speak with me," Yuan said to them.

"What? Master Bai?"

The two guards exchanged glances, both filled with shock. They have worked here for hundreds of years yet this is the first time someone was given permission to speak with Senior Bai.

"Do you have any proof?" One of them asked a moment later.

"Uhh... I don't think so..." Yuan shook his head.

"As much as I want to let you go up, I don't want to risk it. What if you're lying to me? Our job— No, our lives are on the line here." The guard then said.

Yuan was also wearing a mask, which made the guards naturally wary of him.

"How problematic..." Yuan mumbled.

Without Zhu Yuying, he didn't know how to speak with Senior Bai.

"Guess I will just have to wait here until Senior Bai realizes that I am not showing up and let him speak with you two," Yuan said to the guards, and he began standing there.

"Uhh..."

The two guards began sweating. If what Yuan had told them was true and they made Senior Bai wait, that would be as bad as listening to Yuan if he lied.

"Shit... What should we do? Should we play it safe and make him wait or let him go?" One of the guards whispered to the other.

"Why the heck are you asking me? You're the senior one! You decide!"

"Don't pull that bullshit on me! I was here only 3 days earlier than you!"

While the two guards pondered whether they should let Yuan go or wait, Zhu Yuying arrived at the fourth floor.

However, she was blocked by the person managing the entrance.

"What are you doing on my floor, Disciple Zhu?" A pretty young girl with sharp facial features stood before her with a cold expression on her face.

"Why do you care, Fei Xinyi? It's none of your business." Zhu Yuying coldly snorted.

"Because this is my floor, and as the boss, I am entitled to know your business here," she responded.

"Is that right?" Zhu Yuying remained calm.

"That's right."

"I am here under Master's direction. I think that's the most you need to know."

"What? Master?" Fei Xinyi immediately frowned.

"I swear... If you're using the Master as an excuse..."

"If you're doubting me, you can go ahead and ask the Master himself. Anyways, I am going to do my job." Zhu Yuying said before she walked around Fei Xinyi.

"A-As if I can do that! You know he doesn't like being bothered by insignificant matters!" Fei Xinyi said as she followed Zhu Yuying to see what she was up to.

After walking for a few minutes, Zhu Yuying stopped before a certain shelf that was filled with techniques.

"Let's see... Ah, here it is..." Zhu Yuying reached for the technique when she found it.

"You... What are you doing with that technique? Why would the Master need that technique? Something's not right here!" Fei Xinyi said with a frown on her face.

Zhu Yuying shrugged her shoulders and said, "I never said this was for the Master. I am only doing something for the Master."

"Hmph! I don't believe you! I am going to see what you're up to, and if you're up to no good, I am going to complain to the Master!"

"Do whatever you want." Zhu Yuying shrugged again, and she began making her way back to the first floor but with an additional person.

Meanwhile, back at the first floor, while Meixiu and the others waited for Yuan, Meixiu would stare at Lan Yingying silently— or more specifically, Lan Yingying's stomach, almost like she wanted to say something.

Lan Yingying noticed this and asked her, "Is there something on me?"

"No... I was just wondering about something..." Meixiu subconsciously responded, and she continued, "You're pregnant with Yuan's baby, right? How does it feel? Pregnancy."

"Excuse me? Pregnant? Who's pregnant? And whose baby?" Feng Yuxiang suddenly turned to look at them with her eyes as wide as saucers.

Even Xiao Hua was staring at them with wide eyes, almost like she was in disbelief.

Lan Yingying looked at Feng Yuxiang and explained, "I asked the Lord to impregnate me, and he agreed."

Then she returned to Meixiu and continued as though it was normal, "Although I have accepted his blood, I am not actually pregnant yet so I don't feel any different from usual."

Feng Yuxiang's jaw dropped to the ground after hearing Lan Yingying's words, and then she recalled Meixiu's sudden and confusing question about how Divine Beasts make babies when Yuan was still in the Mystic Realm.

'E-Everything makes sense now!' she cried inwardly, feeling a huge headache coming.

Chapter 429 - Visiting Senior Bai Again

"Y-You asked for the Young Master's blood...? Really?" Despite all of the evidence, Feng Yuxiang still doubted the situation and wanted to be absolutely sure that it was not a misunderstanding.

Lan Yingying nodded in a calm manner and said, "Yes. I should give birth in a thousand years."

"Good heavens... A Divine Beast getting impregnated by a human..." Feng Yuxiang mumbled in a dazed voice.

"Is that wrong?" Lan Yingying couldn't help but ask, as she wasn't aware of how things worked outside the Mystic Realm, and Feng Yuxiang was the first Divine Beast she had met besides her own family.

"I wouldn't say it's wrong since it's not a taboo or anything, but it's definitely frowned upon by most Divine Beasts, as they see humans as inferior beings. To be completely honest with you, I also used to look down on humans, but I learned my lesson after meeting the human who cursed my bloodline with the snap of his fingers..." Feng Yuxiang sighed.

"Cursed?" Lan Yingying tilted her head since this is her first time hearing about her situation.

"It's a long story, but I made some mistakes when I was young, and my bloodline got cursed as a result, forcing me to hide in the Lower Heavens since I cannot increase my cultivation above Spirit Grandmaster," Feng Yuxiang gave a brief explanation.

"Anyways, we can talk about my situation later. Most Divine Beasts loath humans, so it would be for the best if you kept that a secret..."

"What made you decide to do that with Brother Yuan?" Xiao Hua suddenly asked.

Lan Yingying then explained her situation to them, everything about the demons, and how she had to continue the legacy.

Sometime later, Feng Yuxiang mumbled, "Since the Young Master agreed to impregnate you, there's a good chance that he might agree to impregnate me if I asked..."

Feng Yuxiang suddenly felt a cold gaze staring at her when she said those words, causing her to turn to look at Xiao Hua, who was glaring at her with dangerous-looking eyes.

"I-I was joking... It was only a joke... You don't have to look at me like that." Feng Yuxiang quickly said with a stiff smile. "I never even thought about having children, and I am still too young to think about those things."

"By the way, how old are you?" Feng Yuxiang then asked Lan Yingying.

"26 years old," she answered.

Feng Yuxiang jumped out of her seat after hearing this, and she exclaimed, "What! Only 26 years old!? You're practically a baby as a Divine Beast! And you already have a baby coming?! Heavens! You're moving too fast!"

"R-Really?" Lan Yingying was also surprised by Feng Yuxiang's reaction.

"Take me for example! I am in my six digits and I don't even dare think about having a child!" Feng Yuxiang said.

"What? You're at least 100,000 years old?" Meixiu was surprised to hear this.

Feng Yuxiang nodded, "123,200 years to be exact, and I would be considered as a 'youth' in the eyes of the older Divine Beasts that have lived for millions upon millions of years."

"If you make it sound like that, 26 years is really nothing..." Meixiu mumbled.

It was at this moment Zhu Yuying returned with the technique in her hands as well as the manager from the fourth floor.

"Sorry, it took a while." Zhu Yuying then handed the technique to Meixiu in a casual manner.

"Here you go."

"Thank you..." Meixiu accepted the technique.

"Wait... What the hell is going on here?" Fei Xinyi said with a frown on her face.

And she continued, "You came all the way to the fourth floor to grab a technique for someone in the Lower Heavens? Are you crazy? There's no way the Master authorized this!"

"Oh yeah? Wanna make a bet? If you win, I will do whatever you say for the rest of the week. However, if you lose, you will have to listen to me for the rest of the week." Zhu Yuying glared at her with a serious expression.

"Che! This is why I hate you!" Fei Xinyi turned around and quickly stomped away.

There was no way she'd risk it, and she'd rather die than be Zhu Yuying's dog for an entire week.

"I hope the Master finds out about this and punishes you!"

Once Fei Xinyi left, Meixiu asked, "Is everything okay?"

"Don't worry about it, we're always like this."

"Anyways, take a look at the technique. It's a Divine-grade technique specifically for your physique. I hope you like it."

Meixiu looked at the scroll on her grasp and said, "Divine-grade? This is a very expensive item, right? I don't have enough money for it..."

"Hahaha... Don't worry about the money. It's for free. That was my Master's wish as well."

Feng Yuxiang and the others were surprised to hear this.

Just who is the Master of the Myriad of Techniques? He must be ridiculously generous or loaded to give away a Divine-grade technique for free even if he's in the upper heavens.

"I see... Thank you... Again." Meixiu said.

Meanwhile, on the third floor, the guards finally came to a decision.

"Hey, you. You may go up. However, just so you know, if you're lying, death will be the least of your worries!" The guards said to Yuan.

Yuan nodded and proceeded to head upstairs.

Once he reached the door, he opened it and walked into the portal without hesitation.

After the falling sensation, Yuan appeared in the middle of the sky again.

Of course, since he could fly, he wasn't worried at all that he might fall to his death.

Yuan proceeded to fly around until he could see the flying platform from before.

After landing, he started waiting for Senior Bai to make his appearance.

"What a beautiful place... I wonder if there's anything beyond these mountains..." Yuan mumbled to himself as he took the time to watch the scenery, something he didn't get the chance to do the previous time he was here.

A few minutes later, Yuan could see Senior Bai's figure approaching his location from a distance.

However, he was not alone, and flying beside him was another individual—a beautiful woman who could only be described as a goddess.

When Yuan saw this goddess, his eyes widened with surprise, as she was the same goddess he met during his character evaluation!

Chapter 430 - Factions

Many minutes before Senior Bai went to meet Yuan and shortly after he'd spoken with Zhu Yuying, Senior Bai was sitting around a large round table with eight other individuals.

"What's the matter, Elder Bai?" One of the individuals there asked him after noticing that he'd suddenly spaced out.

"A little something," he said before turning to look at the goddess sitting at the other side of the table and continuing to speak, "I have been told that 'he' has returned to the Myriad of Techniques."

"He?"

Everyone in the room raised their eyebrows in a puzzled manner.

Even the goddess looked confused, so Senior Bai explained, "Do you remember that talk I had with you not long ago? That I'd met 'him' at my store?"

The goddess immediately stood up from her seat when she realized what Senior Bai was talking about, and this startled the others, as they usually don't see her act in such a manner.

When Senior Bai saw her reaction, he said with a smile, "Should we take a break from the meeting? We've been at it for a while now."

Everybody there turned to look at the goddess.

"Let's take a break," she said.

And she continued, "Elder Bai, I would like to get a breath of fresh air."

"I know just the place." Senior Bai said with a smile on his face.

He then retrieved some sort of device before tossing it on the floor, creating a portal that was shaped like a door.

And without saying anything, the goddess began walking towards the portal, entering it a moment later.

"What is going on, Elder Bai?" The other seven individuals there asked him.

However, he merely shook his head and said, "I don't dare to say it. If you really want to know, ask her yourself."

The people there exchanged looks with each other. Ask the goddess? As curious as they were, none of them wanted to unnecessarily stick their noses in her business, as they might make her angry, and nobody there wanted to see that.

"I will be back." Senior Bai then said to them before entering the portal as well.

The portal closed after Senior Bai entered it.

On the other side of the portal that led them to another dimension, the goddess had been waiting for Senior Bai.

"What took you so long? Let's go," she said to him in a seemingly impatient manner.

Senior Bai smiled and said, "Is this what you look like when you're excited? I don't think I have seen you like this before—" Senior Bai forcefully closed his mouth when he saw the dangerous look the goddess was giving him.

"Let's go," he said with a bittersweet smile before flying to the hovering platform a few minutes away from their location.

Once they got close, they were able to see a masked figure standing on the platform and seemingly admiring the scenery, and he was emitting a profound aura that was similar to dragons.

"Spirit Grandmaster...? Why am I not surprised?" Senior Bai smiled when he saw the powerful aura around Yuan.

However, the goddess behind him remained nonchalant and with a cold expression on her face.

Meanwhile, Yuan was filled with surprise when he saw the goddess, as he didn't expect to see her in this place.

"I didn't expect to see you so soon after our last meeting, Yuan." Senior Bai said to him after they arrived in front of him.

"H-Hello, Senior Bai and..." Yuan didn't know how to address the goddess and waited for her to speak.

"Xu Jiaqi— that is my name," she said.

Yuan nodded and continued, "It's nice to see you again, Miss Xu. I didn't think I'd see you again until I reached the upper heavens."

'Miss Xu...?' Senior Bai raised his eyebrow after hearing this, as he has never heard someone address her so casually.

However, Xu Jiaqi didn't seem to mind and said, "I also didn't expect to see you so soon. So you've only reached Spirit Grandmaster, huh?"

Xu Jiaqi wasn't surprised by his insane progress speed. In fact, she even sounded a little disappointed.

"Are you still in the Lower Heavens?" She suddenly asked him.

"Yes."

"What have you been doing this entire time? If it was anyone else with that physique, they would've been a Spirit King by now. Stop fooling around and come to the upper heavens already— you're wasting your talents," she continued.

"Eh? But there's no reason for me to rush things. I want to enjoy the cultivation world, and there are still things I must do in the Lower Heavens." Yuan said.

Xu Jiaqi's eyebrows twitched after hearing Yuan's response. It's been a very long time since someone has dared to talk back to her. People would usually just follow her words and won't say anything back.

However, she wasn't angry even in the slightest like she normally would.

"Miss Xu, you seem to know a lot about my physique. Can you tell me more about it?" Yuan suddenly asked her.

After a moment of silence, she spoke, "What do you want to know about it?"

"Anything at all... But I am interested in its origins and what else I can do with this physique. I know that I can consume monster cores and demon cores, but that's about it. And does my physique have a limit?"

Xu Jiaqi narrowed her eyes at Yuan, and she spoke after a moment of silence, "I don't mind telling you, but only if you promise to join my faction once you reach the upper heavens."

"Your faction? What's that? Is it anything like a sect?" Yuan asked.

"Allow me to explain." Senior Bai said, and he continued, "Factions are similar to families, but you follow rules as though it's a sect, so it's something like a mixture of both. Also, there's no real obligation, so you can leave whenever you want."

"A mixture of families and sects? What is the purpose of a faction?" Yuan then asked.

Chapter 431 - Celestial Overlords

"Factions are essential in the upper heavens because without one, you will be vulnerable in a world where the majority of people have a faction. You may think Immortals— even Gods are invincible, but in the upper heavens where there are other Immortals and Gods, nobody is safe." Senior Bai explained to him.

"If you join a powerful faction, unless the other factions want to risk a war, they won't dare to touch you."

"Immortals, Gods, even powerful sects— they all belong to a faction."

"Do you understand the importance of factions now?" Senior Bai asked him.

Yuan nodded, "Yes, I understand."

"Now that you understand what factions are, what is your answer?" Xu Jiaqi asked him again.

"My faction— the Celestial Overlords, is one of the most powerful factions in the entire Nine Heavens with many peak experts and legendary figures. As long as you promise to join us, I will tell you everything I know about the Heaven Refining Physique."

"However, if you refuse, I won't tell you anything, as you could be a potential threat to us in the future. Friend of foe— you choose."

"The Celestial Overlords..." Yuan mumbled in a low voice.

He then turned to look at Senior Bai and asked him, "Are you also part of the Celestial Overlords?"

Senior Bai nodded with a smile on his face.

'If Senior Bai is part of this faction, it should be fine if I join as well since he's a good person. Furthermore, I get to learn more about my physique...'

After pondering for a few moments, Yuan nodded and said, "Okay, I will join the Celestial Overlords."

A subtle smile appeared on Xu Jiaqi's face when she heard Yuan's words, but that smile quickly disappeared, and she said afterward, "Then starting from this point forth, you are a member of the Celestial Overlords!"

Xu Jiaqi suddenly raised her hand and snapped her fingers.

A few seconds later, somewhere in the upper heavens, a large jade tablet began glowing before a complex symbol emerged from the jade tablet.

This symbol disappeared shortly after it emerged from the jade tablet, appearing on Xu Jiaqi's palms the next second.

Xu Jiaqi showed Yuan this golden symbol and said, "This is proof that you're part of the Celestial Overlords. You will be starting at the bottom of the ranks since you just joined. In order to raise your rank, you must contribute to the faction by doing good deeds and making a name for yourself."

"The ranks are as followed from the lowest to the highest— Apprentice, Warrior, Captain, General, Commander, Overlord, and lastly, Celestial Overlord. The higher your rank in the faction, the more authority and benefits you obtain."

"There are also rules you must follow as a member of the faction."

"One, you cannot tarnish or damage our faction's reputation."

"Two, you must listen to those above your rank as long as it's a lawful order."

"Three, you cannot seriously harm or kill a fellow member of the faction."

"And lastly, you cannot betray the faction and its members."

"Of course, there are exceptions, but ultimately, it will be the higher-ups who will determine whether you will be punished or not. If you have any problems, whether it's about another member or something else, you can make an official complaint and we will hear you out. If you wish to leave the faction, you must also speak with someone at least three ranks above you."

"Do you have any questions so far?" Xu Jiaqi asked him afterward.

Yuan shook his head.

"Then accept this symbol if you're ready and you'll officially become a member of the Celestial Overlords."

Xu Jiaqi extended her arms, handing the symbol to Yuan.

Yuan took a deep breath and reached for the golden symbol.

The moment he touched the symbol, it entered his body and disappeared.

Ding!

[You have unlocked Factions!]

[You have joined the Faction: Celestial Overlords!]

[Faction: Celestial Overlords]

[Faction Rank: Apprentice]

"Welcome to the faction, Yuan." Senior Bai said to him with a smile.

"Thank you, Senior Bai."

"If you want to reveal your rank and show proof that you're with the Celestial Overlords for anyone that may ask you in the future, you can do so by doing this—"

Senior Bai flipped his palms, and the symbol 'Overlord' appeared on it.

Yuan followed Senior Bai's movements and flipped his palm while imagining his faction rank showing up.

The symbol 'Apprentice' appeared on his palm a second later.

"If you have any problems with the faction or one of its members, you can contact me through the Myriad of Techniques. There are little to no problems that I cannot solve with my rank. Of course, if anything, there is a Celestial Overlord over here." Senior Bai pointed at Xu Jiaqi with his gaze.

"By the way, this is a privilege that not everyone gets, so don't abuse it."

"I won't." Yuan nodded.

Xu Jiaqi then said, "Now that you're part of the faction, let me tell you about the Heaven Refining Physique— at least everything I know about it."

After taking a deep breath, she said, "The Heaven Refining Physique is a heaven-defying physique that, as you already know, allows you to consume monster cores, demon cores, and resources that normal people would not even dare to think about."

"And as far as I am aware, there have only been two other individuals who had the Heaven Refining Physique before you. Of course, only one person can have this physique at a time, so the other two are most likely dead."

"Two people?" Yuan was surprised to hear this, as he was only aware of one.

Xu Jiaqi nodded and said, "One of them was the founder of the Demon Sealing Clan, and the other was... the founder of the Celestial Overlords..."

"What?" Yuan's eyes widened with surprise.

The person who created the faction Celestial Overlords also had the Heaven Refining Physique? No wonder why Xu Jiaqi wanted him to join her faction! It turns out that his physique has a history within the faction, and it was a pretty significant one!

Chapter 432 - Supreme Heaven's Legacy

After revealing that the founder of their faction also had the Heaven Refining Physique. Xu Jiaqi continued to speak, "As you can already guess by now, both of these people that used to have the Heaven Refining Physique had achieved great things in their life, so I am hoping you'd be the same."

Yuan then asked, "What about its limits? I have a few treasures with me that might help me reach Spirit King or above if I consumed them, but I was told that my body would not be able to handle it, as I'd be gaining too much spiritual energy at once."

"There is a limit." Xu Jiaqi said, and she continued, "The Heaven Refining Physique merely allows you to consume things like monster cores and demon cores, but if you consume too much spiritual energy at once, your body will explode just like any other cultivator. It's just that your 'limit' is higher than others, so don't overestimate yourself and consume only what you can endure."

"I-I see..." Yuan mumbled, feeling relieved that he'd listened to Feng Yuxiang's advice and didn't consume the Dragon Ancestor's blood essence.

"Furthermore, once you reach Spirit King, your Heaven Refining Physique will no longer work."

"Wait... what?" Yuan's eyes widened with shock when he heard this.

"I mean, it will still work, but it won't be as effective. This is because you haven't unlocked the full potential of the Heaven Refining Physique. Once you evolve it, you will be able to consume treasures above Spirit King."

"Heaven Refining Physique's full potential? How do I evolve a physique? I didn't even know that was possible."

Xu Jiaqi shook her head and said, "I don't know. The founder never really gave any details, but he once said that he had to 'evolve' his physique before he could further improve his cultivation past Spirit King."

"The Heaven Refining Physique is an extremely rare and unique physique. There is almost no information out there, but if it's anything like other physiques that can evolve, you'll have to temper your body with some sort of treasure."

"Temper my body... Okay, I will keep that in mind."

"I will try to look through some records to see if the founder had left some clues behind, but I cannot promise you anything." Senior Bai said.

"Thank you." Yuan nodded.

"If you go to the Demon Sealing Clan, they might have some answer since their founder had the same physique, but it's going to be a challenge trying to approach them." Xu Jiaqi suddenly said.

"Though, since you have their founder's physique, maybe it'll be easier for you."

Xu Jiaqi then asked, "Do you have any more questions?"

"Is there anything else I can consume besides monster cores and demon cores?" Yuan then asked.

Xu Jiaqi pondered before speaking, "The founder usually consumes monster cores and demon cores, but I have seen him consume spirit stones at times. Obviously, cultivators don't normally consume spirit stones."

"Spirit stones, huh..."

Sometime later, Xu Jiaqi asked him, "By the way, do you still have my Ancient Spirit Jade?"

"I do... but I don't have it on me. Do you want it back?" Yuan said to her.

"You don't have it on you? Even though I told you to keep it close to you? What if you lose it? That thing isn't cheap, you know. In fact, it's worth more than everything in the Lower Heavens combined." Xu Jiaqi quickly began lecturing him.

"It's okay, my friend is keeping it safe for me. Since she's much stronger than me, it's safer to let her protect it."

"You gave it to somebody?! How can you be so trusting? I highly doubt this 'friend' of yours won't take advantage of your kindness and steal it from you."

"She won't do that. We have been together since the beginning, and I trust her fully."

"Oh really? Who's this friend of yours and what's her background?" Xu Jiaqi suddenly inquired about Xiao Hua.

"Her name is Xiao Hua, but I don't really know her background..."

Xu Jiaqi coldly snorted after hearing this and said, "How can you trust somebody when you don't even know their background? Laughable. And judging from your aura right now, you can kill even a Spirit Lord with some effort. As if there's someone stronger than you in the Lower Heavens."

"It's true. She's a Spirit King."

"Spirit King? How can there possibly be a Spirit King in the Lower Heavens?" Xu Jiaqi frowned.

"I think it has something to do with her Legacy, but she never told me the details. Though, she did tell me that her mission was to bring me to the Supreme Heavens."

"The Supreme Heavens?"

The frown on Xu Jiaqi's face grew deeper, and she spoke after a moment of silence, "The Legacy your friend has... Is it the Supreme Heaven's Legacy?"

"Eh? You know about her Legacy?" Yuan asked with a surprised look on his face.

"Haaa..." Xu Jiaqi suddenly sighed before rubbing her eyes.

Even Senior Bai shook his head with a complicated expression on his face.

"I won't say too much since it's none of my business, but your friend... You should separate yourself from her as soon as possible."

"Eh? Why?" Yuan was baffled by her warning.

"Because she's an 'Exile'." Xu Jiaqi said in a cold voice.

"An exile? What is—"

However, before Yuan could ask about it, he suddenly experienced a sharp pain in his chest.

"Ah!"

Yuan suddenly released a painful cry, startling Senior Bai and Xu Jiaqi.

"Hey! What happened?!" Xu Jiaqi asked him, but Yuan was no longer conscious.

Seeing Yuan's body falling to the ground, Xu Jiaqi subconsciously reacted and went to catch his body.

"Elder Bai!" Xu Jiaqi suddenly shouted his name.

Senior Bai quickly appeared beside her and touched Yuan's forehead with his finger to examine his body.

"He's just unconscious. His body isn't harmed." Senior Bai said a moment later.

"What happened to him?"

"I don't know. Let me examine his condition some more."

While Senior Bai examined his condition, Yuan himself was completely unaware that he was unconscious.

In fact, after experiencing the sudden pain, Yuan found himself in an unfamiliar place, almost like he had been teleported to somewhere.

In this new place, the sky was dark and somewhat red with red lightning striking the ground every second.

Yuan looked around, and to his surprise, even shock, there were bloodied corpses in every direction that piled up like mountains.

It was a horrific sight that would terrify even the most cold-hearted cultivators in the world. However, for some reason, Yuan didn't feel anything when he saw this bloody scene.

"Hm?"

Yuan lifted his arms when he realized that he was holding onto something in his hands.

"What the... Why am I holding this sword?" Yuan was speechless when he realized that he had a sword that was still dripping with blood in his grasp.

Suddenly, a loud roar that caused the place to tremble resounded behind him, causing Yuan to turn around.

When Yuan turned around, he saw a person wearing clothes soaked in blood and a bloodied face flying at him.

Yuan didn't recognize this person, but it was clear to him that this person was trying to harm him.

And without thinking, almost as though his body reacted instinctively, Yuan swung his arm, slicing the man cleanly in half.

The dead man's body fell onto the ground and immediately blended in with the environment that was littered with countless corpses.

Chapter 433 - Sea Of Corpses And Blood

"Pathetic ants."

A cold voice came from Yuan's mouth after killing the unknown attacker, yet the voice didn't belong to Yuan.

'What is going on?' Yuan wondered inwardly, as his situation was quite bizarre, but this isn't his first time being in this kind of situation, as he would have these dreams every once in a while after he unlocked his bloodline.

However, the only difference was that these dreams would happen in the real world while he slept. This is the first time he's having one of these realistic dreams while playing Cultivation Online.

Furthermore, this dream was vastly different compared to his other dreams. It was much more bloody and more sinister in nature.

"Since this is a dream, does this mean I am actually unconscious right now? What bad timing..." Yuan sighed.

As much as he wanted to wake up from this dream, he knew that it was impossible to wake up by himself, as these dreams would not stop until he experiences all of it.

Sometime later, the person Yuan was dreaming of suddenly flew off the ground and towards the darkened sky.

Yuan looked down at the sea of corpses and blood beneath him, and he wondered what caused this carnage.

'Yuan' continued to fly straight for many hours, and there would be someone attacking him every few minutes.

Of course, these attackers were instantly slain by Yuan before they could even get close.

A few hours later, Yuan stopped after he arrived in front of this floating temple that was the most magnificent building Yuan has ever seen, as it was so grand and luxurious that it made him speechless.

However, right before he reached the doors, even more people surrounded him, and all of them appeared to be extremely powerful people.

Hundreds... thousands... millions of people appeared out of the blue to surround him.

Yuan could see the mouth of these people moving, yet he wasn't able to hear their voices for some reason.

After a few minutes, these people flew at him with their weapons raised.

Yuan closed his eyes and sighed.

When he opened his eyes again, half of the people surrounding him had disappeared, and thousands of lifeless bodies could be seen falling to the ground.

Those that were still alive held terrified expressions on their faces, almost like they were looking at the devil himself.

Suddenly, a bright light appeared in the distance.

This light flew in their direction and stopped a few miles away from Yuan.

The light began disappearing once it stopped moving, revealing a few figures inside.

However, right as Yuan turned to look at these newcomers' faces, his vision turned black, and he could hear familiar voices coming from beside him.

Meanwhile, back at Senior Bai's world, after examining Yuan's body, he said, "There's really nothing wrong with his body, but for some odd reason, his symbol is emitting this aura I have never seen before."

"Aura? Let me see it..." Xu Jiaqi pulled the Celestial Overlords symbol out of Yuan's body to inspect it.

"It's reacting to his body... But even I don't know why it's doing this..." Xu Jiaqi said after a moment of silence.

It was at this moment Yuan began opening his eyes.

Even though he'd spent a couple of hours inside his dream, only a few minutes have passed since he lost consciousness.

"Yuan? Are you okay?" Senior Bai asked him after noticing that he was waking up.

"Yes, I am okay."

"What happened just now?" Xu Jiaqi then asked.

"I don't know. I felt this pain in my body and then I began having this weird dream the next moment," he said after sitting up.

"Don't worry, I have these dreams often."

"Dreams?" Xu Jiaqi raised her eyebrow, yet she didn't think too much of it.

"Anyways, as long as you're okay."

Sometime later, once they were certain Yuan was fine, Xu Jiaqi said, "It's about time we return."

And she continued, "As for the Ancient Spirit Jade... You can keep it. It's a gift for joining the faction."

Yuan nodded, "Thank you for everything. I will try my best to contribute to the faction!"

"I will send you out now. If you need to speak with me, you know where to go." Senior Bai said to Yuan before sending him to the portal.

Once Yuan was gone, Senior Bai smiled and said, "The others will be very jealous if they learn that you'd personally recruited someone, and he's even someone from the Lower Heavens."

However, Xu Jiaqi didn't say anything and merely stood there in silence, seemingly in a daze.

"He reminds me of someone," she suddenly said.

"Hm? Yuan? Who?" Senior Bai asked.

"The founder."

"Eh?" Senior Bai was dumbfounded after hearing this.

"Really? I have never met the founder so I can't really say. What's similar between them? Their demeanor or aura?"

"His eyes." Xu Jiaqi said, and she continued, "The more I look at his eyes, the more I get this feeling."

Sometime later, they returned to the table where the others were.

"You're finally back." One of them said when they saw their return.

"Did something happen?" Senior Bai asked them after noticing the weird atmosphere.

"You didn't feel that just now? Where did the two of you go?" Another one said.

"What happened?" Xu Jiaqi asked them in a solemn voice.

"The entire world shook for a good minute just now."

"What?" Senior Bai's eyes widened.

"The ninth heaven shook?" Xu Jiaqi was also surprised to hear this.

"Yeah. Hopefully, it's nothing to be worried about."

"The last time the ninth heaven shook, the first Celestial Emperor was murdered..." Senior Bai said.

The place turned silent after Senior Bai said such a sentence.

Meanwhile, Yuan returned to the Myriad of Techniques after leaving Senior Bai's world.

When the guards saw him return safely, they both released a sigh of relief, as it meant that they get to keep their job and life.

A few minutes later, Yuan returned to the first floor where everyone was waiting.

Chapter 434 - Spirit Severing Scripture

"Welcome back, Yuan."

The first person to notice his presence was Zhu Yuying.

"How was your visit with my Master?"

"It went better than I'd expected," he said.

"That's great to hear. Anyways, I gave your friend the perfect cultivation technique, but if you need anything else, just let me know."

"Really? How much will it cost?" Yuan asked, expecting to pay for it.

"My Master said it's for free so you don't have to pay a single gold."

"Free again? I kind of feel bad now." A bittersweet smile appeared on Yuan's face.

"Don't worry about it. My Master has plenty of techniques, and it's only a Divine-rank technique. If he cannot afford to give away techniques, he wouldn't be doing it in the first place."

"Alright." Yuan nodded.

Sometime later, Yuan and the others prepared to leave the Myriad of Techniques.

"See you again next time, Yuan. Though, I will be replaced in a few weeks, so I might not be able to see you until you reach the fifth heaven."

"The fifth heaven?" Yuan asked.

"There are nine heavens, and the place you're at right now is the first heaven, also known as the Lower Heavens."

"I see... But that might take a while."

"It's okay. I can wait." Zhu Yuying said with a bright smile on her face.

A few minutes later, Yuan and the others left the store, and they returned to Long Chen City.

"What are we going to do now, Young Master?" Feng Yuxiang asked him.

"Let's find a place where Meixiu can cultivate in peace," he said.

"Is there a Cultivators' Haven in this city?"

"I think so." Feng Yuxiang nodded.

"Okay, let's go."

Feng Yuxiang and Lan Yingying returned to his body to make traveling more convenient, but Xiao Hua decided to stay with Yuan and Meixiu.

"Are you okay, Brother Yuan?" Xiao Hua asked him when she noticed him staring at her.

"Yes, I am fine." Yuan nodded.

Although Xu Jiaqi warned him about Xiao Hua, even telling him to separate from her, he still trusted her.

'An exile, huh? I never got to ask them about it. Though, it doesn't matter. Xiao Hua is still Xiao Hua no matter what background she has.' Yuan thought to himself.

Sometime later, Yuan asked the pedestrians about the Cultivators' Haven.

Once he had the directions, they began making their way towards the place.

About half an hour later, they arrived before a tall building that looked very familiar to Yuan, as the place resembled the one in Spring City.

"Welcome to Cultivators' Haven! How may I help you today?" A pretty lady asked them from behind the desk.

"I'd like to borrow one room from the highest floor for seven days," Yuan said to her.

"You seem like you've been with us before. Do you have a key?" The worker asked him.

"No, I don't."

"That's okay, we can give you a new one. For seven days, it will cost you 7,000 gold coins."

It was at this moment Yuan realized that he had no money besides the spirit stones given to him by Xi Meili.

"Actually, can you make it 10 days instead of 7? I will pay with a spirit stone. It is worth 10,000 gold, right?"

"Spirit stones? If you pay with spirit stones, you get bonus time, so you'll actually get 15 days instead of 10."

"That sounds great." Yuan nodded and handed one spirit stone to the worker behind the desk.

After accepting the spirit stone, the lady went to the back to prepare his key.

A few minutes later, she returned with the key and handed it to him.

Once they had the key, Yuan went upstairs with the others until they reached the top floor.

"How do I cultivate this technique? I have never cultivated before." Meixiu asked him after they entered the room.

"You basically read whatever is in the technique and recite it until you 'comprehend' the technique. Once you comprehend it, you can practice it and begin absorbing the spiritual energy in the air and cultivate."

"Okay."

Meixiu then took a seat in the middle of the room and opened the scroll in her hands.

"Spirit Severing Scripture? It has the same name as my physique..." Meixiu mumbled.

It was no wonder Zhu Yuying picked this cultivation technique for her, as the technique seemed like it was literally created for her physique.

Meixiu began to read the scripture.

Although the words were foreign and she has never seen them before, Meixiu was able to comprehend the words for some reason and read the scripture without a problem.

And a few minutes later, after reading through the Spirit Severing Scripture just once, a notification appeared before Meixiu.

Ding!

[You have learned Spirit Severing Scripture!]

[Spirit Severing Scripture]

[Rank: Divine]

[Mastery Level: 1]

[Description: Absorbs 5 Qi per second. If used during Spirit Form, you will absorb 50 Qi per second instead.]

Once she learned the cultivation technique, Meixiu closed her eyes and began reciting the technique inside her mind.

Soon, her breathing patterns changed.

[You have cultivated for the first time, unlocking Qi Experience]

[Due to Qi Gathering Array, your Qi absorption rate has increased slight]

[5/5,000]

[12/5,000]

[24/5,000]

In just a couple of minutes after Meixiu started cultivating, she reached her first breakthrough.

[You have succeeded in breaking through your mortal shackles, becoming a Spirit Apprentice!]

[Physical Strength, Physical Defense +75]

[Mental Strength, Mental Defense +150]

Name: Meixiu

Cultivation: First Level Spirit Apprentice

Legacy: None

Bloodline: None

Physique: Spirit Severing Physique

Physical Strength: 157

Mental Strength: 1,870

Soul Strength: 555

Physical Defense: 109

Mental Defense: 300

"Wow, she made a breakthrough already? That was faster than I'd expected. This cultivation technique was definitely made for her." Yuan mumbled in a low voice when he saw Meixiu absorbing spiritual energy after a single read and breaking through mere minutes after she started cultivating.

Although she was assisted by the Qi Gathering Array in the Cultivators' Haven, Meixiu still managed to breakthrough faster than Yuan when he first started cultivating.

Chapter 435 - Meixius Cultivation

Chapter 435 - Meixiu's Cultivation

"Yuan, I had a breakthrough," Meixiu stopped cultivating and said to him with a slightly excited feeling in her chest.

"I noticed. Congratulations on becoming a cultivator." Yuan said with a smile.

"What do I do now?" she then asked.

"You continue to cultivate, I guess."

"When should I stop?"

"Whenever you like or feel like the progress is starting to slow down significantly."

"I understand. I will try to cultivate some more." Meixiu nodded and returned to her cultivation.

"She's probably the most talented person behind Brother Yuan that Xiao Hua has seen in the Lower Heavens... Not including the Divine Beasts." Xiao Hua said sometime after Meixiu continued her cultivation.

"This is the first time I've seen you approve of someone," Yuan said with a smile.

Xiao Hua nodded silently.

About five hours later, Meixiu reached the 4th level Spirit Apprentice.

[You have absorbed enough Qi for a breakthrough]

[You have reached Second Level Spirit Apprentice]

[Physical Strength, Physical Defense +100]

[Mental Strength, Mental Defense +175]

[You have absorbed enough Qi for a breakthrough]

[You have reached Third Level Spirit Apprentice]

[Physical Strength, Physical Defense +125]

[Mental Strength, Mental Defense +200]

[You have absorbed enough Qi for a breakthrough]

[You have reached Fourth Level Spirit Apprentice]

[Physical Strength, Physical Defense +150]

[Mental Strength, Mental Defense +225]

"How long have I been cultivating?" Meixiu asked him after she lost track of time.

"About five hours," Yuan said after he looked at the time left on the key.

"Five hours?" Meixiu was surprised to hear that so much time had passed because it didn't feel that long for her.

"If you want to continue cultivating, I don't mind. We don't really have anything else planned, anyway." Yuan said to her.

Meixiu nodded, "Okay. I will continue to cultivate for some more or until Yu Rou calls us to play, but let me cook dinner first."

"Let's leave this room first before we log off so that we don't waste our limited time," Yuan said.

"See you later, Xiao Hua," Yuan said to her before they logged off the game.

Once they left the game, Meixiu went to prepare for dinner whilst Yuan cultivated in the real world.

After dinner, Meixiu helped Yuan take a quick shower.

Sometime later, Meixiu sat on her bed and tried to cultivate the Spirit Severing Scripture.

However, unlike cultivation online, she was unable to succeed in just a few minutes.

"Yuan, are you awake?" Meixiu knocked on his door after seeing no progress, hoping he'd have some advice for her.

"I'm still up." Yuan's voice resounded a moment later.

"I am having trouble with my cultivation," she said.

"What do you need help with? There's very little I can do to help you in this world, unfortunately."

"I am trying to use the Spirit Severing Scripture, but every time I try to recall it, it's like I cannot remember it," she said.

"Oh, that is probably because you've only just learned the technique today. Try cultivating the technique inside Cultivation Online for a few more days." Yuan advised her.

"Okay."

Meixiu returned to her room shortly after and went back inside Cultivation Online to continue cultivating for the rest of the night.

In the morning, she stopped cultivating to cook breakfast for Yuan.

After breakfast, they both entered the game together.

"I managed to reach the fifth level last night. It's taking much longer to breakthrough with each level." Meixiu said to him.

Although it only took her 5 hours to reach the fourth level, it took her the entire night— 8 hours of straight cultivation to reach the next level.

Of course, her progression was still much faster than most of the players in Cultivation Online at this moment.

"Haha, welcome to cultivation, Meixiu. Once you reach my level, it'll take you days if not weeks to increase even a single level." Yuan laughed.

Xiao Hua looked at him and said, "And if Brother Yuan was an ordinary cultivator, it'd take him a hundred times longer..."

Sometime later, Yuan asked Meixiu, "You're going to continue cultivating, right?"

"Yes."

"Then I'll go check out the restaurants in the meantime unless you want to come as well."

"It's okay. I will stay here to cultivate." Meixiu said.

"Alright. Have fun. I'll be back in a few hours."

Thus, Yuan left the Cultivators' Haven with Xiao Hua while Meixiu stayed behind to cultivate.

"What do you want to eat today, Xiao Hua?" Yuan asked her.

"Anything Brother Yuan wants," she responded almost immediately.

"What about Feng Feng and Yingying? Anything specific that you two would like to eat?" Yuan asked them next.

"All up to you, Young Master."

"It also doesn't matter to me what we eat." Lan Yingying said.

"Okay. Guess I will just look around and see what's available."

Thus, Yuan began walking around the city until he found a decent restaurant.

Once they decided to eat there, Feng Yuxiang and Lan Yingying appeared so they could eat as well.

"W-Welcome to Lotus Gourmet, esteemed guests..."

The receptionist was startled by Feng Yuxiang and Lan Yingying's beauty, not to mention the noble-like aura around Yuan and Xiao Hua.

It was not just the receptionist. Everyone in the store seemingly froze when they noticed their group's presence, almost like they were looking at royalty.

"Four of us," Yuan said to the receptionist.

"R-Right away!"

The receptionist brought them straight to the best table in the restaurant inside a private room.

"I will be here whenever you need me." The receptionist said to them.

Yuan began looking through the menu, but before he could even finish the menu, he placed it down and said, "Let me just get everything on the menu."

"E-Everything?" The receptionist looked at him with wide eyes.

There were at least 200 dishes on the menu, and with only four people in their group, it seemed unlikely that they would be able to finish it.

However, the receptionist didn't say anything and nodded with a smile on his face, "Right away, esteemed guests."

Chapter 436 - I Found Us Something Even Better!

About fifteen minutes after Yuan ordered the entire menu, the workers returned with dishes in their hands.

"Allow me to welcome you all to the Lotus Gourmet once again, esteemed guests. I am the manager of this place. If there's anything you need from us, just let us know."

Although none of the workers there recognized Yuan and the others' identity, it was clear as day that they were important people just by their noble appearance, not to mention their unfathomable aura.

While the workers were not cultivators, the manager was a peak Spirit Apprentice, and he could feel an invisible aura that made him feel like he was lacking air whenever he got close to Yuan's group.

Unbeknownst to him, they were all above Spirit Master. If he'd known that, the manager would probably be speaking on his knees right now.

The moment the dishes were placed on the table, Yuan began moving his hands and mouth.

Xiao Hua and the others were used to Yuan's eating habits by now so they didn't react when they saw him gobbling down the food like a food monster.

The workers, however, had never seen anything like this before and were greatly shocked by the speed at which the food was disappearing from the table.

Not even a minute after the dish was placed on the table, it would be cleared out by Yuan who didn't even need to look at the dish, as he was subconsciously using Divine Sense.

Of course, Yuan made sure to leave some food for the others, and he would eventually slow down his consumption speed.

About half an hour into their meal, Yuan could suddenly hear a small commotion coming from the outside.

"What? You don't have your best room available? Then make it available! Do you know who we are?!" An arrogant voice resounded.

When Yuan heard this voice, his eyebrows raised, as it sounded very familiar for some reason.

A few moments later, Yuan could hear heavy footsteps approaching their private room.

"I don't care who's eating in here right now, scram for me! The Du Family will be eating here now!"

A young man with an arrogant look appeared and forcefully opened the door before walking inside while shouting.

However, when this young man noticed the beauties sitting around the table, he immediately stopped talking and stared at them with a dazed look on his face.

Since Yuan had his back facing the door, the loud young man didn't notice Yuan's presence at first.

It was at this moment Yuan turned around to look at the young man.

Indeed, he was one of the Du Brothers that Yuan had an altercation with shortly after he became a Spirit Warrior.

"Young Master Du Bai, please slow down."

Suddenly, another figure appeared behind him, and it was the Spirit Master that was in charge of protecting the Du Brothers.

"Hm?"

The Spirit Master's gaze subconsciously turned to look at Xiao Hua for some reason, and when he saw her cute and innocent face, he jumped back and said, "W-What are you doing here?!"

"Why are you shouting like that? Who is—"

It was at this moment Du Bai snapped out of his daze and turned to look at Xiao Hua and Yuan.

"Y-You're that bastard from the auction house! What are you doing here?!" Du Bai finally recognized Yuan.

"As you can see, I am eating here— at least I was until you came barging in here. What do you want?" Yuan said to him with a frown on his face.

Did he not learn his lesson from their previous confrontation?

Du Bai suddenly pointed at Yuan and laughed with an ugly smile on his face.

"Hahaha! I have been looking everywhere for you, you damn bastard! Did you think I would forget about you or that humiliation I experienced on that day?! Not a chance! My parents will be here any minute now, and when they do, I will make you regret ever being born!"

Then Du Bai pointed at Feng Yuxiang and Lan Yingying, "I don't know who you are but you should follow me starting today instead of this loser! My Du Family is a top family in the Lower Heavens! My parents are also Spirit Masters!"

"The Du Family, huh?" Feng Yuxiang mumbled in a nonchalant manner.

A moment later, Du Hai, Du Bai's brother, entered the restaurant alongside a pair of couples and two other families and their children.

"Du Hai! Come look at what we have here!" Du Bai shouted to him.

"What is it? I know you want to reserve the seats, but did you have to run all the way here?" Du Hai sighed as he approached the private room.

His eyes widened when he saw Yuan's handsome face.

"It's you!"

"Are you two looking for a beating again?" Yuan said to them after wiping his hands and mouth with a wet cloth.

"Hahaha! Beat us? I would love to see you try!"

The Du Brothers stood there with their chest proudly puffed.

"What's going on here? Where are our seats, Du Bai?" A middle-aged man suddenly approached them from behind, and the others soon followed.

"Father! I found us something even better! Do you remember that time we went to an auction house and returned with a bruised body? This is the bastard that assaulted us on that day! We finally found him!" Du Bai ran to his father before pointing at Yuan.

"What?" The Du Brother's father and the others there turned to look at Yuan and his table.

However, their eyes didn't linger on Yuan for more than a second because something else had caught their attention—the beautiful young woman sitting across from Yuan.

"M-Madam Feng?! W-What are you doing here?!" The middle-aged man exclaimed in a shocked voice when he saw Feng Yuxiang sitting there with a frown on her face.

"Du Wei, you dare come in here and question me when your children disturbed my peace and even worse—insulted my Young Master? Are you looking to die today?" Feng Yuxiang said to him in a cold voice before standing up and glaring at them in an oppressive manner, sending shivers down their spine.

Chapter 437 - Decisive Action

Du Wei, the head of the Du Family and also the Du Brothers' father, was shocked speechless after hearing Feng Yuxiang's words, but he still hasn't been able to comprehend the situation because everything had happened too fast.

How did his children offend Madam Feng, the number one expert in Phoenix City? And more importantly, who is this Young Master that Feng Yuxiang was talking about? This is the first time he has heard of Feng Yuxiang addressing someone in such a respectful manner.

Meanwhile, the other 2 families that had followed the Du Family to this restaurant were already regretting their decision, as they were potentially in jeopardy because of the Du Family.

"What the hell is going on here, Du Wei? I thought you brought us here for a business meeting! If you're doing this to purposefully damage our family's reputation, this means war!" One of them said to him.

"W-Wait! I also don't know what's going on here! Du Bai! Du Hai! Explain yourselves!" Du Wei immediately turned to his sons for answers.

However, the Du Brothers didn't know of Madam Feng or why their father was angry at them.

"What? We didn't do anything! He's the one who's wrong! He's the one we have been looking for! That person who insulted our Du Family and assaulted us! You said that you'd take care of him once we find him!" Du Bai said as he pointed at Yuan.

Du Wei turned to look at Yuan, who was emitting the aura of a Spirit Grandmaster, his heart trembling with shock and disbelief.

A Spirit Grandmaster had assaulted the Du Brothers? If that was the case, they wouldn't even be alive! Furthermore, he didn't even recognize this Spirit Grandmaster!

"You told me that he was a Spirit Warrior! And that he'd attacked you only because you were from the Du Family! You mentioned nothing about a Spirit Grandmaster! As if a Spirit Grandmaster would go out of his way to bully you idiots if you didn't do anything wrong in the first place!" Du Wei shouted at them, feeling a headache coming.

"What? Spirit Grandmaster?" The Du Brothers were shocked upon hearing this.

They were certain that Yuan was a Spirit Warrior when they fought. How did he suddenly become a Spirit Grandmaster in such a short time when they have only managed to increase their own cultivation base by a single level?

"Regardless of what happened between my Young Master and your children in the past, it's clear who's in the wrong right now. We were having a peaceful meal, yet they came in here barking like wild dogs, disturbing our peace. Even worse, he'd insulted my Young Master while telling me to follow him like some kind of servant. Is the Du Family asking me, Feng Yuxiang, to lower my head and become a servant of the Du Family?" Feng Yuxiang asked him in a cold voice.

"T-The Du Family does not dare!" Du Wei quickly said.

Then he turned to look at his sons with an enraged expression.

"Get on your knees and apologize to Madam Feng and everyone here! I will personally take care of you two once we get back to the house!"

"W-What? But—"

Du Bai wanted to say that this wasn't his fault, but before he could even speak, Du Wei flicked his arm and slapped Du Bai in the face.

"Get on your knees and apologize!" Du Wei repeated.

Du Bai laid on the floor with disbelief on his face. This is the first time his father had hit him.

When Du Hai saw his brother getting hit, he knew this was serious and he quickly kneeled on the ground before Yuan and the others.

"I apologize for everything. Please forgive me."

Du Bai followed his brother a moment later and kneeled beside Du Hai.

"I apologize." Du Bai spoke in a forceful voice, clearly unwilling to apologize.

However, when Du Wei saw this, he suddenly extended his arms with an open palm, striking Du Bai in the back the next moment.

"Ah!"

Du Bai released a painful cry before coughing up a mouthful of blood, feeling the cultivation inside his Dantian escaping his body.

In a single and decisive strike, Du Wei had crippled his own son's cultivation.

"Du Bai!" Du Hai was shocked when he saw this, and he turned to look at his father with a fearful look on his face.

"F-Father... you..." Du Bai also stared at him in shock.

Du Wei ignored them and turned to look at Feng Yuxiang before bowing to her.

"If that wasn't enough, I am willing to kill him. Please, spare the Du Family, Madam Feng."

"Uhh..."

Feng Yuxiang was not really that surprised by Du Wei's actions. If this was before she began following Yuan, she might have even wanted Du Bai's head. However, now that she's following Yuan, and knowing his character, she knew that he wouldn't let her kill the Du Brothers.

Thus, she turned to look at Yuan, who was standing there silently, clearly surprised by what had just occurred. Everything had happened so fast, and it ended before he could even react.

Yuan said after a moment of silence, "There's no need to kill him. You have already done enough."

Although he didn't show it on his face, Yuan was pretty appalled that Du Wei would go to such lengths to please another individual. He couldn't comprehend the idea of killing one's own son to make an apology.

"My Young Master has spoken! You can now stop bothering us and scram!" Feng Yuxiang then said.

"Thank you for your mercy, Madam Feng and Young Master." Du Wei bowed to them again before turning to look at the Spirit Master working for their family.

"Pick up the trash and let's go!"

After saying that, Du Wei left the restaurant with the others whilst the Spirit Master carried the Du Brothers away like previously.

"I deeply apologize for that just now, esteemed guests. We'll clean up the place immediately." The manager said to them.

A worker came to clean the blood from the floor a few moments later.

Once the room was clean again, the manager and the other workers left the room, leaving Yuan and the others alone.

Chapter 438 - The Right Choice

"I think I've lost my appetite..." Yuan sighed a few minutes after the Du Family left the scene.

"What's the matter, Young Master?" Feng Yuxiang asked him even though she had an idea.

"I cannot understand why he did that... Did he really have to cripple his own son to make an apology? He was even prepared to kill his own son!"

After a moment of silence, Feng Yuxiang opened her mouth and said, "Because he had to make a choice— his own son or his entire family."

"The cultivation world is a place where one can have their entire family destroyed because a mere servant had offended someone they couldn't afford to offend. In Du Wei's mind, his family was in jeopardy because of his son's action. Therefore, in order to get rid of the problem, he decided to get rid of the one who caused the trouble in the first place."

"This is a very common thing in the cultivation world, Young Master. You shouldn't think too much about it. There are people out there who would be willing to take even their own life in order to please someone."

Before Yuan could even respond to Feng Yuxiang, almost as though she could read his mind, Xiao Hua said, "Brother Yuan, there are unreasonable people out there who would go to the extreme and slaughter an entire family because they didn't like the way a person looked at them. The upper heavens are filled with people like that."

Yuan closed his mouth after hearing Xiao Hua's words, as he was going to ask why someone would destroy an entire family over something so minor.

"In my opinion, what Du Wei did was the right choice. He knew that he couldn't offend me, much less an unknown Spirit Grandmaster like you. Forget about me, the Young Master can destroy the entire Du Family with his current prowess." Feng Yuxiang said.

"But I wouldn't do something like that."

"Of course. We know the Young Master is a benevolent being. However, Du Wei didn't know that, and he wasn't going to risk his entire family just to find out."

And she continued, "The Du Family is a top family in the Lower Heavens for a reason. They know how to survive. In fact, every top family in the Nine Heavens must first learn to survive. If they cannot do that, they would've long been destroyed."

"I understand." Yuan nodded.

Sometime later, they decided to leave the restaurant.

When Yuan tried to pay the bill, the manager politely refused their money and said that it was on the house. After learning that there were Spirit Grandmasters amongst them, the manager no longer dared to accept their money.

After leaving the restaurant, Yuan wasn't sure what he should do, as he'd planned on eating at more than one restaurant before returning to Meixiu.

However, with his appetite ruined, his plans also had to change.

After pondering for some time, Yuan turned to look at Feng Yuxiang and said to her, "Feng Feng, can you train with me for a bit?"

"Train? With the Young Master?" Feng Yuxiang expressed surprise.

He nodded and said, "I have been using the movement technique you taught me for a while now, but I realized that I could only use it properly on the ground. In the air, I am very vulnerable. And I feel like working out a little after eating so much food."

After what he experienced in the Shadow Realm, Yuan realized that he was having trouble dodging attacks while in the air.

Feng Yuxiang chuckled and said, "Young Master, the movement technique is actually much more powerful when used in the air. After all, it's a technique meant for phoenixes. It's just that you haven't reached that level yet, so you can only use it on the ground."

"Let me see where you're at right now with the technique first."

Yuan nodded, and they proceeded to leave the city to find an empty area out in the wild where they can practice freely.

It took about ten minutes before they found the perfect spot.

"Alright, Young Master, I am going to attack you and you're going to dodge it with the movement technique. I will start slow. Let me know when you're ready." Feng Yuxiang picked up a random stick on the ground and treated it like a sword.

Yuan took a deep breath before nodding his head.

"I am ready."

"Here I come!"

Feng Yuxiang kicked her feet and instantly closed their distance, then she swung the wooden stick in her grasp as though it was a sword.

Yuan was surprised by Feng Yuxiang's speed at first, but he was able to dodge her strike perfectly.

However, Feng Yuxiang didn't stop after the first strike and continued to attack him with the wooden stick, increasing her speed and making more complex movements as time went on.

Xiao Hua and Lan Yingying watched them practice in the distance as spectators.

Although Xiao Hua didn't show any reactions, Lan Yingying was greatly impressed by their practice, as this is her first time witnessing such intensive sparring.

Of course, the one who was most surprised there was Feng Yuxiang.

'Heavens... How long has it been since he learned the movement technique? It took me years of practice to reach this stage, yet it's only been a couple of weeks since he learned the technique! Furthermore, he probably achieved all of this while he was inside the Mystic Realm because I have yet to see him practice this technique while I am with him!'

It took less than a minute before Feng Yuxiang realized how much Yuan had progressed with the technique, and she thought to herself, 'How interesting! Let me experience your talents firsthand, Young Master!'

A smile suddenly appeared on Feng Yuxiang's beautiful face, and her movement speed doubled the next moment.

"Whoa!"

Feng Yuxiang's sudden increase in speed caught Yuan off guard, allowing her to connect a hit on his body, but Yuan quickly adjusted himself and continued to dodge the next few attacks.

However, Yuan was no longer dodging Feng Yuxiang's attacks with ease, and he quickly began to sweat.

'Feng Feng... She's strong!' Yuan cried inwardly.

Chapter 439 - Training With Feng Yuxiang

"Haaa... haaa... haaa..."

Yuan laid on the soft ground with his body covered in sweat while panting in an exhausted manner.

They have only been training for about half an hour, but Yuan was already at his limit, feeling even more exhausted than when he fought many experts continuously at the Ancient Dragon City.

Towards the end of their practice, Yuan was getting hit so often that Feng Yuxiang was practically landing every single hit on him, and even though Yuan made improvements to this movement technique, it was still not nearly enough to avoid Feng Yuxiang who was always a step ahead of him.

"Are you finished already, Young Master?" Feng Yuxiang asked him with a completely calm appearance and not a single drop of sweat on her body, looking like she just took a stroll in the park.

"Feng Feng, you're stronger than I thought," Yuan said to her.

"Thank you for the compliment, Young Master. Even with my cultivation suppressed, my techniques are as sharp as ever," she said.

"We should have a serious spar in the future, Feng Feng. Even though training with you is fun, it's not satisfying enough." Yuan said as he sat up after resting enough.

"Hehe... If you want to fight me, you should improve your movement technique even more, Young Master." Feng Yuxiang chuckled.

"Anyways, you have exceeded my expectations in terms of your progression with the movement technique. At this rate, you'll probably be able to start using the movement technique in the air in a few months. By the way, it took me a few hundred years to reach that level and many thousand more to master it."

"I look forward to that day." Yuan nodded.

Feng Yuxiang then said, "I also noticed something else during our training. Young Master, you may be incredibly talented, learning everything at a rapid rate, but you still lack experience. Although your execution with the techniques is flawless, you're still amateurish in terms of actual combat, and that is not something you can easily learn even with your talents."

"Furthermore, the Young Master is used to one-shotting all of his opponents, so you're actually very weak in extended fights."

"What do you suggest, Feng Feng?" Yuan asked her, as he agreed with everything she'd just said.

"That's simple. We can spar with each other, and you don't have to worry about defeating me with a single hit, so you can somewhat go all out. Just don't use your Dragon's Gaze or that suppressing domain since that's basically cheating." Feng Yuxiang said.

"Of course, that is not to say you shouldn't use it during actual combat since it would be for the best if you finished the fight as soon as possible. However, for practice purposes, let's not use it."

"Okay." Yuan nodded.

Yuan proceeded to spend the next hour recovering his energy.

Once he was prepared to move again, Yuan and Feng Yuxiang continued to practice with each other.

However, this time, Feng Yuxiang allowed Yuan to use his weapon, and Feng Yuxiang also retrieved a weapon of her own.

Feng Yuxiang waved around the red sword in her hand casually and asked him, "Are you ready, Young Master?"

"Yes."

The moment Yuan nodded his head, Feng Yuxiang approached him and began attacking him with the sword.

Yuan immediately used the Empyrean Overlord to block the attack, but Feng Yuxiang's strike suddenly changed directions and avoided his sword, almost like she'd anticipated it.

Yuan was surprised and subconsciously used the movement technique to dodge her strike, barely avoiding it.

"Your reaction is quite admirable, but if you had more experience, you would've been able to block that attack without needing to avoid it with your body." Feng Yuxiang said as she sent the next attack.

Once again, right as her sword was about to touch Yuan's blade, it seemingly disappeared from its location before appearing on the other side and flying straight at Yuan's neck.

This time, Yuan managed to react properly and went to block it with the Empyrean Overlord.

However, Feng Yuxiang's sword disappeared for a second time, and by the time Yuan realized this, it was already kissing his neck.

Yuan swallowed nervously when he realized that he would've died if Feng Yuxiang didn't stop her attack at the last moment.

"Young Master, there are some things you cannot overcome with pure strength. Before an experienced cultivator, you may not be at an advantage even if you have a higher cultivation base." Feng Yuxiang said to him as she retrieved the sword from his neck.

Yuan was speechless.

This is the first time he's felt so powerless before someone. Even though it was a spar and he wasn't using his full strength, that was the same for Feng Yuxiang.

After giving Yuan some time to prepare himself again, Feng Yuxiang began attacking him again.

Ding! Ding! Ding!

Feng Yuxiang didn't use her disappearing sword strikes without stopping and would purposefully let Yuan block her attacks at times, but whenever she would see an opening, she would use that to her advantage and corner Yuan in a decisive moment.

In just ten minutes of practice, Feng Yuxiang had 'killed' Yuan over a dozen times.

"Are you ready to give up yet, Young Master?" Feng Yuxiang asked him with a somewhat smug look on her beautiful face.

"N-Not yet! Let's keep going!" Yuan wiped the sweat off his face and prepared himself again.

"That's what I like to hear!"

Yuan was so absorbed in his training with Feng Yuxiang that he'd completely forgotten about Meixiu. However, Meixiu was also absorbed in her cultivation, and they both missed dinner without even realizing it until it was already morning the next day.

"Oh! I completely forgot to log off!" Yuan panicked when he realized this, as it hasn't been long since his last mistake.

Thus, Yuan logged off on the spot.

However, when he realized that Meixiu also hadn't logged off, he returned to the game and then to the Cultivators' Haven with the others.

Chapter 440 - Fierce Beauty

After returning to the Cultivators' Haven, Yuan went straight to the top floor to see if Meixiu was still cultivating, and just as he'd expected, the door to her cultivation room was still closed shut.

Although he wanted to go inside to make sure, he didn't have the key, as it was inside the room with Meixiu.

"I probably shouldn't disturb Meixiu if she's still cultivating, right?" Yuan asked Xiao Hua.

She nodded and said, "That would be very dangerous, as disturbing someone that's absorbed in cultivation could be harmful. There are even cases where some cultivators have been crippled after being disturbed during their breakthroughs. This is why cultivators must find a secure and peaceful place before they begin their cultivation."

"Crippled? That's definitely not good. I guess we can only wait outside until she's done." Yuan said as he took a seat directly in front of the door to Meixiu's room.

Unbeknownst to them, inside the room, Meixiu was actually experiencing enlightenment, hence why she became oblivious to the time.

In the blink of an eye, two days have passed since Meixiu entered the Cultivators' Haven.

"She's taking longer than I'd expected... It's already been two days. I hope she's fine inside." Yuan sighed, and he wondered inwardly, 'Is this what Meixiu felt when I didn't come out of the game for three whole days? Now that I have experienced it for myself, it certainly doesn't feel good, and I don't blame her for worrying.'

"If Brother Yuan is that worried, why don't you take a look inside with your Divine Sense?" Xiao Hua said to him in a calm voice, clearly aware of what was happening inside the room.

"Oh, right! I forgot I could do that!"

Yuan immediately closed his eyes and activated his Divine Sense that penetrated the door and walls in the Cultivators' Haven.

"Oh, I can see Meixiu. She looks fine to me." Yuan released a sigh of relief after seeing that she was perfectly fine inside.

"Wait, what's this weird aura around her? It feels familiar." Yuan suddenly noticed the unfathomable aura around Meixiu.

"She is currently experiencing enlightenment," said Xiao Hua.

"Enlightenment? No wonder..." Yuan mumbled.

Now that he found out the reason for Meixiu's delay, Yuan no longer needed to use his Divine Sense. However, right as he prepared to retract his Divine Sense, for some reason, he looked inside the other two rooms that were occupied by someone else.

One of them was a middle-aged man who emitted the aura of a peak Spirit Warrior.

The other person was a young lady with a fairly unique appearance. Long hair that touched the ground, and a golden color made it look as though her silky hair was silk made of gold. Furthermore, she was wearing a pair of luxurious-looking robes, making it seem like she was royalty.

However, what Yuan found the most interesting about this young lady was her cultivation base—or her lack of cultivation base.

Despite being a Spirit Grandmaster, he was unable to see this young girl's cultivation base, and she looked to be around his age.

Unless this young lady had a much higher cultivation base than him, which was unlikely, Yuan couldn't figure out why he couldn't see her cultivation base.

"Xiao Hua, how come I cannot see that girl's cultivation base?" He decided to ask the expert.

Surely, a Spirit King like Xiao Hua would be able to see her cultivation base, right?

Xiao Hua used her Divine Sense to look at the person Yuan was talking about for a moment before speaking, "That girl is using a cultivation technique to hide her cultivation base, and it's a fairly powerful one because even Xiao Hua cannot see her cultivation base."

"Even you cannot see her cultivation base?" Yuan was more surprised than Xiao Hua herself, and he wondered whether this young lady was an NPC or a player like him.

Suddenly, the mysterious young girl opened her eyelids, revealing a beautiful pair of azure-colored eyes, and she looked to the ceiling with a deep frown on her face, seemingly unhappy about something.

She then stood up and proceeded to leave the room in heavy and angry steps.

Once she was outside, she turned to look at Yuan before pointing at him and shouting, "Hey! I am trying to cultivate here! How dare you peek at me while I cultivate?! Did your parents not teach you any manners?!"

"Uhh..."

Yuan was speechless when this fierce-looking beauty suddenly started yelling at him.

"You're lucky I wasn't having a breakthrough, or I would've smashed your face in by now!" The fierce beauty continued.

"I-I apologize for peeking at you. My curiosity got the better of me." Yuan quickly said to her, as he recognized that he was wrong in this situation.

"What a rude kid—"

The fierce lady suddenly stopped in the middle of her sentence, and her eyes widened in a surprised manner.

"Now that I look at you closely, why are you emitting the aura of a dragon? Are you a dragon?" The fierce beauty suddenly asked him.

"No, I am not." Yuan shook his head.

"Then why... Forget it. If you dare peek at me again, I will smash your skull." The fierce beauty said to him before returning to her room and closing it shut.

"I have never seen anyone as fierce as her before..." Yuan mumbled after she left.

Feng Yuxiang's voice suddenly resounded, "Young Master, that young lady... she's from one of the Four Ancient Families."

"What? Really? How can you tell?" Yuan asked her.

"Her clothes. I have met with people from the Four Ancient Families before, so I know a little about them, and judging by that young lady's clothes, she belongs to the Azure Dragon Family." Feng Yuxiang explained.

"Azure Dragon Family? Are they anything like the dragons in the Ancient Dragon City?" Yuan asked, his interest piqued.

"Well... I don't know anything about the Ancient Dragon City, but judging by what you told us about them, they should be real dragons. The Azure Dragon Family, however, are not really dragons. Instead, they are half-dragons." Feng Yuxiang said.

"Half-dragons? What's the difference?" Yuan continued to ask.

Chapter 441 - Four Ancient Families

"Someone who is a half-dragon is usually a human with dragon blood mixed within their blood. They're not really dragons, but they have the power of dragons." Feng Yuxiang explained to him.

"I see... That explains her unique appearance. A half-dragon, huh? Does this mean there are also half-phoenixes and half-serpents out there as well?" Yuan then asked.

"That's correct." Feng Yuxiang said.

"By the way, you said the Four Ancient Families, right? I remember hearing about them at the Dragon Essence Temple. How do they differ from the Seven Legacy Families?" Yuan continued to ask, as he found these powerful families that have existed for thousands of years to be very interesting.

"Yes, they're similar to the Seven Legacy Families in the way that they're only branches of the main family somewhere in the upper heavens. However, compared to the Seven Legacy Families, the Four Ancient Families are far superior in terms of prowess and influence in the Nine Heavens."

"While the Seven Legacy Families would have at most two or three Spirit Grandmasters in each family, the Four Ancient Families have at least 7 Spirit Grandmasters in each family. Furthermore, they have much more resources than the Seven Legacy Families."

"However, unlike the Seven Legacy Families that enjoy being in the spotlight, the Four Ancient Families are very secluded and private. They won't make an appearance unless absolutely necessary."

"Then what is someone from the Four Ancient Families doing in this place?" Yuan then asked.

"She's probably doing her trial."

"Trial?"

"Members of the Four Ancient Families are required to leave the family after they reach a certain age to go on a trial. The trial differs from person to person, but if they are unable to pass the trial in 10 years, they are forced to leave the family, and their cultivation will be crippled before they leave. However, if they pass the trial, they will be allowed to ascend to the next world."

"Crippled and forced to leave the family if they fail the trial? That's even stricter than the Seven Legacy Families..." Yuan was speechless upon hearing this, and he wondered why there are so many families like this in the cultivation world.

It was at this moment the door behind him suddenly opened, and Meixiu came running outside in a panicked manner.

"Yuan?!"

Meixiu didn't expect Yuan to be sitting right in front of the door and fell on top of him.

"Are you okay?" Yuan said to her who was on top of him, and he could feel two round and soft sensations pressing against his body.

Meixiu quickly got off his body and stood up with a flushed face.

"Looks like you're finally done with your cultivation. It's been two days, you know?" Yuan said to her in a calm manner.

"I-I am so sorry! I don't know what happened, but it didn't feel that long when I was cultivating! I thought only a couple of hours had passed at most!" Meixiu's habits as a servant kicked in, causing her to lower her body until she was bowing to Yuan.

"It's okay, Meixiu. What you experienced is called enlightenment. You easily lose track of time when you're in that state, so I don't blame you. It also happened to me before, so we can call it even with this." Yuan said with a smile on his face.

When Meixiu got out of her enlightenment and saw how much time she had left in the room, she almost thought that she was dreaming, so she logged off to see the time, and sure enough, two whole days have passed since she started cultivating.

In other words, she didn't cook food for two straight days, leaving Yuan to starve.

This is definitely the biggest blunder she has made in her entire life thus far.

Sometime later, they logged off once Meixiu calmed down.

After cooking the meal, she went to Yuan's room whilst still feeling guilty.

"I'm sorry, Yuan..." She apologized to him again as she fed him the food.

"Don't worry about it," Yuan said.

"Cultivation... It's dangerous... Especially if this happens again..." Meixiu sighed in a worried voice.

"I don't think you have to worry about that since enlightenment doesn't happen often. I heard that some people even live their whole life without experiencing enlightenment a single time, and those who have already experienced enlightenment most likely won't experience it again." Yuan explained to her.

"Is that so..." Meixiu was relieved to hear this.

"What cultivation are you now after two whole days of cultivation?" Yuan asked her a moment later.

"Ninth level Spirit Apprentice," she said.

"Peak Spirit Apprentice already?" Yuan was surprised by her progress.

"Are you going to try cultivating in the real world now? You might be able to do it since you have plenty of experience now."

"I will try later."

And she continued, "By the way, how do you improve Soul Strength?"

"Soul Strength? Doesn't it increase as you improve your cultivation?" Yuan said, as he would get Soul Strength alongside other stats every time he had a breakthrough.

"Although the other stats have improved, my Soul Strength hasn't increased since I started cultivation, and I was just wondering if it requires a special method to train that," Meixiu said.

"Well... I know that you can improve your Soul Strength with Soul Techniques and treasures, but I'm not sure why your Soul Strength isn't increasing. Maybe it has something to do with your physique? We can ask Xiao Hua and the others tomorrow."

"Okay."

Sometime later, after they finished their meal, Meixiu went to her room and tried to cultivate.

As for Yuan, he also started cultivating.

Inside her room, Meixiu sat in the lotus position on the floor since the bed was soft and uneven, and she was used to cultivating on a hard surface.

After taking a deep breath and clearing her mind, Meixiu began reciting the Spirit Severing Technique inside her head, and to her surprise, she was able to remember the technique very easily, unlike previously when she couldn't even recall the technique no matter how much she tried.

Chapter 442 - Increase In Crime And Violence

When Meixiu began cultivating, a small wind picked up in her room despite the closed window, and it swirled around her as though it was trying to communicate with her.

About an hour later, Meixiu felt a refreshing sensation spread throughout her body, almost as though she just took a cool bath on a burning day.

It felt just like when she first became a cultivator in Cultivation Online, but it also felt much more intense.

"I am a cultivator now?" Meixiu looked at her own hands.

Besides feeling more energetic than before, there wasn't much change to her body.

Meixiu stood up before taking out some dumbbells from underneath her bed.

Because she has to carry Yuan whenever he needs to leave the bed or go somewhere, Meixiu has to keep herself in shape so that she would be able to lift Yuan without any trouble. Not to mention that it was also physically taxing to be a servant of the Yu Family.

Meixiu began picking up the weights to test her new profound strength, and to her surprise, she could barely feel the weight of the dumbbells, almost like she was picking up feathers.

"Even the 20kg dumbbell feels as light as a broom." Meixiu tossed the dumbbell in the air as though it was nothing.

Meixiu felt the urge to tell Yuan that she'd succeeded in her cultivation and became a cultivator, but she didn't want to disturb him, so she decided to wait until tomorrow during breakfast.

Sometime later, Meixiu returned to sitting on the floor and continued to cultivate some more.

Although it took her only a couple of hours to breakthrough multiple times in Cultivation Online, that was not the case in the real world.

Perhaps it was due to a lack of spiritual energy in the air, or perhaps it's because the cultivation techniques are not as effective in the real world, but it was clear that she would not be able to replicate her cultivation speed in Cultivation Online in the real world.

The following morning, Meixiu revealed to Yuan about her breakthrough during breakfast.

"Really? Congratulations, Meixiu! It had taken me a couple of weeks before I could become a cultivator, so you're already ahead of me in that sense." Yuan said to her.

"Thank you."

"What are you going to do now, Meixiu?" Yuan asked her.

"I'm going to spend a couple of days cultivating in the real world to catch up with everyone," she said.

And she continued, "I just saw the news. There has been a rise in crimes and violence ever since the world learned that cultivation is real. It would be dangerous if I go out there without being prepared."

"What? A rise in crimes and violence? That doesn't sound good at all. What's happening out there?" Yuan asked.

"Too many things, to be honest." Meixiu sighed.

"The most notable change would be how the government plans on dealing with cultivation and cultivators. With the existence of cultivators, the government has decided to step in to regulate it. If you become a cultivator, you will have to register as a cultivator in some database. We don't have to worry about that for now since they are still preparing for it, but it will soon become a law that all cultivators must register as one or they'll be fined or even jailed, as the government wants to keep track of the number of cultivators in the world."

"They also plan on making sure that only qualified people are able to cultivate because they don't want some people to have too much power, especially the bad people. It's only been a couple of days since people started cultivating and violence has already gone up by a lot. One can only imagine what will happen a month from now when there are even more cultivators."

"I see... It makes sense to regulate cultivation since it would definitely be bad if the violent and unreasonable ones become cultivators and start abusing their power. I have already experienced this in Cultivation Online, and it's not a pleasant experience." Yuan said.

"It's impossible for the government to stop everyone from cultivating since Cultivation Online is already widespread with billions of active players. It's not like they can stop everyone from playing the game, either." Meixiu then said.

"Anything else besides the government regulating cultivation?" Yuan asked a moment later.

"Yes. This may come as a surprise, but there are already people creating cultivation schools that are dedicated to people who wish to study cultivation or become a cultivator," she said.

"What? Cultivation schools? Like sects?" Yuan was speechless.

It hasn't been long since people started cultivating and there are already people creating sects?

"Yes, and the schools will provide cultivation techniques to all students. Of course, it won't be for free."

"Hmm... That's interesting..." Yuan said.

"Interesting? You're interested in these cultivation schools?" Meixiu asked him.

"Of course. I wonder how they'll differ from the sects in Cultivation Online."

A few moments later, Meixiu continued, "Oh, influential families around the world are also recruiting talented cultivators. They are not only giving away a large amount of money, but they also promise those who join Earth-rank cultivation techniques. Some are even offering Heaven-rank cultivation techniques."

"Not only schools but even other families are recruiting cultivators? The world adapted to cultivation quicker than I'd expected." Yuan mumbled, and he wondered if the Yu Family was also recruiting cultivators.

Sometime later, Meixiu returned to her own room whilst Yuan returned to Cultivation Online.

However, Yuan didn't stay inside the game for long, as he only went inside to let Xiao Hua and the others know that he won't be returning for a while.

After all, even if they are NPCs, Yuan didn't want them to worry about him if he doesn't show up for a few days or even weeks so that he could focus on cultivation in the real world.

"The world is changing much quicker than I'd initially thought. I must also quickly recover so that I can be there for Yu Rou and Meixiu if anything ever happens to them..."

With this in mind, Yuan took a deep breath and began absorbing the spiritual energy in the world.

Chapter 443 - The Future Of The Yu Family

After eating dinner and brushing her teeth, Yu Rou returned to her own room to spend the rest of the night cultivating.

The following morning, right before sunrise, Yu Rou experienced a breakthrough in her cultivation, reaching 2nd level Spirit Apprentice.

"I haven't slept for a few days now, yet I don't even feel tired or sleepy. Cultivation is such a miraculous thing." Yu Rou sighed to herself afterward.

"I wonder how Meixiu and brother are doing. They should be awake now for breakfast."

Yu Rou decided to call them on her phone.

"Hello?" Meixiu answered the phone after three rings.

"How's it going, Meixiu? Have you started cultivating yet? I just reached the 2nd level, but it took longer than I'd expected— at least compared to Cultivation Online."

"Yes, I have also started to cultivate a few days ago." Meixiu's voice resounded from the phone.

"Really? Congratulations!" Yu Rou said.

And she asked, "Also, you're with Brother Tian in Cultivation Online, right? What are you two doing right now?"

"We have decided to take a break from Cultivation Online to focus on cultivation in the real world," Meixiu said.

"Eh? Really?"

"Yes. With the increased crime and violence because of the cultivation thing, I have decided to spend some extra time preparing myself for the future." Meixiu said.

Yu Rou was speechless after hearing this, and she mumbled in a low voice, "Now that you mention it... You are right... I didn't really think too much about it when I saw the news, but it looks like I should probably prepare myself just in case things get much worse."

"Anyways, since you two are busy with cultivation, I won't bother you too much. Just call me when you are finished so that we can play together in Cultivation Online, okay? It's been a while since I have seen you two, after all."

"Okay. I will call you when we plan on playing again." Meixiu said.

After hanging up the phone, Yu Rou proceeded to call Xia Jingyi.

"I hope I'm not bothering your cultivation." Yu Rou said after Xia Jingyi picked up the phone.

"Not at all."

"How's your cultivation going? Have you reached the second level yet?"

"No, I haven't. What about you?"

"Yes, I just reached it not long ago."

"Wow! Congratulations, Sister Rou! There aren't many people who have reached the 2nd level! You're definitely a cultivation genius! Most of my friends are just entering the first level, yet you're already at the second level. I think I still need at least another week or two before I can reach the 2nd level."

"Cultivation genius, huh?" A bittersweet smile appeared on Yu Rou's face.

If she was considered a cultivation genius for reaching the 2nd level in a week, what would her brother Yu Tian, who has already reached Spirit Warrior, be considered? A cultivation god?

"By the way, Sister Rou, have you heard about the cultivation schools and the cultivation factions?" Xia Jingyi suddenly asked.

"Of course. My parents have already begun creating a faction for our family. They have also spent a couple of billions recently to acquire a Heaven-rank cultivation technique." Yu Rou said.

"Heavens... Your family already has a Heaven-rank cultivation technique? My family was only able to acquire an Earth-rank cultivation technique." Xia Jingyi's disappointed voice resounded.

And she continued, "This makes me wonder if there is anyone out there with a Divine-rank cultivation technique."

Yu Rou chuckled and said, "Divine-rank cultivation techniques are simply too rare in the Lower Heavens. We'll probably have to ascend to Spirit Heaven before we can even start thinking about Divine-grade techniques."

"Oh yeah? I am willing to bet Player Yuan has a Divine-rank cultivation technique!" Xia Jingyi suddenly said.

"Player Yuan?" Yu Rou smiled and said, "If someone has a Divine-rank technique, it'd probably be him."

"If Player Yuan really has a Divine-rank cultivation technique, I wonder if he has tried to cultivate yet, and if he is already a cultivator, what level has he managed to achieve with it by now..."

"I wouldn't be surprised if he's already a Spirit Warrior." Yu Rou said with a teasing smile on her face.

"Spirit Warrior? As much as I admire Player Yuan, I think it's impossible for someone to be a Spirit Warrior already since cultivation is much slower in the real world due to the lack of resources even if they have a Divine-rank cultivation technique." Xia Jingyi said.

Sometime later, Xia Jingyi asked, "Sister Rou, what time are you going to play Cultivation Online today?"

"I'm going to take a few days off to focus on my cultivation." Yu Rou said, and she proceeded to explain to Xia Jingyi her reason for doing so.

"I see... That makes perfect sense. Alright, I will also follow this advice and focus on my real cultivation for now. I don't want to be bullied by someone stronger, after all."

"I'll talk to you later, Sister Rou."

"Definitely."

After hanging up the phone, Yu Rou went to eat breakfast before returning to her room to spend the rest of the day cultivating.

And with everyone focused on improving their real cultivation, a week passed by in the blink of an eye.

Knock Knock

"Young lady, the Masters have summoned you to the main house." A servant knocked on the door to Yu Rou's room.

Yu Rou stopped her cultivation and stood up to open the door.

"Let them know that I am on my way," she said.

Sometime later, after taking a quick shower and dressing up properly, Yu Rou traveled to the Yu Family's main house where her parents were waiting.

Once Yu Rou met up with her parents at the main house, they brought her to another large building that was almost just as big as Yu Rou's house a few miles away from the main house, and inside this building were multiple rooms with hundreds of comfortable beds lined up with the console required to play Cultivation Online set up for each bed.

"What is this?" Yu Rou asked them.

"This is the future of our Yu Family and the company." Tang Lee said with a confident smile on her face, and she continued, "It will also be where all of our players will be living and playing starting today."

Chapter 444 - Cultivators' Association

"Everyone?" Yu Rou raised her eyebrows.

Despite the luxurious background, the atmosphere of this place was a little suffocating, and Yu Rou felt like she was in a hospital or something similar.

"As you already know, we have acquired a Heaven-rank cultivation technique recently. This is where those who decide to join our Yu Family will get to practice the cultivation technique. Of course, we don't want them running away with our technique, so we'll have them cultivate in this place." Yu Yong said.

He then turned to look at Yu Rou and asked her, "What is your cultivation base right now?"

"Second Level Spirit Apprentice," she responded in a calm voice.

"Mmm. Not bad considering that you'd started only a week ago." Yu Yong nodded his head before continuing to speak, "We have sent out the applications yesterday, and in less than 24 hours, we have received over a thousand requests to join our family with most of them being at the second level and a couple at the third level. In fact, we even have someone at the fourth level."

"What? Someone has already reached the fourth level already?" Yu Rou was surprised to hear this.

Yu Yong nodded and said, "This person has been cultivating in secrecy even before the world knew that we could cultivate in the real world, so he's ahead of the majority of cultivators currently."

"Oh, that makes sense." Yu Rou didn't say anything else.

"Anyways, we called you here today to let you experience the Heaven-rank cultivation technique that we acquired recently. You only have the basic cultivation technique, right?"

"Yes..." Yu Rou nodded.

"Go pick whichever bed you want and enter Cultivation Online. Meet me at Lu City so that I can hand you the cultivation technique." Yu Yong said to her.

"Okay." Yu Rou nodded.

Although she had planned on letting Yuan find a better cultivation technique for her, since he will be busy for a while, she will have to rely on her family for a better cultivation technique for now. Furthermore, this new cultivation technique should help boost her cultivation speed in the real world as well.

Thus, Yu Rou entered the game and traveled to Lu City before meeting with Yu Yong.

Inside the game, Yu Yong and Yu Rou went to a Cultivators' Haven so that Yu Rou could learn the cultivation technique safely.

"Do you need a key for this place?" Yu Yong asked her.

"No, I already have one," she said.

After they arrived at the highest floor in the place, Yu Yong handed the cultivation technique to her and said with a solemn face, "Don't lose this. It cost us a fortune to acquire it. If you lose it, we'll sell you to make up for the losses."

Yu Rou didn't show any reaction and nodded silently.

"Let me know when you've learned the cultivation technique so that we can start training the people in our family." Yu Yong said to her before entering one of the rooms to cultivate.

Once Yu Rou entered the room and the door closed, she began trying to comprehend the Heaven-rank cultivation technique.

A week later, Yu Rou emerged from her room with a happy expression on her face.

"Finally! It took me an entire week to learn this cultivation technique!"

Besides the martial technique she'd gotten with Yuan's help, Yu Rou hasn't tried to learn another technique, hence why she was excited to finally learn something new even though it'd taken her an entire week.

Sometime later, she met up with Yu Yong again to return the cultivation technique to him.

"Now that you have a Heaven-rank cultivation technique, I expect significant improvements to your progress both in Cultivation Online and your real cultivation. Don't disappoint me." Yu Yong said to her after storing the cultivation technique inside a storage pouch.

"I understand." Yu Rou nodded.

Yu Rou logged off the game shortly after.

'I can finally go home and sleep in my own bed...' Yu Rou sighed inwardly, as she had to stay in this place until she learned the cultivation technique.

However, before she could leave the place, her mother, Tang Lee, stood before her.

"Yu Rou, make sure you register yourself as a cultivator at the Cultivators' Association that was completed just today within the next 90 days. If you don't and get caught, you'll be fined by the government and possibly go to jail." Tang Lee warned her.

"Cultivators' Association? It's already finished? I wasn't expecting it for at least a few more weeks if not months," she said.

The Cultivators' Association is a government-funded organization that was created to regulate cultivation to a certain extent, and it has governments from around the world supporting it, quickly becoming the strongest cultivation faction in the real world.

Furthermore, not only does the Cultivators' Association regulate cultivators, but they were also recruiting cultivators to assist them in maintaining public order just like the police forces.

"I understand. I will try to register today." Yu Rou said.

Thus, after leaving the place, Yu Rou made her way to the Cultivators' Association that replaced a large park in the middle of the city.

Of course, the place was crowded with people.

"Maybe I should come back another day..." Yu Rou mumbled to herself before telling the driver to go back to her house, where she started cultivating with her new cultivation technique and seeing significant improvements to her progression.

"No wonder why people are paying fortunes for better cultivation techniques... My speed almost doubled with this new cultivation technique!"

Feeling excited about her new cultivation speed, Yu Rou proceeded to spend the entire day cultivating.

Meanwhile, back at Yuan's apartment, Meixiu entered Yuan's room and said to him, "Yuan, the Cultivators' Association has been completed. We must register as a cultivator within the next 90 days or we'll be considered as illegal cultivators..."

"We have 3 months? That's plenty of time." Yuan said.

And he continued, "How's your cultivation going?"

"I just reached the fifth level," she said in a calm voice.

"Nice. I should be entering the eighth level after another week," he said.

'Eight Level Spirit Warrior...' Meixiu sighed inwardly, wondering what might happen when he has to register his cultivation at the Cultivators' Association in the near future.

Chapter 445 - A New Rumor

A little over a week after the Cultivators' Association was announced, over 100,000 cultivators from Yuan's city alone had registered as a cultivator with less than 1 percent of them also joining the Cultivators' Association.

One percent may seem like very little, but the requirements to join the Cultivators' Association were not low, as one needed to be at least a Third Level Spirit Apprentice before they could even take the examination.

After joining the Cultivators' Association, the cultivators are given a special badge and assigned to a certain location in the city where they will be working, almost like actual police but with higher pay and more authority.

As for the number of cultivators that have registered at the Cultivators' Association worldwide, it reached 10 million people in less than a month.

Meanwhile, Yuan had reached the Eighth Level Spirit Warrior and improved immensely for his condition— to the point where he could push his upper body off the bed a few inches with his arms.

However, despite his seemingly fit physique and feeling like he was overwhelming with energy, Yuan actually couldn't exert much strength, feeling like something was blocking him from utilizing his full potential.

'Maybe Doctor Wang is right— that I might be cursed.' Yuan sighed inwardly.

Hopefully, he could sit up on the bed without external help by the time he enters the ninth level.

Sometime later, Meixiu entered his room and said, "Wang Xiuying said she'll be visiting later today for your checkup."

Now that Wang Xiuying knew his identity as Player Yuan, she has pretty much replaced Doctor Wang when it comes to taking care of him such as the weekly checkups, especially when Doctor Wang and his hospital has seen an explosive increase in patients recently due to the increased violence in the community between cultivators.

"Okay," Yuan said.

About two hours later, Wang Xiuying arrived at their apartment and began examining Yuan's condition.

"Everything looks normal this week as well." Wang Xiuying said to him afterward.

"I see. Thank you."

"What cultivation are you at right now, Yuan?" Wang Xiuying then asked him, and she continued, "I just reached the fourth level yesterday."

"Eighth level," Yuan said.

"Haaa... Looks like it's really impossible to catch up to you..." Wang Xiuying sighed.

"And no wonder why your body looks so fit despite not exercising. I thought it was weird when I first noticed it. To think it was because you'd started cultivating."

When Wang Xiuying learned that Yuan had been cultivating even before it was announced, she was obviously shocked, but what shocked her the most was when she learned that he was already a Spirit Warrior while everyone else was still a Spirit Apprentice.

Of course, there was one more thing that Yuan revealed to her.

Wang Xiuying looked at the door to make sure it was closed before asking Yuan in a low voice, "How's your recovery going compared to last week?"

Yuan proceeded to show Wang Xiuying his progress by lifting his body off the bed slightly before falling back down a moment later.

"As you can see, that's the most I can do right now," he said.

Since she was going to be his nurse, Yuan decided to reveal to her that his body was actually recovering.

"Wow, you're definitely making good progress. At this rate, you'll be able to tell Meixiu about your recovery soon."

Yuan nodded his head slightly and said, "Yes, I plan on telling her once I am able to sit up on the bed properly."

"Even though it's regrettable that I couldn't assist you in your recovery as I'd hoped, I am still happy to see you finally recovering after so many years." Wang Xiuying said to him.

"Although my body is recovering, my sight doesn't appear to be getting any better. Maybe I'll remain blind for the rest of my life," he sighed.

After a moment of silence, Wang Xiuying said, "Yuan, I don't know if this is true or fake, but I have heard a rumor going around recently— that there are other things in Cultivation Online that might affect our world such as resources. I know this sounds crazy, but so is cultivation."

"I have experimented with this rumor, but I didn't get any results, so maybe it's fake. Maybe there's some kind of requirement that one must fulfill before it takes effect, but if this is real, we might be able to fix your vision."

Yuan was surprised after hearing Wang Xiuying's words, and then he recalled the impurities that came from his body in the real world after consuming a treasure in Cultivation Online.

After pondering for some time, Yuan spoke, "Maybe... Maybe the treasure has to be of a certain quality? To tell you the truth, I think I have experienced it before."

"What?! Really?! Tell me more!" Wang Xiuying was immediately intrigued.

Yuan proceeded to tell her about the Translucent Dew of Flawlessness and how it cleaned his impurities both inside the game and the real world.

Wang Xiuying turned dead silent after hearing Yuan's story.

After a moment of silence, she said, "In order to gather further proof, we will need to obtain a high-grade treasure and test it for ourselves... I will see if my Master has any unwanted treasure since it's much easier to find higher quality treasures in the Spirit Heaven."

"Okay. I will also try to do some more experiments on my end. This will be immense if it actually works." Yuan said.

After talking for a couple more minutes with Wang Xiuying telling Yuan about her experience in the Spirit Heaven and her new sect, Wang Xiuying packed her tools and prepared to leave.

"Okay, I will see you next week, Yuan," she said to him before leaving the apartment.

"Is everything okay?" Meixiu asked him afterward.

"Yes. I am going to return to cultivation online today for a bit." Yuan said.

"Do you want me to come with you?"

"No, it's fine. I'm just going to talk with Xiao Hua and the others. I won't stay long. I want to reach the Ninth Level Spirit Warrior at the very least before I really start playing again." Yuan said.

"Okay."

Chapter 446 - Stalker

After helping Yuan with the console, Meixiu returned to her own room and continued to cultivate.

Despite not caring about cultivation before, Meixiu found a reason that motivated her to keep cultivating, and that was Yuan.

Even though Yuan was at a much higher cultivation than her, he was unable to move his body, so he was vulnerable to many things, and if the world continues to become more dangerous, it will be all up to her to protect him.

Meanwhile, the moment Yuan appeared inside Cultivation Online, Xiao Hua appeared from his necklace even before he could say anything.

"Welcome back, Brother Yuan." Xiao Hua said to him.

"Hello, Xiao Hua. Did you miss me?" Yuan said with a smile on his face, feeling like it's been forever since he last played.

Xiao Hua nodded after hearing his words.

"I missed you as well, Young Master." Feng Yuxiang's voice resounded.

"Me too." Lan Yingying as well.

"Unfortunately, I am not finished with my business yet so I won't stay here for long. I need a favor from you guys," he said a moment later.

"What do you need, Brother Yuan?" Xiao Hua asked him.

"I am in need of treasures— mostly resources with unique effects, and I need them to be at least Earth-grade," Yuan said.

Feng Yuxiang came outside and asked, "Resources above Earth-grade? What kind of treasures? Any specific effects? Like increasing your Soul Strength or something that boosts your cultivation? How many do you want? And why do you suddenly need resources, Young Master?"

"Let's see... I want the resource to do something unique— something like the Translucent Dew of Flawlessness. I don't need anything that will increase my cultivation base, and I only need one treasure from each quality from Earth-grade up to Heaven-grade. I would like to ask for Divine-grade resources, but they are too rare and I don't have enough money for them."

"As for why I need them... Well, it's for an experiment." Yuan said to them.

"Something like the Translucent Dew of Flawlessness? That's not going to be easy, Young Master. The Translucent Dew of Flawlessness is an extremely rare treasure that can only be found in the upper heavens, but I will see what I can do." Feng Yuxiang said.

Yuan then retrieved the spirit stones Xi Meili gave him and handed them to her.

"Use this to buy the resources. If it's not enough, just buy whatever you can afford with it."

Feng Yuxiang looked at the money and wanted to say that he didn't need to pay them, but knowing his character, she accepted it and said, "When do you need the resources, Young Master?"

"I don't have a time limit so you can take your time."

"I understand. I will go around and ask some of my friends." Feng Yuxiang nodded.

"Xiao Hua will also look around."

"I would love to help, but I don't know this world enough to help, and I'm not really knowledgeable when it comes to these things. I'm sorry for being useless..." Lan Yingying sighed.

"Don't worry about it, Yingying. And you're not useless." Yuan said to her.

"Just leave this to the experts. You stay with the Young Master just in case anything happens while we're away." Feng Yuxiang smiled.

Sometime later, Feng Yuxiang and Xiao Hua left the Cultivators' Haven to look for treasures for Yuan.

Once he was alone, Yuan prepared to log off.

However, right as he was about to log off, one of the doors there opened, and a beautiful young lady with silky golden hair walked outside.

This was the same fierce girl who yelled at Yuan for peeking at her—the mysterious girl from one of the Four Ancient Families.

Apparently, she has been cultivating this entire time without leaving the Cultivators' Haven, which wasn't too surprising if one thought about it since cultivation sessions usually last for weeks.

When this young lady saw Yuan standing there, she immediately frowned before approaching him in an aggressive manner, "Hey! Don't tell me that you've been standing there this entire time?! Are you stalking me or something?! Who are you!"

"What?" Yuan's eyes widened with disbelief.

"I just got here..." He said.

"Bullshit! You barely moved since I last saw you a couple of weeks ago! You're definitely a stalker!"

Once she was in front of him, the fierce girl raised her hands and prepared to slap him.

When Yuan saw this, he also raised his hand.

Whoosh!

The fierce girl swung her hands at Yuan's face, but he easily caught it.

"How can you hit people so easily? I didn't even do anything wrong! You need to stop assuming things!" Yuan said to her with a frown.

However, he cried inwardly, 'What a strong girl! I'm a Spirit Grandmaster, yet I am struggling to hold her back!'

Meanwhile, the fierce girl was also surprised that Yuan had managed to stop her strike, as this is the first time that someone has stopped her ever since she left her family to go on a journey.

Usually, she would just send them flying with a single strike and without any hassle.

"Let me go, you pervert!" The girl suddenly shouted at him.

"Only if you promise me that you won't try to hit me if I let you—"

Before Yuan could even finish his sentence, the girl suddenly jumped and spun her body in a graceful manner before sending her feet flying at his chest.

BOOM!

Yuan was sent flying to the wall after being kicked directly in the chest, causing the entire building to shake slightly and disturbing everybody that was currently cultivating inside.

"Are you okay, Yuan?!" Lan Yingying exclaimed when she saw this, even forgetting to address him as 'Lord', and she appeared beside him.

"I'm not hurt. Physical attacks won't harm me unless they come from a Spirit King." Yuan said to her.

Meanwhile, the fierce girl who'd just sent Yuan flying with a powerful kick knelt on the floor while clutching to her small feet after the kick, feeling like she'd just kicked a metal ball.

'What the heck is his body made of?! Metal?!' She cried inwardly, regretting her actions.

Chapter 447 - Returning To The Golden Phoenix Bazaar

"Damn it! What is your body made of?! Why is it so freaking durable! It feels like I broke a bone or something!" The fierce girl cried out loud after kicking Yuan with her feet.

"You should probably stop kicking people out of nowhere. I hope you've learned your lesson." Yuan patted the dust off his clothes and approached her in a casual manner, looking like he wasn't harmed even in the slightest.

The fierce girl gritted her teeth in anger. Despite her urge to punch Yuan in the face, she didn't dare to attack him after her last strike, fearing that she might hurt herself instead.

"Anyways, I am not stalking you, nor do I have any reason to stalk you. It was merely a coincidence that I am still here." Yuan said to her.

"Yingying, let's go." Yuan proceeded to ignore the young lady and walked downstairs with Lan Yingying following behind him.

After meeting many unreasonable people, Yuan has learned that it would be easier to just ignore them and leave the scene immediately. If this fierce lady still decides to follow him, he will use his cultivation to scare her away.

"I'll remember your face! If I see you again, I am going to smash your face!"

Yuan could hear the fierce girl's voice shouting from behind him.

Once they descended a couple of floors, Lan Yingying returned to Yuan's wrist as a bracelet, and Yuan logged off on the spot. Since Meixiu was still in this place, there was no reason for them to leave.

After logging off, Yuan took a moment to clear his mind before he started cultivating towards the Ninth Level Spirit Warrior.

Meanwhile, inside Cultivation Online, after leaving Yuan's side, Feng Yuxiang and Xiao Hua left the city together before going their separate ways.

"Xiao Hua, here's the Young Master's spirit stones. I have plenty of money so I don't need it." Feng Yuxiang handed Xiao Hua the spirit stones.

Xiao Hua looked at the spirit stones for a moment before accepting it. Although she had plenty of valuable weapons, she wasn't carrying any money.

Of course, she'd planned on trading her weapons for other treasures or even selling a few of her treasures to get the necessary funds to buy the treasures.

"Let's see which of us will find the most valuable treasures for the Young Master, shall we? Don't worry, this is a friendly competition. With that being said, I don't plan on going easy on you!" Feng Yuxiang said to Xiao Hua, and she flew away before Xiao Hua could even respond.

Sometime later, Feng Yuxiang arrived at a city that had a teleportation device and used it to travel to Phoenix City.

"I didn't think I'd return to this place so soon after leaving, but when it comes to finding rare and valuable treasures, there's no better place in the Lower Heavens than Phoenix City." Feng Yuxiang hovered above the city with a smile on her face, feeling quite confident that she would win this competition.

Feng Yuxiang then flew straight into the city, landing directly in front of the Golden Phoenix Bazaar.

"Who dares—"

The guards standing there were taken by surprise by Feng Yuxiang's grand entrance and subconsciously pointed their weapons at her.

"What are you going to do with me with those toys, huh?" Feng Yuxiang glanced at them with a sharp gaze.

"M-Madam Feng?!"

When the guards realized her identity, they immediately dropped their weapons and got onto their knees.

"We apologize for pointing our weapons at you, Madam Feng!" They said in unison with sweat soaking their foreheads.

"Whatever." Feng Yuxiang said before walking past them, ignoring their offense.

"What?"

The two guards looked at Feng Yuxiang's disappearing back before looking at each other with shocked expressions on their faces.

"She's not going to punish us?"

"I was expecting a slap in the face at the very least..."

The two guards seemed surprised that Feng Yuxiang didn't punish them for disrespecting her, as she would normally do just that even if they looked at her wrongly, much less point their weapons at her.

After entering the Golden Phoenix Bazaar, Feng Yuxiang entered one of the stores there.

"Welcome to our Heaven's Resource—"

A worker standing at the entrance started his welcoming sentence even before he could see the customer's face, and when he saw Feng Yuxiang's beautiful face, he began coughing like he'd choked on something.

"M-M-Madam Feng?!" The worker exclaimed.

"Is Zhong Li here?" she asked him.

"Y-Yes!" He nodded vigorously.

Feng Yuxiang didn't say anything else and began walking upstairs like this place was her house.

Once she was on the third floor, she knocked on the only door on that floor and entered it without waiting for a response.

Inside the room, a middle-aged man in black robes and a young woman wearing similar clothes to the worker at the entrance were flirting with each other.

"Who dares?!" The middle-aged man slammed the desk in anger before turning around to look at the beautiful woman standing at the entrance.

The middle-aged man gasped in shock when he saw Feng Yuxiang standing there with an angry look on her face.

Feeling the suffocating atmosphere, the young woman quickly tightened her loosened clothes before running out of the room.

"M-M-Madam Feng... When did you come back? And where have you been recently? The Golden Phoenix Bazaar isn't the same without your presence..." The middle-aged man quickly changed the topic and acted like nothing just happened.

Feng Yuxiang closed her eyes for a moment to calm down before speaking, "I'm here to collect your debt, Zhong Li."

The middle-aged man named Zhong Li swallowed nervously and asked, "W-What do you want?"

"Nothing much. Just a few treasures from your store." Feng Yuxiang said.

"T-That's it?" Zhong Li looked surprised at her response, and it was even a pleasant one.

"If you want me to take everything in your store, I wouldn't mind doing so." Feng Yuxiang said to him.

"P-Please have mercy!" Zhong Li quickly got off his seat and kowtowed to her.

"Then I'll go look around." Feng Yuxiang said, ignoring him entirely.

Chapter 448 - Her Reason For Leaving

After spending about an hour in Zhong Li's store looking for the perfect treasure for Yuan, she left the place with a couple of new treasures in her storage ring.

"Are you coming back to the Golden Phoenix Bazaar?" Zhong Li asked Feng Yuxiang right before she left the place.

"No, I am not," she said.

"I have more important things to do now."

"I see..." Zhong Li nodded.

After leaving Zhong Li's store, Feng Yuxiang didn't leave the city and proceeded to enter the next store.

"You Quan, I am here to collect the debt you owe me when I helped you set up your store!" Feng Yuxiang said to the owner of that store.

"Madam Feng! Where have you been?" You Quan asked after seeing her.

"That doesn't matter. I didn't come all the way here just for you to question me." Feng Yuxiang said.

You Quan sighed in a tired manner before speaking, "What do you want from me? If it's within my power—"

"I don't need your help. It's your treasure that I need."

"My treasures?" You Quan looked at her with wide eyes.

In the entire Golden Phoenix Bazaar, Feng Yuxiang had the best store with the most valuable treasures. Why would she need something from his store that was small and worthless in comparison?

"What kind of treasure?" He then asked.

"I don't care as long as it's unique."

"Unique...?" You Quan raised his eyebrows.

Then he said, "Why don't you look around the store? If you want something, just let me know."

Feng Yuxiang nodded and proceeded to spend another hour in this store looking for treasures.

"Are you sure you only want these treasures?" You Quan asked her afterward.

"Yes, and I will consider your debt cleared for these treasures," she said.

"Deal!" You Quan did not hesitate and immediately responded.

The treasures Feng Yuxiang took from his store were worth at least a few hundred million gold coins, yet You Quan seemed eager to give these treasures to her as long as it cleared his debt.

One can only imagine the reason being that You Quan's debt was actually worth more than the treasures Feng Yuxiang took.

After leaving You Quan's store, Feng Yuxiang continued to enter other stores to collect peoples' debt in the form of their treasures, and it seemed like every person in the Golden Phoenix Bazaar was in some sort of debt for some reason.

By the time Feng Yuxiang was done collecting their debts, she had acquired over 100 treasures from the Earth-grade to the Heaven-grade, and she had even managed to obtain a Divine-grade treasure that was worth billions of gold coins.

"The Young Master will definitely praise me once he sees this many treasures..." A wide grin appeared on Feng Yuxiang's face as she imagined the scene in her mind.

However, her imagination was quickly interrupted by a voice.

"Madam Feng!"

A man's voice resounded, wiping the smile off Feng Yuxiang's face.

She turned around to see a middle-aged man and a group of guards behind him.

"What do you want, Jin Yupu? I have already decided to leave the city, and I most likely won't be coming back here," she said to him.

"You won't be able to convince me to come back," she added.

"I know... I am not here to convince you to stay in the city. I just want to know your reason for leaving. Did something happen? Was it caused by the city? Or was it caused by my family? I won't be able to sleep properly without an answer, and I haven't been able to sleep a full night since you closed your store." Jin Yupu said to her.

Feng Yuxiang's departure was a huge blow to Phoenix City's income since her store earned them more money than everyone else combined—for the last few hundred years, and as the lord of the city, it was only natural for Jin Yupu to want to figure out why she left.

If it was his city that chased her away, he'd reform the city from the bottom to the top. If someone in his family had offended her, he'd disown that person. And if someone in the city had offended her, he'd give that individual a public execution—that was how much Jin Yupu valued Feng Yuxiang's presence.

"If I tell you, will you stop bothering me?" Feng Yuxiang said.

"I promise." He nodded.

Feng Yuxiang took a deep breath and then said, "I have found someone I want to serve— a Master. And I am currently following him right now. Sooner or later, we'll leave the Lower Heavens. This is why I cannot stay here anymore."

"What....?" Jin Yupu and everyone there looked at her with wide eyes.

Feng Yuxiang, the number one expert in Phoenix City had abandoned her priceless store not because someone had offended her but because she lowered her head for someone else, becoming their servant? How could that even be possible? Surely, they must be dreaming.

"A-Are you serious, Madam Feng? Nobody offended you, causing you to leave the city?" Jin Yupu was clearly in disbelief.

After all, there was no way that a peak Spirit Grandmaster like Feng Yuxiang could become a servant for another person, especially if they consider her arrogant and prideful demeanor.

"Don't look down on my Young Master. He's a once-in-a-lifetime genius who will surely dominate the Nine Heavens one day, and I want to be there to witness it. Although I had a different goal when I first met him, after spending some time with him, I have decided that I want to follow him to the end." Feng Yuxiang said.

"Now that you know why I am leaving, you can stop bothering me. See ya." Feng Yuxiang then flew into the sky before disappearing into the distance, leaving Jin Yupu and the others speechless.

"I have acquired more treasures than I'd anticipated. Hopefully, this means the Young Master will praise me more... Hehe..." Feng Yuxiang chuckled to herself as she sped back to Long Chen City.

Chapter 449 - Do You Think It Exists?

Another week has passed since Yuan asked Feng Yuxiang and Xiao Hua to look for treasures, and Wang Xiuying arrived at their apartment for another weekly checkup.

"Yuan, I have consumed a couple of Earth-grade treasures and even one Heaven-grade treasure, but none of them affected my real body." Wang Xiuying said to him.

"What? You have already acquired the treasures? That was quick." Yuan said to her.

"Well, it's not hard when you're one of the most prominent disciples in the Spirit Healing Academy." Wang Xiuying said in a prideful tone.

"My master usually gives me all of the resources I need if I ask nicely and it's a reasonable amount," she continued.

Before joining the Spirit Healing Academy, Wang Xiuying had to undertake their disciple examination, and to their surprise, she passed it with flying colors, even obtaining a high score that their sect hadn't seen in a very long time.

Thus, Wang Xiuying had instantly become the Spirit Healing Academy's treasure—one of their most valued disciples, and this gave her a lot of privileges and benefits, one of them being that she almost had unlimited resources to supply her growth.

As a result, in just a single month, Wang Xiuying's cultivation base soared to the peak of Spirit Warrior, becoming a top player in Cultivation Online.

Of course, Wang Xiuying wasn't the only player to experience significant progress and growth, as Lightning Emperor, the other player who ascended with her, also experienced similar growth.

"So treasures below Heaven-grade don't work, huh... Maybe we need to consume Divine-grade treasures." Yuan mumbled.

"Who knows. Maybe it really works but with a much lower chance, and higher grade treasures will have a higher chance for it to transfer to our real bodies." Wang Xiuying said.

After a moment of silence, she continued, "Hey, Yuan, this may sound like an odd question, but do you think the world inside Cultivation Online actually exists somewhere in this seemingly boundless universe? Like another world?"

"Cultivation Online... exists?" Yuan mumbled in a dazed voice.

Although he never mentioned it to anyone fearing that they might call him crazy, he has indeed had such thoughts before.

"I mean, how else can you explain the cultivation phenomenon and other things? I am not the only one with such thoughts. There are many people questioning why cultivation techniques in Cultivation Online work in our world, and there are already plenty of theories about the cultivation world being real."

"I kind of believe it, but it's also quite unbelievable at the same time. What do you think?"

A smile appeared on Yuan's face as she spoke in a longing voice, "If the world of cultivation truly exists, how nice would that be? I mean, if you ignore the unreasonable people, the cultivation world is such a wonderful place that's filled with mysteries and miracles. I wouldn't mind it at all if it really exists."

"Yes, I think so, too." Wang Xiuying said.

Sometime later, right before Wang Xiuying left, Yuan said to her, "I am going to log in today to see if the others have returned yet. I'll let you know the results soon."

"Okay. I'll be waiting." Wang Xiuying said.

After Wang Xiuying left, Yuan asked Meixiu, "How's your cultivation?"

"I should be entering the sixth level in a few days," she calmly responded.

"I see... Can you enter the game with me today? I am doing an experiment," he then said.

"What kind of experiment?"

"Whether or not treasures inside Cultivation Online will affect our real bodies."

"What...?" Meixiu mumbled in a dumbfounded voice.

"I know it sounds crazy but hear me out..." Yuan proceeded to tell Meixiu about the impurity incident as well as the recent rumor regarding the topic.

"If this is true... I cannot even imagine what could happen..." Meixiu said afterward.

"Right? Therefore, we're going to test it out— using our own bodies."

"This is crazy..." Meixiu sighed.

What if these treasures actually work? Will there be any side effects afterward?

In the end, Meixiu gave up and entered Cultivation Online with Yuan.

Inside Cultivation Online, Yuan went back upstairs to meet up with Meixiu, as he was forced to leave before by that fierce girl.

'Hopefully, she's gone by now...' Yuan sighed inwardly as he approached the top floor.

"Feng Feng, Xiao Hua, can you hear me?" Yuan tried to speak with them through their servant-master connection.

"Yes, I can hear you, Young Master. Are you still at the Cultivators' Haven? I will be there in a minute." Feng Yuxiang responded a moment later.

As for Xiao Hua, Yuan has yet to hear a response from her even after Feng Yuxiang showed up.

"Xiao Hua is not with you?" Yuan asked her.

Feng Yuxiang shook her head and said, "We went our separate ways."

"I see... Then she's probably too far away to hear my voice. I hope she's okay." Yuan said.

"There's nothing in the Lower Heavens that can harm her so you don't have to worry," said Feng Yuxiang.

"I hope that's the case."

Sometime later, Yuan entered one of the cultivation rooms with Meixiu and Feng Yuxiang.

"Here you go."

Once they had some privacy, Feng Yuxiang proceeded to retrieve the treasures she had acquired at the Golden Phoenix Bazaar.

Yuan and Meixiu were shaken when they saw the number of treasures Feng Yuxiang had acquired.

"Y-You obtained this many treasures with the number of spirit stones I gave you?" Yuan asked her in a trembling voice.

Feng Yuxiang showed a stiff smile and said, "Y-Yes... I went to speak with my friends, and I managed to get them at a discounted price because they owed me."

"Even if there was a discount... I still can't believe that you'd obtained this many treasures with the spirit stones I gave you! Look at this! There's even a Divine-grade treasure in here! Are you telling me that you got everything here for less than 1,000 spirit stones?! That's only worth around 10 million gold coins!" Yuan said to her, clearly doubting her claims.

Chapter 450 - Longevity Seed

"Fine, I'll tell you the truth, Young Master." Feng Yuxiang sighed, and then she continued, "Truth is, they were given to me for free."

"What? That sounds even less likely!" Yuan said.

After all, who would give up such precious treasures for free?

"I'm telling you the truth, Young Master. I went to the Golden Phoenix Bazaar to acquire these treasures," she said.

"Golden Phoenix Bazaar?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

She nodded and said, "I know everybody that owns a store there, and they're all indebted to me, so I decided to go there to collect their debt since I will be leaving this place soon, and they gave me these treasures to clear their debt. I guess these treasures weren't free technically, but let's not ponder about the minor stuff."

Feng Yuxiang told him the truth.

"Do you see any treasures that you want, Young Master?" she then asked him again.

"Hmm..." Yuan looked at the treasures and said, "I will have to look through them one by one first."

"Take your time," she said.

"Anyways, thank you, Feng Feng. I owe you for this." Yuan then said to her.

"I'm just doing my job," she said with a smile.

"If you want, I can give you some of my blood later."

However, to Yuan's surprise, Feng Yuxiang shook her head and refused to take his blood.

"It's okay, Young Master. You can save your blood."

"Eh? Really? Are you okay? You would normally be excited to drink it..." Yuan said with a surprised look on his face, wondering if something had happened.

Feng Yuxiang showed a stiff smile and said, "Everything is fine. There are just days where I have no appetite for anything."

"I see... Well, if you ever feel like drinking it again, just let me know."

"Okay. Thank you, Young Master."

Ever since Xiao Hua told her that she might be forced to ascend to a higher realm if she breaks free from her curse and restores her cultivation base, Feng Yuxiang has become hesitant on drinking Yuan's blood, especially when she could feel the curse weakening with every sip.

'I will continue to drink his blood once we reach Spirit Heaven where there's a bigger limit. Until then, I will have to resist myself from drinking any of his blood...' Feng Yuxiang sighed inwardly.

Yuan began looking through the pile of treasures a moment later, and he would spend the next hour doing so.

An hour later, Yuan sighed, "Even though there are so many treasures here, none of them are really unique enough for my experiment..."

"What experiment?" Feng Yuxiang looked at him with wide eyes.

Was all of her efforts in vain?

"It's hard to explain it..." Yuan said.

After all, how would he go about telling her that he's testing to see if the treasures inside a game would affect his real body?

He then said, "All of these treasures enhance one's strength or permanently enhance one's stats. There's really nothing truly unique about them. Isn't there something that can make my hair grow longer or something?"

"Making the Young Master's hair grow longer?" Feng Yuxiang raised her eyebrows.

Then she retrieved something from her spatial ring and showed it to him, "This is Longevity Seed. If you consume it, it'll grant you 100 years of longevity and even give you new hair. It's really popular amongst men who are balding."

Yuan looked at the seed with raised eyebrows. He didn't literally mean it when he said that he wanted something that could grow his hair, as it was just an example.

"I mean, it's an Earth-grade treasure, so I guess I can try it."

"Thanks, Feng Feng." Yuan accepted the Longevity Seed and tossed it inside his mouth.

After chewing it a couple of times, he swallowed it.

Ding!

<You have consumed Longevity Seed>

<You have gained 100 years of longevity from consuming Longevity Seed!>

After consuming the seed, Yuan stood there and waited for his hair to grow.

However, to his surprise, his hair began falling off his head instead, instantly making him bald!

"What!" Yuan was shocked when he saw this.

"Feng Feng! You lied to me! This thing is doing the exact opposite of what you said!" Yuan looked at her with a frown on his face.

"Pft..." Feng Yuxiang almost burst out laughing when she saw Yuan's bald appearance.

Meixiu was no different, and she tried her best to resist her urges.

"W-Wait a moment, Young Master. I didn't lie to you," Feng Yuxiang then said, "Your hair will grow back in a bit. The treasure killed all of your old hair to remake new ones."

And just like Feng Yuxiang claimed, silky black hair began emerging from Yuan's bald head shortly after.

However, it grew more than he expected, and by the time it stopped growing, his new hair had reached his butt.

"There's too much hair now..." Yuan sighed.

"Now I have to get a haircut," he then said.

"Why? I think you look much better with long hair, Young Master." Feng Yuxiang said to him.

"Here. You can use this to tie your hair."

She then handed him a golden hairband.

"I guess this will do for now..." Yuan then tied his long and silky hair into a ponytail.

"Now you look more like a cultivator, Young Master." Feng Yuxiang chuckled.

"Oh... And more handsome."

"Handsome? Wouldn't this make me look more feminine instead?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"What do you think, Meixiu?" He suddenly asked her.

"Eh?" Meixiu was taken by surprise, and when she saw his new appearance that had a certain charm and elegance to it, she began blushing.

"I-I think it's fine," she finally said after a moment of awkward silence.

"Okay, then we will be right back. Meixiu, I need you to check my hair for me." Yuan said to her before logging off shortly after.

Sometime later, Meixiu went to his room.

"Well? Did my hair grow longer?" Yuan asked her.

"No... Nothing happened," she said.

"I see... Then let's go try some more treasures."

The two of them returned to the game a moment later and began looking through the treasures again.

Chapter 451 - Berserker's Gem

"What about this one, Yuan? It can boost your eyesight and reaction by a significant amount," Meixiu showed him a weird-looking fruit.

"You can eat it. I have already eaten one." Yuan said to her.

Meixiu nodded and consumed the Earth-grade treasure a moment later.

Ding!

<You have consumed Fruit of Perception>

A few moments later, Meixiu said, "Wow, my eyesights got noticeably better after consuming the treasure, and I can see details that I wouldn't normally be able to before. I'm not sure about my reaction speed though—"

Meixiu suddenly stopped speaking and tilted her head when she noticed something flying at her face with incredible speed.

"Y-Yuan?" Meixiu looked at him with wide eyes.

"Sorry, I just wanted to test your reaction." Yuan chuckled a little before retrieving his arm.

"What do you think? Has your reaction gotten better?"

"P-Probably..." she said.

"Now see if these changes apply outside." Yuan then said.

Meixiu nodded and logged off the game shortly after to see the results.

She returned a few moments later and shook her head, "I don't think it worked."

"What about this treasure? It's a Heaven-grade treasure, and it boosts your strength significantly." Yuan asked.

"You want me to take this treasure as well?"

"I mean, I wouldn't be able to test the results even if I use it," Yuan said with a stiff smile on his face.

"Oh... Okay..." Meixiu realized what Yuan was trying to say and subconsciously nodded.

Ding!

<You have consumed Berserker's Gem>

<+20,000 Physical Strength>

"That's a lot of strength..." Meixiu muttered in a dazed voice before logging off to see if her physical strength had improved.

'How should I go about testing my strength? As a cultivator, I am already strong enough to lift an entire desk without any issues...' Meixiu wondered to herself as she looked around her room for something extremely heavy.

However, there was nothing in her room that would challenge her already profound strength.

After pondering for some time, Meixiu decided to go outside the apartment where plenty of heavy objects were available.

She then approached one of the cars parked in front of the apartment before looking left and right to make sure nobody was looking at her.

Once she was clear, Meixiu bent her knees and tried to pick up the car.

As ridiculous and embarrassing as it felt, Meixiu was also curious about the rumor.

When she had a good grip on the car, Meixiu tried to stand up with the car.

"?!?!?!"

The moment she stood up, the car in her grasp also went up with her.

This shocked her so much that she accidentally dropped the car back down.

Meixiu looked left and right again to make sure nobody saw her before she ran back into the apartment.

"I-I am only dreaming, right?" Meixiu looked at her own palms with clear disbelief on her face.

After taking a moment to calm down, Meixiu went inside her room and tried to lift her bed.

Although she could lift her bed before she consumed the treasure, it wasn't easy.

Once she had a good grip on the bed, Meixiu took a deep breath before lifting the bed into the air like it weighed nothing.

"Heavens..." Meixiu mumbled in a dazed voice as she stared at the bed that was directly above her head.

And to make sure it wasn't just a fluke, Meixiu began benching the bed as though it were a barbell.

After benching the bed a dozen times, Meixiu carefully placed the bed back down onto the floor without a single bead of sweat on her face or body.

"I-It's real... The treasure inside the game really affected my real body..."

After taking a moment to calm down, Meixiu returned to Cultivation Online to share her results.

"That took longer than I expected. How did it go?" Yuan asked her when Meixiu finally logged back in after many minutes.

Meixiu stared at Yuan in silence before speaking in a low voice, "It worked..."

"Huh?" Yuan's eyes widened.

"The experiment worked..." Meixiu said, and she proceeded to tell him her experience.

"The Heaven-grade treasure worked on you but it didn't work on Wang Xiuying? I guess this proves that every treasure has a chance to transfer its effects outside, and the chances will depend on the grade of the treasure..." Yuan said in an excited voice.

Meanwhile, Feng Yuxiang looked at them with a weird expression on her face, as she was unable to comprehend their situation.

"Anyways, thank you for the treasures. You can keep the rest for yourself since we no longer need it." Yuan said to Feng Yuxiang afterward.

"O-Okay..." Feng Yuxiang nodded and stored the rest of the treasures into her spatial ring.

Sometime later, Yuan said to her, "Feng Feng, can you stay here and wait for Xiao Hua? I'm not sure when she'll come back, though."

"I don't mind." Feng Yuxiang nodded.

"I will come back at least once a day just in case she comes back," he then said.

Yuan and Meixiu logged off the game shortly after to discuss the results even more.

"Can you call Wang Xiuying later and tell her to visit us tomorrow? I'd like to tell her the results of our experiments." Yuan said to Meixiu.

"Okay."

"Anyways, although I was already quite confident that the rumors were true, seeing it happen again is another thing." Yuan then said.

"Do you know what this means, Yuan?" Meixiu said.

"As long as one is lucky enough, they might be able to use treasures from Cultivation Online to benefit their real body. This might be quite disastrous if the world finds out about it if they haven't already."

"I'm sure some people already know this, just like how people knew about cultivation way before it was announced. It's only a matter of when it becomes widespread, and when that happens, the world will become even crazier."

"What should we do?" Meixiu asked.

"Is there even anything we can do?" Yuan sighed.

Chapter 452 - Peak Of Spirit Warrior

"I think the only thing we can do is prepare ourselves for it. Though I don't think it'll be that bad due to the rarity of treasures. Maybe I'm wrong, who knows..." Yuan sighed.

"If the chances of acquiring its effects are really low, it might not be that bad. And according to my research, the majority of the playerbase are only just starting to obtain Earth-grade treasures with Heaven-grade treasures and above still unattainable besides those really wealthy and powerful players who just buy them using real money." Meixiu said.

"There's no use thinking about it now. Let's just focus on cultivation so when the world learns about this and evolves once again, we'll be prepared for it." Yuan said.

"Yes, I agree." Meixiu nodded.

Sometime later, they started their cultivation.

The following day, Wang Xiuying returned to their apartment.

"What's up, Yuan? Did you need to speak with me? Does it have anything to do with your condition?" she asked him.

"No, this is about our experiment. We have some results." Yuan said to her.

"What! Really?!" Wang Xiuying instantly became excited.

"Yes." Yuan proceeded to explain to Wang Xiuying everything that had occurred yesterday.

Wang Xiuying silently stared at Meixiu after hearing everything.

"Y-You can lift a car with your bare hands?" Wang Xiuying asked her in a somewhat doubtful voice.

"Yes. I know it sounds crazy, but..." Meixiu nodded.

"It's alright. I believe you. I was just expressing my disbelief that it actually worked." Wang Xiuying said.

"You said that it was a Heaven-grade treasure that you'd consumed, right? I also consumed a Heaven-grade treasure, but nothing happened to me, so I guess there's only a chance of obtaining the effects."

"What are you going to do now, Yuan?" Wang Xiuying then asked him.

"What do you want me to do?" He asked her in return.

"I... I don't know... But I know what I am going to do." Wang Xiuying chuckled.

"I am going to consume all of the treasures I can! Hopefully, I will eventually get lucky and strengthen my real body through the treasures in Cultivation Online."

Wang Xiuying announced her plans.

"Actually, you should also do the same, Yuan. Maybe there's a treasure in Cultivation Online that will be able to fix your eyesight and heal your body!"

Hearing this, Meixiu also said, "Now that you mention it, there are countless miraculous treasures in Cultivation Online with profound effects one cannot even imagine! I'm sure there are treasures out there that can help you!"

"I think so, too. However, we should still focus on cultivating our real bodies first. I am going to enter the ninth level first before trying to breakthrough to Spirit Master. Once I do that, I will focus on Cultivation Online." Yuan said.

"Good luck, Yuan. I am going to see if there's anything I can do to help in the Spirit Heavens. Maybe my Master will know something about your condition. I'll ask her." Wang Xiuying said.

"Okay. Thank you."

Wang Xiuying left shortly after while Yuan and Meixiu returned to their cultivation.

For the next couple of days, Yuan would spend most of his time cultivating towards the ninth level Spirit Warrior while also checking Cultivation Online to see if Xiao Hua had returned yet.

A week later, Yuan entered the ninth level, feeling an outburst of energy coming from somewhere within his body, yet he could not pinpoint the location.

"Xiao Hua still hasn't returned yet? She's gone for so long that it's a little worrisome..." Yuan sighed when Feng Yuxiang told him she hadn't returned yet.

"Who knows where she went. However, for her to take this long, she's either in trouble or she went really far to get the treasure." Feng Yuxiang said.

"However, with her cultivation base, I doubt it would take this long even if she had to travel to the other side of the world."

"Alright. I will continue to check if she has returned every day. Thank you for doing this, Feng Feng. I know this is probably very boring for you since you have to sit here all day." Yuan said to her.

"Don't mention it, Young Master. It's really not that bad. As someone who has lived for thousands of years, how I experience time may differ from your experience."

Sometime later, Yuan logged off and continued to cultivate.

One week...

Two weeks...

Three weeks...

An entire month has passed since Yuan reached the ninth level of Spirit Warrior, and he has reached the peak of Spirit Warrior, being only a step from entering Spirit Master.

However, this single step was by no means small, and even after trying to breakthrough for an entire week, Yuan remained stuck as a Spirit Warrior.

Meanwhile, Meixiu had managed to enter the eighth level of Spirit Apprentice, preparing to enter the ninth level.

"I entered Spirit Master as easily as breathing in Cultivation Online, yet I cannot do the same in the real world. This also happened when I tried to enter Spirit Warrior. I guess I can only continue trying..." He sighed.

After spending a few hours trying to breakthrough and failing, Yuan decided to enter Cultivation Online to see if Xiao Hua has returned yet.

"Is there anything I can do to contact her?" Yuan asked Feng Yuxiang, as he was getting impatient waiting for Xiao Hua, worried that something might've happened to her.

"Normally, you can speak with us telepathically because of the Master and Servant connection between us, but that only works for a certain amount of distance. Once we are outside the range, we won't be able to hear your voice."

"I see... Guess I can only keep trying to contact her."

After taking a deep breath, Yuan closed his eyes and proceeded to spend the next couple of minutes calling Xiao Hua.

Many minutes later with no result, Yuan prepared to log off.

However, just as he gave up, he could hear a familiar voice resound in his head.

"Sorry for making you wait, Brother Yuan."

Hearing Xiao Hua's voice, Yuan was ecstatic.

"Xiao Hua! You're back!" He exclaimed.

Chapter 453 - Xiao Hua Returns

After hearing Xiao Hua's voice, Yuan decided to stay in the game for a little longer to see why it'd taken her this long to return and where she'd gone.

A few minutes later, Xiao Hua returned to the Cultivators' Haven.

"Thank the heavens you're okay, Xiao Hua. I was worried that something bad might've happened to you because you have been gone for so long!" Yuan gave her a tight hug after seeing her again.

Xiao Hua didn't immediately respond and merely enjoyed the sensation of being hugged by Yuan while silently blushing.

"By the way, I returned after just two days." Feng Yuxiang said to her.

"I'm sorry, Brother Yuan, but Xiao Hua wanted to fulfill your request, so Xiao Hua did her best trying to find a unique treasure," she said.

She then reached inside her storage pouch before taking out a small glass bottle of semi-transparent azure-colored liquid that had around 1 ounce of liquid inside.

"What is this?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"Celestial Water." Xiao Hua said in a calm voice.

"W-What did you just say?" Feng Yuxiang was the first to speak, and she sounded like she was in disbelief.

"Celestial Water." Xiao Hua repeated.

"Celestial Water?! Impossible! Where in heaven's name did you go to obtain Celestial Water?! I refuse to believe that you have found that in the Lower Heavens! Even the Spirit Heaven wouldn't have something like this!" Feng Yuxiang quickly said.

"What's so valuable about this Celestial Water?" Yuan asked.

"Celestial Water is from an extremely rare treasure known as the Celestial Tree. This treasure can only be found in the fifth heaven and above, and the Celestial Tree can only produce one drop of Celestial Water every 10,000 years! An ounce of Celestial Water is worth even more than Mythic-grade treasures!" Feng Yuxiang explained.

"Furthermore, Celestial Water has the ability to increase one's innate talent by at least 10 percent! Although it only works if you drink an ounce at a time, it's still incredibly sought after! That bottle of Celestial Water can start even a huge war if people know about it!"

"Increasing one's talent by at least 10 percent? That is definitely unique and sounds very expensive... How on earth did you acquire such a treasure, Xiao Hua? And where did you go to obtain it?" Yuan asked her.

"..."

After a moment of silence, she said, "Xiao Hua went to the upper heavens to obtain the Celestial Water."

Both Yuan and Feng Yuxiang's jaws dropped after hearing her words.

"Y-You went to the upper heavens for this?" Yuan almost couldn't believe his ears.

It now made sense why it took so long for Xiao Hua to return. To think she'd traveled to the upper heavens during this time. He was speechless.

"If you don't mind me asking, exactly how far did you go?" Feng Yuxiang asked her.

However, Xiao Hua remained silent, clearly unwilling to reveal everything.

Yuan and Feng Yuxiang looked at each other, unsure how they should react anymore.

"Does Brother Yuan not like it?" Xiao Hua asked him a moment later.

"Eh? Of course, I like it. In fact, I am flattered that you'd gone all the way to the upper heavens to acquire such a valuable treasure for me. I just don't know how to react..." He quickly said.

Xiao Hua nodded, and then she turned to look at Feng Yuxiang, "What treasures did you acquire for Brother Yuan?"

Obviously, Xiao Hua didn't forget about their 'friendly competition', hence why she even bothered to ask Feng Yuxiang in the first place.

A bittersweet smile appeared on Feng Yuxiang's face, and she said, "Y-You win this one. There's no way my treasures could compare with your Celestial Water even if I had a carriage-load of them."

Xiao Hua nodded in a calm manner, yet there was a glint of delight within her eyes.

"Here, Brother Yuan, you should drink it." Xiao Hua offered this priceless treasure that even Immortals would kill for to Yuan in a casual manner.

"A-Are you sure? It must've cost a fortune, right? I highly doubt my spirit stones were able to pay for even a small fraction of its price..." Yuan said.

"It's okay. Xiao Hua didn't have to pay for it," she said, shocking them even more.

"What? You're telling me that you'd manage to obtain the Celestial Water for free? As if I'd believe that!" Feng Yuxiang said afterward.

"It's true." Xiao Hua said, not even bothering to explain herself.

"If you say so, I will drink it. I don't want your effort to go to waste, after all." Yuan said.

No matter how she'd acquired this treasure, it was a fact that she'd gone all the way to the upper heavens to obtain this treasure for him.

After taking a deep breath, Yuan removed the seal on the glass bottle and chugged the Celestial Water down in a single gulp.

"Whoa!"

Yuan immediately kneeled on the floor after he drank the Celestial Water, feeling his entire body heating up at a significant rate.

"W-What is this? I feel so hot!" Yuan exclaimed, recalling when he'd first awakened his bloodline, as this was a familiar feeling.

However, unlike previously, he didn't feel any pain from the heat no matter how hot it felt.

In fact, he didn't feel any discomfort.

Yuan's eyes suddenly began flickering with a golden glow, almost like his Dragon's Gaze was activating and deactivating itself continuously.

"Is this supposed to happen?" Feng Yuxiang asked Xiao Hua.

This is her first time witnessing someone consuming Celestial Water, too.

"I... I don't know..." she said, as this was her first time witnessing it as well.

Meanwhile, somewhere in the upper heavens, the jade tablet with the word 'Destiny' engraved into it began glowing once again.

When this happened, an old man suddenly appeared before it like a ghost, and he proceeded to stare at the jade tablet with a profound look on his face.

"The jade tablet is reacting once again, yet I cannot sense your presence... Just where in the Nine Heavens are you, Master?" The old man muttered in a low voice.

Chapter 454 - Black Pajamas

A couple of minutes had passed since Yuan consumed the Celestial Water, and the heat in his body had finally subsided.

"Young Master, are you okay?" Feng Yuxiang asked him afterward.

"Yes... I am fine." Yuan said as he stood up, feeling a little lightheaded.

"Do you feel any different?" Xiao Hua asked him.

Yuan patted himself and shook his head, "No, I don't..."

In fact, he didn't even get any notification.

Normally, whenever he consumes a treasure, it would be followed by a notification and how it's affected his body. However, there was nothing this time. No notifications— nothing.

This was incredibly odd. Does this mean the Celestial Water didn't affect him at all? But how is that possible? Clearly, his body reacted to it.

"Nothing at all? How weird. The Celestial Water is a priceless treasure even in the Supreme Heaven." Feng Yuxiang said.

"Maybe it takes time to take effect?" Xiao Hua theorized.

"That makes sense. Maybe it'll take effect later once your body fully absorbs it. There are many treasures like that out there." Feng Yuxiang agreed.

"Okay. Guess I'll just have to wait and see." Yuan nodded.

Sometime later, Feng Yuxiang and Xiao Hua returned to his body before Yuan logged off the game to cultivate.

Now that Xiao Hua has returned safely, Yuan was able to cultivate with a peaceful mind.

However, he quickly noticed a change in the way that he cultivated— that it'd suddenly become easier to cultivate.

Normally, he'd need to clear his mind and recite the cultivation technique inside his mind to absorb spiritual energy.

Now, he could absorb the spiritual energy around him as though it was natural, almost like breathing.

Unfortunately for him, even if he could cultivate easier, it wouldn't matter since he cannot obtain any more spiritual energy until he breakthrough to Spirit Master.

'I think there is a term for this... What was it? A bottleneck?' Yuan sighed inwardly.

Sometime later, Yuan thought to himself, 'Since I cannot advance my cultivation anymore, I should practice something else... like my Divine Sense...'

Ever since he started focusing on his cultivation base, Yuan had neglected training his Divine Sense.

In fact, it has been a while since he tried to activate his Divine Sense.

'The last time I tried, it felt like I was on the verge of succeeding. Now that I am at the peak of Spirit Warrior, I might be able to do it...'

After taking a deep breath, Yuan began trying to activate his Divine Sense again.

Meanwhile, in the room beside Yuan's room, Meixiu suddenly opened her eyes and looked at the ceiling for some reason.

'It's probably just my imagination...' Meixiu thought to herself.

However, unbeknownst to Meixiu, somebody was actually staring at her.

"I-It worked!" Yuan exclaimed in an excited voice when his Divine Sense activated properly, allowing him to see inside his room and half of Meixiu's room.

How long has it been since he was able to see? Almost a decade ago.

Once Yuan was certain that his Divine Sense was working, tears flowed down his face, quickly soaking the pillow.

"Are you okay, Yuan?" Meixiu asked him from outside when she heard his shouting.

"Yes, I am okay."

Yuan said as his Divine Sense focused onto Meixiu's beautiful face.

Although he was already used to seeing her face, there was just something different about seeing her in the real world. Compared to her avatar in Cultivation Online, Meixiu looked almost identical with the only thing being different was their aura.

And just as Meixiu prepared to return to her own room to cultivate, Yuan's voice resounded.

"Meixiu, you look great in those black pajamas."

"Eh?"

Meixiu's movement froze the moment she heard this, and she turned to look at his room with a look of disbelief on her face.

"W-What did you just say?" she asked him in a dazed voice.

Yuan chuckled and said, "You should see your face right now. It's quite funny."

A shiver went down Meixiu's spine. Why does it sound like Yuan can see her right now?

"What's going on Yuan?" Meixiu decided to enter his room and ask him.

The first thing she noticed when she entered his room was the smile on his face, and then the tears flowing down his closed eyes.

"W-Why are you crying?" she asked him.

"Because I can see," he responded.

"What?" Meixiu's eyes widened.

"I can see again, Meixiu. I can use Divine Sense to see." Yuan revealed to her.

"W-Wait a moment... You can use Divine Sense? Right now?"

"Yes. I am looking at you right now through Divine Sense. You're wearing a pair of black pajamas, right?"

Meixiu had to look down at her own clothes to make sure he was correct, and sure enough, she was wearing black pajamas.

"Unbelievable..." Meixiu muttered in a dazed voice.

"However, it's a little exhausting to use it continuously."

Once she'd calmed down enough, Meixiu said with a warm smile on her face, "Congratulations, Yuan. This is one massive step towards your recovery."

"Yes, I think so, too. However, there's one more thing I want to tell you..." Yuan suddenly said.

"What is it?"

"Come closer," he said.

Meixiu nodded and approached him, feeling a little nervous for some reason.

Once she was by the bed, Yuan said, "Give me your hand for a moment."

"My hand?" Meixiu raised her eyebrow.

"Yes. Place it on my chest," he said.

Meixiu didn't know what he was trying to do, but she kneeled on the floor and placed her fair hand on his chest nevertheless.

Feeling Meixiu's hand on his chest, Yuan took a deep breath and proceeded to move his right hand that had been resting on his side.

Meixiu's eyes widened with shock as she witnessed Yuan's right hand lift into the air without any support, and then she watched as it approached her hand.

Before she realized it, Yuan's right hand was directly on top of her own hand.

"Not only can I see, but I can move as well..." Yuan's voice resounded a second later, snapping Meixiu out of her daze.

Chapter 455 - A Noticeable Change

"Y-You can move now...? Since when...?" Meixiu muttered in a low voice after Yuan's shocking reveal.

"To tell you the truth, my recovery started many weeks ago— even before you started playing Cultivation Online. In fact, I initially planned on keeping this a secret until I could get off the bed by myself, but I changed my mind after hearing your words just now." Yuan said.

"My words...?"

"Yes... Your voice when you congratulated me... I couldn't continue to keep it to myself after hearing it. I'm sorry for keeping it a secret for so long, but I wanted to make sure that I was actually recovering and not give you or Yu Rou false hope."

"It's okay. You don't have to apologize. I'm just glad that you're finally recovering, Yuan." Meixiu said to him in a gentle voice, feeling an indescribable feeling surging from her heart at this moment.

Unbeknownst to Meixiu at first, tears began appearing in her eyes before quickly falling down her face.

Meixiu wiped her eyes when she realized that her vision was getting blurry, and to her surprise, she was actually crying due to being overwhelmed by happiness. It was definitely a first for her.

Meixiu quickly wiped her face with her free hand while silently hoping to herself that Yuan wasn't looking at her right now.

Luckily for her, Yuan didn't have his Divine Sense activated since he could only use it for a few moments before it exhausts his spiritual energy.

A few moments later, once Meixiu calmed down a little, she asked Yuan, "How much can you move right now? Can you sit up on the bed yet?"

"Unfortunately, lifting a hand is already my limit. Any more and my body will start experiencing pain," he sighed.

"Don't push yourself, Yuan. You're recovering, and that's all it matters."

"I know."

"Are you going to tell Yu Rou?" Meixiu suddenly asked.

"..."

Yuan didn't immediately respond, and after a moment of silence, he said, "I... I want to surprise her. When I tell Yu Rou, I want to be standing. I hope you don't mind keeping this a secret for now."

"I don't mind," Meixiu said.

"Thank you."

Sometime later, Yuan said, "I am already at the peak of Spirit Warrior, but I cannot breakthrough to Spirit Master for some reason. I will try for a few more days. If I still cannot breakthrough, I will focus on Cultivation Online."

"Alright. I will try to push for the ninth level before I return to Cultivation Online." Meixiu said.

"Take your time."

Meixiu returned to her own room a few moments later.

'Yuan... He's recovering... He can see again, even move... I cannot wait to see him walk again.'

Meixiu thought to herself as she took a seat on the hard floor and began her cultivation.

To her surprise, when she cultivated, Meixiu noticed a noticeable change in her cultivation speed, as she was absorbing the spiritual energy around her at a much quicker rate than she could previously achieve— almost twice as fast.

Meixiu didn't know what was causing this phenomenon, but she welcomed it.

A few days later, Meixiu entered the ninth level of Spirit Apprentice.

"Yuan, did you manage to breakthrough?" Meixiu asked him.

"Nope..." Yuan sighed.

"Every time it feels like I am about to have a breakthrough, that feeling would suddenly disappear. It's like walking towards an open door, but just as you're about to enter that door, it closes in your face."

Meixiu pondered for a moment before speaking, "Maybe it has something to do with our world? What if there's not enough spiritual energy for you to breakthrough? Spirit Master is pretty high, right?"

"Now that you mention it... That does make sense... Okay, I will ask Xiao Hua and the others later." Yuan said.

"What about you? Have you reached your goal?" Yuan asked her.

"Yes, but the three-month time limit for the registration is getting close, so I was thinking about registering myself first so I can get it out of the way. What about you, Yuan?"

"Registering, huh? Okay, let's go register ourselves and get this over with."

"Let's do it tomorrow since it's already late today," Meixiu suggested.

Sometime later, Meixiu went to prepare dinner.

After dinner, they went to sleep, taking a break from cultivation.

The following morning after breakfast, Meixiu helped Yuan change into a more fitting outfit for their journey outside before carrying him to his wheelchair.

"Are you ready to go?" Meixiu asked him after she prepared herself.

Yuan didn't say anything, but he closed his hand into a fist before giving her a thumbs up.

A smile appeared on Meixiu's face, and she pushed the wheelchair outside, leaving the apartment with him.

"How far away is the Cultivators' Association from here?" Yuan asked her once they were downstairs.

"It's about an hour from here on foot," she said.

"Do you want to take the taxi instead?"

"I want to look at the scenery if you don't mind..."

"I'm okay. We can walk."

"Thank you, Meixiu."

"I should probably buy a car to make traveling more convenient in case we need it..." Meixiu muttered to herself shortly after they started moving.

Despite her young age, Meixiu already has a driver's license, so she was qualified to drive a car.

"A car, huh? It'll definitely be necessary if we want to go anywhere that cannot be traveled in a reasonable time on foot." Yuan said.

"Yeah, you should probably get a car." Yuan agreed with her.

"Really? What kind of car should I get?"

"Yes. You can get whatever you want. I'll let you choose."

"Okay. I'll look around after we register at the Cultivators' Association."

While they made their way towards the Cultivators' Association, Yuan would use his Divine Sense to look at his surroundings.

Although he couldn't see any further than a few meters around him, it was more than enough for someone like him who hasn't seen the world for so many years.

An hour later, they arrived at the Cultivators' Association.

"Wow, there's a lot of people here even though it's so early in the morning." Meixiu was surprised to see the crowd of people gathered there.

After taking a moment to examine the area, Meixiu approached the tall building with Yuan.

Chapter 456 - A True Cultivation Genius

After avoiding the crowd with much effort, Meixiu pushed the wheelchair inside the building, where there were even more people, but since the people were in line in an orderly fashion, it felt much more spacious than outside.

It took a moment since there were multiple lines, but once Meixiu found the end of a line, she went there with Yuan.

While they waited in line, Yuan used his Divine Sense to look at the place and the people there.

The majority of people there were between the third level and the fifth level with a couple at the sixth level. Of course, all of them were still Spirit Apprentices.

Meixiu also looked around while they waited.

The interior of the building was quite bland, and there was barely any furniture or decoration. At the end of the room, there were a couple of desks with a clerk working behind it.

"I have been thinking, Meixiu, but how does the registration even work? Do they have some sort of device that can gauge our cultivation?" Yuan suddenly asked.

"I'm not sure, actually. I didn't really look into it. However, I don't see any devices in the front. Let me look it up real quick."

Meixiu proceeded to take out her cellphone and searched about the Cultivators' Association.

A few minutes later, she said, "According to this website, we only have to prove to them that we can cultivate in order to register as a cultivator. If we want to join the Cultivators' Association, we will need to undergo some sort of exam."

"Oh, we only need to prove to them that we can cultivate? That's easier than I'd thought." Yuan said.

They continued to wait, and after about two hours of waiting, they finally reached the front.

"How may I help you?" The woman behind the desk asked them.

"We're here to register as a cultivator," Meixiu said.

"I understand. Can I see your identification?"

"Identification?"

It was at this moment she realized that they didn't have any identification on them.

"Are identifications necessary? We didn't bring any." Meixiu said a moment later.

"If you don't have any identification on you, we will need your fingerprints. This is only to make sure that you're not a criminal or have any criminal record." The woman said to her.

"Okay, we can do that instead." Meixiu nodded.

"Great. Please scan your index finger on this."

The woman then handed her a small device that scanned fingerprints.

Meixiu placed her index finger on the device and waited until the woman spoke again, "Okay, you can take your finger off now."

"Give me a minute to run your fingerprint through the database."

Sometime later, Meixiu's information appeared on the screen.

When the woman saw that she was from the Yu Family, her eyes widened with surprise.

If she was from the Yu Family, why didn't she say so in the beginning?

Even though Meixiu and Yuan left the Yu Family, they're still technically part of the family since the Yu Family didn't remove them from the database.

"Okay, you're cleared. Please go to the room behind me for the next step."

Meixiu then said while pointing at Yuan, "We're together, and he's also here to register as a cultivator. Can we go inside together?"

"He's also a cultivator?" The woman raised her eyebrow when she saw Yuan.

"I will have to run his fingerprints as well." The woman said.

"Okay."

Meixiu proceeded to help Yuan place his finger on the device.

Sometime later, Yuan's information appeared on the screen for the woman to see.

'Yu Tian? He's also from the Yu Family! And he's even their son! I thought they only had a daughter!' The woman was shocked to see this, as she was only aware of Yu Rou's existence.

"Alright... I have cleared him as well." The woman said a moment later.

"Thank you."

Meixiu left the desk and walked to the door at the end of the hall a moment later with Yuan, which led to another large and spacious room.

The interior of this room looked like an empty gym, and there were people sitting in the lotus position near the middle of the room, absorbing the spiritual energy in the air.

A person only needed to continuously absorb spiritual energy for a minute straight to be deemed a cultivator, so the line moved relatively fast.

About half an hour later, Meixiu and Yuan reached the front of the line.

"Next!"

A bulky middle-aged man with a stopwatch turned to look at Meixiu after the previous individual left his seat.

"I will be right back, Yuan," Meixiu said as she left his side and took a seat beside the bulky man.

"Good luck," he said to her.

"I will start the time once you begin to cultivate. You must cultivate without stopping for an entire minute to qualify as a cultivator," he said to her.

Meixiu nodded and closed her eyes.

She then took a deep breath and began to recite the Divine-grade cultivation technique inside her mind.

Very quickly, the spiritual energy in the building began flying towards Meixiu, creating a small vortex around her.

"W-What the heck is that cultivation speed?!"

The bulky man and the others were shocked when they saw how quickly Meixiu was absorbing the spiritual energy.

"Heavens... She is a true cultivation genius..." The bulky man mumbled in a dazed voice as he stared at Meixiu's beautiful face, seemingly mesmerized by her.

He has been working here ever since the Cultivators' Association was created, and he has watched tens of thousands of people cultivate during the past few weeks, but none of them could compare to this young beauty cultivating before him right now.

More than a minute has passed since Meixiu started cultivating, but the bulky man didn't say anything, as he'd completely forgotten about the time when watching Meixiu cultivate.

A few more minutes later, Meixiu opened her eyes and turned to look at the bulky man.

"Excuse me, I think it's been more than a minute," she said to him in a calm voice.

"Eh?"

The bulky man quickly looked at his stopwatch, and sure enough, three minutes have passed since Meixiu started cultivating.

Chapter 457 - Chairman Zhao

"S-Sorry, I spaced out..." The bulky man said in a still dazed voice.

"You have passed the cultivation test."

Meixiu nodded and stood up.

"If you don't mind me asking, what cultivation base have you achieved?"
The bulky man suddenly asked her.

"Ninth Level Spirit Apprentice," Meixiu responded in a calm voice.

"N-Ninth level!" The bulky man trembled upon hearing this.

"Is there anything else?" Meixiu then asked him.

"N-No..." he quickly shook his head.

However, just as Meixiu started walking back to Yuan, a loud voice suddenly resounded, causing everyone to turn to look at the source.

"Wait a second, young lady!"

At the end of the hall, an old man followed by four other individuals could be seen approaching them in a hurry.

"C-Chairman!" The bulky man exclaimed when he saw this old man, and he quickly lowered his head to bow.

'Who?' Meixiu wondered inwardly as they approached her.

"Hello, young lady. My name is Zhao Zheng, and I am the chairman of the Cultivators' Association. I saw your cultivation just now, and it left me in awe. Can I get your name?"

"Meixiu," she responded.

"Then, Lady Meixiu, would you like to join my Cultivators' Association? We are currently in need of talented cultivators, and you're exactly what we are looking for. If you join us, we can guarantee you a Heaven-grade cultivation technique, and when we acquire a Divine-grade cultivation technique in the future, you will also get to practice it." Zhao Zheng said, trying to recruit Meixiu into the Cultivators' Association.

However, Meixiu quickly shook her head and said, "Thank you for the offer, but I do not wish to join the Cultivators' Association."

The spectators were shocked when Meixiu refused Zhao Zheng's offer so casually. Many of them had plans to join the Cultivators' Association after this, so when they saw Meixiu getting recruited by the chairman of the association, they were overwhelmed with jealousy.

"What! The chairman himself personally invited you to join the Cultivators' Association and you dare refuse?! Know your place!" One of the figures standing behind Zhao Zheng suddenly exclaimed.

Another one then said, "You may have some talents in cultivation, but without a proper cultivation technique, you can only go so far. However, if you join us, we can guarantee you a limitless future."

Despite their words, Meixiu remained calm and said, "I refuse."

"You—!"

"Stop." Zhao Zheng suddenly interrupted.

Once there was silence, he continued, "Can you at least tell me why you're refusing my offer? Are you already part of another power? Or do you have something against our association?"

"I have nothing against the association. My hands are already fully occupied with other matters, and I'm not interested in the Cultivators' Association in general." Meixiu said.

"Other matters? There's nothing my association cannot solve. If you join us, we'll help you with whatever you're occupied with." Zhao Zheng wasn't willing to give up someone as talented as Meixiu so easily.

Hearing his words, Meixiu smiled and said, "No thank you. I enjoy what I am doing, and I will continue doing it until I am no longer needed."

"What a pity." Zhao Zheng shook his head.

He then said, "Well, if you ever decide to change your mind, my Cultivators' Association will always have its doors opened for you."

Zhao Zheng turned around and walked away without saying anything else. The four people with him lingered for a little longer to stare at Meixiu with displeased looks on their faces before leaving with Zhao Zheng.

Once the place returned to being somewhat peaceful, the bulky man could finally breathe properly, and he continued the examination shortly after.

"Young lady, you're going the wrong way." The bulky man said to Meixiu when he noticed her returning to the line.

He then pointed at the door on the other side and continued, "If you're finished, you go to that room."

"I didn't come alone," she said to him.

Meixiu then walked to Yuan and began pushing his wheelchair.

"He's with me, and he's also here to register," she said.

"He's also a cultivator?" The bulky man raised his eyebrows when he saw Yuan.

This is his first time seeing someone in a wheelchair registering as a cultivator.

As they approached the bulky man, Meixiu whispered to Yuan, "I think you should keep it low-key. I don't want those people coming back to bother you. They're definitely a troublesome bunch. I can only imagine what will happen if they see your real talents."

"I know. I'll restrain myself." Yuan said.

Meanwhile, after they left the test room, Zhao Zheng didn't actually leave and stayed behind to continue watching Meixiu.

"Do we have any information on that girl?" He asked the four behind him.

One of them pulled out his phone and said, "According to the clerk that spoke with them, she's a servant from the Yu Family. They're a powerhouse in the entertainment industry."

"What about that young man in a wheelchair? How is he related to her?"

"He's also from the Yu Family— their son. That girl is probably his caretaker or something."

"I see..."

Back in the other room, the bulky man said, "Whenever you're ready."

Yuan took a deep breath and began to absorb the spiritual energy in the room, making sure to keep things to a minimum by imitating the cultivation speed of other cultivators that went before him.

When Zhao Zheng saw Yuan's abysmal cultivating speed when compared to Meixiu, he sneered in a cold voice, "She's throwing away her talents for that trash? Ridiculous!"

After a moment of silence, he said, "Get the Yu Family on the line and tell them that I would like a meeting with them! I am not going to let such a talented cultivator go to waste for that useless thing!"

"Right away, Chairman Zhao."

The person proceeded to look for the Yu Family's contact information before dialing their number.

A minute later, the bulky man said, "Alright. You passed."

"Go through those doors to complete your registration."

Meixiu nodded and left the room with Yuan shortly after.

Chapter 458 - Meeting With The Yu Family

"Hello, can I get your names?" A clerk working behind the desk asked Meixiu when she approached him with Yuan.

"Meixiu and Yu Tian," she said.

"Okay, give me a minute to create your identifications."

The clerk then looked up their information before creating an identification card with it.

"I just need a picture of your face now." The clerk then said.

Meixiu went first, taking a headshot by standing in front of the camera on the desk.

Yuan went next.

Once they both took a picture, the clerk printed it on their identification card before handing it to them.

"Here you go. You're done."

"Thank you."

Meixiu accepted the cards and left the building shortly after.

"That was easier than I'd expected," Yuan said afterward.

"Yes. Besides that little recruitment, it went much smoother than I'd expected."

Meixiu then said, "Let's go home now that we no longer have to worry about it."

"Alright."

After returning to the apartment, Meixiu helped Yuan take a quick shower before changing his clothes.

"We're going to play Cultivation Online again starting tomorrow, right? Let's call Yu Rou and see if she wants to play with us." Yuan said.

"Okay, let me try to call her now."

Meixiu retrieved her phone and called Yu Rou.

However, Yu Rou didn't answer the phone in time, and it went to her voicemail.

"She's probably busy. I will try again later—"

Meixiu stopped talking when her phone began ringing.

"Oh? It's Yu Rou."

Meixiu quickly answered the phone.

"Sorry, I was just finishing up my registration at the Cultivators' Association." Yu Rou said.

"You also went to register at the association today? We just came back from that place."

"What? Really? What a pity that we didn't meet." Yu Rou sighed out loud.

"Anyways, do you need something?"

"Yes, we plan on playing Cultivation Online again starting tomorrow. Yuan asked if you want to play together."

"Of course!" Yu Rou quickly said.

"Where are you located? We'll come to you."

Yu Rou then gave Meixiu her location.

"Okay, we will see you there tomorrow," Meixiu said afterward.

"Yup!"

After hanging up, Meixiu said, "Yu Rou said she'll play with us. She's also at a place called Seashell City."

"Great."

Yuan proceeded to spend the rest of the day trying to breakthrough to Spirit Master.

Meanwhile, at the Yu Family's main house, Yu Yong and Tang Lee sat before an old man.

"How can we help you, Chairman Zhao?" Yu Yong asked him.

"Thank you for seeing me on such short notice, Yu Family." Chairman Zhao said, and then he placed a small box on the table.

"Accept this compensation from me."

Yu Yong accepted the box without even opening it.

"Thank you."

Chairman Zhao took a deep breath before speaking, "Anyways, I have come here today regarding someone from your family."

Yu Yong frowned slightly upon hearing this, wondering if someone from his family had offended the Chairman of the Cultivators' Association.

"She's a servant from your family, and I believe her name is Meixiu."
Chairman Zhao then revealed Meixiu's name.

"What? Meixiu?" Yu Yong's eyes widened.

"Did she do something?" he then asked.

"Haha... No, she didn't. She was at the Cultivators' Association today to register as a cultivator, and I was impressed by her cultivation talents. I wanted her to join my Cultivators' Association, but she refused, so I was hoping you could do something about it."

"The Chairman is impressed by Meixiu's talents? Really?" Yu Yong was in disbelief after hearing this.

"Yes. In terms of talents, she's definitely one of the best I have personally seen. Furthermore, she even claimed to be a Ninth Level Spirit Apprentice."

"Ninth level?! That's impossible!" Tang Lee exclaimed. She has only reached the sixth level even with her Heaven-grade cultivation technique. How could a servant who ran away from home reach the ninth level? With what cultivation technique?

"I know it's hard to believe, but if you saw her cultivation speed..."
Chairman Zhao said.

"I am willing to negotiate— No, I will buy Meixiu from the Yu Family. How much do you want?" Chairman Zhao then asked.

"Ehh..."

Yu Yong exchanged surprised looks with Tang Lee.

After a moment of silence, he said, "I'm sorry, Chairman Zhao, but I'm afraid that's not possible right now."

"What do you mean by that?" Chairman Zhao frowned.

"Meixiu... She's actually no longer part of the Yu Family, as she decided to leave the family a few months ago." Yu Yong said.

"What?" Chairman Zhao sat there with a baffled look on his face.

"Then do you know where she is currently?"

Yu Yong shook his head.

"Unfortunately, we don't. Maybe her mother or my daughter knows something. I can ask them right now."

"Please do." Chairman Zhao nodded.

"Alright. Give me a few minutes."

Yu Yong proceeded to take out his cellphone to call Meifeng.

"Meifeng, do you know where your daughter, Meixiu, is currently staying?" Yu Yong asked her after she answered the phone.

After a moment of silence, Meifeng responded, "I'm sorry, but she didn't tell me anything. I have tried calling her before, but she didn't pick up."

"Then do you have any idea where she might have gone?"

"I do not."

"I see... Thank you."

"Umm... If you don't mind me asking, why are you looking for Meixiu?" Meifeng suddenly asked.

"Chairman Zhao from the Cultivators' Association would like to speak with her, so if you see her or hear anything, let me know."

"I understand. I will let the Masters know if I hear from her." Meifeng said.

Yu Yong hung up shortly after and proceeded to call Yu Rou.

"Huh? Do I know where Meixiu went? No, I don't. Why do you ask?" Yu Rou responded in a casual voice after hearing her father's question.

"Are you sure you don't know?" Yu Yong asked again. "Don't you have her contact information? You mean to tell me that you haven't spoken to her since she left? I don't believe it."

"I don't know what to tell you, father. I really don't know anything, but I can try calling her later."

"Okay. Let me know if you learn anything." Yu Yong said before hanging up.

He then returned to Chairman Zhao and said, "I apologize, but it seems like nobody knows her location. However, we'll try looking for her. If we find anything, we'll let you know."

Although Chairman Zhao was unhappy about the results, there was nothing he could do about it.

"I understand. Thank you for trying. Here's my business card. Call me if you find her." Chairman Zhao left his business card on the table before leaving the place.

Once Chairman Zhao was gone, Tang Lee said, "Unbelievable... To think Meixiu was a cultivation genius that even the Chairman of the Cultivators' Association would go through such trouble to recruit."

"We need to find her, or we might risk offending the Cultivators' Association," she added.

Yu Yong nodded, "I agree. I will call some people that specialize in finding people now."

Meanwhile, after her phone call with Yu Yong ended, Meifeng dialed Meixiu's number.

"Mother?" Meixiu quickly answered.

"Be careful, Meixiu. I don't know why, but the Chairman of the Cultivators' Association is looking for you." Meifeng wanted her.

"What?" Meixiu was surprised to hear this. The Chairman still hasn't given up on her?

Chapter 459 - Please Carry Me

"Did something happen?" Meixiu asked her.

"That's what I want to ask you. What happened? Did you offend the Chairman? Why would someone like him be searching for you?" Meifeng asked her.

"Well..." Meixiu proceeded to explain to her mother what had occurred at the Cultivators' Association today.

Meifeng remained silent for a good moment after hearing Meixiu's story, and all she said at the end was—

"Just be careful and refrain from going outside for a while. Chairman Zhao is a powerful man who is at the top of the Cultivators' Association. He may not be a powerful cultivator, but he has plenty of influence and more than enough people to suppress you."

"I understand. Thank you for the warning."

"Don't you get it, Meixiu? If you're in danger, the Young Master will also be in danger. Whatever you do, just make sure you protect him."

"You don't need to tell me that," Meixiu said.

Meifeng hung up the phone shortly after.

"Haaa..." Meixiu sighed out loud.

However, before she could even think about the situation, her phone began ringing again.

It was Yu Rou.

Meixiu answered the phone but didn't say anything.

"Meixiu? Are you okay? My father is looking for you for some reason." Yu Rou's voice then resounded.

Meixiu released a sigh of relief after hearing Yu Rou's voice, and she said, "Yes, I am fine."

"As for what happened..."

After Yu Rou heard the story, she exclaimed in an angry voice, "What?! How shameless! You have already refused to join the Cultivators' Association, yet they're still pursuing you?! They even went out of their way to visit my parents! I cannot believe that there are people like them out there!"

"It is what it is. There's no point getting angry about it, as it won't change anything." Meixiu said.

"What do you plan on doing? I doubt the Cultivators' Association would give up on you."

"I don't know yet, but I will think of something."

"Alright. If you need anything, call me, okay?"

"I will. See you tomorrow." Meixiu said.

After hanging up, Meixiu went to Yuan's room and explained to him the situation.

"What a pain in the ass. Now I regret going to register." Yuan sighed out loud.

"What do you think we should do?" Meixiu asked him.

"I don't think there's anything we can do besides hope that they give up on you. After all, they have the entire Cultivators' Association behind them while we're just two people who ran away from their family." Yuan said.

"Should we relocate just in case?" Meixiu then asked.

"Wouldn't that just attract their attention? Judging by what Miss Meifeng and Yu Rou said, they don't know your location yet, so it's probably better if we stay put here."

"I will try to think of something, but that's all I can think of for now."

"Okay." Meixiu nodded.

Sometime later, Meixiu returned to her room and tried to sleep since she wasn't in the mood to cultivate.

However, Yuan decided to enter Cultivation Online.

"Young Master? It's rare seeing you during the night. Did something happen?" Feng Yuxiang asked him, as he usually doesn't return until morning.

"Something like that." Yuan nodded.

"Is there anything we can do to help?" Xiao Hua then asked.

"Unfortunately, no..."

He then said, "Feng Feng, do you remember when I asked you if you know any doctors?"

"Yes, but I haven't been able to sense that person yet, and he never stays in one place for long, so I have no idea where he is. Why do you need to see him so suddenly?" Feng Yuxiang said.

After a moment of silence, he said, "My friend... He's sick, and I need him to heal as soon as possible. Although he's recovering... he's not recovering not fast enough."

"I see... Okay, I will see what I can do." Feng Yuxiang came out of his body and continued, "I will go ask around and see if I can find him."

Yuan nodded, "Thank you, Feng Feng. I will be meeting my sister tomorrow at Seashell City. We probably won't go far."

"Don't worry, Young Master. I will be able to find you as long as you're still in the Lower Heavens." Feng Yuxiang said.

"I will return as soon as possible, Young Master."

"Yes, see you soon."

Feng Yuxiang flew away shortly after.

Xiao Hua appeared beside him after Feng Yuxiang left, and she asked him, "Are you really okay, Brother Yuan?"

Yuan took a deep breath before sighing out loud, "I... I hate feeling powerless. Even though my friend is in trouble, I cannot do anything about it—I really hate that feeling."

Xiao Hua wasn't sure what to say, as this is her first time seeing Yuan acting this gloomy.

"You're not powerless, my Lord. Even if you feel helpless, you have us. I'm sure we'll figure something out." Lan Yingying said to him.

"Thank you, Yingying," Yuan said to her with a slight smile, feeling a little better.

Sometime later, he said to them before logging off, "I will see you guys tomorrow morning."

"Goodnight, my Lord."

"See you later, Brother Yuan."

Once he logged off, Yuan proceeded to spend the rest of the night trying to breakthrough to Spirit Master, but alas, it didn't work.

The following morning, after breakfast, Yuan and Meixiu logged into the game and made their way to Seashell City to meet up with Yu Rou.

"Eh? Feng Feng went somewhere last night?" Meixiu was surprised to hear this.

Who will carry her now?

"I can carry you if you don't mind," Yuan suddenly said to her.

"Or are you still not ready for it?" He remembered what she said before.

"Uhh..."

Meixiu wasn't sure how to respond.

However, the scene of Xuan Wuhan kissing Yuan on the cheeks suddenly flashed into her mind.

Meixiu gritted her teeth for a moment before nodding her head with a resolute look on her face.

"Please carry me," she said with a rosy face.

After getting her approval, Yuan retrieved the flying sword before carrying Meixiu in his arms like a princess.

The next moment, Yuan jumped on the sword and soared towards the sky with Xiao Hua by his side, leaving Long Chen City in a flash.

Chapter 460 - Snowy

Four hours after they left Long Chen City, Yuan and the others finally arrived at Seashell City. During their whole ride, Meixiu would try her best to avoid eye contact with Yuan, but it was nearly impossible, and every time she glanced at his handsome face that was only a few inches away from her own, she would immediately begin blushing.

They descended a couple of miles away from the city to avoid getting too much attention.

Once they landed, Yuan placed Meixiu back onto the ground before removing his mask.

"You're going to remove your mask?" Meixiu asked him.

He nodded and said, "I had to wear a mask in the sect because the players knew I was there and were actively searching for me, but now that I am no longer there, nobody will be able to recognize me as long as I don't do anything too crazy."

"I should also change out of the Golden Dragon Robe since it's quite attractive as well."

Yuan proceeded to change his clothes on the spot, replacing the Golden Dragon Robe with the plain clothes he first wore when he started playing Cultivation Online, as it looked the most simple.

"I should probably buy some casual clothes..." Yuan mumbled to himself afterward.

"Hmm? What's up, Xiao Hua?" Yuan noticed Xiao Hua staring at him and decided to ask her.

"Brother Yuan, when did your hair grow so long?" Xiao Hua said, as she'd just realized his new appearance.

"Oh, it was caused by some treasure Feng Feng gave me. I think it was called a Longevity Seed. Does it look weird?"

Xiao Hua shook her head and said, "It's not weird. Brother Yuan resembles a cultivator even more now."

Sometime later, after Yuan finished changing, they began making their way towards the city.

"Yu—"

Yuan easily picked out Yu Rou's figure despite the crowd gathered outside the city, but right as he prepared to call her, he suddenly closed his mouth.

After a moment of silence, he said, "Who's that girl beside Yu Rou? They appear to be together."

"Let me see..." Meixiu narrowed her eyes and looked at the beautiful girl standing beside Yu Rou.

"Oh, that's Xia Jingyi, Yu Rou's classmate."

"Xia Jingyi? The one who allowed me to live in her parents' apartment?" Yuan asked.

"Yes."

"I see... So that's what she looks like..." Yuan nodded with a focused expression, seemingly interested in her.

Meixiu raised her eyebrows at his reaction.

Of course, Yuan was only interested in her because he believed that he was indebted to her, who gave him a place to live when he was struggling to find a new home.

"Yu Rou!" Yuan called out to her again.

When Yu Rou heard Yuan's voice, she immediately turned to look at him, and a bright smile appeared on her face the next second.

"Brother!"

Yu Rou ran to him with her arms spread.

Yuan gladly welcomed her into his embrace.

"It's been a while, Yu Rou."

"It's been longer than just a while. It feels like forever since I last saw you," she said.

"H-Hello." Xia Jingyi greeted him in a somewhat bashful voice after catching up to Yu Rou.

"Brother, this is—"

Yuan turned to look at Xia Jingyi and smiled, "I know. You are Xia Jingyi, right? Let me thank you again for letting me stay in your parents' apartment. Thank you."

She didn't say anything and only nodded.

"I hope you don't mind letting her join us. We've been playing Cultivation Online together this entire time, and it would be rude to exclude her." Yu Rou then said.

"Of course I wouldn't mind it. You can join us whenever you want." Yuan said.

"T-Thank you."

"There's no need to be so shy, Jingyi. It's not like this is your first meeting. Look, even Meixiu is here." Yu Rou said to her.

"I-I know, but I can't help it... You know that I'm not good with men..." Xia Jingyi said.

"You'll have to get used to it if you want to come with us. I'm sure you'll be okay."

"I will try..." she nodded.

"Hello, Xiao Hua. It's been a while." Yu Rou didn't forget about her and greeted her.

"Hello."

Yu Rou then looked around and asked, "Where's Feng Feng? I don't see her."

"She's currently busy with something so she won't be with us," Yuan said.

"I see..."

Sometime later, Yu Rou asked, "What should we do now?"

Yuan shrugged and said, "I don't really have a plan since I only thought about spending time with you. What do you two usually do?"

"Well... We normally hunt monsters together and do repeatable quests."

"What about your cultivation levels?"

"I am at the second level of Spirit Warrior while Jingyi is at the first level." Yu Rou said.

"I see..."

Yuan began pondering.

Then he recalled something, "What about the Spirit Fruit you got from Feng Feng? Have you obtained a servant yet?"

Hearing his question, Yu Rou suddenly smiled and said, "I'm glad you asked, brother! Feast your eyes on my servant! Come out, Snowy!"

"Snowy?" Yuan raised his eyebrows at this weird name.

The next moment, a small, four-legged creature covered in white fur appeared before them.

"This is... a dog?" Yuan wasn't exactly sure what this creature was so he took a guess.

"Wrong! Snowy is a tiger cub... I think!" Yu Rou said.

And she continued, "We met Snowy during one of our quests near a mountain range. She was being chased by a large bear at that time, and we rescued it. After that, I gave her the Spirit Fruit because I found her really cute, and the rest is history!"

"Also, don't be surprised when you hear this, but Snowy is actually a Heaven-grade servant!" Yu Rou said a moment later.

"What? Really?" Yuan looked at the small white creature with a somewhat surprised look on his face, wondering how this small thing could possibly be a Heaven-grade servant.

Suddenly, Xiao Hua approached them and said, "This cub is a Spiritual Beast."

"A what?" Everybody there turned to look at her with wide eyes.

Chapter 461 - Spiritual Beast

"What's a Spiritual Beast? That sounds powerful." Yu Rou asked Xiao Hua.

"They are magical beasts... but naturally more powerful, just like Divine Beasts. However, they're not quite as powerful as Divine Beasts. There's also a chance that a Spiritual Beast can evolve into a Divine Beast." Xiao Hua said.

She looked at the tiger cub and said, "It's very rare to find a Spiritual Beast this young since they're usually with their parents, and for you to make it into your servant... You got incredibly lucky."

Yu Rou picked up the ball of fluff and hugged it. "Hehe... I knew she was special the moment I saw her, but I didn't think she was this special. I really lucked out!"

Xiao Hua nodded and said, "That's why you should keep her hidden unless you absolutely need her. There are people out there who would steal others' servants out of jealousy, especially if they are rare creatures."

"What?! Really? How does that work? Stealing another individual's servant." Yu Rou asked.

"If the Master dies, the contract will naturally end. Though there are methods to forcefully sever a contract without killing the Master." Xiao Hua said.

"That sounds scary..." Yu Rou said.

Then she called Snowy back just in case.

"There shouldn't be many people who can recognize a Spiritual Beast in the Lower Heavens since they are so rare, but you should still be careful."

"I understand. Thank you, Xiao Hua." Yu Rou nodded.

"Does it have any special abilities?" Yuan suddenly asked her.

"Nope. The only thing she can do is bite, but she's too small to even fight effectively." Yu Rou said.

Then she turned to look at Xiao Hua and asked, "Is there any way to make Spiritual Beasts grow faster? I will have to look for another servant if it's going to take a few years before I can let Snowy fight."

Xiao Hua nodded and said, "Yes, there are treasures that can speed up a magical beast's growth, but they are incredibly rare."

"Great! I will keep that in mind." Yu Rou said.

Sometime later, Yuan said, "Let's do some quests together. You two can pick."

"Are you sure? The quests may be too easy for you." Yu Rou said.

"I don't mind. I just want to spend time with you."

"Okay. Then let's go look for some quests."

Sometime later, they entered the city and asked around to see whether there was any quest they could do.

After about an hour of looking, they accepted a quest that required them to gather some material that can only be obtained from a certain magical beast.

"The Black Horn Bull can be found at the Orange Field. They're around the seventh level of Spirit Apprentice. I will need as many horns as you can gather, and I will pay 10 gold coins for each horn." A middle-aged man said to them before handing them a map.

"I understand. We should return soon." Yu Rou said.

After leaving the place, Yu Rou said, "According to the map, the Orange Land is quite far away. It's going to take us around 10 hours to get there if we walk. However, if we travel by horses or carriages, it'll be much quicker."

"Carriages?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

He then said, "I have never ridden in a carriage before. Let's try that out."

"Okay!"

"Where do we ride carriages?" Yuan then asked.

"There's a store that rents horses with carriage service. Let's go there." Yu Rou said.

Yu Rou proceeded to lead them to this store.

Ten minutes later, they arrived before a large building that had almost a dozen horses on display, and there were even a couple of carriages in the back.

"Hello, I would like to purchase the carriage service." Yu Rou approached the reception desk and asked the middle-aged man managing it.

"Sure thing, young lady. Where are you guys trying to go? And is it going to be a one-way trip or a round-trip?"

"The Orange Lands. Round-trip."

"Orange Lands, huh? Alright, give me a moment to do some calculations."

A moment later, he continued, "That would be 3 gold coins for the ordinary service and 10 gold coins for the premium service."

"What's the difference?" Yuan asked.

"The ordinary service will provide you... well, an ordinary horse and an average carriage. You will also have to drive the carriage by yourself. The premium service provides a faster horse, a larger carriage, and even a driver for the carriage for a better experience overall."

"We'll take the premium service," said Yu Rou.

"Alright. That'll be 10 gold coins."

Yu Rou nodded and handed 10 gold coins to the manager.

"Thank you for choosing us, young lady. Give me about ten minutes to find you a driver. If you have any preferences for the driver, let me know. We even have cultivators who can drive the carriage as well as guards if you need them. However, that will cost additional fees."

"An ordinary driver is fine." Yu Rou said.

After all, they had Yuan, who was infinitely stronger than any guard they could provide.

"I understand."

The manager disappeared for some time before returning, "Your carriage is ready. Please follow me."

Yu Rou and the others followed the manager to the outside, where a decorated carriage and a horse were waiting in the street.

Yuan looked at the square-shaped carriage with awe, as this is his first time seeing a carriage in this fashion.

A few moments later, they entered the carriage, but there was only room for 4 people. Any more and it'll become a little cramped.

"Here, Xiao Hua. I will make some room for you." Yuan said when everyone was seated beside her.

"It's okay. Xiao Hua will sit here."

Xiao Hua said before entering the carriage and taking a seat on Yuan's l.a.p.

"Is it okay?" she asked him afterward.

"I don't mind." Yuan nodded.

When Yu Rou saw this, she had an idea.

"Snowy, come out."

Once the white ball of fluff returned, Yu Rou had it sit on her l.a.p while she hugged it.

"Are we ready to move?" The driver asked them a moment later.

"Yes!" Yu Rou said.

"Then I shall start moving the carriage now. Hah!"

The driver said before commanding the horses to move, pulling the carriage along with it.

Chapter 462 - Magical Beasts

Blocking the Road

After the carriage left the city, the driver spoke in a loud voice, "We should arrive at Orange Lands in three hours if we don't get attacked by wild magical beasts."

"Okay! Thank you!" Yu Rou responded in a loud voice.

Meanwhile, Yuan had his head turned to look outside the window. Riding in a carriage felt like they were riding a slow car that was also quite bumpy, yet there was a distinct difference that made riding a carriage much more enjoyable.

"Brother, I just noticed this, but when did your hair grow so long? I don't think my hair has grown since I started playing..." Yu Rou suddenly asked him.

Since she was used to Yuan having long hair in the real world, she didn't immediately notice it.

"Oh, I ate a treasure that regrew my hair and made it longer. Feng Feng and Xiao Hua said it looked good, so I decided to leave it like this," he said.

"I agree with them. You look very handsome! Don't you think so too, Jingyi?" Yu Rou asked her.

"Eh? Why are you asking me...?" She quickly began flustering.

Sometime later, Yu Rou asked, "Brother, what have you two been doing recently? Are you doing okay living by yourselves?"

Yuan nodded, "Yes, we're doing fine. As for what we've been doing recently... besides cultivation, nothing else really."

"I-If you have any problems with the apartment, please let me know... I will call someone to fix it." Xia Jingyi said to him.

"Oh, right. I know you said we can live there for free, but I don't want to feel like a freeloader. Please allow me to pay for the rent."

"Are you sure? The rent is not cheap there if I have to be honest with you..."

"Yes, I am sure. We have made enough money by selling in-game items. If we need more, we can sell more items." Yuan said.

After a moment of silence, Xia Jingyi nodded, "Okay, if you insist on paying the rent, I will tell the apartment manager to send you the bill every month starting the next month."

"Okay."

About an hour later, the carriage came to a sudden stop, and the driver shouted, "Esteemed guests! There's a pack of dark wolves blocking the road ahead!"

"Dark wolves, huh? Let me take care of it!" Yu Rou eagerly left the carriage and retrieved her fan—the same one that Yuan bought for her.

She then walked to the front of the carriage and approached the group of dark wolves with a brave expression on her face.

Yuan peeked his head out the window to look at the dark wolves.

They were all between the level of 3rd level and 5th level Spirit Apprentice. It was nothing Yu Rou couldn't handle as a Spirit Warrior even if they were in a group.

[Wind Blades!]

Whoosh!

The pack of dark wolves was instantly dismembered by the powerful wind blades that were as sharp as real swords.

After killing the magical beasts in a single attack, Yu Rou used wind blades again to clean up the road.

"The road is free again." Yu Rou said to the dumbfounded carriage driver.

"T-T-Thank you for your efforts, esteemed fairy!" The driver stood up and bowed to her in a respectful manner after witnessing her effortlessly kill a dozen magical beasts.

Once she returned to the carriage, Yu Rou rubbed her nose in a prideful manner and said, "Did you see that, brother? I have gotten much better with the technique."

"Yes, I saw it very clearly. You have definitely gotten a lot stronger, especially with that technique." Yuan said with a smile on her face.

"Well... It's the only offensive technique I have so I use it all the time, allowing me to master it very quickly." Yu Rou said.

It was at this moment that Yuan recalled something— that he'd get some cultivation techniques for her.

"Ah! I completely forgot to get you new techniques! Even though we went to the Myriad of Techniques... What a blunder..." Yuan sighed.

"It's okay. We can look for them later. I'm not in a hurry to look for new techniques, anyway." Yu Rou said.

"Alright."

About half an hour later, another magical beast blocked the road.

Of course, Yu Rou went outside to take care of it again.

Ten minutes later, the carriage stopped again.

"Why are there so many magical beasts blocking the road? Is it always like this? It's like they're doing this on purpose just to mess with us!" Yu Rou was beginning to get tired of them after stopping for the tenth time.

"It's common because many people travel this road every day, and magical beasts come here to find food. This is why nobody dares to travel without any guards unless they're a powerful cultivator." Xiao Hua said to her.

"However, magical beasts aren't the only thing people have to worry about, as bandits and thieves would often target people, too."

"I hope we don't run into any bandits... I'm already overwhelmed by the magical beasts." Yu Rou sighed.

"I can take care of the magical beasts if you're tired," Yuan said to her.

"I'm not physically tired, but it does feel repetitive and boring."

"It's alright. I will take care of the magical beasts now."

"Okay." Yu Rou nodded.

Sometime later, the carriage stopped again.

"Magical beasts!" The driver warned.

Yuan activated his Divine Sense and expanded it until he could see the magical beasts.

Once he located them, he retrieved his invisible Starry Abyss and controlled it to clean out the magical beasts without stepping out of the carriage.

The carriage driver was shocked when he saw this, as he was unable to comprehend the scene before him. In his eyes, the magical beasts blocking the road were being slaughtered by an invisible force.

In just a moment, all of the magical beasts were killed, clearing the road once again.

"Brother? Why are you just sitting there? Aren't you going to take care of the magical beasts?" Yu Rou asked him.

"Huh? I have already taken care of them." Yuan said in a calm voice, dumbfounding Yu Rou and Xia Jingyi.

Chapter 463 - Internal Destruction

"What? You've taken care of the magical beasts already? How is that even possible?" Yu Rou said.

Then she peeked her head outside the carriage window to look at the front.

"W-What?!" Yu Rou exclaimed in a shocked voice the very next moment, startling Xia Jingyi.

"What happened?!" Xia Jingyi asked her.

"T-The magical beasts on the road have all been killed!" Yu Rou said.

She pulled her head back inside the carriage before turning to look at Yuan with a look of disbelief on her face.

"H-How did you do that? What did you do?" she asked him.

Yuan lifted his palms and removed the camouflage that kept the Starry Abyss invisible, revealing to them the secret.

Yu Rou looked at the beautiful black dagger hovering above Yuan's palm and said, "Wait a minute... I have seen that dagger before. You used it to remove materials from magical beasts before!"

"Yes, and I can control it without needing to wield it, allowing me to attack from a distance. It's very convenient."

"Wow... As expected of you, brother..." Yu Rou mumbled in a low voice, her eyes filled with admiration.

Xia Jingyi was also impressed by his prowess as well, and she wondered what cultivation level he was at, but she was too shy to ask him, so she could only imagine it inside her mind.

Sometime later, the carriage began moving again after the driver snapped out of his daze.

And for the rest of the journey, Yuan would take care of the magical beasts before they could even reach the road.

About three hours after they left Seashell City, their carriage finally arrived at the Orange Lands.

"Wow, no wonder why they named this place the 'Orange' Lands. There's so much orange color in this place..." Yuan mumbled as he admired the orange scenery.

From the grass to the trees and the flowers, they were all orange in color, almost like this place was experiencing autumn while the rest of the world was in a different season.

"Do you know where are the Black Horn Bulls?" Yu Rou asked the driver.

He nodded and pointed to the wilderness in the distance and said, "You can find them a few miles in that direction. I will be stationed here until tomorrow or until you're all ready to return to the city."

"Alright. Thank you."

Sometime later, Yu Rou and the others followed the driver's directions and disappeared into the distance.

Once they were inside the orange wilderness, Yuan said, "Xiao Hua, can you look for the Black Horn Bulls for us with your Divine Sense? Mine is still too weak to search for them efficiently."

"Sure thing, Brother Yuan," she said.

"What?" Xia Jingyi raised her eyebrows after hearing Xiao Hua's words.

Did she just call him 'Yuan'?

It was at this moment that Yuan realized that Xia Jingyi wasn't aware of his identity and that he didn't tell Xiao Hua to not call him 'Yuan', as he wasn't prepared for Xia Jingyi's presence.

Meixiu and Yu Rou also realized this, but they couldn't think of any good excuses to make so quickly.

'Xiao Hua, call me Brother Yu Tian!' Yuan quickly used his Divine Sense to speak with Xiao Hua.

"B-Brother Yu Tian?" Xiao Hua said.

When Xia Jingyi heard this, she thought to herself, 'Oh, so I really heard it wrong... Their names sound kind of similar, too.'

After all, there was no way that Yu Rou's brother would be that famous Player Yuan.

'Hopefully, she didn't find out...' Yuan sighed inwardly.

However, he then wondered to himself, 'Wait... Do I really need to hide my identity from her? I think she's trustworthy enough to know about my identity...'

But it was a little late since he's already tried to hide his identity from her.

A moment later, Xiao Hua said, "Brother Yua— Yu Tian, there's a couple of Black Horn Bull half a mile in that direction."

"Okay, let's go."

They started moving in the direction that Xiao Hua pointed towards.

About ten minutes later, they stopped moving.

"Wow, there's so many of them— at least a dozen. How should we take care of them?" Yu Rou asked.

"I can kill them with the Starry Abyss, but I doubt you'd want me to do that..." Yuan said.

"That's right, brother. If you do everything for us, it wouldn't be fun. We're here for the experience, after all."

Then she said, "I am going to use wind blades to take out as many as I can. Jingyi, you'll take care of the ones that I miss."

"Okay." Xiao Jingyi nodded her head before taking a seat on the ground and retrieving a familiar-looking object from her spatial ring.

"That's... a zither? You can play the zither?" Yuan was surprised to see Xia Jingyi pull out a zither.

"Yes." Xia Jingyi said as she placed the zither on her l.a.p.

And she continued, "The zither is similar to some of the instruments I play, so I picked it as my main weapon."

"We can talk about this later. Let's deal with the Black Horn Bulls for now before they notice us or run away." Yu Rou said to them.

"Are you ready?" She then asked Xia Jingyi.

"I am."

"Good, then let me begin!"

After taking a deep breath, Yu Rou began fanning her fan many times in quick succession, sending out many wind blades at the herd of Black Horn Bulls that were eating the orange grass on the ground.

The wind blades went straight through the trees that blocked their path, knocking them down.

In just a few moments, Yu Rou had slain a little over half of the magical beasts.

When the other Black Horn Bulls saw this, they immediately stopped eating and pointed their pointy black horns in their direction.

"Jingyi, they are coming!" Yu Rou warned her.

"Got it!"

Xia Jingyi then pulled the strings on the zither with spiritual energy applied to her fingers and the zither itself.

The next second, many ripples began appearing in the area.

"Wow... What kind of technique is that? This is my first time seeing it." Yuan asked her afterward.

"It's an Earth-grade zither technique that allows me to attack my targets internally," she said.

"What? That sounds overpowered, attacking them internally... Doesn't this mean you can easily defeat all of your enemies?" Yuan said.

"Not really. My attacks can easily be repelled if someone has enough spiritual energy protecting their body. Also, it doesn't have much of a range, so I can only use it when I am close to them with someone protecting me..."

She then said, "Do you want to learn the technique? I can lend you the technique if you want."

"Really? You won't mind?" Yuan asked her.

"I don't mind. I bought it with my own money, and I have already learned it."

Xia Jingyi then took out the technique from her spatial ring before handing it to Yuan casually.

Yuan was speechless. He didn't think she'd be willing to give him an Earth-grade technique so easily and completely for free.

"You're too generous, Jingyi." Yu Rou chuckled.

"I owe you," Yuan said to her.

He then opened the book and started reading it.

"Eh? You're going to study it now? It took me almost two weeks to learn it..." Xia Jingyi said to him.

<You have learned Silent Pulse of Internal Destruction>

"It's okay. I have already learned the technique." Yuan said as she closed the book literally half a minute later.

"W-What?" Xia Jingyi stared at him with a baffled look on her face.

"Hahaha... You should look at your own face right now, Jingyi. Did you forget? My brother is a once-in-a-thousand-years genius who has mastered multiple instruments at a young age." Yu Rou said to her.

"Oh, right... I forgot about that... Sorry."

"Why are you apologizing? Here's the technique. Thanks again." Yuan returned the technique to her after holding it for less than a minute.

"Let's harvest their horns before we continue." Yu Rou then said.

After spending a couple of minutes removing the black horns, Xiao Hua used her Divine Sense to look for more Black Horn Bulls.

"A mile that way," she pointed to the south a moment later.

"Alright, let's go. I want to test out my new technique already." Yuan said, eagerly heading in that direction.

While they walked, Xia Jingyi asked Yu Rou in a low voice, "How does she do that? Locating the Black Horn Bulls from so far away. And who is she? I have been wondering for a while now."

"Xiao Hua? Hmm... How should I explain this..." Yu Rou pondered for a moment before continuing, "Well, she's an NPC— a really powerful one at that, and she's currently traveling with my brother for some reason."

"What? She's an NPC? I couldn't tell at all..." Xia Jingyi said.

"That happens a lot in this game— too often, in fact."

Sometime later, they found more Black Horn Bulls traveling slowly in a group.

"Great. Now let me test out this new technique..." Yuan said.

"Do you want to use my zither as well?" Xia Jingyi asked him.

"It's fine, I have my own zither. Thank you for the offer, though."

He then retrieved the Soul Ensnaring Zither.

"Wow... What a beautiful zither..." Xia Jingyi muttered in awe when she saw his zither, thinking to herself that it must be a high-grade treasure.

Chapter 464 - Please Have Mercy!

After retrieving the Soul Ensnaring Zither, Yuan took a seat on the soft ground and placed the zither on his l.a.p.

He then closed his eyes and took a deep breath.

A moment of pure silence later, he opened his eyes, and his fingers flicked the strings extremely quickly.

Whoosh!

A massive ripple appeared from the zither and swept the place in an instant.

The next second, the Black Horn Bulls didn't even have the time to react before their bodies exploded into a bloody mess.

When Xia Jingyi used the technique, the Black Horn Bulls didn't explode violently, so when she saw the results, she began gagging from shock, nearly puking.

"Whoa... brother... I think you went a little overboard..." Even Yu Rou had to take a step back with a disgusted look on her face after seeing the magical beasts' guts and internal organs flying all over the place. Even though they were magical beasts, Yu Rou felt sorry for them.

Luckily for them, they were standing far enough, or the blood and organs would've definitely hit them.

Yuan's jaw dropped wide open when he saw the results.

"I-I also didn't think it would be so powerful!" He exclaimed a moment later.

"Brother Tian... Did you forget your cultivation base? Even a Mortal-rank cultivation technique will display extraordinary strength if it's used by you." Xiao Hua said to him.

"Even if you say that, this is my first time using a zither technique, so I didn't know how to control my strength." Yuan sighed.

"There's no way we can harvest their horns when they're in this state..." Meixiu said a moment later.

"I'm sorry..." Yuan apologized to them.

"Brother, you're banned from using that technique if we're with you! It's simply too gruesome!" Yu Rou said to him afterward.

"I understand." Yuan nodded.

He then turned to look at Xia Jingyi and asked her, "Are you okay?"

She wiped the tears from her eyes and nodded, "Yes... I was just... shocked..."

"I'm sorry..." He apologized again.

Shortly after, they went to look for more Black Horn Bulls.

"Meixiu, do you want to try fighting them?" Yu Rou suddenly asked her.

"Eh? I don't know any techniques besides my cultivation technique..." she said.

"What? You still don't have any techniques?" Yu Rou looked at her with wide eyes.

She then looked at Yuan, who merely shook his head and said, "Looks like we'll be returning to the Myriad of Techniques sooner than I'd anticipated..."

Since Meixiu didn't have any martial techniques, Yu Rou and Xia Jingyi took care of the magical beasts without making a huge mess.

After that batch, they continued to spend a couple more hours hunting Black Horn Bulls until they essentially hunted almost all of them in the area.

"How many horns did we collect?" Yu Rou asked Yuan at the end.

"About 400 give or take," he said.

"So 4,000 gold coins, huh? That's extremely good for a single quest, and it didn't even take us that long." Yu Rou said.

"And it is mostly thanks to Xiao Hua for locating the magical beasts for us or this would've taken much longer, so thank you, Xiao Hua!"

Xiao Hua nodded silently.

"Are we going to go back now?" Yuan asked them.

"Yes. Once we hand in our quest, we can go shopping for some cultivation techniques. Though I doubt 4,000 gold coins will be enough to buy even half a technique..." Yu Rou said.

"Money, huh? Xiao Hua, do you still have the spirit stones I gave you? Feng Feng said that you didn't spend it."

Xiao Hua nodded and retrieved the storage pouch containing the spirit stones and handed it to him, "Xiao Hua didn't use it, and if Brother Tian needs more money, Xiao Hua still has the money from the auction."

Xiao Hua reminded him that she still has money from selling her Heaven-grade treasure, something that even she forgot about for a moment.

"Okay. We'll use it if we really need it." Yuan nodded, no longer feeling as reluctant to use that money anymore for some reason.

Sometime later, they returned to the carriage, where the driver was taking a nap.

"Hmm? Are you ready to return to the city already, esteemed guests?" The driver woke up when he noticed their presence.

"Yes."

Once everyone was inside the carriage, the driver began driving the carriage back to the city.

"Meixiu, what martial technique do you want? In fact, what kind of weapons do you want to use?" Yuan asked her.

"I don't know..."

"Do you have any experience with weapons? I know you have combat experience working as a servant for the Yu Family since you're expected to be a bodyguard as well. What did your mother teach you?" Yu Rou asked her.

"Well... Everything..." Meixiu said.

"When we're trained, we're not just trained as servants. We also have bodyguard training as well as other things, and as the future personal servant of Yua— Yu Tian, I had to train more than the others, so I am proficient with a lot of weapons, especially guns." Meixiu said.

"Wow... I didn't know that." Yuan began seeing Meixiu in a new light now.

Yu Rou chuckled and said, "Brother, Meixiu is probably strong enough to beat you in a fight without any cultivation techniques or cultivation."

"Really? She's that powerful?" Yuan's eyes widened.

Yu Rou nodded, "I have seen her beat up people twice her size by accident once. It really widened my eyes."

Meixiu blushed slightly after hearing Yu Rou's words.

"Anyways, guns, huh? Are there any weapons in the cultivation world that resemble guns?" Yu Rou wondered.

"What's a gun?" Xiao Hua asked.

"Well... How should I explain this? It's a weapon that comes in many different sizes and shapes, but they all do the same thing— shooting bullets." Yu Rou said.

However, Xiao Hua didn't understand a word she'd just said.

Meixiu then said, "Imagine a weapon that can shoot a small rock so quickly that it can pierce one's body. Kind of like a bow and an arrow."

Xiao Hua pondered for a moment and said, "Like a slingshot?"

"Yes, something like that."

Xiao Hua then shook her head and said, "Xiao Hua has never seen anyone using slingshots as a weapon of choice, but there are many people who use bows and arrows."

"Bows... I have never used a bow before." Meixiu said.

"What about just using your fists, Meixiu? Besides guns, you should also have plenty of hand-to-hand combat," said Yu Rou.

Meixiu nodded.

"Hand techniques, huh? I actually have one on me right now." Yuan suddenly said.

And he asked her, "Do you want to try learning it?"

"Okay."

Yuan then retrieved the Ancient-rank technique he'd obtained from the Dragon Temple and handed it to Meixiu in a casual manner. While he also wanted to learn the technique, he never really got the chance to do so, as he has been busy with cultivation in the real world shortly after leaving the Dragon Temple.

"Thank you."

After accepting the technique, she opened it.

Meixiu's eyes widened when she saw the rank of the technique, but she didn't say anything, and she proceeded to study the technique until they returned to Seashell City a few hours later.

"How was it? Were you able to understand it?" Yuan asked her.

Meixiu shook her head and said, "I think the technique is too complex for me right now."

"I see... Don't worry, I'm sure we'll find something suitable for you at the Myriad of Techniques." Yuan said to her after storing the technique back into his spatial ring.

"Thank you for your business." The driver said to them after dropping them off inside the city.

Yu Rou and the others began making their way back to the store to turn in their harvest.

"Welcome, young lady. Hmm? You're back already? Did you forget something?" The manager there asked Yu Rou when she returned much faster than he'd anticipated.

"No, I am here to hand in the horns we have hunted." Yu Rou said.

The manager raised his eyebrows upon hearing this. He can only imagine how little horns they have collected after leaving for such a short time, but he didn't say that to them.

"Okay. Let me see how many you've collected. 10 gold coins each," he said a moment later.

Yu Rou then looked at Yuan and said, "Let him see them, brother."

Yuan nodded and went to look for an empty and spacious spot to dump the black horns.

Once he found the spot, he went there and began dumping out the black horns from his spatial ring.

The manager's jaw dropped when he saw the black horns piling up into a small mountain inside his shop. In fact, he has never seen so many black horns gathered in the same place at once before.

And the manager began worrying about whether he would be able to afford to pay them for so many black horns.

Yu Rou chuckled when she saw the manager's reaction, as this reminded her of her first quest with Yuan when they had to gather Spirit Grass, and Xiao Hua collected so much that the manager of that store began sweating.

"Okay, that should be the last one. Please count them." Yuan said to the manager after dumping out all of the black horns.

The manager showed a crying smile before kneeling on the floor and crying out loud, "Please have mercy!"

The manager's response immediately dumbfounded Yuan and the others, as they didn't know why he was crying or pleading for mercy.

Chapter 465 - Returning to the Myriad of Techniques

"W-Why are you on the floor?" Yuan asked the manager in a dumbfounded voice.

"Please, Young Master, have mercy! Even if you take out so many black horns, my store cannot afford all of them!" The manager said in a crying voice.

"Ehh..." Yuan was speechless.

This is the reason why he kowtowed to them? Can't he simply tell them that they didn't have enough money?

"That's fine. How much can you buy?"

The manager lifted his head and asked in a dumbfounded voice, "Y-You're willing to forgive me?"

"Yes?" Yuan said.

The manager then stood up and said, "A-About 100 horns is the most I can afford."

"That's fine."

"Thank you, Young Master! Please give me a minute to prepare the money!"

About ten minutes later, the manager returned with a thousand gold coins in his hands.

"Here you go, Young Master."

After accepting the money, Yuan handed it to Yu Rou.

"Shall we leave now?"

Yu Rou nodded.

"W-Wait a moment... Young Master, what about the rest of your black horns?" The manager asked him.

"Hm? Oh, you can keep them." Yuan said in a casual manner.

"Excuse me?" The manager looked at him with wide eyes filled with disbelief.

"Even if you cannot buy them, we have no use for them, so we'll give them to you for free," Yuan said to the manager.

"R-Really?"

"Yes. You don't mind it either, right, Yu Rou?" Yuan asked her.

"I don't really care. We did it mostly for the experience, anyway," she nodded.

Although 3,000 gold coins may be worth a lot to the average player, in front of Yu Rou, who was exposed to wealth countless times more than that by Yuan, it was as little as a drop of water in an ocean.

"Thank you very much, esteemed guests!" The manager bowed to them and refused to lift his head until they left.

"Are we going to the Myriad of Techniques now?" Yu Rou asked after they left.

"It's getting dark outside so let's wait until tomorrow," Yuan said as he looked at the darkening sky.

"Alright. See you guys later." Yu Rou said to them.

"Goodnight." Xia Jingyi said.

After logging off, Meixiu began cooking dinner.

Meanwhile, Yuan tried his best to breakthrough to Spirit Master.

'I should've asked Xiao Hua when I had the chance... I guess I will do it tomorrow.' Yuan sighed inwardly.

After failing to breakthrough, Yuan stopped trying until after dinner.

The following morning, after breakfast, Yuan and Meixiu met up with Yu Rou and Xia Jingyi.

"Good morning, brother." Yu Rou waved at them.

"Good morning." Xia Jingyi said.

"Morning. Are you guys ready to head to the Myriad of Techniques?" Yuan asked them.

"Yes!"

"Is there one in this city?" Yuan then asked.

"There is. I looked it up yesterday. Follow me." Yu Rou said to them.

Yuan and the others followed Yu Rou, and after walking for about twenty minutes, they arrived at this ordinary-looking store.

"It feels like yesterday..." Yuan mumbled in a low voice.

They entered the store a moment later, and a beautiful woman greeted them with a bright smile on her face.

However, this beautiful woman wasn't Zhu Yuying like Yuan had expected; it was an entirely different person.

'She did say that she'll be replaced soon...' Yuan thought to himself.

"Welcome to the Myriad of Techniques. If this is your first time at our store, please put your hand on this crystal ball."

Xia Jingyi stepped forward and placed her hand on the crystal ball, which glowed a golden color.

"A heavenly destiny? Congratulations, young lady. You can access the first and second floor of the store. As for everyone else, you may go to whichever floor you're authorized, and don't try to cheat, because we have records of your results." The woman said to them.

Once they passed the entrance, Yuan said to them, "Meixiu, Yu Rou, Jingyi, you three can go look for a technique. I will be in the waiting room."

"You're not coming with us?" Yu Rou asked him.

"I want to take this time to learn a technique that I've recently acquired, and I have something to talk to Xiao Hua about."

"Okay. Then we'll be back!"

After Yu Rou and the others left, Xiao Hua turned to look at Yuan and asked him, "Brother Yuan wants to speak with Xiao Hua?"

Yuan nodded and said, "To be completely honest, I think I am at a bottleneck. Do you remember that one time when you shared your experience breaking through to Spirit Warrior with me? Can you also do the same for Spirit Master?"

"Brother Yuan is at a bottleneck? How is that possible?" Xiao Hua raised her eyebrows.

"Well... It's a little bit complicated..." He sighed.

"It's okay. If Brother Yuan needs help, Xiao Hua will do everything in her power to assist."

"Thank you."

Once they were in the waiting room that was a spacious area with many chairs spread out, Yuan took a seat on the floor and Xiao Hua stood in front of him.

She then raised her hand and poked him in the forehead with a soft glow on the tip of her fingers.

Yuan closed his eyes the next moment, and he began experiencing what Xiao Hua had experienced when she tried to breakthrough to Spirit Master.

Meanwhile, on the first floor of the store, Yu Rou and the other two ladies wandered around the store.

"Do you have any techniques in mind?" Yu Rou asked Meixiu.

"No idea."

"Hmmm... I also don't have any idea. Let's just look around, I guess."

As for Yuan, he'd experience breaking through to Spirit Master hundreds... thousands of times in these hours.

Chapter 466 - Ancient Seal

After spending a few hours experiencing Xiao Hua's experience, Yuan finally opened his eyes and looked around.

"They're not back yet?"

"They came back about an hour ago to tell us that they'll need a few more hours on the second floor, but Brother Yuan was absorbed in his own thing." Xiao Hua said to him.

"Oh, I see. That's fine. I still have a technique to learn, anyway."

"And thanks for showing me your experience, Xiao Hua. I think I understand why I cannot breakthrough."

"Why?" Xiao Hua asked.

"It's most likely due to the lack of spiritual energy in that place," he said.

Xiao Hua nodded and said, "Spiritual energy is incredibly important when one is trying to breakthrough because they'll need a massive amount of spiritual energy, hence why people usually choose a place with the most spiritual energy before they attempt to breakthrough."

"I see... This is going to be pretty tricky..." Yuan sighed.

As a cripple who cannot move without the assistance of a wheelchair and Meixiu, it would be difficult for him to find a location with better spiritual energy than his room, and because of their situation, it wouldn't be smart to wander outside.

'I guess I will have to put my breakthrough on hold and practice my Divine Sense for now.' Yuan thought to himself.

"If Brother Yuan cannot find a place with good spiritual energy, he can look for treasures that contain a large amount of spiritual energy instead," Xiao Hua suddenly said.

"A treasure? That's even more tricky..." Yuan said, as he wasn't sure if there were any treasures in the real world that contain spiritual energy.

'If only we can somehow transfer the treasures in this world back to the real world...' Yuan sighed inwardly.

Unfortunately, unlike transferring knowledge from Cultivation Online to the real world, it was simply impossible to transfer physical objects like treasures to the real world no matter how he thought about it.

"Thanks for the advice, Xiao Hua," Yuan said to her before taking out the Ancient-rank martial technique he'd obtained from the Dragon Temple and reading through it.

There was a handsome young man with long blonde hair practicing on a mountain peak, and every time he punched his fists out, it would create the image of a dragon that would fly into the distance before creating a hole in whatever it touched.

"What a powerful technique..." Yuan mumbled in a low voice as he continued to watch this talented youth practice the technique 'Relentless Dragon Overwhelms the Nine Heavens'.

Of course, what Yuan was experiencing right now didn't occur to Meixiu when she tried to learn the technique in the carriage. Perhaps it had something to do with their compatibility, but Yuan comprehended the technique at a frightening rate.

While Yuan tried to comprehend the technique, Xiao Hua sat beside him like some kind of guardian, making sure that nobody disturbs him.

However, no matter how powerful Xiao Hua may be, she didn't have the capabilities to protect Yuan from everything, and one of these things being sound.

"AAAAAH!"

A loud voice suddenly resounded in the waiting room, snapping Yuan back to reality.

"It's you again! You're definitely stalking me!"

Yuan frowned when he heard this voice, and he turned to look at the door, where a blonde-haired beauty was standing with a couple of techniques in her grasp.

"What are you doing here? I have been here since this morning." Yuan said to her.

"And I have been here since last night!" she quickly responded.

"Don't you get tired of this? Just go on and continue your trial for the Four Ancient Families," Yuan sighed out loud.

"S-So you knew my identity this entire time?! And you still claim that you're not stalking me? I don't buy it!" The girl said to him with a look of disbelief on her face.

"No... Somebody recognized your uniform and told me... You know what... Forget it... There's no point talking to you." Yuan sighed out loud.

The fierce girl gritted her teeth and said, "Y-You're freaking lucky that we're inside the Myriad of Techniques right now, or I would've already smashed your face in!"

Yuan shrugged and responded in a calm voice, "Did you not learn from last time? Go ahead and punch me if you want to experience that pain again."

The girl suddenly felt a dull pain on her feet when Yuan reminded her about the last incident.

"Hmph! Forget it! You can follow me all you like, but if you dare to try and do anything funny, I will smash your face in!" The fierce girl then took a seat on the other side of the room and proceeded to ignore him.

However, to Yuan's surprise, Xiao Hua stood up and approached the fierce girl.

The girl turned to look at Xiao Hua with a frown on her face.

"What do you want?"

Xiao Hua stared at her for a good moment before speaking, "You're from the four Ancient Families, right? How much power do you hold within the family?"

"Huh? Why do you care?"

Xiao Hua then said, "Do you have the Ancient Seal?"

The girl's eyes widened with surprise, and she quickly stood up and backed away from Xiao Hua.

"Who are you? Why do you know about the Ancient Seal?"

"..."

"I asked you a question! Why do you know about the Ancient Seal?!"

The fierce girl then raised her hand before throwing it at Xiao Hua's face.

"Xiao Hua!" Yuan stood up, but before he could even do anything, Xiao Hua waved her sleeves and calmly caught the attack perfectly.

"Y-You..." The girl's eyes widened with shock after feeling an unfathomable strength coming from Xiao Hua.

Chapter 467 - Primordial Realm

"Let me go!" The fierce lady shouted when Xiao Hua didn't release her fist.

"If anything happens to me, my family will, without a doubt, avenge me!"

After a moment of silence, Xiao Hua released her grasp on the lady, letting her free.

"Now tell me how you know about the Ancient Seal!" The lady repeated.

"That is something only the top ranks in the family should know about!"

"If you do not have the Ancient Seal, then Xiao Hua is no longer interested in speaking with you." Xiao Hua said to her before turning around and walking back to Yuan in a nonchalant manner.

"Y-You little brat!" The fierce girl gritted her teeth, yet she didn't dare to approach Xiao Hua.

"If you don't tell me how you know about the Ancient Seal, I will tell my family about you! You can either answer me or answer my family! And if you choose the latter, just know that they won't be as patient as I am now!"

Xiao Hua turned to look at her and said, "The Ancient Seal may be a secret in the Lower Heavens, but in the upper heavens, everybody knows about it."

"What?" The girl's eyes widened with shock, as this was new information for her.

"A-Are you trying to tell me that you're from the upper heavens? What are you doing here? And why do you need the Ancient Seal?" she asked Xiao Hua.

Xiao Hua didn't say anything and turned back around, ignoring her.

"I-If you tell me, I will tell you where the Ancient Seal is!" The girl suddenly said.

Xiao Hua immediately turned around upon hearing this, but when she saw the girl's face, Xiao Hua turned back around and said, "You're lying."

"W-What! I am not lying! I will really tell you!"

However, Xiao Hua ignored her.

"Fine! If you want to play this game, I will play with you!"

"Is everything okay, Xiao Hua? Wouldn't it be problematic if the Four Ancient Families came after us?" Yuan asked her afterward.

Xiao Hua nodded and said, "She won't tell her family about this, and even if they do come after us, Xiao Hua can deal with them."

"You sound confident that she won't tell her family. Why is that?" Yuan asked.

"Because she cannot contact her family unless she completes her trial no matter the situation."

"I see... What about the Ancient Seal? What is that?"

"The Ancient Seal is a treasure that each of the Four Ancient Families owns, and if one gathers all four, they will get to enter the Primordial Realm."

"Primordial Realm? What kind of place is that?" Yuan asked, his interest piqued.

"..."

Xiao Hua looked at Yuan in silence for a good moment before mumbling in a low voice, "The Primordial Realm is Xiao Hua's home..."

"What?" Yuan's eyes widened with surprise.

"Home as in the place you were born?" Yuan asked her.

Xiao Hua nodded.

"The Primordial Realm is a special place that isn't part of the Nine Heavens, and Xiao Hua was born there. However, due to reasons, Xiao Hua had to leave the Primordial Realm."

After pondering for a moment, Yuan decided to ask her a question that he has been curious about for a long time now.

"Does it have anything to do with being an 'exile'?"

"Eh?"

Xiao Hua's eyes widened with shock upon hearing his question.

"W-When did Brother Yuan learn about exiles...?" Xiao Hua asked him in a shaky voice, clearly feeling nervous.

"I have known about it for over a month now, but to tell you the truth, I have no idea what an exile is, and I was hoping to get some clarification from you," Yuan said.

Seeing Xiao Hua's nervousness, Yuan continued in a gentle voice, "Xiao Hua, no matter who you are or what background you have, I will always be on your side. I am asking because I am worried that you might need help, but I won't be able to help you if I don't know anything."

After a moment of silence, Xiao Hua nodded and said, "An exile is someone who has been banished from the Nine Heavens by the Celestial Emperor, and the Primordial Realm is a place where exiles gather. Xiao Hua's family did something bad in the past, so everyone in the family was exiled. Of course, this included the future generations of the family."

"What? So someone in your family did something bad and everyone in the family got punished—including the innocent?" Yuan was speechless, finding the judgment to be cruel and unfair, especially towards the innocent children and those who will join the family in the future.

Xiao Hua nodded and continued, "Once exiled, they cannot enter the Nine Heavens again, or they will be hunted by everyone in the Nine Heavens. And once someone is branded as an exile, they cannot remove that title no matter how much time passes or what they do. However, there is one exception—the Supreme Heaven's Legacy."

"If an exile can fulfill the Legacy, that person and their family will be allowed to return to the Nine Heavens and will no longer be regarded as exiles."

"However, only one person per family can hold the Legacy, and Xiao Hua was chosen to fulfill this Legacy."

"Unbelievable... To think your family would give someone so young so much responsibility, forcing you to bear such a heavy burden..." Yuan sighed.

"It's okay. Xiao Hua wanted to do it as well."

"As for your legacy... We just need to reach the Supreme Heaven, right?" Yuan then asked.

Xiao Hua nodded, and she said, "Yes, but reaching the Supreme Heaven is just the beginning of the legacy. Xiao Hua doesn't know anything else beyond that."

"It's okay. We'll find out when we get there." Yuan said.

"Brother Yuan, there's still one more thing you should know about exiles..." she suddenly said.

Yuan looked at her with a smile and said, "It's okay. You can tell me."

Chapter 468 - Hunted by the Nine Heavens

"As an exile, despite holding the Supreme Heaven's Legacy, Xiao Hua will be constantly hunted by other cultivators, so she might bring trouble to Brother Yuan." Xiao Hua said to him.

"What? Why do you have to be hunted when you're a legacy holder?" Yuan asked her with wide eyes.

"Because that's how the Celestial Emperor made it. He wanted to make it as difficult as possible for exiles to escape their fate. If it was so easy to complete the legacy, people would've escaped the Primordial Realm long ago. However, after millions of years, nobody has managed to achieve true freedom." Xiao Hua said.

"Not only are we hunted by everyone in the Nine Heavens, but we also have our strength limited so that we wouldn't be able to ascend too quickly."

"That's... That's just not fair... It's like they're treating exiles as animals." Yuan was speechless.

"Fortunately, Xiao Hua won't have to worry about being hunted until after the third heaven, where cultivators have the ability to discern those who are exiles."

'Is this why Miss Xu warned me to leave Xiao Hua's side as soon as possible? Because Xiao Hua will be constantly hunted by others, and if I am with her, I might also get hunted...' Yuan finally realized why Xu Jiaqi said what she said at that time.

It turned out that she was only concerned about him.

However, even if the entire world goes after Xiao Hua, Yuan has already decided that he wouldn't abandon her no matter what.

"Don't worry, Xiao Hua. Even if the entire world is against you, I will be on your side. In the first place, you didn't do anything wrong. If I ever get a chance to speak with the Celestial Emperor, I am going to give him a piece of my mind and seek justice for you."

"Thank you, Brother Yuan." Xiao Hua said, feeling relieved that Yuan didn't decide to abandon her because of her status.

"Xiao Hua, do you wish to visit your home? Is that why you asked that girl for the Ancient Seal?" Yuan asked her a moment later.

Xiao Hua nodded and said, "One cannot leave the Primordial Realm without the Supreme Heaven's Legacy, but once they leave, they cannot return to the Primordial Realm without the Ancient Seal."

"With the Ancient Seals, one can enter the Primordial Realm as they wish."

"I see... Do you think the Four Ancient Families will lend us their Ancient Seals?"

"Probably not... But it doesn't matter what the Four Ancient Families think. As long as the person holding the Ancient Seal is willing, they can hand over the Ancient Seal." Xiao Hua said.

"Oh? Who is currently holding the Ancient Seals? We won't know unless we try." Yuan said, sounding a little enthusiastic.

Xiao Hua shook her head and said, "Xiao Hua only knows that each family has one person holding the Ancient Seal, but that person's identity is very secretive, and only important figures in the families would hold such information."

"Furthermore, the person holding the Ancient Seal can be anywhere in the Nine Heavens. For example, there could be a seal holder in the third heaven while the other seal holders are in the other heavens. After all, the Four Ancient Families exist all over the Nine Heavens."

"What? So you're telling me that there could be a seal holder in the Supreme Heaven? That makes things even more complicated..." Yuan sighed.

"Yes, but the four Ancient Seal holders will gather in the same location once every 10 years to make sure that everybody still has their seal. If we can find out the location and time of their next meeting, perhaps we might be able to meet all of them at once." Xiao Hua said.

"But just meeting them won't do any good. We need to convince them to lend us their Ancient Seals too, and that will probably be the hardest part."

"Brother Yuan, we should forget about this for now. There's no point looking for the Ancient Seals now. Even if we somehow acquire it now, we won't be able to go there," she said.

"Eh? Why not?" Yuan asked.

"Because Brother Yuan is too weak. If we go there now, you will most definitely die."

"What? The Primordial Realm is that dangerous? I thought it was your home?" Yuan's eyes widened with surprise.

"Yes, that is where Xiao Hua's family is located, but there are other exiles living there as well, not to mention the chaotic energy in that world. It's called the Primordial Realm mainly because of the chaotic energy that's very common in the Primordial Era, and if one doesn't have sufficient cultivation, they will be crushed to death just by being around that chaotic energy."

"Wow... Doesn't this mean everybody living inside the Primordial Realm are incredibly powerful cultivators?" Yuan asked.

Xiao Hua nodded and said, "They are so powerful that when babies are born, they already have the cultivation base of a Spirit Lord."

"What! Born as a Spirit Lord?! People can be born as cultivators?!" Yuan was shocked when he heard this, as this is his first time hearing such information.

"Yes. In the upper heavens, many people are born already with a cultivation base because their parents help them by nurturing them with spiritual energy even before they are born."

"Heavens... Now I really want to go to the Primordial Realm..." Yuan mumbled to himself.

Sometime later, Yuan returned to studying the Ancient-rank technique until Yu Rou and the others returned.

"Sorry, it took so long, brother. There were just so many techniques to look at and we didn't know what we wanted." Yu Rou apologized to him afterward.

"I don't mind," Yuan said.

"Since you're back, does this mean you're finally finished? What kind of cultivation techniques did you guys pick?" Yuan asked them, and he could see each of them holding onto scrolls.

"Well, we picked a lot, but we're not sure if we want them just yet since we still need to see if we can afford them." Yu Rou said.

Chapter 469 - Free

"Don't worry about the price. I will pay for them even if you can afford it." Yuan said to Yu Rou after hearing her words.

"Really?" Yu Rou's eyes flickered with excitement.

Although it felt weird at first, she eventually got used to being spoiled by Yuan. Now, she even enjoys being spoiled.

"Meixiu, Miss Xia, I will also pay for your techniques."

"Eh? You don't have to pay for my stuff as well..." Xia Jingyi said in a surprised voice, and she continued, "Also, you can just call me Jingyi. It feels weird being called 'Miss' by someone older than me."

"It's okay. Just let me pay for it. It'll also feel weird for me if I pay for everyone else but you." Yuan insisted on paying for her cultivation techniques.

"O-Okay... Thank you, Senior Yu."

"Senior Yu? Just call me Yu Tian." Yuan chuckled.

"Anyways, let's go check out the techniques."

A few minutes later, they arrived at the reception desk.

"Hello, we'd like to check the prices for these techniques." Yu Rou said to the young man working behind the desk.

"Hmm?"

"Oh, I remember you. You're that girl who bought the Wind Blade technique a while ago." The young man said, as he was there during Yuan and Yu Rou's first visit to the store.

He then turned to look at Yuan, "It's good to see you again, Senior."

"Hello. You're still working at the desk? You don't have to rotate with another person like Zhu Yuying?" Yuan asked him.

"Haha... I am a permanent worker here, so no, I don't have any replacements," he said.

"I see... Anyways, how much for these techniques?"

"Let me see what you got."

Yu Rou and the others placed the techniques in their grasp on the table, and the young man immediately began looking through the scrolls.

"Your total will come out to 0 gold coins." The young man said with a smile on his face.

"Excuse me?" Yu Rou raised her eyebrows in a puzzled manner, clearly doubting what she'd just heard.

"Did you just say 0 gold coins? Isn't that basically free?" Yuan asked with a surprised look on his face.

"Yes, it's free." The young man nodded.

"Why is it free?" Xia Jingyi asked him.

The young man looked at Yuan and said, "As long as you're part of the faction, everything in the Myriad of Techniques is free as long as the technique is below Heaven-rank."

"Faction? What is he talking about, brother?" Yu Rou turned to ask him.

"Ehh... I will explain later." Yuan said.

Then he turned to look at the young man and asked, "Are there any limitations? Like I cannot share or sell the techniques. After all, getting all of the techniques I want for free sounds a little bit... too good to be true..."

"The only limitation is that you are limited to 10 free techniques a year. If you want to sell or share the technique, you are free to do so." The young man said.

Yu Rou and Xia Jingyi turned to look at each other with dumbfounded expressions on their faces. They were shocked speechless by Yuan's privilege. What exactly is a faction, and how do they join it?

'My parents had to shell out a few billion dollars to acquire a Heaven-rank cultivation technique, but Brother Tian only needed to join a faction to obtain 10 free techniques every year as long as it's below Heaven-rank?' Yu Rou thought to herself.

"If you think this is too good to be true, just wait until you achieve a higher faction rank, since the higher your rank, the better techniques you get to take for free." The young man continued.

"A-Are you also part of the faction?" Yuan couldn't help but ask him.

"Hahaha... of course, not. It's too unrealistic for me—to the point where I cannot even dream about being part of Master Bai's faction."

"Eh? Then how did you know that I am part of the faction?" Yuan then asked.

The young man then retrieved a talisman from under the desk and said, "When this talisman glows gold, it means there's someone from the faction in front of me. That's how I knew."

"Wow, that's pretty neat. Do you think I can get one as well?"

"I'm sorry, Senior, but this isn't something that can be given to everyone even if they're from the faction. I only have one because I am working at the Myriad of Techniques. If you want one, you'll have to acquire the rank of Captain." The young man explained to him.

"I see... Thanks for letting me know." Yuan said.

He then turned to look at Yu Rou and the others.

"Since I can acquire any technique below Heaven-rank for free and I still have ten slots this year, do you want to go back and look around some more? I wouldn't be surprised if there were some techniques that caught your interest but you decided to ignore them because you were worried about the price."

"R-Really? You're going to use your precious 10 slots for us?" Yu Rou looked at him with wide eyes.

"Yes. I don't mind." Yuan nodded.

"Thank you, brother! I love you!" Yu Rou said to him.

"T-Thank you, Yu Tian. I will definitely return this favor one day in the future." Xia Jingyi lowered her head and bowed to him.

"Guess I will hold onto these techniques for now." The young man said with a smile on his face.

Yu Rou and the others left the place shortly after and returned to the second floor to look at the techniques one more time.

"Yingying, what about you? You only know a single technique right now, right? You should look around, too." Yuan said to her afterward.

Lan Yingying then appeared before him and said, "Is it really okay for me to get a technique as well?"

"Of course." He nodded.

Chapter 470 - Contest

Once everyone beside Xiao Hua left, Yuan returned to the waiting room and proceeded to continue studying the Ancient-rank fist technique.

Even though he clearly showed great compatibility with the technique, Yuan was unable to learn this technique as easily as he learned the other techniques.

'As expected of an Ancient-rank technique. I cannot learn it as quickly as I learned the other techniques.' Yuan thought to himself.

'Now that I think about it, the Dragon's Gaze is also an Ancient-rank technique, and it took me a couple of weeks to learn that technique. Although only a week had passed in real-time, I had experienced many weeks while I was studying the technique inside my head, so I should still count it as such.'

If he uses the Dragon's Gaze as an example, he will probably need at least a few weeks to learn the fist technique.

Though, this didn't discourage Yuan. In fact, it only made him study the technique even more seriously.

Time passed extremely quickly while Yuan was absorbed in studying the technique, and before he was aware, the ladies returned to his side with new techniques in their grasp.

"We're back, brother." Yu Rou said to him.

Yuan opened his eyes and looked at them.

Both Meixiu and Xia Jingyi were holding a single scroll while Yu Rou had two scrolls.

Yuan looked around for Lan Yingying.

"Brother? Who are you looking for?" Yu Rou asked him.

"Yingying. She's still looking for a technique," he said.

"Yingying? Who?" Yu Rou raised her eyebrows.

"Uhhh... I forgot to introduce her to you, but her name is Lan Yingying, and she's like Xiao Hua and Feng Feng." Yuan gave her a brief explanation.

"Like Xiao Hua and Feng Feng?" Yu Rou pondered.

'Oh, I completely forgot... Brother Tian had acquired an Ancient-grade servant during the Mystic Realm... I wonder what she looks like...' Yu Rou recalled the announcement that shook the internet for an entire week.

About an hour later, a white-haired beauty entered the waiting room, instantly catching Yu Rou and Xia Jingyi's attention.

"I apologize for making you wait so long, my Lord." Lan Yingying said to him after she returned.

"My lord?" Yu Rou raised her eyebrows.

Lan Yingying bowed to Yu Rou and Xia Jingyi and said, "Hello. My name is Lan Yingying, and I am the Lord's servant."

'Servant? Is she roleplaying?' Xia Jingyi wondered inwardly, as she wasn't aware of Lan Yingying's true identity as a Divine Beast.

"Hello... I am Yu Rou, and I am Yu Tian's younger sister." Yu Rou introduced herself.

"Xia Jingyi, and I am Yu Rou's classmate." Xia Jingyi said.

"By the way, Yingying is an NPC," Yuan said to Xia Jingyi.

"Eh? Oh... Then she probably doesn't know about classmates... Well, we're something like fellow disciples of the same sect." Xia Jingyi explained herself afterward.

After their introduction, Yuan took them back to the young man at the reception diest.

"Six Heaven-rank techniques, huh? What about the ones you found previously? Do you still want them?" The young man asked them.

"No, we'll just take the new techniques." Yu Rou shook her head.

"I understand. I will place them back for you later."

"Sorry for the trouble," Yuan said.

"Don't mention it. I am merely doing my job."

The young man proceeded to log in the techniques they took, and after a couple of minutes, he handed the scrolls back to Yu Rou and the others.

"Alright. You're all set. Senior, you have 4 more free techniques for the rest of the year. It will reset at the beginning of next year."

"I understand. Thank you." Yuan nodded.

"See you next time, Seniors." The young man bowed to them as they left the place.

"Wow, it's already this late? I would like to study the new techniques, but we can do that later." Yu Rou said when she realized that it was already late at night.

"Goodnight."

After saying their goodbyes, they logged off the game.

"What kind of technique did you get, Meixiu?" Yuan asked her during dinner.

"Oh, it's a movement technique," she said.

"Eh? A movement technique? You only got one technique, right? What about a martial technique? Although having a movement technique is great, you cannot win a fight just by dodging." Yuan said.

"I think I will be fine for a while even without any martial techniques. I have plenty of hand-to-hand combat experience, so I should be fine even without a martial technique," she said in a confident voice.

"I mean, you should be fine without any martial techniques for now since you're still only a Spirit Apprentice in the game, but once you reach a higher cultivation, martial techniques are essential since everyone will have one, and you cannot fight martial technique with b.a.r.e hands."

"Yes, I plan on learning a martial technique in the future, but for now, I am satisfied with just a movement technique," she said.

After dinner, Meixiu went to cultivate while Yuan practiced his Divine Sense.

The following morning, before they could even enter Cultivation Online, Yu Rou called Meixiu's phone.

"Morning, Meixiu."

"Good morning, Yu Rou. What's the matter?"

"Apparently there's a small contest in a nearby city. It's mostly for cultivators between the first level and the third level of Spirit Warrior. Do you want to participate in it? The winner even gets an Earth-rank cultivation technique."

"I don't really care. Do you intend on participating in it?" Meixiu said.

"Yes."

"Even though you just got two Heaven-rank techniques?"

"Hehe... You can never have too many techniques! If the Earth-rank technique isn't any good, I can simply sell it to other players for some money, and then I will give that money to Brother Tian so that I could feel less guilty about taking two Heaven-rank techniques for free." Yu Rou said.

"Also, it will be a good experience for us. Although I have fought plenty of magical beasts, I am still inexperienced with fighting other people."

"Okay. I will tell Yuan. Let's continue this talk inside the game." Meixiu said.

"Alright. See you two in a bit." Yu Rou then hung up.

Chapter 471 - Fiery Lotus

After meeting up with Yu Rou and Xia Jingyi inside Cultivation Online, Yuan asked them, "You want to participate in a contest?"

"Yes, there will be other players there as well." Yu Rou nodded.

"Are you sure? I assume there will be a lot of players there since there is going to be a free Earth-rank technique." Yuan said.

"Well, it won't hurt to take a look at the place. If there are too many people, we can leave." Yu Rou said.

"Alright. How far is this place? Do we need to take a carriage there?"

"No, it's only about a two-hour walk from here."

They proceeded to leave Seashell City shortly after.

A little over two hours later, they arrived at the city.

However, they were immediately baffled by the number of people there.

"Heavens..." Yu Rou mumbled in a dazed voice when she saw the sea of people outside the city waiting to go inside.

If there were this many people outside the city, she can only imagine how many people were inside.

"I have underestimated the value of an Earth-rank technique... probably because of you, brother..." Yu Rou sighed a moment later.

"Do you still want to participate in the contest?" Yuan asked her with a smile on his face.

"Uhhh... I will be shocked if we can enter the city before the contest is over," she sighed again.

"What else do you want to do now?"

"Well... I kind of want to study the technique I got yesterday."

"Should we go to the Cultivators' Haven?"

"Nah. I'm getting bored of the bland room inside the Cultivators' Haven. We can study outside for a change, and it's not like we're cultivating, so a little disturbance should be fine. There's a lake about a mile away. We can go there instead."

"Alright. Let's go." Yuan nodded.

"Wow, this place is beautiful." Yu Rou said.

"This place kind of reminds me of a school trip we had last year." Xia Jingyi said.

"Oh, you mean the one we had towards the end of the year? I remember, but the water there wasn't this clear."

"The atmosphere here is quite refreshing..." Yuan looked at the lake with a look of admiration.

"This is your first time coming to a place like this, right?" Yu Rou said to him.

"Yes... Our parents would never take us to these kinds of places, after all." He said with a bittersweet smile.

"By the way, where's Miss Lan?" Xia Jingyi asked when she realized that she was gone.

"Oh, she's right here," he said while pointing to the snake bracelet around his wrist.

"Huh?" Xia Jingyi raised her eyebrows upon hearing this.

"Come out for a bit, Yingying."

The next moment, the white bracelet around his arms began moving, before transforming into Lan Yingying.

Xia Jingyi's jaw dropped after seeing her transformation.

"Y-You're not human?" Xia Jingyi asked.

"No, I am a Divine Serpent," Lan Yingying said.

"Do you want to see my beast form?"

Xia Jingyi nodded with curiosity.

"I also want to see it!" Yu Rou said.

Lan Yingying then transformed into her serpent form.

"Whoa! You're very big!" Yu Rou was dumbfounded when Lan Yingying transformed into a massive white snake larger than even a bus, almost like a mini train.

"You have very pretty scales..." Xia Jingyi said with a dazzled look on her face.

"Thank you."

"Hmm? Jingyi, do you like snakes? I thought most girls hate snakes." Yu Rou said.

"Yes, I like snakes. I find them very cute. In fact, I have a pet snake at home." Xia Jingyi nodded.

"Really? I should visit your home one day."

"You can come whenever." Xia Jingyi said.

Sometime later, Lan Yingying returned to her human form.

"I'm going to study the technique now." Yu Rou said to them before taking a seat by the lake and retrieving one of the two Heaven-rank techniques she'd recently acquired.

Xia Jingyi followed her and also started studying her new technique.

"What about you, Yingying? What kind of technique did you take?" Yuan asked her afterward.

"Oh, it's a flame technique. I was hoping it'd synergize with my Sacred Fire," she said.

Lan Yingying then took a seat somewhere in the shades under a tree and began studying the technique.

"I'm also going to study my technique," Meixiu said before going to where Yu Rou and Xia Jingyi were studying.

"Since everyone is studying, I might as well study too, but I kind of want to enjoy the scenery for a bit." Yuan proceeded to lay beside the lake and looked at the sparkling water for a whole hour before he started studying his own technique.

After studying for a few hours, Lan Yingying was the first to learn her new technique.

She then walked to the lake and started practicing her new technique.

Lan Yingying took a deep breath, then she proceeded to summon her Sacred Fire on her palms.

A white ball of fire appeared, and Lan Yingying controlled the Sacred Fire, transforming the ball of fire into the shape of a lotus.

Once she was satisfied with the shape and its consistency, Lan Yingying tossed the lotus into the lake.

Whoosh!

This attracted the attention of everyone there.

"Wow, what beautiful white flames..." Xia Jingyi mumbled in a low voice, seemingly mesmerized by it.

"Look at the flames! It's not going out even though it's touching the water! I have never seen anything like this before!" Yu Rou exclaimed when she noticed the fire wasn't going out as it laid on top of the water, making the lake look as though it was actually on fire.

However, Lan Yingying wasn't satisfied with the results, so she continued to create these flaming lotuses until she ran out of spiritual energy.

By the end of the day, Lan Yingying was capable of creating two lotuses at a time.

"What kind of technique did you learn?" Yu Rou couldn't help but ask her towards the end of the day.

"It's a technique called Fiery Lotus. It significantly enhances the power of flames, but it consumes a lot of spiritual energy," she said.

"Really? It didn't look like it consumes a lot of spiritual energy because you've been shooting them all day." Yu Rou said.

"That's because I made sure to limit the strength of the technique and focused on mastering the control first, and if I used the technique at its full strength, it'd disturb you guys."

"Can you use its full strength now? I am curious."

Lan Yingying nodded.

She then created another lotus using her Sacred Fire, but it was much larger than all of her previous lotuses today.

In fact, compared to the palm-sized lotuses she has been practicing with throughout the day, this one was as large as a large watermelon.

Once she'd poured enough spiritual energy into the lotus, Lan Yingying tossed it towards the lake.

The next moment, the lotus exploded into a fiery hell that consumed the entire lake, illuminating the somewhat dark place.

"Wow! So pretty!" Yu Rou said as she watched the lake burn with white flames that danced on the surface of the water.

Sometime later, Yu Rou and Xia Jingyi logged off after saying their goodbyes.

Yuan and Meixiu also logged off shortly after.

The following morning, Yuan and the others continued to study their techniques by the lake, and they would continue to do this for almost an entire week.

The second person to finish learning her new technique was Meixiu.

On the third day, she started trying out the movement technique, dancing around the place with stiff movements at first, eventually getting better.

"Xiao Hua, can I borrow some of your time? I don't want to bother him since he's studying." Meixiu approached Xiao Hua on the fourth day.

Xiao Hua nodded and followed Meixiu to a spacious area by the lake.

"I would like to test out my movement technique. Can you try hitting me with something?" Meixiu asked Xiao Hua a moment later.

Xiao Hua nodded and retrieved a sword from her storage ring.

Meixiu immediately became nervous.

Seeing Xiao Hua wielding a sword that was as long as her body was a weird experience.

"D-Do you have anything else?"

Xiao Hua shook her head, and then she said, "Don't worry, Xiao Hua won't hit you."

"Okay..." Meixiu decided to trust Xiao Hua, and she took a long and deep breath to calm down.

"Are you ready?" Xiao Hua asked a moment later.

"Yes." Meixiu nodded with a focused look on her face.

Xiao Hua then kicked her feet, closing their distance instantly.

Once she was close enough, Xiao Hua swung the sword at Meixiu.

Whoosh!

The blade narrowly missed Meixiu.

However, Xiao Hua didn't stop and continued to strike at her.

Of course, Xiao Hua adjusted her speed to Meixiu's level. If she moved any quicker, Meixiu wouldn't be able to dodge it at all.

"Ah!"

Meixiu accidentally tripped a few minutes into their training, but there was a sword flying at her neck.

Meixiu subconsciously closed her eyes and prepared for the worst.

However, nothing happened even a moment later.

Meixiu slowly opened her eyes, and to her surprise, the blade stopped a few inches away from her neck.

"Are you okay?" Xiao Hua asked her in a calm voice.

"Yes. Let's continue." Meixiu said after getting up.

Xiao Hua nodded.

They continued to practice shortly after, and Meixiu's movements grew quicker and smoother as time progressed.

Chapter 472 - Mount Hua Temple

"Haaa... haaa... haaa..."

After half an hour of practicing her movement technique with Xiao Hua, Meixiu collapsed on the ground in an exhausted manner.

It's been a very long time since she's experienced such exhaustion. The only time she can recall feeling this tired was after training with her mother when she was still in servant training.

As for Xiao Hua, she looked completely calm and nonchalant, almost like she has been sitting in the shades this entire time.

"Are you okay?" Xiao Hua asked her a moment after she laid on the floor.

"Yes... thank you... for helping me..." Meixiu said to her.

"If you want more training, just call Xiao Hua," she said to Meixiu before walking back to sit beside Yuan.

After her training, Meixiu took a seat at a nearby tree and enjoyed the shades. The wind would sometimes blow, carrying the refreshing air from the lake and sweeping the area with it.

Once she'd rested for a couple of hours, Meixiu would ask Xiao Hua for help again with her training. Even though it was tiring, Meixiu enjoyed practicing the movement technique that allowed her to move very quickly, and it felt very satisfying whenever she perfectly dodged the sword.

Yu Rou managed to learn one of her two Heaven-rank techniques three days after Meixiu learned her movement technique.

Once she got the notification, Yu Rou retrieved her treasure fan and stood before the lake.

Whoosh!

The wind in the middle of the lake began to twist, and in just a moment, a tornado appeared, swallowing up the water.

Three seconds later, the tornado grew so large that it lowered the water in the lake by a dozen inches.

Yu Rou panicked when she saw how big the tornado was getting, so she quickly stopped it.

Countless drops of water began raining from the sky a moment later despite the clear blue sky, soaking everybody except Xiao Hua and Lan Yingying with water, as they'd protected themselves by covering their body with a layer of spiritual energy that reflected the water.

"I-I'm so sorry!" Yu Rou apologized to them afterward.

"It's okay... I'm not that wet." Xia Jingyi said with a smile on her face.

"That's the technique you had chosen? Creating a tornado? This is my first time seeing such a unique technique," said Yuan.

"I thought it was a pretty neat technique and would complement my Wind Blades well, so I picked it." Yu Rou nodded.

"What about your second technique?" Yuan then asked.

"Uhh... It's also a wind technique, and it allows me to control the wind around me, allowing me to fly," she said.

"Fly? You can do that just by reaching Spirit Grandmaster or Spirit Master if you're lucky," said Yuan.

"Just by reaching Spirit Grandmaster? Are you listening to yourself right now, brother? Do you think everybody is talented like you? Don't make it sound so easy. It took the majority of the playerbase two to three months to reach Spirit Warrior, much less Spirit Grandmaster. It'll probably take us another 2 to 3 years if not even more to reach Spirit Grandmaster. Even if it'll take less than a year for me to reach Spirit Grandmaster, I think it's still worth learning this technique, since it will let me fly right after I learn the technique, which definitely won't take me a few years to learn— I hope..."

"I see... that makes sense." Yuan nodded.

"Anyways, Jingyi is still studying her technique, so let's wait until she finishes before we decide what we want to do next." Yu Rou said a moment later.

"I'm sorry for holding you guys back... You don't have to wait for me if you don't want to," she sighed.

"Nonsense! We started this together, so we're going to finish it together!" Yu Rou said, and she continued, "In the meantime, I will try to study my second Heaven-rank technique, so take your time."

"You don't mind right, brother? Meixiu?" Yu Rou asked them.

"I don't mind. I am still studying my technique as well." Yuan said.

"I also don't mind it. It just means I get to practice my movement technique even more." Meixiu said.

"Alright. Then it's decided."

Sometime later, Yuan, Yu Rou, and Xia Jingyi returned to their technique while Meixiu continued to practice with Xiao Hua.

As for Lan Yingying, she sat beside the lake with a Fiery Lotus floating on her palms and her eyes closed, almost like she was experiencing enlightenment, but in reality, she was just focused on keeping the Fiery Lotus from disappearing for as long as her spiritual energy allows.

They continued this for another five days until Xia Jingyi finally learned her technique.

"I did it!" Xia Jingyi exclaimed in an excited voice when she saw the notification.

"Hm? Did you finally learn the technique?" Yu Rou stopped studying her technique and turned to look at Xia Jingyi, who was sitting right beside her.

"Yes!" Xia Jingyi nodded.

"Congratulations. What kind of technique did you learn?" Yuan asked her.

"Oh, it's just another zither technique." Xia Jingyi said as she retrieved her zither that was an Earth-grade treasure.

Ting!

A crisp noise resounded, and a single arc of light that resembled Yu Rou's Wind Blade technique flew from the zither before flying towards the water in the lake.

Whoosh!

The water in the lake separated into two halves for a good second, looking like someone had created a path in the lake with a sword.

"Wow! What a powerful attack!" Yu Rou said. "So one of your techniques damages enemies internally and one slices them like swords?"

"Yes, pretty much." Xia Jingyi nodded.

Sometime later, Yu Rou asked everyone, "Now that we have new techniques, what should we do? I kind of want to test out these techniques on some magical beasts. Let's go do some quests again."

"I don't mind." Xia Jingyi nodded.

"I'm also down," Yuan said.

"Me too." Meixiu also said.

"Then let's go!"

Thus, they began making their way back to Seashell City for more quests.

Meanwhile, a few hundred thousand miles away from Yuan's location, Feng Yuxiang approached a large temple that was located at the peak of a large mountain.

"Who are you? And why have you come to our Mount Hua Temple?"

A group of bald monks approached Feng Yuxiang when they saw her approaching figure.

"I heard that my good friend Li Shizhen is currently here, so I am here to visit him," said Feng Yuxiang.

The bald monks had a look of surprise on their faces for a split second before they frowned and said, "There is nobody named Li Shizhen here! Please leave!"

However, Feng Yuxiang stayed there with a calm look on her face and said, "The person who gave me this information wouldn't dare to lie to me, or he'd risk eating a sword with his a.s.s. I know Li Shizhen is inside. I can even smell the scent of medicine from here."

The bald monks exchanged looks with each other before retrieving the staff strapped to their backs and pointing them at Feng Yuxiang.

"Leave!"

These bald monks all emitted the power of Spirit Masters. However, in the face of a peak Spirit Grandmaster like Feng Yuixang, the pressure they emitted was nonexistent.

Feng Yuxiang sighed and said, "I will give you one last chance to call Li Shizhen out for me. I don't want to cause any trouble for my Young Master, but he needs to see a doctor, and I promised him that I will find the best one for him."

"I know the Mount Hua Temple has a million-year history in the Lower Heavens, but if I have to tear down this place to get to Li Shizhen, I will do it."

However, the bald monks remained adamant on keeping Feng Yuxiang out of the temple.

"Leave! The person you are looking for is elsewhere! Even if you are heaven itself, you will have to leave!"

Feng Yuxiang raised her eyebrows.

The monks at Mount Hua Temple are usually very reasonable and calm. Why are they acting so suspicious?

Feng Yuxiang pondered for a moment and then came to a realization.

"Oh, I know. One of your top monks must be in some sort of life-or-death medical condition, and Li Shizhen is healing that person right now. Whenever he is healing someone, he forbids anyone from disturbing him until he's done. Is that why you're not letting me disturb him?"

"This is..."

The monks were speechless, as Feng Yuxiang's guess was spot on!

"How long do I have to wait? If you don't tell me, I will be mad," she said to them a moment later.

However, Li Shizhen was not only healing one of their valued monks but he also instructed them to keep his location a secret no matter what.

And they rather listen to Li Shizhen, who has the sick monk's life on his hands.

"We will not repeat ourselves! Li Shizhen is not here!" One of the monks suddenly said.

"Is that so?" Feng Yuxiang mumbled in a low voice before she closed her eyes.

After a moment of silence, Feng Yuxiang snapped open her eyes that had turned golden.

She then released her Spirit Grandmaster cultivation before shouting in a booming voice that shook the entire mountain.

"Li Shizhen! How long do you plan on making this pitiful young lady wait out here in the cold?! My body is freezing! If I die from hypothermia, I will definitely haunt you for the rest of your worthless life!"

The bald monks were speechless, but before they could even react, the doors to the temple opened in a forceful manner, and a handsome middle-aged man could be seen standing there with a terrified look on his face.

Chapter 473 - Li Shizhen

"M-Madam Feng! What are you doing here?!" The handsome middle-aged man exclaimed when he saw Feng Yuxiang's beautiful figure standing not far away from the temple.

"Hmph! I have been looking everywhere for you, Li Shizhen! How dare you make me do so much work?" Feng Yuxiang sneered coldly.

"M-Master Li!" The bald monks were shocked when Li Shizhen actually came outside after hearing Feng Yuxiang's voice.

Is she really that important to him? Just who is this fierce woman with a domineering aura that resembles powerful magical beasts?

Li Shizhen looked at the monks and said, "Don't worry, I have stabilized the Head Monk's condition. He only needs to rest now."

"Thank you, Savior!"

The monks there immediately lowered their heads and bowed to him with gratitude.

"Let my friend over there through." Li Shizhen then said.

"Right away!"

The monks no longer blocked her path and allowed her entrance.

"Should have done this in the beginning," she said as she walked past them.

Once she entered the temple, Li Shizhen brought her to the guest room and served her tea.

"This is the first time you've personally looked for me. Did something happen? Do you need someone to be healed as soon as possible?" Li Shizhen asked her after they sat down.

"Not really. I want to introduce you to someone. He needs your help," she said.

"Who? Did you finally find a husband after so many years?" Li Shizhen joked.

Feng Yuxiang narrowed her eyes and stared at him with a dangerous look.

"I guess you didn't learn from the last time, or maybe you forgot about it. How about I stick a rod up your a.s.s to help you remember? This temple should have plenty of them," she then said in a cold voice.

Li Shizhen immediately began sweating, and he said with a stiff smile on his face, "Please have mercy. I still have nightmares about that incident."

"Hmph. Although this person isn't my husband, he's a very precious person to me," she answered him regardless after a moment of silence.

"Precious? Now my curiosity has peaked. Tell me more." Li Shizhen said.

"He's my Young Master," she said.

Pft!

Li Shizhen suddenly turned his head away from Feng Yuxiang before spitting out the tea in his mouth.

After coughing for a moment, he looked at her with disbelief in his eyes.

"Y-Young Master?"

"Yes, I have accepted him as my Master," she said.

Li Shizhen's jaw dropped, and he said, "Heavens... A Divine Beast— A phoenix, no less, has accepted a Master in the Lower Heavens? This is unprecedented."

Li Shizhen was one of the very few people in the Lower Heavens that knew of Feng Yuxiang's real identity.

"What's so special about this Young Master of yours?" Li Shizhen then asked.

"You will know once you meet him. When can you leave this place? It's already been a week since I left his side. I don't want to make him wait any longer."

"Hmm... That is a tricky question. As much as I'd like to leave now, I still have a patient here, and you know that I cannot leave until I am certain that he's fine."

"What? I thought you said that you'd already stabilized his condition." Feng Yuxiang frowned.

"His condition has only stabilized. There are still many things that have to be done before he's cured. Unless you happen to have a Seven Colored Herb, then I can heal him and leave with you by today."

"Seven Colored Herb? I think my Young Master might have one," she said, recalling how he asked for its price before.

"Really?!" Li Shizhen was immediately filled with excitement.

Then he frowned, "Or are you saying that just to trick me into following you?"

"Even if my Young Master has a Seven Colored Herb, he has no reason to give it to you," she said.

"Three days. If you are not done by then, I will make you leave by force." Feng Yuxiang said.

Li Shizhen smiled and said, "Three days should be more than enough. Have you forgotten who I am? I don't hold the title Divine Doctor without a reason."

"Whatever. I'm going to go look around the place until you're done."

"Just don't cause any troubles for the monks." Li Shizhen said.

Feng Yuxiang didn't say anything back and left the guest room.

"Madam Feng... She has gotten softer... Is this the effect of this mysterious Young Master of hers?" Li Shizhen mumbled to himself after Feng Yuxiang left.

Three days passed by in a flash, and Feng Yuxiang went to look for Li Shizhen to force him to leave with her if he wasn't done.

"I don't dare to make you look for me for a second time." Li Shizhen's voice suddenly resounded behind her.

"Are you done?" she asked him.

He nodded and said, "Yes. The Head Monk will make full recovery by next week."

And then he asked, "Where are we going now?"

"The Eastern Continent."

Thus Feng Yuxiang and Li Shizhen left the temple shortly after, heading towards the nearest city with a teleport device, and they proceeded to teleport from city to city until they reached the Eastern Continent a few days later.

After reaching the Eastern Continent, Feng Yuxiang said, "If you can help my Young Master, I will forget about the debt you owe me."

"Really?!" Li Shizhen looked at her with pure bliss on his face.

"Only if you help him. If you turn out to be useless, I will make you pay that debt immediately."

Li Shizhen swallowed nervously after hearing that.

"As long as it is related to medicine..." Li Shizhen said.

After traveling for another day, Feng Yuxiang and Li Shizhen arrived at Seashell City.

"Seashell City, huh? It's been over a hundred years since I last visited this city. The last time I did, it was to cure the city lord." Li Shizhen reminisced his history with this place.

"Follow me. I can sense the Young Master aura from here." Feng Yuxiang said as she began approaching the city.

Chapter 474 - Divine Doctor

"Thank you for your help. Here are 500 gold coins for the trouble." An old lady handed Yu Rou the reward for completing her quest.

"Thank you."

After accepting the gold coins, Yu Rou left the store and grouped up with Yuan and the others waiting outside.

"How many quests have we completed in the last few days? I lost count at 21," said Yuan.

"I don't know, but we earned a lot of gold coins— at least if we compare ourselves to the majority of the playerbase." Yu Rou said.

"What do you want to do now? Continue doing quests?"

"I think we should take a break from quests and do something more relaxing. Let's go to a restaurant and have some food." Yu Rou suggested.

"That sounds great." Yuan nodded.

However, before they could go anywhere, a familiar voice resounded from the sky, and two figures descended from the heavens a moment later, shocking the pedestrians there.

"Young Master, I am back!" Feng Yuxiang called out to him from the sky as she descended.

"That's your Young Master?" Li Shizhen raised his eyebrows with a surprised look on his face after sensing Yuan's Spirit Grandmaster cultivation base.

He knew someone who could make Feng Yuxiang lower herself to become a servant wouldn't be an ordinary person, but to think he was a Spirit Grandmaster at such a young-looking age; it was quite shocking, especially since this is the Lower Heavens.

"Feng Feng?" Yuan smiled when he saw her beautiful face.

"They're flying..." Xia Jingyi mumbled in a dazed voice as she stared at them with disbelief on her face.

"I'm sorry for making you wait this long, Young Master. Please forgive me." Feng Yuxiang said to him after landing on the ground.

"Why are you apologizing? I should be thanking you instead." Yuan said.

He then turned to look at the handsome middle-aged man standing beside her and said, "Hello, you must be the doctor Feng Feng told me about."

'Feng Feng?' Li Shizhen laughed inwardly when he heard this cute nickname for Feng Yuxiang.

He wanted to try saying it too, but he didn't dare to actually say it out loud, as that might result in a sword violating his b.u.t.t.

Li Shizhen then responded with a friendly smile on his face, "Good morning, Young Master. My name is Li Shizhen, also known as Divine Doctor Li. I was told by Madam Feng here that you wanted to speak with me? Are you sick?"

Yuan nodded and said, "Yes, I wanted to speak with you. Can we go somewhere more private before we continue?"

"Most certainly. I know the perfect place." Li Shizhen said.

Yuan then turned to Yu Rou and the others before speaking, "I'm sorry, but can you guys go ahead without me? I have some business to take care of now."

"Is everything okay, brother?" Yu Rou asked him with a worried look on her face.

"Yes, everything is fine. I am just asking him for advice. I will tell you everything later."

"If you say so... Then we'll see you later, brother."

"Xiao Hua, can you stay with them just in case anything happens?" Yuan said to her before they left.

"Okay." Xiao Hua nodded.

"Thank you."

Yu Rou left the scene with Xia Jingyi and Meixiu a moment later, followed by Xiao Hua.

"Shall we go now?" Li Shizhen asked him.

"Yes, let's go." Yuan nodded.

Li Shizhen proceeded to take Yuan to a nearby medicine store. In fact, it was one of the biggest and most popular medicine stores in the city.

When the manager of that store saw Li Shizhen's face, he immediately kowtowed on the floor.

"Welcome to our humble establishment, Divine Doctor Li!"

Even though he had never personally met Li Shizhen before, there was not a single doctor in the Lower Heavens that didn't know of Li Shizhen.

"Do you mind if we use one of your private rooms for a bit?" Li Shizhen asked him with a friendly smile.

"Please! Stay however long you want! I will even close the store until you leave so that there will be no distraction!" The manager said.

"It's okay, you don't have to do so much. And for allowing us to use your place, I will give every doctor in this place an hour lecture if you wish."

"Thank you! Thank you very much!" The manager began crying when he heard that Li Shizhen will be giving them a lecture.

To receive a lecture from the Divine Doctor, even if it's just an hour, they will remember this for the rest of their life, and they can wear this achievement with pride.

Yuan was left speechless after witnessing this scene, and he could only imagine how much of a big shot Li Shizhen was.

Sometime later, Yuan and the others entered this private room somewhere inside the medicine store.

"Have a seat." Li Shizhen said.

Once they were seated, Feng Yuxiang said, "Before we start, let me give you some background about Li Shizhen and why you can trust him."

"Li Shizhen holds the title of Divine Doctor, a prestigious title that can only be held by the best doctors in the Nine Heavens, and although he's currently staying in the Lower Heavens, Li Shizhen is actually from the upper heavens."

"What? Really?" Yuan looked at Li Shizhen with a surprised expression.

Li Shizhen nodded and said, "There are plenty of Divine Doctors in the upper heavens while the Lower Heavens lacked one, so I willingly came down here to help those in need of it. I even restricted my cultivation base to the peak of Spirit Grandmaster so that I can stay here without any problems."

"I have wandered around the Lower Heavens for over 1,000 years now, and I do not plan on returning to the upper heavens anytime soon, as there are still a lot of people who are in need of a good doctor in the Lower Heavens."

Chapter 475 - The Reason for His Condition

"By the way, I have over 10,000 years of experience in the field of medicine, and there hasn't been a single patient that I haven't been able to cure since I became a doctor." Li Shizhen said.

Yuan nodded, "I will trust you."

Though it was not like he never trusted Li Shizhen.

Even if Li Shizhen didn't say any of that, Yuan would've still trusted him, as he was someone that Feng Yuxiang trusted enough to approach.

"Great. Now then, why don't you tell me what seems to be troubling you?" Li Shizhen asked him a moment later.

Yuan took a deep breath and proceeded to explain his situation to Li Shizhen without telling Li Shizhen that he was the person on the topic.

"I have this friend who grew incredibly sick out of the blue when he was young, and he has been crippled since then."

"Everything seemed to be normal for the first seven years of his life, but then he suddenly lost his ability to see, becoming blind. Five years later, his body suddenly stopped functioning, so everything below his neck became useless and numb to feeling, forcing him to stay in the bed."

"However, when the doctors checked his condition, they weren't able to find anything wrong with his body. They checked his blood, his muscles, and even his bones, but they were unable to find anything."

"The doctors said that he was perfectly healthy, yet he was unable to move."

"However, after 5 gruesome years, my friend finally started recovering after he started cultivating. He started feeling his body again, and now he can even move his limbs slightly."

"He's also a peak Spirit Warrior on the verge of breaking through to Spirit Master, but he still feels as though his body doesn't have any strength to it. He can feel his body overflowing with energy, but he cannot exert any of that energy. Do you have any idea what's wrong with him and if there's any cure that will allow him to recover faster?"

"Hmmm... Give me a moment to think about this..." Li Shizhen said to him before closing his eyes and turning silent.

Many minutes later, he opened his eyes and spoke in a calm voice, "This is an interesting case— not to make fun of your friend. I have seen many cases similar to this, but there are some distinctive differences."

"One such case being Qi deprivation. Once a cultivator reaches a certain cultivation base, they are required to continue absorbing spiritual energy to keep their bodies functioning, and if they stop absorbing spiritual energy for long enough, their bodies will slowly lose their functions. They will go blind, and their bodies will no longer be usable until they start absorbing spiritual energy again, just like your friend, but this only happens when the cultivator purposefully stops absorbing spiritual energy."

"As cultivators, we subconsciously absorb the spiritual energy around us even if we don't actively cultivate, so one must forcefully stop their bodies from absorbing spiritual energy, or something is preventing them from doing so."

"However, that isn't the case for your friend, as he's only a peak Spirit Warrior, meaning he's not at the level where they can experience Qi deprivation in such a manner. Furthermore, his problem began even before he started cultivating."

After taking a moment to breathe, Li Shizhen continued, "Now onto the second case— poison. There are powerful and deadly poisons out there that can have similar effects on humans if ingested. However, this is also unlikely for your friend, because you said that the doctors have checked his blood."

"Even an incredibly incompetent doctor would be able to detect the poison in his blood if he'd ingested some. Although there are undetectable poisons out there, none of them could cause the effects your friend is experiencing — at least I am not aware of any."

Yuan nodded and said, "I also don't think it was caused by poison."

"Then onto the last probability and also the one that's most likely the cause of your friend's misfortune." Li Shizhen said.

"Curse. Your friend was cursed."

"W-What?" Yuan's eyes widened when he heard Li Shizhen's words.

"Your friend was cursed, hence why the doctors cannot find anything wrong within his body, as most of them do not have the capabilities to detect even the weakest curses. The field of medicine and curses are vastly different, so unless they're a Divine Doctor like me, they most likely won't know anything about curses."

"Another reason that supports this theory is the fact that despite being a Spirit Warrior and feeling energetic, your friend cannot exert any strength. Now the question is whether your friend was cursed by another individual or is it due to a natural curse." Li Shizhen pondered with a serious look on his face.

"..."

Yuan was speechless, and he recalled his conversation with Doctor Wang sometime ago. Although Doctor Wang also mentioned that he could be cursed, neither of them took such a theory seriously, as it was a ridiculous thought that curses could be real.

And even though cultivation was proven to be real, that doesn't prove curses were real. After all, even though cultivation existed in both Cultivation Online and the real world, magical beasts that also exist in Cultivation Online don't exist in the real world.

This meant that just because something existed in Cultivation Online, it doesn't always mean their world will also have it.

"Is there no other reason why my friend is like that?" Yuan couldn't help but ask.

"If he's not cursed then I don't have any idea what's wrong with your friend, as there's no illness that could affect one's body like what you explained to me. One could go blind due to illnesses, and one can even lose functions to their entire body due to illnesses, but to have a healthy body while having all of that problem just isn't possible."

"However, if your friend is cursed, then that would explain why his body is in that state despite being completely healthy, and that also explains why he started recovering when he started cultivating, as most curses have weakened effects on cultivators, especially the stronger they get." Li Shizhen said.

Chapter 476 – Northern Continent

"I am fairly certain that your friend is cursed, but if you want me to be 100 percent certain, then I'd need to see the patient so I can personally examine his condition." Li Shizhen suddenly said.

"Uhh..."

Li Shizhen's words took Yuan by surprise.

"I-I'm sorry, but that's impossible," he said a moment later.

"Impossible? Why?" Li Shizhen raised his eyebrows.

"My friend comes from a super secretive and strict family, so getting even close to him is near impossible. Furthermore, he lives in a place that's very, very far away from this place."

"Oh, and something happened to his family recently, so it's even more difficult to see him now..." Yuan made up some random excuse.

After all, it was not like he could tell Li Shizhen the truth about his situation, as he'd sound crazy.

"Is that so?" Li Shizhen doubted Yuan was telling him the truth, but he didn't say anything about it, as there must be a reason why Yuan was acting this way.

And he continued, "Well, I don't really need to see your friend since you told me that he's already recovering, and I have cured many people without even seeing them— only by listening to their condition and symptoms."

"Thank you for understanding. Anyway, if my friend is really cursed... Is there any way to remove this curse?" Yuan then asked.

"Why don't you just let him drink some of your blood, Young Master?" Feng Yuxiang spoke for the first time.

Yuan looked at her and sighed, "He's not like you, Feng Feng. He's human."

"But that shouldn't matter. I'm no expert, but your blood clearly has the ability to weaken curses. It shouldn't have anything to do with being a human or not."

Li Shizhen then said, "Your blood has the ability to weaken curses? I have never heard of this before. How are you so sure his blood has such abilities, Madam Feng?"

Feng Yuxiang then explained to him about her condition, "I drank his blood and the curse on me weakened, so I know it works."

"What? Is that true? Your curse weakened?" Li Shizhen looked at her with wide eyes.

"Yes. Why would I lie about this?" Feng Yuxiang nodded.

"Heavens..." Li Shizhen mumbled in a dumbfounded voice.

"Anyways, since your blood has capabilities to weaken curses, as weird as this is going to sound, if you let your friend drink your blood, it could possibly work."

Yuan showed a bittersweet smile on his face.

Does this mean he'll have to drink his own blood? Even though he already has such blood flowing inside his body? This doesn't make any sense to him.

"I-I understand... But what if that doesn't work?" Yuan then asked.

"Are there any more natural methods for getting rid of curses?"

"Hmm... I may have some knowledge regarding curses, but I know someone who's an expert with curses. If you'd like, I can take you to him so you can ask him yourself. He's not that far away from this place. We can get there in just a few hours."

Yuan pondered for a moment before nodding, "Okay, just give me a minute to let the others know."

He then spoke to Xiao Hua through their servant and master connection.

"Xiao Hua, I am going to go meet someone with Feng Feng and the Divine Doctor, and we have to leave the city for a while. Let Yu Rou and the others know, okay? I will try to return as soon as possible."

Xiao Hua's voice resounded a moment later, "Okay, Xiao Hua will let them know."

"Thank you."

"Alright. We can go now." Yuan then said Li Shizhen.

Sometime later, they went downstairs.

"Don't worry, I will return later to give you guys the lecture." Li Shizhen said to the manager of the store before they left.

"We will be fine even if the Divine Doctor cannot lecture us. We know you're a busy man, after all." The manager said.

"When I, Li Shizhen, say that I will do something, I will do it!" He declared in a domineering voice.

The manager and the others in the store had nothing else to say after hearing such words, so they could only lower their heads and bow to him.

Once Li Shizhen left the store, the manager said to the others, "We're not going home until he returns even if it takes days!"

"Yes!" The others responded with anticipation in their voice.

Meanwhile, after leaving the medicine store, Yuan followed Feng Feng and Li Shizhen to another city that had a teleport formation.

During their trip, Yuan asked Li Shizhen, "If I heard correctly, you mentioned something about natural curses before. What did you mean by that? Can curses even occur naturally?"

Li Shizhen nodded and said, "I think it'd be better if the expert explained it, but yes, curses can occur naturally just like how treasures can be born naturally. However, they're considered a phenomenon— something akin to natural disasters. Of course, natural curses are incredibly rare and will only occur when certain conditions are met."

"I see..." Yuan nodded.

Sometime later, they entered a teleport device and teleported tens of thousands of miles in an instant.

After that, they used the teleport device again to teleport even further, as each teleport can only travel a limited distance.

They continued this six times before they finally stopped.

"Welcome to the Northern Continent, Young Master." Feng Yuxiang said to him with a smile on her face.

"The Northern Continent, huh? Now I only need to step onto the Southern Continent and the Western Continent so that I can say I'd explore the entire Lower Heavens," he said in a joking tone.

"Follow me. He lives in a secluded area deep inside the mountain valleys, so teleporting there is impossible." Li Shizhen said to them a moment later.

Yuan nodded, and they continued their journey to meet this expert on curses.

'An expert on curses, huh? I wonder what kind of person he's like...' Yuan wondered to himself as they soared into the sky.

Chapter 477 – Embodiment Of Curses

After arriving at the Northern Continent and flying for around four hours, Yuan and the others arrived at this somewhat empty hill that only had a single small building, a tree, and a small pond beside the tree where three koi fishes can be seen swimming in circles.

Upon landing on this hill, Li Shizhen went to knock on the door.

However, nobody answered the door.

"Hmm... That man probably went fishing," Li Shizhen said a moment later.

"Fishing? This time of the day?" Yuan raised his eyebrows, as it was getting dark.

"Yes, he's a weirdo." Li Shizhen nodded.

"Who are you calling a weirdo, you slobby doctor?" A voice suddenly resounded.

The door to the building opened, and a short old man with a bald head walked outside the next moment.

"If you were here, why didn't you open the door? What took you so long?" Li Shizhen said with a frown on his face.

"I was taking a nap! If I didn't hear your annoying voice, I would've remained in bed!" The old man exclaimed in a somewhat angry voice.

"Hmm? Madam Feng? You're here as well?" The old man suddenly noticed Feng Yuxiang and immediately began smiling.

"How may I help you today, Madam Feng?"

Seeing the old man's attitude turn 180 when speaking with Feng Yuxiang, Li Shizhen shook his head.

"Damn old pervert," he snorted in a low voice.

"I am not the one who needs your help today. My Young Master needs your help." Feng Yuxiang said to him.

"What? Young Master?" The old man's eyes widened with shock.

He then turned to look at the third person there.

"Whoa! Holy heavens!"

When the old man saw Yuan, he suddenly took a step back and shouted in a terrified voice, acting like he just saw a ghost.

"Is there something wrong?" Yuan couldn't help but ask after seeing his reaction.

"S-Stay away from me!" The old man shouted at him before running back into the house and slamming the door shut, leaving Yuan dumbfounded.

Even Li Shizhen and Feng Yuxiang were left speechless by his reaction to seeing Yuan, as this was their first time seeing him acting in such a manner.

"What the heck is going on now, Zhai Ye?" Li Shizhen asked him.

"Fuck you, Li Shizhen! I should be asking you that! Are you trying to kill me?!" Zhai Ye shouted from inside the building, sounding really angry for some reason.

"What? Why would I want to kill you? Have you finally gone crazy from old age? We're here to talk about curses! This young man has a friend that might be cursed, so we came here for your expertise!" Li Shizhen said, feeling really confused now.

"Hahaha! That's really funny! Because that young man you brought here is loaded with curses— powerful curses that even I didn't know could exist! He has so many curses that I wouldn't be surprised if he was the embodiment of curses!" Zhai Ye said, revealing his reason for his reaction.

"What? I'm filled with curses?" Yuan's eyes widened with shock.

Even Li Shizhen and Feng Yuxiang were shocked to hear this.

They turned to look at Yuan, but they couldn't see anything wrong with him.

"Come out here and explain yourself, Zhai Ye! I may not be as experienced with curses as you, but I can at least tell when someone is cursed, and I can't sense anything ominous coming from him!" Li Shizhen said with a frown on his face.

"What do you know, you amateur?! Have you forgotten about my special skill? I can tell whether someone is cursed or not at glance, no matter how weak or powerful the curse is!" Zhai Ye said.

Li Shizhen sighed.

He then asked Yuan, "Young Master, do you have any idea what he's talking about?"

Yuan pondered for a moment before realizing something.

"Ah! Do you mean the curse that's associated with my Legacy? I had accepted a Legacy recently, and the Legacy contained a small curse. It's a curse called Minor Misfortunate, and it only affects my luck," he said.

"You heard him, old man. It's only a Minor Curse. How can you be scared of a Minor Curse? I have never seen you act so fearful in front of a curse before!" Li Shizhen said to him a moment later, even laughing a bit.

After a moment of silence, the door opened slightly, and Zhai Ye peeked through the narrow space, but he didn't dare to come out.

He looked at Yuan with a serious expression on his face and said in a solemn voice, "You think I would be afraid of a mere Minor Curse when I have dealt with even Major Curses before? Young man, you have more than one curse on you right now. In fact, there's so many that I'm amazed you're still alive."

"Zhai Ye, explain yourself! What do you mean by that?!" Feng Yuxiang said with a deep frown on her face.

Zhai Ye then spoke, "Although the curse may be called 'Minor Misfortunate', it's actually a Major Curse. However, that curse might as well be a Minor Curse if not even lower compared to the other curses on him."

"There exist two types of curses in this world— artificial curses and natural curses. Artificial curses are caused by other humans whilst natural curses occur naturally if certain conditions are met. There are also many levels of curses. Minor, Major, Supreme, and Ancient, to name a few. The most common curses are naturally artificial curses."

"And as of this moment, I can see six... seven... perhaps even more curses on him, and they're all above Major Curses. However, that's not even the shocking part. These curses on him... they're all natural curses as far as I can tell."

"What?! Seven natural curses?! How is that even remotely possible?!" Li Shizhen exclaimed, not daring to believe his ears.

A single natural curse was already rare enough, much less seven! And they are all affecting a single person right now?

Yuan looked down at his own body. He also couldn't believe it. Why does he have so many natural curses on him?

Chapter 478 – Celestial Rank

Physique

"Young man, if you're here to look for my help, I am sorry, but I have to say that I am powerless against the curses on you. They're simply too powerful. I don't even dare to try to touch it, as it might worsen." Zhai Ye said to him a moment later.

"Is it really that serious? Isn't there anything you can do?" Feng Yuxiang didn't want to give up so easily, especially after learning how bad the situation really is.

"Madam Feng, do you remember when I tried to help you with your curse but was defeated in the end?" Zhai Ye suddenly asked her.

Many years ago, Feng Yuxiang had approached him for help regarding her curse.

"Of course. Even though you couldn't get rid of it, I still owe you greatly for your years of efforts." Feng Yuxiang nodded.

"I have encountered tens of thousands of curses throughout my life, but I have never experienced powerlessness until I met you, Madam Feng. Your curse was my first defeat. However, as powerful as your curse may be, I still dared to try and defeat it."

Zhai Ye then turned to look at Yuan and swallowed nervously.

"As for him... This is my first time experiencing fear. The curses on him terrify me so much that I do not even dare to approach him."

"I-It's okay. I understand your feeling." Yuan said to him.

"You don't need to touch the curses on me, but do you have any advice for me? How does one normally get rid of natural curses?" He then asked.

"That will depend on how you acquired those curses in the first place. Do you have any idea how you may have gotten those curses?" Zhai Ye said.

Yuan turned silent and began pondering to himself.

After thinking for many minutes, he still couldn't think of anything, so he shook his head.

"I cannot think of how I got these curses."

Feng Yuxiang then asked, "Zhai Ye, is it possible for natural curses to occur during birth? Like how some are born with powerful physiques while others are born without any physiques."

"Yes, if his ancestors were cursed and passed away without getting rid of the curse, there's a good chance that the curse might carry on to the future generations. However, there are only a handful of curses that are powerful enough to do such a thing, and this young man has more than just a handful of curses on him." Zhai Ye said.

"I see... Can you give me some examples of natural curses?" Yuan then asked.

"Let's say your ancestor killed a lot of people... enough people to create a mountain using their corpses. This could result in your ancestor getting cursed by the spirits of the dead people."

"..."

Hearing such an example, Yuan couldn't help but recall that one dream he had previously when he dreamt about killing a lot of people— enough people to create multiple mountains with their corpses and many rivers with their blood.

"Another case of a natural curse is when one is born with an extremely powerful physique and they invoke heaven's jealousy or wrath. When that happens, the heavens might put a curse on that individual so that he doesn't affect the world too much. This has happened multiple times before in the upper heavens."

"Hm? A powerful physique? Young Master, I'd say your physique is pretty heaven-defying— enough to invoke heaven's jealousy. Maybe it's your physique that caused these natural curses?" Feng Yuxiang suddenly speculated.

"Really? What kind of physique do you have?" Li Shizhen asked him out of curiosity.

"The Heaven Refining Physique," he said.

"Never heard of it." Li Shizhen shook his head.

"What rank is it? Divine-rank?"

"No, it's Celestial-rank."

"D-Did you just say Celestial-rank?" Li Shizhen's eyes widened to the point where his eyeballs nearly rolled out of their sockets.

"Celestial-rank?" Feng Yuxiang had a different reaction, as she wasn't familiar with this grade.

"How high is that?" She then asked Li Shizhen, as he seemed to know judging by his reaction.

"T-The Celestial-rank is two ranks above the Mythic-rank..." Li Shizhen mumbled in a dazed voice.

"WHAT?!" Feng Yuxiang and Zhai Ye exclaimed in a shocked voice afterward.

"Two ranks above the Mythic rank?! I didn't know it went that high!" Feng Yuxiang then said.

"Of course you wouldn't know about it. It only exists in the Seventh Heaven and above!" Li Shizhen said.

And he continued, "I only know about it because I once read about it in an ancient scroll from the Eighth Heaven!"

"Ridiculous... Why is someone like that in the Lower Heavens? Where did you find this monster?" Zhai Ye said in a dumbfounded tone.

"That's rude of you, Zhai Ye! And I didn't find the Young Master! He found me!" Feng Yuxiang said.

"Anyways, I think I understand why you have so many natural curses. A Celestial-rank physique is something that could definitely invoke jealousy from the heavens. The stronger your physique— even bloodline— the more the heavens will try to hinder you. However, if you manage to overcome the heavens' jealousy, you will become unstoppable..." Li Shizhen said a moment later.

"I have never seen anyone with a Celestial-rank physique before, but to invoke over seven natural curses... I cannot imagine what could happen once you get rid of those curses holding you back."

"Wait, can you tell what kind of effects these curses have on me?" Yuan suddenly asked him.

Zhai Ye shook his head and said, "I can only tell you what kind of curses they are, but I do not know the details."

He then stared at Yuan for a few more moments before speaking, "Most of these curses are restriction curses, but there are a few that I cannot tell at all. Furthermore, there is a high probability that there are more than seven curses on you and I just cannot see them even with my special talent."

"Since it's likely that these curses are caused by your physique, then there's only one way to undo them— by tempering your physique."

"Tempering my physique...?" Yuan mumbled to himself. This is his second time hearing this phrase, with Xu Jiaqi mentioning it before.

Chapter 479 – Treasures In The Real World

"I have heard it before, but what does it mean to 'temper' my physique?" Yuan asked Zhai Ye a moment later.

"There are a couple of methods you can use to temper your body, but the most common ones are bathing in liquefied treasure and cultivating in a special area that affects your body." Zhai Ye said.

"Bathing in liquefied treasure, huh?" Yuan repeated to himself.

"I understand the first one, but what about the second method? What kind of special area do I have to cultivate in? Do you have any examples?"

"There are multiple phenomenal places in the cultivation world, such as a mountain that has extreme Yang Qi, and if you have a physique that benefits from Yang Qi, you can cultivate there to temper your body. Another example is a place called the Frozen Sea where it releases extremely pure Yin Qi, so females with a special Yin Physique would go there to temper their body."

"Some methods are stress-free while others are incredibly painful. This should be obvious, but the stronger your physique, the more resources you'll need to temper it, and in your case... you'll probably have to go to hell and back... multiple times in order to temper your body."

Yuan nodded and said, "Returning to the first method... Are there treasures out there specifically for tempering one's body? Or can I just use any treasure for the bath?"

"There are specific treasures out there for body tempering, Young Master. In fact, I have some with me. We can try it later." Feng Yuxiang suddenly said.

"Really?!" Yuan immediately became elevated upon hearing her words.

"Yes. Just let me know when you want to do it." Feng Yuxiang nodded.

"Let's do it tomorrow, then!"

"Okay."

Sometime later, Zhai Ye said, "If you got nothing else for me, can you leave? I am barely keeping my sanity just by being around you."

"S-Sorry... We'll leave right now. And thank you very much for your help, senior." Yuan bowed to him.

"Do you still need me around?" Li Shizhen then asked.

"If not, I will stay around for a little more, and I still have to give a lecture to the doctors back at the medicine store," he said.

"No, you can leave. Thank you for everything as well. I will definitely repay this debt in the future." Yuan bowed to him too.

"You don't have to repay me. I am a Divine Doctor. I don't accept payments for my assistance. And I didn't really do anything— only giving you some advice." Li Shizhen said.

"Still, I want to thank you for helping me greatly."

Li Shizhen nodded and then said, "Very well. How about this? If your friend's condition gets better because of this, I will accept your gratitude."

"Okay!" Yuan said.

"Let's go, Feng Feng," Yuan said to her before flying back to the nearest city with a teleport device.

Once they were gone, Zhai Ye opened the door and walked outside again.

"What more do you want from me?" He asked Li Shizhen.

Li Shizhen smiled and said, "Wanna have a drink? It's been a decade since we last sat down together, after all."

"I hope you brought something strong— strong enough for me to forget about that little monster," said Zhai Ye.

"Of course."

The two of them entered the building and began drinking alcohol.

Meanwhile, after they arrived at the city, Yuan said, "Feng Feng, I am going to retire today. I will see you tomorrow early in the morning."

"Okay. Rest well, Young Master."

Once Feng Yuxiang entered his body, Yuan logged off the game.

When Yuan logged off, dinner was already prepared by Meixiu.

"Meixiu, I am finished," he said to her.

"I'm coming." Meixiu entered his room a minute later with dinner.

Yuan wanted to tell her about everything that happened today, but Meixiu insisted that he finished dinner first.

After dinner, Meixiu cleaned the dishes before going back to his room and taking a seat beside his bed.

"Alright. What happened?" she asked him.

"You won't believe what happened today, Meixiu!" Yuan proceeded to tell her everything Li Shizhen and Zhai Ye had told him.

"You're cursed?" Meixiu wasn't sure how to react after listening to his story.

"Do curses even exist in our world?" she couldn't help but wonder this question out loud.

"I can only think of one instance where curses are mentioned in this world... When I asked Yu Rou about playing the zither in this world before, she told me that people used to use them many years ago, but people eventually stopped playing zither because of some curse."

"Hmm... Give me a moment to look it up." Meixiu said before taking out her laptop and searching about the curse on the internet.

A minute later, she said, "According to the internet, people stopped playing the zither because bad luck would fall upon those who touch the zither. Almost all zither players experienced misfortune, and many of them even died in accidents— incredibly unfortunate ones. Once the news spread, people eventually stopped playing the zither out of fear."

"Heavens... I didn't think the zither would have such a history in our world. If curses really exist, then maybe I am really cursed." Yuan sighed.

"Even if curses are real... How are we supposed to deal with it? You may be able to bathe in treasures in Cultivation Online, but there are no such treasures in this world—" Meixiu suddenly stopped speaking midway through her sentence.

Then she started typing on her laptop.

A few minutes later, she said, "Looks like treasures actually exist in this world as well..."

"What?! Really?!" Yuan exclaimed in a shocked voice.

"Yes, and according to some people, they have treasures that contain spiritual energy with some even granting special effects such as increased strength and hearing. However, compared to the treasures one can find in Cultivation Online, the treasures in this world are much weaker."

"What do these treasures look like?" Yuan then asked.

"Well, they're mostly antiques and ancient medicine from the past," she said.

After pondering for a moment, Yuan said, "Do you think we will be able to buy some of these treasures to see for ourselves?"

"Well... They're incredibly expensive with most of them going for millions of dollars. However, we should be able to afford them." Meixiu nodded.

"Then let's buy some. If we don't have enough money, we can simply sell some things in the auction house again. Where can we buy them?"

"Give me a minute..."

After looking on the internet for a few minutes, Meixiu spoke, "Looks like we can either buy them online or in real auction houses. People recommend buying them in person since there are many scammers out there."

"Real auction houses, huh. Let's wait a few more weeks before we go outside. Hopefully, the Cultivators' Association will give up on you soon." Yuan said.

"Okay. I will do more research on this topic in the meantime."

Sometime later, before Meixiu went back to her own room to cultivate, Yuan said to her, "Meixiu, can you grab a knife from the kitchen and leave it on a chair beside my bed?"

"Huh? Why?" She couldn't help but ask after hearing such a weird request.

"Well... I have been thinking... If cultivation techniques from Cultivation Online work in our world, what about the other techniques? I want to try it out."

"Other techniques...? Now that you mention it..." Meixiu was dumbfounded after realizing that too.

"But does it have to be a knife? That's very dangerous... What if you hurt yourself?" she said in a worried voice afterward.

"Don't worry, I am just experimenting to see if it actually works or not. I won't do anything crazy," he promised her.

"Okay..." Meixiu then went outside to grab a clean kitchen knife and a chair before placing the knife on the chair beside the bed in Yuan's room.

Meixiu then proceeded to stare at the knife for a good minute before deciding that it would be better for her to stay in the room just in case anything happens.

"Yuan, I am going to stay here tonight just in case," she said to him.

"Okay. I don't mind," he quickly agreed.

She then took a seat on the other side of the bed and started her cultivation.

Meanwhile, Yuan prepared himself.

After taking deep breaths, he began trying to recall the Flying Dagger technique that he was very used to by now.

However, whether the Flying Dagger technique will work on a kitchen knife or not is an entirely different story.

A few minutes later, Yuan successfully recited the full technique inside his head.

Now it was time for the moment of truth— whether it works or not.

After taking a deep breath, Yuan used his Divine Sense to locate the knife sitting a few meters besides him.

Once he located it, he tried to use Flying Daggers on it like he normally would in Cultivation Online.

A moment later, the kitchen knife resting on the chair suddenly began to tremble, and he could feel an invisible connection to the knife.

Yuan immediately became excited when he saw this, but the moment he lost focus, the connection disappeared and the knife stopped moving.

'It actually works! Let's try that again just in case I was only imagining it!'

With that in mind, he started using Flying Daggers on the kitchen knife again.

This time, even though he was certain that the kitchen knife was moving, he didn't lose focus.

A few moments later, the kitchen knife that had been sitting on the chair suddenly began levitating off the chair!

It was flying! Yuan had successfully used Flying Daggers in the real world!

Chapter 480 – A Work Of Art

"Hahaha! It works! It really works!" Yuan suddenly started laughing from sheer excitement when the Flying Daggers technique worked in the real world.

"Huh?" Meixiu stopped cultivating when she heard his laughter and turned to look at the chair.

Her eyes widened with surprise when she saw the kitchen knife she used for dinner floating above the chair, almost like a magic trick.

However, unlike a magic trick, there were no invisible strings attached to the knife.

"Meixiu, look! It works! It's not just cultivation techniques! Even martial techniques from Cultivation Online work in our world!" Yuan said to her.

"Yes... I can see that..." She mumbled in a dazed voice.

A few moments later, the kitchen knife stopped floating and fell back onto the chair seat.

"Compared to Cultivation Online, it's actually harder to control it. I should have sufficient cultivation base to use Flying Daggers flawlessly, but I am having difficulties controlling it," he said a moment later.

"However, it's not as though I don't have enough spiritual energy. Unlike using Divine Sense, it's not exhausting, so I think it's just a matter of inexperience. Once I practice some more, I should be able to use Flying Daggers more skillfully."

Meixiu then said, "If you can use Flying Daggers... I wonder if there are any other cultivators that have succeeded—or how many have succeeded."

"I'm sure many people have tried to use martial techniques when they realized that cultivation techniques worked in the real world, but whether you succeeded or not is a different story," he said.

"There has been no news about this yet, but there's a good chance that some people have succeeded and are purposefully keeping it a secret. It's only a matter of time before someone lets the cat out of the bag like the situation with cultivation techniques." Meixiu agreed with him.

"Anyways, I am going to continue practicing this technique. If it's distracting, you can return to your own room to cultivate. I promise you that I won't do anything crazy so you can rest assured." Yuan said to her.

"Okay." Meixiu nodded and returned to her room.

Yuan proceeded to practice the Flying Daggers technique until it was morning.

After breakfast, Meixiu asked him, "Are you going to be with us today?"

"Yes, we will see you in a bit."

"Where do you want to meet?"

"Can you meet us at the Cultivators' Haven?" Yuan asked.

"Okay. I will let them know."

Once they entered Cultivation Online, Meixiu proceeded to wait for Yu Rou and the others while Yuan and Feng Yuxiang made their way back to Seashell City using the teleport device.

When they finally arrived at the city, Yuan and Feng Yuxiang went straight to the Cultivators' Haven, where Meixiu and the others could be seen idling around.

"Yu Rou!" Yuan called out to them.

"Welcome back, brother!" Yu Rou ran to him with a smile on her face.

"Are you okay? What happened yesterday? Where did you go?" She then bombarded him with questions.

A stiff smile appeared on Yuan's face.

Although he promised to tell her about everything once he returned, he wasn't sure about telling her that he was cursed, as that would definitely make her worried about him.

"I will tell you later," he decided to delay it for now.

He then turned to look at Feng Yuxiang and said, "I am ready."

Feng Yuxiang nodded.

"Let's rent a hotel room. We will need a bathtub for your tempering," she then said.

"A bathtub? Tempering?" Yu Rou and the others were quite puzzled, but they didn't ask any questions for now and decided to follow Feng Yuxiang and Yuan.

Once they were at the best hotel in the city, they rented out a room with the biggest bathtub.

Inside the bathroom with the bathtub, Feng Yuxiang filled the bathtub with hot water before heating the already hot water even further— until the water was literally boiling.

"Uhhh..." Yuan swallowed nervously when he saw this.

'I am supposed to bathe in this boiling hot water? That sounds... painful...' He thought to himself.

"Are you going to temper your body, Brother Yu— Tian?" Xiao Hua asked him after realizing what they were planning on doing.

"Yes, I am."

"..."

Xiao Hua was kind of speechless, as this was quite sudden.

Why did he suddenly decide to temper his body?

Sometime later, Feng Yuxiang retrieved a dozen treasures and began tossing them inside the bathtub with the boiling water, quickly turning the clear water green.

"Alright, Young Master. You just need to bathe in this water and absorb the treasures now. However, I have to warn you that it's going to be painful."

"Of course it's going to be painful! You're telling him to jump in boiling water!" Yu Rou said with a worried frown on her face.

Feng Yuxiang laughed out loud after hearing her words, and she said, "The boiling water won't hurt the Young Master. Have you forgotten about his cultivation base? It's the treasures that will do the hurting!"

"Go ahead, Young Master. Try touching the water normally." Feng Yuxiang then said to him.

Yuan nodded and dipped one of his fingers into the boiling water, and to his surprise—

"It doesn't hurt at all! It's actually quite warm!" He exclaimed in a surprised voice.

"Really? Let me try..."

Yu Rou also dipped her finger into the hot water, but she had a different reaction.

"Ah! It burns!"

Feng Yuxiang shook her head and said, "The Young Master may not have physically tempered his body before, but his cultivation is high enough to naturally protect his body against boiling water."

"You could've told me before I tried..." Yu Rou sighed.

Sometime later, Yuan asked, "I just need to bathe in this water, right?"

"That's right." Feng Yuxiang nodded.

"Okay."

Hearing her confirmation, Yuan started taking his clothes off in a nonchalant manner while everyone was present.

"?!?!" Xia Jingyi's face flushed with redness when Yuan suddenly began stripping, as this is her first time seeing a fully naked man.

'Young Master's bare body... What a work of art...' Feng Yuxiang chuckled inwardly as she stared at his refined body with an intensive gaze.

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 481 – Body Tempering

Yu Rou and Meixiu's eyes widened when Yuan suddenly stripped without any warnings.

Although they have seen his naked body plenty of times by now since they had to clean his body, seeing the naked body of a cripple who cannot move and seeing the naked body of a fully functional person gave two different feelings.

"B-Brother! You should've at least warned us that you were going to strip! There are ladies in here!" Yu Rou quickly said to him.

"Huh?" Yuan raised his eyebrows in a puzzled manner, clearly ignorant about these kinds of situations.

In his mind, some boundaries between men and women didn't exist.

Although he has only seen one naked woman in his life— Lan Yingying, she didn't have such a reaction when they were both naked before, so he didn't think too much about it.

Furthermore, Yu Rou and Meixiu have seen his naked body countless times, and they have even touched it before when they had to clean his body, not to mention the number of times he bathed with Yu Rou.

Seeing Yuan's puzzled reaction and calm demeanor, Yu Rou realized that she never really taught him common sense when it comes to things between women and men. After all, she never thought he would need this kind of knowledge, and it would also be embarrassing for her to teach someone older than her these kinds of things.

"Forget it..." Yu Rou sighed.

Sometime later, Yuan entered the bathtub and sat in the center in the lotus position.

Despite the water still at boiling point, Yuan couldn't feel any pain, only comfort.

"I just need to cultivate and absorb the treasures in the water, right?" Yuan asked while looking at Feng Yuxiang.

"Yes." Feng Yuxiang nodded.

"Okay."

Yuan proceeded to take a deep breath before clearing his mind.

He then started cultivating.

However, the instant he started absorbing the treasure, he felt sharp pain all over his body, almost like there were swords and daggers poking his pores.

"Ah!"

Yuan cried out loud and immediately stopped absorbing the treasures, startling the people in there.

"Are you okay?" Yu Rou asked him.

"This is painful! It's like I am being pricked by needles all over my body!" He exclaimed.

Feng Yuxiang then said in a calm voice, "I warned you that it was going to be painful, Young Master. Body tempering isn't easy. There's a reason why there are so few body refiners in the cultivation world compared to ordinary cultivators since many people cannot endure the pain."

"Are there any ways to lessen the pain at the very least?" Yuan asked.

Feng Yuxiang shook her head, "Unfortunately, there are no easy ways out of this. You either endure it or give up. In fact, the pain will only intensify as you continue to temper your body."

Yuan frowned when he heard this.

However, as much as he wanted to give up, he needed to get rid of the curses.

After taking a moment to calm down, Yuan tried to absorb the treasures again.

The sharp pain quickly returned, and Yuan gritted his teeth to endure the pain.

And just like Feng Yuxiang said, the pain only became worse the more he tried to absorb the treasures.

What felt like needles poking at his body at first now felt like there were needles entering his body through every pore that was absorbing the treasures.

The pain penetrated deeper and deeper in this body as time went on.

Yuan had to give up a few times due to the intense pain, but he would eventually try again.

Yu Rou and the others watched with nervous looks on their faces. Seeing Yuan in so much pain also made them experience imaginary pain all over their body.

"Feng Feng, how long does it normally take to temper one's body?" Yu Rou asked her.

"How long does he need to endure this?"

Feng Yuxiang looked at Yuan and said, "Since this is the Young Master's first time doing body tempering, I didn't use too many treasures— just enough to let him experience it. If he continues to absorb the treasures at his current rate, he should be done in a few hours."

"A few hours?!" Yu Rou was shocked.

She expected this to last only a couple of minutes at most. It was unimaginable that one needed to endure such pain for hours!

Feng Yuxiang smiled and said, "If you think a few hours are bad, imagine tempering your body for weeks, even years."

An hour into tempering his body, Yuan was beginning to adapt to the pain, but that didn't mean it wasn't painful any longer. In fact, the pain continued to worsen the longer he tempered his body.

"I-Is that blood?" Yu Rou suddenly noticed the water turning slightly red.

Feng Yuxiang nodded, "Yes, but you don't have to worry. It won't cause any permanent damage to his body."

"The Young Master has actually increased the rate he's absorbing the treasures. If he continues at this rate, he should be done after another hour."

And just like Feng Yuxiang predicted, after soaking in the bathtub of treasures, Yuan opened his eyes when he finished absorbing all of the treasure in the water.

Near the end, since he'd already absorbed most of the treasure by then, the pain was no longer as strong, allowing him to relax until the end.

"How are you feeling, Young Master?" Feng Yuxiang asked him.

"Exhausted... yet refreshed at the same time, almost like I'd been reborn," he said with a smile on his face.

"Congratulations on your first body tempering, Young Master," she said.

"Thank you."

Yuan then stood up from the bathtub.

However, the very next second, Xia Jingyi released a startled cry.

"Ah!"

"Huh?" Yuan turned to look at Xia Jingyi, whose face was fully flushed with redness, and she even had her hands covering her eyes.

Yu Rou and Meixiu's jaw dropped when they realized why Xia Jingyi reacted in such a manner.

"B-Brother! Quickly, turn around!" Yu Rou shouted at him in a panicked voice.

"What?" Yuan became even more puzzled, and he turned to look at Feng Yuxiang.

"Young Master..." Feng Yuxiang cleared her throat and pointed at the area between his legs, her face slightly rosy as well.

Seeing this, Yuan looked down at his body, and to his surprise, between his legs, there was something long and majestic pointing at the heavens.

Chapter 482 – Unable To Calm Down

'What the?'

Yuan was surprised to see the thing between his legs suddenly grow in size and become as stiff as a rock, as this was his first time experiencing such a phenomenon.

He turned to look at Feng Yuxiang and asked her in a calm voice, "What's happening to my body? Is this also the effect of the treasures?"

"I-I guess there was a treasure in there that improved one's stamina..." Feng Yuxiang said in a stiff voice, mostly because she also didn't expect that it'd result in Yuan's precious area getting 'more stamina' as well.

"Is this a bad thing or a good thing?" Yuan then asked.

"I think it will be fine... It should calm down later." Feng Yuxiang said with a nervous look on her face, silently hoping to herself that it'd calm down by itself.

"Okay." Yuan believed her and got out of the bathtub.

"..."

Yu Rou and Meixiu stared at Yuan's glistening body. Although they wanted to look away, they were unable to for some reason.

Meixiu then noticed Xiao Hua also staring at Yuan with a calm look on her face, yet there was a hint of intrigue within her innocent gaze.

After drying his body, Yuan wore his clothes again, but it felt different than usual, even a little uncomfortable with the way his body is currently reacting.

"This is uncomfortable and is somewhat inconvenient to walk around," said Yuan with a slight frown on his face while looking at the obvious bulge between his legs.

Feng Yuxiang swallowed nervously at the sight of the Yuan's bulge.

Despite being over 100,000 years old, she had zero experience in these kinds of situations.

"You can try cultivating to calm it down." Feng Yuxiang then suggested.

"I will do just that." Yuan nodded, and he left the bathroom shortly after.

He then took a seat in the middle of the room and began cultivating. Of course, since he was sitting down, it made the bulge in his pants even more obvious.

"This is super awkward..." Meixiu muttered in a low voice.

"Right? We have taken baths together for many years, so I have seen his naked body plenty of times, but I am still embarrassed by it." Yu Rou said in a somewhat bragging voice.

"Hm?"

Yu Rou suddenly turned to look at Xiao Hua, who started approaching Yuan for some reason.

Once she stood in front of him, Xiao Hua squatted down and stared at the bulging area with a profound look on her face.

"W-What are you doing?" Feng Yuxiang asked her in a dumbfounded voice.

Xiao Hua then pointed at the bulge and said, "Why is it like that? Xiao Hua has never seen anything like that before."

"Uhhh..."

Xiao Hua's innocent question left the others in the room speechless.

Turns out there was another person that was clueless about these kinds of topics besides Yuan in their group.

"That is what happens when your body is overly excited," Feng Yuxiang gave her a brief explanation without going into depth.

"Don't worry, it will go away soon," she then added.

Xiao Hua nodded and no longer paid attention to this phenomenon on Yuan's body.

Sometime later, Xia Jingyi spoke in a low voice, "Wow... The speed he's cultivating at is very astonishing... Is this because of his cultivation technique?"

"I guess you can say that..." Yu Rou nodded.

After spending a little over an hour cultivating, Yuan suddenly stopped and opened his eyes.

He then turned to look at Feng Yuxiang and said to her in a complaining tone, "Feng Feng, it's not working. I cannot even cultivate properly because it's very distracting down there. And I think it's starting to hurt as well..."

Feng Yuxiang began sweating when she heard this, and she wondered if the treasure was too powerful or if Yuan had absorbed too much of the treasure.

After all, normal cultivators would only be able to absorb a portion of the treasure while letting the rest go to waste.

If Yuan's godlike physique also allowed him to absorb more treasures than one normally could, it would make sense why his body hasn't calmed down yet.

"Feng Feng, what exactly did you use for my brother's bathwater?" Yu Rou decided to ask her.

Feng Yuxiang showed a nervous smile and said, "The treasure that's causing his condition is most likely the Endurance Yang Root; it's a very popular treasure among male body refiners since it refines their muscles and boosts their endurance. However, there's a slight side effect... And that being a slight aphrodisiac effect..."

"Aphrodisiac effect?! You made my brother absorb that kind of evil medicine?!" Yu Rou was speechless.

"I-I swear it wasn't done on purpose! Normally, one would only be able to absorb about ten to thirty percent of the treasures, so this side effect won't affect the person too much if any at all! However, I might have overlooked the Young Master's unique physique, hence this situation..."

"I'm sorry... I won't put something like that in the Young Master's bath again," she apologized.

"Don't worry about it, Feng Feng. I know you don't have any bad intentions. However, this is a problem. I can't move around like this. How long will this effect last before it naturally goes away?" Yuan then asked her.

"S-Seven days..." She muttered in a low voice.

"An entire week?!" Yuan exclaimed.

There was no way he'd be able to endure this an entire day, much less a whole week.

"Is there anything we can do to relieve it quicker?" Yuan then asked.

The room instantly turned silent, and the ladies turned to look at each other.

Clearly, none of them wanted to be the one to tell him.

After a moment of silence, Feng Yuxiang cleared her throat and spoke with her back straight, "Ahem! Since I am the reason the Young Master is in pain, I shall bear all responsibility."

She then turned to look at Yuan and said with a bashful expression on her beautiful face, "Please follow me to another room, Young Master. I will take care of it."

"W-Wait just a minute!" Yu Rou quickly stopped them.

"Is there something wrong?" Feng Yuxiang asked her.

"Of course! Everything is wrong! What do you think you're going to do to my brother's pure body?"

"Obviously, I am going to help him relieve his pain." Feng Yuxiang spoke in a calm voice and acted as though it was natural.

And she continued, "Unless you want to help him instead..."

Feng Yuxiang narrowed her eyes at Yu Rou, who trembled at the thought of 'relieving' Yuan.

"N-Nonsense! I am his sister! You're asking for the impossible!" She quickly refused.

Yu Rou then turned to look at Meixiu and said, "Meixiu, you do it! I trust you with Brother Tian's body more than I trust Feng Feng, after all!"

"What?" Meixiu looked at her with wide eyes and even took a step back from shock.

"Y-You want me to...? I don't think I can do something like that..." Meixiu quickly shook her head and refused.

Even though she had touched Yuan's divine sword before, it was necessary to clean him, and it wasn't done with any vulgar intentions.

Furthermore, she was too embarrassed to do it knowing there are people waiting for her to relieve him.

If she was alone with Yuan, perhaps she might reconsider.

"See? If nobody is willing to relieve the Young Master, I will have to be the one to bear this responsibility." Feng Yuxiang said with a quick shrug and a somewhat smug look on her face.

"Xiao Hua can help Brother Tian." Xiao Hua suddenly offered her assistance.

"..."

The others looked at her with raised eyebrows. Regardless of her real age, letting someone like Xiao Hua deal with this situation would cause outrage if known. Furthermore, Xiao Hua was as innocent as Yuan herself when it came to this topic, so even if they allowed her to help him, she wouldn't know what to do.

"I-It's okay, Xiao Hua. Let the adults bear this responsibility." Feng Yuxiang said to her.

Meanwhile, Yuan was absolutely clueless as to why they were arguing about this, as he just wanted to relieve this pain between his legs, so he didn't care who had to do it.

"Let's go, Young Master." Feng Yuxiang said to him.

"Feng Feng! Don't go overboard!" Yu Rou warned her with a serious frown.

Feng Yuxiang nodded before going to another room with Yuan, closing the door behind them.

The place quickly turned dead silent.

"I can't believe this is happening..." Xia Jingyi mumbled in a dazed voice after a moment of silence.

"I am going to go out and get some fresh air." Yu Rou said.

"I will come with you..." Meixiu followed her outside.

Xiao Hua looked at them with her eyebrows slightly raised, unable to comprehend why they were unhappy about Feng Yuxiang helping Yuan relieve his pain.

Meanwhile, inside the bedroom, Feng Yuxiang cleared her throat before speaking, "Young Master, please take off your clothes— just the lower part is fine."

Yuan nodded and obediently removed his pants. Although it felt a little weird, he didn't think too much about it, since this was only to cure his condition.

After taking off the lower part of his clothes, Yuan sat on the edge of the bed with his sword standing upright.

"Young Master, I am only doing this to help your condition, so excuse me in advance for touching your body..." Feng Yuxiang said as she kneeled in front of Yuan.

Seeing Feng Yuxiang kneeling right in front of him, Yuan raised his eyebrows, and his heart began beating faster for some reason.

After taking a deep breath, Feng Yuxiang moved her hands towards the stiff rod located directly between Yuan's legs.

Yuan immediately felt a chill go down his back when he felt Feng Yuxiang's soft hands touching his thing.

Feng Yuxiang's body also trembled when her hands touched Yuan's hot rod, feeling it twitching in her hands.

Once she had a good grip on Yuan's rod, Feng Yuxiang began to gently move her hands in a stroking motion.

Yuan was baffled by what Feng Yuxiang was doing to his body, as this was completely new to him.

However, as weird as it looked, it actually felt incredibly pleasurable, so Yuan didn't stop her and allowed Feng Yuxiang to continue.

"H-How does it feel, Young Master?" Feng Yuxiang asked him in a nervous voice a few minutes into their session.

Never could she have imagined that she would one day use her hands to please a man in such a manner— a human, too.

"I don't know... It feels good, but it also hurts a little, mostly when you move your hands down," he gave her his honest feedback.

"It does look a little dry..." Feng Yuxiang mumbled in a low voice.

However, there was no water around her, and she didn't want to leave the room to get some water now that they were in this kind of situation.

After pondering for a moment, Feng Yuxiang decided to use her saliva.

"Young Master, I am going to use my saliva to get rid of the dryness. It'll most likely stop the pain," she then said to him.

"O-Okay..." Yuan nodded despite the weird idea.

Once she had his approval, Feng Yuxiang moved her mouth closer to his rod before spitting some of her saliva onto it.

Once it was soaking wet with her saliva, Feng Yuxiang continued to massage Yuan's rod.

"What about now?" Feng Yuxiang asked him a moment later.

"It feels much better. I don't feel the pain anymore," he said.

"Then I will move a little faster."

Feng Yuxiang started stroking his rod faster.

A few minutes later, Yuan felt an indescribable feeling shock his body.

"I-I need to go to the bathroom!" He quickly said to Feng Yuxiang after realizing what this feeling was.

However, Feng Yuxiang said, "It's okay, Young Master. Just let it out here. I will clean it up later."

"Are you sure?" Yuan was baffled by her answer.

"Yes," she confirmed.

A moment later, Yuan could no longer hold this feeling back and gave up on trying.

The next second—

"Ah!"

Feng Yuxiang shouted in a startled voice when a burst of white substance shot out from Yuan's rod and went straight onto the wall a few meters behind her.

However, it didn't stop after the first shot, and it continued shooting out the white substance, splattering the wall with white stuff all over.

Yuan's body collapsed onto the bed after releasing everything, feeling incredibly exhausted afterward.

Feng Yuxiang looked at her hands that were also stained with Yuan's sticky white stuff with a dazed look on her face.

She then looked at Yuan's rod, and to her surprise, it was still as stiff as a rock.

"Y-Young Master... Looks like we'll have to do this a couple more times before you release all of your excess energy..." Feng Yuxiang said to him.

"Is this really going to help?" Yuan asked her a moment later.

"Yes, but since the treasure you absorbed was quite powerful, it'll take some time before we can fully relieve it."

"Okay. Sorry for the trouble, Feng Feng." Yuan said to her with an innocent look on his face.

Seeing Yuan's innocent expression, Feng Yuxiang felt incredibly guilty for some reason even though she was trying to help him.

Sometime later, Feng Yuxiang continued helping Yuan release his excess energy. As for Yuan, since he recently climaxed, his rod was more sensitive than before, allowing him to feel the pleasure from Feng Yuxiang's hands even more.

Author's Note: I know this novel has been pretty PG-rated up to this point, and this chapter just went up a level. I have yet to decide whether I want to make this novel more mature or keep it PG, so I want some feedback. Let me know your thoughts in the comments. Even if I decide to make this novel more mature, it won't be as mature as 'Dual Cultivation' if you have read it before. Just some flavor here and there to spice the novel up a bit, I guess.

Do you want more mature scenes like this or no? Why and why not?

I know the character development is slow, but Yuan will eventually grow up, and keeping him innocent forever isn't realistic even for a fictional novel. Therefore, let me know your thoughts in the comments. Cheers.

Chapter 484 – A Secret

"Haaa... haaa..." Yuan laid on the bed while breathing heavily.

"Okay, Young Master. I am done. Your condition has finally been relieved." Feng Yuxiang said to him as she stood up.

After spending a few hours in the bedroom, Feng Yuxiang has managed to extract a week's worth of excess energy from Yuan's body, who'd absorbed too much treasure from his body tempering.

"Thank you, Feng Feng..." Yuan said to her afterward.

"I am merely doing my job as a servant, Young Master. There's no need to thank me, as it was my fault you were in that condition in the first place." Feng Yuxiang said as she used her phoenix flames to clean the sticky white substances in the room without damaging the walls or floor even in the slightest.

"Anyway, you can stay here and rest until you're ready to move again. I will be outside with the others."

"Oh... And can you keep whatever happened in here a secret between us, Young Master?"

"Yes... I don't think I want them to know either..." Yuan agreed.

"Thank you, Young Master. I will see you later."

Despite her calm voice, Feng Yuxiang's face was fully flushed with redness, and her steps were a little unbalanced, looking a little tipsy from drinking too much.

Once Feng Yuxiang left the room, Yuan continued to lay on the bed with a look of wonder on his face.

Today, he has experienced a new world— one that he would forever remember.

Sometime later, when Yu Rou noticed Feng Yuxiang coming out of the room, she quickly approached her and said, "I hope you didn't do anything you weren't supposed to!"

Feng Yuxiang showed a smile on her face and said, "Don't worry, I only did what was necessary to help his condition. I respect the Young Master's body as much as you do, so I wouldn't dare to do whatever you're thinking."

"Anyways, the Young Master's condition has been fixed. I am going to get some fresh air. I probably won't be back for a while."

Feng Yuxiang then left the building and flew away, not returning for a couple of days.

About an hour after Feng Yuxiang left, Yuan emerged from the room with a refreshed look on his face, and even his aura experienced a small change.

"B-Brother... Are you okay now?" Yu Rou asked him with a slightly rosy face, trying her hardest to not look away from him.

"Yes, I am fine now."

"What happened inside?"

To everyone's surprise, Xiao Hua was the one who asked him this question.

Yuan chuckled and said, "That's a secret."

"A secret...?" Everyone there looked at him with wide eyes, their imaginations running wild.

"By the way, where's Feng Feng?" Yuan then noticed that she was missing.

"She went outside for some fresh air, and she also said that she won't be back for a while." Yu Rou said.

"Oh... I see..."

Sometime later, Yu Rou asked, "What should we do now, brother?"

"Whatever you want, I guess."

"Well, I am not sure what I want to do, but I am tired of doing quests," she said.

"Then do you want to just explore the Lower Heavens?"

"What do you mean by exploring? Do we just walk around?"

Yuan nodded, "Yes. We don't need to do anything special, just travel around the world like we're going on a massive trip."

"I want to see as much of the Lower Heavens as I can before I move up to the next realm."

"A journey around the world, huh? That does sound like a good idea." Yu Rou nodded.

"What about you, Jingyi? You don't have to follow us if you don't want to."

"I don't mind following along. Besides, I don't really have anyone else to play with, and I also enjoy being with you guys," she said.

"Okay! Then it's decided! Let's go on a journey! Do you have any destination in mind?" Yu Rou then said to Yuan.

"Not really. I was going to ask Feng Feng to see if there were any cool places we could go in the Lower Heavens. What about you, Xiao Hua? Do you know of any places like that?"

Xiao Hua shook her head.

"I can look online and see if there are any places like that," Yu Rou suddenly said.

"Okay. Let's also wait for Feng Feng to return before we leave." Yuan said.

They proceeded to walk around the city until it was late and had to log off for dinner.

After dinner, Meixiu asked, "Yuan, do you want a shower tonight? You released a lot of sweat today."

"Okay," he said.

Meixiu then carried Yuan into the bathroom with the wheelchair, and just as Meixiu prepared to remove her clothes so it doesn't get wet, she remembered that Yuan could see again with his divine sense, so she restrained from going inside the bathroom naked like she normally would.

After rinsing his body with some warm water, Meixiu began scrubbing his body with her soapy hands.

When she reached his lower area, Meixiu paused her movements momentarily after recalling what happened today.

A moment later, she started cleaning Yuan's cute thing that was a contrast to what she saw earlier today.

When Yuan felt Meixiu's soft hands touching this area, Yuan couldn't help but remember what Feng Yuxiang did to him, and his body naturally reacted with an erection.

Meixiu swallowed nervously when she saw this, and she tried her best to clean it with a clear mind.

However, Yuan suddenly asked her, "Meixiu... I thought my body only reacted like this because of the treasure, so why is it like this now? Did the treasures from the game affect my real body too?"

"Uhh..."

Meixiu was left speechless by Yuan's innocent question and wasn't sure how she should respond to him.

'Should I just tell him...?'

As much as she wanted to avoid this topic, Meixiu knew that it was impossible and that he would have to learn about it eventually, and keeping such important knowledge from him would only hurt him in the long run, especially since his body is recovering.

Therefore, Meixiu has decided to teach Yuan what it means to be a man and why his body reacts the way it does.

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 485 – What It Means To Be A Man

Meixiu closed her eyes and took a couple of deep breaths before opening them with a resolute expression on her beautiful face.

"Yuan, I know none of this is your fault because of how the Yu Family raised you, but you're too innocent and ignorant for someone your age. You're already 18— an adult. You cannot continue living like this, especially since you'll eventually recover from your condition." Meixiu said to him in a sighing voice.

"W-What do you mean?" Yuan asked her in a nervous voice.

"You have been playing instruments since the day you entered the Yu Family, and that is all the Yu Family has ever taught you, ignoring your common sense and other important knowledge. You were also crippled at a very young age, even going into isolation, which limited your knowledge even further."

"I am trying to say that you're missing a lot of common sense."

"..."

After a moment of silence, Yuan spoke in a low voice, "Then what am I supposed to do?"

Meixiu then said, "You don't have to do anything, Yuan, because I will help you. I will give you the knowledge that the Yu Family didn't care to give you— what it means to be a man."

Meixiu then looked at his stiff rod and continued, "Let's start with this..."

Yuan's body trembled slightly when Meixiu suddenly touched his stiff area, but the way Meixiu held it felt a little different than usual.

"The condition you're in right now is called an 'erection'. It happens when your body is stimulated with excitement, and most of the time, it is sexual excitement that causes it to react in such a way."

"S-Sexual excitement? What is that?" Yuan asked, as he never really had the chance to experience it for himself because he would only focus on music almost all of the time.

Furthermore, besides Meixiu, Yu Rou, and the servants working in the Yu Family, Yuan barely had any contact with females.

"Sexual excitement is when you feel aroused," Meixiu explained to him.

"It's a natural feeling of desire you get for the opposite gender when you're interested in them— or whoever you want to embrace."

"I don't understand that feeling..." Yuan sighed.

"It's okay. You don't have to understand it now. You just need to be aware of it." Meixiu said.

And she continued, "Now, whenever one feels aroused, their body will react a certain way, and when it comes to men, the thing between their legs will react the way your body is currently reacting. Of course, there are other situations that could make your body react in such a manner, but most of the time, it's arousal."

"I see... Is that why my body is acting like this? Because I am aroused?" Yuan asked in an innocent and calm voice.

"Well... Only you can really tell..." Meixiu said.

Yuan then said, "When you touched that area, my mind would remember what Feng Feng did to me to help me relieve it, and my body started to feel warmer."

"What Feng Feng did to you...?" Meixiu raised her eyebrows.

"Well, I cannot give you any details since I promised Feng Feng that I'd keep it a secret, but she used her hands like you..." Yuan said in a slightly embarrassed voice.

"I see..." Meixiu could imagine what had happened between Feng Yuxiang and Yuan after he just said.

"Although you may not understand the feeling of arousal, your body can be naturally aroused even if you don't know it yourself, and that is most likely what is happening now."

"Then how can I get rid of this feeling?" Yuan asked.

"That feeling will naturally go away if you stop thinking about it," Meixiu said.

"The reason it didn't go away before was because of a medicine that affected your body, so it wouldn't calm down until you use the other method to calm it down."

"That method..." Yuan mumbled.

"Yes, it's most likely what Feng Feng did to help you."

Yuan swallowed nervously, and he asked, "Does it matter which method one uses?"

"..."

After a slight pause, Meixiu said, "Yes, it does."

"Although one can ignore their arousal and let it calm down naturally, that feeling doesn't actually go away very effectively and will eventually build up. And as it continues to build up, it could affect one's mind negatively and make them do things they normally wouldn't do, which is also called sexual frustration, so one should use the second method to relieve themselves once in a while."

Meixiu then looked at Yuan's rod that was in her grasp, and she continued, "Now that you have learned about arousal, you'll most likely be experiencing them more often."

"What? Is that how it works?"

"Yes, it is. Especially since you're at that age..."

"I see... Then what should I do? If I cannot keep ignoring it, I will have to relieve myself, right? That will be difficult in my condition." Yuan sighed.

Meixiu took a deep breath before speaking, "Don't worry, Yuan. I will do it for you."

"Eh? Really? Are you sure? Feng Feng acted weird afterward when she did it for me so I thought she didn't like it. I don't want you to do something you don't like..."

"Feng Feng acted weird not because she didn't like it; it was because she was embarrassed. Normally, a woman won't willingly do something like that if she didn't like the person, and nobody forced her, so she definitely didn't mind it." Meixiu said.

'Furthermore, I was trained to relieve you if you ever needed it...' Meixiu said inwardly, as she didn't dare to tell him out loud.

"I see... It's relieving to know that she didn't hate it..." Yuan released a sigh of relief.

Seeing Yuan's good-natured character, Meixiu felt something weird in her heart.

"Then let me relieve you now. You have been naked long enough. If we stay like this any further, you might catch a cold."

As she finished her sentence, Meixiu began moving her hands, stroking Yuan's stiff rod more skillfully than when Feng Yuxiang experienced it with her hands.

'This is my first time doing this on a real person...' Meixiu thought to herself as she pleased Yuan's sword with her hands.

When her mother trained her to take care of Yuan's every need, it was only on toys and mannequins, so this was her actual first experience.

A few moments into their session, Yuan's body could already feel the difference between Meixiu and Feng Yuxiang's hand techniques, and that difference was quite vast, almost like heaven and hell.

When Feng Yuxiang stroked it, it was much more forceful and fast, and she would sometimes grip onto it with too much strength. However, when Meixiu strokes it, he could feel the tenderness in her slow and gentle movements, almost like she was treating his thing like a treasure, and it was a constant feeling.

Furthermore, Meixiu would use her other hand to massage other areas while her main hand was busy relieving his sword, enhancing the effects of her already skillful techniques.

Yuan's body reached its limit in just three short minutes under Meixiu's skillful hand techniques.

Feeling the rod in her hands twitching, Meixiu said in a soothing voice, "Go ahead. Let it out and relieve yourself."

Hearing her voice, Yuan removed the blockade and released a stream of white substance from his lower body.

And right before Yuan released his stress, Meixiu placed her other hand a few inches away from his rod so that his release wouldn't go everywhere in the bathroom.

Meixiu could feel something warm and powerful shoot into her hands the next moment, and it would continue shooting into her palms for a couple more times before it stopped.

"How are you feeling?" Meixiu asked him afterward.

"Like something was relieved from my body... Thank you..." Yuan said to her.

Meixiu then washed away the white stuff on her hand and the floor with the showerhead.

Once that was done, she proceeded to rinse the soap from Yuan's body.

A few minutes later, she carried Yuan back to his room and dried his body with towels.

"Let me take a shower before we continue our talk, okay?" Meixiu then said to him.

"Okay."

Meixiu then returned to the bathroom to take a shower, taking much longer than she normally would for some reason.

Once she was eventually done, Meixiu returned to Yuan's room and continued to educate him about things that the Yu Family never taught him.

Chapter 486 An Unexpected Find

"Thank you, Meixiu, for the lesson. I will keep in mind everything you have taught me today." Yuan said to her after spending an hour getting lectured about the differences between men and women.

"Then I will go back to my room now. I am more exhausted than usual for some reason," Meixiu said to him.

"Okay. Good night." Yuan said to her.

Once she returned to her room, Meixiu buried her face into the pillow and proceeded to suffocate herself until she could no longer endure it.

However, she was unable to calm down despite doing that.

'I have done it... I really did that to him...' Meixiu cried inwardly, recalling what she'd done to Yuan inside the bathroom.

Although she'd expected to do such things and even more before for Yuan when she was being trained by her mother, that was years ago, and they were no longer in the Yu Family. Furthermore, their relationship has evolved to being much more than just a servant and master.

Meixiu would proceed to spend the entire night thinking about how she should act when around Yuan.

As for Yuan... He slept like a baby, instantly falling asleep a few seconds after closing his eyes, and if one went into his room while he slept, one would see a gentle smile on his face.

Meanwhile, around the same time at the Yu Family, a middle-aged man wearing a black suit stood before Yu Yong and Tang Lee.

"Master Yu, Madam Tang, we have located her location." This middle-aged man said.

"Thank you, Mister Johnson. Where is Meixiu right now?" Yu Yong then asked this middle-aged man, who he'd hired to investigate Meixiu's whereabouts.

"After looking through some of the surveillance cameras in the streets, we have managed to locate the building Meixiu lives in, and it's an apartment about an hour away from this place."

"During our investigation on Meixiu, we also found something unexpected — that she appears to be with Yu Tian."

"What? Meixiu is with that useless thing? Are you sure? Why didn't the Chairman tell us that when he visited?" Tang Lee exclaimed in a surprised voice.

Mister Johnson nodded and said, "We saw them entering the apartment together, and after speaking with Chairman Zhao, he confirmed that there was a cripple in a wheelchair with Meixiu at the Cultivators' Association."

"We even have a picture from the surveillance."

Mister Johnson proceeded to show them a picture of Meixiu pushing a wheelchair that carried Yuan.

Yu Yong frowned and said, "She left the Yu Family to be with him? Why am I not surprised? She was trained by Meifeng to be his personal maid at one point."

"Of course there's someone with him. That trash can't possibly live by himself now that Yu Rou is no longer helping him. However, does this also mean that Meifeng had lied to us about Meixiu's situation? I refuse to believe that she didn't know about her daughter's situation." Tang Lee then said.

Yu Yong raised his eyebrows and said, "Meifeng has remained loyal to the family ever since she joined the family. I don't believe that she would lie to us. Though we should still talk to her about this just in case."

"Anyway, this is an entirely different situation that can be dealt with after our current one. Can you bring Meixiu back to us, Mister Johnson?" Yu Yong asked the middle-aged man.

He nodded and said, "Although we have located her whereabouts, we have yet to locate her exact location. We know where she lives, but we don't know where exactly, and the building owners refused to give us access to the surveillance cameras without a proper reason."

"What are you trying to say? It's just an apartment. Go knock on every single door until you find her. That's why we hired you." Tang Lee said with a frown.

Mister Johnson smiled and said, "Madam Tang, we were only paid to locate her whereabouts, and that is exactly what we have done. The contract doesn't state that we have to do anything else once we find her location."

The frown on Tang Lee's face grew deeper, but before she could speak, Mister Johnson continued, "In case you forgot, Meixiu was called a cultivation genius by Chairman Zhao himself. If that's the case, there's a good chance that she's a high-level cultivator at this moment. Even if we knock on every door and find her, we cannot physically force her to come with us if she refuses since our team doesn't have the manpower to do so."

"If there's a chance that we must use force to bring Meixiu back to the Yu Family, we will need to hire more people— cultivators that are powerful enough to bring her back. However, powerful cultivators are not easy to find. Do you understand where I am getting at?"

Yu Yong pondered for a moment before speaking, "In other words, you are asking us for more money. Is that correct?"

Mister Johnson merely smiled at his question, his answer clear.

"I don't care how much it will cost. I want her back at the Yu Family. We can simply have Chairman Zhao cover the cost of the operation and more when we give him Meixiu." Tang Lee said in a cold voice.

"Very well. I will immediately assemble a team of powerful cultivators to bring Meixiu back. It should be done by the end of the week." Mister Johnson said.

"As for the price, we will calculate everything once we get the team together before sending them to you. Once we receive the payment, we will immediately bring her back."

Mister Johnson said, implying that unless they receive the money, they wouldn't do anything. Although the Yu Family is a powerful family, they were not completely invincible and almighty in this world, so not everyone will be willing to work for them without money, which is the real power.

After Mister Johnson left the place, Yu Yong summoned Meifeng to their home despite it being incredibly late at night.

Meifeng, who was asleep at the time, had to wake up and make her way to their place after being called, but she didn't complain, as she puts her masters' needs before her own needs.

Half an hour later, Meifeng arrived at the Yu Family.

Chapter 487 Questioning Meifeng

"Meifeng, have you found Meixiu's whereabouts yet?" Yu Yong asked her the moment she arrived at the house, acting as though he didn't have a single clue.

"Unfortunately, I have not." Meifeng said, and she continued, "I tried calling her every day, but she hasn't responded to a single call."

"Are you sure you don't know?" Tang Lee asked again, narrowing her eyes.

"I don't understand. Are you implying that I know her whereabouts? That I am lying to you?" Meifeng then asked, feeling something was off about their atmosphere.

Yu Yong then retrieved a photo and placed it on the table, showing a picture of Meixiu and Yuan on the street.

It was the same photo given to them by Mister Johnson.

"Your daughter is currently taking care of that trash, and she left the family shortly after he was disowned. This doesn't seem like a coincidence, and I refuse to believe that you, her mother, didn't know about this." Tang Lee said.

And she continued, "You know what I think? I think you knew about her whereabouts this entire time and purposefully kept it from us. In fact, you probably even helped them."

"..."

Meifeng remained silent after hearing Tang Lee doubt her loyalty, even suspecting that she had something to do with Meixiu's disappearance.

However, she didn't panic.

"With all due respect, Madam Tang, I have worked for the Yu Family for nearly my entire life, and I had sacrificed everything in order to do so. Why would I risk all of that over something like this?"

"The last time I spoke with Meixiu was right before she left. She told me that she wanted to leave the Yu Family to explore other options in life. Meixiu isn't bound to a contract, nor did I have any reason to convince her to stay since she's already an adult, so I didn't say anything and allowed her to leave." Meifeng said, subtly reminding them that Meixiu wasn't under a contract so they cannot force her to stay.

Meifeng then continued without giving the Yu Family a chance to speak, "Allow me to be blunt, Masters."

"Meixiu has admired the Young Master ever since he was adopted into the family, and she'd even endured countless hours of training from me just to become his servant. However, because of what happened to the Young Master, she was reassigned to the Young Lady. I am not saying that she doesn't care about the Young Lady, but she has always dreamed of being the Young Master's servant."

"Since the Young Master got removed from the family, Meixiu, who is not bound by a contract, most likely decided to leave the family so that she could finally fulfill her dream as the Young Master's servant. Of course, this is all speculation, but other than logical reasoning, I am also her mother, so I know what she thinks."

Yu Yong and Tang Lee were left speechless by Meifeng's words.

After a moment of silence, Yu Yong said, "I don't doubt you, Meifeng, but just to be safe, let me see your cellphone. Since you claim that you call her every day, you must have a record of it in your phone."

The Yu Family expected Meifeng to make an excuse to get out of this situation, but to their surprise, Meifeng said, "I understand."

She then retrieved her cellphone and handed it over to Yu Yong without making any excuses or showing even the slightest sign of being worried.

Yu Yong then opened her phone and checked the call record.

His eyes widened with surprise when he saw that Meifeng had actually been calling Meixiu's phone number every single day without fail ever since Meixiu left the family, and she would sometimes even call Meixiu multiple times in one day.

However, there was not a single successful call within the call records.

"I-I apologize for doubting you, Meifeng... Really... If we'd offended you, please forgive us." Yu Yong immediately apologized to her.

Yu Yong valued Meifeng's loyalty and presence in the Yu Family very highly— probably only second to his own wife.

This is mostly because of Meifeng's contribution to the Yu Family throughout the years. It could be said that without Meifeng assisting them, their family wouldn't have survived for this long.

While Yuan have boosted their wealth to a significant amount, they have always been rich. However, Meifeng had helped them stabilize their position within the entertainment industry and much more, hence why Yu Yong couldn't afford to anger or offend Meifeng.

Even though Meifeng was under a contract with their Yu Family, she could actually leave the family if she truly tried, and Yu Yong couldn't afford to lose someone like her, especially not when the entire world was changing at a rapid pace because of the cultivation craze.

"I am neither mad nor offended, just slightly disappointed that I don't have all of your trust just yet," Meifeng said.

"D-Don't worry! You have my complete trust starting now!" Yu Yong reassured her.

However, Tang Lee wasn't happy with the results, and she was still suspicious of Meifeng, but she didn't say anything and merely kept a frown on her face.

Meifeng then asked, "If you don't mind me asking, why are you so fixated on finding Meixiu?"

Yu Yong sighed and decided to tell Meifeng everything.

"To tell you the truth, we're not really the ones who are looking for her—it's Chairman Zhao, the current chairman of the Cultivators' Association. Apparently, Meixiu has incredible talents in cultivation, which attracted Chairman Zhao's attention, and he wants to buy Meixiu from us."

"What?" Meifeng's eyes widened upon learning the truth, showing a little surprise for the first time.

"Therefore, we have hired investigators to look for her. They have recently found her whereabouts, and they are planning on bringing Meixiu back soon."

"What about Meixiu? What if she doesn't want to join the Cultivators' Association?" Meifeng asked.

"Meifeng, you should know by now that if someone is powerful enough, they can do whatever they want. Chairman Zhao is definitely someone powerful enough to do as he pleases. If he truly wants Meixiu, there's nothing you nor the Yu Family can do about it." Yu Yong sighed again.

Chapter 488 Don't Underestimate Him

Sometime after listening to the whole story from Yu Yong, Meifeng prepared to return home.

"Meifeng, I know she is your daughter, but there's nothing we can do. I guess we can only be happy for Meixiu that she'd caught the attention of someone prestigious like Chairman Zhao. If she's with him and the Cultivators' Association, I am sure that she will live a fulfilling life. And I apologize again for calling you here so late in the middle of the night. You can take tomorrow off if you'd like." Yu Yong said to her before she left.

Once she was in her car, Meifeng drove straight home while pondering the whole way there.

'The Chairman of the Cultivators' Association... He's definitely not someone the Yu Family can deal with, much less Meixiu... This is troublesome...'

After returning home, Meifeng went straight to the locked drawer beside her bed.

She then opened it and retrieved a burner phone and opened it.

A moment later, she dialed a number.

"Hello?" Meixiu answered the phone call quicker than Meifeng had expected since it was way past midnight.

"Why are you up so late at night?" Meifeng asked her.

"I can ask you the same... Why are you calling me so late at night, mother?"

"You've gotten a lot more courageous since you left the Yu Family— to the point where you even dare to talk back to me," Meifeng said.

"Anyways, let me get straight to the topic. Are you aware how much trouble you're in right now?"

"Trouble? What are you talking about?" Meixiu's puzzled voice resounded.

"Do you remember when I told you that Chairman Zhao from the Cultivators' Association had contacted the Yu Family? Well, the Yu Family has hired investigators to find out your whereabouts, and they have learned about the apartment. However, that's not even the worst part. They know about the Young Master as well."

"What!" Meixiu exclaimed in a surprised voice.

The Yu Family went out of their way to hire investigators to look for her? Just how desperate are they trying to recruit her to the Cultivators' Association?

"Even if they know about our location... Does it really matter? I am no longer with the Yu Family, nor do I want to join the Cultivators' Association. It's not like they can force me either." Meixiu said.

Meifeng sighed, "You are underestimating the world of adults and how influential some people are, Meixiu. There are some people out there who are so powerful that you have no choice but to agree."

"As for the Yu Family, they will make you return to the family whether you like it or not, and they will sell you to the Cultivators' Association. In fact, the investigators are already preparing a team of cultivators to force you to return to the family."

"What! What should I do? I cannot leave Yua— Yu Tian's side now!" Meixiu said.

"You can move out of that apartment before they get you, but that will only delay them since they will eventually find you again, and it won't be easy moving in the street without being seen when you have to travel with the Young Master in his condition. Therefore, you can only confront this matter from the front."

"What are you trying to say?" Meixiu asked.

"Do you remember what I taught you? What you should do if there are people who threaten the Young Master's safety?" Meifeng asked her.

"...I can't forget it even if I want to..." Meixiu mumbled in a low voice.

"Good, and since you're a cultivator, you should be even more powerful. Just make sure you don't kill them and you should be fine. Ah, make sure you report it to the police afterward just in case."

"I won't be contacting you again for a while since the Yu Family is suspecting that I'd helped with your disappearance. Once you have dealt with the problem, call me on my burner only after midnight."

"I understand."

"Make sure you keep the Young Master safe since there's a good chance that they might use the Young Master to force you to return."

A slight smile appeared on Meixiu's face when she recalled Yuan's flying dagger technique and said, "Don't underestimate him, mother. He may not be able to move properly, but I doubt there's anyone more powerful than him right now."

Meifeng was left speechless for once by Meixiu.

"What do you mean by that?" She couldn't help but ask.

"You'll find out eventually, mother. Anyway, I am going to get some sleep. You should too. Goodnight." Meixiu closed the connection before Meifeng could even respond.

"This little girl definitely got more courageous, even a little cheeky... Something must have happened..." Meifeng mumbled to herself before lying on her bed and falling asleep.

Meanwhile, Meixiu laid on the bed and stared at the ceiling with a dazed look on her face.

"I just want a peaceful life with him... Why is everyone making things so complicated?" She sighed in a low voice.

After a moment of silence, she muttered in a cold voice, "I won't let anyone take him away from me now... no matter who they are..."

Meixiu then fell asleep for two short hours before waking up to prepare breakfast.

"Good morning, Meixiu... Hmm? You look tired. Did you not get enough sleep yesterday?" Yuan greeted her while using his Divine Sense.

"Yuan, I have some bad news," she said.

"What happened?"

Meixiu sighed and said, "It's the Yu Family. They hired investigators to find me, and they now know about our location... Including the fact that you're with me."

Yuan remained silent for a moment before speaking, "Even if they know about our location, what are they going to do about it? Force you to go back?"

Meixiu nodded, "From what my mother told me when she called me last night... Yes..."

"What? How is that even legal?" Yuan exclaimed.

"Well, it's not, but when you're powerful and influential like the Yu Family and the fact that they're supported by the Chairman of the Cultivators' Association... There's really pretty much nothing they cannot get away with as long as it isn't mass murder..." Meixiu sighed.

Chapter 489 More Kitchen Knives

"That's unfair! If they don't need to follow the rules because they are powerful, then this is no different than the cultivation world!"

"Well... If you really think about it, the cultivation world and this world are pretty similar in some aspects, especially if you're rich and powerful." Meixiu said.

Yuan sighed.

"What should we do then? Move?" He asked a moment later.

"I asked the same, but my mother said there's no point since they will find us again sooner or later."

"Miss Meifeng? Then what did she suggest?"

"She told us to confront them."

"Confront them? How?"

"By chasing them away, I guess."

"What? She wants us to chase them away? Is that even possible?"

"I will try."

"Don't tell me you're going to fight them?"

"..."

After a moment of silence, Meixiu said, "If it gets to that point, but you don't have to worry about me because I can protect myself just fine. I am more worried about you since you are vulnerable in that condition."

"Even if you say that..."

"Anyway, even if they are targeting me, it is my job to take care of you, and I won't be able to do that if they take me away from you."

Yuan sighed.

"Looks like we won't be able to play with Yu Rou and the others until this is all over. I will have to apologize to her later," he said a moment later.

"I will stay out here just in case they knock on the door."

"Okay."

After breakfast, Yuan entered Cultivation Online.

"Morning, brother. Where's Meixiu?" Yu Rou and Xia Jingyi greeted him.

"She won't be on today... Actually, we won't be able to play for the next few days."

"What? Why? Did something happen?" Yu Rou frowned.

Yuan nodded and said, "The Yu Family hired investigators to find us, and they are now planning on forcing Meixiu back so that she could join the Cultivators' Association."

Yuan explained the situation to them.

"What! They're still on that?! Unbelievable! How can they treat Meixiu like that?! I am going to speak with my parents later!" Yu Rou exclaimed in an angry voice.

Xia Jingyi was shocked. This was her first time hearing about their situation, too.

"Do you want me to talk to my parents about this? We can probably do something about them entering the apartment." Xia Jingyi said.

Yuan shook his head and said, "It's okay, I am sure we will be fine, and I don't want to drag your family into our trouble."

"Okay, but give me a call if you ever change your mind."

"Brother Tian, what is this Cultivators' Association?" Xiao Hua asked him.

"It's a complicated situation... I don't think I can even explain it." Yuan said to her.

"Don't worry, I will be back in a few days hopefully. Until then, you guys can play without us."

"I don't think we can play in peace knowing that you're in trouble..." Yu Rou sighed.

"Stay safe. I will still let my parents know so that they can keep watch, but they won't intervene unless absolutely necessary." Xia Jingyi said.

"Thank you." Yuan nodded.

"What are you going to do in the meantime?" Yu Rou then asked.

"Well, we're going to see what they're going to actually do. Until then, I really cannot say."

"Okay. Keep us updated." Yu Rou said.

Sometime later, Yuan logged off the game.

Yu Rou and Xia Jingyi also logged off shortly after since they were no longer in the mood to play.

"I have told Yu Rou and Xia Jingyi about their situation," Yuan said to Meixiu afterward.

"Now we just wait, huh?" Meixiu sighed.

"I am going to practice the Flying Daggers since that is the only way I can help you in case you're in trouble." Yuan then said.

"Flying Daggers? You'll kill them." Meixiu chuckled.

"..."

Yuan remained silent, his thoughts unknown.

"Anyways, I am going to cultivate too. Hopefully, I will be able to break into Spirit Warrior before they find us." Meixiu said before returning to her room.

Once Meixiu left, Yuan mumbled in a low voice, "If I have to protect you..."

Sometime later, Yuan cleared his mind and began practicing Flying Daggers, making incredible progress in just a single day.

Whoosh!

A kitchen knife flew around the room like a paper airplane, but unlike a paper airplane that could not be controlled, Yuan could control the direction and speed of the kitchen knife with precision.

Once he was confident with controlling a single kitchen knife, Yuan wondered if he could control two of them at once.

Although he has only ever tried to control one dagger at a time even in Cultivation Online, that was only because he only had the Starry Abyss, and that was the only dagger he really ever needed.

"Meixiu! Sorry to disturb your cultivation, but can you bring in a few more kitchen knives?" Yuan called out to her.

A minute later, Meixiu came into the room with two more kitchen knives in her hands, and she asked him, "Why do you need so many knives?"

"I want to see if I can control more than one at a time," he said.

"More than one...? Well, just don't overboard and hurt yourself..." Meixiu said as she placed the knives on the chair.

Once Meixiu left the room, Yuan immediately began trying to control two knives at once.\

And to his surprise, he was able to lift two knives at once.

However, he quickly learned that while he could levitate two knives at once, controlling them simultaneously was an entirely separate story.

"This is much more difficult than I'd expected..." Yuan sighed out loud as he proceeded to spend the rest of the day trying to control two knives at once.

The following day, Yuan continued to practice his Flying Daggers while attempting to breakthrough to Spirit Master.

Time passed quickly, and before they were aware, almost a week had passed.

Meanwhile, somewhere in the city, Mister Johnson stood before four individuals emitting profound auras, all of them with cultivation at the seventh level with one even at the eighth level.

Chapter 490 Going From Door to Door

"Our target this time is a genius cultivator named Meixiu. This is what she looks like." Mister Johnson showed them a picture of Meixiu.

One of the cultivators immediately whistled, "Whoa, what a beauty."

"She's not only beautiful, she's also a cultivation genius. Don't underestimate her, or you might regret it." Mister Johnson said.

And he continued, "According to the Cultivators' Association, Meixiu claimed to be at the ninth level of Spirit Apprentice. If this is true, she has one of if not the highest cultivation in the city."

"Ninth level? No wonder why you called four of us to kidnap a single girl. However, even if she has a high cultivation base, it won't matter if she doesn't know how to utilize it properly. I highly doubt she'll cause any trouble for us, or are you underestimating us, huh?"

"Scorpion is right, Johnson. So what if she's at the ninth level? She's still within Spirit Apprentice. The difference between each level as a Spirit Apprentice isn't that vast. Even if we have a lower cultivation base, our combat experience will make up for it," said another person there.

"She's just a little girl. I doubt we'll face any troubles when dealing with her. In fact, I can even take her by myself."

Hearing their confident voice, Mister Johnson said, "Since you're all so confident, I won't bother going into the details. Just bear in mind that you're not allowed to hurt her too badly. The Chairman of the Cultivators' Association has a great interest in this girl. If you hurt her— or even worse, damage her cultivation talents, you'll have to bear responsibility."

"What? The Chairman of the Cultivators' Association is also in on this? Just what is so special about this girl beside her cultivation talents?" One of them asked.

"Our job isn't to ask questions. Just do whatever you are being paid to do." Mister Johnson said.

He then placed a map on the table and pointed at the clear red dot on the map.

"This is her whereabouts, but it's an apartment, and we don't know which room she is living in exactly, so we'll have to knock on every single door until we find her."

"What a pain in the ass... But we're getting good money for such an easy job so I won't complain... too much."

"When do we carry out this mission?"

"As soon as possible," said Mister Johnson.

"Alright. We'll start right now."

Sometime later, the four hired cultivators left the briefing room and made their way to their destination.

Once they arrived, they changed their clothes, wearing uniforms meant for carriers, disguising themselves as someone who makes deliveries.

"There are 27 floors in this apartment, and it will take forever if we go through it one floor at a time, so let's split up into a group of two. One group will check the even-numbered floors while the other group searches the odd-numbered floors. If we find Meixiu, immediately contact the other group."

The other three nodded.

"According to Johnson, Meixiu is living with only one other person— a cripple, so she should be the only one answering the door."

Once they decided on their groups, they entered the apartment and started knocking on doors.

"Hello! You have a delivery!"

"I don't remember buying anything online..." Some old lady answered the door a moment later.

"Oh, I'm sorry. I must have made a mistake."

When someone that wasn't Meixiu answered the door, they would move onto the next door.

If someone doesn't answer the door, they would note it down so that they could try again later.

The four cultivators proceeded to knock on doors for the entire morning.

First floor... Second floor... Third floor...

Ninth floor... tenth floor...

Thirteenth floor... the fourteenth floor...

Meanwhile, inside 17F on the 17th floor, Meixiu silently absorbed the spiritual energy inside her room.

For the past week, she has done nothing but improve her cultivation base.

As for Yuan, he would continue practicing his Flying Daggers technique.

Suddenly, somebody knocked on the door, but it was not their door— it was the door closest to the elevator.

"Hello! Delivery!"

Hearing this noise, Meixiu opened her eyes and stopped cultivating.

She then stood up and walked to Yuan's room and said to him in a low voice, "They're here."

"What now?"

"Let's just pretend we're not here for as long as possible."

"Okay."

Thus, they ignored the banging on the doors and the man shouting delivery.

The knocking on the door continued for another minute until it stopped.

However, the knocking returned a few moments later, but it was still not their door.

This continued until the knocking eventually reached their door.

"Hello! Delivery!"

"..."

A minute later, the knocking stopped.

Once all of the doors on their floor had been knocked on, the cultivators went to the next floor.

At the end of the day, the four cultivators returned to the car.

"No luck, huh?"

"What now?"

"Well, we have narrowed down the rooms. We will revisit the doors that didn't answer today again tomorrow, and we will continue this until we narrow the choices enough. Once there are less than 10 rooms, we will force our way into these rooms and see for ourselves."

"Sounds good."

They left the apartment shortly after and wouldn't return until the following day.

The next day, they returned to the apartment and started knocking on doors again, but they only visited those that didn't answer them yesterday.

By the end of the day, they narrowed the choices by half.

"Only 21 left now."

They lowered that number to 15 the next day, then 11, and finally down to 7 on the fourth day.

"Meixiu must be in one of these seven rooms. There is one room on the 7th floor, one on the 9th floor, two on the 17th floor, one on the 21st floor, and the last two on the 25th floor. Let's work our way up tomorrow and get it done by the end of the day."

"Understood."

Chapter 491 Midnight Invasion

"Hey, what the hell is taking so long? We're already past our deadline." Mister Johnson called the four cultivators on their fourth day on the job.

"Calm down, Johnson. We'll get the job done by tomorrow. It took longer than expected just knocking on the doors. That bitch Meixiu is definitely avoiding us on purpose. Maybe she is somehow aware that we're looking for her."

"What? How is that possible? Unless someone warned her about us, it's impossible that she's aware of our operation," said Mister Johnson.

"She probably can't hear your knocking because she's playing Cultivation Online."

"If that's the case, it'll make things even more convenient and a breeze when we take her."

"Whatever. Just get it done by tomorrow or your check will see some deductions." Mister Johnson said.

"What! Not our pay!"

"Then hurry up and get the job done before the Yu Family complains even more!" Mister Johnson yelled at them before closing the line.

"You heard him. We better finish tomorrow or our salary will suffer."

"If that's the case, why don't we do it tonight? It'll be much easier to kidnap someone at night."

"You're right... Let's just finish it tonight."

Once everyone agreed on finishing the job tonight, they went to prepare for it.

A few hours later when the sky had turned pitch black, the four cultivators returned to the apartment with a lockpicking kit and started breaking into the rooms that didn't answer them for the past four days, starting with the room on the 7th floor.

Click.

Once they unlocked the door, they silently made their way into the room and began looking around.

Inside the apartment, they could see two people laying on their beds with the Cultivation Online gaming console on their heads.

Seeing this, they approached them to take a look at their faces.

Once they confirmed that neither of them was Meixiu, they silently left the place, leaving the two people completely unaware that they'd just experienced a breaking and entering.

Next was the 9th floor, and just like the previous apartment, everyone living inside was fully immersed within Cultivation Online, completely unaware that they had four intruders inside their home right now.

After leaving the 9th floor, they made their way to the 17th floor and immediately began working on the door that was closest to the elevator.

Luckily for Yuan and Meixiu, their door was the furthest away from the elevator.

Inside the first room on the 17th floor, they could see a family of four currently sleeping.

The moment the cultivators saw four people, they turned around and left the room, as they were only expecting two people at most.

Once they left that room, they began working on the second door on the 17th floor.

"..."

Meixiu, who had been cultivating in her room, suddenly opened her eyes when she could hear subtle noises coming from the door.

'They're breaking in?' Meixiu quickly realized what was going on and immediately stopped cultivating.

She then took a deep breath and silently left her room to wait for them to enter their house without notifying Yuan about the invasion, as there was a good chance that they'd break into their home before she could warn him, and it would be smarter to keep the noises to a minimum.

Click.

The lock to their door suddenly became unlocked, and the door slowly began opening the next moment.

Meixiu could see a shadowy figure enter the house a few seconds later.

However, before he could take two steps inside their peaceful sanctuary, Meixiu, who had been hiding right beside the door suddenly threw a quick but powerful jab at the unsuspecting invader's lower jaw.

Crack.

The sound of bones cracking resounded, startling the other three.

They quickly realized what was going on when the man that entered the room first suddenly fell onto the floor with his neck bent in a weird way.

"Shit! Scorpion is down!"

"I-Is he even still alive?!"

The other three immediately got into position and prepared themselves.

"Show yourself, Meixiu! We're here to bring you back to the Yu Family! Let's not make things difficult!" One of them said to her from outside their home.

Meixiu appeared before them a moment later with the moonlight shining on her beautiful figure, and on her face was a cold expression that complimented the atmosphere quite well.

"I won't go back to the Yu Family. If you want me to go back, you'll have to force me."

"We don't want to hurt you! If you agree to follow us quietly, we will promise to leave that cripple inside alone!"

Meixiu frowned when they pulled Yuan into the topic, even threatening her with him.

"You may have taken out one of us by surprise, but now that you've lost your advantage, you won't be able to take on the three of us by yourself! All of us have over ten years of experience in the military while you're just some little girl with slightly higher cultivation than us! Give up and you won't get hurt!"

"I don't like to repeat myself. If you want me to return to the Yu Family, you will have to force me." Meixiu said.

"Then don't blame us if you get hurt! Get her!"

The man in the front immediately stepped forward to try and grab Meixiu while the other two followed behind, but since the door only had enough room for one person to enter at a time, Meixiu didn't have to worry about fighting all three at once.

She casually took a step back, forcing them to enter the door one by one.

Once the first person entered the apartment, Meixiu immediately propelled herself forward so that the person could not move forward, blocking the other two from entering.

"You're overestimating yourself!" The man went to grab Meixiu again, even utilizing a grappling technique he'd learned from the military.

However, to the man's surprise, Meixiu avoided his grappling technique perfectly, almost as though she knew about the technique and its flaws.

"What?!"

Before the man could react, Meixiu suddenly extended her arm and grabbed the man's neck with a claw-like hand.

The man's eyes widened with surprise, but he subconsciously reacted and used both his arm to grab Meixiu's slender arm to try and pull it away.

However, he quickly realized that even with two hands, he was unable to remove Meixiu's arm that was clutching onto his neck, almost like it was made of steel and permanently attached to his neck.

"W-Wait... L-Let's talk—"

A cracking noise resounded midway through the man's sentence, silencing him.

The man's body immediately limped afterward.

"Y-You killed him?" The remaining two invaders were in disbelief when they saw Meixiu's merciless action. How could someone so beautiful and seemingly so innocent take another life so casually?

Meixiu released her clutch on the man's neck, dropping his body on the floor.

"So what if I killed him? It's self-defense." Meixiu then spoke in a cold voice that sent chills down their spine.

"Y-You're fucking crazy! You won't get away with murder even if you use self-defense to justify it! And you killed two people!"

"And there will be two more corpses if you don't leave us alone," Meixiu said.

"F-Fuck! I am outta here! I am not getting paid enough to risk my life with this psycho!" One of them suddenly turned around and ran towards the emergency staircase, not even bothering to take the elevator.

Seeing his comrade leave, the remaining person there also decided to leave, as there was no chance that he was going to fight Meixiu alone.

"You better enjoy your last moments here since you'll be going behind bars soon!" The man said to her before disappearing from the scene.

Once the invaders left, Meixiu released a sigh of relief.

She then retrieved her phone and dialed a number.

A moment later, Meifeng's voice resounded, "What happened?"

"They broke into our apartment," said Meixiu.

"..."

After a moment of silence, Meifeng finally responded, "Since you are able to call me, I will assume that you've taken care of it."

"Yes, I took care of it... But I might have gone a little overboard," she said.

"You killed them?" Meifeng asked in a solemn voice.

"No... I held back my strength as much as possible, but they will definitely die if they don't receive any medical care soon."

"Haaaaa..." Meifeng sighed out loud.

Then she said, "Call the police. I will be there soon."

"Okay."

Meixiu then hung up and called the cops to explain the situation to them.

Chapter 492 The Police Arrives

Once the noises stopped, Yuan shouted out loud in a nervous voice from his bedroom, "Meixiu! Are you okay?!"

Since his Divine Sense wasn't powerful enough to see what was going on at the door, he had no idea what had transpired— only that they had been invaded and Meixiu was dealing with the invaders.

"I am okay." Meixiu's voice resounded a moment later.

And she continued, "I have driven away the invaders, but it might get a little rowdy here since I have just called the police."

"Thank heavens you're fine..." Yuan released a sigh of relief after hearing her calm voice.

Sometime later, Meixiu entered the room so that Yuan could actually see that she was okay, and she proceeded to explain the situation to him.

"I can't believe they actually broke into our home to try and take you away..." Yuan said with a deep frown on his face. It has been a while since he felt this much anger, and all of this was caused by the Cultivators' Association and the Yu Family.

"I didn't want to blow this situation up so I reported it to the police as a random robbery. Even if we tell them that the Yu Family had hired them to take me back, they wouldn't believe it, and I'm sure the Yu Family will have some sort of excuse ready in case they get investigated."

"Despicable!" Yuan muttered in a suppressed voice.

He didn't feel this angry when the Yu Family abandoned him, nor when they kicked him out of the house. However, breaking into their home and trying to force Meixiu back had caused him to feel emotions that he didn't know were possible.

What would have happened if Meixiu didn't have the capabilities to protect herself? Yuan didn't even dare to imagine it.

"What's going to happen now?" He asked her after calming down.

"Well, the police are on their way here, but so is my mother. We'll just have to see how things go." Meixiu said in a calm voice.

"You're awfully calm about this situation, Meixiu." Yuan noticed this and said.

"I guess... But panicking won't help. Though I think it's mostly because I know that my mother will be here." Meixiu said.

Sometime later, the police arrived at their apartment along with some ambulances to take care of the two unconscious men that were on the verge of dying.

"Can you tell me what happened?" The police officer asked Meixiu with his notepad and pen in his hands.

Meixiu nodded and proceeded to recall the situation.

"I was cultivating like usual, but then I heard some weird noises coming from the door, so I decided to investigate. However, right as I reached the door, I suddenly heard the door unlocking by itself. It was at this moment that I knew someone had broken into our home, so I prepared myself for the worse."

"The invaders entered through the door the next moment, and I unconsciously punched the first person who entered, taking him by surprise. Then I proceeded to fight the second person. When I defeated him as well, the last two invaders ran away, and that's when I called the police."

The police were left dumbfounded by Meixiu's story. How can a single girl with a delicate appearance like Meixiu fight off four adult men by herself?

"Are you by any chance a cultivator?" One of them asked her.

"Yes, I am." She nodded.

"I am also not used to my new strength, so when I fought back, I might have used a little too much strength..." Meixiu said.

"Y-Yeah... We can see that from their injuries. According to the medics, one of the men had a broken jaw while the other had his neck crushed. It's a miracle that the latter one is still alive."

"What about you, young man? Can we hear your side of the story?"

The police then asked Yuan, who was sitting in the wheelchair.

"I don't know. I only heard the commotion when Meixiu fought the invaders."

"Okay. Anyway, please sit tight while we speak with your neighbors to see if they have anything else to say."

The police then went to knock on their neighbors' door.

However, all of them were either asleep or playing Cultivation Online, and the commotion wasn't loud enough to wake them up.

Shortly after the police spoke with their neighbors, Meifeng showed up to the scene with a cold expression on her face.

"Excuse me, who are you?" One of the policemen stopped her.

"I am her mother." Meifeng pointed at Meixiu, and she continued, "I rushed here after receiving news of what had occurred."

"I see..."

The police allowed her to enter the place after confirming her identity.

"What's going to happen now?" Meifeng asked the police.

"We can't really say anything until those two unconscious men wake up and we get their side of the story, not to mention the other two who ran away. However, if this is really a robbery, then we'll make sure justice is served. As for their injuries caused by the young lady, it'll be considered self-defense. They might try to sue her later for the damages since their injuries are quite severe, but that will be up to the court."

"I understand. Thank you." Meifeng said to them.

"We will contact you again later." After taking down Meixiu and Meifeng's contact information, the police left the scene.

Once they were gone, Meifeng sat down in the living room with Meixiu and Yuan.

"Alright, tell me the whole story."

Meixiu nodded and recalled everything that had happened without skipping any details this time.

"They sent four cultivators with military experiences, huh? You dealt with them much easier than I'd expected. What's your cultivation?" Meifeng then asked her.

"First Level Spirit Warrior... I had a breakthrough recently, too." Meixiu responded in a low voice.

Meifeng's eyes widened with surprise.

She didn't really believe it at first when they said Meixiu was talented in cultivation, but after learning her cultivation, Meifeng had no choice but to believe it.

Chapter 493 How Long Do You Plan On Sleeping?

"Miss Meifeng, is there anything you can do about this situation? Your word usually has a lot of weight within the Yu Family, especially with Yu Rou's father." Yuan asked her.

"Unfortunately, there is nothing I— or the Yu Family can do at this moment. Although the Yu Family hired those crooks to take Meixiu back, they are only doing it because of Chairman Zhao from the Cultivators' Association." Meifeng said.

"The Cultivators' Association is an incredibly powerful and influential background with the number of cultivators they have at their disposal, and they are only growing stronger by the day. The Yu Family does not wish to offend them, nor can they afford to, so they can only agree to help them obtain Meixiu."

"They're all treating Meixiu like some kind of object that can be owned because they want her! I have had enough of this! Miss Meifeng, take me to the Cultivators' Association tomorrow! I am going to speak with the Chairman." Yuan suddenly said, taking them by surprise.

"What? You're going to speak with him? Even if you do that, he has no reason to listen to you, and there's a good chance that he won't even meet you, much less speak with you." Meifeng said to him.

"Don't worry, I have a plan," Yuan said.

Meixiu and Meifeng turned to look at each other.

"Young Master, we can talk about this tomorrow. It's already super late, so you should get some rest for now. I will stay here with you tonight." Meifeng said.

"Really?" Yuan said, his voice filled with excitement.

"Yes, I will even share the bed with you... If you don't mind, that is."

"I don't!" Yuan immediately responded.

"Then allow me to get you to bed."

Meifeng then picked Yuan up from his wheelchair and carried him to his bedroom with ease.

"Miss Meifeng, are you cultivating?" Yuan suddenly asked her.

"Unfortunately, I have yet to start since I am usually busy with my work. Though I do intend on starting soon," she said.

"I see... Then do you have a cultivation technique yet? If not, I can help you obtain one." Yuan then said, surprising her a little.

"It's okay, Young Master. The Yu Family has a Heaven-grade cultivation technique they're willing to let me borrow. Even Yu Rou is currently using this cultivation technique, you know?" Meifeng said as she placed him on the bed.

"If you say so..."

"I will be back in a minute," Meifeng said a moment later before leaving the room to speak with Meixiu.

"Go get some rest. We will continue this tomorrow."

"Okay."

Meixiu nodded and entered her room shortly after.

Meifeng then returned to Yuan's room and got onto the bed with him, sleeping beside him.

"How long has it been since we last shared a bed?" Meifeng suddenly mumbled in a low voice.

"Too long..." Yuan said with a bittersweet smile on his face.

Meifeng closed her eyes, quickly falling asleep, as it was incredibly late into the night.

Yuan also fell asleep a few minutes later.

Shortly after Yuan fell asleep, unbeknownst to him or Meifeng, his body suddenly began emitting a faint golden glow, and within his body, the golden symbols were beginning to change, transforming into lines that resembled veins, eventually connecting with the other golden symbols.

Once all of the golden symbols within his body were connected, it began emitting a unique aura that caused the entire world to tremble.

However, since it was a relatively small earthquake and both Meifeng and Yuan were deep in their sleep, neither of them noticed it.

Only Meixiu, who couldn't sleep, had felt the earthquake.

As for Yuan's body, it was covered in these golden lines that looked like veins.

Furthermore, the Celestial Water he'd consumed in Cultivation Online finally started showing its true effects, allowing the golden veins to fully absorb it.

Indeed, most of the Celestial Water had actually been inactive until this point, and Yuan's significant boost in cultivation speed and improvements to his Divine Sense was only a small portion of the Celestial Water's power.

Once the golden symbols that were now golden veins absorbed the Celestial Water, it unattached itself from Yuan's bones and combined with his meridians, instantly doubling the size of his meridians, allowing spiritual energy to flow through them much quicker and more efficiently.

Every single time Yuan breathed, even though he wasn't actively cultivating, his body would absorb a massive amount of spiritual energy in the room, quickly emptying out the spiritual energy in his apartment.

When the spiritual energy in his room was completely absorbed by Yuan, his body would start to absorb a larger area until he started absorbing even the spiritual energy in the others' apartment, then it would expand to outside their apartment.

Eventually, the spiritual energy within the city started to disappear at a rapid rate, as it was all being absorbed by Yuan unconsciously.

This phenomenon shocked every cultivator in the city, as they were forced to stop cultivating due to the lack of spiritual energy in the city, and for the rest of the night, nobody living within Yuan's city was able to cultivate.

Meanwhile, Yuan's body unconsciously hoarded all of the spiritual energy in the city.

However, despite the massive amount of spiritual energy entering his body, Yuan's cultivation base remained untouched, almost as though it didn't receive any spiritual energy.

The golden vein in his body was a different story, as it began growing more and more veins until it literally covered every inch of Yuan's body from head to toe.

Eventually, the golden veins stopped glowing and appearing outside his body.

Meanwhile, inside Yuan's dream that started almost immediately after he fell asleep, Yuan stood before a massive jade tablet that had the word 'Destiny' engraved into it.

Of course, this wasn't Yuan's first time dreaming of this place, as it would appear inside his dream at least once a week ever since he awakened his bloodline.

However, there was something different about the dream this time, as he was not alone in this place.

Standing a few meters in front of him and before the jade tablet was a tall figure wearing black robes, silently emitting a divine aura that made it seem like he was there yet he wasn't at the same time.

Yuan was certain that he never met this figure, nor could he see this person's face— only his straight back that oozes with confidence, yet he felt a familiar feeling from this person for some reason.

"W-Who are you?" Yuan decided to ask him after standing there in silence for a good minute.

"You need to wake up soon..." This person responded in a calm voice.

"Excuse me?"

The man turned around, showing his handsome face that somewhat resembled Yuan's face, but it was much more mature and handsome.

"How long do you plan on sleeping? If you sleep any longer, all of my—our effort will be in vain." The handsome man said.

And he continued, "Your woman is in danger, yet the only thing you can do is lay there and wait for her to be taken away from you. How pathetic. If it were me, I'd take my sword and slay everyone involved."

Yuan was speechless. Just who is this man and what is he talking about? And most importantly, why is he having this dream?

Chapter 494 Waking Up

"You're still here? If you don't wake up soon, you'll forever remain useless." The handsome man suddenly said.

"I don't quite understand... Even if I want to wake up, I cannot wake up until I finish this dream. It's been like this for many weeks now." Yuan said.

The handsome man sighed and snapped his fingers, suddenly changing the scenery from the jade tablet to the peak of some unknown mountain.

On this mountain, there were countless swords stabbed into the ground, looking like a graveyard for swords or something of that sort.

"Where are we?" Yuan asked.

"You don't remember?" The handsome man asked him.

"Why would I remember something I have never seen before?"

"..."

The handsome man silently looked at him with a pondering look.

He then spoke in a sighing voice, "Looks like the curses had affected you worse than I'd anticipated."

"Huh? You know about the curses?" Yuan's eyes widened with surprise.

"Of course."

"Then can you tell me more about it?"

However, to Yuan's surprise, the handsome man said, "Nah."

"Eh?"

"Learning about the curses in your current condition won't do you any good. In fact, it might even harm you. Therefore, I won't say anything for now."

"Then can you at least tell me who you are?" Yuan asked for his identity again.

The handsome man smiled, and he began approaching Yuan.

Once he was standing right in front of Yuan, he said, "You really have no idea?"

Yuan frowned, and he proceeded to stare at the man's face while trying to figure out if he'd seen this man before.

However, no matter how hard he thought, he was unable to remember anything.

He eventually shook his head, "I don't know you."

"You don't know me, yet I somehow appeared in your dreams. You don't dream about people you have never seen before, you know? Somewhere deep in your mind— your soul remembers me. That's why I am here."

"Even if you tell me that, I can't remember what I don't remember." Yuan sighed.

"Then why don't I nudge your memories a little?" The handsome man suddenly retrieved a beautiful sword from thin air and pointed it at Yuan.

"Fight me."

"What?" Yuan looked at him with wide eyes.

"Fight me." The handsome man repeated.

"I don't even have a weapon."

"This is your dream. Just imagine one."

Hearing his words, Yuan imagined the Empyrean Overlord.

When the handsome man saw the large sword in Yuan's grasp, he smiled and said, "So you decided to use his sword, huh?"

"You know this sword?" Yuan asked.

"Of course. You don't?" The handsome man asked him, once again implying that he should also know about it.

"I—"

However, right as Yuan opened his mouth to speak, the handsome man suddenly stepped forward and attacked.

Yuan quickly reacted to the strike, blocking it.

"Not bad... But you're still too weak."

The sword in the man's hand suddenly disappeared, reappearing right next to Yuan's neck.

Yuan subconsciously used his movement technique to barely dodge it, but the sword had managed to reach his neck and created a small cut on it.

Yuan could feel his blood dripping down his neck; it was an incredibly realistic feeling, almost like he wasn't dreaming at all.

The handsome man then continued to attack Yuan, giving him no time to breathe.

The onslaught continued for a few minutes until Yuan's entire body was filled with superficial cuts.

"You're weak. Too weak. How will you protect your loved ones when you're in such a pathetic state?" The handsome man eventually stopped attacking him and asked.

"Y-You're just too powerful..." Yuan responded in an exhausted manner while kneeling on the ground.

Compared to Feng Yuxiang, this handsome man was on another level. Although he felt hopeless when he sparred with Feng Yuxiang, this mysterious man gave him a feeling of dread and despair.

"Of course, I am powerful." The man didn't deny it, even confirming it in a somewhat narcissistic tone.

He then continued, "You can only survive when you're powerful. That's why if you continue to remain that weak, you'll die."

"Anyways, we have wasted enough time. If you don't wake up soon, you'll really regret it."

"I can't control when I wake up." Yuan shook his head.

"I know— because you're weak. However, I am different. I am strong, so I will wake you up."

The handsome suddenly took a stance that Yuan had never seen before, yet he found it very nostalgic for some reason.

"It's a sword technique..." Yuan subconsciously muttered in a low voice.

The handsome man responded with a profound smile on his face, "Yes, you're right. It's a sword technique, and it's called the Immortal Rending Sword Strike. Remember it well."

The next moment, Yuan watched as the man moved his hand and swung the sword, sending a massive wave of energy that felt like Sword Qi at him.

Yuan's vision blackened instantly after the attack consumed him, and he could feel his body again.

'I am awake?' Yuan quickly realized this.

"Hmm? What's this soft feeling?" Yuan then noticed a soft and round sensation in his hand, and his body subconsciously commanded his hand to squeeze it.

"Mmm..."

A weird noise suddenly resounded beside him.

In a daze, Yuan squeezed it a couple more times.

"Aaah..."

A gentle moan responded.

Then—

"Y-Young Master...?" Meifeng's shocked voice resounded the next moment.

Yuan frowned at the situation. He decided to use his Divine Sense to see what was happening, and to his surprise, he noticed that his left hand was directly on top of Meifeng's large assets on her chest.

"Whoa! I am so sorry! I didn't mean to do that!" Yuan's body subconsciously reacted and quickly removed his hand.

However, Meifeng didn't care about that at all. In fact, her mind was occupied by something else.

"Y-Young Master... You... Your body..."

Meifeng stared at him with her eyes as wide as saucers.

"What?"

It was at this moment Yuan realized that he was no longer lying in the bed.

Instead, he was sitting on it.

Furthermore, he was doing it effortlessly, almost as though there was no longer anything restricting his body.

However, he wasn't in Cultivation Online, so he shouldn't be able to achieve such a feat.

'A-Am I actually still dreaming?' Yuan wondered to himself, as that was the only logical explanation for this phenomenon.

Chapter 495 Standing On His Own

"I... I must be dreaming..." Yuan mumbled in a voice filled with disbelief as he moved his arms around without any effort.

He was barely able to move his arms last night, yet he suddenly had the ability to sit up on the bed and move around effortlessly?

"Y-Young Master... I-I don't think you're dreaming..." Meifeng said to him in a low voice.

Yuan subconsciously turned his head to look in Meifeng's direction, but he was still blind. However, that didn't matter to him. Even if he remains blind for the rest of his life, as long as he can move his body properly, he will be satisfied.

"What happened, Young Master? Why can you suddenly... move?" Meifeng asked him, silently wondering to herself if she was actually the one dreaming.

Although she was happy for him, she was also worried about the sudden phenomenon.

"I... I don't know. My body just started working again... Almost like when my body suddenly stopped working many years ago," he said, still in disbelief.

After a moment of silence, Yuan decided to try and get off the bed by himself.

He took a deep breath, then he started moving his body off the bed.

Meifeng watched with a nervous look on her beautiful face, feeling like a mother watching her baby walking on their own for the first time.

A moment later, Yuan managed to stand up on his own beside the bed after a little struggle.

Despite having no trouble moving his body in Cultivation Online, it was an entirely different feeling in the real world, as his body hasn't physically stood up in many years.

"Young Master..."

Meifeng suddenly felt an urge to cry, and before she even realized it, tears were already flowing down her face.

Seeing Yuan stand up on his own had overwhelmed her, who had always dreamt about seeing it happen.

Once he was used to the feeling of standing up, Yuan began moving his legs, trying to walk.

However, since his body wasn't used to moving for so long, it was a new challenge for him.

"Oh!"

Yuan even fell down a couple of times.

"Young Master, please hold my hand." Meifeng got out of bed to assist him.

Yuan grabbed her hand and started moving back and forth in the bedroom while being supported by Meifeng, feeling like a patient during rehabilitation.

"How do you feel, Young Master?" Meifeng asked him a few minutes later.

"I can move my body just fine, but since I haven't moved this much in a while, it feels like my body is having trouble listening to all of my commands. However, I am starting to get used to the feeling of moving again."

"Okay, let's continue this for a little longer," Meifeng said.

Thus, Yuan continued to practice his movements in the bedroom with Meifeng.

Sometime later, Meixiu got out of her bed and started preparing for breakfast.

While she cooked breakfast, Meixiu heard the door to Yuan's room open.

"Good morning, mother," Meixiu said without looking back.

There was no response from Meifeng, but Meixiu was used to receiving no response so she didn't think much of it and continued to cook breakfast.

A few moments later, Meixiu could feel a presence approaching her from behind.

"Do you need some help?"

Yuan's voice suddenly resounded, but it sounded too close to her, causing Meixiu to raise her eyebrows.

She then turned around, and to her complete shock, Yuan was standing right behind her with a smile on his face.

"Whoa?!"

Meixiu took a step back and nearly knocked down the cooking pan, looking like she'd just witnessed a ghost.

"Y-Y-You... You're standing?!" Meixiu exclaimed in a shocked voice.

"That's right. It's pretty cool, right?" Yuan chuckled.

"Oh, I'm sorry if I scared you just now. I only wanted to surprise you," he added.

Meixiu then silently looked up and down at Yuan to make sure she was seeing it properly. Once she confirmed that Yuan was actually standing, she rubbed her eyes and even pinched her own cheeks to make sure she wasn't dreaming.

"You're not dreaming, Meixiu. It's real. The Young Master can move properly now." Meifeng said to her from Yuan's bedroom.

"Why... How...?" Meixiu had so many questions that she didn't know where to start.

"Sorry, but I don't know either. I woke up being able to move." Yuan said.

"You woke up like that...?" Meixiu looked at him with a dumbfounded face.

How does that even work? A miracle?

"I don't know what to say... congratulations on your recovery?" Meixiu said a moment later.

His recovery was so sudden that Meixiu was still trying to fully grasp the situation.

"Meixiu."

Yuan suddenly spread his arms with a smile on his face, his desires obvious.

Meixiu looked at Meifeng, who was still standing by Yuan's room and staring at her with a profound gaze.

"How long are you going to make him wait?" Meifeng said to her a moment later.

Meixiu immediately began blushing.

She then approached Yuan and accepted his hug.

"I have wanted to do this for a long time now," he said as he tightened his embrace on her.

"Now that I can move again, I promise you that I won't let anyone bully you anymore."

Hearing Yuan's words, the redness on Meixiu's face fully blossomed.

Once Yuan was satisfied, he let her go and said, "Alright, I will let you finish breakfast now. If you need help, let me know."

"It's okay, I got it."

Sometime later, once breakfast was ready, they sat around the table in the living room with more food than usual since Meifeng was there as well.

Of course, it felt surreal for all three of them to be sitting together like they were a real family.

"What are your plans now, Young Master?" Meifeng asked him after breakfast while Meixiu cleaned the dishes.

"There's a lot of things I want to do, such as giving the Cultivators' Association a piece of my mind, but first, I need to get used to moving my body again," he said.

Chapter 496 50 Billion Dollars

"Although you can move again, I suggest you let Doctor Wang take a look at your body just in case," Meifeng said.

"You're right. I will call him now."

"Umm... Can I borrow your phone?" Yuan asked Meixiu.

Once he had Meixiu's phone, Yuan personally called Doctor Wang.

Now that he could finally move properly, he wanted to do everything for himself no matter how little the thing is.

"Good morning, Meixiu." Doctor Wang's voice resounded a moment later.

"Hello, Doctor Wang."

"Hmm? This voice... The Young Master?"

"Yes. I am wondering when will you be free? I'd like you to come and take a look at my condition. Oh, can you bring Wang Xiuying here as well if possible?"

"You need the both of us there to check your condition? That doesn't sound good. Did something happen?" Doctor Wang asked in a worried voice.

"Yes, something insane happened."

"Can you explain it to me through the phone?"

"I could, but I think it would be better for you to see it for yourselves," said Yuan with a smile on his face.

"Though you don't have to rush here. Take your time."

Hearing this, Doctor Wang thought to himself that if the situation wasn't urgent enough to rush them, it probably isn't that bad.

However, he didn't want to take any chances.

"I understand. I will try to show up as soon as possible, and I will also let Wang Xiuying know."

"Thank you, Doctor Wang. I will see you later."

After Yuan hung up, Meifeng asked him, "Young Master, I must ask you this now that you're able to move again... Do you intend on playing the instrument again?"

"Playing the instrument, huh..." Yuan pondered for a moment before speaking, "After playing the zither in Cultivation Online, I have realized that I don't hate playing music or instruments. Instead, it was the Yu Family that made everything feel like a chore. In other words, yes, I want to continue playing the instruments, but I won't return to the professional scene."

"I see..."

A warm smile appeared on Meifeng's face.

"Speaking of instruments, I don't have any of them..." Yuan then said.

"It's okay, I can buy some for you," Meifeng said.

And she continued, "I have many connections in the music industry after working for the Yu Family for many years, so I know who to contact for instruments. What do you have in mind? I can buy them for you, too."

Yuan shook his head and said, "It's okay, Miss Meifeng, you don't need to pay for them. We should have enough money to buy the instruments on our own."

"If you're talking about the money Meixiu saved up from working, I don't think it'll be enough..."

"We'd earned a decent amount of money from selling treasures we find in Cultivation Online on the auction house," he said.

"Even if you say that, instruments aren't cheap, especially not the ones I intend on buying you. They're all created by famous companies with centuries of experience. You only deserve to play on the best of the best instruments, after all."

"We have half a billion, so money isn't an issue for us right now." Meixiu suddenly said after returning from cleaning the dishes.

"Half a billion...? You earned that much through selling treasures in Cultivation Online?" Meifeng was speechless.

Although she was aware of how profitable playing Cultivation Online was, she didn't think it was possible to earn that much money in such a short time.

Yuan nodded, "We got pretty lucky."

Sometime later, Meixiu looked at her mother and asked, "Don't you need to be at work?"

"I took a vacation three days ago, so I don't have to go back to work for another week," she said, as she had anticipated that something might happen to them after learning that the Yu Family intended to take Meixiu back forcefully, so she took a week off just in case.

"Miss Meifeng... Would you leave the Yu Family if you had the chance?" Yuan suddenly asked her.

"It isn't easy leaving the Yu Family, as I am bound to a contract with the Yu Family. If I want to leave before my contract is finished, I must pay an exorbitant amount of money, and the Yu Family must also agree to let me go, which is highly unlikely." Meifeng said.

"When will the contract end?" Yuan then asked.

"50 years."

"F-Fifty years?!" Yuan was shocked to hear this.

"The contract started out as 5 years, but they continued to increase the duration until it reached 50 years. I didn't mind it either since I got paid a lot of money and I had no reason to refuse."

"Out of curiosity... How much do you have to pay if you want to leave the Yu Family?" Yuan asked her.

"Fifty billion dollars— one billion for every year on the contract."

"Fifty billion..." Yuan repeated in a low voice.

Unless Meifeng borrowed money from others, there was simply no way that she'd be able to pay such an exorbitant amount.

"Anyways, I don't really have any reasons to leave the Yu Family right now. Despite their recent actions against Meixiu, it was mostly due to the influence of the Cultivators' Association, and they don't treat me badly either. While I have a lot of work to do, I am already used to it by now, and I am compensated for it with generous pay."

After a slight pause, Meifeng continued, "However... If the Young Master asks me to leave the Yu Family to work for him, I will have a good reason to leave."

"You can stay at the Yu Family. I can take care of him by myself just fine." Meixiu suddenly said while staring at Meifeng with an ambitious look on his face.

Meifeng smiled inwardly at Meixiu's words.

"Don't worry, I won't steal the Young Master from you. With that being said, I will stay here until my vacation is over, as the incident from last night hasn't concluded just yet." Meifeng said a moment later, reminding them that they might still be in danger.

Chapter 497 Nearly Had a Heart Attack

After breakfast ended Yuan continued to practice his movements by walking around the house, while Meifeng and Meixiu watched him from the couch.

"Young Master, I have been wondering for a while now, but how do you know where to go if you cannot see where you're going?" Meifeng suddenly asked him.

Although Yuan has recovered his ability to move his body, he was still blind, meaning he shouldn't be able to see where he was going.

"Oh, I can see just fine with Divine Sense." Yuan casually said.

"Divine Sense? What's that?" Meifeng asked, as she wasn't familiar with the cultivation world.

"I can basically see things around me as though I have eyes above my body without using my eyes, and the stronger my Divine Sense the further I can see. It's something cultivators can do after reaching a certain cultivation, I guess."

"I see... What a mythical power... Now I also want to start cultivating as soon as possible." Meifeng mumbled to herself.

About three hours later, someone suddenly started knocking on their door.

"It's me, Doctor Wang!"

Doctor Wang's voice resounded from outside.

Hearing his voice, Meixiu got off the couch, but before she could go anywhere, Yuan said, "I got it."

Meixiu looked at him for a moment before nodding her head.

Yuan then walked to the door and took a deep breath before opening the door.

"Welcome, Doctor Wang. Welcome, Xiuying." Yuan greeted them with a smile on his face after opening the door.

Clang!

Doctor Wang dropped the metal box in his hand that carried his tools when he saw Yuan standing before him at the door.

"Y-Y-You..."

Wang Xiuying pointed at him with trembling hands.

"You're standing?!" Doctor Wang exclaimed in a shocked voice, finishing the sentence Wang Xiuying couldn't utter.

Yuan lowered his body and picked up the metal box dropped by Doctor Wang before speaking, "Surprised?"

"H-How?" Wang Xiuying asked him a moment later.

"Let's continue this inside, shall we?" Yuan said as he walked back into the apartment.

However, both Doctor Wang and Wang Xiuying remained standing outside with a dazed look on their faces.

It was not until Yuan invited them inside again that they finally began moving.

"Madam Meifeng, you're here as well?" Doctor Wang was surprised to see her in the living room.

"A lot has happened," she calmly said.

Doctor Wang turned to look at Yuan, who was standing a few meters away, and nodded, "I bet..."

Once everyone was seated, Doctor Wang spoke again, "What happened to you, Young Master? How come you can move again? I nearly had a heart attack just now."

Yuan showed a bittersweet smile and shrugged, "I wish I could tell you, but I can't. I woke up like this."

"What? You woke up fully recovered?" Wang Xiuying's jaw dropped after hearing this, as she expected him to say that he'd recovered after eating some heaven-defying treasure in Cultivation Online that affected his real body.

"Yes," he nodded.

"I didn't really do anything special. When I woke up this morning, my body had magically recovered."

"It's a miracle..." Doctor Wang mumbled in a low voice.

"Congratulations, Yu Tian! You have finally recovered! I knew you'd recover one day!" Wang Xiuying suddenly started congratulating him.

Even though Yuan had recovered without her help, she didn't feel bad at all. No matter how Yuan recovered—with or without her help, Wang Xiuying was just happy to see him finally recover.

"Thank you, but only my body has recovered. I am still blind. Also, I want to see if there are any changes to my body, that's why I called you here." Yuan then said.

Doctor Wang nodded, "I understand."

Sometime later, Yuan laid on his bed while Doctor Wang and Wang Xiuying inspected his body.

After getting the results, Doctor Wang said, "Judging by the results, your body hasn't changed much since your last checkup. However, we can't really say for sure since this was done with basic equipment. Unless you get a more detailed examination at the hospital, we can't really say if your body had any significant changes."

"I see... I can't go to the hospital now since I am in the middle of something troublesome, but I will definitely visit you once I am able to." Yuan said.

"Something troublesome? Did something happen?" Wang Xiuying asked him.

"Well... It's a little complicated but..."

Yuan proceeded to explain to them their situation with the Cultivators' Association and what transpired yesterday night.

"What a bunch of arrogant and entitled pricks!" Wang Xiuying exclaimed after hearing the story, feeling incredibly angry.

Even Doctor Wang couldn't help but frown. He then said, "Chairman Zhao is actually a patient of mine. I will speak with him later and try to convince him to stop this farce."

However, Yuan shook his head and said, "It's okay, Doctor Wang. I don't want to drag your family into this as well. I will deal with Chairman Zhao myself."

"A-Are you sure...?" Doctor Wang had a worried frown on his face.

"Yes, I have a plan," Yuan confirmed.

"If you say so..."

"What are your plans now that you're able to move again? Are you going to return to the music industry? I really want to hear your music again." Wang Xiuying asked him a moment later.

Yuan smiled and said, "If you want to hear my music, you can visit me anytime and I will play for you. I won't return to the music industry, though."

"Really?! It's a promise!" Wang Xiuying said, her body trembling from excitement.

A private performance from Yuan was something she'd dreamt of ever since she was a kid!

"Just let me get some instruments first, okay? I am empty-handed right now," he said.

"Oh! I have a piano at home! If you want, I can give it to you! I rarely play it anymore, anyway!" Wang Xiuying said, donating her piano to him.

"If you don't need it, I will take it off your hands."

"Then it's decided! I will have it delivered to you by tomorrow!"

Yuan nodded.

Chapter 498 Grow Up

"Alright, I have to return to the hospital now. You can stay here if you like, Xiuying." Doctor Wang said after chatting with Yuan for about half an hour.

"See you later, Doctor Wang," Yuan said to him.

"Yes, I will see you later. Once again, I am so glad that you've finally recovered. Let's hope it only gets better from this point."

Doctor Wang left the place, but Wang Xiuying decided to stay there for a little longer.

"I still can't believe..." Wang Xiuying mumbled in a low voice as she watched Yuan practice his movements by walking around the house.

"Hmm? How come you know where to go?" Wang Xiuying quickly realized this, as she wasn't aware that he could use divine sense in the real world.

"It's divine sense," Meixiu explained to her.

"Wait... That divine sense?" Wang Xiuying's eyes widened with shock.

Although Meifeng didn't know the significance behind divine sense, Wang Xiuying did.

"Yes." Meixiu nodded.

"Unbelievable..."

Once Yuan was comfortable with his movements, he started doing exercises such as sit-ups and push-ups.

Since he was a peak Spirit Warrior, strength and endurance weren't an issue for Yuan. It was only a matter of his form.

Ten push-ups... twenty... thirty...

Fifty... one hundred...

Yuan managed to achieve a hundred push-ups and sit-ups without any breaks and still had plenty of energy left by the end of it.

Meanwhile, Wang Xiuying called a moving company to move her piano to their apartment.

"Alright, it's about time for me to leave. The piano should be here tomorrow afternoon," she said to them afterward.

And she continued, "I will also be here tomorrow to listen to you playing."

"Okay. See you later." Yuan said.

Yuan then proceeded to continue his exercise, working up a good sweat.

"I am going to take a shower," Yuan said to them.

"Do you need help?" Meixiu subconsciously asked him since she was used to it.

"It's okay, I got it," Yuan said before entering the bathroom.

Once Yuan entered the bathroom, Meifeng looked at Meixiu with a mocking smile, "Looks like you're no longer needed now that he's recovered."

"Nonsense." Meixiu quickly responded.

"Oh? Then what can you do for him now that he can do everything himself?"

"I-I can still do the housework such as cleaning and cooking," she said.

"So basically a housewife? Are you going to assist him in the bed too?" Meifeng suddenly asked.

Meixiu immediately recalled their last shower together and blushed.

Of course, Meifeng was unaware of this, and she continued, "You know it's going to happen sooner or later. The Young Master may still be an innocent child now, but he will eventually mature and experience actual puberty."

"Once that happens, he will need a real woman to look after him. If you're not going to stand up for that position, someone will take him away from you, and you will truly no longer be needed at that time."

"I hope you still remember what I taught you."

Meixiu stared at Meifeng with a deep frown. As much as she wanted to refute Meifeng's claims, she knew that everything her mother said was the truth.

"You're already an adult, yet you haven't matured yet. Grow up, Meixiu. You have the perfect opportunity to establish your position right now. If you let this chance get away, you'll regret it when the Young Master returns to his ordinary life and becomes surrounded by even more women."

"If I were in your shoes, I would already be pregnant by now."

Meixiu was left speechless by her mother's last sentence.

Meanwhile, somewhere in the city, Mister Johnson stood before the two cultivators that had abandoned their mission with a deep frown on his face.

"Four grown men with over 10 years of military experience, yet you somehow lost to a little girl half your age, even running away with your tails tucked between your legs. Do you understand the word shame? This is what you get for underestimating Meixiu when I specifically warned you to not underestimate her."

Hearing Mister Johnson's lecture, the two cultivators didn't dare to utter a single word.

"Johnson... That bitch killed Scorpion and Hawk... Is there anything we can do to avenge them?"

Mister Johnson remained silent for a moment before speaking, "How can you be so sure that they're dead?"

"We watched that bitch snap Hawk's neck without mercy! There's no way he's still alive after that brutal strike!"

"Even Scorpion had his neck twisted in a weird angle by a single punch!"

Mister Johnson then said, "They are still alive."

"W-What? Really? How do you know that?"

"You think I don't have friends in the police force? They told me about the incident that had been marked as a robbery. Scorpion and Hawk had been taken to the hospital. They were on the verge of death when they arrived at the hospital, but they're not dead."

The other two released a sigh of relief after hearing that their comrades were still alive.

"I wouldn't relax now if I were you. They may be alive, but they're currently in custody. I will have to speak with my buddies if they don't want to go to jail." Mister Johnson said.

"What about the mission?" One of them asked.

"The mission is a failure. Now that you've caused a commotion, we can no longer continue, or we will risk being investigated. I'm not particularly worried about being investigated, but our clients, the Yu Family, definitely won't be happy if they're investigated, so we can only wait until things calm down for now."

"W-What about our pay?"

Mister Johnson sneered and said, "You still have the guts to ask for money after your embarrassing failure?! I wouldn't be surprised if the Yu Family asks for compensation for this failure! If that happens, it's coming out of your accounts!"

"What?! No way!"

After dealing with the two idiots, Mister Johnson had to call the Yu Family to let them know the result of the mission, which was a complete failure.

Obviously, the Yu Family wasn't happy when they heard this news, and they immediately demanded a full refund.

Chapter 499 Aiming to Be the First

"You failed the mission?! Don't give me this bullshit! I paid millions so you could do your damn job! I demand a full refund!" Yu Yong shouted at his phone after receiving the news of their failure.

"Unfortunately, we have a no refund policy, and you have agreed to this term before hiring us. If you want us to try again, we can do so at a discounted price, but your family will be at risk of getting investigated. If you accept this risk, we will go back and get Meixiu one more time after receiving more payment."

"Meixiu was stronger than any of us could have anticipated, so we will need more resources to take her back. I hope you understand."

Yu Yong didn't immediately respond. Although he didn't mind an investigation since he has plenty of lawyers and friends with power, it wouldn't look good for his company if news spread that he'd hired merchants to kidnap a girl.

However, as long as the news didn't spread, everything would be fine, and he had plenty of resources available to keep that from happening.

"How much?" Yu Yong asked after a moment of silence.

"10 million." Mister Johnson quickly responded.

"Ten million?! That's more than double what I paid you last time! And you consider that as a discount?! This is clearly a scam!" Yu Yong exclaimed.

"Yes, it's the discounted price. If not for the discount, I would have asked for 15 million. Since four cultivators between the 7th and 8th level weren't enough to bring Meixiu back, we will have to increase our forces. I intend on bringing experts from around the world this time, so it will cost much more than usual."

Yu Yong coldly sneered, "Using this many resources just to bring back a little girl. Aren't you ashamed of yourselves?"

After a moment of silence, Mister Johnson said, "With all due respect, if you think you have what it takes to make her return, go ahead. I will send you their location in a moment since we were paid to do so."

"If you want to continue working with us, send the money by next week. If not, then this is the end of our cooperation. Once again, I apologize for the inconveniences."

Yu Yong hung up the phone after that and tossed it at the wall.

"A bunch of useless bastards!"

Seeing his reaction, Tang Lee said, "At least we have their location. We can have Yu Rou try to convince Meixiu to return."

Yu Yong looked at her with a pondering look, "Why didn't we think of that sooner? We could've saved millions! If it's Yu Rou, I'm sure that she'll convince Meixiu to return! Call her here!"

An hour later, Yu Rou arrived at their main location after being summoned by her parents.

"Yu Rou, we have a job for you." Yu Yong said to her with a solemn look on his face.

"..."

Yu Rou could already guess what they wanted from her, but she acted ignorantly and asked, "What is it, father?"

Yu Yong then handed her a piece of paper and said, "Meixiu is living here right now, and I want you to convince her to come back."

Yu Rou then said, "Why do you want Meixiu back? She left on her own accord, so I don't think she will return even if I ask her."

"That isn't for you to worry about." Tang Lee said, and she continued, "Just bring Meixiu back at all cost."

Yu Yong then added, "If you successfully bring Meixiu back, I can consider lifting your restriction and allow you to meet with Yu Tian again. After all, he's with Meixiu right now."

"Really?!" Yu Rou expressed excitement after hearing this.

"Then I will go see Meixiu tomorrow!"

Yu Yong laughed inwardly seeing how easy it was convincing Yu Rou to help them.

Sometime later, Yu Rou returned home.

'Since they're asking me for help, this must mean that the people they hired to bring Meixiu back have failed...'

Yu Rou had no problem agreeing to help her parents. After all, she was only told to convince Meixiu to return, and she gets to see her brother again in the process.

'I can't wait to see Meixiu and brother again tomorrow after so long...' Yu Rou went to sleep early on that day, as she wanted the day to be over as quickly as possible.

Meanwhile, after his shower, Yuan moved all of the furniture in the living room to the wall, freeing up a lot of space in the center of the room.

"What are you doing, Young Master?" Meifeng asked him.

"I want to practice something," he said.

After taking a deep breath, Yuan began moving his legs in an odd but rhythmic manner.

"Hmm? That's..." Meixiu quickly recognized what Yuan was trying to do.

"Ah!"

Yuan tripped on himself a couple of seconds into his weird movements.

"I don't understand..." Meifeng shook her head.

"It's a movement technique," he said.

"Huh?"

"A movement technique I learned in Cultivation Online. I want to try practicing it in the real world as well."

Indeed, Yuan was trying to learn the movement technique Vermilion Phoenix Dominating the Heavens. Since he could use Flying Daggers, it obviously meant that he could learn other techniques as well.

And what better technique than a movement technique that will help him improve his overall movement?

"A movement technique? Good luck, Young Master. There are a lot of people trying to do the same." Meifeng mumbled in a low voice.

"Eh?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

Meifeng then said, "Since we can use cultivation techniques from Cultivation Online, it only makes sense that other techniques could also be learned. Although nobody has managed to do so yet, there are plenty of people out there trying to become the first person to learn a technique that's not a cultivation technique."

"Is that so..."

"Of course, there's a good chance that someone out there has already succeeded but decided to keep it a secret."

"Most likely," Yuan said with a smile on his face.

Chapter 500 What Do You Think of My Daughter?

Yuan practiced his movement technique until it was time for dinner.

After dinner, Yuan wanted to continue practicing, but Meifeng said, "Young Master, I get that you're excited about your recovery, but you shouldn't move around so much after eating. It's bad for your body."

"Furthermore, since you've only recently recovered, you shouldn't do such intensive exercises that could strain your body. We still don't know if you've actually fully recovered or not, after all."

"You're right, Miss Meifeng... I got ahead of myself because of this sudden recovery that might only be temporary. I shouldn't stress my body too much or it could go back to being crippled..." Yuan wasn't happy about restraining himself, but he agreed with Meifeng. They still don't know if his body is fully recovered or if it was just temporary. He could wake up tomorrow and return to being a cripple.

"Let's not say something so demoralizing, Young Master. I'm sure your body is fine now and it won't suddenly revert back to its previous state, but until we're confident that you're really okay, I wouldn't push my body so much if I were in your shoes." Meifeng said.

"I understand."

Sometime later, they prepared for bed.

Once they entered the bedroom, Meifeng suddenly asked him, "Young Master, how about a body massage? I heard that getting a massage after a day of exercise will make everything more effective."

"If you don't mind." Yuan nodded.

"Please lie on the bed with your back facing the ceiling."

Once Yuan laid on the bed, Meifeng got on top of him and gently sat on his buttocks in a kneeling position.

"Will you be okay if I did this? Am I too heavy?" Meifeng asked him just in case.

"I am okay. You're not heavy at all." Yuan said, feeling two round and soft objects pressing on his butt.

"Great."

Meifeng then started her massage on Yuan's back, starting from his neck and shoulders.

"Aaahh... This feels great..." Yuan released a satisfied sigh.

"Thank you for the praises, Young Masters."

After massaging Yuan for a few minutes, Meifeng started speaking with him.

"Young Master, I have a few questions for you."

"What is it?"

"What do you think of my daughter, Meixiu?"

"What do I think of Meixiu?" Yuan repeated the question.

He then said, "She's a very important person to me, and I owe a great deal to Meixiu for assisting me. Without her company, I wouldn't have survived this long alone. I also admire her a lot for her work. Although I don't know what it's like working her job, I know it's not an easy job and not something a girl her age should be doing normally."

"You're right, it's not easy working as a maid, especially not for the Yu Family, where the standards are many times higher. Even I cannot compare to her when I was her age, but I rarely praise her because I don't want her to feel complacent. I wouldn't be surprised if she hates me because of how I raised her, but looking at her now, I won't regret it even if she hates me." Meifeng said with a gentle smile on her face.

"I don't think Meixiu hates you, Miss Meifeng."

Meifeng chuckled a little before speaking, "Anyways, judging by your words, I will assume that you really like Meixiu. Is that right, Young Master?"

"Yes, I really like Meixiu," he responded without hesitation.

"Then would you mind living with her forever?"

"No, I wouldn't. In fact, I would actually prefer it if we could remain like this forever."

"Hmmm... That will be problematic..." Meifeng suddenly said.

"Eh? Why would it be problematic?"

"Why? Isn't it obvious? Because we don't know what Meixiu wants. Even if you want to be with her forever, what if she wants to leave in the future? What if she has to leave in the future when she wants to start her own family?"

Yuan was left speechless by her words, and he immediately began pondering.

"You're right... It's all up to Meixiu in the end. As much as I want to be with her forever, I can't force her to stay with me. She has her own life, as I have my own. Guess I can only enjoy our time together while it lasts..." Yuan sighed.

Yuan never really thought about Meixiu leaving since she told him that she wanted to be with him in the past. However, people will inevitably change as they grow older, so there was a chance that Meixiu might leave his side in the future.

"Let's not come to immediate conclusions, Young Master. Maybe Meixiu wants to stay with you forever as well. If you're worried, why don't you ask her? In fact, I know how you can stay with her forever."

"Really? How?" Yuan quickly asked her.

"Well, if you want someone to stay with you, you propose to them, of course. It's common practice in this world."

"Propose? What do I propose to her?"

"That you want to stay with her forever, of course. However, you're still too inexperienced in this subject, so wait until you're a little older and more experienced before you actually propose to her, okay? Just don't make her wait too long, or she will be gone before you get the chance." Meifeng said to him.

Although she wanted to help her daughter and Yuan get together, she didn't want to take advantage of Yuan's innocence to do so, as it would only hurt their relationship in the future.

The only thing she can really do is help Yuan become aware of the situation and give him some advice. The rest will be up to him and Meixiu.

"I understand, Miss Meifeng. Thank you for the advice." Yuan said to her.

"I am merely doing my job as a mother, that's all," she said with a mysterious smile on her face.

After giving Yuan an hour-long massage, Meifeng closed the light and went to sleep.

"Let's do this again tomorrow. Goodnight, Young Master."

"Goodnight, Miss Meifeng," Yuan said, quickly falling asleep due to Meifeng's massage that had an immediate effect on his body.

Chapter 501 Temporary

After falling asleep, Yuan returned to the realm of dreams once again, and the first thing he noticed was the handsome man from before, but he was sitting on a large boulder with a lonely expression on his face as he gazed at the drifting clouds.

When Yuan saw his expression, all thoughts of trying to disturb his peace disappeared, and Yuan patiently stood there.

"It feels great to finally start moving again, huh?" The handsome man suddenly spoke, his gaze still at the sky.

"Are you responsible for my sudden recovery?" Yuan asked him.

The handsome man turned to look at him and said, "Me? I am merely an imagination in your dreams. How could I possibly do that?"

"Even though you're strong?" Yuan said.

The handsome man laughed a little before speaking, "There are things even the strongest beings in the universe cannot achieve."

"If you're not responsible for my recovery, then who— or what is?"

"Who knows. Maybe you did it yourself by instinct. A cultivator is much more profound than you imagine."

"However, you shouldn't celebrate so early, as your body isn't completely healed."

"W-What? What do you mean? How do you know that?" Yuan had kind of expected this outcome when he heard Meifeng say the same thing, but this handsome man appeared confident that he hasn't fully recovered yet.

"Because your body is still restricted by the curses. Your current freedom is merely temporary. If you don't continue to increase your cultivation, you will eventually return to your previous state." The handsome man said, leaving Yuan speechless.

A moment of silence later, Yuan said, "I want to increase my cultivation, but I am currently experiencing a bottleneck. I cannot breakthrough to Spirit Master no matter what. I think it's because there isn't enough spiritual energy in my place."

"Blaming on your environment for your lack of experience and failures? How typical of a weakling." The handsome man said with a cold smile on his face.

"There is sufficient spiritual energy in your world for you to breakthrough to Spirit Master. You just can't do it because you aren't capable."

"Then do you have any advice for me? The strong should help the weak out, right?"

The handsome man burst out laughing and said, "The strong should help the weak? Where did you hear that nonsense? In the cultivation world, you only have yourself. If someone decides to help you, it's mostly for their own benefit, or they have some other ulterior motives. You not only lack strength but you also lack common sense."

"Did the curses really screw with you that much? This is going to be troublesome." The man shook his head in a regretful manner.

"Forget it. Since you finally remember me, I will help you a little bit."

Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"But I don't remember you?"

"The fact that I am in your dream means you're starting to remember." The handsome man then suddenly snapped his fingers, changing the scenery.

"W-Where am I?" Yuan looked around his new environment that looked very familiar for some reason, and the handsome man had disappeared.

"Hey, it's that trash who can't breakthrough to Spirit Master while everyone else has long achieved it, *!\#^!"

"You dare come out again after what happened last week? Are you looking for another beating, *!\#^?"

Someone suddenly shouted, causing Yuan to turn around and look in that direction.

A few meters away, Yuan could see a group of young people wearing uniforms that looked very much like disciple uniforms.

'This looks like a sect... So this is the cultivation world? Why is he showing me this?' Yuan wondered to himself.

Then he noticed the young man that was standing not far away from this group of disciples.

Yuan's eyes widened with surprise when he saw this young man, as this young man had facial features that looked very much like him, and it made Yuan feel like he was watching himself.

However, this young man had a cold expression on his face that sent shivers down Yuan's back.

"Look! He's angry! Hahaha! What are you going to do, *!\#^?! Beat us up?!"

"Hahaha!"

The group of disciples began laughing. These people were clearly bullies, and that young man whose name he couldn't hear for some reason was their victim.

"I have had enough of your bullshits! Every time we fight, you all gang up on me! Let's fight one on one if you dare!" The young man suddenly said in a cold voice.

The group stopped laughing after hearing his words, and they exchanged glances with each other before nodding.

"Good. Then let's fight. However, I will only fight if it's in the Life or Death arena." One of the disciples stepped forward and spoke with an arrogant look on his face.

"Life or Death?" The young man frowned.

"What? Are you chickening out now? What happened to your brave words a moment ago?"

The young man sneered coldly and said, "Fine! If you want a Life or Death fight, then you got it!"

After the young man finished his sentence, the scenery changed again, and Yuan was standing before a large stage that was surrounded by disciples.

On the stage was the young man and the disciple that challenged him, both of them with weapons in their hands.

Once the match began, they both released their cultivation base.

The young man's cultivation was the peak of the Spirit Warrior, but his opponent was one level above him at the first level Spirit Master. However, the disparity from that one level was akin to heaven and earth.

"Aiya! To think !#^ would accept a Life or Death challenge from (#@ $%! He's courting death!"

While the spectators anticipated the young man's death, in the midst of the fierce battle, the young man suddenly had a breakthrough when he was on the verge of losing, entering the Spirit Master realm.

After his breakthrough, the young man instantly turned the tides and killed the other disciple in a gruesome manner.

Once the match ended, the scenery changed again, and the handsome man returned.

"What do you think?" The handsome man asked with a profound smile on his face.

"What am I supposed to think? Are you telling me to experience a life or death battle with someone in order to breakthrough?" Yuan said to him.

"You don't get it? Then watch it until you do." The handsome man snapped his fingers again, and Yuan returned to the arena right at the start of the life or death battle, watching them fight all over again.

Chapter 502 Desperation

Once... twice... ten times...

Yuan watched the life or death fight between the young man and his opponent countless times.

'Just what am I looking for?'

Although Yuan didn't know what he was supposed to be looking at, he eventually just started focusing on the young man that had similar facial features as him.

After watching the young man countless times, Yuan noticed something hidden deep within the young man's eyes.

There was a certain light— a feeling of desperation, and this feeling only grew stronger the longer he was on the stage.

The desperation reached its peak when he was about to be killed.

That was when the young man suddenly experienced his breakthrough into Spirit Master.

"Are you telling me that I am not desperate enough?" Yuan spoke out loud.

Whoosh!

The handsome man returned with a smile on his face.

"That's precisely why. You are not desperate. If not for your condition, you would've not made it to Spirit Warrior, much less Spirit Master."

"Your world is quite peaceful compared to the cultivation world. Although there are some conflicts within the world, it usually doesn't affect you."

Yuan frowned and said, "Even if you say that, how am I supposed to become desperate? I can't feel what I don't feel."

"Then perhaps this will help you."

The handsome man waved his sleeves, giving him another scenario.

However, it wasn't of the life or death battle.

Instead, it was the scene of a family being slaughtered in broad daylight.

Yuan's eyes widened with shock as he witnessed a mother and her daughter — alongside thousands of pedestrians getting slaughtered mercilessly in the streets.

Although Yuan didn't recognize any of these people, tears began flowing from his eyes when he saw the woman and her daughter getting killed.

"Mother! Sister!"

A familiar voice suddenly resounded, causing Yuan to turn around.

Standing behind him was the same young man from the life or death battle, but he looked much younger... and weaker.

This young man was crying just like he was, but there was nothing he could do as he watched the murderer slaughter everyone there until a cultivator finally intervened to stop the madness.

Once the killer was apprehended, the young man walked to the corpses of the woman and the little girl.

He knelt on the ground with tears still flowing down his face and hugged their lifeless bodies until he was forced to let them go because the people had to clean the bodies off the streets.

Once their corpses were taken away, the young man stood up and turned to look at Yuan with a profound feeling of desperation in his gaze.

"This is my first experience with desperation. When will you experience your first? When your family dies before your eyes? When your loved ones are taken right before your very eyes? Or when you're betrayed by someone you trusted with your life?"

Yuan frowned and said, "I don't want to experience any of that."

"Of course you don't. Who would want to experience such misfortune?"

"However, you don't get to choose—the weak don't have any choice but to accept their fate."

"I can see pain in your eyes, but it's not desperation, so I will let you experience some more."

The young man turned around and walked away, and the scenery changed once again.

This time, the young man had his lover taken right in front of him, but he was too powerless to stop it.

Once that scene was over, another scene appeared, then another... and another...

Yuan experienced many different situations in his dream, all of them resulting in some sort of misfortune for the young man that increased his desperation for strength.

Eventually, the young man was no longer a weak young man but a handsome man with a formidable aura that stood at the peak of the cultivation world.

"Do you believe in reincarnation?" The handsome man suddenly asked Yuan as they returned to the sword graveyard.

"Reincarnation? As in rebirth?" Yuan asked, as he wasn't familiar with this term.

"Yes. In the cultivation world, people believe that you will be reincarnated after death, living a vastly different new life but without the memories of their previous lives, and that will repeat until you damage your soul."

"I don't know what to say. It's the cultivation world where anything could happen. As ridiculous as reincarnation sounds, I wouldn't be too surprised if it's real."

The handsome man smiled, and then he started approaching Yuan.

Once he stood before Yuan, the handsome man's appearance began turning younger and younger until he resembled the young man that resembled Yuan.

"You already know the truth deep inside, don't you? You just don't want to believe it." The young man said to him.

"I have no idea what you're talking about," Yuan said.

"Still trying to act dumb? Who do you think you're trying to fool? Me?"

"But that only means you're trying to fool yourself."

"..." Yuan turned dead silent as he stared at the young man who resembled him.

"You wanted to know who I am, right? Do I still need to answer that question?"

"Why?" Yuan suddenly asked.

"Why is this happening to me?"

"You should know that answer, too. If I tell you everything, it wouldn't be fun, right?"

"Or you actually don't know anything," Yuan said.

"You're right. I don't. After all, I am you, and you don't know anything. However, don't worry, because you will eventually remember..."

The young man's body suddenly started turning into smoke, disappearing into the background.

It was at this moment Yuan woke up from his dream, and he could immediately feel two streams of tears flowing down his face and the sensation of a wet pillow.

"Y-Young Master... Are you okay?" Meifeng, who woke up just a second ago, asked him in a worried voice after seeing his tears.

"Yes... I am fine. I just had a somewhat bad dream," he said with a bittersweet smile on his face.

"A nightmare, huh?" Meifeng then wiped his tears with her hands.

Chapter 503 Playing the Piano

"Miss Meifeng... Have you ever felt desperation?" Yuan suddenly asked her after getting off the bed.

"Desperation?" Meifeng raised her eyebrows, wondering to herself why he would ask such a question.

"The feeling of being helpless— a sense of weakness and hopelessness." Yuan stood there with a profound aura around him that felt a little different than usual.

"I can't really say that I have..." Meifeng shook her head.

"However, the closest I have felt to desperation was when my husband died, I guess."

"Your husband?"

Now that he thought about it, Yuan has never seen Meixiu's father before.

"He died in an accident before I could even give birth to Meixiu," she said with a bittersweet smile on her face.

"I'm sorry for asking..."

"There's no need for you to be sorry. It happened really long ago." Meifeng said with a smile.

"Anyways, why the sudden question, Young Master? Does it have something to do with your nightmare?"

"I guess..." He nodded.

Sometime later, they sat around the living room and began eating breakfast.

"Wang Xiuying said that she's currently on the way here with the piano," said Meixiu after they sat down.

"This early in the morning?" Yuan chuckled.

"That just shows how much she wants to listen to your music again, Young Master," Meifeng said to him.

"Even if you say that, it's been years since I last touched an instrument... Not counting Cultivation Online, of course. I probably won't even be able to play it properly."

"You're underestimating yourself, Young Master. Even if you haven't touched any instruments in years, you'll quickly familiarize yourself with them once you start playing again."

"I hope so," he nodded.

After breakfast, while Meixiu cleaned the dishes and Yuan practiced his movement technique, Wang Xiuying arrived at their apartment door with her piano.

"Where should I put this?" Wang Xiuying asked.

"We have made some space in the living room. You can put it there." Meifeng said to her.

"Okay!"

The delivery company she hired to deliver the piano then placed the piano at the corner of the living room.

Once everything was done, Wang Xiuying immediately urged Yuan to play the piano.

"Don't worry, I won't break my promise..." Yuan said as he took a seat in front of the piano.

"Are you sure you want to give this piano away? It's quite rare and expensive." Meifeng recognized the piano's value at glance, and she asked Wang Xiuying.

"Yes, it is an honor for me to let Yu Tian play music using my piano. Furthermore, now that I am focused on cultivation, I don't have any time to play it. Instead of letting it rust in my room, I might as well give it to someone who can use it at its full potential."

After getting a feel for the smooth keys on the piano, Yuan swiped his fingers across the keyboard, filling the room with beautiful sounds.

'This feeling... How long has it been since I last felt it?' Yuan asked himself as he recalled one of his favorite songs.

Then, without using divine sense, Yuan began playing the piano almost instinctively.

Music quickly filled the place, and when the three ladies heard this heavenly music, their hearts throbbed with excitement.

Even though it's been years since Yuan last played the piano, he was currently playing it as though he never took a break. In other words, he was playing it flawlessly.

Tears flowed down Wang Xiuying's face as she stared at Yuan's figure that was moving elegantly behind the piano, recalling the first time she first witnessed his performance on the stage.

As for Meixiu and Meifeng, they could only silently admire Yuan's talents.

'This is it... This is the music that once took over the world. I can't believe that I am actually hearing it again, and it's not being played on a device.' Meifeng recalled Yuan's elegance and grace on the stage as he captivates the audiences' heart and soul with his musical talents.

A few minutes later, after playing the final note to the song, Yuan asked them, "What do you think? I think I could've played that a lot better."

"A lot better?" They all looked at him with raised eyebrows.

Meifeng then said, "I did notice a few delays between notes, but it's almost unrecognizable, and the delay is so minuscule that one wouldn't normally be able to tell the difference if they're not an expert."

"I guess I am just used to playing it to perfection. Let me try another song."

Yuan then began playing a new song, and it somehow sounded even better than the last, something Wang Xiuying didn't think was possible until it happened.

After his second song, Yuan continued to play a few more songs, getting better with each song until he eventually reached the perfection that he was used to.

Ding.

In the midst of Yuan's 9th song, Meixiu suddenly received a notification on her phone.

She looked at it to see that Yu Rou had texted her.

Her eyes widened when she read the contents.

"Y-Yu Rou is coming here right now!" Meixiu said to them.

Yuan immediately stopped playing the piano and said, "Yu Rou is coming here? Why?"

"She said that she needed to talk to me. Also, she said that she received her parents' permission."

Hearing this, Meifeng said, "The Yu Family probably told Yu Rou to come to convince you to return to the family after the last failure. They're really predictable."

"What should we do now, Young Master?"

Yuan then pondered for a moment before speaking, "I have been thinking about how I should surprise Yu Rou regarding my recovery..."

He touched the piano and said, "I think I know how I should surprise her. Can you all help me out?"

"Of course!" Wang Xiuying quickly said.

Meixiu and Meifeng also agreed.

"Great! Then here's the plan..."

After telling them his plan to surprise Yu Rou, Yuan returned to his bedroom and patiently waited for Yu Rou to arrive.

Half an hour later, someone knocked on their door.

"It's me!" Yu Rou's voice then resounded.

As they had expected, it was Yu Rou.

However, Yu Rou was completely unaware of the surprise that was in store for her.

Chapter 504 Surprising Yu Rou

"Good morning, Meixiu!" Yu Rou greeted when she opened the door.

"Good morning, Yu Rou." Meixiu returned the greeting.

"Please, come inside."

Once Yu Rou entered their apartment, she immediately noticed Meifeng and Wang Xiuying sitting in the living room.

"Eh? Miss Meifeng? Wang Xiuying? What are you two doing here so early in the morning?" Yu Rou asked them with a surprised look on her face.

"I'm on vacation, so I figured I should visit the Young Master," Meifeng said with a calm look on her face.

"I am here to check up on Yu Tian's condition," said Wang Xiuying.

Although she wasn't sure why, Yu Rou felt that something was amiss from the atmosphere in the place.

"I see... Where's my brother? I'd like to see him before I talk... though I'm sure you can already guess why I am here."

"The Young Master is currently in his room," Meifeng said.

Yu Rou nodded and approached his room, but then she noticed the beautiful piano sitting at the corner of the room and stopped to look at it.

"Wow! What is this premium piano doing here? It wasn't here when I last came here."

As a piano player herself, Yu Rou could instantly tell that the piano was a valuable one.

"That piano is mine... At least it was until I gave it to Yu Tian," said Wang Xiuying.

"Eh? It's yours? But why?" Yu Rou asked.

"I have no use for it anymore, and I'd rather give it to my idol than sell it."

Yu Rou found it strange that she would give it to Yuan when he can't even use it, and in her eyes, it was quite disrespectful to give an instrument to Yuan while knowing his background and condition. It was almost like giving a blind man a book that he cannot read.

Though Yu Rou didn't think too much of it for now.

"Brother, it's Yu Rou. I am here to visit you," she said to him after knocking on the doors.

"Come inside," Yuan said.

Yu Rou then entered the room and sat beside the bed.

"Even though we have been playing together in Cultivation Online for a while, it still feels like forever since I last saw you..." Yu Rou gently caressed his silky black hair to the side so she could get a good look at his handsome face.

"I'm sorry, brother..."

"Why are you suddenly apologizing?" Yuan asked her.

"Because of the Yu Family, both you and Meixiu have been experiencing unpleasant situations. I wish I could help, but I am powerless within the family..."

"There's no need for you to apologize, Yu Rou. If anything, it should be the ones responsible that need to apologize. This means the Chairman of the Cultivators' Association and our parents."

"..."

After a moment of silence, Yu Rou spoke, "Brother, I am thinking about leaving the family and joining a faction."

"Huh? W-Why would you do that?" Yuan was taken by surprise by her sudden reveal.

"Now that cultivation is widespread and the new trend, I want to take advantage of it, especially since I am currently ahead of many people. If I remain in the Yu Family, I will forever remain powerless. However, if I leave, I will at least have a chance to become an influential person without the help of my family."

"It's not going to be easy, but I hope to become stronger than the Yu Family."

Yuan was speechless after listening to Yu Rou's plans.

However, he didn't immediately dismiss it, and he asked, "Where will you go?"

"I don't know right now, but I can tell you where I won't go—the Cultivators' Association! They're just a bunch of bullies, and I refuse to lend them my assistance. I already have a Heaven-grade cultivation technique thanks to my family, so I don't really care where I go as long as they're good people with enough influence to not be bullied by the Yu Family."

"I see... When you decide, let me know, okay?"

"Of course!"

"Anyways, I am here today because my parents wanted me to convince Meixiu to return to the family so that they could hand her over to the Cultivators' Association. I agreed since it meant that I would get to see you and Meixiu again, but I won't be doing any convincing."

"I'm sorry to get you wrapped up in this mess as well... But don't worry, I will handle everything soon."

"You will? What are you going to do?" Yu Rou couldn't help but ask.

"It's a secret for now," he said with a mysterious smile.

"I hope it's not anything dangerous..." Yu Rou said with a worried frown.

"It won't be." Yuan chuckled.

Sometime later, Yuan said, "Yu Rou, you saw the piano, right? Why don't you let Meixiu play you a song?"

"Eh? Meixiu knows how to play the piano? Since when?"

"She's been practicing lately, you see."

"If you say so..."

Yu Rou then went back outside and said, "Meixiu, my brother said you'll play a song for me?"

Meixiu nodded, "But you'll have to wear this."

Yu Rou looked at the object in Meixiu's hand; it was a blindfold.

"Why do I have to be blindfolded? I won't be able to see your performance that way."

"I want you to judge it using your ears, not eyes," Meixiu then said.

"I guess so..."

Once Yu Rou took a seat on the couch, Meixiu blindfolded her.

A few moments later, Yu Rou could hear the piano being played.

'Wow... Meixiu is really good with the piano... How long has she been practicing to reach this level?' Yu Rou wasn't suspicious at first, but once she listened a little longer, she noticed something was off, and the feeling she got earlier grew more obvious.

'T-This can't be Meixiu playing the piano... It's too good! Even I cannot play this perfectly with many years of practice! Unless Meixiu has talents similar to my brother, there's no way she learned the piano and reached this level in such a short amount of time!'

Although she didn't want to discredit Meixiu or her talents, it was simply too hard to believe. It hasn't been long since Meixiu left the Yu Family, and even if she started playing the day she left, it wasn't realistic for Meixiu to reach this level of performance in such a short time unless she was Yuan himself!

'Maybe this is Miss Meifeng playing the piano and they wanted to play a trick on me...'

Yu Rou began having this thought.

Midway through the song, someone suddenly removed her blindfold, causing it to fall onto her lap.

"Hmm?"

Yu Rou subconsciously opened her eyes when she felt the blindfold fall off, and to her absolute shock, it wasn't Meixiu sitting in front of the piano, nor was it Meifeng like she'd thought.

It was actually Yuan sitting before the piano! And he was playing with elegance and grace!

"B-Brother...?" Yu Rou stood up from the shock, and she stared at Yuan's moving figure with a look of disbelief on her face.

However, she didn't say anything else and silently watched Yuan play the piano with a seemingly healthy and normal body, feeling as though she was in a dream.

Chapter 505 His Own Company

After playing the last note to the song, Yuan lifted his hands from the piano keyboard in an elegant manner before turning to face the shocked Yu Rou with a smile on his face.

"What do you think? I may not be as good as I used to be, but I hope you enjoyed it."

Hearing his words, Yu Rou's eyes finally started flowing with tears, and because she'd held it in for so long, it came gushing forward like a broken dam, immediately blocking her vision.

"Brother... You're so cruel..." Yu Rou said in a crying voice, dumbfounding him.

And she continued, "How can you make me cry in front of so many people...?"

Yu Rou then wiped her tears and said, "How come you can move again? And since when?"

Yuan then explained to her that he has no clue why it happened, "I woke up like this, and it has only been like 2 days since my recovery."

"It's only been two days...? And your recovery happened out of the blue? What kind of miracle is this?" Yu Rou was left speechless by his words.

Thousands of doctors around the world couldn't figure out what was going on with Yuan's condition, and he somehow heals naturally? That seemed too good to be true. However, there was no reason for Yuan to lie to her.

Yuan suddenly approached Yu Rou and wiped the tears from her face.

"To tell you the truth, my recovery actually started even before I left the Yu Family, but I was only able to lift a finger at that time, and I didn't want to get your hopes up, so I decided to wait until I could stand on my own before letting you know."

"Unbelievable..." Yu Rou muttered in a low voice.

After a moment of silence, she said, "This changes everything, brother! Now that you have recovered, there are so many things you can do! What do you plan on doing now that you have recovered?"

"I am going to focus on rehabilitation for now. Once I am confident with my movements, I am going to visit the Cultivators' Association. However, I am not sure what I want to do after that."

"Do you intend on going back to the stage?" Yu Rou asked the question that has been asked multiple times now.

"No, I do not." Yuan shook his head.

Yu Rou sighed and said, "I figured... But you should reconsider, since it's such a waste of your talents. Brother, you never truly reached the peak of the musical world since you were forced to leave it due to your condition, and it has always been a dream of mine to see you on the stage again. Furthermore, you can get back at the Yu Family for abandoning you."

"If you return to the stage, they will definitely regret disowning you. In fact, they might even try to get you back into the family."

"Hmm..." Yuan didn't immediately refuse and began pondering.

'Getting back at the Yu Family, huh? I definitely want to see their faces filled with regret. However, I shouldn't be doing this for revenge... Instead, I should be doing this for Yu Rou, who has been there for me since the beginning.'

'If Yu Rou wants me to return to the stage...'

Although he has already decided to never return to the professional stage, he also told himself that he would do anything to make Yu Rou happy, and if him returning to the stage will make her happy, he cannot simply ignore it.

"Brother, if you don't want to return to the stage, I won't force you." Yu Rou said to him, as she could guess what he was thinking.

"I..."

It was at this moment Meifeng spoke, "Young Master, if I may make a suggestion, you don't need to go onto the stage as 'Yu Tian'. You can simply do it under a different alias. After all, it's not the stage you hate—but your name that is affiliated with the Yu Family, am I right?"

"I have listened closely to all of your performances today, and I can tell that you still enjoy playing the instrument. You're afraid that if you go onto the stage that you'll once again give credit to the Yu Family."

"If I am wrong, please correct me."

Yuan remained silent for a moment before speaking, "I have known that I still love to play the instrument when I played the zither inside Cultivation Online. I think you're right, Miss Meifeng. It's not the stage that I don't like—I just don't want to feel like I am being used by the Yu Family again."

"Brother..." Yu Rou felt incredibly guilty at this moment, as she was part of the Yu Family that made Yuan feel so much pain and grief.

"Well, there are many things you can do to avoid that feeling, such as playing for another company. Or even better—you can make your own company so that you won't be playing for anyone but yourself."

"Making my own company? As much as I like the sound of that, I am only 18 years old... How am I supposed to make a company?"

Meifeng lifted her hand and pointed it at herself.

"You don't need to do anything, Young Master. I can make the company for you."

"R-Really? But aren't you already incredibly busy at the Yu Family? I don't dare to make you work even more than you already are..." Yuan said.

"It's really not that much work. Although I will be making the company, I won't actually need to do anything, and when I do, I can do it from anywhere in the world as long as I have access to a phone and the internet."

"Furthermore, you can hire other people to deal with the stuff. In fact, Meixiu has some experience when it comes to these kinds of things since this is what we mainly do for the Yu Family."

Meifeng then turned to look at Meixiu and continued, "I will make the company and you'll do everything else. Since it's just a company in name, you don't actually have to do much besides organizing events for the Young Master. You should be able to do at least that with your training. If you need help, I will step in. What do you think?"

Chapter 506 - Divine Melody

"I don't mind as long as Yu Tian agrees," Meixiu said in a calm voice after hearing Meifeng's suggestion.

Besides maid training and defensive training, Meixiu also learned management since she was expected to help Yuan with his work in the future just like how Meifeng helps the Yu Family.

"It's all up to you now, Young Master. As long as you give me a nod, I will make the company."

Yuan didn't immediately respond and took a couple of minutes to think about everything.

Although he didn't care about getting revenge on the Yu Family for what they have done to him, he definitely would like to see their faces once they learn that he has recovered and started playing on the stage again.

Furthermore, he will be making Yu Rou happy by doing so.

Sometime later, Yuan nodded and said, "I will leave everything to you, Miss Meifeng."

"Great! Now I just need the name of the company and what your new alias will be!" Meifeng said, her voice filled with enthusiasm, as this could be the start of a new legend.

"A company name, huh? Do you guys have any suggestions?" Yuan asked the ladies in the room.

"How about Divine Melody? Your music is always divine-sounding, after all." Wang Xiuying was the first to give a suggestion.

"Divine Melody, huh? I also quite like it." Yu Rou agreed.

"Well, if you both like it, I guess we'll go with Divine Melody. As for my new alias..."

Yuan pondered for a moment before speaking, "Tian Yang shall be my new alias."

"Okay. I will make a few phone calls with a few friends and I should have the company ready by tonight." Meifeng said as she pulled out her phone and walked outside the apartment.

"I cannot wait! This is so exciting!" Yu Rou spoke with her body trembling from excitement.

"I can already imagine my parents trying to recruit you once they learn of your existence!"

"I am also shaking from excitement!" Wang Xiuying agreed.

"Let's not get ahead of ourselves." Yuan said, and he continued, "I may be under a new alias, but if I go outside in my current appearance, they will learn my real identity in a heartbeat."

"I will need a disguise..."

"How about wearing a mask like you do in Cultivation Online?" Meixiu suggested.

"Yes, I was thinking the same thing," he agreed.

Meixiu went to grab her laptop and started looking for a mask.

"Which one do you like?" Meixiu asked him.

Yuan then pointed to the black mask that somewhat resembled the one in Cultivation Online.

"I like this one," he said.

Yu Rou raised her eyebrows when she saw this, and she asked, "Brother... How do you see with your eyes closed?"

"Hm? Oh, I am using divine sense to see. My sight hasn't healed yet."

"D-Divine sense?! You can also use that in the real world?!" Yu Rou was shocked.

"Yes." He nodded.

"Now I'm really curious what else can be used in the real world besides cultivation techniques and divine sense..." Yu Rou mumbled.

"Well, for one, other techniques besides cultivation techniques also work," Yuan said.

"Huh? Have you succeeded in learning a martial technique?" Yu Rou asked him, as she had this feeling.

"Yes, I have. I am now trying to learn a movement technique."

"C-Can I see the technique you learned?!" Yu Rou quickly asked.

"Sure."

Yuan then used his divine sense to look for a knife. Once he found it, he made it fly towards them from the kitchen.

"T-This is your Flying Dagger technique!" Yu Rou recognized this technique since she has seen him use it a couple of times during their questing.

"That's right." Yuan nodded.

"Heavens... That looks incredibly dangerous..." Wang Xiuying mumbled as she watched the kitchen knife circle around Yuan's body.

"Should I start trying to learn Wind Blade?" Yu Rou wondered to herself out loud.

"That sounds even more dangerous..." Yuan said, as he could somehow imagine Yu Rou causing mass destruction with Wind Blades.

"I have ordered the mask. It should arrive within the next three days." Meixiu said a moment later.

Sometime later, Meifeng returned and said, "I have the company set up. I will be the owner of the company in name, but I will leave everything to you, Meixiu. Once you settle your situation with the Cultivators' Association and decide to reveal your identity, I will transfer the company to you. And in case you need some refreshments, I will send you the training notes from years prior."

"I understand." Meixiu nodded.

"As for the Young Master, you just need to schedule a performance and start making a name for yourself again. I suggest you do a couple of public performances to gain popularity before you return to the stage."

"Okay."

And for the rest of the day, Yuan would play the piano for the ladies in the apartment. During breaks, they would talk about their new company and plan for their future.

At the end of the day, Yu Rou said, "I would love to stay here for longer, but it's about time I return home and report to my parents that I have failed to convince Meixiu to return to the family. I expect a scolding, but it is what it is."

"I'm sorry, Yu Rou... This is all because of me..."

"Don't blame yourself for this situation, Meixiu. We all know who's in the wrong here." Yu Rou patted her back.

"Yu Rou, before you leave."

Yuan approached her with his arms spread, his intentions clear.

Seeing this, Yu Rou immediately jumped into his embrace and hugged him tightly.

"I have been waiting for this for the entire day, you idiot." Yu Rou said, feeling her eyes tear up again.

"I'm sorry for making you wait so long."

Once they were satisfied, Yuan let her go and Yu Rou made her way back to the Yu Family.

"I am also going to leave as well. It's been a fun day. I will be coming here often to hear your music, Yu Tian!" Wang Xiuying said shortly after Yu Rou left.

Yuan nodded and said, "Once again, thank you for the piano. I will treasure it."

"That means more than you think to me.." Wang Xiuying said with a bright smile on her face.

Chapter 507 - Breaking His Bottleneck

After Wang Xiuying left, Meixiu began cooking dinner while Meifeng looked over some documents for their newly created company.

"Young Master, you'll need a disguise for your new alias," Meifeng said to him, unaware that they already have something planned.

"Yes, I know. I will be wearing a mask when I play on the stage," he said.

"A mask, huh? That's not a bad idea." Meifeng agreed.

Sometime later, after dinner, Yuan went to take a shower. Now that he can clean himself, he plans on doing so every single day.

Once it was time for sleep, Meifeng and Yuan retired to their room while Meixiu returned to her own room.

"Miss Meifeng, I have a question..." Yuan suddenly asked her as they laid in the same bed.

"What is it?"

"Do you know where I can obtain a sword?"

"A-A sword? Like a real sword? Why do you want one?"

"Self-defense, I guess..."

"Self-defense?" Meifeng looked at him with raised eyebrows.

What kind of self-defense requires a sword?

"You see, the world is getting more dangerous lately with more and more people becoming cultivators, obtaining inhuman strength that's only possible in the cultivation world, but our world is very small compared to the world in Cultivation Online, and I was worried about what might happen in the future, so I want to prepare myself."

"Cultivators may be strong, but I don't think we have to be that worried. It's not as though the world will suddenly become a lawless place. But since the Young Masters want a sword, I will try to do something about it."

"Thank you."

Meifeng fell asleep shortly afterward.

However, Yuan didn't go to sleep.

Instead, he silently got out of the bed and went to the living room, before taking a seat on the floor.

'This will be my first time cultivating in this position...' Yuan thought to himself as he started to absorb the spiritual energy in the air.

'Desperation... I am not desperate enough to reach Spirit Master?' He recalled what the handsome man told him in his dreams.

Yuan then remembered the scenes where the mother and her daughter were murdered in broad daylight. Then he recalled the betrayal of a friend. Then of the young man's lover being forcefully taken away.

After remembering these situations, Yuan subconsciously started replacing these individuals with people he knew.

He imagined Meifeng and Yu Rou getting killed before his eyes. He imagined being betrayed by Doctor Wang and Wang Xiuying. He imagined the Cultivators' Association successfully taking Meixiu away from him by force.

"You're so weak... How can you protect anyone like that?"

The handsome man's voice suddenly resounded in his head.

Yuan gritted his teeth, and somewhere within his consciousness, an invisible flame created by desperation appeared.

The spiritual energy in the area began flying towards Yuan at an incredibly fast rate.

"That's right. If you want to protect those you care about, you must be strong."

"Obtain the strength to protect your family and friends..."

"Obtain the power to defeat those who wish to covet from you..."

"Be desperate... desperate for power..."

The handsome man's voice continued to resound inside Yuan's head as he subconsciously cultivated, and before he was aware, he entered a trance-like state—he'd entered enlightenment.

Meixiu, who was just about to fall asleep, noticed the sudden change in the atmosphere.

She got out of the bed and looked peeked outside her room, and to her surprise, there was a figure sitting in the living room with his long black hair fluttering behind him like a cape before a gust of wind.

'Yuan...?' Meixiu mumbled to herself.

Even though she was clearly looking at Yuan, for some reason, it felt like she wasn't looking at Yuan at the same time, almost like she was looking at someone else and the Yuan there was merely an illusion.

Meanwhile, Yuan's cultivation that had been stuck at peak Spirit Warrior finally began to move.

His Dantian that contained all of his spiritual energy began to tremble, and it slowly began expanding in size.

Then, the golden symbol within his body that had turned into veins attached itself to the Dantian, turning it golden.

Yuan's body was currently emitting a faint golden glow, and Meixiu was there to witness it, feeling as though she was before a divine being.

Meixiu didn't want to disturb him, so she went back inside her room and returned to the bed, trying her best to fall asleep.

The following morning, Yuan stood up from the floor with a profound feeling in his body.

He was no longer a Spirit Warrior, and his body emitted the feeling of a Spirit Master.

'So this is what it feels like to be a Spirit Master in this world...'

Yuan took a deep breath, sucking in a large amount of spiritual energy.

"Good morning, Meixiu." Yuan suddenly noticed her presence and said to her.

"Did you breakthrough to Spirit Master? You feel a little different compared to yesterday." Meixiu asked him.

"Yes, I have managed to breakthrough my bottleneck." He nodded.

"How do you feel?"

"My divine sense is much stronger now, and I can keep it active for a lot longer. I haven't tried using Flying Daggers, but it should be easier to control the technique now," he said.

He then tried to use Flying Daggers, and to his surprise, he was able to control 3 kitchen knives at once with relative ease when he could barely control two before.

"Wow... The difference between Spirit Warrior and Spirit Master is so much even though it was only a single level..." Yuan was surprised by the results.

"Congratulations on reaching Spirit Master."

Yuan nodded, "Yes, now I can finally visit the Cultivators' Association."

"You're really going to do it?" Meixiu asked in a worried voice.

He smiled and said, "How else am I going to stop them from taking you away from me?"

Meixiu blushed at his words.

"I-I am going to prepare breakfast..." she said, making a quick escape.

Chapter 508 - I Will Come With You

"Good morning, Young Master. You're up earlier than usual today," Meifeng said to him after coming out of his room.

"I actually spent the night cultivating," he said with a smile.

"I see..."

After eating breakfast, Yuan would spend about two hours just playing the piano without any rest.

Afterward, he would continue practicing the movement technique.

Meanwhile, Yu Rou stood before her parents.

"How did it go?" Yu Yong asked her.

"It failed. Meixiu refused to return even when I asked." Yu Rou said.

"Che!" Tang Lee sneered in disgust.

"Meixiu appeared to be enjoying her current life with Yu Tian. I think it'd be for the better if we didn't disturb their new life." Yu Rou said.

"I have a feeling that you didn't even bother to convince her. Tell me, Yu Rou, what exactly did you do yesterday when you spent an entire day at their place?" Yu Yong asked her in a solemn voice.

"I tried to convince Meixiu to return to the family, but when it failed, I remained there to hang out with them since it's been a while." Yu Rou said in a casual voice.

And before her parents could speak, she continued, "I don't know why you want Meixiu back so desperately, but even if she used to serve me, remember that Meixiu was trained to serve Yu Tian. My brother was the reason that Meixiu even wanted to be a maid in the first place, so if you're thinking about tearing them apart, it won't happen."

"Hmph! Leave! And you're still forbidden to contact that trash since you didn't get any satisfactory results!" Tang Lee said to her.

Yu Rou frowned, but she didn't say anything and left the place.

"Looks like we'll have to rely on the mercenaries. Chairman Zhao has been getting more impatient as well." Yu Yong sighed.

He then retrieved his cellphone to give Mister Johnson a call.

Three days passed by in a flash, and someone knocked on Yuan's apartment early in the morning.

"Delivery!"

Meixiu went to open the door since she was expecting this package.

"Thank you."

After accepting the package, Meixiu went to the living room and called out to Yuan, "Yu Tian, your masks have arrived."

A few moments later, Yuan came out of the bathroom.

"Great. Let's see what we have."

After opening the package, Yuan could see over a dozen different masks in the package.

"Hmm? Did they give us more than we ordered by accident? I don't remember picking most of these." Yuan said.

"Oh, I forgot to mention it but I decided to buy a few more afterward just in case we needed it. I even picked a new design for some of them if you ever get bored of one." Meixiu said.

"I see, that makes sense. Thanks."

Yuan picked one randomly and wore it on his face.

"What do you think?" He asked them.

"You give off a mysterious feeling. I like it, Young Master." Meifeng gave her opinion.

"I think it looks good, too." Meixiu nodded calmly, as she was already used to seeing him wear masks in Cultivation Online.

"Great. Then I will be wearing one of these while I visit the Cultivators' Association tomorrow."

"You're really planning on going there? It's going to be dangerous..." Meifeng said.

"If I don't go, they will continue messing with Meixiu, and I am not going to sit around and let it happen. Now that I am no longer useless, I am going to do something useful with my body for once." Yuan said with a stern look on his face.

"..."

After a moment of silence, Meifeng said, "If you're going, then I will go with you."

"Eh? You will? But won't you cause trouble for the Yu Family?" Yuan said.

Meifeng then picked up one of the available masks and wore it on her face.

"I won't cause any trouble if they don't know who I am," she chuckled.

"Furthermore, you'll need some backup just in case anything happens."

"What about—"

"You stay here." Meifeng interrupted Meixiu before she could even finish speaking.

"Don't worry, I will be more than enough to guarantee the Young Master's safety."

"I understand..." Meixiu said, clearly discontent with the results, but she didn't want to argue with her mother, and since she's wanted by the Cultivators' Association, it would be better if she didn't go to their main headquarters.

That night, Yuan went to sleep to make sure he was in top condition for tomorrow.

"Looks like you're finally going to do something about the situation."

The handsome man appeared in his dreams again.

"You again?" Yuan sighed.

Ever since he'd started walking, he would have to deal with this handsome man who's supposedly him before his reincarnation every time he went to sleep.

"Why are you not happy to see me? This means that you're slowly recovering your memories."

"What if I don't want these memories?" Yuan said with a frown.

"You don't want to remember? Even though it'll make you stronger? Are you afraid that you might become a different person once you remember everything?" The handsome man asked Yuan even though he already knew the answer.

"Everybody will change if given enough time. This is not something you can prevent no matter how powerful you are. However, you are in control of what kind of person you want to be, so why are you afraid?"

"I am not afraid," Yuan said in a calm voice.

And he continued, "I just don't want to experience unnecessary emotions that you—I felt before. What happened in the past happened in the past. I don't need to know about it."

The handsome man smiled and said, "If you don't care about what happened in the past, you wouldn't exist right now."

"What do you mean by that?" Yuan frowned slightly.

"You exist for a reason—reincarnated for a reason. You may not understand it now, but you will eventually remember everything and understand your reason for existing."

The handsome man then looked towards the sky and said, "It's about time for you to wake up. I look forward to what you're going to do today. Perhaps you've already started changing—you just don't realize it."

After that sentence ended, Yuan woke up from his sleep.

Chapter 509 - I Am Here To Speak With Your Chairman

"Good morning, Meixiu." Yuan greeted her, who was already preparing breakfast.

"Morning."

Once breakfast was prepared, they sat around the dining table until all of the plates were empty.

"Once we deal with the Cultivators' Association, let's go out and eat at a restaurant, Meixiu," Yuan said to her afterward.

"O-Okay..." Although it was quite sudden, Meixiu agreed regardless.

After breakfast, Yuan changed into a new set of clothes and grabbed his mask.

"Are you ready, Miss Meifeng?" Yuan asked her, who was right behind him.

"Wait a second, Young Master," Meifeng said.

And she continued, "The Yu Family was able to find your location because they'd somehow managed to acquire footage of you and Meixiu on the public surveillance cameras, so I would advise you to take a different route — one that is hidden from these cameras."

"How am I supposed to know where to go?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"Don't worry, I have already found a route from this place to the Cultivators' Association that will allow us to travel without being seen. You just need to follow me."

"Okay, I will leave everything to you. I want to save my spiritual energy for when I reach the Cultivators' Association, so can I hold your hands until then?" Yuan then asked her.

Since he needed spiritual energy for divine sense, it would be wiser to save his spiritual energy until he needed it. And even though he can use his divine sense for much longer now that he's a Spirit Master, it still wasn't enough for him to keep it activated for long periods at a time.

"Of course, you can." Meifeng held her hands out with a smile on her beautiful face.

Yuan then wore his mask before grabbing her soft hands.

Meifeng also wore her mask before leading Yuan outside the door and into the streets, following the route Meifeng had prepared in advance to avoid being seen.

"It will take us a little longer to reach the Cultivators' Association since we're taking this unique route. Since we have some time, can you tell me what you intend on doing there so I can prepare for it?" Meifeng asked him as they walked hand in hand.

"I am going there to intimidate them," he responded in a calm voice.

"Excuse me?" Meifeng turned to look at him with her eyes filled with shock.

"You're going to intimidate the Cultivators' Association? One of the most powerful factions in the entire world right now? You know even the Yu Family don't dare to offend them, right?" She said to him in a dazed voice.

"Yes, I know," Yuan responded in a calm voice.

"Then how are you going to intimidate them?"

"If words won't get through them, I can only use force, right?" Yuan said.

"F-Force...?" Meifeng had a bad feeling about this, and she started regretting agreeing to this farce.

"Don't worry, I am confident in my strength."

"I am not worried about that... But if you act violently at the Cultivators' Association, you will get arrested."

"The Cultivators' Association is not only a powerful force, but they are also something like the police for cultivators since normal police won't be able to deal with cultivators and their incredible strength."

"Simply, you'll go to jail that is specifically made for cultivators."

"I won't do anything violent... if I don't have to."

Meifeng sighed and mumbled to herself, 'Looks like I might have to call some lawyers after this all goes down...'

Meifeng wasn't too worried that Yuan might go to jail for causing a scene in the Cultivators' Association as long as he doesn't kill anyone, as she has connections with many powerful and reliable lawyers who can get someone out of anything as long as they had enough money.

About an hour later, they arrive at the Cultivators' Association.

"We're here, Young Master. Please... Just don't do anything too crazy..." Meifeng pleaded.

Yuan didn't say anything and merely nodded.

He then stood there for a minute to prepare himself.

Once he was ready, he released Meifeng's hand and began walking towards the Cultivators' Association, and Meifeng followed him from behind.

Their unique appearance quickly attracted everyone's attention, and they wondered why Yuan and Meifeng were wearing masks.

There was a line to the reception, but Yuan ignored the line and walked straight to the front.

"The line is back there." The woman working at the reception pointed to the back of the line.

"I am here to speak with your Chairman. Take me to him."

"I'm sorry, but who are you?"

"I will only speak with the chairman."

"I'm afraid that's not possible. Until we know your identity, you won't see anyone. Furthermore, Chairman Zhao is currently busy in a meeting, so he won't have time for you—"

BANG!

Yuan suddenly slammed the desk with his fist, instantly destroying it.

This startled the woman and everyone there greatly, including Meifeng, who felt like she was suddenly before a different person.

"I will not repeat myself," Yuan said in a calm voice that had a hint of anger within.

The woman looked at the destroyed desk with her eyes wide with shock, as the desk was made out of metal and not something an ordinary cultivator could achieve.

A few moments later, once the guards there snapped out of their daze, they quickly surrounded Yuan and Meifeng.

"Who the hell do you think you are?! How dare you cause such a scene at the Cultivators' Association?!"

The head of the security there shouted at Yuan. Of course, they were all cultivators.

Yuan slowly turned his head to look at the middle-aged man who was at the 6th level Spirit Apprentice.

"If you bring me to your chairman, there will no longer be a scene," he then said.

"The audacity! Apprehend them!" The middle-aged man commanded the dozen of cultivators around him.

However, before they could even get close, Yuan released his Spirit Master cultivation base, instantly halting these Spirit Apprentices with intense pressure.

Although none of them could comprehend what they were feeling since they had never seen a Spirit Master before, they instinctively knew to stay away from Yuan or their lives would be in danger.

Chapter 510 - The Presence Of A Spirit Master

Badum! Badum! Badum!

The cultivators around Yuan could feel their hearts being squeezed by this invisible pressure the longer they remained around him, so they all took steps back, fearing that their hearts might be crushed if they continued going forward.

"W-Who are you?! Why do you want to speak with the chairman?! If you do anything funny, the entire Cultivators' Association will be upon you!" The head guard pointed at Yuan and shouted.

"..."

After a moment of silence, Yuan spoke, "Yuan. Tell your chairman that Yuan is here to see him."

"Y-Yuan...? D-Don't tell me that you're 'that' Yuan from Cultivation Online...?" The head guard was left speechless by this revelation.

The others were also shocked by Player Yuan's sudden appearance.

As for as they were aware, the real Player Yuan has never appeared in public before, and judging by his appearance and unfathomable presence, there was a good chance that this masked figure before them was truly Player Yuan—the number one mysterious player in Cultivation Online!

Meanwhile, somewhere on the top floor of the Cultivators' Association, a decently sized group of individuals with ages ranging from old to young sat around a large conference table with Chairman Zhao sitting at the end, and all of them were emitting a profound aura.

"If your exalted families join our Cultivators' Association that is currently the number one force in the world, it will permanently stabilize our position in the world, and your families will definitely be compensated greatly for it." Chairman Zhao said to these individuals.

However, before any of these people could even respond, they felt an unfathomable pressure appearing right beneath them, shocking them greatly.

"H-Heavens! What was that?! Who is releasing this pressure?!"

"This pressure... It's the presence of a Spirit Master!"

"Impossible!"

The old people there stood up from shock after feeling the pressure.

"What? Did you just say Spirit Master? Is that even possible?" Chairman Zhao exclaimed in a dumbfounded voice.

His phone began ringing the very next moment.

"What happened? Don't you know that I am currently in a meeting with the grand families?"

"C-Chairman Zhao! I deeply apologize for disturbing your meeting with the seniors, but we have an emergency! Someone claiming to be 'Yuan' is here to see you! And he's causing a commotion!"

"What? Yuan? Why does that name sound so familiar?" Chairman Zhao muttered out loud, causing everyone there to look at him.

Then he came to a realization.

"Y-Yuan?! That Player Yuan from Cultivation Online?! Is it really him?!" Chairman Zhao shouted at the phone.

"I-I think so! He's even wearing a mask to conceal his identity! I think he's real!"

"Tell him to stay put! I will be there in a moment!" Chairman Zhao closed the connection and turned to look at the people there with an apologetic smile.

"I am coming with you. I would like to see if this person is really that famous 'Player Yuan'." One of the old men there spoke.

"I am also curious."

Eventually, everyone in the room agreed to follow Chairman Zhao.

'Is it really Player Yuan? Why would he show up so suddenly? And what business does he have with me?' Chairman Zhao wondered to himself as he walked to the elevators with the others, as he doesn't recall having any contact with Yuan before.

Sometime later, they arrived downstairs, and they could see two individuals wearing a mask being surrounded by many people there.

"A-Are you really Player Yuan?!" One of the people gathered around them asked.

However, Yuan ignored him and continued to stand there in silence.

The old people following Chairman Zhao took a deep breath as they approached the masked man who was emitting a profound pressure.

'Spirit Master! He's really a Spirit Master!'

They were quite shocked to see an unknown Spirit Master.

"Make way! The Chairman is here!"

The head guard shouted at the people there.

A path quickly opened up, allowing Chairman Zhao to approach Yuan, but he didn't get too close, as he had a bad feeling about this situation.

"Are you really Player Yuan? Why do you want to speak with me?"

Yuan didn't say anything at first and started slowly walking towards Chairman Zhao until he was standing right before him.

"I am here to give you a warning today. If you dare try to lay a finger on Meixiu again, I will destroy the entire Cultivators' Association." Yuan spoke in a grim voice with his pressure growing stronger and stronger.

Chairman Zhao could feel an invisible hand crushing his heart from the pressure, but he gritted his teeth and endured it.

"M-Meixiu...? How are you related to her?" Chairman Zhao asked him with a deep frown as he was having trouble breathing, and he could've never imagined that Player Yuan would show up here for Meixiu.

"Our relationship doesn't concern you, nor should you stick your nose into our business. The only thing you need to know is that if you dare to bother Meixiu again, I will bring the Cultivator's Association to the ground."

"I—"

Before Chairman Zhao could even respond, Yuan suddenly moved his arm and grabbed Chairman Zhao's neck, lifting him into the air.

"C-Chairman!"

The guards there subconsciously reacted, but they were stopped by the old people that were following Chairman Zhao.

"If you don't want the chairman to die, you should stay still," said an old man with long white hair tied into a ponytail.

Meanwhile, Yuan spoke in a low voice while staring at Chairman Zhao.

"I am not asking you— I am telling you to leave her alone. Do you understand me?"

"Y-Yes... I-I understand..." Chairman Zhao uttered with much effort.

"Hmph!"

Yuan tossed Chairman Zhao to the side like trash after hearing his response.

He then turned around and said to Meifeng, "Let's go."

However, before he could walk very far, one of the old people there called out to him in a respectful voice, "Please wait a moment, young man."

Yuan stopped and turned around to see an old man standing behind him with his hands clasped together.

Chapter 511 - Chairman Zhaos Resignation

Chapter 511 - Chairman Zhao's Resignation

"What is it?" Yuan asked the old man.

"I am surnamed Wu, and I would like to confirm something... Are you really a Spirit Master?" The old man asked him.

"What do you think?"

The old man showed a slight smile on his face before releasing his cultivation base, and to Yuan's surprise, he was also a Spirit Master!

'There are already other Spirit Masters beside me in this world?' Yuan thought to himself.

"Although I cannot see your face, I can tell that you're surprised by my cultivation base. You must be wondering how this is possible. If you visit my family at Mount Wu, I will tell you everything."

And before Yuan could even respond, the old man continued, "Don't worry, I am not related to Chairman Zhao, so whatever happened between you and him has nothing to do with me or my family. I came here today to see if the Cultivators' Association was worth my family's backing, but from the looks of it, we will have to reconsider some things."

"Hey, Old Wu, let's not try to pull a fast one before everyone here, or have you forgotten about our presence?" Another old man suddenly stepped forward and bowed to Yuan with his hands clasped.

"My surname is Zhi, and I am also a Spirit Master." The old man surnamed Zhi then released his Spirit Master cultivation base, surprising Yuan even more.

"Forget about Mount Wu. Come to my Mount Zhi instead. You won't regret it."

Then another person stepped forward— an old woman.

"Instead of fighting amongst ourselves, why don't we all cooperate together?" The old woman suggested.

She approached Yuan and said, "Surnamed Wang from the Wang Family. If you want to know how we reached Spirit Master and more about cultivation in general, come to the Jaded Garden situated outside the Yang City. We'll be more than happy to befriend a young genius such as yourself. If you're worried about your identity being revealed, I will let you know that we're really good at keeping secrets."

The old woman then leaned over his shoulders and whispered in a low voice that could only be heard by Yuan, "After all, we have managed to keep cultivation a secret from the rest of the world for many centuries..."

Yuan's body trembled after hearing the old woman's words.

They kept cultivation a secret from the rest of the world for many centuries? Does this mean that they have known about cultivation even way before Cultivation Online existed? If so, that explains why they were Spirit Masters.

"See you there in a month..." The old woman said to him before turning around and walking back to Chairman Zhao.

"Chairman Zhao, you have a lot of explaining to do for us. And don't you even dare think about lying to us because we will investigate the truth ourselves afterward."

Chairman Zhao, who was supposed to be an almighty figure, nodded his head in a powerless manner before the old woman and the other elders that were clearly more influential than Chairman Zhao.

Yuan lingered in the place for a few more moments before finally leaving the Cultivator's Association with Meifeng.

Although the people there wanted to follow him, they didn't dare to do so and reluctantly stayed behind.

"Young Master... you nearly scared me to death just now! I'm shocked that we even got to leave that place in one piece!" Meifeng sighed sometime later.

"I'm sorry. I got a little angry and my body started moving on its own." Yuan said to her, his hands still trembling a little.

"Young Master... Are you really Player Yuan?" Meifeng suddenly asked him.

"I will tell you everything once we return home, okay?"

"Of course." Meifeng nodded.

Once Yuan and Meifeng left the scene, the elders pressed Chairman Zhao for answers before everyone in the Cultivators' Association.

"If you don't tell us what happened, we'll speak with the council and have them deal with you."

Chairman Zhao sighed out loud before telling them the truth in a regretful voice.

"Che! What a shameless old man!" Someone there said out loud after Chairman Zhao revealed everything.

"Chairman Zhao, I am greatly disappointed in you. My Wang Family no longer wishes to be affiliated with the Cultivators' Association. Excuse me."

The old woman turned around and left the scene, followed by a few youngsters that came to this place with her.

The other elders also told Chairman Zhao the same thing before leaving the place.

As for the other people in the Cultivators' Association, they immediately started spreading news of everything that transpired there today through their phones, which spread like wildfire, shocking the world.

"What? The real Player Yuan showed up at the Cultivators' Association to warn Chairman Zhao? What did Chairman Zhao do to offend Player Yuan?"

"Chairman Zhao tried to force a young lady into joining the Cultivators' Association? And this young lady turned out to have a relationship with Player Yuan? Talk about karma!"

"Hahaha! Serves that old pervert right! I can't believe it! This is Player Yuan's first real appearance outside of Cultivation Online!"

"Player Yuan is already a Spirit Master? Isn't he also a Spirit Master in Cultivation Online? Just who is Player Yuan?! How does he keep achieving these seemingly impossible achievements?!"

The world was greatly shocked by what had happened at the Cultivators' Association, but the people were more interested in Player Yuan than what Chairman Zhao had done.

As for the Yu Family, they had managed to dodge a bullet when Chairman Zhao revealed everything, as he wasn't aware that the Yu Family had hired mercenaries to kidnap Meixiu.

However, the Yu Family was also shocked speechless to know that Meixiu had a relationship with Player Yuan, someone they have been looking for themselves.

They wanted to approach Meixiu for more information, but they were afraid of Player Yuan knocking on their doors.

After all, if Player Yuan dared to threaten to destroy the Cultivators' Association before the Chairman of the Cultivators' Association at their main headquarters, what would stop him from visiting the Yu Family?

The Yu Family then called Mister Johnson to cancel the pending job.

What happened at the Cultivators' Association would be a hot topic on the news and the internet for the rest of the week, and Chairman Zhao would resign his position as Chairman the following day, which didn't surprise anyone when they learned about it.

Chapter 512 - Hidden Experts

"Senior Wang, was that masked person really a Spirit Master?" One of the youngsters with Senior Wang asked her as they made their way back home on a private plane.

"Yes, that person was, without a doubt, a Spirit Master—the same level as me and the other elders," she confirmed.

"That young man also sounded like he was around your age. I cannot imagine how terrifying his talents must be to reach Spirit Master at such a young age, and it would be even more terrifying if he only started cultivating after Cultivation Online became a thing."

"That can't be possible, right?" Someone else there asked.

"The question is no longer whether it's possible or not, but how he achieved it..." Senior Wang said in a low voice.

"And whether he started cultivating before or after Cultivation Online doesn't really matter, as it won't change the fact that he's a Spirit Master at such a young age."

"Anyways, although our visit to the Cultivators' Association turned out to be a huge waste of time, I am actually glad that we went there, as I got to learn the existence of such a cultivation monster. The others in the family will go crazy once they learn about this young man."

"As for the other families... We'll definitely be fighting for him."

"If he's that famous Player Yuan, there's a good chance that he won't join any families, right?" Someone there asked.

"Yes, but it won't hurt to try." Senior Wang nodded.

"Who's this Player Yuan? I have never heard of him before." Another person said.

"You don't know Player Yuan? Don't you play Cultivation Online?"

"Why would I play a game about cultivation when I am already doing it in real life?"

"No wonder why you don't know him... Well, let me tell you about Player Yuan and his achievements..."

And for the rest of their flight, the young cultivators shared information about Player Yuan and his achievements with those that didn't know of his fame.

Meanwhile, after returning home, Yuan removed his mask and sat in the living room in an exhausted manner with sweat dripping down his face.

"Are you okay?" Meixiu asked him as she gently wiped the sweat off his face with a dry towel.

"Yes... I am fine... But that was more exhausting than I'd expected..."

"Since the Young Master cannot talk right now, I will explain everything for him," Meifeng said, and he proceeded to recall everything that had happened at the Cultivators' Association.

Meixiu expressed disbelief after hearing the situation.

"Y-You went there as Player Yuan, even threatening the Chairman? Heavens... Are you sure everything will be fine?" Meixiu spoke in a worried voice.

"We can't really say for now. Give it a few days and we'll see if anything will happen. However, they don't know the Young Master's identity, so they won't be able to do anything to him now even if they want to."

"But Young Master, you really surprised me today, and I am not talking about your identity as Player Yuan. I didn't even know you can act so domineering. You felt like an entirely different person today! I still have chills just thinking about it!" Meifeng said to him in a somewhat admiring voice.

"Well... Most of that was just an act since if I didn't act like that, they wouldn't have taken me seriously." Yuan smiled.

'Was it really just an act? It felt too realistic...' Meifeng thought to herself.

"Can you tell me more about your identity as Player Yuan? The Yu Family have asked me to investigate, but I came up with nothing."

Yuan nodded and proceeded to tell her about his identity as Player Yuan and some of the stuff he's done in Cultivation Online.

"I see... That explains why you're so powerful even in the real world... Turns out that you have been cultivating with a Divine-grade cultivation technique this entire time."

"What are we going to do now?" Meixiu asked them a moment later.

"Who knows, but I intend on going to the Jaded Garden to speak with those seniors next month," Yuan said.

"Are you sure that's a good idea? What if it's a trap?" Meifeng said.

"I think it'll be fine. If they really wanted to harm me, they could've done so back then. All three of them— and probably the other elders there were all Spirit Masters. There was no way I could've defeated them by myself. Furthermore, they didn't appear to be bad people."

"Why do you want to speak with them, though?" Meixiu then asked.

"I want to know more about the cultivation world... in this world. Apparently, they have known about cultivation since many centuries again, hence why they have been able to reach Spirit Master." Yuan said.

"So they're basically hidden experts that have been secretly cultivating for many years... I am very impressed by how they have managed to keep cultivation hidden from the public for so long." Meifeng said.

"Yes, I am too. That's why I want to speak with them."

"I will come with you," Meixiu said.

"Of course. I was going to ask you if you wanted to come later." Yuan nodded.

"Anyways, I am going to take a shower. My body is all sweaty."

Yuan then entered the bathroom and went to clean himself.

"You know that he was Player Yuan this entire time?" Meifeng asked Meixiu after he left.

"Yes."

"Well, aren't you a lucky one?"

"..."

Sometime later, Yuan returned to the living room, where Meixiu and Meifeng were watching the news.

"Look, Young Master. They are already talking about the incident at the Cultivators' Association— about Player Yuan."

Meifeng said as she turned the volume up a little more.

"Breaking news! Player Yuan has finally made an appearance today at the Cultivators' Association! He even confronted Chairman Zhao, threatening to destroy the Cultivators' Association if they continued to mess with his woman!"

"Who is this Meixiu that Player Yuan treasures so deeply?! Could it be his girlfriend?! Fiancee!? Perhaps even his wife?!"

"H-His wife?" Meixiu was speechless after she listened to how the news spoke about their relationship, making it seem as though they were lovers.

Chapter 513 - Why Do You Reject My Existence?

"Yuan... Isn't that you?" Meixiu pointed at the television that was currently playing a recording from the surveillance camera at the Cultivators' Association, allowing everyone to witness the drama for themselves.

They could see two figures entering the building and walking straight towards the front.

A few moments later, the figure wearing a black mask suddenly smashed the metal table into pieces, shocking everyone there.

Then the guards surrounded the masked individuals, but they didn't dare advance any further for some reason, almost like there was an invisible force that kept them from approaching the masked figure.

A few minutes later, Chairman Zhao and the elders could be seen approaching the masked figure.

It was at this moment the masked figure walked in front of the Chairman before lifting him into the air by the neck.

A few more moments later, the masked figure tossed the Chairman like a child getting bored of their toy and walking away.

However, the masked figure was stopped by the elders, and after some conversation, the masked figure disappeared from the Cultivators' Association.

Of course, all of this was played without any sound. But even without any sound, the spectators could see how domineering that masked figure was,

and they had no doubt that he had the capabilities to destroy the Cultivators' Association from his demeanor alone.

Seeing Player Yuan for the first time, many people were in awe of his display of dominance, and those that were already fans of Player Yuan became even more obsessed with him.

"How embarrassing..." Yuan said with a bashful smile on his face after seeing himself acting so out of character, almost like he was watching a play.

"If I didn't know you were going to do this beforehand, I would have never guessed that masked figure would be you..." Meixiu said in a dumbfounded voice.

"I was actually afraid that the Young Master might accidentally kill the Chairman when he grabbed the Chairman by his neck," Meifeng said.

"K-Kill? Why would I do something so extreme?" Yuan was surprised to hear this.

"People do extreme things when they're angry..." Meifeng said.

"Even if that's true, I wouldn't kill someone just because I am angry... At least I hope I won't..."

Suddenly, Meixiu's phone started ringing.

"It's Yu Rou," Meixiu said to them before answering the phone.

"Hello—"

"Meixiu?! Are you watching the news right now?! Did Yuan really visit the Cultivators' Association today?!" Yu Rou asked her in an excited voice.

"Yes... It's true..." Meixiu said.

"Unbelievable..." Yu Rou's dumbfounded voice resounded after a moment of silence.

To think her brother would be so daring to storm the Cultivators' Association shortly after his recovery. She can only imagine what he might do in the future.

"Is he okay?" Yu Rou then asked.

"Yes, everything is okay... for now."

"I think he should be fine as long as nobody knows his identity." Yu Rou said.

"And even if the Cultivators' Association learns of his identity, I don't think it should cause any worries since a lot of people admires Player Yuan. There will be plenty of people willing to help him if he gets into any trouble."

"Anyways, just stay put for the next few days and see what happens. Also, keep me updated!" Yu Rou said.

"Okay."

An hour later, Wang Xiuying also gave them a call to make sure they were okay.

After dinner, Meifeng said, "Young Master, I will have to go back to work tomorrow, so tonight is our last night together."

"I see... It was fun, Miss Meifeng. It reminds me of the day when you were still taking care of me." Yuan said to her.

"And I will continue to take care of you from the shadows— until I am no longer needed," Meifeng said with a smile on her face.

That night, Meifeng snuggled closer to Yuan than usual.

"Good night, Young Master."

"Good night."

Once he fell asleep, Yuan returned to the land of dreams.

"Looks like you had quite some fun today." The handsome man appeared before him, just like he'd expected.

"Remember, what you experienced today is what it feels like to be the strong. As long as you're powerful, nobody will dare to defy you— nobody will dare to hurt those close to you."

Yuan silently stared at the handsome man with a slight frown on his face.

"What is it?" The man asked him.

"The way I acted today... You're affecting me, aren't you?" Yuan said in a low voice.

"I have no idea what you're talking about." The handsome man shrugged.

"Don't lie to me! I nearly killed Chairman Zhao today! If I didn't snap out of my anger, I would've snapped his neck in half instead when I had it in my grasp! I had this nearly uncontrollable desire to do so!"

The handsome man chuckled and said, "So what? You're simply acting true to yourself. You're worried that if you didn't kill him, he would eventually return to bother you and your loved ones again, right? That's why you had an urge to kill that man."

"Don't blame me for your own desires. After all, I am you. If you blame me, you're simply blaming yourself."

"Why do you reject my existence? You know, the more you refuse to accept me, the more difficult it will be for you when you must accept me, and that time will eventually come."

"..."

Yuan remained silent.

"Whatever. You don't need to accept me now, but eventually..."

The handsome man turned around and began disappearing into the mist.

Once the man was gone, the scenery changed, and even more of the handsome man's past began revealing itself to Yuan.

Yuan wanted to close his eyes and ignore the dream, but alas, since he was in a dream, even if he closed his eyes, he would still be able to see the dream. Therefore, he was forced to watch everything until he woke up.

"Haaaa... Why is this happening to me?" Yuan mumbled in a low voice.

Chapter 514 Do You Believe In Reincarnation?

"Good morning, Young Master." Meifeng greeted him when he walked out of his room.

"Miss Meifeng? You're cooking breakfast today?" Yuan said.

"That's right. Since I am no longer on vacation, and I will be leaving soon, I want to do something for you before I leave."

"You're also up earlier than usual today, Young Master."

"Yes, I had another bad dream..." He sighed.

"You know, nightmares usually happen because you're stressed or when you're thinking too much about a certain thing. If there's something on your mind, you should let it out. Although I won't be here, you still have Meixiu. I'm sure you can tell her about it." Meifeng said to him.

"I will keep that in mind." Yuan nodded.

A few minutes later, Meixiu woke up and came out of her room, but to her surprise, her mother had already prepared breakfast for them.

"I only made enough for you two since I won't have the time to sit down and eat," Meifeng said after placing the food on the table.

"Thank you, Miss Meifeng. I hope you take more breaks so we can spend more time together." Yuan said.

Meifeng chuckled and said, "Although I would like that as well, I don't want to disturb your love nest too much."

"L-Love nest?!" Meixiu nearly spat out the water in her mouth when she heard Meifeng's words.

"Anyways, I will see you later. Stay safe, Young Master. If you ever run into any troubles, give me a call."

Meifeng then left the place shortly after.

Meixiu turned on the television while they ate so it wouldn't feel as awkward.

"As many of us had anticipated, Chairman Zhao from the Cultivators' Association has handed in his resignation letter after yesterday's drama and will no longer be affiliated with the Cultivators' Association!"

"Eh? He resigned? Things turned out much better than I'd expected." Yuan said after chewing and swallowing the food in his mouth.

"Wow! This food is amazing!" He then realized how great the food tasted and praised it loudly.

"Of course, your food also tastes great, Meixiu, but there's something different about Miss Meifeng's cooking!" Yuan added since he didn't want to upset her.

"Don't worry, I am well aware that I am still nowhere near my mother's level," she said in a calm voice.

"I don't think you should compare yourself to Miss Meifeng. Not only are you less experienced, but you're also much younger than her. If anything, you should compare yourself to people around your age."

Meixiu nodded.

Sometime later, Meixiu asked, "What are you going to do today?"

"Well, it's been a while since we've last played Cultivation Online. I am thinking about playing today."

"Okay. You can go ahead and play with me. I want to make sure that everything is actually fine before I relax."

"I understand."

"What about Yu Rou and Xia Jingyi?"

"It might be a bit early, so give them a text first."

Meixiu then texted Yu Rou and Xia Jingyi to see if they wanted to play.

[Yu Rou: Sorry, but I won't be able to play for a while since I will be busy with a few things.]

[Xia Jingyi: I am really close to a breakthrough... I think... So I am going to focus on cultivation for now. Sorry.]

After breakfast, Yuan went into his room and laid on the bed. He then wore the console and went inside Cultivation Online without any help for the first time.

"Welcome back, Brother Yuan." Xiao Hua and Lan Yingying greeted him.

"Good morning, you two."

"Have you dealt with whatever was troubling you?" Xiao Hua asked him.

"Yes, I have... for now."

Yuan then looked around and asked, "Feng Feng still hasn't returned?"

Suddenly, Feng Yuxiang's voice resounded, "I have been back for a while now."

A beautiful woman suddenly approached them from behind.

"It's been a while, Feng Feng," Yuan said to her with a smile on his face.

"Yes..." Feng Yuxiang nodded, still having some trouble looking straight into his eyes.

"Where are the others?" Feng Yuxiang then asked.

"They are currently busy, so it's just me today."

"I see..."

"Well... What would you like to do today?" Feng Yuxiang then asked him.

"Let's go somewhere quieter. How about that pond where we studied our techniques?" Yuan suggested.

"Sure!"

They then made their way towards the silent pond.

Once they arrived, Yuan approached the water and silently stared at the water.

"Did something happen to the Young Master? He feels a little different than usual." Feng Yuxiang noticed this and asked the other two.

"No idea..." They shook their heads.

After standing there for a couple of minutes, Yuan turned around and asked the three ladies, "Do you guys believe in reincarnation?"

"Reincarnation?" They repeated.

"It's a common topic in the world of cultivation, right?"

"Well... Although reincarnation is definitely a very popular belief amongst many cultivators from the Lower Heavens to the Supreme Heaven, nobody has ever been able to prove that it exists." Feng Yuxiang said.

"Do you believe it exists?" Yuan then asked.

"Of course. In case you forgot, Young Master, I am a phoenix—I am the embodiment of rebirth. However, I have never experienced reincarnation, nor do I know anybody that has been reincarnated."

"With that being said, even if someone is reincarnated, I don't think they will retain the memories of their previous life, or it would've been proven to truly exist by now." Feng Yuxiang said.

"I see..."

"Why are you suddenly interested in reincarnation, Young Master?"

"Well, it's been on my mind ever since someone mentioned it to me, and I am sort of in this deep hole that I cannot get out because of it..." Yuan sighed.

"If you ask me, I don't think it really matters if reincarnation is real or not. What happened in one's past life has already ended when that person died. Even if they somehow recall the memories of their previous life, what can they do about it? It's not as if they could reclaim the name of their previous life and act like they never died."

"That makes sense..." Yuan nodded, agreeing with Feng Yuxiang's words.

Chapter 515 Relentless Dragon Overwhelms the Nine Heavens

After thinking about the words Feng Yuxiang spoke to him, Yuan took a seat beside the pond and retrieved the ancient-rank technique Relentless Dragon Overwhelms the Nine Heavens.

"I am going to spend the rest of the day trying to comprehend this technique since it felt like I was getting close to understanding it when I stopped previously. You guys can do whatever." Yuan said to them before focusing on the technique.

Feng Yuxiang exchanged looks with the other two.

"Is it just me or does the Young Master feel a little different today?" Feng Yuxiang asked them.

"Just a little." Xiao Hua agreed.

"The Lord feels... A little more mature... Or at least the aura around him." Lan Yingying said.

"Let's just hope it doesn't mean anything bad." Feng Yuxiang sighed.

A few hours later, Yuan stood up and took a deep breath.

He then positioned himself that made it seem like he was prepared to throw a fist.

Yuan closed his eyes, and after a moment of silence, he snapped them open and released his fist, sending a powerful wave of spiritual energy that was shaped like a dragon towards the pond.

BOOM!

The entire ground shook as the pond was immediately erased from existence—the water and all, leaving a huge crater behind.

Yuan was left speechless by the destructive nature of the technique that erased an entire pond.

Fortunately for them, there were no living creatures within the pond.

<You have learned Relentless Dragon Overwhelms the Nine Heavens>

"Heavens... Young Master, where did you learn such a powerful technique?" Feng Yuxiang asked him afterward.

"The Dragon Temple," he said.

"Such a powerful strength, it must be Divine-rank or above."

"Yes, it's an Ancient-rank technique."

Yuan looked at the sky that was getting dark and said, "I am going to leave now. It might be some time before I return since it'll be a little busy for me. Also, you don't have to wait for me. If you want to do something, just go ahead and do it without me."

"Yingying, you wanted to look around the Lower Heavens, right? You can have Feng Feng and Xiao Hua take you around."

"I want to explore it with you..." Lan Yingying said.

"It's okay, the Nine Heavens is a vast universe. We'll be able to explore it together plenty when I am able to play more."

"If it's your wish..." Lan Yingying nodded.

"Then with that settled, I will see you guys later."

"See you later, Young Master."

"Stay safe, Brother Yuan."

After saying their goodbyes, Yuan logged out of the game and returned to practicing his movement technique in the real world whilst his servants began exploring the Lower Heavens without him, though it was mostly for Lan Yingying.

As much as he wanted to play Cultivation Online, there were simply too many things for him to do in the real world.

Once things calm down, he will return and fully explores the Nine Heavens.

"Yuan, you know the entire world is looking for you right now, right?" Meixiu said to him during his break from practicing the movement technique.

"Unless I reveal myself, I don't think anybody will be able to find me."

"I guess, but there are also people looking for me since they think that by finding me, they'll find you, which is true."

"The only people who know of your identity and location are the Yu Family, Doctor Wang and Wang Xiuying, Xia Jingyi, and Chairman Zhao—And I guess the agency that was hired by the Yu Family," Yuan said.

"This might become a little troublesome, especially since there are some people who we definitely cannot trust to keep your identity hidden. What do you want to do, Meixiu? Do you want to move out? It'll become problematic when our doors get flooded with people asking about Player Yuan. We have the funds to do so as well."

Meixiu pondered for a moment before speaking, "Where can we go, though?"

"Furthermore, even if they find me, they won't know that you're Player Yuan, so I think it would be fine."

"I still think it would be better for us to move once we find a good place."

"Yes, I agree. But for now, let's just see how things play out."

"Okay."

With that decided, Yuan and Meixiu proceeded to spend the next few days just improving their cultivation base.

During these few days, the Cultivations' Association had appointed a new Chairman, who made a public apology regarding the actions of the previous Chairman.

One can imagine why the new Chairman felt the need to apologize, as he didn't want the mysterious Player Yuan to hold a grudge against the Cultivators' Association because of the last Chairman, which would be a big blow to them even though Player Yuan was only a single individual.

Although Player Yuan was only a single individual, his influence inside Cultivation Online was comparable to multiple large companies combined, and nobody knows the true extent of his powers.

One might argue that being influential inside a video game isn't that important, but when one considers how much Cultivation Online currently affects the world, one would understand why people value Player Yuan so much.

Ding!

Early in the morning, Meixiu received a message from Yu Rou that told her to make a call whenever she was available.

Meixiu then called Yu Rou the next moment since she was free.

"Did something happen?" Meixiu asked.

"Yes. I have decided to join a cultivation faction, so I will be leaving the Yu Family soon." Yu Rou said, dumbfounding Meixiu.

After all, she'd only told Yuan about her decision to leave the Yu Family during her visit.

"Y-You're leaving the Yu Family as well? Why?" Meixiu couldn't help but ask her.

"Well, for one, now that cultivation has become fully incorporated into our world, other talents won't be as valued. In fact, I haven't had to participate in any lessons for a long time now. This is probably my parents' way of telling me to give up on music and focus solely on cultivation."

"Furthermore, I don't think I can stop blaming myself for what happened to you and Brother Tian due to my affiliation with the Yu Family. Hopefully, leaving the Yu Family can relieve some of that guilt..." Yu Rou sighed.

Chapter 516 Eternal Lotuses

"Are you still worried about that? Neither Yuan nor I blame you for what happened— not even in the slightest." Meixiu said to her.

"I know, but it's just a feeling that I cannot shake off. Of course, I have other reasons why I want to leave the Yu Family— such as wanting to be independent like you and Brother Tian. I don't want to rely on the Yu Family forever, and I feel that if I remain in the family for any longer, I will never be able to leave."

After a moment of silence, Meixiu said, "I understand. Let me transfer you to Yuan so you can speak with him."

Meixiu then knocked on Yuan's room and said, "It's Yu Rou."

Yuan opened the door while wearing only his pants, his body soaked in sweat from exercising.

"Here you go..." Meixiu handed him the phone with a slightly rosy face.

"Good morning, Yu Rou." Yuan placed the phone on speakers then on his bed before speaking with her while he continued to exercise.

"You're exercising already? Don't push yourself too hard." Yu Rou said to him, as she could hear him exercising.

"Don't worry, I know when to stop," Yuan said.

"Anyways, I am calling to let you know that I have decided on a cultivation faction. I will be joining them next week. They're also in another city, so I will be moving out soon."

"Eh? Already?" Yuan stopped moving and expressed his surprise.

"I didn't think you'd leave so soon, and going to another city? How far are you traveling? What about this cultivation faction? What's their name?" Yuan bombarded her with questions.

"About 8,000 miles away, so I will be traveling pretty far."

"Eight thousand miles?! That's around 16 hours with a plane! Why are you going that far? Why can't you just join a cultivation faction that's already in this city?"

After all, it would only be more difficult for them to visit each other the further away they are from each other.

"Well, this cultivation faction is a little special, and even if it's a little far, I think it's worth it." Yu Rou said.

After a moment of silence, Yuan asked, "What's this cultivation faction called?"

"They are called Eternal Lotuses— it's a female-only cultivation faction that's led by the one and only White Lotus, who is a top player in Cultivation Online. They already have over a thousand talented cultivators, and they are a powerful faction and also one of the fastest-growing factions in the world."

"White Lotus?" Yuan recalled hearing this name before.

"White Lotus is a well-known player from a top 10 Legacy family. She is also a trustworthy individual according to my sources. I think it'll be fine if I go there."

"Furthermore, I won't be going there alone. I spoke with Xia Jingyi yesterday, and she agreed to come with me."

Knowing that Yu Rou won't be traveling alone made Yuan feel more relieved, but he was still worried.

After all, Yu Rou was only 16 years old.

"Brother, I know what you are thinking. I may be young, but I can take care of myself."

"I know you can... After all, you took care of me for many years. However, it's a brother's duty to worry about his sister, right?" Yuan said with a gentle smile on his face.

"Anyways, have you spoken to your parents about this yet?" He then asked.

"No... I haven't, nor do I plan on telling them since they will definitely refuse to let me go," she responded calmly.

"How long do you plan on staying there? In the Eternal Lotuses?"

"I don't know... But it's going to be at least a couple of years."

"Give me the address so that we can visit you in the future when we have the time."

"Of course, but I don't think they allow male visitors inside their place, so I will have to meet you somewhere else."

"That's fine."

Yuan and Yu Rou spoke to each other for many minutes until Yu Rou had to go.

"I will call you later, Brother."

"Okay."

After hanging up, Yuan asked Meixiu, "Do you think we can do a performance before Yu Rou leaves in a week? I don't care what kind of performance. Even a contest is okay as long as I get to play an instrument."

"You want to perform in public right now? That's a little risky, no?"

"I think it should be fine. I want to fulfill Yu Rou's dream a little before she leaves."

"Alright... I will try to do something about it."

"Thank you, Meixiu."

Yuan returned to his training shortly after, and Meixiu began looking for a place where he could perform.

Two days later, Meixiu found a place and said, "There's going to be a small piano contest in five days, and it's the earliest one I can find."

"Five days... Right when Yu Rou leaves, huh? Let's do it."

"I have already signed us up for it. It'll start at 8 AM in the morning, but we won't be on stage until 10 AM."

"Great. Now we just need to let Yu Rou know."

Meixiu then called Yu Rou.

"Yu Rou, I have a surprise for you. Can you come to this location before 10 AM in the morning?"

"10 AM? Why? What's going to happen in this place? Our flight is at 1 PM." Yu Rou asked.

"It's okay, you can go to the airport from that place. As for why... It's a surprise. Don't worry, it won't last long at all— a few minutes at most."

"Okay... I will be there." Yu Rou agreed.

"You won't regret it! I promise!"

After hanging up, Yuan and Meixiu began preparing for the small contest.

Meanwhile, Yu Rou called Xia Jingyi to let her know that they'll be leaving a little earlier than planned to make a pitstop before their flight.

And in the blink of an eye, five days passed.

Chapter 517 Approaching the Stage

Early in the morning, Yu Rou opened the drawers to her desk and retrieved two items— a yellow envelope and a white letter that she had just written last night.

Yu Rou placed the yellow envelope inside her large suitcase and the white letter on her desk.

After making sure that she had everything, she left the building and took a taxi to Xia Jingyi's living quarters, not even bothering to use her family limousine.

"Good morning, Yu Rou." Xia Jingyi greeted her at the door.

"Morning, Jingyi. Are you ready?"

"Yes, I am."

Yu Rou looked at her watch; it was 9 AM.

"We should arrive at the location my brother provided in 30 minutes. I wonder what he had planned for us."

"If you're really curious, you can look that place up and see if there are any events." Xia Jingyi suggested.

However, Yu Rou shook her head and said, "That's no good. My brother wanted to surprise me, so I will let him surprise me. It would no longer be a surprise if I know what to expect."

Xia Jingyi nodded, and after saying her goodbyes to her parents, she entered her family's limousine with Yu Rou.

"Please take care of our daughter, Yu Rou." Xia Jingyi's parents said to Yu Rou.

"Of course. I will make sure nothing happens to her! I should also take this chance to thank you for letting my brother stay in your apartments." Yu Rou patted her chest with a confident smile.

"You don't have to thank us. If anything, we should be the ones apologizing for allowing that incident to occur. We'll make sure to increase security in that apartment."

Yu Rou nodded, and she entered the car with Xia Jingyi while the driver packed their suitcases inside the car trunk.

Once they were prepared, the limousine began driving towards the location given by Yuan.

Meanwhile, Yuan and Meixiu approached the reception inside a large building.

"Hello, we're here to participate in the contest," Meixiu said to the receptionist, who was a little startled when she saw their appearance, as both of them were wearing masks.

"W-What is the name of the participant?" The receptionist then asked.

"Tian Yang of Divine Melody," she said.

"Please give me a moment to look through the system."

"I have confirmed your registration. I will check you in now. You will be called onto the stage at 10 AM. Here's your identification card. You can wait in the spectator area or wait in the back room."

After accepting his identification card, Yuan and Meixiu proceeded to the spectators' area, where hundreds of spectators were watching the current contestant playing the piano.

"It's been too long... I am starting to feel a little nervous..." Yuan said with a smile behind his mask.

"You'll be fine," Meixiu said.

The two of them proceeded to watch contestants take their turns at the piano, and because of their masks, they attracted quite the attention from the people around them.

Though, since masks weren't prohibited, nobody really approached them.

Around 9:40 AM, Yu Rou and Xia Jingyi pulled up at the location and left the car.

"This is..." Yu Rou looked at the large banner hanging above the building and immediately knew what was going on.

"It's a music contest... Why did your brother tell us to come here?" Xia Jingyi asked, as she wasn't aware of his recovery.

Yu Rou merely showed a gentle smile on her face, and she said, "Who knows. Let's go inside."

Upon reaching the receptionist, before they could even speak, the receptionist behind the desk recognized Yu Rou's face and spoke in an excited voice, "Aren't you Lady Yu Rou?! What are you doing here?!"

The people around them heard the name 'Yu Rou' and turned to look in their direction with interest.

"Yu Rou?! That music genius who won many international competitions?!"

"Hello, I am here to spectate the contest." Yu Rou said with a friendly smile on her face.

Because of her background, she was very famous within the music industry, hence why the receptionist immediately recognized her.

"S-Spectate the contest?" The receptionist was taken by surprise by her words.

Why would someone famous like Yu Rou come to witness some small music competition? It didn't make sense. After all, there was nobody famous playing today.

However, the receptionist didn't question her and quickly said, "Of course! Please follow me to the VIP seats."

The receptionist then led Yu Rou and Xia Jingyi to the VIP seats that were in front of the stage.

Their presence quickly attracted the spectators there, and even the contestant was affected by their presence.

"Isn't that Yu Rou from the Yu Family? What's a bigshot like her doing here?"

"Who knows... Maybe she's bored?"

"Speaking of Yu Rou, I was there to witness her last performance, and it was beyond amazing. I wonder when she'll do another performance. It's been a while since she performed, too."

The quiet spectators' area turned a little noisy with Yu Rou's appearance, and although Xia Jingyi wasn't as famous as Yu Rou, there were some people who recognized her there.

Time passed quickly.

The time was 10:05 AM.

"Our next contestant will be from the Divine Melody. Please welcome Tian Yang." The speakers announced after the last contestant got off the stage.

"Divine Melody? What company is that? I have never heard of them."

"Me neither. I also don't know of any Tian Yang. Perhaps it's a new company."

"Haha... Who would create a new music company at this time? They should've started a cultivation faction instead!"

Although it seemed like there was nobody interested in this unknown contestant, if one looked at Yu Rou's face right now, they would see pure excitement and anticipation.

A few moments later, the spectators there could see a figure wearing a black mask slowly approaching the stage from the spectators' area, and there was this unfathomable aura him that made the people there stop talking to focus on him.

Chapter 518 Tian Yang

Although nobody there besides Meixiu and Yu Rou knew the identity of the masked contestant, they could somehow tell that he was a professional just by the manner he walked onto the stage and how he sat behind the piano.

"Yu Rou, this person... He's very skilled." Xia Jingyi said with a serious expression on her face.

"I think so too." Yu Rou nodded, still pretending to be ignorant.

Once the atmosphere was completely silent, Yuan placed his hands on the piano keyboard and started playing the piano.

The audience felt chills going down their spine when they heard the first 10 notes being played, and their ears vibrated with bliss.

They have never heard or seen such a flawless performance before, nor did they expect to witness something this profound in such a small competition.

Yuan's performance continued to be played flawlessly for the next four minutes, playing the whole song without making a single mistake.

Every movement he made seemed to be made with elegance and grace, looking like he was dancing while playing the instrument.

The spectators quickly began speculating that Yuan was a professional disguised as a beginner to surprise them, but they were unable to guess his identity.

"Heavens... Who is this person?"

The judges there were left speechless by Yuan's performance. In fact, they only needed to listen to his performance for half a minute to be convinced that he was going to win this competition without anyone getting close.

The whole performance only lasted 4 minutes, but it felt like only a few seconds had passed for the spectators, as they were fully absorbed in his performance, feeling like they were in a dream-like state throughout the whole performance.

After playing his last note, Yuan stood up and turned to face the dazed audience before giving them a bow.

The audience remained silent for another moment before they exploded with cheering and admiration.

"That was amazing!"

"Play another song!"

"Encore!"

The judges agreed with the audience, and one of them said, "Contestant Tian Yang, can you do us a favor and play another song? You can pick the song. And don't worry, it won't affect your scores regardless of your performance."

Yuan pondered for a moment before nodding his head and returning to his seat behind the piano.

After taking a deep breath, Yuan began playing another song.

However, nobody in the audience recognized this song— nobody but Yu Rou.

Yu Rou's eyes widened with shock when she heard this song.

"Brother..." she muttered in a low voice, trying her best to not shed any tears in public.

The song being played by Yuan was a song he'd created for her when he was still actively playing for the Yu Family.

However, there weren't any good memories behind this song, as the day after he created this song, Yuan's body started to break.

This song didn't last long and only lasted half as long as the previous song, but it was so intensive and fast-paced that it sounded longer than the previous song, and there were more than twice as many notes in this song.

After finishing his second song, Yuan didn't stand up and waited for ten seconds before starting his third song.

Despite this, none of the judges or spectators complained. In fact, even the contestants there remained silent, as they knew that if they played after his performance, it would only make themselves look bad.

When she heard the third song, Meixiu could feel her heart throbbing faster and faster, as this was her favorite song, and memories began flowing inside her head.

Whenever she was sad and brought to tears by her training, Yuan would play this song for her before comforting her with a hug, and it would work every single time, allowing her to endure another day of training.

About three minutes later, Yuan stopped playing and stood up.

He then bowed to the audience for a second time.

The audience immediately erupted into a frenzy this time, and it was much louder than the previous cheering.

Yuan started leaving the stage a moment later, and when the judges saw this, they stopped him.

"W-Wait a minute, contestant Tian Yang!"

"What's the matter?" Yuan turned to look at them.

"Can you tell us a little more about yourself? Who taught you how to play the piano? How long have you been playing?" The judges asked him, as they wanted to obtain some information from him so that they could use that information to guess his identity.

Yuan then said, "I have been playing since I was young. As for my teachers... I had many teachers throughout my career— too much to name."

"You can tell us a few names if it's too many."

"I'm sorry, but I'd rather not." Yuan politely refused.

"Then can you tell us how old are you currently?" Another judge asked him.

"I am currently 18 years old, approaching 19," he said.

"Y-You're only 18 years old?!"

The judges were shocked to learn this information.

If this information was true, then one can only imagine how far he'll go when he's already this talented at his young age.

However, this raised more questions than answered.

Although there were many talented individuals at his age playing professionally in the music industry, the judges didn't know of any professional at Yuan's age with his level of talents— and this was true even for the older professionals, so does this mean he's actually a new pianist who's just stepping into the professional scene?

Where has he been this entire time? How can someone this talented remain as a nobody?

The judges proceeded to ask Yuan a few more questions, hoping to learn more about him, but Yuan skillfully answered their questions without giving them any information that would give away his identity.

The judges eventually gave up and allowed him to leave the stage.

Of course, the moment he left the stage, the spectators surrounded him for autographs even though this was his first appearance, as they were certain that he will become famous in the industry with his talents.

Chapter 519 Tian Yang 2

The situation got so bad that guards had to intervene.

After many minutes of struggling to get the spectators back into their seats, Yuan approached Yu Rou and said, "You must be Yu Rou from the Yu Family. I have heard a lot about you from my teachers. Do you have some time right now? I'd like to speak with you."

Yu Rou nodded with a calm expression on her face, "I do."

"Jingyi, you can come too." Yu Rou said to her.

"A-Are you sure?" Xia Jingyi asked.

"Yes, it's fine," Yuan confirmed.

Xia Jingyi nodded and followed them outside while feeling like she'd met with Tian Yang before.

Once Yuan left the place, the contestants were finally able to breathe properly, but none of them wanted to go on the stage anymore.

The judges understood their feelings and eventually decided to end the contest earlier than anticipated since nobody wanted to play the piano after Yuan's godlike performance.

And even if they were to play the piano, the results were obvious.

Once they were outside and in a secluded area, Yuan said, "What did you think of my performance? Was it like how you remembered?"

Yu Rou didn't say anything and immediately went for the hug, taking Xia Jingyi by surprise.

"Y-Yu Rou?" Xia Jingyi truly didn't expect Yu Rou to suddenly hug a stranger.

Or maybe she knew Tian Yang and had been acting like she didn't.

"Do you not recognize my voice?" Yuan turned to look at Xia Jingyi as he embraced Yu Rou.

Xia Jingyi's eyes widened with shock upon her realization.

"H-H-How?!"

One couldn't blame Xia Jingyi for not recognizing Yuan until now, as nobody would imagine that a cripple who couldn't move for many years would suddenly be able to move, much less play the piano flawlessly.

However, this explained everything. If it was Yuan, who was recognized as a once-in-a-lifetime genius, the flawless performance made perfect sense.

"It just happened, I guess."

"A-Are you really Yu Rou's brother...?" Xia Jingyi still held some doubt, as it was too hard to believe.

"Jingyi, do you think I would touch another man that's not my brother, much less hug him?" Yu Rou said to her as her arms wrapped around Yuan's body intimately.

"N-No..." Xia Jingyi shook her head.

"Then there's your answer. I know it's hard to believe, but it's true."

"..."

Xia Jingyi then watched in silence as Yu Rou and Yuan hug each other for a few more moments.

"I want us to stay like this forever, but unfortunately, we don't have much time here." Yu Rou said as she released him from her embrace.

"Since it's your decision, I won't try to convince you to stay. After all, you were the one who decided to take this path." Yuan said to her.

"Thank you for understanding, brother. I promise you that I will become a strong cultivator during our next visit."

Yuan smiled underneath his mask and said, "I look forward to when that day comes."

Yu Rou nodded and then turned to look at the masked figure standing behind Yuan.

"I already told you this before you left the Yu Family, but let me say this again. Please take care of my brother, Meixiu."

"I will," she responded in a calm voice.

Yuan then said, "And please take care of my sister, Jingyi."

"I'm afraid that I will be the one being taken care of..." Xia Jingyi said with a bashful smile.

Yuan shook his head and said, "It's because I know that you'll be with Yu Rou that I am not as worried about her. If she was going alone, I would probably be trying to convince her to stay now."

"You really have no trust in me, huh." Yu Rou sighed.

"You know that's not true." Yuan chuckled.

He then asked her, "Will you be playing Cultivation Online over there?"

Yu Rou nodded and said, "We'll be cultivating in Cultivation Online and the real world as a group. However, I won't be able to play with you as often since I have to be with the others."

"That's fine. As long as we can still meet each other in Cultivation Online." Yuan said, and he continued, "When you arrive at that place, try to log inside Cultivation Online. I have one last surprise for you."

"Alright. I will let you know when I will be available." Yu Rou nodded.

After talking to each other for some more, Yu Rou gave Yuan one more tight embrace before returning to the car with Xia Jingyi and heading to the airport.

"Goodbye, Meixiu, Brother Tian."

"Until next time, Yu Rou."

Once Yu Rou and Xia Jingyi left the scene, Yuan said to Meixiu, "Let's go home too."

"What about the contest results?" Meixiu asked.

"I don't really care about the results since I didn't come here for the reward," Yuan said.

"Okay, then let's go home."

They also returned home shortly after.

Meanwhile, Yuan's performance at the small contest was uploaded to the internet by one of the judges when they got their hands on the replay.

The video quickly acquired traction, especially within the musician circles.

[Who is this Tian Yang?! I have never heard of him before!]

[Does anyone have information on this genius?!]

[18 years old?! I don't believe it! How can someone so young play so flawlessly?!]

There were only two things that came to one's mind when one watched the video of Yuan's piano performance.

Awe and doubt.

They were in awe of Yuan's godlike talents and performance, but they also doubted his identity as an 18-year-old. After all, even the old experts who have decades of experience could not do so with such perfection.

Shortly after the video went public, countless families across the world began investigating Tian Yang, and they started with his company Divine Melody that was only recently created.

However, the owner of the company and its employers were all private information that cannot be found through normal means, so those with influence began making phone calls to people with authority and influence in hopes of finding more information about the Divine Melody and Tian Yang.

Chapter 520 White Envelope

"Dear! Look at this!"

Tang Lee stormed inside Yu Yong's room as he worked on the company.

"What happened?" Yu Yong looked at her with his eyebrows raised. It has been a very long time since he has last seen his wife act so excited.

Tang Lee placed her laptop in front of him and played the video of Yuan's performance as Tian Yang.

"T-This is—!" Yu Yong stood up from shock after watching the performance for merely a couple of seconds.

"This is a genius! A true genius! Who is this masked man?!" Yu Yong quickly asked, but his eyes were still captivated by Yuan's flawless performance.

"His name is Tian Yang, and he's currently with a new company named Divine Melody. However, nobody knows much if anything about this individual or the company itself since they both showed up out of the blue." Tang Lee explained to him.

"Nobody? How is that possible? Who's the owner of the company?"

"There are already plenty of people asking around, but nobody seems to have any idea."

"Nobody? I don't believe it!"

Yu Yong immediately retrieved his cell phone and started making calls to many prominent people within the industry.

"Mister Nick, have you heard about a company called Divine Melody?" Yu Yong asked.

"Haha... Mister Yu... Trust me, I have heard this name so much today that I am starting to go crazy. You're calling me to ask about Tian Yang, right? Unfortunately, I have no information on him."

"I see..."

Yu Yong quickly hung up and proceeded to call another person.

"Mister Yu, if you're calling me about the Divine Melody or Tian Yang, I have no clue." The person who picked up the phone gave it to him straight.

"Not even you know about them?"

"Unfortunately, whoever made the company knew very well what they were doing and kept everything tightly sealed. Unless we find out who helped created this company, we may never know more about them."

"Have you tried hacking the system?" Yu Yong then asked.

"Trust me, you're not the first person to ask me that, and if it was successful, I wouldn't be so empty-handed right now."

"I understand. Keep me updated if you find anything." Yu Yong said before hanging up.

Yu Yong proceeded to call many more people, but after an hour of effort, he still knew nothing about the company Divine Melody or Tian Yang.

After pondering, Yu Yong decided to call Mister Johnson, who was highly reputable when it comes to intelligence and this kind of subject.

"Master Yu, let me guess... This is about the Divine Melody."

Yu Yong could already guess the results after hearing Mister Johnson's opening sentence.

"What do you know?" Yu Yong still asked.

"Nothing... as for right now. We have already received a dozen requests to find information on the company and Tian Yang, but we have nothing as of this moment."

"Is there no way to contact this company?" Yu Yong asked.

"There is a way— one way. The company Divine Melody has one contact info— an email address. This is our only lead, and we have already tried to contact them, so we're just waiting for a response right now."

"What's the email address? I will try to reach out to them myself, and I swear to god if you ask me to pay for—"

"Don't worry, I won't ask for anything. Here's the email address..."

After receiving the email address from Mister Johnson, Yu Yong hung up and opened his laptop.

"No luck?" Tang Lee returned to his room sometime later and asked him.

"Nope. Whoever created the company seems to have expected this situation and has extensive knowledge regarding how things work so we cannot dig out any information about them. However, not all is lost, since we have an email address to contact the company."

"What if that doesn't work?" Tang Lee asked.

"Then we can only wait until they reveal themselves or make a mistake." Yu Yong said.

Meanwhile, back inside their apartment, Meixiu stared at her laptop with her eyebrows raised.

After participating in the contest, their Divine Melody company email suddenly received over a thousand emails, and they only kept on coming.

"Did something happen?" Yuan noticed her expression during his training and decided to ask her.

She nodded and explained it to him.

"Ah, that's normal. They're most likely trying to recruit me into their company." Yuan said, as he has plenty of experience with this even though he was already working for the Yu Family.

"Yuan, look at this email." Meixiu pointed to a certain email on the laptop screen.

Yuan looked at it with his divine sense and laughed, "The Yu Family, too? Well, I am not surprised at all. That's how they found me in the first place — because of a video that had gone viral."

"Are you going to answer to any of them?" Yuan then asked her.

"No... I think it would be better if we ignore them for now."

"I think so too." Yuan nodded, agreeing with her.

That afternoon, in Yu Rou's living quarters, one of the servants knocked on her door, completely unaware that she'd left the family.

"Young Lady, you have been summoned by the Masters." The servant said, patiently waiting outside her door.

When nobody responded a minute later, the servant knocked on her doors again and repeated.

"Young Lady, you have been summoned by the Masters."

After knocking a couple more times, the servant eventually decided to enter the room in case Yu Rou was playing Cultivation Online.

"Excuse me, Young Lady."

The servant opened the door, but to her surprise, the room was completely empty.

"Eh? Where's the Young Lady?"

The servants are usually aware of her schedule, and Yu Rou would always let someone know if she'd gone somewhere outside. However, there was no news from her today, and even her limousine was parked outside, so where did she go?

After entering the room, the servant noticed the white envelope on the desk.

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 521 Bring Her Back!

"Master! Master! We have an emergency!"

A servant working in the Yu Family's headquarters urgently knocked on Yu Yong's doors.

"Enter!" Yu Yong shouted from inside the room with a bad feeling in his guts.

Once the servant entered the room, he asked her, "What happened?"

"I-It's about the Young Lady! She has left the family!" The servant exclaimed.

"What?"

It took a minute for Yu Yong to process those words.

Once he eventually digested the situation, he immediately frowned and said, "What the heck are you talking about? Why would Yu Rou suddenly leave the family?"

"T-This letter was left inside the Young Lady's room when someone went to notify her of your summoning!" The servant quickly placed the white envelope that had been opened on Yu Yong's desk before taking a few steps back.

Yu Yong stared at the white envelope that emitted an ominous aura for a few moments before picking it up and reading the contents inside.

[Dear father and mother, I have decided to leave the Yu Family to join the cultivation faction Eternal Lotuses. You may be wondering why I made this decision. It's simple. I disapprove of how you all treated Brother Tian and Meixiu, and I cannot get rid of this guilt as the daughter of the Yu Family that mistreated them. Therefore, I have decided to leave.]

[Don't even bother trying to convince me to return, because I won't return even if it's the last thing I do. If you're thinking about forcing me back like how you tried to force Meixiu back into the family just to sell her to Chairman Zhao, don't bother— unless you want to offend the entire Eternal Lotuses that's the number one power within their city.]

[However, as much as I despise the family, I must thank you for giving me life and allowing me to meet with Brother Tian.]

Yu Yong read the letter while his entire body trembled from anger.

"What an ungrateful child!" Yu Yong slammed the desk before him, creating a crack on the surface and knocking down the stacked documents to the floor.

"Call my wife here!" Yu Yong turned to look at the servant and spoke in a commanding voice.

"Right away, Master!"

The servant immediately rushed outside and went to notify Tang Lee of the situation.

Tang Lee arrived before Yu Yong a few minutes later with a deep frown on her face.

"Is it true— that Yu Rou left the family to join some cultivation faction?" Tang Lee asked Yu Yong who reluctantly nodded his head.

"Then why are you still sitting there?! Hurry up and bring her back!" Tang Lee shouted.

Unlike Yuan who was adopted into the family, Yu Rou was a true descendant of the Yu Family, meaning that she was worth much more to the Yu Family despite being much less talented than Yuan.

Furthermore, Yu Rou was their only child, meaning that if she leaves, they will have nobody to continue the Yu Family unless they give birth to another child.

Even if she was less talented than Yuan, she could at least fulfill her duties as a child of the Yu Family and continue their legacy.

However, that was much easier said than done, especially since Tang Lee was already past that age.

While she could still give birth, it would come with huge risks to her and the unborn baby's health, so unless absolutely have to, it wasn't an option.

"You have no idea. This situation isn't as easy as you think!" Yu Yong shouted back at her.

"Yu Rou went to join the Eternal Lotuses! Although they're not as powerful as the Cultivators' Association, their influence is on par with them! We cannot simply force her to return like Meixiu!"

"Eternal Lotuses? I have never heard of them." Tang Lee said.

"Look them up. They're a female-only cultivation faction led by White Lotus, a famous Cultivation Online player who belongs to a Legacy Family in the top 10. There are also many descendants from the Legacy Family within their ranks. We cannot afford to offend them."

"Then what are we supposed to do?"

"There is nothing we can do right now except give Yu Rou some time to calm her head. Once she's calm, we will try to convince her to return. Otherwise, we'll have to give up on her and make another child." Yu Yong said.

"That's easy for you to say since you don't have to carry a baby around for 9 months, nor do you have to do any of the hard labor! What about my feelings?! I am no longer at the age where it's safe to conceive!" Tang Lee shouted.

"Calm down. This is only the worst-case scenario. There are definitely other methods, but for now, let's just wait and see what happens." Yu Yong said.

"Hmph!" Tang Lee didn't say anything and stormed outside the room in angry steps.

Time passed quickly, and the following day, Yu Rou and Xia Jingyi arrived at their destination after their plane landed.

Once they left the airport, Yu Rou looked around until she found an old woman holding a sign with their names, and she approached this woman.

"Hello, I am Yu Rou, and this is Xia Jingyi."

"It's nice to finally meet you, Lady Yu Rou and Lady Xia Jingyi. You can call me Grandma Yin. I am in charge of bringing the newcomers to the Eternal Lotuses' headquarters and a few other things."

Grandma Yin then showed them to the car that was a white limousine.

Once they were prepared to leave, Grandma Yin sat in the back with Yu Rou and Xia Jingyi while the driver, who was also a female, drove to the Eternal Lotuses' headquarters.

"Allow me to give you a brief introduction to the Eternal Lotuses even though I am sure that you are already aware of such information. It's mostly for formalities."

Yu Rou nodded, and Grandma Yin proceeded to explain to them about the Eternal Lotuses.

Chapter 522 White Lotus

"As you should know by now, the Eternal Lotuses is a female-only cultivation faction created by White Lotus, who belongs to a Legacy Family ranked in the top 10. She is also a top player inside Cultivation Online who has recently managed to reach peak Spirit Warrior. As for her real-life cultivation, she has achieved 1st level Spirit Warrior just three days ago."

"Wow! 1st level Spirit Warrior!" Yu Rou and Xia Jingyi expressed awe upon hearing White Lotus' impressive cultivation speed.

Compared to her, they were still in the mid-levels as a Spirit Apprentice, and they were considered geniuses by many people.

Of course, compared to Yuan, she was still lacking a little, but if Yu Rou compared everyone with Yuan, the world would look a lot less interesting and a lot more lackluster.

"Although the Eternal Lotuses has only recently been made public, it was actually created shortly after Cultivation Online became a thing."

"Oooh, I didn't know that." Yu Rou said.

"Me neither." Xia Jingyi said afterward.

"Now let me tell you about what will happen once we arrive at the headquarters. Although we have already accepted both of you into Eternal Lotuses, you're actually still required to partake in a simple test. If you've gone to the Cultivators' Association to receive your cultivation card, then you should already know what to expect. It's mostly to gauge your talents and to see how we should train you." Grandma Yin said.

And she continued, "There are a few physical tests, but those are mostly just to see your strength and test your limits."

"Ummm... Can we fail these tests? What happens if we do?" Xia Jingyi suddenly asked.

"It's fine if you fail these tests. It just means that we will need to train you more than others so you can catch up." Grandma Yin responded with a calm smile on her face.

"Once you're officially accepted into the Eternal Lotuses, you will live within the headquarters and be assigned a leader that is usually in charge of about a hundred people. If you wish to leave the headquarters to go outside for whatever reasons, you must speak to an elder or your leader."

"This is mostly for your safety, as our headquarters are situated a little far from society."

"What about visitors? Can we have visitors? I have a brother, and he told me that he'd visit me from time to time." Yu Rou asked.

"Visitors are only allowed inside the headquarters if they're female, but they must be screened. If they're a man, like your brother, or they failed the screening, you can only meet them outside the headquarters."

"I thought so..." Yu Rou sighed.

"There will also be rules that must be followed as a fellow member of the faction, but we'll get into more of that once we actually arrive."

About three hours later, the limousine stopped right outside an unknown wilderness.

"We're here."

Grandma Yin said to them.

Once they got out of the car and retrieved their luggage, Grandma Yin led the two girls inside the wilderness, where they continued to walk for another half an hour before they arrive before a large gate that was guarded by a group of female guards.

"Welcome back, Elder Yin." The guards greeted Grandma Yin with respect.

"I have returned with the newcomers," she said to them.

"Elder Yin... You know the leader doesn't like it when you go outside for these minor tasks that could be done by the others..." One of the guards said to her.

Grandma Yin laughed and said, "I was bored."

"Anyways, let's take our newcomers to the welcoming area."

Once the gates were opened, Grandma Yin led Yu Rou and Xia Jingyi inside the place and then to a spacious area that had around 40 other people gathered, all of them newcomers just like them.

After waiting for another hour for a couple more people to show up, a beautiful young woman with white hair appeared before the newcomers.

When the newcomers saw this beautiful young woman, they all greeted her with respect.

"Good morning, Senior White Lotus."

'That's White Lotus?' Xia Jingyi looked at her unique white hair with interest, as this was her first time seeing her in person.

It was the same for Yu Rou, but she knew how White Lotus looked beforehand due to the internet.

"My name is Bai Lianhua or White Lotus. I'd prefer it if you addressed me with the former while we're in the real world and the latter whenever we're inside Cultivation Online." Bai Lianhua said to them in a gentle voice that didn't fit her seemingly cold expression.

"I will speak with you all again later, but for now, let's get your living quarters situated. And since many of you have just experienced a long journey, we will be starting the examinations tomorrow. With that being said, you're not allowed to wander the place without supervision since you're still not part of the Eternal Lotuses. If you're caught sneaking around, we'll immediately send you home."

After saying a couple of sentences, Bai Lianhua turned around and disappeared.

"Senior Bai is really cool..."

"Right? I think I am in love..."

The newcomers were definitely in awe of Bai Lianhua's overwhelming presence.

Sometime later, the ladies that came from all over the world were led to the living quarters and were assigned their room.

Everybody had to share a room with another individual, and since Yu Rou came with Xia Jingyi, they were automatically assigned to be in the same room, which was exactly what they wanted.

"We will call you tomorrow when it's time to do the examinations. Until then, you're free to do whatever you want with the exception of roaming. If you wish to go somewhere, you can speak with a member wearing this white uniform, and there will always be someone guarding outside."

The members instructed the newcomers.

Once that was done, the newcomers retired inside the room for the rest of the day.

Chapter 523 Gif

"Wow, this place is bigger than I'd expected." Xia Jingyi said as she looked around the room that had two bedrooms, a living room, a bathroom, a kitchen, and even a small backyard.

"It feels like we're studying aboard as exchange students." Yu Rou smiled.

"Right? I was thinking the same thing!"

"What should we do now?" Xia Jingyi asked.

Yu Rou pondered for a moment before speaking, "Since we have the whole day to ourselves, I will use this time to meet with Brother Tian in Cultivation Online just like I'd promised him."

Yu Rou then unpacked her luggage, retrieving the console.

"Can I join you?" Xia Jingyi asked.

"Of course. I don't see why you can't." Yu Rou nodded.

Once everything was set up, Yu Rou called Meixiu to tell them that they'd arrived safely and will be entering Cultivation Online shortly.

"Although it's morning here, it should be nighttime where you are right now, right?"

"Yes. We were just getting ready to sleep, but I will let Yuan know."

Meixiu then knocked on Yuan's door and told him about Yu Rou.

"Hello? Yu Rou? Are you going to enter Cultivation Online in a bit? I will meet you there." Yuan said to her.

"Sorry for the inconvenience. I know it's late over there." Yu Rou said.

"Don't worry, this isn't my first time staying up late." Yuan chuckled.

"Then I will see you in a bit alongside Jingyi."

"Alright."

After hanging up the phone, Yu Rou and Xia Jingyi logged into Cultivation Online and waited for Yuan and Meixiu to appear.

Meixiu appeared a few minutes later, but Yuan was nowhere to be seen.

"Where's my brother?" Yu Rou asked Meixiu.

"He's coming here. He left the city for a moment recently to do something." Meixiu explained to her.

"Okay."

Sometime later, Yuan returned to the city and met up with the others.

"Where's Feng Feng and the others?" Yu Rou asked him.

"Oh, I told them to explore the Lower Heavens without me since I won't be active for god-knows-how-long," he said.

"I see... Then let's go somewhere more private so we can talk." Yu Rou suggested.

They proceeded to rent a room in a random hotel for some privacy.

Once they were all seated, Yu Rou began speaking, "Let me tell you about our journey first."

"Sure." Yuan nodded.

Yu Rou talked about their flight, the food they had during the flight, their landing, and their meeting with Grandma Yin and White Lotus. She also talked about their new living quarters and some information about the Eternal Lotuses.

"What do you think, brother? Are you still worried?" Yu Rou asked him afterward.

Yuan smiled and said, "Judging by what you've told me, the Eternal Lotuses does sound like a safe place."

"What about the Yu Family? Have they tried to contact you since you left the family?"

Yu Rou shook her head, "No, they haven't contacted me just yet. Maybe they still don't know about my departure. Or they know but don't care enough to contact me."

"I think it's better if they don't contact you." Yuan then said.

"I think so too." Yu Rou chuckled.

"What about you, brother? How have things been since the contest?"

"Well... We've been receiving a lot of emails since then. In fact, we even got one from the Yu Family. We haven't read any of them, but we can imagine what they want from us." Yuan said.

"That's only to be expected with your level of performance. It will only become worse, you know?" Yu Rou said.

"Yes, I know."

After talking to each other for some time, Yu Rou asked, "Brother, what surprises do you have for me? I think I have been patient enough."

Yuan smiled and said, "Honestly, I wanted to save this surprise until you're ready to use it, or at least during a more proper setting."

He then retrieved a beautiful fan from his storage ring and offered it to her.

"Here. It's an upgrade to your current weapon. It's called the Dragon Fan, and it's an Earth-grade treasure."

Yuan finally handed Yu Rou the treasure he'd gotten from the Dragon Essence Temple.

Yu Rou accepted the beautiful fan with a speechless expression on her face.

"T-Thank you..." Yu Rou muttered after a long moment of silence.

"It's nothing much, but I hope you like it."

Yu Rou then jumped off her seat and into Yuan's embrace.

"Thank you, brother! I will definitely treasure this fan— as well as the old one! Forever!" Yu Rou said in an excited voice.

Yuan then turned to look at Xia Jingyi with an apologetic smile on his face, "I'm sorry, but I don't have a gift for you now. However, I will definitely find one for you in the future."

Xia Jingyi shook her hand and her head at the same time and said, "It's okay, you don't need to worry about me. I don't deserve any gift, anyways."

"That's not true. I will be relying on you to make sure that Yu Rou doesn't get herself into any trouble, so it's only natural I pay you back."

"I won't get into any trouble!" Yu Rou refuted.

"Sure, sure..." Yuan laughed.

They proceeded to spend a couple of hours just talking to each other since it might be some time before they can see each other again.

"Alright, brother. I have taken up enough of your time. Go get some sleep. You too, Meixiu." Yu Rou suddenly said to them.

Yuan nodded and said, "Remember. If you get into any trouble, let us know."

"And you'll come to rescue me like a prince on a white horse, right? I know, brother." Yu Rou chuckled.

"I am serious, Yu Rou. You're very important to me. I do not wish anything bad to happen to you... or Jingyi." Yuan said with a solemn expression on his face.

"I promise." Yu Rou nodded.

After saying their goodbyes and giving each other a hug, Yu Rou gave Yuan a kiss on the cheeks before they eventually logged off to do their own things.

Chapter 524 Eternal Lotuses

After logging off, Yuan and Meixiu went to sleep.

Meanwhile, Yu Rou and Xia Jingyi tried to get used to their new living quarters.

Once the sky darkened, someone knocked on their doors.

"Here's your dinner for tonight." A member of the Eternal Lotuses handed them two trays of food.

"Don't worry, this is only for today and tomorrow. You'll get to eat in an actual cafeteria once you become a member." The member then said to them.

After accepting the food, Yu Rou and Xia Jingyi cleared it with haste, as they were getting a little hungry since they haven't eaten since leaving the plane.

The member returned an hour later to collect their empty plates.

That night, Yu Rou and Xia Jingyi fell asleep with ease.

The following morning, some members of the Eternal Lotuses gathered the newcomers and led them to the testing site, where they tested the newcomers their cultivation talents and their body limits.

Although there were almost no requirements to join the Eternal Lotuses besides being a certain cultivation level, the newcomers were required to partake in this exam.

Fortunately for the newcomers, failing the exams didn't mean they'll be barred from joining the faction, but it meant that they'll have to put in more effort than the others, as they'll be training separately from the others.

The examination took nearly the entire day, and at the end of the day, Bai Lianhua reappeared before them with the results in the form of a piece of paper.

"There are many ranks within the Eternal Lotuses. From the lowest to the highest— Green Lotus, Blue Lotus, Yellow Lotus, Red Lotus, and lastly, Violet Lotus. If you'd acquired above 80 points in the examination, you'll start out as a Blue Lotus. If you scored below 80 points, you will start at the lowest, Green Lotus."

"There really isn't much of a difference between each rank between the Green Lotus and the Yellow Lotus, so you don't have to worry about being treated differently. The only thing different about each rank will be your training schedule. Everyone will receive fair treatment, meaning that regardless of your rank, you'll receive the same support as your fellow sisters who may have a lower or higher rank."

"However, that doesn't mean you can ignore seniority within the ranks. And in order to incentivize you to increase your position within the faction, I will be allowing those who reach the rank of Red Lotus to train a Heaven-rank cultivation technique and those who reach Violet Lotus to learn a Divine-rank cultivation technique— the same one that I am currently cultivating."

The newcomers were shocked to learn this information, as they weren't aware that someone else besides Player Yuan had acquired a Divine-rank cultivation technique.

After all, the world announcement only lets the players know of the first person to obtain a certain rank and not the others, so unless one announced it, nobody would know about it.

"As for everyone else, you will be allowed to cultivate using an Earth-rank cultivation technique. Of course, this isn't mandatory. If you're satisfied with your current cultivation technique, you may continue cultivating with it." Bai Lianhua said to them.

And she continued, "Now allow me to talk about the rules."

"There are very few rules within the Eternal Lotuses compared to the other factions, but we take these rules very seriously."

"One, you are not allowed to harm another member in any way unless you're both sparring against each other during an official match or during practice. Depending on the severity, you will be demoted or receive fewer resources for a certain amount of time. If severe enough, we might even kick you out of the faction."

"Two, you are not to leak any information you learn from this place outside. What happens inside this place stays inside. Once again, depending on the severity and information you leaked, you will be punished accordingly."

"Three, you will not do anything that will harm or tarnish the faction's reputation. Depending on the situation, we'll punish you accordingly."

"Four, you will listen to your seniors' orders as long as it's a lawful order."

"Last but not least, you will not betray the faction or any of its members in any fashion. If you're caught doing so... getting kicked out of the faction will be the least of your worries."

"That's all I have for you. You will learn more about the faction and its members as you live with us. Training begins tomorrow morning after breakfast which starts at sunrise and ends 2 hours later."

"Goodnight, Senior Bai!" The new members said to her.

After Bai Lianhua left the scene, one of the members wearing a uniform with red lotuses on it said to them, "Before you all retire for the night, you need to receive your uniforms."

"If you've scored above 80 points today, stand on the right, and if you've scored below, stand on the left."

Yu Rou then made her way to the right side whilst Xia Jingyi, who missed 80 points by only 3 points, stood on the left.

Once everyone was in line, they followed the Red Lotus member to receive their uniforms.

Every member received three pairs of uniforms.

"You only really need two pairs of uniforms since you'll have your uniforms washed every day, but just in case you destroy one, you're given a third. If you're ever down to just two uniforms, ask for another one."

"Also, Senior Sister Bai didn't mention this, but if you intend on leaving the faction for whatever reason, you must speak with her before you're allowed to do so. Though I don't understand why anyone would want to leave this paradise."

"If you cannot tell already, compared to the other factions, we're quite lenient and very fair towards our members as long as they don't do anything stupid."

"However, don't take advantage of Senior Sister Bai's kindness, because if you anger her... Let's just say you don't want to see her angry."

Sometime later, Yu Rou and the others returned to their rooms with their new uniforms.

After a quick shower and dinner, they went to sleep and prepared themselves for training tomorrow.

Chapter 525 Once a Week

Early in the morning before sunrise, Yu Rou and Xia Jingyi left their rooms after washing their face.

Yu Rou was already used to waking up this early in the morning as a Yuan's caretaker, so she wasn't bothered by it.

Xia Jingyi, however, had struggled to wake up. If it wasn't for Yu Rou, who pulled her blanket from her bed, she wouldn't have woken up.

"Thank you for waking me up, Sister Rou... It's only the first day of training and I am already troubling you..." Xia Jingyi sighed as they made their way to the cafeteria.

"Don't mention it."

A few minutes later, they arrived before a 4-story tall building that was the size of a mini-mall.

"T-This is the cafeteria...?" Xia Jingyi looked up at the building with a dazed look on her face.

Yu Rou looked at the map given to them last night and nodded, "This should be the right place."

"Look, there are plenty others coming to this place. We are definitely in the right place." Yu Rou added.

"This place is just a small city in the middle of the wilderness... I wonder how long did it take them to build this place..." Xia Jingyi wondered out loud.

"Probably not long based on what Grandma Yin told us about this place."

"Anyways, let's go inside and see what they have."

The two of them entered the building a few moments later, and to their surprise, there were food stores on every single floor with at least 6 unique stores and restaurants on each floor.

"I was just thinking to myself how life will be for us when the nearest city is 3 hours away. I guess this answers it." Yu Rou mumbled in a low voice.

With this many restaurants and variety of foods, they definitely won't get bored of the food here anytime soon.

"If the other places are anything like this, I wouldn't mind living here forever," Xia Jingyi said.

The two of them proceeded to spend a couple of minutes looking for a restaurant to eat at.

They finished eating in half an hour and used their remaining time to look around the place.

Once it was almost time for training, Yu Rou and Xia Jingyi went separate ways since they were of different ranks, meaning they trained differently.

Meanwhile, 8,000 miles away inside Yuan's apartment, Yuan just finished his daily routine and prepared to wash himself.

"Yuan, are you sure you don't need any help? How are you washing your back?" Meixiu asked him before he entered the bathroom.

"Uh... It's a little difficult, but I can manage," he said.

"You know you don't have to do everything yourself. I know you want to rely on yourself now that you can finally move, but you should rely on others as well. At this rate, I will have nothing else to do besides cooking and cleaning the apartment, but who knows when you'll take that away from me too." Meixiu said in a sighing voice.

Yuan stopped to ponder for a moment.

"I am still technically your caretaker, Yuan. Let me assist you like I was trained. You can do everything else yourself. After all, I don't want to feel like I'd trained for nothing..."

Hearing her words, Yuan said to her, "Sorry, I haven't taken your feelings into consideration. Can you please help me wash my back?"

"Of course." Meixiu quickly responded.

They entered the bathroom together a few moments later.

"Take a seat," Meixiu said to him.

Yuan nodded and sat on a small bathroom chair.

Meixiu then rinsed his body with water before rubbing his back with her soapy hands.

Once his back was covered in soap, Meixiu asked him, "Shall I wash the front too?"

"If you don't mind," he said.

"I don't," she responded and walked to the front before squatting down.

A moment later, she started rubbing her soft hands on his refined body.

Starting from the top then moving straight to his legs, Meixiu washed every inch of his body.

Once there was only a single area left, Meixiu cleared her throat and asked, "D-Do you want me to wash that part too?"

Meixiu expected Yuan to refuse, but to her surprise, Yuan repeated, "If you don't mind."

Meixiu took a deep breath and started washing his cute snake.

However, that cute snake quickly woke up and turned into a ferocious dragon.

Seeing this, Meixiu asked him, "H-Have you relieved this part recently?"

"To tell you the truth, I have tried to do it by myself, even mimicking your movements, but I can't get it to work. It just doesn't feel the same," he said in a sighing voice.

"I understand... Then allow me to do it for you. And don't you dare use divine sense while I am doing this..." Meixiu said in a bashful voice, and she began relieving him.

Yuan's body quickly started trembling with delight from Meixiu's skillful techniques, feeling a certain sensation that he couldn't replicate by himself for some reason.

A few minutes later, Yuan released his stress all over the floor.

"According to my research, a man should relieve himself at least daily, which comes with certain health benefits. If you want, I can help you every day." Meixiu said to him as she washed the sticky white stuff away with the showerhead.

"E-Every day...?" Yuan hesitated this time.

"If that's too much, we can do it once every other day— or even once a week," she said.

"Once a week sounds good enough."

"I understand. Then in addition to washing your body, I will help you relieve your stress once a week." Meixiu said.

"Okay, but you don't have to help wash my body every time I want to rinse my body after sweating from my exercise."

"Then I will help you whenever you take your last shower for the day."

"Okay," he nodded in agreement.

And thus, their life continued in this manner for the next two weeks, with Yuan spending most of his day training his body while Meixiu cultivated normally and did the housework.

Before they were aware, it has been almost a month since Yuan visited the Cultivators' Association, meaning that it was about time for him to visit the Spirit Masters he'd met at that time to learn more about cultivation and their history.

Chapter 526 Taking the Airplane

"You want to go like this?" Meixiu spoke as she watched Yuan retrieve his wheelchair before sitting on it.

"Yes, I will disguise myself once I arrive at that place," he nodded.

"I guess that makes sense."

"Will you be able to carry the luggage as well?" Yuan then asked.

"Yes, I will be fine," Meixiu responded in a calm voice as she carried a massive backpack on her back that looked incredibly heavy.

Despite its frightening appearance, the backpack mostly had clothes and some other light objects, so it wasn't actually that heavy— not that it would matter to Meixiu, who could lift a car with her bare hands and without breaking a sweat.

Since they don't know when they'll return, Meixiu packed a little more clothes than usual.

Of course, if they needed anything, they had plenty of money to buy them.

Once they were prepared, Meixiu left the apartment with Yuan and took a taxi to the airport.

Meixiu showed their tickets that had been purchased beforehand to the worker at the airport.

"F-First-class..."

The worker was surprised to see two youngsters riding first-class that would normally cost tens of thousands of dollars.

Meixiu then handed her large backpack to the worker so that they could put it on the plane for them.

After checking in, Meixiu took Yuan to the terminal with their flight.

"The flight should be here in an hour," she said to Yuan after sitting down.

"Okay."

Time passed slower than usual while they waited for the plane, but it eventually arrived, and they were the first onboard due to their first-class ticket.

Normally, if one were to ride commercial or even business-class, they would only get seats, but for Yuan and Meixiu flying first-class, they got a whole room to themselves. The room didn't have much space, but it had a bed and a bathroom. Of course, the most important thing was their privacy, as they didn't have to deal with the other passengers.

Once they entered their room, Yuan stood up from his wheelchair and stretched his body.

"It's been a while since I last sat in that position for so long... My body is feeling stiff from it." He sighed.

"How long is the flight again?" Yuan asked Meixiu after taking a seat on the bed.

"26 hours..."

"It's even longer than Yu Rou's flight? Heavens..."

"We can go back home now if you want..." Meixiu said in a slightly joking voice.

"After coming all the way here? I'd rather not."

The plane started moving about half an hour after they boarded it.

During their flight, Yuan would lay on the bed and read the magazines provided by the plane.

Since they were in the air and the plane was quite shaky, it made cultivation very difficult, so they didn't even bother with it.

The flight attendants would knock on their door every few hours to provide them with luxurious food that was expected from first-class.

If they needed anything to drink, they only needed to call the flight attendants back with the press of a button.

Obviously, this wasn't Yuan or Meixiu's first time flying in an airplane, especially Yuan, who was used to flying all around the world to play the instrument for the Yu Family.

Eventually, it was time to sleep, but they encountered a problem— there was only one bed in their room.

Although the bed was more than enough to fit the both of them, this would be their first time actually sharing a bed.

"Are you not going to sleep?" Yuan asked her as he laid on one side of the bed in a casual manner.

"You don't mind sharing the bed?" Meixiu asked.

"Why would I? Or did you expect me to tell you to sleep on the floor?"

"No..."

Meixiu quickly gave up and got onto the bed with him.

Yuan quickly fell asleep, but Meixiu was struggling to do so with Yuan being so close to her.

'Why am I so nervous? Nothing will happen even if we sleep on the same bed, and we have already done things much worse than sharing a bed...'

Meixiu eventually managed to convince herself that it wasn't that much of a deal sharing a bed with Yuan.

However, when she woke up the next day, she would find one of Yuan's hands groping her breast.

Of course, Yuan was still asleep, being completely unaware of his actions.

After her initial shock, Meixiu merely shook her head and gently removed his hands from her chest without making a big deal out of it.

Yuan woke up shortly afterward.

"Good morning, Meixiu," he said to her.

"Good morning," she pretended the accident never happened.

"How long has it been since we left?" Yuan asked.

Meixiu looked at the time and said, "We have another 10 hours."

"I see..."

And for the remainder of the last 10 hours, Yuan would practice his divine sense by using it to look around the airplane until he was exhausted and needed to recover.

Once he recovered, Yuan would use his divine sense and repeat the next steps.

"Hmm? What are they doing inside the bathroom?" Yuan accidentally peeked inside the bathroom and found two passengers— one male and one female— doing some weird stuff in the bathroom that had barely any space.

"What are you talking about?" Meixiu asked him since he spoke out loud just now.

Yuan proceeded to explain what he was witnessing with his divine sense.

Meixiu's face immediately flushed with redness after hearing the details and realizing what Yuan was watching.

"S-Stop watching them! It's rude to intrude on their privacy!" Meixiu quickly said to him.

"Sorry, but I have never seen anything like that before, so I was kind of distracted by it." Yuan retracted his divine sense the next moment, yet the scene he'd just witnessed was still clear inside his head.

Meixiu released a profound sigh afterward, silently hoping to herself that Yuan doesn't ask her for more details about what he'd just witnessed.

Chapter 527 Helicopter Service

Ding!

"We will be arriving at Yang City in two hours."

An announcer spoke on the speaker shortly after Yuan stopped using his divine sense.

"Only two hours left, huh? I cannot wait." Yuan laid on the bed, feeling like it's been forever since he last breathed fresh air.

And for the last two hours, Yuan decided to order the entire menu available on the airplane and indulged himself in their food.

Two hours later, the plane began descending back to the ground.

Once they landed, Yuan took a seat in the wheelchair and waited until Meixiu pushed him outside.

"Thank you for flying with Royal Airlines." The flight attendants bowed to them as they left the airplane and into Yang City's airport.

Meixiu then led Yuan outside the airport and into the unknown streets before taking a taxi to the Jaded Garden.

"We'd like to go to the Jaded Garden," Meixiu said to the driver after entering the taxi with Yuan, who immediately turned to look at them with a baffled look on his face.

"You want to go to the Jaded Garden?" The man asked her again for confirmation, almost as though he couldn't believe it.

"Yes, is there anything wrong with that?"

The man nodded and said, "You won't be able to enter the Jaded Garden in any vehicle that doesn't fly. Despite its name, it's actually in the middle of a mountain valley 8 hours away from Yang City. I can get you close to that place, but I cannot enter the mountain range."

"Is that so... What should we do?" Meixiu asked Yuan.

Yuan pondered for a moment before speaking, "You said any vehicle that doesn't fly, which means we can take a plane or helicopter there, right? Are there any services that allow us to travel on helicopters?"

"There is one three hours away from this place, but it won't be cheap."

"Can you take us there instead?" Yuan said.

"Sure thing. The fee will be..."

After paying the driver the fee for the trip, the taxi driver immediately stepped on the pedal and began driving them.

About three hours later, they arrived at this tall building with multiple agencies working inside.

"Thanks a bunch."

Once they left the taxi, Meixiu entered the building with Yuan still in the wheelchair.

"Hello, how may I help you?" The receptionist waved at them the moment she noticed them.

Meixiu approached the receptionist and said, "Good morning, I heard there's a helicopter service here?"

"Yes, that's correct. Where are you trying to go?"

"Jade Garden."

"Jaded Garden, huh? It's not that far away, but due to the high terrains and foggy environment in that place that makes it difficult to traverse even in the air, the price will increase exponentially. If you're okay with that, please fill out this piece of paper and we'll get to you."

Meixiu took the paper and looked at its contents that asked for their basic information.

"What should I do? Should I use an alias?" Meixiu asked Yuan for advice.

"I think you can use my real identity since I am basically a nobody here," Yuan said.

"Okay."

Meixiu then filled out the paper using Yu Tian's identity that has long been forgotten. Furthermore, even if they somehow link Yuan to Yu Tian, they won't be able to find him unless they speak with the Yu Family or those that know his identity.

"Here you go." Meixiu handed the paper back to the receptionist after filling it out.

"Thank you. Please give me a minute to calculate the price of the trip. Also, will this be a one-way or a round trip? If you choose a round trip, we will land and stay at a certain location until you return. However, you'll have to pay a certain fee for every single day we wait."

"We'll do a round trip. If we no longer need the service, can we cancel the round trip?" Meixiu asked.

"Of course, but you'll still have to pay the fee depending on how many days you made the pilot wait regardless if you return or not."

"That sounds good." Meixiu nodded.

The receptionist then took a couple of minutes to calculate the cost.

"The total amount will cost 50,000 dollars for a round trip, not including the waiting time. The waiting fee will be 1,000 dollars for every 24 hours we wait at that location."

"Here."

Meixiu placed their debit card on the desk without any hesitation despite the ride costing a whopping 50 thousand dollars.

Clearly, that amount of money wasn't enough to make her even raise an eyebrow.

The receptionist gladly accepted their card and charged them 50,000 dollars.

"I have notified the pilot of your ride. It should be ready within 2 hours. Please wait in the guest room until then. It's that room over there." The receptionist pointed to the room at the end of the hall.

Meixiu and Yuan proceeded to wait inside the guest room until their ride was ready.

A little over two hours later, the receptionist knocked on the door before entering their room with a blonde middle-aged man wearing a uniform.

"Hello, esteemed guests. Your ride is ready, and he will be your pilot."

The middle-aged man greeted them with a smile on his face, "My name is Jean. I have over 20 years of experience, and I have traveled to the Jaded Garden over 100 times in my career without a single accident, so you can rely on me."

Meixiu and Yuan then followed the pilot to the back of the building, where there was a large empty field alongside a couple of helicopters idling inside a hanger.

The helicopter they were going to ride was already prepared and was waiting for them to board in the middle of the track.

After boarding the helicopter, the pilot took a few minutes to explain some rules to them.

"Do you guys have experience with helicopters?" Jean asked them after explaining the rules.

"Yes, we do." Meixiu nodded.

"I figured. Then let's go. We should arrive at the Jaded Garden in an hour." Jean said as he operated the helicopter, taking them into the air.

Chapter 528 Jaded Garden

"Mister, you mentioned that you'd traveled to the Jaded Garden multiple times, right? Do you know the families that live there such as the Wang Family? Can you tell us a little about that place as well?" Yuan asked the pilot as they traveled in the air.

"Of course. The Jaded Garden is a unique place that's home to the Six Spiritual Families, and the Wang Family is one of these families. The Six Spirit Families is an alliance of sorts between 6 separate powerful families, but not much is known about them, as they have only revealed themselves recently, quickly becoming powerhouses within the cultivation world."

"In fact, the Jaded Garden used to be a secluded area, but ever since cultivation became known to the world, they began opening their doors to outsiders, even taking some people in as disciples."

"Is this why you're traveling to that place?" Jean asked them.

"Something like that." Yuan nodded.

"Well, good luck. It won't be easy joining their faction. From what I've heard, they have many cultivation geniuses that have already reached Spirit Warrior within their background, but I don't know whether that information is true or fake, and it's quite hard to believe that there are already people that have reached Spirit Warrior."

"Many Spirit Warriors..." Yuan mumbled.

If they'd known about cultivation for hundreds of years now, it wouldn't be weird if they had Spirit Warriors, and even Spirit Master was possible as they'd already proved to him.

In fact, it would be weird if they didn't.

About half an hour later, they arrived before a mountain valley that was enveloped in thick fog.

"Can you even navigate inside such a thick fog?" Meixiu asked when she saw the fog in the distance.

"Yes, it'll be fine. It's only foggy at the entrance and high altitudes which we must travel because of the tall mountains. Once we pass the mountain, we can start to descend into the valley where there isn't as fog."

"As for the navigating through the fog, we have an autopilot system prepared just for this, allowing the helicopter to autopilot itself through the fog at a predetermined path," Jean explained to them.

"I see..." Meixiu nodded.

And just like he'd said, Jean made the helicopter go into autopiloting mode once they reached the fog.

After another half an hour, they could feel the helicopter descending towards the ground.

A few moments later, their helicopter emerged from the fog and entered a vast but clear plain in the middle of a mountain valley.

"We have safely entered the Jaded Garden. We will arrive at the landing site in 10 minutes." Jean said to them as he regained control over the helicopter.

Although he could've continued to let the helicopter fly on autopilot, he enjoyed controlling the helicopter personally.

Ten minutes later, the helicopter landed in a spacious land that had a couple of helicopters that belonged to others parked.

"Here's my phone number. Call me if you need anything." Jean handed Meixiu a business card that had his name and phone number.

"Also, I can only stay here for 30 days maximum before I have to return to the agency. If you stay longer than that but still wish to return with me, you'll have to purchase another ride with the agency including the waiting fee." Jean warned them.

"As for where I will stay..."

Jean pointed to a building a few hundred meters in the distance and said, "I will be there if you cannot call me for any reason."

"I understand." Meixiu nodded.

Before they left, Yuan asked Jean, "Mister, can I leave my wheelchair here in the helicopter?"

"Eh? I don't mind..." Jean nodded his head, but he was definitely taken by surprise by Yuan's question.

After all, why would someone who had to travel in a wheelchair leave it behind? Does he intend on letting the young lady carry him the whole time?

"Thanks." Yuan then stood up from the wheelchair without any effort before folding it and putting it inside the helicopter, leaving Jean dumbfounded.

"By the way, which direction do we go?" Meixiu then asked, as she couldn't see any cities or buildings beside the one Jean pointed to in the area.

"It's three miles that way." Jean pointed in a certain direction, and he continued, "Unfortunately, there are no taxi services in this area, so you'll have to walk there."

"That's fine. Let's go." Yuan said.

Meixiu and Yuan then quickly left the scene, and since they weren't in a hurry, they walked very slowly, quietly enjoying the environment and fresh air.

"I have never smelt such fresh air before," Yuan said after he took a few deep breaths.

"Yes, this place has very clean and high-quality air. Every single breath I take makes me feel cleaner inside." Meixiu agreed with him.

After walking for an hour, Meixiu could finally see some tall buildings in the distance.

"We're almost there," she said to Yuan since he couldn't see that far with his divine sense.

"Here you go." She then handed Yuan his black mask before wearing one herself.

A couple more minutes later, they arrived before a large gate where a few guards stood.

"Hmm?"

The guards quickly noticed their presence, and one of them said, "That person is wearing a black mask. Do you think he's the person Senior Wang warned us about? What was his name again?"

"His name is Yuan," said another.

They were clearly instructed to be on the lookout for a person wearing a mask.

Sometime later, Yuan and Meixiu finally arrived before these guards.

"Hello, is there a 'Yuan' amongst you two?" One of the guards asked them.

"That's right. I am Yuan." Yuan responded in a calm voice.

"I understand. Please wait for a minute. We have already sent someone to notify Senior Wang. She should be here shortly."

"Okay." Yuan nodded, and they proceeded to wait some more until the guard that left to find Senior Wang returned to the site with her beside him.

Chapter 529 Spiritual Elites

"Thank you for taking your time to come to our Jaded Garden, Yuan."
Senior Wang bowed to him in a respectful manner despite their difference in age.

In the world of cultivation, one's strength and ability were more valued than one's age, so one must respect the other if they were stronger regardless of their ages.

If it weren't for the fact that they were at the same cultivation level, she would've addressed Yuan as 'Senior Yuan'.

The guards didn't know that Yuan was also a Spirit Master like Senior Wang, so her actions left them dumbfounded for a good moment, as they have never seen her act so respectful towards a junior.

"I am here because I want to know more about cultivation... and your background," Yuan spoke in a calm voice.

"Of course. That's why we requested for your presence." Senior Wang nodded.

"Please, follow me."

They then followed Senior Wang inside the gates.

"The others aren't aware of your presence yet, so allow us some time to prepare." Senior Wang said to them as they walked.

"What is this place?" Yuan asked her.

Although he learned a little about the Jaded Garden from the pilot, he wanted to hear about it from someone who lives here.

"The Jaded Garden is a special place created by the Six Spiritual Families where our branches live in harmony as proof of our alliance. However, that isn't the main reason we created this place."

"The Jaded Garden is actually a training spot for the Six Spiritual Families where we send our juniors to learn about cultivation and become cultivators. It used to be a secluded area for many centuries, but now that cultivation is known to the entire world, we decided to open up this place and use it as the headquarters for our new cultivation faction known as the Spiritual Elites."

"Spiritual Elites..." Yuan repeated in a muttering voice.

And he asked, "What are the requirements to join the faction?"

Senior Wang smiled and said, "Are you interested? If you want to join, we'll accept you right away."

"That wasn't my intention." Yuan quickly responded.

"Too bad. Maybe we can change your mind later. Anyways, we only have 2 requirements for those who want to join our faction. One, you must be under the age of 21. And lastly, you must be at the very least at the eighth level of Spirit Apprentice."

"Eighth level Spirit Apprentice below the age of 21? So everyone above the age of 21 will be automatically disqualified regardless of their cultivation levels? That isn't very fair since the majority of people in this world have only started cultivating a couple of months ago." Meixiu said.

"That is correct, as we only want young people with potential. Even if you're extremely talented, if you start cultivating at the age of 21, you will not achieve as much as someone who has inferior talents but started cultivating at a much younger age." Senior Wang responded.

And she continued, "For example, between two individuals— one who started cultivating at the age of 10 and one who started at the age of 21—the person who started at the age of 10 will have 11 years of experience by the time he's 21 and will generally achieve more in his life than the person who started at 21 years old."

"One might argue that the gap doesn't really matter if the person who started cultivating at the age of 21 had immense talents that allowed him to ignore his setback, but these people are too few and far in-between. However, if someone like that does exist, we could simply make an exception for them."

Senior Wang's gaze glanced at Yuan for a brief moment when she said that sentence.

"By the way, this place has existed for over 500 years."

"500 years...? Just how long have you guys known about cultivation?" Yuan couldn't help but ask.

"I can't tell you the exact date since we also don't know, but let's just say we've known about cultivation since we can remember." Senior Wang said.

"I see... What's the highest cultivation someone has achieved?" Yuan then asked.

"Spirit Master," she quickly responded.

"Even the most talented genius within the Six Spiritual Families has only achieved the 3rd level Spirit Master before he perished. I don't think it's possible to reach any higher due to the lack of Qi in this world and a lack of good techniques."

"The existence of Cultivation Online might change that since we'll be able to acquire better cultivation techniques, but that won't fix the issue with the lack of Qi."

"Anyways, we are here. Please wait a bit for me to gather the others." Senior Wang said as they arrived before a large pond that had a couple of buildings built on top of the water.

This reminded Yuan of the Dragon Pavilion inside the Dragon Essence Temple.

Senior Wang then led Yuan and Meixiu to the largest pavilion there.

Once Yuan and Meixiu sat down around a large round table made of marble, Senior Wang said, "I will now gather the others."

Senior Wang left the scene shortly after, leaving the two of them alone in this place.

"What do you think?" Yuan suddenly asked.

"What do you mean?"

"What do you think of this place and Senior Wang? Can we trust them?"

Meixiu pondered for a moment before speaking, "I don't know, that Senior Wang seemed pretty respectful and friendly, but we can never be too careful."

Yuan nodded and said, "I think so too. Anyways, while I am 'Yuan', I will be acting a little different than usual to not give away my identity and to make sure they take me seriously, and I kind of gave myself a serious and unfriendly image at the Cultivators' Association."

"I kind of figured since you felt a little different than normal since we have arrived at this place," Meixiu said.

And she added, "I will also try to act differently."

About fifteen minutes later, Senior Wang returned to the lake with five other individuals— all of them with an elderly appearance.

Chapter 530 Six Spiritual Families

"That's Player Yuan? What an unfathomable aura... I can feel it even this far away..." One of the seniors there spoke in a low voice as they approached the lake.

"I didn't believe when you told me that he was a Spirit Master, but now that I am seeing him personally... heavens..."

"Do you think he's from a secluded family? I don't want to believe that he'd managed to achieve that level after Cultivation Online was introduced..." Another one said.

"We'll find out in just a moment."

A few moments later, Senior Wang and the five seniors stood in front of Yuan and Meixiu on the other side of the table, and they started introducing themselves.

"Once again, I am surnamed Wang from the Wang Family, from one of the Six Spiritual Families, and I am a Grand Elder."

"I am surnamed Wu from the Wu Family. I believe we have met at the Cultivators' Association as well."

"Surnamed Zhi, and we have also met at the Cultivators' Association."

"My surname is Li."

"Surnamed Xi."

"And my surname is Hong."

Yuan stood up and said in a calm voice, "My name is Yuan, and this is my caretaker."

Meixiu stood up and said, "Surnamed Feng."

Since Yuan gave himself an alias, Meixiu decided to do the same, especially since her recent incident that made her name public, and she picked Feng Yuxiang's surname as her alias.

"Allow us to welcome you to the Jaded Garden once again, Yuan. Whether you believe it or not, your presence here means a great deal to us." Senior Wang said to him with a respectful bow by clasping her hands together.

The other elders did the same.

A moment later, they all sat around the marble table.

"There's a lot to talk about, but let us start with our background." Senior Wang said.

And she continued, "The Six Spiritual Families have existed for thousands of years, but we were not always this peaceful with each other. In fact, we used to be at war with each other until 300 years ago."

Senior Wu then continued, "However, there was one thing we all agreed upon even during our times of war, and that was to keep the existence of cultivation a secret."

"Thus, we have managed to keep cultivation a secret from the public while silently cultivating ourselves."

Senior Zhi then said, "That's the purpose of this place— to train our juniors together. It's like a sect— the same ones you see in Cultivation Online, but we're much smaller. If you'd like, we can even show you around the place afterward."

"I'd like that," Yuan said, as he was curious what a modern-day sect would look like and how it compared to the sects within Cultivation Online.

The elders continued to spend a couple more minutes talking about their families' history before one of them asked, "Yuan, can you tell us a little more about yourself? If you want to keep your identity hidden, that's perfectly fine. What about your cultivation level? When did you start cultivating?"

He nodded and said, "As you already know, I am a Spirit Master, but I only recently achieved this level. As for how long I have been cultivating... shortly after I began playing Cultivation Online, I guess."

"Aiya..."

The elders there suddenly released stressful sighs, and all of them held a defeated expression on their faces for some reason.

"I was hoping you'd started cultivating many years ago so we don't look as bad before your talents, but alas, you have managed to achieve Spirit Master in less than a year while it took all of us over 100 years to reach Spirit Master. The difference is like heaven and hell... No, it's incomparable..." One of the elders there expressed his distress.

"Why is there such injustice under this heavens?" Another sighed.

After a few moments of contemplating their lives, the elders eventually gave up and said, "Do you want to take a look around the place?"

"Sure," he nodded.

Although the elders wanted to ask more questions about him, they didn't dare to ask them, as they were afraid of offending him.

After all, it was clear to them that Yuan wanted to keep his identity a secret, and as people who have kept cultivation from the world for centuries, they knew very well what Yuan was feeling and his thoughts, so they purposefully avoided asking him questions that could reveal his identity.

Furthermore, they believed that if they earned his trust, there was a good chance that he would reveal his identity willingly. Until then, they will have to approach him with caution.

Yuan's talent that allowed him to reach Spirit Master in less than a year was something incomprehensible for these elders that used to be the top genius within their generation.

"What do you think of the cultivation world this far?" Senior Wang asked him as they walked around him like a group of grandparents and their grandchildren.

"Although it has its flaws, I genuinely enjoy the cultivation world within Cultivation Online, but whether cultivation is a good thing or a bad thing for this world... I still don't know yet," he calmly responded.

"I agree. Everything was fine before since there were only very few of us that knew about cultivation if you consider the world's population, but now that everyone is aware of cultivation... I fear what might happen in the future."

"This is also why we opened up the Jaded Garden to the public to attract talents— because we fear the future and want to prepare ourselves before it's too late."

"What do you mean?" Yuan asked her, his interest piqued.

"You see, inside an ancient scroll left behind by our ancestors, there is a prophecy— that when the world starts cultivation, there will be a calamity."

"A calamity?" Yuan raised his eyebrows behind the mask, as did Meixiu.

"Yes, a calamity will befall upon this world, propelling this world into chaos." Senior Wang said in a sighing voice.

"This is another reason why we decided to keep cultivation a secret from the world. If you want, I can show you the scroll after the tour."

"Okay," he quickly said.

Chapter 531 Underrated

"Hey, look! It's the Grand Elders! Who are those two masked individuals with them?" The people there quickly took notice of their presence, as the Grand Elders were incredibly influential and powerful people there.

"I have never seen them before."

"Me neither."

"They must be very important if they are being guided by the Grand Elders..."

While the disciples there tried to guess the identity of these two masked individuals, the Grand Elders led Yuan and Meixiu around the Jaded Garden.

"This right here is the training hall."

They first stopped before a large building and explained, "This is where the disciples are lectured and taught how to wield their weapons and cultivate. In other words, it's where they are taught how to fight."

"Although we don't really use our combat experience in the outside world, we often spar with each other so that we won't be powerless when we need to fight."

"It is also one of the most populated places in the entire Jaded Garden due to its purposes."

The Grand Elders then led Yuan and Meixiu inside this building that had many floors.

"The first and second floor is dedicated to disciples who wish to learn the sword."

Senior Wang said as she opened the door to a spacious gymnasium where hundreds of disciples could be seen practicing their sword techniques.

"The sword is the most popular weapon for cultivators due to its ease of use and its destructive prowess. That's why we have two entire floors dedicated to the sword."

Yuan used his divine sense to watch a few of these disciples practicing their sword techniques.

Then he noticed something— that their swords were enveloped by a thin layer of spiritual energy.

"They're using sword techniques...? Are these techniques from Cultivation Online or something from your families?" Yuan decided to ask them.

"These sword techniques came from Wu Family since it's their specialty," said Senior Wang.

"I see..."

"If you'd like to learn the technique, you can join our faction and we'll let you learn as many techniques as you want, and we have over 20 different techniques combined," she said with a smile on her face.

"I will consider it," he said.

Sometime later, they skipped the second floor since it was the same as the first floor and went straight to the third floor.

"This floor is dedicated to disciples who wish to learn the spear and polearm— basically long-ranged melee weapons. The Shi family and Xi Family are in charge of this floor since they're both experts with long-range weapons."

Yuan silently watched the disciples practice this unfamiliar weapon for the next few minutes, as he has only fought very few opponents who used spears and polearms.

The most notable fight he had with a long-range weapon was within the Ancient Dragon City when he had to fight many experts.

Ten minutes later, they went to the fourth floor.

"This floor is dedicated to archery. It's a unique and underrated weapon in the cultivation world, and in our modern world, they are usually used as a sport."

"A bow, huh? Now that you mention it... I don't think I have ever seen a bow wielder inside Cultivation Online. Why do you think they are so underrated?" Yuan asked her.

"Well, for one, you have to aim using the bow, and people would rather use something more convenient, such as swords since you only need to swing it."

"Secondly, it requires much more skills and training to fully master the bow."

"Third, in the cultivation world where most people fight close-quarters, you won't be able to use the bow efficiently unless you gain distance from your opponent, which is easier said than done."

"There are more reasons why people don't use the bow, but these are the main reasons."

"However, even if the weapon is underrated, it is by no means weak. Once you put the time to master the bow and how to fight with it, it could become an unstoppable weapon, and it would only become even more powerful if you have a partner that can protect you while you fight in the back."

"The bow can quickly become a nuisance and untouchable in the right situation and the right hands."

Meixiu silently listened to Senior Wang talk about the bow. Although she'd intended on using her bare hands in Cultivation Online, she was starting to have thought about using the bow, as this will allow her to support Yuan from the rear without getting in his way.

And with Yuan in front of her, she was confident that nobody will be able to get to her while she abuses their opponents from a distance.

However, there was one issue, and that was she didn't have any experience with the bow.

Although she has plenty of experience with a gun, she had zero when it comes to the bow.

Twang!

The sound of strings trembling would constantly resound in the room as a little under one hundred disciples practiced their aiming skills on their targets.

A couple of minutes later, they made their way to the fifth floor.

"The fifth and sixth floor is the last two floors to this tower, and they are both dedicated to cultivation since the bottom floors are usually the loudest. We also have private cultivation rooms that are completely soundproof just in case."

"There isn't anything fancy like formations in this place, but this is place is mostly for ordinary disciples. Elite disciples and us elders usually cultivate at the Immortal Caves, where the spiritual energy is much denser."

"There are Immortal Caves in this world?" Yuan was truly surprised to hear this.

"Do you want to see them later?" Senior Wang asked him with a profound glint in her gaze.

She knew that this could potentially convince him to join their faction.

"Of course," he quickly nodded.

"Then let's make our way to the sparring area. It's on the way to the Immortal Caves." Senior Wang said, and they left the building shortly after.

Chapter 532 A Friendly Exchange

After leaving the training area, the Grand Elders led Yuan and Meixiu to the sparring area that was an open field with multiple stages available, and there was even a spectators' area.

When they arrived at the sparring area, they could see a couple of disciples sparring with each other on the stages, but all of them were fighting without any weapons.

"Most disciples come here for training and experience, but it's also very common for disciples with grievances to come here to release their stress or simply to 'settle things'. Although they get out of hand sometimes, killing or serious injuries that could cripple another are not allowed, or they will be crippled and be forced to work as a servant in one of the Six Spiritual Families." Senior Shi explained to them.

"Of course, since we risk them revealing the existence of cultivation to the world, we cannot allow them to simply leave the family, so they can either choose to work as a servant or be killed."

"To be a servant or to be killed..." Yuan mumbled in a low voice.

Then he asked, "Others can also leak this information, so does this mean that disciples are not allowed to communicate with the outside world?"

"You are correct. Most of us live a secluded lifestyle, and when we go outside, we are only allowed to communicate with the other cultivation families. Though, trusted individuals and high-ranking elders such as ourselves are allowed to communicate with the mortal world."

Yuan sighed inwardly after learning about their secluded lifestyle. He couldn't imagine living such a boring life, where you can only communicate with those around you, but fortunately for them, they had other families to keep each other companied.

However, compared to the majority of his life, where he was secluded within his own room for many years with barely any interaction with others, it was still much better.

After watching the disciples spar for a couple of minutes, one of the grand elders suddenly said, "Fellow Daoist Yuan, if it isn't too much to ask, can I request for a friendly exchange with you?"

Yuan turned to look at the old man who just asked this question and said in a calm voice, "You want to spar with me?"

"Yes." The old man confirmed.

"You can't be serious right now, Elder Xi." Senior Wang said with a slight frown on her face.

"I don't mind," Yuan suddenly said.

He then continued, "However, I will only be dodging your attacks, if you don't mind."

"Only dodging?" Elder Xi raised his eyebrows in a puzzled manner.

"Yes, you can attack me as you like, and if you manage to hit me even once, I will consider it my loss." Yuan nodded.

There were a few reasons as to why Yuan made this suggestion, but the biggest reason as to why he would only be dodging is simply because he has zero experience in fighting in his current body.

Although he has plenty of experience in Cultivation Online, things were different in this world, and he didn't have his sword with him.

Furthermore, he wanted to test out the movement technique that he'd been practicing for the past month and see how effective it was against the top cultivators of this world.

"Good luck, Yuan," Meixiu said to him before they entered the stage.

Elder Xi's presence quickly attracted everyone's attention within the sparring area.

"Look! Elder Xi is going onto the stage! Is he going to spar with that masked person?!"

"Who is that individual?! Does anyone know?!"

The people there quickly surrounded the stage with Elder Xi and Yuan.

"Whenever you're ready." Elder Xi said to Yuan as they stood a couple of meters away from each other.

"Attack me whenever you're ready." Yuan then said.

"Then here I come!"

Elder Xi immediately rushed forward with incredible speed, arriving before Yuan a second later.

However, Yuan remained standing there without moving a single muscle.

The spectators thought that was because he couldn't react to Elder Xi's speed, but they quickly realized how wrong they were when Yuan barely dodged Elder Xi's attack right before the strike landed.

Elder Xi wasn't too surprised that his attack had been avoided since he was just testing Yuan, so he continued to throw his hands at Yuan, using basic martial arts.

'This guy... What a fearsome movement technique!'

Elder Xi soon realized that Yuan would always barely avoid his attacks, meaning that Yuan was purposefully minimizing his movements to dodge flawless while saving himself energy at the same time.

"Wow! Look at that masked person's movements! They are so profound! I have never seen anything like that before!"

"Heavens! Where did he learn such a technique?!"

This continued for over half an hour with Elder Xi being unable to touch even Yuan's clothes, much less the person himself.

Elder Xi eventually stopped moving and said, "I give up... You win this one, fellow Daoist Yuan."

"What! Did Elder Xi just called him 'Yuan'?!"

"Could he be that famous Player Yuan?! What's he doing here?!"

When the spectators heard Elder Xi addressing Yuan by his name, they all expressed great shock.

However, if they thought about it, it made sense since only Player Yuan could possibly be powerful enough to defeat their grand elder.

"You have me completely beaten without attacking me. I cannot imagine winning if you're allowed to attack." Elder Xi bowed to him afterward, not feeling bitter despite losing since he was well aware of their disparity.

"Thank you for the spar as well; it was a good experience." Yuan copied his movements and returned the bow.

The other grand elders were speechless. Although Elder Xi and Yuan were both Spirit Masters, one had decades more experience than the other, yet Elder Xi couldn't even touch Yuan's shadow after 30 minutes of trying? Just what kind of movement technique was he using?

"Let's head to the Immortal Caves now, shall we?" Yuan said to the grand elders a moment later, snapping them out of their daze.

"R-Right! Let's go!" Senior Wang nodded her head, and they proceeded to leave the area shortly after.

After they left, the spectators immediately began spreading news of Player Yuan's presence within the Jaded Garden that spread like wildfire.

Chapter 533 Trial Disciple

"What? Player Yuan is currently in the Jaded Garden? How is that possible?"

"I am serious! I witnessed him spar with Elder Xi and win! He was even wearing his signature black mask!"

"But why would Player Yuan come here? Maybe he wants to join this faction?"

"That would be incredible if that was true. Imagine being in the same faction as Player Yuan! We'll become an unstoppable force!"

The disciples of Spiritual Elites were both baffled and excited by the news, and all of them wanted to meet Player Yuan for themselves, but that was much easier said than done, as he was currently being escorted by all six grand elders.

If they bother them, they would risk getting kicked out of the faction.

"Welcome to our Immortal Caves, Daoist Yuan." Senior Xi said to him as they approached this small mountain that had a couple of cave entrances around it.

Yuan took a deep breath, sucking in the fresh Qi from the place.

"You're right. This place has an incredible amount of spiritual energy." Yuan said to them.

"Let me show you inside the Immortal Caves." Senior Wang said as she approached one of the cave entrances.

Yuan followed her, and the closer they got to the cave, the stronger the spiritual energy became.

"Wow... This is an immortal cave?"

Yuan was speechless upon seeing the decoration inside that was the opposite of his expectations.

He'd expected the place to be a gloomy cave with nothing but rocks, but to his surprise, there was an entire room filled with furniture inside the immortal cave! And there was even a door!

"This is a modern-day immortal cave." Senior Wang said with a smile on her face.

"You probably expected something more boring, but cultivators in our day and age cultivate better in this kind of environment." Senior Wang said with a smile on her face.

"Look, there is even a bathroom in here."

After showing Yuan around the place, Senior Wang said, "If you join us, we can give you one of these immortal caves."

"Normally, only grand elders and the family heads are allowed to stay inside an immortal cave permanently, but we will make this an exception for you."

"I will consider it," Yuan said.

"Hmm..."

Senior Wang began pondering when she heard his voice that carried a hint of disinterest.

"How about this Daoist Yuan. You can stay here for a month— or even a week as a disciple. You will gain access to the Immortal Caves and some of our techniques as if you are an official disciple, but you have no obligations to join us. And once your time as a trial disciple is over, you can decide whether you want to join us or not."

"A trial disciple?" Yuan raised his eyebrows. He didn't think they'd go this far just to invite him into their faction.

"What if I learn all of your techniques and decide not to join?" Yuan then asked.

"Of course, we have already considered this possibility, and we're willing to take the risks." Senior Wang said, as the grand elders have spoken about this matter way before Yuan even arrived.

Furthermore, while she didn't say it, she didn't believe that Yuan would be able to learn their techniques so quickly.

While Yuan's cultivation speed is, without a doubt, heaven-defying, that didn't mean he was also as talented when it comes to comprehension.

Most of their disciples needed many months to learn a single technique, and even their top geniuses required at least a week to learn a new technique.

"What do you think?" Yuan turned to ask Meixiu.

"I don't really care. Do as you wish," she calmly responded.

Yuan pondered for a moment before nodding his head, "Alright, we'll stay here for a week. After all, it would be a shame if I left so quickly after traveling so much."

"Great! Then starting today, you will be part of our Spiritual Elites! We'll get your uniforms later, but if you don't want them, just let me know."

"It's okay, we have our own clothes," Yuan said.

Although he agreed to join their faction temporarily, he didn't want to accept their uniform since that would make him look too much like an official disciple and could even potentially create some misunderstandings.

Sometime later, they left the immortal caves and Senior Wang spoke with the other grand elders regarding Yuan's decision to join the faction as a trial disciple.

Of course, the grand elders were very ecstatic to hear this.

Even if Yuan was only a trial disciple and he decides to leave in a week, they will still have a connection with him at the very least.

"Daoist Yuan, which immortal cave would you like to use for your time here?" Elder Xi asked him.

"I don't really care. Whichever one is available, I guess."

"The immortal cave I just showed you isn't occupied by anyone at the moment. You can use that one if you like." Senior Wang said.

"Okay." Yuan nodded.

Senior Wang then retrieved a jade medallion from her clothes before offering it to Yuan.

"Take this. If you run into any trouble within the Jade Garden, you can use this medallion. Only those approved by the grand elders are allowed to carry this, and anyone that dares to challenge the medallion means they're challenging us, the grand elders."

Yuan accepted the medallion without any hesitation.

"Then we will leave you alone now. If you need anything from us, you can find us at our family living quarters. Only family members are allowed to approach these living quarters, but you will be fine as long as you have the medallion on you." Senior Wang said.

"Once again, you may be a trial disciple, but you will have access to things that even normal disciples cannot reach. I hope you will enjoy your stay here."

"Thank you." Yuan nodded.

The grand elders left the scene shortly after, leaving Yuan and Meixiu alone.

"Why did you agree to stay here?" Meixiu suddenly asked him.

"During my spar with Elder Xi I realized that I don't have any combat experience in this body, so I want to acquire some of that experience in this place. After all, I cannot dodge forever, and there are a lot of interesting things that I want to try out in this place," he said.

Chapter 534 Training

"Experience, huh? I agree." Meixiu nodded.

"Hm? Are you also interested in something from this place?" Yuan asked her.

"Yes, I want to try out archery," she responded.

"Archery? That's unexpected."

"I know, but I think it will be useful one day," she said.

And she continued, "What about you? It has to be the sword, right?"

"Yes, but that's not all I want to do. I also want to try out the other weapons, such as the spear and the rod. After all, the more I understand these weapons, the easier it will be for me when I have to fight opponents using these weapons."

"That makes sense." Meixiu nodded.

Sometime later, they entered the immortal cave and unpacked their luggage.

Once that was all done, they made their way back to the training area.

"L-Look at that person wearing the black mask! Isn't that Player Yuan?!"

The disciples around them quickly took notice of their presence due to their unique appearance.

"Is that really Player Yuan? What if he's an imposter? There are plenty of people like him out there. In fact, anyone can claim to be Player Yuan by wearing a mask!"

Although some people stared at Yuan in awe, there were also those that doubted his identity.

After all, Player Yuan was an incredibly mysterious individual whose identity isn't known by seemingly anyone.

Furthermore, there have been far too many people faking to be Player Yuan — too many to count, and most of them do it to gain fame, or simply to obtain gifts from others, as everyone was seemingly trying to curry favors with Player Yuan, hoping to learn his identity.

Of course, due to how common fake Player Yuans were, it was only logical for people to suspect the current 'Player Yuan'.

"But didn't he fight against Elder Xi and win? Who could possibly defeat a grand elder besides Player Yuan?" Another disciple asked.

"Hmph! As if you can call that spar a fight! Elder Xi wasn't even using his full strength, and that person had been dodging the entire time! You cannot call that a fight! It was more of a performance than anything!"

Sometime later, Yuan and Meixiu arrived at the training building.

Yuan went straight into one of the sword training rooms and asked the instructor there, "Can I borrow a sword? I'd like to train with it."

"You want to practice with the sword?" The instructor was baffled by his request.

After snapping out of his daze, the instructor pointed to the side of the room where a couple of weapon shelves holding swords were located and said, "Go ahead. Most of them are wooden swords with metal as its interior so it feels like a real sword. If you want a real sword... You'll need permission from the grand elders."

"I understand." Yuan nodded and proceeded to walk over to the shelves before picking a sword randomly.

"Wow, this thing does feel pretty heavy. I am not used to feeling this much weight," he said after picking it up and swinging it around a couple of times.

"But you wield an even larger sword in Cultivation Online," Meixiu said with her eyebrows raised.

"The sword may be big, and it may seem heavy, but it actually weighs almost to nothing for me since I am its master," he said.

After picking up the sword and getting comfortable with it, Yuan said to Meixiu, "Can you bring me to a spacious area that doesn't have many people?"

Since he couldn't see the entire gymnasium even with his divine sense, he asked for her help.

Meixiu looked around the place before saying, "Follow me."

Yuan then followed her.

The gymnasium was incredibly big— big enough for them to walk a couple of minutes without stopping.

Once they stopped, Yuan used his divine sense to make sure there wasn't anyone around them.

"Stand back a little. I don't want to hurt you by accident." Yuan said to Meixiu.

Meixiu nodded and took a couple of steps back until she was many meters away from him.

Once he was alone, Yuan took a deep breath and recalled his experience in Cultivation Online.

Although his body wasn't the same, his memories and experience within Cultivation Online were real.

After standing there for a few minutes without doing anything, Yuan began moving his body, calmly swinging his sword around.

Each of his swings was incredibly precise and powerful.

The other disciples in the gymnasium could see a small arc of wind appearing in front of Yuan every time he swung the sword, causing them to suck in a breath of cold air, as none of them could replicate such a phenomenon.

"Impressive..." The instructor also watched Yuan practice his sword swings with awe.

Although there were no sword techniques behind Yuan's sword swings, his sword still emitted a profound aura, and every swing left a deep impression on the disciples there.

Yuan proceeded to practice with his sword for the next hour without any disruptions.

Sometime later, Yuan stopped swinging the sword and turned to look at Meixiu, who looked a little bored, "Meixiu, you can go practice archery if you're bored of watching me."

"Are you sure?" Meixiu asked him.

"Yes, I will probably be here for a while working up a sweat. I will find you when I am done if you're not finished by then," he confirmed.

"Okay. I will see you later." Meixiu nodded and made her way to the fourth floor, where the disciples were practicing archery."

Once she entered the room, Meixiu looked around until she found someone who looked like the instructor and walked up to her.

"Hello, I'd like to try archery," Meixiu said to her.

"Hm?" The middle-aged woman turned to look at Meixiu, who was wearing a black mask.

"Are you with...?"

Meixiu nodded, "Yes, I am."

"Have you used a bow before?" The bow instructor then asked.

"No, I have not."

"That's perfectly fine. Follow me to an open aisle. I will teach you the basics." The instructor said with a friendly smile on her face.

"Thank you." Meixiu then followed her.

Chapter 535 Archery

"Here, watch my hands. This is how you properly hold a bow." The instructor showed Meixiu how to hold a bow.

Meixiu then followed her hand motions and gripped onto the bow.

"Good, now you bring it up like this and hold it here."

Meixiu followed her again.

"Good. Now grab an arrow with your other hand and hold it like this. Then you put it in this position on the bow..."

A few minutes later, the instructor said, "Good. Now that you know the basics, you need to familiarize yourself with them. Spend a few more minutes repeating the motion of lifting your bow and putting the arrow into the bow. Once you're ready to head into the next step, we can learn how to draw the bow and then shoot the bow."

Meixiu proceeded to spend about fifteen minutes repeating what she had learned thus far.

Once she was comfortable with holding the bow, the instructor taught her how to pull the strings back and her body position while doing so.

"Now all you have to do is release the string, but make sure you don't make any random movements. Simply release your fingers and let the bow do the rest of the work."

Meixiu followed her instructions and released the arrow, sending it flying towards the target that was 50 meters away from them.

Whoosh!

The arrow flew straight over the target and went straight into the wall that was reinforced with special material to catch arrows without damaging them.

"Nice try, but your movements were great. Now you just need to aim and hit the target. Give it a couple more tries."

Meixiu continued to shoot the bow afterward, and by her third try, she was able to hit the target in the outer areas.

On her fourth and fifth shots, she got closer and closer to the red circle in the middle of the target.

On her sixth shot, her arrow barely missed the red.

Finally, only her seventh shot, Meixiu managed to hit the red circle dead in its center.

"Not bad." The instructor said, thinking that it was merely luck.

However, Meixiu continued to shoot, and on her eighth, ninth, and tenth shot, she struck nothing but red, dumbfounding the instructor.

"Are you sure this is your first time using the bow? You're very precise..." The instructor eventually said, doubting that this was her first time using the bow.

Meixiu then said, "Yes, this is definitely my first time. Though this isn't my first time shooting at targets with a weapon since I have experience with guns."

"G-Guns...?" The instructor was left speechless by her words.

She knew that Meixiu was a young lady by her voice, but what kind of young lady would have experience shooting guns?

However, if she thought about it a little more, Meixiu was Player Yuan's caretaker. It must require extreme skill and talents to take care of someone like Player Yuan, so it sort of made sense.

Meixiu proceeded to shoot a couple more arrows at the target, and after a dozen shots, she'd managed to hit 11 of them in the red with one barely missing it.

It was clear to the instructor that Meixiu was very talented when it came to using the bow.

Meixiu also felt that using the bow was much easier than she'd anticipated. However, she felt that hitting a still target was too boring.

"Excuse me, do you have any moving targets that I can practice on?" Meixiu suddenly asked the instructor.

"Yes, we do. Follow me."

The instructor then led Meixiu into another room that was on the same floor.

Inside this room that looked a little similar to a firing range, there were a couple of puppets made of straw moving in a set path at the end of the room.

"How's this?" The instructor asked her.

"This is perfect."

Meixiu then looked for an available aisle before practicing on the moving targets.

She missed her first shot, but she immediately fixed it on her second shot, and on her third shot, she'd managed to hit the human-shaped puppet in the head.

"Who's that masked figure?" The instructor inside this room asked the instructor that came with Meixiu.

"That's Player Yuan's caretaker. I'm sure you've heard of them by now."

"Player Yuan's caretaker? No wonder why she's in that getup. But heavens, she's very good at the bow."

"You probably won't believe me when I say this, but today is her first time using the bow, and she started only an hour ago."

"What?! How is that possible?!"

The instructor smiled and said, "I asked her the same thing, and she told me that she was used to hitting targets with guns and that archery was similar."

"And you believe her?"

"There's no reason why she'd lie about such a thing. And the way she handled the bow at first convinced me that she's definitely new to the bow."

"So not only Player Yuan is an amazing individual, but even his caretakers are geniuses? Just what kind of household does he come from?"

"Who knows."

A few minutes later, the instructors approached Meixiu and said to her, "If you're already accustomed to the moving targets, you can try adjusting it using these buttons. You can not only increase the speed they're moving but also the distance."

"Once you're bored of this place, I can show you the outdoor training area."

"There's an outdoor training area?" Meixiu was interested in this place.

"Yes. You'll have more room to move around there, so you can practice moving and shooting at the same time," said the instructor.

"Just let this instructor know when you want to go. I will return to the other room for now."

"Okay."

The first instructor returned to her room training room shortly after, leaving Meixiu and her new instructor behind.

Meixiu continued practicing her archery skills that were improving at a tremendous rate, and she would remain in that room for another hour and a half before making her way to the outdoor training area with the instructor.

Chapter 536 Avoiding and Attacking Simultaneously

"This is the outdoor training area." The instructor said to Meixiu.

Meixiu looked around, and she could see disciples practicing things other than archery there, but they were very far in the distance so they don't disturb each other.

She then looked at the disciples practicing archery, and they were running around doing complicated maneuvers while shooting their bow at the same time.

"If you thought archery was as simple as standing still and shooting your targets, you are gravely mistaken." The instructor suddenly said, and she continued, "As an archer, you must not only be precise but also nimble so that you don't get caught in the enemies' attacks."

"Watch this."

The instructor then called out to one of the disciples practicing and said, "Disciple Jing! We're going to do a quick practice!"

"Yes, instructor!"

The instructor then approached the disciple and stood a few meters away from her, who still had a bow in her hands.

"Whenever you're ready." The instructor said to her.

The disciple then took on an offensive pose and stared at the instructor with an intensive gaze.

The next second, the instructor leaped forward and attacked the disciple, but the disciple quickly reacted.

The instructor continued to attack the disciple relentlessly, but the disciple kept on dodging the attacks, and she would even sometimes use her bow to shoot an arrow at the target in the distance!

The disciple was dodging and attacking at the same time!

Their display left a deep impression on Meixiu, who was immediately in awe.

A few minutes later, the instructor stopped attacking the disciple and said to her, "Good job."

"Thank you, instructor." The disciple bowed to her.

The instructor then returned to Meixiu's side and said to her, "Did you see that? That's what archery looks like once you're proficient enough."

"Those who say archers are useless once their opponents close in on them are all worth less than shit. As that disciple had just demonstrated, one can defend themselves and attack simultaneously if they're skilled enough."

"However, to do that kind of thing requires intensive training and good movement. Your body must react instantaneously, and your body must keep up with your body's reaction, or you will only stumble and fall."

"If you intend on learning archery seriously, come here every day and I will drill everything I know into you. I don't care if you're Player Yuan's caretaker. Even if you're Player Yuan himself, I will not go easy on you." The instructor said to her.

Meixiu nodded.

Although the instructor couldn't see it due to the mask, there was a serious and passionate expression on her face.

Fortunately for her, she'd already learned a movement technique inside Cultivation Online. If she could learn this technique in the real world just like Yuan did with his movement technique, perhaps she could integrate it with her archery skills.

Meanwhile, inside the building on the first floor, Yuan was covered in sweat from head to toe as he swung the wooden sword in his arms thousands of times without stopping.

A couple of hours have passed since Meixiu left him, but he was too focused to realize this.

Suddenly, Yuan stopped swinging his sword when he felt a presence approach him.

He quickly used divine sense to see if it was Meixiu who had returned, but he quickly realized that it was someone else— someone he didn't recognize, yet he had this feeling that he has met this individual before.

It was a handsome young man with a somewhat heroic aura around him.

"Hello, Player Yuan. I apologize if I'd interrupted your training, but I cannot resist my urges, so I came here to see if you wanted to have a friendly exchange. Ah, where are my manners? My surname is Wang— Wang Ming."

The handsome young man who looked to be around the same age as Yuan introduced himself.

"Don't call me Player Yuan. It feels weird, especially since we are not in Cultivation Online." Yuan said to him, and he continued, "You can just call me Yuan."

"I understand, Yuan. Then what about my proposal?" Wang Ming asked again.

"You want a fight?" Yuan said in a calm voice.

"No, not a fight. Just a friendly exchange between two sword users. I have been watching you for a while now, silently admire your sharp sword strikes, and I began wondering what it'll feel like to be in front of it—receiving such a powerful strike." Wang Ming explained his motives.

"..."

After a moment of silence, Yuan said, "Sure. Let's do it."

Now that he was used to feeling the sword in his grasp again, he wanted to do something more intensive, and this exchange will satisfy such desires perfectly.

"We can find an empty area and do our exchange there. Since this is just a friendly exchange, we don't need to use the arena. Of course, if you want to do that, we can go there." Wang Ming said to him.

"It's fine, we can do it here."

Wang Ming nodded, and then he asked, "Do you need some time to rest? After all, you have been practicing quite intensively for a long time now."

"I'm perfectly fine," Yuan said, taking Wang Ming by surprise.

How can someone feel 'perfectly fine' after swinging such a heavy sword for many hours with barely any rest? Aren't his arms sore? Or was his body made of metal, so he cannot experience such feelings?

A few moments later, Yuan and Wang Ming found an empty spot in the gymnasium and decided to use that spot for their spar.

The disciples inside the gymnasium quickly noticed what they were doing and their blood immediately pumped with excitement.

"Everybody, look over there! Wang Ming, our number one sword genius, is going to fight Player Yuan!"

"What?!"

The disciples quickly gathered and surrounded Yuan and Wang Ming, but they made sure to not get so close that it would disturb their fight. Not only did they not want to disturb such an exciting fight but they also didn't want to get hit by either Yuan or Wang Ming.

Chapter 537 Sword of Dominance

"Whenever you're ready, Yuan." Wang Ming said as he held his wooden sword in front of him.

Yuan also held his sword in front of him and tightly grasped the handle and nodded, "I am ready."

"Then here I come!"

Wang Ming immediately kicked his feet and lunged at Yuan before swinging his sword.

Clang!

Yuan blocked the strike with ease.

Wang Ming didn't think too much of it and continued to attack Yuan relentlessly, displaying precise and powerful sword techniques.

While he blocked every attack, Yuan examined Wang Ming's cultivation base, and to his surprise, Wang Ming emitted an aura belonging to the 7th level Spirit Warrior!

Besides the grand elders, Wang Ming has the highest cultivation base out of everyone he has met before.

Of course, this was only possible since Wang Ming belonged to the Wang Family that has known about cultivation way before the rest of the world, allowing him to start cultivating at a very young age.

However, even then, he was only at the 7th level Spirit Warrior, still 3 entire levels below Yuan.

Clang! Clang! Clang!

As the fight got longer, it also grew more intensive.

The spectators could hardly blink, as they feared that they might miss the decisive moment the second they decide to blink.

Furthermore, every time their swords clashed, it would make the spectators' hearts throb with excitement, almost like there was a drum playing.

'I can't break through his defenses! And his strikes are incredibly heavy!' Wang Ming was at a loss for words.

Although he'd expected Yuan to be a challenge for him, he didn't think it would feel so powerless, almost like he was before an immovable mountain.

'Since it has come to this, let's see if you can handle my sword technique!'

Wang Ming suddenly stopped his attacks for a moment to cover his wooden sword in his spiritual energy.

Yuan immediately noticed the change in Wang Ming's sword, but he didn't panic.

'Let's see how powerful his sword technique is!' Yuan eagerly anticipated Wang Ming's sword technique, silently wondering to himself if he would be able to defend against it.

"Yuan, if you can defend against this sword technique, it's your win!" Wang Ming announced to him.

This surprised the spectators.

"Wang Ming is using his sword technique?! Isn't that too much in a friendly exchange?"

"I think he's doing it because he's left with no other choice. Meaning that he doesn't believe that he can defeat Player Yuan without this sword technique. Just how powerful is Player Yuan to push Wang Ming to such a state?"

"Not only does Player Yuan have his mysterious movement technique that makes it impossible to hit him, but even his sword mastery appears to be very good. If you ask me, I think he belongs to a secluded cultivation family that's outside the Six Spiritual Families!"

"Do these secluded families really exist? I mean, there are always rumors about their existence, but we haven't seen any of them even to this day."

Meanwhile, after taking a moment to prepare his sword technique, Wang Ming was finally ready.

"Here it comes, Yuan!" Wang Ming warned him before releasing the sword technique.

Yuan tightened his grasp on the sword and prepared for it.

'Sword of Dominance!'

Wang Ming's eyes flickered with a golden glow for a moment before he released his sword, sending a semi-transparent golden arc of light at Yuan.

"!!!"

Yuan immediately used his sword to block the incoming arc of light, but he had a bad feeling about it.

However, he wasn't going to dodge it, and he intended on taking it head-on.

Whoosh!

The arc of light flew at Yuan at incredible speed and arrived before him almost instantly after it was released, and the moment it touched the wooden sword in Yuan's grasp, it sliced the wood easily.

If it were not for the metal core inside the wooden sword, the arc of light would've gone straight through.

However, the metal wasn't enough to defend against the arc of light and was also being cut.

"Dodge it!" Wang Ming realized that he'd gone too far with this technique and might actually harm Yuan, perhaps even kill him.

Of course, Yuan also had a feeling that this arc of light would go through his body once it cuts through the sword.

And right as before the metal core was cut in half, Yuan sensed the danger and subconsciously reacted.

Whoosh!

A profound aura emitted from Yuan's body, sending chills down everyone's spine, and the half-broken sword in Yuan's grasp suddenly gushed with a sharp aura that sliced the arc of light in half and seemingly with ease.

"W-What kind of sword technique is that?!" Wang Ming exclaimed in a shocked voice when he witnessed his arc of light destroyed.

"Huh?"

Yuan also didn't know what happened and looked at the sword, and to his complete surprise, there was a familiar yet otherworldly aura covering the sword— it was Sword Qi!

He had somehow managed to use Sword Qi!

However, the moment Yuan lost his focus, the Sword Qi also disappeared.

The instant the Sword Qi disappeared, the half-broken sword completely broke in half, leaving everyone there speechless.

After a long moment of silence, a defeated smile appeared on Wang Ming's face, and he clasped his hands before Yuan.

"Thank you for the exchange, Yuan. It was an incredible experience for me, especially since I don't usually have anybody that can fight me equally, much less defeat me. We should spar with each other more often— without using any sword techniques, of course."

"Likewise, it was also a good experience for me." Yuan clasped his hands together while still holding the broken sword.

"Now that is out of the way... If you don't mind, can you tell me what kind of sword technique you'd just used? I have never seen anything like that before— not even in Cultivation Online." Wang Ming then asked him, his gaze filled with interest.

Chapter 538 A Worthy Opponen

"Of course, if you don't want to tell me, that's fine as well." Wang Ming added.

After a moment of silence, Yuan said, "It's Sword Qi."

"Sword Qi? I have never heard of this technique before. Where did you learn such a powerful technique?"

"Cultivation Online," he responded calmly.

Wang Ming's eyes widened with surprise.

As far as he was aware, there hasn't been a single person that has successfully learned a technique from Cultivation Online that wasn't a cultivation technique.

"Congratulations, Yuan. You're the first person I know of that has successfully learned a martial technique from Cultivation Online." Wang Ming said after his daze.

"Anyways, it's getting late. I will be here again tomorrow if you'd like to spar again." Wang Ming then said.

Yuan nodded.

Once Wang Ming left the scene, the crowd around them also dispersed.

However, they didn't stop talking about Yuan and Wang Ming's spar for the rest of the day.

Shortly after Wang Ming left, Meixiu returned to the first floor.

"I am finished for the day. Are you ready to leave, or do you want to train more?" Meixiu asked Yuan after returning to him.

"Let's go home. I had enough training today." Yuan said.

Then he noticed the bow and arrows in Meixiu's grasp.

"Where'd you get those?"

"The instructor gave them to me so that I could practice even at home," she said.

"Looks like you had fun today," Yuan chuckled.

"Yes, archery was more entertaining than I'd anticipated. I think I will stick with it for a little longer."

Sometime later, they returned to the immortal caves.

Yuan sat down and prepared to remove his mask, but Meixiu quickly said, "Wait a moment. Don't take your mask off just yet. Let me look around the place for a little bit."

Yuan wasn't sure what she was trying to do but he nodded his head regardless.

Then he watched as Meixiu searched every nook and cranny of the place.

"What are you looking for?" He decided to ask her.

"If there is any surveillance in this place," she calmly responded.

"L-Like hidden cameras? I don't think they would do something like that..." Yuan said in a somewhat dazed voice.

"I know, but we can never be too careful."

Many minutes later, once Meixiu was satisfied with the results, she removed her mask and said, "The place looks clear."

Yuan also removed his mask afterward.

"Ah... I am tired... I don't think I have ever practiced this intensively before, not even in Cultivation Online." Yuan released a long sigh.

Sometime later, Meixiu asked, "Do you want to take a shower first?"

"Yes, I have been sweating all day."

"You can go inside first. I will follow you after I unpack our clothes."

"Okay."

Yuan then went into the bathroom that was larger than he'd anticipated, and there was even a square bathtub in the corner.

After removing his clothes and tossing them inside the laundry basket, Yuan took a seat and started rinsing his body with warm water.

"Hmm?" Yuan noticed something different about this water.

Compared to the water in his apartment, this water actually contained a hint of spiritual energy!

"The spiritual energy in this place is so potent that it even affects the water?" He mumbled to himself.

A few minutes later, Meixiu entered the bathroom and started washing his back. Once that was done, she assisted him in the front for a couple of minutes before rinsing him off.

After drying his body, Yuan left the bathroom to wear some clothes that were neatly folded on the desk.

Meanwhile, Meixiu stayed in the bathroom to clean herself next.

Once they were both clean and getting hungry, they realized something.

"There's no kitchen in this place? So we have to eat outside?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

He didn't mind eating outside, but that would require him to remove his mask.

"We can get the food there and eat it back here," Meixiu suggested.

"Let's do that." Yuan agreed.

They then wore their masks that had been washed by Meixiu and prepared to leave the immortal caves, but right as they left the place, they noticed a figure approaching their direction.

"Senior Wang?" They immediately recognized the identity of this individual.

"Good evening, Yuan. Where are you heading this late?" Senior Wang asked them.

"We are planning on going to the cafeteria for some food since there's no kitchen in the immortal cave," he said.

Senior Wang chuckled and said, "That's exactly why I am here. I forgot to tell you about that, I am sorry."

"Anyways, the cafeteria is half an hour away from the immortal caves, and it's mostly for the ordinary disciples, so we don't normally go there when we're training in the immortal caves."

"Then where do you go?" Yuan asked.

"We either have someone deliver it to us, or we go to a special cafeteria that's made specifically for people training at the immortal caves."

Senior Wang pointed to a certain path and said, "Follow this path and you should arrive at a restaurant called 'Silver Restaurant'. It's only a five-minute walk."

She then pointed to another path and said, "There's also an open area where you can do some outdoor grilling if that's your thing."

"I understand. Thank you."

"By the way, I heard you had a spar with my grandson today, and you defeated him spectacularly." Senior Wang suddenly mentioned their exchange today.

"I knew he was from your family since he had the same surname, but I didn't think he was your grandson."

"Yes, you should've seen his face when he told me about how he'd lost to you. I have never seen him so happy despite being the loser. I think he's just happy to have a worthy opponent that can challenge him since he can defeat even the elite disciples quite easily."

And she continued, "He will surely approach you for more spars in the future. If it ever gets annoying, you can tell me and I will do something about it."

Chapter 539 A Single Bed

After their short conversation, Senior Wang left the scene while Yuan and Meixiu made their way to the Silver Restaurant.

Five minutes later, they arrive before a medium-sized building that was painted metallic white, making it appear to be made out of silver.

They quickly went inside, and to their surprise, it was completely empty.

In fact, there were only two tables in the whole building— a small square table with two seats and a large round table with 8 seats.

"I don't recognize either of you. Are you new?" The old man standing behind the reception asked them.

"Yes, today is our first day at the Jaded Garden," said Yuan."

"Then you probably don't know this, but we only serve those training at the immortal caves," he said.

"We are training at the immortal caves," Yuan said, surprising the old man.

After all, how can someone who'd just joined the faction receive the privilege to train at the immortal caves— on their first day, no less.

Meixiu could tell that the old man didn't believe them based on his expression, so she said, "Yuan, show him the medallion you got from Senior Wang."

Yuan nodded and retrieved the medallion, showing it to the old man.

The old man was completely speechless now. Even if he didn't want to believe it, he had to before the presence of the medallion.

The old man then straightened his back and bowed to them, "I apologize for doubting you two. Please forgive me."

Yuan nodded and said, "We're just here for some food."

"Of course! Tell me what you'd like to eat and I'll cook something for you." The old man said.

"Do you have a menu?" Yuan then asked.

"Nope! I can cook almost anything as long as I have the ingredients. Even if I don't have all of the ingredients, I will somehow manage," said the old man in a confident voice.

"Anything?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

He wasn't sure what he wanted to eat.

"Then how about you cook us your best dish— or whatever you recommend?" Yuan said after pondering for a moment.

"Sure thing! Give me about twenty minutes since everything will be cooked fresh. In the meantime, you can do whatever. Oh, one more thing. Would you like to eat here or would you like the food to go?"

"To go."

"I understand."

The old man then went to the back of the room and proceeded to cook.

Meanwhile, Yuan and Meixiu went outside to smell the fresh air alongside the old man's cooking that grew more delicious as time went on.

About twenty minutes later, they went back inside to grab the food.

"What's your name? People call me Chef San."

"You can call me Yuan."

"Feng," Meixiu said.

"Yuan and Feng, huh? What unique names. Anyways, I hope you enjoy the food. I'll see you two tomorrow."

After getting their food, Yuan and Meixiu returned to their immortal caves, their mouth salivating the entire time as they couldn't wait to taste whatever Chef San cooked, as the fragrance just smelled too good.

Once they returned home, they immediately opened the food, and to their surprise, there was a lot of food— more than one would anticipate for two people.

"Why did he give us so much food? Does he really expect two of us to eat all of this?" Meixiu mumbled, as there were enough to feed four— even five people.

"Maybe he was feeling generous since it's our first day here," Yuan said, not thinking too much about it.

Thus, they began eating the food shortly after.

"Heavens! The flavor is indescribably delicious! I have never tasted food this amazing before outside of Cultivation Online!" Yuan exclaimed after taking his first bite.

Meixiu nodded her head in agreement.

Besides the food at the Dragon Pavilion, nothing could compare to Chef San's cooking skills.

The food was so amazing that Meixiu was wondering if she should ask the old man to teach her how to cook better.

Of course, Meixiu is a pretty amazing cook herself, but compared to Chef San who has decades of cooking experience within a cultivation family, the disparity was too vast, and it wasn't fair to compare them.

"I'm definitely going back tomorrow morning for breakfast," Yuan said after they finished eating all of the food.

"You can really eat..."

Even though she already knew about his massive appetite, it was still surprising to see him eat so much food.

Sometime later, after washing their face and brushing their teeth, they went to the bedroom to sleep.

However, there was a problem.

"There's only one bed...?"

Yuan and Meixiu stood before the only bed in the entire place.

After all, immortal caves were built with a single person in mind, since they are mostly for training, and most people cultivate alone, so there wasn't any need for a second bed.

"At least it's big enough to fit both of us," Yuan said.

"I-It's okay, I can sleep outside," Meixiu said.

Although she had slept on the same bed with him on the airplane, she had the courage to do so only because it was for a single day. Doing so for many days was too much for her at the moment.

"That's not good. I don't mind even if you sleep with me, and where are you going to sleep outside? There are no couches." Yuan said, not minding that he has to sleep with Meixiu, as they have already done it once.

"..."

Meixiu didn't know how to respond to his question since she'd said such words without thinking about it.

Yuan then got inside the bed and under the blankets before patting the space beside him.

"Come, sleep with me," he said in a calm voice.

Meixiu sighed inwardly. Although she had thought him some common sense, there are some things that cannot be taught through words alone.

Meixiu eventually gave up and entered the bed with Yuan, spending the rest of the night together in the same bed.

Chapter 540 Guests at the Yu Family

"Good night, Meixiu," Yuan said to her as he got comfortable underneath the blankets.

"Good night," Meixiu responded in a somewhat nervous voice, trying her best to not think too much about their situation.

'Nothing will happen... Yuan... He's not someone who would do such a thing unless I initiate it...' She eventually convinced herself that nothing will happen and slowly fell asleep.

They wake up the following morning without any incidents, and they returned to the Silver Restaurant for breakfast.

"Good morning, young lads. What do you think of yesterdays' food? Was it to your liking?" Chef San asked them the moment they entered the restaurant.

"Yes, it was amazing, and thank you for giving us so much food," Yuan said to him.

Chef San laughed out loud and said, "If I didn't cook so much food, you'd starve the entire night, young man.

"Eh?" Yuan was surprised to hear this and wondered why he would say such a thing.

"I can tell just by looking at your body— that you require a lot of energy, so I purposefully made more food for you. You eat a lot, right?"

"I-I guess..." Yuan said, completely dumbfounded now.

How does one tell how much someone can eat just by looking at their body? Is Chef San using a cultivation technique?

"Thank you for the food."

Sometime later, Yuan and Meixiu left the restaurant and returned back to the immortal caves to eat their breakfast that tasted as amazing as last night's dinner.

After breakfast, they spent a few hours cultivating, as the spiritual energy in their area was too good to not cultivate.

Once their bodies were filled with energy, Yuan and Meixiu made their way to the training tower, where they would proceed to spend the rest of the day training.

"I will see you later. If you need anything, you can find me on the fourth floor. If I am not there, I am at the outdoor training area." Meixiu said to Yuan before separating from him.

"There's an outdoor training area?" Yuan asked, as this was his first time hearing about it.

"Yes, you follow this path behind the building, and it will lead you to a large outdoor training area."

"Alright, I will check it out when I have the time." Yuan nodded.

A few minutes later, Meixiu arrived at the fourth floor and was immediately welcomed by the instructor.

At the same time, Yuan was approached by Wang Ming the moment he noticed Yuan entering the gymnasium.

"Hey, Yuan! How about another round?" Wang Ming asked with a bright smile on his face.

"Sure." Yuan calmly nodded, and they went to look for a spacious area to spar again, which quickly attracted the attention of other disciples in the gymnasium.

Meanwhile, tens of thousands of miles away, back in their hometown, the Yu Family sat before two individuals with a seemingly nervous expression on their faces, which was very unnatural and rare.

In fact, they weren't this nervous even when dealing with Chairman Zhao.

One of these two individuals was sitting on the couch, and she was a graceful young lady who appeared to be around 18 years old, wearing a luxurious red dress adorned with gems.

The second guest was an old man wearing a butler suit, and he was standing behind the young lady, clearly her caretaker.

"W-What brings you to our humble Yu Family, esteemed guests?" Yu Yong asked them.

The young lady calmly sipped on the tea that had been provided by the Yu Family before quickly putting it down.

"Whoever made this tea should learn how to make tea," she said.

Yu Yong and Tang Lee's eyebrows uncontrollably twitched when they heard her words, but they didn't get angry.

Yu Yong even put on a forced smile on his face before speaking, "I apologize for the inconvenience, Lady Chu, and I will make sure whoever made this tea will be removed for their incompetence."

The young lady didn't say anything else for a good minute before she looked around and asked, "If I recall correctly, you should have a daughter and a son. Where are they?"

Although he was taken aback by such a random question, Yu Yong responded, "They are currently busy and away from the family."

"Hmmm... Is that so?" The young lady remained calm, acting like she didn't care about his answer.

"Then where did they go?"

"Our daughter Yu Rou is currently in another city after joining a faction." Yu Yong said, purposefully ignoring Yuan.

The young lady then said, "Just your daughter? What about your son, Yu Tian?"

Both Yu Yong and Tang Lee had a bad feeling about this young lady when the name Yu Tian came out of her mouth.

"H-He's also in another city being looked at by the doctors there." Yu Yong said.

Although he could've told her that Yu Tian had left the family, he was afraid that she might ask more questions, so he gave her something less questionable.

"I see... Do you mind telling me which city? I'd like to meet him— Yu Tian." The young lady suddenly said.

"You want to meet him? Why?" Yu Yong was baffled by this sudden turn of events.

Why would this young lady who has no connection to the Yu Family suddenly want to meet their son? Could she be another one of his fans in the past?

"Why not? I heard that he used to be an amazing musician," she calmly said.

"He may have been an amazing musician, but after he got sick, he had to give up on music. Furthermore, his condition... I am afraid that you will only be disappointed." Yu Yong said.

"I won't mind it even if I am disappointed. Let me see him," she insisted.

"I'm sorry, Lady Chu, but he's currently in a situation that doesn't allow visitors. If you want, we can notify you when he returns." Tang Lee said to her, silently pondering to herself what this Lady Chu's real motives were showing up at their place.

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 541 Lady Chu

"Do you know when he'll be back? I like marking things down on my calendar," Lady Chu asked them.

"Unfortunately, we do not know when he'll return. It all depends on the doctors and his condition." Tang Lee shook her head in a regretful manner.

"Unfortunate, indeed..." Lady Chu closed her eyes and proceeded to remain silent for the next few minutes.

When she finally opened her eyes again, she stood up and said to the Yu Family, "Thank you for taking your time to entertain me even though I showed up unannounced. I will return this favor in the future."

"Don't even mention it. It was an honor to be of help to the esteemed Chu Family." Yu Yong said to her with a smile on his face.

"Let's go." Lady Chu said to the old man before walking towards the exit.

Once the young lady and the old man left the scene, Yu Yong sat back on his seat and released a stressful sigh, "Why on earth did she even come here? I was nearly shocked to death when the Chu Family visited unannounced."

The Chu Family is one of the most influential families in the world with many successful companies all around the world.

However, despite their worldwide influence, nobody really knows much about the Chu Family besides what they show the public, which is why Yu Family appeared very nervous before them.

Compared to the Yu Family, the Chu Family was incomparably more powerful and influential. In fact, it wouldn't be an exaggeration to call the Chu Family one of the top ten most powerful families in the world while the Yu Family hovered around the top 50.

"I am more worried about why she insists on meeting that trash. What should we do now? If we don't let them meet, she will definitely return and ask more questions, which wouldn't be good for our hearts, much less our reputation."

"There's nothing we can do besides hope that she forgets about our conversation today. We already kicked Yu Tian out of the household, not to mention the previous incident. I am willing to bet my everything that he will not return, and I am not going to plead him to return either."

"Furthermore, even if she returns, we can simply continue to delay it until she gives up. I highly doubt the Chu Family is willing to cause trouble for our family over something so silly."

Tang Lee nodded her head in agreement, "Even if they cause us trouble, it's nothing we can't handle. It's just going to be troublesome. Anyways, I am going to cultivate to clear my mind. Unless it's an emergency, don't bother me."

Tang Lee left the scene shortly after, but Yu Yong lingered around a little longer, silently staring at the teacup that Lady Chu had drunk from, and he wondered to himself why she wanted to suddenly meet with Yuan, who hasn't appeared in public for a decade.

"Whatever. It's best to not think about this anymore." Yu Yong shook his head before walking out of the room, trying his best to forget about what happened today.

Meanwhile, after leaving the Yu Family, Lady Chu walked to her limousine with the old man.

Once they were before the car, the old man opened the door for her, closing it after she went inside.

He then walked to the front of the car and entered the driver's seat.

"Where should we go now, Young Lady?" The old man asked her.

However, Lady Chu didn't respond, as she was completely focused on staring at the Yu Family's household.

The old man didn't rush her and patiently waited for her to respond.

A few moments later, she spoke in a calm voice, "We're going to the apartment."

"Yes, Young Lady."

The old man immediately started the car and drove her away from the Yu Family.

Sometime later, they stopped before a tall apartment.

"We have arrived at the location, Young Lady." The old man said.

Lady Chu nodded and got out of the car before turning to look at the apartment that Yuan and Meixiu lived at.

Once the old man also got out of the car, they made their way inside the apartment, but they were quickly stopped by security, who didn't recognize them, and after Meixiu's incident, security has ramped up in the apartment.

"Excuse me, are you a resident here?" The security asked them.

"No, but I am here to visit a resident," said Lady Chu.

And she quickly added, "His name is Yu Tian, and he lives on the 17th floor."

'The 17th floor?'

The security raised his eyebrows.

Although he didn't know which apartment room the incident occurred in, he knew it happened on the 17th floor.

"What's your relationship with this person?" He then asked.

"He's my friend, and I promised to visit him the last time we spoke, so here I am." Lady Chu spoke with a beautiful smile on her face, causing the middle-aged man to blush.

The security didn't think much of her answer, as there was no way that such an elegantly dressed young lady would cause any trouble.

"Please sign your name and phone number on this piece of paper and you can be on your way." The security guard said to her.

"Thank you."

After writing her name and phone number down, Lady Chu and the old man took the elevator to the 17th floor before approaching the door at the end.

As they approached apartment number 17F, the young lady could feel her body shaking uncontrollably.

"Are you okay, Young Lady?" The old man asked her when he noticed this.

"Yes, I am just a little nervous... and excited," she nodded.

The old man no longer said anything and silently followed her from behind.

Once they were standing in front of 17F, Lady Chu did not immediately knock on the door and proceeded to stand there for many minutes without moving.

She then closed her eyes to calm down, reopening them after taking a few deep breaths.

'After a decade, I have finally found you, Yuan...'

Once she was ready, Lady Chu lifted her slender arm and knocked on the door, completely unaware that the residents of 17F were away.

Chapter 542 Following the Information

Knock Knock

Lady Chu knocked on the door with a resolute expression on her graceful face, but her heart was beating irregularly, almost like she'd just ran a marathon.

After all, she had waited over a decade for this moment.

A few moments went by without anyone answering the door, and Lady Chu patiently waited for an entire minute before knocking on the door again.

However, nobody answered the door.

"How weird... Where could he be at this time? According to my information, he rarely leaves home." Lady Chu wondered out loud.

"Let's wait here for a bit," she then said to the old man.

"I understand." He nodded.

Minutes quickly turned into hours, yet Yuan showed no sign of returning.

"Perhaps he moved out after that incident?" The old man suddenly suggested.

"That's not possible. I checked with the intelligence agency right before we came here. They said that Yu Tian hasn't moved out." Lady Chu said with a puzzled frown on her face.

Eventually, she retrieved her cellphone and dialed a certain number.

"Hey, it's me. I want to know where Yu Tian went. He's not home, and I have waited for many hours."

A few minutes later, the person on the other side of the phone said, "Apparently, Meixiu, Yu Tian's caretaker, brought two plane tickets to Yang City. I assume they went there for some reason."

"Yang City? What is he doing there?" Lady Chu raised her eyebrows in a puzzled manner.

"Can you check the system to see when they will return?" She then asked.

"I have already checked the system for you, Young Lady, but it appears that they didn't buy a ticket home yet."

"So either they don't plan on returning or they don't know when they'll return, huh? Keep me updated, and try to find out where they went after going to the Yang City."

"Roger, Young Lady."

Lady Chu released a deep sigh after hanging up the phone, "I waited 10 years for this moment, and he's gone off to another city with another woman? How troublesome."

"Will we be heading to Yang City?" The old man suddenly asked her.

"Of course, and we're not going to stop until I find him!"

"I understand. Allow me to prepare the airplane." The old man nodded before taking out his cellphone and making a few calls.

"I have notified the Masters that we will be going to Yang City. They said to stay away from the Six Spiritual Families' territory."

"Okay."

The two of them left the apartment shortly after and returned to the car.

Once they were inside, they drove to the airport, where their private airplane was already prepared for them, and they lifted into the air shortly after boarding.

Meanwhile, in the Jaded Garden, Yuan and Meixiu returned to the immortal caves after another day of intensive training.

After a quick shower, they went to the Silver Restaurant for dinner.

At night, they would either go to sleep or cultivate.

Yuan decided to go to sleep since his cultivation base was barely improving after he entered Spirit Master.

Meixiu decided to cultivate, as that would mean she didn't need to share a bed with Yuan, and she also wanted to take advantage of the rich spiritual energy in the area.

The two of them would repeat their next few days in such a manner.

By now, Meixiu has completely familiarized herself with the bow, and she would even spar with some of the instructors.

"Okay, let's end it here today." The instructor said to Meixiu after training with her for half an hour.

"Thank you for the session today, Instructor Li." Meixiu bowed to her afterward.

"Even though I am supposed to be training you, I am also getting good training out of this. You have improved vastly after just a few days. At this rate, you'll surpass me after a few more weeks."

"Anyways, before you leave, I should let you know that there will be a small competition amongst the archery disciples tomorrow afternoon. If you want to see how you compare with the others, you should join the competition. The prize will be a premium bow crafted by Elder Hong himself."

"Tomorrow, right? I will be there." Meixiu nodded.

After saying her goodbyes, she went back down to the first floor, where Yuan was training with Wang Ming.

The two of them have been practicing basically every day. In fact, they fought so much that the other disciples in the gymnasium would no longer stop to watch them, as it was such a common occurrence.

The sound of wood colliding with each other would resound every time Yuan or Wang Ming swings their sword, creating this somewhat rhythmic sound.

"Hm? Is it already evening?" Yuan stopped sparring with Wang Ming once he noticed Meixiu's presence, as she would always appear when it was starting to get dark outside.

After Meixiu nodded, Yuan said to Wang Ming, "Let's stop here today."

"Alright. Oh, and before you go, there will be a friendly competition between the elite disciples next week. This will be a good opportunity for you to see what it's like fighting the other disciples, as they all wield different weapons."

"A competition, huh? That sounds interesting." Yuan nodded, and he continued, "Where will it be held?"

"I can take you there. I will tell you more about it the day before."

Sometime later, Yuan and Meixiu returned to the immortal caves.

Meanwhile, somewhere in Yang City, Lady Chu picked up her phone that had been ringing.

"Did you find out where Yu Tian went?" she asked the person on the other side.

"Yes. According to our intel, they got a helicopter service that brought them to the Jaded Garden, and they haven't returned yet, so there's a good chance that they are still there."

"Jaded Garden?" Lady Chu immediately frowned when she heard this information, as she knew that was where the Six Spiritual Families were located. In fact, it was the core of their headquarters.

However, she was advised to stay away from the Six Spiritual Families, putting her in a difficult situation.

Chapter 543 Archery Competition

After pondering for a moment, Lady Chu retrieved her phone and dialed a number.

"Good evening, esteemed father. I am currently in a difficult situation and I need your help," she said.

Immediately, a frantic voice resounded from the phone, "What happened?! Are you in danger?! Where are you?! I will immediately send support!"

"Calm down, father. I am fine. Anyways, you told me to stay away from the Six Spiritual Families, but I might have to see them, and I was hoping you'd let me go."

"..."

Her father didn't immediately respond and took a long moment to ponder.

Sometime later, he asked her in a solemn voice, "Does this have anything to do with the person you are looking for?"

"Yes, it does. According to the intelligence agency, he is inside the Jaded Garden, and I have to go see him."

After another moment of silence, her father released a low sigh, "I promised you that if you manage to endure your training that lasted over a decade, I would let you meet this person. Although I would have preferred that you stayed away from the Six Spiritual Families since there's no other way... Go ahead. Just try to keep your identity hidden."

"I will have people on standby near that place just in case you encounter any trouble with them."

"Thank you, father! I love you! Muah!"

After kissing her father through the phone, Lady Chu hung up and turned to look at her caretaker with a smile on her face.

"We are going to Jaded Garden!" She declared.

"I understand." The old man nodded.

The following morning, they boarded a private helicopter and made their way to the Jaded Garden.

Meanwhile, Yuan and Meixiu had just finished eating breakfast.

"There's going to be a competition between the archery disciples and I am going to participate in it, so I might be a little later than usual today," Meixiu said to him as they walked to the training area.

"Really? Can I watch it? I need a break from training as well," Yuan asked her.

"I think so. I will ask the instructor."

"Okay."

After arriving at the training area, Yuan said, "Give me a minute to speak with Wang Ming since he's probably expecting to train with me today."

He then went inside the gymnasium on the first floor, and as he'd expected, Wang Ming approached him with a sword in his grasp.

"Ya ready?" Wang Ming asked him in a casual manner, feeling completely familiar with Yuan after sparring with him for the past few days.

"Sorry, but I am going to take a break today to watch Me— Feng participate in an archery tournament," Yuan said to him.

"Oh, right, there was something like that going on today. Alright. I guess I will take a break as well. To tell you the truth, my body has been aching for a while now ever since we started sparring, but this means I am getting good training, so I don't mind it."

"And since I have nothing else to do, allow me to follow you."

Thus, Wang Ming tagged alongside Yuan to watch Meixiu's competition.

A few minutes later, they arrive on the fourth floor, where the instructor was already waiting for them.

'That's Player Yuan, huh... He certainly gives off an unfathomable aura...'

The archery instructor who was a mid-level Spirit Warrior stared at Yuan for a moment before turning to look at Meixiu, "The competition won't begin until the afternoon, but we can start making our way there now."

Meixiu nodded, and they followed the instructor to the outdoor training area, but they continued walking a little further down the path, where they arrive before a massive grassland with many people already setting up the targets for the competition.

The moment they arrived, the disciples there turned to look at them.

"Hey, look. Is that her? That 'genius' who can spar with an instructor after a few days?" One of the disciples there whispered to another.

"I think so. My instructor had been talking about her with another instructor and I happened to overhear them."

"Is she really that good? Has anybody here seen her archery skills?"

"Nope."

"Me neither."

After a disciple reaches a certain skill level, they would rarely visit the training building since they would receive new and more professional instructors that will teach them privately, hence why nobody there recognized Meixiu.

"Since we have some time, allow me to explain the competition to you."
The instructor said to Meixiu.

"There will be four different exercises, each testing your archery skills. For the first exercise, you simply need to shoot a still target to earn points, and the further target you hit, the more points you will receive."

"For the second exercise, you will have to shoot a moving target, but it won't be any ordinary targets. They change things up every year so I can't go too deep into this one. You will understand what I mean during the competition."

"For the third exercise, you will be standing on a moving platform while trying to shoot your target."

"And for the last exercise, you will have to hunt some live targets using only your bow and arrow, but there's a catch— you cannot kill these targets, or that will result in a loss of points."

Meixiu raised her eyebrows. How is she supposed to hunt something without killing it? It didn't make any sense to her.

"You probably have a few questions, but you don't need to worry, since they will all be answered later when they give more details about the competition. Until then, sit back, relax, and clear your mind."

The instructor left them alone afterward to prepare for the competition.

"What do you think? You confident in winning?" Yuan asked her.

"I can't really say for sure since I don't know how good the others are, but I will definitely try my best to win this competition," she said.

Chapter 544 The First Even

By the time the preparations were complete, all of the participants entering the competition have arrived at the place, and one of the instructors there gathered all of the participants there.

"The competition will start earlier than scheduled since everyone is here and the preparations are already complete. Take 10 minutes to prepare yourselves."

After speaking with the contestants, the instructor went to lead the spectators to the bleachers nearby.

"Good luck," Yuan said to Meixiu before going to the bleachers with Wang Ming and the others.

Once the spectators were seated, one of the instructors there began talking about the competition.

"For this competition, you will need to earn points from 4 different events, and at the end of the competition, the one with the highest score wins. As for the reward, Elder Hong from the Hong Family will personally craft you a bow."

As the instructor started explaining, six figures wearing exquisite robes could be seen approaching the area, instantly attracting the peoples' attention.

"Look over there! It's the grand elders! And they're all here!"

"Wow, it's rare to see them all together besides grand celebrations or during important events. I don't think they were even here during the last competition."

"It must be because of that person..."

The people there turned to look at the only individual that was wearing a mask sitting in the bleachers.

And just as the spectators had expected, after the grand elders spoke with the instructors, they began approaching them at the bleachers.

"Greetings, Grand Elders!"

Everybody there but Yuan suddenly stood up and bowed to the grand elders in a respectful voice.

"Don't mind us." Senior Wang said to them.

"We're just here to spectate the competition just like the rest of you."

The grand elders then turned to look at Yuan and clasped their hands towards him.

"It's been a while, Daoist Yuan. How has the Jaded Garden been treating you the past few days?" Senior Xi said to him.

"It's been great. I have gained a lot of experience here, yet there is still so much for me to do, so I'm thinking about extending my stay here if you don't mind."

The grand elders were ecstatic to hear that Yuan was planning on staying longer than a week. At this rate, he might even decide to join them!

"That's great to hear! If you need anything, just let any of us know!" Senior Wang said to him before they went to take a seat in the bleachers.

Of course, they sat around Yuan and Wang Ming.

Meanwhile, the instructors began explaining the first part of the event.

"For the first event, you will be shooting still targets. There will be three difficulties. 150 meters, 300 meters, and lastly, 500 meters. You can choose to shoot whichever distance you want, but if you're looking for the most points, you'll obviously need to hit the furthest target."

"You get 1 point if you hit the 150-meter target, 2 points for the 300-meter, and 4 points for the 500-meter target. Furthermore, if you hit the red on the target, you will get double the points."

"You each will get 5 minutes to practice your shots before you officially begin, and once you start, you will get 3 shots with 1 minute between each shot."

'500 meters... That's really far...' Meixiu thought to herself as she stared at the small target in the distance.

The longest shot she has taken thus far was only about 200 meters, so this competition will definitely test her skills.

Fortunately for her, she had 5 minutes to practice, and she wasn't unfamiliar with shooting targets at 500 meters since she used to do it with guns.

After the explanation, the instructors told the participants to stand in their lane.

A few minutes later, all 20 participants stood in their lane with an identical bow in their grasp alongside a quiver that was filled with arrows, both provided to them, as personal items weren't allowed.

Once everyone was prepared, the instructor shouted, "Your 5 minutes of practice starts now!"

The timer started the moment a whistle was blown.

The participants immediately began practicing their shots and getting familiarized with the bow.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

Arrows rained down from the sky as all 20 participants shot their targets.

The majority of the participants went for the 150-meter target at first with a few going for the 300-meter target. As for the 500-meter target, nobody went for it just yet.

After spending a minute on the 150-meter target, Meixiu was already used to her new bow, and she immediately began shooting at the 300-meter target.

Her first shot landed on the target, but it didn't hit the red, so Meixiu tried again.

Three shots later, she managed to hit the red.

After shooting another 3 shots, all landing in the red, Meixiu tried to go for the 500-meter target, but she would miss a dozen of them before finally hitting the target.

Five minutes passed in the blink of an eye, and the instructor blew on the whistle again, signaling them to stop.

The spectator looked at the results. Even though it was only a practice round, they could see who had the best results.

Although everyone had managed to hit the 500-meter target, not everybody had been able to hit the red, and Meixiu was one of the few participants that didn't manage to hit the red in the 500-meter target.

However, she wasn't discouraged. Even if she loses the first event, it was not the end for her, as there were 3 more events after this one.

Once the practice ended, a couple of people went to clean the arrows off the field and replace the targets.

When that was done, the instructor gave the participants a moment to prepare themselves before she blew the whistle, officially starting the competition.

Meixiu took a deep breath, focusing on the 500-meter target. Even if she doesn't hit the red, she was confident in hitting the target, and a single 500-meter target was worth as much as a 300-meter target in the red, so it made sense to go for the 500-meter target.

Once she was ready, Meixiu released her fingers, sending the arrow in the bow flying forward.

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 545 The Second Even

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

Over a dozen arrows were released almost simultaneously, creating a spectacle scene.

A second later, these arrows attached themselves to the 500-meter target without a single one of them missing, and half of these arrows managed to hit the red.

However, these participants didn't have any time to look at the results and immediately began preparing for the second shot.

Three minutes passed in a flash, and the instructor blew the whistle, signaling the end of the first event.

The instructors then went to look at the targets and tallied the points.

A few minutes later, the results were in.

"Look! As expected, Jenny got first place with three perfect shots at the 500-meter target!"

"There are 6 people at second place, huh. Not bad."

"What's Me— Feng's position in the ranking?" Yuan asked Wang Ming, as he wasn't able to see the scoreboard with his divine sense.

"Feng? Let me see... She's ranked 15 out of 20. She got three hits on the 500-meter, but none of them had hit the red." Wang Ming answered his question despite thinking that it was a weird question.

After all, can't he see the scores himself?

A few minutes later, the instructor gathered the participants in another location where the second event would take place, and there was a lot of tall grass in that place.

"For the second event, you will be shooting moving targets at around 100 meters. Do you see this tall field of grass? There are machines hidden inside that will be throwing apples into the air every single, and you will receive 1 point for every apple you hit in a time limit of 1 minute."

"These machines will also throw small red marbles into the air, and if you hit these targets, you will receive 3 points instead."

"There will be no practice for this event."

Once the instructor explained the rules of the event, she called one of the participants onto the stage and gave her a minute to mentally prepare herself.

The whistle was blown a minute later, and the participant immediately raised her bow, shooting arrows at the apples that were being tossed into the air by the machines hidden within the grass.

It was unknown how many machines were hidden in the grass, but the apples would always be tossed at a different location.

And there would be a small marble the size of a pebble being thrown into the air after every few apples.

Although they were hard to hit, it wasn't impossible, and the participant managed to hit one of them during her minute-long session that exploded into tiny red fragments.

"31 points!" The instructor announced at the end of her session.

Once that participant left the stage, another one entered the stage.

"28 points!" The instructor announced a minute later.

"34 points!"

"33 points!"

"29 points!"

"51 points!"

"As expected of Xiao Mi, who is renowned for her fast shooting. Although she isn't good at long-range shooting, she's probably the best when it comes to rapid-firing with the bow, and her accuracy is very good as well."

The spectators commented as they watched the participants shoot apples and marbles.

A dozen names later, it was finally Meixiu's turn to enter the stage.

Once she was on the stage, Meixiu took a minute to calm and clear her mind.

The moment the whistle was blown, she raised her bow and started shooting arrows every second, surprising the crowd.

"Wow! Looks like Xiao Mi isn't the only one who's good at rapid-fire! Who's that participant?! I don't recognize that person! And what is with the mask?"

"You don't know? That's Player Yuan's caretaker, Feng."

"What? Really? No wonder... I guess it does require some skills to be Player Yuan's caretaker."

Although the spectators were surprised at first, once they learned that Meixiu was Yuan's caretaker, they were no longer as surprised.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

Meixiu kept shooting her bow almost every second until the whistle was blown.

"60 points!"

The instructor announced.

"Wow, that's even better than Xiao Mi. How many marbles did she hit? I counted 7."

"Yeah, she'd hit 7."

The second event finished half an hour later, and Meixiu had achieved first place, boosting her total rank to number 7.

"Wow, your caretaker is very talented. Where did you find someone like her?" Wang Ming asked Yuan.

"Who knows..." Yuan responded with a smile behind his mask.

Sometime later, the instructors gathered the participants again at the third location, which was a large but weirdly made platform, and it sort of resembled a treadmill.

"This is the movable platform. Watch."

The instructor pressed a button, and the stage immediately started moving one way like a treadmill.

"You will need to shoot your targets while standing on this platform. Moreover, your targets will be moving as well."

The instructor pointed to the field about 150 meters away, and there were human-figured targets moving left and right in a rhythmic manner.

"There are two targets, one at 150 meters and the other at 300 meters. You get 2 points if you hit the 150-meter target, 3 points if you hit the 300-meter, and like the first event, you will get double points if you hit the red."

"You will get 5 shots in total for this event with 1 minute for each shot, and the timer will not begin until the whistle blows."

Once again, every participant got a minute to mentally prepare themselves, and once the event began, the treadmill-like stage started moving, and it would gradually move faster after each shot.

When the treadmill stage reached a desirable speed, the instructor blew the whistle, signaling the beginning of the event.

The participant did not immediately shoot and took a moment to familiarize herself with the stage.

Half a minute later, she drew her bow and aimed it at the 300-meter target.

Whoosh!

The arrow flew straight at the target, hitting it square in the chest, but it missed the red by an inch.

Five minutes later, the instructor blew the whistle and said, "17 points!"

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 546 The Third Even

"How much more difficult do you think the third event is compared to the first or second event? Or is it easier?" One of the spectators asked out loud.

"It should probably be harder than the previous two events, especially since you have to constantly run on that treadmill stage. I cannot imagine trying to do what they're doing right now. As expected of the best archers in the Spiritual Elites."

"18 points!"

"15 points!"

"21 points!"

"18 points!"

Every five minutes a new participant would enter the treadmill stage to shoot the targets.

About an hour later, Meixiu was called onto the stage, and after spending a minute clearing her mind, she readied her bow and started moving on the stage.

Meixiu shot her bow 30 seconds after the whistle was blown while in a jogging motion.

After her first shot was released and the arrow hit the 300-meter target, Meixiu could feel the treadmill stage moving a little quicker, forcing her to jog faster as well.

Another half a minute later, she shot her second arrow.

Then her third.

And her fourth.

By the time she was on her last arrow, the treadmill stage was moving so quickly that it looked like Meixiu was sprinting for her life.

After taking a deep breath, Meixiu pulled the string with her eyes focused on the 300-meter target.

She'd managed to hit the 300-meter target all 4 times up to this point, but she has not managed to hit the red yet.

And on her last second, Meixiu released the arrow half a second before the instructor blew on the whistle.

Whoosh!

Thud!

The arrow hit the 300-meter target inside the red.

"18 points!"

After another hour, the third event came to an end, and Meixiu actually managed to increase her rank by 1 despite only hitting the red one time, reaching 6th place.

The instructor gathered all of the participants once again, but she didn't lead them to the last location just yet.

Instead, she explained to them about the event first.

"For the final event, you will be hunting rabbits within a certain area with your bow and arrow. However, you are not allowed to kill them! I repeat—you are not to kill them, or you will receive a penalty that is a deduction in points!"

"The fourth event won't start right away since we still need to prepare for it. There will be an hour break, but before I let you go on your break, allow me to explain to you the rules of this event."

"There will be a total of 10 rabbits at once, and they will all have a bell attached to their tail. Your objective for the final event is to shoot the bell off their tail, and every successful hit without injuring the rabbit will give you 5 points."

"However, if you injure the rabbit, you will have 10 points deducted, and if you somehow killed the rabbit, you will have 20 points deducted."

The participants swallowed nervously when they heard the rules, as this final event could potentially make or break their chances of becoming first place.

If they kill even a single rabbit, that would mean having an entire event's worth of points being deducted from them, meaning the points they scored in the previous events would be forfeited, and that could instantly drop even the current first place to the last place!

This rule would no doubt put a large amount of burden on the participants, and it made them really nervous for the first time in this competition.

The instructor sent the participants away for an hour while they cleaned up the place and prepare for the final event.

"You're doing great, Feng," Yuan said to her when she returned.

"Thank you, but I am still miles away compared to the others," Meixiu said.

"You're too humble." Senior Hong chuckled, and he continued, "I heard from the instructors that you only started learning archery a few days ago. Compared to the other disciples that have been practicing since they were young, you're too crazily talented, just like someone else here."

Senior Wang nodded and said, "The fact that you're even competing against them is already amazing enough."

"What? She only started archery a few days ago? How is that even possible?" Wang Ming was shocked to hear this information for the first time.

It was one thing for Player Yuan to be a genius, but even his caretaker is a genius? One can only imagine how talented his family is when the caretaker is already this talented.

While the participants waited for the final event to be prepared, outside the Jaded Garden where the helicopters are located, a new helicopter arrived at the place.

Once the helicopter landed, a beautiful young lady with brown hair flowing down her back and an old man wearing a butler suit stepped outside the helicopter.

"The spiritual energy in this place isn't that bad, but it's not as good compared to the spiritual energy at our home." Lady Chu said after checking out the spiritual energy in that place.

"Alright, now which way to do go?" Lady Chu looked around, and she quickly noticed the tall building in the distance.

"Let's go check out that place first," she said while pointing to it.

They proceeded to approach the building, entering it a few minutes later.

"Welcome to the Jaded Hotel. How may I help you today?" The receptionist greeted them the moment they entered.

"Why is there a hotel in this middle of nowhere?" Lady Chu raised her eyebrows.

The receptionist chuckled a little before replying, "Since most guests visiting this place come in helicopters, the Six Spiritual Families decided to build this hotel here for their convenience."

"I see... Then can you tell me where the Six Spiritual Families are located? This is our first time to this place."

The receptionist nodded and left the desk.

She then took them outside and pointed them in a certain direction.

"If you walk straight down that way, you should reach the entrance in about an hour since it's three miles away."

"I understand. Thank you." Lady Chu said to the receptionist before following the direction she was given.

Chapter 547 The Final Even

An hour after the third event, the participants were gathered by the instructors, who led them to a spacious area with short grass and a massive fence that surrounded the area.

"This area is exactly 1 mile in diameter, and it is where you will be hunting the bells. There will be a total of 10 rabbits in the field, each scoring you 5 points, granted that you don't injure the rabbit."

"Moreover, each of you will have 30 minutes inside the field. However, you will only have 11 arrows in your quiver, and you are not allowed to reuse an arrow once it has been shot. Doing so will be an automatic failure."

After giving the instructions, the instructor sent in the first participant, who immediately began running towards the first rabbit she noticed.

Although 30 minutes may seem like a lot for each person, one must consider how many rabbits there were in the field. Since there are 10 rabbits in the field and the participants had 30 minutes, that gave them 3 minutes for each rabbit, not including the time they have to spend running around to find the rabbits.

The first participant noticed the first rabbit relatively easily due to the low grass and open field.

She then readied her bow and aimed it at the rabbit.

However, she didn't release the arrow and held that position for a good minute before finally releasing the arrow, as she wanted to make sure that the rabbit wouldn't suddenly move around.

Whoosh!

The arrow flew straight at the bell tied to the rabbit's tail by a single strand of string.

Ding!

The arrow struck the bell perfectly, sending it straight off the rabbit's tail.

However, the moment the bell rang, the other rabbits in the vicinity became alert and started jumping around, almost like they were trained to do so.

The participant was immediately overwhelmed by 10 rabbits jumping around, not to mention the obnoxious noises caused by the bells that would ring every time a rabbit moved, and there were 9 of them ringing at once, which easily affected the participants' focus.

Whoosh!

The participant eventually shot another arrow, but it missed the target by a large margin.

She then took a few moments to calm herself, but it was much more difficult than she'd anticipated.

Hell, even the spectators were getting irritated by the constant ringing sounds, much less the participant that was in the middle of it.

"Heavens... This last event is freaking annoying. I cannot imagine being in the field right now trying to concentrate with all the noises."

"Right? And they also have to deal with the pressure of not trying to injure the rabbit."

A minute later, someone exclaimed in a shocked voice, "Ah! She actually hit the rabbit! How unfortunate!"

Indeed, the participant had accidentally struck the rabbit with her arrow due to losing her concentration from the constant ringing.

The participant could feel her heart getting squeezed in pain when she saw the arrow struck the rabbit.

Fortunately for her, the arrow had only struck the rabbit in the leg, or she would've had 20 points deducted instead of 10 points.

Of course, 10 points was still massive, and this participant immediately dropped many ranks due to her fatal mistake.

After losing 10 points, the participant no longer had the courage to shoot her bow anymore and decided to end her session early.

In her mind, she had gained 5 points but lost 10 points, so she only lost 5 points in total. Furthermore, she was no longer in the right state of mind after that one mistake, and if she continued shooting the bow, she would, no doubt, make another mistake, which could be even more fatal than the first.

Thus, the participant decided to leave early.

"Instructor, I am done," she raised her hand and said to the instructor outside the field.

The instructor didn't say anything and merely nodded her head.

She then blew her whistle, and the rabbits suddenly stopped jumping around.

Once the participant left the field, the instructor went inside to take the injured rabbit and handed it to another disciple, who then took the rabbit to get its injury taken care of.

A few minutes later, another rabbit with a bell tied to its tail was brought into the field, and then another participant.

Meanwhile, outside the Jaded Garden, Lady Chu and her butler had just arrived at the entrance.

When the guards saw Lady Chu, they were immediately stunned by her noble appearance, as she was an immensely beautiful young lady with an unfathomable aura that made it feel like they lived in two different worlds despite being only a few feet away from her.

"H-H-H-How may we help you?" The guard stuttered like no tomorrow when he snapped out of his daze to speak with them.

"I am here for my friend. Can you take me to him?" Lady Chu asked them with a beautiful smile on her face that immediately made them all blush even harder.

"F-Friend? Who may this friend be?"

"Well, he arrived around a week ago. I believe they came in a pair— a man and a woman." Lady Chu responded, purposefully not revealing their identity, as she wasn't sure which identity Yuan came to this place as, and saying their name could potentially ruin his secret.

"A week ago?"

"A man and woman?"

The guards began pondering, as there have been many visitors to the Jaded Garden ever since they opened up to the public.

Despite that, a couple wearing masks appeared in their minds. They figured that only 'that' person could possibly have a relationship with such an esteemed young lady.

"Are you talking about Player Yuan and his caretaker, Feng?" The guard asked just in case.

Lady Chu's expression immediately brightened after hearing Yuan's name, and she quickly nodded, "Yes! I have come here to see my friend, Yuan! Can you please take me to him?"

Chapter 548 Friend

'Player Yuan's friend?' The guards looked at each other with weird looks on their faces.

They figured Player Yuan was the type to not have any friends due to how he played Cultivation Online and how seclusive he appears, so it was quite a surprise to learn that he actually had friends.

"Umm... I'm sorry, but you're going to have to wait a while since we don't know Player Yuan's location at the moment." The guard said to them.

"We'll go ask around to see if anybody knows of his location. In the meantime, you can wait inside the guest room."

Lady Chu put on a pondering face for a moment before speaking, "I don't really like sitting around doing nothing, so can I ask to follow you to ask around? I'd like to see the renowned Jaded Garden while I am at it if you don't mind."

"O-Of course, you can follow us if you want!" The guard immediately agreed, as he couldn't resist the temptation of walking around with a beauty by his side.

"Great! Thank you in advance!"

However, there was a problem.

The guards exchanged glances once again.

The next second, they all turned to look at Lady Chu and shouted simultaneously, "Allow me to take you around!"

Indeed, the problem was who would be the one to take Lady Chu to find Player Yuan?

There were four of them, and it would make sense for only one of them to leave.

While they try to figure out that situation, at the competition, over ten participants have gone into the field and left in less than half an hour despite everyone getting 30 minutes.

The reason was simple— nobody there dared to shoot their second arrow after their first that alerted all of the rabbits.

In their mind, it was better to gain 5 points and call it a day than gain 5 points and potentially lose even more just like the first participant.

Furthermore, nobody there was really able to focus with all the noise, as it was even giving them a headache.

One might think that giving up after the first shot was unsportsmanlike, but nobody really blamed the participants for their actions— not even the grand elders.

In fact, the spectators even hoped that the participants would give up, as that meant they would have to listen to the ringing less.

"I don't understand why they would give up. Even though it's a little noisy, they should still try. After all, if they don't, they will never be able to reach first place. Even if they might lose some points, if they don't shoot, they have no chance." Yuan said out loud after seeing so many participants give up.

In his mind, weren't they all fighting for first place for the reward? What was the point of being any other place but first place since there was only one prize?

"I guess they're all just hoping for the others to shoot and lose points, allowing them to achieve first place without doing anything."

"So they're gambling that others would lose points?" Yuan was speechless, as this was his first time seeing such a thing in a competition.

As someone who has entered many competitions throughout his life, he has not once hoped that someone would mess up their performance so that he could win. It was simply an unthinkable strategy.

Meanwhile, Meixiu was called into the field.

After handing her a bow and a quiver of 11 arrows, the instructor sent Meixiu inside the still field.

And just like the other participants, Meixiu quickly took her first shot at a rabbit, shooting the bell off its tail successfully.

However, what ensued was chaos with the sound of bells resounding in every direction.

Ding! Ding! Ding!

Although it wasn't bad at first, the sound gradually got worse and more annoying.

"Do you think she's going to quit after her first shot as well?" The spectators began guessing whether Meixiu would leave early like the others or not.

And to their surprise, after her first shot, Meixiu actually pulled a second arrow from her quiver, her intentions clear!

"Oh! She's going to shoot!"

"Let's see if she hits the bell or..."

The participants watched with anticipation.

Whoosh!

Meixiu released her second arrow.

"Oh no! She struck the rabbit in the leg just like the first participant! That's a 10-point deduction!"

The participants exclaimed, and they expected her to quit after the second shot.

However, to their surprise, almost as though she didn't care about losing points, Meixiu actually retrieved the third arrow from the quiver and aimed it at the rabbit that she'd just failed to hit.

"What?! She's still going to shoot after that?!"

Whoosh!

The arrow struck the bell this time since the rabbit was injured and couldn't move properly, and for the first time in this event, Meixiu became the first to shoot a second bell successfully.

After hitting the bell, Meixiu lowered her bell and turned to look at the instructor outside.

"Take the injured rabbit out. I have plenty of time," she said in a calm voice.

The instructor nodded and quickly retrieved the injured rabbit from the field.

Once that was done, Meixiu began looking for her next target.

However, she wouldn't shoot another arrow for the next 10 minutes, and she would just silently stand there and watch the rabbits.

"She's taking her time analyzing the rabbits' movements, huh? What a smart girl." Senior Wang chuckled when she realized what Meixiu was doing.

"These rabbits were trained to move in a specific manner so if you learn their movements, you will hit them with ease."

Twenty minutes later, when Meixiu only had 10 minutes left, she began moving for the first time, raising her bow and shooting it the next second with barely any pause.

Whoosh!

The arrow struck the rabbit closest to her, hitting the bell for her 3rd bell.

After that, Meixiu would go on to rapid-fire her bow, hitting bells upon bells with seemingly no effort, shocking the spectators and the other participants.

Chapter 549 Brother Yuan

With a little more than 5 minutes left, Meixiu left the field after hitting every single bell off the rabbits, earning her a total of 40 points, and she instantly shot up to first place in the competition.

The spectators exploded with cheering after they witnessed the spectacular display.

Meanwhile, the other participants were left speechless.

Half of them had given up after their first shot, and the other half that hasn't entered the field had planned on giving up, but after witnessing Meixiu's display, they began feeling ashamed of themselves for giving up so easily.

Therefore, the following participants to enter the field after Meixiu would go on to shoot all of the arrows in her quiver regardless if they'd hit a rabbit or not.

In the end, most of them would go on to hit at least 7 seven bells.

However, only two of them had managed to avoid injuring the rabbits.

Once all of the participants went into the field, the instructor blew the whistle, signaling the end of the competition.

At the end of the competition, the participants were gathered for the results.

"Congratulations to Disciple Xiao Mi for achieving first place! You may speak with Grand Elder Hong afterward to discuss your reward!" The instructor announced the winner of the competition.

Although Meixiu had taken first place with her performance, it was only temporary, and she ended up in the 2nd place with first place ahead by only 5 points.

If Meixiu hadn't struck a rabbit that cost her 10 points, she would've won the competition.

However, Meixiu was neither upset nor bitter since she never expected to win the competition, and she was satisfied with the experience she gained throughout the competition that she considered more of a training of sorts.

Furthermore, getting second place was already well above her expectations.

"Good job getting second place," Yuan said to Meixiu after she returned.

"Thank you."

"I was told that you only recently learned how to use the bow. Is that true?" Wang Ming asked her, as he still couldn't truly believe it.

"Yes," Meixiu confirmed, leaving him speechless.

"Regardless, that was an amazing performance. I would have never known that you were a beginner unless someone told me. Actually, you're already an expert." Senior Wang said.

"Hahaha! Miss Feng, even though you didn't win the competition, your boldness during the last event was very impressive. I even dare say that without your performance, the other participants wouldn't have dared to shoot more than one arrow," said Senior Hong.

And he continued, "Therefore, I am going to craft you a bow as well."

"Really?" Meixiu was pleasantly surprised by Senior Hong's words.

"Yes. Consider this a gift from me for entertaining us." Senior Hong laughed.

The other participants looked at Meixiu with envious gazes. If they didn't give up and had figured out the rabbits' movements earlier, they could've also gotten a bow from Senior Hong.

Meanwhile, somewhere in the Jaded Garden, Lady Chu and one of the gate guards walked around asking the people if they knew where Yuan was located, and to their surprise, the first person they encountered knew his location.

"Player Yuan? He should be at the archery competition at the moment."

"Archery competition? Is he participating?" Lady Chu asked.

"I don't know."

"Where's the competition held?" The guard asked the man.

Once they got the directions, Lady Chu and her butler began following the guard to that location.

"If you don't mind me asking, how long have you known Player Yuan?" The guard asked Lady Chu as they walked.

"I have known him ever since we were young," she said with a gentle smile on her face that caused the guard to swallow nervously when he saw it.

"So you're childhood friends, huh? How envious."

"No, we're more than just childhood friends. You can even call us a family," she said.

"Eh?"

The guard raised his eyebrows, unable to comprehend the real meaning behind her words.

Sometime later, they arrived at the location of the archery competition, and when they arrived, the competition had just ended.

The moment they arrived, Lady Chu instantly noticed the tall figure wearing a black mask within the crowd, and she proceeded to stand there and silently stare at him with a dazed look on her face.

At this moment, it seemed to her as though the world had stopped moving — that everything else but the masked man had disappeared from her sight, almost there was only him and her in this world.

"Brother Yuan..." She muttered in a low voice.

However, despite her excitement and desire to jump into his embrace, Lady Chu didn't immediately run to him.

Instead, she stood there without moving, almost as though she didn't know what to do.

After waiting for over a decade for this moment, Lady Chu figured that she would be prepared to finally see him again, but to her surprise, when it was actually time to see him, her body froze with nervousness.

'What if he doesn't remember me?'

This thought that hasn't appeared in her mind for the last decade suddenly appeared for the first time.

Indeed, she feared that Yuan had forgotten about her. After all, 10 years was a long time, and people tend to forget about their childhood.

'Maybe I should just watch over him from a distance for now...' Lady Chu suddenly had this thought.

However, before she could even decide, she noticed the person that she had been staring at suddenly turn to look in her direction.

Lady Chu's heart immediately began throbbing like crazy, and her body became so stiff that she couldn't even move a finger.

Fortunately for her, Yuan had only glanced in her direction because he felt that someone was staring at him from her direction, but his divine sense wasn't strong enough to see Lady Chu, so he turned back around a moment later.

Lady Chu released a sigh of relief after seeing this, but then she became even more nervous a few seconds later.

'What should I do now?' she wondered inwardly.

Chapter 550 Do You Remember Me, Brother Yuan?

'Brother Yuan... You're so close to me, yet you feel so far away...' Lady Chu continued to stare at Yuan's figure from a distance for many moments.

The guard wondered when she was going to approach Yuan, but he noticed her expression and decided to simply wait for her to do something.

The old man stared at Lady Chu with a profound gaze, as this is his first time seeing her acting this timid and nervous, looking like a lost little girl.

"Young Lady."

The old man suddenly called out to her, and he asked, "Shall we go home?"

"No!"

Lady Chu subconsciously responded.

She then took a deep breath to calm herself down, but a single breath wasn't enough, so she took a few more deep breaths.

Once she was ready, Lady Chu took her first step forward and slowly approached Yuan.

The people there quickly noticed Lady Chu's presence due to her formidable aura that caused them to subconsciously turn and look at her, almost like their senses felt something threatening coming from her direction.

When the grand elders saw Lady Chu, their eyes immediately widened with shock, but it was not because they recognized her. In fact, they didn't know her.

"S-Spirit Master!" Senior Wang muttered in a low voice that was filled with disbelief.

Indeed, Lady Chu was emitting the aura of a Spirit Master just like them, albeit a little weaker.

However, despite that, it was incredibly shocking to them since Lady Chu only looked to be around 18 years old.

"Who is that?" One of the grand elders asked as Lady Chu slowly approached them.

"No idea, but to be a Spirit Master at such a young age... I thought it was only possible for someone like Daoist Yuan..."

With everybody there suddenly turning to look in the same direction, Yuan subconsciously turned his head and did the same.

Once Lady Chu entered his divine sense's range, Yuan was finally able to see the beautiful young lady that stunned everyone there.

'Who is that? She looks so familiar for some reason...'

Yuan didn't recognize Lady Chu at first, but he felt a sense of nostalgia when he saw her sparkling hazel eyes.

However, he was still unable to recall where he'd seen her before.

Lady Chu walked until she stood a few meters away from Yuan, and she proceeded to stand there in silence.

"How may we help you?" Senior Wang asked when Lady Chu didn't say anything for a while.

Of course, Lady Chu didn't respond to her, as the only thing in her eyes and mind right now was the masked man that was only standing a couple of meters away from her.

"Brother Yuan... I have finally fulfilled our promise..." Lady Chu suddenly muttered in a low voice.

Yuan's body shivered for some reason when this unknown lady called him 'Brother Yuan', and his sense of nostalgia grew more intense.

"Do you remember me, Brother Yuan?" Lady Chu asked him in a slightly louder voice.

Yuan stared at Lady Chu intensively for many moments before shaking his head, "I am sorry, but I don't recognize you. Have we met before?"

Lady Chu closed her eyes and released a deep sigh.

She then opened her eyes that flickered with resolve, and she spoke in a calm voice, "Well, I won't blame you for not recognizing me since it has been over a decade since our last meeting, and we were only children back then."

"Over a decade ago?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

Suddenly, the image of a little girl with brown hair and hazel eyes appeared in his mind, and she somewhat resembled this beautiful young lady.

Yuan's body trembled when he suddenly had an idea of this young lady's identity, but before he could open his mouth to speak, Lady Chu retrieved a silver harmonica from her pocket and blew into it, creating a beautiful sound that was filled with harmony.

Seeing the silver harmonica in Lady Chu's grasp and hearing this song, Yuan was absolutely certain about her identity.

"Y-Y-You are... Lulu?" Yuan spoke in a dumbfounded voice.

A blissful smile appeared on Lady Chu's beautiful face, and she responded in a clear voice, "It's not Lulu. It's Liuxiang. How many times have I told you to stop calling me by that nickname now?"

Of course, Yuan remembered that her name was Liuxiang, but he was used to calling her Lulu since he wasn't able to pronounce the name 'Liuxiang' properly back then, so he gave her a much simpler name to call, and that nickname was Lulu.

"W-What are you doing here?" Yuan randomly asked her, as he wasn't able to think properly due to her sudden appearance.

"What do you think, you idiot? I came here to find you since you didn't come looking for me! Just like we had promised! Or did you forget about that?" Lady Chu said.

Memories began flashing inside Yuan's head after hearing her words.

Outside this remote building that had the sign 'Jade Orphanage' on the doors, he stood before Lady Chu when she was still a little kid.

"Don't leave me behind, Brother Yuan!"

"Don't be sad, Lulu. Although I have to leave now, we will definitely see each other again in the future. If I cannot look for you for some reason, then you should come to look for me. Here's my harmonica. You can keep it until our next meeting." Yuan handed her a silver harmonica that was too big for his small hands.

"It's a promise!"

"Un."

After hugging her, Yuan left the orphanage with a beautiful woman that was Meifeng, who had come to take him away from the orphanage after the Yu Family adopted him into their family, and that was the last they saw each other.

"I remember... I'm sorry that I couldn't find you... No, I didn't even try to..." Yuan apologized to her in a sighing voice after recalling some of his memories that he hid deep within his consciousness after entering the Yu Family.

"You don't have to apologize since I am well aware of your situation. It was simply impossible for you to do anything. Anyways, why don't we continue this conversation somewhere more private?" Lady Chu said.

"Okay." Yuan quickly nodded.

Chapter 551 Chu Liuxiang

"Let's go, Brother Yuan." Lady Chu said as she walked to stand beside Yuan.

Yuan nodded and said, "We can go back to the immortal caves for now."

He then turned to look at the grand elders and said to them, "Please excuse us."

The grand elders didn't say anything and silently nodded their heads in a dazed manner.

"Follow me."

Yuan began walking back to the immortal caves with Lady Chu following closely beside him.

As for Meixiu, she quietly followed them from behind, silently wondering to herself what kind of relationship they had and how they knew each other.

Lady Chu's butler also followed them from behind Meixiu.

'I don't recall seeing this woman before... Just where did she meet Yuan? They also seem to go way back...' Meixiu wondered to herself.

She had been with Yuan ever since he was adopted into the Yu Family, and as Meifeng's daughter, she got to see a lot of influential people. However, she doesn't recall this hazel-eyed beauty, who definitely looked very influential just by her graceful appearance alone.

Their journey back to the immortal caves was a quiet one without anyone starting a conversation.

Yuan was still in a daze because of his sudden reunion with Lady Chu, who has been by his side even before he could learn how to walk in the orphanage.

As for Lady Chu, she was too nervous to say anything, and she was satisfied with just being by his side again.

Eventually, they reached the immortal caves, and Yuan brought them inside.

"Is he with you?" Yuan turned to look at the old man that had been following them but stopped at the door.

"Yes, he's my caretaker. You can trust him." Lady Chu nodded.

"Are you coming inside?" Yuan asked him.

"I don't want to disturb the Young Lady's reunion so I will wait out here until you're done," he said to them in a calm voice.

Once they entered the immortal caves and sat down, Yuan removed his mask and said, "Before we start our conversation, allow me to introduce you to each other."

"Meixiu, this is Liuxiang, a very important friend of mine from the orphanage that I used to live at before I was adopted into the Yu Family. And Liuxiang, this is Meixiu, my caretaker, who is also very important to me."

"Hello," Meixiu said to her in a low voice.

"Hello..." Lady Chu responded in a similarly low voice.

Although this is Meixiu's first time hearing about Lady Chu, it wasn't the same for Lady Chu, who has known about Meixiu for many years now.

After the brief introduction, they returned to being silent, as both of them had so many questions but didn't know where to start.

Eventually, Yuan said, "Well... Let's start with you, Liuxiang. What happened to you after I left the orphanage?"

"I know I told you to stop calling me 'Lulu', but it doesn't feel right when you call me anything else, so you can continue calling me 'Lulu'." Lady Chu said.

And she continued, "Anyways, shortly after you left the orphanage, I was also adopted and entered the Chu Family, so I am currently Chu Liuxiang."

"I see... I hope you lived a good life after your adoption." Yuan said to her.

Chu Liuxiang chuckled and said, "Hardly. My life has been repetitive, boring, and even painful at times ever since I joined the Chu Family."

"What do you mean?" Yuan asked.

"You can probably tell from my aura that I am a Spirit Master just like you, right? Well, the Chu Family is actually a hidden cultivation family, but unlike the Six Spiritual Families that live in seclusion and away from society, we hide in plain sight."

"The Chu Family is an immensely successful family in the modern world with many businesses around the world, but at the same time, it's also a cultivation family that has known about cultivation since ancient times."

"So you've been cultivating ever since you were young?" Yuan asked.

"Yes. Apparently, I have the perfect body for cultivation, and someone from the Chu Family noticed my talents by chance and decided to take me into their family. In other words, they adopted me for my cultivation talents, and I have been cultivating in seclusion ever since I joined the Chu Family."

"That means I cannot leave the Chu Family's territory. Although they have a lot of land, and there were a lot of things to do, it was still a boring life, especially since I spend most of my time training and cultivating alone..."

"Hell, I can even count the number of people I have met during the last 10 years using just my hands. Of course, I am still grateful to the Chu Family for adopting me, and they treat me very well."

"That does sound like a very boring life..." Yuan agreed with her.

He can imagine how Chu Liuxiang felt since he also had to spend many years in seclusion inside his room and without the ability to move his body.

"It was painful at times, but it wasn't that bad overall, especially when compared to your life at the Yu Family..." Chu Liuxiang sighed.

"Huh?"

Seeing Yuan's puzzled face, Chu Liuxiang continued, "I know what the Yu Family made you go through, Brother Yuan. I know how they treated you like a tool for their own benefit and how they tossed you away like trash when you suddenly became sick and was no longer useful to them."

"I am sorry that I wasn't able to come to you sooner, Brother Yuan, but I wasn't allowed to do anything until I finished my training, nor was I aware of your situation until the end of my training... If I had known about it earlier... Then maybe you wouldn't have had to suffer so much... You didn't deserve any of that..." Chu Liuxiang sighed, even feeling the urge to cry.

A gentle smile appeared on Yuan's face after hearing her words, and he said, "It's okay. Although it was painful at times, there were also joyous moments that made everything worth it in the end— at least that's what I think."

Chapter 552 Harmonica

"After all, I got to meet with people like Meixiu, Yu Rou, and the others... If I hadn't joined the Yu Family, I wouldn't be in this position right now, so even if I had to suffer a little, it was all worth it in the end." Yuan said with a gentle smile on his face.

'Yuan...' Meixiu looked at him with an emotional gaze.

"By the way, how did you manage to find me? Even though I came here as 'Yuan', there are many Yuans in this world. How did you know I was the one you were looking for?" Yuan asked Chu Liuxiang a few moments later.

"I knew you would achieve great things in the future, so when I learned about Player Yuan, I was certain that you were the one I was looking for."

"Of course, I followed 'Yu Tian', not Yuan."

"My family owns an intelligence agency so I have a lot of information, and I followed your information to the Jaded Garden."

"Ah, but you don't have to worry about your identity as Player Yuan being leaked since only my parents, my caretaker, and myself know about it. Of course, they can all be trusted."

Yuan nodded. Now that he can move around properly, he wouldn't care as much even if his identity is leaked.

After all, he now has the power to protect himself and those around him.

"Brother Yuan... Here you go."

Chu Liuxiang retrieved the silver harmonica again and placed it on the table in front of them.

"Now that I have reunited with you and fulfilled our promise, this harmonica shall return to its rightful owner."

Yuan looked at the silver harmonica for a moment before picking it up.

Even though it was much lighter than he remembers, it still brought back the countless memories he had with this harmonica.

"I still remember how you and the others would ask me to play this harmonica every chance you got, and how you would bug me until I agreed," he said with a gentle smile on his face.

He then placed the harmonica on his lips and began blowing air into it.

Music notes filled the room as Yuan played the song that used to fill the orphanage with joy.

Hearing and seeing Yuan play the silver harmonica again, tears began flowing from Chu Liuxiang's eyes, as she had dreamed of this scene nearly every day for over a decade.

A few minutes later, Yuan placed the silver harmonica back on the table and said to Chu Liuxiang, "You can keep this harmonica."

"Huh? Really? Why don't you want it?" She asked him in a surprised voice.

"It's not that I don't want it, but it has been in your possession for far longer, so you are now the rightful owner. Furthermore, I believe that you value this harmonica more, so I cannot convince myself to take it away from you."

"Are you sure, Brother Yuan?" Chu Liuxiang asked, feeling a little hesitant.

"Yes, I am sure."

"If you say so..." She picked up the harmonica and held it close to her chest.

Even though she has had this harmonica for over a decade and had only let it go for a few minutes, it gave her a completely different feeling in her hands now, and it actually felt like it belonged to her.

"Lulu, what are you going to do now that you found me? Are you going to return to the Chu Family anytime soon?" Yuan asked her a moment later.

"No, I have already completed my training, so I don't really have to return until my parents summon me for whatever reason, and I planned on staying with you for a while... If you don't mind."

"I don't mind, but there really isn't anything to do in this place besides training..." Yuan said.

"Are you staying in the Jaded Garden permanently?" Chu Liuxiang then asked.

"No, we're only here temporary as trial disciples. We were supposed to leave after a week, but we decided to stay here a little longer for more training."

"I see... Well, I don't really care where we are or what we are doing as long as I am by your side," she said.

The two of them proceeded to talk about their own lives after leaving the orphanage until it was late and Yuan was getting hungry.

"Let's go get some food to eat before we continue. I know this place that cooks extremely delicious food." Yuan said to her.

"Okay."

After wearing their mask, Yuan and the other two left the immortal caves.

"Sebastian, we're going to get some food." Chu Liuxiang said to the old man who had been standing outside the immortal caves like a statue this entire time.

"I understand," he said, and he began following them to the restaurant.

"Hm? Who is this young lady? Your girlfriend?" Chef San asked in a joking tone when he saw Chu Liuxiang with Yuan.

"Hello, I am Chu Liuxiang, a longtime friend of Yuan," she introduced herself.

"I see. What would you like to eat today? Or would you prefer I cook something random like usual?" Chef San then asked.

"Do you have any preferences, Lulu? We don't really care what we eat since everything Chef San cooks is amazing." Yuan asked her.

"I'm not a picky eater. I will have whatever they are eating," she said.

"Alright. Give me some time." Chef San then went to the back to start cooking.

While they waited, Chu Liuxiang went outside to play the harmonica for Yuan and the others.

"You have gotten really good at playing the harmonica, Lulu." Yuan chuckled, and he continued, "Especially compared to back then when you would blow it randomly and call it a 'unique song'."

Chu Liuxiang smiled and said, "Besides training and cultivation, I would spend all of my spare time playing the harmonica. Of course, I am still nowhere as good as you even if I were to compare my current self to you back then."

"Here. It's your turn now," she then handed the harmonica to him in a casual manner.

Yuan accepted the harmonica and began blowing into it without cleaning it even though Chu Liuxiang had played it just moments ago.

Chu Liuxiang blushed slightly when she saw this, but she didn't say anything.

Chapter 553 - A Beauty On Each Side Of The Bed

"Thank you for the food, Chef San."

After waiting for about half an hour, they finally received their food, and they immediately made their way back to the immortal caves.

Once they were seated, they began eating the food.

"Wow, you're right. This food is amazing. I dare say it's even better than Sebastian's food, and that's a huge compliment." Chu Liuxiang's eyes widened with surprise the moment she tasted the explosive flavor.

And in just a few minutes, Chu Liuxiang consumed all of her food, becoming the first to finish.

"Brother Yuan, I just noticed this, but you sure have a lot of food... Can you really eat all of that?" She asked him when she noticed that his portions were multiple times larger than theirs.

"Hm? Yeah, I can eat all of it." He quickly swallowed before nodding his head.

"So you have a really big appetite, huh? That's something I should note down for the future..." She mumbled in a low voice, but Yuan wasn't able to understand the meaning behind her words.

Sometime later, they finished all of the food.

Meixiu stood up and prepared to clean the table, but the old man, Sebastian, said to her, "It's okay, young miss. Allow me, the guest, to clean the table for you."

"Okay..." She nodded.

While Sebastian cleaned the place, Chu Liuxiang asked, "How many rooms do you have in this place?"

"There's only one room and one bed." Yuan calmly responded.

"Eh? So you have been sleeping together?" Chu Liuxiang looked at them with her eyes slightly widened.

"Yes," he casually responded.

Chu Liuxiang turned silent for a moment before asking, "Can I see the bed?"

"Of course. That's the bedroom." Yuan pointed to their room.

Chu Liuxiang then opened the door to take a look at the size of the bed, and sure enough, there was plenty of space— enough for three, perhaps even four people.

"Do you mind if I sleep with you two?" Chu Liuxiang then asked them in a resolute voice.

"Of course. Where else are you going to sleep?" Yuan said.

"Young Master Yuan, I will sleep out here in the living room on the couch," Sebastian said to him since he has no intention of sharing a bed with three young people, and one of them was even his master.

"As long as you're not sleeping on the floor." Yuan nodded.

Sometime later, Chu Liuxiang said, "Brother Yuan, I am going to wash myself. Where is the bathroom?"

"That door right there. Do you have any extra clothes with you?" Yuan asked her after realizing that they didn't have any luggage with them.

"Oh, right. Now that you mention it, we left them inside the helicopter." Chu Liuxiang said.

"I shall go and retrieve our luggage at this moment," Sebastian said.

"Are you sure? It's already really dark outside. This is also your first day here, so you might get lost." Yuan asked him.

"If you want, I can lend you my pajamas for today since I have an extra pair," Meixiu suddenly said.

"If you don't mind." Chu Liuxiang calmly agreed.

After Meixiu handed her own pajamas and a towel to Chu Liuxiang, she whispered something in Chu Liuxiang's ears.

"No, I don't need them. Thank you for asking." Chu Liuxiang shook her head before entering the bathroom and locking the door.

About half an hour later, Chu Liuxiang returned outside while wearing Meixiu's pajamas that felt oddly fit, almost as though they belonged to her.

'So we are equal when it comes to our body, huh?' Chu Liuxiang wondered inwardly.

After Chu Liuxiang finished, Yuan went to clean himself next.

Of course, Meixiu didn't follow him inside like she normally would, as there was no way that she'd do anything to Yuan with guests around.

Meixiu went inside the bathroom after Yuan, and Sebastian was the last to enter.

Once they were ready to sleep, Chu Liuxiang followed Yuan and Meixiu inside their bedroom while Sebastian slept on the couch.

"Where do you want to sleep?" Yuan asked Chu Liuxiang, giving her the choice to pick.

"Brother Yuan, you can sleep in the middle. I will just sleep beside you," she said.

"Okay," he nodded.

A few moments later, Yuan laid in the middle of the bed while sandwiched by two beauties, one on each side.

If any human being that wasn't Yuan saw this scene, they would definitely vomit blood from envy.

"Brother Yuan, do you remember how we would always share a bed in the orphanage?" She asked him.

"Yes, because you were always afraid that something was hiding under your bed," he chuckled.

"I-I don't recall such a thing! You must have remembered it wrong!" She quickly refuted with a slightly rosy face.

The two of them proceeded to spend many minutes reminiscing their time together in the orphanage.

Meixiu had her eyes closed the entire time, seemingly asleep, but she was actually wide awake and silently listened to their conversation, as she was learning a lot about Yuan and his relationship with Chu Liuxiang.

And the more she listened, the more obvious it was to her that they were definitely very intimate with each other.

Meixiu then recalled what her mother told her not long ago— that someone will take Yuan away from her if she's too slow, and this caused her heart to tremble.

"Sorry, Meixiu, I got too caught up in our conversation and almost forgot that we're trying to sleep." Yuan suddenly said to her.

However, Meixiu didn't say anything and pretended to be asleep.

Seeing that Meixiu didn't respond, Yuan released a sigh of relief knowing that she managed to fall asleep despite their conversation.

"Let's lower our voices so that we don't wake her up," he said to Chu Liuxiang in a low voice, who was lying on the bed on her sides so that she could stare at Yuan's face.

They then continued reminiscing about their past for pretty much the majority of the night.

Chapter 554 - Do You Desire Revenge?

"Brother Yuan, I have been wondering... Aren't you angry at the Yu Family for what they have done to you? Don't you desire revenge? They treated you like an animal, after all. If I speak with my family, they should be able to do something about the Yu Family." Chu Liuxiang suddenly asked him after they finished reminiscing their past.

"Honestly, I have never really thought about it seriously. When you say revenge, what do you expect me to do? I do not like unnecessary violence, and even though they have done some horrible things that deserve some sort of punishment, I don't think violence is the right answer."

"I know, Brother Yuan, that you're not the violent type. However, there are other methods to cause pain to the Yu Family without actually hurting them. For example, you can ruin their company, or you can destroy their family by tearing them apart."

"How is that any different? They all sound pretty violent." Yuan sighed.

"The most obvious difference is that you won't need to physically hurt them since you will be doing it mentally... You can simply start up your own company and grow to become an even more successful business than the Yu Family. That will definitely make them regret throwing you away."

"Or, you can reveal yourself as Player Yuan, instantly gaining worldwide fame. This will make the Yu Family regret ever treating you wrongly, and they will be kicking themselves for the rest of their life knowing that they'd tossed away the one and only Player Yuan."

Yuan turned silent to ponder. Can these methods really help him take revenge against the Yu Family for mistreating him and many other things? However, it does sound better than getting violent with the Yu Family.

"Brother Yuan, if you want, I can help you. Let's make the Yu Family regret treating you the way they did!" Chu Liuxiang said to him with a resolute look in her gaze.

Yuan sighed and said, "As much as I want to make the Yu Family suffer for what they have done, I cannot bear to hurt Yu Rou, who is also part of the Yu Family, and I am afraid that hurting her family will also hurt her."

"I don't think Yu Rou will be affected, since she has already left the family. While she has the Yu Family's surname, it doesn't mean that she will follow in their footsteps. If you're really that worried, you can simply take Yu Rou into your faction."

"My faction...?" Yuan mumbled in a low voice.

"I don't have a faction."

"Then you should start one— at least I think you should start one. You have the capabilities and the resources to create one of the strongest factions in the world. If you create a faction, I will also join you, and with two Spirit Masters, I don't think we will have any competitions for a long time— long enough to reach the peak and solidify our foundations."

Yuan turned silent to ponder, as he has never really thought about starting his own faction since that was akin to starting up his own sect in the cultivation world.

Does he have what it takes to manage a faction? What if things don't work out? And what if it brings more trouble than good?

"Wouldn't it be easier if we all just joined an existing faction that already has its own foundation? Take the Spiritual Elites for example. I think they're a trustworthy bunch."

Chu Liuxiang shook her head on the pillow and said, "I don't know much about the Spiritual Elites or the Six Spiritual Families operates, and I believe you when you say that they are trustworthy, but I still think that it would be for the best if you created your own faction."

"This way, you don't have to worry about any restrictions in the future, and you can do everything at your own pace. If you join another faction, you will never fully be able to spread your wings— at least that's what I believe."

"Alright, give me some time to think about all of this since it's not something I can rush."

"Take all the time you need, Brother Yuan, since I will always be by your side now." Chu Liuxiang giggled in a low volume.

Eventually, Chu Liuxiang started getting sleepy, but before she closed her eyes, she made sure to snuggle herself closer to Yuan.

Yuan could feel her soft body clinging to him, and he could smell the soothing fragrance coming from her silky brown hair, but he didn't think too much of it and also went to sleep, as he was used to sleeping with her in such a manner back in the orphanage.

The two of them quickly fell asleep, and once Meixiu could no longer hear them talk, she also decided to finally go to sleep.

The following morning, Yuan woke up with a somewhat heavy feeling on his body, and it felt like something was restricting his body.

His heart immediately began beating nervously since his initial thought was that his body had suddenly returned to being crippled.

However, he quickly realized that was not the case, and the reason for this heavy feeling was Chu Liuxiang, who had somehow managed to climb on top of his body, and she still appeared to be asleep.

A relieved smile appeared on Yuan's face when he recalls how Chu Liuxiang has bad sleeping habits and would always toss around in bed.

'How am I supposed to get out of this without waking her up?' Yuan sighed inwardly.

Chu Liuxiang was not only lying on top of his body, but she was also hugging his body like a koala hugging a tree.

Then Yuan noticed something soft pressing against his chest, and he realized that it was caused by Chu Liuxiang's breasts.

However, they felt softer than when he accidentally touched Meifeng's breasts who was wearing her undergarments at that time.

Indeed, Chu Liuxiang wasn't wearing any undergarments as of this moment since she didn't have her luggage, and she would rather not wear anything than reusing her old ones, but it was not as though she wasn't offered some by Meixiu.

But for some reason, Chu Liuxiang refused Meixiu's offer and decided to sleep without any undergarments.

Yuan eventually got Chu Liuxiang off his body, and to his surprise, it didn't wake her up.

'Oh, right. She's also quite the heavy sleeper.' Yuan then recalled this detail.

He left the bedroom shortly after, and he noticed that Sebastian was already awake and sitting on the floor in the lotus position, seemingly cultivating.

Yuan decided to not bother him and approach the bathroom, but before he could walk two steps, Sebastian opened his eyes and turned to look at Yuan.

"Young Master Yuan, if you don't mind, can you spare me some of your time? After you come out of the bathroom, of course."

"Sure," he casually nodded, thinking that this probably had something to do with Chu Liuxiang.

After washing his face and brushing his teeth, Yuan came back outside, and Sebastian was already standing at the door.

"Let's talk outside, shall we?"

Yuan nodded and followed him outside after changing out of his pajamas and wearing his mask.

Chapter 555 - You Are The Problem

Once they were outside, Sebastian tilted his head to look at the clear blue sky for a silent minute before turning to look at Yuan.

Sensing Yuan's nervousness, Sebastian showed a friendly smile and said, "There's no need to be so tense. I just wanted to thank you."

"Thank me? For what?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"For accepting the Young Lady despite being separated for so long. I don't know how much she told you about the Chu Family, but she lived a very reclusive and boring life there with barely any interactions."

"Besides her family, myself, and a few other instructors, the Young Lady doesn't have any friends, so she was always bored, and she would always complain to me."

"Of course, there isn't anything I could do for her except listen to her complaints."

"This is my first time seeing the Young Lady so excited and blissful, and I am thanking you for that..."

"You don't have to thank me for that. I have known Lulu ever since the orphanage, and we were the closest thing to a family back then. No matter how much time has passed, I will always value her as such." Yuan said to him.

Sebastian nodded, and then he asked, "Do you have any plans for the future?"

"That's a very vague question..."

"I kept it vague on purpose since I don't know anything about you besides the fact that you're Player Yuan and that you're the Young Lady's childhood friend. What do you see yourself doing in the future?"

"Are you going to continue living like this, doing whatever you please, or do you intend on doing something big like standing at the top of the world? Maybe you will even start a family and settle down somewhere in the world."

"I can't tell you anything since I don't know what I want to do myself. I have only recently regained my ability to move, so not long ago, I didn't even have the luxury of deciding what I want to do, since there's literally nothing I can do in that state."

"Fair enough." Sebastian nodded.

"Then allow me to ask you this... Where do you see yourself with the Young Lady in the future?"

"With Lulu? I hope we can continue being close to each other, I guess, but that will also depend on what she wants to do with her life."

Sebastian remained silent for a moment before speaking, "You see, the Young Lady is a very important individual within the Chu Family, and being one of the most powerful families in the world, the Young Lady will definitely become a grand figure in the world."

"The Masters— her parents haven't decided on what they want to do with her after she finished her training, hence why they allowed her to do as she pleases for now. However, once they have come to a conclusion, they will ask her to return to the family."

"Maybe they will make her take over the family, or maybe they will send her to another family through marriage. We won't know until that day comes. However, regardless of what her parents want the Young Lady to do, there will be a problem."

"And that problem is you, Young Master Yuan."

"Huh? Why would I be a problem?" Yuan asked, as he was truly puzzled.

"You're too important to the Young Lady. I dare even say that you're more important to the Young Lady than the Chu Family is to her, so if she has to pick between you or the family, she will most definitely pick you— that is what I believe after seeing you two together for less than a day."

Sebastian's words confused Yuan even further.

"Why does she have to pick between me and her family?"

"As I'd said, the Young Lady's freedom is only temporary. Once she has to return to the family, she will most likely lose that freedom again and return to being alone or live with another family, which means that she will no longer be able to see you again, and the Young Lady won't accept that, so she might decide to leave the family, which will cause many problems."

Yuan was speechless. Why must a family become more complicated the more powerful they become? Why would they take away Chu Liuxiang's freedom? Why won't she be able to see him again? He cannot see how this would benefit anyone.

Sebastian then continued, "Therefore, you must make a decision. If you want to stay with the Young Lady, then you should prepare yourself for the future and become more influential so that you can affect even the Chu Family. You may be a little famous right now, but it's not nearly enough to truly affect the world and those that stand at the top."

"However, if you don't intend on doing that, then I suggest you separate from the Young Lady as soon as possible so that neither of you gets hurt, especially since the longer you're together, the more difficult it will be for you two when you have to separate."

"You must also understand that I am not threatening you right now, Young Master Yuan. In fact, I am on the Young Lady's side, as I have been ever since I was assigned to take care of her. I just want you to be aware of the Young Lady's situation, and I don't want her to experience any grievances."

"I have been with the Chu Family for nearly my entire life, so I know how they operate very well. Although there is no doubt that they care deeply for the Young Lady, it is also a fact that she was adopted, so she isn't truly part of the Chu Family. Even if they cannot benefit from her, they won't just throw her away, as they have sacrificed too many resources for her."

After a moment of silence, Yuan said, "I don't know what to say or think of this information..."

"Don't worry, you have plenty of time to think and come to a conclusion, but don't take too long since the Chu Family is sometimes very unpredictable. Anyways, it was nice talking with you, Young Master Yuan. If you have any questions, I will always be available." Sebastian said to him.

Chapter 556 - Chu Liuxiangs Ambitions

Chapter 556 - Chu Liuxiang's Ambitions

Shortly after Yuan and Sebastian left the immortal caves to talk, Meixiu woke up from her sleep to find Chu Liuxiang sleeping in a weird position and Yuan gone.

She didn't think too much of it and went outside, but neither Yuan nor Sebastian was around.

She wondered where they went as she entered the bathroom to clean her face.

And as Meixiu left the bathroom, Chu Liuxiang was coming out of the bedroom with a sleepy expression on her face.

"Where's Brother Yuan?" Chu Liuxiang asked.

"I don't know. He was gone by the time I woke up."

"Is that so..." Chu Liuxiang then entered the bathroom to clean her face.

Once she came out of the bathroom, she saw Meixiu sitting at the table alone, and after pondering for a second, she decided to sit with her.

Meixiu quickly noticed Chu Liuxiang staring at her, mostly because Chu Liuxiang didn't try to hide the fact.

"Is there something on my face?" Meixiu asked her.

"No, I was just thinking that you're very pretty."

To her surprise, Chu Liuxiang actually praised her appearance.

"Thank you..." Meixiu felt a little awkward after hearing Chu Liuxiang's praises.

"Hey, I have a question. What do you think of Brother Yuan?" Chu Liuxiang suddenly asked her.

"What do you mean?" Meixiu raised her eyebrows slightly.

"I am asking what you think of Brother Yuan as a man. Are you interested in him? Or are you already in love with him? I have watched you for an entire day, but I cannot figure it out. Surely, you must have some feelings for him since you have been living with him for so long, and Brother Yuan is a very charming man... in his own way." Chu Liuxiang blatantly asked Meixiu if she loved Yuan.

And sure enough, Meixiu was left speechless by such a question.

But before she could even respond, Chu Liuxiang continued, "Actually, you don't have to tell me since it won't really change my decision."

"Your decision?" Meixiu asked out of curiosity.

"My decision to stay with Brother Yuan for the rest of my life as his wife. I wasn't sure about my feelings at first, but after seeing him again, I am certain that I love him, so I want to be with him—even if I have to leave the Chu Family."

Meixiu's eyes visibility widened after hearing Chu Liuxiang's declaration of love for Yuan, but she was more surprised that Chu Liuxiang had the courage to say such words out loud than the words themselves.

After all, anyone could tell that Chu Liuxiang had intimate feelings for Yuan just by how she acted when around him.

Seeing Meixiu's reaction, Chu Liuxiang smiled and said, "Don't worry, it's not like I am declaring war or anything like that by telling you that I love Brother Yuan. I just wanted to clear your doubts since you seem to question my feelings for him."

Meixiu opened her mouth, but no words came out, as she wasn't sure how she should respond to Chu Liuxiang's words.

Obviously, she had some feelings for Yuan, but she wasn't as bold as Chu Liuxiang to announce that out loud.

"Two... I want two children with Brother Yuan no matter if they are a boy or a girl. That is my dream—or should I say dreams? And I hope to achieve one of these dreams before I have to return to my family."

Meixiu's jaw dropped a little after hearing her words. Does Chu Liuxiang plan on getting pregnant before she returns to the Chu Family?

"Aren't you a little too young for a child?" Meixiu couldn't help but ask.

Although she didn't know Chu Liuxiang's age, they looked to be around the same age.

"Too young? Based on what? I am already an adult, so why must I pointlessly wait to conceive when I am already prepared to have children? In fact, I have heard from others that it's normal for girls at my age to already have their own family in this day and age."

Meixiu was speechless. While it is true that there are many girls out there that have already started their own family at the age of 18 with some being even younger, she still felt that having a child at such a young age would be too much responsibility.

"Listen here, Meixiu. Brother Yuan is a very charming young man with unlimited potential, and I have no doubt that there will be a lot of competition in the future, so it's only logical to strike while the iron is hot! Even if he decides to get another wife in the future, at least I already have a spot in his heart!"

"Wait... You don't mind sharing him with others?" Meixiu was truly speechless now. Is that why Chu Liuxiang doesn't care if she loved Yuan or not?

And if someone asked her, she would definitely prefer having the man she loved all to herself.

"Well... My father has many wives, so I am used to it, and they all seem pretty happy together. Furthermore, it's not uncommon for powerful men to have many wives. Honestly, I don't care as long as I have a place in his heart." Chu Liuxiang said in a calm and clear voice.

By now, Yuan and Sebastian had been away for over an hour.

Suddenly, the door opened, and both Yuan and Sebastian returned to the immortal caves with suitcases by their side.

After their talk, Yuan decided to go with Sebastian to get their luggage since he knew his way around the place much better than Sebastian.

"Good morning, Brother Yuan! You too, Sebastian!" Chu Liuxiang stood up and left the table after seeing their return.

"Good morning, Young Lady," Sebastian said to her.

"You're awake already? I thought you would still be asleep since you have never been good with waking up in the morning." Yuan chuckled.

"That was years ago!" She quickly said.

Meanwhile, Meixiu silently watched Chu Liuxiang acting very intimately around Yuan, but Chu Lixuiang no longer looked as innocent as before since Meixiu is now aware of Chu Liuxiang's grand ambitions!

Chapter 557 - Unable To Focus

After putting their luggage away, Chu Liuxiang and Meixiu changed out of their pajamas before making their way to the restaurant for breakfast.

Once breakfast was done, Chu Liuxiang asked, "Brother Yuan, what are you going to do today?"

"I am going to practice with my sword at the training building. Honestly, that's pretty much all we do here. I am sorry if it's a little boring," he said.

"It's fine. I don't mind it."

After they rested a little after breakfast, they began making their way to the training building.

"I will see you later," Meixiu said to Yuan before making her way to the fourth floor.

Meanwhile, Yuan entered the gymnasium on the first floor and did some warmup with the sword...

"Can I see that sword?" Chu Liuxiang asked him.

Yuan handed the wooden sword to her.

"Oh, it's much heavier than it looks."

"There's metal in the center, so it feels like a real sword."

Chu Liuxiang began swinging the sword around effortlessly, but her technique wasn't the best. In fact, one could even call them choppy and amateurish, and anyone watching could tell that she was a complete beginner with the sword.

"What kind of training do you do?" Yuan asked her out of curiosity.

"Mostly how to control my spiritual energy. Like this."

Chu Liuxiang held the sword in front of her for a moment before letting the handle go.

However, to Yuan's surprise, the sword didn't fall to the ground and hovered in the air.

"T-This is... Qi Manipulation?" Yuan could tell that Chu Liuxiang was controlling the sword with her spiritual energy so that it wouldn't fall, and this technique greatly resembled Qi Manipulation that can only be used by Spirit Grandmasters in Cultivation Online.

"Qi Manipulation? It's a technique from my family, but they call it Spiritual Control." Chu Liuxiang said.

"Does that mean you also know how to fly?" Yuan couldn't help but ask.

"Fly? That's impossible," she said.

"Really? In Cultivation Online, if you know Qi Manipulation, then you can control the spiritual energy around your body, allowing you to fly."

"Hmm... I'm not sure, but I cannot control the spiritual energy around me—only my own spiritual energy. I can use it to move things from a distance, and it can even deal significant damage, but that's pretty much all it can do. Flying is out of the question," she said.

"Then it's not Qi Manipulation?" Yuan mumbled to himself.

Of course, there is also the chance that it's actually Qi Manipulation, but Chu Liuxiang hasn't reached that level yet.

"Brother Yuan, you're quite strong, right? Do you want to experience for yourself the technique's might? Don't worry, I will hold back."

"Sure." Yuan eagerly nodded.

He then stood a few meters away from Chu Liuxiang like she'd instructed him before putting the sword in front of him in a defensive position.

"Are you ready?" Chu Liuxiang asked him.

"I am."

Hearing such words, Chu Liuxiang took a deep breath and gathered the spiritual energy in her body at her fists.

Once she was ready, she threw a punch at Yuan, but her fist was nowhere near touching Yuan, as they were still a few meters away from each other.

However, Yuan could feel something powerful and heavy slamming into his sword the next second, pushing him back many inches, nearly knocking him off his feet.

"Wow... And that was 'holding back'?" Yuan asked her afterward.

"Yes, I can destroy a boulder the size of a car if I used all of my strength—enough to kill someone," she said.

"Heavens... That's a terrifying technique..." Yuan muttered in a dazed voice.

"It's very powerful, but it also consumes a lot of my spiritual energy, so I can only use it a couple of times before I exhaust my energy," she said.

A few minutes later, Wang Ming entered the gymnasium, and the first thing he did was look for Yuan's figure.

Once he found Yuan, who was speaking with Chu Liuxiang, he approached them.

"Hey, Yuan, you ready for another spar today?" Wang Ming asked him.

"Yes." Yuan nodded.

Wang Ming then glanced at Chu Liuxiang for a moment, almost like he had something to say, but he didn't say anything to her in the end and returned his focus on Yuan.

The two of them began their spar shortly after, and Chu Liuxiang would watch them fight each other a few meters away.

Meanwhile, on the fourth floor, Meixiu was warming up at the still targets.

"Are you okay, Feng?" The instructor approached her and asked her in a concerned voice.

"You haven't hit the red a single time after shooting a dozen arrows, and you even missed a couple of shots. Even if you're just warming up, this isn't like you. If you're not feeling well, you should take the day off, maybe even get checked by a doctor."

"I am fine, instructor. My mind is just occupied by a few things and can't really focus, that's all." Meixiu said, as she would keep thinking about her conversation with Chu Liuxiang this morning.

"If you cannot focus, you should put the bow down and meditate until you can clear your mind." The instructor advised her.

"I shall do that then. Thank you." Meixiu placed her bow down and began meditating near the wall so that she doesn't obstruct the others.

However, when she closed her eyes and tried to clear her mind, Chu Liuxiang's words would continue to resound inside her head.

'What do you think of Brother Yuan?'

'I love Brother Yuan, and I wish to stay with him forever as his wife.'

'I want two children with Brother Yuan— one of them before I have to return to the family.'

'There will be many competitors in the future.'

'I love Brother Yuan... I really love him...'

"Why did you have to show up now?" Meixiu sighed in a low voice when she couldn't get rid of Chu Liuxiang's voice inside her head.

Chapter 558 - Senior Hong

After spending an hour trying to clear her head, Meixiu finally managed to calm down, and she went to practice the bow to take her mind off everything else.

At the end of the day, the instructor approached Meixiu and said to her, "Senior Hong said to give him a visit whenever you're ready for the bow. Oh, and he also wants you to bring along Player Yuan if he's not busy."

"I will ask him later." Meixiu nodded.

Sometime later, Meixiu returned to the first floor, where Yuan and Wang Ming had just finished their training for the day.

"Yuan, Senior Hong said that he'd like to see us." Meixiu approached them.

"Is this about your bow?" Yuan asked.

"Yes."

"Alright. Let's give him a visit after we tidy up our appearances."

"See you tomorrow." Wang Ming said to Yuan before they left the training building and returned to the immortal caves to take a quick shower.

Once they were prepared, Meixiu and Yuan went to the Hong Family's living quarters with Chu Liuxiang and Sebastian following them.

However, they had to ask for directions since they have never been to the place before.

After asking a few people, they finally arrived at the Hong Family's main living quarters, and there appeared to be smoke coming from the back of the massive building.

"Welcome to the Hong Family, esteemed guests. Master Hong is currently in the crafting hall. Allow me to bring you there." The guard there greeted them.

They then followed the guard to the back of the area, where the smoke was coming from.

Once they arrived and entered the building, they could see a half-naked old man with the upper part of his body that was very jacked and refined completely naked and soaked in sweat.

It was Senior Hong, and he was hammering away at the anvil.

Ding! Ding! Ding!

Every time he struck the hot iron on the anvil, the others would feel their hearts pop out of their chest a little.

"Oh, welcome." Senior Hong stopped whatever he was doing when he noticed Yuan and the others.

"It's okay, we can wait until you're finished," Yuan said to him.

Senior Hong laughed and said, "Don't worry, I was just exercising. It's not like I was actually making anything."

"Exercising?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"Anyways, give me a few minutes. As you can see, I am covered in sweat."

Senior Hong then walked outside the building and into this small building that was literally a few steps away from the crafting building.

After Senior Hong disappeared inside this small building, they could hear water splashing a couple of times before stopping.

A few minutes later, Senior Hong left the small building with a fresh appearance.

"Follow me." Senior Hong then led them to another building that was about a minute away from the crafting area.

"This is the storage area. It's where I keep all of our equipment." Senior Hong said as he opened the locked doors before bringing them inside.

"Wow..." Yuan muttered in a low voice shortly after stepping foot inside this building.

Inside the building was a spacious room that was just like the gymnasium, but there were weapons everywhere.

There were weapons stacked on shelves, weapons laying on the ground, and there were even weapons hanging on the walls.

"Our Hong Family handles all of the faction's equipment since crafting is our expertise, and we get to hone our skills while we support the faction, so it's a win-win for us."

"Follow me."

Senior Hong then led them to a secluded section in the building, and he said to Meixiu, "There are over 100 different types of bows here. Get a feel for each of them and let me know which one you like the best, and I will craft you a brand new one with your strength in mind."

"And judging by your skills at the competition, I would say that you're the type to wield a short bow that specializes in rapid-fire, but you should still check out all of the bows before making a conclusion."

"Okay. Thank you." Meixiu said to him before she went to look at the bows.

"Fellow Daoist Yuan, since you're here as well, why don't you also pick a weapon? You're mostly a sword user, right? We have plenty of them."

"Really?" Yuan was delighted to hear this since he has been thinking about getting a sword but didn't know where.

"Yes. If you want, I can even craft you a custom sword."

However, Yuan shook his head and said, "Just an ordinary sword is good enough. Thank you."

"Alright. The swords are in Section A by the entrance. Let me lead you there."

Thus, Yuan followed Senior Hong to the area holding the swords.

'Wow...'

Yuan was amazed by how many swords there were in this place. In fact, this is his first time seeing so many swords at once.

"Young lady, if you like, you can also pick a sword." Senior Hong didn't want her to feel left out and said.

"Thank you, but I don't use swords— or any weapons for that matter."

Senior Hong nodded and didn't say anything else.

Yuan proceeded to pick up every sword to feel them in his grasp.

Once he found the perfect sword that felt the best in his grasp, he showed it to Senior Hong.

"I want this sword."

Senior Hong nodded without any hesitation, "It may be an ordinary sword, but it's still a good sword nevertheless."

Now that Yuan had a sword, they returned to Meixiu's side.

"Take your time," Yuan said to her.

Meixiu nodded.

Half an hour later, Meixiu said to Senior Hong, "I like the way this bow feels in my hand, but it's a little too light. Can you make me something heavier?"

In fact, due to her increased strength, every single bow that she has used up to this point was simply too light, and that isn't good in archery. In other words, Meixiu has been at a disadvantage this entire time due to this setback and hasn't shown her real potential.

Chapter 559 - Too Light

"Too light, huh? That's not good. Although light bows are easier to handle, they won't be able to compare to heavier bows in terms of power and speed, just like how a sword shouldn't be too light, sacrificing power for control."

"I will need to conduct some tests to see how strong I should make the bow." Senior Hong said to Meixiu.

"Okay."

"Follow me to the workshop."

Yuan and the others followed him back to the crafting area, where Senior Hong retrieved a couple of dumbbells of different sizes.

"The lightest dumbbell is 100 kilos while the heaviest dumbbell is 500 kilos. Go ahead and try each of them."

Meixiu nodded and proceeded to pick up each of the dumbbells, starting with the lightest one.

A few minutes later, Meixiu placed the 500-kilo dumbbell down and said to Senior Hong, "I still think they're a bit too light."

"S-Still too light? The heaviest dumbbell weighs over a ton, you know? Even I have trouble picking it up, and you're only a Spirit Warrior! Just how much innate strength do you possess?" Senior Hong was speechless.

After a moment of silence, he asked her, "What is your limit?"

"I don't know, but I have picked up a car with relative ease before," she calmly responded.

"A car...? How big was the car?"

"Just an ordinary sedan-type car."

"Heavens... These types of cars are usually around 1,500 kilos... And that is still too easy for you? I'm afraid that I won't be able to craft a bow that could handle your monstrous strength..." Senior Hong shook his head in a defeated manner.

He could've never imagined that Meixiu would have such immense strength when her slim figure looked so fragile and weak.

"Anyways, even though I won't be able to make a bow that won't feel 'too light' in your hands, I will still try to craft you the heaviest bow that I can manage."

"It'll take at least a week. I will send someone to notify you when it's done."

"Thank you." Meixiu bowed to him.

Sometime later, Yuan and the others left the Hong Family's living quarters and returned to the immortal caves.

After resting for a little, they went to the Silver Restaurant for dinner.

Once dinner was finished, they took another quick shower before going to bed.

However, when Chu Liuxiang came out of the bathroom after her shower, her appearance made both Yuan and Meixiu speechless.

"What do you think of my pajamas, Brother Yuan?" Chu Liuxiang showed off her one-piece pajamas shaped like a dress, but it was see-through, meaning that they were able to see her skin and her undergarments very clearly underneath.

'What kind of pajamas is that? You might as well be naked!' Meixiu cried inwardly when she saw Chu Liuxiang's daring and shameless pajamas.

"They look... very unique..." Yuan responded after a moment of silence.

And he continued, "Do you always sleep in that kind of clothing? You're basically asking to catch a cold in that."

Chu Liuxiang giggled a little and said, "Don't worry, Brother Yuan. These pajamas are actually warmer than it looks, and most importantly, it feels very comfortable."

"If you say so..." Yuan said.

Yuan and the other two entered the bed a few moments later, and Chu Liuxiang attached herself to Yuan the moment they went under the blankets.

"Brother Yuan, can I ask you something?" Chu Liuxiang suddenly asked him.

"What is it?"

"Do you have anyone that you like?"

Meixiu's eyebrows twitched uncontrollably after hearing Chu Liuxiang's question.

And to their surprise, Yuan quickly responded in a calm voice, "Of course."

"I have a lot of people that I like, and you're one of them," he continued in an innocent tone.

"That's not what I mean, you silly. I am asking if you fancy any girls— to the point where you want to spend the rest of your life with them."

"Well, I wouldn't mind spending the rest of my life with you or Meixiu. Does that count?" Yuan asked.

Chu Liuxiang chuckled and said, "I guess that's good enough for now."

And she continued, "One last thing, Brother Yuan. Can you do 'that' to me like you used to before we slept?"

"That?" Yuan had to think for a moment before he realized what she was talking about.

"Alright."

Yuan then turned his body until he was facing Chu Liuxiang.

The next moment, he gave her a gentle kiss on the forehead.

"Are you happy now?"

"Very!" Chu Liuxiang said before also giving him a kiss on the forehead.

"..."

Meixiu looked at Yuan's back with her eyes wide open.

Since Yuan was facing the other way, Meixiu wasn't able to see what they were doing, but she definitely heard them kissing each other, and this made her heart feel like it was being squeezed.

Yuan and Chu Liuxiang went to sleep shortly after, but Meixiu remained unable to sleep.

Eventually, she gave up trying to sleep and spent the rest of the night cultivating inside the room since she didn't want to leave the two of them alone in the room for some reason.

However, she would quickly realize that it was impossible to focus when her heart was beating so nervously.

"Haaaa..." Meixiu released a deep sigh.

'Mother was right... And it didn't even take long...'

Meixiu stopped trying to cultivate and returned to the bed, and she would spend the next few minutes staring at Yuan's sleeping face.

'If I don't do anything...'

Meixiu closed her eyes and took a silent but deep breath.

When she opened her eyes, they were filled with determination.

'Yuan...'

She began moving her arms until they wrapped around Yuan's body under the blanket, essentially hugging him, and she would close her eyes again just in case Yuan suddenly wakes up so she could act like she was moving in her sleep.

And to her surprise, all of her nervousness disappeared very quickly after she hugged Yuan, allowing her to fall asleep very quickly.

The following morning, Yuan would wake up to find his body restricted again, but to his surprise, it wasn't Chu Liuxiang that was restricting him. Instead, it was Meixiu who was clinging to his body, and with her immense strength, it was pretty much impossible for Yuan to break free without doing so very forcefully, so he could only wait until Meixiu wakes up.

Chapter 560 - Polearms

An hour has passed since Yuan woke up from his sleep, but he hasn't been able to move, much less go anywhere because of Meixiu, who was hugging his body with incredible strength.

Fortunately, Yuan only had to wait a few more minutes before Meixiu woke up and realized the situation.

"I-I am sorry!" Meixiu quickly jumped out of the bed when she realized that she had been hugging him while in her sleep.

"It's okay," Yuan said in a calm voice.

"How long have you been awake?" Meixiu couldn't help but ask him.

"I don't know, but I've been awake for a bit now," he responded.

"W-Why didn't you wake me up if that was the case?"

"You were sleeping very peacefully, and I couldn't tell myself to wake you up in that state."

Meixiu blushed after hearing his words.

'Does this mean he has been watching my sleeping face this entire time?' she wondered inwardly.

"Anyways, now that you're awake, I can finally use the bathroom," Yuan said as he got off the bed and went to the bathroom.

"Not bad, Meixiu. Looks like you're finally showing your true self." Chu Lixuiang's voice suddenly resounded, causing Meixiu to look at her.

"Chu Liuxiang... It's not like that..." Meixiu refuted in a low voice.

"Who are you trying to fool? As someone who is deeply in love with Brother Yuan, I can tell when another girl is also in love with him. You're not benefiting anybody by lying to yourself."

Meixiu remained silent for a moment before releasing a deep sigh.

"You're right. I love him." Meixiu said as she looked at Chu Liuxiang with a confronting gaze.

Chu Liuxiang smiled and said, "I know."

The two of them proceeded to silently stare at each other without blinking like they were in a staring contest.

After a long moment of silence, Chu Liuxiang broke the silence and said, "I wish you the best of luck."

She then left the bed and made her way outside the bedroom.

'I really don't understand her at all...' Meixiu shook her head afterward.

Sometime later, once they all washed their faces, they made their way to the silver restaurant for breakfast.

After their breakfast, they went to the training building for another day of training.

"Hey, Yuan." Wang Ming approached Yuan with a sword in his hands.

"Sorry, but I won't be able to spar with you today," Yuan said to him.

"Eh? Why not?"

"I already have enough experience with the sword, and I want to practice with the other weapons while I am still here, so I will be going to the other floors today. I am only here to let you know."

"I see. That's fine. I should probably take a few days off too." Wang Ming nodded.

"Well, let me know when you feel like sparring again."

"Okay."

Yuan left the first floor shortly after and went to the third floor since the second floor is also meant for swords.

Inside the gymnasium on the third floor, Yuan could see many disciples swinging and twirling their spears around like they were performing for a show; it was completely different from training with a sword.

"Hmm? Instructor, isn't that Player Yuan?" One of the disciples there notified the instructor when he noticed the masked man standing at the door.

The instructor, who was a bulky middle-aged man, turned to look at the door, and sure enough, it was Yuan.

He then approached Yuan and said, "You're Player Yuan, right? How may I help you?"

"I'd like to try wielding a spear— or even a staff," he said.

"Have you used one before?"

"No."

"I can teach you the basics if you want." The instructor offered.

"Thank you." Yuan nodded.

"Follow me."

The instructor brought Yuan to one of the main weapon racks there and said, "Pick whatever you want."

Yuan looked at the weapon racks that had many different kinds of polearms and was a little overwhelmed.

"Are they all spears? I don't know which one to choose."

"They are called polearms. A spear is only a variety of polearms. This one here is called a lance, and this one is called a halberd. They all have their pros and cons, but if you prefer something more balanced, I would recommend the staff."

"Which of them is the most popular? And which one of them is best for beginners?" Yuan then asked.

"I'd say the spear since they're lightweight and very flexible. The lance is basically a larger and heavier spear, allowing it to have much more raw power at the cost of speed and control. As for the halberd, they are mostly defensive, and they specialize in disarming your opponents."

"But since you're a beginner, I would recommend training with the staff first since it's basically a spear without the head. Once you're familiar with the staff, you'll also be familiar with the other polearms to a certain extent."

Yuan nodded, "Then I will start with the staff."

The instructor then showed him two different types of staff with one longer and thinner than the other.

"The thinner staff is more flexible and has a longer reach. The other one is shorter and thicker, but it's much easier to control and has more blunt force. If you're looking to practice with the spear afterward, I would recommend the former one. If you want to use the lance or halberd, then I would go for the thicker staff." The instructor said.

"I will start with the thinner one first," Yuan said.

"Alright." The instructor placed the other staff back in the weapon sack before taking Yuan to a more spacious area.

"The first thing you need to learn about the staff— or any polearm for that matter is how to properly hold it. If you don't know how to hold the weapon, you will never be able to use it at its full potential."

"I will now show you how to hold the staff properly."

Yuan nodded and proceeded to focus all of his attention on the instructor.

Chapter 561 - Polearms(2)

Once the instructor showed Yuan how to hold the staff, he swung the staff around in a slow but precise manner, allowing Yuan to see every single one of his movements more clearly.

A few minutes later, the instructor stopped his movements and turned to look at Yuan before handing him the staff.

"Here. I showed a little more than I was supposed to, but I wanted to give you a grasp of what it means to wield a staff."

After Yuan accepted the staff, the instructor went to grab another one for himself.

"Am I holding this properly?" Yuan asked.

"Yes, that's perfect. Now let's start with the basic movements."

The instructor then executed a single strike with the staff before freezing in that position...

Yuan followed his movements and executed the same strike with perfection.

Of course, it was only a basic movement, so it wasn't that impressive.

"Here's a follow-up."

The instructor resumed his movements and swung the staff again.

Yuan followed.

The two of them would continue in this manner until they executed most of the basic movements.

"Now try to do it all at once without any long pauses." The instructor said to him.

Yuan nodded and took a moment to remember all of the movements. Once he was ready, he started swinging the staff around with precise and smooth movements.

Although the techniques were the basics, they looked like it was performed by an expert.

'This guy...' The instructor was amazed by how fast of a learner Yuan was.

It had only been a few minutes since they started, yet Yuan was already performing like he was an expert.

"How did I do?" Yuan asked the dazed instructor after performing the basic techniques.

"N-Not bad. I don't have anything to say, which is a good thing. Practice like that a few more times and we'll move to the next step."

"Okay."

Yuan began swinging the staff around again.

About ten minutes later, the instructor stopped him and started showing him more advanced techniques.

This continued for the rest of the day.

Meanwhile, on the fourth floor, Meixiu was doing much better than the previous day.

"Looks like you're back to normal. I hope you've solved whatever was troubling you." The instructor said to her.

"Thank you for your concern." Meixiu nodded.

At the end of the day, Meixiu went to the first floor to meet up with Yuan like usual, but when she arrived, Yuan wasn't there.

'Where did he go?' Meixiu looked around while pondering. She couldn't imagine Yuan leaving without her.

When the instructor there noticed Meixiu looking around, he approached her and said, "If you're looking for Player Yuan, he's on the third floor."

"Third floor?" Meixiu tried to recall what was on the third floor, but she completely forgot.

After thanking the instructor for his information, Meixiu went back up to two more floors until she arrived at the third floor.

When she opened the door and entered the gymnasium, she was surprised to see a large crowd gathered at the center of the room.

This instantly piqued Meixiu's interest, so she approached the crowd to see what they were all looking at with such intensity.

Whoosh!

In the center of the crowd, Yuan was in the middle of sparring with a bulky man, both of them wielding a spear.

"Ha!"

The instructor stepped forward to thrust his spear at Yuan, but Yuan perfectly deflected the attack with his own spear and with relative ease.

After defending against the attack, Yuan swung his spear in a wide arc, suddenly stopping a few inches away from the man's body, barely missing him due to how flexible the spear was.

"You win... Again." The bulky man lowered his spear with a defeated smile on his face, but one could see clear excitement within his eyes.

"Thank you for the experience." Yuan lowered his spear and clasped his hand to the instructor.

"No, I should be thanking you. It's been a while since I have experienced such an overwhelming defeat." The instructor returned the bow.

"Anyways, are you sure today is your first time using polearms? If that's true... You're truly a monster amongst monsters..." The instructor joked in a serious voice.

"Yes, today is my first time using this kind of weapon. I usually use the sword or dagger... sort of." Yuan confirmed.

"Well, either way, you are now even better than me, an instructor. Besides the Grand Elder, I don't think there is anyone in this place that can match you."

It was at this moment Yuan noticed Meixiu standing in the crowd.

"It's time I go. Once again, thank you for teaching me how to use polearms."

The crowd around them made a clear path when they noticed Yuan walking towards them.

"Let's go home, shall we?" Yuan said to Meixiu, who nodded.

Chu Liuxiang and Sebastian followed them from behind.

"That was an amazing performance today. As expected of you, Brother Yuan." Chu Liuxiang said to him after they left the building, as she'd watched him train for the whole day.

Yuan smiled behind his mask and said, "To be completely honest with you, even though I have never held a staff or spear until today, I felt oddly comfortable with it the moment I held it in my hands, almost like I have used them before. It was like that when I first picked up the sword inside Cultivation Online."

"That's what you call a true genius, Brother Yuan. No matter what you touch, you master it with ease!" Chu Liuxiang said in a cheerful voice.

And she continued, "It was like that back at the orphanage, too. You would learn the harmonica and every single new instrument the same day you got it. Is there anything you cannot learn with ease?"

'Common sense...' Meixiu said inwardly after hearing Chu Liuxiang's question.

Sometime later, they returned home to take a quick shower before heading to the Silver Restaurant for dinner.

Chapter 562 - Battlefield

After eating dinner, Yuan retired to his bedroom with the other two ladies.

"Good night, Brother Yuan." Chu Liuxiang said to him after snuggling close to him.

Meanwhile, Meixiu took a seat a few meters in front of the bed and started cultivating.

Although she was already a Spirit Warrior and ahead of the majority of people in the world, she didn't want to lose to Chu Liuxiang, who was a Spirit Master.

Yuan fell asleep shortly after lying on the bed, as he was incredibly tired from training today— more so than usual since he wasn't used to training with polearms.

After falling asleep, Yuan found himself in his dream once again, but he was surrounded by a thick fog that blocked all of his vision.

"What is it this time?" Yuan's initial thought was that it was something caused by the handsome man that would often appear in his dreams.

But there was no response.

Whoosh!

Suddenly, Yuan felt something fly past his head, but it was too fast for him to see what that thing was.

Then he felt something dripping down his face.

Yuan subconsciously lifted his hand to wipe his face, and to his surprise, he was bleeding.

Whatever just flew past his head had scratched his face deep enough to bleed.

And before he could make sense of what happened, the fog began clearing away, revealing to Yuan his surroundings.

"T-This is..." Yuan's eyes widened when he realized that he was in a plain.

He was also surrounded by people that appeared to be soldiers, and they were all heavily geared with silver armor and a spear.

Fortunately, they didn't appear to be hostile.

However, not far away from his location, there were thousands of individuals fighting each other in what appeared to be a war zone.

There also appeared to be two different factions. One wearing silver armor like those around him and the other wearing black armor.

"General. What is your command?"

Someone there suddenly said, causing Yuan to turn to look in that direction.

Yuan's eyes widened when he saw the handsome man standing no far away from him, but there was something different about the handsome man this time.

His demeanor and the aura he emitted were completely different from the handsome man he would normally see. In fact, it felt like he was a completely different individual.

After a moment of silence, the handsome man raised the spear in his grasp and pointed it at the battlefield.

"Slay the enemies and leave none of them alive!" The handsome man commanded in a profound voice.

The people around him began roaring with excitement, and shortly after, they started rushing towards the battlefield with intense bloodlust in their gaze.

"Kill! Kill them all!"

The soldiers in silver armor shouted as they rushed into the battlefield and began slaughtering the other faction.

Meanwhile, the handsome man remained standing in his original spot.

Seeing this, Yuan approached him and asked, "Where are we?"

The handsome man turned to look at him before responding in a calm voice, "Can't you tell? We're at war."

"I can obviously see that we're at war, but why are we here? What are you trying to show me today?" Yuan asked, thinking that this was one of the handsome man's schemes.

"Today? You're acting like we have met before." The handsome man said with a mysterious smile on his face.

"What?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

However, the handsome man didn't continue speaking after that.

Instead, he turned to look at the battlefield for a moment before rushing into it himself.

When the soldiers wearing that black armor noticed the handsome man entering the battlefield, they immediately focused on him, quickly surrounding him.

However, despite their general getting surrounded by the enemies, the soldiers in the silver armor didn't try to help the handsome man. Hell, they weren't even looking in his direction, almost like they couldn't care less about his situation.

Shortly after surrounding the handsome man, the black-armored soldiers began their assault with all of them lunging at the handsome man from all directions.

The handsome man sneered in a cold manner before swinging the silver spear in his grasp in a full circle.

WHOOSH!

A single swing of his spear created a powerful tornado that instantly consumed the people surrounding him, tearing their armors and bodies apart with ease.

The tornado quickly turned red with how many people it killed in a short time, and it would make the battlefield rain blood and mutilated corpses, creating a gruesome scene.

When the soldiers wearing the black armor saw how the handsome man slaughtered half of their army with a single strike, they immediately dropped their weapons and began fleeing.

"There's no way we can defeat such a monster!"

"I surrender! Please! Spare me!"

A few of the soldiers even started begging for mercy after seeing their army crumble.

However, the silver-armored soldiers completely ignored their enemies' pleas and used their spears to finish off their enemies without mercy.

Once the battlefield was cleared of the black-armored soldiers, the soldiers there gathered around the handsome man and started celebrating their victory.

"Hahaha! Yet another easy victory for the Silver Dragon Army!"

"We'd even given them an hour to defeat our weakest squad!"

"You're simply too powerful, General! With you by our side, we will never experience a single defeat!"

However, the handsome man wasn't celebrating, and he shouted, "It's still too early to celebrate! Until we destroy their entire army and make their lord surrender, the war is still ongoing! Hurry up and get moving!"

The soldiers immediately stopped celebrating and saluted.

"Yes, General!"

The soldiers got on their horses and began chasing after the black-armored soldiers that fled the battlefield— all the way back to their own territory.

It was at this moment Yuan woke up from his dream.

'What was that all about?' Yuan wondered to himself, as the dream was too different from his usual dreams, and even the handsome man felt like a different person.

Chapter 563 - The Aura Of A True Master

After waking up from his strange dream, Yuan went to wash his face before going outside to get some fresh air, and he wondered if he'd been a general in his past life.

"That man in my dreams said that I was his reincarnation, but from what I have seen so far, he appeared to live inside a cultivation world. Does this mean there exists a cultivation world out there somewhere in the universe?"

Many minutes later, Yuan returned inside the immortal caves, and everyone there was already awake and prepared to grab some breakfast.

"Where did you go, Brother Yuan?" Chu Liuxiang asked him.

"I was right outside the caves getting some fresh air," he said.

They left the immortal caves shortly after to get breakfast.

After eating breakfast, they made their way to the training building, where Yuan would spend another day on the third-floor training with the spear. As for Meixiu, she'd spent most of her time in the outdoor training area.

"Instructor, can I train with you again today?" Yuan approached the bulky man who showed a bittersweet smile on his face after hearing Yuan's request.

After all, he didn't want to lose again before so many disciples, and he'd already lost plenty of face from yesterday's loss.

However, as though the heavens were on the instructor's side, before he could open his mouth to speak, someone suddenly approached them and said, "I could spar with you if you'd like."

Yuan turned to look at this individual who'd just spoke, and he was a tall, handsome young man with long hair that was tied into a single ponytail at the back of his head.

'Wow, he's tall...' Yuan subconsciously said to himself when he saw this young man who was definitely an entire head taller than him.

"My name is Shi Lang, and I am an elite disciple. I don't usually train here, but I heard that you'd defeated the instructor yesterday, so I came here today to see if I could spar with you. I promise you that I won't disappoint you." The tall young man continued.

"Oh! Shi Lang! If it's you, you will definitely be able to fight with him!" The instructor said with a gleeful look on his face since he no longer has to fight Yuan.

He then turned to look at Yuan and said, "As you can probably guess from his surname, he's from the Shi Family. If I have to be completely honest, he's even stronger than me, so you'll definitely have fun sparring with him more than sparring with me."

Yuan nodded and said, "Okay, let's spar. By the way, I am Yuan."

"I know." Shi Lang smiled.

The instructor then cleared out an area in the gymnasium for the two of them.

Sometime later, Yuan and Shi Lang stood a few meters away from each other with a spear in their grasp.

Of course, the entire spear was completely made out of bamboo, so they didn't have to worry about accidentally inflicting grave injuries on each other.

With that being said, if struck by the spear, it would definitely hurt, and they could even experience a few broken bones.

Very quickly, a crowd gathered around the two of them before they even started the fight.

"Wow, it's actually Shi Lang. It's been months since I last saw him."

"Shi Lang is number one when it comes to polearms. Player Yuan fought Wang Ming, who is the number one with swords, and won. I wonder if he'll be able to defeat Shi Lang, too."

"No matter how talented Player Yuan is, I don't think he'll be able to defeat Shi Lang. He only picked up the spear yesterday without any prior experience, right? There's no way that he'd win against Shi Lang, who is not only extremely talented but also has 20 years' worth of training."

"I also don't think he'll win, but we won't know for sure until one of them actually wins."

"Whenever you are ready." Shi Lang said to Yuan while standing there in a casual manner.

Yuan readied his spear and got into an offensive position.

"Hm?" The instructor immediately raised his eyebrows when he felt the profound aura that suddenly started emitting from Yuan's body.

Shi Lang also noticed this unfathomable aura, and his calmness was quickly wiped away.

"What is going on? Why am I getting this feeling that I would only get when I fight against my grandfather from him?"

Shi Lang recognized this feeling coming from Yuan, as he would often feeling it coming from his grandfather— the feeling of a true master.

Once Shi Lang got into his position, the two of them would remain standing there without moving for a whole minute.

A minute later, Yuan suddenly moved forward, thrusting the spear in his grasp at Shi Lang.

Whoosh!

Shi Lang quickly dodged this strike that nearly struck him in the chest where his heart was located. However, he'd only managed to narrowly dodge the strike because of how unexpectedly fast Yuan had executed the strike.

An excited yet nervous smile appeared on Shi Lang's face without him realizing it, as it has been a very long time since he has last experienced such thrill and pressure.

After missing his attack, Yuan immediately retrieved his spear and went for another strike that was actually a little faster than his first strike!

Shi Lang dodged this strike again and with more ease despite the increased speed since he knew what to expect after experiencing Yuan's first strike.

Meanwhile, the instructor was shocked to the core after witnessing Yuan's lightning-quick spear thrust that was almost impossible to see with the eyes, and he wondered to himself if Yuan had been secretly practicing with the spear for the whole day yesterday after going home.

'His movements weren't this quick and sharp yesterday! It's almost like I am watching an entirely different person than yesterday! What kind of training did he undergo yesterday? How can someone improve so drastically in less than a day?!' The instructor cried inwardly.

Chapter 564 - Spirit Competition

"Sebastian, what do you think of Brother Yuan?" Chu Liuxiang asked him as they watched Yuan spar with Shi Lang.

"I think he's a very talented young man, perhaps even the most talented person I have ever seen. I dare say that even the top geniuses from the Chu Family wouldn't be able to match him," he calmly responded.

"Then do you think my parents would accept someone like him?" Chu Liuxiang asked, her intentions clear with that question.

Sebastian pondered for a moment before speaking, "Young Lady, you should know very well the Masters' personality. Talent alone won't be enough to impress them. He'll need more than that to receive their recognition."

"Is that so?" Chu Liuxiang mumbled.

Sometime later, the crowd surrounding Yuan and Shi Lang suddenly erupted with cheering and excitement.

"Ooooh! He won! Player Yuan actually managed to defeat Shi Lang!"

"Heavens! What was that technique at the end?! I have never seen anything like that before!"

In the middle of the circle, Shi Lang was sitting on the floor with a look of disbelief on his face.

"What kind of technique was that just now?" Shi Lang asked Yuan.

"It doesn't have a name," he said.

After all, he'd learned the technique from watching the handsome man his dream.

"I see... Anyways, it was a great fight. I didn't actually expect to lose if I am being completely honest." Shi Lang extended his hand for a handshake.

Yuan accepted his hand and said, "Likewise, I enjoyed the spar."

Sometime later, the instructor approached Yuan and said, "You must have practiced a lot even after you went home."

'Training?' Yuan raised his eyebrows, but he didn't respond to that, as he figured that it would be for the better.

"How about another round? I still have a lot of energy." Shi Lang asked Yuan a moment later.

"Sure." Yuan nodded.

And for the next few days, Yuan would spend his time on the 3rd floor mastering the spear and trying out the other polearms.

"Hey, Yuan." Wang Ming appeared on the third floor and called out to him right before he went home.

"Don't forget about the competition; it starts tomorrow."

"Oh, right. I actually forgot about that." Yuan said.

"Where is it being held?"

"Meet me here tomorrow morning about two hours after sunrise. I will take you there."

"Okay."

After returning to the immortal caves, Chu Liuxiang asked, "What competition is being held tomorrow?"

"The top disciples in this faction will be fighting against each other is what I heard," he said.

"So people like that Shi Lang and Wang Ming guy?"

"Yes, there will be more people like them at the competition. I am kind of excited."

The following morning, after breakfast, Yuan went to the training tower with the others.

When they arrived, Wang Ming was already there.

"Good morning, everyone." Wang Ming greeted them.

"Hey."

"How are you feeling today?" Wang Ming asked.

"I am feeling great."

"Perfect. Then follow me."

Wang Ming proceeded to lead Yuan and the others to the location of the tournament.

About half an hour later, they arrive at the plains that had an enormous stage out in the open, and there were bleachers surrounding the platform.

"Wow, there's a lot of people here," Yuan mumbled when he saw the sea of people there, almost like everyone in the Jaded Garden was gathered there.

"Well, it is one of the biggest events of the year, and all of the higher-ups will be here."

"Welcome, Fellow Daoist Yuan." The grand elders approached Yuan the moment they noticed him, and following behind them were a group of middle-aged people.

"Hello."

"Daoist Yuan, allow me to introduce you to a few people." Senior Wang said as she looked at the group of people behind her.

"These are the current heads of the Six Spiritual Family. I believe this is your first time meeting them."

The middle-aged people there proceeded to introduce themselves.

After their introduction, one of them asked, "Daoist Yuan, I heard that you will be practicing in the competition today."

"I will."

"I cannot wait to see you in action. I have heard so many things about you, after all."

"Which weapon do you intend on using?"

"The sword," he responded.

After talking for a couple of minutes, they went to the stage.

"The competition will start in half an hour, but since this is your first time, allow me to give you a brief rundown of the rules." Senior Wang said to Yuan once they sat down.

"There will be a total of 8 contestants including you. Each of you will draw from a box, and those who picked the same number will fight each other. At the end of the first round, the winners will draw again. This will continue until the final round."

"You are not allowed to bring anything but the weapon we provide you onto the stage. Doing so will be an automatic disqualification."

"Besides these rules, there isn't much else to say."

Yuan then asked, "What kind of weapons will we be using?"

"You get to choose the type of weapon you wish to wield on the stage, but none of them will be lethal."

"That makes sense." Yuan nodded.

Half an hour later, one of the family heads entered the stage and called said, "Welcome to our annual Spirit Competition, where our best disciples will face off against each other for the first place!"

"First and foremost, let me call the contestants onto the stage!"

"Wang Ming from the Wang Family!"

"Wang Bingbing from the Wang Family!"

"Shi Lang from the Shi Family!"

"Xi Murong from the Xi Family!"

"Hong Xiuquan from the Hong Family!"

"Li Jinxi from the Li Family!"

"Wu Zao from the Wu Family!"

"Last but not least, Daoist Yuan who is currently staying in the Jaded Garden as a trial disciple!"

The thousands of spectators cheered for the contestants afterward.

"Wow, is that really Player Yuan? This is my first time seeing him."

"He's also wearing a mask out here? Damn it. I wanted to see his face at the very least!"

Chapter 565 - First Round

After introducing the contestants, a servant approached the stage while carrying a small box.

"This is what will decide your matchups. Whoever holds the same numbers will be fighting that round. That is all."

A moment later, the contestants picked their number.

Yuan looked at the paper in his hands.

'Number 1'

"The matches will be in the order of the number, so whoever has number one will be the first to fight," said the announcer on the stage.

"I am first," Yuan said.

The announcer nodded and looked at the other seven. "Who has the other number 1?"

"Haaa..."

Someone there sighed as he raised his hand into the air.

"It's me..." Wang Ming said in a defeated voice.

He turned to look at Yuan and smiled bitterly, "I didn't expect to lose on the first round. What bad luck."

"Everyone but the fighters for the first round please leave the stage!" The announcer said.

Very quickly, everyone but Wang Ming and Yuan left the stage.

"What about our weapons?" Yuan asked.

"They are coming." The announcer said.

A few moments later, two people could be seen walking onto the stage with a sword in their grasp.

"Here you go, Young Master Yuan." One of them approached Yuan and offered him a sword made out of steel, which was out of Yuan's expectation, as he'd expected to be using a wooden sword from the training hall.

However, upon closer inspection, Yuan noticed that the blade of this sword was very dull— so dull that if used to slash somebody, it wouldn't even cut their skin, much less their flesh.

With that being said, that didn't mean the sword wouldn't do any damage, as it could break one's bones if struck hard enough.

"The match will end when either someone surrenders or faints. Stepping outside the stage will also be considered an automatic loss. Lastly, you are not to inflict serious bodily harm on your opponent purposefully." The announcer quickly went over the rules.

"The match will begin when you're both ready."

Wang Ming bowed to Yuan and said, "Please go easy on me."

"Likewise." Yuan returned the bow.

After bowing, they held their swords in front of them.

Seeing this, the announcer said, "Match begins!"

The moment the announcer started the match, Yuan took a step forward and used his movement technique, instantly closing their distance and appearing in front of Wang Ming.

Wang Ming saw this coming after dueling with Yuan many times, so he was prepared for it.

Clang!

The sound of metal colliding echoed in the area as Wang Ming defended Yuan's sword strike.

Clang! Clang! Clang!

The two of them continued to challenge each other without giving themselves any time to rest.

Wang Ming knew that a prolonged fight against Yuan would immensely lower his chances of winning due to Yuan's seemingly inexhaustible stamina, so he could only go all out at the beginning and hope that Yuan makes a mistake.

"Heavens... I have never seen anyone pressure Wang Ming in such a manner! I have heard about Player Yuan's talents, but I didn't think he was this skilled!"

"Look at Wang Ming struggling to defend against Player Yuan's relentless assault!"

"The two of them have been going at each other's throat without taking a second to rest for many minutes now. I don't think this round will last long."

And just like many spectators had predicted, the fight between Yuan and Wang Ming didn't last long, lasting only 10 minutes when Wang Ming got tired and Yuan taking advantage of this, instantly seizing the victory.

"Victor— Daoist Yuan!" The announcer shouted out loud.

"Good fight." Wang Ming bowed to Yuan after the fight ended.

"Good fight."

After the fight, both of them left the stage and went to take a seat at the participants' area where the other contestants were waiting for their turn.

"Yuan, I thought you had been practicing the polearms recently. How come you're so much stronger than our last fight? Don't tell me you practiced in secret." Wang Ming said to him after they sat down.

"No, I haven't picked up the sword in the last few days," he said.

"Then you've been going easy on me this entire time?" Wang Ming looked at him with a look of disbelief.

"That's not it either. I don't know how to explain it, but I definitely wasn't going easy on you before."

"If you say so..." Wang Ming said.

He didn't get the feeling that Yuan was going easy on him when they fought previously, so he trusted Yuan. However, that only made him more curious about Yuan's sudden growth.

'Can someone improve by doing nothing?' Wang Ming wondered to himself.

Meanwhile, the second round started between Wang Bingbing and Hong Xiuquan.

Hong Xiuquan was a handsome young man in his mid-twenties. As for Wang Bingbing, she was a very beautiful young lady also in her mid-twenties.

"She has the same surname as you. Are you two related?" Yuan asked Wang Ming out of curiosity.

"Yes, she's my elder sister."

"You never mentioned having a sister."

"Well, you never asked. Hmm? Are you interested in her? I can introduce you to each other after the competition." Wang Ming said with a somewhat smug look on his face.

"I don't really care, but if you want to." Yuan nodded, misunderstanding Wang Ming's intentions.

On the stage, Wang Bingbing and Hong Xiuquan started fighting shortly after greeting each other.

Wang Bingbing wielded a sword just like Wang Ming, but as for Hong Xiuquan, he had metal gloves around his hands and half of his arm.

"He's using gloves to fight?" Yuan raised his eyebrows when he saw Hong Xiuquan's choice of weapon.

"They are called gauntlets, and they're for people who mainly use their fists to fight, turning their hands into even deadlier weapons. Is this your first time seeing someone using gauntlets?" Wang Ming asked him.

"Yes..." Yuan nodded, and he focused on Hong Xiuquan, as he wanted to see how Hong Xiuquan was going to fight someone with a sword using those gauntlets.

Chapter 566 - Second Round

Ding!

Wang Bingbing swung her sword at Hong Xiuquan, but Hong Xiuquan used his gauntlets to protect himself, using it as a shield.

After defending the attack, Hong Xiuquan used his other hand to throw a powerful punch at Wang Bingbing, who elegantly twisted her body to dodge it.

"Wow, it's like wielding two weapons at once," Yuan mumbled.

"Although he's at a disadvantage due to his very limited range, he more than makes up for it since that allows him to defend and attack at the same time." Wang Ming said.

"Doesn't it still hurt when he defends? Even though he has steel gloves, the impact should still hurt him quite a bit." Yuan asked.

"Yes, but the gauntlets aren't something you just put on and use like a sword or other weapons. It requires the wielder to train their body if they want to use it efficiently. Hong Xiuquan had to temper his body, mostly his arms, to extreme lengths, so that he wouldn't have a broken arm every time he defends."

"He has bathed in treasures since he was young, not to mention the strenuous physical training he does almost every day, allowing his arms and bones to become as durable as steel."

'Body tempering, huh? I wonder how they temper their body... Is it any different from what I did in Cultivation Online? However, this would mean that treasures with spiritual energy really exist in this world... I should ask them later.'

Ding! Ding! Ding!

Wang Bingbing and Hong Xiuquan fought fiercely for many minutes with Wang Bingbing trying to break Hong Xiuquan's defenses, while Hong Xiuquan tries to catch Wang Bingbing off-guard with a counterattack, but neither of them was successful after many minutes of going back and forth.

"Compared to Player Yuan and Wang Ming's battle, this is kind of boring, right?"

The spectators expressed their boredom 15 minutes into the round since the fight was neither as fierce nor exciting as Yuan's fight with Wang Ming.

Ding!

Eventually, Hong Xiuquan managed to knock Wang Bingbing's sword out of her grasp and outside the stage using his gauntlets.

When this happened, Wang Bingbing surrendered, as there was simply no way that she could defeat Hong Xiuquan without her weapon.

"Good fight." Wang Bingbing bowed to him afterward.

"Good fight, Senior Sister Wang." Hong Xiuquan returned her bow.

However, even though he won the fight, it was actually a very close fight.

If Wang Bingbing had lasted a little longer without losing her sword, Hong Xiuquan would have been the one to surrender since his arms were reaching their limit from defending too many of Wang Bingbing's sword strikes.

Even with his intensive training, it was simply impossible to endure so many powerful strikes from someone of similar talent and strength.

After the match ended, Hong Xiuquan removed his gauntlets, and to everyone's surprise, his arms were swollen and black.

The spectators shuddered at the horrifying sight of Hong Xiuquan's arms, but Hong Xiuquan himself acted like it was ordinary.

"Young Master Hong, do you need treatment?" The announcer asked him.

Hong Xiuquan looked at his arms for a moment before shaking his head, "Nah, I'll be fine. They will recover after some rest, and this is how they usually look after training."

"I-If you say so..." The announcer said in a somewhat baffled voice.

"Heavens... I cannot imagine the kind of training he must endure if his arms look like that at the end of every session." Yuan mumbled in a low voice.

"His training includes smashing large boulders with his bare hands and punching thick steel plates. Bleeding and bruising is a normal routine for him, but the most surprising is his recovery rate. Despite the stress and torture that his body endures every day, he returns a few days later with all of his bruises and injuries gone, almost like they never existed in the first place." Wang Ming explained.

A few minutes later, Shi Lang entered the stage with another young man that appeared to be around the same age.

Shi Lang was handed a spear as Yuan had expected, but the young man named Wu Zao was given a fan.

"Eh? He's a fan user?" Yuan was surprised to see Wu Zao using a fan, as he only knows one other person who uses the fan— his sister, Yu Rou.

"It's a weird choice, right? The fan is one of the least popular weapons due to its extremely short range and small size, so nobody really uses it. Even if somebody decides to pick it up, they are usually women, so it's really rare for a man to pick up the fan as their weapon." Wang Ming said.

And he continued, "If you ask me, the fan has more disadvantages than advantages, and even if someone masters the fan, they will not be on par with someone who masters the sword or any other more efficient weapon."

"With that being said, Wu Zao has managed to climb to the top ranks with a fan, so he's not someone you can underestimate solely because of his weapon."

Yuan then said, "I know someone that uses the fan in Cultivation Online, but I don't think I have seen her use the fan as a blunt weapon. Instead, she waves it around, sending these destructive and long-ranged attacks at her foes."

"Yes, that is what the fan specializes in— spiritual techniques that require qi. However, that isn't something you can rely on in this world due to our limited techniques since spiritual techniques like that are really rare. In fact, he only knows one spiritual technique."

Once Shi Lang and Wu Zao were ready, the announcer began the fight.

Immediately, Shi Lang used his spear to attack Wu Zao from a distance since it was the obvious thing to do with his huge advantage in range.

Wu Zao didn't panic and used his metal fan to deflect the spear by hitting it at the right spot at the perfect moment, sending the spear to the side.

Once that happened, Wu Zao actually advanced forward and closed their distance.

However, before Wu Zao could get too close, Shi Lang retrieved his spear and swung it sideways, sweeping it at Wu Zao.

Seeing this, Wu Zao held the fan with both his hands to block the strike.

Although he'd successfully blocked the strike, Wu Zao was still sent a couple of steps backward from the impact.

The spectators cheered at their exciting fight even though it had only been a couple of seconds since the match started.

'Wow, I kind of want to fight that Wu Zao...' Yuan thought to himself after he witnessed Wu Zao using the fan with such skills.

"Who do you think will win? Shi Lang or Wu Zao?" Yuan asked Wang Ming.

Although he knew Shi Lang's strength very well after sparring with him many times, he knew nothing about Wu Zao.

"Hmmm..." Wang Ming pondered for a moment before speaking, "Honestly, I have no idea. One might favor Shi Lang due to his immense advantage as a spear user, but Wu Zao is actually more talented and powerful than Shi Lang, so it kind of balances things out... I guess whoever makes a mistake first will lose the entire battle, just like Wang Bingbing and Hong Xiuquan's fight."

Chapter 567 - Tyrannical Strength

Ding! Whoosh! Ding!

Shi Lang continued his assault on Wu Zao relentlessly, but Wu Zao would always manage to block or deflect the attack.

However, Wu Zao was also unable to close their distance, much less reach Shi Lang to attack him.

"Ha!" Shi Lang suddenly took a large step forward while thrusting his spear, taking Wu Zao by surprise.

"Not bad!"

Wu Zao twisted his body in an odd manner, barely dodging the strike.

After dodging, Wu Zao grabbed Shi Lang's spear with his bare hands, before pulling Shi Lang towards him.

'What incredible strength!'

Shi Lang struggled to retrieve his spear, but he also didn't want to let go of his spear— he couldn't, or that would spell the end for him.

However, that meant Wu Zao could finally reach him.

Seeing that Shi Lang didn't let go of his spear, Wu Zao immediately stepped forward and swung his fan at Shi Lang, who used his other hand to block the fan.

However, Shi Lang didn't temper his body like Hong Xiuquan had, so his arm was immediately bruised by the strike.

Shi Lang endured the pain and used this chance to kick Wu Zao in the stomach, breaking his hold on the spear.

The spectators cheered after realizing what had happened.

"Looks like it will be Shi Lang's loss." Wang Ming said after assessing the situation.

After getting hit in the arm by Wu Zao, Shi Lang could no longer hold his spear properly, and against someone like Wu Zao, that was akin to being crippled.

And just like Wang Ming had predicted, the fight ended shortly after with Wu Zao becoming the victor.

After the match, Shi Lang had his arm checked out, and the doctors told him that his bones were fractured, which wasn't too surprising considering that he got hit by Wu Zao's fan without any protection.

While the doctors treated Shi Lang for his injuries, the fourth round started between Li Jinxi and Xi Murong.

Li Jinxi was a cold beauty with short black hair while Xi Murong was a young man with long black hair.

As for their weapons, Li Jinxi wielded a greatsword that was twice her size while Xi Murong had a small dagger in his grasp.

"Wow, what a matchup." Wang Ming mumbled in a dazed voice.

"Yuan, who do you think will win?" He suddenly asked.

"Uhh... I'm not sure, but I can feel an unfathomable aura coming from that young lady." Yuan said after a moment of silence.

"Well, believe it or not, Li Jinxi is actually the strongest disciple in the entire faction. She has a special body that gives her tyrannical strength. As for Xi Murong... Although he's very talented, he cannot compare to Li Jinxi. This is going to be a one-sided fight." Wang Ming said.

"A special body? Like a physique in Cultivation Online?" Yuan asked.

"Yes, something like that."

Yuan became silent.

This is his first time meeting someone in the real world that has a physique.

Once the contestants were in their position, the announcer started the match.

However, neither Li Jinxi nor Xi Murong moved a single inch after the battle started, both of them silently staring at each other.

"Why aren't they moving?" Yuan asked after waiting for an entire minute.

"Because the first one to move loses. Xi Murong may be quick on his feet, but he cannot defeat Li Jinxi with speed alone, and a single hit from her will spell the end for him. As for Li Jinxi... I guess she just wants to see what Xi Murong intends on doing." Wang Ming said.

After many minutes of silence, Li Jinxi spoke in a nonchalant voice, "How boring. I guess you haven't managed to grow out of your cowardness, Xi Murong."

"Sh—"

Right as Xi Murong opened his mouth to speak, Li Jinxi suddenly dashed at him, forcing Xi Murong to close his mouth to focus on her.

Once she was in range, Li Jinxi swung her large sword at Xi Murong, who quickly turned his body to dodge the incoming attack.

However, Li Jinxi suddenly changed her sword's trajectory midway through her attack, hitting Xi Murong in his sides and sending him flying off the stage like a broken ragdoll.

"Heavens! Did you see how she moved that sword midway?! What kind of movement was that?!" The spectators were shocked by Li Jinxi's display of tremendous strength.

"I can only imagine someone with her physique being able to execute such a ridiculous attack." Senior Wang said with a smile on her face.

"Her sword isn't light either. It requires a tremendous amount of raw strength to change the sword's trajectory after swinging it in such a manner." Senior Li agreed.

And he continued, "You should see how she trains. It's almost barbaric."

After throwing Xi Murong off the stage with a single strike, Li Jinxi casually walked off the stage, and she would look at Yuan while doing so, her gaze seemingly filled with anticipation.

Meanwhile, the doctors rushed to check Xi Murong's condition.

"My lord... Every single bone in his left side is broken." The doctors began sweating profusely after realizing the extent of Xi Murong's injuries.

"Li Jinxi went easy on him, as she could've easily torn his body in half with her monstrous strength," said another.

The doctors quickly placed Xi Murong on a stretcher before taking him to a hospital that was located inside the Jaded Garden.

Meanwhile, the Li Family apologized to the Xi Family for Li Jinxi's actions.

"I'm sorry. Li Jinxi isn't very good at holding back... And she doesn't learn no matter how many times we tell you to do so..." Senior Li sighed.

"Don't worry about it. This happens every time she fights someone," said Senior Xi.

"Well, they say pain is weakness leaving the body. Xi Murong was too reserved today. It was an embarrassment to watch... He also needs to be scolded afterward," said the head of the Xi Family, Xi Murong's father.

Chapter 568 - A Worthy Opponent

"Now that the first round of matches has concluded, there will be a 30-minute break. You may use this time to recover your strength, but you are not allowed to leave the area or consume medicine that speeds up your recovery." The announcer said to them.

The contestants that won their match started to cultivate to recover as much energy as they can, but Yuan merely sat on the benches with Wang Ming sitting beside him.

"You're not going to cultivate?" Wang Ming asked him.

"I don't really need to..." Yuan said, feeling completely fine and overflowing with energy.

"You're really another breed, aren't you..." Wang Ming shook his head with a bittersweet smile.

There was another contestant that didn't bother to rest, and it was Li Jinxi, who barely exerted any strength to defeat her opponent, and she would silently stare in Yuan's direction.

Noticing this, Yuan asked Wang Ming, "She's starring at our direction. What do you think she wants from us?"

Wang Ming turned to look at Li Jinxi and chuckled, "Us? I think she only has you in her eyes at this moment. She's probably wondering if you'll be a challenge for her since she doesn't really have any rivals in the faction, and even the Grand Elders are no match for her."

"What? Even the Grand Elders cannot defeat her?" Yuan was surprised to hear this.

"Li Jinxi may only be at the peak of Spirit Warrior, but her tremendous strength is on another level. In terms of experience and skills, the Grand Elders are definitely above her. However, in a fight, Li Jinxi's superior strength allows her to dominate everyone."

"But it's not like the Grand Elders cannot defeat her. If they fight 10 matches, Li Jinxi would probably win 6 to 7 of them."

"I see..." Yuan nodded.

"I think she will be a worthy opponent for you, Yuan. You'll understand it once you stand on the same stage as her." Wang Ming chuckled.

30 minutes later, the announcer called the four contestants that won back onto the stage for another round of picking numbers.

Yuan looked at his number after picking it.

'2'

"Who has number one?" The announcer asked after everyone picked a number.

"I do." Wu Zao raised his arm, showing the paper with the number '1' in his hand.

"Who has the second one?"

"I do." Li Jinxi said.

"Aiya..." Wu Zao sighed out loud when he realized that Li Jinxi was his opponent.

Although he could defend against Shi Lang's spear attacks with his small fan, Li Jinxi's large sword supported by her immense strength was another story.

"Then I am going to fight him?" Yuan looked at Hong Xiuquan the gauntlet wielder.

Hong Xiuquan was also looking at Yuan while thinking the same thing.

'So he's my opponent, huh...'

"Young Master Yuan, Young Master Hong, please exit the stage so they can fight." The announcer said to them in a respectful tone.

Once they left the stage, Li Jinxi and Wu Zao were handed their weapons.

"This matchup doesn't look fair even in the slightest."

"Right? There's no way Wu Zao can defend against her attacks with that tiny fan."

"Let's just see how he's going to handle this. Hopefully, he doesn't stand there for a few minutes before attacking."

The spectators said to each other.

"Please go easy on me." Wu Zao clasped his hands before Li Jinxi, who merely stood there with a nonchalant look on her beautiful yet cold face.

A few moments later, the announcer shouted, "Fight!"

Li Jinxi rushed at Wu Zao in an aggressive manner the moment the fight started, acting completely different from before.

"Whoa!"

Wu Zao didn't dare to block her attack head-on, nor did he dare to try and dodge her attack normally. Instead, he made sure to stay out of Li Jinxi's range. Every step Li Jinxi took towards him, he would take two steps back. In other words, he was running away.

However, despite running away, Wu Zao didn't dare to show his back to Li Jinxi, so he was running backward.

"C-Calm down, Senior Sister Li! Why do you seem so impatient to finish this match? Let's enjoy ourselves, shall we?" Wu Zao said to her.

Li Jinxi coldly snorted in response, "The faster I deal with you, the faster I get to face that person! I don't want to waste my time with you weaklings!"

"That person? Are you talking about Player Yuan? So you're that confident that he will defeat Hong Xiuquan?"

"Hong Xiuquan cannot beat that person. He's too weak." Li Jinxi bluntly said.

"We won't know that until they finish their fight."

"Are you trying to say that you have a chance of defeating me?" Li Jinxi frowned.

"I-I didn't say that— Whoa!"

Li Jinxi suddenly picked up her speed, chasing Wu Zao around the stage like they were playing tag.

"I was wrong, Senior Sister Li! Have mercy!" Wu Zao cried as he continued running away.

However, the next moment, without waiting for Li Jinxi's response, Wu Zao suddenly changed directions and actually started running at Li Jinxi!

This entire time, he was trying to distract Li Jinxi so that he could take her by surprise.

"Wu Zao, you think I don't know your tricks? You think you can surprise me with such a sloppy tactic?" Li Jinxi didn't even flinch when Wu Zao suddenly started rushing at her, as she had anticipated his plans the moment he started running around.

The next second, Li Jinxi swung her sword horizontally at Wu Zao, giving him no room to dodge.

"Che!"

Wu Zao gritted his teeth and held his fan in front of his body to block the incoming attack.

The instant he felt some pressure on his fan, Wu Zao tried to deflect the attack so that he doesn't need to block all of it.

However, Li Jinxi's strength was simply too overwhelming and was not something Wu Zao could withstand, and the moment he tried to deflect her attack, he was sent flying off the stage just like she did to Xi Murong.

Fortunately for Wu Zao, he didn't actually get hit, so his injuries were relatively minor with a few broken fingers and wrist— at least compared to Xi Murong.

'Damn gorilla monster...! She grew so much stronger since our last fight that was only three months ago! Just what is her body made of? Does she even have a limit?' Wu Zao cursed inwardly as he was brought away in a stretcher by the doctors.

Wang Ming swallowed nervously after seeing Wu Zao fly off the stage.

"Is it just me or did she get a lot stronger... again?" He mumbled in a low voice.

Meanwhile, Yuan held a serious expression on his face behind his mask.

'She's strong... Can I defeat someone like her?' Yuan wondered inwardly, his confidence wavering after witnessing Li Jinxi's inhuman strength.

Sometime later, the announcer called Yuan and Hong Xiuquan onto the stage.

"Are your hands okay? If you cannot fight..." Yuan asked Hong Xiuquan.

After all, he wouldn't feel good about beating someone who can barely use his arms.

"Thank you for your concerns, but I can fight." Hong Xiuquan said.

"If you say so..." Yuan nodded.

Chapter 569 - Changing Weapons

"Are you two ready?" The announcer asked Yuan and Hong Xiuquan.

"I am." They both responded simultaneously.

"Then let the fight begin!"

Once the fight started, Yuan slowly approached Hong Xiuquan, who was standing still in a defensive position.

His intentions were clear—he was going to repeat what he did during his fight with Wang Bingbing.

'So he's going to defend and try to counterattack, huh? Let's see your limits!'

Yuan accepted his challenge and dashed at Hong Xiuquan with his sword raised.

However, midway through his swing, Hong Xiuquan, who was prepared to block the attack, suddenly shouted with his eyes wide, "I surrender!"

Yuan immediately halted his movements, stopping his sword an inch away from Hong Xiuquan.

"Huh?" Yuan doubted what he'd just heard.

Did Hong Xiuquan just surrender?

The spectators were also dumbfounded by Hong Xiuquan's sudden surrender. They didn't even fight! Why would he suddenly surrender?

"Young Master Hong, did you just surrender?" The announcer asked Hong Xiuquan for confirmation.

"Yes, I surrender." Hong Xiuquan said in a nonchalant voice as he removed his gauntlets before leaving the stage and everyone speechless.

"Why?" Yuan couldn't help but ask him, as he was looking forward to their fight.

Hong Xiuquan stopped for a moment and turned to look at Yuan.

He then said in a low voice, "I lied. My arms are not in the condition to fight."

After a moment of silence, Yuan said, "Then let's fight again after you've fully recovered."

Hong Xiuquan merely nodded his head and didn't say anything else before leaving the stage.

The announcer snapped out of his daze and said, "Young Master Yuan wins by default since his opponent forfeited the match!"

He then asked Yuan, "Since the fight ended before it even started, do you wish to immediately continue onto the final fight, or do you need some time to rest? You're allowed a 30-minute rest period after every match."

"I don't need any rest."

The announcer nodded his head before turning to look at Li Jinxi, who was already approaching the stage.

"Do you wish to immediately start the fight?"

Li Jinxi nodded with an eager look on her face.

Meanwhile, back at the benches, Wang Ming asked Hong Xiuquan, "So, what's your real reason for surrendering the fight? Your arms look fine."

Hong Xiuquan looked at him with raised eyebrows and said, "You're asking me? Didn't you fight against him during the first round?"

"Yes, I did. So what of it?"

Hong Xiuquan frowned and said, "Are you mocking me right now? I didn't even need to block his attack to know that it has a tremendous amount of strength behind it! My arms will literally break if I block it!"

Wang Ming's jaw dropped, and he said, "Surely, you're over exaggerating. I have fought with him many times. There's no way that you wouldn't be able to handle his attacks. Sure, they are powerful, but I can defend against them properly."

"I don't believe that he was using all of his strength against you. I dare even say that his strength is on par with Li Jinxi!"

Wang Ming laughed at Hong Xiuquan's claims, "You're definitely over exaggerating."

"Hmph! Screw you. I'm not going to waste my breath on you any longer." Hong Xiuquan proceeded to ignore Wang Ming, who merely shook his head.

Meanwhile, on the stage, Yuan and Li Jinxi stood a couple of meters away from each other.

"Are you two ready to fight?" The announcer asked them.

"Wait. I have a question." Yuan said.

"What is it?"

"Can I change my weapon?" He asked.

"Your weapon?" The announcer raised his eyebrows.

This is the first time he's been asked such a question.

He then turned to look at the Grand Elders and asked, "Grand Elders, are there any rules regarding changing one's weapon after the competition started?"

"Well, there aren't any rules that forbid the participants from changing their weapons." Senior Wang said.

The announcer nodded and returned to Yuan, "Since it's not against the rules to change weapons, that means you are allowed to do so. What kind of weapon do you want?"

And to everybody's surprise, Yuan pointed at Li Jinxi and said, "I want a weapon like hers."

"Huh?" The announcer looked at him with wide eyes.

"Y-You want a greatsword?" He asked for confirmation.

"Yes." Yuan nodded calmly.

After all, Li Jinxi's sword resembled his Empyrean Overlord more than his current sword that had a thin blade in comparison, and there was simply no way that he would be able to defend against her attacks with such a sword.

A few minutes later, they handed Yuan a greatsword that was just like the one wielded by Li Jinxi.

"It's heavy." The announcer warned him.

Yuan nodded as he grabbed the handle and waved it around casually.

'It's not that bad.' Yuan thought to himself.

The sword itself weighed around 100 kilos, but Yuan was a Spirit Master, not to mention his body that had been strengthened by the golden symbols, so it didn't feel any different than wielding a normal sword.

Of course, both Li Jinxi and Yuan could wield much heavier swords, but that would be an unfair advantage since the others could only wield weapons at around 50 kilos.

"Since when can he use greatswords?" Wang Ming mumbled to himself.

Although greatswords and long swords are considered as 'swords', they require different techniques to wield properly.

"I am ready," Yuan said after getting comfortable with the sword.

The announcer nodded and started the fight shortly after.

However, neither Yuan nor Li Jinxi moved from their spots.

After a moment of silence, Li Jinxi lifted her sword and pointed it at Yuan.

"Don't disappoint me," she said in a calm voice.

"I will try my best not to," Yuan said.

The next moment, they both moved at the same time, running straight into each other.

"Ha!"

Li Jinxi swung her sword at Yuan with half of her strength to test Yuan's capabilities.

Yuan also swung his sword, accepting Li Jinxi's attack head-on, something most people wouldn't dare to attempt.

Clang!

The air vibrated when their swords collided, causing the spectators' hearts to tremble.

However, neither Yuan nor Li Jinxi moved from their spot.

A cold grin appeared on Li Jinxi's smile when she felt the force behind Yuan's attack, looking like she'd just found her perfect prey.

"Let's dance!" She suddenly shouted, her voice filled with excitement.

Chapter 570 - Fighting Li Jinxi

Clang! Clang! Clang!

Yuan and Li Jinxi continued to swing their large swords at each other for many minutes, but neither of them was using their full strength just yet, as they were gradually increasing their strength to match each other.

"Heavens... How is he defending against Li Jinxi's attacks head-on? Does he also have a unique physique that gives him tyrannical strength?"

The spectators were shocked to witness Yuan fighting Li Jinxi on equal terms, something none of them have seen before.

"Who do you think will win this fight?" Senior Wang asked the other grand elders.

"Hmm... It's hard to tell. While we know Li Jinxi's full strength, we don't really know Daoist Yuan's full potential." Senior Xi said.

"That is indeed true. For example, I could've never predicted that he had the strength to fight Li Jinxi head-on."

"I wonder if he also has a divine body. Considering how many talents he already has... It's not that crazy of an idea."

"Just what is he made out of? He's the definition of a flawless entity created by the heavens just to mess with everyone else."

Meanwhile, on the stage, Li Jinxi started laughing, "Finally! I have been waiting for someone like you! Someone that I can fight to my heart's content without worrying that you'd die in a single hit!"

Clang!

Yuan was pushed back a full meter when Li Jinxi started fighting for real.

'What a heavy strike!' Yuan cried inwardly, his entire arm shaking afterward, feeling like he'd just struck an immovable mountain.

'What should I do? I am a little behind in terms of raw strength...' Yuan pondered as he looked at Li Jinxi, who was glaring at him like a tiger before its prey.

"What are you waiting for? Are you too afraid to continue? I can tell that you're weaker than me in terms of strength." Li Jinxi said to him.

Yuan remained silent.

There was a good chance that his movement technique wouldn't work on her, who has very keen eyes and a fast reaction, not to mention her weird sword technique that allows her to change her sword's direction at will.

'This is... fun!'

A wide smile appeared on his face, as he has never fought against such an opponent before.

It was at this moment that Yuan felt a surge of energy bursting from somewhere within his body, making him feel like he was invincible.

However, this energy gave him more than just strength and confidence—it also gave him an uncontrollable urge to destroy everything in his path.

And unbeknownst to Yuan, his body began emitting a golden aura that chilled the atmosphere there.

"You..." Li Jinxi's eyes widened when she felt this aura that resembled that of a powerful beast.

"Am I seeing things or is he currently glowing?" Someone asked out loud.

"I see it too."

"What kind of technique is he using?"

"Heavens... My body is shivering uncontrollably for some reason..."

"You too? My body is also shaking..."

No matter who was there, they were all trembling in fear for some reason.

"I have a bad feeling about this..." Senior Wang mumbled in a low voice as she stared at Yuan's still figure.

"..."

Li Jinxi looked at her trembling hands that made it difficult for her to even hold her sword.

'What is this feeling?' she wondered to herself.

Meanwhile, Yuan tightened his grip on the sword, before slowly walking towards Li Jinxi, snapping her out of her daze.

Li Jinxi gritted her teeth to stop the trembling, but when that didn't work, she bit on her lips until it began bleeding, forcibly stopping her trembling with pain.

"Don't get too full of yourself!" Li Jinxi shouted before running at Yuan.

Once she was in range, Li Jinxi swung her huge sword at Yuan.

Clang!

"W-What!?"

Li Jinxi's eyes widened with shock when Yuan defended against her attack with a single hand holding his sword! And he was doing it with seemingly no effort at all!

Li Jinxi was in disbelief, so she tried to overpower him by pressing her sword down with all of her might.

However, Yuan's sword remained as still as a mountain.

"Che!"

Li Jinxi suddenly jumped back to distance herself from Yuan.

"Don't blame me if you get hurt!" Li Jinxi shouted at him before releasing a beastly roar that shook the air around them.

The next moment, her eyes began glowing red with her body emitting a bloodthirsty aura.

Senior Li stood from his seat with a worried expression on his face when he saw Li Jinxi use this unknown technique.

"Aiya! What is that troublemaker doing!? I specifically told her to not use that technique during this competition!" he sighed out loud.

The other grand elders looked at him with their eyebrows raised. This is their first time seeing Li Jinxi use such a technique.

"What technique is she using?"

Senior Li sighed again before speaking, "It's an ancient technique from our family that allows one to increase their body's limits while boosting their overall prowess for a short amount of time. It's a very overbearing technique that nobody in our family has managed to learn since ancient times because our bodies could not handle the stress— at least until Li Jinxi's appearance."

"However, even she cannot control the technique very well. She has gone on a rampage a couple of times after using that technique, and it would take almost every expert in the family to calm her down afterward. We need to prepare ourselves to go down there when she loses control."

"Good lord..." The grand elders were speechless.

'Yuan...' Meixiu looked at his figure with a worried look on her face after hearing Senior Li's words.

Meanwhile, Yuan remained calm despite Li Jinxi's threatening aura.

"Are you ready?" He asked her in a calm voice.

Li Jinxi responded to his question by running at him with her sword raised.

"Let's see if you can handle this!" Li Jinxi swung her sword at him that had enough force to instantly crush a metal ball the size of a large boulder!

Yuan tightened his grip on his sword before intercepting Li Jinxi's attack.

CLANG!

The entire platform shook from their impact.

The next second, Li Jinxi's figure could be seen flying off the platform and into the spectators' area, shocking everybody there.

"Impossible..." Senior Li muttered in disbelief when he witnessed the results.

Not only did Yuan manage to defend against Li Jinxi who had her overall prowess boosted by their family's ancient technique, he completely overpowered her!

"Hm?" Yuan looked at his greatsword afterward, which was snapped in half from the impact.

'What is this feeling?' He wondered to himself as the overwhelming energy in his body began disappearing shortly after the fight.

"W-Winner, Yuan!" The announcer said out loud after realizing that the fight had ended.

The spectators began cheering out loud.

Meanwhile, the doctors went to check on Li Jinxi's condition, who was only knocked unconscious with a couple of minor injuries.

"Young Master Yuan, do you have any words to say?" The announcer handed Yuan a microphone.

Yuan subconsciously accepted the microphone, but he had nothing in mind.

Chapter 571 - Tribulation

"Uhh... Thank you for letting me fight here today. It was a wonderful experience." Yuan said to the microphone before handing it back to the announcer and walking off the stage.

"Yuan! What kind of technique was that?! I have never seen anyone dominate Li Jinxi in such a manner before!" Wang Ming approached him with a look of disbelief on his face.

"Technique? That wasn't a technique... At least I don't think so." Yuan said.

In fact, even he doesn't know what that power was. It came suddenly and disappeared as quickly.

And even though it gave him incredible strength, Yuan regretted that he wouldn't be able to fight Li Jinxi properly.

'Is there anyone out there that can push me to my limits?' Yuan sighed inwardly.

At this rate, he will have to play Cultivation Online if he wants to fight any worthy opponents.

After the tournament, Yuan regrouped with the others.

"Congratulations, Brother Yuan! You were very handsome on the stage!" Chu Liuxiang said to him.

"Thank you." Yuan nodded.

"Daoist Yuan, what was that golden aura around you? It felt kind of similar to Li Jinxi's technique at the end." Senior Li asked him.

"Sorry, but I don't know." Yuan shook his head.

The grand elders didn't say anything else, as they believed that Yuan wanted to keep his secrets to himself, which was a normal thing to do.

"Regardless, it was refreshing to see Li Jinxi being on the receiving end of the beatdown since she's usually the one beating her opponents." Senior Li laughed out loud despite talking about his own granddaughter.

"Daoist Yuan, it wasn't mentioned during the competition, but the winner is granted a free cultivation technique from either of our Six Spiritual Family." Senior Wang said to him a moment later.

"Now that you mention it, I have yet to take a look at the techniques," Yuan said, as he'd been too busy training.

"It's fine. You have plenty of time."

After talking for a few minutes, Yuan prepared to return to the immortal caves with the others.

However, right as they were about to leave, someone shouted, "I demand a rematch!"

Yuan turned around to see Li Jinxi, who had woken up just recently, standing behind them with an unsatisfied expression on her beautifully cold face, clearly not happy about the results of the match.

"I didn't even get the chance to fight you properly! I demand a rematch!" She repeated.

Yuan then said, "I also wasn't satisfied with the results, but the competition is already over. If you'd like, we can have our rematch on another day."

Li Jinxi remained silent for a moment before nodding her head, "Tomorrow!"

"How about the day after tomorrow? I plan on looking at the techniques tomorrow," he suggested.

"It's a promise!" she said.

"Yes."

Afterward, Yuan left the scene with the others, going straight to the Silver Restaurant for some food before returning to the immortal caves.

After they finished dinner, Yuan tried to activate the golden aura he'd experienced today during his fight with Li Jinxi, but he was unsuccessful.

'Just what was that? How do I activate such a power?' Yuan wondered to himself as he laid on the bed with Chu Liuxiang before falling asleep.

During his sleep, Yuan had a dream.

However, he was alone and surrounded by darkness, almost like he was in the middle of a black hole.

"Where am I?" He wondered out loud.

"Do you seek power?"

A deep voice suddenly resounded, causing Yuan to raise his eyebrows.

"Who's there?" He asked loudly.

"Why else would I be here?" Another voice answered, but it sounded like it was answering to the deep voice, and it sounded like the handsome man from Yuan's dreams.

"Are you willing to sacrifice everything—including your own life?" The deep voice continued.

"I am."

"Then follow me..."

The voices disappeared shortly after, and lights began flickering in the distance, resembling stars, quickly filling the void and turning it into the starry sky.

Yuan suddenly felt a presence behind him, causing him to turn around.

"It's been a while."

The handsome man reappeared before Yuan again.

"You're really random and confusing, you know that, right?" Yuan said to him.

"I have no control over my appearance, nor do I control your dreams."

After a moment of silence, Yuan asked, "Hey, do you know what that golden aura was today?"

"Of course." To Yuan's surprise, the handsome man immediately acknowledged it.

"What is that power? It filled my body with overwhelming strength, but at the same time, it also gave me an uncontrollable desire to fight. I was barely able to control myself today when I fought Li Jinxi, and that feeling lingered even after the fight, but the power was no longer there."

The handsome man smiled and said, "Do you like it? The feeling of power — the feeling of being invincible. You have just experienced true power today, but that is only a small fraction of its full power."

"That doesn't answer my question. Just what is that power?" Yuan asked again.

"That power is the reason for your existence— our existence. You will eventually remember, but that time is not now, so I cannot answer your question, as I do not know the answer."

"Then do you know how I can use that power again?"

"You're too weak to control that power. The fact you managed to use it today without facing any backlash is already a miracle. Don't worry, you'll eventually remember how to use it." The handsome man then turned around and disappeared into the void.

However, his voice resounded even after he disappeared, "You should prepare yourself. Your first tribulation will arrive soon."

"Tribulation? What are you talking about?"

"Everything comes with a price, especially power."

The dream ended with that sentence, and Yuan woke up the next moment.

'Tribulation... How am I supposed to prepare myself for something I know nothing about? That's impossible...' Yuan sighed to himself.

Chapter 572 - Curse

After waking up, Yuan quietly left the bedroom and went outside the immortal caves, but it was still completely dark outside. Clearly, he'd woken up earlier than usual.

He then walked to the small pavilion located right next to the immortal caves and took a seat underneath it.

"Just who am I...?" He mumbled in a low voice.

Although he has pondered about his purpose in life many times throughout his life, he has never once questioned his identity. However, ever since he started having these dreams, he found himself questioning his identity more and more often.

'Who are my parents? Why did they abandon me?'

'Am I really the reincarnation of a powerful cultivator? Or am I merely going crazy?'

Yuan sat underneath this pavilion for an unknown amount of time, silently pondering about his own identity and his reason for existing.

Eventually, the sun began rising.

Ding~

When the sun just peeked over the horizon, Yuan heard a beautiful and familiar-sounding noise coming from somewhere not too far away from him, causing him to snap out of his daze.

"This sound... Someone is playing the zither?" Yuan subconsciously stood up and began following the direction of the sound.

After walking for a few minutes, he arrived in a secluded area behind the immortal caves, where a young woman was sitting on top of a large boulder playing with a wooden zither on her lap, her eyes completely closed.

Ding~

Yuan didn't immediately approach this young woman, as he was afraid of disturbing her, so he stood there quietly, enjoying the young woman's zither performance that was incredibly skillful, comparable to even Fei Yuyan from the Dragon Essence Temple.

The song lasted for a little over five minutes, and once the young woman stopped her performance, she turned to face Yuan's direction, but her eyes remained close.

"Who's there?" She asked in a gentle and soothing voice.

"Sorry, did I disturb you? My name is Yuan."

"Yuan? I am not familiar with your name. Are you new here?"

"Yes, you can say that."

"Then how may I help you? You have been standing there for a while now."

"Your music brought me here. You're playing the zither, right? This is my first time seeing someone playing the zither, and I doubted my hearing at first, so I came here to confirm my suspicions."

"You are familiar with the sound of a zither? How unusual."

"Yes, somewhat. I also enjoy playing the zither, after all."

"Eh? You also play the zither?" The young woman expressed surprise after learning this information.

"Yes." Yuan nodded even though he only touched the zither in Cultivation Online.

"If that's true, why don't you play a song for me, Yuan?" The young woman suddenly offered her zither to him.

It was obvious that this young woman didn't believe Yuan when he said that he also played the zither. After all, the zither is known as a cursed instrument, and she has never met anyone else that would dare to play the zither besides herself.

"Sure."

Yuan approached the young woman and accepted the zither without caring about the curse.

He then took a seat on the soft ground and placed the zither on his lap in a calm and smooth manner.

After taking a deep breath, Yuan began pulling the strings on the zither, playing a song that he'd learned from Fei Yuyan.

"..."

The young woman remained silent throughout the whole song, but it was not because she wasn't impressed. Instead, she was shocked speechless by Yuan's flawless performance.

"What do you think?" Yuan asked the young woman after his performance.

After a moment of silence, she responded in a dazed voice, "W-Where did you learn how to play the zither?"

"I learned it from a friend in Cultivation Online," he answered.

"Cultivation Online...?" The young woman tilted her head, looking a little confused, almost like this was her first time hearing about Cultivation Online.

"You don't know about Cultivation Online? It's one of if not the most popular game in the world right now." Yuan said to her with a dumbfounded look on his face.

He didn't think that there would still be people in this world that hasn't heard of Cultivation Online.

"I'm sorry, but I usually spend most of my time alone practicing the zither, so I don't know much, and I don't play video games." She shook her head.

"Well... Cultivation Online is..."

Yuan proceeded to give this young woman a brief explanation of Cultivation Online and its unique world.

"Wow, it seems like a wonderful game. So there are many zither players in Cultivation Online?"

"I think so. There were a few thousand participants at a zither competition that I also participated in."

"A zither competition, huh? I would love to participate in something like that. After all, no matter how much I enjoy playing the zither or how much passion I have for the instrument, it does get boring when nobody around me dares to even touch the zither, much less play it."

The young woman sighed, and she continued in a bitter voice, "Sometimes it feels like I am the only person in this world playing the zither. However, I am glad that's not the case since you've proven to me that there are others out there that also play the zither. Thank you, Yuan, for coming here today."

"No, I should be thanking you for proving to me that the curse isn't real. I have been told that the zither is cursed in this world, and everyone that plays it will encounter misfortune, but that doesn't seem to be the case." Yuan said to her.

However, the young woman remained silent with a perplexed expression on her face.

After a moment of silence, she said, "About that..."

She pointed at her closed eyes and said, "I don't want to scare you, but I lost my vision shortly after I started playing the zither, and I was born with perfect vision."

"What...?" Yuan muttered in a dazed manner.

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 573 - Azure

"You sound surprised." The young woman said after hearing his dazed mumble.

And she continued, "Don't you also play the zither? Did nothing happen to you? As far as I am aware, everyone that plays the zither has encountered misfortune that ruined their lives one way or another."

After a long moment, Yuan said, "I... I learned to play the zither inside Cultivation Online, where such a curse doesn't exist. In fact, this is my first time playing with the zither in this world."

The young woman covered her mouth in a shocked manner.

"W-Why didn't you say so before I handed you the zither! And why did you accept it?! Now you'll also be met with misfortune!" The young woman said to him in a worried voice, as she felt responsible for handing him the zither.

Yuan chuckled and said, "You don't have to worry about me. I don't think playing a single song will affect me."

Furthermore, he is already afflicted with many powerful curses, so having another one won't really matter to him.

"If you don't mind me asking, why are you still playing the zither despite the curse that took away your vision?" Yuan asked her afterward.

"It's simple. I love the zither too much to let it go. It can take away my vision, but as long as I get to continue playing the zither, I don't mind some sacrifices," she responded in a calm voice.

Yuan was left speechless by her words.

He has never seen anyone so dedicated and passionate about an instrument before.

If he was in her shoes, he would gladly give up playing instruments for his vision back.

After a moment of silence, he asked, "Then can you tell me a little more about the curse? You said that you lost your vision shortly after playing the zither. How did it happen?"

The young woman shook her head and said, "I don't know. All I know is that I went to sleep one night like usual, but when I woke up the next day, my vision was gone."

"I went to get my eyes checked by many professionals, but to my surprise, all of the doctors said that my eyes were normal and that they couldn't understand why I suddenly lost my vision."

Yuan's body trembled when he heard her explanation, as it sounded oddly familiar for some reason.

'Her situation... sounds exactly like mine...'

Yuan thought to himself, as he could still remember waking up one day with his vision suddenly gone. And just like the young woman, the Yu Family flew him around the world to get his eyes checked by all of the best doctors in the world, but none of them were able to pinpoint the issue.

Eventually, his body also stopped functioning, forcing him to become a cripple who can do nothing but breathe and speak, but can one even consider that as living?

"Have you tried not playing the zither to see if your vision would return?" Yuan suddenly asked.

"I didn't play the zither for a whole year after losing my vision, but the damage was already done, so I decided to continue playing the zither. After all, I didn't sacrifice my vision just to stop playing afterward. I don't need my vision to play, anyway."

A bittersweet smile appeared on Yuan's face. Indeed, one doesn't need any vision to play an instrument. He knew that very well as someone that was forced to continue playing instruments until he could no longer even lift a finger.

"Aren't you worried that the curse might take away your vision as well?" The young woman suddenly asked him.

"My vision?" Yuan laughed a little before continuing, "It can't take away something that I don't have."

"Eh?" The young woman released a surprised noise.

"You're also blind?" She subconsciously asked.

"Yes. I have been blind since I was young."

"Was it caused by an accident, or...?"

"Nope. Perhaps I was cursed just like you, but I didn't play the zither back then."

"What do you mean 'just like me'?" she asked with her head tilted.

"I also woke up one day to find out that I'd lost my vision."

"I... I don't know what to say..." The young woman mumbled in a low voice.

After a moment of silence, the woman suddenly asked, "If you don't mind, can I touch your face?"

"You want to touch my face? Why?" Yuan raised his eyebrows at her special request.

"I want to visualize your appearance. I can't see, so I have to resort to touching everything to visualize it inside my head," she explained.

Yuan remained silent for a moment.

He then used his divine sense to make sure that they were alone. Once he confirmed that they were the only presence there, Yuan removed his mask and approached her.

"Go ahead."

"Thank you."

The young woman jumped off the boulder and proceeded to feel every inch of Yuan's face with both of her small and soft hands.

It was a little awkward at first for Yuan, but it wasn't anything he couldn't endure, and he quickly got used to it.

"Thank you, I have a pretty good visualization of your face now. You're quite the handsome young man, aren't you, Yuan?" The young woman chuckled a few minutes later.

She suddenly grabbed his hands and placed them on her face and continued, "Here, you can touch my face in return."

"Uhh... I don't really need to do that since I can see your face," he said.

"Eh? I thought you were blind?" The young woman raised her eyebrows.

"I am, but I have another method that allows me to see."

"H-How does that work?" She asked, feeling even more confused.

"It's called divine sense. It not only allows me to see everything perfectly, but I can even see things more clearly and with more details— something that isn't normally possible with the bare eyes," he briefly explained.

"Wow, that sounds wonderful. Do you think you can teach me such a technique?"

"Well... It's not that I don't want to, but in order to use this technique, you will need a very high cultivation base— preferably Spirit Master."

"That's a pity... I am only a Spirit Apprentice."

"Oh, I almost forgot to introduce myself... My name is Azure, and I am part of the Wang Family," she introduced herself.

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 574 - Promise

"Azure? Is that your nickname?" Yuan asked her, as it was a weird name to have for someone part of the Wang Family.

Azure chuckled like a fairy before speaking, "No, that's my real name. I belong to the Wang Family, but I do not share the same blood as them. In other words, I was adopted, and Azure was what the kids at the orphanage would call me, so I stuck to it."

'She's also adopted?' Yuan's mouth opened a little from surprise.

This is the first time that he can relate to someone so well. Not only were they both orphans, but both of them became sick out of the blue and without any logical explanation, not to mention that they also played the zither.

It was almost as if Yuan was standing in front of a mirror right now.

"Anyways, I have to go now. It was nice speaking with you, Yuan. If you are free in the future, let's play the zither together. I don't normally play outside, but since you're here, I will come outside more often."

"Okay." Yuan immediately nodded.

"How about tomorrow?" She then asked.

"Same time?" Yuan asked.

"Same time."

"Then it's a promise. See you tomorrow."

Azure then picked up her zither and left the place shortly after, but she didn't forget to wave at Yuan before she left.

Once Azure left the scene, Yuan returned to the immortal caves.

"Where did you go? You've been gone all night according to Sebastian." Chu Liuxiang asked him when he returned.

"Hm? I woke up early and couldn't go back to sleep, so I went outside for some fresh air," he said.

Chu Liuxiang raised her eyebrows slightly, but she didn't question him any further.

"What are we going to do today?" She then asked.

"I am going to take a look at the Six Spiritual Families' cultivation techniques and see if they have anything interesting," he said.

Chu Liuxiang shook her head and said, "Brother Yuan, I suggest that you don't accept any cultivation techniques from them."

"Eh? Why not?" Yuan immediately asked.

"Because you'll owe them if you do. Even though you won the competition and are entitled to a cultivation technique, I wouldn't accept anything from them if you do not intend on joining their faction, as that will only make it harder for you to leave them." Chu Liuxiang explained to him.

"That makes sense..." Yuan nodded.

And he continued, "Well, I am mostly going there to see what they have, but I will keep that in mind. I doubt they'll have any cultivation technique that I cannot find in Cultivation Online."

Sometime later, they went to get some breakfast at the Silver Restaurant before making their way to the building that stored the cultivation techniques after asking around for directions.

"This place is smaller than I had anticipated," Yuan mumbled in a low voice as they approached a small pagoda that only had one floor.

"Hello, I am Yuan, and I am here to look at the cultivation techniques," Yuan said to the guards standing in front of the heavily-guarded pagoda.

The guard in the front nodded his head and said, "I have already been notified by the grand elders about your situation. Please, follow me."

However, the guard stopped when he noticed that Meixiu and the others were also following them.

"I'm sorry for the inconvenience, but only Daoist Yuan has clearance to enter the building. The rest of you are not allowed to follow him inside."

After all, Meixiu was only his 'caretaker', and Chu Liuxiang was an uninvited guest at the Jaded Garden. If not for Yuan, Chu Liuxiang would not have been allowed to stay for so long.

"I understand. We'll wait for you out here." Meixiu said to Yuan.

Yuan nodded and said, "I won't take long."

He then entered the building with the guard while the others remained outside.

"What a bummer. I wanted to see how the Six Spiritual Families' cultivation techniques compare to our Chu Family's collection." Chu Liuxiang shrugged.

"Anyway, since we're alone, why don't we have a little chat?" She then turned to look at Meixiu.

"I have nothing interesting to say." Meixiu immediately said.

Chu Liuxiang chuckled and said, "That's perfectly fine. We're going to be talking about Brother Yuan, anyway. Let's start with what we like the most about him!"

Meixiu was speechless. Does she really have to participate in such an embarrassing topic?

Meanwhile, inside the pagoda, Yuan was stunned to see how few cultivation techniques there were in this place.

"Is this all of the techniques on this floor?" Yuan asked the guard as he pointed at the bookshelf in the middle of the room that contained about 20 cultivation techniques.

"Yes." The guard nodded.

And he continued, "Don't let the quantity fool you, Daoist Yuan. These cultivation techniques were not taken from Cultivation Online. They have been with the Six Spiritual Families for many generations now, and before Cultivation Online came into existence, cultivation techniques were incredibly rare."

"That makes sense..." Yuan nodded.

"Hm? Does this mean you guys keep the cultivation techniques acquired from Cultivation Online in a separate place?"

"Yes. They are located in the public library for all disciples to access. Of course, the stronger cultivation techniques are only accessible by higher-ranking disciples."

"As for these cultivation techniques, even if some of them are not as powerful as the cultivation techniques from Cultivation Online, they are greatly valued by the Six Spiritual Families due to their origin and history. Usually, only elite disciples or children directly from one of the Six Spiritual Families are allowed to choose a cultivation technique from this place."

"Anyways, take your time. I will be over here if you have any questions."

"Okay." Yuan then approached the bookshelf located in the center of the room and started looking through all of the cultivation techniques there.

'Oh? Is this the sword technique used by Wang Ming during our first fight? So it was called Sword of Dominance, huh. What a domineering name. Very fitting for such a powerful strike...' Yuan looked at the technique while trying his best to not accidentally learn them as he does in Cultivation Online.

Chapter 575 - Rematch

'Hmm... Are these techniques too lackluster or am I simply too spoiled by the techniques in Cultivation Online?'

Despite looking through all of the techniques, Yuan didn't find any interest in them.

"Have you found a suitable technique, Daoist Yuan?" The guard asked him when Yuan returned to him.

"No," he shook his head.

"Is there something wrong with the techniques?" The guard raised his eyebrows.

"Not really. I am just not interested in them."

"That's unfortunate. I guess they are too weak compared to Daoist Yuan's techniques. If you ever change your mind, you can come back here at any time."

"Thank you."

After spending about half an hour inside the pagoda, Yuan left the place empty-handed.

"You're out already? That was quicker than I'd anticipated." Chu Liuxiang said when he returned.

"Hm? Where's your cultivation technique?" Meixiu asked him.

"I didn't pick a technique, mostly because I already have more powerful techniques," he said.

"That makes sense... I doubt you'll be able to find a cultivation technique more powerful than Divine-rank in this world."

Yuan shook his head and said, "I don't think the ranks are an issue, since Flying Dagger is only a Mortal-rank technique. I guess I just don't have any need for them, and there's no point in me learning them if I am not going to use them."

"What are we going to do now?" Meixiu then asked.

"Let's just go home for today. I have an appointment with Li Jinxi tomorrow," he said.

"That barbaric girl? Just don't overdo it, Brother Yuan. You were a little bit scary the last time you fought her." Chu Liuxiang said.

"Scary? How so?" Yuan asked.

"Well, you felt like an entirely different person. I was really worried that something might have happened to you."

"I'm sorry for making you worried, but that probably won't happen again."

The next day, they made their way to the Wang Family's living quarters.

"Welcome, Yuan!" Wang Ming went to greet them when he heard that they have arrived.

"Hey, Wang Ming. It feels weird to see you anywhere besides the training building." Yuan said.

"Hahaha... I only go there for you. If you're not there, I have no reason to be there. I mostly spend my time practicing by myself at home," he said.

"Anyways, you wanted to watch my rematch against Li Jinxi, right? I am about to head to the Li Family. You still coming?" Yuan then asked him.

"Of course! Give me a moment. I am going to see if my elder sister would also like to come," he nodded.

Wang Ming then ran off for a few minutes before returning with his elder sister, Wang Bingbing.

"Let me introduce you. This is Wang Bingbing, my elder sister."

"Hello. It's a pleasure to finally speak with you, Senior Yuan." Wang Bingbing bowed to him in a formal manner.

"You can just call me Yuan," he said.

Once they were prepared, they all made their way to the Li Family.

And to their surprise, Li Jinxi was already standing at the gate and waiting for them.

"Took you long enough! I thought you had forgotten about our rematch!" Li Jinxi said to them with a slight frown on her face.

"Li Jinxi, it's still early in the morning, or did you expect us to show up at sunrise?" Wang Ming shook his head.

"Well, I have been standing here since sunrise!" She said, dumbfounding them.

"You're too eager to fight Yuan again, acting like a child the day before the amusement park." Wang Ming chuckled, as he has never seen Li Jinxi acting in such a manner before.

"I dare you to repeat that." Li Jinxi stared at him with an angry look on her face.

Wang Ming immediately regretted making fun of Li Jinxi and took a step back before speaking with a stiff smile on his face, "I-I was only joking, Senior Sister. Please ignore me."

"Hmph!"

Li Jinxi coldly snorted before turning to look at Yuan.

"Are you ready?"

"Yes. Where are we going to fight?"

"Follow me." Li Jinxi proceeded to lead them to a spacious area a few miles behind her living quarters.

"This place... What happened here?" Yuan was dumbfounded when he saw the destructive scene there.

There were crushed boulders and craters on the ground everywhere, looking like multiple natural disasters had occurred in this place.

"This is my training area, so we don't have to worry about making a mess," she said in a calm voice.

Yuan and the others swallowed nervously as they tried to imagine how Li Jinxi trained to make such a mess.

"Oh. You're finally here. Welcome." A voice suddenly resounded from behind them.

They turned around to see Senior Li approaching them.

"I will be present to oversee the rematch just in case the fight gets out of control," he said.

"Sorry for bothering you," Yuan said.

"Hahaha... This is no bother at all." Senior Li casually waved his hand at all.

Sometime later, Li Jinxi handed Yuan a greatsword while wielding one herself.

"Before you start, let's make a few rules. Li Jinxi, you are not allowed to use your berserk technique. As for Daoist Yuan..."

"Don't worry, I won't use that golden aura. Although I cannot control it, I will immediately stop fighting when it happens," he said.

"Alright." Senior Li nodded.

Once they were prepared, Yuan and Li Jinxi began their rematch, and the place quickly became filled with loud noises from their swords colliding with each other.

"Hahaha! This is it! I haven't had a wink of sleep ever since our fight, Yuan!" Li Jinxi laughed as she swung with all of her might.

Bang!

The air shook as Yuan blocked the attack head-on.

"I have also been looking forward to this rematch. Let's do our best!"

Clang! Bang! Clang!

"Heavens... Is it just me or are they even fiercer than they were during the competition?" Wang Ming asked the others in a low voice.

"Now that they are aware of each others' strength, there is no longer any reason for them to hold back against each other..." Senior Li responded with a smile on his face as he looked at the joyous expression on Li Jinxi's face as she fought Yuan.

Chapter 576 - You Can Open Your Eyes

"Haaa!"

Bang!

The ground shook as Li Jinxi struck the ground with her greatsword, creating a large crack in the earth, but she immediately pulled it back out to defend against Yuan's attack.

Dong!

Li Jinxi was sent flying for a few meters before stabilizing herself.

Once she stabilized herself, she immediately rushed at Yuan again.

"How long are they going to keep this up? It's already been three hours since they started fighting." Wang Ming suddenly muttered.

"I think the better question is how much stamina do they have to continuously go at each other in such an aggressive fashion for so long without any breaks. I would have collapsed from exhaustion long ago." Wang Bingbing said.

"Ridiculous strength requires a ridiculous amount of stamina to back up that strength, so it's not unnatural for them to have so much stamina." Senior Li said.

"It's no wonder why she wasn't satisfied after the competition when their match only lasted for a couple of minutes." Wang Ming said.

After fighting for another two hours, Yuan dropped his sword and said, "S-Stop! I-I give up! I am too exhausted to continue!"

He then collapsed onto the ground in a similar manner and began gasping for air.

Li Jinxi stopped moving and stood there with her entire body covered in sweat, looking like someone had poured a few buckets of water on her body recently.

She then stabbed her sword into the ground before falling onto her buttocks.

"Wow... Yuan actually lost to Li Jinxi?" Wang Ming mumbled in a dazed voice.

Besides Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang, nobody there was aware that Yuan had only started moving his body recently after spending many years on the bed as a cripple who couldn't move even a finger. It was already a miracle that he lasted this long.

Meanwhile, Li Jinxi has been training her body ever since she was young, and coupled with her unique physique, it was only natural for her to beat Yuan when it came to endurance.

However, neither of them cared about the result of their rematch, as they were already more than satisfied from the fight itself.

As for Li Jinxi, she only wanted the rematch because she wanted to fight with Yuan, not because she wanted to win.

"Are you both okay?" Senior Li approached them a few moments later.

"Yes... Just... give me... a few... minutes..." Yuan struggled to speak due to exhaustion.

"Take all the time you need, Daoist Yuan." Senior Li chuckled.

In the end, it took Yuan almost half an hour to recover enough energy to stand up again. As for Li Jinxi, it only took her half the time.

"I have never been this exhausted before. You're really a good opponent."
Yuan said to Li Jinxi afterward.

"Likewise, you're the only one who can push me this far." Li Jinxi said.

"If you don't mind me asking, do you temper your body for training?" Yuan suddenly asked her.

"Yes, I do."

"Does that involve bathing in treasures with spiritual energy?"

"It does, but we mostly use herbs and medicine since actual treasures are too rare."

"So treasures really exist in this world..." Yuan mumbled in a low voice.

"Haha... Of course, they exist, Daoist Yuan. If you'd like, I can show you a few later." Senior Li said to him.

"Really?"

"Yes, but I must warn you beforehand that they're not as impressive as the treasures you find in Cultivation Online."

"That's perfectly fine."

Sometime later, they returned to the Li Family's living quarters.

"Daoist Yuan, you can use our bathroom to clean yourself. I will give you some temporary clothes for today." Senior Li said to him.

"Thank you." He nodded.

After Li Jinxi showed him the bathroom, Yuan removed his sweat-soaked clothes and quickly washed his body before entering the large bathtub to relax in the warm water that had been prepared beforehand.

"Ahhh... This feels great, especially after such an intensive workout." Yuan released a deep sigh as he sunk his body deeper into the water

Suddenly, the door to the bathroom opened, and a figure casually walked inside.

Yuan immediately panicked, as he'd removed his mask before entering the bathtub since he didn't expect any visitors.

"W-Who's there?!" He shouted as he turned his back to the door so that they wouldn't be able to see his face.

"Hm? It's just me." Li Jinxi's voice casually responded.

"L-Li Jinxi?"

Yuan quickly used his divine sense, and sure enough, Li Jinxi was the intruder, and she appeared to be completely naked.

"W-What are you doing in here?"

"What else? I was also soaked in sweat after our fight, so I came here to wash myself." Li Jinxi rinsed her body as she spoke.

Yuan was speechless. She couldn't wait until he was done? And surely, they must have another bathroom within these large living quarters, so why did she purposefully pick the one that was already occupied?

After rinsing her body, she began washing her body with soap that gave off a sweet fragrance.

Unbeknownst to Yuan, this bathroom was Li Jinxi's personal bathroom, so nobody uses it besides Li Jinxi herself.

Furthermore, Li Jinxi wasn't the type to be shy, nor does she care about others seeing her body, hence why she showed up even though it was clearly occupied.

However, that didn't mean Li Jinxi would be okay with sharing the bathroom with just anyone, as only those she approves of would receive this kind of special treatment, and in the entire Jaded Garden, Yuan was the only man that she approves of.

After washing herself, Li Jinxi approached the bathtub that had more than enough room to fit 10 people, casually submerging herself in the warm water.

She turned to look at Yuan, who was facing her with his back and said in a nonchalant voice, "I don't care about your identity or your background, so you can relax. Even if I see your face, I won't tell anyone."

After a moment of silence, Yuan turned around and showed his face to Li Jinxi.

Seeing his closed eyes, she continued, "You can also open your eyes. I don't mind if you see my body. I have nothing to be ashamed of, anyway."

"Uhh... I cannot open my eyes... because I'm actually blind." Yuan revealed to her.

"What...?"

As expected, Li Jinxi's eyes widened with shock when she heard this information.

"Y-You're blind? H-How is that possible?" Clearly, she was in disbelief.

After all, how can a blind man move around without any support, much less fight with the powerful cultivators?! That didn't make any sense!

Chapter 577 - Sharing The Bathtub

"Y-You can't be blind! You're definitely joking with me!" Li Jinxi said to him after snapping out of her daze, refusing to believe that she'd been fighting with a blind man this entire time.

"I am serious," Yuan said.

He then opened his eyelids with his hands, revealing his blank eyes that lacked any light to her.

Li Jinxi covered her mouth and mumbled, "T-Then how... How are you moving around like you can see? Nobody would believe that you're blind with how you move around and fight!"

"I can use divine sense, allowing me to see things around me, but I can only see a few meters away from me. However, despite the limited range, I can see things clearer than others," he said.

"Divine sense? I think I have heard of that before in Cultivation Online. To think you can use such a technique in this world as well... You're really something else."

'If word gets out that Yuan is actually blind... Who knows how they will react...' Li Jinxi thought to herself.

After a moment of silence, Li Jinxi spoke, "Hey, you're interested in body-tempering, right? Do you want to try it?"

"Huh?"

"I'm asking if you want to try tempering your body. I always have some medicine and herbs prepared. We can do it right now if you wish."

"R-Right now?"

"Yes. Give me a moment." Li Jinxi then got out of the bathtub and walked to the cabinet located at the corner of the room, retrieving a handful of medicines.

She then returned to the bathtub and tossed all of the medicine in the water.

Once the medicine was floating on the water, Li Jinxi went to press a switch that was at the side of the bathtub.

"The water will get a little hot in a minute. If you cannot endure it, let me know," she said to him as she climbed back into the bathtub.

"Once your body starts to feel a little tingly, start cultivating and absorb the medicine. It's going to be a little painful if this is your first time tempering your body."

"Okay." Yuan nodded.

A minute later, when the water reached almost boiling point, the clear water began turning green, and Yuan could feel a slight tingling sensation all over his body.

He immediately started cultivating and absorbing the medicine in the bathtub, as did Li Jinxi.

'This isn't that bad... In fact, the pain is nothing compared to the bath Feng Feng prepared for me...' Yuan thought to himself.

After all, the treasures that Feng Yuxiang had used for his bath were countless times more valuable than the medicine that Li Jinxi used.

"How are you feeling?" Li Jinxi asked him a few minutes later.

"It's manageable," he calmly replied.

"Good. The medicine should last us about half an hour since there are two of us absorbing the medicine."

The next thirty minutes inside the bathroom was completely silent as Yuan and Li Jinxi tempered their bodies in the same bathtub.

Thirty minutes later, Li Jinxi stood up with her pale skin slightly rosy and said, "The medicine is gone, but if you want to temper yourself more, you can simply put more medicine into the bathtub. I will leave first."

"I will also leave." Yuan left the bathroom shortly after Li Jinxi left, changing into the Li Family's clothes that had been provided to him.

"What do you think?" Li Jinxi asked him afterward.

"I don't know... My body doesn't feel any different once I left the bathtub," he said.

"Obviously. You've only tempered your body for a few minutes. If you want to see some real results, you will need to do that for at least a few hours every day. I'm asking how you feel about tempering your body."

"I would do it every day, but acquiring the medicine to do that is a different story. I don't even know where to obtain the medicine," he sighed.

"If you're worried about not having enough resources, you can speak with the Hong Family. They're the ones who provide us with our medicine. They should also have the solution to your problem." Li Jinxi said to him.

"Okay. I will visit them when I have the chance."

They reunited with the others a few minutes later.

"Where did you go? It's been almost an hour since you went to clean yourself!" Senior Li asked Li Jinxi.

"Yuan seemed interested in tempering his body, so I showed him how to do it, and we ended up tempering our body together." Li Jinxi responded in a casual manner.

"Huh?" Senior Li raised his eyebrows at his granddaughter.

"Y-You what?" Wang Ming looked at them with her eyes wide open.

"D-Does this mean you shared the same bathtub?" He proceeded to ask them.

"Yes, we did." Li Jinxi responded in a nonchalant manner.

The room immediately turned dead silent with everyone there too speechless to respond.

As for Meixiu, although she was surprised to learn that Yuan had shared a bathtub with Li Jinxi, she wasn't worried that they might have done something naughty, as Yuan wasn't the type to do something like that, nor does he have the knowledge to do so.

'Sharing the same bathtub... Even I haven't done that with Brother Yuan!' Chu Liuxiang cried inwardly.

"A-Anyways... What are your plans now, Daoist Yuan? We still have a few hours before it gets dark outside. Do you want to look at the treasures now?" Senior Li asked after snapping out of his daze, trying to change the topic to something else.

Yuan nodded and said, "Of course, and I'd like to visit the Hong Family after looking at the treasures."

"The Hong Family? May I ask what business you have with them? Perhaps I can help you."

"It's about getting medicine to temper my body... Although I would like to start tempering my body, I don't know where to acquire the medicine to do so, and Li Jinxi told me to visit the Hong Family," he explained.

Chapter 578 - Real Treasures

"Medicine, huh? I understand. If that's the case, there isn't anything my Li Family can do for you, as the Hong Family handles most of the medicine in the Jaded Garden." Senior Li said.

"Wow, they must have a lot of medicine if they supply the entire faction..." Yuan said in a surprised voice.

"Haha... After all, they are the ones that require the most medicine because of people like Hong Xiuquan, who tempers his body around the clock almost daily." Senior Li laughed.

"Anyways, follow me. I will show you some of our Li Family's treasures." Senior Li then led Yuan and every one to another room.

"Please wait for a minute while I retrieve the treasures." Senior Li said before leaving them alone in the room.

Even if Senior Li trusted Yuan and greatly valued his presence, there was no way that he'd bring someone that isn't part of their family to their storage area where they keep all of their treasures.

Yuan patiently waited for Senior Li's return, his anticipation high.

About fifteen minutes later, Senior Li returned with three boxes in his grasp.

He placed them on the table before Yuan and the others.

"This is the first treasure."

Senior Li opened the first box, revealing a somewhat dried-up ginseng inside.

"This is... a treasure?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"Don't let its appearance fool you, Daoist Yuan. Try looking deeper." Senior Li said with a profound smile on his face.

Yuan proceeded to analyze the ginseng with his divine sense, and to his surprise, there was a large amount of spiritual energy within the ginseng.

"This is a 1,000-year-old ginseng. And yes, just like its name implies, it's a thousand years old." Senior Li said.

"The only reason it hasn't rotted after so long is because of the spiritual energy within. If we wait another 500 years, it will become a 1,500-year-old ginseng, but that will be its limit. If we keep it for any longer, it will become useless, so we have to use it before then."

"How come it has spiritual energy? How did it grow?" Yuan asked.

"All living things in this world—including animals and plants—have the ability to absorb spiritual energy. This means even the meat and vegetable that you eat contain spiritual energy, but the amount is insanely low—too low to affect anyone, so you cannot become a cultivator no matter how much vegetables or meat you eat."

"The reason is simply that they require a ridiculously amount of time to absorb enough spiritual energy to be qualified as a treasure, and they are usually killed or plucked before they absorb enough spiritual energy."

"Furthermore, just like how humans are not born with equal talents, plants also have their own limit, so it doesn't mean they can become treasures if given enough time."

"Wow... I never knew this..." Yuan mumbled in a dazed voice.

A few moments later, Senior Li opened the second box, revealing a piece of jade slip inside.

"This jade slip also contains spiritual energy? I thought only living things can absorb spiritual energy." Yuan quickly asked.

"Yes, but inanimate objects can also gather spiritual energy. Let me ask you this... What exactly is spiritual energy?" Senior Li suddenly asked him.

"No clue..." Yuan shook his head.

"Spiritual energy is essentially a type of oxygen that you cannot absorb normally, and they grant you more benefit than oxygen if you know how to absorb them. Just like air, they flow through the world, touching everything it passes through."

"Although rare, spiritual energy can sometimes gather inside an object and stay there. Eventually, enough spiritual energy will gather inside the object, turning it into a treasure, just like this jade slip."

"Just like that?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"Yes, just like that. However, they require much more time to become a treasure. Unlike plants that usually take a few hundred years to become treasures, inanimate objects require thousands of years if not tens of thousands of years before they can turn into treasures. This is why most inanimate treasures come from ancient times in the form of antiques and why they're valued more than medicine."

"..."

Yuan was speechless. He didn't think that this world would be so profound and mysterious.

After giving Yuan some time to digest the information, Senior Li opened the third box, which was also the biggest.

"This is... a dagger?" Yuan muttered in a surprised voice when he saw the weapon.

Then he said, "But I don't sense any spiritual energy from this dagger. How can it be considered a treasure?"

"Because it's not the spiritual energy that makes this dagger a treasure. Go ahead. Try picking it up." Senior Li urged him.

Yuan nodded and picked up the dagger, and to his surprise, he could feel some sort of energy entering his body, making him feel more confident and powerful.

"Wow, what is this feeling?"

"It's the dagger's aura that you're feeling, Daoist Yuan."

"Aura?"

Senior Li nodded and retrieved an ordinary dagger before handing it to him.

"Go ahead. Try holding this."

Yuan accepted the dagger, but he couldn't feel anything from the dagger.

"That is the difference between an ordinary weapon and a treasure— it's aura, which can make its wielder more powerful."

"As for how they come into existence... I'm sorry, but even I don't know." Senior Li shrugged.

"People speculate that they gather spiritual energy just like inanimate objects, but they somehow can turn that spiritual energy into a unique aura, turning it into a treasure weapon. Honestly, we might never know the truth."

Yuan looked at the dagger with the aura in his grasp.

'Now that I think about it, the weapons in Cultivation Online also give off this feeling. Whenever I wield a weapon, it would boost my confidence. Perhaps an expert in that world might be able to explain this phenomenon.' Yuan thought to himself.

"Thank you for showing me these treasures as well for the lesson. It was very informative and an eye-opener." Yuan said as he placed the dagger back inside the box.

"It was an honor..." Senior Li smiled.

Chapter 579 - Harvesting Medicine

"By the way, I forgot to ask, but how do you use the treasures?" Yuan asked Senior Li after he returned from putting away the treasures.

"Well, you can consume the ginseng or use it to make medicine. As for the jade slip, you simply absorb the spiritual energy within," he said.

"I see..."

Sometime later, Yuan and the others left the Li Family's living quarters.

"Li Jinxi, show them the way to the Hong Family. We also need to restock our medicine." Senior Li said to her.

"I understand."

Thus, Li Jinxi led them to the Hong Family.

"Hm? Daoist Yuan? What brings you to the Hong Family?" Senior Hong asked him, feeling pleasantly surprised by his presence.

"Hello. I'd like to temper my body, but I don't know where to get the medicine required for it, and the Li Family recommended that I speak with your family." Yuan said.

"I see. You came at the perfect time. Our family is currently harvesting this month's medicine supply," Senior Hong said.

"Harvesting?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

"So you grow your own medicine?"

"Yes. Follow me."

Senior Hong then led Yuan and the others to a few miles behind their living quarters, where a large medicine farm was located.

"Wow..." Yuan mumbled, feeling awed from the medicine farm that stretched to the horizon.

"Every month, we harvest around 100 kilos of medicine from this place." Senior Hong said.

"How does it work? Farming medicine, that is." Yuan asked.

"It's quite simple, actually. We pour a special liquid into the soil and wait until it grows."

"A special liquid?"

"Yes. The liquid is a mixture of other medicine, but that's not even the most important part. In order to grow these medicine, we need a special kind of soil that can only be found in areas with a dense amount of spiritual energy. Without the soil, the medicine will die before they are ready for harvest."

"Would you like to try planting some? After harvesting, we obviously need to plant more." Senior Hong suddenly asked him.

"Of course!" Yuan eagerly nodded.

After watching the medicine being harvested for a couple of minutes, Yuan asked, "Do we need to do anything special when we harvest them?"

"No. You simply cut the leaves off the stem before pulling out the stem so that we can plant more."

"Here, let me show you."

Senior Hong then harvested a few medicines before Yuan and the others.

"Want to give it a try?" He then handed Yuan a pair of scissors.

"Yes."

Yuan accepted the scissor and began harvesting the medicine.

"You're right. It's very easy."

About an hour later, when the harvesting was completed, Senior Hong handed Yuan a bottle of green liquid and said to him, "Watch me."

He then used his own bottle and dripped a single drop of its liquid onto the soil before him.

"That's all you need to do. Try it yourself."

Yuan followed his movements and dropped a single drop of the green liquid onto the soil.

"Now you just wait for them to grow. It takes about three months for the medicine to be ready for harvest. You'll know when they are ready when they have a dark green color."

Once Yuan was satisfied with the information, they returned to the Hong Family's living quarters.

"What do you think?" Senior Hong asked him afterward.

"Well... Even though the process is easy, it won't be possible for me to grow them. Not only do I not have the liquid required to grow them, but I also don't have the soil."

"If you join our family, you can have all the medicine you want to temper your body every day." Senior Hong said with a smile on his face.

Yuan chuckled and said, "Thank you for the offer, but I am still not sure if I want to stay in the faction."

"Is there something preventing you from joining us? Or are we simply not good enough for you?" Senior Hong asked him.

"It's neither of that. I am just having other thoughts. Recently, I have been thinking about creating my own faction," he explained.

"Your own... faction?" Senior Hong looked at him with wide eyes.

If someone like Yuan creates a faction, one can only imagine how powerful it will become in the future.

Meanwhile, Chu Liuxiang looked at Yuan with a joyous gaze.

"Although the Spiritual Elites are great, I want something that feels more personal— something I can call home, and creating my own faction is the only thing I can think of."

Senior Hong nodded and said, "If you actually decide to create your own faction, don't forget about us. We can start an alliance with each other."

"Alliance, huh? I will definitely ask you when it happens." Yuan nodded.

After talking for a little longer, Yuan and the others prepared to leave the place.

"Wait a moment, Daoist Yuan." Senior Hong handed him a basket filled with medicine before he left.

"This should last you a few weeks even if you temper your body every day."

"Thank you, Senior Hong." Yuan happily accepted the medicine.

"And this is for your family." Senior Hong handed Li Jinxi a basket of medicine next.

"Thank you, Elder Hong."

After leaving the Hong Family, Yuan parted ways with the Wang Family and Li Jinxi.

"Yuan, when are you going to return to the training building? I have been itching to fight you." Wang Ming said to him before they left.

"I can try showing up tomorrow," he said.

"Great! Then I will see you tomorrow!"

"I will also be there." Li Jinxi said before leaving.

Yuan and the others returned to the immortal caves shortly after.

"So you're really thinking about creating your own faction?" Chu Liuxiang asked him.

"Yes. I have been thinking about what you told me, and I think that creating my own faction will be the best choice for someone like me."

"Great! When do you plan on creating your faction?"

Yuan pondered for a moment before speaking, "I want to stay here for another week or two... After that, I will make my own faction."

Chapter 580 - Sneaking Inside The Bathroom

After resting for a bit inside the immortal caves, Yuan and the others went to get dinner.

Once dinner was finished, Yuan went to take a bath, and he decided to try tempering his body with the medicine he'd received from the Hong Family.

However, during his tempering, someone opened the door and entered the bathroom.

Knowing that it wasn't a stranger, Yuan didn't panic this time.

However, he was still surprised to see Chu Liuxiang entering the bathroom with nothing but a towel around her body.

"Can I take a bath with you, Brother Yuan?" She asked him.

"I don't really mind, but the water is—" He said.

Before Yuan could even finish his sentence, Chu Liuxiang removed her towel and tossed it to the side before joining the bathtub with him.

Of course, the bathtub in the immortal caves wasn't anywhere close to the size of the one in Li Jinxi's bathroom, so it was a little cramped in the bathtub with Chu Liuxiang's smooth skin rubbing against Yuan's body.

Once the both of them were comfortable, they would sit there in awkward silence.

"We should do this more often." Chu Liuxiang suddenly said.

"I wouldn't mind that if we had a bigger bathtub..." Yuan chuckled.

After another moment of silence, Chu Liuxiang asked, "Brother Yuan, have you ever considered starting your own family?"

"No... I can't say that I have. Why? Do you wish to start a family?"

"Yes, I do." Chu Liuxiang nodded her head with a gentle smile on her face.

She then turned to look at him and continued with a serious expression, "I want to start a family with you, Brother Yuan."

"W-With me...?" Yuan's jaw dropped upon hearing her words.

"You don't want to?" Chu Liuxiang mumbled in a low voice.

"T-That's not it... I just... I don't think I am ready for a family now..."

"It's okay, Brother Yuan. We have plenty of time. You don't need to give me an official answer now. I just wanted you to know my feelings. That's all."

Seeing Yuan's dazed look, Chu Liuxiang suddenly approached his face and kissed him on the lips.

The kiss lasted for only a second before Chu Liuxiang moved back. She then got out of the bathtub and left the bathroom with a slightly rosy face.

Meanwhile, outside the bathroom, Meixiu noticed Chu Liuxiang, who had suddenly disappeared, coming out of the bathroom.

"Y-You were inside the bathroom this entire time? But Yuan is..."

Chu Liuxiang, who had snuck inside the bathroom while Meixiu wasn't looking, smiled and said, "I didn't want to be left out, so I went to take a quick bath with Brother Yuan."

"Unbelievable..." Meixiu was speechless.

"I hope you didn't do anything weird to him..."

Chu Liuxiang chuckled at Meixiu's question.

Inside the bathroom, Yuan laid in the bathtub with a weird feeling in his body, as it was feeling hotter than usual, and even his heart was beating faster.

He could also feel a certain area between his legs becoming stiff.

"Starting a family, huh..." He mumbled in a pondering voice.

About ten minutes later, Yuan also left the bathroom.

When it was time to sleep, Chu Liuxiang snuggled close to Yuan— much closer than usual, which made Yuan more conscious of her.

After falling asleep with difficulty, Yuan encountered the handsome man again.

"Hey, I have a question for you."

"What?"

"Did you... Did I have my own family in the past?"

The handsome man raised his eyebrows, and he said, "As in a wife and children? What do you think?"

"I don't know, that's why I am asking you."

A profound smile appeared on the handsome man's face, and he snapped his fingers, changing the scenery to inside a bedroom.

Yuan looked at the bed, where two figures laid— the handsome man and a naked woman whose face he cannot see because she had her back facing him.

"*email protected#^, I want to start a family with you." The woman suddenly said in a low and nervous voice.

"You should know that's not possible with my situation..." The handsome man sighed.

"Even if you won't be there for us in the future, I want your child. Or am I not worthy to bear your child?"

"It's not about being worthy. I have a lot of enemies, and they will only continue to increase as I chase after my dream. If they know that I have a child... They will target you even when I am gone. I don't want you nor our child to bear such a burden."

The woman snorted, "Burden? I already have plenty of burden as your Dao Companion. A few more won't matter to me. If you don't want to start a family with me, just say so. There's no need to make any excuses."

"I'm sorry..." The handsome man said.

"Hmph! I finally understand why all of your previous girlfriends left you!" The woman got out of the bed and began wearing her clothes in a rushed manner.

"Goodbye!" The woman left the scene in a red face, slamming the door behind her.

"Haaa... There goes another one..." The handsome man sighed after she left.

"Why do I continue getting Dao Companions when this kind of situation keeps on repeating itself? Am I hoping to find someone that is willing to wait for me until I achieve my dreams? As if there are any women out there willing to wait that long..."

Yuan was brought back to the mountain peak after that short flashback.

"So you refused to start a family? Because you are afraid of burdening them? I thought you were strong— strong enough to protect them." Yuan said to him.

"You know nothing, kid. Nobody is born at the peak— not even the ultimate genius. Despite where I ended, I wasn't always strong."

"Furthermore, I was too dedicated to cultivation, so even if I started a family, I wouldn't have any time for them. There's no point..." The handsome man shook his head.

Chapter 581 - Plain Zither

"Mmmm..." A gentle moan resounded beside him when Yuan awoke from his sleep, and to his surprise, his hands were grasping onto Chu Liuxiang's soft breasts.

He quickly removed his hands, but as he prepared to apologize, he realized that Chu Liuxiang was deep asleep.

Meanwhile, Meixiu was cultivating beside the bed. Ever since she started cultivating at the immortal caves, she'd gained a level, reaching the second level Spirit Warrior.

Yuan silently left the bedroom and went to check the time. Once again, he'd woke up early.

He then went to the bathroom to wash his face before making his way outside, returning to the spot he'd met Azure.

And to his surprise, there was a figure sitting on the boulder with a zither resting beside her, and she was in the middle of cultivation.

Yuan didn't want to bother her and sat down a few meters away from her, silently admiring Azure's elegant appearance.

"You're here early." Azure suddenly spoke a few minutes later, surprising Yuan.

"I woke up early again," he said.

"What a coincidence. I also woke up earlier than usual today. Maybe it's because I have been eager to play the zither with you," she chuckled gracefully.

"Anyways, since we're both here, why don't we play together now?" she then said.

"Sure... Ah, but I don't have a zither."

"That's fine. Follow me. I have a spare one in my room."

Yuan proceeded to follow Azure back to the immortal caves.

Ding~

Every few steps, Azure would pull a string on her zither, creating a single note that would echo in the place.

"If you're wondering why I am doing this, I am using the sound to guide me. Although I cannot see with my eyes, I can see with my zither."

"How does that work?"

"Although you cannot see it, every time a sound is created, it would create an invisible sound wave that ripples as far as it can travel before it disappears, and when this ripple is blocked by something, it would bounce back. I can hear these ripples clearly, allowing me to visualize my surrounding with sound."

"Wow... That's... Really amazing..." Yuan was left speechless by her talents.

"If it were not for this ability, life would've been much more difficult for me."

A few minutes later, they arrived at the immortal caves.

'So she lived on the opposite side of my immortal cave... I'm surprised that we didn't meet until yesterday.' Yuan thought to himself.

"Welcome to my humble home." Azure welcomed him into her immortal cave.

Yuan looked around with his divine sense. The place looked very empty compared to his own immortal cave.

Azure went to her room for a few moments before returning with a plain-looking zither in her grasp.

"I know it looks a little boring, but it plays perfectly. Also, I crafted it myself," she said after handing it to him.

"Eh? You made this yourself? That's amazing."

"Well, it's not easy buying a zither since most of them have been destroyed, and nobody is willing to make them due to the curse, so I could only resort to making my own."

"Does this mean the one you've been using was also made by you?" Yuan asked.

"Yes, and I finished it very recently— about a month ago."

"Anyways, now that you have your zither, let's go play the zither."

"Okay."

They returned to the boulder shortly after.

Once they arrived, they sat down beside each other with a zither on their lap.

"Do you want to go first? We'll take turns playing a song, and once we figure out which song we can play together, we'll do a duet." Azure suggested.

"Sure."

After preparing himself, Yuan began playing a song that he'd learned from Fei Yuyan.

A few minutes later, once Yuan ended his song, Azure began clapping with excitement.

"Wow! Where did you learn such a beautiful song?"

"I learned it from a friend that I met inside Cultivation Online," he said.

"Your first performance is already so good. Are you trying to bully me?" Azure sighed.

"Eh? I'm—"

"I am joking with you." Azure chuckled, and she continued, "But since your performance was so good, I will have to try hard to not embarrass myself."

Azure then took a moment to prepare herself.

Once she was ready, she began playing the zither.

Ding~

Yuan silently watched Azure's performance.

'Wow... She's playing much better than she did yesterday. Besides the Zither Goddess, I don't think anyone else could compare to her...' Yuan thought to himself after witnessing Azure's true potential.

Azure finished her song two minutes later.

"What do you think?"

"It was perfect." Yuan smiled.

"Your turn!"

Yuan nodded and proceeded to play another song.

The two of them continued to play the zither even after sunrise.

"Alright, I think we have played enough for today," Azure said after her song.

"See you again tomorrow?" Yuan asked.

"Of course!" Azure eagerly nodded.

And she continued, "Oh, you can keep the zither."

"Really?"

"Yes. I have no use for it, anyway."

"Thank you!"

Yuan returned to the immortal cave shortly after to get breakfast with the others.

After breakfast, they made their way to the training hall, where Yuan would spend the rest of the day sparring with Wang Ming and Li Jinxi.

"Heavens... This is my first time seeing Li Jinxi in the training hall." The disciples there were shocked to see their most talented disciple in the regular training area.

At the end of the day, Yuan and the others returned to the immortal caves.

"Yuan, when we visited Senior Hong the other day, he told me that my bow will be ready tomorrow, so I will be going there to pick it up."

"Okay. I will go with you."

The following morning, Yuan went to meet Azure in the usual spot, and as expected, she was there early again.

After spending a few hours with Azure, Yuan returned to the immortal caves for breakfast before heading to the Hong Family to pick up Meixiu's custom bow.

"Welcome back. Have you used the medicine yet? If you did, how was it?" Senior Hong asked Yuan.

"It was great. Once again, thank you for the medicine." Yuan said.

"That's good. Anyways, follow me. The bow is finished."

A few minutes later, they arrived at the crafting area.

Chapter 582 - Divination

"Give me a moment." Senior Hong went inside the building for a minute before returning with a cart that had a long wooden box resting on it.

"Here's your bow. Check it out."

Senior Hong opened the box, revealing the beautiful black short bow inside.

Meixiu immediately went to pick up the bow, and to her surprise, was it many times heavier than any bow she has wielded before. However, it wasn't heavy enough to where she couldn't use it.

She proceeded to move the bow around trying to get a feel for it.

"What do you think? If the weight isn't right, I can adjust it for you, but I can only make it lighter since that's already the heaviest I can make it."

"The weight is perfectly fine. Thank you for this bow." Meixiu bowed to him in a respectful manner.

"Haha... Don't even mention it. You deserve it. Go ahead, try shooting with it." Senior Hong handed her an arrow.

Meixiu took the arrow and proceeded to shoot it at a nearby tree.

'Even the string feels so different. It's more durable, and pulling back on it gives me confidence for some reason.' Meixiu thought to herself.

Whoosh!

Meixiu released the string once she got her aim, and the arrow flew in a straight line until it hit her desired location.

"Your bow is very heavy compared to ordinary bows, so it can handle special arrows like this one." Senior Hong retrieved another arrow.

This time, it was a black arrow that seemed to be made purely out of metal, and the arrow itself weighed a couple of kilos.

Meixiu used this arrow to shoot the same tree.

Whoosh!

The arrow flew straight at the tree, hitting the first arrow she shot before tearing a hole in the tree.

"It went through the tree..." Yuan mumbled in a dazed voice.

However, despite its ridiculous power, Meixiu wasn't that excited. After all, it wasn't like she could use the special arrow for other things besides showing off.

If she had this bow in Cultivation Online, where she could use the special arrow to fight magical beasts, that would be an entirely different story.

"If you're satisfied with the bow, it's yours. I am supposed to have an urgent meeting with the other grand elders and family heads, so I won't stay here any longer." Senior Hong said to her later.

"An urgent meeting? I hope it's nothing bad." Yuan said.

"Well... Do you remember the calamity that our ancestors had predicted? Apparently, there are signs of it appearing soon," Senior Hong explained.

"Calamity? What's going to happen?"

Senior Hong shook his head and said, "Nobody knows. But if you want to participate in this meeting, you can follow me. If the calamity truly exists, we can definitely use your help."

"I will come." Yuan nodded, as he was interested in this calamity.

'I wonder if this has anything to do with the tribulation...' Yuan wondered inwardly as he followed Senior Hong to another location.

About half an hour later, they arrived at this large building.

When they entered the building, Senior Hong led Yuan and the others into this spacious room where the other grand elders and family heads were already present.

"Daoist Yuan? You're also going to participate in this meeting?" Senior Wang and the others were pleasantly surprised by his presence.

"Yes. I would like to know more about this calamity. Hopefully, there is something I can do to help."

"Thank you. Words cannot express how grateful I am to hear such words." Senior Wang nodded.

Once everyone was seated, Senior Wang spoke, "Since Daoist Yuan is new to the subject, let's start from the beginning."

She then retrieved an old-looking scroll and placed it on the round table.

"This was left behind by our ancestors. It's a divination that predicts a calamity when the whole world starts to cultivate. Take a look at it."

Yuan took the scroll and read it in a low voice.

"When the world begins to cultivate, it will experience a tribulation that will dye the entire world red. When the crystal turns yellow, the tribulation is near. Once the crystal turns red, the tribulation will begin."

"Crystal? What crystal?" Yuan asked afterward.

"Take a look at this." Senior Wang then placed a wooden box on the table before opening it, showing Yuan the fist-sized crystal resting inside.

The crystal was semi-transparent, and it was yellow. However, that wasn't what Yuan was focused on, as there appeared to be a hint of red in the middle of the crystal.

"This crystal had remained clear for thousands of years, but around the time Cultivation Online was introduced, the crystal began turning yellow. And just two days ago, the center of the crystal turned red." Senior Wang explained.

"What kind of crystal is this?" Yuan asked.

"We're not sure either. We had it looked at by experts, and everyone said it's unlike anything else in this world. It's a one-of-a-kind treasure."

Senior Li then said, "To be completely honest with you, none of us here believed in the calamity until the crystal changed colors, not to mention the perfect timing. I hope it's only a coincidence, but that would be one hell of a coincidence."

"If we don't know what's coming, how can we prepare for it?" Yuan then asked.

"Unfortunately, there isn't anything we can really do besides being alert. That's why we created this faction and began recruiting disciples." Senior Wang shook her head.

"With that being said, we have gathered here today to see if anyone has any suggestions or solutions."

And for rest of the day, Yuan would stay with the Six Spiritual Families to see if there was anything they can do.

However, nobody had a good solution in the end, and despite many speculations about the tribulation, they won't really know until it happens.

"Dying the entire world red... That sounds horrible..." Yuan sighed as they returned to the immortal caves.

Chapter 583 - Stay With Me!

"Brother Yuan, do you think the divination is true? Or is this merely a coincidence?" Chu Liuxiang asked him when they returned.

"I want to believe it's merely a coincidence, but..." A bittersweet smile appeared on his face when he recalled what the handsome man in his dream told him.

"I don't know. I just have a bad feeling about the situation."

Chu Liuxiang shrugged and said, "Well, even if there is a calamity, I'm sure you'll protect us, Brother Yuan."

Yuan smiled and said, "Of course. That is my number one priority."

The following day, Yuan woke up early in the morning again.

"You've been waking up early lately, Yuan." Meixiu suddenly stopped cultivating and said to him.

"I'm meeting up with a friend that I made recently," he said.

"The one who gave you the zither?"

"Yes."

"I see... Have fun."

Meixiu returned to cultivating the next moment.

After cleaning his face, Yuan grabbed his zither and went to meet up with Azure behind the immortal caves.

"Have you heard about the approaching calamity?" Yuan suddenly asked Azure at the end of their session.

"Yes, it's always a hot topic within the family, especially as of recently. Did something happen?"

"Well, the crystal is beginning to turn red, which means the calamity is near... really near."

"Red? That's not good... I hope it's nothing too bad and that it goes away quickly."

"Don't worry, if anything happens, I will do something about it."

Azure chuckled and said, "You sound very confident. It's called a calamity for a reason. If a single person can end it, that would make everyone feel silly for worrying so much about it."

"But since you said that, I will rely on you to protect me when it happens, okay? I am not very strong when it comes to fighting. In fact, you can even call me a weakling."

"Of course. You're my friend. I will do my best to protect you and everyone else— that's why I am trying to become stronger— so that I can protect those dear to me."

"Then it's a promise, Yuan. If anything happens to me, I will haunt you for the rest of your life." Azure spoke in a joking tone.

"I deserve it if that's the case." Yuan laughed.

Sometime later, Yuan said his goodbyes to Azure before going to the training hall with the others, where he would spend the rest of the day training with Wang Ming and the others.

This routine would continue for the next four days, and during this time, Yuan would grow more friendly with Azure, even spending more time with her.

Whenever he was with Azure, his mind would feel at ease, almost like she had this magical aura around her.

"Hey, Yuan," Azure suddenly spoke as she laid on the soft ground beside him.

"What is it?"

"Do you have a girlfriend?"

"A girlfriend... as in a partner? I do not," he calmly responded.

"Then... do you want me to become your girlfriend?"

"Eh?"

Yuan subconsciously turned to look at her with his eyebrows raised.

"I know we haven't known each other for long, but I haven't had this much fun in a long time, nor do I have any friends who can connect with me like you do. We also have a lot of things in common. If you ask me, I wouldn't mind spending the rest of my life with someone like you."

"This is... too sudden. And I won't be staying in the Jaded Garden forever."

"Eh? You're going to leave? When? Why?" Azure sat up in a surprised manner.

"I only came here to learn more about the cultivation world, but I somehow ended up as a trial disciple for the faction. I had planned on staying here for a week to experience life as a disciple inside a faction, and once again, I ended up staying longer than intended."

"I have already decided on making my own faction, and I will be doing that once I leave this place in a few days."

"You're going to be leaving in a few days?! That's too sudden! There are still so many songs we can play together! I want to spend more time with you, Yuan!" Azure said in a dispirited voice.

"I also want to spend more time with you, Azure, but I am afraid that if I stay here any longer, I will no longer be able to leave..." Yuan sighed.

"Then don't leave! Stay with me! I love you, Yuan!"

Yuan was left speechless by Azure's sudden confession, and he recalled how he would have many partners in his past life, but none of them sailed smoothly— at least according to his recent dreams.

"Or is it because you don't really like me? If that's the case..."

"What? That's not it! I like you, I really do, but—"

However, before Yuan could finish his sentence, the ground suddenly began shaking.

It started out as a minor earthquake, but it would grow stronger with every moment until it became a full-fledged earthquake.

"W-What's going on?!"

Yuan had a really bad feeling about this sudden earthquake, and the calamity was the first thing that appeared inside his mind.

"Let's finish our conversation later, Azure," Yuan said to her.

However, as though she couldn't even feel the earthquake, Azure spoke, "Yuan... I love you, I really do."

After saying such words, Azure turned around and ran back to her immortal cave, even leaving behind her zither.

Once Azure left the scene, Yuan also returned to his immortal cave, taking with him Azure's zither.

When he returned to his immortal cave, he found Meixiu and the others standing outside the immortal caves, silently looking towards the sky with dazed faces.

"Are you guys okay?!" Yuan asked them.

"Y-Yes... But the sky..." Meixiu mumbled.

"The sky? What happened to the sky?" Yuan asked, as he wasn't able to see the sky with his divine sense.

"The sky is red, Young Master Yuan," Sebastian responded in a serious voice.

"What? Red? How is that possible?" Yuan exclaimed.

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 584 - Crimson Sky

"I have never seen anything like this before." Sebastian continued speaking, "Although there were times when the sky looked red, it never looked this red, like the sky is stained with blood."

"Brother Yuan... Do you think this is caused by the calamity?" Chu Liuxiang asked him in a worried voice.

"I don't know, but it's very possible. Let's hurry and find the grand elders." Yuan suggested.

Thus, they began running to the Wang Family's living quarters since they were the closest to the immortal caves.

On their way there, they passed through many disciples, and all of them were staring at the sky with dazed looks on their faces.

"Heavens... It's almost like doomsday is upon us..." One of them muttered out loud.

"This must be the calamity our ancestors warned us about! The calamity is coming!"

"Ahhhh! I don't want to die! At least wait until I find a cute girlfriend!"

Everyone in the Jaded Garden appeared to be panicking, but nobody blamed them.

In fact, it was a chaotic scene everywhere around the world at this moment.

Right as Yuan and the others arrived at the Wang Family, they noticed Senior Wang and the Wang Siblings leaving the gates.

"Senior Wang!" Yuan called out to her.

"Daoist Yuan! Perfect timing! Come with me!" Senior Wang said to him.

"Are we going to meet with the others?" Yuan asked her as they moved.

"Yes. Everyone is already aware of the situation."

Senior Wang then led Yuan and the others to where they had a meeting about the calamity just a few days ago.

As for the audience, it was much larger this time with other people such as Li Jinxi and Shi Lang being present.

"Elder Wang! What's the situation with the crystal?!" Senior Hong asked her the moment they arrived.

"I don't know yet. I haven't had the time to look at it, but we'll all know the answer soon."

Senior Wang then retrieved the box that contained the crystal, and she placed it on the table before opening it for everyone there to see.

"T-That's..."

The people there immediately frowned the next moment when they saw that the color of the crystal had turned completely red.

"When did this happen?" Senior Li asked.

"We have been checking the crystal daily every since it turned yellow, but it wasn't like this yesterday, so I can only assume that it'd turned red very recently." Senior Wang said.

"Sh*t... Not only is the crystal red, but even the sky had turned red!" Someone there cursed.

"Do we know if there are any changes in the world besides the sky changing colors?" Senior Shi asked.

"I have been looking at the news since I woke up, but only the red sky is being reported on. Even now, there is no other news." Senior Xi said.

"Fuck! This is so frustrating! The calamity is almost here if not already here, yet we still don't know anything about it! How can we possibly deal with a situation like this?" The head of the Wang Family cursed out loud.

"For all we know, the calamity could happen on the other side of the world." The head of the Shi Family sighed.

"Somebody bring all of the ancient scrolls over here! We're going to search through all of them and see if there are any clues that we had missed!" Senior Hong suddenly said.

About an hour later, the empty table became filled with ancient scrolls that had been passed down by their ancestors, and they began reading through the scrolls, hoping to find even a single clue about the calamity.

However, after spending half of the day reading through all of the scrolls, they were unable to find any new information.

"It's no use. We will have to wait for the calamity to actually start before we can even start preparing for it." Senior Wang placed the scroll in her hands down before sighing.

"Is there really nothing we can do but wait? What if it's too late by then?" Wang Ming sighed out loud.

"Then do you have any suggestion?" Li Jinxi said to him.

"I don't..." He lowered his head.

Eventually, the gathering was dismissed.

"There is nothing we can do but remain alert. If there is any news regarding the calamity, let one of the grand elders or family head know about it immediately." Senior Wang said to them before dismissing everyone.

Yuan and the others returned to the immortal caves shortly after.

When they returned home, Meixiu received a call from Yu Rou.

"Meixiu! Are you guys okay?!" Yu Rou's worried voice resounded the moment she picked up the phone.

"Yes, we're fine. What about you?" Meixiu said.

"We're also fine, but the red sky is scaring all of us. I cannot help but feel like something bad is about to happen."

"Well..." Meixiu proceeded to give Yu Rou a brief explanation about the situation and the potential calamity that is coming.

"What? A calamity? What's going to happen?" Yu Rou asked, sounding more worried than before she heard the information, and rightfully so.

"Unfortunately, that's all we know. As for the calamity, we won't know until it happens." Meixiu said.

"I really hope it's nothing too bad." Yu Rou sighed.

After talking with Meixiu and Yuan for a few minutes, Yu Rou hung up, as she and the other disciples had been summoned by White Lotus to talk about the current situation.

And for the rest of the day, they would remain inside their immortal caves, patiently waiting for the calamity to show itself.

However, to everyone's absolute surprise, the crimson sky disappeared the following day.

"Does this mean that the calamity had passed, or was it simply a warning?" Yuan mumbled in a low voice.

He also went to the back of the immortal caves to see if Azure would be there like usual, but alas, she was nowhere to be seen.

"How should I respond to her confession?" Yuan sat there and silently pondered to himself until sunrise.

And just as he prepared to return to the immortal caves, another earthquake appeared, and it would last a tad bit longer than the last one, not to mention a little stronger as well.

Chapter 585 - Ancestors Tomb

Chapter 585 - Ancestors' Tomb

"Another earthquake?" Yuan quickly returned to the immortal caves.

"Is the sky red again?" Yuan asked them when he returned.

"No, the sky hasn't changed this time," Meixiu said after looking outside.

"Is that so..."

Yuan decided to stay at the immortal caves with Meixiu and the others just in case something were to happen, but sometime in the afternoon, Wang Ming showed up at their immortal caves.

"Wang Ming? What happened?"

"Yuan, come with me. We have discovered something new," he said.

"Really? Let's go!"

Wang Ming proceeded to bring Yuan and the others to the Wang Family, where Senior Wang was waiting for their arrival.

"What did you find?" Yuan asked her.

"You probably don't know this since we never mentioned it, but we built this place close to our ancestors' tomb, and according to the people who maintain that place, the spiritual energy there has become chaotic and even somewhat menacing. Perhaps there is a clue in that place about the approaching calamity." Senior Wang said.

And she continued, "I will be heading there now with the other grand elders. Do you want to come with us?"

"Of course." Yuan immediately nodded.

"Great. Follow me."

"Hm? You're not coming?" Yuan asked Wang Ming when he noticed that Wang Ming wasn't following them.

"Only the grand elders and family heads are allowed to approach the ancestors' tomb— not including the people that maintain the cleanliness of that place. Of course, you're an exception." Wang Ming said.

"I see..."

"What about us?" Meixiu asked.

Senior Wang looked at them and said, "You guys can come too."

After all, she didn't have the courage to separate them from Yuan, who could potentially be their savior in this unknown calamity.

The ancestors' tomb was only a few miles away from the Jaded Garden, and it took Yuan and the others about two and a half hours of walking before they arrived at the location.

'That's the ancestors' tomb? It looks so familiar to that place...' Yuan thought to himself when he could finally see the ancestors' tomb that somewhat resembled the treasure room inside the Dragon Temple within Cultivation Online.

"The ancestors' tomb was created thousands of years ago, and it's where all family heads and grand elders go to rest after they permanently close their eyes." Senior Wang said to them.

A few more minutes later, they arrived at the front of the tomb, where the other grand elders were present.

"What do you think of this place, Elder Wang?" Senior Hong asked when they arrived.

"It's hard to describe the feeling I am getting, but it definitely feels different than usual," she said.

Senior Hong nodded and said, "You don't feel it now because you're too far away, but if you stand in front of the doors, your body will start to shiver uncontrollably for some reason. That's why we're all standing here, far away from the doors."

"Have you tried entering the place yet?" Senior Wang asked.

The others shook their heads.

"Then let's do that right now— together." Senior Wang then said.

"Uhh... Shouldn't we arm ourselves just in case?" Yuan asked them when they began approaching the tomb.

Senior Wang chuckled and said, "Arm ourselves? Unless the corpses inside suddenly turned into zombies, there's nothing inside. Furthermore, the doors remain closed unless we have to put a new body inside."

"Is that so..."

"Don't worry. If we suddenly need weapons for whatever reason, there will be plenty inside. When we put our ancestors inside, we also bring their weapons so that they can carry it with them to heaven." Senior Hong said.

Yuan nodded, and they began approaching the doors.

And just like the grand elders had said, when they arrived in front of the large doors, their bodies began shivering uncontrollably.

However, it was not the type of shivering one would get when they were cold— it was the type that only occurs when one is fearful of something.

"I don't like this feeling one bit." Chu Liuxiang said as she looked at her own hands that were trembling uncontrollably.

"Young Lady, I think we should stay out here. If anything happens to you..." Sebastian said to her with a profound frown on his face.

"If Brother Yuan is going inside, I will be doing the same," she quickly said.

"How come you are fine, Yuan?" Meixiu noticed that Yuan was the only person there that wasn't shivering.

"Eh? I don't know. I don't really feel anything," he shrugged.

"In fact, my body feels a little warmer than usual."

"Warm?" Everyone there raised their eyebrows.

A moment later, all six grand elders retrieved a golden key before inserting them inside the six keyholes in the center of the door.

"One, two, three."

At the count of three, they turned the keys simultaneously, unlocking the doors that hasn't been opened for at least a hundred years.

Upon opening the doors, they were immediately greeted by a hallway with the only light source being the dimmed lights on the walls.

"Let's go." Senior Wang said to them after retrieving the key.

Yuan and the others proceeded to follow the grand elders inside the tomb.

Once inside the tomb, their bodies would miraculously stop shivering.

However, it was the complete opposite for Yuan, whose body would gradually become warmer the deeper they entered the tomb, almost as if his body was reacting to something within the tomb.

After walking for a few minutes, they would arrive in this massive room at the end of the hallway.

Inside this room that was as large as two football fields, there were hundreds of coffins and display cases with weapons neatly arranged.

'Wow...' Yuan and the others were immediately in awe after seeing the place that looked like a historic site more than anything.

"Do you guys see anything out of the ordinary? I don't." Senior Wang asked the other grand elders after looking around.

"Nope. I don't see anything different, either."

"Everything looks normal to me."

They all expressed the same thoughts.

Chapter 586 - Hidden Staircase

"Brother Yuan, how is your body feeling? Is it still heating up?" Chu Liuxiang asked him.

He nodded and said, "Yes, it's still heating up, but it doesn't hurt, so it's nothing to be worried about."

"If you ask me, I think your body is reacting to something within this tomb. Maybe you actually belong to one of the Six Spiritual Families, and your body is telling you so." Chu Liuxiang chuckled as she joked.

"I belong to one of the Six Spiritual Families?" Yuan raised his eyebrows.

As ridiculous as that sounded, it wasn't completely impossible. As an orphan, his real background could be anything, and that includes one of the Six Spiritual Families.

However, they won't really know for certain until there is solid proof.

"Anyways, jokes aside, look at these weapons. Many of them are treasures." Chu Liuxiang said as she approached the weapon display cases.

"They give off the same aura as Spirit-grade weapons in Cultivation Online..." Yuan mumbled.

While Yuan and the others looked at the weapons, the grand elders scattered around the tomb to make sure there wasn't anything out of the ordinary.

About half an hour later, they all gathered again.

"Anything?"

"Nope."

"Nothing."

Yuan then asked, "Is this the only room in the tomb?"

"Yes. Although we don't have the layouts of this tomb, this is the only room that we know of. However, we do have speculations of a hidden room somewhere in this tomb. We just don't know where it is." Senior Wang said.

Senior Hong then spoke, "We believe there is a hidden room somewhere mostly because our founders' coffins cannot be found in this main room. They are probably in a hidden room, but we cannot find it no matter where to looked. Besides the entrance that is also an exit, there are no other paths in this tomb, and we don't dare to tear apart the tomb to find this hidden room without concrete evidence that it exists."

Yuan pondered for a moment. If what Chu Lixuaing said is true— that his body is reacting to something inside this tomb, maybe he can find it by following his body temperature.

"Do you mind if I look around for a bit?" Yuan then asked them.

"Go ahead. We'll also look around again just in case we missed anything."

Thus, Yuan and the others began walking around the room.

"The longer we stay here, the creepier it gets..." Meixiu sighed.

"Are you not good with these kinds of things?" Yuan asked her.

"So you're afraid of ghosts and zombies?" Chu Liuxiang chuckled.

"It's not that I am afraid of these things, but the eeriness of this place makes me uncomfortable," Meixiu said.

"Don't worry, we'll probably leave right after looking around."

As Yuan walked around, he would feel his body temperature rising and lowering, almost like he was playing the game hot and cold.

Eventually, Yuan found the direction that would make his body temperature increase the more he walked in that direction.

"I think this is the spot. My body is burning right now." Yuan said.

Chu Liuxiang pressed the back of her cold hands on Yuan's forehead and immediately exclaimed, "Whoa! Your body is actually burning! Are you sure that you're not in pain?"

"Yes, I am perfectly fine."

Yuan then gathered the grand elders and explained to them the situation.

"For some reason, my body feels the hottest when I stand in this spot."

"This spot?"

The grand elders looked around and realized that they were in the center of the room.

However, they don't see anything out of the ordinary.

It was at this moment Chu Liuxiang suddenly squatted down and extended her hand towards the floor.

"Hey, there's air flowing from the floor..."

"What? Let me see." Senior Wang knelt on the floor and extended her hand, and sure enough, there was air blowing from the tile cracks.

Upon realizing the situation, she immediately began removing the floor tile while trying her best not to damage anything.

A few moments later, the large floor tile was removed, and to everyone's surprise, there was a staircase that led underground!

"Heavens... To think there was a hidden staircase in this place." Senior Wang mumbled as she stared at the hole with a dazed face, wondering to herself how they didn't find this until today.

"Are we going down?" Yuan asked.

"Of course." Senior Hong nodded.

Thus, they began walking this narrow and dark staircase, slowly descending deeper into the ground.

However, the chill that had disappeared when they entered the tomb suddenly returned for everyone beside Yuan, and it was much worse than before.

"Looks like whatever is down there is the cause of this chill." Senior Wang mumbled in a low voice as they descended deeper and deeper.

Half an hour later.

"Good lord, how far down does this staircase go? We've been walking nonstop for half an hour!" Senior Shi said, feeling more and more impatient.

And just as he finished his sentence, the others noticed a thin line of light a little further down.

They immediately quickened their steps, and a few minutes later, they arrived before this metal door.

After opening this door, they entered this small but eerie chamber that had six golden coffins arranged in a circle with what appeared to be a stone statue in the middle.

"This is it... This must be our founders' hidden tomb!" Senior Wang began shaking even more after realizing the situation.

The grand elders began approaching the coffins and the stone statue to take a closer look, but they halted their movements when Yuan suddenly shouted in a panicked voice, "STOP! DON'T GET CLOSE TO THAT THING!"

Everybody there turned to look at him with surprised expressions, and Senior Wang asked, "What is going on?"

However, Yuan didn't say anything and continued to stare at the stone statue in the middle of the room with a deep frown on his face.

'Impossible! What is that doing here?!' Yuan cried inwardly when he recognized the stone statue that had a human figure, but if one looked closely, it had horns on its head and parts on its body that humans shouldn't have, resembling something Yuan had encountered inside Cultivation Online— a demon!

OceanofPDF.com

Chapter 587 - Demon Statue

'I-It's a demon! Impossible! Why is there a demon in this place?!' Yuan was shocked to the core when he saw the demon statue.

Although he has only seen a couple of them, their unique features were more than enough for Yuan to immediately recognize them at glance.

'Wait! Calm down! I am overthinking things! There is no way demons really exist in this world, right? That is only a stone statue— nothing more!'

Yuan began trying to convince himself that the stone statue was merely just that and not a real demon that had been sealed even though it looked ridiculously realistic.

However, that didn't explain why his body was burning when looking at the demon statue, as his body was clearly reacting to it.

"Brother Yuan, what do you see?" Chu Liuxiang asked him when he remained silent for too long.

"S-Sorry, but I think I overreacted to that statue over there." Yuan pointed at the demon statue that was surrounded by the six golden coffins.

"The stone statue?" Everybody there turned to look at the statue.

Since it was sort of dark there, they didn't notice the horns and other features immediately.

When they eventually noticed these unique features, their eyes widened with shock.

"What the... Why is there such a thing in the founders' tomb?"

"What even is this thing? It looks like a human, but humans don't have horns."

"It's a demon, I think," Yuan answered their questions.

"A demon? How do you know this?" Chu Liuxiang asked him.

"Because I have fought with them before inside Cultivation Online..." Yuan sighed.

"Cultivation Online?" Everyone there turned to look at him with raised eyebrows.

Yuan nodded and proceeded to explain to them his encounter with demons inside the Mystic Realm.

"Demons are powerful and immortal beings that have existed since ancient times in Cultivation Online. They cannot be killed through normal means. You can crush their body, burn them, and even sever their head, but they will regenerate completely like it never happened."

"I have fought a couple of them inside the Mystic Realm, and I was nearly killed by them."

"Wait... If they can regenerate any injuries no matter how severe, how do you defeat them?" Senior Wang asked.

"There are two ways to defeat a demon. You can destroy their body to the point where they cannot regenerate anymore, but they can fully regenerate within seconds even if they only have a single finger left, so that's not the preferred method."

"The second method is to seal them using a demon sealing technique, but that doesn't really kill them, and they will break out of that seal after a few hundred or thousand years depending on the strength of the seal."

"Oh, and I believe they're weak to techniques with the divine attribute."

"Heavens... How can such powerful entities exist? If they exist in our world in its current state, I highly doubt we will be able to defeat them." Senior Shi mumbled in a dumbfounded voice.

"Well, lucky for us, this is only a statue." Senior Xi said.

"What if it's not a statue?" Meixiu suddenly said.

And she continued, "What if that statue is the source of the calamity? If cultivation exists, then demons might also exist."

She turned to look at Yuan and said, "You've sealed them before, right? Can you look at that statue just in case? I have a bad feeling about it when I look at it."

Yuan nodded and used his divine sense to take a closer look at the demon statue without actually getting close to it.

"This is..." Yuan quickly frowned, but because of the mask blocking his face, the other couldn't see his expression.

If one looked at the demon statue with their bare eyes, they wouldn't notice anything out of the ordinary about it, but Yuan's divine sense allowed him to see things with more clarity, and he could immediately tell that the demon statue was not made out of stone.

Furthermore, he could sense a familiar feeling coming from within the statue—a feeling of carnage and bloodthirst.

"I... I think it's a real demon that had been sealed..." Yuan muttered in a voice of disbelief after a long moment of silence.

Nobody there responded for a very long time, as they were as baffled as Yuan.

"R-Real...? Are you sure?" Senior Wang asked for confirmation.

Yuan nodded and said, "I have sealed a few demons in Cultivation Online, and they all turn into that appearance when sealed. Furthermore... I can sense unusual energy flowing through that statue."

"Good lord..."

"H-How long did you say demons can be sealed for?" Senior Hong asked him.

"I don't know. It all depends on the person who sealed the demon." Yuan shook his head.

Chu Liuxiang then spoke with a serious expression on her face, "This tomb has been here since ancient times, right? If you ask me, considering the situation with the calamity and the chilling energy from this place, there's a good chance that this demon is the calamity that we must face, and it's going to break out of the seal very soon."

"If that's the case, then we're all doomed! We have no way to defeat this demon if it really cannot be killed normally!"

The grand elders began panicking.

They suddenly looked at Yuan and said, "Y-You have experience with sealing demons, right?! Can you somehow reseal this demon before it breaks the seal?!"

"I'm sorry, but I don't really know how sealing demons work. I have a technique that allows me to seal demons, but I can only use that technique in Cultivation Online. I can try to learn the technique in this world as well, but I can't say for certain that it will happen before the demon breaks out of its seal, nor can I guarantee that it will work on the demon."

Senior Wang then said, "Let's look around to see if there are any clues for now. I'm sure the founders placed this demon in this place for a reason. Hell, they might've even left behind the method to deal with the demon... We can figure out the other things later."

Chapter 588 - Flesh And Blood

Yuan and the other began looking around the room, but there really wasn't much there to look at besides the sealed demon and the six golden coffins.

After a few minutes of looking around, the grand elders gathered.

"Besides the founders' coffin, there isn't anything else for us to look at." Senior Hong said.

"But to disturb the founders' peace..."

"If we don't do it, that demon will kill everyone once it breaks out of the seal! I'm sure they'll understand."

"You got a point..."

The grand elders then bowed to the golden coffins.

"We deeply apologize for disturbing your peace, founders."

After apologizing to their founders, the grand elders went to their family's coffin.

Each of the coffins had one of the Six Spiritual Families' surnames engraved into it, so the grand elders knew which one belonged to their family.

Once they were prepared, they opened the coffin to take a look inside.

However, to their surprise, all of the coffins were empty.

There was nothing— not even signs of a body having ever existed inside these coffins, almost like it was empty since the beginning.

"Why are these coffins here if they're empty?" Senior Wang muttered out loud everyone's question.

"If our founders are not in here, where are their bodies?" Senior Hong asked afterward.

"Let's look around again to make sure that there aren't any hidden passages."

Thus, the grand elders began around round of inspection.

Meanwhile, Yuan continued to analyze the demon statue with his divine sense.

He was fairly certain that the demon statue was actually a sealed demon, but he wasn't 100 percent confident.

"Brother Yuan, if the demon breaks out of its seal now, what are the chances of you defeating it?" Chu Liuxiang asked him.

After a moment of silence, he spoke in a solemn tone, "None. I have no chance of defeating a demon in my current state."

And he added, "That's why I need to quickly learn the demon sealing technique."

"Are demons really that powerful besides their regenerative abilities?"

"Yes, they're incredibly powerful. They can turn their own blood into weapons, and their bodies are incredibly durable by themselves. However, that's not what I am most worried about."

"A single demon at the Spirit Warrior level can defeat an ordinary Spirit Master cultivator. If this sealed demon is above that level, which is very likely, I won't be able to defeat it even with the demon sealing technique."

"Wait... If even someone like you cannot defeat the demon, who else can do such a thing?" Meixiu asked.

Yuan is very likely the strongest cultivator in this world at the moment, and if someone like that cannot defeat the demon, what chances do the others have? Won't they just be sitting ducks waiting to be slaughtered by this demon?

"Well... Since demons exist... I hope there's a demon sealing clan somewhere out there in this world." Yuan sighed.

"Demon sealing clans?" Chu Liuxiang asked.

"Yes, they're clans that specialize in sealing demons. They also exist in Cultivation Online."

Sometime later, the grand elders returned to Yuan with dispirited looks on their faces.

"I'm sorry, but this place is empty."

"Daoist Yuan, do you have any idea when the demon might break the seal?" Senior Wang asked him.

"Unfortunately, I do not."

"Hopefully, it won't happen for a few more years. Hell, I will be happy even with a few months." Senior Shi sighed.

"Let's get out of here for now. We won't gain anything by staying in here."

However, as they prepared to leave the hidden room, the ground started shaking.

"Another earthquake? We're getting them more and more frequently."

"Let's hurry upstairs. It would be bad if this place collapses due to the earthquake." Senior Wang suggested to them.

Everyone there agreed and began making their way towards the exit.

However, for some reason, Yuan stopped walking when they reached the door.

"What's the matter, Brother Yuan?" Chu Liuxiang asked him.

Yuan didn't say anything and used his divine sense to look at the sealed demon after feeling this urge to do so.

"No way..." He muttered in a low voice.

"What did you just say?" Senior Wang turned around to ask him.

"T-The demon... It's cracking..." Yuan responded in a low voice.

"What?!"

Everybody there immediately turned to look at the sealed demon, and sure enough, there were visible cracks on its body.

Furthermore, these cracks were emitting a red glow that would pulsate like a beating heart.

"D-Don't tell me that it's already breaking the seal! We're not ready to fight that thing!"

Senior Wang and the others that had been shivering this entire time started trembling like they were at the brink of freezing to death.

Meanwhile, the earthquake grew stronger and stronger.

Crack.

Crack...

Crack!

The cracks on the sealed demon began spreading all over the rest of its body at a rapid rate— fast enough for Yuan and the others to follow with their eyes.

"Run!" Yuan suddenly shouted at them.

The next second, Senior Wang and the others began running back upstairs at full speed.

When they were halfway to the surface, the sealed demon that was completely covered in cracks started trembling.

BOOM!

An explosion occurred inside the hidden room the next moment.

When the smoke dissipated, a red-skinned figure could be seen standing in the middle of the room, silently looking at its own hands with a look of disbelief and excitement in its gaze.

Once the demon realized its situation, it immediately burst with laughter.

"HAHAHAHA! I AM FREE! I AM FINALLY FREE!" The demon laughed like a maniac.

After countless years of being sealed, it had finally managed to break free from its imprisonment.

The demon proceeded to spend the next few minutes digesting its current situation and pondering what it should do next.

Then its senses picked up a familiar smell— the smell of humans, and its mouth immediately began salivating, as it'd been starved for thousands of years.

Once the demon realized that there were humans nearby, like a starved beast, it stopped pondering and began chasing after this smell.

"This is exactly what I want! Flesh and blood— I want to feast!" The demon roared as it sped up the narrow staircase, quickly chasing after Yuan and the others.

Chapter 589 - Staying Behind

"W-What was that sound just now?!"

"It sounded like an explosion!"

"Fuck! I really hope the demon didn't just break out of its seal!"

The grand elders panicked as they ran upstairs.

Meanwhile, Yuan tried his best to learn the Demon Sealing Strike even as they moved, as that was essentially his only chance of winning against a demon at his current strength.

Eventually, they reached the surface and returned to the main tomb.

"Seniors, I am going to borrow some of the weapons in here!" Yuan said to them, and without waiting for a response, he retrieved a greatsword that resembled the Empyrean Overlord in size from its display case along with a couple of daggers.

"Weapons? Don't tell me you're planning to fight the demon!" Senior Wang asked him.

Yuan nodded and said, "I can sense a powerful aura quickly approaching us from the staircase. The demon will be here at any minute. If I don't stay here to stop it, everyone will die. That's why I will stay here to stall the demon while you all evacuate the disciples."

"No!" Chu Liuxiang immediately refused.

Then she said, "If you're going to stay here, I will stay here with you!"

"You must not, Young Lady! It's my duty to guarantee your safety!" Sebastian exclaimed.

"I don't care! I am not going to leave Brother Yuan here to die!"

"Then I will stay here with the Young Master in your place!" Sebastian said.

"What can you do, Sebastian?! You may be strong, but you're only a Spirit Warrior!"

"Lulu, leave!" Yuan suddenly shouted at her.

"B-But..." Chu Liuxiang looked at him with teary eyes.

Yuan lifted his hands to wipe her tears, and he spoke in a calm voice, "Don't worry, even if I cannot defeat the demon, I won't die. I promise."

He then looked at Meixiu and continued, "You too, Feng... No, Meixiu. Leave this place with Lulu. If anything happens to either of you... I will never be able to forgive myself."

After a moment of silence, Meixiu nodded her head, but she didn't say anything, mostly because she'll reveal the fact that she was crying behind her mask if she spoke now.

"No! I am not leaving you, Brother Yuan! We have yet to start our family! If you die, I will die with you!" Chu Liuxiang was still reluctant to leave.

Yuan sighed in an apologetic voice, "I'm sorry, Lulu..."

He then used his movement technique to get close to Chu Liuxiang, before knocking her out cold by hitting her with the sword hilt.

After catching the unconscious Chu Liuxiang, he handed her to Meixiu, "I'm sorry for the inconvenience..."

Yuan suddenly turned to look at the staircase, as he could feel the demon's presence getting incredibly close.

"Leave! Now!" He shouted at them.

"Follow me!" Senior Wang then said to them.

Meixiu and the others immediately followed Senior Wang outside.

However, a few of the grand elders stayed behind with Yuan.

"Seniors..."

"Daoist Yuan, do not forget that you are currently a guest at our home. Our ancestors will curse us to death from the heavens if we leave you alone now." Senior Hong said to him with a smile on his face.

"Although we may not be able to defeat the demon, we are not Spirit Masters for nothing." Senior Li spoke next.

"I know I shouldn't be excited about our situation, but I cannot wait to see how this demon look." Senior Shi laughed.

"Thank you all," Yuan said to them.

And for the next minute, the three grand elders that decided to stay behind went to grab a weapon from beside their ancestors' coffin.

"This place is going to be destroyed today, huh?" The grand elders looked around before shaking their heads.

Although they would rather take the fight outside their ancestors' tomb, they knew that wasn't practical, as there would be nothing to block the demon from fleeing.

However, inside their ancestors' tomb that only had one entrance that is also an exit, they would be able to stall the demon with more ease.

"Hahahaha! Humans! I can smell humans!!!"

A burst of cold laughter suddenly resounded, causing Yuan and the others to tremble.

Boom!

The next moment, a figure flew out of the hole with the underground staircase before landing many meters away from the others.

"Heavens... That's a demon?"

"What a hideous appearance..."

The grand elders felt the strength in their legs disappear when they saw a demon for the first time.

Glowing red skin that resembled lava, two black horns on the top of its head, clear red eyes that looked like they had been dyed in blood, and most noticeable, the red crystal embedded in the middle of its chest.

"Oh, sh*t..." Yuan subconsciously cursed when he sensed the unfathomable aura coming from the demon, recognizing its strength that was at the peak of Spirit Master!

"That demon is a peak Spirit Master... Meaning it has the strength of a peak Spirit Grandmaster!" Yuan revealed this information to the grand elders.

Of course, their faces sank the moment they learned of this information.

"Strength of a Spirit Grandmaster?? How are we supposed to deal with that monster with just the four of us?! Even ten of us wouldn't be enough!" Senior Li exclaimed.

Meanwhile, the demon silently stared at them for a good moment before mumbling, "There's only four of them? I swear I smelled more than four people. Oh well, there should be plenty more humans outside this place..."

The demon suddenly began approaching Yuan and the others in a slow and calm manner, almost like it wasn't worried about them escaping from it.

"Humans, be obedient and offer yourself to me and I will make things as painless as possible. If you dare resist, I will make sure you feel it as I slowly tear your flesh from your body with nothing but my teeth." The demon spoke with a hideous grin on its face, revealing its sharp yellow teeth to them.

In response to the demon's words, Yuan tightened his grip on the sword, and without waiting for the grand elders, he rushed at the demon.

Chapter 590 - Let Me Eat You!

"HAHAHAHA!"

The demon started laughing when it saw Yuan running at it in a seemingly reckless manner.

"A mere early-stage Spirit Master dares to challenge me?! A demon?! Your mother must have never taught you about demons, human!"

The demon stood there without moving as it continued laughing even though Yuan was already in front of it.

"Ha!"

Yuan swung his sword with all of his might, tearing the demon's body in half.

"Oh? You're a little more powerful than you appear. No wonder why you dared to challenge me." The demon remained calm even after getting split in half.

"However, that won't be enough to stop me from ripping your flesh and chewing your bones."

The demon completely regenerated its body before it even finished its sentence.

"He wasn't exaggerating about their regeneration abilities... How are we supposed to defeat a monster like that?!"

The grand elders lost all will to fight when they witnessed firsthand the demon's heaven-defying regenerating abilities, and they could only stand there in shock as they watched Yuan fight with the demon.

Of course, the demon wasn't taking Yuan seriously, as it was still filled with exhilaration from breaking free from the seal, so it wanted to play around with its food before eating them as a way of celebrating its freedom.

However, even as he was fighting the demon, Yuan didn't stop trying to comprehend the Demon Sealing Strike inside his head.

The demon eventually got tired of just taking Yuan's attacks and retaliated with its own attack.

"Bloody Claws!"

The demon used its blood to turn its fingers into a long and sharp weapon before swinging them at Yuan.

"Flying Daggers!"

Yuan controlled two separate daggers to attack the demon after backing up.

However, the demon completely ignored the daggers, allowing them to pierce its body as many times as it wants.

Of course, Yuan didn't care whether his attacks worked or not on the demon, as his only intention was to stall the demon for as long as possible so that Meixiu and the others could escape and evacuate the Jaded Garden.

Midway through his fight, Yuan suddenly began feeling the mysterious power once again, and his body emitted a golden aura.

"Hm?" The demon raised its eyebrows when it sensed this mysterious power within Yuan.

'What is that power? I want to taste it!'

The demon suddenly felt an uncontrollable urge to consume Yuan, and it no longer had the patience to play around with its food.

BOOM!

The demon released its cultivation base, creating a powerful shockwave that tossed the coffins in the room all the way to the wall.

"Let me eat you... LET ME EAT YOU!"

The demon drooled with saliva as it pounced at Yuan while emitting an incredibly bloodthirsty aura.

Yuan was surprised by the demon's sudden aggression, but he didn't panic, and the overwhelming power in his body helped calm his mind.

Clang!

Yuan took the demon's strike head-on with his sword, but even with his golden aura, he was pushed back by that strike.

Furthermore, while he was enveloped by this golden aura, his comprehension of the Demon Sealing Strike would progress a little faster.

Bang!

Clang!

Boom!

The entire room was destroyed as Yuan and the demon fought back and forth with broken coffins and dried-up corpses that had been resting inside these coffins scattered around like trash.

This was a heartbreaking scene for the grand elders, but they were too terrified of the demon to even do anything about it.

However, one cannot blame the grand elders for being scared out of their minds, as demons have this savage aura that makes humans instinctively fear them.

Meanwhile, Yuan was on the verge of being suppressed by the demon.

Even though he has his golden aura that significantly boosts his strength, it wasn't nearly enough to deal with the demon, who was actually growing more and more powerful as it got used to using its body after being sealed for so many years.

Bang!

The demon swung its sharp hands at Yuan, sending him flying across the room.

Boom!

Yuan fell onto the floor after hitting the wall.

"Damn it... Why am I so weak?" Yuan quickly got back up to his feet.

Unfortunately, by the time he stood back up, the demon was already in front of him.

Whoosh!

The demon suddenly extended its claw-like hands out, grabbing Yuan by the neck and lifting him into the air with ease.

"You're pretty powerful for someone at the first level Spirit Master. Unfortunately, you do not have what it takes to deal with demons. You also have a mysterious power inside you. I cannot wait to taste your blood and acquire this power for myself."

The demon opened its mouth and prepared to bite a chunk out of Yuan's body, but it suddenly felt something pierce its body.

The demon looked down to see a spear piercing its chest. It turned around to see Senior Hong standing behind it with a spear in his grasp.

However, his expression was still filled with terror.

"Don't worry, you will get your turn after I eat this brat."

The demon sneered and returned to focusing Yuan, completely ignoring Senior Hong and the spear in its body.

Yuan, who had been trying to break free from the demon's hold, accidentally removed his mask from all the struggling, revealing to everyone there his face for the first time.

The grand elders weren't in the mood to care about Yuan's identity right now, so they didn't care.

However, when the demon saw Yuan's face, its body immediately began trembling with intense fear, almost like an animal right before its prey.

"YOU! WHAT ARE YOU DOING HERE?!"

The demon suddenly roared in a terrified tone, immediately released its grip on Yuan's neck, and even jumped back, distancing itself from him.

"You must be here to seal me again! No! I will not let you seal me for a second time! I will kill as many humans as I can before you take me!"

Almost like it had gone crazy, the demon began running towards the exit with its tail tucked between its legs, completely ignoring the fact that it'd just dominated Yuan.

"Fuck! The demon is leaving the tomb! We have to stop it!"

The grand elders that had been rooted in their spot this entire time suddenly regained their ability to control their bodies, and they immediately chased after the demon.

"Daoist Yuan! Are you okay?!" Senior Hong helped him to his feet.

"I am! Let's also chase after the demon! Many people will die if that demon leaves this place!" Yuan quickly stood up and began chasing the demon, not even bothering to ponder why the demon suddenly let him go.

However, the demon was too fast for any of them to catch, leaving Yuan and the others in the dust.

"Sh*t! It's heading towards the Jaded Garden!"

"How long did we manage to stall the demon for?! Hopefully, it's enough to let the others evacuate!"

"Daoist Yuan, you can go ahead of us!"

Yuan nodded and immediately used his movement technique while pouring all of his spiritual energy into it, reaching a speed that he didn't know was possible before.

Chapter 591 - Trail Of Blood

After leaving the ancestors' tomb, Senior Wang and the others rushed back to the Jaded Garden to warn all of the disciples about the demon.

Of course, the disciples were in disbelief at first, but they eventually snapped out of their daze and started making their way to the evacuation site, where a private airport and dozens of large airplanes had been prepared just in case they ever needed to do a mass evacuation.

"Leave everything behind! The demon is being stalled by Daoist Yuan and the grand elders! Don't let their efforts go to waste!" Senior Wang shouted at the disciples that were stumbling around in a panic.

"Miss Meixiu, we have a helicopter. Let's leave here in advance." Sebastian said to her, who was still carrying Chu Liuxiang even though he'd offered to carry Chu Liuxiang for her.

Meixiu nodded.

Although they will be leaving behind their luggage, they can always return for them in the future when the demon is no longer a threat.

Thus, Meixiu followed Sebastian to the helicopter.

Of course, she made sure to warn the people in the hotel and Jean, who brought them to the Jaded Garden.

"What? There's a monster? How is that possible?"

Jean doubted Meixiu's words at first, but then the hotel he was staying at received news from the Jaded Garden about the situation.

"I will be leaving this place with them, so you can return by yourself," Meixiu said to Jean before following Sebastian to their helicopter and leaving the Jaded Garden.

"What are we going to do now?" Meixiu asked Sebastian once they were in the air.

"We'll stay in the Yang City for now, and depending on the situation, we may or may not return to the Chu Family. If the demon is dealt with, we will return to the Jaded Garden, but if things get bad, we will return to the Chu Family," Sebastian said.

"What about you? If you have no place to go, you can follow us back to the Chu Family."

"But Yuan..." Meixiu immediately hesitated, as she didn't want to leave Yuan behind in the Jaded Garden.

Sebastian remained silent for a moment before speaking, "He'll be fine. I don't know him very well compared to you or the Young Lady, but I have a feeling that he'll be okay. Furthermore, he wishes for your safety, so I cannot allow you to go back there until the demon is no longer a threat."

Thus, Sebastian controlled the helicopter, flying it to Yang City.

Shortly after Meixiu and the others left the Jaded Garden, the demon would enter the Jaded Garden, and it immediately began destroying everything in its sight.

Unfortunately, not everyone had evacuated from the Jaded Garden, and when the demon spotted them, it would immediately sink its sharp teeth inside their body before ripping out their skin and meat.

"What the fuck is that thing?!"

"Run! It'll kill us all!"

"Aaaaaaah! Help me! It's eating me! Help!"

Chaos immediately ensued from the demon's rampage, and wherever the demon appeared, there would be carnage.

Yuan returned to the Jaded Garden about ten minutes after the demon, and by the time he arrived, the demon had already killed hundreds of people.

"Damn it! I was too late!"

Yuan could feel his heart beating uncomfortably loud when he saw the scene, and he couldn't help but blame himself for not being able to stall the demon long enough for them to escape.

However, he didn't have the time to blame himself, and he immediately began following the trail of blood left behind by the demon.

After following the trail for a few minutes, Yuan suddenly recognized the direction it was heading, and his face immediately sank.

"The demon is heading towards the immortal caves...? Oh no! Azure!"

Yuan quickened his steps and rushed towards the immortal caves without looking at the trail anymore, and he silently prayed that Azure had already evacuated from the Jaded Garden.

'Please be safe, Azure!' Yuan's heart burned with anxiety as he rushed to the immortal caves.

Meanwhile, a few minutes ahead of Yuan, the demon arrived at the immortal caves that have the most spiritual energy in the entire Jaded Garden.

"Hahaha! I must have gone crazy from starvation when I ran away from that human! Now that I have satisfied my hunger, I can finally think again! That human! Although he looked like that bastard who sealed me, there's no way such a weakling could be that person!" The demon laughed out loud as it bit on a severed arm, chewing on the meat and bones together without any problem.

"Once I find that bastard again, I will make sure to consume him properly for embarrassing me like that!"

After walking for a few more moments, the demon suddenly stopped in its track when it noticed a female human sitting on top of a larger boulder, who appeared to be in deep thoughts— so she didn't notice the demon's presence.

The demon licked its lips and approached this unsuspecting individual.

Once the demon was close enough, the woman snapped out of her daze and turned to face the demon.

"Yuan?" She subconsciously muttered in a low voice.

Then she noticed that this presence reeked of blood and bloodlust.

"Who are you?" She asked, still unaware that she was before a monster that'd killed hundreds of people already.

The demon realized that this human was blind, so she couldn't see its hideous appearance.

However, the demon couldn't care less whether she could see or not, and it calmly walked up to her with its claw-like hands raised into the air before swinging it directly at the woman's chest.

It was at this moment a familiar voice frantically resounded, "Azure!"

"Yuan?" A smile subconsciously appeared on Azure's face when she heard his voice.

Then she suddenly felt a burst of pain in her chest.

Still unaware of the situation, Azure subconsciously touched the part of her chest where the pain was coming from, and to her shock, there was nothing, as a gaping hole had appeared in her chest.

A moment later, she collapsed, falling from the boulder and landing on the ground, but her body didn't react to the fall.

When Yuan, who'd arrived at the scene just to witness the demon thrust its bloody claws into Azure's chest, he roared in a desperate voice, "NO! AZURE!!!"

Chapter 592 - Intense Killing Intent

"Oh? What a pleasant surprise. Looks like I no longer have to waste time looking for you. I will make you pay for that embarrassment before." The demon licked its hand that was covered in Azure's blood when it noticed Yuan standing a few meters away from it.

"Hm? This blood is fucking delicious!" The demon was surprised when it tasted Azure's blood.

"She will make for a good dessert after I finish eating you, human!"

The demon laughed loudly.

However, there was no response from Yuan, who silently stood there in a daze, almost like he'd turned into a stone statue.

Two streams of tears began flowing down his face a moment later when he realized the situation.

"Azure..."

Yuan eventually snapped out of his shock, and when he did, he gritted his teeth so hard that his mouth began bleeding.

"AAAAAAAAAAHHH!"

Yuan released a beastly roar that shook the trees around them before rushing at the demon without any movement techniques.

He was simply rushing at the demon in a reckless manner.

In fact, he wasn't even thinking at all, as his mind was filled with anger and desperation.

Sha!

The demon slashed its claw-like hands at Yuan, and because of its recent feast, its power had grown much more than previously, sending Yuan flying many meters into the distance.

Cough!

Yuan coughed out a mouthful of blood afterward, but he immediately stood up before rushing at the demon once again.

The demon quickly noticed Yuan's sudden change in behavior, and it turned to look at Azure's body on the ground.

"Oh? Did you know her? Perhaps she was your lover? What a pity. If I had known that earlier, I would've kept her alive so that I could torture her before you." The demon sighed in a regretful manner.

When Yuan heard the demon's words, he felt something snap somewhere inside his body, and intense killing intent would gush from his body.

At this moment, Yuan could no longer think properly, but his body continued to function purely on instinct.

Yuan dropped the sword in his hand the next second.

When the demon saw this, it laughed, "Are you giving up already? Aren't you going to avenge your girlfriend? What a pathetic existence you are even for a lowly human."

However, the next moment, a beautiful sword would appear out of thin air before falling into Yuan's grasp, and this sword greatly resembled his Empyrean Overlord from Cultivation Online.

The second this sword appeared in this world, it released a divine aura that sucked all of the spiritual energy from the immortal caves almost instantly, turning the place into an ordinary location.

"Where the hell did you pull that thing from?" The demon could sense an unfathomable power hidden within the sword, but it wasn't scared.

After all, no matter how powerful the sword was, its wielder was powerless.

Once the sword was in Yuan's grasp, he immediately rushed at the demon again.

Bang!

The demon used its claws to block the sword, but the massive sword was countless times heavier than it appeared, and it tore right through its claws before slashing the demon's body in half.

And before the demon could even have a chance to regenerate, it felt something pierce its face, creating a gaping hole in its head.

'Where did that attack come from? I didn't see anything...' The demon wondered to itself as its body quickly regenerated until all of its injuries were healed.

Yuan would continue his mindless assault on the demon, but no matter how many times he slashed the demon's body in half or tore a hole in its head, the demon would regenerate until there's not even a single scratch on its body.

"Are you done yet?" The demon casually patted its shoulders, clearly unaffected by Yuan's attacks.

"Then it's my turn."

The demon released its cultivation and started attacking Yuan aggressively, quickly overpowering Yuan.

"Even though you'd gained more strength, you're actually weaker than before. What a disappointment. Allow me to end your worthless life right now!"

The demon suddenly grew a tail made out of blood before using it as a weapon, and because of Yuan's mindless state, he was unable to defend against this sneak attack.

The demon's tail pierced the center of Yuan's chest the next second.

Cough!

Yuan coughed out another mouthful of blood, and because of the intense pain in his chest, he snapped out of his daze, but it was too late, as there was already a hole in his chest.

The demon swung its tail, sending Yuan flying across the place once again.

However, Yuan didn't stand back up this time and remained lying on the cold ground, as he'd completely lost his consciousness, falling deep asleep.

Inside his dream that started the moment he lost consciousness, Yuan stood before Azure's figure, who was sitting on the boulder with her back facing him.

"You broke your promise to protect me, Yuan," Azure spoke to him in a gentle voice.

"I'm sorry... I'm really sorry..." Yuan could only mutter these few words as tears flowed from his eyes.

"Haaa..." Azure merely sighed in response.

"If only I was stronger... If only I gave you a proper answer... If only—!" Yuan kneeled on the ground as he contemplated what he could've done to prevent this situation.

After a moment of silence, a voice resounded, but it didn't belong to Azure.

"Losing to such a weak demon... Truly pathetic..."

Yuan lifted his head to look at the handsome man standing behind him, but there was something different about this handsome man and his aura, and he was wearing a black and golden robe that had the words 'Bane of Demons' on it.

"Go ahead. Laugh at me for being weak like you always do. I deserve it." Yuan said.

However, the handsome man didn't laugh, nor did he say anything, merely staring at Yuan with a solemn face.

After a long moment of silence, the handsome man lifted his hand and pointed it in front of Yuan.

"Stand up and fight it," he spoke in a calm voice.

Yuan turned his head to see the demon standing not far away from him, and it was approaching Azure, who was still sitting on the boulder.

Seeing this, Yuan shook his head, "What's the point? I won't defeat it no matter what."

"I said stand up!"

The handsome man suddenly roared, and Yuan could feel an invisible force pulling him to his feet.

Once Yuan was standing, the handsome man suddenly took a step forward, walking straight into Yuan.

Yuan expected the handsome man to bump into him, but to his surprise, almost as though his body was made out of air, the handsome man walked through his body before disappearing from his sight.

The next moment, Yuan could feel his body moving, but he was not the one controlling it, and he began approaching the demon in the distance.

Meanwhile, in the real world, as the demon approached Yuan's unconscious body, it suddenly stopped moving when it noticed Yuan's body twitching.

"Not dead yet?" The demon sneered before aiming its tail at Yuan's head.

However, right before the tail reached his head, Yuan's hand suddenly moved to grab the demon's tail, stopping it an inch away from his head.

The demon didn't think anything of his movements at first, but then its body began trembling for some reason.

The next moment, it noticed that its tail was beginning to feel stiff, almost as though it was turning solid.

The demon's eyes widened with terror when it felt this familiar feeling, and it subconsciously cut off its tail before jumping backward.

"You fucking bastard..." The demon muttered in a low voice as it watched the tail that it'd severed turn into stone a second later.

"You can use demon sealing techniques?! Who are you?!" The demon roared at Yuan, who was slowly getting back to his feet.

Once he was standing, Yuan casually patted his clothes before speaking in a calm voice, "You don't recognize me? And you call yourself a demon?"

Yuan lifted his head to face the demon with a slight grin on his face.

"I cannot remember the last time I snacked on a demon core, nor do I recall their taste. Perhaps you can help me remember, lowly demon..." Yuan then licked his lips like a starved man craving food.

Chapter 593 - Demon Sealing Zone

"S-Snack on demon cores...? I-Impossible... You can't be...!" The demon quickly realized Yuan's identity, but it didn't dare to actually believe it.

After all, there is only one person in this universe who can consume demon cores, and that individual is the founder of the Demon Sealing Clan, Divine Paragon!

The Divine Paragon is the bane of all demons. No matter how powerful a demon is, they will remain as mere ants before the Divine Paragon, who can kill demons as simple as breathing.

"Y-You cannot be the Divine Paragon! What are you doing here?! Why do you look like that?! Why are you showing your true identity now?!" The demon questioned him.

"Whether I am real or not... Why don't we put that to the test?" Yuan spoke in a calm voice as he slowly approached the demon.

Furthermore, Yuan had activated the golden aura once again, but it was much clearer than previously, and he had complete control over it.

The demon took a step back every time Yuan took a step forward, but it didn't dare to turn around and run, as it was afraid that if it turned its back to Yuan, it would die without realizing what had happened.

However, after walking a dozen steps, the demon suddenly felt something against its back, preventing it from walking back any further.

The demon subconsciously turned around to see what was blocking it, as it was certain that there wasn't anything in that direction, and sure enough, when it looked, there was plenty of empty space behind it.

However, for some reason, it was unable to move any further, almost like there was an invisible wall there.

"Where do you think you're going?" Yuan suddenly spoke to it.

The demon immediately turned to look at Yuan, who had a malicious grin on his face.

"You can force your way outside this formation if you'd like, but just know that the moment you leave this field, you will become sealed. This technique is called the Demon Sealing Zone. Once activated, any demons within the zone will no longer be able to leave. If you do... you'll become sealed."

"D-Demon Sealing Zone?! Y-You really are...!"

The Demon Sealing Zone is one of the Divine Paragon's many unique techniques that allow him to completely turn any demon into powerless mortals, and it is also why all demons fear him.

Once they enter this zone, they will no longer be able to leave for the rest of their lives, and if they force their way out of this imprisonment, they will only be greeted with another form of imprisonment that is getting sealed.

"Since you're just a lowly demon, I will give you a chance to escape." Yuan suddenly said.

"R-Really?!" The demon's eyes flickered with hope.

However, when it heard what Yuan said next, its face sank.

"If you can defeat me, I will let you walk out here without getting sealed."

"Fuck you! You might as well keep me in here forever!" The demon cursed.

Yuan shrugged and said, "Since you'll stay in this place forever, you might as well try and defeat me."

The demon gritted its sharp teeth, but it found no fault in Yuan's words. Indeed, if it doesn't try to defeat him, it will never be able to escape the Demon Sealing Zone that has tormented countless demons before.

The demon prepared to launch its attack on Yuan.

However, right as it was about to strike, Yuan snapped his fingers, forcing the demon onto its knees with a tyrannical pressure that came out of nowhere.

"W-What is the meaning of this?!" The demon shouted out loud.

"You actually think you have a chance to defeat me? A lowly demon such as yourself? Know your place."

The tyrannical pressure suddenly became countless times more powerful, immediately flattening the demon into meat paste the next second.

Of course, the demon regenerated a few seconds later.

The demon tried to lift its head to look at Yuan after recovering, but before it could even lift its head halfway, the pressure flattened its body once again.

Once the demon regenerated, Yuan flattened it for the third time.

Then a fourth time.

A fifth time.

A dozen times.

"Why are you wasting your energy on such pointless attacks? Such attacks have no use on me, as demons don't feel any pain!" The demon managed to speak after regenerating for the 13th time.

"I am merely playing with you. Don't worry, the real punishment starts now."

Yuan snapped his fingers, creating a golden sword made purely out of spiritual energy, before sending it flying at the demon's hand, pinning it to the ground.

"AAAAAH!"

The demon suddenly screamed in pain.

When the demon realized what had just happened, it looked at Yuan with a terrified face.

"What did you do to me?!" The demon roared.

"This must be your first time experiencing real pain, huh? The fact that demons cannot experience pain... is false. Demons also experience pain, but their tolerance to pain is quite admirable— to the point where they don't feel any pain even when their body is turned to meat paste."

"All I did was simply remove your pain tolerance, allowing you to experience pain as normal humans would. Don't worry, you won't die even if you can feel pain, but you will definitely wish for death after I am done with you."

The demon began to sweat for the first time in its life when it saw the sadistic smile on Yuan's face.

However, right as it opened its mouth to speak, the pressure flattened its body once again.

This time, the demon felt every ounce of pain that came from having its entire body crushed into meat paste.

Once it regenerated, the demon shrieked like a pig being slowly slaughtered; it was a ghastly sound that would make even the toughest men on earth tremble in fear if heard.

"Hey, how many humans did you kill today?" Yuan suddenly asked it.

And he continued, "I will crush you ten times for every human you killed. If you don't tell me, I will torture you until I feel like stopping."

The demon stared at Yuan with a terrified gaze.

"You... monster!" It muttered in a powerless voice.

Chapter 594 - A Demons Cry

Chapter 594 - A Demon's Cry

"Hurry up and tell me how many humans you killed today. I'm not a very patient person." Yuan spoke before crushing the demon into meat paste again.

Once it regenerated, the demon muttered in a trembling voice, "I-I don't remember..."

"You don't remember? Maybe this will jog your memories."

Splat!

The demon slammed into the ground, instantly turning into a pool of blood.

"Do you remember now?" Yuan asked it again after it regenerated.

"I—"

However, before it could even speak, Yuan interrupted it by flattening it again.

"AAAHHHH!"

Splat!

"AAAAAAAHHHH!"

Splat!

After flattening the demon a dozen times, Yuan finally stopped flattening it without letting it speak.

"Do you remember now?"

"I-I-I remember! I remember! Please! I remember everything!" The demon quickly responded this time, as it feared that Yuan would flatten it again before it could even speak.

"Speak."

"I-I killed—"

Splat!

The demon was flattened again before it could even give an answer.

Once the demon regenerated, Yuan said in a calm voice, "Oh, my bad. I instinctively flattened you just now."

The demon felt like cursing out loud, but it resisted and spoke, "138 humans! I killed 138 humans today!"

"138 humans, huh? Then I will have to flatten you 13,800 times as punishment." Yuan casually said.

"What?! 13,800?! You said ten times for every human I killed! It should be 1,380 times!" The demon quickly said in a panicked manner.

"Hm? You can do math? How surprising. Either way, I don't have the time to torture you so many times, so I will torture you with a different method."

Yuan snapped his fingers, creating three more golden swords before sending them at the demon's other hand and legs, completely pinning the demon on the ground.

Yuan then summoned one more sword, and this golden sword was twice the size of the other swords.

Once he created the sword, he sent it flying into the demon's back.

"AAAAHHHH!"

The demon roared, feeling indescribable pain that was many times more painful than being flattened into meat paste.

Once all five golden swords were piercing the demon's body, Yuan casually waved his hands.

The next moment—

"AAAAAAAAAAHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHH!"

The demon released its loudest scream yet when a thousand tiny golden swords suddenly burst from within its body, turning the demon's body into something that looked like it had been attacked by a porcupine.

Its eyes, mouth, ears— there were tiny golden swords all over its body.

The pain was so unbearable that the demon lost consciousness.

Unfortunately, the demon's regenerative abilities would kick in a moment later, taking away its peace that lasted only a short moment.

"Please... Stop..."

The demon pleaded with bloody tears flowing down its face.

"Hm? What did you just say? I couldn't hear you, so I will assume that you want to experience it again."

And without waiting for the demon to respond, Yuan created another burst of golden swords inside its body.

"AAAAAAAAAAHHHHHHHHHH!"

The demon's cry echoed in the Jaded Garden that was almost completely evacuated by now.

Meanwhile, Senior Hong and the other two grand elders that stayed behind with Yuan had finally managed to return to the Jaded Garden.

They were shocked to see the destruction caused by the demon, but before they had any chance to ponder about the situation, they heard an inhuman scream coming from the direction of the immortal caves.

The grand elders mistook this inhuman cry as a human crying for help, so they immediately rushed to the scene.

And to their absolute shock, when they arrived at the scene, they could only see Yuan standing in front of a collapsed demon that had many golden swords piercing its body.

The grand elders doubted their eyes for a moment, but they eventually came to the realization that it was actually the demon who was crying for help when they heard the inhuman screams!

However, they didn't dare to approach the scene at this moment, as they felt that something was different— odd about Yuan, so they decided to watch them from a distance.

"Hey, what did you say just now? Can you repeat it for me?" Yuan asked the demon afterward.

"Please... Stop..." The demon pleaded again.

After a moment of silence, Yuan spoke in a cold voice, "I refuse."

And another burst of golden swords assaulted the demon.

However, Yuan didn't stop this time and continued to create golden swords inside the demon's body.

Eventually, the demon's figure was entirely covered in golden swords, making its appearance unrecognizable.

Sometime later, Yuan removed all of the golden swords from the demon's body.

Although the demon was on the verge of going insane, it recognized its chance to escape from this hell, and the moment it could move again, it immediately stood up and began running away.

Yuan could've easily prevented the demon from running, but he didn't do anything and silently watched the demon run.

The demon quickly reached the invisible wall, but it didn't care and continued to move forward, slowly forcing itself out of the Demon Sealing Zone.

"I'd rather be sealed again than let you play with me any further, Divine Paragon!" The demon laughed out loud as it exited the Demon Sealing Zone, feeling relieved that it will all be over soon.

The moment the demon left the formation, its entire body turned into stone, becoming sealed again.

"Yes! He did it! He really defeated the demon!" The grand elders were excited to see the demon sealed again.

Seeing the demon sealing itself, Yuan burst out laughing, and he calmly approached the sealed demon.

Once he was in range, Yuan gently tapped the sealed demon with his finger.

A moment later, cracks began appearing on the sealed demon, shocking the grand elders.

"W-What...?"

The demon, who had lost consciousness after being sealed, was suddenly awake again.

It silently stood there in a daze, wondering to itself if it was dreaming.

Seeing the demon's puzzlement, Yuan spoke with a grin on his face, "Did you really think you could escape my punishment by sealing yourself? If I can seal you... I can also unseal you!"

When the demon heard Yuan's words and realized that it wasn't dreaming, it literally lost its mind from shock and terror, and it also finally understood why even the strongest demons would run away in fear when they hear the name 'Divine Paragon'.

Chapter 595 - Last Breath

"Once a demon opposes me, whether they die or live, is no longer within their control..." Yuan stood before the demon with an overbearing atmosphere around him, looking like an overlord.

The demon, which had lost its sanity, suddenly released a long and beastly roar.

Its glowing red eyes turned dark red, and vigorous veins began popping all over its body.

The demon also grew in size, becoming about 30 percent larger.

Yuan smiled when he saw this, and he muttered in a low voice, "Looks like it's about time I stop playing with my food."

"DIIIIIIEEEEEEEEEEEEEE!!!"

The demon swung its claw-like hands at Yuan with all of its power.

Seeing this, Yuan casually blocked the attack with his bare arms, completely stopping the demon in its tracks despite being an entire realm weaker than it.

After blocking the attack, Yuan suddenly extended his free arm, aiming it at the red crystal in the demon's chest.

Sha!

Yuan's hand pierced the demon's body like how it pierced Azure, before pulling out the red crystal from its chest.

Normally, even if the red crystal is removed from a demon's chest, it would simply turn into blood and return to the demon, but in this case, the red crystal didn't turn into blood and remained as a crystal inside Yuan's grasp.

"Disappear from my sight, you lowly demon."

Yuan then tightened his fist, crushing the red crystal into countless tiny fragments.

The demon suddenly stopped all movements.

A moment later, the demon's body began melting like ice cream under the blazing sun until nothing but its demon core was left.

Once the demon core was revealed, Yuan casually picked it up before putting it inside his mouth without any hesitation, shocking the grand elders.

The demon core immediately melted inside his mouth.

'As expected of a lowly demon, its demon core taste like trash even though it was terrified out of its mind. Looks like no matter how much I scare a lowly demon, it will not enhance the taste by much.' Yuan thought to himself.

Perhaps he was the only one in the universe who had such knowledge—that a demon's core will taste better if the demon was terrified before its death, hence why the Divine Paragon would always play with the demons before killing them.

If the world learned that the Divine Paragon had been torturing demons just to make their demon core taste better inside his mouth, they would begin to question if he was actually the real demon all along.

After killing the demon and consuming its core, Yuan's cultivation base soared from the first level Spirit Master all the way to the peak level Spirit Master!

However, Yuan completely ignored his breakthroughs and turned his focus onto Azure, who was lifelessly lying on the ground.

He approached her before taking a knee beside her.

"I'm sorry, but I do not have the power to save you," he sighed.

Meanwhile, inside his consciousness, Yuan had witnessed the entire scene from beginning to end.

The handsome man wearing the black and golden robe appeared before him again and spoke, "The woman is not dead yet, but she does not have much time left. I will give you a chance to fulfill her dreams before she is no longer in this world." The handsome man said.

The handsome man that had been controlling Yuan's body this entire time began pouring some of his golden aura into Azure's body, sealing all of her pain and waking her up temporarily.

Once he was finished, he returned the control to Yuan.

"Azure!" Yuan called out to her.

"Yuan...? For some reason... I am feeling very tired... and cold..."

Azure slowly opened her eyelids, revealing to Yuan her beautiful blue eyes for the first time and the reason for her name.

"It's okay... You just need some rest..." Yuan said, trying his best to not cry.

"You're right... I haven't been able to sleep properly for the last few days... ever since I met you..." She mumbled in a low voice, still oblivious to her situation.

"Yuan... I'm sorry..."

"Why are you apologizing? I should be the one apologizing to you..."

"I'm sorry... for making things awkward between us so suddenly... If only I was a little more patient..."

"No, don't be sorry... I was happy when you told me..."

"Really? Does this mean you'll accept me as your girlfriend?" Azure asked with a gentle smile on her face.

"Yes... I will accept you as my girlfriend..."

"Thank the heavens... I was really worried... that you would reject me..."

After a moment of silence, Azure spoke, the strength in her voice becoming weaker, "Hey... Yuan... Can you do me a favor before I fall asleep?"

"Of course. Whatever you want."

"Can you kiss me? This will make our relationship official..."

Yuan didn't hesitate and gently kissed Azure on her soft lips, but it was one that tasted like blood.

"I love you, Yuan..."

Azure took her last breath after that sentence before falling asleep with a blissful smile on her beautiful face.

After Azure left this world, Yuan also collapsed, as the toll on his body had finally caught up with him, sending him into a deep coma.

Seeing this, the grand elders finally decided to approach them.

"Are they still alive?" Senior Li asked.

Senior Hong went to check Yuan's pulses first and nodded, "He's still alive."

"As for Azure... I'm afraid she's no longer with us..." Senior Hong sighed after checking her pulses.

"What a tragedy..." Senior Shi shook his head.

"Let's hurry up and get Daoist Yuan out of here and to a hospital. He might be in critical condition." Senior Li then said.

"I will take care of Daoist Yuan. You guys take care of the rest." Senior Hong then picked up Yuan and quickly disappeared from the scene.

Meanwhile, Senior Shi and Senior Li contacted Senior Wang and the other grand elders, telling them that the demon had been dealt with and that they were safe to return to the Jaded Garden.

"What?! The demon has been defeated?! Are you sure about this?!" Senior Wang stood up from her seat as she exclaimed.

"Yes, we witnessed Yuan defeating the demon with our own eyes." Senior Li confirmed.

"We are coming back! Tell us everything once we return!"

Senior Wang then told the pilots to turn the airplane around, returning to the Jaded Garden.

Chapter 596 - Founder Of The Demon Sealing Clan

After arriving in Yang City, Meixiu and Sebastian rented out a hotel to stay in for the time being, as Chu Liuxiang was still unconscious.

"Brother Yuan!"

Chu Liuxiang woke up shouting about half an hour after they arrived at the hotel.

"W-Where are we?! Where's Brother Yuan?!" Chu Liuxiang asked Meixiu, who was in the same room.

"We are currently in Yang City," she replied.

"What about Brother Yuan?!"

"He's... still in the Jaded Garden..."

"Why?! Why did you leave him behind?! I thought you loved him!" Chu Liuxiang cried out loud.

"Calm down, Young Lady." Sebastian suddenly said.

"It was the Young Master's decision. If you truly love him, you would respect his wishes."

"T-That's..." Chu Liuxiang was immediately left speechless by Sebastian's words. Clearly, he was used to dealing with her.

"Believe in the Young Master. He's destined to achieve great things in the future, so he won't die there," Sebastian continued.

"I guess you're right... But what are we going to do now? I cannot just sit around and do nothing! Call my father! We're going to request his help to deal with the demon!" Chu Liuxiang then said.

"I have already notified the Masters of the situation. They are currently pondering on how they should approach this problem as we speak. We can only wait for their response now."

"This situation is much direr than you probably think, Young Lady. If the demon is allowed to run rampant, it could very well be the end of humanity."

"Haaa..." Chu Liuxiang sighed.

Sometime later, Meixiu suddenly received a call from Senior Wang.

"Feng! You need to return to the Jaded Garden! The demon has been defeated, but Daoist Yuan is currently in a critical condition!"

"What?!" Meixiu exclaimed in a shocked voice.

"I will be there as soon as possible!"

"What happened?" Chu Liuxiang asked her.

"It's Yuan! The demon's been defeated, but he's in a critical condition!" She quickly explained.

"What?! Brother Yuan is in a critical condition?! What happened to him?!" Chu Liuxiang completely ignored the part where Yuan defeated the demon and focused only on his condition.

"I don't know— we won't know until we return to the Jaded Garden."

"Sebastian!" Chu Liuxiang turned to look at him.

"R-Right away!" Sebastian had a delayed response since he was shocked to learn that Yuan had defeated the demon already.

Thus, they began making their way back to the Jaded Garden.

Meanwhile, inside the Six Spiritual Families' private hospital, Yuan was being taken care of by a dozen doctors at once.

They were preparing to do surgery on Yuan because of the massive injury in the center of his chest, but to their absolute shock, by the time they finished their preparations, the injury had closed on its own!

It was unlike anything they have ever seen before, and they questioned if Yuan was human or not afterward.

"Where am I? Am I dead?"

Yuan wondered to himself as he was surrounded by nothing but darkness somewhere deep within his consciousness.

"No, you're still alive." A voice suddenly responded to him.

Yuan turned around to see two figures standing behind him— both of them being the handsome man, but there were slight differences between them, such as their aura and demeanor.

One of them appeared to be the usual handsome man— the one who would appear in his dream the most often.

The second one appeared only recently, and he was the one who dealt with the demon.

"Why are there two of you? Are you the same person or two different people?" Yuan asked them.

The two of them looked at each other before smiling.

"Both." They responded simultaneously.

"We're both the same person but different people at the same time. You're also the same as us, yet you're a different person. Do you understand?"

"Reincarnation? But how can there be two of you?" Yuan then asked.

"Do you think a person can only reincarnate once? One can continue to reincarnate until their soul is broken or worn out, and with every reincarnation, one's soul becomes weaker, so not everyone is equal. Some people can only reincarnate once before their soul is worn out while others can reincarnate two... even three times." The Divine Paragon explained.

"How many times have I reincarnated by now? There's two of you right now, and that person who was wielding a spear is most likely one as well, so there's at least three." Yuan said.

"Who knows." They both shrugged.

Yuan then turned to look at the handsome man wearing the 'Bane of Demons' robe and said, "You're the Founder of the Demon Sealing Clan, right? But that only exists in Cultivation Online. Are you telling me that Cultivation Online is actually real— that it exists somewhere in this universe?"

"It's good to finally see you using your senses. Did that woman's death wake you up?" The other handsome man laughed.

Yuan gritted his teeth when the topic suddenly switched to Azure.

However, before he could say anything, the Founder of the Demon Sealing Clan spoke in a solemn voice, "It's not over just yet."

"What isn't over?"

"Both the demon and Azure," he responded.

"W-What do you mean by that?"

"You may have defeated one demon today, but do you really think that there is only a single demon in your world? You'll probably have to fight a few more in the future when they eventually break from their seal."

"What?! There are more demons out there?!" Yuan exclaimed.

"Most likely, so you better prepare yourself before they break from their seal, or what happened to Azure will repeat again, and it could be either Meixiu or Chu Liuxiang who will take their last breath in your arms next," said the Divine Paragon.

"As for Azure... You might be able to see her again."

"Really?! How?!" Yuan no longer cared about the demons that might appear in the future and asked.

Divine Paragon then said, "Do you remember when I mentioned that a person can reincarnate as long as their soul is unharmed? If you find her soul..."

"Then I can reincarnate her?! Where can I find her soul?!"

Divine Paragon shook his head, "I cannot answer all of your questions now, but you might be able to find these answers, as well as your true origin, inside Cultivation Online."

"Cultivation Online..." Yuan mumbled.

Chapter 597 - Aftermath

"Brother Yuan! Where's Brother Yuan?!" Chu Liuxiang rushed to the hospital after returning to the Jaded Garden with Meixiu and Sebastian.

"Daoist Yuan is currently resting in the patient room." Senior Wang said to them.

"What about his condition?" Meixiu then asked.

"Don't worry, he's no longer in a critical condition."

"Thank you..." Meixiu released a deep and relieved sigh.

"We don't deserve your gratitude, as we didn't really do anything. There was a massive hole in the center of Daoist Yuan's chest, but it closed up on its own before we could treat it."

"However, he's still in a coma, and we don't know when he'll wake up."

Senior Wang then led them to the room that Yuan was resting in.

Inside the room, the other grand elders as well as some of the elite disciples such as Wang Ming and Li Jinxi were there.

"Brother Yuan!"

Chu Liuxiang ran to the bed where Yuan was resting.

"What happened after we left?" Meixiu asked them.

"Take a seat. It's a long story." Senior Hong said.

Once they were seated, he began telling them about what had happened after they were separated.

"After all of you left, we stayed behind to stall the demon, but it was simply too strong, overpowering Daoist Yuan even though he was using his golden aura that allowed him to defeat Li Jinxi effortlessly."

"As shameful as this sounds, we didn't really do anything, as we were all frozen from shock. If you were there to witness the demon that looked like something from hell, you would understand..."

"Daoist Yuan slashed the demon in half more times than we can count, tearing holes in its face every few seconds, but no matter what kind of damage he did to the demon, it would regenerate completely within mere seconds."

"After fighting for some time, the demon suddenly ran away from the tomb for some reason, and we chased after it."

"Daoist Yuan was much faster than us, so he went ahead."

"By the time we returned to the Jaded Garden, the demon had already gone on a rampage, killing many disciples, and we are still figuring out how many people had fallen to the demon."

"Shortly after we arrived at the Jaded Garden, we heard this inhuman scream coming from the immortal caves. We thought it was someone crying for help, so we rushed there as soon as possible."

"However, to our shock, when we arrived, we could only see Daoist Yuan and the demon—with the demon being pinned on the ground by some glowing swords. We decided to remain distanced to watch the situation, and we quickly realized that it was the demon that had been screaming for help."

"We don't know what happened to Daoist Yuan, but he seemed like an entirely different person when he fought the demon for the second time, completely overwhelming it without giving it any chance to fight back, even torturing and playing with the demon like it was some kind of toy."

"Yuan...?" Meixiu was shocked to hear that Yuan had tortured the demon, as that didn't sound like him at all.

"Also... Azure was one of the victims..." Senior Hong said to Senior Wang.

"Aiya! Azure! Why did I forget to warn her?" Senior Wang immediately slapped herself after hearing Azure's name, as she had completely forgotten about Azure, who would normally spend most of her time inside the immortal caves, not to mention how overwhelmed she was from the situation.

"So Junior Sister Azure is gone..." Wang Ming shook his head.

Azure was actually one of their most talented disciple who could comprehend many techniques with ease, but ever since she became blind, she would spend most of her time mastering the zither.

'Azure? That new friend Yuan made recently?' Meixiu thought to herself.

Although Yuan had mentioned that he made a new friend who can play the zither, they never really met Azure.

"Anyways, Daoist Yuan defeated the demon and ended the calamity shortly after." Senior Hong said.

"What should we do now?" Wang Ming asked.

"We first need to figure out the casualties so that we can notify their family, then we'll restore the areas destroyed by the demon. Once all of that is finished, we will figure the rest out." Senior Li said.

And for the next week, the Six Spiritual Families would work on restoring the Jaded Garden. As for Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang, they remained beside Yuan the whole time in the hospital.

Of course, news of what happened at the Jaded Garden had spread throughout the world, and the existence of demons was revealed to everyone.

News reporters flooded the Jaded Garden in hopes of getting interviews with the Six Spiritual Families, but they were all turned away.

Government from around the world also approached the Six Spiritual Families for questioning, and they were much harder to turn away for obvious reasons, so the Six Spiritual Families spoke with them.

And for Yuan's safety, the Six Spiritual Families didn't mention the person who defeated the demon, only saying that some powerful cultivator appeared out of thin air, defeating the demon in a blink before disappearing as quickly.

Of course, people knew that Yuan had fought with the demon, as Senior Wang had told everyone when they evacuated, but nobody besides very few people knew the whole story.

Yuan remained unconscious this entire time with nobody knowing when he'll wake up again.

While he was unconscious, Yuan would speak with the Divine Paragon and the handsome man whose identity was still unknown, and he would also regain some of his old memories.

Two weeks after the demon was defeated, Yuan finally woke up from his deep slumber.

"Brother Yuan! You're awake!" Chu Liuxiang was the first to notice his condition, as she would spend most of her time staring at his face.

Meixiu stopped her cultivation when she heard Chu Liuxiang's voice, and she quickly went to check on Yuan.

"Are you okay, Yuan? Can you speak?" Meixiu asked him.

Chapter 598 - The Calamity Is Not Over Yet

"I am fine... Where am I? And how long have I been asleep?" Yuan asked in a low voice.

"We are currently inside the Six Spiritual Families' private hospital, and you have been asleep for about two weeks now," Meixiu said.

"That long?" Yuan slowly sat up on the bed.

"I'm sorry if I made you two worried, but I am fine." He said to them a moment later.

"Wait right here. I will get the doctors to check your condition." Meixiu then went to call for a doctor.

After checking Yuan's body, the doctor said, "His body is a little weak right now, but besides that, everything is normal."

"Thank you, doctor."

"I need to speak with the grand elders," Yuan said to Meixiu.

"The calamity... It's not over yet."

"W-What...?" Meixiu's eyes widened with shock.

"What do you mean the calamity isn't over yet?! Didn't you defeat the demon already?" Chu Liuxiang quickly asked.

"Yes, the demon is gone. However, that isn't the only demon in this world. There are other sealed demons in this world, and they will eventually break from their seal."

"Unbelievable... So we'll have to deal with this again?" Meixiu muttered in a voice of disbelief.

Sometime later, the grand elders gathered at the hospital inside Yuan's room.

"Daoist Yuan! It's relieving to see you finally awake! I haven't had a wink of sleep for the last two weeks!" Senior Hong laughed when he saw Yuan awake.

"Senior Wang, did you bring the crystal?" Yuan asked her a moment later.

"Yes, but why do you need it?" Senior Wang retrieved the wooden box.

"Can you show me the crystal inside?"

Hearing Yuan's words, Senior Wang and the other grand elders could sense an ominous feeling in the air.

After taking a deep breath, Senior Wang opened the box, revealing the crystal inside.

"I-I-Impossible! Why is the crystal still yellow?! The calamity should have ended when the demon died!" Senior Hong exclaimed in a shocked voice.

"How do you know this, Daoist Yuan?" Senior Wang then asked.

Yuan took a moment to ponder an excuse before speaking, "The demon told me right before its death—that it wasn't alone in this world and that its comrades will eventually break out of its seal as well."

"Heavens..."

Senior Hong fell on his butt after hearing Yuan's words.

This means they will have to fight even more demons in the future, and if they are any stronger than the one they have already defeated, it will be a very grim moment for the world.

"Don't worry, I will take care of the demons." Yuan suddenly said.

And he continued in a cold voice, "I will personally eradicate every single demon in this world until there is none left!"

Everyone in the room swallowed nervously when they saw the cold expression on Yuan's face as he spoke those words.

Clearly, defeating demons has become something personal for him after Azure's death.

"Although we most likely won't be of any help to you when it comes to fighting demons, if you need anything, please let us know." Senior Li said to him.

"Yes, we owe you a great amount for defeating the demon. If it wasn't for you, our entire Jaded Garden would've been destroyed, and there would have been far more casualties." Senior Wang added.

She then handed the crystal to Yuan.

"This crystal can probably tell when a demon is about to break from its seal, so it will be more useful in your hands than ours. Please, take it."

Yuan nodded and accepted the crystal.

Sometime later, Senior Hong asked, "Daoist Yuan, what are you going to do now?"

"I am going home, then I will create my own faction," he responded.

"In order to create a faction, you will need more than three people. We can send you some of our own disciples to help you create your faction. If you want them to leave or even stay in your faction afterward, it's all up to you." Senior Wang said.

"Thank you." Yuan nodded.

Sometime later, Yuan and the others returned to the immortal caves to pick up whatever they left behind in a hurry.

"Senior Wang, do you mind if I take these two zithers with me?" Yuan asked her permission to take Azure's zithers.

"Go ahead." Senior Wang nodded.

And then she said, "If you wish to visit her grave before you leave..."

"Of course." Yuan nodded.

Senior Wang then brought him to where they buried all of the victims from the demon's rampage, and there was a total of 138 graves.

"This one is Azure's resting spot." Senior Wang showed him the way.

Yuan took a seat in front of her grave, and he placed Azure's zither on his lap.

He then started playing the zither, and it was one of the songs that he'd learned from Azure during their time together.

After playing the song, Yuan stood up and prayed, "If there's really a chance for us to play the zither again... I will make it happen... I promise..."

Sometime later, Yuan turned to Senior Wang and bowed to her, "Thank you for everything. I will ask for an alliance with the Spiritual Elites once I create my faction."

"Let us know before you create your faction so that we can send our disciples to you." Senior Wang nodded.

"Of course."

After saying his goodbyes with the other grand elders, Yuan left the Jaded Garden with Meixiu and the others, using Chu Liuxiang's helicopter to get out of the place.

"We're going to return to our apartment first. What are you going to do now, Lulu?" Yuan asked her while they were in the air.

"I am going to follow you, of course. There is no way that I would leave before you create your faction," she said.

Once they arrived at Yang City, Yuan and Meixiu followed Chu Liuxiang to her private airplane, where they begin their journey back home.

Chapter 599 - Returning Home

"Brother Yuan, you can be pretty cruel at times, you know?" Chu Liuxiang suddenly said to him after they lifted into the air in their private plane.

"Eh? Why would you say that?" Yuan asked in a dumbfounded voice.

"You already forgot about hitting me with a sword and knocking me unconscious?" Chu Liuxiang puffed her cheeks in an angry yet cute manner.

"O-Oh... That... I'm sorry, but if I didn't do that, you could've gotten hurt for real." Yuan apologized.

"I understand why you did it, and I am thankful that you did, but I cannot help but be upset about it. Therefore, as punishment, you'll have to hug me while we sleep tonight!" Chu Liuxiang then said.

Yuan didn't say anything and merely nodded with a slight smile on his face.

And for the rest of the flight, Yuan would remain relatively silent, seemingly in deep thoughts the whole time.

Neither Meixiu nor Chu Liuxiang tried to speak with him when they saw his mood, as they can tell that he was still in pain from what happened at the Jaded Garden, and sometimes, it was the better choice to let them ponder in peace than to try and comfort them.

After the whole incident in the Jaded Garden, Yuan's view of this world has flipped upside-down, and coupled with the new revelation that Cultivation Online exists somewhere in this universe, Yuan wasn't sure how he should do next.

The next day, when they had only two hours left before landing, Yuan gathered Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang for a conversation.

"Do either of you know how to actually create a faction or how to maintain it?" Yuan asked them.

"I have looked into it after you said that you wanted to create one, so I know the basics," Meixiu said.

"I don't think you have to worry about maintaining the faction if you do not plan on mass recruiting people. Even if there's a dozen of us in the end, we really don't have to do much, at least when compared to factions that have to deal with hundreds if not thousands of people." Chu Liuxiang said.

"Makes sense." Yuan nodded.

"Then can I trouble you two to help me create and maintain the faction? I will be very busy in Cultivation Online soon," he continued.

"Cultivation Online? Shouldn't you be preparing to fight the other demons when they eventually break out of their seal?" Chu Liuxiang looked at him with wide eyes.

How can one possibly think about playing a game when they still have the calamity to worry about?

Yuan remained silent for a moment before speaking, "This is going to sound crazy, but I believe that the world of Cultivation Online actually exists somewhere in this universe."

As he'd expected, both Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang looked at him with dumbfounded looks on their faces.

"How else do you explain why cultivation techniques from Cultivation Online work in this world? What about how eating treasures in Cultivation Online can affect our real bodies? I think that the device we use to play Cultivation Online somehow allows us to travel to the world of Cultivation Online."

"Wait... What do you mean eating treasures can affect our real body?" Chu Liuxiang asked, as she wasn't aware of this knowledge.

"If you eat a high-grade treasure in Cultivation Online, there's a chance that its effect could transfer to your real body. We have tested it, and it works." Meixiu explained, and she proceeded to tell Chu Liuxiang about that time she consumed a Berserker's Gem in Cultivation Online and how it affected her real body, giving her incredible strength.

"Unbelievable... To think that such things can happen... If that's the case, then Brother Yuan doesn't sound as crazy anymore. However, how does any of this work, really? How does the device allow us to travel to the world inside Cultivation Online? What about the NPCs there? They may act like real humans, but they never question the weird things that we do, such as respawning or disappearing and reappearing out of thin air."

"I cannot answer any of these questions right now, but I believe that we'll find the answers in Cultivation Online," Yuan said.

"As for the sealed demons that will appear in the future, I will be prepared for them when they break out of their seal. What happened at the Jaded Garden will not happen again."

And for the remainder of their flight, the three of them would talk about their new faction.

"Do you already have a name in mind for the faction?" Meixiu asked him.

Yuan nodded and said, "It will be called the Demon Sealing Faction. In the world of Cultivation Online, there is a power called the Demon Sealing Clan, and their sole purpose is to seal demons. I want to bring their purpose to this world."

And he continued, "Don't worry, I don't intend on letting you guys share the burden of sealing demons. I will do that alone."

"That's not right, Brother Yuan. If we're going to be in the same faction, we're going to be helping you! We may not have the powers to defeat demons, but that doesn't mean we cannot help you defeat them!" Chu Liuxiang said.

Yuan pondered for a moment before nodding, "Alright. Then I will teach you guys some demon sealing techniques so that you won't be completely hopeless before a demon."

Two hours later, they landed the airplane and made their way back to the apartment.

"It feels like it's been forever since we left this place." Yuan sighed out loud as he sat on the couch.

"So this is your home, huh?" Chu Liuxiang began snooping around the place while Sebastian carried her luggage inside.

"Young Lady, the Masters said to call them when you get the chance. They want to make sure that you're okay." Sebastian said to her afterward.

"Hm? Okay." Chu Liuxiang nodded as she went inside Yuan's bedroom.

"This must be your room, Brother Yuan. It smells like you." Chu Liuxiang said with a smile on her face after taking a deep breath.

She then laid on the bed and continued, "This will also be my room starting today!"

Chapter 600 - Creating Their Own Faction

"Oh, right. Yuan, you should call Yu Rou. Although I'd already explained the situation to her, you should still speak with her." Meixiu said to him after unpacking their luggage.

"Okay."

Meixiu then handed her phone to him.

"Hello? Yu Rou? It's me, Yuan."

"Brother! Are you okay?!"

"Yes, I am fine."

"I'm sorry that I couldn't be there for you..."

"I would actually prefer it if you weren't here. I don't want you to be in such a dangerous situation." Yuan said.

After talking for a few minutes, Yu Rou asked, "What are you going to do now that you're back home?"

"I am going to create my own faction and focus on Cultivation Online."

"Eh? You're going to create your own faction? When?"

"As soon as we can, I guess."

"Why did you wait so long to make your faction, brother? If you'd told me earlier, I would've joined you! I am too invested in my faction to leave now..."

"Sorry..." Yuan had nothing else to say.

"Well... Make sure you visit me soon."

"I will when I get the chance."

After talking for a few more minutes, Yu Rou hung up the phone.

"Yuan, I have contacted Senior Wang. She said that she'll send a few people our way as soon as possible. We can create our faction as soon as they arrive." Meixiu said to him.

"Are you going to return to Cultivation Online now?" Meixiu then asked him.

"No, I will spend a few more days clearing my mind before I return," he said.

"Okay."

And for the remainder of the day, Yuan would cultivate in silence, trying his best to clear his mind. Of course, it was much easier said than done, as what happened at the Jaded Garden really affected his mind.

Once it was time to sleep, Chu Liuxiang eagerly jumped on Yuan's bed while wearing her see-through pajamas.

"We're going to be alone tonight, Brother Yuan." Chu Liuxiang giggled like a child.

"Yes, we are." He calmly said as he also entered the bed.

However, Chu Liuxiang didn't take advantage of their time alone, as she didn't want to advance their relationship while he was still feeling down.

'If I am going to start a family with him, it should be done when we're both happy and eager.' Chu Liuxiang thought to herself as she slept beside Yuan.

Meanwhile, on the other side of the room, Meixiu was having a hard time sleeping for obvious reasons, as she couldn't get her mind off the fact that Yuan was currently alone with a bold woman like Chu Liuxiang, who also has plenty of ambitions.

The following morning, Meixiu woke up early to cook breakfast, something she hasn't done in a while.

"Shall I help you out with breakfast?" Sebastian asked her.

"It's fine, you're the guest here," Meixiu said to him.

Sebastian nodded and returned to cultivating.

Shortly after Meixiu began cooking, Chu Liuxiang came outside of Yuan's room with a sleepy look on her face.

Meixiu turned to look at her with a questioning gaze.

Chu Liuxiang smiled and said, "Don't worry, I won't do anything for now, but once he's fully recovered, I will do it."

"You don't have to tell me that," Meixiu shook her head.

Once breakfast was ready, everyone sat around the table to eat.

"It's been a while since I tasted this flavor," Yuan said.

"Looks like you can cook a little, but compared to Sebastian, you're still lacking." Chu Liuxiang said, yet she kept eating without any breaks until she finished.

After breakfast, Yuan took a seat in his bedroom and began cultivating, but he had no intentions of trying to breakthrough to Spirit Grandmaster. Instead, he was doing it just to clear his mind.

Meanwhile, Chu Liuxiang would lay on the bed, silently watching Yuan cultivate.

"Don't you get tired doing that all day?" Meixiu asked her at the end of the day.

"Nope. I can watch him all day," she said.

Sometime in the afternoon the following day, Meixiu received a text from Senior Wang, stating that the disciples should be arriving at their apartment soon.

"They are here already? That was faster than I anticipated." Yuan said.

And sure enough, about ten minutes later, they can hear someone knocking on the door.

Meixiu went to open the door, and to her surprise, all of them were elite disciples from the Spiritual Elite, such as Wang Ming, Wang Bingbing, Shi Lang, Xi Murong, Hong Xiuquan, Wu Zao, and even Li Jinxi.

Basically, everyone that had participated in the Spirit Competition was there.

"Hey! We're here to help you create your faction! Of course, if you want us to leave afterward, we won't hold any hard feelings!" Wang Ming said to them with a wide smile on his face.

"Aren't you all elite disciples of the Spiritual Elites? Are the Six Spiritual Families really fine with sending away all of their most talented disciples to our faction?" Chu Liuxiang asked.

"Of course. Not only do we have our parents' approval, but even the grand elders urged us to join you guys." Shi Lang replied.

It was clear what the Six Spiritual Families' intentions were by sending all of their most talented disciples there.

If Yuan couldn't join them, they will simply join him instead! Furthermore, once they form an alliance with each other, it would no longer matter which faction they stay in.

And even if they stay in Yuan's faction, they are still affiliated with the Spiritual Elites and the Six Spiritual Families by blood.

"Thank you all for coming here," Yuan said to them.

"It's actually a pleasure for us to be here! When do you want to create your faction?" Wang Ming then asked.

"We can do that right now. Just give us a moment to prepare and we'll head out."

"Okay."

A few minutes later, Yuan and Meixiu wore their masks before going outside.

"In order to create our faction, we'll need to head to the Cultivators' Association," Meixiu said.

"The Cultivators' Association? I didn't think we would go back there so soon..." Yuan sighed.

Chapter 601 - Demon Sealing Faction

"Yuan, I have been wondering this ever since I learned that you were blind... But how do you see where you're going? You can move and even fight better than most people who can see... I almost didn't believe it when I first heard it." Wang Ming said to him as they walked down the street as one big group.

"Although I am blind... I am not actually blind. I can see using divine sense." Yuan said, and he began explaining to them about divine sense.

"The grand elders are Spirit Masters as well, but they cannot use divine sense." Wang Bingbing shook her head.

"By the way, what's the faction going to be called?" Shi Lang then asked.

"Demon Sealing Faction," Yuan calmly responded.

"D-Demon Sealing...?" They all looked at him with wide eyes.

"Does this mean..."

"Yes, our purpose is to deal with the demons that will eventually break out of their seal. Of course, I don't actually expect any of you to fight the demons. I can handle them alone, but if you wish to learn how to seal demons, I can teach you."

"Really?! You'll teach us how to defeat demons?!" Wang Ming exclaimed in an excited voice.

After what happened at the Jaded Garden, he wished that he had the ability to fight demons.

"If that's what you want." Yuan nodded.

Sometime later, they arrived at the Cultivators' Association that was as busy as ever with cultivators mostly at the Spirit Apprentice level walking around.

Yuan took a deep breath, clearing the bad memories he had in this place, before walking inside with the others.

Upon entering the building, Meixiu said, "Follow me."

She brought them to the faction area, where people go to create or advertise their factions.

"Hello, how may I help you?" The receptionist sitting behind the desk asked.

"We're here to register for a new faction," Meixiu said.

"A new faction, right? Do you wish to be an official faction or merely a faction in name?" The receptionist then asked.

"What's the difference?"

"In order to become an official faction, you must pay a certain fee to be registered in the official faction list. As an official faction, you will get to advertise at our Cultivators' Association and receive recognition from the government."

"If you only want to be a faction in name, you will still be registered in the system, but you won't be recognized as a real faction." The receptionist explained.

"So it's all about the money in the end, huh?" Wang Ming laughed.

And he continued, "I don't think we need to pay them to be an official faction. Once the people realize who is running the faction, they will have no choice but to consider us official, right, Yuan?"

'W-Wait... Did he just say 'Yuan'?' The receptionist doubted his ears.

Then he realized that two of them were wearing masks, something Player Yuan was known for.

"A-Are you perhaps Player Yuan?" The receptionist asked the one that emitted the stronger presence.

"Yes, I am." Yuan calmly responded.

"P-Please give me a moment..."

The receptionist then picked up the phone and dialed a number.

"Yes... Player Yuan is here at desk number 3..."

The receptionist hung up after that sentence and returned to them with a nervous smile on his face.

"Our chairman will personally take care of you, esteemed guests," he said.

Two minutes later, they could see a middle-aged man with a short but neat beard running in their direction.

"W-Welcome to the Cultivators' Association, Player Yuan! I am Chairman Lee, Chairman Zhao's replacement following his resignation. First and foremost, allow me to personally apologize for what happened previously. I promise that no such thing will ever happen again as long as I am the Chairman." Chairman Lee respectfully bowed to them.

This attracted the people there.

"Hey... Isn't that person with the black mask Player Yuan? What's he doing back at the Cultivators' Association? Did they offend him again?"

Meanwhile, Yuan remained calm and said, "What happened in the past has nothing to do with you, so I don't understand why you feel the need to apologize to me. Just let it go."

"Thank you for your pardon. Now then, how may I help you?"

"We're here to start our own faction," Yuan said.

"Of course. Allow me to help you." Chairman Lee then turned to look at the receptionist with an intensive gaze.

The receptionist quickly stepped aside to allow Chairman Lee to get behind the desk. This is the first time the receptionist has seen Chairman Lee so eager to work their job.

"Alright, I am ready. I just need the details now— Oh, right. I nearly forgot. You need at least 10 people to create a faction, or I won't be able to register it in the system."

"We have ten people here," Yuan said.

"Great. Then let's start with the name of the faction."

"Demon Sealing Faction," Yuan immediately said.

"D-Demon...?" Chairman Lee looked at Yuan with a dazed face for a good moment before snapping out of it and typing it into the computer.

"As for the leader of the faction... I am assuming it's going to be you?" Chairman Lee asked him a moment later.

"Who else is more qualified to be the leader than him here?" Li Jinxi sneered, almost as though she was mocking his question.

"I-I understand... What about the vice-leaders? You can have two of them at most."

Yuan then said, "Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang."

After typing their name into the system, Chairman Lee spoke, "Can I have the others' name now?"

Wang Ming and the others began giving their names one by one.

Once all of their names were in the system, Chairman Lee created their faction.

Normally, a newly registered faction would need to be vetted first before they are approved, but with Chairman Lee's position within the Cultivators' Association, they easily skipped all of those steps and instantly got approved as an official faction.

"Congratulations, your faction 'Demon Sealing Faction' has been created. If you ever need anything or have any questions, you are free to contact me at any time and I will do my best to help you..." Chairman Lee said to them afterward.

Chapter 602 - Qi Device

"Does this mean we are done here?" Yuan asked after their faction was created.

"Not completely. Your faction has been created, but we still need some more information, such as the location of your faction headquarters, and if you want, you can register your members' cultivation base into the system so that we can rank your faction." Chairman Lee said.

And he continued, "Of course, the higher rank your faction, the more benefit you can receive."

"The location of our faction?" Yuan mumbled.

"What if we don't have a location yet?" He then asked.

"That's completely fine. It's not required to have a headquarter for your faction, but most factions have one, as it makes them look more professional. Also, it would make things more convenient for the members if they can all live in the same area."

Yuan turned around and asked the others, "Well? What do you guys think?"

"We don't have any living quarters at the moment since we weren't sure if you wanted us to stay afterward, but we can live in hotels or rent out someplace near your apartment if it's too much to get our own headquarters since they're not cheap." Wang Ming said.

"If it's a money issue, we can simply ask our families for help." Li Jinxi said calmly.

"I think it's more of a location issue since I don't have any ideas where we should make our headquarters," Yuan said.

"If you need help looking for a headquarter, our Cultivators' Association can help you. We have specialists for this kind of stuff. We will help you scout out areas based on your preferences, and we can give out loans with zero interest if you need help with money." Chairman Lee suddenly said, realizing that this is a perfect opportunity to make things right between the Cultivators' Association and Yuan, whose faction will surely become a top power in the near future.

Yuan pondered for a moment before nodding his head, "Okay, we'll rely on you to scout for a place."

"Very well! Just let me know the details and the Cultivators' Association will do everything in its power to find you a suitable place! Are there any more questions?"

"Then can you tell me about the faction ranking and what kind of benefit we can receive?" Yuan then asked.

"Of course! Every faction can be ranked depending on its overall prowess and influence. From the lowest rank to the highest, we have Bronze, Silver, Gold, Platinum, and lastly, Crimson."

"As for the benefits... You can receive monthly allowances and assistance from the Cultivators' Association and all of our allies." Chairman Lee then continued.

"The rank and benefits only matter if you join the Cultivators' Association. The Spiritual Elites doesn't have any rank because we didn't join the Cultivators' Association, but we would easily qualify for the highest rank." Wang Ming said.

"I see..." Yuan nodded.

"Actually, you can still receive an official rank and some benefits even if you don't join the Cultivators' Association. It just won't compare to those who join our Cultivators' Association, and it'll be harder to get approved." Chairman Lee explained.

"If we don't have to join the Cultivators' Association to receive a rank, we will do it." Yuan then said.

Even though he couldn't care less about their rank, he wanted to see how they compared to the other factions.

"Very well. Please give me a moment."

Chairman Lee then retrieved something from under the desk.

"This is a Qi Device, it can analyze spiritual energy and determine one's cultivation with fairly good accuracy. It was only created very recently as well. Try it out."

Yuan and the others looked at this machine with raised eyebrows.

"Here, let me show you." Chairman Lee then placed his hand on this machine before pressing a red button.

A few moments later, the words 'Ninth Level Spirit Apprentice' appeared on the screen.

"Let me try next!" Wang Ming was the first one amongst them to try out the machine.

After putting his hands on the machine, he waited for the results.

"T-Third Level Spirit Warrior?!" Chairman Lee's eyes widened with shock when he saw the results.

"Third level? That's not right. I'm actually at the seventh level Spirit Warrior." Wang Ming corrected him.

"What?" Chairman Lee looked at Wang Ming with a look of disbelief on his face.

"Maybe the machine isn't ready for cultivators above Spirit Warrior since most people are still Spirit Apprentices." Shi Lang said.

"That makes sense." Wang Ming nodded.

"If that's the case, there's no point for the rest of us to try it since we're all above Spirit Warrior and it won't be able to accurately tell our cultivation." Xi Murong said.

Chairman Lee was left speechless by Xi Murong's words. They were all above Spirit Warrior? Where on earth did so many geniuses come from?

"I-I am sorry for the inconveniences. It will probably take some more time before these machines can handle Spirit Warriors..." Chairman Lee apologized to them.

"It might even take a few years before they can handle Yuan, who is already a Spirit Master." Wang Ming laughed out loud.

"Anyways, since we cannot accurately gauge your cultivation level, let's just focus on your headquarters for now. What kind of preferences do you have in mind? Such as the scenery, the size of the building, and your budget."

Yuan pondered for a moment before speaking, "I don't really care about the scenery or the location as it's in a convenient area. As for the size of the place... I would prefer it if it could fit over 10, even 20 people comfortably. As for our budget... it doesn't matter either."

Chairman Lee continued to ask Yuan a few more questions about what he wanted for their headquarters.

Fifteen minutes later, Chairman Lee nodded, "All done. Please give us a week to scout for your headquarters. I will notify you the moment we finish."

"Okay." Yuan nodded.

"It was a pleasure helping you. I look forward to the day your faction reaches the top." Chairman Lee said to them before leaving the scene.

Yuan and the others left the Cultivators' Association shortly afterward.

Chapter 603 - Returning To Cultivation Online

"Where will you guys be staying until we have our headquarters?" Yuan asked Wang Ming and the others.

"We'll probably rent a hotel somewhere close to your apartment. It'll only be for around a week, anyway." Wang Ming said.

"What about you? What are you going to be doing in the meantime?" Li Jinxi asked him, as she was hoping to train with him while they waited.

"I am going to return to Cultivation Online. It's been a very long time since I last stepped foot in that world, after all," he said.

"Cultivation Online?" The elite disciples raised their eyebrows simultaneously.

Although they have played Cultivation Online before, none of them took it seriously.

'Maybe he wants to get his mind off that incident by indulging himself in Cultivation Online...'

All of the elite disciples had a similar thought, so they didn't question him.

Sometime later, Yuan and the elite disciples went their separate ways.

"I didn't think he'd really allow us to stay." Xi Murong said once they left.

"Why not? He's a very nice guy if you get to know him." Wang Ming said.

"Really? I feel nervous when he's around. His presence is extraordinary."

"That doesn't mean he's a bad person. In fact, he can be quite humble at times."

"Anyways, let's hurry up and find a hotel. I need to tell my parents that Yuan has officially created his faction." Shi Lang said.

Meanwhile, back at the apartment, Yuan said, "Now that I have created my faction, I will leave everything else to you two, Meixiu, Lulu."

"I promise you that I will make it the best faction in the world!" Chu Liuxiang proudly patted her chest.

"What will the requirements be like? If we're even going to accept new members." Meixiu then asked.

"I don't think we need any new members, and I don't like the idea of recruiting people that we don't know just for the sake of increasing our members," he said.

"Makes sense. Then what should we do?"

"I think we can scout for headquarters even though the Cultivators' Association is already helping us with that." Chu Liuxiang suddenly said.

"Sebastian, bring my laptop."

"Yes, Young Lady."

Sebastian then retrieved a thin laptop from their luggage before putting it on the desk.

Chu Liuxiang opened the laptop and opened up a browser.

"We can look for headquarters using this. My Chu Family has an intelligence agency, and I have special access to the system, so I can look at pretty much anything I want from this laptop."

While Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang looked at potential buildings they could use as headquarters for their faction, Yuan went inside his room and retrieved the console that allowed people to play Cultivation Online.

However, he no longer looked at the console in the same light as before, especially now that he knows Cultivation Online is a real world and this console somehow teleports them there.

Yuan laid on the bed, and after taking a deep breath, he wore the console on his head.

After turning the power on, Yuan could feel his consciousness being sucked away. He could feel himself flying through the void, and this feeling would last for a few seconds until he appeared inside Cultivation Online.

Once he was back inside Cultivation Online, Yuan took a deep breath.

"It feels like forever since I last logged on," he mumbled as he looked at the scenery with his eyes.

"After using nothing but divine sense for the last few weeks, it feels weird using my eyes to see."

"I wonder what the others have been up to..." Yuan tried to contact them using their servant and master connection, but nobody responded to him, meaning they were too far away for the connection to work.

Yuan looked at the sky and sighed, "Even though I have returned, where am I supposed to start? Where do I go for answers?"

"The upper heavens... Maybe I can find my answers there, but I cannot go there without Xiao Hua and the others..."

After pondering for a moment, Yuan decided to prepare for the Stairway to Heaven while he waits for Xiao Hua and the others to return.

However, he wasn't sure where to start.

Then he remembered a certain promise he made with somebody.

"That's right... I promised Senior Song that I'd visit her sect before I departed the Lower Heavens... Since she's also a top expert in this world, maybe she knows something about the Stairway to Heaven."

"Heavenly Melody Academy, huh."

Yuan then returned to the nearest city to ask around for the location of the Heavenly Melody Academy.

Once he got the directions, Yuan went to the nearest teleportation device to teleport to the city that was closest to the Heavenly Melody Academy, before flying to the sect on his flying sword.

While he traveled to the Heavenly Melody Academy alone, Yuan realized that this was his first time traveling a long distance by himself.

Ever since he met Xiao Hua at the very beginning of his journey, he would always have somebody by his side.

'It feels so weird being alone, it's also a new experience at the same time...'

A few hours later, Yuan arrived at the Heavenly Melody Academy, and even at the sect's entrance, he could already hear music being played in the distance.

"How can we help you?" The disciples guarding the gate asked him when he approached.

"I'm here to see Senior Song, your Sect Master."

"Sect Master Song? Who are you? Do you have an appointment with her?" The disciples immediately doubted his identity, as their Sect Master rarely receives any guests, and Yuan looked too young to be of any importance to their Sect Master.

It was at this moment Yuan recalled that Song Ling'er had given him a jade slip so that he could contact her.

Thus, Yuan no longer bothered with the disciples and retrieved the jade slip, sending Song Ling'er a message.

"I am currently outside the Heavenly Melody Academy."

Chapter 604 - Heavenly Melody Academy

"Sect Master, regarding this year's disciple recruitment..."

A group of high-ranking sect elders stood before Song Ling'er as they talked about their future plans for the Heavenly Melody Academy.

However, midway through their meeting, Song Ling'er noticed that one of her communication jade slips was trembling, and it was the one that she'd been anticipating for the longest.

Seeing this, Song Ling'er immediately listened to the message from it.

"I am currently outside the Heavenly Melody Academy." Yuan's voice resounded.

"He's finally here!" Song Ling'er stood up and shouted in an excited voice.

This startled the sect elders, and they all proceeded to stare at her with puzzled looks.

"The meeting will end early today. We'll continue this at another date." Song Ling'er said to them before leaving the scene in a hurry without explaining to them the situation.

The sect elders could only speculate that something serious must have happened to cause her to leave with such urgency.

Little did they know that she was only going to greet a young man at the entrance of their sect.

Once Song Ling'er left the meeting, she quickly sent Yuan a message stating that she will be there shortly.

Meanwhile, outside the Heavenly Melody Academy, the disciples guarding the gates said to Yuan, who had been standing outside their sect for a while now, "Excuse me, but you cannot linger outside the sect, so you'll have to leave."

"I am waiting for your Sect Master, who should be arriving here now." Yuan said to them in a calm voice.

The disciples looked at each other before laughing out loud, "The Sect Master is coming here? Who do you think you are? The Sect Master has never greeted anyone at the entrance before!"

"I don't know what else to tell you if you're not going to believe me." Yuan shook his head.

Now that he understood why the 'NPCs' act like real humans, he no longer saw them in the same light as before.

The disciples then approached him and said, "If you're not going to leave, we'll make you leave!"

"Are you sure you want me to leave?" Yuan looked at them with a nonchalant gaze.

"Do you think we're joking?!" The disciples then retrieved their weapons, but it wasn't what one would normally expect, as they were instruments instead of actual weapons.

Yuan merely shook his head and turned around, before walking away.

Of course, he didn't actually leave the place.

Once he was out of the disciples' sight, he stopped and began waiting there, as he was in no mood to deal with the unreasonable disciples.

After all, the easiest way to deal with these types of people is simply to avoid them, and arguing with them would only escalate the situation.

A few minutes after Yuan left the place, Song Ling'er showed up at the scene, which shocked the disciples there.

"S-Sect Master? What are you doing here?" The disciples guarding the gate asked after greeting her.

They had a clue why she was there, but they didn't want to believe it, as they would definitely be punished if it was true.

Song Ling'er didn't answer their question and instead looked around, but when she couldn't see Yuan anywhere, she frowned.

"Hey, was there a young man here just now? He should be around your age. Black hair." Song Ling'er decided to ask the disciples, as she didn't think Yuan would be the type to play such a cruel trick on her.

The disciples immediately felt as though they'd been slapped in the face when they realized who Song Ling'er was referring to, and they cried inwardly, 'So he was actually telling the truth! And we chased him away! We're doomed!'

"S-Sect Master... W-What had happened was..."

The disciples began trying to give excuses, but Song Ling'er didn't care about any of that, and she asked again, "Did you see him or not?"

"W-We did..."

"Where is he then?"

"We thought he was someone suspicious, so we kind of forced him to leave..." One of the disciples eventually resigned to his fate and revealed the truth.

"You what?!"

As they'd expected, Song Ling'er immediately fumed with anger.

"We're sorry, Sect Master! We really didn't know he was telling the truth!"

The disciples quickly got on their knees and begged for forgiveness.

After a moment of silence, Song Ling'er spoke in a cold voice, "If you're really sorry, then go bring him back! And you're all forbidden to return until you do!"

The disciples felt like crying after hearing her words that low-key expelled them from the sect.

However, right as tears began forming in the corner of their eyes, Song Ling'er noticed a figure approaching them from a distance.

When she saw Yuan's face, her cold face immediately softened.

"Yuan!" She called out to him, causing the disciples to turn their heads.

When they saw the young man they'd turned away return, their eyes glistened with hope and joy.

"I apologize for making you wait even though I messaged you earlier." Yuan said to her.

"Don't worry about it, I have heard the situation from these idiots. Please forgive their rudeness just now." Song Ling'er shook her head.

And she continued, "Follow me, let me show you around the sect before we sit down."

Yuan nodded and proceeded to follow her.

The disciples sighed in relief inwardly when they saw them leaving, but alas, Song Ling'er suddenly said, "All of you here will spend 1 month in the chamber of repentance starting today."

"Y-Yes, Sect Master!" They all responded simultaneously.

Although they were still getting punished, it was much better than getting kicked out of the sect that they worked so hard to enter.

Once they entered the sect, Song Ling'er began guiding Yuan around the Heavenly Melody Academy.

"Since you're here, does it mean you'll be challenging the Stairway to Heaven soon?" Song Ling'er asked him as they walked around the sect.

"Yes... I wanted to explore the Lower Heavens a little more before, but alas... Looks like I will have to postpone that plan for the future."

Chapter 605 - Two Statues

"Leaving it for the future? You know it's going to be very difficult for you to return once you ascend, right? Especially the higher you go, the more resources it'll require for you to come back to the Lower Heavens," Song Ling'er said to him.

"I know, but it's not impossible."

Song Ling'er stared at him in silence for a moment before speaking, "Did something happen? There's something different about you."

"Huh? How can you tell?"

"A woman's intuition, I guess," she casually shrugged.

Yuan then sighed, "Something did happen, but it's all in the past now, and dwelling on it won't do me any good."

"While it's definitely not worth dwelling on some things, some definitely are worth it, as it could be what pushes you further past your limit. If you want to talk to me about it, I am all ears."

Yuan pondered for a moment before asking, "Senior Song... Do you know anyone close to you that have passed away? Sorry if it's a sensitive question."

Song Ling'er looked at him with raised eyebrows, "Death? This is the cultivation world, where death is probably one of if not the most common thing regardless of which realm you're in. I don't think there is anyone around my age that hasn't experienced the death of a friend or a loved one."

"In fact, I have lost many friends to magical beasts and even more to other cultivators. I thought it was something more serious, but I guess this is your first time experiencing something like this, which is pretty normal."

Yuan nodded and said, "Yes, this is the first time someone close to me has passed away, and she was even killed right before my eyes. How did you deal with the loss of a friend?"

Song Ling'er looked up at the sky and said in a low voice, "You can never completely deal with the loss of a friend or family member— at least I don't think so, since they will always remain in your memories. The best thing one can do is try to prevent it from happening again in the future. Other than that, you'll just have to live the rest of your life with that burden, especially if you're the reason that person died."

"Many people— friends had died because I was too weak to protect them. And as cold-hearted as this may sound, it's because of their death that pushed me to where I am today, so I am also grateful to them in a way."

"Become strong enough so that it doesn't happen again, huh..." Yuan mumbled in a low voice.

"I don't know what happened, but as a cultivator— especially as a musician, you must learn how to control your emotions."

"I understand. Thank you for the advice, Senior Song."

Yuan suddenly stopped walking when he noticed something in the distance — two large statues standing beside each other with a zither in their grasp.

"Can I get a closer look at those statues?" Yuan pointed to them and asked.

"Of course."

Once they were before the statue, Yuan focused on the female statue to his left first, as it resembled someone that he has seen before.

"This person... She looks like the Zither Goddess." Yuan mumbled out loud.

"That is because she is the Zither Goddess," said Song Ling'er.

And she continued, "Most people that aren't a disciple of this sect don't know this, but the Zither Goddess used to be a disciple of our Heavenly Melody Academy. Unfortunately, she didn't stay for long because she easily surpassed everyone within just a few years."

"The Zither Goddess was a disciple here? What was she like as a disciple?" Yuan asked, his interest piqued.

"This is what I heard from the previous Sect Master, who heard it from the previous Sect Master and so on, but the Zither Goddess was a quiet girl who would spend the majority of her time alone in this exact spot playing the zither. If she's not here, then she would be in her own room playing the zither."

"Is there a reason why she would spend so much time here? I don't see anything special here." Yuan looked around, but he could only see an empty area beside the statues.

Song Ling'er then pointed to the statue standing right beside the Zither Goddess' statue.

"It's because of this statue. She would spend most of her time performing for this statue," she said.

Yuan turned his focus onto the second statue, which was a statue of a handsome man.

"Are they perhaps acquainted with each other?" Yuan couldn't help but ask.

Song Ling'er chuckled a little before responding, "That's not possible. That person left the Lower Heavens millions of years ago while the Zither Goddess wasn't born until around 25,000 years ago."

"If you ask me, I think it's because she admires this person, hence why she had spent most of her time here."

"The Zither Goddess admiring somebody? He must be a fairly influential person."

"If you consider the God of Music an influential person, then you're right." Song Ling'er said.

"Eh? So he's the God of Music? Does this mean he was also a disciple of the Heavenly Melody Academy?"

"If only. The Heavenly Melody Academy is only a hundred thousand years old, after all. We made the statue to pay our respects to the God of Music, who is known to have complete mastery over every instrument in existence."

"Is that so..." Yuan looked at the face of the God of Music.

Seeing Yuan staring at the God of Music's face, she said, "By the way, that's not really the God of Music's real appearance. The statue was made only based on some descriptions of him from ancient scrolls. I don't think anyone in the Lower Heavens would know his appearance."

"Does this mean he still exists somewhere in the upper heavens?" Yuan then asked.

"I don't know, but if you ask me... I don't think anyone can live for millions of years even if they are the God of Music," she calmly responded.

Chapter 606 - Paying Respects

"If he's the God of Music, he should have a very high cultivation base, right? I heard that cultivators who can live forever exist in the upper heavens." Yuan said.

"You mean true immortals? These people can be counted with one hand... And while he was recognized as the God of Music, that doesn't automatically make him a powerful cultivator. Perhaps if he was called the God of Cultivation, it would make more sense." Song Ling'er said.

"The God of Music, huh? I wonder what kind of person he was." Yuan mumbled to himself.

"Unfortunately, not much is known about the God of Music besides his name— Tian Kai."

Yuan raised his eyebrows after hearing the surname 'Tian', as it sounded familiar for some reason.

"Their surnames are also 'Tian'..." Yuan thought to himself.

After a moment of silence, Yuan asked Song Ling'er, "Do you mind if I play a song here?"

"Right now?" Song Ling'er raised her eyebrows.

"Yes, I want to pay my respects to both of them the same way the Zither Goddess paid respect to the God of Music."

"Go ahead."

Yuan then retrieved the Soul Ensnaring Zither before taking a seat right before the two statues.

After taking a deep breath, he began playing Zither Goddess's Ethereal Arts.

Ding~

A ripple swept the Heavenly Melody Academy every time Yuan played a music note on the Soul Ensnaring Zither.

Song Ling'er's eyes widened with shock as she watched his performance, as compared to the time he played during the zither competition, he has improved by leaps and bounds.

The song didn't last long, only a little over a minute, but it was more than long enough to mesmerize those who heard it, and they would all look as though their soul was absorbed out of their body, resembling Yuan when he first witnessed the Zither Goddess' performance.

Yuan stood up and returned the zither back inside his storage ring after the song ended.

"Have you been practicing recently?" Song Ling'er asked him when she eventually snapped out of her daze.

"Hm? Not really," he said.

Although he did play for a few days with Azure, it couldn't really be counted as practice.

"I really cannot fathom why someone like you would focus on other things when you're already extremely talented with the zither." Song Ling'er shook her head in a regretful manner, as she truly believed that it was a loss for the world of music that Yuan chose a different path.

"Anyways, if you are done here, let's go to my place, where we can sit down and talk more."

"Yes, I am done here."

Thus, Yuan began following Song Ling'er to the Sect Master's headquarters.

"I have been wondering for a while now... With so many people playing different instruments out in the open, won't they just disturb each other?" Yuan asked as they walked.

"Yes, that's the point." Song Ling'er nodded.

"They are trying to disturb others while focusing on their own music, as this cultivates their mind and concentration."

"I see... That makes sense."

"Of course, if a disciple wants to play privately, there are plenty of places they can go for that."

While Yuan and Song Ling'er approached the Sect Master's headquarters, the disciples that heard Yuan's performance began spreading rumors.

"Hey, did you hear that performance just now? Who was playing?"

"If you ask me, I think only the Sect Master can play the zither with such perfection."

"No, I have been to many of the Sect Master's performances, and I can say with certainty that it's not her. I dare say whoever played the zither just now is even better than the Sect Master!"

"Even better than the Sect Master? How is that possible? The Sect Master is the number one zither expert in the Lower Heavens!"

"I don't care who this person is— I just want to listen more to their performance!"

After arriving at the Sect Master's headquarters, Song Ling'er brought Yuan to her room, where they sat down with tea in their hands.

"You'll be challenging the Stairway to Heaven soon, right? What are you going to do once you ascend to the next realm?" Song Ling'er asked him once they were relaxed.

"I am going to continue climbing until I have answers to my questions," he said.

"Questions? What kind of questions?"

Yuan looked at her in silence for a moment before speaking, "Do you know of a place called Earth?"

"Earth? No," she immediately responded.

"What kind of place is this Earth?"

"It's my hometown," he said.

"What if I told you that I came from another world?" Yuan suddenly asked her.

"Another world? You mean you came from the upper heavens? I wouldn't be surprised if that was the case," she said.

"No... Not the upper heavens. I mean like a completely different world... Another planet."

Song Ling'er looked at him with a puzzled expression, seemingly unable to comprehend his words.

"Nevermind... Let me change the question. Can you tell me a little more about the Stairway to Heaven? I know there are challenges that await within the Stairway to Heaven, but what kind of challenges?"

"The challenge is different for each person challenging the Stairway to Heaven, so I cannot tell you what you might experience. However, I can tell you my experience with the Stairway to Heaven."

"Eh? You've challenged the Stairway to Heaven before?"

"Yes, I have... And before you think I failed the challenges, I will have you know that I'd intentionally failed the last challenge because I didn't want to ascend."

"You don't want to ascend? But I thought it was every cultivators' desire to climb higher."

"For most cultivators, yes, that is the case, but I am content with my current standing. I am the Sect Master of the Heavenly Melody Academy. If I leave the Lower Heavens, I will have to start climbing from the bottom again. Furthermore, I don't have anybody who can replace my position as Sect Master. If I leave now, the Heavenly Melody Academy will suffer..." Song Ling'er explained.

Chapter 607 - Music Pagoda

"Maybe in the future when I have someone who is capable of replacing me as Sect Master, I will challenge the Stairway to Heaven again."

"Anyways, for the Stairway to Heaven, when I challenged it, I had to do 4 trials."

"For the first trial, I had to fight a stampede of magical beasts that was two levels above my cultivation."

"For the second trial, I had to traverse a thousand miles while being burdened by a powerful pressure and magical beasts."

"For the third trial, I had to confront my heart demon."

"And for the final trial, I had to fight another magical beast, but this time, it was five whole levels above my cultivation."

"Although the trials are random for everyone, many people have received the same trial before, so there's a good chance that you'll experience some of the same trials I went through."

"I see... This information will definitely be helpful to me. Thank you, Senior Song. If there's anything I can do in return, don't hesitate to ask."
Yuan said to her.

"I do have one request for you. Can you do a performance before the disciples for me? I want to broaden their views. Most of them think I am the number one zither expert under heaven, but that is far from the truth, as there are plenty more skillful zither experts in the upper heavens."

"Okay. I don't mind if it's just a performance. When do you want me to do it?"

"I will need some time to prepare for it. Can you give me four— No, three days? You can even stay here as an esteemed guest if you'd like."

"Sure." Yuan nodded.

After all, he doesn't know where Xiao Hua and the others were or when they'll return, and there was no way that he'd leave them behind to challenge the Stairway to Heaven. Furthermore, he still has to return to the Dragon Essence Temple to pick Min Li up as he'd promised.

Sometime later, Senior Song led Yuan to his living quarters where he'll be spending the next three days.

"My house is this one, so if you need anything, just knock on my door. Though I usually spend most of my time at the Sect Master's headquarters, so you can find me there if I am not home."

"You are also free to wander the sect, but there are some restricted areas that can only be accessed by certain individuals."

"Do you have a place where I can learn new songs?" Yuan then asked.

"Of course. Just go to the Music Pagoda. You'll find thousands of songs there."

"Thank you."

"Also, take this with you. This is proof that you're a guest at our sect. If you're caught without it, you might be misunderstood like what happened earlier, so make sure you have it with you at all times when you leave your living quarters." Song Ling'er handed him a medallion before returning to the Sect Master's headquarters.

Once she left, Yuan looked around his living quarters before making his way to the Melody Pavilion that Song Ling'er had mentioned.

"Excuse me, do you know the way to Music Pagoda?" Yuan asked the first disciple he encountered.

And since he was living beside Song Ling'er's living quarters, it was only natural that he was located in the center of the sect with the elites.

"Who are you? I don't recognize your face. You new here?" The young man asked Yuan.

"No, I am just here as a guest," he said.

'A guest that can enter the inner courts of the sect? Just who is this guy?' The young man wondered to himself.

"The Music Pagoda is at the Outer Court. You can get there by following that path over there. As for the place itself, it's an eleven-story building. You won't miss it."

"Thank you for the information," Yuan said to him before following the path.

Sometime later, Yuan arrived at the Outer Court, where disciples could be seen walking around with all kinds of instruments in their grasp.

The most common instrument appeared to be the zither, which was expected since their Sect Master is a zither expert, but it wasn't to the point where it overwhelmed the other instruments.

There was a good variety of instruments, and Yuan began thinking of trying all of them before leaving.

Eventually, he arrived at the Music Pagoda, which was crowded with disciples.

After looking around the place, Yuan decided to enter the building, and to his surprise, it was much more spacious than he'd anticipated.

He approached one of the hundreds of shelves there and picked up a random scroll to read the contents.

It was a music sheet for the flute.

He picked up another from the same shelf, and it was also for the flute.

It was at this moment that Yuan noticed the tag at the side of the shelf that read 'Flute'.

Yuan then walked around until he found the zither tag.

Once he did, he began looking through the music sheets one by one until he read everything on the shelf.

When the disciples around him saw this, they thought that he was looking for the perfect song, but little did they know he was actually memorizing the songs so that he could try them all out later.

"There are eleven floors in this building and the first floor is already filled with hundreds of songs. It'll probably take months if I want to learn every song in this place..." Yuan mumbled to himself as he looked for the next shelf of zither music.

Meanwhile, Song Ling'er was preparing for Yuan's concert in three days.

"You want to gather all of the disciples three days from now? What is the special occasion?" One of the sect elders asked her after receiving this sudden order.

"There will be a performance on that day. I believe that it will greatly benefit the disciples, perhaps even change their lives once they witness the performance," she said.

"A performance? By whom?"

"An expert that's even better than me," she casually responded, leaving them speechless.

Chapter 608 - Prove It!

"Even better than you, Sect Master? Who is this person?" One of the sect elders asked.

"You'll find out in three days," she casually responded.

Meanwhile, back at the Music Pagoda, Yuan decided to see if the music sheets on the second floor were any different.

"There are more notes... I guess the higher the floor the more difficult the songs."

Now that he had this knowledge, he wanted to see what was the most difficult song in this place, so he began making his way towards the 11th floor.

Once he reached the 11th floor, he walked straight to the zither section and began looking through the music sheets one by one.

"Oh? I recognize this song..." Yuan was surprised by the first music sheet that he'd randomly picked, and it was the same song that he'd played during the zither competition after learning it from Song Ling'er's disciples.

Even though he already knew the song, he still wanted to look at the music sheet properly to get a better understanding of it.

While Yuan looked at this music sheet, a disciple approached him from behind.

"Hey, you're blocking the shelf." This disciple said to him.

"Oh, I am sorry." Yuan turned around to see a beautiful young lady standing behind him, and she looked very familiar for some reason.

'Isn't she from the zither competition?'

It took a moment for Yuan to recognize this girl, who was the one that played the incredible song 'God Descends from Heaven' during the zither competition.

However, this girl didn't recognize Yuan, who wasn't wearing a mask at this moment but did during the zither competition.

As Yuan made way for her, she noticed the music note in his grasp.

'God Descends from Heaven? Who is this guy?'

Besides the top disciples in the sect that want to challenge themselves, most people don't even dare to pick up the song because of its difficulty.

"Do you intend on learning that song?" Ai Wan asked him out of curiosity.

"Eh? No, I already know the song," he subconsciously responded.

"You can play God Descends from Heaven?" Ai Wan looked at him with a suspicious face.

Even many sect elders do not dare say that they 'know' the song, yet this random person dares to make such claims?

"Yes, I can."

"Just because you can play a few hundred notes out of a few thousand doesn't mean you can play the song."

"No, I can play the entire song."

"I don't believe you." Ai Wan quickly said.

And she continued, "Prove it! If you can really play the whole song, I will call you master!"

"It's fine, I don't really need to prove myself." Yuan calmly said.

"I knew it! There's no way a nobody like you can play the most difficult song in the Lower Heavens!" Ai Wan felt insulted by Yuan when he claimed to know the song, as she had spent many years learning the song, and claiming you can play a song when you actually can't is a taboo within the sect.

The other disciples on that floor noticed their commotion and joined the fun.

"What's going on, Senior Sister Ai? Why are you arguing with this guy?"

"Did he offend Senior Sister? I will immediately take care of him for you!"

Yuan suddenly found himself surrounded by these disciples, causing him to shake his head.

"I just need to prove that I can play the song, right? Alright, I will play the song for you."

Yuan retrieved the Soul Ensnaring Zither on the spot and took a seat while still surrounded by the disciples.

'W-Wait a second... That zither... It can't be?!' Ai Wan immediately recognized the Soul Ensnaring Zither, as she'd tried to play it before but to no avail.

But before she could think too much, Yuan started playing the zither, instantly putting them in a daze.

"Who dares to play their instrument inside the Music Pagoda?!" The sect elders managing the building frowned when they heard music coming from the top, as it was against the rules to play one's instrument inside the building.

However, they stopped moving when they realized the song that was being played.

"T-This song is God Descends from Heaven!"

"Who is playing right now?!"

The disciples there also realized this fact, and everybody began making their way to the 11th floor, quickly overwhelming the place.

"Get out of my way!"

"You get out of my way!"

The disciples began shoving each other around just to move a single step forward.

"Make way!"

The sect elders eventually arrived and forced the disciples to make a clear path for them.

However, by the time they arrived on the 11th floor, Yuan had already finished the song, playing every single note of God Descends from Heaven flawlessly without making a single mistake this time.

[Your stats has been increased by 50% for 1 hour from the effects of 'God Descending from Heaven']

Yuan stored the Soul Ensnaring Zither before standing up and looking at Ai Wan, who was standing there with a dazed look on her face.

"Are you happy now?" Yuan asked her.

It was at this moment Ai Wan finally recognized his voice.

"Wait... You... You're that masked man during the zither competition! What are you doing here?!" She exclaimed in a shocked voice.

The sect elders arrived at this moment and said, "Who was playing just now?"

The disciples there immediately pointed at Yuan.

"Let me see your disciple identification badge." The sect elder approached Yuan.

"I am not a disciple here," Yuan said, showing them the medallion that Song Ling'er had given him.

"Not a disciple?" The sect elders were speechless.

How can such a talented individual not be a part of their sect? That in itself should be a crime!

"Although that was an amazing performance just now, it's against the rules to play your instrument in the Music Pagoda." The sect elder said after snapping out of his daze.

"Eh? I didn't know that, sorry." Yuan immediately apologized.

"This was all my fault, elders. If you're going to hold anyone responsible, it should be me." Ai Wan suddenly stepped forward and said.

"Prime Disciple Ai?" The sect elders looked at her with wide eyes, as Ai Wan is usually a quiet girl who never causes any trouble.

Immortal Cave

Chapter 609 - Zither Goddess's Immortal Cave

"W-Well... Since Prime Disciple Ai says so... We'll forget about this incident. However, make sure it doesn't happen again, or the Sect Master will be very upset with you." The sect elder said to her.

Because Ai Wan was Song Ling'er's disciple, the other sect elders didn't dare to punish her, as they believed that they would be overstepping their boundaries as a sect elder to discipline the Sect Master's disciple.

"Thank you, sect elders. This will not happen again." Ai Wan bowed to them.

She then glanced at Yuan for a moment before leaving the Music Pagoda.

Yuan also decided to leave since it would be impossible to look at the music sheets in peace after that little commotion.

Once he left the Music Pagoda, Yuan noticed Ai Wan standing outside, almost like she was waiting for him.

"I'm sorry for acting up just now," she suddenly said to him.

"I get agitated when people lie and make bold claims before me. You should know that 'God Descends from Heaven' isn't something ordinary people can play, and when someone claims they can play such a song to the end, it's only natural to doubt their claims."

"If I had known that you were the same person from that competition... I'm sorry." Ai Wan apologized to him again.

Yuan could tell that she was sincere in her apology, so he didn't hold any hard feelings for her.

"Don't worry about it. It was just a misunderstanding," he said to her.

"Thank you."

After a moment of silence, she asked him, "By the way, what are you doing at our sect? Do you intend on becoming a disciple?"

"No, I am only here because of Senior Song. I will be leaving soon."

"What a pity..." Ai Wan sighed.

"Pity?" Yuan lifted his eyebrows in a questioning manner.

"I heard from my Master that you are only playing the zither as a hobby and that you don't intend on becoming a zither expert. If I had your talents, I would definitely focus on becoming the best zither expert in the world."

"I mean it's not like I am not playing the zither at all. I just don't want it to be my main focus, as there are other things that I find more entertaining," said Yuan.

"It's your life, so I won't tell you how to live it. However, you will definitely disappoint many people with your decisions." Ai Wan shook her head.

"Anyways, I have one last thing to ask you... The zither you used to play just now... It's the Soul Ensnaring Zither, right?"

"Yes, it is."

Ai Wan went silent for a moment before speaking, "Do you want to try something?"

"What are you talking about?"

"The Zither Goddess used to be a disciple of our Heavenly Melody Academy. Did you know this?" Ai Wan then asked him.

"Yes, I do."

"Then did you know that her immortal cave hasn't been opened ever since she left?"

"Huh?" Yuan was puzzled yet intrigued at the same time.

"The Zither Goddess had her own immortal cave when she was still here, but it hasn't been opened since she left, but it's not because we don't want to open it— it's because it refuses to open for some reason."

"We believe that it's because the Zither Goddess had placed some sort of protection around her home, but she forgot to take it down when she left, so her immortal cave has remained unopened to this date."

"I was thinking that maybe you can open it with the Soul Ensnaring Zither."

"I can try." Yuan nodded.

"Okay, follow me." Ai Wan turned around and began walking.

Yuan quickly followed her.

"Why do you want to open the immortal cave?" Yuan couldn't help but ask her.

"I am curious— everyone is. We want to know what is inside the famous Zither Goddess's immortal cave. Maybe she has some heaven-defying zither techniques inside."

"Oh, I should also mention that while we cannot open it normally, we can definitely open it with force, but that would destroy the place, so nobody is willing to do such a thing."

"The Zither Goddess' immortal cave, huh? I would be lying if I say that I am not interested." Yuan said.

Sometime later, they arrived at the inner court, where all of the high-ranking sect elders and elite disciples lived.

"Disciple Ai Wan!"

A feminine voice suddenly called out to her shortly after they entered the inner court.

Ai Wan and Yuan turned around to see a pretty young lady approaching them in an aggressive manner.

"Disciple You, save your nonsense for another day. I am busy right now." Ai Wan said to her in an annoyed tone.

This young lady called Disciple You turned to look at Yuan before showing a grin on her face.

"Is that your new boyfriend? Wei Kang will be very upset once he learns of this."

"Why don't you mind your own business? In fact, shouldn't you be practicing for the upcoming prime disciple selection? Or are you so confident in your victory that you don't need to practice?" Ai Wan coldly sneered.

"I think we both— as well as every other disciple in the sect, know that I will pass the prime disciple selection and become the Sect Master's third disciple. And once I start studying under the Sect Master, I will quickly surpass you."

"I cannot wait." Ai Wan responded in a nonchalant manner.

"Hmph! Since I am a nobody in your eyes, you wouldn't mind going to the Lily Pavilion with me, right?"

"Again with the Lily Pavilion? I don't have the time to deal with you."

"Are you worried about embarrassing yourself in front of your boyfriend? If that's the case, I completely understand." Disciple You chuckled.

Ai Wan sneered, "First of all, he's not my boyfriend. And secondly, I already told you that I am busy right now. If you are so desperate to lose face in front of me, I will gladly meet you at the Lily Pavilion tomorrow."

"Now you've said it! If you don't show up tomorrow, I will make a laughingstock out of you! And you, mister boyfriend! Make sure you're there to see the look on your girlfriend's face when I completely destroy her tomorrow!" Disciple You said to them before walking away without waiting for any response, leaving Yuan speechless.

Chapter 610 - Disappeared!

"I'm sorry about that... That was Disciple You, a new disciple that had been recruited by Master shortly after the zither competition, so she's a little arrogant. And for some reason, she's obsessed with surpassing me." Ai Wan said to Yuan afterward.

"You can also ignore what she said."

"What's this Lily Pavilion?" Yuan asked.

"It's a place where disciples go to battle each other with their instruments. The loser must jump into the cold water that surrounds the place. It's a very popular area for disciples who want to settle disputes."

"That does sound like a pretty fun place." Yuan smiled.

At least they don't have to injure each other, which is the biggest reason why people go there instead of the traditional challenge, where disciples fight each other with weapons.

"Anyways, let's continue to the Zither Goddess's immortal cave."

About half an hour later, they arrive at this secluded area where many immortal caves existed, and it sort of reminded Yuan of the immortal caves at the Jaded Garden but at a much larger scale.

"Which one belongs to the Zither Goddess?" Yuan asked as he looked around.

"Do you see that one with a closed entrance in the middle? That's the one." Ai Wan pointed at the immortal cave that had a couple of people standing outside of it.

"What are they doing?" Yuan asked when he saw the scene.

"They are all trying to open up the immortal cave without breaking the place," she said.

"You see people like that almost every day."

A few minutes later, they climbed the hill and approached the Zither Goddess's immortal cave.

"Damn it! This place really doesn't want to open up!"

"If it was so easy to open, it would've opened tens of thousands of years ago..."

"There must be some sort of secret to opening this door!"

"Hey, look over there! That's Prime Disciple Ai!"

"What's she doing here?"

The disciples stopped their investigation when they noticed Ai Wan's presence.

"Greetings, senior apprentice-sister."

They all greeted her when she was close enough.

"Hello," she nodded, acknowledging their greetings.

"What brings you to this place today, senior sister?" One of them asked her.

"I'm just looking around," she casually said before turning to look at Yuan, who was intensively staring at the immortal cave.

"Have you figured something out already?" she couldn't help but ask him, her voice sounding a little excited.

If anyone can open the immortal cave, it should be the person who managed to play the Zither Goddess' Soul Ensnaring Zither!

"I'm not sure... I don't see anything out of the ordinary about this place."
Yuan said.

"Why don't you try playing a song with the Soul Ensnaring Zither?" Ai Wan suddenly said.

"What song should I play?"

"Maybe something the Zither Goddess used to play?"

Yuan nodded and took a seat in front of the immortal cave before retrieving the Soul Ensnaring Zither.

"Senior apprentice-sister, who is this guy? I don't recognize him." One of the disciples there asked her.

"I don't know him either." Ai Wan calmly responded.

"Eh?"

The disciples looked at her with wide eyes, as they were not expecting such an answer. In fact, they believed that she was only joking with them.

Once Yuan was seated, he took a deep breath before playing Zither Goddess's Ethereal Arts before the immortal cave.

His performance immediately shocked the spectators.

"This guy... He's really in a different world in terms of talent...' Ai Wan sighed inwardly, and her disappointment in Yuan for not taking advantage of such talents grew stronger.

A few minutes later, Yuan stopped playing the zither when the song finished, but there was no response from the Zither Goddess' immortal cave.

"I-It's not opening..." Ai Wan mumbled in a dazed voice.

"Sorry that I couldn't be of any help," Yuan said to her afterward.

"No, don't worry about it. I should be apologizing for wasting your time."

"What a pity, though. I really wanted to see her immortal cave..." Yuan sighed as he placed his hand on the large boulder that hasn't budged for over 20,000 years.

It was at this moment the boulder suddenly began trembling.

"Eh?"

However, before Yuan could even react, his vision suddenly blacked out, almost like someone had turned off all the lights in a room.

"W-Where am I?" Yuan looked around, but even with his enhanced vision, he was unable to see anything.

Meanwhile, outside Zither Goddess' immortal cave, Ai Wan and the other disciples were shocked by what they had just witnessed.

"H-He disappeared!" One of the disciples there exclaimed after snapping out of his daze.

"Where did he go?! He was just standing there a second ago!"

Ai Wan quickly went to touch the boulder just like Yuan did, but nothing happened.

"This has never happened before!" She muttered in a voice of disbelief.

After standing there for a moment, Ai Wan turned around and began running away.

"W-Where are you going, senior apprentice-sister?!" The other disciples called out to her.

"I am going to get my Master!" she said.

And she continued, "You guys stay there just in case he returns!"

Sometime later, she arrived at the Sect Master's headquarters.

"Master! Are you here?!" Ai Wan rushed into the building while shouting.

"What happened?" Song Ling'er frowned when she saw how frantic Ai Wan was acting.

"D-Do you remember Yuan? That person who was at the zither competition? He disappeared!" She said, confusing Song Ling'er.

"What are you talking about? Start from the beginning, and slow down." Song Ling'er said.

Ai Wan took a few deep breaths before explaining to Song Ling'er the situation.

"He disappeared right in front of you after touching Zither Goddess' immortal cave? How is that possible?"

"It's true, Master! There are other disciples that witnessed it!"

"Let's go. We're going to the immortal caves." Song Ling'er said as she stood up.

Ai Wan then followed Song Ling'er back to the immortal caves... Ai Wan hoped that Yuan would have returned by then, but alas, he was still nowhere to be seen.

Chapter 611 - Freefall

After arriving at the immortal caves, Song Ling'er asked the disciples there for their story.

"That person touched the immortal cave and disappeared the next second!"

"It was so sudden! He hasn't returned since then!"

Song Ling'er frowned at the situation, and she began looking around the Zither Goddess' immortal cave, even touching the exact same spot that Yuan had touched, but nothing happened.

"Oh, I forgot to mention this, but he played a song with the Soul Ensnaring Zither before touching the immortal cave." Ai Wan suddenly said.

"Why didn't you tell me this first?!" Song Ling'er sighed.

"Do you know what kind of song he played?"

"No, I have never heard of such a song before."

"Can you replicate it?" Song Ling'er then asked.

Ai Wan didn't immediately respond. She closed her eyes and recalled Yuan's performance and tried to play his song inside her mind, but alas, she was unable to remember the song for some reason, almost like there was an otherworldly power preventing her from doing so.

"I cannot remember the song..." Ai Wan sighed after trying.

"What? You should be able to memorize a song after hearing it once. Was the song he played really that difficult?" Song Ling'er looked at Ai Wan with a surprised face.

"Not difficult— it was complex, almost like it was a technique as well as a song. That's the best I can describe it." Ai Wan said.

"A song that is also a technique...? To think he's already reached that level..." Song Ling'er mumbled to herself.

And she continued a moment later, "Anyways, I don't think there is anything we can do but wait for him to return on his own."

"No way..." Ai Wan mumbled.

She couldn't help but blame herself for this situation, as she was the one who asked Yuan to open the Zither Goddess' immortal cave.

If she hadn't done such a thing, Yuan wouldn't have disappeared.

'If a heavenly genius like him is forever gone because of me...' Ai Wan could not imagine being responsible for the death of such a genius, so she silently prayed for his safety.

Meanwhile, somewhere in this universe, Yuan was surrounded by nothing but pure darkness.

"Hello?! Anyone there?!"

Yuan walked around in this darkness while shouting for the past few minutes but to no avail.

'I really hope this is the Zither Goddess' immortal cave and the reason it's so dark is because the lights are off...' Yuan sighed inwardly.

After walking aimlessly for about ten minutes, Yuan suddenly stopped, as he could see a thin line of light very far in the distance.

The moment he saw this, Yuan immediately began running towards this light.

However, this light was actually much further than it appeared.

Even though he had been running for many minutes, he doesn't seem to be getting any closer to the light.

About an hour later, he finally arrived before the light that was literally a bright pillar of light.

Yuan swallowed nervously, as he felt an incredibly strong beckoning coming from the pillar of light, almost as though it was daring him to approach it.

"As much as I don't want to get close to this light... It's probably my only way out of this void. As for where it will lead me— if it even leads to anywhere, I will have to find out myself."

Yuan closed his eyes and took a deep breath.

Once he was prepared, he began stepping towards this pillar of light, disappearing into it.

Yuan immediately began feeling dizzy after entering the pillar of light, but it wasn't an unfamiliar feeling, as he would often feel the same thing when he was being transported to someplace through teleportation.

'I am being teleported... but the question is where?' Yuan braced himself as he watched his surroundings blur.

The next moment, Yuan found himself in a very familiar scenery.

It was mostly blue, and it was surrounded by these fluffy white objects that would drift at a slow and smooth pace.

"Why am I in the sky again?!" Yuan exclaimed as his body began falling.

Fortunately, he was a Spirit Grandmaster, and he could fly.

Except that wasn't the case, as when he tried to fly, it didn't work at all, almost like the spiritual energy in the air didn't want to listen to him for some reason.

"Is this how I will experience my first death in Cultivation Online?! This is so unfair!" Yuan cried out loud as he continued to freefall this seemingly endless sky.

A few more moments later, he could finally start seeing the ground.

It was at this moment that Yuan noticed the blue land that was directly beneath him, and he immediately released a sigh of relief.

'Thank the heavens that I am falling in water...'

However, before he even reached the water, he could see that there were a couple of people floating in this water.

And not wanting to land on them, he quickly shouted at them, "Get out of the way!"

These people were puzzled at first when they heard Yuan's voice, and they quickly began looking around in a frantic manner.

"I am above you!"

Yuan shouted again.

These people finally looked up, allowing Yuan to see their faces, and they were all extremely beautiful women.

However, before he could say anything else, his freefall had ended, and he fell into this somewhat deep pond.

"Phua!"

Yuan quickly tried to swim out of this pond, but since he has never learned how to swim before, he ended up struggling a bit.

If it were not for his superior strength that allowed him to move in the water without knowing how to swim, he would've never gotten out of the pond and would've drowned to death sooner or later.

After getting out of the water, Yuan turned to face the six beautiful women that were still bathing inside the water, and all of them had a baffled look on their faces, looking like they were witnessing something that shouldn't be possible.

Chapter 612 - Chased By Six Beauties

"H-Hello... Sorry for interrupting you all, but can you tell me where we are right now?" Yuan asked them in a somewhat dazed voice, as these women were truly breathtakingly beautiful.

However, these beautiful fairies remained silent as they continued to glare at him.

At first, they were dazed, then they slowly began to realize their situation.

Once they fully comprehended the situation, their dazed faces turned into frowns, and their gaze turned bloodthirsty.

Yuan swallowed nervously when he saw their unfriendly, even threatening gaze.

"Um..."

Unfortunately, before he could speak, one of them shouted, "It's a man! A man has defiled our paradise! Get him!"

Hearing their words, Yuan subconsciously turned around and began running for some reason.

Although he regretted this decision at first, he would quickly realize that it was actually the right choice.

"He's running! Chase after him!"

The six beauties immediately jumped out of the water, revealing their completely naked bodies, but Yuan was too occupied with running to care.

Once they were out of the water, these beauties quickly retrieved their robes to cover their bodies, but they didn't even bother dressing up properly before chasing after Yuan, looking like a group of ladies who just woke up late for work and are currently scrambling to get prepared.

'Heavens! They are fast!' Yuan cried inwardly when he saw them quickly closing in on him even though he started running many seconds ahead of them.

'And why can't I use Qi Manipulation in this place?'

Since he couldn't fly for some reason, he had to resort to using his movement technique.

After running for a few more moments, Yuan shouted, "Seniors! There must have been a misunderstanding! Why don't we all stop and talk about this like civil people?!"

As much as he wanted to stop and speak with them, he feared that these beauties might tear him to pieces the second he stopped.

"Civil?! Don't you dare talk about being civil when you are the one who invaded our territory! You're also the one who made a mistake by breaking the laws of this place!" One of the six beauties shouted back a second later.

"The punishment for breaking this law is the death sentence with no exceptions!"

Yuan was baffled by these ladies' words.

He'd broken the law? What kind of law did he break to deserve a death sentence?

"I swear! Whatever law I broke, it wasn't intentional!"

"Bullsh*t! You knew very well what you are doing!"

"Then can you at least tell me what kind of law I broke?!"

"How dare you still mess with us?! There's no way you don't know about the Fairy Paradise and its strict laws!"

Almost as though Yuan had angered them even further with his question, these beautiful ladies began chasing after him a little faster.

"Why is everyone in this world so unreasonable?! I just wanted to know what I did wrong!" Yuan cried out loud as he also quickened his steps with the movement technique.

"What kind of movement technique is this pervert using?! He's only a Spirit Grandmaster, yet we cannot catch him even after chasing him for so long!" One of the beauties said, admiring his movement technique a little.

"That's probably why he dared to enter the Fairy Paradise! If he thinks he can run forever, he's a fool!"

The six beauties then exchanged glances with each other before nodding their heads.

The next moment, Yuan could feel an obnoxious feeling coming from behind him, forcing him to turn around to see what was making him feel so uncomfortable, and to his shock, the six beauties had retrieved their weapons!

"Die, you pervert!"

The six beauties began unleashing a torrent of attacks on Yuan from behind.

Whoosh!

Bang!

Boom!

Yuan could feel his heart racing as he sensed the powerful spiritual energy within their attacks.

'This destructive power! They're all Spirit Kings?!' Yuan exclaimed inwardly when he realized their cultivation bases.

Why are there suddenly so many Spirit Kings in one place? Did he get transported to somewhere in the upper heavens again? But why would the Zither Goddess' immortal cave teleport him to this place?

"Dang it! Why are our attacks not hitting?! I really want to know what kind of movement technique he's using now!"

"Let's stop going easy on him and take him out for real!" One of them suddenly suggested.

"But won't that cause a commotion? We might get in trouble if we destroy the paradise anymore..."

"I'm sure the elders will understand! After all, we're trying to punish a man for entering our paradise! In fact, we'll probably get in more trouble if we let him escape!"

"Fine! Let's do it!"

However, before these beauties could release even more powerful attacks at Yuan, a cold voice suddenly resounded, "Halt!"

The beauties immediately stopped moving when they heard this voice, even giving up on chasing after Yuan.

Yuan, of course, didn't stop and continued to run away.

However, before he could move very far, a figure suddenly appeared before him like a ghost to block his path.

"I told you to halt, didn't I? Not only are you causing a commotion here, but you even dare to disobey me? You're a bold one even for men's standard."

This figure turned out to be another extremely beautiful woman, but her face was too cold.

"I—"

Yuan tried to open his mouth to speak, but before he could get any words out, the beautiful lady released a tyrannical pressure that instantly shut his mouth and even brought him to his knees.

'W-What cultivation is this?!'

Yuan was shocked by this intense pressure that surpassed all of his prior experiences.

If he had to take a guess, this woman was either a Spirit Emperor or even a Spirit Sovereign! She was not an existence he could defend against even with his heaven-defying talents!

"Oh? You're still conscious? Not bad for a mere Spirit Grandmaster." The cold woman spoke in a nonchalant voice after seeing that Yuan was still awake.

However, that didn't last long, as the cold woman increased the pressure a second later, instantly knocking Yuan unconscious.

Chapter 613 - Imprisoned And Interrogated

After knocking Yuan unconscious, the cold woman turned to look at the other six beauties and said, "Six Spirit Kings cannot handle a mere Spirit Grandmaster— a little boy? You should all be ashamed of yourselves."

The six beauties lowered their heads in a shameful manner, their faces flushed with redness.

"We're sorry for being useless, Elder Xue."

"Quickly return to the sect and tell me everything that occurred just now." The cold woman called Elder Xue used her spiritual energy to pick up Yuan before flying away, disappearing into the distance in just a few moments.

The six beauties quickly followed Elder Xue's words and returned to the sect that was a hundred miles away from their location.

When Elder Xue returned to the sect first, she handed the still unconscious Yuan to one of the disciples there and said to her, "Lock him up and interrogate him for his identity when he wakes up."

"Yes, Elder Xue."

After Yuan was carried away, Elder Xue returned to her living quarters to wait for the six beauties to return.

Once they finally arrived, she said to them, "Tell me everything."

The six beauties that were standing beside each other began explaining the situation to Elder Xue.

"We went to the Bamboo Pond to wash ourselves, but shortly after we entered the water, we heard someone screaming, and it sounded like a man's voice."

"Once we realize where the sound was coming from, we all looked up, and to our surprise, a person was falling from the sky."

"We didn't know who this person was until we got a good look at him after he got out of the water, and he turned out to be an unknown man..."

"That's when we started chasing after him, but he had this weird movement technique that made it incredibly hard to catch him."

"So we started throwing weak attacks at him, hoping to delay him or stop him from running, but he was not only fast—he also displayed incredible agility by dodging all of our attacks with ease."

"Seeing that it had no effect on him, we decided to increase our strength..."

"...And that's when you arrived, Elder Xue."

"Hmmm..." Elder Xue listened to their whole story with her eyes closed, and they remained closed even after they finished.

The six beauties didn't dare to move until Elder Xue spoke to them, so they stood there in silence for many minutes until Elder Xue finally opened her eyes and spoke in a calm voice, "You can all leave. I will contact you if I need you."

"Excuse us, Elder Xue."

The beauties bowed to her before leaving the scene.

'Just where did this little boy come from? Falling from the sky? We're in the middle of Fairy Paradise! There's no way that a man could enter the Fairy Paradise and travel such a long distance without alerting anybody!' Elder Xue pondered to herself.

Meanwhile, somewhere inside a small prison cell, Yuan slowly opened his eyes after waking up.

"Ugh... Where am I...?" Yuan looked around, quickly realizing that he was inside a prison cell, and he was currently suspended in midair with chains restricting his movements.

"So you're finally awake?"

The disciple in charge of interrogating him said when she noticed that he was awake.

"Tell me who you are and how you managed to get inside the Fairy Paradise. Although that won't spare you from a death sentence, you won't feel any pain if you make it easy for the both of us."

Yuan frowned and said, "I don't know how I got to this place. I seem to have been teleported here by accident."

"Hah? And you expect me to believe such a blatant lie?" The disciple shook her head.

"You know what? Since I am a very generous individual, I will give you a second chance. If not..."

The disciple suddenly retrieved a whip that appeared to be made out of steel and cracked it beside her.

Pap!

The stone floor broke into many pieces when it was struck by the whip.

Yuan swallowed nervously when he saw the steel whip.

'I don't want to hurt her, but I can't just let her torture me...' Yuan sighed inwardly.

It was at this moment that he noticed the shiny ring sitting on a table beside the disciple.

"T-That's my storage ring!" He subconsciously exclaimed out loud.

The disciple turned to look at the Dragon Spatial Ring and smiled, "Oh? So the answer to your identity is inside this spatial ring, huh? Unfortunately, I do not have the power to open it, but once I hand it to an elder..."

Of course, there was nothing about his identity inside the spatial ring. However, there was something even more important— the Dragon Ancestor's Blood Essence! If these people learn of the blood essence, they will definitely steal it from him!

'Damn it! I knew I should have given it to Xiao Hua for safekeeping!' Yuan cursed inwardly.

'Should I just break out of this place? They don't know about my Soul Weapons... However, I won't be able to run away from that cold woman if she shows up again... What can I do in this situation?'

While Yuan pondered, the disciple contacted Elder Xue using a communication jade slip, "Elder Xue, I have not managed to get his identity, but I think the answer lies within his storage ring. I believe it would be quicker to just break open his storage ring and find the answers ourselves."

"Okay, I will be there. Give me a few minutes."

After putting away the communication jade slip, the woman looked at Yuan and said, "Good news. We'll know your identity really soon."

Yuan ignored her and continued to ponder for a way out of this predicament.

Sometime later, Elder Xue arrived at the prison cell to look at Yuan's storage ring.

"T-This is..."

However, to the disciple's surprise, Elder Xue appeared to be spooked by the spatial ring.

After a long moment of silence, Elder Xue turned to look at Yuan with a complicated expression on her face.

"I will be back later! Don't touch him or this spatial ring until I return!" Elder Xue said to the disciple before disappearing from the place without even touching the spatial ring once, leaving her speechless.

Chapter 614 - Dragon Spatial Ring

'What happened?' Yuan wondered to himself as he watched Elder Xue leave the scene in a hurry.

The disciple was also dumbfounded by the turn of events, and she turned to look at Yuan with a profound expression on her face.

'Just who is this guy?' she wondered to herself.

Meanwhile, after leaving the prison area, Elder Xue went to summon other sect elders.

About half an hour later, Elder Xue sat in a medium-sized room with a dozen other figures, all females.

"What happened, Sister Xue?" One of them asked after everyone was seated.

"We have a problem," she responded with a deep frown on her face.

The atmosphere there immediately became serious when the others saw Elder Xue's expression, as she's rarely this solemn.

"First of all, a man had entered the Fairy Paradise," she continued after a moment of silence.

"What?! A man?! How dare this savage beast invade our sacred territory! Doesn't he know that men are not allowed in the Fairy Paradise, and breaking this rule is punishable with the death sentence?!"

"There are always people who want to try their luck. This is the 3rd man to invade our territory in the last 10 years."

"It's only a man, right? Why are you so serious about it, Sister Xue? Just kill him and toss his body back where it belongs like we always do."
Another one said.

Elder Xue shook her head and said, "That's the problem. This person isn't just an ordinary man. He has a Dragon Spatial Ring with him..."

"Wait... What? A Dragon Spatial Ring?"

Elder Xue watched as everyone in the room widened their eyes after they realized the situation.

"Dragon Spatial Ring... You're telling me this man that invaded our territory is from the Royal Dragon Family?"

"Why would someone from the Royal Dragon Family invade our territory? They should know very well to not do such a thing, as that could potentially start a war."

"How do we know if he's true royalty? He could have stolen that ring for all we know."

"If he's really from the Royal Dragon Family, we cannot kill him so easily."

"Should we speak with the Sect Master about this?"

"Did you forget? The Sect Master is currently away to help the Fairy Empress."

"How troublesome..."

"Sister Xue, what do you think we should do in this situation?"

The people there all turned to look at Elder Xue, who was the most senior in the room.

Elder Xue closed her eyes to ponder.

After a moment of silence, she spoke, "We should verify his identity first."

"How are we going to do that? What if he lies? We will have no way to verify it unless we go to the Royal Dragon Family."

"Then bring someone from the Royal Dragon Family here to verify his identity just in case. Tell them about the situation. I'm sure they'll understand and cooperate. After all, this could potentially lead to another war."

"I will go to the Royal Dragon Family." Someone there immediately volunteered.

"Okay."

"I will handle interrogating that man." Elder Xue said.

Sometime later, Elder Xue ended the meeting and returned to the prison cell.

"Bring him down." Elder Xue said to the disciple there.

"Y-Yes!"

While the disciple worked on bringing Yuan back down, Elder Xue spoke to him, "This does not mean you're free. If you do anything funny, I will kill you. If you try to run, I will kill you. Do you understand?"

Yuan silently nodded his head.

Once he was released from the chains, Elder Xue pointed to the Dragon Spatial Ring and said, "Open it and dump everything out."

Yuan immediately hesitated for obvious reasons.

"Either you do it by yourself or I kill you and open it myself. Don't be mistaken. I can easily force open the Spatial Ring with my cultivation base. I am merely giving you a chance to show your sincerity." Elder Xue said to him.

Of course, she lied about killing him to scare him. However, she was telling the truth about opening the spatial ring by herself.

Although only the owners can open their spatial rings in normal circumstances, a cultivator with a strong enough cultivation base can forcefully open spatial rings and pouches at the cost of destroying the spatial ring.

"Alright, I will open it," Yuan said, as he was left with no other choice.

Elder Xue grabbed the Dragon Spatial Ring and tossed it to Yuan.

The moment Yuan had the Dragon Spatial Ring in his grasp, he immediately tried to log off the game.

Even if he doesn't really go anywhere and has to return to this place when he logs back into the game, at least he can delay this situation to a certain extent. Furthermore, it could confuse these people.

However, a notification popped up when Yuan tried to log off, leaving him speechless.

[You cannot log off during a hostile situation]

'I cannot log off?!'

This is the second time that he has encountered this kind of situation. The first time was when he tried to log off right before the Demon Lord denoted itself, but since he was in combat, it didn't let him log off, forcing him to take the explosion head-on.

"Wait are you waiting for? If you're planning something..." Elder Xue narrowed her gaze at Yuan when he stood there without moving for longer than she was comfortable with.

'Haaa... Looks like I really cannot escape this situation...' Yuan sighed inwardly.

He then opened the Dragon Spatial Ring and dumped everything out, feeling as though he was being robbed at gunpoint.

The next moment, a couple of items fell out.

The Soul Ensnaring Zither, Golden Dragon Robe, the Demon Lord's Demon Core, cultivation techniques, live-saving treasures, the Seven Colored Herb, and last but not least, the Dragon Ancestor's Blood Essence.

Elder Xue and the disciple stared with wide eyes as all of these treasures lay on the floor before them. Even though they didn't recognize half of these treasures, they could tell their value by its unfathomable aura.

'This guy... Just who is this man?!' Elder Xue cried inwardly.

Chapter 615 - Royal Dragon Family

'A bottle that seems to contain some sort of blood essence, life-saving treasures, a demon core, and even the Seven Colored Herb?! This man is loaded with treasures!' The disciple cried inwardly when she saw the treasures on the floor, feeling a strong urge to take them for herself.

Of course, with Elder Xue standing right beside her, she didn't dare to actually act upon her desires.

As for Elder Xue, she couldn't care less about the treasures, and the only thing in her sights right now was the Golden Dragon Robe.

'He not only has a Dragon Spatial Ring, but he also has a Golden Dragon Robe... I will be damned if he's not part of the Royal Dragon Family!' Elder Xue sighed inwardly.

After seeing the Golden Dragon Robe, Elder Xue was almost convinced that Yuan belonged to the Royal Dragon Family. The only thing that didn't make sense was Yuan's behavior, as he was being oddly quiet and obedient even in such a situation.

If he was actually from the Royal Dragon Family, he would've long revealed his identity so that they couldn't just kill him.

'Maybe he has a reason that forbids him from revealing his identity?' Elder Xue wondered to herself.

"You can put your stuff back inside the storage ring." Elder Xue said to him a moment later.

'Eh?'

Although Yuan was surprised by her words, he didn't question it and immediately stored his treasures back into the Dragon Spatial Ring.

Elder Xue then asked him, "Who are you? Why did you come to the Fairy Paradise? Men are forbidden from stepping inside this land regardless of your status and reason."

'Men are not allowed here? This explains why I am being treated like this...' Yuan sighed inwardly as he finally realized the situation.

"My name is Yuan, and like I'd said multiple times by now— I didn't come here by choice. I was teleported here by accident after touching the Zither Goddess' immortal cave, and I have never even heard of a Fairy Paradise until today."

"Zither Goddess?" Elder Xue raised her eyebrows upon hearing this name, but it didn't seem like she knew of the Zither Goddess.

"Anyways, you'll be staying here until we can verify your identity. If you try to escape... You'll know what will happen to you, right?" Elder Xue then said to him.

"Yes, I know..." Yuan nodded.

Elder Xue turned to look at the disciple and said, "Continue watching over him. If he tries to leave or does anything funny, put him back in the chains."

"I-I understand." The disciple nodded, and she noticed that Elder Xue didn't specifically tell her to 'kill him', which would be the normal command.

'This man must have a special status... This is the first time that a man has been allowed to enter the Fairy Paradise without getting executed immediately...' The disciple thought to herself.

After Elder Xue left the scene, Yuan tried to log off the game, but to his surprise, he was still unable to leave due to still being in a hostile situation.

'Does this mean I am stuck inside this game until they no longer see me as a threat? How long is that going to take?' Yuan sighed inwardly.

Meanwhile, somewhere in this world, an hour after leaving, one of the sect elders from the Fairy Paradise arrived at the Royal Dragon Family's residence with the help of a powerful flying treasure.

"Halt! State your identity and your purpose for visiting the Royal Family!"

The guards at the residence stopped this sect elder, and they were all emitting a unique aura that only belonged to dragons.

"I am Elder Zou from the Fairy Paradise, and we believe that a man from the Royal Dragon Family has broken our law by entering our territory, so I am here to seek for an explanation from the Royal Family!"

"What? Someone from our family entered the Fairy Paradise? That's impossible! Everybody is aware of the law! And we have no reason to enter the Fairy Paradise!" The guards immediately refused to believe that someone from their family would do such a thing.

"I don't care what you have to say! That man who intruded our place had a Dragon Spatial Ring with him, and only the Royal Dragon Family would have such a thing! Even if he's not part of the Royal Family, he's definitely connected to you guys one way or another!" Elder Zou said.

And she continued, "If you're telling me that he doesn't belong to the Royal Dragon Family then we will execute him right now!"

The guards immediately began sweating after hearing such words.

What if someone from the Royal Dragon Family had really snuck inside the Fairy Paradise? That would be disastrous if true!

"P-Please wait a moment. I will notify the Dragon King of the situation right now." One of the guards said to her before entering the massive palace behind them.

"Your Majesty! We have an emergency!" The guard rushed to the Dragon King's room and knocked on it.

"What happened?" The door opened a moment later, and a handsome middle-aged man with two bright golden horns on his head appeared before the guard.

"Elder Zou from the Fairy Paradise is here, and she claims that someone from the Royal Family had intruded their territory." The guard explained the situation to the Dragon King.

"What? Someone from my family snuck inside the Fairy Paradise? How is that possible? Who did it?!" The Dragon King was immediately enraged to hear this news, but he was also in disbelief, as he couldn't imagine somebody from his family would do such an idiotic thing.

"She didn't give us any names. In fact, she only 'believes' it was someone from our family because that person has a Dragon Spatial Ring," said the guard.

"Bring her inside! I want to speak with her personally!" The Dragon King commanded.

"Yes! Please excuse this subject!" The guard bowed to the Dragon King before returning to Elder Zou and the others.

"The Dragon King wishes to speak with you... Please follow me."

Chapter 616 - Dragon Emperor

"Welcome, Elder Zou, to my royal estate. You claim that someone from my Royal Family had entered the Fairy Paradise, is that correct?" The Dragon King asked Elder Zou when she arrived before him.

"And before you answer my question, you should know that I don't respond to false claims nicely."

Elder Zou coldly sneered and said, "And you should know that the Fairy Paradise doesn't respond well to rule breakers! A man with a Dragon Spatial Ring had invaded our territory, and I am here to verify whether he belongs to your family or not!"

"If he doesn't belong to your family, we will immediately execute him! However, if he does turn out to belong to the royal family, our Fairy Paradise will demand an explanation and compensation!"

The Dragon King then spoke, "While it is true that only the Royal Family should have a Dragon Spatial Ring, it is also possible for others to obtain the ring through other means. It's rare for this to happen, but it's not impossible."

The Dragon King then turned to look at the guard standing beside him and said, "What's the result?"

"I have managed to contact all of the men in the Royal Dragon Family and confirm that none of them have entered the Fairy Paradise," said the guard.

Elder Zou frowned upon hearing the guard's words. If that was true, that would mean the man with the Dragon Spatial Ring doesn't belong to the Royal Dragon Family.

"As you heard just now, Elder Zou, we have accountability for all men in the family, so it is not possible for that intruder to belong to our royal family!"

"That's all I need to hear. Then I will let the others know so that they can go ahead and continue with the execution," said Elder Zou as she retrieved a communication jade slip.

The Dragon King then added, "After you take care of that man, if you don't mind, can you return the Dragon Spatial Ring to us to prevent future misunderstandings? We'll compensate you for the effort."

"Of course." Elder Zou nodded.

A moment later, Elder Xue picked up the communication.

"Sister Xue, I have just spoken with the Dragon King. The man who invaded our territory doesn't belong to the Royal Dragon Family, so we can go ahead and kill him."

However, to Elder Zou's surprise, Elder Xue requested to speak with the Dragon King.

"Let me speak with the Dragon King."

Elder Zou then handed the communicated jade slip to the Dragon King, "Elder Xue would like to speak with you."

The Dragon King didn't think much of it and accepted the communicated jade slip.

"What do you want, Elder Xue?"

"Dragon King, are you absolutely certain that the intruder doesn't belong to the Royal Dragon Family?" Elder Xue asked him in a solemn voice.

"I have already gotten accountability for all men in my family and none of them is even near the Fairy Paradise! I am one hundred percent certain that the intruder does not belong to my royal family! Or are you trying to tell me that I am wrong?"

After a moment of silence, Elder Xue spoke, "Then can you explain to me why this person has a Golden Dragon Robe?"

"WHAT?!"

The Dragon King immediately stood up and exclaimed in a shocked voice, dumbfounding the guard and Elder Zou there.

"Impossible! That is not possible! Although a Dragon Spatial Ring could've accidentally gotten into the hands of a stranger, as it has happened a couple of times before, the Golden Dragon Robe is an entirely different story with no such incidents!" The Dragon King quickly refuted.

And he continued, "The Golden Dragon Robe can only be given to someone that will become a future Dragon Emperor! Our family doesn't even have a Dragon Emperor! How can we possibly lose a Golden Dragon Robe when we don't even have one?!"

In the world of dragon royalty, there are different ranks of authority and power.

From the lowest to the highest— Dragon Prince/Princess, Dragon Lord, Dragon King, Dragon Emperor, Dragon God, and last but not least, Dragon Ancestor.

The Royal Dragon Family Yuan met in the Ancient Dragon City had Dragon Emperors, but in this world, Dragon King was the highest rank.

"I don't believe it! I will send someone there to verify his identity!" The Dragon King spoke after a long moment of silence.

He then turned to look at the guard and said, "Bring Shen Shi here as soon as possible!"

"Yes!"

"What is happening?" Elder Zou asked him.

The Dragon King looked at her and said, "That's what I would like to know. If this intruder truly has a Golden Dragon Robe, you must not harm him under any circumstances!"

"Why? What's so special about this Golden Dragon Robe?" Elder Zou frowned.

"The Golden Dragon Robe represents a Dragon Emperor. There are many ranks in the Royal Dragon Family, and a Dragon Emperor is up there. If you kill a Dragon Emperor, you won't just offend the Royal Dragon Family — you'll be hunted by them."

"The Fairy Paradise might have the Fairy Empress and that person, but you won't be able to defend against the whole Royal Dragon Family all over the Nine Heavens. Furthermore, you'll only see Dragon Emperors above the Sixth Heaven, and we're currently in the Fifth Heaven."

Elder Zou frowned and said, "So you're telling me this invader came from the upper heavens?"

"No, this is only a speculation. However, if it turns out that he really has a Golden Dragon Robe... Things will get a little complicated for the Fairy Paradise and my royal family." The Dragon King sighed.

Sometime later, a beautiful young lady with a single golden horn on the side of her head appeared before the Dragon King.

"I have arrived, father. Why have you summoned me?"

"Shen Shi, you are to follow Elder Zou here to the Fairy Paradise... There is a person there with the Golden Dragon Robe, and I want you to verify his identity," said the Dragon King, instantly dumbfounding her.

Chapter 617 - Release Him Immediately!

"D-Did you just say the Golden Dragon Robe, father?" Shen Shi asked him with a dumbfounded look on her face.

"Yes, I did." The Dragon King nodded with a solemn face.

"We don't have any Dragon Emperors in this world, so does this mean that someone from the upper heavens came down here? But why the Fairy Paradise?" Shen Shi then asked.

"I am sending you there to answer that question. Hurry up and get moving. If he's really a Dragon Emperor, we don't want anything to happen to him. If he's real, you should know what to do."

"I understand."

Shen Shi then followed Elder Zou back to the Fairy Paradise using some sort of special talisman that teleported them there within seconds.

Meanwhile, back at the Fairy Paradise, Yuan was sitting in the corner of the prison cell while silently pondering to himself if there was anything else he could do to get out of this situation.

'I just wanted to look at the Zither Goddess's immortal cave...' He sighed inwardly.

Eventually, Elder Xue returned to the prison and said to him, "Take out your Golden Dragon Robe. I need to verify something."

Yuan had no choice but to hand over his Golden Dragon Robe to her.

'At least she didn't ask for the blood essence...' He thought to himself as he handed her the Golden Dragon Robe.

Once she had the robe, Elder Xue left the scene and went to another place, where Shen Shi and the other sect elders were waiting.

"Here is the Golden Dragon Robe. Please verify it." Elder Xue handed the robe to Shen Shi.

"T-This is..."

Shen Shi was visibly shaken when she touched the Golden Dragon Robe.

"This is real... My blood is reacting to it..."

She then looked at Elder Xue and spoke with a frown on her face, "You need to release that person immediately!"

"Unfortunately, that is not possible, as he'd violated our Fairy Paradise's law, and without the Fairy Empress's approval, we cannot let him go." One of the elders there said.

"Screw the rules! This is a Dragon Emperor we're talking about! Even if he's not from our Royal Dragon Family, we have a responsibility to protect him! If anything happens to him, we'll be the least of your worries!"

"You do not belong to a royal family, so I don't blame you for being ignorant, but a Dragon Emperor is not someone you can offend! A single Dragon Emperor can remove my entire family with a single command, much less your Fairy Paradise!"

The elders there were left speechless by Shen Shi's words. They have never encountered a Dragon Emperor before, so they didn't know the severity of their situation.

"We'll release the man, but this doesn't mean he can leave." Elder Xue suddenly said.

And she continued, "Before we can fully release him, we'll need to speak with the Fairy Empress."

"Hmph! I doubt the Fairy Empress will be willing to go to war with the Royal Dragon Family for a single man! And I will be staying here until he is free!" Shen Shi said.

"Do as you please." Elder Xue said before leaving the place and returning to the prison cell that held Yuan.

Of course, Shen Shi followed her, as she wanted to meet this mysterious Dragon Emperor for herself.

'H-He's the Dragon Emperor? He's so young! Not to mention his lacking cultivation base! Is he really a Dragon Emperor?'

Shen Shi's eyes widened with surprise when she saw Yuan. This is her first time meeting a Dragon Emperor, so she wasn't sure what to expect, but she definitely wasn't expecting to see a handsome young man like Yuan.

"Here's your robe. We'll be releasing you for now, but that doesn't mean you're completely free to go, as we still have to speak with the Fairy Empress. In the meantime, you'll be staying in a designated area." Elder Xue said to Yuan as she returned the Golden Dragon Robe to him.

When Yuan left the prison cell, Shen Shi approached him with a friendly smile on her face.

"Hello, senior. I am Shen Shi of the Royal Dragon Family, and I will do my best to sort things out for you. Until then, I will be staying with you. If you need anything, just let me know."

'The Royal Dragon Family...?' Yuan immediately recalled the royal family from the Ancient Dragon City.

"My name is Yuan," he then said.

"Follow me, I will lead you to your living quarters for now." Elder Xue said to them.

Sometime later, they arrived in this secluded area that had a single house but a large courtyard.

"You are not allowed to leave this area until we give you the permission. If you try to escape, we will kill you even if you're a Dragon Emperor." Elder Xue said to him.

'What? Dragon Emperor?' Yuan raised his eyebrows when he heard her words.

Since when did he become a Dragon Emperor? This made him recall how the dragons in the Ancient Dragon City mistook him as someone from the royal family.

'Now that I think about it, this situation is really similar to when I first arrived in the Ancient Dragon City.' Yuan smiled bitterly when he realized this.

Elder Xue left the scene shortly after, but there were many guards that surrounded this area.

"Let's go inside to talk, shall we?" Shen Shi said to him.

"Okay."

Once they entered the building, they both sat down in front of each other.

"I'm sure you have many questions, but allow me to ask you a few questions first." Shen Shi started the conversation.

And she continued, "First and foremost... Are you really a Dragon Emperor — or from the Royal Dragon Family for that matter? Although you have the Dragon Spatial Ring and even the Golden Dragon Robe, I am still not entirely convinced that you're one."

Yuan didn't immediately respond to her question and took his time pondering how he should respond.

Chapter 618 - Can I See Your Horns?

'Should I tell her the truth? But if they learn that I am not from the royal family... No, I should pretend to be a Dragon Emperor for my own safety...'

After pondering for a moment, Yuan has decided to act as though he was from the Royal Dragon Family, as he would be killed if he wasn't.

"That's right, I am indeed from the Royal Dragon Family," he said to Shen Shi in a calm voice.

Of course, Shen Shi wasn't completely convinced by his words, as there are several questionable points about his claims.

First, why has he kept his identity a secret until now? If he'd revealed his identity earlier, he wouldn't have been treated so roughly.

Secondly, he didn't have concrete proof that he was from a royal family, and they won't be able to verify his identity until they bring him back to their family, where the tools to verify his identity is available.

The Dragon Spatial Ring and the Golden Dragon Robe may convince a lot of people, but it won't fool the real royal family.

"Can you prove it?" Shen Shi suddenly asked him, still with a smile on her face.

And she continued, "Don't misunderstand my intentions, Senior Yuan, but I have never seen a Dragon Emperor before, and I want to know for sure so that you can receive my family's full support."

"I don't blame you for being skeptical. Alright, I will prove it." Yuan said to her before closing his eyes.

After a moment of silence, he opened his eyes and activated Dragon Gaze, causing his eyes to glow golden and emit an intimidating aura.

"?!?!"

When Shen Shi experienced Yuan's Dragon Gaze, her body trembled from excitement and fear at the same time even though her cultivation base was far higher than Yuan's.

'It's really the Dragon's Gaze! And it's so much more powerful than mine! He's the real deal! A real Dragon Emperor!' Shen Shi clenched her fists and jaws just to keep her emotions in control, but her heart was pounding with excitement.

After experiencing Yuan's powerful Dragon's Gaze, Shen Shi stood up before kneeling in front of him, "Please forgive this Junior for doubting the Senior's identity. Our Shen Royal Family will do everything in our power to protect Senior even if it means war against the Fairy Paradise."

"War? Calm down. I do not wish for any wars because of me." Yuan quickly shook his head.

"Then if there's anything this Junior can do to help you..."

Yuan nodded and said, "I'd like some information about this place. You see, I accidentally got transported to this place, so I am a little clueless at this moment."

"S-So that's what happened..." Shen Shi mumbled in a low voice. This explained why he was a Dragon Emperor and they didn't recognize him! To think that he'd been transported here by accident!

"Although such incidents are rare, it's not unprecedented. Since you're a Dragon Emperor, I assume that you came from the upper heavens?"

"S-Something like that." Yuan quickly nodded.

If she knew that he came from the Lower Heavens, that would instantly give away his identity.

"Anyway, allow me to tell you about our humble world, Senior."

"You can sit down." Yuan suddenly said to her, who was still kneeling on the floor.

"Thank you, Senior."

After clearing her throat, she began to speak, "We are currently inside the Fairy Paradise within the Fifth Heaven."

"Fifth Heaven?!" Yuan was shocked to learn this information.

To think he'd traveled four entire realms! Just what kind of secret is the Zither Goddess hiding? Why would her immortal caves do something like this?

"The Fairy Paradise is a unique place in the Fifth Heaven that forbids men from entering this land regardless of their status. There are many sects and families within the Fairy Paradise, and this particular sect is called the Fleeting Fairy Sect."

"Looks like I have fallen into a troublesome place..." Yuan sighed.

"Don't worry, Senior Yuan. Our Royal Dragon Family will guarantee your safety. Although I said that there is no exception, I highly doubt the Fairy Empress is willing to go to war with the Royal Dragon Family over an accident like this. Furthermore, it was not as though you came to this place with malicious intentions."

"Fairy Empress... Is she like the ruler of the Fairy Paradise?" Yuan asked.

"Yes, that's right. She's the number one expert in this world, hence why not many people dare to intrude on this land."

"You'll most likely have to meet her later to deal with the situation."

"I look forward to it." Yuan said with a bittersweet smile.

After talking for some time, Yuan noticed that Shen Shi was actually a little bit fidgety for some reason, so he decided to ask her, "Are you okay?"

"Y-Yes!" Shen Shi responded in a nervous tone.

"If you have something to say, go ahead and say it." Yuan urged.

Shen Shi stared at him for a moment before nodding, "T-Then if you don't mind... Senior Yuan, can I see your horns? I want to see what a Dragon Emperor's horn looks like..."

"My... horns?" Yuan was left speechless by her innocent question that was sparked by her curiosity.

After all, a dragon's horn is incredibly important to them.

"S-Sorry, but due to circumstances, I cannot show you my horns." Yuan politely declined.

"Is that so... It's fine, Senior Yuan. You don't need to apologize. It was rude of me to ask you in the first place." Shen Shi said with a smile on her face, but the disappointment in her eyes wasn't hidden well enough.

Although some dragons prefer having their horns out all the time like Shen Shi and her family, some dragons don't want to show their horns for many different reasons.

'Now that I think about it, the dragons at the Ancient Dragon City didn't show their horns. I wonder if there's a specific reason...' Yuan wondered to himself.

Chapter 619 - Dont Resist

Chapter 619 - Don't Resist

After talking to each other for a few minutes, Shen Shi stood up and said, "Please excuse me for a bit, Senior Yuan. I still need to notify my father of the circumstances so that he can prepare accordingly. He's probably shaking in anxiety right now from waiting."

"Go ahead. Take your time." Yuan nodded.

Shen Shi then left the scene and went outside to contact her father using a communication jade slip.

"Shen Shi?! What is the news?! Is this person really a Dragon Emperor?!" Her father immediately began questioning her in an anxious manner.

"Calm down, father. You'll need all of your breath for this..." Shen Shi said to him.

And she continued, "It's true, this person is the real deal— a real Dragon Emperor!"

The Dragon King stared at the communication jade slip with a look of disbelief on his face.

A real Dragon Emperor? If this is true, they must protect him at all cost!

"Tell me everything!" The Dragon King said.

"Yes!"

Shen Shi proceeded to explain everything she heard from Yuan to her father.

"He accidentally arrived in the Fairy Paradise and actually belongs to the upper heaven? No wonder why he's already a Dragon Emperor despite being only a Spirit Grandmaster!"

Shen Shi's voice then resounded, "Father, we must protect him at all cost! Now that we are aware of his presence, if anything happens to him, our family will be held responsible!"

"You don't have to tell me the obvious! We'll protect him even if we have to go to war with the Fairy Paradise!" The Dragon King declared.

"Anyways, I will leave the Dragon Emperor in your care while I speak with the Fairy Empress, Shen Shi. If he takes a liking to you, it will greatly benefit our family!"

"E-Eh? Does this mean you want me to..."

"No! Do not try to seduce him, as that could have the opposite effect! However, if he makes any advances on you, don't resist or refuse him! If you join a Dragon Emperor's family, our future bloodline will become purer and more powerful!"

"I understand, father." Shen Shi acknowledged before putting away the communication jade slip.

"Haaaa..." She released a deep sigh before returning to the building.

However, to her surprise, Yuan had completely disappeared from the place like a ghost.

But when she started questioning it, something altered her thoughts, making her forget about Yuan temporarily.

As for Yuan, he'd tried logging off the game after she left, and it was a success.

"Are you done playing already, Brother Yuan?" Chu Liuxiang, who had been lying beside him the entire time, asked him when he logged off.

"Yes. Too much has happened today, and I need some time to rest."

"What happened? I will listen if you tell me," she said.

Yuan nodded and proceeded to recall his experience.

Meanwhile, somewhere in the Fairy Paradise.

"Fairy Empress, something big has occurred in our land." An extraordinarily beautiful woman spoke as she approached the Fairy Empress, who was sitting on a large throne, silently cultivating.

"What happened?" The Fairy Empress opened her eyes, revealing her exquisite emerald eyes.

"A man had entered our Fairy Paradise—"

"A man? And here I thought it was something serious. Just execute him like we always do," said the Fairy Empress, interrupting the other woman.

"Unfortunately, this man is a little special, so we cannot just kill him..."

"Special? I don't care if he's the king of multiple continents. If they disrespect my rules, they will pay the price—"

"Fairy Empress, this man is a Dragon Emperor from the Royal Dragon Family." The woman interrupted.

"What did you just say?" The Fairy Empress' eyes widened with disbelief.

"According to my disciples at the sect, a man had suddenly appeared in the Fairy Paradise, and this man turned out to be a Dragon Emperor," said the woman who was the sect master of the Fleeting Fairy Sect.

However, the Fairy Empress doubted this information, "A Dragon Emperor, you say? That is not possible. They should only exist in the Six Heaven and above. Why would a Dragon Emperor appear here?"

"It's true, Fairy Empress. My disciples even went to the Royal Dragon Family to get someone to verify his identity. The Dragon King is now demanding we release this man."

The Fairy Empress turned silent after hearing such news.

'If this man is really a Dragon Emperor, we cannot kill him, or we will risk offending the entire Royal Family Dragon. Although I can handle the royal families in this world, if the other royal families from the upper heaven start causing trouble as well, it would be disastrous for us...'

'Unlike a Dragon King, a Dragon Emperor is highly regarded in the Royal Dragon Family, so they will definitely protect him even if it will start a war.'

After many moments of silence, the Fairy Empress spoke, "What else do we know about this Dragon Emperor?"

The sect master then recalled everything her disciples told her to the Fairy Empress.

"Interesting... I want to speak with this mysterious Dragon Emperor who appeared out of thin air."

"When do you wish to see him? I will let my disciples arrange it."

"I am a little busy now so I will see him in three days. He may be a Dragon Emperor, but he still violated my rules, so he'll have to wait a little."

"I understand. Please excuse me while I relay this information to my disciples."

The following day, Yuan returned to Cultivation Online to find Shen Shi quietly sitting on the couch.

"I apologize for disappearing so suddenly yesterday without telling you." Yuan said to her.

However, to his surprise, Shen Shi didn't appear to care about it. In fact, she was oddly dismissive about it, not even bothering to ask any questions.

'If Cultivation Online is real and these people are not actual NPCs, why don't they question us, players, when we suddenly disappear? Is something preventing her from caring?' Yuan wondered to himself as he silently stared at Shen Shi.

Chapter 620 - Meeting The Fairy Empress

'Let's test this out...' Yuan thought to himself.

The next second, he logged off the game right in front of Shen Shi.

"Eh? Where did he go...?" Shen Shi was baffled by Yuan's sudden disappearance.

However, when she tried to think any further about the situation, she suddenly stopped caring for some reason.

A moment later, Yuan reappeared before her.

"Senior?" Shen Shi looked at him weirdly.

"What do you think of that?" Yuan suddenly asked her.

"Think of what, Senior?" Shen Shi tilted her head in a puzzled manner.

"The way I disappeared and reappeared like a ghost. What do you think about it?"

"You disappeared? When?" Shen Shi asked, dumbfounding Yuan.

"Just now? Look, I will even do it again."

Yuan proceeded to log off and back in for a second time in front of her.

However, Shen Shi remained nonchalant about it.

"You really don't see anything wrong with me disappearing and reappearing so randomly?" Yuan asked her.

"But Senior, you have been standing there this entire time... Are you playing a joke on me? I'm sorry, but I don't understand it..." Shen Shi shook her head.

"Sorry, forget about it." Yuan gave up on asking Shen Shi.

Sometime later, Yuan went outside to the backyard to cultivate.

'I didn't notice this before because of my situation, but the spiritual energy in this place is very thick... I should take advantage of this and cultivate.'

Yuan then started his cultivation, quickly absorbing the spiritual energy around him.

Shen Shi watched him cultivate out of curiosity, and to her absolute shock, Yuan was cultivating so fast that a small vortex was created around him, and it swallowed the surrounding spiritual energy like a beast!

'What ridiculous cultivation talents! As expected of a Dragon Emperor from the upper heavens!' Shen Shi cried inwardly as she continued to watch over him.

Sometime later, Elder Xue showed up at their place to let them know the Fairy Empress's response.

"I will take you to meet with the Fairy Empress in three days." Elder Xue said to them.

"I understand." Yuan nodded.

Once Elder Xue left the scene, Yuan returned to cultivating for the remainder of the day.

"I will see you tomorrow." Yuan said to her before logging off.

"Please wait a moment, Senior Yuan." Shen Shi suddenly said.

"What's the matter?"

"If you need anything at night, just let me know," she said.

"Okay." Yuan nodded and logged off without thinking too much about her words.

Three days later.

"I have come to take you to the Fairy Empress." Elder Xue arrived at their door early in the morning.

"Are you ready to leave, Senior Yuan?" Shen Shi asked him.

"Yes."

Shen Shi then asked him, "Senior, are you not going to wear your Golden Dragon Robe? I think you should wear it when meeting the Fairy Empress."

Yuan looked down and realized that he was still wearing his casual robes.

"Give me a minute to change," he said and went to change into the Golden Dragon Robe.

"Let's go." Yuan appeared before them a few minutes later.

However, Shen Shi didn't respond, and she even looked a bit dazed when she saw him, almost like a girl experiencing love at first sight.

"Are you okay?" Yuan asked her.

"Eh? Y-Yes!" She snapped out of her daze and immediately began blushing.

'He looks completely different when wearing the Golden Dragon Robe! Even his aura changed! This must be a true Dragon Emperor!'

Although Yuan looked like an ordinary person in his casual robes, he truly looked like he belonged to royalty in the Golden Dragon Robe, which caught Shen Shi by surprise.

"Get on." Elder Xue said to them after taking out her flying treasure.

However, Shen Shi declined and said, "It's okay, I have my own."

Then she turned to Yuan and asked him, "Would you like to ride on mine, Senior Yuan?"

"Sure." He nodded, as he didn't have his own flying treasure yet.

Shen Shi then retrieved her flying treasure that was a dragon. It looked very similar to the one used by the Sect Master of the Dragon Essence Temple, but it also looked more majestic and refined.

After jumping onto its head, Shen Shi commanded the flying treasure to follow Elder Xue, who was riding on a large swan.

About three hours later, Yuan could see a massive and majestic castle in the distance.

"Is that where the Fairy Empress lives? What a huge place..." Yuan muttered out loud.

Shen Shi, who heard his mumble, nodded and said, "That's right. It is also home to many powerful experts."

A few more minutes later, they began descending towards the ground.

The moment they landed, Yuan could instantly feel many gazes staring directly at him, and they weren't friendly looks.

Yuan looked around, and sure enough, there were many pretty ladies there looking at him with a look of contempt on their faces.

"Don't worry about them, Senior Yuan. It's common for women in the Fairy Paradise to hate men." Shen Shi comforted him.

"Is there a reason why they harbor such feelings?" Yuan asked out of curiosity.

"A lot of them had been wronged by men in the past, which is the main reason," she said.

"What are you waiting for? Let's hurry up and meet the Fairy Empress." Elder Xue said to them.

While they walked, Shen Shi whispered to Yuan, "Senior, I can tell that you're a calm and humble person after spending the last few days with you, but you should act a little more authoritative when speaking with the Fairy Empress so that she doesn't look down on you."

"Authoritative, huh? I will try." He nodded.

After walking through many hallways and large room, they finally arrived at the main room.

"The Fairy Empress is right behind these doors. If you do anything inappropriate..." Elder Xue narrowed her eyes at them.

"I can say the same to you. If you disrespect the Dragon Emperor..." Shen Shi said.

Elder Xue opened the door and entered the room with Yuan and Shen Shi.

Chapter 621 - Why Dont You Take A Guess?

Chapter 621 - Why Don't You Take A Guess?

"That's the Fairy Empress?" Yuan thought to himself as they approached the figure sitting all the way at the end of the room, and there was another figure standing beside her, who was wearing a uniform that looked similar to Elder Xue's robes.

As for the woman sitting on the throne, she was an extremely beautiful woman with long golden hair and emerald-colored eyes.

"This Junior greets the Fairy Empress." Elder Xue bowed to her.

She then turned to bow to the woman standing beside the Fairy Empress, "This disciple greets the Sect Master."

Seeing Elder Xue greet them, Yuan also prepared to greet them.

However, Shen Shi stopped him from greeting them before stepping forward.

"Fairy Empress! The Royal Dragon Family demands you release the Dragon Emperor as soon as possible! If you keep him detained any longer, we will have no choice but to escalate the situation!"

Yuan stared at Shen Shi with wide eyes.

The Fairy Empress should be the most powerful person in this world, yet Shen Shi dared to speak to her in such a tone.

Either the Dragon Royal Family is as powerful as the Fairy Empress, or she's incredibly daring.

After hearing Shen Shi's words, the Fairy Empress coldly snorted, "Are you threatening me? You have gotten quite daring since our last meeting, Shen Shi. Have you forgotten about where you are standing right now? That man's life is now in my hands— whether he's the Dragon Emperor or not, so you should watch your mouth and attitude when around me, little girl."

"You can also save your scare tactics for another time, Fairy Empress. You should know very well what will happen to the Fairy Paradise if you harm even a single hair on his body." Shen Shi snorted back.

"Are you sure you want to start a war with the Royal Dragon Family? And it won't just be against my family— but against every Royal Dragon Family in the Nine Heavens."

The Fairy Emperor suddenly burst out laughing that echoed loudly in the large room.

When she eventually stopped laughing, the Fairy Empress suddenly released her cultivation base, instantly pressuring Shen Shi that also affected Yuan even though he was not targeted.

'What powerful pressure! I have never felt anything like this before! What cultivation base is this Fairy Empress at?!' Yuan cried inwardly.

"I will not repeat myself. This is my house, not the Royal Dragon Family, Shen Shi. You will get hurt if you continue barking so loud."

Shen Shi gritted her teeth and also released her cultivation base to retaliate.

However, Yuan suddenly shouted, "Fairy Empress!"

The Fairy Empress immediately stopped her pressure and turned to look at him with interest.

"Did you call me here to fight with her, or do you want to speak with me?" He asked her with a calm face.

"Dragon Emperor, huh? Are you really a Dragon Emperor? How can a Dragon Emperor have such a pathetic cultivation base?" The Fairy Empress spoke after a moment of silence.

"Our ranks are not determined by one's cultivation base but by our bloodline's purity and raw talents." Shen Shi responded.

The Fairy Empress turned to look at Shen Shi with an annoyed look on her face, and she spoke, "Shen Shi, can you let the little emperor speak for himself? You really think I don't know how the Dragon Royal Family works? If you speak any more, I will have you removed until we are done."

"Fairy Empress, I can speak for myself just fine. The only reason I am not being aggressive is because I am in the wrong for entering the Fairy Paradise without permission." Yuan suddenly said.

"However, it appears that I am being treated as a pushover by staying silent, so I will be the one talking now."

"Oh? Then what do you have to say for yourself?" The Fairy Empress no longer bothered with Shen Shi and returned her focus to Yuan.

"Like I'd already mentioned, I acknowledge that I am in the wrong for breaking the rules of this place, but it was not as though I came here on purpose."

"I was accidentally teleported here from another heaven, and I had no control over that whatsoever."

"If you're going to kill me over something like this... then you should be prepared to face the consequences for killing a Dragon Emperor."

"Can you tell me which of the Nine Heavens did you come from?" The Fairy Empress asked him with a calm face.

"That has nothing to do with my situation, so I will not entertain you," Yuan calmly responded.

And he continued, "The real question here is whether you'll kill me or let me go."

After a moment of silence, the Fairy Emperor spoke with a cold grin on her face, "What if I don't kill you... but I will also not let you go? What if I feel like keeping you imprisoned here forever?"

"You dare?!" Shen Shi exclaimed in an angry voice.

"Of course I dare. Even if the Royal Dragon Family from the upper heavens were to cause trouble here, I also have connections to people in the upper heaven. Don't think you can intimidate me with the royal family."

"And I highly doubt the royal family would want to offend these people for a mere Dragon Emperor. Now if he was a Dragon God, that might be able to save him."

Hearing her words, Yuan suddenly started laughing.

He then said, "Go ahead and imprison me if you want. But before you make that decision, you should know that I have someone waiting for me, and if I don't show up... Let's just say that he'll be very angry."

After saying these words, Yuan retrieved a glass bottle from his Dragon Spatial Ring before tossing it to the Fairy Empress.

"What is this? If you think a drop of blood will save you—" The Fairy Empress suddenly stopped speaking when she took a closer look at the drop of blood in the bottle.

"W-Whose blood essence does this belong to?!" She suddenly shouted in a grim voice, startling everyone there.

"Why don't you take a guess? I will give you a hint... He's the one who created the Royal Dragon Family..." Yuan said with a smile on his face.

Chapter 622 - Blood Essence Of A God-Like Entity

"Y-You don't mean..." Shen Shi covered her mouth in shock after hearing Yuan's words.

"Bullsh*t!" The Fairy Empress suddenly stood up and exclaimed in a somewhat angry manner.

"There's no way this blood essence belongs to the Dragon Ancestor!" She denied his claims.

"I don't blame you for not believing me. I mean, this is the Dragon Ancestor that we're talking about. However, I am not lying to you. If you don't believe me, you can imprison me and wait to find out the truth— though it might be too late then."

The Fairy Empress gritted her teeth after hearing Yuan's words.

Although she cannot tell whether this blood essence truly belonged to the Dragon Ancestor or not, she could tell that the blood essence had come from a god-like being due to the unique spiritual energy the blood essence contained.

While ordinary cultivators all cultivate the same spiritual energy in the air, once they reach a certain cultivation level, they will need to absorb different types of spiritual energy.

For example, a cultivator that has achieved immortality will need to absorb Immortal Qi in order to continue their progress, and the ordinary spiritual energy in their body will eventually be replaced by Immortal Qi.

Above Immortals are god-like beings that can create stars and life with the snap of their finger, and these apex entities will cultivate Celestial Qi, something that the Fairy Empress could sense within the blood essence.

Therefore, even if this blood essence in her grasp doesn't belong to the Dragon Ancestor, it doesn't take away from the fact that it came from a god-like being— someone who has reached the peak of cultivation.

And if it's true that Yuan has connections to a god-like being, nobody in the Fifth Heaven can touch him unless they want to die a horrible death.

After standing there with a perplexed look on her face, the Fairy Empress suddenly started laughing like a maniac.

"You're good— really good, Dragon Emperor! I would've never expected for you to use this kind of method to convince me!"

When she eventually stopped laughing, the Fairy Empress started approaching Yuan with a profound smile on her face.

Shen Shi stood between them when she saw this.

"Get out of my way, Shen Shi." The Fairy Empress said to her in a cold tone.

"I refuse," she instantly responded.

However, Yuan tapped her from behind and said, "It's okay."

Shen Shi gritted her teeth. As much as she wanted to keep him safe from the Fairy Empress, she couldn't disobey a Dragon Emperor who has connections to the Dragon Ancestor himself!

Therefore, she could only reluctantly move out of Fairy Empress' way, allowing her to approach Yuan.

Once the Fairy Empress was in front of Yuan, she returned the Dragon Ancestor's blood essence back to him and said, "I was only teasing you. I have no intentions of harming you, nor do I wish to start a war with the Royal Dragon Family over something like this. However, since you did break my rules, I had to punish you one way or another."

Yuan was left speechless by the Fairy Empress' words. She had been teasing him this entire time? So it was all an act? He really thought she wanted to keep him imprisoned!

"I-I don't believe you!" Shen Shi exclaimed shortly after hearing the Fairy Empress' words.

"You definitely weren't joking!"

"I don't care if you believe me or not." The Fairy Empress shrugged.

"Though I won't deny that I teased you more than planned because of your big mouth, Shen Shi."

"Does this mean I am free to go?" Yuan asked her.

"Yes. Congratulations on becoming the first man to enter the Fairy Paradise without dying, little emperor."

"Thank you. Now I just need to figure out how I am supposed to return to where I came from..." He sighed.

"Senior, why don't you follow me back to the Royal Dragon Family? Perhaps we can help you figure something out."

Yuan hesitated for a brief moment since they might learn that he was disguising as Dragon Emperor if he followed her back to her family.

"Why don't you just go back through the Stairway to Heaven? If you came from the upper heavens, you don't need to do any trials to go back up there." The Fairy Empress said.

"Unfortunately, my situation is a little special, so I cannot take the Stairway to Heaven." Yuan shook his head.

"Do as you please. Anyways, you are free now, so hurry up and leave this place. If you continue lingering around, I might change my mind and keep you here forever." The Fairy Empress then said.

Yuan nodded and turned to look at Shen Shi, "I'll have to inconvenience your family for a bit."

"It's not an inconvenience! In fact, it's an honor for our royal family to have you, Senior Yuan!" Shen Shi bowed to him.

Sometime later, Yuan left the place with Shen Shi on her flying treasure.

"Is it really okay to let him go?" Elder Xue asked the Fairy Empress after they left.

"We have no choice. The fact that a god-like being has given him their blood essence means he's very important to that person. We cannot afford to offend such a person." The Fairy Empress shook her head.

"What if he'd obtained that blood essence through other means?"

"Even if that might be the case, we cannot risk it. You have no idea how horrifying a god-like entity is. A single one of them could easily wipe out an entire world without sweating."

"Is that so..."

"Anyways, just forget about this incident. If the others ask about it, just say we already took care of him."

"I understand."

Meanwhile, back in the Lower Heavens at the Heavenly Melody Academy.

"Has he not returned yet?" Song Ling'er asked Ai Wan, who has been waiting in front of the Zither Fairy's immortal cave for the last three days.

"No, he hasn't." Ai Wan shook her head.

"Looks like we will have to delay his performance indefinitely until he returns... What a headache."

Chapter 623 - Visiting The Royal Dragon Family

Somewhere in the Lower Heavens, three figures could be seen soaring through the sky at high speed without the assistance of flying treasures.

"Can either of you feel the Young Master's presence? It suddenly appeared three days ago, but then it disappeared shortly after." A beautiful woman with a lavish figure asked the other two figures, who were a little girl and a graceful young lady.

Of course, these three were Yuan's companions that had gone on a journey without him for the last few months.

"I cannot feel Brother Yuan's presence." Xiao Hua said.

"Me neither." Lan Yingying shook her head.

"And here I thought the Young Master has finally returned to us..." Feng Yuxiang released a deep sigh.

"Anyways, this is where the Young Master's presence disappeared from. It turned out to be the Heavenly Melody Academy." Feng Yuxiang said as they hovered above the Heavenly Melody Academy.

"What should we do now?" Lan Yingying asked.

In response to Lan Yingying's question, Xiao Hua began flying towards the Heavenly Melody Academy, before descending into the inner court.

Xiao Hua's sudden appearance shocked the disciples there, as only Spirit Grandmasters have the capability to fly without the assistance of flying treasures or flying swords.

And when Feng Yuxiang and Lan Yingying also descended onto the ground from the sky, the disciples' shock turned into fear.

Why did three experts suddenly appear in the middle of their sect?

However, before any disciple could approach them, Song Ling'er noticed their presence and appeared before them.

"I am Song Ling'er, Sect Master of the Heavenly Melody Academy. How can my sect help you?"

"Sect Master Song, we are looking for someone." Feng Yuxiang stepped forward.

"Y-You're... Madam Feng..."

After taking a closer look at their appearances, Song Ling'er recognized them, and they recalled seeing them with the Dragon Essence Temple at the Mystic Realm.

"This person you're looking for... is it Yuan?" Song Ling'er had this gut feeling and asked them.

"Yes, we are. Have you seen him? We stopped whatever we were doing to come here after sensing his presence, but it disappeared shortly after, and we haven't sensed it again since then." Feng Yuxiang nodded.

"Well... You see... What had happened was..." Song Ling'er proceeded to explain to them how Yuan had disappeared after touching the Zither Goddess' immortal cave and has been missing since then.

"What?! He disappeared!? Do you have any idea where he could've went?" Feng Yuxiang asked.

"No, but you can take a look at the place if you wish." Song Ling'er said.

"Take us there!" Xiao Hua immediately said.

"Okay."

Song Ling'er then led the three ladies to the Zither Goddess' immortal cave.

Of course, Ai Wan was still waiting there.

"He disappeared after touching this boulder that seals the entrance." Song Ling'er pointed to the large boulder blocking the entrance.

Feng Yuxiang narrowed her eyes at the boulder for a moment before speaking, "There's a powerful teleport formation within this immortal cave."

"R-Really? Can you do something about this situation?" Song Ling'er asked, feeling a little hopeful.

"I can't say for certain, but we need to go inside to take a closer look at the formation. Can you open it?" Feng Yuxiang said.

"Unfortunately, that's not possible. This immortal cave hasn't been opened since the Zither Goddess left. The only way to open the immortal cave is by forcing it open, but that would destroy the other immortal caves if we're not careful—"

Before Song Ling'er could even finish her sentence, Xiao Hua released her cultivation base and used Qi Manifestation to grab the boulder.

The next second, Xiao Hua yanked the entire boulder away from the entrance, forcefully opening the immortal cave without damaging the other immortal caves.

This left Song Ling'er and Ai Wan completely speechless, as they have never seen an immortal cave being opened in such a forceful manner.

'What cultivation base does she have to achieve such a feat?!' Song Ling'er cried inwardly.

Although she could tell that Feng Yuxiang and Lan Yingying were both at the peak of Spirit Grandmaster, she was unable to see Xiao Hua's cultivation base.

Then she recalled what happened at the Mystic Realm.

'If I remember correctly, that Senior from the upper heavens called her a Spirit King!'

"Let's go inside." Xiao Hua said as she began walking into the immortal cave without waiting for the others.

Clearly, she was the most anxious one there.

Feng Yuxiang and Lan Yingying followed her inside without hesitation.

Meanwhile, at the Fifth Heaven, after leaving the Fairy Paradise, Shen Shi led Yuan back to her Royal Dragon Family using a teleport treasure, so it only took them a few minutes at most.

After being teleported to right outside her family's living quarters, Shen Shi approached the gates with Yuan behind him.

"Welcome to the Shen Family, Senior Dragon Emperor!" The guards got onto their knees and greeted Yuan the moment they got close enough.

"Welcome back, Young Lady!" They greeted Shen Shi afterward.

Once the guards opened the gates, Shen Shi led Yuan into their living quarters.

However, before they even reached the building in the distance, Yuan could see many figures standing outside the building.

These figures were obviously the Royal Dragon Family that lived in this place.

The Dragon King and his entire family had gathered outside to greet Yuan. It was a privilege that only Dragon Emperors and above could experience.

Once Yuan got close enough, everyone besides the Dragon King and his wife got onto their knees to greet him.

"Greetings, Senior Dragon Emperor!" They all shouted in a loud voice, clearly exhilarated to have a Dragon Emperor visit their home.

As for Yuan, he felt a little guilty for disguising himself as a Dragon Emperor. If these people learn that he's not even a dragon, much less the Dragon Emperor, he could only imagine what they might do to him.

'If they learn the truth, I might as well return to the Fairy Paradise since it would be safer there!' Yuan cried inwardly as he greeted the Shen Family.

Chapter 624 - Dragon Paradise

"Hello, everyone. Thank you for the warm welcome, but I'd prefer it if you guys acted more casual and informal when around me." Yuan said to them after seeing them treat him as though he was some kind of emperor.

"My name is Yuan, and you can call me as such."

The people there looked at each other with doubtful gazes. Can they really address a Dragon Emperor so casually? They won't receive divine punishment from their ancestor for doing so?

"If you say so— Yuan." The Dragon King said.

"Anyways, let us introduce ourselves."

The royal family then began introducing themselves starting from the Dragon King.

Once everyone there was done, the Dragon King invited Yuan inside the building.

"By any chance, are you hungry? We are preparing for a feast right now." The Dragon King asked him sometime later after they were all sitting down.

"I am a little hungry." Yuan nodded.

"In the meantime, if there's anything we can help you with..."

"I am trying to find a way back to my own world, but I'm not sure how I even got to this place in the first place."

"Can you describe to me what had happened before you came here?" The Dragon King asked.

Yuan proceeded to recall everything that had happened.

"So you touched the entrance of an immortal cave and got teleported here... By the way you described it, I believe it was a teleport formation that specializes in long-distance transportation." The Dragon King said.

"Do you think I was teleported to the Fairy Paradise by accident?" Yuan then asked.

"No, I don't think so. Long-distance transportations usually have a set destination, and they are very precise. If the teleport formation took you to the Fairy Paradise, that means whoever created the teleport formation meant for it to happen."

"Then is there a way to return to my own world? Maybe if I find the teleport formation again..." Yuan then asked.

Back when he was teleported to the Ancient Dragon City, he was able to teleport back using the same teleport, so maybe he could do the same if he can find the Zither Goddess' teleport formation.

However, the Dragon King shook his head and said, "When you appeared in this world, you weren't on top of a teleport formation but high up in the sky, right? This means that the teleport formation that transported you here was a one-way teleport formation."

"So I cannot return to my world?" Yuan mumbled in a low voice.

"If you came from the upper heavens, you can use the Stairway to Heaven to return, but it will be a little tedious." The Dragon King said.

"What if I want to go to the lower heaven?" Yuan suddenly asked.

"The lower heaven?"

The Dragon King raised his eyebrows in a puzzled manner, but he didn't question it and answered, "That would be a little tricky. If you want to go to the lower heaven, you'll need to speak with the lord of this realm to get permission to go to the lower heaven, and the lower you go, the more resources you'll need to expend."

"The lord of this realm? Who is this lord?" Yuan asked.

"That would be the Fairy Empress..."

"She was the lord of this realm?!" Yuan was surprised to learn this information.

'I just left that place too...' He sighed inwardly.

"Are you really trying to go to the lower heaven, Senior Yuan?" Shen Shi asked him.

"Well... I have some business there, so yes..."

The Dragon King pondered for a moment before speaking, "Fortunately, you're only a Spirit Grandmaster, so it will be easier for you to descend—but not by too much, since you'll still need to speak with the Fairy Empress and have the resources to activate the formation."

"I will speak with the Fairy Empress later."

"Thank you." Yuan nodded.

"Is there anything else you want to ask?"

Yuan pondered for a bit before speaking, "Do you know of a place called the Ancient Dragon City?"

He wanted to know how the royal families outside that place view the city.

"The Ancient Dragon City?" The Dragon King seemed to be puzzled by Yuan's question for some reason.

"Yes... Is there something wrong with that place?" Yuan tilted his head in a questioning manner.

"The Ancient Dragon City? Isn't that a mythical world where only dragons live? It's a very popular legend." Shen Shi suddenly said.

"Eh? What do you mean a legend?" Yuan's eyes widened with surprise upon hearing her words.

"You don't know? The Ancient Dragon City is a legendary world that was created during the Primordial Era by the Dragon Ancestor because dragons were hunted for their precious blood, but nobody has ever been to that place — at least nobody in this world." Shen Shi explained.

"A legend..." Yuan mumbled to himself.

"It is also called the Dragon Paradise by some people." Shen Shi added.

"Why are you interested in the Ancient Dragon City?" The Dragon King asked him.

"Don't tell me that you'd actually came from that place?"

Although the Dragon King spoke as though it was a joke, nobody there was laughing, and they just silently stared at Yuan for a response.

"Of course not." Yuan quickly denied coming from the place, which was the truth.

"Then do you think the Ancient Dragon City exists somewhere out there?" Shen Shi asked a moment later.

"I do." Yuan nodded with a profound smile on his face.

Sometime later, the Dragon King was notified that the feast had been prepared, so everyone there began making their way towards the area.

"This feast is to honor the Dragon Emperor's presence!" The Dragon King announced.

Once the cheering stopped, they began feasting on the food, allowing Yuan to show off his eating talents.

"As expected of a Dragon Emperor! Even his food consumption is top-tier!"

"Look at how quickly he's cleaning up the plates! He's treating the food as though they are air!"

Chapter 625 - Dragon Marble

After entering the Zither Goddess' immortal cave, Xiao Hua and the others immediately began looking around.

However, they quickly realized that besides the teleport formation, there was essentially nothing else inside the immortal cave.

"There's nothing in here..." Song Ling'er was left speechless by this discovery, as she has always believed that there were treasures inside the immortal cave.

Meanwhile, Feng Yuxiang took her time analyzing the formation on the ground despite not being an expert.

"I'm no formation expert, but by the looks of it, this formation is a one-way teleport formation, and judging by the complexity of the design, it's a fairly powerful one."

"Can you tell where it took Brother Yuan?" Xiao Hua asked her.

"Unfortunately, only the creator of this formation would have this information." Feng Yuxiang shook her head.

"Then is there any way to activate it?" Lan Yingying asked.

"You can normally activate a teleport formation by pouring enough spiritual energy inside it, but there are also formations that only activate under certain circumstances. We can try injecting our spiritual energy into this formation, but I don't have any hopes it'll do anything."

"Stand back." Xiao Hua said as she began pouring her spiritual energy into the formation.

However, no matter how much spiritual energy she fed the formation, it remained inactive.

"You said the Young Master played some sort of song with the zither before he was teleported away?" Feng Yuxiang turned to ask Song Ling'er, who nodded.

"Yes, that's what my disciples who were with him at that time said."

Feng Yuxiang sighed and said, "Unless we have a formation master to analyze this formation, we won't be able to tell where it took him, but I doubt there are any formation masters in the Lower Heaven that is skilled enough to handle this formation."

"Is there really nothing we can do?" Lan Yingying asked.

"Unfortunately." Feng Yuxiang shook her head.

"But this is the Young Master that we're talking about. He will be fine no matter where he went. I just hope that he'll return soon."

Meanwhile, in the Fifth Heaven, Yuan was sent to his personal room after the feast.

"If you need anything, just let us know. We'll have someone guarding outside around the clock for you." The Dragon King said to him before leaving.

"Wait a minute." Yuan stopped him before he left.

"Do you know of a Zither Goddess?" He then asked.

"Zither Goddess? I do not, but I can try asking around."

"Is that so... Thank you." Yuan nodded.

Once he was alone, Yuan laid on the bed with a pondering face.

'What should I do now? Even though this is a great chance for me to climb the Nine Heavens, I cannot just leave everyone behind.'

Although he was given this rare chance of skipping four entire realms, allowing him to ascend much faster than other people, he didn't want to leave Xiao Hua and the others behind—he couldn't.

"If only there's something that can help me return..." Yuan sighed out loud as he closed his eyes.

After a few minutes of silence, Yuan suddenly opened his eyes in a snapping manner, almost like he'd realized something.

He then jumped off the bed and began searching inside his Dragon Spatial Ring.

A few moments later, Yuan retrieved a small round object from the Dragon Spatial Ring, and it resembled a marble.

'This is the life-saving treasure that Elder Xuan gave me when I was still a disciple at the Dragon Essence Temple. He said that it could teleport me back to the sect no matter where I am...' Yuan recalled the Dragon Marble that Elder Xuan had given him.

However, he then recalled something else—that it would only work within the Lower Heavens.

'Ah! I forgot! He also mentioned that it would only work if I am within the Lower Heavens...'

After staring at the Dragon Marble for a good moment, Yuan decided to still give it a try without having much hope that it will work.

Yuan took a deep breath and began pouring his spiritual energy into the Dragon Marble.

The Dragon Marble immediately began emitting a bright and golden light that reached every corner inside the room Yuan was in.

Crack!

Yuan could feel the Dragon Marble in his hands quickly heating up, and before he could react, it suddenly exploded into countless fragments, causing the light to intensify many times.

It got so bright that it blinded Yuan, who felt like he was being pointed in every direction by powerful flashlights.

The light began diminishing a few moments later, allowing Yuan to see again.

When Yuan finally opened his eyes and could see his surroundings again, he was surprised to find himself surrounded by people wearing familiar-looking clothes.

"T-They are... Disciples of the Dragon Essence Temple? Did the treasure really bring me back to the sect? I thought it only worked if I was within the Lower Heavens?" Yuan mumbled to himself in a daze.

Indeed, Yuan had been teleported back to the Dragon Essence Temple after using the Dragon Marble.

As for why Elder Xuan said that the Dragon Marble could only be used within the Lower Heavens, it was simply because he didn't know that it could be used even outside the Lower Heaven, as nobody has tried it before until Yuan.

"W-Who are you?! Where did you come from?!" The disciples around Yuan began shouting at him when they snapped out of their daze.

'Judging by their uniform, they should be Outer Court disciples... Anyways, I should hurry up and return to the Heavenly Melody Academy.' Yuan decided to ignore these disciples and return to the Heavenly Melody Academy, shocking the disciples when he suddenly started flying without any flying treasures.

Meanwhile, at the Heavenly Melody Academy, Feng Yuxiang and the others were just about to leave the sect when they suddenly stopped their movements.

"I can sense the Young Master's presence again! The Young Master has returned!" Feng Yuxiang exclaimed in an excited voice.

"What?!" Song Ling'er's eyes widened with shock by this unexpected news.

Chapter 626 - Something Must Have Happened To Him!

After returning to the Lower Heavens, Yuan immediately began making his way back to the Heavenly Melody Academy.

When he got close enough, Feng Yuxiang's voice suddenly resounded in his head.

"Young Master! Are you okay?!"

"Feng Feng?" Yuan was delighted to hear her voice after so long.

"Where are you right now?" Feng Yuxiang then asked.

"I am currently heading to the Heavenly Melody Academy."

"Is that so... Then we will wait for you here."

"You're at the Heavenly Melody Academy right now? Why?" Yuan asked.

"We sensed your presence here, but it disappeared before we could arrive."

"Ah... I will explain everything to you later once I return."

"Okay. See you later, Young Master."

Feng Yuxiang then explained to Xiao Hua and the others that Yuan was heading back to the Heavenly Melody Academy.

"Is everything okay with Yuan?" Song Ling'er asked.

"Yes, he sounded fine." Feng Yuxiang nodded.

"Thank the heavens... If anything had happened to him..." Song Ling'er released a long sigh of relief after learning that Yuan was not harmed.

Eventually, Yuan managed to return to the Heavenly Melody Academy without any problems.

"Young Master!"

"Brother Yuan!"

"My Lord!"

Xiao Hua and the others immediately rushed to his side, feeling like an eternity since they last met.

"Hello, everyone. It's been a while." Yuan said to them with a gentle smile on his face.

"Yuan, I'm glad that you're fine, but where did you go for the past few days?" Song Ling'er asked him a moment later.

"It's a long story, so let's go back to my living quarter first," Yuan said to them.

As they began making their way to Yuan's temporary living quarters in the sect, Feng Yuxiang would stare at Yuan with a pondering gaze.

"Young Master, did something happen recently?" She decided to ask him.

"Huh? What do you mean?"

"I feel like you had changed a lot since our last meeting."

Yuan couldn't help but smile after hearing her words that Song Ling'er also asked.

"Yes, something did happen. How can you tell?"

"A woman's—"

"Intuition?" Yuan couldn't help but interrupt her.

Feng Yuxiang nodded with a dazed look on her face.

"If you need any help..." Feng Yuxiang then mumbled.

"It was an unfortunate event, but don't worry, I have already taken care of it," he said.

"If you say so..."

Once they arrived at his living quarters and were seated, Yuan began recalling his experience in the Fifth Heaven.

"So I was teleported to a place called Fairy Paradise in the Fifth Heaven..."

"Fifth Heaven?!" Song Ling'er exclaimed in a shocked voice before he could even finish his sentence.

"Yes, and I was imprisoned there for a few days because only females are allowed in the Fairy Paradise. In order to leave, I had to speak with the Fairy Empress and even had the help of the Royal Dragon Family there..."

"Sounds like you had it rough, Young Master." Feng Yuxiang said.

"Brother Yuan, how did you get back? The teleport formation that transported you was a one-way teleport." Xiao Hua asked him.

"I used a treasure called the Dragon Marble. It was given to me by Elder Xuan at the Dragon Essence Temple. It was supposed to be a life-saving treasure, but I ended up using it to get back here."

"A life-saving treasure that can teleport you from the Fifth Heaven to the Lower Heavens... It must have been an incredibly powerful treasure..." Feng Yuxiang mumbled.

"To be honest with you, I didn't think it'd work. My sudden disappearance will definitely cause some trouble for the Royal Dragon Family since I was staying there as a guest. I only hope that nothing too dramatic happens..." Yuan sighed, as he could only imagine what will happen to the royal family once they realize that he was gone.

"I doubt anything will happen. After all, they're the royal family. Why would they freak out over your disappearance?" Feng Yuxiang said, unaware that Yuan had temporarily taken the identity of a Dragon Emperor while he was there, which will definitely cause some mayhem.

Meanwhile, at the Royal Dragon Family, a few hours after Yuan disappeared, the Dragon King returned to his room.

"I have asked around about 'Zither Goddess' just like you requested and received some information! Are you available now?" The Dragon King knocked on Yuan's room.

When nobody responded, the Dragon King knocked on the door again.

After waiting for a few more moments, the Dragon King turned to look at the guards and asked them, "Did he leave while I was away?"

"No, the Dragon Emperor hasn't left his room."

"Then why isn't he responding?" The Dragon King mumbled to himself.

"Yuan! Are you okay?!" The Dragon King knocked on the door again, feeling a little anxious for some reason.

Eventually, the Dragon King decided to enter the room.

"Excuse me!"

However, to the Dragon King's surprise, the room was empty.

"Are you sure he didn't leave the room? What if he left but you missed it?" The Dragon King returned to the guards with a frown on his face.

"What? That's impossible! We have been watching the entrance since the Dragon Emperor went inside! Unless he left through the windows, we would've definitely noticed him leaving!" The guards exclaimed.

"The windows are still locked, and they can only be locked from the inside! Furthermore, why would the Dragon Emperor leave through the windows? That doesn't make any sense!" The Dragon King said.

"Actually! Now that I think about it, I sensed a slight disturbance coming from the Dragon Emperor's room a while ago, but it disappeared almost as soon as it appeared, so I didn't think too much of it." One of the guards said, unaware that he'd sensed the Dragon Marble's activation.

"Sh*t! I had even scheduled a meeting with the Fairy Empress for the Dragon Emperor! How could he suddenly disappear?!" The Dragon King cursed.

He then turned to look at the guards and commanded, "Find out what happened to the Dragon Emperor! I don't believe that he'd leave without telling us! Something must have happened to him and I want to know what!"

Chapter 627 - Kidnapped!

After commanding the guards to look for Yuan, the Dragon King gathered his family to notify them of the situation.

"What?! Senior Yuan disappeared from his room?!" Shen Shi exclaimed in a shocked voice.

And she continued, "Are you sure he didn't leave his room to go somewhere?"

"I have confirmed this with the guards— he hasn't left his room since he entered it, and the windows were still locked when I went to check on him." The Dragon King shook his head.

"Furthermore, the guards had sensed a disturbance inside his room before he disappeared, so there's a good chance that something had forced him to disappear."

"Why would anyone want to kidnap the Dragon Emperor?" Someone there asked.

"Maybe it's the Fairy Paradise! What if they released him so that they cannot be held accountable if anything happens to him afterward?!" Another person there speculated.

"That makes sense! How despicable!"

"It must be the Fairy Paradise! I found it suspicious how they allowed the Dragon Emperor to leave so easily!"

The majority of the royal family believed that the Fairy Paradise was responsible for Yuan's disappearance at this point.

"Calm down, everyone." The Dragon King eventually spoke.

"Although we are not always on good terms, I know the Fairy Empress very well. She is not the type to do something like this— at least I hope that's the case. Anyways, I will speak with the Fairy Empress later. Until then, you guys try to look for the Dragon Emperor."

"If he doesn't show up and the people from the upper heaven begins looking for him, we'll be responsible for his disappearance, as he'd disappeared while inside our territory! This will look incredibly bad for our royal family!"

The others began mumbling to each other.

Indeed, if someone had to take the blame for Yuan's disappearance, their royal family would be first on the list since Yuan had disappeared while staying in their family, and that could be disastrous for their family, especially since Yuan had connections to the one and only Dragon Ancestor!

"Uses whatever resources we have to find the Dragon Emperor! We will not rest until we find him or find whoever is responsible for his disappearance!"

Thus began the royal family's investigation on Yuan's disappearance that would lead them across the entire Fifth Heaven.

Meanwhile, the Dragon King went to meet the Fairy Empress outside the Fairy Paradise.

"Dragon King, why did you summon me? What is so urgent that you cannot wait for a few more days until my meeting with the Dragon Emperor?" The Fairy Empress asked him.

The Dragon King didn't want to waste any time and went straight into the topic, "The Dragon Emperor is missing. He'd suddenly disappeared from his room."

"What?" The Fairy Empress frowned upon hearing this information.

And then she spoke in a grim voice, "I hope you didn't call me here just to accuse me of kidnapping him or something like that, right?"

"To be completely honest with you, many people in my family believe the Fairy Paradise had something to do with his disappearance—"

Before the Dragon King could even finish his sentence, the Fairy Empress shouted in a loud voice, "You dare?!"

Her cultivation base exploded from her body, causing the surroundings to tremble.

However, the Dragon King remained calm and continued to speak, "Calm down, Fairy Empress. If I am going to blame you for his disappearance, would I even be here?"

The Fairy Empress retrieved her cultivation base after hearing his words, but the frown remained on her face.

"It's fact that the Dragon Emperor had disappeared, and he's only a Spirit Grandmaster, so it wouldn't take much effort for anybody above Spirit King to kidnap him. However, the question is who would kidnap him."

"I will tell you right now that the Fairy Paradise had nothing to do with his disappearance! If you dare blame us for it, we will not sit still and let you accuse us!" The Fairy Empress said.

If their Fairy Paradise takes blame for Yuan's disappearance and the god-like entity shows up, it would be disastrous for the Fairy Paradise.

In other words, unless they find Yuan, both the Fairy Paradise or the Royal Dragon Family could face severe consequences.

"I believe you, so why don't we cooperate to find out the real culprit behind his disappearance? If we don't find him and the people from the upper heavens show up, we'll both get in trouble."

The Fairy Empress didn't immediately respond and took a moment to ponder.

"Do you even have to think about this? If you don't help me, it will only make the Fairy Paradise look guilty! Furthermore, you imprisoned him for three days and even threatened to kill him!"

"Che!" The Fairy Empress coldly snorted.

"Fine, we will help you search for the Dragon Emperor."

"Thank you."

The Dragon King remained with the Fairy Empress for a little longer to explain the situation in more detail.

Meanwhile, in the Lower Heaven, Yuan was completely oblivious to the chaos that he'd caused by disappearing.

"Anyways, that's my story. What about you guys? What have you been doing for the past few months? Did you get a good look at the Lower Heavens, Yingying?" Yuan asked them after explaining his situation.

"Yes, I got to visit many places from all four continents. It was a great experience, and I even managed to increase my cultivation to the peak of Spirit Grandmaster from all the treasures we found." Lan Yingying said.

"Sounds like you guys had a great time," Yuan said with a smile on his face.

"What are your plans now, Young Master?" Feng Yuxiang suddenly asked him.

"Once I am done here, I will be challenging the Stairway to Heaven," he calmly responded.

"Eh? Really? I thought you wanted to explore the Lower Heavens a little more before leaving."

"That was my original plan, but I have more important priorities now."

He then turned to look at Song Ling'er and continued, "I missed the performance, right?"

"Don't worry about it."

"Do you still want me to do it?" Yuan asked.

"Of course! I will gather the disciples again! We will be ready for your performance tomorrow!" Song Ling'er eagerly nodded.

"Great," Yuan said.

Chapter 628 - Fourth Level Spirit Grandmaster

After letting Yuan know that she will gather the disciples tomorrow for his performance, Song Ling'er left the place.

"We have some time until tomorrow, so why don't you tell me a little about your adventure?" Yuan then asked the three ladies in the room.

"It honestly wasn't that exciting, as we'd spent most of our time wandering and killing magical beasts so that Lan Yingying could consume them." Feng Yuxiang said.

"That's fine. Even if it's boring, I want to hear all of it." Yuan said with a calm smile on his face.

Lan Yingying nodded, and she proceeded to recall their adventure with Yuan, which took up the rest of the day.

"I'm glad that nobody was hurt," Yuan said to them after hearing their story, as they'd encountered a few dangerous-sounding situations.

Of course, even though it sounded like they were in danger, the truth was anything but that, as they were all peak experts of this world, and with a Spirit King like Xiao Hua with them, it was impossible to get hurt even if they want to get hurt.

"What about you, Young Master? That is if you don't mind sharing." Feng Yuxiang asked him out of curiosity.

"Well, I had to fight a demon and was nearly killed," Yuan said with a bittersweet smile on his face.

"WHAT?!" Feng Yuxiang exclaimed in a shocked voice.

"D-Demon?! A real demon?!" Even Lan Yingying was startled by the news.

"Yes, a real demon."

"But how is that possible? I thought they only existed in the Mystic Realm..." Feng Yuxiang mumbled in a low voice.

"It was a sealed demon that had broken out of its seal after being sealed for many years," he sighed.

"Is this demon the reason why you're sad, Brother Yuan?" Xiao Hua suddenly asked him.

Even though he appears to be fine, Xiao Hua could tell that he was experiencing sorrow from his aura after staying with him for so long.

"Yes, this demon killed a precious friend of mine because I was too weak to defeat it."

"Too weak...?" Lan Yingying was in disbelief.

She had personally witnessed him fighting and defeating the Demon Lord that is at the Spirit Lord realm. If even he cannot defeat this demon, it must have been at least Spirit King!

Unbeknownst to Lan Yingying, the demon was only a peak Spirit Master. However, due to Yuan's situation and lower cultivation base, it was not something he could defeat at that moment. If it weren't for the Divine Paragon, Yuan would've definitely died on that day.

"I'm sorry you had to go through that, Young Master..." Feng Yuxiang said to him.

"Why are you apologizing?" Yuan smiled, and he continued, "I can only blame myself for being too weak, and I made a promise to myself that I will never make the same mistake again."

"If you need any help, just let us know, Young Master! I have plenty of treasures that can assist your cultivation!"

"Then I would like to temper my body whenever I am free. Just make sure you don't put that weird stuff inside this time..." Yuan said, as he could still recall what happened last time very clearly.

"I-I understand." Feng Yuxiang nodded with a bashful smile.

Sometime later, Yuan logged off the game to eat dinner with the others.

"I have managed to reunite with Feng Feng and the others," Yuan told Meixiu during dinner.

"How are they doing?"

"They're doing great."

"Who's Feng Feng?" Chu Liuxiang asked them afterward.

"They are our companions in Cultivation Online. We travel together as a group." Yuan explained.

"I see..."

"Speaking of Cultivation Online, do you want to play with us?" Yuan asked Chu Liuxiang.

"Honestly, I am not a big fan of that game. Although I admire their amazing world, it's too much work. I don't want to cultivate again from scratch, especially since I am already a Spirit Master in real life." Chu Liuxiang shrugged.

"However, if you want me to play with you, I won't refuse."

"Well, I am planning on challenging the Stairway to Heaven very soon so that I can ascend to the next world. I can take a few people with me, but once I leave the Lower Heavens, it will be very hard for me to return."

Chu Liuxiang pondered for a moment before nodding her head, "Okay, I will come with you."

"What about you, Meixiu? You're also coming, right?"

"Yes." She quickly nodded.

There was no way that she'd accept getting left behind while Chu Lixuiang follows him to the upper heavens.

After dinner, instead of going to sleep or cultivating like usual, Yuan returned to Cultivation Online.

"Feng Feng, I'd like to start tempering my body now if you don't mind," Yuan said.

"Of course! I have already prepared all the necessary treasures for you."

"Great."

Yuan then entered the bathroom with Feng Yuxiang.

After filling the large bathtub with hot water, Feng Yuxiang tossed a few treasures into the water, and it appeared to be less than what she used last time.

"Although there is less medicine this time, the effects are actually a little stronger than previously, so you'll experience a little more pain."

"That's perfectly fine." Yuan nodded.

"I will be waiting for you outside, Young Master." Feng Yuxiang then took a moment to make sure everything was done properly before leaving the bathroom to Yuan.

Once he was alone, Yuan removed his clothes and entered the bathtub.

He began absorbing the medicine shortly after.

"Ah! This is pain is a hundred times worse than the medicine bath I got at the Jaded Garden!" Yuan exclaimed, feeling intense pain all over his body.

While the pain wasn't that much higher than his last tempering in Cultivation Online, because it has been a while since he did it, he was no longer adapted to the pain.

After spending a few gruesome hours absorbing the medicine and enduring the pain that came from it, Yuan managed to breakthrough to the fourth level Spirit Grandmaster.

Chapter 629 - Performing For The Heavenly Melody Academy

Yuan emerged from the bathtub after absorbing all of the medicine, which helped him breakthrough to the next level of Spirit Grandmaster.

"Congratulations on your breakthrough, Young Master." Feng Yuxiang said to him when she noticed him coming out of the bathroom.

"It's all thanks to your treasures." Yuan smiled.

And he continued, "I don't really know how to repay you."

"You don't have to repay me, Young Master. I am your servant, thus everything that belongs to me also belongs to you."

"I am not that shameless to accept free things without returning a favor. Furthermore, it's all precious treasures that would definitely cost a fortune if you were to sell them. I cannot accept that much for free."

"However, the only thing I can really give you right now is my blood." Yuan sighed.

"Speaking of my blood... I haven't given you any of my blood for some time now. Do you want to drink some right now?" Yuan then asked her after realizing this.

Feng Yuxiang shook her head with a bittersweet smile.

"Is there something wrong? You are normally very excited for my blood." Yuan asked her.

"There's nothing wrong, Young Master. It's just that... I am afraid that you might cure my curse too quickly, forcing me to return to the upper heavens," she finally decided to reveal her reason for her hesitation.

"Isn't that what you wanted? To cure the curse as soon as possible?" Yuan raised his eyebrows in a confused manner.

"Indeed, that's what I wanted at first, but after spending some time with you, I realized that I wanted to stay by your side for a little longer. If I consume your blood and the curse breaks, my cultivation will no longer be suppressed, so I will have to return to the upper heavens, and I don't want that to happen."

Yuan remained silent for a moment before speaking, "If that's your choice, I will support it. Of course, if you ever change your mind or want to drink my blood, just let me know."

"I will. Thank you, Young Master." Feng Yuxiang nodded with a gentle smile.

"Anyways, I will be back later," Yuan said before logging off for breakfast.

During breakfast, Yuan asked Meixiu and Chu Liuxiang, "What do you two usually do now?"

"I spend most of my time cultivating," Meixiu said.

"I spend all of my time staring at your face." Chu Liuxiang responded with a calm face.

"..."

Although he wanted to say something about Chu Liuxiang's response, he didn't know what to say, as he was baffled speechless by her response.

Chu Liuxiang chuckled at his reaction and said, "I am joking, Brother Yuan. I only spend a few hours staring at your face. As for the other hours, I either cultivate or surf the internet for a headquarter for our faction."

"A few hours still sounds like a lot..." Yuan shook his head.

After breakfast, Yuan returned to his room and entered Cultivation Online.

Song Ling'er showed up to his living quarters shortly after, and Ai Wan was there with her.

"Yuan! I'm so glad that you're okay!" Ai Wan could finally feel relief after seeing his face.

Even though Song Ling'er had told her about Yuan's return yesterday, she still felt anxious for some reason. However, that feeling completely disappeared the moment she saw Yuan's face.

"I'm sorry for making you worried," Yuan said to her.

"No, I should be apologizing to you. If I didn't bring you there..."

"It's fine. It was a unique experience, so I don't mind it."

He then turned to look at Song Ling'er and asked her, "I forgot to ask you this yesterday, but what's going to happen to the Zither Goddess' immortal cave?"

"I have sealed it back up since there's nothing besides the teleport formation inside, and I don't want another person to fall victim and accidentally teleport to the Fifth Heaven. Although you were lucky enough to return with the Dragon Marble, I doubt the others will be as lucky."

"I understand. Thank you." Yuan said to her.

"Anyways, are you ready for the performance? The disciples will be gathered two hours from now." Song Ling'er asked him.

"Two hours, huh? I will use this time to warm up."

Thus, Yuan proceeded to spend the next two hours playing random songs on the zither to warm his fingers up even though it was unnecessary for someone at his level to do such a thing.

Once it was time for the performance, Yuan followed Song Ling'er outside the sect until they arrived at this spacious area that was a couple of miles behind the Heavenly Melody Academy.

"Wow, there's a lot of people here..." Lan Yingying mumbled to herself as they flew over tens of thousands of disciples from the Heavenly Melody Academy.

The disciples on the ground also noticed them.

"Look! It's the Sect Master!"

"Who are those following behind her?! I have never seen so many Spirit Grandmasters together at once until today!"

"I wonder what this gathering is about..."

A few moments later, Song Ling'er brought Yuan to this tall platform in the center of the sea of disciples.

She then turned to look at the disciples before announcing in a loud and clear voice, "I have gathered all of you here today to witness a zither performance performed by Daoist Yuan, who is a musical genius."

"What? The Sect Master gathered us for a mere zither performance?"

"The Sect Master wouldn't gather us for something ordinary."

"Hey! I recognize that man standing behind her! That's the person who played 'God Descends from Heaven' flawlessly at the Music Pagoda!"

"What? He's that rumored mysterious genius that everyone has been talking about lately?"

"Does this mean he'll be performing for us? Hell yeah! I have been dreaming of this moment since I witnessed his performance at the Music Pagoda!"

The atmosphere there quickly became rowdy.

"Whenever you're ready, Yuan." Song Ling'er said to him.

"What song should I play?" He asked.

"It doesn't matter... After all, whatever you play will turn out to be flawless," she smiled.

Chapter 630 - Seven Songs

Yuan took a moment to ponder what songs he wanted to play.

"Senior Song, I can play multiple songs, right?"

"Of course! You can play as many songs as you'd like," she immediately responded.

Yuan nodded and took a seat on the platform before retrieving his Soul Ensnaring Zither.

A couple of disciples there recognized the Soul Ensnaring Zither, as they'd tried to play it before.

"Is that the real Soul Ensnaring Zither?"

"The one that used to be owned by the Zither Goddess?"

"It's probably just a replica, right?"

"No, I heard that someone had managed to obtain it after successfully playing it."

As the disciples murmured to each other, Yuan pulled on the string of the zither and began his first of many songs that would be played on that day.

When the disciples heard the music note, they immediately closed their mouths and focused on Yuan, who was calmly sitting on the platform.

The first song that Yuan decided to play was something Fei Yuyan had taught him.

The second song was something from his own world.

The third and fourth song was something he learned from the ninth floor of the Music Pagoda.

The fifth and sixth song was also from the Music Pagoda, and it was on the tenth floor.

And lastly, Yuan decided to play God Descends from Heaven for his seventh and final song.

Yuan's performance that was played with barely any breaks in-between left the disciples there breathless. If he didn't take a few moments between each song, the audience would have collapsed from forgetting how to breathe.

Furthermore, if one looked at the crowd closely, one would notice many disciples sitting down in the lotus position, appearing to be cultivating, as they had received slight enlightenment from Yuan's performance.

"Is this good enough?" Yuan asked Song Ling'er after playing his last song, snapping her out of her daze.

"Y-Yes. That was more than good enough," she said.

"That's great." Yuan stood up and stored the Soul Ensnaring Zither back into his storage ring.

"Are you leaving now?" Song Ling'er asked him.

"Yes," he nodded.

As much as he wanted to look around the Heavenly Melody Academy a little longer, he didn't want to delay his ascension to the next heaven any longer.

"If you ever get the chance to visit again, our doors will always be open for you." Song Ling'er said to him.

"Thank you. I will definitely visit if I ever return to the Lower Heavens."

"Where to now, Young Master?" Feng Yuxiang asked him.

"Let's give the Dragon Essence Temple a visit before we leave, not to mention I have someone to pick up from that place," Yuan said.

After saying their goodbyes to Song Ling'er, Yuan and the others began making their way to the Dragon Essence Temple.

"S-Sect Master! Who was that young man?!"

The sect elders swarmed Song Ling'er after Yuan left the scene.

"A friend I made not long ago," she said with a profound smile on her face.

Meanwhile, at the Dragon Essence Temple, Sect Master Long Yijun sat before the high-ranking sect elders with a solemn expression on his face.

"Have we gotten any new information regarding the Spirit Grandmaster that suddenly appeared in our sect before flying away?" He asked the sect elders.

After Yuan returned to the sect using the Dragon Marble, the disciples that witnessed the scene had reported it to them, hence the current situation.

"They said it was a young man wearing black and golden robes... I can only think of one person with that description..." Elder Xuan said.
